Another Holiday Season Comes to End

Picture by Fred Runnells

With the Christmas holidays over for another year, Park firemen were faced with the task of dismantling the yule decorations that hung over Jefferson avenue in front of the Municipal Building. In the residential sections of the community Pointers faced a similar task of disrobing the Christmas tree, taking down the cards and returning the living room to normal. They found their stepladders just as useful as the big fire ladder truck which the Park firemen are using for their untrimming job.

NEW GALE THREATENS to halt rescue of American Freighter Flying Enterprise, which has been manned for last six days solely by its heroic captain, Henrik Carlsen. Carlsen refused to abandon his ship after he ordered his crew off. All were rescued. Destroyer Weeks has stood by to take him off and tug arrived on scene from England, 300 miles away, today. Gale has made it impossible to get tow lines aboard as yet. Whole world watching dramatic saga of the sea.

DEATH WAITED three days to claim first traffic victim of 1952 in Detroit. She is Mrs. Irene Penny, aged 67 of Braille. Was struck by a car after she got off a bus at Joy road and Pierson, only two blocks from her home. Driver said he didn't see her in the darkness.

Saturday, January 5
AFTER SIX DAYS of foundering at sea, the Flying Enterprise was taken in tow by the British tug Turmoil, and both ships began the 340-mile trip to Falmouth, England. Capt. Henrik Kurt Carlsen, who had been riding his ship alone since he ordered the vessel abandoned nearly a week ago, now has been joined by a Turmoil crewman.

PRIME MINISTER WINSTON CHURCHILL arrived for first U. S. visit in over two and one-half years. Four days of conferences with President Truman in an effort to clarify the problems facing the world, will highlight his stay.

Sunday, January 6
MOBILIZATION DIRECTOR Charles E. Wilson cited "tremendous armament gains in 1951" and despite contrary opinion intends to continue the gun-with-butter program for building up the country's military might.

ALTHOUGH NO MAJOR decisions have been made, the preliminary sessions of the conference between Truman and Churchill appear to have gone well.

FOLLOWING THE RULING that the Hutchinson Act is constitutional and applicable, the Michigan Supreme Court declared last year's 59-day strike illegal. The law prohibits strikes by public employes.

LT. GOV. WILLIAM V. VANDENBERG of Holland declared he would seek the nomination for governor in opposition to Secretary of State F. M. Alger.

Poker Losses Only Prelude To His Woes

Youth Fined $75 and Has His Driver's License Revoked for Year After Chase

Poker game losses which upset a teen aged Detroit youth last week that he got into a tangle with the Grosse Pointe Park police, proved to be but child's play to the financial setback he received when his case came up in municipal court.

Justice C. Joseph Belanger fined Bernard Abell, 17, of 534 Algonquin, Detroit, $75. For good measure he revoked the boy's driving license for a year.

Abell was playing poker with two companions and was the heavy loser. When a final game was suggested, "for our lives," Abell lost that too. He took a high powered air pistol that looked like a German Luger from a drawer and said he was going to blow his head off.

His pals talked him out of that, but later he stole the car belonging to one of his friends.

The Park police were notified and took up the scent. When Abell saw he was being followed he led the police on a wild chase through the Park before being forced to the curb.

He had thrown the pistol away, but later led the police to the spot and it was recovered. He was held for carrying a concealed weapon and for reckless driving.

December's Heavy Snows Cost Farms Total of $3600

Removal of the 18 inches of snow that fell during the three storms of late December, cost the City of Grosse Pointe Farms $3600, it was revealed this week by Murray Smith, commissioner of public works. The entire cost represents overtime wages paid, the use of the equipment, and gasoline and oil.

The Farms has approximately 40 miles of streets and 80 miles of sidewalks which are plowed with city-owned equipment. The sidewalks are cleared with a single run, but the streets require a maximum of six and a minimum of three runs.

Based on the cost of approximately $1200 per storm, Mr. Smith estimates that the clearing of the sidewalks cost about $360 per storm, and the streets, $840.

CD Air Raid Wardens Hear Reports on Organizational Progress at Club Meeting

Park and Woods Said to Be Doing Best Job; Ted Jacobs Gives Talk on What He Learned Attending Instructors' School

Grosse Pointe's Civil Defense Air Raid Wardens, or at least a number of them, held a meeting in the Neighborhood Club Monday night to hear reports on progress being made in setting up the organization. George Elworthy, Civil Defense Coordinator for the Pointe-Harper Woods district, and Lansing Pittman, Chief Air Raid Warden for the District, were in charge of the session.

Do Best Jobs Reports indicate that the Woods and the Park have done the best jobs in getting their areas organized. The Woods already has 11 districts organized, with captains appointed for each. This is four more than the Woods had during World War II. The Park has set up 15 districts.

Oscar Marx, chief warden for the Park, and his deputy, Mrs. Howard Poppin, both attended the meeting. They have announced that Mrs. Walter Brennan, John Malcolm, Richard Buell and Bus Huestis have volunteered as district wardens.

Jacobs Gives Talk Ted Jacobs, teacher at the Mason School, gave a very enlightening talk on what he had learned while attending the Air Raid Wardens' Instructors' Course given in the Mumford School in Detroit. Stress was laid on biological warfare, chemical warfare, gas attacks and the importance of preventing panic in the event of a bombing.

Mr. Jacobs, John Chandler, Head Master of Country Day and D.U.S.; Bill Yeagers, football coach at D.U.S., and Miss Warren Rhodes have all completed the instructors' course. It was pointed out that they journeyed all the way to Wyoming and Six Mile in Detroit for five nights to attend the classes, during the heavy snowstorms.

Will Be Instructors They will now serve as instructors to teach Pointe Wardens what they have learned. It was announced that 30 local teachers have volunteered to be local instructors.

The Farms has been organized into precincts. Its chief warden, William Newman, has moved to the Park since he undertook the assignment, but it is expected his chief deputy, Frank Curn, will carry on the work. The Farms had no representative at the meeting, nor did the City. Bill Marr is chief warden in the Woods. The Shores has refused to take any part in the Civil Defense joint organization.

Films Are Available It was announced that films are now available to aid the wardens and other Civil Defense workers. They have been supplied by the Army and Navy, and by Great Britain and Canada. The British films tell much of the story of what England suffered during the terrible raids of the last war.

Another meeting will be held on January 21, when arrangements will be made to register block wardens and issue identification cards and plan for the classes in instructions.

Police Nab Youths After Wild Chase

Give Up After Tearing Along Lake Shore at Better Than 85 Miles Per Hour

Two teen-age youths who led the Farms police a chase which reached speeds of more than 85 miles per hour on Lake Shore road in the early hours of January 7, finally gave up and surrendered to Officers Field and Kilets. They were halted in front of 619 Lake Shore shortly after 4 a.m.

At the wheel of the 1949 Ford was Clifford Roger Kinney, 18, who rooms at 1220 East Grand boulevard. His passenger was Frederick Robert Bleckensdorf, 19, of 12554 Hampshire, Detroit. The car is listed as owned by Fred and Justina Bleckensdorf of that address.

Find Case of Empties The police found a case of empty beer bottles in the car. Young Bleckensdorf said he had bought it about 10 o'clock the night before in the Meggie cafe at 9935 Roseberry, Detroit. The sale was made by a bartender who did not ask for my age identification, the boys said.

Kinney said he came to Detroit from Roger City, Mich., just three weeks ago. He is working for the Detroit Car Releasing Co. on Mt. Elliott.

Now on Probation It was learned that he is on two years probation for a breaking and entering in Roger City. The Farms police are notifying his probation officer in Alpena.

Both boys have been released on a $100 bond each. They will appear in Farms traffic court on January 16.

The boys said they had been just riding around all night. They had dropped two companions off at their homes and said they were on the way home when the police started chasing them. However, they were heading east, away from their homes, when the chase started.

Exposure Follows Theft of Skirts A thief stole a couple of skirts in the Woods Theater parking lot last Wednesday, January 2, but the only things exposed were the two rear wheels of Jerome Garr's car. He reported the loss to Woods police.

Garr recalled that a 1950 Mercury with a tan top was parked next to him when he left his car to go to the show. He lives at 5339 Moran, Detroit.

Issue 947 Permits For New Homes in Area During Year

School Officials Release Statistics for District Which Comprises all Pointes and One Small Part of Graftiot Township

According to a report just issued by L. M. Bartlett, Director of Pupil Personnel for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, 947 permits for new dwelling units were issued by the various municipalities comprising the Grosse Pointe School District during the calendar year of 1951.

With the exception of last year when 1,426 permits were issued, this year's total exceeds all other years in the history of the school district. The next largest number of permits issued in any year was 835 in 1949, followed by 831 in 1941 and 820 in 1943.

4,622 in Five Years During the five year period 1947-51 inclusive a total of 4,622 residential dwelling permits have been issued. Records show that for this period the major amount of building has taken place in the area north of Fisher road. In 1951 a total of 720 or 76 percent of all permits issued were in this area.

Of the total number issued in 1951, 359 or 37.9 percent were in Grosse Pointe Woods; 182 or 19.2 percent in the Farms; 162 or 17.1 percent in the Park; 160 or 16.9 percent in the school district's portion of Harper Woods; 65 or 6.9 percent in the City of Grosse Pointe; and 19 or 2.0 percent in Grosse Pointe Shores.

Breakdown Offered A breakdown of the distribution of permits according to elementary school census districts for 1951 shows that the greatest number of permits, 160 or 16.9 percent were issued for the Poupard Census District. This was followed by 144 or 15.2 percent for the Monteth Census District, 133 or 14.1 percent for the Kerby Census District, 118 or 12.5 percent for the Torrey Census District, 88 or 9.3 percent for the Trombly Census District, 79 or 8.3 percent for the Roslyn Road Census District, 73 or 7.7 percent for the Maire Census District, 61 or 6.4 percent for the Mason Census District, 55 or 5.8 percent for the Defer Census District and 36 or 3.8 percent for the Richard Census District.

Fastest Growing District During the five year period 1947-51, the greatest growth has taken place in the Monteth Census District where 1,167 or 25.2 percent of the total number of permits were issued. This was followed by 887 or 19.2 percent in the Poupard Census District and 608 or 13.2 percent in the Kerby Census District.

The total valuation for all taxable permits in 1941, which does not include schools, churches and charitable institutions, as placed by the municipal officers issuing the permits was $17,855,140.

