

Vernier School Parents Carry on Fight Against School Board's Half Day Sessions Ruling

 Grosse Pointe and children on half-day sessions at the other. At Vernier the half-days have been meted out to the second grade, with a distinct possibility that the large first grade may also have to be divided.

The obvious correction is the transportation of older children, which would free enough classroom space to accommodate the younger grades. This is what has been done before, since Vernier, unlike Mason School, carries grades above the third.

In 1946, before an addition was built at Vernier, the sixth grade was transported to Defer School to avoid putting younger children on half days. Since then the same sixth grade has been accommodated at Parcels except for hold-over half-term pupils. This year Parcels is filled, and Vernier has bumper first and second grades and no new classrooms. However, instead of again transporting the children to the empty classrooms available, the Board has voted to reinstate the complete sixth grade at Vernier, and to put the second graders on half-days. First grade may have to follow. It would certainly be strange if there were no storm of protest.

a bus shortage. We know however that with constructive cooperation on the part of the Board this problem can be solved. It is not the main issue.

The proposal to keep the sixth grade at Vernier this year originated with three parents: of older children who went before the Board last winter and petitioned that the grade be allowed to remain at Vernier this year because, to quote their spokesman verbatim, bus transportation "makes juvenile delinquents out of the children." They went on their own initiative, and did not represent any group at Vernier School. It may have been unintentional, but the impression was created that they were representatives of the Vernier PTA and it was so recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

Mr. Barnes has answered the protests of the parents of younger children by reminding them that his subsequent action was based in part on a moral obligation to the parents of the older children, the other factor being the bus shortage. We have satisfied ourselves that bus transportation, as we stated above, is available with the help and cooperation of the School Board. And since the parents of the older children were not represented, to our knowledge, save by this self-appointed group of three, we feel that the Board has acted unwisely and without justification.

Every effort should be made to keep Grosse Pointe's educational standards as high as possible under difficult conditions. We feel that the Board has not done this, and we urge the community to support the reopening of the question at the next meeting of the Board of Education. Signed, Mrs. Douglas J. Adair Mrs. Donald S. Crampton Mrs. Robert F. Weber Mrs. Elvin Long Mrs. Howard R. De Vlieg Mrs. Albert Frost Mrs. Frank S. Hedge Mrs. George Miller

In all reasonableness we feel that this is unjust and unwise. Their main material reason for refusing to transport children has been stated over and over again to be

Driver Halted By Red Light Held Up By Armed Bandits

A motorist who stopped for the red light at Moross and Kercheval shortly after midnight on September 11, was held up by two men, one of whom carried a gun.

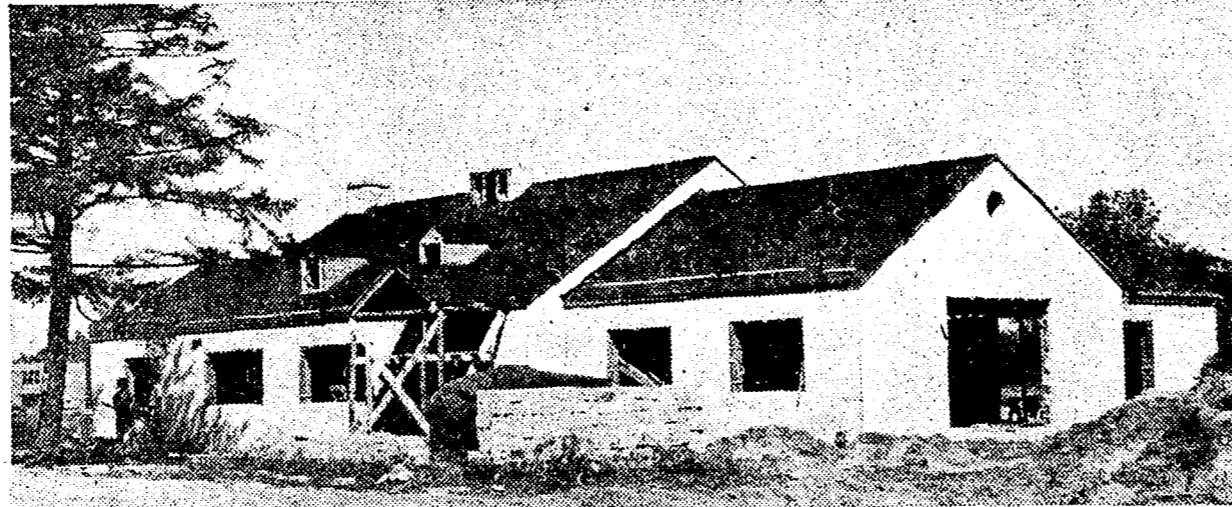

Jack Throop, 26, of 9311 Cheyenne, Detroit, was the victim of the holdup. He told the Farms police the window was down on his car when he stopped for the light. The two men approached and one of them stuck a gun through the window.

