FARMS PARKING FIGHT CONTINUES

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, November 25
RED CHINA is reported preparing to invade offshore Nationalist outposts. A top Chinese Nationalist disclosed that the Reds have massed 500,000 men in the coastal areas of Chekiang and Fukien provinces, poised and ready.
Fukien is the nearest mainland province to Quemoy, strategic Nationalist island; the equally strategic Tachen Islands are just off Chekiang. Nationalist officials are confident that any attack can be repelled. It is believed that the Reds, if defeated, will try to lure attack-forces deep inland and then launch a massive counter-offensive.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, with military action apparently ruled out, pledged every step humanly possible within peaceful means, to have the 13 Americans condemned to prison by Red China freed. Red China announced Tuesday that 11 U. S. airmen and two U. S. civilians have been sentenced to prison terms ranging from four years to life, for "spying" during the Korean War.

Peiping Radio broadcast that these 13, plus five others who died, were among 230 saboteurs captured or killed inside China since 1951. The United States branded the charges as lies.

PLOTS AGAINST the Governments of Guatemala and Honduras have been uncovered, according to official reports. The alleged movements were scheduled for November 27 and were headed by Communist elements, an official spokesman said.

The conspiracy was to have started by a workers' strike in Honduras and as an armed movement in Guatemala. In regard to Guatemala, the spokesman said, the situation is under control, since the plans of the conspirators had been well known and necessary steps were taken. No names were announced.

Friday, November 26
BRITAIN BACKED the United States in hurling strong words against the Red Chinese for sentencing 13 Americans to prison on charges of being spies. In London, Prime Minister Winston Churchill denounced the Communist action as "outrageous" and a violation of international law, and accused them of deliberately hiding the imprisonment of the Americans for more than a year after the end of the Korean War.

At the United Nations headquarters in New York, American Delegate John Cabot Lodge accused the "unspeakable gang in Peiping" of a new act in barbarism. He said that this adds to a long list of reasons why Red China is unfit to sit in the UN.

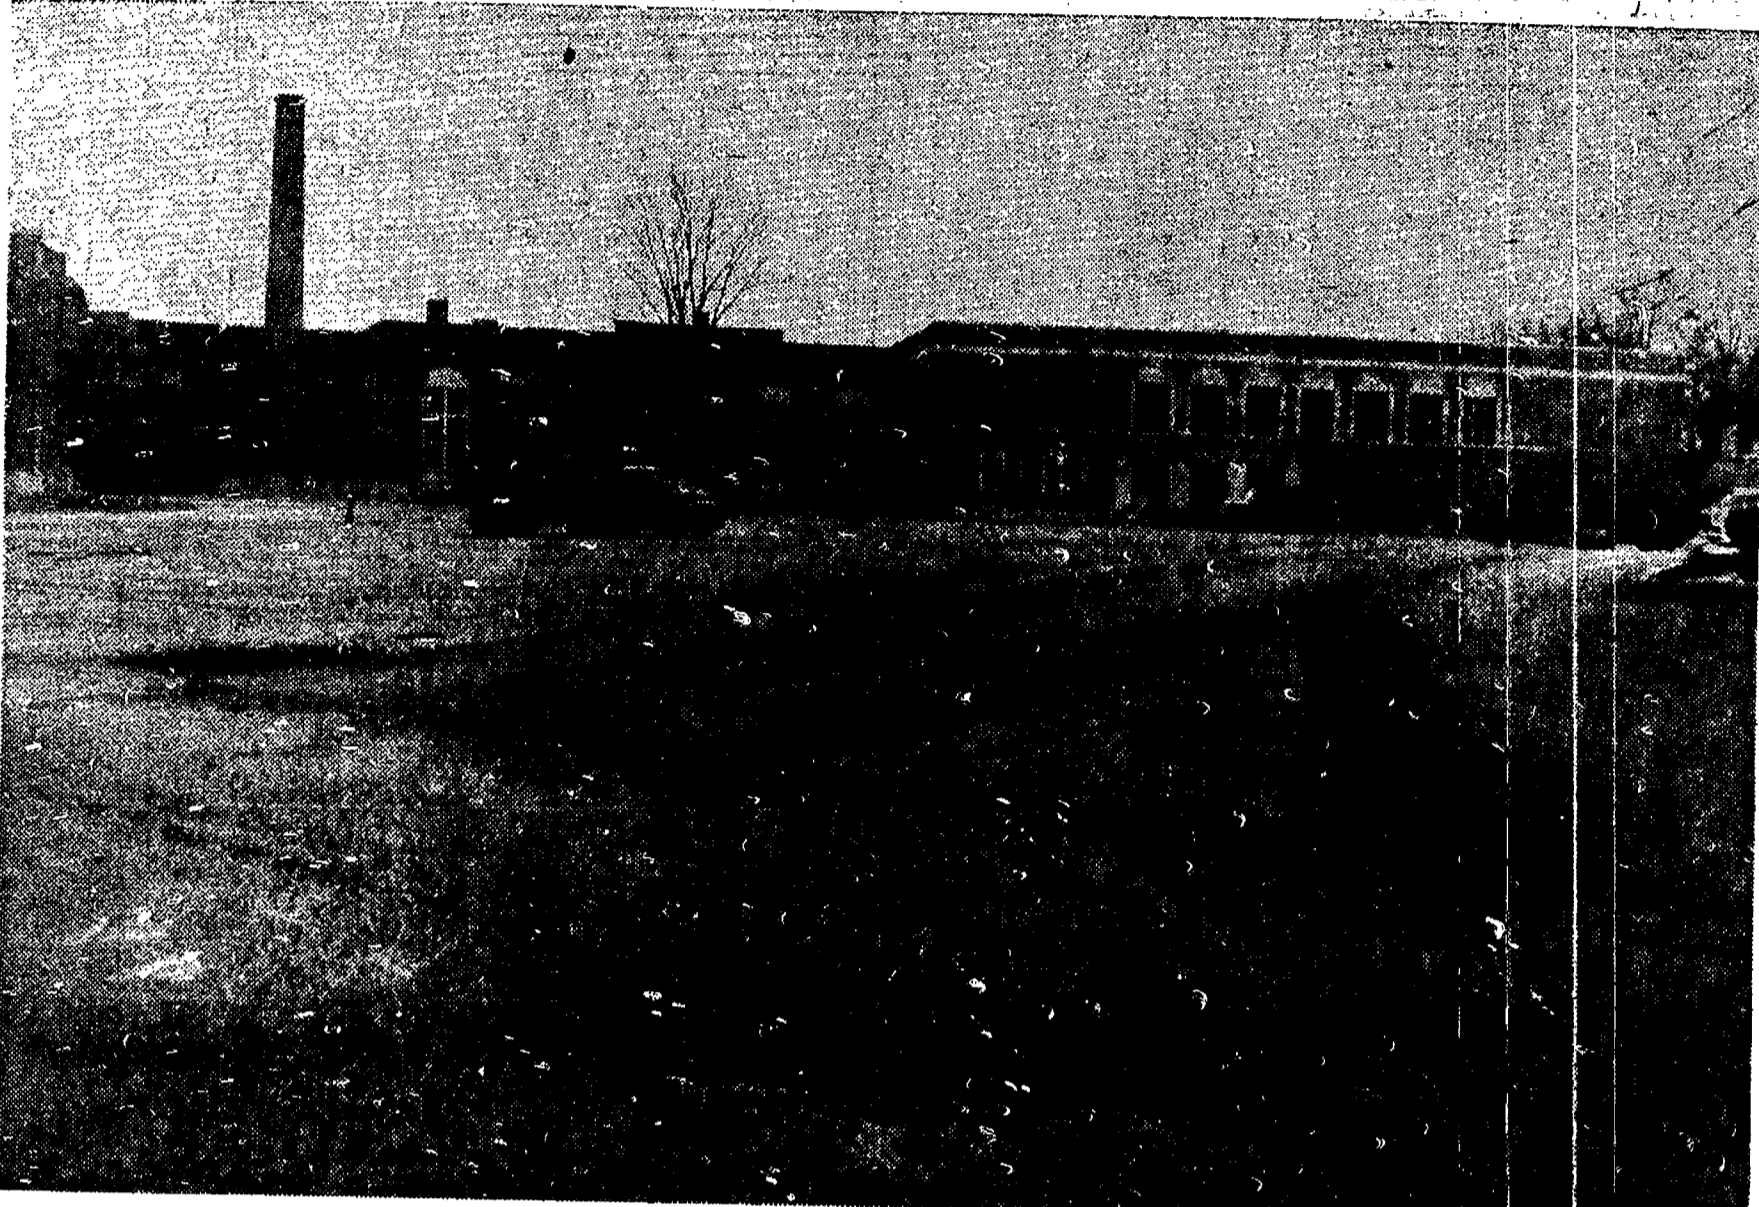

DESPITE THE COLD SHOULD give it by the West, Russia will go ahead with her satellites in discussing its "all-Europe security" conference. Members of several East European nations said that the conference will be held as scheduled and that a military alliance will be discussed.

This would be in line with a declaration issued by Soviet Foreign Minister Molotov in which he stated that the "peace-loving (Communist) states" would take counter measures for their own security if the West persists in carrying out the Paris accord in rearming Germany.

TWO AFL LOCALS arrived at a truce after their bloody Thanksgiving Day riot was ended by shots fired by Trenton police. Six AFL workers were hospitalized when 50 workers slugged each other with wrenches and pipes in a battle at the McLouth Steel Corp. plant. It grew from a jurisdictional fight between the riggers and millwrights.

Saturday, November 27
HUNDREDS OF SAILORS were in peril of their lives as a storm with hurricane force split a tanker in two, reportedly sank two ships and jeopardized the lives and safety of sailors of at least nine other vessels. Heavy seas battered the seawalls of Seaford on the English Channel, threatening England with its worst flood in 30 years.

New High School Parking Lot Nears Completion

The large parking area which will serve the new auditorium-gymnasium and get student and faculty cars off the street, is progressing rapidly at the High School. This picture, made Monday afternoon, was taken from the corner of the former Country Day School property, on Grosse Pointe boulevard. The new building, which is expected to be completed within two to three months, is on the right.

High School Parking Lot Almost Ready

Project Will Get Student and Faculty Cars Off Street; Church Cooperating

The paving of the parking lot on the grounds of Grosse Pointe High School will be completed sometime this week, depending on the weather, according to Harold Husband, director of administrative services of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

Mr. Husband pointed out that when the paving of the lot has been completed and the lot put into use, there will be enough room to park a total of 340 cars.

Will Ease Street Parking
He stressed that the parking lot will help alleviate the street parking and enable members of the high school staff and students who drive their cars to school, to keep their cars off the heavily travelled thoroughfares.

Mr. Husband revealed that the Board of Education and Christ Church, the high school's neighbor, have an agreement whereby the church will be permitted to use the high school parking lot during Sunday church services and while Sunday school is in progress.

Reciprocal Arrangement
In return, the church will allow the use of its lot, which has room for 75 cars, to help handle the overflow crowds which may attend basketball games and other activities at the school.

The parking lot, which is part of the project covered by the auditorium-gymnasium contract, will be floodlighted for night parking, Mr. Husband stated.

Would-Be Robbers Trapped By "Silent" Burglar Alarm

A "silent" burglar alarm caused the capture of two youthful would-be burglars, at the scene of their attempted crime on Monday, November 29.
According to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, an alarm came into the Park police station at approximately 3:47 a.m. Monday, and a scout car was dispatched immediately, with Sgt. Hazen Hennig and Patrolmen Charles Slusser and Gordon Duncan, to the source of the alarm, Whittier Cleaners, 15010 Charlevoix.
Arriving at the establishment, the officers discovered no evidence of forcible entry anywhere, but did find the door on the north side of the building open.

Joint Concerts to Be Given By Symphony and Chorus in Parcels Junior High School

Pointe Musical Organization to Perform on Sunday Afternoon and Wednesday Night; Reception to Follow

Joint concerts will be given by the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra and the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus on Sunday, December 4, at 4:15 p.m. and on Wednesday, December 8, at 8:30 p.m.; both concerts being held at Parcels Junior High School, Mack at Vernier road.

This promises to be an exciting event for audience and performers alike. With 60 musicians in the symphony, and 160 members in the chorus, it has been necessary to construct an addition to the stage to accommodate the two groups and to perform the traditional program.

43 Polio Cases Total for Year
No new cases of polio have been reported in the Grosse Pointe Health District since November 23, according to Dr. Thomas Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner.

Dr. Davies disclosed that since the beginning of the year, 43 cases of polio had been reported in the health district.
"The number of polio cases this year to date," said Dr. Davies, "exceeds that of last year at this time. However, I am inclined to believe, barring circumstances, that there will be no more new cases this year. All indications point to the decline of polio, at least for the time being."

Ushers Named
Ushers for the Sunday performance will be: Carol Cumberworth, Sally DeBolt, Martha DeBoer, Barbara Cleveland, Justine Hattemer, Marcia Loush, Judith MacDonald, Molly Marshall, Nancy Marshall, Patricia Veit and Janice Wright.

The social committee for Wednesday evening's performance will have Mrs. Charles Sharrer as chairman with Mrs. Walter Bailey, Jr., as her co-chairman.

No Standing Allowed.

Police Warn Teenagers About Liquor

Promise Crackdown On Minors Possessing Or Buying Beverages, And On Stores

Teenagers who are found to be in possession of alcoholic beverages, or who purchase these beverages, will find it harder to wiggle out of trouble, as far as the City Police Department is concerned, according to a statement issued by City Police Lt. Andrew Teetaert.

Lately, too many youngsters have been arrested for purchasing and having beer or other alcoholic beverages in their possession, said the lieutenant. He added that his department will make a concentrated effort to crack down on the teenagers who violate the law in this respect.

Will Cite Stores
He also said that establishments which knowingly sell to minors will be cited before the Liquor Control Commission as soon as the offense is uncovered.

Ready for Party
When a search of the car was made, police found beer and wine in the vehicle, and one of the boys admitted that they were going to have a party at his home.

On November 24, while police were checking doors of business places on Kercheval, they spotted a car with five boys in it. They stopped the car to check what the boys were up to, and in that car they found a case of beer.

Puts Out Own Basement Blaze
A fire caused by a blow torch he was using in his home, 1248 Lakepointe, was put out by Paul Koolvoord, before Park firemen arrived at the scene.

Koolvoord was removing asphalt tile from his basement floor when the plug fell out of the torch and, inflammable liquid spilled out on the floor and was ignited by flames from the torch. There was no damage.

Annual Men's Night To be Held Monday In "The Village"

All Women Shoppers To Be Barred From Christmas Street As Local Males Are Given Chance to Roam In Peace And Pleasure

History will be made, when for the first time the Village shopping district, on Kercheval from Cadieux to Neff, will be decorated and lighted for Christmas, beginning Men's Night Monday, December 26, and lasting to January 1, 1955.

Efforts of the steering committee of Grosse Pointe Village Men's Night met with the approval of the City Council, and their request for street decorations was granted.

To Have Huge Stars
Blue stars, three feet in diameter, touched with luminous silver and centered by a silver-bowl light, will be affixed to each existing light pole in the area, going in and out of Kercheval avenue.

Current will be paid for by the merchants and the decorations will become the property of the City.

The lights on the decorations will be turned on Monday, heralding the ninth annual "Men's Night" which will take place until 10 p.m.

During these three hours, women will be barred from almost all of the stores on the Kercheval "strip," thus permitting their menfolk to select and purchase anything they desire.

The only women permitted will be the clerks, models, gift wrappers and personal shoppers to advise the men.

The same festive spirit will prevail as in previous years, and as last year, a German street band will stroll the streets, going from store to store, playing music to create the Christmas mood.

Everything Available
Everything from jewelry to clothing for the "little woman," to toys and items for the small fry, and countless other things that can be bought to make a happy Christmas will be available to the men on this special event.

Attendance at this annual occasion is expected to exceed last year's 5,000 Christmas shoppers. Maire School's two Boy Scout Troops, 19 and 619, will be on hand to help direct the shopping traffic to the nearest parking lot.

The first "Men's Night" was held on December 16, 1946.

