BOTH the Guatemalan Government and the anti-Communist "Liberation Army" are making statements that do not jibe. The rebels claim the advance of their forces have bogged down because of seasonal rain; the Government claims to have broken the rebels' main offensive. Later, the Government issued a communique, stating that Guatemala is being attacked by air, by land and by sea. Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, leader of the rebels, said that his advance had been slowed up, not only because of the rains, but also because his followers wished to avoid bloodshed.

RED CHINA HAS AGREED to a cease fire in Indochina, Premier Mendes-France informed the French National Assembly. The Assembly then gave the premier a resounding vote of confidence, 433 to 23. Before the vote, Mendes-France reported on his meeting in Bern, Switzerland, with Chinese Communist Premier Chou En Lai.

He said that he and the Chinese premier had agreed to realize as rapidly as possible a settlement of the military problems. Observers said that Red China wants to prevent the United States from forming an anti-Communist bloc in Southeast Asia.

Saturday, June 26

A SPEEDY END to the war in its country, was promised by the Guatemalan Army. That branch of the service boasted that it was advancing on all fronts and that before long an end will come to the week-old anti-Communist invasion.

On the other hand, the "liberation" forces of Col. Carlos Castillo Armas, leader of the revolt to overthrow the leftist regime of President Jacobo Arbenz Guzman, claimed they were holding 16 towns inside Guatemala.

Sunday, June 27

UNDER THE RIO DE JANEIRO TREATY of mutual defense, the United States and nine other American republics called for a hemisphere foreign ministers' conference on July 7, to deal with the situation in Guatemala. The foreign ministers could decide to take joint action with the "intervention of the international Communist movement" in Guatemala.

The meeting is scheduled to be held in Montevideo, Uruguay. All 21 members of the Organization of American States are eligible to attend, but Guatemala is expected to boycott the meeting. The American States said that the situation in Guatemala affects the sovereignty and political independence of the Western Hemisphere countries.

Monday, June 28

JACOBO ARBENZ GUZMAN, president of revolt-swept Guatemala, announced over a radio broadcast that he was resigning. He also said that he was turning over the government to Col. Carlos Enrique Diaz, commander-in-chief of the Armed Forces.

The U. S. State Department disclosed that Diaz had promised to take steps to end the conflict in his country. A dispatch from Guatemala City, which was passed through censorship, said the "Battle of Guatemala" was expected to end within 48 hours. Arbenz was forced to resign by the army chiefs who guaranteed his and his family's safety.

Tuesday, June 29

THE UNITED STATES prepared to evacuate hundreds of American citizens to neighboring El Salvador, as rebel planes bombed and strafed Guatemala City. An American airlift of 12 planes was reported to be standing by to carry out the evacuation "momentarily." Informants disclosed that the Salvadorian Government has permitted American planes to land in El Salvador with cots, clothing and provisions, for those to be evacuated.

Wednesday, June 30

THE FRENCH high command announced that two days of Vietnam bombing have mauled the French forces badly. The announcement also disclosed that French and Vietnamese forces have withdrawn from An Khe, a strong point 250 miles northeast of Saigon and 40 miles west of the China Sea coast.

Improvements Don't Interfere with Bathers at Park Pier

Although somewhat noisier than in past seasons, the residents of the Park can still enjoy the cool comfort of their municipal bathing beach in spite of the construction work in progress on the new boat harbor and pier. In the background, beyond and away from the swimming facilities, can be seen the pile driving rig of the Dunbar-Sullivan Co.

State Plans Survey For Elm Disease

All Trees on Municipal and Private Property To Be Inspected by Experts

A complete survey of elm trees for the destructive Dutch Elm Disease will be made in the Grosse Pointe communities in the immediate future, according to C. A. Boyer, Chief, Bureau of Plant Industry, Michigan Department of Agriculture.

This is a community project in which the Bureau of Plant Industry will furnish qualified and trained personnel to supervise the survey. The municipalities will also furnish men to assist. All elm trees will be checked whether on private or public property.

Four Cars Tangle On Lake Shore

Thomas F. Coffey of 5260 Grayton road, Detroit, was issued a ticket on June 23, for speeding on Lake Shore drive and for failure to pull over to the right curb when flagged down. His mistake resulted in a two-car collision.

The trailing police car ordered him over to the curb and Coffey pulled to the wrong side, causing the squad car to slam on its brakes and forcing a third car, driven by Guy A. Lyford of 285 Ridgeman, to swerve into the center lane.

Lyford was struck by a fourth car driven by Leonard L. Talbal of 21916 Lange, St. Clair Shores. A total of $400 damage was incurred by the two cars. The court date is pending.

Youths Hurt as Cars Crash Deny Racing Before Mishap

A 17-year-old driver, who was said to have been racing another car on East Jefferson avenue in the Park, and a passenger in his car were taken to Bon Secours Hospital, when their car became involved in an accident and both were injured on Friday, June 25.

Injured were Michael W. Mackey, 17, of 971 South Oxford, driver; and John R. Carroll, 16, of 22427 Elizabeth, St. Clair Shores. The extent of their injuries was not disclosed in the police accident report.

According to the report, Mackey was driving east on Jefferson, when he struck the rear of a car driven by Juanita F. Harrison of 916 North Second, Tucson, Ariz., who was also headed east and had stopped at Jefferson and Yorkshire to make a left hand turn.

Dr. Davies Warns Against Having Too Much Faith in Power of Gamma Globulin

New Preventive Treatment Is Purely Passive Vaccine, Useless After Exposure and Having Short Immunization Period

Gamma Globulin is definitely not a polio cure-all, according to Dr. T. S. Davies of the Pointe Board of Health. Again available to doctors in the Detroit and Grosse Pointe area, Dr. Davies strongly urged parents not to rely on this sole precautionary step against the dreaded disease.

Dr. Davies emphasized this point by saying, "We have on record many cases of people who have come down with polio even after they have been inoculated with the Gamma Globulin." This, Dr. Davies attributes to the nature of the vaccine.

"The Gamma Globulin is a passive rather than active vaccine," said Dr. Davies, "which simply means that the germ fighting bodies are given to you rather than built up by your own system. This, in turn, means that they will soon die off and the system will again be susceptible to the disease." Dr. Davies gave the period of immunity as about five weeks.

"In cases where exposure to the disease has already taken place, the Gamma Globulin is almost completely ineffectual." This is because the period of incubation for the polio germ is shorter than the time it takes the globulin to begin working as a counteractive.

Protection Short Lived Because of the relatively short period of immunization, the globulin cannot be used as a vaccine like the smallpox vaccine. "In case of a serious epidemic, though, the globulin would be used in large quantities like other vaccines, but the object would be only to stave off the immediate spread of the epidemic, and not quell it completely," said Dr. Davies. And it is in this capacity that the antibiotic is most effective, he intimated.

Young Reaffirms Globulin's Value

William J. Young, Jr., chairman of the Wayne County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, has reaffirmed the value of gamma globulin as a preventive for paralytic polio.

He quoted from an address to the American Orthopedic Association which met in Bretton Woods, N.H., this month by Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation. Dr. Van Riper cited recent findings for continuing laboratory and clinical studies of polio incidence and muscle involvement based of the Hammon field tests of 1951-52. He called this "the only extensive, scientifically controlled field study of gamma globulin's effectiveness in preventing paralytic polio or modifying its destructiveness after infection."

Dr. Van Riper referred to controlled inoculations of approximately 55,000 children in Houston, Sioux City and Provo, Utah, under the direction of Dr. William McD. Hammon of the University of Pittsburgh School of Public Health, under a grant from the National Foundation. "Findings from the Hammon trials, now supported by his follow-up studies prove that gamma globulin can be 88 per cent effective for a period of at least eight weeks against the paralytic effects of polio," Dr. Van Riper said.

"To clarify the status of GG and to set at rest any misunderstandings that may have come (Continued on Page 2)

Order to Kill Biting Dogs Questioned

Importance of Finding Out If They Are Rabid Cited By News Readers

Since the publication in last week's issue of a news item stating that Police Chief Thomas Trombly of the City of Grosse Pointe, ordered all biting dogs running loose to be shot by his policemen, a number of inquiries and protestations have been received at the NEWS office.

The tenor of these communications has been quite similar and the arguments are all covered in the following letter addressed to the editor.

The Letter

June 24, 1954

To The Editor: I am quite disturbed by an article on page 1 of today's (June 24) Grosse Pointe News headlined "Biting Dogs Running Loose Ordered Killed in G. P. City."

One paragraph in regard to the hospital examination of the dog's head states, "that an examination (of the head) showed the test was negative, but this does not mean that the dog was free from the disease." The next paragraph says that "Police Chief Thomas V. Trombly issued a warning that hereafter any dog found at large which bites anyone, will be shot and its head will be sent to the hospital for examination."

According to my health instructions, this order, if carried out, could be extremely dangerous. When a person is bitten by a dog, the animal should be placed under observation—not shot. If the dog is in the early stages of rabies, and he is killed, examinations are very likely to produce negative tests. But the victim he has bitten can still get rabies; if the Pasteur or Sample treatments are not administered—the fatality rate is almost 100 per cent.

Woman Reports Mystery Thefts

A mystified woman informed Woods police on Sunday, June 27 that she has been missing several items from her home from time to time.

Miss May Hamilton, of 1585 Ford court, told police that within the last two weeks she has missed valuables, but after a check of the house she could find no evidence that her residence had been forcibly entered.

Missing, she said, about two weeks ago, was a platinum watch, valued at $450. Then two pieces of costume jewelry, with a total value of $75, disappeared.

The last item to vanish was a $75 pair of opera binoculars. To date, police working on the case are just as mystified as the woman.

Kiwanis Club Again Sponsoring Fourth Of July Fireworks

Gigantic Display on Parcels School Grounds Expected to Attract Crowd of More Than 15,000 Monday Night

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club is again planning to give the Pointe residents a big bang this fourth of July weekend. According to Charles O'Hanisan, publicity chairman, plans are nearing completion for the Club's 12th Annual Fire Works display to be held at the Parcels' play field on Monday, July 5, at 8 p.m.

The display, long the highlight of week-end festivities for young and old alike, will again be assembled and run off by Arnold Diesing.

Builds Own Displays Since the inauguration of the display, Mr. Diesing has been in charge of the building and the firing of all the arrays. Mr. Diesing begins as early as May to assemble the material and plan the theme of the display. He then sets about to build the various skyrocket, roman candles, pinwheels and such needed for the different arrays. One of his last, and toughest jobs is the building of the huge frames required for the spectacular central display, usual climax of the works.

Built Birthday Cake Mr. Diesing will long be remembered for his beautiful multi-colored birthday cake of last year's display, commemorating the 25th Anniversary of the City of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Mr. Diesing would not divulge what the central theme of this year's display would be, but in the words of Mr. O'Hanisan, "This year's display promises to be bigger and better than ever."

Troop 290 of the Boy Scouts again plans to handle the refreshments for the more than 15,000 expected.

Burglar Loots Home in Park

Sometime between the hours of 10 a.m. on June 23 and 10:30 p.m. on June 24, a thief entered and looted the home of the Thomas Taylors of 1251 Harvard road. Three hundred dollars cash and jewelry amounting to $400 were reported missing, according to Park Detective Lt. Arnold Hough.

The jewelry missing included three watches, two cigaret lighters and a man's ring. Broken was gained through the entry pane in the leaded glass window of the front door.

At present a suspect is under investigation, said Lt. Hough.

Capt. Thomas B. Tyree Finishes Officer Course

FORT KNOX, Ky.—Capt. Thomas B. Tyree, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Tyree of 28 Provencal road, has completed the Armor Officer Advanced Course No. 1 at the Armored School here.

This course provides advanced branch training appropriate to officers holding the rank of major or higher.

It covers communications, gunnery, maintenance, logistics, administration, intelligence, field intelligence, field engineering, and instructor training.

Citizens' Advisory Group Appointed for City's Park

At a Special Council Meeting held Thursday, June 24, a Citizens' Advisory Committee was appointed by the Mayor and Council to consult with the officials and staff in matters pertaining to the operation of the City's lakefront municipal park.

The following agreed to serve, with Councilman Kenneth F. Bergmann and Otto W. Pongracz as co-chairmen:—Mrs. Emogene Adams, 305 University place; Mrs. Dorothy Marr, 754 Lakeland avenue; Mr. Jack Stephenson, 475 Fisher road; Mr. James Morrison, 687 Washington road.

While the park is opening on July 3 with limited facilities available, construction work is by no means completed, and citizens are urged to be cautious

Council Hears Veiled Threat Of Law Suit

Plumbers' Association Representative Sees Possibility of Court Action

A veiled threat of a law suit against the City of Grosse Pointe Woods cropped up during a special Woods council meeting on Monday, June 28, while a discussion was carried on concerning the city's garbage grinder ordinance and method of financing and installing of grinder units.

During the course of discussion, a representative of the Master Plumbers Association of Michigan, asked to be heard.

Will Become Plumbers

The representative stated that the city is making a mountain out of a mole hill, and that no bids are necessary from concerns interested in installing the grinders. He said that the city will enter the plumbing business, whether it wants to or not.

He referred to a statement made during the meeting, in which it was brought out that the city will advertise for bids for the revenue bond issue to finance the purchase and install 500 grinders. It was also brought out that the city will have nothing to do with the installation, because it does not want to enter the plumbing business.

May Launch Action

The veiled threat of a suit entered when the representative revealed that several Woods residents asserted that "the city carries out its grinder program, which according to the grinder ordinance would cause a discontinuance of garbage and food waste collection by July 1, 1955, the people opposed may start court action."

A member of another grinder concern remarked that the ordinance was a good law, but the fact that the city wants to advertise for bids indicates that only one concern will "hog it all," whereas all contractors should have a share in the selling and installations.

The Woods has already enacted an ordinance which makes it mandatory for all new homes to have garbage disposal units.

Must Pay for Pickups

Owners of homes already built are not required to install grinders if they do not want one, but after the July date next year, those who do not have their grinders, will have to pay for their garbage collection out of their own pockets. The city will discontinue to use the taxpayers' money for collection service.

The cost to taxpayers per year amounts to $17.50 a household. Once the units are acquired by the city, home owners can petition to have a grinder installed in their homes. The purchase price and installation fee will be reimbursed to the city on a quarterly basis, over a period of six and a half years.

Could Retain Title

While the grinder is being paid for, the city retains title to the unit, and even after the home owner has fully reimbursed the city, the city can and could retain the title to the unit. But, if the city so desires, it can sell the unit to the home owner for the sum of one dollar or any other fixed price.

When the title retention aroused a dispute, City Attorney Julius Berns read a section of a State statute, in which it was disclosed that such a unit, once installed, becomes a part of a community's sewer system, which belongs to the city as a whole. This does not include units installed and paid for with private funds.

Those who do not have grinders, or incinerators, in their homes by July 1, 1955, will be required to pay a minimum of $5 a month, from their pockets, to have garbage and food wastes carted away, it was stated. Bids for the units will be returned on Monday, July 19.

$200 More Given To Center Drive

Some $200 more was donated to the War Memorial Center's drive for funds during the past week. To date, 2,102 contributors have given a total of $27,708 towards the $30,000 needed to balance the budget.

