Record Vote Expected at Polls Monday

Officials Claim Confusion Regarding Millage Proposition

The following article on the school bond issue to be voted on Monday, was prepared by school officials at the Board of Education offices.

A record number of votes is expected in the special school election on Monday, May 9 when Grosse Pointe citizens cast their ballots on bond issue and millage propositions submitted by the local Board of Education.

New registrations have been coming in to school offices in a steady stream since the public announcement of the special election was made early in April. Registration of new voters has been particularly heavy in the Grosse Pointe Woods, Grosse Pointe Shores and Gratiot portions of the school district. Residents of the school district who have not yet registered for school elections may still do so up to noon Saturday, May 7, at the Board of Education offices at 389 St. Clair.

Record in 1946
The record number of ballots ever cast in a school election was in the special election on March 4, 1946, when 2759 votes were recorded on the millage increase proposition submitted by the Board of Education. The second high vote was a total of 2587 votes cast in a special election on September 27, 1938, on the Pierce bond issue and millage increase propositions.

School officials have discovered that some citizens of the community are confused with respect to the millage proposition. A statement issued by John R. Barnes, Superintendent of Schools, on Monday of this week seeks to clear up this confusion.

Special Debt Fund
The statement of the Superintendent calls attention to the fact that money received from the millage levy, if the levy is approved by the voters, is to be placed in a special debt retirement fund and may be used only for paying interest on the $4,000,000 bond issue and for repayment of the money borrowed. No part of the receipts from the proposed special millage levy can be used for current operational expenses, or for paying off any debt existing prior to May 9, 1949.

Get Better Rates
School authorities stress the fact that the amount of millage and the length of time specified in the ballot on the millage proposition are maximums. The Board of Education has been advised by investment and legal experts that it is necessary to provide for a higher maximum millage and maximum number of years during which the millage may be levied than would appear necessary in order to sell school district bonds at favorable interest rates.

Large investors are hesitant to buy school district bonds at low interest rates unless the millage proposition supporting the bond issue has provided a margin of safety to cover possible decreases in assessed valuations and possible increases in tax relinquencies.

Board's Expectations
The Board of Education has publicly stated that it expects to be able to pay off the full $4,000,000 bond issue in twelve to fifteen years if present assessed valuations and tax collection percentages are maintained. In order to make this more rapid retirement of the bonds possible the Board

Augustinian Order Pushes Plans to Build High School On Fringe of Grosse Pointe

New Structure With Capacity for 1500 Students Expected to Be Attended by Many Youths; First Unit to Accommodate 1000

The Reverend Father, Charles J. Melchior, head of the Augustinian Order in the Detroit area told the NEWS on Tuesday that preparations are being constantly advanced for the erection of the Augustinian High School in Detroit across Mack avenue along Radnor.

A committee of experts is now making a survey preparatory to a campaign to raise the remaining money necessary to launch the enterprise.

Will Handle 1,500
The school will eventually handle 1,500 high school students. The original unit, which will be started late this summer or in the early fall will accommodate 1,000 boys.

This project has a direct bearing on the school problem in Grosse Pointe. When it was first suggested some two or three years ago it was hailed with approval by the local school authorities as going far to relieve the pressure on school capacity here in the Pointe.

Expect Pointe Patronage
Father Melchior himself said on Tuesday that the new high school expected to draw a considerable part of its patronage from the Pointe area.

The plans have been modified in certain degrees to bring the cost within the budget originally set up. Solid glazed tile floors and wainscoting which had been planned will be supplanted with a less costly material. The original plan and student capacity however has not been changed.

Complete Athletic Plant
Eventually, the property will include an elaborate installation

High School's Noon Movies Subject of Council's Study

Something should be done at the Grosse Pointe High School to cut down the "unnecessary noise and boisterous behavior" during noon movies in the school, was the consensus of high-school students themselves, as shown in a recent tabulation.

This rates highest among answers to a questionnaire circulated in the High School at the suggestion of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture Council. William "Sparky" Farquhar, president of the Student Council of the High

Memorial Association Elects Heads

15 Directors Named and Changes in Association Laws Approved

Plans for the conversion of the Alger House property on Lake Shore road into a memorial community center, were greatly furthered at the annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, held Monday night in the Neighborhood Club. A new and greatly reduced board of directors was elected which met again Tuesday night to start actual details.

After approving the reports of the secretary, Mrs. Hubert Goebel and treasurer Paul I. Moreland, which recited the work of their offices up to date, Attorney Renville Wheat brought up the amendments to the articles of incorporation and the by-laws. These had been approved by the board of directors on April 7, 1949, and awaited approval by the members of the Association.

Changes Approved
All of them were unanimously approved.

These provide for changing the name from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund to Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association.

For the creation of a board of directors of fifteen persons for terms of three years, with provision that these terms be staggered at the beginning in one, two and three year groups and that every year thereafter five directors be elected for three year terms. It was also provided that five shall constitute a quorum of the directors for the transaction of business.

Governing Body
The Board of Directors is made the supreme governing body of the Association and will elect the president, vice president, secretary and treasurer and set up such committees within its membership as shall be deemed advisable.

It specifically provides for the naming of a Finance and Investment Committee within the Board of Directors, who shall have power to make such dispositions of the finances and investments of the Association as is deemed advisable, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

Advisory Committee
It is also provided that the Board of Directors shall have power to set up an Advisory Committee of not more than 35 interested and representative members of the Association "who shall advise and consult with the directors and officers of the corporation and with any manager or other executive of the Memorial regarding in any way the management of the business, property or affairs of the corporation or its activities. Such committee shall adopt suitable rules and regulations to provide for its organization and procedure."

Nominating Committee
At the previous meeting of the directors a nominating committee of four had been named, consisting of Mrs. M. M. Shaeffer, George Elworthy, Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt and James K. Watkins.

The report of this committee was read by Dr. Fitt with the designation of the original terms of the directors which had been decided by lot.

Directors Nominated
For the one year term: Vincent DePetris, Mrs. Charles Ellis, Norbert P. Neff, Ralph Netting and Alger Sheldon.

For the two year term: Louis Baldwin, Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., Leo Fitzpatrick, Mrs. Hubert Goebel and John L. Kenower.

For the three year term: Mrs. D. Dwight Douglas, Earl I. Heenan, Jr., Ernest Kanzler, Mrs. C. B. Lord and Paul I. Moreland.

71 Refunds
In the report of Paul I. Moreland, treasurer, it appeared that out of the more than 3,000 persons who had subscribed to the original War Memorial Library Fund only 71 persons had cancelled their subscriptions when the shift was made to Alger House and requested the return of the money they had already paid in. These have already been paid back, pursuant to a previous decision of the directors. This amounted to $2,533.09.

Voters Cautioned About Registration For School Election

Electors Must Be Specially Registered to Ballot Monday on Proposal to Issue $4,000,000 in School Bonds and Raise Millage

Registration for the special school election on May 9 will expire tomorrow, May 6 at the elementary schools, but those who have not been able to register at one of the schools may do so at the Board of Education headquarters building at 389 St. Clair the following day, Saturday, May 7, up to 12 o'clock noon.

The registration is made for the benefit of newcomers to the district. Any voter who has already been registered in the past will find his or her name still on the voting list and will be able to vote without making a special registration at this time.

Few New Registrations
Edward West, of the Board of Education, who has been keeping the special tabulation on the registration, told the NEWS on Monday, May 2 that the new registrations up to and including Friday night, April 29, totalled only 189 in the whole Pointe.

These were—at Trombly School 18, Defer School 9, Maire School 12, Richard School 13, Kerby School 10, Vernier School 60, and Mason School 87.

The heavier registration in the two schools in the north end of the district is undoubtedly accounted for by the fact that it is the Woods-Shores section that will directly benefit by the proposed school expansion program.

Maybe 250 More
The registration on Monday, May 2, had not been tabulated when Mr. West spoke to the NEWS office on Monday, but he thought there might be 250 more. Mr. West said he had expected there would be about 1500 new registrations but now had some doubt whether this figure would be reached.

There is a present existing old registration of voters for school elections in all of Grosse Pointe of approximately 8,000. These persons are all-qualified to vote on May 9.

Special Registration
A point which has been fully explained in recent weeks but which should be repeated for the information of the voters is that to vote at a school election, whether regular or special, the voter must have his name on the school registration lists.

Some persons may make the mistake of assuming that because they were registered and voted at the regular elections, such as National, State, County or Village, they are ready to vote at the school election. This is definitely not so.

To vote at the school election on May 9 the citizen must be on the school registration lists.

Two Measures Presented
Only owners of property, or the husband or wife of an owner of property, can vote on the proposed $4,000,000 bond issue. Any one properly registered may vote on the proposed millage raise. Both measures are directly correlated and both must be passed or both fail.

Monday, May 9 is election day.

PEEPER ESCAPES
A window peeper was reported at 456 N. Colonial court on the night of April 30. Farms Officers Higdon, Roland and Lyford investigated, but couldn't find the peeper.

Annual Outing Arranged For Boys of Safety Patrols

The annual outing of the Safety Patrol boys of the various Pointe schools will be held on May 12.

The entertainment consists of being taken to see one of the Tiger games in Briggs Stadium, and is a gesture of appreciation by the police for the excellent work which these patrol boys do in safeguarding the small children at the street crossings.

The buses will be furnished by the Rotary, Kiwanis, Optimists and Lions Clubs and the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association. Through the courtesy of Walter O. Briggs the boys have free admission.

The police of the Pointe speak very highly of the good work these boys are doing. Chief Arthur Louwers of the Park police

School Bond Issue Vote Important

Authority Furnishes Figures on What Passage of Proposal Would Mean to Taxpayers

This newspaper herewith presents some figures on the present and prospective debt of Grosse Pointe if the $4,000,000 school bonds should be authorized. The NEWS does not quote the person from whom the figures were received, as their source does not wish to be singled out as spearheading the campaign opposed to the school project. If his name should be published it would be instantly recognized as authoritative on the subject of local debt.

The present overlapping debt of Grosse Pointe is $123 per capita, based on a population of 38,000, which is practically the exact population at the last school census. The overlapping debt means the sum of all of public debts of the community, school as well as city or village.

Would Boost It To $229
If the proposed $4,000,000 of school bonds is issued this overlapping debt will be $229 per capita.

The median figure of public debt for cities of 50,000 to 100,000 population as worked out by Dunn and Bradstreet is $62.00 per capita.

