Proposed School Election Affected By New State Law

Act Effective September 23 Makes It Mandatory For Board Of Education To Accept Votes of All Registered For Regular Elections

An Act of Assembly signed by Governor Williams on June 7 and which will become operative on September 23 may have a very direct bearing on the outcome of another school bond election in Grosse Pointe should another such election be held, as is now seriously considered by the local Board of Education.

This act makes it mandatory on the school board to accept the votes of any citizens at a school election who are already registered to vote in any city, village or township within or a part of the school district.

Bond Issues Different
Voters on bond issues would of course have to be limited to those who are property owners. This same provision applies however to voters on any bond election, so this point becomes six of one and half a dozen of the other.

As an example of how this would have worked in the recent school bond election which the voters defeated, the school authorities by a much beating of drums and the active support of certain civic groups succeeded in registering about 8,000 persons. At the same time Grosse Pointe Township had on its registration rolls about 18,000 voters. This was exclusive of the voters in the City and in that part of Grosse Pointe township, both of which are in the School district. It is the township registration which controls the vote for the national, state and county elections.

Might Have Been Different
Had these voters been permitted to vote at the school election the total vote would have been proportionately increased, with possibly different results. It has also been learned that there has been a law in force for several years which permits voters registered in townships, villages and cities which are a part of the school district to vote at school elections, provided however that the school authorities see fit to permit them to do so.

See Inconsistency
The new act will make this right of the voters mandatory on the School Board, but will probably necessitate the presence in the voting booths of the registration lists of both the School Board and/or the registration lists of the cities, villages, and township. The law which requires the school district to make its own registration of voters still stands. This is an inconsistency which will probably be corrected.

Poses Question
This old act which permits registration in the cities, villages and townships to vote at school elections poses the question why the school board in the last election did not permit these citizens to vote and plainly make known to them their voting rights. Instead the Board saw fit to conduct a strenuous registration campaign of its own.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF
Albert Hallett of 1113 Wayburn reported to the police on Sept. 1 that malicious youngsters had shot holes with air rifles through the right front and rear windows of his car while parked in front of his home the evening before. The damage would amount to eighteen dollars.

HUB CAP STOLEN
L. Meier, of 631 Westchester, reported to the police on Sept. 1 that the hub caps were stolen from his new '49 Cadillac car the night before while it was parked in front of his home.

Arrival of Yacht Delphine Heralded by Floods of Oil

Two oil trucks of the Fuel Oil Corporation which were delivering fuel oil for the yacht Delphine and for the barges which are dredging the canal for the yacht which is expected soon at the Dodge waterfront estate, flooded Jefferson Avenue at Fisher with oil on the afternoon of August 31 and again at 5:50 o'clock p.m. on September 2. The explanation was that the pipe conveyor which delivers the oil had not been used for several years and developed weakness

Pool Plans Shelved by City Council

Costs of Project Cause Solons To Postpone for Safer Swimming

The Grosse Pointe City Council at its meeting on September 1 gave the kibosh to the enclosed swimming pool project at least for the time being. The only angle from which the council considered the matter was the cost. On this score impressive figures were presented.

The City's charter fixes the limit of taxation for city purposes at 20 mills, the present rate is 18½ mills. This obviously leaves a narrow margin within which to provide for unforeseen major emergencies.

Costs Too High
The discouraging factor was the unexpectedly high cost of the enclosed pool. When the Council first began to consider this project it had been led by preliminary engineering estimates to believe that such a pool could be provided for about $75,000. The estimates which the engineers brought in on exact plans were for $118,000, $141,000 and $190,000 respectively, varying according to size, construction and capacity.

City Attorney Meder was especially "triled" at the NEWS for its advocacy of the enclosed, safe pool plan. He thought it high time the Council ceased to be influenced by minority groups and acted according to its own responsible judgment.

Mayor Also Protests
Mayor Netting also lifted his voice in opposition to the swimming pool project. He said he was getting sick and tired of all this ballyhoo about a pool. The Council decided to send out a letter to the voters explaining their action and asking the opinion of the citizens.

The outstanding bonded gross debt of Grosse Pointe City on March 31, this year, the end of the City's fiscal year, was $727,500. Against this was an offset of $186,300 in the sinking fund.

Valuation Drops
Twenty years ago the bonded debt was $1,650,000. It is true that the assessed valuation at that time was much higher, amounting to $29 million. The assessed valuation took a drubbing during the lean years of the depression. Also the restriction which the state places around the incurring of municipal indebtedness is much more rigid now. Unless the proposing municipality can show its ability to pay interest and amortization charges on the proposed debt, it cannot get the permission of the State to place the issue on the ballot.

Purely Economic
All of these factors lend up—

3 Buildings In North End Overcrowded

Record Enrollment Taxes Capacity of Mason, Parcels And Vernier Schools

Approximately 7,950 pupils return to classes today in the Pointe's public and parochial schools.

The total enrollment in the Grosse Pointe public schools will run at the opening of the school year from 150 to 200 pupils higher than last year at this same time. The official estimate is 5450-5500. The increase in enrollment is practically all in the elementary schools. The enrollment in the High School will remain about the same.

By far the biggest part of the total increase is in the north end of the district where the construction of several hundred new homes largely occupied by home owners in the younger age brackets, accounts for this jump in pupil enrollment.

Lack Classrooms
The school authorities have been plagued by the problem of finding classroom accommodations for this new influx.

In the Mason school three rooms on the third floor never intended to be used as school rooms have been set up as classrooms. Two of them were locker rooms and the third a play room.

In the Parcels school a small room is being used for classroom work which was never intended for this purpose.

A classroom is being set up in a basement room of the Vernier school which was not intended for this use.

2450 Parochial Students
The total enrollment in the parochial schools in the Pointe was not definitely known on Tuesday night. The school authorities however were able to give figures they believed would be found approximately correct when enrollment was finished at the opening of this school year. The St. Paul School believes it will have 700 enrolled, which if realized will be the largest in the School's history.

The St. Clair School expects an enrollment of 650. This will be the heaviest in the past ten years.

The St. Ambrose School is figuring on an enrollment of 1100. This figure would be considerably higher than a normal enrollment.

This places the total enrollment in all departments in the parochial schools in the Pointe at 2450.

8,500 Local Pupils
The authorities of the Detroit University School and the Grosse Pointe Country Day School, which are both under the same management, estimate that their enrollment when the schools open on September 21 will be approximately 600 for both schools. Taking the total enrollment for all Pointe schools, some estimated and others already known with reasonable accuracy, the figure approximates 8,500 pupils.

Storm Disrupts Police Messages

The storm on Wednesday afternoon, August 31, played hob with both the telephone and police radio in the Park police station.

For emergency radio use a car was placed alongside the police station and the sending and receiving of police radio messages was carried on. Both services were restored by 4:30.

Parked Spoons Alarm Bishop Road Residents

The residents in the 1100 block of Bishop were much disturbed on Sunday night by a suspicious car that they figured had lingered too long in the neighborhood. All the police unlearned were two young lovers engaged in some heavy spooning.

USED CAR STOLEN
The Boyd Sales and Service station at Nottingham and Jefferson reported to the police on September 2 that a gunmetal gray '46 Ford sedan had been stolen from their parking lot at about 6:40 o'clock that afternoon. The ignition key had been left in the car.

Crash Fatal To Father of Park Priest

Rev. Charles Lawton Loses Consciousness at Wheel and Crashes Into Car and Tree

Edward Lawton, aged 76, of 1214 Buckingham, died in Bon Secours Hospital at 6 a.m. on Sunday, Sept. 4, as the result of injuries received in an automobile accident at 9:39 a.m. on September 4.

The accident occurred under especially distressing circumstances. Mr. Lawton was returning home from St. Ambrose Church with his son, Rev. Fr. Charles Lawton, who had just said the mass in the church.

Loss Consciousness
Father Lawton drove east on St. Paul and turned left into Buckingham. He reports that he can remember nothing after turning into Buckingham. In this unconscious state he drove across Kercheval and passed his father's house at 1214 Buckingham and then went over Vernor Highway and struck a parked car in front of 1242 Buckingham.

He must have been driving fast, as after striking the parked car his car crossed the street and jumped the curb ending up against a tree.

Both Men Injured
The accident was phoned to the police by a witness and Sergeant Mead and Patrolman Del Place and Deaf reported. Both men were injured and were rushed to Bon Secours. It was apparent at once that the older man was seriously injured. Father Lawton had abrasions of the nose and top of his head and chest and foot injuries. He is 42 years old. Father Lawton has been in poor health for some time and has been under a physician's care.

Flood of Dog Complaints Has Cops Talking to Selves

Last week the police in the Park were swamped with complaints of dogs. They came in from Lakepointe, from Audubon, from Kensington and streets between. They were of dogs that yapped, barked, howled and bit. One had been guilty of a Federal offense; he had chased a postman. These complaints were all disposed of in more or less satisfactory order until it came to a canine of dubious ancestry and untaged ownership. He had been haunting the lakefront near Ellair place for several days. Last Thursday morning Sergeant Mead and Patrolman John-

Heads of Five Pointes Sign Proclamation Setting Aside Sept. 11-17 as Home Week

Observance Has Special Significance in One Of Finest Residential Communities in The Entire United States

The Grosse Pointes, comprising what has long been recognized as one of the very finest residential communities in the country, are getting ready to celebrate National Home Week. The observance has a special significance here where such a high percentage of the residents own their own homes.

The presidents of the four incorporated villages and the mayor of the City, the five municipalities which make up the Pointe area, have affixed their signatures to the following proclamation:

WHEREAS, the privilege of home ownership by every citizen is the basis of American freedom and a stimulant to healthy civic development and sound home rule, and

WHEREAS, a steady and abundant supply of new homes in all price ranges is essential to the continued expansion and growth of Grosse Pointe and

WHEREAS, the private Home Builders' of Grosse Pointe have broken all production records in the past three years to overcome a war-borne shortage of housing, and

WHEREAS, our home building record has placed the United States in unchallenged world leadership in residential construction, and

WHEREAS, the gratifying record of the American merchant builder and the enormous industry which supplies and serves him, and whose products and service he co-ordinates in the production of new homes, has enabled a strong increase in home ownership in

Blame Sparklers For Roof Blaze

After members of the William Earl family of Touraine road at Kercheval smelled smoke some time after midnight on September 5, they discovered a hole had been burned in the roof of the house. The blaze had burned itself out in the light rain that was falling at the time. The Farms fire department poured water from a garden hose into the hole to insure against the fire breaking out again. The blaze is believed to have been caused by children throwing sparklers on the roof.

Local Church Gets $50,000 From Kresge

Ground To Be Broken Sunday For First Unit of Proposed $500,000 Structure

The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will have Ground Breaking Ceremonies for the construction of the first unit of its building on this Sunday, September 11, at 12 noon. The ceremonies will take place on the Church Lot on Moross road west of Kercheval immediately after the first worship service of the fall season, which will be held in the New Kerby School on Kerby road at 10:45 a.m.

A recent gift of $50,000.00 from the Kresge Foundation has made possible the inclusion of an extra wing and certain other features which the congregation had not expected to erect at this time.

Education Unit
This unit will include a social hall and kitchen in the basement, worship room with a balcony on the first floor, and a two story education unit which with the extra wing will provide suitable church school facilities.

A Hammond organ has been given by Mrs. Frederick William Parker, Jr. as a memorial to her mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Clayton A. Grinnell.

The architect is David H. Williams of the George D. Mason Co. and the contractor is A. O. Misch. The architecture is to be of the English Parish Gothic type.

Four Years Old
The Grosse Pointe Methodist Church had its first service in the Old Kerby School on Sunday, September 9, 1945. Since that time it has grown and expanded its opportunities so that the congregation and the agencies of the Methodist Church feel it is desirable to begin the erection of the first unit of what will ultimately be a $500,000 installation.

This occasion will also mark the fourth anniversary of Methodist in Grosse Pointe. The pastor, The Rev. Hugh C. White, together with the officials and the building committee of the church feel that the Pointe will have reason to be proud of this new addition to the religious and community facilities of the Pointe area.

DAMAGE NEW HOUSE
Daniel Goodenough of Cloverly road complained to the Farms police on September 1 that children are doing a great deal of damage in the new house he is building at 234 Lothrop road in the Pine Woods section.

FIGHTER JAILED
The Farms police broke up a fight at midnight on September 3 in which three Ecorse youths who had been guests at a party in Ridgemoor road, were engaged. One of the trio was drunk and started the battle. He was given a cell for the rest of the night and released the following morning.

Christ Episcopal Church Welcomes Its New Rector

Grosse Pointe Episcopalians will welcome the new Rector of Christ Church next Sunday. The Rev. Dr. J. Clemens Kolb, with Mrs. Kolb and their two children, John Clemens, aged 19, and Martha Ritenhouse, aged 14, are already in the Pointe and are now receiving the sincere personal welcomes which have awaited them here.

