

Justice C. Joseph Belanger Reports on Traffic Parley

Justice C. Joseph Belanger attended a Traffic Court Conference at Northwestern University in Evanston, Ill., from October 14 to 17. He has just issued the following report on the conference to the City Commission of Grosse Pointe Park, which municipality he serves as a justice of the peace.

October 23, 1952
City Commission
City of Grosse Pointe Park
Municipal Building
15115 E. Jefferson Avenue
Grosse Pointe Park 30, Michigan
ATTENTION: Mr. Lane, City Manager
Gentlemen:

I attended the Traffic Court Conference held at the Northwestern University School of Law in cooperation with the American Bar Association and the Traffic Institute of Northwestern University from October 14 to October 17, 1952.

Many of the States of the Union were represented by either judges or prosecutors, and although the number attending was small nevertheless they disclosed a very active interest in the procurement of greater intelligence in all matters affecting traffic and traffic violations.

A sincere attempt is being made to standardize, throughout the United States, all things incidental to control of traffic and disposition of traffic violations, which, among other things, includes a standardized form of violation notice which form is now being used by Grosse Pointe Park. A great deal of time was spent with particular relation to disposition of cases involving traffic violators, and I was personally very much impressed in the following particulars:

1. Education. Detailed discussions were held in connection with the advisability and worth of doing everything possible in every direction to educate the public in not only the proper way of driving motor vehicles but also to aid them in every way so as to bring to the fore every possible degree of intelligence in an attempt to minimize accidents and infractions of ordinances.
2. Engineering. It was very evident from the facts submitted that engineering plays a very important part in minimizing traffic violations. In other words, by keeping in close touch with the types and degree of infractions and their specific locations it is possible to correct improper conditions which play or might play an important part in causing accidents. Where it appears that an abnormal amount of accidents are occurring at a given location, the engineering department can immediately give this location necessary attention.
3. Enforcement. This subject was discussed at great length, and all details of enforcement were given attention. The burden of proper enforcement, of course, lies solely in the trial judge, and it is almost academic that strict enforcement, by proper disposition by the trial judge, still remains one of the greatest deterrents to traffic violations. Although many statistics were given, unfortunately, they are of much greater use in larger cities than ours, but the fact still remains that firm justice, ably and humanely administered, is of prime importance, and the many thoughts and ideas expressed at this meeting will no doubt prove to be invaluable to me personally.

Meetings of this character are invaluable, especially to persons like myself who are occupying positions requiring discretion, and as a judicial officer of our community I feel that my attendance will in many ways enable me personally to be of greater service to the community; further than that, I am very much in accord with the motives of the various traffic and safety leagues in their endeavor to save lives and property, and to that end I feel that future meetings of this character should be attended by myself or such other judge as might be in office at the time.

Respectfully submitted,
C. JOSEPH BELANGER,
Municipal Judge.

Bishop Melcher To Preach Here

Bishop of the Missionary District of Central Brazil, the Rt. Rev. Louis C. Melcher, D.D., will speak at the 11 o'clock service at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe on Sunday, November 2. Bishop Melcher was considered coadjutor in 1948 and succeeded to the jurisdiction upon the retirement of Bishop William M. M. Thomas on September 30, 1949.

At the time of his election by the House of Bishops, Dr. Melcher was rector of Trinity Church, Columbia, South Carolina, one of the strong and highly organized parishes of the South. At the time he was a member of the diocesan Standing Committee, and still earlier, when he was rector of St. John's Church, Knoxville, Tennessee, he was a member of Bishop and Council, chairman of the Department of Program, member of the Executive Council, and an examining Chaplain.

Bishop Melcher was born in Baraboo, Wisconsin, and was graduated from the University of Wisconsin in 1922. After completion of theological studies at the University of the South he was ordained to the diaconate in 1924 and to the priesthood in 1925. In 1924 and 1926, Dr. Melcher was chaplain to the Bishop and a canon of the Cathedral at Ancon, Panama Canal Zone, and 1926 and 1927 was dean of that Cathedral.

Housing Facilities Needed By Married AAA Personnel

A plea for housing facilities for the families of married men stationed in the Detroit area with the Anti-Aircraft Artillery forces has been issued by Major Robert O. Rank, 28th AAA Group.

There are two of these Anti-Aircraft groups stationed within the Pointe. Major Rank's message follows in full.

The Lonesome Married GI
"The Anti-aircraft Artillery has moved into the Detroit area for the purpose of protection of the city of Detroit and the millions who live within the city, and surrounding areas from enemy air attacks."

"With the anti-aircraft artillery came married men without their families. These married men, officers and enlisted men alike, are badly in need of housing so that they might bring their families here with them. The married

Says Taxpayers Foot Rabaut Bill

Speaking before the North Detroit Kiwanis at 6861 East Nevada on Monday, October 27, Richard Durant, Republican candidate for Congress from the 14th District pointed out that his Democrat opponent was conducting his campaign at the expense of the taxpayers.

Durant's talk was on economy in government, and he cited several specific instances where billions could be sliced from the Truman budget. "But many a nickel make a muckle," Durant said, "and the only way to really save is to examine all expenditures and save the pennies as well as the billions. One very good instance of waste that could be avoided is the type of campaign my Democrat opponent is conducting."

"I don't know how many of you are Democrats or Independents or Republicans," Durant went on, "and I don't care. But did you know that my Democrat opponent has mailed out thousands of letters on the 'frank'? You, the taxpayers, must pony up the money to pay for that postage—and to pay for the envelopes—and to pay for the speech he has been mailing out."

Pointing out that all these speeches his opponent has been mailing out—and there have been five of them—were all made in the House on Saturday, July 5, Durant remarked, "I took the trouble to look up the number of members on the floor that day. There were only 23. Just picture, if you can, my Democrat opponent making these speeches—all for purely political effect in October—with a stenographer to take them down, and the printing costs to print them up, and the postage to send them out, and the envelopes to mail them in—all paid for by you."

"One friend of mine, who got one, aid he never hears from my opponent except at election time. I guess we're forgotten back home, until he wants to be elected again."

"That's the attitude of a man who no longer thinks of serving the people of his district—but of serving himself."

St. Paul School Has Convocation

Convocation ceremonies at St. Paul's School were held last Monday, October 27. Speeches by Janet Wrubel, Katherine Mullaney, Charlotte Klein, Janet Hock, Evelyn Englehard, and Kathryn Andre, on education, preceded the awarding of honor certificates to those students deserving.

"Paul Lights." The school paper is being continued this year by Katharine Mullaney, Joan and Janet Hock, Charlotte Klein and Kathryn Andre. Besides the addition of an editorial page, the periodical contains many newsbits interesting to all students.

