IN HIS FIRST policy speech to the UN General Assembly as the new United States chief delegate, Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., charged that Russia started the Red aggression in Korea and is continuing it, ostrich-like, with full aid to Communist Chinese and North Koreans. The Russians resented the reference to an ostrich, but will not make a detailed rebuttal until they study Lodge's speech.

PROF. ROBERT G. DAVIS of Smith College, Northampton, Mass., revealed the names of 21 persons he said were Reds while he was a Communist at Harvard 15 years ago. Included in the group he named were Dorothy Douglas, former wife of Senator Douglas (D, Ill.), and Katherine Lumping, called the leader of the cell by Davis. He has been fighting Communists since he left the party.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER announced willingness to meet with Russia's Stalin or any other world leader to further the cause of freedom. He said he would like to go half way to a meeting with Stalin if it would increase the chances of world peace and if the American people approved. However, he said he thought the only workable approach was through treaties with self-enforcing provisions like the right of inspection.

ERNEST WOLLWEBER, considered one of international Communism's most experienced directors of sabotage and espionage, arrived in West Germany, reportedly to conduct a conference to plan sabotage in the coal, iron and steel industries of the Schuman Plan nations. His orders are interpreted as proof of the extreme concern aroused in Moscow by the establishment of the European Coal and Steel Community.

THE MUTUAL SECURITY AGENCY, has moved to discourage certain Allied ships from trading with Red China and other Communist-dominated countries. The Agency, which handles foreign aid, said it is tightening its shipping regulations to prevent any Allied vessels which have hauling MSA-financed cargo to Formosa from profitably engaging in trade with the Reds.