Dr. Kolb, who is 48 years old, has a long record of social and religious service behind him. He is Indian born and was graduated at the Elkhart High School. His advanced education was received at Harvard, B.A. cum laude, 1925 in classics and philosophy; at the Episcopal Theological School of Harvard, B.D. 1928 and the University of Pennsylvania, S.T.D. Honoris Cause, 1943.

Many of the latter years of his service have centered in and around the University of Pennsylvania where he has served as a member of numerous committees and councils of that institution. He was also university chaplain and Boardman Lecturer on Christian Ethics.

He comes of a family that is prominent in the religious activities of the Church. Among his ancestors were a Mennonite Bishop, the President of a religious publishing house and the founder of a college. His twin brother is now the Rector of Christ Church, Lonsdale, Rhode Island.

He confesses to the human quality of having certain hobbies. Among these are playing the French horn, Pennsylvania Dutch art, and sailing. It is quite possible that the lure of the finest inland sailing waters in America had some influence in directing his determination to accept the call from Grosse Pointe, which it is understood came to him with the unanimous action of the Board of Vestry of the Church.

Discover Flesh Floating in Lake

Officers Allor and Smith, on patrol at 11 a.m. on Sept. 4, found two pieces of suspicious looking flesh floating off the shore at the foot of Lakeland.

Dr. Davies, the Pointe Health Officer, called in for consultation, decided the flesh was not human, as the fibre was much too coarse. No opinion was given as to the exact kind of animal it came from.

City Delegates To Attend Parley

City Clerk Norbert P. Neff and Assessor and Assistant Treasurer Neil Blondell will represent Grosse Pointe City at the meeting of the Michigan Municipal League on September 8.

This organization is one of the most worthwhile of all such similar organizations throughout the country. It maintains a staff of experts on all municipal problems whose services are available to its member municipalities at all times. It has rendered countless services to the Grosse Pointe municipalities, all of whom are members of the league.

THIEF RIFLES CAR
David Thompson of 1346 Somerset reported to the Farms police that while his car was parked at the High School on the night of August 27, someone had stolen a flashlight and a wallet with his registration card in it.

Bad Drivers Pay Fines in Court

In Park Traffic Court on Aug. 31 Justice C. Joseph Belanger disposed of the following cases:

Earl A. Kenney of 12403 Strassburg, Detroit, for reckless driving causing an accident at Jefferson and Buckingham on August 28, paid a fine and costs of $20.

Bernard E. Callens, of 4891 Radnor, Detroit, for stop law violation at Three Mile and Mack on July 31, paid a fine and costs of $10.

Raymond J. LeBlanc, of 12836 Charlevoix, Detroit, for operating a cab without bond plate of Grosse Pointe, Park from a cab stand at Jefferson and Barrington, paid a fine and costs of $20. He was also fined $5 additional for operating a cab without a Grosse Pointe Park Public Vehicle license, in violation of ordinance 137 of the Park.

Charles A. Kavanaugh, of 5775 Wayburn, Detroit, for failure to report an accident at 1010 Wayburn, on Aug. 20, paid a fine and costs of $35.

Newell B. Wallace of 1033 Kensington, charged with driving without due care and caution on Aug. 28, resulting in an accident, pleaded not guilty. On further examination he was adjudged not guilty and the case was dismissed.

City Requested To Up Donation

The Hospitalization Fund of the Grosse Pointe City employees has asked the city to increase its contribution to the fund by 50c per member.

The employees themselves have increased their own contributions by $1.00 per head. The reason for larger contributions, both from employees and City is that actuaries have told them that the present payments are not sufficient to carry on the fund on a sound basis. The present balance in the fund treasury is only about $4400. This fund has nothing to do with operation of the Employees Retirement System.

Pool Plans

proval to the stand taken by the council in the matter of money economy. As stated there was no discussion of any angle of the proposal except that of money, nor was there any desire expressed to learn whether or not an adequate swimming pool might be provided at less cost. Authoritative opinion still exists that a sheet steel interlocking piling tight pool, with pumping machinery and chlorinating control could be obtained for within $35,000 to $40,000, which would be adequate for the population of Grosse Pointe City.

If the reaction to the letter which is to be sent out indicates that any considerable number of the residents still desire an enclosed pool the Council may, at its discretion, submit a bond issue for a specific amount for action by the property owners.

It is quite clear however from the discussion at the meeting that this project as now presented has little appeal to the council members. It is unlikely they will submit such a proposal unless the cost can be figured at a much lower price than yet advanced.

Injured Garage Worker Treated In Hospital

Thomas Bover, a night employe at the Grosse Pointe Garage on Jefferson avenue suffered a deep cut on his head while working in the garage early in the morning of September 6.

He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by City police at 2:37 a.m. for first aid treatment.

Salt content of the Great Salt Lake is high because there is no outlet. The lake loses water only through evaporation, leaving only the salt.

Boating Menace Found in Lake

A Mr. Weirick, who was reported to have lived formerly in Grosse Pointe, and who owns a boat that is moored to a City pier, reported to the City police at 6:25 p.m. on Sept. 3 that he had just towed in a floating log which he estimated weighed a ton, and had fastened it to the city dock.

The log would have been a menace to pleasure boats and might well have tangled up the propeller on one of the big freighters. Robert Blondell, of the highway department, took charge of the floating menace.

IT'S ON THE HOUSE
With a green roof, the body of a house will look well if painted white, cream, gray or pale green. For the shutters and doors, blue, blue-green, gray, straw color, and the rust tones can be used successfully.

The first women colonists came to Virginia in 1608.

City Employees' Posts Confirmed

Melvin Beatty and Robert Blondell, who had been named probationary appointees as Building Inspector and Superintendent of Highways respectively for Grosse Pointe City some time ago, were made permanent employes for those offices, at the City Council meeting September 1.

Their pay will be that fixed by council for those offices.

Mr. Beatty is the successor of Frederick J. Baker, who served the City as building inspector for many years. Mr. Blondell was advanced from the position of assistant in the Highway Department when Julius Stork resigned from that place to enter into private business more than six months ago.

The pay of each is made retroactive to August 16.

Park Scout Car Damaged Through Double Parking

Patrolman Mouton of the Park police, while cruising on Vernor Highway between Beaconsfield and Nottingham at 7:25 a.m. Aug. 27, hailed a passing car whose driver he wished to interrogate.

Instead of having the car draw up to the curb he had him double park for the brief inquiry. When the stopped car started Mouton's car door was open a trifle too wide and was badly damaged by the moving car.

City to Revise Pension System

Much time was consumed at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe City Council on Sept. 1 in the consideration of the operating structure of the Grosse Pointe City Employees' Retirement System.

It had been decided by the board governing the system that certain changes should be made in its structure to bring it up to date and in conformity with practices in other progressive communities.

To this end a committee of two from the Board was named to make a study of the matter and report back. This committee was composed of citizen representative Alonzo C. Allen and employe representative Arthur Bresson. These gentlemen made an exhaustive story of their assignment and reported back to the Board recently.

At the meeting Councilman Sidney Morgan reported for Councilman Gerald E. Miller, chairman of the Board, who with Mr. Morgan constitute the Council representatives on the Board.

The Board had approved the report of the subcommittee which had recommended seven changes. This matter involves an amendment to the City's charter and will necessitate approval by the voters at an election held for that purpose.

It now goes to the Governor and Attorney General, who must first approve the intended changes to see that they do not conflict with the State Constitution or Acts of Assembly bearing on the subject. With this approval obtained it goes before the people of Grosse Pointe City.

Schools Sponsor Safety Program

Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Lee M. Thurston, today announced the launching of a Child Safety Program for the month of September.

"Nearly 4,500 school children were killed or injured in pedestrian and bicycle accidents in Michigan last year," he said.

Dr. Thurston emphasized the fact that with the reopening of schools over a million children once more will be crossing the street. Tens of thousands of them will be crossing the street on the way to and from school for the first time.

The September Child Safety Program is sponsored by the Michigan State Safety Commission, of which the State Department of Public Instruction is a member and its 69 Member Advisory Committee. The Commission has conducted a series of 9 zone meetings throughout the state at which the program was presented to law enforcement, school and safety officials. Over 200 communities and over 300 law enforcement agencies will participate in the program.

"I hope that every school in Michigan will invite a law enforcement officer to participate in its safety program," Dr. Thurston said.

"The schools of Michigan, with the cooperation of the safety agencies, are doing one of the best jobs in the country of teaching children to walk safely. But even the best trained child is apt to forget, especially in September when they have been away from their teachers for three months. Thus, all drivers should adopt the slogan 'Watch Out for Kids.'"

"Nearly 9,000 parents had their homes saddened by traffic accidents to their children last year. I appeal particularly to the parents in Michigan to support this program. Remember, the next saddened home may be your own."

Dr. Thurston expressed appreciation for the assistance being given to the public educational part of the program by the Michigan Oil Industry Public Information Committee. The oil industry is contributing 127 outdoor advertising billboards, 3,700 posters in filling stations, 500,000 leaflets, 400 street car and bus posters and over 100,000 safety buttons for children, all carrying the message "Watch Out for Kids."

"The schools of Michigan, with the cooperation of the safety agencies, are doing one of the best jobs in the country of teaching children to walk safely. But even the best trained child is apt to forget, especially in September when they have been away from their teachers for three months. Passes Worthless Checks

At about 4 p.m. on Sept. 1 the manager of Best and Co. called up the City police station to report that a woman customer was then in the store who was apparently the same person who had tried to pass bad checks in three Kercheval avenue stores a few weeks ago.

Detective Jim Flannagan and Patrolman Johnston brought in Shirley Lang, aged 21, of 669 Virginia ave., Detroit. When she was in the Pointe before the personal checks she offered in payment of merchandise were signed by "Shirley Gibson". They were one and the same. Detroit police say Lang is her correct name.

She spent that night in a cell in the City police station and the next day was turned over to the Detroit police who say they have a list of bad check cases against her as long as the moral law.

She is a striking looking young woman, well groomed and well poised, whose only excuse for her bad check career is that she could not get a job.

Burglar Visits Charlevoix Bar

There was a breaking and entering case at the Baby Grand bar at 15222 Charlevoix, sometime between 4 a.m. and 7:00 a.m. on September 5.

The thief gained entrance by jimmying the front door. The proprietor said that all he could determine as missing was $23 taken out of the cash drawer.

PAINTER'S WATCH STOLEN
J. Upleger, a painter employed at the Country Day School, told the Farms police some one had stolen his watch and chain from his locker while he was working at the school on August 22.

Prepare Report On Sewer Fight

Messrs. Brown and Hanson, engineers for the City who are collaborating with the engineers for the Park and Farms in preparing their answer to the Detroit Common Council on the Detroit Fox Creek diversion project, reported briefly at the Council meeting on September 1.

Mr. Brown said they were making satisfactory progress in preparing the composite report for the three affected Grosse Pointe communities and would have their report in the hands of the Detroit authorities in October, as had been requested by the Detroit Council.

Without going into any facts or figures, Mr. Brown said they were very hopeful that this charge of more than $5,000,000, figured as the Pointe's share by the Detroit people, could not be established.

ANOTHER DOG BITE

George Moulliseaux of 695 Lennox, was bitten on Sept. 1 by a dog belonging to Charles Kantor of 16805 Maumee.

Tires Deflated On Dozen Cars

Two groups of teen-age youths were gathered in by Farms police on the night of September 1 after a number of complaints had been received by boys hurling remarks at passing cars and the air being let out of tires of cars parked at various locations.

The air was let out of the tires of 10 or 12 cars parked outside of St. Paul's School in Grosse Pointe boulevard while a bowling meeting was being held. Tom Garred of 90-Merriweather road, reported that his tires were deflated while his car was in the Punch & Judy parking lot.

The groups interviewed by the police could not be linked with either complaint and they were all released.

PARENTS MUST PAY

Three boys and a girl, ranging in age from 4 to 9, were rounded up by the Farms police on August 31 after they broke some windows in the playhouse in the rear of Christ Church. They were turned over to their parents, who will foot the bill for the damages.

Dr. Frank Fitt Convalescing

Dr. Frank Fitt, minister of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, was stricken with virus pneumonia while vacationing at Northport Point, Mich.

He is now convalescing and hope to resume his church duties on Sunday, September 18.

Budding Thespians Receive Chance With Pointe Players

By JANE WORLEY
Grosse Pointe High School Journalism Student

Stage-struck thespians of Grosse Pointe High School can find an opportunity to satisfy their desire to play that leading role, design and build a masterful set, or make-up with a grizzly beard by joining Pointe Players, the dramatic club, which is now in its twentieth year of existence.

At the beginning of every semester when the play is announced, everyone interested, from 10B grade through the 12A is invited to try out for a part. A production with a large cast usually attracts over 100 people to "tryouts." After three or four days of trials the cast is chosen and the play gets under way. For the next seven weeks rehearsals, committee meetings, and building and painting sets are major events in every Pointe players' life.

