

TO HONOR WAR DEAD WEDNESDAY

HEADLINES

of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, May 17

A COLD FRONT plunged Detroit temperatures 25 degrees over night. Yesterday's high of 88 is the highest recorded for May 16 since weather records were begun in 1872. Unseasonable heat also broke records in New York and Philadelphia.

ATTEMPT BY CHINESE REDS to cut main UN line thwarted by Allies who rushed in to plug the gap made by Chinese in South Korean ranks. Red strategy reported to be to pound the center of the line regardless of losses. Enemy's main blow expected to begin within 12 hours on the western front above Seoul.

PICKETS DETOURED all but five of the 15 DSR operators scheduled to appear for hearings on their pleas that they were not willing to strike. However, there was no interference with the five who braved the assemblage. The City is not expected to file an injunction for return of transit service until tomorrow.

ALBERT SWARTZ, Detroit jeweler and admitted fence, was found in the garage of his home at 4030 Sturtevant early today with two bullets in his head. Thought to have been slain because of testimony he gave in court. He was the second witness attacked within the last six months concerned in a federal case being tried in Chicago.

DETROITERS AMONG INJURED in train wreck today near Bryn Mawr, Pa. The Pennsylvania Railroad's Red Arrow Express plowed into the rear of a night express train from Pittsburgh which had stopped in response to a signal. At least 11 persons were killed and 56 others injured.

REDS HAVE PUSHED UN line back as much as 20 miles due to sheer weight of numbers. Reds have made gains with a callous disregard for their own casualties. Enemy troops are within 10 miles of Seoul. Allies fought out of trap in east-central Korea.

A FORMAL INJUNCTION restraining striking DSR operators from interfering with the free operation of the transit system was asked Circuit Court today by the City and the DSR. Secret conferences behind the locked doors of Judge Ira Jayne's courtroom, began immediately.

ALLIES HALT REDS all along the battle line. Staggering losses in manpower weaken their second phase of the Communists' "spring offensive." Reds who attacked toward Seoul in bright daylight found themselves ensnared in mine fields and barbed wire.

STUDENT SEVERELY BURNED during club initiation—aluminum paint which had been applied to the boy's chest and leg caught fire when a magneto wire was twisted and sparked. Two Cass Technical High School teachers questioned on their part in the initiation which proved so disastrous for 17-year-old Douglas Bisbee.

Urge Parents To Immunize All Children

Medical Society Approves Recommendation of Civil Defense Authorities

The Wayne County Medical Society Council has approved a recommendation from the Civil Defense Committee regarding immunization against Diphtheria, Whooping cough and Tetanus.

Immunization is advised in infancy and this should be maintained by booster treatments at eighteen months, at five, eight and eleven years. In other words at three year intervals. Smallpox vaccination is advised in infancy and thereafter at five-year intervals.

Boosters Neglected

The primary percent of immunization in the Pointe area is high. A recent school survey indicates however that the booster follow-up has been neglected. Attention of parents is therefore directed to this program which is outlined for civil defense.

Dr. Thomas Davies of the Health Department suggests that physicians be consulted for evaluation of your children's immunization status.

Last Minute Response Puts Drive for Blood Over Top

Once again the Young Adult Group at the War Memorial Center has conducted a successful campaign to collect blood for the Red Cross, its second since last November. A total of 117 pints was collected at the Center last Friday, most of which went to serve the wounded in Korea.

A last minute flood of volunteers put the drive over the top. The group was pretty discouraged when but 80 donors had signed up just a few days before the date set.

Many appeared on Friday without having made any reservations. In all there were 148 responses to the plea. One encouraging feature of this drive was that only 10 who had made appointments failed to appear. In the campaign last November 40 volunteers who had signed up didn't keep their appointments.

Cardinal Mooney to Dedicate New Bon Secours Hospital At Ceremonies on Saturday

Other Leaders of Catholic Churches to Be on Hand for Climax to Remarkable Story of Achievement by Group of Nuns

His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney will dedicate the new, enlarged Bon Secours Hospital in Cadeux road on Saturday afternoon, May 26, at 2:30. The sermon will be delivered by Right Reverend Monsignor John C. Vismara, D.D., Dean of the Eastern Deanery.

Cardinal Mooney will be assisted by Reverend Francis F. Van Antwerp, Pastor of St. Ambrose Parish and Very Reverend Philip L. Colgan, O.S.A., Pastor of St. Clair of Montefalco, who will serve as Assistant Deacons.

The Reverend Albert L. Melvin, Pastor of St. Paul's Parish, will be Deacon of Benediction, and Reverend Edward F. Sweeney, O.S.A., of St. Clare of Montefalco Parish will be Sub-Deacon.

The Deacon of Exposition will be Reverend George Pare, Chaplain Bon Secours Hospital, and Reverend Joseph M. Breitenbeck will be Master of Ceremonies.

Climax of Great Story
The Dedication climaxes a remarkable story of prayer, sacrifice and hard work. A little group of nuns, who had been nursing the sick in and around Detroit, began the work of organizing a convalescent home in Grosse Pointe less than ten year ago. This staggering task began with limited resources but with unlimited faith, has culminated in providing a sanctuary of peace and comfort for the sick and suffering of the entire community.

In caring for the sick, the hospital and the Sisters do not recognize any discrimination or classification of their patients as to color, race, creed or financial status.

Parked Car Hit; Three Injured

Minor injuries were sustained by three people who were seated in one of the two parked cars hit by David E. Allen, 17, of 1204 Bellevue, on Wednesday, May 16.

The accident occurred on Jefferson just west of Lakeland. Those who received injuries were treated at Bon Secours Hospital.

Police issued witness notices to the owners of the parked cars, Bruce Neff, of 451 St. Clair, and Peter Gillespie, of 17252 Evanston.

Park Places Order For 161 Meters

City Also About to Buy 100 of Same Type as Those Now Being Used in Farms

The contract for the installation of 161 parking meters was granted to the Magee-Hale Park-O-Meter Co. by the City of Grosse Pointe Park council at a meeting held Monday, May 21.

The Magee-Hale company, who submitted the lowest bid, has agreed to install the meters each complete with a coin register for $69.50 apiece. The council voted to sanction a plan whereby the meter will be purchased on a 60 day basis which will be an economy of $500 on the approximate total cost of $11,189.50.

Where Most Needed

Everitt B. Lane, Park municipal manager, stressed that the meters would be placed where the need was greatest. Proposed sites for the meters are Jefferson and Mack but they will not all be placed in the business section.

The meters will be placed at intervals of 22 feet and will accommodate pennies, (which allow a parking time of 12 minutes,) as well as nickels.

The City of Grosse Pointe is also expected to place an order soon for 100 of the same meters, to be installed in the Kercheval avenue business district between Neff and Cadeux roads.

Same as Farms'

The meters are the same type which the Farms installed a year ago last November. The price at that time was $61 per meter and the Farms is paying for its 100 by turning over half of each

Rooster's Crow Portends Doom

A resident of Roslyn road reported to Woods police on Tuesday, May 15, that his early morning slumber was disturbed with repeated regularly by the crowing of a neighboring rooster.

Police contacted the rooster's owner, who commented that it had been disturbing their sleep also.

The conversation terminated with the following remark by the rooster's owner, "His head is coming 'off today.'"

Early Reports Give Hope for Success In Center's Drive

Campaign Canvassers Express Confidence That Great Majority of Residents Will Lend Support to Pointe's Memorial

While actual figures are still scarce on results of the campaign being conducted to raise funds for the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, reports being received from individual workers and zone leaders indicate that the drive is progressing satisfactorily.

No totals had been tabulated when the NEWS went to press, but Co-Chairman John Kenower and Richard Huegli estimated that about $2,000 had already been turned in at the Center by the few workers who have completed their assignments, and by donors who mailed in their contributions without waiting to be personally contacted.

Mail Is Encouraging
The Center mail has also contained some very encouraging letters from residents, expressing their appreciation of all the Center is doing for the Pointe. One such letter was accompanied by a check for $100 and there were several checks for $50 each.

The City, Farms and Shores are by far the best organized of the five municipalities and there is assurance that every single house in those areas will be canvassed. There has been considerable difficulty in obtaining enough workers in the Park, and not all sections of the Woods have been covered.

Mail In Your Gift
Residents who have not been personally solicited are urged to send their donations directly to the War Memorial Center at 32 Lake Shore road.

Mrs. Edwin Mercer of Washington road reported that the response she is receiving makes the canvassing work a great pleasure rather than a chore. She expressed the opinion that she would obtain 100 percent participation in her section.

Guy Wedthoff, municipal chairman for the City, stated that indications are that an average of about $140 will be collected in each block there. The same results are anticipated in the Farms where Edwin Ives, Jr., is the chairman.

Worker Called to Service
William Boales, who has been doing great work in a large area of the Farms, received his orders Monday to report soon to Scott Field, Ill., for service in the Air Corps. He has made several trips back to the Center for additional pledge cards and promises good results.

Rex Johnston is handling the Torrey Woods section of the Woods and says his workers are doing a thorough job. Many of the canvassers are leaving self-addressed envelopes and pledge cards at homes where they are unable to make personal contacts, then are calling back if replies do not come in. Judge Victor DeBaeke and Robert Taylor are

Brighter Future Lies Ahead For Kercheval Ave. in Park

Seventy-one ornamental lights of 10,000 lumens each will be installed on Kercheval avenue from Wayburn to Cadeux as directed by the Park council at last Monday's meeting.

With the installation of these street lights, the Park's lighting program for the year will be complete.

The Edison Company has received official notification from the Park to begin work.

The new fixtures will replace the old ones the entire length of Kercheval within the Park limits. The new standards will be spaced about the same distance as the new ones which have been installed all along the Park's section of East Jefferson avenue.

1951 Budgets Adopted by Farms, Park

Tax Rate Boosted 55 Cents Per Thousand in Farms and Reduced $2.08 in Latter

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms approved its 1951 budget Monday night when the council voted to increase the tax rate by 55 cents per thousand dollars of assessed valuation, to produce $737,017.57. This brings the new tax rate to $16.08 per thousand as against last year's $15.53.

It was the first tax boost in the Farms in four years. Assessments have jumped from $34,191,440 last year, to $35,576,790 this year. Clerk Harry Furton pointed out to council that part of the anticipated increase over 1950 valuations was offset by a reduction of approximately $730,000 in "estate" properties.

Wages, Personnel Jump
Wages to city employees have also increased approximately 8 cents per hour in the last year, which with other adjustments cost a total of $16,610.60. Additional personnel has been hired which has boosted costs another $25,150.40.