The general consensus of authorities whose function it is to advise banks and other large buyers of municipal bonds, is that the credit of municipalities whose overlapping debt reaches $150 to $175 per capita should be looked at askance. This is the general dictum on all municipalities regardless of their wealth.

What It Would Mean
Examine for a moment what this proposed $4,000,000 school bond issue would signify for the Pointe municipalities, with their pro rata share of the school debt added to their already existing municipal debt.

This overlapping debt for the Park would be $194 per capita. For the Farms $209 per capita. For the Woods $218 per capita. For Grosse Pointe City $293 per capita.

The figure for the Shores was not presented in this compilation as this was somewhat complicated by the fact that about 20 per cent of the Shores village lies in Macomb county and hence is not subject to the school debt.

$5,500,000 Total
The interest and retirement of the proposed $4,000,000 school issue would total about $5,500,000. To service this issue the School authorities ask the voters to sanction a raise in the millage of 2 mills for the next two years and a raise of 4 1/2 mills for the next eighteen years.

This Is Possible
The present assessed valuation of the school district is $117,000,000. If the great growth in the district materializes, which the school authorities predict, it is conceivable that this increase in valuation during the life of these bonds might reach $150,000,000.

That in event the total tax which the citizens of Grosse Pointe would pay, would rise to the staggering sum of $12,750,000.

The school authorities say that any taxes received over and above the amount necessary to service the bonds would be kept inviolate in a separate fund and applied to the earlier redemption of the bonds.

This may be so, but against this promise lies the fact that the ballot on Proposition 2 carries the following rider: "Provided that in any year that any of such bonds are outstanding the amount of such increase in the tax rate limitation shall be more than sufficient to meet the requirements established for the payment of said bonds, such excess may be used for the purpose of constructing, enlarging and equipping additional school buildings and facilities authorized by law."

STATION WAGON, CAR CRASH

Study High School Movies

more sport and animal movies," said Farquhar, who gave a lively report to the Council. "The girls wanted more love movies. Many students also wanted more feature pictures."

The questionnaire showed that some students do not attend the noon movies because they would rather spend the time watching intramural sports. Others indicated they wanted to "use all the hour for eating."

Suggestions for improving the situation were made at the Motion Picture Council meeting both by Farquhar and by Council members. The Council for two years has been seeking means to improve the quality of motion pictures shown. It was felt that it is the task of school authorities to improve the conditions under which they are shown.

The movies are chosen by John Finch, of the High School, who works with the Student Council and with Mrs. Marick, of the Motion Picture Council, in making the selections. At the suggestion of parents of high school students, the Council two years ago began its attempts to see that the noon high school movies are acceptable for students according to the Council's criteria. At the same time selections are made in an attempt to fulfill the desires of students. The same films are shown to junior high school students, who were not polled in the questionnaire.

Mrs. Robert M. Hays, of the Motion Picture Council, urged a wider usage by Grosse Pointe residents of the sound motion picture films that are available at the Public Library. These films were purchased with money donated by the Motion Picture Council. Mrs. Hays said that five new films have been added to the Library's list for April, May and June through rentals with funds provided by the Council.

The St. James Lutheran Church became a member of the Council at the last meeting, and it was decided that other interested persons may join as members-at-large, through a system to be arranged by the Council's board of directors.

Accident on Cadieux Reported to Police

Mrs. G. H. Zimmerman of 125 Kenwood court, phoned the Park police at 11:50 a. m. on April 29 that a car owned by her had figured in an accident.

Her car was driven by Celia Bezak of 27015 Lanier road, Birmingham, Mich. The driver of the other car was Ola Pancake of 1035 Yorkshire road.

The accident had happened on Cadieux in the rear of the Kercheval avenue stores. There was no personal injury but some property damage.

of Education has announced its intention to make bonds falling due in the last five or six years of the $4,000,000 issue callable at the option of the school district.

Make Partial Payment

In addition to these there were a few who stated they were unwilling to complete the payment of their subscriptions but were willing to let the money they had already paid be applied to the Alger House project.

One of the last acts of the meeting was the unanimous election of the new Board of Directors as brought-in by the nominating committee. This board now takes over as the government of the Alger House project.

Strong Board
The general feeling was that an exceptionally strong Board of Directors had been named and one as representative of the whole Pointe community as could have been chosen. It was also recognized that the reduction of the Board from unwieldy numbers to a smaller group was a wise move. It is understood that all of the new Board of Directors had been interviewed in advance of the presenting of their names and had agreed to give of their time to the work of the Board.

There was a general recognition of the outstanding part that Alger Sheldon had carried in the whole memorial project since its beginning and the conclusion of the meeting was a standing vote of appreciation of his leadership.

481 Cars Stopped In Safety Drive
The Chiefs of the Grosse Pointe Police Department have announced the police of Michigan are continuing to find cars being driven which are in an unsafe driving condition and that statewide traffic deaths are continuing to increase.

According to the Michigan State Safety Commission, the coordinating agency of the state-wide program in which the police of Michigan are checking brakes and lights, Michigan traffic violators are being stopped at the rate of 15,756 per week. In the first three weeks of this traffic accident prevention program, 47,268 traffic violators have been stopped. 1 out of 14 of these had unsafe brakes, 1 out of 4 had one headlight out, 1 out of 39 had two headlights out, 1 out of 7 had no tail light and 1 out of 27 had other defects. Every one of these cases represents a car that is a potential killer.

The Chiefs pointed out that the need for additional traffic law enforcement is shown by the fact that in March 1949, for the fifth consecutive month, traffic deaths in Michigan increased. March deaths increased 18%, when 17 more persons were killed than the 92 killed in March of last year, according to information compiled by the Michigan State Police.

In the Grosse Pointes, the department officers stopped 481 moving violators. In this total 31 defective brakes, 88 defective headlights or tail lights were found.

Harry Martin Repine of 4927 Opal, Detroit, for failing to stop at Mack and Whittier on March 27, resulting in an accident, was fined $10 and $5 costs.

Cigaret Mystery Still Unsolved

Mrs. Edward H. Crozier of 1233 Beaconsfield phoned the Park police on April 29 that someone had thrown seven cartons of cigarettes in her back yard.

The police gathered up the cartons but their presence there remained a mystery. They communicated with the Detroit 5th and 15th Precincts to learn whether any theft had been reported in their districts, but no such report has come in.

Choir to Hold Potluck Supper

The choir of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will hold a Pot-Luck supper in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Symons, 1332 Torrey road at 6:30 p. m. tonight, Thursday, May 5.

The choir under the direction of Mrs. Willis Bugbee has demonstrated its ability to partake musically of all the different phases of church life. This participation has ranged from the ridiculous to the sublime. This past fall, the choir presented a farce on church life entitled "Methodists in Their Madness." This spring the choir presented at the morning worship service on Palm Sunday, a rendition of John Stainer's immortal "Crucifixion."

The choir rehearses each Thursday evening from the first Thursday in September until the last Thursday in June.

Edward Pattison Dies in Sleep

Edward Pattison, aged 20, of 2 Rathbone place, died some time prior to 8 a. m. on April 28. Edward lived with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Pattison, who occupied the garage apartment on the Dwight Douglas property.

He had been in apparent good health and when found, looked as if he might have passed away peacefully in his sleep.

He had been out with the family car the night before and when his father, who works for the Ford Motor company, went into his room to get the car keys he supposed the boy was sleeping. He took pains not to awaken him and went out without knowing the young man was dead.

Dr. J. Stewart Hudson, who was called, immediately pronounced him dead at 8:15 and said he had apparently been dead for several hours.

The body was taken down to the Coroner's office and Officers Mauck and Smith waited there until the post mortem was completed. The Coroner's office stated it was unable to determine the cause of death. A further examination is being made in Ann Arbor.

Young Pattison was happy and in excellent spirits prior to his death. He had recently secured a place in the Statler Hotel where he was preparing himself for hotel management, which he had decided to make his life work.

Woods Capitulates to Plan For Inter-Municipal Radio

Joins Four Other Pointes In Establishing Joint Police System; Ghesquiere Hopes To Keep "Costs And Confusion" At Minimum

At a special meeting the Grosse Pointe Woods Village Commission passed a resolution to take the initial steps to join with the other four Grosse Pointe Municipalities in the new proposed Inter-Municipal Police Radio system.

"While the Woods Commission has been fairly well satisfied in the past with the police radio service furnished by Grosse Pointe Township, it now feels that in the interest of cooperation we should join the other four Pointes in the establishment and operation of the new Police Radio system," said President Ghesquiere.

"Before this there was a great deal of concern on the part of the commission that the proposed system would increase the costs to the Woods and that it would also cause some confusion in broadcasting because dispatchers clearing calls from various Police Departments, were eliminated from the proposed set up. There is still some concern on that score, but it is believed by the Commission that it is very important that all the five Grosse Pointes be on one police radio system.

"We are hopeful that by working in close cooperation with the other Pointes on the Radio Control Board that we can keep the costs and confusion to a minimum," said Ghesquiere. "There will however be an increase in the Grosse Pointe Woods Village tax rate because the initial cost of the new equipment for the operation will be paid for out of village taxes instead of the township taxes as heretofore."

"If the Woods had decided to maintain its own station the cost would have been about the same, but we would not have had the cooperative tie-in with the other four Pointe Police Departments. "It has been rendered impossible for the Township to keep on rendering their Police Radio service because the other four Grosse Pointe municipalities do not want it continued."

Motorist Nabs Stone Throwers

As Glenn A. Livingston of 19677 Washnetaw avenue, Grosse Pointe township, was driving east on Mack avenue near Neff, a stone crashed through the right windshield of his car. He stopped and grabbed three boys who looked very guilty.

The boys, thoroughly frightened, said they had not intended to hit the car, but had been throwing stones at tin cans they tossed into the air.

The police took the boys to their parents who were informed would have to compensate Mr. Livingston for his shattered windshield.

Child Blamed For Farms Fire

A fire which did $500 damage to the home of C. F. Bachle at 279 LaSalle place on April 30, was blamed on his three-year-old son, who was playing with a cigarette lighter.

The blaze set fire to a mattress and spread to other parts of the upstairs bedroom.

Navy Sending Four Pointe Youths to College in Fall

Four Grosse Pointe youths were among the 1,800 pre-college students throughout the United States and its possessions selected for entry into the Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps in the 1949 fall term of college. This group was selected from approximately 31,000 high school seniors and graduates who took the Navy's aptitude test in December, 1948.

