Residents Backing Community Club's Big New Addition

Committee Established to Insure That Construction on Much-Needed Building Will Be Started With Two Weeks

Hopes and dreams crystallized into realization Monday evening as a group of civic-minded people rallied and organized to meet the growing needs of children and adults in the Grosse Pointe Woods area.

Under the banner of the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club and the sponsorship of Edward Schultz of the Schultz Construction Co., a temporary committee was established to meet the deadline of "construction of the five room addition to begin within two weeks" and "playground equipment to be moved to a new location on the playground within the week."

Tells of Great Growth

Mervyn Gaskin, former president of the Board of Directors, informed the group that "attendance in organized groups at the Community Club has jumped from 1,276 in 1950 to over 9,000 for the year to date." He continued by pointing out that "funds from the Torch Fund have been doubled in the past year and a half to over $14,000 for 1952. The full time staff will double this year."

Mr. Gaskin pointed out that the high quality of service performed by the Community Club is indicated in the fact that the Community Club is used by Wayne University as a training center to prepare graduate students for the profession of Social Group Work.

With such facts in hand, the committee unanimously agreed to go forth with the project of the addition to the present building, and on the spot pledged financial and material help. Planning to contact other builders and supply dealers in the community for similar assistance, the effort thus became a businessmen's project dedicated to the welfare of the community. The committee went on record that "this should be a community enterprise and any contribution will be gratefully received."

Supervision of construction will be undertaken by Mr. Schultz with the assistance of other builders in the community. Max Luce, architect of the proposed addition, will finish detail planning. Frank Broedell, R. H. Courteville, C. B. Helmer, Chester P. Jankowski, Edward Russell, Reyer Vanzanen, Jerry L. Zollinger, J. H. Heberling and Gordon Spoor completed the roster at Monday night's meeting. For months previously, time has been volunteered by many other outstanding citizens of the community for realization of this project.

Generous Contributors

In addition to the above, generous contributions thus far have been received from the Cook Contracting Co., Michael R. Palnanu, Taylor and Gaskin, Inc., Teetaert and Wybo Construction Co., Edward J. Weeks of the Weeks Coal and Lumber Company, William Beyster Lumber Co., L. J. Athman Co., and Broedell Plumbing & Heating, Inc.

"Financial and material contributions should be sent to the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club Building Fund at 20883 Mack," says Mr. Gaskin, chairman of the Building Fund. The Community Club is a member of the United Community Services and a service of the United Foundation.

5th Week Produces 49 Gifts In Memorial Center Drive

With only 49 more Pointe families having sent in their contributions this week to the annual War Memorial campaign for funds, it became more evident that it will undoubtedly be necessary to conduct another door-to-door drive to raise the $18,000 needed to meet this year's budget requirements.

Last year more than 2100 families donated some $22,000 for the maintenance and operation of the Center. It was expected that all of these 2100, who signed pledges last year that they would be willing to make similar donations annually, would automatically reply to the direct mail solicitation, and that they would be joined by a considerable number of new donors.

Up to Tuesday of this week, only 640 families have contributed this year, despite the fact that the campaign has been in progress for five weeks. The total amount donated up to Tuesday was $9,241.50.

There have been 110 new contributors added to the list this year. This means that only 530 of the 2100 pledge signers of last year have kept faith with the Center.

Reminders of the pledges were sent to all those who gave last year and all the remainder of the more than 10,000 families in the community were solicited by mail.

After five weeks more than 9,300 families have made no response to the plea for the support of the Center which contributes so much to the Pointe.

Absent Voters Urged to Get Ballots Now

Primary Will Decide Whether There Will Be All-Pointe Battle for Governor

A final effort to turn out a record vote at next Tuesday's primary election is being made by all the Pointe municipalities with the warning that Saturday, August 2, is the last day on which absentee ballots may be obtained.

Clerks of all five Pointes will remain in their offices until 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon to take applications for absentee ballots. That will be the final deadline, as established by state law.

Very Heavy Demand

There has been an unusually heavy demand for absentee ballots this year. The Farms announced last week that it had already issued more than 200 and the pace continued this week. On Tuesday it was announced no total had been kept and the office staff was so busy issuing ballots it had no time to count them.

Norbert Nef, City clerk, announced on Monday that he expected the 300th absentee ballot would be issued there before the close of the day. The same unusual demand is true with the other Pointes.

Many Vacationers

This is partially caused of course, by the setting up of the date for the primaries to August 5, when many will be out of town on their vacations. The primaries are generally not held until September when most vacations are over.

The intense interest in this year's elections has been responsible for producing record registration lists in all of the Pointes. When the deadline for registrations was reached, some 37,000 voters had qualified.

Full Details Published

Tuesday's primaries will produce candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives, State Legislators and State Senator, and a host of county officers. All election details are published in legal advertisements by all the Pointes, being carried in this issue of the NEWS.

Polls Open 13 Hours

The polls will be open from 7 a. m. until 8 p. m. It should be noted that the City of Grosse Pointe is holding the primary election in the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo, for the first time. Previous elections have been held in the fire house across from the Municipal Building in Maumee avenue.

Tuesday's election will hold particular interest for the Pointes as it will decide whether or not there will be an all-Pointe battle for the governorship in November. Governor G. Mennen Williams, unopposed for the Democratic nomination, will be pitted against either Frederick M. Alger, Donald Leonard or William Vandenberg.

Governor Votes Here

Secretary of State Fred Alger lives in East Jefferson avenue, City of Grosse Pointe. Governor Williams maintains his legal address in Hillcrest road, Grosse Pointe Farms, and casts his ballot there.

Another hot fight promises to center around the battle among the Republicans for the nomination to Congress from the 14th District. Richard Durant of Lincoln road, was narrowly defeated by Democrat Louis Rabaut. Both are residents of the Pointe and both are candidates again this year.

Hot Seats Keep Driver Occupied

While in the vicinity of Harper Hospital last Sunday evening, William Debaeke, Jr., of 1375 Nottingham, discovered that both the front and rear seats of his 1949 Mercury convertible had caught on fire. Debaeke put out the flames by dousing them with water.

However, on his return home he discovered that the cushions had continued to smoulder and had burst into flame again. Park firemen finally put the fire out, using a mixture of water and "water wetter," a chemical that softens water and gives it greater penetrating power," explained Park Fire Chief Edward Rector.

Lake Shore Tree Spells Sudden Death

Phinous Shaw Killed While Returning From Work at St. Clair Shores Cafe

Phinous R. Shaw, aged 38, of the Savarine Hotel, 13115 East Jefferson, died of injuries suffered in an auto accident on Lake Shore road near Vernier shortly after he was admitted to Saratoga Hospital early last Sunday morning.

The accident occurred shortly before 3 a. m. as Shaw, employed as a bartender at a cafe at Ten Mile road and Jefferson, was returning home from work.

Was Driving Alone

Grosse Pointe Shores police said that his car, a 1939 Plymouth, had jumped the left-hand curb of the south-bound lane as he approached the traffic light at the intersection, grazed one tree, slammed into another and rolled over. The car was a total loss. No passengers had been with Shaw, the police added.

POLITICAL BOLTS

A political party is one thing that can't be held together with bolts.

Vast Quantity of Cigarets Stolen by Store Employee

As Emmett Chambers, of 1908 St. Ann, Detroit, driver for Kroger's market at 18850 Mack avenue, pulled into the rear of the huge store early in the morning of July 23, he noted that the light in the storage room was on. The light went out, as his truck approached the entrance, and two men ran from the building into a nearby field.

Chambers was able to get only a superficial description of the pair. He asked a passing motorist to notify the Farms police, who made a preliminary investigation but were unable to determine whether or not anything was taken.

Subsequent investigation by Sergeant Eugene Boylan led to the arrest on July 25 of John I. Nadrowski, 12712 Frankfort, Detroit, an employe of the store, on the charge of stealing cigarettes in the store and selling them to another local establishment. Sergeant Boylan and Lieutenant

Fish Rodeo Tuneup Produces Few Fish, But Raft of Kids Testify to Wonderful Time

139 Youngsters Turn Out for Practice Session at Farms Pier; Consume Enormous Quantities of Pop and Hot Dogs

By Fred Runnells

One hundred and thirty-nine youngsters ranging in ages from 4 to 17, appeared as if by magic at the crack of dawn at the Grosse Pointe Farms municipal pier last Saturday, July 26, to vie for honors and prizes in the second annual Fishing Rodeo Tuneup.

Actually only nine fish were taken during the hour and a half the contestants were allowed to fish. Andy Smith suffered a heart-breaking blow as the siren sounded ending the contest. Andy had earlier hooked a 9 inch sucker and was in line for the top prize for the biggest fish.

But Wayne Herbert just got under the wire as the siren sounded when he hooked a 16 and one eighth inch walleye pike while he was reeling in his line. You should have seen Wayne make his mad dash to the official measurer Del Page with his prize catch.

Other lucky anglers were: Jim Blacketter 6 1/2 inch perch; Joannie Loveless 7 1/16 inch perch; Don Sanford, 4 3/4 inch perch; Chuck Muier, 6 3/4 inch perch; and Andy Smith's 9 inch sucker.

All of these youngsters were from the Farms.

Other Prizes

Wayne Hebert topped the Good Appetites

The kids consumed 18 cases of pop, baskets of hot dog buns and hot dogs and ate ice cream until it popped out of their ears. All this was provided by the Metropolitan Club, the Neighborhood Club, Post 303 of the American Legion and it's Women's Auxiliary, the Lions Club, Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Association, The Alger Post (985) VFW, Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, the Police departments of the Farms, City and Park and the Boy and Girl Scouts.

Also Gave Manpower

Many of these organizations not only donated financial support but provided the man power to run the preliminary show before the big show goes on Saturday, August 23, at the same place. At that time the Pointe youngsters will be vying for national honors like those won by Mike Collins last year.

If the preliminary Fish Rodeo is any criterion the Big Show should be a whale of a success because all of these organizations have promised their help again and figure that they have the experience to put on an even bigger show for the Pointe small fry.

Baby Found Abandoned in Farms Field

New-born Infant Recovering in Cottage Hospital Despite Fractured Skull

A baby boy about three hours old was found abandoned in a field at the end of Kercheval avenue about 200 yards north of Provincial last Sunday evening. Discovered by Merrill Walls, Jr., of 3922 McDougall, Detroit, the child was rushed to Cottage Hospital.

The baby had suffered a fractured skull after being thrown, Farms police believe, from an automobile. It was lying near scattered newspapers and a torn shopping bag when Walls found it after hearing its cries.

Mysterious Call Reported

Investigation by Sergeant Eugene Boylan and Lieutenant James Furton of the Grosse Pointe Farms Police Department, revealed that the hospital had received a call earlier from an unidentified man, asking if a woman whose name the police are withholding, had been admitted as a maternity patient. The hospital told the anxious caller that no one with that name had been registered.

No Further Clues

Thus far, the police have been unable to uncover any further clues as to the identity of the child's parents.

Want to Adopt Him

The Farms police have already received at least three calls inquiring about procedures toward adoption of the baby. All such cases, however, are first turned over to the Children's Aid Society, as a ward of the state.

Last October 11, in a somewhat similar instance, the William B. Cudlips found an abandoned baby on their doorstep, at 900 Lake Shore drive. It was turned over to the care of the Children's Aid Society.

U. of D. ROTC Students Back from Camp Duty

Two Grosse Pointe residents who are members of the University of Detroit's Air Force ROTC, returned home this week following a month's duty at summer camps.

Robert J. Schick, 1828 Brys Drive, attended the summer camp at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois, and John H. Slevin, 1132 Whittier, attended the camp at Vance Air Force Base, Oklahoma.

Williams, Moody To Talk Tonight

The role played by Michigan delegates at the Democratic National Convention will be highlighted tonight, July 31, by the Fourteenth District Democratic Organization.

Stated for 8 p.m. in the Chrysler Local 7 hall, UAW-CIO, 1551 Hart near East Jefferson, the program will also include addresses by Congressman Louis C. Rabaut, of Detroit's fourteenth district, and other Democratic candidates.

Rabaut, who is seeking his eighth term in the House of Representatives, will also discuss the St. Lawrence Seaway issue.

Following the introduction of candidates for office by district chairman Nicholas J. Roth, free refreshments will be served. Candidates will be on hand during the refreshment period to talk over problems with individual voters.

The program is open to all East Siders without charge.

Prior to the meeting, Gov. Williams and Senator Moody will tour the district, giving impromptu speeches at factory gates and shaking hands with everybody they meet on the streets.

The fourteenth district covers all of Detroit east of Van Dyke, Harper Woods and the Grosse Pointe municipalities.

Himelhoch's Opening New Grosse Pointe Shop Monday

Himelhoch, known since the beginning of the century as one of the fine apparel shops of Detroit, will open its new Grosse Pointe shop in the Village next Monday, August 4.

Located on the north side of Kercheval avenue, between St. Clair and Neff roads, the shop is most modern in design; appointments and decor, and presents everything to make for pleasant, gracious, easy shopping.

