Park Mayor Traps Pair Of Burglars

Unwelcome Guests Caught In Home After His Honor Invites Police to Attend

Two young burglars who "cased" their would-be victims through the society pages of Detroit newspapers pleaded guilty Monday, May 7, to breaking and entering the home of Homer Fritsch, mayor of Grosse Pointe Park. Arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, Cecil May, 19, of 4322 Audubon, was held under $5,000 bond and Theodore Radomich, 18, of 2175 Drexel, $2,500.

Remanded to Jail

Both were remanded to the County Jail to await trial in Circuit Court.

The youths were surprised in the Fritsch home at 1009 Harvard Saturday night by Park Police.

May told police that he learned from a society note that Mr. and Mrs. Fritsch would be attending a wedding reception at the Detroit Athletic Club Saturday.

Caught in the Act

Working according to plans, May said they entered the house through a side door and were busy ransacking the upper floor when Sgt. Hazen Hennig and Patrolmen Larry Cools and Donald Del Place appeared.

The officers had responded to a phone call from Mr. Fritsch who arrived home sooner than expected.

Slipping quietly into his bedroom with Mrs. Fritsch, he locked the door and called police.

"I have a few unexpected guests," he told police calmly. Police responded instantly.

TANGLES WITH SAW

Earl Reed, 30, of 3741 Crane, suffered a bad cut on his left leg when an electric saw he was working with at 423 Moran got out of control.

Pointers to Get Another Chance to Donate Blood

Sixty-nine pints of blood were collected by the Red Cross Mobile Unit which visited the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church on Tuesday, May 1. Of the 97 volunteers, 28 were rejected.

Cooperating with the Congregational Church on this drive, were St. Paul's Lutheran Church, St. Michael's Chapel and Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian. This drive initiated a blood bank credit for these churches to be utilized by members in event of need.

Every fifth pint was automatically allocated for Korean wounded. However, many donors stipulated that theirs be sent to Korea, as well.

Board of Education Saved From Financial Dilemma By Tax Allocation Board

Differential Between Township and Other Four Pointe Municipalities Is Allowed After Special Meeting in County Building

The Wayne County Tax Allocation Board has granted a differential in the school tax rate between Grosse Pointe Township and the other four Pointes, and relieved the Grosse Pointe Board of Education from what it feared might be an embarrassing financial situation.

The township had applied for a two mill slice of the tax to pay for its budget for the coming year. The School Board feared that if this was granted the allocation board might take the same amount from the tax in the other four Pointes. This would have created a loss of between $250,000 and $275,000 and the educators would have been hard pressed.

Township Sets 1.75

At a meeting in the County Building last Thursday, May 3, the allocation board granted the township 1.75 mills, but allowed a differential for the remainder of the Pointe school district.

The Board of Education had asked for 8.9 mills, but was allocated 8.999 from the City, Farms, Park and Woods, and 7.149 from the township, which now comprises only the Shores. With the extra two mills voted by the people some years ago, this will give the Board of Education a total of 10.899 in the four Pointes and 9.149 in the Shores or township.

Politicians Fear Gangs, Says Speaker

Head of Chicago Crime Commission Believes Fight Must Be Waged at Local Level

The fight to dislodge crime in government must be waged at the level of local government, stressed Virgil Peterson, head of the Chicago Crime Commission and former F.B.I. agent, who spoke Monday night at Pierce Junior High School auditorium, as the guest of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club.

Sad Commentary

The findings of the official Kefauver report, released on May 1, are termed a sad commentary on American Democracy by Mr. Peterson, who added that the original idealism of the founding fathers must be regained by sizable segments of the population to restore government to its proper level.

The present insidious presence of crime in government is not the development of world wars or prohibition but the product of citizen apathy. Not a new phenomenon, corruption has existed in organized society since its inception, said Mr. Peterson.

Violators Are Dictators

Where crime has become entrenched in government, the result has been the same. Law enforcement policies have been dictated by law violators. Mr. Peterson continued with the statement that this blight on American Democracy is perpetuated because many government officials are more afraid of the power of the underworld than of the power of the citizens who elected them.

Vigilance on the part of citizens can remedy gangsterism in government, stresses Mr. Peterson. This vigilance must be followed up by active citizen participation.

Builders Ordered To Be More Tidy

Woods police warned builders of new houses at 19962 Emory court and at 1110 Fairholme on May 1, to clean up the properties.

The builder of a house at 951 S. Renaud was warned by police on May 2 to remove sand and gravel from the street.

Four other building concerns were issued tickets on May 3 by Woods police for violating the building code. One concern received two tickets.

The concerns cited all have homes under construction in S. Renaud. Tickets were issued because of the dirty condition of sidewalks and curbs.

Canvassers Ready To Start Annual Census on Friday

Count Required by State for School Fund Allocation Purposes Also Furnishes Much Additional Valuable Information

The annual school census will be taken in Grosse Pointe beginning tomorrow, May 11, in accordance with the laws of the State of Michigan, announced L. M. Bartlett, Director of Pupil Personnel for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools. This census must be taken each year during the last 20 days of May.

Part of the money which the local schools receive from state funds is apportioned on the basis of the number of children residing in the district. Information received from the annual school census is also essential for the enforcement of the compulsory education laws.

Provides Facts

Another important use of the census data is to provide facts relative to the growth of population and the number of children in the district. The data are summarized in such a way that the total population as well as the number of children of each age from birth to twenty years of age is tabulated for each municipality and each elementary school district in the area. The tabulation also shows the number of children for each age attending no school, public schools and non-public schools.

Gives Exact Picture

As a result of such tabulations a year by year picture is obtained which shows the exact growth in each municipality and elementary school district in the school system. In a rapidly growing area such as Grosse Pointe such data are invaluable to the Board of Education and its staff in planning for the educational facilities needed in the district.

To Visit Every Home

Every home in the school district will be visited by a census enumerator. Residents are asked to cooperate with these enumerators and provide the necessary information. All information is confidential. Due to the importance of the school census, accurate information from parents is desired.

Probably the greatest difficulty met by enumerators when calling at homes is obtaining the correct birthdates for each child in the family. Therefore, parents are asked to check over their children's birth records before the enumerator calls and be ready with correct information.

Will Carry Identification

All census enumerators will be furnished with an identification card signed by L. M. Bartlett, Director of Pupil Personnel, which will be gladly shown by them upon request.

Last May's census showed a total population of 43,764 for the area comprised in the Grosse Pointe School District. With the great amount of building which has taken place during the past year, there will probably be an increase in total population this year over last year of from 3,000 to 4,000 persons or more.

Thieves Ransack Home in Farms

Burglars fled with about $100 after ransacking the home of Dr. Dean L. Pucci, of 287 Moran, early Sunday, May 6.

Farms Police said that entrance was gained through a side door.

Macomb County Cooperating To Help Pointe Swimmers

With the approach of another swimming season, Macomb County has once again stopped discharging its drainage into Lake St. Clair above the Pointe beaches and is diverting it into the big interceptor sewer which carries it inland.

Diversion into the interceptor was started on May 1 and Murray Smith, Farms engineer, said this week the difference in the purity of the water was noticeable almost immediately. Under ordinary circumstances water off the Pointe clears within 24 hours after the Macomb drainage is diverted from the lake to the interceptor.

Macomb County skips the interceptor and discharges into the lake during the fall and winter months because of the great sav-

Pointe Faces Challenge by Birmingham

That Community With Less Than Half Pointe's Population Generously Supports Center

Residents of the Birmingham-Bloomfield section support their community center by an annual campaign which produces between $28,000 and $36,000, it was revealed at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association Monday night.

Never Any Trouble

It was stated the Birmingham center never has any trouble raising this amount in its community which had a 1950 census population of slightly less than 17,000.

The Pointe, with a population of more than 40,000, is now engaged in a campaign to raise a minimum of $18,000 for its War Memorial Center. Any money raised above this amount would be used to expand the program at the Center and improve the physical property.

The challenge issued by the campaign leaders was meant to be heard by every resident of the Pointe. Can this community match the Birmingham-Bloomfield annual accomplishment?

If the Pointe does as well as Birmingham, the present drive should yield approximately $80,000.

Police Consign BB Guns to Lake

More than 60 BB guns were consigned to the bottom of Lake St. Clair recently by Park police, ending the reign of destruction perpetrated by their youthful owners.

Police confiscated a BB gun on May 4, seen in the possession of a fifteen-year-old youth.

The following evening, Mrs. A. W. Haldeman reported to police that an air rifle had damaged a rear bedroom window of her home at 1037 Beaconsfield.

Police will continue to confiscate all such weapons seen in the possession of children. D. Sgt. Arnold Hough of the Park, emphasized.

Youth Accused Of Taking Hubcap

A Gratiot Township youth was held Monday, May 7, for investigation of stealing a hubcap from a car parked at Master's Service Station, Mack and Cloverly.

Farms Police said they apprehended him in possession of the hubcap near the station.

Leaders Tell Of Progress During Year

Members Hear Reports of Fine Growth At Annual Meeting; Needs Are Stressed

Members of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association attending the annual meeting of the organization in the Memorial Center Monday night, heard reports of another year of progress and continued development, and were informed of the great necessity of making the current drive for funds an outstanding success.

Six new directors were elected to succeed five whose terms expire and one who has had to tender his resignation. Those retiring from the board this year include Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., Mrs. Hubert Goebel, Leo Fitzpatrick, John Kenower, Herbert Micou and Norbert Neff.

New Directors

Elected to succeed them were: Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, Richard Huegli, Frank Sladen, Jr., Robert Tannahill, Mrs. Emmett Tracy, all for three years terms; and John K. Roney, for a two year term.

The nominating committee was composed of Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt, chairman; Mrs. Edsel B. Ford, Robert Hackathorn, Carsten Tiedeman and Mrs. Henry H. Hubbard. All of the newly elected directors had been approached by

Men's Chorus Makes Big Hit

The Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus scored an outstanding hit when it furnished the entertainment part of the program at the annual meeting of the War Memorial Association in the Center Monday night.

This group meets in the Pierce School every Tuesday night and sings for two hours for the sheer joy of singing. All that is required is that the member be able to carry a tune.

John Finch of the Grosse Pointe High School music department, is director of the group. He led the 30 members of the club who appeared at the Center meeting, in half a dozen numbers that were greeted with rousing enthusiasm.

The nominating committee before Monday night's annual meeting and all had agreed to serve. No other nominations were proposed from the floor.

Fiscal Year Changed

The membership also voted to change the fiscal year of the association from July 31 to March 31. This will enable the treasurer to submit a full year's report at the annual May meeting, rather than an eight months' report, which is all that has been possible under the former fiscal year.

The accounting firm of Price, Waterhouse, keeps a running account of the association's funds and prepares its annual audit without any compensation.

Alger Sheldon Presides

President Alger Sheldon presided at the meeting and presented his annual report. At the request of the board of directors, his message included the reports of the various committee chairman, a procedure which eliminated the necessity of calling on the individual chairmen.

Among those whose reports were incorporated in Mr. Sheldon's message were: Earl Heenan, insurance; John Kenower, finance; Renville Wheat, policy; Ralph Netting, personnel; Norbert Neff, veterans; Miss Marie L. Anderson, Garden Center; Mrs. Charles Ellis, House; Raymond Dykema, legal; James Lee, public relations; Robert Tannahill, decorations and gifts; Herbert Micou, buildings and repairs; Mrs. Charles B. Lord, youth activities.

