Ernest W. Israel of 9943 Mack, Detroit, accused of causing an accident at 15128 Mack, was fined $40 and placed on probation until he makes restitution for damages which resulted.

Others charged with causing accidents and their fines are: John W. Lewis of 7563 E. Hilldale, Detroit, at Mack and Kensington $20; and Virginia A. K. Green of 19164 Chester, at Mack and Kensington, $5.

For excessive speeding on St. Paul, James R. Hamilton of 303 Kerby road, paid a fine of $15, and it cost John A. Patterson of 1554 W. Philadelphia, $13 for speeding on Jefferson.

Garden Center

Williams, president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center, will attend the meetings on Belle Isle and Mrs. Donald Smith will attend Grosse Pointe meetings. Since both Garden Centers have similar interests and purposes, the plan will be mutually helpful. Many Grosse Pointe garden club members also belong to the Detroit Garden Center and work on its board.

Mrs. Eugene Hawkins, chairman of the lecture file, has asked the presidents of all the garden clubs in the Pointes to have their program chairmen send a list of all their speakers to the Garden Center to be filed so that others may get suggestions for program planning.

Mrs. Hawkins is also assembling a list of garden club members who are especially expert in certain aspects of gardening and who would be available for talks. All this information will be available to residents of the Grosse Pointe area by either telephoning or visiting the Garden Center room the days it is open.

Disposal

gas or coal bills. The refuse is ignited and blowers take care of the rest, generating the tremendous heat that is all-consuming.

Refuse Contents Change
Mr. Lane also pointed out the great change which has come in the refuse collection business of late years. Where in the past the bulk of it was made up of wet garbage, modern packaging and merchandising have cut this down considerably. Frozen foods are sold in great bulk. All that is left to dispose of is the cardboard package.

Electric home garbage grinders which send the refuse into the sewer systems have also had much to do with the shift from mostly garbage to mostly refuse in the present day collections.

Will Cut Collections
The complete incineration plan will also allow the participating communities to cut down their collection from two to one. Garbage and refuse can all be dumped in the same can and all be disposed of at once by incineration. The composting plan would require that the garbage be separated from the refuse.

This single collection will greatly reduce the big transportation cost with which all the local municipalities have been faced.

It was also pointed out that whether private interests or the municipalities built the plant or plants, the municipalities would have to pay for them in the end. The bonds issued would be revenue bonds and each participating municipality would pay its share on the basis of the amount of refuse handled at the plant.

Seek Early Solution
All of the municipalities realize that the disposal problem must be solved as quickly as possible and are determined to get on with the total incineration plan as fast as they can.

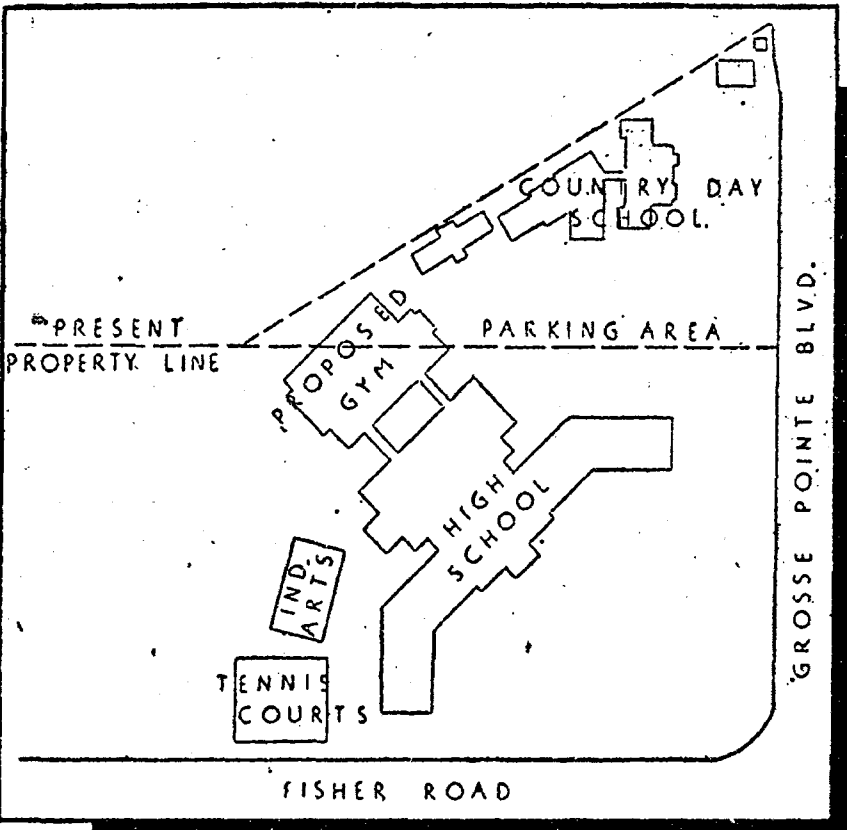

Grosse Pointe Woods has already contributed $2,000 towards the cost of preliminary arrangements and the setting up of the authority which would operate and maintain the plant.

Options have been obtained on two properties, either one of which would be suitable as a location for the plant. There will be another meeting of the committee within the very near future, and it is expected that even more definite action will then be taken towards the creation of the incineration plant.

