SABURO KURUSU, who was negotiating peace with the United States when Japan dropped her bombs on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1951, is dead at the age of 69. He had long been regarded as pro-Western, and all along insisted he had no advanced knowledge of the imperial staff's intention to strike at Pearl Harbor.

He was never brought to trial as a war criminal, but was banned from holding public office by the Allied occupation.

MILITARY SECRECY blacked out the amount of help the United States is giving to French defenders in Indochina. At any rate, it was disclosed that American C-47 transports have arrived to strengthen the French airlift to the besieged fortress of Dien Bien Phu, where another battle appears to be shaping up.

Meanwhile, French planes dropped tons of ammunition, food and medical supplies to Col. Christian de Castries' battered garrison.

Saturday, April 10

BRITISH AIR EXPERTS are determined to get to the bottom of the cause of the crashes of jet Comet airliners, which to date have claimed the lives of 89 persons. The South African Airways Comet, reported missing last Thursday, had plunged into the Tyrrhenian Sea, killing 21 persons, three of them Americans.

Search ships recovered six bodies and Italian fishermen were believed to have found others. London papers played up the possibility of sabotage.

Sunday, April 11

THE UNITED NATIONS secretary was called a spy referee by the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee. The subcommittee termed it a "cover shop" for spy operations. In its second report on American citizens employed by the UN, the subcommittee stated that there is strong evidence of a Communist "fifth column" in the UN operating headquarters which may include both citizens of this and other non-Communist countries.

Administration investigators who have been checking the Americans for more than a year, refused to comment on the subcommittee's report.

Monday, April 12

FRENCH DEFENDERS of Dien Bien Phu, in a "stand-or-die" battle, hurled back Communist Vietnam "human sea" attacks, on the eastern defenses of the besieged fortress. Red Gen. Vo Nguyen Giap threw his shock troops into the battle in order to regain a strongpoint his forces lost to the French.

A Franco-Vietnam force dug the Communists out of the position with knives and bayonets in a four-hour fight on Saturday. In five attacks in 24 hours, the Reds lost at least 600 men, a French report stated.

Tuesday, April 13

RED ROMANIA returned two sons of Romanian-born Valeriu C. Georgescu who recently made the headlines of papers all over the country, when he refused to spy on the United States, his adopted country, in exchange for the freedom of his sons.

The boys, Constantin, 19, and Peter, 15, were turned over to the father in Munich, Germany. They had been separated for seven years. Georgescu will fly his boys to the United States so that they may be reunited with their mother at the family's New York City home.

Wednesday, April 14

THE DESERTION of a Russian spy leader created a sensation in Australia, when the information was released by Prime Minister, Robert G. Menzies. The prime minister also disclosed that when the spy, Vladimir Petrov, third secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Canberra, quit he turned over a great number of documents involving Australian traitors. He told Parliament that the man had been given political asylum. A high official stated that Petrov's wife was still in the embassy and will probably go back to Russia. Petrov's whereabouts was not disclosed.

Children Prepare for Good Friday Service

The Junior and Youth Choirs of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church have been rehearsing for the special service which will be held in the church, Chalfonte at Lothrop, at 11 a.m. on Good Friday. The service, for children and youth, with adults also welcome, will be based on Holy Week as celebrated in Jerusalem by the Greek Orthodox Church. The service includes the preparation for Good Friday, Good Friday and the sequel to Good Friday.

City Reports Progress on Civil Defense

Architects Survey Buildings; Businessmen Accept Appointments as Wardens

The City of Grosse Pointe is going all out with plans for setting up protective measures for its citizens in conjunction with the Civil Defense program for the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods area, and at the rate this is being done, may well be the first Pointe Community to complete this task.

Grosse Pointe City Clerk Norbert Neff disclosed on Monday, April 12, that several civic-minded City men have already accepted appointments to carry on their share of the Civil Defense program.

To Make Complete Survey He stated that three local architects have agreed to take on the responsibility of surveying all public and business buildings, particularly in the Kercheval, Fisher and Mack avenue business districts.

These men, he said, will conduct on-the-spot surveys of commercial and public buildings to determine the suitability of such structures for shelter in the event of any incident or disaster, with particular emphasis on bombings and tornadoes.

Also represented are businessmen in each of these areas, who have accepted appointments as wardens in their respective areas. These men will develop their own committees, and will formulate plans for practical operation and use of the shelters placed under their care.

Must Develop Methods

"We have emphasized need of not only designating safe and adequate shelter," pointed out Mr. Neff, "but are stressing a need on the part of the businessmen of developing a method of operating these shelters under stress of danger and probable high degree of emotion, tension and possible panic, so that the public can safeguard and shelter themselves and their property."

Ten Churches to Hold Joint Services in Woods Theater In Good Friday Observance

Dr. John R. Mulder to be Speaker; Choir of 100 Voices To be Heard; Special Service Also Planned for Children

Grosse Pointe, Harper Woods, St. Clair Shores and East Side-Detroit worshippers will have an opportunity to attend a Detroit Council of Churches-sponsored community service tomorrow, April 16, at the Woods Theater from 1 to 2:30 p.m. Ten neighboring protestant churches with their ministers and assisting laymen will combine forces to share in the traditional commemoration of Good Friday.

Visiting preacher for the occasion is the president of Western Theological Seminary at Holland, Michigan, Dr. John R. Mulder. He will take as his theme: "For This Hour Did Christ Come."

100 Voice Choir to Sing Music has been arranged by John Linzing, organist and choir-master of First Church of the Brethren, who will direct a 100 voice choir from Lakeview High School, St. Clair Shores.

An Easter display on exhibit in the Woods Theater lobby was created by Charles Pleus, Immanuel Evangelical United Brethren Church, and John F. Jakel, Church of the Brethren, and will remain through the holiday.

Sign Vanishes After Accident

Park police are wondering whether the person who knocked down a stop sign on April 4, took the sign as a souvenir or perhaps to hide some form of evidence.

The sign has been missing since April 6, Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers disclosed.

The sign was located at Barrington and Windmill Pointe drive and was knocked down in an auto accident.

Its loss was discovered by the Park DPW Department, which had been notified that the sign was down.

Park Sgt. Kesteloot and the city electricians questioned citizens in that area, but the people were just as mystified as the police and other searchers.

CD Program Turned Down By Shores

Woods Votes to Go Along With Other Three Pointes And Harper Woods

The Shores council on Monday, April 12, decided against joining the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods Civil Defense program, until more concrete plans have been formulated, especially along financial lines.

Acting on the recommendation of Trustee Robert Weber, who spoke for the committee set up last month to study the area's civil defense program, the council decided to hold off joining until something definite has been planned in an overall formula.

Woods Will Join

At its own meeting held on the same night, the Woods Council decided to join the Defense program, along with the other communities already members.

The Woods made its decision upon recommendation of Merwyn Gaskin, its immediate Director of Civil Defense.

Mayor Waid McKnight and City Administrator Ray MacArthur have been authorized by the council to execute the agreement.

Cost Goes Up For Woods Pave

An invoice received from the Wayne County Road Commission disclosed that it will cost the Woods an additional $3,942.52, as its share in the paving of Baseline (Eight Mile road) between Mack and Goethe, it was brought out at the Monday, April 12, meeting.

The council approved the payment of the sum, following a legal opinion given by Woods City Attorney Julius Berns.

At the same meeting, the council also accepted a bid for the purchase of a water meter testing machine.

The purchase was recommended by City Administrator Ray MacArthur and Superintendent Tony Guaresimo of the Water Department, who made a complete study of the matter.

The purchase price of the meter tester was $526.06.

Camera, Watch, Stolen From Car

Charles A. Remus, of 24425 Little Mack, St. Clair Shores, informed Park police on Sunday, April 11, that he had left his car parked in front of 1324 Lakepointe overnight.

Board of Education Officially Approves Election Resolution

Organizational Plans For New Ferry School Also Adopted; Over-crowded Condition at Pierce Junior High Brings Action

At its regular monthly meeting on April 7 the Board of Education officially adopted a resolution setting forth the proposals which will be submitted to the voters at the Annual School Election on June 14. The resolution was formally adopted following a series of regular and special board meetings in which many citizen delegations strongly urged the Board to take immediate steps to alleviate several serious school problems.

The resolution provides for submitting three proposals to the vote of the qualified electors of the school district.

Ask for $1,225,000 The first proposal on the ballot will request permission to borrow $1,225,000 for the purpose of constructing and equipping a new elementary school building on the Torrey Woods Site and for the purpose of constructing and equipping additions to the present Poupard and Kerby elementary schools.

The second proposal on the ballot will seek authority for the Board to increase the school bond millage of the district by eight-tenths (.8) of one mill in order to pay for the sum borrowed under the provisions of the first proposal. This would amount to eighty (80c) cents a year, for twenty (20) years, on each one thousand ($1,000) dollars of assessed valuation as equalized.

Want Additional Levy The third proposal to be voted on will request the voters to approve an additional levy of two mills for operating purposes. The present levy of three extra mills for operation expires in 1955. This proposal will request the voters to cancel the present three mills of operation and to approve a total of five extra mills for a period of five years.

The Board and various citizen groups have studied this problem and believe that the two additional levies are justified.

Woods Refuses To Pay Damages

A claim of $75 against the Woods for damages to lawn sprinklers was rejected by the Woods council on Monday, April 12.

The claim was presented by Robert Westrick of 1321 N. Renaud, who in a letter to the council, asked for payment for the destruction of seven lawn sprinkler heads, caused by the city-owned snow plow following the last heavy snowstorm in January. The sprinklers were located between the sidewalk and curb in front of the Westrick residence.

The council felt that if it honored the claim for damages, it would set a precedent, and other residents would also ask for damages.

Fred Hansen, head of the Woods Public Works Department, asserted that the damage was accidental.

According to Woods City Attorney Julius Berns, inasmuch as the incident was accidental, besides the sprinklers being located on public property, that is, between the sidewalk and curb; the Woods cannot be held liable for damages.

Acting on this the council denied the claim.

Stolen Bakery Truck Seen As Link to Park Robbery

A stolen bakery truck found in the vicinity of a ransacked Park home on Monday, April 12, may have a connection with the robbery, according to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

Chief Louwers revealed that on Sunday, April 11, between the hours of 2 p. m. and about 11:45 p. m., someone, in the absence of Dr. and Mrs. E. O. Jodar, thoroughly ransacked the couple's residence, 1447 Berkshire, taking about $100 in cash that was found there.

The burglar had gained entrance to the house by breaking a 10 by 12 pane of glass in the rear door window. Every room on the first and second floor was given a thorough going over by the culprit.

Ask $30,000 For Budget Requirements

Total of $93,500 Needed to Maintain and Operate Center Next Year

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's annual campaign for funds to maintain and operate the Center in Lake Shore road begins today, April 15. It will continue until Memorial Day. Residents are being asked to contribute $30,000.

The amount established as the goal of this year's drive is $5,000 more than the $25,000 sought last year. However, the budget for the Center has risen from $67,200 this year to $93,500 for the coming year.

Program Expanded

The big increase in the budget is accounted for by the greatly increased program of activities which the Center offers. Many of the activities pay for themselves and numerous others actually make money for the association. Estimated budget figures for the coming year include operating costs as follows: house salaries, maintenance and operation, $35,520; building repairs and improvements, $6,000; gardens and grounds, $6,200; program expenses, food, program activities, advertising and promotion, $33,780; administrative expenses and office salaries, $12,000.

Anticipated receipts include: from program activities, $19,000; from services supplied, $28,200; dividends and interest from investments, $9,500; special maintenance contributions, $8,800.

Must Give $30,000 The balance of $30,000 to meet budget requirements must come from the family participation drive.

Last year there were 2,027 individual gifts made during the campaign, representing a total of $27,820.

More than 61,000 persons used the Center this past season. This represents an increase of 10,000 more than during the previous season.

Dedicated to Pointe residents who have served in their country's armed forces, and particularly to those honored dead who gave their lives, the beautiful Center property has come to be known as the meeting place of the Pointe. Facilities provided can accommodate and feed groups of up to 300. There are activities for all ages, and the association is constantly adding new forms of entertainment and education to the program.

Home of Many Groups The Center is the home of the local Rotary, Kiwanis, Exchange and Optimist clubs, all of these service organizations holding their weekly luncheon or dinner meetings there.

Volunteer services located there operate a Cancer Center, make supplies for hospitals and teach braille transcriptions. Hospital equipment is loaned free to any Pointe resident.

The Garden Center, offering free advice and maintaining a large garden library, is also in the Center building, staffed by volunteers from various Pointe gardener organizations.

The Grosse Pointe Artists' Association, Traffic and Safety Committee, League of Women Voters, Mothers' Health Council and a host of other organizations also hold their meetings in the Center.

Many Special Interests Many special interest groups ranging from ballet and theater to a sports car club and men's chorus are also housed there.

Any group in which Pointers are substantially represented and which is organized for educational, cultural, recreational or social purposes, is invited to use the Center.

All residents are urged to participate in this annual drive. Checks may be made out to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association and mailed to the War Memorial Center at 32 Lake Shore Road, Grosse Pointe 36, Mich.

CHILD BITTEN BY DOG A Park police report disclosed that Tom Sanger, 9, of 1043 Wayburn, was bitten on the right forearm, in front of 1145 Wayburn, by a dog. The animal is owned by James Hilby of 1305 Alter road, who was ticketed for letting the dog run at large.

with a minimum of hazard and loss." On the architects' committee are: John L. Pottle, Arthur Schmidt and Frederic Fuger. Three Wardens Named Chairman of the wardens in the Kercheval district is John Hanman, manager of Jacobson's; William DeBaake, president of the Grosse Pointe Bank, is warden of his bank building; and David Nagel of Grosse Pointe Hardware, is head warden of the upper part of Mack avenue, between University place and Fisher road, and also on E. Jefferson, from Neff to Cadieux.

Mr. Neff revealed that there are other civic minded persons he has in mind for certain civil defense jobs, and he has every confidence that these persons will accept the responsibility.

MORE HUBCAPS STOLEN

William Gillette of 175 Country Club drive, reported at the Park police station on Saturday, April 10, that while his car was parked in front of 758 Westchester, someone had stolen the hubcaps.

School Board

tional mills for operation is a minimum immediate requirement to meet the needs of the district. Additional personnel, including 30 new teachers, will be required next fall. An additional 30 teachers will be needed in the fall of 1955. There will be increased costs for instructional and maintenance supplies and materials. Several of the older buildings will provide for desirable and necessary adjustments in the salaries of present school personnel. The present beginning salary of $3250.00 per year for teachers in Grosse Pointe is below that of all comparable school systems in the area. The salary schedule must be raised if Grosse Pointe is to satisfactorily compete with other systems in this area for the woefully inadequate supply of good teachers.

The Board also considered and approved Superintendent Bushong's recommendations concerning the organizational plans for the new Ferry Elementary School on Roslyn road which will open in the fall. The Superintendent reported that the sixth grade pupils of the Monteith, Poupard and Mason schools must be transported out of their districts for the coming school year.

New Boundaries Set

The Board approved a plan of sending these sixth graders to the new Ferry School and also provided for the following boundaries for the Vernier and Ferry schools: a. All pupils, Grades Kindergarten through Six, living in the area bounded on the north by the northerly rear lot line extended of Aline drive and North Brys drive, from Marter road to the Grosse Pointe Woods-Grosse Pointe Shores boundary line; and on the west by the middle of Marter road; shall go to the Ferry school next year.

b. All pupils, Grades Kindergarten through Four, in the remainder of the present district served by the Vernier School shall go to the Vernier School next year and all pupils in Grades Five and Six from this same area shall go to the Ferry School next year.

Under this plan the Vernier School will have children only through the fourth grade, with all fifth and sixth grade youngsters in the Vernier District attending the Ferry School.

Pierce Over-Crowded

The Board also heard and considered reports on the over-crowded conditions at the Pierce Junior High School. This school will not be able to house all the students in its district for the coming year.

Dr. Bushong reported that this problem had been discussed with the parents of Pierce students. Since the Pierce students who will be in the 9A grade next fall would normally move on to the High School at mid-term, it was agreed that the best solution to the over-crowded condition would be to transfer these 9A students to the High School at the beginning of the fall term.

The Board approved the transfer of the 9A pupils from Pierce to the High School building for September, 1954.

Lt. Harry A. Gieseking On Sub Training Cruise

NEW LONDON (FHTNC)—On a two week Reserve Training Cruise is Navy Lt. Harry A. Gieseking, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Gieseking of 1238 Harvard road, and husband of Mrs. Arleen R. Gieseking of Detroit. He is aboard the submarine USS Irex.

Wins His Wings of Gold

PENSACOLA, Fla. (FHTNC)—"Wings of Gold" of a Naval Aviator and his commission were awarded to NAVY ENSIGN RICHARD T. PALMER, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Palmer, Jr., of 888 Trombley road, Grosse Pointe, Michigan. Ensign Palmer who attended the University of Michigan, entered the Naval Aviation Cadet Program through the Naval Air Station at Grosse Ile.

The presentation was made by REAR ADMIRAL DALE HARRAS, USN, Chief of Naval Air Basic Training, during ceremonies held at the U. S. Naval Air Station here.

Scouts Prepare For Exposition

Six thousand Scouting Exposition window posters are being distributed in stores and business offices throughout the Scout Council Area during the Easter vacation week of April 19.

Seventy of the Council's finest Troops, including several from this area, are furnishing Scouts for this important phase of publicizing the Exposition at the State Fair Grounds, May 13-14-15. Over 20,000 Scouts are actively participating in preparing and serving the 450-booths of crafts, hobbies and Scouting skills, and eight spectacular stage shows.

Enthusiastic reports have been received on tickets since they went on sale a few days ago. Hundreds of Cubs, Scouts and Explorers have already achieved "prize winning salesman" rating. Chrysler's Plymouth Division general sales manager, William J. Bird, heading up the exposition sales committee, expressed great admiration to some 1,500 key scout-salesmen, at a rally last week.

Ray R. Eppert, executive vice president of Burroughs Corporation, exposition committee vice-chairman, spoke on salesmanship at the rally; and Chrysler Corporation secretary, Nicholas Kelley, Jr., told the scout-salesmen he was proud to serve as chairman of such a mammoth activity.

Oberlin Choir Earns Praise

A program of music appropriate to the Easter season was sung by the Oberlin College Choir at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church last Monday evening. Robert Fountain, director of the choir, may well be proud of his singers; for the concert established the choir as one of the first-rate choral organizations in the country.

Everything necessary to an excellent choir is possessed to a great degree by the Oberlin ensemble. The quality, blend, and balance of tone, the keen rhythm, the neat precision of attack are all of such high caliber as to make anything but whole-hearted admiration a matter of personal taste.

