Three generations of the Parcels family were on hand last Thursday for the ceremonies at Vernier and Mack. Directly behind the stone is Charles Parcels, Jr. Engrossed with the trowel is little Charles Parcels, III, and behind him the widow of the late president of the School Board after whom the building is named, Franklin D. Dougherty, present president of the School Board, stands in the foreground with his hands in his pockets. Among those in the background are Board of Education members, Sigurd Wendin, Mrs. M. M. Sheaffer and Shirley Johnson, and Woods Mayor Leon Ratcliffe.

City Takes Steps To Solve Plaguing Financial Problem

Capital Improvements Program Unanimously Adopted by Council; Tax Rate Increased Mill and Half

The City of Grosse Pointe Council last Thursday night adopted a program which Mayor Ralph Netting hailed as "the most progressive action taken in my memory as a city official." The council members unanimously adopted a capital improvements program formulated by a committee headed by Councilman John Kenower.

The program will be of five years duration. The needs of the city, other than normal annual maintenance, will be determined on a long range basis. It will be reviewed and revised annually. Recommendations for each year's needs would be submitted to the council in writing at the meeting prior to the adoption of each year's annual budget.

Decision With Council

Council would have to approve all expenditures and decide whether the cost of recommended and approved improvements should be met from the annual capital improvements budget or funded through the sale of bonds. As Councilman Alonzo C. Allen explained it: "This will keep the city from being kept together with hay wire and put it on a pay-as-you-go basis."

Committee Proposed

He proposed that a committee be set up consisting of two councilmen and three citizens to serve staggered terms. Original appointments of the councilmen would be for one and two years, and for the citizens, one, two and three years. Thereafter councilman appointments would be for two years and citizen appointments for three years.

Mr. Kenower strongly urged that one of the citizen appointees be a member of the Engineering Society of Detroit. This organization has placed the experience and abilities of its members at the disposal of municipalities which wish free counsel on their engineering problems.

Councilmen Named

Mr. Kenower and Mr. Allen were named to represent the council on the committee. The citizen members will be selected shortly and the committee is expected to effect its organization as quickly as possible, in time to submit its recommendations for 1951 at the May meeting of council.

To pay for the capital improvements program, the council unanimously approved a boost in the tax rate from 18.5 mills to 20 mills. The avails of this increase will be used for no other purpose than capital improvements.

$101,000 Given Phoenix Project

University of Michigan alumni in Grosse Pointe have already made 125 gifts totaling $101,000 to the University's Phoenix Project for the establishment of an atomic research center on the campus at Ann Arbor, it was announced by area co-chairmen Dr. Marion M. Sheaffer and Harry Hogan.

This is part of a national total of $5,500,000 raised to date toward a goal of six and a half million dollars.

DIAMOND BROOCH MISSING

A sapphire diamond brooch valued at $1,000 was reported lost or stolen, by C. N. MacDonald, of 277 Mirabeau, Friday, March 2, Farms police said.

Yacht 'Delphine' Puts Red Light on Plea for Signal

Mrs. Horace Dodge's palatial yacht "Delphine" had an important part in a discussion which took place during the council meeting of the City of Grosse Pointe last Thursday night.

A request was read from the City of Grosse Pointe Farms asking the City to share the cost of erecting a new traffic signal light at Fisher road and East Jefferson. It was generally agreed that a light is needed there, but a source note on the cost-sharing proposition was tossed into the discussion

Asks Farms To Combine Departments

Seek Better Protection For Both Cities With Reduced Expenditures

The City of Grosse Pointe Council went on record at a meeting on Thursday night, March 1, as being unanimously in favor of combining its fire department with that of Grosse Pointe Farms. Economy and better protection were the main consideration behind the decision.

The action of the council terminated a discussion pertaining to the progress that had been made during the last few months in a proposed attempt to get both cities together to study the feasibility of such a plan.

Blessed's Proposal

Former City Public Safety Commissioner Clarence Blessed proposed last summer that a single fire district be created for all of the five Pointes. When his suggestion created little apparent interest he resigned his post, charging he was getting no cooperation from the council.

Shortly after his resignation, Councilman Chester Carpenter was appointed by Mayor Ralph Netting to contact the Farms and see how the officials of that city felt about either combining the two departments or setting up some kind of a reciprocal agreement for fire protection.

Had One Meeting

One meeting was held which took the form of an informal discussion of the matter between the mayor and clerk of Grosse Pointe Farms and Mr. Carpenter. The Farms officials said they would refer it to their public safety committee, which would in turn get in touch with Mr. Carpenter for further discussion.

Since then the Farms has approved purchase of a $40,000 ladder and pumper truck, but up to last Thursday night at least, had made no attempt to further pursue the combining of facilities with the City.

Spent $70,000

During the discussion at the City council meeting, it was brought out that the City had spent $70,000 for fire protection last year and there was unanimous agreement among the councilmen that this expenditure was far too high and that some immediate action was indicated.

The motion to contact the Farms and determine as soon as possible whether that city was willing to consider a joint fire department, was quickly adopted. It was decided that Mr. Carpenter would make another attempt to meet with the Farms officials and Mayor Netting would sit in if a meeting could be arranged.

Wants Expert Advice

Councilman John Kenower then stated that in the event the Farms is interested in pooling its fire fighting facilities with those of the City, the next step should be to hire some experts to tell both councils how to go about the combining process to obtain the maximum efficiency. The council indicated that it was willing to spend some money to hire such qualified counsel.

What About Others?

Councilman Alonzo C. Allen asked if there wasn't to be some consideration given to getting the other three Pointes to also enter into such a joint fire plan.

The consensus was that a joining of the Farms and City departments would be relatively easy to accomplish and a natural starting point for a possible further combination with others of the Pointes. It was felt that trying to get all five to enter upon an agreement at once might present difficulties that would slow down the procedure.

It is understood the Shores has already evinced an interest in such a plan. Should the City and Farms get together, it is considered altogether likely that one by one, the other three Pointes would be taken into the combine.

VFW Auxiliary To Give Party

A card party and box social will be held by the Ladies Auxiliary of Post 995 Veterans of Foreign Wars in the clubhouse at 17145 St. Paul avenue, at 8 o'clock on Saturday night, March 10.

Farms Lets Contract For New Garage

Will Spend $75,000 for Structure to House Public Works Equipment

At a special meeting Monday night the Farms council awarded a contract for the immediate construction of a new public works garage to be attached to the Sewer Pumping Station at Chalfonte and Kerby roads.

The contract was let to the low bidder, Thomas and Wilson, for a base bid of $64,097. This figure will cover the price of erecting the structure only. It is estimated that another $10,000 will be needed to tear down the present frame buildings, install the required driveways and take care of the landscaping around the new building.

Exceeds Estimates

The finished cost of the new garage will be about $75,000. This compares with an estimated cost of $45,000, which the council believed would cover the improvement. The city already has on hand about $60,000 earmarked for this project.

The new structure will consist of an enclosed paved courtyard, flanked on both sides by rows of garages to store all of the Farms public works trucks and equipment. A 12-foot high set of gates will allow entrance and egress to the courtyard and trucks will be able to drive right through. There will be a driveway entrance off both Chalfonte and Kerby.

Other Facilities

The structure will also house a repair shop with wash and grease racks to take care of the equipment, toilet facilities for the convenience of users of the recreation field on Kerby, and a voting room.

The voting room will get the Farms out of the portable booth business. This was the only precinct which had to use a portable booth, all of the other six precincts.

"Operation Communication" Called Very Successful as "Radio Hams" Conduct Drill

Rehearsal Follows Organization of Group; Dr. E. P. MacKenzie Named Head of Special Communications Committee

"Operation Communication" against enemy attack got under way in Grosse Pointe Friday, March 2. Six cars equipped with two-way radios and operated by Grosse Pointe "radio hams" sped to public schools and hospitals here during a two-hour drill.

The mobile units were directed by the Detroit Office of Civilian Defense. Praised by Elworthy, Grosse Pointe OGD director, described the drill as "very successful."

"It showed us just what our 'ham army' could do if all other means of communication were knocked out by enemy attack," he said. The mobile units went to Pierce and Grosse Pointe High Schools and Cottage and Bon Secours Hospitals.

Have Key Locations "In the event of an attack these units would move to key locations in the community and perhaps would be the only means of dispatching calls for aid," Elworthy said.

The drill followed an organization of Grosse Pointe's "radio hams" held Thursday at the Neighborhood Club.

Headed by MacKenzie About 20 attended and named Dr. E. P. MacKenzie, of 592 Notre Dame, head of a committee to set up a "ham-unit" in the Neighborhood Club.

Meanwhile other plans for home defense were slowly taking form. Elworthy said he would name a Chief Air Raid Warden shortly.

