WALTER REUTHER, UAW and CIO president, informed members of the State Bar of Michigan at their annual meeting in the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel, that a fight is expected in the auto industry over the guaranteed annual wage. They were also informed that the labor unions do not intend to sign any new contracts until the laborers are paid by the year. The guaranteed wage is the labor chief's aim when the present five-year contracts expire.

IN THE not-too-distant future, the H-bomb may turn out so cheap and simple, any nation in the world will be able to have an arsenal of them. The information was given out by President Eisenhower when he met with this National Security Council. The session was extraordinary in that more than twice the usual number of persons attended. Vice President Richard Nixon, who was at the meeting, said that information other than what has been released from the meeting is strictly confidential.

Saturday, September 26

RESIDENTS were ordered evacuated from Florida coastal cities from the path of a 100-mile-an-hour hurricane, which is expected to strike a 70-mile swath from Valparaiso to Panama City. The center of the gale was reported near the Panama City-Valparaiso area. High waters have surrounded Apalachicola and Valparaiso. Police of cities in the path of the hurricane reported many power lines down. The storm, the weather bureau warned, could be expected in southeast Alabama and southwest Georgia.

NORTH KOREA spent about $15 to send a telegram to UN Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld which stated that they wanted Russia as one of the neutral nations in the Korean peace conference. They said that somehow there was a mistake from some quarter from which it was omitted in making their wishes known. The cable made it clear that North Korea wants Russia, as well as India, Indonesia, Pakistan and Burma to attend the peace conference, as neutral nations.

THE UNITED NATIONS is stumped trying to find out the meaning of the word "aggression" in the international sense, after finding Red China guilty of such an act. A 15-member committee, whose job is to define the word, ended a month's discussion without any decision. Surprisingly, the Soviet Union asked the UN for a definition in 1950, which was backed up by a lengthy paper in which Russia listed all the offenses considered aggressive, many of which the Soviet had used against the Western Powers in the UN.

THE COMMUNISTS' REGIME in Poland, in order to avoid worldwide protest, "exiled" Stefan Kardynal Wyszynski, the country's Roman Catholic primate to a monastery. The Reds have forbidden the Cardinal to carry out the functions of his office. They apparently intend to sentence the clergyman to a virtual imprisonment without a trial. A Warsaw radio propaganda broadcast, referred to the cardinal as "archbishop," recalling the Reds' refusal to recognize his elevation to Cardinal in January.

Wednesday, September 30

RUSSIA, in a 2500-word note, called for a Big Five meeting, including Communist China, at the highest level. The same note accepted a Western proposal for a four-power foreign ministers' conference to discuss a German peace treaty. No date reportedly was set for either meeting by the Soviet. A Western Big Three meeting of chiefs of state, scheduled to be held in Bermuda and postponed first by French internal strife and then by Churchill's illness, was scheduled to be held in Washington in July at which time it was agreed to invite Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov to an autumn meeting on Austria and Germany. Russia's note was in reply to that message.

Don't Forget To Keep That Date Today

The Red Cross Mobile Unit will be at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Lakeshore road between 2 and 8 p.m. today to receive blood donations. Sponsored by the churches of Grosse Pointe, the Board of Education, the Marine League, and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, it is hoped this collection will be even more successful than previous ones. Pictured above are MRS. THELMA LARKIN, a donor, the REV. DR. FRANK FITT, minister of the church, and MRS. ALVIN BORCHARDT, one of the chairmen of this collection.

Four Pointes Win Honors For Safety

City, Park, Farms and Woods Given Awards by Automobile Association

Recognition for the effectiveness of their pedestrian protection efforts was given four Grosse Pointe communities Wednesday (September 30) at a Safety and Traffic Committee luncheon at the War Memorial Center.

Police chiefs from Grosse Pointe, Grosse Pointe Woods, Grosse Pointe Park and Grosse Pointe Farms accepted the American Automobile Association National Pedestrian Protection Contest awards for excellence of programs.

Grosse Pointe Woods received an honorable mention certificate competing with cities of 10,000 to 25,000 population, while the other three communities were cited for having no pedestrian deaths during 1952. Robert Lewis, Automobile Club of Michigan safety education consultant, made the presentation.

Honesty Pays Wallet Loser

Mrs. James Millies of 807 Fisher road, proved on Saturday, September 26, that there are still honest people left in the world.

Mrs. Millies, finding a plastic wallet containing $21 in bills, and a driver's license, took them to the City police station.

The license revealed that the wallet, which was found on Fisher and St. Paul, belonged to Bernice H. Martin, of 9584 Marquette drive, Memphis, Mich.

The police returned the wallet to its owner.

Glove Compartment Thief Has Low Batting Average

Park police are on the lookout for a burglar who created quite a stir in the Trombley, Harcourt and Bedford roads area over the weekend by breaking into several garages and ransacking cars.

John Fleming of 870 Bedford, reported his garage had been broken into and a tire and wheel stolen. The report was made about 7:16 a.m. Saturday.

At 9:05 a.m., Mrs. S. Kazlow of 920 Trombley, called and reported that the glove compartment in two cars in her garage had been ransacked, but nothing taken.

Big Flower Show to Open In War Memorial Center Friday; Plan Many Features

Special Table Settings, Afternoon Teas and Invitational Arrangements to Be Enjoyed During Two-Day Exhibit

Clever suggestions for Pointe hostesses interested in decorative settings for their fall entertaining will be demonstrated in table and other arrangements at the October Flower Show to be presented Friday and Saturday, October 2 and 3, at the War Memorial Center, by the Grosse Pointe Garden Center.

Included will be attractive buffet settings, a "country fair" table, and a hunt table for the country.

To Have Tea Table
Gardeners and flower lovers who visit the show will find an opportunity to discuss their favorite flower arrangements in the numerous sections over a leisurely cup of tea in the Garden Center Room at the Memorial, where hostesses Mrs. Wood Williams, Mrs. W. Hurst Montee, Mrs. Alex Blain, and Mrs. James B. Ogden will preside at the tea table.

Paintings done by members of the Grosse Pointe Artists Association are to be interpreted by flower arrangements. Among the artists whose works will be shown are Mrs. Frank Lindemann, Mrs. G. Leslie Fields, Mrs. A. H. Kitson, and Mrs. John R. Pear. Corresponding flower arrangements will be done by Mrs. Mark Stevens, Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mrs. Wendell K. Wheelock, and Mrs. Frederick J. Schumann.

Experts to Exhibit
Experts chosen to do invitational tables and other settings are Mrs. Alger Sheldon, Mrs. James Cope, Mrs. Douglas Campbell, Mrs. John M. S. Hutchinson, Mrs. Neil McMillan, Jr., Mrs. H. Herbert Micou, Mrs. Richard Webber, Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Miss Sarah Hendrie, Mrs. George B. Duffield, Mrs.

Youth Stabbed During Fight

During a fight between two small groups of boys, Jack Roy, 20, of 166 Cloverly, was stabbed in the stomach. Roy was admitted to emergency surgery at Bon Secours Hospital late Saturday night.

Held as his attacker was Clyde Borden of Detroit, who told police that Roy hit him first with a bottle at Eastlawn and Mack where the fight took place.

Roy denied this stating that the trouble started when Borden, with two companions drove alongside his car on Lake Shore at Moross, and made vulgar gestures. Roy said they then took their dates home and proceeded to chase the Borden car.

Both cars stopped at the scene of the fight with Roy walking up to Borden's car and pushing the driver back as he tried to get out. The boys said that the stabbing followed this scuffle by the car.

After an emergency operation Roy was resting in good condition.

Memorial Center Completes Another Successful Year

Reports Disclosed at Annual Dinner Show Great Increase in Attendance and Many Additions to Plant and Program

Grosse Pointe's War Memorial Center completed its most successful year with an annual dinner meeting held in the Center Monday night. The various committee heads gave their reports, which all showed a marked increase in the number of people who have used the Center this year. This increase is credited to the inception of so many new organizations now located in the War Memorial.

The Red Cross Mobile Blood Unit came to the Center once during the year and 209 people responded to donate 172 pints of blood. A Red Cross First Aid Course was also offered to the public.

Entertainment for veterans and soldiers brought many new visitors to the center. The Auxiliary of the American Legion, Post 303, cooperated with the churches of Grosse Pointe, the U.S.O., and other organizations to provide social events, particularly for the AAA soldiers stationed in the Pointes.

The Youth Council staged a variety show which was presented at the different camps. Pointers who are in active service or are veterans, or those marrying Grosse Pointe girls may use the Center for weddings and receptions.

A Men's Garden Club was organized to stimulate masculine interest in the center. The Garden Center also provided a series of free lectures during the spring and summer months which discussed every aspect of gardening from spraying and pruning to ground covers to grow in sun and shade.

The University of Michigan Extension Service Committee presented two courses, "Around the World Today" and "The Drama Series" with a total enrollment of 165.

The Neighbors Club, which was formed originally to interest newly arrived residents in community responsibility and social contacts, expanded into a general service organization. This group gave parties for the Protestant Children's Home and the Boys Republic, as well as working for Cottage Hospital and the Children's Hospital of Detroit.

The Duplicate Bridge Club was

Sailors Rescue Man From Lake

Two Pointe yachtsmen, who happened to be sailing by, rescued a man on Saturday, September 26, when he had gone overboard in Lake St. Clair, to untangle an anchor line from the boat's propeller.

Hilary Micou, 29, of 30 Kerby, and Robert Wood, 29, of 1123 Hawthorne, pulled John Marcourt, 40, of 518 Marlborough, Detroit, into their boat, when he was unable to climb back into his own, even with the assistance of his boat companion, Leland Castle, 61, also of the Marlborough address.

The two Pointes towed the disabled boat to the Crescent Sail Yacht Club near the Farms Municipal Pier, and notified police.

Marcourt was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Farms firemen, where it was reported he was suffering from exposure and exhaustion.

Police Chief Gets Dunked While Performing Rescue

A dunking in Lake St. Clair failed to dampen the spirit of City Police Chief Thomas Trombley on Friday, September 25, who with two other police officers, effected the rescue of three people marooned on an island opposite 17700 E. Jefferson.

Doug Chauvin, employed at the Jefferson address, called the City Police Station to state that there were three people marooned on an island about 150 feet from shore, opposite the Harold Boyer and Fred Alger estates.

Chief Trombley, Det. Sgt. Teetaert and Patrolman Richard Eelworthy went to the scene, where the chief commanded a boat to go to the rescue.

Rescued were George Bamberg, 37; Bernie Bamberg, 40; and

Arrest Maid As Collector Of Jewelry

Several Woods Larceny Cases Cleared Up; Part of Loot Recovered by Police

A week of patient investigation of a case of grand larceny from the Woods police department on Monday, September 28, with the guilty person in custody and several cases of larceny cleared up.

On Wednesday, September 23, Mrs. Shirley Haworth of 1121 Roslyn, informed police that several items of jewelry, including a family ring valued at $300, and two lady's expensive handbags were missing from her home.

She stated that a maid, Ethyl Green, 26, of 262 Glynn, Detroit, who has been working for her several days out of the week, for the last few months, had always expressed her love for jewelry.

This was borne out on September 23, said Mrs. Haworth, when she noticed a pair of earrings being worn by Ethyl who, after finishing her day's work, was going home. The pieces of jewelry looked very familiar, so Mrs. Haworth decided to investigate.

A thorough investigation disclosed that the following were missing from their customary places: the earrings; the family ring, containing an opal stone with three small diamonds in an "S" shape; a rhinestone necklace; a pair of rhinestone, teardrop shaped earrings; a pair of white and gold flower design earrings; a hand tooled ring of green, pink and gold; a man's diamond stick

Stolen Medical Supplies Found

Medical supplies, stolen from the parked car of Judson St. John of 815 Beaconsfield, on Friday, September 25, were recovered by Detroit police Saturday, September 26.

According to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, the supplies, valued at $325, were reported to have been found by a Detroit citizen, in an alley on Gladwin avenue, dumped there apparently because the thief felt they were of little value to him.

There were no drugs among the stolen goods when they were taken.

Center Elects New Directors

Members present at the Monday night meeting of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association unanimously accepted the report of the nominating committee, which selected a board of directors to replace the five outgoing directors.

Those chosen for this important job are Alonzo C. Allen of Lincoln road, John B. Ford, Jr., of East Jefferson avenue, Robert Hergeon, Jr., of Irvine lane, Marion Kellogg of Fisher road, and Mrs. Robert H. Patterson of Hampton road.

Assisting Bert H. Winking, chairman of the nominating committee, were Dr. James Bushong, James Dykema, Mrs. Hubert Goebel, Earl I. Heenan, Rev. Paul Ketchum, Mrs. Howard F. Smith, and Mrs. Alexander Wiener.

John K. Roney is retiring as president of War Memorial Association. The remaining members of the board of directors, assisted by the five new members, will meet sometime next week to elect new officers.

Mobile Unit Paying Visit Here Today

Contributors Urgently Needed at Pointe Memorial Church from 2 to 8 p.m.

The Red Cross Mobile Unit will be at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church from 2 to 8 p.m. today, Thursday, October 1, for the first blood collection made here since last spring. The sponsors, all the local churches, the Board of Education, Marine League and the War Memorial Center, are hoping for a record turnout of donors.

Since the cessation of hostilities in Korea the blood collections have fallen off all over, and the Red Cross stresses the urgent need for replenishing supplies now. The last two collections made in the Pointe produced discouraging results. The sponsors have been working hard to see that this blemish on the Pointe record will be wiped out with this collection.

150 Make Appointments
Mrs. Alvin Borchardt, chairman of the Memorial Church committee, reported Tuesday morning that some 150 appointments had been made by prospective donors. To be successful, the drive should produce at least 200 pints. There are always a number of rejects, and unfortunately it has always been true that a number of those who make appointments fail to appear to give their donation.

Appointments may be made by calling the Memorial Church, TUxedo 5-3773. Arrangements for transportation for those who require it can also be made by calling this number.

Nursery Provided
A nursery will be managed by the Junior Red Cross of Grosse Pointe High School, Mrs. A. J. Eckley of St. Michael's Church is chairman of the hostesses, and dinner will be served the workers by a committee headed by Mrs. Langston Thompson. Mrs. E. E. Stetson is chairman of the Committee of Volunteers.

Mrs. Lyndie Martin of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church is chairman of the Blood Council of Grosse Pointe. The program of the council is being enlarged to take in anyone in the community who will donate to a Community Blood Bank. This would offer protection to the donor and any member of his immediate family in case of need for blood. A committee will be set up to release this blood upon request of the donor.

Disappointing Record
The blood collecting program has produced but 931 pints in the entire community during the past year. With a population of more than 50,000, the record is not considered an enviable one. Pointers have a chance to do something about this today. All roads will lead to the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church in Lake Shore road and it is hoped they will be heavily travelled during the six hours of the collection, from 2 o'clock this afternoon to 8 o'clock tonight.

The process of giving blood is painless and takes but a short time. All eligible donors are urged to roll up their sleeves and make their contribution at the church today.

Police Chief Gets Dunked While Performing Rescue

John Judd, all of 1225 Beniteau, Detroit.

The woman brought safely to shore, Chief Trombley refused to bring back the men. One held on to the side of the boat and the other hung on to the rear. The water was choppy and rough. Everything was going along okay, when a big wave clogged the boat and the chief was in.

Sgt. Teetaert took the three people to the Klenk Boat and Livery at Alter road and the lake. Assisting the chief in bringing the three Detroiters to the main side was Robert Marshall, another employee of the Boyer estate.

During the rescue and while in the water, Marshall lost his eye glasses, valued at about $25.

pin; and two expensive handbags. The total value of the missing articles amounted to about $430. Det. Albert Abend, assigned to the case, went to the home of the domestic, who denied taking the valuables. Nevertheless, he obtained a ring from the woman, which later was identified as part of the loot taken from the Haworths' home.

Swears Out Warrant Acting on this, Detective Abend conducted a further investigation, and sure of his findings, swore out a warrant for the arrest of the maid.

With two detectives of the Detroit police department, he went to the home of the woman on Monday, September 28, who was placed under arrest and taken to the Wayne County Jail to await an examination.