Must Earn Points
It takes thirty points, earned by actually having a part in the play or being active on the various committees, to become a Pointe Player. In order to give experience in many phases of theatre work an apprentice must earn these thirty points in at least three different fields, such as selling tickets, helping to construct the scenery, or learning to apply make-up.

Points are awarded for every hour of work in the scene shop and for every committee meeting attended. It is possible to become a member in one semester. Often it appears that the actors and actresses receive all the glory in a play, but Players and apprentices learn that it is the teamwork of all the back stage crews working together with the cast that really makes the production.

Many Different Jobs
The House Committee knows that the programs they are handing to the audiences on the three play nights "didn't just happen." Someone had to compile the lists and names, choose the color of the paper, and prepare a cover design. Those costumes the cast is wearing might have been rounded up from boxes in someone's attic or have been made by the committee. All the tables, chairs, and the numerous personal "props" that the actors carry so nonchalantly have been collected, borrowed or rented. And who would even know about the play if the publicity crew hadn't made posters and given short skits about the play during the noon hours?

Twenty Year Old
Pointe Players was originally under the sponsorship of Mr. Axel, Gruenberg 20 years ago. Since then directors have included Mrs. Claire Irwin, Mr. Donald Horton, Mr. Harry Anderson, and at present Mr. Frederick B. Nelson and Miss Jean Campbell are the sponsors.

Nearly forty seniors from the class of June '49 were Pointe Players and many of them were National Thespians. This is an honor awarded to those who show a continued interest, ability, and willingness to work in the club!

Accessories Missing In Parking Lot Theft

Robert T. Pierce, Jr., of 592 Lincoln road, notified the Farms police on September 1 that a number of accessories had been stolen from his car while it was parked near the Punch and Judy Theater between 8:15 and 10 p.m. Missing were a cigaret lighter, vent knob, windshield wiper arm, gear shift knob and signal lever on the steering column.

Boy Painfully Injured By Falling Out of Tree

Russel Krause, 14, of 1451 Lakepointe, fell out of a tree in the rear of 1442 Maryland on August 26 and struck on an upright iron rod which inflicted a painful injury in his right arm and caused abrasions on his head and face. The woman of the house where the boy fell notified the police who took him to Bon Secours Hospital.

Find Explanation Of Car Mystery

The mystery of the strange car which Albert C. Dickson of 383 Washington road found in his garage on the morning of August 30 has been explained.

Clifford Loranger, aged 18, of 888 Lakeshore road, had been calling in the neighborhood the night before and on leaving observed some boys following behind him whom he believed were intent on doing him bodily harm. As a short cut out of any trouble he ran his car into the Dickson garage.

Theatre Party Set for Friday

Friday evening, September 9, at 8 o'clock, the curtain rises on the Grosse Pointe Theatre's "Cue In," an informal get-together for members, friends of members and Grosse Pointers interested in learning more about the organization, its aims and personnel. The affair will be staged at the War Memorial Center at 32 Lake Shore road.

During the course of the evening the board of trustees and the executive staff for the coming season will take a bow, questions will be answered about the why's and wherefore's of the Theatre. The program also calls for some sweet music, audience-participation entertainment and refreshments.

Miss Phyllis Carozze is officiating as chairman, assisted by Mrs. Joann Hall, Miss Cecil Gordon, Karl Dumas and Charles Manos.

Localites who want to take a whirl at the show world and actively participate in the Grosse Pointe Theatre's activities, as well as those who might prefer to play a sponsoring role in the organization's future, are welcome to attend.

D U CONVENTION

David Sutter, a senior at M.I.T., son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Sutter, 46 Pine court Grosse Pointe, attending the 115th annual convention of Delta Upsilon, social fraternity, which was held at Miami University, Oxford, O., from Aug. 31 to Sept. 3.

Child Bitten Rescuing Dog

Master William Basinger, Jr., aged 4, of 705 University place took his cocker spaniel out for an airing at 10 o'clock in the morning of September 3 and his pet got into a fight with a mongrel dog that attack it.

The little fellow tried to come to the rescue of his pet and sought to break up the fight, with the result that one of the dogs gave him a puncture bite on the inside of his left wrist. He was taken to Bon Secours hospital for treatment. Mrs. Basinger thinks it quite likely he was bitten by his own dog.

HOT SEAT

The back seat of a Pontiac owned by E. M. Kuhn of 1365 Faircourt, caught fire in front of 30 Kerby road at 8 p.m. on Aug. 20. The blaze was extinguished by Farms firemen. Damage was estimated at $15.

Saint Ambrose Church was the scene of the wedding on Saturday morning, September 3, at which Margaret Kilbride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Kilbride, of Handy road, became the bride of Bruce F. Fausone, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fausone of Wayburn avenue. The Rev. Father Francis Van Antwerp celebrated the nuptial mass at 10:30 o'clock.

Miss Kilbride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of pure white chiffon fashioned with a high, round neckline and long full sleeves, caught at the wrists with tight bands of matching satin. The gown was distinguished by a deep band of satin at the midriff pointing high into the loose bodice and low into the extremely full skirt. The folds of her fingertip veil and short face veil of sheer illusion were caught to a Juliet cap of net with bands of satin.

She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a white prayer book and a cascading bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Pauline and Shirley Kilbride were their sister's attendants. They wore identical gowns of aqua faille, small matching Juliet hats trimmed with pearls, and carried bouquets of gold and yellow pompoms.

Mr. Fausone asked Tom Kilbride to be his best man, and seating the guests were Donald Chuba, Nobyn D'Haene and Charles Wade, Jr.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kilbride chose a brown dress trimmed with a cocoa brown satin collar. Her accessories were brown and her corsage of orchids. Mrs. Fausone's dress was of crepe in a plum shade and with it she wore a mauve hat and black accessories with an orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a breakfast was served at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, and in the afternoon a reception took place from 2 to 5 o'clock.

After the reception, Mr. and Mrs. Fausone left on a short motor trip. Mrs. Fausone wearing for travel a taffy colored suit and deep brown accessories. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Girls' Friendly Society Holds Autumn Market

October 1 Date Set For Annual Harvest Market By The Holiday House Committee of Society; Special Luncheon To Be Served At Rest Cottage

An event of Saturday, October 1, will be annual Autumn Market sponsored by the Holiday House Committee of the Girls' Friendly Society of Michigan.

The Market will take place at the G.F.S. vacation camp property at Pine Lake, starting at 11 o'clock in the morning and continuing until 4 p.m.—and the finest of golden October weather is ordered!

Serving on the Autumn Market committee are Miss Frances W. Sibley, of Washington road, as honorary chairman; Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis, of Birmingham, general chairman; Mrs. A. B. Allen and Mrs. George R. Clark, chairman of Holiday House Committee.

Designed as a benefit for the vacation camp at Pine Lake and the Girls' Friendly Society, the Market year after year is a gathering place for friends from Grosse Pointe, Detroit, the Birmingham-Bloomfield area and surrounding counties.

Assisting in arrangements will be members of the Girls' Friendly branches of Lower Michigan.

A highlight will be a luncheon served from 12 o'clock until 2 p.m. at Rest Cottage, one of the three vacation houses on the 100 acre property bordering beautiful Pine Lake. Of necessity, luncheon will be limited to 300, and tickets for this feature may be purchased in advance from committee members or from the G.F.S. office at St. Paul's Cathedral House, Woodward at Hancock.

Market activity will center around nearby Holiday House, with fruits, vegetables and flowers displayed temptingly outdoors, and a variety of exciting articles and foods at booths arranged in throughout the main floor of the house itself.

Booth chairmen are: Country Store, Miss Myrtle Armstrong; jams and jellies (home-made), Miss Sibley assisted by Mrs. Allen; baked goods, with home-made bread a specialty, Mrs.

Sheldon Noble; delicatessen, Mrs. E. C. Spindler, assisted by Mrs. George D. Clark; white elephant, Mrs. William Graham, assisted by Miss Margaret Hendrie.

Vegetables, fruits and flowers will be in the charge of Mrs. John W. Gillette, Jr., assisted by Mrs. Joseph Page, and children's entertainment is chairmanned by Mrs. Kenneth McGregor. Plans for the small fry include movies, to be presented in a large tent erected for the occasion; a grab bag and refreshments running the gamut from pop through ice cream to popcorn.

Mrs. Fred J. Kennedy and Mrs. Wilson W. Mills are chairmen of publicity and Miss Mabel Errington and Mrs. James A. Brown will take care of finances.

Other Holiday House Committee members and Girls' Friendly branch presidents are assisting in details of the Market.

Grosse Pointers on Holiday House Committee include Mrs. Alexander W. Copland, Mrs. Rothe Farr and Mrs. Heatley Green.

The Girls' Friendly Society vacation camp at Pine Lake is in Oakland County, on Middlebelt road just north of West Long Lake road, and about five miles from Pontiac.

G. F. S. is under the sponsorship of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan.

Don Galvins Jr. Motor South After Wedding

Former Mary Frances Peez and Bridegroom Leave on Trip to Virginia and South Carolina Following Wedding in St. Ambrose Church

Pointers will remember Mary Frances Peez as one of September's loveliest brides. The blond daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gore Peez of Beverly Hills and Grosse Pointe spoke her vows with Don Thaddeus Galvin Jr. last Saturday in St. Ambrose Church.

The Rev. Father Francis Van Antwerp officiated at the ceremony which was followed by a large reception in Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

For her wedding, Mary Frances was gowned in ivory satin designed with slim long sleeved bodice, finished at neckline in pointed collar of rosepointe lace and buttoned to waist in tiny material covered discs. A yoke of rosepointe was used on the back of the gown which had voluminous skirt ending in formal court train. From a balo-bonnet of twisted illusion fell the floor length French silk net veil. The bride carried a white orchid surrounded by white stephanotis.

Gloria Peez was her sister's maid of honor in floor length gold satin brocade portrait gown. Neckline was finished in shawl collar and the short sleeves had deep cuffs. A velvet Dutch cap in pecan shade trimmed in gold completed her costume and she carried delphiniums in all the shades of blue.

The four bridesmaid and junior bridesmaid (Carol Peez, another sister of the bride) wore gowns of the same design but toned in blue. Their velvet Dutch caps were trimmed in a matching blue and their flowers were bebe mums shaded from honey to rust tones. The maids were Nancy Joose, Eileen Hickey, Susan Duckett and Mrs. Michael O'Donnell.

John Galvin served his brother as best man and bridesmen were Clarence Day Jr., John McKinley Jr., John Frazer Jr., John Herdegen and Lanford Barrows.

Mrs. Peez chose for her daughter's wedding sapphire blue silk crepe gown with matching toque and Mrs. Galvin wore beige silk crepe with complementing chap-eaux.

A wedding breakfast followed the reception at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The double tiered wedding cake centered a white satin covered "bride's table" and was garlanded at the base in deep green ivy.

When the young Galvins left on their wedding trip which will take them through Williamsburg into South Carolina, the bride traveled in blue and brown flecked worsted suit with which she wore a blue cloche with brown veil.

Upon their return, the Galvins will be at home in Touraine road.

Park Gardeners Plan Luncheon

Luncheon at the Detroit Garden Center on Monday, Sept. 12, will be the first activity of the fall season for the members of the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club. Mrs. Frederick E. Gould will be the hostess.

A discussion on flower arrangements led by Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann will be part of the program planned for the afternoon. Following this there will be a tour of the Belle Isle gardens. Mrs. Emil Leidich, Mrs. Edgar B. Cooper, Mrs. J. T. Huette and Mrs. Frederick G. Jones have made reservations.

Others planning to attend include Mrs. Arthur E. Fleming, Mrs. William C. Klenk, Mrs. Robert Ward, Mrs. Richard W. Larwin and Mrs. Marvin R. Anderson.

Also on the reservation list are Mrs. Glenn D. Curtis, Mrs. Windsor S. Davies, Mrs. Pierre V. Heffler and Mrs. Vernon Johnson.

Pointers Travel to Ontario For Labor Day House Party

Mr. and Mrs. Henry T. Gage of Ridgmont road were guests over the Labor Day week-end of Mr. and Mrs. William Stockard at the Summer home of Mr. Stockard's mother, Mrs. Joel L. Stockard on Lake O'Bays, Ont. Joining the houseparty were Mr. and Mrs. William L. Vick (Louise Stockard) of Rochester, N. Y.

NURSE GETS PROTECTION

The residents at 15840 Lakeview, G. P. MRS. DON THADDEUS GALVIN JR., before her marriage in St. Ambrose Church Saturday, was Mary Frances Peez, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gore Peez of Beverly Hills, Calif., and Grosse Pointe. Mr. Galvin is the son of the Don Galvins of Cranford lane.

Miss Gerlach Speaks Vows

At a candlelight ceremony in Knox Presbyterian Church, Saturday evening, Dorothea Gerlach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto H. Gerlach of North Rensselaer road, became the bride of Chester D. Wickware. The Rev. Alfred Holman officiated.