He was forced to move out of the driver's seat. One took over the wheel and the other got in the back seat. Obviously familiar with the local terrain, they drove the car to the Country Club parking lot near the caddie house. Throop was ordered to hand over his wallet and get out of the car and start walking. He cut across the golf course to Provençal road, where he telephoned the police from the residence at 93 Provençal. Farms Officers La Ponsa and Backman picked him up in a scout car.

The police found Throop's car abandoned in the parking lot, with the keys in it and his empty wallet on the seat. Apparently the thugs had not wished to take any chances on driving a stolen car. Throop said there was $12 in his wallet before it was emptied.

New Restaurant Nearing Completion

The famous Howard Johnson chain of restaurants which serves the American public throughout most of the nation, will open a brand new unit in this colonial building on Mack avenue near the Woods Recreation Bowling Alleys in the near future.

Gang on High School Grounds Sent Packing

A group of boys who gathered on the high school grounds on the night of September 5 were chased home by the Farms police when they investigated a report that a fight was in progress there.

The police reported there was no fight, but they did discover a small hole in one window of the girls' gymnasium. It appeared to have been made by a stone.

Start 29 More Homes in Farms

Permits for 29 additional new residences in Grosse Pointe Farms were issued by City Engineer Murray Smith during August, bringing the total for the year since January 1 to 236. The new homes slated during the month represent an expenditure of $607,000.

In addition to the permits for new houses, the city also issued a permit for a new market being built on Mack avenue between Kerby and Moross, to cost an estimated $100,000. There were 21 permits for miscellaneous alterations, representing a total value of $17,420.

Since January 1 the value of new residential building in the Farms has been $4,490,000. Commercial building totals $360,000 and 88 miscellaneous permits account for another $104,870, making a grand total for the first eight months of the year of $4,754,870.

World Federalists' Rally To be Addressed by Rouse

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of the United World Federalists has announced that James W. Rouse of Baltimore, Md., has been obtained as the speaker for the big community rally planned for 8:15 p.m. on Friday, September 29 in the War Memorial Center.

Mr. Rouse is president of the Maryland State Branch of the UWF. During World War II he served as personnel director on the staff of the Commander-in-Chief, Pacific. He is an honor graduate of the University of Maryland Law School and founded and is president of the largest mortgage company in Baltimore.

His subject for the rally's main address is expected to be "A Means of Averting World Destruction."

The public is cordially invited to attend the rally.

Hot Rod Driver Nabbed by Police

At intervals of only ten minutes, a young hot rod driver was reported speeding on Labor Day between 12:30 and 12:40 p.m., from 774 Westchester and 644 Pemberton.

The police radio got busy and the fast one was picked up by the Shores police a few minutes later.

In Park Police Court on September 6 John K. Roy, aged 17, of 166 Cloverly, had his case adjourned by Judge Potter for one week to enable his father to be present.

Construction Started On Harbor Hill Home

Construction has been started on the first home to be built in the Harbor Hill section. It will be the residence of Dave Davenport, well known in boating circles.

Several other homes will be started there within the very near future.

Trucks Damage Paves in Woods

Hampton, Hawthorne and Roslyn road in the Woods are paved with a black top type of pavement and these are getting badly torn up by heavy traffic.

At the Woods council meeting on September 5 there was much discussion of this subject and the police department was directed to take steps to prevent the use of them by heavy trucks cutting across back and forth between the lakefront and Mack avenue.

Signs will be erected and the police will be vigilant to prevent such use.

It is understood that this regulation will not interfere with the presence of oil trucks and such heavy vehicles as may have to go on them to service butting properties.

Sept. 19 . . . the 14th annual Bundle Tea and Irving Fashion Show when admission is a bundle of clothes, all contributed to the Neighborhood Thrift Shop.

The latter gala is at Neighborhood House . . . 3 p.m. . . and you'll like to know that Walter Irving has made more than one special trip to New York to arrange for last minute fashions and that his Paris collection will have its first showing come next Tuesday . . .

Open daily, except Sunday and Monday, hours will be 10 a.m. to noon and 2 p.m. to 4 p.m., except on Saturday, when the afternoon finds the shop closed . . . On Thursday evenings you may also visit the Thrift Shop from 7 to 9 p.m.

Rotarians Hear Four Report On Boys State Experiences

A feature of the Rotary Club program at the meeting on Monday in the War Memorial Center was the report made by the four boys from the High School who were sponsored for attendance at the Wolverine Boys State at Lansing.

The boys were William Winkler, Ben Bray, Ernest Allen and Robert Law. They gave a most interesting account of their study of government on the state and local levels at the "State" where 1000 boys get practical instruction in these subjects every year on the Michigan State Campus.

