

TO HONOR WAR HEROES TUESDAY

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, May 18
DEFENSE TESTIMONY rested in the trial of Eugene Braunsdorf, former symphony musician, accused of murdering his invalid daughter to prevent her further suffering.

TWO DETROITERS, Mike Benson, 29, of 2226 Van Dyke, and Guy Payne, of 12885 Freud, were missing after their rented light plane was unreported from City Airport.

MORE THAN 105,000 persons have fled Winnipeg as winds of near gale force swept increasing floods against dikes protecting the city. At least 17 per cent of the Canadian city is now under water.

Friday, May 19
EVACUATION OF THE 215,000 remaining Winnipeg residents will be effected by Royal Canadian Air Force planes operating a round-the-clock air lift, if the rampaging Red River makes their removal necessary, officials said. Planes are now alerted, as the river reached the highest crest of the flood.

ARTURO TOSCANINI, world-famed musician, arrived in Detroit to conduct his 106 piece orchestra at Masonic Temple tonight.

The United States must build up its supply of war planes, or risk losing a war to Russia in the next few years, Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg, Air Force Chief, said today at a Detroit luncheon.

Saturday, May 20
A WATERFRONT explosion of two ammunition-laden barges, at East Amboy, N. J., killed at least 29 persons and brought injury to more than 600 others last night. Windows were broken and buildings shaken for 40 miles. The entire waterfront area of the town of 8,000 was levelled by the blast.

MARINE SGT. Carson James was acquitted of the murder of his father two years ago. The 28-year-old youth had pleaded self-defense in the Pontiac shooting.

MORE THAN 16,000 soldiers, sailors and airmen marched in Detroit today in observance of the country's first Armed Service Day, with high civic and military authorities reviewing the parade.

Sunday, May 20
FIFTY PERSONS WERE killed and 250 injured when a violent earthquake rocked Cuzco, ancient capital of Peru. Rescue workers continued searching for victims of the most violent quake in modern history of the city.

MICHIGAN'S GOVERNOR G. Mennen Williams told departing legislators that "We scorn the kind of gold-brick economy which deceives the people by appropriating for only part of the year and calls it a saving." The executive referred to $73,000,000 which the Republican-dominated body had slashed from Williams' proposed $344,000,000 program.

TRAFFIC ACCIDENTS claimed six lives in Michigan over the weekend.

Monday, May 22
AN AVERAGE INCOME of $10,000 per year for Americans by the year 2000 was predicted today by Prof. Philip Wernette, director of business research at the University of Michigan. Professor Wernette said that the next 50 years will bring the greatest economic progress in U.S. history.

LOWER POWER RATES are in the offing for 900,000 Detroit Edison Company customers, the utility announced today, because of improvements in the Trenton River Channel of the Detroit River which will be made by the Federal Government. Larger cooling ships will be able to use the channel, thereby reducing costs.

THE WIFE OF AN Oklahoma City detective admitted to police that her story of having been kidnapped nude and held by two men for 21 hours was a complete hoax, Oklahoma City authorities said.

Don't Forget to Buy Your Poppy Today

ROBERT JAMES ALLOR, 28-year-old Grosse Pointe War veteran, prepares Poppies in his bed in the Dearborn Veteran's Hospital for their sale today and tomorrow by the Frank B. Klett Chapter of the Disabled American Veterans. Allor, who served for three years with the Naval Air Force, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Allor, 357 Rivard, and is married to the former Celia Valentine. The couple has one child, Thomas James, age four. All money raised in the annual Poppy Day sales is used to help disabled veterans and the families of disabled and dead war heroes. Allor has been in the hospital for the last four years.

Mrs. Ware "Improving" After Crash

Daughter of Advertising Executive Off of Critical List at Bon Secours

Bon Secours Hospital authorities on Wednesday listed Mrs. Marjorie Maxon Ware's condition as "improved," following treatment for severe head injuries suffered in an automobile accident in Grosse Pointe Park May 17.

Mrs. Ware was hurt when she was thrown from a car driven by her husband, Frank, 28, after it had been hit by another car driven by Richard E. Sloan, 23, of 8029 St. Paul. The force of the impact, which Mrs. Ware admitted, hurled Mrs. Ware against the curb.

On Critical List
Emergency treatment for possible brain injuries kept Mrs. Ware in an oxygen tent at the hospital after the accident. She was on the critical list for several days.

Sloan was ticketed by Grosse Pointe Park police after the smashup for illegally turning into moving traffic. The accident was witnessed by Wayne Nichols, 11, of 1087 Lakepointe.

Married in 1947
Mrs. Ware, the daughter of advertising executive Lou Maxon, was married in June, 1947 in Christ Church, in a ceremony that was one of the highlights of the social season. Her husband is the son of Dr. and Mrs. F. Bertrand Ware of 304 Rivard Grosse Pointe. Home of the young couple is at 494 St. Clair, Grosse Pointe.

Takers Are Nil as "Mike" Goes on Bargain Counter

The biggest bargain at Joseph's Friendly Service, 15200 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe Park, was still "without takers" this week, despite a drastic price reduction, according to Moses Joseph, the station proprietor.

Joseph reported that no one had yet appeared to buy "Mike", an extremely mischievous monkey, which he had offered for sale far below the $100 bill he paid for the pet.

So far, Joseph said, the cost of maintaining Mike has been almost as high as his original price. Expenses started to mount last Sunday, after the station had closed, and Mike developed a

Poppy Day Express Thanks To Those Who Gave So Much

Every Penny Collected by Sale of Flowers Made by Disabled Veterans Goes to Help Them and Their Families

May 25 has been designated as Poppy Day, the annual opportunity for the public to show its appreciation to the disabled veterans by purchasing the little red paper flowers made by these casualties of the wars. In the event of rain the sale would be postponed to Friday, or Saturday if necessary.

All members of the various service organizations, American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and AMVETS, will be on the street corners selling the flowers. The AMVETS will be selling white clovers, the others red poppies.

All for the Veterans
Not a penny of the money raised through the flower sales is spent for administrative expenses. It all goes to help the disabled veterans in hospitals, for rehabilitation work, for child welfare and to aid distressed widows and children and deceased veterans.

Comforts are provided for the men confined to the hospitals. Recreation and entertainment programs are sponsored; some funds go for the prevention of juvenile delinquency.

Local Example
The child of a deceased veteran recently had to have an emergency appendectomy operation. There are other young children in the family and the widow was faced with a critical situation. The local post of the American Legion, No. 303, heard of the case. The widow was immediately contacted and the post was informed of the amount of money needed to see the family through the emergency. A check was immediately provided.

Make It Expensive
Open your hearts and pocket-

books today for those who are still fighting the wars in the veterans hospitals throughout the land, and for those families at home who never return.

When he was interrupted by Patrolman Donald Dean, the monkey was busy destroying all bulbs within reach, by placing them between his teeth and grinding with self-satisfaction at the resulting "pop".

Unable to get into the station, Dean notified the owner, who discovered that Mike had also been limbering his pitching arm by throwing strikes and curves with new sparkplugs.

Joseph has now rearranged his stock so that Mike cannot reach anything destructible, and is hopefully awaiting someone who would like to be Mike's new owner.

8,000 Tulips Add Beauty To Center

Magnificent Display Expected To Hold Full Glory Through Memorial Day

When the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is formally dedicated Tuesday, more than 8,000 tulips will be in bloom in one of the area's most beautiful formal gardens, as a tribute to the war heroes who are being honored.

The result of the personal effort and donations of Pointe garden clubs and individuals, the floral display is set between the carefully laid rows of shrubbery in the extensive memorial garden and forms a colorful contrast to the rest of the grounds.

Workmen at present are completing the bronze tablets which bear the names of the 128 Pointe war dead and the 3,438 who served their country from the area during the war.

Inscribed on the Gold Star plaque are these words: "On these tablets are in the hearts of our people are forever inscribed the names of the men who gave their lives in the service of their country—their is a monument more lasting than bronze."

Above the list of those who were in the service prior to VJ Day, the inscription reads: "Valiant defenders of the cause of freedom and human integrity whose patriotism and courage preserved and now serve to enrich the life of a great nation."

The Memorial, which has more than 40 rooms and extensive grounds extending to the lakefront, was dedicated to the city by the Alger estate March 22, 1949. The first Memorial Day services were held there last year.

Scout Camporee Set for Weekend

Grosse Pointe's long-awaited Scout Camporee will be held this weekend; May 27-28, at the Grosse Pointe Woods Park. Originally scheduled for April 22-23, the Camporee was postponed because of uncertain weather conditions.

The troops will pitch tents beginning at 10 a.m. Saturday morning. A treasure hunt will highlight the afternoon's activities. Coyle Fisher, popular district Councillor, will entertain the scouts at the evening campfire. Group religious services will be held Sunday morning, followed by inter-troop scout games.

Awards will be made to competing troops at 4 p.m. Sunday afternoon. Parents are invited to attend the closing ceremony at that time.

Troop leaders who have not yet registered for the Camporee are requested to contact Dan McGinty, Scout Commissioner, or Doug Simpson, Camporee Chairman.

Plateless Driver Finally Spotted

Herbert Shummer, 30, of 1753 Sheridan, Detroit, was able to drive a car all the way from Georgia to Detroit and to drive it there for more than two weeks without license plates, he claims, before he was arrested Sunday by Grosse Pointe Shores police.

Shummer, whose car was impounded, told authorities that he had driven the vehicle from the southern state where it was purchased, without question, and had taken it to work daily at the Dodge plant, where he was employed, without detection until Shores officers picked him up. It is still being held, pending production of the plates by Shummer.

SEEK HOSE THIEF

An over-enthusiastic amateur gardener is being sought by Grosse Pointe Park police, after Mrs. F. E. Lyon, of 1185 Audubon, reported on Friday, May 19, that a thief had made off with a 150 foot garden hose, complete with sprinkler, from her property.

INJURED BY BASEBALL
Eight-year-old Donald Carrier, of 788 St. Clair, Grosse Pointe, was treated at Bon Secours hospital May 15 for eye injuries, after being hit during a baseball game at the Neighborhood club.

Larger Endowment For War Memorial Is Aim of Campaign

Drive to Be Launched Soliciting Donations From Those Who So Far Have Contributed Nothing to Beautiful Center

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association is about to launch another campaign to increase the endowment for the maintenance of the War Memorial Center on Lake Shore road by at least $50,000. The campaign will be carried on by mail, excepting for the special solicitation by volunteers of a group of about 200 of the more wealthy residents of the Pointe who so far have contributed nothing to the Memorial.

It is the intention of the directors of the association to avoid soliciting any additional donations from those who have already participated in creating the beautiful memorial to Pointe heroes of World War II. Voluntary gifts from those who have already given will of course be most acceptable and appreciated.

Drive Fell Flat
During the campaign waged two years ago to raise a proposed $25,000 for a memorial library, less than half of this amount was donated by slightly more than 3,000 of the Pointe's total population of close to 40,000 residents. Of the amount raised all but some $60,000 was given by a comparatively small group of wealthy residents.

With the dismal failure of the drive for a library it was necessary to give up that idea. The generous donation by the Alger family of the beautiful Lake Shore road property made it possible to proceed with plans to convert this into a Memorial Center.

Operating At Loss
Some of the money raised had to be used for equipment and furnishing the beautiful Italian Renaissance building and restoring the gardens. Private gifts of furniture have helped a lot, but the Center has been operating at a loss and it is necessary to increase the endowment to meet the annual deficits.

A small group of patriotic and civic-minded residents have made additional donations of $500 annually to help make up this deficit. It is now the hope of the officials of the Memorial Association that sufficient funds will be provided by those who have so far donated nothing, to not only assure the continued operation of the Center, but to provide for its continuing development as the focal center for patriotic and cultural activities in the Pointe.

A group of some 20 men and women who have been most active in the Memorial Association since its inception, met last

The Complete Report
The Citizens' Committee advocating conversion to city status, follows.

Honorable Village President
Village Commission
Grosse Pointe, Mich.
Gentlemen:

The Citizens' Committee appointed the President of Grosse Pointe Woods to study the matter of city incorporation for the Woods to replace the present Village Government is pleased to make the following final report. This Committee unanimously recommends city incorporation for Grosse Pointe Woods and presents the following outline of the problem:

The State of Michigan is divided into counties with County Governments handling the following responsibilities: Regional

Voters Must Be Registered For School Election June 12

According to information received from the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, in order for persons who are not now properly registered voters, to vote at the regular School Election to be held June 12, such persons must register on or before June 3.

The Michigan laws governing eligibility to vote in school elections, state that persons must be citizens of the United States, and that they must have lived in the State of Michigan for six months and in the school district of Grosse Pointe for 21 days preceding the date of election.

These laws further state that persons must register either at the designated schools in the district or with the city or township clerk of the municipality in which they reside not later than the second Saturday next preceding any annual or special election. Such date this year falls on June 3.

Memorial Tablets to Be Unveiled

All Pointers Urged to Attend Special Services at Lake Shore Road Center

Next Tuesday will be a very special Memorial Day for the Grosse Pointe community. The permanent bronze tablets containing the names of all Pointers who gave their lives in World War II, and of those who served, will be unveiled in the entrance hall of the War Memorial Center on Lake Shore road.

This will mark the final dedication of the beautiful center, which will at the same time be observing its first anniversary of service to the Pointe.

Starts at 10:45
The Memorial at 10:45 am at the Center is expected to attract a great throng to tribute to the war heroes. It will get under way at 10:45 with the raising of the Colors and half-masting of same by the Boy Scouts.

The assembly for the unveiling of the tablets will follow at 11 o'clock. Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will give the Invocation.

Women To Unveil Tablets
Mrs. Nelly Baldwin, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Post 303 of the American Legion, and Miss Jean Poole, president of the Ladies' Auxiliary of Post 995 Veterans of Foreign Wars, will officiate at the unveiling of the tablets containing the names of those who served in World War II.

Mrs. Henrietta Nee, past-president of the Gold Star Wives, will unveil the Gold Star-bronze tablet which lists the Pointe's war dead.

Ralph B. Netting, Mayor of the City of Grosse Pointe, will read the Roll of Honor of the War Dead. Placing of wreaths will follow.

Volley to Salute Dead
Buglers and a color guard of V.F.W., Post 995 and American Legion Post 303 will play Taps and Echo and fire a volley saluting the dead. The Benediction will be given by the Rev. Father James Clark of St. Clare de Montefalco Church.

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association and the program committee headed by City Clerk Norbert Neff, urge all Pointers to attend the Memorial Day exercises.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Seven motorists were convicted of traffic violations, and another had a charge of reckless driving dismissed by Grosse Pointe Park Judge John L. Potter this week.

William J. Kirby, of 69 Meadow lane, who had been ticketed for reckless driving after an accident April 24 at Beaconsfield and Jefferson, pleaded guilty to the charge, and the case was dismissed at the session May 17.

At the same session, Douglas Stanbury, of 1669 Stanhope, Detroit, was fined $25, was forbidden to drive for three months, and must attend two traffic school sessions, following his conviction for speeding 45 miles per hour on St. Paul April 6.

A reckless driving conviction following an accident at Kercheval and Yorkshire May 4 resulted in a $15 fine and costs being levied against Janet Fryer, of 982 Washington road, while Charles T. Schuler, of 1626 Hampton road, paid $21 after being convicted of driving 45 miles per hour on Jefferson April 25.