Mongrel Freed From Fence Trap

Pointe police are called on to do all sorts of jobs in the line of duty, from catching criminals to removing frightened cats from trees.

On Wednesday, January 2, Mrs. R. Case, of 1314 Lakepointe, called for assistance to remove a mongrel dog which had become ensnared in her fence.

Park Patrolman Patrick Colon released the pup from its trap and took it to Dr. Robert O'Neil to be impounded.

Neighbors Surprised A reporter who visited some of Morris' neighbors, found them surprised at his plight. They described him as quiet, educated and polite. "He always played those pretty classical records and helped the women carry their bundles into the apartment," one said. The victims he robbed can testify that "The Cat" is indeed a very quiet man.

Mobile Unit Coming Here Tomorrow

Red Cross Bloodmobile To Be Stationed at Memorial Center from 2 to 8 p.m.

Up to noon Tuesday, only 21 volunteer blood donors had made appointments at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center to give contributions when the Red Cross Mobile Unit comes there tomorrow, Friday, January 11.

The committee in charge of the collection has its fingers crossed, hoping that a last minute flood of donors will appear, to make the campaign a success. This happened at the last collection at the Center, last May. Enough persons appeared on the day of the collection to send the unit away with a total of 117 pints.

Students Spread Word Notices of the drive, with appeals to all residents to cooperate, were distributed through students at all Pointe schools, public, private and parochial. They were asked to take notices home to their parents and help with the selling job of enlisting contributors.

The Red Cross has stressed the great need for blood at this time. The holidays always slow down collections and there is an acute shortage of the precious, life-giving fluid available now.

Soldiers Make Plea Every soldier, sailor and airman who returns from Korea says the greatest need out there is for more blood to take care of the wounded. It is a small gift compared to the sacrifices these men are making.

The unit will be at the Center from 2 to 8 p.m. The whole process of giving a pint of blood takes but a few minutes and is entirely painless. In addition to the Red Cross workers, volunteer nurses and doctors will be on hand. A group of young ladies has volunteered to serve as baby sitters, and children will be cared for and entertained while the mothers are making their donations.

Transportation Available Transportation is available for anyone wishing it. It will help if appointments are made beforehand, but prospective donors can go to the Center any time between 2 and 8 o'clock, without an appointment, and take their turn. The important thing is that enough persons appear to make the collection a complete success. Information can be obtained by calling the Center, TUxedo 1-6030.

Caruso Sings Song of Woes

Visto Caruso, 1424 Torrey, was very unhappy when he reported to Woods police that some thief had stolen four hub caps, the fender skirts and the spare tire and wheel from his 1951 Pontiac while it was parked in his garage last Monday night, January 7.

Caruso estimated the loss at $75. An investigation revealed the victim had parked his car in the garage at 11 p.m. the previous night and had failed to lock either the car trunk lid or the garage door.

Says Headlights Caused Accident

Glaring headlights, a traffic violation in themselves, caused a smashup between Mrs. Patricia B. Doyle's 1946 Plymouth and a parked car on Balfour last Wednesday night, January 2.

Mrs. Doyle stated to Park police that she was driving north on Balfour when a car with glaring headlights coming from the opposite direction temporarily blinded her and she failed to see Jesse D. Compton's 1951 Ford parked in front of the Compton residence at 912 Balfour. She crashed into it, causing damage to the front end of her car and the rear end of the Compton car.

The driver of the car with the glaring headlights didn't stop. Mrs. Doyle was ticketed for driving without due care, causing the accident.

DRASTIC MEASURES Farms firemen extinguished a small fire at the residence of Mrs. Roy D. Chapin at 457 Lake Shore road on the afternoon of December 26. A chauffeur had attempted to thaw out a frozen eaves-trough with a blow torch.

City of Grosse Pointe

Summary of proceedings of adjourned regular meeting of the Council of the City of Grosse Pointe, Thursday, January 3, 1952.

Mayor Netting presided. Councilmen Allen, Bergmann, Carpenter, Kenower, Morgan and Wright present. The minutes of the meeting of November 19, 1951 were approved.

Action on adoption of a parking meter ordinance was deferred.

The two existing committees, having to do with traffic and parking, were consolidated and duties combined under Councilman Kenower and Wright, Chief Trombly and the Clerk.

Edmund G. West and Edward Pongier were appointed as members of the Board of Review.

The Clerk was instructed to draft a list of existing committees and an outline of the duties of such.

A resolution establishing procedure for receiving, transacting and publishing matters for consideration by the Council, including an agenda and surmountation, was adopted after lengthy deliberation.

A written progress report submitted by the Parking Authority, was approved.

The report of the Labor Relations Committee was approved.

Communications received from the Grosse Pointe Manor, Inc. were read and requests therein granted with stipulations.

The purchase of an adequate sorting and counting machine, to be used in processing the revenue derived from parking meters was tabled, pending further experience.

Discussion was had in the matter of an ordinance looking to the eventual use of garbage disposal units in the City, with a report to be made by the Clerk at a later time.

The regular meeting of the Council, scheduled for January 21, 1952, will be postponed until Saturday, January 26th or Monday, January 28, 1952. The meeting adjourned at 11:15 p.m.

NOBERT P. NEFF, City Clerk

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

The following court cases were disposed of in two sessions of the Grosse Pointe Park Municipal court presided over by Judge C. Joseph Belanger on December 29 and January 2.

Serviceman Jessie L. Graham, 3650 Brush Street, was found guilty of pulling into traffic causing an accident and was fined $25 and $5 costs at the December 29 court session. However, the judge suspended the fine and Graham paid only the $5 costs because the defendant is in the Armed Forces and home on furlough.

John Daniel McGinty, 754 Grand Marais, topped the list on the January 2 court docket. He was found guilty of making an improper turn, causing an accident. He was ordered to pay $5 costs.

Guilty of making an improper turn and causing an accident was the charge against John Alfred McFarlen, 4534 McClellan, Detroit. He paid $5 costs.

Doyle Vann, 1612 Lemay, Detroit, was found guilty of never having obtained an operator's license and not having his car registration. However, he did have a driver's license issued in Tennessee. He was fined $35 or 20 days.

A $20 bond was forfeited by John Howard Cline, 29213 Larchmont, St. Clair Shores, when he failed to put in a court appearance to answer to the charge of speeding 40 miles per hour on Jefferson.

Glenn R. Payton, 22625 Lakeland, St. Clair Shores, forfeited his $15 bond for failing to show up at court to answer for his speeding charge of 40 miles per hour on Vernor.

James Robert Feger, 2550 Belvidere, Detroit, lost his operator's license for 30 days for speeding 40 miles per hour on Jefferson.

It cost Anthony J. Verney, 1303 Nottingham, $5 for pulling into moving traffic and causing an accident.

Tuxis Club Shows Christmas Spirit

By CYNTHIA NETTING, G.P.H. Tower Staff

One simple phrase we have heard repeated again and again, states that it is more blessed to give than to receive. For 45 members of the Memorial Church Tuxis Club, this hackneyed expression took on a new meaning recently, when they brought immeasurable happiness and the holiday spirit to 125 Negro children of Detroit.

Sponsored by Rev. Paul F. Ketchum, the group gave a Christmas party complete with presents and ice cream, for children ranging in age from 3 to 14, of St. John's Negro Presbyterian Church.

Gaily wrapped packages of all mysterious shapes and sizes, which brought smiles of thanks and delight, were given by Tuxis members at their traditional white Gift Service early in December. Dr. Edgar James, of 726 Westchester, who portrayed the jovial Santa Claus for his second time on such an occasion, presented each child with a gift.

At the close of the afternoon, everyone was given a bag of candy and fruit to take home. "This is the second Christmas party which Tuxis has given for the children of St. John's Church," commented Rev. Ketchum, "and it shows signs of becoming a tradition."

Frehse to Talk to Richard PTA

The Richard School is making plans for its third PTA meeting of the school year, to be held Thursday evening, January 17. The speaker will be Robert Frehse of the Detroit Round Table of Catholics, Jews and Protestants.

Mr. Frehse is well known in Detroit religious and social service circles, having recently been made the director of the Round Table after service in one of the downtown Detroit churches as assistant pastor. The Detroit Round Table has been performing important service in the city on problems of inter-faith understandings and this will be the nature of Mr. Frehse's talk at Richard.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Frehse have become known to Grosse Pointers through their many years of work with the Westminster Children's Camp on Higgins Lake. Both also have been active in natural history clubs in the city, especially the Audubon Society and the Botanical Club.

Mrs. Elliot, PTA program chairman, is arranging for the event, and Mrs. Hunter is planning the refreshments. Mr. Risk, president, will have general charge.

Weaving Driver Not Drunk at All

City police received a call on Tuesday, January 1, from an unknown tipster, "A drunk woman is driving east on Jefferson weaving from the curb to the center of the road and back again. And she even got out of her car and fell down."

Patrolmen Bob Van Tiem and George Moffat were dispatched to the scene and discovered Mrs. E. C. Quinn of 338 Fisher road.

The report of the tipster was false, Mrs. Quinn was perfectly sober and all she was doing when she drove her weaving trail out Jefferson was looking for lost articles in the street.

Not that she had lost anything, but it is just her nature to look for lost things, which she turns into the Pointe stores to await claims by the owners, according to Patrolman Van Tiem.

Mrs. Quinn was instructed to drive her car in a straight path hereafter and dispel any suspicions of other motorists or pedestrians.

183 New Homes In Farms in '51

Murray M. Smith, city engineer for Grosse Pointe Farms, released the annual building report covering the period between January 1 to December 31, 1951.

Due to shortages of materials and government restrictions only two permits were issued in the last month of the year. The total value was placed at $43,000. However 183 residence permits were issued during the year, with a total value of $4,412,000.

Miscellaneous construction permits numbered three in December, making a total of 140 for the entire year valued at $213,900. Non-assessable construction was nil during December and the entire year records four valued at $358,000. No business construction was reported for 1951.

The total value of all buildings for which permits were issued during the fiscal year was $4,983,900.

Three Car Crash Blamed on Drink

Earl R. Zuehlke's 1948 Plymouth was like the pickle in the middle with the mustard on top in the three-car collision that occurred on Kercheval near Cadeux on Tuesday evening, January 1.

