Park Council and Educators Air School Expansion Plans

The Board of Education held one of its current round table discussions of the proposed school expansion program...

There was a full attendance of both the Board of Education and the Council.

Sigurd Wendin, President of the Board of Education, explained that these meetings were asked to enable the B. of E. to get in early touch with those official bodies of the Pointe who, with them, are equally concerned with the problems of taxation and the necessity of justifying to the taxpayer the expenditure of all public revenue.

Few Citizens Present

In addition to the members of the two bodies there was a sprinkling of unofficial citizens who were welcomed into the discussion.

Mr. Wendin exhibited the various graphs and charts visualizing the need for the new schools. These were first displayed to the public gaze at a meeting of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club several weeks ago.

The atmosphere of the proposals' reception was generally sympathetic among the Park Councilmen, who nevertheless did not refrain from asking many pertinent questions.

Explains Empty Rooms

One of the most difficult for the Board of Education members to answer was why did they not make full use of the 14 vacant rooms now available in the Trombly and Defer Schools.

of the district where the growth of school population was greatest, the inability to obtain sufficient bus service during the rush hours of school and public travel, which are identical, and the opinion of competent medical authority that the crowding of school children into buses was one of the greatest menaces to the public health.

One unofficial bystander shouted: "Why not divide the school district and let the people in the north end of the district provide their own schools?"

This suggestion obviously met with little sympathy from either side.

Not Fair Play

President Wendin explained with spirit that this scheme was untenable both from the standpoint of getting the approval of the voters to the division by the legally required majorities of both sections of the district, but also from the standpoint of fair play.

The people in the north end of the district had helped to pay and were still paying for the schools in the lower end, and now that they were growing, particularly in their school aged population, it would be eminently unfair to even suggest easing them off on their own.

He always been, he said, a part of the Grosse Pointe school district and it was the wish of all honest citizens that they should remain so.

That ended the subdivision solution idea.

Says Plan Justified

Mr. Wendin, patiently and clearly explained that the proposal the Board of Education had brought forward was one which in their honest opinion was justified, taking into account the actual child population of the district now. It looked forward to future growth, but not too far.

Should the growth of the north end of the district be maintained it might easily occur that the facilities now planned would prove inadequate.

The whole program as now set forth was, however, exploratory, he said. They wanted to find out what the citizens wanted and how far they were now willing to go in providing present needed school facilities for their children with a minimum of estimate for future growth.

To Develop High School

The general consensus of those present was that the proposals for enlarging the gymnasium and auditorium facilities of the High School were justified. The high school and its appurtenances are not subject to sectional criticism as they are of equal concern to all of the district.

On this point the Board of Education was obviously seeking information and should have been generally reassured by the approval of high school development.

So much could not be said, however, for the indeterminate item in the prospectus for a central public library. Mr. Wendin himself thought this item would not be greatly pressed.

No Tax Increase

The proposition of the Board of Education for the financing of this program, apparently, comes down to this: it can be carried through by the people approving continuing of the five mill levy which was authorized for a period of five years some three and one-half years ago, for a further run of fifteen to eighteen years. This would mean no increase in the school taxes as now paid. That authorization was for 1 1/2 mills to be applied to operating costs, chiefly increase in teachers salaries, and 3 1/2 mills for school expansion.

The meeting adjourned in an atmosphere of general goodwill and it was obvious that most of those present favored the school board's approach to the subject; with the inference that they favored the expansion project, subject possibly, to a few changes easing the financial liability.

Suicide Attempt Reported in Park

Park Patrolman A. Conlan and J. Van De Ginstre were dispatched to a Beaconsfield avenue address at 5:00 a.m. on November 23 in answer to a call.

They found a man 25, lying on the floor bleeding profusely from a self inflicted wound in his arm. An artery had been severed with a razor blade.

The police found on the premises a note which he had written saying that he was leaving all his property to his wife, but he had neglected to sign the note.

He was removed to Bon Secours Hospital where he was treated for minor loss of blood. His wound is not serious and the case was officially reported as an attempt at suicide.

Enlarge Board of Directors Of Woods Community Club

Plans for increased activities and greater facilities were discussed when the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club met in the clubhouse at Mack and Ridgmont on Sunday, Nov. 20, for the purpose of enlarging the board of directors from four to 15 members.

The directors are anxious to meet the added demands on the club for community service which have come with the rapid growth in population in the village. A meeting will be held once a month and the new directors promise plenty of action. A study is being made of other clubs and centers to obtain ideas for enlarging the activities of the Woods organization.

