St. Ambrose Stars of Yesteryear Turn Out for Big Game

—Picture by Fred Runnells
Sunday was a great day for former lettermen from St. Ambrose. They not only held their annual reunion, starting with a breakfast at the Hotel Savarine, but topped the day off by seeing their boys take a thrilling victory from the old rival Flyers of St. Paul High School. Members of the "A" Club posed for their picture on the Grosse Pointe High School campus after the game, which is obvious when one considers the smiling faces of the alumni. For details of the 7-0 St. Ambrose victory see the story on the Sport Page.

Coast Guard Still Seeks Lost Sailor

W. J. McDonald, Jr. Missing Since Sailing From Woods Park on October 1

Coast Guard authorities in the Mt. Clemens area have not yet recovered the body of sailing enthusiast W. J. McDonald, Jr., whose 16-foot sailboat was found capsized, sails run up, 4 miles out from the Clinton River spillway early in the morning of October 2.

The apparent tragedy occurred during the severe storm that struck the area in the afternoon of October 1.

Sailed from Woods

McDonald, 64, of 14145 Rossini, Detroit, sailed his boat from its moorings at Grosse Pointe Woods lakefront park at 4:30 in the afternoon. Woods police received a report from park authorities at 7:30 that evening that he had not returned. Shortly after that the Coast Guard was notified.

McDonald is said to have been an excellent swimmer. Police stated that there had apparently been no one with him at the time, although he had invited a friend to sail with him that afternoon. They said that he had often sailed alone in the afternoons during the summer.

Lived in Rivard

A Detroit-area building contractor, McDonald had within the past few years moved with his wife, Emma, and son, Franklin, from Rivard boulevard to his Detroit residence.

He had five daughters, two of whom are residents of Grosse Pointe: Mrs. Oscar J. Gaeremink, of Brys drive, and Mrs. Albert Mancini, of Hollywood.

Pays $100 Fine; Loses License

Judge C. Joseph Belanger fined Barton E. Dubray, aged 54, of 11248 Glenfield, Detroit, $100 and revoked his driver's license for one year, at a special court session, October 2.

Dubray had been arrested earlier that same day by Park police officers Barclay and Johnson for violation of the Drunk Motor Law.

Dixie Cup Gardener Reaps Harvest of Giant Pumpkins

Last June 5-year-old Bobby LeBlond buried a pumpkin seed in a little dirt in a Dixie cup. He kept it in his first grade home-room at the Mason School, and the seed began to grow and grow.

Finally a vine poked out of the dirt and the plant got too big for the cup, so Bobby took it home and put it in his back yard at 1388 Vernier. And it kept on growing.

Then there were two great big pumpkins on the vine, the largest

Adult Committee for Annual Halloween Celebration Gets Temporary Plans Completed

Officers Also Elected at Meeting in Neighborhood Club; Forrest Geary Will Be Chairman and George Elworthy Vice-Chairman

The Adult Committee for the Grosse Pointe Community Halloween parties met at the Neighborhood Club on Monday evening, September 29, to complete plans for this year's parties.

The following officers of the group were elected: Forrest Geary, chairman; George Elworthy, vice-chairman; Mrs. John S. Foley, secretary; Mrs. Everett Roll, assistant secretary; Thomas Jacques, treasurer; Arthur Dannecker, assistant treasurer.

Dr. O'Neil to Supervise
Dr. Robert O'Neil is again in charge of supervision of the parties. He has requested the services of other men for supervisory posts. Anyone interested in helping should call him at Valley 2-5707.

Others attending the meeting were representatives of the Mothers Club, Grosse Pointe Teachers Association, Girl Scouts, A. A. U. W., fire and police departments, Alger Auxiliary (VFW) Optimist Club, Defer Puce, DUS, and Grosse Pointe High.

The very important matter of safety in regard to the Halloween programs will be supervised by Arthur E. Louwers, Chief of Police, Grosse Pointe Park. The police departments of all Pointe communities will cooperate with him to ensure all safety measures on Halloween night.

Neophyte Driver Rams Wood Pile

Joseph A. Bidway, aged 19, of 1540 East Fort street, Detroit, lost control of his automobile last Saturday while attempting a turn onto Fairford from Torrey road in Grosse Pointe Woods.

The car crossed the lawn of one of the corner houses, bounced across Fairford and ended up in a pile of logs on the opposite side of the street.

In the car with him at the time was 20-year-old Donald R. Miller, of 4206 Ashland, Detroit. Bidway explained to the police that he had been receiving driving instruction from Miller.

Neither Bidway nor Miller suffered injury. Police said that Bidway carried a learner's permit.

Motorcycle Hits Car; Rider Hurt

Wayne Combs, of 597 Montclair, Detroit, received a bruised hand and abrasions on both legs late last Monday afternoon, when his motorcycle smashed into an automobile at the intersection of Vernor and Lakepointe.

Combs told Grosse Pointe Park police that he had been traveling west on Vernor at about 25 miles an hour when the car, going north on Lakepointe, pulled into the intersection in front of him.

Driver of the automobile, Robert W. Brown, 1735 Shipmen, Birmingham, said that he had stopped for Vernor, saw no traffic and started across. It was then he heard a screech of brakes and saw the motorcycle. He told police he speeded up to avoid the collision and then heard a crash.

G. P. City's Park Needs Under Study

Special Committee Meets With Opponents of Bond Issue; Another Session Tonight

Three opponents of the defeated $260,000 bond issue for improvement of the lakefront part in the City of Grosse Pointe, met last Thursday night with the special committee which has been appointed to study the city's recreational improvement needs. The committee is composed of Councilmen Kenneth Bergmann and Donald Wright.

The proposed bond issue was defeated by 20 votes at a special election on September 10. The council has officially recognized the need for some improvements being made at the park before another season. The special committee has been charged with the task of making a study of the whole situation and coming up with a recommendation that will be approved by the majority of the residents.

Invited Opponents

An invitation was sent to the signers of a generally circulated letter opposing the bond issue, to attend last Thursday's meeting. While only three were able to attend, the committee announced that it had been contacted by practically all of the other signers and the consensus is that it is hoped another meeting can be arranged later when most of them will be on hand.

Those attending were Mrs. J. Milton Robb, Mrs. C. F. Bahr and James Holden. Letters were received from James McMillan and Oscar Buhr. Phone calls were received from Dr. Arthur B. McGraw, Harry Miller and several others.

Wants to be Heard

Mr. McMillan, who had to be out of town at the time of the meeting, has asked for another meeting with the committee and an opportunity to state his views.

Councilman Wright stated that the opinion of those attending was that the proposed bond issue involved too large an expenditure and that such improvements as are needed should be made on a pay as you go basis or with a short term loan.

Another Meeting Tonight

The special committee is holding another meeting tonight in the Municipal Building. Invited to attend are six engineers and architects who volunteered their services in support of the bond

Bond Issue Vote To Settle Question Of Auditorium-Gym

Board of Education to Include Proposition on Split Ballot; New School for Roslyn Road District Also Requested

With the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education for Wednesday night, (after the NEWS went to press), it appeared a certainty that the board members would vote to include a new auditorium-gymnasium for the High School in a proposed bond issue to be voted on probably shortly after the first of the year.

It was learned that more than 300 letters urging construction of a new auditorium-gymnasium have been received at the Board of Education building. This tangible evidence is reported to have caused the board to decide that the proposal should be included in the bond issue.

The proposed bond issue will be a split ballot, it was learned. Another proposal will be the construction of a new elementary school on Roslyn road in one of the fastest growing sections of the district. The voters can accept or reject either or both proposals.

Have Preliminary Plans

Preliminary plans for the school and the auditorium-gymnasium have been prepared. It is estimated the new school would cost about $750,000. It would contain 14 regular classrooms, a small auditorium-gymnasium, offices, two kindergarten rooms. Its maximum capacity would be about 500 pupils.

Cost of the proposed auditorium-gymnasium for the high school would depend upon its size and the facilities it would contain. There has been considerable support for the idea of including a swimming pool with a gallery large enough to accommodate spectators.

New PARCELLS Pool

There is also known to be some support for the idea of building a pool at Parcels School. It is argued that this would give both schools a pool and the high school could hold its meets at Parcels in the new, larger pool with room for more spectators.

In addition to the letters received at the board of Education offices, it was also learned that J. Lamarr Newberry, president of the Grosse Pointe High School Dads' Club, has received many telephone calls promising support for the auditorium-gymnasium project.

The Dads' Club sponsored a meeting two weeks ago, attended by representatives from many Pointe organizations, to discuss the project and launch a campaign for its adoption.

Start Clean-Up Of Book Stands

Woods police last week began a drive to "clean up" the book stands and magazine racks of stores in the community following receipt of a list of "objectionable" literature issued by the office of the Wayne County prosecutor, Gerald K. O'Brien.

The list mentioned "other things" objectionable, such as neckties depicting nude women.

Director of Public Safety Verne Bailey stated that the merchants of the community had shown 100 per cent cooperation in the drive and that in no store had there been any of the listed items found.

Among the noted authors whose works were listed are William Faulkner and James T. Farrell.

Police Arrest Hit-Run Driver

Lorne MacDonald, aged 29, of 22329 Hanson court, St. Clair Shores, was arraigned before Judge C. Joseph Belanger, October 1, on charges of violating the Drunk Motor Law and leaving the scene of an accident. He was bound over ($100) for trial on October 8.

Park police said the accident had occurred at Vernor Highway and Audubon earlier that same day. He was arrested by Patrolmen Barclay and Johnson.

City Council Gives Project Green Light

Stipulations Imposed for Protection of Residents Approved by Hospital Group

About 35 residents of the City of Grosse Pointe attended a public hearing Tuesday night, September 30, that concerned itself with a petition presented to the city council by Bon Secours Hospital requesting permission to begin work as soon as possible on a proposed addition to the hospital.

The cost of the addition, estimated at $312,000, would be borne by a $100,000 fund left to the hospital by the late E. D. Stair and money obtained in previous drives and donations by friends.

Ordinance Amended

Because of an amendment to the City zoning ordinance passed a year ago which prohibited such constructions as hospitals south of Kercheval avenue, it was necessary to hold the public hearing to sound out the sympathies of neighboring residents.

As explained by Neil Hayes, attorney representing the hospital's interests at the hearing, the prime purpose in the construction of the addition is that of meeting the minimum requirements of the American Medical Association. Its demands: a minimum of 100 beds, two laboratories, a department of radiology.

Savings Claimed

Approval by the AMA means that the hospital can maintain internes and a resident physician on 24-hour duty. The laboratories would permit out-patient treatment of residents at a savings to them.

Said Hayes: "As the city grows and traffic increases, this hospital will be not only a convenience but a necessity to Grosse Pointe."

Hayes cited statistics: In 1951 a total of 1,377 accident patients were treated in the hospital's emergency section. Eighty-two per cent of them were residents of Grosse Pointe. This year, up to September 17, a total of 1,267 patients received treatment. Eighty-four per cent of them were Grosse Pointe residents. One hundred thirty cases were brought in by the police.

Counters Arguments

Hayes countered arguments that complained of tax loss on potentially assessable property and the possibility (with additional construction), of diminishing desirability of nearby properties. He pointed out that the tax loss would be only about one percent, and that two homes had been built on nearby property since the hospital had been erected, leaving but one vacant lot opposite the hospital for building.

Would Be 120 Feet Long

The proposed addition, 120 by 50 feet and two stories high, would extend along Maumee avenue towards Notre Dame. The ground floor would contain an enclosed ambulance entrance, entrance lobby, filing office, washing and sterilizing room, chemistry and bacteriology labs, radiographic and fluoroscopic rooms, four internes' rooms and baths, radiologist's office, linen room.

The first floor would contain seven single patients' rooms and four double patients' rooms with baths, a visitors' lounge, service kitchen, utility room and drug and nurses' stations.

Blame Accident On Police Car

A police car that roared through a red light on Cadieux at Mack avenue caused a minor auto accident last Friday.

Almer A. Sears, 34915 Jefferson, Mt. Clemens, drove his Dodge into the rear of another car, driven by James M. Kennedy, of 22748 Normandy, Detroit, when it stopped suddenly to avoid the scout car. Both Sears and Kennedy had been approaching the green light east on Mack. They told Grosse Pointe Park police that the scout car gave no warning of its approach, but entered the intersection without siren or horn.

Slight damage was done, and neither driver received a ticket.

Green Light

Mr. Hayes and City Police Chief Thomas Trombly, Norbert Neff, city clerk, and Building Commissioner Melvin Beatty drew up a set of stipulations that they proposed to accompany any approval by the council. Among them: consider complaints by residents about odor and ash from the hospital chimney, with incineration to be permitted during restricted hours; off-street parking of workers' vehicles during construction; no traffic out-let to Maumee now or at any time in the future; consider a landscaping project around the addition a necessity, and take steps to insure against loose refuse about the grounds. It was also specified that the parking area must be paved.