Receives Ticket For 3-Car Crash

Clyde J. Suffon, Jr., of 1877 Brys-drive, was ticketed for reckless driving on Saturday, November 27, by Farms police, after he was found responsible for causing a three-car accident at Kercheval and Lewiston.

According to a Farms police report, Suffon and Nadia M. Turasheff of 19802 Holiday, were both traveling east on Kercheval, and a car driven by Jessie L. Spitzley, of 21345 Sloan drive, Harper Woods, was driving west on that avenue.

Suffon, not noticing the Turasheff car passing a parked car at the curb, continued on by driving over the center line, striking Spitzley's car head on, and veering, struck the other car in the left rear in the driveway of one of the youths' homes.

When a search of the car was made, police found beer and wine in the vehicle, and one of the boys admitted that they were going to have a party at his home.

On November 24, while police were checking doors of business places on Kercheval, they spotted a car with five boys in it. They stopped the car to check what the boys were up to, and in that car they found a case of beer.

All the youths arrested will have to make an appearance in court, Lt. Teetaert pointed out, and stressed that there will be no exceptions.

"We're going to crack down on these violators, both buyers and sellers," he said, "and crack down hard."

Property Owners in Hill District Stick to Stand Against Assessment

The struggle to provide adequate off-street parking space in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill business district continues to be one of the chief concerns of the Farms council and administrative officials.

The business men of the district, against whom a special tax assessment was levied to pay for improvements to the present lot, and a portion of the original costs, are continuing their fight against payment of the assessment.

Issue in Court
The businessmen took the matter to court more than two months ago, and obtained a temporary order restraining the Farms from attempting to collect the fees assessed. Since that time there have been a number of adjournments of the scheduled hearing when the businessmen hope to obtain an injunction prohibiting the collecting of the assessment at least until the case can be argued in full in regular court.

If the injunction is granted, it would probably take a year or two for the case to come up on the regular circuit court calendar.

Hold Monday Meeting
The business group held a meeting Monday afternoon, when developments to date were explained by their attorney, Gordon Wood. They were informed a hearing on the injunction request is scheduled for this Friday, December 3, but it was felt doubtful whether any definite action would be taken at that time.

The stand against the assessment on the part of the majority of the businessmen who own the 34 parcels of property in the district, has not changed since they started the fight against the assessment.

They claim the Farms is financing the parking lot in the wrong way, and that it should be paid for from revenue bonds issued against parking meter income. The Farms has been reluctant to install meters, but will not commit itself on the subject of never putting meters in.

Would Finance Investment
The property owners claim that if meters are installed in the future, the special assessment would only mean that they were financing an investment from which the Farms would be obtaining income.

Another argument of the business group is that under the present setup the Farms is not adding a single parking space in this area which will grow more and more congested. They have stated that if the Farms can show them a concrete plan which will supply all the space needed to handle all future requirements of the area, they will be glad to pay the assessment.

Claim Discrimination
The property owners also claim that discrimination has been shown in omitting some of those profiting from the parking area, from the assessment lists. They cited specifically the Punch and Judy block merchants, and property owners, and St. James Lutheran Church.

The church has already given the Farms a piece of property to square off the parking area, which the Farms considers is sufficient payment, but the businessmen claim this was a private deal made before the assessment matter arose.

In the meantime, the Farms officials have been dickering with the Board of Education to get more of the Richard School playground, from which one strip has already been sold to the city for additional parking space.

Wants Road Closed
The School Board has taken the stand that it will do business with the city only if the Farms will close McMillan road beyond St. James Church and allow the two playground areas now separated by McMillan road to be thrown into one. This would eliminate the traffic hazard to which the children are subjected when they have to cross McMillan to get to the eastern playground area.

The School Board has indicated that if McMillan is closed, it will be willing to sell the Farms an additional portion of the playground, which would comprise a strip 130 feet wide and about 390 feet long on the extreme eastern end of the playground in the rear of the residences along Muir road.

Would Add Four Rows

This could be developed to take care of four additional lanes for parked cars and also provide a 10 foot strip for planting behind the residences. Price has not been discussed. The one extra strip of parking space which the Farms bought from the Board of Education to enlarge the existing lot, cost $4,000.

As the matter now stands, the Farms is asking its traffic engineers, the firm of Gunderson and Dobelek, which has also made surveys for the Park and City of Grosse Pointe, to make another study of the feasibility of closing McMillan road. It is expected the School Board would consent to pay half the cost of this new study.

Has Made Survey

This firm has already made a comprehensive survey of the existing parking space and expected future needs in the Farms.

There are now about 200 spaces in the big parking lot and another 101 metered street spaces. The land which is wanted from the School Board would add another 183 parking spaces in the municipal lot. Farms officials say this would solve the whole problem for the area.

The parking meters are now producing about $70 each annually. The engineers estimate that as the district becomes fully developed, they will yield about $90 each annually.

TWO HONEST BOYS

Richard Anderson, 571 514 St. Clair, and Richard Dean of 1361 Garyton, both 15 years old, turned over to City police on Friday, November 26, a lady's purse which they found in a telephone booth at Kercheval and St. Clair. The purse, belonging to Mrs. Kay Knox of 1320 Grayton, contained papers and $8.50 in cash.

rifling inside the barrel of a regulation firearm.

He said that the "zip" guns can cause injury or death from a distance of at least 50 feet.

The Director said that his department will crack down on anyone in possession of the guns, and that stern measures will be taken according to law.

Other Odd Weapons

Det. Plumb reported that some youths make rifles out of baseball bats and gas pipes, and that some of the makers of both the small arms and the rifles sell their products to youths in other cities for as much as $10 apiece.

Both Director Bailey and Det. Plumb revealed that the parents of the boys apprehended so far, did not know their children were in possession of the guns.

Ask Parents to Help

They said that if an older boy is seen with a top cap pistol in his possession, it is almost a safe bet that it is a "zip" gun, because boys at a certain age do not play with regular toy pistols.

They urge all parents to check the toy pistols of their youngsters to make sure that the guns have not been converted to illegal use.

Police are acting on more information concerning other youngsters who are known to have "zip" guns.

Family Films

Main Street and byways and slums, its waterfront and suburbs and recreation areas, its factories and methods, have changed the world's pattern of living — all are shown in an effort to convey the spirit and texture of the Detroit of today.

Dealing with a similar theme — a large American metropolis — but of radically different tone and radically different techniques is the second film, NOTES ON THE PORT OF ST. FRANCISCO.

Produced by the California experimenter Frank Stauffacher, this pictorial study of San Francisco attempts to convey the rich color and beauty of the city by means of avant garde photography of high quality.

By avoiding trickiness for its own sake, the photographer has achieved an overall feeling of warmth and affection, by film control of his material and techniques.

The film carries a sound track enriched by an abundance of "live" noises in street and harbor scenes, an excellent musical accompaniment, and a vivid commentary selected from a text written by Robert Louis Stevenson and spoken by Vincent Price.

Completing the program is the technical film, VENICE, QUEEN CITY OF THE ADRIATIC. The film traces the history of the city of canals from its beginnings through the period of its medieval trade dominance, its subsequent decline, and its present re-emergence as a thriving trade city and world-famed tourist center.

The three films of widely varied cities of the world provide both an opportunity to learn more about the past of our own city and to visit two of the genuinely fascinating cities of the world. Grosse Pointers are cordially invited to come to the showing, this Friday at 8 p.m.

Art Institute To Show Films

First public showing of the Detroit Institute of Arts' own films, based on the museum's collections, is scheduled for Tuesday evening, December 7, at 8 o'clock, on the "Film as an Art" series in the large auditorium.

Three color movies dealing with the Institute's Dutch and Flemish collections, accompanied by music of the periods and spoken commentary, are the initial Detroit Institute of Arts Film Productions, made possible by a grant from Burroughs Corporation. The Detroit Institute is the first museum in the country to produce its own films.

Two other art films, both prize winners at film festivals, "From Renoir to Picasso" and "Martin and Gaston" will complete the program. The latter film shows the adventures of French children. Tickets are free but should be secured during the week preceding the showing at the Publications Desk in the lobby.

Police Chiefs Ask Drivers For Help in Safety Drive

The Police Chiefs of Grosse Pointe urge the cooperation of every Grosse Pointe citizen to prevent traffic injury in the immediate weeks ahead, the most dangerous weeks of the year. For this reason December 15, Safe Driving Day—has been set aside as a Demonstration Day. All motorists are urged to practice up on their safe driving so that they can make a special effort to drive as well as they know how on December 15. Safe Driving Day should then serve as a launching date to set an example of special efforts to drive especially carefully during the last two weeks in December—the most dangerous in the year.

In an important message to Grosse Pointe citizens, the chiefs asserted that they were sure most citizens would cooperate cheerfully. The police officers and the courts will deal with those who don't. In fact they have instructed all members of their departments to enforce traffic laws even more vigilantly than in the past. It will be highly gratifying if, by virtue of better traffic law observance, they find they have fewer tickets to issue and fewer accidents to investigate.

The chiefs explained why officers of the departments issue traffic tickets. Policemen do not enjoy handing out tickets to traffic law violators. Nor is it true that a police officer is required to issue a certain number of tickets every day he is on duty. Far from it. There are no ticket "quotas" in the Grosse Pointe Departments.

The simple truth is that every officer of the Grosse Pointe Departments has taken an oath to enforce all laws and to protect life and property to the best of his ability. The most effective way he can protect life and property is by enforcing traffic laws.

Rotarians Welcome Exchange Students

German Exchange Students Address Pointe Rotarians

Two German Exchange students, Maria Brock, 16, and Klaus Brandt, 17, gave a very interesting talk about their impressions of American and conditions in Germany at the Rotary Club meeting last Monday, November 29.

Grosse Pointe Rotarians were greatly impressed by the fine command of the English language exhibited by these two young Germans, who are studying in this area under a program initiated by the Rotary International Foundation.

Both of these students have been in this country since last July, and will remain for a period of one year, studying under the American system of education. Maria Brandt, from West Berlin, is a senior at Roseville High School and lives at the home of Otto Heimke, president of the East Detroit Rotary Club. With a sparkling sense of humor, she described some of her experiences with American motor cars and then proceeded with a very informative talk on the German school system.

She explained that Elementary School in Germany consists of seven years of study, with the study of the English language beginning in the fifth grade. Then follow four years of study for those students preparing for "white collar" jobs. German students preparing for college study an additional two years, or a total of 13, before taking their entrance examinations.

Klaus Brandt, from the Ruhr Valley sector, is a senior at East Detroit High School, and also lives at a local home. He spoke in glowing terms of the friendship he has found in America with fellow students and all of the people he has met.

His description of the recovery of German industry through

His description of the recovery of German industry through American help was most enlightening. He spoke particularly of the great strides made by the camera and lens manufacturers in his home country, and of the great number of fine German cameras now being exported to this country. Klaus expects to enter the field of business when he completes his education. The Youth Service Committee of Grosse Pointe Rotary Club sponsored the visit of the two German students. They were given a speech of welcome in their native German language by Rotarian Joseph deGrimme.

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club thanked Mr. Heimke, president of East Detroit Rotary Club, and Al Asbury, past president, for bringing this exceptional program to Grosse Pointe.

For failing to appear in court on a charge of making a left hand turn on a red light, Edmund E. Merritt of 1988 E. Alexandrine, Detroit, forfeited his bond of $7.50.

Optimists Honor Grid Champions

The Grosse Pointe Optimist Club members proved they live by their slogan "A Friend of the Boy" when they staged a wonderful testimonial luncheon at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center Tuesday, November 23, in honor of the State Champion Grosse Pointe Blue Devil football squad and its coaches.

The program was under the direction of Lon O'Connor. Speeches were given by Chuck Hannaman, former Blue Devil and Detroit Lion grider, George Elworthy, Grosse Pointe's first football coach, Athletic Director Frank Banach, Principal, Walter Cleminson, Optimist President Jim Wood, Ty Tyson, Bill Yeoman, assistant coach at Michigan State; Don Robinson, U. of M. assistant coach and a host of others.

All were high in their praise of the 1954 Blue Devil squad which turned the State football spotlight on the community. Almost 200 players, coaches, guests and Optimist members were on hand.

Scouts Backing Safe Driving

Boy Scouts in the Detroit Area Council are keenly interested in the promotion of President Eisenhower's Safe Driving Day, December 15, according to Amos R. Shields, Scout Executive of the local Council. "S-D" Day has been proclaimed by the President in an effort to reduce the tragic toll of death, injury, and property damage from highway accidents.

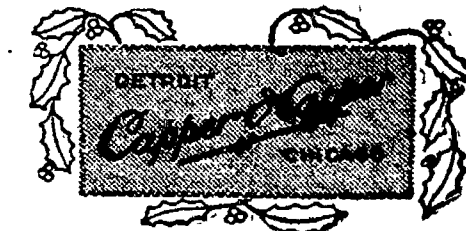

"The 'S-D' Day campaign fits perfectly into the Scouting program," said Mr. Shields, "for safety on the streets and highways is stressed throughout the work of Cub Scouts, Boy Scouts, and Explorers." "A good Scout is a good pedestrian, a safe bicycle user, and eventually a safe driver."

In connection with "S-D" Day, Boy Scouts and Explorers are urged to earn their Safety Merit Badge as soon as they complete their First Class rank or Explorer rating. Safety is one of the 16 Merit Badges required for the Eagle rank.

There are 16 required and five optional subjects for a minimum of 21 in the Eagle Advancement Program, Mr. Shields explained. The "S-D" program, originated by the President's Action Committee for Highway Safety, has been given the full support of Police, court, school, and motor vehicle officials. Many of these officials serve as counselors in Scouting and are willing to help Scouts and Explorers secure this important Merit Badge.

S. Stein and Co. Opens New Store in Village

The newest store in the Pointe opened today. It is the last word in store construction, being designed by Arthur O. A. Schmidt, who has planned many of the Pointe's finest stores. Construction was by Palmer-Smith & Co.

It is located in one of the principal spots in the Village. When you enter the door the first section to greet the eye is the men's furnishings department with silver walnut cases and brass trim.

As you walk on to the sports-wear and casual wear section, you notice the attractive egg-crate ceiling and the greige deep-piled rug. Clothing proper comes next, with a dramatic chandelier highlighting the decor of the display.

At the extreme rear is the men's custom section in a red-wood trim. In the basement level you find an attractive boys' department with an antique coral floor and coral shade cases trimmed with antique oak.

Also here are the offices, including the general office, and the president's office, as well as all the marking and receiving rooms.

S. Stein & Co. brings many of the renowned lines of men's wear to the Pointe for the first time. Another item of interest is that the younger members of the firm attended Grosse Pointe High School. Furniture in the store is smart Heritage Herndon.

CAR INCREASE

An increase of 1,400,000 registered motor vehicles in Michigan, raising the state total from its present 2,780,000 vehicles to about 4,180,000 in 1975, was forecast today by an official of the nation's largest independent auto sales finance company.

New York Holiday Awaiting Fisher-Record Trip Winners

Looking forward to a gala weekend in New York are Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Serge of 324 Rivard boulevard. And the nicest part about it is that it will cost them nothing.

The young couple won the free holiday trip to New York which was a feature of the program sponsored by the Fisher-Record firm to introduce the new Chrysler and Plymouth cars. Anyone stopping in at the concern's headquarters at 15000 Kercheval was given a chance at the trip, no obligations attached.

Serge, 25, is a senior at the University of Michigan, where he is studying naval architecture and marine engineering. He is a graduate of Grosse Pointe High and his wife of A.B. High in Mt. Vernon, N. Y. They have been married three and a half years and have two children, Charlotte, 22 months; and Sara, 4 weeks.

Both children will be making the trip to New York with them. Mrs. Serge's mother, who lives in Mt. Vernon, will do the baby sitting while Mom and Pop are doing the town.

They will stay at the Waldorf-Astoria, be guests at "Pajama Game," visit Radio City, Chinatown, Greenwich Village, Wall Street, Columbia University and see all the other sights of the Big Town.

They will be taken to Willow Run in a 1955 Chrysler tomorrow to catch a 12:45 p.m. Northwest Airlines Stratocruiser for New York. The same airline will bring them back Sunday night, landing at Willow Run at 11:45.

