HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, April 20

THE RAILROAD firemen and engineers have called a strike for 6 a.m. next Wednesday. The strike will cut off vital areas of the nation's rail transportation system. Roads affected are the Pennsylvania system west of Harrisburg, New York Central west of Buffalo, Michigan Central west of the Detroit river, the C. C. C. and St. Louis, the Ohio Central lines, Santa Fe (proper) and Santa Fe (coast lines) and the Southern Railway System. A door for a pre-strike settlement is left open. David B. Robertson, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers says, "If they, (the railroads), feel that progress is being made toward settlement, the strike may be postponed."

Stars Booked for Annual Mutt Show on May 6

There will be plenty of headline material on exhibition at the Third Annual Mutt Show to be staged at the High School grounds on Saturday, May 6. But the canine stars won't be competing with the Pointe kids' pooches. The competitive events are strictly for the youngsters and their pets. On hand to give exhibitions will be such standouts as "SAFETY GIRL," the dog who teaches the boys and girls traffic safety, shown here with her master, OFFICER EDISON STORING of the Detroit Police Department; International Champion German Shepherd LORNE VON LIEBES-TRAUM; and International Champion Toy Pinscher LULABEL.

Park Accepts Plan for New Street Lights

Edison Given Go-Ahead on Installation Along Mack, Jefferson Avenues

At a meeting of the Park Council on April 20 the proposition of the Detroit Edison Company to install 15,000 lumen lights on Jefferson and Mack avenues from Wayburn to Cadieux was accepted.

To Start Soon
 The work is to be started at an early date but it is improbable that it will be finished this season. Mack avenue will be the first street to be lighted with the new lights. This is done out of deference to the wishes of the

Rare Treats Promised Kids And Adults at Third Annual Mutt Show Set for May 6

Ty Tyson, Veteran Radio and Television Announcer, Will Be in Charge of Event; Rulers of Dogdom Coming to Give Exhibitions

The Third Annual Mutt Show, scheduled for Saturday, May 6, jointly sponsored by the Grosse Pointe News and Roland Gray's Sport Shop, is shaping up to be a far more elaborate event than the two previous ones which proved so popular. In addition to the many dogs of every description which will be exhibited by Pointe youngsters, some of the best trained and most beautiful animals in the country will be on hand to perform for the kids and grownups.

Will Not Compete
 Dr. J. F. Purvis, Pointe veterinarian who has always been helpful in conducting the Mutt Shows, has lined up six of the outstanding dogs in the metropolitan Detroit area and their owners will bring them to the show. These international champions will appear for exhibition purposes only and will not be in any of the competitive classes for the Pointe youngsters.

Among this group will be "Frejax Royal Salute," springer spaniel, owned by Fred Jackson of Oak Park, Michigan. Frejax was International champion, 44 times best of show; 50 times best dog in sporting group.

International champion "Winwyre's" Pamela, wirehaired fox terrier. Best in show many times. Owned by Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kraft of Birmingham, Michigan.

International Champion "Lulabel," miniature pinscher. Has won 7 best in show, 65 toy groups, 99 best of breed, and best in toy 94 times. "Lulabel" is owned by Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hartman of LaSalle Blvd., Detroit.

All Dog Owners Warned Of Rabies Case in Farms

A dog died of the rabies in Grosse Pointe Farms on Monday, April 24, and police are asking the full cooperation of all dog owners to prevent any spread of the disease. The afflicted animal was at large for four or five hours on April 20. There is a possibility that he may have had contact with other dogs during the period.

The Farms police received a telephone call from the Robert Cruger residence at 122 Kerby road at 7:45 o'clock on Thursday night, April 20. The little dog owned by the family was frothing at the mouth.

Patrolmen Dhaveloose and Kerbrat took the dog to Dr. Lipson's veterinary hospital. He died there on Monday morning and the body was sent to Herman Kiefer Hospital, where the head was removed. On Tuesday morning, April 25, the Farms police were notified that the rabies diagnosis had been proven correct.

The same day the dog showed signs of the disease he had bitten little Martin Cruger, 3, on the hand. It was not a puncture wound, but a slight scratch was suffered. Martin and his parents started taking Pasteur treatments, a sure preventive of the rabies, on Monday, April 24.

Chief Walter Hoyt of the Farms police has talked with Dr. David Littlejohn, Wayne County Health Director, who says it is not necessary to declare a quarantine for just the one case. If another case should appear, Chief Hoyt will ask for a quarantine.

Residents, Officials Cooperating in Big Clean-Up Program

Help of Everyone Needed to Make Drive Running Through This Week Most Successful Ever Conducted

Clean-Up Week in the Pointes has received much valuable cooperation from the Board of Education, according to Mrs. Arthur Fleming, Education Chairman for the committee launching the program. Both gold and blue chapters of Hi-Y boys at the High School have formed eleven crews of six boys each to clean up public properties over this weekend.

The locations at which they will work are being assigned by the municipalities. The debris thus collected will be carted away by regular collection trucks. Captains have also been assigned at the High School to oversee the appearance of grounds and class rooms, and a plan has been formed for continuous surveillance and student cooperation in keeping their own school a model of cleanliness.

Students Make Posters
 Nearly 200 colorful posters have been made by hand by grade school children and High School students, and Hi-Y boys have made 40 silk-screen posters in the school print shop. These have been distributed throughout the Pointe and have been accepted with enthusiasm by the merchants who are also lending their encouragement to the spring cleaning campaign. Store property and alley ways are receiving a Spring Clean-Up job as well as private homes and public properties. Merchants have also cooperated by installing appropriate window displays in several local stores.

With Clean-Up Week fast approaching its close, indications are that householders have made every effort to tidy up the ravages of winter. Piles of household and garden debris have been seen, waiting between curb and sidewalk to be carted away.

Many Littered Lots
 However, in this community of clipped, tidy, neatly kept residential areas, interested observers may have noticed many littered fields and empty lots. Mrs. Matthew Houghton, Chairman of Clean-Up Week, has received a number of telephone calls asking her committee to attend to such "eye-sores" and prevent neighbors from dumping their garden trash there. They also demand more trash containers in public

 Water Revenue 116,600.00

The millage is not fixed until the final adoption of the budget. It is believed it will be about 4/10 of one mill lower than last year.

Township Taxes Drastically Cut

The budget of Grosse Pointe Township for the year beginning April 1, 1950, will be only $22,000. Last year the budget was about $93,000. The millage will be 4/10 of one mill.

The cause of this big shrinkage is that since last year the Farms has become a city and all of the Grosse Pointe communities have united in maintaining their police radio and health service, which were two of the largest items in the old budget.

The Park which is in process of becoming a city has not yet gravitated into that category as it still awaits the formation of a charter and the various legal requirements which must be complied with before it assumes city status. It will meanwhile have its election costs and welfare service looked after by the township. The Woods and Shores are also still in the township structure.

Kids Must Be 16 to Operate Scooters and Motor Bikes

Parents who are being pestered by their children under 16 for aid in obtaining licenses to operate motor scooters and motor driven bicycles, may be happy to learn that such licenses are not obtainable in the Pointe.

The police departments have announced they are generally swamped each spring with requests for such permits, and that these requests simply constitute a waste of time for the police and parents.

The police departments all operate under the supervision of the Department of State, Operators License Division, and must comply with the rules of the department.

To operate a motor scooter or a motor driven bike, the operator must have attained the age of 16

State Orders Treatment of Storm Water

Park, City and Farms Involved With Possibility Woods, Shores May Be Affected

As forecast in the NEWS several weeks ago, the Park, the City of Grosse Pointe and the Farms are going to be faced with the necessity of treating their storm water sewage overflow at Fox Creek.

When Detroit abandoned its effort to compel the three Grosse Pointe communities to share with it the expense of by-passing this vent and carrying the storm-water overflow down to Conner Creek, it was done with the understanding imposed by the Water Resources Commission that it would provide sewage treatment facilities at the Conner Creek outlet to handle its own sewage from that part of Detroit which impinges on Grosse Pointe.

The projected Essex relief sewer, known as the Ashland area sewer, is to be for that purpose.

Same Requirements
 This left the Fox Creek outlet for the use of the Pointe communities but it was assumed at the time that the same requirements by the Water Resources Commission would be imposed on them.

Now the blow has fallen in an official notification to the Farms, City and Park under date of April 19 from the Water Resources Commission.

It reads:
 Lansing, April 19, 1950.
 Village of Grosse Pointe Park, City of Grosse Pointe Farms, City of Grosse Pointe.

Before the Water Resources Commission.

NOTICE OF DETERMINATION
 "Notice is herewith given that with the removal of its combined sewage overflows from Fox Creek by the City of Detroit, the responsibility for future protection of the waters of Fox Creek will descend exclusively upon the Village of Grosse Pointe Park, the City of Grosse Pointe and the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, either severally or jointly, in accordance with such use as the said three municipalities make or may make of the above mentioned drainage outlet to the Detroit River; that mixtures of sewage and runoff, originating within the said three municipalities or for the disposal of which any one or all may be legally responsible, are to be so controlled as to maintain the Fox Creek open channel free of objectionable appearance or odor nuisance adversely affecting the adjacent area, and in addition shall be so controlled as to polluting content as not to injure legitimate and proper uses of the Detroit River into which the water of Fox Creek are received for final disposal; that in the absence of corrective measures, unreasonable pollution of the waters of the state may be expected to occur; that in our judgment suitable control works in the Fox

Three Injured As Cars Crash

As James E. Meeks of 13174 Catalpa, Wyandotte, was driving west on Vernor at 12:48 a.m., April 22, he was struck by a car driven by James D. Morris of 184 Lathrop. Both cars were damaged and had to be towed away.

Morris suffered lacerations on his head and hand and two passengers in his car, Charles Cassno, of 2160 Lakewood, cuts on his left eye, and Dorothy Faulds of 2564 Marlborough, cuts on her right knee.

Morris got a ticket for failing to stop at a stop sign.

Shortly after the accident happened two young men drove by and seeing the damaged cars proceeded to help themselves to a tire and wheel. An alert neighbor, who desires his name withheld, saw the goings-on and took the car number.

The next morning Detective Stanley Enders got a warrant for the arrest of Marion Lester Curtis, aged 25 of 793 Dickerson, Detroit and Michael Dudd, Jr., 21, of 4676 Coplin, and they were listed for a hearing on Tuesday morning.

On April 24 they pleaded guilty to larceny from a car before Judge Belanger in Police Court and were held in $1,000 bail for sentence in Circuit Court.

Dragnet Set For Molester Of Children

Police Seeking Man in Yellow Tudor Who Has Accosted Four 12-year-old Girls

A would-be molester of young girls has the police of the City on the hunt and the police of the other Pointes have been asked to join the dragnet.

On April 15 an irate father living in the 400 block of Rivard called up at 5:30 p.m. and said his twelve-year-old daughter, and another little girl of the same age had been accosted by a man in a yellow Tudor and asked to get in his car with him. The children were frightened and ran home.

Duplicate Complaint
 One week later, on Saturday, April 22, the same sort of complaint came from University place. This party seems to be operating between Vernor and St. Paul and University place and Fisher. Again it was two girls about 12 each who had been accosted by a man in a yellow Tudor.

All four of the girls said he "was quite old and quite a big man." In the parents' opinion he might have been anywhere from 30 to 50 years old.

Fire Department Has Quiet Month

The Farms fire department enjoyed a quiet March, according to the monthly report of Chief George Danbury.

Only six calls were answered. There was one residence fire with total damage to building only $25 and no damage to contents.

Order Storm Water Treated

Creek open channel will be necessary to accomplish the necessary protection of Fox Creek outlet and zone of influence within the Detroit River.
"Notice is further given that this Commission has under consideration the adoption of an order which calls for the alleviation of present or future pollution of the above mentioned Fox Creek and adjacent waters of the Detroit River by the construction and operation of suitable control works, or equivalent measure, the same to be provided on or before May 1, 1955, from plans submitted to the Michigan Department of Health for approval not later than January 1, 1953.

"Hearing on the facts and proposed action involved will be provided by this Commission on Tuesday, June 20, 1950, at 10 a.m. meeting in the office of the chairman, Health Department Administration Building, Dewitt Road, Lansing, following which the final order of determination will be adopted.

"The above notice of determination was adopted at the April 18, 1950, meeting of the Commission, in accordance with the provisions of Act 245, Public Acts of 1929, as amended by Act 117, Public Acts of 1949, on motion by Mr. Fontana, supported by Mr. Ronk and unanimously carried.

"Present and voting: Albert E. Heustis, M.D., Commissioner of Health, Chairman; Stanley Fontana, Deputy Director of Conservation; Irving Ronk, for State Highway Commissioner; Lawrence O'Neill, for Director of Agriculture; B. J. Abbott, for Industrial Management; V. C. Beresford, for Conservation Groups.

Milton P. Adams, Executive Secretary."

Whether or not the Water Resources Commission is going to insist on the minimum treatment capacity of what is termed a one-year storm flow is not yet determined. This body has been talking this minimum treatment for some time. This means briefly the storm water overflow which may be expected from such heavy storms as occur on the average only once every year.