Another paper made its first appearance at school. It is "Our Lady's Notes," the Sodality bulletin. The staff, comprised of the publicity bureau of the sodality, is headed by Ellen Connelly.

Cubs to Help Get Vote Out

Cub Scout Pack 19 of Maire School will stage a parade down Kercheval avenue from the High School grounds to Neff road and back again on Saturday, November 1, adding impetus to the "Get Out the Vote" campaign. The parade will begin at 11 o'clock in the morning.

Some 75 Cubs will be led by Pack chairman, Mr. R. R. Linden, and Assistant Cub Master, Mr. Donald Walker. Colorful banners will urge a record turnout at the polls on November 4. City police will sideline the route to open the way for the affair.

The Pack will open a general paper drive on November 15. Residents who have collected bundles of papers may call Chief Den Father Ralph Hummel for pick-ups, at TUxedo 2-6472.

In case of rain, the "Vote" parade will be held the following Monday, November 3.

Many a good thing is lost by not asking for it.

Patricia Gregory Struck by Car

Young Patricia Gregory, aged 9, of 1347 Bedford, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park police last Monday afternoon, following an accident on Charlevoix at Bedford.

Patricia ran into the street in front of an automobile driven by Glen A. Barlow, of 20833 Woodmont, Detroit. Barlow and other witnesses told police that the accident had been unavoidable. Witnesses estimated Barlow's speed at the time to have been 25 miles an hour.

Patricia's injuries were not serious. She was treated for abrasions of the leg, hip and wrist, and later released.

3 Cars Involved In Costly Crash

City police held Ellis Caraway, aged 31, of 638 Montclair, Detroit, under a $100 cash bond on a charge of reckless driving causing an accident last Saturday evening.

Caraway, driving west on Kercheval in a 1947 Ford, lost control of his automobile as he neared the corner of Notre Dame, crashing into two parked cars. Mrs. Arnold S. Bedell, of 334 Stephens, occupant of one of the parked autos, was taken to Bon Secours for treatment of minor injuries. The second car is owned by Edmund A. Baier, 240 McKinley. Police said that property damages resulting from the accident had been heavy.

Caraway appeared before Judge Joseph P. Urvick Monday evening, October 27. He was fined $50, charged $25 in court costs and $6 in witness fees.

Police Chiefs Ask Voters To Help Curb Dope Racket

Approval of Amendment No. 1 at the general election November 4 will give Michigan Police a powerful weapon in the war against the narcotics traffic, according to the Chiefs of Police in the Grosse Pointes.

The amendment would apply to the same provisions to making a search for narcotics legal without a warrant as were applied to concealed weapons in a constitutional amendment approved by the voters in 1938. The concealed weapons amendment has been pointed to as having been most effective both in the reduction of this type of crime and the prosecution of offenders. The same results are expected if the narcotics amendment is adopted.

Proponents of the amendment point out that 77 per cent of narcotics cases are now thrown out of court because of illegal search, the defendants taking advantage of a technicality to ply their trade safely.

All good citizens are interested in abolishing the dope traffic and punishing dope peddlers. They are particularly concerned because the dope peddler builds up his market through preying upon our young people, including the teen agers, and making them the victims of this terrible affliction for the remainder of their lives.

At present, police are badly handicapped in fighting dope peddling. They know narcotics are being passed, but too often the guilty person goes free because although narcotics are found upon him, the search is declared illegal. The amendment would remove this immunity and give the same protection to the public that the concealed weapons amendment now affords.

Michigan has enacted new and stronger penalties against the dope peddler. Now all that is needed is this amendment so that these penalties can be imposed upon him.

Expensive Beer Drunk by Minor

Lawrence T. Clark, 18, 74 Handy road, was placed on 8 months probation last Monday night when he appeared before Judge Joseph P. Uvick at the municipal court session in the City of Grosse Pointe on a disorderly person charge. In addition he was fined $85 and charged $25 in court costs.

Clark had been picked up by City police last week across from the Grosse Pointe High with an open bottle of beer in his hand. Police said he had been drinking. Asked where he got the beer, he explained that he had been on a party on McKinley road with another group of boys.

He later admitted that the beer had been purchased at Skan's Market, 13228 Kercheval avenue, Detroit. He told police that other Grosse Pointe minors had been buying beer there for the past two years, no questions asked. The market has been cited to the State Liquor Control Commission for selling to minors.

Clark, who has been picked up by the police 5 times in the past 3 or 4 years for having beer in his possession or having been drinking, was warned by Judge Uvick that another appearance before him would result in a jail term.

WHY NOT A HOLIDAY ON NATIONAL ELECTION DAY?

Federal Octopus Rapped by Alger

Fred M. Alger, Republican candidate for governor, declared this week that the fiscal troubles of the state and nation could only be solved by looking for the answers from a common sense rather than from a partisan political standpoint.

"Our fiscal problems," said Alger, "stem from the sprawling, expensive federal bureaucracy the taxpayers of Michigan and other states are called upon to support.

"This huge federal octopus grabs 80 per cent of every tax dollar paid by Michigan taxpayers. They allow the state and local governments to retain 10 per cent each, for their own use, providing this small share of their own locally-collected tax money is spent as the federal planners dictate.

"By eliminating this drain upon our state's resources, we could retain a larger share of our tax money for our own use. This would enable us to balance the state's budget, wipe out the $70,000,000 deficit, and have enough money to pay our bills and run our state and local governments the way we think they should be run. With this accomplished, there would be no need for higher taxes in Michigan."

Alger declared that working with rather than against the fiscal committees of the legislature, would be his approach to the problem of making both ends meet in the state government.

"Seeking the advice of the Ways and Means Committee of the state house of representatives, and the finance committee of the senate, is the proper way to find a solution to our fiscal problems."

Sleepy Motorist Rams Into Pole

Farms police ticketed Eddie Lee Brown, of 4814 Seyburn, Detroit, early in the morning of October 26, for not having his car under control.

Brown's 1947 Cadillac had hopped the curb on Lake Shore road and crashed into a utility pole. Damages to his car were estimated at $250. He admitted to the police that he had fallen asleep at the wheel.

Tricks Teach Safety Lesson

Grosse Pointe's Parcels school children received a safety lesson with a magic twist, Thursday, October 23.

Automobile Club of Michigan's traffic expert, Herbert German, lectured to a safety assembly at the junior high school today, and brought along a bag of magic tricks to keep school-age children interested in the talk.

German, formerly with the Detroit Police Youth bureau, has developed a magic show paralleling his safety talk.

"That way, the school children become interested in both the tricks and the safety message," says the Auto Club lecturer.