Salvatore Viatale, 1270 Marlborough, Detroit, forfeited the $20 bond he had posted when he failed to appear to stand trial for speeding 40 miles per hour on Vernor April 25. Failure to stop at Verner and Devonshire on April 28 cost Robert J. Shummer, 14240 Hampshire, Detroit, $10.

Two traffic tickets, one dating back to New Year's Eve, resulted in $41 in fines and costs being levied against Richard H. Kastenhuber, of 26741 Gratiot, Roseville, by Judge Potter May 18.

Kostenhuber pleaded guilty of driving against traffic during the holiday, and also admitted that he had been speeding on Jefferson April 12. He must also attend two traffic school sessions.

Woods to Vote on Conversion

Planning, County Highways, Sheriffs and Coroners, Judicial System, Registration of Deeds, Health Department and Welfare Department.

Within counties, there are three alternate forms of Government depending largely on the density of population and the services desired.

1. In rural areas where the population is sparse, the Township Government is sufficient with the functions of tax assessing and tax collecting for county, school and township; state, national, county and township elections; representation on county board of supervisors, health department, local judicial system and welfare department.

2. When people live closer together and need such things as more police and fire protection, better streets, parks, water, etc., they incorporate as villages to perform the extra functions of engineering and building safety, tax assessing and collecting, local services, street lighting, parks and recreation, police protection, fire protection, water supply and rubbish and sewage collection and disposal.

3. When an area is sufficiently matured to govern itself completely, it replaced the sometimes duplicate functions of township and village by a single city government incorporated under a charter which the people themselves write and accept.

"City Incorporation" does not mean joining with the City of Detroit or any other Grosse Pointe municipality. It does not effect the present operation of our school system. It does not materially change our present local village functions. "City Incorporation" merely means that the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods will continue its present functions, will take on the functions now being performed by the Township and will conduct the entire operation under a city "Charter" to be written by a Charter Commission of Woods' residents approved by the State and accepted by the voter of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Methods of government become obsolete as new devices and techniques are developed to meet the changing needs of modern life. Grosse Pointe Woods is now mature enough to write a modern charter for the type of efficient government the voters want.

General comments:
1. The Michigan Municipal League, a non-profit association, organized and maintained by the villages and cities of Michigan for the purpose of research in Government unquestioningly recommends city incorporation.

2. Since 1831, forty-eight (48) municipalities in Michigan have voted to become cities. There is no record of any community reversing the process. Others find advantage in city incorporation.

3. "City Government", to some people, means big government or inefficient government. As long as Grosse Pointe Woods' voters take an interest in their local government and vote, there will be no difference in the effectiveness of our local government under the name "Village" or under the name "City".

4. Becoming a city would not alter the present village functions.

5. Tax assessing for county and schools can be handled by the present Village Assessor and Board of Review. A single assessment and Board of Review should cost less than the present double system.

6. Village personnel would make all tax collections. City taxes would continue to be due in July as are the present Village taxes and the county and school taxes would be due in December, both paid in the same office of the City Treasurer, no duplication.

7. At present, two registrations are required for all voters. Under city incorporation, registration for any and all elections would be made at one time and in one place. A ballot cast in any national, state, county or city election during any four year period would maintain the voters' franchise. Elections would be conducted by city officials whether for national, state, county or city affairs. It is possible that the various present elections could be simplified or combined at certainly no greater expense than by the present method. Simplification of election procedures should encourage more people to vote.

8. The Township has already notified the Village of Grosse Pointe Woods of the termination of its Health Service. The county is taking over the greater part of the functions formerly performed by the township.

9. Traffic and minor court cases now heard by township justices would be handled under city incorporation by duly elected judges.

10. The present welfare service would be maintained by payment directly from the city government rather than through the township government.

11. The Study Committee does not foresee any sizeable cost savings in city incorporation. It does see definite possibility of a more efficient and effective local government and certainly the increasing costs of government can better be held down with a unified city administration than by a division of services under the present township-village method. The Township government in 1949 cost Grosse Pointe Woods' taxpayers $18,242. Under city incorporation and with no increase in net overall taxes, this full amount would be available to duplicate the township services. To the extent that these services could be rendered for less, funds would be available for other purposes.

12. As villages withdraw from the Township, the total cost of operating the Township becomes concentrated in the villages which are left. With the recent vote of Grosse Pointe Park to become a city, the entire cost of Township services must be maintained by Grosse Pointe Woods and Grosse Pointe Shores. It is, therefore, desirable that steps be taken as rapidly as possible to also become incorporated as a city.

13. The procedure for incorporating Grosse Pointe Woods as a city is as follows:

A. Petitions signed by at least 1% of the Village population but not less than 100 (at petitioners must be registered voters) are submitted to the Village Commission.

B. The Village Commission establishes an election date following receipt of the petitions.

C. An election is held to determine if the voters are in favor of or against city incorporation and at the same election a charter commission of nine residents is elected.

D. The Charter Commission prepares a City Charter which must be submitted to the voters for acceptance and, at the same charter election, new officers are elected as provided for in the Charter. If the Charter is approved, these elected officials take office on the date prescribed by the Charter and at this time the incorporated city is officially in effect and the community withdraws from the Township.

The City Study Commission has found no disadvantages from city incorporation, some definite advantages, and many possible advantages. We, therefore, unanimously recommend that steps be taken to incorporate the "City of Grosse Pointe Woods" without change of boundaries.

Respectfully submitted,
Committee: George A. Beauchamp, Earl O. Cramer, Harry B. Miller, Byron A. Burchby, Rex Johnston, Leon D. Ratcliffe, David C. Crawford, Sec'y.

Friday night in the Provencal road home of Alger Shelden, association president, to discuss plans for the approaching campaign.

There had been prepared in advance of the meeting, cards containing the names of some 200 Pointers in the higher income brackets who so far have donated nothing to the Memorial. It was pointed out that many of these have been out of town during the campaign and had never been contacted. Others had refused to make any gifts at the time they were solicited.

These 200 cards were divided among volunteers at the meeting and others who were unable to attend but had signified their wish to take part in the coming solicitation. These residents will be personally contacted within the next few weeks.

William Durbin, handling public relations on a voluntary basis for the association, has prepared an attractive brochure outlining activities at the Center, its purposes and its financial status. These will be mailed to all the non-givers who will be solicited during the drive.

A sketch of the new proposed St. Michael's Chapel to be erected on Sunningdale drive, overlooking Lochmoor Golf Course. The cost of the entire structure is estimated to be $500,000.00, of which a $100,000.00 portion is to be constructed starting in October 1950. The type of building is English Village architecture with a proposed seating capacity of 320 in the church itself. On Sunday, May 21 the campaign opened under the direction of Joseph N. Jennings, chairman of the finance committee.

Police Capture Speeding Cyclist

Walter S. Pappen, of 400 S. Hereford, Detroit, eluded his Grosse Pointe City police pursuers on his motorcycle May 17, only to be captured later the same day by Grosse Pointe Farms patrolmen, who had heard his description broadcast on the police radio.

Pappen at first denied that he drove the machine that outdistanced the police, but accepted his ticket for reckless driving, as well as one for failing to change the address on his license.

Intrepid Hunter Captures Bunny

Sgt. Anthony Walsh, of the Grosse Pointe Park police department displayed his talent for big-game hunting this week, when he captured with his bare hands a once tame rabbit that had reverted to the wilds and persisted in ravaging the flowers of his former owner.

Walsh began stalking his quarry after Dr. Jacob Wenzel, of 855 Balfour, confessed to police that his former pet had escaped and came out of hiding only to destroy the flower beds at the Balfour home.

With Dr. Wenzel's aid, Sgt. Walsh quickly captured the truant bunny. It is now the property of Tommy McCracken, 10, who says that it will remain securely confined with his other rabbits.

Greater Detroit Hospital Fund to Benefit Pointers

To residents of the Grosse Pointe communities, the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund has a very personal meaning. That is why business and professional men in Grosse Pointe are participating wholeheartedly in the Fund's general campaign, which will run through at least another week.

As part of the Fund's $19,720,000 program Cottage Hospital will be enlarged to twice its present size and the new 272-bed St. John Hospital will be built on Chandler Park Drive and Moross road.

When these two projects are completed, residents of Grosse Pointe can be sure that a hospital bed will be available when it is needed.

The current shortage of hospital facilities is particularly apparent in the eastern section of metropolitan Detroit. There are now only 1.05 beds per 1,000 population in the area consisting of the Grosse Pointe communities, Grosse Pointe and a large portion of eastern Detroit. Hospital authorities agree that 3.23 beds per 1,000 are needed for minimum safety in Greater Detroit.

Statistics, however, do not tell the whole story. The hospital problem becomes critical to an individual when he or some member of his family must wait anxious weeks for admission to the hospital of his choice simply because there is no room. And this has happened at Cottage Hospital.

The constantly growing demand for hospital care has resulted from the tremendous growth of this area. Suburban communities are being turned to more and more as the ideal atmosphere in which to live and raise families.

The tragic phase of this development has been the fact that hospital construction has not kept pace with the increasing population. Since the construction of the present Cottage Hospital in 1928, there has been only limited expansion there, the addition of a wing in 1942.

With the new two-story wing to be built through the Greater Detroit Hospital Fund, the enlarged Cottage Hospital, with 103 beds for adult and child patients and 29 bassinets for newborns, will take its place among the health centers of Greater Detroit.

Expansion to more than 100 beds will be beneficial from an economical standpoint as well. It is generally agreed among hospital authorities that more efficient use can be made of personnel and equipment in hospitals of 100 beds or more.

Meter Ignorers Pay $292 Fines

A total of 41 traffic violations resulted in the collection of $123 from offenders in Grosse Pointe Farms during the month of April, the regular monthly police report of Chief Walter Hoyt revealed this week.

Meter violations, however, topped this total, with motorists who overstayed the allotted time paying $282 for the 252 violations. Other parking infractions cost 11 offenders $11, while nine traffic court cases resulted in collections of $150. There were no other court cases during the month, the report revealed.

During the period the Farms police reported 19 auto accidents, with damage estimated at $2,675. No one involved was injured.

Three cases of breaking and entering resulted in losses of $1,756 to the residents robbed, while police recovered $118 of $203 reported lost in 13 simple larceny reports. Five of the six bicycles reported missing were promptly recovered, and not a single car was stolen during the month, although the police recovered one car, reported stolen in Detroit.

Juvenile arrests topped the total of adults taken into custody during April, with 16 youths picked up against three adult offenders. Seven boys, between 11 and 15 were placed on probation by probate court, with the other juveniles released to the custody of their parents after their arrests on minor charges.

A Shameful Blot

Another Memorial Day will be observed next Tuesday, in Grosse Pointe and throughout most of the nation. The day set aside each year to pay honor to those who have died in the armed services of their country, will have a special significance this year for those of us who live in the Grosse Pointe community.

The permanent bronze tablets paying tribute to not only those Pointers who died in the armed services in World War II, but also to all those who served, will be unveiled in the War Memorial Center on Lake Shore road. The attending ceremony will constitute the final dedication of this magnificent building and its surrounding grounds, as a living memorial to those from this community who gave all they had to give, or were prepared to do so, for us who live on to enjoy the way of life they sacrificed to perpetuate.

It would appear to be a fitting time to examine closely into the record of the Pointe in this matter of remembrance of its own dead and survivors of the war whose scars still mar the face of the entire earth.

Holding up the Grosse Pointe War Memorial as a mirror, its reflections reveal what might appear to be a shining credit to the community. Viewed more critically and with a more acute perceptiveness, they disclose a shameful blot of selfishness which is beyond comprehension.

Out of a population of almost 40,000, with the highest per capita income of any residential area in the entire country, only a few more than 3,000 contributed anything to the War Memorial. There were more Pointers in uniform during World War II (3,564 of them), than there were those who cared to participate in creating a living tribute to them after the war ended.

Were it not for the immense generosity of one family and the untiring efforts of a comparatively tiny group who refused to admit defeat in their efforts to see a fitting memorial created, there would be no war memorial in the Pointe today.

And this is our opportunity to say we are slightly nauseated with the stupidity of those few who insist the gift of the memorial property was a nice way for the donors to get out of paying taxes. A child of ten with average mentality knows that the Memorial Center occupies one of the most desirable sites in the Pointe area. Subdivisions have been created all around it, and it too might very easily have been cut up into building lots and sold at a handsome return to those who preferred to give it to the community. These same donors then followed up their magnificent gift by adding cash and furnishings to help hasten the development they foresaw.

When the permanent war memorial idea was first promulgated, the consensus of those few who ventured an opinion was that it should take the form of a library. Architects and builders were consulted and it was estimated that $525,000 was needed to build a library that would be adequate as a memorial for a community of the Pointe's stature.

A drive was conducted and prolonged beyond its original closing date. When the returns were all in, the Pointe had contributed less than half this amount. What a magnificent achievement!

The memorial idea would have died right then and there had it not been for the tenacity of the small group who had been so deeply inoculated with the idea that they refused to give up. The heirs of the late Col. Russell Alger stepped into the breach and offered the beautiful Italian Renaissance residence and surrounding property on the lake-front. This building had cost $600,000 originally and competent architects estimated it would cost several millions to reproduce at present prices.

The gift, together with the money already raised on hand to redecorate and furnish it, provided the nucleus for one of the finest memorial centers in the land. It didn't seem possible that the residents of the Pointe could fail to realize what an opportunity had been afforded them.

Yet they appear to have done exactly this. Despite the glowing reports given out at the annual meeting a few weeks ago, Grosse Pointe's War Memorial Center will remain a missed opportunity until it is endowed with the backing, both spiritual and financial, of all the residents of the Pointe. It must become the combined citizenry's realization of the ideals which promulgated its creation.

The Center has made great accomplishments during the single year of its existence. It is being used by thousands of residents for social, educational and cultural activities... perhaps more for social pursuits than the others. Its dances appear to be better attended than its fine concerts, but there is no argument with this. Doubtless those whom it is intended to honor would rather hear light music and gay laughter in their living memorial than have it given over entirely to somber endeavor or completely hushed reverence.

The Center can be all of these things and many more. Its possibilities are limitless, but not without the complete support of the entire community.

Grosse Pointe's War Memorial has been created and is being maintained by the large gifts of a very few. That it was created in this manner was quite possibly necessary. That it should be maintained and developed in this manner is a complete contradiction of the whole idea behind it.

We sat in a small meeting the other night and heard plans discussed to increase the Center endowment to a point where the income would be enough to meet operating expenses. The plans revolved around contacting another group of the more wealthy residents who so far had donated nothing to the memorial. An effort is to be made to find a few more to join the small group who have pledged to give $500 each year over

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"When I can look life in the eyes,
Grown calm and very coldly wise,
Life will have given me the Truth,
And taken in exchange... my youth."

(Sara Teasdale)

Bob Ruark... whose column we wish we could write one like (?)... devoted his Sunday job to K. Windsor's new book. According to Ruark, "Forever Amber" Windsor has written an opus called "Star Money," that he sez probably out-rivals the forthcoming Kinsey report on females! We can hardly wait! Wheeee!

