PRAVDA, the Communist Party newspaper, rejected an invitation for a Big Four conference. The paper stated that Russia did not want to take part in a meeting on the heels of a three-power get-together. It pointed out that the Washington conference of the Big Three foreign ministers did not advance a solution for a single vital international problem.

RED CHINA blasted South Korean President Syngman Rhee's statement that his country would attack any Chinese troops remaining in Korea six months after a truce. The Peiping Red radio referred to his statement as nothing but a pretext to wreck the armistice, and said the all-but-signed truce was in great danger. In spite of the turmoil, Washington was confident that the truce will be signed soon.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER is displeased by the slowness of the carrying out of his Administration's campaign promises during the first six months in office. Although he believes some progress has been made, he said it would be deceitful to pretend all he had hoped for has been accomplished so far. The estimate of the first six months was ventured at a news conference in response to a question.

WESTERN AUTHORITIES admitted they were worried that Russia may confiscate food gifts or close the sector border to stop the Western relief program for East Germany. President Eisenhower, however, stated American food will be available for East Germans despite protests by the Communists. He said the food was for humanitarian purposes and cannot understand why there should be objections to feeding hungry people. The Soviet Union called the program illegal and demanded that the United States stop it, claiming it is a plot to foment a new revolt.

LEGISLATIVE ACTION is underway to attempt to lift the ban on bingo and other lottery games which at present hurts charitable and fraternal organizations throughout the State of Michigan, due to a crackdown order issued by Attorney General Frank G. Millard. With a number of county fairs and celebrations throughout the state hit by the order, Senator Frank Andrews, Hillman Republican, said he will introduce an amendment to the state constitution to permit the games under nonprofit auspices.

GOVERNMENTAL pay raises affecting members of the Senate, the Vice-President and members of the Federal judiciary, were passed by the Senate. The bill, passed by a voice vote and without discussion, creates a special commission to establish new pay scales which Congress can pass without further legislation. The measure now goes to the House.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER ordered a new study to determine if a new Universal Military Training program is feasible. He said he is taking this step in hopes of correcting "inequities" that have placed a burden on war veterans while many thousands of young men escape military duty. The study assignment was given to the National Security Training Commission, which previously recommended that the training be established for all physically fit young men.

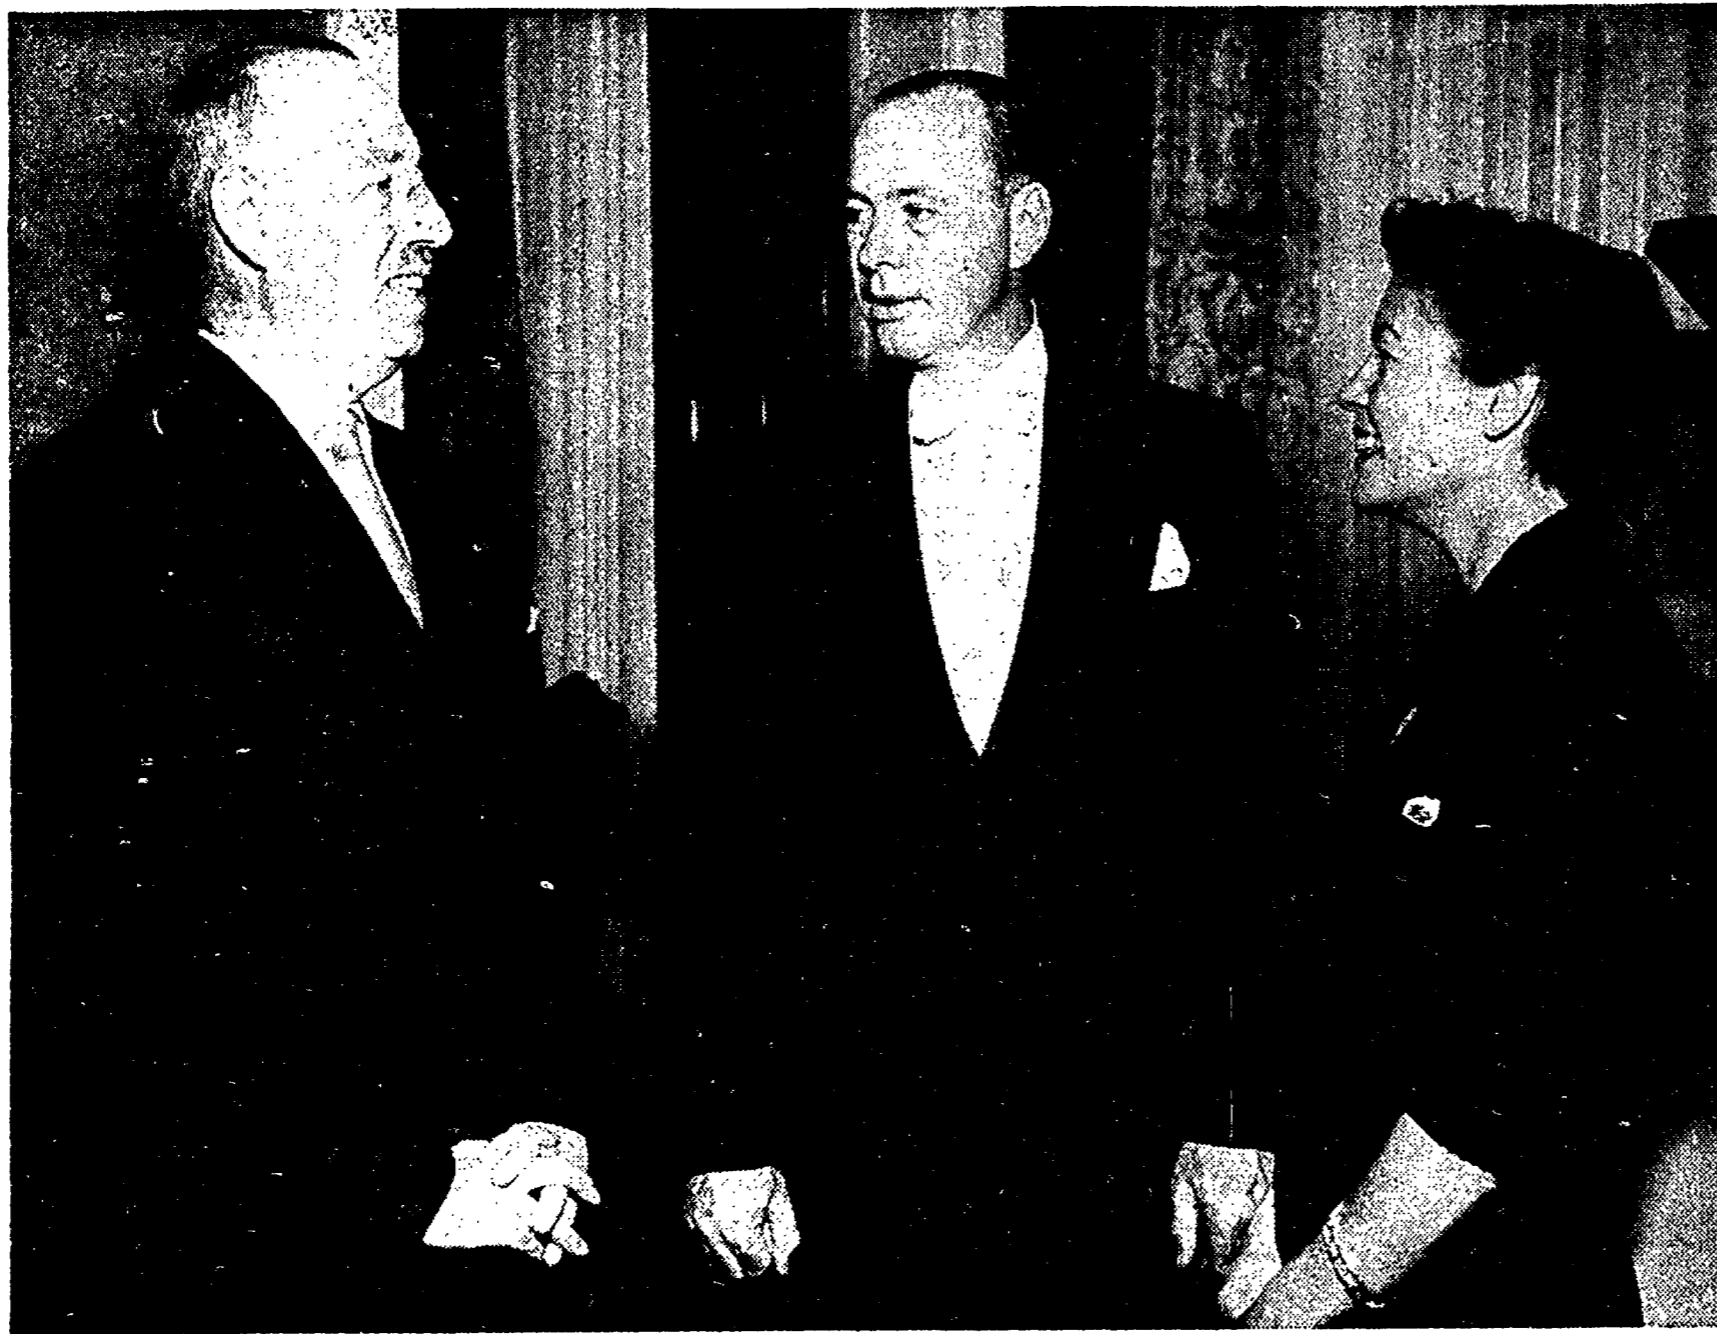

MEMBERS of the Government Operations Committee, headed by Rep. Hoffman, Michigan Republican, will meet to revive plans to carry on anti-racket investigations in Detroit and Kansas City. Special grand juries in each of the cities are following up on the committee's earlier revelations. Committee members killed the anti-racketing investigation in a revolt against their chairman last week.

Ambassador and Mrs. Alger Greet Belgian Foreign Minister

The new UNITED STATES AMBASSADOR TO BELGIUM, FREDERICK M. ALGER, and MRS. ALGER, of East Jefferson avenue, Grosse Pointe, welcome the BELGIAN FOREIGN MINISTER, PAUL VAN ZEELAND, at the American Embassy residence in Brussels. This picture, air-mailed from Belgium by Jane Schermerhorn, society editor of the Grosse Pointe News, who was in Brussels last week when Ambassador and Mrs. Alger arrived, was taken when Foreign Minister Van Zeeland returned the formal call made by Ambassador Alger at the Foreign Office July 20.

First Year Is Toughest For Johnny

Waif Tossed Into Poilnte Field Year Ago Now Victim Of Cruel Beatings

Twice within the space of his one year of life, tiny John Patwin has met with cruelties perpetrated by adults. Little Johnny first figured in the news when he was found abandoned in a field at Kercheval and Provincial, in the Farms. He was about three hours old and had a fractured skull. That was a year ago this month.

He was believed to have been thrown from a car into the lot, and was discovered, enclosed in a shopping bag by Merrill Walls, Jr., of Detroit. The waif was rushed to Cottage Hospital, where the nurses gave him the name of Johnny.

Many Wanted Him
At that time many persons called by phone and went to the hospital seeking to adopt the tiny founding. One person, who did not give his name, donated $100 towards Johnny's care. However, the Children's Aid Society took him and eventually placed him with persons carefully screened to determine their qualifications as parents.

Early last week, while the regular parents were on a vacation, Johnny was placed in a licensed boarding home in Ecorse Township.

Passenger Gets Free Taxi Ride, Then Takes Cab, Cash

A Detroit Checker cab driver was held up and robbed of his money and cab on Saturday, July 25, at 781 Trombley road.

According to a Park police report, William J. Applebee, 31 of 4115 Trumbull, Detroit, had picked up a passenger in front of the Fox theater, who requested to be taken to 759 Trombley.

On arrival the address was discovered to be a phony. The passenger claimed to have made a mistake, and as the cab driver swung his vehicle around in search of the supposed right number, the man pulled out a small,

Detroit Youth Under Bond For Counterfeiting Passes To Park's Municipal Beach

Two Employees of Printing Company Who Collaborated in Making Bogus Cards Are Removed From Their Jobs

Robert J. Smith, 18, of 2640 Marlborough, Detroit, was placed under a $2,500 bond on Thursday, July 23, pending examination before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on August 19, on the charge of counterfeiting passes to the Park's water front recreation center.

In less than five weeks after receiving information regarding a rumor that persons were using illegal passes to enter the water-front park, Det. Sgt. Stanley Enders broke the case.

Police Hear Rumors
It was on June 19 that Park police heard rumors that several persons were in possession of counterfeit passes to the park, and only two days later, a Detroit housewife called Police Chief Arthur Louwers, asking if passes were available for purchase. She said in the Carson School area in Detroit, children had divulged that passes were available for about $5.

Chief Louwers and Sgt. Enders immediately began an extensive investigation and received their first break on July 15, when information was received from Detroit police regarding a counterfeit pass found in the effects of a person sentenced to Jackson prison.

Prisoner Questioned
Sgt. Enders, questioning the prisoner, uncovered the fact that the man, while in the employ of a printing company, the name of which police did not reveal because it was not implicated in the crime, had gone to a stockroom for supplies and saw several stacks of the passes in bank forms of four to each square. He stated

Passes All Spotted
"Smith used only four different numbers on his passes," said Chief Louwer, "and we know what they are. Park Superintendent Joe Craig has been instructed to brief his personnel to hold any person holding a pass with these numbers for the police and steps will be taken for prosecution. The two discharged employees of the printing company were not arrested, but told to hold themselves in readiness for further questioning.

Holdens Donate New Gift to Zoo
Detroit Chimpanzees will have a new amphitheater in which to display their talents, thanks to Mr. and Mrs. James S. Holden of Washington road.

At an estimated cost of $400,000 to $500,000, the arena is one of many gifts to the Detroit Zoo from the Holdens. Mr. Holden, a member of the first Detroit Zoological Commission in 1924, has served continuously and now is commission president.

Thief Grabs Purse With $120 in Cash

Isabel Martin Robbed by Snatcher as She Approaches Her Home in Lincoln Road

City police are scouring the Pointe for a man who snatched a purse from Isabel Martin, 55, of 283 Lincoln road on Thursday, July 23, after she alighted from a bus on her way home.

According to Police Chief Thomas Trombly, the woman had gotten off the bus at Fisher road and Maumee and was walking south on Lincoln road in the vicinity of her home, when she noticed a car stop at the Redfield's residence. The car started up again and continued past her and then she heard foot steps running from behind, and a hand grabbed at her purse with such force the bag tore loose from its handle.

Had Cashed Check
She told police she had been downtown, where she had cashed a check for $120 from dividends of Detroit Edison bonds. The cash was in the purse.

She said she was unable to describe the thief because it was too dark to distinguish his features, but he uttered the word "purse" as he snatched the article from her and ran south on Lincoln towards Jefferson. She also heard a car start up as he turned the corner.

This led police to believe that the purse snatcher may have had an accomplice.

Tells Story to Temple
The victim then encountered Former Assistant Prosecutor Wallace Temple of 184 Fisher road, but by the time she had explained what had happened the culprit had fled.

No Polio Cases Reported Yet
Not a single case of Infantile paralysis had been reported in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods area up to Tuesday afternoon, according to Dr. Thomas Davies, health commissioner for this district.

Dr. Davies said the first case reported here last year was on July 12 and that by this date a year ago there had been a number.

Frederick M. Alger Assumes His Post In Belgian Capital

Jane Schermerhorn, News Society Editor, Gives First Hand Report of Pointers at Embassy in Brussels

by JANE SCHERMERHORN
Grosse Pointe News Society Editor

Forevermore, when we think of Brussels, we will be back on rue Zinner, bounded by the verdant Royal Park . . . It'll be a July morning and in the distance will sound that other century clomp, clomp of horses' hooves over cobbled streets.

Suddenly will appear the Belgian Gendarmerie, l'escort royale . . . some sixty strong in fairy-book dress uniforms of blazing scarlet, gold, black and white . . . arriving at the United States Embassy residence . . . to wait upon the new Ambassador to Belgium, Frederick M. Alger, Jr., that morning presenting his credentials to the youthful King Baudouin and to Belgium . . .

The royal cavalcade perform in two long rows. They ride on jet black or dark chestnut horses. Only the Ambassador, who sound the King's Salute, are astride snow white mounts.

The still morning echoes with the notes of the Salute . . . it is played only on royal occasions . . . when an Ambassador is received . . . or when the King visits one of his towns and the event is known as a Joyeuse Entree.

Appointment Royal

Scarcely have the notes sounded than a long, black limousine pulls up to the residence entrance . . . Its passenger is Major General Jules A. L. Danneels, aide de camp to the King, and Commandant of l'Ecole Militaire. His olive dress uniform is spangled in scarlet and gold . . . a flash of color that disappears behind great doors opened by two liveried footmen at the residence . . .

Again the trumpets blare the King's salute . . . The Gendarmerie raise tall standards, each topped with the Belgian flag . . . the residence doors open . . . and with the General is the Pointe's own Frederick M. Alger, Jr. . . . in full evening dress, white tie (but with black waistcoat), top hat and white gloves . . .

