War Memorial Center Directors at Annual Meeting

First Year Big One for Memorial

Five Directors Re-elected and Reports Heard at Annual Meeting in Center

The first full year of official life of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association was completed on May 1 and the second year began with the reelection of the five directors who drew the one-year terms at the original setup of the board of fifteen last year, at the annual meeting in the Memorial Center on Monday night.

All persons who have contributed to the Memorial Center project are automatically members of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association and entitled to vote at any general meeting of the corporation. They hold the same relationship to the Memorial Center Association as stockholders in a private corporation.

Many Attend Meeting
The meeting had been officially advertised and a large group of members were present, including many citizens of Grosse Pointe who were among the largest contributors to the fund.

Reports were heard from the standing committee heads, followed by the election of five directors. Rev. Dr. Frank Pitt of the nominating committee, reported for James K. Watkins, chairman, who had to leave the meeting early.

Dr. Pitt said that it was the studied opinion of the nominating committee that it would be a mistake not to renominate the five directors whose terms were

Program for Traffic Safety Accelerated With Meeting Of Newly Formed Council

Park Acquires New Automatic Projector For Use In Teaching Lessons to New and Reckless Drivers; School Patrols Lauded

In connection with the stepup in safety work in Grosse Pointe, the Park Police Department has just acquired a new automatic projector of the latest and most efficient design. It will be used in the Traffic School to which so many of the traffic offenders are sentenced for one or more series of lectures as one of the features of their sentences.

This device enables one officer to do the work ordinarily required of two. The numerous slides thrown on the screen enable the traffic lecturer to illustrate innumerable danger situations in less time than it takes two men to demonstrate by living example.

Council Meets
The Grosse Pointe Safety Council, which is now in operation, had its first meeting on Wednesday, April 26, at the Memorial Center. It will have a meeting on the last Wednesday of each month in the Center.

The Council is made up of the Chiefs of Police from the five Pointe municipalities, along with the mayor, president, or corresponding official of each, and a number of citizens interested in the subject of greater safety on our streets who have signified their willingness to serve. At the regular meetings of the Council each member is privileged to bring with him any citizen he chooses who has expressed a desire to discuss certain phases of the safety problem.

Other Representatives
A member of the Board of Education and a representative of the Automobile Club will also be active members of the Council. In this body it is also expected many of the local traffic laws will originate or be amended. One of the hopes of the Council is to bring about adoption by all the Pointes of the uniform system of traffic and punishment violation which has been set up by the Michigan State Police and has already been adopted by hundreds of communities throughout the country and in one case, the State of New Jersey, for the whole state, under a directive of the State Supreme Court.

Laud Safety Patrols
One of the subjects discussed at length at the Council meeting on the 26th was the growing usefulness of the School Safety Patrol. These are the youngsters with their white belts, who stand faithfully on guard at the street corners near the schools while the children are entering school or leaving, and piloting the younger children safely across the intersections.

The Chiefs of Police of the Pointe all agree that these young safety aids are making a great contribution to the safety of the young children against crossing dangers. The little tots are quick to recognize the authority of their big brothers and sisters and implicitly obey their orders.

700,000 Members
It developed in the discussion that approximately 700,000 of these school children throughout the nation are now enrolled in this capacity as adjuncts to the safety work of the country.

Many a street crossing would be left unprotected during these danger periods but for the presence of these youngsters, as no police department has enough men to man all danger points during the school children rush hours.

The Safety Patrol idea originated in Detroit and was developed here about 25 years ago.

MEASLES ON WANE

Grosse Pointe Health Director Dr. Thomas S. Davies stated on May 2 that the recent measles epidemic is well on the wane.

The epidemic starting in February with 223 cases, rose to its peak in March with 324 cases and dropped back to 138 cases in April.

Kids Confess To Series Of Robberies

Chance Arrest of Two Youngsters Leads to Solutions of Many Local Crimes

The chance picking up of two juveniles on Friday afternoon by Park Patrolman Slusser, who were found prowling around the old Trombly School where some glass had been broken, has led to clearing up several cases of thievery that have happened in the Park and nearby Detroit in recent weeks.

The boys were only 12 and 14 years old but wise in the ways of crime beyond their years. As juveniles their names are withheld.

Took School Equipment
They confessed they had taken several thermometers and other equipment from the Trombly School. They had also entered the Al Green restaurant the morning after the fire where they stole a variety of articles, among them a number of tools taken from a carpenter's kit.

They had also robbed Dr. Chester Perry's dental offices on E. Warren, and confessed to being the parties who had entered the Halley home at Jefferson and Audubon a day or so before their arrest.

Stole Household Articles
The Halley house is vacant at this time but they succeeded in picking up about $100 of household accessories. Most of the boys' stealings were confined to articles which they could improvise into other gadgets for their own use, or trade with other boys for articles which they wanted for their elected profession.

Mechanical Geniuses
Noted feature of the boys' work was the remarkable ingenuity they displayed in mechanics. They had made themselves a set of lead knuckles which appeared as perfectly made as if they had been cast in a factory mold. They had also taken two toy double acting revolvers and had converted them into perfectly functioning .38 calibre revolvers, although the police said if they ever attempted to shoot them the pot metal toys would have blown up in their hands. The conversion, however, was as perfect as could have been done by an experienced mechanic, even to the firing pins on the hammers.

Charges Are Filed
Monday, Detective Stanley Enders went into Detroit and filed charges against them in Probate Court.

Third Annual Mutt Show to be Held on Saturday Morning

Entries Passed 100 Mark First of Week; Special Events On Program Will Include Showing of Champions and Trained Dogs

Entries passed the 100 mark the first part of the week for the Third Annual Mutt Show. The event, which is jointly sponsored by the Grosse Pointe News and Roland Gray's Sports Shop, will get under way promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday morning on the High School grounds, adjoining the tennis courts behind the Industrial Arts Building.

The hard-working committees, including close to 100 of the fairer sex, have completed all plans to make this popular community event bigger and better than ever this year. In addition to the competition between the pets of Pointe children, up to and including 14 years of age, a number of special events have been added to the program this year.

Champions Won't Compete

Some of the finest dogs in the country will be on exhibition, not in the competing classes however. In addition to the list of six international champions announced last week, a quartet of companion dogs will perform obedience tests under the direction of Joseph McQuillen of the Adult Education course on owner-trainer obedience. They will be shown by their masters.

These include a weimeraner owned by Marion Kellogg, a springer spaniel owned by Bob Looker, a collie owned by Charles Liddle, and a brittany owned by Ed McKernan.

Safety Girl Coming

Safety Girl, the famous Doberman owned by Officer Edison Storing of the Detroit Police Department, and Lucky, owned by the William Kerbers, will also have star roles in the show.

Ty Tyson, popular veteran radio and television announcer from WWJ and WWJ-TV, will be at the microphone to run the show, assisted by Lansing Pittman. They will have the help of a large and competent staff of judges and a committee large enough to insure practically individual supervision over every entry.

The entries are being divided into weight classes to facilitate the judging. There will be a number of rings marked off where preliminary judging will take place to select finalists for the top prizes.

Humane Society Booth

The Humane Society will again have a booth on the grounds to distribute literature about the care of pets and the work of this organization. It is expected an ideal dog house will also be on exhibit. The booth will be staffed by Mrs. Frank Boynton, Mrs. James Keena, Mrs. Charles L'Hommiedue and Miss Mimi Keenower.

The girls' committee has sent out postcard notices to every entry and has painted signs for the various judging rings. Art Blyler of the News advertising department has done a number of attractive posters which have been displayed throughout the Pointe.

Dr. J. F. Purvis and Dr. Robert K. O'Neil, Pointe veterinarians, will be on hand. All officials and committee members are requested to be on the grounds not later than 9:30 so the show can get started promptly at 10. In the event of rain, the show will be held on Sunday at the same time.

Bombs Scare Residents of Park and City

Three Home-made Explosives Set Off by Boys Seen Running From Unfinished House

Two youths in the 16-18 year age bracket had themselves a high time on Saturday night and Sunday afternoon setting off home made bombs; two in the Park and one in the City.

The first explosion was set off at 9:47 p.m. between the sidewalk and the curb in front of the Phillips home at 845 Park lane. A half hour later they exploded another one at a property at the corner of Notre Dame and Maumee, a little more than a block away from the City police station.

Resume Operations

Then at 12:20 p.m. on Sunday they fired a bomb in a new house under construction across the street from 1378 Audubon. A woman in the house at 1378 Audubon a few moments before the explosion, saw two youths running east on Vernor and wondered at their haste, but the explosion a moment later was the explanation. She immediately notified the police.

The police have found the remnants of the bombs in all three explosions. They were definitely home-made affairs in which a chunk of lead pipe had been filled with black powder. The first explosion in the Park and the one in the City were both outside jobs and did no damage further than to jar the nerves of the nearby residents.

Did Considerable Damage

In the Audubon explosion considerable damage was done in the living room of the yet unfinished house.

The woman who saw the boys run away said they were both apparently 16-18 years old. One wore a red sweater or jacket and grey trousers and the other a grey blouse and dark trousers.

The police of both communities have had a number of boys in for questioning.

CARS TANGLE

A ticket for not having his car under control, was issued by the Farms police on April 27 to James J. Brown of 2944 Pennsylvania avenue. Brown's car collided with one being driven by Ormond Beaupre of 280 McKinley road, while the latter was making a turn off Mack avenue into Moross road. Total damage was $80.

Youths Involved in Street Fight Requested Probation

The Grosse Pointe News has been advised of an outstanding development resulting from the recent trial of certain Grosse Pointe youths for disorderly conduct incidental to their participation in the street battle following the Grosse Pointe High-School Park basketball game.

The development is deemed to be a milestone in the gradual evolution within the community of proper juvenile and parental attitude toward law-enforcement officials.

A group of the involved youths and their respective fathers voluntarily requested Justice of the Peace Leslie Young to place them under probation for a period deemed wise by the Court, and then instructed their legal counsel to waive certain defenses

253 Permits Granted in 1st Quarter

Pace More Than Twice As Fast As For Any Comparable Period on Record

That home construction is continuing at an increasing rate in the Grosse Pointe area was evidenced by a report just issued by L. M. Bartlett, Director of Pupil Personnel for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools.

This report shows that a total of 253 permits for homes or dwelling units were issued by the various municipalities comprising the Grosse Pointe School District during the first three months of this calendar year. This is more than twice as many as for any comparable period on record, which dates back to 1925.

Only 115 Last Year

Last year, during which time a total of 835 dwelling permits were issued, the largest number for any year in the history of the school district, only 115 home permits were issued during the first three month period. In 1948, when a total of 820 permits were issued during the first quarter, 110 were granted during the first quarter.

If the present rate of issuance of dwelling permits is continued throughout the year, over 1,000 home permits will be issued during 1950. Of the 253 permits issued during the first quarter of this year, 32 were in the Park, five in the City of Grosse Pointe, 72 in the Farms, 112 in the Woods (this does not include a number of permits issued in Grosse Pointe Woods for a small section which lies outside the Grosse Pointe School District), two in the Shores, and 30 in that portion of Gratiot Township which is in the Grosse Pointe School District.

Breakdown of Data

A breakdown of these data according to the proposed ten elementary school district plan is as follows: Trombly, 12; Defer, 7; Mair, 17; Richard, 17; Kerby, 45; Cook, 69; Torrey Woods, 19; Verner, 13; Mason, 20; and Gratiot, 34. In other words all but 53, or 200 of the permits were issued for the area north of Moran road.

In commenting on this great increase in the rate of building in this area north of Moran road, Sigurd R. Wendin, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, said, "With such evidence as this, we realize more than ever the urgent necessity of completing the buildings authorized by the voters last February, at the earliest possible date. Formal approval for advertising for bids covering completion of the Parcels Junior High School will undoubtedly be authorized at the Board of Education meeting on May 3 of this week with June 1 as the date for receiving bids. It is our firm hope and intention that the contracts for the Cook Road Elementary School will be awarded by July 1."

"In other words we hope to have actual construction under way on both of these buildings by the middle of July. Once these buildings are started, plans and specifications for the Gratiot School and for the completion of New Kerby School will also be completed so that construction on these buildings may be started as soon as humanly possible."

Bartlett's report shows that the total value of the permits issued during the first quarter of this year, according to the valuation placed by the issuing officers, exceeds three and one-half millions of dollars.

Bus Driver Aids City's Firemen

A Lake Shore coach lines bus driver did his effective bit as a volunteer fireman on April 22 when he observed an automobile on fire at Washington and Kercheval.

He jumped from his bus and kept the fire under control until the city firemen arrived. The car was being driven by Mrs. Frank Kuhn of 28 McKinley.

The bus driver was Edward Long of 815 Beaconsfield.

STOLEN BIKES ABANDONED

Two bicycles stolen from outside the Punch and Judy theater on the night of April 28, were found by the Farms police, abandoned in the vacant lot on Kercheval between Lothrop and Stephens road. They were called for by their owners.

War Memorial Center Enjoys Successful First Year

 expiring this year, and that possibly this procedure should be followed with the expirations of the next five years.

Have Done Fine Job
 He said that the present board had done such a remarkably good job in piloting the Association during its first year that these persons should be continued for a full term. He said the committee also recommended the election of Herbert Micou to fill the unexpired term of director Louis Baldwin, one of the two-year term directors who had recently resigned from the Board because of his inability to attend the meetings regularly. Mr. Baldwin was originally selected as the representative on the Board of the Veterans organizations and Mr. Micou, who was a Commander in the Navy during the war, also comes in this same category. In addition to this, Mr. Micou had rendered valuable service as adviser on alterations and improvements in the property during its first year of development.

Re-elected Unanimously
 In the election which followed the report the expiring directors, Alger Shelden, Mrs. Charles Ellis, Norbert P. Neff, Vincent DePetris and Ralph Netting, were all unanimously re-elected. Commander Micou was also elected to fill the unexpired term of Louis Baldwin.

In submitting the report Dr. Fitt made two recommendations which he stated should come up for disposition reasonably early this year. These were 1) that to assure the conduct of the Center as truly representative of the entire Pointe community it should be provided that after directors had served one full three-year term they should not be eligible to succeed themselves on the board without an intervening term of absence, and 2) that a rule should be set up that if a director missed a certain specified number of successive meetings of the board, such as three, four or five, as might be decided, such director should be automatically dropped from the Board.

The annual reports submitted by the directors who were heads of the standing committees gave a most complete and detailed report of their designated functions and gave to the members of the association a wealth of information on the work and progress of the Center. These are too voluminous and detailed to permit of publication here but copies are on file in the secretary's office in the Center, where they may be viewed by any interested member.

The high spots of Treasurer Paul I. Moreland's report showed there had been converted into the endowment fund $108,444.76; that there yet remained $38,000 of unpaid pledges; that $20,819.50 assessed valuation of furniture and fixtures had been donated to the Center; that $8,700 had been spent on the new parking lot; $4,000 on garage improvements and repairs and $1,310 on surfacing the main driveway. It also shows that $4,500 had been received from the citizens who had agreed to contribute $500 annually to the sustaining operational fund for ten years, as additional support for the Center pending the thorough establishment of the project on an even financial keel.

Explains Financing Plans
 Mr. Moreland also explained verbally the plans that have been made to assure this end. Plans have been made to have a campaign at the end of May to get subscriptions to the endowment fund, to be followed by another drive for special gifts and then a general campaign for pledges of smaller amounts, i.e. $5, $10 or more annually to the maintenance of the Center. These latter donors probably would be designated as "Friends of the Memorial Center."

They aim, Moreland said, to build up an assured income from all sources of approximately $35,000 annually.

Investments Appreciate
 Chairman John F. Kenower reported the distribution of the investments in the endowment fund and gave the pleasing information that the original allocation to the endowment fund of $108,444 now has a market value of $119,000.

Mrs. Ellis, chairman of the House Committee, reported on the extensive program of physical improvements in the property, including a modern kitchen and equipment, toilets, dining room equipment, quarters for the gardener in the garage, etc.

Mrs. F. C. Ford, chairman of the program committee, reported that more than 20,000 persons had been guests of the Center and that 227 different groups had availed themselves of its accommodations.

Social Activities
 A most interesting report was made by Mrs. Charles B. Lord, chairman of the Social Activities department. It has been under her direction that the varying age groups have enjoyed the use of the center. This has probably constituted its most direct appeal to the people of the Pointe. More than 8,000 young people of these different divisions have attended these gatherings.

Verbal reports were given by chairman of other departments, including Ralph Netting, chairman of the personnel committee, who reported that affairs had progressed satisfactorily and that there had been "no strikes."

Vincent DePetris, chairman of the Grounds and Gardens committee, reported on the work done, including the planting of 8,000 tulip bulbs, imported from Holland, which will be in full bloom about May 25.

Most of this expense had been met by the Garden Groups, who have permanent quarters in the building, and from private donors.

Tannahill Praised
 All committee chairmen joined in deep appreciation of the work of Robert Tannahill, who has acted as the arbiter on the acceptance of furniture and art objects for gifts for display or use in the Center. Mr. Tannahill has himself given many fine items to the property and the names of the individuals who have given have been published from time to time wherever permitted. Several donors have insisted on remaining anonymous.

