THE TORCH DRIVE reaches 34 per cent of its quota.

RUMORED IN WASHINGTON that Omar Bradley, chairman of joint chiefs of staff, has intervened to prevent the removal of Admiral Louis E. Denfeld for his activity in the Navy's defense in the current squabble along the armed forces.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN still says nothing about his interference in the coal-steel strikes.

On this date in 1636 Harvard College was founded; in 1793 Eli Whitney invented the cotton gin which revolutionized the cotton growing industry; in 1886 the Statue of Liberty, the gift of the French Republic to the U. S. was dedicated; in 1918 the Czechoslovakia Republic was founded, chiefly through the influence of Woodrow Wilson.

ADMIRAL LOUIS E. DENFELD, Chief of Naval Operations, has been removed from his post to advance the cause of the unification of the defense services... Denfeld has been selected as the martyr of the Navy crowd and may take his cause to the people, via candidacy for a political office.

GENERAL MOTORS breaks practically all American industrial records in third quarter of this year... made and sold products valued at $1,580,405,459 on which it made a profit of $198,735,386, equal to $4.45 per share on common stock... paid out in wages and salaries $1,103,000,000... value of its products for the year to date are $4,458,079,585.

PRODUCTION IS TERRIBLE IN RUSSIA AND HER OCCUPIED SATELLITES, says General Frank Howley, former American commander in Berlin... "obviously business and politics don't mix", he says.

POWERFUL BUYING on the big board in New York yesterday pushed stocks to a new 1949 high.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN says the time for him to declare a national emergency to end the steel and coal strikes is still a long way off... American business disagrees with him nearly 100 per cent.

All Residents Urged to Inspect Memorial and See Progress That Has Been Made.

All residents of the Pointe are urged to attend the Open House to be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center in Lake Shore road on Armistice Day, Nov. 11. It will be a fine opportunity to see the progress that has been made at the Center during the last six months.

Mrs. Frank Goldie is arranging to have pianists and violinists from the Detroit Conservatory of Music to entertain the guests. Among these will be Willard Bach, violinist; Venetta Doughty and Shirley Grosbeck, pianists. Mrs. George Villorot is in charge of decorations. Mrs. Harold B. Tyree is planning the refreshments, coffee, tea and cookies for all who attend.

Car Turns Over In Farms Field

A car being driven by Richard E. Mason of 452 Lakewood, Detroit, hit the curb and turned completely over in the field at 473 Chalfonte road at 11 p. m. on October 28.

Neither Mason, nor Christine Brennan of 840 Piper, a passenger in the car, were injured. Damage to the 1949 Dodge convertible was estimated at $500.

Young Thug Slugs Driver Who Refused to be Touched

Richard Steel, aged 28, of 150 Virginia Park, Detroit, went into the Cupid Restaurant at Harvard and Mack at a late hour on the evening of October 28. He left his car parked by the McMann service station across the street.

His lunch finished, he went out and got in his car and started the engine and turned on the lights. Before he had started up there was a tap at the window, and thinking he recognized a friend, Steel opened the door and let in a young man, 19-20, wholly unknown to him.

Immediately his unbidden guest asked him to give him $5. Steel refused and a spirited conversation took place. Meanwhile the car was approaching Kercheval going south on Harvard and as he neared it the stranger told him to stop the car, which Steel did very willingly. Before the stranger stepped

Civil Service Commission Battles Over Appointments In Park's Fire Department

John C. Staudt Rakes Fellow Commissioners Victor Wehmeier and Karl Graul Over Coals For Going Over His Head In Making Recommendations

John C. Staudt, one of the three Park Civil Service Commissioners, passed up his recommendations to the Park Council meeting on October 31.

The row arose over the appointment of a new fireman and the advancement of others to the ranks of sergeant and lieutenant. There had evidently been violent disagreement between Mr. Staudt and his fellow Civil Service Commissioners on all the recommendations. The three Civil Service Commissioners are Mr. Staudt and Victor H. Wehmeier and Karl E. Graul.

Conducted by League. The examinations for both new appointments and for advances in rank are conducted by the Michigan Municipal League, whose services are retained by the Park for such work. After the rating of the various applicants is determined by these examinations and the figures are certified over to the Civil Service Commission, the Commission in turn makes its recommendation to the Council. This recommendation is ordinarily equivalent to an appointment as the Council makes it a practice to closely adhere to the recommendations of the Civil Service Commission.

The ruckus that was raised by Mr. Staudt, however, proved the exception to the routine and so great a question was raised about these recommendations that the Board of Commissioners referred the whole matter to a special committee of inquiry composed of Village Commissioner Peter D. Burgess, Village Manager Lane, Chief Rector of the fire department and Village Attorney Pierre V. Hettler. The Civil Service Commissioners will be invited to attend this inquiry.

Passed Up Racicot. The argument raised by Mr. Staudt arose principally over the passing up by the other two Civil Service Commissioners of the application of Edward H. Racicot, who aspired to the sergeantcy job for a number of years and had served as an acting sergeant during the war when some of the firemen went into war services. On their return he was reduced to his regular grade as a pipeman in the Department, but Staudt said that at this time he had been given a letter by Chief Rector assuring him that he would be in line for the next sergeantcy.

In the examination by the League he had passed second with a mark of 79. The man favored had passed with an 81.7. Mr. Staudt made no criticism of the fairness of the League's examination. His grievance was wholly with his fellow Civil Service Commissioners who were apparently willing to ignore the promises of the Chief of the Department and had informed him, (Mr. Staudt) when he appeared to consult with them as to their recommendation, that they had decided to recommend Jack L. Burnett.

More Criticism. Mr. Staudt also criticized the naming of Donald P. Ryde for the regular fireman appointment. He said they had passed up a young man named Coals, aged 21, who was born in Grosse Pointe and had passed an excellent examination. He was a fine specimen of young physical manhood and of fine character. Ryde, he said, had failed on physical in a similar attempt to get into the Detroit fire department.

Park Reduces Police Week to 40 Hours

Proposal To Give Firemen 63 Hour Week Laid on Table at Village Council Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Park police were granted a 40-hour week by the Board of Commissioners at the meeting on October 31.

The police had petitioned for this sometime ago and it has been carefully considered by the Council. The reduction in weekly hours is in line with modern police administration in Michigan. Practically all of the municipalities south of Detroit and many important cities throughout the state, such as Saginaw, Flint, Bay City and many others have those hours.

Cut Eight Hours. The police heretofore have been serving a 48-hour week.

The change will necessitate the employment of four additional policemen in the Department. The proposal to grant a 63 hour week to the Park firemen, which had been recommended by Fire Commissioner Ulrich, was laid on the table at the council meeting Oct. 31.

The opinion of the council was that it would be advisable to await the action of the legislature on the matter, as the firemen's hours are fixed by the State.

Rejected by State. The firemen attempted to obtain an additional Kelly Day at the last session, which the state rejected. The fact that many of the hours of on-duty which the firemen serve are in quarters awaiting a call to fires, whereas the policemen serve their shift in active service, cruising on the streets, accounts for the apparent discrepancy in police and fire hours.

Youths Fined For Breaking 31 Windows

Trio Confesses to Destruction at High School on Night of September 30

Three Pointe youths have confessed to breaking 31 windows in the Grosse Pointe High School building on the night of Sept. 30.

Given a hearing before Justice George Beauchamp on Oct. 25, they were each fined $31 and assessed $5 cost and placed on probation for one year to the Wayne County Probation Department.

The youths are Ernest Davis, 17, of 515 Lincoln road; Clifford B. Loranger, 18, of 888 Lake Shore road; and Myron Sherwood, 17, of 748 Stanton lane.

Suicide Report Ghastly Jest

The City police station on Maumee received a call from the Detroit police at 3:03 a. m. on Oct. 27 that they had received a message that a suicide or attempted suicide had occurred at 20170 Mack avenue.

The message was relayed on to the Woods police but a diligent search by them failed to unearth any information. The property at that number is unoccupied. The police dismissed the incident as a Halloween prank.

Masked Bandits Rob Mack Store

Two men, with handkerchiefs over their faces, walked into the Boston Shoe Store at 19111 Mack avenue at 10:35 Monday morning and held up the store at the point of a pistol.

They took $200 in cash from the cash register and two diamond rings from employees, one set in rubies and one in onyx. Both men were apparently 25-27 years old. One was about 5 ft. 8 in. tall and weighed about 140 pounds. The other was about 5 ft. 11 in., weighing 180-190 pounds.

It is believed there was a third man in a waiting car. The robbery happened on the Detroit side of Mack about 500 feet south of the Woods village line.

Halloween Parties Enjoyed by Throngs Of Pointe Children

4400 Attend Events Held at Night in Various Schools; Another 1920 Attend Movies shown during Afternoon Observances; Whole Community Donates To Fun

Grosse Pointe's 11th annual Community Halloween Celebration Monday has been acclaimed as by far the most successful in the history of the event. The committee estimates that at least 4,400 children attended the evening parties in the various schools and another 1920 took part in afternoon events which were held in many of the school buildings.

Two bands played for dancing at the High School, where more than 1800 enjoyed the music and other entertainment and plenty of Halloween refreshments. More than 1000 students of junior high school age jammed Pierce School for dancing to an orchestra, with juke box music during the intermission.

Also Afternoon Parties. There were 500 at the party at Maire School, 400 at Defer, 300 at Trombly and 400 at Richard. Stage acts, games and movies were provided. The committee also furnished cartoon films for schools having afternoon parties. At St. Paul 871 saw an afternoon movie as part of the Halloween celebration. Films were also witnessed by 400 at Maire School, 225 at Trombly and 625 at Mason. The committee is particularly appreciative of the great cooperation received from adults this year. In the past there have been shortages of adult assistance at many of the parties. The parents turned out in sufficient numbers this year to allow ample supervision without getting in the hair of the celebrants.