MOVIE MASTERPIECE
Cecil B DeMille's immortal masterpiece, "The King of Kings" will be brought to Detroit, March 22 through March 28, under the sponsorship of Metropolitan Methodist Church. The picture will be shown nightly at 7:30.

Never bet on a sure thing unless you can afford to lose.

Proposed Gymnasium Location

This plot plan reveals the suggested location for the proposed auditorium-gymnasium at the High School if the voters approve the bond issue on April 21. It shows how a portion of the Country Day School property would be utilized to provide the most desirable setting for the proposed building. A parking area of about two acres could be created between the two main buildings.

Gardeners Due For Fine Break

Mr. and Mrs. Average Gardener will receive a great deal of attention at the Michigan Flower and Garden Exhibition being held at the Michigan State Fair Grounds from March 21-29. There will be several exhibits just for their benefit.

Among them are the Plant Doctor Clinic which will be sponsored by the Michigan Horticultural Society. It will be staffed with specialists from Michigan State College through the cooperative extension service. Prof. H. L. R. Chapman will head the clinic. Assisting him in advising the public will be P. R. Biebesheimer, Dr. B. H. Grigsby and Dr. Ray L. Janes.

The Detroit Department of Parks and Recreation's exhibit is aimed at the edification of the average gardener. It will be a model city garden that can be altered to fit any size city lot. Those interested will be able to get plans on how and what to plant and how to landscape their lots.

Michigan's Department of Agriculture also will have an educational exhibit at the show. Dean F. Lovitt, associate chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, will have a display pertaining to plant diseases and insects and how to combat them. He also will discuss the laws regarding plant inspection.

Rose fanciers should really enjoy this year's Flower Show. Chrysler will have a special rose garden which will feature the Chrysler Imperial Rose, a great crimson rose which won the 1952 All-American Rose Selection Society awards. In addition there will be a large display which will utilize thousands of blooms of various types of roses.

According to Werner M. Hoy General Manager of the Flower Show, some lucky boy and girl will be named the "Jack and Jill" of the 1953 Flower Show. They will reign as the king and queen. Their appointment will coincide with the large exhibit "Gardens of Fairyland" which will cover the Agricultural Building and Annex. This particular display will be of interest to both children and adults. The famous Rose Midgets plus some rabbits, ducks and pigs will put some life into the various gardens which will portray the adventures of such famous characters as "Humpty Dumpty", "Little Boy Blue", "Woman In the Show", "Jolly Miller", "House that Jack Built", "Peter Rabbit",

The most popular good roads movement is about 60 miles an hour.

Library Friends Hold Discussion

The fifth discussion meeting in the Great Men and Great Issues series, sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, was held in the meeting room of the new Central Library last Monday evening, with Andrew Jackson as the subject of the evening's discussion.

The program, chairmaned by William Newman, began with a moving picture which outlined the life and principles by which Andrew Jackson conducted himself in public office.

Mr. Newman followed the film with a short talk on Jackson's background, and posed problems revolving around this controversial president. He pointed out some of the misconceptions of Jackson, emphasizing that he was a gentleman, and today would probably be considered a reactionary.

Jackson's election in 1828, the spoils system which he is mistakenly considered responsible for, the nullification issue, the struggle between Jackson and Biddle on the United States Bank, and Jackson's re-election in 1832 were all discussed.

The group felt that the President's tenure should be limited to two terms; they approved the present electoral system of electing presidents, and definitely felt that the President should not be able to commit us to war. Mr. Newman closed the discussion by summarizing the issues discussed, and suggested that Jackson's philosophy that "all voices be heard all the time" has considerable merit.

Jay Sorge, Friends Program Chairman, announced the next and final meeting in the series will be held Monday, April 20, when Abraham Lincoln will be the subject of discussion with David Mills, attorney, as chairman.

Woods To Remove Island Obstacle

Woods council members, at their regular meeting on Monday, March 16, approved removal of 30 feet of an island situated at the intersection of Holiday and Lochmoor boulevard.

A temporary committee, appointed to study the advisability of completely removing the island, reported that the entire project will cost the city about $3,000, where as, removal of the 30 feet would cost only $780.

Motorists have been forced to swing a good 30 feet to the right, and then to the left, to effect continued driving on Holiday road. The project by the city will enable drivers to continue straight-ahead driving.

Blaze Damages Davenport Home

Fire damaged the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Davenport, 19202 Raymond, Saturday, March 14.

When questioned as to the cause of the fire, the Davenports informed authorities that their son, David, 7, had been playing with matches and had set fire to the curtains.

Water and smoke damages amounted to $450, which is covered by insurance.

Elm Tree Spray Bids Received

A report submitted to the Farms council by City Engineer Murray M. Smith, recommended acceptance of a bid offered by the Davey Tree Expert company, for dormant spraying of the city's elm trees.

The tree company submitted two bids, one an alternate, which was considerably lower than that presented by six other rival bidders.

The Davey Tree company asked $3,318 in its first bid, and then presented an alternate bid of $3,240, which was recommended to the council for acceptance.