The first complement of horsemen form in front of the limousine and in the two following motor cars ride Embassy officials: Hugh Millard, Counsellor; Col. Wendell Blanchard, Army Attache; Richard Service, First Secretary; and Lieut. Col. James Curry, Air Attache . . .

With trumpets heralding, the Ambassador is escorted to the King . . . Significant is this royal visit . . . it has been granted far ahead of usual protocol . . . and is a great courtesy and compliment to the new Ambassador . . .

At the Royal Palace, the ceremony is brief (we'll remember hearing that King Baudouin, usually shy and reserved on such occasions) departed from customary practice and chatted amiably with the Ambassador . . . Their talk was of golf . . . the King protesting his was a commonplace game . . . and the two arranging a golf date for sometime soon . . .

Call Upon the Ambassador

Then the same medieval parade announces, at the Embassy residence . . . that the party is returning . . .

Without the handsomely appointed residence we watch swift, silent preparation . . . footmen arrange themselves at the gen. doorns . . . which open for the returning Ambassador and Gen. Danneels.

Soon the marble console in the embassy foyer is a picture with array of various formal headgear and gloves! Timed with precision are the formal calls which now begin . . . the guests all being taken into the salon, where the Ambassador presents them to Mrs. Alger (gowned in stark black, stunningly chic, and dull gold jewelry) . . .

The scene is one of dashing color . . . dotted with uniforms and medals . . . sabres are part of many of the uniforms . . . footmen pass silver salvers of champagne . . . radiant flowers perfume the rooms . . .

And behind the scenes moves the marvelous Mademoiselle Nerinx . . . Mrs. Alger's social secretary . . . and the prized jewel of ten American ambassadors who have depended upon her and her vast knowledge of European diplomatic and social protocol! . . . She knows . . . and is known . . . by everyone in these circles . . .

Presented to King

Now officially, Frederick M. Alger, Jr. is U. S. Ambassador to Belgium . . .

Next? In the matter of calls, sometime probably in August . . . the Ambassador will visit the Royal Palace to present Mrs. Alger to King Baudouin . . . And there will follow a formal call upon the King's grandmother, Queen Elizabeth of Belgium, this to take place at Laeken, the palace just outside Brussels preferred by Baudouin to the vast splendor of the Royal Palace in Brussels . . .

A long series of calls begins for Mrs. Alger, who must (See, From Another Pointe of View, Page 8)

Bing Crosby Accepts Bid To Help Dedicate New Gym

Bing Crosby has accepted an invitation to come to Grosse Pointe next year and assist in the dedication of the new High School Auditorium - Gymnasium. The invitation was extended to Bing by Chet Sampson when he and his 56 girls were guests on the Crosby's Nevada ranch. Having become well acquainted over the past five years with several hundred Grosse Pointe young people, Bing feels close to the Pointe community and was happy to accept the invitation. The girls returned this week from their Western tour full of glowing accounts of their trip, and especially of the annual Crosby two-day visit. While at the ranch, the group learned that Bing Crosby had described the annual visit in his new autobiography, "CALL ME LUCKY". A condensed version of the book was run in the Saturday Evening Post this past winter. Bing presented Chet with a copy autographed; "To Chet Sampson, whose annual visits to the ranch with his fine groups are a pleasure." (Continued on Page 2)

Birds Back For Second Year in Row

Residents of Kensington Road Made Miserable by Feathered Invaders

For the second consecutive year, flocks of Starlings have invaded the peace and quiet of Kensington road, between Vernor Highway and Charlevoix avenue, virtually taking over the whole neighborhood. Since early May, according to residents in the area, the feathery creatures have been making that part of the street their home, much to the annoyance of the people. The number of birds in the last two months has swollen into the thousands, and every known means have been tried to "evict" the birds, but to no avail.

Appeal to Police
The birds have become such a nuisance, several citizens have appealed to the police for aid, but the authorities are helpless. Last year, the police tried shooting at the birds, but the noise of the pistols frightened the neighborhood children and proved a greater annoyance than the birds. Beside this method was next to useless, because of the vast number of birds. Even water from pressure hoses failed to daunt the creatures.

Even More This Year
This year, the birds have flocked to the trees on Kensington in even greater numbers, are a more of a nuisance and have created a hazard to health.

Residents have been forced to take their cars off streets in front of their homes and put them in their garages or in the side drives, and if they do any walking have to use some sort of protective covering.

Mrs. William Bock of 1310 Kensington, appears to be especially annoyed by the birds. "I wish there was some way of getting rid of them," she said, "because they are a big nuisance. I have lived in this neighborhood for the last 24 years, and last year was the first time the birds ever came around. I have never seen anything like it."

Her neighbors across the street, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Zieske of 1311 Kensington, were also of the opinion that something should be done to rid the area of the starling horde.

Thousands of Them
"The birds are interesting to watch," they said, "but they certainly are pests. Last year, the birds monopolized only six trees, and this year they have taken over several more. There are thousands more this year than last, and it seems the flock is growing all the time. When they started to come around in May there were not very many of them, but as time went by, more and more kept coming."

They said that the neighborhood has done about everything to rid itself of the starlings, shooting, beating on pans, clappers in the hands of children, but nothing seems to help. About the only thing that happens, they stated is that they annoy the birds, which fly around the trees and then perch again.

Never Can Tell
Mrs. Ann Boyes, secretary of the Detroit Audubon Society, said that for some mysterious reason, starlings have flocked to the same spot, year after year. She said that the creatures may flock to a spot one year and the next never show up, and in some cases have flocked to the same spot for as many as eight years consecutively.

She said it is not unusual to have at least a half-million birds in one flock, and the weight of their combined numbers would cause the limbs of the trees to sag almost to the breaking point.

Return Every Night
During the daylight hours, the birds go their way, foraging for food, but just before nightfall, they return to the area which they had left as if drawn by a magnet, to roost for the night and remain until they leave again in the early hours of the morning.

Mrs. Boyes' husband, Edwin, who is with WWJ radio station, is experimenting with an electronic device, which if successful will solve the problem of driving the starlings from the neighborhood or anywhere else the birds may decide to stay. The device, a piercing whistle inaudible to the human ear, will be tried as soon as possible.

Tone Will Vary
The whistle will operate on about 8,000 to 9,000 cycles, and its tone will be made to vary, (Continued on Page 6)

1,170 Children Entertained By Library Film Program

To date, 1,170 Grosse Pointe children have enjoyed film programs given by the Public Library this summer. Held each week in the three libraries in the Grosse Pointe system, they take the place of the traditional story hour for children.

Being aware of the fact that summer-time is a time of fun and freedom for children, the Grosse Pointe Public Library chose to offer a summer film program for the younger residents of the community.

Under the direction of Miss Jean Taylor, Chief of Children's Service, plans were begun while the chill of winter was still in the air. Available children's films were carefully screened, and chosen with discrimination to provide the very best program.

The library felt that this was a profitable means of helping children make better use of their leisure time. It was thought, also, that the showings would be a worthy use of the fine audio-visual equipment which the library owns.

In order to make this program available to all children in the area, films are shown once each week on Wednesdays at the Park Branch, Thursdays at the Woods Branch, and Fridays at the Central Library. The time is 2 p.m. The program began June 24, and will continue through August 28.

Through this medium, young audiences have experienced such things as attending a circus, visiting a zoo, and have become acquainted with peoples in our own country, and far away lands.

The chief purpose of the program has been recreational, but valuable bits of information are to be gleaned while being entertained.

Forthcoming films promise such fare as a puppet show, more animal adventures, a day at the fair, and a trip to a real ranch.

Judging by the size and reaction of the audiences, this activity has proven to be a worthy one. The behavior of the youngsters has been positive evidence of their appreciation of the library's efforts. Librarians feel compensated as they gather enthusiastic crowds into lines each week; and especially as they watch the faces of the young movie viewers.

VFW Auxiliary Gives Party for AAA Soldiers

The Anti-Aircraft Artillery camp at the foot of Three Mile road was the scene of a party on Wednesday night, July 23, arranged by the members of the auxiliary of the Alger Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars. Fullest cooperation was given by Lieut. William H. Gorman, commanding officer, and Lieut. Donald Ellis. Posing for a picture with a number of the soldiers during the party were Mrs. Mary Keller and Mrs. Eva Bariteau, co-chairman for the event; Mrs. Hannah Knopsnider and Mrs. Shirley Rickert.

William Mayo Attends U of M Camp Cusino

Among the seven University of Michigan students attending the U-M Camp Cusino is William L. Mayo, 365 Notre Dame, Grosse Pointe.

The geography camp, which is located 25 miles northeast of Munising in the Upper Peninsula, is open June 22-August 15 to offer technical training to graduate students.

Isolated on a small lake in the wilderness, the camp is surrounded by old lumbering trails. The students follow these trails into the backwoods to problem areas where they spend many days surveying the land and preparing maps as training for their profession. Working in pairs, they are responsible for recording every bush and tree in the neighborhood.

In the evening the group

sant feature of the summer schedule. Bing Crosby."

As part of the annual visit, the girls and Crosbys stage a huge campfire. Each summer the Pointers have included the song, "Tell Me Why the Stars Do Shine", in their program and urged Bing to make a recording of the song. He has now done that, at their suggestion, and the record will be released soon.

The award to the outstanding girl of the trip this year was won by Linda Gilmore of Grand Rapids. Bing crowned her "Miss Sleeping Bag of 1953" and presented her, as is his custom, with a beautiful beaver pelt. A close runner-up was Lois Finnell. Members of her court, known as the "Three Zippers" were Sally Sharer, Sally Snowday, and Connie Chadwick. Other awards of a more humorous nature were also made at the campfire: "Miss Sad Sack", the girl looking worst in the mornings, and "Miss Feed Bag", the girl with the largest appetite.

The skits presented by each of the cars were so clever this year that Bing has decided that next year he will prepare a stage and special lighting for the occasion.

This year he made one of his homes available to the group for their stay, and they again spent the morning in his private home cleaning up, playing his piano and record collection, seeing his collection of European pictures, and generally making themselves "at home".

Tough Year For Johnny

township. One of the tots was Johnny.

The couple was jailed on the charge of cruelty to children, and a warrant was issued against them. In addition, their state boarding house license was revoked. They denied the charges of cruelty.

Both youngsters, Johnny and Jerry Dotson, 3, had cracked, swollen lips which doctors certified were the results of repeated slappings. The 3-year-old's back was a mass of black and blue welts from shoulder blades to knees.

Beaten Half to Death
Johnny, the doctors said, had been beaten half to death. He suffered deep lacerations on the right side of his face and a deep welt, almost two inches wide, which stretched from his jaw to his ear on the left side of his face.

Dr. Frank Parsons of Wyandotte General Hospital, where police had rushed the two children, made the report. He listed Johnny in semi-critical condition at the time. He was reported doing fine the next day.

Accused Stand Mute
The Ecorse Township couple stood mute at an examination before Township Justice Bernard P. O'Brien, Thursday, July 23, and a plea of innocent was entered for them and they were placed on a $1,000 bond, pending trial.

If found guilty, they could receive up to four years in prison.

Dr. T. H. Stubbs Receives Honor

Dr. Trawick H. Stubbs, 16832 St. Paul avenue, has been awarded an extension of his fellowship for graduate study in public health and preventive medicine under an education program sponsored by the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, Donald W. Barton, administrator of the Wayne Chapter of the March of Dimes organization, announced.

Barton said the purpose of these awards is to train physicians for the teaching and application of the principles of public health and preventive medicine. Many vacancies exist in our medical colleges which could be filled by properly qualified physicians trained in this field, he said.

Fellowships of this kind are part of the National Foundation's program of professional education to provide skilled personnel to carry on the fight against poliomyelitis. The awards are made upon recommendation of a national professional committee.

Dr. Stubbs is one of 95 recipients of such fellowships under a nationwide program. He is studying at Harvard University School of Public Health.

Twenty Volunteers Helping 100 Kids at Community Club

More than 20 volunteers are now part of the staff of the afternoon recreation program of the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club, which is now serving over 100 children between the ages of six and 12 each weekday afternoon.

The recruiting program was a cooperative effort between the Community Club, the Central Volunteer Bureau, and Wayne University. Volunteers from the Grosse Pointe Public Library, Audubon Society, the Grosse Pointe school system and the neighborhood are active also.

The new building which was recently opened is being used to capacity, each room containing a different interest group.

Butterfly nets, boards for mounting specimens and star maps have temporarily pushed to one side the hammer and nails in the workshop provided by the Kiwanis Club, as the nature enthusiasts increase their knowledge and add to the collections.

Under the leadership of Mrs. P. J. Reynolds of the Audubon Society, this group has fast become one of the most popular. John Hammel, president of the Board of Directors, helped the children taken an intense look at some of the phenomena around them when he brought his microscopes for an afternoon session.

Miss Virginia Johnston, of Poupard School has taken the children on two trips to Europe via her kodochrome slides of Holland and Switzerland.

Much of the richness of the craft program has come through donations made to the club by various citizens. Two to four volunteers each afternoon teach the children the use of various scrap materials . . . industrial cork for coasters and bulletin boards, mason jars for hand painted vases, knitting yarn for multi-colored woven purses.

Supervised softball, kickball and croquet can be found on the playground which is used heavily all day. For parents wishing their children to use the playground under supervision, it would be well to check with the Community Club as to hours.

Others on the afternoon volunteer staff are Miss Eunice Elvidge, 15513 Maple Ridge; Diane Simms, 1103 Berconfield; Alice McElvenny, 53 Cloverly road; Marilyn Koppersmith, 3975 Three Mile drive; Patricia Bailey, 14102 Kathleen, Nelson, 2133 Vermier road; Tracy Rose, 1178 Brys drive; Thomas Quinlan, 1797 Brys drive; Mrs. R. M. Kenealy, 20432 Hollywood; Mrs. K. Joly, 20889 Nesbit; Marilyn McDowell, 1019 Bedford road; and Miss Helen Frost, 16920 Village Lane.

The afternoon program is under the direction of Mr. Jack Byles of the Community Club, a United Community Service made possible through your donation to the Torch Drive.

The reason our dreams fail to come true is that too many of us just keep on dreaming.

Republican Women Plan Big Fall Party to Raise Funds

"Come Join the 'Grand Old Party,'" will be the cry of Republican women all over the Detroit area when September rolls around.

A Republican Women's "Party" will be sponsored by members of the Republican Women's Finance Committee of Wayne and Oakland Counties, according to Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., member of the Republican National Finance Committee for Michigan, who heads the group.

The "Party" will include dancing and professional entertainment at the Sheraton Cadillac Hotel on Wednesday, October 28, from 9:30 until 12:30 o'clock. Preparations are being made for more than 1000 guests and a number of Republicans of national renown have promised to be present.

Chairman of the "Party" committee is Mrs. Jewett Dwyer, who states that this will be the Republican Woman's annual fund raising event and that whatever funds are raised will help finance the campaign to increase Republican support in Congress for President Eisenhower.

A Contributions Committee has been set up which will start functioning in September, with more than 100 solicitors working for captains who will represent a number of districts in and around Detroit.

Chairman of this committee is Mrs. James J. Phelan, member of the State Central Committee from the 7th District, who has been loaned to the Wayne and Oakland Counties Finance Committee for the event. She points out that contributions to the Republican Finance Committee will entitle all interested women to attend the "Party," and to bring an escort if they so desire.

This is the women's "Party." They will solicit all contributions and will solicit only women. It is the women who will bring the men. Mrs. Phelan points out that the numerous Republican Women's clubs will probably use a variety of means of raising their donations, as they did for the fund-raising luncheons in 1952 and 1953.

From Harbor Point came Mrs. Dwyer and Mrs. William K. Muir with Mrs. W. Dean Robinson, both vice-chairmen of the "Party" committee.

Mrs. Dean arrived on the same day from her summer home at Pointes Aux Barques, Mrs. Phelan from her farm in Lapeer County, and Mrs. Harry J. Mack, publicity chairman, from vacationing in Oxley Bluff, Ontario. A final meeting will be held today, Thursday, July 30, at the home of Mrs. J. Stewart Hudson, 114 Lothrop rd., chairman of the arrangements committee.

Other committee chairmen who will be present are: Mrs. Ray Whyte and Mrs. Theodore Yndland, also vice-chairmen, Mrs. C. Hassell Bliss, music; Mrs. Wendell W. Anderson, Jr., decorations; Mrs. Harold R. Boyer and Mrs. Neal Lang, entertainment, and Mrs. William P. Bonbright who will act as secretary for the "Party" committee.

Speaking at the event with their enthusiastic support and blessings are the women officials of the Republican Party in Michigan, Mrs. Rae C. Hooker, National Committee woman; Mrs. Peter Gibson, vice-chairman of the Republican State Control Committee; Mrs. William B. Bachmann, vice-chairman of the Wayne County Republican Committee, and Mrs. William Koeze, state president of Women's Republican Clubs.

American Legion Honors Fruehauf

Well-known Michigan Industrialist Harry R. Fruehauf, World War I Navy veteran and Legionnaire of The American Legion Alger Post 86, Detroit, has been named Honorary Chairman of The American Legion's 1953 Michigan Department Convention Corporation, it was announced by Detroit Districts commander William J. Clarahan.

