Members of the Young Adult Group halted their party at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center last Saturday night long enough to make a surprise presentation, tangible evidence of their appreciation for all the events which have been staged for them at the Center since its opening. They donated a complete public address system to the Center. ALGER SHELLEN, president of the War Memorial Association, accepted the gift. ## Acknowledge More Gifts For Center

Directors Informed of Valuable Contributions to Pointe's War Memorial

Robert Tannahill, of the Arts Committee of the Memorial Center, reported to the Board of Directors meeting on February 6 several gifts that have recently been made to the Center. Among these are a set of two large 17th century tapestries from French and Company of New York. These are variously estimated to be worth from $3,500 to $5,000. Also received were two arm chairs, two tables, two pictures and a map from Dr. and Mrs. Wyman Barrett. Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Campbell have given three 17th century chairs. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Wicking have given a porch settee and Mrs. George Sumner Baker gave an arm chair.

Reports Knocking Down Stop Sign

May Rohn of 319 Rivard called at the Maumee police station at 5:40 p. m. on Jan. 30 and informed police that she had just had an accident around the corner for which she was personally responsible. In making a right turn into St. Clair from Maumee her hand had slipped on the steering wheel and her car had run over the curb at the northwest corner and knocked down the stop sign. She offered to assume all the damages and no action was taken by the police.

House Ransackers Remove Safe Weighing 350 Pounds

What apparently started as an ordinary house ransacking job and quickly moved up into the higher criminal brackets of safe robbing, happened at the Peter Carrado home at 765 Middlesex sometime during the night of February 3-4. Mr. and Mrs. Carrado are in Florida and their 19 year old son, in company with two or three boy friends. The boys were out on Friday evening and did not return to the house until about 5 a. m., when they found the house ransacked. The thieves had apparently started their ransacking on the second floor and had accumulated a generous pile of fur coats, fine

Memorial Center Directors Disclose Plan to Increase Its Permanent Endowment

Encouraged By Tremendous Success of Community Institution, Officials Will Conduct Mail Campaign in Spring to Get More Funds

The great success which the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center has become as the focal point of the Pointe's social, cultural and educational activities since its establishment only a few months ago, has encouraged the directors to believe the time has arrived to further establish its financial security.

The success which the center has already achieved has surpassed the dreams of its most enthusiastic supporters. Last week alone, which was not unusual, the Center was the meeting place of 19 different groups which were attended by 1,502 persons.

To Conduct Campaign
Plans are in the making to conduct a mail campaign some time this spring in which an opportunity will be given to those persons who did not subscribe to the original memorial library project to make contributions to the Memorial Center.

All of the money received from this source will be converted into the endowment fund. Following this, supporting memberships will be sought from others who will agree to contribute a certain sum each year to the operating support of the institution. These classifications will be graduated down to a figure so modest that any person in the community can afford to subscribe.

Three Years to Pay
The original subscriptions to the library project were solicited on the basis of three years for payment, if the subscribers desired that much time. These subscriptions have been very generously paid in and the time limit for all of them will expire on July 1 of this year. The vast majority of these subscriptions, all of which were original-

St. Clare School To Get Addition

The St. Clare de Montefalco parish, Very Rev. Philip L. Colgan, O.S.A., is making ready to build a four-room addition to the St. Clare School. It is expected to have the rooms ready for use by the opening of the school year next September. It will not be long either until this fast-growing parish begins the construction of a new church.

8000 Tulips To Bloom for War Heroes

Bulbs Imported From Holland Planted in Gardens at Pointe's Memorial Center

The War Memorial Gardens at the Memorial Center will blossom forth into a place of great beauty, come spring. These gardens are located on the westerly side of the property and are entered under an arched gate.

Vincent DePetris, the chairman of the Grounds and Garden Committee stated at the meeting of the directors last Monday night that he had planted more than 8,000 tulip bulbs in the garden last fall, all of which were choice blossoms imported from Holland. They include many of the most famous varieties from that land of tulips.

Sign Recommended
Mr. DePetris recommended at the meeting that a bronze sign be placed over the gate entrance to more distinctively locate the gardens for visitors. The matter was left in the hands of Mr. DePetris and Mr. Tannahill with power to act. The bronze plaque or sign would carry the legend "Memorial Gardens."

Mr. DePetris says the tulip beds would ordinarily be in full bloom around the middle of May, barring heavy storms or unseasonably hot weather, and should remain until Memorial Day when there will be special exercises at the Center in connection with the unveiling of the memorial tablets in the building.

Will Bloom For Years
The bulbs will continue to put forth their blossoms for a number of years and will make a more or less permanent contribution to the beauty of the grounds.

The blossoming time of the Memorial Gardens will coincide with the presence in Detroit of the National Convention of the Garden Clubs of America, which is to be held in the middle of May. The delegates will be especially invited to see the Center on this occasion, as well as view the many private gardens in Grosse Pointe which will be at their best at this time.

Lynn McNaughton Taken by Death

Just as the News was going to press on Wednesday word was received that Lynn McNaughton of Three Mile drive had died that morning following a long illness. Mr. McNaughton, a former vice-president of General Motors, had retired some time ago.

Pointe Seen Headed For Full-Fledged Measles Epidemic

Health Commissioner Davies Cites Figures Indicating Area Is In For Greatest Number of Cases In History of Local Medical Records

According to Dr. Thomas S. Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner, the Pointe is headed for a genuine epidemic of measles. He says that the measles record for Grosse Pointe shows 312 cases in 1946, only 30 cases in 1947, 375 cases in 1948 and only 74 again in 1949.

He says the disease ordinarily reaches its peak in the April-May period. This year there were 50 cases reported in January and thus far in February, 36 in the first six days, or at the rate of 180 cases for this month alone.

Significant Augur
A significant augur for the prevalence of the disease at this time is that in the month of January in 1948, the year of the greatest previous prevalence of the disease, there were only four cases, while in the same month this year, there were 50 cases.

Although the cases now are fairly severe, Dr. Davies says there is no cause for alarm. The mortality is practically nil except in the rare instances where it attacks a child already in a badly weakened condition from some previous severe illness or from a generally run down condition.

He estimates that probably 95 per cent of all adults have had measles in childhood. It is regarded as one of the inevitable afflictions of early life.

Using Globulin
The local health department has on hand a limited supply of "globulin," a blood concentrate which they get from the Red Cross blood bank. On the theory that all of these blood donors have had measles in infancy, a serum obtained from their blood will prevent measles even though it is injected as late as five days after exposure. If injected even later, it will minimize the attack.

A regrettable feature of the "globulin" injection is that it does not offer permanent immunization. It is effective for only two to three weeks. The incubation period of the measles germ is almost invariably 12 days. A physician can almost always count on the appearance of the disease 12 days after exposure.

Schools To Stay Open
The doctor says there is no occasion for any general alarm over the unusual incidence of the disease at this time. There is no danger of the closing of the schools because of it. Many parents take the view, and not without reason, that as long as the disease seems to be an inevitable accompaniment of childhood, it might as well be faced now as at any time.

There is every indication now however that the parents of Grosse Pointe are going to have to reckon with the greatest prevalence of the disease in our area within the range of its medical records.

Edison Donates Lights to Center

Through it's kindly interest in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, the Detroit Edison Company has presented the Center with six floor lights for use in the main lounge on the first floor.

Task of Checking Memorial Tablets Has Many Angles

The bronze tablets which are expected to be unveiled in the War Memorial Center on Memorial Day will contain the names of approximately 120 Pointe heroes killed in World War II, and some 3600 others who served in the armed forces. A report on progress being made in preparing the final lists was given at the meeting of the directors of the Center Monday night by Norbert Neff, chairman of the tablets committee. Some of the difficulties in verifying the names were also disclosed. One zealous veteran was taking no chances on having his name omitted. He was on the list four times, under various aliases. The list compiled for the temporary shrine is being thoroughly checked. Some 70 new names have been sent in for the permanent records. A total of 842 letters were sent out three weeks ago, for verification, to the addresses given on the original cards. Of these 402 have been returned undelivered. There have been 217 returned with proper verification. So far, 213 have not been heard from at all. Replies have been received from all over the world, including Australia, the Philippines and Hawaii. Shirley Warner, Mrs. Betty Galante, Barbara Clark and Marion Lenz, helping Mr. Neff, have made 2800 telephone calls during the verification process.

Good Backing For Proposed Issue Cited

Wendin Obtains Information for Enlightenment of Voters Who Must Pass on Plan

Dr. Ralph E. Badger, president of Investment Counsel, Inc., of Detroit, has just advised Sigurd R. Wendin, President of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, that the proposed Grosse Pointe School Bonds and the resulting financial condition of Grosse Pointe meet the tests of soundness and good investment required by his firm.

Dr. Badger gave his opinion as the result of a letter which Mr. Wendin sent him on January 25 asking for his opinion so the "people of the Grosse Pointe District will be able to compare the terms of our proposed bond issue with the standards of sound finance with which your name and reputation have always been associated." Full text of Mr. Wendin's letter is quoted further on in this report.

Six Requirements
In answer to Wendin's letter Badger pointed out six requirements which he thought have to

Absentee Voters

Persons who will be out of town on the day of the special school election February 24, 1950, and who wish to cast their vote by use of an absentee ballot, must make application for such ballot on or before Saturday, February 18. In order for a vote to be included in the returns, completed ballots must be returned to the Board of Education Offices by 8 p.m. Friday, February 24, 1950.

be met if the proposed Grosse Pointe School bonds would be healthy and sound for the Grosse Pointe community. The proposed bonds and resulting financial condition met all these requirements. They were:

1. The ratio of school district debt to total assessed valuation in a community like Grosse Pointe should not exceed 5%. Including the proposed new school bonds, this ratio in Grosse Pointe would only be 3.25%.
2. The overlapping debt of a community such as Grosse Pointe—in other words all its municipal debt—should not exceed 8% of total assessed valuation. Including the proposed new school bonds, this would be only 6.74% in Grosse Pointe.
3. Per capita overlapping debt in communities such as Grosse Pointe should not exceed $250 to $400. With the proposed bond issue, per capita overlapping debt in Grosse Pointe would be only $187.54.
4. Because of provisions of Michigan law, mandatory levies to cover municipal bond issues should be on the basis of 75% collection of taxes. The proposed Grosse Pointe School Bonds have been set on this basis. However, if tax collections stay as they have for some time in Grosse Pointe, the bonds will be paid off in 10 to 12 years instead of 20.
5. Tax collection history in a community like Grosse Pointe should be 95% to 100%. The tax collection history of this area during the last five years shows an average of 96.12% of taxes collected in the year levied.
6. A community should have a clear record of meeting debt service without default—and this Grosse Pointe has.

Very Young Beer Imbibers Caught

Patrolman Verbache and Cools of the Park Police while cruising at 11:42 p.m. on Feb. 8, found very young boys indulging in a beer drinking bout in the rear of the St. Ambrose school.

They took them into police headquarters for investigation of liquor law violation and there discovered that the actual beer drinking had taken place just across the line in Detroit.

The matter was referred to the Detroit police with information.

For Benefit of Citizens

"The School Board of Grosse Pointe," Mr. Wendin said, "thought that citizens of the area would be interested in what a completely independent and highly reputable investment counsel thought of the proposed bond issue in so far as fundamentals were concerned. We chose Ralph Badger because of his experience and reputation and following is our exchange of correspondence. The bracketed sections in Dr. Badger's letter are mine." "Dear Doctor Badger: "On Friday, February 24, there will be a special Grosse Pointe School District election involving the issuance of bonds to provide for the construction of immediately pressing class room, facilities. The Board of Education is in the process of presenting facts and figures to the public, but is not in an independent position to inform the voters regarding the sound credit standards of municipal financing, with special emphasis on Michigan School District financing.

"In view of your wide experience and recognition as an expert in the fields of investment and municipal finance, we would appreciate receiving your comments regarding the various financial factors which you believe should be considered in relation to Michigan School Bonds.

"We feel the people of the district will then be in a position to intelligently compare the terms of the proposed bond issue with those standards of sound finance with which your name and reputation have always been associated."