It is believed she may have disposed of several of the items taken from the Haworths' home, but other pieces of jewelry, found in her room, were identified as having been taken from the homes of other Woods residents for whom she had worked, Director of Public Safety Vern Bailey revealed.

Slosson to Open Lecture Series

Professor Preston W. Slosson will initiate the Series of Lectures on "Foreign Policy Issues of 1953" at the War Memorial Center on October 7.

Widely known as a lecturer in the field of world affairs and as a radio commentator, this well-known Ann Arbor professor will analyze for Grosse Pointers "Our Relations with United Nations."

Professor Slosson though a native of Wyoming, received all his degrees at Columbia University.

He has been one of the Carnegie visiting professors, lecturing at the Universities of Bristol, Lancaster and Glasgow. He was the assistant librarian to the American Delegation at the Versailles Peace Conference.

During the '30s, he constantly warned people of the impending world conflict and took his stand publicly against Lindbergh's isolationist articles.

He is the author of many publications and has collaborated with his wife in drawing up a world peace plan.

Call TU. 1-5030 immediately for reservations.

DEMOCRATS TO MEET

The Democratic Womens Club of the 14th District will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Hannan branch of the YMCA on Tuesday, October 6.

Speaker will be James Lincoln, candidate for mayor of Detroit.

Welcome to New Teachers

Because of the growth of the Grosse Pointe community and the subsequent increased enrollment in the public schools, the Grosse Pointe School Board has made some 50 appointments to the different faculties.

These appointments have been made because of the need to replace those teachers leaving the Public School system for reason of transfer or retirement.

By way of introduction to the parents of children who will attend or who are now attending the public schools, the NEWS is publishing weekly short biographies of those whose appointments have been confirmed.

GWYNFA (Bonnie) WHELDEN, whose parents now live in Vermont, grew up in Grosse Pointe, and is a graduate of Dana Hall in Massachusetts. She received her BA from Smith College last June. She is now teaching the fourth grade in Monteith School.

MRS. FLORENCE GOBRECHT grew up in Charlotte, Mich., and began her teaching after preliminary training at Western Michigan College and Ypsilanti College.

While teaching in Lincoln Park, she completed studies for a BA degree at Wayne University after which she did tutoring and substitute work in Grosse Pointe schools. She is teaching the second grade in Kerby School.

MRS. ETHYL VANDEBERG is a native of Wisconsin, and began teaching in that state's rural schools after studying several years at Wisconsin State Teachers College of Education. She received her BA degree from Eastern Washington College of Education and her MA degree from the University of Missouri.

RUSSELL HACHEY is a native of Northern Wisconsin and has a BA degree from Duluth, a branch of the University of Minnesota. He served in the army for four years during World War II, as a professional musician. He is teaching Industrial Arts in Pierce Junior High School.

MRS. JOAN A. KANTAK was raised in a suburb of Chicago. She attended Grinnell College for two years, then transferred to the University of Illinois, where she received her Bachelor of Fine Arts degree last February. Last spring she taught in Broomfield, Ill., and moved here following her marriage in Au-of 917 Harcourt, who reported nothing stolen. When they thought the burglar had ceased his efforts, the police received two phone calls the following day, Sunday, September 27, in which two more irate citizens reported breaking and entering of their garages.

Frank Harland of 920 Trombley told police nothing had been taken from his car, but according to the report made by Harry W. Reberdy of 950 Trombley, the thief had stolen two spotlights from his vehicle.

The police are doubling their vigilance and hope to lay their hands on the culprit soon.

Lt. Don C. Broadbridge Receives Wings of Gold

PENSACOLA, Fla. (FHTNC)—"WINGS OF GOLD" of a Naval aviator and his commission were awarded to Marine 2nd Lt. Don C. Broadbridge, son of Dr. and Mrs. D. C. Broadbridge of 42 Edgemore, Grosse Pointe, Mich. Lt. Broadbridge will go to Corpus Christi, Texas for further training before reporting for duty to the Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Pointe, N. C. He was graduated from Colgate University before entering the Naval Aviation Cadet Program through the Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile.

The presentation was made by Rear Admiral J. P. Whitney, USN, Chief of Naval Air Basic Training, during ceremonies held at the Naval Air Station here.

recently established, which has two sessions a week with an average of 15 tables at play.

The Grosse Pointe Nationality Group gathered together for social functions, one of which was a Christmas party with 71 foreign friends attending.

The Detroit Region Sports Car Club of America featuring the most glamorous experimental and custom products of all the American manufacturers and a showing of European sports cars, came to the Center last June. This show brought crowds of over 2,300 and netted the War Memorial over $1,000.

The Buildings and Repairs Committee spent $2,500 less than their allotted budget of $4,774, which illustrates the frugality exercised by all the departments of the Center.

New Gifts Received The furnishings and working equipment of the War Memorial are constantly being supplemented by the generous gifts of Pointe citizens. Through such contributions the Center acquired this year two typewriters, two refrigerators, an office desk, 56 yards of gray taffeta, a sponge rubber pad for the dining room rug, a mahogany table, an upholstered sofa, two modern Jacobean chairs, a small walnut settee, a leather screen, an oil painting, a pair of wrought-iron urns, and an antique gilt mirror.

With the addition of so many new organizations and functions, it is encouraging to note that 21,993 more persons used the War Memorial this year than the year previous. An individual attendance record of 5,38 from July 1952 to August 1953, shows clearly the rapid growth of this worthwhile community service center.

St. Paul Church is located at Chalfonte and Lothrop.

Working quietly, since the theft of a Browning automatic pistol and a $100 diamond studded Shiner pin was reported stolen on September 16, Farms Det. Sgt. Harold Seelow and Det. Harold Beaupre uncovered information that led to the arrest of Robert Zuern, 30, of 3872 Garland, and William Reed, 33, of 3480 St. Clair, both of Detroit, who were brought to the station for questioning.

It was disclosed that both men had been working with a contracting decorator, who had been engaged in redecorating Dr. Lipson's home.

Questioned about the gun and pin, the two men denied any knowledge of the articles and the theft, but when confronted with the fact that someone had overheard a friend of Reed's talk frankly about a .32 caliber gun, which Reed had given to his brother, Frank, Reed confessed to having stolen the firearm.

Asked about the pin, he stated that on the day it was stolen, Zuern approached him just before going home and showed him a pin with small diamonds, and on September 19, gave it to him to keep. He signed a statement to that effect. Zuern denied involvement in the theft. Each stuck to his own story.

On Thursday, September 24, Reed stated he wished to change his story, because he did not want to involve Zuern, and confessed the sole responsibility in the theft of the gun and pin.

The two men were released to Detroit police for investigation of breaking and entering of a Detroit bar, where it was alleged that about two cases of liquor were stolen by the pair.

Farms police have a hold order on Reed, in the event he is released by Detroit authorities.

Seek Contributions To Help "Ike"

MRS. W. DEAN ROBINSON, left, vice-chairman of the Committee for the Republican Women's Birthday "Party" for "Ike," to be held October 28 at the Sheraton-Cadillac, with MRS. JEWETT DWYER, General Chairman of the committee, and Carlton Ketchum, Executive Director of the National Republican Finance Committee, discussed plans for contributions at a meeting held last Wednesday, September 23, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

At a meeting of the committee in charge of arrangements for the Republican Women's Birthday Party for "Ike" held last Wednesday, September 23, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, an army of 100 Republican women from Wayne and Oakland Counties, participated in the "kick-off" for solicitation of contributions that will entitle donors to attend the "Party" (a dance with professional entertainment), on October 28 at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. This will be one of a series of parties in honor of President Eisenhower's birthday that are being given throughout the country by various Republican groups.

At the meeting on Wednesday, 10 teams of 10 members each were given working kits containing red, white and blue tickets and long lists of prospects. The tickets bear the inscription "Join the Grand Old Party." Mrs. Jewett Dwyer, general chairman for the money-raising affair encouraged all the Women's Republican Clubs in Wayne and Oakland Counties to raise the necessary contributions at pre-party affairs, such as rummage sales, auctions, or at country breakfasts. Small contributions toward the success of a party of this sort are as important as the larger gifts," she said.

Carlton Ketchum, executive director of the Republican National Finance Committee, came from Washington to address the meeting, to explain the national picture and the need for funds to the women who are out to raise pre-election funds to insure a working majority of Republicans in Congress in 1954.

In a letter to the members of the Contributions Committee, signed jointly by Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., Member of the National Finance Committee, and by Mrs. Dwyer, the following statements were made:

"We are proud that the National Finance Committee is watching this project with interest as it is the first time this medium has been used by the committee, and if successful may set a pattern for other states in the raising of Republican funds. "We are already in the 1954 campaign and we will have to work as hard as we did in the Presidential election to assure Republican backing for "Ike" in '54. We cannot wait until then to send field workers into the marginal areas. With the present concept of political organization, politics is no longer a seasonal business. Our organization must be kept intact and function continuously if campaigns are to be effective.

"Therefore it is necessary to make an annual appeal for funds to individuals, as the Party is wholly dependent on donations for its support."

The Contributions Committee is headed by Mrs. James J. Phelan, Jr., with Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe as vice-chairman. Other Grosse Pointe residents on the committee are Mesdames William K. Muir, W. Dan Robinson, Ray M. Whyte, all vice-chairmen; Mesdames J. Stewart Hudson, C. Hascall Bliss, Wendell W. Anderson, Jr., Harold R. Boyer, all on the committee on arrangements, and Mrs. Harry J. Mack and Mrs. H. Hunter Williams, publicity.

Trombly P.T.A. Meets Oct. 6

The first meeting of the Trombly P.T.A. will be held in the school auditorium at 8:15 p.m. on Tuesday, October 6. Harold Marsh, P.T.A. president, extends a welcome to new parents in this opening meeting.

Dr. Leroy Selmeier, Director of Instruction, Grosse Pointe Public Schools, will be the guest speaker. He will be introduced by Howard Poppen, program chairman.

A classroom visitation period will precede the general meeting, during which time parents can become acquainted with teachers and see the work of the children.

Mrs. Suzanne McCray and Mrs. Albert Frost, social co-chairmen, together with the room mothers are planning social hour festivities to follow the auditorium meeting.

Library Friends Announce Plans

After the first meeting of the Board of Directors of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, held Wednesday, September 16, at the Central Library, president Charles A. Parcells, Jr. announced plans for the 1953-54 season. The Friends will sponsor a World Politics Discussion group, which will meet for 10 consecutive Mondays beginning Monday, October 12. "This is a program worked out by the American Foundation for Political Education, a Ford Foundation beneficiary," said Mr. Parcells. "A number of us attended a discussion group last Spring and found it to be such an excellent program that we are sponsoring it again for all interested Grosse Pointers." Program committee chairman Jay also plans once a month open house meeting for Sunday afternoons at the Central Library, at which members of the Library Staff will review current books and records. Two new committees have been formed under chairmen appointed by Mr. Parcells. Mrs. Lilyod G. Hooker leads an Appropriations Committee, which will review proposed projects and major expenditures and make recommendations to the Board. Dr. Alfred H. Whittaker is the chairman of the Rare Books Committee, whose aim will be to build a collection for the library through gifts and bequests.

Former Pointer's Bequests Going Behind Iron Curtain

Probate Judge Thomas C. Murphy ruled on Friday, September 25, that a bequest of $4,000, mentioned in a will of a former maid in a Woods home, was an outright gift and therefore must be granted. Elizabeth Beres, who was 57 when she died in 1949, a devout Catholic, willed that $500 be given to the bishop of the diocese of Hungary and a like amount be set aside for some poor girl in that country who wished to join a sisterhood. The balance of the estate was left to three sisters, Sister Mary Paul in a Hungarian religious order, and Katherine Beres and Mrs. Julia Basco, both believed to be living in Czechoslovakia. Prior to Judge Thomas' ruling, there had been some question concerning sending the money to Communist-dominated countries behind the Iron Curtain, but Searborn Lawrence, Detroit attorney handling the estate, stated that the Hungarian consulate in Washington had attorneys representing that country, and that he had been directed by the U. S. State Department to send the money to the two countries.

Labor Advisor To Address Club

The proposed amendments to the Taft-Hartley Act will be the topic of guest speaker, Mr. Frank Rising, at the meeting of the 14th Congressional District Young Republican Club on October 1 at 8 p.m. at Buckingham Hall, Buckingham at Harper. Mr. Rising is a former Labor Editor of "Business Week" magazine and member of the National War Labor Board, the War Manpower Board, the Wage Stabilization Board, and the War Production Board; as well as recently being appointed by President Eisenhower to the Advisory Board for consideration of the proposed amendments. The Young Republican Club urges all interested persons to attend this meeting.

Dominican High Fathers' Club to Meet on Oct. 7

The Dominican High Fathers Club will hold their first meeting of the season on Wednesday, October 7, at 8 p.m. in the Dominican High School, 9740 McKinney avenue. After the business meeting the club will join the Mothers Club in the auditorium to hear the Rev. Father L. Burcki, Chaplain, discuss his recent European trip, which covered Ireland, France, Switzerland and Italy. While abroad, Father Burcki visited Lourdes, and was received by the Pope in Rome. The Fathers Club is planning on presenting a series of interesting programs for the season in addition to holding a number of regular socials. The club extends a wholehearted invitation to all the fathers of Dominican students to attend this meeting. This will be the first in a series of regular monthly scheduled affairs held on the first Wednesday of each month during the school year.

Farms Program Gets Publicity

A detailed story of the program undertaken by Grosse Pointe Farms for the expansion of its pier park is being printed in the October 8 issue of the Engineering News Record, national magazine for the engineering profession. Residents of the Farms approved a bond issue of $500,000 to expand the recreational facilities along the lakefront. Now well under way, the whole development program will take another two years to complete.

Launch Program At Woods Club

Registrations of old and new members of the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club in their respective age groups begin this week, with several openings existing in each group.

Boys and girls are invited especially to register for the 12 places existing in the two pre-school groups and the 18 openings now existing in the kindergarten groups. These meet once a week. Parents may call the Community Club for information.

A sixth grade boys' club group, also a sixth grade girls' club group is in the process of forming, as well as third and fifth grade girls'. Additional members are sought for these. Boys who are interested in the Mason and Parcells Community Club Gym program are asked to watch for further information forthcoming in the near future.

Activities at the club opened with a full professional staff and a crew of eight Volunteer Leaders, with the first orientation session having been held on Monday, September 28.

Training courses were held under the direction of Ted Goldberg of the Wayne University Graduate School of Social Service and Miss Adelaide Dinwoodie, staff member of the Woods Club.

Suspension Follows Fracas For Probationary Policeman

An off-duty Grosse Pointe City patrolman, accused of starting a shooting fracas in a Mt. Clemens bar on Monday, September 28, might be dead today but for a jammed gun in the hands of the bartender.

According to a Macomb County Sheriff Department report, Patrolman Jake Highfield of 23325 Remick, Mt. Clemens, a probationary officer of the City police department, had been drinking at the Blue Boat Inn at the east outskirts of Mt. Clemens.

During the course of his drinking, Highfield got into an argument with Ernest DeGrove of 31930 S. River, and then pulled out his badge and announced that DeGrove was under arrest for investigation.

The bartender, Norman Schoener, told the officer not to bother the customer, whereupon, it was alleged, Highfield pulled out his revolver and a general melee was under way.

It was stated that a shot was fired at E. J. Stadler of 41350 Garfield, but several of the eight persons in the bar said Highfield fired a wild shot into the ceiling.

At this point, the bartender reached behind the counter and pulled out a .38 caliber revolver, aimed it at Highfield's chest and pulled the trigger, but the gun jammed. It was believed that at the time the City policeman did not know how close he was to death.

The policeman was disarmed by another customer and was severely beaten about the face by other customers, before sheriff deputies arrived to take Highfield into custody. The officer was taken to St. Joseph Hospital in Mt. Clemens for first aid treatment.

Highfield was booked for investigation of felonious assault and released to his attorney, Kenneth Sanborn, pending investigation by Macomb County Prosecutor Fred Nicholson.

