Another Crop Will Try Luck This Weekend

Grosse Pointe's fourth annual Fishing Rodeo will be held this Saturday, August 28. The competition will be held on the Farms pier instead of on the seawall. Local youngsters have been champing at the bit for weeks, warming up in the pre-contest rodeo which has been taking place. This picture was taken at the opening of the rodeo two years ago. Some of the younger generation pictured here will be on hand again, but there will be a lot of new faces in the lineup Saturday.

THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT revealed that four divisions from Korea will be shifted, to better serve the interests of the United States. The announcement stated that the move will take place within the next several months and that the units to be shifted will be identified later.

Informed Washington sources said two Army divisions and one regimental combat team will be returned to the United States along with another combat team stationed in Japan. The reports that the units will be moved out has caused deep concern in Korea and the Republic's National Assembly voted unanimously to oppose it.

FRANCE AND GERMANY clashed over changes proposed for the European Army pact to guard the peace of Europe. French Premier Pierre Mendès-France was reported to have informed the six-nation foreign ministers parley, which was held in Brussels, that the present plans to pool their forces in a one-uniform European Defense Community was as good as dead in his country.

He presented his own plan for far reaching amendments and stated that if they are not accepted it might propel into office a French Government sympathetic with Russia.

Saturday, August 21
WILLIAM MCKEIGHAN, aging former political boss of the Michigan Republican Party, who has been living in Florida since his 1949 indictment by a Macomb County Grand Jury, returned to his home town, Flint. He stated that he had been ill and that now he is ready to stand trial. He has a severe heart condition. He denied that he was in hiding since he was spotted getting off an airplane at Willow Run. He said that he flew back home under his true name and registered in a hotel under his own name. He said he is still under a $25,000 bond and is ready to face charges anytime.

Sunday, August 22
FAILURE TO REACH an agreement on French-proposed amendments to the European Defense Community pact brought about the collapse of the plan. The breakdown of the conference represented one of the worst diplomatic disasters since the end of World War II, and may lead to ruin of the EDC plan. Failure of the EDC treaty has been a major objective of Soviet Russia. French Ambassador Jean Reviere stated the French Premier Mendès-France could not accept counter-proposals submitted by five other signers of the treaty.

THE ADENAUER REGIME of West Germany faces a new crisis with the defection of Karl Franz Schmidt-Wittmann to the Soviet Zone of East Germany. Wittmann, a member of Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's own Christian Democratic Party, was given "political asylum" in the Soviet Zone. Like Otto John, former West German security chief, who deserted to the Reds a month earlier, Wittmann knew most of the Bonn Government's most important secrets. A high West German official said that this means further setbacks for the policies of Chancellor Adenauer and the West.

AN AIRLINER, carrying 21 persons, plucked into the North Sea just off the coast of Holland. The plane, a Royal Dutch KLM, out of New York, was lost minutes away from Amsterdam. A KLM spokesman said it is feared that there are no survivors.

FORCED TO RESIGN as president, Brazil's old iron man, Getulio Vargas shot himself through the heart, dying immediately. He killed himself in the presidential palace after he was made to resign as 58 generals, 26 of the Air Force and 32 of the Army applied pressure in seeking his removal. In shooting himself, Vargas fulfilled his promise in which he swore that he would leave office only under arrest or dead.

Total of 23 Polio Cases In District

Six New Ones Bring Total To 14 More Than At Same
Time Last Year

The Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods area has had an increase in the number of polio cases reported to date. There were six new cases reported last week, boosting the total for the season to 23. This is 14 more than last year at the same time.

This increase for the area is not in line with statewide figures, which show a decrease in comparison to previous years.

Seven in Harper Woods
Harper Woods, last year's critical area, has remained rather dormant with only one new case reported in the last month. To date they have seven cases.

The Park has had four cases. The Farms leads with eight; the Woods and City both have two and there have been no cases reported in the Shores. This totals 16 cases in the Pointe area alone, seven more than for the entire area last year at this time.

Not Infantile Any More
Of the cases reported, 13 are 10 years of age or younger and the remaining 10 range from 11 to 42. "If you stop to think about it, you can hardly call it 'infantile paralysis,'" Dr. Davies of the Health Department said.

Three of the stricken are prospective mothers. To date there have been no fatalities reported, although half of the victims have paralytic involvement and a quarter of the cases have been accompanied by serious paralysis.

Beer Drinking Spree Costly For Group Caught in Shores

Recorders Judge Joseph Gillis cracked down on four Detroit youths caught by the Shores police drinking beer on a Lake Shore estate on August 14.

Sentenced to 40 days in the Detroit House of Correction and a year's probation for reckless and drunk driving and contributing to the delinquency of minors was 25-year-old Jerry McKenzie of 2575 Harding, Detroit.

Murry Throckmorton, 19, of 1601 Harding, Detroit, on parole for a breaking and entering charge, was given a suspended sentence and turned over to his parole officer. Throckmorton was on parole after serving two years of a five-year sentence.

Record Enrollment Expected When Public Schools Open On Thursday, September 9

Officials Estimate Between 8,400 and 8,500 Pupils Will Attend This Year; New Ferry School
Will Provide Some Relief

According to an announcement from Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools, all public schools in Grosse Pointe will open the new school year for pupils on Thursday morning, September 9. This will be a regular school day and pupils will attend school a full session.

Parents of children who were not enrolled in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools last year are urged to enroll such children between the hours of 1 and 3:30 during the week of August 30 to September 3. All school offices will be open during these hours for this purpose. At this time, assignment will be made of the half-day which children will attend Kindergarten.

School officials pointed out that it is especially desirable for all pupils enrolling for the first time at the junior and senior high school levels to take advantage of this early enrollment period. For pupils at these levels, enrollment will be greatly facilitated if official transcripts of credit covering work completed in other schools are sent to the proper school office prior to the time of enrollment.

Transcripts of credit are not necessary for new elementary pupils, but parents of elementary children should bring with them written evidence, such as a report card, of the child's proper grade placement. Lack of such evidence will seriously interfere with efficient and prompt enrollment of new pupils. Parents of new enrollees at all levels are urged to bring with them birth certificates as an essential record in the enrollment of their children.

Need Physical Exams
The local school and health officials also urge parents to have their children given a careful physical examination prior to enrollment.

Mobile Casanova Pays $107 Fine

Richard Leydet was fined $107.50 and spent two days in the Shores jail for trying to pick up a woman as he cruised along Lake Shore drive.

The woman, Mrs. Muriel Munro of 20530 Beaufait, Harper Woods, signed the complaint against Leydet, who lives at 2188 Dickerson, Detroit, after he had followed her in his car for nearly ten blocks.

Mrs. Munro, who was also driving at the time, reported that every-so-often Leydet would pull up next to her and use obscene language while talking to her. When she would pull away, Leydet would drop behind. The mobile Casanova was apprehended when a Shores patrolman noticed the two cars traveling very slowly and in a strange manner down Lake Shore. Leydet had been drinking at the time of the arrest. He was tried for disorderly person and given the choice of the fine or 90 days in jail.

School Bonds Attract Low Interest Rate

Successful Bidders For
$1,225,000 Issue Submit
Per Cent

At a special meeting of the Board of Education held August 18, bids were received for school bonds in the amount of $1,225,000. These bonds were authorized in last June's school election for the purpose of building and equipping an addition to the Poupard School, an addition to the Kerby School, and for the construction and equipping of a new elementary school on the site owned by the Board of Education in Torrey Woods.

The bonds were sold to Drexel and Company and Associates who were the lowest of six syndicates bidding on these bonds. This company was represented by Shannon and Company of Detroit. Their bid was for an average rate of interest of 1.18674 per cent.

One of Lowest in History
Board officials stated that this was one of the lowest interest rates for 20 year school bonds in the history of Michigan school finance.

Work has been progressing rapidly on the plans and specifications for these proposed new buildings and bids were opened last night for the construction of the additions to Kerby and Poupard Schools. Information will be carried concerning these bids in next week's issue.

School officials stated that they plan to ward contracts for the new Torrey Woods School within the next month or six weeks. It is hoped that all of these projects will be completed and ready for use a year from this September.

Crash Blamed On Indecision

Indecision resulted in a two-car collision Sunday, August 22, at the intersection of Binville and Kingsville roads.

Lilly Ospendale of 1604 Dorthen road was traveling east on Kingsville when she collided with Mary Hathaway of 10766 Marne road traveling south on Linville. Both parties hesitated before entering the intersection and then both proceeded, thinking the other was going to stop. No tickets were issued when both assumed responsibility and promised to settle for the damage.

Season's Heaviest Rainstorm Causes Flooded Basements

Farms Municipal Offices Deluged With Complaints As 2.18 Inches Of Water Fall Within
40 Minute Period

Throughout the summer months, Farms officials stressed the importance of conserving the water supply, but for a brief period during the early hours of Thursday morning, August 19, the community had so much water it could not get rid of it.

Many residents throughout the Detroit Metropolitan Area were awakened by the flashes of lightning and crashes of thunder and the downpour of rain.

Waken To Find Floods
A goodly number of Farms residents wakened at their regular time Thursday morning to find that their basements had been flooded and proceeded to make their complaints known, via phone, to the Municipal Hall. Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith disclosed that his office was swamped with phone calls, and that he alone answered at least 34 of them.

Data revealed by Mr. Smith brought out that the rain lasted about 40 minutes and during that time, the Chalfonte pumping station registered a fall of 2.18 inches of water. However, the peak of the storm came about 4:45 a.m., when for a full five minutes a concentrated downpour, officially estimated at one-half inch of rainfall, fell on the Farms.

Sewers Blocked by Deluge
Mr. Smith said that the rainfall measured three-quarters of an inch from the time the peak started to the time it let up, lasting about seven minutes. Consequently the sewers could not handle the deluge of water and the backlog flooded local basements.

The City Engineer stated that the storm was the most intensive in years and that the Chalfonte station gauges registered the greatest rainfall, during the concentrated period, in the 25-year history of the city's sewer plant. He said that such a storm only occurs about every 10 years.

Many Farms residents who have not had a flooded basement in years had one last Thursday.

Farms Hardest Hit
The brunt of the storm was concentrated in the Farms, and that community's residents were hardest hit as to flooded basements.

The Woods, which has been plagued by flooded basements for many years, oddly enough reported only one complaint. The Park revealed that only three re-

Double Trouble For Bad Driver

Joseph C. Sullivan, 20, of 30805 East Jefferson, St. Clair Shores, was released on $100 bond on Saturday, August 21, pending a court date. He was charged with reckless driving and illegal possession of alcohol.

A Park police report revealed that Sullivan was arrested by police at East Jefferson and St. Clair, where they stopped him. The report disclosed that a girl friend and two hitch hikers were passengers at the time, but they are not implicated.

Sullivan admitted purchasing the liquor from a drugstore in St. Clair Shores. The store may be cited before the Liquor Control Commission.

