Interesting fruit arrangements also will be provided, including one in the French Provincial manner planned by Mrs. H. D. Wilson for the dining room of the Teetzels residence.

Tickets for the Tour of Houses are still available and may be obtained by calling the Grosse Pointe Garden Center (TU. 1-4594) or presidents of affiliated garden clubs.

Hours for both Saturday and Sunday are 1 to 5 p.m.

Weather Prophets Debunked By Naturalist at Cranbrook

Weather prophet season is here again.
Nature mystics are measuring the woolly caterpillar, listening to cricket music, sighting the height of hornet nests, and fingering animal fur—all to determine how severe the coming winter will be.

Among the many puzzles of nature that have long interested Walter P. Nickell, naturalist of Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills, one of the most mysterious to him is the human mind that considers itself inferior to a woolly caterpillar. The woolly caterpillar is mostly black, with a brownish stripe circling its center. According to the prophets, this creature anticipates weather conditions several months in advance and narrows the stripe to denote a severe season ahead. It seldom predicts mild winters.

Hornets are supposed to build nests extra high to avoid deep snows. Since queen hornets select nest sites early in the Spring, their forecasting is necessarily long-range. Actually, Mr. Nickell points out, hornet nests in any given area or season vary from six inches off the ground to sixty feet in a treetop, even in the snowless South.

Crickets, or other music-making insects, are supposed to indicate an extreme winter ahead by ceasing their noise early in the fall. These insects actually vary their song according to immediate temperature and light conditions. During cool nights they may not perform at all, but quickly resume as warmth returns, until they are finally killed by the first frosts.

Some prophets watch the ground-hog go to bed, just as they heralded his emergence in early Spring. The theory is that if a hibernating animal retires early, he's getting ready for hard months ahead. Mr. Nickell observes, however, that hibernators often hit the hay early after a summer of good feeding. And many of them wake up and go to sleep again several times during late Autumn.

Unusual thickness of animal fur in early Fall is favorite sign of coming blizzard weather. Fur research has shown, however, that weather has much less to do with thick, healthy hair than the animal's recent diet. After a drought-seared summer when feeding is poor, many animals must go through winter with scraggly coats, no matter how low the temperature.

The popularity of superstitious predictions is, according to Mr. Nickell, based on two factors: (1) misunderstanding of the nature of animal instincts, and (2) non-scientific records of the outcome of animal-prophet forecasts.

An animal's reactions may result from his own experience as an individual or from the behavior patterns he has inherited from his ancestors. In other words, instincts are formed by past happenings. There is no scientific evidence that instinctive behavior is influenced by an event that has not yet taken place, such as a severe winter ahead.

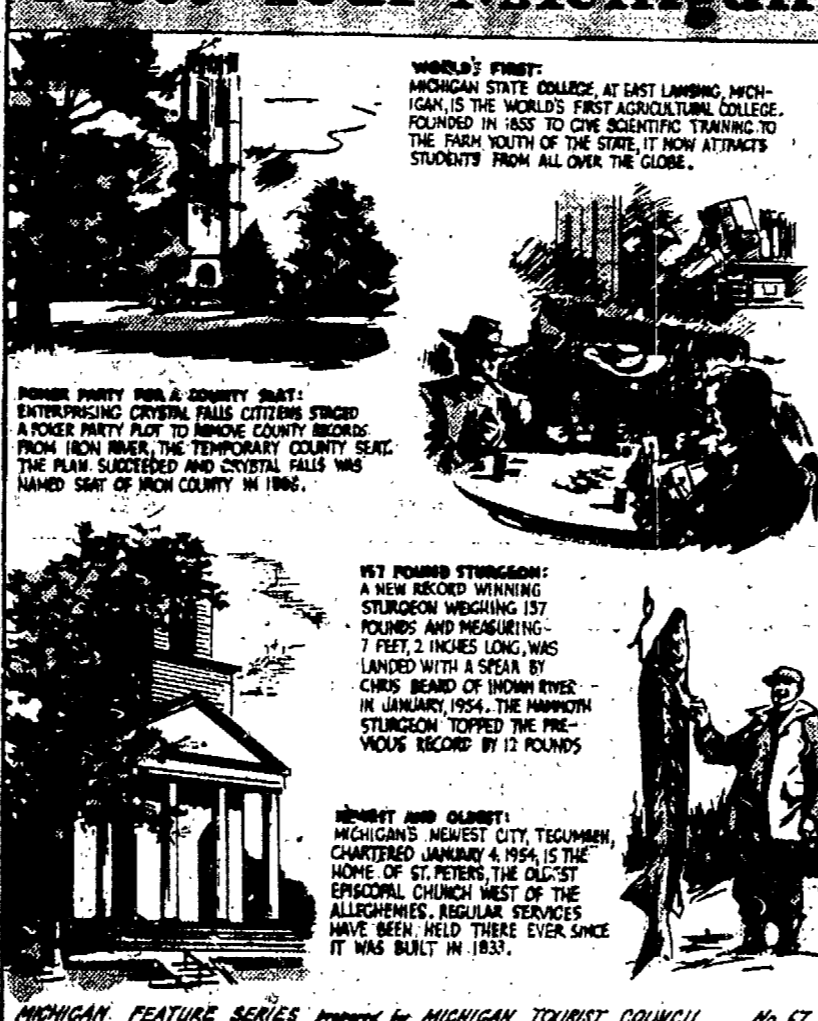

For example, a squirrel hoards nuts because his ancestors have survived through countless generations by hoarding nuts, not because he has any advance information on the coming winter.

Bird instincts are among the most sensitive in nature, Mr. Nickell notes, yet there are frequent reports of large flocks migrating into snow storms that kill them outright or starve them by covering food.

Although he does not keep records of animal forecasts, he remembers that last year's mild winter was supposed to be particularly severe according to the woolly caterpillar. And he thinks the worm has gone out on the wrong limb again this year by forecasting another freezer.

While refusing to make predictions, Mr. Nickell expects a generally mild winter in Michigan because the state's vast water areas tend to store warmth from the summer sun, and there were about twice as many hot, sunny days this summer than usual. But, he hastens to add, this circumstance does not prevent Arctic air masses from moving in. And that's why he's less confident than the woolly caterpillar.

Pointe Artists' Work in Exhibit

The 45th annual Michigan Artists' Exhibition opened with a public reception at the Detroit Institute of Arts Tuesday evening, November 16, at 8 p.m. The exhibition includes 273 paintings, prints, photographs and sculptures by 180 artists; 86 of them from the Detroit area and 94 from out-state.

Announcement of the winners of 26 prizes totaling more than $3,000 was made at a dinner honoring the artists at the Institute preceding the public reception.

All of the artists whose work is included in the show were invited to the traditional "Varnishing Day" Tuesday morning for a preview of the exhibition. Whereas in the past the prize-winners were revealed at this time, this year that announcement was not made until evening.

One hundred and fifteen oil paintings, 72 water colors, 46 prints, 11 photographs and 41 sculptures were chosen for the show by a jury consisting of Otto Wittman Jr., Associate Director of the Toledo Museum of Art, and Abraham Ratner of New York, nationally known artist.

Hits Trees, Pole; Escapes Injury

Thomas Paddock, 55, of 373 Notre Dame, while traveling east on Jefferson, on Sunday, November 14, somehow lost control of his car, which jumped the curb and struck four trees and a telephone pole, between 16628 and 16638 East Jefferson.

Park police took Paddock to Bon Secour Hospital, where an examination revealed that he was not even slightly injured. However, he was given a ticket for not having his car under control.

The front end of the car was completely damaged.

The USS Bainbridge was the Navy's first destroyer.

Population

lation of 9,410. The 1954 figures showed that it now has 11,700, a gain of 2,290, or 24.3 percent.

The City has added 417, or 6.6 percent to its number of residents, bringing its present figure to 6,700.

The Shores, the smallest of the Pointes, made a gain of 236, or 23.3 percent, making its present figure 1,250.

Big Gain in Area
The Commission's report showed that the population in the Detroit Metropolitan area (Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties) from 1950 to 1954, had increased almost 384,000.

When the Federal census was taken in April 1950, the population of the area was 3,016,197. By July 1954, the number increased to 3,400,000 on the basis of the estimates made by the Commission. This represents an increase of 12.7 percent for the four and a quarter-year period.

Wayne County, with a gain of 208,765, or 8.6 percent, ranked third in percentage-wise gains. Its population in 1950 was 2,435,235, and presently it is 2,644,000.

Macomb Shows Big Gain
Macomb County now has a total population of 250,000, gaining 65,039, or 35.2 percent since 1950.

Oakland County showed an increase of 109,999, or 27.8 percent, making its total 506,000.

The population estimates were developed by the Population and Housing Section of the Commission's Research Committee. They were based on electric-meter customer lists of the Detroit Edison Company, residential building permits assembled by the Commission, market analysis data prepared by the Detroit News, and labor force estimates compiled by the Michigan Employment Security Commission.

Police Brass Given Lesson On Uses of "Intoximeter"

High ranking police officers from three Michigan cities were present at a six-hour training session in the Park's Municipal Building on Wednesday, November 10, to watch training of police officers in the use of the "Intoximeter."

Two police inspectors from Flint, a deputy chief of police and a judge from Saginaw and a captain of police from Royal Oak, were on hand to watch a training class conducted by Dr. Glenn Forrester. All were interested in the use of the instruments and had come to watch and make a report to their respective cities on the feasibility of using them. The "Intoximeter" is used to determine the amount of alcohol consumed by errant drivers who are found to have alcoholic breath. If the meters register 1.5 percent alcohol, after the driver blows into a balloon, then the said driver is considered intoxicated.

The Pointe officers who participated in the session, are: Park: Det. Lt. Arnold Hough; Sgts. Hazen Hennig, Anthony Walsh, and Gerard Kesteloot. Det. Lt. Andrew Teetaert and Sgt. Foster Mauck represented the City.

For the Farms there were: Det.

Sgt. Harold Seelow, Det. Harold Beaupre; and Sgts. Thomas Jarret, Gene Boylan and Vern Sylvester.

Woods: Lts. Harry Duross, Harold Gregory and Donald Coats; and Sgts. Walter O'Dell, Roland Symens, Henry Marchand, Wilbert LeDuke, and Det. Everett Plumb.

Representing the Shores were Lt. Elmer Gabriel and Sgts. Harold Zeeb and George LaForest.

There were also several officers from Harper Woods who took part in the training session.

Each of the officers who participated in the training, will in turn impart his information and demonstrate the use of the "Intoximeter" to the colleagues of their respective departments.

That Festive Season Is Sneaking Up Once More

The first Christmas trees to arrive in the Pointe this year were being staked out during the week-end in the Mack-Moross road district. GRAGGINO CONSIGLIO hopes to lure the early shoppers. He's all prepared to be around until December 24, or until the last tree is sold.

Woods to Install Lange on Nov. 22

Administration of the oath of office which was to have been taken by William H. Lange, appointed the Woods' city administrator on October 11, has been postponed until Monday, November 22.

Mr. Lange was to have taken office on Monday, November 15, but because of the death of one of the leading officials of Marysville and vacancies in that community's board of commissioners, he remained an extra week to help arrange the city's affairs before leaving.

Woods Mayor Waid McKnight has been acting city administrator since Ray MacArthur resigned to take a position with the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on September 1.

Mr. Lange resigned his post as Marysville's city manager to accept the Woods position.

S. C. Enders, Jr. Becomes Ensign

Stanley C. Enders, Jr., son of Park Det. Lt. and Mrs. Stanley C. Enders of 1361 Lakepointe, recently graduated as an ensign in the Navy, completing a seven-week legal training course at Newport, R. I., graduating as a legal officer.

Following his graduation as a legal officer, he was assigned to the USS Misspellan, at Long Beach, Calif.

He is a 1953 graduate of the University of Detroit, from which he received a degree in engineering. Prior to entering service, he was employed by the U. S. Rubber company.

Diabetes Drive Being Conducted

Sponsored by the Wayne County Medical Society, the doctors and service clubs of Grosse Pointe have launched a drive during the week of November 14-20 to find some of the undiscovered diabetics in this community.

Pamphlets on diabetes and free testing materials are being distributed at the meetings of the various service clubs throughout the Grosse Pointe area.

Urine testing material will be available at the following pharmacies free of charge: A. J. Meyer Pharmacy, Notre Dame Pharmacy, Trail Pharmacy, Harkness Pharmacy, Briggs Pharmacy, Wilson & Wolfer Pharmacy.

The urine tests will be mailed in to the Wayne County Medical Society, where they will be examined by the doctors, who will notify the family doctors of those in whose test sugar is demonstrated in the urine.

Since the advent of insulin, diabetes has changed from a disease which was invariably fatal or maiming, to one which can be completely controlled. The key is to find it early and treat it adequately.

As a rule diabetics are probably better informed about their own problems than any single group of patients. While the basic causes of the condition are unknown, a great deal is understood about the development of the disease.

The first and most prominent point is to find the hidden diabetic and to do it early in the course of the insidious onset. Fortunately, this is relatively easy: test urine collected one to two hours after a high sugar meal. This does not establish the diagnosis but it will help to find those who should have blood tests in order to learn whether or not diabetes is present.

This year a new device is available which will greatly facilitate this screening program: the Dreyapak, used for collecting and testing dried specimens of urine. The Dreyapak is a small piece of white filter paper impregnated with Sodium Fluoride, and stapled to a plastic coated paper.

The filter paper is dipped into urine and allowed to be dried overnight. When the printed form on the strip has been filled in, it is placed in an accompanying envelope and addressed to the Wayne County Medical Society-Diabetes Committee for testing. Several thousand of these Dreyapaks are being used for screening in Wayne County.

In the adequate control of diabetes, emphasis is entirely on the normal: normal diet, normal work, normal play, etc. The diabetic must do what others should do to lead a well ordered life. In addition, about half of the diabetics require only one extra thing: insulin. However, the self administration of insulin quickly becomes a daily routine and many feel no appreciable inconvenience.

Winter Driving Hazards Cited

The Chiefs of Police of Grosse Pointe, who dislike gambling on general principles, warned yesterday that probably hundreds of persons in the Grosse Pointe area are big time gamblers without realizing it.

"They're the motorists who gamble their lives on a guess that maybe it won't snow or freeze until next week," they said.

"They put off getting their cars ready for winter until AFTER the snow is on the ground. That can be a fatal mistake—just once."

November snowstorms, the chief added, can be more hazardous to motorists than January blizzards, because they come unexpectedly and find many motorists unprepared, both mechanically and psychologically.

"If you want to gamble that it won't snow," the chiefs said, "there's no law against it. But it snowed last winter, and the winter before that, and it looks to us like a poor bet."

They urged every motorist in Grosse Pointe to observe the following safety rules—NOW.

1. Don't blame accidents on the weather; be ready for bad weather.
2. When snow comes, get the "feel" of the road before starting out.
3. Keep the windshield clear of fog and frost, and be sure headlights, windshield wiper blades, and defrosters are working.
4. On snow and ice, use tire chains. They cut stopping distance in half, and give four to seven times greater traction.
5. When you have to stop, don't jam on the brakes. "Pump" your brakes to avoid skids.
6. Follow other cars at a safe distance. Give yourself room in which to stop, if the other fellow does.

Asked if tire chains are necessary if a car has "winterized" tires, the Chiefs said that the report of the National Safety Council's committee on winter driving hazards has found that tires with special treads cannot approach tire chains for safety.

Asked about "inertia" or gyroscope anti-skid devices, all said they have been puffed up too much. These pipe-like gadgets were widely sold and installed under the rear frame or luggage trunk of automobiles last year, on the theory that they prevent winter skids. National Safety Council tests, the chiefs said, show these so-called stabilizing devices are no help whatever on snow or ice, and are dangerous in that they give the user a false sense of security.

Farms Submits Fire Report

A fire department report submitted to the Farms council on Monday, November 15, by Farms Fire Chief William Newport, disclosed that fire losses for the month of October totalled $930. The report showed that an estimated $850 was caused by a residential building, which was valued at $60,000; and $87 in damages was done to the contents in the home, which were valued at $10,000.

The department answered two automobile fires, keeping damages to a minimum of a $20 loss.

A total of 26 calls were answered during October, the house fire, the two car fires and 17 emergency calls with the utility vehicle and six emergency calls with the ambulance.

A one-day sick leave was taken and 36 vacation days.

Most every man knows his own business, but it is often difficult to make his neighbors believe it.

P.T.A. to Hear Michigan Story

"Michigan Story" will be vividly told by Merrill W. Graham at a meeting of the Vernier P.T.A. at the school building on November 22 at 8 p.m.

Mr. Graham, who is executive secretary of the Michigan Retail Hardware Dealers' Association, is an authority on Michigan's historical development and progress. He will present many interesting facts about the glories and accomplishments of the state and its people.

This is expected to be an outstanding program. President Thomas Jeffers of the P.T.A. will preside. Refreshments will be served.

All parents of Vernier pupils and their friends are cordially invited to hear this unusual talk.

Farms Submits Police Report

During the month of October, the Farms' traffic accidents numbered 29, resulting in one fatal, one injury and $3,365 in automobile damages, a report given to the Farms council on Monday, November 15, by Farms Police Chief Walter Hoyt, showed.

Various types of violations, numbering 245, brought in fines totalling $1,370.

One holdup for the month was recorded, with the victim losing $1,200.

There were seven simple larceny cases, in which were revealed a loss of $112, with police recovering $55 of this. There were no grand larceny cases.

The police department handled six juvenile traffic cases, closing them with the suspension of licenses of three juveniles. Two adults were also penalized by having their licenses suspended.

Two cars were stolen during the month, and the police recovered four, two for Detroit.

There was one death by accident, a baby suffocated in its crib; one indecent exposure was recorded; two cases of malicious destruction of property, with damages amounting to $22; and seven dog bites.

Four persons were reported missing and police recovered the four; and 15 doors were found open.

In conjunction with the fire department, police answered five ambulance calls and six fire calls; answered a total of 154 complaints from citizens and handled 261 police calls.

The department issued 153 driver licenses; eight chauffeur and 17 duplicate licenses.

The number of persons arrested came to 20, six adults and 14 juveniles.

There were no suicides or breakings and enterings.

Hold Conference On Recreation

Clarence Messner, Richard school principal, and other Michigan recreation and outdoor education leaders were urged at a two-day conference at Michigan State College to prepare now to meet the anticipated need for more facilities and activities to serve the growing population and inevitable increase in leisure time.

"Boredom is the greatest social milestone today," declared H. R. Gregg, of the National Park Service, Omaha, Nebr., the major speaker at the Parks, Recreation and Outdoor Education Conference. This was a new conclave, sponsored by the M.S.C. School of Education and Department of Land and Water Conservation and five state-wide educational and recreational groups to bring the various workers together.

"Our organized recreational programs must provide social opportunities such as square dancing, band concerts and campfire songfests," declared Chase Hammond, Muskegon city recreation director and president of the Michigan Recreation Association.

Many ideas were shared by panel speakers, suggesting effective programs:

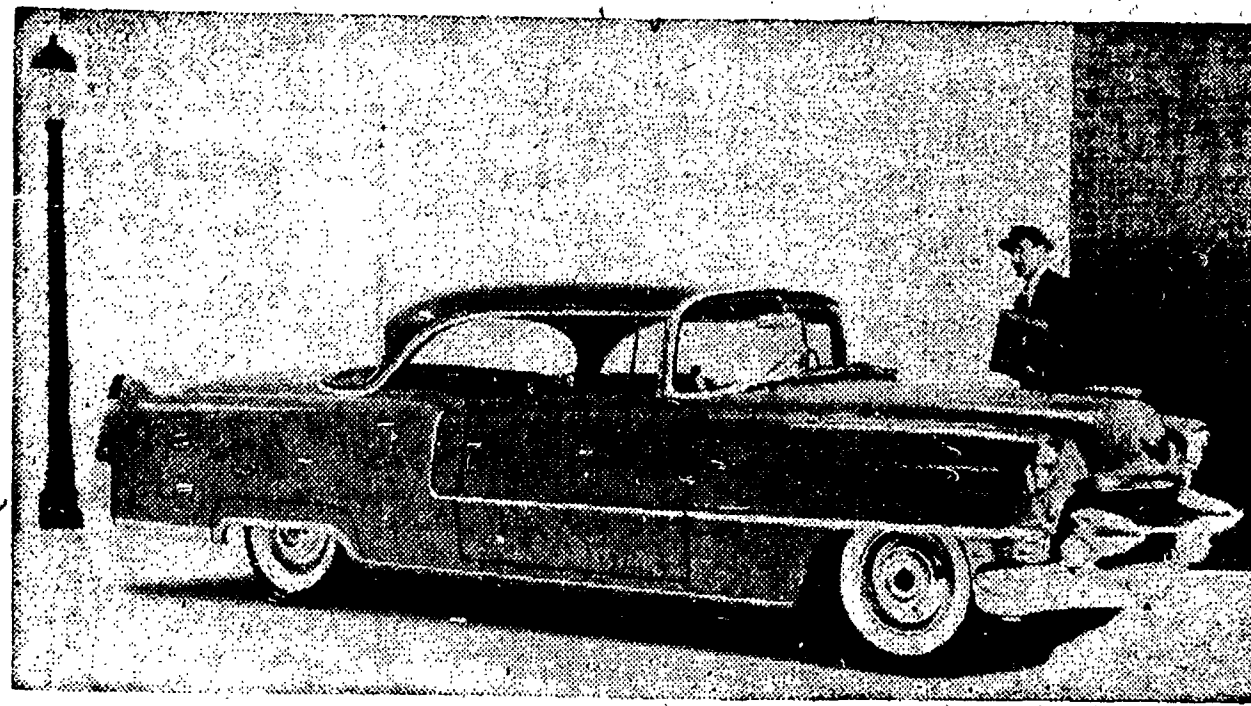

"Colored arrows can be used to clearly mark nature trails," suggested William Hopkins, of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan area.

