Starting up again, heading north on Cadieux, she drove into the path of the 1947 Plymouth, driven west on St. Paul by Don B. Wallace, Jr., of 742 Sunningdale drive. The resulting damage is shown. The police said Wallace was not speeding. This intersection has been the scene of many crashes in the past including one fatal accident several years ago.

Blaze Adds Excitement To Reunion

S. J. Metry Home Seriously Damaged By Fire During Family Party

A roof and attic fire at the S. J. Metry home at 1342 Buckingham road on Sunday afternoon, April 17, destroyed the roof and completely gutted the upper floor of the house. The fire was caused by sparks from an incinerator communicating to the wooden shingled roof of the house.

Party Interrupted
At the time, the house was well filled with guests attending a family reunion. They were unaware of the fire until a passing motorist saw heavy masses of smoke issuing from the top floor. He rang the doorbell and Mrs. Metry answered the door. "Madam, your house is on fire" said the bell ringer. "Oh, young man you are mistaken," said Mrs. Metry. "No I'm not, step out here and see." One glance was sufficient and the erstwhile quiet family dinner party was converted into a hubbub of excitement.

Destroys Top of House
The firemen worked on the fire for an hour and a half. The upper third of the building was destroyed.

This fire is the latest verification of the soundness of Chief Rector's contention that dry shingle roofs are a menace to the whole community. He strongly advocates that further placing of such roofs should be prohibited by an ordinance.

Park's Pay-As-You-Go Plan Works Very Satisfactorily

Grosse Pointe Park's plan of financing its capital improvements on a pay-as-you-go plan is beginning to pay off handsomely. The Village started this plan when Village Manager Lane came in about five years ago. Since that time it has built in lateral and relief sewers alone more than $300,000 worth of construction and all without the issue of a single dollar's worth of bonds.

This year while the municipal budget as tentatively prepared will be about $1,026,000, or about $63,000 higher than last year, it will include an addition to its Capital Improvement Reserve of $106,000. It is out of this account that these improvements are made without bond issues. In addition to this the village has been

Proposed School Bond Issue Seen as Threat to Pointes' Credit by City Councilman

Gerald Miller Cites Dangers in Adding $4,000,000 to Indebtedness of Municipalities; Wants Proposal Thoroughly Aired

Toward the end of the City Council meeting on Monday night Councilman Gerald Miller said he wished to make a brief statement on a matter of "vital" interest to the City. The Board of Education, he said, had proposed a $4,000,000 bond issue for extensions to the School plant and was going to ask the citizens to approve this at a special election on May 9.

Mr. Miller said it was not his purpose to discuss the merits of the extension of the school system but felt it was his duty as a person familiar with the general subject of municipal credit to point out that this large bond issue would directly affect the credit of each of the municipalities in the School districts.

Would Affect Credit
If this issue is approved and it later becomes necessary for the City to do some important work which could only be financed by a bond issue, the City would find that this big school debt adversely affected the credit of the city. It would not be able to market its securities under as favorable conditions as it could if this debt did not exist.

Buyers of municipal bonds are not greatly concerned with the specific uses to which prior bond issues have been put. They are, however, greatly concerned with the total bonded indebtedness and its relation to the assessed valuation of the taxable property behind the debt.

Should Know Facts
He felt that the citizens of the City should be informed of this impending effect on their municipal debt. The same argument of course applies to every other Grosse Pointe community.

Mr. Miller said that he felt the Board of Education had not in its school planning, taken into the account the progressive over

Nurses' Home Scene of Thefts

A series of robberies was reported in the Ridge road Nurses' Home of Cottage Hospital on April 12. One man was arrested for questioning but was released pending further investigation by the police.

Mrs. Florence McClenahan, assistant dietitian, reported that five bonds worth $300 and $17 in Canadian money were stolen from her room in the home.

The room of Mrs. Mary Bolam, a maid, was also entered. There a strong box was taken. It contained many of her private papers including insurance policies, $50 in $10 and $5 bills, four or five $1 bills and $1 in change, a gold wrist watch and a gold watch pull strap.

The room of Grace Smith was entered and $37 in paper money and $2 in coins were stolen.

Outstanding Tennis Match Scheduled

A top-caliber exhibition tennis match has been arranged in connection with the clinic being held Saturday morning at the Neighborhood Club. Bill Murphy, tennis coach of the University of Michigan and an outstanding player will be one of the contestants with Al Hetzeck, nationally known star from Hamtramck, and Tobey Hansen, professional at the Country Club. It is believed Bill Ford, recent Yale graduate and youngest son of Mrs. Edsel Ford and the late Mr. Ford, will be the fourth player in the doubles match, which starts at 11 a.m.

City Studies Proposal to Build Pool

Preliminary Report on Swimming Enclosure Submitted by Engineer Brown

It looks as if Grosse Pointe City might be the second community in the Pointe to have a safe and sanitary enclosed swimming pool, permitting public swimming throughout the hot season without regard to the conditions of the lake water.

Would Hold 600
Some time ago the Council asked engineer Preston G. Brown to make an examination into the subject, and at the meeting Monday night he brought in a preliminary report. He proposes a pool made of interlocking sheet steel piling, capable of accommodating 600 persons at one time. It would have pumps and chlorinating machinery capable of keeping the pool water in safe condition at all times and whenever a complete change of water was deemed necessary this could be effected in 4-5 hours.

Might Cost $100,000
The pool would cost $75,000 to $100,000. It could not be installed earlier than the opening of the swim season in early summer 1950.

Mr. Brown was requested to prepare more exact plans and a closer estimate of costs and bring it in at the next Council meeting. There were several minor details in the plan suggested by the Mayor and councilmen which Mr. Brown was asked to note in his final plans.

City Dog Fines Given Big Boost

Chief Tom Trombly of the City Police wants more teeth in his dog ordinance. Under the present procedure when a dog is picked up for being at large they lock him in the dog klink and when his owner pays a $2 impounding fee, the dog is turned over to him and that is all there is to it.

The Chief says there is a growing number of citizens who are little moved by the impounding fee.

What the Chief wants now is a division into two separate penalties: a $3 fine for being at large, plus the usual $2 impounding fee.

The council authorized the Chief to go ahead with this new penalty arrangement, pending the amendment to the dog ordinance. So residents of the City, look out! It's a $5 bite now instead of $2.

Survey Completed By School Officials To Back Bond Plea

Tremendous Growth in North End of District Cited As Argument For Building Three New Schools And Completing Parcels and Kerby Structures

Residential building permits in the Grosse Pointe School District issued in the first quarter of 1949 are running slightly above the first quarter totals for 1948. This information was issued this week by the Grosse Pointe Board of Education in connection with the special school election to be held on Monday, May 9.

School authorities study these building permit figures with great care as a means of forecasting public school enrollments and school building needs.

115 New Homes
A total of 115 residential building permits were issued in the first quarter of 1949. Seventy-five of these permits are for houses to be built in Grosse Pointe Woods and the Gratiot Township portion of the Grosse Pointe School District.

School district records reveal that 80% of all residential building permits issued in the last 11 years have been in the northern half of the school district. A total of 2447 new houses have been completed or started in Grosse Pointe Woods alone since January 1, 1938.

Barnes Makes Survey
John R. Barnes, Superintendent of Schools, has just completed an analysis of the age distribution of Grosse Pointe's population, which he says emphasizes the seriousness of the need for additional elementary school facilities in the Grosse Pointe Woods and Gratiot areas. A study of the May 1948 census reveals the startling fact that one person in each four in Grosse Pointe Woods and Gratiot is under ten years of age. The comparable figure for Grosse Pointe Park is one person in eight under age ten.

Shows Big Increase
Enrollment in public elementary schools in the "north end" has increased from 513 in the fall of 1938 to 1599 in December 1948 as a result of the new home building boom and the influx of parents of young children. School authorities predict an elementary enrollment of 2500 children by January 1, 1954 in the portion of the school district lying north of Moran road.

Pedestrian Nabs Reckless Driver

A woman living at 981 Beaconsfield went into the Park police station at 8:30 p.m. on Sunday, with a youth in tow who she said had narrowly missed killing her at the corner of Beaconsfield and Jefferson a moment before.