The record of Himelhoch's is one of steady, solid growth, first downtown where it has attained an eminent position in the specialty-shop field, then expansion to Birmingham, and now an even larger neighborhood shop in the fashion center of Grosse Pointe.

The principal selling activity will center in three circular shops of ready-to-wear fashions, an innovation in floor layout and design and one that will excite great public interest. About these shops are many others, so arranged that all merchandise is correlated.

Special merchandising emphasis is being placed on sportswear and separates, coats and suits, and dresses... for misses, juniors and women. High couture fashions will be offered in excellent selections.

Then too, there are the lovely shops of lingerie, negligees, corsets and bras; the cosmetics, jewelry, neckwear, hosiery, belts, umbrellas and millinery.

One of the most striking features is the pleasant decor, with the theme distinctly nautical. The panel decorations are uniquely designed, many of them originated abroad. Fixtures are of the new double-duty type, serving two departments, built of limed oak, and so arranged as to permit easy access to any and all shops.

Kehoe Named to Sales Staff of Wyeth, Inc.

Richard J. Kehoe, of 91 Renaud road, has been appointed to the sales staff of Wyeth Incorporated, Philadelphia pharmaceutical concern.

Kehoe, who was graduated from Michigan State College (1949), served with the Hospital Corps of the U. S. Navy during World War II and for the past 16 months has served as an instructor in anatomy and physiology with the Hospital Corps.

His headquarters with Wyeth will be in Detroit.

Woods Holds Up Liquor Licenses

At a special meeting held nearly two weeks ago, the city council of Grosse Pointe Woods put off further consideration of applications for Class "C" licenses until the first regular meeting in September.

Aside from the requirements established by the State Liquor Control Commission, the city's administrators have demanded that an additional prerequisite be met before any application be approved: that the applicant shall have had a restaurant in operation for at least two years, and that once the license is acquired, the sale of liquor shall be incidental to the sale of food.

Community Club Olympics Today

"The Olympics" to be held today at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club, the final event closing the organized summer program of the organization, will start at 1:30 sharp. Some 40 children are expected to enter the different field events. Medalists will receive not only the plaudits of the anticipated crowd, but candy.

According to Edward Wernet, field judge and "Olympics Director," over 10 events are scheduled. Two heats in the 10-yard dash will be run, one for the four and five year olds and another for the five and sixes. These two groups will also participate in the "Balloon Bust," said to be difficult owing to giggles in the final minutes of competition.

Seven to nine-year-old boys will seek honors in the shot-put using regulation size and weight marshmallows as set forth by the "Olympics" Rules and Regulations" as a new world's record is anticipated. The new discus, a larger disc than usual of sturdy cardboard material closely resembling a paper plate, is what the athletes expect to make the difference.

The women's division will specialize in the javelin throw. It is reported that some of the girls have been practicing in drug-stores using the same equipment, soda straws.

After the events everyone will partake of a smorgasbord, not to be outdone by the "Other Olympics in Finland." The food will be provided potluck by the children, with the Community Club providing the dessert.

The Olympics will end officially with a small party for the "Officials," being given by the "Rules and Regulations" committee, Mrs. Jane Costabile, Miss Adelaide Dinwoodie and Mr. Wernet. Among the "officials" are listed the part-time summer staff: Miss Molly Kerr, Harold Lotis, and Miss Evelyn Citrin, and the summer volunteers; Mrs. Margaret Dumaus, Mrs. Max Luce, Mrs. Elaine Parker and Misses Wrintha Marcus, Wanda Walgenback, Frances Babcock, Glenna Lowell and Joan Hargis, and Tom Quinlan.

Pops Concerts End Next Week

The final week of Detroit Symphony Orchestra concerts at Jefferson Beach Symphony Pavilion will start next Wednesday at 8:30 p.m.

Highlights of the week will include the guest appearance of Eduard Werner as conductor, Friday night, the solo appearance of pianist Robert Shulman, pianist, on Wednesday evening, and the conducting of the final concert on Saturday evening of Valter Poole.

Concerts are free to the public through the joint sponsorship of the Music Performance Trust Fund and the Pfeiffer Brewing Company. This is the eighth week of the series.

Steel Transaction Headache Survived as Farms Profits

A happy ending can be written to the struggle in which the City of Grosse Pointe Farms became involved in attempting to get steel to preserve its municipal pier. The job is completed and Murray Smith, Farms engineer, reports the city even made a little profit on the complicated deal.

Some eight months ago the Farms asked the government for permission to buy a supply of controlled steel, with which to encase the crumbling pier. There was considerable red tape involving several trips to Washington, made by Mr. Smith. The city found a supply of steel, gained the sanction of the government to purchase it, and invested $20,400 in the deal.

When the contractor started to drive this steel sheeting, it was found to be too light to penetrate the disintegrating concrete base of the pier, and was useless.

The search started all over again and finally the Farms located another supply of heavier steel and again received permission to purchase it. The $20,400 worth of lighter steel has been piled at the beach park, with the city officials hoping they would be able to find a market for it.

One of those most intent in the search for a buyer was Councilman William G. Kirby.

He learned that the Huron-Clinton Authority, which operates the St. Clair Beach, largest fresh water recreational center in the country, needed some steel for another of its operations at Kent Lake.

The sale has been completed, for $22,500, and the Huron-Clinton Authority was to have picked up the steel and taken it off the Farms' hands on Wednesday.

Preliminary Event to Fishing Rodeo Brings Out Kids

Walter Collins hands out tags to the long line of fishing enthusiasts just prior to the start of Grosse Pointe's second annual Fishing Rodeo Tune-Up at the Farms municipal dock Saturday, July 27. The tags were used by the children to draw for prizes at the conclusion of the event.

Farms Fire Loss $14,930 in June

Total fire damage in the city of Grosse Pointe Farms during June reached an estimated figure of $4,930. Two residence fires accounted for $4,800 damage, the balance being incurred in one automobile fire and one miscellaneous fire.

The attic fire in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Simkow, at 71 Muir road, June 19, caused damages of approximately $3,800. Responsible for the blaze were two young boys, 9 and 10 years old, who, police said, had shot a burning "sparkler" tied to an arrow into the rain gutter of the house, setting fire to the shingles. The fire department answered 33 calls during the month, Chief William H. Newport stated.

Speeder Appeals Jail Sentence

Grosse Pointe Park police picked up Frank Zubak, aged 24, of 731 Tennessee, Detroit, after a wild chase at high speeds that led them, with assists from other Pointe police departments, to Moross road and Lake Shore drive on July 26.

Zubak appeared before Judge C. Joseph Belanger later that same morning, pleaded guilty to a reckless driving charge, was sentenced to 20 days in the Wayne County Jail, and placed on probation for six months, during which time he would not be permitted to drive. The police also requested a revocation of his license.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Judge C. Joseph Belanger heard eight cases at the Grosse Pointe Park municipal court session held July 23.

Herman Fredd, of 9160 Everts, Detroit, received a fine of $25 for an accident at Charlevoix and Whittier July 3.

Russell W. Frazho, 1264 Manistique, who was charged with improper passing, received a $10 fine.

A fine of $20 was placed against Vito Bonmarito, of 2932 Drexel, for a reckless driving charge.

Because he failed to appear in court to answer a speeding charge, Gilbert A. Laurion, of 340 East Grand boulevard, forfeited a bond of $30.

For speeding and running a stop street, Sally Chapin, of 457 Lake Shore drive, received a fine of $20.

A $20 fine was placed against John J. Sattler, of 22487 Bayview, St. Clair Shores, for reckless driving that resulted in an accident. Erna E. David, of 1448 Beaconsfield, was ordered to pay damages that resulted from an accident in which she was involved. Her sentence was suspended in lieu of payment.

Joseph Doyle, of 954 Barrington, received a suspended sentence and was placed on probation for three months. He had been charged with allowing his dog to run loose.

Blame Accident On Speeding Car

A two-car accident at the corner of Vendome and Kercheval last Friday resulted in damages to each car estimated at $250. Involved were Mrs. Edna Schwartz, of 409 Kercheval, and Mrs. Mary M. Fisher, of 21628 Blackburn, St. Clair Shores.

The accident occurred when Mrs. Fisher, after stopping on Vendome, attempted to beat a car speeding east on Kercheval through the intersection. She collided with Mrs. Schwartz, who had been driving west on Kercheval.

The police were unable to locate the driver of the speeding automobile, which was believed to have been a Dodge convertible.

Durant Wants To Meet Labor

Richard Durant, candidate for the Republican nomination for Congressman from the 14th District in the primary election on August 5, emerged this week as one of the few Republicans in the state willing to meet organized labor on its own ground.

On Sunday, July 27, The Detroit News devoted the weekly column by its Labor Editor, Asher Lauren, to the story of Durant's willingness to present the Republican point of view to members of the UAW-CIO in his District.

In the same spirit that led him to crash the 1951 National Convention of the UAW at Cleveland (he said at the time that he had gone to show union officials that a Republican does not have horns and a tail!), Durant refused to take that "No" as final.

Although some of the locals took the same attitude as the international, seven of them stated they would be delighted to arrange for something of that sort.

Durant himself stated that he was very pleased with the reception he got. "I enjoyed the chance to meet those gentlemen," he said.

Going on to say that regardless of who won the nomination he still wanted to keep the engagements, Durant added, "Whoever the nominee is, he has got to show union members that the Republican Party is their real friend—and that he himself wants to represent everybody, not a special group."

Thomas Jacques Runs For Judge

The Detroit Citizens League recently listed its recommendations for the primary elections in the nine-man non-partisan Probate Court race, one of the two "preferred" ratings went to Thomas A. Jacques, former Probate Register and now a practicing attorney.

Jacques has had 32 years of experience in the probate field, beginning in 1919 when he was appointed a clerk in the Probate Court register's office.

Jacques recently received a 98 per cent vote of confidence from the Detroit Bar Association poll on Probate Court candidates. He began his successful probate law practice in 1940, after he left the register's office.

Jacques is strongly in favor of establishing a rotation system for distributing law cases among the six probate judges. He claims that "From the standpoint of public relations alone, a rotation system would be a good thing in Probate Court."

Jacques lives at 315 McMillan in Grosse Pointe. His eldest son, Tom, is married and has two children. A daughter, Marion, is married and has one child, John, 23, is in the Army in Germany, and Ruth, 21, serves as her father's office secretary.

George M. Kennedy Takes Training at Aberdeen

ABERDEEN, PROVING GROUND, Md.—Cadet George M. Kennedy of Cornell University has been at the Ordnance Reserve Officer Training Corps Summer Camp at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md.

Cadet Kennedy is one of the 817 college-student ROTC men who are here, from 45 states, the District of Columbia, and Hawaii, to take intensive study in Army Ordnance subjects, drill, and physical training.

During the busy weeks of camp, Cadet Kennedy has gone through rigorous Army training, but the time has not been without periods of entertainment and participation in competitive sports.

In the field of ordnance he has received detailed instruction from the Ordnance Corps' technical instructors, using the Proving Ground's development and testing areas, and its museum. Included in the instruction was a four-week trip to Letterkenny Ordnance Depot in Chambersburg, Pa., where the cadets studied automotive, rebuilding and ammunition renovating processes in action.

Cadet Kennedy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy of 400 Lincoln road, Rosse Pointe, Mich.

Adolph Damman Seeking Office

Adolph L. Damman announces his candidacy for Republican nomination for the State Senate in the First District. He was born and raised in Fair Haven, Michigan, and started his career on the Great Lakes.

In 1932 Mr. Damman became treasurer of the Grosse Pointe Township. He has been reelected to this position each term up to the present date.

Being a resident and businessman on the east side for 32 years and treasurer of Grosse Pointe Township for 20 years, Mr. Damman believes he is well informed on the problems of the district and of the State of Michigan.

As a businessman he realizes that the continuous rising cost of government is a very serious problem. Only through sound and basic economy, the reduction of waste and elimination of corruption in government, can the cost of government be reduced, he says.

Candidate Rally Held by League

The democratic process in action rewarded an audience of 300 in Parcels School auditorium Monday evening with eye and ear views of 30 office-seekers at the Pointe's First Candidate Rally, sponsored by the non-partisan League of Women Voters.

Presented in order of numbers drawn, candidates' answers to League-prepared questions ranged from tenure of office for Michigan governors to mutual security on the international level.

Printed biographical material handed out to members of the audience stimulated interest as well as setting the pace for further time-saving in the introductions from the stage by Moderator J. Harold Husband.

Opening the forum was Mrs. Bert Lindzey, president of the League, who introduced Mrs.

Thurston Springett, chairman of Voters Service and rally chairman. Following the pledge of allegiance under leadership of Boy Scout Troop 147 and singing of The Star Spangled Banner, Dr.

Frank Fitt gave the invocation. John Finch led the singing with Mrs. Wayne Donaldson and Mrs. Orland Arnold, pianists. Mrs. Donald Jennings acted as official timekeeper.

Find Parked Car Full of Cloths

When they returned to their car from a St. Louis (Missouri) restaurant one evening last week, Mr. and Mrs. James D. White, formerly of Rivard boulevard, found a large quantity of clothing, 13 dresses, 10 shirts, and a jacket, on the front seat. Outside the car on the sidewalk was a sample case containing at least 100 items of children's apparel.