"Why shouldn't we provide butterfly nets to youngsters as part of our recreation equipment and upgrade their interest in nature," asked Theodore Haskell, assistant city forester, Lansing.

"We assign our recreation directors to work with family reunions as a new service," explained Lina Taylor, Flint recreation director.

VANDALS HACK CARS
Dan Egan, 28, of 246 Lakeland, and his visitor, Bill Gildand, 22, of Toledo, O., both complained to City police on Thursday, November 11, that someone had done considerable damage to the paint on their cars with a knife. In addition to the scratches, Egan revealed that the top of his car had been slashed and car radio aerial had been bent.

The 1955 Cadillac Series 62 Coupe de Ville offers distinctive styling that includes the use of several interior-exterior color schemes and three optional "glamour" interiors combining leather and fabric. The 1955 Cadillac Coupe de Ville is powered by a 250 horsepower high compression V-8 Cadillac engine.

Photographers To Hear Expert

Color values, hues and harmony will be the topic of an interesting lecture to be given before the Grosse Pointe Camera Club, on Tuesday evening, November 23, by Paul Calebrack, well known color stylist of the Chrysler Corporation.

For many years, in fact since the inception of color photography, the camera enthusiast has been striving to attain a true reproduction of color and its relative effects on other colors. Mr. Calebrack will approach the problem from its fundamental basis and show how harmony and color values may be used to great advantage by the photographer and his tools at hand.

The speaker will also illustrate his talk with many color transparencies and prints. The program promises to be an outstanding educational one of the winter series.

The meeting will be held at the club rooms in the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo avenue, and the interested public has been invited to attend.

Following the lecture program, there will be judging and showing of slides submitted by the members.

Woods to Give Employees Bird

All the full-time municipal employees of the Woods will be assured of a big turkey for their Christmas dinner.

The Woods council approved the purchase of 50 turkeys, none to exceed 20 pounds, to be given to as many of the community's regular full-time employees. The council approved the gesture at its regular meeting held on Monday, November 15, and appointed Mayor Waid McKnight and City Clerk Herbert L. Brauns as a committee to purchase and distribute the birds.

ANNOUNCING

NOTRE DAME PHARMACY'S

Grand Opening

- and you're Invited!

Saturday, Nov. 20th is the BIG DAY

Favors and Gifts for All

Here comes our proudest day!

The occasion is the Grand Opening of our newly rebuilt store—on Saturday of this week—Nov. 20th. Every service we've rendered through the 17 years since we opened on this corner, every prescription we've compounded, every drug sundry we've sold has helped to show us the way for improving the facilities in this rebuilding job. We've tried to put all our 17 years' experience into this new store so as to be better able to serve you. We are still the pioneer drugstore and we hope you will like our NEW LOOK!

To Ann Arbor For the Holiday

Mr. and Mrs. W. Bruce Krag, of Merriweather road, will drive over to Ann Arbor to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Krag's cousins, Mrs. Helen Walker and Dr. William Brace and Mrs. Walker's daughter, Betty Rae. Accompanying the Krags will be their son, Mike. Last weekend out-of-town guests for the Krags were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Huntsman.

Urges Sportsmen To Aid Crippled

Park Fireman Alfred J. Martin, member of the bowling team of Smokey Stovers International Association of Fire Fighters, AFL, urges all local sports enthusiasts to support the Fire Fighters March for Muscular Dystrophy.

"We who enjoy the blessing of strong legs and useful arms owe it to our conscience to help save the lives of children whose muscles are wasting away under the ravages of muscular dystrophy," Mr. Martin said.

For that reason, he explained, 85,000 members of the IAFF are sponsoring a nationwide door-to-door Thanksgiving holiday season collection of contribution envelopes that will have reached homes by mail.

"More than 200,000 Americans are suffering from muscular dystrophy," Mr. Martin added, "and 130,000 of these are children doomed to die soon unless we help medical science with the money it takes to expand research in a hurry. It's a big job, but we fire fighters are confident of meeting our goal because we know the heart of America is with us."

Darwin M. Ley Honored By Cost Accountants

The Detroit Chapter of the National Association of Cost Accountants has elected Darwin M. Ley, 17130 East Jefferson avenue, an associate director assisting on membership for the 1954-1955 term.

Mr. Ley has been quite active in N.A.C.A. affairs for the past seven years, has done undergraduate work at Princeton and is a graduate of Harvard. He is employed at Ford Motor Company as a methods analyst.

Nominated

JEANNE STUNYO, recent graduate of Grosse Pointe High, may soon become a Colonel... that is an Honorary Cadet Colonel.

Miss Stunyo has been chosen as one of the six finalists in the Air Force ROTC "Sweetheart" contest at the University of Detroit.

Over 500 cadets chose blond, blue-eyed Jeanne as one of the finalists. The other five girls were Martha Echlin, Nancy Vail, Patricia McKolay, Marlene Samay and Lee Olszewski.

If Jeanne is elected as Sweetheart she will receive a 19 inch trophy with the inscription "Jeanne Stunyo," a formal gown, and a WAF uniform.

She will also reign jointly with the Army ROTC Sweetheart at the three military functions during the coming year, the Military Ball, December 10; the Field Day and the Springtime Ball, scheduled for next May. Jeanne would represent the cadets at all events connected with the Society of the Arnold Air Force and the Air Force ROTC.

Arrangements for numerous Detroit television and radio appearances have been made for the winner.

Diving, tumbling, tennis and playing the accordion are Jeanne's interests when out of class, but the sport which she excels in is diving.

Classified as one of the best divers in the state, she is a candidate for the 1956 Olympic diving team. Jeanne practices at least nine hours a week.

Horrigan Wins Honor in Navy

Thomas F. Horrigan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Horrigan, Sr., of Barrington road, was recently selected as the Glynco "Sailor of the Month" following a monthly inspection at the Glynco Naval Air Station, N. J.

Horrigan, a dental technician third class, was nominated as the outstanding man of the dental department by the station dental officer, Lt. (j.g.) J. W. Talley, and then selected by the commanding officer, Captain D. L. Cordiner, as the outstanding example of all the station personnel. Capt. Cordiner presented Horrigan with a certificate citing his department, military bearing, neatness of dress and performance of duty during the previous month.

He and his wife, the former Carolyn Miller of New Brunswick, N. J., and party were also entertained at a dinner party at the Frederic Yacht Club, where he was presented with a sterling silver cigarette box engraved with his name and the information concerning the honor bestowed on him.

Horrigan, a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, studied at the University of Detroit, before joining the Navy in April 1951.

Following dental technician training at Great Lakes Naval Training Center, he served for 18 months at Key West, Fla., prior to reporting to Glynco in March of last year.

The Horriganes make their home in New Brunswick while he is stationed at the air base.

Ernest Whitney Joins Campbell-Ewald Staff

Strengthening and broadening of the Campbell-Ewald Company copy department continued with the announcement by Edward E. Rothman, agency general manager, that Ernest W. Whitney, of Severn road, had been named associate copy director for Campbell-Ewald.

Whitney comes to Campbell-Ewald from Bruce B. Brewer Advertising Agency, Kansas City, where he had been an account executive for the last six years. Prior to that he served as copy writer for a St. Louis agency.

Whitney, 38, spent more than four years in the U. S. Army Air Force during the war and rose from private to captain during his service career.

He is a graduate of Kansas State College and after graduation he became a well-known sports announcer for WHB, Kansas City radio station.

Library Friends Meeting Sunday

For the second in the 1954-55 series of Sunday Afternoon meetings, the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library have scheduled a very interesting speaker with a very important subject.

Next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Central Library, Sam Rabinowitz, executive secretary of the Michigan Youth Commission, will discuss the causes of the increase in juvenile delinquency which result from other than economic reasons.

The Youth Commission is an advisory and study group of 40 citizens appointed by the governor. The commission has made extensive studies of the problems of delinquent young people in the various economic levels of the community and its recommendations are sound and practical.

In his discussion Sunday afternoon, Mr. Rabinowitz will talk about the problems which may arise in the home to influence a young person to one of the various phases of delinquency.

All Pointers are cordially invited to attend this interesting and informative discussion, and to stay after Mr. Rabinowitz' talk for the customary refreshments which will be served by the Friends following the meeting.

Sigma Gamma reaches the crescendo of its Golden Year on Wednesday evening, Dec. 1, when a reception honoring its founders will be given at the Little Club. It's been a long and eventful year of celebrating a long and worthwhile history for the organization... which was started on Dec. 1, 1904... At the moment the gals are only sure that two of the founding members will be on hand and they are Mrs. Butler Higbie, of Lakeland avenue, and Mrs. J. Duncan McNabb of Grosse Ile... But the reception is also for founders Mrs. Donald D. Davis, who now lives in Wayzata, Minn... Mrs. Elmore L. Staples, of Thousand Palms, Calif... and Mrs. D. Kenneth Laub, of Los Angeles, Calif... There has been great rummaging of attics and old scrap books to produce the wonderful snapshots of Sigma Gamma's "early days"... and these, along with posters showing the work of the seniors and juniors, will be displayed on the porch of the club the evening of the reception... Preceding the party, board members and their husbands will attend a dinner also marking the close of the club's Golden Year activities...

Mrs. John Alexander Petrie

—Picture By Moffett Studio

Before her Saturday marriage in St. Paul's on The Lake Shore, the bride was MARTHA HAGGARTY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haggarty of Renaud road, Mr. Petrie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Petrie of Forest Hills, Long Island, N. Y. The young couple will live in Lakewood, O.

and daughters and their families: MR. and MRS. JOSEPH W. CASKEY of Stanton lane with Cynthia Nichols and Joel Reynolds; MR. and MRS. WILLARD POPE KERR, of Mount Vernon road, and young James Kendrick Kerr.

THE CAMERON B. WATERMANS, of Lincoln road, are thinking in terms of a Thanksgiving time visit to Lake Forest, Ill. where they'll be with their son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. RALPH FARWELL. The Watermans are planning a Dec. 20 tea at their home in honor of their two debutante granddaughters, KATHERINE ISHAM FARWELL and PAMELA WATERMAN.

At Thanksgiving time, MRS. SIDNEY T. MILLER JR., of Irvine lane, will be quitting these parts to spend the holiday with her son and daughter-in-law, MR. and MRS. SIDNEY T. MILLER III of New Haven, Conn.

It will be Thanksgiving in Hinsdale, Ill. for MR. and MRS. CHARLES E. MOSHER, of Vernier road. They will spend the week-end with his parents, MR. and MRS. LEROY MOSHER.

For the GREENE FENLEY JR. family, of University place, there's just no other place quite as wonderful at Thanksgiving time as their farm at Rochester, Mich. With them, at Pine Row Farm, will be their son-in-law and daughter, MR. and MRS. HENRY F. VAUGHAN JR. and their children, Wendy, David and Terry.

MR. and MRS. WILLIAM H. HAGENMEYER, of Lakepointe avenue, are heading for the United States Naval Academy at Annapolis to spend the holiday with their son, BILL. The trio will go on to Philadelphia for the Army-Navy football classic Nov. 27.

MR. and MRS. CLEVELAND THURBER, of Kenwood road, and daughter, JULIE, will go down to Louisville, Ky. for Thanksgiving with son PETER'S fiancée, ELLEN STITES, and her parents, MR. and MRS. JAMES STITES.

MR. and MRS. MAX B. MCKEE, of Lake Shore road, will be in Miami Beach on Thanksgiving. They will enjoy their local celebration of the holiday next Sunday with the traditional turkey dinner at their home, Hickory Acres in Harrow, Ont. With them will be their sons and daughters-

Planning a New York trip during the Thanksgiving week-end are MR. and MRS. HAROLD L. WADSWORTH, of Cloverly road, and MR. and MRS. ADDISON E. HOLTON of Bishop road who will attend the rehearsal dinner and wedding of BRIGID SNOW and PETER FLANIGAN. Peter is the son of the Holtons' and Wadsworths' great friends, MR. and MRS. HORACE FLANIGAN of New York. The bride-elect is the daughter of MR. and MRS. PALEM SNOW of New York, Mrs. Snow being Carmel Snow, fashion writer. The wedding will take place on Nov. 27 at St. Ignatius Loyola Church with the reception at the Ambassador Hotel. The rehearsal dinner, being given by the Flanigans, will be at the Waldorf.

Also in New York at Thanksgiving time will be MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNG, of Lakeland avenue, her daughter, MRS. YOUNG LE GRO and granddaughter, JOAN LE GRO. On the way to New York, the trio will visit several schools in the East as possible alma maters for Joan who will graduate next June from Grosse Pointe University School.

Journeying to New York for the holiday week-end will be MR. and MRS. WILLIAM H. DENLIER of Cloverly road, who will be joined by daughter, SUE, on vacation from her studies at Bennett Junior College.

CAROL FENLEY and JANE SAVERY are other Pointers who expect to be in New York for the long Thanksgiving week-end.

Recently returned from a trip to Lake Placid, N. Y. are MR. and MRS. JOHN C. HOLLEY, of Trombley road.

MR. and MRS. JOSEPH M. DODGE, of Washington road, have been in Washington. While there they attended the dinner given for PRIME MINISTER OF JAPAN, SEGURO YOSHIDA, when the hosts were SECRETARY OF STATE JOHN FOSTER DULLES and MRS. DULLES. The dinner was held at Anderson House.

Haggarty-Petrie Rites Solemnized Saturday

Martha Adams Haggarty, Daughter of The George Haggartys and John Alexander Petrie Are Married at St. Paul's on Lake Shore; Future Home Lakewood, O.

St. Paul's on The Lake Shore was the scene, Saturday morning, of the marriage of Martha Adams Haggarty and John Alexander Petrie.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Haggarty of Renaud road and Mr. Petrie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Petrie of Forest Hills, Long Island.

Following the 11 o'clock ceremony, the bride's parents entertained guests at a reception in their Grosse Pointe home.

The bride's gown was designed of white taffeta with fitted bodice of Chantilly lace finished in a sweetheart neckline.

The full skirt ended in a chapel train and the fingertip length veil of imported tulle fell from a Juliet of Chantilly lace.

Martha carried white roses in her bridal bouquet.

The trio of bridesmaids wore frocks of aquamarine brocaded silk trimmed in matching velvet. Their flowers were red roses.

The bridegroom's sister, Mary Helen Petrie, of Forest Hills, was maid of honor for Martha and maids included Anne LaFerte, of Grosse Pointe, and Jane Allen of Swarthmore, Pa.

Gordon Petrie was his brother's best man and seating the guests were his brothers Donald and Alex, the latter of West Islip, N. Y.; the bride's brother, George Haggarty; Frank Fiorentino of Grenville, N. Y.; Norman Tisdale of Pittsburgh, and James Cooney of Boston.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Haggarty chose a costume of beige brocaded silk with brown accents.

Park firemen spent an hour battling a fire at the home of J. L. Thompson, 1141 Grayton, which destroyed part of the attic and the roof of the house. Fire was caused by sparks from an incinerator. The amount of damage was not known.

Mrs. Petrie, the bridegroom's mother, was in a blue silk gown. The young Petries are traveling to Bermuda on their wedding trip.

When they left their reception, the bride changed to a suit of Oxford gray wool, spiked with red accessories.

Upon their return they will make their home in Lakewood, O., where they have taken an apartment.

Florida Jaunt For F. S. Fords

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Ford have opened their home on Lewiston road for a fortnight before taking off for Sarasota, Fla., for a brief sojourn.

The Fords came to the Pointe from their lodge near Gaylord, Mich., and are remaining long enough to preside at the family dinner table this Thanksgiving.

Their present plans call for a Pointe Christmas before leaving once again for Gaylord.

FIRE DAMAGES HOME

Park firemen spent an hour battling a fire at the home of J. L. Thompson, 1141 Grayton, which destroyed part of the attic and the roof of the house. Fire was caused by sparks from an incinerator. The amount of damage was not known.

Leirwyn Boyd Fogals Will Reside in Paris

Former Frances Anne Schilling, Daughter of Major and Mrs. Donald K. Schilling Speaks Vows at Ceremony in St. Hilaire Church, La Varenne, France.

At La Varenne, France, on the outskirts of Paris, Frances Anne Schilling, daughter of USAF Major and Mrs. Donald K. Schilling, of Grosse Pointe and La Varenne, was married last Saturday morning to Leirwyn Boyd Fogal of Chambersburg, Pa.

The ceremony took place at St. Hilaire Church and following the nuptial mass, the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their villa overlooking the Marne.

The bridegroom, currently stationed at Orly Field with the 7415th U. S. Air Force Police Squadron, is the son of Mrs. Wallace Fogal of Chambersburg, and the late Mr. Fogal.

It was especially romantic that the wedding should have taken place in France since the lovely blond bride is a granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William H. DuCharme, the DuCharmes being one of Detroit's oldest and most distinguished French families.

Frances' wedding robe of rose embossed brocade ivory satin was designed by Jean Patou. Ermine formed the slender V collar of the gown which had long sleeves, fitted bodice and draped skirt extending into cathedral length train.

From the bridal Juliet of ermine fell the full length veil of French tulle. Frances carried an arrangement of all white blossoms in her wedding bouquet.

Mary Patricia Schilling, a striking brunet in contrast to her fair sister, was maid of honor and Donald A. Gaglia, of Buffalo, N. Y. assisted the bridegroom as best man.

Many Americans joined the French friends of the Schillings at the wedding and reception.

The bridegroom's mother, as well as his sister, Mrs. Richard Wright, flew to Paris for the event. They will be the guests of the Schillings until next month when they will return to Chambersburg.

Arthur Godfrey Pointe Visitor

Arthur Godfrey was a Pointe visitor this week. The popular star of television and radio was the houseguest over Wednesday night of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Boyer of E. Jefferson avenue.

Mr. Godfrey and Mr. Boyer flew to the Boyers' hunting lodge at Rose City, Mich., last Friday, to be on hand for the opening of the deer season Monday morning.

They were joined there by other members of the famous Cashmere Club, including C. E. Wilson, Secretary of Defense, Harlow Curtice, Harley Earl, Don Ahrens and General Curtis LeMay, head of the Strategic Air Command.

Secretary Wilson and General LeMay had to leave the hunting party to fly to Washington on Sunday.

Wednesday night when the hunters arrived in the Pointe, they were joined at the Boyers by Mrs. Curtice, Mrs. Ahrens and Albert Bradley, formerly of the Pointe and now of New York.

Mr. Godfrey leaves Thursday morning to fly to his farm in Virginia, where he will pick up Mrs. Godfrey to fly to Florida for the weekend.

Party Helps Music Fund

Tuesday Musicals' Ways and Means Committee has planned a Cards-As-You-Like-Them party on Monday, Nov. 29, in the Banquet Room of Rackham Memorial when proceeds will be used for the club's various musical philanthropies.

Mrs. Richard S. Shannon announced the party will begin with dessert, served at 12:30 p.m. to be followed by cards.

The full price of tickets to the party, will be used for music at Veterans Hospital, Fort Custer, in the musical therapy room; student assistance fund loans and grants to students of outstanding musical talent; donations to the maintenance funds of The Detroit Symphony Orchestra, the Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra; donations to the MacDowell Colony, Peterboro, N. H.; and donations to help finance the scholarship cabin built by the Michigan Federation of Music Clubs at Interlochen, Mich.

Pointers with early table reservations include Mrs. Arnold W. Lungershausen, Mrs. Philip D. Dexter, Mrs. Cecil J. Rush, Mrs. Abraham Bodycombe, Mrs. Adolph Jacobson, Mrs. Frank W. Coughlin, Mrs. O. B. Nordstrom and Mrs. J. M. Setzer.

Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford Recovering from Accident

Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford, of Hillcrest road, who has been recovering from a serious injury suffered in an automobile accident last month, has recovered enough to resume her social engagements.

Her lectures on current Broadway plays, so enjoyed by all, will be resumed after the first of the year.