Carried over from last year's funds and estimated revenue for the coming year is the amount of $165,235.10, leaving a balance of $571,782.47 which must be raised by taxes to meet the budget requirements.

Park Rate Drops

The City of Grosse Pointe Park also officially adopted its budget Monday following a public hearing. The Park's budget is for $1,044,920 and the tax rate is $16.38 per thousand. This is a reduction of $2.08 from last year's rate of $18.46.

The Park also had to reduce assessments on lake front properties in the amount of about $550,000. The entire city was reassessed during the year, with some valuations being reduced and others raised.

Three-Year-Old Falls From Car

Only bruises and scratches were suffered by Linda Bacon, 3, of 422 Cadeux, when she fell from her mother's moving car on Wednesday, May 16.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Bacon, who was driving south on St. Clair, made a left turn at Kercheval.

City police took Linda to Bon Secours Hospital where x-rays were taken. They showed no breaks.

Center Will Again Be Scene of Ceremonies to Pay Tribute to Heroes

"Poppy Day" Set for Today

American Legion Post 303 is cooperating with other veterans groups who will be stationed throughout the Pointe today selling veteran made poppies.

Martin Nielsen, chairman of Post 303, stresses the importance of making a success of "Poppy Day" as the revenue from poppy sales is directed toward the rehabilitation of wounded veterans and helping their families.

The making of the poppies is in itself a step toward rehabilitation in that it enables a disabled person to participate actively in his support.

Should today's weather be unfavorable, tomorrow, Friday, May 25, will be official Poppy Day.

Police Succor Befogged Driver

Investigation of a car pulled up alongside the road at Mack and Lennon on Tuesday, May 15, proved that it contained a victim of Bacchus.

The driver, an inebriated Detroit, was sent home by police. His car, which police impounded, was released the following day.

Fan Exchange Pure Robbery

Someone familiar with the Aladdin's lamp tale traded an old electric windshield fan for a new one.

However, consent was not obtained, and the resident of Notre Dame whose fan was removed from his car on May 16, has not found the replacement to have any magic properties.

Caught Running School Crossing

Rudolph Westerman, of 15054 Evanston, appeared in Woods Court on Saturday, May 19, for reckless driving on May 18.

Mr. Westerman ran through a school crossing at Brys and Mack. Presiding Judge Don Goodrow, suspended his license for 90 days and fined him $50.

Speeder Traced Through License

A speeder who succeeded in eluding pursuing police on Tuesday, May 15, escaped only for the moment. City police traced him through the license number of the car.

He is Robert L. Mulderig, of 1328 Eastlawn. Police contacted him and requested his presence at the station. When he appeared the following day, he was given a violation ticket for reckless driving and excessive speed.

His court arraignment is scheduled for May 28.

resources. Substantially more than one-half of the patients treated are of various religions other than Catholic.

Whole Community Helped
The hospital represents an investment of more than one and one-half million dollars with a debt of approximately half a million dollars. All of the people of the community, stirred by the noble work of this band of Sisters, have contributed generously of their time, efforts and money.

Just a few months ago, cooperative work by a group of this hospital's friends, headed by Michael J. Kearins and Lou R. Maxon, and by the Assistance League and by the Guild resulted in contributions of $175,000.00, which is truly a remarkable achievement in this era of subsidies and public charities.

Many New Facilities
The new Bon Secours Hospital qualifies for recognition by the American College of Surgeons, thus providing a permanent staff of resident doctors and internes. The expanded facilities now provide 50 additional beds, a new out-patient department which is the only one in the immediate area, a new maternity department, a new emergency department and three new operating rooms.

Sisters Are Overwhelmed

Mother Mary Alice, Superior of the Hospital, in speaking of the coming dedication said: "The Sisters and I are overwhelmed by the goodness of our dear and generous friends. It is they who have made possible this glorious day."

two Shores workers who have completed their canvasses.

Ask All to Give
The chief objective of the drive is to have participation from every family in the Pointe, no matter how small. Before this campaign the Center had been created and developed through the contributions of a small percentage of the local residents. It is now hoped that the institution has become so well entrenched in the life of the community that all will want to have a part in its maintenance and further development.

The Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association is contacting all members. The drive will end the day following Memorial Day, next Thursday, May 31. There will be a dinner in the Center that night, which it is hoped will take the form of a rousing victory celebration.

Dual Goal

The immediate goal of the campaign is to raise $18,000 to meet the deficit which will be incurred if the present program at the Center is maintained. It is the hope of all those interested that much more than this amount will be collected so that the program activities can be expanded and the facilities and beauty of the property can continue to be enhanced.

Classes on "Atomic Nursing" have been in session at the Neighborhood Club since May 9. These classes are under the sponsorship of the local Office of Civilian Defense. They are being conducted for the purpose of acquainting registered nurses residing in the Pointe with the program of treatment utilized in atomic warfare.

Mrs. Lucille M. Boyle, who received her training at Marine Hospital, has been directing the classes. Dr. Thomas S. Davies of the Grosse Pointe Health Department has conducted the first session of each of these classes to explain the physics angle involved in treating victims of atomic warfare.

Each class has three meetings lasting two and one half hours each. The classes which began May 9 will terminate on May 29, and it is thought that demand will be such that the classes will be continued.

A morning, afternoon and evening session has been arranged to facilitate attendance for qualified persons.

Ceremony Held By Cub Scouts

Tuesday evening 12 members of Pack 74 were awarded the highest rank given in Cub Scouting during a colorful Indian ceremony at Richard School. The glow of a campfire on the stage lighted their long feathered head-dresses as each boy stepped forward to receive his Webelos Badge from Louis Hunt, cubmaster.

The climax of the ceremony was staged by Lester Lawn, president of the National Archery Association. Mr. Lawn shot into a target on the stage, 12 long golden arrows which symbolized the graduation of the boys from Cub Scouting into the ranks of Boy Scouts. The boys who received these honors were: Fred Baker, Robert Veiweg, Robert Hoder, Steve Suor, Pat Duffy, Dick Granse, Thomas Little, Robert Wicks, Carl von Mertens, Henry Burr, John Thorne and Jack Whiting.

Advancement awards in the ranks of Cub Scouting were presented to the following boys: Charles Dobbins, Charles Krebs, Peter von Mertens, Remi Purdy, David Barrett, Thomas Little, Dan Book, Robert Dargell and David Allison.

All the members of Den 13, under the leadership of their Den mother, Mrs. Robert Nyborg, received their Wolf Badges. These boys included Ben McClure, Peter Bumpus, Fred Stolpekamp, Gary Ferrenti, Bill Walker and Robert Nyborg.

The final gathering of the season for Pack 74 will take place at the Neighborhood Club on Saturday, June 2. The occasion will be the annual father and son field day and picnic. Amusements and competitions are planned for this date by a committee headed by Fred Critchfield, chairman, and his assistant, Homer Ferriss.

Lending Aid in Symphony Drive

The 1,000 active members of the Women's Organization for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra have launched a campaign to raise $100,000 by public subscription, annually for the next three years, to augment the pledges already made of $250,000 to reactivate the symphony orchestra.

MRS. ROY D. CHAPIN, left, is serving on the Grosse Pointe committee of which MRS. DANIEL GODENOUGH, right, is the chairman. Others on the local committee include: Mrs. John Bell Moran, Mrs. Julian Bowen, Mrs. A. C. Ledyard, Mrs. Jerome H. Remick, Jr., Mrs. John B. Ford, Jr., Mrs. Wilson Mills, Mrs. Richard W. Jackson, Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan, Miss Frances Sibley, Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. Ernest Kanzler, Mrs. John N. Lord and Mrs. Carroll Routell.

Church Extends Talent Drive

The efforts of the Talent Campaign committee of Grosse Pointe Methodist Church have been extended in their goal to raise funds to complete payment of the church and to install the parking lot at Moross road, due to an additional obligation assumed by the church.

The original deadline for the campaign was May 6 and the original goal $10,000. The new deadline has been set for June 24 and the goal has been raised by several thousand dollars.

A new fund raising project initiated by William F. Horsch, chairman of the Talent Campaign, has supplemented the collections substantially. Mr. Horsch mailed 95 Talent Letters, explaining the aims of the group, to friends and relatives and stating that a contribution of $1 would aid in attaining the goal.

Up to date 44 replies have been received totaling $146. Five hundred of these form letters will be run off and distributed to church members wishing to promote this means of augmenting the fund at the church supper being held tomorrow.

Committee members have been allocating their spare time to fund raising projects.

Church to Have Guest Soloist

Guest soloist at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on Sunday morning, May 27, will be Margaret Slimon, accomplished violinist, pianist and composer.

Member of the Musical Art Club and chairman of Tuesday Musicals Composers' group, Mrs. Slimon has to her credit, besides continued noteworthy concert performance, numerous original compositions and arrangements.

Among these may be found "Violin Concerto," "Scherzoso" and a lively group written in Spanish style. Although formerly in the teaching field, Mrs. Slimon is currently active as a member of a concert trio and has appeared in ensemble performances at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

She is a resident of the Farms, the wife of Albert J. Slimon and the mother of Suzanne and Sheila. She is a graduate of Chicago Musical College and studied under Samantini.

In addition to prelude music at 10:45 a.m., Mrs. Slimon will play the violin obligato parts to Bizet's Agnus Dei during the ensuing service.

The real difference between men is not sanity and insanity, but more or less insanity.

Neighborhood Club News

With the approach of summer the Neighborhood Club of Grosse Pointe is once again busy making plans for its Summer Day Camp Program which is under the direction of Miss Pauline Masak.

This is good news to many mothers living in the Grosse Pointe Community and near-by Detroit, because they know that their children receive excellent care, participate in supervised activities, and gain through the experience of learning to cooperate and adjust to group activities.

Also, and very important to the mothers, is the fact that while the children are benefiting from the "Camp" experience, the mothers are also having a week, Camp meets three days a week, thus relieving mother of at least three days of coping with their exuberant, summer liveliness.

Each summer the program follows a particular pattern and has a central theme. One year the theme was Dude Ranches. All activities, projects, and group designations were actively motivated by the theme Dude Ranching.

This year the theme is College Days. The children will be divided into four groups representing four Colleges: Lollipop University, Hi-Jinks University, Peppermint University, and Lucky University. The Senior Counselors will be the Deans, the Junior Counselors the Professors.

Each college will have their own colors. Peppermint University will have red and white, Hi-Jinks, green and white, Lollipop, purple and white, and Lucky U, blue and white. The color schemes will be carried out in pennants and caps to be worn by the students identifying them with their university.

The general activities throughout the whole session will consist of handicraft, glee club, social dancing, college band, and a sports program of tennis instruction, softball games, Necomb, track events, and general group games.