Everybody Helps. The parties were provided by donations from businessmen and private citizens and many local concerns. The Lake Shore Coach Company cooperated by running special buses to get the children to and from the various events. Financial and supervisory assistance was provided by American Legion Post 303, Alger Post 995 and Auxiliary, VFW, G.P. Business Men's Association, Kiwanis, Lions, Rotary, Optimists and Metropolitan Clubs, the Men's Chorus, War Memorial Association, American Association of University Women, G.P. University Club, University of Michigan Club, G.P. Board of Education, Teachers' Association, Dads' Club, Mothers' Club, the P-TA's of Defer, Kerby, Maire, Trombly, Mason, Parcels, Pierce, Richard and Vernier Schools, St. Paul, St. Ambrose and St. Claire Schools, DUS and Country Day School.

These Also Helped. The Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Brownies, and Cubs, Mothers' Health Council, Motion Picture Council, municipal councils and officials and police and fire departments also took an active part in arranging the events. Aside from providing wholesome entertainment for the children of the community, the parties contributed much to the safety and nuisance factors of Pointe life. Chief Arthur Louwers of the Park Police Department, head of the safety committee, reported that not a single call was received during the night. With these thousands of children running around the streets there would probably have been many accidents and not a little damage done by holiday pranksters.

As Jo Ann Coburn, aged 13, of 858 Lakepointe, and a girl friend were crossing Lakepointe just north of Jefferson between 7:15 and 7:30 on Saturday night, Oct. 29, she was struck by a passing motorist and knocked to the pavement. The driver stopped his car and asked if she was hurt to which Jo Ann then in a dazed condition answered "No." He then drove on and has since failed to report the accident to the police as required by law.

Jo Ann and her friend made her painful way home when her mother, Mrs. Frank W. Coburn, took her to the Cottage Hospital. Examination disclosed she was suffering from a broken collar bone.

Seek Information on Driver Whose Car Hit Girl in Park

Both the police and Mr. and Mrs. Coburn are anxious to know the party who hit her. They have placed an advertisement on the classified page of this issue asking for information as to the car causing the accident. It is understood there was a man leading a dog on a leash who was near the scene at the time and it is hoped he may have obtained the number of the car.

Any information that will clear up this matter will be greatly appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Coburn and also by the Park police. The Coburn phone number is VA 2-7856.

Educators Speak Before Rotary Club

Needs For Added Facilities Explained by Board President Sigurd Wendin

The Rotary Club meeting on Monday, Oct. 31, was the scene of the first public presentation of the plans which the Grosse Pointe Board of Education has for the extension of the school facilities of the Pointe. Board President Sigurd Wendin so stated in his opening remarks.

All of the members of the Board were present in a body and were introduced by Superintendent John R. Barnes, who is himself a Rotarian.

Only Few Old Timers. Mr. Barnes who opened the program for the Board, asked for a showing of hands of all those who were living in Grosse Pointe in December 1921, when the present school district was organized. He did this, he said, to illustrate the rapid growth of the school district in recent years. Only five hands were in sight out of an audience of between 75-85 members.

Mr. Barnes said at the time the school district was organized out of the consolidation of five rural school districts, the population of the district was only approximately 6,000 while today, according to the last school census, it was over 40,000. He mentioned also that the school censuses were more accurate than the regular decennial government census.

From 947 to 5500. When the school district was set up there was an enrollment of only 947 pupils; today there are 5500. Then there was not a single high school in the district and no school for the blind or the 9th grade.

Mr. Wendin stressed particularly the present lack of school facilities which will become wholly inadequate in the early future.

School enrollment throughout the United States has increased in proportion to population more than 10 per cent since 1940 and Grosse Pointe has been no exception to this trend. This vast increase in school enrollment has been due to causes which are common to the entire country and are largely traceable to war conditions.

Few New Rooms. Since 1940 only 18 rooms have been added to the elementary school facilities whereas the present enrollment indicates that 30-35 rooms should have been added. Those rooms in the new Parcels school which are now used for elementary school purposes are intended for Junior High school work and will soon be wholly used for that purpose as the elementary school enrollment advances into that grade.

The growth of the school district in recent years has been largely in that part of the district north of the Moran area, where hundreds of new homes have been erected by young couples, from which the school population largely comes.

Thanks Bus Company. Mr. Wendin paid thanks to the bus company for its public spirited cooperation with the district in trying to meet this problem by transportation. The equipment for this work was also limited and when it became necessary to crowd 60-65 children into a bus intended for half that number disaster was invited for which the school authorities would be called upon to assume the ultimate responsibility.

Raps Division. He referred to the proposal of cutting the school district into two parts, leaving the northern or newer part to provide for its own school facilities. This he said was a wholly unfair position to take. He said residents in the Woods had paid their part and were still paying for the schools built in the past in the lower end of the district and it was only fair now that the taxpayers in the older part of the district should come to the help of the newer part of the district.

Good Presentation. The clear exposition of the school needs made by Mr. Wendin and Superintendent Barnes was deeply appreciated by the Rotary members and a rousing acclaim was given them at the end of the meeting.

There was no reference made to the cost of these improvements although artists sketches were shown of the schools suggested.

Knows His Stuff

LIEUT. RICHARD MOORE

Vance Air Force Base, Oklahoma (Special to the Grosse Pointe News) Nine hundred questions—886 correct answers. That's the amazing scholastic record set by First Lieutenant Richard R. Moore, now stationed at his advanced youth flight pilot training base.

Lt. Moore was graduated with the first class in Central Instructors' School, recently transferred here from Barksdale AFB, Shreveport, La. At the end of his intensive six-weeks course, learning to fly T-6 aircraft, he took examinations in ten academic subjects, along with 35 other Air Force officers.

Out of 900 asked, the "cum laude" graduate missed only 14 questions. His 98.4% score establishes an all-time high in multi-engine CIS history.

Lt. Moore, whose home is in Grosse Pointe, is not a stranger to Enid, having gone through B-25 transition school here in July, 1945. From the Enid base he went to Germany with American occupation forces, flying aircraft of the European Air Transport Service.

After two years at the University of Detroit, he went on to graduate from the United States Military Academy.

Lt. Moore has been chosen to stay on at Vance as an instructor to subsequent classes in the Central Instructors School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond C. Moore, 352 Moran road, Grosse Pointe. His wife is the former Peggy Schrader, of Pleasantville, N. Y. Lt. and Mrs. Moore and their two small daughters have established a residence in Enid.

Cubs to Stage Marine Pageant

Cub Scout Pack 205 will pantomime some of the most dramatic scenes from Marine Corps history at a pageant to be staged in the Parkard Motor Car Company auditorium at Concord and Harper at 7 p. m. on November 4.

Major H. G. Totzke, U. S. Marine Corps Reserve, of Hampton road, Grosse Pointe Woods, has been helping the Cubs prepare for the pageant.

By special transcription, William Bendix will narrate the story as the scouts reenact this scene. The following scenes will be taken from the War of 1812, World War I, and finally the memorable Iwo Jima flag-raising scene from World War II.

Frank Taylor, of 198 Kerby road, a passenger in Anderson's car, was taken to Cottage Hospital for examination. Farms Police Officer Kiliets and Jarrett investigated the accident.

Pointes Study Merger Plan To Handle Health Service

City Announcement of Intention To Withdraw From Township Setup Leads Other Municipalities To Take Steps Toward Adopting Joint Proposal

Following the notice of withdrawal from the Township health service by the City of Grosse Pointe, the other Pointe municipalities are looking into the proposal of setting up a community health service for themselves and withdrawing wholly from the township service.

As these communities are still a part of the township this could only be accomplished by an arrangement somewhat similar to the one that was made in the setting up of the Inter-Municipal police radio service which is now in operation.

In that case, however, the Farms acts as the operating municipality and the other communities pay to the Farms their pro rata share of the cost of maintenance and operation.

In the health consolidation project the Pointe communities that are now a part of the township and as such are receiving the township health service, an arrangement may be made to have the County Health Department take over under some arrangement which will assure identical service to all.

The communities involved are the Park, Farms, Woods and Shores.

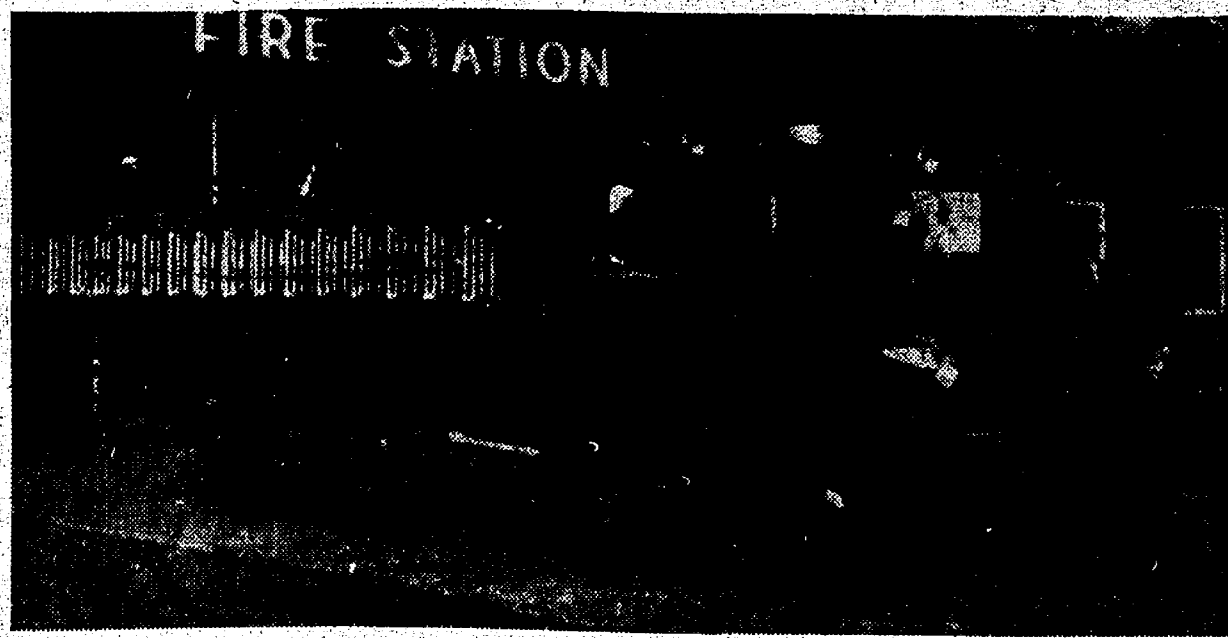

The Park Council at the meeting on October 31 directed Commissioner Peter D. Burgess and Manager Lane to represent the park in these coming conferences.