In his report, Mr. Murray Tree revealed that the Davey Tree company cooperated very closely with the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association in the spraying of trees belonging to private residents. The company is willing to continue the same service again this year.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

Mrs. Reade H. Ryan's home in Grosse Pointe boulevard has become an advertising agency. What was formerly a nice, cozy setting for teas and cocktail parties has turned into a business office with filing cases, typewriter and working girls from the Pointe who are members of the Vassar Club of Detroit. It seems that the moment Mrs. Ryan took over the presidency of the Vassar Club, a group of brilliant members hit upon the idea of publishing a handbag directory of the Places to shop, not only in the Pointe, but Detroit and Birmingham.

108 Categories

Fortunately Mrs. Ryan is saddled only with Pointe recommendations for the directory, but with 108 categories to fill, her house has become as busy as Grand Central Station. No matter what the time of the day or evening, gals are dropping by with their little filing cards bearing names of merchants they think should appear in this very select directory.

Of course the purpose of the directory is most laudatory. It will not only provide visitors to the city and established residents with a ready guide of superior and reliable shops, services and civic interests, but will swell the club's scholarship fund.

Those Far-away Places

However, the use of her home as a central clearing house for this fine work is bringing dreams of life in Cuba, or some other remote spot to Mrs. Ryan.

She is beginning to sense the pressure of dead lines. All recommendations will have to be screened and processed for the printer by next week.

And since the motto of the collective committee is "Vassar girls are choosy—they only recommend the best!" it must, by all means, be followed through to the bitter end. That will entail sifting through all suggested entries with a most discriminating eye so only the very best are included in this quality production.

Many Duplications

Then, too, although recommendations are numerous, there are countless duplications. And surprisingly, comments run along the same lines.

For instance, a certain popular hairdresser has his patrons alleging that no one else knows how to cut hair. Creations of a certain dressmaker are likened to those of Schiaparelli.

So after scanning hundreds of these little notations it is any wonder that Mrs. Ryan dreams dreams of walking directories?

But, even though she can't see the forest for the trees at this point, she and her committee are determined to make this initial venture into the business world a success.

Success in Denver

They have as an example the glowing reports from the Vassar Club in Denver which published a handbag directory in 1952. The Denver Club is so happy with the results that the brochure has been established as an annual project.

When the Detroit directory finally comes from the printers it will be compiled in a compact plastic spiral backed book form.

This won't be the first such directory to be published here. There was a similar booklet distributed in 1949-50. (Continued on Page 9)

So when a crowd of friends congregated on the porch, it was with misgivings they answered the door.

Community Theatre Goes without Holiday

Work on "Death Takes..." Keeps Cast and Crew Busy Rehearsing Production for March 27 in Pierce School

"Death Takes A Holiday," the Alberto Casella play which Grosse Pointe Community Theatre is presenting March 27 in Pierce Junior High School auditorium, has posed a pretty problem for the stage crew.

Since "Death's" three day visit to the Italian villa of one Duke Lambert, must of necessity, suspend all growth of living plants, the problem is what to use as floral decorations in the rich, Florentine drawing room where all action takes place.

Mrs. Frank Eddy Standish, who aside from her publicity stint for the organization, has taken on the chore of borrowing furnishings for the play, is still struggling with the knotty problem. To date, if no other ideas are forthcoming, she plans on using potted greens and artificial roses.

She has already obtained a huge, beautiful antique tapestry for the back wall of the stage, and the heavy Florentine chairs for the setting which is being designed by Mary Louise Fitzsimons and Mark Reeves, who are in the midst of completing decorations with canvas and wood.

Briefly the play is based on the poetic conception of death suspending all activities for three days during which period he falls in love with a beautiful girl and through her realizes why mortals fear him.

But in the play there is a bit of comedy in the manner in which death stalks in, uninvited at a houseparty given by Italian royalty, and announces that he wants to find out what "this thing called love" is all about.

The jittery Duke, played by Russel Werneken, not wanting to scare his guests to death, merely introduces the cadaverous looking interloper played by Dean Eskinie as Prince Surki from the East.

Fortunately the eastern potentate has enough sense to change his death mask for one a bit more human. As a mortal he proves devastating to the ladies and plays a few love scenes with macabre detachment. His foils in these scenes are Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. John Wilson, Mrs. Arthur W. Bull and Mrs. Robert Koebel. But his real love is the 16-year-old lassie from a neighboring estate, Grazia, played by Luella Wertz, who can't make up her mind whether or not she's going to marry the duke's son. Of course, the climax of the play is when Grazia returns death's love, and both walk into the beyond.

Also cast in important roles are Larry Brennan, John Robinson, John Wilson and Daniel Biell II. Mrs. George V. Candler Jr. is directing the play. Lee Yeager is stage manager. In previous years proceeds have benefited Cottage Hospital and Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, but this year all monies will stay within the group.

Members of Grosse Pointe Community Theatre hope to build their own playhouse sometime in the future so that they can bring to the Pointe a complete variety of good theatre entertainment.

Serving on the board of trustees are John K. Sinclair, Mrs. George T. Hall, Mrs. Richard B. Roney, Mrs. Ralph R. Genter, Daniel H. Buell II, Arthur W. Bull, Dallas Chapin, John R. Dykema, Dean Eskinie, Mrs. Joseph J. Marshall and Luella Wertz.