In order for your children to attend Summer Day Camp they must first be between the ages of seven and fourteen. Secondly, there is a $3.00 fee for each child, which fee is the total cost for the five week period other than the incidental expense of the College hat and handicraft material fees which probably would amount to much less than a dollar for the five week period.

Camp begins on June 25, and ends July 27. It meets every Monday, Wednesday and Friday, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The location is the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo, Grosse Pointe, and we have no restrictions as to residence. We are a Community Fund Agency.

If you have any further questions regarding registration or the Camp program, you may call TUXedo 5-4600, and we will be happy to give you any information you may desire. As the Camp roster is rapidly being filled, and we must restrict our registration to a specific number of children, we would suggest that you call us or come to the Neighborhood Club as soon as possible if you are interested.

21ST YEAR ON GROSSE POINTE'S PRINCIPAL CORNER

Art Association's Exhibit Drawing Many to Center

By Elizabeth Bowen
The Grosse Pointe Artists Association's 14th annual exhibition is now on at the Memorial Center. Starting last Saturday, May 19, it will run through June 2.

This year the show is very, very interesting, and though not many of the members are professionals, it is of professional caliber. The oils are strong and purposeful, both in the academic and contemporary manner. The water colors, beautifully matted and framed, lend themselves to an overall impression of being done by people who know what they are about.

For the first time, at the opening tea, the guests were asked to vote for what in their opinions was the best in the show. David Hamilton's beautiful sensitive oil "Trio" was unanimously chosen. This is not a large picture, but its strength is in its beautiful colors and the delicate manner in which the pigment is applied.

The jury, Jean Paul Slusser of Ann Arbor, Francis Merritt of Flint, and Howard Church of Lansing, awarded the Agnes L. Lindemann prize to Winifred Isbell for her landscape "Rouge Plant," which is considered the best landscape in the show. The Lillian M. Pear award went to Floyd Munson for his "Still Life No. 1."

Bernice Carmichael's new approach in her "Nativity" is both a stunning and tender adaptation. The beautiful deep jewel-like tones won for her the blue ribbon of the first prize in oils. Mrs. Clark Bassett won the second prize oil for her "Fruit Compo," while Barbara Sicks, one of the newest members of the organization, captured third with her very clever contemporary "The Clown."

Pauline Fields, who ordinarily does oil portraits, was awarded first prize for her water color of "Christmas Day Key West," while Elizabeth Dulmage won second on her "5th Century Altarpiece." This beautiful still life was actually done in the Memorial Center of the almost priceless altarpiece. Corinne Dolega's unusual arrangement of practical sewing materials on a small round table, created a sunny and especially interesting water color design which won for her third place.

Even Mannequins Boost the Center Drive

Jacobson's Store in Kercheval avenue made this contribution to the current War Memorial Association campaign. The latest fashions are posing in a prominent window against a background drawing of the entrance to the beautiful Center in Lake Shore road. "Our Background for Summer," says the placard.

Darts in Front Of Car in Woods

Leonard J. Peterson, of 2056 Fleetwood, reported to police on Monday, May 14, that while driving east on Fleetwood near Mack, he struck John M. Myers, 4, of 2008 Anita, who darted in front of him from behind a parked car. Skid marks substantiated Mr. Peterson's contention that he tried to stop. The boy tried to turn around and run back but collided with the front left fender and was knocked to the pavement.

John incurred bruises and several bumps on the back of his head. Mr. Peterson took John to a doctor who found no serious injury.

Friends of Public Library Hold Dinner Meeting

Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library held their Annual Dinner Meeting last Thursday night at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Speaker of the evening was Dr. Paul M. Angle, Director of the Chicago Historical Society and Museum.

After the dinner, served by women of the church, Marion K. Kellogg, president, opened the business meeting. He reported on the excellent work of the committees, especially the Central Library Committee, Program Committee, and Membership Committee. The latter two, under Dr. Alfred H. Whittaker and Mrs. George R. True, Mr. Kellogg felt were in a large measure responsible for the excellent year enjoyed by the group.

The group then voted on directors, whose terms had expired, including Mrs. Lloyd G. Hooker, Mrs. Russell Lucas, Marion K. Kellogg, Dr. Frank Pitt and Dr. Alfred Whittaker. All were re-elected for another term, the group feeling that it was important to retain their active participation on the Board.

Mr. Kellogg called on Robert M. Orr, Director of Public Libraries, who acknowledged the presence of Bert H. Wicking, representing the Board of Education, and gave the regrets of James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools, at being unable to be present. The library director praised the work of the Friends, told of the importance of its work to the public library, and expressed his appreciation to the many individuals who have contributed to the organization during the past year. He thanked Mr. Kellogg for the gift of $100 to the Public Library, and thanked the group for its concrete expression of their interest.

The speaker was introduced by Dr. Whittaker and talked on "The Pleasures of History."

After the program, the Board of Directors met and elected the following officers for the coming year: Marion K. Kellogg, president; Charles Parcells, Jr., vice-president; Miss Melitta E. Roemer, secretary; and Vincent De Petris, treasurer.

The record list will be seeking two openings on the board, with Shirley T. Johnson, a lawyer, and Mrs. Alice M. Shaeffer, a housewife, seeking reelection.

Of the remaining eight only Fred Runnells, a newspaperman, was on the 1950 ballot.

Rounding out the ballot will be Mrs. Editha Sterba, Harry N. Phillips, Chet Sampson, James W. Lee, II, Ralph M. Clark, Joseph L. Henry and Robert F. Weber.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

If there was anything which could have distracted our attention from the beautiful gardens shown this year in the Garden Center's annual Pilgrimage . . .

It was an attractive young couple . . . who pushed their baby in a go-cart just ahead of us through every garden . . .

We met them first on the grounds of Mrs. Standish Backus' Lake Shore road home, where this year's pilgrimage started if you "did" the tour on Friday . . .

Then there was nothing but pure affection on our part for the baby in the go-cart . . .

But by the time we reached Mrs. Murphy's (it's incredible that we could have been so beaten when you consider both gardens are in Grosse Pointe and not on the opposite seaboard!) we confess to brooding on how some have it v-e-r-y easy and wondering should we offer to hold the baby would the youthful parents let us get in the go-cart . . .

Short On Horticulture

In Summer togs, Mrs. Lewis S. Robinson and Mrs. Edward S. Evans, Jr., greeted garden pilgrims at the entrance of the Backus grounds . . .

The perfect weather and heavy attendance were reflected in their gay expressions . . .

Several visitors had Mrs. Backus' gardener "in tow" plying him with questions about the exquisite flowers in bloom . . .

And since we are surest identifying dandelions, we're going to be awfully humdrum and report a solid garden of waist-high warm pink tulips . . . and veritable trees of dark-purple lilacs caught our fancy . . .

While authorities went into rhapsodies (which included the botanical names of everything) as they journeyed over the beauty studded grounds . . .

Mrs. Backus in a pale lavender linen frock, welcomed visitors to her garden . . .

At the garden exit we found Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr., and Mrs. John H. French, Jr., dispensing a brand of gingerale we could name . . . and we saw two other nature lovers regarding four iron bars in one of the great trees which line the Backus drive . . .

Knot Gardens

The baby arrived in state at the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Kanzler a bit down Lake Shore road . . . and we rode in on our charley horse . . .

Pretty as garden flowers themselves, Mrs. Richard Webber Jackson and Mrs. Edward Askine Skae presided at the "ticket table" here . . .

These gardens were originally designed by the late Ellen Shipman who superintended their re-planting before her death last year . . .

At the far end of the long grounds stands a handsome terra cotta figure the Kanzlers brought back from Paris this year . . . and surrounding it are a wealth of beautiful blossoms . . .

Ticket information called to our attention the Kanzlers' "Knot Gardens" . . . interesting geometrical effects formed by low, small divinely green boxwoods . . .

The wistaria trees of the Kanzler gardens cast a delicious fragrance over the afternoon . . . and Mrs. Kanzler was kept busy answering garden questions . . . looking chic in a sand toned silk frock . . .

Baby Blooming

We were a bit awed with the pep and smartness of Mrs. Edward B. Caulkins, Jr. . . . Miss Gail Smith . . . by the

Pointe's Bebe Byrnes To Speak Vows June 21

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Byrnes Will Become Bride of Richard Irwin Fitzgibbons in St. Paul's on the Lake; Reception Follows at Grosse Pointe Club

In these peculiar times a young man whose thoughts are "lightly turning" finds there are two parties he must ask for consent to be a bridegroom—the young lady's father AND Uncle Sam.

Uncle Sam's word came through this week for lovely Margaret Mary (Bebe) Byrnes and Richard Irwin Fitzgibbons (stationed at Sheppard Air Force Base in Wichita Falls, Texas) and they've set the date for June 21.

Bebe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Byrnes of Lake Shore road, and Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin S. Fitzgibbons of Oak drive, will be married at an 11 o'clock ceremony in St. Paul's on the Lake. The reception, which follows, will take place at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Marcia Byrnes will be her sister's maid of honor and bridesmaids will be her cousin, Constance Minahan of Albany, N.Y., Mary Couzens, Mrs. Ralph Reed and Mrs. Robert J. Byrnes Jr.

Dick has asked his brother, James P. Fitzgibbons to be his best man. The bridesmen include another brother, Robert M. Fitzgibbons, the bride-elect's brothers, James John and Robert John Byrnes Jr. and John Fellrath.

Dick will arrive June 17 from Texas and that afternoon bridesmaid Mrs. Reed and her mother, Mrs. Fred F. Feely will give a bar accessory shower for the young couple. Setting for the fun will be the Feely residence in Parkside avenue.

This past Wednesday, Mrs. Robert M. Fitzgibbons and Mrs. James P. Fitzgibbons were hostesses at a linen shower at the Detroit Golf Club feting their future sister-in-law.

Mrs. Thomas Conway is planning a handkerchief shower for the bride-elect early next month. Mr. and Mrs. Fitzgibbons will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner for their son and Bebe on June 19 at the Detroit Golf Club.

Sorority Holds Centennial Tea

The Detroit Alumnae Association of Alpha Delta Pi, the oldest secret society for college women, held its Centennial Tea at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center on May 15. Honored guests were the presidents and delegates of the sororities in the Detroit Panhellenic Association.

Alpha Delta Pi became the pioneer among college sororities in 1851, when a group of young women at Wesleyan College, Macon, Georgia, received permission from the college authorities to form a society for "mutual improvement and enjoyment." From its early membership of 19, the sorority now numbers more than 34,000 members, including 80 collegiate chapters and 185 alumnae associations in the United States and Canada.