White, who had recently moved to St. Louis to take charge of the Railway Express Co. office there, waited 20 minutes to see if anyone would claim the articles. Executives of the firm whose name appeared on the labels could offer no explanation.

Where had the clothing come from? Best guess by the police: the articles might have been stolen from the automobile of one of the firm's salesmen and put in the Whites' car when someone approached.

Mrs. White is the Janet White who was head of the NEWS circulation department until a few weeks ago when her husband was transferred to St. Louis.

Welcome to New Teachers

Because of the growth of the Grosse Pointe community and the subsequent increased enrollment in the public schools, the Grosse Pointe School Board has made some 50 appointments to the different faculties.

These appointments have also been made because of the need to replace those teachers leaving the Public School system for reason of transfer or retirement.

By way of introduction to the parents of children who will attend or who are now attending the public schools, the NEWS is publishing weekly short biographies of those whose appointments have been confirmed. During the coming months until school reopens in the fall, the biographies of new teachers will appear in each issue.

Kirby Candidate For State Senate

William G. Kirby, Grosse Pointe Farms Councilman and successful Detroit businessman, is a candidate for the State Senate from the First Senatorial District. This District has the same boundaries as the Fourteenth Congressional District.

WILLIAM G. KIRBY

Mr. Kirby, the head of a small manufacturing business, says he is aware of the problems facing both small businesses and state and local governments. He has been a member of the Grosse Pointe Farms City Council for the past seven years and a member of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors for the past two years.

He has expressed the opinion that the State Legislature certainly should be reapportioned and should have been a long time ago. He says that there are merits to each of the two plans offered to the voters, but he does not feel that either plan ultimately solves the problem.

He points out that there is a great inequality in the distribution of sales tax on gasoline. This tax should be divided more equally on the basis of the amount of money each county pays into the State Treasury and he intends to support legislation to this end, if elected.

He also points out that it is important to nominate a Republican candidate who can successfully beat his Democratic opponent in the November election.

Inflation has gone so far you can't even see a dollar anymore.

BLAIR MOODY

IN THE

UNITED STATES SENATE

The following statements are EXCERPTS from an article written about Senator Moody by Roscoe Drummond, chief, Washington News Bureau of The Christian Science Monitor:

- ★ As a freshman politician, a first year Senator and a former newspaperman, there is no doubt that Blair Moody (D) of Michigan is building quite a record for making friends and influencing action on the floor of the Senate.
- ★ He has been one of the busiest senators and he has not fallen for the comfortable myth that a well-delivered political speech is a substitute for getting something done.
- ★ He is not an absentee senator. He voted in 148 of 164 roll calls for an average of 90 percent in the first session of Congress and in the second session he has voted in 23 of 24 roll calls, for a 96 percent average.
- ★ In Foreign Policy he has followed the path of Senator Vandenberg by being a discriminating internationalist who is willing to criticize his own party when he felt it justified.
- ★ On economy he has shown himself disposed to look at a dollar or a billion dollars pretty carefully before appropriating it out of the taxpayers' pockets.
- ★ In the field of anti-corruption and purging federal service of wrongdoing, he has been on the side of "cleaning the rascals out."
- ★ He favors the St. Lawrence waterway and is a full-scale advocate of bi-partisanship in foreign policy.
- ★ Washington knows that Senator Moody is around.

Pointe Girl Finds Study In Mexico Most Pleasant

MEXICO CITY (Special to the News)—Miss Diane E. Eppinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward E. Eppinger of 338 Mount Vernon, Grosse Pointe, is combining travel and vacation with education this summer by attending Mexico City College located in Mexico's capital, the second largest city in Latin America.

Students do not have to know a word of Spanish to enroll at Mexico City College, as all but about five percent of the classes are taught in English. Most students, however, take Spanish as one of their courses and find they learn the language rapidly by practicing it in every restaurant, store, and market place.

Students at MCC are increasing their knowledge of Mexico by going on trips organized by the college at nominal cost. They see the 1500-year old Pyramid of the Sun and the Temple of Quetzalcoatl at Teotihuacan. They see the handsomely furnished reception rooms at Chapultepec Castle, former palace of Emperor Maximilian, and the gold and silver regalia coach once used by Maximilian and his equally tragic wife Carlota for state occasions.

Miss Eppinger is taking courses in Spanish under the Murray system of idiomatic instruction developed at MCC and now being adopted in the U.S. Previous to enrolling at Mexico City College she graduated from Grosse Pointe High School and attended Michigan State College at East Lansing, where she was active on the tennis and swimming teams.

Although prices are spiraling, MCC students find it is easier to keep up with the rising cost of living in Mexico than in the U.S. Because a dollar is worth a little over 8 pesos, students can board and room in a college-approved Mexican home for about $10 a week. Married students or single men may, if they prefer, rent a furnished apartment for from $15 to $50 a month and hire a cook for $12. Good cigarettes are less than a dime. A taxicab ride downtown is 35 cents and a first-class bus fare costs three and a half cents. In the colorful open markets gladioli can be purchased for 25 cents a dozen.

When a MCC student has an urge for a steak dinner with all the trimmings, he can go to a first-class restaurant and get it for about a dollar.

The college has attracted much attention not only in the United States and Mexico, but in all of Latin America. A thousand students of Mexican and other nationalities have enrolled in the MCC extension classes to study the language and literature of the English speaking peoples. An average of a thousand students a quarter register from the United States.

These students are building up harmonious relationships and learning to understand each other's economic and sociological problems as they mingle in the college classrooms.

Mexico City College is performing an unprecedented role in building up international goodwill by giving the American students and the Mexican community a feeling that friendliness between the bordering nations is a matter of reality rather than mere words.

At MCC there are 2,000 goodwill ambassadors representing every Latin American country and every one of the United States, all gathered figuratively and literally under one roof to learn the truth about each other. They are finding that an exchange of ideas between various nationalities is the best way to cement enduring understanding.

Frederick W. Duemling, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Duemling of Vernier road, was married on July 9 to the former Jacquelyn C. Bacon, daughter of Mrs. Ruth Bacon of Kace street, Detroit.

The couple was married in St. John's Catholic Church with the Rev. A. Jones officiating at the services. Gloria Lee Duemling, was the maid of honor and Donald Haylin served as best man.

The bride attended St. Mary and East High Schools and her husband attended Wayne University.

Church Women Staff USO Club

Members of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Association served at the USO Downtown Club snack bar, 147 West Lafayette, on Tuesday, July 22, when approximately 400 servicemen and women dropped in for sandwiches, iced tea and coffee, and cookies and cake, while they enjoyed the other recreational facilities of the club. The group has signed up to serve the third Tuesday in July, August and September, with the understanding that they will staff the snack bar for 12 hours on those particular Tuesdays, and donate funds for the refreshments served on those days.

Those who served last week were: Mrs. George Landman, Mrs. Orville Aljets, Mrs. James B. Blashill, Joyce Blashill, Mrs. Edward Phipper, Mrs. Robert Schultz, Mrs. Gerrit Kastenberg, Mrs. Curtis Mower and Marilyn Mower, Mrs. F. F. Stetekuh, Mrs. James Cope, Mrs. Frank Crum, and Mrs. Ernest Lamb, all from Grosse Pointe.

Community groups representing civic, educational, church, and other organizations, serve regularly at the snack bar and many donate funds for refreshments which are mostly made up in the canteen kitchen, with ingredients bought by a central purchasing committee. Homemade cakes and cookies are also donated by the community groups. More than 60 such organizations are assigned at present, but more are needed, according to the canteen chairman, Mrs. Herbert S. Arbogast, of 4197 Courville.

The USO of Metropolitan Detroit, which is a United Foundation agency and is maintained by Torch Drive funds, reports an average of 12,000 servicemen and women a month who benefit from some form of USO service.

The engagement of PATRICIA ANN THIBODEAU to Frederick Arthur Peck was announced at a cocktail party on Sunday, July 27, given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Thibodeau in their Grand Marais boulevard home. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mrs. Aimee H. Peck of Los Angeles, Cal.

Showers Honor Ann Hagan

Mrs. James B. Steep was first hostess for bride-elect Ann Hagan who will be married Aug. 22 to John Woods Waidley in St. Aloysius Church.

Mrs. Steep's linen shower and luncheon was given at the Detroit Boat Club.

Two of Ann's bridesmaids, Peggy Harrigan and Barbara Cramers, were her hostesses at a barbeque and kitchen shower last Saturday at the former's Park lane home.

And yesterday, the pretty bride-elect was complimented with a luncheon and pantry shower by Mrs. Albert Mackey of Seminole avenue and Miss Marion Ackerman. The party took place at the Mackey residence.

With a promise to return next Summer . . . lovely Mrs. Samuel H. Bell, her three little girls and son . . . were off on Monday evening . . .

To stop for a visit in Wayzata, Minn. (with Mr. Bell's parents, the James S. Bells) . . . and finally, to return to the Bell ranch at Chandler, Ariz. . . .

The former Virginia Ford has been in the Pointe with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Clifford Ford of Bishop road . . .

And before that . . . with her husband and eldest daughter, Wendy . . . traveled for seven weeks in Europe . . .

Travel To Far Away Places

"It was especially fun this year," declared Missie B, "because we did the out of the way places" . . .

Africa . . . Spain . . . Portugal . . . Italy . . . and the Scandinavian countries . . . with just short calls in London and Paris . . .

Daughter Sally . . . who has the same liting and beguiling voice as her mama has NOT inherited the Ford curls . . . nor have the other Bell children . . .

A source of great disappointment to them, they chide their pretty mama, "you might have passed those curls on a bit!" . . .

Little Club's Tennis Fest

Mrs. Bell and the Fords were among those attending the Little Club's fifth annual invitational tennis tournament last week-end . . . on Saturday and Sunday . . .

Managed by tennis committee chairman, Alexander L. Wiener . . . players from the Country Club . . . the Indian Village Tennis Club . . . Neighborhood Club . . . Grosse Pointe Hunt Club . . . and the Birmingham Tennis Club took part in the men's doubles contests . . .

Trophy winners were Chairman Wiener and his partner, Ralph McElvenny (they received good looking silver water pitchers) . . .

And in the galleries we glimpsed: Mrs. Wiener . . . the A. D. Wilkinson family who were cheering for son-in-law, Guerin Todd . . . the Frank Donovans . . . Mr. and Mrs. Hunter Williams . . .

John H. French, Jr. . . . the Rev. Henry Sherrill . . . John Chandler . . . Dex Ferry . . . Bill Croul . . . Mrs. Myron Merry . . . Mrs. Harold D. Baker . . .

Shirley Barrett Weds At Candlelight Rites

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Simeon Barrett of Grosse Pointe Woods becomes Bride of Robert C. Leon; Will Live in Detroit After Wedding Trip

The marriage of Shirley Barrett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Simeon Barrett of Manchester avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, and Robert C. Leon, was solemnized Wednesday, July 26, in the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church . . .

Miss Barrett and her bridegroom exchanged their vows at a 7:30 o'clock in the evening service, with Dr. Edward W. Willcox officiating. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Leon of Cardoni avenue . . .

Wearing a gown of imported white embroidered organdy, the bride carried a bouquet of stephanotis, gladioli and white orchids . . .

The gown's fitted bodice was attached to a great skirt distinguished at back by three graceful tiers which swept into a cathedral train . . .

The bridal veil was attached to a small cap of embroidered organdy and gaudlets of the same material completed the costume . . .

Florence Plourde was maid of honor and the bridesmaids included the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. James McKenzie, and Annette Clark . . .

The trio of attendants wore frocks of pale mint green organdy, the skirts having panels of white embroidered organdy. The touch of white organdy was repeated at the necklines. Hats matched the frocks and the maids carried baskets filled with small white chrysanthemums and yellow roses . . .

Frederick C. Maddens was Mr. Leon's best man and the guests were seated by James McKenzie, Thomas Barrett, brother of the bride; Richard Kwiecinski and Verne Quick . . .

Mrs. Barrett chose for the candlelight wedding a gown of poudre blue chiffon, its full length skirt fashioned with panels of matching lace. Her chapeau was a small matching velvet . . .

The bridegroom's mother affected pink lace and marquisette evening gown and wore a close fitting toque to match . . .

The bride's parents were hosts at a reception for the wedding guests in the St. Clair Shores Civic Center . . .

When they return from their wedding trip in Northern Michigan, the young Leons will live in Detroit . . .

The bridegroom is a civil engineer with Great Lakes Steel Corp. . . .

Mary Anne Kline Is Bride of Don Draper

Speaks Vows at Friday Afternoon Ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Bride Daughter of Mrs. C. Byron Swift of Neff Road; to Live in Pittsburgh

Mary Anne Swift Kline chose a frock of turquoise blue tissue taffeta for her marriage to Donald Edward Draper of Pittsburgh last Friday.

The ceremony, attended by members of the families and a few close friends, took place in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Clarence Byron Swift of Neff road and the late Mr. Swift. Mr. Draper is the son of Mrs. William A. Draper of Washington, D. C. and the late Mr. Draper.

