Wreckers Write Finis to Plush Pointe Saga

Picture by Fred Runnells

The Grosse Pointe Club, better known as the Little Club, is tearing down this cottage on its property in the rear of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. It was one of the first summer cottages in the Pointe area and has been occupied during its long life by some of the greats of Detroit's social and industrial history. This particular locale was dubbed "The Cabbage Patch" by Mrs. Henry Bourne Joy of Lake Shore road. In more recent years the club had rented apartments in the building to some of its members. The space it occupied will be added to the club's parking area.

Seven Pointe Polio Cases To Sept. 5

Disease Attacking Older Persons This Year; All Patients But One Are Females

Dr. Thomas S. Davies, Superintendent of Public Health for Grosse Pointe under the County Health Department, announced on Tuesday, Sept. 5, that there had been seven cases of polio in Grosse Pointe up to date this season.

Takes Peculiar Turn
He said the disease was taking a peculiar turn this year in that infantile seemed to be attacking the higher age brackets and also in that all of the cases except one were females.

The youngest case was a child nine years old and after that one of thirteen and one of seventeen and the rest were all over thirty.

The last case was that of a woman 40 years old.

Dr. Davies says the form of the disease has not changed but that the new prevalence in the higher age brackets is peculiar.

Situation Is Not Alarming
He thinks the general national situation in polio is not as alarming as it was last year.

The general course of the disease is to build up until the first heavy frosts come, when there is a marked diminution. It disappears when winter comes.

Last year there were 21 cases in Grosse Pointe. He says it is doubtful that the disease will reach that figure this year.

Young People Will Gather At Center Saturday Night

Saturday night, Sept. 9, the War Memorial Center will be the scene of much gaiety when the "Foot-Ball," an informal date dance for all Grosse Pointe people, college age through twenties, gets underway.

Well-Heeled Beggar Turns Out to Be Murderer Who Escaped Jail in Louisiana

Park Police Who Picked Him Up Find Out Southern State Is Most Magnanimous In Its Attitude Towards AWOL Prisoners

The colored man who called at the home of Mrs. Kathleen Sullivan at 796 Trombley road on Monday, August 28, and wheedled her out of a good meal and cash help by his pitiful tale of hunger and poverty, showed up again the very next day at the house next door. Mrs. Joseph Burke knew of Mrs. Sullivan's experience and called the police. Sergeant Walsh arrived in time to pick him up.

Last Address Checked
He gave the name of O'Dell Watson and said he was born in Texas. He thought his age was 32 but wasn't quite sure about that. He could neither read nor write and his last place of permanent residence had been in Louisiana.

Finger prints and a check with Detroit and Washington police records showed that sure enough his last place of residence had been Louisiana, in the Louisiana penitentiary to where he had been sent for a murder rap for ten years in 1939. He had escaped from the pen in 1945 and since then had been a floater.

Arrested in Detroit
The Detroit police had had him in three or four times for investigation of car molestation but had never been able to pin anything on him, any more than will the Grosse Pointe police as the complainants here are unwilling to sign any complaint.

When the Detroit police had learned he was an escaped prisoner from Louisiana, they had notified the Louisiana state police. The word had come back that as his term had been for only ten years, and it was then 1949, he was a free agent as far as they were concerned and they didn't want any more of him.

Most Considerate
Chief Louwers remarked with a sardonic grin "They are more considerate of escaped prisoners down there than we would be here in Michigan. An escaped murderer would be a welcome recovery here at any time. We would take him back to finish out his uncompleted term with a little more added as an escapee."

Louwers asked him what he was sent up for and he said, "Oh, I had an argument with knives with another colored boy."

"Who won?" asked the chief. "Oh! I did," said O'Dell, a reasonable assumption since he had received a ten year stretch for murder.

Sympathy Flees
Mrs. Sullivan informed the police of O'Dell's visit to her house last week after he tucked the money she had given him into what appeared to be a very well-filled wallet. The sympathy he had aroused in her with his passionate plea of hunger and want, quickly vanished when she caught a glimpse of his bank roll.

Death Takes Two Veteran Fire Fighters

Stephen Champine, Retired, and Assistant Chief Arthur Bricdeau Succumb

Grosse Pointe Farms lost two of its long-time firemen by death during the past week.

Stephen Champine, aged 65, who was retired last year, had been with the department for 58 years. He died on Sept. 1 in the Cottage hospital. He is survived by his wife, Mary.

Born in Pointe
He was born in Grosse Pointe and came of a family long identified with the Pointe.

The funeral was on Sept. 4 and burial was in St. Paul cemetery.

Arthur Bricdeau Dies
Arthur P. Bricdeau, the assistant Fire Chief, died at 1:30 a. m. Sept. 5, in the Harper Hospital after an illness of two weeks. He was born in Gardner, Mass., 57 years ago and had been in Grosse Pointe for 31 years.

He was survived by his wife, Rose, and sons Arthur P. Jr., Donald and David, daughters Marian and Mrs. Beverly Johnston of St. Clair Shores.

The funeral will be at 10 a. m. on Friday, Sept. 8, at St. Paul's church and burial will be made in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Car Rams Tree In Fisher Road

A car rammed into a tree in front of 240 Fisher road on the afternoon of September 2. The driver, Robert Lineberger of 281 Moran, told the Farms police a thermos bottle had fallen in the back of the car and he leaped around to pick it up when he lost control of the car.

The car is owned by Bruce Tanner of London, O., and Robert was reported to have been driving it without permission and without ever having taken out a driver's license.

JOAN CLARK BITTEN
Joan Clark, aged 8, of 190 Muir road, was bitten on the thigh on September 2 by a dog owned by Robert Valade of 125 Mapleton road. She was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment.

Neighborhood Club To Be Setting for Harvest Festival

Flowers, Fruits and Vegetables To Be On Display During Annual Show Scheduled For This Saturday and Sunday

The finest specimens from Grosse Pointe's gardens and orchards will be on display this weekend at the Neighborhood Club. The annual harvest festival, which is called the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society Flower, Fruit and Vegetable Show, is scheduled for Saturday and Sunday, September 9 and 10.

Over 100 Classes
More than 100 classes have been scheduled to display the lavish bounty which nature and good gardening brought to the Pointe this year. Many of the classes will be judged for arrangements as well as for the magnificence of the specimens. There will be special classes for housewives and the efforts of amateur gardeners will be judged separately from the professionals. Center piece and complete table decorations will also be exhibited and judged.

The Officials
Frank Moulton is chairman of the show. William Symons is flower show chairman, William Lutey, entertainment chairman; and Herman Hinsenkamp is secretary. William Regula, accordionist, will play from 8 to 10 p.m. on Saturday.

Unitarian Church Has New Leader

The Rev. William D. Hammond will take over his duties as new minister of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church with the service at 10 a.m. on Sunday, September 10.

Mr. Hammond was called from the Peoples' Liberal Church, (Unitarian), of Chicago, and replaces the Rev. Merrill O. Bates, who resigned.

The sermon topic Sunday will be "In Place of Creeds . . . What?"

Exercising Dogs Can be Strenuous

Margaret J. Greening, aged 63, a maid employed in the Horace Dodge residence at 17840 Jefferson avenue, complained to the police that as she was walking a dog for exercise on a leash at 6:50 p.m. on Sunday evening, Sept. 3, and was about in front of the Grosse Pointe garage, a Boxer dog jumped out of the driveway at 16930 Jefferson and jumped on both her and the dog she was leading, knocking her to the ground.

She suffered skinned shins and bruises and lacerations on both legs.

The Boxer belonged to Dr. Robert K. Whiteley of 216 Lakeview and was accompanied by Mrs. Theodora Whiteley, but was not on a leash.

Margaret was taken to Bon Secours hospital by the police and the dog was placed in the Purvis dog hospital for 10 days' observation.

Pointers Top Candidates For Governor

Community Also Represented in Battles for Congressional and State Offices

The primary election which will be held next Tuesday, Sept. 12, finds several Grosse Pointers in the lists seeking the nomination in one party or the other.

Governor G. Mennen Williams, who has the field to himself for renomination by the Democratic party, has long been a resident of Grosse Pointe. In the field of five who are striving for the Republican nomination for Governor Fred M. Alger, Jr., is carrying the banner for Grosse Pointe. He lives in Jefferson avenue in Grosse Pointe City.

Two Out for Congress
Louis C. Rabaut, who is the present representative in Congress from the 14th Congressional District is also a resident of Grosse Pointe. His home is on Three Mile at the corner of St. Paul. He has three other contestants in the Democratic ranks for the Congressional nomination.

In the Congressional lists for the Republican nomination is another Grosse Pointer, Richard Durant. He lives at 425 Lincoln road.

Gertrude Nutto Running
In the legislative candidates the only near Grosse Pointer is Gertrude Nutto, who, up to a year or so ago, was long a resident of the Woods, where she is well known. She is one of only two women who are seeking the legislative nomination on either ticket from the big First Legislative district which sends 21 members to the lower house of the State Legislature.