VFW Rescue Squad The Alger VFW Post 995 has notified Elworthy that they will have a "Rescue Squad" in readiness.

A similar squad is expected to be organized by the American Legion Post here. A mock raid will be held on April 16.

Cornerstone Put In Place

Completed Junior High School Expected to Be Ready for September Occupancy

The cornerstone was laid at Parcels School last Thursday and the Board of Education has every hope that the completed structure will be ready for use by the time the next school year starts in September.

The first part of the building was erected shortly after the close of World War II, but building restrictions imposed by the War Production Board made it possible to incorporate only the barest necessities.

Many Special Rooms The big new addition which will complete the building will contain additional classrooms and all the special rooms a modern school needs. In addition to an auditorium and two gymnasiums, there will be a public library, shop rooms, art rooms, music rooms, home economics rooms, a science room and a book store. The boiler room has also been greatly enlarged.

The first portion of the structure cost $412,000. The addition is costing about $1,750,000.

Class Takes Part Pupils of the 6A grade at Parcels took part in the cornerstone laying ceremonies as they will be the first class to go through the entire curriculum of the new Junior High School.

There will be a dedication program and open house there when the building is finally completed. Speakers at the cornerstone laying included Franklin Dougherty, president of the Board of Education, Charles Parcels, Jr. and Mayor Leon Ratcliffe of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Other Progress Reported It was announced that good progress is being made on the other portions of the new school building program. The big addition to New Kerby School is expected to be completed in time for the opening of the schools in (Continued on Page 15)

City Cancels Registrations

Nearly 500 electors in the City of Grosse Pointe failed to return the Application For Continuance of Registration mailed them at their registered address last December. This means that these citizens, in order to vote at elections in the City, will first have to be reinstated by personal application to the office of the City Clerk. For the April 2 election this can be done up to 8 p.m. next Tuesday, March 13.

It is believed that of the 498 so cancelled a large number have probably moved from the City—possibly to other communities. However, they may not vote in the City until and unless they again properly qualify.

More than 800 new registrations were taken by the City Clerk in 1950, and a number of electors have registered since the spring primary held on February 19, at which only 239 electors voted in the City of Grosse Pointe. Qualified electors, not already registered, may do so up to 8 p.m. Tuesday, March 13.

Car, Taxi Crash At Intersection

City police issued a traffic ticket to Benjamin Fruehauf, Jr., of 100 Roslyn, Saturday, March 3, for interfering with through traffic, causing an accident at Neff and Kercheval.

Fruehauf's car collided with a taxi cab driven by Joseph A. Deadone, of 1286 Fairview.

Driver Ticketed Following Crash

Farms police issued a ticket to Dave McGee, of 20057 Washburn for reckless driving causing an accident at Mack and Woodward on Monday, March 5.

Police said that McGee's car collided with one driven by Herbert Archelas, of 2800 Lycaste.

SPOTLIGHT STOLEN

Louis Maltese, of 5852 Holcomb, told Woods police that someone removed the spotlight from his auto while it was parked near 20776 Mack on Friday, March 2.

Peregrinating Pooches Face Extremely Dismal Outlook

This is a warning to stray dogs who for many years have passed the word around in "bow-wow" set: that there is no dog catcher in Grosse Pointe.

This fact of course has made Grosse Pointe a very attractive spot for four-legged Detroit refugees, but changes are in the offing.

Farms Council has authorized the clerk to study the possibilities of hiring an official dog catcher. Grosse Pointe Park has a part-time canine chaser but it has been the police who have been required to answer the thousands of dog complaints received each year.

Often, police have more important duties to perform and the "stray-set" is permitted to roam at large.

It is possible that the other municipalities will follow the Farms' plan. So dog-gone it, Rover, you'd better be a gone dog when the catcher starts to prowl.

Thursday, March 1 PRESIDENT TRUMAN tentatively accepted Detroit's invitation to come to the City's 250th birthday party on July 28. The President said he would like to come and his doing so depended upon events he cannot now foresee.

HARRY ARMSTRONG, who wrote the music for the famous "Sweet Adeline" . . . died in New York at the age of seventy-two. Not long ago he appeared on a t-v show and sang the song, along with some of his other hits.

Friday, March 2 CARL STRANGLUND, president of the Lustron Corp., charged that Federal lending officials forced him to hire a White House intimate as an $18,000 vice-president; then closed his company because he fought efforts of a group of Detroit business men to "steal his business." He named Detroiters Walter L. Dunham and Rex Jacobs as being instigators of the plot.

A SHOCKED CITY Council heard today that teen-agers are STILL buying dope right under the noses of a Federal grand jury group. Joseph Bell, district supervisor of the Federal Narcotics Bureau, told the council that the situation in Detroit is serious. He said it was a terrific job to get the dope traffic under control and send the peddlers on the run.

Saturday, March 3 THE GOVERNMENT has permitted automobile manufacturers to raise their prices 3 1/2 per cent. The action was taken to "partially offset increases in production costs." The agency extended for sixty days an order of last December 18 . . . the first price control regulation issued in the present mobilization effort.

CHRYSLER CORPORATION set a record for unit and dollar sales in 1950. Net earnings for the company are near 128 million. Federal taxes paid for 1950 amounted to $123,000,000. The corporation's financial statement shows that 1950 was the second successive year of record-breaking sales for Chrysler.

Sunday, March 4 WILDCAT STRIKERS have idled 8,000 workers at Chrysler. This is the third day this week that strikes have hit the company. On the second shift at the Chrysler Jefferson plant, 40 sheet metal workers walked out . . . complaining the plant was too dusty.

A BABY GIRL weighing 17 pounds and 5/2 ounces was born today to Mrs. Charles Bush of Cleveland. Mrs. Bush, wife of an engineer, is thirty-two years old and has three other children. Doctors said the delivery was entirely normal and both mother and child are doing well.

Monday, March 5 350,000 GENERAL MOTORS workers will receive a 5-cent-per-hour raise starting Monday. In doing this, the largest auto maker appeared to have paved the way for the UAW to win the higher amount from other manufacturers. But companies were not commenting.

Tuesday, March 6 THE FORD MOTOR Company will follow General Motors' lead and give its 115,000 production employees a five-cent hourly cost-of-living pay increase. Final details are being thrashed out today at a meeting of Ford and UAW (CIO) representatives.

Wednesday, March 7 BRITAIN, FRANCE AND THE UNITED STATES have signed an agreement providing for shifting of Allied troops in Western Germany to meet any future situation . . . It provides for movement of troops out of their own zones of occupation to zones of their allies.

CHICAGO'S FOUR television stations face a complete blackout unless settlement of a four-month-old dispute can be reached in a management-AFL Television Authority conference . . . The union, with 2,500 members, has threatened a walkout if its demands are not met . . . This would affect "live" shows emanating from the city as well as all net-work shows.

St. Pauloscope

by AUDREY HALEY

Well, here it is, March, the first month of spring, which I'm sure is a much-awaited season. For St. Paul's, March means the beginning of the baseball season, Easter holidays and, no doubt, many terrific parties.

This past week, St. Paul held its annual intra-mural basketball games. Each student pays ten cents admission for each game. The total sum is given to the missions.

Tuesday saw the boys of the Frosh and Sophomore divisions battling for a win in another fast game. The Sophomores took this game although they were up against stiff competition. Robert Barrett, Paul Geist, Edward Heck, Lee Elsey, Richard O'Conner made up the winning Sophomore team. The Freshmen, Richard Dowd, Robert Taylor, Joseph Bejin, Carl Keiffer, Richard Faber and Michael Shean, put up a terrific fight. The final score was 25 to 12.

Wednesday, the Junior and Senior girls took their teams into the competition. After an exciting and close game, the Juniors came out on top with the score of 48 to 39.

The Senior girls, Judy Beaupre, Phyllis Van Beelaere, Sally McCarron, Diane Zemper, Marie Couvreur, Carolyn Floer and Theresa Lyford showed excellent spirit and sportsmanship. The Junior team was made up of Marilyn Sutherland, Mary Allor, Margaret Sharp, Beverly Labadie, Mary Del Barba and Sharon DuCastle.

Thursday was the final game of the week and one of the most breath-taking. The Junior and Senior boys put on an excellent showing. After four thrilling quarters the Juniors took the game with the close score of 28 to 25.

Thomas Pelkey, Terry Lynch, Duane Streb, Dave Sherwood and Robert Schneider played a wonderful game for the Seniors.

Louis Geist, John Huetteman, Edward Lynch, Jack Tromby and Tom McLaughlin won the honors for the Junior Class.

The winning teams will compete in the playoffs next week.

Last Tuesday the Flyers played St. Bernard's in a game whose final six seconds proved fatal for the Paulites. Having kept the score close all the way and finally losing by one basket in the last six seconds, the Flyers were heartbroken at the defeat.