Program Approved
The plans and program have been approved by the executors of Mr. Stair's estate, and bids have been obtained.

On Tuesday Mr. Neff stated that the hospital authorities have accepted all the stipulations and will go ahead with construction plans immediately. The City has given the green light for the project.

Rabaut Blasts G.O.P. Slogan

Lashing out at what he called the "emptiest and phoniest political slogan the American voters have ever had thrown at them," Congressman Louis C. Rabaut this week blasted away at the Republican campaign slogan "It's time for a change."

Rabaut, who is running for his ninth term in the House of Representatives said, "The Republicans are trying to tell the people that, notwithstanding the record of achievement of the new management which salvaged and re-vised a bankrupt and broken down firm, it is time to rehire the old management again."

"The people of America can anticipate the changes the Republicans would bring in just by looking at the record of Republican votes which took the teeth out of our price control law—by remembering the GOP votes in the 80th Congress that denied Social Security protection to over 500,000 people by noting the GOP votes that have been cast for isolationism and against the Democratic programs for strengthening our own defenses by assisting our allies," Rabaut said.

The veteran Democratic legislator accused his GOP opponents of slandering the record of the Administration since 1932. "This denunciation," Rabaut said, "is the substitute they offer for the positive and constructive program they haven't got. May I call attention to the records of the last Republican national administration and the GOP-controlled 80th Congress which should be a clear warning to the people of the kind of government they could expect should the Republicans come into control."

Rabaut quoted Governor Adlai Stevenson's remark at the Democratic National Convention that "change for the sake of change is meaningless" and urged the people of the District to ask "Change to What?" when presented with the Republican slogan.

issue prior to the election. This group includes—Claire A. Stuchell, Clarence E. Day, Thomas Candler, Leslie M. Lowrey, Griswold Herreshoff and Otto W. Pongrace.

Erroneous Impression
Mr. Wright stated he had heard a number of reports that many residents believed that with the defeat of the proposed bond issue, a period of two years would have to elapse before another bond issue could be voted upon. He said he had asked the city attorney to submit an opinion on this and that he had received the written opinion which shows such a belief has no foundation. It would be possible to re-submit the same proposal to the voters immediately, he declared.

No Hasty Decisions
Mr. Wright stated however, that he did not wish to convey the impression that the special committee has decided to recommend that this course be followed. He stressed that no decisions will be reached until he and Mr. Bergmann have made a thorough study of the problem and talked with all interested residents, both opposed to and favoring the bond issue plan.

To Recommend Authority
The two councilmen announced last week that they will recommend to the council at its next meeting on October 20 that a Park Authority be created to handle the whole recreation program, after the survey has been completed by the special committee and recommendations made.

FIRE BIRD
Woods police and fire volunteers rushed to the R. E. Middestadt home at 1514 Anita, October 1, to put out a blaze in the kitchen. Smoke was pouring from the oven. The fat of a large, now-blackened chicken had caught fire. No other damage was apparent.

Richard P-TA To Meet Oct. 13

The Pere Gabriel Richard School Parent Teacher Association is making plans for its 1952-53 school year. The first meeting is to take place in the school auditorium on Monday evening, October 13 at 8 p.m. A very interesting and instructive program is being planned by the program chairman, Mrs. Bartholomew, and the staff of the school.

The meeting will be presided over by the president, Mr. Konig. After a brief business meeting the school staff will take charge of the session. The principal will discuss school problems and present the staff. Parents will then visit in the several classrooms. They will meet with teachers, observe the bulletin boards, become acquainted with other parents in the room.

With a membership usually running to the 400 figure a large audience is anticipated. Mr. Hunter is the vice-president and both Mr. and Mrs. Hunter act as chairmen of the room parents group. Mrs. Hughes has charge of the social hours during the year. Mrs. VonMertens is the finance chairman, while Mrs. Hillegas is the treasurer. Minutes and other secretarial duties are in charge of one of the teachers, Miss Bourg.

Among other members who have assumed special responsibilities are: Mrs. Zebe, Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Burgess for the movie council; Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Swanson for the health council; Mrs. Mower for the Girl Scouts and Brownies; and Mr. Purdy, the Boy Scouts. A most successful year of many educational activities is anticipated.

Dog-Training Class Offered

The Owner-Dog Obedience Training classes, sponsored by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, will start next Tuesday evening, October 14. The classes will meet at the Grosse Pointe High School.

The opening meeting of the fall program will be devoted to a lecture on the principles of dog training. This will be the only meeting when the student does not bring his dog. The owner will be given the scope of the course, and shown what he can do to take advantage of the natural desire of his dog to please him.

These Owner-Dog classes have created a lot of interest during the past four years. More than 460 students have participated in these ten weeks' training sessions.

Any breed of dog can be trained. It is just a matter of teaching the owner what to do and how to do it. The only requirement is that the owner work with his dog a few minutes every day. Every dog is a better companion after this type of training.

Instruction will be under the direction of Marion K. Kellogg, William Averill, and Edward Watkins, members of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club.

Classes will be divided into beginning training, as well as advanced work for former student dog-owners who have completed their novice work.

For class reservations and information call TU 5-2000, extension 25.

Aeronautical World Hails New Pointe Aircraft Course

By Walter X. Brennan

Something new in sports facilities of the Grosse Pointes area has been added. Many more folks who don't live in the area are interested in this facility than those who do live here, and it is getting national acclaim. It is doubtful whether any Grosse Pointe will ever get any good out of it, never-the-less it will be listed several times in the books of national and world records.

It is the new 50 kilometer closed course, for aircraft trial runs, on Lake St. Clair. It was set up for the seaplane speed flights, made by Harold Mistelet on August 25, and by Charles L. Davis, on August 29. Each of the pilots established what are expected to be world records for 100 Km and 500 Km distances.

Unofficially the marks have been accepted by the National Aeronautical Association as national records and the records have been sent to Paris for world confirmation by the Federation Aeronautique Internationale. Approval by the FAI, which makes the rules for the course, will clear the way for national approval by the NAA.

Since the flights have become publicized, it has developed that the local course is the only accurate course of its kind in this country, which can be used. Former accurately measured courses are now in built-up areas and are not approved by the safety division of the Civil Aeronautics Authority.

The word "accurately" is used advisedly. This one has been measured to the proverbial gnat's eyebrow. Calculations of the course were made by the U. S. Engineers office and are based on celestial observations made at

Center Offering First Aid Class

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association has announced that it is still possible to join the First Aid Class meeting each Wednesday at the Center.

The hours, 1 to 3 p.m., are very convenient for mothers of school-age children.

Edward Schnaubelt, the instructor, has asked the members of his previous classes not to consider this course just a war emergency. He feels that all mothers should know how to take care of accident cases in the home and neighborhood or even on the highway.

For further information please call the Center (TU. 1-6030).

Ensign Edmund Wagoner With Navy in Far East

U. S. NAVAL FORCES, FAR EAST—(Delayed)—Serving here aboard the destroyer USS Jarvis is Ensign Edmund L. Wagoner, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold S. Wagoner of 288 Kenwood court, Grosse Pointe, Michigan.

The Jarvis was re-activated from the Reserve Fleet on the Atlantic coast in 1951. She has been serving with units of the naval forces in the Far East for the past three months.

Left Turn Cause Of Bad Accident

Grosse Pointe Park police rushed Thomas Milton, of 3981 Lawton, Detroit, to Bon Secours Hospital, last Monday after he had been injured in a two-car accident on Jefferson avenue near Bishop.

Milton had attempted a left turn onto Bishop from the curb lane of Jefferson and was struck in the left side by another car about to pass him on the left. The second car was driven by George Wehly, 4528 Lillibridge, Detroit. Both drivers had been going east at about 30 miles an hour.

Milton was treated for lacerations of the face and left arm, and a head injury. Police ticketed him for making an improper turn. They said that Wehly was uninjured.

Henry Bretton To Give Lecture

"American Foreign Policy in Germany" will be the subject of the third lecture for the "Around the World Today" series given under the sponsorship of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association. This lecture takes place on Wednesday evening, October 15, at 7:45 o'clock at the Center and Henry L. Bretton, instructor in political science at the University of Michigan, will be the speaker.

HENRY L. BRETTON

Mr. Bretton was born in Berlin, Germany but became a naturalized citizen of the U. S. in 1944. During World War II he was with the Office of Strategic Services and is now a lieutenant in the Organized Reserves.

In 1948 Mr. Bretton began his teaching career at the University, but during the summers of 1950 and 1951 he was in government service, working on the Department of State's Exchange of Persons' Program. He is co-author of a book, "Germany Under the Occupation," 1949.

Tickets for individual lectures may be purchased at the door for the price of $1.00 per person. For further information concerning this University of Michigan Extension Service series please call the Center, TU, 1-6030.

THOMAS MILTON, of 3981 Lawton, Detroit, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of injuries suffered in this accident that occurred last Monday. Milton had started a left turn onto Bishop road from the right-hand lane of Jefferson avenue, cutting in front of another car approaching from the rear.

Court of Honor Held at Trombly

Scouting's highest award, the coveted Eagle badge, was presented to Explorer Richard Marsh at a Court of Honor of Trombly Troop 86 last Thursday evening. The presentation was made by Explorer Adviser William Goetsch.

Earlier in the evening, parents and other guests were shown slides of troop activities covering the past five years. The program also featured an explorer ceremony emphasizing scouting's "Get Out the Vote" campaign and introduction of the troop marching song.

Assistant Scoutmaster Dale McCleary presented Second Class badges to the following scouts: Richard Cogan, Warren Miller, Robert Gillette, Charles Fox, Kitt Fisher, John Fleming, Ronald Monahan, David Owen and Stephen Fitzpatrick. Scouts Neil Georgi and Glen Moon were promoted to the rank of First Class by Assistant Scoutmaster Albert Law. Scouts Oscar Marx and David Law were presented with Star and Life awards, respectively.

Unit awards were presented by Scoutmaster Doug Simpson to members of the unit for outstanding proficiency in the following skills: signaling—Glen Moon, Neil Georgi; first aid—Richard Strother, James Norris; cooking—Richard Marsh, David Law; aquatics—David Riemer, Brad Peabody and Mac Huestis; advancement—Richard Marsh; camping—Dennis McGinty, David Riemer; citizenship—Philip Hutchins. Merit badges were also presented to explorers Milton, Monahan, Thomas Wood and Peter McKee.

Pierce All Set For Open House

The Pierce Junior High School on Kercheval Avenue is all shined and ready to receive parents and friends tomorrow evening, October 10, at 8 p.m.

This is the semi-annual open house to which the Seven B students bring their parents to school for the first time. Even though the Seven B's will present the program in the auditorium, all parents are invited to attend. Especially welcome are new students, and their parents, who have entered Pierce School this year.

Margaret Wible and David Cook will share honors as chairmen in announcing the events of the evening. The Seventh Grade class making up a chorus of over 150 boys and girls will sing a Mexican folk song "Chiapaneca" and "Nocturne" by Lamere. Miss Gwen Brockmiller will direct the chorus. The Seven B band members will play "America the Beautiful." The violin players in the seventh grade will give a rendition of the round, "Scotland's Burning." The combined winds and string will play the "Tennessee Waltz." Mr. Calvin J. Daane is the director of the Pierce band and orchestra. A demonstration of the audiovisual aids will be given by Mr. Owen Middleton. A display of this equipment is to be arranged in Room 202.

The president of the P.T.A., Mr. Ed. Pongracz will conduct a brief business session.

Following the auditorium program, all rooms will be opened by the staff members where parents may meet the teachers. Refreshments will be served in the gym at the conclusion of the evening.

Voters League Lists Meetings

Criticism and questions directed against the United Nations will be the subject of discussion at October Unit meetings of the League of Women Voters.

Is the UN an effective instrument for peace? Is the United States providing too much of the money for the UN budget? Can the UN interfere with the policies of the United States government and the governments of the States? Is it true that most countries in the UN are against the United States?

Through study and discussion, League members will attempt to find answers to these questions. In recognition of United Nations Day (October 24), the League will join with the AAUW in a dinner program at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on the evening of October 23. This will take place of a general October meeting for League members.

Unit study groups will meet as follows: October 15, 1 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Ralph Pulliam, 218 Merriweather road. Discussion leaders are Mrs. John Remillet and Mrs. Arthur Reeves. Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerborn

Twenty-five years ago last Tuesday (Oct. 7) in New York's Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church . . .

A beautiful girl named Anastasia Reilly and the Pointe's young T. D. Buhl spoke their marriage vows . . .

And to toast those silvery years, the Buhls gathered their friends around them this past Tuesday in their Ridge road home at a Silver Anniversary dinner dance . . .

Coming on from Cambridge, Mass. was William A. Connors, Mr. Buhl's classmate at Yale who also was his best man . . .

And another out-of-town guest was Victor S. Grandin of New York and Palm Beach . . .

Autumn Lights Flood Gardens

Guests gathered for cocktails in the games room before dinner which was served, seated, in the living room and glass enclosed terrace of the Buhl home . . .