The major works on the program were the 23rd Cantata of Bach, two sacred works by the contemporary French master, Francis Poulenc, and the Motet, "O Saviour, throw the Heavens wide," by Brahms. The Bach Cantata, one of his most sublime works, was, to me, the high point of the concert. From the opening wistful duet for soprano and alto to the final magnificent choral, the choir seemed to communicate the spiritual as well as the physical qualities of the music. The accompaniment, strings, two oboes, and piano was in excellent proportion to the chorus.

If there were any criticism of the Oberlin singers, it would be in the field of interpretation. Personally, I felt that, while technically the choir was perfect, often the singing was a little more placid than the situation required. For example, in such a work as Jacob Handl's "Alleluia," a little less control, a little more abandon would have projected the spirit of evaluation more convincingly.

The program also included works by Sweelinck, Victoria, Morley, Georg Schumann, Oldroyd, and three Negro spirituals. Marvyn Betsch, a soprano with a voice of sumptuous beauty was soloist in one of the spirituals.

To Receive Safe Driving Awards

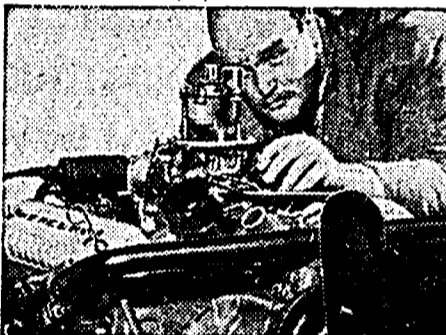

Two Grosse Pointers will receive safe driving awards from the Shell Oil Company.

Top man is T. W. Zemper, real estate manager, who will receive an inscribed certificate for his 24 years of driving without an accident. Zemper lives at 1051 Hawthorne.

A certificate will also go to L. M. Leisinger, operations manager, who has a 14 year record. Leisinger lives at 336 McKinley. A total of 112 men throughout Michigan will receive the awards from Shell.

Woods Officials Sworn in Following City Election

Incumbent and new members of the Grosse Pointe Woods City official family took their oaths of office at Monday night's meeting, the first following the regular spring election. Left to right: Rex Johnson and George Heckendorn, incumbent councilmen; Municipal Judge Don Goodrow, who was reelected; Kenneth McLeod, new member of council; new Mayor Waid McKnight, former councilman; Harry Pratt, incumbent, who was reelected; James Hunt, new council member; and City Manager Ray MacArthur, officiating at the swearing in ceremony.

PTA at Trombly Backs Bond Issue

In a special meeting on Tuesday, April 6, the Trombly School Parent-Teacher Association went on record as supporting the proposals to be submitted to the electorate at the annual school election, June 14.

The association invited Bert H. Wick, president of the Board of Education, and Dr. Lynn Bartlett, director of pupil personnel, to explain the need for additional buildings and operational millage caused by increasing school enrollment.

Following an interested and lively question and discussion period, the association formally went on record supporting the Board of Education proposals.

Oscar Marx, Trombly representative to the Grosse Pointe P.T.A. Council, reported on the organization of the Council Steering Committee to assist each P.T.A. in their efforts in behalf of increased school facilities and the need for an affirmative vote in the June 14 special Bond Issue Election.

The association approved an appropriation of 50 dollars to support the Grosse Pointe P.T.A. Council in this endeavor.

Authors Heard at Library By Enthusiastic Audience

The last of the monthly Sunday afternoon meetings, sponsored by the Friends of the Library, took the form of a "Meet the Authors" panel and attracted an enthusiastic audience at the Central Library last Sunday.

Miss Leontine Keane was an able moderator and the four local authors, Elizabeth Howard Mizner, Mrs. Haldeman Finnie, Royce Howes and General S.L.A. Marshall contributed interesting and enlightening slants on the job of the author, with a lively discussion following.

The panel provided a wide coverage, with each member specializing in a different field. All were authors with numerous books to their credit and although their work differed so widely and represented such a variety of problems, all agreed that writing was work, that most writers begin to scribble as soon as they can hold a pen and that the only way to arrive in by perspiration coupled with inspiration.

Miss Mizner, who specializes in the junior novel, has a large following among young people all over the country. Hers are period books and long hours of painstaking research are spent at the Burton Historical Library to insure the validity of even the smallest fact. A book every year and a half is Miss Mizner's goal.

Royce Howes of the Detroit Free Press is a versatile person with a dereliction for writing "Who-dun-its". His recent book, a biography of Edgar Guest, was the result of the publisher's request. A long time friend of Mr. Guest, Colonel Howes admitted that he had a good time writing this book although he believes that by-and-large fiction is easier because the author is always in control of the situation.

Mrs. Finnie, known to her readers as Isabella Holt, has been writing for many years. She found however that the process was slower somewhat as a mother of four children. Writing is nothing short of slave labor, says Mrs. Finnie, but if you are a writer, you will continue to write regardless of circumstances. She writes of people who are likable and gallant souls in the main because she has been privileged to know and work among such people.

General S. L. A. Marshall of the Detroit News and historian for the U. S. Army, although well-known for his books of history, feels that his greatest contribution has been in the psychological field. He developed a unique method of group interrogation immediately following combat which gave a more complete picture of battle action than had been available hitherto.

Modestly disclaiming unusual ability, General Marshall believes there are three fundamental truths of life—

First, before one can learn all that can be learned on a subject and apply it, life is over.

Secondly, that it is necessary to have only one-half of one percent more knowledge than the next person to be regarded as an expert.

Thirdly, that a new truth is not the result so much of discovery as of accident.

Following the program, the group moved to the Main Reading Room where refreshments were served by the Social Committee composed of Mrs. Lloyd G. Hooker, chairman; Mrs. Donald Bliss; Mrs. Rose Sanders; Mrs. Alfred Moran; Mrs. J. D. McLeod; Miss Melitta Roemer and Mrs. Helen Finster.

Worker Rescued From Ditch Cave

Quick action by fellow workers may be the reason Achille Blochina, 34, of 19455 Fenelon, Detroit, is alive today.

Blochina, while helping to dig a foundation for a new commercial building, to be located at 1824 Mack avenue, on Friday, April 9, was buried in dirt over his head, when a ditch in which he was working caved in.

Fellow workers who viewed the near tragedy, promptly began digging away the dirt in which Blochina was entombed, and by the time Farms police and firemen, with equipment, arrived, dirt had been cleared away from the man's head.

Farms Patrolman Frank Kerbrat and Joseph Belanger pitched in and helped dig out Blochina. They later removed him to Cottage Hospital for a check of possible injuries or shock.

Farms Fire Capt. Joseph Burton and a crew of firemen composed of Henry Reigler and Warren Schultz, stood by, ready with oxygen if needed.

Witnesses stated that Blochina needed no assistance in climbing out of his near tomb.

Seek Candidates For Air Academy

The Honorable Louis C. Rabaut (D. Mich.) announced in connection with the planned Air Force Academy to be activated soon on an existing Air Force Base, that he is authorized to nominate not to exceed 10 persons who shall be eligible to compete for vacancies in the first class of 300 cadets.

Under the proposed arrangement, the number of vacancies allocated to each state is proportionate to the representation in Congress. The State of Michigan is allotted 10 vacancies for the first class. Each member of Congress from the state is permitted to submit the names of no more than ten persons, who in a general examination will compete with other nominees from other local congressional districts to fill up the state quota. Appointments are to be made from among qualified candidates in order of merit.

Congressman Rabaut said: "I will ask the Civil Service Commission to hold a preliminary examination some time this fall, so that I may determine my appointees, who will in turn, compete on the state-wide level for appointment to the Academy."

Mr. Rabaut has expressed his desire that all qualified young men from the 14th District be appraised of the opportunity for appointment to this proposed Air Academy.

Further information on the program, examination and appointment procedure will be forthcoming in the near future.

Those interested in applying for the Air Academy examinations are advised to write to Representative Louis C. Rabaut, 1232 House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Students Learn About Careers
Seniors at Grosse Pointe High were guests at the "Careers Unlimited" program at the Masonic Temple April 1 and 2. Chartered buses transported the students to this hour and forty-five minute presentation.
Many different kinds of careers were demonstrated to interested students from Metropolitan high schools. A pageant given in the auditorium showed the opportunities the city of Detroit presents to high school graduates who desire to obtain employment.
After the pageant the students toured the exhibit rooms where various job opportunities were represented. Exhibits from General Motors, Detroit Edison, Burroughs Adding Machine Company as well as many other firms were represented. The Army and Air Force also had representatives present to give out information.
At each one of the many exhibits personnel agents were present to answer the students' questions and pamphlets were distributed giving further details of the various careers.

Dinner Speaker
ROBERT W. CONDER
Col. Walter Allard, general chairman of the Fourth Annual Employee-Employer Dinner of the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association, to be held in the Main Ballroom of the Detroit Yacht Club on Wednesday, May 12, announces that Robert W. Conder, vice-president and director of industrial relations for the Chrysler Corporation, will be the guest speaker.
Mr. Conder has been associated with Chrysler Corporation for almost 16 years, having joined the company in 1936 as a member of the staff of its resident attorney. For the next three years he was active in labor negotiations and in 1939 was made director of labor relations of the company. On February 28, 1951, he was made director of industrial relations.
Mr. Conder was born on August 25, 1903, in Indianapolis, Indiana. He was graduated from DePaul University in 1925. He also attended the University of Michigan Law School, graduating with a J. D. Degree in 1927. For the next nine years until joining Chrysler Corporation, was associated with the Detroit law firm of Dickinson, Wright, Davis, McKean and Cudlip.
Preliminary reservations indicate capacity attendance at the dinner.

Pointers' Magnificent Art Gifts Going on Exhibition
One of the most impressive gifts ever received by the Detroit Institute of Arts, paintings and sculpture bequeathed by Mr. and Mrs. Edgar B. Whitcomb, will go on exhibition Wednesday, April 20.
Some of the jewels of European painting in America by such masters as Rubens, Guardi, Titian and Tintoretto are in this last great gift of the Whitcombs, who had for many years been among the museum's greatest benefactors.
The 15 paintings and two pieces of sculpture in the bequest will be grouped in one gallery. The many other important art works presented by the Whitcombs over a period of nearly 30 years which are on permanent exhibition in other galleries, will be specially marked so that visitors may see the wide scope of the Whitcomb gifts. The entire memorial exhibition will include about 75 splendid examples of painting and sculpture by some of the greatest artists of all time.
The paintings and sculpture of the bequest are of exceptionally fine quality. They are small in size because they comprised the collection Mr. and Mrs. Whitcomb formed for their own home in Grosse Pointe.
Probably most appealing of all are the sparkling "View of Dolo on the Brenta" by Francesco Guardi, great 18th century Venetian painter, and the magnificent "Brisels returned to Achilles" by Peter Paul Rubens, Flemish 17th century master.
A marble relief sculpture "Madonna and Child" the work of Mino da Fiesole in the 15th century is one of the most beautiful examples of Florentine early Renaissance sculpture in America.
Top flight examples of the work of two Italian old masters of the 16th century are the "Portrait of Andrea de Franceschi" a splendid harmony of reds and browns by Titian, and the "Portrait of a Man" by Tintoretto.
Three beautiful 17th century Dutch landscapes are by Jacob van Ruysdael, Aelbert Cuyp and Meindert Hobbema.
A breezy and spirited seascape, "Coast Scene Near Brighton" by John Constable is the first important work of this early 18th century English painter to come into Detroit's collection. "Portrait of Mr. Russell" by John Hopper is a brilliant example of the greatest English portraiture of the last half of the 18th and early 19th centuries.
With a famous history is the "Child with an Apple" by Gréuze, a handsome example of French 18th century painting, which came from the Hermitage Museum in Leningrad.
Anton Van Dyck, Flemish master of the first half of the 17th century is represented by a sketch for the "Portrait of an Unknown Man." A homely example of 17th century Spanish paintings is the Seville "Holy Family in the Carpenter Shop." Completing the list of paintings are a Rembrandt, "Portrait of Titus," which brings to four the Detroit museum's collection of works by the 17th century Dutch masters; and two 18th century French works, "Portrait of Marie Antoinette" by Mme. Vigee-Lebrun and "The Goddess Minerva" by Fragonard.
The second piece of sculpture is a marble "Head of a Boy" from Rome, first century B.C.
Among the many other gifts which will be marked in their respective galleries are such works as the Italian masterpiece, "Mystic Marriage of St. Catherine" by Correggio, which was the first Whitcomb gift, made in 1926, a portrait of Madame Henriette de France by Nattier, a marble bust of Benjamin Franklin by Caffieri, a stone statue of the Virgin and Child from Burgundy, about 1410, and the well-known "View of Delft" by Jan van der Heyden.
A profusely illustrated catalogue of the exhibition has been prepared by Edgar P. Richardson, Institute Director, to commemorate the noble series of benefactions which is one of the greatest received by any American museum. With extensive comment on the art works, 60 illustrations, six of them in full color and a total of 136 pages, it is expected to be one of the Institute's most important publications.
The Whitcomb gifts of paint-

Donald Leonard To Give Talk

My recipe for SPICY RAISIN TORTE ... always successful in my ELECTRIC RANGE

Energetic Mrs. Harry R. Smith crowds civic projects, selling real estate, club activities and home-making into her busy life. And she thrives on it. She loves to entertain, too. When friends call she often serves this Spicy Torte. It's delicious... and so simple to make with the help of her dependable electric range.

It's easy to be a good cook with the help of a modern electric range. There's no guesswork, watching or waiting—you simply snap a switch for the exact heat needed for every cooking job. Why wait? Change to electric cooking now.

SPICY RAISIN TORTE
1 cup brown sugar 1 cup sifted pastry flour
1 1/2 cups hot water 1/2 tsp. soda
2 tbsps. shortening 1/2 tsp. salt
1 cup raisins or dates 1 cup quick-cooking oats
1/2 tsp. cloves 1/2 cup chopped nuts
1/2 tsp. nutmeg

Combine sugar, water, shortening, raisins and spices. Boil 5 minutes. Cool. Sift flour, soda, salt, and add to cool mixture. Fold in rolled oats and nut meats. Bake in an 8 x 8 greased pan at 350°F. for 35-45 minutes. Serve warm with whipped cream or ice cream. May be reheated.

Auxiliary Plans Easter Parade

"The Easter Parade" is title of the Spring and Summer fashion show being presented next Wednesday at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club by the Detroit Memorial Hospital Auxiliary.

Members of the auxiliary as well as professional models will march in the fashion promenade which follows luncheon.

Mrs. Eugene F. McCafferty, president of the Auxiliary, has appointed Mrs. Harold F. Jarvis as chairman for the party. She is assisted by Mrs. George Peggs as co-chairman.

Committee members include: Mrs. James F. Lofstrom, in charge of decorations; Mrs. Paul M. Truba, tickets and reservations; Mrs. Jacob Wenzel, Mrs. Edward Eldredge and Mrs. Richard Kuhn.

Members of the reception committee are to be Mrs. Karl Weber, Mrs. Vincent Turcotte, Mrs. M. V. Vokes, Mrs. Robert Reutenback, Mrs. William Henderson and Mrs. Alfred Hillenbrand.

Party proceeds will be used to continue the auxiliary's project of re-furnishing the hospital rooms and pediatric beds. Last year the group completed three nurseries in the new Stair Memorial Maternity Pavilion at the hospital. Donated also at that time were tray set-ups (china, silverware, etc.) for each patient in the new obstetrical department.

Among those who have made reservations for the Easter Parade luncheon and fashion show are Mrs. George Baer, Mrs. Lambert Rahm, Mrs. Elmer C. Texter, Mrs. Elwood Jenkins, Mrs. William Coppings.

To Play Bridge At Boat Club
The Women's Bridge Luncheon at the Detroit Boat Club on April 21 will be called "Hatter's Hey Day."
As the members and their guests enter the club, the latest in hats emerging from their boxes can be seen on the large oval table in the lobby. Pink azaleas will add just the right color to this arrangement.
Miniature hats will decorate each of the individual luncheon tables and pink azaleas will decorate the ballroom.
Mrs. Robert G. Waylett is chairman of this party and assisting her are Mrs. Horace T. Brettelle, Mrs. K. Eugene Staley, Mrs. Henry W. Grilkscheit, and Mrs. Cornelius L. T. Gabler.
CAN'T BE BOUGHT
Money will buy many things—but it still won't buy the still small voice of conscience.

The Center...Heart of all the Pointes!

The Annual Drive for

The Grosse Pointe Memorial is delightfully situated at 32 Lake Shore Road and extends to Lake St. Clair. The building is large, extremely beautiful and wholly substantial. The gardens are outstanding, as are its walks and drives. Know your community . . . know its Memorial Center.

Grosse Pointe Memorial Center

Begins today...

This is the annual drive for funds with which to operate the Memorial . . . now so definitely the civic center of all the Pointes. It serves half a hundred civic groups and you and your friends. About 60,000 people in all were served by the Memorial in some manner or other during the year just closed. Today's mail brings you a pledge blank and a return self-addressed-postage-free envelope. Please use them promptly so that the drive may be conducted with the least possible expense and without delay. Give generously!

This is your community; it is your Memorial Center!

Drive Dates . . . April 15th to May 30th, 1954

NOTE: If you wish a committee worker to call and give you complete information about the Center, whom it serves, its activities, etc., please telephone TUxedo 1-6030.

HOMER C. FRITSCH (left), Mayor of Grosse Pointe Park and executive vice-president of Parke, Davis & Company, congratulates A. L. RAWLINS, director of products development, who was awarded a gold watch for 25 years' service to the pharmaceutical firm. The presentation was made at the third annual Service Awards banquet at which 55 other Parke-Davis employees in the home office and laboratories were given similar honors. A native of Quincy, Ill., Rawlins was graduated from Ohio State University in 1926 and received a M.Sc. degree there the following year. He joined Parke-Davis in March, 1928, as a senior research chemist. He was promoted to assistant director of products development in 1945; associate director of products development in 1947; and director of products development in 1952. Rawlins lives at 939 Roslyn road.

Meeting Planned By Garden Club

The Pointe Garden Club will hold a meeting April 19 at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford, 279 Hillcrest road, Grosse Pointe. C. W. Young, of the Monsanto Chemical Company, will speak on "Krilium."

Mrs. Sanford will be assisted by Mrs. Kenneth R. Beardslee, Mrs. R. Gervays Grylls and Mrs. Philip K. Watson. Members will bring articles to contribute to the White Elephant Booth at the Grosse Pointe Garden Center Fair.

Pointer to Wed Girl From Ohio

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin G. Robertson of Springfield, Ohio, announce the engagement of their daughter, Caroline, to Leet Edward Denton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leet N. Denton of Oxford road.