Goldom's Eyes on Pointe During National Amateur

As the National Amateur Golf Tournament moves into its fourth day, the Country Club and Grosse Pointe Farms have become bywords to golf enthusiasts throughout the country.

Site of the United States Golf Association's 54th Amateur Championship, the Country Club of Detroit has bustling with golf dignitaries including such names as Bryon Nelson, Frank Strenahan, Billy Jo Patton and others. Giving over its plush club house and huge 6,875 yard course to contestants, officials, the press and the public, the Country Club hosts the 'king' of amateur play for the second time in the 64 years of the tournament's existence. It was first host way back

Parking Lot Assessment Suit Started

Want City to Clarify Plans
Before They Pay for Improving Present Area

The Grosse Pointe Farms businessmen in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill District in furtherance of their plan to find a solution to the over-all off-street parking problem, last week served on the Council of the Farms a notice of intention to commence actions in the Circuit Court for Wayne County to enjoin collections and to void the special assessment which has been imposed on them.

The attorneys for the property owners informed the Council in an accompanying letter that the legal notice was to place them in compliance with the City Charter and Ordinance No. 87, but that their clients were first and foremost interested in working out a solution to the over-all off-street parking problem and requested the Council to immediately reconsider its actions.

Want Position Clarified
They also requested the Council to state its position on whether the off-street parking lot, if financed by special assessments, was to be offered to the residents of the community on a free parking-basis or whether the Council intended to carry out its original plans to meter the lot.

The fact that the City would receive substantial revenues from the parking lot meters has consistently been one of the main objections of the property owners, as they see no reason why they should purchase an income-producing property for the City.

Adds No Space
Their position is that if they pay for the improvement, the City must allow its customers to park thereon without charge. They are also concerned that this special assessment may be but the first of a series because the Council's program does not add a single parking space and furnishes no real assurance of any additional spaces for the future.

The property owners have pointed out to the Council that the traffic engineer's report submitted to the City at the City's request shows that there is currently a shortage of 100 spaces and that as soon as additional buildings are constructed on the now vacant land on Kercheval Avenue there will be a shortage of around 600 spaces.

Need School Land
The property owners, through their attorneys, have pointed out to the Council that the only available vacant land is the Board of Education's property lying directly behind and adjacent to the present municipal off-street parking lot.

A spokesman for the twenty-two property owners on Kercheval Avenue stated that they had given written authorization to their committee and their attorneys to institute what litigation was necessary to forestall the collection of the present special assessment until the over-all off-street parking problem is solved and the Council has stated its position on free parking.

This spokesman further said that his group or their attorneys were willing to meet with a committee of the Council or to appear before the Council to develop a practical and long term parking program satisfactory to all.

Two Cars Tangle On Charlevoix

A two car collision occurred at Charlevoix and McMillan roads August 19 when a car driven by Tom Waterfall of 430 Lincoln road pulled out to turn onto Charlevoix and was hit by an oncoming vehicle.

Waterfall, who had stopped for the stop street, was turning to go east on Charlevoix when the collision occurred. He was struck by a car driven by Harvey Hagley of 2045 Lochmoor boulevard. Waterfall, who was held equally at fault, said that he failed to see Hagley's car. Charlevoix takes a sharp turn to the left just before the intersection. There were forty-foot skid marks left by Hagley's car.

An estimated $75 damage was done to Hagley's car and $50 to Waterfall's. (Continued on Page 12)

Farms and City mayors and all members of both councils attended.

At this meeting the City Council made known that it believes its citizens would be willing to aid the Farms in a substantial investment in the Farms' water system expansion so that there will be an adequate water supply for both communities.

It was at this meeting also that it was decided that each community should appoint its own committee for a joint study of the problem, the appointments to be made at the next meetings, which would have been on August 16.

the opening of school. This is particularly desirable for all new pupils or for pupils who have had any serious illness during the summer. All schools as well as the Board of Education Offices will be glad to supply parents with a form on which the findings of such physical examinations may be recorded. These should be brought to school at the time of initial enrollment.

Due to rapid growth in the northern end of the district, Superintendent Bushong stated that certain temporary housing measures have had to be taken for this school year. He stated that Monteith, Foupard and Mason will contain grades Kindergarten through Five only, the Sixth grades from all of these buildings going to the new Ferry School.

New School Will Help
The Vernier School will house grades Kindergarten through Four only this year and will care for the area adjacent to this building. Grades Five and Six from the Vernier district will attend the new Ferry School. The Ferry School will contain all grades Kindergarten through Six, housing the pupils in Kindergarten through Fifth grade from the area immediately surrounding the building and as stated above the Sixth grades from the entire northern end of the school district.

At the time of going to press Dr. Bushong stated that definite plans for the opening of the new Ferry School have not yet been made. "It is our hope," he said, "that by placing certain children on half-day sessions for a short period of time we will be able to adequately care for all of the children who will attend this building. Parents of children who will attend this building are urged to watch this paper carefully for future announcements."

Junior High Enrollments
No new junior high school students below grade 9A will be enrolled in the High School building this year. Those who are now in the Ninth grade will continue there and in addition the 9A pupils from the Pierce Junior High School district will also be enrolled at the High School building.

Under policies of the Board of Education, Dr. Bushong stated that in order for children to be eligible to enroll in Kindergarten they must be five years of age on or before December 1 of the current school year, except that children who will be five years of age between December 2 and January 31 of the current school year, may at the request of their parents be given certain tests by the Department of Pupil Personnel of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools to determine the readiness of such children to enter Kindergarten.

Parents Notified
Parents of all children of these ages who were listed on the May, 1954, census have been informed of this policy by letter. Parents of children of these ages who did not receive such notification may make an appointment for testing by calling the Board of Education, TU. 5-2000, Extension 33.

School officials estimate that this year will see an all time record enrollment of 8,400 to 8,500 pupils. This will be an increase of 600 to 700 pupils over last year.

WORKER INJURED FOOT
FRANK CONE of 20455 Yacoma, Detroit, while working in a Kercheval store in the City on Saturday, August 21, dropped a heavy roll of carpet on his foot. City police took him to Bon Secours Hospital where he was treated and released.

To Entertain Soldiers

MRS. GEORGE T. HALL, director of "Overtones," adjusts the costume of MARIE LITWARTIS who plays the part of "Harriet" in the one-act play to be given by the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre at the 99th Battalion Headquarters for the boys stationed at the various east side anti-aircraft sites, tonight, Thursday, August 26.

Marie Curtis Takes Tour Of European Music Festival

By Marie Joy Curtiss
(After attending several European Music Festival performances, Marie Joy Curtiss, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Charles H. Curtiss, has just returned to their home in Whittier boulevard. Miss Curtis picked up an Austin A40 car in London, flew the car across the channel by air ferry and drove through six countries with music as her primary objective.)

Salzburg, Austria, was in top form to receive its thousands of guests for the opening of its Annual Music Festival which began Sunday afternoon, July 25, with the intensely dramatic production of the old religious mystery play "Everyman" given in the Cathedral Square.

For an hour and three-quarters the audience watched without interruption the progress of "Everyman" from the worship of material riches to the climax of love for his fellow man. Sunday night Hans Knappertsbusch directed the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra in Bruckner's "Eighth Symphony" in the Festspielhaus. Monday night the Vienna Philharmonic and the Vienna State Opera gave Von Weber's "Der Freischutz" with Wilhelm Furtwangler conducting. The music was superb but the staging lacked the inspiration to be found earlier in the season at the Covent Garden Royal Opera in London.

Mozart's music was given a thrilling performance at the first morning concert at the Mozarteum with a 34-piece orchestra in delightful surroundings under the direction of Bernhard Paumgartner.

Salzburg attracts the great musical personalities from all over the world. Many a European who cannot afford a single festival ticket will go and line the streets to catch a glimpse of the great ones. Probably some of the most highly artistic and inspiring performances of the whole season are to be found in Bayreuth, Germany, at the Wagner Festival where Wieland and Wolfgang, grandsons of Richard Wagner, are carrying on the traditions established there 75 years ago by the composer himself.

The Wagner Theater (Festspielhaus) is built on a hill overlooking the town and is approached by an avenue of trees surrounded by gardens. On either side are outdoor and inside restaurants of considerable size where the audience may be served refreshments during the long intermissions.

All European theaters and concert halls have some sort of provision of this sort, but at no place is it carried out with more comfort and convenience to the guests than at Bayreuth. The seats in the auditorium rise directly from the stage to the rear with no center aisles. Both vision and hearing are perfect. With the orchestra under the stage the balance between instrumentalist and singer is always correct. "Parsifal," the only religious opera Wagner ever completed, begins at 4 p.m. and lasts until around 10:30 p.m. with two intermissions. The present Bayreuth staging employs a minimum of properties and scenery and depends upon most unusual lighting effects with a very high proscenium opening to suggest the various scenes. All meaningless movements of singers are omitted. The effect ports were received, the City made known one and the Shores, none. These were all attributed to home-clogged sewers.

However, the Shores pointed out that although there were no flooded basements within the Village limits, the heavy rain poured down on the Sheldon subdivision, causing a slough of muddy water to rampage over Lake Shore road and into Lake St. Clair.

Turned Down Proposal

The Thursday downpour came seven years after the Farms residents turned down a $400,000 bond issue for sewer enlargement and for the erection of another pumping station such as the one on Chalfonte.

In the spring, election of 1947, the community's citizens were asked to approve the issue, but they turned thumbs down on the project.

The City Engineer's office estimated a few months previous to that that the following sums would be needed to improve the City's sewer system and to build the pumping station: $144,000 for a station on Kerby road; $20,000 to handle alterations needed at the Lake Shore road overflow; $131,000 for sewer relief for the Vendome road area; and $105,000 for relief purposes of the Fisher road area.

After the bond issue was turned down twice the Farms expanded the Chalfonte pumping station capacity at a cost of $140,000 paid over a period of three years. This sum was paid from the Public Improvement Reserve Fund.

Condemnation Proceedings Results Awaited By Shores

The NEWS, July 29 edition, published a copy of a letter by D. H. Parker addressed to the Grosse Pointe Shores Board of Trustees. In the letter, Parker asked for a public hearing concerning the proposed park and civic center area now under consideration by the Shores.

Parker, whose home is now under condemnation proceedings, wanted among other things an account of where the additional money above the $100,000 donated by Mrs. Edsel Ford, was going to come from for the improvements. The Board of Trustees in a recent meeting, turned down Parker's request for a public hearing on the grounds that the taxpayers' approval for the improvement expenditure had already been received.

In an open statement, the Shores Board of Trustees spokesman for the Parker affair, Douglas Adair, cited a public hearing sometime in the past at which time the approval for the project had been sought and gotten. Both Adair and Board President Jack Williams thought the hearing was sometime in 1950, but were unsure of the exact date.