Three Brides-Elect Caught in Gay Whirl

Patricia Baumgarten, Penny Kemp and Gaynor Jones All Enjoying Round of Parties Before April Marriages

Three Pointe brides-elect who have set their wedding dates for the month of April are caught in a gay whirl of pre-nuptial festivities.

Patricia Baumgarten, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Elden C. Baumgarten of Lochmoor boulevard, who will be married April 4 to William Webster, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Webster of Chicago, was feted St. Patrick's Day at a smorgasbord party and personal shower by Mrs. Henry Eckfeld of Pemberton road.

Highlighting the festivities was a surprise shower of recipes given 'the bride-elect by guests who donated some of their most treasured culinary secrets. A nod was given St. Patrick's Day with the green and shamrock favors placed midst the smorgasbord dishes.

On March 27 the Malcolm Barnums and Laird Beamer will entertain both Pat and Bill at a bar shower. Two of Bill's ushers, Bob Hamill and Charles Moore, are planning a bachelor dinner to be held tomorrow evening.

The spinster festivities will begin with cocktails at the Courville road home of Mrs. Herbert Beyer. Dr. and Mrs. Baumgarten will be hosts at the dinner in their Lochmoor boulevard, home.

Mrs. Julian McIntosh will be hostess at a brunch on March 31 in the Detroit Athletic Club and Bill's parents will entertain at the rehearsal dinner in the University Club on April 3.

Dr. and Mrs. Fred Lepley will be hostess at a brunch in Lochmoor Club on the wedding day for members of the family and out-of-town guests.

Penny Kemp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bourne Kemp of Country Club drive, is being married April 11 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, to Douglas Donald Jr., son of Dr.

and Mrs. Douglas Donald of E. Jefferson avenue.

On March 31 the bride-elect will be feted at a supper party given by Mrs. Samuel Cutler Jr. and her mother Mrs. Burdette E. Ford at the latter's home in Sunningdale drive.

Dr. and Mrs. Donald will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner the following night at the Country Club.

Also scheduled is a luncheon at the Country Club for the bridal party and out-of-town guests on the wedding day. Entertaining will be Mr. and Mrs. William McKinley and the Henry Kuhlmanns.

Barit of Windmill Pointe drive, was recently feted at an around-the-clock shower by Ann Louise Hinchman at her home in Irvine Lane.

Knitting Pretty Theme of Party

"Knitting Pretty" will be depicted for members and guests at the monthly women's bridge luncheon at the Detroit Boat Club on Wednesday, March 18 at 12:30.

Special cocktails, a party menu and bridge prizes have been arranged as usual, but an added attraction will be the showing of hand-knit fashions.

Club members, Mrs. David D. Williams, Mrs. William N. Mayo and Mrs. E. Wilson Wardell will model an assortment of fashionable knits for sports, afternoon cocktail and evening wear. A very swish evening dress which this reporter viewed was a navy linen knit sheath, entirely covered with sprays of pearls and bugle beads.

A very new idea consists of a light-weight wool cardigan with matching linen skirt, the set hand-painted in your favorite motif, be it sailboats or yellow daisies.

Working with Mrs. Frederick W. Detlinger, party chairman, are Mrs. R. William Rogers, Mrs. W. Edward Wilson, Mrs. Curtis V. Mower and Mrs. Paul L. Nagel. The committee will carry out the "knitting for fashion" theme in their lobby decorations, with spinning wheel, knitted Afghan, kitten and ball of yarn.

Hawaii Attracts Many Pointers

When the luxury liner Lurline sailed for Hawaii on March 16 from Los Angeles harbor, a considerable contingent of Pointe residents was on board.

Among those leaving for a holiday in the island paradise were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney M. Harvey of Berkshire road, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Koch and their daughter, Karen, of Cloverly road; Mr. and Mrs. George P. Maghielse of Devonshire road, Mr. and Mrs. Walter F. Probst of Berkshire road, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sjoepel and their daughter, Suzanne, of Lakeland avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Van Fleet of Berkshire road.

Pontchartrain Chapter Holding Meeting Friday

The Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution will hold the regular monthly meeting at Ingleside Club on Friday, March 20.

Attorney General Frank G. Millard is to be the guest speaker on the topic of "National Defense," as scheduled by the chairman on program, Mrs. Gilbert K. Pulliam. The Chairman on Music, Mrs. George Peppard has arranged for a group of St. Patrick's songs to be given by Mr. William McCarthy, a tenor from Pontiac.

The delegates and the many members who attended the State Conference in Saginaw, March 11-13, will bring back reports. Mrs. Albert E. Cooney, the Regent, will preside at the Board meeting at 10:30 a.m.

All Set for Normal-Formal

Two committee members, MARTIE HUBBARD and PETER MCKEE, pose with one of the stuffed rabbits which will be given as prizes at the party for the Teenagers at the War Memorial Center this Saturday night, March 21. The youngsters will wear half formals and half casual attire, including blue jeans and sneakers with fluffy dress blouses and other such mixed combinations.

Many residents found it handy for finding services not usually listed in the yellow pages of the phone book, such as china menders and reweavers.

It folded because of lack of personnel, but there are more than 200 Vassar Club members working on this booklet which, if it is successful, will be published each year.

The Assistants

Assisting Mrs. Ryan with the directory is Mrs. Wendell Goddard, who is co-chairman.