Fruehauf, a resident of Grosse Pointe, is first vice-president of the Fruehauf Trailer Company and has been associated for almost four decades with the firm bearing his family name.

Always a firm believer in veterans' rights, Fruehauf's keen interest in Legion affairs motivated his acceptance of the Honorary Chairmanship. His duties during the 35th annual state Legion convention, to be held in Detroit July 30-August 2, will be to coordinate functions of Detroit's civic officials and organizations with the Legion's convention echeon, the Convention Corporation. More than 10,000 Legionnaires, Auxiliaries, their friends and families from Michigan's 83 counties are expected to attend the city's largest yearly convention when they join forces with 15,000 Legionnaires residing in the Detroit area.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Dorothy E. Carleton of 9114 Louis, Detroit, charged with pulling into traffic and causing an accident, was given her choice on Wednesday, July 22, by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, of paying a fine of $15 or five days in jail. She paid the fine.

Adolph Rossell of 857 Berkshire, received a suspended sentence. He was found guilty of improper backing and striking a pedestrian in front of his home. He made restitution to the injured person and because of his excellent past record, he was found guilty of less than reckless driving and given the suspended sentence.

Van O. Murphy of 9933 Mack, accused of speeding 40 miles an hour on Jefferson, did not appear in court to answer the charge and forfeited a $17.50 bond.

Ila E. Carrington of 752 Harcourt, ticked for ignoring a stop street sign at Devonshire and St. Paul, failed to show up and forfeited a $15 bond.

Woods Council Turns Down Plea in Housing Dispute

The Woods council, at a meeting held on Monday, July 27, denied Mrs. Ray Krause, Jr., the right to use her newly purchased home at 1768 Hampton, as a multiple dwelling.

Since the recent purchase of the house from Michael Bem, its former occupant, Mrs. Krause has sought permission to rent the upper floor as a means of income, claiming that she had bought the home with the understanding that this could be done.

An attorney for Mrs. Krause pointed out to the council that a multiple dwelling house will not change the appearance of the neighborhood, especially if the exterior of the house looks like a single dwelling unit.

Douglas Basberg of 1776 Hampton, the principle objector to having the house turned into an income unit, stated through his attorney that if the council permitted the new owner to use her home as such, the council would be in violation of the city's zoning ordinance.

According to the ordinance, multiple dwellings were permitted, only if the home was such prior to the present amendment. A home is permitted to remain as an income unit or multiple dwelling, provided its use has not been discontinued as such for a period of one year.

The attorney for Mrs. Krause stated that the abstract for the lot on which the house is built shows that it called for an income dwelling, and the house had been maintained as a two family flat.

He said that according to a building permit issued at the time the house was built in 1939, the construction called for a two family flat, with one front entrance, but the upper flat had not been completed. Later a permit was obtained to finish the house and after the upper flat was done, Bem had rented to his own son.

Basberg contended that no such thing occurred. He said the house was a single unit and had never been rented to Bem's son or to any other person.

City Manager Ray MacArthur said a check of the records did not reveal any permits showing the house was constructed as a unit to house a family in the upper flat.

Councilman Waid McKnight claimed that if the house was used as a multiple dwelling unit, it was being done so in violation of the city's ordinance.

Mayor Paul Rowe told Mrs. Krause that if evidence is presented, such as receipts, or Bem's statements for income tax returns to prove that he had been using the house as a two family flat and had not abandoned the renting of the upper floor for a period of one year, the council might grant a certificate for a multiple dwelling, but as it stands now, she may have to resort to the courts to clear the issue.

The council then denied her permission to use the house as she had intended.

Owners of Boats Must Pay Tax

With nearly three-fourths of the owners of boats 16 feet or more in length having failed to pay the annual state license tax, warning has been given that beginning August 10 enforcement action will be taken against the delinquents.

At the request of the state waterways commission, the State Police will on that date start to check resort and other marine areas and issue tickets for unlicensed boats much in the same manner as they are given to those owners whose cars are without proper plates. The violation is a misdemeanor calling for appearance of the delinquent in justice court.

The yearly licenses are issued in marine areas by branch offices of the secretary of state and some dealers, but the revenue goes to the waterways commission to be used solely for the building and improvement of navigational facilities and waterways.

Up to July 17 of this year only 5,057 licenses had been issued, whereas it is estimated there may be as many as 20,000 boats subject to the tax. The peak license year was in 1951, when 6,317 were sold, most owners never having paid the tax since it was first collected in 1948.

The license, which was established by the marine code law enacted in 1947, applies to watercraft having an overall length of 16 feet or more and owned by a resident of Michigan or hailing from any port within the state. Exempted from the tax are commercial fishing boats licensed by the department of conservation, commercial passenger and freight vessels paying the state tonnage tax, vessels having an overall length less than 16 feet and vessels propelled solely by muscular power or detachable outboard motors.

The tax ranges from $5 for boats from 16 to 20 feet in length up to $1 per foot plus $100 for each registered gross ton for vessels more than 65 feet long.

Under former legislation boats were subject to personal property taxes which varied in amount depending upon the tax rate in the locality where they were owned. These funds were used by units of local government. As a result of increasing personal property tax rates and the desire by boat owners to have their money used for boating purposes, the 1947 law was passed and a uniform license rate established.

In addition to other funds, the tax revenue is used by the waterways commission in a long range program to build a marine highway along the entire shore line of the state consisting of harbors of refuge and small boat facilities located at approximately 30-mile distances.

The institute, one of the many short courses sponsored by the State University as a public educational service for Wisconsin citizens in various fields of endeavor, is presenting a thorough discussion of "the personal estate" and problems of the partnership, among many other problems in the insurance field.

The Pointers attending are Walter R. Cavanaugh of Oxford road and J. Randolph Kennedy of Lincoln road.

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"Now when a doctor's patients are perplexed, A consultation comes in order next... You know what that is? In a certain place Meet certain doctors to discuss a case And other matters, such as weather, crops, Potatoes, pumpkins, lager-beer and hops." (Oliver Wendell Holmes)

There is something wrong with the way of vegetable gardens that needs correcting. In this day of streamlining everything from vitamin pills to jet planes... the old vegetable garden trucks along much the same as it did in grandma's day. Our particular irritation is that too much happens at the same time. The first things that showed their green in our yard were peas. We could hardly wait to pick, cook and eat them... but instead of coming along gradually, they all came at once so that we had to eat peas until they were coming out of our ears. Finally, we couldn't eat them fast enough and had to strip the bed and give them to our neighbors.

Same thing when the beans came along, and now the corn. Our vegetable expert sez we shall have to hurry and eat corn on the cob twice a day for a week or it will be too old to eat! This is what we hope some genius will correct. As the new vegetables come along, we want to eat them say twice a week and string them throughout the summer to suit our mood. The Department of Agriculture will please make note of this and DO something about it!

One of our Eastern spies related a small catastrophe that reminds us of another similar one we printed once before and have been asked to use again... so many people hadn't heard about it; but first to the newer one: in order to really appreciate this true tale, you have to know someone who would rather die than forego a before-lunch drink on Sunday... when he has been nipping the night before.

Our tale starts with a non-drinking couple who invited four friends to go to a beach club with them for swimming and lunch on Sunday. The club was a good, hot, half hour's drive into the country, so by the time the group arrived they were ready for a swim and other things. As they gathered on the beach in swim suits, one of the male guests said: "Boy, this looks good. I can hardly wait to get in that surf... then a LONG TALL gin sling while I'm drying off before lunch." It was then that the axe fell. His host reminded him that the club didn't serve liquor because of the presence of so many children.

The four guests looked at the guy as if he ought to have his head examined... but quick. Finally one of the party asked, "Well you brought some liquor with you, didn't you?" NO... it seems he had never thought of it!

To show you how dire these things can be... the man whose mind was on the tall gin drink allowed as how he would give up his swimming, get dressed and drove back to the house to get a bottle! Everyone cheered his fortitude (except the hosts)... so off he went.

During his absence, the others had a gay time in the water and within the hour, our hero was back exclaiming that he had had a brilliant idea... he had brought a shaker of iced martinis. Tongues were hanging out in anticipation as the party trooped up to the terrace where they were to lunch. Since the host was in charge of things, the keeper of the martinis handed him the shaker and suggested that maybe a little ice might be added before they drank them. The ice was duly ordered and put in the shaker... then the host started shaking the thing. (Don't get ahead of us!) Suddenly his hand slipped... the bottom fell away and those BEAUTIFUL martinis spread themselves into a hideous stain on the flagstones. Not ONE drop was left. Sad?

Our other tale is much the same but a little nastier. A group of eight people, from the Pointe, rented a boat to go on a fishing trip. When they arrived at their destination, they had to lug equipment and supplies through a forest for some long distance before arriving at the fishing grounds. The men carried the canoes and the women the food, tackle etc. Part of their gear was a bottle of gin, small bucket of ice and some lemons for guess what? The gin was given to the most sensible and sure-footed woman of the party because they didn't want anything to happen to THAT. So far so good.

When it came time to make the drinks... everyone was grateful for the idea after their long, hard trek. As they sat sipping them, someone remarked that the gin certainly didn't taste very potent... in fact they couldn't taste it at all. Everyone took another sip and agreed. To solve the mystery, one of the men took a straight swig out of the bottle. It was plain unadulterated WATER. The woman in charge of the bottle giggled that she thought it would be a good joke on them... so before leaving, she had poured the gin out of the bottle and filled it with water. Her husband had some good ideas about what to do to her... but fortunately, (for her), there were too many witnesses!

Last Saturday the Pointe was flowing with tears from the people who didn't bet on Second Avenue when he won the $50,000 Michigan Mile at the race track. One man sent us a poem about HIS feelings... as follows:

"I lost my dough the other day By getting off the course Not on the lake, or fairway, But on a horse... of course! My goal was Oil Capitol, My dope was straight and true, But gosh! if I had only stayed On Second Avenue!"

Rude Motorists Cause Accidents

Discourteous driving is leading to traffic accidents in Detroit, according to the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit.

The Association and the Detroit Police Department have been joined by more than 50 Detroit companies and organizations in a program, now in its second week, to promote more courteous behavior behind the wheel.

"Detroit drivers, generally speaking, are courteous. They do the considerate, unselfish thing," the association said. "But there are too many Detroiters still who have little consideration for the rights of others."

"The actions of these drivers sometimes lead directly to accidents. More often, they breed irritations in other drivers to the point where driving becomes unpleasant and even dangerous," the association said. "The association pointed out three types of courteous drivers who are helping to cut accidents in Detroit, as well as setting good examples for other drivers. They are the slow driver who keeps to the right, the driver who waits for the pedestrian to cross the street, and the driver who signals his intentions to turn well in advance."

All contestants must submit their photograph and an application to any Detroit Fire Station on or before August 7.

Giving Fluorine To 16,000 Kids

Between 16,000 and 17,000 youngsters will get fluoride treatments this summer to prevent tooth decay in a special program being carried on by the public health dentistry section of the Michigan Department of Health in cooperation with local dentists, health, school and civic groups.

Students from the University of Michigan—15 junior dentists, 20 student dental hygienists and 2 graduate dental hygienists—are employed at a subsistence rate to give the applications, and to get the experience of working with youngsters and community groups which is so valuable in their professional training.

Children treated are from 3 to 13 years old. A treatment consists of a series of four applications of fluoride solutions and will prevent an average of 40 per cent of new decay. The first treatment should be given when the youngster gets his primary teeth at around three to four years of age. Additional treatments are advised every three to four years afterwards up to the age of 13 to protect the permanent teeth as they replace the primary teeth.

The program will be carried on in 116 locations in 27 counties this summer—the third straight summer that the state health department has utilized student help in order to make this decay preventive available to rural youngsters and to areas which do not have fluoride programs during the school year.

Skillful Home Nursing

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

You can cut the period of illnesses and reduce the cost considerably during the years you raise a family if you acquire skill in home nursing.

Of course much can be learned by experience alone but that is the hardest way and sometimes it includes expensive mistakes.

The Red Cross conducts home-nursing courses in many communities. When these are not available or convenient you will find a book on the subject very instructive.

18 New Homes Being Built On Former Stroh Estate

Bishop road, between East Jefferson and the lake, which had created quite a controversy between the Park and a few of its citizens, has settled down to having its face lifted on one side. The face lifting is being done on the former Stroh estate property on the east side of Bishop road between East Jefferson and the lake.

Some residents in the vicinity were incensed when the Park made it known that the road was to be closed to permit subdividing of the Stroh property. The city originally intended to close the road and divide it between the Stroh estate and the property across the road belong to Mrs. C. Henry Buhl.

The legal battle between the city and interested residents reached such a proportion that the issue was taken to court, where residents were upheld by Wayne Circuit Court Judge Guy Miller and the Park was restrained from carrying out its plans.

Finally, Cox and Baker, builders and contractors, expressed willingness to subdivide the property they had purchased from the Stroh interests, as it was, and the Park Planning commission gave them the nod.

On Friday, July 24, the sewers for the project were completed and the following day the installation of the water main began, and should be completed by the end of this week.

The total cost of the entire subdividing project is difficult to determine at the present time, a Cox and Baker official said. Much of the work remains undone and bids for construction of the roads, sidewalks and several other things that go toward a completed job have not been received as yet. However, the official added, the land on which the project is being developed is worth in the vicinity of about $200,000 and the 18 homes expected to be erected on the subdivision will have a value of between $35,000 to $50,000 each.

A/1c Donald H. Miller Stationed in Germany

A/1c DONALD H. MILLER, serving with the Air Force in Furstenfeldbruck, Germany for the past two years, recently was transferred to Bitburg, Germany, where he is an x-ray technician in the new 150-bed hospital there.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman M. Miller of Milford, formerly of Maryland avenue, Donald was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in 1948 and attended the University of Michigan.

The Millers' other son, Robert M., was graduated from the School of Mechanical Engineering at Michigan State College in June and is now assistant field engineer with the Harry Ferguson Tractor Company. At present he is field testing experimental farm machines in Nebraska and other western states.

Philip Weiss On Atomic Panel

Philip Weiss, 43, of 257 Kenwood court, former chairman of the State Labor Mediation Board, was appointed to a six-member Atomic Energy Commission labor panel, by President Eisenhower on Friday, July 24.

Weiss, who served on the State Labor Mediation Board from 1943 to 1951 and was its chairman all but the last two years, will help handle labor-management disputes in atomic plants.

A Republican, he was not appointed to the state board by Gov. Williams. He has been a practicing attorney since 1932 and specializes in labor law.

A graduate of Oklahoma A and M, he played football in high school and college, dabbled in amateur and professional boxing and was a semi-pro baseball catcher.

Born in the neighborhood of Rowena and Brush, in Detroit, he attended old Central High School, now Wayne University.

Weiss is proud of the work accomplished by his state mediation service in settlement of major labor-management disputes, among which were the two big Chrysler-UAW (CIO) and the Michigan Bell Telephone settlements, which set a nationwide pattern.

He lives with his wife, Elinore, and two daughters, Susanne, 11, and Cynthia, 7, at the Farms address. He will leave for a Washington conference this week.

Bike Trip Covers 650 Miles

Three young Parkers, DOUG MORGAN of Beaconsfield avenue, POSTER WINTER of Berkshire road, and DICK DENISE of Essex avenue, have just returned from a 650-mile bike trip to Honey Harbour on Georgian Bay, Ontario.

The trip North took them five days but the return trip was made in four days. (They evidently could smell Ma's cooking.) Tops for one day on the return trip was 91 miles. The boys cooked most of their meals in roadside parks while traveling. At Honey Harbour they stayed at the Winter's summer home.

The wheels are already beginning to grind out plans for another trip next year — Florida, Mexico, Maine, Podunk, who knows?

Amend Provision of License Law

The Woods council voted approval to amend a provision in the city's ordinance governing the display of licenses on milk trucks and other vander vehicles. The amendment, voted for on Monday, July 27, was aimed at milk trucks and other vander vehicles drivers who do not display their city licenses properly.

Henceforth, licenses must be openly shown at the rear of trucks and on the front of ice cream and other small wagons.

City Bank Names French President

The board of directors of the City Bank have unanimously elected Rudolph E. Reichert as chairman of the board, and John H. French, Jr., as president of City Bank.

Mr. Reichert assumes these duties in addition to his presidency of the Ann Arbor Bank. Mr. Reichert started in the banking business in 1904 as a messenger of the Farmer's Mechanics Bank of Ann Arbor, and has been in the banking business ever since.

In 1927 he was appointed Michigan State Banking Commissioner and served under four governors — Green, Brucker, Comstock and Fitzgerald. In 1933 during the bank holiday he was termed the "Car of Michigan Banking," when the state legislators gave him virtual dictatorial powers. In 1936 he resigned as State Banking Commissioner to head the Ann Arbor Savings and Commercial Bank, now called Ann Arbor Bank.

In 1943 Mr. Reichert was made a director of the Detroit Branch of the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago, and in 1944 was elected president of the Michigan Bankers Association. He is one of the founders of the City Bank of Detroit.