Engineers say that this contemplates an enormous flow of water, the treatment of which would run into great expense. They say that for Detroit to treat its Conner Creek overflow on this basis would require a plant covering as much as 150 acres and running into many million dollars.

See Large Expense
This envisions a large expense to the three Pointe communities but at the worst it is not believed it would amount to the nearly $6,000,000 which the Fox Creek diversion plan would have cost them.

This order from the Resources Commission will be up for preliminary consideration by the councils of the three villages in the near future.

An important meeting of the engineers and attorneys of the Park, City and Farms will be held at 9:30 o'clock this morning for a preliminary study of the new problem.

The engineers will discuss the outline of the sewage treatment plan while the attorneys will give thought to the liability which may still remain with Detroit in its abandonment of the Fox Creek basin and outlet.

There are walls, bridges, etc. and the question is not yet answered whether Detroit can divest itself of all liability for their removal, or other treatment, by merely announcing that it has abandoned Fox Creek to the Grosse Pointes.

Further conferences are also scheduled between the local authorities and the Resources Commission.
Every effort will be made to keep this cost down to the lowest figure possible, but the plan now proposed may in the long run prove advantageous to Grosse Pointe.

If the time should come when the Woods and Shores are confronted by the same order from Lansing it might prove the signal for all of the Pointes to get together and solve their mutual problem in one operation.

The determination of the State and National authorities to pro-

Rabies Case

The Chief has expressed the hope that this will be a powerful lesson to those dog owners who insist on letting their dogs run at large. There is the chance that one or more of these wanderers may have been in contact with the afflicted animal. All owners are asked to keep their dogs in strict confinement to see if any signs of the rabies appear. Those owners who obeyed the law and have kept their dogs confined need have no worry now.

The Cruger dog was a small mongrel of the fox terrier type. They had brought him to the Pointe last November and had not had him vaccinated. He would have had to be vaccinated before obtaining a license for the period which starts May 1.

Chief Hoyt says while the scare is on there will be no plain violations tickets issued to owners of stray dogs. They will have to go to court and explain why their animals are running loose.

Dr. Thomas Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner, stated Tuesday that he did not believe there was any reason to call off the annual Mutt Show scheduled for May 6. He had made a thorough canvass of the neighborhood near the Cruger home and found that all the dogs in that area had been vaccinated against the disease.

He stressed that all dog owners should keep their animals confined and under close watch for the next several weeks at least, for the protection of themselves and their families.

tect the water course from Huron down from pollution is taking form and will inevitably lead to determinative action at some not far distant day.

But it looks now as if Grosse Pointe is to be compelled to do its bit somewhat earlier than was expected.

at New York and Morrison Essex. Owned by Gordon Parham of 6 Mile road, Detroit.

"Safety Girl" Coming
As announced last week, another outstanding star of the canine world will be on hand. "Safety Girl," No. 1 dog of Detroit, will give a demonstration of intelligence under the direction of her owner, Officer Edison Storing of the Detroit Police Department.
"Safety Girl," a beautiful Doberman, has appeared at many schools in the metropolitan area, teaching children safety rules with her wonderful tricks. She can do everything but talk.

Ty to be Chairman
Equally sensational news this week is that the show will be conducted by Ty Tyson, veteran radio and television announcer for Stations WWJ and WWJ-TV. Ty is a resident of the Pointe and has long been vitally interested in all Pointe athletics and sporting events. His acceptance of the job at the Mutt Show adds much to the event. He will be assisted by Lansing Pitman.

George Black, who so ably handled the last two shows, will be away from town the day of this year's event. He is, however, giving much valuable assistance to the committee before his departure.

Added to Committees
Names added to the committee this week include Benson Ford, J. B. Ford, III, Woody Crouse, Dan Simmons, Orville Yacks, William Joy, Trevor Smith, Fred Rannels, Edward Snell. The police and fire chiefs of the Pointe will be honorary officials.

Added to the women's committee are Mrs. H. Monroe Campbell, II, Mrs. Maynard Swan, Dorothy Bennett, Helen and Mary Owen and Lydia Kerr.

Mrs. William Kerber is bringing her famous dog "Lucky" to demonstrate his remarkable talents. "Lucky", a waif found as a puppy, once occupied the Pointer of interest column on the NEWS feature page. The Kerbers have taught him a number of amazing tricks.

Husband Very Helpful
Harold Husband of the Board of Education, is giving the committee invaluable assistance in taking care of the grounds end of the show. The event is being staged at the High School athletic field.

Some of the youngsters have stated they thought there was a charge for entering their pets in the show. This is definitely not true. Everything is free, even down to the hot dogs and soft drinks being contributed by Francis Lemmer of Francois' restaurant.

There will be prizes galore for all classes and among dog food manufacturers who will be on hand to distribute free samples of their products, will be such famous names as Gaines, Hills, Miller, and Lang.

Many Classes
The show is open to all youngsters 14 years and younger. Breeding means nothing. The dog with the shortest tail in each weight class will win a prize. So will those with the longest tails; the fattest ones; the largest ones; and the smallest ones. And there will be classes for the mutts able to do the best tricks.

Entries are being taken at Gray's Sport Shop at 106 Kercheval. In case of rain, (heaven forbid), the show will be held the following day, Sunday, May 7. The first event will start at 10 a.m. on Saturday, May 6, and entries should be on the grounds in plenty of time to be organized into their respective classes.

DENTISTS CONVENE
The Michigan State Dental Society conducted its 93rd Annual Convention at the Hotel Statler in Detroit on April 24, 25, 26. Dr. George W. Christians of Grosse Pointe, is the society's president.

Clean-Up

places and more frequent pickups by the municipalities.

Mrs. Houghton's committee wishes to point out that they are only a small steering committee, formed at the suggestion of Garden Clubs and certain public spirited citizens. As such they have no authority, and have not sought authority to give orders or lay down rules and regulations.

Up to Residents
Furthermore the municipalities are not in a position either financially or from the standpoint of manpower to give much extraordinary aid in this project. So it remains up to disturbed citizens to band together with their neighbors in an all-out effort to rid unsightly vacant lots of their debris. If carefully piled between sidewalk and curb, the municipalities, have promised to cart it all away as soon as possible.

Doing Extra Work
Grosse Pointe Park intends to visit the most cluttered empty lots this week, accompanied by the Fire Department, and burn up all excess trash. The Farms has promised extra pick-ups on Saturday and during next week; the City of Grosse Pointe already has a policy of cleaning up vacant lots whenever they appear to need it and when the pressure of everyday pick-ups is not too heavy. Other municipalities have promised all the help they are equipped to give.

At the Municipal Officials' monthly luncheon held last Wednesday at the War Memorial Center, Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann, representing Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, expressed the hope of many when she said that Clean-Up Week might easily result in a full-term, constant effort to keep Grosse Pointe one of the most beautiful of Michigan's communities and a completely satisfactory place in which to live.

Richard Seymour, 21, of 605 Rivard boulevard, who was the driver of the car in which Jerry Scott, 20, of 616 University place, met his death on the night of Jan. 21, 1949, on Lake Shore road, was convicted of negligent homicide in Judge Thomas F. Maher's Court on April 19.

His case was referred to the Probation department and the bond of $1,000 was continued. The sentence carries a maximum of one year imprisonment. Negligent homicide is rated as a high misdemeanor.

It developed in the evidence that Jerry Scott had drunk very little during the evening and that he had tried to persuade Seymour to let him drive the car, it obviously being recognized by Scott and probably the others that Seymour was in no condition to drive.

The car belonged to Seymour's father and as the driver for the evening he refused to surrender his seat. What made the accident especially tragic was that Scott and Seymour were warm personal friends.

St. James Lutheran Church 10th Anniversary Sunday

St. James Lutheran church of Grosse Pointe, McMillan near Kercheval, will celebrate the 10th anniversary of its founding at special services on Sunday, April 30. The guest speaker at the 11 a.m. service will be the Rev. Hugo G. Kleiner, district vice-president, of North Tonawanda, N.Y.

At a special evening service, beginning at 8 o'clock, the guest speaker will be the district mission board chairman, the Rev. Albert T. Tong, Detroit, father-in-law of the congregation's pastor, the Rev. George E. Kurz, who will conduct the services on Sunday and who has served St. James church since its organization ten years ago.

The congregation started as a mission in February, 1940, after a thorough survey of the Grosse Pointe area was made under the direction of the Rev. A. H. A. Loeber, of Messiah Lutheran Church, Detroit. The founders of the congregation were members of Messiah Church, Dr. Austin Neeb, Fred Wuebold, August Foote, and the Rev. A. H. A. Loeber. On April 30, 1940, the church was organized with 14 members and five pupils in the Sunday school. The constitution was adopted at this meeting.

On June 30, 1940, the Rev. George E. Kurz was ordained and installed as pastor. Services were held in the library of the Grosse Pointe High School until December, 1940, when the congregation began conducting its services in the Punch and Judy Theatre. In January, 1941, the congregation voted to purchase its present church site on McMillan road near Kercheval, and this property was cleared of all indebtedness in 1942.

In October, 1943, the congregation appointed a building committee to prepare plans for the new church and subsequently engage an architect. After months of study and research, the building committee submitted to the congregation the proposed building plans, which were unanimously accepted.

In July, 1944, the congregation of St. James, by resolution, voted to become self-supporting. On June 27, 1947, the ground was broken for the building of the church, and three months later, September 21, the cornerstone was laid. The church was dedicated on December 5, 1948. At the present time the congregation numbers 352 communicant members, with 160 pupils enrolled in the Sunday school.

At the morning anniversary service next Sunday the charter members still active in the church will be seated as a body. The charter was kept open for one year, at the end of which time there were 57 members, 38 of whom are still with the church, including the following: Dr. and Mrs. Austin Neeb, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wuebold, Elinor Wuebold, Irma Dietz, Mrs. Vera Rounds, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bauman, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Faust, Rev. George E. Kurz, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carnarius, Paul Carnarius, Mrs. Walter Flemming, Mrs. John Fraser, Mrs. John Sipple, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Asmus, Sr., Marvin Asmus, Jr., Mrs. John Fuchs, Mrs. Thomas Jacques, Mrs. Thomas Hersey, Frederick Reinstein, Mrs. Leo Carr, Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Dahlen, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rieth, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Flemming, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holmes, Mrs. Robert Patterson, Mrs. Donald Riching, Ernest Moeller, Sr., and Ernest Moeller, Jr.

Dearborn Wants Fluorine Water

A communication was received at the Park council meeting on April 24 from the authorities of the City of Dearborn asking the Park to join with them and other communities which receive their water from Detroit, in urging Detroit to introduce fluorine treatment into the drinking water.

This suggestion was prompted by the advice of dentists, physicians and some engineers that this treatment would contribute to the saving of teeth in young children. A brief discussion on the subject by the council developed the fact that there was still a wide variation of opinion as to the efficiency of the fluorine treatment for the purposes mentioned.

Incidentally the cost of such treatment would amount to about $365,000 a year, and it was not clear in the communication whether this additional cost was to be borne by the Detroit Water Board or to be pro-rated among the municipalities served. The measure was laid on the table for later consideration.

Twenty four Golden Rule drunks were arrested in Grosse Pointe Farms during the fiscal year ending Feb. 28.

Police Radio Termed Tops

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Municipal Radio Control Board sent a communication to the Park at the council meeting on April 24, containing notification that the monitoring service for Detroit and the Macomb county area is now in operation.

Under this arrangement the Park maintain the monitoring service covering Detroit and the Shores police station that for Macomb county. The function of these two listening posts is to pick up such police information as concerns Grosse Pointe and re-broadcast it instantly to all Grosse Pointe cars and police stations.

This has been the weak point thus far in the recently installed local police radio service. With this service now provided, which keeps the Pointe police in instant touch with the surrounding territory, the local service is all set to function in the most complete manner possible.

The present Pointe radio service has been declared by the State Police and other outstate agencies in radio to be as complete and efficient as any in the country.

Youngster Hurt When Hit by Car

George H. Thompson of 11949 Griggs avenue, Detroit, while driving east on Maumee between Notre Dame and St. Clair on April 20 knocked over Jack Kennedy, aged 6, of 436 St. Clair.

Jack had dashed across the road in the line of the car and was thrown about 13 feet. He was unconscious when taken to Bon Secours Hospital and found to have suffered a slight skull fracture. He was removed to his home on the 23rd with instructions to the family to keep him quiet in bed for several days.

Arise and Shine

The annual clean-up week which falls between April 22 and 30 has had a livelier advertisement this year than usual, thanks to the interest of the Garden Clubs of Grosse Pointe. These energetic women who ordinarily devote their civic enthusiasms to the encouragement of gardens have also a keen interest in the removal of the disfiguring debris of the winter which mars the beauty of our own or any community.

They have asked the citizens generally and the municipal departments to cooperate in this work this year. They are assured of the help of the municipal agencies. The work of the highway crews will necessarily be limited to cleaning up the streets. If the citizens, however, will see to it that their own back yards are cleared of this rubbish and place it on the curbs, the municipal employees will haul it away.

There are special reasons this year why Grosse Pointe should put its best clean-up foot forward. Detroit will be the mecca for thousands of Rotarians in June who will come here from every corner of the world to attend the annual meeting of Rotary International.