Actually Zuehlke was more or less the innocent bystander in the accident caused when Charles S. Porritt stopped his 1950 Oldsmobile for traffic. Zuehlke halted his vehicle in time but a crash followed when Charles R. Tarrant of 1226 Dickerson, Detroit, failed to stop in time, causing Zuehlke's car to smash into the rear of Porritt's car, completing the three-car collision.

Zuehlke's car bore the brunt of the damage with both the front and rear ends smashed.

When the Park police arrived on the scene only Tarrant was there to greet them, along with his wife Carreatha who had arrived only a short time before. The other two drivers had left the scene but Zuehlke's damaged car was still there.

Tarrant's wife claimed she owned the car and didn't have insurance on it. Furthermore, she said, her husband had called her a short while before the accident occurred from some bar and that he was unemployed.

No tickets were issued when Porritt said he wouldn't sign a complaint against Zuehlke but Zuehlke said he would sign against Tarrant because he said Tarrant had been drinking.

The Michigan Territory was created with Detroit the seat of government on January 11, 1805.

Christ Church Holds Elections

On Monday evening, January 7, the parishioners of Christ Church crowded into the Assembly room for the annual meeting.

The treasurer, Wendell Anderson, reported all expenses for the past year had been met with a surplus in the bank. Mr. Anderson also reported that this year's Budget had been raised.

The Rector, the Rev. Dr. J. Clemens Kolb, reported on the progress of the parish during the past year, pointing out the increased enrollment in the Church School which is now over 600; also the rapid growth in the work among young people.

The following men were elected to office: Senior Warden, John B. Ford, Jr.; Junior Warden, Dr. Arthur McGraw; Secretary of the Parish, Henry Ledyard, Jr.; Secretary of the Vestry, Joseph Standart, Jr.; Assistant Secretary, Harrison D. Watson; Treasurer, Wendell Anderson; Assistant Treasurer, Clark Swart.

Vestrymen, Wendell Anderson, Dr. Arthur McGraw, Kendrick Brown, and Wilfred F. Howard; Chairman of the Ushering Committee, Alexander Wiener.

Appointed as delegates to Convention: Charles W. Clouse, Mervyn Kaskin, Alexander Wiener. Alternates: Henry Ledyard, Jr., Wilfred F. Howard, and Olney Jones.

The induction of the new vestry will take place this coming Sunday at 11 a.m.

Safety Committee In Last Meeting of '51

Horse Raffle Card Recalls Life in Pointe's Dim Past

Sixty years ago, out along the flat stretch of land that edges Lake St. Clair, the DSR had built a series of station stops that extended to Mr. Clemens. One station, which was located where Cook road ran into Lake Shore road, was particularly popular among many of the gentlemen in transit. It was named Vriden's Stop and fronted the tracks near a saloon owned by the father of Charles Verheyden of 16300 Mack.

In order to stimulate business, Mr. Verheyden organized wrist pulling contests, pigeon shoots, and cock fights; and once sponsored the raffling of a horse, followed by a dance. Tickets for the raffle were sold at 25 cents, and the cards that were printed to advertise it are dated April 23, 1896.

One of these cards turned up in an old Grosse Pointe Shores home recently and was given to Mr. Verheyden, who said that although he could not remember that particular incident, he remembered the cock fights and the pigeon shoots, where first you had to buy the pigeons from local farmers. They were alive and not clay then, and he remembers the sign that hung at the station stop that said Vriden's. Mr. Verheyden could offer no explanation of the spelling, except that it was influenced by the popular pronunciation. The saloon no longer stands, and there are no more horse raffles. The station stops are gone and the interurban line has been torn up, but the card remains as a memento of sixty years ago.

Frank Diegel Killed by Fall

Grosse Pointe City's first ambulance run of 1952 carried Frank Diegel, 56, a native Grosse Pointe and brother of the late Leo Diegel, famous golfer, from his home on 479 St. Clair to the U. S. Marine Hospital with a fractured skull suffered in a fall down his basement stairs Tuesday, January 1. Frank died the following day from his injuries.

Old Grosse Pointers will remember Frank when he was quite a marathon runner back in his youth, and up until 25 years ago. He competed in several marathon runs from Detroit to Pontiac and back in the days when such events were held on summer holidays. Frank won many of these events, according to City Clerk Norbert Neff. Neff further recalled, "Frank at one time was a Justice of the Peace in Grosse Pointe Township. He was born in the old Diegel homestead on the corner of St. Clair and Jefferson. He had a deep interest in all sports and tried his hand at golf along with his brothers George and Leo but gave up on this in favor of running. He also was intensely interested in ice boating." Frank was the son of the late William G. and Elizabeth Diegel. He is survived by his brother George. His other brother, Leo, died about a year ago in California.

Picks Precarious Place to 'Park'

Trevor E. Edmunds, 5615 Fairview, Detroit, wasted no time in having a run-in with the Grosse Pointe City police this year.

At 5:36 a.m. on Tuesday, January 1, Patrolmen Foster Mauck and Blair Martin found Edmunds and his 1950 Ford parked high atop a five foot snow bank in front of Staelens Gardens at 17540 Mack. The police had received a call from Mrs. Staelen.

Edmunds had been drinking and when the officers questioned him as to why he was on his precarious perch he retorted, "I am parking my car." Noticing a definite alcoholic tinge to Trevor's breath Mauck and Blair decided to give Edmunds a free ride to the station. He objected, but finally accepted.

His car was left on its lofty snow perch because there was no immediate way to remove it, however, the keys were removed and held at the station and Trevor sent home by bus after receiving a New Year's present of a ticket for not having his car under control.

Pleads Guilty To Robbing Boy

Seventeen-year-old Fred Pelkey pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge Frank Fitzgerald last Monday, January 6, and was returned to the Wayne County Jail to await his sentence.

Pelkey will be sentenced after a representative of the Wayne County Probation Department visits the various Pointe police stations to make up his report on Pelkey's actions in this community.

Pelkey was picked up December 6 by the City police as a suspicious man which in turn led to his arrest by the Park for his robbery of an eleven-year-old boy the night before in front of Pierce Junior High School. It is on this charge that Pelkey will be sentenced.

Blowout Blamed For $500 Damage

George Blenkarn, 417 Phillip, Detroit, was driving west on Jefferson on January 2, when his right front tire blew out, causing his car to swerve. It smashed into Marjorie Keys' 1941 Chevrolet, parked in front of 16833 Jefferson, causing about $200 damage to the Keys car and $300 damage to Blenkarn's.

Both parties agreed to take care of the damage on their own and no tickets were issued because of the unavoidable circumstances which caused the crash. Blenkarn suffered no personal injury except for being shaken up a bit.

G.P.H.S. Seniors Ready for Prom

By JANE ROWE
GPHS Journalism Student
The 12B's of Grosse Pointe High School have maintained a traditional secrecy about the theme of the Senior Prom to be given Saturday, January 12, from 9 to 12 o'clock. The prom will honor the January '52 graduating class.

Tinsley Netting and Carol Ford, who have gotten the 12B artists together, are scurrying around getting last minute jobs done.

Carol Lundgren has seen to it that there will be enough refreshments for all the couples in the 12B and 12A.

Kay Catchick, 12B treasurer, and her committee are putting the last-minute touches on the intermission entertainment.

Invitations have been extended to 12B, 12A, sponsors, chaperons, and Board of Education members by the invitation committee headed by Jane Rowe.

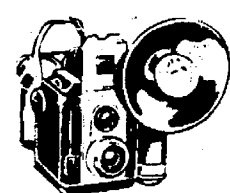

The best artists of the class have put their heads together to make up the dance programs under Susan Senff's direction.

The 12B officers, Chuck Sweet, president; Tom Pfeifle, vice-president; Jane Rowe, secretary; Kay Catchick, treasurer and their dates will lead the grand march. Miss Marion Lampman, class sponsor, and the parents of the officers will act as chaperones.

The music will be provided by Bill Gail's orchestra. There will be no admission charge.

How do chemical, oil, and metal stocks compare for investment purposes with chain store and utility stocks? Is it possible for the average stock purchaser to pick these securities with outstanding possibilities?

What caution is going to be necessary during the year 1952? Are the opportunities for profit more limited this next year? What effect will our arms program and higher taxes have on the earnings of corporations?

Where do Investment Trusts and Government Bonds as investments stand in the picture? These questions and many other interesting ones will be discussed in the series of lectures, "Money and Investments," by Oscar L. Buhr, vice-president of the Detroit Trust Company, in charge of investments, under the sponsorship of the Status of Women Committee of the Grosse Pointe Association of University Women.

There is a $2.00 registration fee. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. John Harding, TUxedo 2-1431.

Any woman interested in learning how to handle her money efficiently is invited to attend this course beginning Friday, January 18, from 10-12 noon and continuing once a week through February 8. All lectures will be held in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Two Policemen Added by Woods

Two new patrolmen, William Duster and Jack Eberst, joined Grosse Pointe Woods men in blue and began their policing duties last Saturday, January 5. The addition of the two new men brings the Woods force to an even 20, counting Chief Walter Goulette.

The force includes two lieutenants, three sergeants and fourteen patrolmen to guard the increasing population of the Pointe's newest and fastest growing community.

Drunk Receives Praise of Police

Open arms and congratulations were offered a drunk from Detroit who paid a visit to the Farms police station on the night of January 6.

The gentleman stated that he had had too much to drink, that he was fully aware of it and did not think he ought to be driving his car. He asked permission to leave it in the tender care of the police overnight.

Parking space was enthusiastically provided and a taxi was hailed to take the inebriated one home. He called back in the morning, fully restored, to claim his car.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

(While Jane Schermerborn vacations)

The C. Bradford Hitts of Lincoln road took no chances on our temperamental weather when they made plans for today's trip to Nashville, Tenn.

You guessed it, they're entraining to the southland, where they'll be the houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Denney, who along with three other Nashville families always spend August with the Hitts at their summer home at Win-Hit-San on Georgian Bay.

While they're in Nashville, the Hitts will attend the wedding of Mary Ann Bone and the Denney's son, Daniel, in Lebanon, Tenn.

Have Silver Anniversary

The Theodore Hall Fugers marked their 25th wedding anniversary Saturday evening with an impromptu get-together of close friends at a cocktail party in their Cloverly road home.

Son Ted stayed for the festivities and left in the wee hours of Sunday morning with Bill Cunningham for a motor trip to Otsego Ski Club, where the two collegians got in a bit of skiing before continuing on to New Haven for their classes at Yale University.