Mrs. Leirwyn Boyd Fogal

At a ceremony in St. Hilaire Catholic Church, La Varenne, France, the former FRANCES ANNE SCHILLING, daughter of Major and Mrs. Donald K. Schilling of Grosse Pointe and La Varenne, was married Saturday to the son of Mrs. Wallace Fogal of Chambersburg, Pa., and the late Mr. Fogal. The Schillings are in France where the Major is on active duty with the United States Air Force in Paris.

Flower Expert To Give Lecture

Mrs. Chester Cook, of Boston, nationally known lecturer and writer on flower arranging, will speak in Grosse Pointe on Thursday afternoon, December 2, at the Parcells School Auditorium. Her topic will be "Decorating the Home for Christmas."

This will be Mrs. Cook's first appearance in Grosse Pointe. Her talk here is being sponsored by the Garden Club of Michigan and will benefit the Grosse Pointe Garden Center.

The Parcells School lecture, one of four to be given by Mrs. Cook in the Detroit area, has been arranged by Mrs. Allan Sheldon III and Mrs. William P. Bonbright for the Garden Club of Michigan and by Mrs. Alan P. Beebe, Grosse Pointe Garden Center program chairman.

Anticipating the holiday season

Group Formed to Help Palestrina Foundation

A newly organized committee of women whose chief concern is to further the activities of the Palestrina Foundation will meet this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Balfour room of Mrs. Reginald T. Murphy. Following a business meeting, Mrs. Murphy will serve tea to the group.

Father Edward J. Majeske, founder and director of the Palestrina Institute of Music, will speak briefly of the more pressing needs of the Institute—now inadequately housed in St. Vincent de Paul School, 2040 Fourteenth street—and of his long-range plans for the Catholic Theater of Detroit, of which he is the moderator.

Committee members have been asked to lend their immediate efforts to two events: the Palestrina Chorus annual Christmas concert and cantata, December 21, at the Detroit Institute of Arts; and the Catholic Theater group's presentation of Walter Kerr's "Star Dust" on January 19, also at the Institute.

Members of the committee include the following Grosse Pointe women: Mrs. Edward A. Baumann, general chairman; Mrs. William S. Riley, in charge of ticket distribution; Mrs. Cyril J. Burke, Mrs. Thomas C. Murphy, Mrs. William C. Flaherty, Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy, Mrs. J. P. Kinrile, Mrs. Frank Orlenan, Miss Mary Baynes, Mrs. C. M. Gilmore, Mrs. Otto Wismer, Mrs. John P. Kinville, Mrs. J. Milton Setzer.

Christmas Sale To Aid Hospital

Another glamorous Christmas bazaar is scheduled for Wednesday, December 1, on the ground floor of St. John Hospital, Moross road at Chandler Park drive, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Members of the Fontbonne Auxiliary, with Mrs. Vernon Johnson, of Pemberton avenue, as general chairman, assisted by Mrs. George De Vos, of Pemberton road, have been working for months on the various departments to give the public an opportunity to purchase a variety of articles for holiday gifts, and home made delicacies; and also contribute to the worthy cause for which the Auxiliary funds are used.

Patrons will be privileged to inspect the new, modern, beautifully constructed and equipped hospital, rated among the best in the entire nation.

The Christmas Mart will offer aprons, fancy work, religious articles, novelties, Christmas cards, corsages, home made preserves, pickles and jelly, baked goods, and many other items.

Mrs. Arthur Kerwin, president of the auxiliary, is organizing committees to include: Mrs. John Maddison, Mrs. Arthur Fleming, Mrs. Joseph Green, Mrs. John Douglas, Mrs. Joseph V. Carr, Mrs. John Drury, Mrs. William Brown, Mrs. Wilfred Lysaght, Mrs. William C. McIntyre, Mrs. Wilfred Rivard, Mrs. Cornelius Dunn, Mrs. Martin Weitzel, Mrs. Glenn Vurgam, Mrs. Louis Oldani, Mrs. Cyril Lundy, Mrs. Houghton Beresford, Mrs. John Shikany, and Mrs. Lawrence Dessinger.

Grosse Pointe Club Dance Inspires Cocktail Fetes

A Saturday evening dance at the Grosse Pointe Club was incentive for a number of Pointe hosts to give cocktail parties before going on to the club for dinner. Among the hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener, of University place, and Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough, of Lothrop road.

Concerts For Young Planned by Symphony

Series of Four Concerts Designed for Young People and As Refreshers for Adults Announced by Detroit Symphony; First Set for Dec. 18

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present four Young People's Concerts this season, sponsored by the Junior League of Detroit and Birmingham, the Women's Association and the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony.

Committees from each organization, directed by Mrs. Robert Wardrip, will sell season tickets for the concerts from now through Dec. 15.

Pointe chairman is Mrs. Thomas J. Hammond whose assistants include Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, Mrs. Alexander W. Blain III, Mrs. Edgar E. Galloway, Mrs. Jay L. Hammen, Mrs. William L. Hurley, Mrs. Edward K. Isbey Jr., Mrs. Franklin M. Walker and Mrs. Richard Williams.

The four concerts on the series are entitled "The World of Music," and are scheduled for Saturday mornings at 11 a.m. with the dates Dec. 18, Jan. 15, Jan. 29 and Feb. 12. All the concerts will be given in Masonic Auditorium.

Valter Poole will conduct the programs which have been tailored to the tastes of young people and their parents. Designed as a "refresher course in music" for parents, and as a real education for children, the programs feature music and soloists selected for the entertainment appeal.

The series was restored two seasons ago under the direction of Mrs. Daniel W. Goodenough. Miss Laureline Collins, director of school-community relations for the Board of Education, will act as guest commentator on each program.

The first concert, a Christmas program, features cartoonist Stuart Hample. Sketching in time with the 103 members of the Detroit Symphony, Mr. Hample brings to vivid life the stories told by the classics.

The concert includes a first performance for the Metropolitan Detroit area of HARL McDonald's "Children's Symphony".

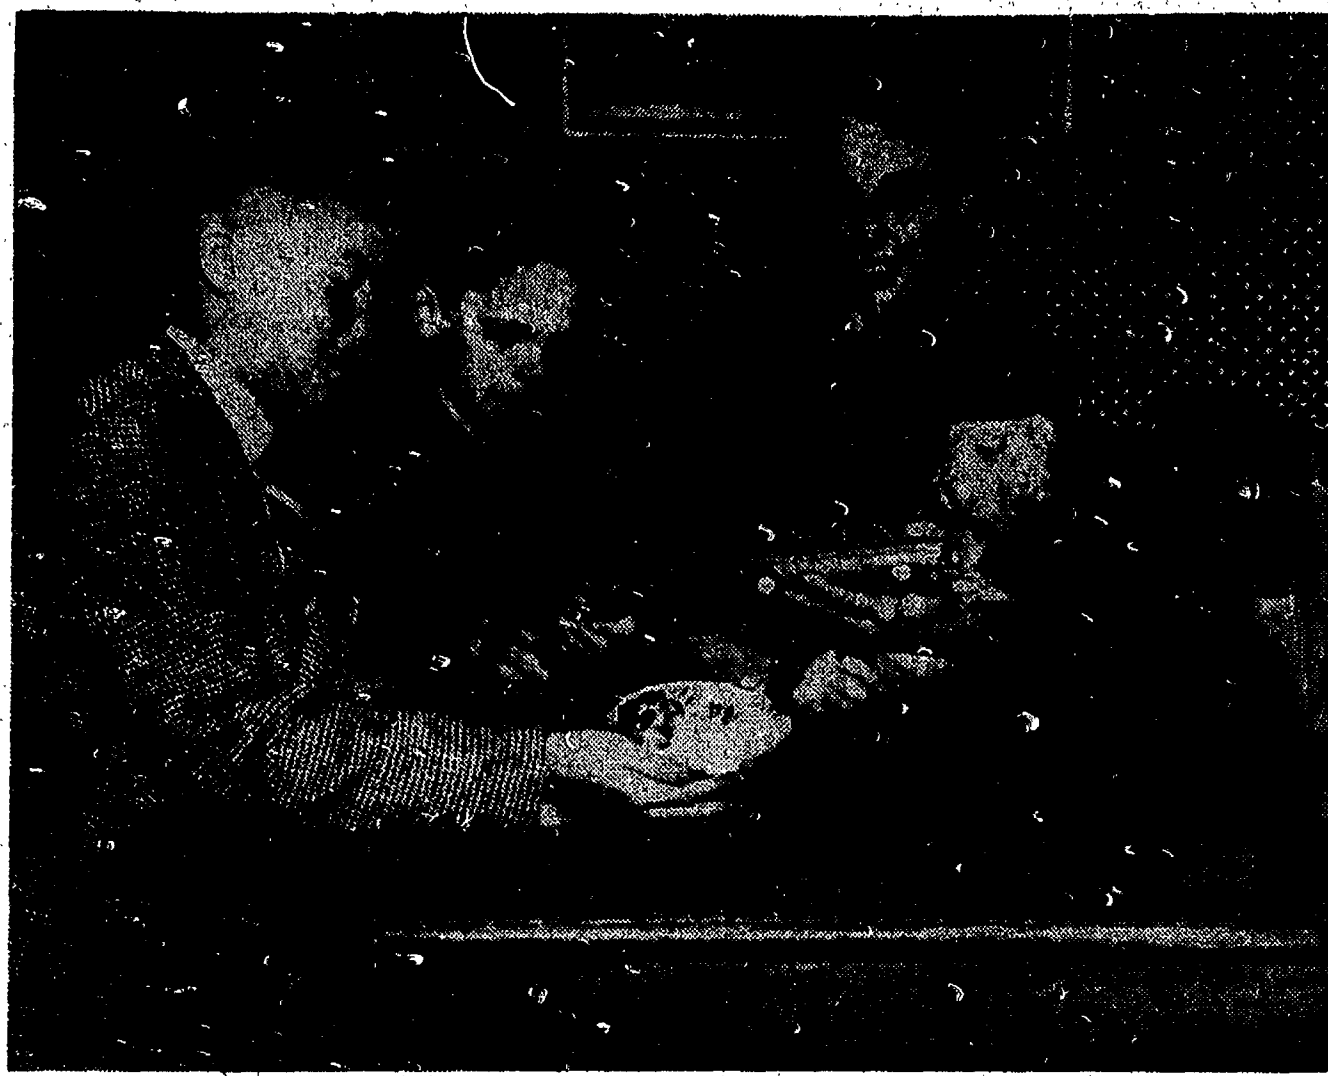

Theme for the second program is "Stories in Music." The works to be presented included Dukas', The Sorcerer's Apprentice and Saint-Saens' Carnival of the Animals.

The third program will be devoted to Fun with Music introducing piano stylist Dorothy White. Miss White intersperses solid fare with ingenious surprises by playing, singing and dramatizing her material. Her young listeners join in exploring the music - wonderland she creates, entering into the program and telling stories with music.

Final concert of the series will present the winner of the annual instrumental contest conducted by the sponsors. The program includes A Lincoln Portrait, by Aaron Copland, a descriptive music score with narration.

Season tickets for the series are available now at $6.50, $4 and $2.50. The series is one of the most important contributions to the development of the young people in this area.

St. Clare Church to Hold Christmas Fair

White Christmas Ball is Planned

A White Christmas Ball will be given at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club on Dec. 4 by members of the Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital.

Mrs. James Scripps III and Mrs. Joseph Risdon are co-chairmen for the ball and their committee includes:

Mrs. George Christensen, finance; Mrs. David Marentette and Mrs. Thomas K. Fisher, patrons and invitations; Mrs. Harry Turner, music; Mrs. Philip W. Sloan, Mrs. Bud Greiner and Mrs. John C. Griffin, programs; Mrs. Robert Thibodeau and Mrs. Victor Breidenbach, decorations; Mrs. Arthur J. Kirchner Jr., special gifts; Mrs. Frank Couzens Jr. and Mrs. Ben W. Jayne, tickets.

Grosse Pointe auto dealers have donated the music for the ball and Al Green presented a check to the auxiliary to cover costs of tickets and invitations.

On the invitation committee are: Mrs. John Posselius, Mrs. Lewis F. Brown, Mrs. William Breer, Mrs. Henry DeSigueur Laue, Mrs. Robert Krue, Mrs. Edward Staff.

Mrs. Howard O'Leary, Mrs. John Ottaway, Mrs. Don Mabley, Mrs. John Murphy, Mrs. Ray Whyte, Mrs. Ralph C. Wilson Jr., Mrs. D. Emmett Simms, Mrs. Arthur D. Sutherland Jr. and Mrs. Howard Kline.

Mrs. Arthur Kerwin is president of Fontbonne Auxiliary. Tickets to the ball are $25 a couple and proceeds will go into the $100,000 fund being raised for a nurse's home at St. John.

Mrs. H. Tufts Visits Queeney

Mrs. Henry Tufts has arrived from her home in Sheboygan Falls, Wis., to be the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rex Queeney at their Maumee avenue residence.

Last evening, Mr. and Mrs. Queeney entertained at a supper party to compliment their guest.

Attending the party were Mrs. Robert Durham, The Right Rev. Archie Crowley and Mrs. Crowley, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander L. Wiener, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel H. Buell II, Mr. and Mrs. J. Jenness Newcomb, Mr. and Mrs. Allen M. Lomax and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Tilley.

Ladies of Woods Church To Meet on November 22

The ladies of the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church will have Mrs. T. J. Murray, of the Detroit Presbyterian Society, as their speaker on Monday, November 22, at 12:45.

Mrs. Murray's subject will be related to social education and action in society. There will be a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Lathrop Morse, president, and the dedication will be given by Mrs. Charles Bryant.

The Martha Group, led by Mrs. Elmer Murvay, will be hostesses.

Mrs. Arthur W. Morgan Visits The Lockwoods

It's been a busy week for Mrs. Arthur W. Morgan who's been paying her former home town a visit. Mr. Morgan has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Ezra W. Lockwood, of Ridge road, for the past week, and plans to return to her home in Cranford, N. J., tomorrow. There have been a number of informal gatherings for the former Pointer, included among these was a Sunday night supper at which the Lockwoods were hosts.

BONIFACE MAILE, of Balfour road, sailed aboard Italian Line's flagship, Cristoforo Colombo, November 12, enroute to Naples, where he will stay for a few days prior to attending the World's Veterans Federation meeting in Vienna, where he will stay for two weeks.

It will be an exciting Thanksgiving for MR. and MRS. WARD RICHARDSON of Hillcrest road. They will spend the day in Jacksonville, Florida, as the guests of their daughter and son-in-law, LIEUTENANT COMMANDER and MRS. LOUIS F. BRAZO, JR.

GARY SPENCER LONG, son of MR. and MRS. RAY A. LONG, of Harcourt road, and a 1950 graduate of Grosse Pointe High, recently was initiated into the Michigan State College chapter of Tau Beta Pi, the national collegiate engineering honorary.

MR. and MRS. JAMES G. MORRISON, of Hall place, have just returned from a very pleasant week in Chicago.

HANOVER, N.H.—PETER J. WARDLE, of Washington road, Grosse Pointe, has been elected to serve on the governing committee of his dormitory at Dartmouth College. These student committees formulate policies which are concerned with the living conditions and social activities of the 2400 men who reside in Dartmouth dormitories. Wardle, son of MR. and MRS. CLARENCE D. WARDLE, was graduated from the Grosse Pointe High School and is now a sophomore at Dartmouth. In his freshman year, he worked with the College Green Book and was on the Dormitory Committee. He is planning to major in Economics.

Trues Enjoying Canary Islands

Mr. and Mrs. George True, formerly of Moran road, are making use of their prolonged stay in Santa Cruz de Tenerife, Canary Islands, by learning the language and customs of the people there.

Mr. True is presently a consulting engineer in the Islands. The Trues' daughter, Sallie, spent the summer with her parents. She happened to be on the initial flight of the new Iberia planes going directly to New York from Madrid.

Sallie was greeted by officials of the Madrid Tourist Bureau and given a reception and later, on her arrival in New York, was greeted by the Spanish Tourist Bureau who photographed the occasion as historic.

Mrs. True is writing articles for a newspaper in the islands and also is directing a designing column.

Those Hunt Club Steps

Even though we keep hearing raves about how wonderful the face-lifted Hunt Club is going to look when members attend the formal opening—a game dinner on Dec. 3... we can't help but feeling nostalgic about those silly little steps that rose straight up from the floor of the lounge to the second floor... One of our earliest assignments, as a society reporter, was at the club tucked away on Cook road... It was a snowy, winter night and the bachelors were giving a ball for the season's debutantes (bachelors seemed much more aware of social responsibility in those days and really made an effort to repay the darlings of the season for all the parties they had given)... The boys on the committee even had arranged a professional floor show for the evening... and we can remember that among those on the committee were Ingersoll Lewis Jr. ... John S. Newberry Jr. ... and Pierre Fuger... Mr. Lewis' daughter, Betty, made her debut last December... This year Mary Page Fuger will be a Christmas deb... and gone are the steps at the Hunt Club that rose straight up in the air... a hazard to girls in ball gowns, to be sure... but filled with memories... on every rung...

Game Dinners

All the Hunt nimrods have been contributing their "bag" to the big game dinner... There'll be venison, pheasant, muskrat, racoon (you may have ours) AND frog legs... the latter being "game" for the Friday night observers... The committee on all the Top Secret restoration at the club, which you'll remember had a fire this autumn, include Alfred R. Glancy Jr. ... Joseph A. Vance Jr., president of the Hunt Club... Leet M. Denton... and Walter Baldwin... The annual Hunt Club is to take place this year on Dec. 11 and already the club calendar is beginning to fill up with holiday cocktail parties and dinners, always among the gayest of the season.

Different Parties

Although John W. Mulford doesn't look a bit like Elsa Maxwell... he has all the gal's proclivities for party-giving... And lately he's been devoting his talents to the very young... Two, recently planned by Sir John, have included a belated Halloween "do" for the kiddies... Instead of a spook (it was called a "Goblin Party") Mr. Mulford invited an Indian pal, Big Chief Pontiac, to meet all the club children in the indoor riding ring where, before a huge bonfire, he told stories that raised pigtails and crew cuts. There was also a clown who had a nose that lit up. Then, last week, youngsters were invited, on Musical Ride night, to attend a Mouse Hunt. There was great ceremony attached to this event with sub Deb Krystyn Glancy taking the part of Mistress of the Kittens... The Hon. Catsman was Jimmy Forster... with Ingrid Cornelius assuming the duties of the Hon. Sweeper-In and Judy Baldwin serving as the Hon. Sweeper-Out. At promptly 6:30 p.m. the night of the fun, the Hon. Catsman blew a horn and into the ring scurried a completely outfitted mouse, Tex Alexander, who was pursued by three kittens in costume: Peter Dodenhoff, Johnny Petzold and Billy Hart... It was a merry chase... followed by dinner and then a musical ride...

Scouts Help Collect Clothes To Benefit Goodwill Ind.

Detroit's women have long been the backbone of Goodwill Industries' battle to help the handicapped.

Today many sons of these same women have joined forces to insure year round employment for the handicapped without seasonal layoffs.

These sons are the Boy Scouts of the Detroit Area Council. They have dedicated Saturday, November 27, as Goodwill "Good Turn Day."

The program is a simple one, yet large in scope and expected results.

Fifteen thousand Boy Scouts and Explorers will distribute "Good Turn Day" bags to homes throughout the metropolitan area on Saturday, November 20. The housewife has a week to fill this bag with used repairable clothing. Then on the Saturday following Thanksgiving, the Scouts will return to pick up the filled bags. If the family is to be away, the bag should be left on the front porch.

Clothes do not have to be cleaned. That is done by Goodwill employees. The Scouts do ask the women to take one precaution. That is to tie shoes together if they are among the discarded given.

Clothing and shoes are all that are requested in this drive. Goodwill will pick up any other, discarded during the following week if a call is made to TRinity 2-3600.

The Goodwill program has been a women's program since its inception. The women have filled the bags with clothing which has been the raw material that has kept the production lines moving. It is a grassroots program to give employment to the handicapped and make them self-supporting instead of objects of charity.

In the past there has been a seasonal letdown during the winter months. This endangers full employment and many times in the past has meant layoffs for handicapped workers.

If successful, the discards taken in during the Boy Scout Drive will furnish a stockpile of clothing on which Goodwill workers will be kept in steady employment.

Today there are over 100,000 women who annually contribute discarded clothing and other items to keep the Industries in full production.

There are two large groups of women who perform auxiliary services for Goodwill's handicapped. The Women's Association of Goodwill Industries is composed of representatives from 228 church and club groups. Besides placing thousands of Goodwill bags in homes each year, this group of women volunteer individual help and care for many of the workers' personal problems.

The Junior Group of Goodwill Industries also numbers more than 200 women. They work as a unit in providing needed capital improvements for the benefit of employees as people. Among these improvements are water coolers, rest rooms, a recreation room and a station wagon. Proceeds from an annual antique show pays for the major part of the cost.