Tables for eight and ten were arranged about the rooms . . . each covered with ice turquoise cloth and centered with silver bowl of pink roses . . .

Diners looked out from the terrace onto specially illuminated gardens . . . flooded in the amber, gold and orange shades of autumn . . .

Indirect lights marked garden paths and fish pond for the anniversary evening . . .

Silver Anniversary Guests

Mrs. Buhl greeted her guests in a gown of cafe au lait stiffened satin, horizontal bands of the same toned Chantilly lace used on the strapless bodice. The floor touching skirt, which fell in soft folds, had two deep panels of the same lace. While her son-in-law and daughter received their friends, a second receiving line formed to greet Mrs. Buhl's mother, Mrs. Harriet Reilly of Brooklyn and her cousin, Mrs. C. J. Haskell of Palm Beach who are visiting the Buhls . . .

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Buhl . . . Mr. and Mrs. John T. Woodhouse . . . Mr. and Mrs. William G. Curran . . . Mr. and Mrs. William L. McGiverin . . . Mr. and Mrs. Carsten Tiedeman . . . Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Book . . . Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence D. Buhl . . .

Mrs. Jewett Dwyer . . . Lewis Bredin . . . Mr. and Mrs. Harold Raymond Boyer . . . Mr. and Mrs. William K. Muir . . . Harry Rust . . . Mr. and Mrs. Howard Freeman Smith . . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert Duff . . . Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stroh . . .

Among Those Present

And continuing the anniversary guest list, there were: Mr. and Mrs. George E. Schenck . . . Mr. and Mrs. W. Dean Robinson . . . Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Macauley Jr. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Creedon . . . Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Dean Jr. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Rorick . . .

Mr. and Mrs. George Oliver Johnston . . . Mr. and Mrs. Richard Durant . . . Mrs. Allan Sheldon . . . Mr. and Mrs. David A. Wallace . . . Mr. and Mrs. Emory Moran Ford . . . Robert B. Edgar . . . Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl Jr. . . .

Leslie Harvie Hitchens To Live in the East

New Home in Mt. Vernon, N.Y. Awaits Saturday Bridal Couple; Bride Former Joan Taylor Broadbridge, Daughter of The Don Taylor Broadbridges

When the young Leslie Harvie Hitchens return from their wedding in Bermuda, they will make their future home in Mt. Vernon, New York.

Their marriage took place last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The Rev. Paul Ketchum was the officiating pastor.

Mrs. Hitchens was Joan Taylor Broadbridge, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Don Taylor Broadbridge of Edgemere road. Mr. Hitchens is the son of Mrs. George H. Hitchens of Rochester, N.Y., and the late Mr. Hitchens.

For her wedding, Joan wore a gown of antique silk taffeta. Designed with sculptured bodice, a Queen Ann collar was frosted in Chantilly lace.

Deep V of tucked taffeta finished the gown's bodice and the great skirt swept into court train.

Her veil of imported silk illusion fell from briefest of tucked bridal julets and she carried fleurs d'amour, stephanotis and ivy in her bouquet.

Nancy Sayre, as maid of honor, was dressed in turquoise taffeta opera length frock with small velvet hat in matching tone. She carried white fugi mums.

The bridesmaids, who were gowned in the same fashion, included: Mrs. Walter Shirley of Indianapolis and Patricia Baumgarten of Grosse Pointe.

Assisting Mr. Hitchens as best man was William Fleckenstein. The guests were seated by the bride's brother, Don Broadbridge Jr., David Wheaton and Howard Smith.

A gown of cinnamon chiffon and lace, floor touching, was chosen by the bride's mother.

Mrs. Hitchens wore beige chiffon over taffeta for the wedding. After the church ceremony, guests drove to the Country Club for the wedding reception.

Pointe Skaters Take to Ice

The Detroit Skating Club officially opened its season last Saturday, drawing many Pointers over to the beautiful indoor ice rinks of its clubhouse on Six Mile Road (the old Detroit Riding and Hunt Club).

Saturday morning found the young skaters taking over the ice, the Pointe represented by Julie and Patty Walbridge, Judy and Holly Lomax, Sharon Ann Queeney, Susan, John and Harry Haberkorn, Laurie and Jane Pratt.

On Sunday, family skating parties enjoyed their first outing of the season. The Allen M. Lomaxes were with their little girls, Mrs. Alice Pratt skated with her daughters and also present were Mr. and Mrs. Norton Walbridge and C. Henry Haberkorn III.

Lois Gehrig, Daughter of The Edward F. Gehrigs of Balfour Road Wed to Theodore L. Potter in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; To Live on Cloverly

A sentimental bride, Lois Gehrig, observed the something "old" in her wedding gown when she donned the exquisite rosepoint lace wedding veil which had been worn by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Roger C. Hill in Paris.

Lois was married Friday to Theodore L. Potter at services in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Gehrig of Balfour road, entertained the wedding guests at a reception in the Detroit Boat Club following the evening ceremony.

Ted is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Potter of Merriweather road.

The lovely wedding veil worn by the bride fell from a French illusion bridal cloche which was bound in white satin.

Lois' wedding gown of ivory satin had molded bodice embroidered at its portrait neckline in seed pearls. The sleeves were long and fitted.

Unpressed pleats formed a voluminous skirt which extended to a formal train at the back.

They wore small matching hats and carried arrangements of yellow button chrysanthemums and yellow daisies.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Mrs. Donald McLeod.

The bridesmaids included: Mrs. Edward McPherson, Diane MacRae and Mrs. Donald Bartz.

The groomsmen were: John Middleton, a cousin of the bride; Donald Byerlein, Bernard Brogan, George Potter and Robert E. Ashbury.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Potter left their Boat Club reception to start off on the trip that will take them to Bermuda.

Upon their return they will be at home in Cloverly road.

Richard Amersons Weekend With Mrs. Mason Rumney

Spending the week-end with Mrs. Mason P. Rumney of Hillcrest road were her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Amerson of Battle Creek and their daughter, Mimi Gage. While the Amersons' new home is being built they are living at the Battle Creek Country Club.

Dance at Center Set for Friday

A full evening of dancing and entertainment is in store for the Young Adults and Center Club of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial tomorrow night, October 10. All men and women in their twenties and thirties are invited to attend this gala evening.

Continuing its policy of providing entertainment for the members of the armed forces serving in Grosse Pointe, the Center has invited these men to be guests, and it is expected that many of the local residents will be anxious to help make them feel at home at this party. The teachers of the Grosse Pointe schools have also been extended a special invitation.

The program will include ballroom and square dancing, with both being offered at the same time in different areas. Mrs. James Blashill and Jim Blashill will be calling for the square dancing. Novelty numbers will round out the evening.

Refreshments will be served throughout the evening and will be followed by a more substantial snack later on.

Co-chairmen Howie Clark and Charlie Robstock report that no reservations are necessary for this party, which begins at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow night.

Mrs. Theodore L. Potter

The former LOIS GEHRIG, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward F. Gehrig of Balfour road, was married on October 3 to the son of Mrs. Lewis E. Potter of Merriweather road, and the late Dr. Potter.

Both will be displayed so guests may leisurely make their selections before the holiday rush.

Christ Church Fair Set for November 13

Mrs. Harold L. Wadsworth Heads 600 Women Working On Annual Christmas Bazaar to Be Held at Christ Church; Event Benefits Work of Church Here and in Missions

Along with the first nippy weather of autumn, this week, came word from Mrs. Harold L. Wadsworth that the Christ Church Christmas Fair will be held on Thursday, Nov. 13, from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Some 600 Pointe women have been working since last January, collecting and making the beautiful wares to be sold. This largest of the Pointe Christmas bazaars alternates each year between Christ Church and Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, members of whom are joined by St. Michael's Church in the big task.

Proceeds this year will be used for the work of the Women's Auxiliary of Christ Church; for the Sunday School building fund and for the church's missionary programs in the diocese and beyond.

Just one of the projects benefiting from the event will be the St. Peter's Home for boys where, at all times, 15 otherwise homeless boys are boarded.

While many of the work meetings for the fair have been held in Pointers' homes' all season long, each Tuesday and Wednesday finds a corps of women sewing, wrapping, painting, etc., at Miller Hall.

Chairman ex-officio for the Fair is Mrs. Erville Maynard of Christ Church lane and Mrs. Wadsworth's vice-chairmen are Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener and Mrs. Douglas Campbell, and Mrs. William K. Muir.

Miss Frances Booth will be treasurer of the fair assisted by Mrs. Hal Smith, Jr., and Mrs. William Tost. Secretary is Mrs. R. P. Laird, assisted by Edward P. MacKenzie. Representing the Women's Auxiliary are Mrs. A. R. Peter Ford and Mrs. Frederick C. Ford while Mrs. H. Ray Will is doing publicity for the three star benefit.

Mrs. Jewett Dwyer heads a preview committee in connection with the Fair and other committee chairmen are Mrs. Harry M. Kerr, services; Mrs. Charles Hodges, Jr., styling and sewing adviser; Mrs. Wendel W. Anderson, staging; Mrs. Oscar Buhr, supplies; Mrs. Aaron Evans, placement; Mrs. W. Howie Muir, hostesses; Mrs. Wesson Seyburn, personal shopper; Mrs. W. Warren Sheldon, artist. Committee heads for the various booths and attractions of the Hospital Guild To Conduct Tea

To open the fall season, the Bon Secour Guild will have a Membership Tea and Get Acquainted Party on Tuesday afternoon, October 14, in the activities room of the hospital.

Hostesses for the party include Mrs. Henry J. Verseyer, Mrs. Martin Paye, Mrs. Joseph Kasper and Mrs. Edward Lynch. Mrs. Lawrence A. Kroha is president of the Guild.

Miss McMahon November Bride

On Nov. 22 Frances McMahon and Thomas Whittingham will be married at a 4 o'clock ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The bride-elect is the daughter of F. E. McMahon of East Jefferson avenue and her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Whittingham of Edgemere road.

Frances has asked her cousin, Mrs. Neil Chapin of Springfield, Mass. to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Ann Whittingham, Julie Blossom, Grace Roelm and Gertrude Ford.

Tom will be assisted by his brother, Bill, as best man. The ushers will include Joseph Cobane, Richard Ridgeway, Frances' brother, Tom McMahon; Jack Thomas of Ann Arbor and Edward Duff of Cincinnati.

Dancing Follows Dinner

Following dinner, guests returned to the games room to dance to Jack Rosevear's music . . . And more hardy merry-makers visited the pool house on the Buhl grounds . . . where a crackling fireplace was cheery protector against October's chill . . .

Usually the Buhls join a group of Pointe couples also having October wedding dates, to mark their anniversary . . . But the advent of the silver year gets a special nod from the group . . . which forsakes the usual informal get-together for the larger gala . . .

In the group are Mr. and Mrs. John T. Woodhouse (who gave a special party last year on their twenty-fifth anniversary), Mr. and Mrs. Emory Moran Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Boyer, Dr. and Mrs. J. Stewart Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. George E. Schenck and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Stroh . . .

Panhellenic President Honored at Tea Party

Detroit Panhellenic Association honored its new president, Mrs. Curran P. Boyer with a tea in the home of Mrs. Wilbur E. Saylor of Island Lake on October 7. Representatives of the 27 national Panhellenic sororities called during the hours of 3-5. The tea table was presided over by past presidents of Panhellenic, Mrs. George Snider, Alpha Omicron Pi; Mrs. William Rossiter, Chi Omega; Mrs. Harold Kerr, Zeta Tau Alpha; and Mrs. Elise Bauman, Sigma Kappa. The chairman for the tea was Mrs. Frederick C. When Money Takes a Cut in Value

A recent article in U. S. News & World Report pointed out that the value of the dollar in relation to what it will buy, has declined over 30% in the past seven years.

There's certainly no doubt that the present dollars are smaller in purchasing power compared to a few years ago. The housewife is sharply aware of this decrease.

Health Council Host at Party

Approximately five hundred women attended the fashion show sponsored by the Mother's Health Education Council of Grosse Pointe on Wednesday afternoon in the new Parcels Junior High School auditorium.

Flower arrangements of autumn colors, brown and yellow lined the stage. Background music was played by Mrs. Harry Chapman. Four little children modeled the young fashions.

During intermission, Mrs. Stanley Mackenzie, founder of the Council, told of the organization and purpose of the Council, and their future plans.

Proceeds from the benefit fashion show will be used to help purchase a dental chair and unit; to help finance the children's dental health program which includes sodium fluoride treatments and corrective work for needy children; to help the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club's building fund; and to make possible other health projects.

Mrs. Mackenzie stressed the growth in this area and of the increased demand on the facilities of the Community Club. Last year they serviced 496 boys and girls in organized groups each week. This included a gym program of basket ball and boxing in the Parcels and Mason schools. The Community Club is a Red Feather Agency project and receives $14,600 towards its total annual budget of $16,400, and mothers who assist the Torch Drive should remember this fact, Mrs. Mackenzie said. But they do not give any money to the building fund, subsequently it must be raised by individuals in the community.