The woman's story was that she was walking on the south side of Jefferson when a car driven by the youth, coming north on Beaconsfield, made a sudden left turn into Jefferson and caused her to jump backwards so violently that she fell to her knees. She tore her clothing and bruised one knee.

The boy gave the name of George P. Clemens of 123 W. Maryland, Royal Oak. The Park police insisted on giving the lady first aid treatment for her injured limb and took her to her home. The boy got a ticket for failure to give right of way to a pedestrian.

High-Flying Hen Pheasant Invades Bedroom's Privacy

Pheasants of the Pointe are bursting into print from all angles. Following the appearance of a story on Page One of last week's issue of the News, the following letter was received:

April 15, 1949
Dear Sir: If you would like to make a story out of the following facts for your next issue, it might add to the lore of your many readers.

I noticed a story on the front page this week about two pheasants fighting, but our story of a hen pheasant, which occurred yesterday, April 14th, seems to me to be even more unusual. We live at 16710 East Jefferson,

Community Council Plan Gets Backing

Want Organization to Serve In Advisory Capacity for Many Activities

Final plans have been completed for the Family Life Institute to be held in the Grosse Pointe High School this Thursday and Friday. Special interest is being given to the recommendation of the council committee that a Community Council be created to serve as a medium through which the many organizations of Grosse Pointe could cooperate more fully in their work for community progress.

Will Call for Vote
All presidents and chairmen and many other public minded citizens have been invited to the dinner meeting at which time this matter will be voted on. The Community Council, if created, would consist of a representative from any organization in Grosse Pointe which had decided by vote to join and paid dues (probably $5 a year), and also a representative from each of the five municipal units and a few members at large.

The power of the Council in general would be advisory and the actions suggested by the Council would be followed by any organization at its discretion. The Council could also initiate and carry on its own program for action and cooperate with other agencies for community service.

Would Expedite Work
There would be a number of standing committees to expedite the work of the Council and any person interested in making Grosse Pointe the finest kind of a place in which to live could enlist the help of the Council. The Council would tend to unify community efforts, prevent duplication and increase community spirit.

The Executive Committee, in response to many requests, has decided to open the meeting at which "Human Growth" (Friday, 3:30 to 4), is shown, to children provided they attend with their fathers or mothers. This is the film used in the State of Oregon, described some months ago in Life magazine and enthusiastically endorsed by many youth organizations.

Choice of Meetings
Attention is called to the fact that from 4 to 5:30 there will be a choice of six meetings for the individual to choose from. It is expected that all but the youth panel will be small, informal meetings at which individual help can be given by the speaker.

Church groups interested in recreation and in family life education are assured of practical advice from Mr. Robinson and Mr. Treat. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance. Everyone is urged to come and bring friends.

18-Year-Olds Must Register

Many boys in the Draft Board No. 87's area are neglecting to register as they enter the 18-year-old bracket. Quite possibly the suspension of the draft that has intervened has caused some of these youngsters, or their parents, to overlook the legal necessity of registering for the draft as they reach 18.

Board No. 87's district includes the old Grosse Pointe District No. 57 as well as former Districts 20, 21 and 22. Carl Schweikart, in charge of this consolidated district, warns these tardy ones to wake up and attend to this mandatory duty. They court serious trouble if they neglect to register.

The office of the board is in Room 502 Peninsular Building.

3 Cars Tangle In Park Crash

An automobile accident involving three cars occurred at 11:35 a.m., April 16, on Mack near Bedford, when Coner Eldridge Stafford, Jr., going east on Mack, struck a '47 Dodge being driven by Christian Stockman of 413 Bealgar.

The impact caused Stockman's car to strike another one driven by Elmer Lundeen of 4350 Bedford. Stockman was taken to Bon Secour Hospital by the police and treated for scalp wounds and bruises. He was later discharged,

NO ADMITTANCE
Dolcia Sawusch, 15, of 439 Mar-nor road, told the Farms police that while she was performing the duties of a baby sitter in the Raymond Wegman home at 291 Merriweather road on the night of April 16, a man tried to get in the locked front door. When she refused to unlock the door, he left and departed in a car with another man.

Mutt Show Entries Pour In

Thompson of Nottingham road will be there with his Collie, Lassie. And Sally Ann McKernan of McKinley will show her Brit-tany, Vikki, who has won the Companion Dog award with three qualified scores in the trials at three licensed American Kennel Club shows. Charles Liddle's Branz has two legs on the Com-panion Dog award.
To Bill Leinbach of 17509 Maumee goes the honor of being the first entry in the annual show. He was on hand shortly after 8 o'clock on Monday, April 11, the day the entries opened.
Will Receive Rules
All contestants will receive cards in the mail, informing them of the rules. This is the show in which breeding doesn't mean a thing. Every pooch has a chance to win a prize and there is plenty of fun for young and old. A large committee of public-spirited resi-dents will be on hand to help keep things under control. Last year there was scarcely a growl out of any of the well-manned entries. The dogs must be kept firmly leashed at all times, and boys and girls under 12 who are showing their pets must be ac-companied by some one at least 18 years old.

George M. Black, Jr. is show chairman and he and the veter-inarians will inspect each dog be-fore the show starts and reserve the right to reject any entries.

New Schools

asked the voters of the school district to approve a $4,000,000 bond issue to finance the con-struction of three new element-ary schools in the area north of Moran road and the completion of the New Kerby Elementary School and the Parcels Junior High School. Voters are also asked to approve an increase in the maximum school tax rate for the period 1949-1968 to pay off in-terest and principal of the bond issue.
Election May 9
The special school election has been set for Monday, May 9. Only residents of Grosse Pointe who are registered for school elec-tions may vote on the two prop-ositions. Unregistered residents of the school district may reg-ister in any public school office or in the Board of Education offices during business hours up to and including Saturday, May 7. Special registration opportunities are also available from 3 p.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday, April 23, and Sat-urday, April 30, in all public ele-mentary school offices except the Parcels School.

CRASHES STORE WINDOW
Three boys, in the 12-13 year age bracket, were scuffling on the sidewalk in front of Cunning-ham's drugstore at Kercheval and Notre Dame just before noon on Monday, April 18, when one of them received a push that sent him through the biggest plate glass window in the store.

Emery P. Kovach of 283 Mount Vernor, for speeding on Vernor Highway on March 23 was fined $10 and $5 costs.
Earl Hovis, Jr., of 22948 Euc-lid boulevard, St. Clair Shores, for failure to have car under con-trol causing an accident on March 17, paid $10 fine and $5 costs.

Alger Veterans To Hold Circus

Alger Veterans Post 995, will hold a Circus Ballyhoo on Satur-day, April 23, at 3 p.m. All three floors of the building at 17145 St. Paul avenue will be used to simu-late a three ring circus. Three rings of hilarity — "the Circus Bar," "The Sawdust Ring," and "The Big Midway."
It will be a frolic in the "Cir-cus Bar," two great shows by the Ringmasters of Rhythm in the "Sawdust Ring," and continuous entertainment along the glitter-ing "Midway."
Bob Hughes, of Nottingham road, entertainment chairman, invites all veterans and their friends to attend. "Committee members and Alger Club mem-bers will be on hand to give you the time of your life," Bob Hughes said.
There will be continuous en-tertainment in addition to the two spectacular floor shows at 9 and 12 p.m.

Pheasants Given Break by Police

A resident living at 753 Grand Marais phoned to the police at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon, April 16, that a party in a vacant lot next to his place was greatly annoying the pheasants with a bird dog.
The police found a well-known citizen of the region exercising his bird dog with some field trials, much to the disturbance of the birds on the place.
He was directed to take his dog away and stop agitating the pheasants.
Birds will not fly out of sight of the ground when there is a thick fog.