The bride wore a gown of eggshell slipper satin designed with sweetheart neckline edged in seed pearls at the fitted bodice and a long full skirt ending in train. Her lace-edged veil was held in place by a headdress of satin roses. Dorothea carried a cascade bouquet of white fuji mums, white orchid and stephanotis.

Phyllis Curlett, her cousin's maid of honor, wore peach taffeta floor length gown and carried light blue asters with streamers. The bridesmaids, who wore teal green taffeta and carried streamered pale pink asters were Ruth Curlett and Alice Gerlach, both cousins of the bride.

Robert Wickware served his brother as best man and guests were seated by Stewart Fleming, James Ferguson and Walter Curlett, the last named a cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Gerlach chose for her daughter's wedding a hunter green crepe gown with which she wore orchids.

The bridegroom is the grandson of Howard C. Wickware of Detroit.

Unitarian Alliance Plans Meeting for September 13

A meeting of the Women's Alliance of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will be held in the Church proper, 17440 East Jefferson avenue, at 1:30 p. m., September 13.

The speaker will be Mrs. Robert Birdall of the Church of Our Father. The subject of her address will be "High Points of the May Meetings of the Unitarian Association of Boston." Tea will be served following the program.

Miss Arnold Is Bride Of Andrew B. Claytor

Daughter of Lloyd Edwin Arnold Marries Virginian at Ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Reception at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club

From the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania, the newly married Andrew Boyd Claytors III will go to the mountains of Virginia where in Bedford they'll make their future home.

The former Virginia Harding Arnold, daughter of Lloyd Edwin Arnold of Moran road and the late Mrs. Arnold, was married Saturday evening to Andrew, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew B. Claytor Jr. of Bedford. The wedding took place in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and the Rev. Paul Ketchum was the officiating pastor.

Virginia carried a colonial bouquet of white stephanotis centered by a white orchid and was gowned in ivory satin with off-the-shoulder neckline, bouffant skirt ending in a circular train. A braided satin band held in place the long veil of ivory illusion.

The bride's attendants were all gowned alike in emerald green satin bouffant gowns, their fitted bodices designed with off shoulder necklines. They wore matching bands of braided satin in their hair.

Elizabeth Arnold was her sister's honor maid and her flowers were bronze and white mums. The bridesmaids, who carried colonial bouquets of gold and white mums, were Mrs. George Stanley Shirk Jr. of Schenectady, N. Y. and Mrs. William Collins of Chelsea, Mich.

William Claytor assisted his brother as best man and the ushers were Richard Lee Arnold, brother of the bride, William Collins of Chelsea, Mich., George S. Shirk of Schenectady and James Teetzel.

The mother of the bridegroom was gowned in aqua crepe with which she wore a small matching hat.

Following a wedding reception at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, the Claytors left for their wedding trip to the Pocono Mountains. They will make their home in Bedford, Va.

The bride traveled in a deep green gabardine suit, choosing brown hat and accessories.

Murphys Return From Trip East

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald T. Murphy of Balfour road and their daughter, Lois Ann, have returned from a trip through the New England states and Canada.

Another daughter, Jacqueline, of New York City, who has been vacationing in Lewiston and Old Orchard Beach, Me., will return with them and spend several weeks in the Pointe before returning to New York.

Lois Murphy recently entertained a group of classmates from Sacred Heart Convent at a luncheon in her parents' home. Miss Kathleen Seymour, who returned from a trip to Europe, was the guest of honor.

Fred Wiswedel of 701 Lincoln road reported to the City police on July 21 that he had been bitten on the right hand by his own dog. He said he would keep the dog under observation for ten days and the case was reported to the Department of Health.

Hospital Head To Be Honored

At the 15th Annual Meeting of the American College of Hospital Administrators, September 25, in Cleveland, Ohio, Miss Carolyn M. Wicks, director of Cottage Hospital of Grosse Pointe, will be elected a member in the American College of Hospital Administrators, an international, professional organization of hospital administrators.

Headquarters for the College are in Chicago. Candidates recommended have qualified through successful experience as hospital administrators, outstanding service in the field, and by meeting the professional requirements of the College.

Miss Wicks will leave September 25 for Cleveland to receive the honor at the Convocation ceremony Sunday afternoon in Hotel Statler. Miss Jessie Turnbull, Elizabeth Steel Magee Hospital, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, president of the American College of Hospital Administrators, will preside.

Miss Wicks came to Cottage

Hospital in November, 1945, after having held administrative positions in New York State.

City Charter Elections

Pursuant to a recommendation adopted by the Board of Commissioners of Grosse Pointe Park some weeks ago, that municipality is unhurriedly making ready to bring the issue of approval or rejection to the vote of the people.

Much will depend on this referendum election as to the trend of the other Pointe municipalities towards the city plan.

For many years the former Village of Grosse Pointe has operated as a City and last spring the Farms adopted the plan. The Farms awaits the presentation and approval by popular vote of a charter on which a charter commission has been working for some months.

There is a feeling that if the Park, which is the most populous and richest of the five Pointe municipalities, should also change to a city, the remaining two, i.e. the Shores and Woods would also be compelled to become cities, whether the residents in both places wished to do so or not.

The abandonment of Grosse Pointe Township by the three largest and wealthiest former members would practically extinguish the township, which has a record of more than a century of existence, as it would be impractical for the two remaining villages to support a township government in which they were the only remaining members.

This issue is not in any way associated with the larger proposition of consolidating all of Grosse Pointe into a single city.

There are varying views as to the result of each of the Pointe communities changing into a separate city by itself.

When the campaign was on in the Farms for the City form it was stated in literature sent out to the citizens at that time by the proponents of city status for the Farms alone, that this move was "against consolidation."

It is known however that a number of citizens, who are now serving in the councils of their respective municipalities, favor an ultimate consolidation of all the Pointes into one city. They are convinced that a more efficient and economical municipal government would result from such a consolidation.

With the township, which has carried on for years certain public functions common to all, out of existence, these functions would have to be assumed by each separate city on its own and resulting increased cost in such services would constitute a strong argument for consolidation.

A step in anticipation of this has already been made in the formation of the Inter-Municipal Police Radio system.

That the movement for general consolidation will gain headway, whether or not the Pointe communities all set up housekeeping as separate cities, is morally certain for the future.

The experience of five separate cities, with their duplication of official work in this relatively small community will be a powerful argument for complete consolidation, born of a costly experience.

Our Great Social Holiday

Nothing more completely illustrates the progressive unity of this country than the all-embracing observance of the Labor Day holiday.

Instead of its being merely a general mobilization of labor to show its strength, as was the character of the earlier celebrations, often challenging and provocative in nature, it has become a day of recreation and enjoyment by all classes and conditions of people. The rich man and the poor man alike take this as the commonly agreed upon day which marks their last vacation fling before all buckle down to the more serious problems of life.

It has become a prominent date in the national calendar. For the school children play ends and study begins. More events are reckoned in our workday life from Labor Day than from any other holiday.

May 1st in Europe, which is that continent's nearest approach to labor day, used to be viewed with apprehension of riots and violence throughout the land. There is nothing of that character attached to the American Labor Day.

While thousands of American workmen observe the day as peculiarly their own with parades and bands, the fact that even with this class there are more working men with their families away at beaches and resorts than are marching in formal parades illustrates the impersonal character of the day's observance.

The Day as now observed is America at its best, and wherever the American flag flies the first Monday in September stands as the day named for Labor but enjoyed by all.

Gang Activity

Chief Arthur E. Louwers of Grosse Pointe Park is to be commended for his outspoken determination that the loitering hoodlum gangs that have infected many spots in Detroit shall not be permitted to extend their chain into his bailiwick.

Groups of idling young men who make a practice of loafing around certain accustomed spots at night time have a habit of quickly changing into more or less concretely set up gangs that become the operating authority for a wide variety of crime against property and persons.

It is a bad sign when such loafers begin to take form as gangs. The Park as the Pointe village nearest Detroit is geographically placed to catch the overflow of this element and to feel its contaminating influence.

More power to Chief Louwers in carrying through his purpose. If this germ of disorder and crime is properly disinfected at its beginnings the problem of keeping all of Grosse Pointe a desirable place for homes and orderly living will be easier for all of the other communities out here.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"There's something in the parting Will chill the warmest heart, Yet kindred, comrades, lovers, friends, Are fated all to part." (Edward Pollock)

There seems to be a season of the year for everything... and this is the time to see our dentist, oculist, permanent-wave arteesee, and to buy a velvet hat. We started with our oculist. As usual, the waiting room was crowded with people sitting around in a fog and trying to see each other. Before the nurse had a chance to put those drops in our eyes that make everything look as if we were seeing it under water, we scanned the magazines on the table. Among the collection of "Asia," "American Boy," "Hygiene" and a 1904 copy of a medical journal, our good eye lit upon a small book that looked enticing.

We waited until all the static customers had had a good look at us and then I'd turn of same, before we snuck over to the table and picked up the book. It turned out to be a pocket edition of a whopper called "The Golden Sleep." The jacket blurb read, "More daring than the 'Chinese Room.'" Wheeeeee, we thought. And we were sure it wasn't anything the dear doctor had left hanging around. Probably forgotten by some patient who went feeling her way out of the office in search of Johnson Optical Company. (Plug.)

Anyway, we could hardly wait to dive into same. Half way through the second page, nurse dear came into the room and went for us with that danged eye-dropper! Sooooo by the time we got to the tenth page we were reading under a cloud. HOWEVER, haze notwithstanding, we DID see (and we will swear to it in court), the following sentences: "All her face seemed molded in the shape of her mind... all except the lovely mouth. It belonged to a Rossetti lady. And it was as perishable as a rose. It belonged to Rossetti lady. And it was as perishable as a rose. And it was fatal, and frightened, and it longed to be touched, and ripened, like the rose by the sunlight." As we said before, Wheeeeee!

(Note to all local bookshops: If there is a run on this book, we will settle for ten per cent commission!)

A group of local business men who have a duck club in Canada, have found interests other than merely shooting ducks in season. It seems their surrounding marshes are filled with unwanted carp who are too pesky smart to stoop to taking anything from a hook, so the "boys" are now shooting the carp... but with a BOW and ARROW! On Saturday last, a couple of the men were on their way to shoot carp and stopped at a G. P. gas station to fill 'er up... the car, that is. When the gas station owner asked where they were going and was told they were going to "shoot carp"... he said, "Oh yeah? How about bringing some back for me?" They said they would.

That was probably the sorriest suggestion the gas station owner ever made! The carp boys (as it turned out), shot a goodly number, brought them back here tied in a bunch... and since the gas station was closed when they got back, they dumped the load of fish on the ramp in front of the door. Naturally the owner didn't arrive at work until Monday morning... and it WAS hot last weekend... and what does one do with a load of dead fish that have been drying in the sun for 48 hours? What indeed!

We always felt there would be nothing quite so scary as being questioned by the F.B.I. IF you had a guilty conscience. Now we know (or have been told), that it is equally scary even if your reputation is as clear as your New England grandmother's. Our informant was top radio commentator, Jim Crowley, whose comments are known to get under the political edermis of numerous Washingtonians, Dec-Ceetings. It seems Mr. Crowley was slightly quizzed by the F.B.I. concerning the character of a man they thought he knew, but finding he didn't, they wished to quiz Mrs. Crowley. Now to read Mrs. Crowley's column (Harriet Hughes Crowley), one would think she could look a mere F.B.I. man right in his F.B. eye... especially since she knows no evil, hears no evil and speaks no evil. But Jim sez that wasn't the case. He tickles his listeners, and no doubt irritates his lovely wife by describing her haughty entrance into the presence of the "law"... her pseudo nonchalance in lighting a cigaret... or rather TRYING to light a cigaret... (the quiz man had to light it for her because the match she held shook so)... and her graceless stumble into the nearest chair which she darn near missed entirely!

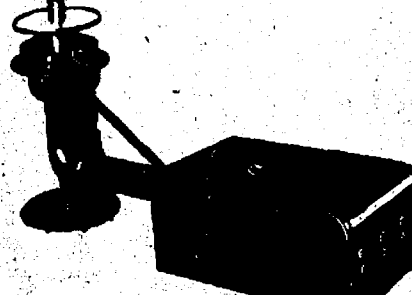

After all this folderol, she didn't have anything to say anyway. Her only comment on the aftermath was wondering what their Washington neighbors thought about the whole performance.

In the mail... a clipping from a small up-state community newspaper gives us pause to ponder. It reads: "Bertha Van Scoll of Lane boulevard, suffered a quarter inch laceration on her head yesterday when an electric iron slipped off a table at her home, and dropped on her. She was treated at the hospital and released." That's one place from which we have never tried to iron anything... from under the table. Maybe it's just as well.

Look Again

The parents of the children in Grosse Pointe City who frequent the municipal bathing beach will be far from satisfied with the Cavalier treatment the City Council extended the other night to the enclosed swimming pool project.