Gifts for Yanks Being Sought

The Ladies Auxiliary of Grosse Pointe Post 303 of the American Legion has distributed the Blue and White canisters of the "Yanks" collection campaign in most of the shops in the Village and On the Hill.

In 1943, the American Legion vowed that no man who had fought for his country and was confined to a hospital at Christmas time would go without a happy Yuletide. To see that this was carried out, the "Gifts for Yanks Who Gave" campaign was started.

Ruth Allen, president of Grosse Pointe Unit of the American Legion, said about the campaign: "The campaign has become an annual project with the American Legion and again this year, we in Grosse Pointe are appealing to the public to remember the boys in the hospitals. They remembered us when our very freedom was in the balance. Let's not forget them now."

The canisters will be collected on Saturday, December 4. Proceeds will be turned over to the "Gifts" committee for distribution.

To Organize PTA At Ferry School

Parents and teachers of Ferry School children will meet at the school at 8 p.m. on Tuesday evening, December 7, to organize the Ferry School P-TA.

The business portion of the meeting will be conducted by Oscar Marx, president of the Grosse Pointe P-TA Council, who has offered his personal services, as well as those of the Council, in assisting the Ferry School group to organize.

A by-laws committee, under the chairmanship of Charles Zentgraf, has been working on the construction of appropriate by-laws for the organization and these will be submitted for adoption. A nominating committee has been working under the chairmanship of David Crawford. A slate will be presented by this committee.

Following the organizational meeting in the auditorium, refreshments will be served in the individual classrooms under the chairmanship of Mrs. Gladys Vandenberg with the assistance of her committee and the room parents for each class.

All parents of Ferry School children are invited to participate in this organizational meeting of the Ferry School P-TA and to meet the teachers of their children as well as the parents of their children's classmates.

Work to Be Explained By Michigan Sculptors

Michigan sculptors whose work is included in the current 45th annual Michigan Artists Exhibition, will discuss contemporary sculpture in a public program at 3 p.m. Sunday, December 5, in the Founders Lounge of the Detroit Institute of Arts. This is the third in a series of four Sunday panels on the exhibition.

Taking part will be three sculptors, Betty Conn, Morris Brose, and Thomas McClure, the latter top prize winner in the show; a critic, Seymour Riklin, instructor in Humanities at Wayne University; and Virginia Harriman of the Institute staff as moderator. Graphic Arts will be the topic on December 12.

The Navy operates a correspondence school with more than 150,000 Navy and Marine students.

Awarded Horticultural Honor

CHARLES VERHEYDEN, left, prominent businessman, is shown accepting an award, presented by HERMAN HINSENKAMP, president of the Grosse Pointe Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society, on the occasion of the organization's 38th anniversary banquet held recently. The award is given annually to the businessman who has the best landscaped business place in Grosse Pointe.

Fred Waring's Concert Dec. 6

The real warmth of Fred Waring and his troupe of bright, energetic and personable young people, who come to Masonic Auditorium for a one evening performance on Monday, December 6, may be enjoyed at their refreshing best only when they perform before a live audience. The versatility and artistic interpretations of the Waring

Pennsylvanians are a wonderful experience for everyone. Fred Waring's contributions to the presentation of music in radio and television have been many, important and, for the most part, well-known. But almost unknown are some of his vital contributions to the entire field of music.

The things he has learned through years of research are this season particularly significant, for he is embarking upon the longest concert tour ever attempted—a seven-months trans-continental trip that will take the Pennsylvanians over 25,000 miles and into the auditoriums of some 200 communities.

Behind the scenes of a Fred Waring performance is a history of research, study and experience gathered through the years by Waring and his organization. They continuously conduct a study of music education; they are now sponsoring a national study of music-attitudes among teen-agers, unearthing information of tremendous value to music educators; and they are co-sponsoring with Stanford University through Dr. Edward K. Strong Jr., the important Vocational Interest Research for the guidance of musicians and teachers of music.

All his life, Waring has promoted his own family-generated devotion to music. Throughout his professional career—at college proms, appearances in movie theatres, making motion pictures, and during a tour of Europe—Waring has combined choral singing with instruments, unusual staging, attractive costumes and imaginative devices which have made his name synonymous with astute showmanship.

There are those who call Fred a perfectionist and there is probably no better example of this than his huge show at Masonic Auditorium, Monday, December 6.

Churchmen Plan Yule Tree Sale

The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Men's Club has completed arrangements for conducting its fourth Annual Christmas Tree Sale for the benefit of the church.

The Club has adopted for use again this year, the motto, "Top Quality Trees for a Top Spiritual Purpose," and are hoping to repeat the outstanding results of both 1952 and 1953.

The lot will be open for business from Saturday, December 4th on.

The entire profit of the sale will go into the church Youth Building Fund.

The Club has made possible a choice selection of Scotch Pine, Balsam and Spruce trees on its lot located at 17509 Mack avenue at Neff road.

The primary job of Navy destroyers is to seek out and destroy enemy submarines.

WILLIAM H. LANGE, the Woods' new city administrator, formally took office on November 22. The oath of office was administered by Woods City Clerk Herbert L. Brauns. Mr. Lange resigned a similar position in Marysville, Mich., to take the Woods job. He is married and the father of one child.

Valparaiso University Guild Holding Yule Tea

The theme of "Christmas Around the World" will be carried out in the program and decorations of the Annual Christmas Tree of the Detroit Chapter of the Valparaiso University Guild to be given Monday, December 6, at 1 o'clock, at St. Marks' Lutheran Church, E. Grand Blvd. near Forest.

Mrs. Gilbert Ottee and Mrs. Erwin Kurth have planned the program, which will include favorite Christmas carols. Mrs. Harold Edwards and her committee will greet the guests, and ladies of St. Mark's Church will serve the Tea.

Wayne Chorus To Do Messiah

The 25th anniversary presentation of Handel's "Messiah" by the Wayne University 400-voice Choral Union will be given Tuesday, December 14, and Wednesday, December 15, at 8:15 p.m., in the Masonic Temple auditorium.

"The Messiah" is Wayne's major musical event of the year, according to Harold Tallman, associate professor of music and director of the Choral Union.

Included in this choral group will be the University Chorus, University Choir, Alumni Chorus and community singers.

The oratorio also will feature four nationally known soloists and accompaniment by the University Symphony Orchestra with organ.

Preparation of the orchestra for "The Messiah" will be by Robert Lawson, assistant professor of music.

Wayne's first presentation of "The Messiah" will be by Robert Chorus then totaled 35 voices. Tallman became director when he joined the University's music staff in 1937.

Professional soloists this year will be Janiece Epke, soprano, Buffalo, N. Y.; Martha Lipton, alto, Metropolitan Opera Association, New York City; Fritz Krueger, tenor, Philadelphia; and Kenneth Smith, bass, New York City Center Opera Company.

Handel's oratorio tells the story of man's redemption. The complete work requires four hours for presentation. The traditional Christmas adaptation which the Wayne group employs takes two hours.

The oratorio is divided into three parts—the promise of the Redeemer, the birth of Christ and his mission. The second is Christ's passion, resurrection and ascension, the discomfiture of the heathen and the establishment of the kingdom of God upon the earth.

Final part of this sacred work tells of the Christian belief in the resurrection of the body and ends with the triumph of the redeemed and the glory of heaven.

Tickets for "The Messiah" are being sold at the Wayne University ticket office, 4641 Cass, at Grinnell's and by members of the Choral Union. Prices are $1.20, $1.80, $2.40 and $3.

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

Many a fashionable Pointe calendar this year, reminds its owners that on Sunday, December 19, they drive out to Ann Arbor for the wedding of the Pointe's Theodore G. Osius Jr. and Nancy Katherine Watkins . . . The unusual day was chosen for two reasons . . . First, because there are so many campus marriages this year, the favorite wedding Saturdays were all taken before Ted and Nancy decided on a December date . . . And the December date, at just this time, is a must . . . to allow for a wedding trip for the young medical student and his bride-elect . . . The ceremony will take place at 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Ann Arbor's First Presbyterian Church, following which Nancy's parents, Professor and Mrs. Leonard L. Watkins, will entertain wedding guests at a reception in Kappa Kappa Gamma house on the campus . . . Ted is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Osius of Rivard boulevard . . .

December Wedding Party

Nancy (who's Brenda Starr for the Ann Arbor News having majored in journalism) will be attended by Susan Dwan of Washington, D. Book Jr., Mrs. Ralph Straffon, and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Kermit S. Watkins, of Ann Arbor . . . Ceremony in Memorial Church Followed by Small Reception at Little Club; Couple to Live at Fort Sill, Okla.

Wearing an ivory luster satin gown, Elizabeth Clements Wheat repeated her nuptial vows Saturday afternoon in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church to become the bride of Paul Henson Townsend, Jr.

Square scalloped edged round neckline of her long-sleeved dress; a flare of rose point lace from her mother's wedding gown finished the dropped back of the bodice, and the full skirt extended into a cathedral train.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Renville Wheat of Touraine road wore a Juliet bouquet of lilies, fleur d'amour and ivy.

Princess style frocks in aqua velvet were worn by the three attendants who preceded the bride down the aisle. Tiny matching velvet hats and pink camellia bouquets completed their costumes. Anne D. Wheat was her sister's honor maid. Bridesmaids were the bride's cousin, Sarah H. Goddard, and Martha F. Lattner, of Greenwich, Conn.

The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Townsend of Berkshire road, asked David D. Gries, of Akron, O., to be his best man. Ushers were the bride's brother, John R. Wheat, H. Hunter Williams III, Calvin C. Purdy, Russel H. Goddard, Raymond L. Schuman, and Richard M. Hemmeway, of Chappaqua, N. Y.

Also: Mr. and Mrs. James Kate Dykema, niece of the bride, attended as flower girl, wearing the pink voile frock which was worn by her aunt, Mrs. Laurie Dickson, when she was a flower girl at Mrs. Wheat's wedding. Ringbearer Craig Dickson wore the white linen suit which his uncle, John R. Dykema, wore, then as ringbearer.

For the wedding and small reception which followed at the Little Club, Mrs. Wheat chose a blue peau de soie dress and pink chapeau. Mrs. Townsend wore a taffeta dress of deep turquoise with matching jacket.

For traveling, the bride donned a green-blue tweed dress with matching jacket and hat. The couple will reside in Fort Sill, Okla., where the bridegroom, an Army lieutenant, is stationed.

Beamer-Williamson Wedding in Florida

Laird Beamer, Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Beamer, Weds John T. Williamson at Ceremony in Winter Park Home of Her Uncle and Aunt; To Live Here

A wedding of interest to the Pointe took place last Saturday at 1 o'clock on the patio of a beautiful estate, Casa Punta, the Winter Park home of General and Mrs. Edwin J. House.

Principals in the wedding were Laird Beamer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Lloyd Beamer, of Grosse Pointe boulevard, and John Thomas Williamson, son of Mrs. George W. Williamson, of Stanton lane, and the late Mr. Williamson.

Guests remained for a reception at Casa Punta, which is the home of the bride's uncle and aunt.

A waltz length gown of white tulle and lace was worn by the bride. The frock was fashioned with off-shoulder neckline and brief sleeves. Her three quarter length veil of rose point lace was attached to a hat of the same lace, which had been first worn by Mrs. Beamer as a bride.

Laird carried a bouquet of white spray orchids. The bride's cousin, Mrs. John Carter, of Pasadena, Calif., was her only attendant.

She was gowned in a pale blue lace frock with bouffant opera length skirt and small, matching hat. She carried a bouquet of blue spray orchids.

C. Wallace Toles Jr., of Grosse Pointe, was best man for Mr. Williamson.

Mrs. Beamer chose for her daughter's wedding a gown of brown gold Chantilly lace which had Vionnet neckline and a full skirt distinguished with flared plomine. A small hat of matching blossoms and a corsage of orange orchids completed her costume.

Following the reception, the young Williamsons left by motor for their wedding trip at Sea Island, Ga.

The new Mrs. Williamson traveled in a rose-toned gabardine suit with small matching hat of velour.

Upon their return to the Pointe they will occupy the Beamer home in Grosse Pointe boulevard until Spring. The Beamers are wintering at Casa Punta.

A number of parties in the Pointe complimented the young couple before their Southern wedding.

In Florida, Lieutenant General and Mrs. George Brett were hosts at a cocktail-luncheon in their honor last Friday and in the evening Mrs. Willard Hall was hostess at the rehearsal dinner.

December parties include a luncheon and bathroom shower which Mrs. George Carleton is planning; another luncheon scheduled for Karl's aunts, Mrs. John W. Potter and Mrs. Elmer M. Clark; a supper at which Dr. and Mrs. Delmar F. Weaver will honor Karl and her fiance, and a luncheon at which Mrs. Frederick Cole will fete the bridal couple.

Jeanne Whittaker is also giving a cocktail party and bar shower and Hal Smith III will be a dinner party host. Mrs. John S. Goodman and Mrs. Robert McKinney have decided to give their party after the wedding.

Mrs. Wendin Attends Parley at Wellesley

Mrs. Sigurd R. Wendin of Cloverly road was one of the 20 regional directors of the Wellesley College Development Fund who, at the invitation of the college, recently held a two-day conference on the campus.

As the director for Michigan, she is one of the key alumnae working on plans to obtain support for Wellesley through annual giving programs and gifts for special purposes.

Of particular concern at this time is the raising of funds for an enlarged and remodeled library building. The mother and uncle of an alumna have made a gift and pledge totalling $500,000 toward the estimated cost of $1,500,000 with the understanding that the necessary additional $1,000,000 will be secured and construction begun by June of 1956. Trustees and alumnae are therefore making every effort to raise this sum without losing sight of the other needs of the college.

Miss Margaret Clapp, president of Wellesley, Miss Ella Keats Whiting, dean, and Miss Helen M. Brown, librarian, were among the administrative officers who met with the regional directors to formulate plans for Wellesley's future.

Jan Peerce, famous tenor of the Metropolitan Opera, will appear in concert on Tuesday, December 7, at Masonic Auditorium. The tenor's performance here is one of 45, in addition to his operatic, radio and television engagements, that he will give during his current season under the aegis of Impresario S. Hurok.

One of the most popular and versatile of American singers, Peerce heads his schedule of non-operatic activities with a series of appearances with the Bach Aria Group in New York's Town and Carnegie Halls, in Philadelphia, Boston, and Washington, D. C.

His roles at the Metropolitan and with the San Francisco Opera this season include Cavardossi in "Tosca," Rodolfo in "La Boheme," Riccardo in "Lucia di Lammermoor," Alfredo in "La Traviata" and the Duke in "Rigoletto." He will also be heard for the first time at the Met in a new role, "Faust."

Last spring Peerce won new laurels in Toscanini's concert performances of "The Masked Ball," the fourteenth major occasion on which he has appeared as soloist with the Maestro.

Heard recently in the world's motion picture theatres in 20th-Century Fox's film-biography of S. Hurok, "Tonight We Sing," Peerce has also starred in four other Hollywood movies including "Of Men and Music" and "Something in the Wind."

He is a frequent performer on radio and television and his RCA Victor recordings are among the nation's all-time best-sellers.

Every man has a right to get up in the world, but hitting the ceiling is the wrong way to do it.

Big December Events Scheduled for DAC

Traditional Edgar Guest Night Being Held This Sunday, December 5; Carl Brisson Opening With Songs On December 8

Many Grosse Pointers have reservations for the Detroit Athletic Club's two big December events which have been slated for members and their guests.

First will be the annual Edgar A. Guest Night on Sunday evening, December 5. The second, opening on Wednesday, December 8, will be the club's holiday dinner-floor show presenting the celebrated singer, Carl Brisson. The floor show gala will continue through Saturday, December 18, exclusive of Sunday.

When Detroit's beloved poet, "Eddie" Guest, ushers in the Christmas season at the DAC next Sunday, it will be his fourteenth annual appearance at this delightful event. Following the 7 o'clock dinner, Mr. Guest will give a program of chat and recitations of his poems in his own heart-to-heart fashion.

That's a fashion which brings plenty of laughter but also tugs at the heartstrings and occasions a few quiet tears.

