Architect's Drawing of Proposed New Pointe Church

St. Paul Evangelical Lutheran Church expects to begin construction of its new church at Chalfonte and Lothrop, Grosse Pointe Farms, early this spring. The architecture is of modified Gothic design, cruciform in shape. Construction will be of brick with white lime-stone trim and slate roof. The church, including chapel, gallery and choir will have a seating capacity of about 500. The basement will serve the needs of Christian education and fellowship. The estimated cost is $200,000. The over-all plan calls for an adjoining parish hall to be erected as the next unit. The plot provides ample room for off-street parking, and for a parsonage to be erected later. The congregation will launch an appeal next Sunday for $75,000 for the Building Fund. St. Paul, one of the oldest Lutheran congregations in Detroit, was formerly located at Jos. Campau and Jay. For the past four years it has conducted services in the Jackson School, Marborough and Waveney.

Depredations of Car Gangs Come to End

Five Arrests, Confessions to Multitude of Thefts of Auto Accessories

The depredations of a gang of boys who have been bothering the Park police by a multitude of complaints that have poured in from irate car owners in recent weeks have been cleared up definitely. These complaints, frequently from attendants at the church services at Maryland and Goethe, and also from others living in that vicinity, as well as from persons living south of Jefferson have come in for the past several weeks.

Temporary Lull

The police thought a short time ago they had settled the trouble with the arrest of one of these youngsters, but after a short time the complaints came in again.

On Friday, March 18, Detective Stanley Enders arrested three juveniles, two 15 and one 16, all of whom were residents of Grosse Pointe Park.

One of these made a complete confession. Their thieving consisted principally of taking ornaments and mirrors and radio equipment that could be taken from the outside of the cars.

Two More Arrested

The following day Detective Enders arrested two more boys, aged 15 and 16 who had been operating south of Jefferson in the Park. The north and south groups had operated independently and unknown to each other.

All of the boys have been certified to the Juvenile Division of Probate Court.

They had taken items from 30 different cars.

School Board's Application For Permit to Erect Service Building Denied by GP City

Council Battles Against "Non-Conforming Use" Structure Proposed On St. Clair Avenue Property, Led By Chester Carpenter

The Grosse Pointe City council at its meeting on March 21 refused the request of the Board of Education to proceed with the erection of a brick service building for the school district on its property in St. Clair avenue.

When tentative inquiries were first made of council whether such a permit would be granted the School Board was given to understand it would. When it presented its plans however, it was found that they provided that a part of the proposed structure would be two stories high with an elevator shaft.

Would Shorten Lots

The plan also contemplated taking a part of the rear of the lots facing on Notre Dame, which also belongs to the School District, thereby shortening these lots to a depth of 105 feet.

A lengthy discussion ensued participated in by Glen Coulter, attorney for the School Board; President Bert Wickling and School Director Shirley Johnston for the Board of Education, and by Chester F. Carpenter, led by the City.

Building Called Necessity

Mr. Coulter maintained that while the building proposed was not for educational purposes per se, it was a necessary part of the administrative plant of the school district and hence was admissible under the law and the City's zoning regulations.

Mr. Carpenter was most pronounced in his opposition on the grounds that it was a non-conforming use and as such the property should not be extended farther in this direction. He said the City had taken a firm stand against the existence of non-conforming properties and this case came within this exact category. He further stated that he would vote, even if alone, against this permit.

Residents Agreeable

There was no objection filed by neighboring residents. On the

Captor Gets Driving Lesson From 11-Year-Old Car Thief

Wisdom has been exuding from the mouths of babes and sucklings since early Bible times. A resident discovered this still holds true when he caught a youngster trucking a new Buick off the Turner Buick parking lot on Kerecheval at Maryland at 4:20 p.m. on March 17.

Satisfied there was something off-color about the circumstances, he collared the sub-young and started with him to the Park station house in the same car.

But the citizen was more skilled in spotting would-be thieves than he was in driving the new Buick. His young prisoner, however, came to his assistance with skilled directions on driving the car, and they quickly landed at headquarters.

Here the police recognized an old offender with whom they had had many annoying contacts in the recent past. The youngster is only 11 years old but he has accumulated a lot of wisdom in his short but active career.

Being a juvenile, his name is withheld, but for safe keeping until his disposition can be arranged he was taken down to the Juvenile Detention Home.

Nab Trio Trying To Rob Store

Woods Patrolmen Hyde, Prietz, Plumb and Coats, on patrol duty at 1:25 a.m. on March 17, found three men trying to break into the Lochmoor Market.

They arrested Ronald J. Thomas, aged 19, of 1513 Montclair, Detroit; Ronald Meyers, 20, of the same address; and James Sower, 20, of 562 Manistique.

Busy Burglar Pulls 2 Jobs In One Night

Second and Third Robberies of Farms Residents In Three Weeks Occur on March 18

Two more cases of breaking and entering were reported in Grosse Pointe Farms during the week, making a total of three such robberies there within three weeks.

The Thomas E. Groehn residence at 304 Merriweather road, was broken into sometime between 6:45 and 9:30 p.m. on March 18. Entrance was gained by breaking a small glass in the back door.

Find Open Door

A maid was in the house until 6:45. When the Groehns returned at 9:30 they found the kitchen door open.

Mr. Groehn told the police a man's wrist watch, valued at $50, and a $200 diamond ring had been stolen.

The Russell White home at 257 Mt. Vernon was broken into between 6:45 and midnight the same night. Entrance was gained by removing a small storm window and breaking a panel in the dining room window. No one was in the house at the time of the robbery, Mr. White having gone out at 6:15 and returned at midnight.

Must Be a Writer

He reported as missing a typewriter valued at $70, a diamond ring valued at $300, a pen and pencil set valued at $17 and a $5 pen.

The first robbery of the month occurred on March 6 at the Alex Park home at 253 Lewiston road. Police are waiting for the family to return from Florida, to make a complete check before the extent of this robbery can be determined.

Detective Sergeant Elmer Labadie says he is convinced the three robberies are the work of the same individual or gang.

Uses Street Sign For Hitching Post

A complaint was received by the City police on March 16 from a resident near Notre Dame and Charlevoix, that someone was in the habit of tying a dog to a street sign and leaving him for long periods each day.

On investigation the police found that a newsboy who picks up his papers at a nearby point had been using the sign pole as a dog stable while he completed his rounds. The boy was instructed to leave his faithful companion at home.

CAR ACCESSORIES STOLEN

Carl Romano of 1216 Yorkshire reported to the police on March 14 that someone had stolen $36 worth of auto accessories from his garage.

Beautiful Property Made Available for Memorial Center

Sentiments of Heirs of Late Russell A. Alger In Making Gift To Community, Expressed in Letter of Selden Daume To Fund President Alger Shelden

Selden B. Daume, president of the Detroit Trust company, agents for the Russell A. Alger heirs, on Tuesday, March 22, delivered to Renville Wheat, attorney for the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund, two unconditional deeds for the Alger House property.

Accompanying the deeds was a letter from Mr. Daume, addressed to Alger Shelden, president of the Fund, expressing the sentiments of the Russell A. Alger family in giving this beautiful property to Grosse Pointe.

Mr. Shelden and Mrs. Shelden are at present vacationing at their winter home at Palm Springs, California.

Mr. Daume's letter to Mr. Shelden reads:

THE LETTER
Detroit Trust Company
March 22, 1949

Dear Mr. Shelden: The members of the family of the late Russell A. Alger, Jr. have read with approval your letter of March 17 last wherein you request that the property known as Alger House be deeded to your organization for use as a War Memorial as well as for other educational and cultural uses beneficial to the Grosse Pointe communities.

It has been the hope of the Alger family that Alger House might be used for just such purposes as you outline, and they are pleased that their home, which has been identified with their family for so many years, can now, through the instrumentality of your organization, not only commemorate the sacrifices of the residents of Grosse Pointe who served in the armed forces of our country, but also contribute to the life of our communities in a broader sense. Therefore, on behalf of the Alger family and at their direction it is my pleasure to enclose two deeds conveying to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund the title to Alger House with the hope and expectation that it will add to the enjoyment of our citizens for many years to come.

Yours very truly,
Selden B. Daume, President.

Pheasants' Foe Caught in Act

William G. Curran of 1005 Cadieux reported to the police on March 17 that early that morning he had observed a tom cat trying to stalk a pheasant. There are a number of pheasants on his place and Mr. Curran is attempting to protect them.

The police have notified the owners of the bird-hungry feline to keep tommy under control or dispose of him.

These beautiful birds are a common sight on the streets of Grosse Pointe and the police are most earnest in trying to protect them and welcome the support of the citizens in their efforts.

BOYS START GRASS FIRE

A grass fire was reported on Somerset in the rear of 1030 Nottingham on March 14 at about the noon hour. The fire was set by boys. It was quickly extinguished by the Park firemen before it had done any serious damage.

DAMAGE ESTIMATED AT $15 TO MRS. SAENGER'S CAR

Damage was estimated at $15 to Mrs. Saenger's car and $70 to the Mercury. Mrs. Saenger assumed all the blame for the accident.

Sunningdale Drive Paving Subject of Spirited Fight

Eighty per cent of the time of the Woods council meeting on March 15 was consumed in listening to a spirited argument between the Lochmoor Club representatives and the residents along Sunningdale drive.

The Sunningdale residents want that part of the drive between Sunningdale Park and Milk river paved, and the club is not so keen about it. Inasmuch as the club has the entire frontage to be paved on one side of the street it was impossible for the residents to bring in the required 51 per cent of the

Alger House Center Plan Gets Approval

Members Agree to Ask for Property After Hearing Complete Report

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund held a general membership meeting in the Neighborhood Club on Wednesday evening, March 16, and voted to solicit from the Russell A. Alger heirs the gift of Alger House as a War Memorial for use by the entire Grosse Pointe Community for educational, cultural and public purposes.

It was also decided: "In the event the gift of Alger House is obtained, that the Board of Directors be authorized to continue the exploration and development of plans for the use and maintenance of the property, including the development of any desirable amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of this corporation, and to submit such amendments to a later meeting of members, but any such amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall always provide that this corporation shall continue to be organized and to operate exclusively for charitable, educational or public purposes, so that it shall remain exempt from all liability for income taxes."