Others include Mrs. Eugene Hawkins, and her daughter Eleanor, who are busy pounding the typewriter keys, Mrs. Donald M. Carson, Hilary Whittaker, Blenda Isbey, Mrs. H. Hunter Williams, Mrs. Robert I. Lord, Miss Suzanne Copland, Mrs. John C. Hodges, Margie Watkins, Elaine Wallace, Mrs. Paul A. Duker, Mrs. J. Henry Dasenbrock and Mrs. George W. Williams.

Symphony Gets Premiere Funds

Cinerama, the new sensation of the show world scheduled for a glamorous introduction to Detroit Monday, March 23, will have its Opening Night in Music Hall sponsored by the Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony.

Proceeds from the benefit performance will go to the Maintenance Fund for the orchestra. Mrs. J. Bertram Bell is chairman of the Women's Association members who will have, exclusively, tickets for the dramatic opening night.

In Grosse Pointe assisting Mrs. Bell with ticket sales are Mesdames J. Leslie Berry, Philip D. Dexter, C. William Palmer, Winfield S. Jewell Jr., and Jerome H. Remick Jr.

This will be the first showing of Cinerama outside of New York where audiences are being electrified by this new theatrical experience. No other theater in Michigan will show "This Is Cinerama" for at least five years, requiring as it does equipment of the most elaborate nature to create the multi-dimensional effect.

For the past few weeks experts and a corps of workmen have been transforming Detroit's Music Hall into a Cinerama theatre. Special projection booths are almost up. The huge screen, extending far into the theatre proper, is installed.

The premiere performance next Monday night is for the benefit of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra. Reserved seats are $5 and $10 each and can be obtained from Mrs. Bell or her workers at TE. 1-2810.

Barbara Simonds to Wed Edwin Armstrong Hibbard

At a small buffet supper in their home in Lewiston road, on Sunday evening, March 15, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Warner Simonds announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara, to Mr. Edwin Armstrong Hibbard, the son of Mrs. Charles F. Hibbard of Seminole avenue, Detroit, and the late Mr. Hibbard.

Republican Club To Meet Mar. 23

Mrs. Harold O. Love of Lochmoor boulevard, president, announces the regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Women's Republican Club will be held Monday, March 23, at the War Memorial Center.

Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker, chairman of the political activities committee, will introduce the speaker, John C. McCurry, general manager and secretary of the Michigan Manufacturer's Association, whose subject will be "Michigan Tax Situation."

Mr. McCurry came here from Toledo, Ohio, in November to succeed the late John L. Lovett, and has many interesting details of civic, state and national affiliations.

The 2 o'clock meeting will be preceded by a dessert at 1:45, served by Mrs. Harold C. Tyree and her hostess committee.

Reservations for dessert should be made with Mrs. John Keyes, TUxedo 5-1268.

Betty McClure Selects Date

Betty Jean McClure and Howard Ballantyne Jr., have set April 25 as the date of their wedding, to take place in St. Paul's Church, Grosse Pointe.

The bride-elect is the daughter of the Harold E. McClures of Rivard Boulevard. Her fiancé's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ballantyne of Whittier road.

Attendants will be Mrs. Carroll Trego Ballantyne, matron of honor; and bridesmaids, Mrs. Joseph Mengden and Mrs. Raymond E. Farr.

C. T. Ballantyne will be the best man for his brother. Seating guests will be John B. Ford III, Walter Scotten II, Charles Whitney and Raymond Farr.

Woods Church Group to Meet

The Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Presbyterian Church will meet on Monday, March 23, at 8:15 p.m.

The dedication of the evening will be made by Mrs. D. D. Struthers. The hostess group will be the Ruth Group, under the leadership of Mrs. Arthur Swanson.

The A Capella Choir of the Grosse Pointe High School will present a program. Mr. J. F. Finch will direct.

Garden Club Luncheon To Precede Flower Show

Members of the Garden Club of Michigan will have a luncheon meeting in the Country Club of Detroit on Wednesday, March 25, at 12:30 p.m.

A bus provided for the occasion will leave the club at 2 p.m. to take members to and from the Michigan Flower and Garden Club. Reservations are being taken by Mrs. George Duffield of 30 Moran road, Grosse Pointe Farms 36.

Pointers to Arrange Flower Show Tables

Special Settings Will be Displayed at Big Exhibition in State Fair Grounds Coliseum March 21 Through 29

Three Grosse Pointe gardeners are arranging invitational tables for the Michigan Flower and Garden Exhibition which will be held March 21 through 29 in the Coliseum at the State Fair Grounds under the auspices of the Detroit Garden Center.

Invitational entries are not judged. Arrangers are usually gardeners who have won blue ribbons in previous shows and the invitation carries with it the compliment that the table will represent the work of a finished artist.

Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson is doing an Easter Breakfast Table. Her color scheme will be yellow and green to carry out the spring theme of sunlight and rejuvenation.

She is using a white organdy cloth over green and white checked gingham. Her plates of white milk glass, and glasses of green will complement the milk glass bowl with wicket edge, centering the table.

Flowers in the bowl will include yellow freesia, daffodils, minosa, yellow roses and green foliage. Mrs. Wilson's table will be on display March 21 and 22.