Reflect Big Year

Space does not permit the printing of these various reports in full. They reflected a year of great activity and increasing use by the residents of the beautiful memorial center. Attendance passed the 50,000 mark and meals were served to more than 8,000. Many additional outstanding gifts have been made to the Center during the past year. Mrs. Russell Alger, whose former home the Center was, added substantially to her gifts of previous years. She has presented six antique standing lanterns, five magnificent old embroidered panels that hang on the stair walls and a series of frieze paintings for the dining room for which they were originally designed.

Other Gifts
Other members of the Alger family have also made additional contributions. Mr. and Mrs. Alger Sheldon gave a pair of bronze candelabra and Mrs. Stephen T. Stackpole a nest of tables and a beautiful epergne that had belonged to her grandfather, the late General Russell Alger.

Four greatly needed rugs were given. They included a rare old hooked one, presented by Mrs. George E. Villerot; a superb antique from Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Small, a beautiful oriental presented by the Rotary Club and another one from Mr. and Mrs. Alger Sheldon. Edward Pongraz presented six clocks.

Still More
Other outstanding gifts were: a pair of 18th century English torchieres from Mr. and Mrs. Forman S. Johnston; a Victorian rosewood sofa from Mrs. George

M. Black; an old Italian desk and chair from Mr. and Mrs. J. Frazer Whitehead; an oil painting of hunting dogs by Edmund Osthaus and two majolica jars from Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Buhl; two 18th century embroidered pictures from Mrs. Edsel B. Ford; an old Russian ikon and a wax miniature from Miss Marguerite Stroh; six 17th century Italian chairs and an old Spanish cabinet and stand from Mr. H. Monroe Campbell; a punch bowl from the Grosse Pointe Artists, and a vacuum cleaner from the Detroit Edison Company.

Endowment Fund
The Endowment Fund market worth was reported at $134,000. This produces a revenue of slightly above $7,200 per year. In stressing the need to raise more funds through the present drive, it was pointed out that it is now costing approximately $49,000 per year to maintain and operate the Center.

Income from program receipts, special maintenance contributions of a group of 16 residents, revenue from investments and receipts from services supplied, all total slightly more than $31,000. The deficit of $18,000 must come from individual annual donations.

Brochures Distributed
Brochures prepared by Mr. and Mrs. James Lee and paid for by an anonymous friend of the Center, are being distributed to every resident of the community so they may see just what the Center is offering the public, and the financial problems it must solve.

The drive just started Friday, so no reports on progress are yet available. All five Pointes have been organized and block canvassers will call at every home, seeking some donation, no matter how small, to keep the Center operating on a full schedule.

Hope for Expansion
Any funds raised above the needed $18,000 will be used to expand the program of activities and further beautify the property.

It was reported the Garden Center is attempting to set up a schedule that will keep it staffed from 10 to 4 each day by volunteers so it will be in a position to supply information to inquiring gardeners.

A total of 690 groups used the Center during the last year. Events sponsored by the Center have included lectures on all manner of cultural and educational subjects, recitals and concerts, classes in various forms of the arts, art exhibits and the formation and meetings of many clubs.

The teen-agers have enjoyed 15 special parties there during the year and the young adult group has held 18 events. More than 100 persons have worked on the committees to carry out the projects of the Youth Adult Council. In addition to the social side of their program they have provided workers where needed for community affairs, have sponsored visits by the blood bank mobile unit and are assisting in the current drive for funds.

The directors of the War Memorial Association will meet next Monday night, May 14, at which time new officers for the coming year will be elected.

The membership gave a rising vote of thanks to President Alger Sheldon for the great service he has given since the birth of the memorial association.

White Cane Week Being Observed

Local churches, schools, newspapers, radio stations and places of business are again working together to further the educational program of White Cane Week, May 6 to 12, 1951.

Under the dual sponsorship of Lions Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit and the Lions Clubs of Michigan, printed leaflets have been prepared for distribution throughout all schools.

Thousands of White Canes are furnished each year, free of charge, to blind and partially blind persons through the efforts of the various Lions Clubs.

Once each year a special week is designated as White Cane Week.

John Douglas McGrae, Jr. Also on "M" Honors List

The name of John Douglas McGrae, Jr. was omitted from a list of students honored at the 28th annual Honors Convocation at the University of Michigan on April 27. The list was published in last week's issue of the NEWS.

John, the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McGrae of Moran road, was on the honors list for the College of Literature, Science and the Arts. His average has been at least half A and half B for the last two semesters.

Nab Teen-Agers Drinking Beer

Five teen-agers, 4 boys and a girl, were apprehended by Farms police on Wednesday, May 2, drinking beer in a car parked at Fisher and Ridge.

Police confiscated 16 bottles of beer which had been purchased in a beer store in Grosse Pointe City. Detective Sgt. Elmer Labadie of the Farms stressed that drinking beer or other alcoholic beverages while parked on a public highway was in violation of a state ordinance.

WUNDA WEVE CARPETING

... new, distinctive charm for your home!

$9.95 square yard

Like the Brian Ahernes, you'll find Wunda Weve brings a new and distinctive charm to your home when you fashion your floors with its matchless beauty.

You'll choose from colors that can't be equalled in conventional carpets—bold and brilliant tones or soft and muted hues. You'll see the rugged richness of its cut pile subtly flatter your furniture and lend a friendly graciousness to rooms no other carpet quite achieves.

Wunda Weve is loom woven to wear as well as fine wool broadloom. It is slow to soil, easy to vacuum. It is color-fast, pre-shrunk, fully washable and mothproof.

Haydon House invites you to come in and select Wunda Weve in the size that's right for you—wall-to-wall, room size or scatter rugs.

WUNDA WEVE

Favorite of the Stars
Now Yours for Beautiful Rooms

The Brian Ahernes choose Wunda Weve for luxurious beauty of home.

Wunda Weve will tie in beautifully with any decorating scheme, anywhere in any home. Its appeal to people of good taste grows year by year and decorators delight in its use.

Pi Beta Phi to Hold Open House

The Grosse Pointe Group of Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club will have an "open house" meeting Monday, May 14, at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. J. W. Robinson of Iroquois avenue.

Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Robert Hendricks, Miss Eileen Moffett and Miss Suzanne Wilson. The program will consist of a very interesting movie and all Pi Phis are urged to bring their friends.

Church Society Sponsors Party

The Women's Christian Society of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church will hold its annual May party and membership tea on Wednesday evening, May 16, at 8 p.m. in the church building at 211 Moross road.

The program for the evening will include a musical comedy and an audience-participation television show under the direction of Mrs. Willis Bugbee. Another feature of the evening will be the installation of new officers for the coming year. Mrs. W. M. DeVoe, vice-president of the Detroit District Methodist Women's Societies, will conduct the installation.

Mrs. C. R. Wylie is general chairman of the party, which is the society's biggest social event of the year. Assisting Mrs. Wylie are Mrs. Charles VanHouse, Mrs. R. W. O'Hanassen, Mrs. LaVerne Cheney, Mrs. Fred Krutz, Mrs. Theodore George and Mrs. Anthony Colet.

New officers to be installed are: president, Mrs. Clarence Slocum; vice-president, Mrs. Norman Mooney; treasurer, Mrs. Hugh Delfs; and recording secretary, Mrs. Thomas Munson.

Committee secretaries are: Mrs. Charles O. Watkins, Christian Social Relations; Mrs. Afton Sauer, literature and publications; Mrs. Francis Shaw, spiritual life; Mrs. R. W. VanHouse, missionary education; Mrs. L. G. Modlin, student work; Mrs. Finlay Allen, supply; Mrs. L. W. Montgomery, promotion; Mrs. Kenneth L. Kimmel, local church activities; Mrs. Donald Neill, children's work; Mrs. Ray Noble, youth work; Mrs. Hugh C. White, status of women; and Mrs. John G. Seales, nomination chairman.

Mrs. Carl Edward Sisk

The former Marion Claire Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald T. Murphy of Balfour road, was married Saturday morning in St. Ambrose Church. Her bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Layton D. Sisk of Warren, O. The young couple will live in Wickcliffe, O., following a Florida wedding trip.

Young Adults Asked to Party

A "Frolic for Funsters" is being offered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Friday, May 11 at 8:30 for all Young Adults in the college age and up group. Recordings of favorite orchestras and singers are available for dancing, and mixer games, ping-pong, cards and refreshments are also on the agenda. Tables on the terrace will add to the enjoyment.

Chairman Myrna Troden has arranged many unique ice-breakers with her committee consisting of Carol Sanford, Wally Ehrlich, Bill Boales, Bobby Booth and George Gerow.

Desimpel-Huber Vows Exchanged

Ludmila Marie Huber became the bride of James Harold Desimpel on Saturday at a ceremony in Presentation Church.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Huber of Roselawn avenue, wore a ballerina-length gown which featured an illusion neckline and a fitted lace bodice. Lace insertions trimmed the satin skirt.

The Juliet cap which held Ludmila's veil, was ornamented with orange blossoms. She carried a white orchid on a prayer book with lily-of-the-valley streamers.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Margaret Olsen attended her as matron of honor. Her gown was of soft-green tulle and she wore a matching headpiece. Yellow roses formed her colonial bouquet.

The bridegroom, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Walter H. Desimpel of Buckingham road, chose his brother, Walter V. Desimpel, to perform the duties of best man.

William Stockman and John Oldani officiated as ushers.

Mrs. Huber was attired in a dusty-rose dress with which she chose brown accessories. Mrs. Desimpel wore aqua and her accessories were navy-blue. Both wore brown orchid corsages.

Following the breakfast, held for the immediate family in the Detroit Yacht Club, the newlyweds left for a motor trip to New Mexico. Ludmila wore a brown suit for traveling complemented with green accessories.

Upon their return, they will make their home in Northlawn avenue.

East Side Kappa Group To Hold Final Meeting

The East Side Kappa group will hold its final meeting of the year on Tuesday, May 15, at the home of Mrs. Carl F. Davidson in York-shire road.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30, following which Mrs. Oscar Keydel will show pictures of her recent European trip.

Chairman of the committee Mrs. John Veech, will be assisted by Mrs. Oscar F. Keydel, Jr., Mrs. George Schultz and Mrs. Edward D. Maire.

CAR HITS FIRE HYDRANT

Timothy Pelkey, of 61 Muir, and three passengers, escaped injury when the car he was driving ran over the curb and struck a fire hydrant at Lake Shore and Fisher, on Saturday, April 28.

Mrs. Donald Charles Bangs

Barbara Eietta Ketterer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Ketterer of Lincoln road, became the bride of Donald Charles Bangs, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Leighton Bangs of Berkshire road, Saturday evening at a ceremony solemnized in St. Columba Episcopal Church.

The bride wore a gown of candlelight satin which featured a minute peter-pan collar, touched with seed pearls. Seed pearls also trimmed the cuffs of the long, full sleeves. The full skirt flared to a train.

Barbara's tulle cape which repeated the seed pearl trim on the gown, held her tiered illusion veil. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations, gardenias and stephanotis.

The bridesmaids wore identical gowns of white marquisette over aqua. Their small hats were fashioned of aqua marquisette. Bridesmaids were Mrs. James Jones, sister of the groom; Mrs. Joseph DeMars, Mrs. Edward F. Ketterer of Lorain, Ohio, Barbara Segerlund, niece of the bride, and Kristina Segerlund, another niece of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Mrs. William D. Munro, Jr., who was her sister's matron of honor, was gowned in white marquisette over pink taffeta. Her hat was pink marquisette.

A small niece of the bride, Kathleen Munro, officiated as flower girl. She wore a short, white embroidered organdy dress over pink taffeta and a matching poke bonnet.

The bridesmaids carried cascade arrangements of pink carnations, the matron of honor a bouquet of pink carnations and blue iris and the flower girl had a small colonial nosegay of rosebuds and carnations.