The Boy Scout Drive will enable housewives to help three of Detroit's foremost social agencies without spending either time or money. It will be a boost to the Scout's character building program, it will be a lifeline for Goodwill's handicapped employees and as all white material will be given to the American Cancer Society for cancer pads, it will be of untold benefit to those stricken with cancer.

As a rule it is much easier for a man's best friends to get the best of him than it is for his enemies.

Getting Ready for Church Bake Sale

St. Michael's Church will hold its Autumn Bake Sale at the church on Saturday, November 20. Among those making preparations for the big event are, left to right: MRS. ARTHUR WALKER, chairman; MRS. RAY NIGRO, MRS. DONALD BALL and MARY LOU BALL, aged 4.

Girls Studying Children Care

High school girls taking child care will have a chance to relieve their kindergarten days when they observe children at elementary schools in the Grosse Pointe-area, one day a week. They will visit the kindergartens in morning or afternoon periods, whichever is more convenient to their schedule.

The girls observe the children's adjustment ability and how they react to certain situations. Each girl chooses a child who is unusually well adjusted to kindergarten life, or a "problem child," and writes a report on his or her actions and relations with the other children.

Visiting the kindergartens is part of the requirements of the course in child care. The project, which will last through November and December, is under the supervision of Mrs. Irma Mann.

Sterbas to Give Cocktail Party

With their study of "Beethoven and His Nephew" selling briskly in the local bookshops, authors Dr. and Mrs. Richard Sterba are giving a buffet supper in their Whittier road home this Saturday evening.

Among the guests will be Katja Andy of De Pauw University, who will play two Beethoven selections during the evening. About fifty guests have been invited to the party, including Kurt Wolf of New York City, of Pantheon Books (The Sterba's publishers); Mr. and Mrs. Edgar P. Richardson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Petty, Dr. and Mrs. John Dorsey, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore D. Buhl, Dr. and Mrs. Galdony, Mr. and Mrs. Les Gruber, Ernest Scheyer, Dr. Gordon H. Scott, dean of Wayne University Medical School, and Paul L. Grigaut.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Hesse of Chalfonte avenue, announce the betrothal of their daughter, MARLENE ANN, to Richard Cooper, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooper of Livonia. A June wedding is planned.

The bride-elect, a graduate of Albion College last June, was affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta. Mr. Cooper is now finishing his course at Albion after two years' service in the Army, and is a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon.

The road to wealth is crowded with men who are turning back.

World Market Opening Today

Detroit's 24th annual Old World Market will get off to a glamorous start with a costume parade on Thursday, November 18, and continue through Sunday, November 21, when dancing to a gypsy orchestra will conclude the festivities.

The hours for this unusual folk festival are 1 to 10 p.m. daily, Thursday through Sunday, at International Institute, 111 East Kirby. Authentic costumes, food, bazaars booths, craft demonstrations, music and dancing will provide constant entertainment.

Trinkets and sweets to trim an international Christmas tree will be among the wide variety of imports offered for sale. Different nationalities will serve dinners and coffee shop snacks each day.

One of the opening day highlights will be a demonstration of linen-making, from the time the flax is gathered in the fields to the spinning and weaving, by a group of Lithuanians in native costume, singing the centuries-old Lithuanian "linen-song" at 2 and 8 p.m. Thursday.

The costume parade will take place at 4 and again at 7 o'clock. Also on the 7 o'clock program is a former star of the Berlin Opera who recently came to this country, Lucy Wisniuskas, who will sing in seven languages.

Center to Show Art Collection

The Detroit and Michigan Artists Memorial will introduce to the public the nucleus of its collection on Wednesday, December 1, at 8 p.m., at the War Memorial Center.

The collection will be shown to a preview audience of sponsors and invited guests.

Beginning December 2, the exhibition will be opened to the public for a period of two weeks. The Detroit and Michigan Artists Memorial was incorporated in 1951 by a group of Detroit citizens to honor the artists of the Detroit area and the State.

Its express purpose is to obtain the works of Detroit and Michigan artists of the past for permanent exhibit and thereby educate our citizens and visitors to Michigan's great leadership in national and world art.

Parcells School Students Presenting Dramatics Night

The curtain will be going up on the fifth semi-annual dramatic production on November 19, at 8 o'clock, at Parcells Junior High School. Students of grades seven, eight and nine have been preparing one act plays and pantomimes.

The seventh grade will do "Elmer and the Lovebug," a comedy about a typical adolescent boy who brings havoc and confusion to his family, but great amusement to the audience viewing his shenanigans.

Elmer is portrayed by David Lindsay. Others in the cast are Sue Ellington, Roma Williams, Caroline Nold, Vita Buccellari, Noel Reschke, Ray Fannin, Karen Kuechenmeister, Gail Sneath and Susan Maxon.

The student director is Marilyn Meech, and the two prompters are Carolyn VanVyncht and Yvonne Takach. The director is Mrs. Joyce Kamps.

The eighth and ninth grade play, also a comedy, is "The Panpered Darling." In this production a troublesome younger brother is suddenly stricken with a strange malady. Some medical experts devise an unusual cure.

Richard DiPalma plays the part of Victor, the younger brother. Other students in the cast are: Emmy Frolund, Cynthia Zdrodowski, Lorenz Earl, Joe Peters, Linda Welch, Sheila Chesman, Linda Weitzmann, Mike Johnston, Robert Hunter, Robert Stiefel, Marilyn Froelich, and Bette Roberts. Miss Shirley Lewis is the play director.

Between the plays two pantomimes will be given. One group, coached by Mrs. Lula Ives, will enact Lord Ullin's daughter. The cast will include Charleen Boza as narrator, with Cornelia Chamberlain, Sharon Dykstra, Myrna Dymmel, Carole Wencelas, David Lundin, Bradley Driscoll, Linda Bom, Phillip Keim, Patricia Haglund, Suzanne Long and Kathleen Vestal.

In the other pantomime, a lonely lighthouse will be the scene of action. The narrator is Barbara Stone. In the cast of the Lighthouse Keeper's Daughter are: Gayle Fox, Regina Choy-nowski, Geraldine Bem, Judy Riley, Sharyn Allardye and Sue Ludwig. The coach is Miss Faith Hallyard.

A varied evening of entertainment is in store for all who attend Friday night, November 19.

St. Clare Ladies Will Hold Sale

Toys, treasures, Christmas decorations and gift items by the hundreds can be found in abundance at the Christmas Gift Shop, on December 5, and all at a modest price.

When the women of the Arch-confraternity of St. Clare met to plan the Gift Shop for Christmas shoppers, they decided the most important thing was to have inexpensive gifts.

Finding things to make interesting gifts at a small price was a real task, however, after months of work the Archconfraternity feels they have the most complete selection in town, at the best possible price.

The ladies responsible for the Gift Shop are: General Chairmen, Mrs. J. A. Schulte and Mrs. T. J. DeCorte; Bake Sale Chairman, Mrs. A. G. Zimmerman.

Booth Chairmen: Apron, Mrs. L. J. Steiner; Religious Articles, Mrs. Joseph Carnaghi; Knit Goods and Handwork, Mrs. T. B. McCarthy; Holiday Decorations, Mrs. C. Alandt; White Elephant, Mrs. C. Burmaster; Jewelry, Mrs. Joseph Feist and Mrs. J. B. McGrath.

Novelty, Mrs. M. L. Mossner and Mrs. C. R. DeFever; Refreshments, Mrs. H. P. Munger; Correspondence Chairman, Mrs. Toby David; Prop Chairman, Mrs. George Hughes; Publicity Chairman, Mrs. William Bickel; Telephone Chairman, Mrs. R. Boyle; Financial Chairman, Mrs. Earl O. Ploof.

Members of the party committees include: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Walker of Vernier road, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. John LeBlond and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Emerson are in charge of decorations, both of Vernier road; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Greenhill, of Country Club drive, will take care of the refreshments, and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Judkins, of Country Club drive, are in charge of the publicity.

Cheese Month Puts Spotlight On Several Delicious Recipes

October, designated as Cheese Month, brought into view several hundred different cheese names. In fact, about one-tenth of the United States milk supply is used in cheese manufacture. According to 1952 records, each person in the United States used five pounds of American cheese, four pounds of cottage cheese, and two pounds of all other types that year.

Cottage cheese is a mild, un-ripened soft curd cheese made from skimmed milk. Because of its mild flavor, it is an excellent protein food for every family. Children, especially, often prefer this cheese over the other cheese types.

Usually, cottage cheese is sold in 16-oz. paraffined cups, or at the meat counter by the bulk. This week, plain cottage cheese in paraffined cups varied in price from 19 to 23 cents and the creamed cottage cheese packaged the same way varied from 23 to 24 cents. Price of cottage cheese in the bulk is about the same as that sold in cups. In some markets, plain or creamed cottage cheese is packaged in glass or plastic containers. These vary in size and weight, and usually cost more per ounce since the shopper pays extra for the container. Most homemakers serve approximately three to four ounces per person, so cost per serving can be easily figured. Dry pressed cottage cheese, used in making cheese cake, was found at 35 cents a pound in cellophane packages.

To manufacture cottage cheese, the milk is pasteurized and then coagulated by adding lactic acid bacteria and rennet. The curd is cut, cooked, and stirred. The whey is drained off the curd, salt is added, and the cheese is used while fresh. To meet federal standards, cottage cheese must not contain more than 80 per cent moisture.

Creamed cottage cheese is the same, except that cream or a cream-milk mixture is added until the cheese contains 4 to 4.5 per cent milk fat.

Listed as a protein food, one serving (about four oz.) of cottage cheese will give 24 grams of protein. That is over 1/3 of the 70 grams recommended for a man each day. At about five to six cents per serving, this means that cottage cheese is one of the most economical protein foods. Just as milk is a good source of the teeth and bone builder, calcium, so is cottage cheese a good provider.

Probably the most used way of serving cottage cheese is as a salad, with either fruit or vegetables. Why not try these tempting recipes soon:

UNBAKED CHEESE CAKE
2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 c. sugar
1/4 t. salt
2 eggs yolks
1 c. milk
2 egg whites, stiffly beaten
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 t. grated lemon rind
3 cups creamed cottage cheese (24-oz.) juice of one lemon

CRUMB TOPPING
2 T. melted butter
1 T. sugar
1/2 c. graham cracker crumbs
1/4 t. cinnamon
1/4 t. nutmeg

Mix together gelatine, 1 c. sugar, and salt in top of double boiler. Beat together egg yolks and milk and add to gelatine mixture. Cook over boiling water, stirring constantly until gelatine is dissolved and mixture thickens, about 10 minutes. Remove from heat; add lemon rind; cool. Stir in cottage cheese sieved, lemon juice. Chill, stirring occasionally until mixture mounds slightly when dropped from spoon. While mixture is chilling, make crumb topping and set aside. Fold egg whites, stiffly beaten, and whipped cream, into chilled gelatine mixture. Turn into 8-inch spring form pan and sprinkle top with

Defer Students Plan Yule Party

The annual Christmas program at Defer School will be held on December 3, at 8 p.m. in the Defer Auditorium. One hundred and eighty children will present songs, dances and orchestral numbers in a program entitled "Christmas At Home and Abroad."

There are several unique features on the program. A Norwegian Song, "Welcome Sweet Christmas" will be accompanied by a dance suggesting Norway's idea of universal love.

Two eight year old dancers, Joyce Klair and Dennis Jones will give an original dance number, "The Merry Hunters," three sixth grade clarinet players, will present most of the evening in musical roles. They are Wayne Wilner, Stuart Halliday and Charles Usher.

Three little girl, nightingales, will lead in a Mexican Song about Christmas. Ernestine Correa, Karen Braman and Donna Frohn are soloists in a song entitled "Benediction."

Julie Vanderpool and Mary Michaelson are the artists on the chimes, while Miss Martha E. Ream is the director and Mrs. Evelyn Kyzivat is the accompanist.

Those interested are invited to attend.

Harmonie Plans Annual Concert

The Harmonie will present its 106th annual fall concert this week Saturday evening at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the clubhouse on Grand River avenue, east.

Dr. Alfred H. Whittaker, Harmonie's president, heads a long list of Grosse Pointers whose names dot the roster of this 106-year old organization; and several are also members of its two choruses.

Robert Kernes, baritone, of the University of Michigan Music Department, will be guest soloist for Saturday's concert, of which Frank Murch is director and Christine Schlorff accompanist.

Grosse Pointers who are chorus members include J. Willard Carpenter, Herman Hielscher, Robert Keydel, Robert Murphy, J. A. Piccirilli, Albert Schlorff, Otto Streck and Mrs. Florence French.

crumb mixture. Chill until firm. Serves 12.
* If desired, 8" or 9" square or 9"x5" loaf pan may be used. Line with waxed paper and press crumb mixture in bottom of pan. Turn in gelatine mixture. Chill until firm. Unmold.

COTTAGE CHEESE CUCUMBER MOLD
1 small cucumber, chopped together with 4 small onion
1 pkg. lemon Jello
1/2 c. hot water
1/2 c. mayonnaise
1 T. vinegar
1 pound cottage cheese
1/2 c. blanched almonds, cut fine

Dissolve the Jello in hot water. When cool, fold in the remainder of the ingredients. Pour into a salad mold. Chill in refrigerator, unmold and garnish with lettuce of water cress. Serves six to eight.

Farm and Garden Association Holds Annual International Tea

The sixth Annual International Tea, given by the Michigan Division of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, took place this year, at the home of Mrs. Standish Backus, 725 Lake Shore road, on Wednesday, November 17.

Proceeds from the tea go to support two projects. The first, the International Farm Youth Exchange Program, is a two-way exchange. Foreign Students come to this country, live and work on U. S. farms, and report back to their sponsors on their experiences. U. S. students go to 40 countries in Latin America, the Near and Far East, South Pacific, Africa and Europe.

Students are chosen by the Agricultural Extension Services in each of the participating states.

This year Farm and Garden helped to send four 4H students, a girl to Greece, a girl to Brazil, and boys to Finland and Israel.

The second project, called "The Christmas Adventures in World Understanding," is, in effect, a Christmas Houseparty for a carefully selected group of foreign students attending U. S. colleges and universities. They will live at the Kellogg Center at Michigan State College, be entertained by farm families in Central Michigan and in homes near Lansing, visit business and industrial concerns, and thus return to their home lands with a broader knowledge of the U. S. than they would have had.

The Counselor of Foreign Students, Mrs. Louise Carpenter, spoke at the tea about her trip last year, when she visited many of the students whom she has helped over the years, in their homes, in Asia, India and Europe.

Those assisting Mrs. Backus as hostesses were: Mrs. Ward Detweiler, Miss Marie Louise Anderson, Mrs. Ernest Brier, Mrs. Vincent DePetris, Mrs. Frank W. Goldie, Mrs. Albert Griffith, Mrs. Alvan Macauley, Mrs. Wallace MacKenzie, Mrs. Lynn Mac-

Naughton, Mrs. Wilson Mills, Mrs. Doty Worcester, Mrs. Henry P. Williams and Mrs. J. A. Mullin, all of the Grosse Pointe Branch.

Town Hall Books Hawaiian Movie

Color movies of Hawaii will be shown at Detroit Town Hall by Yew Char, native Islander, Wednesday morning, December 1 at 11 o'clock in Fisher Theatre.

In his beautiful film, Yew Char has captured the fascinating life of the people of Hawaii. He will show pageants, legends, and the scenic wonders of the Islands.

As an added attraction, orchids flown from Hawaii for the event will be given to the first 1000 Town Hallers to arrive at the theatre for the program.

Girl Scout News

"A Girl Scout is Loyal" will be the theme of similar "Scout's Own" programs, Sunday afternoon, November 21, to be held from 3 to 4 p.m. at three Pointe churches for local Girl Scouts. The churches are: Congregational, Pointe Methodist and Woods Presbyterian.

"Scout's Own" is a non-religious but serious program, planned by a committee of Scouts with the help of an adult volunteer. Brownie, Intermediate, Tween-age and Senior Scouts will actively participate in each program.

A special guest speaker has been invited to give a brief address on "Loyalty to One's Ideals" at each program: Dr. C. G. Browne, associate professor of psychology at Wayne University, will speak at the Presbyterian church; Captain M. N. Fister at the Congregational; and Captain T. S. Bagaley at the Methodist church.

The latter speakers are pilots in the U. S. Air Force, currently assigned to teaching in the R.O.T.C. program at Wayne University. Both have served overseas.

Troops assigned to the program at Congregational church include all those which meet at Kerby, Maire and St. Clare schools, and those which meet regularly at the church. Mrs. Paul Blackburn will direct the program.

Troops assigned to meet at the Methodist church include all those which meet at Pierce, Trombly, Defer and Richard, and Senior Troop 843. Mrs. F. E. Griefenstein will direct this program.

At the Presbyterian church,

Mrs. George Britton in charge, will be troops which meet at Percells, Monteith, Mason, Ferry, Vernier, and St. Paul schools, and Senior Troop 579.

The Girls Scouts of Pierce Junior High School visited the Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village, on Tuesday, November 16.

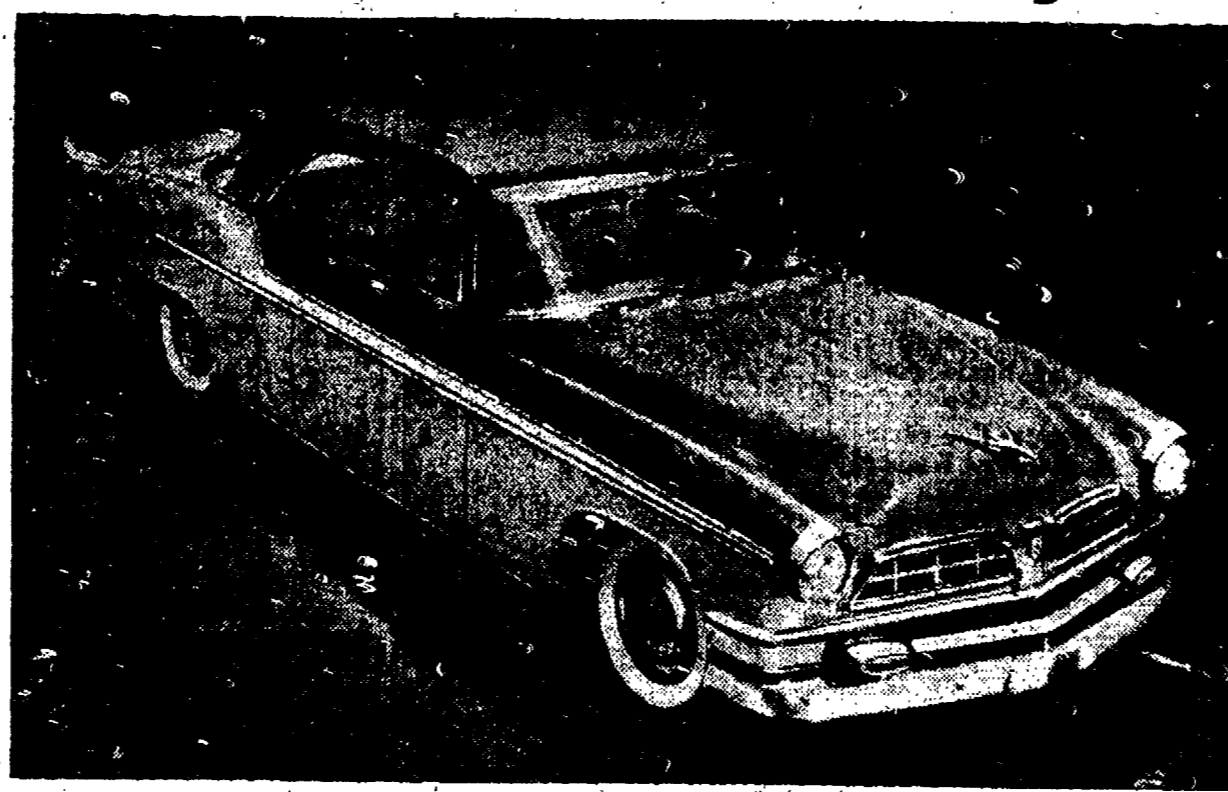

The group with Mrs. Michael Andrews in charge visited the craft shops where weaving, pottery making and cooperage are demonstrated; the homes and early workshops of such famous Americans as Noah Webster, Luther Burbank, the Wright Brothers, and William Holmes McGuffey; and such nostalgic landmarks as the oldest windmill in America, a wooden covered bridge and an old paddlewheel steamer. They are all a part of the rambling 200-acres that make up Greenfield Village.

One of the highlights of the trip for the 14 students and chaperons was a visit to Thomas Edison's menlo Park (New Jersey) Laboratory, where the great wizard developed some of his most significant contributions to science; the phonograph, electric light and carbon transmitter.

