Congregationalists to Hold Elaborate Exhibit, Program

In preparation for World Communion Sunday, October 7, the Missionary Board of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church is holding a two day exhibit and program in the church parlors on October 2 and 3.

On Tuesday, October 2, at 1 p.m. the "All Aboard For Adventure" program will open with a Book Exhibit, directed by the Rev. Charles W. Scheid. From this "behind the cover" display the guests will be guided to the social hall where they will learn about the Christian Communities Centers, located in various parts of the United States and Puerto Rico, through a filmstrip showing the influence of the church at work in these areas raising the standards of the people and how the entire community life is bettered. Mrs. William H. Hulsmit is in charge of this booth.

The next stop on the tour around the world will be Latin America, the sunny land south of the border, where it's pleasure before business. But the church has a business there—in three stations located in Mexico. This "puerto" will be colorful with bright costumes, tiles, embroideries and jewelry. Mrs. James Bolles is responsible for this display.

On to Micronesia where the Congregational Church has been at work for one hundred years and is the only Protestant church in that entire area. In celebration of its 100th birthday will be a huge birthday cake.

Wednesday afternoon a special ceremony conducted by the children will be presented and the cake cut as part of the celebration. The "Land of the Morning Star," a ship supported by the Congregational Children of America will be described in this display. A "South Pacific" filmstrip is to be shown in this booth. This program is under the guidance of Mrs. Alton Huntington and the Church School.

In the booth "What the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Does" the guest will board an "electric train for a trip around the world," to see the Church in action. Local stops will be an imaginary stop at Cottage Hospital, to see the sewing done by the church women for that institution, a visit to the Church Blood Bank, and a stop for a chat with the DP Family sponsored by the Wednesday, October 3, the exhibit will be open with a program planned for the children and youth. This session will be highlighted by the ceremonies in commemoration of the 100th birthday of the church work in Micronesia and the cutting of the huge cake.

Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock the entire program will be climaxed by a special church service at which Dr. Frank C. Laubach, world famous educator, author, and missionary will be the speaker.

Lucky Cyclists Escape Injury

Two lucky young bicyclists escaped injury in collisions with automobiles last week.

Frank Champine, of 119 Muir road, stopped at the Farms police station on September 19 and reported having collided with a bicyclist at Touraine and Kercheval.

Mr. Champine, who was driving west on Kercheval, prepared to pass several boys on bicycles, when David Marentette, 12, of 389 Notre Dame, made a left turn on his bike in front of the car.

The car just nicked the bike, knocking David to the ground. David was not injured, police said, and the bike was not damaged.

David Evans, 10, of 334 McKinley, riding his bike on Kercheval, collided with a motorist in front of Cottage Hospital on September 20.

David, who was riding his bike west on the sidewalk parallel to Kercheval suddenly turned into the street and ran into the side of a car owned and driven by Ned Arntz Kilmer, Jr., of 22993 Gary lane, St. Clair Shores.

David Evans and Charles Miller, of 70 Kercheval, a witness, both exonerated Mr. Kilmer.

David was not injured, police said. There was no damage to the car.

ATTENTION GETTER THWARTED

A St. Clair avenue resident reported to City police that almost every evening a small boy across the street climbs into his father's car and sounds the horn. The two-year-old boy's father said he would keep the youngster away from the car in the future.

Mrs. Fehn had been driving north on Kerby. The right front and rear fenders of the car were damaged. Damage is estimated at $75.

Police issued Mrs. Fehn a ticket for not having her car under control causing property damage.

Last of Cabbage Patch

This building was the last of the summer cottage colony located in Berkshire place and known as the "cabbage patch." Many Pointers occupied these frame and stucco structures, which formed a satellite colony around the old Country Club, which stood on the present estate property of Mrs. Horace Dodge, Sr.

Some Pointers resided in the colony while waiting completion of their permanent homes. The James McMillan family, the Harry Lozier family, the Harry Cole and the E. H. Brown families were among those who once occupied these homes.