A tired business man of no mean ability, told us he was taken down to size one evening last week, by a temporary amanuensis hired for the evening by a group of big-shot industrialists who were holding an important meeting. The speakers' tables at the meeting were arranged probably in the shape of dollar signs... and in the midst of all his confusion, the secretary was told to sit "here"... and take down in short hand, the pearls of great price that dropped from the mouths of the big wigs.

After the first five minutes of debate, it was obvious to our friend that the little man with the pad and pencil was having a fierce time figuring out everyone's name; soooo, our hero unobtrusively moved over to the secretary, tapped him on the shoulder and whispered, "I'll sit right behind you here and whenever anyone speaks, I'll be glad to tell you who it is." The secretary mumbled a grateful thanks... and from then on his notes flowed smoothly on the pad.

Suddenly it was our big shot friend's turn to speak... and as he got up and cleared his throat, the little steno looked up at him and said audibly, "What's YOUR name?"

The above incident recalls a dandy to mind. Some years ago we were invited to sit in someone's box at the race track and between races, we watched and listened to the following scene that went on in the box in front of ours, which was cluttered with a bevy of hoity-toity females whose names and faces were familiar to us due to the society pages. Among the women, was one who had recently moved to town by way of marriage and you could tell by the tone of her voice that she had been born with a platinum spoon in her mouth... and it was still there.

Of a sudden, one of the dailies' society reporters, followed by the ubiquitous camera man, glided up to the box and asked the hostess if she minded if they took a picture. The gracious hostess said she didn't mind but would like to consult her guests. They all agreed except old platinum spoon, who made the biggest fuss since the Chicago fire. She stifted and isked, isked all over the place and mumbled in audible tones about newspapers and nuisances and lack of privacy, et al.

Undaunted, the photographer took his picture and as he was doing so, the reporter jotted the various names down on her pad. When all was over, the gal reporter looked at the offending woman, smiled sweetly and asked, "Would you mind giving me YOUR name?" Hot-cha!

Last Sunday, while papering our walls (it was such a nice day for it), we turned the radio on and left it on the same station all day. Among other things, we heard for the first time, "Hopalong Cassidy." We can't tell you what he said or did, but we can tell you VERBATIM, what the announcer said at one point. We quote: "When Hoppy wants to get the drop on a man, he needs that extra amount of energy. That's why he always asks for (whatever the name is) cereal when he goes to the chuck wagon."

How old ARE these kids who listen to that stuff? Wouldn't they have to be UNDER three in order to believe that unmitigated nonsense? Please answer!

The next program, a thing called "The Shadow"... starts out with the blurb that... "The Shadow aids the police in keeping law and order... etc., etc., etc." It seems that the Shadow learned a secret in the Far East that enables him to become invisible... which obviously gives him the drop on any criminals he might come in contact with (aside: Wonder if the FBI knows about this guy? They could use someone like that.)

Anyway, at the end of twenty-five minutes, he has routed the criminal out of his hiding place... and as the poor goop is running for cover we hear a volley of shots... a dying man's piercing scream... then a flop... then dead silence. In tones as deep as the Mediterranean, the Shadow sez: "Ferris has answered for his crimes to a higher court... ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha, ha."

That little painter is back in our lives again and if nothing else, he certainly affords us some frantic diversion. This time he was working on our small porch. Having told us it would be completed by Saturday, we had visions of hauling our furniture around, putting our plants about and generally "retting" up the joint on Sunday. HOWEVER, when we donned our overalls on Sunday and headed for the porch, this is what we found. In the center of the floor was a large paint cloth and on it, in gaudy arrangement were: several pots of paint, pots of paint remover, hundreds of brushes, an old lace curtain, a pair of sturdy shoes, a paint hat, a fedora, one necktie... and what looked like an old pair of shorts! We felt momentarily thankful that the man in our life isn't the jealous type!!!

a period of years... to KEEP THE POINTE'S WAR MEMORIAL OPEN!

It seemed to us this was a shameful and degrading experience to which the founders of the memorial were of necessity subjected. The idea behind the memorial should, in itself, be sufficient to make every resident of the Pointe anxious to be a contributor to its development, each to the extent of his own ability.

Certainly, this wealthy group who have given nothing should be expected to donate. The pitiful aspect is that they must be dunned to give. But the more important fact is that even if all of these give, they will be but a small addition to the inconceivably few who now make up the list of donors.

This paper suggested a year ago when the Memorial Center first was opened, that every single resident of the Pointe should consider it a privilege to make an annual token payment towards its upkeep and development. If everyone gave but a dollar a year, it would provide the funds needed for maintenance. Any additional amounts received could be added to endowment or spent on furnishings or to broaden the scope of activities. Finer music, better art exhibits, better lectures, more beautiful gardens, could ever be the aim of the Center, given the proper support by all of the people.

Those who have given nothing to the memorial will soon receive a mail solicitation, asking that they participate in this tribute to those to whom we owe so much. It is to be hoped they attend the Memorial Day exercises next Tuesday. As they participate in the ceremony of honoring the dead, walk through the lovely grounds and the stately rooms of this beautiful mansion, perhaps it will help them visualize what the combined and continued support of all the residents of the Pointe could accomplish towards the ultimate achievement of a matchless living memorial to our honored dead.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

To paraphrase Edna St. Vincent Millay,
"Lord, I do fear
Ibous's made the world too beautiful this year;
My soul is all but out of me, let fall
No single blossom; prithee, let no bird call."

Intent on putting this beautiful world on canvas, budding young artists, and they are myriad, are taking palette and brush out of doors these days. Among the most enthusiastic are students of Mrs. John Pear, who has taught both watercolor and oils in the Grosse Pointe Adult Education Program and has done much to promote the interest of this community in art.

We discussed books on this subject recently with Mrs. Pear and came away much wiser. Among the books she recommended are several by a well known painter, teacher and writer on art, Frederic Taubes. He has a variety of titles from which to choose, among them "The Amateur Painter's Handbook," "The Technique of Oil Painting," "Studio Secrets" and "Oil Painting for the Beginner."

As good back ground material, Mrs. Pear suggests Art in America by Suzanne La Follett. The author here correlates art with the sociological development of our country.

Three books by Eliot O'Hara are widely used by watercolor enthusiasts: "Making the Brush Behave," "Making Watercolor Behave" and "Watercolor Fares North." There are two schools of thought about O'Hara however, and Mrs. Pear is not one of his disciples, maintaining that the color theory which he has worked out for himself is still a matter of controversy.

For the amateur painter, a number of other books on the library shelves may prove helpful.

"Anyone Can Paint" by Arthur Zaidenberg gives "practical instruction in the various media of art: oil painting, watercolor, mural painting, tempera, woodcut, etching, pencil, pen and ink, pastel, etc.

Lawrence V. Burton's "Week-End Painter" is for the dabbler who does not take his art too seriously.

"Still Life Oil Painting" by Marion Zimmer is "expected to appeal equally to the average person interested in learning how to paint and to the teacher who is required to handle large classes of students learning to paint in oils."

"I Wish I Could Paint," by Bradshaw, consists of demonstration lessons in watercolor. "Painting For Enjoyment," by

You CAN Avoid Serious Illness

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

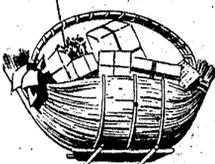

Serious illness is usually preceded by warning signs: pain, noticeable physical changes, a general run down feeling, they all point towards trouble.

When these signs are heeded and the doctor's advice is sought that serious illness which threatens can be checked. Better still, a yearly physical examination would disclose any threat to your health before symptoms or pain occurred.

A doctor's entire career is spent in helping people gain and keep good health. Let him help you, too. Select a conscientious pharmacist to accurately compound the doctor's prescription.

Letters To The Editor

Following is a copy of an Open Letter to the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department which has been forwarded to the NEWS for publication.

May 16, 1950
Chief Walter R. Hoyt
Village of Grosse Pointe Farms,
90 Kerby Road,
Grosse Pointe Farms 30, Mich.
Dear Mr. Hoyt:

Enclosed please find my check in the amount of $2.00. I haven't the faintest idea what the $2.00 is for—I did not receive a ticket on the date mentioned. The only ticket I have ever received was paid for three days later and you have that record and I have cancelled check for $1.00.

I have no knowledge of this recent ticket and it wouldn't be worth the argument, or any deliberate lying on my part to get out of paying $1.00. However, there are no two sides to it as far as the Farms Police Department are concerned. They simply mail a Traffic Court Notice and I was told today to mail $2.00 to settle something I know nothing about.

However for $2.00 I have the right to express my own opinion—the Farms Police Department spend more time on Kercheval than in any other part of their territory. We see trucks and cars speeding up and down our street—just the other day a speeding truck hit a dog and killed him; the truck didn't stop. It could have been one of our children. There is never a time of driving on Charlevoix that we don't see violators—but never any policemen because they spend their time on Kercheval.

There are a large group of women around us who feel just as we do about this matter and instead of shopping "On the hill" in Grosse Pointe Farms, we will concentrate on spending our money in Detroit.

We have lived in Grosse Pointe

Farms for 13 years but do not expect to be residents here very much longer as we are in the market for a new home right now. Perhaps by moving to a new location we will receive the courtesy we once received in the Farms when it was "new."

Certainly the business men in the new "On the hill" section do not approve of the constant patrol of Farms Police. It might have something to do with business places in that section having trouble keeping their doors open.

We sincerely hope that our $2.00 donation will help the Farms budget and it will be nice to know that it will not make it necessary for you to "serve a warrant for our arrest."

Sincerely,
Mildred E. Anderson
Mrs. Glenn Anderson,
329 Merrivether rd.

Editor's Note: Chief Walter Hoyt of the Farms Police stated that complaints against the meters have been few and far between. He said the majority of violators who call at the police station to pay their fines, readily admit their fault and commend the meter system. He has also received a number of letters, including some from merchants in the district, saying that without the meters traffic would be a hopeless jumble.

Pointer Weds Florence Pedlar

On a wedding trip through the Pocono Mountains are the new Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Joseph Tenbusch. They were married in a double-ring ceremony at 10 a. m. on Saturday in Epiphany Church. The bride is the former Florence Marie Pedlar, daughter of Mrs. Fred Pedlar of Morley avenue and the late Mr. Pedlar, while Hugh's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Tenbusch of McKinley road.

Florence wore white satin and carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and lilies-of-the-valley. The book was the gift of her sister, Sister Loreta Mary, IHM. The bride was attended by Gladys Lennox, maid of honor, and Marguerite Gibbons, bridesmaid. They were dressed identically in gowns of lavender taffeta. Thomas Richard Noonan was best man for Hugh, and Robert Van-Tien, Wallace Hedengren and Rene Azzano seated guests. After their return from the wedding trip, the couple will live on Balfour road.

I like a friend the better for having faults that one can talk about.—William Hazlitt.

Dinner and Sale Planned By Faith Lutheran Guild

The Faith Lutheran Ladies Guild and Missionary Society will sponsor a Cafeteria Style dinner at the Church Thursday, May 25, beginning at 5 p.m. Movies also will be shown. On Friday, May 26, the Society will hold a rummage sale at East Jefferson and Lakewood. Selling will begin at 9 a.m.

Women Voters' League Meeting

The Council Meeting of the League of Women Voters of Michigan, will be held at the Hotel Norton, Grand Rapids, Michigan, Thursday and Friday, May 25 and 26. Mrs. John Pear and Mrs. George Waldbott will be the Pointe delegates to the session and leave for Grand Rapids today, Thursday, May 25. They will attend all meetings and report on same at the next general membership meeting to be held at the War Memorial Center on June 2, at 1:30 p.m.

During the two day session a budget for the coming year will be adopted and the League's two-year agenda will be discussed. Reports on Current Agenda item No. 1, amendment to the State Constitution to provide for periodic reapportionment of the State Legislature, will be made by Mrs. Joseph Howell of Detroit. Item No. 2, development of a coordinated State Tax system with increasing regard for the principle of ability-to-pay, will be reported upon by Mrs. James Dunne of Walled Lake. Item No. 3, study of State and local governmental services for dependent, neglected, delinquent, and afflicted children, will be discussed by Miss Rosemary Scott of Grand Rapids.

A Voters' Service Discussion Group, led by Mrs. Richard Ware, will lay plans for the interviewing of political candidates for the coming fall election. Mrs. John Pear, Pointe delegate, will report to the Council on the local achievements of the league; the work being done on local needs and facilities of the recreation program for the Grosse Pointe area.

Mrs. Rensis Likert of Ann Arbor, State League president, will preside at the General Session.

Mrs. James Emerson Meeks, Jr.

The former SUE ANN CARSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carson of Somerset road, was married on May 6 in Metropolitan Methodist Church.

Sue Ann Carson Becomes Bride Of James Emerson Meeks, Jr.

Sue Ann Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Carson, 1302 Somerset Road, Grosse Pointe Park, became the bride of James Emerson Meeks, Jr., at 4 o'clock on Saturday, May 6.

The couple exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony solemnized by Dr. C. B. Allen, of the Detroit Metropolitan Methodist Church, in the presence of members of the immediate families.

For the ceremony the bride wore a gown of ice blue satin and nylon tulle designed with a fitted bodice which featured cap sleeves and a full waltz-length skirt. Her mitts were in satin.

A small ice blue bonnet held her shoulder length illusion veil and she carried a colonial bouquet of white roses and stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Barbara Taylor, of Buffalo, New York, her only attendant, performed the duties of maid of honor, and chose a gown of filmy yellow dotted swiss over yellow taffeta. A wide sash repeated the sunny tone of taffeta with a matching bonnet. Her mitts were nylon net. The colonial bouquet consisted of yellow tea roses.

Joseph Bashore was best man and Donald Metzler ushered.

For her daughter's wedding, and later reception and dinner Mrs. Carson wore a toast crepe and lace gown and a corsage of orchids.

The bridegroom's mother donned a navy blue sheer crepe ensemble accented with shell pink accessories and an orchid corsage.

Mr. and Mrs. Meeks will live in Lansing, Michigan, following a Northern Michigan honeymoon.

DUS Auto Driving School Graduates First Student

At Detroit University School last week the first student to complete the course was graduated from the school's Driver Education Program.

John Watling received his certificate from Headmaster John Chandler, Jr., in the presence of Chief Walter Goulette of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Department; H. F. MacKay of Grosse Pointe Motors, Inc.; G. M. Garrett, Assistant to the Headmaster; and Samuel C. Beeler, Director of Mechanical Arts at D.U.S.

The Driver Education Program is sponsored by the State Department of Public Instruction, assisted by the Automobile Club of America and the Automobile Dealer Association of Detroit and Michigan. Much credit is due the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Department, for their approval, cooperation, and encouragement. The dual-controlled car was provided by Grosse Pointe Motors, Inc., while permission was given by the Woods Theatre to use its large parking lot for elementary practice.

Practical knowledge and skill necessary to operate an automobile safely are given as the student proceeds from basic theory to actual practice. Theory of driving is taught with the American Automobile Association's textbook, "Sportsmanlike Driving." Many hours of actual experience behind the wheel are provided in the dual-controlled car, with the instructor present at all times. Tests similar to those taken by professional drivers are given each student, and a comprehensive examination completes the course. These tests require special instruments which have been secured by the school or constructed by students in the Mechanical Arts department.

The Driver Education Program supplements the examining and licensing of the driver by the State department. At Detroit University School the course is taught as part of the required ninth grade Civics course.