For the fans, including Judy Beaupre, James O'Conner, Earl La Fave, Shirley Fincham, Jerry Marschall, Carol Plourde, Marilyn Sutherland, Phyllis Van Beelaere, Celestine Blundell, Barbara Marchand, Rosanne Blundell, Connie Molitor, Alice West, Margaret Wade, Beverly Labadie, Sally McCarron, Margaret Sharp and Mary Del Barba, the final score was disappointing but all agreed the Flyers played a terrific game.

While still on the subject of basketball, St. Paul's girls' team played the second game in the playoffs with the Shrine of the Little Flower, Royal Oak, last Sunday. So far the girls have maintained a perfect record with seven wins out of seven games.

Because of the epidemic of flu which swept the school two weeks ago, the magazine drive was extended to Monday when the results of the drive will be given.

Approval in Two Fields Won by Cottage Hospital

Just before the first of the year, Cottage Hospital received word from the American College of Surgeons that once more, as it had for the past 19 years, this institution had passed with full approval, the inspection of that body.

Close on the heels of this news came another national recognition of this 56 bed hospital which has served the community for 31 years. In the February issue of "Modern Hospital" appeared an article entitled "Good Public Relations Team" which reads: "Frankness and friendliness make up the well matched team that draws the latest public relations vehicle for Cottage Hospital, of Grosse Pointe, Michigan."

In the report of the American College of Surgeons, the administrative department of the hospital was rated high and the writer of the magazine article apparently had the same feeling, for he goes on to say: "In an effort to catch up with the procession of patients' manuals, Cottage Hospital at its first try, not only caught up with but nosed ahead. Superintendent Carolyn M. Wicks dumped the job of copy preparation and layout into the big broad lap of a Detroit advertising agency.

"The result was not the sophisticated, expensive looking job that she might have had if she had not kept in close touch, but a pamphlet warm toned in its consideration of the patients' feelings and intelligence.

"Right at the start, the manual implants the idea that a hospital, this hospital, is in business—the business of getting people well. With all our warmth and friendliness, and our personal interest in you," the copy says . . . "we never let ourselves lose sight of that vital goal. We feel certain that if you will always keep in mind this end purpose of our job, you will have a real basic understanding of the things a hospital must do to get you well."

Miss Wicks reports that this booklet has been in use now about four months, has been of great interest to the patients, and has certainly created a better understanding all the way round. She reports that since this article appeared, she has received many requests for the booklet from all over the United States. The coloring, green and white ink on lighter green paper, plus the attractive drawings and very readable copy, make the book attractive to the eye, as well as the mind. Miss Wicks is high in her praise of the advertising agency which donated its services to make all this possible.

Fire Hero Also Good Student

Edwin T. Collins of Vernier circle, Kenyon College student who won a Carnegie Medal for extreme heroism during the tragic fire there several years ago, is also a good scholar. He was named on the honor roll for receiving a B plus or better average during the first semester of the Kenyon year.

Collins was credited with saving the lives of several of his college friends during the fire. While hanging to a hot fire escape with one hand, he persuaded students trapped in the fire to jump, and caught them in his free arm, swinging them to safety.

His hand and portions of his body were severely burned while making the rescues.

While the business meeting is in attendance, the ladies will be entertained at a card party with favors and prizes. Later, all will review a very excellent marine exhibit showing harbors of refuge on the Great Lakes and various other things of interest to boat owners.

The evening program includes cocktails, dinner, an organ recital and dancing.

ORIENTAL RUGS

Prices of Orientals are still at a low level; they have not gone up like domestic carpeting. But the quality, distinction, beauty, style and durability of Orientals are high; no other floorcoverings that have been made so far can touch them.

It seems unbelievable that you can buy Orientals—hand-made in Persia and China—in many cases, at prices below those of domestic machine-made production; but it is true. It is an interesting story; it cannot be told in a few words. Come in and we will gladly tell you all about it.

For example: would you believe that an Oriental size 9x12 of durable quality will only cost you $350, while a reproduction, made by machine is now selling for $369? It does not seem plausible nor sensible! Yet that is the truth!

Our collection consists of hundreds of fine rugs and carpets, both Persian and Chinese—all priced to satisfy your taste and purse. We invite you to come in at your earliest convenience and see for yourself. We shall be glad to show you without obligation on your part.

Before you buy other types of floorcovering, "Investigate Orientals."

Coach Addresses Gold Hi-Y Club

At the Gold Hi-Y meeting at Grosse Pointe High School, held Monday night, February 26, Coach Edward Wernet spoke on the real value of education and how the Hi-Y work contributes to it. He gave credit to the early Hi-Y members for their persistence in seeing the club through its organization stages.

"The Hi-Y," commented Mr. Wernet, "is responsible for the development of service and leadership. 'The most important trait of a person is the ability to get along with others,' he continued, 'It is something you learn through life's experiences. It can be learned at any stage in your life but the earlier you get started, the better off you'll be.'"

"People don't care who you are," he concluded, "It's what you are that counts."

Red Cross Drive Gets Under Way

The 1951 Red Cross fund campaign for Detroit Chapter and its 21 Wayne County branches opened with a kick-off luncheon last Thursday noon (March 1) in the Crystal ballroom of Hotel Book Cadillac.

The campaign will continue through the month of March for a goal of $408,000, to complete the chapter's quota of $1,665,000. A total of $1,257,000 was subscribed for the Red Cross during the Torch drive last fall, in which Detroit Chapter participated on a limited basis.

Detroit's March drive is part of a nation-wide Red Cross campaign, in which more than 3,700 chapters, covering every city and county in the United States, are participating. The national goal for 1951 is $85,000,000.

Speakers at Thursday's kick-off luncheon were Chapter Chairman Alvan Macauley, Jr., Rev. Allan A. Zaub, pastor of the Jefferson Ave. Presbyterian church, who won 11 battle stars in the Navy from 1942 to 1945, and Campaign Chairman Raymond T. Perring.

Campaign Chairman Perring spoke on the objectives of the campaign. He said in part:

"When the Torch Fund goal was being determined the Red Cross was operating on a normal peace-time basis. Everyone knows what has happened. Since the invasion of Korea in June, Red Cross budgets have skyrocketed, and naturally Detroit Chapter has been called on for a larger quota. The $408,000 we are seeking at this time represents the minimum amount we will require to meet our full responsibilities to the community, the nation, and most of all to the men and women in our rapidly expanding Armed Forces.

"Our blood program for the Korean wounded and increasing needs here at home accounts for a large share of the increase. This year our current budget for the Blood Center is on the basis of 60,000 pints and may be raised. This compares with 24,400 pints taken in 1950. It gives us such satisfaction to know that blood collected here for shipment to Korea is actually flowing into the veins of wounded GIs within 6 days. We shall continue to make regular shipments to Korea as long as the need exists. We would never forgive ourselves if any of our boys died over there as a result of our missing a single shipment."

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence F. Graebner of Saginaw were best man and matron of honor respectively.

Easter Seals Help Crippled

The 18th Annual Sale of Easter Seals is being held from February 25 to March 25. The Easter Seal Sale, sponsored by the National Society of Crippled Children and Adults and its affiliated state societies bears with it the thought of Hope and Resurrection to untold numbers of physically handicapped persons all through the state and nation.

The largest share of the funds is raised through mail appeals. In Michigan an approximately one million and a quarter letters will be sent by the local committees and chapters of the Michigan Society. In 16 unorganized counties, the Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults will conduct a direct mail sale from its State Headquarters.

As in the past, a large number of volunteers have offered their services. The supplies are furnished free of charge to local committees and chapters, and over 90 per cent of the funds raised remain in Michigan for the care, cure, education, and social and economic adjustment of Michigan's own handicapped children and adults.

In commenting on the Seal Sale, Mr. Emmet Richards, president of the Michigan Society, stated "The general public is well aware of the services that we are providing for those in need. However, there is a difficult task ahead of us. Because of the ever expanding program for the less fortunate, the need for more funds is greater than ever before. Last year the gross returns were $246,451.33. The goal this year is $350,000.00.

Slowly But Surely

Signs multiply that the consolidation of all five Grosse Pointes into a single city may not be as remote as it was believed but a few short years ago.

This paper has advocated such a merger ever since its founding in 1940, in the interests of greater economies and greater efficiency. The suggestion had few listeners a decade ago, but the accumulation of experience has gradually won converts to the idea.

That such a development is slow in the accomplishment is a natural thing in a community such as the Pointe. This is an almost purely residential area, from which the very large majority of its male members commute into Detroit to conduct their daily business.