While touring the Henry Ford Museum, the class visited the transportation section housing 165 automobiles. These represent virtually every significant development in steam, electric and gasoline engine transportation in the field. Other transportation exhibits include locomotives, bicycles and airplanes.

The Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village are open all year round.

1955 New Yorker Deluxe St. Regis

The completely new, long and lean 1955 Chrysler was shown publicly on Wednesday, November 17 in 3,200 dealer showrooms coast to coast. New in the Chrysler line for 1955 is the St. Regis hardtop which features a new concept in two-toning. Five new exterior color combinations are offered with interior colors matching or harmonizing. With a new 250-horsepower FirePower V-8 engine, 126-inch wheelbase and new superscenic windshield, combined with dramatic styling and color, the St. Regis offers the utmost in performance and beauty.

Boat Club Plans Monthly Party

The Detroit Boat Club will be the scene of another "party of the month" on Saturday, November 20, at 8 o'clock.

The theme of this party is to be "South of the Border" and the decorations are being carried out very colorfully in that theme.

Music for dancing will be provided by Eddie Schick, who features his accordion.

Committee members include Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Nagel, of Park lane, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt, of Fisher road; Dr. and Mrs. Carlisle F. Rueger, of McKinley road; Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon L. Drennan, of Merriweather, and Mr. and Mrs. Stokes Gillespie, of Washington road.

To Give Supper Following Opera

Reservations have been made for the opera "Aida," on November 20, after which Mr. and Mrs. Louis Leisinger will entertain at supper, in their McKinley road home.

The following guests have been asked: The Robert Sholtys, of McKinley avenue, the William Evans, of McKinley avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Kelbie, of Moran road, the Charles Trapps, of Fisher road, the Robert Warmbolds, of Bishop road, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Poppert, of Pemberton road, Mr. and Mrs. Carl VanGallow, of Ridgmont road, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutton, of Mt. Vernon avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Smith, Jr., of McKinley avenue, and the James Vaughans, of McKinley.

Advice Offered To Homemakers

Marketing & Consumer Information Agents suggest using the Wolf River and Jonathan apples available now for Party Baked Apples.

PARTY BAKED APPLES

1/2 c. dark corn syrup
1/4 c. water
1/4 t. cinnamon
1 t. grated lemon rind
1 T. butter
2 T. sugar
4 large baking apples

Meringue
1 egg white
2 T. sugar

Combine first six ingredients and bring to a boil. Remove from heat. Core apples; pare upper half. Place in baking dish. Pour hot syrup mixture over apples. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 1 hour or until tender, basting frequently. Remove from oven. Beat egg white until foamy; gradually beat in sugar. Top each apple with meringue. If desired, insert blanched shredded almonds in meringue and dot with chopped, drained maraschino cherries. Return to oven and bake 15 minutes longer.

stew seasonings are marjoram, thyme, basil, savory, rosemary, dill seed, caraway seed and garlic. Along with onions, salt and pepper, of course. For Curry Pot Roast, sprinkle meat with curry powder and sugar before browning (1 T. curry and 1/2 t. sugar). For Swiss Steak, add a little Worcestershire sauce and some sugar to the tomatoes.

According to Marketing and Consumer Information Agents, butternut squash is becoming one of Michigan's favorite vegetables. Distinguished by its unusual shape and dull yellow color, shoppers will find it solid flesh. The flesh is never stringy and is almost as sweet as the sweet potato. Try this new baking squash.

Sigma Kappas of Pointe Hear Reports, Plan Party

Mrs. Ned Macaddino, of Elford court, was hostess Wednesday, November 17, to the Grosse Pointe Sigma Kappas.

Mrs. Calvin Hall gave a report on the bridge party held recently for the benefit of Exceptional Children.

Mrs. Else Bauman gave a report of the Sorority's Founders' Day banquet, held on November 8, at which authoress Lillian Budd was the guest speaker.

Plans were made for the group's Christmas party to be held December 15, at Mrs. Else Bauman's home.

Pantry Shower Planned By Brothers' Auxiliary

The Christian Brothers' Auxiliary will hold a pantry shower for the Christian Brothers at St. Joseph's High School, Orleans and Grafiot, on Sunday, November 21, from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The affair is under the chairmanship of Mrs. Francis Reed.

Carrier Landings Made By Cadet John W. Weed
 Naval Aviation Cadet John W. Weed, son of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Weed, of Neff road, has successfully completed a series of aircraft carrier landings aboard USS Monterey, Pensacola, Florida. John is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and attended Trinity College and University of Michigan. He writes he expects to spend the coming holiday season with his family.

Plan Bake Sale At St. Michael's
 The women of St. Michael's Episcopal Church are again planning an Autumn Bake Sale, which will take place in the new Parish House on Saturday, November 20, from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. In addition to the usual variety of baked goods this year, there will also be offered for sale, chicken pies, assorted novelties, casseroles and home made candies.

Engaged
 Ma and Mrs. Charles Beste of Manchester boulevard, announce the engagement of their daughter, CHARLOTTE CECELIA, to Leonard F. Killiszewski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Killiszewski of Alpena, Mich. The bride-elect attended Dominican High School. A late April wedding is planned.

Parents Form Organization To Meet Needs of Children
 The first meeting of the Parents of Exceptional Children in Grosse Pointe was held last week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bockstanz. The newly organized group is comprised of parents with children who are limited in their capabilities. Aware of the growing need for their children, these parents are meeting with the hope of acquainting the community, and other families with similar situations, of the social and educational aspects of the exceptional child. Believing that many Grosse Pointe parents will welcome the opportunity of knowing of the limitations of youngsters other than their own, and the value gained in sharing experiences, has led to the formation of the group. The second meeting is scheduled for December 8, details to be announced later. Any parent interested in this group is urged to contact Mrs. John Bockstanz, TU 2-8816, or Mrs. George Wedge, VA 4-3013.

Saturday Dance For the YWCA
 An exhibition of folk dances of other lands will be the evening's special feature at the YW's Cosmopolitan Club's dance Saturday night, Nov. 20. Held in the sixth floor club rooms at Central Branch YW, 2230 Witherell street, the Cosmopolitans' Saturday night dances are open to all young men and women. Dan Barber's trio will play from 8:30 until 12. A "Harvest Moon Square Dance" is planned for the following Saturday, Nov. 27. Don Dornkatt will call the square dance.

Dance to Honor College Group
 The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will welcome college students home for Thanksgiving. "Harvest Holiday," a dress-up orchestra dance, will be given at the Center, Friday evening, November 26 (night after Thanksgiving), from 9-12. The band will be Roston Clark's. The dining room will be set aside for light refreshments and tables set up informally for "gab fests." The local college committee, Jan Gelhaar, Judy Zeeb, the Foster Brothers, John Corey and Earle Lyon, hope to see all you Pointe Collegians there, whether you're going to school in town or are back for the holiday.

St. Joan Church To Hold Dance
 St. Joan's Church is planning a square dance Saturday, November 27, from 8:30 to 11:30, in the Church Auditorium, Overlake at Mack, St. Clair Shores. This is the second in a square-dance series sponsored by the church. Julie and Wes Rea, of Hampton road, are doing the calling for this and future squares, which will include January 29, and April 23, 1955. The planning committee includes Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Luber, of Hawthorne road, chairmen; Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, of Byrs drive; Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Masserang, of Beaufait avenue, Mrs. J. Harold Meech of Hawthorne road, and Mrs. Norman Lodewyck, of Beaufait avenue.

Professors Write Creed For Good Teaching

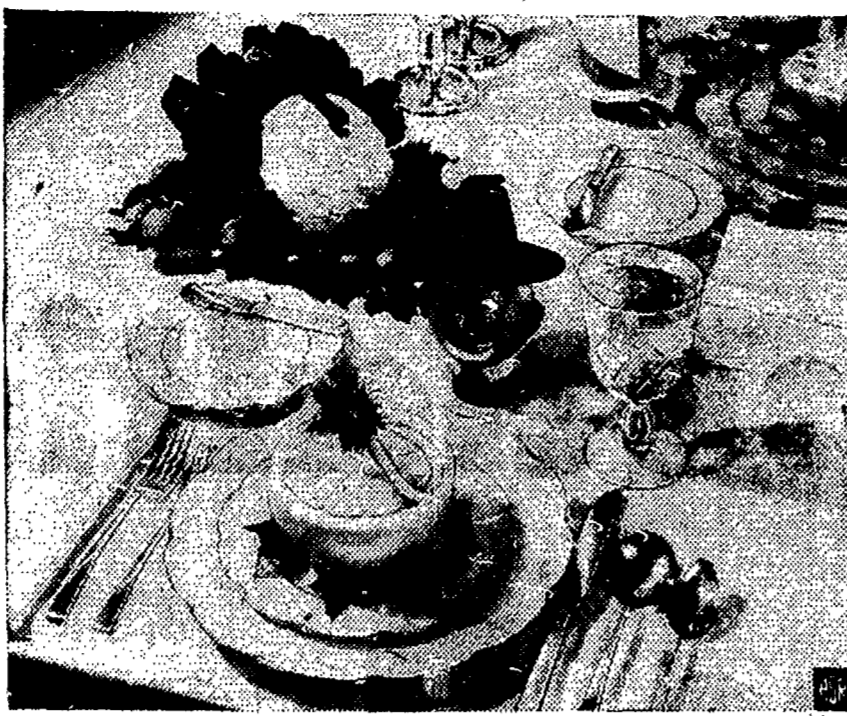

ANN ARBOR—Every good teacher will ask himself, from time to time, how clearly he is aware of the principles on which he is acting.

One of the best ways for him to find out is to state his beliefs in such a way as to point up contemporary issues in education. Recently three professors of English at the University of Michigan, Warner G. Rice, A. K. Stevens, and Bennett Weaver, tried this exercise and produced the following Michigan Teacher's Creed.

I believe that:

- (1) The teacher is not one who heads exploring parties wandering over strange lands; rather, he is a guide who knows the trails and leads travelers to a sure destination.
- (2) We teach that which we are: through the character of the instructor the manners and morals of students are influenced and formed.
- (3) Education should help students to distinguish between right and wrong; it should lead them to prefer the right over the wrong.
- (4) Unless the teacher triumphs over popular dogmas which insist that morals are a matter of statistics, that environment dominates will, that the normal is preferable to the excellent, and that self-interest is man's master motive, the efforts of schools to train character will come to nothing.
- (5) The one is more important than the many, the permanent more precious than the changing; wherefore, as a teacher I must help individuals to find and to adopt those values which are lasting.
- (6) The teacher must bring students to realize that self-expression demands discipline, and that advantage is indissolubly linked with duty.
- (7) Although many people define the practical in terms of material and corruptible treasures, the teacher dares to define it only in terms of life's highest and most enduring satisfactions.
- (8) The creative powers of the mind and the passion for excellence are greatly to be encouraged.
- (9) The teacher will not be concerned with practice to the neglect of principle; in personal habits and in public deeds, in ethics and in citizenship he knows that by indirection we find direction out.

Grapefruit Gobbler For Turkey Dinner

Give thanks that this country grows those wonderful bracing grapefruit, and use the fine thin-skinned Floridas now in market generously through your holiday meals. Low in cost, high in nutrition, they're perfect symbols of the bounty of the land and as such deserve an honored place on the festive board.

Grapefruit makes a wonderful first course for Thanksgiving dinner, since the rest of the meal is liable to be on the heavy calorie side. Make attractive baskets of your halves and tie tiny mums to the handles. Use the whole grapefruit as the body of a handsome gobbler, and make place cards of the first fresh Florida oranges. Here are the easy steps for these novel ideas:

- Grapefruit Baskets
Cut Florida grapefruit in half. To make handle, insert two toothpicks 1/2-inch apart on opposite sides of grapefruit. Cut through peel 1/4-inch below edge, leaving space between toothpicks uncut. Loosen fruit from membrane by cutting around each section, and around outside edge. Lift handles, tie together.
- Turkey
Insert three wooden skewers in grapefruit for legs. Cut four rows of deep slits for fanned-out tail. Insert thick leaves (as rhododendron) for tail feathers, placing smallest leaves in front, longest in back, and trim tips with scissors. Make two deep slits on sides for wings; insert two leaves in each without trimming tips. Cut gash for head and wattle. Make head of shelled almond with pin inserted in bottom to hold it in place. Use coxcomb, or pimiento for wattle. Cut scallops, bending them outward, to represent breast feathers.
- Placecards
Insert two cloves in orange for eyes. Make shallow cut on two sides of triangle for nose and bend resulting flap outward. Cut smiling mouth out of skin. Neck for orange to rest on is strip cardboard, with ends glued together to make ring. Cut hat from heavy black paper.

Top Artists to Appear In Concert Series at U.D.

Two Grosse Pointe men have been instrumental in lining up some top stars of the entertainment world to appear under the auspices of the Detroit Concert Series, Inc.

A special concert series featuring Dorothy Kirsten, Yehudi Menuhin, Alec Templeton, Dorothy Maynor, Richard Tucker, Marge and Gower Champion, Ballafonte and the Voices of Walter Schumann and the Broadway cast—Barry Sullivan, Lloyd Nolan and John Hodiak—of the "Cain Murtin Court Martial" will be presented in the University of Detroit Memorial Building.

Local men involved include Lewis M. Cromwell, 946 Balfour, of Olympia, Inc., and Thomas A. Emmet, 1452 Bishop, director of public relations for Sonja Henie in Michigan and Ohio.

The concerts will begin in January at 3 p.m. Sundays in the U of D Memorial Building, running through Easter Sunday.

The building will seat 7,500 with parking facilities available for 5,000 automobiles.

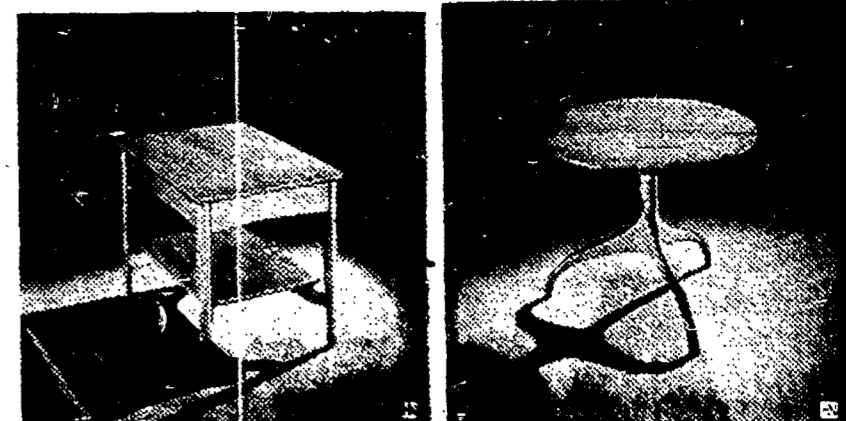

The concerts will be staged by the Detroit Concert Series, Inc., headed by Harry V. Gilbert, chairman of the wartime USO entertainment committee; W. Nicholas Kerbawy, general manager of the Detroit football company and Mr. Cromwell and Mr. Emmet.

Special Travel Program Prepared for Children

The Detroit Institute of Arts and the Children's Museum of Detroit are cooperating in presenting a special travel program for youngsters at 10:30 a.m., Saturday, November 27, in the Lecture Hall of the Art Institute.

Dr. Katherine Chamberlain of Wayne University, who traveled 12,000 miles through Europe on a six months' visit, will show colored slides and talk on Italy, France, Spain, Belgium, the Netherlands, Germany and Switzerland. The program is free.

Stain Proof Table Tops

The remarkable thing about these tables is that they are topped with Genuwood, which is selected veneer laminated in plastic. They are impervious to stains and burns. End table (left) is 22" high and has a drawer and shelf for storage. The lamp table (right) is 21" high. Both are constructed of Walnut and Cherry woods. (Heritage-Henredon)

CADILLAC for 1955

Presents the Most Beautiful and Finest Performing Motor Cars in Its History!

The spectacular new Eldorado, a dramatic interpretation of the new Cadillac styling, offers many unique features, including a new 370-h.p. Cadillac engine.

This is one of the most significant new-car announcements in Cadillac history. For it introduces to the world's motorists the most magnificent creations in Cadillac's fifty-three years of motor car production. Three new Cadillac series are offered for your consideration in 1955—the famous Series Sixty Special, the beautiful Series Sixty-Two, and the distinguished Series Seventy-Five . . . in addition to the spectacular new Eldorado. They are, as you can readily see, magnificent in beauty—with a new, jewel-like grille and front-end assembly . . . with dramatic and graceful new sculptured side styling . . . and with added dignity and bearing in every detail. They are magnificent, too, in performance. There is a new Cadillac engine, the most powerful ever offered in a production motor car . . . an improved Hydra-Matic Drive . . . advanced Cadillac Power Steering . . . and, as an option at extra cost, refined Cadillac Power Braking. And they are magnificent in luxury . . . to a degree unusual even for Cadillac. Their interiors are almost unbelievably beautiful . . . and they are offered in a remarkably wide selection of gorgeous new fabrics and leathers. Beyond any question, these new Cadillac creations represent a new Standard of the World—and we urge you to see and inspect them today in our showroom. You will be most welcome—and we know you will find your visit one of the most interesting experiences of your motoring life!

Civil Air Patrol Plans Operation

Group 3, Squadron 1, Wing 63 of the Civil Air Patrol, will hold the first of a monthly series of Search and Rescue Missions, Operation Wake-Up, on November 21, at 9:15 a.m.

An alert will come through from Wing headquarters that a plane has crashed near Romeo, Michigan, at which time the squadron will set up operations at the Joy airport.

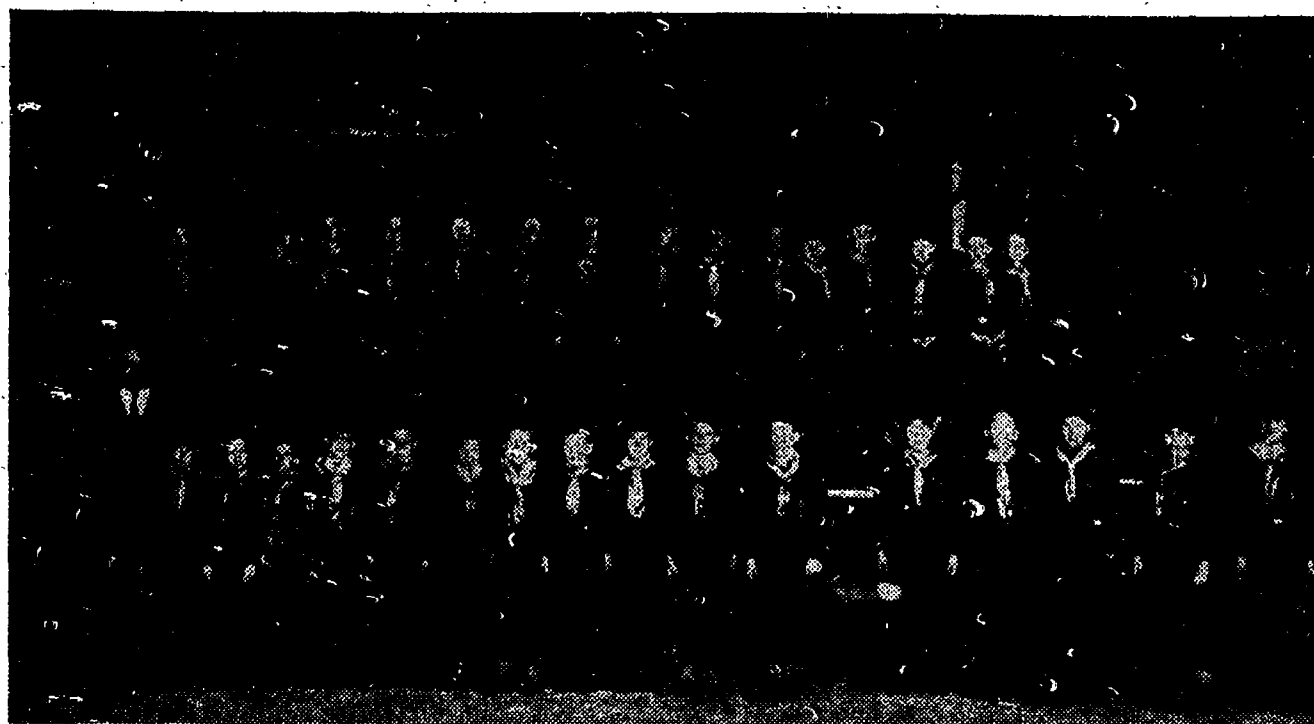

When the theoretically crashed plane, a marked car, is located by the searching plane, a rescue squad is rushed to the scene to care for the injured. Both units then return to the operation headquarters.

All who would care to become part of this great organization can call the squadron's Public Information Officer, Lieutenant Bunge, at TUxedo 5-3905, before 4 p.m., or Sergeant Higgins at TUxedo 5-8786 after 4 p.m.

Public opinion in a democracy means everything—without it nothing can succeed.

