Walter Dedow Dies After Remaining Unconscious For Eight Days Following Fall

Shortly after his transfer from Bon Secours Hospital to Receiving Hospital in Detroit last Sunday, Walter Dedow, aged 60, of 466 Ashland, died.

Dedow had been unconscious since the night of April 19, after Grosse Pointe Park police found him lying on the sidewalk on Maryland, north of Kercheval. He said that Dedow had been hemorrhaging internally from the head.

Had Robbed Store Investigation revealed that Dedow had robbed Bell Drugs, at the corner of Kercheval and Alter road in Detroit, a short time before he was found. He had taken $45 from one of the cash registers while the store's manager, Bruno Wronski, was in the basement.

A girl at the soda fountain had seen Dedow reach into the cash register, and warned Wronski, who immediately gave chase. He later told police that he found Dedow on the ground outside the store, banging his head into the sidewalk. Wronski went back to the store to notify the police, and when he returned, Dedow had gone. It was shortly afterward that the police picked him up and took him to Bon Secours.

Police Asked Transfer Detroit police, who are handling the case, requested that Dedow be transferred to Receiving Hospital Sunday. Doctors at Receiving had earlier refused to accept the responsibility of moving him, but officials of both

Round-up of Gang of Youths Solves Long Series of Car Burglaries and Other Crimes

Six Minors and Five Juveniles Enmeshed in Long List of Misdemeanors; Strong-arming and Robbery of 60-Year-Old Man Admitted

Last week Detective Sgt. Stanley Enders of the Grosse Pointe Park police completed a report that closed investigation of a series of auto thefts, larcenies from automobiles, and a strong arming in Detroit and Grosse Pointe.

Named in the report were six minors, James Flood, aged 18, of 1241 Bishop; 17-year-olds Terry Messner, of 611 Rivard; Erich Schneider, of 1537 Roslyn; Norris Ouellette, of 1115 Nottingham; David Balkema, of 1527 Alter, Detroit; Richard Staton, 3144 Alter, Detroit; and five juveniles.

Girls Give Information The investigation, which eventually cleared one complaint of unarmed robbery, 12 instances of auto theft, and three charges of car stripping, began after two juvenile girls, questioned by the Detroit Police Youth Bureau, gave information that started a chain reaction of arrests and confessions. Preliminary investigations conducted by Detective Sgts. Elmer Labadie and Andrew Teetaert of the Farms and City police, respectively, and Patrolman Boone of Grosse Pointe Park, led to the arrest of several of the boys involved. As a result two cases of auto thefts were cleared in the Farms and City.

Admit Car Thefts Grosse Pointe Park police continued their investigations, and on March 29, Sgt. Arnold Hough and Patrolman Donald Dean arrested Norris Ouellette at his home. Questioning of Ouellette disclosed that David Balkema, in the company of others, had stolen a station wagon from 1222 Bedford, on the evening of March 25, and had later picked up Ouellette, Flood, Messner, Schneider, one of the juvenile boys, and the two girls.

The group then drove to Lexington, Michigan, the following day, and later returned to Detroit. After abandoning the station wagon, Ouellette and Messner took a 1947 Plymouth, used it for some time, and left it, finally, on Gray avenue in Detroit.

Arrested at School By order of Arthur Louwers, Chief of the Park police, Balkema was arrested while in class at Southeastern High School. Questioning by Sgt. Enders and Patrolman Dean and Boone brought a confession from Balkema to several larcenies from cars, auto

Two Hurt As Car Hits Light Pole

Both 18-year-old Mary Ann Fisher and Edward F. Davis, aged 20, were injured April 26, when Davis' automobile struck the concrete base of a street light pole on Jefferson avenue. Davis had been, travelling at 30 miles an hour west on Jefferson when he fell asleep at the wheel.

Mary Ann was treated at Bon Secours Hospital for a laceration on the chin. Davis was treated for a cut over his left eye and on the left arm. Both live in Berkley, Michigan.

Grosse Pointe Park police issued Davis a ticket for not having his car under control.

Army Camp Grievances Being Aired

Committee Headed by Park Manager Takes Up Matter With Military Heads

Because of a number of complaints about the conduct of some of the soldiers based at the foot of Three Mile drive in Grosse Pointe Park, a citizen's committee, headed by Everett Lane, Park city manager, met with Army officials to present their grievances and put a stop to the disturbances.

The committee, representing property owners near the base, charged that the post personnel had used abusive language, and had generally conducted themselves in a disorderly manner.

Cite Grievances It had been previously charged at a meeting of the city council that excessive noise was made by the traffic of the heavy Army vehicles that the post permitted unsanitary conditions, and that women had occasionally been seen around the camp gates.

At the same meeting some of the residents lashed out at the lack of police patrols in the area. Arthur Louwers, chief of the Park police, stated that the section south of Jefferson avenue receives as much if not more protection and consideration as any other city area its size. One police car is given to patrol that section alone at all times, in addition to regular checks by a police sergeant.

More Protection Within the past week, additional police protection has been afforded the area, and "No Parking" signs have been posted around the camp.

Army officials meeting with the citizen's committee conceded that there may have been cases of neglect on the part of the base's personnel. Poor discipline they explained, resulted from the weekly change of commanding officers. However, each new officer will hereafter contact city officials for familiarization with local ordinances. They will also be instructed to tighten discipline.

It was also suggested by Army spokesmen that further complaints be referred to them for action.

CAR ROBE STOLEN

Robert A. Kraft, 15880 Linnhurst, Detroit, reported the theft of a car robe, valued at $15, from the front seat of his 1952 Chevrolet, while the car was parked in front of the Woods Recreation building, at 20422 Mack avenue, on April 25.

Flood Protection Measures Called Most Inadequate

Park Councilman Burgess Calls for Action Following Study of Independent Survey; Cites Great Potential Disaster

New warnings were raised concerning the flood conditions at a meeting of the Grosse Pointe Park city council last Monday. It was declared that the present protective steps taken along the lake front and the East bank of Fox Creek were inadequate.

The possibility of constructing a dike of a permanent nature along Fox Creek received some attention in that it would lessen considerably any threat of rising waters in the future. Because it is impossible now to predict the water levels of 1953, Detroit engineers had suggested such a dike be constructed along the banks of the creek.

Would Cost $800,000 The wall of heavy steel sheeting would extend for nearly 6,000 feet, following the banks of the creek, at an estimated cost of $800,000.

Should the waters of Fox Creek overflow, over 900 basements in the section of the municipality south of Jefferson avenue would be flooded. The resulting loss would reach into hundreds of thousands of dollars. The area would rest under two or three feet of water, and sewers would become overloaded to the point of backing up and flooding homes north of Jefferson. The land and building evaluation combined, in that sector, is about $14,000,000.

Threat of Disaster The threat of disaster was poignantly brought out by the results of an independent survey made by a resident of the 800 block on Westchester, Ellis Wood. Fox Creek now stands 30 inches above the land around his house. It is 8 inches above the tops of his basement windows, or about even with the first floor level of the house.

Accepting the prediction of hydrographic experts that the water level will continue to rise another two feet, a storm from the southeast would bring a crest of an additional foot. Coupled with a heavy rain, so that storm water.

Tennis Clinic Set For May 3

Another Tennis Clinic will be held at the Neighborhood Club on May 3. Conducting the clinic will be Mrs. Jean Hoxie, assisted by William Mikulich and Roland H. Gray. Gray's Sport Shop sponsors the clinic.

The time schedule will be as follows: children up to and including 12 years of age, 9:30 to 11, and from 11 to 12 will be for the children 13 years and up. Wear rubber soled shoes and bring your own racquets. The balls will be furnished by the Wilson Sporting Goods Company and Gray's Racquet and Sport Shop.

Mrs. Hoxie, who is recognized as one of the game's foremost teachers has conducted clinics in various cities, colleges and clubs throughout the United States. She has also made several trips to Europe giving clinics in England, Spain, France, Belgium, Greece and Egypt.

This clinic offers all of Grosse Pointe an excellent chance to learn some of the fundamentals of the game of tennis. Last week's clinic was very well attended.

Visit to City Park Urged Before Town Hall Meeting

Residents of the City of Grosse Pointe are manifesting a great deal of interest in the Town Hall meeting scheduled for Tuesday night, May 13, according to the committee in charge of arrangements. The purpose of the meeting is to hold a public discussion on recreational facilities in the city and find out whether the residents favor a development program.

The committee hopes that discussion can be limited to improvements at the lakefront park, where major projects, such as a new pier and a swimming pool have been advocated.

All City residents are being urged to visit the park before the meeting so they will be familiar

Mobile Unit Coming Here Tomorrow

Red Cross Bloodmobile to be Stationed at Memorial Center From 2:30 to 8:30 p.m.

The Red Cross Bloodmobile will return to the Pointe tomorrow, Friday, May 2, and will be stationed at the War Memorial Center from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m. As has been the case in past collections, very few persons have called the Center to make appointments and the success of this visit will be determined by the number of volunteers who appear at the last minute.

Appointments may be made by calling TUxedo 1-6030 and information will be furnished on providing transportation and children care where needed. A group of girls has volunteered to take care of any children whose parents find it necessary to take them to the Center while they are making donations. The same group will also help serve the workers supper.

Members of this group include Sarah Goddard, Susan Whitehead, Betsy Davidson, Rosemary Chesborough and Joyce Mitchell. Canteen workers include: Mrs. Paul Erickson, Mrs. J. Sweedyk, Mrs. David Sickelsteel, Mrs. Howard Quinney, Miss Frances O'Reilly and Miss Elizabeth Cady.

Own Mobile Unit

The Neighbors Club of the Center has set up its own mobile unit group which has been working with the Red Cross. This will be the first time it has had the opportunity to work in its own headquarters. Members of this group are: Mrs. William Rochelle, Mrs. G. H. Funk, Mrs. P. B. Hopkins, Mrs. D. M. Corson, Mrs. S. W. Arnold, Mrs. Daniel Schaitberger, Mrs. E. E. Stetson, Mrs. Alvin Borchardt, Mrs. Alex Kennedy and Mrs. W. R. McAdow.

Collection Committee

The Collection Committee for the Center is comprised of Mrs. Harther L. Keim, Mrs. Jerry Hughes, Mrs. Frank Lister, Mrs. James W. Lee III and Mrs. Wendell C. Goddard.

School Election Set For June 9

According to a recent amendment in the state law, any voter who is registered for city, state, or national elections is also registered and therefore qualified to vote in school elections.

Henceforth, no registration for school elections can be made at the schools or at the Board of Education offices as has been possible in past years. Only one registration for all elections is now necessary, and such registration must be made at the city or township clerk's office.

Monday, June 2, is the last date for registration for the annual school election which takes place this year on June 9.

Also, under the new law the last date that a person may file as a candidate for the Board of Education is May 9. Under the present provisions of the law, a person filing as a candidate for the Board of Education must have petitions signed by not less than 50 qualified electors and not more than 75.

Members of the Board of Education are elected for a three year term of office. The only member whose term of office expires this year is Mr. Bert Wicking, who is the current President of the Board. Mr. Wicking has announced that he will be a candidate for re-election.

Fails to Stop After Accident

Shirley Rance, of 21754 Rein, Detroit, reported to Grosse Pointe Woods police that she had been in an accident with another car on Mack avenue near Newcastle, April 26, and that the driver of the other automobile had failed to stop.

A check with Lansing proved that the car, whose license Mrs. Rance had given to the police, belonged to John A. McCann, of 22725 Euclid, St. Clair Shores. Mrs. Rance told police that she would contact McCann and arrange for settlement. Damage to her car amounted to $15.

er would necessarily be pumped into Fox Creek, the creek would rise another foot. Under those conditions the water level in the creek would be four feet higher than it is at present, and four feet deep in the living-room of the Westchester home. The sewer system would back up, flooding areas north of Jefferson.

Wants Stronger Dikes

It was urged by Councilman Peter Burgess that the existing dikes in the Park, following the shoreline and Fox Creek, be strengthened. It was suggested, also, by Everitt Lane, Park city manager, that rather than follow the plan proposed by Detroit engineers, wide-based embankments of clay be built along the water's edge and packed solid by air hammers. Such a measure, it was cited, would be highly effective and not nearly as costly.

Asks Resolutions

Depicting the situation as "... the greatest potential disaster Grosse Pointe Park will ever face, short of wartime air raids," Burgess called for adoption of resolutions that would enjoin "appropriate agencies (of Detroit) to work fully and completely with Grosse Pointe Park to assure a well constructed, adequate and permanent dike along the east side of Fox Creek," and urged "the citizens of Grosse Pointe Park to use their collective and individual influence to secure the full and complete cooperation of the City of Detroit," pertaining to the Fox Creek dike.

Wants Federal Help

Burgess also proposed that letters be sent to President Truman, and to all senators and congressmen, urging that the Federal Government do everything possible toward "... a joint Canadian-American effort to prevent Lake Superior floods at the possible expense of property on the shores of Lakes Huron, Erie, Michigan, St. Clair and Ontario."

Arrest Gang

thefts, and the strong arming. Balkema also implicated others.

Following Balkema's confession, Stator and four juveniles were picked up at their schools. Questioned by Enders, Stator and two of the juveniles confessed to the strong arming, as had Balkema earlier, of John D. Clancy, aged 60, of 1425 Maryland. They had robbed Clancy on March 5, of $75 while he was walking across a vacant lot at night, at Maryland and Charlevoix. Clancy was also injured during the robbery when the hoodlums knocked him to the ground. Further questioning revealed that the group had stolen several cars and committed larcenies from others.

Stole Car Radio

Balkema was arraigned before Judge C. Joseph Belanger for larceny of a radio from a car stolen by him and one juvenile. Balkema pleaded guilty to the charge and his case was bound over to circuit court for sentencing.

The cases against Ouellette and Messner were referred to Probate Court.

Stator, who had attained 17 years of age two days before the strong arming, was referred to the Wayward Minor Division of the Wayne County Probate Court.

Three Not Involved

No case could be built against Schneider and one of the juveniles.

Flood's case was turned over to the 6th Precinct in Detroit for disposition.