WATKINS PRESIDES

President Alger Shelden announced that inasmuch as the purpose of the meeting was to decide the Alger House acquisition, if the same was available to the Fund, he preferred not to act as the presiding officer of the meeting, and asked James K. Watkins, the vice-chairman of the Fund to take over. Mr. Watkins called upon John L. Kenower to make a report.

Mr. Kenower was a member of the original committee of five which had made a preliminary exploration of the utilization of Alger House for a war memorial, after it had been rejected as a public library site by the Board of Education, and was also the chairman of the Committee of Fifteen, set up by the Directors of the Fund, as recommended by the Committee of Five, to pursue the examination of the subject further. This committee's report was approved unanimously by the Directors at a meeting on February 23.

No Action Taken

When the bill was read Monday night there was no action taken. The whole matter seemed to be treated in fine good humor.

The suggestion was advanced by the legal department that the matter of the final financial adjustments called for at the time the City separated from the township in 1934, had never been completed. This was the ostensible reason for the negative action by the Council. It occurred to some bystanders at the meeting that it was a rather late date to bring up this issue, especially as it had not been urged when the City

Curiosity Brings Sudden Answer

Curiosity as to how her brakes would hold on the slippery pavement during the snowstorm on the night of March 18, was quickly but not satisfactorily answered for Mrs. Julia Saenger, of 9345 Charlevoix, Detroit.

Mrs. Saenger was driving along Lake Shore road near Edgemere at 9:30 p.m. when she made the test application of her brakes. Her car went into a spin and crashed into a 1946 Mercury being driven east on Lake Shore by Sigurd Walter Mansen, of 20404 Elkhart.

Damage was estimated at $15 to Mrs. Saenger's car and $70 to the Mercury. Mrs. Saenger assumed all the blame for the accident.

$185,427 in Sight

"The campaign for funds for a memorial library ended last summer. The latest available figures of the results of that campaign were included in the Treasurer's report which you just heard—$185,427 of pledges and $185,427 of resources on hand, i.e., cash, government bonds, uncollected pledges, etc., after payment of the campaign expenses.

The best estimate of the cost of the memorial library building was $252,000. The campaign was therefore over $300,000 short of the total. Those of us who were closest to the conduct of that campaign have felt that while some additional funds might be raised, nevertheless the amount needed to build the proposed memorial library was beyond the possibilities and beyond our hopes. No practical suggestion has been received that would indicate any probability that the added funds required to build that library can

Schweikart Mad
When Township Supervisor Carl Schweikart learned the following morning that the City of Grosse Pointe had failed on March 21 to honor the Township's bill for $4,700 for its share of the health service he was highly incensed.

"This action," he said, "plus the withdrawal of the Farms from the Township and its divorce from the township health service, indicates a studied plan to not only destroy the Township but what is of more immediate concern to the people of Grosse Pointe, destroy its public health service."

Political Maneuvers
"I do not intend to permit the political maneuvers of a group of local politicians to imperil the health of the people of this community without the people knowing about it. I have in mind particularly the health of the several thousand school children who are under the supervision of the township health administration. This health service for the children has always been of a high order and is recognized by the Board of Education."

Councilman Carpenter made a motion that the permit be denied. Councilmen Carpenter, Thornton Waterfall and Dexter M. Ferry, Jr. voted for denial. Councilman Sidney Morgan against denial and Councilmen Gerald Miller said he desired to withhold his vote until better informed. Councilman John Mack was not present.

After the meeting President Wicking stated the Board of Education would be in with another request this time for a one story structure and probably not contemplating the use of the rear of the Notre Dame lots.

Thinking of City
He intimated that if the City was not greatly concerned with taking street parking off the St. Clair avenue frontage, the Board need not get unduly excited over the matter.

The general consensus is that when the Board presents its amended request it will be quickly approved. Shirley Johnston intimated that the School District, which covers all of Grosse Pointe should not be kicked around by a single Pointe municipality, in its earnest efforts to improve its administration for the benefit of the whole community.

Woods Council Orders Removal of Eyebrows

At the Woods council meeting on March 15 the Commissioners directed the contractor to remove two concrete culverts that were left over when work was finished on a construction project. Varied Program Being Arranged For Sessions Scheduled To Be Held In Pierce Junior High School Auditorium On April 21 and 22

The program for the Family Life Institute to be held April 21 and 22 in Pierce Junior High School, includes among its speakers many well known educators.

Dr. Howard McClusky, professor of Educational Psychology at the University of Michigan, a most popular platform speaker who well understands the problems of children, parents, schools and communities, is particularly concerned with the reaction of what is referred to as "teen-agers." The topic for the evening's discussion, "Parents Can Be Experts Too," appeals to him, as he believes with most educators that the weak point in our educational system is the preparation of parents for their job. When parents fail, schools, churches and recreational agencies can never completely rectify the harm that has been done to the personality of the child.

University is co-author of a pamphlet issued by the Citizenship Education Study Group describing democratic citizenship and the development of children, which was recently referred to by the "Commentator." Her talk is expected to be of real value to either parents or children who are dealing with the difficult child—either aggressive or shy.

Dr. Thomas V. Hoagland, director of the psychiatric clinic at Receiving Hospital, affirms that psychosomatic medicine is the coming branch of medical science. More and more physicians are realizing that common illnesses such as ulcer, allergies, and heart disease are caused at least in part by the emotional reactions of the patients. Lay groups who have heard Dr. Hoagland say of him—"He is fine. He didn't talk down to us nor did he talk over our heads."

David Treat Returning
Grosse Pointers have eagerly awaited a return visit of David Treat since he appeared briefly at the Family Life Community meeting at Pierce Auditorium a year ago. His work with the Clare Elizabeth Fund at Flint is known all over the United States.

Mrs. Marjorie Cosgrove from the Highland Park school also appeared at the same meeting and many Grosse Pointe women have met with her this winter at a class she conducted at the High School. They have learned to respect and appreciate her fine understanding and gracious personality.

Dr. Ben Lyndon has contributed to the "Preparation for Marriage" course at the downtown YWCA, so is well prepared to evaluate the difficulties of marriage in America today and to contribute ideas to help the many people who are interested in making their own marriage as fine as possible.

Youth Panel Prepares Code
The Youth Panel which will attempt to set up a code will be assisted by John Tage of Howell, who says that the real value lies not so much in the rules that are decided upon as the discussion that leads up to the decisions. Like Ray Robinson of Ferndale, he feels that educators must be concerned not only with curricula but with the development of a community which brings out the best in its citizens.

Dr. James Cunningham, director of the Children's Center, believes that we must do more to prevent mental illness, hostility and insecurity, and that we must develop methods of reaching parents to help them before rather than after they have run into trouble.

Recreation Important
Dr. William Robinson, expert in Recreation of the University of Michigan, believes that a well-planned recreation is one of the best ways to decrease undesirable tension and an excellent way to build up community spirit, and kindness.

The above educators will all appear on the Friday program at one of the sessions or group meetings.
The Thursday evening meeting will be concerned with city planning. All over America citizens are becoming tremendously interested in the physical layout of their cities and recognize the need for careful planning in order to get the most value for their tax dollar. Mr. Edward Connor will be the speaker on this subject and he and his committee will be able to lead the discussion.

Fire Film Obtained
The program committee for the Institute received numerous requests to show the film, "Human Growth," used in the state of Oregon and described in Life magazine. Since only two copies of this film are owned in Michigan, interested Grosse Pointers are pleased that it could be obtained for use on Friday.

Large audiences are expected at all the meetings. Provision for the care of younger children in the afternoon has been provided so all parents can avail themselves of this program. It is hoped that all citizens will attend at least one session. There will be no admission charge as expenses for the Institute are being borne by participating organizations of Grosse Pointe.

The complete program will be printed in a later issue.

3 Cars Tangle On Mack Avenue

Three cars figured in a crash at Mack and Allard at 7:25 p.m. on March 19, when a driver pulled to the wrong side of the street to avoid a car backing out into Mack.

John Edward McCarver of Jefferson avenue, St. Clair Shores, told the Farms police he was driving his Chevrolet west on Mack and pulled left to avoid hitting the unidentified backer.

As he went over the center lane he hit a Chrysler being driven east on Mack by John Michael Hoey, of Bedford road, Detroit. Hoey's car was pushed into a Ford, also being driven east, by William J. Gudenau, of Seminole, Detroit.

Damage was estimated at $30 to McCarver's car, $100 to Hoey's and $40 to Gudenau's. Tickets were issued to all three drivers for an appearance in traffic court. The police said McCarver, although he has been living here for 15 months, has failed to obtain a Michigan driver's license.

6-Year-Old Boy Killed by Car

Rush Zimmerman, 6-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kent A. Zimmerman of 1154 Bishop, was fatally injured as he stepped from in front of a car parked on Kercheval between Grayton and Bishop at 5:45 p. m. on March 15, into the path of a passing car.

The car that struck him was driven by Harry J. Bayham of 1320 Cadillac, Detroit. There were several witnesses and all united in saying that Bayham was in no manner responsible for the accident.

The child was removed to the Bon Secours hospital where he died at 8:30 p. m.

FIELD FIRE
A field fire was extinguished by Farms firemen at 233 Merril weather road on March 14.

Loot Collected by Auto Accessory Thieves

DETECTIVE STANLEY ENDERS of Grosse Pointe Park goes through the tedious task of listing all of the loot recovered from the basements and bicycles of two groups of kids captured by the Park police last Friday and Saturday, March 18 and 19. According to Chief Louwers his department has cleared up all of the complaints received during the past month and a half on stolen car accessories, but there are still many articles that have not been claimed.

High School Pupils' Parents Asked to Attend Open House

Five hundred and fifty high school boys and girls attended the "Evening Variety" at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church last Friday evening. Four hours of fun featured dancing to the music of Ralph Allured and his orchestra and square dancing to Stanley Scottford's orchestra. Games, community singing and skits highlighted the evening's activities.

One hundred dozen sandwiches and more than a hundred dozen cookies, contributed by women of the church and community, were consumed by the crowd, to say nothing of the 30 gallons of milk and the 20 gallons of ginger ale.

The affair was planned and sponsored by a group of parents and young people working with the Tuxis Club, Senior Assembly, and Senior Choir of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. All high school age boys and girls of the community were invited to attend.

SOLVING RUG PROBLEMS

When small areas of a rug's surface have been crushed by furniture or the shuffling of feet, you can bring the pile back to normal by applying a hot iron on a damp cloth. Brush the pile briskly after this suggests Ruth Peck, extension home economist at Michigan State college. Rug corners which curl can also be remedied by applying a hot iron on a damp cloth to both sides of the carpet.