John H. French, Jr., is also president and chairman of the board of the French Mortgage and Bond Company of Detroit, the largest private investment company west of New York. During the war he was a major in the United States Army Air Force, stationed in North Africa, executive officer of 1200 men and officers.

He is one of the original officers of the City Bank, serving as vice-president and secretary to the board. He was advanced to executive vice-president in March of 1953 and today becomes its second president.

New PACKARD Dealership in GROSSE POINTE WOODS

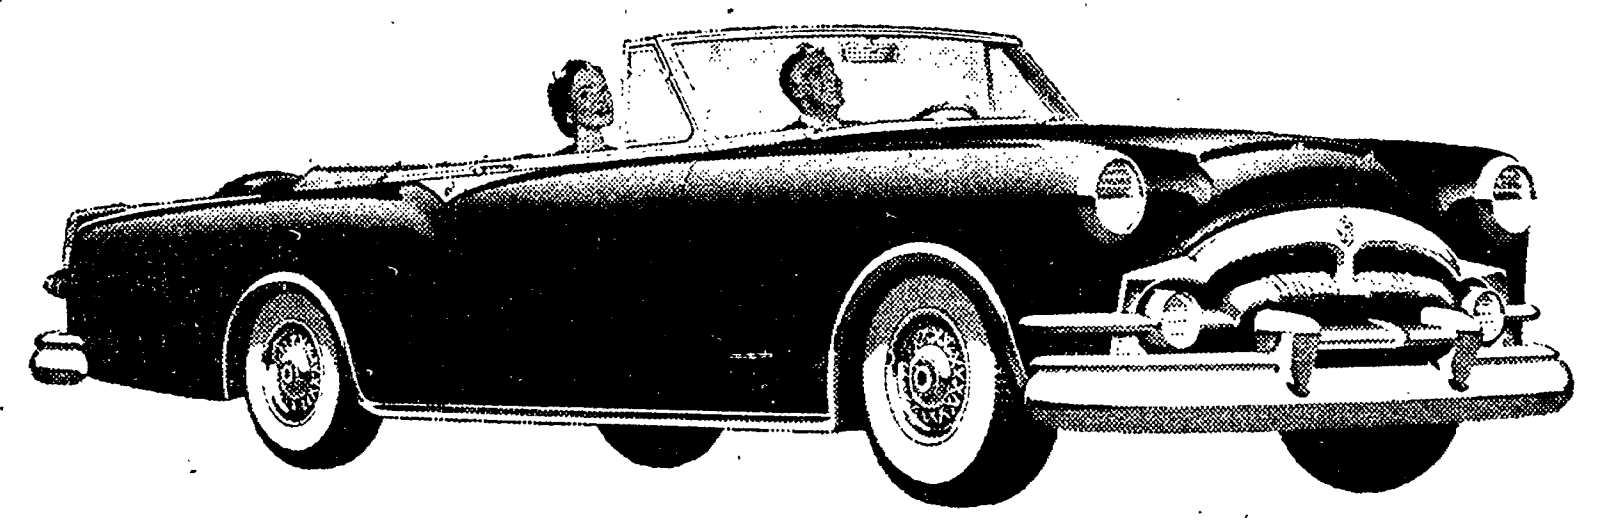

See PACKARD'S Two Great New Lines of Cars

-  DOOR PRIZES  FIRST Down payment on Packard or CLIPPER of your choice SECOND TV Set THIRD Electric Deep Fryer  REFRESHMENTS   BALLOONS FOR CHILDREN ***

The red carpet is out! Everything is set and ready for the grand opening of King-Lang-Packard's new dealer in the Grosse Pointe Woods area. And both Carl Lang and Wendell King extend a cordial invitation for you to attend. So come one... come all... to see this conveniently located and thoroughly modern headquarters for the sale and service of Packard-built cars. Meet Sales Manager Fred Jenney, who has had over 10 years automotive experience. And while you're about it, take a good look around the new and modern service department under the direction of Matt Bernot, a veteran of more than 11 years service experience with the Packard factory.

And, if you are interested in used cars, you might drop in at any one of King-Lang's three used-car lots—located at 20139 Mack (Main Office)—14111 Gratiot near Saratoga—and 23410 Harper near 9 Mile Road. But, in any case, come early and stay late. You'll share in an opportunity to win attractive door prizes. And you'll see Packard's two great new lines of automobiles—the new Packard, America's new choice in fine cars—and the new Packard CLIPPER, which offers big-car value at medium-car cost. The doors will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. So stop in, won't you?

Suzanne Stoepel Wed To Rev. Whittemore

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs Robert Stoepel of Lakeland avenue married in Christ Church by father of bridegroom

A reception at the Grosse Pointe Club followed the Wednesday evening marriage of Suzanne Stoepel and the Rev. James R. Whittemore in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. The bridegroom's father, the Rt. Rev. Lewis Bliss Whittemore retired Bishop of Western Michigan, officiated at the 6 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stoepel of Lakeland avenue, wore a princess style wedding gown, fashioned of white Italian silk taffeta. Scrolls of Alencon lace defined the portrait neckline, tiny sleeves and inserts in the full skirt.

A circlet of French lilacs secured her silk illusion veil, and she carried a bouquet of fleurs d'amour, stephanotis and lilies.

Mrs. Theodore A. McGraw, matron of honor for her sister, was gowned in pink handkerchief linen and carried pink carnations with ivy. Maid of honor Jan McMillan was identically gowned. Polly Witherspoon, of Hinsdale, Ill., served as her cousin's flower girl. Her frock was pale pink organza and she carried a basket of pink larkspurs.

The Rev. Henry W. Sherrill, of Cincinnati, O., attended as best man. Charles Packer, of Barrington, Ill.; the Rev. Andrew Wiseman, of Greenwich, Conn.; the Rev. Edgar D. Romig, of Boston, Mass.; John M. S. Hutchinson, Mr. McGraw and Hugo S. Higbie were the ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Stoepel chose a beige organza dress with small hat of velvet flowers and pinned pink spray orchids to her purse. Mrs. Whittemore wore delphinium blue organza with a matching hat. Her flowers were white spray orchids.

Guests who came from out-of-town for the wedding included Mrs. George Uihlein, the Herman A. Uihleins, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Hansen and Miss Beatrice Hansen, all of Milwaukee, Wis.; Mr. and Mrs. William W. Wotherpoon of Hinsdale, Ill.; and Mrs. Law Packer, Miss Beatrice Cochran, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Johnson, of Ponte Vedra Beach, Fla.

When the couple left on a wedding trip to Bermuda, the new Mrs. Whittemore was wearing a black and white print cotton frock and a corsage of red carnations.

Hammels Host Cocktail Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Hammel of Sunningdale drive entertained 100 guests at a recent cocktail party honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Bernard Helman, who were married in Ann Arbor last spring.

Mrs. Helman, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, attends the School of Business Administration at the University of Michigan. She is affiliated with Kappa Delta.

Mr. Helman, also a U. of M. student, will enroll in the Law School in September.

Rabaut Gives Views on Truce

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut has issued the following statement on the signing of the truce agreement in Korea.

"After 37 months of bloody conflict, people the world over will welcome with relief the signing of the truce agreement in Korea. Because it brings a halt to death and destruction, we are pleased and thankful at this event.

"We have been too long conditioned, however, by Communist demonstrations of faithlessness not to reserve a measure of prudent scepticism over the eventual outcome of this truce agreement. We must remember that it is only a truce agreement, a cease-fire arrangement, which, for the moment at least, ends military hostilities.

"The maintenance of this agreement and solving the knotty problems which will arise in the exchange of prisoners of war will further strain our patience and require continued effort. It is the political conference, to be called within 90 days, which will be the acid test for peace in Korea.

"We know little, at the moment, of the results reached in conferences between our government and President Syngman Rhee of Korea. The reported assurances of the Korean government are that it will not 'obstruct' the truce agreement for a period of six months. This gives the political conferees just 90 days in which to resolve the myriad problems they face.

"It is difficult to take an optimistic view as to the outcome of this conference if, in six months time, President Rhee is insisting on the unification of all of Korea and the Chinese Reds are demanding admission to the United Nations.

"Thus, despite the cessation of hostilities, we still face a critical situation in Korea. This is a time for unity, for solid support of the President in every proper attempt honorably to resolve this whole problem. It is a time for hope. It is a time for prayer."

Silver Wedding For R. J. Lynchs

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Lynch of Oxford road will celebrate their 25th wedding anniversary on Friday. Following a mass at St. Paul-on-the-lake, breakfast will be served for the family at the Detroit Yacht Club.

UF Gets $35,000 At Race Track

Racing has the distinction of having made the first contribution to the 1953 United Foundation charity drive in Detroit, the gift being approximately $35,000 placed in a pool by everyone connected with the Detroit Race Course.

Groups, jockeys, mutual clerks and executives—everyone with the slightest connection with the "Michigan Mile track"—gave something to make the coverage 100 percent. Unions and management worked together in a joint canvass of the employees.

Biggest individual contributions were made by the Michigan Racing Association, operators of the track, and by President Dale Shaffer and Executive Vice-President George Haggarty personally.

Announcement of the gift from the racing people was made in connection with "Torch Day" at the Detroit Race Course, a day highlighted by the running of the "Torch Drive Purse." Prominent United Foundation officials were entertained at luncheon and the big plant was decorated with Torch symbols.

Racing's "Torch Day" and its substantial gift will serve to trigger the 1953 UF drive throughout Detroit. The UF supports some 155 individual charity services.

Starlings Invade Park

rather than have a steady tone. When varied in rapid succession, the sound will have a tendency to annoy the birds and cause them to seek more serene surroundings, whereas, a steady tone would tend to cause the birds to become immune to the sound.

The Sturnus vulgaris (this is not a nasty word) or the common starling was first brought to this country from England. In 1890-91, 100 of them were liberated in Central Park, N.Y., and from these have descended the countless thousands which have spread rapidly over the eastern states.

Good Imitators

It is said they have a fine, clear whistle and can imitate other birds and various human sounds, but the Kensington residents have only heard the constant twittering of the birds which keeps them awake at night and the early hours of the morning. They would like to see the birds do an imitation of the disappearing act and forget to come back.

NECKLINE FASHIONS

Newest neckline fashion, though not the biggest for volume selling, is the stand-away band or small collar . . . shown in daytime dresses as well as in cocktail fashions where the treatment sometimes approximates a fichu or shallow spreading bateau. In most cases, these necklines star with bracelet-length sleeves. Buyers add that the long tight sleeve is newest and smartest, particularly in sheaths with sweater necklines or with wide décolletages or cocktail wear. Some add that they will go easy on this type because it is a little too sophisticated for the average junior customer.

FASHION POINTERS

Tulip silhouette, as such, is played down for juniors, but there are many modifications that point up this treatment none-the-less, buyers say. Illustrations are—Princess seaming from taut midriff into the shoulder line, angled pocket flaps on the bodice, deeper armholes in dolman, batwing or raglan cut, fuller sleeves on cocktail clothes, seaming or darting under bustline to suggest bulk toward the upper part of the bodice.

Carol Ann Diedrich to be Saturday Bride

Carol Ann Diedrich, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Victor Diedrich of Yorkshire road, and Paul Robert Jones III have just concluded a gay round of parties preceding their marriage this coming Saturday at St. Paul's Church on the lake shore.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Gordon Saunders, of Bloomfield Hills, uncle and aunt of the prospective bridegroom, were hosts to the families at a cocktail and dinner party Wednesday. The rehearsal dinner will be given tomorrow night at the University Club.

Suzanne Miesch and Mrs. Lionel H. Hayes, of Ottawa, Kan., will serve as maid and matron of honor at the August 1 wedding. Pauline Kilbride, Jean Drolshagen, Antoinette Nowak and Ellen Rose Kappel are to be bridesmaids.

Paul, son of Mrs. Curd Jones, of Muskegon, and Paul Robert Jones of Neff road, has asked Arthur Victor Diedrich, Jr., to be his best man. Robert L. Rosenfield, of New York; Robert Tobin, James Johnston, of Kansas City; Richard J. Neigebauer, Jr., and William Saunders, of Bloomfield Hills, will usher.

Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Walmoth and Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hosmer recently entertained at a garden box supper for the pair at the Hosmer home on Bedford road. Luncheon showers were given for the bride-elect by Mrs. C. M. Verbiest and daughters, Mary Helen and Grace Elizabeth, and by Mrs. Russel E. Lynch and her daughter, Mrs. Monroe McPherson. Mrs. Mathew Kubitsky and Mrs. Vincent J. Dirkes also co-hosted a luncheon at the Essex Country Club.

Previous parties were given by Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Herz, Dr. and Mrs. Charles J. Jamieson and Dr. and Mrs. Neil D. Cotchall; Mrs. Leo F. Drolshagen and daughter, Jean, and Dr. and Mrs. Vincent J. Turcotte.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Asmus of Touraine road announce the engagement of their daughter, LORRAINE MAE, to William Davies Mitchell of Homewood, Illinois.

Lorraine attended Kalamazoo College and Michigan State College from which she was graduated last June. Her fiancé is attending Michigan State College. The couple plan a September wedding.

Local Actors Participate in Show Classic Comedy

Sue Spurrier, of 261 Kenwood, and Dale Stevenson of 1423 Lakepointe, are participating in the University of Michigan's presentation of George Bernard Shaw's classic comedy, "Pygmalion" which opened yesterday, July 29.

Sue portrays the First Bystander; and Dale, Colonel Pickering. The comedy is based on a roguish little Cockney flower girl who poses as a duchess, under the tutelage of a phonetics professor. It will run until August 1.

Return From Hawaii As Guests of Navy

Bert H. Wicking of Trombley road, Clarence Mitchell Justice, Sr. of Bishop road have just returned from a stay in Hawaii. They made the trip by invitation on behalf of the Secretary of the Navy, sailing on the U.S.S. Kearsarge.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Justice has flown to Europe, here she will see her infant grandson and visit her son-in-law and daughter, Capt. and Mrs. Phillip Clark II, in Germany.

Most of us would enjoy seeing the man who invented the budget system on a vacation trip.

Dossins' Home Scene of Party

The Vendome road home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Dossin was the scene Friday afternoon of a birthday party attended by 60 youngsters and adults.

The Dossins' daughter, Mrs. Joseph V. Wade, and her cousin, Mrs. Robert Schultz, were hostesses at the joint party for their young daughters.

Caroline Coy Wade celebrated her first birthday and Mary Dee Schultz was three. Caroline's parents came from their home in Cleveland to visit here.

Guests at the lawn party included Mrs. M. Coy Wade, of New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dossin and family, of Grand Rapids.

Tappans Cruise To Georgian Bay

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce N. Tappan of Westchester road are cruising to Georgian Bay aboard the Mari-die III, cruiser owned by Mr. and Mrs. John O. MacFarlane of Allen Park Manor. The Frank Muntz, of Mt. Clemens, are also aboard.

Scheduled stops included Petoskey, Harbor Springs, Northport and Mackinac Island. At Northport, they picked up the Theodore Sedwicks and continued on to Georgian Bay.

The vacationers wisely chartered a course that enabled them to dock the cruiser each evening and go ashore for cocktails and dinner. Mr. Tappan is taking color movies of the expedition.

present herself to the wives of all the Ambassadors in Brussels.

She calls first upon Baroness van Hrinxma, wife of the Netherlands Ambassador (ordinarily it would be Madame Wuncz King, wife of the Chinese Ambassador, but Madame King is on holiday at the moment) . . .

In turn, Baroness van Hrinxma accompanies Mrs. Alger when she calls on the Baroness de Wiart, wife of the Grand Marshall of the Court . . .

And then in succession calls will be made to Miss Warner, sister of the English Ambassador . . . Madame Riviere, wife of the French Ambassador . . . Madame Grazze, wife of the Italian Ambassador . . . Countess de Casa Miranda, wife of the Spanish Ambassador . . . Madame d'Oliveira, wife of the Brazilian Ambassador . . . Madame Arakawa, wife of the Japanese Ambassador . . . and Madame Mennon, wife of the Ambassador from India . . .

Mrs. Alger's Schedule

Following these visits, these ladies return Mrs. Alger's call at the Embassy residence . . .

And, too, the wives of ministers from the various countries will call upon her (though protocol has it she does not initiate these visits) . . .

But she must, as soon as possible, return their calls . . .

In all . . . there will be a flurry of calling cards . . . and gallons of social tea . . . before these formalities are ended! . . . and there also are a series of teas for wives of the American Embassy personnel . . .

Fun Time

Not before autumn will the Embassy residence be the scene of the long succession of formal parties that are a must in Embassy life . . .

For the very few days the Alger had in Brussels before the royal appointment . . . they spent settling in the residence . . . which is really lush with three floors . . . all newly done in soft tones, velvets, marble, gilded mirrors and satin brocades . . .

On the enclosed terrace . . . sparkling white with dark sapphire blue lounge furniture . . . we met Mr. Jones . . . the family's new Jones Terrier, loved by all . . .

Fred III and young David, the latter already in tow of a governess . . . are with their parents . . . Fred to return to New Haven and his sophomore year at Yale this autumn . . .