In addition to seeing the industrial sights of the world-famed Motor Capital they will doubtless wish to observe how its people live and in this examination many will not overlook the Grosse Pointe community whose reputation as a site of beautiful homes is nationally known. Their attention to Grosse Pointe will be further stimulated by the fact that the local Rotary club has recently been given a room of its own in our fine Memorial Center.

The Associated Garden Clubs of America are also holding their annual convention in Detroit this year and thousands of garden lovers will be inspecting the Pointe more than casually.

So, for both our own satisfaction and to further the good name of Grosse Pointe, it is to be hoped its citizens will do an especially good job of making its municipal face shine this season as never before.

The New Automobile Clubhouse

Automobile Club of Michigan has done a distinct service to the Grosse Pointe community in the erection of the beautiful structure which it has put up at Jefferson avenue and Somerset.

When the subject of an automobile clubhouse for Grosse Pointe was first broached to the Council of Grosse Pointe Park the directors of the club assured that it would be conformable in all respects to the fine community which it was to serve.

The beautiful structure which graces the location on Jefferson is visible evidence that this promise has been kept. The directors say that the structure which has now been erected is much more complete and imposing than the one they first had in mind to build. It is said to be the finest of clubhouses which the organization has built and plans to build throughout the state.

When the project was in its formative stage there was some opposition from home owners in the immediate neighborhood who objected to the building of the clubhouse, claiming that it was commercial in character and would detract from the value and desirability of homes built in that restricted area. The Park Council was so convinced, however, that this would not be the case that it amended the existing zoning ordinance, making permissible the location of the club on the present site. Council did take the precaution of stipulating that a single family dwelling house should be first erected across Somerset from the club location to serve as a demarcation line beyond which no other properties of even a semi-commercial character should be built.

During the discussion of the project the Club's representatives stated that it had more than fifteen thousand members residing in the Grosse Pointe territory and the better service they could offer this substantial segment of the citizenship of the Pointe greatly influenced the Park Council in approving the development.

Automobile Club of Michigan, which is affiliated with the AAA, has grown from a little meeting of nine persons called by William G. Bryant in a private dining room in the old Pontchartrain hotel in 1916 into the largest automobile club in the World with, at the present time, well over 230,000 members.

The Grosse Pointe clubhouse will furnish every variety of service which is now rendered at the main office downtown. It is the finest automobile clubhouse in Michigan and probably in the entire country. The services, which include road service, tourist information, insurance and a variety of others, is well known to the thousands of members in the state of Michigan, and will now be more conveniently at hand to serve the Pointe community.

Election Year Backscratching

On top of the brave declaration the other day that a group in Congress made up of both Republicans and Democrats were out to place a limit on the national debt came the announcement that a Rivers and Harbor bill had been passed, practically without a dissenting vote.

This is what is properly known as the Pork Barrel bill. It is the one omnibus measure which permits every Congressman or Senator to send back home a slice of the public revenues, literally for "home consumption." It is the time honored method of bribing the voters and is especially effective as live bait in an election year.

Some of these items are necessary and worthy but many of them are not and are as obviously a method of bribing the voters as the subsidies paid to farmers, or any others of the many measures which tax all for the benefit of the few without any corresponding benefits to the man who pays the

"Spring, with that nameless pathos in the air
Which dwells with all things fair,
Spring, with her golden suns and silcer rain,
Is with us . . . once again."
(Henry Timrod)

When a book is prefaced with "Any similarity to persons living or dead is entirely coincidental" . . . we can understand it perfectly. An author, racking his brain to find non-existent names for his characters, in order to avoid the inevitable law-suit, HAS to cover himself with that preface. Just as sure as not, if he comes up with the seemingly impossible name of Hectmunter Balderswitch, there will actually BE a Hectmunter Balderswitch who is just waiting to catch the author with his typewriter down.

What we don't get are these radio programs about actual crime cases and FBI stuff, where they "withhold the names of persons involved for obvious reasons." Well, the reasons are NOT obvious to us. If a guy robbed a bank and killed three guards and was caught and hanged twenty years ago . . . we don't see why he has to be called "Joe Dokes" (a name no doubt really belonging to an innocent party), when his real name was Slag Tweeks.

Another bit of radio machination that throws us completely, is the "fiction" murder or horror story, that always ends with the comment that "any similarity to persons . . . etc., etc., etc." We listened to just such a story one night . . . as a soporific before turning out the light . . . and what unfolded before our frightened ears was something of this ilk. A mad scientist, passing among his neighbors as a mild and kindly doctor, would lure people into his workshop of horrors and cut off their heads. In the last scene, as he is being caught . . . we are taken into his studio just in time to hear one of the newly chopped heads "plop" on the floor and bounce across the room with disconcerting clarity. That in itself is not unusual for bedtime murder mysteries . . . but we WERE a little awed when the program was over and the emcee announced that the characters in the preceding program were entirely fictitious and had no connection whatever with persons living or dead. LEAVE US HOPE NOT!!

A letter to the Editor last week was left on our desk because we are the one directly responsible for the writer's complaint. We shall try to explain to the gentleman, who incidentally is absolutely right.

Our correspondent writes that in writing about the death of race horse Sweep Swinger last week, we said he died at "Marysville, Canada." To him, that is like saying "Springfield, United States." WHY, he wants to know . . . do we not use Canada's Provinces just as we use the names of our States? He also points out that what we should have said was "St. Marys" (which it is, NOT Marysville), in Ontario, Canada.

Well sir, we stand corrected . . . and now may we explain? When we were hired to write this here new column, we had a hunch there was a gremlin in the typewriter, so to speak, and that we would no doubt be asked from time to time to do a little of this and a little of that. We were not wrong. Our first week on the job we were asked to do such simple things as sweep the office floor, empty ashtrays, run errands, answer the phone and in our spare time we were told to wash the windows. After a year or so, we caught on to this skulduggery and found more and more excuses for doing our column at home. So far so good. Then we began getting calls from the office. Would we write this little squib, cover that little meeting, get the story on Mrs. Soandso, cover the Police blotter, ad infinitum. Last week, we graduated to obits and since Sweep Swinger was a thoroughbred close to our heart, we were asked to write his and we did not check on the correct name of the place where he died. We're awful sorry, mister. Forgive us?

It seems there are no lengths to which songwriters will NOT go for a "different" lyric. Just as soon as the public latches on to a "Riders in the Sky," we have to get "Wild Goose" and "Swamp Girl." Right on the heels of "Baby It's Cold Outside" . . . we get "Dearie, Do You Remember" . . . followed by a little horror we heard the other night, whose name (fortunately) we didn't catch. It was one of those "cute" boy-girl songs like the above two . . . but get a load of the lyric:

He is telling her that he will love her when she is old. That's the gist. He starts out by saying that when her arches have fallen, it won't make any difference to him. She counter-attacks with melodic dexterity, that she will still admire him when his waistline sags (as it WILL) and he'll be wearing his belt just above the knees. He comes back with reminders of her gray hair, double chin and size 42 dresses. She counters with his bald head, thick-lens glasses and ear trumpet.

To top the whole thing off . . . he reminds her (laughingly) that she will probably end up in a wheel chair . . . but to him, she will always be his only love!!!! As gay and liting a song as we've heard in many a moon. BAH!

freight. He simply pays higher prices than he would otherwise, and food or other products accumulate which have to be either given away or destroyed because it is kept beyond the reach of those who need it most.

The annual pork barrel handout is the most concrete evidence of the insincerity of the advocates of economy.

It is an annual mutual backscratching operation which now goes on from year to year uninterruptedly out of which the taxpayer comes as the goat, and has been in full swing ever since dry creek beds or non-existent rivers were first discovered.

The Best Defense

Some prominence was recently given to a statement that the Government was encouraging the formation of large corps of citizens into spotter groups whose special function would be to keep a lookout for enemy planes or for any gesture of hostility.

The probabilities are that this suggestion came more from a desire on the part of the Government to alert public opinion to the necessity of defense than from any belief that such work could amount to much in our general scheme of National defense.

The best defense a nation can have is power in readiness to meet attack and to strike back in instant retaliation. This makes less probable there will be any attack.

There was some real assurance in the statement of Secretary of Defense Louis Johnson the other day that we had 36,000 military planes and that our fighting forces were already largely equipped with the most destructive weapons ever devised.

That is the language all nations understand. Johnson's statement that our atomic stock pile has been constantly added to and that it is now composed of more than a limited number of bombs of a single type and size, is also reassuring talk. The people's chief concern now is that this may be exactly true.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

In her popular novel of a few years ago, "All This and Heaven Too," a book that is still widely read, Rachel Field says, "For most of us, one life is not enough . . . I want to find out what goes on under the thatched roofs of cottages and behind the walls of palaces and hotels. I want to watch people everywhere, whether I can understand the words they are saying or not. It is too much to ask perhaps, but I want to get behind the faces of men and women and feel what they are feeling."

Books of biography recently added to your library's collection include a tempting variety of titles.

I LEAP OVER THE WALL by Monica Baldwin. A young English girl, a niece of former Prime Minister Stanley Baldwin, enters a convent to become a nun in 1914, just before the outbreak of World War I. Twenty-eight years later, shortly after the launching of World War II, she returns to the world. Her life in the convent and her subsequent experiences on returning to the outside are described with sincerity and considerable humor.

BENEFITS FORGOT by G. B. Stern. Miss Stern reckons her three favorite virtues as gratitude, courtesy and mental honesty, conceding the while, that Faith, Hope and Charity may be found to contain these. In this, the fourth volume of her literary reminiscences, her theme is gratitude; gratitude for what she has been spared as well as for what she has been given; for peace after war, for security after peril, for little everyday pleasures. It is however, not what this author says that counts most. It is the way she says it. Skillful writing.

JOHN C. CALHOUN by Margaret L. Coit. A man who has been often misunderstood and whose actions frequently have been misconstrued, comes to life under Miss Coit's sympathetic pen.

LOVE STORY by Ruth McKenney. An amusing account of the author's married life, its trials, triumphs and tribulations.

ALL THE SHIPS AT SEA by William J. Lederer. "The story of Commander Lederer's career in, love for, and war with the United States Navy from the days when he was 'Captain of the head' in Newport's Barracks B up through his arrival in scrambled egg rank." Good fun.

Dickie Mayo, a second grader with a keen interest in everything from earthworms to Einstein, is impatient to read all about these fascinating subjects for himself. Eager to advance from the primer corner, he took from the library shelf a small book "Two and Two are Four."

"May I take this one Miss X. . . . Certainly Dickie, if you think you can manage it."

To illustrate his prowess Dickie began to read aloud. He made a valiant effort but it was obviously tough sledding. Finally he looked up with a grin. "I can't do it, Miss X. I guess this time two and two only make three!"

Treatment of Constipation

By FRED M. KOPP, R.Ph.

Of all common complaints constipation probably leads the rest. It is a safe guess that 95% of the people who complain of constipation try self-medication of one kind or another, and often many different kinds within a short period of time.

True, temporary relief is often obtained but it affords no permanent help, and may inflict serious damage to your intestinal system.

For even an occasional attack of constipation ask your doctor to recommend treatment, and for continuous trouble he will want to diagnose to find the cause so that he can help you correct the condition.

A trusted pharmacist can skillfully compound the medicine your doctor orders.

Church Founders Discuss Early Struggles

FRED WUEBOLD, left, and DR. AUSTIN NEEB, two of the original founders of the St. James Lutheran Church, will be taking part in the 10th anniversary celebration at the church in McMillan road this Sunday. The picture of the church building recalls the days when the beautiful structure was little more than an idea. Their efforts contributed largely to the realization of the goal. The building was dedicated in December, 1948.

The death rate from cancer has risen from 65 per 100,000 population in 1900 to an estimated 140 in 1950.

Sharp drops or rises in temperature cause trout eggs to develop into fish with extra backbone segments.

Youths Confess Stealing Emblems

The epidemic of automobile emblem stealing which has plagued the Farms police, has been terminated with the arrest of a group of seven boys ranging in age from 11 to 15 years. Five of them live in the Farms, one in the City and one in the Woods. The youngsters were picked up in the alley behind Houston Brothers service station by City Police Officers Moffat and Deraedt last week. All were carrying screw drivers, which aroused the suspicions of the officers.

The boys said they only stole one set of emblems in the City. They were then turned over to Farms Detective Harold Seelow. They produced a bag containing 18 or 20 emblems, all but two stolen off Ford 1950 cars.

The boys deny they had anything to do with the slashing of convertible tops, a number of which cases have been reported in the Farms during the last several weeks. The police are inclined to believe them.

All the parents were notified and sat in on sessions with Police Chief Walter Hoyt, Detective Sergeant Elmer Labadie and Detective Seelow. The boys have been turned over to the custody of Probation Officer Schooley of Wayne County Juvenile Court and all have been placed on unofficial probation.

Kercheval Crash Blamed on Dog

A dog which dashed across the street was blamed for an accident which occurred on Kercheval avenue between Merriweather and Lothrop at 1:45 a.m. on April 23.

Gary Spencer Long of 1041 Harvard road, was driving his Ford east on Kercheval when the dog ran in front of the car. He slammed on the brakes and lost control. His car crashed into a 1950 Pontiac parked on the North side of Kercheval and owned by W. E. Long, of 155 Lothrop.