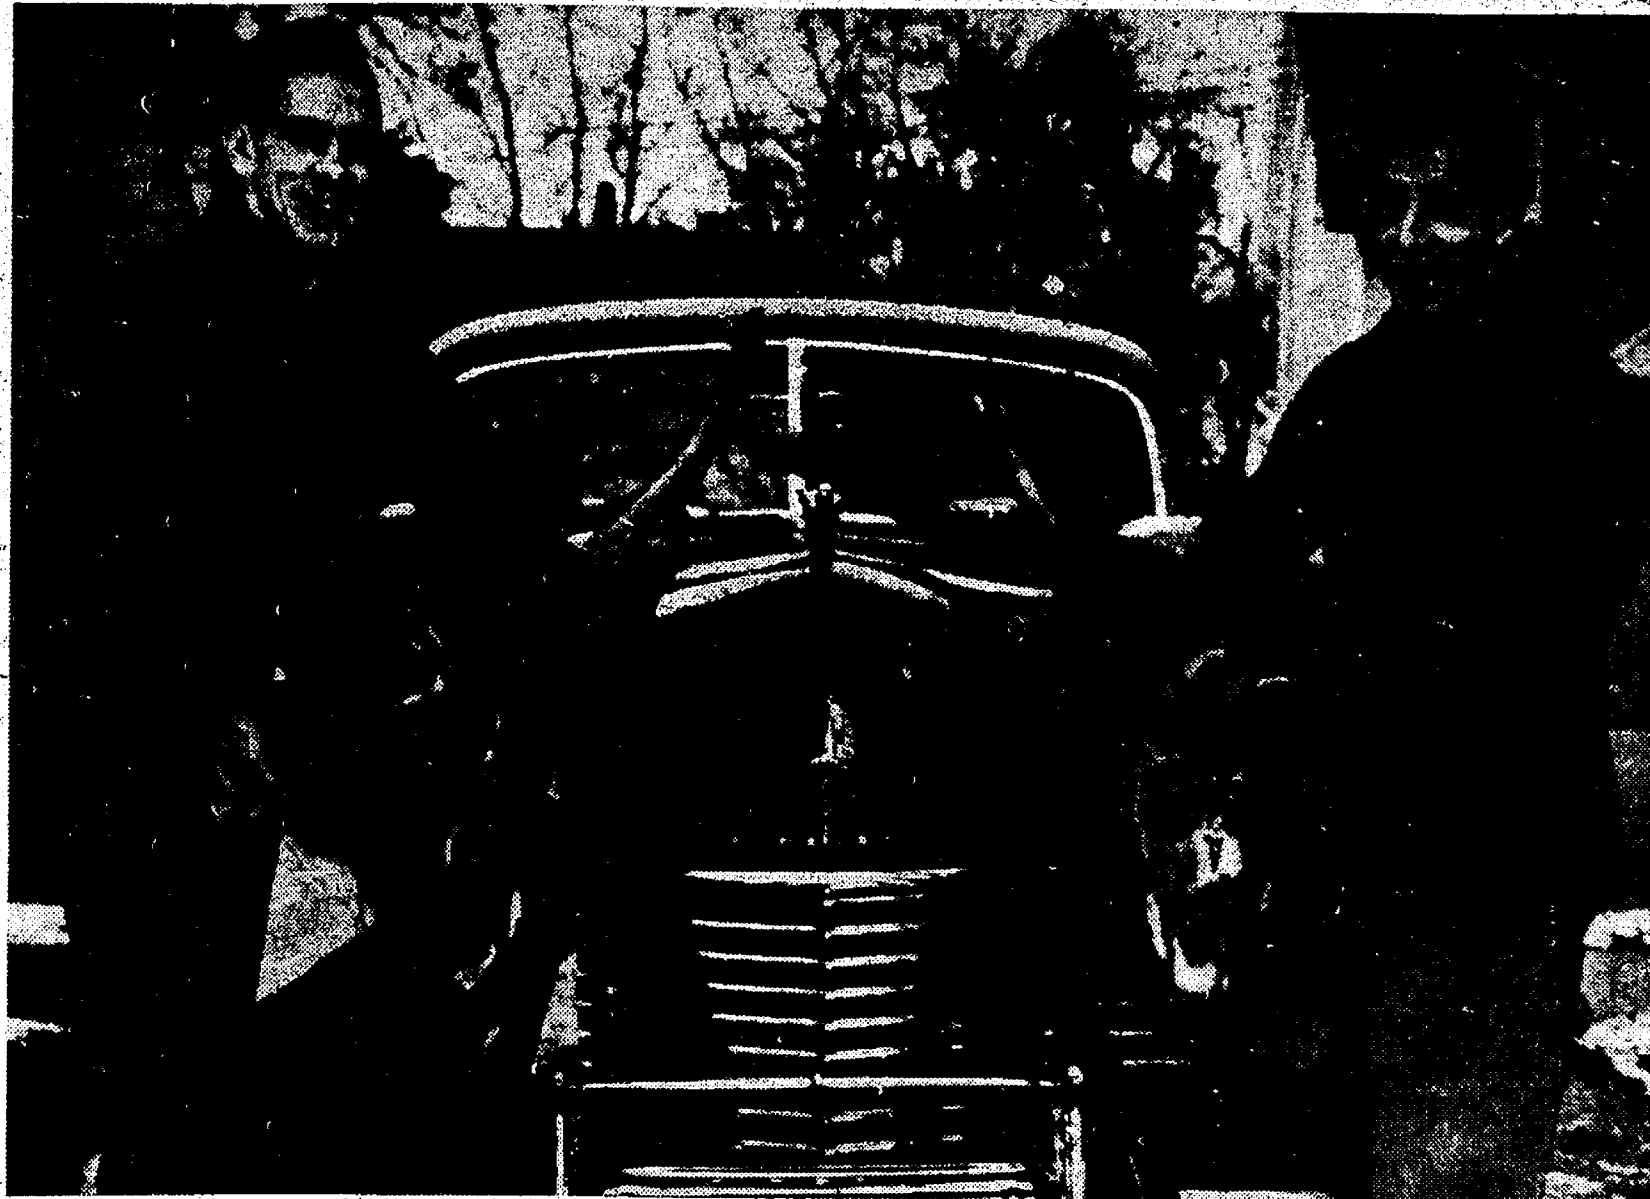

Marvin Gaskin is chairman, Marshall Jameson, vice-chairman;

Mrs. Harry Watson, secretary; and Mrs. Jean Myers, treasurer. The directors are as follows: Mrs. Harry Watson, Mrs. George Klein, Mrs. Paul Roine, Marvin Gaskin and Kenneth Moore, for one year terms; George Beauchamp, Dewey Williams, Harry Pratt, Mrs. Ted Stahl and Marshall Jameson, for two year terms; Mrs. Charles Gasser, Mrs. Jean Myers, A. A. Ghesquiere, Don J. Goodrow and Walter Goulett, for three year terms.

Provide Parking Space at Center

The directors of the War Memorial Association at their meeting on Nov. 21 awarded the contract for the parking lot to the Cook Construction Company. The lot will extend from the service entrance to Jefferson avenue. It will provide for two rows of cars with a 16 foot driveway between, paved with black top. The space actually occupied by the cars when parked will be of blue stone. A 5-10 foot hedge will be provided as a barrier between the lot and the private property to the east.

A considerable strip of the lawn will be occupied by the parking lot and between this and the lawn the old hedge will be replanted. The work has already been started. When completed the lot will provide space for approximately 100 cars.

BICYCLE STOLEN

Roy Moxley of 35 Radnor circle, reported to the Farms police on Nov. 27 that his bicycle had been stolen from St. Paul's Church yard between 11 and 12 that day.

Admits Running Betting Joint

Cora Saltsman, who with her husband was raided by the Park police on August 27 for operating a horse betting establishment at 1049 Beaconsfield, and subsequently brought suit against the village for the return of $480 found by the police among the tickets and other gambling paraphernalia, had a rude shock when she faced the police in Judge Fitzgerald's Court last Monday.

The Park police had carefully saved all of the paraphernalia, including the original $480 and had no difficulty in establishing the fact that the money was in the same receptacle as the other articles. The money whose return was sought, had belonged, Mrs. Saltsman said, to her mother, Maude Dill, and was not a part of the operating materials in the establishment. The complete identification of the money with the rest of the stuff forced her to acknowledge on the stand that she and her husband were the operators of the place.

The shock to Mrs. Saltsman came in her discovery that everything had been carefully preserved and so labeled by the police.

Village Attorney Pierre V. Hefler defended the village in the action.

VISITS FAMED KENNEL

Ellen Booth of Balfour road, was a guest recently at the Gaines Research Kennels in Ridgefield, Conn. This is the unique institution devoted to study of facts on dog breeding, feeding, care and training. On public view are scores of dogs representing many different breeds.

Alert Kids Foil Prowler in Park

Burns J. Cody of 847 Westchester called the Park police station at 9:42 p.m. on Nov. 25 and said that his children were alone at home and had just called him and said there was someone trying to get into the house.

The police hurried across at once and while they found no one on the premises at the time they did find foot prints about the grounds, made apparently by a No. 9 shoe. They were satisfied that the children's fears were well founded.

They also found evidence that a car had been parked at the nearby corner.

PLAYS TITLE ROLE

Geraldine Jacobson, Pointe freshman at Michigan State College, starred in the title role of Ibsen's "Hedda Gabler" in a scene from that play, recently presented at the college by Studio Theater. The scene was one of four taken from great plays which the Theater reproduced in its series entitled "Tonight at 7:30."

 other methods are all under study by the five Grosse Pointe areas and it is quite likely that other arrangements may already be made when this subject comes up for a vote.

6. The Judges now sitting on our Village Court bench are supplied by the Township whereas under City Incorporation such judges would be elected solely by the Park Electorate.

7. The Township currently helps to support a Welfare Director, which arrangement can be continued under City Incorporation without otherwise changing the present set up.

8. By the elimination of the present overheads required to operate the Township, it is estimated that an annual saving of, at least, $17,000 can be made for the benefit of our taxpayers.

City Incorporation should not be confused with consolidation of Grosse Pointe Park with any adjoining municipality nor should it be connected with business as might be inferred from the term "City." It does mean the elimination of a dual government and an improved position by State Statutes. The present residential and suburban atmosphere of the Park can be maintained regardless of whether we are an incorporated Village or City.

Since 1931, 45 municipalities in Michigan have voted to become Incorporated Cities and in recent months Grosse Pointe Farms has realized sufficient advantages to vote in favor of their City Incorporation. State Laws provide that any community with a population greater than 750 is entitled to City Incorporation; therefore, Grosse Pointe Park with its 14,000 population is probably behind other communities in taking this progressive step.

The Michigan Municipal League, a fifty year old non-profit Association of Cities and Villages, has also thoroughly studied this plan for Grosse Pointe Park and its forty-seven page report has unquestionably recommended that we take this step.

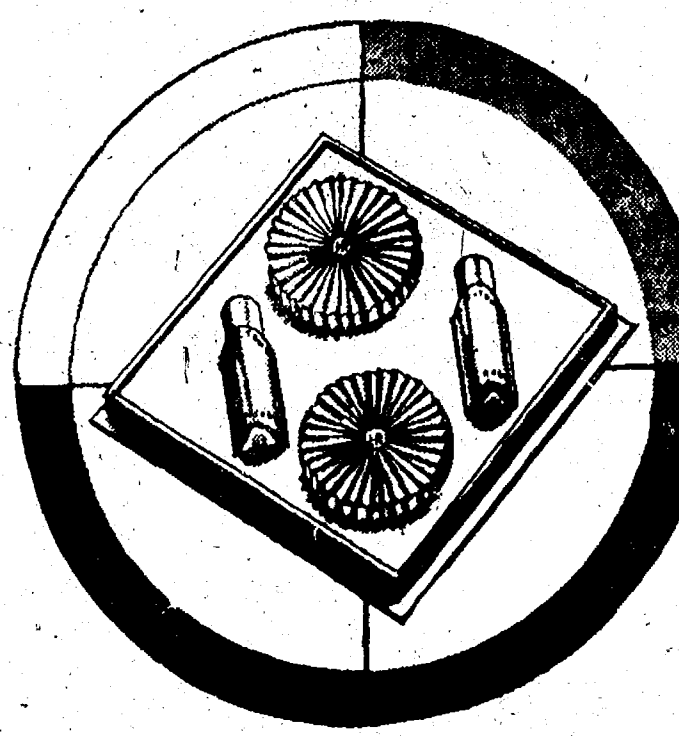

The complete report of this Study Committee will shortly be made available to all voters in the community and it is recommended that everyone make it a point to read this report.