In answer to this letter Dr. Badger wrote:

"Dear Mr. Wendin:
"In reply to your letter of January 25, in which you asked me to discuss specifically the requirements as to quality and standards which have been developed by our organization in reference to municipal bonds, and particularly in reference to Michigan School District Bonds, in order that such bonds be considered high-grade, I am pleased to give you the following comments:

"Needless to say our organization fully appreciates the requirements of Michigan communities for adequate school facilities and heartily endorses the use of municipal credit for this purpose.

"In general, we do not favor the restriction of taxing power for the purpose of meeting debt service, regardless of the purpose for which funds have been borrowed. We recognize, however, that the Michigan statutes, as they now stand, require certain limitations in respect to taxing power for the purpose of servicing school district issues. In view of the restriction, we feel that somewhat greater safeguards must surround the issuance of bonds of this type.

"In general, we have felt that a ratio of direct debt to assessed value should not exceed 5% and that the ratio of overlapping debt to assessed value should not exceed 8% for a high type of residential community in Michigan (6.74 in Grosse Pointe with proposed new bonds included). Some modification is required where the assessed value is below actual value.

"We have also generally felt that overlapping debt should not exceed a limit of $125 per capita. Substantial upward variation in this limit can be made, however, in the case of communities which are typically high-class residential communities and where the average wealth is comparatively high. For example, in certain residential areas surrounding New York City, where there is relatively high average per capita wealth, per capita debt figures run as high as $250 to $400, and yet the credit is acceptable. Since the Grosse Pointe area is well above the average, it compares with these New York communities (with proposed bond issue Grosse Pointe per capita debt would be $187.54).

"It is also our opinion that the community should have a good record of tax collection, i. e., under normal conditions the tax collections should run between 95% to 100% during the year of levy (Grosse Pointe has an average of 96.12% during last five years).

"As a further safeguard, we prefer communities which have had a clear record of meeting debt service without default.

"In view of the limited tax features involved in Michigan School District Bonds, we believe that the issuing communities should afford all possible protection to the bondholder under the existing statutes. This, in our opinion, would require the community, as a part of the bond contract, to agree to a mandatory levy throughout the life of the bond, sufficient to meet bond interest with tax collections as low as 75% (the proposed new bond issue conforms to this).

"We believe that it is in the interest of the taxpayers of issuing communities to afford all of the protection possible in respect to the bonds which the community issues. Where these added elements of protection are provided for, the credit rating of the bond is enhanced and the interest cost substantially lowered, a fact, of course, which results in a material saving to the taxpayers of the community."

To Hold Classes At New Church
Today, and Thursday, February 16, from 4 to 4:45 p. m., a training class will be held at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, 240 Chalfonte at Lothrop, to instruct members in the proper use of the audio-visual equipment and the new public address system owned by the organization. The public address and a three-speed record player was a recent gift to the church by the junior and senior Hi youth groups.

According to a recent survey made by the Detroit Council of Churches, this church has one of the finest audio-visual libraries of any church in metropolitan Detroit. Robert Morgan of Lakeland avenue will be in charge of the class.

Truck, Car Crash On Merriweather
Damage estimated at $130 was done when a panel truck and a passenger car collided in front of 286 Merriweather road on the afternoon of Feb. 3.

Norman Willard, of 18418 Kelly road, driver of the truck, was making a right turn when the truck was struck by a Ford being driven by Gerald Caffrey of 20513 Moross road.

The truck took the worst beating, suffering damage estimated at $100.

They then got away as fast as possible with the safe and the other articles they had accumulated on the first floor.

The Park police believe the robberies were the work of the same gang. Their theory is that the Blauman home was visited first and after they got to work at the Carrado home their interest in ordinary items of value faded when they found the safe, which promised more valuable loot. They then got away as fast as possible with the safe and the other articles they had accumulated on the first floor.

of the institution as to assure its operation on a safe and enduring basis.

Obtains Pledges
To back this idea he personally obtained pledges from a number of the wealthier citizens of the community to give a specified sum each year for ten years to assist in underwriting its operation during the years of its establishment in a fixed position in the community. It was this policy which largely enabled the institution to convert such a substantial proportion of the original subscriptions into permanent endowment.

The present opinion of the directors is that the endowment fund should be built up to yield an assured income of at least $10,000 annually.

This with the income of conservatively expected from its supporting membership will assure the minimum dependable income which the directors desire to provide for present estimated costs of operation. This amount is not stated but is believed to be $25,000 to $30,000 annually.

Want Annual Gifts
The plan now, as always, is to provide a setup which will enable every man, woman and child to make an annual contribution to the Center as truly representative of all of the people of the community.

The theory of the directors is that to serve its intended purpose in Grosse Pointe the Center should be so operated as to appeal to every person living here.

Burglars Visit Park Residence
A breaking and entry case was reported at 9:02 p.m. Feb. 3 at the home of L. W. Blauman at 1153 Devonshire.

Entrance was gained by breaking a small pane of glass in the front door. Various household articles were taken including silverware of an undetermined value.

War Memorial Board Hears Argument for School Bonds

Sigurd Wendin Discusses Plans for Additional Facilities at Meeting of Directors of Center; Official Action Withheld

Sigurd Wendin, President of the Board of Education, appeared before the directors of the Memorial Center on Feb. 6 to urge the favorable consideration by that body of the proposed school bond issue.

The directors felt they had no power to take any action which might appear as committing the whole Memorial Association membership on this question, but the large majority of the directors individually expressed themselves favorably on the issue.

Stripped to Necessities

Mr. Wendin reiterated his argument that this project had been stripped down to bare necessities. The public library and enlarged gymnasium and auditorium facilities at the High School had been dropped, largely with the good will of those citizens who are particularly concerned with these projects, and the matter is now going before the people on the bare necessities basis for more room, he declared.

He said that the building needs were predicted on the lives of children in actual being. He mentioned that since 1940 the number of school children living north of Moran road had increased 1,000. During this time only 13 new school rooms had been added in that region.

Calculating 30 pupils to a room, which is the number on which the Board of Education is reckoning its building program, there should have been 35 rooms added in this area.

He said that regardless of the outcome of the election on February 24 it would be necessary to go on a part time basis for several of the rooms in that region next September. The new school rooms asked for could not be provided, even though authorized, before that date.

Bus Company Handicapped
The bus company, despite its whole hearted cooperation in the transportation of the children, could not provide school service without disrupting its present regular transportation service, he said.

Federal Grand Jurors' Group to Hold Meeting

The Federal Grand Jurors' Association for the Eastern District of Michigan will hold its monthly meeting on Monday, February 13, at the G.A.R. Recreation Center, 1942 Grand River avenue, at 7:30 p.m.

Robert C. Childs, connected with the Wayne University Law School, will be the speaker. Mr. Childs' topics will be: "Search and Illegal Seizure" and "Wire Tapping."

Committee for Vernier P.T.A. Party

Completing plans for the Valentine Square Dance to be held at Detroit University School on Feb. 14 by the Vernier School P.T.A., are, left to right:—MRS. HOWARD R. DEVLIEG, general chairman; MRS. DONALD S. CRAMPTON and MRS. WILMER A. KROGH, refreshments chairmen; and MRS. ALBERT G. FROST, ticket chairman. Tickets may be obtained by calling TUxedo 5-8726.

Speeder Nabbed In Wild Chase

While cruising at 2:15 a.m. on Feb. 3, Park Patrolman Arthur Boone and A. Martin observed a car travelling south on Whittier near Charlevoix at a high rate of speed, and in the wrong direction. Whittier is a one way street, north-bound.

They took after it and chased it across Vernor Highway, Kercheval, St. Paul and into Jefferson where it turned west, then again north on Bedford where the driver tried to hide in a private driveway.

The driver of the car was James L. Noll, aged 19, of 865 Emerson, Detroit. With him were three other boys of about the same age, who after questioning at headquarters were released by Sergeant Mead.

The next morning in police court Judge Belanger fined Noll $35 and revoked his license for six months.

Police Ground Pole Climbers

Several youngsters draped themselves on the Edison light pole in the 1300 block of Bedford on Monday afternoon, Jan. 30, immediately after school hours. The neighbors were afraid they might fall and hurt themselves and called the police.

The boys had not yet reached the wires overhead but were making good progress in that direction when the police yanked them down.

Screams Scare Purse Snatcher

The screams of his intended victim scared away a would-be purse snatcher operating in the Farms on the morning of Feb. 6. Mrs. Lillie Schuschar of 409 Lothrop road, reported to the police that she was waiting for a bus at Cloverly and Chalfonte when the attempted snatch took place. A young man approached her and looking her straight in the face, made a grab for her pocketbook. She screamed and he ran down the street.

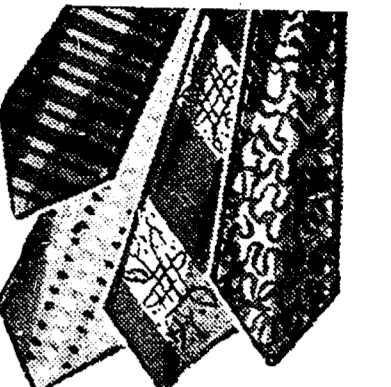

Mrs. Schuschar went into the Edwin Goshko residence at 404 Cloverly from where the Farms police were notified. They were unable to find any trace of the youth. He was described as being about five feet 10 inches tall, with black hair and brown eyes. He was wearing a light tan gabardine jacket and dark trousers.

Burglars Clean Out New Kitchen

Mrs. Worman Rogers, owner of a new home about completed at 1205 Cadieux, reported to the police at 12:38 a.m. on Feb. 3, that she had just gone into the house and found a number of kitchen accessories had been stolen, including a brand new dishwasher. The value of the articles taken amounted to over $100.

High School Age Pointers Invited to Party at Center

By John Drake

One of the most important functions of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center is to introduce social contacts among students of the several Pointe high schools.

Since there are few community or inter-school get-togethers (like the Halloween party), the Center has come to be the leader in all-Pointe dances and parties.

The current expression of the efforts of the Center is "Cupid's Open House," being held next Saturday evening, February 11, from 8:30 till midnight. The party is sponsored by the Youth Advisory Council of the Memorial Board.

"Cupid's Open House" will be the major Pointe party of the Valentine week-end. Since it is open to teenagers from all the Pointe high schools—8th through 12th grades—it is a first-class opportunity for Pointe youth to meet their neighbors from the near-by schools while enjoying the games, entertainment, and refreshments offered by the Center. Admission is only 60c per person.

The party is designed as a "no-date" affair (although dates are certainly permitted), so that the young people will have even more freedom in mixing and meeting people from other schools.

Square dancing from 8:30 to 10:30 will be one of the major attractions of the evening. It's easily learned with the help of the skillful callers who will direct the dancing, and can be greatly enjoyed even by a group of people who have never met before.

Other sources of enjoyment such as card playing, ping-pong, and "city-styled" dancing will provide a full evening for the Pointe youth who have discovered the fun to be had at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Society is built upon trust, and trust upon confidence in one another's integrity.

Dads Star in Singing Roles As Sons Get Scout Awards

In an impressive ceremony during the annual Blue and Gold banquet of Cub Pack 152 at Christ Church Monday February 6 six Cubs received their "Webeles" the highest award in Cub Scouting. The boys, Dwight Watkins, Tom Perry, Peter Wells, Jack Lyons, Donald Worley and David Hinchman were accompanied to the stage by their beaming fathers to accept their "Webeles" badge and their silver arrows from Cubmaster Colton Park in a candlelight ceremony.

The "Webeles" is awarded to those Cubs who have completed all the requirements for the Wolf, Bear and Lion badges and who have reached the age of 11 years. At this time the boys step from Cub Scouting into Boy Scouting.

No one seemed to know which annual Blue and Gold banquet this one was but Cubmaster Park said "it's traditional and has been going on for years."

The gala evening was started off by a bountiful roast beef dinner prepared by the food committee of Messdames Augustus Ledyard, general chairman, Ross Wilkins, Frank Taylor, William Swartz, George Black, Simpton Leonard and Fred Hart.

The dinners were served by 24 mothers, two from each Den who acted as waitresses.

Rev. J. Clemens Kolb spoke the blessing. Following the dinner each Den went to the stage in turn to receive various awards they had earned during the past month.

The highlight of the entertainment program was singing by the Grunions, headed by Reuben Waterman.

The Grunions brought down the house. The Cubs would have had them sing all night but the time was getting late for a school night.