Among the Pointers to attend the Edgar Guest Night are Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Simonsen. Their guests will include Judge and Mrs. Chester P. O'Hara, Mrs. C. E. Watson, Mrs. Oren Baker, Walter Uelsmann, Thomas F. McFarlane, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Allen, the Don R. Middletons, the Walter Hemingways and Mr. and Mrs. T. F. O'Leary, Jr.

The Gerald Hahns and the Simon Den Uyls will be in a group with the M. C. Callahans, Thomas A. Farrells, Mrs. Henry E. Hund and Mrs. Jefferson B. Webb.

A few of the many other Pointers with table reservations are the Henry E. Bodmans, the William F. Rossiters and the V. H. Kyles, Jr.

Planning on attending the December 8 opener of the holiday floor show in groups or foursomes are the Peter J. Gallettes, the Glenn H. Friedts, the Jay L. Hammens, Mr. and Mrs. E. Richard Holtz, the George Frischkorns, the Howard M. Grants.

Among those with reservations for one or another of the succeeding floor show evenings are the Anthony R. Motschalls, the James H. Dodges, Raymond F. Littleys, the F. Robert Krues, Ralph C. Wilsons, Jr., J. R. Pinks, Herbert F. Siewerts, Henry A. Bokrams.

Still other Pointers to dine and dance and enjoy Carl Brisson during the DAC holiday show are the C. B. Larsens, R. E. Kellers, Ralph H. Irwins, Dwight M. Nelsons, Adolph Jacobsons, the Sidney S. Halls, the A. J. Daltons, the Lee E. Joslyns, the George Magnielses and the C. Ray Davissons.

LIEUT. and MRS. ROBERT M. GRAY, (NANCY MACPHERSON) and their daughter, JUDY, are arriving from Philadelphia, to spend a few days with Mrs. Gray's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Macpherson, of Meadow lane, Robert, a first lieutenant in the Army, for the past two years, is being retired Tuesday.

Rummage Sale For Symphony

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra has scheduled two rummage sales to be held today and Friday from 9 a.m. till 4 p.m. in the American State Hotel, Highland Park. General chairman of the project is Mrs. Charles R. Moore.

Competition within the group is running high, with members from Birmingham vying with those of Grosse Pointe for "best-show" honors. Thursday is Birmingham Day, and Friday is Grosse Pointe Day, with Mrs. Lou A. Maxon, Jr., the chairman.

The Juniors are going all-out on the project with proceeds scheduled for the Maintenance Fund of the Detroit Symphony. Shoes, curtains, clothes to be bartered are being collected by the members at depots throughout the city. The emphasis for both shows is on antiques and white-ephraims looking for a new home.

Depot supervisors are Mrs. Donald J. Barrett, Mrs. Joseph W. Casky, Mrs. Cass A. Cichy, Mrs. Neil W. Hyde, Mrs. Victor W. Kitzul, Mrs. H. Stanley Maxon, Jr., Mrs. Earl W. McNeil, Jr., Mrs. Homer B. Pharis, Mrs. William A. Risdon and Mrs. George D. Roumell.

To Honor Two At Yule Party

Kim Henry, who made her debut in September, and Jill Schneider, one of next June's debs, will be jointly honored at a dinner party at the Country Club on December 23.

The party is being given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKean, the Carsten Tiedemanns and Mr. and Mrs. Llywyd Eccleston.

Jill, who attends Bennett Junior College, and Kim, a University of Michigan student, met to discuss plans for the affair in New York last weekend.

Kim and her mother, Mrs. Thomas P. Henry, flew to New York together and were joined by Kim's sister, Pam, a Dana Hall senior.

The girls headed back to their respective schools on Sunday, but Mrs. Henry is remaining in New York for the week.

The Navy governs 6,700 natives on the Pacific Islands of Saipan and Tinian and maintains a leprosarium there.

Reunion in Arizona

MRS. HENRY BOURNE JOY, right, of Lake Shore road and her daughter, MRS. HELEN JOY LEE, left, of Stonington, Conn., were guests at the Arizona Inn in Tucson, Arizona for the Thanksgiving holiday. The most important reason for the visit to Old Pueblo was to greet Mrs. Joy's 10th great-grandchild, the three-months-old son of MR. and MRS. JOHN W. MIKESSELL, JR., of Tucson.

The young master has been named JAMES FREDERIC after both the late Henry Bourne Joy's father, and John W. Mikesell's (Jr.) grandfather.

The four-generation picture was taken to commemorate the party.

Besides the Thanksgiving party at the Mikesell's Romero Road Ranch, both Great-Grandmother Joy and Grandmother Lee planned a little Christmas party for the four other junior Mikesells.

They wanted the pleasure of seeing them receive some of their presents now.

With much surprise, shining new bikes were tried out by Helen, aged 7; Linda, 6; John W. III, 4; and Henry Bourne, 3.

Mrs. Joy and Mrs. Lee left Tucson by plane early Saturday for Detroit.

Mrs. Lee will spend a few days in Grosse Pointe before going East. She had just returned from a trip to Africa before her jaunt to Tucson. A noted amateur photographer, while staying at the Arizona Inn she showed some of her Tucson friends movies of her recent trip.

Mrs. Lee is also the author of a recently published book, "Traveling With Gran'ma." It tells the story of her forty thousand mile camping trip around the world. Mrs. Lee made the trip in a station wagon. It lasted 51 weeks.

Mrs. Joy arrived in the Pointe Saturday morning barely in time for Betsy Wheat's wedding to Lt. Paul H. Townsend Jr., and also to attend a luncheon for an old friend, Mrs. Sybil Baldwin Wright of New York (formerly of Detroit), given by Mrs. Wright's daughter, Mrs. Edward O. Coates, in her home in Hillcrest road.

MARY ELLEN MURPHY, daughter of JUDGE and MRS. THOMAS C. MURPHY, of Kenwood road, returned from Maryville College of the Sacred Heart in St. Louis, Missouri, to spend the Thanksgiving holidays with her parents. OLIVIA MARTINEZ, daughter of MR. and MRS. I. MARTINEZ, of Monterey, Mexico, who is Mary Ellen's roommate, accompanied her.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Henry Keating of Covington drive announced their daughter's engagement Saturday at a family dinner in the Detroit Athletic Club. The occasion coincided with Mary Lou's 21st birthday.

Mary Lou, who was graduated from Lawrence Avenue Convent of the Sacred Heart, is in her senior year at Marymount. Robert is a graduate of Notre Dame University.

Proud of the Help Given to German Student

Last year an editorial in The Tower, Grosse Pointe High School weekly paper, won a Freedom Foundations prize of $100. The staff decided to use the money to help a German girl further her education. The thanks expressed in a letter from her bring great pride to Neil Vanover, left, managing editor; Nancy Corey, author of the editorial; and Miss Doris K. Trott, faculty adviser of The Tower.

By Dick Harding
G.P.H.S. Journalism Student

In these troubled times when we as Americans have fears, not unjustified, that many peoples of the world dislike us, it is encouraging to hear of some person in a far off land who has faith and admiration for the United States.

A short time ago Grosse Pointe High School received a letter from such a person.

The story goes back almost a year to when Nancy Corey, 12B, sat down and wrote an inspiring editorial for the Tower called "Freedom of Choice, Great Privilege." Certainly Nancy never thought then that her editorial would ever go on to win a Freedom Foundations medal and $100 for the Tower—but it did and the Tower received a check for $100.

The Tower staff voted to give the money back to the Foundation. The money would go, the staff stated, to "Speak for Freedom in Europe."

Mr. Kenneth B. Wells, president of Freedom Foundation, knew of the right place and sent the check to a 19-year-old girl living in Germany who needed the money to further her education at the University of Munich. The girl visited America in 1951 as a guest of the Freedom Foundation to make speeches for democracy. When she returned to Germany, members of a Communist youth organization attempted to beat her to death for her anti-Communist views. It might have been so easy for her if she had agreed with the Communists, yet her unyielding faith in America remained unbroken.

Upon receiving the gift, the German girl immediately wrote to Mr. Wells, whom she had met while in America. He forwarded the remarkable letter to Grosse Pointe High School.

In expressive English she wrote, "You know, Pappy Wells, that this present from the Grosse Pointe High School was a great help for me. . . . It was so friendly and good from this people to remember my person, to think of me and to give me such a great gift. It seems to me like wonder, a dream, or a tale.

"And now I don't know, how I can thank them. I think and think and can not find anything to express my joy and happiness . . . This money is not only a good help for me in the material way. You know I am now ready with school and I have the wish to study.

"Now it is in Germany very difficult to do so. At first here are very many students, the University of Munich is over-crowded and there it is very expensive like in America, too. But here in Germany it is also difficult to find a profession between the terms, I mean during the vacations, to earn the money you need. And so it is wonderfully good and kindly from this school to help me in such a way. Now I can study the first term. I study economy and law.

"Nineteen hundred forty-five we had to flee and to leave all our things, our house, our clothing and so on. Then we came to Coburg. It was not a fine time for us. Hunger, coldness, two little rooms, very, very little, and six persons. The rooms under the roof, in winter cold, in summer hot, no waterline, little windows, no own furnitures.

"Then sometimes came a Care packet from America, always it was a very nice help and gift. But not only the sugar, the butter and so on helped, more, I think the idea helped.

"The feeling, there are peoples helping you, they are your friends, you are not alone. And this feeling is, I think so, the best help against the Communists. And this second help is this; each letter, each word from you and each gift helps the understanding. And I think the German and American youth has to work together against our common enemies for our common purposes: to live in freedom, in peace, free of communism."

Encouraging? Yes indeed, it shows that there are people who want America and Germany, in this case, to work together. A bright spot on a bleak horizon that with understanding and aid will influence the dark, surrounding area.

The Citizens' Association of Grosse Pointe Woods will hold its first annual meeting at Parcels Junior High School this evening, December 2, at 8 p.m. and will elect its members of the Board of Governors for three-year terms.

A short meeting of the Board of Governors will follow immediately after the annual meeting.

The purpose of the association, which is slightly more than a year old, is to promote concert

The organization also procures accurate information, for discussion and dissemination, in order to assist in the formation of public judgment.

One project the association is interested in, is the development of more recreational facilities, especially for children, in the community.

Outside of its lakefront park, the Woods has only one baseball diamond and two tennis courts, all located in Ghesquiere Park.

Top Honors to Lincoln In Mexican Road Race

For the third consecutive year, Lincoln automobiles took top honors in the Mexican Pan American road race by finishing first and second in the large stock class with over 30 entries representing nearly all standard American production cars.

This year's race, the fifth of its kind over the tortuous Mexican highway from Tuxtla near the Guatemalan border in the extreme south, was even more difficult than the previous runs because of a general tightening of rules.

The winning Lincolns were strictly stock in every detail with the exception of safety modifications as permitted by the rule of the race. All entries in the large stock class were restricted to 1951 to 1954 models.

An Exclusive in The Pointe

Announcement was made early this week by Adrian of the appointment of S. STEIN & CO., in the Village, as the exclusive Grosse Pointe store for America's famous "Designs for Men" neckwear and sports shirts . . . designed for the man of dignity and position . . . to reflect his taste and still sparkle with wit, imagination and distinction that speak success and individuality. Adrian "Designs for Men" are original designs, each one worked out as a special problem . . . in ties and sports shirts. Styles that place masculine good taste and smartness above all else.

Museum Helps Theater Group

The Detroit Historical Museum has agreed to loan two portraits to the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre for their coming production, "Two Blind Mice," by Samuel Spewack.

In the play, Letitia Turnbull, played by Marion Lothrop, has a very high regard for President Theodore Roosevelt because he backed her husband in establishing the Office of Medichinal Herbs.

This was done in gratitude for Mr. Turnbull's curing him of a bad attack of indigestion with a strong dose of camomile tea. Hanging over the mantle in the old Georgetown mansion which houses the department, are two pictures; one of Theodore Roosevelt and, in a matching frame, Mr. Turnbull.

Who the gentleman in the picture actually is, no one knows. During the run of the play, December 10, 11, and 12, he will be known as "Mr. Turnbull", but upon return to the Detroit Historical Museum, he will sink back into anonymity, unless someone in the audience recognizes him among their forebears.

Anyone interested in attending the play at Cannon Memorial Center, on the chance they will locate a long-lost relative, please call TU. 1-9314 for tickets, or buy them at the door nights of production.

The Princess Beatrice Chapter, D.B.E., is having a luncheon and Christmas program on Monday, December 6, at 12:30 o'clock, in the home of Mrs. George DeVos, 572 Pemberton road.

Sketches on the border of the cloth of the punch table brought guests up to date on the high lights in the lives of Barb and Bob. The high school clock tower depicted their graduation from Grosse Pointe High School from which both were active on the Tower Staff and in Pointe Players.

The towers of Christian College for Women and Michigan State, balanced the sketches of Wayne University and Fort Sill's Officers Candidate School from which Bob was commissioned before serving in Korea. At the insistence of the young couple a caricature sketch of The Lone Ranger and a Ford Thunderbird ended the parade.

Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard G. Reed of McKinley avenue. Bob is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fran Striker of University place.

Death Has Tags Ready for 25

Twenty-five more persons will not live to see the New Year, if past traffic accidents records in Detroit repeat themselves.

These unknown citizens—men, women and children, but mostly older men—will be struck down in traffic during December, the most dangerous traffic month of the year.

The Traffic Safety Association issued this warning after an analysis of records of the Detroit Police Department Accident Prevention Bureau.

In the past ten years, an average of 25 persons have been killed in December traffic accidents in Detroit. Last year 25 persons met death and 21 of them were men, most of whom were over 45 years old. Eight of those killed were 65 years or older.

Detroit police are now conducting an intensive program of traffic law enforcement in an effort to prevent these deaths. Police Commissioner Edward S. Piggins has ordered 400 additional traffic officers to overtime duty to combat this toll. They are patrolling the most dangerous accident sectors during peak accident hours.

Detroit drivers and pedestrians, according to the Traffic Safety Association, can co-operate to prevent this death and injury by strict observance of our traffic laws. Particularly at night when our fatal accidents occur, drivers can slow down and be ready for any emergency. Pedestrians must realize that drivers can not see them as well at night and must exercise greater care in crossing streets.

The typical victim will be a man in his sixties. He will be a pedestrian who will walk into the street during hours of darkness. He has probably never driven a car so he doesn't understand the limitations of car or driver. And the driver will probably too late.

Packard Engine Sets Records

Powered by a pre-production 1955 model V-8 engine, a Packard four-door sedan has completed a 25,000-mile endurance run that eclipsed any stock car performance now on the record books.

Timed and observed by the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association, confirmation of the spectacular results of the grueling endurance test came from James H. Lamb, Contest Board secretary, in the following wire to Packard officials:

"An experimental Packard four-door sedan, equipped with a pre-production 1955 engine, was driven on the Packard Proving Ground, Utica, Michigan, to establish the following durability performance: Total distance traveled, 25,000 miles; total elapsed time, 238 hours, 41 minutes, 44.3 seconds, for an average miles per hour of 104.737."

Lamb's wire also constituted confirmation that 1955 model Packard-built cars will be powered by all-new V-8 engines. The average miles per hour mark of 104.737 includes all stops. Pit stops averaged 49 seconds each.

While not qualifying for official AAA marks, because the grueling test was held on Packard's private proving grounds, the Packard V-8 exceeded every national closed car record in existence from five miles to 25,000 miles and every world unlimited record, regardless of type of car, from 10,000 to 25,000 miles.

The existing world unlimited record for 10,000 miles was established by a European sports car at 100.65 per hour. The Packard time was 105.132 miles per hour.

The Packard V-8 topped all existing national closed car records by from six to 36 miles per hour by going through the entire 25,000-mile run without need for any time-consuming mechanical attention.

James J. Nance, president of Studebaker-Packard Corporation, said the endurance test of the Packard V-8 engine culminated eight years of the finest engineering effort in Packard history, which will result in Packard offering proof-tested high performance V-8 engines in 1955 models.

Volunteers Seek Funds for Needy

A goal of $25,000 has been set by the Volunteers of America for their annual Christmas Fund to provide relief for the needy at Christmas, according to Col. W. G. Boswell, officer in charge of the Detroit Post.