The other juveniles were filed on in Juvenile Court April 10, by Sgt. Enders on charges of auto theft, larceny from autos, and unarmed robbery. Officers of the Youth Bureau will file on those who were involved in the Detroit cases.

Rider Knocked Off Motorcycle

While attempting a turn off Moross road, April 23, Evelyn Schrage, of 210 Touraine, knocked Dieudonne Julien, of 4380 Marcellines, Detroit, from his motorcycle. Riderless, the motorcycle careened down Moross until it was finally upset at the curb. The driver of the car was ticketed for making an improper turn, and Julien received a ticket for not having his vehicle under control.

Richard P.T.A. To Meet May 5

The final meeting of the Richard School P.T.A. for the 1951-52 school year comes on Monday evening, May 5, at 8 o'clock, in the auditorium of the school.

A program arranged by the school staff will consist of a brief business session; several tape recordings of the music program of the school, a presentation by the use of kodachromes of general school features; a discussion of pertinent school problems and a visit in the rooms with the teachers. All are cordially invited to be present.

Mr. Koning, president-elect for next year and acting president now in the absence of Mr. Risk, will preside at the gathering. A number of the officers and chairmen will finish their year's work namely: Miss Norris, secretary; Mrs. Warren, the treasurer, and Mrs. Elliot, the program chairman.

Though the Richard orchestra or vocal groups will not be present in person, a sample of their work will be given through the recorder in charge of Mrs. Dombrowski. Both Miss Ream and Miss Ernst, directors of the music, will be present. Miss Ream has been the instrumental teacher at the building this year, for three half days a week. Likewise, Miss Ernst has done the vocal work in the upper grades, also three half days per week.

For the celebration of the 100 anniversary of the Michigan Education Association in Detroit during the week of April 14, Grosse Pointe Schools had an exhibit of kodachrome slides with a brief recording explaining the photos. Many of the pictures are from local schools. This project will be presented by Miss Norris.

Finally the parents will be given the opportunity to visit in the several classrooms. Teachers will be present and an opportunity will be given to see the pupils' work, to talk briefly with staff members, and to meet the other parents of the room.

Mrs. A. J. Garska Taken By Death

Florence Garska, aged 63, died Monday night, April 28, at her home in 1029 Nottingham.

Mrs. Garska is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Jack Brazil, and Mrs. Clayton Grobe, of Arizona; one son, Lawrence J.; and husband, Alfred J.

Mr. Garska, who for 22 years had been active in the government of Grosse Pointe Park, served for 13 years as president of the community when it was a village. He retired in 1939. The funeral will take place today, May 1, from the Verheyden Funeral Home to St. Ambrose Church. Interment will be in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

St. Clair Shores police recovered a stolen car belonging to Mrs. Robert Weiss, 24860 Hayes, Detroit, on April 22. Mrs. Weiss had reported the theft to Grosse Pointe Woods police. She said the car had been parked in front of a Kenmore residence at the time.

Blood Needed

Tuesday to stress the importance of this collection. While the normal quota for the Detroit area is 1000 pints per month, collections have fallen behind this mark and it is necessary to collect 36,000 pints during May and June to reach the established quota.

No collection of under 100 pints can be considered a success, according to the Red Cross. The mobile units and their working staffs are being used inefficiently if a collection falls below this point.

Fifth Collection

This will be the fifth collection made in the Pointe during the last 18 months. Each one has been more successful than the one before, and it is hoped this will be no exception. The first collection at the Center netted 105 pints. A second, also made there, brought in 117 pints.

A group of seven churches, headed by the Grosse Pointe Congregational, organized the third collection and produced 172 pints. The fourth collection was again held at the Center on January 11 last and netted 173 pints.

Notify 300 Donors

The Collection Committee has obtained a list of some 300 donors who have given blood during these Pointe collections. Cards have been sent to them asking them to appear for this donation, citing the fact that the required 12 weeks have more than elapsed since they last gave in the Pointe. The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club is conducting a campaign to build up its own blood bank and has set a goal of 100 percent participation and 100 pints of blood at this collection. Members who for any reason are not able to donate their own blood have been asked to send checks for $15 to the club, for which the club will hire a professional donor.

Now Up to Residents

Everything possible has been done to make it convenient for Pointers to join the ranks of the millions who have been giving the precious life-giving fluid. It is now up to the residents to make this collection a great success of a failure. The donor may designate whether he wants his blood to be sent to the armed forces or credited to a bank of his choosing.

The process is painless and the time required is negligible. Call the Center now for an appointment, or just go over to 32 Lake Shore road tomorrow any time between the hours of 2:30 and 8:30. Your donation is urgently needed and will be greatly appreciated.

Motor Bicyclist Tangles With Car

Frederick R. Baker, of 1415 Bishop, received a cut over his left eye, April 22, when the front of his motor bike hooked on the rear bumper of the 1950 Chrysler driven by Boris Kuruchki, of 2313 Finley.

Kuruchki had attempted a turn from Charlevoix onto Balfour road when Baker hit him. Baker told police that he had seen the car ahead start the turn, and he looked behind to see if there was other traffic. It was then that he hit the bumper and was thrown from his motor bike.

Garage Damaged In Woods Blaze

Approximately $100 damage resulted from a garage fire, April 22, at the rear of Ducky's Restaurant, 20780 Mack avenue. Woods police and volunteers put out the blaze with a booster hose.

Police said the fire was started by live ashes from rubbish burning in the alley.

plays, enacted in the lower grades; and in all schools the carrying over from school to home timely news and suggestions about Clean-Up.

Churches Helping Too Through the churches, too, the good word will be carried along, from the pulpit or in the leaflets.

The Neighborhood Club youngsters and those at Grosse Pointe Woods Community Center will be busy cleaning up all the corners where papers and rubbish have collected during the winter; those hard to get at spots that call for agility and energy.

Home Owners Can Help In the area of regular pick-up agencies, the home owner can help himself as well as the agency.

Don't forget the school clothing drive sponsored by the Volunteers of America, also; the Goodwill Industries and St. Vincent de Paul. They may be too busy to collect during the Clean-Up campaign but save household articles and clothing for them.

One of these sunny days drop in at the Memorial Center to see the Garden Center Exhibit which Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson has arranged. Besides the many Clean-Up suggestions there is a most unusual map of all the Grosse Pointes. On it is marked the location of each deceased elm in Grosse Pointe.

Spray Firewood All have heard and read much of the Dutch Elm Disease and its control, but Mrs. Louis Robinson and Mrs. George Munro II wish to suggest to all owners of wood piles for firewood, that when their elms are sprayed, they have the cones examined. It often harbors the beetle, so should be sprayed also. Either of these committee members or the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Ass'n will gladly give further information on this vital subject.

Daily the communities are reporting new cooperation in the drive. The Farms is mailing to

Memorial Church to Have New Carillon

MALCOLM M. JOHNS, organist and Music Director at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, points out installation plans for the 39 memorial bells that arrived Monday from Holland. NORMAN J. BOEHM, chairman of the Carillon Committee, holds diagram as Chairman of the Music Committee DAVID O. HAMILTON, looks on.

Drinking Driver Pays $100 Fine

At the Municipal Court session in the City of Grosse Pointe, April 28, Judge Leslie P. Young placed a fine of $100 against Robert M. Smith, of 9240 Camely avenue, Detroit. Smith was found guilty of driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was also charged $5 in court costs.

Raymond Henry, of 11211 East Jefferson avenue, Detroit, was found not guilty of a charge of not having his car under control, causing an accident.

Truck Hits Car Entering Alley

While attempting a right turn into an alley from Fisher road, April 23, Chester Norton, of 2657 Coplin, Detroit, struck the 1949 Pontiac driven north on Fisher by Stanley Ernst, Jr., of 818 Sunningdale.

Ernst's automobile received damages to the left front fender and door estimated at $40. No damages resulted to Norton's Chevrolet truck.

20-Ton Carillon Being Hung In Memorial Church Tower

Thirty-nine new bells are being lifted into place in the tower of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The arrival of the bells last Monday marked the realization of an idea born in November of 1950.

Norman J. Boehm, then chairman of the church's music committee, fostered the idea, and with the help of David O. Hamilton, present chairman, the necessary funds were obtained and arrangements made for the purchase of the bells.

The bells were shipped from Rotterdam, Holland, April 2. They were cast in Aarle Rextel by Petit Fritsen, a family organization that has been making bells since 1660, and is well known throughout Canada and Europe.

Durant to Talk To Center Group

The Young Adult Council of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association will sponsor a political talk with former Republican Congressional candidate, Richard Durant, as speaker, on Friday, May 2 at 8:30 p.m. at the Center. Mr. Durant has chosen "United States Foreign Policy" as his subject, and the program is open to everyone from 18 through the 30s.

Mr. Durant plans to speak for a half hour on foreign policy, and then will open the discussion to the group.

After the discussion refreshments will be served on the terrace, weather permitting, together with dancing, cards, and an informal mixer. Al LaBelle, chairman of the affair, has emphasized that this is not a date party, however, dates will be welcome of course. Many of the Young Republicans and Fortnighters are expected to attend this meeting.

This meeting is only one of the activities which the Young Adult Council plans during the year to provide opportunity for more of the younger Grosse Pointe residents to become better acquainted. Other activities include orchestra dances, card parties, square dances, travel movies and other varied programs.

There will be a nominal charge of fifty cents per person to cover cost of refreshments.

WHATEVER BECAME OF 'LETTIE'?

'Lettie' was the second oldest daughter of Aaron Simms who may have owned the farm where your home stands today.

Old deeds and records will show that 'Lettie' married the neighbor's son and lived to a ripe old age. If you have an abstract covering your property, 'Lettie's' allotted span of years may be recorded there. An abstract is interesting reading, perhaps, but no guarantee of your ownership of that land, today.

On the other hand, a title insurance policy gives you a money-back guarantee. You get paid the full value of your home in the event your title fails or proves to be unmarketable.

It's smart to insist on title insurance on all your real estate holdings, and it's smart to get that protection from Michigan's oldest title insurance company--

Welcome to New Teachers

Because of the growth of the Grosse Pointe community and the subsequent increased enrollment in the public schools, the Grosse Pointe School Board has made some 30 appointments to the different faculties.

These appointments have also been made because of the need to replace those teachers leaving the Public School system for reasons of transfer or retirement.

By way of introduction to the parents of children who will attend or who are now attending the public schools, the NEWS is publishing weekly short biographies of those whose appointments have been confirmed. During the coming months until school reopens in the fall, the biographies of new teachers will appear in each issue.

The Grosse Pointe School Board announces the appointment of MISS FRANCES AMENT to the teaching staff of Vernier School. Now teaching in St. Clair Shores, Miss Ament received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Western Michigan College last February.

Miss Ament, aged 21, lives at 4497 Kensington, Detroit. She is a graduate of Southeastern High School. It is expected that she will teach the middle elementary grades at Vernier. At that time she plans to begin work toward her Master's degree.

MISS NORMA JEAN MILLER has received appointment to the faculty of Mason School. According to officials of the Grosse Pointe School Board, she will probably teach students of the third grade.

A graduate of Southeastern High School, Miss Miller is currently receiving her B.A. in Elementary Education at Michigan State College. She is 22 and lives at 1350 East Jefferson avenue, Detroit.

Library Friends To Hear Author

By DON FREEMAN
Mrs. Haldeman Finnie will conduct a review for the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library next Tuesday evening, May 6, at 8:30 in the Main Branch located at Pierce Junior High School in Kercheval avenue. Her subject will be "The Theatre as an Art."

Speaking of the theatre from an esthetic point of view, Mrs. Finnie will draw from three books, the first two recent publications: "Dance to the Piper" by Agnes DeMille, "The Magic Curtain" by Lawrence Lerner, and "My Life in Art" by Stanislawski.

Writing under her maiden name, Isabella Holt, Mrs. Finnie has produced numerous short stories plus seven novels, the latest to be released this fall. Her last published book was entitled "My Son and Heir."

Originally from Chicago, Mrs. Finnie has lived in the Pointe from the time of her marriage. After graduation from Miss Spencer's School in New York, Mrs. Finnie spent four more years study with an eye toward becoming an artist. During World Wars I and II, she was active on both sides of the Atlantic in canteen, USO and troop entertainment work.

Baha'is Attend Annual Convention in Wilmette

Several Baha'is members of Grosse Pointe attended the annual convention held in Wilmette, Ill., April 24 through 27 in the Foundation Hall of the Baha' House of Worship.

Over 1000 Baha' delegates and visitors from every one of the 48 states, Hawaii, Alaska, Japan and Canada were present. Conventions were held simultaneously in Canada, Latin and South America, Europe, India, Iran, Iraq and Egypt.

The Baha' faith has now been established in 124 countries and territories of the world and is translated into 90 languages.

Plans are going forward on the landscaping of the Baha' House of Worship in preparation for the Jubilee Celebration in 1953; for the intercontinental conferences to be held this year in North America, Europe, Asia and Africa; and the continuation of the landscaping and buildings on the face of Mt. Carmel in Israel.

A complimentary dinner was given editor J. P. Sheldon while he was in jail. He had criticized the Territorial government and his was the first case to test the Freedom of the Press in Detroit. The date was May 7, 1938.

Future Nurses Get First Hand Information

Members of the Future Nurses Club at Grosse Pointe High School celebrate National Baby Week by holding a reception for BABY DEBBY KAY and her mother, MRS. DORIS VANDERWIEL, (holding Debby). Teacher ALBERTA DAVIS, holding the baby's hand, welcomed the opportunity afforded by the real life subject, to give her student some pertinent pointers on care of infants.

Settlement Week Observed
 By Woods Community Club

The Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club joins next week, May 5 through 9, with 23 settlements and other community centers in celebrating "Detroit Settlement Week," an undertaking to give the public a clearer picture of the organization and program of its local centers.

Due to the small size of the building, the club will not attempt a special program but extends to all Grosse Pointe citizens a special invitation to drop in during the week to see the adults, children and leaders enjoying the benefits which you have provided through your contribution to the United Foundation.

A quick historical review shows that many of the past concerts of the Community Club still face the present organization, though not necessarily in the same form.