Also, houseguest currently is Graham Howard . . . brother of Reese Howard who was married to the Alger's daughter, Suzette . . . (incidentally wee Suzette de Marigny Howard, who arrived in late June to the young couple, is the NINTH young lady to bear the family name of Suzette de Marigny).

The Guest List

The Alger has been seeing a lot of attractive Mr. and Mrs. Charles Grosjean (she is a great friend of Peggy Seyburn Braganza) who live at Magnolia in swank Notre Dame au Bois, a suburb of Brussels . . .

They have been a familiar foursome on the greens at the Royal Golf Club at Tervueren . . .

Though guest quarters are rather limited at the Embassy residence, eagerly awaited guests include Mrs. Arthur Gardner, wife of the American Ambassador to Cuba, the Harold R. Boyers (Mr. Alger's brother-in-law and sister) . . . Mrs. Wesson Seyburn . . . Mrs. D. Dwight Douglas of Martha's Vineyard and Grosse Pointe . . .

And then the delightful nearness of Mrs. Alger's parents, Hon. and Mrs. Charles Dewey, at their home, Abbaye Ste. Marie at Longues-Sur-Mer, near Calvados, France, would imply many family reunions . . . since by air, the Abbaye is but three hours away from Brussels . . .

The Brussels we'll long remember . . .

Short and to the Pointe

Their summer home at Charlevoix will be the address of MRS. MERLIN A. CUDLIP of Rivard boulevard, and her daughter, JULIE, for the remainder of the season.

GAY BUHL of Provencal road will spend some time with her parents, the ARTHUR H. BUHLS JR., at their Higgins Lake summer home before heading out west. She'll visit LEE WADSWORTH and her parents, MR. and MRS. HAROLD LEE WADSWORTH of Cloverly road at their vacation spot, the Lazy K Bar Ranch at Big Timber, Mont.

The GEORGE B. HEFFERANS of Merrivether road are ensconced at their cottage at the Les Cheneaux Club until mid-August.

MR. and MRS. HOWARD FREEMAN SMITH have returned to their Provencal road home after a six-weeks' tour of Spanish cities. They also stopped in Paris during their time abroad. Later on, they expect to go to Higgins Lake for a stay.

Home from Scotia, N.Y., is MRS. WILLIAM WARD DUCKETT of Moran road. There, she visited her son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. LESTER G. BRATTON, JR., and their four children. She also spent a week in Skaneateles, N. Y., with her sister and husband, MR. and MRS. DUPLEY BELL.

The H. W. SHORTS of Harvard road are stopping at Peckett's-on-Sugar Hill, N. H. Expected there soon are MR. and MRS. RALPH E. KELLER of Hall place.

The cruise planned by the ROBERT P. SCHERER family of Lake Shore road aboard their Capsule II was cut short at Harbor Springs, when son BOB was notified to report back here for Army induction. Mr. and Mrs. SCHERER, JO, KARLA and JOHNNY accompanied him back to town.

Harbor Springs is the summer choice of the WILLIAM B. CUDLIP family of Lake Shore road, who are vacationing at Forest Beach with MR. CUDLIP joining them on weekends. MRS. WILLIAM JANSEN (who was Mary Lou Cudlip before her June wedding) spent a few weeks with them and is now at home in the Pointe, settling her new apartment on St. Clair avenue.

A daughter, MARY JANE, was born on July 8 to MR. and MRS. JOSEPH N. JENNINGS of Torrey road. Mrs. Jennings is the former AUDREY MCAULTY.

Pointe Couple United In El Paso Ceremony

Ann Taintor Woodhouse Becomes Bride of Murray William Sales, III; Bridegroom Is stationed at Fort Bliss.

A Grosse Pointe couple were united in marriage at a 5 o'clock ceremony in St. Clement's Church, El Paso, Texas, on Saturday afternoon. The newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Murray William Sales, III.

Mr. and Mrs. John T. Woodhouse of Lake Shore road are the bride's parents. Murray is the son of Mrs. Frederick H. Cole of East Jefferson avenue, and the late Carter Sales.

The bride, the former Ann Taintor Woodhouse, chose a gown of white Chantilly lace over tulle with scalloped neckline and fitted bodice. A traditional train extended from the bouffant skirt which had side panels of pleated nylon tulle.

Her headpiece was a small lace Juliet cap trimmed with clusters of orange blossoms which held in place a three-tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion, and she carried an arrangement of white flowers.

Joan Lee Wadsworth, the bride's sole attendant, was gowned in blue organza with matching headpiece. She carried blue flowers.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Carter Sales, Jr., to be his best man.

For the wedding reception in the Hotel Paso Del Norte in El Paso, Mrs. Woodhouse greeted the guests in a gown of gray organza and a small pink flowered hat. A flowered print ensemble and white hat were Mrs. Cole's choice.

When the couple left on a brief wedding trip, the new Mrs. Sales wore a gray and white print frock and white accessories. They will live in El Paso, while the bridegroom is stationed nearby at Ft. Bliss.

Detroiters who traveled to Texas for the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Woodhouse, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Woodhouse, Jr., Mrs. Carter Sales, Jr., and Miss Florence Phelan.

Pointers Speak Vows On Mackinac Island

Susan Richardson Becomes Bride of George Booth Whitehead in All-White Ceremony Held on July 25

Mackinac Island was the setting for the all white wedding of Susan Richardson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Richardson, Jr., and George Booth Whitehead, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Frazer Whitehead.

The ceremony took place on July 25, at 4 o'clock, at Trinity Episcopal Church and the reception was held in the formal gardens of the Grand Hotel.

The bride's gown was a French organza over white taffeta, with embroidered organza bow-knots adorning the sweetheart neckline and a short, traditional train. Her three-tiered fingertip veil of silk illusion was attached to a Juliet cap. The bride's bouquet was of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Miss Gayle Richardson, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her bridesmaids were Daphne Towne of New York City, Fay FitzSimons, Eunice Hefferen, and the bridegroom's three sisters, Susan Whitehead, Mrs. Woodruff B. Crouse and Mrs. Clarke Murphy, Jr., of Baltimore, Maryland. All the attendants wore waltz-length gowns of white dotted swiss over white taffeta with scalloped necklines, their head-dresses were yellow velvet bandeaux. They carried bouquets of yellow and white daisies.

Amy-Jo Whitehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Whitehead, Jr., flower girl, wore a white organza dress and her head-dress and flowers matched those of the bridesmaids. Woodruff B. Crouse, Jr., the ringbearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff B. Crouse, wore a white linen tuxedo.

The best man was James F. Whitehead, Jr., the bridegroom's brother, and the guests were seated by Barry Merrill, Cleveland, Ohio; Robert Fessler, Fenton, Michigan; Jerome C. Earl, Woodruff B. Crouse, Davison Pierson, Robert Cudlip, William D. Robinson, Jr., and George Camman. The mother of the bride wore a gown of dutch blue shantung with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a gown of yellow linen.

When the newlyweds left for a cruise on Georgian Bay the bride wore a navy blue linen dress with white accessories.

Among those present at the wedding were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. George P. Richardson, of Maplewood, New Jersey, and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Clarence H. Booth.

Set August 29 As Wedding Day

Sally Ellen Dunn and John Lawrence Meier have set August 29 as their wedding day.

Sally is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Emmet Dunn of Trombley road and her fiancé is the son of the Lawrence J. Meiers of Lakewood avenue.

Following the ceremony at St. Clare of Montefalco Church the reception will take place at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Sally's sister-in-law Mrs. Simon Emmet Dunn, Jr., will be the matron of honor and the trio of bridesmaids will be Mrs. John Bailey, cousin of the bride, Mrs. John Crowley of Lexington, Michigan, and Miss Peggy Myers Freepert, Illinois. Mrs. Crowley and Miss Myers were school friends of Sally's at Michigan State College.

Roger Meier, brother of the prospective bridegroom, will be the best man and the ushers will be Simon Emmet Dunn, Jr., brother of the bride, Bernard Meier, brother of the bridegroom, John Crowley, George Bailey, Jr., Fred Rozelle, Jr., and Emory Dakoske.

Several luncheons and showers have already been given honoring the bride-elect. Mrs. Herbert W. Kelleher entertained at a luncheon in her Trombley road home. Mrs. Charles B. Loftis of the Park Shelton gave a pantry shower and luncheon for the bride-elect. Mrs. Franklin Quincker and Mrs. Bernard Meier entertained at a supper and linen shower on July 19.

There are also more parties slated. Mrs. John Bailey will entertain at a luncheon on August 7. Mrs. Joseph C. Littman has a bathroom shower slated for August 14. The next party will be an around-the-clock shower hosted by Mr. John Crowley on August 18.

Upon the return of the prospective bridegroom from his Navy Reserve Officers' Corp training in Long Beach, Cali-

Localities Lured To Harbor Point

This time of year a large number of localities migrate to a "Pointe" farther north — Harbor Point, Mich. Mrs. Joseph E. Schlotman, the Lawrence D. Buhls, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Barbour have currently forsaken Lake Shore road in favor of their summer homes at Harbor Point.

Mrs. Schlotman's house guests include her daughter, Mrs. Schlotman Joy and her three daughters, Patricia, Josephine and Victoria, and Mrs. Reynolds Morris.

Mr. and Mrs. Addison E. Holton of Bishop road and their son-in-law and daughter, the Fred Kamers of East Jefferson avenue, have cottages next door to each other. The Holtons expect another daughter, Mrs. John Buel Warren, and her husband to come up early in August.

The Henry E. Bodmans are awaiting the arrival of Mrs. W. Howie Muir at their summer home. Still others at the resort include the junior Frederick S. Fords, Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Derrick, the Edward A. Skaes, the W. Dean Robinson family, the Emmet E. Tracys and Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr.

Pointer Weds In Honduras

Tegucigalpa in the Republic of Honduras was the scene of the recent marriage of Gloria Buzelle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eric Bird of Fisher road, and M/Sgt. Charles H. Dounelis.

The bride, a p.c. in the WACS, received her B.A. degree in languages at Michigan State College and did graduate work at Tulane University. She met her husband while studying for the Military Intelligence at the USA language school in Monterey, California.

After a six-week honeymoon, the new Mrs. Dounelis will spend a few months in Arlington, Virginia, before returning to Tegucigalpa.

M/Sgt. Dounelis, son of Mrs. Sally Dounelis of Boston, is assigned to the Army Mission to Honduras and expects to be stationed there several years.

There are also more parties slated. Mrs. John Bailey will entertain at a luncheon on August 7. Mrs. Joseph C. Littman has a bathroom shower slated for August 14. The next party will be an around-the-clock shower hosted by Mr. John Crowley on August 18.

Upon the return of the prospective bridegroom from his Navy Reserve Officers' Corp training in Long Beach, California, where he has been for the past two months, Mr. and Mrs. Simon Emmet Dunn, Jr., have planned a cocktail party for August 20 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The spinsters dinner is August 25 with Mrs. Simon Emmet Dunn, Jr., as hostess.

The rehearsal dinner given by the prospective bridegroom's parents will be at the Whittier Hotel on August 27.

Mrs. George Booth Whitehead

The former SUSAN RICHARDSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George P. Richardson, Jr., who was married on July 25 to the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Frazer Whitehead.

Pick Sept. 11 For Wedding

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Hamilton Doyle, of Simcoe, Ont., announce the engagement and coming marriage of their daughter, Patricia Hamilton Doyle, to Lt. Albert John Wettlaufer, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert John Wettlaufer of Lincoln road. The 11 o'clock wedding will be held on September 11 in St. Thomas Church, Ann Arbor.

Carol Wettlaufer, the lieutenant's sister, and Malcolm Southerland will be the only attendants.

Lt. Wettlaufer, who is in flight training at Ellington Air Force Base, Houston, Tex., will arrive in town on September 4. The couple will leave for Houston immediately after the wedding.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Harper Hospital School of Nursing, is on duty at the University of Michigan hospital. Her fiancé was graduated from the U. of M. Engineering School, where he belonged to Zeta Psi.

Mrs. A. W. Massnick of Bishop road has scheduled a miscellaneous shower for Miss Doyle on August 4. A luncheon will be given by Lt. Wettlaufer's aunts, Miss Maria Kelly and Miss Catherine Kelly early in August. The prospective bridegroom's parents will be hosts at the rehearsal dinner on September 4 at the Town Club in Ann Arbor.

Exchange Vows By Candlelight

Anne Elizabeth Gonne and John L. Van Dagens were married Saturday evening at a candlelight service in Mayflower Congregational Church. Parents of the newlyweds are Dr. and Mrs. William S. Gonne of Fairfield avenue and Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Van Dagens of Somerset road.

The bride wore a gown of white organza over satin. Her illusion veil was secured by an heirloom rose pointe lace cap and she carried an arrangement of stephanotis.

Mrs. Thomas J. Navin, Jr., and Carol Stewart, the bridesmaids, wore mist green frocks. Their head garlands and bouquets were of yellow and white flowers.

John asked Donald Giesler, of Zanesville, O., to be his best man. Ushers included William S. Gonne, Gene Balogh, Mr. Navin, and Douglas Carter, of Fremont.

Robert H. Kanzlers Leave To Spend Month in Maine

Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Kanzler stopped briefly in Grosse Pointe after returning from their honeymoon in Bermuda. They left the first of the week to spend the month of August at the Kanzler summer home in Seal Harbor, Me.

The bridegroom is awaiting orders from the Navy. Mrs. Kanzler is the former Judy Frost.

His parents, the Ernest Kanzlers of Lake Shore road, and his sister, Katrina, went to Maine earlier in the month. On August 17 they will board the Queen Elizabeth to spend the remainder of the summer in Europe.

Children at Woods Community Club Play Hosts at "Circus Day"

"Circus Day," the final event and high-lite of the morning program for children four through six, was held today at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club for all of the family of children registered in this special program. Meeting every Tuesday and Thursday morning for a six week period, 59 children were registered under the guidance of 11 adult volunteer leaders and four program aides.

Dressed in costumes made by the children either from crepe paper or brown paper sacks, the Circus started off with a bang at 10:30 a.m. with the official circus band (the five-year-old group) playing "Anchors Aweigh" with some help from the phonograph.

The instruments, unique for their effect, were made from oatmeal boxes, discarded frozen juice cans, paper plates, and covers for pots and pans, decorated in keeping with the occasion. The official band masters were Mrs. Roger E. Judkins, 1899 Country Club, and Mrs. D. B. Leahy of 1883 Lancaster, volunteer leaders.

The "Zoo" consisting of lions, tigers, elephants, and kangaroos appeared next to startle the crowd as they could sing. These dangerous animals costumed in crumpled brown paper sacks (the four-year-old group) were put through their paces by Animal Trainer Mrs. Margaret Dumaux of 2048 Anita and her assistant.

Lieut. Charles M. Ebner To Wed Haverhill Girl

From the East comes word of an engagement which is of interest locally.

In Haverhill, Mass., Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hayes have revealed the truth of their daughter, Irene Terese, and Lieut. Charles M. Ebner, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Ebner of Barrington road.

The bride-elect was graduated from Regis College and the Boston School of Occupational Therapy. Lieut. Ebner, who was home on leave last week, recently completed medical internship at Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco. He attended the University of Notre Dame and Wayne Medical College.

He is en route to the Pacific Coast, where he will embark for the Far East for a year's service with the Medical Corps.

FASHION COLOR STORY
The color story, in New York as across the country, is light by day, dark by night. Camel, bright red, fuchsia, orchid-blue, purple, royal blue (in printed wools) and black illustrate the important color approach in day-time fashions. Black, red and winter navy is the fashion approach to color for cocktail wear.

Marilyn Louise Faust Designs Bridal Gown

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Faust Marries Richard A. Albrecht in Ceremony in St. James Church.

Wearing an oyster white silk satin gown of her own design, Marilyn Louise Faust became the bride of Richard A. Albrecht on Saturday in St. James Lutheran Church. The bride designed and made her wedding gown from hand woven silk satin which her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Faust, of Lakepointe avenue and Romeo, Mich., brought back from Italy.

Iridescent sequin flowers trimmed the deep V-neckline and front panel of the gown. A pearl and rhinestone tiara secured her veil of French illusion. Her white bouquet was centered with an orchid.

Barbara Faust attended as honor maid for her sister. Her waltz-length frock was rose-pink with a tiny shrug jacket covering the strapless bodice. Bridesmaids Lucille Mueller, of Kansas, Judy Johnson and Margot Kahl were identically gowned. Their flowers were pink asters.

Linda Koester and Vicky Lynn, the flower girls, wore white embroidered nylon over pink taffeta underskirts and pink satin sashes tied their frocks.

Alfred Happel, of La Grange, Ill., was best man for the bridegroom, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Albrecht, of Cedar Rapids, Ia. His brothers, Victor and Hardie Albrecht, of Chicago, and Gordon Faust, brother of the bride, ushered guests to their places.

A dinner at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center followed the nuptial rites.

The newlyweds are honeymooning in the Laurentian Mountains.

Will Celebrate Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Alger of Milwaukee will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary next week with their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. James C. Millies of Fisher road.

A buffet supper honoring the couple will be given by the Millies on Sunday. Out-of-town guests will include another daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. George Klidnik of Santa Barbara, California, and their children, Sandra, Corky, and Mary Susan.