The City policeman demanded examination at his arraignment before Municipal Judge Donald J. Parent, and on advice of his attorney stood mute. He was placed under a $500 bond. The bar patron who disarmed Highfield expressed willingness to sign a complaint against the patrolman and was to have appeared at the prosecutor's office at 1:30 p. m. on Monday, but failed to show up.

Defense Attorney Sanborn, temporarily waived the technicality of signing of the warrant, but the prosecutor said there must be a signed warrant before an examination scheduled to be held on October 15.

City Police Chief Thomas Trombly suspended Highfield following the Mt. Clemens incident, and sent Det. Sgt. Andrew Teetaert to investigate. The chief is studying the findings.

Highfield may have to face a police trial board, regardless of the outcome in Mt. Clemens.

STEWART A. RICARD
Attorney Stewart A. Ricard, 53, of 1071 Wayburn, collapsed and died on Friday, while defending a client in court.

He was stricken moments after asking for a recess in the court of Justice of the Peace Kenneth M. Sanborn of Clinton Township, because he was feeling ill. He slumped over while sitting in his chair at the counsel table.

He is survived by his wife, Alta; two sons, Stewart, Jr., and Robert X.; his mother, Christine; a brother, Herman; and a sister, Jean Hoschke.

Services were held at the DeSantis Funeral Home on Monday, September 28. Burial was in Forestlawn cemetery.

TWO HUBCAPS STOLEN
John Bieda of 7503 Maxwell, Van Dyke, Mich., told Woods police on Sunday, September 27, that he had parked his car in the Woods Theater parking lot while he went in to see a movie. When he came out, he discovered two hubcaps missing. Value $8.

Camera Club's Meeting Oct. 6
Dr. Ben Bristol will be the lecturer at "Fun Night" at the Grosse Pointe Camera Club's meeting on Tuesday evening October 6.

The exact nature of the doctor's program is wrapped in a cloak of mystery and will not be revealed until the start of the meeting, but an interview with the speaker seems to indicate that it is a start of an educational series in photography that will be of great help to all of the members.

All have been requested to bring their vacation snapshots as well as prints for submission to the judges under the regular assignment. It looks as though the makers will learn how to improve their technique in taking and making of pictures.

Dr. Bristol is well known for his knowledge and teaching of photography as well as a voluminous salon print maker. He has been actively connected with the Greater Detroit Camera Council as well as other connected interests.

Following the talk and judging of prints, there will be a discussion by Dr. C. J. Marinus on how and why the pictures were passed upon by the judging committee and the results obtained.

John Applegate, president, has invited the interested public to attend the meeting which will be held at the Neighborhood Club at 8 o'clock.

Pointe Theater Acquires Home
Mrs. Schlotman Joy has donated a barn on her property at 485 Lakeshore for the use of the Grosse Pointe Community Theater.

Temporarily, until permission is granted, the GPCT will use the barn only for workshop plays, scenery painting and storage, general membership meetings and social activities.

Under the direction of Bill Merrill, of Willoway, more professional theatre in capsule form will be presented at the War Memorial.

First of the GPCT's "Showcase" offerings will be presented October 24 and 25. The same play will be produced on October 29, 30 and 31. Refreshments will be served to the audience of about 100 in this new intimate type of stage presentation.

A casting call has gone out to the membership and all those interested for October 5 at 8 o'clock. A big interview night is scheduled for October 7, to meet newcomers, learn their theatrical interests and acquaint them with the theater, its new plans and future hopes.

TAKEN ILL AT SCHOOL
Larry Powell of 2010 Huntington, was removed from the Grosse Pointe High School by Woods police on Wednesday, September 23, and taken home when he became sick.

St. James Guild To Hold Party

Division One of the Women's Guild of St. James Lutheran Church will hold its Annual Luncheon and Card Party on Wednesday, October 7 at 12:30, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. The party will feature a style show of furs, dresses and hats by Roberts.

Mrs. John Fraser is general chairman of the affair, assisted by Mrs. Charles Strehler, Mrs. Albert Marcus, Mrs. John Arndt, Mrs. Gloria Mooney, and Mrs. Marshall Noecker. Mrs. Milton Pawsat and Mrs. Marilyn Dinley are in charge of prizes. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Donald McLeod, TU. 5-8250.

Annual Cinderella Ball To Help Tuberculosis-Health Society

The Cinderella story has always been a favorite fable and, like many other things, it is constantly changed to keep up with the times. Through the efforts of the Women's Committee of the Tuberculosis and Health Society, one lucky tuberculosis patient is chosen each year to be the modern Cinderella who reigns over the Cinderella Ball, which this year will be held in the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel on Saturday, October 3.

Cinderella of 1953 is Miss Phyllis Blem, who spent 17 months in Herman Kiefer Hospital. Now a secretary, Phyllis formerly was a fashion and photographic model in Los Angeles. She lives at 20525 Andover, Detroit.

As Cinderella, Miss Blem will receive all the time-honored gifts accorded her fabulous reign. She will be completely gowned—including accessories, jewels, hair styling and the fabled footwear in the role of the fairy godmother. Her Prince Charming, Master Sergeant Joseph Simpson of the U. S. Air Force, will escort Cinderella to the Ball, where the stroke of midnight will not signal disenchantment, but the passing of another festive hour.

Cinderella has added to the fable in that she has a court of three, all of them also former TB patients. The Detroit girls, Patricia Kuchan, 15326 Dolphin, Sharon Flynn, 12659 Marlowe, and Joanne Selke, 17618 W. Chicago boulevard, will also receive ball gowns and will be escorted by three other members of the Armed Forces—Yeoman 2nd class R. L. Taylor, U. S. Navy; Staff Sergeant Claude L. Barnes, U. S. M. C.; and Master Sergeant Robert Thomas, U. S. Army.

As a constant reminder to Cinderella of her whirlwind reign, Miss Blem will receive a small gold filigree slipper studded with amethysts and sapphires. A duplicate of the memento designed especially for the Cinderella Ball has been worn by each of the three previous Cinderellas.

Fairy-Land Decorations For the night of the Cinderella Ball, the ballrooms of the Sheraton-Cadillac will be turned into a veritable fairy-land. Mrs. Jack Tompkins is chairman of the ball.

As a poignant reminder of the gala evening, every woman attending this year's festive Cinderella Ball will take home tiny glass slippers that are part of the table decorations in the Grand Ballroom. The miniatures hang from branches of a double-barred cross "tree" which is topped by a gold crown and centered in a bank of multicolored azaleamums. Decorating the length of the Italian Garden, where cocktails will touch off the ball events, will be a series of panels telling the story of Cinderella. The murals in tones of gold, pumpkin orange and black were painted by Miss Gene Kyle.

Following dinner, there will be a fashion showing. Describing the mode and artistry of the lavish parade of styles will be Miss Mary Morgan, fashion and beauty editor of radio station CKLW. The giant display stage is topped by a huge gold openwork crown, adorned with simulated diamonds, pearls, rubies, emeralds and amethysts.

A double-barred cross tops the crown, through which the models will pass. The stage itself will be molded to resemble a cushion on which the crown rests, and will be trimmed with material in keeping with the regal tone.

Phyllis Blem, reigning beauty of the ball, will receive her Cinderella's coronet from Johnny King of WWJ-TV's "Cinderella Weekend" program. Mr. King will be master of ceremonies during the coronation of Cinderella and her court, which will be televised over WWJ-TV from 10 to 10:30 p.m. the night of the ball, October 3, from the ballrooms of the Sheraton-Cadillac.

In the Crystal Ballroom, where guests will dance well beyond the fateful midnight hour, pumpkins fashioned of wire will complete the Cinderella motif. Hung in the center of each of the four pumpkins, which are to be mounted in bas relief effect against the mirrors in the room, will be another of the glass slippers.

Music for the Cinderella Ball will be by Emil Coleman and his orchestra, who have played for previous balls. Ballroom dancers Tony and Sally DeMarco return for the third consecutive year to present their whirlwind dancing, and Miss Dorothy Sarnoff will be the featured vocalist at this year's ball. Miss Sarnoff, a renowned star of the concert stage for many years, replaced the late Gertrude Lawrence in "The King and I."

Proceeds from the $100-per-couple ball are used by the Women's Committee to help tuberculosis patients in Herman Kiefer Hospital and Maybury Sanatorium. In previous years, funds raised through the Cinderella Balls have made possible the purchase of a mobile X-Ray unit, patient training courses, the institution of several scholarships and equipment for the sanatoriums.

Working in conjunction with Mrs. Tompkins, ball chairman, are vice-chairmen of the ball Mrs. Ralph Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Harold C. Allen, Mrs. Jack Schafer, Mrs. M. R. Andreae, and Mrs. Carl A. Zimmer; and Committee chairmen Mrs. Neal Lang, tickets; Mrs. William J. Scripps and Mrs. Samuel Sofferin, entertainment; Mrs. Mark Beltaire and Mrs. Lester Gruber, publicity; Mrs. Harold C. Allen, decorations; Mrs. Sidney J. Allen, program; and Mrs. Arthur Bufton, Cinderella and her court. Mrs. Sam Keller is honorary chairman of the fourth annual Cinderella Ball.

St. Paul Class Plans Reunion

The class of 1945 of Saint Paul's High School, has decided to hold its first class reunion since graduation. The gala affair is scheduled for Saturday evening, October 3, at the new Veterans' Memorial Building.

The idea for a class reunion was conceived by the social chairman, Brian Sweeney, and Bill Reed, an active member of that class.

His co-workers are Bill Du Beau, treasurer; Betty Hay and Mary Ann Busch, in charge of party arrangements; James Al-jor, Brian Sweeney and Dick Murphy are responsible for contacting all the alumni.

Along with replies from the majority of local alumni, out-of-towners from Battle Creek and Lansing, and as far away as Indiana, Ohio and Arizona have already made their reservations for an evening of greeting old school friends, with dancing and refreshments to add to the merriment of their first class reunion.

PTA Sponsors Parents' Course

The Parcels PTA will sponsor a course called "You and Your Teen-ager" beginning Tuesday morning, October 13, at 9:30 a. m. to 11 a. m. at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Belle Farley Murray will conduct this course, the duration of which will be six weeks. Mrs. Murray has been lecturer and consultant in Family Life for the University of Michigan Extension Service since 1941.

Prior to her connection with the University of Michigan, Mrs. Murray had taught in both junior and senior high schools, had given courses on The Family at Wayne University, was director of religious education at Christ Church, Cranbrook, for four years.

A graduate of Michigan State College, where she majored in Home Economics, Mrs. Murray has also done both undergraduate and graduate work in Child Development and Parent Education at the Merrill-Palmer School. Of even greater interest to most groups than her professional training and work is the fact that Mrs. Murray has the down-to-earth experience and practical point of view of a wife and mother.

Registration fee for the course is $5.00. Please call TU. 5-2000, Extension 25, for class reservations as the enrollment will be limited.

Set November Wedding Date

Not a minute too soon to start filling in your November social calendar. The seventh of the month has been chosen by Shirley June Davis for her marriage to Lieut. Miles Merwin, USMC.

Shirley, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Langdon D. Davis of Balfour road, and Miles, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jackson M. Merwin of Shoreham road, will speak their vows at an 8 o'clock ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The reception is to follow at Lochmoor Club.

The bridal attendants include Mrs. Donald Stoetzer of Mt. Clemens, matron of honor; the bridegroom-elect's sister, Mrs. Henry J. Brons Jr., and Elizabeth Hanna of Birmingham.

Dorothy Jane Brons will be flower girl at her uncle's wedding.

The groom's party comprises John Cavanagh, best man; Jack Goodson, Henry J. Brons, Jr., the bride-elect's brother, Gerald Davis; and Jack Chalcraft of Green Lake.

Shirley will be complimented at a luncheon and kitchen shower Oct. 9. It is being planned by Mrs. Joseph Daugherty of St. Clair Shores. Mrs. Richard P. McMahon has issued invitations for an Oct. 20 buffet supper and linen shower and on the twenty-seventh Mrs. Nelson Fisher, of Lochmoor boulevard, will give a luncheon and round-the-clock shower for the bride-elect.

The first week of November will find two cocktail parties fettering the bridal couple. One will be given by Mrs. David Buck and Mrs. James Reid and another, at Oakland Hills Country Club, will have as hosts Mr. and Mrs. J. E. DeVault.

Mr. and Mrs. Merwin will give the rehearsal dinner in their home on the evening of November 6.

Red Cross Asks For Volunteers

A new plan for recruiting volunteers for its major community services has been announced by Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Starting at once, recruitment will be in charge of a central committee headed by Mrs. Ned Andrus, vice-chairman of volunteer service groups. Heretofore recruiting has been done by the chapter services independently.

First test of the new method will come during this week, which has been set aside for the committee's first fall recruitment drive. Every day from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., women who wish to do volunteer work for Red Cross will have an opportunity to register in room 274, Red Cross bldg, 153 E. Elizabeth. They will then be referred to the service in which they are interested for consultation, training, and finally assignment.

"Our chief need at present is for women to serve as Gray

Ladies, nurse's aides, motor service drivers and staff aides," said Mrs. Andrus. "They will work in hospitals, at the downtown blood center, and with mobile units in Detroit and Wayne County.

"We think the new plan will tend to simplify recruitment and save time for women who want to offer their services to Red Cross. Many other chapters in the country are using this method with good results."

Other members of the committee are Mrs. Richard Hall, Mrs. William McGraw, Mrs. Frederick C. Weyher, Mrs. John F. Hering and Mrs. Malcolm McKinnon.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerborn

All sorts of gay things happened to best laid plans last Saturday . . . when the John Crawford Frosts Jr. were celebrating a silver anniversary . . .

First . . . Mrs. Frost discovered the party hors d'oeuvres being made in her kitchen . . . in deepest secret . . .

So when her bridesmaids arrived late in the afternoon to call surprise and happy anniversary . . .

They were greeted by a large photograph on the front door of the Frosts' Merriweather road home . . .

It showed the bride and bridegroom and a-1-1 the wedding party twenty-five short years ago . . .

The ladies were speechless . . . and even forgot to ring the doorbell, so lost did they become in trying to discover themselves in the photograph . . .

The "bridesmaids" included . . . Mrs. Edward P. Hammond Jr . . . Mrs. Alvan Macaulay Jr . . . Miss Frances Booth . . . Mrs. Gilbert Currie . . . and Mrs. Yates G. Smith . . .

Building Parties

Saturday was a day to write sonnets to . . . white sheeted sailboats riding the blue St. Clair . . . some of the Pointe's majestic trees just beginning to turn to Autumn's ruddy dress . . . there was an invitational horse show at Grosse Pointe Hunt Club . . . and home builders chose the day to inspect and dream about the new homes they'd soon move into . . .

Probably the young Bayard Wilsons dropped by on Country Club drive . . . where soon they'll start building a "Wilson modern" that the master has himself drawn the plans for . . .

All the wiring and those other professional touches . . . will be done by experts . . . but it really does sound as if the Wilsons are going to do overalls and persuade their friends to do the same . . .

A growing circle has been alerted to attend many dream house building bees . . . complete with paint brushes, hammer and nails . . .

Where Are the Horsemen

We usually think there's something much more dramatic about a horse show "under the lights" . . . but when we dropped by at the Hunt Club Saturday afternoon . . . the picture was beauty perfect . . .

The only thing that pulled us out of the scenery . . . and the feeling that we were in Virginia instead of Michigan . . . was the voice over the loud speaker . . .

The announcements made it startlingly evident . . . that the gals have taken over the horses in this part of the country . . . just a handful of the lads rode into the ring and over the jumps . . .

Dick Fruehauf won enough honors to make up for half a dozen gentlemen riders . . . but the ladies were in predominance . . . and smart they looked in their tailored habits and jaunty headgear . . .

Hugh Gaine Nutters Are Bermuda Bound

Former Maude Suzanne Schlaff and Bridegroom Spend Honeymoon in Bermuda; Marriage Solemnized Last Saturday in St. Clare of Montefalco Church

Bermuda is the pleasant distraction of the newly-married Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Gaine Nutter. They will spend several weeks on the island.

Their marriage took place last Thursday morning at a ceremony in St. Clare of Montefalco Church.