Chairman of the fashion show was Mrs. John J. Zolad. Others assisting her were Mrs. S. M. Sken, Mrs. Fred Leonard, Mrs. Ralph Ladd, and Mrs. Charles Porritt.

Will Consider AAUW Policy

The Legislative Committee of the Grosse Pointe A.A.U.W. will hold a luncheon meeting on Thursday, October 16, at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. George Waldrott, 1144 Balfour road. Hostess Mrs. John Jakle will be assisted by Mrs. Harry Turrell, Mrs. Porter Strother, Mrs. Harold Fleming, and Mrs. Maureen Strong.

The meeting will have special importance, as the members will be asked to consider and vote on the current legislative program of the A.A.U.W. Working from the ballots of the various branches and the recommendations of the several committees, a tentative legislative program will be drawn up, subject to the approval of the board of directors. If approved, this program will be voted upon at the Minneapolis convention in 1953, and will become the official legislative policy for 1953 to 1955.

The Grosse Pointe Branch of A.A.U.W. has a member Mrs. Taylor Seeber, on the National Legislative Committee. She will interpret the issues to be considered at the October 16 meeting. Mrs. Seeber is also chairman of the Fellowship Committee of the Grosse Pointe branch.

Matters pertinent to their respective fields will be discussed by the various chairmen, including Mrs. Harry Turrell, International Relations; Mrs. Abram Brown, Status of Women; Mrs. Walter McAdow, Education; and Mrs. Harold Fleming, Social Studies. Mrs. Raymond Wertz will give a report on pending legislative issues.

Kid Bits

By Nancy MacDonald

Last Friday was the "big night," when lots of the kids from the High School went to see the Blue Devils play Royal Oak. Marylou Koch showed lots of team spirit when she painted her car blue and gold for the occasion. Before the game she had the kids who went in her car over for dinner. They included: Diane Quinlan, Francene Bernest, Jane Condon, Ena Casey, Joan Carver, Emmy Galbraith and Jane Botsford.

Saturday, October 4, turned out to be a wonderful time for a hayride. At least that was the opinion of a group of the senior class. They turned out "en masse" with the girls, of course, furnishing the food!

Some of the kids who took part are: Ginny Halbrook and John Corey, Midge Stapleton and Dick Gillette, Carol DeBruin and Don McCarty, Terry Kuhn and Walt Hoover, Lee Macey and Earle Lyons, Maureen Keeler and Jeff Wayman, and Martha Slowin and Jerry Goebel.

April Cameron and Bill Brabb, Anne Blashill and Kurt Ewend, Diane Quinlan and Wayne Miller, Jane Condon and David McKee, Gloria Bopp and Dick Naragon, Marylou Koch and Dick Anslow, and Ann Leete and Jerry Harden were just some of those who agreed that it was one of the best yet.

After the hayride lots of the kids went over to Ann Blashill's before going home.

Sunday, October 5, was an occasion for a big celebration over at Shirley Pressel's house. Shirley gave a tea in honor of her seventeenth, and the girls surprised her with a cashmere sweater. Some of the kids seen talking over the tea and that wonderful punch were Gail Kidney, Carol DeKorse, Sally Sealby, Ena Casey, Mary Roll, Barbie Coombe, Sue Miller, Glenna Howell, Nancy Ault, Nancy Naragon, Sally Fisher, Tina Bardy and Ginny Halbrook.

Cynthia Hobart, Coreen Kozelle, Helen Eigemann, Christina Dunin, Pat Smith, Nancy Thomas, Terry Kuhn and Bobbie Williams were just a few more who thought the cakes and cookies made by Mrs. Pressel were tops.

Child Guidance Talks Planned

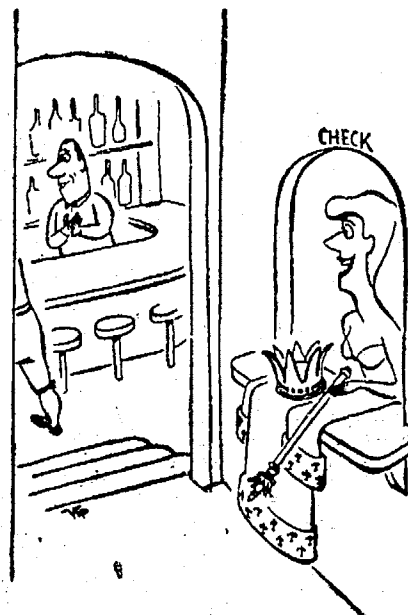

Mothers with children in the Kindergarten at Trombly School have been invited to form a discussion group to share common questions and concerns about their five year olds.

Miss Esther Middlewood, Director, Mental Health Education, State of Michigan, will sit in on these discussions as consultant on child guidance.

Meetings are arranged for October 21, November 4, November 18, and December 9 in the Trombly School Library from 1:30 to 3 p.m.

NURSE REPORTS THEFTS

Mrs. Amy Baxendale, a nurse at Cottage Hospital, complained to Farms police that a diamond ring had disappeared from her room October 2. Two days later, she told police, a thin skin mink scarf had also disappeared. Mrs. Baxendale lives at the Nurses' Home at 158 Ridge road.

The School Proposals

The Grosse Pointe Board of Education has announced that the qualified electors will be called upon, probably shortly after the first of the year, to vote once again on a proposed bond issue to add new facilities to the district's physical properties.

The size of the issue will not be known until costs of the proposed projects can be fully ascertained. It is safe to say, however, that the voters will not be called upon to approve an issue anywhere near the amount of the $3,000,000 which has been carelessly rumored during recent months.

It has been estimated that the proposed new Roslyn road school building would cost about $750,000. The proposed auditorium-gymnasium for the High School campus could certainly be built at a maximum of $1,000,000. The highest figure we have heard, with all facilities the advocates would like to have included, has been $9,000,000.

There can be little question that the Roslyn road school is badly needed and will be even more of a necessity by the time it could be built. This is one of the fastest growing sections in the district.

The proposed bond issue recalls that the School Board issued a prospectus two years ago when it was seeking passage of the last bond issue to build needed new structures. A study of this prospectus now reveals that the educators were not only not trying to fool the residents then, but were on the ultra-conservative side in their estimates of future growth.

In February 1950 the School Board estimated there would be a total of 4225 elementary school students in the district by 1954. As of the start of this school year there were 4,534 elementary students enrolled, or more than 300 more than the educators estimated there would be two years from now. The new forecast now is that there will be 5,420 elementary school students in the district by 1954.

It is reassuring to know that we are being given figures that are far from exaggerated to achieve any ambitions of the Board of Education. The need is definite and the prognostications of the board have been anything but slanted.

The need for the proposed auditorium-gymnasium is also definite in our estimation. We hope the voters will look upon the proposal favorably. A survey has shown that Grosse Pointe High School is far behind all other Class A schools in the state in the matter of athletic and auditorium facilities. Three assemblies are now needed to handle all the students. There is not room for graduation exercises, band concerts and many other gatherings. Spectator room for athletic events is pitifully inadequate and the basketball floor isn't even standard size.

Grosse Pointe should be able to afford school facilities that could compare with the finest. Our students are our greatest asset and the best investment we can make is in their future. Let's not let them down.

A Phenomenal Performance

We doff a homburg to our Republican candidate for Congress from this 14th District, Richard Durant, for a phenomenal display of physical and mental endurance. His 12-hour performance on the radio Saturday night and Sunday morning left us gasping with admiration and respect.

We listened for three hours after he went on the air at 10:30 Saturday night. Knowing he was suffering with a bad cold, we tuned in with a certain amount of fear and trepidation. We couldn't help but liken it, mentally, to a channel swimmer entering the water in the midst of an attack of ague.

As time passed our personal shaking calmed down to a state of mild goose pimples. Despite frequent spells, Durant was doing himself and his party proud. The worst moment came when we heard him in a loud aside say "Thank you darling," to someone in the wings. Our composure was regained when we realized he must have been acknowledging the passing of a pill by his sweet wife, Rosemary.

Our fears that he couldn't last two hours, let alone 12 still clung to us in the face of the assurance we were gaining as we listened to him warm up to the challenge. We went to bed, realizing that even if the old devil germs did put the quietus on him, we had heard enough to know that he had already done a most creditable job.

Durant must have been on our subconscious mind through the sleeping hours. The first move, upon awaking, was to switch the knob on the radio at our bedside. There he was... possibly stronger in voice than when we had left him some seven hours before, and certainly just as convincingly honest and lucid in his answers.

We stayed with the broadcast to the end, and as the zero hour approached we marveled at Durant's obviously sincere complaint that there was not more time. He admitted the great desirability of a shower, a shave and a good breakfast, but he was looking forward to being given a chance to have a repeat performance.

The talkathon clearly indicated that the people are pleased with this sort of a chance to have their own say in the election. We confess to a preliminary suspicion that the mouth marathon might meet an apathy that would leave the candidate stagnant in a morass of silence. A reasonably comprehensive check indicates that Durant ducked no questions fired at him, and that when the 12 hours had elapsed he still had enough left to fill another similar period.

This is a healthy experience. It reveals that the voters are not satisfied to accept hearsay, what they read in the papers or hear over the radio and TV in regular limited programs. They appreciate the opportunity to ask a direct question of the office seeker. The fact that there were so many of these actively interested questioners during these late hours makes the example the more striking.

Durant's physical stamina was an eye-opening phenomenon. His grasp of the situations covered by the myriad put to him, and his clarity of statements in answering them was something to open the mind.

It has been sufficiently bruited about for everyone to know that the Republican candidate has been doing his utmost to engage his Democratic opponent, the incumbent Louis Rabaut, in open debate. Mr. Rabaut has been most reticent to accept the challenge. In fact, when questioned by us last week, he said he was not interested in such a debate. He did offer to debate Mr. Durant via the newspaper columns. Each would submit a list of questions, which would be shown to the opposing candidate, and the answers would be published weekly.

After thinking this over, we decided that in view of the fact that the election is less than four weeks away, this would be rather like sponsoring a prizefight in slow motion, with three hours between rounds.

Mr. Rabaut also wanted the written debate to be limited solely to the campaign issues as he described them... "Korea... Corruption... Taxes... Communism." Durant placed no limitations on the questions which might be asked during his 12 hours of mental combat.

Republican Durant has had his say. Democrat Rabaut might do well to try to line up a similar program immediately and let the listeners make a target of him. Failing this, he should immediately acquiesce to at least one public debate. It appears this is one election year when the voters are not going to be fooled by fancy footwork.

Famous Exhibit At Haydon House

The famous new fabrics which were used in decorating the great rooms in the White House, are on display in Grosse Pointe this weekend at Haydon House, East Jefferson at Beaconsfield.

The beautiful fabrics were manufactured by F. Schumaker and Co. of New York. The exhibition includes samples of all the important materials used for wall coverings, upholstery, bed canopies, draperies and pillow and slip covers.

One can see the blue and gold silk lamps used in the Blue Room, the cream white silk damask used in the Red Room upholstery, the red silk damask used for upholstery in the Green Room, the red and cream Williamsburg Restoration toile used in the second floor guest room. There is slate colored, cream and mouse glazed cotton, gold silk damask, natural cotton damask, palomino silk figured velvet, sage colored silk antique taffeta and many other materials.

Haydon House is also including in the exhibit a special group of Kashmir oriental rugs made by the Schumaker Co. in its own factories in the Himalaya mountains in Kashmir, India. The display includes delicately traced florals and scrolls, some following Aubusson, Savonnerie or 18th century needlepoint patterns. Color blending and design are all hand done in fine wool yarn with a very fine crewele stitch.

Harry Esling of Haydon House considers the exhibit a most noteworthy one for his establishment, which deals exclusively in the finest furniture and carpeting.

By FRED M. KOPP, R.Ph. No one can truly describe the beauty of Indian Summer, but it is there to observe for all who can see. How much of the beauty in life we miss because we are forever busy with small tasks of daily living and haven't enough energy left to really appreciate the world about us. For many, more energy and greater enjoyment in life would be possible if their health was as good as it might be.

Dr. Trawick H. Stubbs, 16832 St. Paul, Grosse Pointe, has been awarded a fellowship to cover graduate study in public health and preventive medicine under an educational program sponsored by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. The purpose of these public health awards is to prepare physicians to fill the many vacancies existing in the fields of public health teaching and service. There is a great need for physicians qualified and interested in the field of preventive medicine in our medical colleges today. Fellowships of this kind are part of the National Foundation's program of professional education aimed at providing skilled personnel to carry on the fight against poliomyelitis. The awards are made upon recommendation of a national professional committee. Dr. Stubbs is one of 92 recipients of such fellowships under a nation-wide program.

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

Long ago Messers Gilbert and Sullivan established beyond a probable possible shadow of doubt, that the policeman's lot was not a happy one, but to our knowledge no one has ever immortalized the lot of the librarian.