Return to Yale

Other Grosse Pointers returning to Yale included Ben Chapman, Russel Goddard and Bobby Kanzler. Russel is a member of the Apollo Glee Club, and we understand that his first bass is clarion clear.

These Pointe boys are evidently pretty sharp when one enumerates the high positions they hold on campus. For instance Bill Cunningham is chairman of the Yale Banner and George Craighead, senior editor of the Yale Daily News, both top-notch publications.

Party at Country Club

It was a Dutch Treat affair at the Country Club for a group of Pointe residents who met first for cocktails at the Merriweather road home of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hoey, trooped to the Club for dinner then made the bus trip to the Scottish Rites Cathedral for the Princeton Triangle Show before returning to the Club for dancing.

Aboard the chartered bus were the Thomas Paddocks, Lewis S. Robinsons, Andrew Barrs, Dan Buells, H. Hunter Williamses, John Chandlers (he's headmaster of D. U. S.), Thomas Manns, Thomas P. Henrys, Jr., William Denlers, Eugene Hawkineses, Hal Smiths, Jr.

They were joined by collegians Mike Hoey, Robin Ryan and Pete Whitman. A similar affair was organized by Mr. and Mrs. James Lee II at the University Club.

Jewels Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Dewey returned to their home in Washington, D. C., Sunday after a holiday visit with their son-in-law and daughter, the Frederick M. Algers, Jr., of E. Jefferson avenue.

Engagements Revealed During Holiday Season

Sallie Ann Hoyt

At a Christmas open house given by Mr. and Mrs. James O. Hoyt in their home on Roosevelt place, guests discovered the engagement of their daughter, SALLIE ANN, to Stuart H. Ward Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Ward of Devonshire road.

Two hearts surrounded with festive decorations and pierced with an arrow bearing the names "STU and SALLIE" greeted the guests as they entered and over the dining room table, hung a large gold engagement ring which also helped to reveal the news.

For the occasion, Sallie chose a waltz length gown of champagne taffeta under net. The mother of the bride-to-be wore a navy blue taffeta cocktail frock trimmed with tiny pearls and sequins.

Stu will be a senior at the University of Michigan and is affiliated with Chi Psi fraternity. The couple plans a June wedding and will reside in Ann Arbor until Stu is graduated.

Beverly Jane Martin

BEVERLY JANE MARTIN'S engagement was disclosed on Christmas Eve. She will become the bride of Ford Chapman Slater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis M. Slater of Audubon road, in a June wedding. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Martin of Beaconsfield avenue.

KAMMERS (she's the former Betty Bliss), MR. and MRS. RICHARD P. JOY, JR., the WALTER BUHL FORDS, the WILLIAM CLAY FORDS, MR. and MRS. GEORGE NUGENT MURRO III, the WENDELL GODDARDS, ALVAN MACAULEYS, JR., DAVID A. WALLACES and GEORGE HEFFERANS.

It was really a festive occasion the other night when the JAMES McMILLANS entertained guests in their new home in Rathbone. They combined the housewarming with the celebration of their seventeenth wedding anniversary and dancing was to accordion music. They formerly lived in Bedford road.

Short and to the Pointe

MR. and MRS. WENDELL W. ANDERSON of Vendome road are in New York today for the wedding of ARTHUR GARDNER, JR., and JOAN LANDOR, which will take place Saturday in St. Bartholomew Church.

Once the newlyweds are seen off on their plane trip to Jamaica, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson will take off for Denver, Colo., for the annual livestock show which is being held there next week.

From there they'll go to their Wyoming ranch near Laramie. After a short stay, they'll continue their travels to Lawton, Okla., for a visit with their son-in-law and daughter, Lt. and Mrs. Charles P. Sagar.

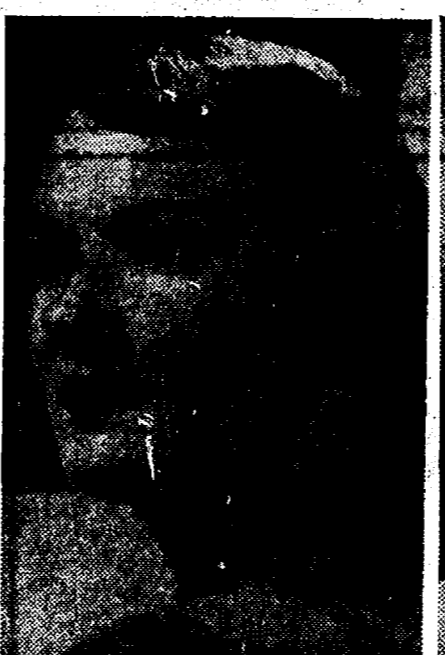

The Andersons were accompanied on their New York trip by MR. and MRS. WENDELL W. ANDERSON, JR. and MR. and MRS. JOHN W. ANDERSON II.

New Year's weekend saw practically an exodus of Grosse Pointers for the north country, where they got in a fair amount of skiing at both the Otsego Ski Club and Boyne Mountain Ski Club.

The EDWARD P. HAMMOND, JR., family spent the week at the Otsego Ski Club. The parents lodged at the chalet and their sons, MIKE, DAVE and TED, roomed in the alpine-style dormitory.

All the men in the Hammond family spent most of their time on the snow-capped slopes, but Mrs. Hammond, who leaves the skiing to the rest of the family, chatted the hours away in the club with her many Grosse Pointe friends.

MRS. ALAN P. BEEBE was there with her two small daughters, TINA and ANN, and no matter how disheveling the brisk wind, she always managed to come in from the blustering out-of-doors looking perfection itself in her trim winter-sports apparel. Other Grosse Pointers at the Ski Club were the LOWREY

Rita Ann Wibbelman

The engagement of Rita Ann Wibbelman to Robert Alan MacKay was announced at a Christmas dinner at the Hall place home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfons A. Wibbelman.

Mr. and Mrs. Lisle K. MacKay, of Bedford road, are the parents of the bridegroom-elect. Miss Wibbelman is a senior at Michigan State College where she is affiliated with Chi Omega sorority.

Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Michigan where he was a member of Beta Theta Pi fraternity.

A summer wedding is planned.

man of the junior prom, head of all the charity drives, and has been an all-around big wheel on campus.

The DAVID SEARLES are planning to make their new home in Chatham, N. J., at the end of this month. Mr. Searles is there now and will return to his Harvard road home, once he has organized things in the East, to take his family back with him.

MRS. WILLIAM KIRKWOOD WILLIAMS of Beaupre road will be leaving the 22nd of this month for the wedding Jan. 26 of her son, THOMAS and JEAN BOYLE, daughter of the WILLIAM M. BOYLES, JR., of Washington, D. C.

The ceremony will take place in Shrine of the Sacred Sacrament and the reception will follow at the Shoreham. On Jan. 25 Mrs. Williams will be hostess at the rehearsal dinner in the Army and Navy Club.

MRS. HENRY B. JOY of Lake Shore road entertained at a cocktail party during the holidays in honor of her daughter, MRS. HELEN JOY LEE, who was visiting here from her home in Stonington, Conn.

MRS. WESSON SEYBURN is in North Easton, Mass., getting acquainted with her new granddaughter, SUZANNE SEYBURN HARTE, daughter of the RICHARD HARTES, JR. MRS. HARTE is the former ISABEL SEYBURN.

MR. and MRS. JOHN ZACHARIAS of Kingsville road, who three years ago moved here from New York City to make their home, are leaving the Pointe to return there. With them will be their newly adopted 3-months-old daughter, JANE ELLING.

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae Chapter of DELTA GAMMA will meet on Tuesday evening, January 15, at 8 p.m., in the home of MRS. HENRY HUBBARD of Muskoka road.

Sub-Deb Set Frolics At Hunt Club Party

Nelson Hollands and Edwin O. Bodkins Are Co-hosts at Event Honoring Their Daughters, Starry Holland and Nancy Maxwell

That cowboy caller who proved so popular at Alice Jane Hooker's ball was featured January 2 when the sub-deb set had one last fling before returning to schools in the east.

Co-hosts at the party in Grosse Pointe Hunt Club were the Nelson Hollands and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkins. Honored were their daughters Starry Holland and Nancy Maxwell.

And just like Topsy the party grew and grew with couples dropping in from the many dinner parties staged in the Pointe that evening, and the college set paying respects after the Princeton Triangle Show.

For the occasion Starry chose a bright net gown of sea green, ballerina length. Her escort was Jim Kennedy. Nan chose a black and white stripe taffeta frock. She was squired by Jerry Goetz. Since the holiday decorations had highlighted all the other parties, the hosts changed the decor by festooning 250 helium filled balloons with streamers throughout the ballroom of the Hunt Club.

A strolling accordion player led the gang in community singing during the lull between orchestra pieces.

Before the dance Jeannie Vance, a classmate of Starry at Farmington school in Connecticut, entertained at a dinner party at her home in Hendrie lane. She was escorted by Allan Ledyard, who has returned to Taft School.

Also entertaining at pre-dance dinners were Jeannie Hagen of Thornbley road and Cynthia and Molly Chalmers of Moross road.

Of course the evening was capped off with a hearty feast of hot dogs and soft drinks.

Elizabeth Cass Chapter Hears Mrs. B. J. Riordan

Mrs. Bernard J. Riordan discussed "Stop That Leak" by Lindsay C. Warren, comptroller general of the United States, at Monday's meeting of Elizabeth Cass Chapter, D. A. R., Grosse Pointe Farms, in the Women's City Club.

Mrs. Walter R. Fruit, regent of the Grosse Pointe chapter, presided at the regular monthly business meeting which included election of delegates and alternates to the forthcoming State D.A.R. conference to be held at the Hotel Statler.

New USO Club Nears Completion Stage

Pointe Women Helping Rush Decorating and Furnishing Program in New Quarters in Basement of Shubert-Lafayette Theater

The decorating and furnishing of the new USO Club which will open in the basement of the Shubert Lafayette Theatre when it moves from its present quarters in the Veterans' Building after the first of February, has been placed in the hands of a recently formed women's committee.

Headed by Mrs. Paul E. Krause, who is also co-ordinating chairman of volunteers at the USO, the committee consists of Mrs. J. Widman Bertch, Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, and Mrs. Alger Sheldon, all of Grosse Pointe. Also Mrs. Edmond L. Sanderson, Kathleen Graaf, chairman of Senior Hostess assignments, and Mrs. Samuel Glogower, chairman of the Downtown Center Operating Committee.