Albert Wood officiated as best man. Joseph Dingwall, James Jones, William D. Munro, Jr., and Edward F. Ketterer, brother of the bride, seated the guests.

Mrs. Ketterer chose a gown of dusty-rose lace for her daughter's wedding with which she wore a small matching hat of nylon tulle. Aqua chiffon was the choice of Mrs. Bangs, who wore a small chapeau of lilac mesh. Both had orchid corsages.

Following the reception, held in Huck's Redford Inn, the newlyweds left for a trip through the South. For traveling the new Mrs. Bangs wore a navy gabardine suit complemented with navy and white accessories.

Richard P.T.A. Closes Season

The Richard School had its final P.T.A. meeting for the 1950-51 school year on May 1. About 350 parents heard a discussion of the problems of individual differences among children, in the auditorium, and then visited in the several classrooms.

Among those present were Mrs. Alice Sheaffer, a member of the Board of Education and James Bushong, the Superintendent of Schools.

This was the close of the term of the president Dr. Rudolf Noer. Elected for the coming school year were: Howard Risk, president; Jerry Koning, vice president; Miss Marian Norris, secretary; and Mrs. Merilla Warren, treasurer.

The president in his closing remarks especially thanked Mrs. Mabel Hillegas, the program chairman, and Mrs. Jean Herrmann, the social chairman for their fine work during the year. The work of the room parents and the committee chairmen was praised.

The association purchased a gas range for the school as its gift this year.

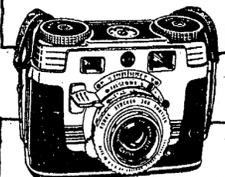

One more public event is on the calendar of events for the Richard School. This is the Pageant to take place on the evening of Wednesday, May 23, directed by Mrs. Evelyn Kyzivat, music teacher. Among those helping in one way or another are several teachers of the upper grades, Miss Bockes, Mrs. Stringer, Mrs. Dombrowski, Miss Nault, Mrs. Schwaler, Miss Blank and Mr. Hammel. Counselors assisting are Mrs. Gomez, Miss Vance and Mr. Falk.

Participants will number about 150 children from grades four through six. The pageant is historical, depicting the history of the Detroit area.

A number of Richard School children are participating in the Elementary Instrumental Music Concert to be held at the Pierce School on Sunday afternoon, May 13 at 3 p.m. This musical program is under the direction of Miss Martha Ream and William Ferry, instrumental music teachers.

Short and to the Pointe

Mrs. William E. Keane, Jr.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Keane, Jr., are motoring in the South following their wedding last Saturday in SS. Peter and Paul Jesuit Church. The bride was Marilyn Ann O'Connor, daughter of the T. Edward O'Connors of Yorkshire road, and Mr. Keane is the son of the William E. Keanes of Harvard road.

There was a two-fold purpose in the recent visit of MRS. J. PIERCE CHAMBERS of Alexandria, Va., and her son JIMMY at the ANDREW D. HOTCHKISS home. Primarily the two (MR. CHAMBERS joined them over the weekend) came to visit Mrs. Chambers' mother and Mr. Hotchkiss. But while in the motor city they picked up a brand new car, and the whole family is now en-route home.

Another family reunion at the Pointe is taking place at the Washington road home of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM ROSBOROUGH. They recently returned from a motor trip through the south, where they stopped at Troutville, Va., to see their son-in-law and daughter MR. and MRS. BYRD WILLIS HOPKINS, and their daughter HELEN CARTER. Mrs. Hopkins and Helen returned here with the Rosboroughs for a stay of several weeks. Mr. Hopkins plans to join the family here before the visitors return to the south.

Those late Florida returnees are sporting tans that have the inbetween vacationers green with envy. Count among the golden girls MRS. JOHN D. BENFIELD, MRS. ROY E. DEHART and MRS. GEORGE LOTT.

No sooner home from Ft. Lauderdale than plans were in the making for another trip, only

Wishropps Add Glamour For Birds

If you've noticed more elegant birds at the Pointe this Spring, it may be due to Dr. and Mrs. Edward A. Wishropps' unusual bird bath in the gardens of their Kenwood court home.

When the Wishropps were South this Winter, they invested in a mammoth and tony Australian clam shell . . . THIS big . . . which is nesting in the emerald lawn.

this time northward by the JOHN ALLMANDS. They plan to open their summer home at the Old Club.

Two Lincoln road couples stopped in New York for a few days of theater-going and shopping along Broadway before returning from their two week vacation in Bermuda. They are MR. and MRS. F.

RANKIN WEISGERBER and MR. and MRS. J. GRISWOLD HERRESHOFF.

A number of Pointers are among the many hostesses giving parties for bride-elect AUDRIENNE FREDERICKS who will be married June 23 to HENRY C. MURRAY.

SALLY HAMILIN, of Neff road, will entertain at a luncheon on June 2.

On June 3 MR. and MRS. PETER KOENIG of Audubon road will be hosts at cocktails and a buffet supper.

Television took a backseat at the Kentucky Derby radio party given in the Grosse Pointe Boulevard home of MR. and MRS. W. GORDON JOHNSTONE. The first broadcast was so upsetting that guests lingered for refreshments and the evening re-broadcast of the event.

It will be a May 19 wedding for JEANETTE LENORE MARSH and ARTHUR E. GATER JR. The news was revealed at a family dinner party by her parents the FRANK M. MARSHES at their home in Three Mile drive. The bridegroom-elect is the son of MR. and MRS. ARTHUR L. GATER of Hall avenue.

MR. and MRS. JOHN WALTER of Hampton road announce the engagement of their daughter MARILYN to GERALD EWART, son of MR. and MRS. R. P. EWART of Hampton road. She attended Michigan State Normal College, he, Lawrence Institute of Technology.

Also add to the list of new brides-elect DONNA DAHLEN. Her engagement to DR. WILLIAM F. GALLIVAN JR., was announced recently by her parents, MR. and MRS. T. GILMAN DAHLEN of McMillan road. Donna was graduated from De Pauw University where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Dr. Gallivan, son of DR. and MRS. W. F. GALLIVAN of Buffalo, N.Y., received his degrees from Cornell University and Buffalo University Medical School. His fraternity is Nu Sigma Nu. The couple will be married June 9.

MR. and MRS. JOHN C. STAUDI, of Lakepointe avenue, have accepted an invitation to be chaperones for the Junior-Senior Prom at the College of St. Mary of the Springs, Columbus, Ohio, on May 19. Mr. and Mrs. Staudt are spending the weekend in Columbus to visit their daughter, BARBARA, a junior at the College. Sunday, May 20, is the College's annual Parents' Day.

It was literally a hop-skip and jump to New York for the CHARLES M. WHITES who left yesterday from the City Airport in his plane for New York. Mr. White is representing Detroit's alumni group of The Berkshire School at the school's annual alumni reunion tomorrow and Saturday in nearby South Egremont, Conn.

Before returning to the Pointe, the flyers will land at Cambridge, Md., for a short visit with Mr. White's parents, MR. and MRS. SANFORD B. WHITE.

Tomorrow the CLIFFORD TAYLORS who have been on a six week tour of England, dock in New York. They made the return trip on the Britannica. They hope to catch a few of the popular shows in the big city before coming home on the 14th.

Recent visitors of the C. C. WILKERSONS of Neff road were MR. and MRS. CARL G. MACANDREWS of Wilmington, Delaware, Mr. Wilkerson's sister and brother-in-law. Following their stay of a fortnight, the MacAndrews left for New York, from where they will sail for Scotland.

MR. and MRS. WYLIE W. CARHARTT who have been vacationing in Ponte Vedra, Fla., are now visiting in Knoxville, Tenn., with Mrs. Carhartt's father, ROBERT SIMMONDS. Mr. Carhartt will return home this week but his wife will take a plane to Los Angeles where she'll visit her son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. ROBERT S. STRASBURG.

Marilyn Ann O'Connor, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Edward O'Connor Marries Son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Keane of Harvard Road; To Live on Moross

SS Peter and Paul Jesuit Church was the scene of the marriage last Saturday of Marilyn Ann O'Connor and William Edward Keane Jr. The Rev. Father Hubert Maino officiated at the ceremonies.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Edward O'Connor of Yorkshire road, tucked a Carrie McCross lace handkerchief in the wrist of her camellia white satin wedding gown. It was the gift of the bridegroom's aunts.

Imported Pointe de Venise lace formed the deep portrait neckline of Marilyn's bridal dress. The exquisite lace was repeated at the hipline and again finished the long sleeves of the gown. A silk illusion veil from her Pointe de Venise cloche and extended the full length of the satin wedding train. Her bouquet of white orchids was combined with valley lilies.

The five bridal attendants wore mist gray marquisette over shell pink taffeta. The gowns' double collars formed cap sleeves. Floor length purple velvet sashes complemented headaddresses of pansy purple veiling. Lavender and pink sweet peas in Italian straw baskets trimmed with purple velvet ribbon were carried by the maids.

Mrs. Joseph B. Sullivan was matron of honor and the bridesmaids included sisters of the bridegroom, Mary Louise and Leontine Keane; Helen Charbonneau and Mrs. John M. Gillespie.

Mr. Keane asked his brother, Henry J. Keane, to be his best man. They are the sons of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Keane of Harvard road. Bridesmen were another brother, Joseph P. Keane; Robert J. Pfeiffer, William P. Brown, Mitchell Justice, Melvin E. Duffy and Paul J. Keller Jr.

Alencon lace trimmed the blue gray gown worn by the bride's mother. Her chapeau was in a matching shade and she wore a corsage of orchids.

Mrs. Keane affected apple green crepe with bodice of matching Pointe de Venise lace. There were apple blossoms on her green silk straw toque.

Wedding guests attended a reception and breakfast at the Detroit Athletic Club.

The young Keanes are motoring in the South and plan to visit New Orleans on their wedding trip.

When they return to the Pointe they will be at home in Moross road.

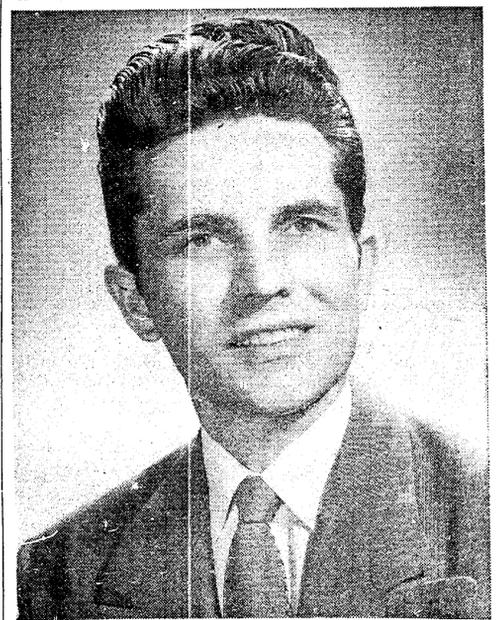

For traveling, Mrs. Keane wore a navy check spring suit with matron of honor and the brides-

Florida Home Awaits Young Guy B. Willetts

Former Mary Lou Thibodeau and Bridegroom to Make Home in Jacksonville, Fla. Their Marriage Solemnized in St. Paul's on The Lake

Jacksonville, Fla. will be the future home for Mr. and Mrs. Guy B. Willetts whose marriage took place last Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in St. Paul's on the Lake.

The Rev. Father LaSalle Lenk officiated at the nuptial mass following which guests attended a breakfast and reception at the home of the bride's parents.

Mrs. Willetts was the former Mary Lou Thibodeau, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Thibodeau of Grand Marais boulevard and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Willetts of Rivard boulevard.