McNally Running
Another well known Grosse Pointer whose name appears in the primary lists this year is James J. McNally of Grosse Pointe Park. McNally will be recalled as the man who had the hot fight with Gerald O'Brien for the Prosecuting Attorney's office. This went to a recount with McNally the winner in the 1946 elections.

Two years later O'Brien defeated McNally and this year O'Brien is the sole Democratic candidate to succeed himself. McNally has two other rivals for the Republican nomination and must top these before he has a chance to face his old time rival in November. McNally's opponents for the nomination are Theodore J. Rodgers and J. K. Underwood.

Suggestions Disregarded
The half-day opponents say every suggestion they advanced was set aside. They urged that an addition be put on the Vernier school at a cost of $20,000 to care for the young children. Nothing doing, said Mr. Barnes; it would cost $50,000.

They wanted the sixth graders to be continued to be sent in buses to the schools with unoccupied school space. Mr. Barnes said the Lake Shore Coach Lines had not the rolling stock. They claim that Mr. Schweikart of the coach lines told them that if the sixth graders were staggered in fifteen-minute interludes in their departure for school he could carry 400 of them down and back each day.

Cite New Buses
They think that with the Lake Shore lines having recently added ten new buses to their rolling stock this school transportation problem would be easier than ever, etc., etc., etc.

At any rate the opponents of the half-day sessions assure that the end is not yet, and they are going to have a lot to say about it in the way of public enlightenment when they meet in a few days.

Body of Aged Nurse Found Floating in Lake St. Clair

The body of an aged woman was removed from Lake St. Clair in front of 78 Lake Shore road early in the morning of September 2. Discovery of the body was made by a group of Detroit fishermen, who reported it to a passing motorist who in turn informed the Park police.

The Park police relayed the message to the Farms and Patrolmen Roland and Lyford removed the body from the lake. The coroner's office was called and the body taken to the morgue where an autopsy was performed on September 3. Death was officially attributed to asphyxiation by drowning. It was believed the woman had been in the water but a few hours.

Edict on Half Day Sessions Angers Group

Charge Superintendent John Barnes With Brusquely Ignoring Every Constructive Plan

The parents of the first and second grade school children in the Vernier school area do not intend to take lying down the dictum of the school authorities that their children shall be subjected to half day sessions this year in those primary grades.

Divided on Issue
They had a meeting early in June to which the parents of children in all grades were invited. This meeting resulted in a general discussion in which it early became apparent that the parents of the sixth graders were insistent against their transportation by buses to the lower end of the district. To keep these in their home schools it was obvious the younger children must be divided into half-day sessions, according to the plans the Board of Education had.

Plan Another Meeting
This same group is now going to have another meeting as soon after school opens as possible. While the school authorities may take the position that the issue is closed, that will not protect them against a storm of criticism.

The charge is openly made that the School Board, or at least a part of it, entered into a deal with some of the influential parents of sixth graders that they would keep them in the home schools if they, the sixth graders' parents, would support the bond issue.

This, the school people, vehemently deny.

Charge Run-Around
The first and second grade parents charge that their arguments for ways and means of avoiding half-day sessions were brusquely brushed aside by the school board, and that the board seemed to be dominated by Superintendent John R. Barnes, whom they blame chiefly for the half-day sessions.

Mr. Barnes himself knows this and says he is the big bad wolf in the picture.

Suggestions Disregarded
The half-day opponents say every suggestion they advanced was set aside. They urged that an addition be put on the Vernier school at a cost of $20,000 to care for the young children. Nothing doing, said Mr. Barnes; it would cost $50,000.

They wanted the sixth graders to be continued to be sent in buses to the schools with unoccupied school space. Mr. Barnes said the Lake Shore Coach Lines had not the rolling stock. They claim that Mr. Schweikart of the coach lines told them that if the sixth graders were staggered in fifteen-minute interludes in their departure for school he could carry 400 of them down and back each day.

Cite New Buses
They think that with the Lake Shore lines having recently added ten new buses to their rolling stock this school transportation problem would be easier than ever, etc., etc., etc.

At any rate the opponents of the half-day sessions assure that the end is not yet, and they are going to have a lot to say about it in the way of public enlightenment when they meet in a few days.

Board Voted Twice

The School Board twice voted on the half-day session issue. The first time President Sigurd Wendin was out of town and the vote was a tie. Directors Alice Sheaffer and Shirley Johnson voted for the half-day sessions and Directors Franklin Dougherty and Bert Wicking voted on the side of the second graders against the half-day sessions.

The second time a vote was taken President Wendin cast his vote with Sheaffer and Johnson in favor of the half-day sessions.

ONE HURT IN CRASH
There was a two-car collision at Mack and Nottingham at 8:40 p.m. on August 31, which sent Claude Harrington, of 2044 Springle, Detroit, to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment for minor injuries and earned a summons to traffic court for Earl Mossner of 1168 Buckingham.

TRUCK FELS HOT WIRE
A semi-trailer type of cartage truck knocked down a live wire in the rear of Joe Snay's cafe on Mack avenue on the afternoon of August 30. The Farms police notified Detroit Edison and stood by until the repair men appeared.

Need 1500 Pointe Volunteers To Solicit for Torch Drive

The United Foundation opened its drive this week for 1,000 women and 500 men volunteers to solicit funds in the Grosse Pointes during the 1950 "give once for all" Torch Drive, Oct. 17 to Nov. 9.

Mrs. John L. Kenower of Village Lane, general solicitation chairman for the Grosse Pointe Region, urged all residents of this region who can spare a day, or enough time to call on 10 prospects, to enlist their services.

Work for All
"The Torch Drive gives all of us a chance to help with the great work of the more than 140 health and community services financed through United Foundation," Mrs. Kenower said. "These services touch upon the lives of all of us. They make up the greatest combination of efforts ever organized in one appeal for causes making Detroit a better place in which to live."

Combined into one fund-raising drive are the appeals of 125 Community Chest agencies and numerous other local, state and national health and community services. The scope of their benefits is universal.

What They Did
Last year, for instance, organizations within the chest handled nearly 40,000 family problems, gave 37,555 days of care to older folks, helped care for 14,500 children, provided health services to 75,000, gave 87,571 days of hospital care to Detroiters at fees they could afford to pay. Visiting nurses made 147,588 calls, clinic and hospital outpatient services of the Community Chest were visited 209,000 times, more than 166,000 Detroiters of all ages took advantage of recreational and character-building programs sponsored by Community Chest organizations.

Community centers and settlements have a membership of 17,203. More than 32,000 camping days were enjoyed by underprivileged Detroiters.

In the Community Chest, there are 20 organizations which provide health services; 16 help the aged, work with handicapped persons, and assist families; 27 care for sick, dependent and neglected children. Recreational and character-building programs are carried on by 46 Community Chest organizations.

Even Helps Drinkers
In addition to the well-known Community Chest services, the Torch Drive helps such organizations as the Committee on Alcoholism, which handles appeals from those among Detroit's 86,000 chronic excessive drinkers who need help.

Torch Drive funds also go to help fight against arthritis and rheumatism which affect 7,000,000 Americans; cancer, which takes 175,000 lives each year in the United States; cerebral palsy, which afflicts 550,000 Americans of all ages; epilepsy, from which 9,000 Detroiters suffer; heart disease, which causes one out of every two deaths, multiple sclerosis, from which 3,000 Michigan people suffer; and polio, to combat which Michigan is one of six states having facilities for Sister/Kenny treatment.

Aid for Blind
The United Foundation helps the blind by providing Leader and Pathfinder dogs, provides funds for aid to the hard of hearing, subsidizes a statewide campaign of mental hygiene for the benefit of 200,000 Detroiters who have some form of emotional upset or maladjustment.

Mrs. Kenower pointed out that volunteers who help raise money in the Grosse Pointes would be helping more than a score of organizations which provide valuable services right in their own neighborhood.

tions is a real help to many of us. We can show our appreciation for their wonderful services and what they have done for all of us and our friends and family by working in the Torch Drive. We need to do this job only once a year. We can, by doing a thorough job, eliminate the necessity for repeated appeals for many worthy causes during the year. We can help everyone to "give once for all."

"This is our opportunity, yours and mine. Will you help?"

Bad Drivers Pay Fines in Court

Presiding in Park police court on August 30 Judge John Potter disposed of the following cases:—

With an assigned quota of 500 pints of blood per month, for military uses, the Detroit Regional Blood Center has begun recruitment for additional donors, it was announced by John M. Sullivan, executive director of Detroit Chapter, American Red Cross.

The request, Sullivan said, came from Gen. George C. Marshall, president of the national Red Cross, on behalf of the Department of Defense. The blood is needed not only for Korea, but also for the expanding armed services in the United States, Gen. Marshall indicated.

"We expect to make our quota and still meet civilian requirements," Sullivan added. "We have ample facilities at the Detroit Center, and donors from outside the area will be welcome."