Throughout its 100 year history, the sorority has extended its initial purpose to the field of community service and scholarship aid to foreign students. This year a special Centennial International Fellowship of $1,000 was awarded to Miss Eila Ketola of Finland, and a similar grant will be awarded to an outstanding alumna for graduate study either in this country or abroad.

In June of this year, the members of Alpha Delta Pi will return to Wesleyan College for the Centennial Convention and have an opportunity to study the records and pictures of the sorority's first chapter.

A Lesson to be Learned

The police found him propped against the Farms lake-front park fence at 7:45 o'clock last Saturday morning. He was a sodden, soggy mess of a 17-year-old kid, desperately and wretchedly ill from having taken aboard enough beer to sink a full grown man with years of imbibing experience.

The officers took him to the station and when he became coherent they heard a saga of misguided adolescence, a tale of the purposeless meandering of one group of youngsters on one night.

The lad's pal, also 17, granted the privilege of using his dad's car, had picked him up at 7:30 the night before. They had gathered in two more cronies, then rode aimlessly around the Pointe looking for something to amuse them. One suggested that they go to Windsor, just for the ride. They went to Windsor, and driving back through the tunnel they decided they ought to have some beer.

They purchased the beer, two cases of it, at a store "somewhere on Jefferson not far from the tunnel." They returned to the Pointe and rode around again, drinking the beer and searching their little brains for ideas for entertainment. Someone else, or maybe the same genius who had proposed Windsor, suggested that it would be nice to attend a beach party which they had heard was being given by a group of Pontiac High School students.

Somewhere out on Woodward avenue they stopped in a gas station to inquire about the location of the party. They couldn't obtain this information, but the trip wasn't entirely wasted. While their friend was interrogating the service station attendant one of them stole a five gallon can of oil. A second was content with taking a two gallon can.

They drove back to the Pointe and went to the High School grounds. Apparently they jettisoned the now completely empty beer cases there, for police had found them before they came upon the unhappy sight at the Farms pier. At this point two of the youngsters, obviously endowed with a few more brains than their companions, decided it was time to call it a night and asked to be taken home. The remaining trio pooled their ideas and came up with the magnificent project of stealing a boat and going for a ride.

When they reached the Farms park, the sad little fellow who had overestimated his capacity was unable to scale the fence. He just slumped in a heap and sweated it out until the officers came along.

The other two were greeted by a shore party of police when they brought the stolen craft back two hours later. All of the kids were turned over to their parents, pending further investigation. The owner of the boat did not care to prosecute.

One must draw one's own moral from the foregoing true tale. But it points out certain obvious flaws in the thinking of too many adults, and particularly parents.

We are weary of the old argument that we ought to expect this sort of thing from the youngsters today because we don't provide anything for them to do. The Junior Prom was going on at the High School that night and hundreds of healthy, normal, sensible boys and girls were having the time of their young lives there, in a healthy, normal, sensible way. Other thousands were at the movies, or at roller skating rinks, or in their own homes or the homes of friends, having terrific fun dancing to recordings or the radio, looking at television, playing games.

It tells a story of too much privilege and too little supervision, discipline and love on the part of the parents. It is far too easy to give the youngsters too much money and the family car and send them on their way just to get them out from under foot. The limiting experience of childhood hasn't given them the preparation necessary for the acceptance of the responsibility thus thrust upon them.

Five half-baked kids with two cases of beer inside them and a car to carry them to Windsor, Pontiac and all way stations, are scarcely conducive to a drop in the automobile accident graph. Having surmounted the perils of today's traffic without either killing or being killed, the last two survivors of this abnormal odyssey were lucky not to have fallen overboard and drowned in Lake St. Clair.

They got by... this time, if one can call it getting by when faced with the probability of being prosecuted as thieves for stealing seven gallons of oil; or facing the likelihood of having a criminal record entered against one's name and being put on probation and having to report to a juvenile court officer at regular periods for a long time.

It is to be hoped the experience will provide a lesson which will be thoroughly absorbed, not only by the youngsters themselves, but by the parents and by all of us whose thinking has been growing flabby.

The Muted Voice

The Pointe's representation on the Wayne County Board of Supervisors, which has trebled in numbers since the Farms, Park and Woods converted into cities, has been considerably muted as far as having any voice in county affairs is concerned.

One of the selling points advanced for killing off the township and conversion to city status, was that each of the Pointe cities would be entitled to representation on the county board and a larger group of Pointers on the county board could obtain advantages for this community. Just the reverse has turned out to be true.

Previous to the recent conversions there were two Pointe representatives on the board, Carl Schweikart for the Township of Grosse Pointe, and Chester Carpenter for the City of Grosse Pointe. Some years ago Mr. Carpenter pioneered the move which resulted in the adoption of a ruling that once every four years the chairmanship of the county board should be held by an out-county or non-Detroit member of the board. The large Detroit representation naturally dominates the board, but the supervisors from the big city saw the justice in giving the chairmanship periodically to some representative from one of the smaller municipalities or townships. This resulted in Mr. Schweikart's being chairman of the

"Its pink and white are everywhere, A ray of sun... and all the slope Laughs with its white and red, It is the Mayflower of our hope; The Spring is come!" (Edward Everett Hale)

Received an amusing letter from the Jim Crowleys, who are now living in Eire until August. They have a housekeeper, (whom the lovely Harriet refers to as a "house-wrecker")... and from what she relates, we take it things are not much different in Ireland than they are here... on the domestic scene. One of Ann's (the housekeeper's) specialties is dreaming every night and acting according to her dreams all day. Recently she dreamed a sister who had been ill, was dead. She was so upset about it that the Crowleys sent her to the distant town to look into the matter. When the maid returned, she said her sister was on the road to recovery... then she added, "But the trip was a success because my brother is at death's door!"

Another anecdote concerning Ann, has to do with a neighbor of the Crowleys, a seventy year old Anglo-Irish lady, whom Ann refers to as "her ladyship above." Hatred for the woman reached its peak last week, when "her ladyship" went off to Buckingham Palace to attend the garden party. On her return from London, the old woman ambled to the Crowleys garden to tell them about it... but they were not at home... so the poor woman had to face Ann alone.

The only thing the Crowleys can get out of the maid is that "she really let her have it." Then she added, "Out of respect for you Madame, I would have told her more!" She was ecstatic all day, re-enacting the battle over and over and mumbling to herself, "Buckingham Palace, eh?"

Ordering things from out of town at Christmas time, can be fun all year round, if you have the right attitude. Ferinstance, last November, we ordered a sport shirt for the man-in-our-life, complete with monogram. The Eastern store "sorrified" that they were unable to fill the order because there wasn't any material on hand... but they would let us know when as and if, etc. etc. We presented the little man with something else and immediately forgot the whole deal.

Today, there arrived in the mail, the sport shirt, complete with monogram! Well, there'll always be a Christmas... and for our future shopping, there'll always be enough stores in Grosse Pointe and its environs.

Another voice out of the past reached us this week, when we heard (we hope for next to the last time) from a shop on the Coast. These characters sent us (last October) a brochure picturing an unusual cigarette case we hadn't seen any place before. We ordered it and sent our check but nothing happened! Before Christmas rolled around, we wrote them twice and wired them once. We were assured that they had indeed shipped the case and possibly it would arrive as late as Christmas day. NOTHING of the ilk occurred, so we wrote again, rather nastily (we hoped). Back came a letter that they were having it traced and would we please fill in the enclosed forms? We would and did... since there was nothing else we could do.

Within a couple of months, we wrote AGAIN, asking how the tracing was going. This time, we didn't even receive an answer, so we started looking up lawyers in the telephone book. The lawyers we found, cost so much more than the cigarette case, we decided to bide our time once more. Nature being what it is, we soon forgot about it until two weeks ago, when clearing out our desk, we came across a copy of the original order.

Once again we sat down and wrote a blinger. This one would have done a Philadelphia lawyer credit. That's when we received the next-to-the-last letter and a funny one it was but we've mislaid it! Anyhow, the little adjuster said he didn't know what was wrong with them, the mail department OR the world... and what's more he was rather tired of hearing from us... so if we'd send our canceled check, they'd return the money. Patience pays. Or does it???

We attended a small summer luncheon the other day and one of the female guests arrived wearing a vaddy smot pink linen frock on which was "seroiled" across the chest in blue linen, "Pourquois Pas?" Madame told us she bought the dress in Paris... and was told by the couturiere (with a twinkle in her eye in the telling) to be "careful" of wearing it in the presence of a Frenchman! Apparently, it means, "Why not?" So far, so good.

A short time later, a local BBM arrived and taking one look at Mi'lady's linen model, he gestured to the inscription and cracked: "What's that... outdoor advertising for an indoor sport?"

ccy board several years ago, and the Pointe then had a considerable voice in county affairs.

During the past year the Pointe has had four more supervisors given seats on the board, bringing the total number to six.

John Kronk of Detroit was chairman of the County Board of Supervisors last year. Under the agreed upon four year plan, Detroit was entitled to the chairmanship again this year. But Mr. Carpenter, who authored the plan, is reported to have teamed up with Frank Martel this year to attempt to unseat Detroit from the leadership. The combination was able to muster only 20 some votes and Mr. Kronk was re-elected by a large majority.

The Pointe has suffered because of the political maneuvering. Not one of the six Pointe supervisors received an appointment to any important committee. With no representation on the committees the Pointers might as well stay away from the meetings. They are completely without influence.

The situation bodes little success for any attempt to get county relief in such matters as the badly needed repaving of East Jefferson avenue, if it is left up to the county board.

Perhaps the local contingent could get some action if all the members got together and called on Leroy Smith, head of the Wayne County Road Commission, and laid the situation in his lap. The Pointe is entitled to some help and it certainly isn't getting it the way things are being handled now.

OUR MISTAKE!

In the advertisement in our May 10 issue announcing the new store of "Young's of Birmingham," the nameplate of Young's Men's Wear, Inc. (Grosse Pointe) was used. This was entirely an error, since there is no connection between the two stores.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

"What a find! Here is a book which I read over and over when I was a child. I'm going to take it home for my youngsters." With a well-worn copy of JUAN AND JUANITA by Francis C. Baylor, an enthusiastic father paused at the library desk... "Do you think they'll like it? With these modern kids, you never can be sure..."

No... You can't be sure. Many oldsters with nostalgic memories are disappointed when junior turns thumbs down on some of their old favorites. On rereading these themselves, they might agree with Junior. Not all books that captured our interest as children have that timeless quality of which the classic is made.

But aside from the recognized children's classics, Alice In Wonderland, Tom Sawyer, Robin Hood, King Arthur et al, there are some books of a generation or two ago that deservedly remain popular today. JUAN AND JUANITA is one of these. Although it was written in 1887, it is the story of two Mexican children who are captured by the Indians and escape across three hundred miles of desert. Based on fact there is a perennial charm about this Robinson Crusoe type of story.