Messrs Harold Spence, George Miller, Dick Spencer, Alan Bodycombe, George Wilson, Reuben Waterman, Grant Armstrong, Charles Parcells, Bill Bliss, Tom Tilley and Bill Gard are the members of the Grunions, announced by master of ceremonies George M. Blask, Jr., as an octet. One of the Grunions remarked "this is the biggest octet you ever saw" as he was taking his place on the stage.

Jefferson Avenue Pavement

The top flight planners for the Detroit metropolitan area, with their eyes glued principally on expressways and rapid transit, have announced that the Grosse Pointe area will not come in for any attention for at least another fifteen years. This is a neglect for which the people of Grosse Pointe should give sincere thanks.

What we do want, however, is a decent well paved highway on Jefferson avenue. This is a county road which has been maintained in name only. It is used not only by Grosse Pointe people but by vast numbers of business concerns in Detroit and by many residents in St. Clair Shores whose business takes them daily into Detroit. They are as much a part of the business life of Wayne county as though they were residents of it.

The people of Grosse Pointe pay enough county tax to amply justify their demand that their principal highway leading into Detroit be a smooth surfaced, easy-riding highway.

The roadway of Jefferson avenue, which averages in the Pointe about 46 feet, is plenty wide enough and the suggestion to widen it at the cost of removing the beautiful trees which line its curb will get little support here. There is even less support for the suggestion that an expressway should be built across the lovely lakefront.

Grosse Pointe has been developed as a strictly residential community and it is the fixed purpose of its people, whether rich or poor, to keep it so. Mere growth, as commonly interpreted, has no allure for them. It wants nothing more than to be and remain an attractive place in which to build homes and enjoy its home life in the best American tradition.

But it is entitled to have the County, of which it is a part, to which it makes vast tax contributions and which claims ownership and responsibility over two or three of its principal thoroughfares, keep those highways in the best condition that modern road engineering can devise.

Coal Strike Issue

The outcome of the coal strike is going to determine much more than whether a labor union shall have its way or a labor leader shall achieve a great personal victory.

It is going to determine whether we have a central government in this country with the will and ability to secure the common welfare. It will also probably determine whether we have large numbers of working men in this country who place union above country; temporary personal advantage above the long time welfare of all.

There will be no room for choice of sympathy with the average man when the issue is drawn between the apparent advantage obtained by a single group of workmen as against the imminent peril of all.

Power is the backbone of the economic life of a nation. When the source of that power is choked off a peril greater than that of any mere war is threatened. It is a time for high thinking and courage as real as ever displayed on any battlefield.

Mr. Lewis and his followers should not fear to have their cause studied by a fair minded commission for a reasonable time to learn the facts. This is all the President has asked and in answering this Mr. Lewis has only given an equivocal answer.

The Electoral College Divvy

The proposal to practically abandon the mechanics of the Electoral College in the choosing of a President by a constitutional amendment is one that needs to be studied with much thought.

The proposal of course is to make the electoral vote more nearly representative of the popular vote by providing for its division in proportion to the popular vote cast in each state.

It has happened only a few times in our history when the winner in the electoral college has failed to get also the majority or plurality of the popular vote.

The new proposal might work fairly satisfactorily in an election with only two major candidates in the field but the confusion that would result from the presence of four or five candidates, each receiving a substantial vote in many states, beggars description.

The popular will will be fairly well recorded by permitting the present system to continue. A straight out fight for the electoral vote in toto in each state has worked reasonably well. If we multiply the contests in each by making every state a battleground for getting as much of the popular vote as possible to be translated into split-up votes in the so-called college, the confusion and opportunities for manipulation and maneuver would be multiplied indefinitely.

Voices in Anger

It is a timely moment for the people of this country to recall and restudy the words of the late Elihu Root. Mr. Root, who was one of the ablest statesmen in both the domestic and foreign field that this nation ever produced, was discussing the subject of the cause and origin of wars.

He said much of the bloody holocaust which modern war has become finds one of its greatest sources in the extremely dangerous habit of people calling in anger across Earth's broad expanses to each other.

The world was suffering from that bad habit in his day as it is at present and has been since time began. The instantaneous communication of thought which electricity gave to the world has made the practice worse and the habit more dangerous.

When Secretary of Defense Johnson told a company of his old school friends of the University of Virginia the other day that America's armed might will "lick hell" out of Joe Stalin if he starts anything he was doing the cause of peace a distinct disservice. Such talk never won friends among any people and certainly not among those peoples to whom it is directed. It is inexcusably provocative.

If the American public mind has reached such a state of jitters that it needs to be pepped up by such bucolic bragadocio then American courage has reached a low ebb indeed.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"The smallest effort is not lost, Each wavelet on the ocean tost Aids in the ebb-tide or the flow; Each raindrop makes some floweret blow; Each struggle lessens human woe." (Charles Mackay)

Each dumb-bell story seems to bring on another. Last week we wrote about the bride who thought the almond-eyed HORSE was born in Japan . . . and this week, we receive a telephone call from a cook who sez the following incident took place in a Grosse Pointe home where she once worked. Our informant's employers were a young married couple from the East. On the occasion of their first dinner party, the bonnie bride decided to serve roast chicken. She was being very careful about everything ordered for the big evening and as the supplies arrived from the market, she examined each item with meticulous attention.

When the chickens put in their appearance, "Bridie" undid the package and, letting out a squeal, rushed to the kitchen phone to call the butcher. When she got him on the phone, this is what the cook overheard: "Mr. Porkus, WHAT have you done with the chickens I ordered? They look fine . . . BUT they each have only TWO LEGS!"

Horning in on a strictly male conversation at a dinner party the other night, we got an earful of what some men think of the expense of debuts! One father was bemoaning the fact that he had no sooner paid the bills for his daughter's debut, when she announced her engagement (another party), then the wedding, equally as expensive as the debut. One of the male guests (who hasn't any daughters) offered a solution which was snapped up like mad by the other fathers of girls. What he said, in short, was this: Nowadays, "coming out" isn't what it meant in the olden days. Dear young Bridget has already "been out," so to speak; she's had dates and all her parents' friends already KNOW her; and nine times out of ten, she even has a steady beau who has an engagement ring in mind if not already in a vault, just waiting. So what? sez he. The answer is obvious and reasonable. "Bring her out at a luncheon; announce her engagement at a cocktail party the same day and have the wedding at dinner time! That way the same clothes, decorations, flowers and whatall could be used and one present from each guest would suffice. Everyone would be happy . . . except maybe the "Deb" . . . the florists . . . the coutouriers . . . the wine merchants . . . the caterers . . . ad infinitum!"

As singers and disc jockeys so often say when they want to do a number THEY like . . . "We have had so many requests for" . . . etc., etc. . . we now say we have had many requests from the gals to do more of the "you're over the hill WHEEN" suggestions. Sooooo, for those of you who aren't sure you ARE over the hill (according to our last statistics), we hereby submit another list for you to check with. You're over the hill when:

- 1. Women who don't look any more than five or six years younger than you . . . stand up when you enter a room!
2. When your doctor advises you to take a walk AFTER your lunch instead of before.
3. Your interest centers around the food ads and recipes in the magazines . . . instead of on the latest styles as pictured by the "tooth-pick parade of models."
4. You're looking at something along with a number of spectators . . . all standing . . . and some young man brings up a chair and asks if you don't want to sit down!
5. For the first time in your life you begin to read every word of the hair-dye ads.
6. Ditto the ads for wrinkle creams, chin straps, eye pads and "simple exercises."
7. You talk yourself into the fact that low-heels are more "sensible."

Your old beau, whom you haven't seen in twenty years, is passing through town and wants to stop in to say hello . . . and you tell him you COULDN'T BE SORRIER, but you are just rushing to catch a train for Florida!

Some years ago a friend of ours told us that when she and her husband unpacked in a drawing room on a train on their honeymoon, rice from their suitcases fell all over the room and the congenial porter swept it up, placed it carefully in a box and asked if he could have it. The bride said of course he could, but WHY did he want it. He explained that he "ported" for lots of newly married folks . . . and he always took the rice home to his wife . . . to be cooked and eaten!

We thought it was pretty funny until we heard this one just the other day. A couple of the local boys who were whooping it up in a drawing room on their way East, dropped and busted a full bottle of Scotch in the washroom sink. The stopper was closed at the time, so the sink was full of Scotch and broken glass. Afraid to pull the stopper for fear of bolixing up the plumbing with bits of glass, they called the porter to take care of it. He took one look, then dashed out . . . returning in a few minutes with an empty bottle. He then proceeded to dip a towel in the mess and empty it out each time into the empty bottle. When our heroes asked why he was doing it for the "hard way" . . . he replied that he was saving it for them to drink! Horrified, the gents exclaimed in unison: "DRINK? You mean you think we'd DRINK that after it's been in that sink?"

The indignant porter drew himself up to full height and said, "Gentlemen, I cleaned this sink this morning, MYSELF. If you don't wish this here good liquor, I will dispose of it myself . . . with your permission!"

It is too much the tactic of the school bully of an earlier day who used to walk around with a chip on his shoulder daring anyone to knock it off. Before long some boy was goaded into knocking it off and the fight was on.

This is not to argue that America should neglect its defense. On the contrary this nation should make every provision for power in being so that it can act in its defense instantly and effectively, but in the name of common sense, good judgment and for the peace of the world, not flaunt it as the bull fighter does his red rag.

We will never win the good will of the Russian people or of any other people by boasting that we are able and ready to knock their block off if they dare to make a gesture displeasing to us.

Bergman's Future

Of deeper concern to the moral viewpoint of the American people than the mere question of Ingrid Bergman's baby is the reception which this artist's pictures will get from American audiences in the future.

Despite the easy going attitude which many persons in this country take of moral delinquency there is a deep underlying strata of respect for decency which lays down the dictum to its entertainers, of so far and no farther, and those who flaunt their disregard of this sentiment do so at the peril of their careers.

Already many small picture houses through the country have announced that Bergman pictures will not again be shown in their places. What the box office nerves communicate to the dictators of the movie industry in Hollywood will soon appear.

Many will recall the "unfortunate" sex experience of Fatty Arbuckle a generation ago. This funny fat man's career collapsed like a punctured balloon when it ran up against the basic moral regard of the American people.

What Goes on at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

We question whether any job affords more opportunities for a chuckle than does that of the librarian. Tracking down the correct title from the version given us over the desk makes an amusing spot in the work day. These requests come to us frequently from youngsters sent by their elders for a specific title. Almost anything can happen to a title from the time they first hear it and the time it is delivered to us at the library.

Here are a few over which we have chuckled. "Nichols and Nichols' Baby"—we didn't have to do much brain work on that to know that it was Dickens' Nicholas Nickleby. However, "Forty Ways to Amuse a Dog" almost proved our downfall until Mrs. Boothe came up with the winner, "The Forty Days of Musa Dagh." "Christ in Cement" of course was "Christ in Concrete." Then there is the old standby that we get in countless guises, "Les Miserables." This has been everything from "Feeling Better to 'Lame as a Robin.'"

Yes, the periodicals in the library may be circulated! We shout this from the housetops because only yesterday a patron remarked that she had been borrowing books for several years and never realized that the magazines could be taken out as well. Current issues are kept for use in the library. The others circulate for seven days with the exception of children's magazines, which may be kept for the two week period. During 1949, almost 14,000 magazines were borrowed from the library.

The Grosse Pointe Public Library subscribes to about a hundred magazines including such as the following: Fortune, Time, United States News, United Nations Bulletin, and Foreign Affairs to keep you abreast of the times; a representative number of periodicals of interest to homemakers: House Beautiful, Better Homes and Gardens, Parents' Magazine, Good Housekeeping and others.

Fashions and the arts have their innings too with Vogue, Harper's Bazaar, Theatre Arts, Etude, the American Artist and more. Holiday, Travel, the unchanging National Geographic, are popular with both actual and armchair travelers. "Thoughtful readers enjoy the Atlantic Monthly, Christian Century, the Saturday Review of Literature and lest we take ourselves too seriously, the incomparable New Yorker.

The judicious buyer seeks advice from Consumers' Research or a similar magazine before making a purchase of any importance. Science News Letter, Science Digest, Scientific American and Science Illustrated interest the scientifically minded, while hobbyists look for Yachting, Antiques, Hobbies and Modern Photography.