After the ceremony, guests attended a reception given at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson W. Schlaff of Kenwood road.

The former Maude Suzanne Schlaff, daughter of Mrs. Nicholas Schlaff of Devonshire road, and the late Mr. Schlaff, was a beautiful bride in robes of mauve silk faille.

Her waltz length gown was designed with princess lines and an off-shoulder neckline. A tiny cap of applied faille, with interesting curlicues of faille at each side of her head, held in place the shoulder length veil.

Suzanne carried mauve toned Fuji mums and ivy in her bridal bouquet.

In a gown of French lilac, Elaine Kramer was the bride's only attendant. Her flowers were mauve and lilac colored chrysanthemums.

Hugh, son of Mrs. Augustin G. Nutter of Moran road, and the late Mr. Nutter, was assisted by his brother, Russel, as best man.

Ushering were the bride's brother, Robert A. Schlaff and Thomas E. Morris.

A gown of cocoa-brown taffeta was worn by the bride's mother. Her hat was a tiny one of deep brown velvet and she pinned brown and green orchids at her shoulder.

Following their honeymoon in Bermuda, the young Nutters will return to the Pointe where they will make their home in St. Clair avenue.

The bride traveled in a tailleur of antique gold gabardine with matching felt hat and alligator accessories.

Two Enroll for Courses At Parsons Design School

Sylvia B. Houghton, daughter of Mrs. Hugh McMillan, of Woodland place, and Arthur Houghton of New York City, has begun a three-year course of interior design at the Parsons School of Design in New York City. Sylvia previously attended Bennett Junior College.

Also at Parsons School is Lowell George Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Jackson of Vernier road. He is taking a three-year course in advertising design.

Couple Return To East Lansing

The honeymoon is over and recently married Mr. and Mrs. William Davies Mitchell Jr. have arrived in their new home in East Lansing.

Before the Sept. 12 evening rites in St. James Lutheran Church, the bride was Lorraine Asmus daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Asmus of Touraine road. Her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Mitchell of Homewood, Ill.

While Bill completes his studies at Michigan State College, East Lansing is to be the couple's home.

Lorraine was married in a gown of white antique taffeta with overdress of Chantilly lace embroidered in gold thread. A double tier of the lovely lace extended into a train and she wore a soft bridal veil of lace which was attached to small Juliet cap.

Her flowers were gardenias and stephanotis.

The bridal attendants were in rust toned taffeta, with floor length touching skirts and briefest of jackets. They had matching hats and carried mums in hues of yellow and rust. Elaine Cabot was honor maid and bridesmaids were Bill's sister, Donna Mitchell; Lillian Horn and Barbara Sutton.

Don Perry came from Chicago to be best man and guests were seated by David Snyder, Marvin L. Asmus Jr., brother of the bride; and Charles Geraman.

Mr. and Mrs. Asmus entertained the wedding guests at a reception in the Detroit Yacht Club following the 7:30 o'clock church wedding.

The bridal couple traveled to Quebec and through New England on their wedding trip.

Society Makes A Date For A Rummage Sale

Christ Church, Grosse Pointe Women's Auxiliary Completing Work for Rummage Sale at Church Oct. 22; Will Raise Funds for Philanthropies

The rummage sale at Christ Church, Grosse Pointe is taking place Oct. 22 and the activity that has simmered all Summer long, in sorting and marking everything received, is now reaching boiling point.

Daily now, members of the Women's Auxiliary are putting in long hours and hard work to insure another "bang-up" success in raising funds for their church's various philanthropic works.

For many years, Christ Church and Grosse Pointe Memorial Church have cooperated splendidly in taking alternate years of Church Fairs and Rummage Sales. This is Christ Church's year for the rummage sale.

Mrs. Allen M. Lomax and Mrs. Robert Slaymaker are co-chairmen, who have all the complicated retails in hand, their various chairmen activated.

For instance Mrs. John H. French Jr., is ready with cash boxes . . . Mrs. Julius F. E. Huebner has long lists of supplies needed for transactions . . . Mrs. Simpson Leonard is contacting sturdy hearts and feet for her sales people.

It'll Be A Ball For the Debs

Mothers of the Winter debutantes have already done their shopping for Christmas dates and the social calendar, at this point, hails Terry Phelan as the Pointe's first bud.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James J. Phelan of Moross road, she will make her debut Dec. 22 at a dance in the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. She is the third Phelan daughter to be presented to society.

Former Pointers Mr. and Mrs. William R. Clark, who now live in Metamora, have a Dec. 21 date for the debut dance of their daughter Carolyn.

That popular date, the evening after Christmas, will mark the coming-out party of Charlotte Holland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Holland of Cambridge road. The Hollands will give a dinner at the Country Club for their daughter. Later in the evening titian haired Sandra Fitzpatrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Fitzpatrick of Cloverly road will be feted by her parents at a ball in the Country Club.

On Dec. 29 Betty Lewis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Ingersoll Lewis Jr. will be the deb when her parents give a dinner in her honor at the Country Club.

Still other Christmas season debs are to be Jessie Zimmerman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Zimmerman of Kenwood road; Eleanor Carol Barie, daughter of Mrs. Robert F. Barie of Radnor circle; Joyce Mitchell daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Mitchell of Hendrie lane; Elaine Schenck, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Schenck of Lakeland avenue; Julie Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Chapman of Provencal road and Kathleen Seymour, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Seymour of Edgemont Park.

Dominican High Mothers To Hear Reverend Burcki

The Dominican High Mother's Club will hold its first fall meeting in the school on Wednesday evening, October 7. A special welcome is extended to freshmen mothers and mothers of new students.

Rev. Leonard S. Burcki will give a talk of his trip abroad this summer.

Mrs. John Nagy will preside at the meeting. Refreshments will be served honoring new members after the business meeting.

The former LORRAINE MAE ASMUS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Asmus, Sr., of Touraine road, was married at the St. James Lutheran Church Saturday, Sept. 9, to the son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Mitchell of Homewood, Illinois.

Plan to Attend DAC Floor Show

Many Pointe members of the Detroit Athletic Club are planning to attend the October dinner-floor show which will signal the official opening of the DAC's fall social season.

The show week, to start on Oct. 15 and continue through the 21st, will star Dorothy Sarnoff, brilliant young singing actress, and also will present Stan Fisher, virtuoso of the harmonica.

Among the Pointers with table reservations for the opening evening are the William G. Sieberts, the Henry A. Bokrams, the George A. Gardellas, Mrs. Thomas P. Archer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Richard Holtz, the Robert Balos and Peter C. Bayer.

A few of those with reservations for other show week evenings are the Victor Kochs, the E. W. Cummings, the Jack Schafers, Howard J. Elys, Mr. and Mrs. Howard D. House, the Hans Ernes, the John Condons, the Adolph Jacobsons, the E. J. Reesers, the Sidney S. Halls and the Charles J. Koehns.

Pointers who join regularly at the DAC's Sunday afternoon family swims during the fall and winter are anticipating the Oct. 4 pool get-together which starts off the 1953-54 weekly schedule.

Voted great fun by aquatic-minded fathers, mothers, sons and daughters, these Sunday swims from 2 to 5 o'clock at the DAC also are a means of informal visiting between the various families who are close friends.

After the pool hours, everyone lines up for the early buffet supper in the adjoining lounge and then groups take places at tables arranged around the pool.

Planning to be at the Oct. 4 opener are the Bill O. Brinks, with Barry and Dianne, and the Calvin Gauss, Jr. family.

Incidentally, it will be the beginning of the third family swim season for nine-year-old Calvin Gauss III and seven-year-old Carole Ann, who will be with their parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Langs will be there with daughters Anne, Susan and Lesley, and sons Jim and Tom—three-year-old Tom is one of the youngest to go into the pool, along with his inflated rubber tube as an aid.

The David Scott Burnetts, with Betsy, David and Bruce, will swim Oct. 4. Older son Allan, who came with the family on Sunday afternoons last year, now is a freshman at John Carroll University at Cleveland.

The Thomas J. Moran, Jr. family, including Tom III, Michael, Cathy, Patty and five-year-old Joe, and the Frederick K. Cody, the Henry Forster, Jr., the A. H. Moorman, Jr. and the Thomas C. Fox families are among the other regulars at the DAC Sunday afternoon swims.

St. Matthew Women's Club Holding Dance October 2

St. Matthew Women's Club is holding its first square dance of the season on Friday, October 2, from 9-12, at the parish hall, Harper at Buckingham. Donation is $1.50 per couple. There will be a short instruction period for beginners before the dance.

Bauman's Musical Notes will furnish the music and Lee and Mildred Brennan, the calling. For further information call Mrs. Don Alter at TU. 4-1980.

'A Ring Around Elizabeth' To Be Given by AWVS

Many Pointers will be working on "A Ring Around Elizabeth" the play by Charles Armstrong which will be presented Oct. 30-31 in Players' Playhouse by members of the American Women's Voluntary Services. Dallas' Chapin will direct the play and Pointers already in the cast—try-outs are no win progress—include Mrs. Wilson Wardell and Mrs. Jack Whiting.

C. Marse Verbiest Give Dinner on Anniversary

At a family dinner party Sunday evening in their Balfour road home, Mr. and Mrs. C. Marse Verbiest, celebrated their twenty-sixth wedding anniversary.

Mothers' Club Sponsoring Tea

The Mothers' Club of Grosse Pointe High School is opening its season of activities with a tea on Tuesday, October 6, at 3:15, with Mrs. Everett E. Roll, new president, officiating, in the High School cafeteria.

The affair will honor the mothers of 10B and mothers of students who have moved into the community since June. Mothers will have the opportunity to meet their sons' and daughters' teachers, counsellors Mr. W. R. Clemenson, Principal and Mr. Charles Saltzer. About 450 10Bs and new students are enrolled this year, and plans are being made for a large contingent of mothers.

Mrs. James Garza, social chairman, and her committee have planned a delightful decorative theme, using wine clothes, purple grapes and potted impatiens plants.

Assisting with the tea arrangements are Mrs. Howard Girardin, Mrs. Edward Hulbert, Mrs. Charles Eades, Mrs. William Kaake and Mrs. J. Trupiano.

Mrs. S. DeBoer will have charge of the Y-Teen girls who will assist the Social Committee. Mothers of students of the 10A class are donating the cookies.

Hospital Guild To Hold Benefit

Members of the Marine Guild of the United States Public Health Service Hospital are looking forward to a very busy and satisfying year of service now that the Congress has definitely appropriated funds for its operation for another year.

With the new set-up, 65 per cent of its patient-load will be veterans, and with all but one ward of the hospital devoted to the treatment of tuberculosis, the work of the guild members is many-fold.

In addition to the maintaining of radio and television sets throughout the hospital, arranging for a religious service every Sunday of the year, distributing books and periodicals from the library and supplying a weekly motion picture, there are all the personal services attendant to keeping patients happy when they are away from relatives and friends.

It is with these services in mind that the Guild members are planning their benefit dessert bridge to be held on Wednesday, October 7, at 12:30 p.m. at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Fashion Tea Benefits Junior League Center

Fashion Tea at Statler Hotel Oct. 5-6 To Raise Funds For Proposed Recreation Room for the Aging; Long List of Patrons Support Event

News that should dispel forever the old fashioned conception that the Junior League is a social butterfly organization came to the office this week.

In the interests of their newest project—a recreation room for the aging—they have taken to the scrub pail in the first steps of "doing-over" the quarters on Kercheval which will soon be the source of great joy to many Detroiters.

Not figuratively but with rolled-up sleeves, and arms in the buds up to the elbow, they have started on the job. And it's to help equip and furnish the center that they are giving a fashion tea at Hotel Statler the afternoons of Oct. 5 and Oct. 6.

For the past few months, the Leaguers have been attending lectures by social service workers, as they planned for the new project. They will be among the first organizations working actively on one of today's growing problems . . . how the aging may occupy its time . . . and their approach is serious and scientific and sensible.

A paid social worker will be in charge of the room with Junior Leaguers volunteering time to do whatever they can. "Home bound" Leaguers, with children or jobs that prevent their giving daytime hours, will bake cookies for the snacks visitors to the center will be given.

An impressive list of patrons for the fund raising fashion tea is giving an encouraging start to the League. Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl Jr. is chairman of patronesses and her committee includes Mrs. J. Jenness Newcomb, Mrs. Edward T. Ives Jr., Mrs. Edward S. Evans Jr., Mrs. Edgar Lee Fink, Mrs. Theodore Buttrick, Mrs. A. Ingersoll Lewis Jr., Mrs. John C. Chapin, Mrs. Frank Donovan and Mrs. James Brock.

Before we list the patrons, you may want to order your tickets for the fashion tea and just in case a League ticket seller has missed you, the number to call is TUxedo 1-1670.

Now, the patrons include Mrs. Russell A. Alger, Mrs. William T. Barbour, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. James M. Barnes, Mrs. A. E. Barit, Mrs. Leo Bartemeier, Mrs. Henry E. Beyster, Mrs. C.

The Milk Fund Association of Providence Hospital will hold a meeting at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Tuesday, October 6, at 12 o'clock, noon. Miss Jane Doughty will be hostess for the meeting.

Cricket Expert To Give Talk

Grosse Pointe members of the Society of Engineers' Wives have marked their calendar for the first meeting and luncheon of its 1953-54 season. It will be held on Wednesday, October 14 in the Rackham Building.

Guest speaker, following the 12:30 luncheon, will be Mrs. Leah H. Stoker of Chicago. She will lecture on "Cricket Cages and Cricket Lore."

Mrs. Stoker acquired her interest in crickets from her governess who had lived in China.

"Musical crickets have been the object of veneration and affection and the wealthy people in the Orient often paid large sums of money for the best crickets, and for hand-carved cages in which to carry these treasures either from the neck or suspended from the belt.

Engineers' wives from Grosse Pointe attending the program will be Mrs. S. V. Taylor, Mrs. John W. Barnett, Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, Mrs. Ben W. Beyer Jr., Mrs. T. A. Boyd, Mrs. Walker L. Sale Sponsored By St. Michael's St. Michael's rummage sale will be held tomorrow, October 2, at 20219 Mack avenue. Mrs. Paul Rowe is the committee chairman.

Last minute phone calls continue to pour in, while Mrs. Gerald Dewhurst, Mrs. Leonard Roche, Mrs. Robert Bell and others keep busy with "pick-up" calls.

At the scene of the sale, final sorting and marking is being handled by Mrs. Garnet Smith, Mrs. Albert Eyre, Mrs. Joseph Rhein, Mrs. Robert Chandler and Mrs. Elmer Knoch. With the aid of extra vitamin pills in the morning, they will be on hand all day Friday for the sale itself. They all agree, that in spite of the long hours and hard work, one just hasn't lived until she's worked on a rummage sale.

Two Grandchildren Born To E. O. Jodar Family

Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jodar, of Berkshire road, have received word of the arrival of two new grandchildren.

The first was a grandson, Steven Donald, born on September 8, in Sterling, Colorado. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Winslow. Steven's mother is the former Eunice Jodar. Donald's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Winslow of Balfour road.

Laura Jeanne, the second grandchild, was born in San Juan, Puerto Rico, on September 24. Her parents are Dr. and Mrs. Loyal Jodar. Mrs. Jodar is the former Jeanne Simmons, whose parents, formerly of Broadstone road, now live in St. Clair Shores.

Dr. and Mrs. Walter B. Promack

The former ELIZABETH JUNE ALLARD, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter C. Allard of Hillcrest road, and her new husband leaving the altar of St. Paul's church after their marriage Saturday, September 12.

The bridegroom's parents are the Stanley Promacks of Florida lane.

The bride wore a chantilly lace and white satin gown and carried a bouquet of stapanotis and ivy centered with an orchid. Maid of honor Mary Ann Burlingame and bridesmaid Carol Staub wore iced aqua ballerina dresses and carried white chrysanthemum bouquets. Lynn and David Allard, the bride's niece and nephew, were flower girl and ring bearer.

The best man was Col. D. W. Allard, the brother of the bride. Ushers were Dr. J. J. Fredal and Dr. S. Helfrick.