Elm Disease

Mr. Boyer to cooperate fully, since it will be impossible to personally contact each property owner having elm trees. However, members of the survey crew will be glad to answer any questions anyone may have. If you have elm trees on your property, you may expect a man to check them within the next few days.

"The Dutch Elm Disease," Mr. Boyer said, "is a killer of elm trees and the survey and the prompt removal of infected trees are very important means of control. Wood samples of trees suspected of having the disease will be taken by the survey crew and will be sent to special laboratory established at Michigan State College."

Will Contact Owners
"If a sample shows effect of the disease the property owner will be contacted concerning removal of the tree. Such diseased trees must be removed immediately if we are to effectively control the Dutch Elm Disease," stated Boyer.

Dog Bite

rabies is placed under observation, and dies, there is still ample time to give treatments to the victim. This is because rabies runs its course in a dog in a time considerably shorter than the known period in which Pasteur or Semple treatments are still effective in preventing rabies in humans.

This procedure is preferable to the shot-to-loose-dogs-who-bite-people routine for two reasons. The most important is that, (as I have already stated), a shot dog declared free of rabies by negative tests may actually have the disease. The Grosse Pointe News article stated this. What it did not make clear is that the Pasteur treatment requires many shots and that the patient's reaction to them can be very severe. Would it not, since it is quite safe to do so, if the bite is reported and the dog corralled easily, be more sensible to follow the observation method?

The other reason is that in spite of the vigilant parents, little Johnny is going to let Fido out someday. Then Fido bites a passerby and gets shot. If he is perfectly healthy, someone's pet has been needlessly killed.

My reference for the above remarks is Melbourne Murphy, Assistant Professor of Public Health Practice at the University of Michigan. But I'm sure any good physician could tell you essentially the same things.

I certainly hope that you and the staff will look into this matter further and explain it fully in an additional page 1 article.

Sincerely,
Anne Lampman

Globulin Value Reaffirmed

from conflicting statements recently published." Young restated the National Foundation's policy of participation in the GG immunization program as follows:

1. Gamma globulin is currently available in quantity about double the supply on hand for use in 1953.
2. Decisions for use of GG in group inoculations rest with state health officers under the new "ground rules" established in cooperation with the Office of Defense Mobilization and state health agencies. The 1954 plan sets forth basic principles governing its use among groups larger than families. These criteria were arrived at by common agreement of all interested agencies.
3. By eliminating the use of GG in family contacts of a polio case, this plan makes possible earlier and more widespread use of the larger supply of GG for group inoculations than was possible in 1953.
4. The National Foundation's decision to utilize extensive March of Dimes funds to make possible the greater use of GG during 1954 was made on the basis of the 1951-52 Hammond field trials, which remain as the only extensive, scientifically controlled study of gamma globulin's effectiveness against paralytic polio. These studies show that when used in proper dosage at the proper time and under proper circumstances, GG can be 88 per cent effective as a preventive or palliative against paralytic polio.

5. Nothing in last February's report of the Committee of the Public Health Services nullifies or modifies the results of the Hammond studies. The 1954 summary on the use of gamma globulin in 1953 merely points out that last year's experiences with the blood fraction in 23 community-wide inoculations of children did not come in time nor under properly controlled study conditions to provide further evidence of the effectiveness of GG in group immunization.

6. There is not now available any proved immunizing agent or substance against paralytic polio except gamma globulin, which scientific research has established as effective in providing protection and alleviation against paralytic polio during a limited period. This time is usually about eight weeks, and that the protective effects may come sooner after inoculation than previous findings had suggested.

7. The anti-polio trial vaccine, for which field tests are now under way, will not be "proved up" until some time in 1955 when the Poliomyelitis Vaccine Evaluation Center at the University of Michigan will have completed its studies. If this vaccine is proved an effective agent for active immunization against polio, it will still not be available quickly in quantities sufficient for the mass inoculation of all the millions of children, adolescents and preg-

The Grosse Pointe Exchange Club recently played host to the Metropolitan Council of Exchange Clubs at one of the regular Tuesday evening meetings.

Local president Raymond J. Lynch brought the meeting to order and then turned the gavel over to Council president Joseph Greene, who introduced state Exchange Club president Elbert Wilmot and the state treasurer, Dr. Hungate to the local members.

the loud speaker. They and the lifeguards attempted to revive the boy, but without success.

Woods police officers, Sgt. Wilbert LeDuke and Patrolman Albert Abend arrived in the Woods' ambulance. They administered oxygen to the boy, who had been placed on the couch in the first aid room, but the boy failed to respond.

He was pronounced dead by Dr. Clarence Candler, who was rushed to the park by Woods Patrolman Kenneth Metcalf. The boy's body was released to the undertaker on the spot by the Macomb County Coroner, when the cause of death was established.

Sister Heartbroken
The boy's father said that the lad was under the care of his sister, Beverly Ann, who was to have watched him, because the boy could not swim. She had missed him for about 10 or 15 minutes, before the body was discovered. The heartbroken child tearfully pleaded with the crowd that gathered: "I don't know your religion, but please pray for my brother."

The boy drowned in about four or five feet of water, and was discovered 12 feet from the east side of the pool and 27 feet south of a lifeguard's chair.

Rashid said he did not know the victim was his nephew until he followed the crowd to the first aid station.

A Message To Our Grosse Pointe Friends

YES, INDEED, WE ALSO SELL AT RETAIL!!

We want to correct a wrong impression! Somehow some Grosse Pointers have come to believe that our tire business is strictly wholesale and that we sell only to dealers.

Well, believe us, we do a big retail tire business with Grosse Pointers, not alone because we are Grosse Pointe's only shop handling tires exclusively, but chiefly because of the 34 years we have been in the business, plus our ten years as operators of our service station on Fisher road at Maumee, which we sold several years ago in order to devote all our time and efforts to tires exclusively.

So, please remember that we sell at retail in Grosse Pointe. Our distributorship contracts permit this. Also, please remember that we can, and do, give you more for your tire dollar on either straight or trade-in purchases, than is obtainable elsewhere.

Remember, too, that we are not handling just one make of tire, but all the popular makes, plus the country's two top-premium quality tires, Vogue and General.

Extra Note:—
Don't drive on faulty tires you know nothing about...
don't leave on that vacation trip without a tire check-up!
Why not drive into our shop today and avail yourself of our custom service. You're invited!

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Simians Leaning Toward England

By Mary Sue Morgan
 The true English atmosphere will be displayed this summer by the Grosse Pointe Simians. For their eighth season, the Simians have chosen to produce three plays, two with English settings. The latter will be performed for three nights each on the Grosse Pointe War Memorial's lake front terrace — on July 15, 16, 17 and August 5, 6, 7, respectively.

The first play, Noel Coward's "Blithe Spirit," will have Pam Macpherson from Swindon, Wiltshire, England, playing a leading role, Ruth, second wife of Charles Condomine. Pam, who arrived in the United States last January for a three-year visit, has set about inspiring the "Blithe Spirit" cast with the authentic British spirit.

Each night of rehearsal, Pam helps the remaining six characters duplicate her own English diction. Coming from Southern England, Pam has an Oxford accent, but is quite versatile and has been able to promote Nancy Hoyt toward an impressive Cockney for her part as Edith, the maid.

The play itself is thoroughly British in flavor. As the plot unfolds, a long-dead spirit materializes to plague her remarried husband and turns the entire household upside down with her supernatural pranks.

The British influence will be further enhanced through the set, which, under the direction of Robert Harbison, will portray an upper class English home. The traditional — in appearance, not behavior — drawing-room props, supervised by Jean Gray, further add to the effect.

At the same time, the business committees have been busy carrying the "spirit" influence through their publicity, programs and tickets. Posters have been designed by Joan Wozniak with a sketch of hands touching on a table, illustrating a method mediums use during seances to get in touch with "the spirit world." Both the tickets and programs for "Blithe Spirit" are "ghost white," with black print to symbolize the mystic beyond.

A special booth will be set up in Jacobson's village store on July 8, 9, and 10 where tickets may be purchased for the July 15, 16, and 17 performances. The $1.00 tickets may also be bought from any Simian member or at the door for this "Theatre Under the Stars" production.

The second Simian play, Patrick Hamilton's "Rope," to be presented three weeks later under the direction of Donald Kuhn and Richard Tobin, now also has a cast and crew seeking to duplicate a bit of London alongside Lake St. Clair.

Speeding Teeners Lucky in Crash

Roberta Kilsley, 15, of 17148 Joann, Detroit, suffering from a skull fracture caused in an automobile accident on Lake Shore drive last June 22, was reported out of danger at the Cottage Hospital.

The accident, involving six other teenagers, none of them seriously injured happened on Deadman's curve opposite the Edsel Ford estate while the group was speeding home from a morning swim in Lake St. Clair.

The car, traveling west at an estimated speed of about 60 miles an hour, jumped the curb, rolled over twice and struck a tree in the center island according to Thomas Laughlin, Ford estate gatekeeper who witnessed the accident.

All seven were taken to Cottage Hospital for treatment, but only Miss Kilsley was hospitalized.

The car was driven by Leonard Adragna, 10, of 14669 Alma, Detroit. Other occupants of the car were, Thomas Paquette, 16, of 14655 Alma; John Weisgran, 15, of 14869 Young; Tom Jo Musco, 11, of 14885 Fordham; Arlene Reeves, 15, 14291 Hampshire; Miss Kilsley and Audrey Kilsley, 12, of 17184 Joann.

John Hearst Presides At Accountants' Parley

John E. Hearst, 509 University place, will preside as meeting chairman of the technical discussion on Monday, June 14, before the 35th International Cost Conference of the National Association of Cost Accountants, to be held in Chicago, June 13 through 17. Discussion will be devoted to an exploration of the uses of data processing and electronics in accounting functions.

Mr. Hearst, Controller of S. S. Kresge Company, is a past president of the Detroit Chapter of the N.A.C.A., as well as a past director of the national association. He is a member of the Controllers Institute of America, having served as a national director and president of the Detroit Chapter.

New Beach Area at Farms' Park Nears Completion

Trucks are filling in the sandy beach at the Farms' Pier Park as fast as possible. White Lake Michigan sand will be used on top of the fill that is nearly finished. The beach site will open this Saturday, July 3. Construction work will continue, with as little interference to the residents as can be managed.

Pointers Elected to Office At Wolverine Boys' State

James Wyse, of Grosse Pointe Park, was named to the office of State Highway Commissioner as the result of elections at the 17th annual Wolverine Boys' State which took place at Michigan State College, East Lansing, June 17-24. The program is annually sponsored by the American Legion, department of Michigan and its 75,000 members.

He was one of 1,000 high school boys from all over the state of Michigan participating in the annual "49th State" which is designed to instruct and educate the youths on the principles and values of a democratic and constitutional form of government.

Boys selected to attend the eight-day session are chosen for their qualities of leadership and good citizenship. Formed into two political parties (the Federalists and Nationalists) on their arrival at the campus, city and county groups were formed and the youthful participants elected their own officers.

Government Services, a new class discussion subject added to this year's schedule, took the interest of a majority of the 1,000 youth, who chose this topic above six other subjects which included Highways, Subversives, Conservation, Traffic Safety Programs and Citizenship.

At noon, Thursday, June 24, the entire assembly marched into Lansing where Wolverine

Cracker Ignites Car

George Kushner of 308 Kercheval complained to Farms police on Sunday, June 27, that a group of boys riding around in a car tossed a firecracker onto the seat of his car while it was parked in front of his house, causing the seat to catch fire. He extinguished the blaze himself.

W. H. Hagenmyer, Jr. On Amphibious Mission

NORFOLK, Va. (FHTMC)—Willard H. Hagenmyer, Jr., son of Willard H. Hagenmyer of 841 Lakepoint, Grosse Pointe, Mich., is among the 775 Naval Academy Midshipmen now participating in a joint amphibious training operation with a unit of Royal Canadian Naval Cadets at the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base, Little Creek, here.

Known as TRAMID '54, a contraction of Training of Midshipmen, the instruction features classroom and practical work both ashore and afloat. To climax their training, the Midshipmen were integrated into a 35-warship, 14,000-man task force and stormed ashore June 19 with U. S. Marines in a full scale amphibious assault on the beaches of Camp Pendleton, Va.

The Red Cross Controversy

E. Roland Harriman, chairman of the American National Red Cross, stirred up somewhat of a storm when he addressed delegates to the national convention of that organization in Los Angeles on June 14. The press, radio and TV made much of a portion of his report which dealt with disaster relief.

Taking particular offense at Mr. Harriman's remarks were some cities which had suffered major disasters last year, among them Flint, Mich. Mr. Harriman stated that after the Red Cross had spent nearly $600,000, contributed by all of the country, to alleviate the suffering in Flint, a local committee solicited and received nearly $900,000. Not a cent of this latter amount was returned to the Red Cross to help replace the amount spent from the disaster fund.

Because of the widespread publicity given this report, and feeling that his remarks have not been interpreted with complete accuracy, Mr. Harriman has sent a letter to all Red Cross chairmen, amplifying the report he gave at the convention.

In the interest of fairness to both sides, Mr. Harriman's letter to the chairmen is herewith printed in full.

Since the June 1954 National Convention in Los Angeles, and as a result of my report to chapter delegates assembled there, some confusion has arisen concerning the Disaster Relief Program of our Chapters. This letter is intended to clarify this matter for our chapters.

"The Red Cross is obligated by law under its congressional charter to render disaster relief whenever and wherever in the United States a disaster occurs. The Red Cross has carried out this obligation for over 70 years and will continue to make available its total resources to disaster affected communities. The Red Cross relief funds are expended first for emergency assistance to individuals and families but the largest portion is used for long range rehabilitation to assist members of the community. The yardstick Red Cross uses in giving this relief is the disaster caused needs of the sufferer not the replacement of his disaster caused losses.

"The Red Cross never asks for reimbursement or repayment from any community or individual receiving disaster relief. All it has asked is that the individual family use its own resources and that the affected community right from the time the disaster strikes does what it can to assist in aiding its own people in the total job to be done.

"For over 70 years the Red Cross has met this responsibility in this way and in so doing has earned the confidence and support of the people and of the communities. These have given generously in times of disaster and during regular annual campaigns.

"Recently a new concept of disaster relief has evolved that represents a serious departure from these established relief practices. This new concept envisages the establishment and use of local disaster funds in disaster affected communities separate and apart from Red Cross. These collateral funds are usually applied for relief purposes over and above that given by the Red Cross and after the Red Cross has completed its job. These funds are frequently distributed on the basis of the total loss suffered by an individual rather than the need of the individual for help in the essentials to permit him to resume his self supporting activities in the community. In some instances a part of these collateral funds are channeled through Red Cross thus participating in some extent and right from the start in the total job on the basis of need.

"Obviously this change in concept presents a serious problem to the Red Cross and one about which the chapters should be informed because they in the final analysis are responsible for raising all funds expended by the Red Cross. Much of the burden of carrying out disaster operations and raising disaster funds falls upon the chapters. If this new concept of disaster relief continues to grow it will make the chapter job extremely difficult or impossible because it is doubtful whether any program of relief based on the replacement of loss can ever be supported by voluntary contributions.