The youths are Donald Theodore Mackinnon of 474 Washington road, Richard Lee Wardrip of 787 Lincoln, Theodore Hall Fuger Jr., of 252 Cloverly, and Addison Douglas Smart of 935 Westchester.

Upon acceptance for admission by any of the 52 colleges and universities in which N.R.O.T.C. units are established, they will receive a subsidized four-year college education. The Navy pays for their tuition, books, and normal college fees, and provides $50 a month for living expenses.

In college, the N.R.O.T.C. selectees may take any course leading to a baccalaureate or higher degree, but must include prescribed Naval subjects and must meet certain requirements in mathematics, physics and English. In addition, they are required to participate in two summer cruises and one summer period of aviation indoctrination, each lasting from six to eight weeks.

Upon graduation the students are commissioned Ensign or Second Lieutenant in the Naval or Marine Corps Reserve, and serve for two years on active duty. At the end of two years, they may apply for acceptance into the Regular Navy or Marine Corps. If they do not choose or are not accepted for regular service, they are given Reserve commissions and ordered to inactive duty, subject to recall.

Officer Bitten Capturing Dog

The unusual circumstance of a man biting a dog, which makes front page stuff according to newspaper legendry, is nearly rivaled when a policeman gets bitten by a dog.

This happened in the Park the other day when Patrolman Pat Conlon answered a dog bite call. Mrs. George Blair of 825 Beaconsfield, phoned that her 6-year-old daughter, Betsie, had been bitten. Conlon was sent to answer the call.

He got the dog, but the ill-tempered pooch took a bite out of Conlon's hand. Pat hung on, however, and landed the dog in a dog hospital to await the results of a 10 days' isolation and observation period.

Girls Eliminate Game Disturber

A woman residing on York-shire complained to the police on April 29 that her 10-year-old son had just been beaten up by two boys and two girls on the Maire school grounds.

When the police arrived they found two boys and two girls playing tennis. The beating, if any, had been administered by the distaff side of the foursome. The girls told the officers that the boy had persisted in riding his bicycle over the court while they were playing. They had asked him to desist several times but, with the insolence of youth, he gave no heed.

It was then that the girls, not the boys, took over and the cyclist after a good mauling at the hands of the young amazons beat a retreat.

The police thought full justice had been done and so informed the complaining mother. She quite agreed and said her son hereafter would display better manners.

Nocturnal Ride Halted by Police

A woman who lives in Pemberton, read called up the Park police station at 10:25 p.m. on April 27 and stated in a highly nervous voice that her husband, who was drunk had insisted on going out with his car and he was in no condition to drive.

The message was sent over WRDR, and a few minutes later Patrolmen Hoyer and Dilloway brought in the wandering husband.

The police who are loath to prefer charges against a man for drunk driving as long as he is able to sit, stand or lie in a 10-acre lot compromised on a reckless driving charge. They took his car away from him and sent him home, accompanied with a ticket.

Catch Opossum On Lawn in City

Opossums are on the loose again in the Pointe. On Monday evening W. N. Mayo of 365 Noire Dame phoned the City police that some sort of strange animal was on his lawn.

The police picked up the opossum and locked him in the cat box in the pound in the municipal garage.

The department is still debating whether to have a "possum roast" or turn him loose.

BURNED TENDING FURNACE

Robert W. Crowther of 790 University place was severely burned on the head and face by a jet of flame that shot out of his gas furnace as he was attending to it at 9 p. m. on April 28.

Children to Present Spring Concert on Sunday, May 15

The All City Elementary Band under the direction of William Ferry, and the Children's Orchestra under the direction of Miss Martha Ream, are winding up two months of rehearsals in preparation for their Spring Concert to be given in Pierce Auditorium on Sunday, May 15, at 3 p.m.

These rehearsals have been big moments for the youngsters, for it is a thrill for them to play in these musical groups which number over 60 children in each organization. Their little school ensembles—sound tame beside the lift they get from playing in the larger groups.

When they hear another section play, they stand up to see what is going on, thus missing their own entries. One adult observer expressed, when he listened in on a rehearsal of the Children's Orchestra, that it was just like the "Grand Central Station," people coming, going and getting settled, but nevertheless playing music with a child-like zest seldom equaled.

The mothers have been most cooperative in taking turns in furnishing transportation and they are strong in their praises of the children's musical growth and improvement. What the youthful musicians miss in musical notes is compensated by their sincere enthusiasm.

Six children and six adults will perform two string numbers at the concert May 15. The band group is contributing some interesting small ensembles, one a flute trio composed of three very pretty little girls.

Another added event will be a student director for one of the orchestra numbers. The director is none other than Duane Kalember, the son of the high school instrumental music director.

Paul Shuert will play a lively violin solo called the "Pony Race."

Justice Young Fines Drivers

In City traffic and police court on April 25, Justice Leslie P. Young disposed of the following cases:

Lucile Stock of 107 Moran for a stop law violation at St. Clair and St. Paul, was fined $10 and $5 costs.

Hixie Boykin Hatten of 1069 Parker, Detroit, charged with reckless driving, was let off with costs of $5.

The cases against Dominick Catarinichia of 5834 Thompson and Anthony Dalian of 1464 Bewick, charged with larceny from automobiles, were each held under $100 bond awaiting a report from the probation office.

Two Cars Crash At Intersection

A passenger was treated at Cottage Hospital for shock following an automobile accident at Kercheval and Moran on April 27.

Sylvia C. Wagner, of 500 Wagner court, Dearborn, driving a DeSoto south on Moran, did not exercise proper caution in entering Kercheval, and collided with a Packard being driven west on Kercheval by Hannah A. Meredith of 421 Rivard boulevard.

Miss A. C. Aplet of 155 Highland, Highland Park, a passenger in the Meredith car, suffered from shock and was taken to the hospital. Damage to the DeSoto was estimated at $150 and to the Packard at $100.

Pointer's Sister Wins Big Prize

Hailed by critics as a "new name" in the field of writing, Mrs. Richard Nowinson of Chicago, awarded second prize of $10,000.00 in the recent Christopher contest for a first novel, "The Martels," is well known here. She is the sister of Mrs. John Nicholas Hoste of Detroit, and Joseph W. Louisell, attorney, U. of D. graduate and Grosse Pointe resident.

The purpose of the Christophers is to encourage millions of Americans to bring Christian principles into: (1) government, (2) education, (3) labor-management, and (4) newspapers, magazines, books, the stage, radio and movies.

Awards totaling $40,000.00 were given Wednesday, April 27, at a luncheon at the Vanderbilt Hotel in New York for novels and plays submitted. The judges in the "book awards" were Clare Boothe Luce, Myles Connolly, Fulton Oursler, Father John S. Kennedy, and Mary O'Hara.

Catch Youngster With Stolen Bike

Detroit police of the 15th precinct picked up a boy who they saw disassembling a bicycle in front of 1417 Wayburn on the night of April 30.

They communicated with the Park police and collaboration quickly established the fact that the boy, a juvenile, was one of a gang of boys who had been responsible for several recent bicycle thefts in the Park and nearby Detroit. He was held for juvenile court.

Giant Service Pole Removed

The great granddaddy of all electric service poles, which has stood at the corner of Rivard and Maumee since 1914, will soon disappear.

Having outlived its usefulness the Detroit Edison company has sawed the old monarch off and lashed his upstanding relic to the new pole which will supplant it.

In a day or two the old pole will be removed and probably converted into the choicest kind of fireplace wood.

Mrs. Hugo Scherer of 205 Lake Shore, expressed appreciation for service rendered by the Farms police department during the fire which destroyed a portion of her home on April 11, by sending a contribution for the department's Christmas Fund.

Garden Groups Busy During Entire Month

Wellesley Club Festival, Federation Convention and Annual City-wide Pilgrimages Keeping Organizations Well Occupied During May

The garden groups seem to have taken the month of May over completely. For months past, members have been making plans for the three big events marked on the May calendar. Mrs. George Villerot of Beacon hill road has a hand in each of the important projects.

The Detroit Wellesley Club will open the series May 17-22, with their Flower Festival at the Art Institute. This will be the first time that the Institute has been transformed into flower headquarters. The festival also has a novel angle, in that it is strictly for amateurs. In fact, the club has set May 21 aside as Children's Day in the competition.

For the first time in five years, the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan will hold their annual convention in Detroit at the Hotel Statler. Local garden club delegates will be hostesses to more than 150 representatives from throughout the state May 18-19.

Mrs. Wendell K. Wheelock is general chairman of the convention.

Then, for four successive weekends beginning May 21-22, the Detroit Garden Center will sponsor the annual city-wide garden pilgrimages. A total of 88 gardens, including many Pointe gardens of distinction, will be open for public inspection.

Mrs. Frederick C. Campbell, in addition to being secretary for the pilgrimage group, has offered her garden for the Federated convention's tour of five Grosse Pointe gardens. Mrs. Meredith Randall and Mrs. Wendell Wheelock are also on the pilgrimage committee.

Maria-Waid McKnight to Marry At United States Naval Academy

Climaxing June Week activities at Annapolis, Md., will be the wedding of Maria-Waid McKnight, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Waid H. McKnight of Hawthorne road, and Ensign Thomas Fletcher Lechner on Friday afternoon, June 3. The 3:30 o'clock ceremony will be read in St. Andrew's Chapel, United States Naval Academy.

The bridegroom will be graduated at a morning ceremony preceding the marriage. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Harold M. Lechner of Glendale avenue, Detroit. Both families will go to Annapolis for June Week, which begins May 27.

The bride-elect has asked Winifred Lechner, Tom's sister, to be her honor maid. Jayne Meier and Jean Martin will make the trip to attend as bridesmaids.

Ensign Donald Gaing, of Cleveland, O., will be best man. Ushers are Ensign Everett Higgins, of Norfolk, Va.; Ensign Guy Peely, of Washington, D. C.; Ensign Walter Schriefer, of Oshkosh, Wis.; and Midshipman Boyd Johnson, of Miami, Fla.

Meanwhile, Maria-Waid is already in a whirl of bridal parties. In March, Mrs. Arthur Moesta and Mrs. Clinton R. Scharf, Jr., gave a luncheon and personal shower for her at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The Thomas home on Cadieux road will be the scene of an around-the-clock shower today, with Mrs. Edward W. Thomas and Mrs. Arthur C. Beaumont, Jr., as hostesses. On May 11, Pauline Sagala and Virginia Johnston will entertain at a desert and miscellaneous shower at the Women's City Club.