White organdy trimmed in eye-let formed the bridal gown which was designed with bouffant skirt and fitted bodice. A slight train distinguished the gown and Mary Lou wore a three tiered veil of French silk illusion, fingertip length, which fell from a simple bandeau. A white bridal orchid was encircled with lilies of the valley.

The trio of bridal attendants were dressed alike in white organdy picture frocks worn over sky blue taffeta. The girls carried summer daisies streamered in ivy.

Patricia Thibodeau was her sister's maid of honor and the maids were another sister, Joan, and Jean Kulka.

Brother of the bride, Robert Thibodeau, assisted Mr. Willetts as best man and groomsmen were the bridegroom's brother, Paul Willetts, William Cardinal and Anthony Rozeki. Mrs. Thibodeau wore for her daughter's wedding a gown of mauve Paradise silk with matching hat. Mrs. Willetts was in poudre blue lace with brief lace jacket in a matching shade and the same toned chapeau.

White and palest pink blossoms were used through the rooms of the Thibodeau home at the reception. The bride's table, covered by a damask cloth, was centered with the three-tiered wedding cake.

When Mr. and Mrs. Willetts left on their wedding trip through the Smokies, the bride donned a navy gabardine suit touched in white pique. Her pillbox hat was also of the crisp white pique.

Shirley Davis Elected College Assemblyman

Shirley Jean Davis, daughter of Mrs. Harold S. Davis of Bedford road, has been elected an assemblyman to the student government of the College of William and Mary, Williamsburg, Va.

A government major, Shirley is one of the three women who will represent the rising senior class in student government next fall.

Shirley is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority and has been active in the William and Mary Theatre, playing many principal roles in the past two years.

To Speak Vows On June 29

Suzanne Johnson and Mont Richard Wickham took time out from their studies for senior exams this week to name their wedding attendants and set the all-important date for June 29, Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

Suzie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur P. Johnson of Lakeland avenue, will graduate June 11 from Endicott Junior College and Mont is receiving his diploma from Brown University June 11.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Mont C. Wickham of Ridge road.

Sister Joanne Johnson is to be maid of honor and the bridesmaids will include Nancy Brew of Greenwich, Conn., who goes to Endicott with Suzie; Martha Wetherbee, Janet Hobson and Ann Candler. Little Anne Lerchen, daughter of the William C. Lerchens, Jr., of Bloomfield, will be flower girl.

Robert Koch will be Mont's best man and ushers comprise Greene Fenley III, Clune Walsh, Thomas Green, Jr., of Hartford, Conn., Davis Jencks of Bristol, R. I., Richard Woulfe of River Forest, Ill., and Robert Aikens of Birmingham, Mich. The last four are Alpha Delta brothers of the bridegroom-elect.

The first of the prenuptial parties takes place June 15 at the Country Club when a trio of hostesses, Mrs. Abram vanDerZee, Mrs. Clarence Batchelor and Mrs. Warren Farr, will give a tea. The next day bridesmaids Janet Hobson, Martha Wetherbee and Ann Candler are giving a "round-the-clock" shower for Suzie at the Detroit Boat Club.

Mrs. Fred M. Zeder has issued invitations for a luncheon at her East Jefferson avenue home on June 19 and on the twenty-second, Mrs. E. S. Gurdjian has planned a tea at her home on Fairway drive. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Gurdjian will be Mrs. Osborn Brines, Mrs. Carl Schulte and Mrs. George Sewell.

A Sunday night buffet supper will fete the young couple on June 24 when Mr. and Mrs. F. Rankin Weisgerber will be hosts in their Lincoln road home. Joanne Johnson will give her sister's spinster dinner at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on June 27 and the next evening, the Wickhams will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner in their home. Mr. and Mrs. Edward DeGree will give a wedding day luncheon in their Lewiston road home for out-of-town guests and members of the wedding party.

World Sodality Day Is May 20

World Sodality Day which is being sponsored locally by Grosse Pointe and Detroit sodalities, will be celebrated on Sunday, May 20, at 4 p. m., in the University of Detroit Stadium.

Rev. Daniel A. Lord of St. Louis, will be the guest speaker. Father Lord has written and will direct a play entitled, "City of Freedom," to be presented at the U. of D. stadium as part of Detroit's 250th anniversary celebration.

This Marian Celebration, which is observed internationally, takes place annually on Mother's Day. This year an attendance of twenty thousand is expected. The public is invited.

Two Girls From Pointe Honored at Marygrove

Barbara Schuler, 181 Beaupre road, has been named to Kappa Gamma Pi, national Catholic honor society for women, at Marygrove college where she is a senior.

Barbara, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Schuler, also was elected to Iota Gamma Alpha, college honor society, by a joint faculty-student vote based on leadership ability and was cited for class honors for scholastic achievement.

Joan Krausmann, 1409 Kensington, also received class honors for scholarship. A sophomore, Joan is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph A. Krausmann.

Joseph Lackeys Off to Mexico

Clad in white satin gown, with bolero of rich Venetian lace, Jean Louise Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Hicks Johnson of Royal Oak and Conrad K. Johnson of Detroit, became the bride last Friday evening, of Joseph Hurt Lackey, son of Mrs. George H. Lackey of St. Paul avenue and the late Mr. Lackey.

The wedding ceremony took place in North Woodward Congregational Church and was followed by a reception at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Jean's gown was ballerina length and worn with short veil attached to a cap of Venetian lace. Her bouquet was composed of white roses, stephanotis and ivy.

Barbara Seibert, the only bridal attendant, was in a gold silk organza frock with bouffant skirt. Her small hat matched the gown and her flowers were talisman roses.

Charles Getler performed the duties of best man and guests were seated by Glenn Friedt Jr., Richard Keller, Victor C. Koch and Hugh O. Mulkey Jr.

Mrs. Johnson topped her taupe lace gown over taffeta with a pale pink toque and the mother of the bridegroom wore hyacinth blue taffeta with a matching petal hat.

When the young couple left on their wedding trip to the Pacific swept beaches of Acapulco, Mrs. Lackey was wearing a champagne colored gabardine suit and matching chapeau.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Myers performed the ceremony.

Philip D. Trowbridge On Submarine Trutta

Philip D. Trowbridge, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward D. Trowbridge of 620 Notre Dame, is serving aboard the submarine USS Trutta which recently participated in a training cruise to Nassau, B.W.I.

The Trutta was recommissioned from the mothball fleet at New London, Conn.

Marion Murphy Bride Of Carl Edward Sisk

St. Ambrose Scene of Ceremony Uniting Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald T. O'Connor and Son of Mrs. Layton D. Sisk; Will Live in Wickcliffe, O.

Down a lane of white satin marked pews, Marion Claire Murphy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Thomas Murphy of Balfour road, marched to meet her bridegroom, Carl Edward Sisk, of Cleveland and Warren, O., in St. Ambrose Church last Saturday morning.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Layton D. Sisk of Warren, O. The Rev. Father Francis Van Antwerp officiated at the 11:30 a.m. services which were followed by a reception and breakfast at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The ivory satin of the bride's wedding gown was lovely against the background of maids in white organdy and violets toned sashes.

A snug bodice, designed with long, fitted sleeves, was attached to full skirt which swept into a cathedral train. Marion's bridal cap of lace which had been used in her mother's wedding gown, held the fingertip length veil of French silk illusion. The bride carried a lace handkerchief sentimentally sent from France by a family friend and her bouquet of valley lilies was centered with a white orchid.

Mary Jacqueline Murphy of New York City, sister of the bride, was in a gown of white embossed organdy over taffeta, its slim waist accented by a pale violet sash. She wore a small chapeau of white taffeta covered with pale violets and carried a round nosegay of violets.

The bridesmaids' gowns were like that of the maid of honor except their had deeper violet sashes and their flowers were arrangements of violets and English ivy. All wore short, stark white gloves.

Maids included another sister of the bride, Lois Ann Murphy, Mrs. Richard C. Ortner, Mrs.

James L. Dalton Jr. of Lansing, Mich., and Nancy Joan Moyer of Buffalo, N.Y.

Susan Elaine Sisk of Warren, O., niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl in lavender organdy with apron front. A wreath of violets was in her hair and her flowers were lilies of the valley and violets.

For his brother, Albert Paul Sisk was best man and guests were seated by another brother of the bridegroom, Eugene Neil Sisk of Warren, O. Mark A. Schwartz of Cleveland, Joseph S. Smoley of Chicago and Richard C. Ortner.

Mrs. Murphy's costume was a floor length mauve chantilly lace and chiffon worn with matching hat and white orchids. Navy blue chiffon was chosen by the bridegroom's mother who completed her outfit with a flowered chapeau and corsage of sweetheart roses.

At the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club reception, a string ensemble from Tuesday Musicale, of which the bride is a member, played for the guests and Jacqueline Murphy sang several songs for the guests.

The young couple left on a motor trip to Florida and will go from there to Nassau. The new Mrs. Sisk traveled in an antique gold gabardine suit and her wheel colored hat was veiled in emerald mesh. Mink scarves were on her shoulders.

Upon their return, the Sisks will make their home in Grand boulevard, Wickcliffe, O., where their newly built home awaits them.

Renaissance

We intended to doff our hat last week and bow low to the Garden Council and all the other contributing agencies which took part in the annual observance of Clean-Up Week, bringing to our community the spick and span look which is so much to be desired.

The campaign gave a good demonstration of what well coordinated teamwork can do towards accomplishing a goal. May the shining example which all the effort produced furnish the inspiration to keep our individual properties places of beauty and of joy throughout the year.

But the product of our concentrated energy has been put to shame by a far greater force which has exhibited itself during the last few weeks. Spring has come in its full glory, bearing a palette of colors and applying a brush that has transformed the land into a magnificent wonderland.

The marvel of a reawakening earth is something that can be appreciated only in the northern climes. It is the time of year when we think those same persons we envied for being able to go south for a vacation, must have lost their reason not to have returned in time to watch their own land unfold its enchanting mysteries.

The sun grows warmer and the land is allowed to feel its caressing touch by being freed from its winter wrappings of last fall's leaves, and mulches of marsh grass and old lawn cuttings. The first hyacinth that thills its green nose through the barren ground brings a thrill that must be far greater than that experienced by a resident of a land of perpetual summer, watching an orchid unfurl its splendor.

The willow trees put forth a mantle of unbelievable yellow green and the forsythia glows brighter hourly. Leaf buds swell and burst and grow. The tulips start to show color, then explode in an intoxicating pageant. Vines are sending out tender green reconnoitering shoots to explore ugly places which they can hide. The lilac buds take on stature and it is time to start picking the suckers off the peonies. A trillion dandelions raise their inquiring heads to give the bright new grass an added accent, and daffodils, jonquils and narcissus dance gaily in the soft spring breeze.

Spring is here, and the Pointe is in for a full measure of the joy of its reception. There is no satisfaction quite equal to that derived from putting a seed, or a scrubby plant or shrub in the ground, then watching the miracles which tender care and a little work will produce. Pointe gardens and yards are full of amateurs and professionals these days, planting these seeds of satisfaction and of beauty. Many will grow too tired, too soon, but they will have had the fun of dreaming and of honest toil. Others will stick by their hoses and their hoses and reap the full harvest of their sowing.

For those who shun these earthy exercises, the Pointe has other joys. They can just sit back, or ride by and observe a spectacle that is breath-taking. Their neighbor's garden, or the lovely estates which are so numerous throughout the Pointe, or the flowering shrubs which dike the blue waters of Lake St. Clair will provide sufficient aesthetic nourishment to last the year out.

Much credit must be given the many garden clubs for all this beauty which has been created in the community and for the incentive which has been engendered to perpetuate it. The French and Belgian farmers who first owned this land bordering the lake must be thanked too. Their fertile farms attracted the first Detroiters who decided to build their summer homes here. The vacationers became so attached to the land that they established their permanent residences in the Pointe.