"Because I believe the national organization has the responsibility of keeping chapter leadership fully informed on questions vitally affecting the ability of the chapters to carry on their chapters' obligations I reported to the National Convention as follows:

"However there is a fund raising problem which requires our full and immediate attention. Developments in recent disaster operations make it necessary for the Red Cross to return to its previous practice of conducting special campaigns when disasters strike. The American people have supported the Red Cross disaster programs because they have been in sympathy with our policy—our sound policy—of meeting basic needs and basic needs alone. We have expended the funds given through Red Cross generously, but prudently, and we have never asked for more than was necessary to do the job at hand. We have never considered that the public wishes us to act as an insurance company and replace disaster losses on the basis of loss. Largely due to our reluctance in recent years to go before the public in special appeals, the generosity of the public lacking a point of focus has been scattered among various local funds and organizations. Now I'll say this. When a community wishes to spend disaster funds raised by its own citizens in its own way it has every right to do so. But first things come first.

"In Flint, Michigan when the tornado hit last June, Red Cross immediately moved in to meet the needs of the sufferers. We spent nearly $600,000.00 contributed by all the country. Meanwhile a committee in Flint solicited funds and received over $900,000.00 Not one cent of this was turned over to Red Cross to meet needs. On the contrary, after Red Cross finished its job all that money was distributed to people over and above what they had received from Red Cross—irrespective of whether they could have taken care of themselves from then on in whole or in part. Communities that don't help themselves in the total responsibility of disaster can scarcely expect in the future to be recipients of nationwide generosity.

"This kind of situation has also happened elsewhere and has convinced us of the wisdom of emphasizing special disaster fund appeals for Red Cross."

"I have made no statements in my report or in any press release or news conferences that:

- 1. In any way questioned the integrity of those responsible for collecting or administering these collateral disaster funds.
- 2. Indicated any request for repayment or reimbursement of money spent by the Red Cross for disaster relief purposes by any community or individual.
- 3. Questioned the right of communities to collect these

*"The people people work with best

(Charlotte Gilman)

We have become rather hardened to the fact that this is an age of "carting" things about "socially" . . . such as the women who take their knitting to the theatre or bring their sewing to your house when you've invited them to a luncheon party, or taking portable radios to the hairdressers so they won't miss their soap operas. All this has become old hat in our fair village . . . but last week we heard of a brand new wrinkle and not a bad one at that.

A couple who were invited to a formal dinner party recently, arrived with their large sized electric fan . . . which they promptly set up in the host's living room. Mr. and Mrs. Party-giver were startled to say the least . . . but the fan made such a hit with all the guests, (it was about 99 at the time), that the hosts moved it into the dining room when dinner was announced and back onto the porch later where everyone gathered for games. Emily Post would shudder at such a gesture . . . but it turned out to be the hit of the evening.

Sitting around listening to a group of ex-Navy officers reminiscing about World War II, might give one the impression that all they did was have fun. We know better than that . . . but it is nice that they remember so well . . . the lighter side of things. One of the stories told was of a night of entertainment at a "Lighter-than-Air" station, when the personnel were more amusing than the entertainers. On this particular week-end, a magician opened the show with many fascinating tricks . . . among which was conjuring up a pigeon out of nowhere and making it disappear the same way.

After seeing the show the first night, the boys decided to go back the second night and give the prestidigitator a gander at THEIR magic! About a hundred men arrived with pigeons concealed in their coats . . . the birds having been commandeered from the Signal Corps on the station. When the magician got to the part of his act wherein he announces: "I will now make this pigeon disappear" . . . the Navy boys let loose with their hidden birds and the entire arena was covered with fluttering pigeons. After the first open-mouthed shock of surprise . . . the good-natured magic man admitted his act had never been so good!

Some years ago we went to see a play and the moment the star walked out on the stage (female) . . . the star, not the stage, the most deceiving odor seemed to permeate the entire front of the theatre. We were THAT fascinated and had visions of several haut boys following her about back stage to spray her with perfume as she moved about.

Some weeks later, we attended the same play with a couple who knew the star so were taken back stage to meet her. Both she and her dressing room were so "high" with the odor . . . we almost swooned. Her dressing table displayed not one single bottle of perfume because we SURE looked.

This saga has its ending right as of today. Strangely enough, not long ago we met a woman in town who used to be this same star's personal maid. In hashing over the old days . . . we naturally talked about the actress, who has long since retired . . . and we remembered to ask her about the perfume; what it was and if Madame took a bath in it. She informed us that our idol never used perfume as such but that she used a Russian bath oil (no longer in existence) . . . which she hauled off and dumped into her bath to the tune of fifty dollars worth a month! She SURE smelled it!

A few years ago we read in some magazine that "Sweetheart" soap was found to be one of the very purest soaps on the market. Since this was not an ad but an article on cosmetics in general written by someone with no axe to grind, we thought we'd try it. Been using it ever since and we like it . . . but that's not the point of this paragraph.

A friend of ours sent us some soap from Florida called "Coaline." She advised that it was absolutely miraculous for getting spots out of washable garments, as well as being a good body soap and wonderful for shampoo. We found it to be all she said it was . . . especially when we removed a nasty medicine stain from a VELVET bed jacket with it. Since then we have tried all over Grosse Pointe and Detroit to get it . . . but no one seems to have heard of it. We finally wrote to the manufacturer to order it direct . . . and guess what? The same company makes our old friend "Sweetheart."

Some store in the Pointe would do well to look into this and stock it. In fact we can't understand why the manufacturer doesn't do something about advertising it more widely in this part of the country. We should be glad to help him out with slogans . . . and for a starter we offer: "Keep everything clean with Coaline."

And a Happy Fourth of July to you and you and you . . . especially to crazy Mrs. Ada Dexter.

Dr. Earle A. Irvin Moves to Ford

Appointment of Dr. Earle A. Irvin as medical director of Ford Motor Company was announced by John S. Bugas, vice president—industrial relations.

The nationally-known industrial physician will have overall responsibility for the company medical program at all Ford locations in the United States.

Dr. Irvin, 46, joins Ford after 19 years with General Motors Corporation, including the last 12 as medical director of the Cadillac Division.

He has devoted his entire professional life to industrial medicine, and served last year as president of the Industrial Medical Association, international organization of industrial physicians.

A native of Linton, N. D., Dr. Irvin entered the University of Michigan Medical School in 1929 after three years of pre-medical study at the University of North Dakota. He received his doctorate of Medicine from Michigan in 1933, and served his internship at Hurley Hospital, Flint, Mich., in 1933-34.

Dr. Irvin lives with his wife and two children at 1343 Buckingham road, Grosse Pointe. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert H. Irvin, reside in Oakland, Calif.

collateral disaster funds and to expend them for whatever purposes they desired. In some instances news stories have failed to convey the intent of my report to the Convention and have carried statements that confused the issue under discussion.

"Regardless of this I am satisfied that the press by placing this issue before the public has contributed to an understanding of the problem and to a better appreciation of the disaster relief program of the Red Cross. This working points up the necessity of all chapters having working agreements with city officials, local agencies, the press, radio and TV, and other news media to assure full understanding, cooperation and interpretation when disasters occur.

"I trust that you will find these facts helpful to your understanding of this matter."

Letters to the Editor

June 28, 1954.

To the Editor:
With all the comments in favor of parking meters and no one setting out some of the sound reasons for the special assessment, may I give you some of my viewpoints, and perhaps they can be interpreted as unbiased inasmuch as I shop in Grosse Pointe, live in Grosse Pointe and also own a business in Grosse Pointe.

First, the merchant on the Hill had opportunity to purchase parking area in his original transactions with the Newberry estate. He passed this up as it would cost him something. Then, as restrictions were passed to conserve space behind buildings for merchant parking, he begged relief in special session from the Council as this was also costly to him.

The merchants constantly used the Titus corner for their own parking, even when the Punch and Judy theater was paying the rental cost. When this stopped, they never volunteered to continue to pay for the use of this private lot. What I am trying to say is that all the merchants want parking, but always with someone else paying for it.

When the assessment was first presented, the south side of the street said it wouldn't get equal benefits, so it wasn't fair. At the hearing, they changed their story to say that benefits accrued as far as Fisher road, and that they should also be in on the special assessment, and carry the costs. Incidentally, the cost on this special assessment to every 20 feet of property owned, is $388.74, payable over a 5-year period, or 21c a day.

St. James Church, recognizing the job the city was doing, made a gift of property to the city, in trying to help carry a load of these parking problems.

Now, let us consider John Q. Public a bit: Why should he bail the merchant out of his obligations while he continues a profitable business just because other communities are pushing this parking gimmick as a new means of revenue. Off-street parking is part of good business sense and that brings it directly to the shoulders of the merchant, and any extra expense incurred in providing this is just a good old-fashioned business expense.

If the merchants paid for this improvement as per the special assessment requested, it would only take two rows of meters to bring in enough revenue to pay for this maintenance. This would leave a considerable area for free parking, and it would certainly promote a wider use and more pleasant atmosphere to shoppers, and perhaps other cities would point to us as a prize example of how to solve this problem, instead of us using other cities as a model.

I hope the Council in Grosse Pointe Farms will not allow this unfair pressure against their thinking, influence them against putting the burden of this cost where it belongs, and that is smack on the store owners' backs.

Sincerely,
Edward Pongracz, Jr.

To the Editor:
We, the staff, pupils and parents of the Pere Gabriel Richard School, wish to thank you and your staff for the acceptance and publication during the course of the present school year, of numerous items from our school.

About 20 items have appeared in your fine community newspaper, dealing with all phases of the work of our school. Stories have been told about the many experiences of children, academically and socially. The boys and girls of the service clubs have their safety education work explained.

The many experiences of teachers, at travel, doing college courses, at work in the classroom and in community services, have been announced. The programs of action, as pointed up by our PTA and numerous parent education meetings and visitations, have been told.

We all wish the staff of the News a most happy summer holiday. We look forward to the beginning of another school year on Sept. 9 and the telling of more stories of our accomplishments by your paper. We appreciate your many kindnesses and courtesies.

Digestive Troubles?

By Fred Köpp, R. Ph.

Poor digestion brings pain, nausea, belching, and often causes loss of appetite. Here are some of the sources that produce digestive troubles: eating too fast, not drinking enough water, eating too much, or not eating the right foods.

Self-medication often irritates the condition, especially if the trouble lies with the function of the organs that aid digestion. The safest, surest, quickest way to get relief is to have your doctor diagnose the condition at once.

Expert compounding of your prescription will assure the best treatment. Select a pharmacist with care.

BASKETS OF ICE—without messy Ice Trays!

Every step of ice-making is truly automatic in the new Servel Gas Refrigerator. Ice cubes are made in the ingenious new ice-maker unit that unloads individual cubes into a basket. And the super-cold cubes in the basket don't stick together, can be taken out one by one. When the basket is full, automatic controls stop the ice making. If you take cubes out, the ice-maker goes back into action, fills the basket.

And along with the automatic ice-maker, the new Gas Servels have all the other conveniences you want—separate freezer compartment, automatic defrost, adjustable shelves, butter keeper and door shelves.

See the marvelous new Servel Ice-Maker Gas Refrigerator at your nearby Gas Company office or appliance dealer—you'll have to see it to believe it.

Boat Club Set For Dock Party

Open House Flags will be flying on Friday, July 2 at the masts of the many boats which are berthed at the Detroit Boat Club when the Annual Dock Party is celebrated.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry J. Chapman (Lakeshore lane) and Dr. and Mrs. Lyle G. Waggoner (Lakeview Court) are chairmen of this gala event which has become a yearly feature looked forward to by Detroit Boat Club members.

The dock and cruisers berthed there will be decorated with flags and lights — the skippers and their wives will be on board to welcome the other club members.

A sea food dinner served in the open will further enhance the nautical atmosphere and then in the evening there will be dancing under the stars as the new band shell is dedicated.

Boats which will participate are:—Cruisers, "Lady Esther II", Daniel M. Carne; "Maridic III", Frank J. Munt; "The Raven", Dr. J. G. Reid; "Panacea", Dr. Z. Stephen Bohm; "Blueprinz", Cornelius L. T. Gabler; "Halmaga II", Harry J. Chapman; "Understudy", John K. Ford; "Say When II", Lester A. Henning; "Think Hal", Loren T. Robinson.

The former MARGARETE E. DUFFY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Duffy of Buckingham road, was married in St. Ambrose Church on June 6 to the son of Mrs. John O'Connor of East Grand boulevard, and the late Mr. O'Connor. They will make their home in California, where the bridegroom has been living in Manhattan Beach.

St. Clare Ladies Painters Attend Given Luncheon Day at Races

Mrs. Thomas V. LaCicero, president of the Archconfraternity of St. Clare of Montefalco, entertained officers and standing committee heads at a luncheon in Hawthorne House yesterday, Wednesday, June 30. Following luncheon, plans were formulated for activities for the ensuing year.

Attending members were Mrs. Charles McKinnon, Mrs. J. A. Schulte, Mrs. Thomas B. McCarthy, Mrs. Edward Schott, Mrs. Clayton Alandt, Mrs. Toby David, Mrs. Gordon Nelson, Mrs. E. Ploof, Mrs. Alois Ptach, Mrs. John E. Young, Mrs. Dennis Bracken, Mrs. John B. McGrath and Mrs. Bayard Kurth.

Others were Mrs. R. B. Squires, Mrs. George Slevin, Mrs. Hamilton Kotcher, Mrs. Ernest Clark, Mrs. R. M. Hoffman, Mrs. A. J. Totz, Mrs. Orville Thill, Mrs. Arthur J. Fushman, Mrs. E. Lipke and Mrs. Henry Toemjes.

Reception Fetes Miss Whitehead

Still another June debutante was Susan Whitehead, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Frazer Whitehead, of Stephens road, who moved over to the Country Club lane home of the James F. Whiteheads, Jr., for a Thursday afternoon reception.

The Whiteheads and their deb received guests in the living room, where blue delphinium and pink carnations were used. Guests circulated through the rooms to the gardens of the home where the punch bowl, surrounded by pink geraniums, was a sociable distraction.

For her debut, Susie was gowned in a pink silk waltz length frock and carried a small bouquet of multi-toned pink carnations.

Mrs. Whitehead wore an imported cotton in shades of pink to red on cameo pink background.

The assistants at the afternoon reception were the deb's sisters, Mrs. Woodruff B. Crouse, and Mrs. Clarke Murphy, Jr., of Ruxton, Md.; her brothers and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Whitehead and Mr. and Mrs. James F. Whitehead, Jr., and Constance Aldrich of Columbus, Ohio.

Mrs. James Zinn Heads Ibbex for Coming Year

Ibbex Club, which celebrated a twenty-fifth anniversary this year, has named its new officers for the coming season. Mrs. James Zinn is president; Mrs. Richard Hasse, vice president; Mrs. Eleanor Brown Munger and Mrs. Edward J. Tutag, secretaries; Mrs. Elmer Benzin, treasurer; Mrs. Charles R. Beltz, house committee chairman; Mrs. Erwin Koning, membership chairman, and Mrs. Joseph W. Caskey, publicity chairman. Mrs. Beltz, Mrs. Caskey and Mrs. Tutag were also named to the board of directors.