Maire Children Plan Style Show

The early elementary children in Maire School will give their own interpretation of a style show on May 4, at 8 o'clock in the Maire auditorium.
Approximately 125 children will model clothing for a variety of occasions. Garments include sleeping apparel designed to give a maximum amount of rest; beach wear that will add gaiety to the child's life; outfits for both sport and casual events; and costumes that inspire dramatic play.
Many boys will wear dress suits of high fashion with appropriate hats, ties, handkerchiefs and shoes to add individual distinc-tion.
The girls have selected crisp cotton dresses suitable for school; coats and suits in pastel shades of wool. Straw hats, matching gloves, or contrasting purses add allure to each costume. Several girls plan to model party frocks with simple jewelry or handker-chiefs. Many garments are met-iculously crafted and handmade by the children's parents. Em-phasis has been placed on a well groomed poise for the many social situations that children meet in real life.
A May pole dance with 12 second and third grade pupils will climax the spring event. Mrs. Wm. Lewis of 500 Neff Road and Mrs. Richard Taylor of 763 Loraine are acting as narrators and will introduce each child as he enters the stage.

Thief Visits Home in Park

A forcible entry and burglary occurred at the Dr. Edward H. Sichler home at 881 Pemberton road, sometime Sunday evening. The family was away and the house empty. On their return they found entry had been made through a bathroom window on the south side of the house on the first floor. The thieves were obviously in search of money only. The only thing taken was between $35 and $40 from a wallet on an upstairs dresser. They even left the wallet, empty.

Allocation of Police Radio Channel Awaited by Pointers

Two rumors affecting the installation of the new Inter-Municipal Police Radio Service were going the rounds of the Pointe police the latter part of last week. One local official, greatly interested in the adoption of the new system, said that while there was frequent delay in getting action from the FCC on police channel allocations, he understood that shortly after April 21 the new channel for the Inter-Municipal system would be allotted.

Another authority, equally close to the police radio service in the Pointe, stated he had heard that the FCC had indefinitely postponed action on the new channel for the Pointe. Some definite action however is anticipated one way or the other in a short time. Meanwhile the order has been placed for the new equipment with the Motorola Company. It is to be installed in the Farms Municipal Building on Kerby road. The Farms will buy the equipment and then lease it to the other participating municipalities, covering also the cost of its operation, on a pro-rata basis.

Clerk Harry Furton of the Farms stated Monday that to his knowledge there was no question of any difficulty over the new system receiving a channel. He said the FCC is revising some rules and until this is done, it would allocate no new channels. He said, however, he had been informed there would be some definite action taken on the application for the local channel on or about April 21.

The Farms trustees spent considerable time at their meeting Monday night discussing the location of the new equipment in the Municipal Building. Trustee John Hutchinson was appointed head of a committee to study the situation.

Practical Jokers Dig Up New One

A resident of Somerset road phoned the police at 10 p.m. on April 13 that he thought a case of car tampering was in progress on Somerset just north of Jefferson. When the police arrived they found several bags of ashes packed tightly underneath the car in the rear of the front wheels and in front of the rear wheels, which would make it exceedingly difficult to move the car either forward or backward. Just a new wrinkle in juvenile practical joking.

Any Volunteers To Paint Plugs?

Farms fire plugs are due to be painted soon, but it hasn't yet been decided who will handle the job. In the past the Water Department have been taking care of this detail.

Engineer Murray Smith reported that the building boom is keeping his men so busy installing meters, etc., that if they tried to paint the plugs in their spare time it might take two years.

Trustee William Kirby wanted to know why the Fire Department couldn't do the job. Fire Committee Chairman George Schlaepfer said he would investigate and report back to the trustees.

Kerbrat Named To Farms Force

Francis Kerbrat, aged 22, of 189 Muir road, has been named to fill a vacancy which exists on the Farms police force, subject to his passing the required physical examination.

Kerbrat took a competitive examination with other applicants for the post, prepared by the Michigan Municipal League. Results of the examination will be kept on file by the village for the next year, against the possible chance of having to hire any additional patrolmen during that period.

Kerbrat was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in June, 1943 and joined the Navy. He served 33 months overseas.

Hypnotism was once thought to be caused by a thick magnetic fluid.

Meetings Held By Federalists

The series of six group meetings of the Grosse Pointe Chapter of the United World Federalists met with notable success, it was announced by Jack Chapin, chairman of the publicity committee. These informal gatherings, conducted at the homes of the executive council members, were open to the public for discussing the purposes and beliefs behind the United World Federalists.

The last meeting was held on April 19 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Rankin, 345 Ridge road.

Methodist Youth Group To Hold Supper Meeting

The Youth Class of the Church School of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will have a progressive supper at 6:30 p.m. on Saturday, April 23.

Two Cars Crash On Mack Avenue

Damaged estimated at $75 on each car was done when they collided at Mack and Moross at 10:50 p.m. on April 17.

Rohana A. Kerkmaz of 20550 Ridgmont, Detroit, driving a Hudson east on Mack, collided with a Plymouth convertible being driven north on Moross by Milton J. Stevens of 16700 Fairmont, Detroit.

SUFFERING ENDED
A Pointer dog owned by William O'Conner of 405 Lake Shore road, had to be destroyed on April 7 after it was hit by a car at Moross road and Kercheval avenue. The Farms police disposed of the animal on the request of its owner.

City Revising License Fees

The season has arrived when the City of Grosse Pointe issues its annual licenses to the various business places. In discussing the subject Monday night City Clerk Norbert P. Neff stated that he had been busy for some months in working out a new license system which would make the licensee pay an annual fee which would be commensurate with the service he received from the municipality.

It is a highly complicated problem to adjust and Mr. Neff said it would be some time yet before his proposal would be completed. Meanwhile the council adopted a resolution directing the clerk to reissue the licenses on a six months basis at half the usual charge. It is hoped that by that time the new schedule of licenses can be worked out.

Burglars Enter Park Restaurant

Thieves broke into the Cupid Restaurant at Harvard and Mack early in the morning on April 18. They took $87.48 out of the cash register and four cartons of cigars.

The police had checked the place in their rounds at 3 a. m. but when the newspaper delivery crew were there at 4:45 they saw that the plate glass in the front door was broken.

The detectives severely censured the newspaper crew for not reporting the B. and E. immediately. This remained unreported until Mr. Constant, the proprietor himself, came later in the morning.

Park's Rat Problem Blamed On Concrete Garbage Units
 State Inspector Severely Criticizes Widespread Use of Receptacles Which Have to Be Emptied With Shovels; Village Must Undo Teachings
 Dr. Thomas S. Davis, the Township Health Officer, and Leo Gagnon of the State Department of Agriculture, food division from Lansing, put in a full day on April 14 in making a check on food stores and restaurants and all places where food is prepared or handled. The inspections were chiefly in the Park and Village. Manager Lane spent most of the day with them to examine further into conditions in places against which complaints had been made.
 With only one exception, all were found to be in good condition. Mr. Gagnon complimented the local health authorities on the clean condition of the alleys.
Rats Garbage Disposal
 One angle of sanitation however came in for severe criticism. For many years the Park has been insisting on the provision of concrete garbage receptacles. There are many hundreds of these in the Park which have been installed by the citizens at their own expense.
 In theory the concrete container is an excellent way of handling the garbage disposal problem, but in practice it has not worked out with best results.
Quantity Spills
 The garbage has to be removed with shovels from the concrete containers and in doing this the collectors, despite their best care, often drop particles of garbage. This is food for the rats and in a large measure has contributed to the rat nuisance, from which the Park has suffered more than any other Pointe community. It is a known fact that rats will only multiply where food is available and the inability to transfer the garbage from the fixed concrete container to the garbage trucks without leaving any of the refuse on the premises is the cause of most of the rat trouble in the Park.
Iron Cans Best
 The best opinion among sanitary engineers now is that the only way to make a clean disposition of garbage is by the householder depositing it in galvanized iron garbage cans with a secure metal top, from which it can be dumped without spilling into the collection trucks.
 It is believed that the only way the Park can permanently rid itself of the rat problem is by doing away with the concrete container plan and substituting the galvanized iron cans.
Hard Lesson To Teach
 The Park authorities realize it will be a difficult job to persuade many of the householders to abandon the concrete containers which they installed at their own expense of $20 to $40 for each container.
 The matter will come before Council in the near future. Unless some improvement can be found on the present unsanitary way of transferring garbage, the Park will have the rat problem with it indefinitely.
 In other sections of the Pointe where the enclosed metal can has been in use, the rat problem is practically non-existent. Unless the cans are kept covered securely at all times with a close fitting top, they are no remedy.
 The major responsibility for rats, however, always depends on the cooperation and cleanliness of the individual householder.
 Between four and eight per cent of the population is left handed.

