(Continued from Page 1) mishap. It was then learned that Prudence had taken the wrong bus from the front of old Kerby School. In one she should have taken would have dropped her off practically at her front door. It is presumed that when she saw the bus was not going, to take her any closer to home, she made a dash for the door just behind two boys who were getting off at the same stop. The bus driver, not accustomed to having a little girl get off at that stop, was paying no attention and shut the door as soon as the boys had gotten out. Brien said he was not even aware that Prudence had gone through the door. Brien's record is an excellent one and he is very popular with the youngsters. Prudence's parents said they did not care to prosecute and the police have called the case an unavoidable accident.

Community Club Extends Program

The Grosse Pointe Community Club, a Red Feather agency, has extended its program of recreation and informal education to neighborhoods in the Woods and Shores that are not within walking distance of the club.

At a meeting held recently in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferis, plans were formulated for a club program of boys and girls, ages 7-12. Some of the parents present expressed special interest in club activities for those children who attend school only half a day.

The Community Club is prepared to provide professional and volunteer club leaders under the supervision of Mrs. Jane Costabile, director. Some of the parents indicated a need for children's clubs, programming for teen-age girls, a social class in dancing for adults and a nursery for pre-school children.

Present at the meeting were: Mrs. Albert Frost, Mrs. Frank Hedge, William Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jefferis, Mrs. Mark Kalin, Mrs. T. C. Marbut and Mrs. George Miller.

Observe UN Day At High School

All senior history classes at Grosse Pointe High School celebrated United Nations Day on October 24. Some held class discussions while others used film strips to highlight the occasion.

Miss Leonia Weier appointed chairman in her history V and VI classes. They selected committees and chose topics for discussion.

Diana Nylund, George Beauchamp, Paul Jones, and Patti Jones, 12B's were the chairmen. Diana's committee wrote a newspaper on branches of the U.N. and drew posters showing what the U.N. does.

Paul Jones committee had a debate on whether the U.N. is successful or not. Patti Jones divided her committee into three groups. One group discussed the history of the U.N., and the third prominent men in the U.N.

Merlin Schultz, history teacher, had special reports about the U.N., by the boys who went to Lake Success with John Lake last year. His classroom displayed large posters and booklets about the U.N.

Emphasis in the discussions was placed on what is happening in Korea and its effect on the U.N.

Mr. Hazel Morse's history classes examined the U.N. Charter and saw a film strip on the U.N. Other history classes talked about the U.N. in their usual current event discussions.

Pierce School Library Club Will Hold Book Exhibition

In conjunction with National Book Week, the Pierce Junior High School Library Club will have on display many new books purchased for the library this year.

To aid in the acquisition of new books for the school library, the students of the last semester's 9A classes donated to the library a sum of $125, the proceeds of a 9A carnival held in the spring of this year.

As has been the custom in the past, the household arts department will make and serve the dainty refreshments during the exhibit.

All parents of the Pierce Junior High School students and any others interested are cordially invited to visit the school library on November 15, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

There will also be an opportunity for those attending the exhibit to meet one of our prominent Grosse Pointe children's authors, Miss Elizabeth Howard, author of "Adventure for Alison," "Dorinda," "Summer Under Sail," and "North Winds Blow Free."

Invents Novel Fire Escape

Inventor of Automatic Fire Escape System Tells Secret

The secret is out on John Peterson's automatic fire escape ladder and alarm system which went off prematurely one recent evening and brought a crowd of more than 50 excited, curious Lincoln road neighbors into the street.

At the time police and firemen of the City of Grosse Pointe could give no explanation for the untimely fire alarm at Mr. Peterson's home at 956 Lincoln.

Reporter Visits Home

A visit to the Peterson home by a News reporter uncovered the following facts. Mr. Peterson has been working on his automatic fire door, ladder and alarm system with his son Bob for the past six years, because he felt he could come up with a fool proof idea for an escape route for people trapped in flaming buildings. Reading about disastrous hotel fires gave the inventor the incentive to develop his brain child.

Explains System
Mr. Peterson took the reporter through his home, explaining the elaborate system in detail. He also explained why his invention had become active for no apparent reason.

The all metal door which is hinged to the second floor wall in one of the bedrooms contains a maze of electrical equipment and an all metal ladder which is controlled automatically by a thermo plastic wire which fuses together at 150 degrees Fahrenheit and sets the escape machinery in motion. The door swings open and the ladder unfolds from the door's interior.

Altogether Mr. Peterson has 75 feet of this wire throughout his home and he says no matter how long the wire is it will work. It can even be run to the garage.

Hits Smoke Pipe

The reason the elaborate system went off prematurely was because the thermo plastic wire had dropped down on the smoke pipe of the gas heater which caused it to fuse and set off the alarm, opening the door and sending the metal ladder clanking down to the ground. The inventor says the door will hold a 52 foot ladder which is long enough for a five story building.