Mrs. Alan P. Beebe is planning a midnight supper table. Right now she doesn't know what her color scheme will be. She is vice-president of the Detroit Garden Club and to date has been busy making arrangements for the Garden Pilgrimage which will begin May 17.

Also invited to exhibit is Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener, who has tentatively arranged to do a celebrity luncheon table.

Pointe gardeners who'll have entries in the show include Mrs. Thomas T. Petzold who is arranging a large niche entitled "Easter Parade in White." Mrs. Reed Ryan will do a small niche in the "Jewel Shop, Crown Jewels" division.

Mrs. H. James Gram Jr. is toying with the idea of using a Japanese theme in the section of "Foreign Legation, Eastern Hemisphere."

Mrs. John Hutchinson, president of the Junior League Garden Club, and Mrs. Wendell K. Wheelock, president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club, are working on the program.

Flower show committee members include Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mrs. Henry L. Newnan and Mrs. James O. Murfin.

Girl Scout News

Fun and informality marked the potluck supper program which Tween-age and Senior Girl Scouts of Grosse Pointe held last week in the Community room of Grosse Pointe Methodist Church. The occasion was the celebration of the 41st anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouting in the United States by Juliette Low, March 12, 1912.

Senior Scout Betty Brownson welcomed the 150 people present, and the Rev. Hugh C. White gave the invocation.

After dinner, Mrs. Adam C. Cook, chairman of Grosse Pointe Girl Scout District Committee, introduced Mrs. Mark Edgar, who has been active in the organization for 37 years. Mrs. Edgar recalled some interesting stories about Juliette Low and other women who helped develop Girl Scouting in its infancy. Highlight of the evening was the appearance of two young women from far-off lands. Miss Norma Aikjaersig of Denmark, who is doing research work at Wayne University College of Medicine, told of life in her native land.

Dr. Dorothy D'Sena of India, who was wearing a beautiful pink sari, national costume of her homeland, enchanted those present with a demonstration of how the sari is wound around and draped into a lovely costume. Dr. D'Sena, who is a resident physician at Herman Kiefer Hospital, also told of customs which prevail in India today. Juliette Low World Friendship Fund contributions from each troop were presented to Mrs. Fred Rowe, Juliette Low committee member. Group singing was led by Mrs. N. P. Gleason, and Scout Frances Cousins sang two western songs. Mariner Ship 301, Mrs. G. Roeglin, leader, entertained by singing "Three Pirates Bold," a sea chantey.

Members of Troop 579 which meets at St. Paul school, Mrs. J. F. McCormick, leader, baked a four-decker cake as a special birthday week service project. Decorated with yellow frosting and green candles, the Scout colors, the cake was presented after the program to nuns of St. Paul Convent in application of their interest in Scouting.

The closing ceremony was conducted by members of Troop 819, Mrs. M. Bruce, leader. Mrs. E. Greifenstein, Tween-age program consultant, was chairman of the committee which planned the affair.

On hand after the program were four high school boys from the Methodist Youth Fellowship to clear tables and chairs from the room, ready for nursery school the next morning. They were Granger Brownson, Wendy Birdsall, Gordon Dyer and Hal Windsor. Several Mariner Scouts stayed to help with the "chair brigade," and we secretly think they enjoyed the job every bit as much as the birthday celebration!

On Saturday, March 7, Mariner Scouts Frances Babcock and Judy Rowe of Troop 385 represented Grosse Pointe at a reception for Governor Williams and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt preceding the tea and dinner at Masonic Temple. With other members of the Metropolitan Senior Council, the girls served as an honor guard for the Governor, as he and other notables stood in the receiving line.

Preceding the reception, the Senior Scouts had the opportunity to visit informally with Mrs. Roosevelt and Mrs. Williams, both of whom have a wide knowledge of Girl Scouting.

Metropolitan Seniors held an ice skating party in Windsor on Saturday, March 7, from 5 to 7 o'clock, with Girl Guides as guests. Some of the Grosse Pointers who enjoyed the end-of-winter ice skating that day were Frances Babcock, Connie Dufford, Irene Stempfle and Suzanne Newton from Troop 385 and Carol Vestal and Millie Rowe from Troop 301.

Brownie Troop No. 620 of Mason School invited two new members on March 3, Susan Chandler and Diane Dabich.

After the regular ceremony one of the mothers, Mrs. Joseph Dabich, gave the group an unusually delightful "nibble". Brownie colors—green and brown—were used in the table setting. A REAL Brownie shaped cake was served by the hostess, Diane Dabich, and the co-hostess, Susan Chandler. Green marshmallows floating in warm chocolate milk was poured from a punch bowl by Sharon Wright and Kathy Rowe.

Mrs. Muriel Reamore tells us that the camp folders should be in the hands of the Neighborhood Chairmen by April 1. Any further information may be had by calling Mrs. Reamore, VA. 2-8794.

Mason School, Grosse Pointe Woods, fourth and fifth grade teachers, the principal and parents, were present at an investiture of Intermediate Troops 1459 and 1460 on February 26 in the school gym. Twenty-five of the girls received Brownie Wings from their former leaders, Mrs. Walter Russell, Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. Nelson McLaughlin.