Mrs. Allard wore a rose satin Shantung dress with white accessories and a white orchid corsage. The mother of the bridegroom chose a cocoa brown dress with green cymenban orchids.

The ceremony was followed with breakfast at the Hawthorne House and a reception at the Alger Post clubhouse on St. Paul. The couple then left on a trip through Northern Michigan.

Eastern Deanery Plans Program

A Parent Child Education program sponsored by the Eastern Deanery National Council of Catholic Women will be held at St. Charles community hall St. Paul corner of Townsend ave.

Starting Tuesday, October 6, for 10 consecutive weeks from 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. The registration fee is $2.50 for books and material per couple.

This general child psychology course is keyed to today's living. It offers help in understanding and dealing with all the common problems of children, and also aids in teaching all virtues to the youngsters with practical examples.

Sister Mary I.H.M. Ph. D. of Marygrove College, nationally known child psychologist will give eight of the lectures with one by a priest and another by a well known doctor.

It is hoped that many parents attend. It is not necessary for both parents to attend but wise to do so. These classes are not just for the Catholic. All are most welcome.

For further information please call Mrs. John Louis LO. 8-3140.

Governor Fails to Approve Change in Woods Charter

A proposed amendment to the Woods city charter which would set a limit to the number of liquor licenses issued in the city, was returned on Friday, September 18, without the approval of Gov. Williams, who acted on the advice of Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard.

According to a legal ruling submitted to the governor by the attorney general, the amendment, if granted, would supersede a law giving the Liquor Control Commission power to pass on liquor applications.

The governor pointed out that all that is needed to limit the number of licenses is for the city council to submit its wishes to the Commission, which has a policy of not approving any licenses not approved by a local government.

Under the proposed amendment, Class A, B and C licenses would be limited to three, SDDs to five and SDMs to 12.

All charter amendments must meet with the approval of the governor, who acts on the advice of the attorney general, explained Woods Mayor Paul Rowe, because the local government is subservient to the state.

The city has no control over the number of liquor licenses, but the LCC usually respects a city's wishes in this matter.

No one can do more than their best, but a great many can do more than what they think is their best.

All Ready for Big Fall Flower Show

The Grosse Pointe Garden Center is sponsoring the elaborate exhibit which will be held at the War Memorial Center on Friday and Saturday, October 2 and 3. Left to right are: MRS. ROBERT C. Election Filing Deadline Nears

The deadline for the filing of candidates' nominating petitions for the City's general city election to be held on Tuesday, November 3, has been set for 12 p. m., on Saturday, October 10, according to Norbert Neff, city clerk.

Nominating petitions for candidates must contain at least 20 and not more than 40 signatures of registered and qualified voters. A filing fee of $5 should accompany each nominating petition.

The office of mayor, city clerk, city treasurer, tax assessor, and one constable will be decided upon at the election and will be for a two year term. Three openings for councilmen will also be filled, and will be four-year terms.

The councilmen whose terms expire are, Chester Carpenter, S. H. Morgan, and A. C. Allen.

Those whose terms hold good for another two years are: Fred Parker, Jr., Kenneth Bergmann and John Kenower.

Special Music Course Offered

A six weeks course in Music Appreciation entitled "Introduction to Literature of Music" will be offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools and the University of Michigan Extension Department starting Wednesday evening, October 14 at 7:30 at the Grosse Pointe High School.

Professor Glen D. McGeoch of the University of Michigan School of Music will be in charge. Professor McGeoch is widely known for his courses on the understanding and appreciation of music designed to assist the layman to a keener enjoyment of music.

He has received both his A.B. and M.A. degrees from the University of Michigan and in addition he has studied at Peabody Institute in Baltimore, University of Munich, and the University of Cambridge.

The course will bring to the class members a practical method and will familiarize them with the significant forms and styles of music composition heard currently in the concert hall and on the radio. Its approach is non-technical: no previous knowledge of music is necessary.

Library to Hold Sunday Affairs

The Friends of the Library inaugurate a series of monthly informal affairs planned for the enjoyment and information of everyone interested in the library and the books, records and films in its lending collection, at three o'clock Sunday afternoon, October 11, at the Main Library.

At this first Sunday afternoon meeting, Robert M. Orr, director of the library, will talk on current books, reporting briefly on the best and most popular in recent fiction and non-fiction. New members of the Library staff—main office and branches—will be introduced also.

After the informal program, tea will be served by the Friends.

It is planned to hold these Sunday afternoon affairs once a month through April, according to Jay Sorge, program chairman of the Friends. Subject for the November 8 gathering will be current records available in the library; the December 6 meeting will offer guidance on children's books in time for Christmas buying.

The Friends invite everyone interested in books and the Library to come to the new Library building next Sunday afternoon at 3 to hear Mr. Orr.

Dog Training Class Forming

The Owner-Dog Obedience Training classes, sponsored by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, will start Tuesday evening, October 6, at 8 o'clock. The classes will meet at the Grosse Pointe High School.

The opening meeting of the fall program will be devoted to a lecture on the principles of dog training. This will be the only meeting when the student does not bring his dog. The owner will be given the scope of the course and shown what he can do to take advantage of the natural desire of his dog to please him. E. W. Averill, Training Director, will be in charge of this meeting.

These Owner-Dog classes have created a lot of interest during the past five years. More than 550 students have participated in these 10-week training sessions.

Any breed of dog can be trained. It is just a matter of teaching the owner what to do and how to do it. The only requirement is that the owner work with his dog a few minutes every day. Every dog is a better companion after this type of training.

Instruction will be under the direction of Edward Watkins, Marion K. Kellogg, and Mrs. Donald Carson, Elwood Riemer, and Lee Crooks, members of the Southern Michigan Obedience Training Club.

Owners may enroll for training if their dogs are six months or older, regardless of pedigree or ancestry.

Classes are limited as to size. It is advisable to register as soon as possible.

For class reservations and information call TU. 5-2000, Extension 25.

Ohio Visitors Lose Wardrobe

Unless the thief or thieves return the clothing they stole on Friday, September 25, from Mr. and Mrs. George Mansour of 246 Spring street, Youngstown, O., here to attend a local wedding, the couple may have to return home with just the clothes on their backs.

George and his wife, Connie, were visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James S. David of 1101 Lakepointe, the last stop on their two-week vacation. The visit was included to attend the wedding of the Davids' daughter, Mary Louise, on Sunday morning, September 27, at which George was to be an usher.

Going to his car Friday morning, George discovered that their entire wardrobes had been taken. The value of the loss, which also included a camera, was more than $500.

All the clothing the couple had left were what they were wearing and their night clothes.

Are you really sure that the car dealer who gives you "the best deal in town" really gives you the best BUY in town?

As you well know, the best BUYS are based on value.

Because value lasts longer than any other quality—and, in automobiles, that means longer motoring pleasure, greater safety, lower upkeep, and a better trade-in allowance later on.

"The Buy of the Year!"

The new Packard CLIPPER has made news all year long as "the buy of the year." Way back last winter, the "insiders"—men of recognized automotive experience and instinct—tagged the CLIPPER as the car of the year in the medium-price field. A real, old-time PACKARD value.

You know very well that you never bought an automobile right off the printed page. You bought it ONLY after a demonstration when features either come to life or amount to nothing.

So we urge you: before you take that "best deal in town" . . . take a demonstration in the new Packard CLIPPER and value-check the features with which we challenge all other cars!

Ancient Word; Modern Meaning

The ancient art of phlebotomy will be practiced here today. A large and cooperative audience is fervently hoped for by all those having anything to do with the demonstration.

Paradoxical interpretations can be applied to this word phlebotomy, which is a medical term meaning the act or practice of opening a vein for letting blood. We presume in days not too far past, some of the most expert phlebotomists were the rugged characters who settled their personal differences by the deft manipulation of a stiletto, dagger, rapier, cutlass, epee, machete, or just plain knife. Shooting irons also made pretty proficient phlebotomists out of many hard-bitten individualists who were too queasy to cut a throat or slit a gizzard.

Then there were the leeches. Were they or their employers the phlebotomists of their era? Staked out on a promising claim, the lowly leech could be counted upon to go to work immediately. His proficiency at extracting blood was credited with curing everything from a black eye to the black plague.

The advances of modern medicine have brought about a whole new meaning for this word phlebotomy. It has been learned that whole blood, painlessly taken through a tiny needle from the arm of a human being, can be stored under refrigeration to be used for injection into another human, whose life it may save. The categories of patients who may desperately need such transfusions are myriad.

It has become too common a belief that blood donations are needed almost solely for the battle wounded, to replace that which they have lost. With the cessation of action in Korea there is evidence that many think blood is no longer needed.

The truth is that while great supplies of blood were being shipped to Korea there were shortages both there and here at home. It was often necessary to call upon the soldiers themselves to give blood that was vitally needed if their own wounded comrades were to have a chance to survive.

Supplies here at home have been far from adequate to withstand the demands of a large-scale epidemic or a disaster. Seriously ill civilians, like badly wounded soldiers, often require many pints of blood if they are to recover. The one pint we are asked to give does not mean that we are saving a life each time we donate . . . but it certainly helps.

The phlebotomists who are here today are the trained crews of the Red Cross Mobile Unit. They are asking us to give them a collection that will help bolster dangerously diminished supplies on hand, and to allow continuance of the gamma globulin program that has proved so effective in combating the dread threat of infantile paralysis.

The mobile unit has been here before, many times. Our record used to be a proud one, but the last two visits have produced most disheartening results. Today we are given the opportunity to re-establish the reputation of this community as one whose residents are willing and eager to carry their share in this tremendously important undertaking.

The mobile unit will be at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church from 2 to 8 p.m. today, Thursday, October 1. May it be swamped with volunteer donors.

In the Right Direction

The financial statement submitted at the annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association in the Center Monday night indicated that much progress has been made towards getting this community-wide organization on the basis which it so richly deserves.

The fact that the Memorial Center has not received the universal support of the residents which might be expected, has been one of the great local enigmas for a number of years. A magnificent lake shore property was donated for the use of all the people to serve as a living memorial to the military dead and veterans of World War II. There was every reason to believe that the citizens would be quick to realize the great opportunity presented, and would be enthusiastically cooperative in pushing its development to the fullest possible extent.

Just the opposite proved true. A minutely small percentage of Pointe families participated in the annual drives for financial support of the Center. The doors of this beautiful building were kept open largely through the generous donations of a very few wealthy families.

A considerable upswing in interest was noted in last year's drive, when 2,044 individual contributions were received, totalling $27,838. In view of the census figures, which show more than 12,000 families in the Pointe, it was still far from a good showing, but it was a definite improvement. A total of 821 new contributors were brought into the fold during this campaign in the spring.

Expenses of operating and maintaining the Center last year were $80,820. Total income was $83,948, so the report shows an excess of $3,128 of income over expenses.

The difference between the $28,000 contributed in the family participation drive and the $80,820 spent, came from the special maintenance fund which is provided by this group of wealthy families, who each give $500 per year ($9,980); from activities income, which totalled $44,587, including a profit of more than $1,000 from a sports car show held in June; from income on investments, $8,729; a $100 profit on sale of securities, and $138 miscellaneous.

The association has $181,110 invested in stocks and bonds in its endowment fund. This represents the balance left after restoring and furnishing the building, from the money raised in the first memorial drive when a library was proposed. Not enough money was raised to build a library, and the gift of the former Alger House saved the day for the memorial plan. Most of those who had donated towards the proposed

"What would you have me do?
Seek for the patronage of some great man,
And like a creeping vine on a tall tree
Crawl upward where I cannot stand alone?
No, thank you."
(Edmond Rostand)

Memory plays strange havoc with us humans . . . as we all know; such things as forgetting the name of your best friend when you are suddenly called upon to introduce him, or not being able to recall your own phone number, or wondering where in aich is the magazine you laid down a half hour ago when the doorbell rang. All this came up in a discussion recently about books. Only one of five of us in the group could remember the names of the authors whose books we enjoyed RECENTLY.

As for us . . . while we could recall one or two of the authors' names . . . we were a wizz at quoting word-for-word a passage or two from a novel we read when we were 15 years old! Even at that tender age (?) we were no doubt impressed with a novel called "A Pair Of Blue Eyes." The passage we recall was a dilly. The heroine is playing the piano while her beau stands watching her. Finally he sez: "Miss Kitty, may I be so bold as to say your hands are charming?" (The story continues): "Kitty cast her eyes downward and murmured: "Why m-i-s-s-l-e-r Smith!"

We compared several of these memory passages with some from "Forever Amber" and decided that times have changed considerably! Another line we remember from a novel read about twenty years ago, was: "Her eyes were big with sleep." We had always meant to write the author about this one. We haven't seen very many people just awakening from sleep . . . but we do know that OUR eyes can't be seen at all until after our second cup of coffee . . . and even then they are only slits until the lights go on all over the world. This author business . . . tsk.tsk.tsk.

An acquaintance of ours who employs an all-purpose maid who "lives in," came downstairs for her breakfast the other morning and found the maid sitting in an easy chair in the library looking at a soap opera on television. Hoping her sarcasm would hit the spot, Madame said: "I suppose breakfast is ready and on the table?" The maid never looked up . . . she merely said, "Just a minute and this will be over."

Speaking of maids . . . a chatty one on the bus last week gave forth with all kinds of information about the various and sundry people she has worked for in the Pointe. She struck up a conversation (one-sided), with a teen-aged girl sitting next to her and regaled the youngster with the foibles of the rich.

She mentioned big shot names left and right and was having the gossip time of her life. Finally during a small lull the young girl asked: "Do you happen to know a Mrs. Thingamebob?" Without even asking WHY, the little maid said: "Oh goodness YES. She comes to the house for dinner where I work now. She used to be attractive but she's gotten so sloppy looking lately."

The Mrs. Thingamebob in question happened to be the teen-ager's mother!

One of our readers who attended a Republican meeting recently related the following to us. A "worker" got up to read her report on what the Michigan legislature was accomplishing . . . and after plowing through a long list of things being done, she ended with the good work they were doing in establishing hospital beds for the sick. She then went on to say that they were also working on care for mental cases and ended her speech with: "So it won't be long now before there will be mental beds for everybody."

She didn't explain whether or not this included mental beds for the Republican workers . . . but according to our report, the audience laughed heartily enough, which would indicate they won't need any mental beds in any case!

There ought to be a mechanism for locking a telephone so the receiver can't be lifted unless you want the phone answered. We arrived at this conclusion when a young unmarried woman told us the other day that if her kid sister doesn't stop answering the phone . . . she (the young woman) will no doubt stay in her single state. It seems the youngster has no inhibitions about what she tells big sister's beau when they telephone.

About six months ago, ferinstance, she overheard the little tyke telling her date for that night: "Sis can't come to the phone now; she has a mud pack on her face and it's stull . . . she thought she had taught her a lesson.

HOWEVER . . . one day last week, our heroine was in the act of removing a few excess hairs from the neighborhood of her upper lip when the phone rang and again the little menace answered it. This time she at least asked big sister if she wanted to talk to "Joe." The latter told her to say she couldn't come to the phone just then but would call him back in fifteen minutes.

What she heard the child say was: "She'll call you back later. She's taking off her moustache."

Starr Commonwealth for Boys needs some athletic equipment and musical instruments. We can think of no nicer thing to do than send either or both to these boys who would make good use of them. How about hunting around for Junior's discarded baseball bat or football or tennis balls and racquets or skates? . . . ad infinitum. Also, you MUST have that violin or uke or guitar or saxophone or whatever it is that junior once thought he'd like to play. Starr Commonwealth would be grateful for any of these contributions. Just call the Grosse Pointe News and your offering will be picked up. We tank youse!

library were willing to have their donations turned over to the association for the Center project.

It is to be hoped that the day is not far distant when all the other residents who do not now support the Center will see the light and realize the possibilities for development if everyone participates. A community of this size and wealth should be able to raise the whole $80,000 needed for maintenance and operation annually. That would amount to less than $10 per family each year for this organization which has so much to offer.

Other income could then be used to build up the endowment fund and to provide for a constant program of adding to the physical facilities of the Center and providing additional activities.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

This is an audio visual age and your library, although its chief concern is books, puts films and records at your disposal also.