But there have been no industries to create any major problems, and the public schools have always operated as a single district. Up to very recent years the various governing municipal bodies have had but routine operational and maintenance chores to supervise, and for the most part they have done their jobs well.

The very large majority of the Pointe residents were perfectly content to leave the administration of government in the hands of those few who were willing to give their time and energy, without any financial return, to this civic service.

However, the tremendous growth which the Pointe area has experienced, especially since the close of World War II, has brought many changes, and the municipal problems have increased greatly in scope and number. Many of these problems have been of such a nature that they have required joint study and action by all of the Pointes. Through this necessity of arriving at common decisions has come the realization that the community is approaching nearer and nearer the time when a merger into a single municipality will be almost mandatory.

The township, now practically defunct, for many years served the purpose of welding all of the Pointes into one governmental group for the purpose of rendering common service to them all. The township provided the police radio system and health service and handled all but purely local elections.

Then the former Village of Grosse Pointe decided to withdraw from the township and set itself up as a city. It created its own police radio, which was not hooked in with the township system, and the result was a vacuum in the center of this branch of the police protection system.

When the Farms also became a city, steps were taken to correct this situation and all of the Pointes organized a joint Inter-Municipal Police Radio System. To do this it was necessary for all five municipalities to appoint committees to sit in on the study. The Farms operates this system, but the costs still have to be allocated between five separate Pointe governments.

The same procedure was necessary when the health service was taken away from the township and a new system established. Now the City operates the health service for all, and again the costs have to be split among the five.

The latest move to combine services comes with the flat pronouncement by the City that it would like to have its fire department joined with that of the Farms. There is little doubt but that the idea in the minds of the promulgators of this plan is that the combining of these two departments would be a start towards getting the other three Pointes into the joint system. This proposal for a single fire district was made last summer by Clarence Blessed, former public safety commissioner for the City.

The idea of cooperative fire protection goes even further back than that however. Some years ago, Karl Goddard, former commissioner and president of Grosse Pointe Park, tried to effect a cooperative system between the Park and the City. This idea got nowhere, but it illustrates the evolution which has brought about the gradual recognition of the value of combining facilities.

The merger plans naturally find opposition among employees of the various departments who fear that such a move would cost them their jobs. This has probably been particularly true among the members of the fire department in the City.

For their reassurance, it should be pointed out that this matter has been thoroughly discussed and there is no intention on the part of the City officials to deprive anyone of his job through such a merger of departments. A reduction in employees could be affected through the pension and retirement systems, by simply not replacing men who were not needed.

There is no question but that the proposal to combine fire fighting facilities will be followed by a study of possible savings and increased efficiency which might be gained by merging the police departments.

And there are other matters which are going to have to be solved within the next few years. All of the Pointes are plagued with a garbage and rubbish collection and disposal problem that is very costly. A joint solution to this appears to be the only way out.

The sewage disposal problem grows more important each year. Detroit has been trying for a long time to get three of the Pointes to kick in more than $5,000,000 to help it handle a situation which the Pointes feel is Detroit's own baby. This project would entail building a new outlet into the river which would carry storm drainage below the Detroit water intake.

All of the Pointes' raw sewage except that of the Shores, is now treated by Detroit, which puts the local municipalities at a disadvantage in an argument. The time is not far off when the Pointes are going to have to make provision to handle their own sewage.

The Shores has already been forced by the state to make plans to provide a complete new sewer system at a tremendous cost for such a small area.

Everything points to an ever closer relationship between these five separate municipalities. As the common problems multiply they are tending to draw the various divisions of the community closer together in the quest for solutions that will spell efficiency and economy and still preserve the general character of this area which has caused so many to decide that this is the place in which they wish to make their homes.

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"I never can see an old Churchyard but I breathe to God a prayer, That, sleep as I might in this fevered life, I may REST when I slumber there." (Arthur C. Cox)

Having a memory like a small-sized elephant, we can recall that a few years back, whenever a female of our vintage mentioned a physical weakness of any kind, all our contemporaries who were present would immediately break forth with exclamations of "Oh, REALLY?" ... or "Is THAT so?" ... or "How interesting" (which it wasn't at ALL), or some such polite comment as, "Tell us about it," ... which of course we hoped she would NOT! Now, we suddenly seem to be in a different stage or age.

For instance, whenever a group of women get together today and one of them announces, "I can't see a THING without my glasses," ... there arises a hub-bub of female chatter ... wherein every woman present is trying to prove that HER eyesight is MUCH worse than anyone else's ... and that SHE can't see without glasses, either "way up here," or "way over there!" What gets us is that they are all vying for the position of "worst eyesight in the world."

The same thing happens if one of the women starts to tell a story about her own or her husband's or a friend's operation, ... there is always SOME character in the gathering who can "top" whatever the first woman is trying to tell. Before the heroine can get to the incision ... one of the other gals will interrupt with, "That's NOTHING! You should have seen" ... etc., etc., etc. What goes here, anyway? Could it be that women arrive at the age where ANYTHING is better than her neighbor's or rather WORSE ... just so long as she can top the story? Is it a mark of distinction to have poorer eyesight, worse hearing, more corns, more dandruff, more operations, more headaches and more teeth pulled than your next-door neighbor? It would seem so.

If this be the truth, the advertisers of various products are missing a big bet. They might start a "Woman of Distinction" campaign, wherein they use pictures of "shellacked" females with such headings as: "She had the worst headaches in the world until she used Aspergum;" or "No one in her community suffered more from rolling eyeballs than Mrs. Jetbacks, until she used 'All Purpose Squinters'."

Not being a "woman of distinction" ... our illnesses are always run of the mill ... but they come in bunches. For instance, last week we developed what we fancifully call "hoof and mouth" disease, all in the same day. For the first time in WEEKS, we decided to act sociable, so we invited a group of friends to split a crumpet with us on Saturday afternoon. Shortly after lunch, we were reading a magazine and ran across an ad for chewing gum. It reminded us that we hadn't had a "chaw" for over a year and we remembered an old pack of gum we had in a drawer where we keep paper clips, rubber bands and odd buttons.

In our haste to get to the drawer, we banged a previously sore toe on the edge of the desk ... and you could have heard us from here to THERE! Limping to a nearby chair, we tried to peer at the offending toe but could tell nothing about it except that it hurt like blazes. We have arrived (along with our contemporaries) at that awful stage where to see anything close we must wear glasses ... but we are also so muscle-bound, we can't get our foot close enough to our eyes after we have the glasses on! The result is that we tend our aching feet by remote control ... a hit and miss attitude that spells trouble most of the time. Well sir, here we were with the danged sore foot and nothing to do but telephone our favorite chiropractor and ask him to help us out ... which he agreed to do by stopping by our homestead.

While waiting for this worthy gentleman, we started to chew the gum that was the cause of all the trouble. Within a very few minutes, the gum very neatly drew out a good filling in a tooth on the right upper side! We retrieved the filling just in time, but not having the sense to stop chewing, we soon lost a filling on the other side! This was too much ... to put it mildly. In trying to see what damage the lost fillings had done, we got a small pocket mirror and putting it in our mouth ... while looking in another mirror, we peered and peered ... but the small mirror clouded up so from our breathing, we couldn't see a danged thing.

Our next step was to telephone our favorite Dentist (who had a day off) ... and get him to agree to come to the house and cement our fillings back in place! In due course, both the hoof and mouth doctors arrived ... so while our guests disported themselves with frenzied glee in the living room ... we spent an hour and a half in another room having our teeth and feet fixed! By the time we were through with our ailments ... the guests were ready to depart. It was a fine Saturday afternoon get-together. We must remember to do it again some time. Phooey!

A woman with a "pet peeve" has written to ask us to print it with the hope that it will straighten out those who don't know what's what about the subject. She refers to the number of men who continue to use "JR." after their names ... after their fathers have passed on. Our local Emily P. declares that after a man's father is no longer in existence ... he DROPS the "jr.", and if his mother is living, she uses "Sr." after her name. We hope that takes care of everything ... until next week.

Saw Joseph de Grimme the other day, delivering a "flossy" painting to one of the Pointe's flossier homes. We stopped to chat with him and asked how business was. He replied, "You can imagine how good business is when I have to go into a lion's cage to sell a painting!" He was, of course, referring to the three paintings he sold to Clyde Beatty last week! As far as we are concerned ... the lures to the de Grimme Art Salon are many. You not only feast your eyes on his marvelous collection of paintings (and on his beautiful wife, Hildegarde) ... but you can also feast your ears on Joe's hilarious tales of his everyday experiences.

Going Are the Days

The familiar old red fire alarm box seems doomed to vanish from the American scene, or at least from the Grosse Pointe City scene. Just as motorized apparatus replaced the horse that used to pull the steamer to the blaze, we have more modern inventions rendered the alarm box useless, say the city fathers. And the records will back up their opinion.