Sunday Cocktail Party Given By J. Gordon Hills

Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon Hill entertained a large number of their friends at a Summer cocktail party on Sunday afternoon. The party was held in the Cloverly road gardens of the Hills.

Pointe members of the Detroit Athletic Club bowlers turned out in goodly number, together with their wives, for a gala afternoon at the Detroit Race Course yesterday, June 30.

The directors first entertained the 250 DAC'ers at cocktails and luncheon in their executive offices at the race course.

Next was the fun of the eight-race program and viewing the whole colorful panorama of horses, jockeys and cheering crowds from the section of clubhouse seats reserved for the group by their director-hosts.

Feature race, of course, was the "DAC Bowlers Purse."

Attending from the Pointe were Mr. and Mrs. John A. Basher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Gorman, the Leslie G. Kortes, the Alexander E. LaPointes, the Fred A. Rohms, the William C. Beckenhauers II, the C. Ray Davissions, the C. H. Koebbes, the Edwin J. Smiths and the David T. Sicksteels.

Mrs. Joy Honors Hospital Staffs

Members of the nursing and office staffs of the Cottage Hospital were entertained at a "swimming party" by Mrs. Richard P. Joy at her home at 289 Lake Shore road on Monday afternoon, June 23.

The guests arrived from 1 o'clock until 7 o'clock, according to their duty assignments at the hospital.

Buffet luncheons, teas and supper were served by Mrs. Joy and other members of the party committee. The committee was headed by Mrs. John N. Lord, who was assisted by Mrs. James McMillan, Mrs. Alexander Wiener, Mrs. Longyear Palmer, Mrs. James J. Trudell, Jr. and Mrs. Cameron Waterman, III.

The guests were joined in the garden, beside the pool, and in swimming by many members of the Cottage Hospital Board of Trustees, including President, Mrs. Carl E. Grawn; past president, Mrs. Henry Hubbard, Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Mrs. William F. Harris, Jr., Mrs. Seabourne Livingston, Mrs. Louis B. Hyde.

Members of the Ford and Kanzler families are deserting the Pointe this summer for Long Island and Europe . . . Ernest Kanzler, who recently returned from travel in South America, has leased a house at Southampton for the season . . . and in mid-August he will leave with daughter, Katrina, and daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robert Hudson Kanzler, for Europe . . . Mrs. Edsel Ford is quitting her home in Grosse Pointe Shores on Friday for the East . . . She will stop by to see Mr. Kanzler on Long Island and then continue to Seaway, at Manchester-by-the-Sea to visit Pointer Mrs. Allan Sheldon at her summer home . . . Also Europe-bound, at the same time the Kanzler party leaves, will be Mr. and Mrs. Walter Buhl Ford II and Mr. and Mrs. William Clay Ford . . .

The World As It Was

The other day we were spellbound while a friend told us about a Pointer who will set out in late August, with his two little girls for a part of the world as it was in the beginning . . . verdant forests, wild rivers, birds and beasts living in the wilderness . . . This Pointer has been there before and the Indian guides are his friends . . . but he announced to his wife, recently, that he thought the time had come when their daughters should learn about how the world once was, free of the material . . . The maternal seal of approval was given and correspondence initiated between the Pointe and Tommy Robertsons of Pointe Bleue, the part Scotsman, part Indian head of the trading post of the Montagne Indians of Lake St. John in the province of Quebec.

Accepted

Lake St. John—the Indians say a hundred rivers run in and only one runs out and that is the mighty Sagunay . . . It's here that our Pointer, and his wife, have gone moose hunting, quail shooting, and fishing for the fighting salmon trout, Quananiche . . . He was presumed to see with what disdain the Indians greeted the presence of a woman on a canoe trip up the St. John . . . She was completely ignored the first few days of the trip until one afternoon, when the party had stopped for lunch—more of that later—her husband handed her a rifle and suggested she aim for quail. The Indian guides stifled their grunts but barely raised their eyes to watch the lady as she accepted the gun. She walked into a nearby thicket, raised the gun and took 10 shots, brought down as many birds. That night, the Indians started making overtures to The Lady, who was a member of the party from that moment on . . .

Indian Ways

On these trips to the lake 500 miles outside of Quebec City . . . our Pointer has studied the ways of the Montagne Indians . . . who belong to that fast disappearing kind of Indian . . . the ones who spend all but two months of the year on reservation, spend them in the bush. They wear the lump lines on their heads to hold their packs which grow heavier as the Indian gains in years. We asked how the Montagnes lived for 10 months in the bush . . . did they stock up at the Super Market and fill the deep freeze before settling down for the winter? We learned they take but four articles of

Janet ZurSchmiede Weds H. G. Harness

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tom ZurSchmiede and Son of the J. King Harnesses Speak Vows at Candlelight Ceremony; Reception Held at Lochmoor Club

In an original bridal gown of white Katow taffeta, pretty Janet ZurSchmiede was married Friday evening to Hugh Gregory Harness at a candlelight ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The Rev. Frank Fitt officiated at the ceremony which united in marriage the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tom ZurSchmiede, of Lincoln road, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. King Harness of Fairway drive.

Mr. and Mrs. ZurSchmiede entertained at a large reception at Lochmoor Club after the ceremony.

Janet's gown was designed with fitted bodice, the portrait neckline outlined in motifs of imported white pique, and bouffant skirt which swept into a cathedral train.

The bridal veil puffed in three tiers of white silk illusion, extending beyond the train of her bridal gown, and was held in place by tiny cap of white Katow taffeta applied in pique.

White gardenias surrounded her bridal orchids and there were sentimental lilies of the valley in the bouquet.

Nine bridal attendants, all in white silk chiffon over white taffeta, were in the wedding party.

Mrs. W. Tom ZurSchmiede Jr. was her sister-in-law's matron of honor. The maids were Mrs. Donald R. Briggs, Mary Ann Dunworth, Mary Secan, Betsy Arnold, Madge Winter, Susan Mair, Mrs. Frank W. Watts and Mrs. Hazen J. Carroll Jr., sister of the bridegroom.

Their classic, waltz length gowns had shirred bodices with folds of the chiffon draped around the neckline and they wore bands of white straw with horse hair applique and face veils.

A striking note of color was added by the maids' bouquet of deep red roses and ivy.

Mr. Harness served as his son's best man and wedding guests were seated by Hugh's brothers, sisters, Debbie and Mario, at Jerry J. and Don K. Harness, their Connecticut home.

Ann Higbie Honored At Deb Dinner Party

Doreen Booth Bride Of G. E. Hamilton III

Fashionable Ceremony in St. Paul's on the Lake Shore Is Followed by Reception in Joseph G. Standart, Jr., Gardens; Couple to Live in Washington, D. C.

A reception in the gardens of the Ridge road home of the bride's mother followed the wedding of Doreen Wessel Booth and George E. Hamilton, III, of Washington, D. C., who spoke their vows Saturday noon in St. Paul's on the Lake.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Joseph G. Standart, Jr., and John Lord Booth, of Lake Shore road, and Mr. Hamilton is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Hamilton, D. C., of Washington, D. C.

The Rev. Father Raphael N. Hamilton, S. J., of Marquette University, Milwaukee, officiated at the marriage of his nephew and Miss Booth.

Doreen was gowned in white mousseline de soie fashioned with silk bodice, shadowed in Alencon lace, and full skirt, also lace embroidered, which ended in a slight train.

A circlet of lovely lace held the bride's hair in a soft wave, and the length of the gown train and the bride carried white butterfly orchids with stephanotis and ivy.

Fresh tones of apple green organdie were worn by the bridesmaids. Their full skirted, waltz length frocks, had three small roll bows of the same material, on the bodices. Sleeves were very short and they wore wrist length white cotton gloves and carried white daisies. Flat bands of the daisies were worn as garlands in their hair.

Wimfred Booth was her sister's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were another sister, Jacklyn Booth; Gay Buhl, Betty Mae Hamilton of Washington, D. C., sister of the bridegroom; Mary Johnston, Mrs. Robert Hudson Kanzler, Mary Bahr and Elinor Vorys of Columbus, O. Serving his brother as best man was William H. Hamilton.

The octette of ushers included, Peter H. Benziger, Lawrence C. Dolley, Patrick Sterling, John Kauffmann, John Lyons and C. G. Parker III, all of Washington, D.C.; Charles L. Palms III, of Grosse Pointe, and George M. Pulver of Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Standart, the Hamiltons and the bridal couple received guests beneath a yellow, turquoise and white wedding marquee in the Standart gardens. After going down the receiving lines, guests drifted out into the gardens where there were small tables covered with green cloths and centered with low crystal bowls of white daisies.

For the wedding Mrs. Standart wore a Fira Benenson creation of printed mousseline de soie, a design of yellow flowers and green leaves on a gay background. Her small leaf-shaped chapeau of flat yellow feathers was trimmed in deep green velvet and she wore yellow orchids.

The mother of the bridegroom was in a printed chiffon, the white background engraved in black motif with splashes of bright royal blue. She wore a small white straw chapeau and white orchids.

The bride's grandmother, Mrs. H. L. Wessel of Copenhagen, attended the wedding and reception, wearing a Paquin gown of dark royal blue chiffon with

Sally Mehrer To Wed July 17

Sally Elizabeth Mehrer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mehrer of Middlesex boulevard, has chosen July 17 for her marriage to Randolph Glenn Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Wood of Houghton Lake.

The ceremony will take place at 7 o'clock at the Central Methodist Church, Detroit, with Dr. E. Shurley Johnson officiating. A reception will follow at the Lochmoor Club.

Sally has asked Betty Renfrew of Huntington Woods, her roommate at Albion College, to be her maid of honor.

Bridesmaids will be Joan Abrash, Carolyn Smith and Mrs. Richard C. Cheatham.

Edward Kason of Chicago will serve as best man. Ushers will be James Bernardo, James Mehrer, brother of the bride-elect; John Barkins of Houghton Lake, cousin of the bridegroom-elect.

Pre-nuptial parties began on May 20, with a miscellaneous shower given by Betty Renfrew in the Kappa Delta Sorority lodge at Albion.

On June 10, a Revere-ware shower was given by Mrs. Ruth Chapman and Mrs. John Bates at the former's home in Houghton Lake.

The following day a miscellaneous shower was given in the home of Mrs. Carda Samplich in Chatsworth avenue. Other hostesses were Mrs. Harry Hansen, Mrs. Archie Hart and Mrs. Andrew Kennedy.

An around-the-clock shower was held on June 16 for Sally in the home of Mrs. Leland Carter in Middlesex boulevard. Mrs. Albert Law was co-hostess.

Mrs. Roy Riggs, aunt of the bride-to-be, gave a luncheon at Devoth Gables on June 26; and on June 30, another party was in the home of Carolyn Smith on Roland road.

Mrs. Earl Krieg and Mrs. Harold Joerin will give Sally a luncheon and a linen shower in the Detroit Yacht Club Wednesday, July 7.

A barbecue supper is being planned by Joan Abrash in the home of her aunt on Westchester road.

Mr. and Mrs. Randolph Wood will give a rehearsal dinner on July 16, in the Women's City Club.

Small matching hat and white orchids.

The young Hamiltons are taking a trip to Jasper Park in the Canadian Rockies after which they will go to Washington D.C. to make their home.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Hamilton donned a slate blue silk frock, a Harvey Berins original, which featured bracelet length sleeves and a skirt pulled back to give bustle effect. White pique collar and cuffs were edged in blue velvet and her small hat was leaf-shaped white straw with dark blue velvet trim.

Among the out-of-town guests at the wedding were wives of the groomsmen from Washington D.C., Mrs. Dolley, Mrs. Benziger and Mrs. Sterling; Mrs. Pulver of Montreal, the bridegroom's brothers-in-law and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. Dormer Cannon, of New York, and Mr. and Mrs. Parker Mathai of Baltimore; and Jeanne Stoddard of Columbus, O.

Mrs. George E. Hamilton, III

Doreen Wessel Booth, daughter of Mrs. Joseph G. Standart Jr., of Ridge road, and John Lord Booth, was married Saturday noon in St. Paul's on the Lake Shore to Mr. Hamilton, son of the George E. Hamiltons Jr. of Washington, D. C. They'll make their home in the nation's capital.

food with them (and we were properly slapped down for any Super Market, deep freeze idea) . . . and we had to guess what these were. Give up? They take tea, flour, sugar and salt. They find their food with .22 rifles and in the streams.

Build Fire in Rain

From the bears, they get their cooking lard . . . The liver of any animal is highly treasured and our Pointer suggested this is how they get their vitamins. He has observed the same respect for liver on the part of African natives and Eskimos. The Indians carry a sheet metal stove, two feet long, into the bush with them and that's how these hunters-trackers-canoers in the white rapids exist. Our narrator has been on a canoeing trip when the lead guide stopped the party for lunch. Beaching canoes, a couple of the braves start a fire and have lunch cooked, ready to serve within 20 minutes (their dexterity in building a fire in the rain made this Pointer their champion for life! Says he never saw anything like it) . . . A Quebec French patois is spoken and this is life before the days of the automobile, when most of the earth was primitive . . . untamed and unspoiled by man.

Our Cast

It's Dr. Lawrence Pratt, of 6 Windmill Pointe drive, who is taking his young daughters, Laurie and Jane, on the big adventure, while Mama, Dr. Alice Palmer, stays at home. Guide Robertson has especially recommended that the best trip for one portage for the young ladies will be on the Ashuapmouhouan River, 60 miles from Pointe Bleue . . . There they'll see the river rapids and the beautiful woods and their father can catch Ouanniche . . . All of which is putting us in a very Hiawatha frame of mind!

Pointers in Manhattan For Straus-McKean Rites

A number of Pointers were in the wedding party of Pamela Straus of New York and Dr. Charles Mann McKean. The wedding took place Wednesday at St. James Episcopal Church, Manhattan, followed by a reception at the Pierre. Mrs. B. Courtney Rankin, of Ridge road, and Mrs. Henry S. Reynolds, of Kenwood road, were bridesmaids at their brother's wedding. Henry Reynolds was best man and ushers included Courtney Rankin, Henry T. Ewald, Jr., and George E. McKean II.

Mitzi Thurber Last Debutante

The curtain rang down on the 1954 Summer deb season on Friday and last bud to bow was vivacious Mitzi Thurber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleveland Thurber of Kenwood road.

The Thurbers introduced their daughter to society at a dinner party in the Little Club.

A strapless waltz length gown of white organza, a shade of color added at the waistline with pale pink belt, was chosen by the dark-haired deb. Her flowers were pink roses and ivy.

Mrs. Thurber met her guests in navy blue peau de soie.

Mr. and Mrs. Thurber and Mitzi received on the terrace off the marine room. The terrace overlooked the dinner scene at the side of the lake where tables for 10 were centered with arrangements of red and white carnations.

Following dinner, the young set proceeded to the Stonehurst, the Lake Shore road home of Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman who feted her deb granddaughter, Sally Mitchell at a dance.

An unusual and exciting color scheme of red and pink were achieved by hundreds and hundreds of saucy geraniums in those shades.

Over the great terrace at the front of Stonehurst, a blue, white and red canopy was erected. Balloons also were part of the decor.