Death Takes Cap Pfeffer

The Detroit area lost one of its business leaders and Grosse Pointe a prominent former resident with the death on September 4 of C. A. Pfeffer, of 10410 E. Jefferson avenue, familiarly known as Cap from the initial letters of his name.

He died at his summer home 18 miles out of Grayling of a heart attack. He was born in Dayton, O., and was 64 years old.

He had lived on Grand Marais in Grosse Pointe Park for many years until the outbreak of the war, when he went to Wright Field at Dayton, O., where he organized the purchasing section of the Army Air Forces and was later cited by the Government for his outstanding service in this field.

While a resident of the Park he took an active interest in its public affairs and for several years was the village's Finance Commissioner.

He came to Detroit in 1908 and in his long career here was at one time treasurer of the old Chalmers Motor Company, President of the Saxon Automobile company and a financial adviser to the D&C Steamboat Line.

He is survived by his widow Frances; and daughters, Mrs. William C. Long of Racine, Wis.; Mrs. Russell A. Kirbert of Minneapolis; and Mrs. Mims Thomson of Evanston, Ill. He also left sons Robert J. of Detroit, and George E. of Grosse Pointe Woods, a Sister Helen Pfeffer of Dayton.

The funeral was this morning at 10 a. m. from the Verheyden Funeral home and SS Peter and Paul Church. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

Majority of Participants In Fight After Basketball Game Taken Off Probation

The final chapter for eight of the eleven Grosse Pointe boys who participated actively or passively in the rioting and free-for-all that occurred on Fisher road on March 4 of last year following a Grosse Pointe-Highland Park basketball game was written in a special session of Judge Leslie Young's City police court on Saturday morning, September 2.

Five Complete Periods

Five of the boys, William Turill, Clyde Le Mee, Donald Marshall, Dan Davis and Richard Limberg had already passed through their probationary period and were called in chiefly for the purpose of hearing the compliments of Judge Young and the police for the faithful manner in which they had complied with their probation.

Three others, Ronald Knope, Kirk Walsh and Harold Edsel, whose probation had still a few months to run, because of their excellent intervening records, were discharged.

Lauded by Flannagan
Detective Flannagan, who with one of the probation officers from Detroit was named by Judge Young to receive the periodic reports for the Grosse Pointe and Highland Park boys respectively, said that the boys had been faithfully observing the conditions of their probation.

The three remaining boys among the Grosse Pointe contingent, Frank B. Abbott, Donald Sarvis and Bruce Kirchner, had, in the meanwhile been guilty in minor or major degree of violating their probation, and were continued on.

Young Sarvis was one of the boys who participated in removing the hands from the High School clock several months ago.

From Mother, With Love

The house that MRS. EMERY P. KOVACH built required no down payment nor will its occupants be required to pay taxes, for it is a playhouse and its co-owners are LESLIE KOVACH, 9, left, and SYDNEY, 6. The "Little House," as the family refers to it, is located in the rear of the Kovach residence at 263 Mt. Vernon.

Month's Work

Mrs. Kovach began work on the playhouse over a month ago, while the girls were at camp. The children's absence permitted her to work without interruption. Many days she spent 8 to 10 hours in converting the old playhouse which she had purchased and of which she used merely the shell, into an architectural triumph.

The "Little House" stands two stories high and is painted shocking pink with white trim. The blue roof is in correct color harmony and topping it is a television antenna.

Show Ingenuity

Other distinctive features are a white plaque bearing the house number, the letter box fashioned from a lunch box and the door bell above which are listed the names of the lucky owners. All are a tribute to the ingenuity of their designer.

The house also boasts a screened-in front porch complete with a blue awning and removable windows. The fact that the house is insulated will make it comfortable until the cold weather arrives. A protective feature is the rat wall which completely surrounds the house.

The first floor of this 9 by 9 foot playhouse contains a living room and a partitioned kitchen complete with wooden shelves and cupboards. The room is about five feet high and features a beam ceiling. The floor is covered with linoleum and the walls are papered appropriately. The living room contains a Victorian type sofa which Mrs. Kovach upholstered in red plush and trimmed in gold fringe.

Upside Bedroom

Upstairs there is a bedroom which is reached by climbing an interior staircase, constructed by Mrs. Kovach herself. The roof elevates to a peak enabling the children to stand in the center of the bedroom. This room is also papered in appropriate little girlish wallpaper for which Mrs. Kovach did considerable searching.

Mrs. Kovach has worked independently on this project up to date but she plans to enlist the aid of Dr. Kovach in landscaping the "Little House" and in building a walk.

Police on Watch For Fast Drivers

Two reports of speeding cars they were furnished with good descriptions of the cars and are police on August 30. While they were unable to catch the culprits, the first call came from residents of Mary. The second was the St. Paul Church, where it was reported two cars carrying both boys and girls were racing through the church and school grounds.

The Local Rent Control Issue

The question before the City Council of Grosse Pointe City of abolishing rent controls in the City for the four months or less between now and the first of the year, affects a comparatively small part of the population. A large proportion of the residents of Grosse Pointe City own and occupy their own homes. It is only occasionally that these properties are for rent.

Grosse Pointe and all of its five municipal subdivisions are definitely not of the type which the Government had in mind when it enacted rent control during the war. It was intended to operate in communities which are industrial in character and where the war effort was about to bring into being great war industries and large numbers of working people were soon to be added to the population for whom living quarters had to be found within their means on a rental basis.

A few small concerns were admitted to the Park during the war, which made accessories for war industries but only on the explicit understanding that they would have to be removed within six months after the war ended. This, so far as is known, was enforced 100 percent.

There should be no sympathy whatever with the rather brutal argument advanced by some persons at the public hearing on August 29 that those renters who were unwilling to pay a fair rent for the properties they occupy in Grosse Pointe should reside elsewhere. This is an inexcusable cynicism which will not be approved by the decent people of Grosse Pointe.

Many of our most desirable citizens are persons who have come here to live, attracted by the general desirability of the place as a community of homes, and Grosse Pointe is complimented by their presence. But at the same time it is unfair to overlook the plight of the landlord who has been facing heavy increases in taxes and mounting costs of building and upkeep without recourse for recovery from the only source from which his income must come, i.e. the rents.

As one owner of renting property said at the meeting, the Government has compelled us to subsidize the rents of the country at our own direct expense and with no prospect of relief as long as rents remain frozen.

Mayor Netting told the audience that Grosse Pointe City has not increased its millage for itself but once in the past six or seven years, but he made no mention of a number of assessment "adjustments" that have taken place meanwhile. It is of small concern to the taxpayer, whether his taxes are paid to one governmental source or to many. Taxes, particularly the school taxes, have been greatly increased and they all come out of the same property owner's pocket.

In the light of the present national situation with a sizeable war already on our hands and the prospect of its growing into a bigger one, there is a general feeling that whatever is done locally on the matter of rent controls will be whistling up the wind. If any community decontrols now it can be only until January 1, or at the longest until July 1.

Rent control was conceived as a war emergency measure and would be so treated again and quickly if the emergency develops. It is one of the few remaining sprags against runaway inflation that the government will overlook.

An American Institution

The great American Labor Day has progressed in spirit and scope far beyond its original conception. Intended originally as a day to be set apart each year peculiarly in honor of men who worked with their hands, it has since become universally recognized as a pause from work by all who labor either with hand or brain.

As such it is accepted by all from the millionaire to the humblest toiler. It is especially an American holiday in that in this land work has always been regarded as an order of life applicable to everybody who is capable, mentally or physically, of honest effort. America has no leisure class such as has existed in Europe from time immemorial, where there has been a group which from father to son, has not done an honest day's work in generations, going back to the dawn of the modern era.

In no land on Earth is labor so universal or so respected or regarded with such dignity. Here the man who works in any classification is simply one of a common pattern of American manhood. The man who has no regular job during the productive years of his life sets himself apart for invidious notice.

This day, christened as Labor's Day, has become a cherished period in the chronology of American life. It marks the end of the more leisurely summer period and the time when the people return to their regular work renewed in spirit and in body for more effective effort.

Occurring on the first Monday in September, it is commonly treated as a three-day holiday after which everyone bids adieu to leisure and takes up again his allotted task.

Long may the American Labor holiday last, for the benefit of all and as an example to the world of the high regard in which this land holds its sons and daughters whose toil and genius have placed this country in the vanguard of human welfare and happiness.

The Right to Vote

On September 12 the people of Michigan will go to the polls and participate in the preliminary election process which determines who are to be the candidates for the next terms of office.

Meanwhile our boys are fighting and dying over in Korea.

One of the essential purposes in this minor war is the preservation for ourselves and for the people of other lands of this identical right to select by our own free action, governmental leaders.

This is one of the freedoms won by our forefathers at Bunker Hill, Valley Forge and Yorktown a hundred and seventy years ago.