After the meeting refreshments were served and directors escorted the members through the building.

The formal dedication of the property will take place on Memorial Day at which time the bronze tablets of the war dead and survivors will be unveiled.

Screams Send Thief Scurrying

Mrs. William G. Evans of 842 Three Mile drive, underwent a terrifying experience on Saturday night when she became aware there was an intruder in the house. She was alone in the house at the time and her screams proved as effective in evacuating the intruder as the bay of a bloodhound.

She called the police but when they arrived the prowler was gone, but they found plenty of evidence there had been a burglar in the premises.

Mrs. Evans could not report anything as missing and the police said her cry had prompted the thief to discontinue his ransacking before it was well begun.

College Group Elects E. K. Burt

A meeting of the Kalamazoo College Alumni group was held Friday, April 28, at Huyler's L'Aiglon. At this combination meeting and banquet, E. K. Burt of 1883 Lancaster, Grosse Pointe Woods, was elected president of the Alumni group.

Mr. Burt, an attorney associated with the Veterans Administration, has served for two years as vice-president of the Kalamazoo College Group.

DESECRATE LAWN

The Farms police received a report on the afternoon of April 29 that cars were driving on the lawn at the residence of Mrs. Russell Alger of 242 Provincial road. The drivers had vanished before the police could reach there.

Stoepels Return Following Ponte Vedra Vacation

The last of the Winter vacationers are returning to the Pointe, now that Spring's here. Among these are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stoepel of Lakeland avenue, and their daughters, Helen and Suzanne, who were at Ponte Vedra, Fla.

Two Will Seek Reelection As School Board Members

Both Sigurd R. Wendin, president, and Franklin D. Dougherty, secretary of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, announced today that they will stand for re-election at the regular annual school election to be held on Monday, June 12.

In their announcement Mr. Wendin and Mr. Dougherty made the following joint statement, "We are both completing our first three-year term as members of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. Due to the experience which we have gained during these three years, we realize the magnitude of the many problems facing the school district for the next few years. We have both come to realize that the Public Schools represent Grosse Pointe's largest business enterprise and that they constitute the one governmental unit which reaches practically every home in the district in one way or another. We further recognize that being a member of the Board of Education carries with it a most serious responsibility and that only after a person has served for two or three years is he able to render the most effective service to citizens of Grosse Pointe and to their children.

"During our term of office, through the combined efforts of all the members of the Board of Education, the staff members and the residents of Grosse Pointe we have seen the successful culmination of the authorization for the immediate expansion of Grosse Pointe's Public School facilities. As a result of the special February election and the sale of the bonds authorized in this election, money is now available for the completion of the Parcels Junior High School and the New Kerby Elementary School, and for the construction of the Cook Road and Gratiot Elementary Schools. With the many problems involved in this rather large building program, we feel that experienced and fully informed persons should be on the Board of Education. Because of this, we both believe it our responsibility and duty to place our names before the people of Grosse Pointe for re-election this June."

Information received from the school authorities indicate that for a person to be eligible to run for election to the Board of Education, he must be a citizen of the United States, a resident of the State of Michigan for at least six months, and of Grosse Pointe for at least twenty-one days. Petitions which are obtainable at the Board of Education offices must be signed by a minimum of 50 qualified electors of the district and not more than 100. Such petitions must be filed in the offices of the Board of Education not later than twenty days preceding the election which date this year is May 23.

Original Home of Cottage Hospital

On Friday, May 12, Cottage Hospital will again hold Open House from 2 to 4 p.m., when guests will be shown through the hospital and have an opportunity to learn more about the modern technical equipment and special professional services maintained at all times for the benefit of this community. From a humble beginning of 10 beds in the above cottage on Oak street (now Muir road), Cottage Hospital has grown to the present capacity of 56 beds and 25 bassinets. On April 29, 1950, the 50,000th patient was admitted for care, and the number of babies born has almost reached 10,000. The original staff of two or three nurses and a housekeeper has been expanded until at present approximately 75 full time and 15 part time employees are required for round-the-clock service provided by Cottage Hospital.

Parking Meters Report Submitted

The Farms collected $346.49 in its parking meters in the Kercheval business district during March. This brings the total collections since the meters were installed last November 9 to $1,668.15.

Half of this amount, or $834.07 has been paid to the Magee-Hale Park-O-Meter Company, according to the purchase agreement. The price of the meters was $61 each, or $6,100 for the 100 purchased, leaving a balance to be paid of $5,265.93.

A report was also submitted to the Farms council on the results of changing the charge for the meters located between McKinley and McMillan. During the last two-week period when the charge was 5 cents per hour, the total collection was $3.85. Since changing the rate to 5 cents for two hours, the three collections made covering two weeks each, have produced $6.25, $8.98 and $12.49, showing a steadily increasing use of the parking space there.

Drinking Spree Proves Costly

Park Patrolmen Dilloway and Miller picked up Cecil Leon Ezell, aged 25, of 8391 Senator, Detroit, at 10 p.m. on Friday, April 28 for reckless driving on Jefferson avenue. He confessed to having had "about 15 drinks of whiskey."

The next day before Judge C. Joseph Belanger he was fined $50 and $5 costs and had his license revoked for six months.

DAMAGE CHURCH PROPERTY

Father Albert Melvin of St. Paul's Church reported to the Farms police on April 28 that boys were doing a lot of damage around the church property at night, and requested that the police keep a special watch over the premises.

Washington Trip Rewards Leaders of Safety Patrols

David Whittingham, 290 McKinley, age 13, safety patrol leader at Richard school of Grosse Pointe, will be among the 100 outstanding leaders from schools throughout Michigan en-training from here for Washington, D. C., Thursday (May 11), on a four-day all-expense tour sponsored by the Automobile Club of Michigan. They'll attend the 14th annual AAA National Safety Patrol rally.

Whittingham was selected by local school authorities to make the trip after his school was cited by Auto Club for its superior 1949-50 safety patrol.

All expenses of the 100 Michigan boys are to be borne by Auto Club as a reward from the motor-touring public for 200 hours per year which each of 33,000 Michigan safety patrol boys spends guarding school corners.

Winning safety patrol leaders will be assembled in Detroit on Thursday afternoon from all parts of the state. After being registered, the youngsters will be given a physical checkup and instructions on the trip.

The group, along with adult supervisors and registered nurses, will board special pullmans on the Baltimore and Ohio Ambassador at 5:45 p.m. to begin the overnight trip to Washington. After dinner aboard the train they will be entertained by a professional magician.

Friday morning they will see downtown Washington and the Capitol building on their way to the Willard Hotel, a short distance from the White House. Friday and Saturday afternoons will be devoted to sightseeing, including Arlington Cemetery, Mt. Vernon, Tomb of the Unknown Soldier, the first U. S. public school, Lincoln and Washington Memorials and other historic spots.

Saturday morning the boys will join with 20,000 other patrol leaders from all over the United

Roof Fire Does $5,000 Damage

There was a roof fire at the Dr. R. C. Leacock residence at 440 University place shortly after 5 o'clock on April 28, starting from an incinerator, which did approximately $5,000 damage before it was subdued by the City firemen.

Dr. Leacock had recently moved into the former Mickey Cochrane home.

Hospital Building Site Lures Mischievous Kids

Small boys and some not so small have been prowling about the new construction at the Bon Secours hospital annoying the workmen and making a general nuisance of themselves.

In the late afternoon of April 27, soon after the workmen had knocked off for the day, several of them were driven away by the police.

The aristocratic French woman of the 1700's favored a slipper with a sharply pointed toe and a slender heel that threw her foot up to nearly a 60 degree angle.

Penniless Fare Goes Round Trip

It is a common experience for Grosse Pointe police to be called in by the taxicab companies to adjudicate an argument between the cabbie and his fare. Such incidents usually arise in the case of some drunk who is in an argumentative mood over the charges or the service.

It was a new turn however when the Park police at 2:45 a.m. Sunday faced a woman passenger. She fell definitely in both the drunk and money-minus categories.

The woman had been making the rounds of the drinking spots in Detroit and in the Pointe. The local taxi man who had last carried her, was blandly informed when she was ready to part company that she had no money.

This isn't exactly according to taxi ethics and the cabbie called the police. She still insisted she had no money, so, the taxi Jehu, with the full authority and benediction of the police, took her back to the place of beginning.

She was still able to navigate without difficulty and all opined a brisk walk home in the cool of the early morning would have a clarifying effect.

Johnston Optical Changes Policy

Johnston Optical Company has issued an important announcement this week, changing a policy which the company has followed for the last 74 years. It means a saving for the purchasers of eye glasses.

For three-quarters of a century Johnston Optical has sold glasses to eye doctors at wholesale prices, with the doctors making the profit between the wholesale and retail price the patient has always paid.

Now many ethical eye doctors have authorized the company to give this retail profit to the customer. This means a saving of 25 to 50 percent to the public.

The company will furnish anyone with a list of these competent eye doctors who have asked that the saving be given to the patient.

Johnston's Grosse Pointe office is located at 87 Kercheval avenue.

Police Interrupt Fight Of Battling Tommies

The Pointe police are called upon for a wide variety of services to the citizens but stopping a cat fight was something out of the ordinary on their routine.

A couple of battling tommyies made such racket in the 500 block of Rivard at the cat fighting hour of 12:30 a. m. on April 27 that the city police were called on for relief.

When the police arrived Hector and Achilles had declared a temporary armistice and moved to less interrupted fields to resume hostilities. The Rivard complaint however was the last from the battle front.

DIAMOND RING VANISHES

A diamond and platinum ring valued at between $850 and $1,000 was reported on April 27 as either lost or stolen, by the owner, Mrs. James Hally of 321 McMillan road.

Police Drama Steals Show

two hours, Woods Patrolman Plumb was left on duty at the theater. Patrolman Albert Abend took Plumb's car and on the way back to the theater saw a man duck behind a parked car on Huntington just off Mack on the west side. Abend pulled his gun and covered the man and at the same time radioed back to the Woods police station and in a few moments a car full of Woods police arrived. The prisoner was Van Zorge.

Van Zorge had been trailed to the theater by the inspectors on a tip from his girl friend, who had been working with them. He was to go there alone and she was to follow with a change of clothes for him.

Van Zorge is 25 years old and weighs 185 pounds. He was in a highly nervous state when taken back to the Woods station and had evidently been drinking heavily. The police said he passed out three times while in the station and was revived by strong whiffs of ammonia. He was later taken by the Woods police to Receiving Hospital as a police prisoner.

He is wanted for mail robbery in Dallas, Texas.

Chief Walter Goelette of the Woods, gives much credit to the management of the theater for their cooperation and particularly for the way in which order was maintained in the theater. Many patrons thought the disturbance was caused by the attempted ejection of an ordinary drunk.

Trombly School Operetta May 5

The upper grade pupils of Trombly School will take their audience back to the days of Mark Twain's "Tom Sawyer" in an operetta to be presented Friday, May 5, at 8 p.m.

Bruce Rockwell will appear as the mischievous but lovable Tom Sawyer; Robert Dunlap as Huck Finn, Tom's bosom pal; David Bleck as Joe, their friend and conspirator; Ella Mae Harrison as Aunt Polly; Steve Horn as Sid, together with the other favorite characters bring to life many of the scenes from Mark Twain's beloved story.

Judy Balcerski as Becky Thatcher and Toni Dauch as Amy Lawrence, rivals for Tom's attention, make an impressive play. Injun Joe, characterized by Harold Joerin, and Pard, played by Michael Duffy, furnish the element of mystery for which Tom and Huck are ever in search.

The scenes are interspersed with dances and songs. The Sunflowers, Susan McKee, Patricia Price, Patricia Zaun, Carole Powers, Elaine Gibson and Janet Collinson, appear in the first act. Eleanor Jacobson, Lawrie Pratt and Marilyn Dretman come to life as very acrobatic skeletons in the graveyard scene.

The chorus of 40 voices is composed of pupils from Grade 4A, 5B, 5A, and 6A classes.

"Tom Sawyer" was dramatized by Theodora Paynter and the music is by G. A. Grant-Schaefer.

Direction of the operetta is shared by Eleanor Dunham and Frank Welzenbach, teachers in Grades 5 and 6.

Awarded Honors For Scholarship

Kid Bits

By Shirley Ulrich and Carol Loveless

The Belles and Beaux Square Dancing Club got together last Thursday night so that it wouldn't interfere with Variety Night. Some of the kids seen 'dooey-dooing' were Gloria Duemling and Harold Michaux, Jane Levens and Tom Stein, Mary Lou Steffani and Chuck Beronius, Nancy Naragon and Carl Weber.

Others 'swingin' their partners' were Colleen Horrigan and Mike Hood, Nancy Friehe and Don Schmidt, Susan Lindberg and Ben Burgeon and Nancy Bruneau and John Bonbright.

The Club will have its last lesson on Thursday, May 4. The Juniors will have their party on May 12, and the Seniors will have theirs on May 19.

Preceding the Tuxis Club Variety Night, Judy Morlen had a pot-luck supper for some of her friends. Playing host was Bill Haring, and the others were Katie Catchick and Coby Martin, Joyce Blashill and Nels Jensen, Bertie Jacob and Fred Jensen, Nancy Hall and Don Button, and Bee Squire and Tom Pfeifle.

Hat Spalding gave a surprise Birthday-Slumber Party for Bee Squire. The girls losing sleep were Janet Delaney, Katie Catchick, Jeanne Rydholm, Tinsey Netting, Jean Schade, and both of us.

The Tuxis Club of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church held its third annual Variety Night on Friday, April 28. Some of the kids seen playing Canasta and Ping-Pong were Birdie Roberts, Al Marwede, Sue Kitson, Dick Rydberg, Bill Houtteman, Louanne Borden, Bayard Johnson, Jerry Brown, Lou McClung, Bill Rexford, and Dick Seales.

Dancing to the music of Roston Clark's Band were Jerry Davis and Nancy Brinker, George Turnbull and Betsy Huette, Skip Pessl and Joannie Merrill, John Tower and Elaine Otto.

Others watching the entertainment were Tim Leach and Alice James, Denny Roehl and Barbara Barnum, and Dan Schieburger and Joannie Rexford.

The entertainment was presented by Sybil Scottford, Joanne Johnson (alias Beatrice Kay), Joan Sluggert, and Susie Simon. The announcing was done by Tom Lister.

The Country Fair at Pierce was the big event Saturday. Seen pitching pennies and throwing darts were Bill Winkler, Gretchen Schroeder, Janie Rowe, Elaine Turrell, Danny Buyburg and Eugene Halbrook. Trying their luck at the fish pond were Hoyt Spicer, Bill Jones, Sallie Lemen, Peg Moreland and Twilly Clark. Posy Tomocic, Ray Clark, Dave Terris, and Fred Mety had fun just looking around.

With Keith Rowan, Harry Monreal and Dave Leach acting as barkers, Peggy Fisher, Judy Hagerman and Jerry Harden engaged in games. The winner was Annie Hoover. Peering into the future at the fortune telling booth were Paul Fox, Janet Ballentine, Christa Mueller, Phil Russell, Carol Lundgren, Margaret Weaver, Jim Reindel, Mickey Dosen, and Laurie Smith. Others were Margaret Joop, Anne Lampman, Janie Joachim, Pat Marx, and B. J. Hoyt, Janet Hoffmann, Herb Abrash, Terry Snowday, Tony Pear, and Bob Kopf tried sampling the baked goods, while Susie Riggs, Molly Murphy, Pat Savage, John Watson, Bob Warner, and Pat Barrett lined up to have pictures taken.

There were 39 excited girls Thursday afternoon as the Chet Sampson tour to Washington began. Among those looking forward to visiting the White House, Smithsonian Museum, Mt. Vernon, and the Pan American Building were Sally Horn, Mary Ann Gibson, Ann Leete, Barbara Lowe, Elayne Carstens, Diana Nylund, Carol Larwin, Marilyn Axford, Jill Read, Delia Kay, and Mary Hoover. Others anxious to visit the Naval Academy at Annapolis included Lillian McMath, Shirley Krueger and Hilda Bristol. Touring the FBI sounded interesting to Carol Vossler, Rosemary Chesbrough, Sue Fairchild, and Sigrid Olson, while a trip to the Capitol Building was planned by Marie Jacobs, Pat French, Mary Roll, Judy Zeeb, Diane Vandermark, and Janet Widerman.

Anything interesting happening next week? Be sure to let us know.

Pointers Taking Part In Liggett Exercises

Two Grosse Pointe girls were among the six honored at the Liggett School Friday morning, April 28, when the annual Cum Laude exercises were held and membership awards made.

The Grosse Pointe senior members are Janet Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William K. Allen, of Westchester road, and Barbara Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Warner, of Whittier road. Martha Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Smith, of Merriweather road, was chosen ninth grade attendant to the May Queen. She wore the special orchid dress of embroidered organdy of a princess attendant during Founders' Day exercises at the school May 5.

Others who will walk in the Queen's procession are Patty Biscaglia, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Payton Biscaglia, of Moross road, who will wear the green costume of a herald, and Suzanne Lewis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Lee Alexander Lewis, of Kensington road, who will wear a flower girl's pink organdy.