To raise the funds, six of the familiar Volunteers "Walking Santas" will seek donations in the downtown district, as is done by Volunteers Posts from coast to coast.

An appeal by mail to friends of the Volunteers in Metropolitan Detroit for support of the fund will also be made. Those who do not receive letters may send in their donations to the Volunteers at 1411 First Street marked, "For Christmas Fund."

The Volunteers hope to give food orders for Christmas dinners to more than 400 needy families this year.

Each boy and girl is asked to bring at least two cans of food. The Rev. Mr. Charles Leber, of the Dodge Community House, will be there to receive and dedicate this food. These cans will go on the pantry shelf to be used in filling Christmas baskets.

The presidents of the groups will take part in the Worship Service, Janis Bushong, president of the Grosse Pointe Congregational; Barb Needham, president of the Methodist; Nick Cameron of the Woods Presbyterian. The Rev. Mr. Marcus Johnson will give a short talk.

The following boys will act as ushers: Bill Springett and Dick Adams, Congregational; Gary Sauer and Buster Barbour, Methodist; Phil Keim and Dave Peters, Woods Presbyterian.

The service will be followed by square dancing, carol singing and refreshments in the social hall of the church.

Hospital Guild Meeting Dec. 6

The Junior Benefit Guild of the Cottage Hospital Women's Auxiliary will meet at 11 o'clock in the morning on Monday, December 6, at the Nurses' Home, 153 Ridge road, for a short business meeting.

The Navy operates a correspondence school with more than 150,000 Navy and Marine students.

Police Recruits Take Training

Eighteen patrolmen from six communities completed a phase of a 90-hour basic recruit training course on Friday, November 26, at the Park Municipal Building.

None of the eighteen have the needed 90 hours of training which will entitle them to a certificate of satisfactory completion.

Taking part in the training program were police officers from the Park, City, Farms, Shores, East Detroit and St. Clair Shores.

Once a year, graduation exercises are held in the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, at which time diplomas are awarded to the officers who have completed the full 90 hours of training.

Each patrolman recruit must undergo three 30-hour sessions, and can start at any one of the three phases, since the courses are continuously repeated.

Policemen from the Pointe who successfully completed the session which ended Friday are: William Barron, Francis Belanger, Don Pilon and Vincent Peters.

From the City, George Brackx and James Cronin; the Shores, Chester Painter, Joseph Vitale, Gordon Schwartz and Edmund Benthuis; and the Park, George Blair.

The program is sponsored by the Southeastern Association of Chiefs of Police of Michigan.

The Navy accumulates 400,000 cubic feet of records a year.

Legion Auxiliary News

From Unit 303

By ROWENA WEAVER

Preparations for Christmas in the veterans hospitals are going forward in American Legion Auxiliary Units and Departments throughout the nation, according to Mrs. Mary Del Barba, Rehabilitation Chairman of Grosse Pointe 303 Auxiliary Unit. Nearly one million dollars will be expended by the organization to help bring Christmas happiness to hospitalized veterans and their families, she said.

Christmas gift shops will be opened by the Auxiliary early in December in hospitals where war veterans are under care. Plans call for more than 200 of these shops which will be stocked with a wide variety of gift articles donated by Auxiliary Units and Departments. The shops, set up in spare rooms in the hospitals resemble other gaily decorated gift shops except there are no price tags and no cash registers. All is free to the veterans, including the mailing of the gifts to their homes.

Patients able to leave their beds come to these shops, many on crutches and in wheel chairs, to make selection of gifts for their families. They find the shops staffed by Auxiliary volunteer hospital workers who give countless hours of time to the project. These volunteers take hospital carts loaded with gift articles through the wards so that the bed-fast patients may make selection. In its gift shop program last year the Auxiliary expended $420,880.39.

Another Christmas activity of the Auxiliary is the giving of parties and entertainments in the hospitals. These are now in the planning stage throughout the country, Mrs. Del Barba said.

Then on Christmas Day a gift from the Auxiliary goes to every veteran who must spend the day in a hospital. Last year personal gifts went to 193,318 hospitalized veterans.

To Give Advice About Antiques

Alice Winchester, prominent authority on American antiques, will advise on collecting for connoisseurs and beginners in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts on Wednesday evening, December 8, at 8 o'clock.

Miss Winchester is well-known as editor of Antiques magazine, as author of many articles and books recognizing heirlooms as cultural history, and as one of the organizers of the annual Antique Forum at Colonial Williamsburg.

Her writings and lectures offer unusual insight into the opportunities, separations and changing attitudes of 300 years of American life and have done much to establish the historical and artistic importance of American antiques.

This lecture is the second in the Art Institute's 1954-55 Lecture Series, presenting internationally known experts in various fields of art history. Single admissions for Miss Winchester's lecture are being sold by committee members and the Art Institute Publications Desk.

Subsequent offerings in the series will be February 15, "Jan van Eyck and the Detroit St. Jerome" by Dr. Erwin Panofsky, who recently completed a brilliant study of the famous painting in the Detroit Institute's collection; and April 5, "Sassetta, Sieneze Painter of the 15th Century," by John W. Pope-Hennessy of the Victoria and Albert Museum, London, world authority on Detroit's great trio of panels by Sassetta.

The primary job of Navy destroyers is to seek out and destroy enemy submarines.

S. S. to Cover Self-Employed

"About 100,000 engineers, accountants, architects, and funeral directors who have their own businesses as sole owners or in a partnership will be brought under the social security program for the first time after 1954," Francis L. Pendergast, District Manager of the East Side Social Security Office said.

They will be brought under the law on a compulsory basis and they will begin to earn old-age and survivors' insurance for themselves and their dependents in the same way as self-employed businessmen have since the beginning of 1951.

Not included under the 1954 Amendments to the Social Security Act are lawyers, dentists, physicians, and men and women who are self-employed in other professional medical capacities, such as optometrists, veterinarians, chiropractors, and osteopaths.

All self-employed professional men and women who are covered by the program for the first time beginning January 1, 1955, will make their first report and pay their first social security tax on their earnings for their first taxable year after 1954.

The report and the tax contributions will be sent with the Federal income tax return which is due April 15, 1956. The social security tax for the self-employed person is three per cent. All net income from $400 to $4,200 in a year will be reported for social security and will be credited to the individual's social security account.

KERBY SCHOOL

By Dr. Custer Homeier

The boys and girls in Miss Betty Frounfelter's fifth grade class have had a rich and deeply educative experience in their recent study and cooperative research regarding the early history and development of Grosse Pointe.

The class study of Grosse Pointe's development was stimulated by their previous work in social studies classes regarding the development of New London, Conn. Several periods were devoted to planning the procedures to be used in this unit of work.

The class members were divided into three groups according to their particular interests. One group decided to delve into the historical aspect of Grosse Pointe, a second wished to develop a list of places of interest in Grosse Pointe and a brief description of them, while still a third group wanted to do research regarding the old homes in the community.

Several interesting projects were undertaken by these students. A large paper road representing the historical development of their community was constructed and placed upon one side of the classroom.

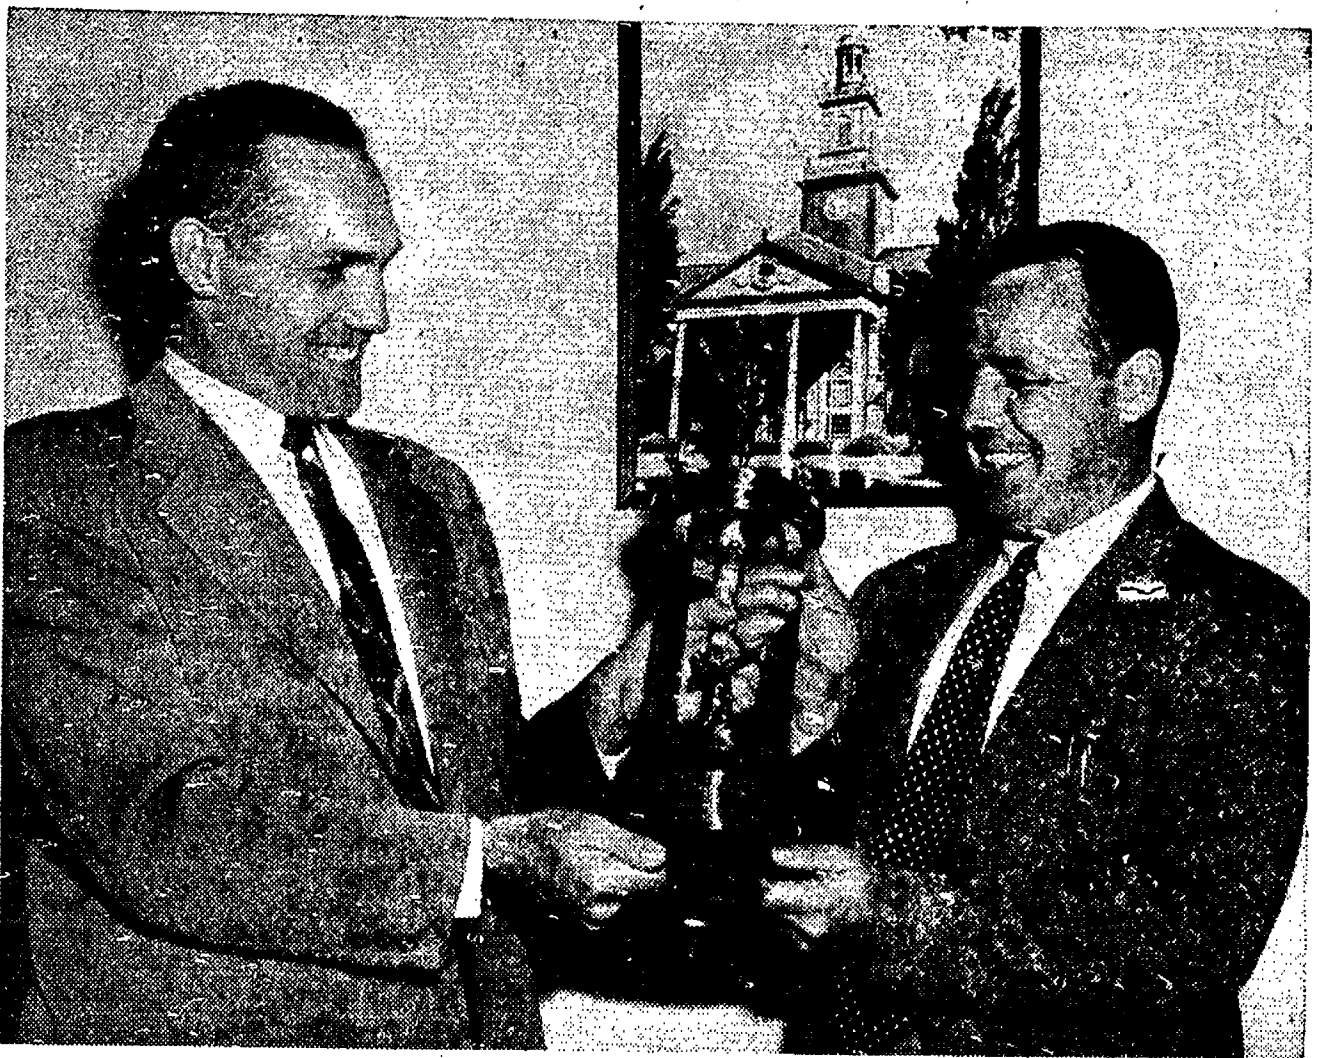

Each brick in this road contained printed information about an important historical event in the colorful history of Grosse Pointe.

A second project entailed mounting a large map of the Grosse Pointe School District on one of the bulletin boards and the printing of labels to represent places of special interest in our community. These labels were mounted some distance from the map and brightly colored ribbons attached to these labels were connected to the exact location on the map of the places of special interest.

A third group of students, after studying pictures of historically famous Grosse Pointe homes, drew pictures of these homes and made attractive mountings of these pictures on the bulletin boards.

The entire class as a part of this study made a field trip to the Old Kerby School which is now used by the maintenance department of the Grosse Pointe Schools. Comparisons were made between the Old Kerby School and the New Kerby School re-

Kellogg Center Accepts Grant

EAST LANSING — A grant of nearly half a million dollars to enlarge the Kellogg Center for Continuing Education at Michigan State College has been accepted by the State Board of Agriculture, M. S. C.'s governing body.

The board accepted the grant from the Kellogg Foundation of Battle Creek for additional conference rooms and offices at M.S.C.'s growing adult education center.

The grant provides for construction costing $440,750 with an additional $50,000 for furnishings and equipment.

It was largely through a grant from the Kellogg Foundation that the seven-story, $2,200,000 Kellogg Center was constructed in 1951.

The State Board of Agriculture also accepted a total of $94,918.52 in gifts and grants for research and teaching purposes at Michigan State.

Among the major grants was $60,000 accepted by the board for additional defense research for the Ordnance Corps, Detroit Ordnance District. The grant will be used in two projects under the direction of J. W. Donnell, professor of chemical engineering.

Grants totaling $10,000 were accepted for use by the Continuing Education Service to continue and expand the college programs in the fields of driver education and traffic safety.

They included $5,000 from the Michigan Inter-Industry Highway Safety Foundation and the Ford Motor Company, and $5,000 from the Inter-Industry Highway Safety Foundation of Detroit.

A grant of $6,000 for a study of Michigan soils was accepted from the International Minerals and Chemicals Corporation of Chicago.

Directing the use of the fund will be Kirkpatrick Lawton and R. L. Cook, professor of soil science. They'll study the magnesium status of Michigan soils and determine the needs of various crops for magnesium fertilization.

Christmas Seals Full of History

You may think of the Christmas Seal as an American tradition, but facts prove that the tiny stamp of health is a world-wide affair, the Tuberculosis and Health Society says.

Many countries have organizations selling seals to battle TB. In the United States, the National Tuberculosis Assoc. has 3,000 local organizations working on the problem of TB control in their own communities.

Richard L. Lea, executive director of the TB and Health Society, points out that in many countries the Christmas Seals are sold by the official government rather than by an unofficial, voluntary association.

"The Seals are different, too," he said. "This year, for instance, the American Christmas Seal features children, joining hands in health around the Christmas tree."

"This is far from being like some French Christmas Seals of the past, which have featured a small advertisement for a brand of toothpaste or some similar item."

"Our reports tell of many other unusual seals. One old German Christmas Seal pictures a man coughing while facing another man who is stricken with fear because he sees a symbolic skull in the germs being coughed at him. This was back in the 'sears' days.

"In Switzerland, a large seal is issued to be pasted on auto windshields. Japan was forced to abandon using the word 'tuberculosis' on its Christmas Seals because 'it is stated that the names of diseases and unpleasantness are considered of evil propensity in Japan.'"

Some of the other nations producing Christmas Seals for their own TB battles include Ceylon, Ireland, Canada, England, Palestine, Turkey, Denmark, Spain, Netherlands, Finland, Norway and Union of South Africa.

Notably, one part of the world now "appears to have no tuberculosis Christmas Seal," Mr. Lea reported. "Apparently, Russia had discouraged Christmas Seals, and has stamped them out in other countries now behind the Iron Curtain."

If you have not received your Christmas Seals call the TB and Health Societies at Woodward 1-1697 and a supply will be sent you.

Buy and use Christmas Seals. Defeat TB.

For Happier Hunting

As Christmas bears down on us with breath-taking speed, the waves of nostalgia that attempt to possess us are borne away on the winds generated by the exigencies of the season. So many things to do... and so little time in which to get them done.

We try desperately to cling to the sentimentality which belongs to the yuletide season. We revel for a few brief moments in the luxurious memories of Christmases in the long past, when life was simple and joys were easily discovered and extravagantly shared.

Recalling the hilarity that always accompanied Father's annual performance of extracting the turkey head and chunk of coal from the bottom of his stocking on Christmas morning, we feel a surge of rebellion towards the frenzy which the present day celebrations engender.

We deplore the commercialism which has subdued much of the so-needed spirit of this time of the year, and we become acutely aware of our own guilt in this hated invasion. Which calls for a self-appraisal and the offering of some defense, and perhaps a few suggestions.