Reckless Driver Endangers Kids
Park Patrolman Stanley Johnson, on traffic duty at the light in front of the Pierce School on Kercheval during the noon hour on March 21, when the crossing was crowded with school children, saw a car run the light at 40 m.p.h.

Taking after him, Johnson arrested James Clayton, aged 40, of 11135 Worden avenue, Detroit, on Harvard road. Clayton had been drinking but not enough to wholly account for his recklessness.

He had a hearing before Justice John Potter that evening and was held in $100 bail for appearance at traffic court.

Prescott Brown Moving to Coast
Prescott G. Brown, of the engineering firm of Mason L. Brown and Son, and who has personally been the consulting engineer for Grosse Pointe, Village and City, since 1918, is leaving Detroit, He made the announcement at the City Council meeting on March 21st.

Deep regret was expressed by the Council members at losing the pleasant association which the City Council members at losing the pleasant association which the City has maintained with Mr. Brown for so long. He was given a heartfelt vote of thanks and appreciation by the council.

Mr. Brown stated later that he expects to leave Detroit about May 1. He will make his permanent home in Santa Barbara, Cal.

He has not severed his association with his old firm of Mason L. Brown and Son. He has engineering interests in the west and residence there will allow him a closer supervision of that work.

Following his announcement the City Council voted immediately to continue the City's official association with the Mason L. Brown firm.

Mr. Brown's brother Leslie T. Brown, will act in the same capacity for the city.

To Choose Most Talented Youths

Elimination hearings will be held on Monday, April 18, at the Masonic Temple, before the National Academy Scholarship committee to select the 10 most talented young people of Greater Detroit for the public scholarship contest to be held April 25.

If a budding Laurence Olivier or an Ingrid Bergman is rebelling against an unglamorous career and yearning for an artistic discovery, here is the perfect opportunity. A telephone call to Corinne B. Ferguson, chairman of the contest group and sponsor of the Clark Tree Major Children's Theatre Performances here, will serve to arrange a hearing.

One contestant from each city will be entered in the state contest at Lansing in May. Mrs. Major herself will be among the seven judges.

Father and Son Banquet Tonight

The annual Father and Son Banquet of Boy Scout Troop 290 and Cub Pack 290 will be held at 6:30 p.m. tonight, Thursday, March 24, in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. More than 200 are expected to attend.

Entertainment will be provided by films of the 1948 World Series and the Detroit Lions football games. Marshall Jameson, principal of Parcels Schools, will lead community singing.

Sam Toepel, 1914 Lochmoor, will be installed as Cubmaster of Pack 290 for the year starting in April, in an Indian ceremony.

Other officers are Norman Mooney and Edwin Gauss, assistant Cubmaster; Warren Wressell, chairman; Howard Wolf, secretary; John Grant, treasurer; T. A. Cotton was a business associate of Mr. Garth's.

Mrs. Herman Lade, den organizer; and Mrs. Neal Brenkert, program chairman.

Harry Findlay is chairman of the banquet committee.

A new anti-submarine destroyer will be named in honor of Vice Admiral Willis Augustus Lee, World War II hero.

Hospital Thanks Park for Donation

A letter from the Bon Secour Hospital authorities was read at the Park Council meeting on March 16 expressing the appreciation of the hospital for the check for $600 it had just received.

Several years ago the Park on its own initiative started the practice of donating $600 a year to the hospital for the service it renders in taking in and treating the emergency cases which are brought into it by the Park police.

The Park is the only municipality in the Pointe which makes such a contribution to the hospital. The hospital itself is in Grosse Pointe City and the City sends many police accident cases to the hospital every year.

Pointe Enjoyed Healthy February

The report of the Grosse Pointe Township Health Department, which also serves the City of Grosse Pointe, on communicable diseases for the month of February shows a satisfactory situation.

The only exception is in the appearance of 36 cases of mumps, of which 22 were in Grosse Pointe Park alone. There were 18 cases of chickenpox in all Grosse Pointe and other instances of communicable diseases were negligible.

Not a single case of communicable disease was reported from the Shores in the entire month.

In the whole area there were five cases of scarlet fever, five dog bites and one case each of measles, pertussis, impetigo and syphilis.

Park Policemen Receive Praise

A letter was read at the Park Council meeting on March 16 from Charles W. Garth written on behalf of the family of the late Benjamin F. Cotton who died suddenly in his home at 1147 Lakepointe on February 25. Mr. Cotton was a business associate of Mr. Garth's.

He said that he desired to extend the appreciation of the family for the sympathetic and helpful interest shown by Detective Hennig and Patrolman Dean at the time of Mr. Cotton's death.

Once every 50 minutes, on the average, someone is burned to death in the United States.

Park Council Hears Report On IM Police Radio System

A report was made to the Park Council on March 16 reviewing the progress that has been made towards getting into operation the Inter-Municipal police radio service.

It was stated that good progress is being made and the expectation is that in a comparatively short time the police radio work will all be under the Inter-Municipal system.

No action was taken on the proposal of the Township that the Inter-Municipal service should take over the operation of the police radio at once. This was proposed by the township at the general conference in the Park Council rooms on Saturday, March 12.

The backers of the Inter-Municipal system made it clear at that meeting that they were not prepared to assume control of the local radio by April 1 as the township board suggested.

The I-M proponents have asked the township to provide in its budget enough money to carry on until June 15. If they were unable to take over on that date the township would be expected to carry on thereafter and the Pointe municipalities, all of whom except the Woods have already entered into the I-M arrangement, would compensate the township for the cost following that date.

SPARE TIRE STOLEN.
C. A. Marynus of 275 Kerby road reported to the Farms police that someone had stolen the spare tire from his car while it was parked at the Woods Theater on March 12.

GREEN HORNET?
Farms police are seeking a green Ford which, according to residents of Provencal road, has been using that street as a speedway, even driving over some of the lawns at times.

Wage Schedules Review Requested

The A. F. of L., on behalf of its Municipal Employees union, sent a communication to the Park Council which was read on Wednesday night, March 16, asking for a review of the wage schedules paid its employees.

The matter was referred to the labor committee of the council.

Accidents Happen Fast in Farms

Two accidents occurred in quick succession in the Farms on March 18, the second one involving a police car that was taking persons from the first mishap to the hospital.

Jules Casteley, of 17575 Mack avenue, started to turn left off Moran road into Chalfonte. He collided with a car driven by Suzanne Keston, 16, of 782 Sunningdale drive. Both cars were going east. Both suffered damage estimated at $150 each.

Patrolman Roland, investigating the crash, loaded Suzanne and her passenger, Susan Riggs, of 1657 Broadstone, into the scout car to take them to Bon Secours Hospital for examination.

As he approached Kercheval on Fisher, the green light turned to amber. The street was slippery and seeing he would be unable to stop, Roland sounded the police whistle on the car. He skidded out into Kercheval and collided with a Ford being driven by Mitchell G. Duncan of 256 Merrilweather road. He injured his left leg and his daughter, Nancy, 20, was shaken up.

Damage to the scout car was estimated at $150 and to the Duncan car at $300. The girls in the first accident were released from the hospital after examination.

Hero of Fire Honored by Rotary Club

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club at its meeting on March 21 presented a portable typewriter to Eddie Collins' of 20675 Vernier circle, the Grosse Pointe boy who heroically distinguished himself at the Kehyon College fire at Gambier, O. on February 27.

It will be recalled that Eddie, by reason of his presence of mind and remarkable physical strength was able to rescue his pal and another boy by having them jump into one extended arm while he held on to a hot fire escape with the other. He was quite badly burned but is now well on the road to complete recovery.

Among his personal property lost in the fire, was a typewriter.

Radio Agreement Signed by City

On a motion adopted at the City Council meeting on March 21 Mayor Netting and City Clerk Neff were authorized to sign for the City the Inter-Municipal Police Radio System agreement which has been in preparation for some time to take over the Township police radio.

The Park, Shores and Farms have already signed up. The Woods, which has expressed itself as well satisfied with the present township radio, alone has thus far stood out against joining up.

The City's position from the beginning of this discussion was to await satisfying assurance that the new plan would go through before committing itself. Apparently the City authorities are now confident that the new plan is assured.

The Township Board on March 12 offered to turn over the township's radio establishment to the Inter-Municipal organization for immediate operation but the proponents of this system demurred, asking the township to carry on until June 15.

YOUNG STAGE MANAGER

Alice Fauser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Fauser, 1100 Lake Shore drive, is stage manager of "King Arthur," an original three-act play which Marygrove College will present April 30-May 1. Alice, a freshman, is a graduate of St. Paul High School. She plans to major in psychology.

The aircraft carrier USS Independence, which withstood both Bikini atom bomb blasts, is now in San Francisco.

Police Seeking Hit-Run Driver

The police are looking for a hit-run driver who side-swiped a car in Moross road just south of Lake Shore at 1:30 a. m. on March 19 and raced away from the scene of the accident.

Hubert S. Allard of 456 Notre Dame, reported to the Farms Police that he was driving north on Moross when a dark car, going in the opposite direction, scraped the side of his car, doing minor damage. The offender continued on to Lake Shore and turned left.

Allard turned his car around and gave chase, but he was unable to gain on the speeding hit-run driver. He gave up at the Shores Municipal Building and reported the incident to the police there. They sent out a radio message on the accident and notified the St. Clair Shores police.

Allard returned to the scene of the accident and found a hubcap from a 1946, '47, or '48 Plymouth.

To Build Walk In Kercheval Pl.

There was a discussion at the City Council meeting on March 21 of the advisability of laying a sidewalk on the north side of Kercheval place between Notre Dame and Cadieux.

A motion was finally adopted instructing the City engineers to make the necessary plans and proceed with the work.