Mary Anne's smart frock was designed, opera length and with it she wore a picture hat of sheer horsehair braid.

Her flowers were an arrangement of white rubrum lilies and yellow roses.

The bride's only attendant was Mrs. Henry P. Cope who carried yellow daisies and wore a waltz length frock of deeper blue with picture hat to match.

Mr. Draper asked his brother, Addison Dent Draper of Joliet, Ill., to be his best man.

The bride's mother attended the wedding in a navy sheer and lace gown with which she chose a matching chapeau.

Mrs. Draper, who remained in the Pointe to visit Mrs. Swift for several days following the wed-

Miss Murphy's Plans Complete

Six attendants will precede Mary, Jacqueline Murphy of Balfour road when she becomes the bride of Paul Leslie Greer of Covington drive on Saturday, August 23, in St. Ambrose Church, Grosse Pointe Park.

The ceremony will take place at noon followed by a breakfast and reception for the wedding party and guests at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Two of the bride-to-be's sisters will be in the wedding party, Mrs. Carl Edward Sisk, who will come from Cleveland to be her sister's matron of honor, and Lois Ann Murphy will be a bridesmaid.

Three former college classmates of the bride, Miss Patricia Ann Lytle and Miss Jeanne Porter, both of New York City, and Mrs. Neil F. Murphy of Audubon drive, will also be bridesmaids. Miss Margaret Lynne Branstrom, niece of the bridegroom, will be flower girl.

Mr. Greer has asked his brother-in-law, James A. Branstrom, to be his best man, and ushering will be Carl E. Sisk, of Cleveland; L. David Conklin of Freeland; Konrad D. Kohl, Birmingham, and Jan M. Smits.

Several parties have already been given in honor of the young couple. Madame Elda Ercole, opera and concert artist, and formerly of the La Scala Opera Company under whose direction Miss Murphy has been studying, entertained at a cocktail party and buffet supper in her apartment on West 73rd street, New York, recently, and Miss Jean Fitzgerald and Mrs. Neil F. Murphy invited a group of former college classmates of the bride-elect to luncheon and a kitchen shower last week.

On Tuesday, July 29, a luncheon and recipe shower was given by Mrs. B. D. Marshall and Mrs. Roy I. MacArthur in the Flint Golf and Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Konrad D. Kohl will entertain in their honor in their home in Birmingham, early in August.

Mrs. Carl Edward Sisk will be hostess in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club at a spinster dinner in honor of her sister shortly before the wedding.

Harriet Heames' Betrothal Told

Miss Harriet Heames of Parker avenue in Detroit and daughter of the late Richard M. Heames, formerly of Grosse Pointe, revealed her engagement to Philip Turner, son of Mrs. Gordon P. Turner and the late Mr. Turner of Hartford, Conn., and Buffalo, New York.

The announcement was made at a luncheon Saturday, July 26, at the Detroit Boat Club. The luncheon was given by her sister, Mrs. Kenneth E. Chamberlain of Lincoln road.

The guests included Mrs. Stephen Wirts and her daughter Mrs. Charles Clark of Natchez, Miss.; Mrs. Walter Chase and her daughter Doris; Mrs. Robert Boyer, Mrs. Fred Slocter, Mrs. Richard H. Hasse, Mrs. Robert Rutherford, Mrs. Leslie Wrigley and Miss Josephine Gray.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Michigan and a member of Sororis. Her fiancé was graduated from Harvard University. The couple plan an early fall wedding, but no definite date had been set as yet.

Harold R. Boyers Plan Visit to Mrs. Douglas

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Raymond Boyer, of East Jefferson avenue, who will leave in mid-August for a series of visits in the East, will be the guests of Mrs. D. Dwight Douglas at her home on Martha's Vineyard during their junket.

Mrs. Reynolds to Join Parents at Harbor Point

Mrs. Thomas Reynolds of Chicago will be a mid-August houseguest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman J. FitzSimons Jr., at their summer home in Harbor Pointe.

Enthusiastic Angler Aided by Grandma

ROBERT P. SCOVILLE of 478 Bournemouth caught his shirt tail as he attempted a practice cast prior to the start of the second annual Tune-Up Fishing Rodeo at Grosse Pointe Farms municipal pier Saturday, July 26. MRS. JOHN SCOVILLE lends a helping hand to get her grandson out of an embarrassing situation.

Social Calendar Bright With Romantic News

Engagements, Wedding Dates Enliven Vision of Autumn at Pointe; Charles Henry Fleck Engaged to Easterner; Pat Thibodeaux, Harriet Heames to Wed

News of September weddings and a series of engagements promised a gay social calendar for Pointers this Autumn.

Over the week-end, a trio of betrothals held local interest and on the northside of town, Virginia Braun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Braun of Strathcona drive was completing plans for her marriage to Pointer Arthur Douglas Sutherland, Jr., of Oxford road.

The Braun-Sutherland wedding is to take place Sept. 13 in Gesu Church, Virginia has asked her sister, Mary Jane, to serve as her maid of honor and Doug's sister, Mrs. Alfred Jehle will be the matron of honor.

The bridesmaids will include Nancy Sulbark, Mrs. Thomas J. McDonald, Mrs. William Anbut of Louisville, Ky., Mary Frances Conway and Sally Gorman.

Doug, who's the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Sutherland, is to be assisted by brother, Malcolm, as best man.

In the list of ushers are John Parthum and Larry Sutherland, cousins of the bridegroom-elect; Louis A. Braun Jr., Virginia's brother; Charles Campbell, John Walton and Alfred Jehle.

From Utica, N. Y., comes word of the engagement of Ruth Elizabeth Underwood to the Pointe's Charles Henry Fleck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Warren. Fleck of University place. The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis O. Underwood of Utica.

Ruth attends Michigan State College and is a member of Sigma Kappa. Chuck, who received his diploma from State, belongs to Pi Upsilon.

At a Sunday afternoon cocktail party, Mr. and Mrs. Leo C. Thibodeaux of Grand Marais boulevard told guests of the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Ann and Frederick Arthur Peck.

Fred is the son of Mrs. Aimee H. Peck of Los Angeles. Pat, who's to be an Autumn bride, went to Michigan State College and Fred studied at University of Southern California. He's a member of Phi Kappa Psi.

Still another engagement was that of Harriet Heames, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Richard M. Heames, to Philip Turner of Hartford, Conn.

The bride-elect's sister, Mrs. Kenneth E. Chamberlain of Lincoln road, announced the betrothal at a luncheon last Saturday in the Detroit Boat Club.

Phil is the son of Mrs. Gordon P. Turner of Hartford and Buffalo and the late Mr. Turner. A member of Collegiate Sororis, Harriet was graduated from the University of Michigan. Mr. Turner is a Harvard graduate.

Welcome Home!
It's nice to know that Mrs. Charles Hammond L'Hommédieu hasn't forsaken the Pointe after all . . . Last autumn . . . when she sold her charming home on Kenwood road . . . and moved away to Edonton, N. C. . . . It was to be a permanent arrangement . . . But Pointe nostalgia . . . was too much for the lady . . . who has bought the Hunk Anderson home on Moran road . . . And is nicely settled as a "long time" resident once again.

Kanzlers in Maine
Glad to report, too . . . that Mrs. Ernest Kanzler made such a speedy recovery (though that dazler probably didn't find it so) from a broken neck . . . That the family has gone up to Maine . . . for their annual sojourn at their home in Seal Harbor . . . Even the collar brace which Mrs. Kanzler had to wear when she left the long stint at the hospital following her fall, has been discarded . . . And we assume . . . that plans are now full steam ahead. For titian-topped daughter Katrina's debut . . . which is to take place during the Christmas holiday season . . . In early autumn Mrs. Kanzler and her sister, Mrs. Edsel Ford, will make that planned trip to Europe . . .

Report On the Silly Set
We have been asked if we have ever noticed that there is an accepted "Grosse Pointe accent" . . . We have . . . it is very bored . . . and usually found in new residents . . . Now we have one to pose . . . Have you heard (this is quite new and usually introduced with the second round of cocktails) the latest lingo snobbery? . . . it's directed against those upstarts who belong to only ONE club . . . fa la! . . .

Seskis Leave For Nassau

Their new home on Aline drive in Grosse Pointe Woods awaits the return of the newly-married Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Selski, now on their wedding trip in Nassau.

Before her marriage last Wednesday in St. Hyacinth Church, the bride was Marie Therese Kaminski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kaminski of McDougall avenue.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Szczesniowski of Oxford road.

Marie was married in a gown of white lace appliqued tulle, the illusion bridal veil caught to the back of a tiny lace Juliet.

In her wedding bouquet were fleurs d'amour and stephanotis.

The attendants, all gowned in Nile green tulle over yellow taffeta, were Mary Ann Wozniak, Marie's cousin, maid of honor; Linda Joan Ford, Henrietta Zapytowski and Rita Kapuscinski. Their flowers were yellow Fugi mums.

J. William Kaminski, brother of the bride, was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Kaminski chose a rose beige Chantilly lace gown with rose petal chapeau and corsage of pink orchids.

The bridegroom's mother was in pink amethyst chiffon worn with blue velvet hat and corsage of deep purple orchids.

The bridegroom is a pharmacist on the staff of Schettler Drug Co.

Our Curtain Call

Most of us are still a little groggy from our televiewing of two of the most fantastic shows ever staged for the American public, the Republican and Democratic national conventions. When the elephant boys called it quits and went home we thought we'd seen everything, and many of us were more than a little ashamed of the antics which had been displayed there.

When the mule train hove into full view and the New Deal and Fair Deal drivers started to crack their whips, we realized we hadn't seen anything yet. We were then treated to a performance which not only bordered on the ridiculous... it completely encompassed it. Even the toughest skinned old politicians were cringing over some of the absurdities to which the American public was being subjected.

The two big acts are over now, and the only nice thing we can think about them is that the rank and file of the people had no part in them. They were strictly the productions of the professionals and the average American had no more to do with picking the candidates than he will have in selecting a cabinet after one of them is elected in November.

But we small fry are not to be overlooked entirely. Our curtain call comes on Tuesday and it is up to us whether we stage a super-colossal, smash hit, or put on a phoney opus that will rate but a hollow, off-key, one-half bell.

We had nothing to say about the selection of the presidential candidates, but we have everything to say about who we want to be our governor, our senator, our congressman, our legislators and state senators, our judges and all the other office seekers who are running in the primary election on August 5.

We can't stand in front of a microphone and shout, but we can get into a polling booth; and the vote we cast will count far more than most of the vocal rantings we heard emanating from the stockyards of Chicago. Half the speakers there should have been slain before they departed. If they weren't pure bull, they were magnificent imitations.

One of the very few truisms we heard during the biggest winds the Windy City has ever experienced, was that politics starts on the precinct level. That means us. We vote in the precincts and it is our concerted voice which will put the finger on the right or wrong candidate on Tuesday. We have been pretty vociferous ourselves about elections this year. The sewing circles have never been as noisy; there have been not too polite stirs going through even the more staid clubs. The taverns have been absolutely raucous.

The chips are down for a large percentage of the candidates. If they don't make the grade Tuesday, they just plain funk out. The final contest comes for Tuesday's winners in November, but if they don't qualify Tuesday there ain't going to be any November.

This is probably the hottest election year any of us can remember, proving that even the weather can't be monopolistic. Registrations are at an all-time peak. Applications for absentee ballots have broken all records. Both of these mean nothing unless there is a follow-through to the swing.

Your candidates have worked themselves to the marrow. The very least you can do in support is to get to a voting place Tuesday and make a few crosses on one of the most important pieces of paper in American history. If you can't get there, it is amazingly simple to get an absentee ballot, any time up to 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon.

If your vote isn't counted Tuesday night you haven't earned the right to emit one tiny peep about anything political from now on. Vote or shut up.

'Opportunity U.S.A.'

We hope that everyone will have the opportunity to see a short movie which we were privileged to preview recently. "Opportunity U.S.A." explains the financial structure of the country better in 20 minutes than could hours of textbook study.

The Investment Bankers Association paid for the production of this educational film and the IBA Michigan Group is purchasing a copy which will be available to clubs, organizations, schools or groups wishing to show it. We can recommend it highly.

We are awfully fed up with the hackneyed cries of "Moneyed Interests," "Wall Street" and "Chase the money lenders from the temple." This movie shows graphically that if all the "money lenders" were chased from the temple there wouldn't be anyone left to drop a coin in the collection plate.

The young farmer can borrow money on his land to buy mechanical equipment which will enable him to farm more efficiently. If he is a good farmer and a good businessman, he can eventually not only pay off these debts, but have a profit of his own to invest in other businesses, which will bring him added income.

The savings which so many million individuals put into the banks not only return them interest but are loaned out to help businesses expand. The power company borrows money to build another generating plant. Its business increases and its profits rise. Perhaps some of the same individuals whose savings accounts went into the loan, also have a few shares of stock in the power company. The dividends on their stock go up and increase their personal income.

Every single person in the country who has a savings account, a share of stock or a bond is a member of the "moneyed interests." "Opportunity U.S.A." is a fascinating picture of how the wealth of the country is kept busy, in channels which are creating more wealth to be shared by a tremendous proportion of the entire population.