Damage to the Ford was estimated at $200 and to the Pontiac at $175. Long was given a ticket for having his car out of control.

Cottage Plans Hospital Day

At Cottage Hospital plans are well under way for the observance of National Hospital Day on May 12, the anniversary of the birth of Florence Nightingale and the date chosen by leaders in the health field, to acquaint the public with the work of hospitals in providing high standards of care in the community.

The first National Hospital Day was observed in 1921, and had the endorsement of the President of the United States, as well as many dignitaries, governors, and state and local officials.

Since 1924, National Hospital Day has been officially sponsored by the American Hospital Association, and is now observed throughout the United States, Canada and several foreign countries. President Truman, in his letter this year, to the American Hospital Association, says:—"National Hospital Day is a fitting occasion for all citizens to learn more of the expanding role of hospitals and health centers in this Nation. Communities everywhere are becoming aware of their great responsibilities for the health of every citizen."

Open House at Cottage Hospital, Friday, May 12, from 2 to 4 p.m. will afford friends and neighbors an opportunity to visit, in health, the institution which stands ready at all times, to serve them in illness or emergency.

FALLS OFF ROOF

George W. Sparks, aged 31, of 831 Ledyard, Detroit, an employee of an insulating company, while working at the house at 1127 Kensington fell 30 feet from the roof. He was removed to Bon Secours, where the only injury found except shock was a bruised knee. He was discharged from the hospital the next day.

Come As You Are Party Enjoyed By Congregational Church Group

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Women's Association held a "Come As You Are Party" Monday morning, April 24. The General Chairman was Mrs. James T. Huetter with Mrs. Lloyd Weed and Mrs. James C. Bolles assisting.

Drivers of cars stopped for members of the association, friends and interested neighbors in the community, asked them to slip on coat, take their purse, and follow without opportunity to change clothes. They were driven to the Social Hall of the church, 240 Chalfonte, for a morning of fun and frolic.

A bag blowing contest, the winner awarded with a bag of nuts, started the morning activities. The cooks, Mesdames Verle E. Ryan, George Geisbuhler, William R. Budds, Earle R. Genthe, Lester E. Bauer, Russell Brunke,

George Smith, and Leonard Slowin, stepped lively as they welcomed the group of singing. "If I'd Know'd You Were Coming, I'd Baked a Cake."

During the rendition, Gorge George, a trained live goose, was released and paraded about in pompous fashion. Mrs. Alton Huntington, and Mrs. Lynde Martin, in charge of the program patterned after Tom Brennehan's Breakfast Club, kept things moving. Contests for the longest hose runs, mends, large waist-lines, hair curlers, shortest skirts were rewarded with humorous prizes, such as 2 1/2 carrot necklaces (garden variety), nail polish to stop runs, etc. Fines for offenses of 5 and 10 cents were charged.

The party closed with all participating in setting up exercises and singing of "Home Sweet Home." All were taxied back to their respective homes at noon.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerborn

It was the mailbag that supplied the news this week... and kept our thoughts running round the globe...

From Copenhagen came a postcard from Pointer Stanley Ernst... who's fast at the viola in the Scandinavian Orchestra touring Denmark, Sweden and Norway...

"Words do not serve to describe the panorama of centuries old scenes and customs. Scandinavians kill you with hospitality... eat, eat, eat, Oh Boy!"... What a pleasant death...

Malko Goes To The Embassy

Then... not a Pointer... but one who has expressed to us his appreciation of Pointe charm on visits to Detroit...

The distinguished Ukrainian conductor... Nicolai Malko... just returned from six months in Europe... during which he conducted the London Philharmonic... the orchestras of Paris, Stockholm, Copenhagen, Rome, Palermo, etc.

This... the same Malko whom one day we hope will play a part in Detroit's symphonic scene...

In Copenhagen the United States Ambassador, Mrs. Eugenie Anderson, entertained in Malko's honor...

The maestro found her a charming, friendly, informal person... a pianist... and guest at several of his concerts...

When the Ambassador called for Malko to take him to the Embassy and the party she was giving in his honor... waiting in the car was her 13-year-old son...

Malko inquired for the daughter of the family and the Ambassador replied:

"She is 15 years old, independent and has some other arrangements"... a typical American gal...

Guleaertersuppe

In Copenhagen, the maestro was honored at the dinner party given by Alfred Olsen in his Egebaekgaard mansions... when the host made a short before-dinner speech:

"You are going to get Guleaertersuppe (yellow pea soup) because Malko likes it!"

The stock is made of boiled turkey and yellow peas... the turkey removed and replaced by pork... and suddenly ambrosia...

Malko, in answer to a note from us, chided we had incorrectly worded the question, "What did you have to eat?"

We could see him looking through those wonderful, tiny square eyeglasses of his, saying... "The question should have been put, 'What did you have to drink?'"

For "Lucullean" Alfred Olson is proud of his wine cellars, which contain not only French and German white wines, but Spanish as well... and Algerian red wine...

The Lighter Side

King Frederick IX attended a final dress rehearsal when Malko conducted in Copenhagen...

Before the war, King Christian X, the Queen and the crown prince (the present King) had attended Malko's concerts...

At lunch the King displayed eager interest and admiration for the United States... and Malko came away with a healthy respect for His Highness' musical preferences... Frederick is an amateur conductor with solid, serious training...

Before going on to our next letter... we have to sit here and wonder if Malko showed the King any of his beloved riddles... it is such an unexpected and delightful side of this serious master!

Pointe Loses Sylvia Teeg to Long Island

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Teeg of Rivard Boulevard Leaves For East Following Saturday Marriage to J. Lee Grant in St. James Lutheran Church

A beautiful day, a handsome young couple combined Saturday to make the wedding of Sylvia Teeg and J. Lee Grant one the guests will long remember. The ceremony took place in St. James Lutheran Church at 2 o'clock followed by a reception in the green room and great lounge of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Teeg of Rivard boulevard and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ted Grant of Grosse Ile.

Something old and something new, something borrowed, something blue was carefully followed by the lovely young bride who borrowed from her mother the heirloom lace handkerchief which the latter's mother carried to the court balls in Austria of the Emperor Franz Joseph. New and blue was her wedding garter of blue silk with tiny pocket to carry an Indianhead penny.

Sylvia wore a gown of ivory satin made on classic lines, its full skirt extending into a long court train which was frothed with the French silk illusion veil attached to her bridal cap. A tiny turn down collar of lace finished the neckline which was ornamented in miniature seed pearls. There were orange blossoms on the bridal cap. She carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis.

Janet Van Osdol, maid of honor, wore a portrait gown of pale yellow marquisette with the waist girdled in green slim ribbon to match her marquisette brimmed hat. She carried yellow carnations and blue iris.

The bridesmaids wore gowns fashioned after Miss Osdol's only toned in pastel green with yellow sashes and hats and they carried bouquets of deep red carnations. Betty Graham, Mrs. Vernon Rutherford, Darlene and Marlene Grant were the attendants.

Four year old Jean Rutherford, in a long white organdy frock, worn over pale pink silk slip, carried a basket of pink rose buds, as flower girl.

The wedding party grouped around the altar where lilies, white snapdragons and stock were used. Green ferns served as background for the altar.

Ted Grant Jr. was his brother's best man and the bridesmen in Richard Kvitik, the bride's brother, Robert Teeg, Jack Urmscher and Bob Byerly.

Mrs. Teeg chose a gown of navy sheer for her daughter's wedding. The matching chapeau was

A senior, Miss Gillette was recently elected to Sorority Society, highest scholastic honor. She is president of the Athletic Association and played on the hockey team.

Handwriting Analysis Hobby of CDS Teacher

Source of much interest and conversation is the unusual hobby of Mrs. Vera Allen, Science teacher at Grosse Pointe Country Day School. "Character Analysis Through Handwriting" was the subject of Mrs. Allen's talk Monday afternoon, April 24, before the Northeastern Woman's Club. The meeting was held at St. Mark's Methodist Church.

Mrs. Allen had requested that the thirty-five members present at the meeting bring with them samples of their handwriting. These she incorporated in her talk. In the analyses she has done, Mrs. Allen has shown that character traits do appear in one's handwriting as well as in one's accomplishments.

Mrs. Allen is using her hobby in the field of Vocational Guidance for adults. She can tell whether a person should be working with materials, or in the mental field with ideas, or with people.

Opera and Symphony Interest Pointe Women

To assure music in the local air is occupying a great deal of attention from Pointe women these days. Tomorrow, ever so many Pointers will travel across town to the Detroit Golf Club for the annual meeting and luncheon of the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

And Junior Leaguers are lending their support to the Grand Opera Spring Festival which takes place at Masonic Auditorium May 14 through 18 with Metropolitan artists appearing in Carmen, Madame Butterfly, La Traviata, La Boheme and Il Trovatore.

Mrs. George R. Clark and Mrs. Donald Valley are co-chairman for the Symphony Association meeting tomorrow. Mrs. William John Parker, as chairman of hostesses, is being assisted by Mrs. Wendell Anderson, Mrs. Burt J. Craig, Mrs. W. Lloyd Kemp, Mrs. Wendell G. Wilcox, Mrs. Henry P. Williams, Mrs. James Merriam Barnes, Mrs. Moritz Kahn, Mrs. Eugene F. Schneider, Mrs. E. R. Williams, Mrs. A. Y. Wilson and Mrs. Fred M. Zeder.

Mrs. Howard C. Baldwin is decorations chairman for the day and Mrs. Henry E. Wenger, membership chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. William O. Warner, Mrs. Arthur D. Spencer and Mrs. Robert Durham.

We are interested to learn from the association's president, Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom, that although Detroit abandoned its regular Symphony season this year, under the leadership of Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, the association raised funds to engage 79 members of the regular orchestra to play a series of eight school children's free concerts. Approximately 37,000 children heard these concerts.

Mrs. Augustus C. Ledyard is chairman of Pointe publicity for the Women's Association.

And now to the opera season: Mrs. Thomas T. Petzold will be chairman, assisted by Mrs. Miles M. O'Brien. For the Birmingham Junior League, Mrs. William T. Gossett will assume the same responsibilities.

The Opera Festival is being brought to Detroit by a group of Italian music lovers and the League is aiding in the ticket sales.

Plans for the festival were outlined to members at the election meeting of the Junior League held last week at the Country Club.

At that time, Mrs. Theodore Buttrick was named president of the League. Other 1950 officers were Mrs. Eugene W. Lewis, Mrs. William L. Hurley and Mrs. R. Jamison Williams, first, second and third vice presidents; Mrs. Alexander W. Blain III, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Frederick S. Ford Jr., recording secretary; Mrs. William M. Bonbright, treasurer and Mrs. W. Warren Sheldon, assistant treasurer.

Society Makes A Date For Navy League Ball

Brilliant Array of Naval Dignitaries Adds Glamor to Ball Planned May 13 at U. S. Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile; Mrs. Ernest E. Wemp is Chairman.

Glittering gold braid of high naval dignitaries and glittering dance music will combine to make a glittering social event of the big fund-raising ball to be staged by the Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League on Saturday evening, May 13.

Tommy Dorsey's nationally-famous orchestra will arrive here from Houston, Tex., to play for the gala dance which will take place in the Recreation Building of the U. S. Naval Air Station at Grosse Ile and, needless to say, the Dorsey rhythms will keep feet gliding over the floor all evening, from 9 o'clock on.

Mrs. Ernest E. Wemp, president of the Navy League Council, has named Mrs. Fred T. Murphy as honorary chairman, and Mrs. James O. Murfin, Mrs. Walter O. Briggs, and Mrs. James P. Walker, of Grosse Ile, as the three general co-chairmen.

A whole galaxy of naval dignitaries have accepted invitations to the present at the colorful fete, some of whom will be accompanied by their wives.

The Hon. Undersecretary of the Navy, Dan A. Kimball, and his aide, Capt. D. L. McDonald, will come from Washington, D. C., and others are Vice Admiral John Dale Price, Chief of Naval Air Training, who will arrive from Pensacola, Fla.; Vice Admiral Oscar Badger, Chief of Eastern Sea Frontier, and Mrs. Badger, from New York City; Vice Admiral John Cassidy, Deputy Chief of Naval Operations, Washington, D. C.; Vice Admiral John L. McCrea, Office of Secretary of Defense, also from Washington.

The list continues with Rear Admiral and Mrs. J. Cary Jones, from Great Lakes, Ill.; Rear Admiral and Mrs. A. K. Doyle, from Glenview, Ill.; Rear Admiral Arleigh Burke, Office of the Chief of Naval Operations, Washington, and Rear Admiral and Mrs. Albert G. Noble, also from the nation's capital. Admiral Noble is Chief of the Bureau of Ordnance.

The Recreation Building facilities have been made available through Capt. James P. Walker, commandant of the Grosse Ile Naval Air Station, and as it has a capacity of 1,600 persons, the Navy League Women's Council is shaping all efforts to have a capacity crowd attend.