As the basement area, which covers approximately 30,000 square feet, has been unused for a number of years, there has had to be much renovating of plumbing, electricity, plaster, and so forth, which is being financed largely out of funds raised by the Ed Sullivan show last spring, given for the benefit of new USO headquarters. Maintenance of the Club, as well as financial support of all other USO activities, is made possible by United Foundation contributions.

The women's committee on decorating and furnishing has been strictly budgeted, but according to Mrs. Bertch, who has had much decorating experience and is a color expert, the results, though not costly, will be gay, informal, and adequate for the entertainment and hospitality due the thousands of service men stationed in our Detroit area.

Making good use of the terrazzo flooring and the original brick wall which extends the length of the canteen, the committee is planning to achieve a patio effect with green and white paint, a striped tin awning over the snack-bar, (originally a smoke-hood over the old stove), and shutter-type portable partitions separating the various play and work areas.

Furnished throughout in bright-cushioned California redwood, there will be adequate lounge chairs and davenport, ottomans, coffee and games tables, as well as long dining tables with benches in the snack bar area.

The furniture is on order and will be delivered as soon as the new quarters are ready, when it will be dispersed among the ping-pong tables, writing desks, television set, piano and juke box so essential to USO hospitality.

The snack bar, according to the planning committee, will provide facilities for serving sandwiches, cookies, doughnuts, hot-dogs and light refreshments, and of course hot coffee. Although it will be easier to serve refreshments in the new club than in USO's present cramped quarters, no food will be cooked on the premises and the USO will continue to depend on community groups for regular scheduled donations of cookies, sandwiches, cakes, and the like.

As in World War II, USO will continue its policy of serving food to service men completely without charge. Vending machines including those that dispense soft drinks, stamps, cigarettes, candy, and gum, will be installed for the benefit of the Service-man.

At a committee meeting held on Tuesday, January 7, at the Veterans' Building, plans for the completion of the new downtown club were hastened. The number of service-men using the present club increases every week, and the need for more space is great.

Weekly average of 1,200 service-men have been attending the downtown center since September, and over the holidays during a period of 11 days, there was an attendance of 2,479. Many of these were service-men home on leave, looking for fun and Christmas gaiety. It is expected that attendance at the downtown club will increase even more after USO moves to its new home, with its more central location and more adequate facilities.

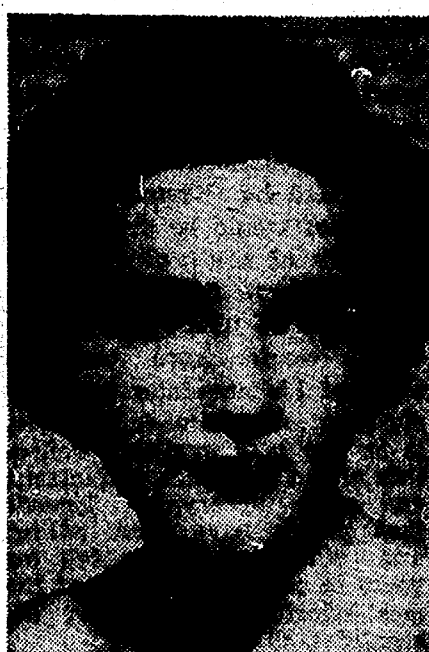

James Masons Hosts at Party

Mr. and Mrs. James Mason of Severn road entertained at a gay holiday party Dec. 27 in their Grosse Pointe home.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Ringis, former Pointers; Mr. and Mrs. Preston Tucker, of Ypsilanti; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Claes and Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gates of the Farms; the William Griegs of Monte Vista avenue; the Max M. Marstons and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Ducastel, both of Severn road.

Col. and Mrs. Scott Harkins of Prestonsburg, Ky., had planned to join in the festivities but severe weather prevented their traveling here.

Four More Who Joined Ranks of Brides-Elect

CATHERINE CLEMS SCOTT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Charles Scott of Buckingham road, will become the bride of George Schaeffer Ritchie. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle George Ritchie of Mark Twain, Detroit.

Catherine is a member of Tau Beta and the Junior League. She attended Grosse Pointe, Country Day, The Principia College in St. Louis, is a graduate of Smith College and will get her master's degree at the University of Michigan in June.

The bridegroom-elect is a graduate of Oberlin College, took his master's degree at Columbia and is working on his Ph.D. at the University of Michigan.

Mary Morgan Brings Latest Fashion News

Spring Opening of New York Dress Institute Covered Again By Radio Editor With Special Points for Pointers

EDITOR'S NOTE: Mary Morgan, fashion editor of Radio Station CKLW, and longtime favorite with the women of Grosse Pointe, is again covering the spring opening of the New York Dress Institute Fashion Showings for her daily CKLW broadcast and for Grosse Pointe News.

By MARY MORGAN (Special to Grosse Pointe News) NEW YORK, Jan. 10—A close-up of the Newest in Designing for Spring at these authentic showings gives one a pleasant sense that there will not be any drastic changes in Fashion . . . other than a stronger accent on what is called the "Shapelier Shape."

Grosse Pointe women will appreciate Pauline Trigere's Collection which is shorn of everything resembling "ginger-bread." Her dresses are simple, pliable and shaped to the body-line.

Stunning sheer wools and wonderful pure silks are topped with the typically Trigere coat, well tailored and cut with the flair and know-how women look for in Trigere designing.

That master-designer Philip Magone has placed heavy emphasis on coat and suit ensembles. Particularly outstanding is his general purpose costume in dark grey worsted with slimly-loose coat and deep cut sleeves bloused gently from the elbow.

Magone's new collarless coats introduce a dramatic V-line, seaming the front and back, which narrows the silhouette considerably. Frequently his coats are lined with checked or striped taffeta.

Hattie Carnegie designs are soft this year, boasting a civilized elegance combined with subdued rich fabrics, a variety of outline and light-infiltrated colors.

By fashion reckoning, 1952 will be a year of whippet-slim, whipper-curved "little" Carnegie suits, with the typically crisp, fresh Carnegie air and new long waistline.

Because Carnegie opposes the hard line at the edge of the skirt, a new note has been added, the unpressed hem.

From the narrowest skirt to the most bouffant evening dress, the hem turns up in its natural curve. Even her coats have the unpressed hem.

Herbert Sondheim's collection stresses fashion accent on skirts plus a wonderful adaptation of the season's big sleeve.

Looking the essence of some Sunday-in-Spring is a navy and white checked silk taffeta dress with a very full stitched pleated skirt and button front bodice twisted into a crisp, over-sized jabot lined with navy taffeta.

Petticoats pin-point the attention of Hannah Troy's collection in a fresh charming manner enhanced by her choice of silks in every variation possible.

Her swaying, graceful skirts are made more bouffant by one or more petticoats appearing all the more exciting as they are teamed with sculptured bodices.

For the most part, bareness is only illusionary as shoulders are covered with the greatest guile in sheer lace and net which appear in great profusion for late-day wear.

Church Groups Plan Meetings

Critic to Report On Latest Plays

John Mason Brown, one of the country's most popular speakers, will report on the latest Broadway plays at Detroit Town Hall, next Wednesday morning (January 16), at 11 o'clock in Fisher Theater.

As Associate Editor of Saturday Review of Literature, Brown has won national fame for his brilliant column, "Seeing Things." His many books on the theater and the arts are widely read.

Pointe Colony To Meet Jan. 15

Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, of Grand Marais boulevard, will open her home on Tuesday, January 15, to members of Grosse Pointe Colony, National Society of New England Women, of which she is a Director-General, as well as a Colony director.

Mrs. Wilfred J. Campbell, of Fisher road, and Mrs. Albert C. Pasini, of Bedford road, are in charge of the dessert-luncheon at 12 o'clock, preceding the business session at 1 o'clock. Due to the illness of the president, Mrs. Charles B. Warner, one of the vice-presidents will preside. Mrs. George W. Moore of Lakepointe avenue will be a hostess.

The program planned by the late Mrs. Albert E. Stewart, on "Distinguished New England-Born Detroiters" will be carried out with the assistance of members.

Art and Flowers To Be Exhibited

The Grosse Pointe Artists Association and the Grosse Pointe Garden Club will hold a joint meeting at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Tuesday, January 15, from 3-5.

The Garden Club members will display flower arrangements which will interpret the 20 paintings by the Grosse Pointe Artists which are to be hung in three rooms.

The exhibition will be open to the public through the week.

The exhibition has been arranged by David O. Hamilton and Mrs. Thomas Mann.

Mrs. Sherwood Reekie is president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club; Mrs. William R. Hamilton II is president of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association.

Hostesses for the tea are Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Mann and Mrs. H. Hunter Williams.

Spend Holiday In Southland

Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Stevenson of Berkshire road have returned from a holiday visit in Sea Island, Ga.

While in the south they attended the wedding of their nephew William D. Stevenson Jr., of Raleigh, N.C., and Ann Kilcourse of San Francisco.

Ann, a frequent visitor in Grosse Pointe, attended the former Suzanne Stevenson, now Mrs. William A. Knight II, as maid of honor at her wedding in June.

Mrs. Knight was matron of honor for Ann at her wedding which took place in Virginia Beach, Va.

A Whisper to Washington

The City of Grosse Pointe is threatened with the situation of either having to cut services to its residents or raise taxes. No bones are being made about the problems which must be faced, it was evident at a council meeting last Thursday night.

"The City is at the bottom of the barrel," Mayor Ralph B. Netting told the councilmen. "The only way to turn is to eliminate services."

There was no mention of raising taxes, and it was obvious from the conversation that such an idea is to be shunned like the plague by the city fathers. Would that there were more of this kind of thinking among our national leaders in Washington!

The most important job facing the Congress is the decision as to whether or not this nation is to continue its reckless and extremely dangerous spree, or to put on the brakes and keep the country from approaching nearer the brink of economic disaster.

Congress cut about 5 percent from President Truman's proposed budget last year. There is no indication that these billions which were slashed off have even been missed, let alone brought any dire results.

Since then the Marshall Plan has still been able to send enough scarce newsprint to Ireland to keep every weekly paper in this country going for a full year. It sent a gift of $330,000 worth of tobacco to Austria, bringing the total Marshall Plan shipments of tobacco up to the half billion dollar mark.