Mr. Peterson owns the S. P. K. company, a machine shop, where he and his son, a Grosse Pointe High graduate, manufactured most of the parts contained in the invention. He says he is a "Jack of all trades and master of none" but has a diploma from the Institute of Languages in Constantinople, Turkey. He also studied geology, building and mechanical engineering at the University of Michigan.

Mr. Peterson says his fire escape system could be built and installed in a home for approximately $500. He plans to manufacture more of them in the near future.

Pointers Boost Phoenix Project

At a meeting of the University of Michigan's Phoenix Project campaign leaders held in Ann Arbor recently, Glenn M. Coulter, Grosse Pointe attorney and General Campaign Chairman for Metropolitan Detroit, presented a check for $150,000 to University President Alexander G. Ruthven.

The check represents the total amount raised in the Greater Detroit area toward the national goal of $6,500,000. To date $800,000 has been contributed by Michigan alumni everywhere to finance the establishment of an atomic research center at Ann Arbor.

Of the $150,000, Grosse Pointe contributed $45,000 under the chairmanship of Harry Hogan and Dr. Marion M. Sheaffer.

Private Gates to City Park Pose Problem for Council

The issue of private gates, Yes or No, to the City's municipal park, is as far as ever from final settlement. The city attorney had been instructed to draw up an ordinance dealing with the matter, by prohibiting the practice of having private entrances and providing penalties for violation of its provisions.

He prepared such an ordinance but it met with so many objections and varying viewpoints that it had been laid on the table at the September meeting for further consideration.

On October 24 Councilman Chester Carpenter, chairman of the Park Committee, called it up for action and moved its adoption. Again the same torrent of questions was raised. Its enforceability was questioned, as was the justice of the measure to the several residents on the west side of the park who had long enjoyed this special privilege and a thousand and one varying angles of the problem were repeated.

Finally Mr. Carpenter made a motion that it be laid over again until the next meeting and that each council member should come to the meeting prepared with his own particular amendment and that they declare their purpose to pass or reject it then. This motion was adopted with an audible sigh of relief.

Woman Injured In Suicide Leap

A young divorcee who had a falling out with a boyfriend attempted to end her life by taking 15 sleeping pills and leaping through a second story window in Grosse Pointe Park Friday afternoon, October 27. Enroute to Bon Secours Hospital, the ambulance collided with a car at Jefferson and Bedford and the woman was transferred to a second police car.

Grosse Pointe Park Detective Sgt. Stanley Enders identified the woman as a resident of Pickney, Mich. She suffered head and internal injuries. She jumped from 15016 Mack above Emil's Cafe, where she was visiting friends.

Ben Soskin, owner of the cafe, was standing under the window and broke her fall. Enders said that she had recently been released from the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium where she had been a patient for three years.

L. Malcomb, 24, of Craigs ville, Va., who was visiting relatives on Grayton, was fined $25 for reckless driving, Enders said. The driver of the car, Gerald

Durant Reveals Novel Plan For Reporting to District

In reply to a questionnaire sent him by the Detroit Teachers Association, Richard Durant, Republican candidate for Congress from the 14th District, revealed his plans for keeping in close touch with his district if he is elected. The Detroit Teachers Association asked Durant: "If elected, what steps would you take to confer with our representatives who might wish to talk our problems over with you?"

Durant, in his reply, said that the problem of close communication between any elected official and his constituents is vital for true representative government. Adding that he had given considerable thought to the problem, he went on to say, "I intend to form a committee which will be made up of representatives from all groups in the community. Since I expect to be every-body's Congressman, if elected, this committee will not be confined to Republicans alone; nor will it make any difference to me whether the groups to be represented on such a committee were for me in the election or against me."

It is Durant's idea that all organized groups be invited to send representatives to form this committee, and that it meet regularly once a month. At these meetings Durant would keep his mouth shut while the members told him what they thought of his conduct in Congress and what problems they had on their minds. If it is necessary to come back from Washington while Congress is in session, Durant said in his reply to the questionnaire that he thought such a committee important enough to make the special trip.

"In conjunction with the work of such a committee," Durant said, "I intend to report regularly to the people of our district as to what I have been doing in Congress, and in such a meeting (which would get as wide publicity as possible beforehand) there would be ample time for questions from the floor whether they are embarrassing to me or not."

Christmas Fair to Help Build New Church

Prominent among those planning the annual event which will be held in the St. Clare School Auditorium at Whittier and Charlevoix on November 14 and 15, and on the 16th for the children, are, left to right: MRS. EDWARD SCHOTT, Christmas Booth Chairman; MRS. ALOIS J. BIEKE, JR., General Chairman, and MRS. CARL NILSON, Co-Chairman.

The Christmas Fair of the St. Clare de Montefalco Church at Whittier and Charlevoix will be held on November 14, 15 and 16.

All sorts of booths have been planned by the ladies of the parish to help those attending select just the right gift for any member of the family.

For the lady of the house there is the apron booth with many unusually pretty as well as practical aprons to offer. Mrs. Leslie Ressingue of Three Mile drive is chairman of this booth.