The decision has been reached to let the alarm system die under the weight of its own rust. No further attempt will be made to keep it operating.

Figures were produced which show that during the last 10 years the boxes in the City have been used on an average of but six and a half times per year.

Last year was a big one, when 10 calls were received from the box source. But, (another big argument for their abolishment), nine of these calls turned out to be false alarms.

Imagine the frustration when, having built up the courage to turn in a false alarm, Johnny, tingling with anticipation as he lurks in the bushes waiting for the engines to come roaring up, finds that nothing happens at all.

Fewer interruptions for the fire house checker and poker games. No more will the wild jangle of the big alarm bell call the smoke-eaters from their quots. Just a polite telephone call, carrying an invitation to bring a ladder and some hose around to lend a hand with a blaze at Joe Zilch's house.

Or a policeman will tiptoe into fire headquarters and announce quietly that a message has just been received over the two-way radio ... flames are pouring out of Annie's place, and maybe the boys ought to investigate.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Our boys in service need books. They need them in the distant outposts where they are stationed, but they need them, too, here and now, in the induction centers and during the long train trips to camp.

The American Red Cross has made an appeal for these from time to time to be brought to its headquarters at Elizabeth street and John R. Perhaps you have hesitated to respond to this appeal, not because you lacked books to give but because you could never find time to take them "away down town."

If so, you will be glad to know that you may drop pocket book editions, for this purpose, at any of the Grosse Pointe Libraries. You may have picked up a number of these little books for temporary reading in your own "to-ings and fro-ings" across the country. These will be put to good use by the boys.

Because of limited space and limited staff we request that you restrict the books left at the library, for service men, to the small pocket books. These are easily handled. They can be sorted rapidly and then forwarded to the Red Cross Headquarters. From there they will be distributed to those places where they are most needed.

Many stories were rampant during World War I, fewer in World War II and we hope there will be occasion for none in the present crisis, of men who, wishing to while away a few hours of boredom with a book, had only two alternatives ... to lose themselves in the breath-taking adventures of Grandmother Elsie ... or to "curl up" with the 1910 World Almanac.

We ask you to simplify our task of sorting by giving only titles which you feel would have an appeal for service men. Ask yourself first, if your son would enjoy reading it. Among these small inexpensive editions there are many interesting titles, both current and classic.

Please label all contributions which you leave at the library for this purpose, FOR THE ARMED FORCES.

The five students who engaged in a panel discussion of Library Service at the Friends of the Library meeting last week are to be congratulated on the enthusiasm and aplomb with which they handled the question. Dr. Alfred Whittaker, Chairman of the Program Committee, acted

Self-Medication May Prove Expensive

By FRED N. KOPP, R. Ph.

We value our material possessions so much that when anyone threatens to deprive us of them, we engage the best professional advice obtainable.

Yet with our most valuable possession — our health, we try methods of self-medication that frequently result in expense with little relief.

Consulting a physician at the first sign of illness saves money, anxiety and pain. No other person is qualified to diagnose illness or to recommend treatment.

When medicine is necessary the professional knowledge and skill of a reliable pharmacist should be obtained also.

Town Hall Books Jacques Cartier

The internationally known actor, Jacques Cartier, will present his latest theatre-piece, "Portraits of Fire," at Detroit Town Hall, Wednesday morning, March 14. Cartier will be in costume for the unique and exciting program at 11 a.m. at Fisher Theatre.

He explains the title of his new show as "a series of portraits of great personalities who have burned their lasting impression on the consciousness of the world." These personalities include Spain's worshipped bull-fighter, Joseleito; Josef Cardinal Mindszenty; and the Continental clown, Grock. Other portraits are of Montezuma's high-priest, Cotal; Lazarus, whom Jesus raised from the dead; Genghis Khan, Charlie Chaplin, and the Apache chieftain, Cochise.

'Delphine' Darkens Issue

small piece of which otherwise would be given to the City.

The City councilmen were under the impression that the insistence on this job was due to the Farms' wish to keep the "Delphine" on its personal property tax rolls.

A check with the Farms officials reveals that that city has collected no taxes on the "Delphine" for a number of years; since the State of Michigan declared a special tax on boats which makes them exempt from personal property taxes.

The Farms explains that it wanted to keep the Dodge property all in the Farms because it is all a part of Assessor's Plot No. 1 of Grosse Pointe Farms, and it would have been confusing to have a single piece of property split between the two municipalities.

In addition, the Farms pointed out, it is called upon to render a great deal of special service when the "Delphine" is docked here. Garbage and rubbish collections out on the dock are much more difficult than the average pickups, and the Farms would be more than willing to have the City assume this service.

However, the Farms officials hastened to add they had no real kick coming. Mrs. Dodge pays a very nice tax bill to the Farms each year, which entitles her to plenty of service.

The City did not turn down the Farms' proposition on the traffic light, but action on the request was delayed until more information could be obtained.

The City also wants to know where the county fits into the picture. East Jefferson avenue and Lake Shore roads are maintained by the Wayne County Road Commission and it was suggested that the county should have some share of the expense of erecting and maintaining the proposed light.

Expectant Father Celebrates Early

A resident of Mt. Clemens was released under a $100 personal bond after he was arrested on charges of being drunk and disorderly Monday, March 5.

Woods Patrolman Everette Plumb said that a car driven by the man, 44, moving on the wrong side of the street on Mack, forced him off the road.

He was then arrested by Plumb and taken to the station where Plumb said he became very "abusive."

The man's wife, who is expecting a child shortly, was in the car at the time of the incident.

Plumb described him as "too drunk to walk straight."

Proposal to Cut Fines Rejected

The Farms Public Safety Committee voted down a proposal to reduce parking meter fines to five cents from $1.

The proposal would have permitted the settlement of violations for five cents if the offender reported to the police station within one hour from the time the ticket was issued.

Makes Tunnel Out of Garage

A freak accident occurred at the garage of David Crowe, of 305 Mt. Vernon, early Friday morning, March 2.

Farms police said he drove right through the rear of his garage and smashed into the garage on the adjoining lot.

Crowe was not injured, police said, but very bewildered.

A distinguished jury will consider the poster designs for awarding of the 15 cash prizes totaling $145.00.

The contest concludes Monday, April 16.

Superintendent James W. Bushong of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education will present the awards at a meeting of students and teachers to be held on Thursday, May 10, in Pierce Jr. High School.

Gesture of Appreciation

MARTHA WASHINGTON FISCHER celebrated George Washington's Birthday belatedly last week when she planted a cherry tree on the University of Detroit campus. THE REV. CELESTIN J. STEINER, president, gives her a hand. Her father, Herman Fischer of 464 Fisher road, Grosse Pointe, christened his daughter Martha Washington "out of appreciation for what this country did for an immigrant." She is a senior in the Arts and Science College. The cherry tree will carry a plaque with his name on it.

Join Federation For Good Roads

Grosse Pointe Farms and City Councils have approved the appropriation of $5.00 each to join the Good Roads Federation which is under the auspices of the Michigan Municipal League.

Officials of the cities said the Federation has been successful in bringing together suburban groups interested in better highways for Michigan.

The Federation has been able to not only interest additional gas tax legislation for road work purpose, but to obtain an agreement of a better gas tax distribution of benefitting urban areas, they said.

"If present plans are concluded," the Farms clerk said, "we will receive approximately $45,000 annually rather than the $20,000 now being received."

From Another Pointe of View

by
Jana Schermerborn

We were delighted to have a chance to chat this week with Mrs. Kathleen Meinhardt, the former Kathleen Hughes-Hallett, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. Leslie C. Hughes-Hallett, who brightened these shores when Sir Leslie was stationed here as His Britannic Majesty's Consul . . .

Kathleen is in town . . . rather she's in Windsor . . . where today in St. Andrew's Church she'll be married to Wesley Arnold Sprague of Lindsay, Ont. . .

During the war we lost track of this fascinating family . . . and Kathleen tells us her father is now retired . . . and that the Hughes-Halletts are living in London where they're being teddibly American, it seems to us . . . for they're apartment hunting . . .

The popular British family had hoped to settle in the United States following their retirement from diplomatic circles . . . but the upside state of currency precluded that happy engagement . . .

The Lady Kept Snakes

In the good old days, Mrs. Hughes-Hallett kept things around Detroit lively what with the boa constrictors she housed as pets . . . and the countless white mice she bred for the snakes . . .

She wrote poetry and music . . . and if there were salons in Detroit in the past hundred years . . . she certainly presided at them on afternoons and evenings in their Indian Village residence . . .

Lady Violet we will always remember as one of the most refreshingly honest women we've ever known . . .

We used to love to sit at the sidelines as some brave soul disagreed with her on this or that topic . . . waiting for the windup when she'd let her partner at repartee have it in the King's English . . .