Vassar's Dean Pointe Visitor

President of the Detroit Vassar Club, Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard, of Provençal road, had as her house guest last Monday and Tuesday, Dean Marion Tait, of Vassar College, who arrived in town Monday morning on her first visit to Detroit since her appointment as Dean of Vassar in July, 1948. Miss Tait was entertained by the Detroit Vassar Club at luncheon at the Womens' City Club on Monday. Following the luncheon, she spoke on the subject, "Contemporary Vassar."

Photographing The Stomach

By FRED M. KOPF, R. Ph.

One of the many modern aids used in diagnosis of disease is an instrument that can be called a stomach camera. It is a tube two inches long and less than a half inch in diameter, having an upper and lower photographing unit with a small lamp between.

The stomach camera is taken into the stomach just as any other tube and with its tiny eye completely photographs the lining and any defects thereon. The complete process after the camera is in place takes about half a minute.

This is but one of the many means doctors can employ to promptly locate and treat illness. Call upon a reliable druggist for medicine your doctor advises.

This is the 27th of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

To the Editor

January 31, 1950

Dear Editor: I noted with a great deal of pride and interest that The Michigan Press Association considers The Grosse Pointe News the third best publication in the metropolitan-urban districts in Michigan and I wish to express my hearty congratulations on this achievement.

However, not having read the other two publications, I am wondering what they have that the Grosse Pointe News hasn't.

Perhaps if the Mistress Pryor would include her likeness above her column as many other columnists do, the Grosse Pointe News might head the list.

It surely well deserves it. Best wishes from a very ardent admirer of your paper.

Very cordially yours, A Subscriber.

Schools Offering Bridge Lessons

Contract Bridge instruction for beginners and advanced students will start at the Grosse Pointe High School early in February. The ten weeks courses, open to men and women, will include: hand valuation, defensive bidding and play; leads, signals, discards and general playing of difficult hands.

The Point Count system will be taught. It is the simplest, easiest and quickest way to learn contract bridge. Anyone familiar with the honor count system will find it very easy to adapt to the point count system. Mrs. Geri Spencer will be the instructor. Mrs. Spencer is an experienced teacher and in addition participates in many bridge tournaments.

For reservations call the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, TU. 5-2000, Extension 25.

Natalia Bohm Weds Walter M. Dailey, Jr.

Carrying a bouquet of green orchids and white carnations, Esther Natalia Bohm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Williams Bohm of Berkshire Road, was married to Walter Marvin Dailey, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dailey of Hillcrest Road. The afternoon service was held at Hope Evangelical Lutheran Church on February 4. Rev. Paul Heyn, uncle of the bride officiated at the ceremony.

The bride wore a period satin gown with leg of mutton sleeves, full skirt and a long train. The bodice of the dress was covered with tiny seed pearls. Her headpiece was a Juliette cap with a cathedral length illusion veil. The bride's sister, Mrs. Howard Neale, acted as matron of honor. She was attired in a pink taffeta gown with brief cap sleeves and a full skirt over a hoop. Her headpiece was a circle of small blue carnations and she carried carnations and ivy.

The bridesmaids, Mrs. Harold Bohm, sister-in-law of the bride, and Mrs. Samuel C. Laux, wore blue taffeta gowns identical to that of the matron of honor. They carried pink carnation and ivy bouquets.

Raymond P. Bandemere acted as best man while Samuel C. Laux, Richard Taylor, Robert E. Curtis Jr. and Robert W. Tomb were ushers.

For the wedding Mrs. Louis Bohm wore a brown lace gown and a dusty pink net hat trimmed with pink roses. She wore green orchids. Mrs. Walter Dailey chose a mauve pink lace dress with a chiffon skirt. Her hat was of mauve chiffon with tiny roses. She wore white orchids.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. For her going away outfit the new Mrs. Bohm chose a honey beige suit with brown accessories.

Newcomers Club Giving Dinner

On Friday, February 10, the Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club will gather for another party arranged by Helen Mensing, social chairman.

Dinner is to be held at 7:30 in the Village Manor, followed by Bridge and Canasta.

The dinner will be preceded by cocktail parties at the homes of Thomas Blackwood of Grosse Pointe Woods, George Mensing of Grosse Pointe Farms, and Robert Warmbold of Grosse Pointe Park.

The group is looking forward to welcoming the following new members: Mr. and Mrs. Donald Coombe, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Halford, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Kelble and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Wilson.

Recent additions to the Grosse Pointe Community may contact Mr. and Mrs. Clare Goodsell concerning activities of the organization at TU. 1-2206.

Town Hall Books Designer of Hats

Robert Dudley, the New York designer who has created hats and other types of head gear for for Mary Martin and various Broadway stars, has announced that he will discuss "Getting a Head Start" with a Detroit Town Hall audience at 11 a.m., Wednesday, February 15, in Fisher Theatre.

To illustrate his point that "A hat should look as though it was made specifically for the person who is wearing it," Dudley will fashion a hat during his lecture, using a Town Hall member as model.

Recently, Mr. Dudley presented his special display of new hats in the London salon of Hugh Beresford of Berkeley Square. The designer's clientele includes some of the smartest members of stage, screen, and society. Broadway shows he has hatted include "Claudia," and "Take a Chance," Mary Martin wearing the famous Dudley fur snood in the latter when she sang "My Heart Belongs to Daddy."

Woods Church Women to Meet

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Women's Association has invited the men of the church to be their guests at an evening meeting on Tuesday, February 14, at 8 p. m. The meeting will be held in the new church at 240 Chalfonte at Lothrop.

The Rev. Joseph Q. Mayne will be the evening speaker. Mr. Mayne, executive secretary of the Detroit Round Table, vice-president of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, was a delegate to the International Council of Christian and Jews in July 1948 held in Fribourg, Switzerland. During his three months spent in Europe Mr. Mayne met with leaders and educators in England, Wales, Scotland, Ireland, France, Italy, Belgium, Switzerland, Holland and Luxembourg.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerborn

We hope there's a wonderful crowd from all the Pointes at the Fourth Annual Folk Ball this Saturday evening in Masonic Temple . . .

(It's sponsored by International Institute . . . chair-manned by Mrs. Stuart A. Fraser . . . with Mrs. Frederick C. Ford as vice-chairman) . . .

For all of those who've been regarding the social scene with a slight yawn and jaded eye . . . here is something different . . .

A great ballroom filled with guests from all over the world . . . guests that evening . . . but in reality . . . neighbors . . . for these people have chosen Detroit as their new home . . .

And because the Pointe and Pointers enjoy positions of prominence . . . it is so important that these new neighbors know our welcome, too, this Saturday evening . . .

Folk Ball This Saturday

Tired of all that chatter about the short length evening dress? . . . like to look around at something other than the same faces? . . . bit bored with the old chitter chatter? . . .

Look what's going to happen in Masonic Temple's Crystal Ballroom Saturday night:

Many of the guests will wear the native costumes of their former homelands . . . they'll take part in an international floor show (the Pointe's Don Thurber is master of ceremonies) exhibiting folk dances . . .

Gov. and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams are among the honored guests . . . and the governor will lead the grand march . . .

Native Dances

There's a really amazing Syrian ballet pair . . . displaced persons, they entertained in army and displaced persons camps in Europe . . . before arriving in Detroit to live and share their talent . . .

Miss Lola De Grille, tops in this country as a folklore authority . . . is in charge of the floor show . . .

The Language of Food

And we know the Institute's executive director . . . Mrs. Alice Sickles, who took a tiny department out of the YWCA and developed it into a great organization where democracy is working . . . where these Detroiters from other lands are helped to become participating Americans . . .

We know Mrs. Sickles had a hand in the evening's Supper Room where international pastries will be served in Valentine surroundings . . .

(Once Mrs. Sickles told us a story about how a great Detroit industrialist felt richer through a Polish newcomer . . . the new Detroitier introduced the Well Established Citizen to Rum Cake as made in his native Poland and soon the two were exchanging ideas and becoming fast friends . . . you see food is sometimes like an International Language) . . .

His Highness Will Attend

Mrs. Fraser and Mrs. Ford have worked tirelessly for the success of the Folk Ball . . .

(In addition to that, they put in long tough gratifying hours working at the Institute . . . Mrs. Fraser is on the Members' Council . . . and Mrs. Ford heads the new Volunteers Corps) . . .

Should we have mentioned long ago . . . that one of the dashing guests this Saturday evening will be Prince Mahmud Palahir, brother of the King of Persia . . . who'll attend with Manu Partovi . . .

The latter had such a wonderful time at the ball last year he has asked the Prince to drop his studies at the U. of M. that evening to come to Detroit . . .

And the musicians are ready with special score to play the Hungarian Scardas which is one of Gov. Williams' favorites! . . . Hope we see you there . . . Tickets at the door if you haven't yours!

Short and to the Pointe

Mrs. Walter Marvin Dailey, Jr.

The former ESTHER NATALIA BOHM, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis William Bohm of Berkshire road, who was married on Saturday, Feb. 4, to the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Dailey of Hillcrest road.

Her Pointe friends will be interested in the announcement of the engagement of KATRINA VAN DYKE, daughter of Frank G. Van Dyke and the late Mrs. Van Dyke, to JOHN M. SMILIE, of New York, son of Mr. and Mrs. FRANK SMILIE of Andover, Mass. Katrina, who has been living in New York for the past year, is a graduate of Grosse Pointe Convent of the Sacred Heart. She attended Barat College, Lake Forest, and is a graduate nurse of John Hopkins School of Nursing. Mr. Smilie has just passed his bar examinations. The couple plan an April wedding.

Whenever EDWARD EVERETT HORTON comes to town, he's sure to be found at some time or other playing tennis at the Tennis House on Moseley road with his friend, TOBEY HANSEN. This was true the past week when the screen and stage star appeared in "No, No, Nanette" at Masonic. Last Friday, he went from the Tennis House to the informal cocktail party given for him by DR. and MRS. CHARLES MERKEL in their Kenwood road home. Among the guests were MR. and MRS. ## Suzette Alger's Cousins To Give Spinster Party

Frances and Mary Boyer Will Give Spinster Dinner Next Thursday Evening in The Country Club; Mrs. Boyer Entertains at Luncheon Earlier

The chic highways lead to the Pointe for the Feb. 18 wedding of Suzette Alger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fredrick M. Alger Jr. of East Jefferson avenue, and Reese Howard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Graeme K. Howard of New York and Long Island.

Two new parties were added to the bride-elect's pre-nuptial calendar this week. Wedding guests will find their time filled with luncheons, dinner and cocktail parties and the bridal party will enjoy as fine a whirl as the Pointe's great hostesses can provide.

Newest parties for Suzette are the luncheon to be given next Thursday by her aunt, Mrs. Harold R. Boyer, in her East Jefferson avenue home, and the spinster dinner, that evening, to be given by her cousins, Francis and Mary Boyer.

Mary comes home from her Vassar studies for the wedding week-end. She and Frances will give the spinster dinner at the Country Club.

The guests will include feminine members of the wedding party as well as the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Alger; the bridegroom-elect's mother, Mrs. Howard; her paternal grandmother Mrs. Fred T. Murphy (who may be out of Jennings hospital by that time but who surely will attend the wedding and is making doting effort to preside at her granddaughter's rehearsal dinner at the Little Club on Feb. 17; her maternal grandmother, Mrs. Charles S. Dewey of Washington, D. C., her aunts, Mrs. Edward B. Smith of Lake Forest and Mrs. Boyer.

Wedding party members will be maid of honor, Elizabeth Crawford of Watch Hill, R. I., Marian Chapin, Sally Anne Watters, Edith Rowe of Washington, D. C., Helen Davis Ravenal of Garrison, Md., Burd Blair Stevenson of Sewickley, Pa., Louise E. Hitchcock of New York City and the bridegroom-elect's sister, Mrs. Richard B. Holloman.

Feminine guests from out of town will attend the luncheon Mrs. William K. Muir is to give on Feb. 17 in the home of her mother, Mrs. Henry E. Bodman of McKinley place.

Mr. and Mrs. Graeme K. Howard will be hosts at a luncheon for out of town guests at the Little Club the day of the wedding and the entire wedding party will be guests at the luncheon Marian Chapin will give in the Lake Shore road home of her mother, Mrs. Roy D. Chapin.

Out of town guests still here on Sunday, following the wedding, have been invited to a Little Club brunch by Mr. and Mrs. James J. Phelan.