For the man with a sweet tooth there is the Home Cooking and Baked Goods Booth. Mrs. Walter Wessell of Nottingham, chairman of this booth, states that all kinds of delicious baked goods as well as choice homemade preserves, fruits and jellies will delight her customers.

For the children, Mrs. Leon Ver Haeghe of Buckingham, has the doll booth. All types of toys from dolls to musical animals are there to delight the heart of any child. For the whole family there is the White Elephant booth. Mrs. Alois Ptach of Grayton, has been fortunate in obtaining many lovely paintings, some old china and silver, and many articles that promise to keep the crowds right at her booth.

Of course there will be a fish pond filled with games, books and novelties. Mrs. J. V. Termini of Nottingham is chairman of this booth. Mrs. E. J. Farrell of Kensington is chairman of the Handwork booth with beautiful gifts of all kinds.

Genevieve Nutto Has Fine Record

Mrs. Genevieve Nutto, resident of Grosse Pointe Park and successful candidate for the Republican nomination for State Representative, in the recent Primary, has the support and endorsement of thousands of friends, of both sexes and outstanding civic veteran, and fraternal groups in her drive for election next Tuesday. She has been given preferred rating by the Detroit Citizens' League.

Mrs. Nutto has lived in the 14th Congressional District with her husband Frank and son Frank, Jr., since coming to Detroit and has been named to the Executive Board of the Wayne County Women's Republican Club for 14 consecutive years.

She managed the recent successful campaigns of Detroit Councilman Charles G. Oakman. In 1936-1937, she was secretary to George A. Prescott, Jr., manager of the Michigan State Fair.

For the past six years she has been hostess for the Wayne County Republican Committee and in the American Legion she holds the office of Community Service Chairman of the Detroit District Association.

During the war, Mrs. Nutto organized a Red Cross Unit in Grosse Pointe Woods. She was also an ardent worker in the Motor Corps.

Rabaut Clan Does OK...

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON—The taxpayers don't know it, but they are paying for the honeymoon of a Congressman's daughter. She is Mrs. Jules de Porre, daughter of Democrat Congressman Louis Rabaut, of Grosse Pointe Park, Mich.

Carolyn was the last in a line of daughters who worked as Congressman Rabaut's secretary. But she quit to get married shortly after Easter, and became Mrs. Jules de Porre on July 8. Despite this, she has continued to draw $643.33 a month.

While the Congressman's daughter draws her salary, her job is taken by Marion B. Lacey, who is paid $331.71 per month by the House Appropriations Committee. Very conveniently, the committee "loaned" her to Rabaut to handle "committee business." She is not on his regular pay roll.

When queried by this column, Rabaut explained that his daughter never quit working for him, but just shifted to his Detroit office. Actually, this explanation doesn't hold up.

For the Congressman didn't open an office in Detroit until Congress recessed the last week of September.

A further check by this column in Detroit indicates that Mrs. De Porre hasn't been working for her father as his Congressional secretary at all.

Mrs. de Porre also told this column that she returned to work here between Easter and her July 8 wedding day, but a check at the House Office Building revealed this was not true.

The real truth is that Congressman Rabaut gave his daughter a $643.33-per-month wedding gift—at the taxpayers' expense.

To Be Featured at Congregational Church Fair

A flurry of activity and excitement prevails at the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, 240 Chalfonte avenue, as the finishing touches are added to the merchandise and arrangements for the annual Holiday Fair to open in the social hall of the church at 10 o'clock on Friday, Nov. 10. The general decorative scheme will be "Pennsylvania Dutch."

At the Doll House will be found all the exquisite clothes and accessories for which this group is famous. Gift seekers will find some dolls completely dressed as brides, bridesmaids, fairies, ballet dancers, nurses, and sport enthusiasts. Hopalong Cassidy makes his appearance this year to keep the doll family quite up to date. Mrs. Harry Wade and her committee work all day to supply the demand for doll luxuries.

The Antique Shop, new this year, will be of special interest to artists who are looking for authentic tin scoops, dippers, sconces, candle holders and wall brackets for reproducing old Tole ware. There are some fine original early American pieces and some excellent reproductions including glass, china and furniture.

The Paint Pot is displaying a notable collection of hand painted trays, snack buckets, baskets, canisters and glasses. Mrs. Paul Mathewson, co-chairman with Mrs. Howard Poppen, and her gifted committee have come up with designs to attract a particular interest from the horticulturist to the fisherman. There are some low wooden sleds to be filled with flowers or little packages for the holiday table.

The Children's Fair on Saturday, Nov. 11, will delight all the young people. There they can do their Christmas shopping, for they will find gifts for their family and friends at prices to fit a student's budget. They will find entertainment and refreshments for themselves, too.

The always popular Pantry Shop, Apron Booth, White Elephant Booth, Print Shop, Knit Shop and Candy Shop will have special attractions. The Garden Shop will feature special decorations. There will be a snack bar open all day to provide refreshments for the happily weary.