A May 17 dinner and shelf and drawer shower, also at the City Club, has been slated by Jayne Meier. The bride-elect will again be feted on May 20, when Mrs. Gustav Kuechenmeister of Maryland avenue gives a miscellaneous shower in her home.

Jean Martin plans to be hostess at the spinster dinner in her Van Dyke avenue home on May 23. Dr. and Mrs. Lechner will give the rehearsal dinner on June 2 at Annapolis.

Pointe Colony To Get Charter

By a ruling of the national board, Grosse Pointe Colony, National Society of New England Women, will receive ten ballots for delegates to the National Congress of 1949. The society will convene in Detroit May 10 through 14 in honor of the Detroit Colony's Silver Anniversary.

The Grosse Pointe Colony, organized since the last congress, will receive its charter at the business meetings at the Statler Hotel.

Delegates who will represent Grosse Pointe Colony are mostly Grosse Pointers, real or 'home-line'. They are: Mrs. Clifford A. Neville, Mrs. George S. Guy, Mrs. John Cullen Kennedy, Mrs. Lewis Cass Dunn, Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Mrs. Henry Booth, Mrs. Albert Pasini, Mrs. Charles Warner, Mrs. W. Arthur Batten, Mrs. O. W. Shannon.

Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith will vote by virtue of her office as president of Grosse Pointe Colony. Another member, Mrs. Edward J. Savage is a national officer, organizing secretary general, and will attend all national board meetings.

Grosse Pointe Colony will entertain with a social tea at Newberry House for visiting delegates on May 11, from 3 to 5 o'clock. Mrs. Charles B. Warner is chairman in charge of the tea, and with several hundred delegates expected, her committee consists of the entire membership.

Ford's theater, in Washington, D.C., where President Lincoln was assassinated, is now Lincoln museum.

Expectant Fathers Get Much-Needed Lessons

A meeting of the Expectant Fathers group was held on Thursday evening, April 28, in the home of MRS. FRANK E. MORGAN at 1906 Hunt Club drive. These meetings are sponsored by the Red Cross and the volunteer teachers are all registered nurses. The expectant fathers, particularly those who are first fathers, are coached in the duties they will soon be expected to perform. The work has been undertaken by the Red Cross on a wide scale and is a form of social service which is much appreciated. Manhandling the doll which is being used in place of a live baby, fortunately, is HAROLD WANAGAT. HARRY PATTERSON stands by as Mrs. Morgan throws up her hands in resignation.

Galloping Breakfast Furnishes Fun for Congregational Women

Have you ever been to a "Galloping Breakfast?" Early Monday morning door bells started ringing. A voice at the door said, "Come as you are; you're going to a 'Galloping Breakfast.'" Given by the Congregational Women's Association. So out came women in negligees, house dresses, slacks, with dust cloths and even cereal bowls to join the rest of the 125 women who had been invited in a similar manner.

To our knowledge this is the first breakfast of its nature to be held in Grosse Pointe. No advance warning was given, except a very splashy card telling that the breakfast would be during the week of May 1, and as one matron said, "I never dreamed it would be Monday because that is wash day." Mrs. Verle Ryan was panicked when she saw a new Buick draw up to her home. For Mrs. Ryan was in the midst of window washing and had no desire for early callers but it was Mrs. Glenn Wilkerson who had come to whisk her away for breakfast.

When Mrs. Edward Schutte arrived at the Edward Cooper home, she found Vera washing but it didn't take Mrs. Cooper long to switch off the washer and go along with the crowd. Mrs. Fred Slocum is one of the early risers in the Pointe and she was all set in her neatly ironed house dress but was hanging up her wash. Yes! I'll go, if you will first help me hang my laundry, she told the driver. Mrs. O. M. Arnold was found ironing a shirt.

Mrs. Stanley Lindow had decided to do some early shopping so left her guest, Mrs. Atkins of California slumbering. When the door bell rang Mrs. Atkins donned a bathrobe and went to breakfast in her sister's place. Others arrived in similar attire. Mrs. Harry Barnard arrived clad in a suit, beautiful hat, furs and even gloves and was promptly fined for being the best dressed woman. Mrs. T. C. Marbut took only long enough to dress her fourteen month old baby then hurried along with the crowd. Kippy was the youngest member present. Hilarity continued at Miller Hall when Mrs. L. R. Martin, dressed in white slacks and a white sweat shirt, bare footed and with her hair rolled in different colored socks, lined the women up for morning callisthenics. The prize for touching their palms to the floor were little boxes of raisins. Then followed a breakfast of juice, coffee cake and plenty of coffee.

All with perfect hose, earrings, curlers, gown and certain other attire were fined as part of the entertainment. Following the custom of a flower being presented, a beautifully wrapped flower box containing three pounds of flour was presented to Mr. G. A. Granse. The woman with the most children was presented a package of "Life Savers."

Mrs. Alton Huntington was mistress of ceremonies at the "Breakfast Club Review."

MY HOSPITAL BILL CAME TO $117825
BLUE CROSS COVERED IT ALL!
AND IN ADDITION, PAID $19500 FOR SURGEON FEES!
CASE #33-P49110-59
Mr. [Name], age 62, a Blue Cross member for some time, was suddenly taken ill and hospitalized for 107 days! His bill included operating room, anesthesia, lab. tests and drugs. Blue Cross covered it all. And paid $195 to the doctor for surgical care.
From an actual case in the Blue Cross files

Chances are 1 in 10 that you will go to a hospital this year!

YOU CAN NEVER TELL when sudden illness may strike. That's why you and your family need Blue Cross protection—priceless protection for only a few pennies a day per member. Blue Cross is Michigan's most widely used non-profit health-care plan. It is sponsored by the doctors and hospitals themselves.

No other health-care plan offers so much for so little Blue Cross pays out in benefits an average of 85 cents out of every dollar received from subscribers! Blue Cross offers such advantages as: . . . identical benefits for each enrolled member of your family . . . no physical examination or health statement. Blue Cross Hospital Plan pays up to 120 days of hospital care. No cash limit on benefits covered. And Blue Cross Medical-Surgical Plan pays stated amounts for Surgical Services and for your doctor's visits at the hospital.

Ask your employer to get the full story about how your company can help provide this protection for you.

Pointe Masquers to Present Broadway Hit on May 11, 13

On Wednesday Evening, May 11, and Friday Evening, May 13, at 8:30 p.m., the Adult Education Program of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education will offer fine entertainment to Grosse Pointe audiences in the John D. Pierce Auditorium. There will be no admission charge.

The three-act play by Charl Armstrong, "Ring Around Elizabeth," was originally produced in New York in 1946 with Jane Cowl in the title role, and has become a great favorite with little theatre audiences throughout the country.

Every member of the family will enjoy the portrayal of Elizabeth (to be played on alternate evenings by Mrs. George T. Hall and by Mrs. Opal McRury) as she outwits her frustrated, shouting husband, portrayed by Mr. Ralph Tennant and Mr. Howard Reece; her lovelorn eighteen year old, enacted by Miss Lois Kosanke; her scientific "genius" of fifteen years, played by Miss Jacquelyn McRury; her fussy, selfish mother characterized by Mrs. Edward M. Apple and Miss Jenny Calhoun.

Any husband will be well pleased with the quiet, sardonic humor of Elizabeth's father-in-law, as portrayed by Mr. Dan H. Buell II. The fiery retorts of the family cook, to be enacted by Mrs. Olan Edwards; the nosy, but sophisticated reactions of the houseguest, played by Mrs. Adam C. Cook and Mrs. Louis Chaney; the malicious attempts at interference by the grand dame, to be handled by Miss Shirley Lewis; and the languid, impossible attitude of the psychiatrist, characterized by Mrs. G. K. Cheatham add to the roguish, good spirits of the play.

Andy Blayne, the cynical playboy enmeshed in the family affairs, will be characterized by Mr. Donald Jones, and Richard Cheatham will handle the part of the policeman. The play is being presented by special arrangement with Samuel French.

Hard at rehearsal for some time, under the direction of Mr. Haythorn Bambas, these amateur theater enthusiasts, the Grosse Pointe Masquers, have prepared a finished production which is well-framed from a staging viewpoint.

Hits Parked Car In Making Turn

All was quiet and peaceful in the Park police station at 3:05 o'clock in the morning on April 27. Patrolman Domine, at the desk, was ruminating on the vicissitudes of a policeman's life when he heard a crash outside that sounded as if a 50-ton tank had struck a Maginot line pill box.

Anthony Texas, of 1201 Grayton, driving north on Lakepointe into Jefferson, in making a sharp turn had plowed into another car. There was no personal injury but considerable property damage. Texas got a ticket.

The parked car that was hit is owned by A. J. Martin of 15123 Jefferson.

Money Missing Following Party

Mrs. Lawrence Howard of 423 St. Clair, reported to the police on April 29 that her granddaughter, Ann Young, had had a teen aged party at her home the night before between the hours of 6-11:30, and that after the guests had departed she found that a cigarette case in which she had between $26 and $30 in bills and some silver was missing.

Later they had found the cigarette case among the kitchen utensils.

The silver was in it still but the bills were gone.

They have furnished the police with a complete list of the guests and the police have good hope of picking out the particular light fingered "guest."

Pint-Sized Girl Solves Problem

Diminutive persons have their own peculiar place in the human scheme.

Four Juveniles Put on Probation

Juveniles James Correa of 15414 Mack avenue, Charles Remus of 1237 Maryland, and Otto Glenert of 1324 Lakepointe, who had been picked up by the Park police on March 17 for rifling automobiles, had a hearing in Juvenile Court on April 25, and Referee Baxter placed all of them on probation until they are 19 years old.

The youngsters had taken approximately $500 worth of auto accessories.

William Ditta, the 11-year-old expert on handling the latest model of Buick cars, was also placed on probation. Young Ditta, it will be recalled was seen by a resident backing a brand new Buick out of the Turner Buick lot on March 17.

The resident started to drive him around to the police station but ran into some trouble in handling the car.

Young Ditta, volunteered to take over the driving and landed himself and escort in good shape at the police station.

Federalists Sponsoring Talk by Edgar Mowrer

Edgar Ansel Mowrer, famous foreign correspondent, author and lecturer, will speak in Detroit on Wednesday, May 11 at 8:15 p.m. in the auditorium of the Central Methodist Church, Woodward at East Adams Street on "The North Atlantic Security Pact and After?"