A night or two ago a kindly gentleman remarked at the library desk... "You people work terribly long hours don't you?" Sympathy is never hard to take but in all honesty we have to admit our work compares not too unfavorably with those of our brothers and sisters in offices, stores, schools, hospitals and the like. It is true that most of us in the library, work two to three nights a week and look a little covetously sometimes at our friends who toss the hammer in the air as the clock strikes 5.

However there's always a silver lining. An occasional morning in which to do your marketing, buy a hat or drive your mother-in-law to the dentist, doesn't come amiss.

If anyone feels too put-upon because of the hours of work meted out to him, we suggest he read the following article culled from a Chicago paper and give thanks that he lives in 1952.

"In these days of pension benefits, paid vacations, escalator clauses and the coffee recess, an advertisement published by a Chicago department store makes curious reading. It lists some of the rules laid down in an employees' handbook of 1857. Here are a few of them:

Store must open from 6 a.m. to 9 p.m. the year around. Store must be swept and counters, bases, shelves and show cases dusted. Lamps must be trimmed, bins filled, chimneys cleaned, doors and windows opened, a pail of water also a bucket of coal brought in before breakfast (if there is time to do so), and attend to customers who call. Each employe must pay not less than $5 a year to the church and must attend Sunday School regularly. Men employes are given one evening a week for courting and two if they go to prayer meeting. All Eyes and Ears

by Dorothy Phyllis Hannah

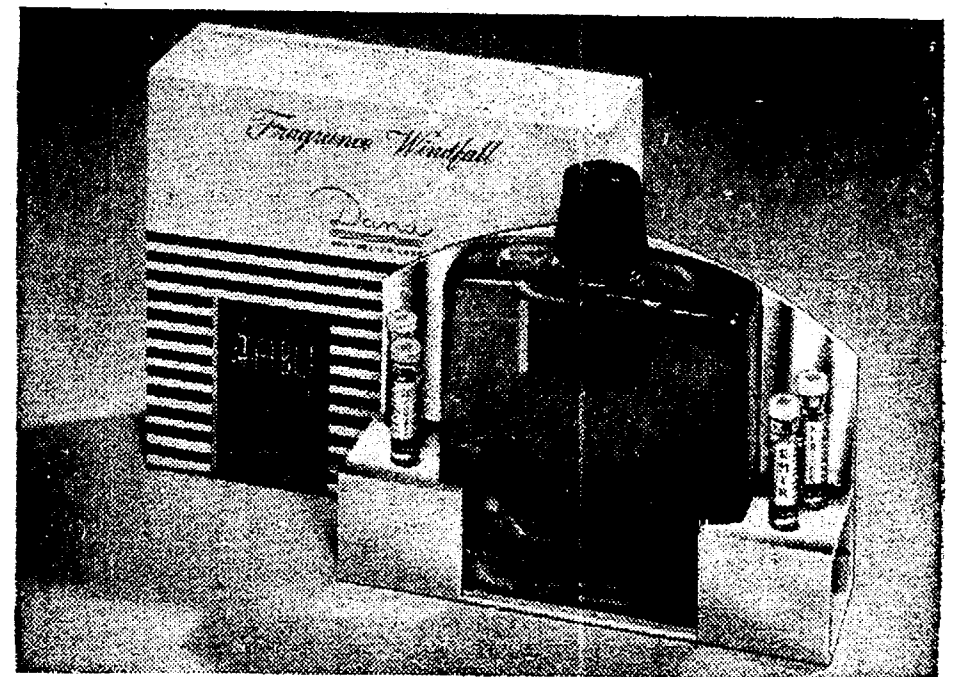

The "impeccable virtuoso" Jose Iturbi, made a Detroit appearance last Friday evening in the Masonic Auditorium, really thrilled the m-a-n-y patrons.

We found that Mr. Iturbi's program provided a unique study in "rhythmic stress" and "contrasts in mood."

For instance... the "Caprice For His Beloved Brother," by J. S. Bach, is a fanciful and irregular species of composition (in 6 parts)... whereas the "Sonata in F Minor" (Appassionata) by Beethoven, is like an "opera in disguise," having distinct movements, each with a unity of its own, yet all related... Chopin's "Third Ballade," (belonging to a series of four) is characterized by a syncopated rhythm, and is light-hearted and slightly ironic... (these ballades might be described as "arias without words").

A fitting climax for the program was George Gershwin's "Rhapsody in Blue," illustrating figurations in the jazz idiom. Jose Iturbi is a truly great interpreter of music and we feel that he is always the "complete artist."

St. John Hospital Launzaar Raises Estimated $20,000

Proceeds from the St. John Hospital Launzaar held Saturday and Sunday of last weekend were estimated to have been nearly $20,000. The fund will be used to pay for equipment for the hospital's new laundry building now nearing completion on the hospital grounds.

President of Detroit's Common Council, Louis C. Miriani, opened the fair at a ribbon-cutting ceremony at 1 p.m. Saturday. When the ceremony ended hundreds of people streamed into the laundry building to browse through the brilliant booths of needlepoint work, baked goods and candies, vegetables, fruits and canned goods, and numerous other items.

Within the building were a fish pond for the youngsters, a flower shop containing numerous varieties and landscaped with a fountain and shrubbery. There was also a garden of African violets.

Outside, beyond the building was a giant ferris wheel, and for the children, "kiddie rides."

Outstanding among many prizes to be given away were a 1952 Chevrolet, won by Mrs. C. A. Carmody, of 17161 Roselawn; a combination Crosley TV-radio-phonograph set, won by Mrs. Rita Kolmond, and a needlepoint chair, won by Mrs. Joseph Verhelle. The chair was made by Mrs. James Motschall.

The Launzaar was sponsored by the hospital's Pontbonne Auxiliary. Assisting the ladies of the auxiliary were Mr. James Motschall and Mr. A. J. Fisher, Jr. They, along with Mrs. Arthur D. Kerwin, president of the auxiliary, acted as general chairmen.

Cadet Dan D. Reed Member of Culver Choir

Cadet Dan D. Reed, son of Dr. and Mrs. Ivor E. Reed, of 178 Moran road, is a member of the 59-man Culver Military Academy red-robed choir this year. The choir sings each Sunday morning in the Academy's Memorial Chapel and also presents a variety of specialty programs during the year.

Included in the choir are cadets from 20 states and two foreign countries. It is under the direction of Claude Zetty, graduate of the Westminster School and of the Indiana University School of Music. Reed is in his sophomore year at the Academy.

City Police Nab Hit-Run Driver

City police tracked down a hit-run driver October 2. They had received a report at 2:30 in the morning that the 1950 Chevrolet owned by Stafford W. Leahy had been damaged by another auto while parked in front of his home, at 884 St. Clair. The rear of Leahy's car had been smashed in and the car pushed over the curb.

Sergeant Mauck and Patrolman-Waldecker chased the hit-run car to Alter road and Jefferson but lost it there.

Nearly 7 hours later Patrolman DeRaedt spotted a damaged auto parked in front of 708 St. Clair. DeRaedt questioned its owner, Lynn Jones, who explained he had been in an accident in a parking lot on Kerby near Mack avenue.

Later, however, Jones admitted having rammed Leahy's car. He was ticketed for leaving the scene of an accident and causing property damage.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Judge C. Joseph Belanger disposed of six cases at the Grosse Pointe Park municipal court session held last Friday.

Three of the defendants failed to appear, however. Two of them, Ellis Scott, 5916 Fisher, Detroit, and Vincent S. Mancuso, Jr., of 2604 Pennsylvania, forfeited bonds of $15. Scott had been charged with speeding on Jefferson, and Mancuso had been charged with running a stop street and making an improper turn.

The third, Harry Carpenter, of 11513 Goethe, had been charged with speeding and improper passing on Charlevoix. A report of his case was sent to Lansing.

Margaret Tweddle, 1956 Alford was fined $5 for reckless driving, causing an accident.

Harry Tokatlian, of 13303 Kercheval, received a fine of $20 for speeding on Kercheval.

Guttermiller, of 56 Roslyn road, was fined $10 for causing an accident on Jefferson.

Congregational Church Women to Meet Oct. 14

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will meet in the church parlors at 12:30 p.m. on October 14. All groups are invited to attend.

Mrs. Fred Hauok will give two book reviews on "The Man from Abilene," by Kevin McCann, and "Adlai E. Stevenson," by Noel Busch.

Body of 3-Year-Old Found Floating in Lake St. Clair

Grosse Pointe Woods and Shores police kept a silent vigil over the body of 3-year-old Jimmy Whiteley last Tuesday afternoon near the Lake Shore seawall, just south of Oxford road.

Woods Patrolmen Marchand and Gysel had found the boy's body floating against the seawall less than two hours after he had been reported missing from his home, at 563 Shoreham.

His mother, Mrs. Jack Whiteley, had telephoned police of his disappearance at 12:45 p.m. Marchand and Gysel pulled the boy, still wearing his blue chin-strapped hat, from the lake at 2:35. They covered his body with a blanket and waited for the coroner to arrive.

Woods Police Sergeant O'Dell went to the Whiteley home to inform the boy's parents of his death. Mrs. Whiteley had been searching the neighborhood for him.

Mr. and Mrs. Whiteley have one other child, younger than Jimmy.

Farms Issues Building Report

In a release last week of the Grosse Pointe Farms building report, City Engineer Murray M. Smith revealed that during September, 26 new permits were issued with a combined assessable value of $421,600.

These permits brought the total to 212 issued since the first of the year. The total assessable value of these permits is $3,223,300.

Seventeen residence permits were issued during the month, ranging in value from $15,000 to $40,000. The total value reached a figure of $412,000.

Nine miscellaneous construction permits were issued. Their combined value was reported at $9,600.

The report showed that during the first 9 months of the year 111 residence permits had been issued; 92 miscellaneous permits were issued, and 8 business construction permits were issued.

Smith stated that no business or non-assessable permits were issued during September.

Alliance Plans Luncheon At Goodwill Industries

The Women's Alliance of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church will hold a 12:30 luncheon on October 14, in the Goodwill Industries building. A tour of the building will follow. All friends of members of the Alliance are invited to attend.

A meeting at the church will take place at 11 a.m. Mrs. Hazel B. Shaw is in charge of arrangements.

Christian Science Lecture by Grace Jane Noe, C.S.

Given Under Auspices of Sixth Church of Christ Scientist, Detroit, Mich., October 3, 1952

A Lecture on Christian Science

Entitled

"Christian Science: The Way to Fulfill God's Purpose"

by

Grace Jane Noe, C. S. of Chicago, Illinois

Member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The lecturer spoke substantially as follows:

Christian Science lectures were provided for by the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, Mary Baker Eddy, and they have just one purpose—to bless, to reveal some phase of God's divine love, to fulfill in some degree God's loving purpose for man. Therefore, it is right and possible that we all should receive what we may need in the way of refreshment, inspiration, and healing. Christian Science recognizes and acknowledges God as the only cause, the only creator—as omnipotent Truth or Love, as omnipresent Spirit or Soul, as omniscient Mind or Principle, as omnibenevolent Father or Mother, as the All-in-all, in whom is nothing unlovely, nothing afflictive.

This is the Christian Science concept of God, from which His good purpose is deduced. The Christ, Truth, is always waiting at the door of our consciousness. If the Christ, Truth, is recognized, loved, and abided with us, we shall indeed be blessed. We can be freed, in some degree, of the burden of personal sense and its unhappy harvest; we can gain a clearer vision of our true nature as sons and daughters of God.

This blessing need not be limited because of advancing years; it need not be limited because we are beginners in the study of Science. All that can be limited because of past mistakes or present unhappy involvements. God has made no provision for mistakes or unhappiness. He has made provision for everything good and necessary for our complete happiness and well-being. Mortal man thinks himself into all sorts of mistakes, but through God's love he is delivered from them. In her book "Unity of God" (p. 64), Mrs. Eddy makes the comforting statement that "mortals . . . can never turn back what they know, but can escape from them by identification with what dwelleth in the eternal Mind."

God's Purpose Already Fulfilled This Mind is God, and God is Love, our Father—Mother, and we all there can really be known about us, and He is well pleased in us as His image and likeness. Strictly speaking, His loving purpose for us is already fulfilled. His purpose has been obscured temporarily for mortals by the mist of materiality, but through Christian Science the mist is being lifted. God's law and purpose are seen revealed by Christian Science, and all mankind may learn and thereby demonstrate man's spiritual oneness.

Each step of this demonstration is governed by divine law, and in human experience it is a process of repentance and healing, of reformation and redemption. This is externalized in the daily experience as progressively improved beliefs about health, about substance, about home, and about our relations with others. Sick bodies, sick homes, sick business, are seen as the "two and two are five" of human experience. But "two and two are four." The principle of mathematics has made no provision for "two and two are five," and God. "Give and the Principle, has made no provision for sin, for a sick body or a sick home. He has made no provision for ruptured friendships. He does not know anything about them. They are contrary to His purpose. These mistakes are nullified and dispelled through the understanding of divine Love.