On April 26, 1938 at the home of Mrs. Edgar Hallead, later to become the organization's first president, Mrs. Louise Stevens, Mrs. Dovie Martins, Mrs. Dan Rogers, Mrs. Julius Helasz, Mrs. Theodore Wedyke, Mrs. Elmer Loos, Mrs. Howard Iiams, and Mrs. Frank Burns met to decide how they could obtain for their community and children adequate recreational facilities, especially a playground.

Today the Community Club not only supports the present playground which these women made possible, but along with the city of Grosse Pointe Woods sponsors three evenings of recreation for teen-age boys and is active with other civic minded organizations in planning a program of recreation for all the Pointes.

In June of 1940, Mrs. Crystal Gregory, then president of the board, appointed Mrs. Edgar Hallead, Mrs. A. A. Ghesquiere and Mrs. Howard Iiams, to be the Building Committee. Before Fall Mrs. Hattie Chene had donated the use of the land in memory of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Columbus Trombly; and construction of the present building had begun with contributions from local citizens and volunteered help from over 30 men.

Today through the appointment of Mervyn Gaskin, present president of the board, Leon Ratcliffe acts as chairman of the new Building Committee which is working towards the addition of five new rooms to the present structure to be available by fall. This will more than double the present space in the building and will allow for limited expansion of the present program.

For some years the program of the club included a Nursery School, dancing classes, supervised recreational periods and other activities. Today with most of these needs being met by others, the Community Club has shifted to a program of group work, informal education and recreation.

Over 450 children meet weekly either in small social groups at the club, or in the large recreation programs at Mason and Parcells gymnasiums. All of these programs are designed to help them become better participating citizens in our democracy and to help them increase their social skills in getting along together.

For those visitors who wish to see the groups in action, clubs are scheduled every afternoon from 4-5 o'clock and every evening, Tuesday through Friday, from 7-9 o'clock.

Party Climaxes Dancing Season

By Sally Fisher 11A
 G.P.H. Journalism Student

The All-Brownell Party was held last Friday, April 25, from 7:30 to 10:30 o'clock in the Boy's gym at the high school.

It was the climax of seven square dance lessons given by Mrs. James Blashill, Mrs. Charles Schärer, Mrs. Stanley Kenn, Mrs. Margaret Tesch, Mrs. Frederick Toepel, Mrs. R. G. Freriks, Mrs. E. Tisdale, Mrs. R. G. Rein, Mrs. Martin Hutchinson, and Mrs. Esther Meldrum.

Tex Colvert, a professional caller, directed the dances and nearly 200 students promenaded. The party was planned and organized by a student committee consisting of Joe Braden, Carol Cumberworth, Cathy Corey, Fran Striker, Janet Donnelly, Martha Hubbard and Jim Owens, all 9A's.

During the evening silver gifts were given to all the women who had supervised the lessons and Mrs. Blashill and Mrs. Schärer also received $20 gift certificates which were given as a token of appreciation for all the time they spent on the lessons.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Howard H. Sichter Jr. of Mt. Vernon road, announce the engagement of their daughter, ALICE ANNE, to Charles W. Kepler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Kepler of Asbury Park.

The bride-elect attended Mary Washington College of the University of Virginia and is now a junior at the University of Michigan where she is affiliated with Collegiate Sorosis sorority.

Mr. Kepler, a senior at the University of Michigan, is a member of Sigma Nu. An early September wedding is planned by the couple.

Volunteer Workers Needed By Woods Community Club

"Plans for the summer recreational program are almost completed," reports Mrs. Jane Costabile, director of the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club. "We are now at the point where future decisions seem to be dependent on how many volunteers we are able to recruit and train."

With the number of children to be served dependent on the number of volunteers available, the Community Club asks that all men and women who believe they could give a minimum of a half day of service a week apply for the volunteer positions that are now open.

The program as it appears now will be entirely conducted on the Chene-Trombly playground behind the Community Club at Mack and Hampton. It will be a small group program conducted in the morning for the very young children and in the afternoon for older children up to 12 years old. Volunteers will be in charge of each group or in charge of special programs, depending on the volunteer's skills and time.

The minimum requirements for volunteer service are that the person be 18 years old or older, have some past experience with children that would indicate an interest, baby sitting, Sunday School teaching, group leadership, etc.; and will be willing to take the amount of training required by the club. Supervision and other opportunities for learning will be offered.

Special positions are open for a selected group of boys and girls 14-18, who wish to become Junior Volunteers.

For further information, call or write the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club, 20883 Mack, TU. 1-7970.

Kathryn Jehle Is Christened

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Douglas Sutherland were hosts at a tea Sunday afternoon in their Oxford road home following the christening of their granddaughter, Kathryn Ann Jehle.

Little Kathryn, not quite a month old, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Jehle (Suzanne Sutherland) and she was christened in St. Matthew's Church.

She wore the lawn christening robes that have been worn by three generations in the Sutherland family.

Arriving from New York to be the baby's godmother was Mollie Verbelacker. Arthur Douglas Sutherland Jr. was his niece's godfather.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerborn

If you have had occasion to call upon the young set to usher at any pet project within the past few days . . . Perhaps you've been amazed at the eagerness you've met. Well, there's a very good reason . . . and a very pretty one . . . named Joan Gay . . . daughter of the Errol J. Gays of Pemberton road . . .

Joannie and her mother spent the Winter at Lake Worth and Palm Beach . . . and one afternoon the young lady got just such a call . . .

When the Palm Beach Playhouse was being opened on the site of the old Royal Ponciana conservatories . . .

Robert Cumming's New Secretary

"Would Miss Gay help in lining up some 'society girl' ushers for the first week's performances?" . . . Joan did . . . just for a lark . . . and practically by the time of the first night's curtain found herself executive secretary to producer Philip Barry, Jr. . . .

Her work entailed such fascinating fare as listening to the lines of and cue-ing Zachary Scott . . . Signe Hasso . . . Burgess Meredith . . . John Lodar . . . and Robert Cummings . . . all of whom played leads during the season . . .

And when Mr. Cummings learned that Joan would be visiting friends in New York in the late Spring . . . He then and there signed her up as his executive secretary for the duration of his Eastern assignment in TV and radio . . .

Joan's Having A Whirl

Now she's arrived in Manhattan . . . and her letters home are ecstatic about not only how much she's enjoying her job . . .

But also on the subject of the whirl she's having with all the stage and screen folk who became her friends in Palm Beach last Winter . . .

Her most recent gala . . . was attending the Lamb's Club Gambol . . .

She finds herself living, talking, eating theater . . . a situation highly delightful to her . . .

And the Gays are looking forward to a week-end with their pretty daughter in the very near future . . . and they think it's high time they were "catching up" with Broadway, too . . .

Marilyn Rees Speaks Vows

Rosepointe lace and ivory silk satin were used in the wedding dress worn last Saturday by Marilyn Joanne Rees when she became the bride of George Thomas Higgins. Their marriage took place in St. Clare de Montefalco church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sterling S. Rees of Three Mile drive, and George is the son of Mrs. George J. Higgins of New York and the late Mr. Higgins.

The heirloom lace edged the deep V neckline of Marilyn's wedding gown and formed unusual choker at the throat. Sleeves of the fitted bodice were long and fitted and the full ivory skirt fell into a circular train. Her full veil of imported silk illusion fell from a rosepointe headpiece and Marilyn carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. John M. Gillespie was major of honor and bridesmaid's were George's sister, Mrs. Joseph McCrimhsk of New York and Mrs. Philip Meathe.

All wore opera length frocks of electric blue antique silk with blue velvet trimmed leghorn hats. They carried pale yellow carnations.

Robert Higgins was his brother's best man and seating the guests were Harwood Rydholm, Philip Meathe, John M. Gillespie and Howard Dwyer.

Following the church service, the Higgins' left on a wedding trip to Atlanta, Ga. and Florida, and will make their home on Somerset avenue upon their return.

MADELEINE D. DE ROPP, of Three Mile drive, is one of the cast of the French play, "Le Monde ou s'ennuie," produced by the student French club at the University of Michigan.

MR. and MRS. E. P. HORAN of Trombley road have returned from a three weeks' visit at the Homestead in Hot Springs, Va.

MRS. JOHN JAKLE, assisted by MRS. MORRISON BOOTH, will be hostess to the Board of Grosse Pointe A. A. U. W. on Thursday, May 8, at 10:30 a.m., at 286 McKinley.

ZIEGLER of Bishop road have been guests at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel in Hawaii.

The returned travelers include MR. and MRS. FRANCIS P. BOYER, of Cloverly road, and MR. and MRS. EDWARD J. POSSELIUS JR. of McMillan road, who cruised the West Indies together aboard the Mauritania.

MRS. H. GORDON WOOD and EDWARD CRAWFORD of Breckenridge, Mich., stood as godparents at the christening of HENDRIKA HABERKORN in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The young lady is the daughter of MR. and MRS. C. HENRY HABERKORN III and she was named for her maternal grandmother, the late Mrs. Henry E. Beyster.

The E. OLNEY JONESSES of Washington road literally motored through Winter and part of Spring on their recent junket. They left the Pointe the end of February and visited in the South, Mexico, and on the West Coast before their return here last week.

MISS JOAN DRYDEN, represented Colby Junior College at the New England College Conference of the National Student Association at Harvard College on April 26 and 27. She is the daughter of MR. and MRS. JOHN R. DRYDEN, Kercheval avenue, Grosse Pointe Farms, and a junior at the New London, N. H., college.

Nosegays of Violets Carried By Attendants

Christine Orr, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin James Orr of Notre Dame avenue, was married last Friday evening to Richard Heidrich at a candlelight ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The Rev. Paul Ketchum officiated at the service which was followed by a reception for 200 at the St. Clair Shores Civic Center.

Richard is the son of Mrs. Albert LePri of Oscoda, Mich., and Rudolph Heidrich of Farmington.

For her wedding, Christine was gowned in ivory nylon net, the short sleeved bodice embroidered in satin scrolls. Graduated tiers of the frothy net formed the floor length skirt and Christine's lace bridal cap held a waistlength illusion veil.

The bride carried a bouquet of white orchids and stephanotis. Florence Bady was maid of honor and the bridesmaids included Connie Baker, Sally McNeff and June Moffett with Judy Nothstine serving as junior bridesmaid.

They wore waltz length frocks of orchid net over matching taffeta with waistline sashes of orchid taffeta. Deep violet net crowns were worn on their heads and they carried nosegays of violets.

Young Pointers Turn Westerners for Party

Tuesday Assemblies Hold Western Party in Last Session Of Season at The Little Club; Parents Watch Tots In Grand March and Square Dance

Giving a Western finish to Tuesday Assemblies' first season, cowboys and cowgirls, Indians, dude ranchers and Mexicans turned out at the Little Club this past Tuesday.

Cap guns parked at the door, in polite dancing school fashion, the very young lads gave their arms to the little girls for an afternoon of square dancing while fond mothers and fathers looked on. The young dancing school pupils performed in one exhibition number before their actual party.

Preceding the square dancing there was a grand march to show the wonderful Western costumes which gave full evidence of how much Hopalong Cassidy and the cactus country have invaded the Pointe.

The last dance was a family affair: the girls dancing with their fathers and the boys with their mothers.

The young dude ranchers included:

George Boller, Sally Begg, Linda Bacon, Harriet Bradshaw, Bruce Birgauer, Lee Cotter, Jim Crawford, Hanny Carpenter, Linda Chaffin, Cheryl Ann Chapman, Christine, Marilyn and Billy Clark.

Jon Cavallo, Sallie and Robbie Champion, Ann Domine, Jimmy Davis, Billy Edgar, Ann Ford, Mary Jo Olp, Gloria Cashin, Crickett Franche, Eleanor Grow, Barbara and Bill Gauss, Carole Ann and Cal Gauss, Sansi Girard, Bill and Deil Hurd.

Still other Westerners were: Phidgie and John Hoag, Terry Harper, Patsy and Jill Hughes, Virginia Ives, Judy Johnson, Monty Loud, Polly and Rickey Kammer, Bill Kimerly, Diana Majullo, Margaret, David and Andy McGaughey, Mary Malott, Susan and Allen Merrell, Susan and Betsy Peabody.

Dan Piggins, Sharon Ann Queney, Robin Redfield, Leslie Renchard, Patsy and Frances Saunders, Susan Schulte, Ann Scripps, Nancy, Susan and Doug Stair; Helen Skinner, Patricia Ann and Barbara Ann Ternes, Jean Warren and Jody Walker.

Neighbors' Club Meeting May 5

The Neighbors' Club of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will hold its monthly meeting May 5, at 2 p.m., at the Center.

Miss Helen Martin of the Michigan State Department of Conservation will be the guest speaker, and the topic of her talk will be "Geology and Everyday Living."

Miss Martin is a graduate of the University of Michigan and in addition to her work with the Conservation Department has taught geology and physiography at the Battle Creek High School and at the University of Michigan and has served as research geologist and editor for several oil companies.

Miss Martin has been a frequent visitor to this community and has spoken to the various garden clubs of this area. She will illustrate her talk with colored pictures which should be of interest to the new members who are unacquainted with the many delightful and interesting points of beauty in Michigan.

Mrs. D. M. Corson, program chairman, will introduce the speaker. Tea will be served following the program by Mrs. Daniel Schaitberger, hostess, and committee members: Mrs. E. B. Erickson, Mrs. F. DeCavittie, Mrs. Alexander Kennedy and Mrs. E. E. Stetson.

Mrs. Leonard M. Constantine

The former MARGARET ANN CLARK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton Clark of Yorkshire road, who was married on April 26 to the son of Mrs. Peter Michael Constantine of Rivard Blvd., and the late Mr. Constantine.

Hospital Guild Ten Years Old

In celebration of the tenth anniversary of the Bon Secours Hospital Guild, Mrs. Lawrence A. Kroha is opening her home in Middlesex road for a tea on Thursday, May 8.

Mrs. John T. Condon, chairman, is being assisted by Mrs. H. James Veyser, Mrs. Cyril DeFever, Mrs. Joseph A. Kasper and Mrs. George Skimin.