Miss Robertson was graduated from Kingswood School, Bloomfield Hills, and will be graduated this June from Connecticut College, New London, Conn.

Mr. Denton was graduated from Detroit University School, and attended Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute in Troy, N. Y. He will receive his degree in March, 1955, from Babson Institute, Wellesley, Mass. A wedding in mid-August is planned.

Alpha Phi Party For Cardiac Aid

The Grosse Pointe Chapter of Alpha Phi are preparing plans for its annual May Bridge Tea

Party which will be held at the War Memorial Center on Thursday, April 29, at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. H. Robert Rothbun, chairman of the affair, stated that tulips will be used in profusion around the rooms.

In charge of serving desserts and coffee will be Mrs. John Ball, chairman of the decoration committee will be Mrs. Allan Neef; the wrapping committee will be headed by Mrs. Alfred Entenman and the finances will be handled by Mrs. S. Pardee.

Early reservations include those of Mrs. Allan Neef, Mrs. James Quello, Mrs. Stuart Fraser, Mrs. J. Nixon, Mrs. S. Pardee, Mrs. W. Schwartz, Mrs. Joseph O. Reed and Mrs. Joseph Oeming.

Proceeds from the affair will go towards Cardiac Aid, a national Alpha Phi program, to help fight all types of heart conditions.

Heart ailments claim more deaths than cancer. Predictions for 1954 is that 880,000 persons will die of heart trouble, while cancer will kill about 220,000.

Usually the vaccine is combined with diphtheria toxoid and tetanus toxoid for protection against three diseases.

Unlike cancer or tuberculosis, heart ailments can come without warning. They cannot be detected or predicted.

More Whoopers

Whooping cough is on the increase in Michigan. Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, reports, in advising vaccination for all children under five years of age.

The commissioner said that 96 cases of whooping cough had been reported in the past week and 1,000 cases had been reported so far this year. This is almost triple the 389 cases reported in the same period last year and more than double the 540 cases reported in the same period in 1952.

Whooping cough, which often has serious complications, particularly in babies, can be prevented by immunization, which the state health department recommends should be started when the baby is three months old. A booster dose is advised at 2 to 3 years of age.

Whooping cough is most serious in children under five years old, and most deaths from the disease occur among babies under six months old.

The commissioner urges parents of all youngsters under five years of age to make sure their children are protected against this disease.

The Michigan Department of Health has manufactured and distributed whooping cough vaccine to physicians since 1940.

Fifteen Pointe Students Pursue Higher Education at Harvard U.

Fourteen men and one woman from Grosse Pointe are preparing at Harvard University for careers in a variety of professions. They look forward to service in law, medicine, business, education, architecture and scholarship.
 Most of the Grosse Pointe students are doing professional study in graduate schools. A half dozen are attending Harvard College, the undergraduate portion of the university.
 There Gordon P. Bugbee, 19, of 98 Beacon Hill, is studying the architecture sciences. A graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, Bugbee thinks he may very likely practice architecture in Michigan, though he does not regard this as a firm commitment.
 David Gillis, Jr., 19, of 114 Meadow Lane, is in his freshman year and not yet quite sure what he will study as his major field. He has been active on the military rifle team, climbed with the Mountaineering Club, and worked with the Dramatic Club. Along with college, he is taking care of his military commitment by service in a Field Artillery unit of the Active Army Reserves.
 Maurice L. Strong, Jr., 21, of 1261 Beaconsfield, is concentrating in Latin American History and thinks in terms of going on to do graduate work. He anticipates an interim hitch in the Army, however. A graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, Strong is engaged to Miss Nancy Eriksen, also of Grosse Pointe.
 The Grosse Pointe contingent includes a brother team. Bruce J. Terris, 20, is in his last year at the college and his brother David, 18, has just started. Both live at 900 Lincoln Road and attended Grosse Pointe High School. Bruce was one of 16 seniors to be elected this fall to the Harvard chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, the academic honor society. He is currently working on a thesis about Charles Beard, the historian, which he is submitting for a degree with honors. Terris will attend the Harvard Law School next year and plans to practice law in New York.
 David tentatively intends to major in Social Relations and has been playing on the Freshman Tennis team.
 Erville B. Maynard of 1 Christ Church Lane is in his third year at the college.
 Three Grosse Pointe men are studying at the Harvard Law School. Donald Finnie, 28, of 879 Ellair place, went there via Princeton University, where he did his undergraduate work. He served several years in the armed services and also got in a spell of teaching at Milton Academy in Massachusetts before turning to legal work.
 George T. Rounell, Jr., of 708 Lakepointe, is in his last year at Law School. He was elected secretary of his permanent class committee, a lifetime office, in March. In addition to receiving this honor from his classmates, Rounell has also served as president of the Student Legislative Research Bureau.
 Charles H. Symington, Jr., is in his first year at the Law School, having graduated from Williams College.
 The lone woman representative is Mary S. Livingston, of 806 Lincoln Road. Miss Livingston graduated from Wellesley College last year and is now doing graduate work at the Harvard Graduate School of Education. She is studying in a one year program to train elementary school teachers.
 Mortimer H. Chambers, 27, of 409 Notre Dame Road is in his second year at the Harvard Graduate School of Arts and Sciences where he is preparing for his Ph. D. in ancient languages. He will be teaching next year and while he has several jobs pending,

Republican Club To Hear Thomas

Jerome G. Thomas, well-known Detroit merchandise broker, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Women's Republican Club of Grosse Pointe, it was announced by Mrs. Vera B. Batts, chairman of the committee on speakers.
 The meeting will be held in the War Memorial Center on Monday, April 26. Mr. Thomas will speak about "The Economic Primer."

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

Mrs. Jewett Dwyer is just home from a fortnight's visit with former Pointers, U.S. Ambassador to Cuba, Arthur Gardner and Mrs. Gardner . . . with tales that send her listeners' dreams soaring in two directions . . . either to become an ambassador or to visit at an embassy residence . . . The Gardners occupy a magnificent residence in Havana, built by the United States in 1941 for its Cuban ambassadors . . . It was a bit on the all-furniture side till the artistic "Suzie" Gardner took over . . . transporting the living room from her own Palm Beach home practically en toto . . . Now the great living room is an enchanting scene of pale gray greens with complementing chintzes that are spiced with a yellow accent . . . there's a magnificent off-white carpet . . . and in the living room Mrs. Gardner uses only Vandal roses, in great profusion . . . these are flown to her from a Palm Beach florist . . . They are much like talisman roses . . . and are perfection with the color scheme . . .

The Proud Eagle

Mrs. Dwyer tells that there is sincere affection for the Gardners in Cuba . . . You can feel how liked the former Pointers are . . . and the sometimes polite compliment heard in at diplomatic dinner parties is missing . . . The Gardners are as unappreciated hosts in Havana (Mrs. Gardner ready to play canasta right after breakfast which is protocol in Cuban society) as they were in Grosse Pointe, Washington and Palm Beach . . . Particularly were the Cubans impressed when the Ambassador resurrected a bronze eagle which had been given a former diplomat . . . The eagle fell in a hurricane and was relegated to the embassy garage where the present Ambassador found it, collecting dust . . . In his own gracious way, he had a stone pedestal made for the eagle, had it cleaned and polished, its wing spread clipped to make it less a wind hazard and now, entering the embassy residence and looking down the marble hall, past the terraces into the terrace gardens, the focal point is the bronze eagle in a setting of a circular hedge of clipped hibiscus. At night floodlights bring the proud bird into relief and the Cubans are ecstatic.

The Duke of Windsor

The embassy library was another favorite spot for Mrs. Dwyer. Here there is a really white rug and the room is paneled in rich dark mahogany . . . White draperies printed in brownish red figures are at the deep windows . . . and portraits of Mrs. Gardner's family were removed from their Washington home to the embassy residence . . . It isn't any wonder Mrs. Dwyer could scarcely remember much about the state dining room (set up at all times for 48 guests) for here the guests outshine even the beautiful old Sheraton furniture . . . The evening she arrived in Havana the Duke of Windsor was one of the dinner guests . . . a far younger looking, handsome Duke of Windsor than you'd ever guess from merciless newspaper pictures . . . He had arrived with friends for the Calcutta Golf Tournament at the Havana Golf Club . . . All the charm of the young Prince of Wales comes back when Mrs. Dwyer describes the fun that evening . . . the Duke's boyish charm as he joined guests around the piano to sing current American popular tunes . . .

Life in Havana

The next evening there was a state dinner for the President of Cuba, Major General Fulgencio Batista y Zalvidar and Madame Batista . . . who proved to be charmers . . . All of the Gardners' hours are not filled with formal, state occasions however . . . There are many evenings devoted to

Short and to the Pointe

Just back from a fortnight of island hopping (St. Croix, St. Thomas and San Juan), THE OTIS U. WALKERS, of Balfour road, are about to take off again. This time they will fly to Beverly Hills, Calif., to be the guests of Mrs. Walker's sister, MRS. HELEN PEEZ. In between the two trips, Mrs. Walker, as president of the Detroit Branch of the Needlework Guild, and MRS. JAMES OGDEN, attended the convention of the Needlework Guild of America, held last week in Charlotte, N.C. On the Virgin Island trip, the Walkers were accompanied by their daughters, PAULA and ROSEMARY and the latter's classmate at Grosse Pointe Country Day, JUDY COPE.

MR. and MRS. MINOT EATON, of Provençal road, will pay an April visit to Fair Haven, Mass., where they will be the guests of his parents, MR. and MRS. CLARENCE W. EATON.

MARtha SATTLEY, daughter of MR. and MRS. HALE V. SATTLEY, of Vendome road, spent Spring vacation from her Dobbs Ferry studios with her classmate WENDY BELL, daughter of MR. and MRS. SAMUEL H. BELL at their home in Chandler, Ariz.

Also visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bell is the latter's mother, MRS. FREDERICK CLIFFORD FORD who will return to her Bishop road home after Easter.

JOAN MERRILL, daughter of the H. W. Merrills of Stanton lane, was one of 20 women in the Junior Class tapped for Mortar Board at the University of Michigan last week. Initiation will be held following Spring vacation. Juniors are chosen on the basis of scholarship, character, school activities and leadership.

MISS LOIS ANN MURPHY, a sophomore at Manhattanville College Purchase, New York, arrived on Wednesday, April 14, to spend the Easter vacation with her parents, MR. and MRS. REGINALD T. MURPHY of Balfour road.

Mrs. Murphy will accompany her daughter when she returns to college and spend several weeks as the guest of MR. and MRS. CARL E. SISK (MARION MURPHY) in White Plains and her small granddaughters, KAREN and KATHY. The family is motoring to Fort Lauderdale for a few weeks' vacation at the end of the month.

A quartet of sun tanned beauties dropped down at Willow Run last week to be met by MR. and MRS. WILLIAM H. BUNDESEN

MR. and MRS. GEORGE H. PRIMEAU, of Handy road (LOUISE ELIZABETH MACK), have announced the birth of a daughter, JULIETTE LOUISE PRIMEAU, born April 5.

MR. and MRS. EDWIN R. STROH, JR., of Merriweather road, have returned from an early Spring vacation in Florida.

Mlle. NICOLE ODELIN, of Lille, France, who is studying at Duchesne Residence School in New York City, has been the houseguest of MR. and MRS. DAVID C. GILLIS, of Meadow lane, and their son, DAVID C. GILLIS, JR., vacationing from his freshman studies at Harvard.

MRS. HORACE C. FORD, of Lee Gate, will be a bridesmaid in the April 24 wedding of BETTY YAW, daughter of MR. and MRS. WILLIAM R. YAW of Wabek Farms, Bloomfield Hills, and LIÉUT. ROGER KIRK, USAF. The ceremony will take place in St. Hugo of the Hills, Bloomfield, followed by a reception at the Yaw home.

MR. and MRS. FREDERICK S. FORD will be in their Lewiston road home in time for Easter in the Pointe. They have been in Fiesta Key this Winter and their recent houseguests were their son and daughter-in-law, MR. and MRS. FREDERICK S. FORD, JR., of Renuad road.

MR. and MRS. JOSEPH E. BAYNE are back in their Touraine road home following six weeks' travel in Europe.

MR. and MRS. DAVID A. WALLACE, of Lewiston road, have returned from two months at Delray Beach. Their niece, SUE JOHNSTON, wintered with them and houseguest for a nice long stay was the former Betty Lou Givens, MRS. LEIGH B. MIDDLEDITCH, JR., of Norfolk, Va.

Leaving for a New York Easter were MR. and MRS. WILLIAM BOESCHENSTEIN, of McMillan road. They hope to see their friend, LYDIA BUHL, while they're in Manhattan. Miss Buhl is leaving May 24 for travel in Europe.

There's an April 30 sailing date for MR. and MRS. GEORGE P. RICHARDSON, of Rivard boulevard, who plan a European holiday.

Last week-end found MR. and MRS. JOHN W. MULFORD, of Provençal road, with their daughter, MARY ANDREA, in Chagrin Falls, O., where they were the guests of MR. and MRS. STERLING E. GRAHAM. Mary Andree will be married June 12 to the Graham's son, STERLING E. GRAHAM, JR.

MRS. VELDEY WICKHAM, of Harcourt road, has returned from eight months in Hawaii.

MRS. WILLIAM E. HUTTON II, of Westchester, Long Island, was the week-end guest of her mother, MRS. ROY D. CHAPIN of Lake Shore road. Also visiting Mrs. Chapin were her son and daughter-in-law, MR. and MRS. DAN CHAPIN of Chicago.

MR. and MRS. ROBERT BARIT of Birmingham (GAYNOR JONES of Grosse Pointe), have announced the birth of a daughter, KIRBY BARIT, born March 26.

MR. and MRS. INGERSOLL ARNOLD and their little daughter, MISSY, of Dowagiac, will be the guests this week-end of MR. and MRS. JOHN J. NEWCOMB of Notre Dame avenue. This Saturday, the Newcombs have invited a few friends to meet their visitors.

It's a pretty annual affair, a Winter holiday in Nassau, for MR. and MRS. HERBERT B. TRIX who've just returned to their home in East Jefferson ave-ue. They spent five weeks in Nassau this year.

PAM SATTLEY, post debut daughter of MR. and MRS. HALE V. SATTLEY of Vendome road, has been spending her Spring vacation from University of Michigan studies with her parents.

After a month at Lido Beach, Fla., MR. and MRS. DANIEL R. SIMMONS, JR., have returned to their Touraine road home.

MR. and MRS. FRED OLLISON, JR., of Cloverly road, with daughter, JUDY, and sons, FRED and BOB, have returned from a stay at Camelback Inn in Phoenix, Ariz.

Pointers will be interested in the announcement of the birth of a daughter, WENDY PALMS SHURLY, born April 5 to MR. and MRS. EDMUND R. SHURLY of Grosse Ile. Mrs. Shurly was MARY PINKERTON.

BETSY and ROSEMARY CHESBOROUGH, daughters of MR. and MRS. W. J. CHESBOROUGH of Yorkshire road have just returned to college. Betsy is in her second year at Connecticut College for Women in New Haven, Conn., and Rosemary is attending Wheaton College in Norton, Mass.

MR. and MRS. BUD SAVAGE of Balfour road, announce the birth of a daughter, KAREN ANN, their first child, on April 3, in Cottage Hospital. Mrs. Savage is the former JEAN ALLARDYCE of Alter road.

MISS RUTH L. WOODRUFF, daughter of MR. and MRS. K. R. WOODRUFF, of Maumee, is among several of the Western Michigan College students who will have their paintings on exhibit at the college. The show is put on so that the students may show their creative handiwork of the past year. The exhibit will last for the remainder of this month.

Sharon Ericson Sets May 22 Nuptial Date

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ericson to Speak Vows to Thomas Chappell at Ceremony in St. James Lutheran Church; Reception at Detroit Athletic Club

A May 22 wedding date has been chosen by Sharon Ericson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Ericson, of Washington road, and Thomas Chappell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas T. Chappell of St. Clair avenue. They will speak their vows at a two o'clock in the afternoon ceremony in St. James Lutheran Church following which Mr. and Mrs. Ericson will entertain wedding guests at a reception in the Detroit Athletic Club.

Mrs. Carl Fiszchel will be Sharon's matron of honor and the bridesmaids are to be Jobel Tyson and Jane Allen.

Tom has asked his brother, Edward Roech to be his best man and seating the guests will be Thomas Ingram and James Convooy.

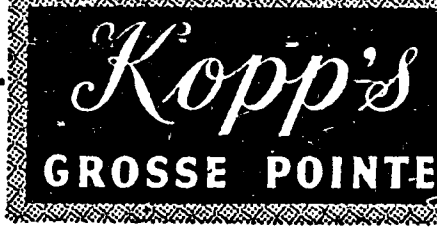

One of the many parties feted the bride-elect was given last Saturday by Mrs. George A. Triplett, Mrs. Frank Cannon and Carolyn Cannon at the Triplett home in Cadieux road.

It was a tea and china and miscellaneous shower. Guests were fascinated by a bridal "mobile" (a very modern affair with bells and bride) used in the decor and the tea table was done with yellow Spring flowers.

The guest list included the mothers of the bride-elect and bridegroom-elect; Jane Allen, Jobel Tyson, Barbara Greenlee, Barbara Brewer, Mrs. William C. Seed, Mrs. A. S. Voorhees, Mrs. Arthur Underwood, Mrs. Kenneth Kimmel, Mrs. Richard Helm, Mrs. Carter Laitner, Mrs. Edward Laitner, Mrs. James Convooy, Mrs. Edward Roech and Mrs. Ralph Richardson. Among parties already given Galleries.

Hunt Club Members Attend Sea Food Gala

Ocean Delicacies Flown From Atlantic Seaboard to Tempt Members of Grosse Pointe Hunt Club at Smart Dinner and Dance; Mary Mulford Does Party Murals

When Grosse Pointe Hunt Club puts on one of its sea food parties even the wild waves talk about it. There must be a noticeable shortage of sea food on the Eastern coast of this great land following such a fete, too.

Last Saturday morning plans started arriving with lobsters from Maine, clams and oysters from the elegant beds of the Atlantic. We're not sure where the octopi came from, but we have learned there are Hunt Club members who are enthusiasts for this fare.

The dining room of the Hunt Club was done up in sea shore costume for the gala evening. On the walls there were a dozen murals dreamed up by bride-elect Mary Andrea Mulford. They were witty and colorful and as significant to a Hunt Club sea food party as the Queen's flag flying over Buckingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian G. McIntosh arrived early with their guests including Mr. and Mrs. David Marentette, Mr. and Mrs. Ray M. Whyte, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Olson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Forster Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Bert Hart and Mr. and Mrs. David Marentette.