George Jones, film counsellor, tells us that 11 new films will be available for the month of October from the Central Library. This is the first of a series of monthly assortments which the library's accelerated film program will provide throughout the winter. Patrons are invited to make use of these both for home showing or for use on programs. You pay no money but you may take your choice.

Four widely varied travel films are included in the October consignment. BUSHLAND FANTASY shows in color, the flowers, birds and animals of Australia. FOUR SEASONS pictures the course of the year in Ontario's Gatineau Park, while INTRODUCTION TO HAITI offers a tourist view of the colorful Caribbean island.

These films which would provoke discussion at either organized meetings or informal viewing groups are HORACE MANN, a review of the life of the educator who has been called the father of the common schools; HINDU FAMILY which depicts the customs and way of life centered around a Brahmin wedding; and BROTHERHOOD OF MAN, a brief but effective approach to combating the scourge of racial prejudice.

Two notably fine musical films are included. INSTRUMENTS OF THE ORCHESTRA demonstrates the manner in which the various instruments contribute to the finished performance. The demonstrators are the members of the London Symphony conducted by Malcolm Sargent.

MYRA HESS shows one of the foremost living pianists performing a Beethoven sonata. This is of interest both as a demonstration of keyboard technique and for its musical content.

In more popular vein SING WITH THE COMMODORES features chorus singing of light songs.

One economical aspect of polar life, the provision of housing, is shown in HOW TO BUILD AN IGLOO, which demonstrates how Eskimos can provide themselves with a neat new home in less than two hours with no bill for raw materials.

To borrow these films you need only a library card. A film may be picked up after noon on the day of showing and returned before noon on the following day. Advance reservations for films may be made by telephoning the Central Library at TUxedo 4-2200.

Are you one of many parents who feel strongly that too few television programs provide adequate children's fare? If so, it is heartening to know that the sponsor of a well-known local commercial broadcast is making a conscientious effort to bring to children the best films available. In the meeting room of the Central Library this sponsor's representative met with the board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council, and the advisory board of the Television Committee. Also present were representatives

What is A "Square Meal"?

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Supposedly, a square meal is nutritious and satisfying. If we were all alike any well chosen menu would suffice. Unfortunately we are not, our age, weight, build and general health determine the kind of food we need and the quantity.

High protein diets have proved beneficial to many; foods especially rich in certain vitamins are necessary to others, while persons suffering from a chronic illness must avoid foods that irritate their condition.

Your doctor can best determine your diet.

Keep in mind a conscientious druggist for all medicine required.

BIG ADVANTAGE
 One has a great advantage in this life if his ancestors were of good stock—or own plenty of it.

Vera Onneweer Speaks Vows
 A double ring ceremony in St. Clare of Montefalco Church united in marriage Vera J. Onneweer and Richard E. Adams last Saturday, with the Rev. John R. Collins officiating.
 The bride's parents are Mr. and Mrs. S. Onneweer of Woerden, Netherlands. Vera is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. William Moons of Nottingham road. Richard's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence

G. Adams of Hollywood road.
 A bouffant floor length gown of sentimental blush pink tulle was chosen by the bride for her wedding. It was fashioned with a portrait neckline, panels of chantilly lace and had matching tulle gauntlets.
 A fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a lace Juliet cap edged with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white fuchsia mums, baby pom-poms, a white orchid and sweetheart pink roses, with English ivy.
 Mrs. Andrew Moons was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Jay Gladwin and Miss Nancy Adams. They wore identically styled gowns of shrimp, lilac, and mint green nylon tulle over taffeta. Their bouquets were of baby mums in a background of Croton leaves.
 Jack Bielman was best man. Guests were seated by John Steiner and Jerome Freed.
 Mrs. Moons chose a gown of slate blue lace for her niece's wedding. Completing her costume were black accessories and an orchid.
 Mrs. Adams' gown was of charcoal Chantilly lace over taffeta and she wore shell pink accessories and an orchid.
 A reception was held in the home of the bridegroom's parents in Hollywood road. The couple left for a wedding trip through Canada.

Party to Help Handicapped
 The Easter Seal Day Camp for orthopedically handicapped children will benefit from the dessert bridge party arranged by Mrs. Louis Marick, 339 Merriweather road, to be held at the Detroit Edison Building, 2000 St., at 1 p.m. October 2.
 The Alpha Delta Pi sorority alumnae who sponsor the benefit, will furnish the prizes.

Blue Devils Capture Second Non-League Gridiron Game

A heavy downpour prior to the opening kickoff of the Ferndale game on the Dales home field last Friday night, September 25, which made the turf heavy and the footing slippery, didn't hamper the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils as they chalked up their second victory over non-league Eastern Michigan teams in as many games.

Capitalizing on breaks and a sparkling 45 yard romp by Louie "Twiddle Dum" Hribar, which set up the first Pointe touchdown, the Blue Devils found themselves better equipped to handle the inclement conditions and beat Ferndale 13 to 7.

Strike on Ground
Hribar set up the first score in the first quarter when he smashed over his own line and rambled to the Dales' 10 before being hauled down. Quarterback Lineberger wisely chose to keep the attack on the ground because of the wet ball and four plays later Bill Dow smashed into the end zone for the score. Bob Brown missed the conversion and the Pointers were faced with protecting a narrow six point edge.

Line backer Tom Kingsbury and flashy Mike Rauff combined efforts to give the Devils their second score in the third quarter. Kingsbury smashed through the thin Ferndale line to block a Dale punt on the Ferndale 15 yard line. He blocked it with such force that the elusive pigskin bounced back into the end zone where Rauff fell on it for the touchdown. Brown was successful on the conversion and the Devils held a 13 to 0 lead going into the final quarter.

Blocked Punt Costly
Ferndale's score came with two and a half minutes remaining in the final quarter when they blocked a Blue Devil punt and recovered in the end zone. The conversion was good but the Devils still had a six point bulge with less than two minutes remaining.

For the most part the teams were fairly evenly matched, with the tide of battle moving up and down the field all during the contest. Inasmuch as both teams were fortunate enough to block kicks and recover for touchdowns the payoff breaks were even.

The Pointers barely missed adding three points to their score

St. Paul Ties St. Catherine

The St. Paul Flyers remained among the undefeated teams in the Big 12 Conference last Sunday night, September 27. They negotiated a tricky lateral-forward pass play which covered 18 yards for a touchdown, with three minutes remaining in the final quarter to tie a highly favored St. Catherine team 6 to 6.

Playing under the light of the Mack Inter-Parish Stadium, the Flyers trailed St. Catherine throughout the contest after Ed Rachel had flipped a 25 yard pass to George Gray in the end zone for the first score of the game.

Flyers Are Lucky
As luck would have it St. Catherine failed in the conversion for the extra point, thus leaving the door wide open for a St. Paul victory in the league opener for both teams.

The Flyers batted back strong in the second quarter and powered their way to within four yards of the tying touchdown. Then the 58 yard sustained drive stalled.

Van Tien Stars
Phil Van Tien, the spark plug for the Flyers, spearheaded the attack which just missed deadlocking the game in the second period. He did most of the ball totting.

With three minutes remaining in the fourth period St. Paul smashed 60 yards for the tie producing touchdown, with an 18 yard lateral-forward pass play climaxing the drive. Quarterback Ted Monahan flipped the lateral pass to end Bob Keller, who in turn hit end Jim Ayrault in the end zone for the equalizer.

Fans For Tie
Flyer sentle Willie as the Flyers tried for the game winning conversion but it failed and Coach Eddie Lauer's well coached outfit was forced to settle for a tie.

The Flyers will attempt to climb into the winners circle when they meet St. Martin on the Grosse Pointe High School gridiron Sunday, October 4.

Girl Athletes In Full Swing

The girls athletic activities at the Neighborhood Club are getting in full swing with plans being made for the Grosse Pointe Athletic Association basketball league. The season will commence within a month with St. Paul, Metropolitan Club, GPAC, Drewry Queens and the Merchants entering the senior division.

The only junior team entered is St. Paul; however Pauline Masak is hoping to hear from the Optimist Club and the Fisher Record team. There will be room for many more teams which include girls 15 years and under.

This evening, October 1, the gym will be open for any girl interested in participating in the athletic activities offered at the club this fall. Along with volleyball and basketball, badminton is being offered.

Wednesday, October 7, is the first round of the badminton league. The junior division will have the gym from 6:30 to 8, followed by the seniors from 8 until 10.

It is an oft-proven fact the over-worry kills more people than overwork because more go in for one than the other.

Farms Pistol Team Captures Trophy For 2nd Year

The Grosse Pointe Farms Police Pistol Team, once again Metropolitan League champions and retainers of the News trophy. Left to right: BABE PARSONS, who had an individual high score of 232, FRANK KERBRAT, JOE BELANGER, GEORGE VAN TIEM and TOM KILETS.

Babe Parsons Is Big Star As Farms Cops Win Shoot

Firing a blistering 1049 score in the second annual Metropolitan Club Pistol Tournament held last Wednesday, September 23, on the Farms pistol range, Grosse Pointe Farms police captured the Grosse Pointe News trophy for the second year in succession.

Paced by youthful Babe Parsons, the Farms cops topped the second place Woods team, which had a score of 995, and third place Shores team with a 950 total. All three teams had scores well above the Farms winning 733 score of last year.

The fourth place City and fifth place Park team totals were below last years top score.

Farms Chief Walter "Tex" Hoyt attributed the success of his team to the several shoot-offs held during the three weeks prior to the tourney. Each police department held similar shoot-offs to qualify the five best shots in their department. In the Farms, however, the first five qualifiers places on the team were in jeopardy until the day before the tourney. During the shoot-offs two of the first five were displaced by successful challengers.

The Farms has only to win the News trophy next year to retain permanent possession. Parsons, the individual winner,

Sailing Skippers Delighted Over Breaks for Blue Nose

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's fifteenth annual Blue Nose Race was a pleasant one... for a change, last Saturday, September 27. Fifty-five skippers and their crews came out for the event with their wooly undies on, ears taped to their heads and hatches battened down for the blow that usually is standard equipment with the Blue Nose event.

It wasn't too long before the wools were shed in favor of shorts, the ears assumed their normal position and the hatches unbuttoned as the two separate fleets headed for the first marks of their respective courses.

Even Breeze is Gentle
Both fleets took their starts in front of the host club with the big boats going to buoy 29 above the St. Clair light and the smaller one designs heading for the Huron Point light, flying spinakers in a very light, southeasterly breeze which diminished shortly after the starts and left the 55 craft bobbing on a mirror-like Lake St. Clair.

The wind settled in the east early in the afternoon, which gave the little boats a close reach to the Huron Point light and a close hauled tack to buoy 29 before it finally settled down in the south-southwest for the rest of the afternoon and gave the fleet a broad reach to the finish line in front of the club.

Big Boats Battle
The big boats finished with spinakers flying and set up one of the best big boat scraps seen around here in years between Paul Smiley's 64-foot "Orient" and Wendell Anderson's 72-foot yawl "Escapade."

"Orient" led the big boats around all marks, buoy 29 and Thames River Light, before she finally edged "Eskie" in a "dog eat dog" affair from the Thames to the finish by a matter of seconds. Both boats finished well down in the standing after corrections had been figured, but from the way both crews were congratulating each other after the race one would have actually thought they had finished first and second.

All Congratulations
Paul Smiley and wife Marge were all smiles and couldn't thank their crew enough for giving "Orient" a boat-for-boat victory over "Eskie." Then there was big Clark Swart, Tommy Lott and Eddie Wunsch to name a few of "Eskie's" crew, who came aboard "Orient" to offer heartfelt congratulations. Carter Sales took up his duties as charter leader for the "Orient" crew and Bill Noah, Bobby Bryant, Norm Archer and George Van chimed in to make a tremendous racket over the victory.

While all this cheering was going on Hank Burkart was beaming from ear to ear because his 32-foot double ender "Meteor" was adjudged the overall winner. Hank captured first place in Cruising C ahead of Karl Ness' Pilot sloop "Happi-Ness" and the Nagel-Nicol-Desmond "Balquhider," who finished in that order to take home the pretty little engraved "silent butler" prizes. By finishing second "Happi-Ness" won the season championship in Cruising C.

"Kandu" is Winner
Mac McGuire's Mackinae sloop "Kandu" romped in ahead of the Cruising B fleet to save her time and become the winner of her class ahead of Jack Booth's "Voyager" and Fritz Leydoff's Owens cutter "Joanne."

Even John Warnke was happy. His "Flying Dutchman" finished fourth in Cruising B and that's the best she has done since Howie Girardin and Jimmy Grant gave her a money spot in the 1952 Port Huron-Mackinae race.

Jimmy and Howie were aboard Chuck Burbach's Raven-like sloop "Marita" who won Cruising A honors on correcter time. John Ford III took second place with "Royono" and Nubby Sarns "Revelry" placed third on correcters.

Wins Season Crown
Toot Gmeiner finished fourth in Cruising A and that gave him the season championship of the class. Toot has won the season championship more times than any other skipper in the class. He took five straight shortly after he took over "Apache," a New York 32.

Barb Blocm Wins Again
Barb Blocm showed the way to Chuck Phelan and Wally Payluk in the Luder 16 class. Allie Chapman turned in a beautiful job in the light going on the first leg of the short course to work out a lead over the rest of the L class and beat Tommy Hanson and Freddie Jensen.

Jay Gonyeau pushed his 30-square meter "Mitimar" to the limit and beat the old sailing master Ray St. John.
"Wind Toy" topped a four boat Privateer fleet beating Bobby Roadstrum, Jimmy Trudell and Charlie Haug. Bob Neesly and his famous schooner "Marabar" won the schooner-ketch trophy by beating Andy Langhammer's "Rambler X."

Orchids to Officials
To race chairman Aaron Evans and all those hard working guys who helped him stage a wonderful race, yes we mean RACE because Commodore Dave Davenport said so, a big basket of orchids. They did a grand job. We saw Ken Leipprandt, Davenport, Art Summerlee holding the port on the end of the dock until the last boat finished. And we know there were lots more of our DRYA friends like Hal Smith, Bill Phillips, Jack Sutton and many more up in the judges room doing the tedious figuring so necessary in determining the winners in the Cruising classes.

And whoever was responsible for the wonderful FREE meal provided the sailors after the race in the "Fo'castle" did a beautiful job.

Everyone Happy
Yes sir, the 1953 Blue Nose Race was a pleasant one for a change and the boys didn't get separated from the men this year like they have in past years when the weather provides a sample of what's to come after the racing season is over.

Congratulations to m m o r o r Mitschal, flag officers, committee chairmen, members and last but not least the cook for giving us sailors a dandy race, a wonderful FREE meal and a pleasant day to end the local racing season for all except the die hard North Channel racers who will compete in the rugged "poor man's Mackinae" next Saturday, October 3... Brrrrrr...

Boat Banter

By Fred Rummels

That old Star Boat sailor, Floyd "Pat" Clancy, walked away with the 1953 River Cat boat championship for the third time in succession last Saturday, September 27, when he won all four races held off Crescent Sail Y.C. Pat sailed for Edison Boat Club and for years has been a kingpin among the local cat boaters. You might even call him the dean of the Edison cat boaters. He's been sailing since he was 13 and he is now 53.

Clancy beat Harold Waldo of the Detroit Boat Club, Bob Deason of St. Clair Yachtsmen and Nelson Page of the Detroit Y.C. The champion was in on the formation of the local Detroit River Star fleet which received its charter almost 30 years ago which makes it the second oldest fleet in the International Association.

Dick Hill of Crescent is experimenting with a new type boat. It's all fiber glass and the mold was taken off Doc Lynn Babcock's Universal B class sloop which resembles a Star boat with a shelter cabin. Dick is building the ship in his back yard out in Dearborn and is trying to get it in the water before the season ends to give it a trial run. Saw his wife down at Henry Smith's buying cleats and fittings last week—it's that far along. The hull has no seams and Dick says a wooden hull would weigh about 1400 pounds as compared to the 1000 pounds in the fiber glass hull.

If the new boat goes anything like Doc Babcock's boat does, we will have a new fast class around here racing next year for sure.