Memorial Fund Approves Center Plan

(Continued from Page 1) be had either from private or public sources. Property Refused "At about the time these things became apparent last summer or early fall, the possibility arose that the former Russell A. Alger home on the lake shore might be acquired as a war memorial, and the members of the Alger family made known to the Board of Education their willingness to give the property to the Board for a war memorial library. After extensive investigation the Board of Education determined that the building and its location were not suitable for a central library and declined the gift with appropriate thanks. "Soon after this decision of the school board was made known, and in January of this year, a group of five citizens, Mr. Karl B. Goddard, Mr. Ernest C. Kanzler, Mr. John J. O'Brien, Mr. James K. Watkins, and I, addressed a communication to the Board of Directors of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund suggesting that Alger House could become a handsome and suitable war memorial used as a community center for educational, cultural and public purposes, including the possible use of part of the building as a branch or regional library. The five of us who submitted that communication believed at the time, and still believe, that we were expressing the views of a great number, indeed the great majority, of the contributors to the War Memorial Library Fund, and of the residents of the Grosse

Pointe communities. Authorize Committee "The Board of Directors of this Association met on January 14 and received this communication and authorized the officers of the Association to appoint a committee of 15, the majority of whom should be directors, to explore this subject further and to report back. The committee was specifically directed to take a poll of the contributors to the Fund as to their willingness to have their gifts and pledges used for the improvement and support of Alger House, if acquired, including the establishment of an endowment fund. "The committee appointed in response to this action of the Board of Directors consisted of the following: H. S. Barrett, George Beauchamp, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Vincent DePetris, George Elworthy, Karl B. Goddard, Mrs. Lloyd G. Hooker, Ernest Kanzler, James A. Lafer, Mrs. Charles B. Lord, Norbert Neff, John J. O'Brien, Mrs. M. M. Schaeffer, James K. Watkins and myself. Thorough Investigation "The committee reported to the Board of Directors on February 28. I would like to say, as Chairman of that committee, that the investigation made was as thorough as time permitted, and in my judgment was completely adequate to support the opinion and recommendations made by the committee. There were no dissents to the report, and the action taken by the directors present at the February 28 meeting was also unanimous and without dissent. "A count of the poll of contributors made today, March 18, shows the above results: "The committee heard from over 40% of the contributors. More than 5 out of 6 persons from whom we heard indicated, either on cards or otherwise, that their gifts might be used for Alger House, and those persons represent very nearly 90% of the indicated pledges. "Mr. Chairman, your committee and the Board of Directors feel that the effort should be made to acquire Alger House with the idea that it be used as a War Memorial Community Center for educational, cultural and other public purposes. We are confident that it will be of great value to the Grosse Pointe communities if put to such uses, that it will tend to bring our communities together and to provide our people with suitable facilities for cultural activities that presently have no home. It is the beautiful shore of Lake St. Clair that gives Grosse Pointe its distinctive character as a suburban residential area. Here is an opportunity for the public to participate directly in the enjoyment of the lake shore through something a little different than a recreational park or bathing beach. See Numerous Uses "We think the actual uses will be numerous and will be regarded highly important to the people of Grosse Pointe. My own belief, and this is shared by the committee, is that Grosse Pointe will have no difficulty in paying for the use of what it will come to enjoy. "The building can be admirably adapted to include a memorial hall for our war dead. For example, the walls of the marble entrance hall could carry their names suitably placed and forever recorded. Other facilities are there for the preservation of war records, trophies and the like. Great Opportunity "Ladies and Gentlemen, I do not know of any other community that has ever had the opportunity to obtain, without cost and free of debt of every sort, a property as beautiful and substantial as this, a property that on competent authority would cost $1,500,000 to reproduce, a property that is admirably located and suitable to become a distinguished and distinctive war memorial, a property that is well adapted to serve a variety of important community purposes—and to obtain that property under such circumstances as here exist, backed by the community and a fund on hand of approximately $200,000. "My enthusiasm for this project must not let me talk longer, but it is my pleasure and privilege to submit this Report to you, the members of this Association, with the sincere and strong recommendation of your committee and of the Board of Directors that the acquisition of Alger House be undertaken in the hope and expectation that our long and hard efforts to create an outstanding war memorial in Grosse Pointe can be brought to a completely successful conclusion. "I offer, therefore, the following resolution: Officers Resolution RESOLVED: "The members of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund record their confirmation of the belief expressed by the Board of Directors at its meeting February 28, 1949, that the lake shore property known as Alger House, if it can be acquired by the Fund, could become a magnificent and suitable war memorial for use by the entire Grosse Pointe communities for educational, cultural and public purposes. "The officers of this corporation are therefore authorized and directed to solicit the gift of Alger House from its owners, and if such gift is made then to accept the same and to express to the owners of the property the gratitude of the members of this Fund for such a generous and patriotic gift. Discussion Opened When this report and its accompanying resolution had been enthusiastically seconded, Chairman Watkins threw the meeting open to discussion. The only serious questioning of the subject came from a group of young men, chiefly from the High School, who were anxious to know to what extent the facilities of the Alger House project would be made available to youth interests and activities. They were assured by numerous speakers from the floor that there was no intention to ignore the youth interests of the community. The resolution was adopted with only one dissenting vote. Following the adjournment a large number of members lingered on to discuss with much enthusiasm the accomplishments of the meeting. Sheldon Congratulated Many individually congratulated Alger Shelden for the patience and perseverance with which he had pursued the War

Mrs. Eileen O'Neill, wife of Harold J. O'Neill of 760 Lincoln road, died in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital on March 13. The funeral was held on March 17 and burial was in Grand Lawn cemetery, Detroit. Funeral services were in St. Paul's church. Mrs. O'Neill was born in Detroit 47 years ago and had lived her entire life in the Detroit area. William Weigand, aged 63, of 17191 Waveney, who died on Saturday, March 19, of a heart attack, will be recalled by many Grosse Pointers as a former Chief of Police of Grosse Pointe City. He joined the local force in 1914 and was promoted to Chief in 1919, retiring in 1934. He is survived by his wife, Louise, three daughters and a son. He was born in Wayne County and spent all his life in this area. The funeral services were held on Tuesday, March 22, and burial was in St. Paul's cemetery.

Ina B. Sheldrick Dies at Age 60 Mrs. Ina B. Sheldrick, aged 60, wife of George E. Sheldrick of 44 Pine court, Grosse Pointe Farms, died in her home on March 17. The funeral services were held from the family home on March 19 and burial was in Woodlawn cemetery. Mrs. Sheldrick was active in the work of the Christ Episcopal Church of Grosse Pointe. She was born in Covington, Ky., but had lived in the Detroit area since childhood. She had been a resident of Grosse Pointe Farms for the past ten years. She is survived by her husband and one son, George E. Jr. Memorial project to its successful culmination. The general consensus of the group is that the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is an accomplished fact, awaiting only the working out of the numerous problems still to be arranged to make it a successfully operating community civic and patriotic enterprise.

550 High School Students Have Fun at Church Party

Parents of all Grosse Pointe High School and Brownell Junior High students are invited to attend the semi-annual open house next Monday evening, March 28, from 8 to 9:45 o'clock.

Each semester mothers and fathers of high school and junior high school students are given the opportunity to meet their children's teachers and very briefly discuss pertinent problems with them.

"Time does not allow for any lengthy conferences," commented Mr. C. E. Salter, assistant principal, "but it is sufficient to lay a solid foundation for future parent-teacher cooperation."

A room directory indicating in what rooms the various faculty members will be receiving, is to be supplied to each parent.

Student guides and parents stationed in the halls will facilitate the finding of rooms for those unfamiliar with the building.

Parents will be greeted and introduced in each homeroom by two room mothers, who will also see that no one group monopolizes the instructor's time. The entire event will be under the sponsorship of the Mothers' Club of the high school.

Purse Snatchers Quickly Nabbed

Two youths who grabbed a purse out of the hands of Marie Friedel, of 2176 Pennsylvania avenue, Detroit, as she was walking on the south side of Mack avenue at Nottingham at 7:49 p.m. on March 17 quickly lost their liberty after the crime.

At 7:55 p.m. Sergeant Anthony Walsh of the Park police arrested two boys on Charlevoix between Lakepointe and Beaconsfield. They were both from Detroit, aged 14 and 15. The boys confessed and led Walsh to the rear of 1442 Lakepointe where one had placed the purse.

Both were sent to the Juvenile Detention Home where complaints were filed against them by Detective Stanley Enders.

Denison's Glee Club to Appear

On its annual spring concert tour, the club is starting out from Granville, Ohio, Friday for Mansfield. Appearing in Toledo Saturday evening, the men will continue from Grosse Pointe Monday, going to Findlay, O.; Evanston, Ill.; Milwaukee, Wis.; and Muncie, Ind., on successive nights.

Soloists with the group are Douglas Krieger, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Krieger, 308 Moran road, Grosse Pointe Farms, accompanist and pianist, and George F. Lake of Mansfield, baritone singer.

Church to Show Passion Movie

The Men's Club of Messiah Lutheran Church, Lakewood and Kercheval avenues, will sponsor the showing of the new passion movie entitled "Christ the King" on Sunday, March 27, at 8 p.m.

A full-length feature film, "Christ the King" portrays the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus, the Messiah, in a fresh, moving manner. The showing at Messiah Church is among the first in this country.

The Men's Club of the church extends a cordial invitation to all to see this new awe-inspiring film.

Information Requested On Proposed Cab Stand

The City Council at its meeting on March 21, approved a taxi license for Raymond Le Blanc, provided he bring in a written offer for the location of his cabs.

Le Blanc says he has several offers for a site, any of which he can take up, but the Council decided it wanted positive assurance of a location of which it could approve.

His present purpose was to take a location on Kercheval place in the rear of the Shell Oil company station.

Camp Fire Girls Guests of Kiwanians

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club played host to the Grosse Pointe Optimist Club at a meeting held last Tuesday night, March 15, featured by the visit of a delegation of Camp Fire Girls. LOIS VAN ALLMAN, left, SUE RUNDE, center, and MARILYN MARR, represented the local branches of the girls' organization which celebrated its 39th anniversary last week. They are pictured with President CORNELIUS HUYSKEN of the Pointe Kiwanis Club. Marilyn Marr gave a talk on the activities of the Camp Fire Girls.

Group to Study City Park Needs

At the City Council meeting on March 21, Councilman Chester F. Carpenter asked for permission to arrange with some competent authority to prepare a long term and a short term plan for the development of the City's water front park.

What Mr. Carpenter referred to as a "short term" plan would be for the improvements to be made in the early future, while the "long term" plan would be for a gradual overall development of the lakefront park.

The permission was granted. The council committee in charge of the park is composed of Councilmen Gerald Miller and Mr. Carpenter.

Car Molesters Busy in Woods

The Woods Theater parking lot car molesters, who it was thought had been suppressed, are at it again.