Chief Submits Police Report
 Farms police handled 260 calls during March, according to Chief Walter Hoyt's report. The department collected $334 in traffic and parking fines, dog fines and court fines.
 There were 20 traffic accidents in the village during the month with damage totaling $3,127. Of $763 stolen in three breaking and entering cases, $670 was recovered through two arrests. One grand larceny case brought a loss of $50, and $132 was lost in cases of simple larceny. Of this latter amount, $70 was recovered.
 There were three cases of dog bites and 44 complaints about dogs. Seventeen sick children were taken home from school by the police.
 The department issued 161 operators' and chauffeurs' licenses during March.

... and what an amazing value you get for the money! Come in—see it!
YES, that's the price of a 1949 Packard Eight Club Sedan. And here's why today's value-minded buyers say "wonderful!"
 No other car shares the proud distinction of Packard styling . . . the enduring identity that has become world famous.
 No other car can compare with Packard in luxurious riding comfort . . . because Packard's costly "self-controlling" suspension system is exclusive in the industry.
 No other car can duplicate Packard's "free-breathing" engine design—born of Packard's wartime experience power-ering all the PT-boats, and America's fastest planes.
 And Packard value lasts! Of all the Packards built during the last 49 years, over 50% are still in service. Countless Packards have rolled up individual records of more than 400,000 miles.

Thieves Break Into Packard Building: Rifle Cars and Vending Machine; Jam Safe

Police Believe Intruders to Be Members of Same Gang Who Entered Place Two Years Ago and Stole Customer's Car; One Caught Then Now in Jail

There was a burglary at the Packard Motor Sales and Service on Jefferson avenue, either in the later hours of Wednesday, April 13, or early in the morning of April 14. When Ben Rafsch, the janitor, arrived in the morning he found things very much upset. Detective Sergeant Enders of the Park Police said the burglars were evidently a couple of amateurs. Safe Broken and Jammed—They had tried to knock the combination off the safe which stood just outside the office on the garage floor. They had not been able to gain access to the safe but had jammed it. They had compartments in cars in the service garage, two which were locked were pried open; the other two were unlocked. There were two men on the job as two sets of foot prints were found on the northeast side of the garage where entrance was forced. From the method of operation the police believe they are some of the same gang who robbed the place in 1947. It was Robert Lee Petty however, the principle one at that time. His presence is well accounted for. He is doing an eight year term in the Ohio State Penitentiary for two proven cases of rape.

Petty is a colored man, 30 years of age. He never squealed on his pals in the previous robbery. On that occasion they also stole a Packard which was in the shop for repairs.

Souvenir Dollar, Pennies Stolen

The Henry Swindell residence at 367 Moross road was visited by a thief or thieves on the night of April 15. The only things reported stolen were a mahogany box containing seven rolls of pennies and a silver Canadian dollar commemorating the visit of the King and Queen of England in 1939.

The family went out at 7:20 and returned at 8:20. They found the glass broken in the back door. They believe the intruder went out the front door when he heard them return. They had left the chain on the front door and it was removed when they returned.

Pointe's Scouts Set for Show

The Boy Scout and Cub Pack units of District III are to be well represented by exhibits at the Scouting Exposition which is being held at Convention Hall this week.

Building Permits Total $469,300

Grosse Pointe Farms issued 28 building permits during March, with a total value of $469,300. The permits covered 15 residences valued at $424,000, one business building valued at $30,000, and 10 miscellaneous structures and alterations, valued at $15,300.

Over 30 individual booths will display their skills, handicrafts, and hobbies as a part of the huge assembly of nearly 300 exhibits entered by Scouts in Detroit and suburban areas.

This action-packed Scout show is expected to attract over 60,000 visitors during the three days of the Exposition, which will be open on Thursday and Friday, April 21 and 22, from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m., and on Saturday, April 23, from 2 p.m. until 10 p.m. Tickets are being sold by neighborhood Scouts.

City Approves Township Bill

A letter from the Township Board was read at the City Council meeting on April 18 asking what the City's answer was on paying its bill for health service for the year ending April 1. The township board also wished to know whether it was to continue its health service for the city for the new year beginning on April 1.

The city passed a motion to pay the $4700 bill and also to ask the township to continue its health service into the new year, on the understanding that sometime this year the township and city were to get together and decide on the clearing up of the delinquent tax division which had not been fully attended to since the city withdrew from the township many years ago.

As these old back taxes are paid up they are divided by the State Tax Board and allocated among the claiming municipalities according to a fixed formula.

The city's share of these taxes is figured at about 17 per cent.

City Resisting Water Rate Hike

Prescott G. Brown, consulting engineer for Grosse Pointe City, made a report to the City Council on Monday night regarding the result of his study of the increase in water service charges which Farms proposed to charge the City.

He said that taking the Farms' own figures he was not satisfied that this increase was necessary. He felt that he had gone as far in the matter as he was privileged to go and thought that the next step should be for a committee of councilmen from the two municipalities to get together and come to some definite understanding which would fix the whole sale water service charges.

He believed this could be done without too much trouble.

It was mentioned following Mr. Brown's report that when the Farms put in its water pumping service it was the explicit understanding that the City was to be its customer.

FREE BALLOONS FOR THE KIDDIES

Rebukes Filed on Rebuffs At Meeting of City Solons

Councilman Chester F. Carpenter had his ire aroused Monday night by what he called the dilatoriness of some of his fellow members.

He first wanted authorization to spend over $1,000 for painting and refurbishing in the beach park. He said it's getting shabby and citizens who are interested in the park have been strong in their condemnation of its appearance. The Council, in a spasm of economy, said NO!

A moment later, like a bolt out of the blue, he made a motion that the City should acquire, either by negotiation or condemnation, those lots in the rear of the stores at the N.W. corner of St. Clair and Kercheval and throw them open as a public parking lot, with meters installed. He claimed the revenue from the meters would pay the cost of the lots in a short time.

He said the City had been fussing around on this parking lot proposition for an interminable time and apparently were no nearer the answer than they were when they first started. The fact that Mr. Carpenter was not a member of the committee which has been studying the parking problem aroused an adverse sentiment on taking action on his snap motion and his motion failed to get a second and died aborning. With a grin on his face he then made a motion to adjourn. This was an instant success.

Mrs. James L. Hand of No. 1 Fifth avenue is stopping at the Statler for a Spring visit to Detroit and the Pointe where her friends are so many . . .

Sugar And Spice

Those who enjoyed the sprightly and sometimes p-o-i-n-t-e-d writings of Maury Paul will understand why Mrs. Hand feels she owns one of the most unusual of his stories . . .

It was a feature which ran regularly in the New York Evening Journal . . . entitled "These Fascinating Ladies" . . . and the clipping Mrs. Hand cherishes is one which features her . . .

"Not a saucy thing in it" she'll tell you, "and it's quite long!"

In that article Maury applauds his relative's support of music and musicians . . . and adds, "She has never missed an opening night of an important musical event and what's more is there when the curtain first rises."

The article which followed next day . . . featured another great lady of Manhattan . . . who was denounced for always being late . . .

Ivory duchess satin was Lowry's choice for her wedding gown. A deeply-rounded neckline, edged with a caplet of finely embroidered and appliqued blossoms of sheer material, set off the long-sleeved basque. The full skirt was gathered into wateau pleats at the waistline and fell into a circular train.

Mothers' Club Annual Tea Set for April 29

Proceeds from Event Will Be Used to Provide Scholarships for Needy Students; Organization Has Already Helped 78, Spending Total of $19,500

Proceeds from the sale of tickets for the annual spring card party and tea, to be given by the Mothers' Club of Grosse Pointe High School, on Friday afternoon, April 29, at 1:30 p.m., will go as usual into the scholarship fund. From this fund, the Mothers' Club supplies financial aid to worthy High School graduates who might not otherwise be able to further their education.