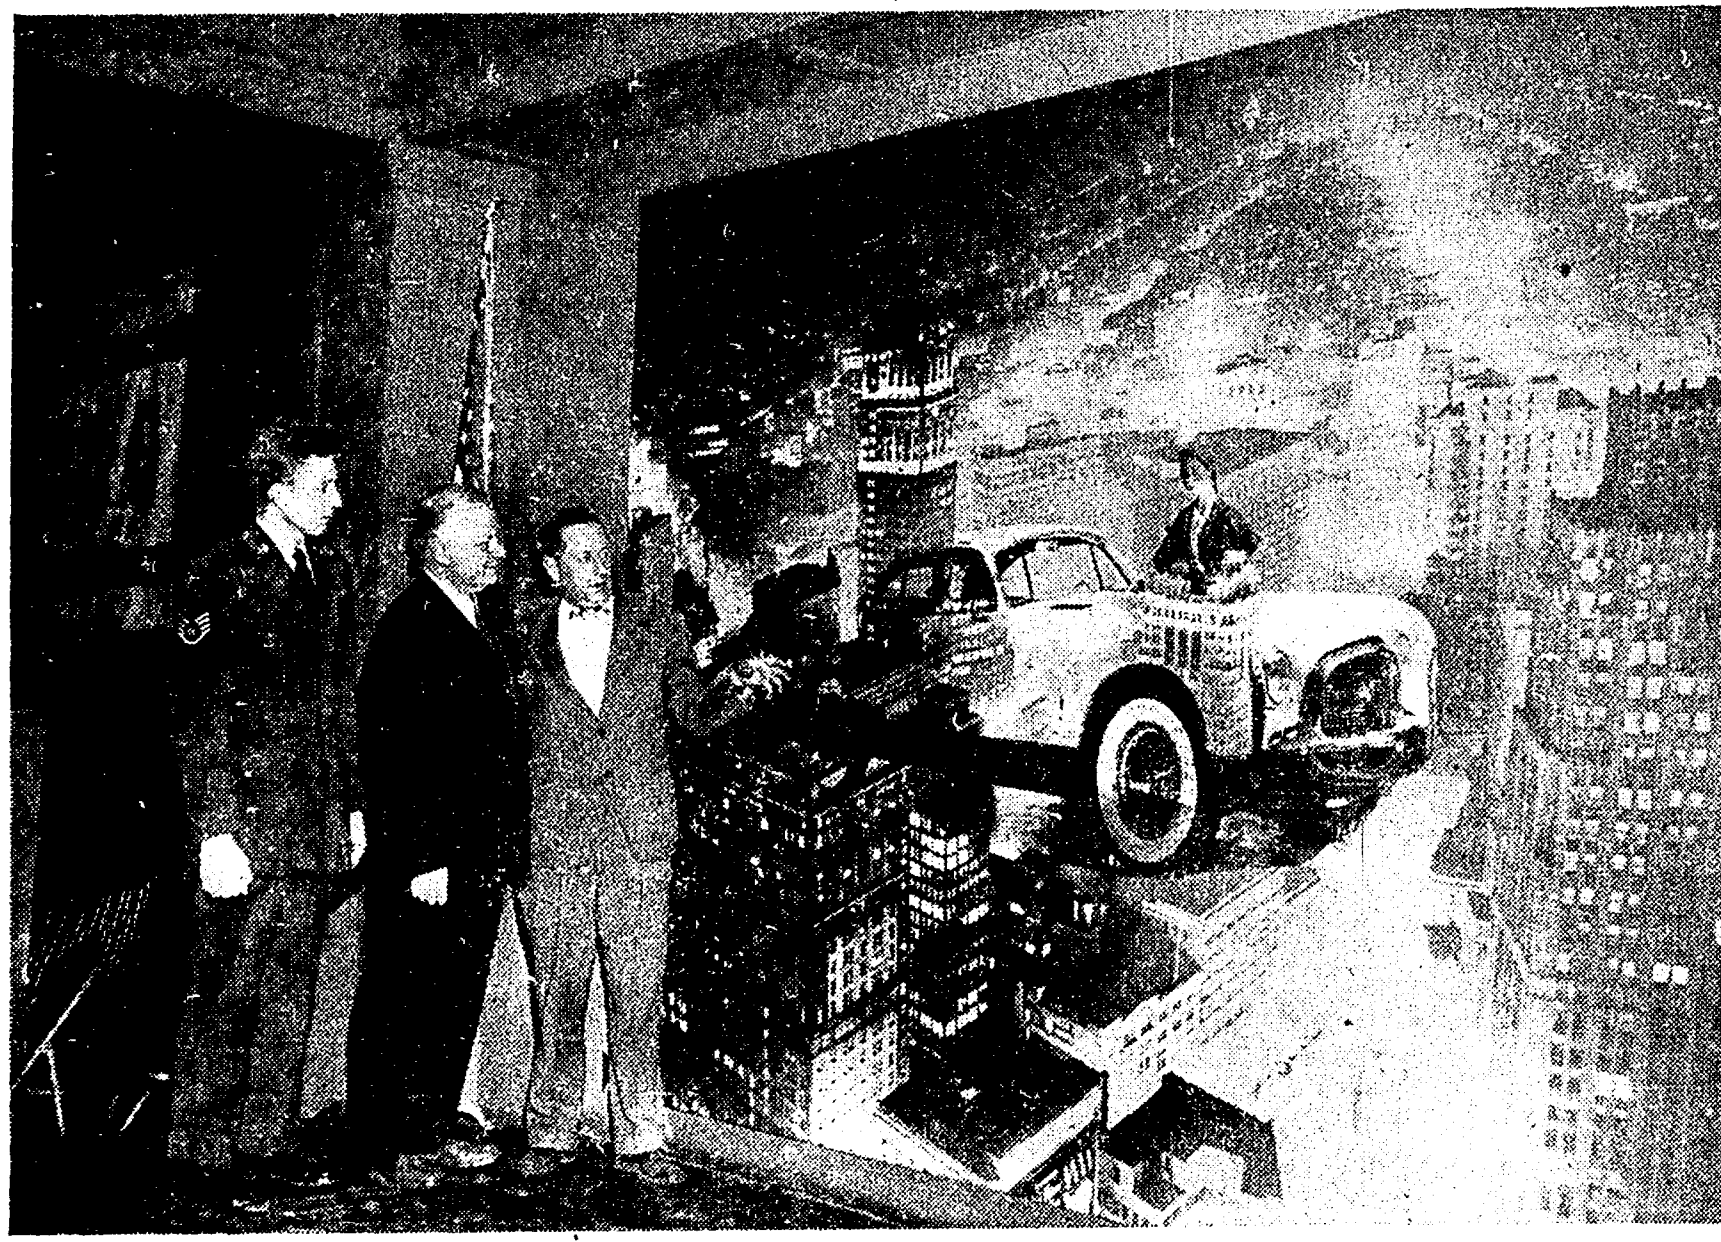

SECRETARY OF STATE John Foster Dulles, in open session, asked congressional Republicans not to attempt to harden President Eisenhower's proposed denunciation of Russian "perversion" of the Yalta and Potsdam agreement. He appealed for bipartisan unity in the name of the President, when it was revealed that several senators offered suggested amendments to the Eisenhower declaration.

ATTORNEY GENERAL Frank A. Biddle, after reviewing high court decisions and laws in other states, ruled that the Turnpike Bill is essentially constitutional. His opinion was that the turnpike must be classified as a "public road" which will clarify most of the other legal questions.

SENATOR WILLIAMS (R., Del.), charged that the Internal Revenue Bureau settled more than five million dollars worth of alcohol tax claims for about 10 cents on a dollar. He told Senate members the settlements were perfectly "ridiculous and unjustified." For more than a year he has been conducting a one-man war against practices in the tax collection system.

THE HOUSE TERRITORIES approved the Hawaii statehood bill, with 37 amendments. One amendment created "quite a subcommittee" among members of the committee, before it was passed by a 7-5 vote. It would give the President, rather than Congress, (Continued on Page 10)

Composting Plan Endorsed By Garden Center Directors

The board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center has passed a resolution which puts it on record "as favoring composting garbage rather than burning it. Adoption of the resolution on February 13 has just been revealed.

The action taken by the Garden Center leaders came in connection with the offer by private interests to erect a composting and incineration plant for the handling of all refuse from the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods area.

Many garden groups in the area are reported to be favoring the composting plan because of the valuable contribution to gardening which compost affords.

Pleasure Ride Ends in Near Tragedy as Car Hits Pole On Lakefront; Four Injured

Playful Child Distracts Mother at Wheel; Grandmother Badly Hurt Trying to Shield Her Grandson

Four persons were injured, two of them seriously, when the car in which they were driving crashed into a pole at 575 Lakeshore road, Friday, February 27.

Mrs. Dorothy Fisher, her two small children, Michele, 3, and Kenny Thomas, 19 months, and Mrs. William Dicks, of Three Oaks, were rushed to the Cottage Hospital by shore police ambulance within minutes after the accident occurred.

Farms Police Help Mrs. Dicks, sensing an impending crash, reached out to shield her grandson, still clinging to the seat. In protecting him from possible serious injuries as the car smashed into the pole, the impact slammed her head against the windshield, shattering the glass, and resulting in a head injury. It was necessary to remove glass particles before the stitches could be taken.

Fisher, who was summoned from work when the accident happened, said the extent of the injuries of his wife and mother would require at least a week of hospitalization.

The entire front end of the car, purchased new only six weeks previously, was demolished. The amount of damage was not determined.

Children Also Hurt Michele suffered slight cuts around the mouth and bruised legs. Her brother was badly shaken and received a bruising jump from a hard blow on the forehead. Both were released after a thorough examination disclosed no other injuries.

In an interview with Kenneth Fisher, husband of Dorothy, it was revealed that the victims had gone out for a pleasure drive. His

Some of the municipal representatives who are in the process of setting up an authority to handle the refuse problem, have stated they are opposed to the composting plan and feel the communities should go ahead with the complete incineration plan proposed after an engineering study was made.

Options have been obtained on two pieces of property in Macomb County which would be suitable for an incineration plant. The cost has been estimated at between $900,000 and $1,000,000. A bond issue would be needed.

It is understood the composting plan will be given a thorough airing before it is rejected or substituted for the present incineration plan.

Tuxis Club's Show Hailed As Best Ever

First Performance of Big Production to be Given Tonight in Parcels School

The Tuesday night dress rehearsal of the Tuxis Show, "Midwinter Madness," indicated that the performances tonight and Saturday will be the best presented in the club's five years of variety shows. The curtain goes up tonight at 8:15 at the new Parcels auditorium at Mack and Vernier.

This year's show has the largest number of dancing and vocal groups ever to be presented in these annual shows. Seven production numbers alone have been included. A chorus of 100 voices will be used in these numbers, as well as two orchestras, and nine dancing ensembles.

Hawaiian Number The opening scene in the show features a Hawaiian setting, created by Betty Sykes and her art committee. Hawaiian music and dancing will bring the tropics into Grosse Pointe.

Other production numbers will include a Western campfire setting, a college number, "Varsity Drag," a ballroom number and a Mexican street scene.

Under the supervision of Bobbi Williams, four groups of girls will show the development of modern dancing with the following dance routines: Samba, Charleston, Ball and Jack, and Cake Walk.

Other Special Acts Other special acts will include the "Ink Blots," a hillbilly routine, tap dancing, harmonica duets, and comedy routines.

Sandy Forsyth's orchestra will feature instrumental numbers and back up the entire show. Tom Saunders' "Jive Five" will be featured in the finale, a New Orleans cafe scene, complete with a floor show produced by Susie Slimon and a chorus line.

Valuable Experience Proceeds will be used for the club's benevolence fund, but the chief value of the show lies in the valuable experience gained by Grosse Pointe young people in planning, rehearsing, and producing shows of this sort.

Chet Sampson is directing the show, assisted by Ken Venderbush. The Tuxis Club is under the supervision of Mr. Paul Ketchum.

To Continue Battle Against Dutch Elm Disease This Year

Municipalities Agree to Contribute Again for Spraying of All Trees on Their Property; State to Increase Program

The battle against the spread of the dreaded Dutch Elm disease will be continued in the Pointe again this year. All of the local municipalities have already agreed to make another contribution towards the cost of carrying on the extensive campaign which was launched last year.

The Grosse Pointe Garden Council and the Grosse Pointe Property Owners' Association will again play leading roles in the battle.

State Makes Report A report has been received from C. A. Boyer, chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry of the Michigan Department of Agriculture, covering the work on Dutch Elm Disease Control for 1952. The state gave the area full cooperation last year in the fight against the spread of the disease.

Dutch Elm disease was first discovered in Michigan in 1950 and first infections were in the eastern Detroit-Grosse Pointe area. Nine diseased trees were found in the first year.

Disease Increases During 1951 a total of 74 diseased trees were found in the vicinity of Detroit. Fifteen of these were in the Pointe.

Last year the state bureau made an organized survey in all the Pointes and Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores and in some other communities in the Detroit metropolitan area. The Pointe municipalities all contributed towards having all trees on municipally owned property carefully sprayed and many private property owners joined in the campaign and had their own elms sprayed.