The following girls received their wings and pins:—Betty Totten, Barbara Prince, Susan Marsh, Sharon Burnie, Georgina Britton, Gwendy Bennet, Kit Chamberlain, Candance Collet, Margaret Conway, Denise Cuyler, Susan Darling, Elizabeth Dettmer, Kay Eyre, Marilyn Goodrow, Annabelle Grieve, Barbara Knost, Karen Lancaster, Mary Lundale, Nancy Pierson, Sharon Prietz, Sally Stone, Kathy Vestal, Cathy Wilke, Lynn Shealy, Sandra Woodman.

The following new girls were invested into the troops:—Carol Presbrey, Diane Shaughnessey, Joyce Koch, Susan Maxon, Shiela Chessman, Sharon Turner, Connie Frye, Carolyn Bradley, Kay Campau and Ann Smith. Refreshments were prepared and served by the mothers and the following troop committee, Mrs. Harold Cuyler, Mrs. George Britton, Mrs. Yeatman Vestal, Mrs. J. W. Lundale, Mrs. Max Conway, Mrs. George Presbrey, Mrs. David Turner and Mrs. S. C. March.

We now say thanks to everyone in and out of the Scout Family for making our 41st Birthday Party one to be remembered. Special thanks go to our esteemed editors, Mr. Hannan of 'Jacobsons' and the Village Manor. Our birthday cake was not only beautiful to look at but tasted like something out of this world.

Just to prove that badges are fun, a movie, "The Story of a Girl Scout Troop" was seen by 450 Intermediate Girl Scouts of Grosse Pointe and about the same number of parents and friends on Monday, March 9.

Following this, those at the rally saw the movie come to life. Girls from various troops portrayed some of the 11 fields of interest in badge work such as Outdoor Crafts, Sewing, Good Grooming and International Dancing.

Square dancing highlighted the evening when the fathers from the audience joined their daughters on stage (just like in the movie).

The department collected $688 from a total of 205 violations, most of which involved parking regulations.

Destruction of property cases handled came to five, with damages amounting to $467, mostly at the Grosse Pointe High School.

Investigations of 115 complaints were made; 189 police calls were answered; 274 operator licenses were issued, and four operator licenses suspended.

Another Boy Scout Troop Chartered at Maire School

Boy Scout Troop 619, the second of two troops sponsored by Maire School, received its charter at ceremonies held last Thursday evening in the Neighborhood Club.

Ralph Hummel, chairman of the scout committee and principle speaker, talked on the benefits and pleasures to be derived by both boys and parents from scout activities.

Thomas Demetry, president of the Maire School P-TA, the sponsoring organization, accepted the charter from Mr. Lutz, Mr. Glaser and Mr. Ryerson, of scout headquarters.

Vincent Norako, scoutmaster of the new troop, was presented to the capacity crowd on hand. A newcomer to the Pointe, Mr. Norako lives at 1352 Grayton road. He has recently returned from his second duty with the Marines in Korea. He holds the rank of captain.

Mr. Norako accepted the following boys into the troop as candidates for tenderfoot scouts: Joseph Curtan, James Ellis, Ronald Linclau, Tony Lott, Bruce Lowe and Henry Taylor.

The climax of the evening was the presentation of a beautiful American flag by the Grosse Pointe Post of the American Legion. Howard Whitescarver, commander of the post, was introduced by Paul Kolvoord, and with the guard of honor, led the assemblage in the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Ask New Name For 'E' Street

A petition requesting the changing of the name of "E" street to Morningside drive, was presented to the Woods council, Monday, March 16, by residents. The request was tabled for further study, by the council. Residents were informed that the name changing must await development of the Shores proposed sewer system, as part of the project may have to be extended into the Woods area.

Further delay may be caused through consideration of the recommended plans of the Planning Commission to extend "E" street south to Cook road, which may possibly connect it with Kercheval avenue.

Al Green Traps Well-Fed Cook

Friday, March 13, proved to be an unlucky day for Wasyl Brewus, 58, of 7164 Palmetto, Detroit, employed as a cook at the Al Green's Restaurant.

For some time, Al Green, owner of the restaurant, had known he had been making involuntary donations to someone's home table, and he resolved to keep watch and catch the culprit.

Friday he caught Brewus leaving the restaurant with several steaks and other mouth-watering items, and had him arrested on a warrant.

Friday night, the cook pleaded guilty to simple larceny before Park Municipal Judge C. Joseph Belanger, and was released on bond, pending a pre-sentence investigation by the Wayne County Probation Division.

He will be returned to court when the investigation is completed in about two weeks. No definite date has been set.

Big Parking Bill Paid by Pointer.

Parking privileges in Detroit proved pretty expensive, Saturday, March 14, for Pointer Charles B. McClure of 840 Lincoln.

Termed by the Detroit Traffic Bureau as the worst parking ticket offender, McClure was forced to remain in custody, after police picked him up on a warrant, while relatives scraped together $800 to pay for 160 parking tickets for overtime and illegal parking. The oldest ticket dates back to May, 1946.

McClure, a dictating machine salesman, was in his office in the Palms Building, 2110 Woodward, when Detroit police took a warrant to him. Authorities revealed that it was necessary to bring the warrant to the office because McClure's Pointe residence made it impossible to serve it at his home.