The season of wholesale gift-exchanging gives birth to the year's greatest competition between businesses which have gifts for sale. A big part of the contest concerns successful advertising campaigns, and this brings us directly into the struggle. We both love it, and loathe it.

Just as the abnormally large business which most stores do in the few weeks before Christmas, enables them to carry on through lean periods during the rest of the year, so does the unusually large amount of advertising revenue at this time, allow us to give our readers representative papers during dull weeks when we are actually losing money.

Just as the clerks, the bookkeepers, the gift wrappers and the managers shudder under the impact of hordes of harried late shoppers, so do we feel our nerves fraying under the necessity of working through the long nights preparing issues far beyond our normal capacity.

The burden of fatigue grows heavier, but we carry on by telling ourselves that we can take it if the printers can, the stereotypers, the pressmen... and the mailmen who deliver our heavier papers as well as the millions of additional Christmas cards and packages; the policemen who have to battle the frenzied crowds in the shopping districts, and the myriad others who all have parts to play in this diabolical demonstration of getting ready for the yuletide.

It will all be over in a few weeks, and within a few weeks after that we shall be able to breathe comfortably again and even relax for more than a few minutes at a time.

The few suggestions we had in mind are of a pretty local nature. The business in which we are engaged has given us a close look at what your merchants have been doing to make these Christmas preparations as painless as possible.

Each year, scores of new establishments are opened in the shopping districts which are strategically located to serve all of the residential areas. Each-year the proprietors learn more about the tastes of their customers and make added efforts to stock merchandise which will appeal to them.

The municipalities and the stores themselves are constantly striving to provide more and more parking space for the convenience of the residents.

Special events such as Men's Night, special late hours observed by whole groups of stores in the same area, are planned to make this shopping chore a little simpler and gayer.

This community which boasts no industry, has built up shopping centers where it is now possible to obtain just about anything one's heart desires, close at hand. The necessity of having to fight traffic, or bus crowds, or jammed elevators has been practically eliminated through the combined efforts of our local establishments.

We suggest that you will find Christmas gift hunting and finding, a more pleasant experience if you will seek the solution to your problems right here at home, among your friends.

Another way to obtain certain solace in this muddled time, is to pause long enough in the frantic rush to give thought to the less fortunate. The charities which make special appeals at Christmas time are many. Most of them are worthy and most of us have our favorite ones. Take time out to send a check or two to the ones which will do the most to make the coming season brighter for those unable to help themselves. Such gifts will pay big dividends.

So back to work, with a heart full of compassion for all.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir: I congratulate you on your editorial in last week's News. I, too, had the same bewildered feeling on hearing the pros and cons of fluoridation, and I decided to read for myself what the experts had to say in medical journals and the Washington Hearings and Delaney Committee hearings, where only scientific testimony was heard.

A little of what I have found is, 1. The Public Health men promoting fluoridation admit that Sodium fluoride, which is used to fluoridate our water, is a potent accumulative poison (used in rat poison and insecticides). 2. They say a large amount would kill you, but a tiny bit taken every day will only help the teeth (if you are a child and your teeth are forming), and do no harm to your body. 3. They don't deny some of it remains in the body, but they aren't sure where it remains, and hope that it only goes to the teeth.

The amazing thing to me is that in the Delaney Hearings, the top men promoting fluoridation ad-

In battle or business, whatever the game, In law or in love, it is ever the same; In the struggle for power, or the scramble for pelf, For this be your motto... Rally on yourself! For, whether the prize be a ribbon or throne, The victor is he who can go it alone! (John G. Saxe)

Someone once told us there is nothing more destructive than a squirrel if he happens to be loose in your house. We must admit this was hard to believe since all we've seen them do is scamper about the garden like playful kittens and sit up begging for nuts at the back door. HOWEVER, we can now speak as an authority on the business of squirrels in the homestead!

As everyone knows who reads this column, we have been talking for months about re-decorating our modest abode... and while it may not suit Mrs. Van Astorbilt, we are happy as all get out with the finished result of ours. Naturally, with all this shiny new grandeur, we have made it a business to keep Ruffy, the wild cat, and his uncle, Mr. Charles Dickens, OUT of the re-decorated part.

It isn't that they are not clean as we are, but any cat fancier knows what they do when it comes to sharpening their claws! Although we have scratching posts all over the place... there is nothing they'd rather work on than a newly upholstered chair, especially if it happens to be a pastel satin; hence they are barred from the new decor.

To get back to the squirrel... imagine our open-mouthed surprise when on walking into our closed-in porch last Thursday, we spied a squirrel in the act of chewing on the plants out there. Before we had a chance to open the porch door to shoo him out... he flew into the new living room... jumped from table to table, tried to get into the fireplace, (which had no screen in front of it as yet)...

tracked soot from the fireplace all over the rug... then hopped from chair to chair, leaving nice little black footprints all over the fancy cushions. He then got back on the tables... tilted lamp shades hither and yon and before we could sneeze... he was back on the porch eating the plants.

With the help of a friend... we finally coaxed him outdoors and went back to revivify the damage. Never have we seen anything work so swiftly. Always an optimist, we sat down and thanked our lucky stars that he hadn't been closed in those rooms for say six hours. In case anyone cares to watch out for their OWN homes... the only tip we can give them is not to open a window more than a crack if there isn't a screen on it. We checked all of ours and found one window open from the top about a little more than an inch; and that is the only way Mr. Squirrel could have entered. Apparently, they can flatten themselves out to pancake size when they choose. All we can say is, it ain't any fun to have them scampering through the inside of your home.

On Thanksgiving Day we had the extreme pleasure of dining at the home of a friend and it occurred to us that the gal in the kitchen on that day certainly deserves a medal. Our friend told her maid to take the day off and decided to prepare the dinner herself. We were not there for the preliminaries... but from the dinner itself, we can guess the amount of work it entailed. If our hostess took less than six hours to complete the job, (and that excludes the cleaning up after)... then she is a genius. While a group of us sat in the drawing room talking our heads off... La Hostess came and went without any fanfare whatsoever and managed to give the impression she was there all the time... while turning out one of the most delectable dinners we have ever eaten.

The point we are trying to make... and by no means a new one... is that it took all of us not more than a half hour to gorge ourselves and get back into the drawing room again! Must be pretty discouraging. There ought to be a Thanksgiving law that once people are seated at the table, they should take at least two hours to enjoy a meal that takes so much time and trouble to prepare.

And before we leave Thanksgiving until next year... we think this is a fairly good indication of our times. A woman we know had been bothered with a slight cold for a few days the beginning of last week and after trying her own remedies, she decided she was feeling worse, so telephoned her doctor on Wednesday to ask his advice. When she called, she told the office nurse that she didn't want to BOTHER the doctor, but perhaps he could tell her on the phone what to do and send some medicine, etc.

The nurse said she was sorry but it was the doctor's day off. The woman then said, 'Well, that's all right; I'll just give him a ring tomorrow.' To which Miss Nurse replied, 'You CAN'T call tomorrow... it's THANKSGIVING DAY!' The moral to that must be if you are going to get a pain in your clavicle DON'T do it on a holiday or you might be classed as a pain in the neck. Surely, one has enough sense to get his pneumonia any other time except during the holidays. After all, you've got 11 months to do it in... why pick on Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year's Day, Easter, Fourth of July, Labor Day, or Be-Kind-to-Animals week. Just watch your timing, kids.

mitted they had never made studies, were not making them, and only hoped to in the future, of the effects of sodium fluoride on adults, the sick and the aged. I wrote the Director of Public Health at Grand Rapids where the experiment has been going on since 1945. He told me that only the children's teeth have been checked (groups spotted over the city), and periodic urine tests made. (In the Hearings they told of retention). All that is being done to check on harmfulness is to watch the morbidity rates. Does it seem too much to ask that they make studies of adults to find out the effects of the sodium fluoride drunk over a long period of time? This is the place and nine years have gone by without doing a thing. The death rate shows nothing as research people who have worked on fluorine for years say that it takes 20 to 30 years to die from it, but for many years one shows symptoms of poisoning. He said the project was set up to last 10 to 15 years and yet at the end of 5 years the U. S. Public Health decided to endorse it and began urging other cities to fluoridate their drinking supply. Scientists who oppose fluoridation say people with kidney trouble, arthritis, ulcers and diabetes, should not be drinking the water, and that experiments on rats show that it shortens the life span. At a dental meeting lately, I heard the Dental Health man from Chicago talk on the benefits of fluoride in our water. He said that Dr. Heyroth, whom they quote often, did not say in the Hearings that those with kidney trouble should be drinking bottled water. I have a copy of the Hearings before me. Dr. Heyroth was asked this question and he answered "Yes". He said (Dr. Doty from Chicago) that the Public Health did not need to make studies to find out if it harmed people or not, as nature had set up the studies for them in naturally fluoridated areas.

In the Hearings it is admitted again that no one knows what natural fluoride comes from, but in spite of that they say they are sure the fluoridation is the same as that in sodium fluoride. Then Dr. Doty went on to say that in these studies made in Bartlett, Texas, (the Research Council made them), no disease showed up in excess over areas which did not have fluoride in the water naturally. Hence they are sure it does not harm us.

I have just read the Research Council's report of the Bartlett studies. It has a whole paragraph of diseases found in that area much in excess of other areas, and suggests that many more studies be made because of the amount of fluoride in the water, all diseases indicative of fluorosis. Why do they make these other statements? I could tell of many other things I have found, but I will end by saying that I believe we should follow the advice of the Delaney Committee, who said, after hearing scientific testimony for seven days, "that the Committee strongly urges that research now under way be continued and expanded and that further studies, not limited to the vital statistics, be conducted to determine the long-range effects upon the aged and chronically ill of the ingestion of water containing inorganic fluorides."

They said it was better to err on the side of caution, if error was to be made, than to be too hasty and repent. Sincerely yours, VIRGINIA M. WHEELLOCK (Mrs. Wendell K.) 288 Cloverly Rd.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

This week we made the rounds of the library staff to gather suggestions for books to give at Christmas. It is impossible to list every title mentioned, but here are a few which should be welcome additions to any home library.

The COLUMBIA-VIKING DESK ENCYCLOPEDIA, Viking Press. Compiled and edited at Columbia University by the staff of the Columbia Encyclopedia, this is a compact volume presenting ready-to-use information in brief and portable form. Editions run from $7.95 to $12.50.

For the home decorator, there is HOME DECORATING GUIDE, by Charles H. Henders, Sterling, $2.95; the HOUSE AND GARDEN COMPLETE GUIDE TO INTERIOR DECORATING, Simon & Schuster, $10; and the LADIES HOME JOURNAL BOOK OF INTERIOR DECORATING, Doubleday, $6.95, a practical book of home-decoration in attractive format with many colored plates and black and white illustrations.

A newly revised edition of KOEPEL'S COMPLETE OPERA BOOK, Putnam, $10, should be available in time for Christmas giving. This covers 237 operas and brings the repertory up to date. The synopses are amplified with musical extracts and there are 32 plates of illustrations. Also priced at $10 is a PICTORIAL TREASURY OF OPERA IN AMERICA, by Daniel Blum, published by Greenberg.

For the globe trotter or the arm chair traveler are two books with superb photographs, THE SOFT SPIES OF FRANCE, by Samuel Chamberlain, Hastings House, $5; and EUROPE, A JOURNEY WITH PICTURES, by Ann Freemantle and Bryan Holme, Studio, $7.50.

Writings about the sea are as varied as its moods. THE BOOK OF THE SEA, edited by A. C. Spector, Appleton-Century-Crofts, $10, is an interesting collection, well illustrated and attractively bound. If you have a chess enthusiast on your Christmas list, HOW TO BE A WINNER AT CHESS, by Fred Reinfeld, Hanover, $2.75, should make a welcome gift; and in the motor city there will be many who may enjoy the AMERICAN AUTO MOBILE ALBUM, by William H. McCaughey, Dutton, $6. This presents pictorially with interesting text the significant developments in automobile history.

WOODLAND PORTRAITS, by Jeannette Klute, Little Brown, $20, is a breathtakingly lovely luxury item which will be appreciated equally by the naturalist and the photographer. THE OLD TESTAMENT AND THE FINE ARTS, an anthology of pictures, poetry, music and stories covering the Old Testament, by Cynthia P. Maus, Harper, $5.95, might well find a place on your gift list, and Pearl Buck's autobiography, MY SEVERAL WORLDS, Day, $5, considered by many critics her best book should have a wide appeal.

Last but not least the SATURDAY EVENING POST TREASURY, Simon & Schuster, $7.50 will bring pleasure to the entire family. This covers a wide assortment of stories, articles and poems from Benjamin Franklin's own writings to present day fare. Also included are many of the Saturday Evening Post covers in full color and line drawings adapted from Saturday Evening Post illustrations.

Parents of school age boys and girls will be interested to know that the Board of Education has placed a complete collection of textbooks used in the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, in the Central Library. These are on display this week. In order that they may be available for inspection at all times, these books will not be circulated.

Nab Teenagers For Tampering Park police used a bicycle left at the scene of a car tampering to trap two 15-year-old boys, charged with the offense on Tuesday, November 23. Information disclosed by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, revealed that the two youths had entered the Adam-Simms used car lot, 15401 East Jefferson, and while one boy got into one of the cars on the lot, the other stood outside and watched.

The boy in the car started up the motor and drove it a short distance back and forth, and then got out to give his companion a chance to drive. The second youth backed the car too far and too fast, and struck a service car standing in the lot. After causing the damage, the boys fled on foot, leaving a bicycle they had been riding, on the car lot. A formal charge of tampering with a motor vehicle has been signed against the boys. Court date is pending.

CAMERAS CATCH PICTORIAL NEWS OF INTEREST FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

DANCES AS CAPTURED PRINCESS—Shapely Susan Hayward dances for the first time in her film career as a captured Tartar princess in "The Conqueror." She does the Oriental dance during a lavish entertainment and climaxes it by hurling a sword at John Wayne.

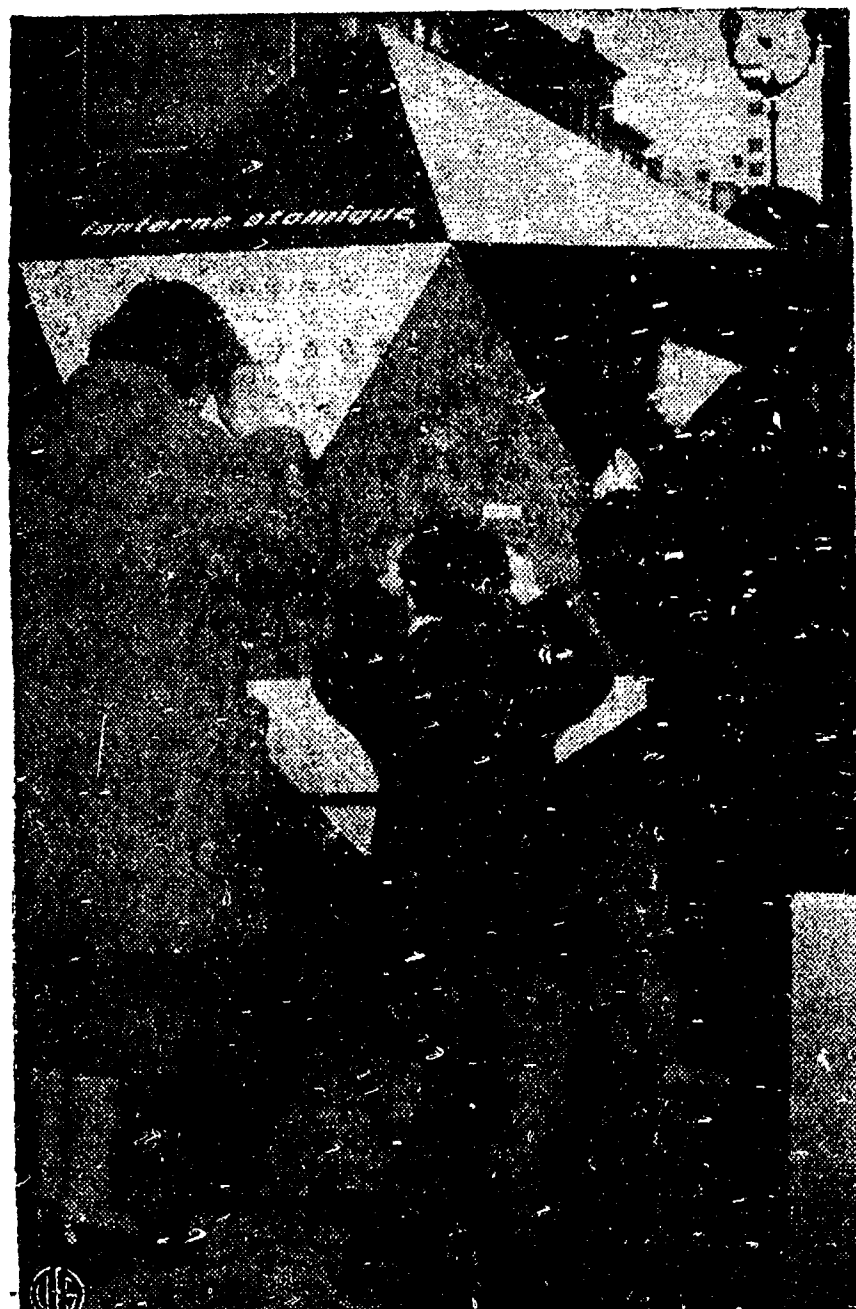

SOME CATCH—Lovely Mona Massey needs no baited hook to lure all the fish in the sea, for she is a natural dazler. However, most of the people try their hands at fishing around Miami Beach, so Mona thought she'd give the sport a whirl.