Guild Will Hold Hillbilly Dance

The fourth Hillbilly Barn dance of the winter season will be held in the Detroit University School gymnasium on next Thursday evening, February 16. The dances are under the sponsorship of St. Anne's Guild of St. Michael's Chapel.

Last fall the Guild members originally planned on having a single square dance, but this proved to be such a huge success that subsequent dances have followed monthly. Next week's dance will be the last before Lent.

Mrs. Elmer Knoch is general chairman, and helping her with arrangements are Mrs. Noble Tune, Mrs. Ray Amluxen and Mrs. Robert Bell.

Among those planning to attend are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mandarano, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Chandler, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Jennings, Mr. and Mrs. David Crawford and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Button, Jr.

Tickets may be obtained at the University in Ohio on February 3.

McClellan-Keller Vows Spoken in Cranbrook

Beverly McClellan Marries Rick Keller at Ceremony In Christ Church, Cranbrook; Reception Follows At Birmingham Country Club

The perfect ending for a 1950 wedding was true of the McClellan-Keller marriage last Saturday . . . the young couple went off on their wedding trip with tickets for "South Pacific" in their possession!

This was a high point for pretty, and blonde Beverly McClellan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. McClellan of North Oxford road who became the bride of Rick (William) Keller, son of Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Keller of Palmer Woods. The ceremony took place in Christ Church, Cranbrook at 4 p.m. with the Rev. Robert DeWitt officiating.

Beverly's wedding gown was of rich white tulle, self-bustions trimming the fitted bodice which ended in Robespierre collar and had long, fitted sleeves. A fullness of the tulle formed a slight bustle at the back of the full skirt, which fell into a cathedral train. The bride's scalloped tulle helmet held the slightly longer than finger-tip length illusion wedding veil. Butterflies of heirloom rosepointe lace were poised at either side of the bridal cap and the wedding bouquet was composed of gardenias, white orchids and streamered lily.

Barbara Wood was maid of honor with Carol Pierson and Cozette Tweedie, of Sandusky, Mich., serving as bridesmaids.

The trio of attendants were gowned alike in soft gray rose faille frocks with fitted bodices, nipped-in waists and long sleeves tapering to V's over the wrist. Skirts were full and floor length. They wore bandeaux of gray rose camellias and heather in their hair and carried arrangements of the same blossoms.

Mrs. McClellan chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of alencon lace and tulle in a French chocolate shade. The bodice was formed of the lace with shirred bands of alencon worked in pattern around the floor length tulle skirt. Lace buttons finished the bodice which ended in a tiny, turn down collar and sleeves were long and fitted. A deeper chocolate velvet belt found its complement in Mrs. McClellan's toque of velvet and tulle which had a cluster of pink-brown lilacs on one side. She pinned a bronze orchid on her chocolate satin purse.

Mrs. Keller's gown of alencon lace was toned in cafe au lait. Its V neckline was scalloped in matching fabric and the basque bodice flared into a floor length skirt. Sleeves were bracelet length. Mrs. Keller wore a matching toque of maline which was trimmed in an egret and her bronze orchids were caught to a bronze beaded bag.

Victor C. Koch came from Charlottesville, Va., to be Mr. Keller's best man and the bridesmen were the bridegroom's brother, Robert T. Keller, Francis Peck, Glenn Friedt Jr. and Joseph Lackey.

Mr. and Mrs. McClellan entertained the wedding guests at a reception in Birmingham Country Club, following which the young Kellers left on their wedding trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. They will go up to New York before their return to the Pointe and that's when those South Pacific tickets come into great prominence.

The bride traveled in a fawn gabardine tailored suit, a small white and red straw cloche touched with a spring of valley lily in the very front. Handbag and accessories were brown alligator.

The Kellers will live in Grosse Pointe upon returning from the East.

Virginia Hebb January Bride

The marriage of Virginia Laetitia Hebb, daughter of Mrs. George K. Webb of Maumee road and the late Mr. Hebb, to Albert Larter Daly has been announced by the bride's mother.

The young couple were married Jan. 28 in Angio, Ind. Mr. Daly is the son of Mrs. P. G. Larter of Rivard boulevard, and Thomas Daly of Florida.

It's A Boy, Paul Michael, For the Henry D. Eckhouts

There's a brand new playmate for just-past-one-year-old John Eckhout this week. It's a baby brother, Paul Michael, born Feb. 6 to Mr. and Mrs. Henry D. Eckhout of Mt. Clemens. Mrs. Eckhout was the former Edna Munsch of Grosse Pointe.

Center to Hold Party for Adults

The first Grosse Pointe War Memorial sponsored adult dance will be held on February 18 from 9 p.m. to 12 midnight at the Center, Mrs. C. N. Smith, chairman of the dance, has announced.

There have been various dances sponsored by the Center for the Teen-Agers and the Young Adult Group, but this is the first dance to be developed for all Grosse Pointe adults who would like to come—dress informal.

Music will be supplied by Clark Williams' orchestra and tickets will cost $1.75 per couple, including refreshments and tax.

Co-chairmen of the dance will be Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. John Jakle.

Other committees will consist of:

Tickets—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schumann, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. George Horsfall, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Huegli, Mr. and Mrs. James Dingeman, Mr. and Mrs. John Whitty and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Larkins.

Hospitality—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Engelhardt, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Craig Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Poppen, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Roll, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Setzer and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilson.

Refreshments—Mr. and Mrs. Lester Elliott, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sichter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bay and Major and Mrs. Russell Steinhour.

Anne Alger Is Wed in Virginia

Stealing a march on The Social Calendar (which had slated their marriage for early March), Anne Alger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell A. Alger Jr. of Belvedere, Charlottesville, Va., was married Jan. 28 to Sherwood Rollins Jr. in St. Paul's Episcopal Memorial Church, Charlottesville.

The engagement of the young pair was announced during the Christmas holidays in Grosse Pointe at a cocktail party given by Mrs. Russell A. Alger of Provençal road and the junior Alger. The bridegroom is the son of Sherwood Rollins of Durham, N. C. and the late Mrs. Rollins.

For her wedding, which was attended by a small group of intimate friends, Anne wore a waltz length full-skirted gown of white organdy trimmed in heirloom lace and a wide white hat banked in blue velvet ribbons. She carried white bridal roses and carnations.

Her only attendant was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Russell A. Alger III, of Ann Arbor, who wore a golden tone afternoon frock and carried a bouquet of blending bebe mums. William Rollins of Durham was his brother's best man.

The Rev. Theodore Evans performed the marriage ceremony.

Following the church service, Mr. and Mrs. Alger entertained the wedding guests at a reception in Belvedere. Mr. and Mrs. Rollins will make their home in Lake Forest where he teaches music at the academy.

Mothers' Club To Hold Party

All committees have been appointed for the first Square Dance sponsored by the St. Joan of Arc Mothers' Club to be held in the school auditorium on February 18, from 9 to 12 p.m.

Patrons and patronesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Leo O'Brien, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Unti, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bidigare and Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Murray.

Serving in various capacities under their chairman, Mrs. J. R. White, are Mrs. E. Keho, Mrs. W. McClellan and Mrs. T. J. Connelly.

To obtain tickets call Mrs. R. Spies, TUxedo 2-2289 or Mrs. J. M. Murphy.

Boyntons Plan Feb. 26 Party

There's been a change in date for the open house Mr. and Mrs. Frank David Boynton will give to welcome friends to their new home on Cloverly road. Occupational disease of new home owners . . . the last part of the decor is still in transit from such far flung spots as New Orleans, New York, California, etc.

But the new date is still in the sentimental month (which includes the Boynton's wedding anniversary and Mr. Boynton's birth date). It's set for Feb. 26, Sunday afternoon.

Daughter Barbara Boynton is arriving this Saturday from New York for an indefinite visit with her parents and will help receive the guests come Feb. 26.

Betsy Peabody Weds Justin Edgerton Gale

Marriage Solemnized in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Followed by Reception in Home of Bride's Parents, Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Peabody

Two young people who met traveling the Atlantic ocean, were married Saturday afternoon when Betsy Peabody, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Charles W. Peabody of Washington road, became the bride of Justin Edgerton Gale, son of Mr. and Mrs. Winsor Gale of Andover, Mass.

Betsy and her bridegroom became engaged when both studied in London last year. They were married in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church at 4:30 o'clock with the Rev. Frank Pitt hearing their vows.

The bride wore a white lace and marquisette gown with hooped skirt. The slender bodice was distinguished by bell-shaped sleeves. Her fingertip length silk illusion veil fell from a lace Juliet cap and she carried white spray orchids.

Betsy's only attendant was former Pointer, Mrs. W.T.S. Digby-Seymour of Northamptonshire, England who flew here to be in the wedding party. Mrs. Digby-Seymour wore a gray tulle frock made on classic lines and there was a garland of ivy leaves in her hair. She carried a bouquet of spring flowers.

Reuben Clark of New York City was Mr. Gale's best man.

Following the church service, Dr. and Mrs. Peabody were hosts at the wedding reception in their home. The young Gales will make their home in Boston upon their return from their wedding trip.

Mrs. Gale traveled in a slate blue gabardine suit with small white chapeau. She pinned a wedding orchid to her shoulder.

In the large contingent of out of town guests here for the Peabody-Gale wedding were the bridegroom's grandfather, Lyman Gale of Boston; his brother, James Gale and sister, Miss Joan Gale of Andover; Mrs. Paul Wade of Baltimore; Miss Hortense Church of Boston; the bride's brother, Dr. Newton Peabody of Boston; and John Grix of London, England.

Swimmers Score Two Lopsided Wins

Sports

Blue Devil Natators Miss Perfect Meet by 2 Points

Shellack Inexperienced Ferndale Team by 68-16 After Taking Wyandotte Bears into Camp By Overwhelming 62-22 Score

By FRED RUNNELLS

Scoring slams in eight of nine events, Coach Frank Banach's speedy Blue Devil swimmers shellacked an inexperienced Ferndale squad 68 to 16 in a non-league meet and missed a perfect score by two points in the Dales' beautiful, big 50 yard pool last Thursday, February 3. A perfect score is 70 to 14.

What made the Devils' lopsided win all the more impressive was the fact Coach Banach jumbled his lineup to weaken the Devils strength. There was little doubt that the Pointers could have scored a perfect meet if the lineup had been entered at its peak efficiency.

Two Double Winners

For the third straight meet Nay and Hesse tied for top honors with double victories. Nay captured the 100 yard breast stroke and 150 yard individual medley relay events and Hesse annexed the 50 and 100 yard free style events.

Ferndale's Rozenkrantz saved the Dale's from a complete shut-out when he edged Barrett by inches for second place in the 200 yard free style, which was won by Watson. This was the only time a Dale swimmer finished higher than third.

Score Slams

Scoring the slams for the Devils were Hesse and Pear in the 100; Nay and Leach in the 200 breast stroke; Heath and Novak in the 100 back stroke; Hesse and O'Connell in the 100 free style; Nay and Chase in the 150 individual medley and Winkler and Shannon in the diving.

Chase, Leach and Landis combined efforts to easily win the 150 medley relay and Rogers, Hinchman, Nielson and Pear climaxed the Devils overwhelming victory with an impressive win in the final event, the 200 yard speed relay.

Defeat Wyandotte

Two days earlier, on Tuesday, January 31, the Pointers missed a perfect meet by eight points when they sunk a determined Wyandotte team 62 to 22 in the Bears' home pool.

The win over Wyandotte gave the Pointers their sixth league win in seven starts and kept the Devils hot on the heels of the unbeaten League leading Royal Oak Acorns. It was the Acorns who handed the Devils their only loss of the season earlier in the year. The Pointers were narrowly edged out in this meet 44 to 40.

Again in the Wyandotte meet Coach Frank Banach weakened his squad in an attempt to make a meet out of it, but the Pointers were determined to win no matter how they were shuffled in the events by their jovial coach.

Bubble Bursts

Prior to the first event the Bears thought they had a chance to score an upset but the Devils soon burst the Wyandotte bubble when they slammed the first four events to take a commanding 24 to 3 lead and practically clinch the meet.

Jerry Nay really took the starch out of the Bears in the second event when he broke the pool record in the 100 yard breast stroke with a 1:06.4. The old record was held by another Point swimmer, Bob Jenks.