Working with this in mind are Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher, chairman of sponsors; Mrs. Frank Burtoff and Mrs. Lawrence W. Kinneer, ticket co-chairmen; Mrs. Charles Gittin and Mrs. Jack Schaffer, in charge of entertainment; Mrs. Frank A. Wickham, hostess; Mrs. Lester Gruber, publicity; Mrs. Frank B. Nair, finances, and Mrs. William S. Saylor, corresponding secretary.

On the long list of sponsors are Mrs. Russell A. Alger, Capt. and Mrs. D. Dwight Douglas, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr.; Mrs. Roy D. Chapin, Mrs. Allan Sheldon, Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Crendon, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Mrs. Richard P. Joy and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Earl, as well as numerous other Grosse Pointers.

Frank A. Hecht, Jr., president of the Navy League of the United States, will be present at the ball, coming from his home in Chicago.

Purpose of this spring project of the local Navy League Council is to spread interest in and goodwill for the Navy, and to raise funds to carry on local and national activities.

Local activities include assistance to the families of enlisted men and veterans, if and when needed for hospitalization or in other directions, and provision of recreation facilities for children of enlisted personnel.

"Spring Fever" was the very appropriate theme of the hag dance at GPHS Friday night, April 21. Cotton dresses made their debut as hags escorted their favorite stags to dance to Tommy Weldon's orchestra. Couples dancing amidst the clever cuddly squirrels, deer and skunk twosomes frolicking on the walls, included Mert Stolzenfelt with Nancy Becker, Betsy Huette and George Turnbull, Arlene Zick and Ted Shannon, Jim Stewart and Gretchen Becker, Judy Nellis and Dan Manson, Dan Barrett and Sally Owen, Joyce Clements and George Alperwitz, and Patti Jones and Norman Harden.

More couples on the crowded dance floor were Joe Buell and Gloria Duemling, Joan Parker and Gary Cooper, Judy Morlen and Bill Haring, Joyce Blashill and Nels Jensen, and Bertie Roberts and Dan Webb. Enjoying the intermission, listening to Don Cramer's piano stylings were Carol Ford and Chuck Sweet, Sue Senff and Jerry Peterson, Cleo Bonbright and Al Robertson, Nancy Kaser and Skip Smith and Bill Rexford with Linsey Netting. Don's date was Jill Read.

Television provided an amusing diversion at Diane Retzlaff's before the dance. Sipping cokes and playing piano, (as well as watching TV), were Diane's date Ben Bray, Bob Schaefer and Connie Zick, Rhoda Barbour and Ted Hiltman, Bertie Jacob and Fred Jensen, Peggy Koehler and Bob Singelyn, Colleen Horrigan and Mike Hood and Gail Sisson and Bob Law.

Pat Underwood welcomed her friends after the dance for more dancing and cokes and pop corn. Gathered in Pat's recreation room were date Ted Vernier, Joe Redfield and Carolyn Keith, Shirley Krueger and John Wood, Burt Sullivan and Carol Glines, Adele Huebner and Don Gles, Julie Hibbard and Louis Merrick and Howie Ramsay.

This weekend should be an exciting one, especially for the girls leaving for Washington on Chet Sampson's trip. When the station wagons leave today, friends and parents will wave goodbye to Gloria Anton, Margaret Koehler, Gail Sisson, Shirley Stoup, Shirley Giller, Nancy Kaser, Diane Retzlaff, Rhoda Barbour and Carrie Crain.

Square dancing, games, movies and refreshments will entertain kids tomorrow at Variety Night at Memorial Church. Some of the kids working on the affair are Alice James, Nancy Hall, Dick Clark, Susie Riggs, Tom Lister, Keith Rowan, Hank Hubbard, Karen Temple, Judy Morlen and Jim Lafer — Should be lots of fun!

By Doris Nielsen

Didn't we have a good time at our last meeting though? There's nothing like a good supper with our men such as we had plus movies and guest speakers to make a most enjoyable evening.

We are most grateful to President Mrs. Roy G. Schott and 1st vice-president Mrs. Walter Krammer of the Michigan League for Crippled Children for the wonderful movies they showed on the Grace Bentley Camp. I only wish everyone could have seen them.

Many thanks to Districts Auxiliary Child Welfare Chairman Irene McPherson and Districts Legion Child Welfare Chairman Freddie Rogers for their fine talks.

Sorry to hear that we have Unit members Betty Hoyt, Margaret Berfelz and Sue Hamilton and Post member Guido DelBarba on the sick list. Also that Pearl Adleman had such a nasty fall.

Orchids to Post member Paul Crell who, after hearing Rehabilitation Chairman Mary DelBarba ask the Post for a contribution toward slippers for the veterans at the Veterans Hospital in Dearborn, donated $20.00 in memory of his mother.

That's all for now except the Nielsen phone number has been changed back to TUXEDO 2-9494.

Seven violators of the firearms ordinance were arrested in Grosse Pointe Farms during the fiscal year ending Feb. 28.

HEALTH AND SANITATION CODES . . .

. . . of your community are designed for the protection of yourself, your family, and your neighbors.

Their purpose is to remove in so far as possible all areas or deposits of sewage, garbage, rubbish, or other filth which might become potential breeding sources for disease germs or other contaminating elements. They are also designed to preserve cleanliness, neatness, and generally improve the appearance of your community at its best.

It is urged that you do everything possible to help improve and protect its existing standards of cleanliness and sanitation, even to the extent of taking steps over and above the minimum requirements established in the health and sanitation codes governing your community.

ABOUT POLIO . . . Your help is needed in furthering the effectiveness of every possible preventive measure your community can take in combating disease spreading germs and flies as well as other hazards to sanitation and cleanliness. Therefore the following suggestion for safeguarding your family is offered . . .

. . . IN THE INTEREST OF GREATER COMMUNITY HEALTH, SANITATION AND CLEANLINESS.

Incineration or disposal by thorough scientifically devised burning processes is not only one of the most efficient means of getting rid of waste bulk of all types, but is also one of the most effective methods of destroying contamination, bacteria, disease germs, flies, and rats or other impurities commonly developed or carried in waste garbage, rubbish or other refuse. By incinerating all possible household waste material at its point of accrual within the home, maximum protection against the hazardous effects of these various impurities is assured.

One of the most sanitary, efficient and economical methods for complete home incineration, as proved in wide usage during recent years, is the convenient, compact Majestic Indoor Incinerator, which requires no more room than the average hot water heater. It may be used in the basement or utility room of any house. An ingenious downdraft combustion principle enables this advanced type of incineration unit to burn both wet and dry garbage, and other types of burnable refuse, using waste paper alone as fuel. No fuel piping or wiring of any kind is required. The unit is simply set on the floor in the desired location and connected to the regular furnace flue. It will not interfere with, or handicap the furnace in any way. Use of the Majestic Indoor Incinerator is extremely simple. You merely place garbage, waste paper, and other burnable refuse in the unit as it accumulates. When the unit is filled, simply touch a lighted match to the contents and let it burn.

There are many advantageous features of this newest type of home incinerator which is now available in your community at $57.50 installed. Free demonstration in your home without obligation by

Children, Parents Cooperate In Preparation for Concert

May 14 at 3 o'clock in the afternoon at the Pierce Auditorium are the date, time and place for the Music Concert of the Children's Orchestra and the All Elementary Band. One hundred and fifty-six children have been meeting regularly since the beginning of March to prepare this program for the enjoyment of their parents and classmates.

The program will be in two parts, with the Children's Orchestra playing first and the All Elementary School Band second. It will be interesting to the public to learn that an example of family living has grown up out of the orchestra.

Parents of children who play in the orchestra have indicated time and time again that they would like to play along with the children. Therefore a string orchestra composed of adults and children has been meeting each Sunday afternoon and have thus prepared two numbers for the concert to be given on May 14th.

As Education in Family Living has found its way into the Children's Orchestra it is considered important to parents to know how it works.

The Sunday rehearsals are conducted in such a way that both adults and children have a voice in determining how the rehearsal is to be carried out. The children suggest less practice time on serious music and have been delighted with a nice long intermission of ukelele playing, singing, cookies and loud talking.

As usual the adults have the upper hand and a steady growth is made in the study of good string music. The compromise made, between the interest of adults and the interests of children, has worked out for the good of all concerned.

This entire string ensemble attended one of the concerts of the Stanley String Quartette which was given at the Memorial Center. They felt that it was to their interest to be there for two reasons. First, by hearing excellent string music played by professionals they would improve and second, that if they took an interest in other Grosse Pointe musical events, it was a start towards better cooperation between the many musical groups in the Pointes.

It is an interesting experience in the rehearsals of the Grosse Pointe Parents' and Pupils' String Orchestra to watch the adults loosen up in a boisterous rendition of "Clementine" and the children work very hard and conscientiously on Mozart's "Mocking Birds."

Both the All Elementary Band and the Children's Orchestra are growing in size and best of all, in musical achievement, not through a compulsory music program, but a musical study that is elected by the child with his parents' guidance. It is a far distance from the time when every child was regimented into certain musical activities because an instrumental teacher needed certain kinds of instruments in his music group.

One of the small bones in his foot was broken but the doctor said he did not believe it would leave him with any permanent injury.

Policemen See Need for Dog Catcher

Officers in Park and City Suggest Hiring One Man For Both Communities.

A complaint of long standing among the police of the Park and City, and probably of the other communities, against their bringing to gather up dogs and bring them to the pound in their patrol cars is recently becoming more vocal. They say it often becomes necessary a few minutes after transporting this canine cargo, to take a sick child from school or an invalid or injured person to a hospital before they have had time to give their car a cleaning. Most of the animals leave hairs, fleas or vomit as a memento of their recent visit and it is unjust to the citizens.

Not Always Possible Wherever it is possible, the officers themselves carefully clean out the car before starting on an errand which involves humans. It is not always possible to do this.

If the dog complaints came in only occasionally that would be a simple matter, but when as many as six or more are found in one day on a single police day book, which often occurs, it becomes more complicated.

The police are reluctant to be quoted personally on this subject, fearing that the citizens may believe they are seeking to make their job easier, but their unanimous opinion is that the amount of dog work to be done in the City alone is enough to warrant the employment of a full time dog catcher.

Plenty of Strays

Such a full time man would also make more complete the general supervision of the dog problem, including the gathering in of many unlicensed animals, of which there are many in Grosse Pointe always roaming the streets and alleys.

They state that if the Park and City unite in paying the expense of a dog man for both places, his services would quickly result in cleaner police cars and release more officers for special and regular duties.

Safety Patrol at Richard Called Best in Pointe Area

Richard school of Grosse Pointe will be honored for having the best safety patrol in its area this school year, according to Automobile Club of Michigan records.

In recognition, it will be invited to send a safety patrol boy on tour to Washington, D. C., from May 11 through May 14, Ernest P. Davis, Auto Club safety director, announced. The boy to be selected by school and club officials, will be determined soon.

Richard school will receive the honor and trip along with 100 other Michigan elementary schools as recognition from Auto Club's safety and traffic division for its outstanding safety patrol work during the 1949-50 school year.

Superintendent John R. Barnes, Principal Clarence Messner, local police and the safety patrols of Grosse Pointe are to be congratulated for their work this year. They and leaders of 1,200 other Michigan schools in this program are the largest reason why the state's child traffic death rate is so very low," Davis said.

One requirement in selecting schools for this honor was that its safety patrol had to be operating on the first day of school. Educators, police and club safety workers are encouraging all schools to select safety patrols for next fall before school ends this spring.

"One of most dangerous child-accident periods is when the fall term begins, requiring children to cross many unfamiliar streets. They must be re-alerted to traffic dangers' each fall, and safety patrolers can do this while protecting them," Davis said.

All expenses of the 100 patrolers' trip by special section of a crack train to Washington, D. C., will be borne by Auto Club as a small reward from the motoring public to Michigan's 33,000 AAA safety patrols.

Park Policemen Receive Thanks

The Turner-Buick Sales and Service at Maryland and Kercheval which has suffered two burglaries in recent months, was so highly pleased with the prompt and efficient service it got from the Park police that it sent a letter to the Park Council on April 24 saying so.

In both of these cases the Park police got the men. It was in one of the burglaries that a Park policeman, Alphonse Boone, brought down one of the burglars inside of the place with a bullet in his leg. This man, Lofton Garrison, plead guilty on April 24 in Circuit Court and is on his way to a term in the pen.

For this job Boone was meritoriously cited by Police Commissioner James McMillan.

Farms Boosting Street Lighting

The Farms Council on April 24, acting in conjunction with Detroit and the City of Grosse Pointe, authorized the installation of 6,000 lumen lights along Mack avenue from Fisher road to Bournemouth. Detroit is putting in similar lights on its side of the avenue.

These lights will be placed about 130 feet apart and are staggered with the lights on the Detroit side.

If desirable, as traffic increases and business places multiply, the lights can be stepped up to 10,000 lumens.

The Park has already made an arrangement with the Detroit Edison to place 15,000 lumen lights along Mack avenue. The larger light was stipulated there in response to the demands of the merchants along the avenue who have made repeated complaints of the poor light on the Commercial thoroughfare.

Scouts Conduct 'Family Dinner'

Boy Scout Troop 290, of Grosse Pointe Woods, held its first "Family Dinner" party, on Monday evening, April 16, at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. The Mothers of the troop were the "special" guests of honor, and each received a corsage from her Scout son. The Dads did the serving, proving that Mom can sit down through an entire meal, if her family co-operates.