What they did with their properties has been the lure which has continued to draw more and more people here; the love of beauty and the wish to have a chance to create some of their very own as well as to share that which was already here.

The Pointe can send Spring into the lists with any other Spring in any other arena. It is a great tribute to its residents. Long live this feverish ambition to help Nature clothe the earth in grandeur.

One Way to Say Thanks

The American Red Cross is sending its Mobile Unit to the Pointe on Friday, May 18, to collect blood from voluntary donors. This will be the third visit of the unit in the last six months and it will be the last visit for at least four more months, and perhaps for much longer if donors don't respond any better than they have in the past.

Once again the Young Adult group of the War Memorial Center is sponsoring the drive for much-needed blood. This is the same group which brought the unit to the Center last November, when 115 pints were collected.

That visit was termed a success, though it certainly wasn't the overwhelming response which might have been expected to an appeal of this kind. Practically all of the blood collected at the Memorial Center goes directly to Korea and is on its way to the battlefield within 48 hours after it is collected here.

On the first of May the unit returned to the Pointe. The collections were made at the Congregational Church and three other local churches joined in sponsoring the campaign. Despite the large group beating the drums to attract volunteers, the Red Cross was able to take but 69 pints out of the Pointe. Some 28 other volunteers had to be rejected for varying reasons, but the fact remains that the appeal was able to arouse but 97 persons willing to make a donation.

Many Pointers have given their blood at the Detroit headquarters of the Red Cross and not a few have given a good many times. But the record of the Pointe on the whole is not one of which to be proud. There are 10,000 homes here and nearly every one of them should be able to produce at least one blood donor when the appeal is so urgent.

Pointers are offered the choice of designating the destination of their donations. The need for the wounded in Korea is very vital and the major proportions of the collections go there. But if one prefers to have it added to the bank at the Red Cross headquarters for credit against future possible needs by a member of his family, church or another organization, that is perfectly acceptable.

It is a great convenience to have the Mobile Unit come to the Pointe, saving a trip into Detroit and back to fill a definite obligation. The actual time consumed in making the

"If you will observe, it doesn't take
A man of giant mould to walk;
A giant shadow on the wall;
And he who in our daily sight
Seems but a figure mean and small,
May stalk, silhouette sublime,
Across the canvas of his time."
(John Trowbridge)

If any of you "oldsters" remember a vaudeville team called "Duffy and Sweeney" . . . you'll get a kick out of this. WAY back in the twenties, Duffy and Sweeney were headline comics of the zany type . . . but their antics were by no means confined to the theater. Hundreds of anecdotes have been told about them . . . some appearing in Alexander Wollcott's "While Rome Burns." One, of world shaking moment in the theatrical world . . . was the time they played in a small town where the audience received them with unanimous silence most of the week. Not being used to this sort of treatment, they pulled the following stunt on the night they closed:

Some time during the act . . . Duffy whispered to Sweeney to leave the stage and get a baseball bat. When Sweeney returned with the cudgel . . . Duffy stepped up to the footlights and said, "Ladies and gentlemen! You have received us so receptively here all week, that now, my partner, Mr. Sweeney, will pass among you with a baseball bat and beat the living bjabbers out of everyone of you!" Needless to say, their contract for the rest of the circuit was canceled.

Some years later, the famous pair got the break they were waiting for . . . to appear in a Broadway show that was already an established hit. Since they had always done their act in ordinary street clothes and wearing no makeup . . . the producer let it stay that way. Opening night came . . . and Duffy and Sweeney made their entrance on a tandem bike . . . each wearing a top hat and each dressed in long underwear! They did it to hand the company a laugh! What happened was that the company laughed . . . so did the audience . . . but the producer howled in horror and dismissed the pair as soon as the curtain was rung down.

All this is leading up to the fact that we received a letter from Mr. Sweeney last week. He informed us that the imitable Duffy had passed on and that he, Sweeney, was moon-picher acting at the present time. He went on to say that on a vaudeville tour during their last days together, they had to make a long train hop from some place or other to New Haven . . . and he writes:

"We had plenty of paint-remover on the train . . . so when we arrived in New Haven, we just told the taxi driver to take us to the best hotel. The following morning, I woke up first . . . and found to my dismay that we had a suite! I woke Duffy and told him about it. For a few minutes he didn't say anything. He just sat staring at the table between the twin beds, where reposed a telephone book and the Gideon Bible. Finally he said, 'Better call downstairs and find out how much it is.' I did so and reported to him that it was twelve dollars a day. Duffy promptly said, 'Tell them to send up another Bible.' Then he went back to sleep."

The guy who told us Big Stretch was a good Derby bet, has left the country. Just as well, too! The best true tale we've heard about the Derby concerns a small boy who asked his mother (who was going to the Derby) to please put five dollars on Royal Mustang to come second . . . for HIM. No doubt he will grow up to be K-fauver Trial material . . . but nevertheless, that's what the kid said . . . and, what's more, he busted his piggy bank open and GAVE her five dollars in coins for the bet.

How the youngster figured Mustang right on the nose . . . is something Rudolph Halley should no doubt look into . . . but as you now know, he DID come in second. The sad part of the story is that Mother Deah, sitting about twenty miles from the betting windows . . . thought "to aich with it . . . no one ever heard of THAT horse and junior certainly doesn't know what's what" . . . so she didn't bet the five! As you also know . . . the horse paid some fifty dollars for TWO . . . and you know what the child Psychiatrists say . . . NEVER make a promise to a child that you don't keep. Tee-hee, ha-ha, ho-ho and ho-hum!!!

A local woman told us she overheard a conversation on the bus (G.P., of course) between two household employees . . . one a cook. The cook was telling her friend that she had left her last place and had a new job. In explaining why she left, she said she'd never again take a job in a house where they had television because . . . "the family never goes out at night!" We looked upon this bit of information as a grosse exaggeration until the other day, when another woman told us she had telephoned various friends to invite them for Sunday supper. One woman (who was not an intimate friend) came right out and asked, "Do you have a television set yet?" When our heroine allowed as how she had NOT . . . the woman said she was sorry they couldn't accept because they ALWAYS looked at t-v on Sunday nights!

Another proposed guest who KNEW our friend didn't have a set . . . replied, "You should know better than to ask US for Sunday. John wouldn't DREAM of leaving his television on that night!" Maybe the cook has something there after all.

donation is not more than 20 minutes, and it is perfectly painless.

When the unit comes back on May 18, it will be returning to the War Memorial Center. It would be difficult to think of a more fitting place to set up the equipment which gathers the blood that can mean the saving of the lives of many who are now fighting in another war.

The Young Adult Group of the Center has made these drives one of its ways of saying thanks for being able to use this fine memorial center which honors the hero dead and veterans of World War II.

They are getting cooperation from the American Legion posts and their auxiliaries, St. Paul's and Christ churches, the service organizations, AAUW, garden groups and various other organizations which are also using the Center. They need the help of all to make this drive the complete success which it merits.

The unit will be at the Center from 2:30 to 9 p.m. on May 18. Those wishing to donate may obtain pledge cards at the Center and at local stores, or by calling TUXedo 1-6030, or TUXedo 5-8566. Sign up today.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Today I should like to devote my column to a group that has the sincere appreciation of the Public Library staff, the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, Robert Orr, director of our libraries, has worked closely with this organization and I have asked him to tell us about the fine work it is doing.

Next Thursday, May 17, the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library wind up another year's activities with the annual meeting and dinner at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church at 7 p.m. Price of the dinner is $2.00, and you will have an opportunity to hear an outstanding speaker, Paul M. Angle, director of the Chicago Historical Society, and well-known Lincoln authority and author. There will be a short business meeting during which directors and officers will be elected. All of our staff will be there except a minimum required to keep Park, City and Woods libraries open that evening.

In case you are not familiar with the Friends group, the Friends correspond to the PTA groups. They have one object, to do everything possible to improve public library facilities and service. We understand that the board of directors has approved a gift to the library, to be announced at the annual meeting.

The officers and directors deserve much credit for all they have done to strengthen the group, and to plan and carry out a most successful year's activities. We are all, curious to know who is back of a group, and it is a pleasure to pass along their names. Marion K. Kellogg has been president during the past year; Charles A. Parcels, Jr., vice-president, and Miss Melitta Roemer, secretary-treasurer.

The following directors have terms that expire this year, and we hope they will continue to serve: Mrs. Lloyd G. Hooker, (president until this year), Mr. Kellogg, Dr. Alfred H. Whittaker, Mrs. Russell Lucas, and Dr. Frank Fitt.

Other directors are: Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, Kenneth Moore, Mrs. William Young, Mrs. Sterling Sanford, Mr. Parcels, Alger Shelden, Fintan Henk, Mrs. Richard Forsyth, and Miss Melitta Roemer. Ex-officio members are Franklin Dougherty, president of the Board of Education; James W. Bushong, superintendent of schools, and Robert M. Orr, director of Public Libraries. During the past year, the program committee, under Dr. Whittaker, and the membership committee, under Mrs. George R. True, have been especially active.

Our Public Library, you may know, is one of the youngest in the State, having just passed the 21st year mark. While Grosse Pointe still does not have the lovely and functional libraries that Dearborn, Highland Park and Birmingham boast of, we are moving forward. Next fall the Woods branch will move to its new quarters in the Parcels Junior High building, in the wing fronting on Mack avenue. With the Branch serving the north end of the Pointe, and the Park library serving the south end, we will have everything but faith that it will come along to a Central library, and we have given this community the kind of library facilities it deserves.

As the Public Library moves forward, the Friends group can mean more and more. During the past year, the library has received several lovely gifts, for which we are very grateful. With the kind of program the Friends group has had this year, and its excellent leadership, it should rival any of the similar groups in this area.

If you are free next Thursday evening, why don't you come out and lend your support? You are promised an interesting and delightful evening. Call the Main Library, VA. 2-1059 for reservations.

Impacted Teeth

By Fred M. Kopp, R.Ph.
Impacted teeth are usually wisdom teeth. Early symptoms of trouble are neuralgic pains or if the teeth or tooth is partly erupted it may cause painful swelling at the back of the mouth.

In the late teens or in the twenties is the time most persons encounter trouble with wisdom teeth. It is wise to have your dentist check the progress of your wisdom teeth every six months during these years. X-rays will show the exact condition.

You can purchase your dental needs for daily care from a reliable pharmacist.

Win Scholarships to University of Michigan

Robert Donaldson Law Mary Anne Busby Ann Patterson Lampman Ben George Bray

Marcia Elinore Boothe Madeleine Kyburg DeRopp Patricia Ann Marx

Regents-Alumni Scholarships to the University of Michigan have been awarded to seven students in the Grosse Pointe area. The scholarships will pay for the semester fees for the Freshman year at the University of Michigan. The scholarships may continue for a longer period if an adequate record is maintained at the University of Michigan.

The winners are selected on the basis of their aptitude for academic work, their economic need and their general qualifications as University students.

The Scholarship Committee of the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe has participated in the selection of the winners. Early in January of 1951 the Committee interviewed 14 applicants, which interviews were followed by recommendations to the University. Subsequent interviews were conducted by representatives of the University.

The fortunate winners in the Grosse Pointe area are Marcia Elinore Boothe, 964 Nottingham; Ben George Bray, 1088 Lakepointe; Madeleine Kyburg DeRopp, 1350 Three Mile; Mary Anne Busby, 1324 Maryland; Ann Patterson Lampman, 415 Moran; Robert Donaldson Law, 1357 Maryland; and Patricia Ann Marx, 954 Lakepointe.