It seems that April came to a climax with a bit of fun for just about everyone.

Mary Lou Engelhardt had a slumber party on Friday night, April 28, for a few of her girl friends. Kay Andre, Barbara Marchand, Joan Hackenburger, Jane Pelky, Roseann Blondell, Jean Sharrow, Elaine Barbaut, and Arlene Froelick were Mary Lou's guests, who began the evening with a show, then returned to her home for potato chips, pop and sandwiches.

Another slumber (?) party was in season that evening at Janet Kingsbury's. After a snack of hamburgers, cokes, and doughnuts, Barbara Van Tiem, Carol Staub, June Allard, Marilyn Smith, Mary Lou Vernier, Mary Ann Stuhlreher, Marg Lynch, Gloria Luffy, Mary Ann Burlingame, Betty Di Paola, and Donna Klein bedded down for the night.

The group answered reveille and had a grand breakfast of bacon, eggs, and homemade coffee cake.

De La Salle High's "Oarsman's Ball" was a big attraction Friday evening, April 28. Couples from "home" that attended the dance included: Margie Heidt and Dick Motschall, Carol Cooper and Dan Compau, Mary Margaret Van Damme and Wayne Brown, Janet Hock and Pete Schummer, Marilyn Sutherland and Glen Walters, Connie Molitor and Jack Carroll, Peggy Hyde and Jerry Moore, and Mary Jo Trombley and Ron Bieke.

If you passed by Diane Zemper's home that same evening, you may have heard a group of girls singing around the piano.

Harmonizing to the popular tunes of the day were: Phyllis Van Becelaere, Kathleen Weot, Joanne Rabaut, Celestine Blon-

Floor, Theresa Lyford, Audrey Haley, and Marie Couvreur.

The singing was occasionally interrupted long enough for snacks of candy, potato chips, cokes, and sandwiches.

Despite the cold wind and scattered rain drops, the Seniors and some of their friends got together Saturday night, April 24, to roast hot dogs.

Gathered around the fire to keep warm, as well as cook their food, were: Connie Curran, Fred Maddock, June Allard, John Kramer, Winnie Scheffler, Chuck Alaska, Jack Boomer, Terry Jacobs, Ray Bieszik, Barb Houlihan, Bob Modaff, Dot Ardito, Dick Montreuil, Anne Dungan, Chuck Boulit, Janet Jacobs, Larry Reynolds, Betty DiPaola, Bill Huettelman, Zeno O'Brien, Nancy Downey, Dick Kaiser, and many others.

Dee Wise's porch light beamed many to her home Saturday eve, April 29. Ann Reed, John Huettelman, Donna Mayo, Pat Champine, Jack Lietke, Larry McCarthy, Mary Allor, Jerry Heckendorn, Sylvia Chaffee, Joe Meier, Marguerite McKillop, and Tom McLaughlin were seen drinking cokes and eating cake.

Others dancing to Dee's records were: John Barton, Judee Kornmeier, Jim Haley, Marg Carrier, David McCarron, Janet Hock, Bob Magee, Lorraine Broughton, Jim Houlihan, and Jack Maddens.

Attention 9th graders! There's going to be a party for you the week-end of May 20 at the War Memorial Center. More news about the event will appear next week in the NEWS.

We may be willing to tell a story twice, never to hear one more than once.—William Hazlitt

Convent Show This Saturday

Ticket sale for this Saturday's fashion show at Convent of the Sacred Heart, being sponsored by the Parent Association and already an assured success, was given another boost this week when the committee in charge announced a prize for the person selling the greatest number of tickets.

Leader, at this point, is Sally Mitchell.

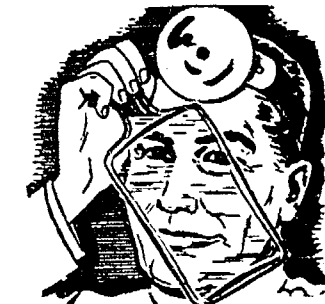

Mrs. Blount Slade and Mrs. Stephen DeBrul are co-chairmen for the fashion show, proceeds from which will be used to resurface the tennis courts at the convent.

Models from the Convent and the pre-school will parade young fashions from Saks Fifth Avenue.

The place is Grosse Pointe Memorial this Saturday, at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon.

St. Paul High School Holds Annual Honors Convocation

Sue Sharrow

The Honors Convocation, rated the most important affair of the year by St. Paul High School students, was held April 27, in the school gymnasium.

Before the prizes were awarded, Chuck Alaska presented the new school flag, a gift from the Senior Class, to the assembly. After the emblem was explained by Sally McKernan, the Seniors sang their class song, and Jack Trombley gave a report on Citizenship in 1950. Bob Berg explained what the label, "Jubilee Class of '50," means to the Senior Class, and June Allard related the importance of the cultural arts to the students. Musical selections were presented by the Frosh-Soph Choral and the St. Paul Band.

The Presentation of Awards was made by the pastor, Father Melvin, and his assistant, Father Lenk.

First prize of $25.00 for the Archdiocesan Development Fund Essay Contest was awarded to Marilyn Smith. Second place prizes were merited by seniors Sally McKernan, Betty DiPaola, Bob Berg, Michael Paris, Juniors Sally McCarron, Pat O'Grady, Raoul Felt, Bob Schneider; sophomores Janet Oxley, Connie Molitor, Louis Geist, Bob Walker, freshmen Kay Andre, Evelyn Englehard, Bob Thurtle, and Glenn Walters.

School awards given for the best essays in the U. S. Marine Essay Contest were conferred upon Gloria Luffy and Tom Carrier.

Scholastic Honors and Honorable Mention for work above regular line of duty were awarded to seniors Anne Dungan, press; Sally McKernan, press; June Allard, speech; Marilyn Smith, press; Carol Staub, Sodality and choral; Pearl Frontera, civic bureau and choral; Margaret Hyde, sports' press, and athletics; Germaine Kirchner, Sodality; Gloria Luffy, Elaine Wujek, Sue Sharrow, Mary Ann Burlingame, Eleanore Wade Bill Huettman, Sodality; Fred Maddock, Sodality; Betty DiPaola, Sodality and choral; Ray Bieszki, Sodality; Mary Vernier, Sodality and library; Pete Belanger, civic bureau and athletics; Tom Wyllie, civic bureau and choral; Richard Motschall, civic bureau; Dorothy Ardito, civic bureau; Connie Curran, civic bureau; Bob Berg, speech; John Arombley, speech; Robert Modaff, sports' press; Ed Quirk, sports' press; Tom Marchand, athletics.

Juniors to win scholastic honors were Diane Zemper, Jerome Froehlich, Carl Rau, Celestine Blondell, Jim Keller, Pat O'Grady, Marie Couvreur, Joan Heckendorn, and Audrey Haley.

Sophomores were Connie Molitor, Dolores Wise, Mary Margaret Van Damme, Ann Reed and Roy Moxley.

Freshmen were Kay Andre, Arlene Froehlich, Charlotte Klein, Janet Wrubel, Marilyn Buehner, Evelyn Englehard, Lou Ann Moxley, Rita O'Grady, Janet Hock, Ed Heck and Shirley Jacques.

Honorable mention went to Junior Choral members Diane Zemper, Catherine West and Earl La Fave; to Joe Meier, Jim Hoskins, Bob Barrett, Mary Allor, Beverly Labadie, and Marilyn Sutherland of the Frosh-Soph Choral. Speech honors were awarded to Janet Oxley, Bob Magee, and John Trombley.

Pointers Attend Fire Institute

The Council of the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores sent Sergeant F. L. Baldwin and Stanley Vernier of the Shores Public Safety Department to the initial meetings of the Fire Department Inspectors' Institute, held at Michigan State College last week.

Modern methods of fire prevention in homes and business places, and the hazards that accompany heating and ventilating equipment, electrical equipment and flammable liquids were fully covered by authorities in these fields. The lectures and conferences were given to over 125 representatives of Michigan communities from all over the state.

Baldwin and Vernier report that they received much information which will be useful in the prevention of fires in the Shores.

Theatre Group Holds Elections

The Grosse Pointe Theatre elected John Dykema president at its second annual meeting. Mac Barnum was elected vice-president while Undine Sturdevan and Mary Ann Genter were re-elected secretary and treasurer respectively. Phyllis Cardozo was reappointed recording secretary by the Board of Trustees.

Members elected to the Board of Trustees for the 1950-52 term are Clark Wells, Dallas Chapin, George True, Mac Barnum, Russ Werneken, Undine Sturdevan and Jean Standish. Board members who will serve until 1951 are Mary Ann Genter, Charles Manos, Karl Dumas and John Dykema.

Lenore Marshall was appointed publicity chairman upon the resignation of Nancy DuBrul, who left for New York May 1.

Scooter Problem Plagues Police

On Saturday evening, April 29, City Officers Johnson and Keller picked up two 15-year-old boys on motor scooters who had been racing up and down on St. Paul between Neff and Lincoln.

The boys had limited licenses, which permit them to drive a motor vehicle only when accompanied by one of their parents, which did not fit into their case. The only exception to the limitation of this kind of license is that of a newsboy delivering papers or a boy who has a crippled father incapable of performing the necessary household errands. These are instructions from Lansing.

The proper control of the motor bike or scooter is one of the problems the police have to clarify and bring under a uniform regulation in the Pointe area.

The Chief of Police says motor bikes are as much of a menace to public safety as the automobile inasmuch as they are driven by immature youths who take chances that would not be taken by a regular automobile driver. The police all insist that they must be brought under as complete control as the larger vehicles.

The worst of having a romance is that it leaves one so unromantic.

Judge Richter's Death Great Loss

Grosse Pointe lost one of its most distinguished citizens in the death of Circuit Judge Theodore J. Richter, 68, in his home at 833 Lake Shore road on Thursday morning, April 20.

The Judge suffered a slight stroke about a year ago but recently he had been in excellent health and had been able to carry on in his judicial duties.

He was born at Harbor Beach, Michigan, 89 years ago but his parents came to Detroit when he was less than two years old and he had been a resident of the Detroit area ever since, residing for the last twelve years in Grosse Pointe.

Judge Richter's judicial career extended over a period of 36 years. He was appointed to the Circuit bench in 1921 by former Governor Alex J. Groesbeck to fill the unexpired term of the late Judge George S. Hosmer.

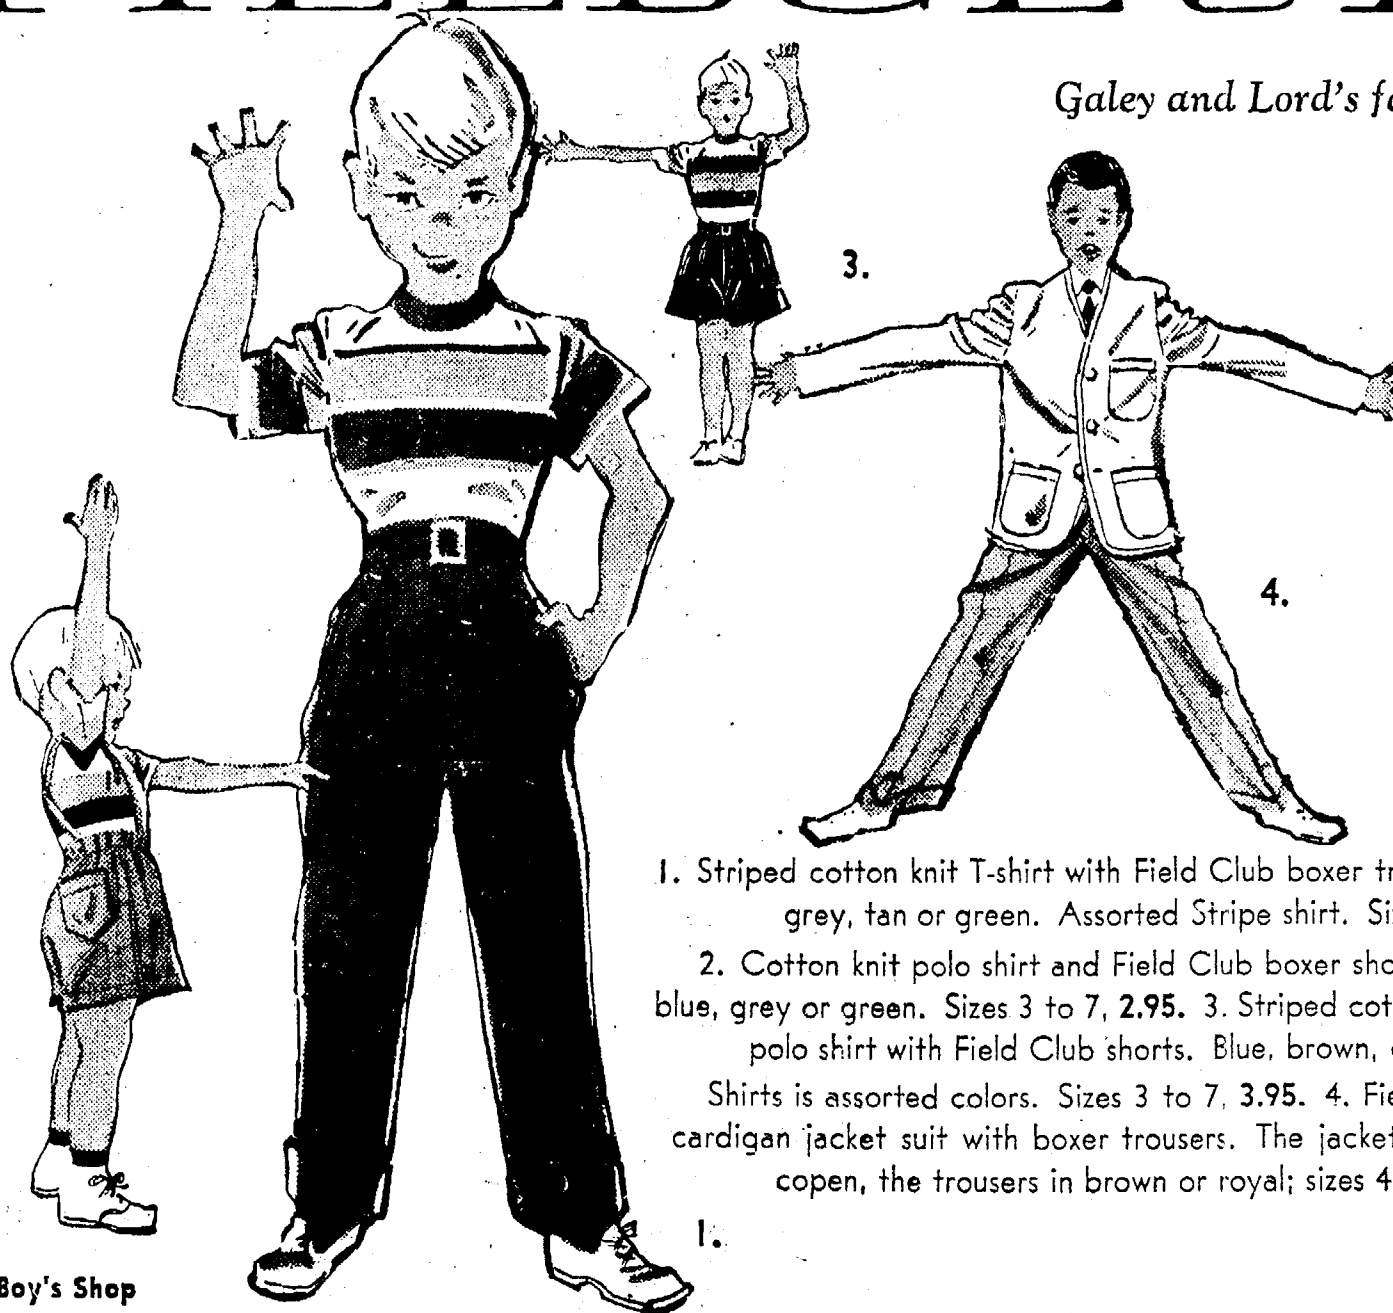

He had served continuously on the Circuit bench by reelection since that time. He had a distinguished judicial career. His earlier education was acquired in parochial and public schools followed by graduation at the Detroit College of Law.

The funeral was held on April 22 in Christ Lutheran Church and burial was in Elmwood Cemetery.

He is survived by his wife, Amanda, and two daughters: Mrs. William G. Onderdonk, now a resident of California, and Mrs. Charles White of Grosse Pointe. There are five grandchildren.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by
Jane Schermerhorn

Everywhere we went last week, where there were young daughters and sons in the house . . .

We kept hearing May party talk . . . and realized that in just a few minutes they'll be striking up "March of the Toys" for Miss Annie Ward Foster's annual May party, May 12, in Crystal Ballroom of Masonic Temple (by invitation only) . . .

This will be the 30th May Party . . . no wonder it's such a great and sentimental tradition for all of Detroit society! . . .

So we thought the time had come . . . to check up on the young man who'd have the honor of escorting Miss Foster in the Grand March, thereby becoming a member of a most exclusive club, the others of whom are among the city's and nation's most important young men.

J. B. Ford III Honored

To John B. Ford III goes the distinction . . . And as in other years . . . Miss Foster's escort has deep roots in May party lore . . .