The deb was in white chiffon with full hoop skirt. Her bouquet of pink geraniums were the gift of her father, Ledyard Mitchell Jr.

The deb's mother, Mrs. Thomas M. Evans of Greenwich, Conn., wore blue and white brocaded tissue satin and Mrs. Schlotman's gown was orchid lace over taffeta.

Ushers, each wearing a red carnation boutonniere, were Emory Torrey, Richard W. Jackson Jr., Harry N. Jewett II, Alger Boyer, Emmet Tracy Jr., John Watling III, George B. Hefferan Jr., Rusty Muirhead, Bob Hostenstein, Nick Ruwe, Robin Beebe, John Scranton, Tom and Terry Williams, Michael Bourke, Miles O'Brien Jr., Walter Fisher and Bob Semple.

Earlier on Friday evening, Sally's aunt, Mrs. Schlotman joy entertained out-of-town guests and ushers at the Schlotman dance, at cocktails.

Out of towners included Sally and Bill Lane of Columbus, O., Pat Sudler of Lake Forest, Ill.; Nan Bowles O'Connor of Jamaica Plains, N.Y.; Barbara Tews of Neenah, Wisc.; Ellen Linen, Elizabeth Radley and Jean Grafmuller of Greenwich, Conn.; Shelley Dwight and Peter Wray of New York; Kendall Sharp of Chicago; Tony Orser of Cincinnati and Tom Curtis of Petoskey.

Virgil J. Haggarts, Jr. On Trip to Bermuda

Barbara Barlet Barnum and Bridegroom Married in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church; Mrs. Richard Fyfe Barnum Gives Reception at the Country Club

When Mr. and Mrs. Virgil J. Haggart Jr. return from their Bermuda trip they will go to Omaha, Neb. to make their home.

Their marriage took place on Saturday afternoon with the Rev. Frank Pitt hearing their vows at a ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The former Barbara Barlet Barnum is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Fyfe Barnum, of York-shire road, and her bridegroom is the son of the Virgil J. Haggarts of Omaha.

Barbara wore a gown of Italian silk and Alencon lace. The sculptured-bodice had low, petal neckline and the great skirt was finished in full, cathedral train. French silk illusion veiling fell from a tiny lace bridal Juliet and she carried a bouquet of stephanotis, lilies of the valley, white spray orchids and ivy.

The ten bridal attendants were a lovely picture as they advanced down the aisle, all gowned in white organdie flecked in aqua. Taffeta head bands and slippers complemented the aqua of the waltz length gowns and they carried clusters of pink geraniums.

Mrs. Malcolm McGregor Barnum was her sister-in-law's matron of honor.

The bridesmaids comprised Kelly Brent of Kansas City, Mo.; Sarah Smith of Charleston, West Va.; Sally Woodruff, Miami, Fla.; Mrs. Leigh B. Middleitch Jr., Jean Malcolm Dodds, the bride's cousin; Ann Bross and Nena Cunningham.

Mary McKean was maid of honor. Serving as his brother's best man was David Haggart and bridesmen included Richard S. Baker of Lansing; William Moll, Hayes Rockwell, Richard Norris III and Gordon Smith Jr. of Milwaukee; J. B. King of Indianapolis; Frederick Bahr, Don Miller of Columbus, O. and Macolm Sutherland.

Wedding guests attended at reception at the Country Club of Detroit where the receiving line formed before a trellis of greenery.

Mrs. Barnum affected pink embroidered organdy with bouffant skirt. She pinned a white orchid to her purse.

The mother of the bridegroom was gowned in deep blue chiffon and she wore a white orchid with blue center.

The young Haggarts are spending three weeks in Bermuda.

For traveling the bride changed to a pale blue linen frock with matching bolero. A small white chapeau and white accessories completed her outfit.

Garden Wedding For Gay Buhl

Gay Buhl and Robert Sherwood Cudlip will be married in the gardens of the Arthur H. Buhls' Provincial road home on July 10, the guests remaining for a reception.

Boat Club Ball Follows Regatta

The 60th Annual Regatta of the Detroit Boat Club, and the Commodore's Ball, were held last Saturday, June 26.

Some 150 yachts sailed in the 20 classes on Lake St. Clair. The day's events came to a climax when Commodore and Mrs. William H. Mullen, Jr., honored at the Commodore's Ball the attending Detroit Boat Club members and Commodores, representatives and members from other yacht clubs in this area.

Handling all arrangements were the Detroit Boat Club Flag Officers, Commodore Mullen, Vice-Commodore Harold F. Waldo, Rear Commodore Roger S. VanDerKar, Fleet Captain (sail) W. H. Warrick, Fleet Captain (power) Frank Munt, Fleet Measurer Franklin G. Treat, and Fleet Surgeon Hugh M. Fuller.

Evening festivities got underway with a cocktail party at 7 o'clock, followed by dinner and dancing under the stars.

Among those attending were: Commodore and Mrs. Ralph L. Agee, G.I.Y.C.; Commodore and Mrs. John W. Delwiler, G.P.C.; Commodore and Mrs. Warren H. Farr, G.P.Y.C.; Commodore and Mrs. A. J. Grundy, I.L.Y.A.; Commodore and Mrs. Carl F. Heinrich, E.B.C.; Commodore and Mrs. Frank Krembel, Jr., St.C.Y.; Commodore and Mrs. Francis L. Martin, D.R.Y.A.; Commodore and Mrs. William J. A. Nagel, R.Y.C.; Commodore and Mrs. T. J. Pilon, W.Y.C.; Commodore and Mrs. Arthur Rautenberg, C.S.Y.C.; Lt. Commander and Mrs. L. W. Scharif, U.S.C.G.; Club President and Mrs. Harry M. Sisson, D.B.C.

Commodore and Mrs. T. A. Davenport, C.S.Y.C.; Commodore and Mrs. George C. Cossaboom, C.S.Y.C.; Commodore and Mrs. E. P. Robertson, E.B.C.; Commodore and Mrs. J. A. The former NONA HEMMETER, daughter of Mrs. Herbert Spencer Hemmeter of Notre Dame avenue, and the late Mr. Hemmeter, was married on June 25 to the Rev. Leonard P. Wittlinger, son of Mrs. Leonard McLane Wittlinger of Flint, and the late Mr. Wittlinger.

Society Meets Sally Mitchell

Mrs. Thomas Evans of Greenwich, Conn., gave a reception at the Little Club last Thursday for her debutante daughter, Sally Mitchell.

Sally's gown of traditional white organza had helmine embroidery of deep red strawberries. She carried a bouquet of red roses and ivy sent by her mother and Mr. Evans.

Red roses marked the deb's assistants who included her houseguest, Joan Grafmueller of Greenwich, Conn. (a classmate at the Ethel Walker School), Mitzi Thurber, Nan Maxwell, Betsy Davison, Mary Kay Tracy, Elizabeth Remick, Winkie Booth, Ann Higbie and Virginia Backus.

The tea table, set with Pointe de Venise cloth was arranged with crystal epergne filled with green grapes and Madonna lilies and white tapers in crystal candleabra.

Jeanne Vance Tea Dance Bud

Debutante Jeanne Vance donned a lacy dancing frock of soft, royal blue for her coming out tea dance at the Country Club last Wednesday afternoon.

The deb and her father, Joseph A. Vance, Jr., received members of the younger set in the great hall of the Country Club for the 5 to 7 o'clock party.

Jeanne carried a round bouquet of white and yellow roses, carnations and stephanotis, the gift of her father, and wore elbow-length white gloves.

Elsewhere in the club, it was a blue and pink scene for blond Jeanne Delphinium were mixed with pink carnations to create the effect.

The deb's corps of ushers included: John W. Stroh, Jr., Clifton Phalen, Keith Smith, Benjamin Daune, Tony Lagomarsino, John Richardson, James Degan, John Ottaway and Charles Wensinger.

Diana Messner to Attend Service Camp for Indians

Diana J. Messner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Messner of McKinley avenue, will attend the Navajo Indian Service Camp which will be held during the months of July and August in Ramah, New Mexico.

Conducted by the Unitarian Service Committee the directors of the camp will be Harold Reneker, of the psychological department of the Detroit Board of Education, and Mrs. Reneker.

Sleek

THE SAFE DEPILATORY that creams off facial hair in a jiffy!

Sleek, created and developed by Elizabeth Arden is the safe way to remove unsightly hair on face, arms and legs.

Big Full 4 1/2 oz. size 200 (plus tax)

Sleek is a dependable, medically safe depilatory, time-tested in purity, safety and effectiveness... incomparable for all hair removal on delicate areas of the skin.

Sleek is a "must" for summer, the unweaving season with bare arms and legs dominating the beach! Use it freely to keep face, arms and legs satin-smooth. Once used, you'll never be without it.

Sleek has the most delightful fragrance (unlike the average depilatory)—and leaves the skin smooth, smooth as satin.

Sleek is a safe quick-action cream—works in minutes. It is a pleasure to use—no fussy preparations or messy aftermath.

Sleek is easy to apply. Simply cream on Sleek with your fingers... and minutes later rinse with warm water—and all hair vanishes with the rinsing. S-L-E-E-K... and it's off.

The one safe depilatory to use on your face as well as legs and arms!

Pointe Tuberculosis Cases Increased 33% During 1953

Grosse Pointe has had an increase in the number of new cases of tuberculosis reported in 1953 as compared to 1952 according to figures compiled by the Tuberculosis and Health Society and the Wayne Co. Health Dept.

In 1952, 20 new cases of TB were reported while last year the number rose to 30 new cases and one death.

Reports are as follows:

1952	1953
Grosse Pointe Woods	3
Grosse Pointe Shores	0
Grosse Pointe Farms	4
Grosse Pointe City	7
Grosse Pointe Park	6

Tuberculosis is no respected of person or income bracket and everyone should protect himself and his family against the ravages of the disease. A regular chest X-ray will help make sure that no infection is present, the TB and Health Society points out.

Medical science is aiding in the reduction of deaths from TB which is the No. 1 killer among the infectious diseases today. An enlightened people who take more care with their health and know the value of periodic X-ray examinations of their chests are helping to find the disease early and preventing the spread of it to other children and adults.

The TB and Health Society,

Japanese Beetle Search to Start

Again this summer an intensive trapping and scouting program for the Japanese Beetle will be carried on by the Michigan Department of Agriculture, Bureau of Plant Industry, according to Bureau Chief C. A. Boyer.

Some 9,000 traps will be placed in these areas of the state where the beetle may be present. The Grosse Pointe area has been selected as a possible area of infestation. Citizens may expect to see some of the bright yellow funnel-shaped traps suspended from iron stakes in yards or in parks within the near future.

Property owners are asked to cooperate in permitting setting of these traps on private property. The traps will do no harm and the trap in a property owner's yard may catch one of these very destructive beetles and contribute to the success of the control program.

"It is worthy of note," declares Boyer, "that the Japanese Beetle Control Project in Michigan has effectively prevented the increase of this pest in the state since 1932 and thus has prevented the possible destruction of hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of agricultural and horticultural crops."

Lessons learned by experience seldom need explanations.

Tony Beltaire Bitten by Dog

Five year old Anthony Beltaire, the burr-top protagonist of many a Yorkshire road drama and recent topic of daddy's daily Free Press column, "The Town Crier," was just too nice to one of his four legged friends. He was bitten on the lip by a dog.

According to Tony, it was all the dog's fault, but in a reticent moment, he will shyly admit that maybe he was trying a little too hard to pawn off an unwanted green juju-bee. To this, his junior compatriot in crime, Jeff Beltaire, will gleefully agree. He wanted that green one.

But Tony's got the three stitches, and he's pretty proud of them, much to Jeff's chagrin, and the dog's being watched in a lot of ways, and the Bloods, (it was their dog), and the Beltaires aren't feuding, and Tony's positive that everything was for the best.

ROBERT E. WALDRON FOR State Representative Republican

Veteran Grosse Pointe High Graduate Attorney

If you want to be sure your family gets needed hospital care... without financial risk to you...

Get protection that pays HOSPITAL SERVICES rather than limited cash!

Unlike plans that give you limited cash to pay your hospital bill (with no assurance that you'll get enough cash!), BLUE CROSS pays in hospital services themselves!

With 1 in 3 families facing hospital bills each year, you can easily see the importance of having hospital bill protection! And it's just as important to have enough protection! But what kind provides enough?

Is it the kind that pays limited dollars... with no guarantee that the dollars you get will cover the hospital services you need? (You seldom know in advance which services you'll need, or how much they'll cost!)

Or is enough protection the kind that pays in hospital services themselves? This is the whole idea of Blue Cross!

How Blue Cross protects you

When you have to go to a hospital, just present your Blue Cross - Blue Shield Identification Card. It's an A-1 credit rating at any Blue Cross participating hospital, good for all the basic hospital services you need. And every enrolled member in your family is protected equally... at over 200 Blue Cross participating hospitals in Michigan, with 98% of the general hospital beds in the state.

How Blue Shield protects you

Rarely would you have a hospital bill without having a doctor bill. Ask your doctor ahead of time what his charge will be. Almost always, he can tell you. Still, protection against doctor bills is an important safeguard for your savings... and here is where Blue Shield comes in.

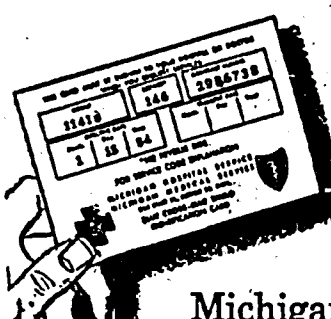

Blue Shield offers two basic plans—one, a straight surgical plan, the other, a medical-surgical plan. Under either plan, Blue Shield pays generous specific amounts directly to your doctor for thousands of surgical procedures. And, in non-surgical cases, under the medical-surgical plan, Blue Shield pays liberal amounts for your doctor's visits to you in the hospital. Often the doctor's full bill is covered.

How to get Blue Cross - Blue Shield

Ask your employer, your union representative, your Farm Bureau or Grange how you can get low-cost group enrollment. A company with as few as five employees may qualify as a group. And small groups can have just as much protection as large groups, at the same low cost... mere pennies a day! Write or phone your nearest Blue Cross - Blue Shield office.

Republicans Plan Candidate Night

The Columbian Republican League and the 14th Congressional District Republican Club jointly announced the holding of Candidate Interview Night No. 3 on Thursday, July 1, at the Buckingham Hall, 15917 Harper, at 8 p.m.

In making their joint announcement, president Samuel Prete, of 10276 Harvard, and Mrs. Eleanor Hoffman, of 14630 Spring Garden, of the two Republican organizations, stressed that the purpose of the meeting was not only to allow the voters to hear the various candidates but also to question them in person on any and all issues.

"The best way to make up your mind about the abilities of any candidate," they said, "is to listen to him talk—and then to see how he handles the verbal hot potatoes you throw at him in the form of questions. Our clubs are holding this meeting to give you a chance to make an intelligent choice in the primary election."

This is the third candidate interview night to be held so far this year. Owen J. (Pat) Cleary and Donald Leonard spoke earlier; Eugene Keyes will appear on July 14. Each of these meetings is sponsored by the 14th Congressional District Republican Club in cooperation with other Republican Clubs in the area.

Refreshments will be served.