Are we to remain asleep to this priceless privilege while our sons are being drafted to shed their blood and risk their

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"If all good people were clever, And all clever people were good, The world would be nicer than ever We thought that it possibly could. But somehow, 'tis seldom or never The two hit it off as they should; The good are so harsh to the clever, The clever so rude to the good."

(Elizabeth Wordsworth)

No column this week. Because of the holiday, we are taking one and letting our readers take over the onus, by way of contributions. First, is a letter received by a local couple we shall call (just for kicks), "Joe and Ella." Joe had told an old school tie (in a moment of downing the seventh martini), that he, the tie, MUST come and visit him and his wife sometime. This week, much to Ella's horror, they received a letter from school tie, announcing that he would be in the City next week and would LOVE to take them up on their invitation. He would like to stay for a week. After reading the letter through, Ella thought we would like to pass it on to our readers, so here 'tis:

"Dear Ella and Joe, "I would like to come and stay with you for a week beginning September 16th. As you know, I had a heart attack recently, so I think it only fitting that you not be left in the dark relative to the limitations and restrictions which my physician has placed on my activities and diet.

"(a): I am permitted to eat meat . . . but it must be rare. I might add that I have been cut down to three full meals a day. Naturally this causes hunger at odd hours, which is easily understandable.

"(b): As far as drink is concerned, Scotch is a stimulant to the coronary arteries when mixed with ice and soda. However, the Scotch must be aged . . . none of this stuff without the age printed on the bottle. My heart condition is of long standing. My Scotch must be likewise.

"(c): My physician seems to feel that it will benefit me considerably if we play Canasta for several hours each day. Obviously the stakes must be high so I will forget about my condition.

"(d): I am sorry to state that my television activities have been curtailed. I am only permitted to watch two baseball games a day. However, on weekdays I can also look at wrestling matches.

"(e): I am to be allowed to do as I please whenever or wherever I am . . . but above all, I am not to sit up half the night listening to Ella's long stories.

"(f): Instead of taking sleeping pills at night, I am to listen to Joe tell my why he hasn't been doing so well on the stock market. I told the doctor I had already heard all Joe's stories about this . . . but he assured me there would probably be more to come.

"See you soon. Regards, Oliver."

A letter from the James Crowleys, who are still raving about their stay in Ireland, encloses a clipping from Irish Times . . . about the visit to Ireland of Dr. Leo Bartemeier, noted psychiatrist who lives in the Pointe. Dr. Bartemeier has been in Ireland for the past month advising the Government (at request of the World Health Organization), on the establishment there of psychiatric services for children. The Doctor's interviewer sez, in part:

"Dr. Bartemeier is not the intense secretive type of man whom the American film has led us to believe is the typical psychiatrist. He is tall, broad shouldered, wears glasses and smokes through a cigar holder. His obvious fund of sympathy for the ordinary man and women whom he meets is reflected in the calm, appraising gaze, which through it at first may seem a challenge, quickly inspires confidence in himself."

The Irish are a wordy group . . . but in this case we enjoyed every word.

Mrs. Crowley writes about the wet weather and the addition to the household. Sez she: "We have five cats. Tura-Lura had four kittens under the couch three weeks ago! One of them the maid threw out in the turf shed, thinking it was dead. It stayed there all morning until we finally heard its wailing, rescued it and gave it back to TURA-LURA. Now it is the sportiest of the group. Tura can hunt without going outdoors. She has eaten three birds in the front hall. They had just walked in and were looking 'lace over!'"

A woman telephoned to tell us she hired a new upstairs maid last week and one of the maid's duties is to serve Madame's breakfast to her on a bed tray when she rings. The first morning, Madame rang . . . and before she had a chance to "tidy" herself up, comb her hair, etc., she was called to the phone. By the time the maid came in with the tray, Madame had just hung up. The maid started to put the tray on the bed . . . then glanced at her mistress, moved the tray away again and said, "Oh! I see you haven't washed yet!"

Ladies! Are you planning on "thinning down" for the fall styles? If you are, we submit here a few quickies that you might bear in mind.

- 1. You've got to practice "mind over PLATTER!"
  - 2. You must remember that you can't eat your cake and have "IT!"
  - 3. If you'd like to be thought of as looking spic and span . . . remember that it is hard to look spic when you have too much span!
- Dat's all.

lives six thousand miles away to safeguard this right which we so lightly regard here at home?

If we lived behind the iron curtain this right would be wholly denied us.

The people of Michigan could give no more convincing demonstration of their deep appreciation of this great privilege than by going to the polls next Tuesday and piling up a tremendous vote, regardless of candidates or issues.

The present is a timely moment for the parade of such a sentiment.

The Weapon of Truth

General Dwight D. Eisenhower, who comes nearer to being a red blooded, popular hero to the American people than any living American, opened up the Crusade for Freedom in Denver on Labor Day.

The American people love him, not merely because he was our successful military leader in a great war, but because he breathes out a vigorous, common-sensed and courageous Americanism in every public utterance he makes. His is the kind of talk the people of this country understand and love.

Moreover he doesn't talk in indirections. If the Russian government is run by a pack of liars and terrorists, he says so.

The primary purpose of the Crusade for Freedom is to surround the menacing Russian state with a network of high-powered broadcasting stations that can get the truth to the Russian people.

He recommends the "Truth" as the most valuable ammunition that can be employed in getting the messages of Freedom to their ears.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

The opening day of school means the beginning of Fall for most of us. We put our bathing suits in moth balls, write our last bread and butter letter and settle down to the everyday business of living.

But let's take time for an occasional backward glance at the fun we've had and the places we've been this summer. Between the patrons and the staff of our library, it would seem that a fair share of the globe has been covered this vacation.

Whether to read of faraway places before or after being there is a question. Why not both? There is no doubt that reading of familiar places, so recently unfamiliar, gives a smug warm feeling of satisfaction, particularly if our Willie's photographs are superior to those in the National Geographic.

There are a number of recent books and some not so recent, that make these distant fields very green indeed. Polling favorite vacation spots always brings New England near the top. If Massachusetts is your first love, you'll recapture the spirit of early Marblehead and Salem in two popular books of fiction, THE SEARSH AND EAGLE by Arva Selton and THE RUNNING OF THE TIDE by Esther Forbes.

If you visited French Canada this summer, you'll enjoy it in retrospect with Sidney Dean and M. M. Marshall in their recent book, WE FELL IN LOVE WITH QUEBEC. For background you may turn to the classic GOLDEN DOG by Kirby, a historical romance founded on a Quebec legend of early fur trading days.

Up-to-date information about contemporary Alaska and Mexico is constantly in demand. If you have been sojourning in either place there are any number of titles from which to choose. Among the more recent are ALASKA TODAY by B. W. Denison and ALL THE BEST IN MEXICO by S. A. Clark.

Cards from Sweden tell us some of our patrons have been seeing Scandinavia. Hudson Stroe's book, SWEDEN; MODEL FOR A WORLD, based on trips which the author and his wife made before and after the war, makes of this country an enchanting place.

And there is Elliott Paul's new book, SPRINGTIME IN PARIS, to bring back nostalgic memories; not to be overlooked if France has a hold on your affections.

To salt your travel with plenty of humor we recommend Perel-man's WESTWARD HA! Around the world in eighty cliches. No doubt we've omitted your favorite holiday hide-out. If you'd read more about it, call your library and we'll try to find the information you wish, whether the corner of the world you fancy, be Tibet or Timbuktu.

A veteran after browsing among the books of the World War II European scene, checked an armload at the City Branch desk: "I want some books on where I was. I'd like to find out what I did and why on earth I was there anyway!"

At the Michigan Library Association annual three day meeting at Mackinac Island last week, the Grosse Pointe Library was well represented by Mr. Robert Orr, Mrs. Helen Finster, Mrs. Helen Booth, Miss Jean Mastin and Miss Joyce Woodcock. Mr. Orr is vice-president and president elect of the association.

It is business as usual six days of the week. The Main Library, the City and Woods branches are reopening Saturdays 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

A welcome back to all our friends from the Grosse Pointe Library staff.

Theater Opening To Aid Hospital

The Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital opens its season of activities at the New Coronet Theatre, with "The Rocking Horse Winner."

Universal-International's release of the J. Arthur Rank production "The Rocking Horse Winner" has a brilliant cast headed by Valerie Hobson and John Mills. An adaptation of D. H. Lawrence's exciting novel, this film has already won the acclaim of New York and Chicago critics and promises to be an ideal selection for opening the new Coronet Theatre.

Mr. Weingartner graciously selected the Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital as the recipient of the entire first night's proceeds—to assist the Auxiliary in furnishing and equipping the new St. John Hospital.

Members and friends are cordially invited to attend one of the performances. Plan a theatre party and enjoy a pleasant evening.

The date is Friday evening, September 15.