The lecture is being sponsored by the United World Federalists, Inc.

Police Unload Overladen Car

As a City patrol car was cruising on Washington road at 10:45 o'clock on Saturday evening, April 30, the officers saw a car full to overflowing with young noise and making considerable noise meanwhile. It had four persons on the front seat and four on the back.

They escorted the car back to the Maumee station, took it away from the youngsters and directed them to walk home. They also warned the driver of the car not to get another car and pick up the youngsters at some designated point and drive them home. The police thought the exercise would be a good thing for the hilarious youngsters. The car driver got a ticket for four riders on one seat.

Roslyn Paving Job Postponed

The proposed paving of Roslyn road west of Mack, a petition for which was submitted to the Woods Council, has been indefinitely postponed.

At a recent meeting of council a large delegation of property owners was present who favored the delaying of the pavement for a year or two longer. The general argument was the cost of paving was very high now and the property owners might be saved a considerable sum by waiting.

This view, representing the apparent majority of the property owners, determined the council to lay the matter on the table temporarily.

Bike Riders Try To Snatch Purse

Barbara Hogg, of 1114 Beaconsfield, reported to the Park police at 8:58 p.m., April 28, that as she was walking north on Beaconsfield between Jefferson and St. Paul a few minutes before, two boys, apparently about 16 years old each, rode by her on their bicycles and attempted to grab her purse.

She held onto her purse and they failed to snatch it. They then sped away at a lively rate. She did not know the boys but gave the police a fairly accurate description of them.

Chris Caulkins Weds William Finkenstaedt

Couple Honeymooning in South Following Ceremony in Christ Church and Reception at Little Club; Will Live in Van Antwerp Road

Mr. and Mrs. William Clements Finkenstaedt are on a Southern honeymoon following their marriage Saturday at a 4 o'clock ceremony in Grosse Pointe Christ Church. The Rev. Edgar H. Yeoman read the nuptial rites.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Caulkins of Rivard boulevard, wore a gown of white Swiss eyelet with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves ending in points at the wrists, and full skirt fashioned of yards of the eyelet. A horizontal band of organdy was inserted at the waistline and tied in long streamers. Christine wore a full length veil of illusion, draped from a small bonnet-like hat made of folds of the illusion, and carried stephanotis in a cascade arrangement centered by a white orchid.

Mrs. John Caulkins was matron of honor for her sister-in-law, and Betsy Finkenstaedt, sister of the bridegroom, was honor maid. The bridesmaids were Mary Piedeman, who came from Sea Island, Ga., for the wedding, Mrs. James F. McDonnell, Jr., Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Jr., Mrs. William Church, of New Orleans, Mrs. Wadsworth S. Cauchois, of San Francisco, and Mrs. Andrew McCullough, of Plainfield N. J.

The attendants were gowned in duplicate frocks of Swiss eyelet embroidery, differentiated from the bride's by brief, cap sleeves and full skirts which stopped at the floor instead of extending into trains. Small white, rough straw hats, tied with salmon pink grosgrain ribbon, formed their headpieces and they carried white French baskets filled with salmon pink geraniums and ivy.

Christine's two nieces, Wendy and Mary Lamb, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Rex M. Lamb, Jr., of Mt. Vernon, O., attended as flower girls. Their short white organdy frocks had tiny cap sleeves and lace-edged berthas. They wore miniature versions of the bridesmaids' hats and carried small duplicate baskets of geraniums and ivy.

Bill asked his brother, Harry S. Finkenstaedt, Jr., to be his best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Finkenstaedt of Woodland place.

School Bonds and Public Credit

There is an angle of this proposed school bond issue that deserves more attention from the people of the Pointe community than it is getting.

This proposed issue of $4,000,000, added to the already existing school debt of $1,227,000, would mean a total school debt of $5,227,000 and would represent a greater proportion of the local indebtedness than all the other items of the public debt combined.

The total debt of all Grosse Pointe incurred for all other purposes except schools is only $3,481,000.

Buyers of municipal bonds are not greatly concerned with the uses to which preceding issues have been put. They are mightily concerned with what the existing debt amounts to and what it will be with the addition of any proposed issue and what proportion this total indebtedness will bear to the assessed taxable value of the property that stands behind it. This is the invariable yardstick by which municipal credits are measured.

Due to prudent local government the credit of Grosse Pointe, both in toto and in the breakdown of its municipal units, is high. This situation enables any of our Pointe communities to borrow money for its major improvements on very favorable terms. This directly affects the taxpayers. But an issue of $4,000,000 school bonds in one operation will inevitably affect the credit of all and of each single municipality here.

As an illustration of how this might work, the City of Detroit has demanded that three of the Pointe communities, the Park, City and Farms, shall share in the cost of carrying their storm water sewage past Fox Creek down to the Conner Creek outlet. Detroit has given us the detailed bill. It amounts approximately to $5,500,000, a tremendous burden of debt for these three communities to shoulder.

The position of these three communities has thus far been simply that we can't and won't pay it. This is a fine defense as long as it can hold, but presumably the Detroit officials were not entirely uninformed on the matter when they went so far as to present us with the itemized bill. Suppose that the last court of competent jurisdiction decides that Grosse Pointe, or three of them, must pay this bill. We might find ourselves facing imminent municipal bankruptcy, as we certainly would be if we have meanwhile taken on a school debt which in the long run would cost much nearer $8,000,000 than $4,000,000.

This would be a sorry situation for lovely Grosse Pointe, whose whole existence has been predicated on providing a beautiful surrounding for home life and escape from the burdensome and irritating involvements which characterize residence in a great city.

In addition to the possibility of having to share in Detroit's present scheme to carry sewage below its water intake it is easily possible that in the near future the program for excluding all sewage from the lower great lakes system, which is now being seriously agitated by State and International authority, might progress to a point where it would be advisable for Grosse Pointe to seriously consider setting up its own self contained water supply and sewage disposal system. This would cost a large sum of money and is an additional argument why this community should carefully conserve its public financial strength.

In view of the many possibilities which hang over our community involving large expenditures of money for unavoidable purposes it is doubly necessary for us at this time to examine with a gimlet eye every proposal for large scale outlays. Particularly, should we not take on now such expenditures unless 100 percent justified and necessary.

The school expansion program does not come in this category.

The War Memorial

The annual meeting of the members of the War Memorial group held Monday night in the Neighborhood Club resulted in the setting up of the official organization which will have charge of the administration of the Pointe's War Memorial.

An exceptionally strong board of directors was named which succeeds the old, unwieldy board of fifty-nine. The name of the corporation has also been changed from the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Library Fund to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association. This was made necessary with the elimination of the Library feature from the Memorial.

The meeting developed great enthusiasm and there was a general feeling of relief and gratitude that Grosse Pointe has at last surmounted the many difficult hurdles encountered in its long quest to provide an appropriate memorial to its formidable list of dead heroes of World War II and to the group of more than 3,000 young men and women from this community who carried the chief burden of the Pointe's war sacrifice.

Much still remains to be done to convert this beautiful property into a going and effective center of the patriotic, cultural and civic life of the community, but the foundations have been firmly planted and await only the sincere cooperation of the citizens to translate it into a splendid reality.

The profound thanks of the whole community are also due at this moment to the Alger family for donating the magnificent property to this purpose, giving Grosse Pointe a vastly finer memorial than it could have hoped to have provided by any present day contributions. It is doubtful whether there is a single city in America which starts its war memorial enterprise under such auspicious circumstances. And at this time special appreciation should be expressed to Mr. Alger Sheldon, whose patience, tact, single mindedness and courage has carried this project through every discouragement to its present fine culmination.

Anti-Communism's Front Line

The Western World is keeping its fingers crossed on the Russian approach which apparently has as its immediate purpose the lifting of the blockade of Berlin.

The suspicion prevails that, short of the economic un-

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"He passed a cottage with a double coach-house, A cottage of gentility; And be owned with a grin, That his favorite sin Is pride that apes humility." (Robert Southey)

Appropos of the item we printed last week concerning the little Western store and our blouse, a local dowager telephoned to tell us the following, which we hope will amuse you as it does us. In the first place, it is almost sacrilege to refer to our heroine as merely "a local dowager." Her name is widely known; not only in our own social directory but in those of other cities as well. Also, she has the where-with-all to buy any number of stores, if she so chose.

Well, to get on with her story. She too saw some gadget in a magazine that she thought she'd like to have. It came from some obscure little shop in a Western town, so she wrote and asked if they would send the thing to her and bill her for it. Back came the reply that they would be charmed to open an account for her and were enclosing the necessary forms... which, if she would so kindly fill out, they would take under advisement.

The enclosed forms advised that Madame must answer all questions before an account could be opened. We print here just a few of the questions she was obliged to answer: "Give former address; present and past business associations and income derived therefrom; Bank, nearest relatives, assets re. stocks, bonds etc.; monthly payments received on stocks; Did she pay rent and if so, how much? List type of car she drove and also number of dependents. Give local and foreign trade references."

In the column under heading "Foreign Trade References" the shop had penned in the name of a store in New England! Our heroine sez she was so fascinated by the whole form, that she actually found herself filling it in. Then she added, "It has been at least 45 years since anyone has had the temerity to ask me any one of those questions."

Apparently, the old Jiggs and Maggie set-up of the funny paper is more than a figment of the artist's imagination... at least for some folk, the situations are rampant in real life. We are referring specifically to Maggie's continually trying to track down her errant husband's whereabouts, either in person or by telephone. However, a very unlike Maggie-ish wife called to tell us the following incident... which she still doesn't know whether to laugh or get mad over... (both phrases ending in propositions, you will note!)

It seems our heroine, whose husband runs a small shoppe in the Pointe, telephoned him one day and was told by one of his office gals, that he had stepped across the street to see Mr. Soandso, another shop owner. Since the little woman had things of moment to talk to her husband about, she didn't hesitate to call him at the shop he was visiting. The office girl THERE answered the phone and when our heroine asked if Mr. Filibberigbet was there... the girl replied, "Yes, he is"... then promptly hung up. Annoyed to the point of committing hayhem, Madame again called the shop and asked, "Didn't you tell me Mr. Filibberigbet was THERE?" The girl allowed as how she certainly DID say he was there. "Then... may I speak to him p-l-e-a-s-e?" asked the Madame, acidly. "Oh," replied the office girl. "You want to SPEAK to him? I thought you just wanted to know if he was here!!"