All they wanted was a pool where it would be safe for their children to swim in all conditions of the lake water. They were not concerned with pretentious masonry or concrete dewdabs.

They were painfully aware that frequently the health officer of the community had had to send out an unwelcome warning that the water was unsafe and advise against swimming. They wanted to be relieved of this periodic anxiety.

The Council when confronted with a final estimate of costs of the proposed pool, which ran from $118,000 to $190,000 apparently quite cheerfully ran to cover behind the dollar sign and killed the project, at least temporarily.

The Council's prudence in the expenditure of the public money is respected and appreciated by the taxpayers. It is questionable however, whether they will endorse a caution which runs counter to their children's health and safety.

It has been stated by seeming competent authority that a pool can be provided which will be tight and in which the water can be pumped in and out and chlorinated, for less than half of the lowest estimated cost of the proposed pool as submitted by the engineers.

They would appreciate it deeply if the council would take up this matter again from the standpoint of providing such a cheaper pool.

Letters To The Editor

Enclosed is an article that I ran across in an insurance magazine. I thought it would be a swell one for you to reprint now that school is approaching. We all have this thought in the back of our minds.

Sincerely Carroll T. Ballantyne

Here is what one American father has to say to the drivers of the nation about his little girl. The Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers' Association, to whom this letter was sent, thought so highly of it that copies were distributed to their members and published in newspapers throughout the state.

Dear Driver:

Today my daughter, who is seven years old, started to school as usual. She wore a dark blue dress with a white collar. She had on black shoes and wore blue socks. Her cocker-spaniel, whose name is "Scoops," sat on the front porch and wined his canine belief in the folly of education as she waved "good-bye" and started off to the halls of learning. Tonight we talked about school. She told me about the girl who sits in front of her—the little girl with the yellow curls—and the boy across the aisle who makes funny faces. She told me about her teacher, who has eyes in the back of her head, and about the trees in the schoolyard, and about the big girl who doesn't believe in Santa Claus. We talked about a lot of things—amendously vital, important things; and then we studied spelling, reading and arithmetic, and then to bed. She is back there now—back in the nursery—sound asleep, with "Princess Elizabeth" (that's a doll) cuddled in her right arm. You guys wouldn't hurt her, would you? You see, I'm her daddy. When her doll's finger is cut, or a leg is broken, I can fix it—but when she starts to school, when she walks across the street—well—then she is in your hands. She is a nice kid. She can run

X-Ray Will Show Bronchiectasis

By Fred M. Kopp, R.Ph. This ailment is caused by a swelling and congestion of the bronchial tubes, and lungs. Persons suffering from bronchiectasis often have an annoying cough and bring up large quantities of mucus.

With the new developments in X-ray, it is possible for a doctor to distinguish this condition from other bronchial and lung diseases, and thus treatment is more direct and effective.

Your doctor may find a lung or bronchial condition that you believe to be just a persistent cough. Early diagnosis means early recovery.

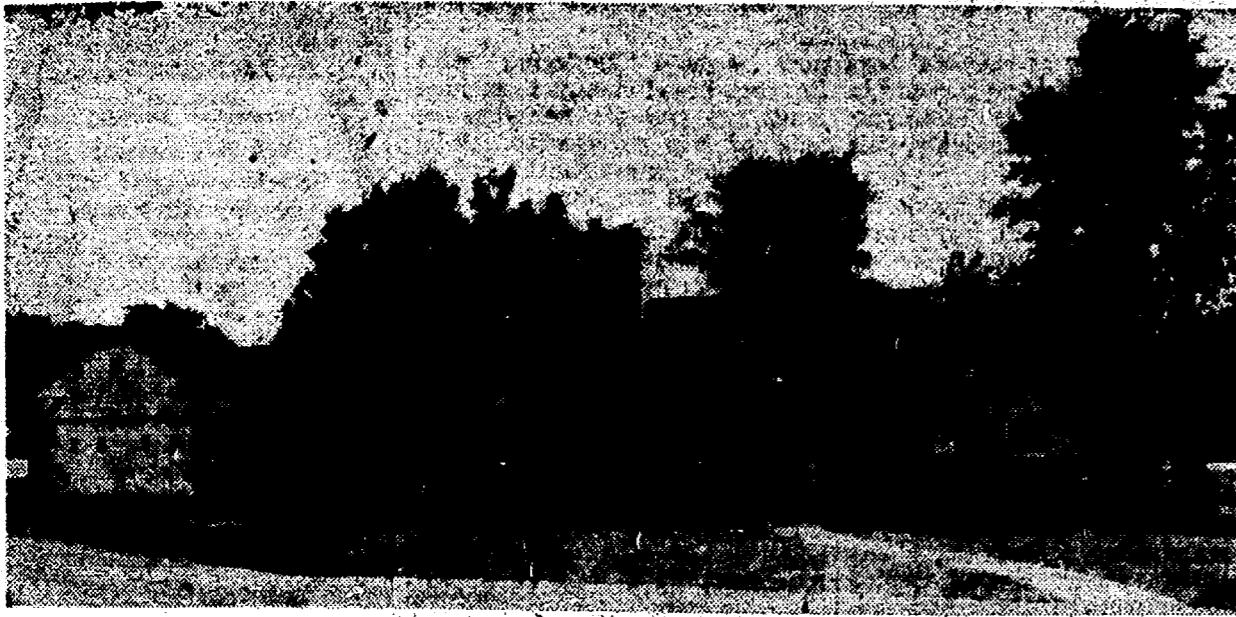

Medicine as recommended by your physician is invaluable in treatment if it is skillfully compounded.

Holiday House Attracts Thousands

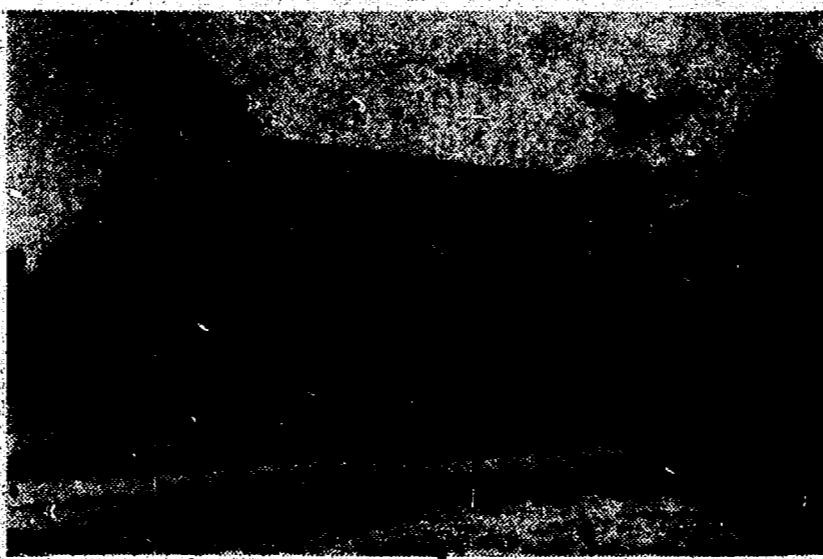

Design Shows Masterful Touch

This is one of two newly completed residences of a group under plan on property at the corner of Jefferson and Notre Dame. It has an unusual entrance hall and a 28 x 14 foot living room with dining area, a low hearth and great picture casement windows which soon will face a communal garden. There is a dramatic staircase, recessed lights in the ceilings, two second floor baths with showers and a first floor lavatory, large airy bedrooms, a well designed kitchen and an attached two-car garage. It was designed by Hawkins Ferry, built by Clarence Bessert, Inc., and decorated by O. Krauss. It is a gem and is open for the public's inspection.

Colonial Ranch Type Home

This smartly designed and well constructed ranch type home is at 2041 Manchester avenue where it graces a 50-foot lot. It has a living room with fireplace and dining and picture window, full basement, forced air heat, trussed roof construction, is thoroughly insulated, and has all metal lath partitions. Though it is in the popular price field it is an excellent neighborhood. The builder is Rudolph Palombit, 21550 Moross, whose flare for creating home smartness at low cost has won a reputation for him since the war. The house will be open daily beginning Sunday and it should not be missed.

Just Block Off Lake Shore

This early American ranch type home is only a block off Lake Shore road on Roslyn road, No. 655, just beyond Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, has a large living room, full dining room, kitchen with breakfast space, master bedroom with double sliding door closet and a dressing alcove. House is of quality construction including such features as forced hot water convactor radiation heat, 2 baths, 3 fireplaces. Attached 2-car completely plastered garage, is on a corner lot, which is taxed only on narrow side. Built by Joseph O. Busch who has 22 adjacent lots of 75 and 80 feet each for immediate development. Johnstone and Johnstone, 16610 Mack avenue are the agents.

50 Shoreham Road

This beautiful Early American house on parade is in the newly developed Shoreham road in fashionable Grosse Pointe Shores. It has a great living room with el diner, library, lavatory, reception hall and two bedrooms on first floor with connecting garage. There are two bedrooms and bath on second floor. There is gas heat, a recreation room with fireplace and 21 x 19 foot porch. It is built of faced brick. Its doors will be open daily beginning Sunday and seeing it should be a must for every lover of fine homes. Coe and Asselin, 19650 Harper, are the builders. O. Krauss did the decorating.

'Holiday House' Attracts Public

The public is vastly interested in all that is new in home conveniences and that is why thousands of people have already seen "Holiday House," depicting Hotpoint electric appliances, which was opened for inspection September 2 and will remain open through National Builders Week and right up to Oct. 2.

Home-makers will appreciate the floor plan of Holiday House which is ideal for town and country living... with its large living room, light, airy dining room concealed bedrooms at the back of the house and a terrace between house and attached garage. The bathroom is also a "powder room" with attractive built-in dressing table... just one of the many custom features of Holiday House.

The stream-lined, dream-lined model kitchen is equipped with Hotpoint's famous electric sink which washes, rinses and electric heat-dries your dishes, glassware, silverware, pots and pans automatically. The equally famous Hotpoint Disposal in the sink unit eliminates garbage problems once and for all. The Hotpoint Refrigerator and electric range give new beauty, new convenience in this work-saving center. And quantities of food are always on hand in the Hotpoint Home Freezer.

The Laundry Center with its Hotpoint washer, quietly, efficiently takes over your laundering problems... even to the daintiest of fabrics... with a feather-touch operation. And there's a Hotpoint dryer to dry clothes automatically! Further, you relax, sitting down, while you iron clothes faster with a Hotpoint Ironer.

Ford Dealers Sponsor Contest

Two Grosse Pointe Ford dealers, Tom Boyd and Alfred F. Steiner, announce their participation in the nationwide safety contest sponsored by the Ford Motor Co. Prizes totaling $100,000, consisting of 25 new Fords, five Ford trucks and U. S. Savings Bonds ranging in value from $1,000 to $25 will be awarded winners of this contest which has the support of the National Safety Council.

The dealers explained that in order to participate in this contest, car owners must bring their vehicles, (any make), to the service department of his dealership for a safety check. This entails absolutely no obligation to the car owner. Checks at no cost will be made on brakes, steering, headlights, rear and stop lights, tires, windshield wipers, muffler, etc., for safe operation. On passing this test the car owner will be given a handsome reflector insignia, along with a participation entry blank for the contest.

Confining to no more than 50 additional words following this statement: "All cars and trucks should be safety-checked periodically because—the contestant shall add his remarks. Only one entry per car or truck may be allowed and further details and rules governing this contest may be obtained at Boyd's and Steiner's.

Herbert M. Rich Family Visit Mrs. C. C. Wormer

Mrs. Clarkson C. Wormer Jr. of Ridge road had as her guests, her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Rich of Fenady, N. J. and their children, Barbara, Virginia and Michael. They spent several weeks renewing Pointe acquaintances.

Campaign Bears Fruit in Hurry

The campaign the Park police are waging against bicycle thieves has already borne some voluntary fruit. Mrs. Katherine Kabasta of 1444 Yorkshire called up at 7:05 p.m. on Aug. 27 to inform them that a bicycle belonging to her son, which had been stolen a few days ago, had been mysteriously returned to their back yard that afternoon while the family was away.

Baker Heading Building Group

John Baker, of the firm of Cox and Baker, eastside and Grosse Pointe home builders, a past president of the Builders Association, is chairman of the Association's National Home Week Committee. Speaking of the purposes of the event he stated: "National Home Week is an event staged for the benefit of home seekers, those who want to buy homes suitable for their needs and within the limits of their budgets."

Plan Meetings For New Pupils

For the instruction and guidance of students new to Brownell Junior High School and Grosse Pointe High School, the high school principal, Walter Cleminson, has announced two meetings to be held on Wednesday, September 7. All 7B pupils and any pupils new to Grosse Pointe who will attend Brownell Junior High School for the first time, are requested to attend a meeting in Room 218 at the Grosse Pointe High School building at 1:30 o'clock and should come prepared to pay deposits on locks.