Moved Years Ago

About 1915 the late Edward Reaume had the house, presently being dismantled, moved to the Kercheval site. This building, which has been vacant for the past three or four years, housed a doctor's office and a dressmaking business in latter years.

Korean YW Worker Talks Before Club at High School

By Jane Rowe Grosse Pointe High School Journalism Student

Four months in a foreign country don't give a person much time to adopt the ways of the people, but Miss Bong Wha Kim, a Korean YWCA worker has done a surprising job since May 29th.

Miss Kim spoke at the first meeting of Grosse Pointe High School's Y-Teen Club.

Laurie Smith, 12B, Nancy Kaser, 12B, Janet Fildew, 11A, Shirley Stoup, 12B, and Edna Ednes, 12B, were Y-Teen delegates from Grosse Pointe to Cavell Leadership Camp, where Miss Kim counseled. They wanted to share with other members some of Miss Kim's experiences.

On May 27, Miss Kim left Seoul and flew to New York via Alaska. She had just six days to get acquainted with the world's largest city. She had often seen pictures of American cities; however, this sudden change, from the small farming towns of Korea to the city of skyscrapers was extreme.

For the rest of the summer, Miss Kim spent most of her time counseling in New York and New Jersey YWCA camps. The girls were very fond of her and helped her catch on to American ways. From there Miss Kim came to Detroit to go to Cavell Leadership Camp.

Miss Kim had a scholarship to come to college in America a year ago last June. But on June 25, the North Korean Communists started the invasion of South Korea that proved to leave no place safe from their so-called freedom movement, not even the Seoul YWCA.

Since the Reds were imprisoning Christian workers, Miss Kim was forced to take refuge in her brother's home for three months.

On September 27, the U. N. forces started their northward drive past Seoul. When Miss Kim went back to nothing but ruins, she tried to organize a rebuilding program; but the people's personal needs were so great that there was little time left to think of anything else.

On the December retreat of the U. N. forces, Miss Kim took a job with the 5th Air Force. An officer, knowing about her scholarship and the difficulty of traveling to America because of the war situation, sent a letter to the New York YWCA. They sent a passport to her and finally Miss Kim was on her way to the United States.

This fall Miss Kim will enroll at the University of Minnesota where she will study sociology for a year or two. Then she will return to Korea to help start the YWCA rebuilding plan.

Every year the Y-Teens have a World Fellowship drive, and through this they earn money to help other foreign Y-Teens. This year because of the need described by Miss Kim, the money will be sent to Korean Y-Teens.

Brilliant is the word for the opening of the Custom Collection of Mrs. William Rust Pierce, now being shown in her charming salon in The Women's City Club. Always an important event to connoisseurs of fashion, it is the forerunner of the opening of the social season. And since the models are the most colorful and beautiful shown by this distinguished designer, it indicates a gala season here.

Mrs. Pierce in her vastly successful years of designing clothes has achieved the perfect fashion formula. It consists of sophisticated simplicity for daytime appearances in public and breath taking beauty for evening occasions in private life.

The significant points of this original collection, as previewed by The Grosse Pointe News emphasize these highlights.

Fabulous evening models are shown in precious gem colors of Star Sapphire Blue, Ruby Red, Emerald Green, Diamond White and Black Pearl.

Town Gowns and Ensembles favor colors such as Muted Brown and Gray, Navy, Maroon and the perfect perennial—Black.

The very dashing young Town Ensemble of imported Navy Wool has a voluminous coat with inner front panels—the coat being lined in a small plaid silk, over a luncheon frock of the same silk. A Town Tailleur of soft English shagreen weaves introduces the new three quarter length idea in its long fitted jacket. The Block Wool and Lace Cocktail Ensemble appears in a model with a bodice of corded French lace and accompany wool jacket.

Interest in the evening models is divided between the slim, floor-length models—slender as a Grecian column—and the fabulous lace ball gowns for which this establishment is celebrated.

One columnar model of Star Sapphire Blue has a subtle square décolletage and long skirt with a graceful side pouff. A magnificent Spanish Ball Gown shows a lavish overskirt of deep ivory lace over black silk net, and has a wired curving black velvet bodice.