73 Cases in 1952 During the summer the state surveyed all of the estimated 34,474 elms in the Pointe-Harper Woods district. A total of 73 trees in this district were found infected with the Dutch Elm disease and were removed.

In a letter to Mrs. Harley G. Higbie, chairman of the Dutch Elm Disease Committee of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, Mr. Boyer says that the state is proposing to increase its program this year.

Look to State for Aid Additional staff employees have been requested and the bureau hopes the legislature will provide the necessary money for the intensified campaign.

Mr. Boyer suggests that local residents, and particularly garden club members, contact their state senator and representatives in Lansing and ask their cooperation.

Hits Two Parked Cars in Woods

Charles Vansteen of 18680 Mack was ticketed for reckless driving when his car struck two other cars parked at the curb, Saturday, February 28.

According to a report he gave to police, he was going south on Mack, near the Woods Theater, when a car pulled out in front of him, causing him to veer to the right and strike two other cars parked in front of the theater.

Driver of the car which pulled out in front of Vansteen was Sophia Sinkutch of 1984 Anita. She was ticketed as a witness.

Voters' Turnout in GP City Wins Livonia C. of C. Prize

In conjunction with the third anniversary of its city, the Livonia Chamber of Commerce presented the City of Grosse Pointe with an engraved plaque, at the Warren Valley Golf Club, Wednesday, February 25, for having the largest number of registered voters casting ballots during the November 4 presidential election.

According to Norbert Neff, city clerk, the figures, estimating the number of voters, were compiled by the Wayne County clerk's office, and showed better than 90 per cent of the city's voters had cast their ballots.

Because of pressing business, out of town, Mayor Ralph B. Neff was unable to attend the birthday dinner and nominated Neff to go in his place. Unable to make it himself, the city clerk sent Edmund G. West, chairman of the election board, to accept the honor.

Mayor Netting gave credit to the city clerk and other patriotic citizens for the showing made at the election.

Package Deal Plan Changed At Meeting

Voters Given Opportunity To Accept or Reject Any Of Proposals

At least 40 persons, representing the various P-TA groups in the Grosse Pointe School District, met with Board of Education officials last Thursday night to discuss the problems of needed school space and the means of asking voters for a tax increase to finance necessary expansion.

A method of presenting a tax increase request to the Grosse Pointe voters at the coming special election, April 21, met with favorable reaction by those present at the meeting, as did a proposal that the issues involved be handed to residents as separate items rather than as a package deal.

Groups Organize Taking into consideration the length of time remaining before the election will take place, the P-TA groups organized "The Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools," formed to publicize benefits to be gained from the expansion of school facilities and to explain how a tax millage increase is vital to the program.

J. L. Newberry, president of the Dads Club of Grosse High School, was elected chairman and Charles Zentgraf, president of Vernier School P-TA, was made co-chairman.

Face Acute Shortage A point to be stressed to residents of the School District is that by next year, shortage of school rooms will be acute. This is attributed to the number of small children who will have reached school age in the Pointe communities, and children of new residents coming into this rapidly growing area.

Originally it was decided that a $2,500,000 bond issue and the program expansion be submitted to the voters in a package deal. At last Thursday's meeting, the decision was to submit the issues as separate items, so that if one issue is defeated, the others may have a chance of being passed.

Want Two Increases Residents of the school district will be asked to approve two separate tax increases, one for a one mill tax increase and another for a one and three-quarter mills increase. The one and three-quarter mills would raise $1.75 per $1,000 of assessed property valuation, and would be used to finance the building program. The additional mill would bring the total to $2.75 per $1,000 of assessed valuation, and would go towards paying teachers salaries, maintenance of property and other essentials.

The one and three-quarters mills needed to finance a $2,500,000 bond issue to carry out the building plans and expansions, would be retired within 20 years; the one mill would be added to and retired with a two mill tax already voted for in 1950, and scheduled to terminate in 1955.

Other Proposed Items Besides the bond issue, which will await the decision of the people, the following will be presented as separate items, rather than as a package deal: (1) to construct and equip an elementary school on the site owned by the Board of Education on Roslyn road, (2) to construct and equip an auditorium-gymnasium adjacent to the Grosse Pointe High School; and (3) to acquire lands and property of the Grosse Pointe Country Day School to be used as a site for the auditorium-gymnasium and other school facilities.

Country Day School officials agreed to grant the Board of Education an option on the purchase of their property. The price has been established at $716,000, by the Detroit Real Estate Board, called in as a disinterested party.

SPRING APPROACHING Highlight of the blustery month of March will be the official opening of spring, scheduled to take place March 20. The event will occur at 5:01 p.m., when the sun crosses the equator on its journey toward the north. This will be six hours later than last year, because of the uneven number of days this year. There will be 365.2422 days in 1953.

Since 1949 the Society has sponsored meetings at which expectant couples could deal with present problems and future hopes. Each series has consisted of seven meetings; the speakers have been leading medical men in obstetrics, pediatrics and psychiatry.

Nurses have discussed hospital routines and bathing of babies. Experienced discussion leaders have given a chance for the audience to deal with any questions they might have.

The Grosse Pointe branch of the program will be held on Monday evenings, beginning April 6, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association. It is open to residents of eastern Detroit and all the eastern suburbs. It is co-sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, the Cottage Hospital, the Motion Picture Council and several parents' groups.

The leader will be Mrs. Ruth V. Flom of the Grosse Pointe High School. Attendance will be limited to 100 persons and the cost will be $2 per couple for the entire seven meetings.

The downtown Detroit program will be held at the Red Cross Building, 153 East Elizabeth street, on Tuesday evenings beginning April 21.

Leads Field

The Prudential Insurance Company of America has announced that ALBERT P. FIORELLO, staff manager in the Van Dyke District located at 7536 East Seven Mile road, has finished first in the Region, which comprises Michigan and Indiana, for the third consecutive year.

Fiorello, who with his staff has been credited with selling paid for new business totaling over $6,000,000, has been re-appointed for the third successive year to the District Agencies Field Management Advisory Committee of the Eastern Home Office, as a reward for his insurance sales leadership. His staff rated 11th in the company's standings of 2,800 staffs in the United States and Canada.

Mr. Fiorello, who lives at 1725 Manchester boulevard, Grosse Pointe Woods, served four years in the Navy. He joined Prudential in December of 1945, and in 1947 he led the entire company, with over 18,000 agents, with more than a million dollars to his credit.

He is a member of the Gowan Golf Club in Mt. Clemens, Mich., and has a three handicap in the Detroit Golf Association. He has held the Italian Golf Championship since 1941, and has a hole-in-one to his credit.

Big Bottle Buyer Eyes Fruit Belt

Stewart N. Jones, who has bought millions of dollars worth of bottles, packages and other materials used by Parke, Davis and Company in the past 40 years, will retire as the pharmaceutical firm's purchasing agent March 1.

Literally billions of individual containers for medicines made by Parke-Davis have been shipped to virtually every spot on the globe since Jones came to work in June, 1912.

A native of Chilton, Wis., Jones became a junior buyer for the purchasing department in 1917; senior buyer in 1920; assistant purchasing agent in 1939; and purchasing agent in 1951.

Now 65, Jones still has some buying to do.

He and his wife plan to close their home in Grosse Pointe Park this week-end, store their furniture and search for a place in the fruit belt on the West side of Florida North of Tampa. They plan to go South by way of Wisconsin, where they will visit friends. After mid-March, their temporary address will be General Delivery, Dade City, Fla.