Drain Fight
 Detroit wishes to effect at a cost of $8,000,000 to $9,000,000, of which Grosse Pointe would pay the major part.

The general impression of the Pointe representatives at this meeting, and at previous ones recently held, was that the imminence of the local issue is growing less acute.

Back of all this moreover there is the report of the International Commission on Water Pollution, which it is understood is now ready and about to be released. This report is expected to further minimize the consideration of minor matters while the great problem of water pollution from Lake Huron to Lake Erie is monopolizing the thought of the higher authorities.

Not Even Good Case
 It looks like no soap on Detroit's water intake plan at the expense of Grosse Pointe, on the facts of which Detroit has not yet even made a good case.

Moreover, it is significant that T. H. Hanson, of the firm of Mason L. Brown Sons, engineers for Grosse Pointe City, in his report to the City Council following the meeting with the Detroit people on the Fox Creek-Corner Creek issue on Nov. 9 said: "We do not believe the State will issue a permit to Detroit to build a sewer structure which will require the City of Grosse Pointe to contribute in the neighborhood of $800,000 to the project."

Applies to Others Too
 What applies to Grosse Pointe City applies equally to Grosse Pointe Park and Grosse Pointe Farms.

Mr. Hanson is a former Director of Public Works for Detroit and also a former director of the Detroit Street Railways.

1950 Licenses Available Now
 The registration division of the Secretary of State's office is currently mailing out the prepared plate application forms to Michigan's 2,111,000 motor vehicle owners. The prepared application form may be taken to any department branch office on or after Dec. 1, when the new 1950 plates will be available.

Residents in this area may now get their plates in the new branch of the Secretary of State's office, located at 15309 Mack Avenue near Beaconsfield.

Because the department does not have facilities for issuing plates by mail, the public is advised that plates may only be obtained at one of the branch offices. Personal checks will not be accepted unless certified. Bring your title and registration when getting your license.

1949 plates expire on the last day of Feb. 1950, and in order to avoid the last minute rush, Secretary Alger urges motorists to obtain their plates as soon after Dec. 1 as possible.

Under the new Vehicle Code, motor scooters must be both titled and licensed.

Jefferson Scene Of 3-Car Crash
 A three-car accident occurred at 2:28 p.m. on Nov. 27 at the corner of Roosevelt place and Jefferson-avenue, which resulted in considerable property damage.

A car driven west on Jefferson by Thomas R. Black, 24, of 287 St. Jean, went out of control and struck a parked car with such force as to cause it to strike another parked car ahead. Black was given a ticket for failing to have his car under control and the owners of the other two cars, Dr. Henry C. Taylor and George M. Suliburk, both of 17515 Jefferson, were given tickets as witnesses for a hearing on Dec. 12.

To Renew Lease To Post Office

A letter from the Fourth Assistant Postmaster General was read at the City Council meeting on Nov. 21, accepting the City's offer to rent the Post Office Department for another year the quarters on Maumee which have been used for several years as the Grosse Pointe branch of the Detroit Post Office.

The P.O. Department has been using this place on a year by year basis, until the time comes when Grosse Pointe can have a permanent post office building of its own.

Nevada has a population of 91,000, the smallest in the nation.

Burglar Bound Over to Court

Charles DeSmedt, aged 21, of the 1400 block of Beaconsfield, who was arrested at the Turner Buick establishment at 3 a.m. on Nov. 9 by Patrolmen A. Boone and Charles Slusser, where they discovered him before he had time to steal anything, had his examination before Justice John Potter on Nov. 23.

He was held on $500 bond to answer at Circuit Court. The police on searching his premises discovered a number of items he had taken at other places.

"Here we go 'round the mulberry tree" is correct. Mulberries don't grow on bushes.

Fire Drills Pay Off at School

A small fire occurred at 3:24 p.m. on Nov. 22 in Room 202 at the Defer school.

It started in a switch box on the wall, but by the time the firemen arrived the teachers had the children all safely out of the building in the school yard.

Fire Chief Rector of the Park complimented the teachers for the excellent fire drill which they conducted among the pupils which enabled them to clear the school of all the children without panic or accident. The fire was minor and the damage negligible.

New Farms Parking Meters Pose Coin Counting Problem

The Farms is finding that the task of counting the pennies and nickels which are being poured into its new parking meters along Kercheval constitutes a considerable chore. A request for the purchase of a coin sorter and wrapping machine was considered by the trustees, meeting Monday night.

Clerk Harry Furton said that it takes two employes half a day to count the money after each collection from the meters. This disrupts the routine of his office to such an extent that it will be impossible to continue the practice, he stated.

The trustees were informed that none of the banks in this area has a coin sorter, but an attempt will be made to make an arrangement with a bank to accept the coins in sealed bags and send them into Detroit where counting facilities are available. If such an arrangement cannot be made, Trustee Henry Hubbard of the finance committee was authorized to purchase one of the coin sorters and wrappers, at a cost of $500.

When it was stated that nearly all churches own coin sorters to count their Sunday collections, Trustee John Hutchinson suggested that an arrangement might be made with one of them to use its machine. No action was taken on this suggestion.

A report submitted by Clerk Furton revealed that a total of $192.93 has been collected in the meters since they were installed on November 10. Under the purchase agreement, the Farms pays half of each collection to the manufacturer until the meters are all paid for. The cost is $61 per meter, so the Farms has already collected more than enough to pay for three of the 100 meters contracted for.

The three collections which have already been made have turned up a number of oddities. Some 35 dimes have been taken from the meters, although the motorist gets no more parking time for a dime than for a nickel. One slug marked "Good for 5c in Trade" was found, and one sixpence piece.

Eighty-six meter violation tickets were given out by the police between Nov. 12 and Nov. 23. Due to faulty meters, improper coins and other extenuating circumstances, seven of these tickets were cancelled.

The police say while they have received a very few complaints against the meters, the complaints for the installation have been many and the public is obviously pleased with the system.

To Light Curve On Charlevoix

A street light at the curve between McMillan avenue and Lewiston road on Charlevoix avenue, which has not been lighted, will be connected up to eliminate a dangerous situation there, it was decided at the Farms Council meeting on Monday night.

Engineer Murray Smith reported neighbors had requested the light and the police department had supported the claim that the dark curve was dangerous.

Two Cars Towed Away From Crash in Farms

Two cars were towed away from the scene of a crash at Ridge road and McKinley avenue on the morning of Nov. 25.

George Feil, of 14227 Faircrest, driving west on Ridge, collided with a car being driven south on McKinley by Michael Virga of 154 Cortland. The police said Virga had failed to stop for the sign at Ridge.

Only One Match Proves Plenty

There was a small fire at 1:58 p. m. on Nov. 29 at the Ayers Morison home at 938 Three Mile drive.

The three-year-old daughter of the home had been sent upstairs to take her afternoon nap. She had "only one match" she said on being questioned later but this little Miss had proceeded to strike, setting fire to her bed and an overstuffed chair.

The firemen put it out with a hand extinguisher. The only property damage was to the bed and chair.

Fire Does $2,000 Damage in Park

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerborn

The Santa Claus parade is over... (and we, along with the rest of the oldsters mourn the passing of the nice, fat Santa Clauses... 1949's 18-day diet version leaving us sadly cold)

And while you are a-l-l-out doing your Christmas shopping (personally, they have asked too much of our Spirit this year... when a Certain Merchant Who Shall Be Nameless... put up Christmas trees AND lights before Halloween we said a few bleak Noels and gave it all up Nov. 1)

We sit here in our office... (won't you send us your news right this minute... deadline! Monday noon!)... and dread the arrival of the first Christmas card...

"Beezie" Smith First Deb

It'll be a merry season for the deb crowd... Right this second... needles are flying over clouds of misty materials... as the debutantes' gowns are getting a final stitching...

Way back in October... the Pointe post office... put on an extra man... to carry all the correspondence and "special-delivered-gown-between-school-and-Grosse-Pointe" affairs that went on...

This first day of December finds this group all ready... and waiting for Dec. 19...

That's when the holiday spotlight turns... and first in its lovely light... will be Anna Louise Smith... daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Guy Chester Smith of McKinley place...

Arrives Dec. 15

Now it took a little deb to put us on the right track about McKinley place...

Brilliant as we are... we never knew till Anna Louise Smith... that the block from East Jefferson to Grosse Pointe boulevard is NOT McKinley road... but McKinley PLACE...

At the moment... Anna Louise (who is Beezie to one and all) is back at her studies in Bradford Junior College... having whirled the Thanksgiving week-end in Manhattan with a group of classmates...

But she's due to arrive Dec. 15 for her Christmas holiday...