Mrs. William Browne is general chairman. Mrs. Russel Tripp is assistant chairman.

The Doll House Committee includes Mrs. Harry Wade, Mrs. H. T. Snowday, Mrs. Fred Slocum, Mrs. Edgar Hahn, Mrs. Don T. Lester, pictured with the dolls above, Mrs. R. W. Crawford, Mrs. Abram Brown, Mrs. D. C. Clark and Mrs. George Waldbott.

Marvelous Toys Ready for Xmas

Many of Grosse Pointe's small fry will be mighty happy with the toys they'll receive this Christmas, according to Toy Guidance Council, Inc. The American toys produced this year show more ingenuity in design than ever before.

For example, there are dolls with changing facial expressions, musical carpet sweepers, electric chromatic organs, fire engines with realistic mechanical detail and many, many more outstanding toys.

The store selected by Toy Guidance Council in this area, is the Punch and Judy Toyland, 71 Kercheval avenue. Children and parents alike can get free copies of the Toy Yearbook at the Punch and Judy Toyland and see all of these toys for themselves.

The Toy Guidance Council is an independent organization whose object is to direct the attention of parents to the functional play advantages of all better-grade American toys.

Durant Dead Against Socialized Medicine

Richard Durant, Republican candidate for Congress in the 14th Congressional District, today released a copy of his reply to a questionnaire from the Michigan State Medical Society asking his views on socialized medicine.

Durant, 32-year-old veteran of World War II who has throughout his campaign been saying exactly what he thought on any issue whether politically popular or not, was equally forthright in his condemnation of socialized medicine.

Dr. T. W. Baumgarten Claims Flint Bride

Weds Catherine Campbell Smith in First Presbyterian Church in Ann Arbor; Will Make Home in Pittsfield Village

Dr. Thomas William Baumgarten, son of Dr. and Mrs. Elden C. Baumgarten of Windmill Pointe drive, claimed Catherine Campbell Smith as his bride Saturday evening at an 8 o'clock service in Ann Arbor's First Presbyterian Church.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Smith, of Flint, chose a gown of white chiffon velvet, the neckline accented in chantilly lace. Her veil fell from a lace and velvet cap, and she carried a fan-shaped bouquet of white roses, Pinocchio chrysanthemums and white orchids.

Mrs. James Smith, matron of honor, wore a rust velvet frock. Bridesmaids, Mrs. Clark Herrington, of Mt. Clemens; Marilyn Page, of Battle Creek, and Patricia Baumgarten were in deep green velvet. All had velvet headpieces and carried oak leaves and chrysanthemums.

Dr. Baumgarten served as his son's best man. Ushers included Dr. Marvin Bonzelaar, of Holland, Mich.; Dr. H. Ross Hume, of Ann Arbor; Dr. T. S. Painter, of Houston, Tex.; James and Robert Smith, of Flint, and John Corbett.

Grey crepe and chantilly lace were Mrs. Smith's choice for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Baumgarten wore pale lime green lace.

A reception in the church parlors followed the wedding. When the pair left on a motor trip to the Smoky Mountains, Mrs. Baumgarten was wearing a green wool outfit with dark brown accessories.

They will live in Pittsfield Village while the doctor is a resident on the staff at University Hospital in Ann Arbor.

Woods Presbyterian Church Women to Hear Book Review

"The Thirsty Oak" by M. Janet Becker will be reviewed by Mrs. Fred Hauck, on Wednesday, November 8, at 1:15 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Miss Becker is a well known English essayist and poet. "The Thirsty Oak" is her first novel and reports are that it is being well received.

The greatest of faults, I should say, is to be conscious of none.

Your Torch Drive Gift Makes This Possible

Hunt Club Holds Halloween Party

Grosse Pointe Hunt Club juniors stole a march on the ghosts and goblins by staging their Halloween party on Saturday evening, October 28, in the clubhouse. More than 50 young people joined in the festivities which included movies, games, dancing, singing and noise-making galore. Cider, doughnuts and apples were served.

Susan Denler, who is activities chairman of the younger division of the Hunt Club Juniors, headed up the party-planning group. She was assisted by Karen Christensen and Judy Baldwin, decorations; Susan Mulford and Lucy Bryan, music; Billy Denler and Julie Cudlip, games. Susan's general assistant for the season is Freddie Ollison.

Mary Mulford, who has been named season activities chairman for the older Hunt Club Juniors is being assisted by Janet Widerman. Also on the committee are Nancy Ruedemann, Lauren Edgar, Nancy Maxwell.