ARTIST IN VELVET—Rudolf Urmersbach, 52, a Mount Pleasant, Mich., artist, is putting his work on public exhibition for the first time. Using special techniques he developed himself, Urmersbach paints on black velvet, producing colorful, dramatic effects.

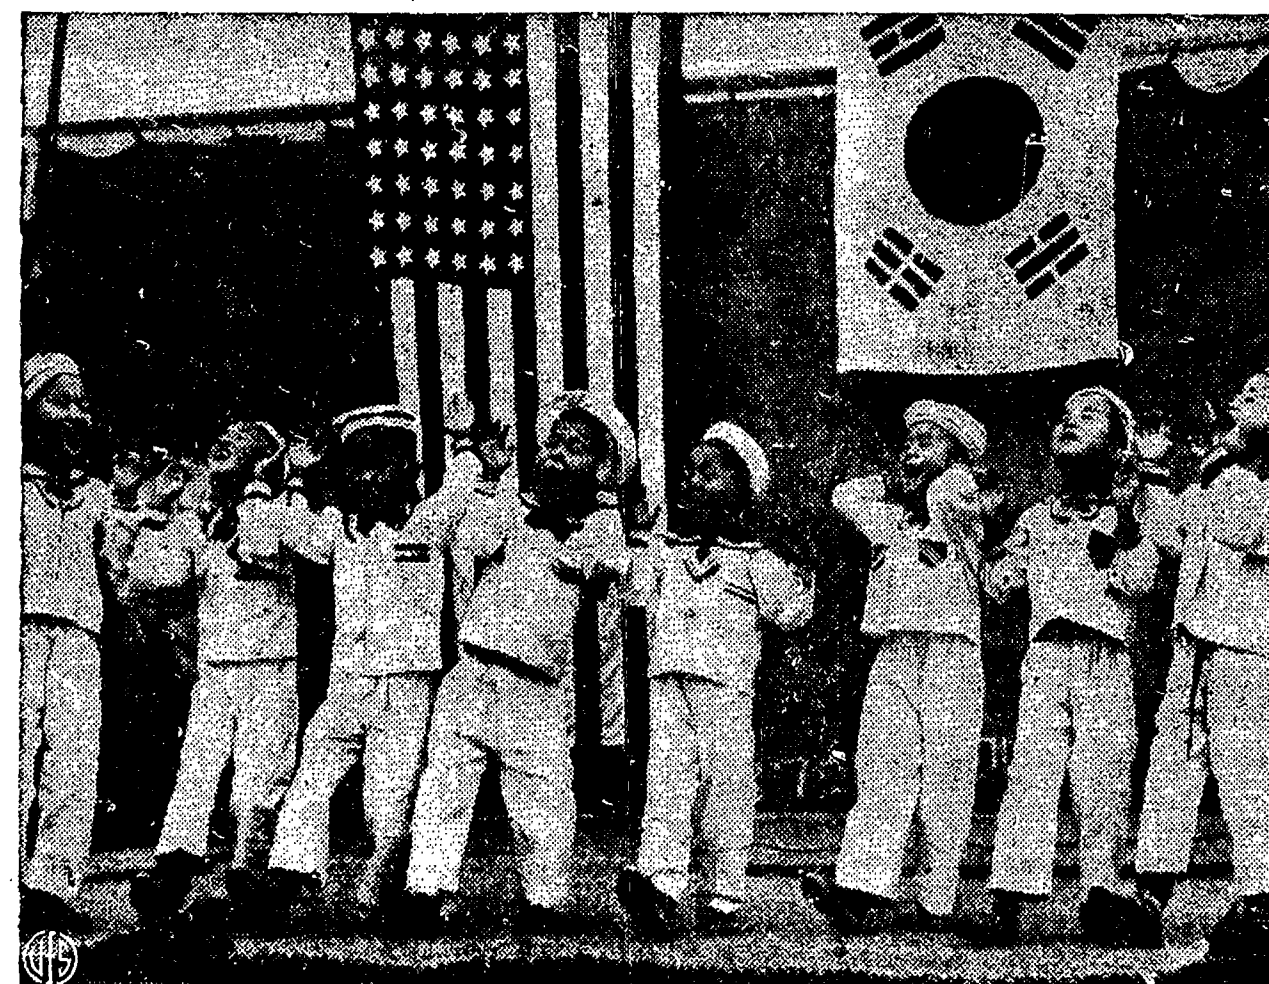

FIRST SACKER IN 1975?—President Clark Griffith of the Washington Senators helps his grandnephew Calvin Griffith Robertson, two months old, get the feel of a baseball during festivities at an 85th birthday party for "Griff." With the fine points that Calvin can pick up from the venerable baseball man, he might have a head start on a baseball career himself.

TRI-GENERATION CURIOSITY—Three generations seem keenly interested in this "atomic lantern" displaying images of samples of all minerals which are at the source of atomic energy. It is part of the "Atoms in Service of Peace" exhibition in Brussels, Belgium, and sponsored by the U. S. and Belgian governments.

"TAMED" IODINE—The white rat atop the graduate wouldn't even get sick if he were to drink all the iodine in the flask. Developed by the West Disinfecting Company, Long Island City, N. Y., the new "tamed" iodine is not toxic even if consumed in large quantities. It has been found effective against polio, tuberculosis, and influenza germs. The "tamed" iodine will not sting the wound being treated and is reported not to stain the skin or any fabrics.

EIGHT-STAR RATING—These Korean youngsters seem to be enjoying their roles as song and dance men while entertaining U. S. Marines during the dedication of the Bon Ill Chon Primary School. The school is one of 14 projects underwritten by the Leathernecks through the Armed Forces Assistance to Korea program.

TV COMES TO THE KIDS—Children in the polio ward of the Hospital for Special Surgery in New York City are regaled at a special, holiday-season party by Jack Barry (pointing), star of the CBS-TV children's show, "Winky Dink," and his comedian pal, Dayton Allen. Several of the youngsters able to leave their beds joined the act.

FITCHING PADRE—Father Indalecio Alejo, president of the University Athletic Association of the Philippines, shows fine form as he pitches the first ball in a local baseball game in Manila. Uniformed players in the background look on with approval.

NOT AS A BRUNETTE—Academy Award actress Olivia De Havilland appears as a blonde for the first time on the screen in Stanley Kramer's production of the best-selling novel, "Not As A Stranger." She will be cast as a nurse.

THE SUSPENSE IS TERRIFIC—Beauty is the cat licking her lips with her tongue as she eyes a possible snack inside the goldfish bowl. Beauty belongs to four-year-old Douglas Barry of New York, who must wonder if cats really do like to eat goldfish.

LADY WITH A PAST—Mrs. Electa Merry well may be re-living part of her past as she relaxes in her St. Paul, Minn., home. Just celebrating a century of life, Mrs. Merry is thought to be the last surviving person born in the territory of Minnesota before it became a state.

CAN'T FOOL HER—Sandria, a peke-faced female at the Cotton States Cat Club show in Atlanta, Ga., sticks out her tongue disapprovingly at the toy dog nearby, frowning slightly at the prank played on her. It would seem to take more than just an ordinary pooch to upset the long-haired dignity of this feline.

THIS IS A TOLL CALL—This porpoise seems to smile, in anticipation of dinner, after hearing the bell ring to summon all hungry porpoises to "table" at Marineland, Fla. The bell is lowered into the water, and when it's rung the playful porpoises all dash to the feeding station.

SPORTS POINTS

by FRED RUNNELLS SPORTS EDITOR

Eugenio Makes All-State As Other Devils Win Honors

"Good things come in small packages" and Don Eugenio, Grosse Pointe's 150 pound bundle of dynamite, proved this point when he was selected to the 1954 Class "A" All-State, All-Suburban and All-Border Cities League football teams within the last week.

Eugenio is the smallest player on the All-State squad, packing his 150 pounds on a stocky 5 feet 7 inch frame. Driven by a strong heart, an unquenchable desire to win, and tremendous team loyalty and spirit, he was by far the most valuable member of the Blue Devils' State Class A championship team.

Can Give and Take Don's ability to play both offense and defense attracted the attention of the All-State board of coaches when it came time to make the 1954 selections. Despite his size, he was the best and surest tackler on the Blue Devil eleven and held down the all-important safety position on defense.

On offense Eugenio ranked second in scoring behind the Pointers' high scoring Bill Dow, who chalked up 72 points as compared to Eugenio's 54.

Besides Eugenio's triple selection, Grosse Pointe completely dominated the All Border Cities League team with the naming of tackler Jim Ogdén, Paul Christo and halfback Bill Dow. All three also received All-State recognition. Ogdén was named to the second All-State team and Christo and Dow received honorable mention.

Jim Ogdén, 6 feet 3 inch, 194 pound tackle, normally would have made the first All-State team but for the fact no school placed more than one boy on the squad. The All-State board seriously considered Ogdén's steady performance both on offense and defense and finally selected him to the second team. While others were flashier and attracted the fans' attention, Ogdén contented himself with tearing big holes in the opposition's line for his teammates to run through.

Paul Christo, 6 feet, 210 pound tackle, was one of the few Juniors to be ranked on the All-Border Cities League team, and given All-State honorable mention, mainly because of his "Bull in a china shop" type of play that made him one of the most feared linemen in the league. Paul played both ways, which is the exception instead of the rule in high school competition which allows the two platoon system.

Bill Dow Honored Twice Bill Dow, 5 feet 10 inch, 160 pound halfback, stamped himself as one of the better broken field runners in prep circles. His long touchdown runs delighted Blue Devil fans no end this past season and the majority of his touchdowns were scored on long, twisting scampers. Dow was a unanimous choice for BCL selection and All-State honorable mention.

Players from other schools in the Border Cities League also gained All-State recognition with Edward Bartz and Ray Soldan of Royal Oak being named to the second team. Others to receive honorable mention were: Ends John McKeekins (Highland Park); Dick Wiegandt (Fordson); Guard Bill Cheplick (Wyandotte); Center Don Grinenko (Fordson); Backs Bob Manthey (Wyandotte); Eugene Sisinyak (Monroe).

Cage Coaches Attend Clinic

Howard B. MacAdam and Robert E. Kurvink of Grosse Pointe High School got some new tested ideas on offensive and defensive play at the second annual basketball clinic sponsored by Michigan State College.

The faculty for the basketball school was led by "Professor" Fordy Anderson, new head basketball coach for the Spartans. He used drills and demonstrations to explain his fast-break style of play.

And the coaches—there was a record-breaking total of 283 from Michigan, Illinois, Indiana, and Ohio—saw the M.S.C. cage squad in its first full-dress exhibition game. It was a fast 66-65 battle.

Movies also supplemented the lectures and court work. A luncheon address by Biggie Munn, athletic director, was another highlight of the two-day clinic, Nov. 19 and 20. All the coaches were guests of the college at the Michigan State-Marquette football game.

Coach Anderson, who compiled a standout win record while coaching at the Great Lakes Naval Station and Drake and Bradley Universities, announces the clinic will be repeated again next October to help high school coaches.

New Ski Centers About to Open

Three new ski centers will be in operation during Michigan's winter sports season, reports the Michigan Tourist Council. This brings the number of the state's winter sports centers to forty-one.

They are located in every section of the state from Kalamazoo and Pontiac in the south to the Copper Country and Ironwood in the Upper Peninsula. Those making their debut this season are: Sylvan Knob near Gaylord; Udell Hills at Manistee; and Crystella Ski Hill at Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula.

"Michigan's ski centers are well-equipped to serve both novice and expert skiers," says Robert J. Furlong, Executive Secretary of the Tourist Council. Facilities have been generally improved and expanded so that Michigan will be able to entertain more winter visitors than ever before.

Biggest Dads' Club Party To Honor State Champions

For years the Grosse Pointe High School Dads' Club has been honoring "Blue Devil" football teams despite average seasons. Next Wednesday, December 8, the dads will have a field day, for it will be the first time they have had the privilege of feasting a State Champion.

President Nathan Goodnow tells us sports announcer Van Patrick has accepted the club's invitation to be the principal speaker of the evening. Also a number of outstanding college and professional athletes will be on hand with Grosse Pointe's own Jerry Goebel commanding the guests. Jerry is the first Blue Devil gradder to make the varsity football team at the University of Michigan.

The affair will start off with dinner in the cafeteria at 6:30 and the program will continue in the auditorium around 7:30 p.m. at which time George Maskin will present the school with the Detroit Times Class "A" State Championship trophy and Hal Schram will present the 32 inch Free Press State Championship trophy. The Grosse Pointe News will award individual trophies to the team and its coaches.

Yes, sir, the Grosse Pointe Dads' Club has been waiting a long time for an opportunity such as this and they are planning to make this annual football roundup the best in history.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

Local sailors are going to be a busy bunch during the month of December if they take in all the affairs that are planned.

First off the bat our own Detroit River Yachting Association will get the ball rolling with its annual Winter Election meeting to be held at the Edison Boat Club, Friday, December 3. The meeting will be preceded by dinner at the host club for those who desire it. You must make reservations in advance.

Following dinner the business meeting will take place and will be highlighted by the election of the officers for 1955. Vice Commodore Murray V. Knapp is slated to move up to the commodore's post vacated by Commodore Frank Martin.

Rear Commodore Bruce Tappan will also move up a notch, leaving his post open for a new rear commodore. DRYC secretary Hal Smith of Bayview and Paul Adam of Grosse Ile Y. C. are the nominees for the post.

If past practices are followed you can be sure one of these gentlemen will withdraw before the voting starts and it's our guess Paul Adam will graciously withdraw in favor of Hal.

Probably the biggest headache the new commodore will have will be to find a secretary to replace meticulous Hal Smith who for years has kept the DRYA records straight.

Commodore Al Grundy's Inter Lakes Yachting Association will get together for its annual Fall meeting on Saturday, December 4, at the Whittier Hotel. The affair will start with the ILYA Yachtsman's Fund Meeting at 2 p.m. and will be followed by the general meeting at 3 p.m.

On the same day the North Channel racers will get together for their annual North Channel dinner at Bayview Yacht Club in the evening. At that time class winners and the overall winner will receive their trophies.

Bob Schroeder of Crescent Sail Yacht Club will get the top prize in the C class, Joe Matte the Luder 16 trophy, Bob Todd the L class prize, and yours truly the Privateer and overall trophies.

Grosse Pointe Sail Club will hold its annual dinner at the Detroit Yacht Club on Tuesday, December 7, at which time the club sailors will receive season prizes. This one gets going at 7:45 p.m.

Yup, local lads are going to be busy party goers during the first week of the month and then they will have just enough time to get their Christmas shopping done before the busy holiday season descends upon us. After that—who knows—East Lynn, maybe.