Pointer Claims Bride in Rites at St. Ann's Church, Toledo; Many Guests from Pointe Present at Church and Reception in the Toledo Club; to Make Home Here

Woodwardia ferns, white chrysanthemums and ivy banked the altar of St. Ann's Church, Toledo, last Saturday morning for the marriage of Eula Caroline McNerney and Bradshaw Conrad McKee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Bradshaw McKee of Lake Shore road.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Howard McNerney of Toledo, who were hosts after the church service at a reception in the Toledo Country Club.

Officiating at the nuptial mass was the Reverend Father Ignatius Kelly, pastor of St. Agnes Church, Toledo.

On the arm of her father, the lovely bride marched down an aisle marked with ivy and white satin bows.

Heirloom rosepointe lace trimmed her classic gown of antique Italian satin which swept into fan-shaped train. A rosepoint veil, extending the length of the train, fell from a matching halo cap.

The bride carried white orchids and stephanotis with ivy streamers. Seven bridal attendants were gowned in iridescent hunter green taffeta, snug bodices attached to full skirts distinguished by side-pleating. Wreaths of ivy were worn on their hair.

Mrs. Warren C. Craumer of Flint, Mich. was matron of honor and the bride's sister, Mary Howard McNerney was maid of honor. They carried white roses and stephanotis.

Maids, carrying white daisy mums and ivy bouquets, included: Mary Hunter Johnson of Toledo; the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. John W. Grout, Jane Florence Taylor, Helen Owen and Marian Chapin all of Grosse Pointe.

Society Chefs Cook Jellies for the Fair

Christ Church's Annual Christmas Fair Features Wondrous Country Kitchen Sponsored by Women of St. Michael's Church Who Also Will Run Snack Bar

When you visit Christ Church's Christmas Fair next month (it's being held Nov. 13—a Thursday—from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m.) we're sure you'll be drawn to the Country Kitchen, and the Snack Bar, both of which are being planned and manned by ladies of St. Michael's Church.

Mrs. Frederick J. Button is chairman of the Country Kitchen assisted by Mrs. Nelson Fisher as vice-chairman, Mrs. David Frobes as treasurer and a long and hard-working list of helpers from St. Michael's.

Early last June this committee started shopping for the ingredients of jams, jellies, preserves they will sell at the fair. They picked currants and strawberries to keep down cost (all the more to fascinate you, thoughtful shopper) and husbands joined them picking cherries.

As they preserved and jellied and sealed quaint glasses of the delectable sweets, the treasures were stored in the recreation room of chairman Mrs. Button's Hollywood road home.

The dazzling array caused a visitor to remark, "Mr. Heinz has nothing on you girls, you have 57 varieties, too."

Some of the prized family recipes duplicated for the country kitchen include apricot and almond jam; tangerine compiment; peach conserve with peaches; paradise jelly (quince, cranberries and apple); fresh mint jelly; spiced peaches and crabapples.

Members of the committee who excel in salad dressing have bottled their own Roquefort and French dressings.

Mrs. Armin Mueller is chairman for the Snack Bar which will be found in the recreation room of the rectory, complete with checkered cloth covered tables, comfortable chairs and wonderful things to eat for visitors and workers at the fair.

Assisted by Mrs. Freer Armstrong as cochairman and 24 members of St. Michael's, Mrs. Mueller will keep the Snack Bar open all during the fair.

There'll be a fire glowing in the fireplace to add to your comfort.

The Country Kitchen committee for the fair includes: Mrs. Donald Scobie, Mrs. William Macks, Mrs. Homer Strale, Mrs. Harold Wiegold, Mrs. Fred Studer, Mrs. A. J. Eckley, Mrs. Arthur Nason, Mrs. Philip Day, Mrs. J. K. Calder.

Mrs. Clarence Gunn, Mrs. William McQueen, Mrs. Paul Rowe, Mrs. William Smale, Mrs. Joseph Rhein, Mrs. Alfred Houston, Mrs. Charles Coleman, Mrs. Elmer Knoche.

Mrs. Milton Cross Jr., Mrs. Leonard Roche, Miss Elizabeth Macks, Mrs. William Carlisle, Mrs. Richard Bonner, Mrs. Gerald Dewhurst, Mrs. William Eringer, Mrs. John Chown.

Dione Lucas to Bring Cordon Bleu Cookery

Seven Eastern Colleges Group Again Present Famed Head Of American Cordon Bleu Cooking School in Series At Art Institute Auditorium; Starts Feb. 23

That swoosh you just heard is the sound of Pointers, making a mad dash to get early tickets for Dione Lucas' second Detroit appearance, although the date of the new Cordon Bleu Cooking School is as far away as February 23, 1953.

Long since, Pointers have known that the internationally famous graduate of the Parisian Cordon Bleu (and conductor of her own American School of the same name) is presented in Detroit by the Seven Eastern Colleges to benefit their scholarship funds.

This year, classes will be held on five successive Tuesdays at Detroit Institute of Arts Auditorium. Because of the heavy demand on Mrs. Lucas' time, there will be only one class each Tuesday and that will be held in the afternoon. No wonder the big swoosh!

Mrs. Allen M. Lomax of Mautz avenue is general chairman for the project. She has announced that reservations for tickets are being taken now and the following head of the ticket committees for the various colleges:

Mrs. Louis B. Heavenrich, Barnard; Mrs. John W. Suter, Bryn Mawr; Mrs. William Bones, Mount Holyoke; Mrs. Lawrence H. Hyde Jr., Radcliffe; Mrs. W. O. Wilson, Smith; Vassar's chairman to be announced late; Mrs. George Detwiler, Wellesley.

Mrs. Lucas will demonstrate simple as well as elaborate cookery this year, giving many simplifying procedures in gourmet cookery which will produce her always perfect results. If your whiskies purchased with enthusiasm following her classes last year, are idle here is the perfect opportunity to recapture the know-how that will make them fly again.

This year the colleges will also offer for sale the utensils Mrs. Lucas uses which will doubtless be a boon to the sanity of her devotees who combed the town last year in search of omelet pans, flans and other such culinary bibelots.

On Mrs. Lomax's executive committee are Mrs. Orvil Aronson of Neff road and Mrs. Eugene P. Hawkins of Lake Shore road; vice-chairmen; Mrs. Albert S. Hogan of Cheyenne avenue, secretary; Mrs. Richard C. Van Dusen of Birmingham, treasurer; Mrs. James W. Lee of Chalfonte avenue, sponsors; Mrs. Herbert P. Bartlett of St. Clair Shores and Mrs. James Grace of Cambridge road, tickets; Mrs. Frank W. Wylie of Highland Park, publicity.

