Freighter Runs Aground in Clay on Edge of Channel; May Be Freed Today

An SOS sparked through the ozone from the 585-foot freighter "Norman B. Ream" as she ran afoul of the edge of the ship channel near Buoy No. 7 off of Grosse Pointe early last Monday morning, August 20.

The huge ore boat was in no immediate danger as she pushed her starboard bow into the blue clay and rocks of the channel bank. Soundings of her forward bulkheads showed she was not taking on water.

Carried 11,600 Tons The "Ream" was down bound with a 11,600 ton load of iron ore, which is holding her fast. Early efforts to back her off the bank under her own power and later with tugs proved unsuccessful and the Pittsburgh Steamship Company, owner, prepared to wait until another self-loading ship could be sent to lighten her load.

The "G Post", a self-loader with 180 degree cranes owned by the Columbia Transportation Company, has been dispatched to the scene and was expected to arrive today.

Hold Premature Housewarming

The teen-ager who told Farms police on Thursday, August 16, that he was showing his companions through a vacant house on Radnor circle because his parents planned to buy it, was also serving refreshments police said.

Police were investigating the vacant house on the report of a neighbor who saw activity in the house.

While talking to the boys, police found a case of beer containing seven full bottles. The boys had been consuming the beer, police said.

Police confiscated the full bottles. All concerned were minors.

Ignored Stop Sign Trips Up Four Car Accessory Thieves

Four teen-age boys from East Detroit who made the mistake of running a stop sign at Renaud and Lake Shore roads on the night of August 19, were picked up by the police. In the back of their car was plenty of evidence that they had been stealing accessories from automobiles.

Shores officers Zeeb and Gysel halted the youngsters after they saw them ignore the stop sign.

The youths admitted that fender skirts and ornaments which they had in their possession were stolen from a car parked in front of the William Roney residence at 44 Provencal road.

Kids to Compete in Fishing Rodeo at Farms Municipal Pier on Saturday Morning

Three Pointes Sponsoring Event With Assistance of Lions and Metropolitan Clubs, Legion, VFW, Police and Firemen

The finals of the Pointe's big Fishing Rodeo will be held at the Farms Municipal Pier this Saturday, August 25, from 8 to 10 a.m. The youngsters will be competing for local, state and national honors.

Six major prizes, consisting of rods, reels and lures, will be awarded the winners by Better Fishing Incorporated, through the Fishing Manufacturers' Association. There will also be a prize for each contestant.

Will Supply Bait

Bait will be supplied by the Grosse Pointe City Police and Fire Association. Immediately after the rodeo the contestants will be treated to free hot dogs, pop and ice cream sticks at the Farms pier. Following the warm-up contest several weeks ago the hot dogs went so fast the committee has ordered an extra supply for this week's final.

The rodeo has been made possible through donations by the City of Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Farms and Grosse Pointe Park. The Lions Club and the Metropolitan Club gave financial assistance and their membership has helped organize and run the event.

They Also Helped

Also participating have been Post 303 of the American Legion and its Auxiliary, the Alger Post VFW Ladies Auxiliary and the police departments of the three municipalities.

Many committee men volunteered their services and have worked hard to make the event a success. Some 84 youngsters, both boys and girls, took part in the warmup contest. All are expected to be on hand Saturday morning for the finals of the rodeo.

Rules Announced

The following rules and instructions have been issued by the committee:

1. All contestants must report to their own Park at 7:30 a.m. on August 25 and they will be transported to the Farms Municipal Pier.
2. Youngsters under 10 years of age must be accompanied by an adult.

3. Each contestant furnishes his own equipment and bait. Tackle and bait used is restricted to single hook.
4. Each winner must hook and land his own prize-winning fish without physical assistance from an adult.
5. One prize only to any one person.
6. Contestants must be registered and must wear fish emblem to participate.

Flat Tire Minor Part Of Trouble

Driver Who Abandoned Car in Middle of Jefferson Spends Night in Jail

Arraigned before Judge C. Joseph Belanger Monday, August 20, on a disorderly conduct charge, Edward McPherson, 32, of 1666 Defer place, was fined $35.

McPherson at first refused to admit ownership of the 1935 Ford which Park firemen and police found abandoned 15 feet from the north Jefferson curb between Yorkshire and Kensington, facing west on August 19.

Was Obstructing Traffic

The fire department and police found the car when responding to an anonymous phone call. The car, which was obstructing traffic, was found with a hot, steaming motor and a flat left front tire. It was apparent it had been driven for some distance in that condition.

Investigation of the occupants of a cab stopped near the deserted car, revealed the owner and a woman companion. Although McPherson was hesitant to admit the Ford was his, he finally confessed.

Had Been Drinking

The taxicab driver told police he had been flagged down by the man and girl, standing next to the Ford. McPherson had been drinking; his companion had not, police said.

The girl told police she tried to persuade McPherson to stop the car when the tire became flat, but he continued until the motor became hot. Police released her.

McPherson, who had no registration for the car, produced a pencil written bill of sale. A check revealed he was in proper possession of the car, having purchased it five days prior.

Locked Up in Cell

Police escorted McPherson to the station and held him for the court session Monday. He was searched before he was placed in the cell. However, a few minutes after the incarceration, he broke a pane of glass on the west side of the cell block while attempting to pick the lock on the cell block door.

Police confiscated the two coins he had managed to secure and secured him in an inner cell. The car, impounded by police, will be released when McPherson makes restitution on the towing charge.

Songsters Asked To Tone Down

A Lincoln road resident lodged a nuisance complaint against employes of the Monday Cleaners plant at 375 Fisher on Thursday, August 16.

The complainant stated that employes sing from their arrival at 6 a.m. until their dismissal in the afternoon.

Police notified the plant manager of the complaint. He promised to take steps to alleviate the condition.

Park Manager Lane Presents Report on Operations of City

Fiscal Year and Interim Period Show Growth and Activity; Period Closes With Surplus of $80,910

The City of Grosse Pointe Park has reduced its net bonded indebtedness by $136,000 during the fiscal year, April 1, 1950 to March 31, 1951, according to an annual report of municipal operations submitted to the Park council by City Manager Everitt B. Lane.

All municipal departments operated over the fiscal year and interim period within their budget estimates and the period closed with a surplus of $80,910.

During the interim period from April 1 to June 30, 1951, occasioned by the change in fiscal year effective with the new city charter, operations were financed by available reserves at no cost to the taxpayer.

Investments in U. S. Government Bonds increased $204,600 over the previous fiscal year, the report stated. Earnings from short-term investments were tabulated at $6,692.

Crime Is Reduced A 28 per cent reduction in major crime was noted during the period covered by the report. While misdemeanors and complaints showed a reduction of 30 per cent, fugitive and investigation arrests (including juvenile arrests) increased from five to 25 per cent.