Pointer's Slogan Wins Cash Prize

His ability as a rhymester netted Mr. Ralph S. Farnum of 436 Lothrop road, the third prize of $25 offered by the National Safety Council for its July Calendar Contest. Mr. Farnum, a safety engineer for the U. S. Rubber company, was a logical and qualified entrant. The rhyme with which Mr. Farnum achieved success follows:

"Listen Mr. Working Man, And I'm addressing you sir: Get first aid fast for all your ills, And still be a producer." Mr. Farnum's slogan is now the property of the National Safety Council. The contest usually draws more than 50,000 entries per month, therefore his winning is an added achievement. The winning slogans are posted throughout industrial organizations as a caution to the workers.

Legion Auxiliary News From Unit 303 By Doris Nielsen

Well, now that we've all had our vacations and the convention is over for another year, it's time to settle down and get back in the swing of things.

First, from our Unit, congratulations to Gertrude Hildebrandt who was elected and installed as Department First Zone Vice-President, and to Helen Sitter, and Viola Starkey who were installed as our Districts Presidents. We also wish to congratulate Evelyn Snyder and Hildegarde Korff, who were installed as our district vice-presidents. To these girls along with our congratulations goes our pledge for continued cooperation for the year 1950-51.

Honors also came to our own Unit at the Department Convention via Nell Baldwin who served on the Legislative Committee, Elva Nielsen who served on the Steering Committee for Gertrude Hildebrandt and Doris Nielsen who was awarded a personal prize for the Best History for Units with less than 100 membership.

We extend rather belated congratulations to our newly elected Post Officers with every wish for a most successful year.

Girls please note that there will be NO Executive Board Meeting this month but our regular meeting will be Monday evening, September 18, at 8, with election of officers the first order of business. Won't you all please make an effort to be present to help choose the right officers for the coming year.

Will all officers with badges please start looking for same? If you can find your badge by meeting night, why not turn it in then so we'll have it for our installation?

Think it's about time we did some serious thinking on the idea of Universal Military Training. If it isn't too late by the time you read this, won't you write to our Senators, Arthur Vandenberg and Homer Ferguson, Senate Office

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerborn

That last fling before the school doors open is an exciting one for those young ladies whose daddies are members of the Recess Club . . .

And they're looking forward to this Saturday when Recess Club members have announced their first Fall Opener . . . the Fathers and Daughters luncheon . . . complete with entertainment and a miniature fashion show . . .

Leonard Zick of the Pointe proudly will escort four daughters . . . Rowena, Arlene, Constance Mae and Shirley Ann . . .

Richard K. Degener will squire his young charmer . . . Sally . . .

At The Recess Club

Still other fathers returning from vacation points in time for the event are:

William H. Wotsford, who'll take daughter Jane to the party . . .

Cecil H. Brown and his daughters . . . Brenda and Susan . . .

Wade H. Leach with daughter, Kitty . . . George McCallum and Margaret . . .

Club president George P. Hooper and his entertainment committee promise strolling musicians . . . gifts . . . imported prizes . . . and other heavenly distractions for the girls of all ages . . . (the youngest is Judy Coward, three and a half . . . but we're honor bound about the oldest's age!) . . .

A Bow for John

We hope all the little girls come under the twinkling eye of the person we consider the nicest they know about the Recess Club . . .

We mean John Bellart . . .

You'll remember him because for years he presided over the main dining room of the Book Cadillac Hotel . . . when it was a beautiful room done in the Italian manner . . . and the windows really looked out onto the boulevard . . .

John will ever remain in our books . . . as the world's greatest captain . . . and we've never really felt bowed in and out of a dining room since he left to serve at the Recess Club . . .

Return from California

The Elmer reports are back from their California junket . . . and report life on the West coast spiced with funker Pointers . . .

While they were visiting Mrs. Ulrich's father . . . Herbert Mendellson . . . and her sister, Shirley . . . at his Pacific Palisades home . . .

They saw the Fred Breers . . . Mrs. Ralph Bird and her daughters . . . Mrs. Emory Cook and Arthur Rheume . . . Marjorie's other sister . . . Mrs. Walter Pharr . . . enter . . .

SHOP LIGHTS

The Penthouse, smart fashion shop at 16840 Kercheval, in the Village, is now bedecked with a new street-level display window.

Grosse Pointe Ernest Nightingale, 1343 Three Mile drive, founder of the chain of Nightingale super markets which he operated for about a quarter of a century, is retiring from business, having recently sold his earnings to another chain and to former employees.

Mr. Nightingale earned a splendid reputation here for top-quality foods. His great pride was in fine meats and poultry. The meat counter in his Mack avenue-Lakepointe store was 100 feet long. He is another example of what America offers newcomers to this soil, having come here from Belgium in the early 1900's.

The Harmsworth in 1950

We thought it ever so typical of 1950 . . . that the daughter of the motor boat enthusiast . . . should have watched this year's Harmsworth over television . . .

But we must agree with her . . . it was the comfortable way . . . and never did an "in the flesh" Harmsworth thrill us as much as the second day when Slo-Mo-Shun flew before television screens . . .

However the Ulrichs were out in force for Labor Day's Silver Cup event . . . and the daughters of the family weren't having any television when it came to seeing the State Fair . . .

The whole family went out on Tuesday . . . and now Elmer and Marjorie are sure the girls won't have finished sighing about Betty Hutton and Carmen Miranda until they turn their baby thoughts to studies at the convent . . . (school opens Sept. 12) . . .

School Days

The junior Fred Harris is packing up, up there at Gratiot Beach . . . where they've spent most of the Summer . . . and turning their thoughts to school for Wendy and Teddy . . .

Wendy goes to Country Dry and the young man studies at Detroit University School . . .

The Joseph A. Maiullos are back in their University place home . . . after a pleasant interlude in Mrs. Maiullo's native Boston . . . where Joe had daily reunions with former Harvard classmates . . . and no meal was complete without lobster . . .

Starr Commonwealth Patrons

We've never seen a more impressive patroness list than Starr Commonwealth has gathered for its Sept. 14 fashion show at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club . . .

Just a few who are planning to attend the stunning Irene fashion show include:

Saks Rounds Out Ten Years Of Service with Expansion

From the opening of its Detroit store in September 1940, Saks Fifth Avenue, has stood for tops in merchandise and service. This month marks the tenth anniversary of the Saks Detroit establishment as well as the completion of its million dollar expansion program. The most recent additions are a new luggage department, which will be located in the men's store and a complete stationery engraving service.

Customer demand has altered the physical structure of the store since its opening in 1940. In November, 1946, Saks, added its very well stocked and well appointed men's department, October 1949 marked the expansion of the children's department which now occupies one-half of the second floor.

The bridal salon and the Regency Room were enlarged at the time of the expansion. The Regency Room houses the designer originals, prominent among them being the gowns of Sophie, who designs exclusively for Saks.

Uniformed attendants who park customer's cars in one of the three ample lots provided, make shopping convenient and effortless for those who drive.

Under the direction of Allan R. Johnson, general manager, the store takes a genuine and constructive interest in civic affairs, limiting its fashion shows to benefit charitable organizations. Currently Saks Fifth Avenue, Detroit, is cooperating with the Women's Committee of the TB and Health Society in presenting the Cinderella Ball which is to take place Saturday, September 23, in the Book-Cadillac. Saks Fifth Avenue is sponsoring a fashion show the evening of the ball.

All eighteen display windows of Saks, decorated with coaches and pumpkins and displaying jeweled ball gowns, will herald the approach of the ball. As Saks windows have always had a national reputation, this ought to be something to anticipate.

Tomato Tossers Lack Discretion

Mrs. Jules J. Van de Ginste of 1301 Maryland observed some boys on August 30 throwing tomatoes at passing automobiles. What was more to the point the tomatoes came from the very attractive garden which the Van de Ginste cultivate across the way from their home.

Mr. Van de Ginste is the popular police officer of the Park police department. Deciding that it was crowding the mourners too far to lambaste cars with tomatoes taken out of a policeman's garden the police quickly stopped the vegetable bombardment.

At 11 o'clock there will be a service of Holy Communion with sermon. At this time the Married Couple Group of Christ Church will present to the chapel two handsome chancel service books.

The congregation of St. Michael's is looking forward to the ground breaking for the new church to be located on Sunningdale drive, the date to be announced in the near future.

Find Stolen Car In Farms Drive

A car stolen in Detroit on the night of August 30 was found the following morning abandoned in the driveway of the A. N. Gardner residence at 355 Moross road. The Gardner notified the Farms police that a 1949 Hudson was in the drive and they had been unable to find anyone in the neighborhood who knew anything about it.

The Farms teletype machine had broken down the night before and was not repaired until Thursday noon, August 31, so the message could not be broadcast. A telephone call to the Detroit police produced the information that the car had been stolen from Alex T. Rose of 4986 Ashley.

Mr. Rose told the Farms police the following day that fishing tackle valued at $150 was missing from the trunk of his car after it was returned to him. The equipment included three poles, a box full of tackle, a flashlight and two hunting knives.