Understanding God Fulfills His Purpose It is God's purpose that we understand Him—that we shall supply His demand for expression. In the Bible (Gen. 1, 7, 8) we read that "God made the firmament" and that He "called the firmament Heaven." Christian Science interprets this firmament as the understanding of God and man, and that which exists in God's universe. This firmament, then, or consciousness, or understanding, of God and of all that exists in God's universe. Anything else is incidental and should be so considered. It is through this firmament or understanding that we perceive God's purpose, that we recognize His law and learn to invoke and apply it in daily experience. It is through this firmament or understanding that we gain a vision of God as God—omniscient, omnibenevolent, omnipotent, omnipresent. As we use, practice, or exercise our understanding of God, our vision of Soul becomes clearer, and spiritual sense, instead of material sense, begins to characterize our desires, our decisions, and our concepts—not only of ourselves, but of others. Thus we find this time-world becoming a very much happier and richer experience.

There continues work out God's purpose, we become aware of the spiritual fact that in reality we are the manifestation of God, and that His spiritual qualities constitute our true nature. We are the child of God, there is nothing about any one of us that needs to be healed or that needs to be altered or improved, for whatever is true of our nature is true of God, and He is His idea or reflection.

The Bible Christian Science has its roots in the Bible—the King James Version of the Bible. It does not depart in a single instance from its inspired Word. Every statement and authoritative activity connected with Christian Science conforms to the universal spiritual law of God as stated in the Bible. Christian Science affirms and demonstrates the spiritual fact that we are now our sons and daughters of God, beloved of Him; that in accord with Bible prophecy everyone will sometime recognize and show forth this spiritual sonship, which is now accomplished, not by lifting the human to the divine, but by putting off the human and putting on the divine, by exchanging belief for truth, by exchanging the material for the spiritual, by exchanging the healing of all manner of sickness and all manner of sin; but this does not go on as through matter, but as through spirit, as through physical or as through it goes on in and as consciousness.

Jesus and the Christ Christian Science teaching and practice are based upon the recognition and worship of one God, infinite Spirit, who is the only cause, the only creator, the only Father, the only Son, the only Christ, and the only Jesus. And Christian Science acknowledges Jesus, our great Master and our great Prophet, as one who came through the Christ—the spiritual idea of sonship. Christ is the Way; Jesus was the Way-shower. Jesus is the name for the man born through the Christ, whom the Christ was manifested. Four inspired Gospels in the Bible give concise and correct history of Jesus; these are the books of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John. It is that which is known of Jesus' history is in these books. From them we learn that Jesus was surrounded by ignorance and hatred, by sinners, self-righteousness, and all manner of wickedness. He knew what it was to be misunderstood and maligned; he knew what it was to be cruelly persecuted. Everything that could be done to make him neglect his mission was done. But we all know that Jesus fulfilled his mission in the most perfect and complete way, for Jesus not only knew the Christ, his sonship with God, but he maintained this spiritual identity throughout his entire ministry. It was the Christ which did the healing work and raised him and others from the belief in death. It is this same Christ, Truth, which does all the healing work in Christian Science. There is no competition. It is the truth of God and man in His likeness, and we all express this Christ as we reflect Love, God's spiritual nature.

Mrs. Eddy's Discovery Mary Baker Eddy recognized not only as the Discoverer and Founder of Christian Science, but also as a great prophet and revealer. She discovered that the truths in the Bible have always existed and that they constitute a divinely scientific rule or law. The incidents which led up to her discovery and the steps taken to test and demonstrate this Science are told in the several authorized biographies of Mrs. Eddy. They are on sale in all Christian Science Reading Rooms and make an interesting and inspiring reading.

Mrs. Eddy was a well-educated and experienced writer, and she was well acquainted with the Bible. When through divine inspiration she discovered the absolute Science of the Bible truths, she realized that one cannot stop with belief in God's presence and power, but that His presence and power must be understood and demonstrated in every phase of one's experience. These great Bible truths of God point the fact that matter or mortal mind and all claims must be understood and demonstrated in every phase of one's experience. These great Bible truths of God point the fact that matter or mortal mind and all claims must be understood and demonstrated in every phase of one's experience.

This final and complete revelation of the Christ, Truth, is set forth in her book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures." The orderly study of this book together with the King James Version of the Bible is important and necessary to the welfare and progress of everyone, and all students of Christian Science use both of them in their daily study and practice. Mrs. Eddy established the Church of Christ, Scientist, and for young people up to the age of twenty, she established the Christian Science Sunday School. A judge in a mid-western state has this motto in his courtroom: "Children brought up in Sunday School are not brought up in court." The Christian Science Sunday School is a well of refreshment and true education, for there the pupils are taught scientific truths that they can prove for themselves.

Importance of Understanding Prayer Prayer and Christian Science treatment are synonymous. It is through prayer, as taught in Christian Science, that the Christ, Truth, unfolds to us the mist of material beliefs, is dispelled, and thus our Father's loving purpose for us is fulfilled. Through understanding prayer the love of our Father is unfolded to us, and we glimpse and express something of the grandeur and immortality of our true spiritual being. Prayer underlies all revelation. We are touched with a deep sense of reverence by the beauty and simplicity and spiritual power of prayer as taught by Christian Science. Through prayer one can realize and bring into expression his at-one-ment with God. Prayer is given a very important place in the daily experience of the Christian Scientist. It fits perfectly into everything we do. It never delays nor interferes with anything that is right for us to do, but it prospers our endeavors. It makes time a servant instead of a master. Understanding prayer strengthens us with what Mrs. Eddy terms "the stimulus of courage and conscious power" (Science and Health, p. 423). Our motives are unselfish, and our endeavors are brought to harmonious and fruitful conclusions.

Practical Evidence of God's Law The biggest and best and most successful business in the world is the translation of man and the universe back into Spirit—into reality. This business is the activity of right ideas. There are no strikes, no walkouts, no unemployment for everyone in this business, no agents, no victims. It goes on unfolding without stoppages or interruptions. There is unlimited opportunity for everyone in this business, and everyone is always in his right place. This business provides not only social security, but complete security that covers everything we need or need for all eternity. All this security is substantial and it is tangible. This is good business, for it is God's business. It is the business everyone will get into eventually.

There isn't anything the matter with this business, nothing wrong with it, nothing that needs to be changed or improved. Some of us may need to change our course of business, but that is all that is ever changed or improved. What you know about this business will improve and prosper what you know about your business, your position, your assignment, your environment. In Science and Health (p. 284) we read, "As mortals gain more correct views of God and man, multitudinous objects of creation, which before were invisible, will become visible." So let us learn more of God and man, let us accept and use all our understanding of the multitudinous ideas our Father has made available. We all have access to this infinite divine source.

Business is not, however, an accumulation of ideas. No one can accumulate ideas; no one needs to do that, for spiritual ideas are always and everywhere present and available. No one accumulates seven. No one needs to. No one need run out of ideas. Business is the harmonious association and activity of right ideas—a state of consciousness. This business is your business, and it is not subject to change or change. It does not fluctuate because of the weather or the fashion. It is not affected by the inaccuracy or frivolity of mortal sense. There are no personal demands, no contingencies or hazards to be contended with in your business. There is no element there of grossness, ignorance, or competition. What if suggestions of deficiency, or incompleteness, or fear about the future come? You need not be surprised nor afraid. No one escapes these things. Suggestions come to everyone. It is what you do with them that matters.

Since we are looking to God, the one infinite source of all wisdom or substance, there can be no basis for discouragement, uncertainty, or failure. Know the truth about your real business. Practice this truth. Exercise it, and it will dispel the shadows of improvidence and pride; dishonesty, stagnation, and injustice will be ruled out of what is called your business. Christ, Truth, comes to us in just these ways—operating as divine law, and it is the law that will guide, recognize, and reward in the exact measure that it is loved, obeyed, and utilized.

God's Only Power God's work as cause, as the only creator, is completed, and it is perfect. We should see this fulfillment now if it were not for personal sense—the evil belief in a supposititious presence and power unlovely. Personal sense is the only thing that can ever seem to separate us from God or from each other, but if good or God is the only presence and power—and He is—then evil has neither presence nor power, and this is the truth about error. Mistaken beliefs do not enter nor exist in true consciousness, and Christ, Truth, dispels the superstition or ignorance of any belief in ghosts. As men learn to love and to live the law of God, they will be always safe, for divine Love is the one invincible power that renders evil powerless. The story in the Bible of the King of Assyria is one of the many illustrations of how trust in God protects and delivers men from evil (II Chron. 32; II Kings 18, 19; Isa. 37, 37). This man Sennacherib was feared by all of the known world because of his great military strength, his ambition for conquest, and for his cruelties. History shows that he was an able soldier and an energetic administrator. One by one, he absorbed the smaller neighboring countries with the promise that he would lead them to "land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of oil olive and of honey" (II Kings 18:32). With this sort of propaganda, with threats and his large army, he conquered the countries and led many into slavery. In this way, he built himself a vast empire and what he considered absolute power and security. But he made two mistakes: he worshipped idols, and he blasphemed and mocked the God of Israel. When he attempted to frighten and subjugate Judah, he found Hezekiah, the king, and his people unafraid because they worshipped and trusted the one God. At Hezekiah's house, the king and his people made some satisfactory settlement could be made with the Assyrian. He reasoned that other kings had judged it prudent to make peace with the conqueror; so he humbled himself before the aggressive invader and sought to appease him with gifts and the surrender of several cities of Judah. But the Assyrian was not appeased nor satisfied. He demanded the complete surrender of all Jerusalem. This would have made the conquest of Egypt certain, and Hezekiah was relying upon Egypt for help in case of invasion. At this point nothing but the wall of Jerusalem stood between Hezekiah and the Assyrian, and then Hezekiah said to the Lord, "I have put my dependence upon Egypt, 'the arm of flesh.' He and his people turned wholeheartedly to God. History records that then the Assyrian was slain and his army was scattered. Hezekiah records God was saying to the Assyrian (37:28, 29): 'But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. . . . Therefore will I put my hooks in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.' So let us not barb the evil intent with hatred or with a wrong sentiment, but let it pursue its natural course of self-destruction. Let us work to show forth the love and law of God, the omnipresence and omnipotence of Love. Aggressors, appetites, and passions are understood mortal mind—all of this is a waste of time. Mortal mind cannot understand nor be understood. Believing that a person is not needed for all eternity, our ignorance will not heal anything; but understanding God will wipe out the hatred, dispel the ignorance, and free mankind. In her book "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," Mrs. Eddy writes (p. 277), "But if our nation's rights or honor were seized, every citizen would be a soldier, and every man would be a man with power for the hour."

At the present stage of the world's understanding it is practical and highly important that all Christians should make arrangements and proper arrangements, that wise human footsteps be taken in the direction of justice and peace. Let us not be made to forget that God is the only power, and that He loves us with an everlasting love. So we need never fear, for through the exercise or reflection of our Father's love, whatever circumstances may confront us. And anything an individual or a nation does that is not inspired and directed of God is vain. It is the power of God that whatever circumstances may confront us. And anything an individual or a nation does that is not inspired and directed of God is vain. It is the power of God that whatever circumstances may confront us.

We Are Identified with God Recently twelve thousand psychologists, chemists, astronomers, mathematicians, and other physical scientists met in a meeting in New York City to discuss the work reported there as "meeting because they are causing explosive changes in the world, and doing nothing to aid man to cope with them." But the meeting was not a meeting of refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble" (Ps. 46:1). This constitutes a divine law to the Christian Scientist. God's purpose is to free man from the bondage of material sense, and we are not unmindful of the revolutionary impact of this advance on human experience. Nor are we unmindful of Mrs. Eddy's statement in Science and Health (p. 283): "Whatever seems to be a new creation, is but the discovery of some distant idea of Truth; else it is a new multiplication or self-division of mortal thought." Donald W. Yerge Takes Marine Recruit Training

Private Donald W. Yerge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Yerge, of 1046 Lakepointe, is now undergoing training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego, Calif.

The former Grosse Pointe High School student enlisted in the Marine Corps recently. During the eight-week "Boot Camp", as recruit training is commonly called, Private Yerge will become well versed in such basic military subjects as precision drill, first aid, Marine Corps history and mission and field tactics.

Three weeks of the training period is spent at the Camp Matthew Rifle Range, situated 15 miles north of San Diego. While there, Private Yerge will fire the .30 caliber Garand rifle, .45 caliber pistol, carbine and Browning automatic rifle. He will also receive indoctrination firing with the light and heavy machine guns, 60 and 81 mortars, flame throwers, and the latest type bazookas. Under a newly adopted training program he will also receive instructions in throwing live hand grenades.

Upon completion of recruit training he will be granted a 10-day leave and, if he has maintained a good record, will be promoted to Private First Class.