His father and mother . . . the John B. Fords, Jr. . . were Foster pupils when the late Madame Foster presided over instructions in grace and poise for all the city's young people . . .

Do you know that it was 50 years ago . . . the first Foster dancing classes were formed? . . .

This year's "Mr. May Party" met his wife . . . the former Mary Lou McDonald . . . at dancing school . . .

And already the not-year-old son of the younger Fords . . . John B. Ford IV . . . is enrolled for the Grosse Pointe classes of 1954! . . .

Gavotte To Be Featured

As we've already told you . . . Julie Otter of Bloomfield Hills . . . is to lead the grand march as May Queen . . . with Mary Johnson of Indian Village flying home from Stephens College to march in second position . . . and deb Jane Fisher, of Grosse Pointe, completing the Magic Three . . .

Now there's a trio about which to write sonnets . . . (we're s-u-r-e the staghorn agrees, too) . . .

The evening's program will consist of dances from old fashioned circle figures to the samba . . . with the Gavotte, always danced in memory of the late Mrs. Frank Scott Clark, a highlight . . .

In the gavotte will be Julie Otter, carrying Mrs. Clarke's lavender fan which has been used in every gavotte . . . Buffy Wicking . . . Sheila Flannery . . . Marlene Thomas . . . Janet McHattie . . . Julie Johnson . . . Mernie Anderson . . . Pat Texter . . . Ann Bolton . . . Mary Johnston . . .

Also carried in the dance will be the ostrich fan Mrs. Frederick Cole gave to Miss Foster when she led the grand march as Virginia Wood . . . at the old Arcadia . . .

Former Pupils Usher

Former Foster pupils will help with the ushering at Crystal Ballroom the night of the May Party . . .

A partial list of these includes Ed Picard . . . John Renchard . . . David and Billy Jansen . . . Phoebe Otter . . . and Heidi Flannery . . .

And now for boxholders and patrons . . . Mrs. Edsel Ford, who led the first Grand March, has reserved her usual box . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford II . . . Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ford, Jr. . . Mr. and Mrs. John Tighon . . . Mrs. Albert Legro . . . Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Otter . . .

Wedding Trip Takes Young Couple South

Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wise Jr. Leave For Southern Motor Trip Following Saturday Marriage in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe; Reception at Kidner Home

There were white bridal flowers on the altar of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, Saturday afternoon for the wedding of Katharine Kidner, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Clinton Kidner, and Harry D. Wise, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wise of Birmingham.

The Rev. J. Clemons Kolb, pastor of Christ Church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Robert L. DeWitt of Christ Church, Cranbrook, officiated at the ceremony.

Wearing her mother's wedding gown of ivory silk satin, the bride carried white spray orchids and stephanotis. Just a change here and there in the gown brought it to 1950 fashion. The draped bodice had filled in yoke of sheerest heirloom princess lace and sleeves ended just a bit below the elbow. The skirt was a modified hobble-effect draped to form a double tiered bustle at back which fell into a long, cathedral train. An illusion net veil, edged in princess lace, was attached to a bridal cap of the same lace, and these had been first worn by Mrs. Ralph Stoepe.

Mrs. C. Henry Haberkorn III was matron of honor in an aqua marquisette gown, fashioned on classic lines with full skirt, snug bodice, cap sleeves and tiny turn down collar finishing the neckline. She wore a Juliet of the same material, banded at back in the flowers which also composed her bouquet: pink carnations and ivy.

Mrs. Robert Benchley, Jr., of New Canaan, Conn., as bridesmaid, wore the same costume, only her flowers were white daisies sprinkled with pink carnations and ivy.

The bride's godchild, little Susan Haberkorn (whose mother was honor matron) was flower girl in a pink dotted Swiss frock, ankle length, with Juliet to match. There were white daisies on the Juliet cap and Susan also carried a prim bouquet of the blossoms. Dr. Robert P. Wise was his brother's best man and bridesmen were Charles M. Kidner, brother of the bride; George W. Wendle, Jr., Thomas C. Tilley, Roswell G. Curtis, of Pontiac, and Thomas Snelham and George Webb, the last two of Birmingham.

A gown of peacock brown chiffon and lace over pink was worn by Mrs. Kidner. She chose a matching brown straw chapeau trimmed in a garland of heather and roses. She wore brown spray orchids. Mrs. Wise was in hyacinth blue lace and chiffon with navy tulle hat finished in pink roses. Her flowers, also, were pink roses.

Wedding guests attended the reception at the Kidner home in Provençal road following which the young couple left on a motor trip through the South. They will make their home upon their return temporarily in the garage apartment at the Kidner home.

Mrs. Wise traveled in a navy blue gabardine bolero suit stitched in red. Her navy, off the face chapeau, had a white flower on it.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Osborn Mills (Margaret Swan) of Cleveland and Mrs. Laurie Dickson of Baltimore (the former Mary Dykema of Grosse Pointe).

Mrs. Wesson Seyburn Opens East Jefferson Home

Mrs. Wesson Seyburn, of East Jefferson avenue, has returned from the winter at her home in Palm Beach. En route to the Pointe, Mrs. Seyburn stopped in New York for a few days.

MRS. ROBERT T. BOLO of Lochmoor boulevard has returned home after spending the winter in Miami, Fla. ROBERT, JR., and RAYMOND spent their Christmas and spring vacations in the south with their parents. Mr. and Mrs. Bolo drove home through Virginia and visited Williamsburg and Greenbrier.

MR. and MRS. ERNEST B. KELLY, JR., of University place announce the birth of a son, Ernest B. Kelly, III, on April 17. Mrs. Kelly is the former KATHRYN CANFIELD.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD C. EDWARDS announce the birth of a daughter, KATHRYN ANN, on April 25. Mrs. Edwards is the former JOYCE SCHUMANN of Balfour road. The Edwards are now building a new home in Kerby road.

BILL ULRICH, son of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM J. ULRICH of N. Colonial court, will be home on May 5 for a short vacation from Valparaiso University.

KATHLEEN KALBFLEISCH, daughter of MR. and MRS. MARCUS KALBFLEISCH, of Lincoln road, has been chosen co-chairman of the Freshman Cabinet of the Christian Emphasis Program at Denison University, Granville, Ohio, where she is a junior.

MRS. MARY SHIELDS AMBROSE of Essex boulevard has returned to her home following an eastern trip during which she attended the National Ceramics Convention in New York and visited relatives in New York, Wilmington, Del. and Baltimore, Md.

MR. and MRS. J. LAWRENCE BUELL JR. are back in their Vendome road home after a holiday in Bermuda.

MR. and MRS. FRANK R. HIGHT have returned to their home in Hawthorne road after spending six weeks at Coral Gables, Fla.

MR. and MRS. EDWARD WHEELER THOMAS of Cadieux road announce the birth of a daughter, NANCY ANN, on April 30. Mrs. Thomas is the former DOROTHY HOFMANN.

Patricia Breen Honored By College Classmates

Miss Patricia Breen, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Guy L. Breen of University place, was recently initiated into Scroll, a local honor society for affiliated women at the University of Michigan.

Miss Breen was also just chosen head of the Interviewing Committee of the Michigan League at the University. In this capacity she helps in the selection of all women campus officers in the League.

She was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in January of 1947 where she was a member of the National Honor Society and secretary of her senior class. She is now a junior in the Literary School at the University of Michigan and a member of Delta Delta Delta, national collegiate sorority.

HONOR STUDENT

The honor list of the students in the highest 10 percent of their classes at Oberlin College, which has just been released, includes the name of Robert Trees, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Trees of Lincoln road.

Garden Pilgrimage Dates Are Announced

Five Beautiful Grosse Pointe Gardens To Be Open To Public May 20, 21, 26, 27 and 28; Annual Event Sponsored By Garden Center; Mrs. Fred J. Schumann, Chairman

The 1950 Garden Pilgrimage will be held May 20, 21, 26, 27 and 28 with Grosse Pointe leading off with five of its especially handsome and interesting gardens.

Sponsored by the Detroit Garden Center, with headquarters on Belle Isle in the "White House" (once the summer home of the Campau family), the Pilgrimage will be the twelfth such, the series having been instigated in 1935 but interrupted during the war years.

Mrs. Fred J. Schumann of Devonshire road is this year's chairman. Her capable committee includes:

Mrs. George Heffernan, area chairman; Mrs. Emil Leidich, signs-and-arrows chairman; Mrs. B. E. Donovan, finance chairman; Mrs. James Lafer and Mrs. Harry Hall, in charge of maps; Mrs. Jack Le Febvre, ticket chairman; and Mrs. Frederick Linscheid, secretary.

Serving in advisory capacities are Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener, Mrs. Meredith Randall, Mrs. Wendell Wheelock and Mrs. David D. Dunlop.

Besides the Pointe area, gardens will be shown in Birmingham, Bloomfield Hills, Grosse Ile, Trenton and Northwest Detroit; 27 in all, as against last year's 80. The smaller number was chosen because it was found that for those genuinely interested, it was a physical impossibility to see all the charming gardens on view in the 1949 Pilgrimage.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Lynn Pierson will show their pair of lovely small gardens at 275 Voltaire place. These, separated by a grass plot and garden pool, were designed by Miss Florence Stroh.

The J. J. O'Brien, at 486 Kercheval avenue, will exhibit their formal garden and terrace, their large walled garden with its charming pool and woodland paths.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Barbour will open their enchanting Ellen Shipman garden with its American and English boxwood at their home at 147 Lake Shore road.

Mrs. Horace E. Dodge's formal French garden outlined in box, its marble statues and fountain, will also be open to the public. The rose garden leading to the swimming pool will be shown as well.

Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 32 Lake Shore road will conclude the Pointe's offerings. This duplicate of an Italian villa, with Japanese yew and English boxwood and 8,000 tulips direct from Holland, is expected to be at its best during the Pilgrimage.

Tickets for the entire Pointe Pilgrimage are $1.00 plus 20 cents tax; 35 cents, tax included, for the individual garden. Ticket sellers will be on hand at each garden; where there also will be hostesses to direct and inform the visitors.

The Garden Center's rules, which—it is hoped—all will follow, are briefly: wear low-heeled shoes, leave dogs at home, park in streets (not driveways) and, please, Do Not Pick Flowers. Children under 14 years will be admitted free if accompanied by their parents.

All gardens will be open from 1 until 7 p.m. "rain or shine."

Proceeds from the Garden Pilgrimage are devoted to the free services of the Garden Center, Belle Isle quarters for which are provided by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

Park Gardeners To Hold Musical

The Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club is sponsoring a musical for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund on the evening of May 9 at 8 p.m. at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Vernon P. Johnson, 502 Pemberton road.

The program will feature Lucille Schleicher, of Washington road, lyric dramatic soprano, who has appeared on orchestral programs, in opera, on the radio, and in concert before distinguished groups. She is soloist at the Nardin Park Methodist Church.

Also featured will be Murray Foreman, of Windsor, Ontario, a versatile artist with an extensive repertoire. He has appeared in Toronto, Ontario, with the concert orchestra of the Columbia Broadcasting Company and with the Windsor Symphony. He is soloist at First Congregational Church, Detroit, Michigan.

Accompanist for these two fine artists will be Margaret Simon of Maison road.

Mrs. Howard Poppen is in charge of refreshments, assisted by Mrs. J. T. Huette.

Farm and Garden Club To Meet Monday, May 8

The Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club will hold its May meeting on Monday, May 8, at 2:30 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Hugo Scherer at 205 Lake Shore road.

Tea Nets $1200 To Aid Students

A total of 975 tickets were sold for the Mothers' Club of Grosse Pointe High School Card Party and Tea held last Friday, April 28, at the High School. It was estimated that more than 800 women attended the party which netted at least $1,200, according to the chairman, Mrs. John S. Foley.

This is an all-time record for money-raising parties sponsored by the Mothers' Club. The sum raised will greatly augment the granting of scholarship aid to worthy High School graduates who apply for it this year.

"Success was the result of the splendid cooperation of the many committees who planned for it weeks in advance," said Mrs. Foley, "and the hundreds of enthusiastic women who attended the party."

Mothers and daughters worked side by side in the check room, and at the bake sale, which netted $290. High School girls also helped in the West Gym, setting up card tables, where the entire huge room was filled with card players all afternoon.

The attractively decorated cafeteria was the scene of an enormous tea party, with refreshments served constantly by tireless committee members, from 2:45 until well after 5:00 o'clock. Those fortunate party-goers who went home with either an attractive table prize or one of the 120 other prizes, joined the Card Party Committee in expressing appreciation to the many merchants and the neighborhood groups who gave so generously for the benefit of the scholarship fund.

Mrs. Harry Barnard Giving Luncheon for DAR Chapter

Mrs. Harry E. Barnard of Merivether road will entertain the Service Committee of the Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution with a luncheon and bridge in her home on Friday, May 5, at 12:30 p.m.

Co-hostesses are Mrs. Albert E. Cooney, Mrs. H. Sanborn Brown, Jr., Mrs. Henry G. McCabe, Mrs. William M. Perrett, Jr., and Mrs. C. Edward Putnam.

Mrs. Barnard is chairman of the Service Committee; Mrs. Ray Sackett, secretary, and Mrs. William B. Spurrier, treasurer.

The business session will be devoted to the election of officers for the ensuing year.

The Bridge will benefit the Camp Fund.

Matinee Musicals to Hold Guest Day Program and Tea

The Matinee Musicals will present its Guest Day program and tea on Thursday, May 11, at 2 p.m. in the home of Mrs. R. E. Lamb, 275 McKinley road.

Co-hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. C. L. Douglass, Mrs. H. B. Brown and Mrs. H. S. Knight. Program chairman for Guest Day is Mrs. R. C. Hill.

Square Dance Planned By Methodist Society

The Woman's Society of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church is sponsoring a square dance for all the church members and their friends on Friday evening, May 19, at 8 o'clock in the gymnasium of Memorial Church.

Tickets to this affair may be obtained by calling Mrs. Hugh A. Delfs at TU. 2-2636.

National Catholic Association will be host to nearly a hundred women from communities all over the nation who are expected to attend the annual meeting of that organization to be held in Washington Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 8, 9 and 10.

Prominent among the National Catholic Association representatives who are expected to arrive from Eastern Michigan are Mrs. Frederick Clifford Ford and Mrs. Arthur McGraw of Grosse Pointe.

Mrs. Ford is the regional chairman, having succeeded Mrs. McGraw in this office.

Jackie Montee Princess At Shenandoah Festival

Jackie Montee, Pointe senior at Greenbrier College, had the honor of being picked as one of the princesses attending the queen of the Shenandoah Apple Blossom Festival held in Winchester, Va., on April 27 and 28.

Anne Hadley, the queen, was crowned by her step-father, Vice-President Alben Barkley. Her attendants included 38 princesses selected from students in all the colleges of the four states participating in the festival.

Jackie will be graduated from Greenbrier in June.

Marilyn Faber To Be Bride

Marilyn Faber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Faber of Kensington road, will speak her wedding vows this Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. Her bridegroom-elect is James Scully Connolly, son of the Bertrand D. Connollys of Van Dyke avenue and the ceremony will be held in SS Peter and Paul Jesuit Church on East Jefferson avenue.

Janet Faber will be her sister's maid of honor and the other bridal attendants are Suzanne Sutherland, Mary Jo Hally, Patricia Kearns and Barbara Foster of Milwaukee.

Best man is to be George Cavanaugh Jr. and groomsmen include the bride-elect's brothers, Michael and William Faber Jr., Richard Guilford, of Cadillac, Edward Wilderling and William Underwood.

Pre-nuptial parties for popular Marilyn continued right up to Wednesday, the date chosen by Mary Jo Hally for the spinster dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Connolly are giving the rehearsal dinner this Thursday evening at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Other parties for Marilyn have been a luncheon and miscellaneous shower given last Saturday by Suzanne Sutherland, a miscellaneous shower given by Mrs. Walter Fitzsimmons on Tuesday; a personal shower at which Patricia Kearns was hostess and a shower-luncheon which Mrs. Jerome Wayno entertained for the bride-elect.

Supper Given For C. H. Buhls

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Johnson of Lothrop road, were hosts last Sunday evening at a supper party to welcome back Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Buhl who returned to their East Jefferson avenue home that noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Buhl spent the winter at their residence in Palm Beach and stopped over in New York on their way home.

In three weeks the Buhls will be on the wing again when they go to New York to attend the graduation of their debutante daughter, Lydia, who graduates from Miss Hewitt's classes. Lydia will bow to society at a ball June 24 being given by her parents in their Pointe home.

Mrs. Walter Wandrei is chairman, assisted by Mrs. Cyril Mauer as co-chairman. Hostesses will be Mrs. Raymond Mauer, Mrs. William A. Gant, and Mrs. Helen Gumbrecht.

Sorority Women's Big Party Set for May 10

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Will Be Scene of Panhellenic Association's Luncheon and Fashion Show Wednesday

Sorority women from all the Pointes, as well as Detroit and outstate, are all hoping for a bright, sunny day when, dressed in their Spring best, they will attend the Detroit Panhellenic Association's annual Greek Letter Day Luncheon and Fashion Show, on Wednesday, May 10, at 12:30 o'clock, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

There will be 18 Panhellenic sororities and eight associate groups represented, (which number some 5,000 women), with at least 2,500 members from the Grosse Pointes, of these, over 350 are expected to attend the luncheon to represent their various groups.