Young Visitor Injured at Play

Carl Banek, aged 8, fell from the top of the slide on the Trombley School grounds on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 2, and hurt himself seriously. He is in Bon Secours Hospital with concussion of the brain, a fractured skull and a broken collar bone.

Carl and his parents are visiting friends at 858 Nottingham, and their home is in Hamilton, Ontario.

Police Round Up Rampaging Kids

A sizable crowd of boys in the 15-16 years age brackets were having themselves a high old time at Maumee and Roosevelt place at 9:25 p.m. on September 2, standing in the way of cars and daring them to run over them.

As a sideline to their activities they broke two lanterns belonging to the Gas company.

The police took seven of them into headquarters, where they were compelled to telephone the gas company telling their names and what they had done, and promising to make restitution for the damage.

With a good lecture by the police they were released, but the escapade is entered against their records in the police department.

Reckless Drivers Fined in Court

Cases handled in Park police court by Judge C. Jos. Belanger on August 23 were:

Elmer M. Houk, 1239 Lakepointe, for entering intersection at Wayburn and Hampton without due care and caution resulting in an accident on July 30, paid a fine and costs of $15.

George P. Kelley, 5951 Balfour, Detroit, for causing a stop street accident at St. Paul and Maryland on July 31, paid a fine and costs of $20.

Henry Ford Prince, 23800 Deziel, St. Clair Shores, for speeding on Jefferson avenue on July 28, paid a fine and costs of $10.

Robert A. Hammer, 20033 Holiday, G. P. Woods, for speeding on Jefferson on July 13, paid a fine and costs of $10.

Ruby B. Nickson, 847 Beaconsfield, charged with reckless driving causing an accident at Wayburn and Hampton on July 30, pleaded not guilty and case was dismissed.

James Patterson Forbes, 4144 Eastlawn, charged with driving into moving traffic, causing an accident at Beaconsfield and Charlevoix on July 31, case was dismissed.

Slugged, Robbed On Park Street

As David Gordon, aged 18, of 24 Craighurst avenue, Toronto, was walking north on Berkshire at Jefferson at 1:45 a.m. on September 4, he was approached by two men coming in the opposite direction.

They passed, one on each side, and at the same time one of them grabbed him and the other struck him with a black jack. They then robbed him of his wallet containing a small sum of money in Canadian and American bills.

He described his assailants as quite similar in appearance. Both were apparently 21-22 years old, about 5 feet 11 inches tall and both wore white shirts.

Refuses to Pay Her Taxi Fare

The Park police received a complaint from the Grosse Pointe Cab company at 4:38 a.m. on August 31 that they had just delivered a woman fare at her home on Westchester who had run up a $6.00 charge and then refused to pay.

The police have had similar complaints concerning the same party several times in the past. They informed the cab company this was a private matter between itself and its fares and the department could not act as a collection agency between the company and its dubious clients.

Two Cars, Truck, In Farms Crash

Two cars and a gas truck figured in a crash at Moross and Kercheval at the afternoon of August 29. There were no personal injuries.

Katharine Zissis of 1060 Bedford, going south on Moross, turned into Kercheval and swerved into a car stopped for the light on Kercheval, driven by Louis Vollmer of 219 McKinley avenue.

After sideswiping the Vollmer car, the Zissis car crashed into a gas truck parked on the north side of Kercheval. The Farms police issued tickets.

NEW LUMBER STOLEN
Claire Sherry told the Farms police that someone had stolen lumber from a new home he is building at 334 Kerby road, some time prior to September 1.

Henderson Raps State's Waste

Harry Henderson, candidate for Lieutenant-Governor, lashed out at state governmental waste. "Tax dollars are going down the drain," he charged, because the present Democratic administration doesn't know, or doesn't care to learn, modern business methods and economies.

Henderson, lone Republican member of the three-man Liquor Control Commission, cited the case of Gen. Louis Kunzig as an example. Kunzig, director of the Commission, was ousted from his post by Democrat commission members. His ouster was upheld by Gov. Williams.

"The reason given for Kunzig's firing," Henderson said, "was to save his $10,000 salary. But he was saving the state and its citizens hundreds of thousands of dollars as a good businessman."

"When they play politics at a public cost like that, it is high time to make a change."

Air Force Gets Scouts' Leader

Boy Scout Troop 546, Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, will lose its Scoutmaster when George R. Mell goes on active duty with the Air Force on Friday, Sept. 8.

Mr. Mell, who has headed the troop since its formation last January, has been ordered to report for duty at Scott Field, Belleville, Ill., on that date. He served with the Air Force in the European Theater during World War II.

Richard Q. Studer will be acting Scoutmaster during Mr. Mell's absence. Serving as his assistants will be Samuel Toepel and Fred Olmsted.

The troop has been promised a full schedule of outdoor activities during the fall. These activities will begin with a day hike on Saturday, Sept. 9.

An overnight trip to Grindstone City, at the tip of the Thumb, is scheduled for the week-end of Sept. 23-24.

A Court of Honor is being planned for late in September. "We want to assure the boys," Mr. Studer said, "that Troop 546 is going to provide the greatest possible amount of activities and fun, with the emphasis on the outdoor program."

"We are asking that every member report for troop meetings regularly, now that summer vacations are over. We also have room for more boys 11 years old or more who want to get into the Scout movement. They may make application at the church when the troop meets on Thursday nights."

Pointe Artists Win Fair Prizes

A top award of $100 in one of the two divisions of the Michigan State Fair Art Exhibition has been won by Adena M. Wright of 30 Beverly road, Grosse Pointe Farms. Her oil painting "Cat's Cradle" won the prize.

"Lakeside Mass." water color done by Ernest William Scanes of 281 McKinley avenue, Grosse Pointe Farms, won a third prize for him in this class.

Blaze Destroys Car In Garage

A cigaret was blamed for a fire which did $1,000 worth of damage on August 30 to a 1949 Ford owned by William Farr of 319 Kercheval avenue. The car was in the garage when the blaze was discovered at 4:45 a.m.

Farms firemen extinguished the fire. They were called back to the Farr home again at 5:33 a.m. when smoke was discovered inside the house. It was found that smoke from the car fire in the garage had leaked through into a closet.

HUBCAP STOLEN
Elmer Holke of 405 Roland road, told the Farms police someone had stolen a hubcap from his 1950 Ford on the night of August 29.

Siegel's Plans Fashion Show For Teen-Agers

There is wonderful news in store for all Detroit teen-agers. Under the sponsorship of the B. Siegel Co., final arrangements have been completed for the giant charity teen-age fashion and talent show. "Teens About Town," to be held at 9:30 a.m. on Saturday, September 16, at the Michigan Theater.

Staged and produced by the teens themselves under the direction of J. L. Hosier of Redford High School, the show has been carefully planned, not only to provide young Detroiters with a preview of what's new in teenage styles but with an entertaining morning as well. Detroit's top young talent is included in the program and the Fenby-Carr Sextette, a recent winner of the schools' musical instructors will provide the music.

The latest in fall styles will be modeled by representatives of Detroit High Schools, with men's wardrobes being furnished by Whalings. Also featured in the show will be a famous teen movie star, who will be brought in by Photoplay Magazine. Numerous prizes will also be offered by Photoplay as well as entire wardrobes by Whalings and the B. Siegel Co.

The entire proceeds of this show, the first of its kind to be entirely done by teen-agers, will go to the National Cerebral Palsy Fund by which Bob Hope is president. Tickets for this show are priced at 42 cents plus tax, and may be secured by writing the B. Siegel Co., 1075 Woodward, or 6375 W. Seven Mile Road, including name, address, telephone number, school and grade.

Divers Reasons Influence Police

Boys are the usual offenders against the ordinance which prohibits swimming on the Park lakefront at all points except the municipal park, but Saturday afternoon a resident phoned in that three girls were swimming at the foot of Trombley.

On investigation the police found three attractive young ladies, appropriately attired in bathing suits, who were busily diving and hunting for something on the shore bottom. They told the police that one of them had lost a key and they were diving hoping to find it.

The police gave them the grace of a few more dives and then advised them to give up the quest.

Durant Sums Up Platform; Requests Everyone to Vote

During the last week of the campaign, Richard Durant, candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from the 14th District, has consistently urged a heavy turnout in the primary election on Tuesday, September 12. Speaking at meetings held all over the district, Durant, a veteran of six years service in the army and a successful small businessman, pointed out that unless citizens vote in the primaries, they are faced with the necessity at the General Election of voting for two candidates they had no hand in selecting.

"Under our system," Durant said, "all candidates must pass through the gate of the primary election before they can appear on the final ballot. Because most citizens seem to feel the primaries are not important, only a small number vote. As a result, those who neglect to vote September 12 may find themselves faced with a choice between two candidates, neither of whom they especially reish.