Park Authorizes Buying of Lots

Park Village Manager Everitt B. Lane was authorized by the Board of Commissioners at the meeting on October 31 to proceed with the purchase of lots Nos. 355, 356 and 481 of the Windmill Pointe subdivision for the development of the proposed Civic Center area at the entrance to the Pointe. The cost will be approximately $10,000.

Lots Nos. 623 and 624, which are also desired for this same project, are at present on the market, but the village hopes to acquire them later. The tract is wholly south of Jefferson avenue.

Woods Augments Fire-Fighting Equipment

Here is the new pumper-ladder truck which the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods has just acquired. The pumper is capable of throwing 1,000 gallons of water per minute and can toss five streams at once within seconds after arriving at a blaze. It cost $15,500 and with hose and other equipment represents an expenditure of some $18,000. Extensive tests have been conducted that surpassed even the fondest hopes of Chief Walter Goulette.

one organization job, but a job done by more than 300 voluntary workers on 12 different committees.

These committees are: Safety, Finance, Ticket, Food Service, Supervision, Transportation, Publicity, Student Advisory, Entertainment, Building Usage, Party and Building. All are like wheels in a well oiled machine. They all are important. As entertainment chairman Forrest Geary says "each committee has its important role to play to make a program of this size a success. There isn't one you could leave out for if you did the program wouldn't be the success that it is."

What They Ate

The "food" committee released figures on what the kids consumed at the High School and Pierce parties. They surrounded 784 hot dogs, 76 cases of pop, 35 gallons of cider, 72 dozen doughnuts, 60 dozen bags of potato chips and sundry other refreshments. Peanut butter and jelly sandwiches had been provided in view of the fact that Monday was a Catholic Fast Day, but the committee said there was no call for these.

Originally there were four months between presidential elections and the inauguration to allow for slow methods of communication and transportation.

League Boosts Members' Dues

The Michigan Municipal League, which renders a variety of services for its member municipalities, has increased its dues for membership.

The Park council received a notice at the meeting on October 31 that the village's dues would hereafter be at the rate of slightly more than $290 per annum. The dues heretofore have been $200 a year. The dues are governed by the population of the member community.

In view of the valuable service which the organization renders, the village the Commissioners accepted the increase without debate.

Brys Residents Frolic at Party

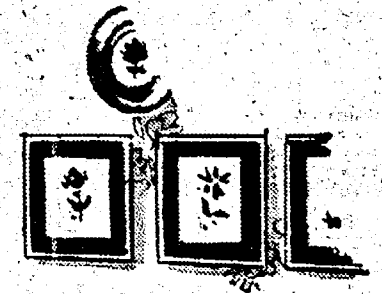

Residents of Upper Brys drive participated enthusiastically in a block party for children and adults to celebrate the Halloween season on Oct. 28.

Promptly at 7 o'clock, Paul Crooks and John Gould, both in costume, emerged from their homes, beating a drum and clanging symbols, to summon the residents to the gala event.

Youngsters and grownups fell into line for a colorful costume parade. The street was blocked off and houses were aglow with porch and flood lights, most houses having pumpkin moonshines strategically placed.

Festivities for the children ended at 9 o'clock. A stand was set up in the Herbs' driveway, where the kids received doughnuts, cider, suckers and pop, and balloons. Prizes were awarded for the best costumes.

After the youngsters had been tucked away the adults carried on with a party of their own in the Pocherts' garage. Refreshments and dancing were enjoyed by all.

The Farms Sees Its Charter

The charter under which the new city of Grosse Pointe Farms will operate is in all essential details the old commission form of Government, that was set up in Galveston, Texas, a half century ago, following the great Galveston flood.

All the powers of government will vest in a council body of seven members. Commission and Council are one and the same. There will be no mayor holding veto powers elected by the people. He will be one of the councilmen, elected by the Council itself, and will be merely the presiding officer whose chief function will be to serve as window dresser for the Municipal Government.

All of the "administrative" heads of the local government will be selected by the Council. This is a wise provision as taking out of the political arena public officials whose duties are purely business and should not be compounded with political activity.

It is questionable, however, whether the divorce of the minor officials of the city from practical politics has not been partly nullified by the provision which permits the recall of the elected officials of the municipality. It would seem a better provision for them to be elected for fixed terms and made immune from the threatening of disgruntled citizens who might seek their recall in the midst of their term for some act which ruffled the temper of trouble seeking or capricious citizens which the long view might prove to be sound and just but momentarily displeasing to certain persons. Such a provision invites politics at its worst into local municipal government.

The provisions which the charter commission made in prohibiting pay to the councilmen was bending back too far in the gesture of public service as a duty. This is the present method and is subject to merited criticism. These public serving citizens who now accept places on the various councils are in fact the directors of the municipal corporation and as such assume unpaid—for responsibility for the direction of the affairs of a corporation whose values run into many millions of dollars. Private corporations quite generally pay their directors a reasonable stipend for their attendance at the meetings and there is in all fairness no good reason why the directors of our municipal affairs should not be similarly remunerated.

Just what this amount should be is a matter for decision by each municipality but a provision under which Councilmen were paid on a per meeting basis for attendance at every regular stated meeting of their bodies would seem in line with justice and good business practices. In no case would this be large enough to tempt citizens to seek office but would be an appropriate recognition of the sacrifice they make of the time which is their own, for public service.

It is also questionable whether the Mayor should not have the powers which his office usually implies. A Mayor with veto power over acts of council would certainly be a safeguard against a too great centralization of power in any close knit commission in whom centered all municipal power, subject only to the unwieldy and hazardous expedient of popular will through the initiative and recall.

The safeguards on tax levy and bonded debt have doubtless been made within the structure of the state laws and appear wise. The severe curbs on bonded indebtedness obviously point to a pay as you go plan in municipal financing which is often employed to the great advantage of the taxpayer.

A public hearing on the new charter is to be held in a few days. The extent of any amendments or changes in the proposed instrument will depend on the lively interest the citizens take in the matter.

Taken as a whole, the basic law for the municipality as submitted by this able and painstaking charter commission seems to be an excellent formula for local government.

Sketchy Opinion

A Detroit daily has been polling the opinion of the Recorder's Judges on whether they favor or oppose capital punishment for murderers. According to this interrogator, four of them are "glad they don't have the job" of imposing the death penalty; two frankly say they think a first degree murderer should be executed and four prefer to express no opinion, holding that this is a matter which the State must dispose of. The expression of the first four is understandable. No judge would relish this duty.

The interview is frankly bare of general discussion of the problem involved. There is not a single expression on the responsibility of the state to extend the maximum protection to its people against the crime of murder. This is really the meat of the whole question.

Capital punishment is not inflicted primarily because a person has committed a murder. It is not a case of the state's revenge for the commission of the greatest of all crimes. It is a sentence invoked as a warning to all others of what may happen to them if they murder. That is the very essence of capital punishment and to say that the State's threat to kill those who kill is not a deterrent against potential murderers is to oppose the logic of common sense.

The whole question of Capital Punishment comes down to the elemental question whether or not the state is obligated to extend the maximum of protection to its people. Forty-one states out of the forty-eight say that it is.

The Yugoslav Rapprochement

So far as the momentary significance of our favoring Yugoslavia as against Moscow goes, it is a case of tweedledee and tweedledum. Both Tito and his Yugoslavia and Moscow and her satellites are communist despots, as indeed must all communist countries be, for they can function in no other dress.

It was the turn for some one of the minor powers to have a seat on the Security Council of the United Nations. We favored Yugoslavia as against Czechoslovakia and the former won out. So far so good, but it would be a mistake for any American to assume that this signifies a new recruit

We should like to thank the folks who wrote telling us they agreed with us about Patience Strong's verse for the War Memorial Center. . . and we'd like to thank "specially" Mrs. A.R.J. for her very nice note. As our favorite Arthur Godfrey sez: "It's people like you who make work like this a pleasure."

Welllll, we've been coping (in a nice way), with our friend Mr. Schrader again! If you will remember, we wrote a couple of weeks ago about our lesson in wall painting (which some printer's devil boozed up for us in the final printing of this column). This week, we have suffered through the papering of our bedroom and we advise all housefraus who are contemplating having their walls papered, to leave town until they are finished!

We have been living in a state of personal confusion ever since the operation began. Sleeping under the sideboard in the dining room; dodging odd cuttings of paper, paste pots and brushes to snag a frock from our bedroom closet; hunting through our Fibber McGee closet in the hall for our shoes and brushing our teeth at the kitchen sink. We have also had the happy experience of visiting back and forth with Mr. Schrader from our bathroom (adjoining the bedroom) while we performed our daily ablutions.