Mrs. Robert Bennett, Kappa Alpha Theta, 3107 Alter road, is the general chairman.

Making arrangements with the Yacht Club is Mrs. Howard Simon, Balfour road, who is a Chi Omega. Mrs. Maurice Strong, Alpha Xi Delta, of Beaconsfield, Mrs. Byron B. Phillips, Alpha Gamma Delta, of Cloverly road, and Mrs. Edward Kramer, South Colonial court, are in charge of reservations.

The seating arrangements are under the direction of Mrs. Ralph Hummel, Sigma Kappa, of University place. Her sorority sister, Mrs. Walter Bauman, of Berkshire road, is taking care of the speaker's table.

The lovely spring floral decorations are in the hands of Mrs. Fred Shumann, Alpha Sigma Tau, of Devonshire road. Assisting Mrs. Shuman will be the Mesdames Arthur Bartholomew, Gamma Phi Beta, of Washington road; Arthur Ericson, Alpha Xi

Delta, of Washington road; Robert Hendricks, Pi Beta Phi, of Colonial court, and John Thomas, Alpha Phi, of McKinley road. On hand to greet the guests for the day will be Mrs. Harold O. Love, Pi Beta Phi, of Ford court, who is chairman of the reception committee. She will be assisted by Mrs. Norman Lasca, Delta Zeta, of Fisher road.

Mrs. Hall Lippincott, Kappa Kappa Gamma, of Rivard boulevard, is planning the entertainment for the afternoon.

Mrs. John P. Cushman, Kappa Delta, of Ridgemont road, is the Press Chairman for the Pointe.

Places at the speakers' table will be marked for about twenty-five special guests who represent their sororities in state and national offices. Among these guests are several Grosse Pointers.

On Saturday, May 13, Lapeer State Home and Training School in Lapeer will hold open house. You'll have to furnish your own transportation but if your reservation is in to Alice DuCharme at WE. 5-5053 no later than May 8, you may be given a free dinner. There will be only 200 dinners served so you better get your reservation in pronto. There will be meetings, building inspection, etc., from 10 till about 4, with dinner round about noon time.

Note: No Board Meeting this month but what a regular meeting we're going to have on May 15! After a very short business meeting we're going to celebrate our birthday and honor our Past Presidents with a party. Alice Marrs has been named Chairman and sure would like to have a good turnout of Past Presidents. For the birthday celebration, please bring a white elephant so we can play some games and have a lot of fun.

Think we better call Danny Hamilton "Bone Crusher" from now on. It seems that on Easter Sunday, he gave his mother a hug and squeeze that resulted in a very painful cracked rib for poor Sue. Wow, whatta guy!

Get well wishes to Helen Duross who is in Saratoga Hospital recovering from an operation and to any other Unit and Post members who are ill.

Please, officers and chairman—won't you have your pictures taken real soon? Den.

Barbara Molyneux Made Member of Mortar Board

Miss Barbara Molyneux, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Molyneux of 354 Fisher road, Grosse Pointe Farms, was recently initiated into Mortar Board, national women's senior honorary society. She was selected for membership on the basis of her outstanding scholastic achievement and for her participation in extra-curricular activities at the University of Michigan.

Miss Molyneux was also just chosen to be a member of the executive board of the Women's Athletic Association at the University. She is a member of Delta Delta sorority.

Miss Molyneux was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in January of 1947 where she was a member of the National Honor Society and head drum majorette for two years.

Ladies Day Out Party at YWCA

Four hundred invitations went out this week for the Ladies Day Out May Breakfast scheduled for Central Branch YWCA at 10 a.m. Wednesday, May 10. All women who have been enrolled in Ladies Day Out at Central Branch YW are invited. The nursery will be open. Reservations are requested by May 6.

Table decorations will combine spring flowers with household cleaning items, on the realistic spring note. A background of organ music will be furnished and there will be a parade of fashions for young homemakers.

The planning committee includes Mrs. Roland Likert of Nottingham Road, Grosse Pointe. Ladies Day Out is that day each week when the YWCA nursery takes over pre-school youngsters while their mothers take over the YWCA. For a blanket fee the women take their choices of a full day's activities ranging from gym and swimming to speech and millinery. Fall plans for Ladies Day Out in three branches of the YWCA of Detroit will be announced at the breakfast.

Hostesses for the May Breakfast from this area are: Mrs. M. M. Ban, St. Clair; Mrs. F. S. Hedge, Hawthorne; Mrs. R. Likert, Nottingham; Mrs. L. W. Montgomery, Rivard Blvd.; and Mrs. M. B. Powers, Westchester.

Ileana Lindh, Myra Hahn, Honored at U. of Michigan

Last week the NEWS carried a story about honors won at the University of Michigan by Jennie Quirk. Additional information received shows that two other girls of the same graduating class at Grosse Pointe High have also been earning their share of laurels in Ann Arbor.

Ileana Lindh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gunnar Lindh of Rivard boulevard, has been elected head of the Public Relations Committee of the League Council. She has also been tapped for Scroll, senior women's honor society.

Myra Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Hahn of Three Mile drive, has been elected Social Chairman of the League and has also been tapped for Scroll. Both of these girls are members of the junior class.

Choruses Give Joint Recital

Tuesday evening the Ladies' Chorus of Grosse Pointe brought its first year of organized, choral work to a successful close with a guest recital for the well known Grosse Pointe Men's chorus.

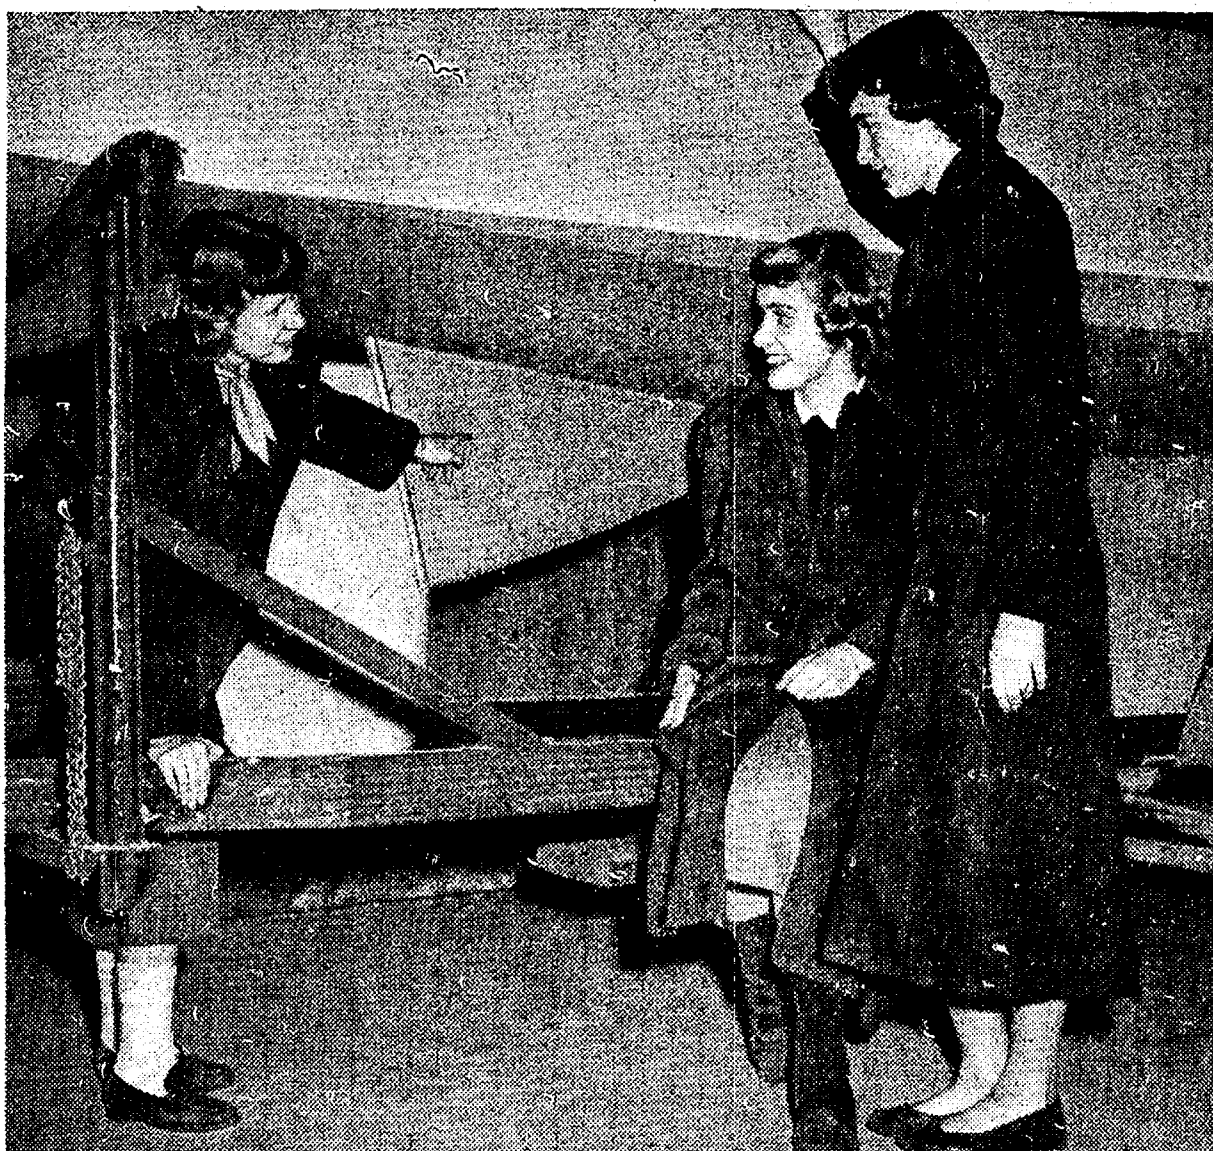

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Winnifred Gomez, a variety program, consisting of popular, classical and semi-classical numbers, was presented. The "Men's Chorus" under the direction of John McKenzie, reciprocated with appropriate selections from their extensive repertoire. For the grand finale the two groups united in a series of folk songs.

The Ladies' Chorus meets one evening each week at the Grosse Pointe High School, under the direction of Mrs. Gomez, musician, director and author of books of children's songs.

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus, meeting one evening each week at the John Pierce Junior High School, is the offering for the male population of the "Pointes."

Cub Scout Pack Holds Carnival

When it comes to doing things in a different sort of way the Cub scouts of Pack 156 at Christ Church do it up in a big way.

Last Monday, May 1, Pack 156 staged a Carnival with the help of their willing parents at Christ Church. There wasn't a thing missing that goes to make up a regular country carnival.

Each of the 12 dens that make up the pack had its own booths, which ranged from tossing bean bags at a wooden Shmoo to lassoing a rocking hobby horse and pitching horseshoes for prizes.

The evening's cavorting got under way at 6:30 p. m., after a grand march by all the Cubs, dressed in various and assorted costumes. Once the parade was over and the boys received awards for their scout work the previous month the carnival got into full swing and lasted more than an hour and a half.

The more than 200 kids and parents won a host of prizes, all donated by merchants in and around the Pointe.

The funds collected by each booth went into that den's treasury to be spent on entertainment at a future date.

The evening was climaxed with a hog calling contest, the announcement of the winner of the peanut guessing game and a tug-o-war.

Pointe Theatre Play Next Week

"It's a real 'family show' so Grosse Pointers can forget the baby sitter and bring the whole family," says Director Russ Werneken in reference to "I'll Leave It to You," to be presented by the Grosse Pointe Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, May 10 and 11 at Pierce Auditorium.

The cast includes Walter Tuttle in the title role of Uncle Daniel supported by Jane McNaughton, Peter Spencer, Richard Hildebrandt, Mimi DuBrul and Frances Lee as his nieces and nephews. Others in the cast are Mary Frances Galvin, Rosilyn Mohn, Undine Sturdevant and Arthur Bull.

The play is aptly chosen for presentation at this time—the week before Mother's Day—as author Noel Coward dedicated it to his mother.

Tickets may be obtained at Doubleday's in the village, from Mrs. Ralph Genter, TU. 1-4586, or at the box office.

The Center's First Year

The annual meeting of the members of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association last Monday gave many of them their first direct knowledge of the marvelous transformation that has been effected in the Center property since it was taken over by the association a year ago.

In listening to the reports they also gleaned authoritative knowledge of the splendid work that has been carried on there in furthering the educational, patriotic and cultural life of Grosse Pointe.

They were probably all convinced that this fine institution has already made a permanent place for itself in this community.

Many compliments were heard on the manner in which the Board of Directors has piloted the institution in its early months and the heartfelt applause given each director as he or she made reports on their respective committee's work in this first year was indubitable evidence of their appreciation.

When, following the recommendation of the nominating committee, the five expiring directors were reelected without a dissenting vote or without any other nominee being named from the floor, as permitted by the by-laws, universal approval was expressed.

The formal dedication of the institution will occur on Memorial Day, and the chief feature of these services will be the unveiling of the bronze memorial panels in the foyer. Every man, woman or child who has contributed to this fine project, and those who have not yet done so but may later, should join the throng which is expected for that event.

Mr. Hoover's Proposal

Convinced by a five years' trial that the effort to achieve world peace and security through the United Nations organization has failed, former President Herbert Hoover calls for the scrapping of the present United Nations and the setting up of a new organization with the Communist countries shut out.

It is a tragic admission which our elder statesman feels called on to make.

The fact that Mr. Hoover has been a lifelong advocate of world peace gives added significance to his present proposal. He must have been profoundly moved to have suggested a step which, in itself, might shatter explosively the present fragile peace under which the world still lives.

His proposal is specific and bold. He would exclude the Communist dominated countries from membership in the new organization.

Any person who has been even half informed on world affairs during the last five years clearly recognizes the causes which have prompted Mr. Hoover's suggestion.

We have seen the United Nations which was set up for world security struggle futilely almost since the hour of its birth against the studied machinations of Russia to negative every effort it has made toward this end. In the very beginning Russia refused to come in unless there was retained in the inner security Council, of which it was a forerunner, a veto power which would give her the right to stop any move originating in the Council which was not to her liking. She has ever since used this veto power remorselessly with the result that for five years past not a single major provision has been set up for world security. Her professed desire for world peace and security was automatically proved insincere by her refusal to submit to a world atomic energy authority the right of control, including the right of examination into the activities of all countries in war munitions, as proposed by Bernard Baruch.

What Russia wanted was the cessation of all preparation for defense during which time she was to go ahead with her preparations for world conquest.

She has waged a ceaseless war of words against the "capitalistic imperialisms of the decadent west." This, of course, for home consumption and on the chance it might find lodgment among the nitwits in the western democracies.

She has cut off her own people from all contacts with or knowledge of the ways of life in real democracies.

From behind her iron curtain of isolation she has poured forth a steady blast of hostility which has included lies, spying, atheism, the stirring up of civil and industrial discord among her would be friends.

She has been provocatively aggressive in her every approach short of a shooting war.

She has declared eternal war against the capitalist countries of the world according to the writings and speeches of her own leaders.

She has had no intention, now or ever, since the communists took over the political control of Russia thirty-three years ago, of ever making a single sincere gesture toward world peace. She aims at the state being the sole arbiter of the lives of her people and eventually of the whole world in all its political, economic and cultural life.

Her never-abandoned plan has been to impose this concept on the rest of the world, by force if necessary, and is in process, she believes, of setting herself up as the sole arbiter of the human race. She is in the course of executing the most gigantic plot for the banishment of every freedom, political, industrial and intellectual by which the world has climbed to its present summit of human welfare.

She aims to banish God from the affairs of men and substitute a hopeless materialism which marks the grave as the end of all.

All of this program is included under the banner of communism.

It is in the common knowledge of these accumulating events that Mr. Hoover has been prompted to issue his call which is tantamount to saying the peril is here; let us boldly meet it before it becomes overwhelming.

No issue was ever met or any problem ever solved by running away from it.

Wise Mr. Hoover's plan is to face the issue before it becomes insoluble. Like the farmers at Concord Bridge, he says, if war is to come let it start now and here.

And the first step is to banish the thieving camel who has stuck his head under the tent.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"When you walk in a field,
Look down
Lest you tramp
On a daisy's crown."

(James Stephens)

Up to our clavicle in Spring cleaning, we are daily running into things that make us nostalgic for the "good old days." Ferinstance, when you have to have things repaired these days, what happen? You call a little man and he sez he can and will fix it. Just about the time you've given up caring whether it ever gets fixed, he arrives and goes to work. Before he leaves, you look at the job and say, "But those screws haven't been put back!" He tells you THAT isn't his job, that you will have to call a screw-man for that.

Within three weeks, the man who screws the screws arrives and leaves a mess that has to be painted . . . So he advises you to get a painter. The painter finally arrives and leaves another mess . . . which you have to clean up yourself, because so far, no specialized job has been created for a man who removes paint stains and scrapings.