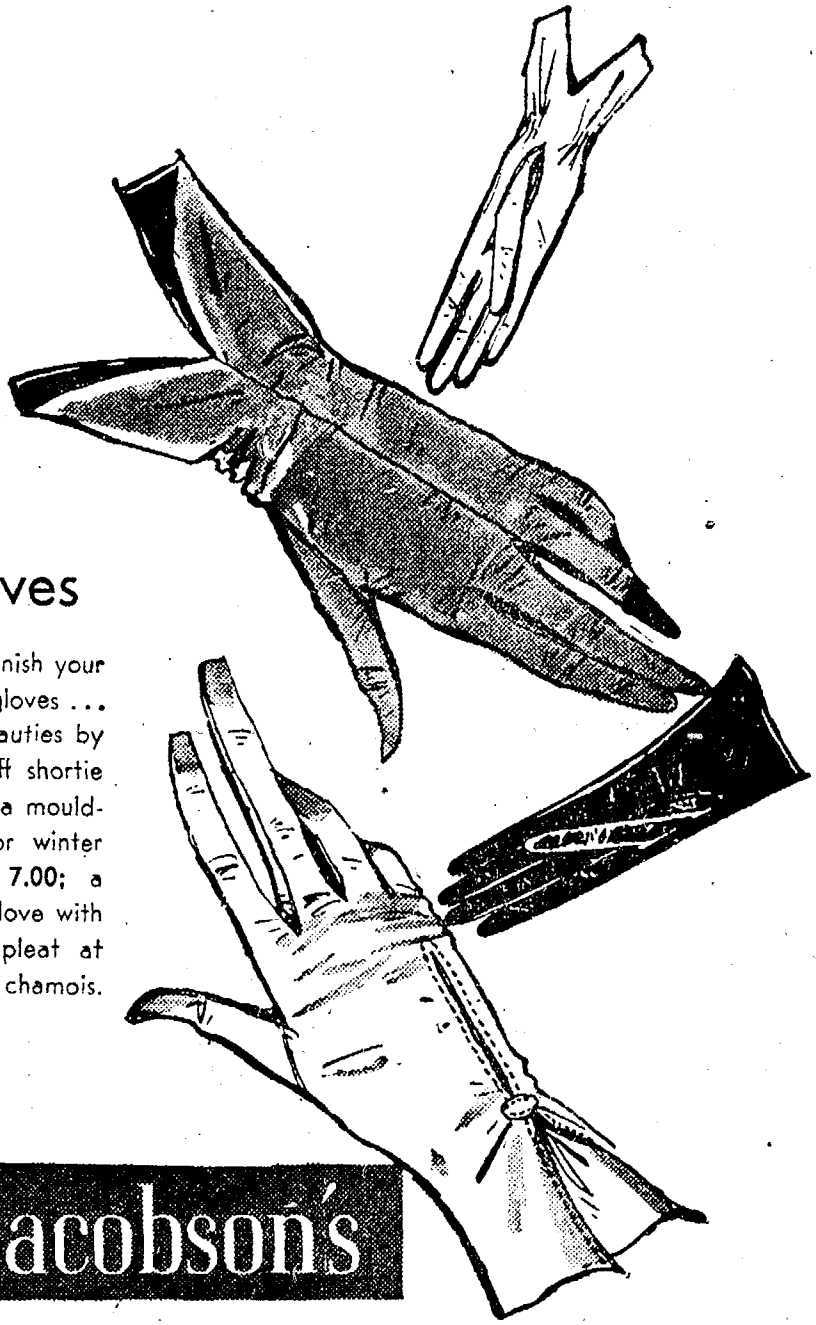

Mrs. R. Edmund Dowling and Mrs. Frederic Ollison Jr. are helping Mrs. Curtis R. Andrews, chairman of the Junior Advisory Committee.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

The more we hear about Christ Church's Mid-Century Christmas Fair . . . the more impressed we become with the talents of the gals hereabouts . . .

We always thought Mrs. Richard Weber Jackson was owner of the deepest and most sparkling dark eyes hereabouts . . . that she was one of the first to successfully wear the short hair-do at its reappearance . . . that she had the cutest dancing feet . . . and, as if that weren't enough . . . here she comes along with Creative Talent . . .

She has designed the Merry Christmas table mats to be sold at the fair (it's Nov. 16 . . . 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.) . . . and she's designed them so well that we know Pointe tables will be gayer this Christmas than ever before . . .

If our superlatives are showing . . . it's because the table mats designed of green felt in the shape of ivy leaves with red felt hollyberries skipping around the edges are cute as Punch . . .

Christmas In the Air

Mrs. Jackson is co-chairman with Mrs. Dan W. Good-enough, Jr., of the Christmas Decorations Booth at the fair . . .

Another of their skilled committee-women . . . Mrs. Paul Maxon . . . has done the Christmas Creeche figures to be sold there . . .

And the tiny snow sparkling churches (some complete with music boxes inside) have been the work of Henry Nelson, who drives for Mrs. Joseph G. Standart . . .

They are bound to appear on coffee tables and mantels at Santa Claus time . . .

We've been telling you for months how hundreds of Pointers have been working since way last Spring on this Mid-Century Fair (for which Mrs. Douglas Campbell is general chairman) . . .