Traffic violations for the fiscal year were lowered. Three fatal automobile accidents were recorded. According to the report, patrol cars travelled 261,291 miles and 1916 radio calls were received. Police kept a watch on 1135 residences.

$35,952 in Fines

Receipts of $35,952.65 were reported by the Violation Bureau. Stolen property valued at $49,289.97 was recovered, the report stated, a considerable increase over 1949.

A citation was presented to the Police Department by the AAA for its record of no pedestrian traffic deaths during 1950. Mention was also made in the report of the 151 parking meters being installed in the business areas.

592 Court Cases

The Municipal Court, established under the new charter, processed 592 local court cases, five state cases, and 3,718 traffic violations were handled by the Court and the Violation Bureau.

Firemen Kept Busy

The Fire Department answered 248 alarms and 82 structures were attacked by fire, 71 residences, 10 mercantile buildings, and one school. Other calls concerning overheated furnaces, careless smoking, defective wiring, emergencies, etc., were responded to by the Fire Department, the report states. One arson case was reported.

Representative Sans Portfolio

Leslie O. Fonkalsrud, field representative of a Detroit insurance company, was almost a representative without portfolio.

Woods police driving a scout car down Mack near Kenmore on Friday, August 17, were attracted by numerous papers littering the street. A check revealed an open brief case.

A business card found in the brief case identified Mr. Fonkalsrud as the owner.

He said he had placed the brief case on top of his car while he struggled with a stubborn car lock. Having won a victory over the lock, he completely forgot the brief case and drove off.

Must Take a Jungle Jim To Master a Jungle Gym

Pat Marley, 8, of 2086 1/2 Ridgemoor, was released from Saratoga General Hospital on Sunday, August 19. She was admitted to the hospital on July 30.

George Cope, 16, of 2238 Ridgemoor, and Dale Edert, of 777 Hampton, who were playing ball at the club when Pat fell from the jungle-gym, drove her to the police station.

Contract Let For Paving Of Jefferson

New Surface Will Be Applied To Main Thoroughfare In Park and City

The Cooke Contracting Company will begin work on the repair and resurfacing of East Jefferson avenue in the Park and City as soon as prior commitments permit, it was stated.

The Cooke Contracting Company submitted the lowest bid and was awarded the contract by the Wayne County Road Commission on Thursday, August 16. The Commission opened bidding on Tuesday, August 14.

To Cost $84,486 The contract granted at $84,486.10 provides for conditioning the street and repairing faulty curbing before applying the binder coat and asphaltic concrete topping. The drainage castings will be adjusted to conform with the new street level.

Each municipality is to pay one-third of the cost of the completed project. It is reported the Park's share will approximate $22,000. The clerk and mayor executed the agreement with the Wayne County Road Commission contingent on a provision stating that the Park's share of the total contract, including 20 per cent overhead, not exceed $30,000.

City Makes Setback

The City signed an agreement with the road commission on August 6. Under the terms of this agreement, the City is to establish a 10-foot setback line along each side of East Jefferson to assure compliance with the 120-foot right of way width established for this thoroughfare under the highway master plan. This is to be completed within six months of the date of the agreement.

The Park already has a 120-foot right of way. In the Park the repair and resurfacing will affect East Jefferson from Somerset road to the center line of Cadieux road. East Jefferson between Cadieux and Fisher will be resurfaced in the City.

Will Race Weather

Work is to be completed by the latter part of October. It is of paramount importance that this project be completed before the advent of cold weather, as a frost would be harmful to pavement not allowed to set.

Officer Backman Has New Daughter

A box of cigars in the Farms police station attest to the fact that Patrolman Ignatius Backman is the father of a new daughter.

Karen Alice was born Thursday, August 16. The Backmans have one other child.

The Backmans live in Brys drive.

First Classes Will be Held September 6

Some Pupils to Attend Only Half-Day Sessions Until Buildings are Finished

According to an announcement from James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools, all public schools in Grosse Pointe will open the new school year for pupils on Thursday morning, September 6. This will be a regular school day and all pupils with the following exceptions will attend school a full day.

All Kindergarten through Six at Monteth will attend only one-half day. The half-day sessions for pupils in Grade One at Poupard and for pupils in Grade One to Six at Monteth is temporary, and it is hoped they will be able to be on a full day basis within four to six weeks.

Will Be Notified Parents of all pupils who were enrolled in public schools last year and who will enroll in Grade One through Six at Monteth will be notified by letter prior to the opening of school which half-day their children will attend.

Parents of children who were not enrolled in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools last year are strongly urged to enroll such children between the hours of 1 and 4 during the week of August 27 to 31. All school offices will be open during these hours for this purpose. At this time, assignment will be made of the half-day which children will attend in Kindergarten and the other grades where there will be half-day sessions.

New Pupils Should Enroll School officials pointed out that it is especially desirable for all pupils enrolling for the first time at the Junior and Senior High School levels to take advantage of this early enrollment period. For pupils at these levels, enrollment will be greatly facilitated if official transcripts of credit covering work completed in other schools are sent to the proper school office prior to the time of enrollment.

Transcripts of credit are not necessary for new elementary pupils, but parents for elementary children should bring with them written evidence, such as a report card, of the child's proper grade placement. Lack of such evidence will seriously interfere with efficient and prompt enrollment of new pupils. Parents of new enrollees at all levels are urged to bring with them birth certificates as an essential record in the enrollment of their children.

Advice - Physical Exam The local school and health officials also urge parents to have their children given a careful physical examination prior to the opening of school. This is particularly desirable for all new pupils or for pupils who have had any serious illness during the summer. All schools as well as the Board of Education Offices will be glad to supply parents with a form on which the findings of such physical examinations may be recorded.

319 Permits Issued

A post-war record was set with the issuance of 319 building permits in 1950-51. Of permits issued, 165 were for single residences, 7 commercial building, 40 repairs and additions, 61 minor buildings, 45 two-family dwellings and one church rectory. The report places the total building value at $5,441,250, as compared with $2,224,000 in 1949.

Forty miles of street surface were maintained by the Department of Public Works, which completed 1.1 miles of resurfacing, and replaced 1.3 miles of curb and 8 miles of sidewalks. The department cleared 1,560 miles of streets and sidewalks of snow, according to the report.

Less Garbage, More Rubbish

While less garbage was disposed of than the previous year, more rubbish was removed. Modernized street lighting was installed on Mack and Jefferson avenues, totalling 131-15,000 luminaires. The average daily consumption of domestic water during the report period increased 24 gallons per capita over that consumed the previous year, the report revealed. The Water Department repaired 233 meters and installed 411 meters.