And on Dec. 19... she'll be presented to society at an afternoon tea by Mrs. Smith in their McKinley place home...

Winter Debuts

Winter debuts are traditional in the Smith family...

Mrs. Smith... (as Anna Louise Griffith of Indianapolis... made her debut at a Christmas holiday evening reception... A Beauty, then, too... in palest rose and fuchsia gown)...

Daughter Barbara (now Mrs. Thomas F. Willmore Jr. of the Pointe)... bowed at a December tea a few years back... when the Smiths lived in Bloomfield...

And now comes Beezie... with those divine dimples... to be the first debutante of 1949's holiday season...

Betty Motschall Weds Charles Walker Bolton

Couple Leave for Wedding Trip in Chicago After Wedding in St. Clare of Montefalco Church; Breakfast and Reception Follow Ceremony

The trousseau luggage of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Walker Bolton included both their Christmas shopping lists when they sped off to Chicago last Saturday evening following their marriage in St. Clare of Montefalco Church.

The bride, who was the former Elizabeth Jane Betty Motschall, daughter of Mrs. John M. Motschall of Three Mile drive and the late Mr. Motschall, confessed that her pre-wedding days were so filled with parties and gaiety she had time only to buy wrapping paper for the Christmas gifts she and Chuck will buy on their wedding trip!

The Rev. Father Cyril Burke, O. P. of Barry College, Miami, Fla. came from the South to perform the marriage ceremony. Father Burke, taught both Betty and her sister, Dorothy (Mrs. Gerady A. Grout) when they were students at Barry and became such a good friend of the whole Motschall family that he officiated also at Dorothy's wedding three years ago.

There were snowy white mums at the altar of the church when the pretty bride, marched down the aisle in robes of gleaming white satin relieved by a bertha of rosepointe lace. The gown's long circular train was frothed by the full length French silk illusion, wedding veil which fell from a crown of rosepointe. Betty carried bridal orchids in her white prayerbook.

Mrs. Grout was her sister's matron of honor. She wore a floor length frock of fuchsia faille with Queen Anne collar and on her head was a matching velvet halo touched with ostrich tips. She carried a fuchsia velvet muff to which was caught pink camellias strewn in ivy.

All the bridesmaids, right down to the six-year-old flower girl (niece of the bridegroom) were dressed like the honor matron and carried the same flowers. The tiny member of the bridal party was Marilyn L'Esperance and the maids were Mary Motschall, another sister of the bride; Mrs. James Higgins, Patricia O'Keefe and Mrs. George Ghesquier.

William Bolton Jr. was his brother's best man and bridesman were the bride's brother, Richard Motschall; Richard Schrage, Joseph Gorey and Cyril Desmet.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Motschall chose a mink toned crepe gown with a matching chapeau trimmed in tulle-swathed cabbage roses. Her flowers were bronze orchids.

The bridegroom's mother (he is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bolton of Devonshire road) wore a classically draped blue crepe gown with matching ostrich tips on her blue toque. She wore pale lavender orchids.

A breakfast for members of the bridal party and the immediate families followed the 10 a.m. wedding ceremony. This took place at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and from 2 to 4 the reception was held at the Motschall residence.

When they left on their Chicago wedding trip, the new Mrs. Bolton wore a steel gray wool suit with tiny collar of brown velvet complemented in her velvet hat. She carried an alligator bag and pinned a wedding orchid to her fur jacket.

The Boltons will spend the holiday season with her mother, planning to return from their Chicago trip in another week.

Gardeners Hold Annual Election

Mrs. Charleton Newborn was re-elected president of the Village Garden Club at the annual meeting held on Nov. 18 in the home of Mrs. John French on Lake Shore road.

Other officers elected includes: Mrs. Donald Melville, first vice president; Mrs. William J. Young, second vice president; Mrs. Francis H. Phelps, re-elected recording secretary; Mrs. Edward Burlage, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Philip C. Baker, treasurer.

Mrs. French's decorations for the tea which followed the meeting were carried out in a beautiful and unusual shade of burgandy red, mums and matching candles. Mrs. Herman D. Scarney and Mrs. Emerson Frantz poured. By coincidence, the ensembles they wore matched the coloring in Mrs. French's decorations.

Many people spend as much time planning to arrive late at a party as others do to get there on time.

The Deb With Dimples!

We saw her last when the Tau Beta Juniors gave that ever-so-successful Benefit Bazaar on the grounds of the Smith home last Summer . . .

That could have been called a preview of the season's debbs . . . for Shirley Forsyth . . . Mary Boyer . . . Helen Parker . . . Buffy Wicking, etc. . . were all on hand . . . in cute pastel frocks . . . working like Penguins—that must be the Tau Beta word for it!—and being admired from a distance by a group of young stags who wouldn't be caught at a Girls' Bazaar for anything in the world . . . but there they were! . . .

Dec. 19th's deb is brunet . . . slender . . . just naturally attracts friends (she's going to have 10 assistants at her coming out party) . . . and always has a Wonderful time . . .

With two younger sisters in the house just dying till their own debutants gets home and all the exciting doings . . . you can understand if they are jaded about Santa Claus' visit . . . they don't share our grumpy cynicism . . . it's just that Beezie's arrival is much more dashing this year!

Suzette Alger Visits Fiance's Home in East While Ingrid Koebel Plans To Wed Law McCabe of Boston On Dec. 21 in Christ Church, G. P.

The brides-elect were taking the spotlight away from Santa Claus this week with announcements, trips and wedding plans.

The Charles R. Murphys of Balfour road gave a Sunday night supper for members of the younger set to announce the engagement of their daughter, Elizabeth, to Bayard Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William-Robert Wilson of Lakeland avenue.

The announcement was told to arriving guests by specially printed newspapers carrying the banner line, "Murphy-Wilson Merger Told."

A wedding date was announced, too (Liz and Chuck are good reporters) . . . it'll be January 28 in St. Catherine's Chapel of SS Peter and Paul's Church. The wedding reception will be given in the Murphy's home.

The bride-elect graduated from Grosse Pointe Country Day and Stephens College. She was presented to society at a tea in 1946 and her clubs include the Junior League and Tau Beta.

The bridegroom - elect, who served three years in World War II, attended Olivet College, Massachusetts Institute of Technology and Wayne University.

Suzette Alger, who's to be a February bride when she marries Reese Howard at a Pointe wedding, was off last week-end to visit at the home of her fiance's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Graeme K. Howard of Rye, N. Y.

There she greeted Reese's sister, Mrs. Bucky Halloran, (who had been an upper classman of hers at Vassar) and her husband, just returned from their wedding trip. The Hallorans are going to make their home in Chicago.

On Monday Suzie went into New York to join her mother, Mrs. Frederick M. Alger for a several days stay. They are hoping Mr. Alger will be able to join them while they're in Manhattan.

The holiday wedding plans of Ingrid Koebel and Law McCabe of Boston were told when the young couple arrived for the Thanksgiving week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Koebel of Cloverly road.

Mr. McCabe, who is in instructor at Harvard, is the son of Mrs. J. Burton McCabe of Middleton, Del. and the late Rev. Dr. McCabe.

The date is Dec. 21 and it'll be a 4 o'clock ceremony in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe followed by a reception at the Country Club.

Mrs. Robert F. Koebel, sister-in-law of the bride-elect, will be matron of honor and Sigrid Koebel will be her sister's honor maid. Bridesmaids are to include Mary Thompson of Mt. Clemens, Jeanne Leroux of Tulsa, Okla., Gloria Roberts, Geraldine Rounds, Peggy Hughes and Lee MacMahon.

Clarence B. Nixon of Philadelphia will be best man and groomsmen are James Morgan McElfish and Abner Harvey Baggenstose Jr. of Pittsburg; Robert F. Koebel, brother of the bride-elect; Lawrence B. Holland and William Curwen of Cambridge.

George W. Mellikers Jr. To Make Home in Iowa

Former Judith Stuchell and Bridegroom to Live in Keokuk After Their Wedding Motor Trip; Bride, Daughter of Clair A. Stuchells of University Place

Snowflakes like big orange blossoms tumbled out of the sky as wedding guests hurried into Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday afternoon for the informal wedding of Judith Stuchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair A. Stuchell of University place and George William Melliker Jr., son of George E. Mellikers of Iowa City.

There were vases of white flowers at the altar where the Rev. Frank Pitt heard the nuptial vows.

She wore a Patou blue velvet frock, ankle length, with long, fitted sleeves ending in points over her wrists. A tiny Peter Pan collar finished the neckline and the bride's pretty face was framed by a blue velvet bonnet. She carried a matching muf to which was pinned her white wedding orchid.