On the morning Mr. S. was ready to hang the first panel, we entered the room in a state of great anticipation . . . but we couldn't see the little painter. We called to him and an answering voice came to us from atop the ladder where he was hiding under a colossal sheet of wall paper that was smeared with paste. We thought in horror that it had fallen on his head . . . but not at all. Mr. S. USES his head in papering walls, as well as his hands! All we can say is, them what wants to be paperhangers can BE paperhangers. We'll stick to the newspaper business!

Because the gal might be turned over her father's knee and spanked . . . we shall use fictitious names and places in the following true tale. Last week, a young girl telephoned the NEWS and asked to speak to the Editor. When he took the phone, she asked if he had a copy of the July issue of the paper that contained a story on the Society page about a party at one of the Clubs. When he replied that we had a copy, she asked if he would mind getting it out of the files and reading the article to her. Always obliging, he asked her to hold the line while he dug it up; then he read the three-quarter column length story to her.

When he was finished, she said, "That's it. That's the item I want. Could I please buy a copy of that issue?" It was explained to her that there was a certain charge for handling and mailing but that if she'd rather stop in to pick up the paper, it would cost only a nickel. "Oh! but I CAN'T stop in," replied the girl, "I'm at school." Ye editor then suggested she come by AFTER school. "But you don't understand," explained the little lady, "I'm at school in Portland, Oregon." And sure enough that's where the call was from! No wonder parents find it expensive to send their offspring to out-of-town schools!

Maybe it's just that this atomic generation takes things for granted. Back in the shirt-sleeve era, some of the things the young do now would leave our mouths hanging open so wide we'd never get them closed again. Another example of what we mean is the tale told by a College Professor (whom we know), about a local boy. Our Professor friend spent the summer in Europe and among the many things he told the students (concerning his trip), was his fondness for a special kind of cheese that he had come across in a small town in France. He had inquired as to where he might buy it in this Country and was told that ONLY in that small town did they have that particular cheese. He went on to tell the students that much to his disappointment, he found this to be true.

A few days after the discussion, one of the students came to him on a Monday morning and handed him a package. When the Professor opened it he was astonished to find therein a goodly sized hunk of his favorite cheese! "Where on earth did you ever find this?" he asked. Even as you and we might nonchalantly say, "We took a bus to the City limits" . . . the boy replied, "Oh, I flew over to France over the weekend to get it for you." And the Professor later discovered that the boy actually DID! THAT is what we call polishing the apple in a great big way! Lucky the Prof didn't rave about a Rhinoceros in Rhodesia. You never can tell!

to Western ideals. Tomorrow may see a change in the kaleidoscope of European politics.

This apparent rapprochement between the West and Yugoslavia has about as substantial basis as had the welcome given to Russia when she was forced to join hands with the Allies following her invasion by the Germans in June, 1942. Any port in a storm was the feeling of Russia and also of the Allies on that occasion.

Winston Churchill was the only spokesman of world calibre who had the courage to speak out boldly at that time. He said he had no sympathy with communism but the exigencies of war forbade us to be too choosy in our selection of friends, so the Allies' swallowed for the time being the unpalatable Russia association.

That is about the sentiment that obtains with the West today. We of America have no truce with communism whether it approaches us behind a Yugoslav or Russian false face.

Well Spent Taxes

An important elderly citizen wandered into one of the Pointe fire stations the other night, and observing a shiny and obviously costly piece of fire apparatus, cynically remarked to some of the bystanding firemen: "I suppose this is one of the fancy dewdads our money is going for."

Right! Mr. citizen, and more power to the fire officials who asked their purchase and to the councilmen who had the wisdom and courage to appropriate the taxpayers' money to pay for them.

All of the Grosse Pointes have capable firemen and able leadership in their fire departments. These men must be given modern and efficient tools with which to work. The protection against fire of some of the finest residential property in America lies in the hands of these men. Their record in the past shows that they know their job. Especially impressive in their reports to the councils are the figures of the value of the properties in which fires started. Without the presence of capable fire fighters, awaiting service around the clock every day in the year, to get to these fires in double time, many of these imperilled properties would be total loss.

Instead the figure of actual destruction is remarkably low, and this is partly due to the quality of the apparatus which is furnished them to use.

But with that a fine municipal economy is in effect in the fraternal cooperation which the Grosse Pointe firemen practice with each other.

What Goes on at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

A New England small town librarian is reported to have confided naively to one of her patrons, that she liked to have the summer visitors come, "because," said she, "they tell me what all my books are about." There are moments in the Fall of the year, when books are being spewed from every press in the nation, that we have a certain sympathy with this point of view. From the bombardment of this season's books we list a few of our recent titles.

THE PLUM TREE

By MARY ELLEN CHASE:

Eighteen-year-old Emma, on the brink of her nursing career, has had her first harrowing meeting with death. "Will I ever forget it all?" she asks the older, more hardened nurse Hawley. "No," replies Hawley. "At least, I hope you won't forget. That's what they always say in hospitals. You'll forget, you'll shake down, you'll get used to it. The trouble with most people is that they forget too quickly. If you forget too much, you'll die a worse death than that boy died and a longer one. Only remembering won't hurt you so much by and by. That's the best I can say to a kid like you."

It was the faculty "not to forget" that gave the Home for Aged Women, directed by Emma and Angelina, a different odor than most of its kind. A blossoming plum tree is a spot of beauty on the institutional landscape and to Emma it symbolizes life and hope. How she handles a difficult situation when three of her charges are consigned to the state hospital is the crux of the story. Here is infinite compassion and saving humor. Mary Ellen Chase has the ability to portray sentiment without being maudlin. If you're weary of the thousand page tome, there's an hour's enjoyment for you in this short novelette.

MEDICAL MEETING

By MILDRED WALKER:

Marital relationships with a modern setting and a medical backdrop. The story concerns a young doctor and his wife who work for twelve years to discover a cure for tuberculosis, only to find on the brink of success, that someone else has achieved this goal a short time before them. The disillusionment that follows is reflected in their own personal lives but all ends satisfactorily. Competently handled in a manner not unlike that of Marquand.

PASSIONATE JOURNEY

By IRVING STONE:

This novel, with the American artist John Noble its central figure, is reminiscent of the author's earlier success, LUST FOR LIFE, in which he portrayed the tragic story of Van Gogh. Where madness was Van Gogh's terminal, Noble's escape is alcoholism. He eventually achieves fame but is inwardly lonely always. A fictional biography that makes good reading.

YOUR AMIABLE UNCLE

By BOOTH TARKINGTON:

A posthumous book made up of letters to his three nephews, written by Tarkington while traveling abroad. Gay, shrewd and amusing, the letters are enhanced by the entertaining sketches done by the author.

That First Important Year

By FRED M. KOPF, R. P.

Growth is more rapid in the first year of a child's life than in any other. In order that your baby may progress both mentally and physically to the full extent of his capabilities, he should receive monthly attention by a physician. For in that first year of rapid growth diet changes have to be made at the proper time, training habits should be carefully established, development must be checked, and protection against childhood diseases is necessary. The George W. Renchards Jr. of Washington and Vienna (he is secretary to the American Embassy in Vienna) are going to become Pointers for two months.

This is wonderful news to George's many friends (Mrs. R. was Stellita Stapleton of Washington, D. C.) who have only brief glimpses of him since he entered diplomatic service that many years ago.

The only visits the Renchards have paid... have been those to visit his parents, the George W. Renchards of Indian Village Manor.

But come Dec. 10... and George and Stellita will be local to the Pointe... they've taken the John Boydell home on Kenwood court for their stay here.

Chagrin Falls Guests

And that makes them next street neighbors to their brother and sister-in-law... the Jack Renchards... Who, incidentally, are entertaining houseguests this week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Gerson of Chagrin Falls, O... The Renchards recently spent a week-end with the Gersons (Jack and Mr. G. were navy friends during the last you-know-what).

On Saturday evening... a number of the young married crowd have been invited for cocktails with Jack and Mary and their guests.

Spooks

Sub-sub-deb... Sharon Ann Queeney... dotter of the J. Rex Queeney of Maumee road... is a little gal with smart ideas.

When she invited her classmates at Country Day... to a costume Spook party last Saturday evening... she said wisely,

"Now we can all wear our Hallowe'en costumes twice... once for my party... and once on really Hallowe'en."

Eerie lights creeping out of Jack O'Lanterns and other Hallowe'en fare were used to decorate the party room.

At first the hostess was going to be a Gypsy girl for the evening (casting a calculating eye on mama's costume jewelry) but finally decided to go in a dazzling costume... the front of which was a skeleton... the back a devil... faces pointed in opposite directions and all was divine confusion!

There were all kinds of games and wonderful prizes... and the guests included Frances Bonbright... Jane Ecclestone... Sas Saylor... Julia Ferry...

Judy Lomax... Gay Bacon... Sally Degener... and Marilyn Davis...

Sharon Ann... who's a very new and shining seven... wrote all her own invitations... in i-n-k.

Southern Accent

Returning any day now... after a Suthun Interlude... should be the Alfred Meyers Jr. of Oxford road.

They motored down to Williamsburg... Farmington and Charlottesville.

And then went on to Richmond... where they have been visiting with Mrs. Mayer's brother-in-law and sister... Mr. and Mrs. Armistead D. Williams (Fannie Perley Richardson).

They'll also visit Mr. Williams' mother... Mrs. Lewis Williams... whose home is one of famous mansions of Richmond.

GPHS Band to Play Sunday Before Detroit Lions Game

Grosse Pointe High's snappy marching band will come out in full bloom before the Detroit public in Briggs Stadium next Sunday, November 6, when it entertains with seven other bands during the halftime intermission of the Lions-Cardinals game.

The Blue Devils will have the distinction of performing for the early arrivals before the game gets underway.

Under the direction of band master Dewey Kalember, who incidentally has done a remarkable job with the Pointe musicians during the Pointers' home games this season, the band will open its pre-game performance by forming a huge torch. This is to remind everyone of the "Give Once For All" campaign now in progress in this area.