This has long been an important phase of Mothers' Club interest, the first scholarship having been granted in 1931. Since that time, $19,500 has been allotted to 78 students. This year, $2,200 was awarded to students who met the Mothers' Club scholarship requirements. This amount was divided among 9 students, who had proved through their accomplishments, sound character and leadership record, that they were more than worthy of the scholarship aid, without which they could not have continued their education, except under serious handicaps in their college work.

The Mothers' Club tenet is that it seems advisable that a student have sufficient financial resources so that he will not need to work his way during his first year of college. Thereby, he is given the opportunity to devote himself entirely to new adjustments, scholastic efforts, and college activities.

While the membership dues, (there are 800 members this year) amply take care of activities most directly connected with the school program and whatever obligations in the way of community participation as seem advisable, the scholarship plan could not be carried on without outside source of income, according to Mrs. Charles Lord, president of the Mothers' Club. Therefore, the Card Party Committee, under the general chairmanship

Couple Observe Silver Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. William Krieger of Bishop road celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary at the Whittier Hotel on April 20. Dinner was served for 85 guests.

Dinner to Honor Goucher's Prexy

Dr. Otto Frederick Kraushaar, new president of Goucher College, Baltimore, will be honored by the Goucher alumnae of Detroit, Ann Arbor and Toledo, at a dinner on April 26, at the Women's City Club.

President Kraushaar received his A. B. and A. M. degrees from the University of Iowa and his Ph. D. from Harvard. He formerly was professor of philosophy at Smith College, and also taught at Radcliffe and Harvard.

During the war, Dr. Kraushaar served with the Army in Cairo, Egypt, and in the Pacific area as chief education officer under Gen. Douglas MacArthur's command. He retired in 1945 as a lieutenant colonel. He is an associate editor of the "Journal of Philosophy" and the co-author of a forthcoming book on American philosophy.

Miss Amanda LaGrone, chairman of the dinner, reports that the following plan to attend: Mrs. John N. Failing, Mrs. Russell Weich, Mrs. F. E. Standish, Mrs. John Huse, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lucht, Dr. and Mrs. Lowrie, Miss Margaret Ruth Smith, Mrs. Jerome Schenck, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ericke, Mrs. Josephine Stone, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Shinn, Mrs. Royce Beers, Mrs. Charles Faben, Miss Pauline Ulrich, of Mt. Clemens, and Mrs. Lyman Bittman and Miss Marian Simmons of Ann Arbor.

High Tea will be served during the afternoon, under the direction of Mrs. J. F. Purvis, and her assistant chairmen, who include Mrs. Robert Anslow, Mrs. Arthur Ericson, Mrs. Murray L. McDonald, and Mrs. Carl P. Senff.

The Mothers' Club extends an invitation to attend this party to all friends of Grosse Pointe High, mothers past and future, as well as present, and to any other women interested in helping worthy students, (and enjoying a pleasant afternoon in the process.) Tickets, which are $1.10 each, including tax, may be obtained by calling Mrs. C. Taylor Obold (ticket chairman), at NI. 2982, or from the chairmen of the 28 various Neighborhood Groups.

Wellesley Club Sponsoring Festival for all Gardeners

A city-wide, non-professional flower show, "The Flower Festival," will be held in the Great Hall and adjoining galleries of the Detroit Institute of Arts May 17 through May 22.

The show, sponsored by the Detroit Wellesley College Club in cooperation with the city's garden and horticultural clubs, will offer every garden fan a chance to gain recognition.

There will be no admission charge for either contestants or visitors to the floral displays.

The show is being planned for the average householder whether he or she putters around with a few flowers or a whole backyard full, according to Mrs. Stuart H. Smith, general chairman.

"We hope our show will bring inspiration to thousands of Detroiters both as spectators finding new ideas for their gardens and as amateur exhibitors striving for perfection in their displays," Mrs. Smith said.

Saturday, May 21, has been set aside as "Children's Day," when special awards for children's entries will be made.

Assisting Mrs. Smith on the executive committee are: Mrs. John M. Campbell, Mrs. John W. Taylor and Miss Jane Beyster. Other committeewomen include: Mrs. George E. Marriage Vows Spoken in Christ Church, Followed by Reception in Home of Bride's Mother, Mrs. Herbert Nelson Williams

Denise Marcia Williams became the bride of Harold Arthur Lynch, Jr., at a 5:30 o'clock ceremony Saturday afternoon in Christ Church Grosse Pointe. The Rev. Edgar Yeoman officiated at the nuptial rites.

Given in marriage by her brother, Herbert Nelson Williams, Jr., the bride wore a lilac gabardine suit, brown accessories and a natural straw chapeau trimmed with deep purple violets. She carried a purple-centered white orchid. She is the daughter of Mrs. Herbert Nelson Williams of Hawthorne road, and the late Mr. Williams.

Maid of honor was the bridegroom's sister, Marilyn Lynch. She chose a green gabardine suit, natural accessories and natural straw hat with peach veiling. Her flowers were green orchids.

Harold asked his brother, Robert

Owen Lynch, to be his best man. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arthur Lynch of Courville avenue. Paul Roger Williams, brother of the bride, and Charles Manos ushered.

Mrs. Williams selected a beige gabardine suit, dark brown accessories and a straw hat for her daughter's wedding. A marine blue suit with taupe accessories was worn by the bridegroom's mother.

Immediately after the wedding, a reception was held in the home of the bride's mother.

For the honeymoon trip to Chicago, the new Mrs. Lynch wore a three quarter length plaid coat over her wedding suit.

Our School Needs

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has presented with considerable detail a plan for the expansion of the school facilities of the district upon which it will ask the approval of the taxpayers at a special election on May 9.

The payment of school taxes is a burden which the taxpayers bear with less complaint than those for any other purpose. This is so in Grosse Pointe; it is so wherever taxes are paid in America. The determination of parents to give their children the best possible educational equipment is a universal American trait.

The growing burden of all taxation however in recent years, particularly the burden of school taxes, is such that they are justified in demanding the fullest and most unreserved explanation of any proposed increase.

It may be that this latest proposal will appear entirely justified and will meet with approval when the special election day comes around.

It is true nevertheless that the explanation given by the School Board in its general letter sent out to the voters under date of April 8 was a decidedly lopsided and incomplete message. Its whole argument revolved around providing more school facilities "north of Moran road."

It gave no information whatever on existing school facilities in other parts of the community although it directly implied that such unused facilities existed when it said that several hundred pupils now had to be transported in buses every school day from the area north of Moran to the lower end of the district. There are a number of school rooms there which are wholly unused even now.

The School authorities say "the district is now transporting approximately 750 children to school at a public expense of $15,000 a year because school buildings are not available to such children within walking distance of their homes."

Fifteen thousand dollars a year is small peanuts for the taxpayers compared to the $4,000,000 bond issue they are being asked to approve, plus the big increase in the millage to support it.

The message lays much stress on the growth of the Woods and estimates a school population of 2,500 that must be cared for in the area "north of Moran" by December 1953.

This is simply one group's guess, which may be good or bad. There is no guess work about a $4,000,000 bond issue. Our school authorities may be making as poor a guess on that part of the district as they evidently made some years ago in figuring the needs in the Park, which is now sprinkled with unused schoolrooms.

The schools that have been started in the "north of Moran" area, such as the Parcels and Kerby School, should of course be finished, but whether the estimated needs of that area now justify putting up three more new schools is a question the heavily burdened taxpayer will want to ponder.

We have heard of no child in the Pointe being denied school attendance even though several hundred of them have had to endure the hardship of being transported back and forth in buses at public expense.

Strongly back of this move for more schools is the desire of many parents for school convenience. No one questions the desirability of this when it can be done without imposing an unbearable burden on already overweighed taxpayers.

Grosse Pointe is not so extended that it cannot be treated as a single governmental school entity, which it actually is. It is the duty of the School authorities to discuss this problem of school facilities with taxpayers with the utmost frankness, which it seems to us has been absent in this message. Grosse Pointe wants and will insist on ample school facilities and is willing to pay for them however great the cost, but in fairness to the people who must pay for them they are entitled to know what we have, how these can be utilized and what can be done to make our existing facilities meet our present needs without too costly anticipation of needs that might never arise.