The main event of the evening was a "Court of Honor", at which Scouting advancement awards were presented to the boys by John Knob, committee chairman; Byron Burchby, Scoutmaster and Joe Craig, Asst. Scoutmaster.

Homer Kellogg and Ernie Kurschat received their Tenderfoot awards and became regular members of the Troop. Second class pins were given to Scouts Ted Whittlesey, Charles Williams, Jack Laphis, Ken MacDonald, Richard Burchby, Danny Bottsford and Bruce Schofield. Stanley Antloer received his First Class Award. Star badges were presented to Robert Storey and Kent Shortz, and Sam Riggs received his Life Scout award.

Musical entertainment was provided by several of the Scouts. Kent Shortz played a piano solo, Sam Riggs and Kike Rauth a cornet and trombone duet, and Buddy Morse a French horn solo.

Charles Hewes, chairman of the District Camping and Activities committee, briefly discussed the advantages offered to boys at Camp Howell. Many scouts from Troop 290 plan to attend summer camp this year.

Model camp sites, prepared by each of the four patrols in the troop, were on display. A committee of judges awarded first place in the model contest to the Chipewa Patrol and second place to the Flaming Arrow Patrol.

Chrysanthemums Planted Now Will Add Colorful Display to Pointe Fall Gardens

By VINCENT R. DEPETRIS

It seems rather strange that on these balmy Spring days we should be directing attention to the Autumn garden. If, however, we desire to have a colorful display of flowers as a delightful wind-up to our garden season next September and October, then we should be thinking now of the queen of Autumn flowers, the Chrysanthemum.

If you did not make your selection of varieties last Fall when these garden mums were in full bloom, you will still find time to order them from the many Spring catalogs.

While Chrysanthemums are not exacting in their requirements you will nevertheless find the following helpful hints a guide to better culture.

Planting Time

Garden Chrysanthemums are best planted during the latter part of April and all through May. Much of course depends on the season. Some years even when plants were not set out until mid-June a beautiful array of color was made by early Fall. We mention this because very often Chrysanthemums are wanted for planting after Spring bulbs have bloomed.

In such instances, garden mums may successfully be planted as late as the third week in June with good results.

Best Types of Plants

The best type of plants are from top cuttings in 2 1/2" pots or larger. This type of plant is superior to clump divisions which are commonly sold to meet a low price. Plant divisions as the name implies consist of small growing shoots broken from the main clump and either potted or sold with a small clump of soil attached to a few of the remaining roots. It should be obvious that this type of plant is not a new plant with all its young vigor.

Moreover the practice of dividing old plants may also divide many diseases and insects which may infest the parent clump.

Very good advice then is: do not try to save a few cents on the initial cost of an inferior plant and then spend many times the amount trying to nurse it back to health and vigor.

Soil and Exposure

Chrysanthemums will do well in any soil provided it is well drained. They do, however, prefer a sunny exposure free from too much shade.

After planting, the general care consists of keeping the ground cultivated and free from weeds.

If the soil becomes too dry they should be watered thoroughly and left alone until dry again.

It is best not to wet the foliage when watering. This practice will spread many diseases and insect pests.

Fertilizers

Chrysanthemums are heavy feeders and will require plant food throughout the growing season. Many varieties will develop plants up to three feet across from 2 1/2" plants planted in May.

We may conclude therefore that mums will not merely require feeding but also plenty of room to grow. The distances between plants should never be less than 18" and may be as much as two feet, depending on the variety and the time of planting.

Feeding should begin about three weeks after planting and continue at intervals of three weeks until early September or when the buds begin to show color. Any good garden fertilizer is good although some which are higher in organic ingredients may be better.

Pinching

In order to induce compact plants with many branches, the method called pinching must be resorted to. Pinching consists of cutting back the strongest shoots so as to induce lateral growths. Were this not done most varieties would grow straight up with very few lateral stems.

The pinching process is continued until the end of July after which date it should be discontinued for the reason that embryo flower buds will begin to form after that date and pinching would destroy them.

Spraying

During the summer and early fall months a number of insect pests may attack garden mums. Among these are aphids, spider, thrips, grasshoppers and a brownish insect called the "tarnished bug." Many of these insects come from other plants and from weeds. They must, however, be dealt with before doing serious damage.

There are a number of sprays on the market combining rotenone, pyrethrum, and D. D. T., which have proven both safe and effective in the control of these chrysanthemum pests. The amateur gardener will do well to confine himself to these for spraying.

Among the newer insecticides there are two which are extremely effective but unfortunately are very poisonous and consequently much too dangerous for general use. These new insecticides are Tetra-Ethyl-Pyrophosphate and Hexa-Ethyl-Tetra Phosphate. Both are very poisonous.

Sodium selenate, a selenium compound, is another very poisonous chemical which is used in a powdered form. This powder is used in a diluted form and applied to the soil and is thus taken up by the growing plant through the root system by absorption, thereby killing the insects as they feed on these poisoned tissues.

The poison from this compound will remain in the ground for several years making it dangerous to grow vegetables and other food crops.

The best advice therefore, is for the amateur to use only sprays which are known to be safe and at the same time effective in the control of insects. Rotenone, Pyrethrum, Nicotine and D. D. T., in various combinations will be found safe and effective.

During late summer all tall growing varieties should be staked to prevent them from falling over as they develop their blooms.

Varieties

It is impossible in this brief article to name even a few of the many varieties which are appearing in catalogs every year. We must recognize the fact that nearly all of the new varieties appearing each year have some merit, particularly in the region where they were originated. Yet the fact that a variety does very well in one part of the country is no proof that it would do as well elsewhere.

For this reason it may require several years before any variety becomes a nation-wide favorite. By that time the novelty loving public is looking for something else.

It must be added also that each year new varieties are being developed which are suitable for specific uses such as, for low borders, for tall background, for cutting and for size of bloom.

There would be no single variety which could fulfill all of these requirements, consequently the field is becoming more specialized each year.

The following have been found to do extremely well in and around Detroit.

White
Avalanche, Chris Columbus, North Star, Silver Moon, Morning Star, Milky Way and Astrid.

Yellow

Police Kill 'Possum In Tool Shed in Park

'Possums are making their annual appearance again in Grosse Pointe.

On Sunday morning the residents at 1213 Grayton notified the police there was an opossum in the tool shed on their place.

The police disposed of the animal. This is the same species of semi-wild creature that caused a woman in the Park to call up in great alarm last season and report that there was a "giant rat" in her basement.

It is reliably predicted that motor tires good for 75,000 miles will be on the market within the next few years.

Health Service Details Recited

At the Park Council meeting on April 25 a letter was read from Dr. David Littlejohn County Health Director, under date of April 3, reciting in detail the conditions under which his department is taking over the Grosse Pointe Health Service. These have already been fully published.

A specific statement from Dr. Littlejohn is that when the new County Health budget is taken up in the fall he will ask for a sufficient additional appropriation to enable his department to continue the same health service, with respect to the school service, that it has been receiving from the Township health department for many years.

This additional school service is now being provided by the County but by virtue of a supplementary appropriation of $12,500 by the Pointes to December 1, 1950, at which time the new county budget comes in. The Park's share of this service, which is pro rated among the municipal subdivisions of the school district, is $3862.

While it has been generally understood, that the County Health Department would pursue this course, so far as known this is the first written commitment from the County Health head to this effect.

The Ensemble consists of 16 voices, each with a fine musical background. This is the only Negro chorus of its kind in Detroit, most of the members having done radio and recording and several appeared in the 1948-49 presentations of "Carmen Jones." This is the first time for them to perform for a school program.

The program is open to everyone who enjoys good music. Admission is free.

The annual election of officers of the P.T.A. executive council will follow the entertainment and there will be a social hour and refreshments.

Meet Opposition In Cancer Drive

Disturbed by opposition which many volunteers have been meeting from Detroiters who thought they were giving to the American Cancer Society when they contributed to the Torch Fund last fall, officials of the Society's Southeastern Michigan Division have reiterated that the Society was not a member of and had received no funds from the United Foundation.

"The 1950 Cancer Crusade in Detroit and Southeastern Michigan is being conducted to raise funds necessary to carry on the vital activities of the American Cancer Society in this area," George Edwards, general campaign chairman asserted.

Edwards said that 4,000 deaths from cancer in the Detroit area in 1949 pointed up the need for more funds to finance the extensive detection, service and educational programs of the Southeastern Michigan Division.

Detroit's share of the national quota is $350,000, although officials here have not established a local quota. More than $75,000 of this will go to support detection centers at the Society's headquarters, 4811 John R. Woman's Hospital, Henry Ford Hospital, Northwestern Grace Hospital, St. Joseph's Hospital, Providence Hospital and Deaconess Hospital. At these centers all persons may receive a free examination to determine whether they have cancer.

Additional funds are needed to carry on the service program which provides cancer pads and special treatment for cancer sufferers in this area. More than a half million cancer pads, all made by women volunteers, were distributed to cancer patients in this area last year.

None of these projects will benefit from the $200,000 which the United Foundation gave to the Detroit Institute for Cancer Research. These funds will be used to support research activities at the Institute.

Students Learn By Field Trips

Four field trips this spring have been sponsored by the Parents' Association of the Detroit University School and Grosse Pointe Country Day School for the Junior and Senior classes at Detroit University School. A many-sided view of Detroit's business and industry has been seen through trips to the Chevrolet Forge Plant, the County Court buildings, banks, insurance companies, the Detroit Stock Exchange, and a brokerage house.

Charles M. Smillie, Jr., of the Parents' Association, has planned these trips with H. Gordon Wood and Charles F. Delbridge, Jr. of the Detroit University School Alumni Association.

The Chevrolet Forge Plant was visited by the juniors and seniors on March 14. They were accompanied by Mr. Smillie from the Parents' Association, Mr. Garrett and Mr. Yeager of the faculty. Returning to school for lunch, a lecture and quiz followed to tie ends together and make a complete picture.

An afternoon tour was arranged and conducted by H. Gordon Wood and Charles F. Delbridge, Jr., members of the Board of Governors of the D.U.S. Alumni Association. This tour consisted of visits to all the County Courts, the Recorder's Office, Tax Office,

A second field trip took place on April 17. The theme of the entire day was the financial side of industry. In the morning all banking operations of a Detroit bank were observed.

As some 42 students and faculty members lunched at the Penobscot Club, they reviewed their observations of the morning.

A tour and lecture at an insurance headquarters began a busy afternoon. The students from D.U.S. were in the pit of the Detroit Stock Exchange and ended with a visit to a brokerage house. At the latter, a lecture showed the connection between brokerage and trading on the exchange.

Dominican High Mothers To Hold Election May 3

The annual Spring Card Party will be held at the Book Cadillac Hotel tonight, Thursday, April 27, at 8. For reservations call Mrs. Daniel Page, TU, 2-6016.

Neighborhood Club Is Scene Of Fine Tribute to Winners

Tiger Star George Kell Guest of Honor at Unusual Event; Basketball Season Just Closed Called Best in History

By Fred Runnells

For the first time in the history of the Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club, the club's basketball champions were feted at a banquet last Saturday, April 22.

There were almost two hundred persons on hand when Master of Ceremonies Toby David got the group into a lively mood with a short song fest, while everyone was being served.

Kell Guest of Honor

At the speakers table guest of honor George Kell, Tiger third baseman and 1949 American League batting champion, was flanked by Preston Smith, president of the Optimists Club, David Abadaha of W.R. Toby David, Bill Melcher, president of the Lions Club, George Elworthy, Bill Desrocher and Pauline Masack of the Neighborhood Club.

Following the dinner of baked ham, scalloped potatoes and all the trimmings, Kell gave a short talk on sportsmanship assisted by Abadaha and then very honestly apologized to the group for having to leave early as he had tickets for the hockey game.

Trophies Awarded

The banquet was climaxed by the awarding of the team trophies and individual "oscar" to the players of each team.

Much of the credit for such a nice gesture toward the local champions must go to Bill Desrocher, athletic director at the club, who was instrumental in the extremely successful basketball season just finished. According to Club director Elworthy this season was the biggest and most successful in the club's history.

Thanks for Bouquet

Your writer would like to take this opportunity to thank George Elworthy for the wonderful banquet he tossed our way for the publicity the News gave the Neighborhood Club basketball this past winter. This sort of thing is our job and I personally wish our community had larger facilities to handle more teams during the winter.

Over 300 young men, women and kids had their first opportunity to play organized basketball through the initiative of the Neighborhood Club and Bill Desrocher.

Judies Take Top Spot in Rotary Loop

Get 21 Out of Possible 24 Points in Spurt During Last Seven Weeks

The G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League finished its players of each team. The G. P. Woods Recreation last Friday night. The P. & J. Cocktail Lounge team, sponsored by John Hume, Jr., and captained by John Jeakle, by finishing first, came from nowhere, so to speak.

Never better than sixth place all season and away below that most of the time, the Judies put on a late spurt that carried them to the top. In the last seven weeks they won 21 points out of a possible 24.