From the torch formation the Blue Devils will form the letter

"S" in tribute to that grand old band master John Phillip Sousa, and will play Sousa's favorite march, "The Stars and Stripes Forever."

Breaking out of the letter "S" the Pointers will form a "4" sign as a reminder to dig deep for the Torch Drive.

The Blue Devils have been invited to play during the halftime intermission at the Michigan-Indiana game November 12 and they are going to accept.

FALLS AT PLAY

Walter Duym, 14, of 4637 Algonquin, Detroit, was treated at Grosse Pointe Woods Clinic for a bad laceration of the thigh after he fell from a ladder while playing in a new house two doors east of his sister's home at 951 Hampton, where he was visiting, according to Woods police.

Ground Broken for Auto Club Building

Woman Struck Crossing Mack

Mrs. Louise Schiebel, aged 71, of 1350 Devonshire, was crossing Mack avenue from the south to north side at 6 p.m. on October 28 when she was struck by a car driven by Patrick L. Spragg of 11625 Somerset.

Mrs. Schiebel was hurried to the Saratoga Hospital where she was treated for abrasions and possible fractures of left leg and arm. Fifteen stitches were taken in her head.

Spragg was taken by the Park police to the Prosecuting Attorney's office where a drunkometer test was applied. It showed that he had been drinking but not enough to be classed as drunk. He was given a hearing the next morning before Justice C.

Joseph Belanger, who released him under bail, with injunction to not leave the region.

Only persons who have been dead for ten years can qualify for election to the Hall of Fame.

FALLS DEAD
Walter Zygmunt, 53, night man at the Grosse Pointe Club, was found dead, apparently of a heart attack, at 11 a. m., Oct. 22, in the club's bath rooms, according to Farms police.

Two Parties Being Planned At Center for Younger Sets

The Youth Activities Committee of the War Memorial Center, Mrs. Charles B. Lord, chairman, has issued notice of two dances that will be held at the Center in the near future.

On Friday evening, Nov. 4, beginning at 8:30 o'clock, an informal evening of cards, music, food and conversation has been arranged for Grosse Pointe young people and their guests through college age and up to 30. This event has been arranged in response to a request coming from many quarters for an opportunity for young men and women to renew acquaintances interrupted through intervening years of war service, or who have been out of touch with the social life of the community for various reasons.

This not being a dance, those attending are not required to come in couples. The charge of 50 cents per person covers everything.

The Committee in charge includes Speed Rutter, Joyce Bowen, George Gerow, Carol Sanford, Jim Fleck, Jeanne Leavitt, Pat Riggert, Bob Rector, Ruth Neff, Marjorie Little, Jack Duncan and Lois Gehrig.

On Saturday evening, November 12, from 9-12 o'clock, there will be a dance for high school age and teen-agers from Grosse Pointe schools. This dance has been given the name of the "Frosty Waves Fling."

The music will be furnished by the Bruce Roy orchestra. The cost will be the usual fee of $1.50 per couple, which includes refreshments. There will also be special intermission entertainment.

The Committee in charge is Joel Morgenau, Stuart Friesema, Pat McKinney, Harriet Goodrich, Barbara Reid, Link Godfrey, Jack Marcus, Marian Orthof and Dick Guenther.

Dozing Driver Causes Crash

Two cars were damaged in a crash on Lake Shore road at 7 a.m. on Oct. 30 after the driver of one of the vehicles fell asleep at the wheel.

John Roman, of 828 West Willis, driving a 1949 Oldsmobile west on Lake Shore dozed at the wheel and the car jumped the south curb. Awakened by the jolt, Roman pulled it back into the west bound lane and collided with a 1941 Chevrolet being driven by Thurston Young of 1331 West Warren.

Roman accepted all blame for the accident. Damage was estimated at $50 to each car.

Addition Doubles Size Of Pointe Auto Wash

The well situated Pointe Auto Wash, located on Mack avenue between Bishop and Cadieux, next to the branch telephone building, has just completed a new addition of the same size as the original building, thus doubling its capacity and service facilities.

The firm, still comparatively young, has met with unusual success, which may well be attributed to the fine workmanship it renders, the convenient hours it keeps and the fact that it carries insurance against damage done to customers' cars. Simbolizing and polishing work are also expertly done.

Joe Brown's Market Attracts Big Crowds

One of the most enthusiastic grand openings Grosse Pointers have seen in several years was that of Joe Brown's new Super Market at 15318 Mack, at Nottingham held last Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The crowds continued right through Sunday. The Brown's have operated in the Pointe for 15 years and this sparkling new 1950-styled Super Market they've moved into has made a big hit with Grosse Pointers. "It will," to use Joe Brown's own language, "be wide open evenings and Sundays." The automatic turn-slide at the cashier's counter which pushes the items past the cashier created a great deal of interest. It's new!

Nicol Smith Will Lecture On His Travels in Tibet

Nicol Smith, noted author of "Burma Road" and "Into Siam," will open the Sunday Afternoon Travel and Adventure Series of Grosse Pointe Community Lectures on Nov. 6 at 3 p.m. at the John D. Pierce Auditorium. The last American to leave Tibet with a full pictorial record of the western section of that exotic land, Nicol Smith will bring his all color motion picture "Caravan to Tibet."

This beautiful film in full and glorious color is a thrilling camera story of the search for the fabulous Valley of Hemis, known as the Hidden Valley because of its extraordinary location which throughout the centuries has saved it and its lamaseries from the invasions of Asiatic hordes. As a result the lamaseries of Hemis has become the richest and most powerful of the lamaseries of Western Tibet.

Other highlights in the picture are beautiful Lake Pangong, with its lighting changes of color; a journey over the Zogila Pass from Kashmir into Western Tibet; the famous palace of the rulers of Ladakh which was built more than five centuries ago; Yarkandi traders with their burdens of nomad rugs crossing the great Chung La Pass at 18,000 feet headed for the markets of the world; herds of Yaks, the huge pack animal of Tibet; primitive nomads with their caravans from Central Tibet; home of the Mad Lamé, life in the fields and villages; these and many more sequences are filled with excitement, mystery and enchantment.

Other attractions scheduled to appear on this Travel and Adventure Series include Muri Deusing, "Outlaws in Nature," on Dec. 4; Robert Friars "Holland and Belgium," Jan. 15; Commander Irving Johnson on Feb. 5 with "Yankee's Wander World," and Karl Johnson's "Japan Journey," March 12.

Season tickets are still available. Reservations may be made for these and for single admissions by calling the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, TU. 5-2000, Extension 25.

Public Speaking Course Offered

When confronted with the prospect of speaking before luncheon groups, church groups, PTAs, or fellow club members, do you find yourself wondering how to control the shaking in your knees, how to swallow the sudden frog in your throat, how to overcome the tremor in your voice? These and many more essentials necessary for practical public speaking will be discussed and applied in a class now being formed by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Ease of manner before an audience is not difficult to acquire. Projecting your own personality before an audience; developing a good, natural speaking voice; self confidence; presenting your ideas effectively and enthusiastically before your group can be cultivated through the knowledge and application of simple common sense rules.

J. Harold Husband, experienced instructor of Adult Speech classes will conduct this course which is available to both men and women. The classes will meet once a week at the Grosse Pointe High School.

For information and class reservations please call the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, TU. 5-2000, Extension 25.

Kid Bits

By JANET GREGORY

"If every weekend were only like last weekend" was the common lament heard throughout high school Monday morning.

First of all... no school Friday. Everyone took advantage of this Thursday night by going to the Tuxis hayride. Carol Cooper and Dick MacKenzie, Robbie Roberts and Dick Smart, Lorraine Asmus and Bob Wittstock, Chuck Ghesquiere and Joan Massey, Kirk Walsh and Sally Andrus, Don Schmitz and Sue Martin were a few of the locals seen throwing hay at one another.

Bayard Johnson and Twig Wright, Punky Brown and Connie Baker, Denny Hoehl and Sue Kitson, Maurie Strong and Joan Wozniak, Don Venderbush and Gail DeGurse, Bob Peters and Marian Ortol, Bill McLellan and Carolyn Hahn, Bev Martin and Bob Platt, Ginny Allor and Bruce Kirchner and Pat McKinney, and Don Eger were more scrambling to get on the wagons.

REALLY BIG TURNOUT

More seen amid the mittens and scarfs were Char Smith and Roger Muller, Alice James and Dave Hamilton, Jim Stuart and Joannie Hollister, Janet Weinheimer and Bob Hubbard, Barb Bethel and Jack Roy, Denny McKellar and Crystal Gregory, Dick Yates and Madeline Hackman, Mike Best and Diane Schleicher and George Preston and Sally Mehrer.

YES, STILL MORE

Trailing along on their wagons were Bob Slade and Kay Sutton, Jack Schmitz and Jean Swan, Ron Knope and Brenda Winter,

Bruce Johnson and Jean Morrison, Bob Davison and Madge Winter, Art Deinger and Sally Reynolds, Jim Rogers and Joy Chamberlain, Danny Barrett and Mary Hardieben, Ric O'Connell and Kathy Streck, Fritz Bloy and Margaret Guy, Bob Beatty and Margery Goodis, Dave Pethick and Sue Sibbert, Jim Barker and Jane Forden, Donna Steenrod and Dallas Kitchen and Sally Steenrod and Kenny Rice.

GOBLINS AND SPOOKS

It was only natural that queer things were seen around the Pointe Friday night because Halloween was so close. If anyone had been in the vicinity of CAROL LARWIN'S home, they were sure to know a costume party was feally underway. Peg Fisher, Suzie Sharrer, Elaine Kitchen, Joannie Merrill, Carol Kretschmar, Maggie Joop, Margaret Foote, Barb Westcott, Joannie Hollister, Ann Busby, Joannie Johnson and Jane Rippe were the gals all "costumed up" for the occasion.