Chemists Honor Dr. Rieveschl

The national conclave of Alpha Chi Sigma, chemical fraternity, meeting in East Lansing on June 22, gave its "outstanding chemist" award to Dr. George Rieveschl, Jr., director of chemical research for Parke, Davis & Company. Dr. Rieveschl lives in Lothrop road, Grosse Pointe.

Dr. Rieveschl, 38, was primarily responsible for the chemical work on Benadryl, first U. S. antihistamine used in the treatment of hay fever and other allergies. The Michigan State College chapter made Dr. Rieveschl an honorary member of the fraternity, which has 58 college and 30 professional chapters throughout the country. He addressed the conclave on "Problems and Prospects in Pharmaceuticals." Born near Cincinnati, Dr. Rieveschl received graduate training at the University of Cincinnati, which granted him a Ph.D. in organic chemistry in 1940. He was an assistant professor in the Department of Chemical Engineering there before joining Parke-Davis as an organic chemist in 1943. He became director of chemical research in 1949.

STOLEN CAR RECOVERED

Two Woods police sergeants, Wilbert LeDuke and Walter O'Dell, recovered a stolen car at Brys drive near Goethe on Wednesday, June 23. The vehicle was teletyped as having been stolen from Gratiot and Pennsylvania, Detroit, a few hours earlier, by Detroit police.

Yacht Club Observes Twenty-Fifth Birthday

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Silver Anniversary Events Get Under Way Fourth of July; Huge Birthday Cake to Be Featured in Club Rotunda

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's plans for the Fourth of July are being highlighted by the creation of a huge birthday cake, which will be the visible symbol of GPYC's quarter-century of flourishing existence.

Actually, the club is celebrating this silver jubilee year with several events slated at intervals, but it was on July 4 in 1929 that the clubhouse, one of the finest in the world, was formally opened with fitting ceremonies. Consequently, the big, tiered cake will properly be on display—and cut—on the July 4 anniversary date.

This coming Sunday, the real Independence Day, will be an informal family day, generally speaking.

Activities will be concentrated on the children's circus in the afternoon and magnificent fireworks in the evening, the same as in the last half-dozen years at the club.

There will be a short formal ceremony, too, to mark the auspicious twenty-fifth milestone. That will be in the early evening when club officers will gather around the cake and formally cut the first slices.

The tiered masterpiece by the club's pastry chef, Leo R. Niffeler, will be in the rotunda from noon-time on, for members and their families of all ages to see and admire.

Rising six feet in height and with a four-foot base, the cake will be topped by a sailboat covered in spun sugar. Iced all over in white and ornamented with spun sugar flowers and "25's," it also will show the club's insignia in red, white and blue. A circle of 25 candles will be set on one tier.

The gala Fourth will emphasize fun for the children. Circus-like activities will start at 1 o'clock, with pony-riding for the young set in an outdoor enclosure, to continue until 4 p.m. Also during these hours there'll be an organ grinder and Bobo, the clown, to circulate for everyone's amusement.

At 2 o'clock, a show on the front lawn will present Louis and his society-brand circus and Harold Ramon with his Punch and Judy marionettes.

Luncheon will be served in the grill and main dining room from noon to 3 p.m. and a buffet dinner from 4 to 8:30 o'clock.

Directing arrangements are members of the entertainment committee including Chairman William A. Ternes, John D.

Adair, Howard A. Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Weber, George C. Mitchell, Calvin J. Gauss, Jr., Charles E. Monahan, John F. DeHayes, Charles J. Glasgow, Mrs. Paul Barker, Mrs. William P. Kinder, Mrs. Paul I. Moreland, Mrs. Rex L. Brophy, Mrs. Edward J. Schoenherr and Mrs. Thomas C. Fox.

The evening's wonderful fireworks display will be set off from the east dock when dark falls, about 9 o'clock. Some 200 aerial shells will be sent rocketing into the air to burst with showers of multi-colored lights. Grand finale will consist of three special designs including the anniversary "1929-1954," the club burgee and lastly, the American flag—true symbol of independence!

Then on Monday, July 5, GPYC will observe the legal holiday by making the clubhouse available to members, thus departing from its usual Monday closing. Luncheon from 12 to 3 in dining room, grill and Fo'castle, and buffet dinner from 5:30 to 8:30 are on the July 5 agenda.

Following closely will be the next silver anniversary year celebrations—it will be the 25th annual Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Regatta on July 10.

Participating in this regatta will be approximately 160 boats of 23 classes, including the big cruising A's and B's down to the 17-foot Thistles and 15-foot Snipes. Warning gun will be fired at 11:30 a.m. Prizes will be presented at 8 o'clock in the evening. Nor is it too early to speak of yet another silver jubilee year event—members' sights already are set on Saturday, Aug. 14, when the Commodore's Ball, Commodore's Review and Silver Jubilee Showboat Party will present a grand and gala festivity on that date.

Windsor Amaranth Order To Confer Degrees Here

Margaret Rose Court, Order of the Amaranth, from Windsor, will join with Ruth Court No. 8, in a special meeting for the conferring of degrees, Monday evening, June 28, at Brotherhood Temple, 13318 Kercheval Ave., at 8 p.m.

All member Courts are invited to participate. Helen Simons is Royal Matron.

Mrs. Raymond S. Reardon, Jr.

The former KATHRYN MARY FUSHMAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fushman of Bedford road, was married on June 26 to the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ramond Stephen Reardon of Somerset road.

Mrs. Virgil J. Haggart, Jr.

The former Barbara Bartlet Barnum and her bridegroom, who were married Saturday at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, travelled to Bermuda on their wedding trip. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Richard Fyfe Barnum, of Yorkshire road; and Mr. Haggart is the son of the V. J. Haggarts of Omaha.

Select Bermuda For Honeymoon

Following a Bermuda honeymoon, the newly-wed Lt. and Mrs. Raymond Stephen Reardon Jr. will make their home in Clovis, N. M., where Lt. Reardon is stationed.

Mrs. Reardon, the former Kathryn Mary Fushman, and Lt. Reardon exchanged wedding vows in a morning Mass read by Rev. James D. Clark, O.S.A., in St. Clare of Montefalco Church on Saturday, June 26. A reception followed in the Detroit Athletic Club.

Kathryn is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fushman of Bedford road. Lt. Reardon's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Reardon of Somerset road.

The bride wore a gown of mousseline de soie over white tulle with applique with embroidered lace. Her long flowing illusion veil was held in place by a lace comb. The bridal bouquet was of orchids, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. James T. Johnston of Marion, Indiana, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Gardner, Mrs. Charles Diebolt, Nancy Martin and Ann Eyerlein. Identically gowned, they wore waltz length white organza dresses over yellow tulle, and carried daisies and shredded delphiniums.

John Reardon, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Frank Messing III, Harry Jessee Jr., Thomas Payne and John Fushman, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Fushman chose a beige dress of linen and chiffon for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Reardon wore a gown of light blue chiffon. For the trip to Bermuda Mrs. Reardon wore a navy linen dress with navy and white accessories.

Parley Planned By Architects

A tour of the Grosse Pointe area and dinner at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will be features of the Eighteenth National Convention of Alpha Alpha Gamma—Association of Women in Architecture and the Allied Arts.

Announcement of convention plans was made by National President and Convention Chairman, Mrs. R. B. Kinkead, Barrington road, Grosse Pointe Park.

A. W. A. and its undergraduate affiliate, Alpha Alpha Gamma, will open their biennial convention at the Park Shelton Hotel in Detroit, Friday, July 2, with a luncheon to welcome delegates from six states.

First program of the convention Friday evening, will present two speakers, Miss Lydia Siedschlag, head-of the fine arts department of Western Michigan State Teachers' College, and Mr. Hrand Hampikian, Detroit landscape designer.

They will discuss the relation of interior design and landscape design to architecture. Sunday evening, July 4, Betty Conn (Mrs. James Conn) will talk on sculpture and illustrate points to be presented with 3-D slides.

In addition to the Grosse Pointe tour, a number of trips to points of interest in and around Detroit are planned. Included on the itinerary are Wayne University's new Kruger Library, with architect, Suren Pilaftan, on hand to explain problems of design and construction; Federal Reserve Bank Building; studio of Marshall Fredericks, noted sculptor; Cranbrook Academy; General Motors Technical and Research Center.

Climaxing the four-day meeting, will be a banquet Monday evening, July 5, at the Park Shelton, at which Minoru Yamasaki, will talk informally. At this time also, announcement will be made of officers for the 1954-55 term.

The hostess chapter is arranging an exhibit of work of members from various parts of the country. This display will be on view at convention headquarters throughout the weekend.

Assisting Mrs. Kinkead with convention plans are: Mrs. R. V. McCabe, Huntington Woods; Mrs. Suren Pilaftan, Detroit; Miss Florence Dyer, Lansing; Mrs. David Spalding, Birmingham; and Mrs. R. M. Peters, Lansing.

Margaret A. Gifford to Be Bride Of Dr. Frank Lathrop on July 17

Margaret A. Gifford, daughter of Mrs. Roy W. Gifford and the late Mr. Gifford, will marry Dr. Frank Lathrop of Boston on Saturday, July 17. Dr. Lathrop is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Lathrop.

The wedding will be held in the Gifford residence in Balfour road. Dr. Frank Lathrop of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church will perform the ceremony.

Theron F. Gifford will give his sister away. Malcom M. Johns organist at Memorial Church will play the wedding march. A reception will follow in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Mrs. Richard MacLaren of Winnetka, Ill., will be the matron of honor. She will entertain the wedding party and out-of-town guests for luncheon on July 15 in the Detroit Yacht Club.

Junior bridesmaid will be Margaret's niece, Phyllis Anne, daughter of the Theron F. Giffords of Lookout Mountain, Tennessee.

Dr. James H. Maxwell of Ann Arbor will attend Dr. Lathrop as best man.

Parties honoring the bride-elect included those of Mrs. Bruce E. Rogers of Harper Woods, who entertained Margaret's ceramic group in the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church of which she was chairman; a brunch and linen shower in the home of the hostess, Mrs. James Lafer on Oxford road.

Also in the summer home in Clarkston, Mrs. Frank Lambert and her daughter, Mrs. William Lookadoo, entertained with a luncheon and a recipe shower.

Mrs. Alexander Blain Sr. gave Margaret a mother and daughter luncheon and a hadkerchief shower in the Detroit Boat Club.

Today, Thursday, Mrs. Harold Baxter and Mrs. Bert Reedy will entertain Margaret's friends with a tea party and a personal shower in Mrs. Reedy's home in Shelbourne road.

Mrs. James E. Atkinson's home in Buckingham road was the scene of a tea and a miscellaneous shower for 30 guests. Mrs. Clarence E. Fox was co-hostess for the party.

The rehearsal dinner will be held in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Friday, July 16, with Mrs. Roy Gifford the hostess.

Mrs. Robert Cooper and Paula Mathewson were identical gowns of pink antique shantung. The full skirted frocks were waltz length and they carried red roses and ivy and wore bands of ivy leaves in their hair.

Emil Traum was best man and ushers were the bride's brother, James Mathewson, Floyd Mathewson, Frank Grigel and Robert Cooper.

The Rev. Charles Scheid of Grand Rapids, formerly pastor of Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, officiated at the marriage ceremony which was followed by a reception in the church parlors.

After their wedding trip to the Upper Peninsula, the young couple will make their home in Philip avenue.

Sarah Griffith To Wed in Fall

The engagement of Sarah Ann Griffith to Oscar Victor Larson III, of Kansas City, Mo., has been announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ralph Griffith, formerly of Grosse Pointe and now of Birmingham, Mich.

Mr. Larson is the son of Mrs. Oscar Victor Larson Jr. and the late Mr. Larson.

Sarah Ann graduated from the Grosse Pointe High School, attended University of Arizona and received her diploma from the Leland Powers Schools of Radio and Theater in Boston.

Mr. Larson is a graduate of the University of Kansas - and the Kansas Art Institute. His fraternity is Kappa Sigma.

The couple plan a September wedding.

Many a reputation could be saved if someone would invent a way to stop idle rumors.

Leonard Wittlingers Leave for Nantucket

Their Marriage Solemnized Friday in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe. Followed With Reception in Grosse Pointe Yacht Club; to Leave in Beverly Hills

At a 5 o'clock wedding in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, on Friday, Nona Hemmter became the bride of the Rev. Leonard Price Wittlinger.

Nona is the daughter of Mrs. Herbert Spencer Hemmter, of Notre Dame avenue, and the late Mr. Hemmter, and her bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Leonard McLane Wittlinger, of Flint, and the late Mr. Wittlinger.

The Right Rev. Richard S. Enrich, assisted by the Reverend Erville B. Maynard officiated at the wedding.

Given in marriage by her brother, John Hemmter, the bride was clad in robes of Italian white pure silk tulle, the portrait neckline outlined with hand-corded Alencon lace.

Rose pointed edged the filmy veil of pointe d'esprit which was worn over a longer veil of imported silk illusion.

The bridal attendants were in white pique frocks fashioned with flaring open length skirts and fitted bodices. A deep cuff of yellow satin finished the necklines and was used in narrow belts at the slim waists. They wore bands of yellow braiding with brow veils and carried yellow Esther Reed daisies with yellow carnations and ivy.

Maid of honor was Frances Frost and the bridesmaids were Joan Hadley, Mrs. Robert G. Smith, Miriam Wittlinger of Flint, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Frederick Schlotz of Stamford, Conn., Mrs. Francis E. Brossy III and Mrs. Greene Fenley III.

Mrs. Hemmter attended her daughter's wedding in cloud gray Chantilly lace sheath dress and Mrs. Wittlinger chose an imported blue-gray shantung costume. Both had purple orchids.

Mrs. Hemmter gave the wedding reception for her daughter and son-in-law at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club after which the newlyweds left for a honeymoon on Nantucket.

After Sep. 1 their home will be Beverly Hills, Calif.

Annual Boat Club Regatta Draws Fleet of 146 Boats

The proof of the pudding is in the eating, and the Detroit Boat Club came up with a great big plum last Saturday, June 26, when its sixtieth annual regatta drew 146 entries. It was the second largest of the season, despite the fact a few local big boat skippers chose to sail the Mills race which was held the same day on Lake Erie.

Ever since the DRYA spring meeting when Toledo Yacht Club and the Detroit Boat Club locked horns over the June 26 date, both clubs had gone out of their way to make their race the most attractive to the yachtmen. Commodore Bill Miller and his Boat Club officials happily yielded to their big entry list of 146 as compared to the small fleet of 23 that turned out for the Mills race.

Plenty of Variety
Not only did the Boat Club provide a beautiful party in the evening, as usual, but it also provided some very interesting and confusing racing weather as the light canvas men will attest.

The light canvas was up and down like a window shade as the big fleet worked its way around the various triangular courses in Lake St. Clair. Light southerly breezes got the first portion of the fleet across the starting line at the head of Peche Island on spinnaker runs and then shifted almost 180 degrees to give the later starting classes a beat to the first marks along the American shore.

Spinnakers were the fashion of the second leg and first part of the final leg of the courses before the breeze finally disappeared and left the yachts becalmed halfway to the finish line. This is where the light canvas men worked like beavers under rapid fire orders from their spinnaker skippers, who tried everything to get their yachts moving toward the judges' boat on a mirror-like Lake St. Clair.