Adair went on to cite the expected gain in population as the reason for the needed expansion and asked the council to disregard the whim of a single individual concerning the matter. Adair's plea was backed up by an irate citizen who stated in a letter to the Trustees that he hoped they would "not bow to the pressure of one individual motivated by personal gain or loss."

As the matter stands now, the condemnation proceedings concerning the parcel of six lots needed for the proposed park are half way completed. Parker, whose property was originally assessed at $32,000 was given a $10,000 boost by the court, giving him a total assessed value of $42,000 and leaving $58,000 for the acquiring of the other five lots.

So far as the Trustees are concerned, no further action can be taken until the condemnation proceedings are completed. "If we are not awarded the land, the village will not be able to spend a cent of the money Parker is concerned about," Trustee President Jack Williams stated.

Williams went on to state that, "So far as the specific letter to the council asking for an itemized account of proposed expenditures is concerned, we could not possibly even estimate that in view of the fact that we have not been awarded the land, nor have the plans been approved for the project as yet."

Burglar Finds Slim Pickings

A burglar who broke into a Park home on Monday, August 23, in the absence of the owners, had meager pickings for his trouble.

According to a Park police report, a burglar easily entered the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Loeffler, 1300 Maryland, and removed several items from the basement recreation room, which had a total value of $25.

Taken were a portable radio, a hunting knife with a cracked handle and an initialed scabbard, and a flashlight.

Police officers who went to the scene, found that the method of entry was gained by inserting a knife between the door jam and the door and pushing back the door lock. A demonstration by one of the officers bore out this fact.

They found no forced windows or marks on the basement door.

Republican Club To Hold Picnic

It's annual picnic time for the 14th District Young Republicans.

Marking the third season for its annual summer get-together, the 14th District Y.R. Club will hold its picnic on Tuesday, August 31, at the Detroit Yacht Club. Festivities will start at 6 p.m. with a picnic supper, followed by dancing under the stars.

As an added feature this year, members of the club will have an opportunity to meet many of the November election candidates who have been invited to attend the party.

Regardless of weather conditions, the picnic will be held as scheduled. Provisions will be made for shelter if it should rain. Tickets at $1.25 per person may be purchased at the entrance to the picnic grounds.

REPORTS LOST WALLET

John M. Thompson of 846 University road, informed city police on Wednesday, August 18, that he had lost his wallet containing $17 and personal papers.

Pedal 140 Miles To Visit Friends

Four 14-year-old Grosse Pointe High School students pedaled 140 miles in two days in their determination to reach Port Austin to visit with friends and fellow classmates.

The four cyclists, who received permission from their parents for the venture, are Tony Herrmann, Dick Adams, Al Keir and Jim Thomas.

According to Tony's mother, Mrs. John Herrmann of 280 Kenwood court, who imparted the information, the lads left home early Tuesday morning, August 17, camped overnight in a state park in Lexington and arrived at their destination the following evening, Wednesday.

They were the guests of Julie Chadwick, who with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Chadwick of 679 Rivard boulevard, are vacationing at their country home in Port Austin. With Julie is Susan Brown, whose parents live in Lewiston road.

After a few days of swimming, the boys returned home on Monday, August 23, the same way they had gone for the visit—pushing the pedals.

METER READER BITTEN

Kenneth Brown of 12658 Barlow, Detroit, was bitten on the leg Tuesday, August 17, by a dog as he was making his rounds reading gas meters. The dog, owned by the W. W. Bryans of 251 Hamilton court, is now undergoing a ten day observation period.

So long as the sale of alarm clocks is on the increase there is no reason for being alarmed.

Attend School Health Workshop

Two members of the Grosse Pointe school system recently completed a Workshop in School Health sponsored by the Tuberculosis and Health Society at Wayne University.

They are Frank J. Weycenback, principal of the Trombly School, and Olive Stringer, third and fourth grade teacher at the Richard School.

The Workshop is the second annual session made possible through gifts of the Women's Committee of the TB and Health Society. It is a six-week course with graduate and undergraduate credit. It is designed to help school teachers and nurses recognize health problems in children and to show the best ways in which good health habits can be taught to students.

The course is a part of the educational program of the TB and Health Society to promote better health among citizens and to avoid tuberculosis and other diseases. Health education authorities from the Society's staff as well as nationally known health education experts taught the classes.

In this life it is not so much what we take up that brings success, but what we give up. There's no way to tell how big a man is until you know where his influence is going to stop.

Mrs. Richard Bruce Gensler

At vows spoken in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, the former Nancy Paula Newton and Mr. Gensler were married August 14. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Newton, of Beaconsfield avenue, and Mr. Gensler is the son of Jerome K. Gensler of Kalamazoo. The couple left for Santa Rosa, Calif.

March on Polio Set for Tuesday

Climaxing event of the Emergency March of Dimes in Wayne County will be the dramatic Emergency Mothers' March on Polio, scheduled for Tuesday, August 31, from 7 to 8 p.m.

The Detroit Police Department has alerted patrolmen for protection of the Emergency Volunteers as they go about their errand of mercy. Commissioner Edward S. Piggins has also arranged for safe keeping of the money given to the volunteers by their neighbors. Scout car crews will pick up the money at designated points and take it to Precinct Stations.

"The need for funds is desperate," Charles L. Gehringer, Wayne County's Emergency March of Dimes director said. "Daily, we see polio strike around us. Wayne County has had 340 cases of polio, reported by all of the Boards of Health, so far this summer and the polio season has not yet run its course."

"Right here in our community there are patients whose future lives depend on your March of Dimes for help. There are hundreds of chapters across the country whose funds are exhausted as are those of Wayne County. No more money is available from National Headquarters."

"The National March of Dimes funds have been drained by the staggering costs of patient aid and a two-point polio prevention program, Gehringer said. "Every parent awaits the report on the evaluation of the trial polio vaccine with great hope," he declared. "Every parent wants to be sure as much gamma globulin as possible is available to hard-hit area this summer. There is no telling where this temporary preventive will be needed next to stop the threat of an epidemic."

"These are the reasons why I predict that Tuesday night's Emergency Mothers' March will be a big event in our country. It represents an American ideal in action—helping your neighbor in need."

The organizational plan for the Mothers' March is the same as that used each year in January.

Moore Promoted At Radio Station

F. Sibley Moore, WJR vice-president and director, will assume additional duties as operations manager of the Goodwill Radio Station effective September 1, according to an announcement today by John F. Pat, president of WJR, Detroit, and WJRT, Flint.

In his new capacity, Moore will actively head all WJR broadcasting activities. Moore as operations manager of WJR, Detroit, and E. Donovan Faust, newly appointed operations manager of WJRT, Flint, will both report to Worth Kramer, vice-president and general manager of the two stations.

Moore was elected to the WJR board of directors in June, 1951, and was named vice-president of WJR in November of 1952. He acquired a rich and varied background in the broadcasting field through previous experience in the programming and sales departments of station WGAR, Cleveland, the WJR sales department, and also as assistant treasurer and vice-president of the Goodwill Station.

Moore is 35 years old, married with one son, George Richards Moore, age 3. The Moores reside at 102 Merriweather road, Grosse Pointe Farms.

He attended Yale University and served as a naval aviation officer during World War II.

This is the time of year when people try to keep out of the sunshine they wished they could afford last winter.

Mrs. William V. Jackson

In a candlelight service on Saturday, August 21, JANET RAE RATCLIFFE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon D. Ratcliffe of Oxford road, became the bride of William V. Jackson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jackson of Bedford road.

The Rev. Andrew Bauth officiated at the services which were held at the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

For her wedding Janet chose a blush pink marquisette gown which was styled on princess lines with tiny satin trim. A matching two-tiered silk illusion veil fell from a band of chantilly lace. Janet carried a colonial arrangement of stephanotis centered with a white orchid.

Barbara Ann Turrel, Janet's maid of honor, wore a deeper shade of pink with white accents and carried a bouquet of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Janet's sister, Carol Ann, was her Junior bridesmaid, and her dress was organly trimmed in watermelon pink. She carried a small colonial bouquet.

As his best man, William chose Paul Rodger Williams, and his brother, Robert, arrived home from the service to seat the guests.

A dinner reception was held at the Whittier.

Janet charged to a navy silk dress with matching fitted coat and white accessories for her honeymoon to Mackinac Island and Northern Michigan.

Mrs. Perkin Europe-Bound

Mrs. Frank S. Perkin, of Yorkshire road, sailed Wednesday on the Queen Mary for a two-months trip to Europe. She will first visit England and then travel on the Continent.

A small bon voyage luncheon party to fete Mrs. Perkin was given at the Detroit Athletic Club by Mrs. Howard H. Colby, of Romeo, a few days before the traveler's departure.

CAR WINDOW SMASHED
Mrs. E. A. Upleger of 194 Provençal road complained to Park police on Friday, August 20, that while her car was parked at Balfour and Kercheval, someone threw a rock and broke the car window.

James Davison to Wed Girl from Milwaukee

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Potter, Sr. of Milwaukee, Wis. have announced the engagement of their daughter, Patricia Elizabeth, to James Ray Davison.

Mr. Davison is the son of the C. Ray Davisons of 909 Hawthorne road.

A graduate of Grosse Pointe High School in June of 1951, Mr.

Davison is now a senior at Ohio State University where he is affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. His fiancée, also a senior at Ohio State, is affiliated with Delta Delta Delta sorority.

After graduation, Mr. Davison plans to attend the University of Michigan Law School. No wedding date has been set.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerborn

Now that we've had a chance to look around . . . all the Pointes are just as beautiful as ever . . . You wouldn't dream anyone was still out of town on Summer holidays if you walk into Al Green's . . . tables at a premium even with the new Walnut Room . . . Bumped into the Phil Woods there . . . they are up from their place at Miami Beach with plans to remain until at least the first snow . . . They are occupying apartments at the Prince Edward during their visit . . . Mrs. Wood was carrying a bottle of new vitamins for daughter, Garlin, who's been on the sick list . . . the vitamins were so expensive they might have been matched pearls . . . and they were being carried very carefully! . . . Also caught a glimpse of Mrs. Henry Hopkes, Jr., at Green's . . . She was a knock-out in a well ventilated all white outfit . . . most becoming with her Summer tan . . .

Capital Visitor

The other afternoon we met Mrs. Julius F. E. Huebner on the Hill . . . She's just back from Washington, D. C., where she spent several days with her daughter, Adele, who has a position on the staff of Vice President Richard M. Nixon . . . Adele is already settled down to her job, loving it and probably blessing that day last year when, as a college girl, she wrote the vice president a letter that impressed him to the point of immediately offering her a post on his staff . . . High points of the capital visit for Mrs. Huebner were a personal interview with the vice president . . . a private tour through the White House . . . and attending sessions of the senate (sitting in the vice president's box) during the recent important debate on the bill to outlaw the communist party in the United States . . .

Judy's the Gal!