Early in the morning of March 21 the police found a case filled with salesman's supplies lying on the ground. They identified it as belonging to Lyman E. Radford of 1714 Bournemout, who had parked his car on the nearby lot the night before. Mr. Radford's supplies were returned to him before he was aware of the theft.

The police believe when the thieves saw the contents of the case, they discarded it as of no value to them.

Americanism: Working hard to be able to do some of them things you want to do and dying before you have a chance to do them.

Local Graduates Do Well at "M"

Not a single failing mark in first-semester, freshman English blots the record of recommended graduates of Grosse Pointe High School entering the University of Michigan in 1948 and 1947, according to W. R. Cleminson, high school principal.

Reports of the marks of those entering in 1948 have not yet been received from the University. "The record of the two previous years should assure the community," observed Mr. Cleminson, "that the training of the high school English department is superior."

In the two years cited 109 students were recommended by the high school to the University of Michigan.

Nearly 50 per cent of the freshman English marks given these 109 students were A's and B's. Of the entire group only 3 students, less than 3 per cent, received D's. None received a failing mark.

BADLY CUT BY FALL

Mrs. Dean Hayes, an employe at the Francois restaurant on Fisher road, fell on the narrow sidewalk north of the building on March 17 and cut her leg and ankle seriously on a broken bottle. She was removed to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment by Patrolmen Teetaert and Dereadt.

Post Office Bow Double Stringed

The Post Office Department submitted a lease for execution at the City Council meeting on March 21 for the continuation of its use of the property it now occupies as the branch Grosse Pointe Post Office.

The lease if approved will continue the rental for five years from November 1, the date of the expiration of the present lease.

The rental, $1200 a year, will continue the same. The City pays the light, heat and water bills on the property, which amount to slightly over $400 yearly. The property contains 800 square feet on one floor.

Some days ago the P. O. Department posted a notice in the local office asking for tenders to build a new building, or remodel an old one according to Department plans, to be ready for occupancy on November 1 and containing a minimum of 1300 square feet.

Apparently the Department has two strings to its bow. If nothing better develops from its request it will continue on in the old site, which the local post office people say is entirely too small.

CARRIER BOY BITTEN

James Brown, 13, of 86 Mapleton road, was bitten on his right thigh on March 20 by a black French poodle owned by James McClintock of 37 Beverly road. James was peddling his papers when he was attacked. The skin was not broken. Mr. McClintock was told to keep the dog confined and under observation for 10 days.

Alley Vacating Request Granted

The petition of Teetaert and Wybo for the vacation of the alley parallel with Mack in the rear of their property, was approved subject to certain conditions, at the city council meeting on March 21.

It is required that when Teetaert and Wybo have taken over the alley, along which they own the property on both sides, they shall provide a service alley in the rear of the property twenty feet wide instead of the easement of 10 feet which now marks the present alley. It was further provided that this twenty foot alley shall be so located as to run uninterrupted into a similar alley to be located through the Staehelin property in the future.

Teetaert and Wybo purchased this site from the Wayne County Road Commission, out of property which it had had to condemn in the process of widening Mack avenue.

Scouts Prepare For Big Exhibit

A number of Grosse Pointe Scout Troops and Cub Packs are working on the exhibits and demonstrations which they will display at the Scouting Exposition at Convention Hall on April 21, 22, and 23.

Troop 86, sponsored by the Troopily School PTA, will demonstrate topographical map reading and the use of the compass.

Troop 96, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, will display the Aerodynamics Merit Badge requirements and exhibits craftsmanship.

Troop 147, sponsored by the Defer School PTA, will base its exhibit on the Personal Health Merit Badge.

Pack 147, also sponsored by Defer School PTA, will have a very colorful Indian Lore exhibition.

Troop 155, sponsored by St. Ann's Church, will demonstrate the Firemanship Merit Badge Requirements.

The Scouting Exposition will have nearly 300 other booths displaying and demonstrating various phases of Scouting skills and handicrafts. Adults and children alike will enjoy this huge show and come away with a new picture of Scouting. Tickets are now being sold by all neighborhood Troops and Cub Packs.

Irving Berlin made exactly 23 cents on the first song he wrote.

From Another Pointe of View

by

With Pointers heading the top campaigns in the city (with-ness Edwin K. Hoover and the Red Cross) . . .

Fame is overtaking us . . . (and to show just how clearly Grosse Pointe is established in the national mind, we heard a radio murder story in which the thugs had their hideout in these swank environs . . . the leader's name wasn't one we recognized, however) . . .

A serious word for a moment . . . there are just a few days left in which to put Detroit Red Cross over the top . . .

The Red Cross story can never really be told . . . it's something pretty sacred tucked deep in the hearts of all good Americans . . . whether they have benefited from its succor . . . or are so blessed that they'll never need its aid . . .

Mr. Hoover and so many other Pointers . . . are joined in this campaign to raise fund without which the Red Cross cannot carry on . . .

If you haven't already answered the Red Cross' call . . . won't you let us remind you to do so today . . .

Sub Deb Leslie

It seems that while we weren't looking . . . little Leslie DeVoy, daughter of the smart and simply stunning Virginia DeVoy of the Pointe . . . Grew Up . . .

To the point . . . where the Spring holiday from Detroit Country Day School . . . finds her angling for sailfish and other sporty fare . . . down there in Pompano, Fla. . .

She is visiting her mama's great friends . . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shields at their Winter home . . .

Sometime during her holidays . . . Leslie will journey to Palm Beach . . .

Where her aunt . . . Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe is finishing off a lush Winter with Mr. and Mrs. William Taggart (of oil fame) and Mrs. R. is planning a frolic for any and all of Leslie's contemporaries from Country Day who may be Wintering at Palm Beach at that time . . .

Blue Mole Cape

Mr. Ruwe, who accompanied Mrs. R. to Cat Cay and the Frederick S. Stearns houseparty . . .

Has already returned to these chilled shores . . . and is exceedingly handsome in his sun tan . . .

Saw Miss DeVoy the other day . . . and besides missing her child (who has gotten to the stage where High Heels Fascinate!) . . . was looking elegant as all get-out with a navy Summer outfit topped by a navy mole cape . . .

Summer Home

We say "chilled shores" . . . but there have been many spring like days of late . . . and they must be welcome to the score of Pointers . . . who Summer on the Canadian Shore . . .

Uses of Alger House

At the meeting of the Memorial Fund in the Neighborhood Club on March 16 a group of boys, chiefly in the High School age brackets, were present to urge for a larger participation of young people in the project. While they were aggressive and spirited in exhibiting their "Gangway for Youth" theories, and were appropriately rebuked by one of the women present, their arguments did emphasize the necessity of setting the public understanding of the purposes and uses of Alger House aright at an early moment.

The Alger House development is to be first and always a memorial to the young men and women of Grosse Pointe who served in World War II, and especially as a beautiful memorial to those who died in the service of their country. This should never be overlooked nor lost sight of by this community.

It was the early conclusion of those who first considered the War Memorial project that it should be a living memorial, i.e. serving a continuing and useful service for all of the people of Grosse Pointe. No particular group or class or any other subdivisions of our population are to be picked out for special preference. Unless this policy in its administration is adhered to, the whole finely-conceived project will be a failure.

The project when completed must have a head, its direction will vest in the persons who contributed the money to make it possible. They are in a sense the stockholders in this enterprise, but, whether they have contributed $50 or $5,000, they are all equal owners.

The directors of the Fund will have general supervision but behind these in turn there must be a body, whether called trustees, executive committee or whatever designation may be decided upon, who will have the immediate charge and administration of the property.

Much of its success will depend on the tact, judgment and fairness with which this "Committee" does its work. Just what measure of authority will be vested in this executive committee cannot now be known, but obviously it will have to be charged with the day-by-day control and administration of the property. The first few months or year or two of its operation will be trying ones for this committee. To determine who shall use the property, and how and when, will call for good judgment and a broad conception of the intended uses of the place.

But with good judgment and sensible administration especially in its early months this property undoubtedly will prove a great factor in building a worthier community life in Grosse Pointe.

If a situation ever arises where a difficult distinction must be made between applicants for its use the decision should incline towards those in whose honor it was conceived.

A Message to Communism

One issue, and that of paramount importance, upon which an apparently otherwise hopelessly divided Congress seems to be united, is the ratification of the North Atlantic Security Pact. Informal polls made of the membership of the Congress by correspondents and news agencies on the spot indicate an overwhelming majority in favor of the Pact.

This should go far to convince the public mind of the wisdom of its conception.

Secretary of State Acheson has issued a White Paper on the subject which is clear to the point of bluntness. It is first to be purely defensive in character. The Pact was conceived as a mighty arm of the United Nations to implement the great purpose of that world organization for peace at a time and in a place where it was momentarily unable to function.

The charge that it is provocative and aggressive, which the Communists raise in Moscow, is pure buncombe for home consumption.

The Pact arrives at a moment of deadly peril to the world of freedom and democracy. The danger is far greater than that which existed with the two Germanic attempts at world rule. These never presumed to be more than an attempt to strengthen and glorify a single race and nation, by military conquest. The Russian attempt is to press by arms, by subversion, by indoctrination, by civil discord and by every weapon of treason or anarchy for the suppression of freedom and self government in every land where it now exists. They have frankly stated from their beginnings their purpose to destroy, "by force if necessary," every government and every unit of human society which does not yield to their overlordship.

The states of the Western or Free World have in this pact served notice that it is not their purpose to be compelled to meet this issue, disorganized and materially unprepared. At last there is evidence that we are learning from the experiences of the past.

First Round Knock Down

President Truman has fallen on evil days in his attempt to carry out some of those campaign promises he dished out with such a free hand.

Three times in a row last week he was curbed. The most prominent of these was in the failure of his attempt to put through his Civil Rights program. He has learned too late that the very stronghold of his own party will not tolerate any radical departure from a political and social way of life to which they have been committed from time immemorial.

The groundwork for this upheaval was of course laid more than eighty years ago, when in the political heat of the Civil War era the nation by constitutional amendment admitted the former slaves to full citizenship. This ill-timed move delayed the economic rehabilitation of the South for two generations.