Last Leg Confusing
Yes sir, that last leg of the race was a confusing one especially when the wind, what little there was, came from all directions before it finally settled down and blew a gentle six miles per hour from the southwest, which got most of the fleet home before the 5 p.m. deadline.

Race officials made only one mistake when they sent the Cruising A and B boats around the 21 mile course, but how were they to know the wind would disappear completely and leave these yachts sitting out in the lake with no chance to finish before the deadline. It was a natural mistake.

Cruising C sailed the 15 mile course and Hank Burkard's "Meteor" and Walt Kunow's "Tempress," both double enders that like light, ghosting conditions, finished one-two ahead of Karl Ness' pilot sloop, "Happy-Ness," which placed third ahead of "Lively Lady." Susie Fisher's "Old Rarity," Chet Reynaud's "Maybe II," Nicol-Nagel-Desmond's "Balquhider," Kurt Keydel's "Grace Note," Mac MacPetrie's "Stardust" and Hank Grikscheit's "Diane" in that order.

New Trophies at Stake
As an added incentive to the Cruising classes the Boat Club put up beautiful perpetual trophies for competition. Only the Cruising C trophy will be engraved this year with Hank Burkard's name. The other two will have to wait until next year.

One other magnificent trophy was awarded. It was the Robbie Robinson Memorial Trophy which was put into competition for the first time this year and went to the first Privateer to finish.

The late Robbie Robinson once told us: "Fred, you are in a very unusual position when it comes to writing about local yacht races. Never play yourself up. Give the other guys in your class the ink."

This advice we have always tried to follow, but for this once we were lucky and won in the hot Privateer class and believe me when we say we were extremely proud to accept the Robbie Robinson Memorial trophy from Mrs. Virginia Robinson before the huge gathering of sailors who watched the presentation of prizes.

Jimmy Trudell, Robbie's lifelong friend and skipper of "Gin

Jam," tried valiantly to win the trophy but had the misfortune to finish third behind Chuck Haug's "Niaid," Don Pixley's "Maybe," Al Thomas' "Spindrift" and Sid Marshes' "Indian Drum" following in that order. Bobby Roadstrum gambled and lost at the second mark and disqualified his "Cotton Top" when his spinnaker brushed the buoy in a daring maneuver to keep "Wind Toy" behind him as the two yachts battled for first place going into the payoff leg of the race.

Roadstrum, a great sportsman, immediately apologized for his mistake and dropped out of the race according to the rules. There have been some skippers in the past who have continued to race in hopes their infraction wouldn't be detected. But not Bobby Roadstrum. He's a great competitor.

Charley Beck said, "Last week I won in the Raven class because it was my turn and this week I won because it was my birthday." Don't let that statement fool you. Those guys, Bob Kerr and Boyd Benkert, who finished second and third, respectively, would never give anyone first place in a sailboat race if they could help it. Charley had to win on his own.

Other winners, who collected a barometer for first place, a silver bon bon dish for second and a silver hors d'oeuvre server for third, were: J. B. Ford III, Nils Lukander and R. Adams in the 5.5 meter class; Ray St. John, Jay Gonyeau and George Wilson in the 30 square meters; Bob Dadd, Fred Jensen and Guy McNaron in the L Class; Bobby Ford, Dick Wozniak and Chuck Chalver in the Luders; John French Jr., G. Munro and John Stroh in the Vineyard Havens; Bob Schroeder, A. Johnson and H. Dickinson in the C Class; Hank "Port Tack" Cahnera, Wes Weidrick and Vic Schneider in the Lightnings; Howard Boston, Harold Wheeler and George Devlin in the Thistles; Fred Meno Jr., Duke Huber and Bob Lawrence in the K-Class; Jerry Jenkins, Jim McCarthy and Dick Hill in Universal; B and George Richardson, Jim Crowe and the mystery skipper of Star number 1322.

The Catboat Team honors went to the St. Clair Yacht Club with 30 points. Detroit Yacht Men with second with 18 and was followed by the Detroit Boat Club with 16 and Edison Boat Club 14. Individual winners in this event were George Brewer (St. Clair), Bob Sherrill (St. Clair) and Bill Warrner (D.C.B.C.).

George Engelse won the CK-Free-for-All and was followed by Frank Treat and L. Marchayer. This Saturday, July 3, Commodore Johnny Detweiler will be in command when the Grosse Pointe Club (Little Club) will be host to the local fleet at its second consecutive inter-club regatta. However, we should explain that second consecutive regatta twist. The Little Club is no Johnny-come-lately to this business of holding regattas around these parts.

The Little Club is one of the oldest in the DRYA and for years held an annual regatta. For some reason or another the Little Club abandoned the confusion of regatta days several years ago and only last year under Commodore Bobby Bryant did it resume its position in the regatta schedule. Every skipper will have to have a program for this race because it will not be the regular triangular course usually sailed each week. Regular DRYA course markers will be used but the start and finish line will be set in front of the club. Actually it will be quadrangular affair, so check your programs carefully, fellows.

The race will be followed by a dinner dance which is open to all competing skippers and their crews. If you wish to attend the dinner at 6:30 p.m., call TU 5-0400 and place your reservation by Thursday, July 1.

Power Squadron To Hold Festival

The boating public, and all who are interested in boats or boating of any type, have a treat in store at the four harbors of St. Clair Shores on Saturday, Sunday and Monday, July 3-4-5.

The Detroit Power Squadron will mark the 40th anniversary of the founding of the United States Power Squadrons with a Boating Festival which will include exhibits and contests, dancing, a sports fashion show, and many other attractions to quicken the pulse and delight the eyes of the amateur skipper and his mate.

Boats from the Great Lakes area will be arriving Friday afternoon at the Jefferson Beach Harbor, Michigan Boat Harbor, Shores Boat Harbor and the new Jefferson Beach Marina, although the public will be interested most in the events of Saturday, July 3, and Sunday, July 4.

Saturday morning will see the Power Boat Piloting Contest run off, with the Power Boat Handicraft Contest taking up part of the afternoon.

A dinner, followed by dancing to Earl Perkins Orchestra at the Jefferson Beach Pavilion, will be the attraction Saturday evening. Among those who will be presented to the guests by Irving W. Watson, Commander of the Detroit Power Squadron, will be the Chief Commander of the United States Power Squadrons, Kenneth B. Champ of Findlay, Ohio; and Vice Commanders William C. Woltmire of Jamaica, New York, and Lester C. Lowe, of Los Angeles, California, and their wives.

The sailboat contest will be held Sunday, starting time 9 a.m., followed by the selection of the Squadron's "Nautical Sweetheart." At 3 p.m. Commander Watson will lead the pleasure boat fleet in review before Chief Commander Champ and his aides, after which a reception will be held in the St. Clair Shores Civic Center, with a buffet dinner.

On exhibition will be a variety of private boats with some unusual characteristics, such as a thirty-five foot express cruiser with a non-pounding, non-rolling hull-form, a forty-six foot double cabin cruiser with unusually complete equipment, a Dutch-built steel hull sailboat, a yacht converted from a tug, and the Santa Maria (a reproduction of Columbus' flagship).

Wiener Uphold Tennis Tradition

The Alex Wiener family of University Place needed not worry about its long-established tennis tradition dying out; not so long as sons Sandy and Mackie are wielding rackets.

In the U.S.L.T.A. State Regional Tournament held at the Neighborhood Club last week, Sandy, the eldest, was a double winner in his division and Mackie managed the runner-up slot against stiff competition in his 15 and under age group.

Sandy, playing in the 18 year old and under division, displayed steady, almost effortless tennis while whipping Bob Semple for the singles crown in straight sets, 6-0, 6-4. He then teamed with Semple in the doubles and walked off with his second title, defeating Pete Eggle and Robin Ryan, 4-6, 6-1, 6-2.

Mackie, playing consistent tennis throughout the tournament, finally met his match in the finale as he bowed to the smooth-stroking Ricky Champion, 6-3, 6-1.

In the 15 and under doubles, Pete McGrath and Bruce Rockwell defeated Eddie Pongraces and Ralph McElvenny, 6-4, 1-6, 6-2. Diane LaBakas won the girls' singles title in straight sets, 6-3, 6-1, defeating Lucy Parker. Miss LaBakas then teamed with Ann Rutledge to win the doubles. They defeated Barbara Kolla and Parker, 6-1, 6-1.

The winners are entitled to play in the state tournament at Kalazamoo on June 6-8 to determine who will represent the state in the nationals, also held in Kalazamoo, on July 26-August 1.

A full schedule in the Grosse Pointe Park Little League saw the league-leading Senators drop two of their three games and narrowly miss slipping out of first place. Only an upset 10-4 victory by the Orioles over the Athletics saved the Senators' lead.

The Athletics handed the Senators the first of their two game setbacks when the A's chalked up an 8-3 decision early in the week. A big fifth inning in which the A's pushed across three runs spelled doom for the Senators.

Tommy Conrad went the distance and limited the Senators to six scattered hits. Two of the hits were doubles ripped out by Larry Smith, who paced the Senators' losing cause.

Earlier in the week the Orioles sprung a 10 to 4 upset on the second place Athletics behind the masterful hurling of Larry McCormick, who struck out 11 batters. Pat McCormick paced the Orioles' attack with a double and single. The Orioles amassed nine runs in two big innings to turn back the A's.

The Senators collected their only win of the week when Dick Werbach limited the Orioles to four hits and walked off the mound with a 5-0 victory, the first shutout of the season in the league.

The old axiom "the last shall be first" was proven when the cellar-dwelling White Sox walloped the Senators 11 to 4 behind the two hit pitching of Louis Ewald, which was his best performance of the season. The defeat left the Senators a scant half game in front of the Athletics.

Park Little League officials have arranged an all-star minor league game which will precede the regularly scheduled Senator-White Sox game to be played at Deter Field on July 5.

All-star players from the Athletics, Cardinals and Brooklyn were pitted against all-stars from the Dodgers, Shamrocks and Eagles. Four players will be selected from each team and will compete in the three inning preliminary contest.

The Tigers of the Grosse Pointe Woods Little League saw their winning streak broken at seven games when Lars Anderson set the League leaders down with one hit while his mates were playing errorless ball to contribute to the 7 to 1 victory.

Dave Lowery, the losing pitcher, allowed the Red Sox 7 hits and saw his teammates boot the ball twice. The victory shaved a full game off the Tigers' margin in the standings on Monday, June 21.

A battle for last place between the Indians and Yankees took place on Tuesday, June 22, with the Indians squeezing out a 3-2 win to move into a two-way tie with the Yankees for third place.

Russ Gramer got credit for the victory and relief hurler Mike MacDonald took the loss. The Yankees were leading going into the fourth inning. The Indians tied it up in the fifth and went on to win on Russ Gramer's home run in the sixth inning.

ORDINANCE NO. 110
 An ordinance to amend Chapter XIII (Impounding) of Ordinance No. 101—Code No. 6-01, Entitled: "An ordinance to regulate the operation of motor vehicles and bicycles, and to regulate vehicular traffic and related matters, and to repeal Ordinances No. 52, 58, 67 and 78" by adding a new section to be known as Section 85(a).
THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE FARMS ORDAINS:
 Section 1. Chapter XIII (Impounding) of Ordinance No. 101—Code No. 6-01, Entitled: "An ordinance to regulate the operation of motor vehicles and bicycles, and to regulate vehicular traffic and related matters, and to repeal Ordinances No. 52, 58, 67 and 78", is hereby amended by adding Section 85(a) to read as follows:
 Section 85(a). Abandoned Vehicles. Any vehicle impounded as provided in previous sections, and not recovered as provided in Section 85 within thirty (30) days, shall be deemed to be abandoned and may be claimed by the City of Grosse Pointe Farms as its personal property, and used or disassembled and parts salvaged by the Chief of Police, or sold by him at auction; Provided, that written or printed notice of the claim of the City to its property rights in said vehicle or vehicles, and of the proposed sale of the same by the Chief of Police shall be posted, describing the vehicle or vehicles and giving date, time and place of sale, in at least three (3) public places in the City at least ten (10) days prior to such sale. All moneys realized from such sale shall be paid into the general fund of the City.
 If the owner or person legally entitled to possession makes claim for said vehicle any time before the sale the Chief of Police shall upon the proper proof of the claim deliver the vehicle to such owner or person entitled to possession, provided that the amount due for hauling, storage and expenses incurred by the City are paid into the general fund of the City.
 Section 2. This ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later.

Amendment of Zoning Ordinance

At a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Grosse Pointe held on June 21, 1954, at the Neighborhood Club at 8 P.M., pursuant to due notice thereof, and at which meeting a quorum was present and acting throughout, and after a duly held public hearing, the following amendment of the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe, as heretofore amended, being Ordinance No. 12 of the City of Grosse Pointe, as heretofore amended, was, upon motion made and supported, unanimously adopted, the same being designated Ordinance No. 72 of the City of Grosse Pointe:
 "Ordinance No. 72. An ordinance to amend the Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe, as heretofore amended, being Ordinance No. 12 of the City of Grosse Pointe, as heretofore amended, by adding a new Section III A thereto, immediately following Section III thereof, the said new section to permit off-street parking of automobiles on certain properties as described therein in accord with the outline of a plan submitted and on file with the City Clerk, City of Grosse Pointe, and subject to the requirement that the said parking area thereby permitted shall have its sole entrance from Rivard Boulevard and its sole exit onto Jefferson Avenue.
 The City of Grosse Pointe ordains:
 Section 1. The Zoning Ordinance of the City of Grosse Pointe, as amended, being Ordinance No. 12 of the City of Grosse Pointe as amended, is hereby further amended to add a new Section III A thereof as follows:
 III. A
 Special Parking Area
 Off-street parking of automobiles shall be permitted on Lots 29, 30 and 31 of Henry Lodewyck's Subdivision of Lot 12, Rivard Park Subdivision of Private Claims 299 and 458, Village (now City) of Grosse Pointe, Wayne County, Michigan according to the Plat recorded in Liber 22 of Plats, page 62, Wayne County Records; the said parking area to have its sole entrance from Rivard Boulevard and its sole exit onto Jefferson Avenue, all substantially in accord with the outline of a plan submitted and on file with the City Clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe.
 Section 2. This ordinance, after adoption, shall become effective ten days after publication (1) in a newspaper circulated in the City of Grosse Pointe and (2) by posting in five public places in the City of Grosse Pointe."
Certification
 I, Norbert P. Neff, City Clerk of the City of Grosse Pointe, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of proceedings duly taken at a regular meeting of the City Council of the City of Grosse Pointe duly called, and at which a quorum was present and acting throughout.

who, where and whatnot

by ubnozit

Pointers are still gasping about the visitor to the David C. Whitney sale who, wishing to turn his car around and get back to Lake Shore road, drove over the rolling emerald lawns of the estate! Such driving manners . . .

They belong right in the file where we'll put that young couple who invited a swarm of friends over for a garden supper at their home . . . served only beer to their guests . . . but all evening long managed to have tall highballs in their own hot paddies . . . Last of the gracious hosts! . . .