They traveled a delicious tour past life savers and ship bumpers (authentic fish nets gave atmosphere to the dining room) to the Oyster Bar (Casino, Rockefeller and nature); to the New England Clam wharf for steamed beauties or on the half shell; to the shrimp boat where the succulent pink circlets were in cocktails, French fried and done Creole style.

AAUW to Study British System

An overview of the British educational system, and British parties and procedures, will be the subjects of discussion at the next meeting of the Social Studies Group of Grosse Pointe A.A.U.W., to be held at the McKinley avenue home of Mr. L. H. Orsbaugh on Tuesday evening, April 20, at 7:45 o'clock.

The speakers, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cook, both teachers in Grosse Pointe, studied at the University of London in 1952-53. Mrs. Cook, a holder of a Fulbright scholarship, is teaching at Pierce Junior High School, and Mr. Cook is at Senior High.

The Fine Arts Group will continue a follow-up on plans for the formation of a Creative Writing Group, when the members meet on Wednesday, April 21, at 1:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Robert Clarke, 489 Fisher road.

On Thursday, April 22, the International Relations Group will meet for luncheon at 1 p.m. in the home of Mrs. George Waldbott. Mrs. R. W. Cunningham and Mrs. Ralph Steffek will speak on "An Optimistic View of Our World Today." Assisting Mrs. Waldbott will be Mrs. Hubert Goebel and Mrs. Harvey Wagner.

A.A.U.W. State and Regional Conference will be held Friday and Saturday, April 23 and 24 at Indianapolis, and delegates who will be attending from Grosse Pointe are Mrs. Harry Turrell, Mrs. John Pear and Mrs. James Morrison.

Southeastern Woman's Club to Pick Officers

Southeastern Woman's Club will hold its annual meeting at St. Mark's Methodist Church on Monday, April 19, at 1:30 p.m.

There will be annual reports and election of officers. The slate for the coming year is as follows: president, Mrs. Stewart McIntosh; 1st vice-president, Mrs. Charles Seelye; 2nd vice-president, Mrs. George B. Morse; Recording Secretary, Mrs. Jesse Cloud; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Murray Smith; Financial Secretary, Mrs. Claude Jurgensen; Treasurer, Mrs. Otto Newman.

Federation Delegates: Mrs. Roland J. Gilbert; Mrs. Ray Braden; Mrs. Jesse B. Cunningham.

Easter Parade to Lead To Miss America Home

The Easter Parade is expected to lead directly to the Miss American Home where milady, atired in her latest finery, may see the latest in living comfort.

The "easy living" Miss America Home at 16865 East Eight Mile road at Cushing (three blocks west of Kelly road), will be open to the public Saturday and Sunday from 10 a.m. until 10 p.m. It is open from 1 p.m. until 9 p.m. daily through April 28, when the project will be completed.

The Fontbonne Auxiliary and the St. John Hospital Guild, sponsors of the Miss America Home to benefit St. John Hospital, will meet at the Hospital Tuesday night, April 20, to complete plans for the culmination of their efforts on April 28.

One of the climatic features will be a smorgasbord at the Knights of Columbus Hall, 15370 Toepfer (near Gratiot between 8 and 9 mile roads), on April 28 between 5 and 9 p.m.

The Fontbonne Auxiliary has arranged for a continuous entertainment program of more than an hour during the smorgasbord.

Leading radio and TV entertainers will take part in the program. A donation of $1.50 for adults and 60 cents for children will entitle the donor to both the smorgasbord and the entertainment.

Awarding the prize Miss America Home will be the highlights of the program. Admission to the home is free.

Legion Post 303 Auxiliary Cited For Work for Cancer Patients

The Grosse Pointe Unit of the American Cancer Society was organized last October as one of the service programs sponsored by the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, and the public was invited to participate in the activities of the group whose aim is education and service to this area.

The Information and Service Center is in operation each Monday from 10 to 3. Educational programs of movie films and either professional or lay speakers are available to organized adult groups who are invited to join in the crusade against cancer. Clean white sheets and other salvage material are always needed and may be deposited at the Center.

Sick room equipment provided by an organized women's group is available from a loan closet. Cancer dressings are sewn in the workshop each Monday. All organized groups in this area who formerly had to go to the Detroit Cancer Center at John R. and Hancock for materials and return completed dressings, now come to Memorial Center and thereby save many hours of travel which can be utilized for sewing.

An inventory of dressings is maintained by the Center for free distribution to all patients in Grosse Pointe and excess is channeled to the Detroit Center. More than one million dressings were dispensed last year in the Detroit area. That is 8 per cent of the output of the entire United States.

Many sewing groups which are maintained by churches, clubs, sororities, alumnae and others disband for the summer or other seasonal demands so that the supply always drops off in the summer months. To that end it is planned, if possible, to put away a backlog for the constant demand when the supply is light. At the present time there is so little completed work being received that a backlog is not possible.

The American Legion Auxiliary Post 303 responded to the call for help immediately and without its constant and sincere purpose it would not have been possible to continue, because there were weeks when only three or four women reported for help.

Present production would produce only about 30,000 dressings a year.

Mrs. Nell Baldwin, service chairman for 303 arrived on the first day and either she or her co-chairman, Mrs. Hazel Allen, has been there every week. A number of their members saw at Center as well as in their own homes. Under the direction of Mrs. Baldwin about one third of all work done in this area is done by the Auxiliary.

In recognition of this inspirational job a citation from the president of American Cancer Society, Southeastern Michigan, Earl Anderson, was presented to Mrs. Baldwin, representing her Auxiliary of 303, by Mrs. William G. Power, chairman of the Grosse Pointe Unit, at a regular meeting of the Auxiliary at Memorial Center.

Send White Elephants To Fair on The Green

Pointers Urged to Take Small, Unwanted Articles to Home Of Mrs. Elmer A. Clark, 193 Grosse Pointe Boulevard; Will Be Sold At Garden Center's Fair June 3

White elephants are on the march again here in Grosse Pointe. Their paths lead directly to 193 Grosse Pointe boulevard, the home of Mrs. Elmer A. Clark, who will store them until June 3, and Grosse Pointe Garden Center's big Fair on The Green.

The Fair on the Green will be held on the grounds of War Memorial Center and its proceeds will help finance the free-of-charge information bureau for all gardeners maintained by Garden Center as well as many other community services.

All Pointe garden club members will contribute white elephants for the fair and friends of the Garden Center can help by donating unwanted table top articles, flower containers, costume jewelry, old books, records, musical instruments. The "small" white elephant is the most desirable for this particular fair booth.

Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell is general chairman for the June fair. Eleven Grosse Pointe Garden Clubs will man booths for the fair and that makes a total of 654 Pointe gardeners taking an active part.

The garden clubs and liaison officers for the Fair on the Green are:

Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club, Mrs. Hugh Stalker; Garden Club of Michigan, Mrs. Hal H. Smith, Jr., Mrs. Richard W. Weber and Mrs. Emory Moran Ford; Pointe Garden Club, Mrs. Remington J. Purdy; Grosse Pointe Women's Club, Mrs. W. W. Arnold; Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club, Mrs. C. R. Pollard; Grosse Pointe Shores Garden Club, Mrs. James C. Cope; Junior League Garden Club, Mrs. James Brock; Village Garden Club, Mrs. Philip C. Baker; and the Windmill Pointe Garden Club, Mrs. James Ogden.

Meetings are going on every week as garden clubs plan their booths. The day of the Fair, a buffet luncheon will be served on the terrace of the beautiful War Memorial Building and guests will lunch at gaily umbrella-ed tables situated on the lawn overlooking Lake St. Clair.

Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell met with various garden club representatives at an 11 o'clock meeting last week in War Memorial Center. Following the business meeting, Mrs. Campbell will hostess at luncheon for the workers.

Present were Mrs. Wood Williams, president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center; Mrs. Percival Dodge, Mrs. George Lackey, Mrs. Arthur E. Fleming, Mrs. Remington J. Purdy, Mrs. W. W. Arnold, Mrs. C. R. Pollard, Mrs. Clarence E. Maguire, Mrs. Philip C. Baker, Mrs. David C. Lowe, Mrs. Robert W. Conder.

Mrs. Wood Williams presided at the April board meeting of Garden Center when again Fair on The Green was chief topic of discussion.

Attending the board meeting were Mrs. Alfred D. LaFerte, Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, Jr., Mrs. Frederick W. Campbell, Mrs. Harold G. Bailey, Mrs. Arthur Fleming, Mrs. Charles Beecher Crouse, Mrs. Harley G. Higbie, Mrs. Percival Dodge, Mrs. Alexander W. Blain, Miss Marie Louls Anderson, Mrs. Eugene P. Hawkins and Mrs. Robert W. Conder.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

New Auxiliary Aids Hospital

The Women's Auxiliary of Cottage Hospital held its first business meeting last Thursday, April 13, at 10 a.m. in the Nurses' Residence of Cottage Hospital. The members were delighted to have such a grand turnout and so much enthusiasm and interest shown in the Auxiliary.

The main purpose of the meeting was to discuss the forthcoming "Bring & Buy Benefit" that the Auxiliary will hold on May 7 at the Nurses' Residence from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. This is the first fund-raising event and much preparation is being made to insure its success.

Chairman of the benefit is Mrs. Milton Rueger, with Mrs. Ralph Lee Fisher as co-chairman. The money raised from the benefit is to go towards the purchase of an Islette for Cottage Hospital nursery.

A mid-morning snack was served to all members by the newly-organized Bookart Guild. Pouring at the coffee table were Mrs. Carl Grawn, new president of the Board of Trustees of Cottage Hospital, and Mrs. William Heyd, vice-president of the auxiliary.

Eastside Neighbors' Club To Meet in Center Apr. 21

The Eastside Neighbors Club will have a luncheon and meeting Wednesday, April 21, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial.

Highlight of the afternoon will be a demonstration of cake decoration. After the demonstration the group will play bridge.

Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Lincoln Ward and Mrs. Glen Jaekle. For reservations call TU. 2-2966.

Fortnighters Plan Dinner Frolic

Going over plans with REV. PAUL KETCHUM of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church are Fortnighter committee members who are sponsoring the fourth annual dinner frolic. Shown left to right, seated, are: MR. and MRS. PAUL KELLEY, chairman for the dinner; and REV. KETCHUM. Standing are: MRS. RUSSELL VANCE, MRS. THEODORE POTTER and MRS. ALLAN NEEF.

The Fortnighters, young adult group of the church, are hard at work selling tickets for the dinner frolic which takes place on Friday, April 30. A play, "Oriental Intrigue," or "Who Stole the Bag in Bagdad" will follow the dinner, which will be served at 6:30 p.m.

Featured in the cast will be Allen Freiwald as Omar, another tentmaker; Sterling Berry, as Ahmed Eez, a local rug merchant; Dave Coolidge as another merchant; Allen Neef as the assistant. The auctioneer will be Paul Kelley and the dancer will be Mrs. Wilbur Brucker, Jr.

The crooks will be Jack Scott and Don West. Also featured will be the Grunions, and a male chorus line. Wallace Ehrlich is the author and director of the play, and Mrs. Ehrlich heads the stage decorating committee. Costumes will be made by Joan Ruby, and Everett Bott will be in charge of properties.

Paul Kelley is president of the group. He is being assisted by the following members: publicity, Mrs. Allan Neef, Mrs. David Coolidge, and Mrs. Theodore Potter; dining room, Mrs. Paul Kelley and Mrs. Robert Knell; kitchen, Mrs. Arlington Leckilder, Mrs. Hurst Montee, and Mrs. S. L. Shenefeld; dining room decorations, Ted Potter and Anne Macadow; finance committee, Don West; tickets, Robert Knell; flower sales, Jacqueline Hirt.

The party is open to the public and is to be a family affair. Proceeds will benefit the Dodge Community House for underprivileged children.

Reservations for the evening may be made by calling the church office, TUxedo 5-3773. Tickets are $1.75 for adults, and $1.25 for children.

To Give Musical Comedy At St. Columba Church "The Old Fashioned Girl," a musical comedy, will be presented by the Ellen Ramsey Players of St. Columba Episcopal Church on the nights of April 22 and 23, in the St. Columba Parish house, E. Jefferson at Manistique.

This will be their fifth production, directed by Mrs. Otey R. Berkeley. The time is in the Gay Nineties and the colorful costumes are in the style of that period.

The principal members of the cast are: Mrs. Fairfax (Ann Beatle), and her daughter, Dolly Fairfax, (Marie Eldon), who is in love with the handsome hardware salesman, Gilbert Hunter, (Sally Mackintosh).

Boat Club Plans Party for Kids

Children of Detroit Boat Club members are looking forward to the Club's Annual Easter Party on April 18. The exciting Easter Egg Hunt will be led by a giant white bunny and prizes will be given the champion egg finders.

Mrs. Ellsworth W. Allison is chairman of the party and assisting her are Mrs. Lawrence C. Pace, Mrs. Robert H. McKnight and Mrs. William R. Evans.

Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae Plan Cooperative Dinner

On Wednesday, April 21, members of Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae will meet at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Everett Roll of Kenwood court.

They will participate in a cooperative dinner and election of officers for the coming year. Mrs. K. E. Koppitz of Courville avenue is planning the dinner. Mrs. Joseph Ureel of McKinney avenue will take reservations.

We just know you're not a dumb bunny... but a bright one. Well, bright, bunnies don't put all their money in one beautiful basket. B. B.'s hippity hop to many spots for brilliant ideas. So here's a thought. Have your camera checked and get all the instructions you need to take pictures on Easter Sunday. Cheerfully they enlighten you, solve all your picture taking problems at the Camera Center, in the village. Pick up your camera supplies this week-end, too.

This is the tale of a shirt. But who wants to bear the story of the SAME old shirt? This is different and dramatic. It's told in pale blue pima cloth done with the same trim collar and easy to button front. BUT herein lies the difference. The belt is not of the same cloth... but soft, soft, leather. And through the rings of the belt is a sheer red chiffon kerchief. On the pocket is your own monogram to match. Sueds in four-four time, too. An unusual Shirt-Tail Dress? Dreamed up by the ingenious Margaret Rice... the gal who knows how to mix, match, and monogram. 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Easter is candy. Take a look... they're gaily wrapped... take a bite... ummm... just what you'd expect to find at Trill's. There is FRESH homemade candies... like coconut half dips... chocolate chap... caramel turtles. And if you love white chocolate made from the oil of the coconut you'll want a box for Easter. Trill's Pharmacy, on the hill... or call TU. 1-5888 for early delivery.

Easter is a gift. Are you still searching for an Easter Remembrance for someone very dear to you? If so, we think we've found something that would bring joy to any heart... the mustard seed remembrances in lapel pins, bracelets, or key rings. These are wonderful reminders of our faith... that thing is so much a part of our daily lives. It's a lasting gift at three and six dollars. You'll find them at Marie Bird's Salon, 117 Kercheval, on the hill. And remember the salon hours will be from 3 to 9 p.m. on Good Friday.

For men... ensembles of elegance. It's just like a connoisseur's collection... this collection of sports coats. They're made with the age-old craftsmanship that not only insures the better patterns but gives the colors, (beige, gray, blue, herringbones, shetland tweeds, cashmere) special depth and richness. To go with striking jackets they are also showing at Denny's Men's Wear, on the hill, slacks to coordinate his ensemble. Prices on slacks start at around fifteen dollars. And the selection of windbreakers for golf, fishing, boating, is wonderful. The Casa Chamois one in the window this week is of genuine English imported Chamois. He'll be glad if you send him to Denny's for this sportswear this season. See you there.

Easter could be a dainty floral Japanese cup and saucer and plate set... or a tricky cup and saucer rack. The set is one dollar and nineteen cents. The rack... fifty-nine cents. There are many cup and saucer sets in this new shipment at Fromm's, in the village.

As you walk in the door at The Sign of the Mermald it strikes you right in the eye. It was inspired by an old world quill pen, and called Script, but it is the spirit of contemporary living. On a flawless white china surface the genius of Raymond Loewy is at work. This china is a smart touch in any interior. One place setting of this Continental China is under ten dollars. We would like to suggest it as a perfect wedding gift. 75 Kercheval, on the hill.

They're as busy as bees. No wonder. The staff at the Ann Louise Beauty Salon has been trained by Mr. Henry of Helene Curtis in the mystery of using Tru-Tone tints on your locks. This hair coloring comes with the conditioner added and the champagne blond and toffee coloring is something to oh and ah over. We are told that Miss Ina Rutherford, the manicurist is back on the job giving manicures. Ann Louise Beauty Salon, 405 Fisher Rd., at St. Paul. TU. 2-7511.

Some bright bunny came to the conclusion that when women wear sandals they crave a bare look. So he came up with this peaches 'n cream sandal stocking. They're so bare, so pale, so deliciously feminine. The color itself is scarcely more than a subtle mist. And to go with this tender accent to your night life view the slim line swing back sandals in patent leather by Ingenu at sixteen ninety-five... or the I. Miller's siuacious blue suede and black patent with T strap. Around twenty-five dollars in Jacobson's Shoe Salon. Sandalons are in bosiers. Both Main Floor.

Looking ahead. If Dad has almost everything you can still wrap him in luxury with a continental gift towel with his own custom monogram. You'll call them bath towels or bath sheets... but Dad will call them wonderful. Imagine almost 3,000 square inches of thick-piled luxurious Martex terry with his own oversized, two color, custom monogram. First pick your towel from the initial and hobby background design. Hobby backgrounds are terrific... they have designs for the tycoon, the fisherman, the yachtsman, the hunter, the golfer, and the horseman. Towel colors are so yummy we'll mention them... white, charcoal, walnut, apricot, navy, top brass, and spruce. Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village.

Easter is twinkly-toes... in patent or fine, fine, leather. And for you persnickety folks here is the store to shop because every salesperson is trained to understand the special needs of young feet. They know how to pair feet and shoes. Then when you have excellently constructed shoes with roomy toe space, firm counters, and smooth inside seams, made to Clyde Hornung's own specifications, you have everything in foot comfort. You have the best looking and best fitting shoe in the Easter Parade. Clyde Hornung's, on the hill.

Consider these: Cosmetan combination polaroid sun glasses because they're one of the finest under the sun. These are especially fashioned for those who do not have to wear glasses. And are available in styles for both men and women. Cosmetan polaroids are the finest because first they absorb all but a negligible amount of the harmful infrared and ultra-violet rays. They also provide high blue absorption to permit superior definition of objects under hazy atmospheric conditions. Secondly, they effectively filter out glare caused by the reflections of bright sunlight on water, sand, snow or highway... an important factor of safety and eye comfort for motorist, sportsman, or vacationist. Consider, too, looking at Johnston's new Italian imported frames. You'll find very attractive color combinations... coral on the outside lined with white... blue pearl lined with white... amber lined with orange punch. Johnston's Optical Co., on the hill.