Course Designed to Help Administer Building Code

A six-weeks, in service course in the administration of building regulations, under the auspices of the Building Official Conference of Michigan and the Wayne University Department of Public Administration, is being held at Redford High School, room 304, Grand River and Six Mile.

Herbert H. Heger, head of the Grosse Pointe Park Public Service Department, is chairman of the movement designed to create a national uniform building code. He is also president of the Conference of the State of Michigan.

Attending the first session were: Herbert Heger, Charles Colombo, and Cyril Korte of the Park; Sidney DeBoer of the Farms; Marvin Beatty of the City; and Earl Wakely of the Woods. More Grosse Pointe officials unable to attend last week will do so tonight.

"We are hoping," said Heger, "to establish the start of a national uniform building code. For example, if building specifications were the same all over the country, material shipped to Michigan from Ohio would go into the building of homes and business places with a minimum loss of time and bother."

The course is open to municipal officials and those interested in the administration of building regulations, and will be compiled of material prepared by Professor Spencer D. Parratt of Syracuse University through the resources of the Housing and Home Finance Agency.

The committee for the in-service course includes, besides Heger, Joseph Wolff, commissioner of Detroit; Joseph Meyer of Lincoln Park; Michael Boyle of Dearborn; and John Ryan of Pontiac, all of who recognized the importance of a national standard code.

Among the topics to be considered throughout the course

Bottle Smashes Car Windshield

Donald E. Schwan, of 1930 Country Club, wishes that people would dispose of their beer bottles elsewhere than through the windshield of his car.

Schwan reported to Woods police Sunday, March 1, that he had parked his car alongside his home on Jackson avenue, late in the day, and left the vicinity. When he returned about 3 a.m., he noticed his right front windshield was broken.

Indignant, the owner investigated and found broken beer bottle glass mingled with that of the windshield. He surmised that it must have been thrown by someone in a passing car. Damage was estimated at $20, which will be taken care of by his insurance company.

ASKS POLICE PROTECTION
Mrs. G. Woods of 306 Stephens, reported to police that a man who said he was an insurance salesman, attempted to annoy her, Friday, February 27. She requested police aid to prevent a repetition of the incident. Her husband was out of town at the time.

Pointe Theater Rehearsing Play

Grosse Pointe Community Theatre's production of "The Curious Savage" by John Patrick, which was presented at Pierce Auditorium early last month as a benefit for the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, netted a profit of $200, which was presented to John K. Roney, president of the War Memorial on February 21.

This second production of the community theatre played to a near capacity house, which greatly enjoyed the hilarious comedy.

The third production of the season is already in rehearsal. "Death Takes a Holiday", by Alberta Casella, English translation by Walter Ferris, will be presented on Friday, March 27, at Pierce Auditorium and will be a benefit for "The Grosse Pointe Community Theatre".

Blood Giving—A Tonic For Health And Heart . . .

Donors to the Red Cross Blood Bank are usually doubly blessed. For those who have not given blood during the last year, and are well and strong, the blood-giving is usually a healthy procedure.

But most important is the knowledge of the aiding a good cause. As a donor you are probably participating in the saving of a soldier's life, or restoring an accident victim to health.

Elaborate Displays Slated For Annual Flower Show

There will be plenty of entertainment for the young and old alike at the Michigan Flower and Garden Exhibition being held in the Coliseum and Agricultural Buildings at the Michigan State Fair Grounds from March 21-29.

The Chrysler Corporation exhibit, which will cover the Agricultural Building and the Annex, is entitled "The Chrysler Gardens of Fairyland".

It will have a special appeal to the youngsters as these gardens will portray the adventures of such famous characters as "Humpty Dumpty", "Little Boy Blue", "Woman in The Shoe", "Jolly Miller", "House That Jack Built", "Peter Rabbit", "The Three Little Pigs", "Sleeping Beauty", "Mary, Mary Quite Contrary", "Jack And The Beanstalk", "Peter Pumpkin-Eater", and Hansel and Gretel". The famous Rose Medgets will be used to put life into these gardens.

There also will be a beautiful rose garden which will feature the Chrysler Imperial Rose, a great Crimson rose which won the 1952 All-American Rose Selection Organization award.

This year's Detroit Flower Show will be of greater interest to the women than ever before. The Detroit Garden Center, which has the flower arrangements section, will be allocated considerable more space for its exhibit "On the Avenue". In addition there will be a feature display of "Table Fashions of 1953" by Helen Chamberlin of Seattle, Washington, a well-known authority on "top-of-the-table" decor.

Probably of greatest interest to the average home-owner will be the exhibit of the Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation. It will be a model of a city garden that can be altered to fit any type of size lot. A plan on how and what to plant and the landscaping suggestion will be furnished all who are interested.

The central portion of the Coliseum will be devoted to beautiful estate gardens furnished by Mrs. John S. Newberry and Mrs. Edgar B. Whitcomb, both of Grosse Pointe, and to contemporary gardens laid out by nurseries.

A Spanish patio garden devoted to African violets will include the latest and finest new hybrids. The Mt. Clemens Rose Growers will be represented again this year with a mammoth rose display of thousands of blooms.

The retail florists are scheduled to have 35 different flower arrangements in shadow boxes in their "Florists Art Gallery".

Other exhibitors will include the Audubon Society, who will show birds and wildlife in their natural habitat. The Detroit Cactus Society will have a cactus garden and the Michigan Botanical Club, who will show a garden devoted to wild flowers.

Ed and Ann Boyes will have their birds singing on tape recordings in various gardens throughout the show. This feature stirred considerable interest last year.

The Flower Show will cover over 108,000 square feet this year in the Coliseum, the Agricultural Building and the Annex.

According to Werner M. Hey, general manager, pre-sale tickets at reduced rates are now available to the public through Garden Club members and the leading florists throughout Metropolitan Detroit.

Gust A. Hofmann On Retired List

Gust A. Hofmann, who as superintendent of the largest private printing plant in the country has seen his printed material go into the hands of every physician in the world, retired today after more than 50 years with Parke, Davis & Company.

Several billion pieces of Parke-Davis printed matter, including booklets, labels and four-color brochures, have passed through the department since Hofmann began work as a "temporary employe" on January 25, 1902.

Hofmann, who will be 66 on March 14, was born in Detroit about a mile from his present office.

He first planned to become a machinist, but after high school took a "temporary" position in the Parke-Davis bindery department until he could find an opening for an apprentice machinist. Seven years later, he was promoted to bindery foreman.

Hofmann plans a leisurely southern vacation with his wife before returning to their home, 829 Trombley road, Grosse Pointe Park.

Mrs. Salome Chiera, Pointe's Oldest Resident, Dies at 103

Mrs. Salome Chiera, whose memory went back to the difficult days of the Civil War and who remembers when Indians used to cross Lake St. Clair to trade, died at her home, 832 Notre Dame, Saturday, February 28, at the age of 103.

Believed to be the oldest Pointe resident, she died only a few miles from where she was born in a log cabin. Throughout the more than a century of her life, she had made 26 trips to Europe and once toured around the world.

Mrs. Chiera, descendant of

pioneer French ancestors, was born to Claude and Angeline Ellair Fresard on October 24, 1849. She was married while very young, to the late Gabriel Chiera, who shared her French background and who was sufficiently successful for them to enjoy a life of ease. He was the first to start a steam laundry in the Detroit area and was owner of the Oriental Hotel, later renamed the Spa.