Officers Picked By Culver Club

The Culver Club of Detroit, whose membership includes more than 600 alumni and patrons of Culver Military Academy, Culver, Ind., held its first meeting of the school year on September 29 in the River Room of the Fort Shelby Hotel and elected officers.

Harold E. Riem, was named president; Carl Johnson, vice-president; Kenneth F. Kahn, treasurer; and Ralph E. Johnson, recording secretary. Jack Schafer heads the public-relations group of the club this year. His son Gilbert is a Culver cadet. Serving with Mr. Schafer will be J. H. (Jack) Ryall, Dr. Kenneth A. Wood and James D. Kiehl.

There are 44 cadets from the Detroit area at Culver this year. The club sent a large delegation to the first major event of the season—Father's Week-end—at the academy Friday through Sunday (October 3-5).

Among club activities planned is the annual Christmas dinner

Pvt. John F. Holme Training in Germany

WITH THE 43D INFANTRY DIV. IN GERMANY—Pvt. John F. Holme, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Holme, 1009 Beaconsfield, Grosse Pointe, Mich., recently arrived in Germany and is now serving with the 43rd Infantry Division.

This Division, now stationed in the southern part of the country, is receiving constant field training as part of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) Army. Private Holme is assigned as a rifleman to Company C, 172d Infantry Regiment, a part of the 43rd.

Before entering the Army last November, he was a tool and die maker for the Sienthine Products, Inc. in Detroit.

Valiant Blue Devil Eleven Loses Heart-Breaker, 32-27

By Fred Runnells

The Grosse Pointe Blue Devils football team came within 60 seconds of scoring one of the greatest football victories ever captured by a Blue Devil team. But instead of riding on a three game winning streak the Blue Devils held a two wins and one defeat record for the season. The one loss was handed to them in the last minute of play last Friday night, October 3, on the beautifully lighted Royal Oak gridiron by the Acorns, 32 to 27.

It was the Devils final miscue on defense that set up Royal Oak's game winning tally. The Acorns' star, Dick Nash flipped a fourth down 24 yard pass to end Gary Peters, who was run out of bounds on the Blue Devil two foot line. Two line plays saw the Devils drive the Acorns back away from the goal line but on third down the fleet footed Nash circled his own right end like a streak of lightning to score the BIG touchdown from the 8 yard line and put his team out in front 32 to 27.

Even in defeat the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils were heroes in the eyes of the huge Pointe crowd that made the long trip across the city. Eight buses carried more than 500 students to the game and with the people who drove their own cars there were easily 1,500 Blue Devil fans on hand to see the FIRST Grosse Pointe football team with enough "intestinal fortitude" to put it 10 to 0 deficit in the first half and make a game of it. In past years if a Blue Devil team got that far behind they would lose all hope and give up completely. But that is not the case this year. Grosse Pointe has a team that refuses to roll over and say "Uncle" when the going gets tough.

Gift of 19 Points They proved that last Friday night when through their own mistakes they handed Royal Oak 19 points in the first half before quarterback Don Schmidt sneaked over from the one yard line to climax a drive that started on the Royal Oak 32, where George Cope recovered an Acorn fumble. Bob Brown booted the ball squarely between the uprights and the Pointers left the field at halftime trailing 19 to 7.

Now in other years the Blue Devil fans would be disgruntled and leave for home. They didn't do this last Friday. They stayed to see what was going to happen next. It was that kind of a game, full of fireworks and surprises.

Turns Fumble Into Score The Acorns' first touchdown came early in the first period when Carl Hoyt scooped up a Blue Devil fumble on the Pointers' 28 yard line and outraced everyone on the field for 72 yards into the end zone. The extra point was missed.

Royal Oak's second touchdown came as the result of a beautiful pass from Halfback Drawbaugh to Gary Peters, who took the 28 yard toss on the Devil 6 yard line and stepped over the final stripe unmolested. This time the kick was good.

Blocked Punt Hurts The third touchdown came as the result of a blocked punt in the end zone. Ron Haldeman was the victim of a bad pass from center as he attempted to get off a fourth down punt. He tried to run the ball out from the end zone as the entire Acorn forward wall converged on him and at the last moment decided to try and kick while running. The kick was blocked by tackle Rubel who fell on the ball for the Acorns' third touchdown. The kick for the extra point was good but Royal Oak had too many players on the field and was penalized five yards. The second conversion attempt was wide and the score stood at 19 to 0.

Devis Take Over At this point the Blue Devils took matters into their own hands when Cope recovered the Royal Oak fumble and the Devils drove to their first score before the halftime.

It is hard to say what Coaches Ed Wernet and Howard McAdam said to their Blue Devil charges but whatever it was, it worked. On the first play from scrimmage, after the second half kickoff, the Devils rocked the Acorn ball carrier so hard that he fumbled and end Bob Sealy recovered on the Royal Oak 25. It took the Devils eight plays to put over their second touchdown. It came on a fourth down 14 yard pass from Quarterback Mueller to end Sean Fraser who gathered it in at the far corner of the end zone. Brown's conversion was good and the Devils were championing at the bit to get their hands on the ball again.

Stage 70-Yard Drive The Devils third touchdown came on a sustained 70 yard drive that took only five plays. Johnny "Tweedle Dee" Diccio started it off with a beautiful 51 yard scamper and then climaxed it when he was on the receiving end of a 7 yard pass from Don Schmidt. Again Brown's kick was good and the Devils, at long last, were out in front 21 to 19. The Blue Devil stands fairly rattled as the Pointers went crazy with joy.

As the third quarter ended Royal Oak had the ball on the Blue Devil 49 yard line and on the first play from scrimmage in the fourth quarter Dick Nash took a pass in the flat and raced 49 yards for a touchdown to put the Acorns out in front once again. Creon boosted the extra point and the Devils trailed 28 to 21.

Lead Short-Lived Royal Oak's lead was very short lived. As a matter of fact it took the Blue Devils only six plays to push into pay dirt and take the lead back again. This time the Devils started on their own 46 yard line and on the very first play Don Schmidt heaved a forty yard pass that end Sean Fraser pulled in with a circus catch while having three Acorn defenders trying to bat the ball away.

He was wrestled out of bounds on the Acorn 14 yard line. From there Louie "Tweedle Dee" Hribar plowed through the line for 5 yards but it was an expensive five yards as far as the Devils were concerned. Louie hurt his leg and had to leave the game.

Schmidt hit Diccico with a short pass and he went to the Acorn 3 from where Fullback Al Billups bulled his way to the six inch line and then scored on the next play. Brown's kick was blocked but the Pointers were out in front again, 27 to 26, with six minutes left to play.

Get No Where on Ground Starting on its own 45 yard line after the Blue Devil kickoff, Royal Oak began battering against the Blue Devils' defensive forward wall and got no place. The Acorns took to the air and found a defensive weakness in the secondary. The killing blow fell in the form of a pass from Drawbaugh to Peters, which set up the final and winning Acorn tally. The kick was no good and the scoreboard read Royal Oak 32, Grosse Pointe 27.

There just was not enough time to get another Blue Devil touchdown march going again and after two unsuccessful desperation passes by Schmidt the gun barked ending the game.

St. Ambrose High School's Varsity Football Team

Gatti Bowlers Go Into Lead

Testa Cement bowlers hit a snag in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League last Wednesday, October 1, and dropped three big points and as the result slipped into a two-way tie for second place with Belding Cleaners, who chalked up four points over the Melucci squad.

The big news of the night came when the Gatti squad whipped the Barrett's Flowers team for four points to climb into undisputed possession of first place with a narrow one-point margin.

The secretary informs us that the league is lacking sponsors for four of the teams. This is a good chance for some Pointe shop to get some dandy advertising all winter long and cheap too.

Sweeneys Lead In St. Paul Loop

Jim Sweeney's bowling team continued to pace the St. Paul Men's Bowling League last Thursday night, October 2, at the Maple Lane alleys when it swept three points out of a possible four to remain one point ahead at the top of the standings.

Fred Dansbury's team went for the cellar and dropped from a two-way fourth place tie down to seventh place.

Ed Sexton, of Al DeRiemack's team, grabbed top honors in the individual three-game totals with a 601 series. It was the highest posted in the league this year. He also posted the third highest single game with a 215 total which also was the highest singles game for the night.

St. Ambrose Cavaliers Beat St. Paul in Grid Thriller

By Fred Runnells

A last quarter 46-yard pass from the fingers of quarterback Marv Peeters into the outstretched arms of right end George McDowell gave the St. Ambrose Cavaliers, a two touchdown favorite, a thrilling 7 to 0 victory over the underdog St. Paul Flyers last Sunday, October 4, before a huge Homecoming crowd at the Grosse Pointe High field.

The victory also enabled the Cavaliers to take the first leg of the new Walter R. Cavanaugh perpetual trophy which will stay in competition between these two teams until one wins it two years in succession.

It is truly a fitting finish to the St. Ambrose Homecoming game plans which included a big breakfast at the Savanna Hotel for 70 old time St. Ambrose athletes who attended the game and cheered themselves hoarse. Father Rozman, was mainly responsible for all the extra added touches that gave the homecoming game all the necessary atmosphere.

There was a public address system that kept the crowd informed at all times, and a hot dog and cold drink stand. There was even a Boy Scout drum and bugle corps that entertained at half time.

All this preparation put Coach George Verdonck on the spot. He had his team fired up for the game and said "They're as ready as they ever will be, but if they don't win this one I might as well head for Toledo and point south after all this advance build-up."

Well, Coach Verdonck could almost see himself heading for "points south" up until the early stages of the first quarter when the game winning touchdown pass nestled into McDowell's arms on the Flyers three yard line. He stepped into the end zone unmolested. Captain Norm Soper assured the Cavaliers of at least a tie when he booted the extra point squarely between the uprights. From then on the Cavaliers were content to play defensive football to protect their slim 7 to 0 margin.

Up to the game winning touchdown both teams had touchdowns called back because of penalties. The Flyers' called back touchdown came early in the second quarter when Jim Monahan began hitting his favorite receiver, Glen Walters, with consistency. Working from a spread formation which seemed to confuse the Cavaliers, Monahan first hit Taylor with a 13 yard pass. He stumbled to the Flyers 31. Walters then made a circus catch of a Monahan pass when he took it right out of Norm Soper's hands on the Ambrose 48. Three plays later Monahan hit Walters on the Cavaliers' 38 and he rambled all the way for what looked to be the first score of the game. The "tiny" turnout of Flyer fans went wild but the score was called back because of a clipping penalty which put the ball back on the Flyers 38 yard line from where they never recovered.

The Cavaliers' called back touchdown came early in the third quarter when left halfback Fred Saad broke the Flyers' hearts when he intercepted a St. Paul pass on the Ambrose two yard line and raced 98 yards down the west sidelines untouched to score. But the run was in vain because the officials detected an infraction of the rules on the St. Ambrose 12 yard line and penalized the Cavaliers to within one yard of their goal line.

Prior to Saad's heart thumping run the Flyers had turned in a bit of spine tingling football themselves when they drove the Cavaliers' back on successive plays and then took over the ball when Marv Peeters' pass was batted high in the air by the Flyers Jim Eisey. Jim Monahan grabbed the oval and raced to the Cavaliers' 15 yard line. But the Flyers luck failed three plays later with Saad's interception and run.

In winning the Cavaliers remained unbeaten in three games and the loss gave St. Paul a record of one victory as against two losses, but Coach Ed Lauer and Father Lenk, St. Paul's athletic director, were proud of the way their team fought the favored St. Ambrose eleven to a standstill until the fatal fourth period pass that spelled defeat.

At the trophy award following the game coach Lauer said, "It was a hard fought ball game all the way. Now that we have lost I hope St. Ambrose goes all the way." Coach George Verdonck was just as complimentary of the Flyers' play when he said, "You couldn't have asked for a better or more thrilling game than we saw today. St. Paul has a great team and I am glad we were lucky enough to win."

This was a game where no matter which team won it was a Grosse Pointe victory and both coaches are homegrown products that carried this age old rivalry on for another year.

Straw Vote Will Be Taken By Girls of Y-Teen Clubs

Y-Teens of the Detroit area will enter the political picture next week when they cast a straw vote for president.

In connection with their annual Y-Teen Roll Call Week, October 12-18, more than 3,000 girls who are members of 80 Y-Teen clubs in senior and intermediate high schools will vote for their favorite candidate at club meetings in their schools.

Delegations from each club will then bring the votes to a city-wide "political convention" to be held at Central Branch YWCA Saturday evening, October 18.

Colorful banners, demonstrations by various delegations, and pictures of Governor Stevenson and General Eisenhower will lend authentic atmosphere to the occasion.

Nancy Seydler, 1041 North Oxford, a member of the Grosse Pointe Junior Y-Teen club, will act as convention chairman.

Girls becoming members of Y-Teen clubs during Y-Teen Roll Call Week will join with 300,000 other girls throughout the nation taking part in the YWCA's teenage program.