Our A number 1 fan has crawled out from under a rock again, to come up with the following letter... for which we say, "blessings on the little man!"

"Dear Pryor: It is seldom that your correspondent finds himself in agreement with any opinion expressed in Grosse Exaggerations, but I must go along with you in your campaign to stamp out the lightning rod menace. LIGHTNING RODS MUST GO, and it is time to expose the conspiracy of silence that has permitted them to become a threat to our community."

"Almost anyone you know can name at least 10 or 11 places that never have been struck by lightning. You add these up and they amount to a considerable number, right in Grosse Pointe. I suspect the Lightning Rod trust is behind the present promotion and in my opinion it is time to tell them you know what they can do with their product. And I'm the guy that can do it; tell them, that is."

"Lightning rods are aesthetically offensive, too. You take a nice television aerial, now! There is a thing of beauty, I guess, and it is just as capable of pulling the lightning right into your family circle and, incidentally, killing off some undesirable neighbors. This is clear proof."

"When you clean up this lightning rod mess, I wish you'd do something about clearing the streets of a lot of these horseless carriages. They clutter up the gutter so that I can hardly ever find a place to tie my horse while I stop in to pass the time of day with Gus at the corner saloon. C.K.L."

balance in Berlin resulting from the blockade which may have cost Russia more than it has the western powers, the Soviet has some ulterior motive underlying its advances which bode no good to western democracy. If Russia's price is a larger voice in the disposition of the pending West German state it is not hard to see that the whole negotiation may smash up.

The western world has good cause to suspicion any proposition emanating from a country which has exercised its veto power in the Security Council four or five times oftener than all of the other nations combined. Many of these vetoes have been wholly trivial and made chiefly for blocking purposes.

A change of heart from Machiavellian procedure to plain sincerity by the communists would be happily received by the democracies but such a right about face in party policy is almost more than dare be hoped for. Thus far the west has made it clear that nothing will cause it to turn from the determination to set up an independent, sovereign state in western Germany. It is to be hoped that nothing in the pending arrangements will deflect this purpose.

Western Germany is the front line of defense against an aggressive world communism on the march.

Artistic Insanity

Millions of the plain, common folk of the world, the "unintellectuals" and the ones who do not "understand" must have felt in their simple souls, like proposing Three Cheers and a Tiger, when Sir Alfred Munnings, head of the Royal Academy of England, passed his two fisted, red blooded comments on modern art the other day.

About the only observation on modern art that the ordinary man or woman can make is that it must be the manifestation in the field of so-called art of that general insanity which has permeated so much of world thought in every department of human interest and activity.

In their simple souls they know that it is the antithesis in every respect of the true and beautiful and good of which Cousin spoke a century ago.

These charlatans of art present their meaningless blobs of color and lines which stand for nothing in Heaven above or Earth below and then have the effrontery to say that it represents a thought, thing or person which they themselves, much less their nitwit patrons, can define or understand.

But Sir Alfred's vigorous characterizations of "nonsense and rubbish," "monstrous stuff" and "droppical, swollen, distorted women" was speech that awakened a heartfelt echo among the great multitude of men and women who are still striving to retain their mental equilibrium in a world that seems to be progressively getting off balance.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor:

As President of the Grosse Pointe Parent-Teacher Association Council, I feel that it is my duty to try to answer a few of the allegations which have been made in the weekly papers of this community relative to the special school election to be held next Monday, May 9. I have checked each of these issues very carefully and feel confident that I am presenting straight facts and not "guesses" or "estimates" made by the Board of Education or its staff members.

First, it has been repeatedly asserted by some of the critics of the proposed bond issue that additional school buildings are not now needed because we now have vacant school rooms in both the Defer and Trombly Schools and that we should resort to transporting children from the Mason-Vernier-Parcells district to these schools. It is true that there are a few vacant rooms in both of these school buildings in which children from the north end of the district could be placed. This, however, would be only a "stop-gap" procedure for this would take care of the situation at best for not more than two years. We must keep in mind that it will be a year or two years before any buildings can be ready for occupancy provided this bond issue carries.

Another reason why transportation is not feasible is that the bus company at the present time is strained to its limits to care for the children who are now being transported and it is very questionable whether any perceptible number of additional children could be added to their load.

A second reason which has been given in opposition to this bond issue is that the facts relative to the need for additional buildings are based on "guesses" of the Board of Education, and its staff members. I have discovered after careful checking that the number of children for which the Board of Education claims that housing is needed is not based on estimates which will be due to new homes. Rather the estimates are based on the census records which show the number of children who are now living in our school district and who will be entering our schools within the next two or three years. One example to show what is taking place is the following:

Two years ago there were four first grade groups in the Mason School; this year there are six; next year there will be eight. I hope that the explanation given above concerning these questions will clear up some of the misconceptions which have been "bandied" about in recent issues of the papers and trust that the citizens of this community will vote favorably on the bond issue next Monday, May 9.

Sincerely Yours, Frederic B. Besimer 1121 South Oxford

Editor's Note: Opponents of the bond issue have compiled figures to show it will be some years before the capacity of the existing school buildings will be reached. The "estimates" and "guesses" of the school officials have been hopelessly erroneous in the past. At the time plans were being made for the new Kerby and Parcels schools they "estimated" enrollment would be increased by at least 600 by this year. Figures now show that the enrollment as of March 1949 has increased only by 180.

As for Mr. Besimer's "facts" on the matter of transportation and his assertion that the bus company is at present "strained to its limits"... John Tierney, general manager of the Law, Shores Coach Lines told the News Tuesday that its facilities are now perfectly adequate for the transportation of school children and if it is called on to handle an increased load, it will be no problem to add to these facilities.

Opponents of the bond issue also argue that the school authorities are not using census figures properly to show an accurate picture of expected enrollments.

Dear Sir: The proposals of the School Board have met with considerable criticism in the columns of your paper. I am writing briefly to say that I believe much of this is unwarranted.

In the 1920's I worked hard to elect capable and honest members to the School Board. For many years I have watched the development of its program and its schools. I am well acquainted with the present Board; John Barnes the superintendent and many of his staff. All of them are highly intelligent and have good judgment. I have spent some hours with them studying the present program, which involves the bond issue, and I am strongly in favor of it.

Unlike most businesses which have to estimate their future demand, the School Board can tell, with complete accuracy, four years ahead, what its demand will be. The children that they must provide for at the age of five are already born and in Grosse Pointe.

The empty class rooms at Trombly and Defer are not mistakes made by previous School Boards, but indicate merely the growth of Grosse Pointe to the north and the aging of the residents in the older section. If these rooms were used to capacity they would provide for about one-quarter of the additional children entering the schools in the next four years.

The reason for not moving all these children from Grosse Pointe Woods to Grosse Pointe Park daily by bus is not the matter of expense, but because the School Board believes it unfair to the children to do so. The reasons are too many and too complicated to deal with in this letter. I only say that I agree with them. We have an excellent School Board and I hope that the people of Grosse Pointe will recognize this fact with their votes next Monday.

Very truly yours, Kenneth L. Moore

To the Editor:

I have read with a great deal of interest, the vast amount of literature put out by our School Board in the interest of the two proposals that are to be voted upon by the electorate next Monday, May 9th. I would like to add my voice to the growing number of people who are in opposition to these two proposals.

I think it is an outrage to expect the people of Grosse Pointe to assume a tax burden of some $12,000,000.00 and not only the $4,000,000.00 that the School Board would like us to believe we are committing ourselves to. I believe that this amount of money at this time is wholly unnecessary and unjustified.

I do not believe that the past performances of our School Board and the School system officials warrant the trusteeship of $12,000,000.00 of tax funds. Some of the construction in our district has been poorly located which is one of the reasons we are in the predicament we find ourselves today. Just three years ago we voted a large sum of money in the form of an increased millage for the purpose of building two schools which they now tell us are only one-fifth completed. If that is true, how do they propose to build four more with only $4,000,000.00?

If, as the officials want you to believe, the 4 1/2% increased millage is only to retire the $4,000,000.00 debt, why did they attach the rider to Proposal No. Two, which gives them the unlimited right to use any money over and above the amount necessary to retire the debt for the purpose of constructing, enlarging and equipping additional school buildings and facilities authorized by law? This means, fellow taxpayers, that the School Board will actually have $8,000,000.00 to $9,000,000.00 over and above the $4,000,000.00 bond issue to spend as they see fit. They seem to think very little of such a large amount of money and yet they take great issue over the $15,000.00 a year that it is costing to transport students to buildings that are now 50% occupied. It seems to me that we could well afford to spend even more than $15,000.00 and continue to transport students for a few more years until we see how and where our population will be centered. Let's not have any more guesswork or bad judgment in spending our money.

Mr. Miller's suggestions that we have a little more cooperation between the five Grosse Pointe communities and the School Board I think is worthy of consideration, and has a great deal of merit. Those of us who speak in opposition to these proposals are called "ill-advised" or people who are not interested in our school system.

I think I can back up my statements with facts and I am certainly in favor of adequate school facilities. I am not in favor of unnecessarily spending the taxpayers' money or building expensive structures when they are not necessary.

The School Board called a special election for May 9th, which was about 30 days before the regular School Board election. I wonder if they hoped that they would catch all of the taxpayers asleep except the few that they knew would get out and vote for it? They have known that this matter was coming up for some time. Why did they not give publicity long ago? Did they withhold the publicity to shorten the time for any opposition to develop?

Do not be misled by statements that they will not collect any more than is necessary to pay off the $4,000,000.00 bond issue. You and I all know that when a taxing authority is given an amount of money to spend, they somehow or other manage to spend it all. The taxpayers never get the breaks.

One more thought in closing, and it is most important. Be sure you are registered so you may vote next Monday, and remember, the only majority that counts is the majority that votes!

William G. Kirby

To the Editor:

The School Board issue for providing more school buildings for Grosse Pointe upon which we are asked to vote on Monday, May 9, is of vital interest to the people of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Our present school board has determined after a thorough study that we will need new buildings to be erected during the next several years at a total cost of $4,000,000.00. The greatest portion of this would be spent in the Woods with the balance in Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe Park.

To us living in the Woods this is a surprising and heartening situation. All former school boards have in the past always had a policy of "too little and too late" when it came to providing schools for this end of the district. Now this Board is being accused by some of being "too soon with too much." Others believe that education is never expensive but that ignorance always is.