Their only child, William J., was killed in an automobile accident in 1909. He was survived by his daughter, Mrs. Louis Charvat, through whom Mrs. Chiera became a great-grandmother.

Her descendants include Mrs. Virginia Manardo and Louis W. and Robert V. Charvat, great-grandchildren; and four great-grandchildren, Richard and Thomas Manardo and Linda, Sally Lou and William Charvat. Mrs. Chiera celebrated her 99th and 100th birthdays with elaborate parties at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, but later celebrations were family dinners at home.

Life was never boring to Mrs. Chiera, notwithstanding her age. She occupied her time with sewing, cooking, listening to the radio and reading. She didn't watch television because she considered it hard on her eyes.

She was blessed with excellent health throughout her life almost to the end. She had been ill for only a short time at the time of her death.

Services were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday at the Verheyden Funeral Home. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

OCD Offering Medical Talks

Mrs. Verna Crowley of Fisher road, nurse coordinator of Grosse Pointe for the Civil Defense Planning and Policy Committee of Wayne County announces that a series of lectures for medical personnel will be held in Herman Keifer Hospital, each Wednesday evening from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. First lecture was held on February 18, and will continue through March 18.

Lost Key Proves Key to Mystery

Suspecting his house had been visited by burglars, George Miller of 577 St. Clair, summoned police to investigate, Thursday, February 26.

Patrolmen John Onstwedder and Julius Deraedt found that several drawers had been opened in a bureau downstairs, and their contents scattered about.

Further investigation revealed that Miller's father, who had lost his car keys, had come home and made a search for an extra set believed to have been in the bureau drawers.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Traffic violators felt the wrath of the Park Municipal Court when they were assessed $182 in fines by Judge C. Joseph Belanger, Wednesday, February 25.

Andrew E. Polonovnik of 22213 Benjamin, St. Clair Shores, convicted of violating the Drunk Motor Law on February 22, was fined $100 and given 90 days in jail. In addition his license was revoked for a year.

Leo Wiggins of 77 Bryden, was fined $15 for reckless driving and causing an accident at 17020 Mack, on December 23. A similar fine on a like charge was placed against Sanford C. Carlton of 2352 Highland, who caused an accident at Audubon and Jefferson, January 13.

For speeding on Charlevoix, Frederick W. Hughes of 16837 E. Jefferson, paid a fine of $23; for the same type of offense, which occurred on St. Paul; John J. Ban of 22616 O'Connor, St. Clair Shores, was fined $11.

Thomas H. Ensor of 2928 Newport, Detroit, was assessed a fine of $10, for passing in a no-passing zone and against the signal light.

For failure to heed signs at stop street intersections, Jay L. Smith of 23821 Lexington, paid $6; Nicholas Brady of 3882 of Three drive, was charged $15; Nola P. Stewart of 1052 Lakepointe, $7.

Nathaniel Griffin of 5445 Twenty Eighth street, Detroit, charged with causing an accident at Maumee and Harvard, was dismissed.

Persistent Thief Good Track Man

Several attempts to break into the home of R. W. Eccles of 1708 Lochmoor, were reported to police, on Sunday, March 1.

Eccles and his wife were returning home from downtown Detroit early in the evening. As they approached their house, they saw a man run from the rear door. Police were not notified.

That same evening, as Mr. and his wife were looking at television they hear a noise at the door and when they went to investigate, a man fled from the place. This time police were informed.

Another good intelligence test is easy credit.

Final Symphony Next Thursday

Final concert of the current music season will be presented by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday, March 12, at 8:30 p.m. in the Masonic Auditorium. Paul Paray will be on the podium.

The program will include a repeat performance by popular request of Ravel's "Bolero." Also included are Tchaikovsky's Symphony No. 6 in B minor, the "Pathétique;" Rimsky-Korsakov's Russian Easter Overture; Borodin's "In the Steppes of Central Asia;" and Beethoven's Overture to "Fidelio."

In this second year since the Detroit Symphony was reorganized it has been acclaimed by Leopold Stokowski as "One of the world's greatest orchestras," scheduled a month-long tour next year of the major music centers of the east, recorded extensively for Mercury Classics with release dates set for fall, and been acclaimed locally for its great cultural influence.

The program, designed to please the younger set and their parents, will include the Polonaise from Tchaikovsky's opera "Eugene Onegin," the Salterello from Mendelssohn's "Italian Symphony," the Gypsy Dance and the Gigue from Saint-Saens' opera "Henry VIII," Dvorak's Slavonic Dance No. 10, de Falla's Dance from "La Vida Breve," and Weinberger's Polka and Fugue from "Schwanda der Dudelsackpfeifer."

Arthur Treacher To Give Reading

Arthur Treacher, famous character actor of movies, stage, and television will give a group of humorous readings at Detroit Town Hall, Wednesday morning, March 11, in Fisher Theater. The veteran British star will speak at 11 o'clock on "A Little of This, a Little of That."

Millions of movie-goers have chuckled at Treacher's inimitable portrayal of P. G. Wodehouse's immortal character, "Jeeves." Much to his dismay the versatile actor found himself playing again and again the role of the gentleman's gentleman. This did not, however, prevent him from winning glowing notices for his film support of Shirley Temple, Jeannette MacDonald, Joan Crawford, Robert Montgomery and others. Treacher returned to Broadway to play opposite Ethel Meriman in "Panama Hattie." He was also featured in the New York productions of Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra," and "Getting Married."

Garden Leaders Holding Meeting

The first week in March, when all garden enthusiasts mull over the new seed catalogues dreaming of stunning, fresh flower borders in June, is just the right time for a consultation of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center board of directors with presidents of all the Pointe garden clubs and those who represent them in working for the Trial Gardens at the War Memorial.

These two groups will meet for tea at the Memorial Center on Friday, March 6, at 3:30 p.m.

Pointers have heard and seen the results of the sort of experimental work done in the Grosse Pointe Garden Center's Trial Gardens, which are located at one side of the lake-front terrace at the War Memorial Center.

Here various types of bulbs and many sorts of flowers are grown with the most approved methods of planting so that visitors may observe and copy ideas in their own home gardens. These gardens serve the dual purpose of educating, and beautifying another section of those gardens which were originally designed by the late Ellen Shipman for the Russell Alger family.

The Garden Center's aim is to keep this particular experimental section practical and useful. Friday afternoon Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson will lead a discussion on what the Garden Center can do for the garden clubs and what the clubs can do for the Center. Consideration will be given to ideas of what both groups can do to help new home owners with their garden problems.

Club Will Hear Talk by Artist

The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. Cornelius Gabler, Mrs. Carleton Healy and Mrs. Howard Smith.

Mrs. Sober's theme will be, "The Drama of Pictures in Color and Art." She will discuss informally the best way to look at a painting directed toward a better understanding of the artist's meaning in line, color and form.

She will discuss the value of pictures as a decorating accessory and will use originals and reproductions as a means of illustrations. Mrs. Sober will conclude her program by encouraging questions from her listeners.

Mrs. Sober studied at the Yale School of Fine Arts in Conn. and Wellesley College where she majored in the History of art. She then attended Wayne University and was graduated with a masters degree. There she later instructed in drawing, basic design and fine arts.

She has lectured on art before women's clubs and schools groups, appeared on radio and television. Her many art activities include doing portraits of children in

This St. Patrick's Day a couple of brides-elect are going to give a Turn-About party . . .