If two, three or four years hence it is found necessary to put up more schools we can cross that bridge when we reach it. By that time the shock of the big increase in school taxes which we suffered two years ago will have lost something of its keen edge and we can take on new burdens in better humor.

Royal Snobbery

The recent visit of the Duke of Windsor, minus his wife, to his sick brother, King George VI, has again called American attention to the 12-year snubbing which this American woman has suffered at the hands of the British Royal Family.

At the time of the romance which cost Edward VIII his throne American opinion was notably reserved. Despite the fact that Wally Warfield was an American girl there was a deep respect here for the Victorian tradition which permeated the Royal family against divorce.

With the passing of the years however and the observance of the poise and dignity with which their fellow American faced one of the most difficult positions an American woman ever encountered there has been a strong shift of opinion over here to her side.

There is evidence that English opinion is beginning to question the wisdom of carrying on this social boycott. The other day Lord Beaverbrook's Evening Standard said: "It is time the British quit cold-shouldering the American-born Duchess of Windsor." Americans in increasing numbers are thinking the same thing.

There is some impatience here that the King does not take the social bit in his own teeth and put an end to this nonsense. He has the unquestioned power to do so. It is a good guess that when his mother, Queen Mary, who is an

Just so everyone can say "ha-ha... what do you know about horses... we are sticking our long neck out on Sport Page for the Kentucky Derby. Since Mr. Buhner (whom we told you about some weeks ago) is OUT of the Derby, he told us he was putting HIS two bucks on Sport Page and that's good enough for us... Olympia notwithstanding.

Joe Madden, known to most New Yorkers, has written another book that he's trying to peddle to one of his favorite magazines. Joe runs what he calls "A little grog shoppe off Fifth Avenue" and what he does to the King's English... shouldn't happen to a dog. For your amusement, we print here an excerpt of his night at the opera... deleted according to our Paper's standard. Ahem!

"I, being a lucky bum, got bob-nobbing with College boys and gals; they being nice to me tried to teach me the nice things of life. First was them philharmonics, then art, then painting, etc. A sweet young thing whose family was 'loaded' but good, sex to me, Joe, the family have a box at the opera and they want you to come hear Caruso. Soooo, I hire a Veal Cutlet with a phony front, cleaned my neck and ears and down I go to the Metropolitan Opera House.

"As I said, this sweet young thing's Pop was loaded so we go down in style with a driver and flunkies and when I get out of the car I'm wishin' a lot of bums I know are around to see me all giggered up and takin' in the opera. Before I go any further, I want you folks to know that I ain't sporting no stove pipe (High shimmer), as I promised my mother on her death bed that I'd never wear one and to this day I ain't never wore one.

"Anyhow, in we breeze and everyone seems to know Mom and Pop. As I said, they were plenty loaded and when I get a knock-down to their friends, they look like they're loaded too. When I get close and smell their brest... I KNEW they were loaded. We checked our rugs and shimmers but Mom didn't check her's because she said she was cold. Her's was a white rug but I guess it cost plenty. Anyhow, we sit in a box and I start lamping to the left and right and I never seen so many old tomatoes loaded down with ice.

"Soon they dim the lights but I knew I was safe and I did not hold on to my kick to protect the few Nabasas I had. Everybody stood up and them smooth guys in the gallery started bolleing and screaming. The sweet young thing tells me the Maestro has just come out and I see who the bell is he and she sex he's the conductor. She sex he leads the orchestra and I sex I know a lot of these band leaders and what's his monicker? Her sex 'Artie Toscanini'... and I sex I never heard of the bum and how long has he been leading.

"So they belt a little, Artie gives with the stick and the curtain goes up. The mob is singing and the broads are running around laughing like hell. This goes on for a while then a clown comes out and the crowd hollers 'Enrico, Enrico'... and they clap their hands for five minutes, holding the poor guy up, but he just laughs and when everybody sits down he starts to warble. Even if I don't understand this here Enrico, he's got a good set of pipes. After awhile they pull the curtain down to give all the old boys and dames time to have a few snifters."

(Out of the mouths of babes... and saloon keepers!) A few weeks ago, we said we thought we had heard everything. We were wrong. NOW we've heard everything, having just learned of a man who feeds his fish by telephone! Our hero is a bachelor whose hobby is tropical fish. Since he is obliged to be out of town frequently, his worryment has always been... "who can I trust to feed the fish?"

Being the type who doesn't trust anyone very much, our hero decided to invent a contraption whereby he could be sure his little charges were fed so many times a day at certain given times. He rigged up a small feeding station, attached it to the "bell quiver" on the phone box and had someone call him to try it out. Sure enough, whenever the phone rang, the "quiver" element jarred the feeding station just enough to dump a small amount of the fish food into the tank.

Sooooo, with a happy heart, the little fish-fancier went out of the City on his business tours; telephoned his number five times a day at certain hours, content in the knowledge that the fish were being fed as per schedule. Since his friends KNEW when he was out of town, he didn't have a worry about the phone ringing constantly. However, we wonder if he realizes that a succession of wrong numbers or out-of-town linen salesmen or telegrams or long distance calls might kill the fish from overfeeding? We think of everything.

There are a lot of things we'd like to know before we die... not all of which we can name here because unfortunately, some of them are to be found only in best-sellers that are banned in Boston. There are also a lot of people we'd like to meet before we escape this mortal coil. Frinstance, JUST once... that's all... just ONCE, we'd like to meet someone who has been to Europe... who HASN'T sat at the Captain's table on their very first crossing! If anyone knows of such an oddity, please have them get in touch with Fryor, pronto! Almost everyone we know and certainly everyone we meet has been abroad at some time or another... and every danged one of them has sat at the Captain's table... usually over AND back. How big are those tables anyway?

uncompromising old matriarch, departs this earthly scene, this bit of archaic social fol de rol will quickly vanish.

Events of the past few years will doubtless reveal to the British mind that it is a poor time for their royal snobbery to parade its stuff at the expense of a lady of impeccable character hailing from the citizenry of their greatest and most needed friend.

Here We Can Breathe

Winston Churchill's remark in his Boston speech that Russia feared our friendship more than our enmity is getting indirect confirmation from every consignment of immigrants that come into this country from the blighted area of Europe.

The invariable attitude of these grateful and happy entrants is one of thankfulness that fate has so directed their movements that they find themselves at last in this promised land. They all want to work and are showing marked adaptability in using unaccustomed American machines, especially on the farms where most of these early arrivals have gone. Gratitude and cheerfulness exude from their every move.

One woman, a Latvian, who with her husband had found a place on an Iowa farm, expressed through an interpreter her feeling on their new surroundings.

"Here we can breathe!" she said. A remark charged with pathos, hope and gratitude.

There need be no misgivings about the type of Americans of the future such people will make.

Surely, as Bancroft expressed it generations ago, "The history of the colonization of America is the story of the crimes of Europe."

We are seeing this demonstrated in multiplying cases every day in the great agricultural areas of America.

Stretch Battle Gets Hotter In GP Rotary Bowling Loop

Farms Market Bounces Back into Fight; Kopp's Pharmacy Only One Point Behind League-leading Middle Atlantic Transportation Team

Farms Market bounced back into contention by defeating Monday Cleaners, 4-0, in the G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League. If Farms can get by Earl Holzbaugh tomorrow night and the Middle of Atlantic Transportation Co. the following week, we'd say the "crown" may come to rest on Fisher road, across the street from the Campus.

Kopp's Pharmacy, only one point out of first place, dropped Piche Barber Shop, 3-1. Carl Allemang exploded 245 and George Dettloff 224 in the last game, giving Kopp's 944 but not enough to get in the money, 948 being third place money. Allemang made third place with his 245.

Split With Leaders

Motor City Tires held the Middle Atl. Transp. Co. to a 2-2 decision. Chris Robb and Ray Robb held the Middies together, Al Meyer assisting the "firemen" with 452.

Harrison Carpets knocked Earl Holzbaugh out of it with a 3-1 win. Leo Litzau shot 220 in 556 to lead the "rugmen", Frank Taylor and George Dettloff, Sr. coming through with 534 and 535 for the "Earls".