The boys explained the course is so arranged that during the period of their attendance each boy is given a turn at administrative work in government. They said they had been greatly benefited by their work there and had brought back with them a more accurate knowledge of the workings of government and also of the mechanics by which public officials are chosen.

The "Wolverine Boys State" is the name which Michigan gives to its institution which is one of many maintained in practically every state in the Union under the national sponsorship of the American Legion with the cooperation of the state colleges. The practical instruction in the operation of government vastly benefits the coming citizens of the land.

Students at the various 'States' are sent there by many different types of local organizations such as service clubs, patriotic and veterans organizations. Here in Grosse Pointe the local Rotary Club sponsors four boys.

Residents Want Boulevard Lights

If the matter is then decided on the council will proceed with the creation of a special assessment district to pay for the local lighting improvement.

Van Oppens was removed to Bon Secours hospital by City Officers Johnston and Moffat where he was found to be suffering from six broken ribs and a slight concussion of the brain.

Miss Victoria Heffler Hostess At Party to Celebrate Birthday

Young Victoria Heffler was hostess at her first party last Friday afternoon when she celebrated her third birthday anniversary. Viki and her mother, Mrs. M. Ben Heffler, really were co-hostesses since guests included nine members of the sandbox set and their mothers, too.

The fete also included Viki's grandparents, Judge and Mrs. Edward J. Moinet; Mr. and Mrs. H. William Klare, close family friends; Viki's father who recorded the fete in candid camera snapshots, as well as several courtesy aunts of the birthday girl.

The Heffler home on Harvard road was the scene from 3 to 5 o'clock and the focal points of interest for the young fry were swings, a sand box, tricycles and a portable wading pool with huge rubber balls, swans and whales.

One party diversion was a fishing game, catching metal-trimmed plastic fish with tiny magnets on the fishing lines. There were prizes galore and also favors of sand pails, balloons, be-ribboned horns and colored balls.

A merry-go-round cake was the feature at early supper on the terrace. Candles were in the forms of animals, clowns and circus riders, all under a red-and-white-striped canopy. Blue and pink balloons floated to the terrace ceiling over the long table where the young set were seated. Their elders had cocktails and hors d'oeuvres while watching the children's fun.

Small guests and their mothers were Patricia Heffler and Mrs. Pierre Heffler; Patty Shaw and Mrs. Howard A. Shaw; Barbara Wood and Mrs. W.W. Wood; twin sisters Nancy and Elsie Reeves and Mrs. Robert Reeves; Carolyn Ortwein and her aunt, Mrs. Paul I. Moreland; Cynthia Cahn and Mrs. Chester Cahn; Linda Brandt and Mrs. Arthur J. 1950 GPHS Football Team Shows Pre-Season Promise

Will Open Campaign With Non-League Game Against Mt. Clemens This Friday; Coaches Have Plenty of Veterans on Hand

By Fred Runnells

For the first time in a good many years Grosse Pointe High shows good pre-season promise of being a threat in the Border Cities League football race. However, many, many times teams have looked good on the practice field before the season started but didn't live up to advance publicity notices.

One interesting feature about the 1950 squad is that it is the first all-Wernet tutored team to carry the Pointe school's colors into the football wars. The entire squad, except for one boy, Dan Slowe, a transfer from Maryland, has been taught fundamentals for the past four years by Coach Ed Wernet.

4 and 4 Last Year
Last year the Blue Devils wound up the season with a 4

From Another Pointe of View

Garden Tea

If you passed by Lothrop road Sunday afternoon . . . you probably heard the merry echoes of a garden tea as you neared the James Petz home . . .

Mrs. Petz and Geraldine Johns were co-hostesses of the party which complimented Ruth Kuhnlein who will be married Oct. 7 to Mrs. Petz, brother, Irwin O. Morley, son of the Ervin M. Morleys . . .

It was just the right kind of an early Autumn afternoon to gather at the sunken rock gardens of the Petz home . . . and tea was served on the terrace . . .

Among the guests: Mrs. Morley and Mrs. Kuhnlein . . . Mrs. Norwood Loeffler . . . Mrs. Robert Petz . . . Mrs. Robert Haron . . . Mrs. Marie Hamilton . . . Mrs. William Gray . . . Mrs. Raymond Petz . . . Mrs. Otto Johns . . . Mrs. Ted Clark . . . Mrs. Bert Lerchen III . . . Mrs. Charles Lumpkin . . . Mrs. Charles Lumpkin II . . . Mrs. Marion Jacks . . . Mrs. John Manchick and Miss Helen Scheurman . . .

What's In A Name

Now we were interested in the name of the bridegroom-elect . . . Irwin Morley . . . and the name of his father . . . Ervin Morley . . .

And interest is a mild word to use how the Morley family itself feels about the names . . .