It'll be the Case of The Brides-Elect feting their friends. And it is the happy thought of Penny Kemp (who'll marry Doug Donald, Jr., on April 11) and Lee MacMahon (who's engaged to Dick Adams) . . .

"Everyone has been so lovely to us we thought the time had arrived to give a party for our friends," said the tulle and orange blossom girls . . .

The guest list will comprise Penny and Lee's school friends from Country Day . . . and Wellesley . . .

Parties for Penny

This Saturday Mrs. Fred A. Hughes and daughter, Peggy, are giving a luncheon in their Trombley road home . . . Mrs. Samuel E. Cutler is planning a kitchen shower later in the month . . . and Mrs. Sidney T. Miller III, who'll come on from New Haven, Conn., to be in the wedding party, has issued invitations for the April 9 spinster dinner . . .

Doug's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Douglas Donald will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner April 10 in the Country Club and the Henry Kuhlmanns and the William McKinleys will be hosts at a breakfast in the Country Club the day of the wedding for members of the wedding party and out-of-town guests . . .

Cholly Knickerbocker

Now if you have kept a faithful file, Whoozit, of the feature page, tells us that two whole years ago she printed an item about Gloria Swanson and a handsome ex-Pointer having altar plans . . .

The ex-Pointer was, of course, Lewis Bredin . . . but Cholly Knickerbocker (Igor Cassini) couldn't give us any further details when we heard him at Detroit Town Hall last week . . . in fact he was frank to admit he had first heard of the romance in that very morning's newspapers . . .

Igor is an attractive young man . . . much more comfortable behind his typewriter than on the speaker's platform, which is as it should be . . . and he can speak worlds with the twinkle of his eye . . .

That ladies are as interested in society today . . . as they were in grandmamma's day . . . was plain to see . . . for there was standing room only at Town Hall . . . and questions went on for hours at the luncheon which followed . . .

Their Vows Spoken At Double Ceremony

St. James Lutheran Church Ceremony Unites Marion Deckert and Cyril M. Tyler Jr.; Faith Smith and Donald O. Remter; Share Reception in The Whittier

Two couples were married last Saturday afternoon at a double ceremony in St. James Lutheran Church. The Rev. George Kurz officiated at the nuptials which were followed by a reception in the Pomeian Room of the Whittier.

Marion Deckert, daughter of Mrs. William Deckert of Lochmoor boulevard and the late Mr. Deckert, became the bride of Cyril M. Tyler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Tyler of Huntington Woods and Faith Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Smith of Cadillac, Mich., spoke her vows with Donald O. Remter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Remter of Bishop road.

The brides have been friends for ten years, trained together as nurses at Grace Hospital. Their bridegrooms both graduated from the University of Michigan and share the occupation of chemical engineers. To continue the "double" story, the two couples will live half a block apart on Aline drive in Grosse Pointe Woods.

For their weddings, Marion and Faith wore taffeta gowns of white taffeta fashioned with slightly sweeping full skirts. The fitted bodices had off-shoulder effect formed by froth of imported lace with silk illusion filling the neckline. Sleeves of the frock were short and the brides wore taffeta gauntlets.

Their gathered tulle bonnets, finished with tiny lace flowers each centered with a seed pearl, held elbow lengths bridal veils of imported silk illusion and they carried cascade bouquets of white callias and hyacinth blossoms. Also dressed alike were the bridal attendants. Their frocks were waltz length aqua taffeta and tiaras in matching velvet briefly veiled in the same tone. They carried bouquets of yellow

Lois McKinley Bride Of George Carruthers

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond McKinley Weds Son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Carruthers, Windsor, Ont., Will Live on Grand Marais Boulevard

Duchess lace and ivory were combined in the beautiful bridal robes of Lois Ann McKinley last Saturday when she became the bride of George Bartlett Carruthers.

The wedding took place at 4 o'clock in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Raymond McKinley of Colonial road.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Carruthers of Windsor, Ont.

Lois' wedding gown was fashioned with moulded bodice, duchesse lace outlining the deep portrait neckline which was embroidered in tiny seed pearls.

The satin skirt swept into a cathedral train. Forming soft cloche effect was the lovely wedding veil of antique Brussels lace which extended the length of the ivory train. She carried a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and ivy.

Five bridesmaids and a flower girl preceded the bride to the altar. The maids were in sea green shantung taffeta with opera length full skirts and halter necklines. Boleros, trimmed in bands of matching lace, covered the bodices in church and the girls' bouquets were of shattered yellow carnations.

Mrs. William E. Underdown was matron of honor and the maids included Janet Ellen Hughes of East Lansing, Mrs. Walter A. Albrecht, Mrs. Bruce

D. Carey and Mrs. John C. Bradley.

Flower girl, Mary Christa McKinley, was dressed in yellow organza for her aunt's wedding and she carried a tiny bouquet of yellow daisies.

George asked his brother, Gordon Carruthers, to be his best man and the guests were seated by Paul E. Morgan, George E. White of Windsor, Charles Richard McKinley, John Raymond McKinley Jr., the last two brothers of the bride.

Mrs. McKinley attended her daughter's wedding in a gown of cocoa toned chiffon and Chantilly lace. Her corsage was of green orchids.

The bridegroom's mother affected pastel aquamarine chiffon and lace and her flowers were sweetheart roses and violets.

The young Carruthers left for a wedding trip to Fort Lauderdale, Fla. When they return they will live in an apartment on Grand Marais boulevard.

The bride's going away costume was a mist blue wool suit with beige and coffee accessories.

Square Dance Crowd Will Go International

Unitarian Church Square Dancers to be Entertained by Czech, English and German Folk Dancers Saturday Evening in Gym of Montith School on Cook Road

There are just two more sessions of the immensely popular Square Dances sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church.

And because these parties have proved such an attraction, the next two have had to be moved to a larger dance hall so this Saturday evening, March 7, dancing will be held in the gymnasium of Montith School on Cook road.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl J. Klinge are chairman of the committee planning the Square Dances and Saturday's meeting is to have an international theme.

The Klinges are active at International Institute and have invited some of its members to do two sets of European square type folk dances at intermission time.

There will be Czech, German and English dances, in native costume, with a round dance or polka as well.

These are the square dances, you know, especially designed to fascinate "old hands" at this type of dancing. There are no lessons during the evening, just solid dancing with Wes and Julie Reed doing the calling.

Among Pointe couples who have been regulars at the Unitarian parties have been Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Welbon, Mr. and Mrs. Frank McDonald, Dr. and Mrs. H. E. Rinefort, Mr. and Mrs. C. Bruce Warren, Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Geib.

Burglars Flee as Woman Battles Them in Her Yard

A courageous Woods woman battled two robbers she surprised in her home, Monday, March 2. Mrs. Ruth Walters, 34, 611 Roslyn, left her home at 12:30 p.m. to go shopping and returned about an hour later. She put her car in the garage and entered her home through a side door, and descended into the basement with some parcels.

She heard noises from the upstairs, but paid no attention. Then she heard footsteps and went up to investigate. Peeking from the kitchen, she saw two strange men in the bedroom across from the living room.

"They came at me," said Mrs. Walters, "and I ran as fast as I could, screaming out the side door and through the garage. One of them caught me in front of the garage."

The intruder grabbed her by the arm and said, "Come back in, lady, we're friends of your husband. He's in there." She fought free and ran to a neighbor's house across the street to call police.