Too often we hear the big corporations damned for the size of their profits. Too few realize that the owners of these corporations are the millions of stockholders who all share in the profits.

It is the story of this great land of free enterprise. Most of us have learned that money left in the sock or under the mattress creates nothing and may vanish with a fire or the visit of a thief. This picture explains how money wisely invested is tantamount to hiring someone to make hay for us against the rainy day which may lie in the future.

Any interested group may obtain the film by calling either Alonzo C. Allen, chairman of the IBA, Michigan Group, at Woodward 1-0870, or Raymond Laude, publicity chairman, at Woodward 3-3140.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"O for a lodge in a garden of cucumbers! O for an iceberg or two at control! O for a vale which at mid-day the dew cumbers! O for a pleasure trip up to the Pole!" (Rossiter Johnson)

This is strictly for the "girls"... and we hope you'll listen. Last week we took the Pryor "political poll" (a fig on Gallop)... and we were appalled at the abysmal ignorance of some of the women we questioned about their voting! As an example, one woman well over voting age allowed as how she was going to vote for Soandso BECAUSE, she said, "I feel sorry for him. I don't think he has much money to spend on his campaign." That is the dandiest reason for putting a man in a responsible position in our government, that we have ever heard!

We asked another woman who she was voting for for Governor, Senator and Congressman in the primaries. Her reply was, "I'm going to vote straight Republican." When we asked "But for whom?"... she said, "Oh, is there MORE than one?" Now really girls! You don't have to be a student of politics to know what in aich you're doing when it comes votin' time. In the first place, the newspapers are FILLED with all kinds of detailed information about the candidates. All you have to do is READ it. In the second place, the candidates spend some hard earned money for ads and radio and t-v information about themselves... that they hope you are reading or listening to.

If you've missed ALL of this... which seems unlikely... then you can get the information you want by contacting any Republican or Democratic Club or headquarters. DON'T just sit there... and don't take the chance of having YOUR important ballot thrown out on AUGUST FIFTH... because you were too lazy to find out how to vote.

More political thoughts: All Republicans... the smug ones, that is... should read an article called "Trouble Ahead" by Frank B. Woodford. It appeared in last Sunday's Free Press on the editorial page and to our mind is the best piece of writing we have ever read on the subject of the "trouble ahead." Politicians and candidates in particular should read it.

Thought two: Governor Adlai Stevenson looks like a cross between Free Press publisher John Knight and Victor Borge!

Last week, we had occasion to send a telegram to Chicago during the convention. When we'd finished reading the message and having it read back to us, the operator asked, "How is it going in Chicago? Who's ahead?" We advised her that at the moment Kefauver was out front on the balloting. She then said, "We think Stevenson will get it." Fascinated by how at this badinage, we asked her if they had predicted the outcome of the Republican convention. "Oh yes," sez she, "We knew Ike was going to win!" By "we" she explained that she meant the gals and boys around the office.

Our next move was to ask her if the number of wires they took to the delegates had anything to do with their opinion. She announced "not at all." In fact, she added, that up to that particular time, the wires SHE had taken were about fifty-fifty between requests for Stevenson and Kefauver. We learned ONE thing anyway. In fifty-six... before we make any wild bets on this election business, we are going to consult with our nearest telegraph operator!

Throwing all caution to the winds the other day, we took a taxi downtown! The driver was a chatty soul, hence right up our alley. Among other things, he told us that he had had a number of colored folk to drive lately and mentioned two "customers" whose antics struck us as pretty amusing. One man had the taxi take him to a pawn shop. He showed the driver what it was he had to pawn... and when they reached the shop, he had the taxi WAIT for him! For some unknown reason this reminds us of the old gag about the guy who drive his parents to the poorhouse in a Cadillac!

The other cab customer was a woman who asked to be driven to a certain food market... one of those places where the vegetables are kept in baskets and containers outside the shop front. When they arrived at their destination, the woman opened the taxi door and shouted to the storekeeper, "How much are those sweet potatoes?" The shop owner called back, "Twenty eight cents for four pounds... BEFORE they're shuffled." (The driver then explained to us that that meant before they were picked over!) The woman called back: "Never mind. That's too high for ME." She then instructed the driver to take her to a few more places where she continued her shopping with the minimum of effort. WE JUST LOVE it!!

One of the greatest contrasts between radio and television, is that of the eternal soap opera. One gets to know the "voices" on radio... so that for example if Stella Dallas is on vacation and the script calls for her presence, it is announced that Miss Soandthus is taking her place. To anyone who has been listening to Stella for twenty years, this change of tone is rather disconcerting. In fact there was a case once, when a listener who had been following "One Man's Family" for years... wrote to the sponsor advising them she was no longer a user of their product because they changed the man who plays the husband... and she couldn't bear it!!!

Now when you come to the VISUAL soap opera, the sponsor REALLY has a problem. The one and only one we wouldn't miss if we could help it, is a play called "Search For Tomorrow." (Channel 2 at 11:30 a.m. week days.) It is an excellent story and well done... especially the part played by a six-year-old child who is the best child actress since Shirley Temple. When we ran into this opera about six months ago, a character by the name of "Miss Baker" who played the menace (in a nice way) made a big impression on us. We liked her as well as the heroine. A few weeks ago, an entirely new creature appeared on our screen as the same Miss Baker, with nary a word from the sponsor to ready us for this shock. Kinda scary!

Speed Tops All Traffic Killers

George Measel, chairman of the Grosse Pointe Traffic and Safety Committee, is reminding motorists that although speed control is being stressed during the current traffic safety campaign in Michigan, the dangers of driving too fast are present all year around.

"Speed," Mr. Measel said, "is the leading traffic killer every day of the year. Although speed takes its heaviest toll during the summer, it continues to show up as the predominant factor in traffic deaths during the fall, winter and spring."

For several weeks the Grosse Pointe Police Departments and other police agencies throughout Michigan have been urging motorists to practice strict, self-enforced speed control. The state law itself requires that speed is adjusted to all conditions.

Last year, 1,604 persons were killed and 48,418 injured on Michigan streets and highways. That was a daily average of 138 casualties. The highest daily toll was recorded in July with 160 casualties.

This traffic record is inexcusable when we realize that most of the accidents, injuries and deaths could have been prevented. One or more drivers were reported as violating traffic laws in seven out of every ten fatal accidents. Of all the violations reported, 44 per cent were for driving too fast for conditions.

Drivers should realize that the menace of speed can be checked only, through their own efforts. They should remember that speed control is always a matter of life or death.

SPARE A MINUTE. SAVE A LIFE. IT MIGHT BE YOURS.

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club was addressed at its regular Monday luncheon meeting in the War Memorial Center by Lieut. Col. William N. Harris, U. S. Lake Survey Corps of Engineers. His subject was, "Why the Great Lakes are High."

Birthday of Henry Ford Recalls His Contributions

More than any single man in the world, Henry Ford is responsible for putting "America" on wheels. If he were alive today, he would have celebrated his eighty-ninth birthday, and the nation might pause in its daily routine to honor the man who so changed its patterns of industrial production and put the automobile within the reach of everyone's pocketbook.

Henry Ford was born July 30, 1863, on a Wayne County farm, one of the six children of William and Mary (Litogot) Ford. He died April 7, 1947.

Like thousands of average farm boys across the nation, Henry Ford was only an average student in the country schools he attended; more interested in mechanics than academics. He quit school and at 16 years of age, walked into Detroit to make his fortune.

Years later, multi-millionaire Henry Ford recreated with a nostalgic hand the life and times of his youth and those of his forefathers in Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum, preserving for posterity the homes and workshops, tools and products of himself and other famous Americans.

But as a youngster in Detroit, his first job in a machine shop did not pay enough for his board and room and he was forced to work evenings in a jewelry shop to make up the deficit. This same jewelry shop is now one of three restored in Greenfield Village. Henry Ford was an expert at clock and watch repair, but because of his youth, Magill, the shop owner, kept him in the back room out of sight of customers.

He held several jobs before becoming an engineer at the Edison Illuminating Company plant in Detroit in 1891, and in which he further developed his amazing mechanical ability.

In 1881, he married Clara Bryant, daughter of a Wayne County farmer. She died September 29, 1950, at the age of 84. The year 1893 was banner for Henry Ford: his only son Edsel, was born; he became chief engineer of the main Edison plant; he constructed his first internal combustion engine.

Three years later, a curious contrivance more akin to a four-wheeled bicycle than an automobile chugged through Detroit streets to fame with a "proud

Henry Ford at the tiller. He built the tiny vehicle behind the Ford home at 58 Bagley in a little brick shed now preserved in Greenfield Village.

In the early days before he founded the Ford Motor Company, he designed and built several passenger cars and racers, some of which are among the 165 antique automobiles in the Henry Ford Museum. In the famous "999," Ford established a world's speed record of more than 94 miles an hour in 1904 on the ice of Lake St. Clair.

In the years spanning the organization of the company, in 1903 until the time of Henry Ford's death, more than 35,000,000 cars, trucks and tractors were produced.

His active interests expanded to include scientific agriculture, education, aircraft and airlines, and Americana. In the Village and Museum he traced the evolution of each.

Much of Ford's personality still pervades the Museum and Village; it left its mark on every object. Each home and workshop, each antique car or steam engine, had animation for him and he took a deep interest in its personal history. He watched over the restoration of every building and the reconstruction of each engine. His mania for authenticity extended to copying architectural mistakes and even to transplanting ground from original sites for his restorations.

In later years he spent increasingly of his time walking through the Village and Museum after the visitors had left, reminiscing about the past and the methods which would never have permitted him to fulfill his destiny. He seldom missed a Sunday service or a wedding in the little New England chapel which dominates the Village Green.

In the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, Henry Ford recreated the America he knew and grew up in; the era which his mass production techniques did so much to change and with which he so nostalgically parted. When he walked through the streets of the Village, he relived the days of his youth.

Letters to The Editor

July 24, 1952

Dear Mr. Edgar:

Thank you ever so much for the articles in the Grosse Pointe News about the heating plant at the Cottage Hospital. You presented both sides and dealt with each so fairly that the community can easily understand the entire situation.

We are very grateful to you as we want to remedy matters with all speed possible.

Sincerely yours, GERTRUDE GRAWN.

Foolish Fears

By Fred M. Kopp, R.Ph.

Any person who has symptoms of illness and dwells on the hundred and one serious diseases he or she may have is courting trouble while entertaining foolish fears.

Every illness gives some kind of warning, most of them cause pain. If you notice symptoms of any kind, consult your doctor. With early attention almost every illness and even the serious diseases like heart trouble, diabetes, cancer and T.B. respond to treatment.

Miracles of healing are common today because we have well trained doctors, pharmacists, and technicians, and an endless store of fine drugs at their disposal.

Dwight D. Eisenhower

NO SHIRT-TAIL RIDER—

FRED M. ALGER

Fred M. Alger

Alger became an enthusiastic Eisenhower for president supporter more than a year ago, when the two met and talked over the country's needs, seeing eye to eye.

Alger was the first state official, and the only candidate for governor to endorse Eisenhower. He was criticized for doing so. It wasn't good politics. Good politics dictated that he ride the fence. He wouldn't because he believes the people should know where a candidate for office stands.

The Eisenhower-Alger combination is a natural. Both are agreed that the Nation's defense comes first. Both have proven themselves good and able administrators, Ike in the European zone, Alger as an efficient, economy-minded, three-term Secretary of State.

Both are full-time veterans of World War II.

Both have records bespeaking unalterable hatred of dictatorship, Ike in arming the western world against Stalinist aggression; Alger as leader of the movement which ended machine rule of the Republican Party of Michigan.

They understand each other.

It's a pair that can't be beat.

Stolen Medical Bags Recovered

Two medical bags were recovered in Detroit last Tuesday after their disappearance nearly seven weeks ago from the automobile of Dr. William T. Krebs, while parked in the driveway of his home at 289 Kenwood.

Articles valued at nearly $150, contained in the bags at the time, were still missing however.

VITAL NEED TODAY

A civil service system that will protect the competent, without being a refuge for the incompetent, is a vital need today.

Elusive Speeder Walks Into Trap

Farms Patrolmen Seelow and Kilets chased a speeding Ford sedan on Kercheval late last Saturday night, followed it down Touraine toward Grosse Pointe boulevard, but were unable to catch the driver when he parked and jumped from the car just before he reached the intersection.

Later that same night, Officer Martin picked up 19-year-old Richard P. Donahue, of 1324 Balfour, when he returned to pick up the car. Police said Donahue had been drinking and found a nearly empty case of beer in the back seat.

Donahue was ticketed for reckless driving and later released to his parents. A court date has been set for August 27.

Extinguish Fire In Ancient Tree

Leonard Witzke, of 1213 Roslyn, reported to the Woods police last Friday evening that a large tree at the north end of River road was on fire. Witzke had put out the flames, which had broken out in the rotted core of the tree, but told police that it was still smoldering.

A police patrol had found that the tree had burst into flame again early the following morning. Woods firemen put out the blaze.