We used to laugh at the old saying, "Carrying coals to Newcastle." Today we cannot laugh when the administration is letting this country send 30,000,000 tons of coal to Europe, including much to England, and Western Germany. Both were great coal-producing countries and could be today if the miners went back to work. And the American taxpayer is paying the transportation costs. Coal being shipped to Europe costs $6 per ton average at the mines. By the time it is landed in England or Europe, the cost has jumped to from $24 to $28 per ton.

Most economists claim that when total taxes exceed 25 percent of the national income, inflation is inevitable. Our tax bill is now slightly more than 26 percent, higher than it was during the middle of World War II.

There have been uncovered all manner of cases of chiseling against the government, of evasion of taxpaying by those in a position to buy influence from dishonest government employees, of excessive profits by suppliers of defense items, of callous indifference to all this by those highest in government circles, excepting when public awareness threatens retaliation at the polls.

It is a sad state of affairs and the time is here for the voters at home to let their representatives and senators know in no uncertain terms that they want a stop put to the delirious spin of spending.

Coming back home, the City of Grosse Pointe minces few words about its plans. It has not been favored, like some of its sister municipalities such as the Farms and the Woods, by boom building, with ever increasing valuations and tax sources. With little increased income, its expenses have been rising constantly through increased wages, cost of materials, etc.

Mayor Netting has thrown it straight up to his department heads. He told them bluntly that they were department heads because they are supposed to have the ability to operate their departments efficiently and economically.

"We don't want you bringing in budgets which represent what you would like to have," he said. "We are depending on you to pare every possible expense down to the bone and tell your men the situation. We want you to show us ways of saving money, not of spending it."

Word has already gone out to the municipal employees that there will be no pay raises now. A study is being made to see if the working hours of the police department can be cut to 40 from the present 46½ average, but no more salary raises will be granted. It was agreed that one more policeman is badly needed, and authority was given to hire one. This was the only concession made.

It has been suggested that along the line of cutting down on service, it may be necessary to eliminate going into garages and basements to pick up rubbish and garbage cans. Residents wishing this kind of service may be offered it for an additional special assessment. One suggestion has been that this service be provided for a payment of $1 per month.

The budget figures must be in the hands of the councilmen by March 25 at the latest. No secret is being made of the fact that the ensuing weeks are going to be rugged ones for the city officials. They are going to search every means of paring expenses without curtailing services too drastically.

Mayor Netting brought up once again the question of fire protection. The City has been trying for months to reach some agreement with the Farms on pooling equipment for the sake of economy and efficiency. No progress has been made, as the Farms is just plain not interested.

Last Thursday night Mayor Netting went so far as to say: "It does not seem unreasonable to state that we are operating our fire department at a dead loss. It would appear that we might be better off to let properties burn down and pay the owners the difference between their insurance coverage and their loss."

This, of course, is an absurd assumption. We can imagine the squawks of the residents if they were left without any fire protection, especially after they learned how high their insurance rates would be boosted. It indicates the seriousness of the necessity for economy as the city officials see it.

Would that this germ for curtailing expenses could spread as far as Washington. Efficiency and protection... by all means! But let's plug the drain that is letting bureaucracy suck off billions annually for damn fool experiments and to keep dishonest leeches and sabotaging termites on the public payroll.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"In our town, people live in rows.
The only irregular thing in a street is the steeple.
And where that points to, God only knows,
And not the poor disciplined people!
And I have watched the women growing old,
Passionate about pins, and pence, and soap,
Till the heat within my wedded breast grew cold,
And I lost hope."
(Anna Wickham)

If our readers will bear with us for dwelling on Christmas, we promise not to mention the word again until next December. Since we get about town in a conveyance reminiscent of a tandem bicycle, we are a little slow in getting hep to what goes on in the snootier circles. Print-worthy, are the following:

First... Christmas cards. Some of the snazziest looking ones came from commercial sources. The most outstanding cards we saw were from the Mayor of the City of Grosse Pointe (and his wife), the Ralph Nettings... and from their daughter, Cynthia Netting. They were not only smart as all get out... but daughter Cynthia designs them herself, dashing them off at the last minute. There is a gal with IDEAS plus! Another card that deserves mention is one from Emmet Kelly... THE clown of clowns. His was two photographs of himself, one in costume and one out of costume; the greeting read, "We both wish you a Merry Christmas."

Our next holiday story has to do with a local woman who was mystified on end on receiving a priceless Lowestoft bowl from an acquaintance with whom she had never "exchanged" Christmas gifts. Looking over her "loot" on Christmas morning, she was so floored to see the elegant bowl, that she rushed to the phone to thank the woman profusely... pouring out such phrases as: "Couldn't be more beautiful"... "You shouldn't have done it"... "Never have I seen such a lovely bowl"... etc., etc., etc. When she stopped for a breath, the woman announced in frightened tones that she was AWFULLY sorry but there must be some mistake, because she had sent nothing but a Christmas card!

Slightly taken aback and embarrassed as all get out, our heroine left the phone and began shuffling through gift cards and presents and trying to check on who HAD sent the lovely bowl, but she got no place. Later in the day, an old friend called on Madame and naturally the latter launched into the story of the Lowestoft bowl and her dilemma concerning it. The guest asked to see the bowl and the card. When it was produced, the visitor howled for five minutes before she could even speak. It turned out that the bowl in question was one that our heroine had had for at least six years! It happened to be placed on a table where the family arranged their Christmas gifts... and the greeting card from the acquaintance HAPPENED to have fallen into the bowl!!!

Still with Christmas. We like this one about the local woman and the gloves! It seems Madame ordered gloves for the dozens to give her friends. They arrived from the store sans boxes, so she telephoned frantically to have them send individual boxes too sweet. As is usual during holidays, the store didn't rush into the thing, so it was days later before she received them. She put them in the "packaging" room and that evening proceeded to wrap them... all nicely done in million dollar paper, ribbon, decoration and gift tags. After they were finished, she surveyed her handy work with great satisfaction, then proceeded to another room to tidy up some left-over Christmas debris. Much to her horror, she came upon the large box that the gloves were originally delivered in. You're way ahead of us... but correct. All the gloves were STILL IN THE BOX!

Then there is the story about the two cousins who exchange gifts with each other every year. These teen-agers REALLY got mixed up and no foolin'. One received a box of toiletries that she had GIVEN her cousin the year before. The gal recognized a peculiar mark on the box... so knew it was the one she had previously presented to dear couz. What makes the story funny, is that the one who received her gift back again (after a year) had in turn given her cousin a bottle of perfume that had been hanging around the house for ages... a scent she didn't care for. As it turned out... it was a bottle SHE had received from her cousin TWO years previously!

We have seen funny wrong addresses in our life... and we have also received letters addressed to "A. Pryor, Grosse Pointe, Michigan"... but the most far fetched thing we have ever seen, that the addressee actually RECEIVED, came from a store in the East. It was a bill sent just after the holiday and addressed to a well known woman living on the Lake Shore. The address read as follows... and we have the envelope to prove it.
Mrs. T. F. Blank
936 B? Kaje Sgire Dr?m
Detroit, Michigan.

Could be the store makes their employees wear blindfolds while addressing bills. We can account for it no other way... unless a gremlin slipped in while the bill-maker-outer was powdering her nose.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

If, in Philadelphia, everybody reads The Bulletin, certainly, judging by library periodical statistics, everybody in Grosse Pointe reads The New Yorker.

Readers of this magazine could not feel a sense of loss in the recent death of its editor and creator, Harold Wallace Ross. Although unknown to most of them personally, the countless legends circulated about him, caused these readers to feel that they shared his acquaintance.

Dale Kramer's recent biography, "Ross of The New Yorker," will delight all devotees of this weekly, now in its twenty-seventh year. Perhaps an added fillip will be experienced by the older readers who remember well its beginnings in the turbulent twenties.

The impact of the New Yorker on American humor, journalism, art and fiction is undisputed. The book emphasizes this. It is not merely a biography of the late editor but a revealing picture of the times. Here are amusing anecdotes in plenty centering about the American literati of the past twenty years.

Top flight artists whose names have been associated with the New Yorker at various times include Alexander Woollcott, Robert Benchley, Franklin P. Adams, Heywood Brown, Dorothy Parker, Ralph Ingersoll, E. B. White, James Thurber, Katherine Angell and Woolcott Gibbs, to mention only a few. Woollcott and Adams worked with Private Ross when he edited Stars and Stripes, popular magazine of the troops in World War I.

Of course no chronicle of the New Yorker would be complete without a tale or two about Helen Hokinson and Peter Arno, whose cartoons came to be synonymous with the magazine. We think you will find "Ross of The New Yorker" interesting and entertaining.

Ross's sudden death, following so closely the publication of Kramer's book, will no doubt affect the reader's slant somewhat. Bennet Cerf comments on this in the last Saturday Review of Literature. We quote... "Had he (Kramer) known that Ross would be dead within a month of the book's publication, I'm sure that Kramer, an amiable and unprejudiced critic, would have tempered some of his anecdotes and conclusions. As it stands however, it is the best available collection of the multitude of fantastic and often apocryphal legends that people have been telling, and will continue to tell, for years to come, about one of the most colorful and refreshing personalities of our time."

Melitta Roemer of the library staff tells us she has just finished reading "My Mission In Israel" by James G. McDonald and heartily recommends it.

Says Miss Roemer... "This is an absorbing record of the development of the government of Israel told by our first ambassador to the new country. We hear much about the influence of communism today. It is encouraging in these troubled times, to see the birth of a new country whose form of government shows the profound influences of our republic."

Said a voice over the wire, a day or two ago... "I've been known to lose a library book or two in my lifetime but never have I lost a LIBRARY! What has happened to the Woods Branch?"

The Woods Branch, closed for the past two weeks, will reopen in its new quarters, in the Mack wing of the Parcels School, Monday, January 14 at 12:30 o'clock.

Hospital Care

By Fred M. Kopp, R. Ph.

The modern hospital is one of the miracles of medical science. Here every device to detect illness is available, and every known means of aiding the sick is at hand. The corps of doctors and nurses with their varied training and experience are always ready to assist your physician in every way possible. Behind the scenes are medical technicians and the rest of the hospital staff whose job it is to make your stay as comfortable as possible.

When your doctor says hospitalization is necessary remember he does so because he knows the best care for you is available there.