It is not unusual to have a lad read Joseph Altsheuler's Young Trailer Series from beginning to end because he first found a few dog-eared copies of his father's in the family library. Altsheuler enthusiasts will be glad to know that many of these titles, out of print for some time, are again available.

Another author of yesterday who deserves to live is E. Nesbitt. An English writer, her books may need some introduction to American children but if they fail to become acquainted with them, they are missing first-rate fare. The stories for which she is most famous are those of the Bastable children. Published as three books, "The Treasure Seekers," "The Would Be Goods" and "The New Treasure Seekers," these are also bound in one large volume, "The Bastable Children."

Says Christopher Morley: "Every generation of children, I suppose, has its own books, and not many of these carry over from one generation to the next. Still fewer are the books that carry over from one country to another. But one of the pleasures of belonging to the English speaking races is that once in a while American and English children are likely to read one another's books. They do so, if my memory is correct with a delicious sense of strangeness."

Mr. Morley confesses coming upon the Nesbitt books in later life and rereading them with some of the guilty pleasure of the parent who is discovered playing with the electric train and the doll's house on Christmas Eve.

What books written today will give tomorrow's children pleasure? We would top such a list with the eight continuous stories by Laura Ingles Wilder, beginning with the "Little House in the Big Woods" and ending with "These Happy Golden Years." Based on her own early life, Mrs. Wilder gives a vivid picture of homesteading some twenty years ago.

Here is a genuine chronicle of American life and of family life at its best. A desirable feature of this series is that the first book will appeal to the eight or nine-year-old and as the books continue the age appeal increases. Young readers, quick to recognize that the characters are real people, will enjoy growing up with the Wilders. Mrs. Wilder is now over eighty years old and

Check Minor Ailments Now

By Fred M. Kopp, R. Ph.

Serious illnesses as a rule will receive the proper medical attention because the patient demands relief from pain. It is the minor illnesses that go unheeded; yet over a period of time they can do just as much harm to your health.

This is the reason doctors stress the importance of physical examination yearly so minor ailments can be diagnosed and corrected.

No need to wait until you are confined to bed. There are many effective medicines your doctor can prescribe that will check illness before it reaches an advanced and dangerous stage.

The Grosse Pointe News

To The Editor: Would like to drop you a short note to let you know we have been receiving your paper over here in Germany for the past two years. We enjoy it very much because it brings us closer to home. Of course, we don't know very many people you mention in your paper but we do recognize a lot of names. It also keeps us posted on interesting projects being done in the "Pointe."

We are now stationed here in Friedberg, Germany. When we first came to Germany in July of 1949, we were stationed in Husfeld, Germany, about 15 miles from the Russian border. We were located there for 21 months, then transferred to Friedberg, which is about 20 miles from Frankfurt.

One other thing I would like to mention is the fact that my parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Engel, of Balfour road, Grosse Pointe Park, are coming to Europe for a two months stay. During that time, they will visit a lot of the countries and spend some time with us at our home. They are going first to London, then to Germany, arriving here about the first of June.

Hope this will be of some interest to you. Again we enjoy the paper very much.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Judge C. Joseph Belanger disposed of the following cases in the Park Traffic Court session held Wednesday, May 16:

Joan Golusin, of 208 Lenox, paid a fine of $5 and received three-months probation for reckless driving resulting in an accident at Bedford and Windmill Pointe drive on April 29. She will also pay for damages to a Park owned fence.

For a stop street accident at Charlevoix and Balfour on April 26, Paul R. Starkel, of 821 Louisa, Flint, was fined $20. John H. Bailey, of 21535 Kingsville, paid a $25 fine for a stop street accident at Charlevoix and Whittier on April 29.

For turning into moving traffic causing an accident at Kercheval and Whittier on April 29, Leroy D. Anderson, of 19701 McCormick, was fined $5.

As he did not appear in court, David S. Ramsey, of 1325 Bedford, forfeited a $10 bond for stop street violation at Somerset and St. Paul on April 12.

How to Trim Food Budgets

If somebody invented a "budget stretcher" that could pare $5 off the weekly food bill—we'd probably all buy it.

But what many of us forget is that no special tools are needed to do the job, says Mary Bodwell, agricultural economics department food specialist at Michigan State College. The observing homemaker can do it with a pencil, a little planning, and her ability to recognize a bargain.

A family of four—two adults, one small child and one in the teens—might save that much on meats alone, Miss Bodwell says. This family would require about 9 1/2 pounds of meat a week. If they ate meats in the price range of $1 or more a pound, the weekly meat bill would be over $10. By buying cuts priced at 55 cents or less a pound, the outlay would be about $5.

In observing prices ranges at retail counters, Miss Bodwell found stewing veal, pork liver, breast of lamb, short ribs of beef, bulk sausage, pork feet and breast of veal as examples of meat cuts marked less than 55 cents a pound. Naturally, these budget cuts are not recommended for every day in the week. But with a limited household expense budget, you might use any saved dollars to buy something the family would rather have than steaks or ham.

This doesn't mean sacrificing nutrition, Miss Bodwell points out. The lower priced meats are usually as high — sometimes higher—in food value as the expensive cuts. And they can be served in a variety of tempting ways by the wise homemaker.

Meats are likely to find in the low-medium price range, 70 cents a pound or less, include beef liver, hamburger, lamb patties, shoulder roast of lamb, link sausage, pork steak, end pork chops, pork butts, stewing and frying chicken.

Another good place to trim the food budget is at the fruit and vegetable counter. The golden rule here is to pay close attention to what items are in best supply or in season. Prices may change fast from one week to the next.

Head lettuce, rutabagas, turnips, and Michigan grown potatoes and carrots are now among the better buys in fresh produce. Onions and cabbage are now in the higher priced class, as are broccoli, endive, spinach, and early shipments of leaf lettuce.

Citrus fruits are still fairly reasonable in price, but going up as the scarce season approaches. Canned tomato juice is becoming a better vitamin C food buy.

Trucking Concern Triple Violator

The Dachille Trucking Co., of 18945 W. Eight Mile road, was the recipient of three violation tickets issued by Woods police on Tuesday, May 15.

Violations concerned backing a truck over the sidewalk and depositing sand on the walk, which obstruction they neglected to light.

Furthermore, the sand was delivered to the wrong address, causing the builder of a house at 1180 S. Renaud to send home his cement contractor and delay work.

The greatest mistake you can make in this life is to be continually fearing you will make one.—Elbert Hubbard.

Untidy Builder Receives Ticket

After multiple warnings went unheeded, Woods police issued Robert Wiegand, of 19241 Edgefield, Gratiot Township, a ticket for violating the building code, on Wednesday, May 16.

The action was taken because of the dirty condition of curbs and walks in front of 1110 Fairholme.

Mr. Wiegand was further admonished that he would be presented with a ticket every day until the condition was remedied.

JOHN BARRY BITTEN

John Barry, 9, of 308 Fisher Road, was bitten under his right eye on May 18 by a dog owned by Mrs. F. G. Treat of 318 Fisher road.

Pointe Baha'is Join In Annual Celebration

On Wednesday, May 23, the Baha'is of Grosse Pointe (like the Baha'is in over 106 countries of the world), gathered to commemorate the anniversary of the Declaration of the Bab, the Herald of the Baha'i Faith. The commemoration included the historical account of the wise men who were seeking the rebirth of religious truth in this age, and who, on May 23, 1844, discovered the Bab in Shiraz, Iran. To these wise men, the Bab announced that the time had come for the world to unite in lasting peace, and that He had been sent to herald the advent of the Promised One of all ages.

Oriental Gems Among Finest Shrubs

By Vincent DePetris

The end of May is not of course the time to plant shrubs, but at this glorious time of the year the unfolding panorama of spring blossoms will include some rare jewels which should be noted for future planting.

The expert plantsman knows some of the more outstanding and beautiful shrubs. However, the average person is quite unaware of their existence and if perchance these jewels of the spring gardens may be seen they are seldom known by their proper names.

This undoubtedly is one reason why many excellent shrubs are seldom used in our gardens and lawns. It may be true that some of these worthwhile shrubs may not be available locally. Yet if public demand makes itself felt there is no doubt that local plant nurseries will soon have them.

60 Viburnum Species

Let's begin first with the extensive group of shrubs known as the Viburnums. This group of shrubs include more than 60 distinct species, many of which have come from the Orient. Many of the Oriental Viburnums are not widely known in the middle west. Yet they are extremely beautiful and showy when in flower and also when in fruit later in the Fall. Moreover Viburnums are easily grown when planted in moist soils. They will also withstand partial shade, and the foliage of some varieties assumes a beautiful fall coloring.

One of the most charming of the Viburnums is the delightfully fragrant Viburnum Carlesii. This is a small, well-branched shrub growing up to 4 1/2 feet. During the early part of May this shrub produces freely cymes or clusters of delightfully fragrant pinkish white blossoms. In order to obtain a vigorous growing habit Viburnum Carlesii is grafted on a more vigorous understock. When planting the under stock should be planted a couple of inches below the surface of the ground.

Must Be Vigilant

Vigilance must be maintained from year to year for the appearance of rambling shoots originating from this wild under stock which, if allowed to grow unchecked, will in time sap the vitality of the more desirable Viburnum Carlesii. Cutting these wild shoots below the surface of the ground will retain the health and vigor of the true Carlesii species.

A similar Viburnum, equal in fragrance but with slightly less compact cymes of flower clusters, is the Hybrid Viburnum Burkwoodii so named in honor of its originator, Burkwood. This variety is somewhat hardier and taller as well as more vigorous in growth. It is almost identical to Carlesii in the appearance of flowers and their delightful fragrance. It too blooms in early May.

Ranking as one of the most beautiful and spectacular large shrubs which also came to us from the Orient is another of this family, Viburnum tomentosum. It grows up to 10 feet and will withstand full sun or partial shade. During late May and early June its arching branches are covered with showy clusters of pure white flowers which last quite a long time. A double form of this variety Viburnum tomentosum sterile is often referred to as the "Japanese Snowball." Both are very beautiful shrubs, the former being in the writer's estimation, the more handsome of the two.

Still another beautiful viburnum from China is the Viburnum dilatatum, so named because of its dense spreading habit growth. It grows up to 8 or 10 feet and produces freely in June flat white cymes of blossoms about 5 inches across which are followed by shiny scarlet berries lasting well into late Fall and Winter.

Need Rich, Moist Soil

This Viburnum will also do very well in either full sun or partial shade. However like other Oriental species, it needs a rich and moist soil for lasting results.