Civil Defense Developed

The report states that the Civil Defense program was developed during 1951 with coordination on an area basis. The Plan Commission, which made many comprehensive studies and surveys during the past year, according to the report, held one public hearing and certified the Civic Center Area Plan to the council for adoption. Traffic studies were conducted and off-street parking and curb parking were studied.

In closing the report, Mr. Lane expressed appreciation to the Mayor, city councilmen, department heads, office force and municipal employees for their cooperation and stewardship during the past fiscal year.

Neff Prognosticates

City Clerk Norb Neff, an old time seafarer, gave your reporter some valuable information as to how the ship would be released from her blue clay trap.

Said Neff: "In my estimation between 1,500 and 2,000 tons of iron will have to be removed from the 'Ream' to lighten her enough to enable the tugs to pull her off the bank without pulling her bits off her deck." The "Ream" was built 40 years ago and is 585 feet long with a 60-foot beam. She is a class "A" boat.

Really Wedged Tight

Where the "Ream" ran amuck, the bank of the channel is about 18 feet deep and as far as can be determined by her load line the bow dug in about six feet deep. The dredged channel depth is 25 feet. The "Ream's" starboard water line is approximately 41 inches out of water.

It was back in 1943 that the last freighter went aground in Lake St. Clair. The "Alexander B. Uhrig" was the victim that churned into the blue clay bottom about one mile northeast of Peche Island. She also was a class "A" boat.

Builder Receives Ticket For Violation in Woods

A check at the Woods municipal office on August 11 revealed no cement permit on file for 1190 Fairholme.

The check was made following the remark of a cement finisher, installing a driveway approach to 1190 Fairholme, that the builder had gotten the permit.

Police mailed the builder a building violation ticket.

Police who checked a car parked in front of a new house at 911 S. Renaud, found that the car was the property of the owner who was checking the building's progress.

The Exceptions

Kindergarten Eligibility

Bushong's announcement also stated that under the present policies of the Board of Education, in order for children to be eligible to enroll in Kindergarten they must be five years of age or before December 1 of the current school year, except that children who will be five years of age between December 2 and January 31 of the current school year, may at the request of their parents be given certain tests by the Department of Pupil Personnel of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools to determine the readiness of such children to enter Kindergarten.

Parents of all children of these ages who were listed on the May 1951 census have been informed of this policy by letter. Parents of children of these ages who did not receive such notification may make an appointment for testing by calling the Board of Education, TU, 5-2000, Extension 33.

See Record Enrollment

School officials estimate that this year will see an all time record enrollment in excess of 6,600 pupils. This will be an increase of more than 500 pupils over last

Hollywood Again Invaded By Young Pointe Tourists

For the second time this summer, 51 Grosse Pointers invaded Hollywood and had the red carpet rolled out for them. The boys arrived in Hollywood with Chet Sampson and his six station wagons on Sunday evening, Aug. 12, and began their exciting four days in movieland.

Wagner Brothers' Studios were their hosts the first day, and the boys were driven to the many sets used by this company. That evening they watched the radio show featuring Charles Boyer and Jane Wyatt.

The second day opened with a visit with Jimmy Durante at his Beverly Hills home. This was followed by a tour of Paramount Studios which Bing Crosby had arranged. Work had just begun on a new movie "Son of Paleface," and the boys had interesting visits with the stars, Bob Hope, Jane Russell and Roy Rogers.

Jane Russell was rehearsing some of her dance routines, and Bob and Roy were busy in some exterior shots, complete with dozens of extras. The boys also came across Bill Holden, Robert Walker, Elizabeth Scott and Betty Hutton on the lot. In the evening they saw several more broadcasts.

The third day saw the group visiting with Anne Baxter and John Hodiak at their new Beverly Hills home. The visit was highlighted by one of the boys walking through a new plate glass window leading onto the patio. Following the visit, the Hodiaks entertained the boys at Will Wright's famous ice cream parlor. In the evening, the boys gave a dinner party for MGM's new star, Debbie Reynolds. Also during the day, several groups visited the RKO and Twentieth Century Fox Studios, seeing the dozens of exterior and interior sets which have been and are being used in their movies.

On the last day, the boys were guests at Debbie Reynolds' home for a swim. Then they visited Carlton Carpenter at his home. Later they were guests at Malibu Beach at the Kresge estate.

Before their return home in time for school, they will also visit Laguna Beach, Mexico, Hoover Dam, Las Vegas, Zion, Bryce and Grand Canyons, the Petrified Forest, and the Mesa Verde Cliff Dwellings. Earlier they had taken in Colorado Springs, Rocky Mountains, Salt Lake City, Reno, San Francisco and Yosemite.

Suspicious Man Solid Citizen

Recent newspaper articles describing the robbery of dry cleaning shops in Detroit probably are responsible for the suspicions of a woman clerk at Valet Cleaners, 17854 Mack, when a man requested to see the manager concerning some fluorescent lights on Wednesday, August 8.

She summoned City police, who together with the store manager, questioned the man.

The man's request to discuss fluorescent lights proved to be genuine. He owns a lamp company.

WASHING HINT

Lament for the Wanderers

Pointers who have been "in residence" this summer could have found a deal of satisfaction during the past weekend in contemplating on the splendid gifts which the Weather Man has bestowed on them this season.

Hurricanes were flattening Jamaica and Yucatan and threatening the Gulf Coast. Texas was still sweltering in the protracted heat wave that has taken scores of lives. The Southwest suffered from a continued drought. A wave of forest fires, aided by high temperatures and low humidity raged through tinder-dry forests in California, Oregon and Washington. And in Grosse Pointe everything was serene as all get out. The high temperature was 82 and the low was 62.

Warm enough to loll without exertion in scanty summer clothes. Cool enough to pursue sports strenuously without fear of a sun stroke or heat exhaustion. Wonderful for mild exercise like putting around the garden or mowing the lawn. Marvelous for sleeping.

The climate which the Pointe has enjoyed this summer makes more and more residents conscious of the fact that this isn't a bad place at all to spend the so-called vacation period. Those who have gone north, or east, or south, or west, have been loud in their wails about the bad breaks they have been getting at the hands of the weather. Too hot, too cold, too dry, too wet. . . here it has been just right, almost without exception.

There are other things besides the weather which makes this section pretty desirable throughout the summer. And that is particularly true this year. Big Sister Detroit has been celebrating a birthday with a whopping big party that has provided this whole region with the tops in entertainment. Take just this past weekend for instance. The National Air Races, a tremendous event in anyone's language, were staged here. The poor kids of the Pointe had a tough time making up their minds whether they wanted to go to the air races or take in the great Field Day which the Metropolitan Club puts on for them annually at the High School grounds. It was a great compliment to the local policemen, firemen and mail carriers that thousands of the youngsters preferred to stay here and take in the fun.