In the meantime, the other invader ran towards a car parked at the curb, and drove it rapidly in reverse for about a half a block. Police believe this was a trick to prevent anyone from glimpsing the license number of the car. The man who grabbed Mrs. Walters took after the car and got in, and then both fled.

At first it was believed that nothing was taken from the house, but after a check was made, it was discovered that between $450 and $500 worth of jewelry was taken, including two rings valued at $100 and $200, and a $75 watch. The burglars also took 10 rolls of pennies, totaling $5.

An unopened piggy bank, believed to have been discarded by the invaders, was found on the living room couch. It belonged to the Walters' son, Dennis, 8, and was taken from his bedroom.

People used to hoard their dollars, but nowadays they are hoarding neither their dollars, nor their opinions.

Cub Scout Pack Plays Host to Fathers at Dinner

CUB SCOUT 290's Father and Son dinner at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on February 24 was attended by 170 enthusiastic members of the pack and their male parents. A mothers' committee is credited with a great deal of the success of the dinner, but the members were too busy to get into the picture.

Proposed School Bond Issue Endorsed by Woods Council

Drive Launched By Red Cross

Nearly 1,000 men and women, all volunteers, have begun a month-long canvas of the city and county residential areas in quest of funds to round out the Detroit Red Cross Chapter's budget of $1,992,000 for the next fiscal year.

The major part of this money was raised in the Torch drive last fall. The chapter needs $396,000 more to finance its services, including $200,000 recently added to defray the cost of collecting blood for gamma globulin, to be used in preventing or modifying the crippling effects of polio.

"Because thousands of families are enrolled in Red Cross through their gifts to United Foundation our volunteers face a difficult task," said William E. Essery, campaign chairman. "The volunteers know we have given them a tough assignment, but that seems to make them all the more determined to find those who haven't contributed and give them an opportunity to do their part."

"Our program is now so extensive that hardly anyone can fail to be interested. Already the National Red Cross has turned over to the Federal government enough gamma globulin for a quarter million polio shots, and this is being distributed to the health departments of the various states for use as needed.

"Our regional blood center and 45 similar centers in the United States are making regular shipments of blood to processing centers, which are working round the clock to produce this precious serum.

"Every home is a potential beneficiary of this program, for no one knows where polio will strike. When people fully understand what our program means to the children they will surely want to get behind it with both their blood and money."

Campaign headquarters have been established in the Red Cross building, 153 E. Elizabeth. Many more volunteers are needed to pick up Red Cross gifts in their own neighborhoods. Those willing to help may enroll by calling WO. 1-3900.

MSC Children's Theater Coming

This will be the first time these players have appeared in the Pointe, although it is the sixth year they have been touring Michigan. They are being sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Branch of A.A.U.W. as a community service project.

Tickets are 60 cents and are still available at Fromm's Hardware Store, Punch and Judy Toyland, and the Grosse Pointe Woods Book Shop. They may also be obtained from Mrs. Alfred Taylor, TU. 2-4448, and Mrs. Robert Clarke, TU. 1-7318.

A/3c Gerald Heckendorn Set to Leave for Korea

A/3c Gerald (Jerry) Heckendorn, 18, son of Woods Councilman and Mrs. George Henkendorn of 1010 Roslyn road, is due at Stoneman Field, Calif., preparatory to his leaving for Korea, it was revealed by his parents.

Jerry enlisted in the Air Force, July 28, 1952, for four years. He received his basic technical training at Lowry Air Base, Denver, Colorado. He will soon receive two more stripes.

He attended Vernier, St. Joan of Arc and St. Paul High Schools before entering the service.

His father made it known that Jerry sang with the Ralph Flannigan Orchestra, while he was in basic training. The orchestra was touring service camps to entertain the men of the armed forces.

In civilian life, the young soldier was in much demand for dances, high school dances and other festive occasions, because of his fine baritone voice.

Bill Wilson, who along with his teammate, John Candella, tied for runner-up scoring honors with 10 points each, threw the game into its first overtime when he popped in a basket in the last 10 seconds of the regulation time to tie the score at 54-54.

Diesels Suffer Their First Defeat in Church Loop Race

The Grosse Pointe Inter-Church League basketball fans will long talk about the surprising 32 to 29 upset defeat handed the previously undefeated Grosse Pointe Memorial Diesel quintet by an aroused Woods Presbyterian team Saturday, February 28, at Grosse Pointe High.

All season long the Diesels had run roughshod over all their opponents and appeared to be a lead pipe cinch to capture the season championship. Maybe it was a case of over confidence or maybe it was just in the cards that the Diesels were supposed to lose. In either case the sparkling second half play by the Woods Presbyterian quintet fashioned the Diesel's initial loss.

Off to Slow Start
Both teams got off to slow starts but the contest rapidly picked up in tempo with Memorial charging into a 21 to 13 halftime advantage. Many of the fans figured Memorial was on its way to another league victory but early in the third quarter they soon changed their minds when the Presbyterian quintet, paced by Ken McDonald and Bob McQueen, caught fire. Before the Diesels knew what had hit them the Woods quintet was out in front 24 to 21 as valuable minutes ticked off the clock.

Early in the final quarter Memorial rallied and moved into a 29 to 28 lead but McDonald and McQueen whipped in two quick baskets before the final whistle to put the final touches on the Diesels' first defeat.

Three Way Tie
The victory vaulted Woods Presbyterian into a three-way tie for first place in the Senior Division along with Memorial and St. James, who surprised a faltering Christ Church Tiger team with a 29 to 26 decision. St. James started fast and built up a big lead in the early stages of the contest and then held off a determined late Tiger rally to earn the game laurels. Bob Moreland paced the victors with 10 points to capture runner-up honors behind Bill Squire who had 12 points for the losers.

St. James has an excellent chance to share the top spot in the second round of play which should wind up in the present three-way deadlock and force a playoff for the second round title. St. James will meet the winless Methodist Mustangs who have been plagued all season with bad luck and a player shortage.

Woods Team Favored
Woods Presbyterian is favored to whip a smaller St. Paul Flyer quintet in the final game next Saturday, March 7, and if it comes through as expected, will qualify for the second round title playoff.

Memorial is on the spot in the final week of play. The Diesels have the toughest game of the day when they meet the second place Christ Church Tigers, who are smarting from the St. James whipping.

The Junior Division reached its climax when the Memorial Juniors hung a 20 to 10 schellacking on the Christ Church Lions. The victory gave Memorial second place in the final standings one game behind the Lions who took the title of four victories and two defeats.

Cub Scout Pack Host at Dinner

An eventful year for Cub Pack 290 was celebrated Tuesday evening, February 24, with a Father and Son dinner at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, attended by 170. Following long established custom, a new committee was installed at this annual affair.

The Rev. Andrew Rauth pronounced the invocation before dinner. Edward Krawczak, the outgoing Cubmaster, acted as master of ceremonies. He was presented with a plaque in grateful appreciation for his exceptional services to the Pack.

A mother's committee, headed by Mrs. King Clifford, contributed greatly to the success of the dinner.

Howard Gandelot, the new Cubmaster, was installed with the traditional ceremony of having the Cubmaster's headress placed on his head by his son, Howard, Jr.

In addition to Mr. Gandelot, the new committee includes: Leroy Selmeier, chairman; Frank Peslar and John Elling, assistant cubmasters; Eldon Jones, secretary; Garnet Smith, treasurer; and Arthur Kuechenmeister, membership chairman.