The members of the Scholarship Committee of the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe who participated in the interviews are Paul Franseth, chairman; Mrs. Joseph A. Murphy; Mrs. H. Sanborn Brown and Robert J. Hood. Mr. Hood has been president of the University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe during the past season.

Robert McEachin Serves Aboard Destroyer Escort

Robert A. McEachin, seaman, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil McEachin of 348 Hillcrest road, is serving aboard the destroyer escort USS R. A. Owens on duty in the Mediterranean as a unit of the Sixth Fleet.

The Owens is flagship of Commander Destroyer Flotilla 4 and will participate in fleet maneuvers including amphibious landings by marines on the island of Malta with full scale Naval air and sea power support.

Emil Mirabel Treated In Hospital For Bite

Emil Mirabel of 714 Neff road was bitten on May 1 by a dog owned by Charles W. Beck of 1251 Devonshire road.

Mr. Mirabel was visiting at the Beck home when bitten.

He was treated at Bon Secours Hospital for two deep punctures at his left elbow.

Camera Club Meets May 15

"How to Make a Good Photograph" will be the subject discussed by Vincent Ayres at the Grosse Pointe Camera Club at its meeting on Tuesday evening, May 15.

The entire lecture will be supplemented by the speaker with illustrations and practical demonstrations on the entire process. Mr. Ayres has won recognition for his outstanding work in the photograph field of endeavor.

Leland Longshore, president of the club, has also obtained another speaker for the latter part of the program on the subject of "Negatives — Good and Bad." Stanley Kenn, who will deliver the talk, is highly specialized in the field of good negatives and has proven that good photography is based upon good negatives.

Following the two speakers, there will be a judging of prints submitted by the members. The meeting will be held at the Neighborhood Club at 8 o'clock. The public is invited to attend.

Plan Birthday Flower Show

A Festival Flower Show, June 6 and 7 in the banquet hall of Veterans Memorial Building, will be one of the picturesque features of Detroit's 250th Birthday celebration.

Mrs. Henry L. Newnan, head of the Horticulture Committee for the festival, has announced that over 60 garden clubs will be represented in the show and the city of Detroit will sponsor 100 additional exhibits.

Mrs. Frederick C. Ford and Mrs. Donald B. Smith have been named chairmen for the Flower Show. George Tolbert is staging chairman.

Mrs. Caro W. Naas will take over duties of schedule chairman and Mrs. Alan P. Beebe is in charge of invitational exhibits. Eight tables and four rooms will be assigned by invitation.

BREAKS ARM AT PLAY
Susan Kaltenbach, 8, of 1636 Hawthorne, suffered an arm fracture while playing at Mason School Friday, May 4. She was taken to Saratoga General Hospital.

Mrs. A. George Coulton heads the garden club committee for the show and representatives from each of the 60 participating will comprise her committee.

Four lectures will be given during the two day show and for these Mrs. Clarence W. Avery is chairman.

The course consisted of operation of some of the latest type "electronic eye" equipment used by the Navy to safeguard its men and aircraft. Included were actual flights in the type of aircraft each man would fly on return to his home squadron.

Flourishing Plants Require Fertilizing

By Vincent DePetris
Both chemical and organic plant food is needed in soils because growing plants take out of the soil many essential elements which are indispensable to plant growth. In the wild state plants grow and decay thus re-incorporating these chemical elements in the soil in the form of decayed vegetation.

In cultivated land many of the chemical elements are removed with the crops. To maintain soil fertility, it is necessary to add fertilizers, both in chemical and organic form, to maintain in plants the most vigorous growth and the greatest productivity.

Are of Two Types
Fertilizers or plant foods may be either organic or inorganic. That is to say, they may be in the form of decayed vegetation and animal manures, or in a chemical form referred to as inorganic material.

There have been many arguments pro and con as to the merits of each of these two types of fertilizers.

The adherents of inorganic or chemical fertilizers at one time went so far as to claim that chemical plant foods were the only effective type to be used, and that all organic or natural type of plant food was a waste of time and effort. After hearing these ridiculous claims, one wondered how plants ever grew before these chemical fertilizers were developed.

Raps Organic Fertilizer
More recently we have had another school of thought making equally ridiculous claims for organic or natural fertilizers. These "organic gardeners" not only claim that animal and vegetable fertilizers are the most effective plant foods, but they declare that chemical fertilizers are harmful and should never be used.

Both of these extreme views are of course, fallacious. The correct course lies midway between the two extremes. For best results both organic and inorganic fertilizers are needed.

Organic fertilizers in the form of rotted leaves and other vegetable matter should always be incorporated into the soil, not merely for the fertility they may contain, but more so, for their ability to retain moisture and to condition the soil. Chemicals such as nitrogen, phosphorus and potash added to natural manures and humus help to give a greatly needed impetus to plant growth.

They Vary Greatly
Commercial or chemical fertilizers vary greatly according to the process and manufacturer. Some are almost entirely inorganic, while others are a combination of organic and inorganic elements. These are generally preferred where quick action is desired, since organic elements are usually more readily available to growing plants.

All chemical fertilizers will be found to contain three major elements namely: Nitrogen, Phosphorus, and Potash or Kollium. Besides these three major elements all commercial fertilizers will contain at least 8 of the minor elements namely: Calcium or lime, Magnesium, Iron, Sulphur, Manganese, Zinc, Boron and Silicon. Nor are these eleven elements all that plants require. The so called trace minerals, not always found in all commercial fertilizers are needed in such minute quantities as from 1 to 5 parts per million by healthy growing plants.

Work Like Vitamins
These trace minerals are to plants what vitamins are to human and animal nutrition and include Barium, Aluminum, Iodine, Cobalt, Sodium Lithium, Copper, etc.

Because these trace minerals may be found in many of the growing plant tissues, it becomes apparent that such organic material as decayed foliage and other vegetation could by all means be utilized in soil fertility. Chemical fertilizers all have the ratio of their major elements indicated such as 4-12-4 or 10-6-4 or perhaps 3-20-0, etc. These figures always indicate the proportion of the three major elements given in alphabetical order: Nitrogen, Phosphorus and Potash. Thus, 4-12-4 indicates that the fertilizer contains 4 parts Nitrogen, 12 parts Phosphorus and 4 parts Potash. Similarly 3-20-0 indicates 3 parts Nitrogen, 20 parts Phosphorus and no Potash. Bone meal will be found to have this analysis.

Know How And Where
It will be helpful to know how, and where, the plant takes up the three major elements. Nitrogen is utilized in the formation of young growing shoots and leaves. Nitrogen is very readily available, and is important to plants making rapid growth during warm weather.

Phosphorus becomes available very slowly, particularly in the form of ground bone. For this reason bone meal should be applied either in the fall or early spring. Phosphorus is utilized chiefly in the formation of flowers and fruit, although it is found in other tissues of the plant.

Potash, which is also slow acting, is utilized in the root system as well as the tissues of the plant. It, too, is found in other parts of plants in lesser quantities. Fertilizers for root crops such as beets, potatoes, turnips and carrots contain a large proportion of Potash.

Varies With Soil
The proper quantity of chemical fertilizer to be applied, varies with the type and fertility of the soil, the average rate being approximately 4 to 5 pounds per 100 square feet, or an area 10 feet by 10 feet.

When properly used, commercial fertilizers will increase both the vigor and the yield of plants. Were it not for fertilizers the production of food on farms would be curtailed considerably. Yet over-doses of fertilizers, which is rather a common practice on the part of amateur gardeners, can do considerable harm. We cannot resort to that lazy attitude which attempts to substitute excessive doses of plant food for proper culture and care.

Calls It Abuse
The harm which results from over-doses of chemical fertilizers should, therefore, be attributed to the abuse rather than to the use of fertilizers.

Proper doses given at intervals of from one to two weeks apart, while plants are in the process of growth, will be found beneficial. After the growth is completed fertilizers are neither needed or helpful. Combined with frequent tillage, plant food, whether organic or inorganic, will be found useful. A combination of both is preferable. Plant foods, like human and animal nutrition, will not only promote growth and development, but will also maintain a healthy condition in plants provided they are properly administered.

To Summarize
To summarize, the following points regarding fertilizers should be observed:

1. Regulate the amount of plant food in accordance with the type of plant, the stage of growth and the environment.
2. Do not use fertilizers on young plants which have not had time to establish themselves, but wait until new roots have been formed to absorb plant food.
3. Do not continue to fertilize plants which have finished their growth cycle. At this stage plants no longer need it.
4. Excessive dry or wet condition of the soil inhibits the absorption of plant food.
5. Frequent cultivation not only helps to maintain the proper soil moisture, but prevents the growth of weeds, which rob the soil of the added nutrients.
6. Perennial plants and shrubs all have their season of growth and dormancy. The most effective method of feeding, is to fertilize while plants are in active growth, and to discontinue feeding while plants are entering a state of dormancy in late summer and fall.
7. In order to become available to plants, fertilizer must dissolve. If the soil is dry, it should be watered gently, an excess of water may wash away much of the valuable plant food.

KID BITS

Feeling the desire to entertain, Nancy Kretschmar invited some of her friends in for a party on Friday night, May 4. Dancing and munching all the good food there we saw Joyce Blashill 'n' Bob Law, Nancy Kaser 'n' Bill Dettlinger, Bertie Roberts 'n' Gordon Maitland, Nancy Hall 'n' Don Button, Audrey Rheume 'n' Craig Campbell, Marlene Climie 'n' Bill Jones, Colleen Horrigan 'n' Frank Hagen, Janet Kopp 'n' Joe Buell, Ann Gibson 'n' Johnnie Hoard, Jane McGrath 'n' Norm Lasca, Jane Rowe 'n' Jerry Goebel, Doris Scrine 'n' Dick Saunders, Kay Catchick 'n' Frank Krueger, Jeannie Rydholm 'n' Jerry Harden and Nancy's date, Pete Wardle.

Saturday, May 5, the Blue Hi-Y gave a roller skating party for its members and their dates. After the skating, the kids all went to a hot dog roast. Some of those struggling, but enjoying themselves on skates were Elaine Kihen 'n' Tom Lamb, Elaine Otto 'n' Gary Schroeder, Nancy Crowe 'n' Linc Godfrey, Marcia Boothe 'n' Russ Etter, Joyce Blashill 'n' Norm Lasca, Nancy Kaser 'n' Pete Davidson, Jeannie Rydholm 'n' George Beauchamp, Nancy Ericsson 'n' Dick Scales, Peggy Moreland 'n' Bill Rexford, Patsy Barrett 'n' Hank Hubbard, Janie Joachim 'n' Bob Howe, and Ann Watson 'n' Gene Halbrook.

Saturday was also a popular night for small parties around the Pointe. John Bonbright was host at a dinner, followed by movies and then back to his house. Enjoying this pleasant arrangement were Hat Spalding 'n' Chuck Beronius, Louise Hutchins 'n' Ernie Nigg, Janet Fildew 'n' John Finch, Barb Baro 'n' Bob Howenstein, Marilyn Howe 'n' Pat Burke and Barb Coombe was John's date.

Another party was given by Don Mendelsohn, who made the night a lot of fun for his friends. Sippin' cokes and dancing over

Blue Devils' Tennis Team Continues Winning Streak

Great Improvement in Form Shown in Conquering Netters From Royal Oak and Monroe; Feared Trojans Beaten Soundly

Grosse Pointe High School's tennis team added two more victories to its long string last week and once again looks like the favorite for the Border Cities League title.

The Blue Devil netters met their second Border Cities League team Tuesday and came out the winner, 7-0, over Royal Oak. Several good matches were played with the No. 1 singles between MacKenzie and Ippenplatz the feature of the day.