Ellen Siddall was the bride's only attendant. Her ankle length gown was of gray velveteen with which she wore blending velvet Juliet outlined in pearls. On her gray velveteen muf were yellow tea roses.

Robert Melliker was his brother's best man and ushers included Fred Goss of Iowa City and Robert Kusser.

Mrs. Stuchell's toast crepe dress had an overskirt of the same toned lace. She wore a darkling, brown velour chapeau and red camellias.

Mrs. Melliker, the bridegroom's mother, was in a black crepe outfit touched in an accordion panel of aqua satin at one side of the skirt. Her black toque was feather trimmed and her flowers were pale pink camellias.

Wedding guests returned to the Stuchell home for the reception. Ropes of greens and white chrysanthemums were used to decorate the fireplace before which the wedding party received the guests. The garland theme was repeated on the white cloth of the bride's table where a tiered square cake was flanked by ivory tapers in silver holders.

The bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Villhauer of Iowa City came on for the wedding and other out-of-town guests included Richard Platte of Burlington, Ia. and the bride's cousin, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Stewart of Ohio.

For traveling Mrs. Melliker chose a two-piece wine gabardine suit, buttoned smartly at the side from shoulder to jacket hem. Her matching turban was finished in a veil that tied in back and she wore a leopard jacket.

When the young couple left for their Chicago wedding trip, after which they will go on to Keokuk where they'll make their future home, they called back promises to spend the Christmas week-end with the bride's parents in the Pointe.

Public Use of High School Library Termed Impossible For Many Different Reasons

A question as to why some use could not be made, at least temporarily, of the High School Library as a public branch library to serve residents of Grosse Pointe Farms, has been answered by Robert M. Orr, Chief Librarian of the Pointe Library System.

The question was asked by Kenneth L. Moore, an active member of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Library. At a meeting of that organization recently, Mr. Orr outlined needs of the Pointe system. His report included a statement that library facilities for the Farms and Woods were highly inadequate.

Orr's Answer

His answer to Mr. Moore's query follows:
The Grosse Pointe High School Library could not effectively be used as a Public Library Branch because:

1. It would be well nigh impossible from an administrative standpoint. While the Public Library is an activity of the Board of Education, it is operated as a separate part of the School system, and has no relationship with School libraries. Such a change would necessitate a radical change in operation of both public and school libraries. Certainly it would require combining Public and School library staffs.

Not Enough Space

2. The School Library cannot house the book collection required for High School use, it being necessary to distribute books about the building at the present time.

3. The present High School collection was selected solely for student needs; and could in no way meet the drastically different requirements of a public library collection. Essentially a public library book collection is for circulation; the school library collection is for reference.

4. The present High School Library is so limited for space that it could not possibly admit of enlargement.

Not Popular Plan

5. The majority of adults have proven, in numerous cases, that they will not use a public library in a school building. The arrangement is never a happy or satisfactory one.

6. Accrediting standards for high school libraries, are so strict that the Board of Education would hazard the school's academic standing by in any way reducing present high school library facilities.

7. Finally, the public library and school library are so far apart in function, use, and objectives that they are not successfully combined.

Appears Happy to Be Back

Picture by Fred Runnells

If that's Old Man Winter, he seems to be mighty glad to return to the Pointe so early this year. Barbara and Bob Yerge, pictured putting the finishing touches on the masterpiece which is 10 feet high-not counting his hat, were helped by Marge and Beverly Yerge and Ronnie and Kenny Walker. The youngsters created the snowman on Sunday, Nov. 27 in the vacant lot across from their home at 1046 Lakepointe. It took them about six hours.

Center Entrance Will Be Lighted

Four large boulevard lights are to be installed along the main driveway from the entrance gate to the Memorial Center to the building.

These will be of ample candlepower to provide a well lighted driveway. They will be set about 700 feet apart and will face each other on opposite sides. There will also be two bright lights over the entrance gate.

All of the copper for this work has been donated to the Center by Ernest Känzler, one of the directors.

Center Receives New Donations

At the directors' meeting at the Memorial Center on Nov. 21, two new cash donations to the Memorial were announced.

One for $500 came from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lynn Pierson of Voltaire place; and one for $100 was received from the Thrift Shop.

Farms Financial Position Sound

The financial position of the Farms is such that it appears it will be able to operate on an interim budget for the period of March 1 to July 1, 1950. The interim period is caused by the new city charter which establishes the fiscal year to start on July 1 instead of March 1.

Net cash and investments as of October 31, less current liabilities, totaled $374,082.13, as compared to $348,467.44 a year ago. Unexpended budget as of Oct. 31 totaled $218,266.10 as against $201,439.80 a year ago.

A grizzly bear may attain the length of 9 feet and weight 1,000 pounds.

The bride traveled in a pink gabardine suit with which she wore brown accessories and a black orchid.

Carnaghi-Amico Vows Exchanged

St. Bernard's Church was the scene last Saturday of the wedding of Zena Amico, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Amico of Cadillac boulevard, and John Anthony Carnaghi, son of Mrs. Joseph P. Carnaghi of Three Mile drive and the late Mr. Carnaghi. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. John C. Vismara married the young couple.

A cathedral-length train distinguished the white satin bridal robes worn by Zena, who added a pearl necklace to her wedding costume. The French illusion veil fell from a cap of ostrich tips. She carried a spray of gardenias. Picture frocks of silvermist green satin with matching ostrich plumes in their hair were worn by the bridal attendants, who carried copper-toned mums. Joann Carnaghi, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Mrs. Morris LaMotte and Betsy Zoyes. Mrs. Amico pinned green orchids to her floor-length crepe gown. The bridegroom's mother was in a plum crepe gown and hat of matching plumes. Her flowers were orchids. Assisting his brother as best man was James Carnaghi and the bridesmen were Donald Piche and Walter Therssen. The Amicos were hosts at a reception in the Whittier following the church ceremony. The bridal couple left for a Southern motor trip.

The last word in automatic, no-shift control!

"Way ahead in driving ease . . . because it's ahead in basic principles!"
Born of a 16-year Packard development program. Backed by seven million dollars' worth of new manufacturing facilities.
That's Packard Ultramatic Drive!
Come in—see for yourself why independent technical observers call it "the last word in automatic no-shift control!"

- ★ New simplicity: Naturally, there's no clutch pedal. And that's only the first hint of the convenience of Packard Ultramatic Drive! There's nothing new to learn. Just step on the gas, and steer!
- ★ New smoothness, new quietness. No jerking or "clunking," because there's no gear-shifting anywhere. No "racing engine" sensation, because there's no slippage at cruising speeds.
- ★ New economy: Ultramatic Drive saves gas—because there's no slippage at cruising speeds. And thanks to its advanced design, Packard Ultramatic Drive requires no complicated maintenance.
- ★ New safety: No chance of involuntary unexpected "down-shifts" which might cause a prolonged skid on slippery pavement. Packard Ultramatic Drive gives you smooth, gradual engine braking power for safe deceleration.
- ★ More responsive: No lag, at traffic speeds or highway speeds, waiting for gears to shift. For instant bursts of safety-sprint acceleration—just "tramp down."
- ★ More positive, more flexible: Your choice of high-range, or low-range operation. Easy shift from forward to reverse. Yes, you can rock the car in snow!

Parcells P.T.A. To Hear Treen

John C. Treen, veteran police reporter of the Detroit News, will be speaker and guest of honor at the meeting of the Parcells' Parent-Teachers Association to be held at the school on Thursday, December 8, at 8:15 p.m. It was announced by Alfred R. Tapert, vice president and program chairman of the Association. The topic of his talk will be "Educational Problems and Juvenile Delinquency."

A native of Michigan and a resident of Grosse Pointe, Treen studied at the University of Detroit and University of Michigan. Since 1928, he has been a member of the Detroit News staff, serving the paper in every capacity from police reporter to assistant city editor.

Before the war, Treen was investigating official graft in connection with the bookmakers and numbers rackets when he was assaulted by a gangster. His close shave with death resulted in the wide-open news break which led to the Ferguson grand jury and the subsequent imprisonment of Mayor Reading, Sheriff Wilcox, Prosecutor McCrea and the Police Superintendent Frahm.

During World War II, Treen served with the Navy Air Corps in the Pacific theater and later in the Caribbean, retiring to inactive duty with the rank of lieutenant commander.

Treen will be introduced by Wayne F. Wellman, also of the Detroit News, who, with Mrs. Wellman is in charge of the evening's program. Mrs. George W. Gardner is in charge of refreshments.

U. of P. Show Patrons Listed

The undergraduate male cast of "Adamant Eve," the Mask and Wig musical comedy which plays at the Music Hall on December 29, has received additional support from local friends of the University of Pennsylvania.