St. Paul Cagers Favorites In District Court Tourney

With second place all locked up in the East Side (second division) Parochial Basketball League the St. Paul Flyers are setting their sights on the District Championship which will get underway for the Flyers on Thursday, March 5, at Harper Woods High School, located at Beaconsfield at Lancaster.

Coach Eddie Lauer's charges will begin their quest for the District title when they tackle Fraser at 6:30 p.m., March 5, and will enter the initial contest as slight favorites to advance to the semi-final round.

The starting quintet of Captain Tim Champine, Glen Walters, Bob Wright, Bob Barret and Jim Ayrault have a burning desire to duplicate the feat of the 1951-52 squad which won the Servite District title and went on to the semifinals in the Regional Tourny held at Birmingham last year.

On the basis of the Flyers' League record of 10 victories and one loss and their overall season record of 12 and 3, many Flyer

"If we can get past Fraser in the opening game we will have a fifty-fifty chance to capture the District title." Lauer went on to say "Lake-shore and Eastland are the teams to beat in our tourney and with a fair portion of luck our outfit could take down top laurels."

In London they will tour Buckingham Palace and Oxford University. Next they will travel to Glasgow, Scotland, where they will visit Mrs. Gardner's relatives and tour the Highlands. After a month's stay in Glasgow, they will travel on to France where they will meet Margaret's sister, Mrs. Robert Batten.

Last stop will be Switzerland and on May 12 they will board the "Empress of Scotland."

Skating Party For Birthday

Thirty Pointe girls and boys cut figure eights and skinned around the rinks Tuesday, February 24, at the birthday party of Sallie True, aged 15, and her brother, Barry, who is 12.

Both have February birth dates so their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Russel True, of Moran road, started last year giving the joint-birthday fete.

Last year's party was given at the same roller rink chosen for Tuesday's celebration.

Eastern Deanery Council to Meet

The National Council of Catholic Women Eastern Deanery quarterly meeting will be held in St. Clare Montefalco parish hall, Mack and Audubon avenues, on Wednesday, March 11, at 8 a.m., with Mrs. Charles B. Hull, president, presiding. Deanery chairmen will read their yearly reports.

The program will include a panel discussion on Parent-Child Family Life with Mrs. Al. Begin in charge. All parish members are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Aloha Campers Have Preview

A glimpse of the fun in store for them next Summer was enjoyed last week by the campers who'll be off to Aloha Camp and Aloha Hiv in Vermont.

The preview centered around Helen King and Helen Shaw, directors of the camps, who were honored at an evening party at Touraine road the home of Mrs. Norman Preble Mrs. Henry C. Kohring.

Guests included girls who'll be campers this year, alumnae and parents. The directors showed colored slide films, taken at camp, and then planning and reminiscing went on apace over punch and cookies.

Among those present were the Kohring's daughters, Anne, Mary and Jane; Phyllis Ledyard; Julianne McMillan, Susan Garlinghouse, Kathleen Williams, Lynn Johnston, Marion Ferry, Paula Walker and Sarah Goddard.

During their time in town, Miss Shaw and Miss King were house-guests of Mrs. Norman Preble of Rivard boulevard.

It wouldn't be to tell sunny now, but most of the big jobs are held by men who horrified the neighbors as kids.

News Notes from D. U. S.

The Senior Show this year which will be presented by the boys and girls of D.U.S. and Grosse Pointe Country Day School will be "Brigadoon", the Broadway hit written by Alan Jay Lerner.

The show will be presented at Country Day on Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7, at 8:15 p.m. The story of "Brigadoon" describes the adventures of two young New Yorkers of our day who in their wanderings through Scotland inadvertently stumble on Brigadoon, an 18th Century village where a wedding is being celebrated.

The events of the day and the seemingly hopeless love of one of the young men for a Scotch lass named Fiona form the basis of most of the story.

A happy ending is provided by a love that is stronger than the two centuries between hero and heroine. Fantasy becomes reality. The lovers are reunited. All is well, Curtian.

CAST: Tommy Albright, Peter Korneffel (Understudy: Bill Curtis), Charles Dairymple, Robin Ryan (Understudy: Edgar Hovbert); Fiona MacIaren, Sarah Goodard (Understudy: Sandy McMahon); Jean MacIaren, Nanette McMahon (Understudy: Nana Maxwell); Meg Brockie, Janie Bragaw (Understudy: Dianne Duncan); Jane Ashton, Judy Jeeves (Understudy: Susan Hooker).

Jeff Douglas, Hans Becherer; Andrew MacIaren, Jock Hoey; Archie Beaton, Don Rentschler; Harry Beaton, Edgar Howbert; Mr. Lundie, John Wilk; Angus Macguffie, Tony Barr; Sandy Dean, Bill Curtis; Frank, Jerry Jaglowicz.

Singing Chorus (Boys): Sam Daume, John Finlayson, George Mack, John Hemmeter, Dave Wark, Tony Barr, Herb Hill and Don Rentschler.

Singing Chorus (Girls): Ann Macauley, Colleen McMahon.

Dance chorus: Lylas Good, Martha Moody, Kathy Benson, Wendy Good, Bizzie Buell, Diane Duncan, Ann Murphy and Margaret Reeves.

On Friday and Saturday, March 6 and 7, the 27th annual conference of the Secondary Education Board will be held in New York City at the Hotel New Yorker. This conference includes representatives from independent schools from all over the country. Delegates from the Detroit University School will be John Chandler, Jr., headmaster, and John G. Conley, who is an associate editor of The Independent School Bulletin, the organization's national magazine.

Herbert N. Shanks, director of the Protestant Children's Home on Cook Road, addressed the Friday morning assembly of the upper school at D.U.S. on February 27th. He described the work and philosophy of the home and discussed the activities of the young people who live there.

Among many of the enlightening points that Mr. Shanks made was the interesting one that the Children's Home is not an "orphange" nor its residents "orphans." Many of them are only temporarily separated from one or both of their parents. Virtually all parents or relatives of the children there pay a substantial part of the costs for board.

On Wednesday, February 25, D.U.S. students saw a film called "One God" which described and pictured the practices and beliefs of America's three major faiths.

Supper Planned By Girl Scouts

Tween-age and Senior Girl Scouts will wish each other a happy birthday at a planned pot-luck supper and program Monday, March 9, at Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, at 6:30 p.m.

Seven older-girl troops in Grosse Pointe-District will participate. Representatives from each troop have been busy making plans for an interesting evening carrying out the international friendship theme.

Scouts serving on the committee are as follows: Beverly Robinson and Lynne Dougherty, Troop 302; Jean Montpetit and Sherryll Walters, Troop 579; Susan Estabrook and Carolyn Alexander, Marine Ship 301; DeAnna Boerner and Sharon Mason, Troop 848; Sandie Hoffman and Patricia Lindow, Troop 870; Frances Babcock and Connie Dufford, Marine Ship 385; Diane DeSchryver and Sharron Garvey, Troop 819.

The committee is under the direction of Mrs. F. E. Greifenstein, Tween-age Program Consultant in Grosse Pointe.

RACIAL PROBLEM

The race question is much like bringing up a family—those who have none know best how to handle the situation.

Among many of the enlightening points that Mr. Shanks made was the interesting one that the Children's Home is not an "orphange" nor its residents "orphans." Many of them are only temporarily separated from one or both of their parents. Virtually all parents or relatives of the children there pay a substantial part of the costs for board.