Other committee members are Mrs. Martin Paye, Mrs. Dalton Snyder Sr., Mrs. John L. Mitchell, Mrs. Ervin H. Mueller, Mrs. Fred Burns, Mrs. Edward Lynch and Mrs. Harold Frear. Proceeds will be used for "Equipment" for the Dietary Department.

Parties Honor Jean Orebough

Jean Orebough has been in a whirl of parties and showers the past two weeks which began Saturday, April 12, at the home of Miss Jayne Dalton of Rivard boulevard. Jayne and Miss Sally Owen were hostesses for Jean at a miscellaneous shower. Sally and Jayne were schoolmates of Jean's when she attended Michigan State College.

Mrs. Edwin Pratt of Neff road was the hostess of Jean's next party on April 16, which was a kitchen shower.

Jean's only bridesmaid, Miss Lois Barnard, who is the sister of the bridegroom, entertained at a cocktail and personal shower combined in her home on Lenox avenue on April 18.

A "round-the-clock" shower was the theme of Jean's last shower, given by Mrs. Louis Voller of McKinley road on April 25. The gifts were hidden about the house and poems telling where to find each one was placed in separate balloons.

On Friday night, May 2, Mrs. Lowell H. Orebough, the bride's mother, will have the rehearsal dinner and James Lemen, the best man, will have the bachelor's party the same night at his home in Village lane.

LUTHERAN CARD PARTY

The Bethany Lutheran Ladies' Society will have its annual spring-card party in the church at 8 p.m. on Wednesday, April 30. There will be refreshments and prizes. The public is cordially invited.

Newlyweds to Make Home in Newport, R.I.

Margaret Ann Clark Exchanges Vows With Leonard Michael Constantine at Ceremony in St. Clare de Montefalco Church

When Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mitchell Constantine conclude their New England wedding trip, they will make their home in Newport, R. I., where the bridegroom is stationed with the U.S. Marines.

They were married last Saturday at an 11 o'clock ceremony in St. Clare de Montefalco Church; the Rev. Father James D. Clark, OSA, officiating.

Mrs. Constantine was Margaret Ann Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Middleton Clark of Yorkshire road. Leonard is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Constantine of Rivard boulevard.

White orchids and lilies of the valley topped the wedding prayer book carried by the bride who wore robes of candlelight satin and Chantilly lace.

The gown's slim bodice was caught to full skirt which swept into cathedral train. Her Juliet cap of lace was attached to silk illusion veil.

Attendants

Barbara Joan Clark was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids included two other sisters, Janet Arlene and Virginia Elizabeth Clark and the bridegroom's sister, Gladys Virginia Constantine.

All were dressed alike in frocks of blue net and taffeta worn with pert matching Juliet caps. They carried bouquets of violet toned carnations.

Little Susan Elaine Clark was flower girl in orchid net and taffeta frock with small matching cap. She carried a nosegay of shell pink carnations.

Ushers

John M. Clark, brother of the bride, was best man and the guests in rear seated by David Lee Clark, also the bride's brother, and Robert Joseph Wheeler.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Clark donned a rose lace gown with matching chapeau. Her flowers were white roses. Mrs. Constantine pinned a corsage of yellow roses to her royal blue gown.

A wedding breakfast and reception followed the ceremony at the Park-Sheraton Hotel.

When the Constantines left on their wedding trip, the bride changed to a trim brown suit with pink wool topcoat, pink cloche and matching accessories.

The first professional baseball game in Detroit was played at Recreation Park before a roaring crowd of 1,265 people on May 2, 1881.

Republican Club To Hear Fuller

Walter W. Fuller, fraternal editor of the Detroit News and author of the column, "I'm Telling You," will be the speaker at the monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Republican Women's Club on Tuesday, May 6, in the War Memorial.

Mr. Fuller will give his famous speech "Slipshod Americans," which is widely proclaimed as a message "Every civic-minded group in America should hear."

"At this critical time," said Mr. Fuller, "we all need a political reminder to wake up; be alert to the dangers of complacency; and be sure to vote!"

Mrs. Jesse Shields, a member of the legislative committee of the club, will review the recent government seizure of steel.

At 1 o'clock luncheon will precede the 2 o'clock meeting. Reservations should be made with Mrs. John Keys, TUxedo 5-1268.

Elizabeth Cass Chapter To Hold Election May 5

Elizabeth Cass Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Grosse Pointe Farms, will meet on Monday, May 5 at the Women's City Club.

After a subscription luncheon at 12:30 the annual business meeting will be held at 1:30 p.m. Mrs. Walter R. Fruit, regent, will preside.

Reports of the 61st Continental Congress of the National Society of D.A.R., held recently, will be given by delegates Mrs. Walter Fruit and Mrs. H. H. Marshall.

Miss Gretchen Weyth, who acted as page for Mrs. Fruit, will tell of the activities and duties of the pages. Election and installation of officers for the coming year will take place at this meeting.

Martha Jen Watkins Honored by Sorority

DURHAM, N. C.—Martha Jen Watkins of Grosse Pointe Farms has just been selected vice-president of Alpha Phi, Duke University sorority.

A Dean's List student at Duke, Miss Watkins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Watkins of 420 McKinley road. She is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School.

Mother's Club Party Attended by Over 900

Approximately $1250 Raised for Scholarship Fund to Help Deserving Students Continue Their Education

Over 900 women attended the Mothers' Club Bridge Tea held for the benefit of the Scholarship Fund at the Grosse Pointe High School, and the sale of tickets plus the candy netted a total of approximately $1,250.00.

So successful was the sale of Mackinaw Island Fudge that the chairman of that committee, Mrs. Gordon N. Cameron, enlarged the committee to include Mrs. Peter Duerkson and Mrs. David F. Roller.

Tea was served around three large tables decorated in Mexican style with deep turquoise cloths, large straw baskets overflowing with fruit, wrought iron candlesticks holding candles in brilliant Mexican colors, tin Mexican dishes filled with cookies.

Pouring tea were members of the Board of the Mothers' Club, Home Room sponsors and mothers of the Student Association officers of the High School.

Carrying out the Mexican theme, Mrs. Clarence Maguire and her committee used colored gourds, Mexican runners and serapis, brightly colored Mexican glassware and huge Mexican hats to decorate the tea room.

With a sigh of relief the many workers for this occasion look happily to the day in June when scholarships will be awarded to students having a "B" average or over, showing good extra-curricular records, some need for financial assistance, having a sound character and leadership record.

A Demijohn for a Pint

Tomorrow the American Red Cross will send one of its Mobile Units back to the Pointe for the purpose of collecting a supply of blood, desperately needed for the wounded in Korea, for the men in Army and Navy hospitals throughout the country, for Red Cross and hospital blood banks and for a reserve which would serve as an insurance policy in the event war should break out with a rain of death from the skies in a sudden bombing attack.

As in past collections, the success of this one is going to depend on a last minute rush of donors. The mobile unit will be stationed at the War Memorial Center from 2:30 to 8:30 p.m. For several weeks the approaching collection has been publicized and prospective donors have been invited to make appointments by calling the Center, TUxedo 1-6030. Past experience has shown that few take the trouble to call for appointments and the success of the collections has depended on the majority who have simply dropped in to make their donations.

This procedure is hard on the nerves of those who organize and promote the collections and there is always a prolonged period of anxiety until a sufficient number of volunteers has appeared to make the undertaking a success.

The Red Cross states that it is not feasible to send out a costly mobile unit and tie up a staff of workers unless a minimum of 100 pints of blood can be obtained. There is always a considerable percentage of rejects for one reason or another, and it has been shown that at least 150 persons must appear to insure a collection of 100 pints.

It has been proven that these mobile units can always find success on a visit to a factory or business place where the employees have been alerted to the opportunity to make their contribution. It would be a sad commentary on the Pointe if tomorrow's collection was not oversubscribed.

Many local residents make their donations at Red Cross headquarters in Detroit. Those who have not taken the trouble to go all the way downtown for this worthy cause, should be grateful that it is being made so convenient for them to do their part right here at home.

The Red Cross points out that at least 12 weeks should elapse between donations. Pointers have been given a break in this respect, too. There hasn't been any Pointe collection since last November, so ample time has elapsed for most donors in previous campaigns here to qualify them for this one.

The story of the life-saving miracles wrought by these blood donations is now so old that it needs no re-telling. Veterans back from Korea have been unanimous in calling blood the greatest single need here. Statistics on the marvelously reduced percentages of mortalities against casualties have been attributed to the availability of blood for immediate care for the wounded.

Each blood collection should be accomplished easier than the last, and each should set new records for the number of donors. The first contribution is the toughest to make, simply because of the psychological factor that accompanies the idea of blood-letting. Once it is discovered that it is not only painless, but can also be done in a very short time, the average donor is comparatively easy to book for a return visit. Many contributors claim they feel better physically after they have donated. Certainly they feel better spiritually for having given what may mean the difference between life and death to a fellow human being.

But the shortage continues. The one who has found how easy it is to make a contribution during a visit of a mobile unit, is among those who next volunteer to give a pint to a friend, or a friend of a friend, who has just undergone a serious operation. The mobile unit comes around for another visit and he is disqualified because 12 weeks haven't elapsed since that mercy visit to the hospital. Someone else must step up to take his place.

Advance figures indicate that Detroit's Red Cross quota for blood during the coming year is going to be 140,000 pints. That is a lot of blood, but divide it among the population of this great metropolitan area and figure that there are many, many donors who contribute four times a year, and it is easy to see that there are far too many who are not doing their part.

Perhaps your donation will keep some soldier or sailor from joining the ranks of those for whose honor this beautiful memorial was created.

It will never be easier to join this great army of life savers than tomorrow. The War Memorial Center has proven an ideal place to carry on this vital activity.

Go over early, or linger on after you have made your contribution. Wander through the lovely gardens and rooms of this property which has been converted into a living tribute to those who gave so much for us and the generations to follow.

Your donation will be small, but you'll have a far greater realization of the meaning of sacrifice and a far fuller appreciation of kinship with those who have died and those whom you may help to live.

A pint contributed means a demijohn of satisfaction in return.

Pride or Scorn?

The Pointe launches another annual Clean-Up campaign tomorrow and every resident has been asked to participate. The goal is a more beautiful Pointe, and one which shall be kept that way, not for a week or a month, but throughout the whole year.

If there is any love of beauty in our souls, it is manifest in the springtime of the year; so it is perhaps an appeal to an almost universal attribute which causes us to carry on such a drive at this particular time.

We rake aside the sodden leaves of last fall's weeping to give this spring's vanity a better chance to assert itself. The hoe cracks winter's crusty surface to let the daffodil, jonquil and narcissus make an earlier entrance upon the barren stage. Dead twigs and limbs are pruned away, lest they mar the glory of leaf and flower buds bursting their drab winter draperies.

Our every effort is bent on removing any fetters that may retard Nature's abundant emergence from its frosty prison. Every unfurling leaf, each swelling lilac, the exploding magnolias and the pregnant tulips are cause for breathless raptures of anticipation of things to come.

There is probably no place on the face of the earth where

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"Earth is a wintry clod.
But Spring-wind, like a dancing psaltness, passes
Over its breast to waken it; rare verdure
Buds tenderly upon rough banks between
The wisper'd tree-roots and the cracks of frost,
Like a smile with a wrinkled face."
(Robert Browning)

You people who call yourselves "independent voters" can be mighty important this year, in spite of the fact that YOU are the ones who get in the poll-takers' hair! We had a political rhubarb last week with a couple of characters who will make chalk marks in July. One of them said, "Nothing irritates us more than the independent voter." Since we are in that category ourselves, our curiosity reared its nasty head . . . and the answer we received was: "No matter what you are . . . Democrat or Republican . . . if you stick to it right down the line, we can figure what's what. But we never know which way 'independent voters' are going to jump!"

Golf addicts will no doubt appreciate this item: A local woman, on a small vacation tour with her husband, happened on a large and fancy hotel that boasted a big-shot golf pro in charge of the hotel course. Our heroine talked her husband into telephoning the pro to see if he would give her ONE lesson . . . so she could brag to the old folks at home. She listened while husband dear called and GOT an appointment . . . whereupon she became so excited, she tripped over her own feet, fell down and landed on the two middle fingers of her right hand!

Being the "tidy" type, she picked the fingers up, snapped them back into place and asked her husband to strap them together. "In the shape of a golf club." He strapped them together . . . period . . . and Madame proceeded to take her lesson without a flicker of conscious pain. She is now back in the Pointe sporting a two-fingered cast and we understand her knuckles are as big as walnuts . . . but she DID have her lesson from the big-shot. This is something golf fiends will no doubt understand. We don't. (Jeeves, please pass us our pogo stick.)

On the "Strike it Rich" program last Sunday night, one of the contestants was asked this question: "What great American, born in 1773, blazed a trail across the country . . . and was known for wearing a coonskin cap?" Without a smidgen of hesitation the little contestant answered, "KEFAUFER." P. S. They gave him the prize!

Our correspondent from Scotland, knowing we are interested in television, sent us one of the newspapers from there, containing the t-v program for the day. The entire list takes up about an inch of space in one column and reads thusly: 5 p.m. Children's television . . . 5:10 Eyes and Hands . . . 5:25 The Locked Room . . . 8 p.m. Weekly Review . . . 8:15 Arthur Askey . . . 8:30 Love In Albania . . . 10 The Epilogue . . . and 10:15 Weather Forecast and News (sound only). After looking this schedule over carefully, we think we'll change our mind about going to Scotland . . . that is, we won't go yet awhile!!

Due to the television program times being boggled up, we caught up with something on Monday night called "Hoodlum Empire" . . . which turned out to be a panel of four people. (emceed by Dick Osgood), who discussed questions about hoodlums. The name of the program stems from a movie of that name which is appearing in Detroit this week. From what we saw of some of the scenes from the movie . . . we can hardly wait. If you missed the Kefauver investigation on t-v be sure to see this movie. If you DID see the investigation, you should LOVE the picture. The standard wheeze of "Any similarity between the characters in this movie and anyone in real life is purely coincidental" . . . is QUITE a coincidence in "Hoodlum Empire." You will recognize every character in it . . . and that's for sure!