Mrs. Sandy Weiner was thinking of the fair when she went off on a holiday to Provincetown last Summer. She paid a special visit to a Cape Cod artist, Peter Hunt . . . who besides helping with lots of ideas for Christmas tree decorations . . . sent some of his special own . . .

We've also heard delighted sighs about the Christmas stockings (same booth), which Pointers have made and trimmed in strong toned payettes to glisten out loud on Christmas morning . . .

At the Flower Booth, those many small but difficult-to-make holes in the nuts, which adorn pine cone wreaths and centerpiece, were done by Gustave DeRone, gardener for Mrs. John V. Redfield . . .

Husbands of the fair workers are being called into action, too . . . they'll run the Big Christmas Auction Sale at 6 p.m. on the day of the Fair . . .

And still others are already hard at work making a wondrous collection of Jig Saw puzzles . . . all sizes . . . with special attention to all age groups . . .

Country Weekend

Pulling you back to the present . . . Off to the country for a recent week-end were Mr. and Mrs. William K. Muir . . . Mrs. Jewett Dwyer . . . and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Creedon . . .

They went out to Rochester and stayed at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gardner . . .

Incidentally, the Gardners are expected back in their Washington, D. C., home early this month after the Summer in Europe . . .

Vermont Visitors

And the Pointe has been enjoying a visit from former Pointers . . . Mr. and Mrs. Hayward S. Thompson . . . Who now make their home in Charlotte, Vermont . . .

Eileen Regina Hickey Weds John Lane King

Ceremony in St. Paul's Church Followed by Reception At Grosse Pointe Yacht Club; Will Make Home in Columbus

A home in Columbus, O., awaits Mr. and Mrs. John Lane King, who were married on Oct. 28 at a 10 o'clock ceremony at St. Paul's Church on the Lakeshore. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward J. Hickey, uncle of the bride, officiated at the rites.

MRS. JOHN LANE KING —Picture by Moffett Studio

The former Eileen Regina Hickey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hickey of Edgemont park, was gown in white Italian satin. The wedding gown, made on classic lines, fell in voluminous folds, and heirloom carriage lace fashioned her veil, which was draped into a flat cap on her hair. Her flowers were white orchids and stephanotis.

Mrs. Michael P. O'Donnell, matron of honor for her sister, wore chartreuse faille in a cocktail length frock. A circlet of pink roses and ivy in her hair and an arm bouquet of the same blooms completed her costume. Similarly attired in leaf green faille were the bridesmaids, Mrs. Edward J. Hickey III, Nancy Joos, Virginia Roney and Joan Broadbridge.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Daniel King, of Springfield, O., asked his brother, Daniel N. King, to be best man. Escorting guests to their places were Arthur B. Cuddihy, of Forest Hills, L.I.; Victor J. Perini, Michael P. O'Donnell, Edward J. Hickey III and Joseph L. Hickey Jr.

Sapphire blue crepe with fuchsia accessories was Mrs. Hickey's choice for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. King wore antique gold taffeta and brown accessories.

After a reception at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, the couple left on a motor trip to Williamsburg, Va. The bride's traveling outfit consisted of a grey wool frock with a fur jacket and red accessories.

The great yard of the William Allemen firm, dealers in fireplace wood and top soil, is completing its new brick store building for cold weather service. Located on what used to be the Allemen farm, now 17727 Mack avenue, the firm is one of the largest of its kind in the entire metropolitan area and directs most of its efforts to serving Grosse Pointers.

Powers Lumber, the "biggest little lumber yard in the world," has a new hard surface pavement on the parking area in front of its yard on Harper avenue at Eastwood Drive. The better to serve!

Rudolph Palombit, popular young Grosse Pointe builder of stores is erecting a new office building to house his own firm. It is located on Mack avenue in the Torrey Woods section.

The Ira Wilson dairy store (Mack at Roslyn road) is just about the busiest spot in the Woods. Leon Ricelli is its manager and the serving of luncheons is one of the chief services.

Sheriff Directs 300 Employees

Sheriff Andrew C. Baird is seeking reelection on the Democratic Ballot November 7. His number on the ballot will be 112.

Some 300 employees work under the direction of Sheriff Baird in assisting him to perform the many duties of this important office. This staff of employees is selected on recommendations he receives from religious, racial and labor groups.

For the purpose of efficient operation, Baird's staff is divided into three major units: Jail Employees, Patrol and Investigation Employees, and Court Service Employees.

The employees of the Jail maintain order and confine to custody persons committed to the Wayne County Jail by Judges of the various Courts for the purpose of awaiting trial or serving short sentences.

The Patrol and Investigation Division performs the duties of policing a vast part of Wayne County outside the City limits of Detroit, in maintaining the peace of the community; making the arrests where laws have been violated and investigating and solving crimes.

The Court Service Division is the enforcing arm of the Judges of the Wayne County Courts in body, besides being in constant attendance in the various Court Rooms to maintain order while the Court is in session.