Second place in the league went to G.P. Review who had the best chance of any team in the league. Their four point loss to Motor City Tires two weeks ago, practically knocked them out of the running.

Tie for Third

Mondry Cleaners finished in a tie for third place with Piche's Barber Shop. This team also had a good chance but faltered when the chips were down.

Piche's Barber Shop, working their way up from next to last place, earned the plaudits of the entire league for their sensational drive in the second half of the season.

Middle Atl. Transp. Co. was 1 point out of first only three weeks ago but went into reverse.

Reverse Position

Kopp's Pharmacy, winner of the title last year, headed the other way and were never topped.

FINAL STANDING

Table with 2 columns: Team Name and Points. Includes P&J Cocktail Lounge (76), G.P. Review (72), Mondry Cleaners (71), Piche's Barber Shop (71), Auto Club (70), Houston Bros. Inc. (70), Motor City Tires (68), Middle Atl. Transp. Co. (67), Earl Holzbaugh (63), Farms Market (59), Harrison Carpets (58), Kopp's Pharmacy (48).

Kell Goes Hungry at Pointe Banquet

GEORGE KELL, Detroit Tiger star and last year's leading batter in the American League, had a tough time getting anything to eat at the Champions' Banquet in the Neighborhood Club last Saturday night, April 22. The admiring youngsters were lined up most of the evening, getting the famous athlete's autograph.

Dearborn Falls Easy Prey To Blue Devils' Net Team

Local Lads Grab 33rd Consecutive Victory in Downing Opponents by Clean Sweep in All Seven Matches

Grosse Pointe's fast moving tennis team clipped a "patsy" when it swamped Dearborn 7-0 Thursday, April 20, and registered its 33rd consecutive victory on the local courts.

The Blue Devils swept through the Dearborn squad with monotonous regularity, winning every set in the seven matches in the non-league match.

Rookies Get Chance

Coach Merlin Schultz withheld his number one player Al Mann from the contest and gave some of the other boys a chance to prove themselves. Mann tops the tennis ladder at the school on Fisher road and has successfully turned back the challenges of the number two player, Fred "Skip" Pessel throughout the early weeks of practice.

Bob Peterson, by far the most improved player on the team teamed up with Bruce Terris to win the number two doubles match easily from Charles Croll and Bob Barrow.

Veterans Triumph

Veteran Bill Whittingham scored an easy triumph over Ron Layman 6-3; 6-1. Bill Rossiter, another veteran, took the number two match from Ellis Schellenberg 6-0; 6-1.

Dick MacKenzie, playing number three singles, whipped Bailey Thompson 6-1; 6-0 and Jimmy Barker, the "comeback boy" continued on the comeback trail successfully by beating Doug Mills 6-1; 6-2 in the number four singles.

Only Two Extended

Fred Pessel and Ray Leonard, both veterans, were the only Pointers who were extended to win. They beat Herb Fenske and John McPherson 6-0; 11-9.

Jack Westphal and Tom Lamb completed the shelling by beating Howard Ballentine and Bill Lowrie 6-0; 6-1.

Grosse Pointe's reserve team tackled the Dearborn skin to the wall with a clean 7-0 sweep also. These matches were played on the Neighborhood Club courts.

Tennis New Sport

Dearborn is not a tennis power as the school only installed tennis as a major sport three seasons ago.

The Blue Devils played a practice match against Cooley High School of Detroit on Wednesday, April 19 using only two letter winners in winning 6-1 on Cooley's home courts.

This match was not scheduled and will not be counted in the consecutive winning streak.

Last Monday, April 24, the Blue Devils entertained Mount Clemens for the first time in six

Reindel Star As Thinclads Win Opener

GPHS Track Team Whips Hazel Park by Lopsided Score in First Meet of Season

Grosse Pointe's questionable track team scored an impressive non-league opening Meet victory when it swamped Hazel Park, 74 to 35, on the Parker's home track Tuesday, April 18.

Jim Reindel emerged the brightest star from the large group of potential Pointe cindermen when he paced the local lads to the lopsided triumph.

In Four Events

Reindel took the 100 yard dash, the 180 low hurdles and then teamed up with Larry Swart, Dick Higgs and Dick Lowery to win the 880 relay. Reindel topped of his day by helping the Devils three quarter mile relay team of Gene Halbrook, Hugh Bevier and Dick Higgs win this event.

Ben Bray stamped himself as a boy to watch during the Pointers' campaign for the Border Cities League track title this Spring.

Bray Also Shines

Bray notched victories in the 220 dash and the high jump event. He capped his day's work off with a second place behind his teammate Reindel in the century run.

Other Devil winners were: Dick Lowery in the 440 and George Alperwitz's toss of 36 feet, 11 inches won the shot put.

The Devil first league meet against Royal Oak, scheduled for Tuesday, April 25, was postponed to Thursday, April 27.

Sail Expert Sandy Douglas To Talk at Crescent Club

By Fred Runnells

Local sailors are in for a treat Tuesday, May 2 when Gordon "Sandy" Douglas will give a sailing lecture at Crescent Sail Yacht Club.

Douglas is well known as the builder of the popular "Thistle" Class boat, of molded plywood construction.

Not only does Douglas know how to build boats but he is an exceptional sailor as well. He started sailing many years ago and won his first championship at a very tender age (he wouldn't say how old he was) in 1913.

In 1918 he annexed the American Open Canoe Sailing title in the Deeked Sailing Canoe title in 1924 and 1925, and again in 1937 and 1938. In 1936 he challenged for the International Challenge Cup for Sailing Canoes which was and still is held by England.

He captured second place in the International 14 Great Lakes Championships in 1941 and 1942. He also took second in the International Open Class in 1948.

In 1946 and 1948 he captured the Thistle Nationals, finished second in 1947 and fifth in 1949. The 1949 race was held on the Detroit River off Bayview Yacht Club.

Sandy's talents on the water aren't just limited to sailing. Between 1932 and 1937 he won 13 Canadian Paddling Championships and in 1936 was selected on the Canadian Olympic Paddling Team despite his American nationality.

Now if that isn't enough of a drawing card to make you tear yourself away from your back breaking chore of digging up your wife's flower garden then consider these facts.

Besides being a good fellow to have around boats, Sandy also is a portrait painter and sings in a Barbershop Quartet for which he does the arranging and is a member of the International Judges Panel of the S.P.E.B.S.Q. S.A. Inc.

The lecture is open to all non-members who wish to attend.

More Letters From Colleges

About three weeks ago we ran a story about what some of the former Grosse Pointe High School athletes are doing these days. Since that time the News Sports desk has received other letters providing us with newsy information about Pointe Boys.

This week was no exception. I received a letter from Jim Bailey, graduated June 1947, who is attending the Michigan College of Mining and Technology and as Jim puts it he is trying like the devil to become an engineer.

Jim writes he has been playing tennis on his school's varsity team for the past two years and at present is battling to make it three years in a row.

Bailey tells us that another Pointer, Jim Trowsdale, is doing all right for himself in track at the same school. Jim ought to know, they live together.

Got a little publicity note from Trinity College today telling about its Freshman baseball team and way down in the middle of the letter I came across the name of Dave Seeber. Dave is one of three candidates for third base chores on the team. At present he is playing understudy to Ray Miller from the Bronx.

How can one expect to beat a combination like that? The guy has the surname of a former big leaguer, Bing Miller, and he comes from that baseball crazy town the Bronx. Keep writing fellas and we'll print the stuff.

Tennis Clinic Great Success

Roland Gray's third annual tennis clinic at the Neighborhood Club will reach its climax next Saturday, April 29. It is a big success. No less than forty-five tennis enthusiasts turned out to receive free instruction.

The door is still open for those of you who couldn't drag yourself out of bed last Saturday.

DUS Nine Wins One, Loses Two

Detroit University School started its baseball season last week by losing games to Lakeview and Beaconsfield, in scores of 10-2 and 7-3.

Last Friday afternoon, D.U.S. met Clarenceville. On the timely hitting of Dave Rentschler and Bob Kratzel, D.U.S. won 7-4.

The 5 inning, 3 hit relief pitching of Dave Rentschler did much to spark the team to this first win of the season. Warren Sisman, holding down 1st base, had a perfect day at the bat with 2 walks and 2 hits.

Statistics of the D.U.S. season to date show great success in stealing bases. Out of 25 attempts, 23 have been successful.

Parr is the term applied to young Salmon before they descend, in their second or third year, from the rivers to the sea. They become about 8 inches long and are characterized by various black and orange spots, and a series of 12 or more broad bluish bars on the sides and tail.

Johnson Honored By Sportscaster

Bayard Johnson, Grosse Pointe's great basketball player, annexed additional honors at a banquet given by Lawrence Tech College Sunday, April 16 at the Elmwood Hotel.

Johnson was picked on the Greater Detroit cage team by Don Watrik, sports director of radio station WXYZ.

The banquet was attended by all the Lawrence Tech varsity players in all sports, the ten boys selected by Watrik and their girlfriends, and the boys' coaches and their wives.

Each of the Greater Detroit selectees were given gold basketball awards.

Nat Holman, City College of New York coach, was the guest speaker.

Johnson, in his last year of high school competition was selected on the Grosse Pointe News All-Star team, the Detroit Times Suburban team and the All State third team besides the WXYZ selection.

Bayard is planning to enter Dartmouth in the Fall. At present he is one of the few three year veterans on Coach Pat Kaulitz's Blue Devil baseball team. He is a catcher.

Murray Smith's team is enjoying a five point lead in the St. Paul Men's Bowling League and appears to have the second half honors all wrapped up.

L. Brecht's 174 average is still high in the loop. P. Ruprich's 655 is high for three games and A. Rogge holds the single game top with a 247, only one point higher than J. Marsack's 246.

Students Seeking Clothing For Unfortunate Children

A Save the Children "Bundle Day" drive to collect serviceable, used clothing will be conducted in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools during the week starting May 1.

The drive, which is part of the Ninth National Children's Clothing Crusade is sponsored by a national committee of school superintendents. Clothing obtained will be distributed by the Save the Children Federation in its program of assistance to children in isolated rural areas of the United States and in seven European countries, namely, Austria, Finland, France, Greece, Germany, Holland and Italy. The European distribution is mainly to refugee children.

In America clothing is distributed in low income rural areas of eight southern and mid-western states and on the Navajo Indian Reservation. Most of the children in the American areas served come from families with a cash income of less than $400.00 a year. If it were not for the Bundle Day collections, thousands of these children would not be able to attend school during inclement weather.

Wearable clothing of all types in both baby's, children's, and adult sizes, blankets, sheets, and other bedding and pairs of out-grown shoes are needed. Leaflets will be given to all children in the school system to take home during the week, stating the purpose of the drive and asking the cooperation of parents.

Families without school age children can join in the effort to clothe needy children and their families by contacting any child in your neighborhood who will be glad to take any contributions of shoes, clothing or baby garments to school.

For further information call the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, TU. 5-2000, Extension 25.

Health Council Hears Students

The Mother's Health Education Council held its meeting on Tuesday, April 18, at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center. Mrs. Poehlabel, who is a counsellor at G.P.H.S., took seven members of her class in Effective Living to discuss many of the various problems facing both the parents and young people today.

John Chase was the chairman of the panel and introduced Doug Ramsay who presented an outline of part of the course.

Dick Lowrey discussed the relationship of the high school student with his family. He mentioned that maturing socially, learning to get along in the larger social group means that one should have moderation in most things, such as in sports and hobbies. This should be combined with a good sense of humor and a positive approach toward life, a desire for worthwhile achievement.

Pat Underwood told the mothers how the class discussed the sex angle. A very lively discussion was begun after Jackie Cronin brought up the subject of dating and going steady. "All life is a preparation for marriage and consequently the more emotional stability that is developed, the greater the chances are for happier marriages." Betty Scales talked on the subject and stressed the importance of unselfishness being a vital part of future success in marriage.

Alcoholism and its dangers was the topic chosen by Charlotte Smith. She emphasized the fact that when teen-agers drink it is a sign of social pressure and lack of maturity.

The students were enthusiastic over the course in Effective Living and felt it was helping them form their own individual opinions. Through the class discussions, various ideas are brought out. The young people feel that this course is helping to prepare them to be good parents and fit well into their social world.

Following a general discussion tea was served by Mrs. Earl Walke and her committee.

Robert Canfield Trains In Navy Battle Drills

NEW ORLEANS — Five Navy destroyers docked here Saturday, April 22, ending annual training duty afloat for some 500 reservists.

The ships left here April 9, stopped at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, underwent battle drills at sea and spent a week-end at San Juan, P. R., where crews and trainees had shore liberty. In the division are the 2,200-ton destroyers Purvis, Sperry, Dickson, Gainard and Compton.

St. Pauloscope

The Soph's "Spring Frolic" last Friday night really went over with a bang! The Holland theme was carried out in decorations of Dutch boys and girls, and bright tulips.

Little Dutch shoes, taped to the gym walls, bore the names of Pat Lawler and Terry Lynch, Barb Barnum and Denny Roehl, Margie Fieldt and Dick Mutschall, Janet Kingsbury and Jerry Lubeskie, Pearl Frontera and Don Mosen, Mary Ann Burlingame and Eldon Marweed, Joyce Gardiner and Larry Reynolds, and Lorraine Broughton and Bill Kerick.