Faculty Will Receive

At 2:30 p. m. in the auditorium of the Grosse Pointe High School the faculty will receive all 10B pupils and high school students, grades 10-12, new to Grosse Pointe. These students should also come prepared to pay the deposits on locks.

National Home Week Offers Chance to See New Houses

Pointe Builders Cooperate in Sponsoring National Exposition of Industry; List of New Buildings Open for Inspection

National Home Week begins next Sunday and runs through Saturday, September 17. Many Grosse Pointe builders are cooperating in this novel exposition by keeping a number of completed houses open for inspection by the public.

The record-breaking accomplishments of the Pointe home builders are due principally to initiative in designing, methods of construction and the high excellence of the decorating. However, all branches of the home-building industry share in the credit for awakening the public to the fact that private home builders are doing a tremendous job in housing America. It appears that 1949 will be the biggest home-building year since the end of World War II.

National Home Week is sponsored by the Builders' Association of Metropolitan Detroit and is expected to do much to stimulate interest in home ownership, which means more good citizens and better community life. The following list of homes will be open for inspection this week. Another list of homes will be published next week.

WHEN YOUR GAS HEAT UNIT IS INSTALLED

Call the GAS COMPANY

To the many thousands who have applied for GAS HEAT:

Since gas again became available for house heating, thousands of applications for this service have been accepted by us and more applications are coming in daily.

Very Important

As soon as your heating contractor completes installation of your new gas heating equipment and has lighted the pilot and put the equipment in readiness for operation, call our Service Department—Woodward 5-8000—our Service man will come to your home, check the meter and connections, and the pilot, then you will be ready for cold weather! As there are thousands of new gas heating customers, it is of importance to you that you notify us very promptly that your heating equipment is installed.

By doing this you will be entered at once on our books as a househeating customer, entitled to the low househeating rate.

Colony to Show Maugham Film

The first popular priced engagement of the W. Somerset Maugham film "Quartet" will be on the screen of the Colony Theatre starting this Friday. The first of a series of select films to reach the Colony it happens to be one of the most unique steps in cinematic art yet attempted.
Four distinctly different Maugham stories are presented, each with separate direction, casts and supervision. The author himself weaves the acting from one story to another on the screen in a most electrifying manner and tells in his own fashion the origin of the plot of each film before it is presented.
Still running in its sixteenth week in New York it is attracting wide critical acclaim wherever shown.
Forty distinguished players make up the casts of "Quartet" among them many "greats" of continental films.

Hoot Likes Grosse Pointe

Council Changes Boy Scout Ages

Thousands of 11-year-old boys have longingly looked forward to the day when they might become Boy Scouts. Quite suddenly, that day has arrived.
In an unprecedented move, the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America, has lowered the entrance age for its three programs of Cub Scouting, Boy Scouting and Senior Scouting, effective as of Sept. 1.
In announcing the far-reaching change authorized by the National Executive Board of the Boy Scouts of America, local Council Executive, Amos R. Shields, said the decision was reached after a three years' exhaustive study during which opinions were obtained from experienced Scout-leaders as well as parents and educators.
Boys may now become Cub Scouts at eight years of age instead of nine; Boy Scouts at eleven instead of twelve; and Explorers at fourteen instead of fifteen years of age.
The program known as Senior Scouting, Mr. Shields announced, now becomes "Exploring" with its scope broad enough to include land, sea and air activities as well as life exploration. Units specializing in seamanship or in aviation will be known as Explorer Ships or Explorer Squads, respectively.
Boys or parents wishing to know of the location of their nearest Cub Pack, Boy Scout Troop, or Explorer Unit, may secure this information by phoning the Registration Department of the local Council Office, Temple 1-1600.
Excluding the Presidents who were assassinated, three U. S. Presidents have died in office.

Helps Maintain Old Traditions

Mrs. Leland Kennedy of 895 Lakepointe returned home recently from New York City, where she completed a course of instruction preparing her to represent Welcome Wagon, Inc. as Hostess in the Pointe.
"Welcome Wagon service was originated in 1928 by Thomas W. Briggs, a newspaperman of Memphis, Tenn., who adapted a custom of pioneer days to present day conditions. A student of American history, Mr. Briggs was stirred by the romantic tales of the rugged men who blazed their trails to a new land across the western plains. As the covered wagons of the pioneers lumbered toward the frontier, homesteaders from scattered settlements along the way met them in "welcome wagons" with food and water to refresh the travelers at the end of their long journey, and extended a hand of welcome.
That gracious tradition lives on today in Welcome Wagon, a modern version of "old-fashioned" hospitality and goodwill is extended to the families of a community at the crucial moments of their lives. Daily, in 1948, throughout the United States and Canada—in more than 800 towns and cities—over 3000 Welcome Wagon Hostesses carried the good wishes of civic and business organizations to 500,000 families—to mothers of new babies; teen-age girls; newly engaged girls; those moving from one home to another within the community; and newcomers to the city.
The Welcome Wagon Hostess knows her town, and wherever she goes, she carries word of its outstanding features—its libraries, churches, newspapers, parks, museums, youth groups, welfare associations, banks, shops, radio

GROSSE POINTE UNIT 303

By Doris Nielsen

I think our Unit girls better hang their heads in shame! Out of the 103 cards that bowling chairman Rita Newcom sent out for last week's practice, we had a turnout of just 10 girls.

Congratulations to Katherine and John Paisley on the birth of a son, John, Jr. who weighed in at 9 lb. 13 oz.

May we join our post in wishing a very speedy recovery to Otto Berzel who is at the Veterans Hospital in Dearborn?

On our own sick list we have Marie Zumbo who met with an accident and will be confined at home for about 3 weeks, and Patsy Hoyt who is now at home convalescing after a foot operation at Harper Hospital.

Elva and Martin Nielsen are expected back home about September 6 or 7 after combining their vacation with the National Convention at Philadelphia.

Betrothal Told At Dinner Party

December is a favorite month with Santa Claus, debutantes and brides. Newest name to be added to the Pointe girls who will be married that month is Martha Ann McCray whose bride-groom-elect is Kenneth Frantz.

The wedding date was announced at the same time as their engagement when the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald T. McCray were hosts at a family dinner Thursday evening in the Detroit Athletic Club.

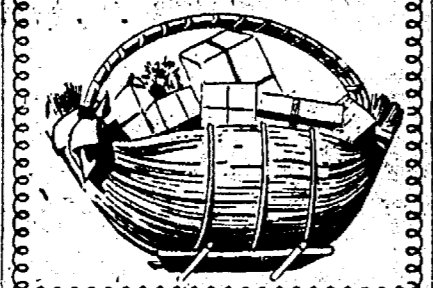

Kenneth is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Emerson Frantz of Berkshire road.

The bride-elect is an University of Michigan graduate and her sorority is Gamma Phi Beta. Ken is Princeton and while there was a member of Tiger Inn.

FOR THE NEWCOMER and the NEW MOTHER Here's What Welcome Wagon Means:

This lovely basket of gifts from the Grosse Pointe News and public spirited local merchant sponsors, is for newcomers to the Pointe and for new Mothers here. Neighbors please advise. Phone AR. 0429.

Gourmets' Heaven

All during the Dog Days more and more contented looking folk were frolicking home in the moonlight carrying brown paper bags imprinted with the legend: I've Been To Driscoll's And Couldn't Eat It All.

Driscoll's being that Ten Mile Road Heaven devoted to Beautiful Food where Pointe gourmets would gladly stand in a queue to sit down to steaks thick-as-that Fried Chicken... Lobster.

It's really true... Pete and Catherine Driscoll give their guests paper bags in which to take home what they can't eat... and many a Pointe puppy remembers them nightly in prayers.

The bag idea belongs to Lou Maxon... who because of friendship for the Driscolls and appreciation of the Nectar they serve... probably had more fun writing that slogan... than those for national products from which he's made his millions.

Driscoll regulars include the Ray Whytes... the William C. Fords... the Arthur J. Rohdes... the William Moore Joys... famous judges... society beauties... and big time politicians.

Europe, Africa Lure Male Trio

Sailing today from New York on the SS Mauretania are Chet Sampson, former member of the Grosse Pointe public schools teaching staff, and Ken Venderbush of Pemberton road, graduate of the June Class of 1948 at Grosse Pointe High.

With them is a classmate of Ken's from Kalamazoo College, Woody Schneider. The pair have dropped out of college for a semester to gain a varied type of education in foreign travel.

The trio plans to do a thorough tour of the continent, England, Scotland and Ireland, and Northern Africa. They will land at Southampton, England and go from the British Isles to the Scandinavian countries. Then they will tour France, Belgium, Holland and Switzerland.

After going over to Africa they will return via Greece and Italy and spend some time in Paris before coming home for Christmas.

Pointe Girl To Wed Saturday

Pretty Elenore Shackelford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John Harvey Shackelford of Berkshire road, and John H. Parkinson, son of the Gordon S. Parkinsons of Leamington, Ont., will meet at the altar of St. Catherine's Chapel of St. Peter and Paul's Jesuit Church, Saturday noon.

Mr. James D. Clark will officiate at their marriage. Elenore has asked Jeanette Van Becelaire to be her maid-of-honor and Joan Morrison, Jeanne Gardiner, Ann Scott and Nancy McGuiness (who attended Hillsdale with the bride-elect) to be bridesmaids.

William B. Roe of Cleveland Heights, O. will be best man and Jack Shackelford, brother of the bride-to-be, Robert C. Keaney of Pittsburgh, Pa., Edward Johnston of Boston, Mass., Charles Lundquist of Jamestown, N. Y., and Henry C. Dixon and Robert K. Lyon of Leamington will seat the guests.

The wedding breakfast will be held at Detroit Yacht Club to be followed by a reception. This Friday evening, following the rehearsal at the Chapel, the Parkinsons will give a dinner party at the Hotel Prince Edward in Windsor.

Conservatory Begins 8th Year on Friday

The Grosse Pointe Conservatory of Music, opening its eighth year of operation here, announces several new departments, including ballet classes which will be under direction of Myra Halisib, who has grand opera experience.

Girls' classes will include classical ballet with emphasis on a technique stressing a soft, fluid style while basic ballet with a modern touch will feature the adult classes.

The voice department, with a personality class will be headed by Helores Long. Here poise and personality for public appearances will be stressed. Miss Long will also conduct a junior class in dramatics and singing. Students will get training in short sketches and operettas.

The school continues all of its major departments and again includes guitar and accordion classes with Mr. Fortuna Otto as the teacher.

All studies are approved under the GI bill of rights and classes will open Friday, September 9, in the conservatory building at 15219 East Jefferson avenue, near Beaconsfield. Leonie Hahnke is director.

Rob Employe's Locker At Sweitzer Creamery

Harry Iley of 20827 Alger avenue, an employe at the Sweitzer creamery, reported to the Park police on August 26 that someone had taken his wallet from his trouser pocket while they were hung up in his locker.

The wallet contained over thirty dollars. The theft occurred between 9 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. on August 24.

The police and Iley are both convinced it was taken by someone having frequent access to the place.

The first oil pipe line was of wood construction, five miles long, and had a capacity of 800 barrels daily.

With her return this week from a Summer at Falmouth on Cape Cod, Ingrid Koebel, daughter of the Charles Koebels of Cloverly road, will soon set her wedding date. Ingrid will marry Law McCabe of Boston in December.

The Koebels with Ingrid and Sigrid took a house at Falmouth for the months of July and August. Mr. Koebel joined his family each week-end, flying to and from the Pointe for these reunions. The last Summer visitors from the Pointe were Mary McKean, daughter of the Robert McKean, and Lee Wadsworth, daughter of the Harold L. Wadsworths.

Mrs. Koebel with her two daughters and the house guests motored back to the Pointe this week.

Pointers Return From the Snows

The J. Frazer Whitehead family are back in their Cloverly road home after a summer in their place at Les Cheneaux. George and Susan Whitehead were at the summer home most of the season and frequent visitors were Mr. and Mrs. J. Whitehead Jr.

The Detroit Pan-Hellenic Association will hold its first meeting of the 1949-50 season, in the Sunroom of the Central YWCA on Tuesday, September 13, at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Mrs. George R. Snyder, the new president, will preside at the meeting, which will bring the representatives of 18 member sororities and eight associate groups. Assisting Mrs. Snyder, during her term, will be Mrs. Hall Lippincott, 587 Rivard Boulevard, as treasurer.

Among the delegates, who represent some five thousand alumni in the city, will be many Grosse Pointers in their positions as committee chairmen and assistants.

Nancy Hughes Weds Sept. 24

The Fred A. Hughes' place on University is a dither as an announcement is made that Sept. 24 is wedding day for daughter, Nancy, and John Bowers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenne J. Bowers of Lothrop avenue.

Barbara Hughes is going to be her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids will comprise Suzanne Stoepel, Sara Tiedeman, Helen and Mary Owen and Peggy Hughes, another sister.