Others attending will be Mrs. Howard H. Alger and her daughter, Betty Anne, of Westfield, New Jersey; Mrs. Arthur E. Mil-lies of Milwaukee; and Mrs. Clement E. Miner of Holly, Michigan.

A family dinner for the Alger's, which will also host their six grandchildren, is planned for Tuesday at the Women's City Club by Mrs. Alger's sister, Mrs. Harriett D. Kelly.

Jean Lois Collinson Marries Lieut. North

Ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Followed by Reception at Detroit Boat Club; Honeymoon in Poconos

Lt. James Edgar North claimed Jean Lois Collinson as his bride on Friday evening in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Charles Collinson of Grand Marais boulevard. The lieutenant's parents are the Raymond Edgar Norths, of Lincoln Park.

The Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt heard the exchange of vows.

The bride was gowned in white nylon tulle over satin. Her gown had a lace bodice and floor-length bouffant skirt edged with circular pieces of Chantilly lace. A Juliet lace cap held her fingertip illusion veil.

Mrs. Robert Hansel, of Indianapolis, was matron of honor. She wore a waltz-length frock of blue silk shantung, matching cap shaped into leaves centered with pearls and trimmed with a small face veil, and she carried blue and white flowers.

Gowned identically to the honor matron were Judy Harger, maid of honor, bridesmaids Phyllis Phipps of Pontiac, Mrs. Jack Neal, and junior bridesmaid Janet Collinson.

The bridegroom asked his cousin, Frank Kobliska, to attend as best man. Kenneth Collinson, the bride's brother; Robert Byfield, of New York City; George Sutton, of Rondeau Park, Ont., and Donald Shillington, of Blenheim, Ont., were ushers.

A reception at the Detroit Boat Club followed the wedding. Charlie Ane, giant Detroit Lions rookie tackle, hails from Honolulu, Hawaii, but admits that he doesn't play the ukelele, the traditional instrument of the islands.

Mrs. Collinson received the guests in a light brown sheer silk dress. Her accessories were pink and she pinned a brown orchid to her purse. The bridegroom's mother wore French blue lace over taffeta with matching champagne and a white orchid.

After a honeymoon trip to the Pocono Mountains, the couple will reside in Kew Gardens, Long Island. Lt. North is stationed in New York City with the Army Signal Corps.

Owen Skeltons In New York

After spending two weeks at the Mountain View House, Whitefield, N. H., in the White Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Raymond Skeltons of Ridge road have left for New York.

Meanwhile, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Bell Moran, Jr., are back in their home on Touraine road. They spent several weeks at Whitefield as guests of Mr. Moran's parents.

The senior J. Bell Morans of Windmill Pointe drive will remain through the summer at Longvue, their Whitefield summer residence.

Mrs. Phelps Newberry Plans Visits in East

The months of August and September will be travel-filled for Mrs. Phelps Newberry of Cloverly road. On Aug. 9 she leaves to visit Mrs. Frank Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Lord in Narragansett, R. I.

Next, she will stop in Wayne, Pa., to see her son-in-law and daughter, the James D. Darlings II, and in St. David's Pa., to visit her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Phelps Newberry, Jr.

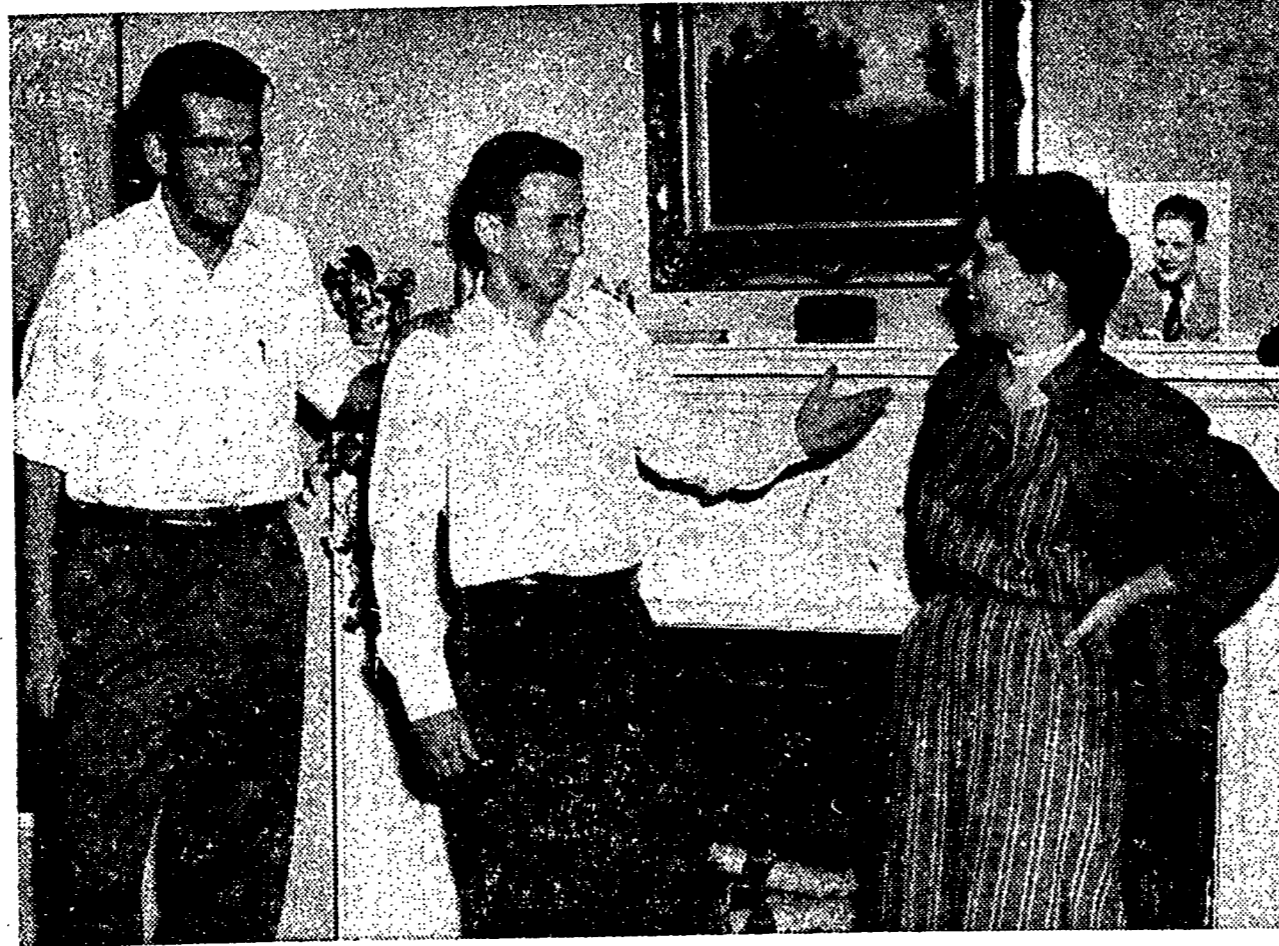

Then Mrs. Newberry will continue on to Manchester-by-the-Sea, Mass., where she will be a guest of Mrs. Allan Sheldon of Lake Shore road at her summer home. She will return to town with Mrs. Sheldon on October 1. Mrs. Sheldon left last week for the East.

Pointers Enjoy Summer Weather at Mackinac

Mrs. Donald T. MacKinnon of Washington road is among the Pointe residents who have summer cottages at Mackinac Island. The Charles S. Porritts of Bishop road, with daughters Judy and Jane, also manage to spend a good portion of the summer at their Island residence.

Among their recent house guests there have been Mrs. Joseph D. Hadley of Yorkshire road, with her two children, Robert and Ann.

Moth Proofing In-Rinse Water

This is no short story of crystals you put in between the layers of your blanket to discourage moths. It is a tip from County Home Demonstration Agent, Emma DuBord about the latest information on pest proofing woolens with EQ-53. Write for the bulletin "Clothes Moths and Carpet Beetles—How to Combat Them." Send your letter to Superintendent of Documents, Washington 25, D. C. The cost is 15 cents.

With this bulletin, you will have full information about the new method of mothproofing by adding EQ-53 to the rinse water when you are washing woolen garments or blankets.

Although this new liquid is not yet available in many places you will ask for it and watch for it. The label, EQ-53, will appear someplace on the bottle even though you buy it under a trade name.

You have been able to have blankets mothproofed at the dry cleaners—for extra charge. Now this new product enables you to mothproof your own woolens successfully at home.

Shop in Woods Loses $125 To Long-Armed Bandit

A youthful, long-armed bandit reached over the counter and scooped up a handful of bills from a cash drawer at the Don of Fifth Avenue shop at 19583 Mack, early Tuesday afternoon, July 28.

According to Don Pierno, proprietor of the shop, a young man about 18 years of age, walked into the shop and stood in front of the counter in which the money was kept. The young thief waited until a nine-year-old daughter of one of the shop customers, who had been sitting in a chair near the counter had walked out the door. Then he bent over, opened the drawer and grabbed the handful of bills, estimated at about $125.

June Lawrence, manicurist in the shop, who was in the first booth, just happened to glance around and saw the bandit as he reached for the money. She reached out and tried to close the money drawer and almost slammed it on the young man's fingers.

She kept calling for the proprietor who was in the back. In the meantime the culprit ran out and made his escape on a motor bike that was parked at the curb.

It is believed that the young bandit had been casing several of the stores in the block and had walked into the hair style shop just a few minutes after Mrs. Pierno had counted the money and had gone home for lunch.

Several suspects were picked up by Woods police and brought to the shop for possible identification, and released when the manicurist said they did not fit the description of the bandit.

Insurance will cover the loss.

Truth may be stranger than fiction, but will never sell for as much as these modern stories.

Little Actresses Help Crippled Kids

Two performances of "Jack and the Beanstalk" have made it possible for four crippled children to attend camp. The actresses, organized as the "Country Clubbers," donated their $67-profits to the Michigan League for Crippled Children. Accepting the check for the League is MRS. NORMAN W. SWAYNE. The happy young donors are: (first row) DIANE ARMITAGE, PEGGY CARPENTER, PEGGY CONDE, SANDY HEIDRICK, and PATSY ARMITAGE; (back row) MRS. RUSS RANKIN, the organizer, MARY LOU MADIGAN, BETTY CARPENTER, JOAN ARMITAGE and ENIE RANKIN.

Men's Garden Club Bringing Top Experts on Lawn Care

As its contribution toward an even more beautiful Pointe, The Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe is sponsoring a "Lawn Improvement Panel" at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center at 8 p.m. on Thursday, August 6, to which all men of Grosse Pointe are invited.

The panel will consist of two nationally-recognized authorities from Michigan State College. Professor James Tyson will explain the best methods of seeding, improving, and caring for both new and already established lawns. Dr. Tyson has spent many years on research toward discovering the ideal lawn fertilizer and the proper lawn grasses for use in this area.

Professor Buford H. Grigsby, whose special field is weeds, will describe the latest methods for weed eradication. So many new chemicals have been developed since the war and even in the past year that Dr. Grigsby is kept busy testing them and bringing them to the attention of the general public. Both men are authors of Michigan State Extension Service pamphlets on their subjects and these will be available at the meeting.

Since the best period for beginning new lawns or improving old ones in the Grosse Pointe area is between August 15 and September 15, all those Grosse Pointe Men who are interested in improving the appearance of their lawns are urged to attend this timely meeting. After short talks by each speaker, the remainder of the meeting will consist of an audience question and answer period.

The Men's Garden Club is also preparing a display of the weeds found in this area so that anyone attending the meeting will be better able to identify those growing in his own lawn. This is most important, for no one chemical will kill all weeds.

As this is also the regular August meeting of the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe, all those who accept the clubs invitation to attend will be considered as guest of the club. No reservations are necessary. Barring rain, the meeting will be held on the front lawn of the Memorial.

New Contract Given Haggarty

George Haggarty of LaSalle place, has been given by the Board of Directors a new 15-year contract as legal counsel for the Detroit Race Course at an annual minimum compensation of $35,000. Haggarty, fundamental in organizing the track, also is its executive vice-president and treasurer.

New Home Record

A total of 275,818 fans watched the Detroit Lions in action in six regularly-scheduled home games of the 1952 season to establish a new home attendance record.

Juveniles Admit They Stole Car

Park Patrolmen Donald Del Place and William Fyfe arrested two Detroit juveniles on Friday, July 24, who were accused of stealing a car from a Detroit car dealer and driving it around all night.

According to Police Chief Louwers, the juveniles, one 15 and the other 14, admitted they stole the car. They said they had gone to the Steiner Motor lot and decided to take one and go for a ride. They looked into all the cars until they found one with a key in the ignition, and drove it away.

When arrested they were still in possession of the car. They were turned over to Detroit police.

Leading Ground Gainer
Right halfback Bob Hoernschemeyer ranked fifth in the National Football League in rushing during the 1952 season, gaining 457 yards on 106 carries, to preserve his record as the Detroit Lions' leading ground gainer for the third straight year.

Buhl Horse Wins 'Michigan Mile'

Winning the Michigan Mile race Saturday, was Second Avenue, owned by Theodore Buhl of Ridge road.

The six-year-old sprinter rushed from eleventh place in the 12-horse race, to win the Detroit Race Course event. Oil Capitol, a big name and money winner, came in fourth after lagging in last place.

Van Crosby, another big favorite, did not place.

First place in the $50,000 added race gave Mr. Buhl $39,750 and the trophy, a solid silver coffee urn made in London in 1801 and valued at several thousand dollars.

This was the second stake victory for Second Avenue at the Detroit Track this year, he having won the Alger Memorial on Memorial Day.

Biggest Fish Not Entered In Rodeo... He Got Away

The Better Fishing Pre-Rodeo contest now in full swing, is bringing out some real competition among young Pointers.

The contest is open to all boys and girls in Grosse Pointe Farms, Grosse Pointe City and Grosse Pointe Park, under the age of 17. Contestants must be registered at their individual parks and approximately 100 have so far signed up.

One registration is sufficient for the Pre-Rodeo contest which runs until August 20, and for the final Rodeo which is to be held August 22.

As soon as the prizes which are to be awarded by the winners have been received by the local chairmen of the three communities, some of the prizes will be put on display in Fromm's store window.

Gary Hinz of the Farms still has the record for the largest black bass. He had some stiff competition, however, during the past week from Bill Kalkhoff and Bill Hart, whose catches lacked just half an inch of equalling Gary's record.

Terry Lauter, also of the Farms, entered a nice big walleye measuring 20 1/4 inches. Tom Perry of the Farms retains the record in the catfish classification, as does Don McGee in the rough-fish division with his 19 1/2 inch sheephead.

Ronnie Helin of Grosse Pointe Park has entered a 19 inch Great Northern Pike and Gerald Saks and Pat McCormick have entered some fine pan-fish.

Not many entries have been received by Grosse Pointe City, due to the absence of fishing accommodations for the youngsters at their park. However, Walter Carrier of the City, has entered a 16 1/2 inch walleye.

Joe (Tough-Luck) Braden also of the City, caught a 26 1/2 inch Great Northern pike while trolling near the Dodge yacht. Joe put it on his fish stringer which was attached to his boat and left it in the water while he continued trolling. When he returned to tie up his boat, the stringer was still there but the pike was but a memory. He will just have to re-catch it and produce it in person in order to enter it in the contest.

Mort Neff, M. C. of the Michigan Outdoors TV program, will feature this Better Fishing project in one of his forthcoming programs.

Contributions in the amount of $75 each have been received from each of the three municipalities sponsoring these Better Fishing contests. The Lions also have kindly contributed $50 towards the prizes.

Wrigley's Super Market will donate the hot dogs for the final Rodeo celebration and the Police and Fire Departments of the Farms, City and Park will furnish bait for the Rodeo.

The Metropolitan Club is donating bait as well as the large quantities of soft drinks that will be consumed at the final contest on August 22nd.

George Measel of the Grosse Pointe branch of the Auto Club has agreed to furnish a public address system for use at the final Rodeo, as he also has done in previous years. Other organizations and auxiliaries will probably render aid for the August 22 celebration and picnic, as they have done in the past.

Welcome to New Teachers

Because of the growth of the Grosse Pointe community and the subsequent increased enrollment in the public schools, the Grosse Pointe School Board has made some 50 appointments to the different faculties.

These appointments have been made because of the need to replace those teachers leaving the Public School system for reason of transfer or retirement.

By way of introduction to the parents of children who will attend or who are now attending the public schools, the NEWS is publishing weekly short biographies of those whose appointments have been confirmed. During the coming months until school reopens in the fall, the biographies of new teachers will appear in each issue.

JOHN JENSEN, born in Minnesota, was educated in the public schools of California and is a graduate of the University of Oregon. At present is doing review work at the Teachers College of Columbia University and will receive his degree next month. He has not only served with the Army, but with the State Department in Germany, and while there obtained a Doctor's degree in Economics. His assignment will be to teach English and social studies at Pierce Junior High School.

MISS PHYLLIS E. RUST, a native of Philadelphia, Penna., is a graduate of Washington, D. C., public schools. She attended Smith College for two years and then transferred to University of Michigan, from where she received her degree last month. She will have the second grade at Meyer School.