We're ever so glad to report that Ed Bodkin is nicely on the mend after a nasty spill from the top rung of a tall, tall ladder . . . He's been in a lot of pain but was game enough to rally right after the fall and complain to Mrs. Bodkin, "See what happens when you take a sailor inland!" Mr. Detroit River has discarded one crutch and we hear he even turned in a neat Charleston at one of the deb parties, with the aid of the crutch he still must use . . .

Hildegard and Joe deGrimme are ecstatic over an ancient map of the latter's native Vienna . . . (an antique from the period before the Turks invaded Austria) . . . which Mrs. Joseph M. Dodge presented to them . . .

We can't think of a prouder grandfather than E. A. Batchelor who dashed from his Moran road home for that first inspection trip to the nursery of Edward Armistead Batchelor, III . . . Dean of Michigan Sports Writers it was natural that Grandpa Batchelor compared his grandson with all the athletic greats in the record book . . . and the athletes came out a sorry second every time . . . "He's got an amazing pair of shoulders," said the grandfather with some modesty, "They're the kind that will enable him to ring a front doorbell at any hour of the day or night and when the big mean guy opens the door, E. A. B. III will punch him right in the nose. I've always wanted to do that myself."

PILFERINGS

The English paper we read is the Manchester Guardian and a recent copy interested us for these reasons:

"Every member of the President's Cabinet has on his desk a white telephone. It is a direct line with the White House," from a report by Alistair Cooke.

In a column called Miscellany:

I am convinced that half the conversation of women is in code, more cryptic, perhaps, than rhyming slang or thieves' jargon. I was standing at a stop waiting for the Leeds bus, and near me was a woman evidently setting out on a shopping expedition. Another woman, passing by, saw her.

"Hello, Annie," she said. "How are you?"

"Oh just so-and-so, on and off" said Annie. "I haven't got over THAT, you know."

"You never will, Annie. It will be always with you. Bear in mind, it will ease up a bit at times, but it will be always there. But what do you think about the other how-do-you-do?"

"What is that?" asked Annie.

"That THERE," said Number One.

"Which THERE?"

"Oh, you must have heard. Everybody's talking about it. YOU know."

"Never heard a word about it until you mentioned it just now. I don't get out as much nowadays since that other business."

"Well, it's been a proper to-do and no mistake, Annie. But nobody could say that they couldn't see it coming months before. Hello, here's Ethel coming along. She'll have something to say about it. I'll bet."

The new-comer greeted Annie with nods and becks and wreathed smiles, then she turned to the other: "They're out again. Proper Dick and Liddy. Some folks have no shame."

"I was just telling Annie about it before you came, Ethel."

"Well, how it's going to be settled I don't know" said Ethel.

"It would take a Solomon all his time to fathom that, Ethel," said Number One.

"To settle WHAT?" asked Annie, almost pleadingly.

"That THERE," said Number One.

Just then the bus came. I hate to be discourteous, so acting on the accepted principle of ladies first—I almost halt to push Annie on the bus. She was anxious to lag behind for some last tidbit that might enlighten her. She glared at me as if I had robbed her.

Houston Brothers Plan Celebration

Plans for celebrating 35 years as business partners has the attention these days of the two Houston brothers, "C.D." and "A.O.," who enjoy the distinction of being about as well known as any business men in Grosse Pointe and who are unquestionably the area's best known brother team.

The Houstons, now exclusive dealers in tires, originally started in business on Grand Boulevard and Hastings in Detroit in 1920, operating a gas station and garage. Their business grew and their station became a model of perfection. They handled the best products available and it was there that they made several business contacts that brought them dealerships which still exist.

Fourteen years ago they were prevailed upon to take over the old Central Service at Fisher road and Maumee in Grosse Pointe. Here they gained a great reputation for the excellent manner in which they conducted their business. Everybody soon came to know "C.D." and "A.O." and everybody respected their abilities in the care of the fine automobiles.

In 1947 they changed the name of Central Service to Houston Brothers, the name they had used in their original business. It was while on Fisher road that the wholesaling and retailing of tires became big business with them and in 1950 they sold the station in order to devote all of their time and efforts to the tire business.

They opened their exclusive tire shop and salesroom on Ker-cheval in November, 1950, and have since taken larger quarters on Kercheval at Wayburn, where they enjoy the patronage of a long list of customers.

The brother combination is the usual type where one runs the "works" and the other the office and the harmony with which these two brothers operate is a revelation. "C.D." the works head, consults "A.O." in all important matters. Their decisions are quick and are often noted by nods or other gestures not at all unlike those one sees at auctions.

Another factor is that they get things done. They're always congenial and always prompt. Their distributorships, which include all popular lines of tires as well as two premium quality lines, the Vogue Tyre and the famous General tire, permit them to sell retail in Grosse Pointe and wholesale throughout the entire Detroit metropolitan area.

One of the factors with which customers are most concerned is the exacting check-up for safety that the mechanics make in the Houston brothers shop. These check-ups are made without charge for Grosse Pointers. Often a tire is removed to check inside of it and one can rest assured that he will have the unvarnished facts. If the tire is sound and road worthy, the mechanic will tell him so.

Just what the brothers will do to mark their anniversary has not yet been decided, but whatever it is, both of them will have been in on the decision, and no doubt their far-flung public will benefit materially.

THE CLAUDE C. GAGE FAMILY OF NOTRE DAME AVENUE

By Jane Schermerhorn

In Grosse Pointe there are possibly a number of young families, the heads of which are faced with the problem of finding enough money to give their children the luxuries they, themselves, had in childhood.

It's a thought-provoking switch from the usual parental objective: providing the children with things mother and father DIDN'T have when they were young.

At least one family we know, faced with the first situation, is doing something about it. They're the Claude C. Gages, of Notre Dame avenue, who have become the Pointe's original "Do It Yourself" family.

With enviable good humor and immense enjoyment the Gages have produced a backyard to fill the dreams of their four interesting children: Claudia, 14; Alice, 12; Elizabeth, 11, and Tommy, just six.

Summer Wonderland Its cost would have been prohibitive, at the going market rates, but working as a team, and doing it themselves, it was economically possible for the Gages.

That it is their own work has made it all the more wonderful to the whole family and countless friends who share the good times.

Now, first we grabbed our Pointer of Interest pencil and dashed over to the Gages because we heard Claude was building a boat on his back porch.

It took a little while to get around to that, for when we pushed open the garden gate we met a lovely courtyard, laid in old red bricks and dominated by a graceful big weeping willow tree.

There was a swimming pool at the end of the courtyard, over to one side a barbecue grill. It was simply a Summer Wonderland and all of it the work of Mr. and Mrs. Gage.

The swimming pool started when Claude presented his wife, the former Catherine Thurber, with a shovel on their tenth wedding anniversary and the swimming pool was underway.

Labor of Love Digging the pool, Mrs. Gage got to the point where she could shovel 14 wheelbarrows full in something like an hour and a half. The finished excavation was something better than ten feet wide, twenty feet long, and between forty and fifty inches deep.

Next came the lining and this is where Mr. Gage's degree in aeronautical engineering proved handy (he taught the subject at University of Minnesota in the early thirties). The pool is lined in galvanized iron, 20 pieces put together with bolts. A concrete curb finished the sides and the interior is now painted a light blue. At night, the water is lighted to make a particularly lovely and inviting picture.

Mrs. Gage scorned the idea that this might have been hard work.

"It was good for my figure besides being interesting. When I started to dig I had romantic visions of finding shells and old Indian wampum in the earth. But after I had shoveled through the good old Michigan sand, I struck hard pan or blue clay."

The pool cost the Gages $350. If they had let the work to professionals it would have cost ten times that much.

Christening We proceeded to the back porch and sure enough, there was the boat. It's a twelve-foot sailing dinghy, built of plywood. There isn't a power tool in the Gage household which makes all these accomplishments even more miraculous. Designer Gage made and cut his own patterns with a Crosby model in mind.

By now the white paint has been applied to the boat which will be called the Indefatigable, and the mahogany deck is a-sparkle.

A Fourth of July christening party will be held, the dinghy to be launched in the Gage pool. There'll be real champagne at the christening but it will be poured, gently; no one would THINK of changing a mar on the Indefatigable.

In mid-July the sailing dinghy, will be lifted onto the now-being-built trailer that fits behind the Gage station wagon. It will ride in style to Truro on Cape Cod.

The family spends its summers at Truro. Surf fishing is one of their favorite sports. It sounds exciting what with the phosphorescent waves, the importance of tides, and pulling striped bass.

During the war years, the Gage total were assured fresh eggs because their mother, who is researcher on most of the family projects, wrote to the government, haunted the Grosse Pointe library to learn about chicken raising.

The head of the household converted part of the garage into a hen house for the first 25 pullet chicks. Before the Gages had finished with this adventure, they had gained fame for their fresh eggs and once, when they visited the State Fair and plied a farmer with questions, were asked how big their chicken ranch was.

Dressmaking and upholstering are talents of Mrs. Gage. She's a provocative gal with brilliant mind, double-edged sense of humor and keen powers of observation. In fact, we thought both the Gages had these qualities.

An Admirable Family A two-station-wagon family (Mr. Gage commands the big one which is of hard wood), Mrs. Gage prefers the Jeep model. It is perfect for her daily passenger list of children and pets. She is active in the PTA, community drives and in her church.

The little Gages have a Shetland sheep dog, Cookie (registered as Banbury Tart) which recently became proud mother of the frisky puppies: Nip, Tuck and Tina. Like their parents, the Gage children run the gamut in interests, from stamp collecting to singing in the choir at Christ Church.

With all moments such busy ones, the senior Gages get precious little time to work on another mutual interest—coal bins. They've had several at their home in Notre Dame; made them themselves. As usual they're thorough and scientific about it, chatting of gravity coat bins, hopper bins, etc.

They ARE the original "Do It Yourself" family — one from whom can be learned a fine lesson in the greatest art of all — family happiness.

Say you lug a beachmat out into the yard and bask. Say you plant a table outdoors, and eat as many meals as possible under the sky. Just because you do . . . it does not guarantee that little Miss Muffet and Junior are going to be perfectly contented, does it? This is where Young Clothes, Inc. comes in. They have several ideas designed to keep the young in heart happy in summer. They have foam rubber sailboats . . . cooking sets . . . puzzles . . . games . . . sculpturing sets . . . books . . . Many of the Ding Dong and Play School toys are available, too. 110 Kercheval, on the hill.

Are you going to knock yourself out bettering your backhand on the tennis court . . . zooms around Lake St. Clair on a speedboat . . . brown yourself to a turn on the beach . . . come this week-end? If you are, taking pictures will probably play a big part. And here is a really BIG idea designed to help you have more fun. The Camera Center, in the village, will loan you (free) a famous picture-in-a-minute Polaroid Camera. All you do is buy the film. It isn't necessary to be wondrous enough film or flash equipment. For if you buy more than you need . . . you can always return what you have left over. Besides you can shop in air-conditioned comfort at the Camera Center.

Jacqueline Cochran, cosmetic expert, and Trall's Pharmacy, on the hill, highly recommend Sun 'n' Sand Foam. It is a light delicate quick vanishing foam that leaves an invisible non-greasy film of a new and effective sun screening agent. Sun 'n' Sand Foam not only screens out the rays of the sun but permits healthy rays of solar radiation to pass through the skin to insure an even tanning to normal skin. Trall's Pharmacy features this item for one dollar and fifty cents. They also have many deliveries daily.

Just as cool and refreshing as an afternoon at your favorite resort is a visit to Marie Bird's Salon, atop the hill. It's a wise woman who uses her head to become a beautiful one . . . naturally Marie Bird's House of Fashion is first choice of Grosse Pointe's glamorous gals who want the ultimate in hair styling and the maximum of comfort. There is a canopied entrance from the parking lot at the rear of the building, as well as a conventional front door at 117 Kercheval. Is it air-conditioned? . . . of course! Call TU. 1-6833 for an appointment.

A mermaid's tail can be mighty saucy . . . an so can some bathing suits. If you must go down to the sea again . . . or if you live in a bathing suit most of the day . . . you'll need at least two. And you can afford two at this price . . . eight dollars and ninety-five cents. These vivid prints, in cotton, that light up your coloring, usually sell for much more. There are a few solids in the group. Cole of California was the originator of Matlelex the latest shirring. This shirring gives an adjustable fit . . . shows your curves. Jacobson's Sportswear.

There is a certain charm in a suburb in summertime. Maybe it's the shadowed interior of shops . . . your bared shoulders . . . your bermuda shorts . . . or the blessing of air-conditioning in the riarer shops. You see, never, except in summer do suburbanites have such a variety in clothes. And while we are on the subject of variety in clothes . . . never will you find more variety and such mark-downs as we found this week at Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill. One minute you'll look sophisticated and worldly and the next minute you'll look athletic. For you see everything is on sale in this store-wide clearance. Even a few Cashmere's are left . . . for you to buy . . . and enjoy.

The essence of summer is 'fragrant splashes of cologne . . . clouds of bath powder. But outrageously pretty undies are good in summer, too. This summer, for traveling, we recommend you promise yourself a nylon tricot dress length robe and pajama set. The reasons for our recommendation are three-fold. One, they travel well . . . are easy to pack. Two, after laundering . . . they dry in twenty-minutes. Three, we like the simple classic tailoring. They come in navy and Dior (lighter) blue. The robe is around fifteen dollars . . . the p.j.'s around eleven. Jacobson's, lingerie department.

If you want a tan . . . you want an even one, don't you? Those of you who still wear large sunglasses know that when you peek behind them or take them off you have startling white circles under and around your eyes. So you shouldn't be shy about trying new harriguein (pared down) ones this season. Narrower ones . . . At Bayne Optical Co. on the hill, these new frames can be fitted to your own prescription lens. Just as they do so well for your regular prescription glasses. Repairs of broken lens are made immediately . . . as are minor adjustments at Bayne Optical Co., 407 Fisher Road.

For long, tall, cool drinks on your outings you'll be interested to know that Fromm's, in the village, can play a big part. They have all sizes and shapes of ice chests and pleasure chests . . . the kind with spouts . . . stay cold for the whole week-end. Scotch Coolers and thermos jugs, too.

It's smooth sailing above scorching sidewalks . . . at the seaside . . . in the mountains. For it's a smooth sale they're having at Clyde Hornung's, on the hill. It is twenty per cent off on spring and summer merchandise and also discontinued lines. And listen, they're the kind of shoes you'll wear with shorts . . . crisp cotton sun-backs . . . town prints. 114 Kercheval, on the hill. P.S. It's the walking ease . . . the perfect support and the easy going flexibility of these shoes that will strike your fancy.

What, oh what, could be more wonderful for your sea nymphs as they come out of the cool depths of Lake St. Clair, or your beachcombers, when they come to eat, than a smorgasbord? You use a selection for the ardent swimmers . . . and at least one substantial . . . The one we liked the best was copper. The metal parts were protected by clear baked enamel. The casserole and small dishes were made of guaranteed oven proof ceramic . . . designed for easy handling. The rubber cushions prevent marking the table top. This was around twenty dollars. They have striking ones made of Italian pottery . . . tyrolian designs . . . set in black wrought iron that were just as attractive. Also wonderful ones in stark black and white for around eleven dollars. Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village.