Serious Politicos

In a more serious vein . . . will be those Pointers gathering at 14th precinct Republican headquarters over there on Warren . . . (but there'll be refreshments, too).

Now if you're wondering about that 'indefatigable one' . . . Mrs. Republican . . . (alias Mrs. Charles A. Dean Jr.), you'll catch glimpses of her at 14th headquarters off and on . . .

But for the most part she'll be local to 2nd precinct headquarters in the Gabriel Richard School . . .

Such an arduous Election Day stint is old hat to the Dean family however . . . and in addition Mrs. Dean always arranges Election Night supper at headquarters for all her fellow-workers . . .

Head of the Household Dean will take over the family social obligations Election Night . . . attending several of the Pointe parties . . . and probably looking forward to getting acquainted with his family all over again now that the Election is almost history . . .

Newcomers Club Party Nov. 7

The Newcomer's Club of Grosse Pointe, the organization that is so adept at helping new residents of the area to become acquainted with their neighbors, discussed the fun they had at their recent "Harvest Moon" party, and began completing plans for a "Roaring Twenties" party which will be held November 7, and is sponsored by the alumni group.

The "Roaring Twenties" party, which will be held at the Beach Combers, will have the atmosphere of the 1920's when such dances as the Charleston were popular and dance bands played "jazz" instead of "boogie-woogie".

Nearly 100 members and guests of the Newcomer's Club attended the "Harvest Moon" affair which was held at Miller's Hall, Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, last Friday night. The program was the "mixer" type and those who attended played Halloween games, Musical Chairs and circle dances. An Open Letter

My Dear Children:

On the eve of this most important national election, the thoughts of most of us are concentrated on things political. My own mental meanderings on the subject keep bringing all of you into sharp focus...

What happens next Tuesday will, I feel, deeply affect the lives of all of you. I hope you have been following the campaigns assiduously and weighing the pronouncements, charges and counter-charges intelligently...

I cannot deny the urge to pass on to you some of my thoughts as that day approaches when we shall choose a new leader to guide the country for another four years.

None of you can remember the time when a Democratic president was not in office. All of your thinking lives have been spent under the New Deal and the Fair Deal.

My earliest political recollections go back to the day when Woodrow Wilson succeeded William Howard Taft. He was reelected on his promise that he would keep this country out of World War I.

With a great depression brewing in the post-war period a very weak Republican, Warren G. Harding, was elected to the presidency following a convention compromise deal.

When Harding died in office Coolidge succeeded to the presidency. There followed a period of the greatest prosperity the country has ever known.

Coolidge and his successor, Herbert Hoover, another Republican, both warned the American people repeatedly against their current reckless, stupid gambling in the stock market...

We saw this great president, to whom succeeding history has brought proper recognition, vilified and crucified for something he tried his best to avoid.

The Democrats would have us believe that all the ills of the country were quickly solved under their administration. Nothing could be further from the truth.

This has been the period of the great stifling of the true American spirit of self-initiative and free enterprise. Dependence on government agencies has been encouraged.

This has perhaps been the greatest evil attendant upon the last 20 years of Democratic rule; this killing off of the spirit of self-reliance which made this country great.

We can add to this the stupid decisions of our leaders in foreign affairs, which have given Russia so many great advantages which she would not have today under intelligent and fearless leadership.

We have seen an unprecedented epidemic of corruption in public office and a shameful reticence on the part of the administration to punish the offenders.

Probably the most frightening aspect of this election is the fact that the Democratic candidates not only fail to admit or criticize these many tragic mistakes...

A complete new shuffle appears to be the requisite for a cleaning up of the sorry mess in Washington and the straightening out of affairs here in the state.

The future belongs chiefly to you young people. May it see the reinstatement of those principles and attributes which helped create this nation and raise it to world leadership.

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"We may live without poetry, music and art;
We may live without conscience and live without heart;
We may live without friends; we may live without books;
But civilized man can not live without cooks."

The coming election does have its lighter side if we are not too desperate to notice it. We shall touch on a few of the things we've heard in the past week that will demonstrate what we mean.

"I am enclosing an article saying that the Yale Daily News and the Daily Dartmouth are supporting Stevenson. No doubt this makes them subversive in the eyes of your brothers."

Another one we LOVE... is a crack by one of the news reporters traveling on one of the Presidential Candidate trains.

Our next waggery goes back to the days of President Roosevelt and concerns one of his ghost writers. It seems that in one of his addresses... one that he hadn't the time to go over very carefully...

We can't leave the political field without telling our readers that if they want to meet the glamorous Bette Davis, they can do so at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel tomorrow afternoon, Friday, at a tea from 4:30 to 6 p. m.

Guests will be asked to contribute five dollars to the Senator Moody Campaign and will also meet Senator and Mrs. Moody, along with the guest of honor.

We understand this is the first time Miss Davis has ever taken part in any political campaign but in this very important year, she is doing so for certain Democrats.

Miss Davis has voiced a desire to meet all the guests personally and it should be an interesting interlude.

A middle aged man goes to the Doctor for a yearly check-up and after the medico takes his history, he tells him he should cut out smoking, cut out drinking (not even ONE martini before dinner), no more poker and beer parties on Saturday nights...

Our Stuffed hero who loves to do ALL of these things, asked: "Will all that make me LIVE longer?" To which the Doctor replied: "No... but it will make it SEEM longer."

What Goes on at Your Library

by Jean Taylor

"A time like this demands strong minds, great heart, true faith and ready hands; Men whom the lust of office does not kill; men whom the spoils of office cannot buy."

These lines were written—not during the present election campaign—but over a century ago by one J. G. Holland.

The Day of Decision, November 4, is close on our heels. Radio and television have done much to produce a well-informed electorate. 60,000,000 people attended the political conventions last July, via television.

The printed page still plays an important role however in intelligent understanding of present day issues.

Your library has recently subscribed to the CONGRESSIONAL QUARTERLY, an excellent source for objective information on Congress.

The service includes the Congressional Quarterly's Weekly Report, which summarizes each week's activities in Congress as well as the Annual Congressional Quarterly Almanac which gives the complete history of the previous year in Congress, re-edited and indexed for easy reference.

The Almanac also includes special sections, e.g. "How a Bill is Passed," "Glossary of Congressional Terms" and "Background for 1952 Elections."

All roll-call votes in both houses are published in the weekly report, along with summaries of all bills introduced and acted

Who Never Had It So Good?

THE PRESENT TRUMAN-STEVENSON SLOGAN, "YOU NEVER HAD IT SO GOOD", HAS BEEN SUBJECTED TO A CRITICAL ANALYSIS BY THE EDITOR OF AN UPSTATE NEWSPAPER. THIS IS THE CONCLUSION AT WHICH HE ARRIVES:

1. WHO? The boys in Korea—the 3 1/2 million American boys in uniform, the mothers and fathers of these boys? The casualties during the Korean "police action" war?