The Dogwoods are generally well known and deservedly popular because of their long lasting white or pink blossoms freely produced before the leaves appear during the month of May.

However a most beautiful species from the Orient is very seldom seen, and for this reason we mention it here because of its matchless beauty and easy growing habit. This Oriental Dogwood is known as Cornus Kousa. It comes from Japan while a still more beautiful variety of this species coming from China is Cornus Kousa Chinensis. Like the American Dogwoods these Oriental species reach to the dimensions of small trees growing eventually to a height of 20 feet.

The flowers are very similar to the common Dogwoods but somewhat larger. They appear however after the leaves during the month of June and last a very long time. The Oriental Dogwoods are very free flowering making a spectacular display after the American Dogwoods have long finished blooming.

Hardy in This Area

Oriental Dogwoods require a rich moist soil and are hardy as far North as Detroit. If one has a place on the grounds the Oriental Dogwood (Cornus Kousa) should certainly not be overlooked as one of the most desirable and showiest of the flowering shrubs or small trees.

To conclude the list of flowering gems from the Orient we shall describe briefly the Kolkwitzia or Beauty Bush. This shrub like many others was brought to America by the famous plantsman, Ernest H. Wilson.

It was first planted in the Arnold Arboretum in Boston and has slowly made itself popular throughout the middle west.

Kolkwitzia was named after Richard Kolkowitz, professor of botany in Berlin.

Resembles Weigelas

The species amabilis is a very graceful and attractive shrub resembling the common Weigelas. It flowers in June, the graceful arching branches being covered with light pink blossoms. The shrub will grow 8 feet in height and is very hardy, coming to us from Northwestern China. It has a subtle fragrance which seems to come from the young growing shoots more than the blossoms.

Perhaps during the course of the next few weeks you may enjoy the pleasure of seeing some of these Oriental geni while in bloom. If so it is hoped that this article may have been of some assistance in their identification. Coming as they do from China and Japan they are comparatively new and little known to many of us, particularly in the middle West. Yet they possess great beauty and merit, and what is just as important, they are easily grown. Why not note down the names of some which might fit into your planting scheme for the fall planting season?

Elections Held By Garden Club

The annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club was held on Monday, May 21, at the home of Mrs. Herbert B. Trix in E. Jefferson avenue where members participated in their annual spring flower show.

Thirty-five flower arrangements, suitable in color harmony and scale to various tables and mantels in Mrs. Trix's home, were placed throughout the downstairs. On the porch were several table settings, informal in style, with suitable centerpieces, also entered in the contest by club members.

Mrs. George B. Hefferan, Mrs. George E. Villerot, and Mrs. Arthur P. Nauman won first prizes for accumulated high points in the blue, red, and yellow groups respectively.

Following luncheon, a business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. Sherwood Reekie, presiding. It was announced that members will participate in Detroit's 250th Commemorative Flower Festival at the Veterans War Memorial on June 6 and 7, when the Grosse Pointe Garden Club will sponsor the English Room with Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell as chairman. Other members will act as hostesses during a part of the two day festival.

Membership chairman Mrs. Burdette E. Ford read the names of this year's new members, which includes Mesdames William P. Black, Elmer A. Clark, Charles S. Davis, Jr., H. E. McKnight and John Murphy.

Officers elected for the year 1951-52 were: president, Mrs. Sherwood Reekie; vice-president, Mrs. J. Arthur Mullen; recording secretary, Mrs. Mark C. Stevens; assistant recording secretary, Mrs. Merlin A. Cudlip; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Oscar L. Buhr; assistant corresponding secretary, Mrs. Arthur P. Nauman, and treasurer, Mrs. Clarence W. Boydell.

WHEEL RING STOLEN

The chrome wheel ring of an automobile belonging to E. L. Langworthy was purloined sometime between 9 p.m. on Monday, May 14 and 9 a.m. on Tuesday, May 15. The car was parked in front of 711 Berkshire, the L. W. Bohm residence.

BEAT THE SEASON

Six brave youths were sent home by Farms police on Sunday afternoon when they beat the gun on the swimming season and were found thrashing around in the icy waters of Lake St. Clair.

Gardeners Pick New Officers

Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson was chosen president of the Pointe Garden Club for 1951-52 at this season's final meeting Monday in the home of Mrs. Clarence E. McGuire, of Lochmoor boulevard.

Other new board members are Mrs. Philip K. Watson, vice-president; Mrs. Kenneth R. Beardslee, secretary; Mrs. Edwin F. Storey, recording secretary; and Mrs. Robert E. Anslow, treasurer.

Mrs. Byron Phillips, retiring president, announces that the Pointe Garden Club this summer will again present a scholarship to a Grosse Pointe school teacher for attendance at the Conservation School at Higgins Lake.

Other retiring officers of the group are Mrs. C. Stewart Baxter, secretary; Mrs. Kenneth M. McColl, recording secretary; and Mrs. Frederick J. Stevens, treasurer.

SIGN IGNORER TICKETED

KID BITS

By JANE RIPPE

Although the past weekend will be noted for its sensational Junior Prom, the ninth graders were not forgotten. On the contrary, lots of them had loads of fun at the "Niners' Spring Whutzit" at the Memorial Center Saturday.

Some of the kids seen dancing and devouring drum sticks were Joan Friedli, Jane Trupiano, Larry Scoville, John Taylor, Ana Bundesen, Arlene Koebel, Jay Newberry, Sam Manino, Judy Westphal, Ricky Berard, Carolyn Elliott, Joan Sluggitt, Bill King, Granger Brownson, Harold Stefens, Susie Simon and King Paterson.

This year's Junior Prom, "An Underwater Scene," was one of the greatest ever. I can't begin to tell you how many people were there, either can I attempt to tell about all the parties. Margaret Koehler had one of the dinner parties before. Her guests included Diane Retzlaff 'n Dan Webb, Colleen 'n Frank Hagen, Bertie Jacob 'n Dick Phillips, Marylou Stefani 'n Paul Brown, Shirley Giller 'n Bill Osbeck, Bev Riley 'n E. G. Rich, Rosemary Tomicic 'n Robin Hesse, Cleo Bonbright 'n Nels Jensen, Nancy Eriksen 'n Glenn Thompson and Margaret's date, Mac McNair.

Joannie Scherer had another dinner for more prom-goers. Enjoying their pot luck there were Suzie Sharrer 'n Al Mann, Bambi Wigton 'n Jim Leszynski, Joanne Johnson 'n Rip Reynolds, Barb Waldow 'n Jerry Brown, Barb Westcott 'n Bruce Allen, Hat Spalding 'n George Parker (who incidentally were crowned King and Queen of the Prom), Elaine Otto 'n Gary Schroeder, Sandy Goebel 'n Al Meyer, Diane Demrose 'n Dick Carson, Donna Steenrod 'n Bill Rupp, Frannie Crowley 'n Dave Hamilton, Joannie Hollister 'n Leo Kennedy, Joannie Merrill 'n Neil Smith, Diana Nyland 'n Russ Euter, Karen von Reis 'n Skip Obold, Jill Read 'n Linc Godfrey, Annie Purdy 'n Bob Bungee, Carol Kretschmar 'n Herb Abrash, Peggy Fisher 'n Tom Marick, Margaret Ann Joop 'n John McGrath, Joy Chamberlin 'n Jim Reindel, Joan von Rosenberg 'n Rob Barie and Joannie's date, Mike Shane.

At another dinner, Lillian Bundesen was hostess. Some of her satisfied guests were Emily Harding 'n Dick Groening, Alice James 'n Pat Brogan, Carol Fredericks 'n John Tower, Ellee Frizzell 'n Dick Scales, Peggy Lutton 'n Frank Krueger, Janie Joachim 'n Bob Howe, Barb Drinkaus 'n Jim Schoeck, I rgo Knoch 'n Dale Ewart, Pat Javage 'n Vern Athman, Alice Robertson 'n Ralph Cross, Anne Hoover 'n Tom Lamb, Donna Hewitt 'n Dick Saunders, Patti Lee 'n Bert Larkins, Winnie Likert 'n Maral Molyneaux, Marilyn Reich 'n Dan Reed, Loa Zay Sheridan 'n Bob McClain, Janice Gelhaar 'n Wes Spenser, Sally Browne 'n Lyndon Babcock and Lillian was with Jerry Davis.

Carol Lovelace was another one who gave a very much enjoyed dinner. Janet Delaney 'n Jim Kennedy, Jeanette Dial 'n Norm Lasca, Nancy Blair 'n Ted Schlier, Jean Schade 'n Bob Schaller, Kay Catchick 'n Coby Martin, Shirley Ulrich 'n Bill Wilson, Nancy Kaser 'n Bill Dettlinger, Jeannie Rydholm 'n Bud McCullough, Bertie Roberts 'n Gordon Maitland, Joyce Blashill 'n Dick MacKenzie and Conrad Procter will all agree that it was one of the best.

Over at Patsy Barrett's there was still another dinner in progress. Here there were Elaine Kihen 'n Bill Rexford, Laurie Smith 'n Cort Lecklider, Ann Watson 'n Gene Halbrook, Sue Senff 'n Joe Gratzler, Peggy Moreland 'n George McBride, Graechen Becker 'n Tom Lister and Hank Hubbard.

There were lots and lots more parties before and after including those had by Barb Drinkaus, Winnie Likert, Janet Miles, Bev Riley, Bambi Wigton, Peggy Moreland, Joan Parker, Bill Osband and Janet Kopp and everywhere everyone had loads of fun.

On Sunday, Judy Rice and Nancy Hoesch had a graduation tea that was a wonderful way to wind up the weekend. A few of those we saw enjoying the simply scrumptious punch and sandwiches that were out of this world were Marcia Bothe, Anne Busby, Sally Horn, Mary Carey, Janet Lowry, Lois Auchmuty, Mary Ann Gibson, Margy Foote, Kay Lipscomb, Ellen Vandenburg, Christa Mueller, Ruth Roth, Barb Reed, Crystal Gregory, and many more.

Reindel Shatters Regional Record in 100-Yard Dash

Pointers Take Second in Meet, Trailing Monroe but Beating Out Highland Park, Wyandotte, Fordson and Royal Oak

By Fred Runnells

Grosse Pointe's "fastest human," Jim Reindel, commanded the spotlight last Saturday, May 19, when he smashed the Regional and Border Cities League 100 yard dash mark to lead the Blue Devils to second place.

Reindel zipped over the century distance in a blazing 9.9 seconds to crack the old mark of ten seconds flat formerly held by Ira Hughes of Monroe, (1936), and Bill Baxter of Fordson, (1949).