She was always a woman of great courage . . . and Leslie, who won friends for England at his every appearance . . . was her charming partner . . .

David Fights for America

Kathleen says the snakes are gone now, . . . and therefore the white mice, too . . .

But that her love of music remains . . . She has just completed a ballet and two songs . . . which are now in the hands of the publishers . . .

When America entered World War II, son David Hughes-Hallett took out his American citizenship papers . . . and served with the American Army . . .

Today he's in Germany with our Occupation Forces . . . married to a girl from Alabama . . . and is the father of two little girls . . .

Champion Fencer

About Kathleen's young man . . . They met in British New Guinea . . .

Wesley's work as research chemist . . . brought him to Lindsay, Ont. . . where he's to be chief chemist for a plastic firm . . .

And it's in Lindsay they'll live following their marriage today . . .

Kathleen, during this visit has been with her maternal grandmother, Mrs. E. C. Holmes-Tidy in Windsor . . .

Mr. and Mrs. Bela de Tuscan are feting the newlyweds at an evening party this Sunday at the Salle de Tuscan . . . where Kathleen, as a sub deb, was a constant visitor . . .

Under Bela's tutelage, in those days, she became such an expert fencer she won the Canadian National Championship . . . and later appeared in the Olympics . . .

We hope the proximity of her new home to Detroit . . . will make her a familiar figure in these parts once again . . .

Mrs. Sanford to Review Plays

Marcelline Hemingway Sanford (Mrs. Sterling S.), of Hillcrest road, makes her second appearance of this week before a Women's City Club audience on Friday, March 9, at 2 p.m., giving up to the minute reports on "Broadway in '51."

Fresh from Broadway—she returned just a few days ago—Mrs. Sanford will include personality sketches of playwrights, actors and designers along with her reviews.

She addressed the Business Women's Group of the City Club Monday evening. The two engagements at the City Club are her first since her return.

While in New York last week, she interviewed Russell Crouse of the Lindsay-Crouse team, so that in reviewing their current hit, "Call Me Madam," she tells not only what the audience reaction is but what the authors think of it. The same is true of her review of "Rose Tattoo," Tennessee Williams' new show.

A member of the newly organized professional group, the Council of the Living Theatre, headed by Robert Sherwood, Mrs. Sanford attended a meeting last week to make plans for celebration of the theatre's 200th anniversary this year.

Marian Mulkey Weds James H. Simpson, Jr.

Daughter of Former Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. Philip O. Mulkey, Weds Kentucky Man in Ceremony at Church of the Advent, Louisville; Wedding Trip to Florida

The marriage of a lovely former Pointer, Marian Mulkey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Owen Mulkey, now of Louisville, Ky., to James Harrison Simpson, Jr., took place last Saturday in the Kentucky city.

Marian's marriage to the son of Mr. and Mrs. James H. Simpson of Hazard, Ky., was solemnized at 8:30 o'clock in the Church of the Advent. Performing the ceremony was the Rev. H. Sheppard Musson.

The slender, dark haired bride wore a gown of white chantilly lace over nylon net. A necklace neckline was formed of the lace pattern and the nylon yoke was caught to a fitted lace bodice. Sleeves of lace were long and fitted. Falling over the cathedral train of her wedding gown was her mother's wedding veil of French silk illusion, held in place by a tiny Juliet cap.

Marian carried a bouquet of white orchids, carnations and freesia.

Joan Lambert of Louisville was maid of honor and the maids included the bride's sister, Ann, and Suzanne Gresh of Ambler, Pa., and Mrs. Richard Ayres of Louisville.

The bridal attendants wore frocks of white lace and net, floor length sashes of rose velvet ribbon tying to fall floorlength in back. On their heads were small lace caps and they carried bouquets of rose carnations tied in matching velvet ribbon.

William J. Cooper was Mr. Simpson's best man and groomsmen were George Christiansen, William Simpson and Jack Whitman, all of Louisville.

Following the church ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Mulkey received the wedding guests at a reception in their home.

Still later that evening the new Mr. and Mrs. Simpson left for their wedding trip to Florida. They will make their home in Louisville upon their return.

Allen Turns In Greatest Game As Blue Devils Lose

Highland Park Takes BCL Crown Despite Magnificent Performance of Grosse Pointe High's Top Star

By Fred Runnells

One of Grosse Pointe High's greatest basketball players, if not the greatest, Bruce Allen, played the game of his life last Friday, March 2, before a jam-packed Highland Park gym but the league-leading Polar Bears held off a determined Blue Devil challenge and won the league crown, 65 to 55.

Upwards of 400 Grosse Pointers who traveled to Highland Park to lend moral support to their favorite team, saw one of the most astounding individual performances ever turned in by a Blue Devil cager. Allen tried to give the Pointers a share of the league crown, with a 29 point performance, but the failure of the other Pointe players to find the range spelled defeat.

Outscores Entire Team

In a whirlwind first quarter, the Blue Devils moved into a 20 to 16 lead with Allen outscoring the entire Highland Park team with 17 points. Allen gave the Devils the lead which they didn't relinquish until Highland Park's captain, Ray Pogliano, scored a layup shot with fifteen seconds to go to the halftime intermission to give his team a 31 to 30 advantage.

In the second quarter Allen scored all but one of the Devil's 10 points in a remarkable personal exhibition, not only almost matching the entire Highland Park team but turning in an amazing defensive display. Throughout the entire game he gave the Devils the ball off both backboards with his rebound play.

Take Over Lead Again

The Pointers jumped back into the lead early in the third period when Norm Hardin scored two seconds after McCullough tipped the jump ball. For the next six minutes the teams matched basket for basket tying the score three times with the lead changing hands five times before the Blue Devils' defense collapsed completely. In the last two minutes of the period Highland Park, led by its ninth grade star George Duncan, rolled up an eleven point margin.

In the final stanza Allen got a little help from Bud McCullough and Hardin but it was a case of "too little, too late" and the Parkers won going away to pack up their first basketball title and their second crown. They won the baseball championship in 1947.

Pogliano, Duncan Star

The two big guns in the Parker's attack, as has been the case all season, were veteran Ray Pogliano and the graceful George Duncan who notched, 21 and 24 points respectively. Duby and Carlson chipped in 8 points each while Parks added 8 points to the winning total.

Allen's 29 points gave him the individual scoring honors, which ran his 15 game season point total to 322. This is an all-time Grosse Pointe school record. This record gives Allen a 21.5 game average, never before attained by a Blue Devil cager and is one of the best, if not the best average posted by a high school player in the state this season.

Already Honored

Bruce already has been honored by being chosen on the All-Suburban cage team and unless I miss my guess he will be selected as one of the players to make up the All-State quintet. If he misses it will be no fault of his, but the short sightedness of the selectors of the All-State team. He's the greatest high school player these eyes have ever had the pleasure of watching perform.

Fordson, the only other team to beat the Blue Devils during the 1950-51 campaign, whipped Royal Oak last Friday, March 2, to salvage a second place tie in the Border Cities League race with the Blue Devils.

Fine Record Compiled By Wernet

Five years ago a fellow answering to the name of Ed Wernet took over the basketball reins at Grosse Pointe High school. At the time the only thing known about Wernet was the fact that he was a Grosse Pointe alumnus and regarded as the best all-round athlete ever to graduate from the school on Fisher road.

In his quiet way Coach Wernet went about his task of building a winning cage quintet and in his first year gave the Pointers their first Border Cities League basketball title in ten years.

Many local fans didn't give Wernet credit for building a championship team and pointed to the fact he had some excellent material left to him by the former coach Bill Healey. Then again there were others who thought Wernet should receive all the credit for the title.

With this blemish on the crown Wernet came back in the 1947-48 campaign to pilot the Blue Devils to second place in the league. This gave the doubters from the previous year a chance to say "I told you so." These people didn't take into consideration the fact the Pointers got an extremely rough deal in a crucial contest with Fordson on the Tractors home court that year.

The following year Wernet experienced his worst season, winning nine games while losing six but he still came up with a two-way tie with Fordson for second place.

The 1949-50 campaign was a different story. The Blue Devils surged through that season winning 13 games while dropping only two, which was plenty good enough to win the Border Cities League crown going away.

This year the Pointers dropped three contests in 15 games and again tied for second place with Fordson, the "spoiler" in the league. The Tractors dropped the Pointers 55 to 45 in the game that could have given the Blue Devils a share of the crown.

In all Wernet-coached cage teams have won 55 games while losing 17 over a five year span, and today even the scoffers of five years ago are solidly behind the quiet and sometimes shy "maker of champions."