The show is fortunate, too, in having had four of its songs recorded and seven published in sheet music form. Art Lund has recorded "Kissing Me" and "Love Is," while Elliott Lawrence has recorded "Got You Right Where I Want You" and "Your Life Is My Life."

Initial reviews from Philadelphia, where the play opened prior to its 4000-mile road trip, indicate that "Adamant Eve" or "Never Underestimate the Power of a Woman" actually "shines with a professional polish" in spite of its student body cast.

Additional patronesses who have joined Mrs. John J. O'Brien, chairman, in welcoming the Mask and Wig Club to Detroit include:

Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, Mrs. Joseph F. Page, Mrs. Gage W. Cooper, Mrs. S. A. Wilkinson, Mrs. Howard Flint, Mrs. Richard Jackson, Mrs. S. R. Livingston, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. Howard F. Smith, Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford, Mrs. Ralph B. Netting, Mrs. Edwin S. Barbour, Mrs. Christian S. Hecker, Mrs. William N. Moffett, Mrs. Horace Prunk, Mrs. Sidney S. Hall, Mrs. George W. Lyon, Jr., Mrs. Storm Vanderzee, Mrs. Robert T. Shaler, Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell, Mrs. Jean Thomas Sheator, Mrs. George H. Zimmerman, Mrs. Robert N. Woodruff, Mrs. Clifford B. Longley, Mrs. Earl J. Basketball Loop for Kids Start of Worthy Project

Cooperation Will Be Needed to Make Venture a Success; Officials Hope to Get One More Team Enrolled Before Opening Date

By Fred Runnells
With a little more than a week remaining before the newly organized Grosse Pointe Inter-Church Athletic basketball league swings into action on Saturday, December 10, the five kid teams dived into their second week of practice.

Spirit and determination to learn were the high notes of all the practice sessions. Which just goes to prove that Grosse Pointe kids want and need indoor recreation during the long winter months to work off their abundant energy.

Need Another Team
Roland Gray, organizer of the league, consulted with Harold Husband and Forrest Geary of the Board of Education on the possibility of bringing another team into the fold and round out the league with six teams. They agreed that with ten days remaining the possibilities are good.

With six teams in the league all teams would be able to play at least one game a week and it would eliminate the practice of giving one team a bye each week. Originally there was to be one team from each church in the Pointe. If this plan could have carried through the league would have had ten teams.

Grosse Pointe Methodist and St. James Lutheran were two churches that indicated they were interested earlier, but to date have failed to file an entry.

Plenty of Room
With gymnasium facilities provided by the Board of Education there is still plenty of room for teams from those churches not yet in the league, to organize a squad and get in on the winter fun.

All it takes to enter a team in the new league is to assemble a squad and contact any one of the three league officials, Roland Gray, Harold Husband or Forrest Geary. Husband and Geary can be reached at the Board of Education offices and Gray can be contacted at his Sports Shop on Kercheval avenue.

The other churches have members interested in recreation for kids coaching and managing their teams.

Cost Negligible
The cost in organizing a team is negligible. The only piece of equipment to be purchased is the official ball which the league has designated.

Uniforms are not necessary as most of the youngsters will provide their own. However, there is nothing in the league rules which says a church cannot outfit their team from head to toe. The league made this rule so as to keep the cost down with the hopes that interested church members would be willing to donate only their time in organizing and coaching a team from their church.

The 1949-50 basketball season is the first effort of the league and the continued success of the league depends on the success of this season's play.

Could Be All Year
If the initial effort shows the league to be worthwhile then further efforts will be made to make the Grosse Pointe Inter-Church Athletic League a year around practice.

Original plans called for a two division basketball league, boys and girls, softball, badminton and tennis and any other competitive

Grid Honors In Parochial League Split

St. Paul and St. Martin Tie For Top Spot With Four Wins and One Loss Each

The St. Paul football team ended its 1949 season, tied with St. Martin for the East-side championship in their division. Following are the standings of the teams in the second division on the east side:

Table with 4 columns: Team, W, L, T, P. Rows include St. Martin, St. Paul, Annunciation, St. Catherine, St. Charles, St. Ambrose.

St. Martin represented the east side because of the fact that St. Paul was disqualified because of too many games played. St. Martin was defeated in the city playoff by St. Frederick, by a score of 25-12.

Score 172 Points
For the total number of games played, St. Paul ran up a score of 172 points to their opponents' 51. During their regular league games, St. Paul scored 120 points to their opponents' 19.

During St. Paul's first game, with De La Salle, Bob Berg made a twenty-five yard run for a touchdown. In the second game, against Annunciation, Pete Belanger made a fifty yard run for a touchdown, but unfortunately the play was called back. In the third game, against St. Charles, Bob Berg made a forty-five yard run for a touchdown. In this same game Bill Huettelman ran fifty yards, then lateraled the ball to Don Hartledge, who ran forty-five yards for a touchdown.

Runs 98 Yards
In the game with St. Ambrose, Pierre Belanger kicked his "much talked of" field goal from the seven yard line. In the game with St. Catherine, Edward Quirk, St. Paul co-captain, scored the extra point after touchdown, from his tackle position. Pete Belanger is the other co-captain for St. Paul. In this same game, Dave Sherwood made a spectacular run of ninety-eight yards, for a touchdown.

BCL Gathering Set for Dec. 15

All the brass, representatives of the high school administration of the Border Cities League and the press will gather at the Sibley Gardens in Wyandotte on Thursday, December 15, to honor all BCL coaches at the league's annual get-together dinner. This affair brings together all the officials of the BCL, which includes Grosse Pointe, Wyandotte, Fordson, Royal Oak, Monroe and Highland Park, once a year, and helps cement relations between the schools and promote good fellowship among the member schools.

Parties like this have made the BCL one of the closest-knit conferences in the state. It is strictly a STAG affair.

Pointe Gridders Receive Honors

Center Bayard Johnson, End Don Shaw and Quarterback Pat Brogan, all of the 1949 Grosse Pointe Blue Devil football team were given honorable mention in this year's All-State selections.

Johnson and Brogan along with Coach Ed Wernet and Athletic Director Frank Banach, accepted an invitation from Princeton's head football coach Charles Caldwell to attend the Princeton-Dartmouth game on Saturday, November 19.

It is quite possible Coach Caldwell is looking into the future and regards Johnson and Brogan as possible prospects for the 1951 squad.

All four were looking forward to seeing another former Blue Devil grider, Ed Isbey perform, but were disappointed when his Dartmouth coach elected to play his seniors throughout the game. Isbey has been playing lots of football for the Big Green, mostly on offense. He has several touchdowns to his credit.

Lions to Meet Bulldogs In Grid Game on Sunday

The Detroit Lions, currently tied with the Green Bay Packers for last place in the National Football League, will attempt to move out of that spot next Sunday, December 4, when they meet the New York Bulldogs at Briggs Stadium.

The Lions have won two victories in ten starts this season and in comparison the Bulldogs have a victory and a tie in ten games. The Bulldogs are in the Eastern Division of the NFL.

Plenty of Height

Height will be the outstanding characteristic of the 1949-50 Blue Devil basketball team. Five feet nine inch coach ED WERNET solved a major problem when he shanghaied a chair into the picture to talk over the coming season with his tall boys. Reading from left to right third year veteran BAYARD JOHNSON is a mere six footer and probable acting captain of the squad. Next to him is a newcomer, BUD McCULLOUGH, who at six feet five inches, is the tallest member of the team. He is a transfer student from Walkerville High School in Windsor, Ontario. Bruce Allen, standing six feet four inches in his argyle, shades veteran Spike Quirk by a half inch. Quirk was the giant of last year's team but seems dwarfed when standing beside McCullough. Farms Team Still Leads Rotary Loop

Marketeers Stay on Top Despite Their Dropping First Series in Nine Weeks

Behind Pagel's 618 series, including a 245 opener, Harrison Carpets of the Rotary Bowling League dug their way out of the cellar last Friday night at the Woods Recreation. Harrison also took over third place in "team high single" with 929, pushing Piche's Barbers 922 off the board. It was not a complete rout for Motor City Tires, as they came from behind to win the last game.

Farms Market's lead was pared when the Auto Club took a 3-1 decision from them. Farms Market, who haven't lost a series in the past nine weeks were stunned by this sudden upheaval. G. P. Review, runnerup in the league, met the same fate when Earl Holzbaugh's "fivers" combed them for three. Earl's boys are coming around now and will bear watching. If they can get by Monday Cleaners tomorrow night you may see a new leader in a few weeks.

Houston Bros., Inc. lost the opener but came back strong to take three from Piche's Barber Shop. Houston's Frank Thayer converted the difficult 6-7-10 split.