It was right for the colored people of the South to have been given the opportunities for citizenship but not as an immediate right. Citizenship should have come to them gradually and on a basis of qualification and merit. The sudden enfranchisement of the Negroes was the greatest disservice ever rendered this nation by a political party and the Repub-

Grosse Exaggerations

"Oft when I feel my engine sverve, As o'er strange rails we fare, I strain my eyes around the curve For what awaits us there. When swift and free she carries me Through yards unknown at night, I look along the line to see That all the lamps are white." (Cy Warman)

Our sermon today children, will be on the subject of Allergy. This was brought on by a book review we read, a book on allergy written by some doctor. This doctor-author sez that almost all of us have an allergy to something or other and that nine times out of ten our allergy is heightened by an emotional strain or frustration; that a great deal of it is merely in our noggin or cranium... which must be akin to having a bee in your bonnet. In short, my girl, those hives that came out on your phizog are NOT due to that pickle you just ate. The pickle had nothing to do with it. It was your husband, eyeing the blonde at the next table, that brought out those itching red welts.

Do you get an attack of sneezing at the bridge table... and blame it on your "rose fever" when there isn't a rose within a hundred miles of you? Nonsense. What you need is four or five good hands in a row; a couple of grand slam bids and a hundred and fifty honors occasionally... and your sneezes will vanish like the wind. Do you become ill at the sight of a mealball? Nothing to it. You probably owe someone money and you just happened to remember it. Get the idea?

What gets us is that our grandma never mentioned the word "allergy" to us. If we sneezed we get a chest rub of goose fat, a stocking tied around our neck and a whopping dose of something that tasted fierce. That learned us not to sneeze in front of grandma... "allergy" to us. If we sneezed, we got a chest rub of goose fat, a that was the last pomegranate we ever got and incidentally, the last hives... so our frustration must have taken another turn that we don't recall. Yes sir! If we'd said "allergy" to grandma she would have looked at us with a blank stare, as if we'd suddenly yelled "radar" or "jet propulsion" or "flying discs."

At a dinner party in the Pointe recently (the guests all being music lovers), Madame La Hostess entertained by playing album after album of records. A couple present had just been to New York and came back full of "Kiss Me Kate"... the story, the words, the music, the costumes and on occasion, even the dances. Everytime anyone played a record from the show, the little woman would get up and twirl about or her husband would whistle along with the record or worse still, they would both SING along with the tenor and soprano. Naturally, they asked their hostess to play the album from "Kiss Me Kate." The other guests, knowing what was coming groaned slightly and half-heartedly seconded the motion.

The host, sensing their ennui at the prospect of the Soandos talking, prancing, recalling and humming all through the performance, decided to take matters into his own hands and add a little stimulant. He very carefully placed the records on the turn table and surreptitiously added one (somewhere about the middle) of Marian Anderson singing "Willow The Weep."

Sure enough, the couple went through their usual routine of "Oh dear... remember this one?"... or "THIS number was glorious, they all did etc. etc." Finally, the "secret" record started as Marian Anderson's incomparable voice was heard. The "Kiss Me Kate" fans looked at each other for a moment, then the little woman brightened. "Remember THIS one dear?" He looked blank. "Why CERTAINLY you do. Remember when that oh what's her name... YOU know... sang this in the second act?" She then began to hum along with Miss Anderson... the better to refresh her husband's memory. That's all there was to it. No one said a word but all the guests somehow felt a little happier about the whole evening. The hostess tells us that the last thing she heard as the Soandos went down the walk to their car, was the little wife saying irritably to her husband, "I CAN'T understand your not remembering that song from Kiss Me Kate. You looked so stupid when I recalled it to you. Tsk, tsk, tsk."

These are the little things that make life more gleeful when you have to try to reach big-shot business men on the telephone at their offices. The usual routine is that Mr. Soandos is out to lunch or out of town or just plain out. HOWEVER, our spirits were lightened no end the other day when we telephoned an executive of no mean order and after reaching the girl in charge of his innersanctum-sanctorum, were told to "hold the line." Hold we did and prepared we were to give thankfulness for this streak of good fortune. In a moment or so, BACK came the little secretary sounding as secretive as all get out. Lowering her voice so that we could scarcely hear her, she said, confidentially, "I think Mr. Soandos is in the little boy's room. Could I have him call you back?" Now we've heard EVERYTHING!!

licans have had to carry the responsibility ever since. To clear the way for his Civil Rights bill it was necessary to provide a chokeoff on the interminable filibuster the Sutherland Senators were certain to wage. So they conducted a filibuster for the privilege of filibustering and won, thereby creating an entente cordiale between them and the Republicans which may haunt the administration through its whole course.

We are not convinced that this mementary split with the Democrats will long endure. They have to hang together to carry on in power and this temporary powder flash having accomplished the purpose of its Southern members the unterrified may be expected to be together again soon in the same old give and take, plus patronage, game.

Ambassadors of Good Will (?)

The other day some American blue jackets, apparently on a drunken fling in Havana, grossly insulted the Cuban people by climbing aboard the monument of one of the Cuban national heroes, Jose Marti, who gave his life for Cuban independence in 1895.

The properly enraged Cubans chased the sailors away, possibly manhandled some of them, then staged a riotous protest before our Embassy. Ambassador Butler had the quick sense and decency to make an instant apology in the name of our Government.

Incidents of this sort are a deep humiliation to the American people. All of the labored efforts of our diplomats and right thinking people to build up a goodwill sentiment between us and our foreign neighbors suffers a discouraging setback by such stupid escapades.

The wearers of our uniform are peculiarly the representatives of this country in the foreign ports where they appear and their conduct and bearing have great influence in determining the feelings of the masses of the people towards us.

Happily incidents of this sort are much rarer now than they used to be. The care in screening out service men practiced by the Government has resulted in getting a higher type of men in the sea service than was the case in the old days when it was a common practice for judges to "sentence" a recalcitrant youth to a term in the Navy, much as they would now send him to a reformatory.

America wants no men of this sort in its services. When such break loose they merit quick and severe punishment, which it is understood was meted out in the Havana case.

One may imagine the public reaction there would be if sailors of a foreign country visiting one of our port-cities should desecrate and insult the statue of George Washington. It would be a complete parallel to the case of the statue of Jose Marti.

Police Checking Brakes, Lights

Within a period of just seven days last month two persons met their death on Detroit streets because of defective brakes on motor vehicles — two persons killed because of bad brakes.

According to records of the Accident Prevention Bureau of the Detroit Police Department, Jess Gutierrez was driving a DSR bus west on Newton at 20 to 25 mph, and when he attempted to stop at St. Aubin "the brakes were defective and failed to hold." He went into the intersection and struck a car going north on St. Aubin. Bronislav Bialkowski, a passenger in the struck car, was seriously injured and taken to Receiving Hospital where he died six days later.

The APB also reports that just seven days later John Passalacqua was driving a 1946 sedan west on Plymouth at 30 to 35 mph in a 35 mph speed zone when 60 feet west of Abington he struck James B. Murra, a pedestrian who was crossing Plymouth from south to north. He was taken to Redford Receiving Hospital but was dead on admittance. Police said the brakes on the car were defective.

According to the latest police survey, one out of every three cars tested in Michigan is in unsafe driving condition. For that reason police are now checking brakes and lights.

The Traffic Safety Association urges every motorist for his own protection to make sure his car is in safe driving condition. Remember: POLICE ARE CHECKING BRAKES AND LIGHTS.

STUDENTS DO "FAUST"

Robert Lawrence, son of Ralph Lawrence of 473 Cloverly road, Grosse Pointe Farms, was one of a group of students in the Advanced German classes of Western Michigan College who went to Ann Arbor last week-end to see a production of Goethe's "Faust" given by students in the department of German Language and Literature and the German Club of the University of Michigan at the Lynd Mendelssohn Theatre. The event commemorated the 200th anniversary of the birth of Goethe.

Motorists now pay 25 per cent in taxes on cost of five gallons of gasoline, currently sold (net) in Lansing for $1.03. State gasoline tax is 15 cents, federal gasoline tax 7 1/2 cents, state sales tax 3 cents. If the state gas tax were raised to 5 cents, the tax would be 33 per cent on the bill paid.

Workers hired by firms in intrastate commerce would be given the right of collective bargaining under a "little Wagner act" bill approved by Governor Williams. The measure would permit a three-member state labor relations board to hold elections to determine the bargaining agent desired by a majority of employees. "Cease and desist" orders could also be issued against employers.

Another measure, blessed by Governor Williams, would revise the Bonine-Tripp labor law to eliminate requirement of a strike vote by majority of employees before a legal strike call be called. Waiting period before a strike could be called would be cut from ten to five days, except in hospital and utility strikes where a 30-day "cooling off" period would be retained. The State Supreme court ruled that compulsory arbitration in public utility disputes was unconstitutional.

Unemployment compensation coverage would be extended by another Williams-approved bill to employees of firms which pay a minimum of $150 weekly in wages. At present firms which hire eight or more workers are taxed. Maximum weekly payments also would be raised to $42 for 26 weeks, as contrasted to the present $26 weekly for 20 weeks.

The cost of all government—local, state and federal—will approximate one-third of the national income in 1949, reports the United Press. "New taxes are being proposed in nearly every state to help balance rising budgets."

Taxes levied in Michigan for county, municipal, school and other local units, increased 13.78 per cent during 1948, according to the state board of assessors.

Former Governors Harry F. Kelly and Wilbert M. Brucker are being mentioned prominently as possible contenders for the United States senatorship to be vacated by Senator Vandenberg in 1952. Kim Sigler didn't appear at the Republican state convention in Grand Rapids. He is vacationing with Mrs. Sigler at Fort Lauderdale, Florida, also the winter retreat of George R. Averill, his executive secretary in 1947 and 1948.

Holds Important Hospital Post

(Editor's note: This is one of a series of "inside views" showing what modern hospital care means to the individual patient and to Grosse Pointe. The Greater Detroit Hospital is beginning to campaign to assemble $19,720,000 to help enlarge ten leading hospitals and build four new ones in this metropolitan area. The over-all program includes the addition of a new wing to Cottage Hospital.)

Preparing and serving approximately 76,918 meals a year, including many to patients who require special diets, is the service made available to people of Grosse Pointe by the dietetics department of Cottage Hospital. Supervising this great task is MISS MARION STALSMITH, the dietitian at the hospital. Her task is two fold: The preparation of diets ordered by physicians, and pleasing the palate of sick people—many of whom often are hard to please. Doctors declare that she is fulfilling the first part of her task; and the patients themselves praise the food, indicating that she also fulfills the second part.