Here is a run down by years of the Blue Devils cage record. 1946-47, won 11, lost 2; 1947-48, won 10, lost 4; 1948-49, won 9, lost 6; 1949-50, won 13, lost 2; and 1950-51, won 12, lost 3.

DUS Basketball Team Beaten by St. Anne's

The DUS basketball team lost a tight contest to St. Anne's High School on Feb. 8, the final score of the bitterly fought game being 30-29.

D. Rentschler was high point scorer for the local team, dropping in 14 points. The game was played in the Lincoln High School gymnasium in Ferndale.

—Picture by Fred Runnells

BRUCE ALLEN, rangy 6 feet six inch Blue Devil forward, holder of the Grosse Pointe High School all-time scoring record of 322 points in 15 games for a 21.5 game average, is this community's nomination to the 1950-51 All-State basketball team. A senior, Allen was the mainstay of the Blue Devil's bid for their second successive Border Cities League title, which was thwarted by Highland Park in the last game of the season. Allen played brilliantly, scoring 29 of the Pointer's 55 point total.

Burns Saves Verdonckt Five From Defeat in Club League

A high, looping shot soared through the air as the buzzer sounded, ending the game between Verdonckt Bakery and the Metropolitan club and swished through the hoop cleanly to give the Bakers a hair raising 55 to 54 victory in the Neighborhood Club Basketball League last Monday, February 26.

Burns grabbed a tip-off near the Verdonckt basket and dribbled clear of the Metropolitan defense and fired his game winning shot that enabled his team to remain tied for first place with Grosse Pointe Valet in the hot Major Division race.

The game to decide the winner of the Major Division will be played Friday, March 9, between Verdonckt and Valet. The Bakers will be out to avenge their only defeat of the season which was administered by the Valets. Tip-off time is scheduled for 9 p.m.

Tracy Motors edged past St. Clare C.Y.O., 48 to 45, to jump back into the race for the Minor Division title last Tuesday, February 27. Don Patterson paced the winners with 21 points. Tracy has 3 more games to play, while the co-leaders, Post 303 and Belle Isle, have 4 games remaining.

Pointe Hosts Badminton Tournament

The Grosse Pointe Badminton Association will be host at the second annual Michigan Badminton League tournament to be held in the girls gymnasium at Grosse Pointe High School March 9, 10 and 11.

The tournament is a closed affair with Grosse Pointe, Ferndale, Royal Oak and Flint competing in the men's and ladies singles, doubles and mixed doubles events.

Play will get under way at 8 p.m. Friday, and 1:30 p.m. Saturday. The finals will start at 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

All champions from last year's tourney will be on hand to defend their titles.

During the regular season the Grosse Pointe Badminton Ass'n won the league title with 4 victories in 6 matches which made up the home and home series between the teams previously mentioned.

Spectators are welcome and there is no admission fee.

The first tournament was held at Ferndale last year. Jack Lavis is the general chairman of the Michigan Badminton League and plays with the Grosse Pointe group.

Expect Battle In Church Loop

With only one week remaining in the second round of the Inter-Church Basketball League season, one big battle is in the offing between Christ Church and Woods Presbyterian for second place.

A victory for Presbyterian would give it second place in the second round of play and also second place for the season. Presbyterian captured second place in the first round.

However, a victory for Christ Church would give it second place in the second round and create a two-way tie for the runner-up spot for the season with Presbyterian.

Both Christ Church and Presbyterian won their games last Saturday, March 3. Christ Church staged a last quarter rally to nip the St. Paul Jets, 25 to 16, while Presbyterian won its game on a forfeit when the St. Paul Rockets failed to place five boys on the floor by the 15 minute forfeit time.

Memorial had no trouble in subduing a smaller Methodist quintet 34 to 6.

Presbyterian played a scrimmage game against the four St. Paul Rockets and head referee Bill Beckenhauer. The Rockets almost nipped the classy Presbyterian quintet which was forced to go into overtime to come off the winner 26 to 22.

Robin Hesse Captures First And Second In State Meet

Grosse Pointe High Swimming Star Almost Becomes Only Double Winner in Tough Competition at East Lansing

Robin Hesse came within an eyelash of becoming the only double winner in this year's state high school swimming meet, held at East Lansing last Saturday, March 3.

In leading the Blue Devils to sixth place with a total of 18 points, Hesse captured the 100 yard free style event by less than a foot over Richard Drewyer of Saginaw, Arthur Hill and four other contestants.

Hard to Pick

In the first event, the 50 yard free style, it took the officials fifteen minutes to determine the winner. The finish was that close. Hesse was awarded a second.

Grosse Pointe's only other point getters were Tony Fear who finished fourth in the 50 yard free style event, and Bill Winkler, who finished fourth in the diving.

Surprise Coach

Coach Frank Banach was very much surprised with the lofty position his team placed in the meet because he didn't believe his boys could keep pace with the "fast company" competing in the meet.

Last year the Blue Devils scored 24 points, which was good for third place, but on last year's Blue Devil squad were such powerful swimmers as Jerry Nay and John Chase to bring home the bacon.

This year Royal Oak of the Border Cities League replaced the Pointers in the third position with a 30 point total.

Battle Creek padded its way to six victories in the nine events to score 56 points and gain the state high school Class A title. Saginaw Arthur Hill finished with 45 points for second place.

Reserves Beaten By Highland Park

In a wild and woolly contest marked with 57 personal fouls, the Grosse Pointe reserve cage team dropped a 37 to 32 decision to Highland Park on the Parkers' home court last Friday, March 2.

The defeat was the Devils' seventh in fifteen starts and the second loss to the Polar Bears, who scored an impressive 46 to 24 victory in the first league game of the season on the Devil home floor, December 8.

The game was actually decided at the foul line with the Parkers cashing in on 17 of 38 charity tosses as compared to the Devils' 12 out of 34 tries. Both teams scored ten field goals.

Highland Park pulled to within one point of a tie, 27 to 26, as the third quarter ended. At this point under league rules the game should have ended because it was five minutes to eight and time for the varsity teams to take the floor. But for the first time in memory, the league rule was broken and the reserve quintets allowed to finish.

Ahmad pulled the Parkers into a 29 to 29 tie with three minutes remaining. John Diccico put the Pointers out in front once more 31 to 29 with a long shot but seconds later Don Johnson knotted the count at the six-minute mark of the period. Bernie Jones gave the Parkers a 33 to 31 lead with a layup shot.

Sean Fraser had a chance to tie the score with two foul shots but could only find the hoop with one to pull the Devils to within one point of a tie. Chuck Schneider looped in a long shot and Bernie Jones scored on a break-

The league-leading Trombley bowling team collapsed completely last Thursday, March 1, and Murray Smith's team roared into first place in the St. Paul Men's Bowling League race.

Hot on the Smith team heels was Harry Furton's squad, which took advantage of the Trombley lapse to share second place, one point off the leaders pace.

Two hundred plus games came cheaper by the dozen with B. Allor posting games of 223 and 207 to lead the parade. D. McCarron was the only other kegger to post two 200 plus games, 207 and 205. Others were W. Jones 230, H. Furton 208, W. Gurchie 207, G. Walters 206, C. Backman 202, E. Deprest 204, J. Jablonski 209, M. Smith 202, R. Smith 209, W. Kirby 202, C. Meiningner 201 and E. Lauer and even 200.

Ray Pety Rolls 677 Pin Series

Max Brown's Pointe Ins. Agency nipped league leading Boutin's Service for three points last Wednesday night in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling league and in so doing, reduced Boutin's lead to a single point over the field.

Gil Sarkison's closing 255 was largely responsible for Pointe Insurance's 6 pin victory margin in the final game.

Tied for second place are, Turner Buick, Inc., by virtue of a 3 point win over injury-riddled Dart In Bar, and Better Made Chips, who trounced Tom Boyd, Inc.

Ray Pety, of Schulte Hardware turned in the season's finest three game performance, rolling 256 in 677.

Belding Cleaners scored the only other shutout of the evening in its match with Rustic Cabins.

Teams winning three games were: Cramer Electric, from Kennelly Catering; Bruce Wigler Co. from Imperial Cleaners; and Hall-Dodds, Inc., from Testa Cement Co.

CDS Cage Six Beats Liggett

Led by its tiny captain, Janie Ottaway, Country Day swamped Liggett's girls' cage sextet 56 to 32 last Friday, March 2.

Captain Ottaway notched 24 points to become the game's leading scorer. She was closely followed by Denny Edgar, who chipped in 19 points toward Country Day's winning margin.

The victory gave the Country Day School a record of 4 wins as against 2 losses.

In the preliminary game the Country Day reserve team squeezed out a 20 to 19 victory over Liggett.

GROSSE POINTE BUSINESS LEADERS CONGRATULATE ALPHONSE J. MEYER, R. PH.