As an added starter, we'd like to say that we hope that program will continue each week . . . if they prove to be as good as the first one, they're IN. Osgood does a good and "easy flowing" job and it is fun to see on t-v, some of the people you read about and hear on the radio. We were particularly entranced with Lee Smit's pin striped suit! He was one of the panel members . . . and looked like a distinguished statesman.

spring arrives clothed in more regal splendor than here in Grosse Pointe. Which causes us to consider just why this should be so. When the Indian roamed this lakeside it could not have been so lovely.

The early French and Belgian settlers brought with them the first adornments for the natural garb of this region. Grape vines and fruit trees and a few native flowers augmented the pastoral scene. Meticulously kept farms and kitchen gardens, etched the landscape. Berries spread their blooms before the bright fruits, added splashes of delightful new color.

Then wealthy city dwellers sought out these acres whose shores were washed by the lovely lake waters, and a competition was started, with neighbor pitted against neighbor to make his property more beautiful than the others. Luther Burbank and his successor horticulturists accomplished the miracles which gilded the lily, and these owners of the first fine Pointe estates were financially able to keep adding these newest creations to the ever-increasing beauty of their own properties.

These supplied the example and the inspiration for later-comers to the Pointe. The private professional gardener was soon far outnumbered by the property owners who spent most of their weekends and lengthened summer evenings seeding and mowing their lawns, tending their prize roses, nurturing their peonies . . . ever striving to grow something that would be the envy of their fellow-residents. And the never-ending competition kept engendering an ever-increasing love of the natural beauty in whose creation they had had a part.

The result has been the composite which makes this one of the very loveliest of all the communities in the entire nation. It is this spirit of competition which gives the impetus to the Clean-Up campaign.

The very large majority of residents have been injected with this love of beauty and the urge to increase its store wherever it is possible. It is one of the principle reasons why they selected the Pointe as the place in which they wanted to make their homes. They need no such pressure as the exhortations of a concentrated drive to keep them aware of the value of an aesthetically satisfying property. They know the satisfaction which is derived from a whole-hearted co-operation with nature.

The campaign is intended to awaken those who need to be told that a row of garbage cans is not a fitting background for a flowering cherry in bloom; that a refuse-cluttered vacant lot can make an inherently beautiful home look like a squatter's hut if viewed across its ugly expanse; that an ill-kept lawn can connote a blighting lack of pride.

Most residents have been busy for weeks, bringing their properties to the pinnacle of perfection to complement spring's boundless effort. The time is here for the laggards to make the contribution which will let them point to their own castles with pride, lest the passerby point to them with scorn.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

We read a great deal these days about drug addiction, and the crime that it spawns. How much to believe, how much to discard as cheap sensationalism, has been a question.

Mr. Donald Thurber's talk on "The Narcotics Problem" at the Friends of the Library meeting last week did much to clarify our confused thinking. Mr. Thurber, as executive secretary of the Mayor's committee for the rehabilitation of narcotic addicts, has a fund of correct information at his fingertips. He has also an enviable power of expression. Our staunch foul weather friends, who braved the elements that night, agreed the fair weather members had missed a stimulating evening.

Next Tuesday, May 6 at 8:30 p.m., Mrs. Haldeman Finnie will speak to "The Friends" at the Main Library on "The Theatre as an Art."

Known in literary circles as Isabella Holt, Mrs. Finnie proves the fallacy of the adage "A Prophet is not without honor, save in his own country." Her novels have had a wide circulation in our library.

MY SON AN HEIR published in 1949 is a family story of three generations from 1893 to 1941. This was, unanimously acclaimed by the critics.

The Chicago Sun says of it "Chicago friends of Isabella Holt will find that her talent has come into full bloom in this rich well-developed novel. Anne F. Wolfe in the Saturday Review of Literature comments "Miss Holt looks at her characters with sharp and affectionate eyes and tells them off with sly humor."

The New York Herald Tribune puts it this way "Miss Holt's characterization has liveliness and edge and the story moves swiftly and smoothly. She writes with generation and humor."

Another popular novel of Miss Holt is AUNT JESSIE "Character sketches of an upper middle-class Chicago family, the Kendalls, beginning in 1912. The Kendalls had money and originality; their mother launched lame ducks; the children were left much to their own devices. Then came divorce. Mother lived in Europe and father in Chicago with the children. After the serious illness of the youngest child: Aunt Jessie came to Chicago to take over. The remainder of the story describes Aunt Jessie's attempts to instill her own mid-Victorian standards upon a Bohemian household and the effect it had upon the lives of the three young Kendalls."

You will enjoy knowing Mrs. Finnie through her books, and also meeting her in person, next Tuesday evening.

And now it is Clean Up, Paint Up, Fix-Up Week. If you are wondering just where to begin, you might consult your library. Some of the books listed below may inspire you to more and greater efforts.

ENCYCLOPEDIA OF HOME CARE AND REPAIR by W. A. Hennessey.

If you should cast a shocked eye upon the outside of the City Branch and wonder why we do not practice what we preach, we ask that you bear with us as we are for a few months longer until this branch is replaced by the new Central Library. How is it that optimistic little jingle in our old third reader used to go "There's a good time coming, boys, A good time coming, We may not live to see the day, But earth shall gladden in the ray of the good time coming."

Letters to The Editor

Dear Mr. Edgar:

May I use your newspaper as a medium to express my appreciation to the more than 1,200 people who helped make the recent Mothers' Club bridge party and tea such an outstanding success. I think I am safe in saying this event has become Grosse Pointe's largest annual party.

To you for your generous publicity; to each individual who bought a ticket; to the 160 merchants and friends who so generously donated prizes; to the custodians and office staff at the High School; and lastly to the more than 60 women who worked so graciously on my committee; I sincerely say, thank you!

Garnette Röll, Chairman, Spring 'Party, Mothers' Club of Grosse Pointe High School.

Gust Theunissen, 2203 Roslyn, backed out of his driveway, April 26, into a 1949 Dodge parked across the street. The Dodge, owned by Mrs. J. R. Fontaine, of 2209 Roslyn, was damaged to the tune of $15.

No Time To Spare?

By Fred M. Kopp, R. Ph.

How many times we say it and really believe it: "There's no time to spare." How many things that seemed so important at the moment really were.

We could accomplish more if we convinced ourselves that we do have the time . . . or will make it.

Give your will power a test when your next doctor or dentist appointment is due. Take time for these important dates that will insure your health for the year ahead.

All health care should be the finest obtainable . . . keep this in mind when you select a druggist.

PARKING LOT THEFTS
Grosse Pointe Park police received a report on April 17, from a mechanic at Tom Boyd's on Jefferson avenue, that a radio had been taken from one of the cars in their parking lot, and a radiator ornament from another. Both cars had been in for repairs.

Kid Bits
By Nancy Kaser

Because there wasn't any school Friday, the S.A. dance "Artistry in Rhythm" was held on Thursday night, April 24. Jack Adams 'n Sue Squire, Ann Orebaugh 'n Pat Watling, Marty McCormick 'n Silvia Reuter, Kay Jameson 'n Judy Wilson, Lee Clancy 'n Betty Amazon, Frank Kruger 'n Mee Squire, Bill Haring 'n Judy Morlen, Coby Martin 'n Donna Smith, Jeanette Elder 'n Al Mendelsohn, Bertie Jacobs 'n Bill Hamel, Jerry Harden 'n Jane Rowe, Lowell Jackson 'n Carol Ford, Dave Leach 'n Louann Bordon, Ann Carter 'n Dan Slowe, Robin Hesse 'n Joyce Judson, Wayne Miller 'n Laurie Smith, and Bob Warner 'n Carol deBruin were some who turned out for it.

Over the weekend many seniors met in different groups to practice their individual skits for the informal assembly. Lots of planning and practicing went on at Maggie Koehler's Thursday night when Jeanne Rydholm, Peg Lutton, Gay Edgar, Nan Erikson, Bev Riley, Posy Tomicic, Shirley Giller, Jaon Parker and Colleen Horriagan dropped in.

After a scavenger hunt, lots of Hi-Y boys and their dates went back to Miller Hall for a dance on Friday night. Some of the kids who compared their loot after the hunt were Bob Schaller 'n Diane Fetzliff, Joe Buehl 'n Robin Barr, Bill Rexford 'n Barb Mensing, Tom Lister 'n Gail Sisson, Hank Hubbard 'n Peg Moreland, George Bashara 'n Shirley Stoup, Birdie Roberts 'n Jurt Ewend, Fred Jensen 'n Carol DeKorse, and Jerry LaChapele 'n Sally Ritter.

The kids who put on the jazz concert Friday night did a terrific job as those who saw and heard them will say. Some of those who will vouch for the success of it are Jane Rowe 'n Jerry Harden, Judy Morlen 'n Frank Kruger, Carol Lundgren 'n Dick Warner, Peg Moreland, Laurie Smith, Pattie Lee, Pat Barrett, Bee Burrows, Emo Harding, Ginnie Davis, Carol deBruin, Glenna Howell and Terry Kuhn.

Afterward, Jack Adams asked a few of the stags at the concert back to his house. Louie Hribar, Bill Cassell, Bob Brown, Dave Halbur, Randy Fitch, Chuck Flove, Tom Donahue, Jerry Shire, Bob Richardson, Wilson Brice and Marty Potter went back to Jack's.

Safety Patrol Work Pays Off

Two safety patrol leaders from the Grosse Pointe area will go to Washington, D. C., with 101 outstanding Michigan young men Thursday, May 8. They'll be Automobile Club of Michigan's guests on a four-day all-expense trip to the 16th AAA National Safety Patrol Rally.

They are: Robert Wachter, 1182 Lochmoor boulevard, age 11, of Mason school in Grosse Pointe, and Lawrence P. Gowman, 22620 Gordon, age 13, of St. Paul's Lutheran school in St. Clair Shores.

Wachter and Gowman were chosen by local school authorities and Club safety men after their schools were cited for superior 1951-52 safety patrols.

Highlights of this year's trip will include participation by Wachter and Gowman in a mile-long parade down Constitution Avenue with 25,000 patrolers from all over the nation. They'll be led by schoolboys' television heroes "Captain Video" and the "Video Ranger."

All expenses of the 100 Michigan boys will be borne by Auto Club as a tribute from the motoring public for the 200 hours per year which each of 43,000 Michigan safety patrol boys and girls spend guarding school corners.

Winning safety patrol leaders will gather in Detroit Thursday afternoon for registration and physical checkup. With adult supervisors and registered nurses, they'll board special cars on the Baltimore and Ohio Ambassador

Theatre Offers Novel Program

Grosse Pointe Community Theatre will wind up its 1951-52 season with a flourish on Saturday night, May 3, in Kerby School. The special program will offer "Comedy, Coffee, Cakes and Conversation," and will get under way at 8:30 o'clock.

Two one-act plays, "Period House" and "The Man in the Bowler Hat" will be directed by Rae Bambas and will boast all-star casts. The coffee and cakes are being provided through the efforts by the women of the organization.

Conversation will be supplied by all attending. The group is anxious to have the public meet the members, offer criticism and find out how the organization works.

Tickets may be obtained by calling TUxedo 5-7688. The price for the program and refreshments is but 60 cents and everyone is invited to go early and stay late, according to Jack Sinclair, president.

"Period House" by Walter Prichard Eaton is a delightful family comedy, showing what can happen when father follows mother all the way in her zeal for antiques. Clark Wells plays the father, Lou Wertz the mother. Jean Reid is their long-suffering cook, Hervey Parke the handyman, Joanne Kernitz, Jill Erskine and Donald Genter play the children of the family, and Maryanne Genter will be seen on stage for the first time as the family friend. John Wilson is assisting Mrs. Bambas as director and his wife, Carol is prompter.

The other play, "The Man in the Bowler Hat" by A. A. Milne, is really a play within a play and is a hilarious satire. Karl Dumas and Jean Standish take the part of the couple in whose living room the melodrama is acted by Elma Baldrick, Dean Erskine, Jack Sinclair and Stan Sharpe. Dick Robins is the Man in the Bowler Hat. Betty Cooke is assisting Mrs. Bambas with this play.

Tom Stein and Arnim Sielsted are in charge of production. Nancy Hoyt is doing props for both plays and Gertrude and Evelyn Schwartz and Sophie Beaulieu are doing costumes.

The natural maximum depth of Lake St. Clair is about 21 feet.

Cub Pack No. 19 Plans Skit Night

Cub Scout Pack No. 19 will present its Annual Skit Night at Marie School, Kercheval and Cadieux roads, Friday Evening, May 2, at 7:30. The public is invited to take part in the colorful activities on which all 70 of the Cub Scouts have been working diligently the past few weeks.

Eight skits written especially for the program will be presented, which tell the story of Cubbing activities. Original settings have been built for each skit and colorful costumes have been designed for all "actors."

In addition to the skits, the Cub Band, composed of 25 Cubbers, will perform three pieces. A piano, accordion and violin solo by Gary Dimitry, John Maxwell and Henry Taylor will round out the program.

Mrs. Leon Sweet of 1029 Cadieux, Chief Den Mother, has directed the coordination of the events which were under the supervision of all Den Mothers.

Included in this group are Mrs. T. Lott, Den No. 1; Mrs. J. Cook, Den No. 2; Mrs. E. Hagglund, Den No. 3; Mrs. D. Williams, Den No. 4; Mrs. A. Penn, Den No. 5; Mrs. H. Taylor, Den No. 6; Mrs. C. Erickson, Den No. 7; and Mrs. D. Leschier.

All receipts from the show will be used to further the Cubbing activities of Pack No. 19. Tickets may be procured from any of the Cub Scouts or at the door the evening of the performance.

Friends of Library Hear Talk on Narcotics Problem

By Don Freeman
Those who waded through typical April weather to attend the fortnightly meeting of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library at the Woods Branch last Tuesday evening, April 22, received ample compensation. Their reward took the form of an address by Donald Thurber on a topic much discussed in several recent articles: "The Narcotics Problem—Fact or Fake?"

At 8:45 Willis Bugbee, program director, began by listing a few of Mr. Thurber's qualifications: Harvard graduate, class of '40; executive secretary of the Mayor's Committee for Rehabilitation of Narcotics Addicts; and executive director of the Governor's Study Commission on the Deviated Criminal Sex Offender.