They were delish cocktail coordinates we looked at this week. All had skirts and halter tops. One was a mellow brown with strapy velvet trim on the white pique was very elegant. Hat boxes... purple and grape tones on white with a purple camberbund looked just like spring. Jacobson's Sportswear, Main Floor.

Girl Volunteers Aid Cancer Drive

Volunteer work by girl students in 16 Catholic high schools in the Metropolitan Detroit area has saved the Detroit Cancer Center at least $900, it was reported this week.

The girls have addressed some 60,000 envelopes being sent to former donors to the Center's work, during the annual campaign which is being conducted during April.

The girls from St. Ambrose and St. Paul High School in the Grosse Pointe have played a big part in this volunteer effort. These two schools have done about 10,000 of the envelopes, it was stated.

The work has been under the supervision of Sister Mary Giles at St. Ambrose and Sister Mary Judith at St. Paul.

The envelopes have been addressed as part of classroom work and the sisters say the training has been valuable for those girls who will enter business after their schooling is finished.

New Street Lights Being Installed on Kercheval Avenue

The big job of erecting new street lights all along Kercheval in the Farms from Fisher to Moross road is nearing completion. Much brighter illumination of this important thoroughfare is being achieved through the major project. The picture shows Detroit Edison workers connecting up one of the new standards across the street from the Grosse Pointe News building.

To Send Safety Boys to Capitol

Grosse Pointe will have an extra "representative" in Washington, D.C., May 7 through 9. A safety patrol member from Monteth school will get a four-day, all-expense trip to the Capitol as Automobile Club of Michigan's guest.

Monteth school won the right to send a patrol to the 18th AAA National Safety Patrol Assembly because of excellence of its overall safety program.

The Grosse Pointe delegate will join 115 other Michigan patrollers in Detroit May 6 to board the train for Washington. He will meet government officials, tour the Capitol, sightsee, and march down Constitution Avenue with 30,000 patrolmen from all over the United States in the largest parade annually held in Washington. He will return by train May 9.

Theater to Put Show on Road

Something new has been added to the agenda of the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre. While the cast is rehearsing Mary Chase's comedy, "Harvey," for presentation May 7 and 8, the original cast of J. B. Priestley's "Dangerous Corner," which was produced in March, is readying this show for a road tour.

This will be the first time in its history that the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre has "put the show on the road." Through the cooperation of the Red Cross, veteran groups throughout southeast Michigan will get a chance to see this fine, tense drama.

Meanwhile, a change is being made in the casting of the part of Dr. Chumley in "Harvey." Due to business commitments, Robert Koebel will be unable to take this role and re-casting is at present incomplete. Announcement will be made in the near future on the replacement.

Crashes Bridge On Renaud Road

A Woods accident report disclosed that Mrs. Patricia LaGrasso of 1230 N. Renaud, while driving on N. Renaud, on Monday, April 12 had turned east, preparatory to going onto S. Renaud when she lost control of her car, which crashed into a bridge. The accident caused about $400 damage to the car. There was no damage to the bridge.

WATKINS' ART IN EXHIBIT

Paintings by one of the greatest of American contemporary artists, Franklin Watkins, will be on exhibition April 13 through May 16, at the Detroit Institute of Arts. The show will include the enormous panels of his "Death and Resurrection" series loaned by the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and several preliminary studies for these imaginative works. The exhibition is another of the Art Institute's series of month-long "Work in Progress" shows.

TRAFFIC DEATHS RISE

Traffic accidents in Michigan claimed 119 lives during February, three more than in the same month last year. Injuries and accidents also increased, ac-ording to the State Police monthly report. There were 4,033 persons injured, an increase of 708, or 21 per cent over 3,325 in February of 1953. Accidents totaled 14,850, a gain of 2,322, or 19 per cent over 12,528.

Starting the Day with an Hour's Rest!

It's about an hour from his home to his office—but he doesn't think of it as a drive at all.

He just settles back in the deep, comfortable seat—rests his hand on the inviting wheel—looks out over the hood in the general direction of the office—and starts to relax.

Comes first, the ten-mile stretch in the open country.

If the car were standing still, it could not be smoother or softer or quieter—as it loafs over the broad, winding highway. There's only the faint sound of the wind, plus the receding trees and posts and buildings, to give him a sense of movement.

Almost before it begins, it seems, the ten-mile stretch is over—and a sign announces the city's limits. The soft pressure of his foot shifts from accelerator to brake—and the big car settles down easily and quickly to the prescribed speed.

And then begins the real wizardry of Cadillac performance. Stop and go—in and out—roll and creep . . . all with the slightest touch of toe and hand. Insofar as the driver is concerned, it's just as easy as the open road—and just as calm and relaxing.

And maybe a little bit nicer, in one notable respect—for now there are drivers all about him—staring glances at his beautiful car, and wondering who's the fortunate person whose name is on the title!

What a car—for highway or street! Owners everywhere say the hours behind its wheel are among the finest hours of the day—restful, relaxing and inspiring.

If you haven't as yet driven a 1954 Cadillac—you've been missing something wonderful! Better come in soon—for the most revealing hour you ever spent behind the wheel of a motor car.

Once again the residents of the Pointe are being asked to contribute in the annual drive for the maintenance and operation of the War Memorial Center. The amount needed this year to balance the budget is $30,000. It should be ridiculously easy to raise that amount in this community for such a worthy cause.

The Center has passed beyond the stage of an interesting experiment. It has become firmly established as a community gathering place that provides facilities for hundreds of meetings for scores of organizations. It offers a program of activities that attracts groups of all ages.

As a fitting living memorial to all the Pointe residents who served in the armed forces, and particularly to those who died in service, this beautiful community center deserves the support of all the people.

There was a marked increase last year in the number of residents contributing to the upkeep and development of this magnificent property. The number of donors is still bewilderingly small and it is hoped that this year's campaign will see many, many more added to the list of those who contribute.

So large a part does the Center play in the educational, social, cultural and volunteer service life of the community, that it has been suggested by more than a few that the annual budget deficiency should be provided through the public tax rolls. This would distribute the costs evenly on all of the taxpayers and the amount would be so small that no one could possibly object.

Perhaps we shall come to this method of financing the Center some day, but as long as it is necessary to conduct annual drives to raise the money, everyone should make some donation, however small or large.

These are called Family Participation campaigns and one of their basic purposes is to get more and more residents interested in and using the Center property. Everyone who has visited the lovely building located on the lake shore is impressed with its great beauty and enthusiastic about its development. Those who have never attended an event there, or walked through its magnificent gardens, have missed a great deal.

There are more than 11,000 families in the Pointe with more than 50,000 individual members. If each resident contributed but a single dollar each year it would provide sufficient funds to not only balance the budget, but to continue the development program that had endless possibilities.

Although there was a big increase in the number of honors last year, the facts remain that there were only 2,027 individual gifts, and it is still necessary for a very small group of wealthier residents to contribute $500 each, every year to balance the budget.

This is a rather shameful reflection on a community with the character of the Pointe. The property was donated to us without strings. All we are asked to do is contribute a very small amount each year to provide for the maintenance and operation of the Center.

Let's all get behind this campaign and put it over the top in a hurry. No gift is too small to be appreciated. Donations should be sent to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, 32 Lake Shore road, Grosse Pointe 36. They are deductible for tax purposes.

Team Work Pays Off

Officialdom of the five Grosse Pointes is in agreement on the handling of at least one of its joint problems. We refer to the operation of the inter-municipal police radio system. Harper Woods is also a member, having been taken in on its own request not long after the system was set up.

We attended a fifth birthday celebration of the system last week. The gathering, held in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, was necessitated by the arrival of the annual obligation of turning over the control of the system. Under the set-up, each municipality sits at the head of the organization for one year, then passes the baton.

But this was much more than a cut and dried official gathering, called to conduct a routine chore. The system was five years old, and it had worked so well everyone concerned felt that some sort of a celebration was called for.

All of the six participating municipalities were well represented. All of the police chiefs were there, a trio of mayors, a village president, city clerks, managers, public safety heads, etc.

The official business at hand was the turning over of the controls to the Shores by the Woods, marking the completion of the first five year cycle of the system. Routine reports were heard, as was to be expected, but the outstanding impression to be carried away by an interested observer was the vociferous enthusiasm expressed over the tremendous success of the experiment.

There were tales, now told with laughs, about the first meeting in that same room, five years ago, when the police radio system was born. Everyone was then full of doubt and suspicion and animosity. They were faced with a problem which called for team work, but they had about as much trust in, and love for each other as the Red Wings have for the Canadiens. They had entered into the agreement with fear and trepidation.

Everything has turned out beautifully. No one has tried to cut any throats, no one has had to argue about authority, a great deal of money has been saved and the predicted effi-

"Blind my eyes and still my voice, Bind me, crippled, to a bed, Steal my senses one by one, Leave me little less than dead, You will never conquer me While I still have... memory." (Don Blanding)

Giving presents for Easter? There is a new record out called "Pardon My Blooper" that we guarantee will entertain the most difficult person to please. It's a long-playing job and is made up of mistakes or "fluffs" made by radio and t.v. entertainers, announcers, script writers etc. over the years. The man who thought up the idea, went through hundreds of files of transcripts to lift out the funniest situations... so the voices you hear are the original people who made the boners.

We found it a riot and the more you hear it the better it is. It starts out, (to give you an idea) way back when Harry Von Zell was introducing President Hoover just before he made an important speech. Von Zell said to his vast audience: "I have the privilege and pleasure of introducing the President of the United States... Hoobert Högver." Another one has to do with a woman selling pots and pans on t.v. That dear lady slipped up when she said: "If you aren't completely satisfied, you may use these for seven days in your home, then return them. So you see you have everything to LOSE and nothing to GAIN." Got the idea? REAL funny.

A woman who read about the butler working in his bare feet, called to tell us she has a brand new maid who, after she had been there about a week, was caught by Madame going through the large family desk in the living room. Since she had no business looking in it at all, Madame naturally asked what she was doing. The maid replied: "Looking for the Dutch Cleanser."

If you are the type that "remembers a face" but can't always place it... perhaps you had better be careful what you SAY to the face until you DO place it. Our saga on this subject deals with a man whose furnace blew up and covered everything in the basement with oily soot. Since the blow-up was the man's own fault, he felt it would be cheating to call the insurance company to do anything about it.

However, his friends talked him into it... so he called them, showed them the mess and they immediately took care of it with no cost whatever to the little man. A few months later he ran into a familiar face on the street... a face he thought belonged to a man who sold shoes. The "face" hailed him and they stopped to chat. During the conversation, the face asked, "Say how did that furnace blowup deal of yours turn out?"

Our hero waxed real voluble about it and added: "You know I really had no right to even call the insurance company on that because it was my own fault that it happened... but I guess it won't hurt to gyp them now and again." The face peered at him and said: "I'm surprised you'd tell that to ME. I was the insurance adjuster on that case."

When our hero picked himself up off the pavement, he announced to the face that he thought he could swear he'd seen him selling shoes. The insurance man then explained that he had salvaged a lot of tired shoes from a shoe factory fire at one time and sold them at low cost to some of his clients. THAT is where our hero had seen him... selling the shoes to his wife!

ciency of the system has been proven out beyond the most fantastically optimistic dreams.

Several examples of the coverage obtained were cited. With the cooperation of adjacent cities and villages, including the City of Detroit, it is now possible to round up a staggering amount of help in an incredibly short time when an emergency arises. There was a bank holdup in Harper Woods last year. With Grosse Pointe Farms in control of the radio system, the broadcast took no less than 45 scout cars from a number of municipalities and the Sheriff's Patrol, to the scene within 10 minutes.

It was heartening to see this whole-hearted acclaim for the successful solution of one problem which the whole Pointe area faced. There are many such problems which are of mutual interest to all these municipalities. They will have to be solved through cooperation.

There is little doubt that, eventually, all of these separate units of government will have to consolidate in the interests of greater economy and efficiency. That may take years, but in the meantime it is to be hoped that the experience of the police radio system has taught a lesson about what can be accomplished through team work.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

By George F. Jones (Guest Columnist)

This spring's high spot on the local art scene (if one takes some liberties with the word local), is likely to turn out to be the Van Gogh exhibition now at the Toledo Art Museum and remaining through April 30.

Consisting of about two hundred items, paintings, drawings and prints, from two European collections, the show has much to commend it not only to the art admirer but offers an enlightening few hours to the intelligent individual who is sometimes confused by the methods and techniques of the painters of the last century.

Its scope, covering all of what one could term Van Gogh's four periods, makes possible a chronological arrangement by which one can observe the inter-relationships between his short life and his artistic development.

A study of the widely distributed reproductions or the examples of his works found in American galleries will unearth relatively few outside what could be termed his golden age—those few brief years spent in Southern France when he had found his style and his countryside, when he had brought himself to some acceptance of the terms life offered him, and when the insanity of his final years was but a cloud on the horizon, suspected occasionally by the man himself but invisible to the world.

The Toledo exhibit discloses the whole of the man's life—an early period when he displayed a facile expertise in sombre, academic genre pictures, what one might term a break through period when the gropings toward his final style were evident, a summit when his style reached perfection at the same time as his surroundings, and his reaction to these surroundings, produced gloriously glowing tones, and a brief final period when the gay colors lost their vitality and the distinctive style passed from within the painter's control.

Curiosity about his life is a natural concomitant of an interest in an artist whose aim is something more than explicit illustration. When the viewer is told "This is Southern France altered through the mind and the emotions of the artist" curiosity about that mind and those emotions is not impertinent. Rather, the satisfaction of that curiosity is an important ingredient in the appreciation of the artist.

The quality and range of the Toledo show—and the discrimination with which it has been arranged—do much to provide a firm foundation for an admiration for the subject of the show. By effective utilization of a notable collection, by producing an informative catalog, and by providing well-versed lecturer conductors, the Toledo Museum has done an excellent job of synthesizing and interpreting the painter and his works.

The opportunity to view the originals of even widely reproduced works is not without its satisfactions. Many of Van Gogh's paintings display a use of paint so lavish as to give them a considerable third dimension effect. The textural interest arising from this is done scant justice by even the finest reproductions. "The Cypresses" is a case in illustration of this point. The originals also offer a liveliness of color which seems to be absent from many reproductions. In the case of "The Harvest," even the print which the Museum offers falls by a wide margin to catch the glow which makes the original such a thoroughly satisfying work.

The exhibit is to be heartily recommended to Grosse Pointers who would like to combine a pleasant afternoon's drive with an art display which is not likely to soon come this way again.

Open hours are Tuesday and Thursday 9 a.m. - 9 p.m.; Wednesday, Friday and Saturday 9 a.m. - 5 p.m.; Sunday, Monday 1 p.m. - 5 p.m.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone.

Goodwill Plans 'Youth Days'

Boy Scout troops, Girl Scout troops and other youth groups in the Detroit metropolitan area have been invited to attend Goodwill Industries "Youth Days" on Monday, April 19, and Saturday, April 24, it was announced today. Refreshments and souvenirs will be given to all members of any youth organization. The only requisite is that each group be accompanied by an adult leader.

The interest that Detroit youth groups have shown in the Goodwill program has made it necessary to have two days set aside. Last year an estimated 2,500 boys and girls made the tour of Goodwill Industries.

dinner and canasta with their Cuban friends . . . To follow Mrs. Gardner in an "informal day" . . . you'd find her conferring with her secretary to check engagements and mail right after breakfast . . . lunch is usually en famille and at home . . . but someone always arrives for canasta at 3 o'clock. In Cuban homes a high tea is served with guests going into the dining room English fashion. And it's a tremendous tea . . . followed by a heavenly but very rich dessert of such magnificence it requires dessert plate and fork . . . Dinner guests arrive at 9 p.m. for cocktails and dinner (five to seven courses) isn't over until 11:15 or 11:30 . . . That means getting down to serious canasta about fifteen minutes after midnight . . . and breaking up not a minute earlier than 2:30 in the morning . . .

Plantation Barbecue

About cuisine . . . it's European in most cases . . . and Cubans dote on pate de foie gras . . . Soups are rich and wonderful . . . there's a fish course, usually lobster . . . the meat might be filet mignon with vegetables . . . then the salad course . . . followed by a variety of desserts . . .

One the svelte Mrs. Dwyer fell in love with was a Chocolate Mousse. She's in the process now of "wangling the recipe" from its Cuban owner . . . Maybe she'll share it someday, but for a while it must remain her own . . . she teases . . . One week-end, she accompanied the Gardners in an air force plane to the Central Francisco Plantation, where they were the week-end guests of the Charles Panjuls . . . (it took two hours and twenty minutes flying time to reach the 33,000 acre estate!) It was there Mrs. Dwyer had her first Cuban barbecue . . . the grill and oven were surrounded by an English like border of flowers . . . Here a suckling pig was roasted . . . its crisp toasted skin served as hors d'oeuvres . . . chickens were fried. There were fried bananas and yucca sliced in thin strips, fried like Irish potatoes . . . many different kinds of salad . . . and again the array of desserts including a Guava cheese . . . With all this hearty fare, Cuban women keep their dazzling figures and slim waistlines.

On to Nassau

Clothes in Havana? Well, it is still the Cuban winter so dark wardrobes as favored by New York are the fashion. In evening dress, the fashionable set is equally divided between the long and short evening gown. Again the color is either dark or solid light fabric, no prints.

And Mrs. Dwyer kept her own good looking hats packed away the entire stay since Cuban women rarely wear them. After the Cuban fortnight, our traveler went on to Nassau where she reports a superb time visiting Mrs. Leighton Stevens of Peehack, N. J. and Nassau . . . Mrs. Stevens will be remembered in the Pointe as the former Mrs. Dan Platt Caulkins . . .

Spring Cruise Party of Month

An important date for members of the Detroit Boat Club to remember is April 17. "Sailors' Spring Cruise" is the party-of-the-month.

The theme for this party is "Spring On Shipboard" and the club will be decorated with posters from the Italian, French, English, Caribbean and American Steamship Lines. There will be souvenirs from the steamship lines.

The members and their guests will cross a gang plank to reach the Oak Room where cocktails, aperitifs and special canapes prepared from recipes of various lands will be served.

The menu will incorporate specialties of some of the great chefs of the steamship lines.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred F. Howard are chairmen of this party and assisting them are Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Button, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Roder and Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Straw.

A cocktail party will be given by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Waldo honoring Commodore and Mrs. William L. Mullen, Jr. Guests include Mr. and Mrs. Roger Van DerKam, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward Warrick, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Reid, Jr.

A cocktail party to be given by Mr. and Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, Jr. will include Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munt of Mt. Clemens, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wilton, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Tappan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sisson, Dr. and Mrs. Cleary Swanson, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred F. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Sedwick, Mr. and Mrs. O. William Pickard, (the Jewells' daughter and son-in-law) of Saginaw, Mrs. Agnes Sheets, Mr. Charles Moore of St. Clair and Mr. and Mrs. John MacFarlane.