Others who enjoyed Erv Stahl's band and vocalist Johnny Murphy included: Mary Kay Boomer and Joe Stack, Sue Mercier and Ray Bieszki, Elaine Wujek and Marcel Laquere, Connie Curran and Fred Maddock, Carol Staub and Pete Belanger, and Pat Zimmers and Jerry Turcotte.

Before the dance, Dee Wise opened the doors of her home to Bev Barrett and Jih Houlihan, Retha Geyman and Ronnie Morcketter, Barbara Flowers and Jim McCarthy, Judy Fordan and Tim Champine, Jean Sharrow and Jack Trombley, Lyn Hennecke and Jack Carroll, Connie Molitor and Tom McLaughlin, and Dona Mayo and Corley Serens.

Mary Margaret Van Damme and David McCarron, Ann Reed and Tom Tappert, Mary Allor and Bill Lodwyck, Nancy Koenstetti and John Heutteman, Carol Cooper and Mike Paris, Doris Slater and Jerry Thomas, and Mary Ann Walter and DeWayne Brown were a few of the many feasting on punch, cakes, potato chips, and cane. Larry McCarthy was Dee's escort for the evening.

The Sophomore girls who won the championship of the minor basketball league were regally entertained at a dinner in their honor Saturday evening.

George Kell of the Detroit Tigers and disc-jockey Toby Davie were guest speakers at the Banquet of Champions held in the Neighborhood Club gym.

Following the meal, the girls: Marilyn Sutherland, Dolores Chilens, Connie Molitor, Bev Labadie, Donna Mayo, Peggy Sharpe, Mary Allor, Dee Wise, Mary Margaret Van Damme, and Ann Reed were presented with individual trophies.

One of the most elated girls around St. Paul's is Marilyn Smith. The other day she received a $25 check for first prize in the A.D.F. essay contest.

Another senior deserving of much praise is Tom Wyllie who just won a scholastic scholarship to Michigan State College.

Materials Being Sold By Goodwill Industries

An urgent appeal for both discarded household materials and industrial salvage has been issued by Goodwill Industries.

Nearly 300 handicapped workers and staff instructors are dependent on the contribution of such materials to keep the Goodwill workrooms operating. It is in those workrooms that the discarded articles are reconditioned and resold in the three Goodwill stores Detroit.

Last year the resale of discarded and waste material made the employment of 534 handicapped persons, who received a total of $32,805.26 in wages.

Sixteen trucks are used every day in picking up the home discards and industrial salvage. A phone call to the office, TRinity 3-3600, will bring a Goodwill truck to the door of any citizen interested in keeping this project operating in behalf of the handicapped worker asking only for a chance, not charity.

School News

The 4A class at Maire School is studying a unit of San Francisco, California. It is a study of living in a typical growing American Community. It has high lighted facts and generalizations about the American way of life in San Francisco compared to community living in Grosse Pointe. Many concepts and attitudes have been developed to ward better social living for the maturing child in his own community.

The unit culminated in a large wall mural of San Francisco and the Golden Gate Bridge. The mural is done in colored chalk. The children, art counselor and the teacher, Miss Evelyn Stewart, helped to plan the picture. It was placed in the school show case for a two week period. Then it was taken to the Alger Museum for an art exhibit.

GENERAL EISENHOWER, speaking as President of Columbia at an Associated Press luncheon, warns that American leaders "shooting from the hip" without facts to back up their declarations can cause other nations to doubt the strength of the United States... he says "If the world makes a mistake about our essential confidence and courage, we incur very, very grave dangers".

The new doe-eyed make-up the leddies are all in love with has a Grosse Pointe angle. MISS VIRGINIA DE VOY, lurching with her pals from Vogue down there in Manhattan, offered it as a make-up idea when the gals were tearing their hair for Something Different. A devotee of the ballet, the soigne Miss De Voy has had an admiration for ballet make-up for ever so long. And way before her suggestion made international fashion news, she was pecciling her own alluring peepers, but in a leddy-like way.

MRS. WILSON W. MILLS' name is synonymous with a special Violet parfum, heady and velvet. She has a custom made bath oil of the scent which is simply intoxicating and fills her whole home with the fragrance of fresh violets.

MRS. JOSEPH S. SHERER JR., one of the Pointe's most exquisitely groomed young matrons, wears an original Traina ballerina gown black Barothea. Like a ballerina's costume, the frock has seam in front of its circular waist which falls low over the shoulders and puffs elbow length in two dramatic stiff clouds of the material. The dancing skirt is lined, from waistline to hem, in severe buckram. Mrs. Sherer clips two big-as-dollar diamond pins to either sleeve.

This is to be the June of the most romantic weddings society has known in many a season. "Such perfect and utterly love matches" the dowagers are saying over their afternoon tea. One devoted and blissful bridegroom-elect has chosen his bride's wedding gown!

Speaking of the brides-elect, we adore BETTE BURR MEADER'S hair-do. A magnificent blonde, Bette Burr wears the slightest curl (more a bend) in the very ends of her coiffure, which falls fairly long. Golden, straight bangs frame her pretty forehead.

JULIE OTTER, whose complexion has been likened to a ripe golden peach, will wear one of May's most wondrous gowns when she leads MISS ANNIE WARD FOSTER'S May party. It was designed by NORMAN HARTNELL, couturier to the Princess MARGARET ROSE, who was persuaded by still another JULIE to clipper it to America for Detroit Society's May Queen!

PILFERINGS

From the New York Times' "Batter Up!" column: "Baseball belongs to the extensive genus of civilized athletic competitions stemming from the primitive play-urge to whack a fragment of rock about the place with a club . . . Encyclopaedia Britannica."

"If an umpire has any friends at all, he ought to be permitted to keep them with him at all times. He might need them.—Charles Comiskey."

"They still can't steal first base.—Phil Rizutto"

"Two hours is about as long as an American can wait for the close of a baseball game—or anything else, for that matter.—A. G. Spalding."

"Baseball today would contain a great many more stars, if the playing side kept pace with the umpiring.—Harry Steamboat Johnson, umpire."

"The man who loses gracefully loses easily. Sportsmanship and easy-going methods are all right, but a good hard fight brings out the crowds.—John McGraw."

"Baseball is a circus, and as is the case with many a circus, the clowns and the sideshows frequently are more interesting than the big stuff in the main tent.—W. O. McGeehan."

And our favorite anecdote following the Tiger opener here and printed in Bob Murphy's Detroit Times sports column:

"Pat Mullin, long after yesterday's game, was scratching his Irish head over something that happened.

"I take a swing at a ball with all I had," said Pat. "I missed and then came the strangest remark from the umpire I ever heard. The man behind the plate said, 'Pat, did you ever see so many mink coats as we have here today?'"

Pointer of Interest

"It's Harvard's loss and Yorkshire's gain" was the heartfelt cry that went up recently when United States Postal Carrier Francis Anderson, after 25 years of day in, day out delivering the mail had his postal route changed.

Mr. Anderson, an unusual Pointer to say the least inasmuch as his living room is in Grosse Pointe and his kitchen in Detroit by one of those odd freaks of landlines, naturally felt a tug at leaving this familiar territory. But daily he is being amazed and pleased by new evidences of the friendships he made on his postal route.

We received a lovely tribute to him from a Harvard road resident and immediately set out to meet him. The interview took place in the Grosse Pointe living room with the Pointer of Interest showing a marked degree of patience by graciously answering our questions though starting time of the ball game was dangerously close and the radio stood there to remind him.

Almost thirty years ago Francis Anderson, a native of Wilkes Barre, Pa., was working in the shops in Detroit. A friend urged him to try examinations for Postal Carrier service; it was good work and steady work. The next thing he knew, a likable chap was "teaching him the ropes" in the Chalmers, Newport, Lakewood district.

That chap was Otto Stefens who is his good friend to this day. Mr. Stefens is also Mr. Anderson's brother-in-law and the Harvard road residents, smarting from their loss, will be interested to know that Mr. Stefens now has their route . . . so they aren't in strange hands after all!

EXTRA SOMETHING

As a neophyte carrier, Mr. Anderson learned that the mail collected each morning by the postman at the post office is all mixed up, must be sorted and packed into the mail bag before starting out on the route. This calls for a 6:30 a.m. starting hour for carriers.

He learned about "postage due" letters, to collect from private mail boxes, to take care of "mark-overs" (address changes) and all the other postales. We suspect it was that pretty nice something about Mr. Anderson himself that also included ringing each door bell where he left mail, taking time to ease a mother's worry when she didn't receive the regular letter from her son overseas during the war years, etc.

And these extra things were those that prompted Harvard road's protest when he no longer was a familiar figure at their door.

That tribute we received went on to say: "For 25 years Mr. Anderson has been our mutual friend. He has been shifted back and forth one or two or three blocks, but he always kept Harvard. Is there anyone outside your family much closer to your heart than your postman? Do you wait for anyone with such anticipation?"

"He has watched our children grow from babyhood to man and womanhood. He brought them home to us even though they were away at war, college, camp, or on a visit. Mr. Anderson had two sons in service himself during the war years."

ing the trying war years so he seemed to know full well what letters meant to us. When letters were delayed he seemed to be able to comfort us better than anyone else. We'll always hope to have him back."

Mr. Anderson blinked just a little faster when he read that letter. He said his life was richer for these Harvard road friends and he recalled easily those war days when he'd "really lay on a bell" for that letter from overseas!

CARRYING THE MAIL

His slender, strong appearance speak well for the life of a postal carrier. The average day finds him walking 10 to twelve miles and because he is regularly out of doors Summer and Winter, all kinds of weather find him hale and hearty.

He has a whimsical expression on his face for those dates between the first and tenth of each month, when the mail is heavy with you know what. And on Friday of each week a national magazine of estimable poundage fills his pack. After carrying the first issue of that weighty periodical and finding it almost back-breaking, Mr. Anderson has never had the slightest desire to read the magazine. He shuns it.

Over the years he can tell at a glance whether a letter is important or headed for the wastebasket.

Another early lesson was that a postal carrier cannot economize on shoes. We kept thinking of debts and their mothers who stand for hours, in receiving lines on important afternoons when Mr. Anderson said his prizes are the invisible metatarsal arches which he has put on every pair of shoes. Never knows he has feet!

ONE LAST

You'd think that Mr. Anderson would want to sink back in one of his easy chairs in the Grosse Pointe living room after delivering the mail. But he dotes on baseball and is a bowler in the Postal Service league. His bowling tournament will take him to Columbus this very weekend. There are the two sons who served in the navy during the war, Gordon and Donald (one an electrician, the other choosing the shops) and daughter, Betty, and son, Leonard.

A word about ethics. Photography is a profession, you know. We work with equipment but more important is our training and experience. The doctors and lawyers have been practicing for years, but photography is young, but we have a code of ethics, however, and every member of "The Photographer's Association of America" must sign the code. Unfortunately, too many studios have not qualified for membership.

To protect the public and benefit everyone, let us hope that this unfortunate situation changes soon. Meanwhile, while the photography always insist on this emblem:

and charming woman, came into the room as we were asking our last question, "Did this gentleman who has caused the Harvard road furor ever succumb to the chronic masculine difficulty of remembering to mail a letter?"

Mrs. Anderson's face lit with a slow and pretty smile and her quiet husband, in a spirit of confession, replied:

"Yes, once I forgot to mail a letter Mrs. Anderson gave me. I put it in my pocket one Spring night and it was fall when I found it again, still in the pocket. Mrs. Anderson keeps that one lapse as green in memory as a Spring garden."

Theatre Seeking Props for Play

The sound of hammers which issues from the garage at Grosse Pointe Memorial Center at odd hours heralds the construction of a Jacobean set which George True, Karl Duams, Mac Barnum and their crew are constructing for Grosse Pointe Theatre's production of "I'll Leave It to You" to be given at Pierce Auditorium on May 10 and 11.

Prop Committee Chairman Joan Broadbridge and members Susan Duckett, Phyllis Cardoze, Chris Packer, Peter Duckett and Townsend Goebel are scouring the Pointe for a grand piano, sideboards, chesterfields and oriental rugs to lend an English suburban atmosphere.

Tickets to the play produced by Grosse Pointe's only community theatre are available at Doubleday Doran Book Shop in the village. Single tickets and block tickets at a discount may also be obtained from the Ticket Chairman, Mrs. Ralph Genter, TU. 1-4586.

Pointe Counter Points

Shantung, that big news in fashion for 1950, has arrived at JACOBSON'S in the niftiest suits you've ever seen. What's more, elegantly simple snap brim hats, handbag and shoes may be ordered to match the suit combining in a perfect ensemble for Spring and Summer. The colors are beige or gray and the shantung is the new two thread dye. There are three styles (incidentally, sizes are 9 to 15): the nipped in waist jacket . . . bolero . . . or the flared jacket.

Then Summer suits in cashmere (which looks for all the world like linen but is divinely crease resistant) are ever so smart. Those come in all the colors worn in Summertime from the deeper tones to pastel. The jackets of the cashmere suits, like the Shantungs, are lined, a pretty detail and JACOBSON'S is being devout about cost . . . the prices are that nice!