Dick MacKenzie was the steadiest and won 6-4, 7-5.

Pat Brogan wins easily. Pat Brogan turned in the best scores of the day by defeating his opponent, 6-1, 6-1.

Bobb Hardies started out strong as the No. 2 singles but had a hard time clinching the second set, 11-9.

Tom Lamb and Dave Terris continued their winning ways to cop the No. 1 doubles match but looked pretty shaky at times because of wildness.

Of all the players this season who have showed promise, Dave Terris has come through with flying colors. He almost has a sure place clinched on the 1951 team and should win his letter as a sophomore, which is no easy feat. His game has improved by leaps and bounds.

- SINGLES
- No. 1—Dick MacKenzie, G. P., def. Fritz Ippenplatz, R. O., 6-4, 7-5.
 - No. 2—Bobb Hardies, G. P., def. Dick Little, R. O., 6-1, 11-9.
 - No. 3—Pat Brogan, G. P., def. John Wiese, R. O., 6-1, 6-1.
 - No. 4—John Brabb, G. P., def. Fred Gokey, R. O., 6-1, 6-0.

- DOUBLES
- No. 1—Tom Lamb and Dave Terris, G. P., def. Rick Staunton and Jim Richards, R. O., 6-3, 8-6.
 - No. 2—Jack Westphal and Mike Bem, G. P., def. Ray Sutkin and Harry Andreason, R. O., 6-0, 6-4.
 - No. 3—Pete Wardle and George McBride, G. P., def. Stewart Fall and Fred Crawford, R. O., 6-3, 6-3.

Swamp Trojan Team
The Monroe Trojans' net team took it on the chin Friday when the Blue Devils defeated them, 6-1, at Monroe. It was Monroe's first loss of the year.

Fear and trepidation lurked in the local boys' minds all week as they had heard that Monroe had defeated Wyandotte in a close match, 4-3. There was a genuine feeling that this might be the day when the winning streak would snap. The team up to this point was rather an unknown quantity, having played the weak half of their schedule.

Schedule Pays Off
Coach Schultz did much planning and working various combinations before deciding on the line-up he used. The biggest gamble was in placing George McBride in No. 1 doubles playing with Bruce Allen but it paid off.

Allen was plenty good and George gave him a close race for honors. Both boys swept the opposition off their feet with good serving and crashing overheads.

Bobb Hardies and Mike Bem, playing No. 2 doubles, dashed through their match and were the first to walk off the court. Both boys played offensive tennis all

Crescent Gets Unique Trophy

DICK HILL, designer and former Grosse Pointe, left, explains the new unusual trophy he made which will honor the late Commodore Kenneth L. (Joe) Vance to Crescent's Flag officers, VICE COMMODORE GEORGE COSSABOOM, COMMODORE KEN WRIGHT and REAR COMMODORE HENRY CAWTHRA.

To Pay Honor Dads' Club to Give Annual Round-Up Dinner on May 15

Crescent Sail Yacht Club for years has been coming up with new ideas and its latest is in the form of a unique trophy honoring the late Commodore, Joe Vance.

Dick Hill, artist and designer by trade, unveiled his latest creation at the club's regular monthly meeting last Tuesday, May 1.

The trophy is a seventy-five pound piece of polished plastic. The design, which is an exact duplicate of the sail plan of the late commodore's 30-square-meter boat "Chip," was carved inside the block of plastic. This operation took almost three months to complete at a total cost of $300, which was paid for by popular subscription of the club members.

The trophy will be awarded each year to the fleet champions of the different classes at the club. Hill explains that the reason he was moved to design and build the trophy was the fact the current metal freeze will practically eliminate trophies that are built up from metal. To date there has been no indication that the government will freeze plastic materials.

Now who can say Crescent hasn't shown the way once again?

Girls Forming Athletic Club

The first concentrated move in the Pointe to give more girls a chance in athletics has been started at the Neighborhood Club under the direction of Miss Pauline Masak.

Eight girls, Mary Allor, Barbara Hungarous, Beverly Labadie, Elaine Turrell, Nancy Ramsay and Alice Robertson, representing three teams and two schools, are the nucleus of the Grosse Pointe Athletic Club, which is reforming.

The G. P. A. C. is sponsoring a sports rally for girls on Tuesday, May 22, at 7:30 p.m., in an effort to determine whether or not Grosse Pointe girls are interested in competitive sports throughout the year. Any girl interested is urged to attend the sports rally at the Neighborhood Club.

The purpose of the club is the promotion of sports for girls in Grosse Pointe.

According to reports the only competitive sports girls at Grosse Pointe High can participate in are in the intra-mural program. Some of the girls would like to have some inter-school competition.

Conference Track Meet Here May 12

The Southeastern Suburban Conference will hold its Second Annual Track and Field Meet at Detroit University School, Saturday, May 12. An entry limited to the best 20 track stars from each of the seven member schools promises an outstanding day.

The meet starts at 10 a.m. with preliminaries and reaches its highlight in the early afternoon. Felix Wotila of Bloomfield Hills, who is in charge of the meet, reports that entry times and past performances promise many new records.

Dick Molnar Coming
Headlining the program is Dick Molnar of A. E. Smith School, who is expected to top 22' in the Broad Jump. He will be closely followed by Bruce Garbutt and Dave Johnston of D. U. S. Kelly of Frazier should win the 440 with a time close to 55 seconds. Reeves of Bloomfield Hills, and Thompson and Castle of Grosse Ile are the top performers in the High Hurdles, with Velton McKinley and Dave Johnston of D. U. S. not far behind.

A new record is imminent in the Shot Put established by Allen of D. C. D. S. last year at 38' 9". Candidates for the title are Koella of Bloomfield Hills, Linhardt of D. C. D. S. and Don Ohmart of D. U. S. All are close to 40'.

Favored in Relay to 40'
Edison Institute is the top contender of the league in the 4x100 and Sprint Relay events. Both teams performed with record breaking efficiency at the River Rouge Invitational Meet at Michigan University last month.

Parker of A. E. Smith School, defending high jump champion, will find stiff opposition from Hans Becherer, and Dave Johnston of D. U. S., Linhardt of D. C. D. S. and Hura of Grosse Ile. The best reported performance to date is 5' 9" by Hura of Grosse Ile.

John Wood, who was graduated from D. U. S. last year, left a pole vault record of 11' 3". This is not in danger. However, Hura of Grosse Ile, Parker of A. E. Smith and Ottoway of D. U. S. may approach that height. G. M. Garrett, assistant headmaster of D. U. S., has been named starter and referee.

GPHS Tracksters Conquered By Wyandotte, Beat Parkers

Lose Heart-Breaker to Bears as Final Relay Event Decides Victor; Reindel Breaks One Record, Ties Another

Once again Grosse Pointe's track team split a pair of track meets last week. On Tuesday, May 1, the Blue Devils lost a heartbreaker to Wyandotte on the Bears fifth of a mile track, 56 to 53. On Friday, May 4, they edged Highland Park, 65 to 44 to bring their won and lost record to an even 500 per cent. The Devils have dropped two of three league meets while winning a non-league affair from Hazel Park.

Reindel Breaks Record
The only real highlight of the Wyandotte meet which the Pointers have to cheer about is Jim Reindel's record breaking performance in the 180-yard low hurdles. Reindel eclipsed the former record of 20.9 set by Monroe's Tom Yinger in 1949 by six-tenths of a second.

Strange to the short Wyandotte track, which incidentally is the only one of its kind in the Border Cities League, the Blue Devils battled the Bears right down to the wire only to lose out by the narrowest of margins in the final 880 relay.

All Events Close
All events were decided by tenths of seconds with the Pointers capturing five and tying in the high jump. Gordon Maitland won the mile run, beating Reynolds who hadn't suffered a setback in two years of competition. Ben Bray won the 220, Bob Schaller the 880 and Marty Allard took the shotput event. Bray tied in the high jump.

Against Highland Park three days later the Blue Devils turned in one of the best performances, if not the best, of any Grosse Pointe track team.

Scoreing victories in eight of thirteen events the Pointers practically made a route of their fourth meet.

Ties Old Mark
Jim Reindel led the assault on the Polar Bears by tying the long standing 100-yard dash mark

Banach Has Faith
Despite the Monroe and Wyandotte upsets — both were very close — Coach Frank Banach still believes he has his best track team since 1947. It is just possible the local lads may upset a few apple-carts in the coming Regional meet on May 19.

SAFEST TRUCKS ON THE ROAD

NEW DODGE "Job-Rated" Trucks

The trucks that do the most for you

Safer stops with "Job-Rated" brakes
Step on the brakes of your Dodge "Job-Rated" truck and you're sure of smooth stopping action far in excess of normal requirements. You get long-lasting Cyclebond "no-rivet" brake lining—with lining area increased as G.V.W. rating goes up! Now, on models 1½-ton and up, except air brake models, you get another Dodge "first"—new Tapered, Molded Cyclebond brake lining. It's longer-lasting, extra quiet—free from "squeal." Independent hand brake also adds to safety.

Safer steering and easier handling
Now, you can maneuver your Dodge "Job-Rated" truck with less effort! Steering is more accurate. New easy-acting worm-and-roller steering gears on many models. To make driving still safer, Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks have new, shorter turning diameters. You also get the easy-handling advantages of cross-steering, short wheelbase, wide front end. All these features add up to the easiest handling truck on the market!

FLUID DRIVE now available
Only Dodge "Job-Rated" trucks offer this great "exclusive"—available on all ½-, ¾-, and 1-ton models and Route-Vans. Helps assure less wheel-spinning on slippery surfaces. . . less tendency to spin in mud, sand, snow or wherever the going is tough. What's more, gyrol Fluid Drive makes driving easier, helps protect loads, lowers upkeep costs, and lengthens truck life.

Why a "Job-Rated" truck is your safest investment
A "Job-Rated" truck is engineered at the factory to fit a specific job . . . save you money . . . last longer. Every unit from engine to rear axle is "Job-Rated"—engineered to haul a specific load over the roads you travel and at the speeds you require. Every unit that SUPPORTS the load—frame, axles, springs, wheels, tires and others—is engineered right to provide the strength and capacity needed. Every unit that MOVES the load—engine, clutch, transmission, propeller shaft, rear axle and others—is engineered right to meet a particular operating condition.

Come in today... see and drive the 'safest' truck on the road... a DODGE "Job-Rated" TRUCK

Pointe Artists Association Opens Exhibition on May 19

The Grosse Pointe Artists Association will hold its annual opening day tea at the War Memorial Center on the afternoon of May 19. The exhibition will be held in the second floor galleries from May 19 through June 2.

There will be entries in the following mediums: Water color, sculpture, sculptural ceramics, oil and drawings, for which prizes will be given first, second and third.

There will also be the Agnes Lindemann Award and the Lillian M. Pear Award.

The jury will consist of three out of town people who are highly recognized in their field, Jean Paul Slusser, Director of Art, University of Michigan; Francis Merritt, Director of Flint Institute of Arts; Howard Church, Director of Fine Arts, Michigan State College.

They will meet at 10 a.m. Friday morning, May 18, at the center, to view the art pieces and award prizes.

This year for the first time there will be a popular prize

Two Events Scheduled By Groups of A.A.U.W.

Members of the Fine Arts group of the Grosse Pointe A. A. U. W. will meet at the studio of Marshall Fredericks, sculptor, of 4113 N. Woodward avenue, Royal Oak, on Wednesday, May 16 at 11 a.m. Following a 12:30 lunch, a tour of Cranbrook Art Institute is planned starting at 2 p.m.

Advanced students of Miss Leona Weir's history classes at the high school, for the third year, will give the May program of the International Relations division of A. A. U. W.