Another cocktail party will be given by Dr. and Mrs. Donald Mabley which will include their houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. William Thorn of Grand Rapids, Mr. and Mrs. John DeGurse and Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Watts.

Also entertaining will be Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Bobertz, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Fred Genthe and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest B. Button, Jr.

VANDALS TAKE HUBCAPS Marilyn Shields told Woods police on Saturday, April 10, that she had parked her car on Hawthorne road near Mack avenue for several hours. When she returned to it, she discovered two front hubcaps were missing. They are valued at $30.

ILYA Officials Turn Down Proposed Race Date Shift

The boisterous, non-sailing, trouble-making, weekend hangers-on apparently will have another field day this year and the competing sailors will get another "black eye" when the Inter-Lake Yachting Association holds its annual regatta, August 9 to 11, at Put In Bay.

At its annual Spring meeting, held at the Whittier Hotel, Saturday, April 10, ILYA officials and delegates laid themselves and the sailors wide open for more abuse and criticism from the island inhabitants when they tabled the proposal to shift the regatta to a later date in the week.

Starting the regatta later in the week would have divorced the event from the weekend hangers-on who have in recent years given the popular classic the odor of an abandoned wine cellar.

Unexpected Turn Before the meeting it was the popular belief that the shift in dates should be a mere formality but ILYA commodore Albert Grundy said "It is too late to make the shift because people have already made their plans for attending the regatta on the announced dates."

Even though we love everyone of the local ILYA officials, we do believe Commodore Grundy's excuse is a very weak one. After all any sailor planning to attend the regatta, sailed in the shadows of the Perry Monument, probably has figured to use a week of his vacation and one day later cannot possibly make any difference.

As usual the deep water races from Cleveland, Toledo and Detroit will precede the regatta and will be sailed on Saturday, August 7. In recent years the Detroit Deep Water race has progressively drawn less and less of the big A division boats. Last year only Gil Pingree's "Red Head," Bob Neesley's "Malabar" and Nub Sarns' "Revelry" showed up at the starting line and finished in the order mentioned.

Absence Is Mystery The absence of the big Detroit boats has been somewhat of a mystery. Probably Pat Collins, owner-skipper of the New York 32 "Vitesse," hit the nail on the head when he said "They will have to make that race a lot more attractive before I will take my boat down there."

He continued "There doesn't seem to be any incentive to enter the race because you usually finish after dark and there is no one there except one man on the dock at the finish line to take your time and you never know how you have made out until the following morning. There is nothing attractive on the island, however, it is a good navigational race."

Expert to Talk To Garden Club

The Grosse Pointe Garden Club will hold a guest meeting at the War Memorial Center next Tuesday, April 20, at 2:30 p.m. Alice Wessels Burlingame, dirt gardener consultant, will speak on "New Trends in the Field of House Plants, Flowers and Planting Design."

Father-Son Take Tennis House Title

A new pair of Reindels, the father and son team of George, Jr. and George, III, dominated the men's doubles tennis tournament, which annually marks the close of another season for The Tennis House at the foot of Mousie place.

The Reindels won the finals Sunday afternoon, beating another Reindel, John, (brother of George, Jr. and uncle of George, III), and his partner, Frank Singelyn. The scores were 6-3, 6-3, in the match which was much harder fought than the official tally would indicate.

The preliminaries were played Saturday afternoon with the following results: The Reindels eliminated Tom Marantette and Bob Edgar, 7-5; 6-4.

Alex Wiener and Jack Failing defeated Wally Ford and Bill Ford, 6-4; 5-7; 6-1. John Reindel and Singelyn beat Mike Ware and Wendell Anderson, Jr., 6-4; 6-3.

Jack Chapin and Walter Cavanaugh eliminated Ingersoll Lewis and Carter Dye, 6-1; 6-1.

In the semi-finals Sunday morning the Reindels ousted Wiener and Failing, 6-4; 6-3. John Reindel and Singelyn defeated Chapin and Cavanaugh, 6-1; 6-3.

Tobey Hansen, popular professional at the Tennis House during the winter and at the Country Club during the summer, arranged the matches and officiated.

The Reindel family has long been noted for its outstanding tennis players. George, Jr. and John held many city and state titles and won their share of tournaments in other parts of the country. George, III, a new generation, was captain of the Anderson tennis team last year and is now a freshman at Princeton. George, Jr. and his brother John won the Tennis House tournament four years ago. Ralph Elvenny, defending champion this year with Frank Singelyn, was unable to play due to a knee injury.

College Sailors Stage First Race

Annually the Edison Boat Club has held the first sail race of the season, but this year a bunch of collegiate sailors stole the spotlight when they competed in the Wayne Quadrangle regatta held at Bayview Yacht Club last Saturday April 10.

Edison has planned its first race for next Saturday, April 17, which will be sailed in the club-owned Club Sloops according to Frank Martin.

The Tech Sailors of General Motors Institute walked off with top honors in the Wayne Quadrangle with a total of 32 points as compared to 28 points garnered by the U. of D. sailors who finished in second place. Third place went to Michigan State and Wayne finished a poor last when one of its more daring skippers fouled out in two of three races.

The event was sailed in two divisions with four races sailed in each division around a small triangular course, laid in the Detroit river in front of the host club. A light to moderate south-west breeze prevailed. Thirty-three skippers and crews competed which included a large number of cute coeds in sweat shirts, blue jeans and topsiders.

Oddly enough two skippers tied for high point honors in each division. Bill Sporer of U. of D. and Bill Edwards of G.M. tied with 14 points apiece in the A division. Burt Arbuckle of G.M. and Bob Buss of U. of D. tied with 10 points each in B division.

Saturday's race was sailed in 12 1/2 foot cat rigged Penguins. All four schools are members of the Midwest Collegiate Sailing Association which is part of the Intercollegiate Yacht Racing Association of North America.

Pointer Heads Famous Yachting Association

ALBERT J. GRUNDY, center, of University place, well known local sailor, past commodore of the Detroit Yacht Club and currently the commodore of the Inter-Lake Yachting Association, smiles happily following the annual ILYA Spring meeting held at the Whittier Hotel, Saturday, April 10. Shown with Commodore Grundy are his flag officers: REAR COMMODORE D. K. MACBRIDE of the Portage Lake Yacht Club and VICE COMMODORE LEE WILSON, right, of the Cleveland Yachting Club.

Blue Devils Need Pitcher

Coach Ed Wernet's Blue Devil baseball team, hampered by bad weather and the lack of a practice diamond due to the construction of the new gym, is running behind in its conditioning schedule. Putting up with makeshift facilities, Coach Wernet is doing as good a job as possible in molding a contender for the Border Cities League race which gets underway April 20 against Monroe.

With three returning lettermen, first baseman Bob Sealy, short stop Bill Dow and second baseman John Russell, as a nucleus, Coach Wernet has a host of second year players who failed to earn a letter last season.

The biggest problem is finding a first line pitcher. Currently Sealy appears to be the only moundman to whom Wernet could give the starting call. Chuck Mocerri, Ken Stell and Art Wible were on the squad last year, as pitcher, which tied for third place with Highland Park and Royal Oak with a record of four victories and six losses. This was the highest the Devils had finished in the final standings in years.

Jim Clyma and Don Eugenio appear to have the inside track for the catcher's spot. Both saw service last season. Others who are back from the 1953 squad are Doug McBride, Dan Follis, Tom Ireland, Paul Christo and Terry Brown.

Fifty-one other hopefuls, including Sam Mocerri a transfer student from Eastern High, where he played third base, are out to dislodge some of the veterans from their jobs.

The Pointers will engage in only league games, playing a home and home series with each of the other five BCL schools.

Fordson, the 1953 champion, and second place Wyandotte appear to be weakened through graduation and as Coach Wernet sees the future, Grosse Pointe could be plenty rough if an effective mound corps can be found.

Former Baseball Umpire To Address Exchangites

Red Jones, former American League umpire and now on the public relations staff of the Pfeiffer Brewing Company, will give a preview of the new baseball season, including the prospects of the Tigers, at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club on Tuesday, April 20, at the War Memorial Building.

He will also show pictures of the highlights of the World Series between New York and the Dodgers last year.

Robert W. Zetzing of South Oxford road is program chairman.

It may be true that money talks, but not nearly as much as some people who have money.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

First things first, we always say, so let us remind you: Commodore Ted Farnsworth points out that the ILYA is waiting with open arms for your membership in the Association. If you haven't joined up yet you can mail your $5.00 to $10.00 for a regular membership. Ten to 25 bucks will make you a sustaining member and anything over 25 bucks will get you an honorary membership. Any fees should be mailed to T. B. Farnsworth 16924 St. Paul avenue, Grosse Pointe 30, Mich.

While we are on the subject of membership—have you sent in your two bucks for your 1954 Detroit River Yachting Association membership. Secretary, Hal Smith is waiting. It certainly is worth the price to receive the regatta programs for each regatta in the mail. If you had to drive to each host club for your programs you would use more than two bucks worth of gas.

Now is the time for all fleet secretaries to sit down and make out the list of the boats, their numbers and the skippers and mail it to Hal Smith. This will register your fleet for the 1954 regattas. If you fail to do this little chore you may find yourself the black sheep of your bunch when the judges won't take your finish times and give you trophies if you should happen to win. Let's go—times awasting.

A week ago was a busy one for the local lads. The Corinthians got together at the Detroit Yacht Club last Tuesday, March 30, and were entertained by Toot Gmeiner. Toot gave a very informative talk on rigging and told the story of the dismantling of Harlow Davock's New York 32 "Away" while making its way back to Florida from a cruise in the Bahamas this winter.

Incidentally, Harlow Davock is seriously ill in Florida. Any cheerer-upper letters would be welcome we know.

Chick Stodgell dropped us a nice letter thanking us for mentioning his name in this column during his recent illness. Chick says he is back at the grind and expects to arrive in Detroit about May 1. Anyone want their boat measured?

On the same night the Corinthians were meeting, the newly formed Detroit unit of the Great Lakes Cruising Club got together at the Detroit Boat Club and heard a lecture and saw slides shown by Patrick Eilam of his trip across the Atlantic in a 19 foot sail boat. We couldn't make all of them so we are taking the word of one of our agents. They said that was a dandy get-together too.

Ira P. (Prent) Fulmore excited the local tars and their wives both on Wednesday and Thursday, March 31 and April 1, when he showed the beautiful movies of the Transpacific Yacht Club's 1953 Honolulu race. There was more than one sailor in the standing-room only crowd, that attended both nights, who had the urge to chuck it all and take off for Honolulu. Yup, we even thought the same way—that is until the better half tugged at our coat tails and jolted us back to reality with the reminder that we have three young mouths to feed every day.

One of the most impressive shots was that of the big 162 foot schooner "Goodwill," first boat to finish but not the overall winner. When she appeared on the screen at various times there was no need for comment from Fulmore. The people just oohed and ahhed at the big hooker, especially the shot which showed the work involved in flying the spinnaker with two aircraft constructed poles weighing 1,100 pounds apiece.

Fulmore told us later that "Goodwill" was allowed to use power winches to hoist the big poles into place. She carried 40 men in her crew and when you remember each ship in the race must provide 30 days of rations and 15 gallons of water for each man you can get some idea how much food "Goodwill" must have had aboard. Just a floating "sooper market."

Here are a couple of figures that will amaze you, we think. "Goodwill's" mainsheet is one and three-eighths manila and is 700 feet long. There are 8,000 feet of steel rigging to keep the big hooker together.

The Honolulu race was started in 1906 and is a biennial affair being sailed on the odd years and the Transpacific Yacht Club was organized to "promote the love of deep water racing and the interest in deep water navigation."

Just in case you're interested in the 1955 race you must have a yacht with at least a 28 foot water line and lots of time.

George Cossaboom, chairman of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club race committee, gathered his around him at the club Sunday, April 4, for breakfast and discussed the plans for the 1954 season.

This year will be the Grosse Pointe Y. C.'s twenty fifth anniversary and they are making big plans for their regatta July 10. It's going to be one of those regattas you will be sorry you missed, if you do.

GPYC is going in for a more extensive Junior sailing program and hopes to capture the Wakefield eliminations. They have hired Armand Joust, a pretty good Lightning sailor, to teach the youngsters. The club has three Lightnings and three dinghies in the club-owned fleet.

Commodore Zerbe of the Detroit Yacht Club tells us his R boat "Spook" is as sound as the day she was built way back in 1916. Ed says she is planked with Brazilian mahogany, which comes from the Amazon, and grows in six feet of water.

There will have to be some changes made in the Mallory Cup eliminations dates, according to George Cossaboom. George says the Chicago district eliminations are scheduled for August 7 and 8. That's when we had planned to run off the DRYA eliminations to select our representative for the district trials. Chairman Cossaboom says it is quite likely our eliminations will have to be moved up to sometime early in July. We'll report the changes when they occur.

The rumors that have been flying around for the past few weeks concerning the sale of Paul Smiley's "Orient" finally have been confirmed. The beautiful "leak mine" is being readied for her trip to Seattle via the Caribbean and the Panama Canal. The trip is planned for four months. The new owner has his sights set on the 1955 Honolulu race.

The departure of "Orient" leaves only three active big boats, in excess of 60 feet, Gil Pingree's "Red Head," Bud Sinclair's "Great Bear" and Wendell Anderson's "Escapade", in the local fleet.

It would take more than glasses to make it possible for most people to see their own mistakes.

Little Leaguers in Farms Asked to Register Saturday

Spring is here and so is Little League registration time in Grosse Pointe Farms. League officials have set Saturday, April 17, from 9 a.m. to noon at Kerby Field for the Little Leaguers to sign up for the 1954 season. Try-outs will begin the following Saturday, April 24.

This year the Farms has expanded its Little League program to include two divisions of four teams each. One will be the American Division which will bear the names of American major league teams and the other will be known as the National Division and use the names of National major league teams.

The American Division will play its games on the specially constructed Little League diamond on Kerby Field and the National Division will play on the Grosse Pointe High School field alongside the Central library.

In both divisions the season will be split in halves with the winners of each round of play meeting for the division title at the end of the season. All games in both divisions will be played on Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday. Three Saturday double headers have been included in the schedules with Wednesdays being left open for making up postponed or rained out games.

President Howarth Gnaun announced there will be increased activity in the minor league which also will be split in two divisions of four teams each. Opening day is set for Saturday, May 29, which will see both major divisions swinging into action with double headers. Plans for a parade and opening day ceremonies have been completed and will follow much the same pattern as the 1953 season opening schedule.

All boys from the ages of 9 to 12 years old inclusive living within the limits of Grosse Pointe Farms are eligible to register for Little League.

Come on kids, let's play ball.

Leads Shifted In Pin League

Kopp's slid to third place in the Grosse Pointers' Bowling League when Mondry's took three from them. At the same time Cox and Baker was dropping three to the (Five Golden Arms) Village Wine Shop.

Bobbie Williams sparked Kammer with 564 to take two from DeKeyser.

The Auto Club dropped two to Holzbaugh while Mid Atlantic, pushed by Grossmeyer's 631, took two from Bill Rite.

Piche's led by Wernet's 572, managed to take two from Rightenbergs.

High scores of the night were Grossmeyer, 228 for 631; Piche with 224-208 for 606; Jones 313, Johnson 209, McCormick 207 and Wernet 200.

Frances Crowley Has Lead In Show at U. of Michigan

Frances Crowley of Fisher road, freshman at the University of Michigan, has the lead in the Blue Team floor show, "Nautical Nonsense", for the Frosh week-end performance on April 17.

It has been a tradition at the University since 1946 that each team, the Maize and the Blue, give an all campus dance, complete with an original musical floor show, produced and directed by freshmen women.

Frances has also been elected to play a lead in "Michigras", which will be performed in Ann Arbor on Friday, April 23.

News Notes from D. U. S.

Earl Kimber, athletic director at the Detroit University School, has announced the following schedule for the various sports:

Table with columns for date, event, time, and location. Includes Varsity Baseball, Varsity Track, and various grade level games.

Babe Ruth Loop Buys Equipment

The Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe is making steady progress toward the opening of the 1954 season. Among recent developments is the purchase of complete uniforms for the 120 boys who will comprise the eight teams in the league.

Regular umpires have been engaged through the Detroit Federation, which will assure adequate officiating at all the games, and the playing fields are being put into condition.

The schedules are being compiled with great care, as it is felt that a good schedule lends a lot to a season. Every effort is being made to formulate games in such a way that no team has too many successive games, and that as early a possible in the season each division will have a game with every other team.

This will give the so-called "dopesters" a chance to come up with predictions which can be based on actual performance.

A lot of thought has been devoted to the naming of the teams. It seems that every boy wants to be on a team which is named after one of the big major league teams, and so far, every Little League in the Grosse Pointe area has named their teams after either National or American League squads.

While there have been many suggestions offered such as the use of some of the better-known minor league cities such as Kansas City "BLUES", The New Orleans "PELICANS", the Montreal "ROYALS", Toronto "MAPLE LEAFS" and others, nothing has been offered that has looked attractive enough to be seriously considered.

1954 Spring Sports Schedule For St. Paul High School

Table with columns for date, event, and location. Includes Baseball, Track, and Bowling.

Peter Roll Wins Two High Honors

Peter Roll, graduate of Grosse Pointe High School in June '50, has been elected to the Yale University chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national collegiate scholastic honor society.

Chosen on the basis of outstanding academic achievement in the past three and one-half years, Mr. Roll was one of the 31 Yale seniors named to the society.

Students elected to Phi Beta Kappa usually stand in the top 10 percent of their class scholastically. The fraternity is made up of 141 chapters of which Yale's Alpha of Connecticut is the second oldest in the nation. It is the oldest in continual operation.

Mr. Roll was also elected to Sigma Xi, national honorary society for superior achievement in science and mathematics. Fewer students are admitted to Sigma Xi than to Phi Beta Kappa.

Mr. Roll is a resident of Bradford College, one of Yale's ten undergraduate residential colleges.

Photographers Plan Project

"Night Shooting" of photographs by the Grosse Pointe Camera Club, will be the program for Tuesday evening, April 20.

The members will meet at the club rooms at 8 o'clock and will then proceed out into the night air to take pictures of subjects of the team's own choosing. The photos taken are to be the subject of competition among the members for recognition in technique, composition and picture-story telling.

Following the safari, the teams will gather at the Neighborhood Club for donuts, coffee and trading of experiences.

Museum Offers Organ Concert

A concert of Passion season music and other works will be played by August Maelkeberghe, noted Detroit organist, in the Detroit Institute of Arts Large Auditorium Good Friday evening, April 16 at 8:30.