If memory serves us right Nay now has erased every one of Jenks' records around the league. Normally Nay swims the 200 free style and the individual medley but wherever there is a Jenks record his coach gives him an opportunity to crack it.

Gets First Second

Wyandotte didn't break into the second place bracket until the 100 yard free style, when Timms paddled into second place ahead of Nielson. At the time the Devils were coasting along on a 32 to 4 lead.

In the following event, the 120 individual medley, Endicotte gave the Bears their only other second place behind Nay.

Wyandotte's 160 yard speed relay team gave its followers their only opportunity to cheer when Futch, Knapp and Timms splashing home first ahead of the Devil combination of Rogers, O'Connell, Watson and Pear.

This meet saw the first appearance of Tony Pear and Jim Novak under Blue Devil colors. Both boys performed admirably in their first league meet and saw them both score second place wins.

John Chase, veteran backstroke, surprised everyone including himself when he scored an upset victory over veteran Bud Watson in the 200 yard free style. This was the first time Chase had ever been in this event. Usually Chase is battling rookie Heath in the backstroke event, which has featured grudge matches between these two all year long. Heath holds a commanding edge over his veteran teammate.

The Pointe paddlers will next meet Fordson in the Tractors' pool on Friday, February 10.

Flyers Clinch Eastside Basketball Title

Despite its most recent loss to St. Charles last Friday, February 3, at the Neighborhood Club the St. Paul Flyers clinched the East Side Second Division Parochial League basketball title. St. Paul's Flyers Defeated After Winning Eight in Row

Long Winning Streak Snapped by Rejuvenated St. Charles Quintet; Pointers Still Have Championship of Section Clinched

By JOHN DRAKE

The St. Paul Flyers' long 8-game winning streak was finally snapped last Friday by a tall and sharp-eyed St. Charles five. The Dragons were a revitalized team compared with the quintet of the first St. Charles - St. Paul contest, and proved it by whipping the Flyers, 48 to 39.

The Flyers had just added their win on the Tuesday before the St. Charles game by easily dumping St. Catherine's 50 to 40.

St. Ambrose Also Loses The St. Charles loss would have been a crucial one for the Flyers in their league battle had not St. Ambrose, the other leading contender, bowed out of the scene at the hands of the up-setting St. Charles quintet while St. Paul was beating St. Catherine's.

The St. Paul squad has the Eastern section championship clinched. As a result of their first-place position St. Paul will face the rip-roaring Nativity five in the semi-final play-offs in the Second Division of the Catholic League.

Set for Sunday

The date for the Nativity contest has been set for Sunday, February 12, to be played at St. John Berchman's new gym.

St. Paul was roundly out-played for the first time this season in the St. Charles contest at the Neighborhood Club.

St. Charles was sparked by two stars who joined forces to net 41 of their team's 48 points. Ron Vollmann, tall Dragon center, collected 22 points on 10 baskets and a pair of free throws. At the same time he held Flyer center Jack Trombly to a single field basket and dominated the jumps. Ted Saigh was the other St. Charles high-pointer. He picked up 7 field goals and a quintet of free shots to net 19 points.

Pelkey Gets

Tom Pelkey was next on the scoring list with the 15 points he picked up for the Flyers.

St. Charles set the pace for the game when Saigh grabbed the ball on the initial jump and put it away in the first four seconds. Tom Marchand provided the first St. Paul score by camping under the basket and waiting for a long pass. The Dragons went on to stack up a 12-7 lead for the first 8 minutes of play, sparked by Saigh's 9 points.

Turn on Steam

The Flyers turned on more steam in the second quarter and racked up 12 points on 6 baskets. The Dragons matched them, however, with Vollmann showing his stuff.

Flyer guard Pete Belanger suffered a hand injury in practice the week before the game, and had considerable trouble with it during play.

The first few minutes of play of the last period were marked by a strong St. Paul drive that fell through as both teams succumbed to wild passing. Tom Pelkey scored twice in the last 75 seconds and made a last-second lay-in that was just too late to count.

Just the Reverse

The St. Catherine's contest was just the reverse of the St. Charles one, with the Flyers in possession of the lead all the way. Both Trombly and Belanger racked 13 points, but they were eclipsed by Jack Murphy of St. Catherine's with 16 points.

Bill Huetteman opened the game with a basket for the Flyers, and his teammates went on to collect 6 more and 2 free shots to total 16 points in the first period against their opponents' meager 4.

The third period was the highlight of the game, with the Flyers loosening their defense and concentrating on piercing that of St. Catherine's. The net result was 33 points between the two teams, with St. Paul slightly the underdog, 18 to 17. The oddest basket of the game occurred near the end of the period when Bill Huetteman, trying to get possession of the ball, whacked it up in the air and watched it drop through his own basket.

Just Guarding Lead

The last period followed the pattern of the third, with St. Paul making 11 points to St. Catherine's 12. Although scores of the last half of the game indicate that St. Paul was out-played, the Flyers were in the position of merely maintaining an ample lead from 10 to 19 points.

The Flyer reserves dropped both contests. Although ahead 19 to 12 at the half of the St. Catherine's contest, they were spilled in the second half and lost a close one, 38 to 37. The St. Charles five trampled the Flyers 38 to 18, a 20-point margin.

Memorial Loop Lead Tied Up

The race in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Bowling League grows hotter each week. The Farmers and Taxgatherers are now tie for the lead, with only four points between the first and fifth places.

The Silversmiths were on the ball last week and took three points from the Farmers. The Taxgatherers went into the tie for first by taking three from the Tentmakers. The Magicians beat the Publicans, three to one. Gene McKarahan converted the 5-10 split and Mary Louise Kramer the 5-6-7. The Publicans have single game with 978 and the Herdsman have high three game score for the season with 2645.

Table with columns: Team, W, L. Rows include Farmers, Taxgatherers, Publicans, Silversmiths, Magicians, Tentmakers, Herdsman, Fishermen, Musicians, Stewards.

Cleaners Nab Top Spot in Rotary Loop

Mondry Team Goes into Lead with 3-1 Victory While Other Leaders Fall by Wayside

With two-thirds of the season completed, the G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League enters the third and final round, starting tomorrow night at the Woods Recreation. Motor City Tires and Piche's Barber Shop showed plenty of zip in conquering G. P. Review and Auto Club, two very strong teams, last Friday.

Gallagher's 595 series helped Motor City Tires swamp G. P. Review and Bob Gross came through with an identical score to lead Piche's who won a four-pointer over Auto Club. Mondry Cleaners gained first place all alone when they won over Harrison Carpets, 3-1. Al Przeklas, Mondry's lead-off man, inserted a 242 game in a 556 series.

Middle Atlantic Transportation Co. couldn't keep Houston Bros., Inc., down. Cy Houston's boys finally broke their losing streak by winning three from Volpe's "expressmen". DeMar's 561 series helped the Houston cause.

Earl Holzbaugh's got all their pins in the first game, from then on it was Kopp's Pharmacy all the way.

Table with columns: Team, W, L. Rows include Mondry Cleaners, G. P. Review, Middle Atl. Trans. Co., Motor City Tires, Houston Bros. Inc., P & J Cocktail Lnge., Auto Club, Earl Holzbaugh, Farms Market, Piche's Barber Shop, Harrison Carpets, Kopp's Pharmacy.

St. Clare Scores Biggest Upset in Inter-Church Loop

By FRED RUNNELLS

Fourth place St. Clare, led by Jack Codde, scored the upset of upsets this season in the Inter-Church basketball league last Saturday, February 4, when it dumped the first round champion, Grosse Pointe Memorial, 19 to 12. Codde not only outscored the entire Memorial team with his 15 points which gave him individual scoring honors, but played brilliantly on defense. It was the best individual performance in the league this season.

Takes Early Lead

Memorial racked up an early lead and held a 10 to 5 halftime advantage and looked to be a sure winner. That was before Codde got hot and the roof caved in. Codde hit almost everything he tossed in the final two periods and collected 13 points of his 15 point total. In the meantime his teammates shut out Memorial in the third stanza and in the final period allowed Memorial a meager two points.

Sets Record High

Grosse Pointe Presbyterian showed no mercy on hapless Grosse Pointe Methodist and rolled to a new season high scoring total with a 66 to 17 win.

Leading the route, Smith chalked up 22 points for the highest individual scoring performance of the season. His teammate Donahue hit the hoops for 16 points for runner-up honors.

The inexperienced Methodist team was never in the ballgame at any time. It trailed 16 to 8 at the end of the first period and 40 to 10 at half time.

Sets New Low Record

Going from the sublime to the ridiculous Christ Church edged past St. Paul in the final minutes of play to win 12 to 9. This was the lowest scoring game on record in the league.

Right from the start both teams were on the defensive and at no time did either team have more than a two point advantage. In the last quarter Christ Church connected for a fast 6 points to lead 12 to 6.

St. Paul rallied in the closing minutes but couldn't erase the deficit.

Pair Make All Scores

Clancy and Semple combined efforts to notch all of Christ Church's points. Each collected 6 points.

On Saturday, February 11, St. Clare will tackle Christ Church in the 9:15 a.m. game at the High School and at 10:15 Memorial will meet Presbyterian in the boys gym. The other 10:15 game in the girls gym will pit Methodist against St. Paul.

Standings as of February 4

Table with columns: Team, W, L. Rows include St. Clare, Christ Church, Presbyterian, Memorial, St. Paul, Methodist.

Lutheran Church Seeks Funds for 24 Colleges

F. I. Goodrich of 270 Moran road, has been made a member of the committee which will direct the Michigan Synod's participation in the Christian Higher Education Year Appeal of the United Lutheran Church in America in 1950.

The campaign will seek to raise $6,000,000 for the 24 colleges and seminaries supported by the ULCA. The Michigan Synod will join with the Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and Kentucky-Tennessee Synods to raise $634,000. Of this amount, $474,750 will go to Wittenberg College and $75,000 to Hamma Divinity School, of Springfield, Ohio, institutions supported jointly by the five synods.

The goal of the Michigan Synod in the campaign will be $48,000, of which amount $37,000 will go to Wittenberg, $3,000 to Hamma, $5,000 for a special aid fund, and $3,000 to Maywood Seminary in Chicago.

Scoring Record Established By Pointers Against Acorns

By FRED RUNNELLS

A new basketball scoring mark was written into the Grosse Pointe High School record book last Friday night, February 3, when the league-leading Blue Devils swamped the last place, victoryless Royal Oak Acorns, 66 to 24.

The new record surpassed the old mark of 65 points, set by the 1946-47 team against Wyandotte, by one point but could have put the old mark in the shadows by 35 points if it hadn't been for the mercy shown by Coach Ed Weruct, who substituted freely throughout the contest. If the regulars had been allowed to remain in the contest the Pointers could have easily reached the century mark. But as Coach Weruct said after the game "I wouldn't leave my regulars in a game to run up a lopsided score, not even against my worst enemy."

However, one must take into consideration the circumstances that existed during the two seasons that the old and new marks were established.

Different Conditions

The old mark was set against a strong second place Wyandotte aggregation and the new mark was established against a very weak Royal Oak team that hasn't won a game in its last 31 starts. Royal Oak's last victory came in the first game of the second half of the 1947-48 season. Previous to that time the Acorns were a basketball power in the league. They began to hit the skids after the graduation of their six feet five inch star, Norm Zauchin, who graduated in January 1948.

Bruce Allen started the Devils on their way with a free throw after Dale Baumler had put the Acorns ahead with a free throw after two minutes of play. This was the only time Royal Oak was in the ball game.

Devils Go To Work

Once Allen had connected with his charity toss the Devils really went to work. Sub Leroy Lepinski swished a bucket, Allen added another foul and Schoeck added a field goal and a free throw for the first of his eight point first quarter total and the Devils gained momentum like a snowball rolling down hill.

The scoring was contagious. All but three of the fourteen players Wernet used broke into the scoring column.

Incidentally, it wasn't just in the scoring department that the Devils excelled. They held the Acorns to four free throws while building up to 20 to 4 first quarter lead and limited their opponents to two field goals and three charity tosses in the second quarter as they increased their lead twenty points and left the court at half time with a 32 to 12 margin.

Substitutes Do Well

Almost half of the second period was played by the substitutes but even they couldn't miss the hoop.

In the third period the Blue Devil machine really went into production, racking up 21 points while holding the hapless Acorns to a field goal and three foul shots and went into the final stanza holding a very comfortable 53 to 17 lead.