Letters To The Editor

In Memoriam of Frank Diegel

Here is a tribute to a man well known around Grosse Pointe, especially in Grosse Pointe City and around St. Clair avenue. One who was a customary figure walking along the street, mostly fast, too, carrying usually some tools. Frank, or more commonly known as "Cocky," was a versatile man, one who could fix most anything.

But that is not for what he distinguished himself, for even though Frank was in his middle fifties and a veteran of the first World War he was the man we at the Board of Education relied upon to help us out of some embarrassing predicaments. Who else could we call on when coming to work one morning last summer and to our horror discovered the red flag flying from our 75 foot pole, the red flag complete with hammer and sickle, the symbol of everything anti American? The cable holding the flag in place had been cut so it could not be lowered in any other way than that someone had to climb up there to haul it down.

I will never forget when Frank finally was located about 10 a.m. and came walking, along carrying his paraphernalia consisting of a swing-seat with stirrup, belt and ropes and being met by a gathering of anxious school officials at the bottom of the flag pole. I'll never forget the faces on these men when Frank, being unaware of the importance of his mission of taking down that horrid thing on the top of the pole, began reciting some of his experiences in climbing poles. When he finally reached the top and tore down the sign of anti democracy a sigh of relief went up.

Only a few weeks later on Saturday morning the day of the opening of the football season when it is customary to raise the flag on our 60 foot staff at the edge of the football field, we discovered the skull and bones flying from the pole, fixed the same way with the cable cut and the only way to take it down was to go up there and tear it down.

We decided to take matters in our own hands and with the help of a few men got our 60 foot extension ladder, consisting of three sections. We finally got it raised to the top resting against the thin end of the pole swaying in the wind. Then we found that no one of the crew was either willing or dared to climb to the top. Just at this time our friend Frank arrived carrying his equipment. The police must have tipped him off so he came prepared. He, too, shunned the ladder and went up the pole from the bottom up, his usual way, and in no time that token of pranks was removed. The flag raising went off as usual and very few people were aware at that time that much embarrassment was avoided due to our versatile friend.

Frank Diegel will always be remembered by us as the man who tore down the first—and though it may have been only a prank—let us hope the last red flag in Grosse Pointe.

KLAAS JONGENS, Maintenance Chief, Board of Education.

St. Paul Flyers Take Third Victory in Basketball Loop

By Fran Furtaw

The St. Paul Flyers won their third league victory with a 45-36 triumph over St. Catherine's last Friday night, January 4, at South-eastern High.

The Flyers held the lead from the opening minutes of the game and never fell behind. The victory can be attributed to the great spirit on the St. Paul quintet and also to the many foul shot attempts missed by the St. Catherine squad.

In the opening period, St. Paul took a quick 8-4 lead, with bad passes on the part of both teams slowing the action down. At the start of the second period, the Flyers started to roll and outscored their opponents 17-8 with Jack Trombly hitting the hoop for 11 points. St. Paul led 25-12 at halftime.

The third quarter was slow with numerous fouls being called on both teams. The scoring was about even as St. Paul held a 35-21 lead. In the final stanza, St. Catherine dominated the play as they outscored their opponents 15-10 in a fast, rough eight minutes. The fouling by both teams reached its peak in the fourth quarter with St. Paul being penalized slightly less than St. Catherine.

Jack Trombly, of St. Paul, was high scorer of the night with 19 points on 8 field goals and three free throws. His teammate Glen Walters was runnerup on the St. Paul squad with 15 points.

Mickey Martin of St. Catherine, was held below his usual totals as he collected 18 points for the losers. In two previous games this year, he scored 33 and 35 points to break his school's scoring record twice. Tim Champine, St. Paul guard, did a fine job of guarding Martin throughout the night.

Ed Lynch, captain of the Flyers' quintet, and his teammate, Pete Schummer, added the necessary spark to the team.

Coach Ed Lauers, of St. Paul, commented after the game, "The fine spirit and fight, the boys showed throughout the night, was the deciding factor in this victory."

Tomorrow night, January 11, the Flyers will play Annunciation on St. Paul's home court. From all indications, the Annunciation quintet should not offer too hard a game for St. Paul and the Flyers should make it four straight victories in league competition.

Plymouth's Pace-Setting New Belvedere

Here's Plymouth's smart hardtop club coupe, the Belvedere, the pace-setter in the lowest price field with its new concepts in styling and beauty. The car has glistening, lively two-tone colors: Suede Tan with Sable Bronze top; Belmont Blue Polychromatic with Sterling Grey top; Mint Green with Black top. The color used on the roof follows the Belvedere's streamlined contours around the spacious rear window and down over the rear deck, giving the car the continental look. Sparkling chrome molding outlines the top and carries back to separate the two colors at their junction at the rear quarter-panel. The interior is luxurious, with colorful quality fabrics and vinyl blended in perfect harmony with the shades used on the exterior. The new cars can be seen at Michel Motors, located at 19391 Mack avenue in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Puts Finger on Reckless Driver

An alert Pointe citizen, Frank Huxley, Jr. of 528 1/2 St. Clair, played the part of a policeman last Friday, January 4, when he saw a green 1951 Plymouth sedan ignore the stop sign at Goethe as it traveled north on Washington.

Not having the authority to chase and stop the car, Huxley called the Park police station and said he would sign a complaint against this car and gave the license number.

A check of the license number revealed the owner of the vehicle as Emma Marie Sweet of 542 Lakepointe. Undoubtedly she will receive a notice from the Park police informing her of her infraction of the traffic violation and the complaint against her.

"The Cat"

informed that there had been a dog in the T. D. Buhl home which he robbed at 260 Ridge road. "I'd never go there if I knew that," he said. "I wouldn't even go to a house where I knew there was a dog next door."

Cats Scared Him

He said the four cats roaming the Buhl house nearly kept him from going ahead with the robbery there. "I didn't know how much of a fuss they might kick up," he said.

Morris told Chief Louwers he spent every day last summer at the Detroit race track and that he had lost $1500. His constant hope during his house robberies, he said, was to make one good haul so he could get even. He said he was trying to put his wife through beauty school.

Not Good at Cards

It has also been established that "The Cat" was an inveterate poker player. He wasn't as good at cards as at thievery, as his sharp companions were taking his money away as fast as he could steal it.

Middies Lead Rotary Loop

Middle Atl. Transp. Co. clung to its slim lead in the G. P. Rotary Club Bowling League by holding Kopp's Pharmacy, 2-2. Although winning only one game, the Middies came up with a big one, 889, enough to give them total pins by 18. Mitt Grossmeyer's 242 was a big helper for the team that won the trophy last year.

P. & J. Cocktail Lounge dropped another series, this time to the Village Wine Shop. Art Louwers has a good team here and it is very seldom these boys get in a rut. Art almost had a triplicate last Friday. He had 179 in his first and second game but just couldn't make it in the last one. . . 178 was all he could get.

The rest of the teams in the league ended up in the same score, they either lost 3 or won 3. Piche's Barber Shop lost to Wolverine Potato Chips. . . Auto Club won from Farms Market. . . Earl Holzbaugh Motors skidded past Motor City Tires and in the last match Monday Cleaners stalled Steiner Ford.

Spire Twins Hostesses At Dinner Party in Home

Twins Shirley and Gloria Spire were hostesses at a dinner party in their home in York-shire road on January 4.

Among those present were Marilyn Baker, Pat Van Hollebeke, Carol Staats, Sharon McMonigle, Barbara Bonneau, Jean Sharrow, and Jane Van Hollebeke.

The party rounded out a series that had been given during the holiday season.

Cottage Hospital Plans Seminars for All Nurses

On Monday, January 14, from 7-8 p.m. the first of the winter series of biweekly seminars sponsored by the Nursing Department of Cottage Hospital, under Miss L. Anna Youngs, R.N., will be conducted by Dr. J. Wenzel.

All nurses of the community are cordially invited to attend any or all these meetings.

The next meeting on January 28 will be conducted by Dr. George Rogers.

St. Charles Beats St. Ambrose Five

By FRAN FURTAW

The St. Ambrose cage squad lost its third straight league contest to St. Charles 50-30, last Friday, January 4, on the Cavaliers' home court.

St. Ambrose was very weak at the foul line, making only six out of 16 attempts.

For the winners, Bob Rilly and Stan Lecavage shared the scoring honors with 15 points each. Bill McClellan was high for St. Ambrose with 12 points.

The next game for the Cavaliers will be against St. Mary's of Mt. Clemens on the local court, tomorrow night, January 11.

John P. Hookers Announce Birth of Daughter in West

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar D. Flintermann of Touraine road are the grandparents of a new grandson, John Jeffery Hooker who was born Jan. 3 in Phoenix, Ariz.

They received the glad tidings when their daughter, Mrs. John P. Hooker, wired them from the west.

Mrs. Hooker, the former Joan Flintermann, and her husband are living in the El Encanto Apts., in Phoenix. Mr. Hooker is stationed at the Luke Air Force Base just outside the town.

Crash Caused By Icy Street

A skid through a stop intersection and a driver proceeding without due caution under slippery conditions resulted in a minor accident at Bishop and Maumee last Thursday, December 27.
Clarence M. Justice, 1188
Bishop, was driving his 1951
Pontiac south on Bishop and failed to bring his car to a stop on the icy pavement and skidded into Maumee. Harold H. Emmons
Jr., 8 Radnor circle, going west on Maumee too fast under the slippery conditions, plowed into the left side of Justice's car, causing minor damage to both vehicles.
Park police issued tickets to both drivers. Justice got his for not having his car under control and Emmons received his for driving too fast for the condition of the street. Neither driver was speeding.

Vivienne Kitson Holiday Bride

A gown of white Italian silk satin and Alencon lace was worn by Vivienne Barbara Kitson Saturday evening when she became the bride of Ralph W. McPhee
Jr. of Ann Arbor.
Vivienne and Ralph were married in the home of her parents,
Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Herbert
Kitson of Sunningdale drive.
Before an improvised altar, banked with white poinsettias, lilies and Roman hyacinths, the young couple spoke its marriage vows. Vivienne's wedding costume was completed by Juliet cap of imported silk illusion which held her bridal veil. She carried white orchids, hyacinth and ivy in her wedding bouquet.

Only the New York photographers seem to be able to capture the ivory beauty of Mrs. C. Henry Buhl . . . we can remember a particularly lovely picture . . . taken of her in New York some 15 years ago and it wasn't until this Christmas that we saw one we liked as well . . . It too was taken in New York and reprinted by one of the Detroit papers.