Being very close to the conditions existing out at this end of the School District I do not believe and neither do a great many of our citizens believe that we can obtain adequate buildings soon enough. We have been so long suffering from lack of school room space for our children and have for so many years had our children of 10 years and older shunted and shuttled by bus all over the district, mostly to the extreme south end of the district that it would indeed be a welcome treat to have adequate school facilities within reasonable walking distance. We surely would appreciate it if our children could have the privileges that those in the south end of the district have had for the past 24 years in my own personal recollection.

We are appealing to the voters in the entire district to support this school expansion program that is direly needed. Our own residents in the Woods should also be sure and express their opinions on Monday, May 9, between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m.

Register for School Elections (this is a separate registration from that of the Village or Township). You may do so at Mason School until 8 p.m. on Friday, until 5 p.m. at the Board Office 389 St. Clair until 12 noon Saturday.

Stomach Cancer Is Curable

By FRED M. KOPP, M.D.

Doctors report that stomach cancer kills about 33,000 people in the United States each year. Many deaths from this disease are unnecessary. If caught in time stomach cancer can be cured by surgery.

The difficulty lies in detecting the disease in its early stages because most victims wait over a year after symptoms are noticed before they seek a doctor's advice.

Symptoms which should be investigated are tiredness and weakness, loss of appetite for meat, and indigestion before or after meals.

Those who seek medical advice regularly in order to prevent illness are wise.

All prescriptions should be entrusted to a pharmacist who will compound them in a precise manner.

Three More Matches Taken By Blue and Gold Net Stars

Ypsilanti, Fordson and Highland Park Become Victims 20, 21 and 22 Since Coach Merlin Schultz Took Over Reins From Larry Westerville

By Fred Runnells

Since 1941 Grosse Pointe's varsity tennis teams have dominated the tennis picture in the Border Cities League and this year is no different than the rest.

The Highland Park victory was number five for the Devils this season and added to the Pointers stupendous victory record started way back in 1941.

Probably the fastest match on record in the B. C. L. was the one turned in by the Devils when they whipped Fordson on the Tractors own wind swept courts between rain squalls, 7-0, in 45 minutes.

The following day, April 27, the Devils entertained Dearborn in a return match and won 7-0. Without the services of Al Mann and Bruce Kirchner, the Devils number one and two players.

Notching number 22 was easy for the Pointers when they swamped Highland Park, 7-0 on the local courts on April 28 for their second league victory in as many starts.

Outlook Brightens Prior to the start of the current season Grosse Pointe's tennis outlook wasn't too bright, but with the exceptional play of a couple of first year boys, Cort Lecklider and Bob Allen, Coach Schultz's squad is a top heavy favorite to retain the Border Cities League title for the second successive year.

Smith, who rates next to Chuck Kocis, number one on the Honor Roll, earned his position by winning the district championship last year.

Olson, a three stroke player, holds down number five spot in the honor group.

Olson earned his spot by being runner-up in the Western Junior, and co-champion in the Birmingham invitational.

Currently Olson is to play on the University of Michigan varsity golf team.

While Kammer and Babbish, number 9 and 10 on the list, played little or no tournament golf last summer, it was figured their recent records justified including them this time.

Parkers Hop On Bryant to Beat Devils

High School Nine Takes 9-3 Shellacking in Free-hitting Contest Played Here

By Fred Runnells

The Highland Park Polar Bears drove Al Bryant from the box in the second inning and went on to defeat the Blue Devils, 10-3, before a large partisan crowd on the local diamond Thursday April 28.

The game was a comedy of errors with Highland Park out-fumbling the Pointers, 8 to 6. However, the Parkers also outdid the Devils in the other two important departments, scoring ten runs on eight hits as compared to the losers three runs and three hits.

Jump on Bryant

Highland Park jumped on Bryant in the very first inning. With two outs and men on third and first the Polar Bears broke the scoring ice on an error by Catcher Johnson, who threw the ball into center field attempting to get Darling, who stole second. When the ball got away from centerfielder Munro, Brenneman scored from third with the first run of the ball game.

These antics apparently unnerved Bryant for a moment and he pitched a single to Charleston which scored Darling with the second run of the inning. Dorazio struck out to end inning.

Strikes Out Three

Houvars chalked up three straight strikeouts after Hafer had walked to open the inning and Donnelly reached first on an error.

Highland Park sewed up the ball game in the second inning. Dunham opened the inning with a walk and was forced at second with Balan reaching first on a fielders choice. Houvars singled to left field and went to third when Donnelly let the ball go through his legs for a two base error. Balan scored all the way from first on the play. Shoneski struck out, and Brenneman got a free trip to first when he took one of Bryant's pitches in the back. Lawrie then doubled, scoring Houvars and Brenneman. Darling singled and that was all for Bryant. Chase replaced Bryant on the mound and struck out Charleston to end the rally.

Green Triples

Grosse Pointe's first run was scored in the second inning on a triple by Green and a balk by Houvars. It was also in this inning the Blue Devils had bases loaded with two out but a weak tap off of Johnson's bat ended the Pointers sporting chances.

The Parkers added another run in the third inning and four more in the sixth just for good measure. In the fifth inning the Pointers tossed a scare in the Polar Bear camp.

Umpires Decision

Donnelly fled out to deep center to open the inning. Johnson walked and Vince Schoeck was given a free trip to first when the umpire said the ball hit his shirt tail. Schoeck almost started an argument stating, "I didn't feel anything." Barry Munro singled to right field and when Shoneski fumbled momentarily, Johnson scored the Pointers second run of the game. Green smashed a hot grounder through Charleston's legs at short scoring. Schoeck, Peterson and Winkler struck out to end the inning and the Blue Devils scoring efforts for the day. Jim Schoeck hurled the seventh for the Pointers and allowed two hits.

The defeat was the first for the Blue Devils in two-league starts. On the other hand, the victory was the first for the Polar Bears in two starts.

St. Paul Ball Team Beats Annunciation

Bob Berg Sparks Pals to Victory by Striking Out 10 and Giving but Three Hits

By John Engelhard

By turning in a nifty 3 hitter and striking out ten, Bob Berg hurled the St. Paul Flyers to a 10-2 win over Annunciation last Friday afternoon, April 29, at Waterworks Park. Don Hartlage paced the Flyers at bat, slamming out a long triple with a man on and lining out a single to center with the bases jammed, in all knocking in three runs.

Most of the Flyers' runs were unearned, resulting from 5 errors chalked up to the Cougar infield. With better support afield Annunciation's pitcher, John Donovan would have caused the Flyers a bit of trouble. He allowed only five hits.

Scores on Wild Throw A wild throw to first base by Chuck Alaska of a grounder off the bat of Jim Ferri led to Annunciation's first run in the first inning. Donovan then singled to center and Ferri came in from second. The Flyers came back in the second to score 3 markers and go ahead.

Plenty of Scoring The Flyers added one in the third, another in the fourth, 3 in the sixth and closed with a pair in the 7th. The Cougars finally came in the fourth as a result of a three-bagger by John Deizida, and a long fly.

St. Paul opened the campaign Tuesday, April 26 and literally threw the game away as they lost in the rain to St. Martin, 6-4. Wild tosses accounted for 4 of the Cadets' six runs.

Kopp's Leads Rotary Loop In Sprint to Finish Line

Druggists Take Over Sole Possession of Lead by Beating Houston Teap; Final Session of League Scheduled for Tomorrow Night

Kopp's Pharmacy took over sole possession of first place in the G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League. Houston Bros. Inc. was expected to turn the Koppers back but failed in the attempt. Kopp's won 3-1, Houston averting a shutout by winning the last game.

Middle Atl. Transp. Co. relinquished their hold on first place by splitting with Farms Market. The Middies took the first game with plenty to spare but Farms came back with 913 to the Middies' 902. Geo. Towell and Howie Ewald carried 213 and 204 for Farms, while Milt Grossmeyer bagged 213 for the losers. The third game and a mighty important one, ended in a tie and a rolloff was necessary.

See Great Battle The spectators, standing ten deep, witnessed a battle they'll long remember. The Middies finally lost when Geo. Towell tripled, putting the game on ice for the Farmers. Ed Taube, Farms captain, says his team is not out of it yet, if Kopp's lose four tomorrow night, the Middies win one and his team, four, then there will be a three way tie for the championship, whew...

Auto Club Jumps Auto Club, with a sweep over Mondry Cleaners, jumped from 7th to a tie with Holsbaugh for 4th. Dave McCarron and Cliff Larson were tops for the sweepers, Emil Deprest, easily best for the losers.

Tomorrow winds up the season for the Rotary Club Bowlers and from here we can't tell who the winner will be, it's so close. If you're interested, Kopp's meets Punch & Judy Cocktail Lounge, Middle Atl. meets Piche's Barbers and Farms Market meets the Auto Club.

Opera Society Plans Auditions

The doors have been opened by the Detroit Opera Society to admit new members. In view of the resounding acclaim by both critics and public which greeted their first full-scale offering, "The Old Maid and the Thief" and "Down in the Valley" at Music Hall, the Detroit Opera Society has made preparations to proceed with its proposed long-range program. This program includes preparing four new operas, two of which will be well into production by early June.

Anyone who can pass the entrance and audition examination is eligible for active membership in this rapidly expanding and progressive organization. All those interested in making application are urged to do so before voice sections are filled and casting begun. Mr. Yaghjian will hear singers Friday, May 6, between the hours of 6 p.m. and 8 p.m.

The group is composed solely of local talent and all members are invited to audition for leading roles in the forthcoming operas. The names of these operas will be announced to the public at a later date. Call TE. 2-9913 or stop at the studio, 28 W. Warren avenue for further information.

Whose absence at the annual meeting of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra was noted in print . . .

Far from being caused by any disinterest or difference . . . Mrs. Newberry merely had a previous engagement . . . and her deep interest and concern were with those at the meeting . . . as of yore . . .

She is an ardent and active supporter of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra . . . and like so many, hopes sincerely that all differences will be ironed out and all will be harmonious as usual when Autumn arrives and its symphony time once again . . .

Humane Society Seeks Members

May 1 was the beginning of the national "Be Kind to Animals" Week. It is also membership week for the Michigan Humane Society.

During 1948 more than 100,000 animals in the metropolitan area came under the care of the Michigan Humane Society. Its ambulances brought in a total of 32,794 animals. There were 26,879 regular calls and 3,145 emergency runs.

Citizens in the Detroit area took 12,236 animals to the Society, a Red Feather service of the Community Chest.