The entire fourth period was watched by the starting five from the bench while the second stringers continued to build up the score to record proportions.

Cheers Shake Rafter

When Dick Lowery sunk his record breaking basket the capacity crowd's cheers fairly shook the rafters in the small local gym.

Minor Division Teams Tied In Neighborhood Club Loop

Closest Race in League Remains Hot as Leaders Whip Opponents; Valet and Optimists Fives On Top in Other Divisions

By Fred Runnells

The closest race in the three divisions in the Neighborhood Club Basketball League remained all tied up as the league co-leaders, Grosse Pointe Post 303 and Tracy Motors, whipped their opponents in last week's contests.

Last Saturday, February 4, Post 303 sneaked past the Metropolitan Club quintet 36 to 33. It was a close ball game all the way. Post 303 was forced to fight an uphill battle after tossing away an 8 point first quarter 15 to 7 lead.

Metropolitan had the edge in the foul shooting department outscoring its opponents, 7 to 4, but Post 303 had Allan and Scherer sharpshooting, which marked the difference. Scherer notched individual scoring honors with 17 points and his teammate Allan connected for 12.

The victory enabled Post 303 to hold the Minor division lead over the weekend.

Behind the high scoring efforts of Don Patterson and Ray Leonard, Tracy Motors walloped St. Ambrose 54 to 37 on Monday February 6, and again moved into a two-way tie with Post 303 for the lead in the Minor division.

Patterson and Leonard of Tracy and Jack Howard of St. Ambrose battled for high point honors with Patterson and Howard trying for top honors with 18 points each. Leonard finished with 17 points.

Howard kept the St. Ambrose hopes alive during the first half but his teammates couldn't cope with the fast moving Tracy outfit. Leonard's play under both back boards kept the St. Ambrose outfit at bay most of the time.

Grosse Pointe Optimists kept within striking distance of the league lead by downing the hapless Jungaleers Saturday, February 4, 41 to 39, in a rough ball game that saw Bob Hoist of the Jungaleers notch scoring honors with 15 points.

Ted Mumford led the Optimists attack with 14 points for runner-up honors.

Junior Division

Games in the Junior division brought together three of the last place teams in the eight team league, and third place Tracy Motors.

On Thursday, February 2, the fifth place Neighborhood Club Jets more than doubled the score on the last place Wildcats, 35 to 16, and on Friday, February 3, Tracy Motors almost duplicated this feat by swamping Steiner Ford, 51 to 28.

There was little action in the Major division inasmuch as fifth place St. Clair Shores maintained its position in the league standings by defeating last place Ken Brown, 60 to 33, Monday, February 6.

Erickson Stars

Erickson was the big gun for the Shores team, racking up 20 points for individual scoring honors and maintained his position as the leading scorer in the Major division. He has a 20 point game average.

Bon Secours Medical Staff Sponsoring Lecture Series

Tuesday evening, February 14, will mark the initiation of a series of annual lectures sponsored by the Medical Staff of Bon Secours Hospital in honor of Dr. Eldwin R. Witwer.

Dr. Witwer, past-president of the Radiological Society of North America and secretary-treasurer of the Detroit Roentgen Ray Society for 22 years, was an outstanding figure in the specialty of x-ray. He established the x-ray department at Bon Secours Hospital where he was its chief for several years.

Dr. Kenneth E. Corrigan, radiological physicist and Director of the Radiological Research Department at Bon Secours Hospital, was associated with Dr. Witwer for many years. He has been chosen to present the initial lecture which will be given at the Pierce Junior High School Auditorium on February 14 at 8:15 p. m.

Dr. Corrigan will speak on "Radiant Energy in the Diagnosis and Treatment of Disease." He will discuss how, within the lifetime of Dr. E. R. Witwer, the use of radiant energy for diagnosis and treatment made tremendous strides.

City Enforces Sign Ordinance

Chief Trombly of the City police ordered his officers to remove six signs on Jan. 31 that had been placed on City trees at Cadieux and Kercheval, at Rivard and Mack and at Lincoln and Mack.

These signs had been put up in violation of the City's sign ordinance. Four of the signs were advertising a gas heater concern and one was displayed by a real estate dealer.

The City has an ordinance governing the display of signs which was amended a year ago. The authorities believe it is now a measure both effective in preventing cluttering up the landscape with signs and also is fair to the citizens. A citizen can display any sign he pleases on his own property, provided it is not more than six square feet in dimension and the sign has direct relation to the lot or business represented on the lot.

Signs cannot be erected on City property under any circumstances and it was on this score that the six signs were removed. Billboards are entirely prohibited either on private or public property.

NOT AFTER TOOLS A mason contractor working on a new home in Lothrop road reported to the Farms police on Feb. 6 that someone had broken into his tool crib during the week-end. A saw was found near the box and as near as he could tell, no other tools had been taken from the crib.

Want Educators To Split Costs

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education will be approached by the officials of the Farms on the subject of paying for one half the cost of paving that section of Williams which bounds property which the Board owns.

It is understood the educators were not too receptive to the idea when approached in the past, but under the interpretation of a new law passed by the Legislature, the Farms feels it is in a better position to argue the point.

The new legislation has to do with taxing school property. Farms Attorney Henry Maurer has informed the Farms that under the new law, school property which is not used exclusively for school purposes for a period of two years, may be subject to taxation. The property along Williams has never been built upon, but it is held for future needs.

Talent Sought For Heidt Show

Optimist club members are scouring the Pointe area for outstanding entertainment talent to compete for a place on the Horace Heidt Youth Opportunity Show in the State Fair Coliseum February 28.

The Metropolitan Council of Optimist Clubs is bringing the three- and a-half-hour variety show and talent contest to Detroit to encourage young entertainers. Any performer over 14 years of age, amateur or professional, can enter the preliminaries by calling Radio Station WJR. All entries will be given tryouts by a member of the Heidt staff on February 16, 17, and 18. He will select 15 or 20 acts for final tests on February 21. Three or four of these will be chosen to appear on the network broadcast which climaxes the show.

Adam McNutt, president of the council, urges all Pointers knowing of entertainment acts of from one to four persons which they think have possibilities to see that they enter the competition.

Two Cars Tangle At Intersection

As Robert C. Kenney of 806 Loraine was driving north on Notre Dame at 6 p. m. on Jan. 31, he collided with a car going west on St. Paul, driven by Robert A. Martin of 1030 Van Dyke, Detroit.

Although there was a rider in each car in addition to the driver and both cars were badly mangled, there was no personal injury.

Both drivers were given tickets for reckless driving. Each stoutly contested that the other driver was at fault.

Opera Being Sponsored By Dominican Auxiliary

Adrian Dominican Auxiliary is sponsoring a special popular priced performance of "The Pocket Opera Singers" at Dominican High School, Whittier at McKinney, Sunday afternoon, February 19, at 3 o'clock.

Doctor Harry Seitz, renowned figure in the music world, will conduct the singers in the opera "La Gioconda," which will be sung in English with some added selections from Gilbert and Sullivan.

Mrs. George Kilbury, president, announces that money raised through this special event will be for the benefit of the Saint Joseph Academy scholarship fund.

Assisting the president in the handling of tickets are Mrs. John G. Hohl, Mrs. Eugene Donahoe, Mrs. Ambrose J. Singer, Mrs. Louis Schneider and Sister Mary Louise of Visitation Convent. Doctor Seitz, who in addition to conducting will clarify the opera by acting as narrator throughout the scenes, will have as his cast, singers from the Detroit Civic Opera and the Light Opera, men who have appeared with the Detroit Symphony; students of the University of Detroit and Wayne University; teachers of voice in and around Detroit, and other professional men and women who are advanced voice students.

ANNUAL LINCOLN TEA

The Detroit Historic Memorials Society will hold its Fifty-eighth Annual Lincoln Tea and Fair, which has become a Detroit tradition, on Friday afternoon, February 10, from 1 to 5 o'clock at the Newberry House on East Jefferson avenue. This is the only activity which the Society has during the year to help carry on its patriotic work.

Davidson's New Shop Has Opening

One section of the new women's clothing store in the Kercheval-On-The-Hill section which played host to throngs of Pointers during its three-day opening last weekend.

Tuxis Club Now Auditioning For Second Variety Show

By FRED RUNNELLS

If you missed the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Tuxis Club's variety show "Anything Can Happen," last year, I have good news for you. The club, under the direction of that bundle of energy Chet Sampson, has started work on another variety show which will be called "Happy Days" and will be staged at Pierce Auditorium March 2 and 4. Mark those dates down on your calendar as a must.

Pointers who were fortunate in obtaining tickets to one of the two performances last year need no sales talk or publicity but those who heard about the show after it was all over should be told what to expect.

This year's show will follow along the same pattern and will last about two hours. There will be comedy dramatic skits, dancing, vocal and instrumental music, specialty numbers and four production numbers which will utilize the talents of the entire cast.

Bayard Johnson, president of the club, will head the planning committee composed of Sue Riggs, Sue Kitson, and Hank Hubbard. The staff includes Carroll Sharer, director of dancing; Bill Caruthers, vocal director; Sue Spurrier, dramatic advisor; John Chase, instrumental music advisor and art directors Bill Whittingham and Kenny Rice. Director-producer Chet Sampson said, "We are in the first phase of putting on the show and are auditioning and looking especially for novelty and specialty numbers. Any Pointer youngster wishing to try out for the show can contact me at TU 2-2438 for an audition appointment." Sampson also was very emphatic when he said, "The cast is not limited to just club members but open to ANY POINTE YOUNGSTER."

Rev. Paul Ketchum of the Memorial Church is the director of the Tuxis Club, which has about 250 members.

All proceeds from the show are turned over to charity as was the case last year.

Mrs. Fred Hauck To Review Novel

The Pointe's well known reviewer of books, Mrs. Fred K. Hauck, will present a review of the new novel "The Peaceable Kingdom" by Ardyth Kennelly at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Wednesday, February 15, at 2 p.m.

This selection for December and author Kennelly is acclaimed as one of the most promising new, young authors. Mrs. Hauck, who has been giving reviews for church, club and private groups continually since 1936, picked "The Peaceable Kingdom" for the Center because it is not only a human, humorous and delightful story, but one which depicts a part of our U. S. history—that of Mormon life in the 19th century.

Tea will be served following Mrs. Hauck's talk. Admission is 75 cents. The public is invited.

Community Symphony's First Concert Feb. 17

The Detroit Community Symphony, under the direction of Joseph Roy Lanyon, will open its 1950 concert season at 8:15 p.m. on Friday, February 17, at the Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church, Jefferson and Mariborough.

Although the Detroit Community Symphony has been active on the East Side for more than 10 years, this concert will mark the debut of the Symphony as one of Detroit's major orchestras.

The Community Symphony is inaugurating a new policy in Detroit with the introduction of a Family Ticket, by which the entire family may attend with the purchase of one ticket.

Obituaries

Mrs. Amy M. Shelton, of 129 Meadow lane, died in her home on February 2 after a brief illness.

NOW 11TH IN NATION

Full-time enrollment reached 15,062 in 1949 to place Michigan State 11th, one notch higher in the national rankings than in 1948, according to a survey conducted by Dr. Raymond Walters, president of the University of Cincinnati.

Shop Lights

Harold Miller, who operates the big Standard Service station in the heart of the Village (Kercheval at St. Clair), uses a catch line in his advertising that is heeded by both ladies and men, "Let us service your car while you shop." It eliminates the parking problem.

Grosse Pointers are the Detroit area's greatest quantity buyers of quality meats for home deep-freeze storing, according to George Malooly of Malooly & Co., wholesale meat dealers, Riopelle Street, Detroit. The firm, which has a wide trade in the larger homes here and in Birmingham, has been lamb specialists for more than a quarter of a century.

The great doll which is dressed like Cupid and stands so proudly in the window of the new Barrett Flower Shop, Mack at Washington road, is a real sweetheart, at least to Mrs. Barrett, who has owned it since she was a little girl.

Among the firms giving finer types of service to the Pointe community is Wanamaker's, interior decorators, upholsterers and makers of fine furniture, whose studios are at 16726 East Warren avenue.

The staff is expertly qualified to furnish advice on such things as needed color, textures in materials, refinishing and reupholstering of furniture.