Not to be forgotten in the weekend events was the Grosse Pointe Fordson football game. The team displayed its full ability for "Dads Day" by winning 14-0. In the crowd were Roger Ellis, Doug Michelson, Joyce Clements, Carol Ford, Betty Nelson, Melicent Hesse, Carol Roemer, Irene Brisson, Betsy Arnold, John Chase, Ellie Jackel, Nancy Russell, Larry Briedan, Bill Turill, Ford Slater, Suzie Riggs, and Rusty White.

From the alumni group Sherb Brown, Pat Hammond, Ginny Grasse, Lorne Norton, Tom Auch, Bob Allen and Bob Shaw were seen cheering.

Sunday was the big day for BARB CLEMENTS, former Pointer, who moved to Illinois. MRS. HAROLD HARDEN gave a tea in her honor.

Marilyn Brown, Lee Eskridge, Ann Glasgow, Judie McMahon, Ginny Hitt, Terry Donahue, Mary Allard, Grace Olert, Mel Hoover, Sharley Algoed, Sally Noble, Barb Fitzgerald, Genie Salmon, Noel Wood and Karen von Reis were among those that received invitations to this affair.

November 12 is the date set for the next teenage dance at the War Memorial Center, so keep it in mind when you make your plans for that weekend.

I was sorry to hear that Pearl Adleman has been on the sick list. Sure hope you're up and around again by now Pearl.

Thought maybe those of you who heard about Elva Nielsen being in an automobile accident would like to know that she came out of it with nothing but a very badly bruised arm.

Children of deceased war veterans who find their thirst for knowledge bigger than their pocketbooks, are being given a strong helping hand by the American Legion and Auxiliary. Viola Farnum, chairman of the Auxiliary's Education of Orphans of Veterans Committee, reported to the Grosse Pointe Auxiliary Unit.

Viola announced plans for locating children of deceased veterans and giving them information about various educational aids which may be available to them if they desire to attend college. Her committee will begin work on this project at once, she stated.

"Many scholarships, scholarship loans and other educational aids are available to children of deceased war veterans," Viola said. "Too many of these children have discontinued their education because they didn't know that such benefits exist. It is the Auxiliary's purpose to acquaint the children and their mothers or guardians with the aid provided by state and national laws, with the scholarships which are open, and with the special aids provided by the Legion and Auxiliary. Help in making applications for educational assistance will be given by our Auxiliary committee."

Viola urged children of deceased veterans now in high school to look ahead and plan their high school studies so they will be qualified for admission to the college of their choice and for the scholarship or other educational aid they plan to seek. High school seniors should make definite plans and submit applications now, she said.

Despite his continental manner and appearance, Menjou is an American. He was educated at Culver Military Academy and Cornell University. Mary Pickford and Douglas Fairbanks gave Menjou his first acting part.

In World War II, Menjou curtailed his movie activities to go on a USO tour, returning after the war to make more pictures. Along with his movie activities, he has been a leader in the campaign to purge the Hollywood film colony of communists.

Grab Third Victory in Row Over Tractors on Dads' Day

Losers Chased Out of Title Race by Defeat; Bayard Johnson Stars again while Pat Brogan and Peterson Also Play Brilliantly

By Fred Rannels

Grosse Pointe played its "spoiler" role to perfection last Saturday, October 29 before a huge Dad's Day home crowd when it licked Fordson 14 to 0 to end all Tractor hopes of at least sharing the Border Cities League title.

The Blue Devil victory marked the first time in the history of the series that a Pointe team had stacked up three successive wins over the Tractors. To make it all the more impressive all three were wins of the shutout variety.

Plenty Follows Famine

The Pointe's first win came on "Big" Flanagan's last minute field goal in 1947. The Blue Devils continued the victory march with a 27 to 0 win on the Tractors' home field last year.

It is interesting to note the Pointers had suffered a football famine for 14 years previous to the 1947 win, having been beaten or tied by the Tractors at each meeting.

Ed Wernet present; Blue Devil senior, played on the last Pointe team that chalked up a win over the Tractors. That was way back in 1932. He was extremely instrumental in that victory.

Wernet returned to his alma mater in 1944 and his first Blue Devil squad took a shellbacking, 24 to 0. Since that time his Pointe teams have scored 44 points while holding Fordson scoreless.

Inspired by Dads

According to scores posted by both teams against common opponents the Blue Devils were a decided underdog and figured to lose by three or more touchdowns. Apparently the presence of the Grosse Pointe dads had its effect on the boys and they played their hearts out in the upset victory.

The first half saw Fordson miss three scoring chances. The first came after a fumbled punt was recovered on the Pointers' 24 yard line. A fourth down Tractor pass failed and the Devils took over.

Fordson recovered another Pointe fumble on the Devils' 22 early in the second quarter and drove to the 12 yard line, where line coach Harold Fisher's changes dug in to stop the drive.

Seconds at Half

Near the end of the second quarter Grosse Pointe's brilliant center, Bayard Johnson, intercepted a Tractor touchdown lashed pass in the end zone to halt the Tractors last scoring chance and the teams left the field in a scoreless deadlock at half time.

What was said in the Pointers' dressing room during the half-time intermission probably will never be known but whatever it was it certainly turned the trick. The Pointers came back in the second half full of fire and zip and played their bigger opponents into the ground.

Costly Fumble

After the Fordson kickoff, to start the third quarter, the Pointers drove from their own 34 yard line down to the Tractors' 21 where they lost the ball on a fourth down fumble. At this point the Devils needed only a half yard to make it a first down on the Fordson 21. Peterson's running and Brogan's spot passes to Spike Quirk featured the drive.

Three Tractor line plays netted a scant 7 yards and Quirk punted to Brogan on the Pointers' 32. He brought the pipskin back to his own 41.

Fresh Concrete Suffers At Hands of Children

Five pre-teen age children, three boys and two girls, were wounded up after a contractor complained to Farms police that they had written their initials in fresh concrete at 242 McKinley road. Damage was estimated at $25.

New Second Chance

Early in the fourth quarter the Blue Devils missed another touchdown when they drove from their

Willson Wins College Honor

Tom Willson, former Grosse Pointe High tennis star, won new laurels at Kalamazoo College, when he was elected president of the Sophomore class recently.

Tom will best be remembered for his tennis and basketball ability while at Grosse Pointe. He was a popular member of the Blue Devils' Border Cities League basketball champions back in the 1946-'47 season.

Willson held the distinction of never having played on a losing Blue Devil tennis team in the three years he was a regular.

It was in his final year at the high school that he and Paul Gubbins won the State Class A doubles tennis championship in the spring of 1948.

Tom teamed up with a college classmate last August and won the Ohio State doubles tennis championship.

Two Teams Tie In Rotary Loop

An important match takes place at the Woods Recreation tomorrow night, when Farms Market and Houston Bros., Inc., two of the strongest teams in the G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League, meet on evenings 11 and 12.

Farms Market earned the right to share first place with G. P. Review by completely outgunning Prime's Barber Shop, 4-0. Houston Bros. lost to Kopp's Pharmacy, 3-1, almost creating a three way tie for first place.

G. P. Review held on to first place by turning back Wolfe's strong Middle Ail. Tramp Co. team, 2-1. Wolfe mailed 226 in the opener and helped to win their one and only point.

Punch and Judy Cocktail Lounge came up with a good series which included a 901 game, to take three from Motor City Times. John Jaskie again took high honors, this time 601.

Auto Club won over Monday Cleaners, 3-1. Cliff Larson, who by the way, is doing a swell job of running the league, bowled best for the winners.

Harrison Carpet lost three to Earl Bohlmann, not a man on either team rolling a 500 series, six, six.

Lions Entertain Cards on Sunday

Forgetting that disastrous 16 to 14 defeat by the Green Bay Packers last Sunday, Ed McMillin's Lions are looking forward to their next game with the Chicago Cardinals on Sunday, November 6, at Briggs Stadium.

The Cardinals are the only team the Lions hold a decision over in five games to date, that coming two weeks ago in Chicago, 24-7.

McMillin's charges are hungry for victory and are getting tired of residing in the cellar spot of the Western Division in the NFL, a position they have held for the past three years.

The team is really keyed up and it could be that next Sunday the Lions will start an extended win streak.

Kick off time is scheduled for 2 p.m., rain or shine.

Bowling Time Available At Woods Recreation

Time has been allotted by the Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation for men's doubles and mixed doubles for bowling in their modern alleys at 20422 Mack avenue. The days set aside are Sundays; the men's doubles at 10 a. m. and the mixed doubles at 9 p. m. Details may be had by calling TUxedo 5-9621.

St. Paul Out of Title Race Because of Non-League Tilt

Tie With St. Martin for East Side Crown, But Extra Game Bars Flyers From Championships under ruling Governing All State High Schools

By Fred Rannels

Cosch Eddie Lauer's St. Paul football team, co-champions of the East Side Second Division Parochial League, with St. Martin, had its season come to an abrupt climax last Monday when league officials elected St. Martin to represent the league in the playoffs for the city title.

Both teams ended the season with five wins and one loss in league competition and a playoff game would have been necessary to determine the east side representative in the city playoffs.

St. Paul was denied the right to play because it had already played seven games, five league and two non-league.

It was the extra non-league game that threw the monkey wrench into the Flyers' football plans.

Governed by State Law

State high school rules specifically state that a high school team cannot play more than nine football games in one season.

If St. Paul played St. Martin to decide the east side champions it would be its eighth contest and the semi-final game against the Central division champion would be its ninth game and the Flyers would not have been permitted to play in the championship game against the winner of the western and suburban division contest.

St. Martin played only one non-league game during the season and still is entitled to three more games this season, which would carry it through to the city championship game if it can get that far.