New School Mark Too

Reindel's record establishes a new Grosse Pointe record but failed to erase the school track mark, which he holds at 10.1, because it wasn't set on the local track.

Reindel also captured points in the 180 low hurdles finishing second and going the distance in 20.2 which was four tenths of a second slower than the pace set by Tom Yinger of Monroe.

Allen Billups was the only other Blue Devil to place in two events. He finished in a three-way tie for fifth place in the pole vault event and took a fifth in the 120 yard high hurdles.

Gray Wins Quarter

Ralph Gray was the only other Pointer to carry off top honors finishing first in the 440. Teammate Bill McCaffrey finished third.

The Devil's other point getters included Ben Bray who finished third in the 220 and he was followed across the line by Ray Raetzl for a fourth place. Raetzl also teamed with Bach, Cross and Lister in the medley relay event for a fourth place.

Bob Schaller and Dan Webb finished third and fourth respectively in the half mile run for the Devils' last points in the track events.

Spend Your Vacation at Seelow's Pine View Cottages

on the beautiful shores of West Twin Lake Lewiston, Mich. Two bedrooms, innerspring mattress, living room, kitchen, toilet, shower, lavatory, hot and cold water, oil heat, refrigerator, gas for cooking, boat with cottage, excellent fishing, sandy beach, bathing, other recreation. Available by May 27, 1951, for week or longer periods. For further particulars, call or write SEELOW'S 721 Hampton Rd., Grosse Pointe Woods, 30, Mich. Tel. TR. 1-8688 or TU. 1-8610.

Husky Martin Allard became the first Grosse Pointer to toss the shot 48 feet, six inches, to win the shot put event and set a new school record. This was the Devils' only first in the field events.

Monroe walked off with the title with an aggregate score of 54 and five-sixths points. Blue Devils garnered 37 and one-third points and were followed by Highland Park with 36 points, Wyandotte 32 1/2, Fordson 28 and one third, and Royal Oak brought up the rear with 10 points.

Eyes State Mark

Reindel's record breaking performance makes him the top local boy in the coming State meet to be held at East Lansing next Saturday, May 26. Jim's goal in the State meet is the state record in the century dash, which is 9.8, jointly held by Hester of Detroit Northern and Eddie Tolan of Cass Technical High School. Hester set the mark way back in 1924 and Tolan tied it in 1927.

Don't start thinking Jim has a chance to break the inter-scholastic mark because it is far beyond his reach. It stands at 9.4.

Taking Reserve Training At Great Lakes Center

Two Grosse Pointe seaman recruits, Richard S. Den Uyl, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. Simon D. Den Uyl, of 85 Touraine, and James J. Crowe, USNR, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Crowe of 129 Merrivweather, are undergoing a two-week Reserve training period at the U. S. Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. The training course, which is scheduled to terminate May 19, is a condensed form of the indoctrination given regular Navy recruits, designed to instill the new Naval Reservist with a broader basic knowledge of Naval life.

Three Devils Make State Tennis Finals

Hamtramck Aces Prove Too Tough for Pointers, Who Get Second in Regionals

Grosse Pointe High School qualified three boys for the State Tennis Finals in Kalamazoo on June 1-2, which is more than they have been able to do for the past three years, but couldn't get by the top three Hamtramck boys with the result that they placed second in the State Regionals at Hamtramck last Friday and Saturday.

It was the same old story all over again. The Pointers had plenty of depth and piled up points in the early rounds of the tournament but couldn't win one of the finals.

The final point score was: Hamtramck, 934, Grosse Pointe 834, Mt. Clemens 374, and Highland Park, 34 of a point.

Dick MacKenzie stroked his way through to the finals in easy fashion and then bumped up against the Class A State Singles Champion, Dick Potter, and found the going too tough and lost, 6-3, 6-1.

Bruce Allen and Pat Brogan had an easy time of it going through to the finals also, and then bumped up against the State Class A Doubles Champions of Jerry Parchute and John Zoska, who defeated them, 6-1, 6-1.

Jack Brabb Wins Two John Brabb came through for the Pointers, winning two singles matches, one against the No. 1 man from Highland Park and the other from the No. 2 singles of Hamtramck.

Courtney Lecklider found the going too tough and dropped a long singles battle with Tom Johnson of Mt. Clemens, 6-8, 6-4, 7-5. Had Cort won this nip and tuck battle Grosse Pointe would have shared the title.

Tom Lamb and Dave Terris also won one doubles match along with Bob Hardies and Mike Bem before losing out.

FRIGHTENING PROSPECT

An average of more than 20 persons will be killed on Michigan highways each week-end between Memorial Day and Labor Day if the present upward trend in traffic fatalities continue, according to State Police Commissioner Donald S. Leonard.

Blue Devil Cindermen Pull Surprise in Fordson Meet

By Fred Runnells Scoring firsts in nine of 13 events Coach Frank Banach's cindermen sprang the surprise of the Border Cities League track season by upsetting a highly favored Fordson 61 to 48 in the final league meet of the season at Fordson on May 17.

The victory gave the Pointers a surprising two-way tie for second place with Fordson who had figured to knock off the local lads and tie Monroe for the BCL title.

This gave the Devils an overall season record of four wins and two losses and a league record of three wins and two defeats. The non-league victory came at the expense of Hazel Park, 79 1/2 to 29 1/2.

Once again Jim Reindel was the Pointers' big gun, scoring firsts in the 100-yard dash, 180-yard low hurdles and anchoring the half-mile relay team behind Gray, Cross and Bray.

Reindel was the only double winner of the meet.

The three-quarter-mile relay team of Brock, Raetzl, Cross and Lister took top honors.

Kammer Keglers Capture Honors in Ladies Pin Loop

By Fred Runnells Well, it's finally over — The Kammer Beauty Salon quintet won the St. Paul Ladies Bowling title with a smashing 3 point final night victory over the Grosse Pointe Radio Service team, to give the beauticians a one point margin in the final standings.

Second place Grosse Pointe Review and third place Grosse Pointe Woods Recreation had a titanic struggle for second place, with the Review squad chalking up a three pointer for the second place honors.

The defeat pushed the Woods Recreation team down to third place four points behind the champions. Early in the season it appeared the Woods team would win the title hands down and at one time it had as much as a ten point lead, but it faltered in the home stretch.

The high single game for the night was captured by A. Taube with a 186 game and V. Rightenburt took the high three game total with 480 pins. For the season M. Roland was the top bowler with a 150 average.

Wyandotte Evens Score On Diamond

Turnabout was fair play as Grosse Pointe lost a heart-breaking baseball game to a once conquered Wyandotte nine, 3-2, on the Bear's home diamond Thursday, May 17.

Wyandotte won much the same as the Blue Devils had done a few days earlier, by pushing the winning run over in the final inning.

Bobble Is Costly With the score tied at two all, first batter Imlay, Wyandotte's shortstop, reached first when third sacker Lee Clancy bobbled a slow ground ball.

Richards then singled over shortstop Willie Winkler's head. Left Fielder Coby Martin fell down and kicked the ball around enough to allow Imlay to score all the way from first.

Lou Hribar, who pitched all the way for the local boys, allowed only five scattered hits.

Steal Two Bases

Grosse Pointe scored both of its runs in the third when, while playing heads-up baseball, he stole two bases. After first baseman Jack Smith, who later collected two of the Blue Devils' six hits, struck out and pitcher Hribar grounded out, third baseman Lee Clancy walked. He promptly stole second and moved to third on a wild pitch. When Center Fielder Diccico singled, Lee scored with ease. With Willie Winkler at bat Diccico stole second, and when Willie came through with a single John scored to put Grosse Pointe out in front 2-0.

Errors Tie Up Score Wyandotte tied it up, however, in its half of the same inning when the Blue Devils' defense crumbled and they made four errors.

Dale Ferris was the winning pitcher for Wyandotte, while Lou Hribar was the loser for Grosse Pointe.

Gordon Maitland took the mile run and Schaller continued unbeaten in the 880.

In the field events the Pointers walked off with honors in three of the four events. Martin Allard again won the shot-put, Billups took the pole vault and Ben Bray captured the broad jump after finishing second in the high jump.

Fordson's winners were Guido in the 120 high hurdles, Kruthers in the 440, Craig in the 220 and Black in the high jump.

For what looked like the start of a disastrous season for the "Best Grosse Pointe track team since 1946" the local speedsters showed they had the stuff that champions are made of by coming back and salvaging three important league victories.

Special taxes paid by motor vehicle owners climbed to an all-time peak of over four billion dollars in 1950, Automobile Club of Michigan reports. With federal excise taxes piling the parade at over a billion and a half, traffic experts point out that highway programs are falling far behind, congestion is growing, parking problems remain unsolved, and the traffic death toll is taking more than 30,000 lives annually.

time Mrs. Alan P. Beebe, in the best looking navy linen frock—took our tickets at the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Scott Barbour on Lake Shore . . .

(The baby looked fresh as a daisy, too) . . . Mrs. Barbour sitting on the terrace of her home was being helpful to garden club members who had dozens of questions . . .

She was stunning in a white frock printed in scarlet scroll design and a large natural straw garden hat, brim of which held huge strawberries fashioned of deep red feathers.

For unbelievable distances the Barbour walled gardens unwind . . . there is a country brook bordered in wild flowers . . . more primroses than we dreamed existed . . . and a snowy scattering of white double arabus frosting another large garden of Spring blooms . . .

Garden pools . . . rhododendrons . . . azaleas . . . add further charm . . . and in the courtyard at the side of the great house, a fountain is backgrounded in stone and from the mouth of the most mischevous looking old man . . . water gurgles to earth . . .

Dodge Gardens

Mrs. Hunter Williams . . . Mrs. John W. Detwiler . . . and Mrs. William F. Connolly, Jr., were counting tickets like members of the treasury department at the entrance of Mrs. Horace E. Dodge's "Lake Terrace" and reported business thriving . . . all of which added to the funds of Detroit Garden Center permitting it to carry on the invaluable service it renders all gardeners . . . (Two hundred and fifty-five pilgrims had passed through the Dodge gates ere this weary one raced in) . . .

There are days when we might envy Mrs. Dodge the long approach to her lakeside chateau . . . but dogged to make the gardens one could only note the distance to Tipperary is comparatively negligible . . .

Well worth the cross-country sprint, however, was the pastel fairyland that is the garden . . . and there couldn't grow a more stunning flowering crab tree than that which blossoms there . . .

Many ladies were interested in how yachts grow, too . . . and took long, studied looks at the stately Delphine riding at anchor in the lake . . .

Mrs. W. Colburn Standish, Jr. . . . and Mrs. George M. Black, Jr. . . . presided with their customary graciousness at the Dodge gardens . . . and the baby wheeled up just as we wheeled out . . .