A scholarship provided by the Automobile Club of America and the Automobile Dealer Association of Detroit and Michigan enabled Samuel C. Beeler to take the course for driving instructors at the University of Michigan. Mr. Beeler is a certified driving instructor under state requirements.

Representatives of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, now under construction at Chalfonte and Lothrop, Grosse Pointe Farms, Monday won permission from the city council to substitute a hedge for a proposed masonry wall at the edge of the church parking lot.

Purpose of the hedge is to prevent automobile lights from shining into the homes of residents of Mt. Vernon, whose property adjoins the lot. The five-foot masonry wall, church officials said, would have presented an attractive nuisance to children in the neighborhood.

The council voted to table until the next meeting another church proposal, which called for the erection of an illuminated bulletin board on Chalfonte. Residents of the street had objected to the size and location of the sign.

Douglas Coulter Getting Diploma From Hargrave
Graduating from Hargrave Military Academy this year is Douglas Alexander Coulter, son of Dr. and Mrs. Lawson Coulter of 1278 Audubon, Grosse Pointe Park.

Young Coulter has distinguished himself in the field of journalism, being both Sports Editor and Advertising Manager of the school paper as well as sports contributor to neighboring metropolitan newspapers. He has been accepted into Quill and Scroll, International Honorary Society for High School Journalists.

Dr. William E. Harrison To Be Guest Preacher
Dr. William E. Harrison, Superintendent of the Detroit District of the Methodist Church, will be the guest preacher in the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church on Sunday morning, May 28, at 10:45 a.m. in the New Kerby School.

Dr. Harrison is a native of Baltimore, Maryland, a graduate of Johns Hopkins University and of the Divinity School of Northwestern University.

This will be the beginning of the fifth year of existence for the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church. The first services were held in the Old Kerby School on September 9, 1945 under the present pastor, the Rev. Hugh C. White. Since that time the church has had to move to more spacious quarters in the New Kerby School and will move to its new edifice on Moross road in the near future.

Cadet Hagenmeyer Wins
Culver Jumping Letter
The Grosse Pointe High School Cadet Willard H. Hagenmeyer, Jr. of Grosse Pointe Park, has been awarded a varsity letter at Culver Military Academy for his work on this year's cadet jumping team.

A sophomore at Culver, Hagenmeyer is the son of Willard H. Hagenmeyer, 841 Lakepointe.

Sixty some guests invited for "sit down" luncheon by the soigne Mrs. Ralph Harman Booth in her Washington road home will launch June on that lovely month's very first day this year . . .

The party will compliment Mrs. Booth's daughter, Mrs. William Dickerman Vogel of Milwaukee, Mrs. Frazier McIver of the same city (they arrive early May 31 for a two day visit) and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Lord Booth, who soon comes to the Pointe to occupy her Beacon Hill home . . .

We know of no nicer way to bow in June . . . than to report the luncheon . . . a pastel one . . . to held in the dancing room and bar of the Booth home . . . and the kind that has placed Mrs. Booth among the country's top hostesses . . .

The minute Mrs. Vogel and Mrs. McIver reach Willow Run . . . they'll be motored to Detroit Art Institute . . . both are members of the board of the Milwaukee Institute . . . and it seems that Mrs. Vogel should follow in the artistic steps of her mother . . . and her father, the late Ralph Harman Booth, whose gifts to our museum have been made with great heart . . .

Mrs. Booth to Entertain

Mr. and Mrs. John Lord Booth will be hosts at a dinner party for the out of town guests the evening they arrive . . .

And the senior Mrs. Booth is planning a soiree for the evening of June 1 in their honor . . .

It does look as if the beautiful home on Washington road will once again be the scene of a Summer of delightful parties . . .

This past Sunday . . . Mrs. Booth gave a dinner for 12 for her niece, Mrs. Charles Fossum of Chevy Chase, Md. and Mr. Fossum . . . who passed through the Pointe as they returned from North Dakota to their Eastern home . . .

Mr. Fossum is soon to report for diplomatic service in Belgium . . . and the young couple, who've been married 10 months . . . will make their home in Brussels . . .

Double Ring Ceremony Held in St. Paul's Church Followed By Reception At Home of Bride's Parents, the Alonzo O'Connors

In a double ring ceremony at 11 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Paul's-on-the-Lake, Jane Marie O'Connor became the bride of Joseph Henry Reinman, son of Mrs. Clarence J. Reinman and the late Mr. Reinman of Fremont, O.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo O'Connor of Ridgemont road.

Jane was married in a gown of white chantilly lace, with its rounded neckline slashed in front, a fitted bodice on long lines, full skirt and cathedral train.

A scalloped bonnet of the lace fastened the illusion fingertip veil. Jane carried a prayer book covered with white orchids.

The bride's cousin, Mary Lou Gouin, was her maid of honor. She wore a dress of shell pink taffeta, designed with a portrait neckline and short sleeves. With it she wore a matching bonnet and carried a powder blue fan adorned with roses.

Bridesmaids were Shirley Williams, Ruth Schroeder of Ohio and Denise Sweeney of Canada. Their gowns were of powder blue, fashioned like the honor maid's, and their fans were shell pink. Joseph's best man was George Schroeder of Ottawa, O. Guests were seated by the bride's brother, Daniel O'Connor, and Edgar Trombly and James Williams.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride. Mrs. O'Connor greeted guests in a floor-length gown of aqua crepe, with a lace bodice. Her straw hat and accessories were pink and she wore an orchid corsage.

For her son's wedding, Mrs. Reinman chose a long dress of dusty rose. Her hat and accessories were white and she also wore orchids.

Yacht Club Members Dance at Annual Ball

Commodore and Mrs. C. E. Bleicher Honored at GPYC Ball Last Saturday; Directors' Cocktail Party Precedes Dinner and Dancing in Main Lounge

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Commodore and Mrs. C. E. Bleicher were in the spotlight Saturday evening when members and their guests gathered to honor them at the annual Commodore's Ball.

The Bleichers were hosts at cocktails in the main dining room preceding the gala. Their guest list included directors, flag officers, past commodores and their wives as well as many of their friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Fraser and Mrs. Mrs. C. S. Motter of Barrington, Ill., sons-in-law and daughters of Com. and Mrs. Bleicher, assisted their parents in playing hosts to the large group that evening.

Com. and Mrs. Bleicher led the grand march up the staircase into the main lounge to officially open the Ball, following which they took their places at the main table with the other officers and their wives.

Directly behind the table was the fully rigged mast, flying the Club burgee and officers' flags. In the presentation ceremony, retiring Com. John R. Sutton, Jr. lowered the commodore's flag and turned it over to his successor, Bleicher, in turn, presented the other officers with their flags.

Chairman of the Ball was George C. Mitchell. He and Mrs. Mitchell were in Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Ewart's party with Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Nixon, Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Sorensen of Lake Forest, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. George Ghazal, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Harris and Mr. and Mrs. James Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. R. P. McMahon bid their guests to cocktails in their Westchester road home before the Ball. In their party were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Embler, Mr. and Mrs. George Fitzgerald, Mr. and Mrs. William Dillenbeck and Mr. and Mrs. James Hennecke.

At Mr. and Mrs. William G. Boales' table were their house-guests, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hargett of Cleveland Heights,

Mr. and Mrs. Simpson C. Leonard and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Butler. In the sixsome headed by Mr. and Mrs. Alphonse DePaape were Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Putnam and Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Secord.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Grundy, the George Suliburks and Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Berry met at Dr. and Mrs. Henry F. Crossen's home for pre-party cocktails. Dr. and Mrs. Fred O. Lepley attended with Dr. and Mrs. E. C. Baumgarten and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Snure arrived with Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Payne.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Bolles at the dinner dance included Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hughes, the William C. Hunters and Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Stack.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Barkley made reservations for their daughter, Joanne, who was escorted by Rudolph Schneider. Jeanne Marie Jacques asked Richard Schultz, Joanne Gibson, Cal Vogel and John Dorsy to make up her party. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Jacques were at Com. and Mrs. Bleicher's table.

Alumnae of TAE Hold Spring Dinner Dance

Alumnae of TAE held their annual spring dinner dance at the Detroit Boat Club on Saturday evening, and many Pointers were on deck for the occasion.

Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Philip S. Wood, the Bethel B. Kelleys, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Gauss, Jr., the J. Crawford Frosts, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Burl W. Schmidt, Jr., the Joseph E. Bayncs and Mr. and Mrs. Noble D. Travis.

Party at Center Set for Friday

Formula for a gay evening at the War Memorial Center this Friday, May 26: Take a crowd of young adults, (college age through twenties), add generous portions of group singing, games, ping pong, cards and dancing, mix well and the evening is guaranteed to be a success.

Those who have cooked up plans for this date-not-necessary affair include Jackie Hirt, Wally Ehrlich, Ann Shenefield, Ruth Neff and Carol Jacobson. Refreshments are in Jean Leavitt's department. They are included in the 50 cents per person which covers the entire evening.

Ruth Bockstanz Speaks Vows

Ruth Evelyn Bockstanz became Mrs. Bernard Edward Bloome in ceremonies Saturday evening at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney J. Bockstanz of Grayton road and the bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Emil Bloome of Muncey road.

The pretty Ruth was married in a gown of ivory satin trimmed with seed pearls. Her fingertip veil fell from a matching crown and she carried a bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley.

Lorna Mucham was maid of honor and bridesmaids included Ila Ross, Mrs. John Bockstanz, Lois Colter and Mrs. Bruce Bockstanz. The attendants wore dresses of waffle pique and open crowned hats, in canary yellow. The honor maid carried white roses and the bridesmaids' flowers were yellow roses.

Jean Bloome, sister of the bridegroom, and Sharon Bockstanz, niece of the bride, were flower girls in aqua pique.

A reception was held at the Detroit Yacht Club. Albert Bloome was his brother's best man and guests were seated by the bride's brothers, John and Bruce Bockstanz, and James Veltheusen and William Damp.

For her trip to the Smoky Mountains, Ruth donned a yellow suit and hat with a navy coat and accessories.

Mrs. Thomas Joseph Alison

The former MARGARET MARY ROUSSEAU, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Rousseau of Balfour road, was married on May 20 to the son of Mrs. Dennis John Alison of Detroit and Dryden, Mich., and the late Mr. Alison.

Sara Tiedeman To Wed June 17

Back in town after a six-weeks absence, bride-elect Sara Tiedeman, daughter of the Carsten Tiedemans of Kenwood road, is brimming over with plans for her marriage on June 17 to John Dunn Davies.

While she was away, Sara completed successful apartment-hunts in two cities—New Haven, Conn., where John is studying for his Ph.D. at Yale, and where they'll be living this summer, and St. Paul, Minn., where they'll go in the fall when the bridegroom-to-be begins his teaching duties in history at the University of Minnesota.

The busy Sara got in some trousseau-shopping in New York as well, while she was visiting her sister, Mrs. Donald Hoagland, who will be matron of honor at the wedding.

Other bridal attendants at the ceremony, to be held in Christ Church at noon, will be Nelle Tiedeman, maid of honor; and bridesmaids Marion Jackson of Berkeley, Calif.; Carolyn Taylor, Ellen Ward of Beverly Farms, Mass.; Mrs. John R. Bowers, Janice Tompkins of New York and Eleanor Buell.

John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace A. Davies of Fairway drive, has asked his brother, Thomas P., to be his best man.

On the usher list are Jesse Roohan of New Haven, Donald Hoagland, George Parker of Texas, James Grace, Dudley Bahlman of Cincinnati, O., and Berrien Eaton, Jr.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held at the Little Club.

Parties coming up to honor Sara include a kitchen shower planned by Carolyn Taylor, a yacht party by Harold Ducharme aboard "Natorya" and the rehearsal dinner, to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Davies.

Kathleen Wills Bride Of Lt. Jack Robinson

Kathleen Wills will become the bride of Lt. Jack K. Robinson, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Wills of Cloverly road, announce.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Robinson of Holly, Mich.

Margaret Rousseau Weds Thomas Alison

Ceremony Performed in St. Clare de Montefalco Church Followed By Reception in Grosse Pointe Yacht Club

At high noon on Saturday in St. Clare de Montefalco Church, Margaret Mary Rousseau became the bride of Thomas Joseph Alison, with the Rev. Fr. James D. Clark officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Rousseau of Balfour road and Thomas is the son of Mrs. Dennis John Alison of Detroit and Dryden, Mich., and the late Mr. Alison.

Margaret's gown was of chantilly lace over white organdy, designed with fitted bodice and long sleeves, the deep yoke filled with French silk illusion. At very full skirt extended into a round court train.

A ruched illusion bridal cloche fastened the bride's three-quarter length veil. Her bouquet was of butterfly orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Maid of honor was Marianne Moesta and bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Rousseau, Mrs. Jacques Rousseau and Annette Stickleber of Kansas City, Mo.

The attendants were dressed alike in gowns of white organdy on classic lines, over lime green taffeta. The overskirts were embroidered with ivy leaves, and they wore garlands of ivy in their hair.

The maid of honor carried majestic daisies and the maids, yellow carnations.

Little Renee Rousseau, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a long dress of pink organdy and matching bonnet. Her bouquet was of tiny pink rosebuds.

William Lee acted as best man for Thomas. Ushers included the bridegroom's brother, David Alison, and the bride's brothers, Jacques and Robert Rousseau.

The wedding reception was held at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Mrs. Rousseau received in a long gown of midnight blue chiffon, with which she wore a chapeau of pink roses. She pinned a pink orchid to her purse.

Mrs. Alison was gowned in navy lace. She wore a matching hat trimmed with green flowers. Her corsage was of green orchids. For her wedding trip to Montreal and Quebec, Margaret chose a cider toned suit, with which she wore a natural straw hat banded with yellow and white flowers.

When they return, the pair will live in Neff road.

Parties Honor Peggy Toncray

Parties for Peggy Lou Toncray are crowding the calendar as her June 27 wedding to Joe Wyatt Kizzia approaches. The ceremony will take place at 8 p.m. in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, with a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Peggy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Millard Toncray of Buckingham road.

Yesterday, the bride-elect was feted at a miscellaneous shower at the Detroit Yacht Club, given by Mrs. C. D. Macpherson, Mrs. C. W. Treadwell, Mrs. Frank L. Honhart and Mrs. James Waterston.

Mrs. James A. Morgan will be hostess at a Hawthorne House luncheon and pantry shower June 1, and the following day Mrs. F. E. Evans and Mrs. John Clark are planning a miscellaneous shower at the Evans home.

Popular Peggy will be honored with a personal shower June 6 by Mrs. Loren Shaffer and Mrs. Alfred Pomm, at the latter's home. June 10 will bring something different in the way of parties—a time-saver shower, hosted by Mrs. George A. Anderson and her daughter, Nancy, at their home.

PRICE OF ADMISSION

Mrs. James Evans of 89 Muir road reported to the Farms police that on the night of May 9 while she was next door looking at a television program with a neighbor, someone had taken her wallet from her home.

Students Picked For Boy's State

Seven Grosse Pointe High School students have been selected to represent the school at a nine-day conference at the Boys' State in Lansing, beginning June 17, school officials announced.

Chosen by their deans, counselors and homeroom teachers, the boys are Tom Lamb, Pat Brogan, Ben Bray, Dick MacKenzie, Ernest Allen, Bill Winkler and Bob Law. Alternates are Henry Hubbard and Taylor Obold. Ernest Allen is an alternate for Jack Westphal, who is unable to attend.