Cub Scout Pack Guests of Selfridge Field

Besides being shown the latest in jet fighter equipment, the cubs toured the ready hangars in which they are housed.

Pilots from one of the fighter squadrons, under the direction of Major Grimm, demonstrated to the open-eyed cubs, the use of all the clothing and equipment worn and carried by a pilot while flying his plane.

A survival kit was inspected and the use of emergency radio and pioneer equipment, carried by the pilots, was demonstrated.

The tour ended with the cubs having lunch in the air force mess hall.

Farms Officials, Educators To Study Parking Problem

Three Farms officials will attempt to meet with at least two members of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Saturday, November 20, at a place to be determined, to discuss the possibility of reaching a satisfactory solution of the city acquiring additional land for the parking lot at the rear of the Kercheval business district.

The Farms committee to meet with the members of the Board of Education includes Mayor William Connolly and Councilmen William Kirby and Richard Maxon.

If the committee can get at least two members of the Board to meet with them, they will confer at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, either at the Municipal hall, at the Board of Education Building, or the Gabriel Richard School building.

The Farms committee would like to find out what the school officials have in mind regarding the closing of McMillan road, in exchange for a strip of land adjacent to the Muir road property line, needed for ingress and egress to the municipal parking lot from Ridge road.

Several businessmen from the Kercheval district have been invited to attend the meeting.

The meeting will be informal.

Optimists Plan To Honor Champs

Members of Grosse Pointe High's State Championship football team will be honored at a Testimonial Luncheon to be held at the War Memorial Center on Tuesday, November 23, under the sponsorship of the Grosse Pointe Optimist Club.

President Bob Wood and his program chairman Lon O'Connor have made arrangements to seat 250 guests with the program getting underway at noon. Tickets for Blue Devil alumni are available by calling TU 4-1213.

KERCHEVAL AT ST. CLAIR

First Drug Store Given New Look

A big celebration to mark the re-opening after extensive remodeling and re-decorating of the Notre Dame Pharmacy, Grosse Pointe's pioneer drug store, will take place on Saturday of this week. The grand opening hours, according to owner George S. Knuff, will be from 8:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Gifts and favors await all who visit the store on Saturday. There will be a goodly supply of the new "animal" balloons for children accompanied by adults. Gifts include generous samples of fine toiletries.

Notre Dame Pharmacy was established 32 years ago at its present location, 17000 Kercheval avenue, corner of Notre Dame. Its founder, Herman Foersterling, who sold the store to Mr. Knuff 18 years ago, is still a Grosse Pointe resident and is now in his 92nd year.

For many years it was the only store in Grosse Pointe with a sign that extended over the sidewalk. Restrictions against "stick out" signs were not in effect until sometime after the store was established. In remodeling the building Mr. Knuff removed the old sign and now has a wall type sign which conforms with all other shops in the busy Village area.

Among other changes made in the store was the elimination of its soda fountain which had been a popular place of rendezvous for shoppers, students and merchants through the years. Greatly enlarged quarters for the compounding of prescriptions made it necessary to confine the balance of the store's space to drug sundries, toiletries and accessories; stationery, tobacco, newspapers, magazines and other merchandise. Compact as the store is, and it must necessarily be kept compact because it occupies a valuable site, it is now one of the most modern and best equipped in the Village.

News from GPUS

It is characteristic of most schools in the year 1954 that they are interested in what is called "audio-visual" equipment.

Grosse Pointe University School is in that group. Heading the audio-visual department is science teacher Andries Cole.

At the beginning of the school year Mr. Cole staged an "open house" for his colleagues at which he set forth for their inspection all the machines and devices that might be useful in the various classes.

Movie projectors, record players, tape recorders, film strip projectors, opaque projectors were just some of the items whose use Mr. Cole explained and urged.

Mr. Cole also heads a student activity group in which he teaches pupils the use of the various machines and projectors and makes these young men and women available to teachers to assist them in the programs they present.

Those programs in the audio-visual field are, it should be stressed, not to be considered as entertainment (though they may be entertaining), but as a supplement, a teaching aid, to the course

Planned Storage for Bedroom

Utility and storage space keynote this bedroom grouping. The eight drawer dresser, the bookcase headboard bed, and the one drawer night tables provide a place for everything. The finish on this Contemporary grouping is a spicy ginger color. Note too the unusual window treatment. (United Furniture Corporation) that an individual instructor is conducting.

Thus the history department uses a film in color concerning The Bill of Rights when it deals with that phase of the Constitution; elementary school teachers will show a film on How Animals Defend Themselves; athletic coaches will show films about the sports they direct; and many teachers will use movies discussing topics like citizenship, fair play, and good study habits.

Wellington Grimes, principal of the boys' division of the upper school at G.P.U.S., spent several days recently in New York City as did also Bertram Shover, director of the lower school, at the annual conference of the Educational Records Bureau. Mr. Shover is completing his fourth year as a member of the Bureau's Committee on Tests and Measurements.

The big item of news from Grosse Pointe University School these next few days will be, at least for the boys, the Thirteenth Annual Fathers' and Sons' Football Banquet next Tuesday night, November 23.

Speaker at the event will be Coach Fromhart of the University of Detroit who will show movies of a recent U. of D. game after his talk.

The occasion also honors members of the various football squad. Letter winners will get their awards on all levels—Midgets (grades 4, 5, 6); Juniors (7, 8); Junior Varsity (8, 9, 10); and Varsity (10, 11, 12).

The project is under the direction of the Student Council, and letters have gone out from council president Edgar Howbert to all fathers of boys from the fourth through the twelfth grade inviting them to be present at the event.

Representing G.P.U.S. at a recent conference of high school students supporting the work of the American Red Cross in Detroit were Elizabeth Pearce and Allen Wilson, both of the 12th grade.

Mrs. Ruth Lynch and Mr. John Conley of the G.P.U.S. French Department attended the Saturday sessions of a week-end conference devoted to the teaching of French, held November 12-14 at Haven Hill Lodge near Pontiac under the sponsorship of the Detroit chapter of the American Association of the Teachers of French.

Featured speakers at the event were M. Pierre Donzelot, head of the Ambassade Culturelle de New York and M. Jean Beliard, French Consul in Detroit (M. Beliard, incidentally, lives in Grosse Pointe at 611 Fisher, and his daughter Diana attends the G.P.U.S. nursery school.)

Bit by bit the complications involved in getting started in the new school buildings are being eliminated. The industrial arts building is now in operation, as is the dining-room. The most difficult phases of adjustment to the surroundings of a new school appear to have been completed.

Tours Resumed At Plymouth

The Plymouth Motor Corporation assembly plant at Detroit reopened for public tours Wednesday, November 17, and thousands of visitors may watch the building of the all-new Plymouth cars for 1955, William J. Bird, general sales manager, announced.

During the past year, over 36,000 visitors have registered at the plant at a rate of 225 a day.

Tours have been discontinued since mid-August, when the plant closed for an extensive re-arrangement of facilities to produce the new line of cars. The plant, which has the world's greatest productive capacity under a single roof, is producing cars at the rate of three a minute.

Tours are conducted at 9 a.m. and 2 p.m. daily, Monday through Friday.

Adding an extra filip to the occasion, the Grosse Pointe Camera Center has photographers on hand to take pictures of the local residents as they make their first entrance into a new Chrysler car. The pictures are Polaroids and the finished print will be handed the subject as she or he returns from the free ride around the neighborhood.

Tea Being Served

Inside Jacobson's main entrance a huge tea table has been set up. The four large cakes which are focal points are attractively iced with the names of the four chief products of the motor car manufacturer, Chrysler, Dodge, DeSoto and Plymouth.

Here too, each afternoon, Wednesday through Saturday, from 2 to 4 o'clock, will be Miss Mary Lou Chapman, automotive stylist and fashion coordinator for the Chrysler Corporation. She talks about the Forward Look, with the accent on Color, Line, Fabric and Accessories.

Miss Chapman is an expert on fashions and styling. Her knowledge of both cars and clothes is neatly tied together. She has samples of fabrics and drawings to illustrate her talks.

Has Broad Education She is a graduate of Bennington College in Bennington, Vt.,

MISS CHAPMAN where she majored in art before receiving her B.A. degree. Following graduation she spent two years in France studying fine arts in Paris and fabric design in Fontainebleau. She also studied design at the Cranbrook Art Academy.

Miss Chapman traveled six months with Chrysler's million dollar automotive show "New Worlds in Motion," visiting cities from New England to the Deep South. She has appeared on many radio and television shows and is also a fashion show commentator. She writes articles and authors the weekly column which appears in many papers throughout the country, "Women and Wheels."

One of her latest public appearances was at the Canadian National Exposition.

Note These Hours The display of new cars at Jacobson's is open from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m., with special lighting accenting the night exhibits.

The Camera-Center photographers are on duty at the same hours the free rides are available, from 10 to 12 and from 1 to 4.

Himmelhoch's store in The Village is also cooperating by joining with the Wally Auch Agency in staging a special Chrysler display at this time.

Fisher-Record is displaying a 1955 Chrysler in the lobby of the Woods Theater from November 17 to November 23. This dealer is also giving away a New York holiday for two persons, all expenses paid, in conjunction with the showing of the new models.

Just Fill Out Card There will be a drawing in the company's showrooms on Monday night, November 29. All anyone has to do to be eligible is visit the showrooms and fill out a card.

No obligations are attached.

The winners will leave for New York from Willow Run at 12:45 p.m. on Friday, December 23, via Northwest Air Lines on a Stratocruiser. They will stay at the Waldorf-Astoria, see the current Broadway hit "Pajama Game," dine and dance at "The Latin Quarter." There will be a complete tour of New York City.

Transportation to and from Willow Run will be provided in a 1955 Chrysler. The return trip will be made on Sunday, December 5, arriving at 11:30 p.m.

FARMER'S FRIEND

MICHIGAN'S agriculture produces approximately 10 percent of the State's income!

And, to the Michigan farmer, motor transport is next in importance to the land itself. Over 80,000 trucks are hard at work on Michigan's farms—vital tools in all phases of farm work.

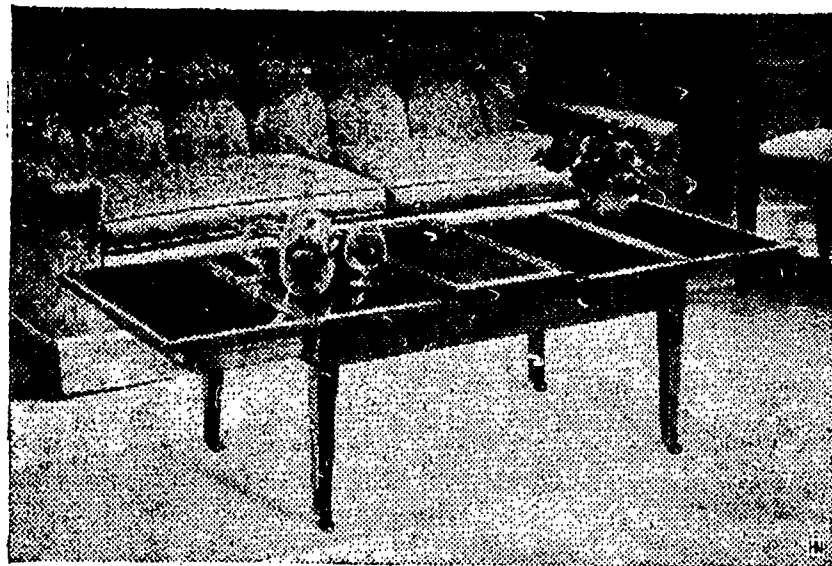

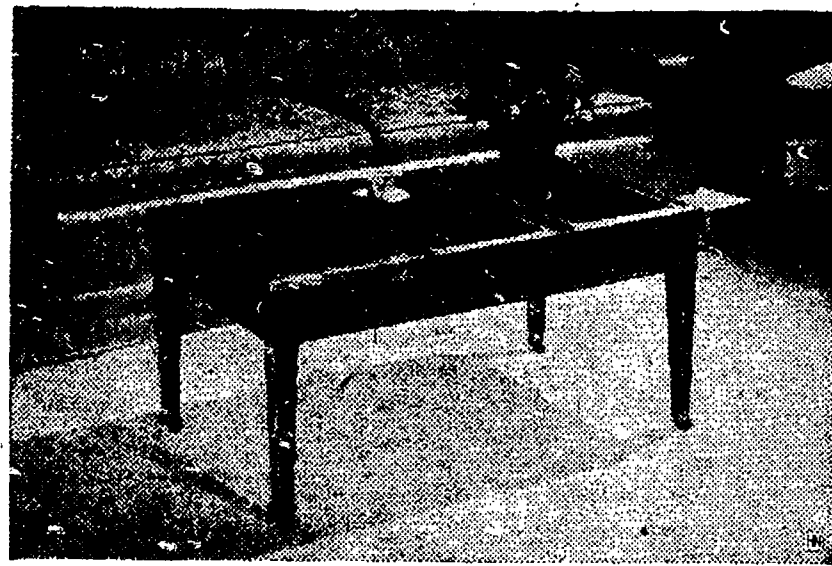

Not only are trucks indispensable to the farmer in the successful operation of his farm—trucks also form a vital link to the outside world.

The town or shopping center where the farmer does his buying is stocked by trucks and trailers which operate 'round the clock to bring him and his family—swiftly and economically—an ever wider selection of the necessities and luxuries of life.

Market Tips For the Cook

Special holiday meals coming in November and December mean more careful planning of all other family meals. Marketing & Consumer Information Agents of Michigan State College suggest poultry as one of the best meat buys on the market. Stewing hens are plentiful and low in cost and several markets are still featuring fryers at slightly higher cost than stewers.

The pork market has strengthened, and there are sufficient supplies of all cuts of pork. Roasts are good values—particularly the cuts of loin roasts. Cured hams are offered whole, but most are cut into either the shank or butt half, with the butt end selling at about 10 cents more a pound than the shank. Most pork shoulder is cured and sold in three cuts—Boston butt, cottage butt and picnic hams. A few markets are featuring fresh shoulder hams at a relatively low price.

Beef remains about steady in price and supply. Ground beef, chuck, and liver give good returns for money spent.

Fish—both smoked and fresh—are priced to fit most shoppers' pocketbooks.

Eggs are a wise protein buy! When a dozen eggs cost less than a pound of lean meat, eggs are a better protein buy. Especially the medium-sized eggs remain tops as one of the best food buys. For low cost, choose these highly nutritious fall vegetables to go with holiday meals: cabbage, carrots, yellow or white onions, Irish potatoes, sweet potatoes and rutabagas. All are Michigan grown except the carrots, which are being shipped from California, and the rutabaga, which is being shipped in from Canada. All are of excellent quality now.

CAMERAS CATCH PICTORIAL NEWS OF INTEREST FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

GOING UP—Joseph Rosenstock, director of the New York City Opera Company, coaxes a brace of high C's from a quartet of sopranos who will sing leading roles when the company opens its season at New York's City Center. The girls are (left to right): Sarah Fleming, of Columbus, O.; Susan Yager, of Albany, N. Y.; Marguerite Willauer, of Boston, Mass.; and Frances Yeend, who hails from Washington State.

MINK GOES TO HER HEAD—This young lady is up to her ears and over in mink—since her head has been "be-minked" with a mink hair tone by Tintair. Statistics show that three out of every five women in the country tint, bleach or dye their hair, with no one being the wiser.

ROMAN DRAPE—A red velvet suit has unusual treatment at the hands of Italian designer Ferdinand. The slim, straight skirt is topped by a double-breasted jacket with soft, unpressed pleats that achieve a draped effect, and buttons that start below the waistline. It can be worn with or without a blouse.

WINTERTIME COMFORT—For those warmer winter days when you must wear a heavy coat against the early morning chill, a cotton dress like this is ideal. Styled by Fashion Frocks, the herringbone cotton twill is dressed up with a black velvet collar and bow, and big shiny buttons.

MINING RECRUIT—John Hughes, 17-year-old of The Bronx, New York, is pictured here on the property of the Colorado Mining Company in the Rockies. The teenager has just spent six weeks as guest of the mining company. He won the opportunity in a nation-wide contest designed to attract high-school students to the study of mining engineering, a field in which a critical shortage exists.

CAST IRON IGLOO—A workman welds steel struts in a 40-ton igloo-shaped cast iron upper exhaust hood at G.E.'s turbine factory in Schenectady. The hood is part of the first of six 200,000-kilowatt steam turbine generators being made for a new plant of Ohio Valley Electric Corp.

WATER MOBILE—A visitor has to coax his dog to drink from this crazy, mixed-up fountain in the watchmaking city of Bienna, Switzerland. Part of Switzerland's first exhibition of contemporary sculpture, this mobile is kept in motion by water jets that strike its wheels and discs.

INTERMISSION FISHIN'—This fancy fisherman is singer Lauritz Melchior, who's dragging a good-sized catch outside his dressing room at the Jones Beach Marine Theatre on Long Island, where he is appearing in "Arabian Nights." In between appearances on stage, Melchior, who is cast in the leading role, does some casting of his own.

AFRICAN BAKER—A Swahili proudly displays the loaves of bread which he baked in a crude tin oven, using a shovel to bank it with coals. The bread was baked for columnist Robert C. Ruark's safari through the Dark Continent. The trip was filmed in color and will soon be released under the title, "African Adventure."

FISHERMAN'S FIND—Michael Williams, 11, of Galien, Mich., holds his prize 40-year-old "catch," an auto license plate he found in a stream where he went fishing for minnows. The 1914 relic, made of porcelain, is white with red numerals and in the upper left corner bears the seal of "The Great State of Michigan." The license is in surprisingly good condition.

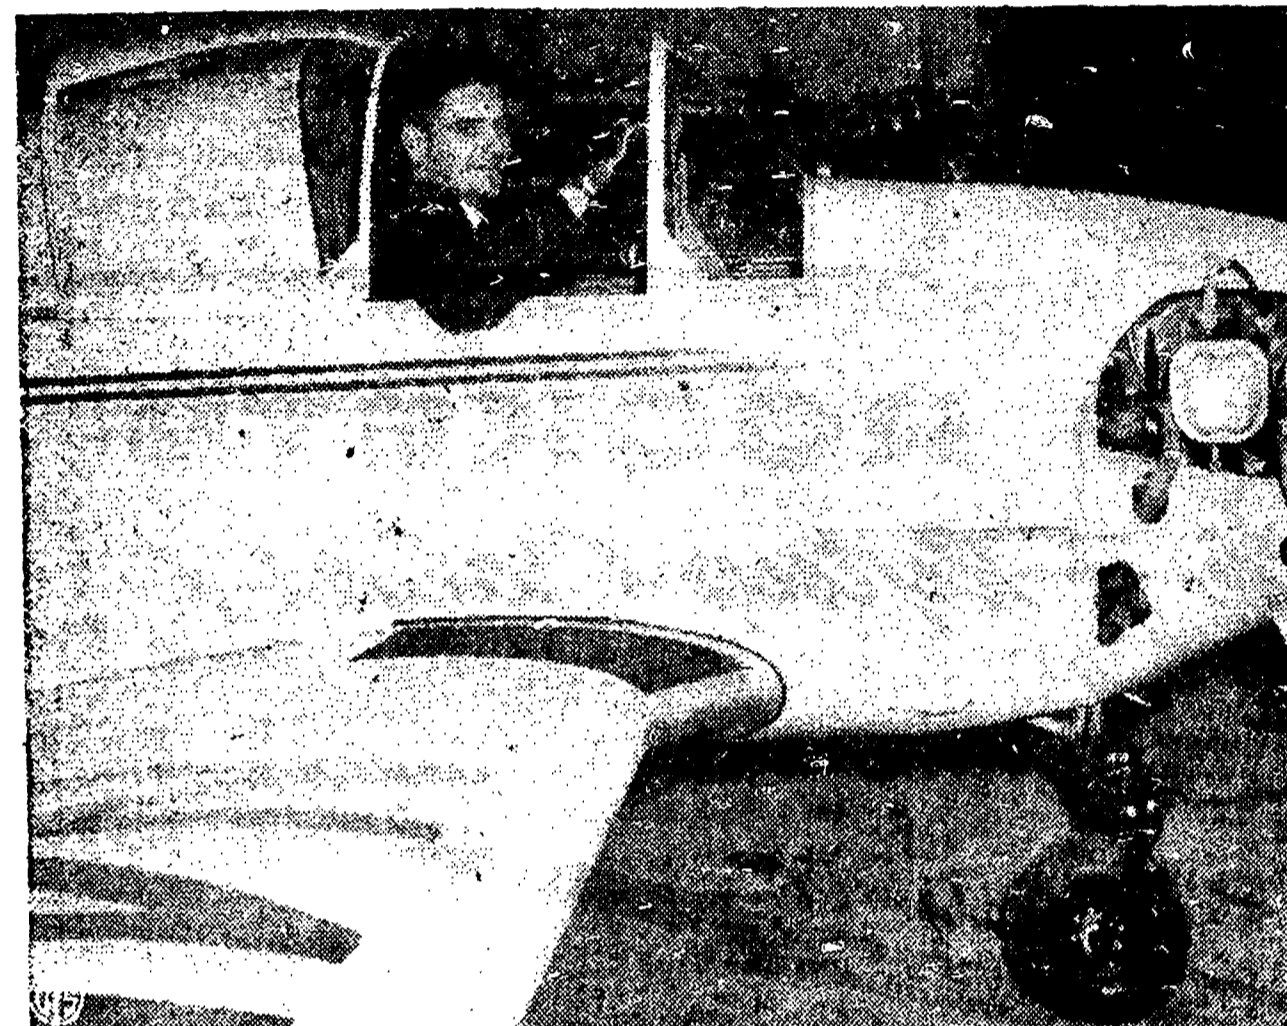

VISITING CHIEF—Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson (right) is welcomed by Mundy I. Peale, president of Republic Aviation, at plant's airfield, Farmingdale, N. Y. Nation's defense chief made a flying visit to inspect production facilities for Air Force planes.