Comparing the problem to an epidemic (confined largely to the seven major cities), Mr. Thurber spoke of "vulnerables" or addiction-prone types who take up the use of drugs as an alternative to alcohol or other forms of escape only because of availability and environmental pressures. Most addicts, he stated, got their start through attempts at going alone with, or achieving distinction among, neighborhood "gangs." The use of narcotics, he asserted, is a symptom of an immature personality, not an illness in itself.

After describing conditions which breed and nourish addiction and the individuals who become drug users, Mr. Thurber summed up this point by quoting an authority of long experience with this type: "We must never forget that if the poppy plant had never been grown, if alcohol had never been manufactured, these people would still be problems to someone."

Mr. Thurber gave over the latter section of his talk to a discussion of treatment, legislation, and education. He admitted that perhaps only 20% of those released from the Federal Hospital at Lexington, Kentucky, as "cured," stayed that way because of the tendency to relapse into former habits under the old environmental stresses.

"A good preventive law, he maintained, must steer somewhere between ineffectiveness and undue curtailment of constitutional rights. Education, too, must be handled carefully; simple warnings against the perils of addiction are not too effective. Fundamentally, well-adjusted people seldom become drug users."

During his discussion, Mr. Thurber brought in several eye-opening statistics, such as: only 25% of those addicted are capable of any productive work; a minimum of $15 is needed per day to enable the average heroin user to maintain his habits; these two figures help to explain a third totalling the millions in stolen goods and cash traceable to addicts each year.

Mr. Thurber concluded his talk with a stimulating question period touching upon some of the finer points of the narcotics problem.

Before closing the program, Mr. Bugbee announced the final two Friends gathering, a review session devoted to several books on the theater to be conducted by Mrs. Haldeman Finnie at the Main Library in Pierce School on May 6, and the annual meeting at Grosse Pointe Methodist Church on May 20.

Couple Injured As Car Overturns

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hallett, of 1067 Lakepointe, were injured in an automobile accident at Kercheval and Buckingham, April 28. Mrs. Hallett suffered a triple fracture of the pelvis when she was thrown from an overturning car. Mr. Hallett's right arm was injured.

The accident occurred when Hallett's car struck the automobile driven by Sterling A. Harris, of 14917 Tuller. Harris had made a stop on Buckingham and, not seeing any approaching traffic, had started across Kercheval, crossing in Hallett's path. Police said that Harris was moving at about five miles an hour at the time. They estimated Hallett's speed at 25.

The Board of Trustees passed an ordinance that no swine be allowed to run wild within the stockade or limits of Detroit on May 21, 1803.

Yacht Club Bowlers Celebrate End of Season

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club bowlers climaxed their season with the Club's annual Bowler's Jamboree Saturday night, April 24, with their champions and league winners receiving trophies and prizes. Mrs. Elgan Taylor repeated as women's champion and the men's title was won by Howard Simon. Dr. Clarence J. Williams was Bowling Chairman and Robert E. Motschall, vice-chairman, of the group supervising the six regular leagues and the Club's Mixed Juniors. In the group of cup winners at the gala party, left to right, are ED GREGORY, DR. WILLIAMS, MRS. E. J. GUENTHER, MRS. FRED JACOBS, BOB MOTSCHALL, MRS. GEORGE MAGHELSE, HOWARD SIMON, MRS. ELGAN TAYLOR, FRANK WACHTER, CLARE JACOBS, MRS. FRANK WACHTER and DR. JOSEPH BARKLEY.

Exchange Student Gives Talks Here

As part of the observance of National Boys and Girls Week, the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club brought a German exchange student to the Pointe to address assemblies at Grosse Pointe High, Detroit University School and the Grosse Pointe Country Day School.

Kim Schumacher, now studying law at Toledo University on a fellowship, spent Wednesday, April 23 here, giving talks at the local schools. The exchange of students is part of the program to forge a chain of trust and understanding to combat the threat of war.

Vacation Camp Workers Train

Department heads and the Director of Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church's fifth Daily Vacation Bible Camp, (June 23 to July 3), are attending a five week Workshop for Leadership Training, sponsored by the Detroit Council of Churches, which began on Tuesday evening at St. Philip and St. Stephen Episcopal Church.

Training is offered in Crafts, Nature Study, Bible Study, Music, and Organized Recreation.

Women enrolled in the course include Marjory Anderson, director; Doris MacCallum, Regina Britton, Clara Anderson, Helen Butcher, Dorothy Carrothers and Shirley Craig.

More volunteer workers are needed for the Woods. Interested persons may call Mrs. Anderson at TU. 2-6313.

The first steam ferry boat was operated between Detroit and Windsor on May 16, 1827.

Camera Club To Hear Kenn

"How to Make a Good Negative" will be the subject discussed by Stan Kenn at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Camera Club on Tuesday evening, May 6.

Mr. Kenn, well known commercial photographer, is noted for his ability to produce excellent negatives, which are of prime importance to producing a good picture. He has prepared a chart and negatives of varying densities to supplement his talk and illustrate the points in question.

Wayne Donaldson, president of the Club, also has announced that there will be judging of assignment prints of "Pets and Animals." Awards will be made for those accepted by the judges.

The meeting will be held at the Neighborhood Club at 8 o'clock. The public has been invited to attend.

Expert Teaching Enameling Class

Mrs. John F. Kline, of 870 Lincoln road, has announced a class in enameling at the Grosse Pointe High School under the supervision of Kenneth F. Bates, who is head of the Design and Enameling Department of the Cleveland School of Arts.

The classes are filled to capacity with many Grosse Pointe residents.

Among some of those attending are, Miss Sonja Preuthen, who is a teacher of education in jewelry designing for adult education classes at the Grosse Pointe High School. Mrs. Emil Leidich, Fred Colby, Miss Greta Pack, who is the authoress of two books on jewelry making, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Egan, and Mrs. Don Wick.

Mr. Bates will be teaching each Saturday at the Industrial Arts Building for the next four weeks.

Legion Auxiliary News
From Unit 303
By Betty Hoyt

Thirty million poppies will bloom on the lapels of Americans throughout the nation as America honors the dead of three wars on Poppy Day, May 22, according to Mrs. Elva Nielsen, Poppy Chairman of the Grosse Pointe Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary.

In exchange for the memorial flowers, Americans will contribute an estimated three million dollars to the rehabilitation and child welfare funds of The American Legion and Auxiliary. This money will remain largely in the hands of local Posts and Units, for the benefit of disabled war veterans and needy children of veterans in the communities where it is contributed.

More than ten thousand disabled veterans have been working for months in hospitals and convalescent workrooms throughout the nation making the vast bouquet of crepe paper poppies with which their fallen comrades will be honored. The work is considered valuable as occupational therapy and has given them the encouraging experience of earning money once more. The disabled veterans are the only paid workers in the Auxiliary's poppy program.

Approximately 150,000 American Legion Auxiliary women and girls will distribute the poppies on the streets on Poppy Day, all serving as unpaid volunteers. They will include three generations of American womanhood: wives and daughters of World War I veterans, mothers, wives and daughters of World War II veterans, and mothers and wives of Korean War veterans.

The poppies will be replicas of the wild European poppy which grew in such profusion in the battlefield and war cemeteries in France and Belgium, and which has been the memorial flower for the war dead throughout the English-speaking world since World War I.

The custom of wearing a poppy in honor of the war dead was inspired by the poem written by the Canadian doctor-poet, Col. John McCrae, which begins: "In Flanders' fields the poppies blow Between the crosses, row on row..."

Meeting Planned by Club At U. of D. High School

Rev. Hugh P. O'Neil, S. J., of the University of Detroit and a recognized authority on youth training will address the Mothers' Club of the University of Detroit High School, on Tuesday, May 6, at 2 p.m.

The annual election of officers will be held at this final meeting of the group for the school year.

Mrs. Thomas McCarthy of 1208 Audubon will assist at the social period which will be presented by the Freshmen Mothers.

Deadly Snakes Shun Michigan

Anyone planning a vacation or a hunting trip in Michigan can omit that bottle of snake-bite remedy in packing his bags.

According to Dr. Charles W. Creaser, chairman of the Wayne University biology department, no one in the state has ever been known to die from the poison of the bite of a local snake.

"Contrary to popular belief, many Michigan snakes thought to be venomous are completely harmless," states Dr. Creaser. "The only poisonous type in the state is the massasauga, or swamp rattler. Its bite may give a person a few bad hours but has not been known to cause death in Michigan."

Death dealing rattlers are, of course, found in other parts of the United States, and fear of them is widespread.

"People not only mistake Michigan's non-deadly rattler for the deadly type, but they also mistake the common water snake for the water moccasin; and the fox snake, because of its copper color, for the copperhead. Wholesale slaughter of harmless specimens has resulted."

The bite of a harmless snake is easily distinguished from that of a poisonous specimen, Dr. Creaser points out. Non-poisonous snakes, such as abundant in Michigan, have needle-sharp teeth that produce a whole group of tiny punctures. The wound of the harmful snake, on the other hand, consists of one or two distinct punctures in the flesh, made by one or both of the two fangs which carry the poison.

Snake-bite wounds in general appear more dangerous than they really are because of the profuse bleeding. Snake saliva encourages blood flow by preventing coagulation. Along with popular misconceptions about possibilities of death from Michigan snakes, other mistaken ideas have sprung up, Dr. Creaser says. Milk snakes do not milk cows, while snakes do not beat people to death, and rattlers do not need to be coiled to strike.

Puppeteers Guild to Give Show at Art Institute

The Detroit Puppeteers Guild will present the Meredith Marionettes in "The Magic Stalk," at 3 p.m., Saturday, May 3, in the Lecture Hall at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

At the same time, the Paul McPharlin Memorial Collection of puppets and marionettes will open on the ground floor. The collection will be on display until May 25.

Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Pauline Kovach, of Mt. Vernon, by calling TUxedo 1-2333; Mrs. Robert G. Hartwick, of Touraine road, at TUxedo 2-9161, or other Guild members. They may also be purchased by calling Wayne University, Art Education, at TE. 1-1450, Ext. 271, or at the door.

Admission price is $1.20 for adults, and 60c for children.

MASON SCHOOL

The children in Mrs. Hobart's third-grade have been studying about food. As part of their study they made an interesting trip to the Mills Bakery. They saw not only how bread was made but also saw the workers making rolls, pies and cakes.

A luncheon was enjoyed by Miss Helen Seymour's third grade group in the Mason School library. The activity was an outgrowth of a study of foods. The group planned the luncheon after they had acquired information on balanced meals.

The busy little workers made colorful baskets for apples to serve as center-pieces as well as gayly decorated place mats. Mrs. Gladys Vandembelt directed the committee which prepared the food. A child at each table served as host or hostess whose duty is comparable to host or hostess in home. Afterward, thank you letters were written to parents for the food which was so generously contributed for the activity.

The sixth grade classes of Miss Mercedes Merrill and Mr. Ted Jacobs visited the Cranbrook Institute of Science on Thursday afternoon, April 24. The children enjoyed the striking presentations of mineral displays, the mechanized model of the solar system and the ultraviolet rooms, where minerals undergo "miracles." A great number of the class are determined to revisit the museum for a more intensive investigation of the many things to be seen. The visit was conducted as part of their social studies unit on world resources.

All members of the Mason School teaching staff lunched together at the Hawthorne House between meetings of the Elementary Teachers' Institute, which was held on Friday, April 25.

White Cane Week To Be Observed

White Cane Week, annually designed to call attention to the need for traffic protection for the blind, will be May 4 to 10 this year, Walter F. DeLonge, Chairman for the Greater Detroit Lions' Council, announced.

White Cane Week has been officially proclaimed by Michigan's Governor G. Mennen Williams and Detroit's Mayor Albert E. Coburn.

Sponsored by the Lions Clubs of Michigan, the white cane or white cane with red tip gives the non-seeing pedestrian the right of way over all traffic. It has been recognized as official protection for the wholly and partially blind by Michigan State statute and City of Detroit ordinance.

Lions Clubs provide the white canes free of charge to all eligible persons who ask for them.

The idea for the white cane is credited to Lion Club President George M. Bonham of Peoria, Ill., who started the movement in 1930. It reached Michigan in 1936 and the state legislature passed an ordinance giving blind persons with white canes the right of way over all traffic. A similar ordinance was passed by the Detroit City Council in 1937. The movement has now gained international importance through Lions International, and thousands of blind persons throughout the world have received white canes from Lions Clubs. In Detroit and Michigan, the distribution of white canes is in the thousands.

"The White Cane idea cannot succeed or accomplish its purpose of traffic safety for the blind unless every motorist and pedestrian alike recognizes it," said Mr. DeLonge. "It is of no use to its owner unless it is thoughtfully and carefully observed as the 'traffic symbol of the blind.'"

Two Cars Tangle At Intersection

Grosse Pointe Farms police received a report of an accident, April 22, at the corner of Williams and McKinley. Jack M. Peterson, of 11917 Lakepointe, drove his 1948 Pontiac into the side of a 1950 Oldsmobile at the intersection. Both Peterson and Mrs. Ruth S. Teris, of 900 Lincoln road, were ticketed for entering an intersection without due caution.

City of Grosse Pointe Woods

The following action was taken by the City Council of Grosse Pointe Woods at their regular meeting of April 21, 1952:

RESOLUTION BY COUNCILMAN MCKNIGHT

That the following ordinance be published in the Grosse Pointe News and copies thereof be forwarded to all riparian property owners along Milk River and the Girard Drain and that a public hearing will be held on the said proposed ordinance at the Parcels School on May 5, 1952, at 7:30 o'clock P.M.:

AN ORDINANCE TO PROVIDE FOR AND REQUIRE BARRIERS, DIKES AND OTHER EMBANKMENTS TO PROTECT AGAINST THE OVERFLOW OF FLOODWATERS DUE TO THE RISING LEVEL OF WATERS IN THE MILK RIVER, THE GIRARD DRAIN, AND OTHER OPEN WATER COURSES IN THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS, MICHIGAN.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS ORDAINS:

SECTION 1. That due to the rising level of waters in the Milk River, the Girard Drain, and other open watercourses, in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, for the preservation of safety, health, property and general welfare of the public, it is necessary to take and provide precautionary measures to prevent the overflow of floodwaters in, along, and near such watercourses.