Cub Scout Pack Asks Help In Conducting Paper Drive

George S. Schultz of Harvard road announces the Cub Scouts will be out in force Saturday morning, collecting newspapers and magazines for the benefit of the Cub Pack, sponsored by the Parent Teacher Association of Mairre School under the direction of Anthony Menardo.

Dr. Edwin J. Hammer and Edward K. Kennedy who are leading the drive say the papers will be picked up in each neighborhood of the Mairre School district from Audubon to University and taken to Mairre School where they will be loaded on a trailer.

Presidents can help the Cub Scouts by putting their old newspapers on your porch Saturday morning. They will be picked up and included in the collection.

Tracy Salesmen Among Top Five

Wynn Walters and William J. Synons, salesmen for Tracy Motor Sales, Inc., Grosse Pointe Farms, were among the top five from the Detroit sales district of the Lincoln-Mercury Division, Ford Motor Company, in the latest three-month period of a nation-wide sales contest.

George Coats, Detroit district sales manager, said that final winners of the contest at the end of the year will be members of the "Inner Circle."

The winners will be honored at business conference sessions in St. Louis, New Orleans and Edgewater Park, Miss., climaxed by a tour of the factory headquarters in Detroit. Salesmen are competing in each of the Division's 23 sales districts throughout the country.

Michigan Voter:

PROTECT YOURSELF AND FAMILY!

1 PROTECT YOURSELF Against Imitation Butter

Your right to know—for sure—that there's BUTTER on the table—is threatened by a move to tamper with Michigan's long-standing imitation-BUTTER law. The present law is a GOOD law. It protects you—your family—and the family table. Especially, it also protects you when you "eat out."

Now, with a referendum vote on this subject on the ballot November 7, it's up to you. It's your job to protect yourself against imitation-BUTTER—to make sure you get the real thing. Vote "NO" on Proposal 4, November 7th.

2 PROTECT YOURSELF Against High Milk Prices

In case Michigan's present law—prohibiting substitutes colored yellow in imitation of BUTTER—is rendered ineffective in the November general election... thousands of Dairy Farms will be driven out of business. Milk will become scarcer... higher in price... as it has in other states which now allow imitation-BUTTER to be sold colored yellow. It is no accident that milk prices in cities in those states are 1½ cents a quart higher than milk prices in states (including Michigan) which maintain a protective law against selling imitation-BUTTER colored yellow*. Keep Michigan milk plentiful—reasonable in price. Vote "NO" on Proposal 4, November 7th.

3 PROTECT YOUR OWN and Michigan's Prosperity

WARNING: The first year Canada allowed substitutes to be colored yellow in imitation of BUTTER cost Dairy Farmers there 50 MILLION DOLLARS. That can happen in Michigan... where 600,000 people depend on Dairying for their livelihood... with an investment TWICE THAT OF THE ENTIRE WORLD OPERATIONS OF THE FORD MOTOR COMPANY! Reduce Michigan's income by many millions of dollars and you depress the market for all kinds of Michigan goods... besides irreparably damaging Michigan's soil and agriculture.

For your own sake... for your family's sake... for Michigan's sake... VOTE "NO"—on Proposal 4—general election, November 7th!

*These facts are published by the Dairy Action League, 415 Hellinger Building, Lansing, Mich., working with consumer, labor, farm and dairy groups in behalf of keeping Michigan's present and effective anti-imitation butter-law. It is financed by the 600,000 Michigan people dependent on dairying.

*United States Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Agricultural Economics, "Fluid Milk and Cream Report"—September, 1950.

VOTE "NO" ON PROPOSAL 4 (General Election Nov. 7)

A Proposal to tamper with Michigan's long-standing Butter-Imitation Law.

Andrew Carnegie was once visited by a Socialist who preached to him eloquently on the injustice of one man possessing so much money. He preached a more equitable distribution of wealth.

Carnegie cut the matter short by asking his secretary for a generalized statement of his many possessions and holdings, at the same time looking up the figures on world population in his almanac. He figured for a moment on his desk pad and then instructed his secretary, "Give this gentleman 16 cents. That's his share of my wealth."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. FRANK PRESLEY OF TOLES LANE

Collecting antique, foreign, handmade and character dolls is Mrs. Presley's specialty. Her hobby began 14 years ago when she returned from a trip out West with 40 Indian, Mexican and Spanish dolls. The collection, now grown to about 300 dolls, is stored in her home, but the Presleys plan eventually to display the dolls in special cabinets.

One 250 Years Old

Oldest doll in collection is a homely Queen Anne doll, dating to around 1700, its head and chest cut from a single block of wood. A small wax Greiner doll, with arms and legs of kid and wearing an old rose dress trimmed in black lace, was one of the first dolls made in the United States.

Another early American doll, probably fashioned about 1820, has a papier mache face and wooden body. The wasp-waisted doll still wears its original costume. Mrs. Presley also has a wax doll (so-called because the papier mache was dipped in wax) dating to 1840.