If a job requires the moving about and lifting of heavy furniture, the company you call always sends ONE SMALL man who looks at the stuff to be moved, then looks at you and sez, "Who's gonna help me move this stuff?" Who indeed? THEY NEVER have helpers, but the guy you send for to turn a bolt on a wash basin, or fix a light plug, usually has a man Friday with him who stands there handing him tools! We give up. In grandma's day, Mr. Fixit used to arrive promptly, do his job AND FINISH IT HIMSELF . . . and nine times out of ten, grandma would get him to do half a dozen other things before he left the house, including holding the yarn while she rolled it into a ball.

To borrow a pithy phrase from the New Yorker . . . we would like to put the following information under the heading of "Raised Eyebrows Department." In the mail, we received from a local woman a postcard that was sent to her from a well known school for boys. The name of the school was printed at the top of the card . . . and below it was the following message:

"Eight cases of German Measles have developed in the boys' school April 2nd, and consequently, more cases may be expected as the Spring term advances. All school activities will be continued as usual. This notice is sent out in view of the special danger which German measles carries for mothers in their first three months of pregnancy. Should there be any such in the school community, they may wish to consult their Physicians about any special precautions that may apply to them. The School Physician will also be glad to help answer any questions."

Vive La Liberals! THAT'S the kind of school we want . . . especially if it includes its present Physician.

We are becoming tres fed-up with what we call "personal" ads in big shot magazines . . . you know, Irene Dunne washes her face with this or that; Ginger Rogers eats Duffield's spinach for breakfast; Jimmy Cagney drives a Swayback convertible; Tyrone Power wears Pheegee collars and Mr. Gotrocks has switched to Mule Team, the gentleman's drink (haw, haw).

We can hardly credit the American people with falling for all that flappedoodle and all we can answer to it is "SO WHAT? Can't you just picture the average American husband saying to his wife, 'Get me some Staybored shirts today; I see where William Powell wears them.' Or can you hear the typical male, who has been drowning in martinis for twenty-five years . . . telling his bride to order some Mule Team, because he wants to be a gentleman?"

The thing that set off our fireworks on the subject, is an idiotic ad that has been appearing lately on the backs of magazines . . . and in color. The wife of a very prominent movie actor, who is noted for his chic entertaining in the social world as well as for his acting, is shown "placing the flowers in a dining room table centerpiece" . . . just before her guests arrive. The OBJECT of the ad is to advise us that she is FEEEE-ROWD of her—Silver Plate service for eight which comes in a handsome wooden box like this: (pictured is the box).

Now then, let's just break this down. In the first place, it is known that Mr. and Mrs. Movie Actor are rich as all get out. The advertising blurb tells us they entertain frequently, their guests including "dignitaries from every Nation, Royalty, business big shots, et al." So far so good. The dining room in the picture doesn't look any more impressive than ours and if anything it looks SMALLER. Madame is poised with limp tulips in hand, which she is about to arrange in the bowl. (No doubt she hasn't any help in the house and has to do these little things herself . . . JUST BEFORE THE GUESTS ARRIVE!)

Now we come to the silver PLATE. We have nothing against silver plate; we will probably be using our happily for years to come . . . but we DO resent some advertising nitwit trying to convince us that the elegant Mr. and Mrs. Movie Star have thrown their sterling silver to the winds and prefer to impress their equally elegant guests with silver PLATE. We believe a lot of things, brother . . . but not THAT!

Crime Wave Sparring

There may be a somewhat divided opinion as to the necessity of the current anti-gambling hysteria. Many persons think that if a fool is itching to part with his money his plight should not warrant a hullabaloo.

There is no divided opinion, however, on the necessity of scotching the waves of violence which are the accompaniment of the less heinous offenses and frequently overlap on innocent victims.

The gangs that sell "protection" to the small merchant against other hoodlums who would blow him up are one branch of the crime fraternity that should be summarily dealt with. The problem of the children that are constantly graduating into the higher brackets of criminals is one of the major crime problems. Some persons say this is one of the tragic aftermaths of the wars that have seared two generations of our people.

This is only a part of the story. A more deep seated explanation is the growing apathy of millions of parents as to the upbringing of their offspring and their inclination to shift from the heartstone to paid agents the moral guidance of their children. It is out of this neglect that the ranks of the hopeless criminals are yearly recruited.

The police themselves must bear an important responsibility in the failure to suppress crime. The police of the country are, in the great majority, men honestly dedicated to the performance of their whole duty but in too many instances they are out of sympathy with the performance of their duty when directed at certain types of lawbreaker or in some instances seek direct personal profit from their near-sightedness.

Pertinent to this fact Frank Costello, the big time gambler in New York and reported czar of the nationwide gambling hookup, told the Senate Committee some plain truths. He said "a gambler can't operate unless he has the green light somewhere."

That's testimony from an expert. The only operators of the green lights are the police. When one of these green light boys is discovered he should be so quickly fired he would be a red light for his fellow officers. This rule should apply to every one from a Mayor of a city down to the man on the beat.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Enthusiasm for the square dance is now country wide and Grosse Pointe, it would seem, has a sizeable share. Clubs, churches and any number of organizations in this community are developing new fashions every day.

The present generation is discovering that grandpappy's way of having fun has more to offer. All walks of life, young and old seem equally enthusiastic.

The best way to learn 'to do' is of course, by 'doing.' However, if you are a beginner, it will help to know before you start, a few of the terms and fundamental steps. Swing your partner, grand right and left, couple promenade, do-si-do and allemande left need afford you no terror. The library comes to your aid with a number of books on square and folk dancing.

Miss Jean Mastin, of our library staff, attended her first square dance recently and went through her paces like an old timer, "thanks," says she, "to the book, DANCERS OF OUR PIONEERS by Grace L. Ryan." A collection of quadrilles, contra dances, circle dances and couple dances, with detailed instruction, the calls and suggestions for music.

Other recommended titles are: HONOR YOUR PARTNER compiled by Edward Durlacher; 81 American square, circle and contra dances.

THE COUNTRY DANCE BOOK by Beth Tolman and Ralph Page; the old-fashioned square dance, its history, lore, variations and its callers.

PARTNERS ALL—PLACES ALL by M. H. Kirkell; forty-four enjoyable square and folk dances for everyone.

SWING YOUR PARTNERS by Durand Maddocks; a guide to modern country dancing.

And if you wish to do a little practising in your own recreation room, the library has two albums of square dance records. These may be borrowed on your library card. The rental is two cents a day per record.

Dr. Lloyd Shaw, a westerner, who is credited with getting the "cow-boy hoedown out of the mothballs of neglect," says— "Here is the dance of true democracy; if we can play together, we can also work together."

Congratulations go to Mary Alice Naur of 1456 Maryland, a student assistant at the Grosse Pointe Main Library.

Miss Naur's essay on the Archdiocesan Development Fund has won for her twenty-five dollars. The check for this, she received from Cardinal Mooney, Tuesday of last week.

Mary Alice is a student in the eleventh grade of St. Ambrose School.

Looking Ahead?

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

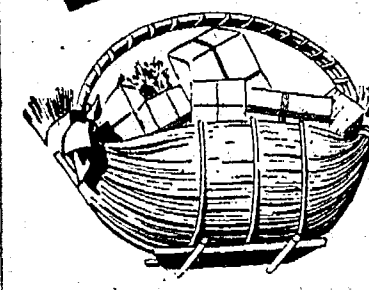

Do you visualize your life in the future? Have you hopes for greater success in business . . . plans for the improvement of your home . . . working to give your children a good start in life?

What about your health, is it included in the building of your plans? Good health is not a matter of fate anymore. It is the result of proper care year by year. Of what benefit are the great strides made in medicine if each person does not use them to maintain or improve his health?

Doctors and pharmacists can help you protect that health so you can carry out plans.

Objectives Set By Republicans

The Republican State Central Committee meeting in Lansing for the purpose of coordinating all activities to date for the 1950 campaign, unanimously adopted resolutions that leave nothing in doubt as to the purposes and objectives of the Republican party in the 1950 election.

Adopted first by the Rules and Resolutions sub-committee and then unanimously by the State Central Committee as a whole, the resolutions provide as follows:

"The Republican Party in Michigan is fortunate in having a fine list of candidates seeking nominations in our primaries.

Reducing taxes.

Balancing the budget.

Eliminating deficit spending and government waste.

Fighting and exposing 'Something For Nothing' deception, whether it be socialized medicine, socialized farming or hidden taxes.

Recognizing that the public interest is paramount in all matters effecting management and labor.

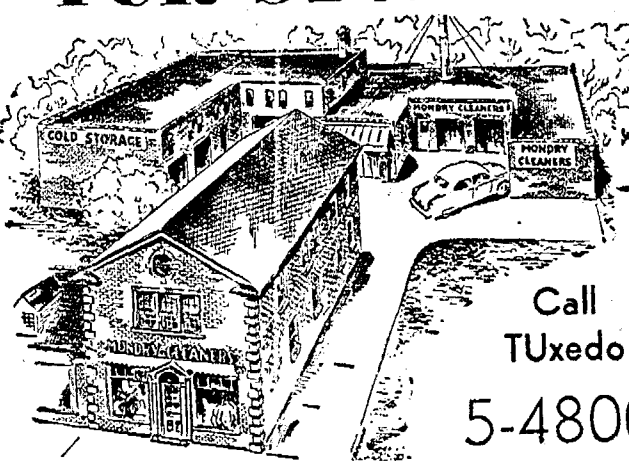

Fighting Communism here, instead of complacently condoning it, and demanding that any Party which advocates the overthrow of government by force be denied a place on the Michigan ballot."

Following the reading of these resolutions by Edward W. Frey, Chairman of the Rules and Resolutions sub-committee, the spontaneous applause on the part of the Committee members present indicated their approval. When the vote was taken on adoption, approval on the part of the Central Committee members was unanimous.

JOB FOR DOCTOR

"Never assume the responsibility of home treatment of ear-ache or running ears; give that task to your ear doctor," the Michigan Department of Health advised parents in calling attention to National Hearing Week, May 7 to 14.

Knowledge of Flowering Shrubs Adds Pleasure to Spring Cavalcade of Beauty

By VINCENT De PETRIS

The cavalcade of unfolding blossoms among the many shrubs and trees seems to be heard quietly the belated arrival of real Spring. The person who passes by these beautiful blooms without knowing what they are will miss much of the pleasure which results from knowing plant material in an intimate way.

First Blossoms
The first blossoms which we may look for are those of the Cornelian Cherry (Cornus mascula). The blossoms of this tree-like shrub are yellow, of feathery form and appear before the leaves. It is much like the witch hazel that it is frequently mistaken for this late autumn flowering shrub.

The Forsythias or Goldenbeils named for Forsyth will also be found among the earlier flowering shrubs. There are several distinct varieties of this beautiful shrub and as many hybrids.

Forsythia intermedia, and the improved variety, intermedia spectabilis are graceful upright shrubs which attain a height of seven to eight feet when mature. The variety spectabilis which in Latin signifies "showy" is aptly named. It is loaded with golden bells before the leaves appear, the blossoms lasting for many days.

Another Forsythia known as primulina has lemon yellow blossoms in great profusion. Forsythia primulina is one of the newer hybrids and may be found listed under the name of Spring Glory. It is indeed a glorious shrub and worthy of being planted in any garden.

A very showy tree-like shrub with myriads of pink rosette like blossoms is the Siberian Plum, Prunus triloba. Like most early flowering shrubs the Siberian Plum flowers before leaves have developed and is very conspicuous with its masses of soft pink blossoms along its many branches.

Flowering Cherries
There are many beautiful flowering shrubs or small trees having pink or white blossoms which are commonly referred to as cherries but which are botanically classified as Prunus (plum). Among the most famous of these are the Japanese flowering cherries which are admired by thousands around the Tidal Basin in Washington D. C. There are many hybrids of these, most of which possess double or semi-double blossoms in shades of pink to and white.

The Japanese cherries were developed from the wild mountain cherries which are widely distributed throughout the four Japanese islands. Their development came about through careful selection and date back several hundred years. They are hardy in the lower peninsula of Michigan provided they are planted in full sun and in a well drained position. Early spring planting is recommended for best results.

Botanically the Japanese or Kwanzan cherries are known as Prunus serrulata, so named because of the somewhat saw toothed leaves; and Prunus Yedoensis, after the region of Yedo in Japan. There are two other species of cherries which are worthy of mention in our vicinity. One of these is the bird or weeping cherry, Prunus subhirtella; it is one of the first to bloom. The other is the double flowering almond, Prunus glandulosa. The flowers of this beautiful large shrub or small tree are double and come in both soft pink as well as white.

Although it is commonly referred to as an "almond" it is actually a species of Prunus. Both of the above are easily grown and require the same soil and exposure as the Japanese cherries.

It should be noted that what are commonly referred to as cherries and almonds are grouped under the botanical classification as Prunus which signifies and includes the plum.

The Flowering Crabs
Crab apples are the wild parents of our cultivated apples. Apples have been cultivated for their fruits since the days of the Roman Empire. The cultivated apple was selected from this wild progeny and later those which bore inferior fruits were referred to as "crab apples."

However, although crab apples are of little or no value for their edible fruit, they are nevertheless extremely showy when in bloom. For this reason and because of their ease of culture and extreme hardiness they rank among the best of the ornamental large shrubs and small trees. This is particularly true of the Siberian and Asiatic species which are not only gorgeous while in flower, but are very attractive in fruit.

They thrive almost anywhere in the garden or lawn but of course will do much better in open areas free from too much shade. When thus planted the branches will be literally smothered with blossoms which range from red and purples to many shades of pink and finally white.

Carmine Crab (Malus baccata). Attains the size of a small tree with single blossoms of carmine pink. Foliage dark green. Siberian Crab (Malus baccata). Single white flowers which are fragrant yellow fruit with some variation to red tall growing with green foliage. Japanese Crab (Malus Floribunda). Flowers deep pink produced in great profusion and appearing with the green foliage. The small red fruit appear in the Fall. Makes a small tree and is extremely hardy and vigorous.

Parkman's Crab (Malus halliana Parkman). This is one of the showiest varieties. Flowers are semi-double to double deep pink, followed by red fruit. Not nearly as hardy as other varieties but one of the most beautiful. Betchels Crab (Malus ionensis). Possesses double soft pink blossoms resembling small roses. A late blooming variety having upright form and making a small tree. Being a species of the American Prairie crabs, this variety like others of the Prairie crab group is very susceptible to attacks of crippling fungus carried by Junipers. For this reason Betchels crab should not be planted in close proximity to junipers as the latter act as hosts for this fungus.

Purple Leaf Crab (Malus purpurea); this is a very conspicuous plant. Its reddish purple flowers are extremely showy, while its distinctive purple foliage makes the plant stand out after the flowers have faded. The fruit are apricot colored. Hopas Crab (Malus Hopa). This is another crab with unusual foliage, which although not as striking as Malus Purpurea. Flowers are single deep pink color with foliage tinted purple. Makes a large upright tree. Arnolds Crab (Malus Hupehensis theifera). One of the most floriferous varieties with pink buds and white flowers followed by red fruit. Erect branching habit, but more compact than most other varieties making it desirable for small places. Sargent's Crab (Malus Sargentii). This is the smallest of the flowering crabs growing not more than 7 to 8 feet in height when fully matured. Very much branched. Covered with single white blossoms followed by many red fruit in the Fall. A very bushy large shrub.

Note that with the exception of the last three flowering crabs listed above, all are actually small trees. When planting bear in mind by giving the larger growing varieties ample room to develop.

The Magnolias
Magnolias are among the most ornamental flowering trees. The first magnolia to bloom is the Star Magnolia (Magnolia stellata). Possesses pure white star shaped flowers before the leaves. It will grow to the size of a small tree.

Magnolia stellata rosea. This variety is similar to the Star Magnolia excepting that the flowers are tinged with pink. It is one of the smallest of the magnolias attaining a height of about eight ft. and is very rare. The Star Magnolias are native to China. Soulanges Magnolia (Magnolia Soulangiana). This magnolia when in flower makes a most impressive sight. Its large cup-shaped blossoms appearing before the leaves are produced in great abundance. The color is varying shades of purple, rosy crimson and white. The large blossoms have a subtle fragrance. It forms a fair sized tree when fully matured with large handsome foliage. They require moist rich soil. Magnolias should be planted in early Spring for best results. Since they prefer sheltered locations they are ideally suited for suburban planting where the many dwellings arrest the sweep of winds.

The Dogwoods
Dogwoods are botanically Cornus. The flowering dogwood Cornus florida is a showy and long lasting when in bloom. The Latin specific name "florida" means flowering and showy and bears reference to our Southern State.

Flowering Dogwoods are small trees. There are two varieties of this species. The most common of which is the white. The other a pink flowering variety is Cornus rubra. Dogwoods require some shelter from sweeping winds and an acid or slightly acid soil. They attain the height of nearly 20 feet when matured. They are fairly hardy and will do best in rich soil and slight shade.

Flowering dogwoods should however not be planted under trees or close to the rambling roots of elms or maples. They seem to thrive well near oaks and certain evergreens.