SECTION 2. Whenever the City Engineer finds that because of the rising of the level of the waters in the Milk River, the Girard Drain, and other open watercourses, in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, the safety, health, property and general welfare of the public is endangered by floodwaters and that immediate action is necessary to protect such public interest, he shall notify the riparian owners thereon, at the address given in the last assessment roll, and shall also post a notice on every lot, or building or structure thereon, to immediately provide adequate barriers, dikes or other embankments to protect against the overflow of floodwaters. Should any such owner fail to so provide, the City Administrator, with the sanction of the City Council, shall proceed to provide such barriers, dikes or embankments.

SECTION 3. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation, its, his, her, or their agents or employees in any manner interfere with or obstruct or prevent any department or employee of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, or any contractor engaged by the City of Grosse Pointe Woods in any construction work undertaken, in pursuance hereof.

SECTION 4. Any person, firm or corporation, its, his, her or their agents or employees, who shall violate the provision of this ordinance shall be subject to a fine of not more than $500.00 or by imprisonment in the City or County jail for a term not exceeding 90 days, or both such fine and imprisonment may be imposed in the discretion of the court.

SECTION 5. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby repealed only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect.

SECTION 6. Should any section, paragraph or provision of this ordinance be declared invalid, the same shall not affect the validity of the ordinance as a whole or any part thereof other than the part so declared invalid.

SECTION 7. This ordinance is declared necessary for the preservation of the public peace, health and safety and is hereby given immediate effect.

Carried by Councilman Heckendorn.
Supported unanimously.
Dorothy M. Westendorf
City Clerk.

Devils' Track Hopes Dashed As Goebel Breaks Back

What looked like a winning track season just a few short days ago to Grosse Pointe's new track coach Howard McAdam has turned into a nightmare for everyone concerned.

Last weekend, April 26, the Devils' most outstanding cinderman, Jerry Goebel, fell from a horse and broke his back. To be more specific, Jerry broke one vertebra and cracked another. He is now in Bon Secours Hospital, where a cast was placed on his back on Monday following the mishap.

Coach Cites Loss
Coach McAdam stated "we had a good chance of finishing the season with a winning percentage until Goebel took his horse-back ride. Now the team is really 'globbered.' You can't lose a boy like Jerry, who notched 13 points in our first meet, which we won against Hazel Park, 75 and a half to 33 and a half, and 18 points against Monroe, who just barely squeezed by us with a five point 57 to 52 margin, and expect to win very often against the type of competition we meet."

Won in Last Event
Incidentally, the Monroe meet was won by the Trojans in the very last event, the broad jump. All the Devils needed was a first place in this event to come off victorious regardless of what the Trojans did. Instead, Monroe's Smith leaped 18 feet 4 and one-half inches which outdistanced the Devils' Ralph Gray by a scant inch for first place and the meet.

Monroe's points came mainly in the field events. They slammed the shotput and the high jump to best the Devils in the league opener.

Records Topped By Doris Rock

Grosse Pointe's "Flying Mermaid" Doris Rock has done it again. She has added four more record breaking performances to her long list of swimming achievements.

On March 28, Doris splashed her way to two new records in the 100 yard breast stroke and the individual medley relay by posting times of 1:17.8 and 1:58.9 respectively. The old breast stroke mark of 1:20.2 was set by Connie Clibban in 1950.

Miss Rock then teamed up with the Turner's relay team and helped establish a new State record in the 300 yard medley relay event with a 3:51.3. All this took place in the Patton Pool, where the Michigan AAU girls' swimming championships were held.

One week later, April 5, Doris broke her own State record in the 100 yard breast stroke event and in the 90 yard individual medley relay. The "Flying Mermaid" posted a starting 1:16.3 for the new breast stroke mark and a sizzling 1:04.4 for the medley.

Blue Devil Nine Drops Opener

Coach Pat Kaulitz's Blue Devil baseball team took it on the chin last Thursday, April 24, and dropped its opening Border Cities League game 13 to 0, to the Monroe Trojans.

A difference of opinion set off a first inning scoring spree that set the Devils down without a score.

With two out and two on base in the first inning Bill Palm whipped over what was the third strike on the last batter. But the umpire claimed the Blue Devil caught tipped the batter's bat and waved the hitter down to first to avoid the bases. From that point on the Trojans began tearing off on Palm's offerings with good solid hits and didn't let up until seven runs had crossed the plate.

Coach Kaulitz, who is starting his last season as baseball coach, had no alibis, although he did say the Trojans had an advantage on his boys because they had played four games before tackling the Devils in their opening game of BCL play.

One defeat doesn't make a season and Devil fans aren't selling their team short yet.

City Fireman Suffers Stroke

Robert Haslett, aged 56, of 853 Rivard boulevard, suffered a stroke last Friday, April 25. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital where he is convalescing under the care of Dr. Joseph C. Brisson.

Haslett is a fireman in the City of Grosse Pointe. He will have completed 35 years of service as of June 1, of this year.

News Gives Oscars to Church League Champions

Members of the two championship basketball teams of the Inter-church League received individual "Oscar" trophies from the News at the league's Champions Dinner held at Christ Church on Wednesday, April 23. Left to right, back row: Christ Church manager, SANDY WEINER, GROSSMAN, LAMBRECHT, EVANS, PINK, ASMUS, T. KRETZLER, SMITH, SETTLE and Methodist coach, DICK NUTTER. Front row: HODGES, LEONARD, BROWN, SHERER, STEWART, J. KRETZLER and RUNNELLS.

Middies Win Loop Crown

Kopp's Pharmacy and Middle Atl. Transp. Co. nosed out P & J Cocktail Lounge last Friday night, at the G. P. Woods Recreation. Going into last Friday's fray, P & J Cocktail Lounge held a one point margin over the Middies and a two point margin over Kopp's Pharmacy.

A tie was possible if P & J would lose three to the Middies, but Kopp's would have to take Piche's for four. That is what really happened and a roll-off was necessary. It was agreed to roll for the championship Sunday morning at 10 a.m. A two out of three series would proclaim the winner.

The Middies took the odd game but it took a lot of luck. It was a shaky series and both teams were way off form. Irv Schoof became the goat as he missed the easy 2-4-5-8 spare in the last frame. The Middies won by six pins.

Doubles were also rolled on the last night and Beveridge & Meyer came in first with 1202; Davis and Williams were second with 1142 and the Mertz Brothers took third with 1131. There were eight other prizes that paid off.

The club will hold its annual bowlers' banquet tonight and it will be their last "get together" until September, when the league will start their sixth season.

Season high scores went to Village Wine Shop with 2683, Earl Holzbaugh Motors, second with 2672 and P & J Cocktail Lounge third with 2652. Monday Cleaners won the high single game with 995. Auto Club second with 975 and Village Wine Shop third with 967.

John Jeakle won high single with 270, Nelson 264, and Colombo 253. High three went to Henry Pellinski, who hit 654; Grady 640 and Ewald 634.

Scholarships to MSC Won by Two Pointers

A total of 402 scholarships have been awarded to high school graduates from 76 Michigan counties by Michigan State College, according to J. Robert Stewart, C.S.C. scholarship director. The awards, which become effective in fall term, 1952, were made on the basis of scholarship, and leadership and citizenship qualities displayed in high school, Stewart said.

The scholarships cover tuition fees of recipients. They are awarded for one year, but may be renewed for four years if the student maintains a satisfactory scholastic average.

Scholarship winners from Grosse Pointe are Margaret C. Lutton and Donna M. Albright.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

Have been down sick for the past couple of weeks and that's why no Boat Banter column. What's contained in this column I gathered from friends along the grapevine.

First off the bat Gordie Saunders Sr., tells me that Cleve Wellington, has asked him to take over his N.Y. 32 "Viessse" for the '52 season and he is looking for a competent crew. In other words Gordie is coming out of retirement and jumping with both feet into one of the hottest racing-cruising classes in these parts.

Gordie was the owner-skipper of "Armida," an eight meter, when she won the racing division of the 1949 Port Huron-Mackinac race. It was part of that crew along with Gordie Jr., Pete Jones, Bill Law and Joe Hahn.

Nubs Sarns, the man of many boats, is in somewhat of a tizzy these days. Nubby is busy getting his "Revelry" ready for the water along with getting his old boat "Minx" looking good so someone will buy it. And on top of that he has been jending a helping hand in getting his wife's "L Boat" ready for the water. Can anyone tell me of a family that has more boats than the Sarnses?

Bayview Yacht Club has only six boats left on the ways and all of them are big ones. Fleet Captain Joe Matte III really pushed the boys into the water early this year because of necessity. It seems the club had a chance to pick up scads of fill dirt for free and that is just what the club was looking for to raise the parking lot and the roadway leading to the club to beat the fast rising water which eventually would have made an island of Bayview.

Rear Commodore Bill Nagel says "the boats are only in the water about a couple of weeks earlier than usual." Incidentally, Nagel is having his fun this spring with his two partners, Desmond and Nichols, getting their new Pilot class craft together. Nagel never had to put anything bigger than a C boat together before this year. The trio just bought the big boat last fall.

The last word on Crescent Sail Y. C. is nothing has been decided upon as yet. The harbor is still knocked out and no definite plans have been formulated to get the harbor back in usable condition for the sailing season that is just a month away. Many of the members are worried and are beginning to look for temporary moorings elsewhere.

If any club member needed a "harbor of refuge" it's a Crescent sailor. Work is progressing on the Memorial Park Basin, the Detroit area's only "harbor of refuge" but no one seems to know when it will be ready for use and who can use it when it is done. Would be nice if the City would offer mooring places to Crescent members until Crescent's seawalls are put back in shape. After all the Crescent sailors have been paying their boat tax fees for the

Titles Decided In Pin League

Revere Cleaners became the second-half winner in the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Bowling League when it took three points from Turner Buick on "position night" the past week at the Maple Lanes alleys.

Turner Buick won the first game of the series and was in a fair way to win the second when anchor-man Janson of the Revere team converted a difficult split in the tenth frame and won the game for Revere by three pins.

The result then hinged on the final game, which Revere won handsily to become the champion on the second half of the season.

In the roll-off for the season championship, however, Testa Cement Company, the first-half winner, beat Revere to become the champion.

The league will complete the season the coming week with a "Doubles Night" and then the annual banquet at the St. Clair Shores Community Center on May 10.

Scores in the "200" class were posted by Aiello with 200, Bell 210, Bosco 209, J. Cross 209, Dangelmaier 203, Harmsen 203, Lawson 211, D. Lazarus 201, Mattsen 201, Pety 236 and 217, Rau 204 and Steiner 217.

College Play Lead Taken By Rosemary Ressegue

"Brigadoon," the top Broadway musical about an enchanted Scottish village that exists only one day in every century, will be presented by the Mercy College Players Saturday and Sunday, May 10 and 11, at 8:15 p.m. McAuley auditorium, Southfield and West Outer Drive.

Rosemary Ressegue, 1356 Three Mile drive, has the featured dance lead as "Maggie Anderson." In one of the show's most impressive moments, Miss Ressegue does the "Funeral Dance," Maggie's demonstration of grief for her dead suitor. She will also appear in the "Bonnie Jean Ballet" production number.

Miss Ressegue has also done much of the painting and construction of sets for the show.

Power Squadron Announces Plans

The Detroit Power Squadron will feature Prof. A. R. Locke of Wayne University's Aeronautical Department as their speaker at the regular monthly meeting on Thursday evening, May 1, at the Detroit Yacht Club, it is announced by Commander Arthur C. Berry.

Prof. Locke is one of the country's outstanding authorities on Catamarans or twin-hulled boats, both sail and power, and will cover the subject of design, engineering and construction. He will also tell of his interesting cruise across the Atlantic in the twin-hulled, 50 foot schooner "Copula."

Shake Down Cruise to Grosse Ile promises to be an outstanding get-together on June 7 and 8 when the Detroit Power Squadron will rendezvous at Hickory Island as guests of the Grosse Ile Power Squadron and the Grosse Ile Yacht Club. Dinner will be served at 7 o'clock with dancing and entertainment. Breakfast will be available Sunday morning.

The members of the G.I.Y.C. are very proud of their new clubhouse and justly so because it was erected and completed by the members, themselves. It is a fine testimonial to the spirit that prevails among the boating fraternity when all will pitch-in to help complete such a worthy project.

The DBS Georgian Bay-North Channel Rendezvous date has been definitely set for July 4 with a "Bon Voyage" Party at the Port Huron Power Squadron Clubhouse.

Join Trout Fishermen For Opening of Season

Two of the Pointe's inveterate sportsmen, Count Cyril Tolstoi and Lester F. Ruwe, hurried off to the W. C. Taggart Lodge on the Marquette River for the opening of the trout season. With Mr. Taggart they fished the streams near Fontanalis.

St. Paul Nine Gets Victory On Schummer's One-Hitter

Captain Pete Schummer hurled a one-hit ball game last Friday, April 25, and chalked up a 2 to 1 victory over St. Catherine for the St. Paul Flyers' first victory of the season. The Flyers' first ball game against St. Ambrose was rained out.

Both Schummer and Mickey Martin, the St. Catherine pitcher, had no-hit ball games going into the fifth inning when Tommy Thompson spoiled Schummer's bid for a no-hitter with a clean single. He didn't score, as two were out at the time.

Martin Scores First
St. Catherine's great competitor Mickey Martin gave his team a 1 to 0 lead in the very first inning when he reached first on an error, stole second, took third on an infield out and then stole home while Schummer was winding up. Schummer had two strikes on the batter when Martin surprised everyone with his steal of home.

St. Paul scored both its runs in the sixth inning with the winning run being a gift of pitcher Martin who balked home the final run of the game.

Roy Moxley Triples
Eddie Lynn singled to lead off the sixth inning and scored when the next batter, Roy Moxley tripled over the left fielders head. Moxley then scored the winning run when Martin balked.