Another sunny afternoon . . . Judy was definitely The Girl of the day at the Detroit Boat Club . . . The pretty sub deb, appearing at the edge of the swimming pool, got such joyous welcome we all turned to see WHO she could be . . . "Oh, we're so GLAD you're back Judy" was the chorus from all sides . . . Judy turned out to be Judy Allison, daughter of the Ellsworth W. Allisons of Sunningdale drive . . . who came in from the family Summer place at Wallon Lake to take a starring role with Boat Club mermaids last Saturday and Sunday. They competed in the Twenty-Fifth Annual Inter Club Swimming Finals held at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club . . . We expect to hear more of Miss Judy . . .

Tea Fetes Soprano

Judy's mother, Mrs. Ellsworth W. Allison, was member of the committee on arrangements for the tea given Tuesday by Tuesday Musicale (why, of course that's why they chose a Tuesday for their party!) at the Anthony Maiullo home in Chicago boulevard . . . The event feted Maria Leone, the only Detroit singer ever invited to join the Metropolitan Opera Company . . . and in the absence of Mrs. Maiullo, who is on the high seas, bound for Europe . . . her daughter, Mrs. James Merriam Barnes, received the guests. Assisting her were Italian Consul Anthony Carloni and Mrs. Carloni, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell, head of the arrangements committee and Mrs. Edward A. Baumann, Mrs. Albert E. O'Neal, Mrs.

Their Vows Spoken In Candlelight Setting

Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Scape of Ceremony Uniting in Marriage Elizabeth Ann Huette and Robert Andrew Martin; to Live in Ann Arbor after Honeymoon

Candle-lit Grosse Pointe Congregational Church was the scene last Saturday for the marriage of Elizabeth Ann Huette and Robert Andrew Martin. The Reverend William Sperry officiated at the service.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Theodore Huette, of Yorkville road, chose a gown of filmy nylon tulle, designed with shirred bodice and sleeves. Its portrait neckline was banded in Alencon lace.

The full skirt swept into a lace accented chapel train and a Juliet cap of lace and pearls secured the bridal veil of imported illusion.

Elizabeth's only jewels were a string of pearls, the gift of her godmother, Mrs. William J. Wilson of New York and St. Clair. She carried a spray bouquet of stephanotis with white orchid in the center.

Mrs. Leslie I. Steinbach, soloist, and Mrs. Francis Albee, organist, performed the musical background for the wedding. They had acted in the same capacity at the wedding of the bride's parents.

A maid of honor, Marilyn Wyckoff was gowned in waltz length peacock blue taffeta. Her flowers were yellow and white daisy chrysanthemums.

In similar frocks were the bridesmaids: Mrs. C. Keith Manglos and Mrs. William Chase, sisters of the bridegroom; Mary Joanne Skidmore and Arlene Kazmer. Their flowers were yellow daisy mums.

The bridegroom, son of F. Herbert Martin, of Van Dyke avenue, and the late Mrs. Martin, asked William Denney to be his best man.

The ushers were John Cannon of Ann Arbor; Clark Weymouth of Chicago; Lee Huc, C. Keith Manglos and William Chase.

Mrs. Huette was gowned in mauve silk organza for her daughter's wedding. Her purse held her orchid corsage.

After a reception in the church social hall, the young couple left for a honeymoon in Northern Michigan.

For traveling, the bride changed to a black and white autumn cotton with black and jewel pink accessories. The Martins will make their home in Ann Arbor where Bob is enrolled in the University of Michigan law school.

James K. Kerr New Pointer

James K. Kerr arrived on Sunday, Aug. 8 for Mr. and Mrs. Willard Pope Kerr and was promptly nicknamed "Jamie" and pronounced a "darling" by dotting grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Kendrick B. Brown. Mrs. Kerr is the former Beverly Brown.

Other news in the Brown family concerns their other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Caskey who recently returned from a two weeks cruise to Georgian Bay aboard the family yacht, the Ken's Yen.

College Days Ahead For Robert Kerrys

Former Gloria Diane James and Bridegroom to Resume
Studies at The University of Michigan Following Wedding Trip; Bride Daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar James

When they return from their wedding trip to the Laurentian Mountains, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kerry, whose marriage was solemnized Saturday evening in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, will return to classes at the University of Michigan.

The bride was Gloria Diane James, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar James of Westchester road. She is studying for her degree in dentistry and Robert is studying medicine. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Milford E. Kerry of West Dartmouth, Flint.

The Rev. Paul Ketchum officiated at the candlelight service for which the bride wore white silk organza, touched with Duchess lace at the graceful neckline, and finished with a great skirt which swept into a cathedral train.

Gloria wore a full length veil of Venetian lace, over silk illusion, attached to a small matching coronet. The lovely lace was a sentimental purchase made in Venice last summer when she was traveling in Europe. She watched it being made at the lace factories and "couldn't resist it."

Her flowers were a cascade bouquet of stephanotis, white orchids and English ivy.

Alice Elaine James served as her sister's maid of honor. She took her place in the wedding procession in a becoming waltz length frock of iridescent taffeta of burnt maple tone, designed with bouffant skirt. She wore a small matching hat and carried rubrum lilies with ivy.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. James Temple, Mrs. William Waddell of East Lansing; Mrs. William K. Downey of Grosse Pointe; Mrs. Robert Barnes of Ann Arbor; and Robin Glover of Grosse Ile.

All wore full skirted frocks of seafoam iridescent taffeta with matching hats. They, too, carried rubrum lilies and ivy.

Jack Krause (who has a twin sister, Jill) came from Rock-

Mrs. Robert Kerry

Mr. and Mrs. Kerry will resume their college studies when they return from a Laurentian Mountains wedding trip. They were married Saturday evening in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. The former Gloria Diane James is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edgar James, of Westchester road, who entertained at a Grosse Pointe Yacht Club reception.

Mrs. John Douglas Shapter

Before her marriage last Saturday the bride was Nancy Ford Wetherbee, daughter of the William H. Wetherbees of Roslyn road. Mr. Shapter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shapter. The ceremony took place in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, following which the young couple left for New York City.

A Tale of Two Cities; Both Are Manhattan

After Manhattan Honeymoon the John Douglas Shapters
Travel to Manhattan, Kansas, to Make Future Home;
Bride was Nancy Ford Wetherbee of Roslyn Road

The marriage of Nancy Ford Wetherbee and John Douglas Shapter, last Saturday afternoon, put a modern touch to a Tale of Two Cities.

After the ceremony in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, they left for a honeymoon in Manhattan (New York) and their future home will be Manhattan (Kansas).

Nancy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry Wetherbee of Roslyn road, and her bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Shapter of Manor avenue, Detroit.

Dr. Berton Levering officiated at the 4 o'clock in the afternoon ceremony which was followed by a reception at the University Club given by the bride's parents.

The bride donned an opera length gown of white satin and nylon tulle for her wedding.

The bodice of the frock was fashioned of satin with V neckline and long tapering sleeves and the full skirt was formed by layers and layers of the frothy tulle.

A tiny lace bridal cap held the waist length veil of imported silk illusion and Nancy carried a bouquet of stephanotis and ivy.

A trio of attendants were gowned alike in waltz length rust toned taffeta frocks with Empire waistlines. Half hats of rust velvet completed their outfits and they had bouquets of carnal colored Fuji mums.

Mrs. Max Raymon McConnell of Ann Arbor, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids, both from Grosse Pointe, were Barbara James and Mrs. Talbot Barnard. Max R. McConnell, of Ann Arbor, performed the duties of best man and the guests were seated by Morley Pearce of Toronto, Ont., John Fleming and Ronald Uzelac.

Mrs. Wetherbee attended her daughter's wedding in an ivory brocade with peacock blue chapeau and matching accessories. She pinned rubrum lilies to her shoulder.

Mrs. Shapter, whose flowers also were rubrum lilies, was gowned in royal blue chantilly lace.

For traveling, the new Mrs. Shapter affected a blue tailleur with black accessories.

Out-of-town guests at the Wetherbee-Shapter wedding included Mr. and Mrs. William Powell, of Elgin, Ill., and their daughter, Shirley.

Visiting their children at camp has been the recreation of Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Haberkmors III who returned to their East Jefferson avenue home last week.

Center to Hold College Dance

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will initiate the exciting series of events that await the new freshmen and returning upper classmen by presenting the annual college dance.

This year the dance is called the "College Kick Off" and will be presented September 10, from 9 p.m. until 12 p.m. Admission is $1.50 per couple.

Shiny new luggage, orientation week, confusing registration rooms, intriguing class schedules, and unpredictable freshman mixers are reminiscent of the first crowded weeks of school.

But more typical are the colorful, spirited football games which have been chosen as the theme for this occasion. Goal posts, brilliantly colored jerseys, and pennants will be found among the decorations gaily contributing to the college atmosphere.

Earl Perkins and his orchestra will provide the music. Additional entertainment will be featured during intermission, at which time refreshments will also be served.

Lochmoor Club Goes Hawaiian

When a whole club goes to Hawaii that's news. Of course members of Lochmoor aren't going to budge one inch off the handsome grounds of their clubhouse next Saturday evening when the annual Hawaiian party will be held.

But everything else will be pure islands. Scorpion punch is to be served and a seven course dinner including Ahaaina, Kuma Shrimp and Avacado, Ma-Niu Chicken, Kalau Pig, Glazed Bananas, Usla Yams, Hearts of Palm Salad, Kula Pannua Pineapple and Kope. (How do you say Tuums in Hawaiian?)

William C. Beckenauer is the energetic chairman for the party assisted by members of the entertainment committee.

The club and grounds will be decorated with palm trees, flowers, ship scenes and Hawaiian posters.

New DAC Buffet Attracts Pointe

Many Pointers went into town this past Tuesday evening for the first of the new buffet supper series at the Detroit Athletic Club.

The buffet—really dinner, as it's served in the early evening hours—will be a regular Tuesday feature at the DAC except during the club's floor show weeks.

Some 300 members and their guests joined for the inaugural, and what with chat, visiting and dancing, the evening had all the aspects of a jolly party.

Among those from the Pointe were the William T. Krieghoffs, the Frank Crums, Dr. and Mrs. Earl G. Krieg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman C. Joos, the Thornton E. Waterfalls, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Eisman, the Arthur G. Kirchners, Dr. and Mrs. George J. Baer, the Edwin P. Horans, and the James H. Coopers.

Half of any man's worry comes from the fear that his neighbor may be too extravagant.

Back to School Dance at GPYC

A gala junior dance is on the agenda for Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's teen-age set and it's scheduled for Saturday evening, Sept. 4.

Planned as a before-going-back-to-school get-together, the affair will be a formal party for the 14 to 20 year age group, with dancing from 8 to 12 o'clock. Dinner will be served in GPYC's Fo'castle for those lads and lasses who want to dine at the club beforehand.

Ann Reeves is dance chairman. With an eye on weather forecasts, Ann and her committee members are slating the dance for the club's outdoor floor, with tables and chairs on the lawn for visiting between dances. However, if the weather is inclement, the fete will take place in the main lounge.