BEMUSED AND BEMEDALLED—This wee bonnie lassie, seven-year-old Gloria Dawn Thomson, proudly shows off her medals to an admiring group of her contemporaries. Gloria won the badges in the children's Highland gathering at Eggham, Surrey, in England.

GRANDFATHER FRANCO—Running the government of Spain takes a back seat to baby-sitting chores, as Generalissimo Francisco Franco watches over his grandchildren as they play on the beach at Caudillo. And grandfather Franco seems to be enjoying the job of baby-sitter.

A HEART WITH WINGS—A man who refuses to be grounded, despite the fact that he lost an arm in the Korean war, is Vincent Foley, a history teacher in New York City. After three schools refused to accept him, Foley entered the Amityville Flying Service School. After only 14 hours of instruction he soloed in a Cessna monoplane. He's now a chief warrant officer in the Civil Air Patrol. You just can't keep a good man "down."

MEMBERS OF THE WEDDING—Well-behaved wedding guests at Aberdeen, South Africa, are honest-to-goodness lions in a cage where lion-tamer Buble Miers, 49, and Numeri Kilian are wed in one of the most-unusual ceremonies of matrimonial history. Mayor Wilke of Aberdeen, owner of the zoo, stands by. Behind the couple is a three-tier wedding cake which the animals seem very interested in.

REALLY MUSHROOMED—Mushroom fancier Laddie Kroeck gets some help from Forest Park, Ill., tavern chef, Mrs. Barbara Polivka, after a big discovery. The tapemeasure reveals that a giant mushroom he found in a nearby wooded area is 63 inches in circumference. Its weight is 16½ pounds. Four other big ones he found at the same time are in the foreground. After the calculations, Mrs. Polivka got busy in her kitchen.

moderate modern traffic on roads "that are 20 years behind the times." They expressed hope that the plan does not involve too many loans, as the states can borrow at cheaper rates than the Federal Government.

INASMUCH AS THE MAJORITY of Michigan voters showed opposition to bingo, State Representative Willard I. Bowerman, Jr., (R) of Lansing, stated that he will present a bill at the 1955 session of the Legislature to outlaw betting on horse races.

He said that if gambling is permitted in one form and not in another, it is discrimination. Under his proposal, persons betting on horses will be subjected to a $2,500 fine and up to two years in prison. Similar bills have been killed in the Legislature on many occasions.

Sunday, November 14

THE KREMLIN has been making "alarming progress" in Latin America and the Communists are still active in the area, House investigators disclosed. The House group, a special subcommittee headed by Rep. Patrick J. Hilling (R, Calif.), set up to investigate Communist aggression in South and Central America, recommended increased financial aid to countries south of the border to help combat the Red threat.

While its study showed considerable concern and alarm by the Red gain, this was offset somewhat by the inspiration and hope engendered by the liberation of Guatemala.

SIXTEEN PERSONS were feared dead after a terrific explosion, followed by fire, rocked a coal mine in Farmington, W. Va. One person was killed while working outside at the entrance shaft and 15 maintenance workers were trapped deep in the mine and assumed dead. Cause of the explosion was not determined immediately. The blast sent a huge mushroom-like cloud of black smoke belching from the 545-foot-deep mine shaft.

THE UNITED STATES and Japan have announced a $100,000,000 American surplus farm commodity program for Japan. The State Department revealed that commodities with a market value of $85,000,000 will be sold to Japan for local currency. Commodities costing $15,000,000 will be delivered to Japan as an outright grant to be used in support of the school lunches and clothing programs. Most of the proceeds of the sale will be used for Japan's "domestic economic improvement."

GAMAL ABDEL NASSER, premier of Egypt, became the undisputed strongman of the country. Egypt's governing Revolutionary Council, following an early morning clash between police and demonstrators of the fanatical Muslim Brotherhood, deposed Maj. Gen. Mohamed Naguib as president and Council chairman. A government spokesman said that a leader of the Brotherhood who had been captured at the scene of the riot, confessed that Naguib had approved an attempted assassination of the premier. Nasser has been appointed acting president and chairman of the council, until a new chief of state can be named.

THE CHINESE REDS scored the first big naval triumph, when four Chinese Red torpedo boats sank the Nationalist escort, Taiping—formerly the USS Decker. The Nationalists fear that this may signal more clashes with the torpedo boats, described as Russian-built.

The clash took place 30 miles off the coast of Red China's Chekiang Province. All but 28 of the Nationalist ship's crew of 180 men were rescued. Peiping Radio's account of the sinking was that the Taiping was on a "nuisance raid."

BRITAIN LINKED HER ECONOMY to the rest of Europe when she quietly revealed that she will join the coal and steel pool. Official sources revealed that Prime Minister Winston Churchill's cabinet has approved the draft of a treaty "of association" between Britain's coal and steel industries and the six-nation continental pool — the Schuman Plan.

The draft treaty is now being reviewed by the pool's membership governments, which will vote on its acceptance November 22.

Tuesday, November 16

THE UNITED NATIONS was informed by the United States that 220 pounds of fissionable materials, enough for one atomic bomb, has been set aside by this Government for peaceful purposes throughout the world.

It was the first time in the atomic age that the United States has offered to ship so much atomic materials outside its borders on a mission of peace. An informed source stated that the 220 pounds is sufficient to supply 30 to 40 reactors. The announcement of the donation was made known by U. S. Chief Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge Jr.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER asked the Senate to approve the treaty which will rearm West Germany and which will bring 500,000 German troops into the Western Defenses. Specifically he requested that the Senate consent to the ratification of the treaties which restore the sovereignty of West Germany, admitting her into the "one for all" and all for one" North Atlantic Treaty Organization.

In a message he said that these treaties were founded on the profound yearnings for peace which is shared by all the nations of the Atlantic.

Cass Offering New York Hit

"Oh, Men! Oh, Women!" isn't a preachment. It doesn't intend to set the world upside down, or right side up, or anything of the sort. It hasn't a message to its name.

It was written by Edward Chodorov for the sole purpose of entertaining audiences. And that is precisely what it has been doing this past season in New York, entertaining them with liberal doses of laughter and a rich mixture of men and women in all the complications they can create in their pursuit of one another.

With Ralph Bellamy starred. "Oh, Men! Oh, Women!" opened a two-week engagement at the Cass Theatre on Monday evening, November 15. Patrick O'Neal, Jan Gray, Larry Blyden, Peggy Cass and Henry Sharp have other leading roles in the comedy which was staged by Playwright Chodorov.

"Oh, Men! Oh, Women!" narrates the troubles encountered by Dr. Alan Coles, a psychiatrist on the verge of matrimony who manages to get thoroughly tangled up with his patients, his fiancée, and their various problems. Before he is done the good doctor finds his own affairs in such a mess that he barely manages to extricate himself by the third act curtain.

Science Church Plans Thanksgiving Service

Christian Science Society, Grosse Pointe Farms, will hold a special Thanksgiving service on Thanksgiving Day at 11 o'clock, in Kerby School, 285 Kerby road.

Following the usual order of service there will be a brief period in which members of the congregation may express their gratitude for healings and other help which they have received during the past year.

In 1939 the Navy had only 80 destroyers—30 in the Atlantic and 50 in the Pacific. Today there are 125 destroyers in the Pacific alone.

50 MILLION CARS

comes an all-new General Motors masterpiece

PONTIAC FOR '55

The 1955 Pontiac is getting a royal welcome. "It's hot," they're saying all over America, "the hot car of the year." And no wonder! With its striking Vogue Two-Tone styling and dynamic Strato-Streak V-8 engine, Pontiac wraps up more beauty, luxury, size and power than a like amount of money ever bought before. The price is near the lowest, but the car is way out front in everything that makes an automobile great.

The reason lies in General Motors' vast experience. Research experience that uncovers what you want and need. Design experience that creates new trends. Engineering experience producing more dollar-for-dollar quality.

That's the background of this All-New General Motors Masterpiece. Come in, drive it, and find out what it means to you. Let your own eyes tell you that here is the smartest car on the highway. Let your own hands report its new handling perfection. And let the great new Strato-Streak V-8 whisper its own sensational news of flashing get-away and compelling power. Then get the story of Pontiac's new thrift and reliability—and how little it costs to buy this future-fashioned beauty.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How to Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone.

DEFER SCHOOL

Mr. Donald Mansen, the new fourth grade teacher was in the coast guard service before he became a teacher. This enabled him to travel extensively as he has been in Florida, Cuba, Mexico, Alaska and the Aleutian Islands.

At the present time Mr. Mansen is taking two courses and hopes to do more traveling as soon as time permits.

Mrs. Beulah Crockett traveled in Northern Michigan this past summer. Another recent trip was to Florida.

At the present time she is taking a course of Great Books Master Literature. Mrs. Crockett feels that fine literature broadens one's teaching ability. She says, "Working with Children is rewarding."

Miss Martha Hoke, came to Defer School just a year ago. Her second grade pupils treat her as if she had been with them always. Miss Hoke spent her last summer at Ypsilanti State Normal College, where she took three courses of advanced study.

Mrs. Catherine Goodnuff has taken two courses recently to keep herself growing as she works with children. "Mrs. Kay" as she is called by her second graders, likes to travel and her most recent trip was in upper Michigan. "Mrs. Kay" and her children told me that they were very interested in reading in their room. The children say "Mrs. Kay" understands them. "Mrs. Kay" says that the children are fun.

Trombly Cubs To Give Show

Trombly School PTA will be sponsors to a show that Cub Scout Pack 86 is presenting next Tuesday night, November 23 at 7:30 o'clock, in the Pierce Junior High School Auditorium.

The Cubs are presenting the Hey-o-ka-Wa-Cipi Indian Society War Dancers and a music program by Saunder's Dixieland Band.

The Cubs, Brownies, Girl Scouts and Boy Scouts of Trombly School are all selling tickets. The admission price is 50 cents.

At a Trombly PTA meeting last Monday night John White announced the show. The Den Mothers of Pack 86, Mrs. Hubert Bohle, Mrs. Nick Longo, Mrs. Walter Probst, Mrs. Warren Traf-ton, Mrs. Leland Carter, Mrs. Walter Brennan, Mrs. Leonard Link and Mrs. Carl Berndt, were on hand to sell tickets to the PTA members.

Education Week Draws Parents

During American Education Week 359 parents visited Mason School. In many instances the parents received invitations which informed them of the daily schedule in their child's room and invited them to visit at their convenience.

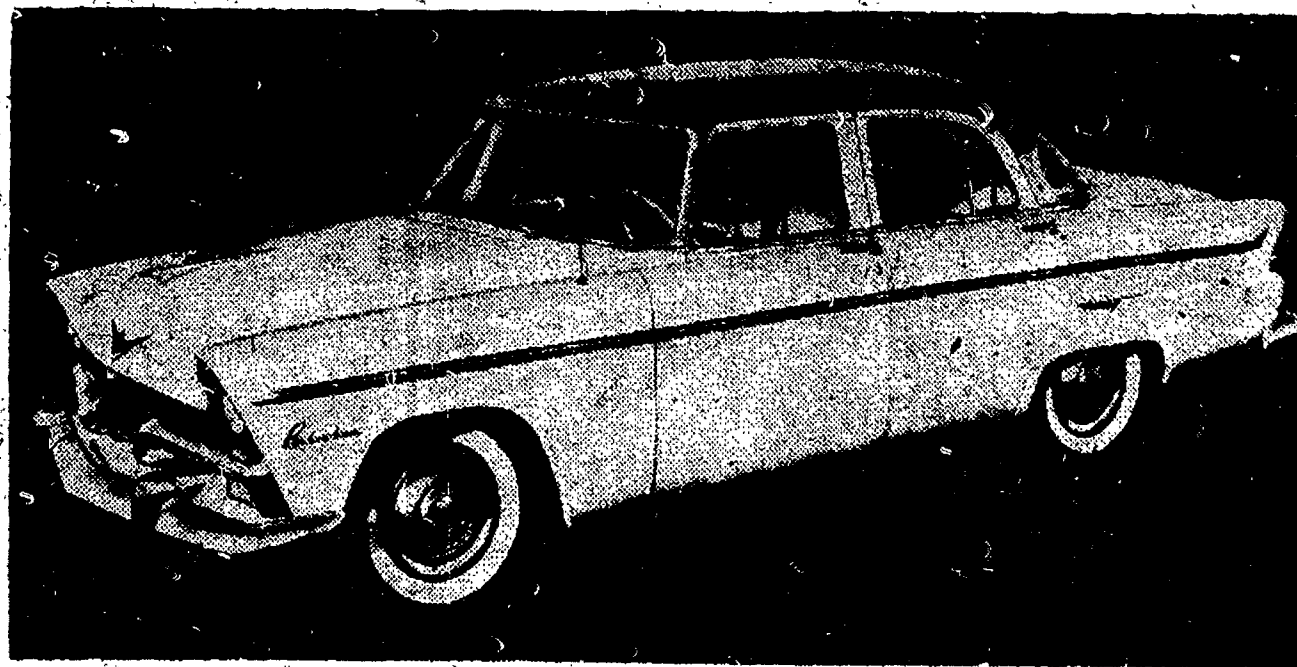

The many parents who visited Miss Pauline Sagala's class watched as she taught a lesson in silent reading with her class. Parents also saw illustrations of the way in which a first grade teacher builds and increases the eight vocabulary of six-year-olds.

Also incorporated into Miss Sagala's one-hour demonstration was work designed to help the boys and girls in associating letters and combinations of letters with their sounds.

During the week, Mrs. Agnes Weitzel met with just the parents in her class. This group discussed how the child's learning was influenced—either impeded or enhanced—by outside activities such as television, clubs and cooperative family projects.

As part of their reading program the second graders in Mrs. Lorna Kowal's class presented a play for their parents. Following the play they served bread and butter which they had made in school on previous days as an outgrowth of their study of food.

New Plymouths Bigger in All Ways

Plymouth's completely new 1955 cars are lower, wider and more than 10 inches longer than previous models. With either a PowerFlow Six or Hy-Fire V-8 engine, they are the most powerful cars Plymouth has ever built. They are available with a full range of automatic and power-assist devices, including electric window lifts and power front seat adjustment. Pictured here is the Belvedere 4-door sedan.

It's always much easier to float a rumor than to sink it. A man's character is determined by what he says no to.

The Backbone Of Grosse Pointe's State Champions

football team to the BCL, Suburban and State championships, we nominate Coach Ed Wernet as "Coach of the Year."

Because of Coach Wernet and his wonderful 1954 state champions, the Blue H-Y has dug into the past and pulled out the dusty plans to obtain an electric football scoreboard for Grosse Pointe High. The club, under the sponsorship of Mr. Ernest Bauer and the leadership of President Tom Ireland, has formulated plans for a large scale Christmas wreath-and-tree selling program during the coming weeks.

The Builder Of Champions

On his record of producing the first Grosse Pointe football team to annex the Border Cities League, the Detroit Times Suburban and State Class "A" and Free Press Class "A" titles and winning Grosse Pointe's first BCL baseball championship in history COACH ED WERNET vaults into contention as Michigan's "Coach of the Year."

FEWER HIGHWAY DEATHS
The downward trend in Michigan traffic deaths which began in January continued in September, according to the State Police monthly report. There were 164 persons killed during the month, a reduction of 22, or 12 per cent, under the same month last year. Injuries and accidents also went down. Injuries amounted to 2,743, a reduction of 336, or seven per cent, while accidents totaled 14,040, a decrease of 804 or five per cent.

Blue Devils Discovering Everyone Loves Champions

"Build a better mouse trap and the world will beat a path to your door step." That old axiom has been twisted around a bit by Coach Ed Wernet and his State Championship football team. Wernet's version of the phrase is: "Build a better football team and everyone beats a path to your door step."

That is just what is happening these days at Grosse Pointe High School since the Blue Devils annexed the first State title to ever be awarded to this community.

Called "Pushovers" We remember in years past when the school on Fisher road was by-passed annually when the bouquets were handed out at the end of each season. The Pointers always were considered "pushovers" by every opponent on their schedule. That was before Coach Wernet and his assistants, Ernie Bauer and Bud Kurvink, stepped into the picture.

Reminiscing a bit, we recall the years of 1944 and '45 when the Blue Devils football team was held scoreless in sixteen games. That is until the last minute of the last game of 1945.

Finch Averts Shutout
At that time, end Dick Finch, gimpy knee and all, out foxed the opponents secondary and snared a pass ten yards from the goal line and hobbled into the end zone for the first Grosse Pointe touchdown in 767 minutes of play. The try for the extra point was missed but the Pointers had averted another shutout.

In 1946 Coach Wernet took over the questionable fortunes of the football team amid the condolences of his employers and almost every local grid fan in the community. At that time Wernet was told, "We don't expect you to win but do the best you can and we will be happy."

Wernet, still regarded as the best all-around athlete to come out of Grosse Pointe High, didn't take all he heard to heart and began the tremendous chore of instilling a "will to win" in the hearts of Grosse Pointe's "cake eaters."

That was nine long years ago. Coach Wernet believes the "break" came when "Pig" Flaughter kicked a field goal in the fading minutes of the Fordson game, on the local field in 1949, to break a 13-game "jinx" the Tractors had enjoyed.

The second "big break" came last Fall when the "cake eaters" from Grosse Pointe tripped up Port Huron on their own field and snapped a 26 game winning streak and robbed the Hurons of the 1953 State grid title.

Now Get Spotlight
That big win, coupled with the Devils' perfect season of 8 straight victories, has turned the spotlight directly on the school of Fisher road and turned the "cake eaters" in State Championships.

In nine years Coach Wernet not only has become the top high school grid mentor in the state but he has compiled an enviable record in other sports, namely basketball and baseball.

team that won the Border Cities League title with a record of 11 wins and 2 losses.

That was the first time Grosse Pointe had gained that honor in ten years. Many Pointe cage fans scoffed and said Wernet "inherited a championship cage team." So just to prove how wrong they were Wernet came back with a record of 10 victories and 4 losses to take second place the following year.

The 1948-'49 season produced 9 wins against 6 losses, which was good for a second place tie and set the stage for two of Grosse Pointe's greatest basketball years. In 1949-'50 a record of 13 victories and 2 losses gave the Border Cities League title to the Pointers again and they advanced to the Regional finals before bowing out of the cage-picture.