C. G. Auxiliary Calls Skippers

Are you interested in promoting safety on the water among fellow skippers? If you are, here is your opportunity to do so.

Flotilla 12-05, United States Coast Guard Auxiliary, based at the Detroit Yacht Club, Belle Isle, is building up its strength and welcomes your inquiry for membership in this fine organization.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary is a voluntary, civilian adjunct to the regular Coast Guard, and was created by the United States Congress. Among its purposes is a desire to aid boatmen to foster a wider knowledge of, and better compliance with, the laws, rules and regulations governing the operation of motorboats and yachts.

If the program appeals to you, additional information may be obtained by calling August A. Behrens, Flotilla Training Officer, TUxedo 2-9815 or Lorain 7-3900, extension 365.

Smith Wins Numerals At Western Michigan

Jack Smith, better known by his classmates as "Jake" or "Long Jaw" during his three sport sport athletic career at Grosse Pointe High, earned his numerals at Western Michigan when he finished basketball team captain.

As in his high school "Jake" is turning his efforts to baseball and hopes to gain a position on the Bronco's freshman squad.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Smith of 707 Renaud, was a pitcher and outfielder while playing for Coach Ed Werner's Grosse Pointe Blue Devils last Spring. Whether Jack will follow the football trail next fall is not known at this time but he figures very definitely in the Bronco's cage plans for next winter.

He was a standout performer as a freshman before becoming involved in an automobile accident in which he injured his knee while returning to school with three other classmates following the holidays.

The injury healed perfectly and Jack broke back into the starting lineup long before the season ended.

Children of members will be entertained at a special Easter Sunday party at the club and on April 21 the ladies look forward to a bridge luncheon being called, "Hatter's Hey Day" which would imply a parade of chic millinery for the gals.

A Busy April For Boat Club

There's a gay April social calendar for Pointe members of the Detroit Boat Club.

Movie and TV Council to Meet

The April meeting of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council will be held at the library, Monday, April 19, at 1 p. m.

Mrs. Daniel Hembel, president of the Greater Detroit Motion Picture Council, will be the speaker. Mrs. Hembel returned recently from New York City where she attended the National Conference. She will report on the proposed Federation of Motion Picture Councils.

The Grosse Pointe Council is deep in plans for a tea next month honoring the presidents of the Grosse Pointe P.T.A., churches, and other organizations that are represented in the council.

St. Joan Club To Hold Dance

With the Lenten season drawing to a close, the Mothers' Club of St. Joan of Arc announces its last in a series of dances. A Spring Square Dance will be held in the school auditorium, Overlake at Mack, on Saturday, April 24, from 8:30 to 11:30 p. m.

Julie and Wes Rea will call the squares and everyone is invited to join the group. Donation is $1.50 per couple.

The committee's welcoming dancers will be Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Susalla, Mrs. J. Harold Meech, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lodewyck, and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Luber.

Bowlers of St. Matthew's Will Hold Mixed Party

The fifteenth annual card party sponsored by the women bowlers of St. Matthew Church, will be held Monday evening, April 26, at 8 p. m. in the parish hall, Harper at Buckingham.

This will be a mixed party, and the chairman, Mrs. John Hagermose, promises numerous prizes that will please the men as well as the women.

Lunch will be served and the donation is $1.00. For reservations please call the co-chairman, Mrs. Ralph Simon, at TU. 1-1024.

The first post-lenten dance to be held in St. Matthew Hall, Harper at Buckingham, will be Friday, April 30, from 9 to 12. Mildred and Lee Brennan are the popular callers, and the music will be supplied by Bauman's Musical Notes.

Dinner Dance to Be Held By Gratiot Association

The Gratiot Avenue Improvement Association members and their ladies will gather on Monday evening, April 26, for an old-fashioned dinner and dance to be held at the Silver Crown Ballroom, East Nine Mile road near Van Dyke avenue. This will be the thirty-fourth annual celebration.

President Frank F. Beckhold and entertainment chairman Martin C. Riehl, extend an invitation to friends of the Gratiot Businessmen to attend.

Ronald L. Sutton Named Merchant Marine Ensign

Cadet-Midshipman Ronald L. Sutton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carol R. Sutton of 412 Moran road, Grosse Pointe Farms, has been promoted to an officership by the Superintendent of the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, New York.

On recommendation of the Command Board of the Academy, he was appointed Cadet-Midshipman with the rank of Ensign. This commission indicates that the Cadet-Midshipman has demonstrated exceptional ability and overall aptitude in both studies and leadership at the Academy. His new duties as Platoon Commander are to maintain the conduct, order, discipline and regimentation of about 50 men.

Cadet-Midshipman Sutton was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School in the class of 1950. He was appointed to the United States Merchant Marine Cadet Corps in 1950. Upon completion of his basic courses, Cadet-Midshipman Sutton spent his second year studying and receiving practical training aboard ships of the American Merchant Marine. During this year at sea, he visited Canada, England, Poland, Spain, Germany, Sweden, Norway, Finland, Panama, Colombia, Ecuador, Peru, Chile.

Cadet-Midshipman Sutton returned to the Academy in 1953 for his final two years of study. At present, he is completing his fourth and final year in the Cadet Corps. Along with his advanced technical subjects, the Cadet-Midshipman is completing a liberal academic curriculum designed to give him a well-rounded educational background. Besides the academic program, he is actively engaged in various school activities including The Windjammers Club and the Michelson Society.

Upon graduation, Cadet-Midshipman Sutton will receive his license as Third Engineer, a Bachelor of Science Degree, and concurrent commissions as Ensign, United States Naval Reserve, and Ensign, United States Maritime Service.

Linda Morgan Whitehead Christening April 25

Linda Morgan Whitehead, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Whitehead of Country Club drive, will be christened April 25 in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. Mrs. George F. Cammann, Gilbert Waldo Jr. and Mrs. James F. Whitehead Jr. will be godparents for young Linda. Following the church service godparents, grandparents and family friends have been invited for tea at the Whitehead residence.

Girl Scout News

Girl Scout mothers dry your eyes and just stop wringing your hands. Let Audrey will be just as safe as in her little bed when she goes camping with her troop and leader!

The Girl Scout leaders are taking another Red Cross First Aid Course. This group of 32 women including troop leaders, members of troop committees and camp committees may be found at the Neighborhood Club on Thursday afternoons practicing bandaging on each other, giving artificial respiration, (the new way), methods of transporting the injured, etc.

The leaders are very fortunate in having obtained Dr. Eklund as the instructor. The class started February 18 and continues for nine weeks. The leaders must renew their First Aid Card each three years.

The women enrolled in this class are: Mrs. William Adams, Mrs. Fred Asmus, Mrs. Marilyn Borgman, Mrs. Thomas Braden, Mrs. Ralph Dwyer, Mrs. Harry Finlay, Mrs. Andrew Henderson, Mrs. Chas. E. Hibbard, Mrs. Herbert Hoerhauf, Mrs. Lawrence Hope, Mrs. Edward Kay, Mrs. Ruth Kichkoefel, Mrs. Marie Kiefer, Mrs. Marge Koerner, Mrs. Willmot Leroy, Mrs. Kenneth Locke, Mrs. Edward Luss, Mrs. Victoria Michaels, Mrs. H. G. Moltzan, Mrs. Betty Neumann, Mrs. Norman Parker, Miss Muriel Reardon, Mrs. Arthur Richards, Mrs. A. D. Rueggeger, Mrs. Vera Sakalas, Mrs. Garnet Smith, Mrs. James Vaughan, Mrs. Norton Walbridge, Mrs. Sherman Young, Mrs. Eugenia Zymalski, Mrs. Vivian Millich and Mrs. Joseph P. Wright.

Troop 812 of Mason School, consisting of 16 Brownies made a miniature garden for their mothers and as a sequel the troop visited the DePetris Nursery at 230 Grosse Pointe boulevard. They were taken on a tour of the beautiful green houses which were full of growing plants and bulbs. Best of all, the Easter lilies were in full bloom. Harold Siebert explained each flower and plant. The Brownies were very interested and just hoped their gardens would be as productive and beautiful.

The trip was also enjoyed by the leaders, Mrs. Edwin Urban and Mrs. Kenneth Frostic. Driving the girls were Mrs. Clark Taylor and Mrs. Robert Frye. And, last but not least the 16 would-be gardeners were: Sandra DeBacker, Sharon Frostic, Susan Frye, Nancy Gould, Susan Judkins, Nancy Maxon, Chris Olson, Sherry Patch, Barbara Schueler, Lynn Snyder, Susan Stahl, Judy Steen, Jane Steen, Karen Stokely, Heather Taylor and Geraldine Urban.

The girls of Troop 325 of St. Paul School arranged a very festive progressive dinner on Monday, April 5. Five homes were visited in which international themes, both in food and table decorations were prepared by the girls.

The Hawaiian Islands were represented at the "Juice" course at Patty Kalkoff's home. Each girl was presented with a lei and greeted in the native tongue of the Islands. Hawaiian music was played.

Consomme Princess was served at Lois Letscher's home. Barbara Gueirera helped by decorating the table with drawings of the Eiffel Tower with French flags on either side of it. French songs were sung.

South American salad was the next treat at Betty Sheeans'. Both Betty and Diane Beaupre dressed in white blouses and colorful skirts. Mary Kotcher taught the girls greetings in Spanish.

Then on to Eva Fugers' home to be greeted in Polish by her parents, who were dressed in the native costume of their country. Dinner was served by Eva, Mary, Lou, Crouther, Dolores Cox, Claire Huebner and Diane Gunner.

The final course of Spumoni ice cream and Droste Dutch chocolate was prepared and served by Sue Schreiber, Carol Messer and Ann Stone.

"Thank You" in native tongue was learned at each home to express the appreciation to the generous mothers who helped to make the party such a delightful one.

Pointe Parties Honor May 1 Bridal Couple

Many Pointers have entertained at parties for the bridal couple, Helen Possellus and William D. Gilbride who will be married May 1 in St. Paul's on The Lake Grosse Pointe. Mrs. Thomas Fitzgerald gave a luncheon Wednesday at her Lewiston road home and the Clifford, Fords, of St. Paul avenue, have issued invitations for an April 23 cocktail party.

H. Herbert Micous Home From Vacation in West

It was Pebble Beach, Calif. for Mr. and Mrs. H. Herbert Micous, of Kerby road, on the holiday from which they've just returned. In San Francisco they visited their son, Paul.

Woman's Club To See Films

Members of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will see two colored-films at their next meeting, which will be held in the War Memorial Center on Wednesday, April 21. Tea will be served at 1 o'clock preceding the program.

Bill O. Brink will show the film "Springtime in Holland," and "Old Amsterdam."

Mrs. Murray Young is program chairman. Hostess for the afternoon will be Mrs. J. E. Hinzman. Her committee includes Mrs. Joseph Chojnowski, Mrs. William Fahnie, Mrs. C. K. Koehn, Mrs. Alex Kennedy, Mrs. William Macks, Mrs. L. A. Lotgering, Mrs. H. R. Voorhes and Mrs. Earl Walke.

Cancer Tag Day Workers Needed

Tuesday, April 20, during the Workers Cancer Crusade, has been designated as Tag Day. This day is to be devoted to education.

Throughout Southeastern Michigan on that day volunteers will be stationed in all business and residential shopping areas. A tag on which are listed the 7 warning signals will be presented to passersby. It is hoped through this media people will be warned, so that in 1954 more lives may be saved by early diagnosis.

Mrs. John E. Ault, Jr., in charge of Grosse Pointe, has enlisted the services of the Parent Teachers groups of Parcels and Pierce Junior High School, the mother's club of the High School and the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion, Post 303 to serve on this project. There will be no solicitations, as this day is to be devoted to education only.

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center has offered its facilities to help make this day a success.

Any individuals who are interested in helping and who would like to devote two hours of their time are requested to call Mrs. John Ault, TUxedo 1-5532.

Democrat Dinner Workers Named

The Democratic Women's Club of the 14th District has appointed a local Jefferson-Jackson Day Committee for the Democratic Party it was announced by Miss Adelaide Hart, vice-chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee.

The Committee will help promote the dinner which will be held in the Masonic Temple on May 2. Dinner tickets will be $25 single and $35 for husband and wife. A reception will be held in the afternoon at the Naval Armory, East Jefferson avenue, to which there will be no admission charge.

On the reception committee from Grosse Pointe are: Mrs. Robert Hendren, 913 Rivard boulevard; Mrs. Chester Ploplis, 1816 Roslyn road; and Mrs. Douglas Jones, 1242 Grayton road. Mrs. Hendren is also publicity and program chairman.

Parochial High Schools Asked to Enter Contest

Art students of parochial high schools in the Detroit Archdiocese have been invited to enter in a poster contest promoted in the interests of the Scouting Exposition at the State Fair Grounds, May 13-14-15.

Six cash prizes are being awarded covering first, second and third places also three honorable mentions. The contest was approved, as an individual student project, by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Carroll F. Deady, Archdiocesan Superintendent of Schools.

The contest ends Wednesday, May 5, and all entries will be judged shortly after by a committee of three advertising men, and representatives of the C.Y.O. and Scouting.

A special booth has been reserved at the Exposition to display a large number of posters including the six prize winners during the 3-day show.

New Repair Department Established by Air-Tec

After a year's survey and research, Air-Tec Metal Products Company, 640 E. 7 Mile road, states that since 1947 there have been over 100 various makes of aluminum storm sash and doors sold in metropolitan Detroit, and that a great number of the companies who sold these have since gone out of business.

This has caused a very critical situation, as far as the home owner is concerned, in getting repairs and replacements.

C. A. Wines, owner of the firm, said he has set up a complete new department solely for repair of these orphaned aluminum storm sash, screens and doors, and is now in a position to repair or replace defective parts for all makes that have been sold in Detroit for the past 7 years.

This allows the firm to rewire, reglaze and repair all makes of Aluminum sash and doors within 48 hours.

Very few people who look for trouble know what to do with it after they find it.

Prospects Bright for Flyer Baseball and Track Teams

Coach Eddie Lauer enjoys the enviable position of having 11 veterans returning to his 1954 St. Paul baseball team which will begin the chase for the Big 12 Conference title on April 30.

The league schedule includes seven games, with four being played at the Neighborhood Club field, the Flyers' home diamond, and three away. The Flyers will entertain Lakeview in a non-league contest to open the season on Wednesday, April 21. This is the only non-league game in which the Flyers will participate.

Coach Lauer has high hopes for his St. Paul outfit going a long way in the league race because of the large number of veterans returning and a good group of freshman and sophomore hopefuls. Returning to the baseball was Ted Monahan, Karl Kiefer, Tom Reid, Joe Bejlin, Dan Monahan, Bob Wright, Gene Graham, Jim Lombardo, Bob Keller, Dan Whemoff and Chuck Gallus.

Other four point winners Thursday night were Belding's Over Kemp and Revere over Vermeulen.

High scores for the night were posted by Petracci 252, Borst 22-6004 and Ruth 221.

Snow, rain and soggy grounds have prevented the Flyers from doing much more than limbering up exercises to date.

Along with his baseball duties Coach Lauer will double in brass and handle a veteran track team. The Flyers will open their season April 22 with a triangular meet against St. Bernard and St. Phillip at the Belle Isle athletic field. The season will include three triangular, two dual meets and the Regionals.

All meets will be held at Belle Isle and will start at 4 p.m. The Regionals are slated for U. of D. stadium May 15.

Heading the last of returning letters, which should make the Flyers a strong contender for the Big 12 Conference title, are: John Bergman, Gerry Fitzgerald, Wally Hogue, Bob Louwers, Joe Klem, Mike Sheehan, Bob Taylor, Tim Trombly and Phil Van Tiem.

POUPARD SCHOOL

One hundred and five Safety Patrol boys and Service Squad girls were honored recently at a dinner held at Poupard School. Following the dinner, which was provided in part by the school and by parents of the children, a half hour of Disney cartoons were shown in the gym. Donald Strnad, P.T.A. president, and Mrs. Strnad, were guests as well as the teachers who have these children in class.

Arthur Carson, third grader, and Gary Cherdron, first grader, at Poupard School took first prizes in the kite flying contest which was held during the last week in March. Kites were judged on their appearance, construction, and flying ability. Runners up were John Doherty, fifth grade, and Michael Ide, fourth grade.

In spite of the severe snowstorm on Monday, March 29, more than 100 parents attended a special P.T.A. meeting to discuss the election to be held on June 14 for additional school facilities. Mr. Strnad, president of the P.T.A. and Franklin Dougherty, member of the Board of Education, explained the details of the election to the group. A motion supporting the issues to be presented to the voters on June 14, was unanimously passed.

BITES FEEDING HAND

Mrs. Theodore Cody of 9385 Jameson, Detroit, while watching the house and caring for the dog of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William Sigle of 632 Lincoln road, was bitten on the right wrist on Friday, April 2, by the house pet. The animal will be confined for 12 days. The Board of Health was notified.

Loop Lead Held By Pete Moor's

Pete Moor's holds a lead in the Grosse Pointe Business Men's League by one-half point after taking three and one-half points from H. M. Seldon. Pete Moor's was sparked by Ruth who narrowly missed a 600 series when he rolled 597.

Barrett's stayed close to the leaders' heels when they took four from Bogtyn's. Banks - Lightbourne also stayed in the race when they took three from Turner-Bulek.

Other four point winners Thursday night were Belding's Over Kemp and Revere over Vermeulen.

Little League Calls Practice

The Woods Little League baseball tryouts will get underway next Saturday, April 17, at the Mason School field, according to an announcement by President Mary Boutin. The tryouts are for the purpose of determining which boys on the four major league teams and the eight or more minor league squads.

Boys 9 and 10 years old will begin practice at 9:30 a.m. and the 11 and 12 year olds will take over at 2 p.m. All boys who bring a one dollar registration fee and an extra, plain white tee shirt which will be left with the league to be lettered for team identification.

Registration blanks may be obtained at tryout time on Saturday.

All boys who attend the tryouts will be placed on a team.

Finance chairman Howard Stoneback (TU. 5-1770) is still looking for more funds to purchase team equipment and points out a plaque listing the sponsors and contributors will be erected at the playing field.

Mrs. D. P. Hummer Returns To Her Illinois Home

Mrs. Hummer came over to welcome her brother, Sgt. Victor W. Hughes Jr. who has returned from over a year's service in Korea.

It's a good idea to remember that a big bankroll won't count when the roll is called up yonder.