EDWARD ELLER was born in Chicago and is a graduate of that city's public schools. He received his BA degree from Western Illinois State College. He served several years in the U. S. Army.

POINT MEMORIAL
The Rev. James W. Gillespie has recently become Minister of Christian Education at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. He will preach at the 11 a.m. service on Sunday.

A Notice to City of Grosse Pointe Woods Residents

THE FOLLOWING ACTION WAS TAKEN BY THE CITY COUNCIL AT THEIR ADJOURNED REGULAR COUNCIL MEETING OF JULY 27, 1953:

It was moved by Councilman Heckendorn, and supported by Councilman McKnight, that the following proposed amendment to Ordinance No. 88, known as the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, be received and tabled, and that a public hearing be had thereupon at the Municipal Building in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, on August 17, 1953, at 7:30 o'clock P.M. Prevaling Time, and that notice of such hearing shall be given by publication in the Grosse Pointe News, a newspaper of general circulation in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, at least fifteen (15) days prior to the time for hearing herein, fixed; said notice to be substantially the following form:

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, in accordance with the provisions of Act No. 207 of the Public Acts of the State of Michigan for the year of 1921 as amended, that a Public Hearing will be had at the Municipal Building, in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan, on the 17th day of August, 1953, at 7:30 o'clock P.M., Eastern Standard Time, upon a proposed amendment to Ordinance No. 88 of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, adopted November 3, 1952, which proposed amendment is as follows:

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND ORDINANCE NO. 34 OF THE VILLAGE OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS, MICHIGAN, ADOPTED JUNE 18, 1940, ENTITLED:

AN ORDINANCE to regulate and restrict the location of trades and industries and the location of buildings erected and the location of buildings hereafter erected, to regulate and determine the area of yards, courts and other open spaces, to limit and restrict the maximum number of families which may be housed in dwellings hereafter erected or altered and for said purposes, divide the City into districts, to provide a method of administration, and to prescribe penalties for the violation of its provisions.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE WOODS ORDAINS:

Section 1. That Article 44.4 of Ordinance No. 88 of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods, adopted on November 3, 1952, entitled:

AN ORDINANCE to regulate and restrict the location of trades and industries and the location of buildings erected and for said purposes, divide the City into districts, to provide a method of administration, and to prescribe the penalties for the violation of its provisions.

be amended so as to add a section thereto to be known as Section 44.4.9, which shall read as follows:

Section 44.4.9. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this article contained, construction upon Lots No. 189, No. 204, No. 205, No. 232, No. 223, No. 222, all of which face on Fairford Road, and Lots No. 227 and No. 228 facing Ballantyne Court, all in Fairholme No. 4, a subdivision of part of Private Claims 393 and 621, shall be permitted within 24 feet of rear line of such lots.

Section 2. All ordinances or parts of ordinances in conflict herewith are hereby expressly repealed, only to the extent necessary to give this ordinance full force and effect, and that the zoning map made a part of the aforementioned ordinance be, and the same is hereby, accordingly revised.

Section 3. The provisions of this ordinance are hereby declared to be immediately necessary for the public health, peace and safety and are hereby given immediate effect.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms
SUMMARY OF REGULAR MEETING
JULY 20, 1953

Called to order at 8:00 P.M.

Present on roll call: Mayor Pro Tem Richard L. Maxon, Councilmen John M. S. Hutchinson, Neil S. McEachin and George L. Schlaepfer.

Absent: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Daniel W. Goodenough and William G. Kirby.

Mayor Pro Tem Richard L. Maxon presided.

Minutes of the following meetings were read and approved: June 15th, 22nd, 29th and July 13, 1953.

Approximately 120 Fisher Road residents were present and protested the proposed widening of Fisher Road. The matter was referred to a Council Committee of the Whole.

After public hearing was held, pursuant to notice published, a resolution was adopted vacating the westerly 38.30 feet of Lothrop Road in the Lothrop Subdivision.

Approval was given to a Committee of the Whole report on wages and working condition adjustments.

Authorization was provided to purchase a new street sweeper.

The spraying of elm trees around reported infected trees was approved.

Bids were authorized requested for curb repair.

Bids were authorized invited for paving of the alleys in Special Assessment District No. 6.

The signing of a new Detroit Water Standby Agreement was authorized.

Approval was given to submit a bid for the purchase of a portion of the Gabriel Richard School playgrounds adjacent to the parking district for the purpose of enlarging the parking area.

After examining quotations submitted for workmen's compensation, public liability and property damage coverages, the Council awarded the business to the low bidder.

Bills were approved.

A resolution was adopted commending Officer John Pelkey, retiring August 1, 1953, for his excellent service record.

The employment of George Keller in the Police Department was approved.

The meeting adjourned at 11:00 P.M.

Sgt. Johnson Member of Champ Pistol Team

Sgt. Leroy E. Johnson was one of the 5th Infantry Battalion, U.S.M.C., Reserve Pistol team members who received engraved medals for winning the National Gallery Pistol championship recently.

The presentations were made by Brig. Gen. J. C. MacQueen, Director of the Marine Corps Reserve, who came to Detroit from Washington, D.C.

Sgt. Johnson, son of William J. Johnson of Marborough, is also one of the first members of the 5th Infantry Battalion's newly formed band.

The 5th Infantry Battalion, Marine Corps Reserve, which meets Thursday nights at the Brodhead Naval Armory on East Jefferson, also won top honors in individual high scoring rifle and pistol in competition against thousands of Reservists in the United States.

Speaking to the more than 250 reservists, Gen. MacQueen said, "It is not only remarkable that one battalion won so many honors but outstanding Marine Corps Reserve history. You are all to be congratulated."

Currently, the 5th Infantry Battalion is undergoing preparations for their annual field training. The men will fly to Little Creek, Virginia, August 18 through 29. The women will go by train to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, August 22 through September 5.

Patrolman Pelkey Retires on Aug. 1

Farms Patrolman John J. Pelkey will end his career as a policeman on Saturday, August 1, after 25 years and nine months of conscientious service.

Patrolman Pelkey, 54, who lives at 61 Muir road, with his wife, Celia, and two daughters, began his career with the Farms police on November 8, 1927, and was well known as a member of the motorcycle division during the early years on the force.

At present he is on vacation, which coupled with accumulated leave days, began June 15.

He has lived in the Farms since 1905, and attended Grosse Pointe public schools.

Besides the two daughters, Jane, 18, and Nancy, 16, who are at home, the Pelkeys, married 37 years, have six other children, Mrs. Rhoda Carl, 35, of Tucson, Ariz.; Traver, 33; Mrs. Dorothy Jones, 28; and Tim, 24, of Detroit; Robert, 26, married and living in the Farms; and Thomas, 20, a sergeant in the U.S. Air Force and stationed on Okinawa since last September.

Tim is a Korean War veteran, being one of the first to see service when the "police action" began in Korea. Traver and Robert are veterans of World War II.

Patrolman and Mrs. Pelkey plan to visit their daughter in Tucson, and when they return home, the retiring officer will seek employment in other fields. Succeeding Patrolman Pelkey, will be George Keller, 26, of 454 Madison, who took a police written and physical examination in competition with six other aspirants to the police force.

Keller, who was born in the Park, has attended schools in the Pointe and is a 1945 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, and a 1952 graduate of the University of Detroit.

He married Mary Catherine Morrison of Detroit, June 21, 1952.

He has always been interested in police work, and at one time attempted to seek membership in the FBI. He was disqualified, because that police body required its personnel, among other things, to be lawyers or accountants and under 25 years of age. When he received his degree, he was over the age limit.

Keller and his bride have left for Mackinac, Mich., for a two-week vacation. He will return two days before he is to take his police oath and assume the duties of a patrolman. He will be on a probation basis for one year.

Carriers Beat Kensington '9'

The Grosse Pointe Carriers defeated the Kensington Post Office baseball team 1 to 0 in a tightly-played game Monday night at Canyon Park. The winning run in the 7-inning game was driven in by Charles Parquette and brought across the plate by Charles King.

Pitching for the Carriers was Louis Smierka. George Ronsse pitched for the opposing team.

Park's Firemen Attend Parley

Park firemen, members of Local 533, were represented at an annual Michigan State Firefighters Convention, held recently in Sault Ste. Marie, Mich.

Dave Taylor, president of the local; Martin Neilson and Alfred Martin, state trustee, attended the convention.

The fire fighting unit is affiliated with the American Federation of Labor, Michigan State Firefighters and the International Association of Firefighters.

At the convention, Gov. G. Mennen Williams, an honorary member of the association, was the guest speaker, and John Redman, president of the International, made a speech of welcome.

Vaporizers to Kill Bugs Can Endanger Humans

With the advent of the fly season citizens are warned that the small-sized electrically heated vaporizers, sold to kill insects, which use a chemical called lindane can be dangerous.

Dr. Joseph G. Molner, Detroit health commissioner, says this poisonous chemical when used in a small occupied room can be injurious to humans as well as insects. Two types of units are available, one which operates continuously and one which is used as a fumigator. He particularly warned against leaving a continuously operating type of unit running all night in sleeping rooms and nurseries.

The fumigating-type of unit must be used only in a tightly closed, unoccupied room after all pets, birds, and fish have been removed, and all foodstuffs tightly covered. The room should be kept sealed for four hours and then thoroughly ventilated. Store the lindane tablets out of reach of children, remote from common household medical tablets which they closely resemble.

Dr. Molner said the Detroit Department of Health does not endorse the use of these lindane vaporizers in the home or sleeping quarters. Their use is endorsed for certain types of commercial establishments, but even in these establishments a great deal of caution must be exercised in their use.

Phils, Pirates Tied in League

The Phils continued their winning ways as they crushed the Giants 10-1 in the first game of the second round of play in the Giant Baseball League at the Neighborhood Club.

Don Messing was the one of the big guns for the giant-killers, scoring three runs and getting two hits. He scored the first run of the game when he reached first on shortstop Earl Peter's bobble of his grounder, took third when Pat Potter's double play ball skipped through the legs of second baseman Punch Andrews, and went home on pitcher Bob Wright's infield out.

Held scoreless in the second inning, the Phils added two in the third, three in the fourth, two in the fifth. Bob Wright led off in the fifth with a double and took home as the left fielder Bob Colegrove overran the ball. Messing, Potter, and Dan Whemhoff added two more runs when they collected three straight singles.

Giant third baseman Bob Kemp made a star fielding performance in the sixth inning when he snatched Bob Wright's line drive and turned it into a double play.

The Pirates remained tied for second place with the Reds as they defeated the Giants, 12-3, on Tuesday, July 21. Winning pitcher Dick Dilloway and Mike Mannone both had perfect days at the plate. Mannone got the only home run of the game and helped produce the big 6 runs in the first inning. The game was called in the middle of the Giant's 5 run attack because of darkness.

Dan Pascoe had a perfect day at the plate with two singles and a walk, and a double play in the first inning when relief pitcher Marty Andrews held onto a hard hit line drive and threw to third catching the runner off base. The Giants led the league in double plays with three in five games.

Title Defended On Club Courts

Ralph McElvenny of Cloverly road and Alexander Wiener of University place, representing the host club, won the annual Men's Doubles Invitational Tennis Tournament at the Grosse Pointe Club last Sunday afternoon.

They defeated Jim Tobin and Peter Stewart of the Bloomfield Tennis Club in the finals in straight sets, 6-0, 6-3.

In a semi-final match Sunday morning Tobin and Stewart eliminated the flier and son team of George Reindel and George Reindel, Jr. in one of the hottest matches of the two-day tournament. Scores in this battle were 5-7, 6-2 and 10-8.

McElvenny and Wiener eliminated Alex Wiener, Jr. and Robin Ryan in the other semi-final match, 6-3, 6-3.

Winners of this year's tourney were the defending champions. They defeated the same team of Tobin and Stewart to take the title last year.

Haupt was graduated from Grosse Pointe High and is a member of Kappa Phi Sigma. He was elected vice-president of the Student Council for 1953-54 and is a member of the Social Committee and the L.I.T. Building Fund Drive committee.

He is also a member of the Lawrence Tech chapter of the Society of Automotive Engineers and the Square Club.

LITTLE LEAGUE

The Tracy Motor Sales Indians beat the Roberts Fur Yankees, 8-4 in the final game of the Little League Monday night to win the league championship. An overflow crowd of over 900 saw the playoff game.

The Indians lost a heart-breaker Monday, July 20 when Mike Trader of the Red Sox got a 2-bagger to score Bob Hunt and Bob Barnes. Sox moundsman, Bob Herrick allowed the Indians 2 runs on 4 hits, while the Sox got 3 runs on 5 hits. The Tribe committed 2 errors and the Sox had 3 miscues.

Leading the Yankees in their 13-hit attack against the Tigers Tuesday, July 21, was Tom Koloziejki with 4 for 4. Gary Beaupre held the Bengals to 6 hits and 2 runs. The errorless Yanks crossed the plate 18 times on 13 hits. The Bengals committed 7 costly errors.

Tom Koloziejki pitched a beautiful 3-hit shutout for the Yankees to help his team back into the race for first place. The Yanks got 4 hits and 2 runs. Both the Tribe and the Yanks committed 2 errors.

Thursday, July 23, with its first Red Sox line-up, most of its players at summer camp, was playable to cope with the alert Tigers, who combined smart base running with a few timely hits to win their third game of the season. Bengal moundsman Pat Dubby held the Sox to 8 hits and 7 runs. The Tigers got 2 runs on 5 hits and committed 2 errors. The Sox batsmen outthit the Tigers 8 to 5, but only came across with 7 runs. They committed 6 miscues.

On Friday, July 24 the Tigers again defeated the Red Sox with holding pitcher David Ayrault leading them to 5 hits and 3 runs. The Tigers got 5 hits and scored 8 times. Sox fielders committed 6 errors.

Ronald Sutton Expert Sailor

Cadet-Midshipman Ronald L. Sutton, a Cadet-Midshipman at the United States Merchant Marine Academy, was recently commended by Read Admiral Gordon McLintock, NSMS, Superintendent of the Academy for an outstanding piece of seamanship.

Cadet-Midshipman Sutton was skipper of the Academy's 'S' class sloop 'Tern', winner in her class of the second rate of Larchmont Race Week, an event held annually at Larchmont, N.Y. Sailing to windward in a 15 knot wind, a slight tear developed in the mainsail. Emergency repairs were made which enabled the 'Tern' to reach the first mark with a commanding lead.

By smart spinnaker work, the lead was increased by the time the leeward mark was reached. When the sheets were trimmed down for the beat to windward back to the finish, the weakened sail ripped for about four feet along the seam near the bottom. The skipper immediately ordered his crew to try to hold the sail near the boom to prevent its ripping more. In spite of this handicap and the added danger from heavy winds and seas, Cadet-Midshipman Sutton managed to cross the finish line about 48 seconds before the next boat.

Cadet-Midshipman Sutton, a second classman (junior) at the Academy, was recently elected Captain of the Academy sailing team as a reward for his outstanding performance during intercollegiate dinghy competition. He is also a member of the Academy chapter of the Propeller Club of the United States, and has been selected for Cadet-Midshipman officership.

The crew members were Cadet-Midshipman Henry Hill from Newport Beach, California, Cadet-Midshipman Richard Jessen from St. James, Minn., Cadet-Midshipman William Samuels of Toms River, N.J., and Cadet-Midshipman Ray Allison of Malverne, Long Island.

Cadet-Midshipman Sutton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Sutton of 412 Moran road, Grosse Pointe Farms.

Athletes Win Wayne Awards

Four Grosse Pointe men are among the 33 Wayne University athletes named to receive major awards for their participation in the Tartar's Spring Sports program.

William C. Ghesquiere won his award as a shot putter on the track squad, while Howard D. Clarke, Robert W. Allen and LeRoy E. Johnson all lettered with Wayne's highly successful tennis team.

Ghesquiere, a June, 1947 graduate of Detroit University School is the son of Mrs. Celine Ghesquiere of 10172 Somerset. He also graduated from Wayne on June 16, with a degree as Bachelor of Arts from the College of Liberal Arts.

Allen, the son of Mrs. Ruth Allen of 1215 Harvard, graduated from Grosse Pointe High in June, 1949 and got his degree at Bachelor of Arts here last June 16. He won three letters in tennis and was one of the key men in the record of 14 wins and only two losses posted by the netters this year.

Johnson also is a Grosse Pointe High graduate. He's also graduated in June. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson of 1345 Marlboro. Johnson is awaiting call to service with the U.S. Marine Corps.

Clarke, another Grosse Pointe graduate, still has one year of eligibility remaining and will be back with the team again next year. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Clarke of 373 St. Clair Avenue. He is a junior in the School of Business Administration.

The newly chosen board of directors includes F. A. Miller, Frank McBride, David Beauvais, R. D. Johnson and C. J. McCarthy.

The members hoist their sail every Sunday at noon.

Officers Elected By Sailing Club

The Grosse Pointe Sailing Club took down its sails long enough to elect new officers for this season. They are: Commodore, B. B. Wellman, Vice Commodore, Dr. R. C. Connelly; secretary, Duke Hubes; treasurer, George Genematas; and delegate to D.R.Y.A., J. W. McCarthy.