Principal W. R. Cleminson congratulated those selected, and praised them for the qualities of leadership which had been the basis of their selection.

Cub Scouts of Pack 74 End Year with Colorful Event

Indian headdresses and a display of handicraft highlighted the last meeting of the year for Pack 74 at Richard School Tuesday evening. Each Cub Scout wore a selfmade headdress decorated with colorful feathers in accordance to the Cub advancement he has made.

Tables against the walls of the gymnasium held examples of handicraft from each of the seven dens, for the parents and guests to see. Indian Tom-Toms; prized collections of stones and shells; bird houses and feeding trays; boards showing special knots; bookends carved from wood; home-made musical instruments, and even earrings, which had been welcome Mother's Day presents, all gave proof of the fun and skills which the boys had gained during their cubbing year.

Advancement awards were given to the following boys: In Den 1, Robert Vieweg, Donald Quinney, Robert Hoder, Chris Groeschner, August Kammer, Steven Suor, Charles Dobbins, David Burgess, Robert Gillette, Richard Granse. In Den 4 Robert Rein, Richard Adams, Madison Morrison. In Den 5 Peter von Mertens, George Thorne, Robert Niederost, Andrew Critchfield, Patrick Meathe, Remington Purdy. In Den 6 Jack Watson, Philip Dulmage, Morrill Dunn, Thomas Guy, Russell Knight, Jim Netter, Ross Wilcox. In Den 7, Thomas Little.

Pack 74, which is sponsored by the Parent Teachers Association of Richard School, is directed by Mr. Lou Hunt as Cubmaster, Mr. E. K. von Mertens as assistant Cubmaster, and the Cub Scout Committee. This committee composed of Mr. Jerry Cavanaugh, chairman; Mr. David Burgess, secretary; Dr. William C. Quinlan, treasurer; and Mr. Roger Ferricks, representative from the sponsoring institution, together with a number of cub scout fathers as committee members, decides the policies of the Pack and makes arrangements for the Pack meetings held each month at Richard School. At these meetings awards are given to the boys for the progress they have made in Cub Scout activities and entertainment is provided for the boys and their visiting parents. Sometimes this is done by a group of Cubs or sometimes by an outside agent as when representatives from General Motors Corporation staged their show of Scientific Progress in February of this year.

The Pack is divided into seven dens with an average membership of ten boys. Each group is under the guidance of a Den Mother at whose home the boys meet once a week. The mother in turn is helped by a Den Chief who is a Boy Scout interested in helping younger boys. The Den Mothers who have served during the past year were Mrs. Samuel Thorne, chairman; Mrs. John A. Herrmann, Mrs. H. B. Duncan, Mrs. William H. Granse, Mrs.

Mead Baker, Mrs. Earl Dulmage, and Mrs. E. K. von Mertens. On May 27 a Father and Son picnic is planned at the Neighborhood Club under the chairmanship of Mr. William Morrison. This will wind up the Cub Scout Program of Richard School for the summer and all Cubs and their fathers are urged to attend. The picnic at 12 will be followed by an afternoon of games and contests.

Cyclist Unhurt When Hit by Car

Grosse Pointe Woods police absolved George L. Ravel, 1976 Country Club, of blame in an accident which involved Ravel's car and a bicycle ridden by Charles Nixon, 14, of 1651 Anita, which occurred at Lancaster and Mack on May 19.

Ravel, according to police records, was traveling slowly when leaving a gas station at that address. He was unable to avoid the cyclist, who was not injured, although the bicycle was damaged.

Pointe Girls Take Part In Hillsdale Aquacade

Two students from the Grosse Pointe area participated in the presentation of the annual spring aquatic pageant sponsored by the Marlindales, girls' swimming club at Hillsdale College.

Miss Eleanor Forster, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul C. Forster, 1301 Hampton road, Grosse Pointe Woods, presented a modern dance routine with the chorus in the finale and Miss Barbara Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin C. Mann, 1192 Vernier road, was in charge of costuming for the event.

RETIRING ON PENSION

Frank May of 622 Lincoln road will be awarded certificates of service at the second annual banquet of the Wayne County Division, Michigan County Road Employees' Association, tonight, May 25, at the Warren Valley Golf Course Clubhouse. Both have retired on pension.

Square Dancing Club Holds Final Parties

Fun and laughter reigned at the parties of the junior and senior groups of the Pointe Belles and Beaux, teenage square dancers. The former was held at Maire school on May 12 and the latter at Richard school on May 19.

Due to the widespread popularity of this type of dancing among teenagers of Grosse Pointe, both beginning and advanced square dancing, (Western style), will be taught next fall. A large number have already signed up. Anyone interested may call Mrs. Blashill, TU. 1-5974.

Condensed Report of Park Activities for Last Year Submitted by Manager Lane

Contemplated Program For Fiscal Year 1950-51 Also Included in Communication Turned Over To Council At Last Meeting

Manager Everitt B. Lane of Grosse Pointe Park presented a condensed report of the activities of the Park to the board of the fiscal year on March 31, at the meeting of the Board of Commissioners on May 8.

Reference is made to the successful operation of the Grosse Pointe combined police radio service which had just completed a year of operation. The recently established County Health Service for Grosse Pointe was also referred to, and the fact that a new sanitary division has recently been set up which will be responsible for rat extermination, street and alley inspections and dog catching. This is expected to lift this duty from the police and leave them better placed to attend to their strictly police work.

Contemplated Program

The contemplated program for 1950-51 is briefly referred to. The report follows:

The financial year closed March 31, 1950, with both revenue and expenditure budget balances within the budget estimates of the 1949 budget. Tax collections totalled 97.07%, as compared with 97.02% for the previous year.

The fiscal year closed with exceptional accomplishment records of all the operating departments. As a comparison, in 1948, 129 building permits were issued at a total construction cost of $2,007,975, and in 1949, 142 permits were issued at a total construction cost of $2,224,000. Predictions are that Grosse Pointe Park will experience the largest building boom in history during 1950 and 1951. During the month of April, building permits were issued with a total construction cost of $400,000.

Build Garage Addition

The large addition to the Municipal Garage in the Civic Center area was completed, which has added much to the efficient operation of the Public Works Division. The Water and Plumbing Department, the Electrical and Street Lighting Department have been moved to the Municipal Garage as a permanent location. These departments were formerly located in the old frame building adjacent to the Fire Department, which has been torn down.

A number of important matters have occurred since the installation of the present Police Radio System in the Spring of 1949. The legislative and administrative officials are now assured that the present plan of operation has been proven and is a most desirable plan for the Grosse Pointe police departments.

In July, 1945, it was reported that we were not able to install the planned 2-frequency system because the City of Windsor had acquired through the F. C. C. the mobile channel assigned to us by the Michigan Allocation Committee. We have since been operating on a 1-frequency, with modifications to eliminate some of the outside interference. Just recently the Michigan Allocation Committee assigned a new mobile channel, which is the first adjacent channel assigned by the Committee. We are advised that it would appear most desirable to place the system on the 2-frequency plan. This plan conforms to the original plan, which was discarded because of the City of Windsor being placed on our mobile channel. Recent improvements are as follows:

Monitors

(1) The Macomb County receiver at Grosse Pointe Shores, which permits monitoring of Macomb County calls — Macomb County, in turn, monitors our system.

(2) The Detroit receiver, at Grosse Pointe Park, which permits monitoring of Detroit's east side calls. The Park has a direct telephone line from its desk to police headquarters.

(3) Two transmitters are now in operation at this location. These will be provided with automatic change-over within a reasonably short time, which will permit, in case of breakdown of the transmitter or power failure, automatic transfer to the other transmitter.

(4) Miscellaneous equipment is being continuously added and maintained as new radio developments appear on the market.

Report On Inspections

The Wayne County Department of Health filed their first report on restaurant, store and market inspections and food handlers' cards. Regular scheduled inspections are now being made by sanitary inspectors and prompt follow-up of all cases in violation. Our old health and ordinance are being studied for revision and correction, in accordance with the County and State health laws. The Park has recently established a new sanitary division in connection with the Department of Public Works. This division will be responsible for rat elimination, inspection and control of proper receptacles for waste disposal, street and alley inspections and dog catching. A dog catcher, with the proper vehicle and equipment, is assigned to daily street patrol and answers all daily police calls for dogs running at large in the Park.

Clean-Up Campaign

Clean-Up Campaign closed May 6, 1950. Volunteer groups of high school students and Boy Scouts, sponsored by the Garden Club, assisted the Department of Public Works in preparing rubbish and refuse for collection. Eight hundred cubic yards of rubbish and refuse were removed from the lots and homes. The Fire Department also assisted in the campaign. Favorable comment has been received by citizens as a result of this effort.

Contemplated Program for 1950 and 1951

(1) Continued development of the Civic Center area and acquisition of property for off-street parking.

(2) Replacement of relief sewer on Essex Blvd., from Balfour to Three Mile Drive, to supplement the old Balfour sewer running from Essex to Jefferson.

(3) Construction of two miles of concrete curbing.

(4) Recondition four miles of street—application of seal coating or resurfacing.

(5) Installation of new street lighting on Mack and Jefferson Avenues.

(6) Improvement of chlorination system in the Park pool and construction of a temporary breakwater wall for the protection of the small boat wells at the Park.

(7) Improvement of the Village-owned property south of Essex Blvd. to the lake front.

Wisteria Is Tops for Furnishing Luxuriant Blooms

By VINCENT R. DE PETRIS

It would be difficult to select a plant which could be more spectacular and intrinsically beautiful than the Wisteria when in bloom. The graceful flower clusters are frequently over 24 inches long and in some well established plants—these are produced in such abundance that the effect is always one that inspires admiration at the wonders of nature's handicraft.

Wisterias are twining plants which when matured form very large specimens. They were so named in honor of Caspar Wistar, a professor of anatomy in the University of Pennsylvania. The original spelling as may be surmised was "Wistaria." For some reason the name became "Wisteria" and since the latter spelling was almost universal it has been officially adopted.

Botanically Wisterias belong to that large group of plants known as the "legume" family. Our common vegetables, beans and peas belong to this extensive family of plants.

Various Species

Wisterias are native to North America and Eastern Asia. The American species include Wisteria venusta and Wisteria frutescens, which although quite hardy, do not compare with the Oriental species in beauty or spectacular display of blooms.

The most beautiful Wisterias come exclusively from the Orient.

One of these Wisteria sinensis comes from China. Another Wisteria floribunda (formerly called Wisteria multijuga) comes from Japan. A third is a hybrid of the Chinese and Japanese species and is known as Wisteria formosa. Incidentally the specific name "formosa" has nothing to do with the island of Formosa but is a Latin word meaning "handsome."

Brought Here in 1862

We are indebted to Dr. George R. Hall for bringing the beautiful Japanese Wisteria to America in 1862. The hybrid Wisteria formosa was first found on the Sargent estate in the year 1905 at Brookline, Mass.

The size of the flower clusters of these oriental Wisterias is truly amazing. Ernest H. Wilson, the famous plant collector, narrated that he measured the length of flower clusters on Wisterias near Tokyo in 1914 and found the longest one to average from .50 to 60 inches in length!

The color range of Wisterias includes violet and intermediate shades of blue violet and reddish violet into pink and pinkish mauve and finally white and creamy white.

It must be noted here that the Chinese species is not fragrant, while the Japanese species and the hybrid Wisteria formosa are both deliciously fragrant.

Used for Food

In China this beautiful vine performs the double duty of being used as an ornamental while its blossoms are considered a delicacy for food. Because of their fragrance the Japanese varieties are not eaten since to the oriental palate their fragrance reminds them that no matter how they are cooked they are still fragrant blossoms.

For purposes of identification, and for training of Wisteria vines, the following pertinent facts should be noted:

Wisteria sinensis—length of flowers are from 6" to 14"; they are not fragrant; the leaflets are 7 to 13 large; flowers bloom before the leaves; twines by climbing left to right; the color of the fall leaves are green.

Wisteria floribunda and formosa—the length of flowers are 8" to 48"; the flowers are fragrant; the leaflets are 13 to 19 small; the flowers appear with the leaves; twines by climbing right to left; and the color of the fall leaves are yellow.

Twinning Habits

The twinning habits are particularly important for identification purposes. The Chinese Wisteria (sinensis) twines by starting at the left side of a trunk or support and then reaching to the right. The general motion of the spiral is counter-clockwise.

The Japanese Wisteria and the hybrid formosa besides being fragrant may be identified by noting that they climb by twining from right to left, the spiral direction in this case being clockwise.

There are many varieties of Wisteria developed from the Japanese and hybrid species. The named varieties possess many hues of color and vary in the size and types of blooms.

As yet, however, American nurserymen have not been able to accumulate any sizable assortment of the named varieties. Possibly this has been due to scarcity of propagating stock coupled with a high demand for these plants.

Propagated by Cuttings

Although Wisterias may be propagated by seeds as well as cuttings, it must be remembered that hybrid varieties which include the most desirable types will not reproduce themselves from seeds. The only way in which this can be done is by means of cuttings taken from the desired plants.

This brings us to the question of making Wisterias bloom. At almost every occasion where garden questions are asked the question "Why Don't My Wisterias Bloom?" is certain to be among the first.

If the Wisteria which has been planted came from seed then there is no telling when it will bloom. Some will produce flowers within a few years; others may not bloom for a very long time.

Must Mature First

Plants propagated from flowering stock should produce flowers within reasonable time. What is overlooked is the fact that Wisterias require some time to come to maturity and begin to bloom. Very seldom do they flower before they have reached the age of 10 to 12 years.

To hasten maturity and the blooming period Wisterias may be confined by judicious root pruning and also be given liberal application of phosphorus in the form of bone meal.

The effect of root pruning is to curtail an excess of plant nutrients which would induce the plant to grow vegetatively rather than to form flower buds.

Pruning back of rampant shoots likewise will be found helpful. Yet in spite of all those measures nature will still adhere to her inexorable rule of "Maturity before Flowers."

Just Be Patient

We can console ourselves in the fact that if we live long enough some of our most stubborn non-flowering Wisterias will have reached maturity and begin to flower.

The best insurance for obtaining early flowering Wisterias is the purchase of plants grafted from flowering stocks. These may cost more but in the end should give much more satisfaction.

The best soil for Wisterias is a rich moist loam. As a matter of fact some of the finest specimens in Japan are to be found near pools of water.

They should be given ample support on trellises or arbors. In some instances Wisterias will do very well if they are permitted to twine on trees. They will, however, kill trees by strangulation if allowed to develop to maturity.

Where trellises and other supports are not available the "Tree" or "standard" type of Wisteria may be planted.

Pruned Into Trees

These are nothing more than the vines staked and then pruned for a number of years to form a tree. Being thus treated these "tree" Wisterias are usually more mature and will invariably produce flowers before the conventional vine types.

The question of flowering therefore may be summarized under the following important points:

1. Variety and Method of Propagation.
 2. Cultural environment.
- It should be noted that although many nurserymen propagate plants from stock taken from old specimens which flower profusely year after year, no thought may be given to the fact that these old plants may have required many years before they had bloomed.