Acts as Curative Food sometimes acts as a curative agent by supplying certain substances, of which the patient has a deficiency, that build tissue, increase energy and regulate the functions of the various organs of the body. These substances include iron for the blood, calcium and phosphorus for the bones, vitamins for growth, carbohydrates and fats for energy and others for regulating bodily functions.

Often, food is the ally of the physician in checking disease or eradicating it and restoring the patient to health. Proper diets, well-balanced meals, promote recovery and generally safeguard the health of the patient. Special diets are essential in the treatment of such ailments as diabetes, Bright's disease, liver and gall bladder disorders and diseases of the digestive tract.

Need Exact Care In such instances diets are prescribed by the physician and they must be prepared with the most exact care both as to quantity and constituents. Usually the food is weighed to the fraction of an ounce and must be entirely eaten by the patient to afford maximum benefit.

All this work comes under Miss Stalsmith's supervision, but it is only part of her responsibilities. The buying of dishes and tableware, the hiring of cooks and other kitchen personnel and the attractive arrangement of trays as well as the transportation of food to the patients in a hot and palatable state, all are part of the dietitian's responsibility.

To Build New Wing To meet the growing needs of the community, Cottage Hospital plans to construct a new wing, which will almost double the present capacity of the hospital. This will, of course, mean that the task of the dietitian and members of her staff will be greatly increased. They will, however, Miss Stalsmith says, maintain their present high standard.

Parties Planned By Future Debs

Two debutantes-to-be will think about plans for their coming-out parties during their spring holidays from classes. Mary Caroline Carter, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William T. Barbour of Oldbrook lane, will bow at a June tea to be given by her mother, Mrs. Harland Walter, in her Birmingham home.

Carrie, whose vacation from Briarcliff Junior College begins March 29, will sail for Havana and Nassau with her father, Alan Carter, of Baltimore.

Anna Louise arrives home next Thursday from Bradford Junior College, bringing with her fellow freshman, Jennifer Carr, of San Francisco, as her house guest.

Mothers' Health Council Meets

School personnel, delegates and guests had the pleasure of hearing three Grosse Pointe High students play chamber music during the monthly meeting and a tea of the Mothers' Health Education Council on March 15. Misses Jean Corey and Alice Schlaepfer played clarinets and Miss Shirley Krueger, piano.

Speaker for the meeting, which was held in the home of Mrs. James Ogden, was Maryalice Quick of the mental Health Dept. of Lansing, Michigan.

The discussion which followed the showing of the film, "The Emotional Need of Childhood," pointed out that the basic needs for security were the love of a child's family, of himself and his social group, and that as children learn through perception and example, it is necessary that parents and teachers be "secure" themselves.

A child's emotional needs can be met if he is allowed to be a responsible member of the family; to have freedom to express his own needs; to be allowed to make decisions; by being needed in a group; and by parents and children having fun together.

Receiving with Mrs. Ogden was Mrs. Stanley McKenzie, honorary member and founder of the Council. Presiding at the table were Mrs. Ethel Crowe, principal of Trombley School; and Miss Ethel Tucker, principal of Mason School. Among those who attended were Mrs. Pohlman, Mrs. Ruth Flom, Miss Forsythe and Mr. M. Jameson, principal of Parcels School.

Assisting hostesses were Mrs. L. McKinney, chairman of hostesses; Mrs. B. Chambers, Mrs. W. Jensen, Mrs. James Blean, Mrs. Edw. Kay, Mrs. Alex Leete, Mrs. G. Nicholson, Mrs. Earl Walke, Mrs. R. Jackson, Mrs. Victor Taylor, Mrs. M. Siewers, Mrs. A. E. Gaddy, Mrs. Garnet Smith and Mrs. Fred Dickley.

Tracy Motors Takes Step Toward Capturing Trophy

Beats Swishers To Move Nearer Possession Of Optimist Club Prize: St. Clare Notches Victory In Red Hot Battle With Hanson Chevrolet

By Fred Runnells

The Neighborhood Club's post season basketball tournament got underway last Monday night, March 21 with a triple header program which was witnessed by the biggest turnout of the season.

Tracy Motors took a big step towards capturing the Optimist Club Trophy when it downed a stubborn Swishers team 39 to 24 in the 7 o'clock Minor League game.

St. Clare Wins

St. Clare notched its first tournament victory in a viciously fought battle with Hanson Chevrolet, winning 39 to 35 in the final minute of play.

St. Clare held a slight advantage throughout the first half of the game but found itself on the short end of a 26-25 third period score. Leading by two points, 37-35, with less than a minute remaining, St. Clare clinched the game when Bob Messmer fouled Hitchens as he drove in for a lay-up shot. Hitchens suffered a gash above his right eye as the result of the foul and was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment. Harvey Pierce made good on the free throws for the clinching points.

Bob Messmer plopped through 18 points for Hanson's losing cause.

East Side Gear Victor

In a rough and tumble game, which resembled football more than basketball, the League champion East Side Gear quintet jumped into the driver's seat along with St. Clare when it defeated Old Brick Inn 50-43.

Joe Schaffner swished 22 points for Old Brick to take individual scoring honors.

The Grade School post-season tournament got underway Thursday, March 17, with the league leading Jets whipping St. Paul 27 to 9.

Dick Tucker of the Jets captured scoring honors with 14 points.

St. Ambrose Forfeits

St. Ambrose failed to show up for its game with St. Clare on Friday, March 18 and forfeited.

On Saturday, March 19 the Jets made it two in a row by defeating St. Clare 20 to 17 in an overtime contest.

The score was knotted at 13-all at the end of the regulation playing time.

Leonard Anderson hooped the winning marker with less than a minute remaining in the three minute overtime period.

MARKSMAN MUTED

The residents at 620 Washington road complained to the police on March 12 that someone had shot a bullet through both the storm and inner window of a bedroom in the house. The attack was traced down to a 13-year-old boy living in the neighborhood and the police confiscated the artillery.

Upset Produces 3-Way Tie In Neighborhood Club Loop

By Fred Runnells

After fourteen weeks of competition in the Minor Division of the Neighborhood Club Basketball League, a champion still remains to be crowned.

On the second last night of play, Tuesday, March 15, St. Claire upset the apple cart when it surprised the league-leading Tom Boyd quintet 33 to 31 and created a two-way tie for first place between Tracy Motors and Tom Boyd. Four nights later, Saturday, March 19, the second place Swishers took the much beaten St. Paul team in stride, 37-23, and moved into a three-way tie for first place. It appeared a one-game playoff for the title would be necessary.

However, Athletic Director Bill Desrocher announced that seeing all three teams were the only ones eligible for the post season tournament the season champion would be determined in the two-game knock out tournament on a winner take all basis. The winner of this tournament will receive the Optimist Club Trophy and the Neighborhood Club Trophy.

The Francois Bulldogs bowed out of the basketball picture for 1949 in the second game of the March 15 triple header program at the club, when Old Brick Inn racked up a 43 to 34 victory to move into a two-way tie for second place in the Major Division with St. Claire, which dropped its last game of the season the night before to East Side Gear.

East Side Gear cleared the last hurdle in its path to the 1949 title by beating Jefferson Nash 58 to 39.

A Jefferson Nash victory on the final night would have created a three-way tie for the Major Division crown.

Furton Team Takes 4 Points To Gain Lead in St. Paul Loop

Captain Harry Furton's bowling squad got hot last Thursday night, March 17, and made a clean sweep of four points to take over the top spot in the St. Paul Bowling League and crack the four-way tie which existed a week previous.

Sweeney, Van Beclaere and Dansbury each split four points to remain in a three-way tie for second place.

Fourteen bowlers posted fifteen 200 or better scores with T. Trombley leading the way with games of 216 and 208. Others were: Gurche 233; Corbett 232; Masino 220; D. Trombley 215; Gouin 218; Goosen 207; A. Allard 204; Smith 204; Lauer 204; Ruprich 209; Eschrich 203; Van Beclaere 200 and Brecht 200.

With four weeks remaining, J.

Marsack's individual high game of 266 remains the top for the league this season.

ROLAND GRAY presents the Gray Sports Shop Trophy to CAPTAIN BILL BECKENHAUER of the East Side Gears quintet for winning the Neighborhood Club Basketball League title. Yachtsmen Plan Break For Juniors

AAU Basketball Tilts To Be Played On Neighborhood Club Court April 5-10

Detroit's Whittier Hotel will be the scene of much activity on Saturday, April 2, when delegates and guests will rendezvous at 3 p.m. for the spring meeting of the Interlake Yachting Association.

The business meeting will start shortly after 3 p.m., to make final completion of plans for the year's Interlake Regatta to be held at Put-In-Bay August 6 to 11.

59th Event

The 1949 regatta is the 59th and according to Commodore Ted Farnsworth will emphasize events for youthful sailors in small boats. However, the larger craft will hold down an important portion of the five day event as always.

Already special facilities and events are planned for Junior sailors. A carefully planned Junior program will include such events as dinghy races, baseball in the afternoons and dancing, movies and other entertainment will be provided for the evenings, with the entire program being properly chaperoned.

Cheap Sleeping

Arrangements have been made to provide sleeping accommodations for the Juniors for $1.00 per night. Commodore Farnsworth says, "We are aiming to provide a full program for these youthful sailors, and under proper supervision, Interlake is anxious to swell its ranks by the addition of the younger sailors and intends to make its programs more and more attractive to these boys and girls."

The business meeting will be followed by dinner and an evening of entertainment.

Farms Accepting Kerby Field Bids

Grosse Pointe Farms' Kerby Field will be back in business again this year, and according to Village Clerk Harry Furton applications for the use of the field for hard ball are already being received.

Clark Furton further stated it is hoped that the field can be allotted to organized baseball teams so its use will be primarily by Grosse Pointe people and a source of recreational outlet to the baseball fans of the community.

Grosse Pointe Farms is the only Grosse Pointe community that provides a baseball field and no doubt applications for its use will be greater than can be provided for.

Now is the time to mail that application if you have a Grosse Pointe team that is interested in obtaining a place to play.

Pointe Boat Breaks Record In Florida-Havana Classic

"Blitzen," Ernie Grates big 56-foot cutter, and her "drinking water" crew broke the St. Petersburg-Havana record made two years ago by the 88-foot schooner "Gypsy II" when she chased the Cuban schooner "Bellatrix" across the finish line at 11:07 p.m. Sunday night.

Being scratch boat of the 24 boat fleet "Blitzen" had to be satisfied with third place.