Houston Bros. Inc., split with Punch & Judy Cocktail Lounge. Some fancy shooting took place in this match. The Judges nosed out the Rangers, 935 to 934 to win the last game, Wilson getting 234 for the Judges in this one. Art Runkis, bowling with Houston, racked up 187-225 and 210, giving him a big count of 622.

Houston took over third place in team high three with 2627.

Peplinski Gets Hot

G.P. Review and Auto Club also split. Henry Peplinski took season high three with 639, rolling 201-219 and 225.

Matches to watch tomorrow night, Farms Market vs. Earl Holzbaugh... Monday Cleaners vs. Kopp's Pharmacy... G.P. Review vs. Houston Bros. Inc... The Middies face Harrison Carpets and an upset would hardly surprise us. Although Harrison Carpets are resting in last place it doesn't mean they are a push-over. Ask Punch & Judy Cocktail Lounge, who dropped four to them only two weeks ago. Holzbaugh gave up three last week.

Blue Devils Will Open Ball Season on Tuesday, April 26

When the umpire yells "Play Ball!" next Tuesday, April 26, the Grosse Pointe High baseball team will officially open its 1949 season against Royal Oak on the local diamond.

The Acorns last year were the only team the Devils were able to subdue twice. In their first meeting the Pointe boys came out on top, 7-5, after having the lead change four times. Their 7-3 triumph ended their season and helped give them a two-way tie for second place in the Border Cities League standings.

Bryant Should Start

Coach Kaultitz's opening day line-up will not be definitely set until the last minute but Allan Bryant, the Devils' number one hurler last season, seems a sure starter. Bryant's record in both high school and summer baseball has been nothing less than sensational. His first experience in organized ball came with the City team of the Metropolitan League. The Grosse Pointe News team was the next step. In the play-offs for the championship that year Bryant turned in a brilliant no-hitter.

Is Also Power Hitter

Bryant's hitting has been keeping right up with his pitching. In practice so far this season he has put balls in both the right and left field tennis courts.

Behind the plate is Bayard Johnson, who played with Tom Boyd's team in the American Legion last summer. Johnson's hitting is definitely improved and it is hoped that his bat will be a big one in the Devil attack this season.

Vince Schoeck seems a sure fixture on first again this year. Along with Bryant he has been powerizing the ball this season. Schoeck's summer time experience was with the Gentile team of the DBF. This team came in runner-up in the National Championship at Dayton, Ohio, last summer and was eliminated by the Dearborn Furniture Movers which was composed mostly of Fordson High players.

Peterson on Second

Second base seems capably handled by Wayne Peterson. A hard luck hitter all last year, Peterson is hoping for a change in the fates.

Bill Winkler by virtue of both his hitting and fielding power is expected to start at shortstop. The veteran George Krypros has been hampered by a sore knee since the start of the season and Winkler has stepped into his place. Dick Ryberg is also battling for the position.

Green Seems Assured

Over on the hot corner Bob Green is battling it out with Art Duffy. Green's experience is expected to win him the berth. Bob is a punch-hitter type and could prove valuable in the tight spots.

In the outfield Coach Kaultitz seems to have an abundance of talent with powerful Barry Munro leading the pack. Dave Donnelly, a 300 hitter of last season and Bob Hafer, who can do anything, are possible starters. In Roger Muller, Leroy Peplinski, and Dan Burke the Devils have another complete outfield.

Cold Forces Tennis Clinic Into Shelter

Bill Ford and Al Hetzeck Brave Elements to Stage Two-set Exhibition Match

The first session of the 1949 Tennis Clinic, sponsored by Gray's Sportshop, at the Neighborhood Club last Saturday April 16 was forced indoors due to extreme cold weather, after Bill Ford and Al Hetzeck staged a two set exhibition match in the Polar temperature.

Twenty-two pupils, fifteen of them youngsters under 14 years old, received instructions from Jean Hoxie, famous Hamtramck tennis coach just returned from Europe, Al Hetzeck, one of her former pupils, Paul Ameal and Bill Ford.

Hansen to Appear

Next Saturday, April 23, Tobey Hansen, Country Club tennis pro, will be on hand for part of both classes.

Pointe youngsters who already have not registered still have time to make application for this valuable instruction. The clinic will run for two more Saturdays. Registrations may be made at the Neighborhood Club or at Gray's Sportshop.

Open to All

The clinic is primarily for beginners but is open to all interested persons.

The first class on Saturday, from 10 to 11 p.m., is for children 14 years old and under. The second class is from 11 to 12 noon for youngsters 14 years old and over.

Have you ever sat on the sidelines and watched good players execute difficult shots? Well, now is the time to take advantage of this wealth of talent supplied at the tennis clinic and learn how the good players handle a racket. You just can't afford to pass up this opportunity.

Brake and Light Drive Continues

Michigan moved into the third week of its Brake and Light Check Program designed to reduce traffic accidents by taking steps to require all unsafe and illegal safety equipment on vehicles to be placed in safe working condition, according to the Police Chiefs of Grosse Pointe.

They stated that their men are still finding frequent cases of dangerously unsafe equipment found on vehicles of traffic violators. The last two weeks showed 12 vehicles with unsafe brakes, 18 vehicles with one headlight out, 2 vehicles with two headlights out, and 22 vehicles with no tail light.

According to the Chiefs of Police, the great majority of motorists who are safe drivers are expressing themselves as being enthusiastic about the program because they maintain their vehicles in safe condition and are anxious that the law enforcement agencies take vigorous steps to require all traffic violators to have their unsafe equipment repaired.

The Chiefs of Police called upon all motorists to support the efforts of their departments to cut traffic accidents. They pointed to the alarming fact that in the last four months 115 more people have been killed compared to the same period of the previous year. This is a 27 per cent increase. If this increase continues there will be over 400 Michigan traffic dead in the next 12 months.

Half of the vegetables consumed in the United States are grown in family gardens.

Girls' Softball League Forming

By FRED RANNELLS
Miss Pauline Masack has been working like a beaver since the close of basketball season laying plans for a Girls' League at the Neighborhood Club this summer. At this time there appears only one stumbling block in the way of organizing a successful league and that is getting enough girls interested to form six teams.

Already Miss Masack has the assurance from the club that her league will be able to use the ball diamonds on Wednesday and Thursday evenings starting at 6:30 p.m.

Organized teams of girls wishing to play on a team are urged to contact Miss Masack at NI 4600 and register immediately.

FAIR ENOUGH

An argument over who was to have the use of the baseball diamond at the Farms Athletic Field in Kerby road was settled amicably by Patrolman Seelow on April 18. He tossed a coin and the losing group accepted the defeat gracefully.

Alumni and friends of the University of Notre Dame in the Detroit area will pay tribute to scientific achievements of Notre Dame in the twenty-sixth annual observance of Universal Notre Dame Night to be celebrated Monday, April 25, by Notre Dame alumni and friends throughout the world.

The local observance, which will be held at 8 o'clock on April 25 at the Detroit Yacht Club, will feature Doctor Clarence (Pat) Manion, Dean of the Notre Dame Law School. He is being assisted with the local observance by Doctor George Calingaert, Director of Chemical Research of the Ethyl Corporation, and James Fitzgerald, Executive Secretary of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, will be Toastmaster.

Center of the 1949 observance of Universal Notre Dame Night will be on the Notre Dame campus. An appropriate scientific program will be presented on the campus and broadcast nationally. More than 20,000 Notre Dame alumni and their friends will participate in observance of the 1949 celebration. Although the observance of all alumni will be geared around the program on the Notre Dame campus, alumni in 105 communities throughout the United States and in six foreign countries will take part in the observance through programs arranged by the local Notre Dame alumni clubs.

Universal Notre Dame Night was inaugurated in 1924 and has been observed annually since that time to pay tribute to the academic, cultural, patriotic and religious achievements of Notre Dame.

Old English festivals were called "ales" whenever ale was the chief drink used.

Women Keglars Battle for Lead

With only three weeks left in the St. Paul's Ladies Bowling League, six teams are clamoring for first place. Within the last three weeks the leadership has changed three times.

Farm's Grill took three points Wednesday to place them at the head of the list. Penathol Lab., who had the lead, lost four and dropped to third place. Kammer took three to put them in second and only one point out of first. It is still anyone's race!