Chips Off Old Blocks

Plants propagated from these old specimens will be found to be after all "chips from the old block," and they too will require a similar length of time to reach flowering stage. The only certain method to obtain Wisterias which will flower in a short time is to propagate vegetatively from plants which are known to reach the flowering stage early. For example, the Japanese variety called "Issai" has produced blooms in from three to five years if grafted on other stock. The method of grafting, therefore, while a more expensive operation, will produce earlier flowering stock.

As regards to cultural environment, the procedure of root pruning and the application of superphosphate will be found helpful.

Can't Hurry It Much

However, here again we must be mindful that these operations will not achieve results if resorted to before the plants are well established and properly developed. In brief we can hasten the flowering stage by two, three or possibly four years, but we can never make the infant plant grow up over night.

Garden Club Meeting At Haven Hill Lodge

The members of the Village Garden Club have journeyed to Haven Hill Lodge near Pontiac for their May meeting.

Dinner is being served in the Lodge tonight, following which Julian Smith, chief of outdoor education and instruction, and Arthur Elmer, chief of parks and recreation for the Conservation Department of Michigan, will be the guest speakers.

Mrs. Edward Boyes, secretary of the Detroit Audubon Society, is taking the members on a "Bird Walk" on Friday morning following breakfast. A noon luncheon will close the meeting.

Germander Substitutes For English Boxwood

The English boxwood which is so much in demand for small and formal hedges is not hardy in any part of Michigan.

An excellent plant to substitute is the Germander (Teucrium chamaedrys). This plant is not woody like the boxwood but herbaceous, i.e. it dies to the ground each year.

The foliage is small and grayish green. It is small and densely placed resembling the boxwood. It serves the purpose of boxwood since it responds to clipping making a dense small hedge very useful for formal work.

Germander is easily grown and is not attacked by most insect pests. Since there are a number of varieties belonging to the Germander family it is of importance to remember the correct name of this plant. It should be specified as Teucrium chamaedrys not merely as Germander.

Greens Are Full Of Spring Tonic

This is the time of the year to take advantage of an old spring "tonic"—fresh greens.

May and June are the high supply months for greens from Michigan farms and gardens; according to Mary Bodwell, agricultural economics department food specialist at Michigan State College. Here's fresh vim, vigor and variety for your menus after the winter's siege of heavier meals. It's also the time to freeze or can these vegetables at home.

Although greens are easily prepared, these pointers will help you to get better-than-ever results with them this spring, Miss Bodwell promises:

1. Know which greens to cook—which to eat raw in salads. Strong-flavored ones like spinach, Swiss chard, mustard, and turnip greens are usually cooked. Watercress, lettuce, kale, endive, and tender beet tops or spinach are excellent in the raw state.
2. Regardless of which type you buy, look for greens which are fresh, young and bright green in color. Avoid those with coarse stems or with seed stalks. They may be "strong" and tough.
3. Greens pre-packed in cellophane bags are a good buy. They are usually slightly higher per pound, but are well washed and picked over. The price difference is made up mostly by saving of waste, and added convenience.
4. At home, all kinds of greens should be stored in air-tight containers in the refrigerator, and should not be washed until just before using.
5. Wash greens in warm water if they are to be cooked. The dirt will be loosened more easily than with cold water. Use very little water to cook. If they are put through two pans of warm water and lifted from the last pan with water clinging to them, you won't need to add additional water for the cooking process. Use a tight-lid kettle. Season with salt, pepper, butter or bacon fat. Some people add vinegar, lemon, hard cooked egg and other garnishes.

The main value of greens in our diet, Miss Bodwell says, is their vitamin A content, the vitamin so important to good eyesight and disease resistance. Greens also contain varying amounts of minerals and a lot of psychological value. There's a pleasing reaction to starting a meal with a crisp, colorful salad.

Among the early greens available in stores now you probably will find spinach, lettuce, parsley, kale, turnip and beet greens. Later in the spring you will also find chard, watercress and mustard greens. And don't overlook the lowly dandelion, to be had for the picking in many lawns and back yards. You may find a new taste treat in a salad of tender young dandelion leaves.

Tentative plans are being made by the club to welcome the German Protestant Orphanage with an appropriate reception and a Tele-Vision gift as soon as its residence in Grosse Pointe becomes a reality as is expected some time late this year.

The Grosse Pointe Metropolitan Club is comprised of more than one hundred active members from the Police, Fire, and Federal Departments of the various Grosse Pointe Municipalities.

The club is sponsoring the First Annual Spring Dance, Friday, June 2, at the Fraternal Order of Eagles, Gratiot avenue and Eight Mile road. Dancing and entertainment will be provided in the Main Ball-Room. Funds derived from the dance have been definitely earmarked to further aid in Child Welfare activities. Chairman Michael T. Bem, of Grosse Pointe Woods, and Sgt. F. L. Baldwin, of Grosse Pointe Shores, co-chairman, announce tickets are available at any one of the Fire or Police Stations with the public cordially invited.

England Sends Ground Coverer

Amos Perry, a distinguished English plantsman who has sent the U. S. many meritorious plants, is responsible for another. This plant has been on trial for several years and has proven itself an excellent ground cover for sunny and open locations where other for this purpose do not thrive.

This comparatively newcomer to this country is called Polygonum Reynoutria and is actually a very dwarf creeping buckwheat. It is perennial in habit and quite hardy. It grows to a height of not more than 6 inches. Its foliage is pale green which turns red in the Fall. During the late summer the plant produces many graceful sprays of pink flowers which are suitable for cutting. The buds are a deep red making a striking effect.

This creeping buckwheat spreads rapidly by means of underground runners and thrives in almost any soil provided it is planted in a sunny exposure.

If you have such a place remember the name of this plant, Polygonum Reynoutria.

There's an exciting Memorial Day vacation in store for 39 girls leaving today in Chet Sampson's station wagon caravan for New York. The Statue of Liberty, China Town, shopping on Fifth Avenue and all the other marvelous sights and pastimes in New York will make their weekend one to remember for along, long time.

Nancy Hoyt, Ann Packer, Lozay Sheridan, Barbby Wigton, Sue Sharrer, Alice Robertson, Dolly Hammel, Janet Holtz, Donna George, Elaine Kihnen, Betty Hoyt, Annie Purdy, Sue Sibbert, Barb Mensing and Bev Fairchild will be a few of the sightseers who will, among other things, visit the Brooklyn Navy Yards and tour the Battleship Missouri.

Another highlight of the trip will be visiting Bill Lawrence and Janette Davis after seeing Arthur Godfrey's radio show Monday morning. Gail De Gurse, Emilie Harding, Joannice Johnson, Joyce Dannecker, Barb Drunkaus, Elaine Otto, Molly Murphy, Lois Jengens, Gretchen Shinn, Jane Kurth, Janet Fildew, Joyce Shepherd, Janette Jacobs, Pat Lawler, Nancy Ramsey, Nancy Hoesch, and Janet Ballentine will have lunch at the Wall-dorf after their "visit with the stars."

Memories was the theme of the Senior Swing S.A. Dance Saturday and caps and gowns provided a good background for the reading of the class will at intermission. Dancing to LeRoy Smith's orchestra were Dan Moroney and Pat Underwood, Eli Jackie and George Preston, Susie Martin and Tommy Nelson, Sue Riggs and Howie Clarke, Besty Huette and Bob Martin, Anne Hoover and Sam Shaw, and Bayard Johnson and Graetchen Becker. More at the dance: Jane Rippe and Jim Schoeck, Sharon Crawford and Jim Thayer, Jane Fordon and Dave Donnelly, Eddie Anderson and Joannice Hollister, and Jeanne Morrison and Bruce Johnson.

Some of the high school crowd decided to dance to Tommy Dorsey and Wayne King, Ray Anthony and Ray Correll out at State Fair Coliseum, Bev Martin and Ford Slater, Jan Gregory and Jack Reiter, Terry Thomas and Kay Sutton, Don Kramer and Shirley Redford, Barb Fitzgerald and Dick Baures, Terry Donahue and Al Chenis, Don Landau and Marilyn Norton, Bill Jackson and Kathy Droege, Patti Jones and Bill Turfill, Jim Hosking and Peggy Hatch, and Ginny Hitt and Paul Orabeck were some of the dance enthusiasts. Others were Dave Pethick and Sue Sibbert, and Jack Newman and Gail Ashton.

Lois Kretschmar and Betty Myers invited classmates for a senior tea Sunday afternoon. Hostesses were Wilkenson and Carol Werkena from S. E. High and Barb Jackson, and Betty Meadows. Other testinemes: Carol Glines, Jill Lindeman, Carolyn Keith, Carolyn Bauer, Dolly Limbrock, Diane Thompson, Lou McClung, Joyce Clements, Arlene Zick, Sally Reynolds, Eljean Mattice, Ann Klingenstein, Betty Petch, Bev Crain, Julie Hibberd, Adele Huebner, Adele Scrine, Alice Schlaepfer, Barb Wallace, Elaine Deekert, Joyce Kanser, Barb Gordon, Diane Weuler, Andy Shirley, Krueger, Susie Riggs, Carolyn Hahn, Sandy Findlay, Joan Cunningham, Joan Barlett, Marlene Hesse and lots of others.

Carol Cooper had a surprise birthday party for Shirley Martin's seventeenth birthday last week. Making very recordings on Jamie Jackson's recorder as part of their fun were: Barb Reed Beverly Clapp, Bunny Ion, Marian Vlietinck, Carolyn Dill, Crystal Gregory, Joan Hemme, and Joan von Rosenberg.

Students will vote for S.A. officers tomorrow in their classrooms. Naturally excitement has been high all week with campaigns and slogans and the all-school assembly. Up for president are Pat Brogan and Skip Pessi. For vice-president are Tim Leach and Bill Winkler. Candidates for secretary are Joan Hollister and Alice James while Carol Fredericks and Bob Law are running for treasurer. Contending for the office of Border Cities League representative are Tom Lister and Dick Scales. Senatorial candidates are as follows: — for 12th grade, Tom Lamb and Joannice Merrill; 11th grade, Janet Holtz and Bill Rexford; 10th grade, Phil Beech and George Denison, 9th grade, Alex Forrester and Jay Newberry; 8th grade, Martha Hubbard and Bob Lambrecht; and for 7th grade, Walter Foley and Dick Schleicher.

Bambi Wigton, escorted by Jim Leszcynski, was hostess at a dinner party at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club before the Junior Prom.

Among the guests were Elaine Otto and John Tower, Suzie Sharrer and Al Mann, Peggy Fisher and Tom Marick, Judy Newell and Billy Medley, Joan Hollister and Dave Hamilton, Joan Merrill and Skip Pessi, Carol Kretschmar and Herb Abrash, Annie Purdy and Pete Davidson, Ann Glasgow and Tom

The Clarks had long planned on attending the Bon Secours Assistance League's Movie Premier on that evening . . . and Sir Wally drove off before dinner to call for their movie companion, Mrs. Paul H. Sutherland, a gal who can keep a secret!

Upon their return . . . Mr. Clark found he had turned into a Birthday Boy . . . when 24 friends called surprised and lifted cocktails to his cheer . . .

Mrs. Clark was one of the most ardent workers for the League's benefit . . . it wasn't too long ago that her very life was given back to her through the wonderful care of the good Sisters . . .

Only Four Days Left

Do you know there are just four more days, in which to see the exciting exhibit of the Grosse Pointe Artists at Memorial Center?

We want to add our "hurry, hurry" along with those who've already seen the exhibit . . .

You'll see prize winning and water colors in the show . . . (Mrs. Owen R. Skelton's oil, "Studio Corner" and Jean Teague's water color, "Abandoned" are first prize winners . . .

Franklin Page, John Galsavage and William Wolfenden composed the jury selecting this year's winners . . . and Mrs. Ferris Fitch is president of the G. P. Artists . . .

Over 600 were invited to the tea which opened the show . . . and we're told that enrollment in next year's group-sponsored classes (in oil painting, water color and ceramics) are attracting droves of Pointers . . .

Proceeds from the classes, after expenses, are turned over to Memorial Center . . .

In this way . . . Grosse Pointe Artists are continuing their admirable and consistent program of furthering art in the community . . . and also serving civically . . .

Emery Hatch Family Visit

Former Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. Emery B. Hatch, have arrived from the elegant dude ranch in Mesa, Ariz., to pay the Pointe an annual early Summer visit . . .

With daughter Peggy they'll visit Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Wisbropp of Kenwood court . . . while Mac will be with Jimmy Stewart over on Lincoln road . . .

It does seem to us that the Hatches have gotten life down (or up) to the ideal stage . . . the cold months being spent at Sahuaro Lake Ranch . . . and the hot months at Mackinac where they have again taken the Holden house for the season . . . and where Emery manages the popular Island House . . .

A Flying Trip

The Harold R. Boyers will go down in our memory book as having taken the first one day trip to Florida chalked up in these parts . . .

They flew down on Saturday to attend the birthday party in honor of Mr. Boyer's father, Frank C. Boyer of Sarasota, Fla. who celebrated his eightieth birthday . . .

The party was given in the senior Mr. and Mrs. Boyer's Sarasota home . . .

Before they left, the Boyers gave a cocktail party for their friend, General Hoyt Vandenberg, who was in town for the Armistice Day celebration . . .

Saylors Leave for East

The Pointe was loath to see the departure of the Laurance Saylors who have closed their Balfour road home . . . and with their three children have moved to Greenwich, Conn.

Mrs. Saylor and the children left last Saturday to join Mr. Saylor who had preceded them to their new home, right on the water . . .

Formerly owned by an artist, the house is said to be divine . . . and its facing on the water is a happy feature to the Saylors . . . who, true to their surname, like nothing better than to live on their snappy cruiser all Summer long.

William P. Fisher Jr. Christened

The John Drummys of Yorkshire road traveled over to the Blessed Sacrament Cathedral last Friday afternoon . . .

Mrs. Drummy was godmother for her brand new nephew, William P. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fisher, who was christened by the Most Rev. Allen J. Babcock, Bishop of Detroit . . .

Girard Schulte stood as godfather for the baby . . .

Following the ceremony, the young man's doting grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, were hosts in their Boston boulevard home at a family dinner.

AAUW Group Hears Program by Students

The International Relations Group of the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW gathered at the home of Mrs. Bayard Johnson on Thursday night, May 18, at 8 o'clock. Students of Grosse Pointe High School, under the direction of Miss Leona Weier, presented a program on "Personalities in the World Spotlight."

Miss Mary Banach gave a talk about Dr. Carlos Romulo, Joseph

GPHS Conquers Hamtramck In Regional Tennis Meet

Coach Merlin Schultz Says Only Real Upset Was in Defeat of Pointers Barker and Pessi by Zoski and Parchute

Doing it the hard way, Grosse Pointe High School annexed the State Regional Tennis Crown on the local high school courts last Friday and Saturday in beautiful playing weather. Four schools were entered in the Class A competition: Grosse Pointe, Hamtramck, Mt. Clemens and Port Huron.

First Round Matches
First round matches found Bill Pope of Hamtramck with a bye; Bruce Terris defeated Robert Zieg of Port Huron, 6-1, 6-0, which gave Grosse Pointe ½ Point credit (first round singles counted ½ point for each match won and first round doubles ¾ point for each match won).