The Weigelas
These shrubs are among the most colorful Spring flowering plants. Their bell shaped flowers are produced in the greatest profusion along gracefully arched stems. The plants are well branched and attain a height up to seven or eight feet. The colors include pink, rose, white and crimson.

Weigelas were named for Weigela. They prefer a rather rich and moist soil and sheltered locations. Being time loving Weigelas do very well in our alkaline soils.

The Viburnums
Viburnums comprise an extensive group of shrubs many of which are coarse textured but others are extremely decorative. Viburnum carlesi and Viburnum Burkwodii are delightfully fragrant besides being very decorative. Their soft pink flowers are home dense clusters. Because of their delightful fragrance and delicate pink coloring they are commonly called the Mayflower viburnum. These two exquisite shrubs require a sunny but sheltered location in well drained soil.

Since they are grafted on wild stock they should be planted deep enough to cover the grafted point to prevent the wild roots from developing growing roots.

The Japanese viburnums referred to as the snowball and double-file viburnums have white blossoms and are a gorgeous sight in June. You will find these listed by your nurseryman as Viburnum tomentosum and tomentosum plicatum.

Another viburnum which deserves mention is Siebolds viburnum or Viburnum Sieboldi. This shrub grows up to six or seven feet. Its masses of white flowers are very showy which later are followed by red fruit turning black when mature.

It might be a good idea to get acquainted with these shrubs as they come into bloom this Spring. You may discover some which may fit in your general planting at some future time.

Common Weeds Good Vegetables

Wild greens make good vegetables, the Michigan Department of Health said today.

Some of the small shoots of wild greens just coming up in Michigan back yards and along Michigan roadways are excellent eating and have just as many vitamins and minerals as the leafy green vegetables bought in stores or grown in home gardens, according to the Department.

Some of the commonest weeds which bother the Michigan gardener are considered excellent in other lands. Pursley (pursley), for instance, when eaten raw or steamed is considered a great delicacy in some countries. Shoots of milkweed can be used like asparagus and their flavor compares favorably with that vegetable.

The average family picks dandelion greens to cook or use in salads and takes water cress from country streams for use in salads or sandwiches but few housewives know other edible wild greens.

Young leaves of marsh marigold, chicory, wintercress, pigweed, mustard and sorrel are edible. Like all green leafy vegetables, wild greens belong to the group of "protective" foods, chiefly because they are so high in iron and vitamin B. They also contain considerable amounts of other minerals and vitamins such as Vitamins B1, C and G and calcium, and they afford bulk or roughage.

In selecting wild greens, take only the small tender leaves and shoots. Wash them several times in pans of warm water. Pick them off the top of the water each time so that the sand and grit go to the bottom. Do not allow them to stand in water. Cook them in just the water that clings to the leaves. Salt them when you put them over the fire. Turn with two forks during the first few seconds of cooking so the water goes to the bottom. Cook only five to eight minutes. Greens get bitter and mustard-colored if they are cooked too long. Use cooking water in gravies, soups or stews. These rules save food values and make the greens more attractive and palatable.

For seasoning, use salt, pepper and butter, or bits of crisp fried salt pork. Variety can be had by adding sliced hard boiled eggs, or slices of crisp bacon, or finely chopped pepper or onion.

Use only greens you can identify. Some wild greens are poisonous.

The Michigan Department of Health has printed a pamphlet "Wild Greens are Good and Good for You," which helps to identify the edible wild greens and tells how to prepare them. A copy may be obtained free of charge from your local health department or from the Michigan Department of Health, Lansing 4, Michigan.

Some teachers use the pamphlet as background for a field trip and "tasting" party.

Highland Park and Fordson Victims in League Matches

Pointers Drop Only One Match Out of 14 Played Against First Two Opponents in BCL Competition This Season

Coach Merlin Schultz's tennis team, Grosse Pointe High Schools winningest team, is still rolling along in high gear after five matches and has run its consecutive winning streak to 36 straight.

Last Wednesday, April 26 the local netters entertained Highland Park in its first Border Cities League contest and walloped the visitors 6 to 1 with the majority of the first string boys on the sidelines.

Drop One Match

The Highland Park match saw Bruce Terris suffer the only setback absorbed by the Pointers. Terris battled Lionel Spooner three sets before going down 5-7; 6-4; and 6-3.

Cort Locklider romped through Edgar West for a two set 6-1; 6-1 victory in the number one singles and Dick MacKenzie almost whitewashed Howard White 6-1; 6-0, in the number two match.

Bob Peterson, the most improved player on the Devil squad this Spring, coasted to an easy two set win over H. Shuck in the final singles match 6-2; 6-0.

Sweep Doubles

The Pointers doubled the three doubles matches with Al Mann and Tom Lamb teaming up to whip B. Somerville and J. Johnson 6-2; 6-3, and Bill Rossiter and Jack Westphal breezed through R. Miklik and J. Kane 6-2; 6-0.

Apple checked George Parker and Bob Hardies swished through the rather anemic efforts of J. Whitney and J. Surface 6-0; 6-1 in the final match.

Following its thirty - fifth straight victory the Pointers traveled to Fordson on Thursday, April 26, for their second league match expecting little or no trouble.

Survive Acid Test in Meet With Wyandotte Net Stars

By FRED RUNNELLS

Grosse Pointe High School's tennis streak is still intact after an acid test administered by a strong veteran Wyandotte team Tuesday, on the local courts.

The Blue Devils made it 36 straight when they came from behind to win 4 to 3.

At one point in the match the Pointers trailed their opponents 3 to 1 but stubbornly fought off what looked like a sure defeat and battled the Bears to a standstill.

Cort Locklider deadlocked the match at 3-all when he whipped Jim Strickland 6-4; 6-3 in the number four singles. Locklider's victory put the pressure squarely on Bill Whittingham's shoulders, who at the time was battling Harold Roskoski in the number 3 match.

At the moment the match became tied Whittingham held a one set advantage and once he learned he could very easily become the "fall guy" if he lost he turned on full steam to bury his worthy opponent 6-3 for the deciding set and the match. Whittingham won his first set 6-2.

Other winners were Al Mann over Merle Jones of Wyandotte 6-4; 6-4 in the number one singles; Ray Leonard and Bruce Terris of Grosse Pointe 6-3; 12-10 over Eugene Winkle and Charles Tietrich in the number 2 doubles.

The number 3 doubles match was the heartbreaker as far as Coach Schultz was concerned and when Bruce Allan and Bill Rossiter dropped it in three sets to George Stepanovic and Ed

Very Cooperative

The Tractors upheld the Devils' confidence by meekly bowing 7-1 to give the Devils number 36 in the winning streak started three years ago.

The surprising part of the Pointers' lopsided win was the fact that Coach Schultz left six of his first players at home. That's how confident the local lads were of winning.

Cort Locklider started off the landside with a 6-1; 6-3 victory over Jack Aurelia in the initial singles match. Dick MacKenzie worked a little harder to notch the number two singles from Jim Pappa 6-4; 7-5.

Two Soft Touches

The final two singles matches were soft touches with Bill Fossiter whipping Julius Saymszyk 6-2; 6-1 and Harry Eason defeating Louis De Grazia 6-2; 6-3. Al Mann and Tom Lamb notched their second number one doubles victory in successive days by downing W. Gilbert and J. Husband 6-0; 6-1.

The last two doubles matches could have very easily gone three sets but for the superior play exhibited by the Devils in the clutch.

Meet Opposition

Bob Hardies and Jim Thayer whizzed through their first set 6-1 but were hard pressed in the second set to win 8-6 over Quisenberry and S. Bieranowski. Jack Westphal and Malcolm McColl had the toughest time of all when they squeezed by B. Nozecka and R. Brehmer 6-3; 7-5.

Downing 3-5; 8-6; 6-4 he was almost ready to throw in the towel.

When the entire picture is stripped down it was the Pointers' strength in the singles match that saved the day and the consecutive winning streak the Devils cherish so much.

This writer predicted before the season opened Wyandotte would be the stumbling block in the Devils' road to an undefeated season this year. The Bears still have another chance to upset the Pointers' appellation later in the season and at that time the Devils will have the disadvantage of playing on strange courts.

Five Windows Broken In New House in Park

A. DePaepe, a contractor putting up a new house at Three Mile and Mack, reported to the Park police that someone had broken five panes of glass in the building sometime late in the afternoon of April 24.

Lauer Team Wins St. Paul League Title

First Half Winners Tounce Murray Smith's Second Half Champs in Final Tilt

The surge that carried Murray Smith and his bowling teammates to the second round championship in the St. Paul pin league was abruptly halted by Eddie Lauer's team in the season championship tilt last Thursday, April 27.

For eight weeks the Smith team ran rampant over all opponents in the league to pull itself from a fourth place four-way tie to a commanding 5 point advantage going into the final night.

Schedule Changed

Usually the teams bowl in the order scheduled, but with the Smith outfit holding a five point advantage, which made it impossible for the second place Martin team to win, the championship tilt was bowled during the regular bowling session on the final night between Lauer, the first round champion, and Smith.

Gurche's Team High

Gurche's team annexed the season high three game total with 2839 and L. Donovan's outfit captured the high single game with a 964 total.

In the individual bracket P. Ruprich topped the high three game total with 655 pins and a single game of 247. J. Masack's 246 single game was the closest second place finish in the league.

L. Brecht topped the individual averages with 175.

DUS Ball Team Wins and Loses

The varsity baseball team at Detroit University School opened its Southeastern Suburban Conference league schedule at A. E. Smith School, and was held to four hits as they lost 9-5.

Dave Rentschler pitched for the hit school. He was sharply hit and in difficulty for five innings. Bert Miller, who took over the pitching reins in the 5th, did not allow an earned run.

D.U.S. opened its home league schedule on Friday, April 28, at D.U.S., edging a 6-5 victory over Grosse Ile. Bruce Garbutt, a ninth grader, pitched 6 2/3 innings, and was relieved by Bert Miller. The latter pitched four innings and gave up only 1 hit.

D.U.S., behind 4-0, went ahead in the sixth as Bob Kratz doubled in 2 runs and Garbutt singled in 2 more. Grosse Ile tied the score in the 7th after two were out.

The highlight of the game was in the 9th inning when Grosse Ile had a man on third with none out. Bert Miller struck out the first batter; forced the next batter to pop up; and then struck out the fourth man to face him, ending the inning.

The game was won in the 10th as Kratz, the batting hero of the day, doubled again with one down and slid home on Joe Berke's single.

Value of Experience Seen In St. Paul's Track Team

Coach Eddie Lauer's St. Paul High School track team has been doing all right for itself in its second year of competition in the sport.

So far this year the Flyers have engaged in three non-league meets, two triangular and one dual, and hold two wins against one loss at this writing.

The Flyers whipped Mary in its first outing this Spring at Belle Isle on April 17, through the fine efforts of Dave Sherwood. He won the 100 yard dash, the 220, placed third in the shot put and ran on the Flyers' second place 880 relay to score 12 1/2 points of his teams 40 1/2 total. Orchard Lake placed second with 32 points and Nativity brought up the rear with 31 1/2 points.

St. Paul swamped St. Catherine and St. Bernard in a triangular meet at Belle Isle April 25 and again it was Sherwood who provided the big share of the Flyers' points.

Sherwood won the 100, the 220 and shot put and placed second in the broad jump for 18 points of his teams' 53 point total. St. Catherine followed with 30 points and St. Bernard trailed with 10 points.

On Friday April 29, St. Paul suffered its first setback of the season at the hands of St. Joseph, 49 to 33.

In this meet Paul Weot was the best Flyer performer with victories in the 880 and the broad jump and ran a leg on the 880 relay.

According to Coach Ed Lauer he has three boys on whom he can depend for regular points. They are Sherwood, Weot and Fred Maddock.

Due to the newness of the sport in the parochial schools no league has been set up and each school engages in as many meets as it can arrange before the East-West meet at U. of D. Stadium and the State Regionals around the middle of May.

This year the East-West meet will be held on Sunday, May 7, and the State Regional meet will be a two-day affair May 18 and 19.

Despite the fact the Flyers cannot annex any league crowns in this sport the local lads are hot for the sport. It takes this kind of enthusiasm to force schools to organize leagues in the various divisions, such as in basketball and football, and recognize champions.

Spring Puts Damper on All Sports

Weather Forces Cancellation of Ball Games, Tennis Matches and Track Meets

What happens to Spring sports in Michigan shouldn't happen to a dog. Already Grosse Pointe High School has been forced to cancel two baseball games, two track meets and one tennis match because of wet or cold weather.

Rained Out Twice

Coach Pat Kaulitz has been trying for almost two weeks to get the baseball season underway. The opening game was scheduled for April 25 against Highland Park. On this day the diamond was so soggy due to previous rain that Highland Park officials suggested the game be transferred to the Polar Bears' diamond, which is one of the better of the none-too-good fields around the Border Cities League.

The game was to be played on April 26, but it rained so the game was washed out.

That is a pattern that has been followed by all Spring sports throughout the league this year.

Track Turns Into Canal Even Grosse Pointe's illegal, rejuvenated track was under water at times this year but so were all the others around the league.

Cold weather cancelled the Pointe tracklads' home opener against Monroe last Thursday, April 27.

This week the local athletes hope to get the Spring program rolling providing the weatherman cooperates.

Pointe Freshmen Given Awards at Williams

News from Williams College in Williamstown, Mass. concerns the winning of athletic awards by three Pointe boys.

Robert D. Welchli of Provincial road received his award for being a member of the freshman swimming team.

Charles H. Symington, also of Provincial road was a member of the freshman squash team.

Arthur B. Hudson of Lothrop road was captain of the freshman hockey team.

GPHS Track Team Defeated By Wyandotte in Meet Here

Pointers Get But Three First Places as Fast-Stepping Down River Boys Show Strength In All Events

By Fred Runnels

A thoroughly trained, fast stepping Wyandotte track squad took the measure of the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils last Tuesday, May 2 on the local track to the tune of 66 to 43.

The Pointers were only able to annex three firsts in the meet.

Reindel Wins 100

Jim Reindel captured the 100 yard dash, George Podmos won the 880 run and Ben Bray topped the high jumpers with a leap of five feet, two inches. Those were the only highlights as far as the Devils were concerned.

Wyandotte wasted little time in proving its superiority when Ernie Jodoin and Duane Root ran one-two in the 120 high hurdles to open the meet.

Falls in Relay

Grosse Pointe suffered a severe blow to its morale in the second event, the 880 medley relay, when Larry Swart stumbled and fell as he was passing the baton to Bray. The distance lost was too great even for the remarkable effort by the Devils' anchor man, Dick Higgs, who closed the twenty-yard gap to a mere four yards.

Wyandotte not only had the boys to capture the majority of the first places in the running events but also had the reserve strength to come in for those all important seconds and thirds.

The Bears, reportedly weak in the field events, showed up stronger than expected.

High School Band Wins Top Honors in State Festival

The Grosse Pointe High School Band returned triumphantly from Lansing last Saturday evening with a Division I rating at the State Finals for bands and orchestras. This represented the best conceivable performance for the event.

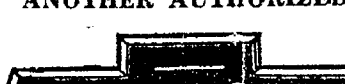

The band also received a first in Sightreading. Having participated in the State Finals each year and receiving an "excellent" rating, the local bandmen were thrilled to finally reach the top.

Seventy-nine groups participated in the finals and only 18 were judged as first division. The local high school band was one of eight Class A bands to be eligible to enter the finals, and one of the four top winners. This is the second time a top rating at the State meet.

Said Dewey Kalember, director of the band: "With one of the finest groups I've had the pleasure to work with and with the grand spirit and attitude combined with extra hours of diligent practice, that extra push was there when we needed it most before those four judges at Lansing."

The last and final performance of the High School band will be at their Spring Concert Friday evening, May 12, in the Pierce Auditorium. The public is invited and tickets will be on sale at the box office.

Eva Worcester's Paintings Shown

Eva Worcester, well known Grosse Pointe artist, returned on April 26 from Boston where she held a one-man show of 26 of her paintings at the Copley Society Gallery from April 8 to 21. A tea attended by 250 society members, artists, newspaper critics and friends of Mrs. Worcester's opened the exhibition. At the same time the Pointer had three pictures accepted and hung in an exhibit of members of the National League of American Pen Women at the National Museum in Washington. One of these paintings won a cash award. There were 350 paintings in the show, submitted by women who are both writers and artists. Three of Mrs. Worcester's paintings were sold during her Boston show. Boston papers carried stories praising her work.

PTA at Kerby To Meet May 9

William W. Bryan, president of the Kerby School Parent-Teacher-Association, announces that the final meeting of the year will be held in the New Kerby School next Tuesday evening, May 9. Program chairman R. H. Talcott urges parents to attend the meeting.

Art materials and projects from all elementary schools have been prepared for exhibit by Miss Gladys Vance, art education counselor in the public schools. The All-City Elementary School Band will present a musical program under the direction of William B. Ferry.

Professor Chester J. Ordon will briefly present a talk to parents on the value of fluoridation of the public water supply for the prevention of tooth decay. Professor Ordon is a member of the chemistry department of Wayne University.