"The only way in which we can ever have good government is through the action of an alert citizenry. In our district there are approximately 240,000 registered voters. It will be an unusual primary if more than 60,000 vote. In other words, the vote of the man or woman who goes to the poll on September 12 will count almost 3 or 4 times as much as the vote of someone who only makes a choice in November.

"I have tried to state my position clearly and without quibbling on every issue, whether my conviction is politically popular or not. I am against socialized medicine because I know it means in the end more expense for poorer care, and an actual increase in the death rate; I am against 'pork barrel' bills because we cannot afford to waste our resources now of all times; against farm subsidies because they mean higher prices for us to pay, more control of the farmer's life, and less production; against FEPC because in a free society men must have the freedom to choose their own associates, whether they make mistakes or not, and that the only permanent cure for the discrimination (which is bad) we have today is a long range one, involving a gradual increase in tolerance on both sides — a compulsory law is not the answer; against high taxes until every effort has been made to cut unnecessary spending — to include the Hoover report, slicing the civilian budget back to the levels of 1946, and elimination of farm subsidies; against unlimited power to union bosses because in a free society no one group should have power over others; against rent control in peace-time because controls of any sort increase the demand, while lowering the supply, thus perpetuating the very shortages they are supposed to correct; against leaving foreign affairs in the hands of men who got us into this mess because within four short years it has become apparent that we have lost the peace despite winning the war; and against an all-powerful Federal Government.

"I am for drastically lower spending — we have lost, you and I, the freedom to spend one third of our income now, since it goes to the government in taxes; for an extension of voluntary health insurance; for investigation of Communists because I know where there's smoke there's fire — and the men who backed Alger Hiss will never convict themselves; for cutting taxes because, paradoxical as it sounds, this stimulates the economy and actually brings in more revenue; for making anti-monopoly laws apply to everyone in this country, including unions, because I believe in equality before the law; for a balanced budget be-

Safety Campaign To Protect Kids

An intensive child traffic accident prevention program, timed to coincide with the return of children to school, will be launched Friday, September 1, in Detroit and throughout Michigan.

Objective of the program will be to alert both drivers and parents to the increased dangers of traffic in order to safeguard the lives of children more effectively during this hazardous return-to-school period.

General theme of the program is — WATCH OUT FOR KIDS. This will be highlighted in billboards, street-side posters, newspaper articles and advertisements, leaflets, television programs and in other media.

Major Detroit oil companies and dairies will join with the Detroit Police Department and the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit in promoting the program in the Metropolitan area. The Michigan State Safety Commission, Michigan State Police and local police chiefs will conduct the program in other areas in Michigan.

More than 4,200 children were killed or injured in Michigan in motor vehicle accidents in 1949, records of the Michigan State Police show. Of this total, 2,010 were struck down in Detroit.

Starting Friday, oil companies will erect posters on more than 150 billboards showing a little girl running between parked cars into the street, the most dangerous thing a child does. This vivid five-color poster, carrying the caption "Watch Out For Kids," will also be reproduced on 4,500 gasoline station poster boards and on 1,300 street-side standards of the Traffic Safety Association.

Efforts of the oil companies are being spearheaded by the Michigan Oil Industry Information Committee. John W. Southworth, division manager of Shell Oil Company, is chairman of the group heading up the committee's child safety program. This committee was requested to participate in the program by the Traffic Safety Association and the Michigan State Safety Commission.

The world is old, and can have changed but little since men arose in it, else man himself would have perished. — George Santayana.

One In Three End in Divorce

Michigan's divorce rate has dropped one-half in the past three years, but in 1949 there was still one divorce for every 3.3 marriages in the state, the Michigan Department of Health reported.

While 10.2 out of every 1,000 Michigan people were divorced in 1946, only 5.1 out of every 1,000 were divorced in 1949. Divorces, which declined from a peak of 29,158 in 1946 to 16,017 in 1948, were up to 16,274 in 1949.

Michigan's marriages were continuing a downward trend which followed the war-created 1946 peak of 78,808 marriages. In 1949, only 53,109 marriages were performed. While 27.6 people out of every 1,000 undertook marriage in 1946, only 16.7 out of every 1,000 undertook marriage in 1949.

Benedict's Annual Party Taken Over by His Ushers

The Peck home on Lake Shore road was the scene of a Labor Day party given by Joe Lackey, Glenn Friedt and Frank Peck.

Guests of honor at the afternoon affair were Rick Keller and his wife, the former Bev McClellan. Rick had entertained annually at a similar holiday cocktail party. The trio of hosts, who were ushers at the Feb. 4 Keller-McClellan wedding, turned the tables this year.

Michigan Mirror

By GENE ALLEMAN

Illustrating the A-1 problem of Michigan governments since Pearl Harbor is this personal story of how your "Michigan Mirror" writer in 1940 invested $75 to buy a $100 U. S. Defense bond.

That was ten years ago. The bond will come due next month—September. In ten years the value of the investment will have increased 33 1/2 per cent, or about 3 1/2 per cent each year. Our profit in terms of 1940 dollars will be $25.

But what has happened to the purchasing power of the 1940 dollar?

No secret about that. It is worth about 60 cents, probably a bit less.

The loss is $40. Thus, our $75 bond investment of 1940 is going to bring us $60 worth of 1940 dollars. That, ladies and gentlemen, is what inflation has done to Michigan governments and Michigan citizens in the past ten years. By constantly driving down the purchasing power of the dollar, inflation causes a perpetual off-balance. As cost of living goes up, wages must be raised. As wages go higher, prices must go up. It's a senseless merry-go-round at the best.

Our purpose in calling attention to our 1940 investment is not to criticize the buying of government bonds. Our intangible return from that 1940 bond was the priceless right of freedom, our American heritage which you and I would have lost if Germany and Japan had won World War II.

We would like to emphasize one point: The postwar inflation problems of Michigan governments and Michigan people will become WORSE, not better, unless our government at Washington acts immediately to avoid the tragic mistakes of World War II.

Every now and then a voice is heard at Washington which courageously forewarns against the needless price of inflation.

Bernard Baruch, chairman of the 1918 War Industries Board during World War I, has been advisor to two presidents through two world wars. Recently he appeared before the Senate Banking and Currency Committee at Washington. He condemned the Truman plan for priorities over production (without price and wage controls) as an open invitation to more inflation.

Here is a quotation: "It may be argued that the menace of inflation is not so frightful today, since we are not yet at war. Actually, the danger is greater. Today our economy already is operating at full blast, with little or no slack. Our national debt is about 257 billion dollars, about six times what it was when Hitler invaded Poland. Living costs have climbed so high that serious hardship already is being inflicted on many, particularly those with low or fixed incomes.

"Everywhere cities and States are searching desperately for the means of raising the salaries of teachers, firemen, policemen, nurses and others whose real wages have been so cruelly slashed by the inflation of the last 10 years. How much further can our cities and states go and still avoid disaster?"

"The inflation of the last 10 years has undermined the stability of all our colleges, churches, hospitals and other institutions, shrinking the value of endowment funds while raising operating costs.

"It is forcing the reorganization of health insurance and hospitalization plans, raising the cost beyond the capacity of many to pay.

"It is cheapening the real worth of all insurance, all annuities, all savings.

"How much more inflation can our society stand?"

"Price and other controls are often opposed out of fear that such measures will concentrate power in the Government and threaten our freedom. By inclination, I, too, am opposed to Government controls. But the gravest threats to the preservation of the American system today are not Government controls. They are military defeat abroad and further inflation at home."

Mr. Baruch pointed out that the Congressional price control bill of 1942 "legalized inflation" by permitting "wages to run free and farm prices to rise to 110 per cent of parity." The result: "A terrible price" paid by inflation which "added a hundred billions to the cost of the war, needlessly prolonging the conflict, unnecessarily increasing the toll of dead and wounded." That's why our $75 bond of 1940 paid off with only $60.

Tomato Canning Advice Offered

With tomato season upon us, a review of modern methods of preserving that nutritious garden product is offered by Roberta Hershey, extension specialist in foods and nutrition at Michigan State College.

You may use either the hot or cold pack method for canning tomatoes. The hot pack method, of course, makes it possible to get more tomatoes in the jar. Use only perfect, ripe tomatoes. To loosen the skins, dip into boiling water for about one-half minute, then dip quickly into cold water. Cut out stem ends and peel tomatoes.

For the hot pack method, quarter the peeled tomatoes. Bring them to a boil, stirring often. Pack hot in glass jars to one-half inch of the top. Add one-half teaspoon salt to pints or one teaspoon to quarts. Adjust jar lids and process in a boiling water bath at 212 degrees Fahrenheit. Either pints or quarts should be processed 10 minutes. As soon as you remove jars from the canner, complete seals if closures are not of the self-sealing type.

For the cold pack method, leave the tomatoes whole, or cut in halves or quarters. Pack tomatoes to one-half inch of the top of the jar pressing gently to fill the spaces. Add no water. Add one-half teaspoon salt to pints and one teaspoon to quarts. Adjust lids and process in a boiling water bath. Process pint jars for 35 minutes and quarts for 45 minutes. Complete seals if necessary.