Turns Into Side Of Passing Car

Mrs. Margaret Street, of 22105 O'Connor, turned into the side of a passing automobile driven by Frank J. St. Amour, of 3516 Devonshire, Detroit, July 25, when she attempted a left turn onto Hampton road from Mack avenue.

St. Amour, driving south on Mack behind Mrs. Street, had started to pass her as she began the turn. Mrs. Street told Woods police that she would take care of all damages.

Durant to Debate With Boglarski

Richard Durant, Republican candidate for Congress in the 14th District, and Jerry Boglarski, Democratic candidate for the same office, will square off at 8 p.m. Monday, August 4 in Grosse Pointe High School, in a debate on the foremost issue of the '52 campaign, America's foreign policy.

Speaking for the affirmative on the question, "Resolved: that our country's foreign policy can be better conducted by a Republican Congress," will be Durant. Boglarski will argue the negative.

Following the debate the contestants will be opened for questions from the audience. All interested citizens are invited to attend.

Reports Polio Case in Woods

Health Commissioner of the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods district, Dr. Thomas S. Davies, recently announced that three cases of polio have been reported in the area.

One of the cases occurred in Grosse Pointe Woods, the only case in the Pointe, the diagnosis of which was verified nearly two weeks ago.

Said Dr. Davies: "It is very likely that there will be more cases during the early fall, but not as many as last year's 30. Polio is starting a little late this year."

FORT BENNING, Ga.—Cadets Robert L. Hansen, Jr., and David A. Pascoe, Jr., ROTC students at Michigan State College, East Lansing, Michigan, are now attending the 1952 Infantry ROTC summer camp at Fort Benning, Georgia, the home of the United States Army Infantry Center.

The ROTC camp consists of six weeks of intensive training in courses ranging from bayonet training to radiological defense; however, most of the training is concerned with learning the basic infantry techniques to include the firing of individual and crew-served weapons and tactics. Thirty-four hours of instruction are presented to the ROTC cadets by instructors from the famed Infantry School at Fort Benning. In addition, recreational, social and religious activities are a part of the camp program.

Lt. William G. Curran, Jr. Given Diploma in Korea

WITH THE FIRST MARINE DIVISION IN KOREA—Marine Second Lieutenant William G. Curran, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Curran, Sr., 17508 Charles St., Grosse Pointe, Mich., now serving in Korea, recently received a diploma upon completion of a course in Patrol Leadership.

The class, held in a reserve area, was conducted for officers and enlisted personnel of the Fifth Marine Regiment. Purpose of the course was to make personnel responsible for patrols better equipped to plan and lead them in combat.

Lieutenant Curran attended Yale University. He received his commission as a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps on June 1, 1951.

He arrived in Korea in March, 1952, and has served with the First Battalion, Fifth Marine Regiment, in operations against the enemy since that date.

Musicale Group Meets Saturday

A goodly number of Grosse Pointe women are planning to travel to Dearborn this Saturday to the Crescent drive home of Mrs. George Sona, the occasion being a meeting (starting at 1 o'clock) in the interests of the Detroit Tuesday Musicales Ways and Means Committee.

Uppermost in the thoughts of this enterprising group is its sponsorship of the recital to be presented by Mischa Kottler, Georges Miquelle and Mischa Mischakoff, new concertmaster of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. The concert is to be given the evening of Oct. 10 in Institute of Arts Auditorium.

Complete plans for the event will be discussed Saturday followed by a musical program and tea. The program will be provided by soprano Pearl Potter and Mrs. Keith Glassley, accompanist.

Among committee members from Grosse Pointe expected Saturday are Mrs. Edward A. Baumann of Lochmoor boulevard, general chairman; Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Mrs. Fred T. Murphy, Mrs. Philip D. Dexter, Mrs. Kenneth C. Costley, Mrs. Mildred Coulter, Miss Josephine Carolyn, Mrs. Cecil J. Rush, Mrs. Albert J. Grundy, Mrs. W. C. Nichols, Mrs. Clarence N. Ronnenberg, Mrs. J. Milton Setzer, Mrs. Humphreys Springstun, Miss Suzanne Goehler and Mrs. Walter J. Burczyk.

Assisting at the tea tables will be Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, Mrs. Adolph Jacobsen and Mrs. Arnold W. Lundgerhausen.

Girl Scout News

The Grosse Pointe Girl Scouts' Day Camp, held at Grosse Pointe Woods Park, was a complete success this year, with a registration of 65 girls and an average daily attendance of 45. The camp offered nature study, nature hikes, nature craft and clay work.

The scouts made leaf prints and broiler sticks, collected butterflies and dragonflies for mounting and had a circus with balloons, pink lemonade and hot dogs on the last day.

The camp was held each Tuesday and Thursday for three consecutive weeks in July, with Mrs. David L. Morgan as staff director, Miss Elizabeth Wright was Day Camp chairman and Mrs. A. Frost was the business manager.

Staff members included Mrs. M. Andrews, Mrs. E. Huebner, Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. C. Schaltenbrand, Mrs. Anthony Colett, Mrs. C. DiLaura, Mrs. M. Gulevich and Mrs. J. Huetteman.

Members of Bayview Club (the fishing club within the Old Club) and their wives were hosts to the membership at a cocktail party at the Flats last Saturday evening.

Although the stag club had a clubhouse of its own (where wonder fish fries are held), the Old Club itself was the setting for the party.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Blessed, Walter Cary, Mr. and Mrs. C. Earl Dawson, John W. Foley, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Jules G. Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. P. Pohn, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Yerkes.

Power Squadron Holds Regatta

Commodore Buell Doelle and his Power Squadron committee were in their full dress with polished brass buttons sparkling in last Saturday's July 26 bright sunlight. The occasion was the Detroit Power Squadron's Fifth annual regatta for both power and sailboats.

This regatta is different than any other regatta because the boats don't race against one another over a triangular race course. They compete in navigation and boat handling contests which are really for spectators.

To start the day off the sailboat skippers picked up their sealed orders from the judges' boat in Lake St. Clair and proceeded to navigate the courses indicated.

Karl Ness of Bayview took first place in the Sailboat Piloting contest and won the Alvin C. Sawtelle Memorial Trophy. Frank Taylor of Crescent took second and James McCarthy of Grosse Pointe Sail Club third.

The Power Boat Piloting contest which got underway at 1 p.m., was won by C. J. Purdie of the Power Squadron and he received the Chief Commander William K. Anderson Trophy. A. B. Armstrong of D.Y.C. finished second and W. R. Munford was third.

Tom Bowles of St. Clair Y.C. won the Harold E. Peterson Memorial Trophy for finishing first in the Sail Boat handling contest which was held off the Detroit Yacht Club main dock. J. J. Jordan of DYC was second and George Brewer of St. Clair Y.C. was third.

In the Power Boat Handling contest Bob Snowden finished first and Chuck Purdie was second.

BLOND INDIANS

Despite the popular belief that all Indians have hair as black as a raven's wing, there are some blond Indians in America! According to history research experts for the Book House for Children, "Light hair among the Mandan Indians of North Dakota suggests that they may have intermarried with the Norsemen who invaded Minnesota about 1362 A. D. and escaped the massacre recorded on the historic Kensington Stone."

Birthday Trio Feted at Supper

A lobster supper party given Saturday evening by Mr. and Mrs. James McMillan of Rathbone place observed three birthdays.

They were those of the host, Mrs. Richard P. Joy Jr. and E. Mead Baker Jr.

Supper was served on the terrace at the McMillan home and present were Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Warren Jr., Mrs. Samuel Heffelfinger Bell, Mr. and Mrs. John H. French Jr., Gaylord W. Gillis, Jr., William Croul.

Mr. and Mrs. John Norton Lord, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph G. Standart Jr., Mrs. Baker, Mr. Joy, Mr. and Mrs. William Moore Joy, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Chalmers Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Beecher Warren Jr.

CONGRESSMAN
CHARLES E. POTTER

FOR THE UNITED STATES SENATE

Republican Nomination, August 5

★ FARM BORN, at Lapeer, "Chuck" Potter was educated there. Worked way through Michigan State Normal College, Ypsilanti. Young executive and administrator at Cheboygan, where he made his home, before going off to war as private.

★ FIGHTER, was the name Potter won when he went overseas after earning his commission with famed 28th Division. Won battlefield promotion for heroic troop combat leadership. Lost both legs in enemy land mine explosion while leading midnight attack in Germany.

★ U. S. CONGRESSMAN was office to which he was elected by friends and neighbors of Michigan's 11th District, shortly after return home. They have sent him back to Congress each election since, now are conducting his campaign for U. S. Senate, sharing him with Michigan.

★ BATTLES REDS has been the headline about Potter ever since he was elected to House Un-American Activities Committee by fellow Congressmen. He trapped Hollywood Communists, uncovered international Sorge spy ring, ferreted out Communists in American industrial cities.

★ OUTSTANDING was honor conferred upon Potter, U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce voted him title of "One of the ten outstanding young men in United States." Other awards: "Veteran of Year," "Civic Service of Year."

★ TRADITION in Michigan is that Republicans send to the Senate only men who will measure up to highest standards of statesmanship. Potter has already proved himself in the Michigan tradition, exemplifying the best in brilliant, mature young men in Government.

AHEAD OF THE TIMES Equal educational and job opportunities for women were a reality in Ancient Babylonia more than 5,000 years ago, and it was a man's idea. King Hammurabi ordered that girls be given the same education as boys, and many women became scribes, clerks, stenographers and secretaries.

RIGHTEOUS AND WICKED Let's admit that all political controversies are between the righteous and the wicked—but how is one to tell which is which. RUN DOWN LATER Right now the politicians are getting wound up—the running down will come later.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms Summary of Proceedings of Regular Meeting July 21, 1952 Called to order at 8:00 P. M. Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Daniel W. Goodenough, Richard L. Maxon, Neil S. McEachin and George L. Schlaepfer. Absent: Councilmen John M. S. Hutchinson and William G. Kirby. Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr. presided. Minutes of meeting held on July 14, 1952, were approved. Approximately 30 residents from Muir and Lewiston Roads were present, concerned with the matter of the nuisance being caused by smoke, fumes and noise from the newly constructed Cottage Hospital power plant. Representatives for the residents and the Cottage Hospital were given an opportunity to be heard, following which the citizens were advised that no certificate of occupancy for the addition would be issued until complaints had been eliminated. Mr. Edward Jorah, employee of the Public Works Department, was confirmed as a regular employee. A map of the proposed Special Assessment District 3, for the opening of Ridgemont Road to Kercheval Avenue across Lots 35 and 32 of Assessor's Grosse Pointe Farms Plat 2, was submitted by the Engineer. The Council adopted a resolution fixing a public hearing on the proposed improvements to be held in the City Hall on Monday, August 18, 1952, at 8:00 P. M. The Council approved the removal of infected elm trees in the public right-of-way and the spraying of all trees within a one quarter of a mile radius of any infected tree in the City. A communication from the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council urging cooperation in combating the Dutch Elm Disease was read. The Clerk was authorized to execute an agreement between the Farms and Detroit Edison Company regulating the use of poles. The action of the Mayor in requesting an opinion on the right to us filled in land for future Pier Park expansion purposes was approved. Congratulations were extended to the City of Grosse Pointe Woods on its 25th year of incorporation. The employment in the Police Department of Donald W. Pilon, 423 Calvin Avenue, and Vincent Peter, 4094 Hereford, Detroit, to fill two existing vacancies, was announced. After being advised that an additional Class "C" license is permissible in the Farms due to the 1950 Federal census, the Council instructed the Clerk to notify the Liquor Control Commission recommending against the issuance of any further Class "C" licenses in the Farms. Messrs. Joseph H. Reigler and Robert J. Sharpe, firemen, who were recommended by the Chief of the Fire Department as having completed their training period satisfactorily, were confirmed as regular firemen. Reports from the building and fire departments were examined and approved. Bills were approved. A communication giving suggestions on the City's Pier Park operations was read and referred to the Clerk for answer. A communication of thanks from the League of Women Voters, for the cooperation of the Farms City Office in the recent City campaign, was ordered acknowledged. The meeting adjourned at 10:30 p.m. William F. Connolly, Jr. Mayor Harry A. Furton Clerk Published Grosse Pointe News July 31, 1952.

Burglar Foiled At Park Home Thomas Carey reported to Grosse Pointe Park police on July 25, that while he had been away for a few days with his family, someone had attempted entry into his home at 671 Westchester. A check by the police showed that one of the rear basement windows had been tried, and doors to the terrace and the front of the house had been partially forced. The attempt was unsuccessful, however.

Builders' Association Schedules Golf Outing Prompted by the success of its first annual picnic and golf outing on May 26, the East Side Section of the Builders Association of Metropolitan Detroit has scheduled its second golf outing this year. Gowani Golf Course, in Mt. Clemens, has been selected as the site of the combination golf-dinner meeting which will be held July 29. East Side Builders and their associates have been invited. Those who cannot play golf have been asked to attend the steak dinner and business meeting, to begin at 6 p.m., according to Hubert Corteville, chairman of the East Side Section. If the cooperation received in the Builder group's first outing continues, close to 50 persons can be expected to attend, Corteville added.