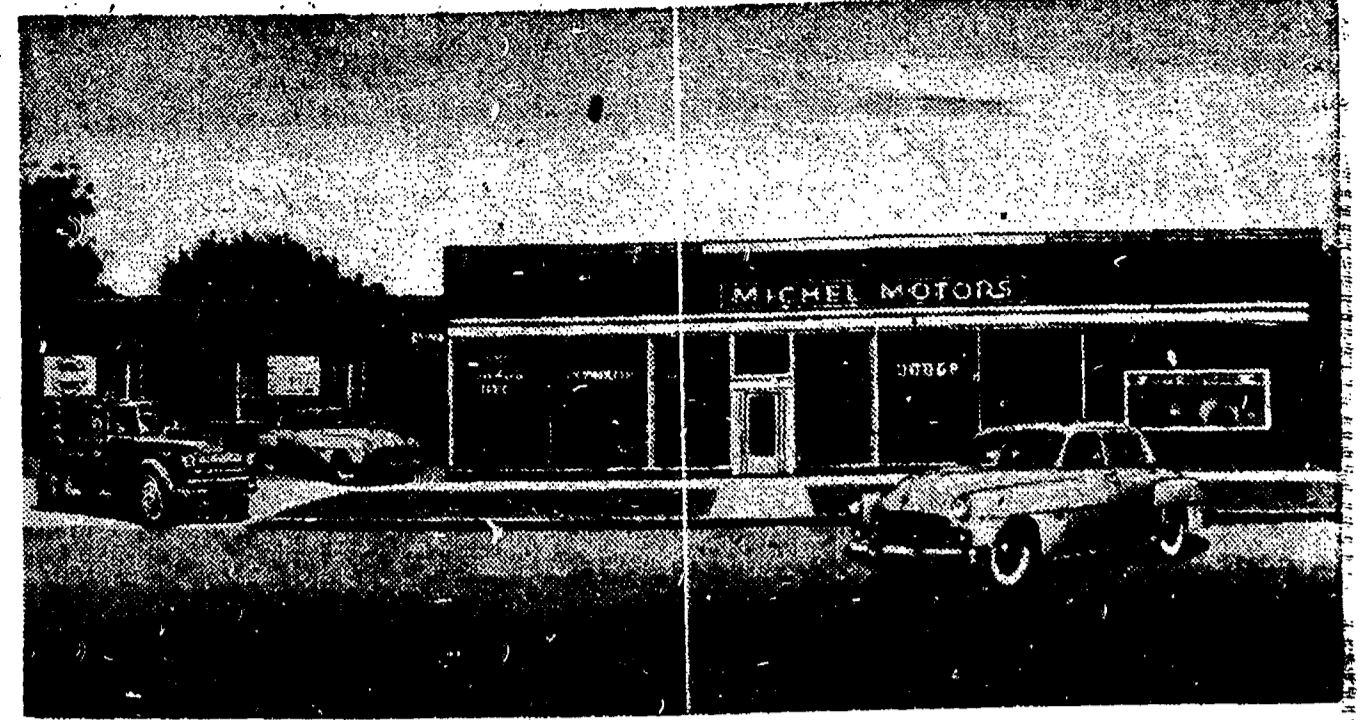

The following season, 1950-'51, Wernet piloted the Pointers to 12 wins and 3 losses to repeat as BCL champions and became Regional champions also.

Knowing he was to lose the bulk of his championship team, Coach Wernet refused to step down from his cage post and turn a green team over to the new coach, Howard MacAdam, and suffered his worst season, which saw the Devils lose 11 and win only 3 games.

To further prove we have a "builder of champions" in our midst we proudly point to Wernet's achievements with the Devil baseball team, which he took over in the spring of 1953.

Up to this time the Devils had never won the BCL title. In 1953 the Pointers won 4 and lost 6 to tie for third place but the following year, 1954, the Devils won the title for the first time in history with a record of 7 wins and 3 losses.

On his 1954 record alone, of leading the Blue Devils' baseball team to its first title and the study of two courses in Wayne University.

One hot summer day Mrs. McKaig was met by a good friend at Wayne and the friend found her most enthusiastic about the work she was doing there. It was wonderful to see a teacher's spirit so high in study and growth in her chosen profession.

Miss Carol Hulbert had a restful time in Massachusetts after her summer counseling in a camp in Vermont. Miss Hulbert graduated from Wheelock College, "Chiefly," says Miss Hulbert, "With the hope of helping young children find satisfaction and fun from learning." Miss Hulbert still finds teaching a satisfying challenge. At the present time she is taking a course through Wayne University.

Last, but not least, we would like to focus the Defier Spotlight of fine educators on the principal of the school, Mr. Fred Kerby. The gentle ease of his relationship with children is noticeable. In this, his teachers have a fine example to follow.

At the present time, Mr. Kerby is taking a course in Public Relations through Wayne University. One of Mr. Kerby's hobbies is harness racing.

Few parents or pupils know that Mr. Kerby has had training in law as well as his educational work, or that he studies in Europe. Few people know that he keeps his hand in the teaching end of education, by helping youngsters privately.

TROMBLY SCHOOL
The Service Squad Girls of Trombly School are again organized to assist their school mates in developing habits of conduct and safety in the school and community. Service girls hold a responsible position and learn to appreciate the importance of dependability, alertness, and cooperation. They are always watchful of safety in the school, on the playground, and at home.

The Service Squad Girls meet weekly; the flag salute and songs are followed by safety discussions, personnel assignments, and safety skits. The Squad contributes each year to the Torch Fund and Junior Red Cross.

Mae Fuller, fourth grade teacher, is the Service Squad sponsor and works with the girls in carrying on their meetings and in their safety work. Jennie Lungershausen is the captain of the Service Squad and the following girls are one her squad: Barbara Wozniak, Linda May, Janice Tatti, Karen Horry, Nancy Coulter, Marilyn Jerome, Joanne Phillips, Juanita Douglas, Dawn Schafer, Barbara Purdy, Carlyne Pfau, Rosanne Mocerri, Mary Short, Nancy Miller and Janet McIlhargie.

Jean Baer is the lieutenant with these girls on her squad: Susan Peabody, Judy Maynard, Karen Bartling, Betsy Court, Cathie Chase, Barbara Young, JoAnn Kraetke, Christine Finn, Christine Perkins, Merry Morgan, Tina Macpherson, Sharron Sullivan, Kay Stiegler, Holly Moody, Joyce O'Brien, and Betsy Lawrence.

KERBY SCHOOL
This semester 15 of the 20 teachers on the Kerby School staff are taking graduate courses offered by the University of Michigan, Michigan State College, and Wayne University.

Several Kerby teachers also took graduate courses during the past summer at various universities.

Nine teachers are taking advanced work in Audio-Visual Education. This course is taught by Dr. Schuller of the University of Michigan and is of a laboratory nature, utilizing equipment and materials available for Grosse Pointe usage.

Five members of the Kerby staff are taking a graduate course in Mental Hygiene offered by Wayne University. This class is taught by Mr. Barahal of Wayne University.

Another staff member is taking a course in Elementary Curriculum Construction taught by Dr. Fox of the University of Michigan.

MASON SCHOOL
Approximately 300 parents visited the classrooms at Mason School and attended the first program of the P.T.A. for the 1954-55 season.

It was a getting acquainted occasion for both parents and teachers. The program was designed to help parents become more acquainted with the task the public school is doing.

Miss Tucker introduced the teaching staff and one member from each grade level told some of the aims, procedures and accomplishments of that grade. Speaking for the kindergarten, Mrs. Mary Rea discussed the transition of the child from the small family group to the large class group.

Miss Tucker introduced the teaching staff and one member from each grade level told some of the aims, procedures and accomplishments of that grade. Speaking for the kindergarten, Mrs. Mary Rea discussed the transition of the child from the

Miss Pauline Sagala told of the glorious moment in first grade when the child experiences the thrill of learning to read. There are many steps from the time a child recognizes his first word until the time he reads a whole book.

Mrs. Agnes Weitzel explained how learning is organized to meet the child's mental, physical and emotional needs. The second grade child is innately interested in his community at that age; therefore the community forms a basis for the learning program.

Miss Mary Ann Prince told of the great broadening of interests at the third grade level. This comes about with the introduction of maps, science and English textbooks and the whole field of social studies as well as the addition and subtraction facts.

Miss Clare Gustafson discussed fourth graders' absorption with people and places all over the world. The fourth grade reading goal is to equip the child with a good reading ability so that he may use books along with experiences to acquire the information he seeks.

Miss Mercedes Merrill pointed out that on the fifth grade level the study of the United States cities or towns, the cooperative sportsmanship of physical education class, and the work of the Service Girls and Safety Patrol as well as decimals and fractions all are directed toward the development of good citizenship and democratic living.

Miss Patricia Fausnaugh explained the music program at Mason.

Following the program William Hancock, president, announced a coffee hour. Mrs. Kenneth Smith and Mrs. Ernest Chielens poured. Appreciation for the wonderful homemade coffee cake goes to Mrs. Robert Brines, Mrs. Cecil Conway, and Mrs. Frederic Steiner.

by wboozii

A shop in the Pointe makes a specialty of ceramic ash-trays with paw imprints of your favorite pooch. The artistic motif . . . immortalizing doggie's footprints just the way Grauman's Chinese Theater does with humans out Hollywood way . . .

The last figures aren't in yet . . . but we hear Christ Church's Christmas Fair topped its $30,000 mark this year! . . .

A private plane brought three ladies to the fair from Dayton, O. They said, "We sponsor a 'Little Exchange Shop' in Dayton and it takes our workers all year to make $30,000. We just wanted to see how that amount is made in a day." The visitors were Mrs. James Cox, Mrs. George H. Mead and Mrs. Walter Carr.

One of the cute little black Cocker Spaniels, auctioned at the Fair, was bid in by John B. Ford and he turned it over to Rev. Erville B. Maynard . . . who looked pleased as Punch! . . .

Two hundred and ninety-five chicken pies were sold just like that! . . . It wasn't hard to figure out what the Pointe was having for dinner last Thursday evening!

A gentleman visiting the Fair looked about him at the various hair-do's for the ladies and muttered, "Ye gods, that Audrey Hepburn has a lot to answer for!"

Virginia Ford III and Frederick C. Ford III, two of the littlest and cutest customers at the Fair . . . toting huge balloons and drinking pop a mile a minute . . .

When the Kitchen Booth had just one jar of jelly left . . . Mrs. J. Rex Queeney decided it was time for the booth to become mobile . . . She dashed out in the crowd and sold the last jar quick as a wink . . .

At the end of the long and busy day glimpsed: Mrs. Edward H. Jewett II, Mrs. George N. Munro III, Mrs. John N. Lord, Mrs. Alexander L. Weiner . . . in bright and pretty cotton gingham frocks . . . discussing what a wonderful sale their Christmas Decorations Booth had had . . .

Mrs. Milton Volken explaining just what those cute and velvet little carpet sweepers were for . . . "After TV sessions, pop corn being what it is."

Mrs. Hiram Walker making one last round . . . gilded Christmas wreath tucked under her arm . . .

John P. Frazer, the dapper one . . . with white carnation in his overcoat lapel . . .

PILFERINGS

From a New York paper's Letter to The Editor column: The recent decision to advance the opening of the Capitol's Christmas season, with the President presiding at the lighting of the White House Christmas tree on Dec. 17 instead of Dec. 24, prompts this letter.

According to Press Secretary James C. Hagerty, President Eisenhower has moved up his schedule at the request of the Washington Citizens Committee "to permit the committee to have an expanded Yuletide program lasting over a week to dramatize the theme of 'peace on earth and good will toward men.'" . . .

Apparently the committee fails to realize that the Christmas season as such provides almost two weeks in which to dramatize the ageless Christmas message. For Christmas is more than just a day. Christmas is a season lasting from midnight, Dec. 24, to Epiphany Eve, midnight, Jan. 5, sometimes known as Twelfth Night.

What better time is there for an "expanded Yuletide program than the twelve days of Christmas?"

Pointer of Interest

MRS. JAMES GARZA OF MERRIWEATHER ROAD

By Jane Schermerhorn

Legend has it that the Pointe is a land of mink coats, champagne parties and square cut diamonds.

Yet today's Pointer of Interest saves turkey wishbones (and asks her friends to do the same), big corks from old bottles, and even the rollers after the paper toweling has been used.

She uses tops of tin cans and coat hangers in table decorations and feels the whole thing's a dismal flop if her friends aren't complimenting her on how little she's spent for the decor of a tea party.

Mrs. James Garza, of Merriweather road, isn't a miser, at all. To the contrary, she's a great-hearted gal who just happens to have artistic background and an interest in parties that raise funds for worthy causes and therefore can't have a big budget for table decorations.

Her school days at Society of Arts and Crafts and the Chicago Institute plus her own creative talent combine to make pretty-as-a-picture articles from the items we mention.

Looking Ahead We got on Mrs. Garza's trail as she started her Christmas shopping for 1955 this month.

This is not a mis-statement because as chairman, with Mrs. Howard Girardin, of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church's Christmas Shop, Fair of 1955, now is the time she must gather the materials that will emerge as beautiful house and tree decorations.

Those wishbones are boiled and wound in gay satin to hang on Christmas trees and the adding machine ticks off funds for the church's philanthropies.

The corks become saucy holiday reindeer and the cardboard rollers have a thousands uses as the women work away making angels, snowmen, center-pieces etc.

From now until next November, Mrs. Garza and her fellow committeemen will meet every Tuesday to fashion glamor baubles for their booth.

Christmas Girl

Mrs. Garza, blonde and pretty and the mother of three strapping young Garzas (Jimmy, 15; Robert, 12; and Michael, eight) is really a Christmas girl.

She counts the holiday coming up as a rather leisurely one, since it's not a Fair year.

Her responsibilities merely include decorating the High School cafeteria for the Mothers Club Christmas tea, embracing five tea tables; and helping to decorate sandwiches and sandwich trays for the Christmas tea being given by the Women's Association at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Sounds like a breeze, doesn't it!

Seeks A Deer

There's going to be a reindeer theme at the High School tea, on the afternoon of Dec. 7 (between 1000 and 1500 members will attend).

The tea tables will sparkle with red Terry-cloth covers decorated with immense snowballs.

Reindeers in mobiles will give interest to the ceiling of the cafeteria and Mrs. Garza just wishes she knew some avid hunter in the Pointe who'd lend her the mounted head of a deer.

The social chairman wants to decorate the antlers with flowers and Christmas tree ornaments to add to the color of the tea party.

Heavy Schedule

As social chairman of the Mothers Club, Mrs. Garza, whose term ends this next January, conducts the group's teas, open houses and graduation receptions.

In addition to the Christmas party, there are the June and January graduation receptions, an autumn tea welcoming tenth graders and their mothers; and a Spring tea for the new crop of tenth graders and their mamas.

The challenge of a small budget has added to the fun Mrs. Garza gets out of her work planning the decorations for the parties.

Nor does she concentrate solely on the parties. We were interested, for instance, in her account of the many fine things done by the Mothers Club.

Club's Work

Each year the club donates scholarships to deserving students who might otherwise not be able to continue higher education; gives a large gift to the school. This last has included such articles as curtains for the school gym, where graduation exercises take place; redecorating the lounge for the teachers at the school. This year's is right now in the process of being decided upon.

To raise funds for these projects, the club meets in groups of tens and twelves once each month, all over the Pointe. Through fifty cent contributions at bridge and tea parties swells the treasury.

Not only are members the mothers of a students now attending the High School. Many have found the associations so agreeable that long after sons and daughters have graduated, they continue to meet and help the Mothers Club fund. The oldest such group is twenty two years old.

Rules of Conduct

We were interested, too, in the Rules of Conduct, published in book form and sent to all parents of Grosse Pointe High students as suggested measures. These were compiled by club members, faculty and student advisors.

Some of the rules are: Parents should always be present when sons or daughters are entertaining at home.

Alcoholic beverages should not be served, or be accessible, to high school groups.

Parents should impose a 2:30 a.m. curfew on their sons, the evenings of school parties.

Parents should insist, when permitting children to use the family car, that not more than three passengers occupy the front seat; should suggest that two in the front seat is preferable.

Parents whose children are not experienced drivers should provide taxis or other transportation to and from school parties.

Students should be discouraged in forming cliques and encouraged to be friendly with all other students; to feel a responsibility for the shy and retiring student who doesn't mix easily.

There is also a rule of conduct for students who attend school games on chartered buses. These are always chaperoned and, once the sole responsibility of the Mother's Club, now member of the Dads Club have taken over.

Collector

Somehow, Mrs. Garza finds time to make some of her own Christmas presents each year. But the family long ago decided their own favorite Christmas decoration was a large silver garden gazing glass which always centers the dining room table and reflects all the bright lights and candles of a Garza Christmas.

As a collector, Mrs. Garza prefers antiques which have been in her family for generations. These, sometimes inspire additional collecting, such as the handsome pair of Bavarian china soup plates on the mantel. White with a raspberry tone border, these pick up the mellow velvet of a living room couch.

Over the piano there is a fascinating painting in silk embroidery, Jephtha's Last Vow, done by her great grandmother in 1772 and judged a museum piece by Detroit Institute of Arts.

With simpler Victorian furniture placed saucily in a charming room dominated by a modern picture window, Mrs. Garza's home contains such conversation pieces as a Lalique lamp, converted from a kerosene lamp of the Gone With The Wind Period and a genuine harem lamp complete with scissors and snuffer.

On occasion, Mrs. Garza has tried burning oil in the lamp but gave it up because at every experiment she has been confronted by four scowling masculine Garza faces with a single question.

"Is something awful burning around here?"

Badminton Club

The Neighborhood Badminton Club, which meets every Wednesday night from 6:30-8 p.m., enjoyed their weekly tournament last week with mixed doubles teams competing for honors.

In the final round Sue D'hooge and Mike Carrier defeated Bonnie Legato and Paul Alcott.

Although the NBC membership quota is filled, anyone wishing to get on the waiting list may do so by registering at the Neighborhood Club.

November isn't a sleeping time, is it? In November Kercheval lights up like a Christmas tree. And it's taken months of planning . . . treks to New York . . . and lots of plain old fashioned drudgery. All this has paved the way for the gala season. And gala ideas. Here's one. There's the NEW idea of renting a complete Movie Camera outfit . . . to take sparkling movies of the whole family. Because the cost is so low . . . something like ten dollars for the whole thirty days . . . you can afford to rent one. This service includes everything you need for indoor or outdoor movies. Complete information is available by calling TU. 1-4096 or stop at number 17114 Kercheval, in the village. It's the Camera Center.

This gal is not wrapped up, eating a Northern Spy. Nor is she at this time reading a good book . . . as interesting as that might be. Not this gal. She and her man are being it to the local "bideaway." She is swinging it in a full felt circle skirt designed by Julie Lyn Charlott. All of the gaiety and color of the season are sewn right onto the skirts and vests. Some sing, "Jingle Bells" is written on one. Then there's blue, aqua and beige. If you're interested in viewing this collection . . . ogle the street scene spectacular in Jacobson's windows . . . featuring these snappy after-ski skirts . . . complete with models and snow. You'll love it.

The amazing thing is . . . how did Peter Pan do it? Do what? Get so many plushy, fluffy animals under one roof! Those swanky French poodles with vinyl faces . . . those lovable monkeys. They'll be real treats for the small fry come Christmas. We loved the custom-made Swiss Music Boxes, too. They play Brahms, Schubert and Mozart, no less. They're in soft pastel colors and around four dollars. We'd fill a WHOLE column if we mentioned all the educational Holgate and Playschool toys . . . ummm, and those hand-painted rubber balls for just one or two greenbacks. We can just see you filling your Christmas list at Peter Pan, Inc., in the village.

Notes for your Christmas list. Personality pillows . . . trouser hangers . . . ummm, all the luxurious closet accessories . . . center-pieces that can be used for serving pieces for canapes . . . luscious colored throw rugs . . . serving trays of many shapes . . . one made of black-finished tins . . . decorated with Georges Briard butterflies . . . modern brackets for your bathroom . . . in fact all the bathroom appointments for either contemporary or traditional . . . spectacular Christmas tree decorations . . . snack table sets. All these things come from that store piled high with gifts . . . Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village. Oh yes, there's more . . . wrap every man on your list in a thick deep luxurious Martex towel . . . but monogrammed. Special monograms signify the hunter, yachtsman, golfer, fisherman and horseman. Towels and monograms come in white and handsome shades of charcoal, spruce green, walnut, brown, navy, sandflower yellow.

One of the brightest trees on Kercheval is the JEWEL TREE. It's so bright it blazes a trail right to number 75 Kercheval. Costume jewelry by Dabu . . . Exotica . . . and Bellini swirl and glitter on this handsome tree. Of course, it's your cue to pick up a pair of earrings . . . a little bracelet . . . a string of beads THAT long for yourself or that friend. Y'see day or night you can sparkle. And look for a rhinestone studded ball dangling from a key ring. For the beautiful gift wrappings there is no charge. That's for me . . . and thee. Sign of the Mermaid . . . on the hill.

From now on you'll be hearing lots and lots about dyed-to-match separates. Yes, they're separates . . . but they add up to such complete costumes. You start with a cashmere . . . not just any old cashmere, but a Dalton . . . they're full fashioned, with a complete devotion to hand details. They're made of imported cashmere to make you look your country club best. The skirts are as lovely as the same sunlit and moonlight colors. To make it more personal . . . more like you, . . . choose a distinctive monogram, like only the one that the deft hands at 76 Kercheval are capable of designing . . . that's Margaret Rice's . . . on the hill.

We liked what we saw last Friday. The mirrors . . . the pale pink (roses for accent) against the deep tone of purple . . . the orchid to purple print on a white background . . . the airy pink sheer curtains . . . the gray decor . . . of the Lochmoor Salon of Beauty at 20335 Mack. We liked the odor of the shop . . . and we were told about the air purifier that was especially installed to make it still better for us, the clients. We liked what we heard, too. There are now nine expert hair stylists on Mrs. Smith's staff . . . and they coddle Pointers with scalp treatments, facials, pedicures, and manicures. If you want a manicure without an appointment that's possible, too. And new hair styles are the order of the day at Lochmoor. Thursday and Friday evenings by appointment. TU. 1-7252.

Save this. Where does the fellow in the pink shirt go next? He goes to heliport . . . a lavender shade. It's new and goes well with his black and brown or navy flannels. Find them in Jacobson's Men's Wear Department . . . right on the main floor . . . so-o-o-o convenient.