St. Catherine threatened in the seventh and final inning when Flyer errors put men on first and second. With two out Ed Rachel attempted a bunt squeeze play and was called out for crossing over the plate while trying to bunt to end the game.

Play St. Mary's
The Flyers played St. Mary of Mount Clemens in Mount Clemens on Tuesday, April 29, but the results of the game weren't available before press time.

St. Paul's next home game, which is at Kerby Field, will be against Annunciation. The game starts at 4 p. m.

Girls Invited To Net Tourney

The Michigan Interscholastic Girls' Open Tennis championships to be held May 9, 10 and 11 is under the direction of an old friend of Pointe tennis fans, Mrs. Jean Hoxie, world famous tennis teacher from Hamtramck.

The championships are open to all girls 18 years old and under, and is split into two divisions, Junior Girls Singles (16 to 18) and Girls Singles (15 years and under).

The entrance fee is $2.00, which should be mailed with the entry form to Mrs. Jean Hoxie, Pulaski School at Lumpkin and Norwalk in Hamtramck, Mich.

For further information call Pulaski School, T.O. 8-0311, before 3 p.m., or Hamtramck Memorial Park, TR. 3-6625, after 3 p.m.

The three day tourney will be held at the Hamtramck Memorial Park, which is located at Berres- and Joseph Campau Street.

Richard Pupils To Present Play

The Forget-Me-Not group at Richard School will present "Bookland" May 3, at 10:30 a.m., in the Richard auditorium. The young ladies of the sixth grade take part in a play every year, the proceeds of which are given to a number of charity organizations. This year the gift will be presented to the Sister Kenny Foundation.

Mrs. Albert Werner will direct the play, written by Mrs. Charles Beltz. The productions of each year are built around book characters recognizable to young children.

Alice Auguston, Nancy Bristol, Bonnie Beltz, Donna Woodruff, Betsy Buel, Janet Werner, Nancy Werner, Carolyn Treblecock and Louise Wilson are among the cast.

Last year the group did "Land of Make-Believe." Proceeds of $87 went to children's hospitals.

Bob Beltz printed the tickets, selling for 25c, in the Brownell School printing class. They may be obtained by calling TUxedo 2-6234.

MSC Students To Attend Ball
Pointe students at Michigan State College will be among those present at Delta Gamma's annual Anchor Ball this Saturday evening in the American Room of the Olds Hotel at Lansing.

Twig Wright will attend the party with Larry Cooke of Lansing; Mary Whitcomb and Frank Tendrick Jr., both of the Pointe, will go to the ball together; and Pat Liddle's escort for the evening will be Dick Griffith of Traverse City.

Judge Discusses Child Welfare

At a meeting on Child Welfare last week, heavily attended by Grosse Pointers, Judge George Edwards made a strong plea for a Citizens Committee for Youth to work for a Receiving Home and treatment facilities for non-delinquent children in court care, who are now housed in the Detention Home while awaiting hearings on their cases.

Thousands of children, including many from the Pointe area, who are suddenly made homeless, are taken to the Detention Home where they associate with hardened criminals of every description. An understaffed department of social workers makes an effort to place these children in boarding homes, or to rehabilitate their own homes, but in many cases it is months before a child is removed from this unfavorable environment.

Judge Edwards also pointed out the lack of facilities for incipient sex-deviates, and for child mental patients.

Mrs. William Gall, of Moross road, chairman of Children's Services for the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters, opened the meeting, which was sponsored jointly with the Detroit and Dearborn Leagues, by outlining the League's work in promoting improved services for children.

Among those who attended the meeting from Grosse Pointe were: Mrs. Bert Lindzay, Mrs. H. L. Caverly, Mrs. Verne Sidman, Mrs. Edward Gehrig, Mrs. Donald Jennings, Mrs. William Laitner, Mrs. L. E. Bauer, Mrs. Edgar A. Hahn, Mrs. Ralph Pulliam, Mrs. John Suter, Mrs. Gordon K. Wood, Mrs. Arthur Reeves, and Mr. and Mrs. John Garlinghouse.

Pointe Homes Change Owners

Mr. and Mrs. Ozzie Olson, who have been making their home in Grayhaven, have bought the Alfred R. Glancy Jr. house on Renaud road and will take occupancy in the late Summer. The Glancys in turn have purchased the Lake Shore road home of Mrs. Alvan Macauley.

College Vacation Party Given by Ann Hoffman

Ann Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hoffman of Vernier road, had a party for her friends while home from Alma College for her Easter vacation. Those from Alma attending the party were Betti Burns, Bill Castile, Jim Johnson, Lety Gadzinski, Paul Finchem, Rosemary Rogers, Bob Piper and Carole Cummings. Friends from Grosse Pointe were Shar Allgood, Mary Allard, Barb Strauss, Barb Irwin, Nancy La Fleur, Pat Savage, Emo Harding, Dick Saunders, Neil Smith and Winnie Likert with their Dixieland trio.

Pick Right Lane Before Turning

All the Grosse Pointe Chiefs of Police warned motorists that turning from the wrong lane causes more trouble in left turns or right turns than any other violation. Other drivers are misled when a driver at the right edge of the pavement turns left or when a driver near the center line turns right.

"Pointing out" that the position of the car at the intersection is taken as a signal, the chiefs say, it's where you are before you turn that counts the most. Be sure to put your car in a position where other drivers expect you to turn left, before you turn left—and yput your car in a position where other drivers expect you to turn right, before you turn right.

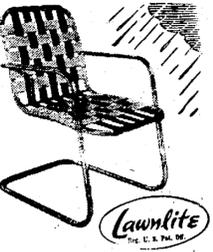

According to the State Safety Commission, "accident-free" drivers use a distinct maneuver in pulling to the center line or the righthand edge as a signal indicating which way they are going to turn. By doing this, they attract the attention of other drivers who may not have seen their hand signal.

Going into the third week of the Safety Campaign to make Safer Turns, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Police Department and the State Safety Commission, the Chiefs renewed their request that all motorists cooperate with the safety authorities.

"Art" Theaters to Show Walt Disney's "Fantasia"
Walt Disney's great concert feature, "Fantasia," in Technicolor with Stokowski, will play a special request engagement at Detroit's three exclusive "Art" theaters, the Center, the Studio and the Coronet, starting Thursday, May 1.

This astounding film contains the works of some of the greatest composers in musical history and provides two hours of glorious music, color and imagination. More than five hundred new characters were created by Disney for this original and complete presentation, winner of three Academy Awards.

Outdoor furniture
NO LONGER A NUISANCE!

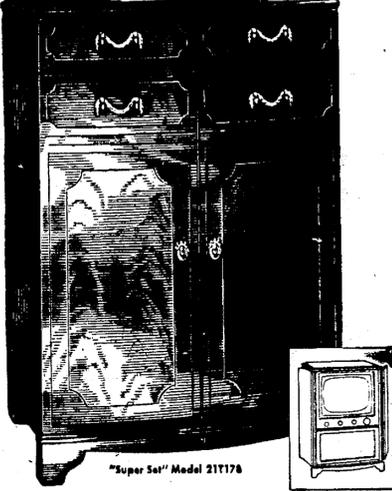

No more frenzied running the chairs to cover when skies open up and rain pours down! With Lawnlite aluminum and plastic webbed chairs on your lawns, you know you have furniture that laughs at all kinds of weather.

Brilliant of color, light as the proverbial feather—yet strong and durable and ever so comfortable. Styled in Miami, America's new capital for fashion in outdoor living. Truly exceptional outdoor furniture.

who, where and whatnot

by wboosi

The Pointe's Julie Harris rates a full page photo in the current Vogue and her histrionic gifts are likened to those of Ethel Barrymore . . . Lynn Fontanne . . . Helen Hayes . . .

Recommended: the natty Spring outfit worn by Mrs. Charles E. Navin . . . frock of lime green striped ticking . . . tailored and simple . . . and worn with clear toned lime coat cuffed in the ticking . . .

The spray is probably doing wonders for the Dutch elm disease, report many Pointe forest owners . . . but it's killing our feathered friends . . . The Thomas F. Cashin, Jr., home over on Washington has practically turned into a first aid station for the birds that topple out of trees after the spraying . . . with Mrs. Cashin and young Gloria performing the acts of mercy . . . including warmed milk and sometimes something a wee bit stronger for the dying warblers . . .

Chic exponents of the crinoline petticoat . . . (they wear wide ones that stick way out to . . . here: Mrs. Dzzie Olson . . . Martha McClintock . . .

How times have changed . . . we listened to a little Pointe gal telling us that the Northernd people are quite difficult to know . . . and really rather snooty!

One end of Francois' was practically filled the other evening by a long table at which were seated a beaming Stark Hickey and those cute grandchildren of his . . . Stark looking exactly as if he'd grant each and every slightest whim . . . even should it be a cheeseburger topped with ice cream . . .

PILFERINGS

Now that the Pointe is about to be vacated by the Winter travelers who are starting out for the Spring in Europe, perhaps the following will appeal:

The liner sailed into heavy storms. The twelve privileged passengers dining at the captain's table were uncertain looks as they gathered for their first meal, but the skipper decided nevertheless to proceed with his accustomed speech of welcome.

"I hope," he began, "that you 12 will have a good crossing . . . It's a real pleasure to me to see on your 11 bright faces the cordiality you 10 feel at gathering, nine strangers to partake with me of your eight dinners. After this meal if you four care for a game of bridge, I shall be happy to see both of you in my cabin. But, then waiter, clear the table, I don't intend to dine alone."

A woman in a small town was looking for someone to do her washing and ironing and she was directed to the home of a mountain woman a little distance from the village.

"I'm sorry, ma'am," replied the woman, "but I've got a new job now and I couldn't do your washin' and ironin'."

"What sort of a job do you have?" questioned the other lady. "Is it war work?"

"No, ma'am," was the reply, "taint exactly war work, but it's for the government and in this new job I aint allowed to work. I'm on relief."

Appearing on the stage of the local auditorium in a small town the lecturer stepped out from the wings and was very much embarrassed to see so few people in the audience and so many empty seats. Stepping to the center of the platform he began his speech as follows:

"Ladies and gentlemen, I am an orator, I am an author. I am a musician. I am a traveler. I am a playwright. I am an artist. It's too bad there are so many of me here tonight to address so few of you."

Pointer of Interest

ARLENE AND MICKEY QUATRO OF TORREY ROAD

Jose and Ampira Iturbi have miniature counterparts in the Pointe's brother and sister piano team, Arlene and Mickey Quatro, the children of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Quatro of the Woods.

Arlene, ten years old, and Mickey, aged nine, have been studying the piano for three years and already are poised as professionals with weeks of television and concert appearances behind them.

Encouraged by the keen interest of their parents, guided by a wise teacher and charged with good, healthy brother and sister competition, the youngsters love music.

It is a rare occasion, indeed, when Mrs. Quatro has ever to coax them to daily practice.

In fact, the first one to the piano usually gets the grand piano in the living room for the practice session; the laggard retires to the recreation room and the upright—not half so majestic.

Perfect Pitch Both children have perfect pitch, demonstrated before our widening eyes when their father struck a note on the piano and they—across the room—immediately declared, "G."

G it was, so named—fairly and squarely.

Mickey and Arlene have played on Auntie Dee's TV Show, on the Starlit Stairway and are practicing now for a return stint on Uncle Nick's video program.

Mickey, who looks like a pint-sized Oscar Levant and who is equally precocious, was first to play for us the other evening.

"I'll play my favorite. It is Joseph Haydn's Kinder Concerto." And then fixing us firmly with big, brown eyes he added, "It is 21 pages long."

With pardonable showmanship,

Packard Reelects Eight Directors

Packard Motor Car Company shareholders reelected all eight of the previous directorate at their annual meeting on April 21.

The action was taken at the meeting with 80.53 percent of the 15,000,000 shares of Packard common stock represented in person or by proxy.

Directors reelected include Hugh J. Ferry, president and treasurer; Col. J. G. Vincent, vice-president and engineering consultant; James McMillan, Henry E. Bogle and W. Tom Zur-Schmiede, all of Detroit; Edwin Foster Blair and Homer A. Vilas, of New York City and Earle C. Anthony, Los Angeles.

Reflections

by paul gech

OF COURSE I make children's portraits! Always have and always will. To this day I can still boast that I've never lost a patient. Some cry a little at first but it doesn't last long. They settle down in a few minutes after a little careful attention. From then on it's just one round of fun and laughs. I had a little cutie the other day, had so much fun he cried when another wanted to leave. I really had to talk fast to ease him gently out of the posing room. Is it any wonder I get such a kick out of making children's portraits?

LAMB ROAST

Contributed by Mrs. W. C. Moesta

Rub a lamb roast with garlic, and then season well with salt, pepper and dry mustard. Place in hot oven (400 degrees) for one-half hour, until the lamb is well-browned.

Pour over the lamb two cups of strong coffee with cream and turn heat low. For the next two hours baste as often as possible, for the more you baste the more delicious is the flavor of the meat.

Add one cup of port wine and continue basting for one-half hour more.

Carve the lamb, but replace the slices. Serve the sauce separately.

Will Open Home For Benefit Tea

Plans for the annual spring tea to benefit the Sisters of the Sick Poor are being furthered at meetings and luncheons these days.

Mrs. Edward M. Bursick will open her very new Harbor Hill home, on Wednesday, May 14, for the tea which is sponsored by the Auxiliary.

Miss Jane E. Doughty and Mrs. George J. Hayes met with their committee chairmen at a luncheon at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club to go over the details.

Assisting in the mailing of 1500 invitations are Mesdames Walter A. Bayer, Cyril J. Burke, Henry Warren Jones, Ray Danaher, Arthur F. Martz and Miss Margaret Radford. The publicity is being handled by Mrs. Jerry T. Flanagan.

Mrs. John M. Van Loon will be assisted at the tea table by Mrs. Oscar Lingeman, Mrs. Percy J. Donovan and Mrs. Frank X. Meier.

They are making a puppet show and will have expert advice from their father who, in a part time job just after he finished high school, worked the strings and did the voices for puppet shows directed by Meredith Bixby.—j.a.s.