Mrs. Ben Beyer Jr. of 60 Lochmoor boulevard will be hostess for the occasion on Wednesday, May 16 at 7:45 p.m.

The following students will lead the discussions: "Defense of Western Europe" by Robert Howe; "England" by Lyndon Babcock; "Puerto Rico" by John Fildew, and "Poland" by Anne Purdy.

Mothers and friends of the participants are especially invited to be guests at the meeting.

Legion Auxiliary News

From Unit 303
By Doris Nielsen

Good news for a change! Mason Weaver, son of Rowena and Stan, is home on leave from Korea and when that time is up, will be stationed at Great Lakes. We wish for him everything good at Great Lakes. He was a guest on Pat and Johnny's show last week! Besides some other medals he has received, he is also the possessor of the Purple Heart.

Ladies, don't forget the Membership Banquet on Monday evening, May 14, at 6:30 p.m., at the First Congregational Church House, Forest and Woodward. For reservations call Gladys at TU. 2-4991.

Last Monday our unit was proud to dedicate and present Brownie Troop 257, meeting at St. Paul's School, an American Flag. Doing the honors for the Unit were, Vice-President Gladys Charris, replacing President Elva Nielsen, who was in the hospital, Chaplain Margaret Berfeld, Vi Farnum, who acted as Sgt.-at-Arms and Americanism Chairman, Isabelle Thoman.

Don't forget that Thursday, May 24, is POPPY DAY and we need volunteers! Won't you all try to do your share and try to sell for a little while—even if it's just for an hour? Give that TU. 2-9494 number a ring right away and leave your name as a volunteer and what hours you'll be available. Without our Poppy money, you know we're unable to do much for the boys in the hospitals.

Mason Weaver and the former Joan Scott Lawrence were married at the bride's home on April 28.

Elizabeth Weiler is now at home with her knee in a cast. President Elva Nielsen is also home and can receive visitors.

Ohio State U. Women's Club to Meet on May 12

The Ohio State University Women's Club of Detroit will hold its annual luncheon meeting at Devon Gables, Saturday, May 12th at 12:30.

After the election of new officers and the selection of a delegate to the Alumnae Council at Columbus, the gathering will hear yearly reports with special emphasis on the activities of Scholarship House on the O.S.U. campus, a residence for women honor students supported in part by contributions from the Detroit club.

Mrs. Robert Sherwood of Dearborn, chairman of the meeting, will be assisted by Mrs. Clyde T. Oakley of Birmingham and Mrs. Stanley M. Hanley and Mrs. Thomas A. Boyd, both of Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Lawrence Ober will receive reservations.

Bride-Elect

The engagement of Barbara Jean Stoerkel to Edwin L. Joba is announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Corliss B. Stoerkel of Lincoln road.

The bride-elect will be graduated from Michigan State College this June and is a member of the Pi Beta Phi Sorority.

Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Joba of Battle Creek. He was graduated from Michigan State College last June, and is a member of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity.

They plan a late July wedding.

National Fire Group Meeting

The National Fire Protection Association is holding its 55th annual meeting in Detroit Monday through Friday at the Hotel Statler. Approximately 1,500 members from various parts of the world and the United States are attending.

The National Fire Protection Association is the clearing house for information that is authoritative on the subject of fire protection and fire prevention.

The Association meets annually in a five day convention, at which time the latest developments in fire prevention and protection are discussed and committee reports on technical standards are acted upon.

The membership includes over one hundred and ninety national organizations and over thirteen thousand international individuals, firms and corporations.

Elmer F. Ulrich, Councilman of the City of Grosse Pointe Park and formerly Commissioner of Fire from 1945 to 1951, was instrumental in bringing the National Fire Protection Association conference to Detroit this year.

Mr. Ulrich is a member of the Fire Prevention Campaign Committee and the Fire Record Committee of the N. F. P. A. He is also a member of Governor Williams State Fire Prevention Committee and a member of the Fire Technical Committee of the State of Michigan Civil Defense Committee.

George David Mesritz Is Pointe's Newest Citizen

Pointe Baha'is Attend Wilmette Convention

Baha'is from Grosse Pointe have just returned from the 43rd Annual Convention which was held in the foundation hall of the Baha'i House of Worship in Wilmette, Illinois.

More than 800 delegates and visitors heard a report on the Baha'i Temple interior ornamentation which will be completed early in the summer.

A brief survey listed 106 countries in which the Baha'is now reside, and 80 different languages into which the Baha'i literature is translated.

Of special interest was the report on the Regional United Nations Conference at Istanbul, at which eight Baha'is, representing Egypt, Iraq, Iran and Turkey were active participants.

PILFERINGS

"Two English boys," said Miss Leiter, "being friends of Darwin, thought one day they would play a joke on him. They caught a butterfly, a grasshopper, a beetle and a centipede, and out of these creatures they made a strange, composite insect. They took the centipede's body, the butterfly's wings, the grasshopper's legs and the beetle's head, and they glued them together carefully. Then, with their new bug in a box, they knocked at Darwin's door.

"We caught this bug in a field," they said. "Can you tell us what kind of a bug it is, sir?"

"Darwin looked at the bug and then he looked at the boys. He smiled slightly.

"Did it hum when you caught it?" he asked.

"Yes," they answered, nudging one another.

"Then," said Darwin, "it is a humbug."

—The New York Tribune.

It was at the turn of the century that two Irishmen fresh from Ireland landed in New York and engaged a room in the top story of a hotel. Mike, being sleepy, threw himself on the bed and was soon fast asleep. The sights were so new and strange to Pat that he sat at the window looking out. Soon an alarm of fire was rung in, and a fire engine rushed by, throwing up sparks of fire and clouds of smoke. This greatly excited Pat, who called to his comrade to get up and come to the window; but Mike was fast asleep. Another engine soon followed the first, spouting smoke and fire like the former. This was too much for poor Pat, who rushed excitedly to the bedside, and shaking his friend, called loudly: "Mike, Mike, wake up! They are moving Hell, and two loads have gone by already!"

Do you remember Abraham Lincoln's "Rules for Living?"

"Do not worry, eat three square meals a day, say your prayers, be courteous to your creditors, keep your digestion good, steer clear of billiousness, exercise, go slow and go easy. Maybe there are other things that your special case requires to make you happy, but, my friend, these I reckon will give you a good lift."

MRS. M. ROBERT OLP OF HARVARD ROAD
If you ever stop in Richmond, Va. to get the oil changed in your car, it's very likely you'll find a collector in your family by the time you're ready to be on the road again.

That's what happened in the case of Mrs. M. Robert Olp family.

It was during a Southern motor trip the Olps made the stop and the lady of the family, a collector from way back anyhow, strolled through the historic streets and started upon her collection of patch boxes.

You're too young to be reading this, dearie, if you don't immediately know the use of a patch box. It was used by ladies at the turn of the century to store the shiny little black beauty specks they stuck to chin or high on cheek adding feminine dazzle. Mrs. Olp's patch boxes are mostly lovely old Staffordshire, white trimmed in gold. So ancient are some that the painting led to yet another hobby . . . china painting and Mrs. Olp now retouches the boxes till they are utterly beautiful again.

In the Olps' Harvard road home a mirrored shadow box in the foyer, an antique French curio cabinet and a peer table in the living room hold the interesting collection. Patch boxes are tiny and some are in the oddest shapes including old fashioned bureaus, Little Red Riding Hoods, round boxes holding miniature tea sets. The bureau patch boxes were evidently created by a believer in preparedness-for-anything since one holds the unusual combination of shot gun and Bible.

INVENTOR GRANDFATHER
As a child, Mrs. Olp was raised by her grandparents, the late George F. Mehling who lived at Cass and Henry on land originally part of the old Henry farm. Their home was filled with French and early American antiques which Mrs. Olp learned to love. The illustrious grandfather invented the method of French veneer to furniture and he was offered the entire state of Mississippi in trade for the secret. He also developed the process for manufacture of scagliola and sold solid pillars of the synthetic marble to Union Station, the old Tuller Hotel and St. Mary's Church. In her grandparents' home, Mrs. Olp became a devotee of Delft china. Today, in her dining room, there is a remarkable collection of the beautiful Dutch china. On one wall, she has hung a great round plate of Delft with Holland scene and surrounding it are smaller plates. In the china cabinets, there are tureens, tea caddies, dinner sets. There's also an entire shelf devoted to Grandmother Mehling's pitcher collection, all wedding gifts and all in Royal Worcester china. Some of the pitchers are left-handed ones, an item which makes blood tingle in a collector's veins. This is serious and not at all in the left-handed monkey wrench tradition. You can tell the pitcher is left-handed because the decoration shows only when the left hand is pouring.

SPINS A YARN
Mrs. Olp is French, Scotch and Bavarian but we suspect a bit of gypsy in her ancestry, too. This is because she's one of the most fascinating tale spinners we've listened to in a long time. Her amazingly black eyes sparkle as she tells the stories connected with her antiques.

Her home is mostly early American and little by little she is disposing of the French furniture which was used in Gray Haven where the Olps lived before moving to the Pointe. She tells about the wedding bowl table which once belonged to Napoleon's Josephine. A beautiful wooden table held the removable Royal Vienna bowl. Mrs. Olp bought it for twenty dollars. Somewhere there was the companion piece belonging to Napoleon. When Mrs. Olp was selling some of her antiques the dealer's eye was taken by the wedding bowl. She told him the story. "Would you take two hundred dollars for the table?" he asked her. Those black eyes twinkled and she said she would.

The next week she went to an antique show and was amazed to see the wedding bowl roped off, crowds around it and a man telling the Napoleon story in dulcet tones. Mrs. Olp had always thought the story was a fantasy and she winked broadly at the story teller. She blinked, however, when she learned the bowl was being sold for six hundred dollars.

The last she heard of the treasure it had brought over fifteen hundred dollars and the story about its beginnings was true!

A REAL COLLECTOR
Mrs. Olp's many collections include mustache cups, Chelsea after dinner coffee sets, miniature kerosene lamps, trivets, bone dishes (which she decorates with her paint brush and uses as ash trays), perfumes, silver jewelry which she and Mr. Olp have made.

She says her predilection for patch boxes has proved a marvelous way to browse about in antique shops without being heckled to buy. It is fascinating, according to our Pointer of Interest, to find just part of a patch box and then continue the search until the other half is turned up perhaps in a different section of the country.

The patch box hunts have taken the Olps to Virginia (where a direct descent of Hiawatha keeps an eye out for those Mrs. Olp might like), Cape Cod, New Orleans, New England. In her sprightly little daughter, Mary Jo, there's already a strong appreciation for antiques and Mr. Olp, not to be undone, has gathered himself a collection of small ships built into bottles.

MILK CHOCOLATE CAKE

Contributed by Mrs. Otis U. Walker

- 1/2 c. butter
- 1 1/2 c. sugar
- 4 egg yolks, well beaten
- 2 squares bitter chocolate
- 4 Tbsp. boiling water
- 1/2 c. cream or rich milk
- 2 c. flour
- 2 heaping tsp. baking powder
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Cream butter and sugar and add egg yolks. Beat in chocolate which has been melted and blended with the hot water. Stir in flour and baking powder (sifted together) and liquid alternately. Fold in beaten egg whites and flavoring. Bake in three layers.

Spread the layers first with this frosting:

- 1 1/4 c. sifted powdered sugar
- 2 1/2 Tbsp. butter
- Cream and add 4 tablespoons of hot milk and a few drops of vanilla.

Next spread with the following icing which is also used to cover the entire cake:

- 2 c. powdered sugar, 2 table- spoons cocoa, 1/4 cup of cream and 2 tablespoons of melted butter.