Swatched Date

St. Paul's game against All Saints was the non-league contest that was added to the Flyers' schedule which was brought about by a switch in playing dates for the St. Catherine game.

Originally the St. Catherine game was to have been played October 9 on the Neighborhood Club field. This game was switched to October 30 in order

Liggett Beaten By Country Day

On Friday, Oct. 28, Country Day School's field hockey team played Liggett at the latter's field. Liggett made the first score and by half-time Country Day was leading, 1-0. The total goals made a great comeback with a goal by inner Ann Brown and two successive scores by center forward Joan Dryden. The final score of the first teams was 3-1, with Country Day winning.

The second teams played a hard-fought battle with neither team scoring throughout the game, thus ending it with a tie of 0-0.

Monday, Oct. 31, Country Day played Lawrence Avenue at Lawrence Avenue. The first team game was very exciting with neither team scoring until the second half. Country Day made the first goal followed by one by Lawrence Avenue. Another goal by Country Day changed the score to 2-1. It remained this way until the last four seconds of the game when Lawrence Avenue made the last goal, leaving the score at 2-2. Both of Country Day's goals were made by Joan Dryden.

In the second team game, there was no score until the second half. Then Lawrence Avenue made a goal and the final score of the game was 1-0.

This Saturday, Nov. 3, Country Day will be hostess at the hockey Play Day. The games will be played on the D.U.S. field. The six members of the league will be present: Grosse Pointe Convent, Liggett, Dominican, Kingswood, Lawrence Avenue and Country Day.

St. Paul Ladies In Hot Battle

Tracy Motor Sales still holds the lead by one point, followed by DeVuyt Construction. J-M Shuffleboard lost three and moved down to fourth place, giving Briggs Pharmacy third. The upset of the evening was Briggs taking high game with 748 and placing Upper Mack Cleaners and J-M Shuffleboard second with their 723.

St. Paul Beats St. Catherine By Lopsided 32-13 Score

Dave Sherwood Thrills Enthusiastic Crowd by Scampering 98 Yards For Touchdown After Receiving Kickoff; Hurdles Safety Man

By Fred Rannels

St. Paul's Flyers ran roughshod over St. Catherine's 32 to 13, to win a two-way tie with St. Martin for the East Side Parochial championship on the Grosse Pointe High gridiron last Sunday, October 30, before a small but enthusiastic crowd.

The first half of the game was a knock-down, drag-out affair which saw the Flyers' attack stalled by a fast charging St. Catherine's outfit.

Loss on Gamble

The Flyers first score came early in the second quarter after St. Catherine had punted on a fourth down end run which was halted a half yard short of a first down on the Flyers' 25.

St. Paul drove to the Catherine 48 on three line plays and then the root caved in. Bob Berg scrambled over his own right tackle and scampered 45 yards to score. Bergner's kick was wide and the Flyers were out in front, 6 to 0.

St. Catherine threatened late in the second quarter when Harry Andray changed his way over his own right tackle for 24 yards. He was touchdown bound, but Bill Mettemann nailed him from behind on the Flyers' 19.

Get Down is 4

Four Catherine line plays worked the ball down to the Flyers' 4 yard line but a holding penalty halted the drive as the first quarter ended.

Opening the second half St. Catherine kept knocking at the touchdown door and went to the Flyers' 4 yard line where St. Paul intercepted a Catherine third down pass.

St. Paul practically clinched the ball game early in the third period when Bob Berg leaved a twenty yard pass to Tom Marchand, who guided his way through the Catherine secondary for the remaining 30 yards to score. Belanger booted the extra point.

Late in the game quarter Dave Sherwood intercepted a Catherine pass on the St. Catherine 42 and ran it back to the 15.

On the first play Pete Belanger scrambled around his own right end and went all the way down the sideline to score behind some beautiful blocking. Belanger's kick was blocked but the Flyers were out in front, 13 to 0.

Early in the fourth quarter Dave Sherwood scrambled 30 yards around his own left end to score, but the tally was nullified because of a holding penalty by St. Paul.

Seconds later the Flyers drove down to the St. Catherine 2, but again a holding penalty halted the third down drive.

In the same series of downs, Berg flipped a touchdown pass into the arms of Tom Marchand, standing in the end zone. Ed Quirk changed his way over center.

Alumnae Group Fetes Dr. Taylor

As he left Detroit today Dr. Harold Taylor, president of Sarah Lawrence College, had as the outstanding memory of his three-day visit in this vicinity the dinner in his honor Tuesday evening given by the Sarah Lawrence College Alumnae Association at Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Mrs. John D. Bayne was chairman of the dinner, which preceded Dr. Taylor's lecture on behalf of the school's scholarship fund.

In the audience were graduates, their friends and local educators.

Mrs. Bayne was assisted Tuesday evening by Mrs. Philip T. Van Zile, Mrs. Thomas J. Little, III, Mrs. Daniel H. Buell, Mrs. Lewis S. Robinson and Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough.

Among those in attendance were Mr. and Mrs. Frederick C. Nash, Mr. and Mrs. John Chandler, Jr., the William L. Yeagers and Dr. and Mrs. Charles Doderhoff.

Dr. Taylor is on his way back to Sarah Lawrence after an extended lecture tour in the West.

Brigadoon Star

VIRGINIA OSWALD, star of the Critic's Prize Musical "Brigadoon," which opened a two-weeks run Sunday evening at the Shubert-Lafayette Theater, is giving the kind of performance that wins unanimous approval of critics, even in critical New York, where the play enjoyed a two year run at the Ziegfeld. "Brigadoon is one of the most beautiful musical plays in the history of the theater," says Louis Sobol, noted critic.

Shoplights

The Scarab Club's Seventh Annual Exhibition of Advertising Illustration and Design begins tomorrow, November 4, and will extend through Sunday, November 27. Containing the work of Detroit's leading illustrators and designers, the exhibit is expected to be a noteworthy one and will be open to the public afternoons and evenings. No charge for admission. The exhibit is being held in the club's headquarters at 217 Farnsworth.

W. D. Munro, Jr., Shell dealer at Jefferson and Barrington, received a bronze plaque from the Shell Oil Company "In recognition of successful merchandising of Shell products for 16 years" at the annual fall training conference held recently at the Fort Shelby Hotel.

The interior of the new Feltier Florists shop, now nearing completion on Mack avenue in the Woods is extremely beautiful and should rate with the finest in the Pointe when fully completed.

Condon-Koersal Plans Complete

Plans have been completed for the Nov. 12 marriage of Barbara Jean Condon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Condon of Lakepointe and Donald Koersal, son of Mrs. Mabel Koersal.

The ceremony will take place at 11 o'clock in St. Ambrose Church with the Rev. Father Francis Van Antwerp officiating. Following a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and members of the immediate families, there will be a wedding reception at the Whittier.

The bride-elect has asked Mr. Koersal's sister, Mrs. John Bonfiglio to be her matron of honor and the bridesmaids include Jean Kennedy, Ann Mitchell, Mary Horan and Betty Termini.

John Bonfiglio will be his brother-in-law's best man and guests are to be seated by Bob Tobin, Pat Hayward, Bob Erickson and Buz Alexander.

Six-year-old Patricia Condon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Condon and cousin of the bride-elect, will be flower girl.

Carolyn Coleman Hostess At 7th Birthday Party

Twenty-two guests were on hand for Carolyn Coleman's dinner and birthday party last week to celebrate her seventh anniversary.

Carolyn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Coleman of Bedford road, celebrated at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Purdy of Three Mile drive.

The young hostess greeted her guests in a blue silk broadcloth frock. Entertainment was furnished by a magician before the youngsters were seated at the supper table, their eyes focused on the large birthday cake frosted with peach and green icing.

Places were marked for Marilyn Verbiest, Michol Barlow, Denny Tracy, Stephanie Bent, Judy Skae, Sherry Bent, Deanne Schrage and Anna Marie Boell.

Others include Carol Robinson, Ginny Cook, Mary Rahaley, Mary Desmond, Ruth Petzold, Angie Fisher, Suzie Mitchell, Anne Ford, Mary Ann McCormick, Diane Kirby, Diane Long, Dorothy Kotcher, Sherry Parker and Susie Lynch.

Fire Fighters To Hold Party

The Grosse Pointe Park Fire Fighters' Association has been granted permission to conduct its annual party for their Benefit and Death Fund.

The permission was necessary as the affair involves the selling of tickets from door to door, which is ordinarily against the rules of the police department.

CAUGHT

The Farms police were notified on Oct. 29 by a resident of Radnor circle that he had seen a woman driver run into a light pole in Hall place and break the globe. He was able to furnish the license number.

THE JULIAN McINTOSHs are one of those few couples who dance together as if they're enjoying every single minute... And their repertoire includes the veddy latest... the Samba and Rhumba...

GEORGE E. KAWAMOTO, first introduced to the Pointe at the Junior League Country Fair, has just completed a charming study of the GEORGE NUGENT MUNROS' young-est... which shows ample evidence of the ancient art of coloring as produced in his native Japan. Incidentally, MISAO KAWAMOTO is visiting her son at the moment. A well known poetess, her works appear in leading literary publications both in the U. S. and in the Orient.

You can trace that admirable carriage claimed by OTIS U. WALKER right back to his prep school days at Staunton Military Academy...

Newest enthusiasm of the Dowagers is the lovely little bride, MRS. DON GALVIN JR. "Now, there's a wonderful child," they purr. Before her marriage she was MARY FRAN PEEZ.

Can't remember when the Pointe has been more enchanted with new residents than it is with MR. and MRS. ROBERT B. SEMPLE and their five children who moved here from St. Louis...

THE JOHN HUNTINGTONS remind us of the golfers who play before the snow is off the ground and won't quit their game till the snow is flying again... Saw them dashing off on a steak roast the other night, hoping barbecue weather would last till January...