All through school days . . . the young man believed himself to be Ervin Morley . . . but the Powers Who Be had registered his name as Irwin . . . a fact learned when he entered the Navy to serve his country . . .

So there's a family legend about it now . . . the son who from the high chair to the navy was Ervin . . . but who became Irwin when he fought for Uncle Sam . . .

Hunter Trails at Metamora

The Pink Coat Set is taking over the coming week-end out there at Metamora when the Hunter Trials will be held . . .

Festivities begin tomorrow evening when a subscription dinner is being held at the Metamora Hunt Club . . . Saturday night the most important social event of the hunting seasons takes shape in the Hunters Ball, preceded by the Trophy dinner when all the guests will wear their pink coats and the ladies will be gowned either in black or white, customary when accompanying a hunt member (for other colors might clash with his stunning attire) . . .

Mrs. Ben Coleman is chairman of the 22nd annual amateur hunter trials . . . Mrs. Laura B. Higbie is secretary with Mrs. Graham J. Graham in charge of entertainment . . . Others on the committee are Mrs. Edgar R. Thom . . . Mrs. James J. Phelan, Jr. . . . William R. Clark . . . Carlton M. Higbie . . . Edward E. Rothman . . . Theodore Gorenflo . . . Edward C. Parker . . . Reese Howard . . . J. Deane Rucker . . . George Gagnier, Jr. . . . and Charlotte Nichols . . .

Hunt Float ((NOT A Drink))

There's to be a parade Saturday when second and third grade school tots . . . (the children in pink coats) . . . appear with a complete hunt scene on a float (with which they look prizes earlier in the Summer) . . .

The children . . . under direction of their teacher . . . Mrs. George Thompson . . . made the float themselves, working on the project since last February . . .

Judge of the trials . . . Everett L. Crawford of Millbrook, N. Y. . . will be the guest of Mrs. Edward P. Hammond at her Metamora lodge for the week-end . . . and among hunt parties planned are the luncheon the Charles Pierces will give at Fox Covert Farm on Sunday . . . and the cocktail party the Harold R. Boyers have planned for Sunday afternoon . . . at Helter Shelter . . .

Bernard Hopper Visit

Former Pointers, the Bernard E. Hoppers are coming on from their Winnetka, Ill., home to be with the W. R. Clarks for the week-end . . . and that'll make it seem like old times at Metamora where not so long ago Bernie was definitely a part of the local scene . . . (Mrs. Hopper's father is judge of the trials) . . .

Edward C. Parker is to be show announcer . . . and Mrs. Reese Howard, now adept at arranging cupboards neatly as part of her wifely chores should shine as chairman in charge of parking space . . .

Even the juniors have had a hand in the week-end . . . posters to advertise the trials were done by Mary Meade, Florence, Ellen and Ann Phelan, Mary and Ann Thom . . .

Post deb Helen Parker drew diagrams and painted flags to mark the course . . . Edward C. Parker, Jr., and Peter Whitman will preside at the soft drink stand . . . and still others will be selling programs, running messages to the judge's stand, etc. . . .

The Metamora Hunter Trials always attract a large Grosse Pointe gallery . . . so we hope we see you there . . .

Coach Not Crying Over St. Paul's Inexperienced Football Squad

By Fred Runnells

St. Paul's coach, Eddie Lauer, isn't bemoaning the fact he has a small, inexperienced football squad this year for he can look back on the 1949 season when his school tied for the East Side second division Parochial title with St. Martin.

Last year Lauer had an all veteran team and as all good things must come to an end it has this year at the little school on Grosse Pointe boulevard, seventeen lettermen are missing this season leaving only four letter winners returning to carry the load. Duane Streb, Jack Trombley, Dave Sherwood and Tom Berg will be the mainstays of the Flyer outfit when it opens its 1950 season against De La Salle in a non-league nocturnal contest on the opponent's beautiful home field. Last year St. Paul helped dedicate the De La Salle Field and almost upset their first division opponents. The bigger team finally wore the smaller St. Paul team down and won out in the final stages of the game.

Coach Lauer is hoping against hope that he can have his small squad of 35 hopefuls whipped

Has Big Job

Wernet can almost field an all-veteran team against the Bath-ers with the exception of two positions. The center spot is the biggest question mark. Bulky Jim Schoeck quite probably will get the starting assignment Friday night and he realizes he has a man-size chore to perform in filling the big shoes left vacant when Bayard Johnson completed his high school football career last fall. By the most difficult task of anyone on the squad because Pointe followers still freshly remember the great deeds performed by Johnson and will be comparing Schoeck's play with Johnson's.

Scramble for Ends

Graduation left the team stripped of left ends and there is a mad scramble for this wide open spot. Lanky six foot five inch Mud McCullough appears to have the inside track for the job but he lacks experience.