Post deb Fat Texter's mother . . . Mrs. Elmer C. Texter, is seriously considering taking the Cordon-Bleu cooking course . . . Her first biscuits . . . as a bride . . . were preserved by Dr. Texter . . . (and her own recipe) . . . reposed all these years in a safety vault.

A husband got the doctor on the phone and told him his wife's jaws had set. She couldn't make a sound.

"So you consider it serious, do you, Doc?" he asked. "Well, if you happen to be around in this part of town in a month or six weeks, make it a point to look in."

Comment: You can always depend upon the U. S. Senate to hit the nail on the thumb.

PILFERINGS

Of Time and the Reader

"Reading all these long-gone-with-the-winded novels, some people are going gaga; What this country needs is a good five-cent saga."
—David McCords.

Walter Winchell once reported that woebegone man was explaining his plight to the director of the old Good Will hour.

"Mr. Anthony," he ended, "you see my position. My best friend ran away with my wife. They've been gone a month. And, Mr. Anthony, I miss him."

Groucho Marx, says Louis Untermeyer, is as rapid with comeback over the radio as he is on stage and screen. His sense of timing is marvelous and is surpassed only by his sense of nonsense.

He has a way of entering a room with a blithe impertinence and leaving it with a light-hearted insult. "I've had a wonderful evening," he remarked to a Hollywood hostess, "But this wasn't it."

Another hostess, unaware of Groucho's talent for deflation, exclaimed, "Oh, Mr. Marx, I just love nature!" "That's loyalty," said Groucho, "after what nature did to you."

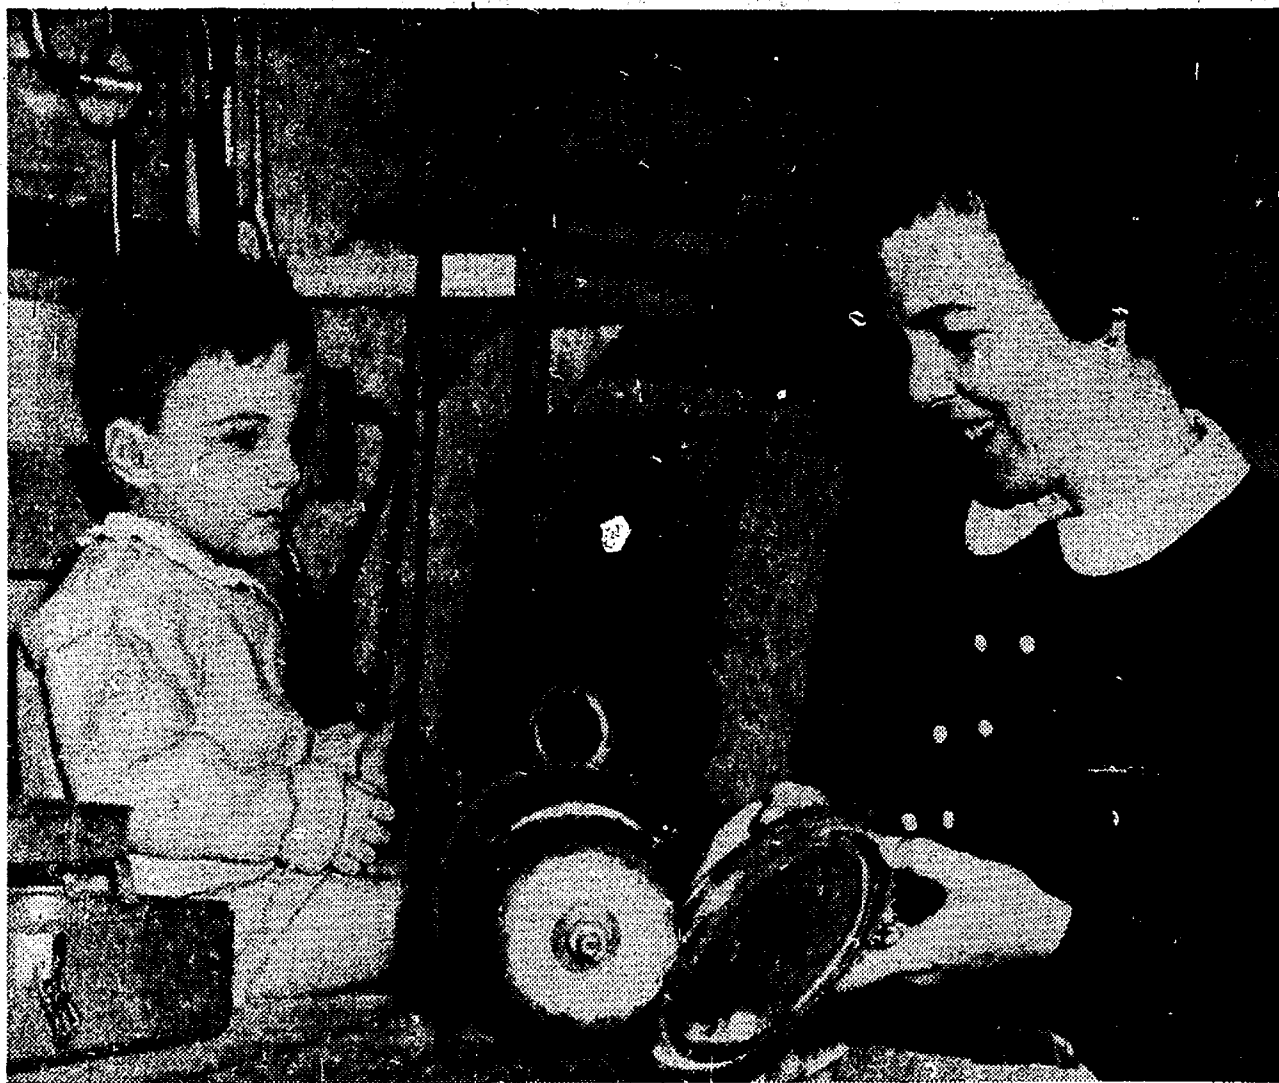

His most devastating retort was to an officious celebrity chaser who approached him at a party. "You remember me, of course, Mr. Marx. We met at the Redmans, remember?" "I never forget a face," replied Groucho, "But in your case I'll make an exception."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. JOHN H. LONGLEY OF MEADOW LANE

Picture by Fred Runnells

There's quite a colony of silver craftsmen blossoming among the distaff Grosse Pointers and one of the most facile artists is Mrs. John H. Longley of Meadow Lane.

Mrs. Longley, an attractive, slim young woman, with two pre-school children, manages to find time between household and community duties to produce an enviable amount of fine works.

On entering the living room of her home even the most casual layman is immediately aware of the gleaming silver accessories, outstanding because of their fine workmanship.

Eye-Catcher

Especially eye-catching is the desk set and ink well set, both made with a tulip design which distinguishes much of the artist's work.

Hours are consumed in polishing and buffing the pieces to give that finished perfection and Mrs. Longley figures that the ink well set took a conservative 100 hours to complete.

She built the intricate silver design top and holder around a small glass container and soldered it to a similarly designed tray.

Letter openers abound at the Longley house and all are of original design. In fact that is the one requisite of passing muster when the finished product is shown her instructors.

Held Weekly Classes

She attends classes in silversmithing at the Fred Egans' in Nottingham road. They have a regular little shop set up in the basement of their home, and that is where so many Grosse Pointers meet every Monday for a three hour work session.

It is there that she shapes and molds her pieces (she's working on a ladle at the present time), and then she takes them home for buffing in her spare time.

And all those lovely pieces, including pins, rings, cigaret boxes, pickle forks, baby spoons and sugar tongs, make most welcome gifts for the recipients.

Ideal Wedding Gifts

For instance the sugar tongs are usually set aside as the ideal wedding gifts. The baby spoons are always appliqued with a bunny or an elephant to make feeding a more interesting process for its little owner.

In the jewelry collection is a particularly lovely circular pin set with six gray-blue moonstones which Mrs. Longley fashioned with tulip blossoms in between the settings.

For her husband, an ardent sailor, and who as navigator of the Escape will soon be taking off for Bermuda, Mrs. Longley is making a brass and copper design which when complete will form a ship's wheel.

Husband Also Artisan

Mr. Longley is no slouch himself when it comes to fine workmanship. While his wife works at her buffer in the basement, he constructs closets and pieces of furniture for the house.

In trim, and nautical fashions, his tools and machines are compactly sectioned in the far corner of the room and with a minimum of effort he can move from the electric saw to the planer or the lathe.

Among the Grosse Pointe contingent in the silversmithing class are Mrs. Tom Green, Mrs. John Glover, who is now working on a christening bowl; Mrs. Henry Hopkes Jr., Mrs. Harvey Kimerly and Mrs. Stephen Bradley.

Convent Grads Feted at Party

Grosse Pointe Sacred Heart Convent alumnae and their escorts were entertained on Saturday, December 29, by Carole Jakko in her holly-decked home in Lochmoor boulevard. Her date was Bob Foney.

Jim Alter and his wife recorder added much to the evening. Couple attending included: Mary Coyle and Dan Devine, Jennie Keim and Bill Isbey, Donna Vitale and Jim Alter, Sue Hurley and Greg Fredricks, Carol Zimmers and Bill Mondry, Betsy Burnett and Mart Mogge, Pattie Morrissey and Terry Williams.

Others were: Jerry Devine and Bob Hinsberg, Janet Galludet and Dick Coyle, Sue Gibb and Church Luce, Marcella Seymour and Dick Kline, Lorry Gonzo and Pap Watson.

Stags were Emmett Tracy, Pete Kennedy and Fred Schroeder.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club to Meet Jan. 14

The Grosse Pointe Alumnae Club of Pi Beta Phi will meet at 8 o'clock on Monday evening, January 14, at the home of Mrs. Arthur E. Wilson of St. Clair avenue.

Assisting Mrs. Wilson will be Mrs. R. L. Duncan and Mrs. Albert P. Teetzel, Jr.

Reflections

by paul gach

Does your telephone ring and ring only to find a smooth voice at the other end announcing a new consumer survey or radio jack pot question? Or maybe we just happen to be going past your house today and you've been selected (selected? —picked on!) to have a free picture made. If so, don't be discouraged. Just have your phone disconnected. The Supreme Court calls it invasion of the privacy of one's home. I think it an insult and an outrage. If I call or someone from my studio calls, you may be sure we have a legitimate reason for taking your time.