Kenne J. Bowers Jr. will be his brother's best man and groomsmen are to be William C. Hassard Jr., Frederick Winters, Donald C. Longyear, Clinton Clark, Nancy's brother, Fred W. Hughes and Robert D. Sweitzer of South Bend, Ind.

Soap Products Uses Explained

Our grandmothers would have been confused with our references to using "soapless soaps." Also known as detergents, these new soaps may be equally confusing to modern homemakers who wonder about their use.

The fact that some of these soaps and detergents may or may not contain "builders" is helpful to know. A guide to selecting from these many products is offered by Irma H. Gross, head of the department of home management and child development at Michigan State College.

Smith-Ash Date Set for Sept. 24

Barbara Jane Smith and Donn Malcolm Ash are planning a Sept. 23 wedding with ceremony in Grosse Memorial Church in the evening. The reception is to be held in the Whittier.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Harvard road and Mr. Ash is the son of Dr. and Mrs. William S. Ash of Chatsworth avenue.

Toledo Woman Hurt in Crash

William F. Lane, of 115 Randolph street, Toledo, O., driving north on Buckingham on August 30, passed the stop sign at Vernon and struck a car driving west on Vernon by John L. Diesing of 595 Washington road.

Mrs. Lane, riding in the car with her husband and five children, suffered chest injuries and a possible fractured arm and was taken to Bon Secours hospital. Both cars were so badly damaged they had to be towed away.

City to Draft Gas Ordinance

The rapid conversion to gas heat this is now underway came up for discussion at the City Council meeting on September 6. The City has no ordinance which directly deals with this problem and on motion of Councilman Carpenter an ordinance will be prepared which is to follow in general terms the Detroit ordinance, with such minor changes as will make it more readily adaptable to Grosse Pointe City's peculiar conditions.

St. Matthew's Woman's Club to Hold Luncheon

The St. Matthew's Woman's Club will hold a luncheon in the parish hall at 12:30 o'clock on Thursday, September 15.

Mrs. H. Montgomery and Mrs. M. Hattenbuehler will be the co-chairmen. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. O. L. Denomme, Niagara 6628, or Mrs. L. Jensen, Niagara 9187.

Breaking and Entering Attempted in Farms

An attempted breaking and entering at 407 Mt. Vernon was reported to the Farms police on August 23. When Albert Jacobi arrived home he found tool marks on a window, indicating that someone had tried to break in. Mrs. Jacobi had heard someone in the driveway shortly before, but presumed it was her husband returning home, so had paid no attention.

Robert Scherer Cruises To Mexico With Navy

AT SEA WITH DESTROYER DIVISION 122 — Robert A. Scherer, seaman apprentice, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Scherer, 85 Stanton lane, Grosse Pointe, Mich., joined shipmates in respectful observance of V-J Day as this destroyer division steamed toward Vera Cruz for a two-day liberty.

Although these four modern warships were commissioned too late for the Tokyo Bay ceremony that ended the shooting war four years ago, they are seasoned veterans in battle maneuvers and hold important roles in training the navy's bulwark of ready-made civilian sailors.

This division includes the 2,200-toners USS Bristol, USS Beatty, USS Hyman and USS Purdy. They are on a two-week training cruise with some 400 naval reservists aboard. Underway since Aug. 29, when it left New Orleans for mock war maneuvers off Key West, the division headed for Vera Cruz and a Mexican-style Labor Day weekend.

Reservists on this cruise are part of over fifty thousand part-time sailors who will go to sea for training duty in the naval reserve program this year.

Following shore liberty in the Mexican port, the destroyers will return to New Orleans Sept. 9 to disembark trainees.

Mrs. H. E. Dodge Travels to Pointe Aboard the Delphine

Mrs. Horace E. Dodge of Lake Terrace is expected at the Pointe any day now. Mrs. Dodge is cruising home aboard her yacht, the Delphine, and is accompanied by her granddaughter, Diane Baker and grandson, David Dodge.

Spends Visit In Jail Cell

A visitor from Toronto spent a busy but unhappy day as a guest in the Pointe on Sunday, September 4. His wife reported he was slightly the worse for drink when they arrived in the afternoon.

He continued his imbibing, then went for a walk and became lost. After demanding entrance to several houses where he was certain he would find his wife and shelter, the police came on the scene.

Patrolmen Beaupre and Hilgenrod wrestled him into a scout car, amidst much profanity, and he was hustled off to the solitude of a Farms cell. Upon sobering up early the following morning he was released with a most cordial invitation to return to Toronto as soon as possible.

Hunter to be Taught Not to Kill Pheasants

A resident in the 1000 block of Whittier reported to the Park police on August 27 that a hunting dog was killing pheasants and other birds in the neighborhood.

The police contacted the owner of the dog and he informed them the dog was a young animal whose hunting instinct was strong but whose education had been neglected. He said he was going to send him away soon to a training school.

Pointe Baha'is Hear Quentin Farrand Talk
"Youth today seeks the answer to two basic questions," said Quentin Farrand, one of the Baha'is youth addressing a gathering of Baha'is and friends in Grosse Pointe Tuesday evening, August 30.
"First, the youth seeks religious teachings which are in accord with science, and secondly, he wants to know the answers to the problems facing the world today. Youth is also extremely conscious of time, and feels that something should be done about this now, and not when he has arrived at the age of 40 or 50," Farrand said.

CHURCH TO LAY CORNERSTONE St. Paul's Lutheran congregation (A.L.C.) the Rev. C. W. Sandrock, pastor, will observe cornerstone laying ceremonies at the new church site, Chalfonte and Lothrop road, Grosse Pointe Farms, on Sunday, September 11, at 3 p.m. The Rev. Dr. Norman A. Menter, President of the Michigan District of the A.L.C., will be the speaker.

Governor Williams is not Michigan's first governor to enjoy talking at luncheons and dinners...

Williams stuck to the job faithfully while 'solons' were in town. But he waived aside all arguments in June and July for a speaking schedule that resembled a barnstorming trip.

The governor's staff is now convinced that many voters prefer to have their governor 'work at the job'. Result: Fewer speaking engagements are being booked for 'Soapy' next fall.

When to call the legislature into special session is a decision yet to be made. The governor insists Michigan should enact a new tax immediately if it is to avert financial chaos next spring. He plugs vigorously for a corporation income tax rather than a personal income tax, and defends his position as not favoring a 'soak the consumer' levy.

Even if the legislature were to adopt a flat personal income tax, says the governor, taxpayers would soon favor a graduated income tax by constitutional amendment.

Victor Knox, speaker of the house of representatives, is convinced Michigan voters would never approve a tax boost or a new tax until need had been demonstrated. A treasury deficit will furnish such proof, says Knox.

If this strategy is adhered to, Republican legislative leaders will await 1950 to see how much money is needed and then cut the cloth accordingly. To do anything now, so this argument goes, is to guess at a future development.

But 1950 is also re-election year for many legislators, as with state elective officials. To impose a new tax in an election year is regarded by some as something next to political heresy.

The more the Republicans wait, the more their opponents are going to lambast the party, for protecting big corporations from a tax on their profits. Governor Williams wishes to put the G. O. P. on the defensive in 1950. He has been hammering away at the corporation tax consistently in 1948 speaking tours.

A week or so ago we had the opportunity to swing into the Upper Peninsula as far west as Marquette and Escanaba. Everywhere we were asked about Secretary of State Fred M. Alger Jr. and State Treasurer D. Hale Burke, two prospective candidates for governor in the Republican primary next spring.

Aside from saying that Alger, Brake and Keyes are all definitely interested in the nomination, we managed to stay neutral. Partisan politics have no place in this Main street column. But the inquiries do show an interest or anxiety of Republican observers about 1950.

Another point: Harry F. Kelly is a possible candidate. Would a 'third term' issue lessen his proved popularity with Michigan voters? That is something for the hot-stove league to talk about this fall.

Cooperative efforts to curtail Michigan's highway traffic toll are beginning to bring dividends. For three consecutive months a decline in traffic deaths has taken place. Maxwell Halsey, executive secretary of the Michigan state safety commission, reports the next objective is to make highways more safe for children.

'More than 4,500 children were killed or injured in Michigan traffic accidents last year,' says Halsey.

Does your community need a hospital? The Federal government will pay one-third of the cost of construction, providing the local community raises the other two-thirds. This aid is limited to about $11 million dollars for Michigan.

Hugh J. McGoldrick, Williams-appointed director of the state office of hospital survey and construction, reports that seven projects are now under way and three more will break ground next Fall. The ten hospitals and hospital additions will add 1,000 beds to Michigan's facilities.

Tomato Season Recalls Number Of Fine Recipes

It's a bit too early in the season for homemakers to schedule a tomato-canning session, but the vegetable is so plentiful that it's high time to feature it often in menus.

Tomatoes are among the three most popular vegetables just because they taste so good. Conscientious mothers who plan their meals with food value in mind, like to remember that they're as good for us as they are delicious.

Their most important contribution, nutritionally, is vitamin C—the food material that prevents soft and bleeding gums, helps build resistance to infections, assists in healing of wounds, and makes the walls of blood vessels strong.

Although tomatoes aren't as rich in vitamin C as the citrus fruits, they're still rated as good sources. One medium sized tomato contains about one-fourth the amount we need each day. Certain varieties, especially if they have been exposed to the sun during growing, are even better.

Fresh, raw tomatoes are best for Vitamin C, but the Nutrition Service of the American Red Cross reminds us that the acid in the tomatoes protects against excessive loss during cooking. For variety's sake, serve tomatoes in many different guises.

They're excellent partners for other vegetables, meats, cheese, fish and starchy foods. Here are a few ideas for preparing them.

Casserole: Six medium size onions, 6 large firm tomatoes, salt and pepper, 1 tablespoon sugar, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 3 tablespoons chopped parsley, 1 cup sweet cream, crushed cornflakes.

Peel onions, cut in thin slices and boil in water to cover for 3 minutes. Drain. Slice a layer of tomatoes into bottom of greased baking dish. Sprinkle with salt, pepper and half of sugar. Add layer of onions, bread crumbs and parsley. Repeat layers until ingredients are used. Pour on cream. Sprinkle top with crushed cornflakes. Bake for 45 minutes in slow oven, 300 degrees F. Serves 6.

Tomatoes and Eggplant: Two and one-half cups sliced tomatoes, 1 medium egg plant, pared and cut in 1/2-inch pieces, 1/4 cup minced onion, 2 tablespoons chopped green pepper, 1 teaspoon salt, pepper, 1 cup soft bread crumbs, 2 tablespoons table fat.

Combine vegetables and seasonings. Arrange in greased baking dish alternate layer of mixture and bread crumbs, ending with bread crumbs. Dot with butter. Cover dish and bake in moderate oven, 350 degrees F, for 45 to 50 minutes, removing cover for last 15 minutes to brown crumbs. Serves 8.

NOTE: If liked, substitute 2 1/2 cups cooked kernel corn, 4 cups sliced crookneck squash, or 3 cups shredded cabbage for the eggplant. Reduce baking time to 25 minutes, if corn is used.

Spanish Liver: One pound sliced beef, lamb or pork liver, 1 1/2 tablespoons flour, 2 tablespoons bacon fat, 1/4 cup chopped onion, 1/4 cup chopped green pepper, 1/2 clove garlic, minced, 1/2 cup sliced mushrooms (optional), 2 1/2 cups chopped, fresh tomatoes, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, pepper, 2 cups cooked noodles or spaghetti.

Dip liver slices in flour and cut into cubes at once. Brown in fat. Add vegetables and seasonings, cover pan, and simmer for 40 minutes. Add cooked noodles or spaghetti and cook 10 minutes longer. If preferred, arrange alternate layers of noodles or spaghetti and tomato mixture in casserole. Top with 1 cup soft bread crumbs, dot with table fat and bake for 15 to 20 minutes in a moderately hot oven, 375 degrees F, or until heated through and crumbs are brown. Serves 6.

Frozen Tomato Salad: Six firm, small tomatoes, 1 cup cottage cheese, 1/2 cup chopped cucumbers, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 3 tablespoons chopped green pepper, 2 tablespoons chopped pimiento, salt to taste, 1 cup cooked salad dressing (not mayonnaise), 1 cup heavy cream, whipped, salad greens.

Peel tomatoes, remove stem ends, and scoop out centers to form cups. Combine cheese, vegetables, salt and 3 tablespoons of salad dressing. Fit into freezing tray of automatic refrigerator, being careful not to spill the filling. Mix remaining salad dressing with cream, adding a little chopped basil, if available. Pour around tomatoes, almost covering them. Freeze for about 2 hours.

Heart Disease Greatest Killer

Heart disease is still the greatest killer of them all, Dr. Albert Heustis, State Health Commissioner, said in reporting Michigan's 10 leading causes of death for 1948. Diseases of the heart caused 18,726 of Michigan's 56,520 deaths last year.

Cancer is in second place, but caused less than a half as many deaths as heart disease. Apoplexy was in third place and accidents, in fourth.