Mr. Michael W. Williams, president of Wanamaker's, says 1950 will see more Pointers retaining their old, fine pieces through refinishing, instead of replacing them with new furnishings.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Eugene Allington of Lincoln road, announce the marriage on Jan. 27 of their daughter, Frances Derby, to Willis Anthony Bussard of San Francisco.

The marriage took place in California, where the bride has made her home for the past two years.

WEDDING TALK

MRS. CHARLES R. MURPHY made the two wedding cakes for the marriage of her daughter LIZI to BAYARD WILSON and they were beautiful! One for the bride and one for the bridegroom.

SUZETTE ALGER, who'll marry REESE HOWARD Feb. 18 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church accepted only ONE shower... the kitchen shower given by MARION CAMPBELL... noted with a great deal of admiration by Whoozit who has long deplored this form of what one writer calls "Polite Hold-Up!"

VALENTINE MONTH ANNIVERSARY COUPLES: MR. and MRS. FRANCES C. FARWELL II (Jean Campbell)... MR. and MRS. JOHN M. NORCOTT (Barbara Ballantyne)... DR. and MRS. CHARLES C. MERKEL (Mrs. Frances Gray Brown)... MR. and MRS. DAVID M. WHITNEY JR. (Bethine Standart)... MR. and MRS. RICHARD E. WILLIAMS (Mary Elizabeth Griffith)... MR. and MRS. ROBERT PETZ (Delphine Dodge)... MR. and MRS. DOUGLAS DODGE (Elizabeth S. Thompson)...

BEVERLY McCLELLAN who is now MRS. RICK KELLER... was a sentimental bride observing all the old traditions... something borrowed and something old: the four fragile rosepointe butterflies on her bridal cap... something blue: a frilly garter... something new: a dainty lace handkerchief.

MRS. JUSTINE E. GALE (Betsy Peabody) was one of the most feminine looking brides Whoozit has seen in a long time... something about the clinging lace and tulle of her gown... and her exquisitely simple bridal cap... combined to give a most appealing effect!...

WENDELL W. ANDERSON has long been noted for his talent in decor... and it'll be evident in that special drawing room the Andersons added to their Vendome road for daughter LINDSAY'S wedding this Saturday to CHARLES SAGAR. Wedding guests will be delighted and surprised when they attend the reception!

PILFERINGS

Artifex in the Manchester Guardian gives his readers Three Words for 1950 in a recent issue. They are:

"First, the old Greek axiom, 'Know Thyself.' Try, that is to say, to know what really are your tastes and powers, your possibilities and limitations. When I was little more than a boy I thanked a man to whose help and teaching I owed much. He said, 'It is nice of you to be grateful, but no mistake. I am not a great man. I should not like to think I was second rate. But I am second class. Yes, a good second class is all that I can claim.' Looking back over more than half a century I recognize how right he was, and also how much of the good work he did for many others besides me was due to his self-knowledge. Yet I hardly think such self-knowledge is common and I am sure it is not easy.

"My second word would be 'Know the Value of Things.' For the goods of life falls into three classes. The first is of those goods really good in themselves but of such a nature that they cannot be shared. An anecdote will make my point clear. At a conference at Swanwick many years ago my subject was evangelical poverty. At the morning session and before lunch we had some music. At lunch the man opposite said to me, 'What is the difference, moral or economic, between my eating this peach and your listening to that quartet? If all circumstances are taken into account I expect the quartet cost more than the peach.' I replied, 'The answer is obvious. If you eat the peach I can't. But if I listen to the quartet a hundred others can.' There are goods, knowledge, the gifts of art and of science, the beauty of nature, and the interests and problems of social life which can be shared by all without loss. There are only two gifts which actually increase with being given away... love and religion.

"The third word... 'Get rid of the idea that work is a curse.' It may be, and should be, one of life's chief blessings. Carlyle said, 'Let a man find his life's work. God has nothing better to give.' I think he was right."

St. Anne's Guild Plans Dessert and Card Party

Members of St. Anne's Guild of St. Michael's Chapel will meet on Monday evening, Feb. 13, for a card party and dessert at the home of Mrs. Elmer Knoch on Oxford road. Both old and new members of the Guild are cordially invited to attend this pre-lenten meeting.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. W.T.S. DIGBY-SEYMOUR OF NORTHAMPTONSHIRE, ENGLAND

A flat in an old Georgian mansion atop a hill in Northamptonshire, England... crumpets and wonderful marmalade... the Cricket Club dances and the Hunt Balls... a day in London at her club (The American Woman's Club)... it's all added sparkle to the pretty eyes of the former Rosalie Packer, now Mrs. W. T. S. Digby-Seymour of England.

It's like opening the pages of a fascinating English novel to chat with this young former Pointer who planed over from England to be bridal attendant at the Peabody-Gale marriage last Saturday and who remains for a longer visit with her parents, the E. Cope Smiths of Washington road.

This is Mrs. Digby-Seymour's first visit to the Pointe since her own marriage to the dashing English councillor (lawyer) a year ago December. It is obvious she has fallen in love with her husband's country and her new friends.

Now here she is: slender and dark-haired, dancing brown eyes, just a minute past debutante age. She's wearing a brightly plaid frock with pearl choker at her throat. If we think we're in for deb chatter... we're wrong for here's a vivid conversationalist who doesn't dwell on fripperies and "things."

LIVED IN LONDON From the moment she landed in England as a bride (they lived first in a small service flat... 87 steps up, and one more onto a chair provided a real life etching of London chimney pots), Mrs. Digby-Seymour has been a keen observer of the English scene.

The move to Northamptonshire made the couple feel more permanent and they settled down, entertaining two or four friends at home (rationing prohibits larger gatherings except on the rare occasion), Mr. Digby-Seymour serving on the County Council, his wife invited to join the Northampton Art Association.

This latter is a group of writers and you'll recall that the new member from Grosse Pointe was published in Colliers shortly following her marriage. She's now a contributor to the association's quarterly and finds, "everybody in Eng-

CHICKEN CACCIATORA (Hunters' Stew)

Contributed by Mrs. Joseph A. Maiullo II
1 frying chicken (about 4 pounds)
2 medium onions
5 tbsp. olive oil
1 clove garlic, chopped
1 No. 2 1/2 size can tomatoes
2 large green peppers
mushrooms
pinch each of sweet basil, thyme, oregano and dry mustard
Cut the chicken into serving pieces and dredge with pepper and salt. Heat the olive oil in skillet. Brown the chicken on all sides, about 10 minutes. Then stem, seed and slice the green peppers lengthwise and mix with chopped onion, garlic, tomatoes and herbs. Add all to chicken. Cover and simmer about 35 minutes. Add sliced mushrooms and simmer 10 to 15 minutes more or until mushrooms are cooked. Serve with parslid boiled potatoes, a green salad and red chianti.

Vernier P.T.A. To Hold Dance

The Vernier P.T.A. will depart from its usual annual games party and hold a Valentine Square Dance on Tuesday, February 14th, at the Detroit University School on Cook road. Lee Brennan and his team of helpers will start at 8:30 p.m. with a half hour period of instruction.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard DeVlieg are chairmen of this dance. They have asked Mr. and Mrs. Donald S. Crampton and Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer A. Krogh to take charge of food, and Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Frost, tickets. The committee invites all Vernier members and their friends to come. Call Mrs. Frost at TU. 5-8726 for information about tickets.

BEER PARTY INTERRUPTED

Pointe Counter Points

Spring and St. Valentine's Day are influencing JACOBSON'S this February. They've filled that darling little flower cart in the accessories dept. It's chock full of nosegays to be pinned at the lapel... center front... or where-you-will... brightening up suits and frocks. There are gay narcissus, bouquets of violets, daffodils, clusters of lilacs all of which would send charming Valentine greetings. In the same department at JACOBSON'S you'll love the chic little scarves to be tied in so many different ways for a touch of Spring-time even on a drab Winter's day! There are short and narrow scarves (about the width of a gentlemen's dress tie) that knot slimly and smartly. They are pure silk and done in a variety of wonderful colors. There are great, beeg, squares printed in sophisticated designs. Soft ascots will catch a Valentine's eye! All these to be worn close to the heart... and all at JACOBSON'S.

Gentlemen! They're right in the Valentine groove at GROSSE POINTE DRUG CO., too, as we amble to press. A scented message in the form of a wonderful cologne or parfum from Corday, Schiaparelli, Lanvin, Coty... oh, a-l-l her favorites... just waiting for your selection. What's more, GROSSE POINTE DRUG CO. will specially Valentine package all your sentimental purchases with beating red hearts, Valentine red ribbons. And remember, too, the wonderful candies you can get at this Valentine headquarters... either in heart-shaped packages or just the regular handsomely turned-out boxes from Sherry, Russell Stover, Whitman etc.

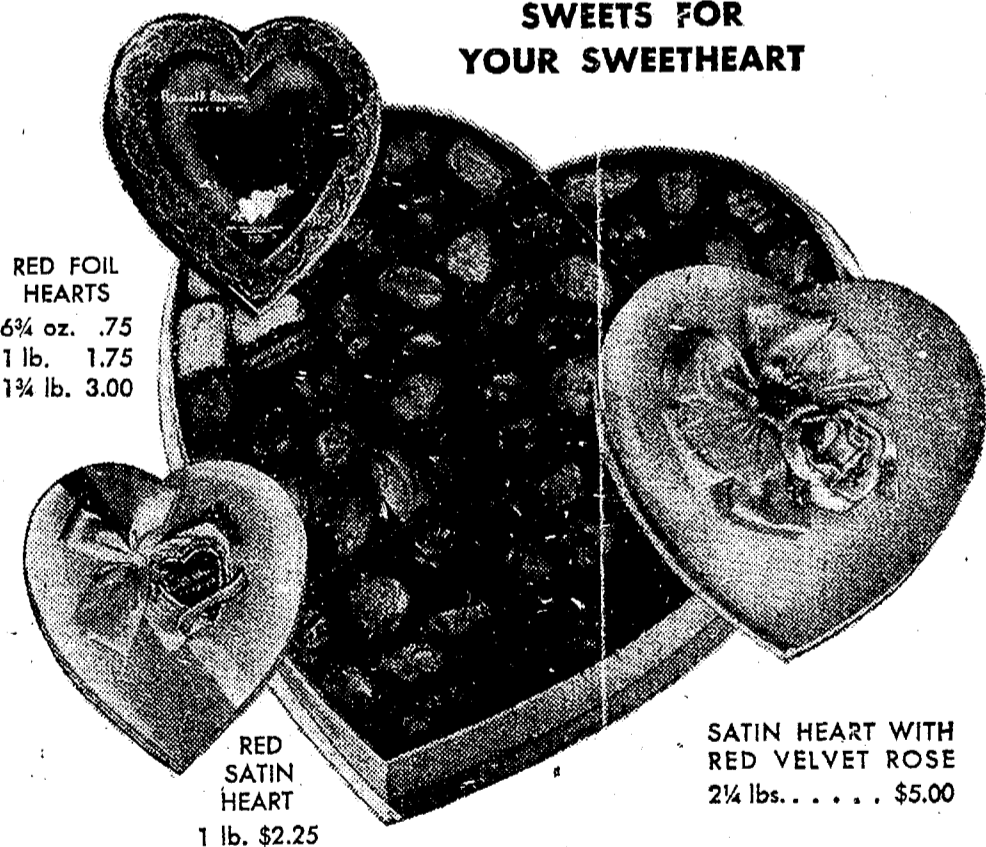

Now, if you'd send a Valentine straight from Pared you've only to step to WALTON PIERCE SHOPS... either THE GROSSE POINTE BRANCH... or the CITY CLUB shop... and there you'll find the exquisite imported French cosmetics by Helene du Cannet. These are to be found exclusively at the WALTON PIERCE SHOPS and are a teddibly 1950 Valentine. There's the parfum, packaged in red suede, Funel No. 60 (the perfume of a lady!) And then simply wonderful, chubby little jars of creme scented in natural flower oils. Just a tiny speck is needed to do The Work. There's Lavender Creme 222 (normal or dry skin), Creme of Roses (oily skin), Creme of Lilac (night and massage) AND a lemon balm, that's the biggest Beauty secret of them all! For a little girl to give her Mama, the parfum No. 60 comes in stunningly packaged two dram bottles. A Beautiful Valentine!