Grosse Pointers are congratulating Mrs. William Rust Pierce on this superb collection which is indeed a triumph—adding new laurels to her long established leadership as a designer.

Brilliant Young Pointer On Expedition to Near East

Pointer Carter Zeleznik, a member of the University of Michigan expedition to the Near East, which made a copy of a new "Rosetta Stone" inscription, has remained behind for further study, probably in Egypt and Syria, his father, Arnold F. Zeleznik, told the NEWS on Saturday.

Carter, a graduate student at the University of Michigan, took moving pictures of the expedition for the university and also some for his own personal record of the trip.

Dr. George G. Cameron, director of the expedition and chairman of the university's Department of Near Eastern Studies, was scheduled to arrive in New York City on September 19, with a rubber mold copy of the new inscription.

The inscription, which is carved into the stone walls of a rugged mountain pass, 10,000 feet high, between Iran and Iraq, could, it was reported, be a key to hitherto unknown languages of the past and might lead to a new or different interpretation of ancient history.

The original "Rosetta Stone," found in 1799, served as a key to deciphering the Egyptian hieroglyphics.

Copying the inscription presented a problem. In June, Professor Cameron and his assistants made a three-day trip by horseback through heavy snow to the Kelishin mountain pass. After waiting three days for the weather to clear to enable them to scale the mountain wall, they returned to their base camp.

They returned to the pass on July 4 and made a perfect impression of the inscription with a rubber compound. Although, the location of the inscription has been known for many years, it was never copied. A British explorer made a brief examination of it in 1898, it was reported.

Support for the expedition came from the Carnegie Corporation, the Rockefeller Foundation, the Viking Fund and the Rackham School of Graduate Studies at the university.

Cooperation of the Iranian and Iraqi government was freely given the expedition. Professor Cameron wrote the university.

The expedition spent more than six months in Kurdistan, an isolated and primitive region of Northern Iraq and Iran, where various studies were made.

Carter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold F. Zeleznik, of 1225 Whittier road, was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in the class of June, 1942, at the age of 16. He was awarded a scholarship to the University of Michigan and subsequently earned both his B.A. and M.A. degrees there.

He is currently working toward a doctorate at the university in Far Eastern History. Carter completed his service with the Army at the conclusion of World War II as a first lieutenant. He was 20 years old at the time; his father said.

Carter also spent a year studying at the University of Geneva in Switzerland, and, while there, was associated with the UN, working with displaced persons.

Carter was awarded both a Phi Beta Kappa and a Phi Kappa Phi key for scholastic achievement at the University of Michigan. He is expected home about December 10.

Go Ahead and Order It!

Standard equipment, accessories and trim illustrated are subject to change without notice.

Right at this moment, there are thousands of people in America who are just about ready to end all compromise insofar as motor cars are concerned—and order a Cadillac.

If you are one of these—go ahead and order it! It will be the wisest motor car decision you ever made.

First of all, consider the car's reputation. Wherever highways lead, there is general recognition that Cadillac is the Standard of the World. Not only is this an endless source of pride and satisfaction to the Cadillac owner—but it is incontestable proof of Cadillac's historic quality. Such a reputation could come only from long-continued superiority.

And then consider what Cadillac brings you in terms of every-day satisfaction.

Every mile you drive, or ride, is a sheer delight. The word for it is wonderful—and the proof of it can be found in an hour at the wheel. To ride is to rest—and to drive is to relax.

But over and above all this is an argument in favor of Cadillac so practical and conclusive that it should be hard for anyone to ignore:

The lowest-priced model of this great and distinguished motor car is priced competitively with numerous and varied models produced by other manufacturers. Yes—every day—scores of people actually pay the price of a Cadillac—and still don't get one!

Add to this moderate cost the further fact that few cars—of any price—will run farther on a gallon of gasoline—and even economy points to Cadillac!

So—if your heart is set on a Cadillac—come in and order it. There isn't a single logical reason why you shouldn't do so.