Ann's committee aids are Mary Ogden, Nancy Stuart, Betty Zimmerman and Connie Degnan. Myriad clusters of balloons and streamers in silver and blue tones will be used in decoration.

The seniors who will assist in seeing that everything goes smoothly include Mr. and Mrs. Rex Brophy, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Schoenherr, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. John F. DeHayes, Mr. and Mrs. Howard A. Shaw and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Monahan.

FISHER ROAD

Along the Road

By Roberta Isley

IT might be the Fabulous Frankie singing Fools Rush In for East of the Sun. It may be Toscanini's records that you treasure most. The best in music satisfies your ears . . . and consequently makes you feel just fine. That can be true in choosing fashions, too. This week the Clothes Line had its fall opening. And without a doubt here are College Clothes that will rate strictly A on campus. Their cashmere collection with skirts to match 'n' mix is terrific. It was a new hip length cashmere in 'n' with three quarter sleeves . . . paired with a thorn colored skirt, that caught our fancy. Or you might prefer a cardigan . . . a turtle neck one with short sleeves. Autumn tones of oxford, canterbury blue, and cherry are featured. Some of the skirts are wrap arounds buttoning up the back. Then there are the young skirts . . . full circle ones . . . fashioned of wool cricket cloth. A royal full circle skirt with a royal scooped neck sweater is stunning. They are showing all of the clan plaids, too. As usual, you'll find Bermuda shorts 'n' slacks in both plain and plaid. Need we say more? 387 Fisher Road . . . ample parking in the rear.

AND wear the narrow leather belts separately OR in pairs. The colors of these wonderful belts are coordinated with the cashmere colors and are made especially for The Clothes Line. As fresh and new as autumn leaves are the imported Italian leather tote bags. Velveteen ones, too, in autumn hues. The price tag is the big news here . . . ten ninety-five. 387 Fisher Road.

THE very newest shop around town is featuring Warner's Angels . . . these are the panty girdles and girdles fashioned of all power net . . . and perfect for the high school and college set because they do such a gentle firming job and sell for around six dollars. That means you can have several. All brands of bras for the young figures are available from one dollar and fifty cents. It's our bet that Florence Riley, whose shop we are extolling, will be shaping your future. 371 Fisher Road, TU. 5-9456.

DIDJAKNOW that if you have a drapery rod that needs adjusting . . . or one that needs a new cord . . . you can have it repaired like magic at the Homecraft Fabric Shop, 379 Fisher Rd.? They feature a complete line of drapery hardware. Good enough to talk about are the air foam cushions by Goodyear for $1.59. These are suitable for kitchen chairs or porch chairs. You might be delighted with a good-looking rough-textured fabric for colonials called "Old Curiosity Shop."

GOODBYE barbecue . . . goodbye summer sands and summer sun. And now that the drying effects of the summer months are showing we are ready to take advantage of expert hair conditioning . . . plus a new shape for fall. The whole staff will be ready, as Virginia Vernier will be back on the job. There'll be a surprise announcement next month from the Ann-Louise Beauty Salon, 405 Fisher Road, TU. 2-7511.

FOR your club meetings . . . cozy Sundays . . . TV snacks . . . here is a super, idea. It doesn't involve any cooking, either. Just a phone call to Farms Market will bring to your table cherry tarts . . . Napoleon's . . . chocolate eclairs . . . apricot squares . . . and a big assortment of freshly baked cookies. They get deliveries every day. This goes for delectable fresh fruits . . . and their medleys of green, green, vegetables. Another feature of Farms Market are the individually wrapped water thin mints. They are chocolate covered and a real favorite of the yachting set. These are salt free and wonderful sweets for those on salt free diets. There is plenty of parking space at 355 Fisher Road, TU. 2-5100.

Family Reunions Enjoyed By the Harold E. Sieberts

The Harold E. Sieberts of Grand Marais boulevard have had pleasant reunions this month with their daughters, Mrs. Lee Robinson (Virginia Fischer), and her four children from San Antonio, Texas; and Major and Mrs. Andrew J. Clark (Mildred Fischer) and their children, Laura and Judy from East Lansing.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Witte announce the marriage of their daughter, HELEN ANN, to Richard Jerome Snyder on Saturday, August 21. The ceremony was held at Christ Episcopal Church, Grosse Pointe, at 4 o'clock, and was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents in Kenwood court. The newlyweds then left for the Pocono Mountains on their honeymoon.

The bride wore a waltz length gown of white embroidered nylon net, with a shoulder length veil and carried a colonial bouquet of lilies of the valley around a white orchid.

Her sister, Jane, was her maid of honor and her bridesmaids were Janet Gregory of Birmingham, Mich., and Mary Kay McLain of Lancaster, O. Her attendants wore ballerina length dresses of white nylon organdy sprinkled with pale blue roses. They carried bouquets of blue roses.

Mr. Snyder is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis L. Snyder of Sidney, O. His best man was Dale Jacoby of Fostoria, O., and the ushers were Glenn Giffin of Cincinnati, O., and William Sherk of Dayton, O.

The mother of the bride wore a dress of beige chiffon with a portrait neckline edged in chantilly lace. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of toast lace accented with brown accessories. After their honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Cincinnati, where Mr. Snyder will continue his studies in the medical school of the University of Cincinnati.

Mother, Children, Hurt in Crash

An accident that sent three people to Cottage hospital occurred at Deeplands road and Lake Shore drive Tuesday afternoon, August 24.

Helen Zurschmiede of 291 Touraine road and her two small children, Robert, 7, and Tom, 3, were cut and badly shaken up when the car Mrs. Zurschmiede was driving hopped the curb and struck a telephone pole.

The accident occurred while Mrs. Zurschmiede was traveling south on Lake Shore.

According to all the available information there was no apparent reason for the collision.

"As far as we can determine, the driver must have taken her eyes-off the road for an instant, possibly to check on her children," Shores Chief of Police Fred Duemling stated.

The three were rushed to Cottage where they were treated for shock, bruises and lacerations.

The youngest child, Robert, suffered a severe cut on the upper part of his left arm. Mrs. Zurschmiede was treated for bruises and shock and the older boy, Thomas, seemed only badly shaken up. The estimated damage to the car was not revealed, but the car had to be towed away.

Donald F. Chamberlain Awarded Culver Medal

Culver, Ind., Aug. 18 — Mid. Donald F. Chamberlain, Grosse Pointe, Michigan, was awarded the Gold Tuxis medal last week at the Culver Military Academy summer school, where he is attending the 53rd eight-weeks session of the Naval School.

Third in a series of three achievement awards, the Gold Tuxis carries an honor rating and is based on individual and competitive athletics, aquatics, military, and seamanship activities. The Gold Tuxis is the highest award presented in the three-year naval training program.

He is the son of Gerald F. Chamberlain, 740 Whittier, Grosse Pointe.

To get ahead a man must look forward to the future.

Fewer Hurt, More Killed In Park Traffic in 1953

A discussion of the annual inventory of Traffic Safety activities of the Park was held on Wednesday, August 18, between State and local officials in the Park's Municipal Building.

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss and review the Park's traffic safety record during 1953. Four accidents in the Park, which resulted in fatalities, took the community out of the running as one of the safest cities of its size.

Last year (1952) the city rated first place in safety among 450 cities of comparable size, but this year, the Park lost its points because of the four deaths. These deaths cost the city a total of 300 points, leaving only 440.

With these deaths, the Park's population death rate for 1953 was set at 30.5 deaths per 100,000 population, while its registration rate was 8.8 deaths per 10,000 registered vehicles.

Cities in the Park's group reported to the National Safety Council Statistical Division that they had an average population death rate of 9.5 and an average registration death rate of 1.9 for 1953.

Throughout 1953, 59 persons were hurt in traffic accidents in the Park as compared to 66 in 1952 and 93 in 1951.

Present at the meeting were: Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, as the Park's inventory representative, responsible for facts and figures in safety activities; Herbert Heger, representing the City Engineer's office; State Police Cpl. Robert Sybel, representing the State Police; George Hammond of the Secretary of State's office; Robert Kinkaid, chairman of the Park's Safety and Traffic Committee; and George Measel, representative of the AAA and a member of the Traffic and Safety Committee.

Three members of the 1954 Detroit Lions football club, end Dorne Dibble of Michigan State, halfback Dom Fucci of Kentucky and center Andy Miketa of North Carolina played on the 1952 Bowling Field Flyers eleven that won the Service Football Championship.

Miss Troxell Arrives To Visit Mrs. McClure

Miss Frances Troxell, of Baltimore, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Roy D. McClure, at the latter's home in Handy road.

Staudt-Rachek Rites Solemnized in Pointe

Barbara Jane Staudt Marries Daniel F. Rachek at High Nuptial Mass in St. Ambrose Church; the John C. Staudts, of Somerset Road, Entertain Guests at DYC Reception

St. Ambrose Church was the setting for the marriage of Barbara Jane Staudt and Daniel F. Rachek who spoke their vows at a high nuptial mass last Saturday before the Rev. Father Thomas H. Kaufman, O.P.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Charles Staudt, of Somerset road, and Mr. Rachek is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rachek, of Cleveland, O.

Alencon lace finished the neckline of Barbara's pure silk white gown which had chapel train falling from a skirt of unpressed pleats. A crown of the same exquisite lace held her veil of imported silk illusion, and was sprinkled with pearls and sequins.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white Fuji mums and stephanotis circled with white Alencon lace.

The bride's sister, Mary Ann Staudt, was the maid of honor, wearing a waltz length frock of champagne toned lace and tulle. A coral silk cumerbund swathed the tiny waistline and the color was repeated in a silken headdress. She carried champagne tinted glameillas with streamers of English ivy.

In costumes identical to that worn by the honor attendants were bridesmaids Pauline Kilbride and Suzanne Miesch.

Eugene Rachek was his brother's best man and guests were seated by John C. Staudt, Jr., brother of the bride; Roger L. Pickering of Pataskala, O.; Anthony J. Rose Jr. and David G. Minick of Cleveland.

A gown of poudre blue linen lace and a brown orchid were worn by the mother of the bride while Mrs. Rachek was in a costume of moss rose lace with brown accessories, and a brown orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Staudt entertained the wedding guests at a breakfast and reception in the Detroit Yacht Club after the church ceremony.

When the young Racheks left on their wedding trip through the Pocono Mountains in Pennsylvania, the bride wore a suit of sable brown with gold hat and accessories. Their future home will be in Cleveland.

Mrs. John A. Boll

The former MARY ANN HARRIGAN, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harrigan of Devonshire road, was married on August 21 to the son of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Boll of Roslyn Heights, N. Y.

Mary Ann Harrigan Marries John A. Boll

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harrington of Devonshire Road Is Wed at Ceremony in St. Claire of Montefalco Church; Reception and Breakfast Follow at Boat Club

Wearing a gown of white nylon net shadowed in Chantilly lace, Mary Ann Harrigan became the bride of John A. Boll Saturday at an 11 o'clock nuptial mass in St. Claire of Montefalco Church.