The parking violator champ told Detroit Traffic Judge John D. Watts, his main reason for not appearing on the tickets was poverty. He said he earns only $10,000 a year.

The 160 tickets accumulated over a seven year period, do not include another 48 McClure paid off during that time.

News Notes From D. U. S.

The Secondary Education Board conference in New York City last week, which representatives of the Detroit University School and Country Day School attended, was concerned with the topic, "The Arts and the Curriculum."

Speakers stressed the continuing importance for schools of such activities as music, art, and drama on a regular basis or at least as extra-curricular offerings or, as the term is now, "co-curricular."

Delegates from schools throughout the country seemed in warm accord with the speakers, among whom were Professor Irwin Edman of Columbia University; Otto L. Spaeth, manufacturer; President James H. Case, Jr., Bard College; and Dr. John F. Gummere, Executive Chairman of the Secondary Education Board.

This week of March 16 has been a busy one at the Detroit University School. These are days when the boys of all grades take the examinations of the Educational Records Bureau. These are national examinations taken by pupils in public and independent schools throughout the country. By them a pupil can gauge his achievement and progress against other students, since marks are given on a "percentile" basis which indicates where each individual stands in relation to every 100 boys who took the exam. A pupil might receive a 70, 80, or 95 percentage, for example, and still be in the 90th "percentile."

That is, out of every 100 ten did a better job and 89 did a poorer one than he.

Recent representatives from various colleges and technical schools who have addressed upper classes at D.U.S. have been the following: George Merriam, Clark University; Robert I. Fletcher, De Pauw University; Donald U. Noblett, Case School of Applied Science; and Frank Bonta, Albion College.

Junior League To Hear Rounds

At the March meeting Junior Leaguers will hear Frank W. Rounds, Jr., veteran foreign correspondent for U. S. News and World Report, and U. S. Attache in Moscow under Ambassadors Kirk and Kennan, deliver a fresh first-hand report of Russia without the curtain.

Mr. Rounds, who is just back from the U. S. S. R., will discuss primarily the feeling of the Russian people toward their leaders, their system and the possibilities of war.

Because of the widespread interest in this topic, Junior Leaguers are invited to bring husbands and friends to the meeting on March 22 at the Country Club. A buffet supper will be served before the meeting which begins at 8:15.

Little League's Managers Picked

Four managers received the approval of the board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Farms Little League at a meeting held at Grosse Pointe High School last Monday evening, March 9.

Chosen to head the four teams which will make up the Farms Little League are Louis Hunt, Henry Reynolds, Minard Mumaw and Franz Von Schwartz.

Saturday, May 2, was announced as the date of the first practice. The site will be announced at a later date.

League play will get underway with a double header on Saturday, June 6, and the season will close the last week in July.

John Pingel was appointed "players agent" and it will be his job to list and rate each boy and act as arbitrator when the managers and league officials meet to select the players for the four teams. Each of the major teams will also have a farm team under the direction of the coaches' assistants.

The playing schedule will be carried by the NEWS as soon as it is drawn up by the league.

League Leaders Hold Onto Places

The Rotary bowling league leaders continued to hold down their pace setting position last Friday, March 13, with the DeKeyser team maintaining a two and a half point lead over the second place Middle Atlantic Transportation squad.

Holzbaugh Motors came within two points of evacuating the league cellar spot of which they have been the sole occupants for a good many weeks. With the team hitting a hot streak recently there could be a new cellar dweller soon.

Jones topped the 200-plus keglers with a 224 which was followed by Robb's 217, D. Volpe 216, Bill Mertz 215, Schubeck 202 and Al Meyer's 200.

Jones also added the high three game series to his evening's laurels with a 571. Mertz followed with a 567 series and Schubeck notched 555.

Boy Scouts Visit Governor During State Capital Tour

Five Explorers and 10 Boy Scouts of troop 147 of Grosse Pointe Park, went to Lansing, Michigan, to meet the Governor and visit the various state legislative offices on March 3.

The trip was sponsored by the Troop Citizenship counselor, Thomas Donohue, who, aided by the troop secretary, Walter Pattee, and committee man S. A. Morrison, drove the boys to the state capitol.

Highlight of the tour was the visit to the governor's office. The boys and leaders each shook hands with the Hon. G. Mennen Williams and enjoyed a brief chat in his private offices.

During their visit to the state senate, the group met the Lt. Governor, Clarence Reid, the speaker of the senate and state Senator Harold Ryan. The boys enjoyed with great interest the session of the senate and also experienced a thrill by being announced on the senate floor, by Senator Ryan, as being his guests from his congressional district.

The group also attended a part of the session of the House of Representatives and on their visit to the Supreme Court, enjoyed a very interesting talk given by a court aid present, describing the various functions of the court, learning the names of the Supreme Court Justices, the different parts of the state they each hail from also their wages and their period of service on the bench.

The boys all working on a Citizenship Merit Badge award, who made the trip were as follows, Explorers—James Wyse, Gordon Creeger, Kelsey Stewart, Kip Staiger and John Pressel.

Scouts—Roger Kolvord, Allen Morrison, Tom Harrett, David Cook, Bob Kemp, Bill Springett, Jeffrey Goodnuff, Peter Hibbard, Bill Pattee and Vance Ryerson.