I see where Joe Carillo's U.S. Marine Salvage Co., is having trouble locating Guy Lombardo's 19-foot "Tempo Jr." which sank under Danny Foster off the DYC dock during the running of the 1953 Silver Cup Regatta.

So far logs, anchors, chain and even an old wagon wheel have been brought to the surface but no "Tempo Jr."

Carillo surmises the boat is either behind a big boulder, in deep hole or has drifted from the spot where it went down.

It may not be too far distant when we will have almost silent outboard motors. The National Noise Abatement Council announced the awarding of a "certificate of merit" to an outboard motor company for its research and engineering progress in the reduction of unnecessary noise.

The biggest offenders are those "hot rodders" who remove the muffler on their motors to get more speed out of them. Might be a good idea to give a medal to the company that welds the mufflers on to the motors so they can't be removed. Better still a gold orchid to the outfit that rigs up running lights on their motors so the owners CANNOT possibly violate the rules regarding running lights. The absence of lights after dark is even more annoying than the noise and more dangerous too. Can't you just imagine what it would be like if some company does eliminate the noise of the outboard motor. Then you couldn't even hear them, let alone see them at night.

The University of Michigan will hold its Invitational Intercollegiate Yacht Racing Association regatta next weekend, October 3 and 4, on Base Line Lake. The university recently purchased a piece of property and a dock on the lake.

Vic Heinrich sold his Privateer sloop "Bandi II" to Doctor Sadler of Crescent Sail Y.C. This brings the Crescent Privateer fleet to four. Vic's plans for the future are a little vague but he has indicated he would like a larger boat to accommodate his family. It truly is a sad loss to the Privateer fleet because Vic and his wife and son were good tough competitors in the class. However, the doctor says he's going to race the boat.

Charlie Beck, the man of many boats, just received his new 5.5 meter "Jill" from Norway and had it out in the Blue Nose Race. Beck also has a Raven sloop and an eight meter "Conwego" which has been in dry dock for the past two years. He just sold his Luder "Show Boat" which is a masterpiece of workmanship. Her new owner Dickie Wozniak is mighty proud of the boat, and he has been winning too.

The Raven class boys got out on the Detroit River last Sunday, September 27, and sailed the second race of the three race Iceberg Series. Commodore "Chum" Kerr was victorious, with Boyd Berkert second, followed by Charlie Beck, Al Thomas and Jack Williams. The final race will be sailed next Sunday, October 4.

DUS Grid Team Wins in Opener

By NICK STROH

Last Friday was an important day at the Detroit University School for it not only marked the start of another grid season, but it marked the 14th time that The Detroit Country Day School and D.U.S. had clashed in what is now the oldest rivalry of any two schools in the Southeastern Conference. This rivalry is unique because of the silver trophy which is awarded annually to the victor. The trophy, the formal name of which is The D.U.S. D.C.D.S. Football Trophy, was presented to D.U.S. 10 times and by Country Day 6 times.

Friday's proceedings started early in the morning when Pete Bogle, president of the D.U.S. Student Council, called a Pep Rally. The first speaker was Mr. Earl Kimber, Athletic Director at D.U.S. He spoke at some length on the trophy and its meaning to both schools.

William Yeager, coach of the Red and Blue and Richard Trimm, assistant coach also spoke. There then followed an assortment of cheers and songs with the beautiful D.U.S. Alma Mater chosen as the finale.

At game time, 3 o'clock, the weather was clear with gentle breezes, truly a great day for a great game. D.U.S. Co-Captains Dick Osgood and Dave Wark elected to receive the opening kick after having won the toss of the coin.

A certain over-eagerness was in evidence as both teams fumbled early in the first quarter, but as the contest proceeded both teams settled down and good football was seen. D.U.S. could gain through the line, but Country Day ran their best plays around the end. The first half ended in a scoreless tie.

D.U.S. came out strong in the third period and midway in the quarter capitalized on a Country Day fumble. With the ball on the twenty yard line Dick Erickson tossed a touch-down pass to Dick Manogian. Dick Osgood made it 7-0 for the Grosse Pointers by scoring the extra point. Country Day tied to game when Lippel scored, climaxing a 90 yard touchdown march. Hardy scored the extra point for Country Day.

Country Day then kicked to D.U.S. Dave Wark ran the ball back 55 yards, in what was the most brilliant play of the afternoon. A key block was thrown by Herbert Hill.

On the next play Dick Erickson pitched to and hit Dick Manogian in the end zone. This was Manogian's second six-point of the afternoon. The extra point was made by Dave Wark.

Starting for D.U.S. was Dave Wark on offense and Jerry Wilson on defense. The best combination was, of course, D.U.S.'s Erickson to Manogian. The final score was D.U.S. 14 and Country Day 7. Because of a D.U.S. victory last year they retained the coveted Football Trophy.

The game tended to indicate that the Red and Blue of D.U.S. could be successful in their quest for a third consecutive conference title, despite the fact that they fielded a much lighter squad than last year's aggregation.

MAISON SCHOOL

Miss Mary Ann Prince's fourth grade had an interesting experience in connection with the work in science. One evening about 6:30 the class, along with some of the parents, assembled on the playground to make some astronomical observations. Mrs. Walter Biddingsmeier, whose son is a member of the class, brought his telescope which he had made from a stove pipe. It was a fine clear night and each child had the thrill of viewing our nearest celestial neighbor, the moon, through a telescope.

Taking advantage of the lovely autumn weather, Miss Gretha Pulley's fourth grade class had a family supper picnic at the Grosse Pointe Woods Park on September 21. Boys and girls and parents attended, making a total of 77.

Assisting Miss Pulley on the committee were Mrs. Marema, chairman, Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Koller, Mrs. Peters, Mrs. Ormsted, and Mrs. Wilkerson.

News Notes From D. U. S.

The first semester is now well launched at the Detroit University School under the leadership of John Chandler, Jr., and his second under the assistant headmastership of Wellington Grimes. D.U.S. got off to a smooth start this fall with a larger enrollment and the promise of busy, pleasant months ahead.

The first football game ended in victory for D.U.S. over Detroit Country Day last Friday, 14-7.

The first big morning assembly, not counting the first pep rally, was devoted to a lecture last Monday by Robert C. Hermes, a representative of the National Audubon Society.

Regular classes are now in full swing. The elective classes offered in industrial arts by Mr. Samuel Beecher and in fine arts by Miss Joan Littlehale have had a goodly number of applicants.

An operetta called "The White Gypsy" is being planned for grades 7 and 8.

The library has many fine, new books.

Richard Girls Enjoy Campout

The weekend of September 26 was spent by 17 Richard School Girl Scouts and four mothers in a campout at Camp Holly. The sixth grade girls hiked on the trails about camp and enlarged upon their knowledge of nature lore. They put on campfire programs in the evening.

They were accompanied by four mothers who provided leadership in the Girl Scout program. Mrs. Schmidt, Mrs. Marcus, Mrs. Sanders and Mrs. Singleton.

The fortunate girls who went were—Virginia Bonchard, Susan Burke, Joyce Connelly, Norma Evans, Ann Fischer, Mary Funk, Susan Hykes, Peggy Jeffs, Ann Mair, Linda Marcus, Karen Sanders, Gloria Schmidt, Gretchen Schuur, Linda Schuur, Jill Toly, Prudy Webb and Marjory Horn.

For many years the Richard School P.T.A. has sponsored scout groups. The Brownie and Girl Scouts hold their regular meetings at the school on Thursday afternoons. On a week day from 3:30 till 4:30 the building buzzes with the many fine activities of its girls troops.

All age girls from seven to 12 are represented. Parents who want information about scouting at Richard, should phone or write, Mrs. Curtis Mower, 357 Roosevelt, TU. 5-8447.

21 Polio Cases Total to Date

Since the beginning of the year, a total of 21 reports of polio have been submitted to the Grosse Pointe Health Department, including seven for the month of September, revealed Dr. Thomas Davies, health Commissioner.

Dr. Davies stated that polio is now on the downgrade, and that four of the cases reported earlier last month, showed there were no paralysis, and the three just reported this week were submitted late, because the victims were not sure they had contacted the disease.

He said that although polio can occur any time during the year, generally, when the cold weather arrives, the disease shows a sharp decline.

For the month of September, Harper Woods submitted a report of one case; the Farms, one; and the Woods, five.

Trying to stand on one's dignity often results in a hard fall.

Bridge Players Rush To Aid Scholarships

Seven Eastern Women's Colleges Group Bringing Charles H. Goren in Bridge Sessions Oct. 26, 27 and 28; Mrs. Eugene P. Hawkins Chairman

Renaud road neighbors of Mrs. Eugene P. Hawkins, general chairman of the Detroit Committee for Seven Eastern Women's Colleges, are watching with interest the parade of cars at her door daily . . . All in connection with the big bridge sessions arriving soon.

The Seven Colleges group announced its scholarship benefit for this year at a recent tea at the home of Mrs. Roy D. Chapin on Lake Shore road.

After two years of presenting the fascinating Dione Lucas of Cordon Bleu in her cooking lessons, the group is deserting the kitchen for the parlor. Charles H. Goren, ranking contract bridge player and originator of the point count system, will appear in Detroit Oct. 26, 27 and 28 at Veterans' Memorial Building.

Proceeds of the morning session of lectures and evening sessions of duplicate bridge play and explanation, will go directly into scholarship aid for Michigan girls at Barnard, Bryn Mawr, Mount Holyoke, Radcliffe, Smith, Vassar and Wellesley Colleges.

The committee is enthusiastically tackling the job of presenting a bridge expert . . . and is cheered by the excited interest in the new project shown by former patrons of their cooking school lessons.

Pointers Mrs. Harry Sisson and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell are early subscribers, planning to bring their bridge groups with them.

The day after the announcement of the project found Mrs. James Graves, Mrs. Oscar Buhr, and Mrs. Reade Ryan stamping hundreds of announcements to be mailed to former subscribers and to bridge groups.

Mrs. Hawkins, Mrs. W. O. Wilson, Mrs. Albert Hogan and Mrs. Charles Holt Jr. tackled the BIG problem—hundreds of bridge hands to be set up for three evening sessions.

Cornering all the duplicate boards in the Midwest seemed too great a job for the committee but Russell Roosen, Detroit bridge teacher, solved the problem efficiently. From his pattern, hundreds of simple packets are being made to serve in place of duplicate boards. Mrs. Edward P. Wright and Mrs. Russell E. Dexter are among those who will stitch the packets.

Mrs. Ewald Loud, of Elm court, will head the card sorting committee which will get hundreds of hands set up in order by Mr. Goren for each evening of play. Pointers on her committee are Mrs. Edward J. Hickey, III, Mrs. Robert Everett and Mrs. Edgar Hubbard.

Mrs. Robert H. Kanzler was first gal in with ticket sales. She is a member of the committee headed by Mrs. Douglas Donald Jr. and Mrs. G. William Duffield.

Still other Pointers working on the October bridge sessions are Mrs. George A. Detwiler, treasurer; Mrs. Allen M. Lomax, vice-chairman; Mrs. Herbert Bartlett, publicity; Mrs. Thomas N. Hubbard, Mrs. Wilber M. Brucker and Mrs. A. W. Gallup, all chairmen of ticket committees.

Gardeners Test Floral Recipe

Members of the Garden Club of Michigan met yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. John N. Lord of Touraine road, for a business meeting and a competition for flower arrangements.

The following recipe was used; three stalks anemone, five chrysanthemums, three berried shrubs, a dash of foliage; mixed together and arranged in a suitable container.

During the business meeting, plans will be discussed for the opening of the Miss America Home to the public.

Symphony Choir Seeks Members

The Rackham Symphony Choir, official choral group of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will make two appearances with the Symphony this year in addition to presenting two concerts of its own at the Rackham Memorial. Placement tryouts for the choir, a project of the University of Michigan Extension Service, were opened at the Rackham Memorial with the choir's first rehearsal at 7:15 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 22, and continue for the first month of the fall semester at the weekly rehearsals of the group. Conducted by Prof. Maynard Klein, director of the University of Michigan choirs, choral director at the National Music Camp at Interlochen, and nationally known as a conductor of festival choirs, the group is planned especially for men and women who have had previous choral experience and who would like to be a part of a musical organization of high caliber. Assistant conductor is Kenneth Jewell, choral director at Pershing High School and assistant choral director at the National Music Camp. In addition to an appearance at the final concert in the regular Thursday night series presented by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under the baton of Paul Paray, the Rackham Symphony Choir will also participate in the Christmas concert of the Sunday afternoon series conducted by Valter Poole.

CITY OF Grosse Pointe Farms Summary of Regular Meeting SEPTEMBER, 21, 1953 Called to order at 8:00 P.M. Present on roll call: Mayor William F. Connolly, Jr., Councilmen Daniel W. Goodenough, John M. S. Hutchinson, William G. Kirby, Richard L. Maxon and George L. Schlaepfer. Absent: Councilman Neil S. McEachin. Minutes of meetings held on August 24, 1953 and August 31, 1953, were approved. Residents of Chalfonte Avenue between Moross and Cook Road were given an opportunity to be heard on their petition for controlling speeding in the area. The Police Department was asked to make a further report on certain recommendations made at the meeting. Residents on Ridgemont Road between Ridge and Beaupre petitioning for the installation of a sidewalk on the east side of Beaupre between Ridgemont and Kerby were heard. The Council instructed the Engineer to proceed under City ordinance for the installation of sidewalk in the following areas where none exist: 1. On the east side of Beaupre between Kerby and Moross. 2. On the west side of Ridgemont between Hillcrest and Kerby. 3. On the east side of Chalevoix adjacent to the property at 242 Merrilweather. The Council discussed the parking needs of the High School in relation to its proposed gym-auditorium building and recommended the installation of approximately 440 car parking spaces. The Council approved payment of the cost of a $1,000.00 title policy for property being acquired from the St. James Lutheran Church. The transfer of the SDM license at 383 Kercheval Avenue from Paul A. Mozoski to Alford E. & Christine M. McGee was approved. Changes affecting personnel in the Public Works Department were approved. Two elm trees affected by the Dutch elm disease were ordered removed from the public right-of-way. A report on the problems of Water Department expansion was referred to a Council Committee of the Whole to meet on the matter October 5, 1953. A progress estimate on pavement sealing work was approved. The continued employment of personnel for engineering assistance was approved. Progress on construction at the Pier Park and the establishing of a Refuse Disposal Authority were reported. A report on Pier Park operations for the 1953 summer season was received and a resolution adopted commending the personnel of the department for good services. A proposed noise regulation ordinance was received. The following reports for the month of August were approved: Police, Fire, Treasurer and Building. The expense of relocating facilities of public utility companies, as a result of the change in the Calvin Park Sub-division alley, was approved. A request for moving of a hydrant on Meadow Lane was referred to the Engineer. The meeting adjourned at 11:00 P.M. William F. Connolly, Jr. Mayor Harry A. Furton City Clerk Published in Grosse Pointe News October 1, 1953.

Mary Sherwood Feted at Parties

Friends of bride-elect Mary Patricia Sherwood have made the most of her few days left in the Pointe before she goes to the Summer home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Myron Lee Sherwood at Isle of Pines on Lake Charlevoix and her Oct. 10 wedding to James Watts Whims.

There practically has been a party-a-day for the past fortnight. Today the local fetes draw to a close with the luncheon and table shop top shower being given by Mrs. David Sutter and Mrs. John T. Allmand in the latter's home on Touraine road.

On Wednesday, Mrs. John Gordon Hill, of Cloverly road, was hostess at a tea and recipe shower for Mary. Other hostesses have been Mrs. John Hendrie and Dorothy Meyer, who feted the bride-elect at a linen shower and dinner in the Meyer home on Bishop road.

A Sunday night supper was given by Mr. and Mrs. Karl Behr, of Bishop road, after the Lions game; a bar shower and dinner for Mary and Jim was given by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morrison of Balmoral drive; and a luncheon and kitchen shower had as hostesses Mrs. Erwin Haass and Mrs. Philip Kling.