ALPHONSE J. MEYER, R. PH.
Noted Grosse Pointe Pharmacist who opens his new home, Mack at Courville Avenues, next Monday morning, March 12.

Grosse Pointe deserves the best and, what's more, gets it! In congratulating Mr. Alphonse J. Meyer upon the opening of his new pharmacy at 16361 Mack avenue, between Whittier and Courville, we do so with the thought that the service he has rendered the community has been so outstanding as to merit special recognition.

Since 1927, when he established the original pharmacy at Mack and Three Mile, Mr. Meyer has earned a world-wide reputation. A considerable number of the nearly million prescriptions compounded by the pharmacy have come from all corners of the earth and in many languages. So, surely but slowly does the word travel! Peak of perfection in prescription work - - outstanding stock supplies of even the rarest ingredients - - top-flight pharmacists - - the warm personal touch, and lastly, superlative service, have all been behind the growth of the business. They are its hallmark.

We hail his success. We laud the beautiful, spacious structure he has built around his needs and the needs of his customers.

We of the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association are Proud to Recognize This Personal Accomplishment of One of the Founders of Our Organization.

The big new John Monteith School in Cook road will take longer to complete. Very bad foundation trouble was encountered when quicksand was found on the site, and costly piling had to be driven.

Weather conditions this year have also been brutal on the building trades. It is hoped that at least a portion of the Monteith School will be ready for occupancy by September to help relieve the crowded conditions in some of the other schools.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozit

This news does NOT come from the committee headed by SENATOR FULBRIGHT now investigating RFC practices . . . but one of his stars, REX JACOBS, has bought the FREDERICK S. FORD home on Windmill Pointe drive . . . one of the Pointe's most glamorous manors . . .

The beautiful and blond MRS. LESTER F. RUWE smokes a pipe . . . but calm down, girls, it's a miniature pipe and holds her cigarette . . .

Pretty color scheme MRS. KENDRICK K. BROWN uses her correspondence . . . a deep cafe au lait stationery printed in dark brown . . . and the ledgy fills her pen with dark brown ink . . .

We got a Christmas present from the Ford Motor Company this year . . . and though we could tell as we untied the package it was too small to be a Ford or a Mercury or a Lincoln or even a spare tire . . . it contained one of the best looking and most readable cookbooks we've ever seen . . . It's called THE FORD TREASURY OF FAVORITE RECIPES FROM FAMOUS EATING PLACES, published by Simon and Schuster . . . and this week it went on sale in bookstores throughout the country . . . There are 256 recipes from outstanding inns, restaurants and hotels throughout the nation . . . each page (it's in color) includes an illustration of the eating establishment and one of its outstanding recipes . . . Makes you feel as if you're traveling all over when you thumb its pages in pursuit of something to please Hector for dinner tonight! . . .

Now tell us . . . do you think EDWARD C. PARKER . . . of the Pointe and Metamora . . . resembles JOHN CAMERON SWAZEY who tells televisioners all about the world's news? . . .

And, recovering from the flu, we've decided HOPALONG CASSIDY looks like GEN. IKE EISENHOWER, which should give either of them the presidential vote in '52 . . .

PILFERINGS

If you listened to Tallulah Bankhead's "Big Show" last Sunday night, you can pass on to the next item . . . BUT . . . Fred Allen, hearing that Margaret Truman was also to be a guest star on the radio program brought along a little envelope . . . which he intended to give her to deliver to Washington, for him . . .

It was for the Internal Revenue Department . . . "What's in it" asked Talloo, "your income tax?" . . . "No," said Allen, "It's my income. I couldn't afford to pay the tax this year."

Our pal, Elmer, thinks these are screamingly funny and he cribbed from EDITOR & PUBLISHER'S humor column, "Short Takes" . . .

They appear under the heading "Romance in The News" . . . "Houston (Tex.) Press: "Then he put his ARMY around me."

Westchester (Pa.) Daily Local News: "Miss Blank, maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of watermelon starched."

Grand Rapids (Mich.) Herald: "The maid of honor wore a MASSIVE satin gown."

Copy reaching the Newark (N.J.) News: "The bride wore a bouffant SHIRT."

Boston (Mass.) Traveler: "The way to stop BRIDERY and dishonesty is by working on the players. Send them and their BRIDES to prison."

San Diego (Calif.) Evening Tribune: "Dozier has been SQUIRMING the beautiful Linda Darnell to Hollywood night spots."

Marysville (Calif.) Appeal-Democrat: "They think that nothing matters except that they thrill to each other's OUCH, and they never doubt that they will go on billing and cooing forever."

Pointer of Interest

MISS JEAN TAYLOR OF THE CITY BRANCH OF THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

A liking for people and a love of books, which constitute her dominant interests, have been successfully combined by Miss Jean Taylor in her work as presiding librarian of the City Branch Library in Notre Dame avenue.

A native of Canada's Georgian Bay district, Miss Taylor received her A. B. degree from the University of Toronto. She took her library training in Brooklyn, New York. The course, one of the few available in training librarians for work with children, was given under the auspices of the Brooklyn public library.

Although she vowed never to stay in one locale more than two years, Miss Taylor joined the Pointe's library staff in 1929, serving in the Village branch, next to the Neighborhood Club, and has found the intervening years rich in personal contacts. An atmosphere of friendliness, inspired by Miss Taylor's soft-spoken manner and radiant smile, serves as an invitation to all youngsters of the area to visit the library when in quest of reading matter, and when in need of advice as to what to purchase for mother's birthday. It is these congenial contacts with children that Miss Taylor finds most rewarding.

Authors a Column
The community is kept abreast of library activities via Miss Taylor's column, "What Goes on at Your Library," which appears weekly in the NEWS. Although she modestly disclaims any literary ability, we suspect that she could find the time, Miss Taylor has the makings of an author of children's books. Summer vacations, of a month's duration, enable her to travel and she has made trips out West and to Mexico. Her hobby, which is color photography, makes it possible for her to keep a record of her travels.

Frolic to Help Victim of Palsy

To help speed the recovery of a little victim of cerebral palsy, the Fortnighters, (young adult group), of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church are sponsoring the Fortnighters First Annual Dinner Frolic on Friday, March 17 at the church.

Proceeds from the event will be used to buy this child a much needed special type wheel chair. Brightly covered tables will await the guests and in the theme of the "Gay Nineties" costumed waiters will serve dinner at 6:30 p.m. Following the dinner a gala evening has been planned to appeal to the whole family.

There will be group singing, humorous skits, animated cartoons in color for the young fry and the evening will wind up with social dancing for all. In addition there will be prizes, according to Wallace Ehrlich who is general chairman of the dinner frolic.

Ann Shenefield and Marian Musolf are handling decorations. Among those taking part in the skits are Mrs. Robert Knell, Alan Friewald, Carol Sanford and Richard Edwards. Mary Holtman is securing the costumes. Jean Leavitt heads the dining room staff and Mrs. Arthur C. Dannecker, Jr. is in charge of the food committee.

Publicity is being taken care of by Carol Sanford, chairman, and Mary Holtman, Anne Shenefield, Robert Knell and Wallace Ehrlich. Robert Knell is in charge of ticket sales. Tickets are $1.50 per person and reservations for the dinner frolic may be made by calling the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church office TUxedo 5-3773.

They are going to spend Murray's vacation from the Hun School, Princeton, N. J. in Florida and will be joined by Mrs. Cole's other son, Carter Sales Jr. later in the month. ### Friends of Susan Biglin Help Celebrate Birthday

Susan Biglin of Hollywood road was hostess to a group of her friends on Sunday, March 4. They helped to celebrate her 12th birthday at a "farewell" party. Susan will leave with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Biglin, her brothers, Peter and Terry, and little sister Michele, for a month's stay at Sarasota, Fla., this week.

Susan's friends who attended the party were Cathy and Marilyn Doonen, Barbara Lass, Susan Gmeiner, Barbara and Connie Delor, Joan Dodge, Charlene McHugh, Denise Dodge, Barbara Eaves, Alice Showcart, Lizette Nelson, Janice Hennich, Pat Ryberg, Margaret Notebart, Sharon Potts and Diane Martin.

In the process of cleaning and painting, the acids used in removing the old varnish, sometimes penetrate rapidly. Only a skillful restorer will know when to stop, in order to avoid damage to the painting.

deGrimme GALLERIES GROSSE POINTE

Enjoys Sports
As to sports, she enjoys hockey as a spectator and golf and swimming as a participant. She is also a devotee of the theatre and, as her weekly column reveals, she appreciates music and all things cultural.

With the approach of warm weather, Miss Taylor will be spending weekends at the cottage she and her sister maintain on Georgian Bay. She speaks of things marine with enthusiasm and considers one of the principal charms of the Pointe its lake shore.