Monday Cleaners and Punch & Judy Cocktail Lounge split, each team taking two points. Monday lost the last game by one pin.

Middle Atl. Transp. Co., inconsistent but nevertheless a tough team to beat, came back again and took Kopp's Pharmacy, 3-1.

Neighborhood Club League Teams in Need of Sponsors

Total of 26 Basketball Squads Ready to Start Play in Four Divisions; Most of Them Still Seek Backers; Chance For Cheap Advertising

By Fred Runnells
Twenty six basketball teams, in four divisions, are all set to get the 1949-50 season underway at the Neighborhood Club on Monday, December 5 but the sad part of it is all the majority of the squads are still looking for sponsors.

In the major division the sponsor situation is bright. Five of the eight teams entered have sponsors. East Side Sports, St. Clare C.Y.O., Grosse Pointe Valet, Ken Brown, Inc. and St. David are the fortunate teams. Last year's Old Brick Inn team is still looking for an angle.

Missing from the Major division picture this year will be two of the original teams of the league. They are Hansen Chevrolet and Francois Bulldogs. The others are Jefferson-Nash, Robots and St. Elizabeth.

The Major division teams will play two games nightly on Mondays and Tuesdays at 8 p.m. and 9 p.m., starting Monday, December 5. The Minor division has five teams set to open the season December 6 and all but one team has a sponsor.

The Minors will play the preliminary games preceding the Major division on Mondays and Tuesdays starting at 7 p.m.

This division is open to boys 17 to 20 and the only requirement is that the boys be members of the club. This in itself is incidental because a year's membership in the club is only $1.50. The division will be made up of the Optimist Club, Metropolitan Club, St. Ambrose, The Bombers and the Old Tracy Motors team under a new sponsor yet to be located.

Missing from the league, for the first time since it was formed two years ago, will be a team representing Tom Boyd and Tracy Motors along with three other stalwarts, St. Paul, St. Clare and Apaches.

A new division has been added to the league and will be known as the Junior division for boys 13 to 16 years old. Despite the fact only two of the seven teams entered, in this division, have sponsors, the division is ready to start. St. Paul and the Neighborhood Club Jets are the lucky squads to have a backer.

The Junior Division will play its games on Tuesday, Friday and Saturday afternoons and will play three times around. As in all divisions there will be a playoff tourney at the end of the season.

The Midget division for boys 8 to 12 years old will round out the Neighborhood Club basketball schedule. However, the Midgets will have to wait a while to start their season. The reason being the present baskets on the Neighborhood Club court are too high for the little guys. Athletic Director Bill Desrocher, under whose direction the league has been to date, and Club Director George Elworthy believe it would be detrimental to the younger boys' basketball form and development to make them use the full size court and regulation height baskets. They are trying to figure ways and means of lowering the baskets and shortening the court before getting the division underway.

There are enough boys to make up eight teams. Taking an average of eight boys to a team the Neighborhood Club will provide good, clean, wholesome competition for about 208 kids, young men and men during the cold winter months.

This year spectators and neighbors will get a break at the Neighborhood Club as far as a warm gymnasium is concerned, thanks to the warm hearted cooperation of the Rotary Club of Grosse Pointe. It was the Rotary Club that paid for all the work and materials to put the club's heating plant in shape last year.

If there is any Grosse Pointer interested in sponsoring one of the teams in the league contact the NEWS sports department and I will see that a team is provided for your backing. The actual cash outlay to any backer of a Minor, Junior or Midget division team can be as little as $35.00. That amount would buy a basketball and jerseys on which the sponsor's name or business could be placed. Where could anyone get advertising for the entire winter any cheaper than that?

The kids aren't interested in a complete uniform but would be well satisfied with just a jersey. A kid likes to be playing for a team that has jerseys all alike. If you want to boil it right down to bare facts the backer gets the ball back at the end of the season and can use it again the following year. So it would actually mean a cash outlay for the jerseys.

The kids want to play so let's play ball with 'em.

Devils' Best Manager Seeks Same Position at Princeton

Joe Fromm, Grosse Pointe High graduate of last February, is another local lad who is making good at college. He is at Princeton where he is a member of the student manager's squad in the football competition.

To many this may seem incidental, but the truth is it is a tough job to get to carry water for the boys in the molaskins. Joe says, "there are just a certain number of freshmen picked; I believe it is 20. They serve in various capacities for the Freshman and Junior Varsity teams. At the end of the year half of the student managers are dropped from the squad and the remaining half perform student manager duties the following year. Then half of these are dropped. It goes right down the line until a student manager has weathered the rough going until he has reached his senior year. At this point there are only three boys left in the long line of eliminations. The boy who in the coaches' estimation, has best proven his abilities is selected as Student Manager for the varsity and the other two become his assistants."

The prize the boys work for is a life time pass to all of Princeton's athletic contests. Joe Fromm will probably make the grade because he was the best student manager ever to graduate from Grosse Pointe.

House of David Team Returning

The world famous bearded House of David basketball team will return to the Neighborhood Club for its second appearance here in two years when it meets East Side Sports, 1949 Neighborhood Club champions, on Friday, December 2.

In the preliminary game at 7:30 p.m., St. Clare C.Y.O., North-east Division 1949 C.Y.O. champions, will meet Grosse Pointe Valet, runner-up in the Michigan A.A.U. tourney last year. Over the past six years the men from St. Joe have played 1,279 games. Only 78 of these were on the losing side of the ledger.

Funny Bobby Roth keeps the fans in hysterics with his continual clowning while giving a fine exhibition of clever ball handling. "Moose" Ludka plays center for the Hairsute cagers and is the tallest man in basketball. He towers 7 foot 3 inches, tips the scales at 265 pounds and wears boxes instead of shoes; at least that is what they look like. They are size 15.

St. Pauloscope

by Sally McKernan

November 15 marked another milestone along Joffy Senior Road. Immediately following the 8:30 Mass in St. Paul Church, the treasured class rings were placed upon the fingers of the graduates of '50 by Father Albert Melvin, pastor.

Following the ceremony, Father LaSalle Lenk explained the symbolism of the Dominican seal found on these golden rings.

Then back to school for the traditional Senior-Soph Brunch, honoring the graduating class. The menu, in the form of a miniature diploma, at each place read: fruit salad, rolls, and cocoa. Favors for the Seniors were tiny gold statues of St. Jude, their class patron.

The Seniors will always remember this event and appreciate the honor given them by their hosts, the Sophomore Class.

That wonderful meal did not conclude the festivities at St. Paul. November 15 was also the feast day of St. Albert. The grade school and the cultural arts departments of the high school presented a program in Father Melvin's honor that afternoon.

The newly organized baton twirlers were the featured attraction. Watch them—they'll spin their way to success.

The verse-speaking choir went all out on the "Go Down Death" number. The rhythmic and contrasts were superb! The junior verse choir department turned in a bang-up performance on "Foreboding" with very authentic sound effects.

The music studios, choral and band, gave their usual presentation. They deserve a big hand for their contribution to the program.

All those who attended the "Harvest of Knights" will assure you that it was one of the nicest dances of the year. The boys were especially vociferous in their praise since it was a girl-pay-all affair.

Couples enjoying this evening of reverse pay: Betty DiPaola and Mike Paris, Sue Sharrow and Al Klem, Barb Van Tiem and Dan Bix, Ellie Wade and Tom Baker, Margie Heit and Dick Mutschall, Joan Hock and Pat Champagne, Alice Weck and Dick Oliver, Sandra Smith and Dave Sherwood, Mary Ann Burlingame and Don Williams, Elaine Wujek and Marcel Laquerre.

Terry Jacobs and Bill Huette-man, Dorothy Fitzgerald and Jack Trompley, Mary Ann Doyle and Tom Wylie, Dorothy Marcereau and Bill Murphy, Marie Couvreur and Jerry Marshall, Connie Molitor and Jack Carroll, Joan Englehart and Bill Hanna, Jean Sharrow and Glenn Walters, Paula Wade and Don Bar-ringer, Pearl Frontera and Paul Weigl were also seen gliding to the music of Ray Oberschulte and the Commodores.

Still others included: Carol Staub and Jim McCarthy, Nancy Kottenstetti and John Huette-man, Mary Allor and David McCarron, Anne Martz and Hans von Bernthal, Kathleen Weot and Duane Brown, Donna Klein and Jim Lipsmeier, Janet Kingsbury and Jerry Lubeski, Connie Curran and Fred Maddock, Sally McCarron and Bill Allard.