Girls from 12 to 17 years of age, of any race, creed or nationality are eligible to become Y-Teens. They are enrolled in more than 6,000 Y-Teen clubs in the United States.

Y-Teens are democratically organized, frame their own program, elect their own officers and choose their own representatives to attend local, state, regional conferences, summer camps, etc. Two Detroit Y-Teens were delegates at the National Convention of the YWCA last May in Chicago.

"Y-Teens also have dances, hikes, picnics, swims, square dancing; they learn crafts including pottery, archery, sewing, cooking. They exchange letters and gifts with young people all over the world, thus learning first-hand the meaning of world citizenship," said Ann Hosie, president of the Detroit city-wide Y-Teen Inter-Club Council.

"They are interested in their communities and take part in community events. Service projects include working with the Red Cross, with children's homes and hospitals, and cooperating with the Torch Drive. Such activities are excellent training for leadership and for community life as adults," she said.

FRAGMATISM
The dominant philosophy of America today is Pragmatism, a philosophy primarily interested in developing a method for the guidance of life and thought. It might well be regarded as America's contribution to philosophy.

Wall-to-Wall Carpeting in "Queen's Home"

Charm that only wall-to-wall carpeting can give is discernible in this living room scene in the Queen's Home, the model home on Chandler Park Drive at Hillcrest, which has been visited by more than 100,000 persons and will be the principal award in the annual Queen's Day celebration by Our Lady Queen of Peace Catholic Parish. The Owens Company of Grosse Pointe Woods provided the carpeting.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scouting in Grosse Pointe will be represented by two adults at a four state conference to be held October 15, 16, 17 in Indianapolis, according to Mrs. Adam Cook, district chairman.

The group from Grosse Pointe will include, Mrs. William McKay of Belanger Road, who is the official delegate representing the Grosse Pointe district, and Mrs. Harry Findlay of Lancaster Road who has gone to several other conferences.

A highlight of the conference will be a dramatic presentation by Indianapolis Girl Scouts in honor of Girl Scouting's 40th anniversary, which is being celebrated throughout 1952. Dr. Clark G. Kuebler, president of Ripon College, will give the keynote address "To Live Democracy." The program also includes special sessions on planning activities for Girl Scouts of all ages, preparation for different types of camping, how to help small groups work together in a democratic way, and how to improve the training program of adults.

Mrs. Warren B. Cooksey, of the metropolitan Girl Scout Board, and a member of the Regional Committee, will participate in the conference program. Miss Charlotte Hartman and Miss Janeal Griffis, of the metropolitan Detroit Girl Scout Staff, will conduct special sessions on program planning with girls and the use of audio-visual aids.

This year will be a Regional conference, which provides an opportunity to meet neighbors, share ideas, and get local thinking into the main stream, nationwide girl scouting. The states represented will include, Illinois, Indiana, Wisconsin and Michigan.

POSITIVISM
Positivism, a philosophical movement closely associated with the name of its leader and chief expounder, professes that all thought travels through three stages: from the theological through the metaphysical to the positive.

Kiwanis Prexy

CHARLES R. DICKSON, JR., was elected president of the Denby-Detroit Kiwanis club last week at the annual election of officers of that club. Dickson, 43, is president of Community News, Inc., and lives at 400 Roland court, Grosse Pointe Farms, with his wife and two children.

Ladies' League Lead Changes

A new leader in the St. Paul Ladies' Bowling League took over last Wednesday, October 1, and the old leader slipped into a five-way tie for third place.

Silver Crown Ballroom keglers danced into first place with a four point sweep and right behind them came the Groves Buick squad with a four point sweep of its own which gave it a two-way tie for second place with Kopp's Pharmacy, which managed to garner two of four points.

Bernice Lynch posted the high single 204 and the high three game series total of 533 which is the highest series rolled in the league this year.

Lecture Series Planned By Friday Study Group
Women in this area will have the opportunity on alternate Fridays during the next three months to hear outstanding speakers on a variety of subjects of current interest.

James H. Barrett, Comptroller of Murray Corporation of America, will present "The Case for Individual Freedom" at the first meeting this Friday, October 10, 10:30 a.m., at Neighborhood Club on Waterloo. Mrs. A. K. Brush will be Chairman of the Day.

On October 24, Professor W. A. Paton, from the School of Business Administration, University of Michigan, will speak at Grosse Pointe High School Auditorium at 8 p.m. The evening meeting was arranged to enable a greater number of people in the community to hear Mr. Paton, author of the newly released "Shirtsleeve Economics."

Everyone is invited to attend and bring interested friends. No admission is charged for these lectures, which are being sponsored by the Friday Study Group.

If you find it impossible to love your enemies, you can help some by treating your friends a little better.

Shawn Dancers At Town Hall

Ted Shawn, noted dancer, and 10 stars from Jacob's Pillow Dance Festival in the Berkshire Mountains will appear at Detroit Town Hall, Wednesday morning, October 15, at 11 o'clock in Fisher Theatre. This will be the opening attraction of the Town Hall series of 18 Wednesday morning programs of music, lectures, and entertainment.

Ballet, modern, and folk dancing will be featured by the group of artists who entertained thousands of dance students and tourists during the summer festivals at the Jacob's Pillow Dance University.

In addition to Shawn who will perform and act as MC, the cast includes Myra Kinch, exponent of the modern and satirical school of dancing; Tatiana Grantzeva of Ballet Russe; Polajenko, formerly with Ballet des Champs Elysees; Ralph McWilliams, on leave from Ballet Theatre for this tour; Mme La Meri, authority on folk dancing; Richard Stuart and Vanya, internationally known ballroom team.

Mary Campbell, composer-pianist, on leave of absence from Texas State College for Women, will be musical director.

Shawn is known as a witty and urbane commentator. For the past decade, he has presided over the Jacob's Pillow dance meetec. This is the first coast to coast tour of Shawn's Festival stars, and the first appearance of the group in Detroit.

Tickets for the performance are at Grinnell's, WO. 2-1124. For Town Hall season memberships, call Headquarters, 1613 Kales Bldg, WO. 3-5617.

who, where and whatnot

Conversation piece at the Christ Church Christmas Fair press luncheon were those "I Like Ike" cigarettes produced by Mrs. H. Ray Will and enjoyed by all.

On Kercheval at the Hill . . . a pretty young gal, cheeks snow apple red . . . in tartan peddle pushers and football hero's sweater . . . being tugged along by a mammoth hound on a leash . . . and explaining politely and rather mechanically to all passerby . . . "He won't bite" . . . "He won't bite."

Love that accent: it belongs to Mrs. R. P. Laird who lived in Richmond, Va. till she moved to the Pointe with her family a couple of years ago.

They have masculine nicknames: Mrs. Robert Scherer (Mike) . . . Mrs. Samuel Armstrong (Lee) . . . Mrs. Constant Cavallo (Mike) . . . Mrs. William Emery (Mike) . . . Mrs. Sterling Dockson (George) . . .

Die-Hards . . . the owners of elegant crafts bouncing over St. Clair's choppy waters . . . prolonging life on the lakes as long as possible . . .

The Pointe's H. Watson Ford's grandfather owned the theater in which Abraham Lincoln was shot . . .

Provocative nicknames: Muff Ford, wee daughter of the William Clay Fords . . . Candy Geer, wee daughter of the William N. Geers . . . Weezie Bodman, the pastel Mrs. Henry T. Bodman . . .

Mrs. Bert Harrison Wicking, whose handwriting has eye-appeal, uses white bordered gray note paper . . . monogrammed in white . . .

Little girl voices: that of Mrs. Jim Motschall.

PILFERINGS

If there is one person about whom we'd like to know more . . . he's the editor of Godey's Lady's Book and Magazine who conducted a column in a couple of the volumes our grandmother saved.

Unlike today's editor, this gentleman circa 1860 didn't print letters from his readers. Instead he printed only his replies and we spend whole afternoons studying him through those replies. We spend more afternoons speculating on what the reader's questions might have been.

Howard-if you smell of musk as much as your letter does, we think that both ladies will be perfectly disgusted with you, and that will settle the question without difficulty.

EJS-During the last year we published several receipts for making skeleton leaves. You must be a recent subscriber.

CWT-Very good; but can only be appreciated by those who know MB.

MEH-We have explained the term at least a dozen times.

Miss ERW-Even though it is leap-year, we should consider your conduct very improper.

An unfortunate-We know of no remedy for your red nose. Perhaps it is tight lacing. That will cause it.

Miss SPO-We never answer letters containing poetry, or give our opinion about the merits of any article. We either accept or return without remark.

Mary-A frock coat is an admissible garment for a gentleman to wear when he nuptializes.

Maud N-Perhaps you are growing older. We cannot judge by your description.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. EDWARD TOROSIAN OF TROMBLEY ROAD

By JANE SCHERMERHORN

Every morning about 10 o'clock, a fair young Pointe matron, who looks for all the world like a college Freshman, sits down to a demanding typewriter.

To friends and neighbors on Trombley road she's Mrs. Edward Torosian but to that typewriter, her publisher and her fans she's Jeanne E. Wylie, author, whose first full length novel, "Face To Face" was published last year by Morrow.

Jeanne E. Wylie is her maiden name and she has strong feeling about a woman's accomplishments being identified with her own name. It's the name she had when she wrote her first poem as a little girl. That was called "The Golden River" and she suspects it was inspired by John Ruskin's work. At any rate, she can zip it off musically today and with her twinkling way of smiling she adds, "It has plenty of gold in it, don't you think?"

From childhood poetry and prose, Mrs. Torosian went on to major in English composition and math, attending Wayne University, working for her master's at Northwestern and then returning to Wayne to teach speech in the late 30's.

Business of Writing

She wrote two novels before "Face To Face," neither of which was published. However her short stories were familiar for 10 years to readers of McCall's, The Red Book and Atlantic and now, in this sort of in-between-novels period, she is again working on stories for the "slicks."

Unlike most authors, our Pointer of Interest doesn't particularly like to talk about her novel.

She dismissed it with a brief, "It's a purely fictional work, the study of two brothers and what life did to them." It took two and a half years actual writing time and she didn't offer it to her publisher until it was half written.

When the book was published she made her first trip to New York and Mr. Torosian, a gentleman whose business is Detroit Cad & Zinc and Ajax Manufacturing Co. and who works "36 hours a day," joined her in one of his rare holidays.

Title Trading

"Face To Face" comes from Corinthians and was the compromise title between the author's choice of "The Secret Faces" (which Morrow felt sounded too much like a whodunit) and the publisher's choice of "True Brother." After three weeks of title trading, "Face To Face" was it.

Mrs. Torosian fills loose leaf note books with notes (and then rarely refers to them once she begins to write. She plots her books, making chapter outlines and then likes to half-finish the work before she even lets a publisher know she is writing.

In this way, her stories are her own and not fitted to anyone else's pattern, nor written on a time schedule.

She confesses that though she disciplines herself to regular hours for her work (remember we said she sat down to her typewriter at 10 each morning) she tries all the writer's ruses to avoid getting started.

A Difference

She straightens her desk (she likes to work in a special upstairs study and she must have quiet), she sharpens pencils, she regards her fingernails and sometimes she even gets sleepy to avoid beginning to write.

"I don't like writing," she said of the arduous and lonely task, "but I do love having written."

She likes to improvise her own music on the piano in her modern living room. But most of all she loves to hike. Sundays she usually goes out to her father-in-law's country place near Dexter, Mich. and with her German Shepherd, Turk, she hikes sometimes six miles through the woods.

She loves the fairly wild country where she has discovered bear tracks and seen deer. This summer she climbed the Grand Teton Mountains in Wyoming and before that her mountain climbing included the Rockies, the White Mountains, the Cumberland Mountains the Wasatches of Utah and the Vintas.

This must be a family trait for her brother, Clarence Wylie, professor in the math department at the University of Utah, is an expert mountain climber. His gear includes spikes and ropes and he scaled Mount Rainier in Washington this last summer.

A sister, Miss Ruth Wylie, is in the music department at Wayne University. Besides composing music she is a talented artist. Her "doodling" at Sunday school so impressed Mrs. Torosian, when they were little girls, that she persuaded her to "doodle faces" instead of just lines and curlicues.

This resulted in a series of

HAMBURGER PIE

Contributed by Mrs. Matthew Kubitsky
1 medium sized onion, chopped
2 Tbsp. fat
1 pound ground beef
salt and pepper
1/2 pound cooked green beans
1 1/2 oz. can condensed tomato soup
5 medium sized potatoes cooked and mashed
1/2 c. warm milk
1 egg, beaten
1/2 to 1 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
Brown onion in hot fat; add meat and seasoning; brown. Add beans and soup. Pour into buttered casserole. Add milk, egg and seasoning to mashed potatoes. Spoon to form mounds or spread over meat mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 30 minutes. Serves six.

awaiting that day he doesn't work 36 hours and will have a chance to study the stars). Before we were off to our own typewriter we inspected exotic herbs she has learned to use in Armenian cookery.