Almost 300 pets were returned to their owners through the Society last year and 3,320 animals found new homes and happy masters.

The Humane Society, whose shelter is located at 7401 Richmond, is charged with the inspection of pet shops, livery barns, riding academies, stock yards and poultry markets. The lives of many animals became more tolerable because of improved living conditions brought about by the Society.

The Society's Investigation Department looked into 1,182 complaints of cruelty and neglect. The complaints were wanton abuse, abandoning, poisoning, shooting and, in one instance, the burning of a live animal.

Humane Society officers report that neglect still leads the parade of abuse and that there is a lessening of completely vicious types of cases. Many of the abuse cases were brought to court and the defendants found guilty and sentenced.

In its usual efforts of rescuing animals from trees, sewers, poles and from between buildings, the Humane Society saved 451 animals.

The Humane Society is now seeking 10,000 new members to help it increase its services to Detroit area citizens and to the needy animals.

May 1 has been set aside as "Humane Sunday" and churches are preparing special services.

You can help increase the services of the Michigan Humane Society by joining the membership rolls.

Call the Michigan Humane Society, TRinity 2,9400 and ask that a membership application be sent to you.

Har and Bridal Salon Open

The Wootton-Kotae salon, occupying the former location of Pongracz Jewellers, 17008 Kensington in "The Village", will hold its grand opening on Friday and Saturday of this week.

The building, which has been completely done over in an airy West Coast style, now ranks well with other fine shops in this unique shopping center. Millinery and bridal needs will be featured.

Miss Helen Wootton, who long operated Helen's Millinery here and who is well known for her years of teaching millinery in Grosse Pointe schools, is associated with Mrs. Avon Kotae in the new venture. Mrs. Kotae's background includes years of specialization in bridal furnishing and she is a former student of Academy Nuart, where she majored in French designing and dressmaking. She will devote her services to bridal furnishings.

Miss Wootton will feature one-of-a-kind hats at moderate prices as well as custom made hats, restyling and repairing. Along with her studio activities, Miss Wootton says she'll again resume her popular millinery hobby classes next fall.

Visitors at the shop for the opening will be delighted with its exquisite decor, which includes indoor shrubbery, and soft carpeting and blonde fixtures.

University Club Conducts Party

As April slowly turned into May last Saturday night so also did the Grosse Pointe University Club members and their guests turn into millionaires for a gala evening of crazy betting and frantic dice rolls.

All guests were greeted at the door by Bob Lewis and Sally Stickney, cashiers. At the roulette table Bob Connelly, Herb Buhler and Jack Wettlauffer, excitedly counted out chips and kept the disk rotating throughout the evening. Gathered around the wheel were Bill Penoyer and Norma Neeb, Phil Skillman and Sue Schmitt, Pete Field and Joyce Cohan and Gene Lookas and Frank Dirkes. Jim Dirkes and Hank D'Haene took bets for Bill Queen and Marge Holland, Tom Kilbride, Leo DeSimple, Jim Riehl and Jim Hollerback.

At the Chuck-A-Luck table Joe Padell and Joe Keane succeeded in making paupers out of millionaires Bob Tobin and Mary Lou Carr, Phil Keith, Jack Hendrie, Joan Lynch, Carol Diedrick and Nobe D'Haene.

Across the room at the dice table Bob Brinker and Art Mollitor received and disbursed thousand dollar bills as fast as possible to keep things rolling for Bill Maas and Joan Roney, Corinne and John Millenbach, Sally Roney and Stanislaus Kennedy and Bob Frear and Joan Thibodeau.

Tom Mercier couldn't deal the cards fast enough at the Black Jack table to satisfy Dick Wing and Ann Nichols, Lee Luke and Marg Duggan, Larry Schneider and Barbara Schemanske, and Lou Schneider and Fran Anastos.

Upstairs at the buffet luncheon were Jim Barker and Gloria Laughna and Butch McKendrick and Connie Baker.

When the tables were finally folded up and all money was turned in the party produced a second and third place winners few winners. Bill Penoyer's luck Mrs. Gerald Queen and Stanislaus Kennedy and Sally Stick- Alarm clocks were presented to ney.

Pointers Attend Baha'i Meeting

Mr. and Mrs. George R. True of Moross road were among the 171 delegates to the 41st Annual Baha'i convention, held in the Foundation Hall of the Baha'i House of Worship in Wilmette, from Thursday through Sunday. The Baha'i convention is held each year at this time to elect, through an entirely new system of election, the National Baha'i Assembly and to review the national and international work of the Baha'is.

Among the special items of interest this year is the work on the completion of the interior of Baha'i House of Worship, which was started in 1912. Contracts for the interior design have been placed, and the building is scheduled to be completed by January 1, 1951.

Also of interest is the Baha'i building on Mt. Carmel, Palestine, where the building for the International House of Justice is in its elementary stages.

Concurrent with this convention are other national conventions held by the Baha'is of Canada, the British Isles, Germany and Austria, Egypt and the Sudan, Iraq, Iran, India, Pakistan and Burma, and Australia and New Zealand. At this time, other groups in the remaining 91 countries where Baha'is are residing, are being held, to commemorate this time of year in which Baha'u'llah made His declaration to mankind, and to map out plans for the coming year.

The process of education has been going on long enough to make us look for the educated man.

Owned by Mrs. Charles Payne, it is wearing a dress used for the christening of her son, Martin, more than 50 years ago. Shop Lights

The new Duncan Collision shop at 17155 E. Warren, near Cadieux, is now open and doing business. Vaughan Duncan, Sr. and his two sons, Vaughan, Jr. and Donald, all well known East Side garage men, own and operate the shop which is well equipped to render the "finest and fastest collision work obtainable," as they put it. They also stress the fact that they give an estimate before proceeding with repair and collision work. The building is completely new.

Mrs. Jessie Pickering of 5021 Courville, who operates the beauty salon bearing her name, was recently elected president of the Business Women's Association of East Warren Avenue.

Did you ever hear of Ferry-coat? Well, it's the Ferry-Morse Seed Company's latest offering. It's the regular, good Ferry seed with a scientific coating of fungicide, fertilizer, growth hormones, and inert material. Something worth trying! We made the find at Stein Hardware store, 18626 Mack avenue, where East Warren intersects.

ADVICE TO AUTHORS

"When writing an article for the Press Whether in prose or verse just try To utter your thoughts in the fewest words And let them be crisp and dry.

"And when it is finished and you suppose It is done exactly brown, Just look it over again and then— Boil it down." Extract from The Girls' Own Paper, Nov. 12, 1885.

ON PLAGIARISM

"When 'Omer smote 'is bloomjn' lyre, He'd 'eard men sing by land an' sea; An' what 'e though 'e might require, 'E went an' took—the same as me;

"The market girls an' fishermen, The shepherds an' the sailors too, They 'eard old songs turn up again, But kep' it quiet—same as you;

"They knew 'e stole; 'e knew they knowed. They didn't tell nor make a fuss, But winked at 'Omer down the road, An' 'e winked back—the same as us."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. ALEXANDER L. WIENER OF UNIVERSITY PLACE

By Kitty Carney

Since your sons Sandy and Mackie have reached school age, Mrs. Alexander Wiener has become one of the busiest young matrons in the five Grosse Pointes. Somehow she manages to handle her home and several worthwhile projects simultaneously, doing very well with each.

Probably Mrs. Wiener's main interest now is the spring project of the Christ Church Women's Auxiliary, of which she is president. They are working to furnish the living room and dining room of the main farmhouse at Parishfield, property near Brighton which the Episcopal Diocese has purchased for a retreat site. Auxiliary members are making curtains and slipcovers among other things, and painting furniture for the retreat house.

Loves Gardening Mrs. Wiener's love for gardening and flower arrangement lead to her activities with the Junior League Gardeners, Garden Club of Michigan and the Detroit Garden Center, of which she is a vice-president . . . and, of course, to participation in the flower shows, garden pilgrimages and other projects sponsored by each of the groups.

On Thursday afternoons, Mrs. Wiener reports for work at the Junior League Shop, of which she is a board member. She is a member of the Cottage Hospital ing his Army service in this country.

Today, the Wieners are again settled permanently in their native Grosse Pointe—and Mrs. Wiener is making up for lost time by her part in local affairs.

GINGER MOUSSE

Contributed by Mrs. Edward H. Burlage

Cook yolks of four eggs in a double boiler with one pint of cream to form a custard. When cold, add one-half jar of preserved ginger with its syrup. (Ginger should be put through chopper before using.) Add one pint of cream whipped.

Freeze in refrigerator. Serves about eight.

Whether served in mold or in individual servings, a "pretty touch" is to garnish with pieces of crystallized ginger fashioned into petals between leaves of fresh mint. This is nice if not too sweet a dessert is desired.

SHRUBS STOLEN

Mrs. C. W. Kerr of 1255 Nottingham reported to the police on Wednesday morning that someone had stolen some new shrubs she had just purchased from a nursery. The shrubs were not yet planted and were easy lifting for the thief.

Pointe Counter Points

By JANE

All the Pointe shops are concentrating on a gals' best friend . . . muvver . . . this week and the pretties displayed are bound to be welcomed as a special token of your love and affection.

JACOBSON'S regard Mother as a pretty all around gal and their Suggestions point out that Mother gets around. She'd love the new chokers of single strand or rope pearls to dress the necklines of her Spring frocks. Mother wears sheers of Venus Beige or Grecian Tan hosiery and Can use the wispy sheer hosiery designed especially for sandals and shell shoes. JACOBSON'S also shows dainty organdy aprons some of which have deep V in front of bright chintz patterns. Or remember her this Sunday with one of the divine new straw bags from Italy which come in a number of fascinating shapes (one is like a straw basket with straw handle, lid latched at side and bright colored flower design woven on top sides). Straws are toned in natural, red or brown. There are matching sandals too, which will make Mom as snappy as all get-out!

Flowers are traditional as gifts for Mother on Her Day but there is something extra special in PASELK'S geraniums! They're the kind of posies any mother would adore any and every day. PASELK is noted for his utterly charming geraniums. Ever so many of the best green thumbed Pointers you know wait for this first geranium word and then dash like mad to choose theirs for Spring planting. Well, the geraniums have arrived in the most beautiful colors . . . especially the pink apple blossom variety. So for Mother's Day and for your house or garden during the months of May and June place your order today. PASELK is located at 73 Kercheval but you may order by phone. Just dial NIAGARA 8224.