For the nautically minded, the Crescent Sail Yacht Club, located just west of the foot of Kerby road, was staging its annual regatta, and 123 sail boats of all types were providing thrills and breath-taking beauty as they competed. Outboards buzzed in their own races and runabouts, cruisers and yachts plied the lovely waters of Lake St. Clair in a never-ending parade.

There is little which the Pointe doesn't provide its residents to insure full enjoyment of summer's offerings. Each municipality has its own private lakefront park, with fine swimming, picnic facilities, room for games and a place to moor one's boat. Beautiful private clubs and privately owned swimming pools and tennis courts are hosts to many and tend to eliminate crowded conditions at the public parks. Every night hundreds of residents enjoy barbecues on their own properties or those of friends, with a comfort they could find at few touted summer resorts.

A walk or a ride through Pointe streets, viewing the lovely landscaping of so many Pointe homes, will probably unfold as full a measure of beauty as is granted the hiker along mountain paths or the vacationer who chooses to ride the range.

Easily accessible within the great metropolitan district are almost countless other sources of entertainment, education and culture. Amusement parks, great recreational areas, symphony and band concerts, recitals, plays, museums, art institutes, libraries, boat rides, zoos, ball games, horse and car races, ad infinitum, all beckon. And in the summer months we have more time to indulge our particular outside interests than we have when the tempo of business resumes its all-consuming pace.

A local Chamber of Commerce would have many selling points, and no pun intended. There is so much here for the stay-at-home that we didn't even mind the few hours we had to spend in the office Saturday and Sunday. The big elm overhead was never so beautiful, and we were glad we were here to enjoy the unexpected rush of bloom that had suddenly come to the rose bed outside the window.

The War Against Dope

Federal authorities are urging cities and states to crack down harder on dope sellers, claiming that narcotics addiction is worse than smallpox and should be treated as a communicable disease. According to Harry J. Anslinger, Federal Commissioner of Narcotics, local authorities must put more men on their narcotics squads because the government does not have enough men to police the nation.

Certainly everything possible must be done to stamp out this insidious form of vice, with all branches of the government, city, state and national, cooperating. It would seem that the federal government should be taking the lead in such a crusade.

A sub-committee of the Mayor's Committee on Narcotics in Detroit is asking the Senate Crime Committee for an explanation of why there are only 188 agents fighting the drug traffic now when there were 226 in 1929. It is a fair question and the answer is awaited with interest.

With the federal government throwing money to the four winds on every possible excuse and filling every outstretched palm the world over, there can be little sympathy with a failure to tackle this vastly important problem with all the facilities we can muster.

If the government can add millions to the public payroll by hiring hundreds of additional writers to spread its propaganda thicker, it can build up a narcotics force that can cope with the situation.

Anslinger says that narcotics addiction around the world jumped swiftly in 1949 and that authorities have not yet been able to discover the cause. "It struck us with the velocity of a hurricane," he said. He added that using his squad of 188 agents to watch narcotics is "like using a piece of blotting paper to mop up the ocean."

Grosse Exaggerations

"I don't believe the half I hear,
Nor the quarter of what I see!
But I have one faith, sublime and true,
That nothing can shake or slay;
Each spring I firmly believe anew
All the seed catalogues say!"
(Carolyn Wells)

With apologies to Betty McDonald of the "Egg and I" . . . we are going to write the "Wasp and I." Having sniffled and blown our way through all of July and most of August, our red nose and eyes will have kept the Kleenex company in the black for some years to come. This is how we discovered that wasps also use Kleenex. Having kept a box of the stuff on everything in the house with a flat surface, it was not unnatural that we had a box on either side of our bed, since we could never tell which way the cold would blow, so to speak.

One fine early morning last week, we reached for a Kleenex from our bedside table, and just as we got it to our nose, the god-darndest pain shot through our little finger. We turned on the light to take a look, but it looked just like the finger we went to bed with the night before. The pain was something fierce, so we were sure we had been bitten by a black widow or something equally insidious. Within a few minutes, our finger turned slightly red and we could see a small hard white place on the tip. In about an hour, our hand became pinkish and the pain abated not one wit! Since it was six-thirty a. m., we couldn't telephone anyone for some advice or a few kind words, so we just sat there miserably waiting to die.

Some three or four hours later the pain diminished somewhat, but we were still a puzzled and sad sack. Chapter two comes around noon, when our little charwoman arrived and started to change the bedding and make up a fresh bed. Suddenly we heard a small scream . . . and rushed into the room to find the creature cowering against the far wall. When she could speak, she told us a large wasp had just flown out from the bedding as she pulled the top sheet away!

Pale and trembling, we grabbed a fly swatter and went off on a small safari of our own. We bagged the beast some fifteen minutes later . . . still in the bedroom. We hope when he arrived in wasp heaven, he appreciated the fact that crime doesn't pay. It would seem that "politics" isn't the only thing that makes strange bed-fellows!

It might please some of the proletariat to know that many of their fine feathered neighbors cook their own meals on cookie's day out. Our spies tell us that Monsoor and Madame frequently dine in the kitchen in slap-happy style, after which Ma washes dishes and Pa dries. And that brings us to a true tale told us by a gent who was present at the time. Our hero knew the late Jerome Kern, slightly. He ran into him at some gathering or other (in New York) and Kern asked our pal if he would like to come out to the country with him and take pot luck dinner. He explained that the cook was out that day and that his wife always did the cooking and they ate in the kitchen. Local boy accepted with alacrity, so they climbed into Kern's million dollar car and sped to the country seat.

Mrs. Kern, wearing a print frock and neat little apron, greeted them at the door, then excused herself to "get back to the kitchen." Our hero was told to make himself at home while Jerome went upstairs to "get ready for dinner." While our little man contemplated the luxury of the house and grounds . . . and dreamed his dreams about the millions his host must have in the bank . . . after all those hit tunes . . . Madame Kern was busy as a bee, backstage . . . being culinarian.

Finally, Jerome Kern descended the wide and handsome stairs, wearing white tie and tails! He called to his wife, who joined the men in the library where Kern mixed cocktails. Thinking the fancy outfit was meant to be a joke, our friend said, "I thought you said this was going to be a pot-luck supper in the kitchen?" His hostess assured him that indeed it was, then she added:

"Don't let Jerry's dress clothes upset you. Whenever I cook dinner, he always dresses formally. He says he does it as a tribute to ME, AND my cooking which is the best in the world . . . according to him!"
We think that's a cute story, don't you??

investigating committee formerly led by Senator Estes Kefauver, has suggested that a law against drug peddlers should be passed similar to the Lindbergh law, prescribing the death penalty. Anslinger agrees with the Senator, and so do we.

Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald O'Brien has asked for an amendment of the article covering search and seizure in Michigan's Constitution. He says that many peddlers picked up with dope on their persons are freed because search and seizure of the dope was illegal under the state constitution. O'Brien says that the addition of but four words to Article II, Section 10, is all that is needed to provide the police with a real weapon against the peddler. Section 10 now reads: "The person, houses, papers and possessions of every person shall be secure from unreasonable searches and seizures . . . provided however that . . . this shall not be construed to bar from evidence in any court of criminal jurisdiction . . . any fire arm, rifle, pistol, revolver, automatic pistol, machine gun, bomb shell, explosive, blackjack, sling-shot, billy, metallic knuckles, gas-ejecting device, or any other dangerous weapon or thing seized by a peace officer . . ."

The Prosecutor suggests the addition of "narcotics or their derivatives" to the list of "weapons and things."
And we heartily agree with Mr. O'Brien that dope is "a most vicious weapon against any man, and harder to face than a slingshot." Prompt action should follow his suggestion.

Governor's Weekly Report

By G. Mennen Williams
Governor of Michigan

MACKINAC ISLAND — The Constitution of Michigan provides that the Governor may shorten the sentence of a state prisoner when it appears that the law is working an injustice or a hardship. This power is given to the Governor as a sort of ultimate protection for the individual citizen in extraordinary cases.

Last week I felt conscience-bound to use this power of commutation in a very unusual case. I commuted the sentence of Thomas W. Flynn, Berrien county labor organizer. Flynn was sentenced to pay a $750 fine and serve 1 1/2 to 4 years in prison for doing $69 damage to an automobile.

Excessive Penalty: Flynn's case is one in which the penalty far exceeded the crime. An ancient Michigan law was applied in an unusual manner and excessive punishment resulted.

There is no question that Flynn was guilty of a law violation. He was convicted of participating in tipping over an automobile during a picketline row near St. Joseph in 1948. No one was injured in the altercation, but the automobile was damaged to the extent of $69.

Anti-Poisoner Law: There is a law on the statute books of this state which makes willful damage to an automobile punishable as a misdemeanor.

Other cases like that of Flynn have been prosecuted under that law. Had Flynn been prosecuted under that statute, he would have been subject to a jail sentence, probably about 30 days, and a fine. But he would not have been sent to prison for a long term as a felon.

But Flynn was charged, tried and convicted under another statute originally enacted to punish the poisoning or killing of cattle, horses and other livestock.

Under this law, obviously intended to apply to quite different circumstances, Flynn was convicted of a felony. It was the first time this cattle-poisoning law had been applied to a case of this nature.

Court Ruling: Thus Flynn, for an act involving $69 damage and committed in the heat of a picketline row, got a penalty which the Legislature thought appropriate for those who "maliciously administer poison . . . to horses, cattle or other beasts."

His sentence was more severe than in many cases of calculated crime for profit. But the technical legality of the unusual prosecution was established. The Supreme Court, by a split decision, ruled that his trial under the old cattle-poisoning law was legal. The parole board after reviewing his case, reported to me that it was "not within the framework of our usual deliberations," and declined to make a recommendation.

It was evident that the courts and the corrections system were powerless to correct the excessive penalty imposed on this man.

Governor Acts: The framers of the Constitution foresaw that this kind of situation would occur from time to time. That is why they gave the Governor the powers of executive clemency.

My order commuted Flynn's sentence to the time he had already served in the state prison at Jackson—a little more than 30 days. That is about what he would have served had his prosecution been conducted in a normal manner. His $750 fine has been paid and it still stands.

I feel that this heavy punishment for yielding to anger and violence in a picket line will be amply sufficient to deter others who are tempted to use violent methods in labor disputes.

Family Hardship: I was influenced in this case by the fact that Flynn's family has suffered severely from his imprisonment in a hospital at Jackson, with a severe spinal ailment. She is unable to support herself and her 16-year-old daughter.

Flynn is a citizen of good repute who has never been in serious trouble with the law before. His probation report shows he is a frequent churchgoer in his home community of Sawyer.

New Medical School: It was a great satisfaction to me to take part in ground-breaking ceremonies at Detroit for the new Wayne University medical school building.

In response to my repeated recommendations, the Legislature last Spring authorized the use of $3,550,000 of state funds for the construction of this new medical school.

Although Wayne University is a Detroit city institution, the new medical school will be a state building, and it will benefit the entire state. The record shows that about 1,500 Wayne University graduates are practicing medicine, one or more of them in nearly every county of Michigan. A third of them are located in outstate communities.

State aid for the Wayne medical school was recommended by a special commission appointed by me, and including the deans of the Wayne and University of Michigan medical schools, and the secretary of the Michigan State Medical Society.

The new medical school in Detroit will permit Wayne to increase its annual freshmen enrollment of medical students from 68 to about 100. It will help considerably to relieve the shortage of doctors in this state, particularly in the rural areas.

SCOUTING CONFERENCE

Scouting's National Biennial Training Conference at Michigan State College, East Lansing, September 5-12, will draw over 2,000 executive personnel, representing all 540 local councils covering every state in the union. Although classed as a working conference for the men, it will be a vacation for some 600 to 700 wives, also expected.

Hit-Run Driver Confesses Guilt

A hit-run driver who was traced through his license number has accepted full responsibility for all damage caused, according to a Farms police report.

The police answered a call to Mack and Lanno on the evening of August 18 to investigate an accident. They were informed by Louis Van Simaey of 5267 Ashley that his parked Ford had been struck on the left side by another Ford whose license number he had obtained.

The police contacted Walter Wood Young of 3040 St. Jean, who said he would pay for the damage he had caused.

A Little Wait—or a Big Compromise!

Standard equipment, accessories and trim. Illustrated are subject to change without notice.

If you have a Cadillac on order—or if you are giving thought to placing your order for one—we want to talk frankly with you about the matter.

There is, of necessity, some delay in delivery of new Cadillacs. You have to wait a while to get one—the time depending somewhat upon the model you select.

Naturally, you are being urged to purchase other makes of cars—which can be had almost as soon as your signature is on an order blank.

For the sake of your own welfare, we hope you will turn a deaf ear to all this—and hold firm.

If your order for a Cadillac is already in—let it stand, and be patient until your car is ready.

If you want a Cadillac, but haven't yet ordered it, do so at once—for the longer you delay in ordering, the longer you postpone delivery.

It is a simple choice you have to make. You must choose between a little wait—or a big compromise.

You must make this choice because there is no substitute for a Cadillac.

There is no substitute for the deep world-wide respect in which it is held—

—there is no substitute for its marvelous overall performance . . . so smooth, so quiet, so steady that to drive is to relax and to ride is to rest——and there is no substitute for the sheer joy of owning and driving it, so great that you will actually think up excuses for taking to the highway!