2. WHO? The American people who have been living for 20 years under the threat of war, actual war, "police action" war, and now face the possibility of World War III?

3. WHO? The worker who gets $2.00 wages for every $1.00 he received twenty years ago, but has to pay out $2.50 for a steak he bought for $1.00 twenty years ago?

4. WHO? The 50 million American taxpayers who paid $4 billion in Federal taxes 20 years ago, but today pay $68 billion in Federal taxes?

5. WHO? The 70 million Americans whose insurance policies, savings accounts and U.S. Bonds have all been cut in half the past 20 years through inflation and the devaluation of the dollar?

6. WHO? The average American family which has been saddled with a Government debt of $7,000 that must be paid off some day?

7. WHO? The State and local governments that 20 years ago received 75 cents out of every tax dollar collected—but now get only 25 cents out of every dollar collected, because the Federal government grabs 75 cents?

8. WHO? The business man who is afflicted with Government restrictions, controls and regulations of every kind, who must make multitudinous government reports, and who must hand over to the tax collector 70 cents out of every dollar of profit he makes?

HE THEN ADDS TO THESE DEDUCTIONS THE FOLLOWING: IT IS QUITE TRUE, HOWEVER, THAT SOME NEVER HAD IT SO GOOD!

1. WHO? The Labor leaders, gangsters, racketeers and gamblers who have tie-ups and influence with the Washington bureaucrats.

2. WHO? The 2,600,000 Federal civilian employees who now do the work 600,000 Federal employees used to do, and draw $10 billion in pay annually instead of the $2 billion the 600,000 employees drew.

3. WHO? The communists who have infiltrated every Department of the Federal government and have been codded, protected, and defended by the Administration leaders.

4. WHO? Stalin, the man who 7 years ago was dictator over 300 million Russians, but now is dictator over 900 million people.

5. WHO? The foreign countries that have received in handouts $50 billion in American taxpayers' money since World War II. (This money could have and should have been used to provide comfort for the needy old people of America, and to provide increased pensions for our retired government employees.)

MR. AND MRS. VOTER, you had better read the above facts, as facts they are from which there is no escape, and digest the information. THEN go to the polls on November 4 and help to bring about a change that will place the finances of our country on a firm foundation once more, and put the value of the dollar back where it used to be!

Says Williams Insults Voters

Time magazine paid its respects to Governor G. Mennen Williams in its issue of September 15, and pretty much damns "Soapy" with faint praise.

"Soapy Williams," says the national magazine, "has been an ineffective governor largely because he plays his legislative program from a strictly partisan angle. Like Harry Truman with the 80th Congress, Williams attacks his Republican legislature for failure to carry out the Williams' program without trying to find a statesman-like middle-ground action."

Michigan is rolling up an ever-increasing deficit. Soapy wants to lessen it by a corporate income tax (a CIO project which would sock General Motors alone some $27 million a year). Soapy has vetoed major Republican efforts to work out substitute measures which, say the Republicans, could have cleaned up the deficit.

Although Soapy says that the corporation tax will not be paid by consumers but by the corporations themselves, this old chestnut has been exposed so many times that it is not funny. As any schoolboy knows, all taxes are paid by the consumer in the long run, and Williams insults the intelligence of Michigan voters when he tries constantly to make them believe otherwise about his pet project.

When you consider some of these facts, along with the further fact that Williams stands virtually alone in the whole United States in demanding more taxes this year for his State, when other governors are reducing their requests, it is hard to see how anybody can seriously consider voting for Williams for governor.

The Republicans have an able, hard-working, conscientious public servant running for the job in the person of Fred M. Alger, now Secretary of State. Better vote for him, and retire Soapy to private life come November 4!

All Eyes and Ears

by Dorothy Phyllis Hannah

"A little bit of Spain" . . . prevailed at the Detroit Symphony concert last Thursday evening, thus presenting a fascinating program. Guest soloist was Victoria de los Angeles (a native of Barcelona, Spain). Miss de los Angeles is a brilliant soprano . . . (we understand that she was largely self-taught) . . . and she performed two very difficult compositions . . . "Canto a Sevilla" by Turina (a Spanish modernist) . . . and the motet "Exsultate, Jubilate" K.165 (allegro in F-major) by Mozart.

The motet is in anthem style and is contrapuntal (constant motion of all the parts) . . . the Canto is divided into four parts and draws inspiration from Spanish scenes which Turina loved so well . . .

Miss de los Angeles is a fairly recent member of the Metropolitan Opera Co. and we believe that one may expect great things from her in the future.

The orchestra performed three interesting compositions including the Suite No. 3 in D-major, by Bach . . . Capriccio Espagnol, by Rimsky-Korsakov . . . and Pavanne, Opus 50, by Faure (this is an unusual work dealing with "the pastoral pleasures of idyllic antiquity") . . .

The well-known Family Concert Series, which originated last year, will be resumed this Sunday, November 2, at 3:30 in the Masonic Auditorium. These concerts present a really ideal way of acquainting children with the classics which are so very important to them. Guest soloist this Sunday will be Ethel Smith, organist, and the 105 piece Detroit Symphony orchestra will be conducted by Valter Poole.

Be Sure to Vote "NO" on No. 2

Do Michigan voters want to retain an equitable balance of power between rural and metropolitan areas in their state?

If so, definite and intelligent action must be taken by voters on the proposed Constitutional amendments No. 2 and No. 3 to appear on the referendum ballot November 4.

Both proposals have to do with reapportionment but they differ greatly. Don't be misled that they are similar.

First of all No. 2 proposal was promoted by the high command of the CIO and endorsed by Governor Williams. This would put representation in BOTH House and Senate on a strictly population basis, thus giving control of State affairs to the four heavily populated counties of Wayne, Macomb, Oakland, Macomb and Genesee.

Proposal No. 3, backed by the Michigan Farm Bureau and endorsed by Secretary of State Fred M. Alger, Republican candidate for governor, would give a balanced distribution based on population and area—members of the House to be selected on the basis of population, members of the Senate on an area and population basis as at present.

Under Proposal No. 2, four counties would dominate, under certain set of conditions even dictate, all legislation passed in Michigan.

Proposal No. 3 would preserve for outstate Michigan a full voice in legislative matters because of its area representation in the Senate.

No combine of four counties could push through measures distasteful to the State at large. This is important—Don't be misled by talk that the proposals are the same.

Proposal No. 2 is sponsored by the Wayne County group and the CIO and given Governor Soapy Williams' blessing. Remember, use a two letter word on No. 2.