Early U. S. Specimens

A Mary Todd Lincoln doll with china head and hands, and a Nancy Hanks or Covered Wagon doll are both attired in 19th-century outfits. Still another early United States specimen is Mrs. P.'s chubby, gartered Gibson Girl doll with china head, legs and arms.

Many of the dolls, particularly the oldest ones, have been gifts; others Mrs. Presley discovered and purchased. Probably the most costly one in her collection is a swivel-necked French bisque doll with fine features and beautiful blond hair. She has an original Bisque boy doll, also blue-eyed and blond.

40 Countries Represented

Her Ravca dolls from France wear homespun clothes, and both face and costume of the Yugoslavian dolls are handmade. There are yarn dolls from Portugal and South American dolls made of birch or whatever materials the Indians had at hand. In all, about 40 countries are represented in the Presley collection.

An old Negro couple are represented in dried apple dolls. A Mark Twain doll which she found in Hannibal, Mo., is the latest of Mrs. Presley's character dolls. Other dolls are carved from wood, shells, sponges and almost every imaginable material. Among the oddest is the pair of dressed flea dolls from Mexico, both of which could easily fit on one's thumb nail.

Makes Boddies, Costumes

In some cases, Mrs. Presley is able to secure only the head of the doll. Then, she makes the body, and thumbs through doll history books until she finds the authentic costume in which to dress the doll.

Mrs. Presley has been a member of the Detroit unit of the National Doll and Toy Collectors Club Inc. for five years. She has staged small doll exhibits for various church and social groups, but expects to show most of her dolls this weekend when the 40 members in the club's local unit give their Doll Show at Newberry House. The rare dolls will be exhibited on Friday, Nov. 3, from 1-10 p.m., and on Saturday, Nov. 4, from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m.

Billy Lewis Plays Host At Party for Classmates

Maire School classmates of Billy Lewis gathered for a hamburger roast Tuesday evening in the recreation room of his Yorkshire road home before attending a class party. Costumed party-goers included John Vandewater, Jimmy Glazer, Johnny Pitts, Jim Kelly, Peter Aronson, Jim Brown, Tommy Finch, Michael Brown and Guy Miller.

Wearing a Gay Nineties costume, Maureen McCafferty greeted some of her classmates the same evening at a Halloween party in her home on Nottingham road.

Maureen Stackpole, Martha Merkens, Rosemary Walsh, Diane Moyer, Linda Marrs, Carol Walker and Judy Murray were among the guests.

Center to Hold Dogpatch Dance

Dressed "Dogpatch" style, all young people of the community college age through twenties will be welcomed at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Friday, November 10, for the Sadie Hawkins dance sponsored by the Young Adult group.

For a change the girls are issuing the bids and footing the bill so the Li'l Abners can relax and enjoy an evening of dancing, games, special prizes and entertainment.

Couples only will be admitted to the party which is slated to last from 9:30 until 12:30. Refreshments are included in the admission of $1.50 per couple.

Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi To Meet on November 6

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae of Pi Beta Phi will meet in the home of Miss Suzanne Stevenson, 817 Berkshire road, on Monday, November 6, at 8 p.m.

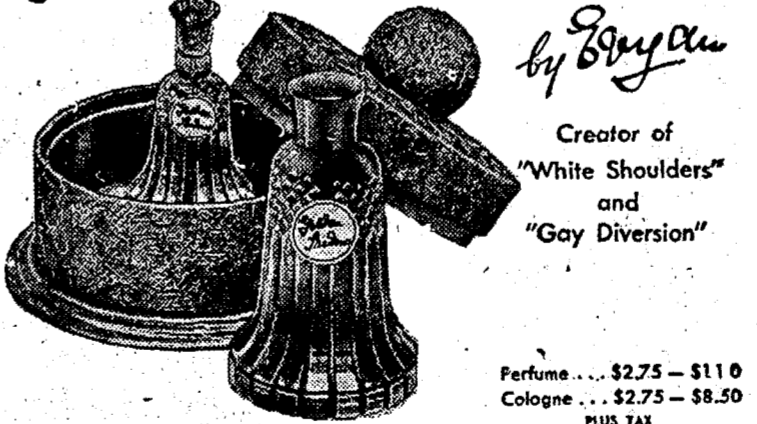

Mrs. C. R. Meier and Mrs. A. P. Teetzel Jr. will assist the hostess. The program will include movies of a trip around Europe.

Reflections

by paul gach

Strange, isn't it, how little things shape the course of our lives? For years I had requests to sell the proofs from sittings of children. For many reasons I had to refuse. And yet it seemed a shame to keep all those funny little poses out of the hands of the fond parents. They couldn't afford to have them all finished and so they became wasted effort. Two years ago, because of this demand and in time for Christmas, I dreamed up the "PREVIEW SKETCH BOOK". It is permanently bound in a plastic cover and contains all different poses. The "PREVIEW SKETCH BOOK" has pleased many people and I'm happy to be responsible for such a treasured keepsake.