VILLAGE OF GROSSE POINTE SHORES Wayne and Macomb Counties, Michigan

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING ON THE VACATION OF EASEMENT

A regular meeting of the Village Council of the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores, Wayne and Macomb Counties, Michigan

WHEREAS, there has been submitted to the Council a letter signed by the record titleholders of the following described property:

1. The Village Council deems it advisable to vacate the easements for public utilities described in the preamble hereto.

2. The Village Council shall meet at 795 Lake Shore Road in said Village on May 10, 1954, at 5:30 o'clock p.m.

3. Notice of said hearing shall be given by publication of a certified copy of this resolution once in the Grosse Pointe News not less than three (3) weeks before the date of such hearing.

Clifford B. Loranger, Clerk

for public utilities included in said plat as follows: The easements for public utilities on Lots 24 and 25 of Deeplands, a Subdivision of part of Private Claims 820 and 821, Village of Grosse Pointe Shores, Wayne County, Michigan, according to the plat thereof recorded in Liber 75, Page 26 of Plats, Wayne County Records, described as follows:

Commencing at a point in the northerly line of South Deeplands Road 6 feet easterly of the southeasterly corner of Lot 25; thence northerly on a line parallel with the line between Lots 24 and 25, a distance of 140.40 feet; thence westerly on a line parallel with the line between Lots 24 and 25, a distance of 140.40 feet; thence easterly along the northerly line of South Deeplands Road, a distance of 12 feet to the place of beginning.

AND, WHEREAS, said easements for public utilities are not presently in use and provision is made for service by public utilities of all of said lots over easements other than those vacation of which it is requested;

AND, WHEREAS, The Council deems it advisable to vacate the easements for public utilities described in the first paragraph of this preamble;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT

COME TO Easter CHURCH Services

Church Service For Children

There will be a Good Friday Youth Service sponsored by local churches for the Detroit Council of Churches, in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church, 19950 Mack avenue, from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

This Youth Service, which is for children from 5 to 11 years of age, will be held while adults are attending the Good Friday Service in the Grosse Pointe Woods Theatre.

The theme of this Youth Service is, "Miracles of God in Spring."

Churches participating in this service are: The Faith Commu-

ity Church, Grosse Pointe Methodist, Grace Evangelical United Brethren, Grace Evangelical and Reformed, Immanuel Evangelical United Brethren, Church of the Nazarene, First Church of the Brethren, Bethany Christian Church, Redeemer Methodist, and the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

Children of all churches are cordially invited to this Good Friday Service.

Nothing wrong with making mistakes, but don't respond to encores.

Easter Sunday

Symbolizing so beautifully, the glorious promise of eternal life, Easter is a time of spiritual rebirth for all of us . . . a time to find renewed faith and hope and courage in the miracle of His Resurrection.

In Church . . . on Easter morn . . . you will experience the true glory of a Day that has meant so much to so many for so long . . . as joyfully you lift your voice to sing, his praises . . . as reverently you bow your head in prayers of thankfulness for His blessings.

Church Speaker

DR. HAROLD L. YOCHUM, president of Capital University, Columbus, Ohio, will speak at Tre-Ore Services, from 12:30 until 3 Friday afternoon at St. Paul Lutheran Church, Chalfonte and Lothrop.

Dr. Yochum was formerly president of the Michigan District.

Sometimes success comes to the man who gets busy and answers his own prayers.

It takes dollars to convince people you have sense.

Spring Cleaning Warning Issued
WARNING to house holders planning their spring cleaning: home cleaning fluids can cost you your life if they are improperly used.

The Michigan Department of Health reports that the spring cleaning season has already gotten off to a tragic beginning in the state. One householder died recently from over-exposure to the fumes of the carbon tetrachloride he was using to clean the furniture in his living room.

Practically all preparations for home dry cleaning contain either pure carbon tetrachloride or a large portion of it mixed with other solvents.

Poisoning from such preparations can occur from inhaling the vapors, absorbing the carbon tetrachloride into the blood stream through the skin or from swallowing some of the mixture.

Inhaling the vapors is the most common cause of such poisoning in the home. Poisoning may occur from a single brief exposure to a high concentration of vapor, or from prolonged or repeated exposure to a moderately high concentration, or from regular daily exposure to low concentrations.

John Goet, who heads the state health department's division of occupational health, said that in the average-sized living room, 13' x 20', with an eight-foot ceiling, a rug cleaning job requiring a pint of cleaning fluid made up largely of carbon tetrachloride would cause death in a short time. A quart of the fluid in such a room could produce unconsciousness in less than a minute.

First rule for using home cleaning fluids safely is to do all dry cleaning outdoors. Wait until the weather is nice and take your rugs and furniture out on the lawn where it is difficult for the vapors to build up to toxic concentrations.

Even then, you should use a long-handled mop or brush so you can stay as far away from the fumes as possible while you work.

Be sure the rugs and furniture are thoroughly dried and aired before taking them back into the house.

Another safety rule is to avoid spilling any of the fluid on your skin or clothes. If this happens, wash the area immediately with water and a mild soap and apply an ointment containing petrolatum or lanolin.

Some persons are more susceptible to the toxic effects of carbon tetrachloride than others. Particularly susceptible are the obese, the heavy drinkers, the undernourished, those with diabetes, liver or kidney diseases, lung or heart diseases and peptic ulcers.

Regardless of how the chemical makes its entry into the body—either by absorption through the skin, inhalation of vapors, or if some is swallowed—the toxic symptoms are the same: headache, mental confusion, depression, fatigue, loss of appetite, nausea, vomiting, loss of coordination and sense of balance, and visual disturbances.

The onset of symptoms may occur immediately after over-exposure, or may be delayed for periods of two to eight days or longer.

A person showing typical symptoms from inhalation of the vapor should be removed immediately to an area where the air is fresh. He should rest quietly and be kept warm. A physician should be notified at once. If breathing has stopped, artificial respiration should be used and the fire or police department inhalator squad should be called.

If some of the fluid is splashed into the eyes, they should be washed copiously with water for at least 15 minutes.

Checking the label on the container may give some clue as to whether or not the cleaning fluid contains carbon tetrachloride, even though the name of the chemical may not be shown. If a cleaning fluid is described as being "non-inflammable" or "non-flammable," it invariably contains a solvent that is potentially toxic if misused.

Rendezvous Held In Washington

Mrs. Henry B. Joy of Fair Acres, Lake Shore road, and Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith, of Grand Marais boulevard, have been in Washington D.C. this week.

They are attending the annual rendezvous of the Women Descendants of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Co.

Mrs. Smith is president general of the organization and Mrs. Joy is national parliamentarian.

City of Grosse Pointe Woods Resolution by Councilman Heckendorn

WHEREAS, the owners of all of the property abutting on the public utilities easement, hereinafter described, have petitioned the Mayor and Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods to vacate the same, to-wit:

Twenty foot strip of land for sewer right-of-way purposes over and across a parcel of land located west of Mack Avenue and south of Bournemouthe Road, being part of P. C. 617 in City of Grosse Pointe Woods, Wayne County, Michigan; said strip of land being 10' on each side of a line more particularly described as: Beginning at the intersection of west line of Mack Avenue 150' wide with the southerly line of Bournemouthe Road 80' wide; thence south 00 degrees 45 minutes 54 seconds west along west line of Mack Avenue 204.59' to a point; thence north 03 degrees 23 minutes 46 seconds west 165.45' to a point; thence south 00 degrees 43 minutes 14 seconds west 171.65' to a point on the southerly line of lands now owned by the United Detroit Theater Corporation, said point also being the northerly terminus and the point of beginning of the center line herein described; thence south 00 degrees 43 minutes 14 seconds west 250.03' (more or less) to a point on the line between the City of Grosse Pointe Woods and the City of Detroit; said point being the southerly terminus of the center line herein described.

The above easement being recorded on November 13, 1951, in liber 1150, page 633, Wayne County Records.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that proceedings be and are hereby instituted in accordance with the provisions of Section 7.6 of the City Charter to cause to be vacated the foregoing public utilities easement.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Mayor and Council of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods hereby appoint and designate Monday, the 17 day of May, 1954, at 7:30 o'clock p.m. at the Municipal Building, Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, as the time and place for conducting a public hearing upon the question of vacating said public utilities easement and hearing any and all objections thereto.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that notice of such public hearing shall be given, by publishing a copy of this resolution in the Grosse Pointe News at least four weeks prior to date of hearing herein fixed, and that copies thereof be mailed to each property owner as appears from the last preceding tax roll of the City, of property abutting the public utilities easement proposed to be vacated.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. HANSEL WILSON OF OXFORD ROAD

By Jane Schermerhorn

Today's Pointer of Interest started giving serious thought to flower arrangements just nine years ago. She won a blue ribbon for that very first effort and though many, many honors have followed, she thinks no ribbon since has ever seemed quite so blue.

To look at an arrangement by Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson, lovely, uncluttered, with strong feeling for soft colors, it all looks so simple. But it isn't a matter of just putting a few flowers in a vase, at all, we learned.

She enjoys coordinating the whole thing... the flowers, the china, the glassware, table accessories. "It's like playing an artistic game," was the way she expressed it. That game often involves hours and days of research to tell her artistic story and that the result is always eye-appealing is tribute to her talent.

Take, for instance, the table she did for the invitational show at the time of Detroit's 250th birthday celebration. She decided to do a dinner table at which Cadillac might have presided.

Cadillac Table

At the Art Institute Mrs. Wilson found a list of articles Cadillac brought to Detroit with him on his arrival at Fort Ponchartrain. She got books on Cadillac to better know what manner of man he had been.

She recalls one story told that the commander sometimes had a terrible temper; how once he had seized a nineteen inch pewter candlestick and had brought it down on the head of a soldier. The soldier survived but the pewter candlestick, legend says, bore marks of having been bashed on his head.

When Mrs. Wilson went out to the Ford Museum to see if there was an antique pewter candlestick holder she might borrow for her history of Detroit table, she not only found one nineteen inches tall, but one that was dented in the same place as that Cadillac owned.

She signed a paper to borrow the candlestick which was valued at $1,500. It was used with an antique French prayerbook which was placed, opened at an evening prayer, before Cadillac's place at the table.

The centerpiece of fruit and flowers also followed early French provincial manner but Mrs. Wilson used materials that might have been gathered in early Detroit. Cherries and crabapples were heaped in a wooden container and into the fruit arrangement were tucked miniature bouquets of blue, white, yellow and pink flowers.

You see how the story was told!

Many Interests

Her early interest in historical societies, in which her mother and grandmother had long been active, probably added fillip to doing such research. Mrs. Wilson is a member of Louisa St. Clair Chapter of the D.A.R.; Daughters of American Colonists and of The Descendants of Colonial Governors.

She is first vice-president of the Grosse Pointe Garden Center; was chairman of the Center's first October Flower Show in 1952; co-chairman and schedule chairman of the Center's first October Flower Show tober 1953, and is a member of the board of directors of the Center.

She is a past president of the Pointe Garden Club and a member of the Grosse Pointe Shores Branch of the National Farm and Garden Club. She served as chairman of the Flower and Garden Booth committee of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Christmas Fairs in 1947-49 and 51. She also assisted on the same committee for the Christ Church Christmas Fair in 1952.

Other organization interests include Past Presidency of the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church (Jan. 52 to Jan. 54); honorary member of the National Board of Home Missions as well as of the Foreign Missions. She's a member of the Fine Arts Society, Theatre Arts and the Detroit Artist Market; an associate member of the Detroit Society of Women Painters and Sculptors.

The Big Mushroom

She does her very, very best to discipline herself in purchase of vases, a great temptation for all who love to arrange flowers. We were struck by one she likes to use for shows. It is mushroom shaped, a brown-grayish color (from frog in the clay) which she found at Society of Arts and Crafts. She uses it effectively for smoke tone flowers such as muted grayed apricot cactus and chrysanthemums. She showed us how just the addition of a base (could be a straw mat or a very low stand) does for such a container. We suspect she could make a jelly glass as dashing as a Steuben vase.

On a motor trip in New England, she found a pair of low white tote containers. The bottoms are shaped like miniature top hats and they are edged in tote flange which looks for all the world like the lace ruff on a colonial bouquet. She arranges gay Colonial bouquets in these vases and you're apt to find them on a side table on the terrace of her Oxford road home.

Idea for Easter

We begged an Easter morning breakfast table idea from this lady who has such a way with flowers and this is one she suggests:

Use a low, natural straw Easter basket for the center piece. It could be filled with forced forsythia, yellow tulips, tulip foliage. In the very center there could be a large, clear plastic Easter egg, the kind that separates in half. Fill the center with one tulip blossom, the petals turned back; violets and forsythia buds.

At each place setting put a small, clear plastic egg (obtainable at department or dime stores), filled with tiny nose-gay of forsythia buds and violets.

Natural straw mats would be attractive with clear low glass tumblers (to complement the plastic eggs). And then the table is completed by your own breakfast pottery. This idea can be adapted to any color scheme your breakfast pottery makes necessary.

Favorites

And just because it adds to Spring fever, we asked Mrs. Wil-

Gardeners Hear Mrs. Warren

Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren was the featured speaker at the April meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club, at the home of Mrs. Wilson W. Mills, 7 Woodland place, on Monday, April 12.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. J. Nell Candler, and Mrs. Jack B. Hunter.

son for a list of some of her favorite flowers.

She found it hard to pick and choose but decided that in early Spring she loves: light pink flowering shrubs; Pink Beauty tulips; Queen of Spain; white hyacinth and single white peonies.

In Summer: imported Dutch white lilies; French pink lilies (Pink Pearl); Golden Rapture roses; Peace roses; Dainty Bess roses; white and coral spiky larkspur and a salmon pink phlox. In Fall she'd choose the handsome, tawny cactus type chrysanthemums.

And at any season of the year... all white flowers.

COFFEE CAKE

Contributed by MRS. DANIEL HEMBEL
1 c. butter or margarine
1/2 c. sugar
1 tsp. salt
1 c. scalded milk

Mix above ingredients and add two beaten eggs and 2 cakes of yeast which have been diluted in 1/4 c. of lukewarm water.

Add 4 1/2 cups of sifted bread flour and mix well. Let rise from 1 1/2 hours to 2 hours. Keep in 75 degree temperature.

Knead and stretch out to cover a jelly roll or cookie tin. On top sprinkle the following crumbs:

1 stick of butter or margarine
1/2 c. flour
1 c. sugar
1 little vanilla

Also sprinkle whole pecan meats over top of coffee cake. Bake for 15 or 20 minutes in 400 degree oven. Remove when baked and spoon over top frosting made by mixing 1/4 box powdered sugar, vanilla to taste and enough milk (1 to 2 Tbsp.) to moisten.

Sally Mitchell Bows in June

Mrs. Thomas Evans will come from her home in Ligonier, Pa. to give a tea at the Little Club June 23 presenting her daughter, Sally Mitchell to Detroit society.

On June 25, the debutante's grandmother, Mrs. Joseph S. Schlotman will give a dance for Sally, in her home, Stonehurst, on Lake Shore road.

STATE ADVERTISING

Michigan's vacation attractions are being advertised by the State Tourist Council this spring in 20 national magazines having a combined circulation of 28,755,730 readers, according to Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Council.

Pointe Scout Units Busy Preparing for Exposition

Grosse Pointe Scouting units are fired with homestretch activity as they complete their exhibits and displays for the gigantic Scouting Exposition to be held May 13, 14, and 15 at the Michigan State Fair Grounds.

District Participation Chairman A. G. Denison, of 188 Kerby road, announced that Pointe units have booth subjects of special interest to the public. "Our Pointe displays are well diversified and will include unusual items of do-it-yourself activity," Denison added.

To indicate some of the coming features, Denison released a list of Pointe units participating in this mammoth affair along with the booth subjects that they will feature.

Troop 61, sponsored by the Holy Name Society of St. Paul's Church, will have a booth devoted to Artificial Respiration. Scoutmaster Edmund Vernier, of 170 Muir road, and Troop Chairman William R. Evans, 334 McKinley, are in charge of Troop 61's preparations.

Home Repairs will be the subject of Troop 74's booth exhibit. Sponsor of Troop 74 is Richard School PTA. Jack Beaver, of 22420 Alger is Scoutmaster. Troop Chairman is J. G. Morrison, of 66 Hall place. "Home owners will be particularly pleased with our display," added Jim Morrison.

Monteith School Parents' Club, sponsors of Troop 85, are watching their unit's final touches on the display subject of Preparation for Hiking. John Hoskyns, 1804 Kenmore, is Scoutmaster and Andrew Campbell, of 1071 N. Oxford, is Troop Committee Chairman.

Troop 96, sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, will feature Tower Building. Scoutmaster Otto Streck of 1319 Somerset, and Chairman Robert C. Winter, of 800 Lakeland, are the guiding lights in Troop 96's Exposition activity.

Mason School PTA's Troop 280 is developing a booth exhibit around Dog Care. Fred Radtke, 2017 Lochmoor, serves as Committee Chairman. Byron Burchby, 1237 Hampton, is Scoutmaster of Troop 280, sponsored by St.

Clare of Montefalco Church, will display a Den Games exhibit, according to Committee Chairman Paul Gerhardestein, of 3495 Courville. Cubmaster for this cub pack is Dr. Edward Moeller, Jr., of 1417 Devonshire. Troop 399, also sponsored by St. Clare Church, will feature Archery in its booth. Marshall Bruce, 1334 Devonshire, is Scoutmaster. George Higgins, of 3980 Bedford, is Troop Committee Chairman.

Troop 479, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club of Grosse Pointe, will demonstrate C-noc Building. Adult leadership for Troop 479 is provided by Scoutmaster Don Martin, of 1007 Berkshire, and Committee Chairman C. D. Ogden, 20 Hawthorne.

Important to an Exposition that covers more than six acres are the Service Contingents that provide ushers, guides, and messengers. Several Pointe units are cooperating in this respect. Some Service Scouts will come from Troop 290, which also has a booth activity.

The balance of the Service Scouts will be furnished by Defer School PTA's Troop 147 and Explorer Post 147, Trombley School PTA's Troop 86, and Richard School PTA's Explorer Post 74. Ted Granger, 91 Mapleton, is Scoutmaster for Troop 147. George Ryerson, 1030 Balfour, is Troop Committee Chairman. John Staiger, of 1440 Balfour, is Explorer Advisor for Post 147, while Carleton Wyse, 1424 Maryland, is Chairman.

Scoutmaster William Frahm, 898 Lakepointe, and Committee Chairman John Malcolm, 578 Barrington, provide Troop 86 with adult leadership. Dan Memmel, of 1597 Newcastle, is Explorer Advisor for Post 74, while H. G. Emerson, of 765 Washington, is Explorer Committee Chairman.

Tickets for the Exposition, at 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for registered Scouts, or children under 12, are being offered by the Scouts and their Leaders throughout the Pointe area. Ticket Sales Manager for District 3 is Harold F. Marsh, of 800 Pemberton road. James Morrison is in charge of Grosse Pointe ticket sales.