Mary Ann is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Harrigan of Devonshire road, who were hosts at a reception and breakfast in the Detroit Boat Club following the ceremony.

Mr. Boll's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John A. Boll of Roslyn Heights, New York.

Rev. Father James Clark, O.S.A., officiated at the ceremony.

The bridal gown followed princess lines, its floor length skirt ending in a full train. A small collar finished the lace bodice and holding an illusion veil, which fell fingertip length, was a close fitting Juliet neck.

Mary Ann carried an heirloom prayerbook which held her bridal orchid surrounded by stephanotis and trailing ivy.

Peggy Harrington was her sister's maid of honor. Her frock of silver blue taffeta had Empire waist and full, opera length skirt. Roses and blue larkspur were used in her bouquet.

Fashioned like the gown worn by her honor attendant, but of silver rose shade, the bridesmaids' costumes blended with their bouquets of pink roses and blue delphinium.

Bridesmaids were Kathy Harrigan, another sister of the bride; Sue Boll, of Roslyn Heights, N.Y., sister of the bridegroom; Maryanne Trombley and Mary Carey of Grosse Pointe; and Ann Furstenuan of Ludington, Mich.

The bride's younger sister, Karen, as flower girl, was dressed in rose nylon net over taffeta with her flowers arranged in a colonial bouquet.

Patrick A. Heck was best man for Mr. Boll and ushers comprised his brother, Peter Boll;

Y-Teen Clubs Meet at Cavell

Delegates of Y-Teen clubs in 35 high schools in metropolitan Detroit will spend Aug. 29-Sept. 3 attending the Y-Teens' annual Cavell Leadership Conference at the YWCA's Camp Cavell on Lake Huron.

"How to get your ticket for a stronger Y-Teen club," expressed by the conference theme, "Grand Central Station," will be brought out in all phases of the three-day program.

Leadership training groups for club officers are scheduled, as are discussions on careers and how to get the most out of high school. There will be program workshops for discussion of service projects and service crafts, party planning and picnics, international festivals, and worship.

Among those leading discussions will be Mrs. Lillian Monash, of the Youth Division of the Michigan Employment Service, Detroit; and Mrs. Junette Watts, of the Guidance and Placement

Dept. of the Detroit Board of Education. Among the 124 delegates attending the conference will be Sandy Halford, of Harcourt road; Margaret Ann Jones, of Merrillweather road; Betty Shell, of Anita avenue; Wanda Janet Walgenback, of Barrington road; Carol Marie Roland

Mystery Crash Injures Youth

Mystery shrouds the cause of an accident in which a young man was seriously injured on Saturday, August 21.

Edward G. Sheldon, 21, of 22606 Fraser, St. Clair Shores, suffered a compound fracture of the skull and broken left arm when his car rammed into a tree on the north side of East Jefferson just 50 feet west of Whittier. He was unconscious when he was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park Police.

A report submitted by police who arrived at the scene, stated that no one witnessed the mishap, but a motorist who came upon the scene after it occurred and saw Sheldon's car on its side, hailed another motorist and both righted the car and then the first motorist called police.

The motorist, Carl Bross, of 12574 East Jefferson, stated that when he and the other motorist righted the car, Sheldon was pinned behind the steering wheel, unconscious. The witness said he was not around when the accident happened.

Sheldon, whose condition was reported improving, was still unable to make a statement to police up to press time.

Sailors Doff Storm Gear At Last in Edison Regatta

Local blowboat boys had their prayers answered and were able to doff cumbersome storm gear for the first time in two regattas when they competed in the Edison Boat Club regatta last Saturday, August 21.

The gentle northeasterly breeze which prevailed sent the 143 boat fleet off on a beat to the weather mark along the American shore and provided a lazy spinnaker run down the second leg of the triangular courses. A close reach stretched the fleet out like a circus parade on the final leg, which took the boats down river to the finish line in front of the host club.

Was Welcome Change
It certainly was a welcome change for the sailors to be able to soak up sunshine instead of rain water, as in the St. Clair Yachtsmen's and Windsor Yacht Club regattas which were sailed in rain and basketsful of wind.

Edison Commodore Carl Heinrich was jubilant over the turnout. However, it was not near the season record of 170 boats that sailed in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club regatta early in July. The commodore pointed out the fact that Edison has always been blessed with good weather for its regatta. This year was about the best one ever, according to Maurie Heimbecker.

Some Beat Wind Home
The smaller classes were sent around the six and nine mile courses and got back to the finish line before the wind dropped to a mere zephyr and caused the Cruising A and B boats much concern and in some instances resulted in DNF's (did not finish) as the 7 p.m. time limit came and went. Actually only one class, the schooner-ketch, failed to finish within the time limit.

Clare Jacobs and his crew got "Falcon" wound up in the light going and won Cruising A hands down, beating Pat Collins' "Vitesse," which crossed the line third in the class behind David Sloss' "Kathmar." "Vitesse" saved her time on "Kathmar" and carried off second prize and pushed Sloss down to third.

"Voyager" Is Winner
John Lord Booth's "Voyager" continued her winning ways in Cruising B by beating Commodore Johnny Detwiler's Bounty sloop "Vashti" in her first appearance since coming to the lakes from the East. Chuck Coe and Joe Osborn's Norwegian Baltic Eight "Aqualiv" placed third. Hank Burkard's "Meteor" broke Jimmy Carlin's stranglehold on winning guns in Cruising C and was the gun boat of the class. It was perfect weather for Hank's double ender that likes to ghost along on zephyrs and a calm sea. Carlin's "Glory Be II" came from behind to take second place.

Llywd Ecclestone's new Lokiyawl "Bikini" almost became a bride in her second local appearance since coming from Germany. "Bikini," with her piano finish topsides, liked the ghosting conditions and took third and her crew of Jimmy Trudell, Pete Bayer, Johnny Fottle, Liwyd, Jr., and Skipper Ecclestone figure they have found the combination to make the beautiful yacht a contender. All three Cruising C winners sail under the Bayview Yacht Club colors.

Ray St. John Wins
Ray St. John brought his 30 square meter "Lil Singva" out to play and nipped Jay Gonyeau's "Mitimar" and Al "Cheerio My Dearlo" Gregory's "Typhoon," who placed in that order in the 30's.

Junior Beck showed the way to the Raven skippers, beating Bob "Chum" Kerr and the Inter-Lake Champion Boyd Benkert in that order.

Meryl Amo's new Star "Firewater" was in a class by herself as she chopped up Dick Hartman's "Gigolette" and George Richardson's "Cayuga." Dick Wozniack's Luder 16 "Showboat" got the winning gun in a two boat class by beating Walt Pawlak's "Be Bop."

Bob Dods' "Debbi" moved ahead in the race for the river championship in the L class by beating Guy McNarron's "Sally K" and Freddie Jensen's "Escape."

Cawthra Tunes Up
Hank "Port Tack" Cawthra tuned up for the coming Lightning Internationals, to be held at Crescent Sail Yacht Club, September 1 to 3, by topping that class. Jim Nortmore's "Dust" was second and Jim Schudell's "Fascinating Witch" placed third. "Wind Toy" practically wrapped up the river championship in the Privateer class by squeezing out a close one over Sid Marsh's "Indian Drum" and Doc Sandler's "Spindrift." The victory was the fifth in nine starts for the "Toy" this year.

The other four starts resulted in second places. The Edison win also gave the "Toy" a five point edge over Chuck Haug's "Niad" for the Fall Series Trophy with only one race remaining on the weekly regatta schedule.

Huber Scores Knockout
Duke Huber's "KO" scored a knockout over Riney Zeidler's "Page II" in the K class and Deug Wake's "White Wings" flew to victory over Leo Wubbe's "Bonnie Lass" and Jack Collier's "Northwind" in the Thistle class.

Veteran Per Valbo led the Detroit Yacht Club catboat team to victory in the CK Team race. DYC scored 29 points and was followed by St. Clair with 25, Edison 18 and Detroit Boat Club 16.

H. Blackman won the CK Free-For-All by beating J. Bailey and M. Straw.

John B. Ford's 5.5 meter "Zita" bested Nils Lucander's "Norma" and Bob Adams' "Perhaps" in

The three fish were entered in the Miami Beach Summer Fishing Tournament where they won citations for the fishermen.

Pointe to Play Host to Big Sailing Races

Nine months of hard work, sweat and tears will end next week when the Detroit River Lightning fleet will see its dreams come true. Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, September 1 to 3, are the dates for the 1954 Lightning Internationals and Presidents' Cup series which will be sailed off Crescent Sail Yacht Club and Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, respectively.

It all started last September when Henry "Port Tack" Cawthra and Warren Jones captured the Internationals and President's Cup in and abbreviated series, cut short by bad weather, at the Buffalo Canoe Club.

The President's Cup automatically goes along with the International series regardless of who wins it. Only the winner of the Internationals has the right to name the site where he wishes to defend his crown. With Jones, of Bayview Yacht Club, winning the President's Cup it marked the first time in years two-skippers from the same locality brought home both trophies.

Past Commodore George Cossaboom and hard working Harry MacFarlane, along with Warren Jones and most of the local Lightning sailors, have been working like beavers ever since the Lightning International board of Governors decided in favor of Crescent Sail Y.C. for the 1954 series. MacFarlane accepted the job of general chairman and will be running the whole show except for the judging of the races, which will be done by men from the Lightning Association.

MacFarlane is expecting upwards of 40 of the popular 19-foot sloops to come from all parts of the United States, Canada, and that class. R. Holt got the gun in the Club Sloops with G. Cowles and Eaton Kelly chasing him across the line. Bob Gregg, Clark Taylor and Don Hanna finished in that order in the fast reviving Lawley 110 class.

Designer Proves Product
Dick Hill, designer and builder of the new Crescent class, got the gun with his "We Du Tu," a fiber glass sloop which Dick built in his back yard.

If we remember correctly, last year the local blow boat boys had an easy sail in the Edison regatta, only to go out and get their ears blown off in the Detroit Yacht Club's Sweepstakes regatta two weeks later, which climaxes the weekly inter-club regatta season.

That's the next one on the docket and is scheduled for Saturday, September 11. Commodore Ed Zerbe said his race committee has cut down on its wind order for this year's race. If averages have anything to do with it, DYC won't get any wind. They used it all up last year.

To Hold Safety Show at Pier

A water safety exhibition will be held at the Grosse Pointe Farms pier on Saturday, August 28, at 2 p.m. under the capable direction of Jean Corbet and Dan Reaume, who have conducted the swimming instruction at the pier this season.

Actually this will be like graduation day for the youngsters who have participated in the swimming instruction at the pier this summer. They will be principals in the show and will display the water skills they have learned and they will receive Red Cross certificates according to their accomplishments.