George Vernay's new yawl "Katana" from Nantucket finished about fifteen minutes behind "Blitzen", to win on corrected time.

It wasn't "Blitzen's" weather at any time during the 234 mile haul, but the fresh water queen was either out in front of the pack or with the leaders all of the way. Grates' ship thrives on windward work as was proven a month ago when she won all honors in the Miami-Nassau race.

"Blitzen" carried her heavy weather genoa jib until it blew out in 40 mile per hour winds crossing the Gulf Stream. All together the big girl blew out four sails and was forced to use small head canvas through squall after squall to the finish line.

Only one casualty was reported among "Blitzen's" crew that being Danny Light's lacerated hand suffered while making a sail change. It's not serious.

The crew included such fresh water sailors as Bill Noah, Danny Light, co-owners Murray Knapp and Ernie Grates, and George E. Van.

However, he is on Sigma Chi teams in inter-fraternity competition.

Bowlers in Rotary League Have Big Night on Alleys

New High Team Single Game Mark Set by Auto Club Aggregation And P. and J. Five Threatens High Team Three Record: Auto Club Leads Loop

Bowlers in the G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League had the time of their lives last Friday night setting new marks. Punch & Judy Cocktail Lounge rattled off 912 and 910 in precision-like fashion and needing 815 pins for high three, fell short, gathering only 808 but good enough for second place in "high team three."

The Auto Club, with Sponsor Claude Jurgensen leading the cheering section, celebrated Dave McCarron's return to the line-up by setting a new high team single, 985. Devlieg's 254 and McCarron's 204 plus Deprest's 190 thrown in for good measure, did the trick.

G. P. Review shot 925 in their first game but didn't go anywhere in the next two. Their 950 still remain in second place, headed by Auto Club's 985.

Many Top 200

Bowlers making merry with the maples were, Devlieg, 254; Hickey, 221; Thayer, 217; Taylor, 212; Pepinski, 210; Runkis, 208; McCarron, 204; McCarron, 206; Gross, 203; Taube, 201; and Donald Kammer, 200.

Middle Atlantic Transportation increased their lead from one point to three when they split with G. P. Review.

Farms Market halted Kopp's Pharmacy in their spectacular duel, 4-0. These two teams are now tied for second place. Geo. Tewell 'toted most of the lumber for the Marketers, his shoulders sagging with 557 pins.

Cee Dee Lends Support Houston Bros., Inc., climbed climbed aboard and ruffed a four-pointer from Motor City Tires.

Cee Dee was on hand to give his team that extra "umph." Art Runkis had a nice had a nice series, 576.

Auto Club took a four-pointer from Harrison Carpets. Fische's Barber Shop knocked Monday Cleaners out of contention for the time being at least, with their 3-1 win.

Tough Competition

In the second week in succession, Earl Holzbaugh's team ran up against teams setting new high scores. That 2630 was too much for the Holzbaugh clan. Punch & Judy Cocktail Lounge led by Ray McCarron's 558 pins was easily best. Frank Taylor nipped 571 for the losers.

Junior League Scribblers

by Josephine Wunsch MEAL TICKET

The bugle sounded "soupy." Campers slammed out of their cabins, scooted along the brown, pine-needed paths to the main bung.

Miss Codd checked campers and letters against her list. Later she would glance over the notes to be sure no prankster was sending blank pages.

Miss Codd felt a special fondness for this plump, sloppy ten-year-old from a broken home.

Letters collected. Miss Codd took her place at the head table. There were eight little girls from different parts of the country.

The girl called Chow with the mop of red hair said, "That's nothing. Maybe even my grand-mother, if she isn't in a spell, will drive up with Mom and Dad."

Hippy's turn. A long moment and then she burst out, "I only got a mother to come, but she's going to stay the whole week-end and go to all my classes and take me out for dinner."

That night Miss Codd checking the letters, turned Hippy's note over and over. What should she do about it? Why was Hippy telling all these lies? Not a word of the letter was true.

Inexplicably a picture flashed through Miss Codd's mind. Hippy's mother putting her on the special train for camp, pressing dollar bills into her hand, and without a backward glance hurrying out of the station.

Hippy's nose pressed flat against the window. Tears streaming down her cheeks. No mother... no father... no one to wave goodbye to.

Miss Codd sealed the "meal ticket" letter. Let Hippy's mother worry a bit. Better yet, let her come up next week-end and see what it was all about.

"I fell off my horse yesterday and hurt my arm. My canoe tipped over and I nearly drowned. The roof leaks on my head and I hope you'll come up next week-end and see about it. I want you to come up here and fix things with me.

Your loving daughter, Hippy."

Youthful Lumberjacks Fell Tree in Vacant Lot

The residents of 1136 Bedford called up the Park police at 4:50 p.m. on March 11 and informed them that three boys were cutting down a tree in a nearby vacant lot.

The police confiscated the hatchet and told the youngsters the next time the chopping urge came over them, to go into the big woods upstate.

PILFERINGS

From Burges Johnson's "The Lost Art of Profanity" ... A young divinity confessed he had slipped back into carelessness of speech. "It was like this, Father," he said, "The ball had been passed to me—a long pass—and I caught it and got it tight under my arm. There were only two men between me and a winning goal. Interference took care of one of them and I dodged the other. I was within two yards of the line and I looked down and the ball wasn't under my arm. It just wasn't there, Father! And I couldn't help saying, 'Where in hell is that ball!'"

"Well, where in hell was it?" cried the Father, impatiently ...

Alex Gard, the Sarat's caricaturist who died last year, was in the Navy during the war and was assigned to do the murals for the movie theater at the Norfolk base. His murals showed a boatload of movie stars, with Jimmy Durante as the helmsman and Mae West among the rowers ... The officer whose approval was necessary studied Miss West's figure and shook his head ... "But, sir," Gard reminded him, "that figure pays her $12,000 a week" ... The officer studied the ample figure again and suggested, "Let's reduce it—so, say $10,000 a week."

Al Capp, the cartoonist, agreed to write a book. The only question he asked of the literary agent who bought the offer was: "Would the book have a stiff cover? It will? Good. I've always wanted to see my work published in something that wasn't used to wrap fish 15 minutes after it hit the street."

A seasoned Broadway gambler offered some advice one night to a newcomer who was willing to bet on almost anything. "Put your bets on unmarked cards, on the weather, on honest dice, or on whether the next car around the corner will have odd or even numbered license plates," the veteran advised. "What I'm suggesting is that you shouldn't bet on prize fights, or events like that. Remember—if you ever bet on something that can talk, look out!"

Nat Harris, proprietor of The Harem, had been ill a week when his manager phoned to report on the Ritz Brothers who, as stars were receiving $15,000 a week for their run at the night club. "The Ritz Brothers are doing fine," the manager reported, "But it's too bad you're sick" ... "Well," said the night club owner, "better me than them."

TOM ALLMAND OF TOURAINE ROAD

By Kitty Carney

Nine-year-old Tom Allmand has come up with something quite novel in the puppetry field. Taking all the teddy bears and clumsy big stuffed animals in the Allmand household, Tom applied the marionette principle to each of them.

Perhaps the oddest of all, and the most effective model, is Dumbo, the stuffed elephant with king size ears. Checking the one professional puppet in the house, a wooden Pinocchio, Tom purposefully attached strings of varying lengths to Dumbo's ears, nose, arms and legs. As a result, Dumbo (with the exception of a few stuffed joints) follows the maneuvers of the ordinary marionette. He should, says Tom, because he has the same number of strings.

Tom uses Tinker Toy sticks to manipulate the strings from his large puppets. It's a painstaking process making strings the right length so that he needs to hold the sticks no higher than his waist.

Among the other stuffed animals which Tom has utilized for this project are an upright lamb, a cuddly sleepytime doll and teddy bears of different sizes. He's about to start work on a clown figure which he recently acquired.

From old boxes Tom made the 5-foot long stage on which his stuffed marionettes perform, and he uses a curtain high enough to make him invisible to the audience. A fourth grader at Detroit University School, his hobby was entered recently in the annual hobby show.

Tom's youthful energy also finds an outlet with the large electric train display, which he is proficient at handling, but the homemade puppets are a more original undertaking. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Allmand.

Pointe Counter Points

By JANE

Will the dress look fitted and slim as you face your observer ... and then as you start to walk burst into elegant and graceful panels? ... Will the neckline be a bit off center and plunging in the Spring manner? ... Will you be a Navy girl this Springtime ... or will you bloom in Spring prints? ... To help you decide, try the smart dress shops at the Pointe where California, New York and Paris fashions arrive daily.

Ah, Mark Twain ... JACOBSON'S CAN do something about the weather ... rainy days, that is. The newest fashions are a big step forward from the day we all looked like drowned felines in showery weather. There were literally droves of gals around the double-duty Donegal tweed trench coat that can be used either as a rain coat or for sportswear. Dolman cuffed sleeves, wide belt buckled in gold, covered buttons and two slit pockets, very full skirt distinguish this weather beating beauty. The lining is navy. The lightweight taffeta raincoats are swish in every way. These come in navy with green lining, navy with scarlet lining and brown with gray lining. One taffeta style is belted, has button-on hood and wide, loose cuffed sleeves. The second style has shawl collar and self-tying belt. Seeds of other nifty numbers, including full or belted rayons.

According to WALTON PIERCE GROSSE POINTE BRANCH this is destined to be an Easter as colorful as the baskets the bunny leaves. For instance, the naggiest dark gray wool skirts and bolero is pointed up with a scarlet taffeta bodice, and an ascot bow slips through loops of the bolero's neckline in complement. With this, the Walton Pierce stylists suggest a dreamy brimmed gray felt cloche, narrowly banded in gray felt and trimmed at very front with two accordion pleated ornaments, one grey, the other scarlet. Dressy or tailored alpaca have put in a chic appearance at WP, too. A frosted mauve alpaca, on the dressy side, zips down the front from a round neckline to below the waist which is finished in material belt. The skirt has unpressed pleats at front and sleeves are three-quarter length. For those who swear by printed frocks, there is a love in chattrouse and navy. The squared neckline is cut that deep (almost sunbuck effect with wide shoulder bands) and over the frock is worn a solid navy bolero. The hat box WP would offer with this contains a navy felt cloche brimmed in stark white straw with white flower and a chattrouse feather ornamenting the front. Of course the chapeau is veiled ... in navy. You'll find the Spring 1949 cape coat at Walton Pierce's, too ... elegant ones in navy wool.