Proposal No. 3 is a Farm Bureau proposal supported by most legislative reform advocates outside of the populous part of Michigan. Remember to use a three letter word on Proposal No. 3.

One critic of Proposal No. 2 said that if this measure passes,

Cut Down On Colds

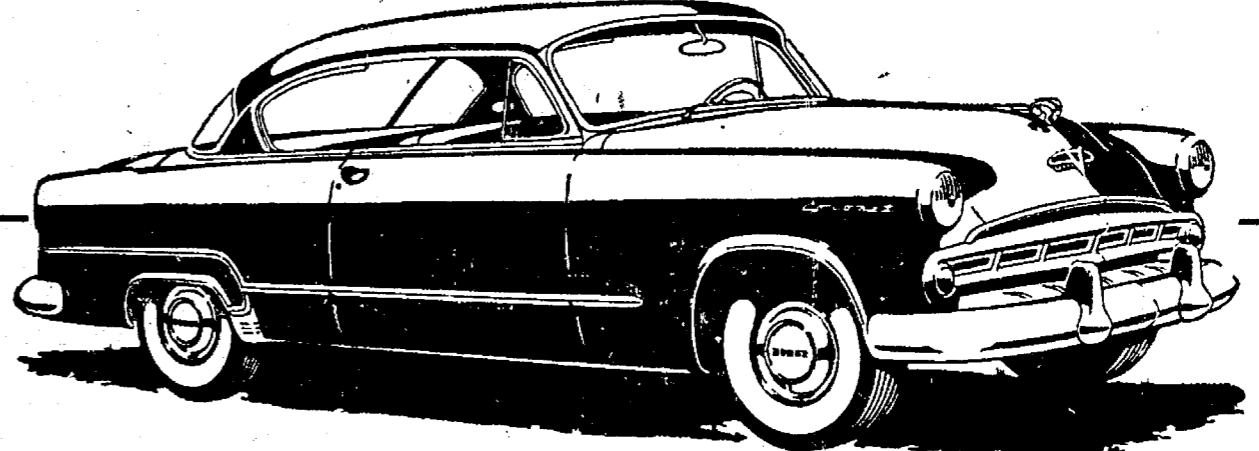

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.

If you are convinced that a cold like fate must be accepted you have the wrong philosophy. Colds are preventable . . . very much so. Put some effort this winter into avoiding colds and see how well it works.

Make certain first of all that your general health is as good as it can be—check with your doctor. Dress for the weather, especially head and footwear. When you are very tired, rest and give your resistance a chance to rebuild.

Buy medicine compounded of pure, fresh, potent drugs . . . purchase it from a reliable pharmacist.

TV Luncheon Big Success; $90,600 Raised by Women

Six hundred and fifty women attended the Republican TV Fund-raising Luncheon at Masonic Temple on Monday, October 27, when Lieutenant Governor Goodwin Knight of California was the guest speaker.

Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., of Lewiston road, member of the National Republican Finance Committee and head of the committee in charge of plans for the luncheon, announced that the $90,000 quota given to the women of Wayne and Oakland counties to raise over and above an earlier quota of $33,000, had been achieved through the sale of luncheon tickets.

Sixty three thousand dollars has been raised by the women in small gifts, while $27,000 has recently been contributed through a special gifts committee, Mrs.

Dean said. "Thus the women of Wayne and Oakland counties have contributed, through hard work and determination, $90,600 to Republican funds. Let us make the $90,000 into 90,000 Republican votes!" said Mrs. Dean, "and show that it doesn't cost but pays to support the Republican Party."

Co-chairmen with Mrs. Dean for the TV luncheon were Mrs. Sherman J. Fitzsimons, Jr., Mrs. William K. Muir, Mrs. Lester B. Moll, and Mrs. Yates Smith. Chairman of the Special Gifts Committee were Mrs. W. Dean Robinson and Mrs. Wendell W. Anderson.

Lieutenant Governor Knight, who spoke on "Socialism Versus the Free Enterprise System," said that the success of the Republican women in raising 200 per cent of the quota originally assigned them was worthy of their city, "lusty, throbbing Detroit."

Skids Into Car

Cornelius J. Diem, of 1560 Torrey road, skidded into the rear of a stopped auto on Mack avenue on Sunday, Oct. 19, causing $50 damage to his Packard and about $25 damage to the other car.

Driver of the second car, Maurice E. Rubenstein, of 3534 Third avenue, told police he had been waiting for passing traffic when the accident occurred.

To Tell Secrets Of Color Slides

Earl Brown, nationally famous color slide exhibitor and winner of many contests, will address the Grosse Pointe Camera Club at its meeting on Tuesday evening, November 4, on the subject of uses of meters and filters in making of good color slides.

Since the beginning of color slides many of the photographers have failed to get the full benefit and use from their meters. Likewise many are not at all familiar with the added results that may be obtained from the use of filters with their color film. All of this will be described in detail and with illustrations by the speaker of the evening.

Wayne Donaldson, president of the club, has also announced that the members will be allowed to participate in a color slide contest at the close of the program. Each member will submit two of their favorite slides for judging and criticism.

The interested public has been invited to attend. The meeting will be held at the Neighborhood Club in Grosse Pointe.

Good Linguists Sought by Army

The Department of the Army has announced an immediate need for certain qualified linguists for assignment throughout the Army as translators, interpreters and interrogators. Fluency in Russian, Chinese, Mandarin or Japanese is the primary prerequisite for enlistment in one of these special categories.

Young Michigan men who can qualify for enlistment in the U.S. Regular Army and have a full understanding of one or more of these languages have an exceptional opportunity to receive special training and assignments while serving their country.

Persons interested in obtaining more information relative to enlistment in this special category or for other opportunities in the military service should contact their Army and Air Force Recruiting Station, Room 472, Federal Building in Detroit.

Plan Open House At High School

The annual open house for parents of students at Grosse Pointe High School and Brownell Junior High School will be held on Thursday evening, November 6, at 7 o'clock, at Grosse Pointe High School.

No program is planned, but the parents will have a chance to visit each of their child's teachers in the course of the evening. Even though there will be no time for detailed conferences, the time will be sufficient for parents and teachers to exchange information helpful to both.

Parents attending the open house will be given building directories, and guides will help them locate the teachers they wish to see.

The open house is sponsored by the Mothers' Club. Homeroom mothers will act as hostesses for the parents visiting the teachers.

Piano Quartet to Play Concert

The First Piano Quartet, reputedly the first musical unit of its kind in the world, comes to Masonic Auditorium at 8:00 p.m. on Friday, October 31.