PILFERINGS

If it's all the same to you, Pilferings this week will be devoted to quotes from the late Robert Benchley. We are concentrating thus because what probably is the final collection of his essays has just been published in book form by Harpers. It contains pieces that never before appeared between covers.

Here are a few samples. Brooding over his personal finances he wrote: "I shall have to go through all those old check-book stubs and throw them out. You see, it has been quite some time since I subtracted the amounts of checks drawn, from what I smilingly call my balance. In fact there are often great stretches of time when I don't even enter the amounts at all."

"This latter irregularity is due to a habit of making out checks on blank forms supplied by hotels and restaurants, on which even the name of the bank has to be filled in, to say nothing of the number of the check and its amount."

"I like to make these out because I print rather well and it is a satisfaction to letter in the name of my bank in neat capitals exactly in the middle of the space provided for that purpose. I have sometimes made out a blank check just for the satisfaction of seeing 'Bankers Trust Co., 57th St. Branch' come in such typographical perfection from the point of my pen."

"I am sure that it is a satisfaction to the bank too. They often speak of it. What they object to is the amount which I fill in below. It seems too bad, they say, to have such a neat looking check so unnegotiable."

Benchley loathed Turkish baths but kept going to them against his better judgment. He especially hated the masseurs. One particular masseur kept waylaying him when he emerged from the hot room.

"Once," Benchley complained, "while I had my back turned he played a powerful stream from two high-powered hydraulic hoses on me from clear across the room, which threw me against the wall and dazed me so that I went back into the hot room again instead of getting dressed."

"As a matter of fact, I don't know why I go to a Turkish bath at all. I emerge into the fresh air outside looking as if I had been boiled with cabbage for five hours, with puffy, bloodshot eyes, waving hair and the beginning of a head cold. It is all I can do to get back to my room and go to bed, where I sleep heavily for eleven hours."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. THORNTON E. WATERFALL OF LINCOLN ROAD

This next Monday the second annual antique show sponsored by the Junior Group of Goodwill Industries gets underway at the Boulevard-Brush Plant of the organization. It is fitting that one of the contributors to the show should be Mrs. Thornton E. Waterfall of Lincoln road who is a founding member of the group and who has supported every activity and served on every one of its committees.

Mrs. Waterfall, like all members of the Junior Group, has been collecting, talking and selling the Antique Show since way back Summer- and now that the curtain is about to go up... she has loaned two of the items which should prove among the most fascinating.

The first is one of the oldest flags in the United States, believed to be the oldest flag in the state of Michigan. Its thirteen stars tell it was made in the period from 1775 to 1795 (the latter year added two stars). It is handwoven with tiny, tiny stitches.

The flag came to Mrs. Waterfall from her mother, Mrs. A. E. Quarton, Sr., and had been the gift from a family friend in New York. Mrs. Quarton passed the gift over to her daughter and included at the same time a woven quilt which visitors to the Antique Show will see.

This quilt is woven of navy wool on white cotton warp. The pattern, following the custom of the day, is the Declaration of Independence and in one corner, is woven the name of the city where the quilt was created: Benton, New York, in the year 1832.

15 YEARS OLD Only an interest as deep as Goodwill Industries could woo these treasures from Mrs. Waterfall's safekeeping even for a few days (the show lasts through Thursday).

This devotion goes back to 1934 when the Junior group was founded. At that time the organization's building was located on Monroe street and the first members each promised to place six Goodwill Bags among her friends. A senior group had been functioning for some time but the Junior Group was formed because the older women felt that youth and pep would bring greater possibilities to the many handicapped persons helped to useful life and work by the industries.

All of this, according to Mrs. Waterfall, actually was started by a Boston minister, Dr. E. J. Helm of the Morgan Chapel. Dr. Helm's church was located in one of the poorest districts of Boston; his congregation was constantly hungry and without proper clothing, etc. He believed his people needed not charity but a chance so he asked the women members to meet at the church to mend and recondition garments for their own use, donated to him.

NOT CHARITY Now in the Goodwill Industries all over the country, "Not Charity But A Chance" is the slogan under which handicapped thousands are making their own way, because they can work and therefore feel they have a place in this busy world.

So next Monday Mrs. Waterfall, along with 175 members of the Junior Group, will be greeting you at the Antique Show. Money raised will be used to furnish a chapel at the plant requested by the workers.

At the Boulevard-Brush plant today Detroit handicapped folks are taught garment-re-weaving, shoe repairing, furniture and cabinet making, upholstering. When they become masters of these skills, they go into the plant and work daily on the tasks provided by not only a thoughtful Detroit, but a Detroit aware that the fine craftsmanship is to be found at Goodwill Industries.

Cast Announced For 'Claudia'

The Grosse Pointe Theatre has announced the cast of its first Fall-Winter season production, "Claudia." Russell Werneken, director of "Claudia," and president of Grosse Pointe Theatre, has stated that Phyllis Cardoze will play the title lead of Claudia Naughton.

T. Hall is cast as Julia Naughton. Jane McClure is assisting Werneken in directing "Claudia."

The hit play "Claudia" will be presented at Pierce Auditorium on Nov. 30 and Dec. 1, by the Grosse Pointe Theatre. It was selected by a noted New York drama critic as one of the ten best plays on Broadway in the 1941 season.

Tickets are on sale now. They can be purchased from Mrs. Maryanne Genter, 1028 Yorkshire, TU. 1-4586.

To Offer Class On Old Silver

The program committee of the War Memorial Center is sponsoring an Old Silver Study Class, to be directed by Miss Cecil Gordon, of the Cecil Gordon Shop on Fisher road. There will be six sessions held at the War Memorial Center, scheduled as follows: Nov. 9, Nov. 23, and Dec. 14 at 2:30 p.m., and Nov. 18, Nov. 30, and Dec. 7 at 8:00 p.m. Evening as well as afternoon study groups are being offered in order to make possible the attendance of men who are interested in the study of antique silver.

Miss Gordon an experienced student in this field, will answer many questions which have been presented to her over the years of her connection with this branch of fine arts. She will discuss the origin of hand-made silver, both English and Continental, its development and its relationship to modern machine-made articles. This will include an explanation of the process of Old Sheffield Plate and modern electro-plating. Miss Gordon will also stress variations in design and workmanship; authenticity; and the characteristics of silver in various periods of history. Examples of different periods will be displayed.

Classes will be somewhat limited. For early registration and information about entrance fees, telephone Mrs. George Villerot, NI. 8466.

Pointe Counter Points

WALTON PIERCE GROSSE POINTE BRANCH not only gives the Pointe ideas... but follows along beautifully with the Trend of Things... as witness their elegant new stock of cocktail dresses which are favored right down to the best dressed gal for informal evenings. Perfect for dinner... be it at home, the club or in one of the downtown rooms... for the theater... for cocktails, no wonder this costume is a favorite. One of the newest at WALTON PIERCE GROSSE POINTE BRANCH fascinatingly combines a fitted bodice of bronze taffeta, with full black net ankle length skirt. The bodice is primly collared and cuffed in white linen! Bodices are generally fitted, skirts are pouf and sleeves may be either veddy brief or bracelet length. Others of the dazzlers just arrived at WP include some in Chinese satin damask, all taffetas, and all satins. Colors are red, strong blue, bronze and coppery tones, and, of course, black.

We've always thought the Courtney line of toiletries for gentlemen (which is in complete supply at GROSSE POINTE DRUG CO.) the best looking of 'em all. In the first place the contents are wonderful... mildly scented and welcomed as gifts by the gents... and the bottles and jars and mugs are downright Lady Mendish as fittings for his shelf. Containers come in white pottery, gold green, deep maroon and dark brown. Besides the after shaving lotion, GROSSE POINTE DRUG CO. has Courtney shaving creams, both brushless and lather; colognes or toilet water; deodorant. The soaps, so refreshingly scented, wives and daughters will want to snatch them, are handsome as all get-out. We watched customers at the men's counter at Grosse Pointe Drug the other day... and when the male of the species was doing his own buying, he chose Courtney! Wonderful Christmas gifts for you Early Shoppers.

The Stork In Person couldn't be attracting more attention than JACOBSON'S new infants' department. Mamas and grand-mamas, doting aunts were simply milling there the other day exclaiming, "Everything is so lovely and yet so practical!" A grand-mother was ecstatic about the Princess Pat Safe T Panties of white silk jersey with underlining of tissue thin rubber. "Protection for the whole damp family" is the slogan for these diaper protectors. If those weren't grandma's words... they were the ones she was looking for! Heaven soft and beautiful blankets... in all materials and colors are to be found in JACOBSON'S new infants' department. We admired shelves of those essentials including the finest baby soaps, talcs, oils etc. and watched mamas re-stocking their nurseries. Tiny-woolen shirts, the big bath towels, sheets, precious pillow cases, booties, bonnets, socks, mittens... all those things you want for your own baby or will adore giving to someone else's latest addition!

We're suggesting right here and now that you join the growing circle of Pointers who couldn't live without Philip North Wright's inimitable "REPAIR SHOP" located at 16901 East Jefferson (just in back of the hardware and carpeting store). Here all those valuable and useful articles which have been broken or damaged are restored to better than ever condition. It's wonderful to know of a shop owned by a man whose understanding and appreciation of your own treasures couldn't be keener. At the convenient REPAIR SHOP, modern and antique furniture is repaired; brasses cleaned and burnished; art objects mended and repaired. All work is guaranteed. Mr. Wright also does handcraft and we fell in love with his fireside benches which are simply marvelous Christmas gifts! Order them now (takes about two weeks). They are four feet long, 14 inches wide and 10 inches high and will be covered to your order or you may needle pointe them yourself. You'll also love the shadow box frames, different from those usually found, and handsome as handsome. Here's the REPAIR telephone number which should be put in a handy place at your house: TUXEDO 5-3680.