Mrs. Daniel Head of Chicago will be Mary's only attendant at the Oct. 10 wedding and Jim has asked David Idema of Ludington to serve as his best man.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Milo Watts Whims who lived in Grand Rapids.

Clothing Needed For School Kids

Contributions by families of their discarded shoes and clothing are being asked during the 17th annual Fall Public School Clothing Drive which begins Monday, October 5, and ends Friday, October 16. Proceeds of the drive are used to clothe needy Detroit public school children reported absent from school because parents cannot afford to clothe them.

Sponsor of the drive is Detroit Public School Social Service, Inc., a representative group of Detroit school personnel, formed to deal with the problem of needy school children.

The Volunteers of America is the social welfare agency which cooperates with the schools by dry cleaning or laundering and repairing the shoes and clothing received in the drive. They are then given, without charge, at the Volunteers School Clothing Center, to children, certified by the Attendance Department of the Board of Education as absent from school because of lack of clothing.

James J. Cruikshank, vice-president of Detroit Public School Social Service and principal of Northern High School, is drive chairman. He points out that absences caused by poverty continue at a high rate, as a result chiefly of the rising cost of living and unstable employment conditions.

During the school year which ended last June, School Social Service reports that 33,037 articles of shoes and clothing were given to needy school children. This includes 3,703 pairs of shoes, 5,688 pairs of hose, 2,869 dresses, 3,144 blouses and shirts, 2,487 overcoats, and 2,521 pairs of trousers. Since 1936, when the clothing program started, nearly 400,000 articles of clothing have been given to many thousands of children.

Cruikshank emphasized that the program costs the taxpayers nothing and that only children of families which cannot qualify for public relief, but are in temporary financial difficulty, receive the clothing made available by the school drives.

A thorough investigation of each case is made by an attendance officer, he said. Only then is a requisition written so that a child can get free clothing and return to school.

The public is asked to take contributions to any public school during the drive period, with clothing wrapped in bundles and shoes tied in pairs. Those unable to do this may call the nearest school for a pickup, or the Volunteers of America at Woodward 2-8910. All sizes of shoes and clothing are needed, both child and adult. Among items particularly needed are boys' jackets and trousers.

Youth Council Plans Hayride

A hayride for grades 9-12 has been planned by the War Memorial Youth Council on Saturday, October 10.

The hayride will begin at the foot of Cook road at 8 o'clock. The wagons will tour around the area of the Hunt Club. Tommy Sanders and his hand will play for the group on the wagons.

After the ride, cider and donuts will be served and Fran Striker and his committee have planned entertainment and dancing for the group around a big camp fire.

Youth Council members, the War Memorial, and the Student Council Booth at the high school will be selling tickets for $1.50. Tickets will not be sold after Friday, October 8.

ANOTHER BIKE STOLEN Joseph Schemansky of 1411 Torrey road, complained to Woods police on Saturday; September 26, that someone had taken his bicycle from his backyard.

Famous French Band to Play

It's good news for lovers of band music to know that one of the most famous bands in the world, the Guard Republicain Band of Paris, (Musique de la Garde Republicaine de Paris), will return to America after an absence of 50 years, for a concert in the Masonic Auditorium on Friday, October 2, at 8:20 p.m.

Founded in 1852, in the Second Empire, the Guard Republicain Band is attached to the French Army and is heard on all state occasions, as well as in its celebrated concerts.

The sight of the dashing bandmen in their traditional uniforms is one of the well-loved emblems of Paris, as familiar as the chestnut trees that line her streets, and the girders of the Eiffel Tower, and the honks of her taxicabs. The band's last visit in America was at the St. Louis Exposition in 1902.

PILFERINGS

Hold still for some chit chat concerning the maid in a Grosse Pointe home? The family was talking of hunting up a new house to lease or perhaps to buy, the objection being that the present domicile had no place in the basement for the children to play.

The maid took a lively interest in the matter, to the extent of canvassing the want ads in the paper. One morning she appeared with the glad tidings:

"I tink dey have vhat you van ton Vittier," she announced. "Four bedrooms, two bats, finished attic, sun porch, oil heater, and dat resurrection room in de basement."

A few days later she enchanted her employers again. Her husband had been to the dentist.

"Did you hear vhat" she asked the mistress of the house, "Louie is in more trouble. The dentist looked at him and now he has pyrex in the teeth."

There's a story told that when the late James Burnie Beck, a native Scotsman, was United States Senator from Kentucky, many many years ago, he received from a Kentucky friend a barrel of mountain dew from the home state. Whereupon he invited his warm personal friend, the Hon. Joseph Blackburn (then in the House but afterward also a Senator), to come and assist him in treating the barrel with proper respect.

When they had smacked their lips over the first "snort", Beck said:

"Well, Joe, what do you think of the stuff?"

"Fair only," said Joe judgmentally. "It would be perfect except that there is a wee taste of metal in it."

"You're dead wrong, Joe," said Beck. "There is no metallic taste, but there is a distinct flavor of leather in it."

So intent was each on his own theory that they wagered a barrel of "the same" as to which was right. Naturally, being in a hurry to settle the bet, they finished the barrel as soon as possible. The bet was called off. They found in the bottom of the barrel a carpet tack, with a leather washer on it.

Two Pointe Girls Enter Penn Hall Junior College

Two Pointe girls recently enrolled in the Penn Hall Junior College and Preparatory School in Chambersburg, Pa. Entered this year are: Beverly Ann Hudson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hudson of Fair-court, as a member of the first year class in the Junior College department; and Joanne Kay Benzine, daughter of Mrs. Elmer Benzine of Lochmoor boulevard, as a member of the senior class in the Preparatory department.

Wherever you see the midnight oil burning in the Pointe this autumn, it's pretty safe to wager that there work members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, getting ready for the tremendous Christmas Fair Nov. 19.

You are very likely to find a group of members of the Women's Association AND their husbands busily engaged in painting, hammering, gluing, cutting the many wonderful wares that will sparkle for all the world to see and buy come the day of the Fair.

If you drop by at the James Lafer on Oxford road, for instance, you'd meet the group headed by Mrs. Paul J. Kelly, working on tolle ware and turning out amazingly beautiful serving and apple trays, planters, match box covers, big and little; desk sets with matching bookends.

For this particular committee . . . all members of the Social Service Group at the church . . . has taken over the Lafer recreation room; turned it into a workshop and store house for the tolle ware.

Husbands Work Too Mr. Lafer has been giving lessons in buffing and varnishing and committee husbands have been eager students, rolling up sleeves and spending evenings that may sound dull in print but which proved richly rewarding to every single one.

That's the magic of working for a church fair, the attractive cast of the Social Service group say. The workers really get much more out of it all than even the church for they make new friends, surprise themselves by turning out professional merchandise and experience the joy of relaxing and working with their hands.

To show you how thoroughly these various committees go into their respective fields, all their members of the tolle committee started right out by taking lessons from the Pointe's incomparable tolle artist, Mrs. Lawrence J. Howard.

After the first lesson some were expert in all the mysterious intricacies of bronze stenciling in the early American manner. Soon girls, who had never held paint brush in hand before were going at the preparation of "floated color" work with assurance and skill.

Others were turning out hand-

Club at Center Holding Dance

The Center Club of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial is sponsoring another of its popular dances for the young adults in the community.

The Club was organized for the purpose of helping young adults new to the community, to make friends in their age group. The "stag or drag" dance, which is open to the public, will be held at the War Memorial Friday night, October 9th from 9 to 12.

Dotty Krause, decorations chairman, has promised the decorations will carry out the theme of the dance which has been named "Football Fever". Don Barri's trio will provide the music.

Any persons interested in obtaining more information about this dance or the activities of the Center Club may call the Grosse Pointe War Memorial during the day at TU. 1-6030. Chuck Reno, publicity chairman, can be reached at TU. 5-1987 in the evenings.

who alternate their fairs, so that each group may have full sway its year. (Alternate years the "Other" church gives a rummage sale.)

They told of how Pointers, not even members of the church, present their handwork to help the good cause and Mrs. Lafer will never forget the year she was chairman. Just before she left her house, the day of the fair, a telegram arrived. It wished her every wonderful success on Fair Day and its sender was Mrs. Frederick C. Ford of Christ Church Women's Auxillary.

"Church Fairs constantly bring such evidences of neighborliness and friendship," said the tolle workers. "And you are rewarded by learning just how wonderful all people really are."

The Social Service Group of Memorial Church has found other ways to "stay together" too. They cook and serve at church suppers; meet to sew with the women of the church on Tuesdays turning out Ruth Alden dresses for little girls; articles for needlework guild; and hemmed napkins for hospital.

On Fair years, the stitching away is dedicated to the booths and their wares.

Tolle Belles And that's the spirit you feel when you step inside the church house on Fair day at Memorial Church. A little of it brushes off on the visitors and leaves them richer.

Now back to authentic New England antique worked tolle wares, still others working on Mrs. Kelley's committee are Mrs. Eugene Hawkins, Mrs. Marshall L. McClung, Mrs. Frank Crum, Mrs. C. Garret Bunting, Mrs. Theodore Freiling, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Edward P. Hammond Jr., Mrs. Earl Hoyt and Mrs. George Landman.

They have scoured the markets of New England for the fascinating early American tinware, you'll find at their booth this November. They've been applying staking about learning from Mrs. Howard authentic designs and authentic methods of application for trimming the tolle almost lost to today's United States.

And when you visit Grosse Pointe Memorial's Christmas Fair this year, we hope you'll remember the story of how one committee loved working together. Multiply that by every booth in the Fair and you'll know why each year greater and greater amounts have been earned by these women for the work of their church.

DIXIE SPOON BREAD

Contributed by Mrs. William R. Witherell Jr.

- 1 c. cornmeal (preferably white and water ground)
- 1/2 tsp. salt
- 1 egg yolk
- 1 1/4 c. buttermilk
- 1/2 tsp. baking soda
- 2 Tbsp. hot bacon fat

You mix the first four ingredients long ahead of time and keep in the refrigerator because the baking soda and hot baking fat should be added just a minute before popping the bread into the oven. Another short cut is to heat the skillet or pan in which you bake the bread in the oven and when it is hot add baking fat, then just stir in the rest of the mixture.

The oven should be 400 degrees and this makes four generous servings or eight muffins.

Pointe Counter Points

by Roberta Isley

All the pieces we saw at William Austin's this week represent imaginative genius . . . a twist of individualism that takes an old idea and transforms it to something totally new . . . for example . . . the original apothecary jars used as bases for good-looking lamps. Enchanting in either a traditional or modern setting. Original Currier and Ives prints, the OLDEST French chairs, a trivet, a scale (you should see what he does with it), and a French Bird Cage complete with three singing birds, are a few items in his precious collection. Oh joy, Mr. Austin welcomes browsers like us! 16841 Kercheval Place, Studio of Interior Decoration.

A very special lady asked recently, "What has happened to white chocolates?" We looked for some . . . but we didn't have to look far. We stopped at 121 Kercheval . . . that's Trail Pharmacy, you know. It is a goodly stock they have to pamper our appetites.

Once upon a time a coat was a vague covering hurriedly tossed on rather promiscuously for day-or late-day, for town and suburban. But not now. A fashionable coat has become quite specific and it looks very definitely and specially to the point. In D. J. Healy's terrific collection there are country coats that stay in the country . . . there are gentlemanly Chesterfields . . . lush Cashmires . . . there are clean wrapped clutch coats made of magnificent wools. A particular one was brown textured wool and sported a BEAVER ascot . . . another was rust wool . . . full . . . with a huge FOX collar . . . the linings are beautiful and have that warmth without weight effect . . . that is so important.

This isn't the "open season" for mittens. It isn't that cold yet . . . but, I did see mittens put to very good use this week at Marie Bird's Salon, on the hill. Kinda intriguing, uh? It seems that this particular idea originated on the West Coast . . . where stems lots of our glamour and beauty. And that's where this idea originated. The California Mitten Manicure is a near magic treatment for the nail, according to manicurist Ruby Houston, and well worth the dollar "extra service" charge. So just plan on treating yourself to the best the next time you visit Marie Bird's.

When Adele Simpson plans a collection it is planned from the standpoint of what will fit the occasion, as well as the wearer, with an accent on what it will DO for her. And in this collection we found clothes that give the wearer more than just a "look" . . . it gives her a feeling . . . a feeling born out of the knowledge of being dressed in the best American taste. Two forward-looking dinner dresses took our fancy. One was fashioned of pastel blue broadcloth. A Contour Sheath dress, the focal point being the SAPHIRE MINK that outlines the wide V-neck. Another was a Cabachon costume . . . the little round jewel in anyone's wardrobe. It's a black silk brocade Mobile Sheath dress, with a fitted jacket over a lingerie top . . . space collar. You'll have to part with green currency amounting to around $250 for these dresses that go to festivities commencing at twilight and carrying on and on. These at Jacobson's in better dresses.

"Sleek . . . contemporary," we exclaimed as we looked . . . and looked again . . . at the low, long California Styled sofas at the new Gillis Modern Home Furnishing Store over on Fisher Rd. (403). Here you will find the newest of new in modern . . . daring, yet so livable . . . furniture that can be placed in almost any setting. Hand-crafted lamps . . . china . . . stainless steel hollow ware . . . porcelain pieces . . . all happy blendings of good taste . . . fair prices. Why not treat yourself to something new . . . any day between the hours of 9:30 a.m. and 6 p.m.?

Today is a very SPECIAL one for the Yvonne Beauty Salon. It marks TWO occasions . . . their Fifth Anniversary . . . and the OPENING of a spanking new shop at 84 Kercheval, on the hill. Gray and dusty pink makes the decor of this shop very inviting . . . and we're all invited to the opening. The grapevine has it there'll be favors. And let's not forget . . . they're happy to be able to include facials and pedicures along with the usual fine services. To the opening, gals.

It'll only take a minute to have your picture taken and SEE the results. In 60 seconds you can have a picture that is developed. Your photo dealer . . . you know by now . . . it's the Camera Center, in the village, will take your picture free with a Polaroid Land Camera. You'll be happy with a big, sparkling, black and white print. A new plastic finish gives the picture lasting beauty and every roll of film is guaranteed. Looking ahead toward Christmas . . . it would be just the gift for him.

Did you know that men like to wrap IT around their middles sarong-fashion? And that women step from their bath like a queen in IT? IT happens to be a husky, thirsty, huge bath sheet by Martex. It's nearly six feet long . . . deep-napped, super absorbent and plenty rugged. Then there are bath mats to match. A bright note for your bathroom now that you crave a change is the rich deep-piled tufted mat and lid set. White, azure, Nile green, bud pink, red, spring green, nutmeg, mother-of-pearl, cornflower blue, sunflower yellow, azalea, shamrock, goldenrod, buttercup, sapphire, bottle green are the choice decorator colors. Then . . . if you want to throw caution to the wind . . . choose tweed towels . . . tweed shower curtains . . . and top them with huge handsome monograms . . . monogramming is just one of the extra services that Jacobson's, in the village, offer Pointers.

Play it smart. Pick up a couple of sets of pottery dishes. Each set is a service for four. Intriguing names like Midnight Mist . . . charcoal . . . sand pink. You can afford a couple of sets . . . $5.95 and $6.95 a set. Fromm's.

According to Dior, skirts are on the way up, and there's more leg showing; hence the need for sheer nanes. Hemlines and hosiery are not the only newsy item, however . . . Designers have been on the job with new glass frames. As in the finest jewelry . . . the finest clothes . . . Corsage (custom-made glasses) invites attention by its matchless design and careful workmanship. It is accented by a spray of finely hand-engraved, colored metal top pieces over a newly designed core of brilliant gold. The colors are black . . . rose . . . blue . . . orchid . . . mink . . . gold . . . and natural white. In the frame selection display at Johnston's Optical Co., on the hill, you'll find these.

Whenever a department in one of our stores has something new we think it is our duty and privilege to pass it on to you. That's what has happened in Jacobson's Hosiery Department. The something new is LISLE hosiery for those who want warmer hose. It's first quality Egyptian cotton . . . soft . . . and durable in a warm neutral shade. Nice . . . because you won't be trotting downtown for them from now on . . . we figure!