Yes, if you want a Cadillac—and you know that you do—stand firm until you get it.

There is nothing else like it—nothing in all the wide, wide world that can take its place!

Barbara Ann Quail Becomes Bride Of Clarence McClelland Skau, Jr.

Barbara Ann Quail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Henry Quail, Woodside Park boulevard, Pleasant Ridge, became the bride of Clarence McClelland Skau Jr., son of Mrs. Clarence McClelland Skau of Grosse Pointe and the late Dr. Skau, at high noon Saturday, Aug. 18, in St. John's Episcopal Church, Royal Oak. The Rev. Charles Jatho performed the ceremony.

Presented by her father, Barbara wore the same gown of white slipper satin made with a square neckline, long tapering sleeves and full skirt ending in a circular train, that her sister Jane had worn three years previously. Her three tiered illusion fingertip veil fell from a Juliette cap of rose point lace, an heirloom from her maternal great-grandmother. She carried a white prayer book on which was placed a white orchid, stephanotis, and trailing ivy.

Jane Quail Atwood of Ann Arbor served as her sister's matron of honor, and Virginia Skau, sister of the bridegroom, acted as bridesmaid. Both attendants were gowned in white organdy over blue taffeta. Their arm bouquets were tied in American beauty satin. Dr. Robert Skau served his brother as best man, and Alexander Jemal and Ross Herron were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Quail wore a natural color silk shantung suit with a turquoise velvet hat. Mrs. Skau wore a rose colored silk shantung dress.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

by Jane Schermerhorn

Friend of ours decided to have a look see at the beauties of Northern Michigan last week-end . . .

(She stood "The couple has left for its Summer home at Lake Such and Such, Northern Michigan" right up to mid-August and then she couldn't stand it another instant) . . .

The trip into the Northland wasn't too educational due to a blinding fog . . . the tiny car ferry over to Ironton, Mich., stopped at midnight . . . so Friend was led "the long way 'round" by the Ironton police to the door of her hosts and was greeted by hollow smiles as all noted a scout car had been her deliverer . . .

But she did manage to see several "Deer Crossing" signs though nary a buck nor doe put in an appearance . . .

Botanist Hemingway

The next morning . . . or rather that same morning . . . up bright and early . . . she discovered the next door neighbor of her hosts (who were the Frank Webbs of Birmingham and who have just bought a beautiful farm on Lake Charlevoix) . . .

Happened to be George Hemingway . . . uncle of the Pointe's Mrs. Sterling Sanford . . . and long-time settler at Ironton . . .

Maybe that's where Mrs. Sanford gets her great interest in flowers . . . for the gentleman's an avid botanist . . . And called on Sunday afternoon to speak pure Latin about the glorious wild flowers on the Webbs' acres . . .

Ice Blue Satin Gown Worn By Betty Bliss

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hascall Bliss Wed to Lowrey Kammer at Ceremony in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe; Honeymoon in West for Month

That new and dashing young matron, Mrs. Lowrey Kammer (Betty Bliss who was married last Saturday in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe) returned from California in the late Spring with a wonderful sun tan (preserved for her August wedding) and the idea to be married in an ice blue wedding gown.

The idea was the very thing that placed hers among the lovely weddings the Pointe will long remember.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Hascall Bliss of Beverly road, was breath-taking as she advanced down the aisle of Christ Church in robes of ice blue satin combined with matching lace.

Deep satin points of the Princess line gown burst into seven lace panels which traveled around to edge the cathedral train. The bodice had bateau neckline folded into graceful yoke and filled in with the lace. Sleeves were long and fitted. Betty wore a bridal cap of ice blue silk illusion and blue orange blossoms behind which trailed the full length train.

She carried purple throated white orchids arranged in a cascade with ice blue stephanotis.

The bride's sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles E. Bliss of Van Nuys, Calif., was matron of honor in a waltz length bouffant frock of yellow net worn over strapless yellow taffeta. Embroidered in a deeper shade of yellow on the fitted bodice and down midway in the skirt, the frock had cap sleeves. An open crowned maulie hat in matching yellow had velvet crownband and streamers.

Mrs. Bliss carried a bouquet of ice blue carnations.

The quintet of bridesmaids donned frocks like that of the honor matron but theirs were shaded in sky blue and their flowers were yellow carnations.

They included Mrs. John Bristol of South Orange, N. J. (sister of the bridegroom); Mrs. Robert Carlisle of Passaic, N. J.; Mrs. Jane Breech, Betsy Holton and Mrs. Peter Stewart.

Polly Kammer, seven-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fred Kammer, Jr. of Grosse Pointe, and niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl and was dressed in the same costume as the bridesmaids.

Lowrey, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Fred Kammer of South Orange, was assisted by his brother, Fred, Jr., as best man. The bridesmen were John Bristol, Ogden Carter, both of South Orange; Jack Fabian of Clintonville, Wisc.; Fred Warner, Forbes Howard and Jim McDonnell.

Mrs. Bliss affected a waltz length gown of pink painted lace with a rose bud bandeau trimmed in velvet ribbons and worn with a brief pink veil. Her flowers were sweetheart roses.

The bridegroom's mother was in a costume of pink beige and she pinned purple orchids on her handbag.

Mr. and Mrs. Bliss entertained the wedding guests at a reception in the Little Club following the church ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Henry Sherrill.

When the young Kammers left for their wedding trip to Pebble Beach, Banff and Lake Louise, the bride wore a navy blue raw silk suit with wisps of a cap fashioned of navy silk covered criss crossed bars.

They will be at home in late September in Harvard road.

September Debut Set For Annette Torrey

Blond Debutante To Be Presented To Society By Grandmother, Mrs. Harry Norton Torrey and The William Ford Torreys at Clairview, September 7

September debuts will take many Pointers back to the Pointe of a decade ago when the crispy days of September were popular ones with parents presenting their young ladies to society.

This week announcement was made that the custom is being revived and the Pointe will meet one of its 1951 debutantes next month.

The first will be blond Annette Torrey whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Ford Torrey of Ossabaw Island, Ga., arrived in the Pointe last week for a visit with Mr. Torrey's mother, Mrs. Harry Norton Torrey of Clairview, Lake Shore Road.

During the first few days of their visit, plans were set for the Sept. 7 coming out party for Annette who besides being a classic beauty is also a blue stocking having graduated last June from Grosse Pointe Country Day School cum laude.

Annette, who looks very much like her aunt, Mrs. Torrey Shallcross, is coming out at the same season Mrs. Shallcross did and her party also will take place at Clairview.