The Farms life guards will demonstrate methods of life saving and stress the importance of water safety in, on and around the water. Dan Reaume pointed out there is no better insurance than being prepared for any emergency, and if a person knows how to take care of himself around the water the life he saves may be his own.

The entire show will be staged in the deep water near the diving boards.

Little Football League Forming

Grosse Pointe will be represented in the Jack Lowther Little Football League, which is city-wide in metropolitan Detroit, with teams from Grosse Pointe Park and Grosse Pointe Woods.

This league is patterned after the Little League Baseball which has been a huge success all over the country. It will include boys from 9 to 12 years of age, with a weight limit of 125 pounds.

Murray Robertson of Beaconsfield road has announced a meeting at the Neighborhood Club on Friday, August 27, at 7 p.m. to acquaint the parents of the Grosse Pointe Park team with the organization. Both mothers and fathers of the boys playing are asked to attend.

Mr. Robertson is the temporary chairman for the league in Grosse Pointe. The first practice is to be held Monday, August 30, at the Defer Field.

Mrs. Ruth Lowther, widow of the late Jack Lowther, star football player for the University of Detroit and the Detroit Lions has organized the league for the youngsters throughout the City of Detroit. Jack was killed in an airplane crash years ago. He had organized the Detroit Tars semi-pro team.

The Lowthers' two children are Charles 9, who will play this year; and Thomas 5. Mrs. Lowther resides in Fairmont road, Detroit.

Motoring through the South, MR. and MRS. SAMUEL E. ARMSTRONG of Lincoln road will visit their son, SAM, who is stationed in the Army at Macon, Georgia. They will be gone two weeks.

EDWARD F. LAMBRECHT, JR. of Beacon Hill, a graduate of Hitchkiss School of Lakeville, Conn., has been accepted for admission to Lehigh University in Bethlehem, Pa., this fall.

MR. and MRS. WALTER A. BAILEY, JR., of Toraine road, announce the birth of a daughter, BARBARA JAN, on August 14.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells
Have you received the Detroit River Yachting Association registration folder yet? Isn't that a wonderful thing? We can thank Commodore Maurie Heimbecker. He's the guy who did all the work in compiling the listings of yachts according to classes.

Maurie is the publicity director for the DRYA and what a tremendous job he has done for us. We personally believe local yacht racing has received more good publicity this year than in any previous year that we can remember. Of course Maurie will tell you that's all in the job and keep on puffing his big black cigar. But how many men that have held the job in the past would have taken on all that work even if they would have gotten the idea? Congratulations, Maurie, on a wonderful job.

We were very much surprised when we looked at the long list of yachts in the Cruising C class. Forty three yachts comprise the class which makes it the largest in the Association. That even tops the popular Lightning class which can boast only 40 of the 19-foot sloops.

Seems to us that something could be done to split the Cruising C class up and make a Cruising D class. This would bring out a lot of skippers who figure their boats aren't fast enough to compete with hotshots like Jimmy Carlin's "Glory Be," Hank Burkard's "Meteor," Hank Dunlap's "Albacore," Chet Reynaud's "Maybe II," Susan Fisher's "Old Rarity," Karl Ness' "Happiness," Walt Kunow's "Temptress," Gord Schneider's "Margaret M.," Lloyd Ecclestone's "Bikini," the Nagel, Nicol, Desmond "Balquhider" and a few others who are regular contenders.

We think fellas like Kurt Keydel, Doc Connelly, Bill McCurdy, Doc Hugh Fuller and a host of others would welcome a class of their own to sail in. How about that Commodore Frank Martin? Can't something be done along those lines to get more boats out for races?

In all, 288 yachts are registered with the DRYA and the most we have ever drawn out this year is 170 in the Grosse Pointe Y.C. regatta. Usually the number of starters is between 120 and 150. We go down to the sea in ships.

We made a "boo boo" again. We stated that Bill Nagel was the first Bayview Commodore to ever skipper a yacht to a winning position in the Bayview-Port Huron-Mackinac race. We were wrong and when we are wrong you just don't know how badly we get hammered by the men who go down to the sea in ships.

Refuses to Make Way for Youth
The "make way for youth movement" took a backward step last Sunday, August 22, on the Neighborhood Club tennis courts when Carl Grawn, 64-year-old veteran, teamed up with 29-year-old Fred Otto to win the Grosse Pointe Tennis Club's annual doubles tourney.
Grawn and Otto drew a resounding ovation from the bleachers as they downed 32-year-old Norm McBrien and his partner, Bill McHugh, who has had 33 birthdays, in straight sets, 6-4; 6-3.
After the match the Happy Pappy Grawn invited all the club members to his home for refreshments to celebrate the victory. The day was climaxed with a buffet dinner at the home of Paul Ameal, club treasurer.
At that time it was announced the singles tourney will get under way early in September.

Simians' Comedy Opening Tonight on Center's Lawn

By Mary Sue Morgan
The tale of that famous dinner guest, Sheridan Whiteside, who overstay his invitation by a month, will close Grosse Pointe Simians eighth season of "Theatre Under the Stars" August 26, 27 and 28.

Sherry, lead character of Kaufman and Hart's popular farce-comedy "The Man Who Came to Dinner", finds himself immobile in a small Ohio town and the possibility of spending the month.

Unused to such conditions, Sherry, portrayed by George de-Clair, takes command of the situation by ordering living accommodations for his secretary, Maggie Cutler, played by Suzette Dauche, and soon the Stanley household is turned into a "Grand Central Station" of Sherry's acquaintances.

The well-intentioned Stanleys, played by Don Freeman and Nancy Rush, are ordered out of their living room to make room for arriving visitors, and refused the right to use the telephone.

As the weeks slowly pass, Sherry grows restless and tired of having the towns-people asking for advice on their latest-journalistic attempts. Spice is added to the situation when Lorraine Sheldon, played by Karen Putnam, arrives in town to investigate a play written by Bert Jefferson—Malcolm Foster—the newspaper editor. At last Mr. Stanley manages to get Sherry out of his house and the Stanleys are able to return to their regular routine of life.

Working backstage on the production will be Tom Donahue and Tom Saunders in charge of the set and lighting; Anne Rice, costumes; Pat Flowers, properties; and Jan Galhaar, make-up.

On the business side of Simians, programs have been printed under the supervision of Lorry Gonzo, posters designed by Joan Rocha and distributed by Joan Wozniak, tickets by Tish Hosmer, and ushers under the direction of Carol Sattlemeyer.

Sherry, with the help of the 34 member cast and the Simians crew will spellbind the audience seated on the lakefront terrace of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Tickets for the 8:30 performances are available at the entrance to the Formal Gardens of the War Memorial Center.

Bill Bowman, a rookie fullback with the Detroit Lions, claims a college record in basketball. He played five minutes, scored five points . . . and committed five fouls.

Farms Installs New Street Signs

Work is well under way for the installation of some 300 new street signs in the Farms, according to City Clerk Harry Furton.

To date approximately 240 new poles have been put up to replace the old, weather-worn ones and the new black-on-white metal signs should all be installed within a month, Furton estimates.

Every intersection will be graced with the new poles and signs.

The recently purchased stop signs will be taken off the existing poles and attached to the new ones.

Furton went on to state that the children of the Farms will be disappointed with the new signs, due to the fact that they will not be able to switch them as in the past. "These new metal signs are attached differently than the old wooden ones. The brackets that secure them to the pole are notched so that turning is impossible."

The installation of the new poles and signs is being handled by the city and Furton said that until the job was complete, no cost estimates could be accurately made. "At the time of the bid acceptance, I said the total cost would probably run in the vicinity of $4,000. At the moment, that looks like a pretty good estimate."

The low bid of $3,492.00 was accepted at the July 19 council meeting.

Pre-Flight Grad

PENSACOLA, Fla.—(FHTNC)—Recently graduated from the U. S. Naval School, Pre-Flight trainee, was NAVAL AVIATION CADET GORDON W. FAUST, son of Walter W. Faust, of 822 Lakepointe avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich.

He attended Valparaiso University and entered the Naval Aviation Cadet Program through the U.S. Naval Air Station, Grosse Ile, Mich.

He is now assigned to the U.S. Naval Auxiliary Air Station, Whiting Field, Milton, Fla., where he is engaged in primary flight training.

Police Manacle "Problem Child"

A 17-year-old "problem child" was picked up and ticketed twice within 24 hours Saturday, August 21, by the Woods police.

The youth, a resident of Country Club, was first apprehended early Saturday morning, August 21, sitting behind a gas station at Roslyn and Mack avenues (he didn't care to go home yet). When told to leave, he hid.

Fifteen minutes later he returned, supposedly to look for his cigarette lighter. At this time he was taken to the station and then escorted home by the police.

At approximately 9 o'clock of the following evening, the Woods police received a complaint that a car with no muffler was racing down Mack.

In answering the call, the police again found the same boy, this time playing hot-rod. (He was riding a bike the morning before).

The police warned him and ticketed him for driving a noisy car.

After the talking to and the ticket, the lad got into his car and squealed off at a high rate of speed. The police gave chase and pulled him over in front of his home.

They asked him to get down to the station and he flatly refused. His parents, seeing the police, came out of the house and urged him to cooperate.

Using disrespectful and obscene language he told the police and his parents precisely where to get off.

When his parents pleaded with him, he cursed them out and threatened with his fist to strike them.

After wrestling with his father, the police handcuffed the youth and took him to the station, where they ticketed him the second time for reckless driving and resisting arrest.

We confess to a slight coolness for anyone who is go-i-n-g to Europe now that our trip is behind us . . . Not really . . . You simply had to become enthusiastic when you listened to the fun in store for Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Bird, of Fisher road, who sail today (Thursday) on the Independence for Nice, long look-ins on Naples, Rome, Florence, Zurich and Paris. Mrs. Bird will keep a pretty eye open for new coiffures and if she finds any you may be sure you'll see them October 20 in Pierce Auditorium when she presents the second of her hair style and fashion shows benefiting the United Foundations . . . (Robert will do gowns and furs) . . . Willard H. Hagemeyer On Cruise on Carrier

ATLANTIC FLEET—(FHTNC)—Willard H. Hagemeyer, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hagemeyer of 841 Lakepointe, Grosse Pointe Park, is cruising for three weeks aboard the support aircraft carrier USS Antietam with 365 midshipmen second class from the U.S. Naval Academy.

The cruise will give the midshipmen a basic introduction in the operations of an aircraft carrier. While aboard, each midshipman will receive one flight in a medium torpedo bomber.

The Antietam is the world's "first canted-deck aircraft carrier."

During the cruise, the Antietam will dock for four days in Halifax, Nova Scotia. While there the midshipmen will march in a parade in honor of the Canadian Navy Day. They will be the guests of the Canadian Naval Cadets at a dance and will return the favor with a dance aboard the Antietam.

St. Paul Flyers To Take to Grid

Coach Eddie Lauer's St. Paul Flyers will be the first to swing into practice sessions in Grosse Pointe when hopeful candidates answer the call to football practice on Monday, August 30 at 10 a.m.