Forest Page Gets Navy Appointment to Coast Forest W. Page has been appointed by the Ninth Naval District Headquarters, located at Great Lakes, Illinois, to attend the Reserve Officers Candidate School at the U. S. Naval Station, Long Beach, Calif., where he has been studying for the past three weeks. From an original list of 11,000 applicants from colleges and universities throughout the country 2,300 top men were selected for training. They are known as "ROCs" and are studying under a program established for the purpose of providing the Navy with qualified general line officers. All of the 2,300 are enlisted men from local reserve units. The course of study embraces the use of new electronics gear and naval weapons, seamanship and navigation, as well as basic orientation and a general study of the Navy, its history and ships. Page is a student engineer at the Chrysler Corp., and a junior at Wayne University. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. D. Hayes Page of 770 Cadieux road in Grosse Pointe.

KC to Install New Officers Gabriel Richard Council, Knights of Columbus, will install its recently elected 1952-53 officers on Monday evening, August 4, in their club house, Parkview and Amity, states Grand Knight Roy Matthews. The installation ritual will be in charge of newly appointed district deputy Simon Chateaufvert, assisted by Gabriel Richard's new chancellor, William Henneghan; and retiring chancellor, Harold J. Krutsch; together with incoming and retiring wardens, Frances LaFave and Phillip Bommarito. Grand Knight elect Matthews lives at 2106 Pennsylvania. He has just completed two years as the council's deputy grand knight. Prior to that he served two years as council chancellor; and three years as council warden. He holds the unique distinction of never having been elected in election for any office. The installation ceremonies will follow the regular monthly meeting which starts at 8:15 p.m. Refreshments will be served after the evening program. State, district and metropolitan area K. of C. officers and members have been invited to assist in the installation. This is the only meeting of Gabriel Richard council for August. Grand Knight Matthews adds that he will report on his plans for fall and winter activities, together with committee appointments.

Many are blessed with presence of mind, but troubled with absence of thought.

Farms Building Report Issued In a recent report released by Murray M. Smith, city engineer for Grosse Pointe Farms, it was revealed that a total of 29 building permits had been issued during June, valued at $431,700. Of these, the report states, 17 are residence permits, with a total value of $390,000; two are for business construction, valued together at $30,000; 10 are for miscellaneous construction, with a total valuation of $11,700. No non-assessable permits were issued during the month. During the first six months of this year, the Farms has issued 131 permits. The great majority have been for residence and business construction with an assessable value totaling $2,110,600. HAS NO FUTURE Some students declare their chief objection to history is that it has no future.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

The windjammer boys are finding life a little dull these days, what with the local, club-sponsored DRYA regattas coming to a halt until the middle of August when the St. Clair Yachtsmen will hold their annual regatta after the climax of the Inter-Lake regatta at Put-In-Bay August 9 to 13.

In the meantime the local lads are leisurely cruising around Lake St. Clair sticking their noses into ports they seldom get a chance to visit during the busy racing season.

Some of the more ardent skipper take advantage of this lull in the racing to take their vacations. Yes sir, there are sailors in these parts who take their racing that seriously. They wouldn't miss a regatta for "love or money."

One of the busiest classes in these parts is the Stars. The Stars have gotten themselves all tangled up in their World Championship Elimination series. Last weekend, July 26 and 27, they sailed the second, third and fourth races of the five-race series. Alex Allardyce, at this writing, holds a three-point lead over his arch rival, Meryl Amo, and George Richardson has a strangle hold on third place in the standings by consistently finishing third in all four races. Allardyce has captured three firsts while Amo has taken one first and three seconds.

This series is an extremely important one for the local Star class because it determines which boats will be eligible to compete in the North American Championship to be held at Toronto, Ontario, in conjunction with the Canadian National Championship, August 25 to 31, and the Great Lakes Championship which will be held at Vermillion, Ohio, August 18 to 22.

Only the first two boats are eligible to compete and it appears a certainty that Allardyce and Amo will represent the local Star fleet.

The rest of the fleet will be eligible to compete in the Michigan

State Championship to be held at St. Joseph, Michigan, August 9 and 10.

The Windsor Yacht Club has completed plans to hold its second annual Star regatta, according to race committee chairman Earl Harding. Earl says "We are going to give the spectators a break this year when we set the course." He added, "We are going to have the start and finish in front of the club, naturally, but the rest of the course will be in the river on the Windsor side of Peche Island and there will only be a short while when the spectators will not be able to see the boats, when they go for the second mark a short way out in the lake."

Last year Windsor Y. C. officials had a great time sending the Star fleet on a course up and down the Peche Island side of the river and they sent it around the island itself. Dick Miller's "Fleet Star IV" got the winning gun and the keeper trophy.

Harding tells us that this year the boys will sail for the Commodore's trophy, which will be a perpetual award and which will remain at the club. The winner will receive a permanent award.

All contestants will receive some sort of a prize for entering. This assures the club a good turnout for this popular event.

Corp. "Larry" Reynolds Surprised in England

Cpl. James "Larry" Reynolds of Audubon road, now stationed at the Burtonwood Air Base in Wallingford, England, was surprised with a visit in London, from his former co-worker of the Grosse Pointe Branch of Doubleday Book Shop, Miss Jean Selles. Miss Selles is touring Europe for two months.

Larry, 22, was graduated from St. Paul High School in 1949. He enlisted in the Air Force a year ago and is with the 59th Stock Control Squadron. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. John M. Van Loon.

Represent Pointe in Amateur Baseball Federation

Grosse Pointe's entry in the Detroit Amateur Baseball Federation, Class E, sponsored by the Metropolitan Club and managed by Eddie Lauer enjoys a record of six victories and two defeats as it makes its bid for a place in the city wide playoffs which start the middle of August. Left to right, front row:—Bob Keller, Gene Graham and Paul Sheridan, Jr. Second row:—Dick Dowd, Karl Kiefer, Dan Monahan and Gary Gilewski. Back row:—Manager Laufer, Ted Monahan, Bob Taylor, Dan Wienhoff, Jim Lombardo and Coach Paul Sheridan, Sr.

McElvenny, Wiener Win Little Club Tennis Tourney

Ralph McElvenny and Alex "Sandy" Wiener captured the Grosse Pointe Club's Annual Invitational Men's Doubles Tennis Tournament when they defeated Peter Stewart and James Tobin last Sunday in the finals, by a score of 6-2, 6-1.

The champions reached the semi-finals after a 6-0, 6-1 tussle with Joe Kristufek and Bill McBrearty and defeated W. F. Beyer and Don MacKay 6-1, 6-4. They won their first match against Paul Ameal and George Neirick by a score of 6-0, 6-1.

Stewart and Tobin reached the finals by defeating John Reindel and Frank Singelyn 6-3, 8-6, in the semi-finals. Before that match they had bested Jack Failing and George Nicholson 6-1, 6-0, and they won their original match against Robert Edgar and Sam Sherer 6-1, 6-1.

Sixteen doubles teams competed and were under the personal direction of Sandy Wiener Sr. who is the head of the tennis committee.

Reveal Winners In Fish Contest

Gray's Sports Shop's fifth annual fishing contest was ended last Saturday, July 26, with the announcement of winners in five different divisions.

Del Page almost became a double winner as he did last year but on the last day Herbert C. Eidt brought in a 28 1/2-inch pike which topped Page's biggest catch in this division by 2 3/4 inches. Page did win the prize in the trout division with a 23 3/4-inch beauty.

Terry Lanter's 11 3/4-inch perch took top honors in that category and Eric Lindquist won the pickerel division with a catch of 21 5/16 inches long.

Accident Throws Spotlight On an Unnecessary Menace

By Fred Runnells

Leo H. Lesperance, 27, of 1028 Somerset, figured in a boating accident last Sunday, July 27, in which Emmett J. Powers of 3871 Beniteau was critically injured as he swam in the Detroit River off Tecumseh, Ontario.

Doctors at the Hotel Dieu Hospital in Windsor said the 30-year-old Powers may not survive the injuries sustained when he was struck by the propeller of Lesperance's outboard motor boat as he made a wide circle to "pick up an acquaintance who had hailed him." Lesperance said he did not know that he had struck anything until he saw Powers struggling in the water.

Powers suffered a severed artery in his left side, six broken ribs and a punctured lung.

Powers, the father of three small children, pushed his wife to safety as Lesperance's boat bore down on them.

A similar accident could very easily occur in the waters immediately surrounding the Grosse Pointe Farms Municipal pier unless some restrictions are passed forbidding the pilots of motor boats from racing their crafts in the bay between the pier and Crescent Sail Yacht Club. Countless swimmers are using this particular area.

Aside from being a menace to the swimmers these power boats, especially the outboard variety without mufflers, create a noise nuisance, not only in the immediate vicinity, but when the wind is on shore the roar of their motors carries as far back as Ridge road, almost a half mile from the lake.

It is high time some action is taken to stop this dangerous and noisy practice and to protect the swimmers.

George Jaglowicz Flies To See Olympic Games

George J. Jaglowicz, former all around athlete at the University of Detroit, left Wednesday, July 23, by Scandinavian airline for Helsinki, Finland, to attend the 1952 Olympic games.

Jaglowicz, first prominent in Detroit sports list as a football and basketball player and for 20 years a sponsor of basketball and bowling teams, plans to witness all of the events in conjunction with the Olympic games before returning home.

Socialized medicine in its practical working out would mean a maximum of socialism and a minimum of medicine.

McCarthy Wins Sail Club Race

The Grosse Pointe Sail Club held its first race under handicap method on Sunday, July 27, and Commodore J. W. McCarthy's "Defender" won it on corrected time over Duke Huber's catboat which was the scratch boat and finished first but dropped down to third place on corrected time. Dick Stofflet finished third but moved up to second place. His corrected time placed him just 15 seconds behind McCarthy's winning corrected time.

Six boats hit the starting line with a dandy 10-m.p.h. north-northwest breeze that sent the fleet around the triangular course in good order.

Bud Wellman and Paul Montgomery finished fourth and fifth respectively both on elapsed time and corrections.

This marked the first time the fleet has raced on an even basis via the handicap basis. There are hardly two boats alike in the

Large Entry List Set For Swim Meet

Annual Competition at Farms Pier to be Bigger Than ever; 29 Events Scheduled

By Fred Runnells

Grosse Pointe Farms third annual swimming meet on Friday and Saturday, August 1 and 2, will be bigger than last year's, according to Hank Collins, the Farms energetic director of activities at the municipal beach park.

The entry list is so large in some events that Friday has been set aside to run preliminary contests for the purpose of qualifying the six fastest entrants in each event.

In all there are 29 events on the program that provides competition for boys and girls from the paddlers 8 years old and under up to teen-agers 15 years old and older.

The two final events will be the 25-yard free style event for mothers and fathers over 30. So far the entry list for the fathers race stands at five, with William Laitner, Alphonse Ryda, Frank Updegraff, Dr. John E. Clifford and your reluctant reporter, who listened to Hank Collins' tale of woe about not having enough dads entered and signed up. Anybody got a pair of water wings and a small outboard motor?

Three Brave Ladies
Just as we predicted last week, the ladies are not signing up because they won't admit to being over 30. However, there are three brave ladies who didn't put down their ages but instead just wrote 21-plus. That was a neat way of getting around a revealing question.

There is still time to sign up and join in the fun. The meet is only open to residents of the Farms.

DAY CAMP NEWS

By Joyce Bobier

Last week was an exciting one for the Neighborhood Club Day Campers. Under each table was found an Indian headdress or a gun, for the campers were holding their "Wild West Show."

Amongst the whoops and yells, the campers had two extra highlights. On Wednesday, the whole camp went to the Miniature Circus being shown at the J. L. Hudson Co. The children were especially interested in this exhibit, as the Summer Camp is centered around the circus theme.

Friday morning, both boys and girls gathered around the young Tiger player, Don Kolloway to hear the various stories of his career. He also showed some good pointers about the sport and then ended his visit with some exhibition hitting.

The Wild West Show was climaxed by a pony race held out on the playground. Each individual circus group held its own race and then a final heat was scheduled to pick the winner. Real ponies weren't used, of course, but the riders "saddled up" on broomsticks with paper bag heads and crepe paper tails.

The winners for each group were: Howdy Doody; John Randall; Super Duper; Pat Schwartzberg; Candy Carnival; Frank Cherry; and Jolly Jump Up; Woody Noblitt. The final heat was won by Frank Cherry of Candy Carnival. He was awarded a crepe paper horseshoe.

Now that the Wild West week is over all the day campers are putting away their guns and addresses to get ready for the "Big Circus." There will be a Side Show with various types of freaks from Siamese Twins to the Bearded Lady.

There will be Clown acts with Candy Carnival setting the pace, Super Duper providing acrobats, Jolly Jump Up, firemen and Howdy Doody, clown dancers.

The animal acts will be lions by Candy Carnival; horses, Super Duper; Elephant parade, Howdy Doody, and donkey parade, Jolly Jump Up.

The Wild West Show will have Super Duper with the Cowgirls tap dance; Jolly Jump Up, the covered wagon and Indian attack, Candy Carnival, eagle dance, a genuine Indian dance; and Howdy Doody will stage pony races.