Neighborhood Club Forming Hardball League for Kids

Youngsters Under 13 Urged to Pay Visit to Clubhouse on Waterloo to Get Details on Games Scheduled for Summer Vacation Period

By Fred Rannels
Hey Kids, you're going to have a chance to play hardball this summer at the Neighborhood Club, providing there are enough of you interested. Athletic Director Bill Desrocher has mapped out a program for kids under 13 years old for the vacation months.

There is only one requirement you must meet and that is you must be a member of the club to be eligible to play on one of the teams.

Once the league is organized the teams will play regular scheduled ball games on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons.

At this writing there has been no mention of a trophy for the champions but if there is enough enthusiasm shown no doubt a champion's trophy will appear from somewhere.

Let's get behind this program kids and make it a big success. This is your first real chance to play ball like the big leaguers do. Who's going to be the first to register?

Gardeners Complete Plans for Annual Meeting in May

The Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan are holding their annual meeting in Detroit on May 18 and 19. The Federated Grosse Pointe Clubs are among those acting as hostesses to the 150 den clubs throughout Michigan.

The first meeting where board members are giving their reports the year will be at the Statler hotel at 10:30 a.m. May 18. Luncheon will be served at the Statler and the Junior League gardeners will decorate the many lawns.

This will be followed by an interesting program of "Distinctive Settings" by Mrs. W. A. Williams of Cleveland, Ohio. Her program has been recommended by the Garden Club of Ohio, as one of their best last year. After giving her demonstrations of settings, the members of the Grosse Pointe National Farm and Garden Club visiting gardens of some of their members in Grosse Pointe.

Those open for the tour will be Mrs. Hugh Stalker's, Mrs. Fredrick W. Campbell's, Mrs. Henry Candler's, Mrs. Standish Backlund and Mrs. P. Williams'. A banquet, beautified by the ointments of "The Garden of Michigan," will be held Tuesday evening in the Statler Ball room. The Federation considers it very fortunate in having Charles F. Kettering speak to them at this time. Mr. Edgar St will introduce him.

The next morning the meeting continues at the Art Museum at 10 a.m. Luncheon will follow in the Romantique Room and members will view the Flower show which will be in progress at that time.

PILFERINGS

Mark Twain said every man will kill for his home but what man will fight for his boarding house!

Christopher Wren, the great architect, asked three workmen on one of his jobs what they were doing.

One said, "Mixing mortar."

Another said, "Earning fifteen shillings a week."

But the third replied, "I am building a cathedral."

The Western editor exclaimed, as a brick came through the window, "By Jove, the paper was a success this week!"

When the regular lion tamer of a famous circus was taken ill, they invited a colored helper to enter the cage. But Mose was not keen for the substitution. Insisted that he would rather be on the outside looking in, as life was very sweet to him.

"Your fears are groundless," the management pointed out, "All that is necessary is for you to put on that purple uniform, hold a whip in your hand, and sit on a stool in the corner of the cage as the procession goes through the streets and make those lions feel that you are master of the situation."

"Not me, boss!" murmured Mose. "Ah jus' couldn't be that deceitful!"

Lincoln said, "If the good Lord has given a man a cowardly pair of legs, it is hard to keep them from running away with him."

Society note from small weekly paper, "The happy couple, following the ceremony, left for Wisconsin where the bride's father has a large fortune and diabetes!"

FABLE OF THE TWO ADVERTISING DOCTORS:

"How's business, Doc?"

"Well, sir, since we began advertising all treatments positively free our receipts have just doubled!"

Only one in a thousand is an after-dinner speaker, said an ultimate consumer, but the deplorable fact is that the other 999 think they are.

MILTON SETZER OF UNIVERSITY PLACE

By Kitty Carney

For 12 of his 16 years, Milton Setzer has been taking piano lessons. After his graduation from Grosse Pointe High School in June, he aspires toward a career in music. Milton would like to attend Curtis Institute, but like many young hopefuls, he must bide his time.

Because the church organ intrigued young Milton when he was only three years old, his mother decided to start her son early and she promptly enrolled him for music lessons. Now, the organ holds no interest for him, although he studied it for a year at the Palestrina Institute and occasionally substitutes for church organists. He just wants "to go in for concert work."

Appears on Television

When the Tuxis Club presented "Anything Can Happen" this year, they invited their accompanist, young Milton to play a piano solo. He selected Katchaturian's "Tocata." An official from Station WXYZ was in the audience, and Milton was auditioned and played the same piece on the television program "Starlet Stairway."

Milton likes popular and semi-classical music, but classical is his favorite. Under recreation, he lists attending concerts as number one and Vladimir Horowitz is his favorite artist. Best of all, the records in his large classical album collection he likes Rachmaninoff's Third Concerto played by Horowitz.

His Favorites

He enjoys playing Chopin's famous "Polonaise" and Piano Concerto but finds that people most often request DeFalla's "Fire Dance." Milton has been working on Katchaturian's Concerto for Piano.

Milton tries to practice piano two hours daily, but between playing the French horn in the high school orchestra, accompanying the glee club and a capella choir at school, working on a yearbook and similar tasks, it's often difficult to find that much time.

Takes Weekly Lesson

Once a week he goes to the Art Center Music School for his piano lesson. In June he will play the Katchaturian Concerto at one of his teacher's "Evenings of Concerts." Atop the piano in his home is a picture of Edward Bredshill, his instructor with this inscription, "To the greatly gifted Milton Setzer with every wish for a brilliant future."

CREAM PUFFS

Contributed by:

Mrs. J. Ward Richardson

Heat one-half cup of water. Add one-half cup of shortening and bring to the boiling point.

Add one-half cup flour and one-fourth tablespoon salt.

Cook and stir the batter until it leaves the sides of the pan and forms a ball. Remove from heat.

Beat in, one at a time, two eggs. Be sure that batter is perfectly smooth and blended after addition of each egg.

Place spoonful of batter in 2-inch rounds on a greased tin, heaping them well in the center. Allow two inches between puffs.

Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) for 15 minutes. Reduce heat to 325 degrees and bake 25 minutes longer.

Pointe Counter Points

By JANE

It may be that one look out your drawing room window will make you doubt warm days will ever come, but JACOBSON'S has inside information on Summer's arrival and along with it a fabulous supply of cotton frocks you'll love. Before we get into them, we should tell you that JACOBSON'S also boasts a spanking fresh stock of white graduation dresses . . . white waffle pique with tiny pearl buttons all the way down the front hemline. Inserted white eyelet embroidery dresses the shoulderline and sleeves are short and slightly cuffed. There's an inserted belt and f-u-l-l skirt The raved about Carlye sunback dress is at Jacobson's in slim luggage horizontal stripes against a white background. Two shoulder straps are inserted in the frock to give a shirred bodice effect. There's a collarless bolero jacket with short sleeves. The frock comes also in blueberry tone. Gay candy striped cottons in patriotic red, white and blue (two shades of the latter) are cut in high style and smartly detailed.

We heard them talking on Kercheval the other day. "Well you simply wouldn't wear the same weight coat or dress in Summertime. You wouldn't even choose long, tight sleeves for the hot days ahead. Must apply to coiffures, too."

So the two turned into ANTHONY'S SALON and probably made good and sure their hair-do's will be Summer cool and smart!

Spring and Summer dances loom for the young in heart and WALTON PIERCE GROSSE POINTE BRANCH says politely but quite firmly, fashion news is surely filmy white formals. A frock that dances almost before its wearer dons it, is white organza over taffeta with the full skirt standing out because horsehair cleverly stiffens the great hemline. Splashed with pale gray leaves and maize butterflies on the sides and again at the bodice the gown has two slim shoulder straps. A wispy jacket goes over the shoulders and has a standup scalloped collar. All white organza, except for a dramatic cluster of pale yellow roses, another dancing gown is fashioned with plain basque, narrow shoulders and a low, rounded neckline. We could see a jet haired maiden with stag lines swooning because she chose another WALTON PIERCE gown of white organza with hand painted hydrangeas scattered in soft pastels across the material. A narrow turquoise velvet sash tied in steamers at the back and the skirt was voluminous to fairy princess dimensions!