Jack Albee of Mt. Clemens defeated Dick Seoka of Hamtramck for the only ½ point garnered for their team. Cort Lecklider, G. P., defeated Fred Riggan of Port Huron, 6-1, 6-1, for another ½ point. Dick MacKenzie of G. P., D. Ward of Mt. Clemens, and J. Temple of Port Huron received byes and Dick Potter of Hamtramck defeated Louis DeGroot of Mt. Clemens, 6-0, 6-1.

Doubles Matches
In the first round doubles Zoski-Parchute of Hamtramck, Stoner-Nordgren of Port Huron, Giron-Johnson of Mt. Clemens, Hootman-Schwope of Mt. Clemens all received byes. Fred Pessi and Jim Barker scored ¾ of a point when they defeated Miller-Kawa of Hamtramck. Mann and Whittingham of G. P. scored ¾ of a point by defeating Magee-DeShano of Mt. Clemens. Leonard-Allen of G. P. defeated Lamine-Sommer of Port Huron, 6-0, 6-1, for another ¾ of a point. Cargas-Byczek of Hamtramck won over Robinson-Currie of Port Huron, 6-1, 6-2. At the end of the first round the scores were: Grosse Pointe, 3 ½, Hamtramck 1 ½, Mt. Clemens ½, Port Huron 0.

Second Round
Things began to tighten up in the second round matches. Bruce Terris of Grosse Pointe tangled with Bill Pope of Hamtramck and put up a real fight before going down, 4-6, 6-1, 6-4. The match lasted close to two hours with Pope losing his temper several times. Terris put up a good display of consistency and came the closest of anyone in the tournament to pulling a major upset. This match scored a full point for Hamtramck.

Cort Lecklider of G. P. tangled with Jack Albee of Mt. Clemens and had a real struggle on his hands to finally pull the match out of the fire, 7-5, 7-5. This was the same Albee who had defeated a Hamtramck boy in the previous round. Dick MacKenzie came through with a fast win over D. Ward of Mt. Clemens, 6-1, 6-0. These two matches scored two full points for Grosse Pointe. Dick Potter of Hamtramck defeated J. Temple of Port Huron, 6-0, 6-0. The second round of singles fell to both Hamtramck and Grosse Pointe winning two points.

Doubles Matches
In the doubles Zoski-Parchute of Hamtramck whitewashed Stoner-Nordgren of Port Huron to score 1 ½ points. Pessi-Barker of Mt. Clemens, 6-1, 8-6; Mann-Whittingham of G. P. easily triumphed over Hootman-Schwope of Mt. Clemens, 6-0, 6-2. The big match in this round was between Leonard-Allen of G. P. and Cargas-Byczek of Hamtramck. It was a very close match, the first set finally going to Grosse Pointe, 7-5. Then the local boys took a breather and found themselves down, 5-3, in the second set.

Things started happening then. Allen came through with a beautiful service and they broke through Hamtramck's service to tie the match up. Then two very hard games were fought out with Leonard-Allen coming from behind to win the second set, 7-5.

Crucial Victory
This was the crucial match of the Regionals as far as winning on points was concerned. At the end of the second round the point score stood: Grosse Pointe, 9 ½; Hamtramck, 2 ½; Mt. Clemens, ½; Port Huron 0.

At this point the Regionals were in the bag for Grosse Pointe because one of the doubles matches remaining was between two Grosse Pointe High teams which would automatically count 1 ½ points for Grosse Pointe and with that total all the rest of the matches, even if won by Hamtramck, would not be enough. This is what happened.

In the semi-finals Mann-Leonard went on to defeat Whittingham-Allen, 6-1, 9-7, which scored the 1 ½ points needed to clinch the Regionals. Hamtramck went on to win the remaining matches.

See Best Tennis
Zoski-Parchute tangled with Pessi-Barker in the late afternoon and some of the best tennis seen on the local courts was witnessed by about 200 tennis enthusiasts. Zoski (last year's state champ) covered his younger partner, Parchute, well and was the star of the match. Jim Barker and Skip Pessi put up a game fight before losing, 6-3, 8-6. This squashed any plans for the Blue Devils to make a serious threat in the State Finals in Kalamazoo on June 2. Coach Schultz was pinning his hopes on this doubles team to come through.

In the singles Bill Pope ran over Cort Lecklider, 6-1, 6-1, to move to the finals. Potter outplayed Dick MacKenzie, 6-2, 6-2, to move to the finals.

Play Listless Match
On Saturday Dick Potter met Bill Pope, both of Hamtramck, with a listless match being played. Potter won easily, 6-1, 6-1. The doubles final had the makings of a good match but Al Mann and Bill Whittingham folded under the onslaught, 6-1, 6-1. Never once did the local boys get under way and were outplayed all the way. Both boys have much better tennis in them than was shown, but couldn't rise to the occasion.

Before the tournament started it was well known that Hamtramck had three good boys, but that the local high school had plenty of depth and could be counted upon to score heavily in the early rounds to make up for losses later.

Coach Schultz stated that the only real upset occurring in the tournament as far as he could see was the defeat of Barker-Pessi. The final point score was: Grosse Pointe, 11 ½; Hamtramck, 10 ½; Mt. Clemens, ½; Port Huron 0.

DUS Runner-Up
Ypsilanti-Roosevelt came through, winning the singles, runner-up in the doubles, and the Regional crown by scoring 7 ½ points. Detroit University School was runner-up in the singles with Bill Hestor and won 3 ½ points. St. Stephen-Port Huron won the doubles crown and scored 5 ½ points, Ann Arbor University School scored 3 points and St. Clair, 0.

In the singles tournament Bill Hestor of DUS was favored to repeat this year after winning easily last year. Donald Potter of Ypsilanti changed this. After getting by Shipman of Ann Arbor in three sets he defeated Bill Foster of DUS and then met Hestor in the singles final on Saturday and beat him by his consistency, 6-4, 6-4.

The Regional was so close in Class C-D that this match decided the event. Two boys from St. Stephen-P. came through and won the doubles title from Parker-Whitcomb of Ypsilanti in a three set match, 6-3, 4-6, 6-3. These were George Cavis and John Miller.

Diane Davison Completes Plans

Bride-elect Diane Davison has completed plans for her June 18 wedding in St. James Lutheran Church to Robert Forsman.

Diane, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray C. Davison of Bedford road, has asked Beverly Anderson to be her maid of honor. Bridesmaids will be Nancy Irwin and Mrs. Cecil York. All three attendants were classmates at Stephens College, Columbia, Mo.

Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard C. Forsman of Casper, Wyo.

His best man will be Richard Hubbard, with James Davison, brother of the bride-to-be, and Maurice Armstrong, acting as ushers.

The ceremony will be followed by a reception at the Davison home.

Nancy Irwin was hostess at a kitchen shower for Diane on Saturday at the home of her parents, the Ralph R. Irwins of Harvard road. For the party, the luncheon table was centered with an arrangement of yellow shaggy mums and daisies, to carry out a yellow-and-white color scheme. Gay balloons floated at the ceiling, concealing slips of paper which directed Diane to her kitchen parties.

Other parties for Diane have been given by Mrs. D. Lyle Eife and, in Dayton, O., where the bride-elect visited recently.

The rehearsal dinner will be given on June 16 by her parents.

The way to hold a husband is to keep him a little bit jealous. The way to lose him is to keep him a little bit more pealous.

Coco Carhartt to Wed, Says News from Coast

News has been received here of the engagement of Marie Corinne Palms Carhartt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Carhartt, Jr. of Pasadena, California, formerly of Grosse Pointe, to Robert John Van Nostrand Abell, son of Mrs. Oliver John Abell of Wooster, Ohio, and the late Mr. Abell.

Coco, as her friends know her, is a graduate of Polytechnic Elementary School, and Mayfield Convent, in Pasadena, and is also an alumna of Georgetown Visitation Convent, Washington D. C., and the University of Kentucky.

Bob, who now resides in Pasadena, was educated at Asheville School in North Carolina, and at Cornell University, where he was President of Psi Upsilon fraternity. His war duty was in the South Pacific as a Captain in the Infantry. The wedding will take place in early October.

St. Pauloscope

by Sally McKernan

All Paulites enjoyed their free-day on Thursday, May 18, which was given to parochial school students in honor of the feast of the Ascension.

Wednesday evening Marie Couvreur invited some of her girlfriends over to her home to watch television.

Those who were there included: Mary Lou Fischer, Theresa Lyford, Sharon Sweeney, Kathleen Weot, Audrey Haley, Diane Zemper, Joan Rabaut, and Joan Swartz.

Janet Oxley is another gal who did some entertaining the same night.

Knocking on Janet's front door we saw: Dee Slater, Jerry Heckendorn, Connie Molitor, Jack Carroll, Donna Mayo, John Brady, Mary Allor, Joe Meier, Marilyn Sutherland, Glenn Walters, Reatha Geyman, Jim Haley, Ann Reed, Lee Falliers, Mary Margaret Van Damme, Jack O'Malia, Fran Schilling, Jim Hoskins, Dolores Chielens, and John Huettelman.

Still others joining in the fun were: Roy Moxley, Jack Lietke, Shirley Fincham, Tom Nacy, Bob Walker, Gloria Wancour, Dave McCarron, Bob Magee, Mary Kay Boomer, Larry McCarthy, Bill Lodwyke, Chuck Dupuis, and Roger Frazer.

Friday evening, May 19, Barbara Van Tiem, Joan Rabaut, Joan Swartz, Sharon Sweeney, Theresa Lyford, and Marie Couvreur attended the party at St. John Berchman's.

After an enjoyable few hours of dancing and chatting with friends, the girls went over to Cupid's for sundaes.

The Youth Advisory Council met on Sunday afternoon, May 21, to make plans for the next teen's dance at the Center. The finer details of the event are still in the stages of discussion, but member to keep June 18 open.

Huguenot Society Plans For Day of Remembrance

The Huguenot Society of Michigan will observe its annual Day of Remembrance Sunday, May 28, by attending in a body the morning (11 a.m.) service at the Mariners' Church, Woodward and Woodbridge streets.

Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, president of the Huguenot Society, will extend greetings to the congregation in the name of the Society. Hostesses who will welcome Huguenot members and guests include Mrs. Henry B. Joy and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur C. Gerow of Grosse Pointe.

Following the church service, members and guests will adjourn to Newberry House, on East Jefferson avenue, where dinner will be served at 1:30 o'clock. Reservations, with remittance, for the dinner, should reach Mrs. Smith by Thursday.

Most Member of M.I.T. Elections Committee

W. James Mast, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Mast of 390 Merriweather road, has been chosen from a recent competition among the Freshman Class to serve on the Elections Committee of the student government at M. I. T.

The Elections Committee is charged with conducting the election of the various officers which make up the autonomous government of over four thousand undergraduate students.

Mr. Mast is also a member of Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity, Tech Show Publicity Staff, and the Public Relations Committee. A member of the Class of 1953, he is a student in Building Engineering and Construction.

Lyne Addresses Republican Club

At the meeting of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe, held Monday, May 22, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, with Mrs. James McEvoy, Jr., presiding, Mrs. John S. Keys was elected Corresponding Secretary.

The Executive Committee announced the appointment of Mrs. Lewis H. Smart as Program Chairman and Miss Flora Anderson as Publicity Chairman. Mrs. John Hutchinson and Mrs. Edwin Kreighoff assumed the responsibility of co-chairmen of the Committee for Registration of Voters.

The Grosse Pointe women, as well as those in other parts of the country, are seriously disturbed by the deficit spending of our Government, with the resulting high taxes. For this reason, the talk of Ralph Lyne on taxes and government control, as they affect small business, was timely and particularly interesting to the club members.

Last winter the Policy Committee of the Michigan Federation of the Republican Women's Clubs made a study of issues of particular interest to women. On June 7 in Lansing the committee will report its findings at a luncheon meeting. Every woman attending will have an opportunity to help formulate the decision on what issues should be included in the report.

Mrs. Irving Ingram of the Indian Village Republican Club discussed the luncheon meeting of June 7 and told of the work of the Committee. Miss Bertha A. Adkins, the new Executive Secretary of the Women's Division of the Republican National Committee, will speak.

It was also announced that for the convenience of the members, a chartered bus would leave the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center for Lansing at 9:15 a. m. on June 7. Mrs. Lewis Smart is taking care of the reservations for this meeting.

Girl Scout News

Troop 870, Defer Intermediate Girl Scouts, recently took a trip through the Kaiser-Frazer plant at Willow Run. The girls took a nosebag lunch, but the plant furnished the milk and ice cream. They were taken on a tour of the factory in a small train of cars and then through the airport hangars and inside an airplane.

Drivers who furnished transportation for Mrs. Gignac's troop were Mrs. Karl Sims, Mrs. Albert Nickels, Mrs. Earl Irvin and Riley Motor Sales.

New Kerby troop 319 elected the following officers: Holly Hirt, treasurer; Jane Corey, secretary; Barbara Gotward, scribe.

Troop 303 of Maire School went through the Pewabic Pottery place on E. Jefferson avenue to complete their work on the pottery badge. Mrs. Allen, leader, Mrs. Mann and Mrs. Morang took the scouts on this trip.

The Grosse Pointe Girl Scout leaders and Council members will hold their annual luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on June 6 at 12:30. Reservations should be made not later than May 31 with Mrs. Leroy Allen, TU. 5-1635.

JAIL FOR SPEEDERS

Nearly 75 reckless drivers and speeders were given straight jail sentences and license suspensions for periods ranging from 60 days to six months during the first 10 days of the Detroit Traffic Court's new policy designed to curb the rising trend in accidents. During this same period there was one fatal accident, as compared to nearly one person being killed each day in traffic accidents for the month of April and the first week of May.

Legion Auxiliary News

From Unit 303 By Doris Nielsen

A very Happy Birthday to our Unit whose 11th birthday was celebrated with a nice party after the last meeting.

We were most happy to have Department Historian Gertrude Hildebrandt with us as she was highly instrumental in helping Grosse Pointe Unit to organize. Thanks for coming, Gertrude, we're always very glad to have you with us.

It was a pleasure to honor our Past Presidents at this meeting also, as we had nearly all of them present and were glad to hear a few words from each of them. We had loads of fun playing games and everyone of us went home with a prize and some went home with two. All in all, I think Chairman Alice Marrs deserves a lot of credit for this swell evening.

Thanks to Gladys Charrier and Vi Farnum, we had a most delicious lunch of barbecued hamburgers with all the trimmings and a very beautiful cake with an American flag and Happy Birthday, Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303, on it.

Another reminder to you officers and chairman to please have your pictures taken soon. Checked at the meeting and found that only three out of 20 had theirs taken. Not a very good percentage, is it? Let's have a better showing the next time I check.

Ladies Please Note:—A special invitation has been extended to our unit to attend the Memorial Service and Plaque Dedication at the War Memorial Center on Tuesday, May 30, at 11 a.m. Won't you try to be there as we would like a good turnout?

"WOMANLESS WEDDING"

The farce comedy, "Womanless Wedding", will be given on Friday and Saturday nights, May 19 and 20, in the South Lake High School gymnasium by the men of the Redeemer Methodist Church. Proceeds will be used for the church parking lot and the Boy Scout fund. The play will start at 8 o'clock each night.

Welcome Wagon Keeps Tradition

Mrs. Zelma Knight of Torrey road, Grosse Pointe Woods, returned home recently from New York City, where she completed a course of instruction preparing her to represent Welcome Wagon, Inc. as Hostess in the Pointe.