Mrs. Torrey and the deb's parents will present her to their friends and the young set will drift from the receiving line to dance on the terrace. When Mrs. Shallcross made her debut, Clairview was transformed into a wonderland of clusters of lighted balloons that gave a Venetian tone to the terraces of the beautiful home.

Another debut date was announced last week when Mr. and Mrs. William G. Boales of Edgemere Road added their daughter Sidney's name to the list.

Sidney will join the holiday deb's and Mrs. Boales is planning a December party at the Detroit Boat Club in her honor.

Still others who will make the holiday season merry will be Bobbie Phelan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Phelan, Jr., of Morross Road, Sally Woodruff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Woodruff of Lewiston Road, Ann Bross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl O. Bross of Lewiston Road, Bettina Stroh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stroh of Lewiston Road, Joan Dryden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rodger Dryden of Kercheval Avenue and Elise Hahn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hahn of Rivard Boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren invited friends in for cocktails Friday evening to meet their house-guests.

We welcome our new neighbor, Food Fair Market, and to join in the Opening Celebration, we offer this special for Monday, August 27 only.

Crescent Sail Yacht Club's Regatta Draws Record Entry

Turnout of 123 Skippers Tops Events Held at Bayview and Windsor; Betty Pulford Brings First Boat Across Finish Line

By Fred Runnells

Crescent, that little, hospitable club on Lake Shore road, has done it again. One hundred and twenty three skippers took their ships out for the Crescent regatta last Saturday, August 18, to establish a new entry record for this season. Crescent's turnout topped by four boats the Bayview and Windsor regattas which drew 119 entries.

Everything about last Saturday's regatta went along like clockwork but the only thing Commodore Wright failed to do was ORDER ENOUGH WIND.

Big Fleet Becalmed
For the first classes to start off the club the wind, what little there was of it, was out of the northeast and teased the skippers along for almost two hours before it disappeared all together and left the big fleet becalmed on a mirror-like Lake St. Clair for a half hour before it finally came out of hiding.

Once the breeze settled down it piped up to 8 miles per hour out of the east, which got the fleet around the triangular courses in good order.

Writer Scores Victory
The first boat to finish was Betty Pulford's L-boat "Southwind" to win that class. The writer's "Wind Toy" charged across the finish line just thirty seconds later to win the Privateer class. However, "Wind Toy" was the first boat to finish on corrected time because the L-class started five minutes earlier than the Privateers.

Betty's fast steering kept "Southwind" in the lead for the River Championship in the L-class. Fred Jensen's "Escape" and Jerry Jordan's "Nite Wind" followed in that order for prizes.

Jimmy Trudell's "Gin Jam" took second place in the Privateer class 3 minutes and 31 seconds behind "Wind Toy" and Bobby Roadstrum's "Cotton Top" took third place honors.

Closest Finish
One of the closest finishes of the regatta that had the huge gathering of spectators jumping, came in the Lawley 110 class when Don Hanna squeaked out a victory in the last hundred feet over Bob Greig. Hanna had about a two second margin.

The other close call came in the 22-square meters when Dr. Bill Berry's "Fryvapplingen" edged Harold Mistie's "Sonja" by 17 seconds.

Disqualified at Start
The St. Clair Yachtsmen's cat boat team had the boom lowered on them for the second time this year, but this time it was a disqualification at the starting line that spelled defeat for the oft victorious St. Clair skippers. The disqualification came as a result of one of the St. Clair skippers sailed into the restricted zone before his five minute gun. The judges got tough. Detroit Y. C. won.

Oldest Skipper Wins
In the eight meter class the oldest active skipper, since Joe Snay called it quits, Milt Cross (he's around 80), got the winning gun with his beautiful "Venture."

Duke Huber topped the K-class and Ed Beyer coasted home first in the International 210 class when his only competition Bill Gleason quit.

Howard Donaldson topped the CK-Free-For-All (catboats) and Lynn Babeock once again got the nod in the Universal class to keep his record clean for this season.

Woods police found three East Detroit teen-agers salvaging golf balls from the creek at the Lochmoor Club course on Sunday, August 12.

An unoccupied car parked on Sunningdale near the Milk River led police to a search of the club grounds.

Finding the club buildings and grounds in order, police released the boys with a warning to never trespass on private property

Substitute Skipper Wins Star Series

By Fred Runnells

Ronnie Sutton, home from school for 30 days, sailed Meryl Amo's "Mohawk" to two victories in the first two races of the Detroit River Star Fleet's three race "C" series last Sunday, August 19.

The races were held off the Windsor Y. C. with the six boat fleet battling their way around the windward-leeward course in the Detroit River on the Canadian side of Pelee Island.

The course sent the boats up around a mark at the head of Peche Island into an 8 to 12 mile per hour easterly breeze and then down to the channel buoy at the head of Belle Isle and then back against the wind to the finish line off of Windsor Y. C.

Sutton was never in trouble in the first race, but in the second race Harry Meanwell and Alex Allardyce battled him all the way to the finish line. Allardyce edged Meanwell for second place with Dick Miller following in fourth place. He was in turn chased over the line by Bill Walker and George Richardson.

Miller captured second place in the first race with Walker, Meanwell, Allardyce and Richardson following in that order.

By virtue of the two firsts "Mohawk" holds a four point lead over Miller, who has eight points for the series. Allardyce and Meanwell are tied at seven points each and Walker has 6 with Richardson in last place with two points.

The final race of the series will be sailed off Crescent Y. C. next Sunday, August 26, following the sailoff race between Amo, Miller and Allardyce, who finished in a three-way tie in the "B" series.

HOUSEHOLD HINT
Closely woven fabrics are best for slip covers because they give greater protection against dust, hold their shape better, wear longer and tailor more easily than do loosely woven materials.

Amo Whips Star Sailors
Meryl Amo received a windfall of trophies when he outdistanced the big Star class. Amo's nose sniffed out the light zephyrs in the early stages of the race and when the wind finally did come up he had a terrific lead over Dick Miller, who finished in second place. Ronnie Sutton, sailing Alex Allardyce's "Thistle II," took third place.

By winning, Amo again proved the Stars are faster than the Raven class. The first Raven finished one minute and eleven seconds ahead of him but they started five minutes earlier.

Jacobs Boat Wins
Clete Welling's "Vitesse" got the gun in the Cruising "A" division but lost to Clare Jacobs "Revelry" on corrected time.

"Joanne" outridged Jack Both's "Voyager" and Karl Ness steered his Pilot class sloop "Happy" to another win over five other competitors. Hank Burkard's "Meteor" was second and "Margaret M" was third.

Police Rout Golf Ball Salvagers
Woods police found three East Detroit teen-agers salvaging golf balls from the creek at the Lochmoor Club course on Sunday, August 12.

An unoccupied car parked on Sunningdale near the Milk River led police to a search of the club grounds.