The newly chosen board of directors includes F. A. Miller, Frank McBride, David Beauvais, R. D. Johnson and C. J. McCarthy.

Headlines Of The Week

(Continued from Page 1) the loan to pay off numerous small, short term debts and to convert them to a long term debt owed to this country.

TURKEY, in no uncertain terms, told the Soviet Union to mind its own business when that country requested information about visits of American and British warships to Turkish waters. A Russian protest had called the visit of 10 American Navy ships to Istanbul on July 22-27 and the later visit by 22 British war vessels a kind of military demonstration. Turkish officials expressed astonishment at the Russian note.

KIM IL SUNG, North Korea's dictator, is dismissing pro-Russian cabinet members in favor of men who are pro-Chinese. These unofficial reports supplanted earlier ones which stated that Kim himself was being purged. The latest reports revealed that he still has the advantage in a fight between North Koreans trained by the Chinese and those trained by the Russians.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER was given a free hand by the Senate Agriculture Committee in the distribution of 100 million dollars worth of surplus farm food to friendly nations or peoples. Chairman Aiken (R. Vt.) said that by friendly peoples is meant that food and other products could be sent behind the Iron Curtain if it helped the cold war against Communism.

Sunday, July 26 PRESIDENT EISENHOWER referred to the Red Government of East Germany as a bankrupt regime and predicted that ere long the present Communist dictatorship and the Soviet occupation will be done away with. He made reference to this in a message he sent to Chancellor Adenauer of West Germany. He called for a free all-German election in Germany and a formation of a free all-German government, leading to that country's unification.

A TENSE and waiting world anxiously eyed Panmunjom where Communist and Allied liaison officers met in final preparation to sign the formal documents that would end the "police action" in Korea. The truce is expected to be signed today. A cease-fire will come 12 hours after the signing and within 72 hours troops of both sides will pull back one and one-quarter miles from the cease-fire line.

States was at last reaching East Germany in spite of Moscow's protest.

IN A SPECIAL message to Congress, President Eisenhower asked for 200 million dollars to rehabilitate war-ravaged South Korea, provided that country's president, Syngman Rhee, abides by the truce terms. The South Korean president has bitterly denounced the armistice, but has agreed to collaborate, at least for the time being.

ARIZONA LAW OFFICERS swarmed down on an historically polygamous community and arrested practically every one in it. The police carried warrants for 36 men and 86 women. Some patriachs have as many as six wives and spawned a total of 263 children. Many of the people of the community fled when they heard of the coming raid.

ADMINISTRATION LEADERS have been passing the word around to the senators, that President Eisenhower is willing to compromise on a half-billion cut in foreign aid spending. The Administration seems to think this is the best compromise it can get out of a situation which has found the House voting for a 700-million-dollar slash in money for the Mutual Security program.

Tuesday, July 28 THE QUICK RETURN of the more than 86,000 Allied prisoners of war, including 3,313 Americans, will be one of the first tasks of the Korean Armistice Commission. Records revealed that the Reds will return a total of 12,763 prisoners, a disappointing number, especially to the United States, whose latest estimates showed that 13,285 Americans were missing. The UN command will return 69,000 North Koreans and 5,000 Chinese.

MORE than 120,000 East Germans defied their Communist masters to obtain food relief packages from the West. Red police attempted to discourage the embarrassing proof of poverty in Soviet Zone, by stopping several people with food packages returning from West Berlin. Although Communist propagandists raged, some police turned their back in resignation. The food relief offered by the United

SENATOR SMITH (R. N. J.) warned this country that it should not enter negotiations on the question of admitting Communist China to the United States should have a Nations. He contended the United States should have a voice in the talks because of the major burden it shouldered in the war. He said that there a remote possibility that this country will walk out on any talks concerning this matter if it is pressed.

THE HOUSE Post Office committee postponed indefinitely any further consideration of the Administration's proposed bill to raise postal rates $240,000,000 a year. Protracted House sessions and the drive for adjournment makes continued work on the bill practically impossible. House and Senate leaders are intent on adjourning the first session of the 83rd Congress by August 1.

PILFERINGS

Quite a crop of writers and prospective writers bloom in the various Pointes. Most of them, we bet, want to write ORIGINAL stuff. Yet authorities say the odds are thousands to one against your ever writing anything really original.

The greatest authority (Polti) says there are only 36 basic human situations and all of them have been done to boredom. An editor of one of our popular weekly magazines is a little more lenient, maintaining that there are 101.

However, to keep up your morale, the latter lad admits that skilled craftsmen can reclothe the old bones so as to produce the illusion of novelty.

You wouldn't think flowers, often put on graves, would be responsible for putting someone into one, but they did just that to Cedric Stahl, of Dallas, Tex. He insisted upon wearing a geranium as a boutonniere, despite his wife's protests and her geranium allergy. This continued for 10 years.

Finally she lost her patience, and let him have it with a .45 rifle. She then stuffed him into the incinerator.

When she confessed to the crime a year later, guess where they found his ashes? She had been keeping them in a geranium pot!

Pascal's words, "Rivers are highways that move on, and bear us whither we wish to go," although they were written four centuries ago, are still very apropos here in the Pointe, where every second society item we write concerns some of our neighbors taking to their boats for vacation cruises.

Sitting up late is probably easier in New York and New Orleans. In these two cities more coffee is consumed than anywhere else in the country.

Have a yen to go driving in the country during August? Ride in the hammock instead. This is the most perilous month of the year.

The safest months for driving are February and March, probably because the ice slows drivers to a crawl. If you want to drive during the safest hours of the week, set that alarm clock for pre-dawn, and get out between 5 a.m. and 8 a.m. on a Thursday morning.

Forty years old? Your name not yet initialed on your office door? Don't feel too discouraged. Sixty-four percent of the world's greatest achievements have been made by men and women between 45 and 65.

If you are 70 and feel life has passed you by on a jet-propelled plane, you still have a chance. Ten percent of the world's important achievements are made by people between 70 and 80.

Henry Ford Named New UN Delegate

Henry Ford II, prominent Pointer and industrialist, was named as a member of the United States delegation to the United Nations on Saturday, July 25, by the State Department, subject to confirmation by President Eisenhower. Ford was among the top Michigan industrialists who helped the President gain the Republican nomination last summer. Ford will serve with a group that will include such personages as Gov. James F. Brynes of South Carolina, Secretary of State in the Truman Administration; Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., U. S. Ambassador to the United Nations; Gov. George N. Craig of Indiana; Rep. Frances Bolton, Ohio Republican; and Archibald Carey of Ohio. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles will head the delegation at the eighth general assembly meeting scheduled to open about September 15.

Frank Kinsora Busy With Fair

Frank Kinsora, 2060 Allard road, veteran member of the Michigan State Fair Board of Managers, is busy assisting in the management of this year's State Fair to be held in Detroit September 4 through 13.

Kinsora is serving as chairman of the Community Relations Committee which has jurisdiction over labor problems, community relations, advertising and publicity as well as the transportation program.

He is also serving on the Entertainment Committee which controls the Coliseum program, Grandstand entertainment, musicians contracts, carnival contracts and free entertainment.

In past years the operation of the Fair has been under the supervision of thirteen committees. The suggestion made by James M. Hare, general manager, to consolidate these committees was approved by the Board of Managers and the activities of the 1953 Fair will be handled by five committees.

"This revision is resulting in a more efficient management as it puts all related activities under one head," Hare said. "For instance, in previous years there were separate committees to handle commercial exhibits, concessions and free space. All these duties are now being handled by the Space Allocation Committee. Other committees are reorganized with the same thought in mind."

Police Asking Help of Parents

Now that summer is more than half over, Farms Patrolman Joseph Miller, traffic safety officer, urges parents to remind their children of the need of being safety-minded.

"It will not be long, now," he said, "before the children will be on their way back to school. This is the time to instill or refresh their memories with the safety rules and regulations taught to them by the police officers and teachers."

He stated that evidence has been gathered, which prove that children have already become lax in their safety habits, in the streets, and in disregarding other rules enacted for their protection.

"The most common occurrence," pointed out Patrolman Miller, "is running out into the streets from between parked cars or running out after a ball or other object, without looking both ways for any oncoming traffic."

He added that it is of the utmost importance to have safety begin at home, and if this program is carried out by the parents, their children stand a good chance of returning to school in the fall.

MRS. FRED T. MURPHY OF EAST JEFFERSON AVENUE

By Kitty Marriott

For many years Mrs. Fred T. Murphy has been one of the Pointe's beloved ladies. Her philanthropies and civic and cultural interests have made her name synonymous with lofty achievements. Not the least of her accomplishments are her two children, Mrs. Harold R. Boyer and the Hon. Frederick M. Alger, recently named United States Ambassador to Belgium.

Mrs. Murphy, who has been a resident of Grosse Pointe for 45 years, used to come out from Detroit to spend her summers here even before building a permanent home. Educated at Dobbs Ferry School, she studied vocal and instrumental music in New York and Paris. She is a fine pianist and music is her chief form of relaxation.

One of the founders of the Detroit Symphony Society, she has been a member of the board since its organization. Her fondness for music is also evidenced by membership in Tuesday Musical Chamber Music Society and Pro Musica.

The Detroit Historical Society is one of the organizations to which Mrs. Murphy is greatly devoted. She was instrumental in realizing the society's dream of building a historical museum.

Through Mrs. Murphy's efforts, her sister-in-law, Mrs. Charles B. Pike, of Chicago, offered to subscribe $50,000 as a memorial to her father, Gen. Russell A. Alger, if Detroiters would raise the fund to a quarter of a million dollars. This was done, and Mrs. Murphy turned the first spadeful of dirt for the museum at Woodward and Kirby in 1949.

On July 24, 1951, the Detroit Historical Museum was formally opened. The Russell A. Alger Hall of Patriotism in the museum was dedicated last December. Mrs. Murphy has served as a member of the Detroit Historical Commission since its inception in 1946 and is on the Board of the Detroit Historical Society as well.

The American Red Cross, from which she holds a national appointment, and Detroit Chapter, wherein she is a member of the Advisory Board, know Mrs. Murphy well. Throughout World War I she was chairman of nursing activities and canteen. She served the Red Cross during the second World War, is now a Volunteer Field Consultant for the Midwestern Area.

Very close to home here in the Pointe, Mrs. Murphy is a member of the special maintenance donors of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center and the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library.

She is on the Governing Board of the Women's Committee of the United Community Services, is a vice-president of Woman's Hospital and a board member of Detroit Women's Council of the Navy League. Among the multitude of other organizations with which she is closely affiliated are Visiting Nurse Association, Detroit Council on Community Nursing, Detroit Urban League and International Institute. She also belongs to Theatre Arts, Fine Arts Society and Society of Arts and Crafts.

Through the years Mrs. Murphy has received many honors for her work, and she is justly proud of the Honorary Degree of Doctor of Laws which Wayne University conferred on her in 1947.

Board meetings and conferences take up a great deal of her time during the week, but this interesting Pointer looks forward to Sunday, her family day, (there are seven grandchildren, several married, and three great grandchildren) when all of the members of the family who are in town join her for Sunday dinner at home.

CHICKEN SUPREME CASSEROLE

Contributed by Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson

- 6 c. cooked chicken
- 4 c. chicken broth
- 1 small can pimientos
- 3 c. fresh mushrooms
- 2/4 c. flour
- 4 T. butter
- 3 c. milk
- 1/4 t. pepper
- 1 c. blanched almonds
- 4 c. cooked rice
- 1 t. salt

Buttered bread crumbs. Cut chicken into 1-inch pieces. Pour 1 c. chicken broth over rice. Make gravy by adding milk to remaining broth and thickening with flour and butter. Slice almonds lengthwise and cut pimientos fine. Slice mushrooms and fry in butter. Butter casserole. Cover bottom with rice. Add layer of chicken. Add gravy. Dot with almonds, pimientos and mushrooms. Repeat with second layer of ingredients. Sprinkle buttered bread crumbs over top. Bake 45 minutes in 350° oven. Serves 12-16.

Charles Morris Passes Tests as Carrier Pilot

PENSACOLA, Fla. (FHTNC)—Carrier pilot qualifications on board the small aircraft carrier USS Monterey in the Gulf of Mexico have been completed by Naval Aviation Cadet Charles W. Morris Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Morris of 1043 Yorkshire road, Grosse Pointe, Mich.

Cadet Morris was graduated from the University of Virginia in 1950 with a Bachelor of Arts degree, prior to entering the Naval Aviation Cadet Program through the U. S. Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile, Mich.

Since reporting here to the U. S. Naval Air Station, "The Annapolis of the Air," the cadet has completed a stringent schedule in military, academic, physical and flight training. He is now ready for a four-month training course in instrument flight and combat type aircraft, the final step to Navy "Wings of Gold."

Pointe Counter Points

By Roberta Isley

If you are searching for diversity . . . you'll find it up and down the avenue . . . Kercheval, that is. New things are beginning to shine at the counters . . . all have the autumn season bloom. Just for example . . . in the accessory department at Jacobson's this week we came upon toques, silhouettes for daytime and evening wear. These are the ones that are favored in new fall collections. These are the half hats developed with beautifully colored feather plumes and matching collars of the same to wear with plain jewelry neckline dresses. There are precious velvet half-hats either plain or beaded. We saw pretty black velvet stoles . . . some with sequins . . . fall flowers, too, in this interesting collection of fall finery.

In your search for diversity you'll find plain spec frames can become sparkling with the jewel trim . . . like gem rose . . . or beautiful baguette styles. Choose your frame . . . your jewel . . . and Johnston's Optical . . . on the bill . . . will do the rest.

And from Paris . . . comes Helena Rubenstein's skin serum. There has been a shortage, as you know. But now Kopp's Pharmacy is well supplied with this precious fluid that gives you immediate results. You'll see an instant tightening and lubrication. You will not see the film that hides every tiny line and blemish. One box contains ten vials . . . just the treatment you'll need for the first three weeks . . . after that you'll require fewer per week.

Costume suits are all over the market. And you'll soon discover how important and marvelous is the idea of fur trim. A smartly we found was black broadcloth with a tiny Ermine collar . . . to cuddle your neckline. The other was a mink taupe shade trimmed with a Mink collar. Both of these featured the straight jacket at a new, slightly shorter level that is congenial with their narrow slim skirts. The narrow straight skirt has the look of "suspending" the straightness from the hip right down to the hemline. Then there was the nubby textured box jackets . . . real warm . . . with the new narrow skirt. These run around seventy dollars, and are featured in a huge collection at D. J. Healy's, in the village.

One of the coolest spots in the Pointe is Marie Bird's Salon . . . a-top-the-hill. Convenient, too, with its capriol entrance from the parking lot at the rear of the building. Here advance hair fashions and loveliness reign supreme. The much talked about Italian Boy Coif WAS news LAST fall at Marie Bird's. And now it has been discarded by smart Grosse Pointers in favor of the full French Shingle. No one can say that our local beauties are like the sheep that follow the flock . . . they set their own styles and let the others follow. However, the choice is really YOURS . . . if it's the French, Italian . . . or American influence they can all find expression thru an Intra-Curl Cut . . . exclusive at Marie Bird's.

Crowded cupboards? Not so handy, we'd say. Fromm's have twenty-one ideas that will "straighten-up" your kitchen cupboards . . . ask about these shelves that you attach to your cupboards.

The same outfit that manufactures official Boy Scout shoes make these broguish looking shoes for boys in size 2 to 7 1/2. They are the smart tan wing-tip oxford with neolyte soles. This sole, you know, eliminates the need of rubber footwear before November 1. The two-eyelot type featured is so popular with the boys. They're modestly priced in Jacobson's Shoe Department on the Second Floor.

We could write a book . . . but we won't . . . about the Closet Shop in Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop. At a glance, you noted this was not a haphazard collection . . . because there are one hundred items in metal closet accessories alone. There is the trouser rack . . . the belt rack . . . and the blouse rack . . . seven shirts or blouses can be hung in the space ordinarily occupied by one! There are hangbag and utility racks . . . just to mention a few. Then the Closet Accessories are available in flame, hunter green, blue, yellow, pink, chartreuse, turquoise, wine and grey. In quilted satin or plastic are seat chests, fabric covered hat stands, glove boxes, collapsible blanket bags, sewing boxes, traveling bags, handsome chests of drawers, and more. We're going to remember these items for bridge prizes. Some mentioned are around one dollar and twenty-five cents.

R.H. Tallman Completes Carrier Landing Course

PENSACOLA, Fla. (FHTNC)—Naval Aviation Cadet Robert H. Tallman took off and landed his trainer six successive times recently aboard the small aircraft carrier USS Monterey, cruising in the Gulf of Mexico, to complete his aircraft carrier qualifications.

Cadet Tallman is a resident of 789 Harcourt road, Grosse Pointe, and attended the University of California in Berkeley, prior to entering the Naval Aviation Cadet Program through the Naval Air Station, Oakland.

Having reported here to "The Annapolis of the Air," in June 1952, Cadet Tallman is undergoing a stringent schedule in military, academic, physical and flight training. From carrier qualification, he will report to the Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Corry Field, for instrument Flight training.