Welcome Wagon service was originated in 1928 by Thomas W. Briggs, a newspaperman of Memphis, Tenn., who adapted a custom of pioneer days to present day conditions. A student of American history, Mr. Briggs was stirred by the romantic tales of the rugged men who blazed their trails to a new land across the western plains. As the covered wagons of the pioneers wended their way toward the frontier, homesteaders from scattered settlements, along the way met them in "Welcome Wagons" with food and water to refresh the travelers at the end of their long journey and extend a hand of welcome. The gracious tradition lives on today in Welcome Wagon. A modern version of "old-fashioned" hospitality and goodwill is extended to the families of a community at the crucial moments of their lives. Daily, in 1949, throughout the United States and Canada—in more than 900 towns and cities—over 3,500 Welcome Wagon Hostesses carried the good wishes of civic and business organizations to mothers of new babies; teen age girls, newly engaged girls, families moving from one home to another within the community; and newcomers to the city.

The Welcome Wagon Hostess knows her town, and wherever she goes, she carries a word of its outstanding features — its libraries, churches, newspapers, parks, museums, youth groups, welfare associations, banks, shops, radio stations, restaurants, schools and services.

GPHS Tennis Team Defeats Wyandotte for Second Time

Chances for Undeclared Season Look Very Bright As Remaining Opponents Have Been Trounced Previously

The Grosse Pointe High School net team won its 42nd consecutive victory May 16 at the expense of Wyandotte 5-2. This was a return match in the Bears' home territory and was expected to be a repeat of the thriller at Grosse Pointe two weeks ago. The line-up was changed slightly by both coaches.

Coach Schultz put Skip Pessl with Jim Barker to play the No. 1 doubles and Coach Beach of Wyandotte had Don Meyers play No. 1 singles, exchanging places with Merle Jones.

Mann Wins Easily
 Al Mann easily put Don Meyers out of the running, 6-1, 6-2, for the first point of the afternoon. Cort Lecklider, playing No. 2 singles, put up a good fight for the first set before losing, 7-5, 6-1, to Merle Jones to tie the match at one all. Jim Barker and Fred Pessl played heads-up tennis to defeat Bob Jones and Dick

Call Meeting Of Air Force Veterans

Men and Women Invited to Help Form Pointe Squadron of National Group

The three million men and women who formed and fought in the United States Air Force are engaged in forming a civilian organization pledged to the support of a powerful and community aviation.

It is the Air Force Association, with headquarters at Washington, D. C. Jimmy Doolittle, Tokyo raider and former lieutenant general commanding the Eighth, Twelfth and Fifteenth Air Forces, started the organization and served as its first president.

Former Air Force men and women of Grosse Pointe will meet at 8 p. m., June 6, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, to form a local Squadron of the Association, it was announced by William Amos Group Commander. Everyone with Air Force service is invited and urged to attend this meeting.

Park's Charter Group Convenes

The Grosse Pointe Park City Charter Commission held its first meeting after organization in the Municipal Council chambers on Monday evening, May 15.

Along with a general discussion of their task each member was provided with a copy of the charter which the Farms recently adopted. The Park charter will of necessity follow in many respects the same outline as that of the Farms.

There were only two members of the commission of nine absent from the meeting. It was the general opinion that it would be advisable to seek the advice of certain outside agencies skilled in municipal charter formulation such as the Michigan Municipal League. It is also probable that the Commission will retain private counsel to guide them in their deliberations.

An important decision made, which will be of special interest to the citizens, was that before any major decision is made on any important provision of the new charter, a public hearing will be held of which the citizens will be notified in advance and they will be invited in to express their views on the feature up for decision.

Neighborhood Club News

FAMILY NITE
 The Neighborhood Club will be celebrating a Family night next Friday at 7:30 p. m. when the parents and children are all invited to enjoy an evening's entertainment put on by the clubs and classes.

There will be tap numbers put on by the classes and the Owls Club will put on several sketches and a pantomime number along with the Junior Sports Club, and assisted by Jimmy Bruzzese. There will be square dancing by the Mystery Club. Movies also will be shown. This performance is free—all are invited.

Methodist Group Plans Finger Painting Session

The Young Adult Group of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will hold its regular monthly meeting on Saturday, May 27, at 8 p. m. in the parsonage at 2049 VanAntwerp road.

Miss Della VanHouse, an instructor at the Detroit Institute of Arts, and a recent addition to the church, will lead the group in a session of "Finger Painting." The group will then "analyze" their drawings. A prize will be given for the most humorous analysis.

Even Youngest Hit by Spring

A three-year-old girl and a boy, six months older, both succumbed to the lure of spring sunshine this week, and left their Grosse Pointe Park homes for further adventure, only to be returned to their anxious parents by the Park police.

On May 12, in response to the appeal of the wanderers' mother, Patrolman Elmer Hoyer discovered James Maekris, of 1128

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

Since it's Spring, and music is the thing, what with Maestro Toscanini and the Robins, we've nominated some Pointers as chief contributors to the general theme:

SYMPHONY IN SILVER—MRS. MIKE FREYDL, for her appearance in that smoky-silver satin evening gown, in combination with her matching hair . . . and YOUNG face.

CANTATA IN CRISPNESS—MRS. EDWARD A. WISHROPP her Essence of Spring California suit . . . navy and white checked jacket, slim navy skirt, and white, white blouse, with a tiny peter pan collar. She tops it with a small, be-veiled navy hat, distinguished by two bumblebees perched on a chartreuse twig.

SOUTHERN SONATA—MRS. HENRY GAGE, for her lilting, Magnolia-touched S-o-u-t-h-e-r-n tones, which make the breezes seem just a bit warmer . . .

WEDDING MARCH—The new MRS. MINOT D. EATON (Ann Crouse), one of the loveliest brides we've seen—and SO starry-eyed.

PILFERINGS
We rush . . . ahead of June . . . to continue DONALD OGDEN STEWART'S engrossing "Etiquette for Engagements and Weddings." We concentrate especially on what will confront the Best Man.

THE MAID OF HONOR
You and the ushers will be introduced to the bridesmaids and the maid of honor. As you meet this latter young lady, who is the bride's older sister and, of course, your partner for the remainder of the wedding festivities, she will say, "The best man? Well, they say the best man always wins—Ha! Ha! Ha!" This puts her in class G 6 without further examination, and your only hope of prolonging your life throughout the next two days lies in the frequent and periodic administration of stimulants.

THE BACHELOR DINNER AND AFTER
That evening the groom gives for the best man and the ushers what is known as a "bachelor dinner." It is his farewell to his men friends as he passes out of the state of bachelorhood. The formal passing out occurs toward the end of the dinner, and is a quaint ceremony participated in by most of those present.

It is customary for the best man to wake up about noon of the following day. You will not have the slightest idea as to where you are or how you got there. You will be wearing your dress trousers, your stiff or pleated bosom dress shirt, black socks and pumps, and the coat of your pajamas. In one hand you will be clutching a crysanthemum. After a few minutes there will come a low moan from the next bed. That is usually the groom, also in evening dress with the exception that he has tried to put on the trousers of your pajamas over his dress trousers. You then say, "What happened?" to which he replies, "Oh, Judas." You wait several minutes. In the next room you hear the sound of a shower bath and someone whistling. The bath stops; the whistling continues. The door then opens and there enters one of the ushers. He is the usher who always "feels great" the next day after the bachelor dinner. He says to you, "Well, boys, you look all in." You do not reply. He continues, "Gosh, I feel fine." You make no response. He then begins to chuckle, "I don't suppose you remember what you said to the bride's mother when I brought you home last night." You sit quickly up in bed. "What did I say?" you ask. "Was I tight?" "Were you tight?" he replies, still chuckling. "Don't you remember what you said? And don't you remember trying to get the bride's father to slide down the banisters with you? Were you tight—Oh, my gosh!" He then exits, chuckling. Statistics of several important life insurance companies show that that type of man generally dies a violent death before the age of thirty.

ERNEST STEPHEN KRATZET, JR., OR MORAN ROAD

In the window of a local sport shop is proof that Ernest Kratzet, Jr., is a graduate of the tissue paper school of model aircraft builders, and impressive proof it is.

A sleek red airship, 50 inches long and with a wingspread of seven-and-a-half feet, Ernest's pride is a plane with a difference—it is one of the few radio-controlled models in Michigan, one of two in the Detroit area.

Four hundred hours of work in a basement workshop (which began life as a fruit cellar) went into the crimson beauty, the latest in a line of models which began when Ernest was an ambitious 10-year-old. He started work on the "big job" in January and finished it this month.

Built from a standard pattern with a few changes, the plane is designed with a tiny radio receiver under the wings. Impulses transmitted from the ground control, housed in an eight-inch square black box will maneuver the plane's rudder to right or left while the ship is in the air, merely by flicking a switch on or off. It will carry a four-foot antenna.

NO LOOP-THE-LOOPS

The gasoline engine in the sleek ship will contain enough fuel to keep the motor going from 12 to 15 minutes.

"With the radio control I'll be able to make the plane do figure eights, spins and spot landings," Ernest explains. "I COULD loop her, but that's pretty risky business."

The risks are what can make model aircraft flying heart-breaking business: in a matter of seconds months of painstaking work can go smash. But Ernest has only a reasonable number of fears concerning his ship.

"I've tried to build her to be stable enough to avoid a crack-up, and I tried using a nylon 'skin' this time—it's much tougher than silk or tissue, and has less shrinkage. But the Big Day is what I've got my fingers crossed about!"

That Big Day is what Ernest is looking for right now—a clear, windless one for his first flying tests of the craft. The initial, few-second flights will be made from the Country Club and the longer runs will be from an airport.

FCC CONTROLS

The Federal Communications Commission has an interest in the radio-controlled planes, which must be flown under the supervision of a licensed radio amateur, or "ham." There's talk about creating a special, narrow free band, operating on a few megacycles, for the many radio-control enthusiasts who could suming hobby—but lots of fun."

So if you see a trim and tiny plane in the sky spinning and figure-eighting, don't think it's an invasion by the Little Men—it's Ernest Kratzet radio-controlling his craft—and keeping his fingers crossed.

1200 Cub Scouts To Give Circus

The "World's Greatest" Cub Scout Circus will give its annual performance on Saturday afternoon, June 10, on Manz Field at Conner and Mack Avenues. Heretofore as "bigger and better" than ever and complete with a real calliope, this outstanding event will have a hundred side shows on the giant Midway and the expected crowd of 6,000 spectators will watch 25 thrilling acts in the three-ring circus.

Nearly 1,200 Cub Scouts from 35 Cub Packs in District Three are scheduled to participate in the five-hour show. A Detroit Police Band has been booked to furnish music for the acts and to entertain the crowd during the afternoon.

Members of the Circus Committee are as follows: Paul Glaeser, 11157 Craft Ave., Chairman; Robert MacMurdo, 14728 Lannette Ave., Ringmaster; Clark Heist, 11151 Craft Ave., Treasurer; George Ryerson, 1030 Balfour Rd., G. P., Physical Arrangements; and C. M. McDermott, 14042 Liberal Ave., Chas. Shull, 12920 Payton, John La Fata, 15289 Faircrest Ave., J. H. Cavanaugh, 672 Lincoln Rd., G. P., in charge of refreshments. There is no admission charge and plenty of parking space is provided. All friends of Scouting are invited to attend the Cub Scout Circus which begins at noon on that Saturday.

Margaret Hanson Discloses Plans

Margaret Hanson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart T. Hanson of Lakepointe avenue, has named her attendants for her wedding on Saturday, May 27, to Taylor Marion.

Her sister, Mrs. Walter W. Nelson of Rurbank, Calif., will be matron of honor, and Angela Roberts will be honor maid.

Bridesmaids will include Taylor's sister, Mrs. Barkley McMullen; Betty Lou Hubbard of Pontiac and Betty Morton of Boston, Mass. Mrs. Nelson's young daughter, Susan, will be flower girl.

Taylor, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Taylor Marion of Moran road, has asked Margaret's brother, William E. Hanson, to be his best man.

On the usher list are Richard Taylor, Barkley McMullen, Douglas Moran, Richard McNaughton and Allan Forest.

The wedding will take place in Christ Church, at 8 p.m. followed by a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Jean Pratt's Betrothal Told

At a small family dinner last week, Mr. and Mrs. George Hunter Pratt of Balfour road announced the engagement of their daughter, Jean Wright Pratt, to Mitchell Justice.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Justice of Neff road.

For the occasion, the Pratt home was gay with many spring flowers. Mrs. Pratt chose a gown designed with a navy blue skirt and bodice in a lighter shade for her daughter's announcement party.

Jean's brunet attractiveness was set off by a black lace ballerina gown and a corsage of white orchids.

She is a graduate of Liggett School and attended Mary Baldwin College and the Pasadena Playhouse.

Mitchell was graduated from the University of Michigan, where he was affiliated with Pi Upsilon fraternity.

The wedding will be late this summer.

Reflections

by paul gach

May day! May day! That's a distress call for some but for me it's a sigh of relief.

To Miss Annie Ward Foster, the Liggett School and the Grosse Pointe Country Day School, go my sincere thanks for your cooperation in making the photographic record of our May parties.

There is a great feeling of accomplishment when I watch the steady flow of youngsters and their parents as they come into the studio to look over the albums which are on display. There are over fifty albums in our library now, which will play a definite part in the permanent record of those treasured moments of our younger set.

Pointe Counter Points

Roaming about the Luggage Corner at JACOBSON'S this week is enough to give even the most chimney-corner-loving of us the itching foot . . . for there's a satchel for every purpose, designed with the good breeding which looks as right on a luxury liner as in the back of a station wagon.

Cases in point are the trim and trig overnight boxes, done in simulated alligator color for any ensemble—green, brown, navy, red and white—and with a B-I-G mirror inside, which is lined with quilted plastic in a contrasting color. (The price is such that JACOBSON'S guarantees enough left over for a sizeable week-end's fun.)

You'll also find hatboxes, in three sizes and a variety of gay colors . . . zipped to protect your loveliest spring chapeau . . . and our pet, a navy NYLON ensemble in three sizes, bound with rawhide. These are lined with gray moire and have lots of pockets for the small and usually unpackable gadgets.

Having sympathized with a bride as she got off her thank you for the sixth IDENTICAL crystal relish tray, we were delighted by the news that one Pointe favorite—THE DANT'S on Fisher road—has inaugurated a service finding favor with all our brides-to-be . . . They're leaving lists of gifts, wanted and received. There, so if you pick that all-important present at THE DANT'S, you'll not be one of the Duplicators . . . (and you'll find a great selection of fine things there, too.)

Decoration Day fires a gun in the feminine mind—it's the opening of the Summer Hat Season . . . and felts are definitely Old Hat. Over at WOOTON'S you'll discover what a Hat Bar really is: "B" is for Budget Bonnets, delightful confections for every taste . . . "A" is for Artistic Assortment, which is what you'll find at WOOTON'S . . . and "R" is for the Real Surprise you'll get when you see the variety of skimmers, specially in white, to please you, and look at their small price tags . . . at WOOTON'S.

Those lush windows which never failed to draw delighted gazes in The Village at PEPPE'S will be missed there . . . but "On the Hill" they'll be blossoming forth prettier 'n' ever a week from today when PEPPE'S opens in the new location.