Frank Laubach To Speak Here

Dr. Frank C. Laubach, the man who has taught 50 million people to read and write in their native tongues, will be the speaker at a community-wide meeting in the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, Wednesday evening, October 3, at 8 p.m.

Dr. Laubach, the world's foremost practical literacy expert, has taught more people to read than any other man in history. Teaching the common people to read their own languages has been his job for 20 years. As chairman of the World Literacy Committee, an interdenominational organization of the Foreign Missions Conference of North America, Dr. Laubach's system "Each One Teach One" has been so successful that it has resulted in his getting calls for help from virtually every government in the world. His name is magic among the people of India, Africa and South America.

Navy Will Send Boys to College

The Navy announced recently that the sixth nation-wide competitive examination for its College Training Program has been scheduled for December 8, 1951, and will be open to high school seniors or graduates within the age requirements. The successful candidates will be given a four-year college education at government expense and will be commissioned as officers of the Navy or Marine Corps upon graduation.

The program is open to male citizens of the United States between the ages of 17 and 21 and quotas have been assigned to each state and territory on the basis of its high school population. Those who are successful in passing the aptitude test will be interviewed and given physical examinations; then, if they are found in all respects qualified, their names will be submitted to state and territorial Selection Committees composed of prominent citizens and naval officers.

Dr. Laubach points out, "With three fifths of the human race unable to read and write, they are automatically disqualified from skilled labor. The same thing applies to promotion of democracy. In India, more than 300,000,000 people cannot read. How can they vote if they can not read? How can India be a democracy if her millions can't vote?"

Neff Teaches Pointe History

Norbert Neff, Clerk for the City of Grosse Pointe, visited the third-grade classes at New Kerby School last week at the invitation of Mrs. Beverly Kenney, teacher. The third-grade pupils are learning about the community in which they live. They are studying about its early origin and history, about the men and women who established the community, its location and geography, its resources, and its relations to Detroit and to Michigan.

Mr. Neff took pictures, slides and maps to the class. These were projected on a screen while Mr. Neff talked about them, pointed out interesting facts about Grosse Pointe, and answered questions by the pupils. The speaker is recognized for his knowledge of this topic, and teachers report that Mr. Neff is "an excellent teacher."

Mrs. Esther Nelson's class was invited to hear Mr. Neff and to see his materials on the early history of the community. The students selected by these competitive examinations will be assigned to the 52 Naval Reserve Officers' Training Corps units which are located in various universities and colleges in the United States. If accepted by the college, they will be appointed Midshipmen, U. S. N. R., and will have their tuition, books, and normal fees paid for by the government. In addition, they will receive pay at the rate of $50.00 a month for the four-year period. Upon graduation they may be commissioned as officers in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps and required to serve on active duty for two years. At the end of this time they may apply for retention in the Regular Navy or Marine Corps, or transfer to the Reserve and, depending upon the needs of the service, return to civilian life.

Uniform Traffic Laws Proposed By Safety Group

A proposed Uniform Model Traffic Ordinance for the five Grosse Pointe communities was presented to the area's five police chiefs yesterday (Wednesday, Sept. 26) at a meeting of the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee.

The Uniform Ordinance, if approved and adopted by all five communities, could abolish confusing traffic law differences which now exist.

Drawn up at the request of the Safety and Traffic Committee by Automobile Club of Michigan lawyers under the supervision of Paul R. Erickson, the lengthy ordinance conforms with provisions of the Michigan Vehicle Act. Conflicts between local and State law are thus eliminated.

Copies of the proposed Ordinance were presented by Edward G. Rockwell, assistant manager of Auto Club, to Police Chiefs Thomas V. Trombly of Grosse Pointe, Arthur Louwers of the Park, Orville C. Ingalsbe of the Shores, Walter Goulette of the Woods, and Walter Hoyt of the Farms. The chiefs plan to digest the proposed ordinance and then discuss it thoroughly with community officials.