The boys, of course, sported beautiful corsages prepared especially for the occasion by their dates. The prize for the most ingenious one was won by Joan Schummager. Her date, Chuck Wyllie, was adorned with Bente Claus, his sleigh, and reindeers, against a backing of cotton snow.

One of the highlights of the evening came with the singing of "Someday" by the Freshman Class' own double-twin quartet. Janet and Joan Hock and John and George Brady raked up plenty of cheer with this double-take duet.

Joan Haekenburger entertained her date, Bob Magee, Rose Ann Blondell and Bob Barrett, and Kay Andre and Ed Heck at her home after the dance. While discussing the events of the evening, they feasted on hot dogs, pepsi, potato chips, and cake.

Saturday evening, Nov. 19, Phyllis Van Becelesre played hostess to a few of her girl friends at her home. Carolyn Floer, Joan Schwartz, Judy Beaupre, and Audrey Haley were found trading bits of news about the coming holiday activities.

Although the Flyers did not get a bid for the city grid title game due to technicalities, several members of the team won city- and state-wide recognition. Tom Marchand, St. Paul end, was named in the all-city second division, first squad, while co-captains, Ed Quirk and Pete Belanger, won honorable mention. On the all state team, Tom Marehand and Pete Belanger likewise merited honorable mention.

Some Canasta fans were found over at Mary Ann Burlingame's home Friday evening, enjoying an evening of that currently popular South American version of gin rummy. Filling two tables of partnerships were: Pat Gant and Al Schweitzer, June Allard and Johnny Miller, Marilyn Smith and Bob Hollar, and Mary Ann and her date, Al Klem. Delicious refreshments were served later in the evening.

The television broadcast of the Army-Navy game Saturday afternoon attracted a few of Frances Schilling's girl friends. Watching the Blue and Whites accept defeat were: Rosemary Rohde, Janet Hock, Lynn Trudell, Marilyn Sutherland, Joan Hock, Julie

Illness Fatal To Henry Miller

Henry Miller, 748 Notre Dame, died November 16 at the Bon Secours Hospital after a long illness. He was born in Grosse Pointe Farms 76 years ago.

Mr. Miller was the husband of Nancy, deceased, and is survived by sons, Sydney and Clifford of Detroit, George of Mt. Clemens; daughters, Mrs. George Marson and Matilda Miller of Grosse Pointe; Mrs. George Rexon, Detroit and Mrs. William Peltier of Centerline, Michigan; a brother, George Miller of Detroit and sisters, Mrs. Joseph Marsack, Grosse Pointe and Mrs. Charlotte Trombly of St. Clair Shores.

He was survived by 16 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Funeral services were held November 19 at 1 p.m. from the Verheyden Funeral Home, 16300 Mack. Burial was at Gethsemane Cemetery.

Mrs. Rose Dolminck, a daughter with whom he lived at the Notre Dame address, died on October 14 last.

Scouts to Hold Crafts Exhibit

One of East Side Cub Scout- ing's biggest events of the year will take place in the Denby High School Gym this Saturday evening, December 3. It is the Second Annual Cub Scout Craft Exhibit which displays the ingenious handicraft of these active youngsters who keep their nimble fingers busy under expert adult supervision.

The purpose of the Craft Exhibit is not only to show what the Cubs have accomplished, but also to provide an exchange of ideas and methods to take back home for new and interesting projects. To this end, each exhibit shows the progressive steps in the manufacture of the finished article. Boys are actually at work on the items, with adult leaders ready and willing to pass on the "know-how" to any interested person.

Another TV party was in session Sunday evening at the Stuhldreher abode. Mary Anne welcomed Peggy Hyde, Mary Lou Vernier, Pat Gant, June Allard, Marilyn Smith, and Mary Ann Burlingame. While feasting on tiny turkey sandwiches, home-made cake, and coffee, the gala viewed an old Jack Benny film- ing of the "Medicine Man."

Although the Flyers did not get a bid for the city grid title game due to technicalities, several members of the team won city- and state-wide recognition. ### GUESS WHAT ! !

It took a smart dietetics graduate like MRS. HAROLD B. TYREE to teach us (when she sent in a recipe requested by Grosse Pointe News) that it is possible to use a symbol for "degrees" when typing a recipe! Like: 450°, 350°, 650°. For years we had been plodding along spelling it out!

There may not be many butlers left in Grosse Pointe but practically every other house has a Snow Man in the front yard these days!

A number of brides-elect have confided that the m-o-s-t appreciated shower in this atomic age is the Kitchen Shower. Pots and pans and recipes have come back into their own for most young newlyweds.

PILFERINGS

Somerset Maugham, whose "A Writer's Notebook" is now on the bookstands, hangs a symbol against "the evil eye" over the door of his Villa Mauresque on Cap Ferrat in Southern France.

Maugham reads a great deal, swims, walks and plays cards and is a man of tremendous self-discipline never deviating from his work habits. These are: to write three hours a day, usually in the morning after breakfast and before lunch.

He has a stammer and finds conversation strenuous but does not shun it.

He demands the most of himself and when he found that one window of his study on the roof of Villa Mauresque afforded too distracting a view of the Mediterranean he had it bricked up!

The "Wall Street Journal's" definition of the Junior League: The Heiressocracy.

Coming home from Sunday School two girls were discussing the morning's lesson.

"Do you believe there's a devil?" asked one.
"Of course not," said the other, "It's just like Santa Claus. It's only your father."

Perhaps, says Louis Untermeyer, the most incisive story about the progressive methods is the one about the school psychologist who was putting a young girl through a series of tests to determine her intellectual fitness.

"Now first," said the psychologist, "are you a boy or a girl?"

"A boy," said the girl promptly.

"Well," said the psychologist, taken aback, "that's interesting. And what are you going to be when you grow up?"

"A father," said the child.

"But, darling," interrupted her mother, "you know better than that. Why do you SAY such things to the doctor?"

"Because," said the child, in all seriousness, "if he's going to ask silly questions I'm going to give silly answers."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. CHARLES M. REIK JR. OF BARRINGTON ROAD.

—Picture by Fred Runnels

"You place it in an oven . . . about 350 degrees . . . and leave it for just a couple of minutes and it's as limp as a dishrag." Now all of this must sound like the most amazing recipe you've ever read about . . . but as a matter of fact, it was a sheet of clear lucite Mrs. Charles M. Reik Jr. was talking about us.

This pointer of interest and her husband, who stands in way of being one of the Pointe's leading hobbyists (we hope to tell you more about Mr. R in a later article) got to working with lucite one Christmas when they thought it would be fun to make the presents they gave.

They had heard about a course at Denby High School that offered instruction in plastics and after the first session all those mysterious tools in Mr. Reik's workshop at home were solved for the mistress of the house. She had a use for them now! And besides, they DID make those Christmas presents.

The plastic classes started in September that year and by Christmas the Reiks had a gleaming array of sculptured flower containers, ear rings holders, monogrammed letter openers, initialed windshield scrapers, lucite "tiles" to keep flower pots from ruining the finish of tables, etc. All in lucite. And there was a black lucite tray with round crystal handles.

SUZIE JOINS

Nor were Mr. and Mrs. Reik the only plastic enthusiasts in the household. Ten year old Suzie presented her classmates at Trombley School with plastic napkin rings attached to lucite bases. There were blue elephants, yellow bunnies, red roosters and black Scotties. And the four year old, Biffy Reik, was kibitzer, proud as anything of the napkin ring Suzie made for him!

Plastic comes in sheets (like window panes) and must be cut (with jeweler's saw) into squares or circles or whatever form of object is to be made. On both sides of the glass there is a paper covering, which peels off, and of course is much easier to draw lines on than the plastic itself would be.

Then those instructions at the beginning of this story about placing in 350 degrees oven are the next step. When the plastic is limp it is worked, with the hands, into the desired shapes. That is how Mrs. Reik did the flared edges on

The lucite tiles are cut with a saw and do not have to be heated. The monogram (which has been cut through that outer paper) is designed with a vibrotol (thanks to Mr. Reik's work shop, again). The buffing wheel comes into the picture if the edges of the article are to be as transparent as the rest of the lucite. They are left plain if you want the frosted effect Mrs. Reik prefers.

Lucite coasters, so modern and good looking, are also ridged in the center with the vibrotol so that the glass will adhere to the coaster better.

INTRODUCED HOBBIES

Mrs. Reik is modest about her own work in lucite (she is making a cribbage board at the moment) and gives her husband full credit for the great interest the family finds in working with their hands.

Inheriting this hobby from his father, Mr. Reik's workshop is a wonder to behold. There, now, is an old sewing machine which through sheer wizardry, it seems to us, he will transform into a potter's wheel for Mrs. Reik's ceramic work.