Out of the Mouths . . .

The cheering cup of tea at Mrs. Fred T. Murphy's terrace porch overlooking the lake . . . marked the final garden of the Pilgrimage (we haven't described the War Memorial Gardens because they are loved and familiar and always open to all Pointers) . . .

Gazing over the rolling emerald lawns out to the blue lake . . . while white wistaria perfumed the atmosphere . . . and vivid flowers bloomed 'round a garden pool . . . pilgrims sipped tea . . . with the hostess, in navy costume, loving every minute of the changing scene . . .

Here we saw returned world traveler Mrs. George M. Slocum, looking wonderful, with Mrs. Heinrich Pickert . . . Mrs. John S. Goodman, whose smart print suit was topped with tiny white flower chapeau . . . Mrs. Jerome H. Remick, Jr., in smartly tailored navy frock trimmed in white (the ticket 1-a-d-y) . . . Mrs. Henry Munroe Campbell . . . and the baby who lifted her cup of tea, now that sharing the go-cart was out of the question . . . said (at least it came from her direction) . . . "those over there are Geranum Elatus, turn fiery red, you know" . . .

WANTED: REALISM IN RELIGION

"If my minister knew what I actually believe, his toes would curl up!" said a lady. Her minister confided to a colleague that he dared not tell his people what he really believed!

Both wanted realism in religion but both feared to ask for it. Both would feel at home in UNITARIAN CHURCHES, where religion finds expression in modern, naturalistic terms. Perhaps this is the kind of church home YOU have been looking for.

GETHSEMANE MAUSOLEUM
THE WINTER IS OVER

That means construction of this fine building is again proceeding. Some of the footings are in. 200 piles have been driven. The balance of the foundations will now be completed.

Steel is on the job, some of the bronze has arrived, other critical materials have been contracted for.

This form of entombment is very popular in the west and will become more popular in Detroit when it becomes known that entombment need not cost more than earth burial.

ENTOMBMENT IN THE DRY CLEAN AIR OF SUCH A BEAUTIFUL BUILDING IS MUCH MORE COMFORTING.

We also have a large variety of lots to choose from.

Space in beautiful GETHSEMANE MAUSOLEUM for you and your family can be had at prices and terms that will amaze you, with no interest, no carrying charges, no taxes. When the MAUSOLEUM will be completed these prices will of course be much higher.

THE BOOK MENTIONED BELOW CONTAINS A LARGE COLOR PICTURE OF THE MAUSOLEUM, AS WELL AS INTERIOR VIEWS; ALSO DIFFERENT CRYPT ARRANGEMENTS.

St. Pauloscope

By Audrey Haley

Last Sunday, being a beautiful day, many of the members of the Senior class decided to take advantage of this warm spring weather and packed baskets of food for a wonderful picnic.

The picnic was a wonderful success and complete in every way even to the traditional ants.

Catching up now on a little news that took place earlier in May, let me tell you about the dinner party Barbara Clark gave for her fellow Seniors several weeks ago.

Barbara's guests, including Patricia Yott, Jerry Froehlich, Raoul Fett, Larry Hollerbach, Catherine West, Hans von Bernholt, Joann Rabaut, Theresa Lyford, Mary Lou Fisher, Thomas Palmer, Dick Gallagher, James Keller, Dennis Furton, Duane Streb, Jerry Kirsch, Kathleen Weot, Rita Blondell, Joann Piche and many more were delighted with the beautiful recreation room decorated in the Senior class colors of gold and white and the delicious dinner of ham, potato salad, cake, coke and other wonderful refreshments.

Did "you" all know that James Keller and Al Susalla won two prizes in the Propeller Club contest? Two in one class—that's right! Congratulations, boys!

Final exams are coming up for the Seniors this week, which will keep this active class rather subdued with the task of cramming for these all important tests, but following this ordeal they will no doubt be all set for more and more fun and parties.

GIRLIE IN THE TREE TOP . . . Young DIANA MAIUL I.O. . . fell out of the tree house out there at Convent of the Sacred Heart last week . . . but now that pretty little knee is mending, (after four stitches).

OUT TO LAUNCH SET: THE STARK HICKEYS are impatient as anything waiting for their new 54-foot dream cruiser to slip into the water . . . it'll be moored at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Can't imagine a sweeter neighbor than the one in Grosse Pointe Park who telephoned the ledgy next door trilling, "Mrs. Button, it's Spring you know."

Mrs. Button was a little breathless because in her five years of residence on the street the neighbor had never before deigned to call.

"Oh, yes," purred Mrs. Button. "Well, stop throwing your dog's bones over the fence then," said the Sweet One, and hung up.

Ah, Grosse Pointe, where the poodles use lorgnettes.

A saucer eyed little boy went up to MRS. J. REX QUEENEY at the recent May party and bowed before her. "I'd like to dance with you," said the six-year-old.

"I'm flattered to death!" smiled Mrs. Q, promptly getting up to waltz.

"I asked you to dance," said the little mawster, "because I like your dress."

(Not bad . . . it was a Dior.)

They danced in silence a moment or two.

He then flatly stated: "When I've danced 10 steps with a girl I like to change partners."

They did.

PILFERINGS

One complaint made by a recent foreign visitor was that so few of our restaurants normally serve half portions to children. Others complain that too many try serving them to adults.

CHOOSING A CHOCOLATE

The chocolate coat of candy holds
No hint of what its form entails;
I yearn for fondant mocha but
Become involved with coconut
Or count on cherry cream and lo,
My tongue explores pistachio,
Or, plagued by haunting doubt, I judge
A nut to be a fig or fudge.
Then, tracking down an almond paste,
I find the thing, but find my taste
Has shifted now to ginger blend
The search for which may never end.
With stoic smile to mask my pain
I bravely try and try again.
Florence Pedigo Jansson.

The teacher asked, "What can you tell me about television?"

And the little boy with freckles replied, "Well, if you start an electrical saw in the basement, the company goes home without waiting for lunch."

According to the London Weekly, the following are rules of a Soviet writer:

- 1—Don't think.
- 2—if you have to think, don't talk.
- 3—if you have to talk, don't write it down.
- 4—if you have to write it down, don't publish it.
- 5—if you have to publish it, don't sign it.
- 6—if you have to sign it, write a denial.

"And there we sat holding hands. It was awful, really." "Awful? Why?" "She was sitting three rows behind."

Pointer of Interest

MARY JO OLP OF HARVARD ROAD

—Picture by Fred Runnels

About a year ago the door bell rang at 1133 Harvard road.

Two young men waited for an answer. "Two of the best looking young men I've ever seen in my life," confides Mrs. M. Robert Olp who opened her door.

"Is Miss Mary Jo Olp at home," was the first question. The mother's voice trembled just a little.

"Why, Mary Jo isn't even nine years old!" she exclaimed protectively.

"Oh, we know it," they hastened to assure the heroine's mother, "You see, Arthur Godfrey sent us."

MR. GODFREY WRITES And that's the way things happen all the time—wherever Pointer of Interest Mary Jo Olp happens to be. She's a pretty brown-eyed blond.

If her parents are slightly floored every now and again, Mary Jo herself can take any of these incidents with the poise of a dowager duchess.

Take the two young men, Arthur Godfrey DID send them out to see Mary Jo because she had written him a wonderful letter. It was a long, chatty one—the kind you receive from a close relative or a friend of many years.

It concluded with, "From time to time my parents and I come to New York and it is my dearest wish to see one of your broadcasts. I try to see them all here at home. We'd just love three tickets."

The young men brought Scout Honor promise from Mr. Godfrey that the tickets would be Mary Jo's anytime she wrote him and said she'd be in New York. He sealed the bargain by sending along a gift with his messenger.

It was a history of the American Tobacco Company which Mary Jo probably read before bed that night.

AMERICA'S SWEETHEART Just this past Christmastime, the Olps took a cruise to Nassau and it was Mary Jo who discovered Clarke Gable on the passenger list and then discovered Clark Gable in the flesh. In nothing flat, she was being photographed with him on shipboard and they were staunch friends.

We saw a snapshot of the cruise friends and it is Miss Olp who has the camera presence—natural as you please.

Her fascination with fame came when she was a tiny miss. The late Wendell Willkie was running for president on the Republican ticket and the little girl associated the candidate with his party's symbol. So intense was this association that, watching a circus parade, she exclaimed as the elephant went by, "Mr. Willkie!"

Mr. Willkie and Mr. Olp belonged to the same fraternity and the story got back to Willkie, who wrote the little girl a charming letter.

LITTLE HOUSEKEEPER A couple of years ago this precocious one beat the emcees to it when she insisted she couldn't hold her head up unless daddy would put a television aerial atop her playhouse in back of the Olp residence.

She didn't mind the absence of a television set in her playhouse but womanlike worried about what the neighbors would think.

The aerial went up and is there today as Mary Jo prepares for Summer fun in the playhouse.

Her birthday parties always center there. This year her 5A classmates at Maire School will celebrate at a hamburger roast with her on June 11 (although her birthday's really on the twentieth. Just the little girls will be present since that is much more serene than when the young men were there calling from all over. "Look, I'm on the roof. No hands!")

BIRTHDAY GIRL There are chairs and table, stove and cupboards with glass and china in the playhouse and the mistress is looking for some snappy wallpaper to change the decor this year.

Mary Jo is a Pointer of Interest because she is one of the youngest collectors we've been able to discover. She joins her mother "anteking" and has rounded up a marvelous set of miniature Toby jugs. In addition to it there are the dolls, and her favorite is one who wears a wig fashioned of her own mother's dark, shiny locks.

Her collection of Royal Daulton figures includes statues for all the "Days of the Week."

Mary Jo is a Girl Scout and as part of that activity is taking lessons in ceramics. She has made really darling ashtrays, starting with the little ball of clay and following through until the colors are fired permanently into the shiny finished product. Naturally these are the most precious ashtrays in the Olp home.

VERSATILE When her mom does her millinery work, Mary Jo is at her side designing head gear for her dolls. She tacks feathers and flowers and ribbons on the cutest dolls hats in town.

Like all good little girls, Mary Jo has certain household tasks she performs each day with pride. She can make beds with a flourish and dusts as carefully as an adult. She is a graceful pupil of Miss Annie Ward Foster.

Summers you'll always find her keeping house in the playhouse at the Pointe for it's at Christmas the Olps take their trips, each year greeting St. Nick in some new spot.

This past week Mary Jo and her parents got back from a whirlwind week-end in New York. It was a combination Mother's Day for Mrs. Olp and Birthday present to Mary Jo trip.

Bet Arthur Godfrey was surprised!