Finding the club buildings and grounds in order, police released the boys with a warning to never trespass on private property

Schlottman and her daughter, Mrs. William Moore Joy, who were shopping at the resort . . . having driven over from Harbor Pointe . . .

She saw Mr. and Mrs. William E. Weiss, Jr. (Marthe Douglas), who Summer in Northern Mich. every year . . . his people have one of the dream places at Mullet Lake . . .

She reports that the former Marthe Douglas is as stunning as ever . . . with her jet black hair and gardenia petal complexion . . .

Christmas In August

Petoskey must be offly near the North Pole . . . says Friend . . . because simply all the shops are packed with Christmas-y things . . . a bit of news which makes us shudder!

The shop windows have beautiful Santa Clauses leering through . . . his pack filled with red and green gifts . . .

Resorters were buying Christmas wrapping paper . . . ribbons and stickers . . . until Friend ran like a wild thing over to Hidden Valley at Otsego . . . which is run as a regular lodge, open to the public, in the Summer months . . . while during the skiing season . . . only members may register . . .

She forgot Christmas in the delights of a little Swiss cart which is wheeled to guests' bedroom doors, there to deposit a thermos of hot coffee before breakfast each morning . . .

And although a native Detroitter . . . she had never been a Michigan booster until she heard of this tiny but complete luxury . . . (such a far cry from our predominance of exclusive hot dog stands!) . . .

Irish Beaver Island

At Grayling . . . she looked over the rolling countryside and agreed it must be skiers' delight come The Snows . . .

Roscommon . . . Standish . . . registered as favorites with Pointers . . . and then there was Clarkston . . .

As quaint and white-housed as a Virginia town . . . and Friend says at one time Oscar Webber had his Summer home there . . . on a lake just outside the village . . .

Back to Charlevoix . . . she watched the Beaver Island ferry boat arrive . . . and unload its passengers . . . all curly, black-haired, blue-eyed Irish lads and lasses . . . for it seems the island is populated with charmers from Erin . . .

Now if you will all just elect gentlemen who cross their hearts Michigan will have roads to match its fame as a motor state (or at least decent train and plane service to the resort lands up north) . . . she's determined to go back again . . . for a longer stay . . .

And a more thorough lesson in her state . . .

The murals are huge colored photographs designed to aid the housewife in making her selections for every day of the week.

MRS. MARK BELTAIRE III OF YORKSHIRE ROAD
If you find her behind her great big executive desk you might mistake Beverly Strauss Beltaire (Mrs. Mark A. Beltaire III) for a little girl playing school.

But behind all the youthful charm and good looks and sparkling eyes you'll soon discover an able lady publisher who is succeeding in printing a monthly magazine for the vast skyscraper audience of Detroit, a dream which has tempted many older persons who gave up long ago.

The magazine is the Skyliner which Bev has been publishing for four years now. When she persuaded her father, Charles H. Strauss, to buy it for her, its circulation figures (it was distributed in the downtown Detroit office buildings) were around 5,000. Today the Skyliner is crowding a 25,000 circulation and by Christmas should hit 35,000. Nice going for a gal who could just sit back and be a beauty, isn't it!

Mrs. Beltaire kissed her two strapping young sons, Tony, aged 2, and Geoffrey not quite a year, good night and then curled up in a big chair of her living room to obligingly tell us all about it.

Business World
While she was still in her teens she developed tendencies of what she calls a Lady Huckster. She loved to sell advertising. She got her first job at the Detroit Free Press classified ad department (met Mark during this period when they went on double dates . . . each with a different person!) and then moved into the weekly newspaper field.

Besides swelling the columns of classified ads for the Detroit Westward, Grand River Record, she also tried her hand at some free lance ad writing and layout work and had luck with several accounts.

And when an opportunity to learn techniques of telephone ad selling came along, she was a shining star in a "bucket shop," absorbing the hard lessons in how to break down resistance etc.

Now her experience was varied, and with a partner she established her own advertising agency. Then those eyes settled on the Skyliner which presented a challenge. She observed the casual greeting the magazine received as it appeared each month in the downtown offices and she was sure something could be done about it.

Learning the Skyliner was for sale, Bev soon had persuaded her father (she could woo the stars out of the sky, you know) to finance her as its publisher.

Meet the Public
Professional newspaper people, the artist Verne Minge, top flight photographers started to contribute to the magazine which changed its format and soon had business women picking it up when the mailmen placed it on their desks each month.

Bev hired a large staff and worked at every job herself. But the Skyliner was a big job and after putting it to bed one month she wondered if it was really worth the killing work involved. "I decided to test its pulling power and if it was weak I was ready to give up," the publisher told us.

The test was made by a Skyliner-sponsored luncheon and fashion show at the Book Cadillac. The response was so great that the ballroom floor looked like a Western movie scene of a wild cattle scene. Business girls literally hung from chandeliers to join the party.

Well, Bev just rolled up her sleeves a little higher because she met and LIKED the Skyliner readers that day. She knew they were many.

Since then she has n-e-v-e-r underestimated the power of women, especially working women for as one of her surveys proves, the majority of women in Detroit work and fifty five per cent not only work but also run their own homes. Here, in her own little fist, she had one of the most desirable markets in any merchant's estimation.

The Panel
She devised all sorts of ways to meet and know the girls who made up her circulation. With a panel of the readers she continued to give Skyliner fashion shows . . . increasing the number each year.

This same panel aids Bev with surveys and the latest one concerns the brutal treatment working women get when they try to shop during lunch hours . . . the only time the girls really have a chance to spend their money on the things they want.

The Skyliner, the panel, and Bev found a champion in the Ernst Kern Company which, to save the working gal's time, is introducing a salad bar in its store where only employed women will be served from noon till 2 p.m. In this way the girls will have precious added minutes to shop.

She's also pioneering the idea of a chargeplate which will identify the customer as an employed person entitled to special consideration at the noon hour. The other shopper, who has all day, should be willing to cooperate one hundred per cent in this courtesy.

New Fields
This year the Skyliner, now a success story in the downtown area, has moved uptown to become the darling of the New Center district.

And though its publisher is a busy young lady, indeed, going to luncheons and meetings with all her new friends thus keeping abreast of what women are thinking and where they're spending their money (she belongs to the Pilot Club, the Women's Advertising Club, charter member of the Junior Advertising Club, the TB & Healthy Society of Wayne County, the Grosse Pointe Little Theater group etc.) she finds time to indulge her love of cooking, to be a mama to the little Beltaires and the lovely companion of her columnist husband on his glamorous Town Crier beat.

She makes TV appearances, speeches, and when a salesman is a little slow in getting that new advertiser to sign a contract, Bev has only to pick up her phone to show it can be done. Well done.