You can make your own tomato juice very easily. Prepare tomatoes as for canning and cut in pieces. Simmer until they are softened, stirring often. Put through a strainer and add one teaspoon salt to each quart of juice. Other seasoning may be added. Reheat at once just to boiling.

Pack the boiling hot juice to one-fourth inch of the top of the glass jars. Adjust jar lids and process in a boiling water bath. Process either pints or quarts for 15 minutes.

Fruit Biscuits For Dessert

Whether you call them fruit biscuits or shortcakes, they are a dessert which quickly and temptingly combines flaky biscuits and the season's fruits. Here's all there is to these individual desserts suggested by home economist Reba Staggs. The next time you prepare biscuits make enough extras to serve each member of your family. For the following meal, simply split the biscuits, made extra rich with lard, and spread with butter or margarine. Then top with a hot fruit sauce. The choice — strawberry, blueberry, raspberry, apricot or peach. Touch off with generous scoops of vanilla ice cream and serve immediately.

Dressing Comes in Balls

A good way to serve extra dressing is to form it into balls and bake alongside the roast. This is a good idea for a meat accompaniment, too. Plan the dressing balls to take the place of potatoes or rice.

APPEAL TO MEN:

Someday your family and estate are quite likely to be in Probate Court—and you will not be there. Wouldn't it be nice to know that on that day a woman Probate Judge would be there to give your wife and children the attention and understanding they need at that time?

Someday a child you are interested in may be in Juvenile Court. Wouldn't it be nice to know that a woman Judge and mother was there who could talk understandingly to and help that youngster?

We can't imagine a more divine existence than loving food and looking like MRS. JEWETT DWYER, who was co-author of the cook book, "From Caviar to Cordials" . . . most of us can gain a pound just reading down one of its tempting pages . . .

Have you seen the fetching fall chapeau being worn by MRS. FREDERICK E. HARRIS, JR.? It's bright navy velvet with rolled narrow velvet ribbon banding the crown . . . a pearl ends the soft bow of velvet, at each streamer. The color and velvet are knockout with her lovely gold locks.

While the rest of us are all a little breathless about seeing Irene's complete collection of fashions all at one time (when Starr Commonwealth Auxiliary gives the smashing fashion show Sept. 14 at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club) we are reminded that MRS. J. REX QUEENEY has long worn suits made by the famous California couturier.

PILFERINGS

Charlie Chaplin, who does many things in both his private and business life to disturb the normal course of events, began the procedure early in life:

A "Charlie Chaplin Contest" was held in a theatre in the East. The person who made up to look most like Charlie was to receive a silver cup. There were other awards for runners-up. The quixotic Charlie decided to enter this contest himself. He came in second.

San Francisco and Detroit are reported to be the best marriage cities for a girl. Atlanta and Richmond are the worst. (Vice versa for bachelors.)

According to the latest figures, those strings the Missus leads the Mister around on are purse strings. The average woman spends almost 6 times more than her husband of the money he earns. She buys 62% of all hardware; 84% of drugs; 90% of autos; 98% of household supplies; 77% of sporting goods; 97% of groceries, and 61% of men's haberdashery.

Here's a story to prove that poker isn't an exciting game unless the stakes are worthwhile:

One night a husband arrived home early and found his wife in the arms of a friend. His friend said, "I love your wife and she loves me. I'll play you a hand of poker for her. If you lose I want you to divorce her and I'll marry her. If I lose I promise never to see her again."

"All right," replied the husband, "I'll do it. And how about playing a 25 cent side bet just to make it interesting?"

What are your chances of dying? You can't miss. It's just a question of the cause. The odds are 1 to 5 you will die of heart trouble; 1 in 8 of cancer; 1 in 18 of pneumonia; 1 in 22 of tuberculosis, and 1 in 100 that you will end it all by your own hand. The most interesting figure of all—how many people die of old age—is undetermined.

Pointer of Interest

BONNIE LORANGER OF LAKE SHORE ROAD

Grosse Pointe is saying farewell to another summer, but it can say "hello" to one more competent group of young sailors, thanks to Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's wise training program. Chuck Sorensen and Bonnie Loranger, both 14-year-olds, are the two youngest members in the sailing classes to receive their Skipper's Cards this year.

Instructions given during the summer months consist of 15 lessons. There is no written or oral work; all is practical training. From the beginning, students are taken out in boats for about two lessons a week, depending, of course, on the weather. Classes are limited to three to five students at a time to insure individual attention.

Has Three Lightnings
The club owns three Lightnings (among the most popular sailing craft, these are about 19 feet long), which are used for instruction and are available to members holding Skipper's Cards. George C. Cossaboom of Elm court, chairman of GPYC's Yachting Committee, handles the training program. Jerry Jenkins, a Western Michigan College student who has sailed and raced for eight years, was hired by the yachting committee to teach the sailing classes.

In order to qualify for a Skipper's Card, the youngsters must be able to do everything from getting the boat in and out of the harbor without mishap, to handling the sails, picking up a man overboard, knowing all safety precautions, and docking. Tests for the coveted card consist in each student's taking Cossaboom out in a Lightning, telling him the necessary steps and then sailing the boat.

Dad Helped Teach Her
Bonnie, who has sailed at the club for the past two years, also took sailing last year when she went to camp at Bryn Afon. She became interested in sailing through her father, Dr. Clifford B. P. Loranger, who is a boating fan. In August, just before Bonnie took the sailing exam, Dr. Loranger took her out on

Lucie Taft's Betrothal Told

Lucie Clark-Taft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Taft, of New York City, is betrothed to Willett Meyer, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Meyer.

The bride-to-be is a granddaughter of Emory W. Clark of Lake Shore road, and a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sheldon of East Jefferson avenue. She is a grandniece of the late President William Howard Taft.

Lucie is a graduate of West-Over School in Middlebury, Conn., and Vassar College. She made her debut at the Junior Assembly Ball in New York City in 1942. Her fiance was graduated from Old Farms School in Avon, Conn. He served as a fighter pilot in the United States Naval Air Force during the war.

SERENADERS VANISH
Mrs. Barbara Roseche of 369 Chalrte road told the Farms police that someone had placed lighted firecrackers on her front porch, pushed the doorbell, then fled on the evening of September 3.

Picnic Planned By Cub Scouts

Cub Pack 290's annual picnic will be held at the Grosse Pointe Woods Waterfront Park on Sunday, Sept. 10.
Cubmaster Thomas Dawes said that 200 Cubs, members of their families and friends are expected to attend.

"We're holding the picnic two weeks later this year," he said, "and that means a big crowd because the vacation season is over and children are back in school."

The pack, which holds meetings in Mason School, will gather at the park at noon for a basket luncheon and program lasting until 7 p.m.

A full schedule of games and contests has been planned for the Cubs, younger children and parents. A Father and Son softball game will feature the afternoon.

Prizes will be awarded in all competition. Coffee, ice cream, pop and candy will be furnished. Fred Olmsted is general chairman of the event. He will be assisted by Samuel Toepel.

Other members of the committee are Robert Cousino, Gordon Cameron, Charles Boardman, Walter Russell, Arthur Olson, Noble Tune, William Hill and William Raupagh.

Wilbur McClellan will be games chairman.

Almost daily I'm asked "Do you still have the films of —'s debut party?" or "How long do you keep your films?" All portrait films from which there has been any order and all candid negatives ordered or not, are in our permanent, negative library. These are about the most important item in our studio. Let's list a few times we dig into the film file:

To make engagement announcements, college, passport, or legal identification photos, portraits of business men for trade journals, candid not originally ordered but wanted later, Christmas or other gifts for new friends; or in case of untimely death, or if an important photograph is lost or destroyed.

Elementary school lads and lassies will look like junior editions of their college brothers and sisters, what with the stylish array of back-to-school clothing to be found in JACOBSON'S Youth Center. Cotton plaid shirts and long-wearing corduroy trousers are the latest thing for boys in 3-6 and 4-12 size brackets. Roy Rogers and Hopalong shirts also have top rating. Poplin, wool and corduroy jackets, complete costumes for young gen' men . . . For the young miss (sizes 7-14), JACOBSON'S suggests matchable separates . . . green plaid skirt with long sleeved green wool jersey blouse, or blue plaid jumper, the bodice cunningly laced, for wear with slick white cotton blouses.

Seems like "Old Home Week" at MARIE BIRD'S BEAUTY SALON, with toutes les femmes back from vacations anxious to get hair and nails back in condition after exposure to the drying summer sun and wind. The bronzed leddies exchange vacation tidbits (many of them taking Breck reconditioning treatments under the capable hands of MARIE BIRD'S beauty staff) . . . while members of the college set have locks shorn and shaped for their return to campuses. There's always someone you know in the busy salon atop The Hill on Kercheval, and on these hot September days you'll find it relaxing to visit MARIE BIRD'S air-cooled salon.