Previous to preparation of the proposed ordinance, Auto Club's legal department made a study of the unusual traffic problems of the Grosse Pointe area. They then wrote special ordinance sections to handle these factors.

An attempt was also made to build into the ordinance as much uniformity with Detroit's ordinance as was feasible, with an eye to cutting motorist and pedestrian confusion. This semi-uniformity of traffic law between nearby cities has worked out well in several other Michigan cities which Auto Club has assisted in building modern traffic ordinances, Rockwell said.

George Measel, manager of the Grosse Pointe Division of Auto Club, introduced Rockwell.

It takes one pound of steel, in the form of tubular goods, to bring one barrel of oil to the earth's surface.

Teen-Age Auto Larcenists Rounded Up By City Police

Five teen-age auto larcenists were apprehended on Wednesday, September 19, through the cooperative efforts of all members of the City of Grosse Pointe Police Department.

The quintet has admitted car thefts in the City, Farms, Woods and St. Clair Shores. Two of the youths were involved in the breaking and entering of the Skipper Marine Sales Corp., at 24200 East Jefferson, St. Clair Shores.

St. Clair Shores police have filed cases on the two Pointe boys who were involved in the breaking and entering which occurred in May. About $400 worth of merchandise was taken. One of the youths is free on $2,500 bond. The other youth has been filed on in the Juvenile Division of Probate Court by both St. Clair Shores and Grosse Pointe City police.

A City patrolman who stopped a car on September 19 recognized that the floor mats in the car answered the description of some reported stolen two days prior. Later in the day, police arrested the driver of the car who admitted having entered the underground.

Alfred Stebbins Taken by Death

Alfred W. Stebbins, 50, of 432 Roland road, died suddenly on Thursday afternoon, Sept. 20, while attending a meeting at the Detroit Edison building in Port Huron.

Mr. Stebbins was Division Manager of the Frigidaire Division of General Motors Corporation for the past five years. Previous to this he was Division Sales Manager for the Liggett-Meyers Tobacco Co. for 16 years.

Born in Parkersburg, West Virginia, July 8, 1901, he had been a resident of this area for 33 years.

Surviving are his wife Nell, one son Eugene and a brother Richard. Two brothers, Howard L. and Walter R. preceded him in death.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at 1 p.m. at the Verheyden Funeral Home, 18300 Mack at Outer Drive, with Dr. Frank Pitt of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Presbyterian Church officiating. Interment was in Oakview Cemetery, Royal Oak.

By Doris Nielsen

First of all I think I'd better give you the big news you've all been waiting for—the results of the election held at our last Unit meeting: President, Gladys Charrier; 1st Vice-President, Ethel Loughlin; 2nd Vice-President, Isabelle Thoman; Secretary, Nell Baldwin; Treasurer, Mary Del Barba; Chaplain, Margaret Berfeld; Historian, Rowena Weaver; Sgt.-at-Arms, Emily Crell; Executive Board, Helene Gregory, Elizabeth Lavender and Alice Marrs.

Your delegates to the Districts are Gladys Charrier and Nell Baldwin with Alice Marrs and Mary Del Barba your alternates. That's a great group of officers you've chosen girls—now let's see you give them all the cooperation and help you can!

Don't forget the installation of new officers will take place at the Veterans Memorial Building, 751 W. Jefferson on Sunday, September 30, at 8 p.m. with everyone welcome.

Congratulations to Elva Nielsen who at the 8 et 40 meeting the other night was elected L'Archiviste (Historian). I think you should all be very proud of Elva because she certainly has brought many honors to Grosse Pointe Unit! The 8 et 40 installation will take place on Sunday, October 7 at 8 p.m. in North Detroit Club Rooms on 7-Mile road near Dequindre, with everyone cordially invited.

We missed Sue Hamilton at our last meeting but find she has a good excuse for her absence. She and Forrest are taking a trip through the South and from the card received the other day, think they're enjoying the trip through the Smokies.

As this is my last column, may I say a very sincere "Thank You" to President Elva Nielsen for giving me the privilege of reporting the latest "dope" on what's doing in our Unit.