There will be square dancing for all.

One of the outstanding events of the last day of Day Camp will be the presentation of awards to the following campers:

Jolly Jump Up; Best camper, Tommy Leonard; sportsman, Woody Noblitt; attendance, Richard Hillegas, Tommy Leonard, Woody Noblitt, Tommy Trefzer, Lucy Schiabe, Gary Braund; outstanding helpers, Judy Carrier and Robin Bishop.

Howdy Doody: Best camper, Carol Dunwoodie; sportsman, Gary Beuore; attendance, David Bartley, John Bartley, Diane Kramer, Dennis Kramer, John Lanz, Susie Muellerwelt, John Randall; outstanding helpers, George Lewis, David Bartley and Nancy Bertel.

Super Duper: Best camper, Susan Schreiber; sportsman, Pat and Chichie Schwartzberg; attendance, Stephanie Arquette, Robert Brinkman, Francis Coughlin, Ronald Manning, Sheri-Lynn Peacock, Charles Schwartzberg, Joanne Schwartzberg, Marjorie Shea; outstanding helpers, Gale Beuore, Marjorie Shea and Joanne Schwartzberg.

Plan Rehabilitation Center To Service All Handicapped

Detroit moved a step closer to a complete rehabilitation center to service the city's 100,000 handicapped persons with the naming of additional directors and officers for the newly organized Rehabilitation Institute of Metropolitan Detroit.

Carl E. Schneider, vice-president in charge of industrial relations; Burroughs Adding Machine Company, has been named president of the Institute; and Walter Otto, personnel director, Michigan Mutual Liability Company, was named chairman of the board of directors.

Organized to promote and correlate all services for the rehabilitation of physically handicapped persons, the Institute plans to work through and with existing agencies to develop a center where all phases of rehabilitation can be offered. Such a center would provide opportunities and facilities for research and education which will contribute to the prevention of crippling conditions and to the improvement of services for the physically handicapped.

A committee, under the direction of Dr. Joseph G. Molner, Detroit Health Department, is currently seeking a medical director. Following the selection of the director, the Institute will begin planning an operational program.

A study of industry, insurance companies, agencies dealing with handicapped persons, doctors and hospitals, conducted by the Health Council of United Community Services, pointed to the need for a center which could furnish medical treatment, physical and vocational rehabilitation and counseling so handicapped adults can progress under a single planned program of rehabilitation, rather than travel from agency to agency.

Facilities exist for the rehabilitation of children but the Institute is the first attempt to provide a complete program for handicapped adults.

Once the center is set up, it is anticipated that income from patients rehabilitated will cover most of the costs. Referrals to the center will come from insurance companies, industry, agencies devoted to fighting crippling diseases, public agencies, and from private patients referred by physicians. All of these groups and Wayne University Medical School and the United Foundation have expressed interest and have participated in the organization of the Institute.

In addition to serving on the committee to select a medical director, Dr. Molner is vice-chairman of the board of directors. Mrs. Benjamin Young, League for the Handicapped, is secretary and Arthur S. Albright, Detroit Edison Co., is treasurer.

Members of the executive committee include Mr. Schneider, Dr. Frank Weiser, Grace Hospital; Robert T. Ross, Ford Motor Company; Mrs. David Wallace, League for the Handicapped; Carl Ingraham, Pontiac attorney; Paul R. Trigg, Curative Workshop; Mrs. Gilbert Pingree, Visiting Nurse, Association.

The finance committee is headed by Mr. Albright and includes John Southworth, Shell Oil Co.; Mrs. Alan Merrill; Nate S. Shaper, Cunningham Drug Stores; Harry Southwell, Local 174, UAW-CIO.

Nurses Needed For Polio Care

The American Red Cross has issued an urgent call for registered nurses to serve during the polio season. Incidence of the disease so far this year is running 58 percent above the same period last year, according to statistics released by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"The demand for more nurses is particularly great in Iowa and Texas," according to Key Fitzpatrick, Red Cross director of Nursing Services for the Midwestern Area. Most of the available nurses will be needed before the epidemic is over, she said.

"It is not our intention to drain nurses from other duty in which they are vitally needed," Miss Fitzpatrick said. She added that inactive registered nurses were particularly being sought.

Nurses recruited by the Red Cross are requested to serve for a minimum two-month period. Their salaries are paid by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

The Red Cross recruits nurses at the request of the NFIP, the organization which provides expert polio care for all and meet the cost of treatment when family finances are inadequate. The Foundation will pay the cost of transportation to places of assignment and will provide maintenance in addition to salary while the nurse is serving in polio work.

Foundation figures show a total of 4,176 cases of polio in the United States since March. This compares with 2,644 last year. Last week 34 nurses recruited through Red Cross in the Midwestern Area were assigned to hospitals in Illinois, Kansas, Iowa, and Texas. The need is especially acute in Sioux City, Iowa, and Houston, Texas, where serious epidemics have been reported.

Nurses able to serve during the polio season should contact their local Red Cross chapter.

Somehow we never thought the E. A. Batchelors would succumb to the blandishments of a parakeet but they have. What's worse, they call their pet Blair because it's so moody.

Two very good girl friends here in the Pointe went at it so cruelly over politics the other day that the situation called for some "making-up." To charm each other and renew the friendship they made a pact: the Republican girl will vote for Stevenson and the Democrat will vote for Ike.

We are reliably informed that the grandson of an industrial tycoon slipped out of his cradle last Saturday morning at 2 o'clock, tip-toed down to the library. There he turned on TV to see what makes grandpaw have apoplexy: Mr. Truman. He took one big look, turned off the set and tip-toed back to bed, his upper teeth over his lower lip.

The Pointe loved the ever-so-British appearance of little DeeDee Neal's bridegroom, Royal Navy Lieut. John Richards Symonds-Taylor, glimpsed as the bridal pair visited her grandparents, the Sigurd R. Beckers of Devonshire road, before their departure for England.

LOVE . . . the tiny feet and big dinner rings of the Countess Cyril Toistoi . . . the restful tones of Mrs. William H. Fries's voice . . . to remember when Henry Ford II was a college boy with Bermuda bells on his car . . . to hear stories about a prominent politician's first wife who travels everywhere with her personal seer and holds seances for all her friends . . . the end of the June bug season here in the Never Never land . . . the Florida touch the Bob Sherer's elegant mansion gives the Lake Shore . . .

PILFERINGS

The New York Times' correspondents collected a number of European jokes in a recent magazine section:

VIENNA

When a Viennese government functionary was late in joining his cronies around a coffee house table, he explained he had been entertaining a visiting United States Congressman. It hadn't been bad, the official went on, until the American observed.

"Vienna is a very beautiful city, just as I expected—but where are all those gondolas?"

LONDON

Report from one of the famous English public schools:

A fourth former, asked by the master in a current history quiz what SHAPE meant, thought for a moment and then replied: "I think it's a pet name for Jane Russell."

The pretty stewardess of a B.O.A.C. plane preparing to come down at an airport near London: "We are landing in England shortly. Please tighten your belts."

A beffy retired British colonel, flushing a deep crimson: "I say, young lady, you might keep politics out of this."

ABERDEEN

When Scotchmen recently heard from Japan that a pernicious locally made liquid of fiery and horrid flavor is being peddled in the Orient as Scotch whiskey, they were infuriated. But what really drove them close to apoplexy was the further information that one of the labels (all of which were fairly close imitations of well-known brands of Scotch) displayed the following statement: "Made in Scotland, England."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. JOHN MAXWELL OF CADIEUX ROAD

By JANE SCHERMERHORN

Our Pointer of Interest today would hardly have found favor with the late Rockwell Sayre of Chicago, whose last will and testament specified that his executors should buy 150 boxes of candy and send them to 150 persons whom Sayre listed as his "fellow warriors in the world war against cats."

For Mrs. John Maxwell is fast establishing herself as the one woman (albeit one very pretty woman) Grosse Pointe branch of the Humane Society.

If there's anything that catches Mrs. Maxwell's heart more completely than a lost alley cat (a good, be-draggled one) it's a pink house. But more of that later on.

Not long ago, the Maxwell home on Cadieux road was, at one time, giving aid and comfort to a round dozen cats and three dogs.

If Mr. Maxwell looked on with slight horror, the great-hearted lady of the house found whole-hearted approval of this situation in their 10-year-old son, Jackie. He loves animals, too.

"Really," Mrs. Maxwell assured us, "it was only six cats because one of our foundlings had six kittens the morning after she arrived."

To Mr. Maxwell, we imagine, as it would have been to the late Mr. Sayre, it was 12 cats.

Buys A Cat

Today she houses not only the forlorn animals she finds on the streets but also is readily receptive to the friend who telephones, "Now, if you could possibly take in one more kitten—I found . . ."

Mrs. Maxwell had to BUY her first cat.

"It was for Jackie," she said to us with some truth, "you know, half for Jackie and half for Mrs. Maxwell . . . and I went to the Humane Society downtown. We got a beautiful tiger striped Tom. Really, we were very lucky because Mr. Maxwell doesn't like cats. But Mike had such a charming personality he became a favorite."

When we called at the Maxwells this week, there were only two cats on the guest register and one black dachshund.

The cats are Rhubarb (originally named Star Dust and found by Jackie's friend, Mary Jo Old) and Mama Tom (a gentleman) and the black dachshund, Dottie.

Enter Dottie

Dottie has been a member of the household two years. It was while the Maxwells were vacationing at Ipperwash Beach that a farmer brought his dachshund and a basket, holding her seven puppies, down to the beach.

Well, fate again put Mrs. Maxwell and Jackie there.

"Jackie's birthday was coming up," remembered Mrs. Maxwell with the air of a gal who knew she didn't need such an excuse to find a basket of puppies irresistible!

At the time the family had a coal-black cat named Rag Tag, since gone to feline heaven. Both Mrs. Maxwell and Jackie declare Rag Tag had been worrying them to death because she seemed to be pining away. The minute they bought the dachshund, Rag Tag perked up and lived to enjoy all nine of her lives.

house will still have her deep bronze sun fan. She looked like a South Sea island beauty the other evening in an emerald frock splashed in gay tropical colors.

Woods Planners Draft Ordinance

The Grosse Pointe Woods City Planning Committee met last Monday night and approved a revised zoning ordinance with the recommendation that it be submitted to the city council for final approval, and that preparation be made for a public hearing on the new draft.

The ordinance provides for the establishment and location of commercial and residential construction, among other more technical rulings, designed to bring the ordinance up to date.

In the past, the ordinance had a number of amendments attached in an effort to show some advances in progressive city planning.

Hiding Places

Before we got onto the subject of the pink house, we had discovered tender-hearted Mrs. Maxwell doesn't always just "stumble" on these lost kittens. She knows quite well where she's apt to find them.

She listed to us several places where heartless folk dump unwanted kittens such as the railway express offices downtown and school playgrounds.

Mrs. Maxwell usually makes the express office and Jackie keeps a bright eye out for kittens on the playgrounds.

Mr. Maxwell hasn't got a chance.

The Pink House

The pink house is a dream come true for Mrs. Maxwell who's wanted one for years and years. It's now being built on the divine lake frontage of Windmill Pointe.

A tri-level house, it's being built of five different tones of creamy pink roman brick interspersed with crab orchid stone and natural wood touches.

Homeless kittens will have the run of the home where rooms will include a potting room, office, train room (for Jackie), luggage room, Florida room (entirely of glass on two sides), a suite for Mrs. Maxwell's father, J. R. Hogue.

A higher level consists of the living room, library, morning room, master bedroom, guest bedroom and Jackie's bedroom.

From the master bedroom, a wall switch will turn on the morning coffee in the kitchen and another switch can, in an instant, flood the spacious grounds with light.

Tropical Flavor

Servants' quarters, utility rooms are included in this new Pointe home which should be ready for occupancy around the first of the year.

The housewarming will have an exotic flavor (the Maxwells love to travel in Acapulco, Jamaica, Haiti, the Virgin Islands on their holidays).

We hope the mistress of the

FISH CHOWDER or SOUP

Contributed by Mrs. Harold J. Waples

Fillet two small fish. Put the fillets away and put the remainder in a quart of water. Bring to a boil, then simmer for about an hour. Drain this pot likker for soup or chowder stock.

Next, dice three or four carrots and two or three onions and add a few shakes of garlic salt. Dice a couple of potatoes, depending on the size, and put all the vegetables in the stock, which is simmered until the ingredients are done.

If you want to be gay, add one can of cream of chicken soup. The heavenly stuff is never boiled, of course, and is simmered gently until right.

If you want a chowder, add one of two cups of flaked, boiled fish.

Reflections

by paul gach

Every so often we catch one of those inimitable misquotations. Recently a charming and interested bystander pointed at my candid equipment and asked: "Mr. Gach, does your camera have a sight-seeer?" Of course she referred to the "view-finder" through which I look to compose each scene.

I don't think she realized how true was her little twisting of words. The actual sights that are seen in that window of the camera are beyond counting. The constant panorama of life, over which a photographer has a privileged and often startling view, is always changing, never twice the same, and never lacking in interest. It's really a wonderful profession!