The program will close with a presentation of some of the important techniques and concepts in the arithmetic program at Kerby School. Staff members presenting this discussion will be Mrs. Maurine Allan, Miss Jean Kunkle and Kenneth Gittins.

All teachers will be available for parent visitation from 7:30-8 p.m. A social and refreshment hour supervised by Mrs. K. K. Kimberlin and the social committee will follow the regular program.

Tea Honors Mrs. Bethel

Mrs. Richard S. Bethell of Montclair, N. J. will be complimented at a tea this Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Donald C. Stevenson in her Berkshire road home. Members of the Smith College Club of Detroit will attend.

Mrs. Bethell, a member of the Smith College Committee in charge of the school's seventy-fifth anniversary, will tell the guests about plans to observe the milestone.

Mrs. Stevenson has asked to assist her at the tea table during the afternoon Mrs. George A. Schemm, Mrs. Alexander M. Stirling (the Detroit club president), Mrs. Howard H. Robinson, Mrs. George F. Pierrot, Mrs. James W. Lee II, Mrs. Edward F. Wright, Sara Tiedman, Virginia Keller, Joan Young and Peggy Codd.

Mrs. George M. Slocum Returns From Virginia

Mrs. George M. Slocum has returned to her home on Roslyn road following a Spring visit to the Homestead at Hot Springs, Va.

Party at Center Set for May 12

Make some new friends and meet some old ones at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on May 12 when the Young Adult Group (college age through twenties) will hold its next informal evening.

At this date-not-necessary affair there'll be games, including mixers, cards, ping pong from 8:30 until 12:00. As in the past, 50c covers everything.

Parents Tell Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. Carl F. Wensing-er gave a family dinner, in their home on Washington road Saturday evening, to announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Covert, to Lee Hinchman Clark Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hinchman Clark of Grosse Ile.

Nancy graduated from Detroit Country Day and Endicott Junior College. She also attended Michigan State College. She made her debut at a luncheon in the Country Club in June, 1948, and is a member of Tau Beta.

Lee, who served in the Navy for three years during the war, is a graduate of Berkshire School, Sheffield, Mass., and the University of Michigan. He is a member of Alpha Sigma Phi.

Mrs. Symons Party Hostess

Central Y Homemakers Club will meet May 10 for a gourmet luncheon at the home of Mrs. William Symons in Torrey road. Mrs. Adolph Engel is chairman for the party, reservations for which are being taken by the Central YWCA.

The club's Mother and Daughter luncheon was held recently at the Y, followed by a musical program. A tribute to daughters was given by past president Mrs. W. C. Randall and Mrs. Kenneth Spears gave the tribute to mothers.

Pointe Branch of AAUW Holding Meeting Tonight

The regular monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW will be held tonight, Thursday, May 4, at 8 o'clock at the Memorial Center.

George Harding, guest speaker, will show movies of North America. Hostesses for the evening are Mrs. John Barnes, Mrs. Arthur Fleming, Mrs. L. H. Orbaugh, Mrs. R. L. Shepard and Mrs. R. E. Smith.

Monthly Book Review Scheduled at Church

Mrs. Fred Hauck will give her regular monthly book review on Wednesday, May 11, at 1:15 in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Exceeding the speed limit caused 10,100 deaths and 398,700 injuries in 1949.

TUNED TO PERFECTION!

If You Like a New Car...
Bring your present car to our Sales Department. See and drive a new 1950 RAY WHYTE CHEVROLET! You'll be as thrilled at its beauty and performance as you'll be amazed at the high trade offer made for your car.

If You Like a Car Like New...
Drive your car to our Service Department where we will restore that "Like New" performance and pep for springtime driving. And here's what we'll do:

ENGINE TUNE-UP
Check engine compression.
Clean and adjust spark plugs.
Test battery.
Clean terminals.
Clean or replace or adjust distributor points.
Check distributor rotor and cap.
Check vacuum ignition advance and set timing.
Test coil and condenser.
Clean fuel pump, bowl and air cleaner.
Check manifold heat control valves.
Adjust valves.
Adjust carburetor.
Tighten hose connections and adjust fan belt.

$395
Only plus parts

No matter how you look at it...there's nothing like a RAY WHYTE CHEVROLET for thoroughness of service and preservation of performance.

Week Set Aside For Animals

Once a year animals seek first place in the interest of their human masters and stage, "Be Kind to Animals Week." This year it is from May 7-13. During the week America's household pets are urging their owners to make it less of a "dog's life" and provide them with an extra tidbit or two in appreciation of the enjoyment and help that animals give to man.

To point up the national celebration of "Be Kind to Animals Week," the Michigan Humane Society, 7401 Richmond, is holding "Homecoming Day" for people of the Detroit area from 2 to 5 p.m. on Saturday, May 6.

Anyone who owns a pet will want to visit the modern, sanitary shelter on Richmond near East Grand boulevard, which provides humane treatment for thousands of dogs, cats, horses and other animals during the year. A motion picture entitled "Animals in the Service of Man" will be shown throughout the afternoon, depicting the many benefits that animals contribute to the human race. A program on animals will also be staged.

The Humane Society, which is a Red Feather service of the Community Chest, urges all animal lovers to pay them a visit during "Be Kind to Animals Week." The Society is also conducting a membership campaign during the week. Clifton Johnson, executive secretary of the Humane Society, has stated that during 1949 the lives of 125,000 animals were touched by the Humane Society through ambulance service, stock-yard and pet shop inspection, pick up of stray animals and emergency calls for distressed animals.

HAVE YOU SEEN

Those wonderful old leather cartridge cases THE FORMAN JOHNSTONS use as wastebaskets?

The gay silk blouse imprinted with pages torn out of a French engagement book and worn by MRS. HARVEY KIMERLY? ... "Moonlight bathing at Cannes" etc ...

The chic cotton blouse worn by MRS. J. REX QUEENEY ... looks for all the world like newsprint ... and makes a wonderful "conversation piece" ... the newspaper blouse contains stories of the atomic age! She wears it with a navy balloon cloth circle skirt ... and a pert red bow tie ...

That the elegant digs of MR. and MRS. JOHN LORD BOOTH are fast nearing completion there on Beacon Hill and the Lake Shore? ...

Sub Deb JOANIE LE GRO'S deep chocolate sun tan? ...

That perfect Spring frock worn by MRS. WALTER S. CLARK? Navy with white pique and a strip of scarlet peeking at the cuffs and marching down the front.

Anyone presenting a picture of more charming youth than MRS. SHERMAN FITZSIMONS JR. and her two sub deb dotters ... as they go shopping together? ...

PEGGY FLINN stepping along briskly on those temporary crutches? ...

PILFERINGS

As June approaches, we pilfer brazenly from Donald Ogden Stewart's PERFECT BEHAVIOR "Etiquette of Engagements and Weddings" ... all in a spirit of helpfulness:

INVITATIONS and WEDDING PRESENTS

The proper time to send out invitations to a wedding is between two and three weeks before the day set for the ceremony, although the out-of-town invitations should be mailed in plenty of time to allow the recipient to purchase and forward a suitable present.

As the gifts are received, a check mark should be placed after the name of the donor, together with a short description of the present and an estimate as to its possible cost.

This list is to be used later at the wedding reception, in determining the manner in which the bride is to greet the various guests. It has been found helpful by many brides to devise some sort of memory system whereby certain names immediately suggest certain responses, thus:

Mr. Snodgrass—copy of Highways and Byways in Old France—c. $6.50. "How do you do, Mr. Snodgrass, have you met my mother?"

Mr. Brackett—Solid silver candlesticks—c. $68.50—"Hello, Bob, you old peach. How about a kiss?"

The real festivities of a wedding start about three days before the ceremony with the arrival of the wedding party in which party the most responsible position is that of best man. Let us suppose you are to be the best man at the Roe-Doe nuptials. What are your duties?

In the first place, you must prepare yourself for the wedding by a course of training extending over a month or more prior to the actual event. It should be your aim to work yourself into such a condition that you can go for three nights without sleep, talk for hours to the most impossibly stupid young women, and consume an unending amount of alcohol. You are then prepared for the bachelor dinner, the rehearsal dinner, the bridesmaids, the wedding and the wedding reception.

(Next week: Duties of the Best Man.)

Former Pointer Feted at Tea

Mrs. Ralph E. Thomas of Merweather road was hostess at a tea last Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Swift H. Godshalk, who with her little daughter, Melinda, is visiting from her Chestnut Hills home.

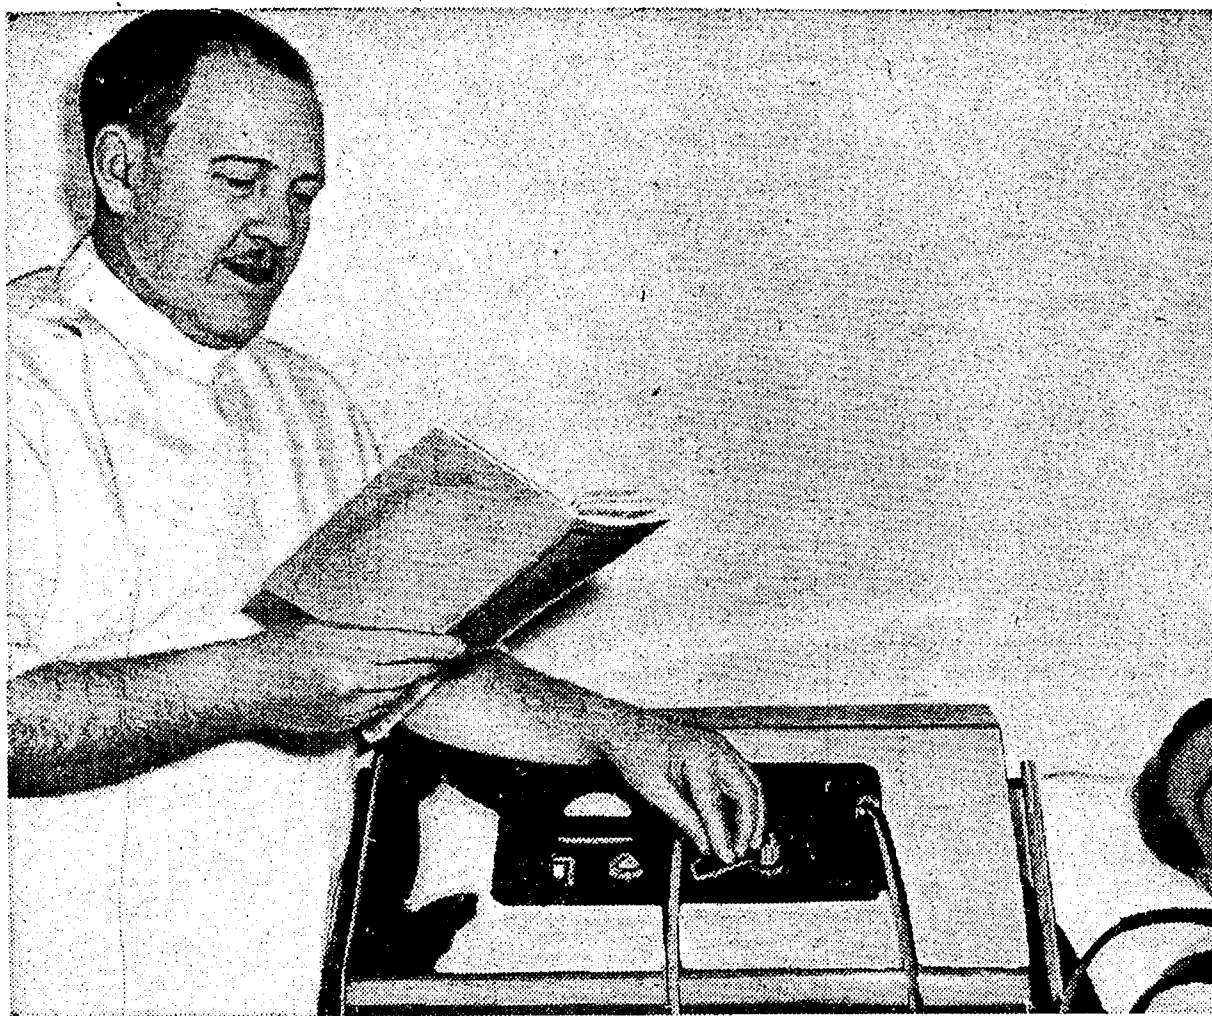

Assisting Mrs. Thomas at the table were Mrs. Harry Whittingham II, Mrs. Henry H. Wright, Mrs. Clyde M. Adams and Mrs. Frederick Hofmann.

Alliance of Unitarian Church to Meet May 9

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Alliance of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will take place Tuesday, May 9, at 2 p.m. The speaker of the day will be Mrs. McKinnon, who is connected with the Goodwill Industries.

The meeting will be preceded by a short business meeting at 1:30 p.m. Tea will be served at the close of the meeting in the Dining Room.

Pointer of Interest

DR. WALTER L. TUTTLE OF MT. VERNON ROAD

According to jovial Dr. Walter L. Tuttle of Mt. Vernon road, when the Grosse Pointe Players needed "an old man of 45" in their forthcoming comedy, they settled for him.

And we can tell it's a happy choice for the long suit this Pointer of Interest is acting. He's been at it since his high school days and even gave it a few years before he settled down seriously to his chiropractic profession.

So it's old stuff to the Doc when they hang a Star upon his dressing room door May 10 and 11 at Pierce Junior High Auditorium and he steps onto the boards as a darling scoundrel, Uncle Dan, in Noel Coward's, "I'll Leave It To You".

Uncle Dan's is a character role and that's the kind Dr. Tuttle likes best. The place is Mr. Coward's England and the time, the present. Uncle Dan reminds the doctor of W. C. Fields all of which makes him very happy, because he'll always be an admirer of the late, great comedian.

Now our star isn't a regular member of the Grosse Pointe Players but as a past president of the Pointe Optimist Club, holds high opinion of the group which has cooperated with his organizations in musicals to raise funds for charity. He was only too glad to do a bit of turn about when Uncle Dan was being cast.

Russ Werneken is head of the Players and all personnel attached to "I'll Leave It To You" are Pointers.

PROUD POINTER

Dr. Tuttle with "his wife, mother-in-law and cat, Lucky," has been a Pointer for four years now. He has grade A, extra large, enthusiasm for the community which he considers one of the most beautiful in America.

The good doctor was born in Minnesota and by the time he was ready for high school his family moved on to South Dakota. He studied at the University of South Dakota and completed his education at the Eastern Chiropractic Institute in New York City. He's a member of the National Chiropractic Association.

BEEF STROGANOFF

Contributed by

Mrs. Harold H. Emmons, Jr.

3 pounds Bermuda onions
2 pounds top round steak
1 pound mushrooms
1 cup butter
1 can condensed tomato soup
1 can tomato paste
1 cup sour cream
1 tsp. salt
Few grains pepper
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce.

Chop onions, then drain, saving juice. Cut meat in very thin slices, trim off fat. Slice mushrooms. Brown meat and mushrooms in butter. Add onions. Remove from heat.

Combine soup, tomato paste, seasonings, sour cream and onion juice. Add to meat mixture. Cover and simmer one hour. Serve with julienne potatoes. Serves six.

HONORED AT MSC

Barbara Otto was elected to membership in Towar Guard, sophomore honor society.

Reflections

by paul gach

A big, 1,000-word editorial couldn't surpass the little sign in a roadside restaurant down south. The food was excellent, the service good, and the price fair.

I quote word-for-word: "We have no quarrel with those who sell for less; they know what their stuff is worth."

How true with photography!

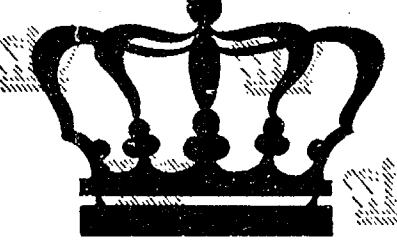

Pointe Counter Points

Just in time to make Summer simply beautiful are the new Moygashell suits being unpacked this instant at JACOBSON'S. What sterling is to silver, Moygashell is to linen. It's the finest Irish linen produced and now its elegant superiority is to be found in the two piece suits Jacobson's shows. There are three different styles and if you wear over a size 18, the suits may be specially ordered. Jackets are lined of course, and the colors are navy, white, green, natural, gold and egg shell. And still speaking of suits, you'll love the divine and unusually fine faille (Verny's Valley Caprice faille) navy or black suits, also at JACOBSON'S. Teddily inexpensive for the suit Vogue and Harper's demand for the chic Spring right through Fall, these suits come in sizes up to 18 and the same nice news about special orders prevails for those who wear a larger size! Two-piece and ever so smart, there are three styles to please you.

Fiddler's Band To Give Concert

The Detroit Fiddler's Band Festival, will be soprano soloist. John F. Matthews, bass violist, who has played with Dallas, Seattle, Baltimore, and Houston symphonies, will also be a soloist. Prizes will be presented to scholarship winners by Honorable Miles N. Culehan, Circuit Judge. Grosse Pointe will be represented in the concert by Miss Fern Bowyer, violinist, of 20077 Holiday road. Fern is a member of Grosse Michigan State College Music Pointe High School Orchestra.