The four artists composing the Quartet are Adam Garner, Glauco D'Attili, Frank Mittler and Edward Edson. Each is a renowned musician in his own right and has played and appeared as soloist with most of the leading European Symphony Orchestras.

The group started its American career as an air feature over the National Broadcasting System network, with an entirely original program form and scripting idea. It was accorded immediate and widespread acclaim. Then followed a long series of radio performances, culminating in its first concert tour, since when sold-out houses have been the order of the day.

Andover Academy Scholarships Offered Boy Scouts

Prominent among several scholarships available to Scouts of this area, are those offered by the Phillips Academy of Andover, Mass.

Information on Phillips' Academy scholarships, which vary in financial assistance according to individual situations, may be had from local scholarship committee chairman, Russell H. Lucas, or W. F. Church, assistant Scout executive. Mr. Lucas, investment broker with offices at 639 Penobscot Building, may be reached at WO. 2-5625.

Phillips, more popularly known as Andover because of its location in that beautiful and historic eastern community, was founded in 1778 and boasts a long line of distinguished alumni.

Mr. Lucas recently reported on two Michigan Scouts, Roger Bruce Hardy and Richard Judson Cowles who are now attending Andover on scholarships. Hardy, who received his Eagle rating in Troop 208 of Detroit, was awarded a scholarship in 1950, which has been renewed for the years 1951, 1952 and 1953.

He has maintained a high academic rating and is presently enrolled in an English honors course. This past summer Hardy worked on a Nevada ranch with other Andover students. Cowles also was an outstanding student before earning his Andover scholarship and has continued his reputation for hard work, cooperativeness and dependability.

Andover has several more scholarships available for worthy Michigan Scouts. Mr. Lucas reported. Inquiries should be made now regarding starting the 1953 Fall semester.

Know The Issues

Vote Intelligently

The Michigan Citizens Committee on Election Issues is concerned with the issues and not with the personalities in this campaign. It holds that this election poses issues of gravest consequence to our national welfare and security.

The issues we have selected are drawn from lists of issues deemed of greatest national importance by the League of Women Voters and by a committee representing the social action agencies of seven churches—(Church of the Brethren; Evangelical and Reformed Church; Methodist Church; American Baptist Convention; Congregational Christian Churches; Disciples of Christ; and Society of Friends.)

The United States Senate is the forum where these issues will be fully debated and decided. Control of the Senate may turn on the outcome of elections in a small number of states. That is why the Committee is publishing this advertisement. It shows, from the record, the positions on vital issues of the Michigan Senatorial Candidates: Blair Moody, Democrat, and Charles Potter, Republican. We choose for comparison six issues of grave importance to you and the nation. This is how the two candidates voted on these issues:

- CONTROL COST OF LIVING
The Defense Production Act provides for control of wages, prices and rents. Unless renewed by Act of Congress, it would have expired June 30 this year and controls would have ceased.
On the renewal of wage, price and rent controls—
MOODY FOR POTTER AGAINST
- "TIDELANDS" OIL FOR EDUCATION
Earmarking part of the revenues from off-shore oil resources to help meet the growing needs of our public school system was an important issue before Congress when it debated whether to retain national control of these resources or to turn them over to three coastal states.
On retaining national control of oil resources—
MOODY FOR POTTER AGAINST
- FUNDS FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE
The Senate voted on September 13, 1951, and the House on April 9, 1952, on proposals to slash $6,000,000,000 from the funds recommended by the standing committees as necessary for building up the Army, Navy and Airforce.
On appropriating the full amount recommended for defense—
MOODY FOR POTTER AGAINST
- RECIPROCAL TRADE
Most nations of the world are in debt to the United States but have goods with which to repay us. The Reciprocal Trade Act not only facilitates repayment, but also encourages, through mutual reduction of tariffs, the flow of goods through the free world.
MOODY FOR POTTER AGAINST
- AID FOR OUR ALLIES
The Mutual Security Act strengthens collective security in the contest of the free world with Communist imperialism. It authorizes grants for military aid to NATO countries, for economic aid under the "Marshall Plan" and for "Point Four" assistance to underdeveloped countries.
On passage of the Mutual Security Act in 1951 and in 1952—
MOODY FOR POTTER AGAINST
- THE IMMIGRATION ACT OF 1952
The McCarran-Walter Immigration Act maintains the 1920 system of immigration quotas, giving large quotas to western and northern European nations and small quotas to eastern and southern European nations. It also denies to naturalized citizens important rights that are enjoyed by natural-born Americans.

D. U. S. Captures Southeastern League Title for Second Time

Detroit University School's senior-studded football team chalked up an impressive 21 to 6 victory over Fraser last Friday, October 24, to win its second consecutive Southeastern League title.

The victory gave DUS a perfect season with five victories in as many starts and marked the second year in a row that the boys from the Cook road school had turned in an unblemished page for the record book. Six red-shirted DUS boys figured in the scoring with Tom Mackey getting the most unique tally to climax the DUS scoring. Tom broke through the Fraser forward wall and chased the Fraser passer into his own end zone where Mackey nailed him for a safety and two points.

The first score of the game was provided by Bruce Garbutt who raced 15 yards into the end zone after taking a beautiful pass from quarterback Bill Erwin. Gordon Birgbauer converted the extra point from placement, his only successful attempt all day.

Jerry Jaglowicz racked up the second DUS score with the help of Tom Cooper who threw a crunching key block. Jaglowicz rambled 8 yards for the tally.

Johnny Ottaway bulled his way over from the 2 yard line to make the score read DUS 19 and Fraser 0. Mackey then made his two point tackle to climax the DUS scoring.

Fraser's only touchdown came late in the third quarter on a 20 yard pass.

HOW TIME BEGAN
Do you know how time began? The Book House for Children tells us that our standard divisions of time were derived from ancient weighing measures. The Semite merchants of Babylon around 2067 B. C. weighed by the mina (equivalent of a pound) and counted by sixties—that is, 60 shekels to a mina, 60 minas to a talent. It was from this method of counting that the hour is divided into 60 minutes and the minute into 60 seconds.

Do you REALLY want to know where all the lady "duck hunters" go when our society pages report they are in the deep in the marshes, their guns trained on birds? ... shopping in Amherstburg, Ont.'s quaint shoppes ...

We looked up from inspection of Wedgwood and Royal Doulton to spy Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe (the b-e-s-t looking wood green suede Robinhood cap on her pretty head) escaped from the day's shooting at the family's lodge, The Marshes, with attractive out-of-town Mrs. Frederick Meeske of Muskegon and her daughter, Mrs. William Fike of San Francisco ... They were week-ending with the Addison Holtons whose Canadian lodge is on the same island as the Ruwes ... Learned that Mrs. R's sister ... Virginia DeVoy was really being a faithful Nimrod. She stayed behind in the duck blinds though she .ont take gun in hand—just loves "the day in the country" ... all ...