There were no changes among the first seven major causes of death, but tuberculosis which had been in eighth place in 1947, exchanged places with diabetes which had been in ninth place.

Only two communicable diseases remained among the major causes of death—pneumonia and tuberculosis—and both were giving way to early diagnosis and newer methods of treatment, Dr. Heustis pointed out.

Deaths due to apoplexy, nephritis (kidney disease) and premature births were down also from their 1947 figures.

Deaths due to heart disease, but not until hard, cut in squares, with a tomato in center of each square. Serve on lettuce or other salad greens with additional dressing, if liked.

Serve this salad as the main dish of a party luncheon with individual corn puddings, potato chips and hot parsley biscuits. For dessert, serve peach tart topped with lime sherbet.

cancer, accidents, diabetes and arteriosclerosis were up from their 1947 figures.

Table with 2 columns: Cause of Death, 1948, 1947. Rows include Heart Disease, Cancer, Leukemias and Aleukemias, Apoplexy, Accidents, Nephritis, Pneumonia, Premature Births, Diabetes, Tuberculosis, Arteriosclerosis.

Michigan Plants More Trees Than Neighbor States

Michigan farmers and private landowners reforested nearly 20,000 acres of land in 1948 to lead all lake states by a wide margin and rank fifth in the United States.

Dr. Paul A. Herbert, head of the forestry department at Michigan State College, says only four southern states outplanted Michigan.

'This record explains in part why there has been a shortage of reforestation stock available in Michigan. The enthusiasm of our citizens to plant trees has outstripped the capacity of our nurseries,' Herbert commented.

He reports that this fall and next spring, approximately 14 million trees are available to planters from nurseries of the Michigan Department of Conservation and of Michigan State College. He doubts, however, that even this big supply will fill the demand, and urges farmers to obtain price lists and place orders as soon as possible.

Michigan farmers and other individuals planted twice the acreage that was put out in Wisconsin and ten times the acreage planted in Minnesota, U. S. Forestry Service figures show. Large plantings by industrial organizations in southern states were the cause of those states exceeding Michigan's total, the MSC forestry head relates.

Henry VIII had six wives.

Nerves Blamed On Hot Weather

The police throughout the Pointe claim there is a definite association between the hot weather and 'prowler' calls.

They say that as the thermometer goes up nerves get more on edge and as many as six or eight calls come into a single police station reporting a variety of vagrant noises which the nervous citizen is certain must be caused by a prowler.

Such reports are not confined to nervous women as some might imagine. A goodly proportion come from men who suffer from the same heat disorder.

Nine times out of ten there is no basis for the complaint. One woman in the Windmill Point section when spoken a pleasant 'good evening' by a perfectly respectable neighbor whom she failed to recognize, reported to the police that she had been accosted by a would be molester.

Moral: don't think every sound you hear is of human origin. The Grosse Pointe forests are full of cats, dogs and other nocturnal creatures.

However, the Pointe police wish it clearly understood that they are not trying to discourage the reporting of such complaints. They are perfectly willing to answer any number of false alarms on the chance of catching a bona fide prowler.

New York and San Francisco fairs commemorated the 150th anniversary of George Washington's inauguration.

METAMORA MEANDERINGS

DEB HELEN PARKER is the plucky one... taking a nasty spill at the second annual Hunter/Breeder Show... only parental insistence made her retire to the Hunt Club to rest a bit...

THE JAMES J. PHELANS JR. whose horses are shown by their daughters, (with MARY MEADE PHELAN the most active of all) raise Aberdeen Angus cattle at their vast Skaphe Hill Farms out Metamora way...

One side of the country home's living rooms is given over to a great picture window from which the owners can watch their thoroughbred cattle far, far in the distance scampering over the acres...

OVERHEARD AT METAMORA

"Our baby is seven months old. She rode her first pony last week. She'll be able to walk in a couple of months."

SNAPSHOTS

ELIZABETH LEDYARD and PINGREE WRIGHT, of the sub-sub deb crowd, intent upon riding Pingree's pony and then hitching a basket cart to the agreeable little horse (this is probably all wrong in horse-talk) to ride home after the horse show...

CORDA and SUZIE, those tiny dazzling little dotters of the SONNY KINZIES held at bay by their nurse in the family car while mama (former GERALDINE-HIGBIE) and daddy took part in the show were not without attention. As a final threat to their parents who had deaf ears for their wish to "get out-of-this-car" they threatened "To throw our gum out of our mouths." They also are adept at heckling, leaning far out of the car to intone, "We wanna ride a horse."

THE EVERELL FISHERS (she winning THAT many many blue ribbons) brought their de luxe bus over to the Hunt Club. It has bedroom, bath, kitchen and is used by its owners for long trips and for accommodations when they go to the Kentucky Derby.

MRS. FRED T. MURPHY, beautiful in printed gray frock with wine felt hat smothered in gray feathers, presented the Murphy Cup (for three-year-olds or under) one of the big events of the show. Deb granddaughter, MARY BOYER, (a Beauty) and her twin brother, HAROLD, were on hand to see their grandmother do the honors.

CARY SHELLEN, daughter of THE HENRY SHELLENS, was an active young horsewoman at the show.

ED HENKEL and EDWARD C. PARKER alternated as "announcers" doing a veddy professional job...

MRS. ROBERT F. WEBER OF LAKE SHORE ROAD

When friends, family and guests at the home of the Robert F. Webers on Lake Shore road say "Any luck yet?" they are referring to what Mrs. Weber sincerely "HOPES" will be her hobby... raising parakeets.

There are four exquisitely plumaged parakeets in ultra special cages now, the females laying an egg a day (parakeet eggs are about as large as your little finger nail) but the eggs don't hatch.

The Problem is responsible for a whole new set of friends in the life of Mrs. Weber. Parakeet lovers apparently number into the thousands and most of them have dropped by to ask, ask because the Webers' parakeets can't hatch an egg.

A lady from Hamtramck got word by the grapevine and hurried over to lend a "guaranteed" male named Buddy... once snow white but now turning an elegant poude' blue. The other concerned "Father" is named Blueberry and he is a periwinkle blue. The ladies for all the worry are Molly, who is green-striped and longing to be a Ma, and Pawpawker a sleek chaireuse blond.

DUCKS FIRST PETS

It was natural that the artistic Mrs. Weber become involved with the Parakeets. She has always loved animals and birds and her earliest pets as a child included a flock of ducks. The three Weber tots David, Rogalind and Mark share their mother's enthusiasm. Besides the Parakeets (for whose eggs they search first thing each morning) they share their love with a sleek Collie who watches their play on the handsome grounds of the Lake Shore home.

Mr. Weber couldn't help but take a hand in this interest. Optimistically and against the day when his blond wife will be the owner of dozens of parakeets, he built a huge cage for the birds. It's large enough for an adult to walk about in and has only one drawback.

Mr. Weber built the cage on the second floor. Completed, it is so large it cannot be moved out of the room in which it was built and Mr. Weber would rather not talk about it.

THIS WORKS However there is much smoother sailing in Mrs. Weber's other hobby... ceramics.

Dance at Center Set for Sept. 10

This Saturday evening, September 10, a full moon will be casting "Summer Shadows" as Roston Clark and his band play at the Memorial Center. This will be the second dance sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association for the 20 to 30 years age group in the Pointe.

This dance will be very similar to that held on July 23 for this same group. Tickets will be $1.50 a couple and will be on sale at the door that evening. No stags will be allowed. Refreshments will be served on the terrace overlooking the lake and are included in the price of the tickets.

There will be dancing from 9:30 until 12:30 everywhere on the first floor of the Center and the gardens will be open. Also, there will be facilities for playing bridge during intermissions.

This age group includes all those of college age and the young married people as well as those who are out of school. Many of the Pointe's young people have married and are no longer living here. To them a special invitation goes out to come to the Center and renew their old friendships. Many will be going back to school soon and "Summer Shadows" will provide a time and place for that one last get-together before the school bells ring.

Some young Grosse Pointers are already planning and getting ready for this Saturday night's dance at the Center. They include Carolie Castricum and Julie Huebner, Pat Hall and Bill Duer; Marilyn and Johnnie Braken, Ed and Nan McPhee, Jean and Harry Schroeder, Loyall Jodan and Jean Simmons, Bixie Mitchell and Bill Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Clark, and Joan Clark and Don Sichelsteel.

Curb Art Fair Patrons Named

An imposing list of patrons whose interest extends itself to attending The Event, is boasted by the Second Annual Curb Art Fair being held Monday, Sept. 12 (noon to 7 p.m.) at the vacant lot, Cadieux and Kercheval.

Many Pointers are planning to have an early lunch before going to this charming event, during which Pointe artists and many well known Detroit artists exhibit and offer for sale their works which include oil paintings, pastels, ceramics, etc.

Mrs. John S. Goodman and Mrs. Douglas Smart are co-chairman of the curb affair. Mrs. Karl Behr, Mrs. J. Gordon Hill and Mrs. Carroll Boutell are a trio of Pointers whose enthusiasm for the curb fair dates from the first one last year. They'll lunch together before visiting the out-door show.

Patrons include: David O. Hamilton, Mrs. Frederick Clifford Ford, Mrs. Charles E. Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Carey, Mrs. Philip I. Worcester, Mrs. Glenn P. Gessell, Mrs. Frank Allen.

When mamas scamper about this week looking for warm and practical (and some very lovely) pyjamas, gowns and slips for school girl daughters all the answers are right inside the door of JACOBSON'S. The gals will adore the newest things to dream in... called Swacks... with warm, cuddly jersey tops and cotton trouser bottoms. These are for the boarding school crowd as well as the lovelies who study at college. Then there are soft as bunny ear short nightgowns in all the soft shades and made of brushed flannel. JACOBSON'S also have them in cotton jersey. Even if it's her First Year Away your school girl won't have cold feet if you tuck in several of the snappy one piece sleeping jobs... even have feet attached. Come in strong red and green which the matriculating crowd approve, highly. Bitsies (their name, not ours) are cute little elasticized panties shirred and gay; guaranteed to hold-in tummies heavy with double malteds and still not interfere with your daughter's baseball ambitions.

If you've been travelin' with the glamor girls this season, then you've heard about the SIX STEPS. Well, really seven because the first step is right over to GROSSE POINTE DRUG CO.'S cosmetic counter to buy, fast as fast, Marie Earle's terrific "Araline." It's a special formula of astringents and oils which produce results almost after the first home treatment which include the SIX STEPS. Missie O'Brien, who so impressed us with Araline we wanted to drink it, gives you a little folder which shows the easy way to beauty with this Marie Earle product. Araline clears and brightens the skin and really brings back that youthful appearance. Why, it's getting to be a pleasure to look into our morning looking glass. Six Steps... and the first to GROSSE POINTE DRUG CO., beauties.

Have you seen THE hats? We mean the deeeelighful ones at WALTON PIERCE GROSSE POINTE BRANCH? The minute the Chic Crowd returned after Labor Day members skiddaddled, but fast, to try on flattering velour berets, velvet tams, and little felts that cry for the New Hair Do. The last named are worn off-the-face and over to one side... the 1949 look. As usual all the WALTON PIERCE chapeaux have exquisite detail. Veils are being secured by lovely little jewels instead of ordinary hat pins. Some of the bonnets have gold and pearl clips that can be transferred to collar of your frock anytime you choose. The berets come in all the wonderful autumn colors, toned to accompany the smooth wool costumes we found at this same shop. Feathers are wonderful again this year and we saw one cocktail creation of velvet with a long feather that swooshes oh so becomingly right around your face. And, by the way those Walton-Pierce hat boxes were bobbing on the arms of lovely leddies, we could just see everyone is going to be beautiful in a Walton Pierce bonnet this fall!

It's really true that when you do go shopping for chapeaux you're not going to be very happy unless your coiffure is by ANTHONY. Our paths kept crossing the other shopping day with a young Pointe matron who was radiant with her new ANTHONY hair-do, short and sort and becoming. We watched her trying on bonnets, berets and tams. She was simply knockout in every one... thanks to ANTHONY.

For a long time Pointe mothers have awaited just such a divine shop as YOUNG CLOTHES, INC., where all clothing, toys and accessories for the new born baby to the juniors sized 12 are to be found, in imaginative, delightful selection. Prices start from amazingly low one (and even these bring d-i-f-f-e-r-e-n-t clothes etc.) to surprisingly sensible ones for the custom made lines. Frocks from Paris (and labeled thus); a line called Merry Mite (created especially for lads from infancy through size 6); Personality Products for wee babies (including a "Party Girl" bonnet, a "Buttons and Bows" knitted outfit; and booties with teeny pocket for Mad Money). The things you formerly felt you had to go to New York for are all found at this newest Grosse Pointe shop where, the day we visited, they were doing a business in stunning English Curvon carriage robes (broadcloth lined in lamb's wool), whose wise buyers were having them monogrammed for the Best Babies at Christmas.