Arrangements have been made so that players may pick up their equipment on Friday, August 27, at 2 p.m. in the school's gymnasium where the student managers will be in charge.

John Conti will again be head line coach under Head Coach Lauer. Joe Belanger will pick up where he left off last fall as head coach of the reserve squad.

The grade school team will be coached by Harry Hammond, who will notify his candidates as to the date of their first practice in the very near future.

Cotton Captures Casting Crown

Harold Cotton put together a very laudable 94 points to win the third casting championship held at Grosse Pointe Farms pier last Thursday, August 19. Louis Reno captured second place with a total of 82 and edged Stanley Jursek who won two weeks ago.

The final meet of the year will be held on Tuesday, August 31, and will be the last chance one of the previous winners will have to repeat as a winner. As yet there has been no double winner.

In the final meet, competition will get underway earlier than usual due to darkness setting in so early these days. The practice round will get underway at 7 p.m. and the championship round will start at 7:20 p.m.

Meehan Delegate To Legion Parley

Headed by State Commander Kent T. Lundgren, Menominee, 146 Michigan American Legion delegates, their friends and families, left on Monday, August 23 for the 36th annual national Legion convention in Washington, D.C., August 30 through September 2.

Included among the Michigan contingent is James J. Meehan of 460 Moran road, who was recently elected by Legion members of his Congressional district to represent them in official expression on national business matters that will affect some 3 million Legionnaires world-wide.

The first time a national Legion convention has been held in the nation's capital, it is expected more than 150,000 will crowd the Capital City in one of the largest Legion gatherings in a decade.

The Michigan Legion is sponsoring a candidate for national commander at this year's convention. He is J. Addington Wagner, Battle Creek attorney, past state commander and presently chairman, national Americanism commission.

President Eisenhower will share the spotlight with Dr. Konrad Adenauer, chancellor of the Federal Republic of Germany, in addressing the opening session of 3,510 national delegates.

Other notable speakers will include Francis Cardinal Spellman; Admiral Arthur W. Radford, chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff; Walter B. Reuther, president, CIO; Henry Cabot Lodge, U.S. ambassador to United Nations; Miss Maurine Walker, president, national education association, and Harvey Higley, administrator, Veterans Administration.

Grosse Pointe Woods, confides one of our favorite gals out there, is that up and coming community which boasts "the earliest, least efficient, and most profane rubbish collectors in the world. As if dumping tin cans, broken glass, etc., weren't bad enough, at 6 a.m. the boys holler, swear, and sing at the top of their lungs. Everyone complains and some Woods residents have threatened to take their problem to the city. Apparently someone did, for one morning last week, about 6:15, I was jolted from a beautiful dream by the worst swearing and clanging I'd ever heard. It was the rubbish men four or five houses down the street. I was wide awake, mad as a hornet, and just about ready to yell out the window to remind them I was a taxpayer, paying their salaries, etc., when in between the clangs and oaths I heard the tinny strains of the Brahms Lullaby—apparently coming from an old music box on their truck. I still think they're too early, too loud, and too profane, but the more I think about it the funnier it gets. I'll have to admit they've got a sense of humor and I'll bet the Woods is the only town in the U.S. that gets 'canned music' (courtesy of the city) by which to wake up."

PILFERINGS

Punch says, even the most hardened cigarette smoker, according to Professor Grace Roth of the Mayo Clinic, reacts to the first cigarette of the day with a drop in the temperature of the hands and feet, due to constriction of blood vessels. As the day wears on, the hands warm up—but reading this sort of thing in all the papers keeps the feet pretty chilly.

And then there were the seven year olds who had heard so much of the cigarette-lung cancer scare . . . they gave up their chocolate cigarettes . . .

The British writer, R. Q. Knox feels that the world should be as sentimental about the Last Tooth as it is upon appearance of that First Tooth . . . Having just lost the last of his, he says he must change his metaphors, "I have been saying for 'Don't do that. You set my tooth on edge,' and 'I am beginning to get my tooth into this proposition' and (in the case of burglars) 'Perhaps I ought to warn you that I am armed to the tooth.'" His dentist outmoded the metaphors . . .

In a little volume called how to Lay A Nest Egg (Edgar Scott, author) Emily Kimbrough has written an amusing foreword about her experiences with banks while a student at Bryn Mawr. There was nothing tranquil about her associations with the teller at the bank in the village who, at the end of six years of business relationship, said to her, "I'm sorry you're leaving, Miss Kimbrough. We'll miss you. Would you mind if I asked you one personal question? I feel that I can't let you go before finding it out."

Writes Miss Kimbrough, "I felt that the rapprochement had gone farther than I had realized. The revelation put me all atremble, so that I could only nod by assent, wishing that my friends were around me again to hear me deal firmly but kindly with this suppliant.

"Why is it," he said, "that over the years, every so often, but not at any regular intervals, you've made out checks to cash or to self for the most peculiar amounts—$1.89, $2.13—sums like that?"

Pointer of Interest

MRS. ALEXANDER W. BLAIN OF BERKSHIRE ROAD

By Kitty Marriott

The word "busy" has been applied to Pointers so often that it no longer seems to carry enough meaning. Yet what other word so well describes the activities of Mrs. Alexander W. Blain, who participates in such a wide variety and large number of civic and cultural enterprises? "If I belong to anything, I want to be active," she states emphatically, and her full schedule shows that she means every word of that statement.

"My major interest has always been my family," Mrs. Blain insists, and it still is, although the three younger Blains are grown and pursuing their own careers. The Blain family, as everyone knows, runs to doctors.

Two Surgeon Sops Dr. and Mrs. Blain have two surgeon sons, Alexander, III, who is now with his father, and Donald, who is taking his residency at the Church Home Hospital in Baltimore and some training at Johns Hopkins as well. Their daughter, Shirley, married to Dr. Robert Berry, who is an Ann Arbor surgeon and an assistant professor at the University of Michigan.

During the summer, the family gravitates back for week-ends to their beloved Blain Island near Waterford, Mich. The eight Blain grandchildren make this the fourth generation to enjoy the wonderful times at the rustic summer retreat.

Is Avid Gardener Second to her family are Mrs. Blain's garden activities. She is on the boards of both the Grosse Pointe and Belle Isle Garden Centers. She doesn't care too much for flower arrangements, just likes "to grow things." She does very well in this department, too, as the roses, which are her specialty, testify. She has more than 60 rose plants and, of course, enters the annual rose show.

Mrs. Blain is vice-president and conservation chairman of the Village Garden Club. She credits her conservation interest to her husband, an amateur ornithologist, co-founder of the Detroit Audubon Society and a Conservation Commission member for six years.

Off Buying Bird Book The Blains went to Europe in May, accepting the invitation which the American College of Surgeons had received to attend the Royal College of Surgeons. Missing the doctor during one of the meetings, Mrs. Blain discovered that he had slipped off to buy an English bird book.

They were both enchanted with the Princess Royal's lovely garden at Harewood near York. Anne Hathaway's garden at Stratford-on-Avon, and the Versailles gardens. They also enjoyed the luxurious glass-domed English tourist buses, with a courier describing places of interest as they passed and answering passengers' questions; the English horse chestnut trees with pink and white blooms, each looking like a lighted Christmas tree, and European topiary—the art of trimming trees to represent figures. "Looking down from the Eiffel Tower, we could see a whole avenue of square trees," Mrs. Blain said.

Symphony Supporter Mrs. Blain has been an active member of both the Women's City Club and Women's Association of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra for 25 years. She served on the City Club board for three years and as vice-president for two years. She is on the Symphony board.

District Nursing Society, one of Detroit's oldest charitable organizations, is another of Mrs. Blain's pet projects. She is in charge of sewing; the group makes complete layettes and turns them over to the Visiting Nurses. They also support Camp Baycourt, where underprivileged mothers receive vacations.

In Many Organizations You'll find her at the weekly meetings of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Women's Association, and she belongs to the Grosse Pointe Women's Republican Club, Wayne County Medical Society Auxiliary, Detroit Historical Society, Founders Society of the Art Institute, Friends of the Library in both Grosse Pointe and Detroit.

A hobby, for which Mrs. Blain regrets that she has very little time, is collecting Early American glass. Most of the pieces in her collection she picked up while attending meetings in the East. Their country log cabin on Blain Island provides a perfect setting for the collection, although she keeps a compote and a few other pieces here in town. After 10 years in Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Blain also belongs to the legion of Pointe boosters—"You have your community center and church center right here," she explains. "Everything is so near at hand."

Hospital Seeks Oldest "Baby"

A search for the oldest living person in the Detroit area who was born in Woman's Hospital, has been launched by hospital officials.

Mrs. John N. Failing, Jr., president of the board of trustees, wants the winner to be the guest of honor this fall when the new $3,250,000 Memorial Maternity Center is dedicated.

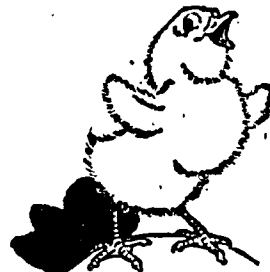

Since Woman's Hospital is now in its eighty-sixth year of operation, it is felt that the oldest "baby" might now be one of the area's older residents.

To assist the search, the hospital is asking Detroit area residents who were born there to write Miss Catherine M. Maloy, Administrator, Woman's Hospital, 432 East Hancock Avenue, Detroit 1, giving name, address and date of birth. When it opens this fall, the new Maternity Center will provide an additional 133 beds and the most modern facilities for obstetrical care. Construction of the Center makes Woman's Hospital one of the most outstanding general hospitals in the United States.

Preparations are now underway for the dedication and opening.

TRANSPARENT SALAD DRESSING

Contributed by Mrs. Frank B. Cornell

In double boiler top, stir together:

- 1 t. salt
- 1 t. dry mustard
- 1 t. paprika
- 1 t. celery seed
- 1/2 c. sugar
- 1/4 c. white vinegar
- 1 c. salad oil
- 1 T. grated onion

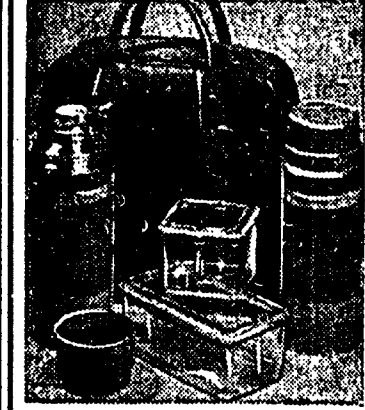

Over warm, not hot, water, beat mixture constantly with egg beater until just lukewarm. It must not get hot!

Store in covered jar in cool place, but not in refrigerator. Beat before using until it thickens. Makes about one pint.

*Serve on canned pineapple and cucumber chunks, or with fruit salad on lettuce.

(Sugar and honey, half and half, may be used in place of the 1/2 c. sugar.)