Other sportswomen, swearing they were bound for shooting at Chatham, who next arrived at the woolen and china shop included Mrs. Harold L. Wadsworth, Mrs. Mickey Cochran and Mrs. C. Wallace Toles. They bought some dainties for the Christ Church Christmas Fair (Nov. 13) and some extra bone china tea cups and the odd pewter pitcher or two to take on their hunting trip.

Petitpoints: Mrs. Roy D. Chapin rewarded contributors to her favorite political party with bronze or silver earrings and pins which spell out "Ike" thereby raising $1,000 neatly ... Aforementioned Mrs. Ruwe wears an elephant done in brilliant with Ike spelled in baguettes as a bauble ... Mrs. Allan Sheldon, Mrs. Dean Robinson, Mrs. Jewett Dwyer pinning gold "Ike" lapel pins to their tailored suits ... Chic debutantes will wear Hawaiian leis of Vanda orchids to the Christmas parties. They can be ordered at the Christ Church Fair in November for delivery at the proper time ... Mrs. Abram Bodycombe has made 50 aprons to be sold at the same fair (halter affairs with dazzling appliques roses) ... and Mrs. Frank Boos is shooting for a round "75" custom made aprons as her contribution ...

SPEAKING OF POLITICS

John Galsworthy said, "Politicians are marvels of energy and principle when they're out of office, but when they get in, they simply run behind the machine."

Bert L. Taylor said,

"When quacks with pills political would dope us, When politics absorb the live long day, I like to think about the star Canopus, So far, so far away."

Charles Dudley Warner said,

"True it is that politics makes strange bedfellows."

Thoreau said,

"Politics—are but the cigar-smoke of a man."

H. G. Wells said,

"Democracy's ceremonial, its feast, its great function, is the election."

Aristotle said,

"And why man is a political animal in a greater measure than any bee or any gregarious animal is clear; For nature does nothing without purpose, and man alone of the animals possesses speech."

Charles Farrar Brown (Artemus Ward) said,

"I am not a politician, and my other habits are good."

Pointer of Interest

JAMES BLASHILL OF KENSINGTON ROAD

—Picture by Fred Runnells

The only professional teen age square dance caller in the United States is Pointer Jim Blashill who is 15 years old, red headed, blue-eyed and determined to earn his way through college by means of art.

By listening to records of other callers, Jim taught himself how to call for square dancers. He had natural rhythm and a good voice and though he's only been calling for a year, dancers young and old will tell you, "that boy makes the party!"

He was dressed in Western style the evening we went to see him and discuss the art of calling. The blue cowboy shirt, piped in white, was the work of his mother, Mrs. Blanche G. Blashill of Kensington road, who may have had a slight influence on this son of hers.

She and the late Dr. Blashill were devotees of square and round dancing. They organized their own little family and added some of the neighbors to make squares for dancing at home.

They danced to records then and Jim, to surprise his parents, mastered the calls of the record, "Manana". From there on in he became official caller for the family.

Daughters Joyce (now a freshman at Ypsi State Normal) and Ann, senior at Grosse Pointe High and even little sister, Mary, who's in the second grade and refers to herself as the "caboose" of the family, all love to square dance.

About three years ago, at the instigation of Forrest Geary, director of community services for the Pointe's Board of Education, Mrs. Blashill and Mrs. Charles Sharrer of Grayton road, organized square dance classes for children in the public schools.

Last year, Jim joined the classes as caller. This year, Mrs. Sharrer is conducting classes at Brownell Junior High and the Blashills are continuing with the "Belles and Bows", one night a week at Maire School. Advanced students meet one week with beginners taking over the second week, alternating this way for seven jolly lessons.

"walk throughs" showing the children the various dances and once they're ready to begin, Jim steps to the "mike" and gives forth with the calls that make their feet twinkle. Established callers Wes and Julia Rea and Mildred and Lee Brennan have taken him under their wings. They gave him his first chance to call for adult groups last Spring.

This led to meeting square dance "brass" and callers from all over the country who have encouraged him to go on with the engrossing hobby.

Sets and Orders, a square dancing magazine published in California and circulated nationally, has pointed out Jim in its columns as one of the fine callers in the country and of course hailed him as the only teen age caller.

He's met Fenton Jones, Ed Durlacher, Doc Allenbaugh, Herb Gregorson and Rickey Holden, all known nationally in square dancing circles. Rickey Holden has had perhaps the greatest influence on his calling and he'll never forget the older man's kindness in sharing with him techniques of directing dancers.

He remembers one moment of stage fright the first time he called for dancers outside of his home. It was for the Belles and Bows but the fright passed in a minute, in time for the next call to direct the little dancers who were probably so impressed with him they didn't notice the hesitation anyhow.

He likes to remember a dance he called for veterans at War Memorial Center, when a lanky soldier came up to him and said, "Say, I never danced a step in my life till tonight, and I'm sure enjoying it."

Jim always dresses in Western costume for his work. Mrs. Blashill not only makes his outfits, but fashions dancing wardrobes for her daughters and herself. She's also librarian at Detroit University School.

The teen age caller wears a black Stetson, loud shirts, black cowboy pants and black boots with fancy red and white tops. He obligingly played the music of "Manana" and called the dance for us. We can't believe he hasn't been at it for years.

At the moment our Pointer of Interest is getting over a sprained ankle, received in the early moments of his first football game as a reserve player for Grosse Pointe High.

It hasn't curtailed his dancing activities. He's going to call for two school square dances next month and at a church party as well.

He is his mother's partner in the Circle Eight and when he isn't square dancing, he likes to waltz.

But most of all Jim wants to be a doctor like his dad. He wants to earn his own way through college so he hopes the square dancers hereabouts will continue to like his calling.

Your vote is the guarantee that your government will be run right — use it Nov. 4.

Reflections

by paul gach

Halloween brings unrelated thoughts to my mind: There were masked parties and afterwards the traditional door to door begging. Remember "Help the poor" and then help the poor tike with the aching tummy. Why did some tightwad pass out the wormy apples and the stale candy? Also we pushed doorbells, tied a boiler tank on a streetcar, and a pea shooter was our favorite weapon. Then too, there were pumpkins faces, witches on brooms, black cats, bats a-wing, goodies to eat and ghosts a-plenty.

Today, all over the country each community has wonderful parties to keep the young folks happy and off the streets. Grosse Pointe has helped to pioneer this project for several years. How about giving your support? Send a contribution (any amount) to the Grosse Pointe Halloween Committee. I have always contributed, it has prevented a lot of destruction and vandalism at my studio every year.