The Belle Isle Outboard Club held its annual election meeting, Friday, November 26, at the Veterans Building in Detroit and at that time elected its flag officers for 1955.

Successful flag officer candidates were: Nick Kerns, commodore, A. J. Gola, vice commodore, Otto Scherer, secretary, and Nick Bucheresta, treasurer. Kerns and Scherer are Grosse Pointers.

Elected to the board of directors were: Bud Paarker, Dick Gallagher and Melrose Cole with Tom Iwaoka, Ralph Hipper and Grosse Pointer "Skip" Forcier as alternates. News Notes from G. P. U. S.

Basketball begins as football ends at the Grosse Pointe University School, but this season for the first time in 25 years Athletic Director Earl Kimber will not be the team's head coach. He has turned over the responsibility to Coach Norman Platine, who will be assisted by William Bellows. Coach Platine will be taking over his new job under some initial difficulties this fall. Because of all the new construction work at the school the gymnasium will not be ready for use, as things look now, until early January. Practice, however, will be taking place at the gym of the Monteth School just up the street, through the helpful cooperation of school officials.

Many college representatives visit Grosse Pointe University School each year particularly in the fall and early winter. So far a number of them have had a chance to address senior boys and girls as well as interested members of other classes. Among the representatives have been Emory Walker of Brown, Wilbur Brucker, Jr., of Princeton, Roy Orr of Northwestern, Miss Jane Schumann of Smith, Miss Ann Schlosser of Mary Baldwin College, Miss Mary Beecher of Bennett Jr. College.

Visitors to see the "new look" of their old school were former D.U.S. teachers E. A. Barrell, Jr., now head of the English department in Dover, Del. and G. M. Garrett, former Associate Headmaster of D.U.S. and now Headmaster of the Park School in Indianapolis, Ind.

Attending a religious conference this weekend in Racine, Wis. will be Miss Betsy Ferguson of the faculty, Sam Daume, and Ann Woodruff. The conference of Mid-West Preparatory School will be under the auspices of the Council for Religion in Independent School.

On Tuesday night, November 30, the parents of 7th and 8th grade pupils met together for a discussion of school activities, a tour of the building, and refreshments. Parent representatives were Nancy Pierce, Mr. Gordon Wood, and William H. McGaughey.

Michigan has more deer hunters than Idaho has population, says Warren W. Chase, professor of wildlife management at the University of Michigan. He adds that one-third of our hunters get their game, while almost 70 per cent of Idaho nimrods are successful.

Ford Museum Offers Pageant

The Henry Ford Museum's fourth annual Christmas pageant will take the form of a gigantic "Christmas Feast"—with all the trimmings—during the month-long show opening December 3.

This year's exhibit will give visitors an idea of how Americans of the 18th and 19th century prepared and served Christmas meals. Each phase of the meal will be emphasized, including early American appetizers, main courses, beverages and desserts.

Focal point of the vast exhibit will be a huge dining room set with classical furniture by Duncan Phyfe and Thomas Sheraton. Silver soup plates made in 1815 by the noted English silversmith Paul Storr will be included in the service set for 10 people.

Also on display in the dining room will be a matching pair of sideboards made by Sheraton in the late 18th century. Each was made especially for Matthew Boulton, who discovered the process of Sheffield silver plating. The sideboards remained in Boulton's home in England from 1792 until purchased by Henry Ford in 1929, when they were brought to the Museum.

Each section will have recipes and cook books describing how individual parts of the Christmas meal were prepared in early America. Many types of early silver, ceramics and glass will be shown.

"Christmas Feast" will show many of the 18th and 19th century crude cooking utensils used in preparation of the meal. An 1853 stove will be set up showing a meal in the process of being cooked. Other kitchen utensils will include early brass and copper tea kettles and ladles.

Desserts of the 18th-19th century will be emphasized in a section containing a wide variety of pudding molds, nut crackers, cookie cutters, pie plates and cake molds.

"Christmas Feast" will be on display in the Main Exhibition hall of the Museum during regular hours of 9 until 5 from December 3 through January 2.

Mack Businesses Protest to DSR

The Mack Avenue Business Men's Club has charged that the DSR is discriminating against its members by urging people to shop downtown.

A letter from E. C. White, chairman of the club's civic committee, protested against bargain-day fares and the "park and ride" lot at Jefferson and St. Jean.

"Our members, most of whom are owners of business along Mack avenue, and are taxpayers," the letter stated "can see no reason for the City of Detroit, through its ownership of the railway system, to deliberately urge and, through the use of cut prices, coax our customers to go downtown and buy."

"It is our contention that the purpose of the street railway system is to furnish transportation to the people of Detroit as they may desire, at as reasonable a rate of fare as is practical."

"But, this does not mean that the funds of this system should be used to promote unnecessary travel by advertising and by operating at a loss to get customers away from their neighborhood to buy downtown."

The season will officially open this evening, Thursday, December 2, with the Junior Division beginning at 6:30 in which the St. Paul team and the St. Paul Varsity will compete, followed by a 7:15 game, with the Streamliners and Sue D'Hoog's team battling it out.

In the Senior Division, the Waf's will play the CYO-a team at 8 o'clock; and the 9 o'clock game will feature the Metropolitan Club and the CYO-b team.

Because there are five teams in the Senior Division, one club will draw a bye each week. This evening the Hoppers, headed by Suzanne Peplinski, will draw the bye.

All games are going to be played at the Neighborhood Club, with the entire league being conducted and organized by Pauline Masak.

Expert Answers Deer Questions

"What do deer think of red shirts?"

Inevitable as the coming of the deer hunting season are the questions which accompany it. Wildlife experts find themselves beleaguered by suddenly curious sportsmen and non-sportswomen alike, who want to know things like this, and "can you tell a deer's age by his antlers?"

The size of a deer's antlers depends not so much on his age as upon his nutrition, according to Prof. Warren W. Chase, chairman of the University of Michigan's Department of Wildlife Management in the School of Natural Resources.

Antlers are made of a bony substance, at first sheathed in a velvety covering, and are secondary sex characteristic restricted to the buck, who begins to develop the "rack" in the spring and has a full-blown set of antlers by the breeding season in October and November.

If you come across a buck in January with a head tipped drunkenly to one side, chances are he's not hung-over from the past mating period but is merely plagued with a case of one-antlered, the other still with him temporarily.

"Most persons don't realize that all deer look alike between February and June when the bucks have shed their antlers," Professor Chase points out.

Rodents, squirrels and porcupines keep the forest floor clear of discarded antlers because these are a valuable source of calcium and phosphate for the small animals.

The deer seem to know how wide their antlers are and don't try to go between too-closely-set trees, but they sometimes get themselves locked in combat with other bucks and die in this head-on entanglement.

A buck could probably run a mile or more at a stretch but since deer have a tendency to run in circles they usually end up behind the hunter in their attempts to escape.

And the color of a hunter's shirt doesn't matter to them.

Headlines of the Week

broke in two and its halves drifted miles apart. A German trawler hit a World War II mine. Helicopters and Coast Guard vessels stood ready to help other storm-tossed ships. Thousands of acres were already inundated in England.

BRITAIN STATED that the strong U. S. note of protest against the imprisonment of the 13 Americans for "spying," which it will give to the Red Chinese on behalf of the United States, will be dispatched without any delay. Leading UN delegates fully endorsed the strongly worded American protest and demanded that the prisoners be released.

ALGER HISS, who for three and a half years was prisoner No. 19137, left prison walls behind him, but as a convicted felon. He must report his every major move to his parole officer for months to come. He is barred from holding public office; cannot practice his profession of law, and is deprived of the privilege of voting.

SUNDAY, November 28
RED CHINA SCORNED the United States' protest note on the jailing of 43 Americans as spies, claiming the American Government was putting up a "smoke screen to deceive the public."

THE NATIONS of Latin-America killed a Chilean plan for creation of an inter-American economic financial agency; and then assailed the U. S. for being unwilling to study some other plan for a hemispheric financial agency.

THIRTY PERSONS were feared dead in the gale and floods that pounded Britain. A 100-mile-an-hour wind smashed shipping, disrupted communications and caused floods. Torrential rains followed the gale and forced evacuation of several villages and towns in the worst floods in 30 years.

MONDAY, November 29
FOLLOWING a flat rejection of a note from the United States, which protested the imprisonment of 13 Americans on the charge of spying, Red China refused to consider freeing the 11 soldiers and two civilians. The rejection left Washington officials studying possible alternatives.

sibilities for the next move.
KONRAD ADENAUER, West German chancellor, emerged victorious in an election held in Bavaria, which left him in control of the Federal Parliament. His policy of German rearmament was scorned in Socialist Hesse.

SOMETIMES they do come in pairs. In Hagerstown, Md., David Reasner, 2, was taken to the hospital when a pair of pliers in the hands of a relative slipped and gave him a left black eye. The relative was trying to fix the zipper on little David's coat. When the doctors were through with David, the parents of Douglas Grove, 2, brought him to the hospital and he was put in the same room with David. Same trouble. Same eye. Same way.

Tuesday, November 30
JOHN FOSTER DULLES, Secretary of State, ruled out blockading of Red China in retaliation for imprisoning 13 Americans on spy charges. He said that this nation will rely on peaceful means in trying to have the men freed.

A FORMAL ORDER is expected from the Michigan Supreme Court which would deny an immediate hearing in the Michigan Turnpike Law. It was understood that the court had considered the case and agreed to turn down the Turnpike Authority's request for a declaration of rights without prejudice.

By adding "without prejudice" the court left the door open to start a case in Circuit Court, whose decision then could be appealed to the state's highest court. Lawyers revealed that while some states allow supreme courts to give declaratory judgments, Michigan does not.

NOW POP KNOWS whose side is on. In Shreveport, La., the local paper received a letter scrawled by a youngster to Santa Claus. It read: "My mommie has been married for 12 years and has never had a rolling pin. My daddy is getting out of hand. Please bring my mother a rolling pin."

Wednesday, December 1
JAPAN HAS AGREED to pay 13 nations $12,000,000 in compensation for holding their soldiers prisoners during World War II. A signed agreement provides that the money will be paid by May 31 through the International Red Cross in Geneva. The United States is not one of the 13 nations, having voluntarily relinquished its claim.
The payment, required by the San Francisco Treaty, provides compensation to Great Britain, Canada, Australia, the Netherlands, France, Cambodia, New Zealand, Pakistan, Vietnam, Laos, Indonesia and the Philippines.

SENATOR FERGUSON, defeated by Patrick McNamara in a bid for re-election to the Senate, has been hinted as a candidate for the post of U. S. Comptroller General. The $17,500 a year job has been vacant since the retirement of Comptroller Gen. Warren last April.
Ferguson has been suggested for the job, in spite of the fact that the White House had nominated Atomic Energy Commissioner Joseph Campbell, earlier. Nominations for the position will be submitted to the next Congress.

UNDER THE HAMMERING of winds of hurricane force, the 7,375-ton British ship Tresillian sank in the Irish Sea with a loss of at least 15 members of its crew. Rescue ships picked up 19 survivors and three dead men from the water in perilous rescue operations and reported sighting another 12 dead floating face downward.

Turgeon, Mamie and Ike's official photographer, has "snapped" many prominent Pointers, including Mrs. David A. Wallace . . . Mr. Wallace (a wonderful study of the hunter!) . . . Mrs. William C. Ford and her two tiny daughters . . . Mrs. T. D. Buhl . . . and Mrs. C. Henry Buhl . . .

Village lane is one of the quaintest and most charming streets in the Pointe . . . Don't you agree? . . .

They've danced with the Duke of Windsor: Mrs. Edsel Ford (in a black velvet gown, lace trimmed, with emerald ostrich fan!) . . . Mrs. Wesson Seyburn . . . Mrs. Roy D. Chapin . . . Mrs. Percival Dodge . . .

The Harry Eslings' pink and silver kitchen (where members of the Food and Wine Society toiled gaily not long ago) is papered in pink and black scenes of Paris' Montmartre . . . merry little chimney pots and all! . . .

Mrs. Charles B. Warren, Jr. . . . when guessing games are played . . . is always being chosen as a gal from Connecticut . . . but really she's a beauty from our own Petoskey, Mich. . . .

The arrival of Franchot Tone (with Katharine Cornell in The Dark Is Light Enough, coming to the Cass next week) is making one young Pointe matron's heart go pit-a-pat . . . She's kept a scrap book on the star since she was a sub deb!

PILFEEINGS

Following his usual mid-morning routine, four-year-old Timmy gave three short rings on the doorbell of the house next door.

"Hi," he greeted Mrs. Martin, his neighbor. "Kin I come in?"

Once inside, he sniffed a few times and remarked, "Something smells like chocolate cake with frosting."

"Yes," Mrs. M. replied. "But I have to save that for company, honey."

He twisted around on the chair and then said hopefully, "I came to pay a little visit myself."

In some Australian tribes, silver bracelets are exchanged between the bride's father and the suitor. Among other Australian tribes, when a man proposes to a girl he takes a chance, because either the daughter or the mother is permitted to marry him.

Enrico Caruso, the famed tenor, once remarked: "No man is so well known as he thinks he is."

Caruso was motoring through upstate New York one time when his car broke down. He had to walk to the nearest farmhouse and ask the owner for assistance. The conversation got friendly and the farmer asked his visitor's name.

When he heard who it was he leaped to his feet and wrung the singer's hand. "Well sir," he burbled, "think of that! Mr. Robinson Caruso! I never dreamed I'd get to meet the great traveler himself!"

King Louis XVI's hobby was key collecting and key making. It took him two years to build "The Magic Lock," which for five years defied any key or pick to open it.

Finally, however, his court jester solved it and was guillotined for his pains. The secret of the lock was that each time a key was inserted, the tiny tumblers changed. In other words, one lock was really 36.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. AARON EDWARD WILCOX OF LORAIN AVENUE

By Jane Schermerhorn

—Picture by Fred Rannels

Birthdays are an important part of Mrs. Aaron Edward Wilcox's hobby. So it's especially fun to have her today as the Pointer of Interest since December 2 is her own birthday.

It's astrology that interests this vivacious Pointer but not just the mere peek into the future aspect which intrigues most of us.

Instead, she's delved deeply into the subject as a science. And the interest has opened endless doors leading her into mathematics, history, philosophy, psychology.

She guesses it was Halley's comet which she saw streaking through the sky that first gave her the interest in the stars, the moon, the sun, and the planets (Incidentally, did you know this comet is scheduled to return in 1986?)

Believers

When she's very earnest about this hobby, Mrs. Wilcox might quote an authority named Grant Lewi who wrote that "astrology is believed in by a lot of people who know practically nothing about it and it is disbelieved by even more who know absolutely nothing about it."

She might cite an exchange between Mr. Halley, of comet fame, who once said to Sir Isaac Newton (of gravity fame): "But I do not believe in astrology." Only to have Sir Isaac Newton answer, "I have studied this subject, Mr. Halley. You have not."

She can tell you that astrology has been defended in verse by the poets Homer, Virgil, Chaucer, Dante, Milton, Dryden, Byron, Sir Walter Raleigh, Shakespeare.

Scientists who were its followers included Pliny, Copernicus, Ptolemy, Galileo, Sir Francis Bacon, Kipler.

Philosophers who were astrologers were Pythagoras, Plato, Aristotle, Seneca and Cicero. Its advocates included the conquerors, Alexander the Great, Caesar, Gengis Khan, Napoleon.

And Americans who followed astrology included Benjamin Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, Theodore Roosevelt, Mark Twain. Among its outstanding 20th century exponents have been Evangeline Adams, J. Pierpont Morgan, King Edward VII, Caruso and Winston Churchill.

Guided by Stars

But the lighter side of astrology . . . that side which cannily analyzes a person's character and traits from his birth date . . . offers advice on best days for deeds . . . and peers into his future . . . has brought a lot of fun and a lot of friends to Mrs. Wilcox, too.

A very special file at the desk in her attractive home on Loraine, contains astrological charts of many persons. Some friends of the Pointers, others, celebrities she has never met but in whose careers she has become interested.

Through the stars she predicted the late Kim Sigler's governorship of Michigan.

Today's Governor G. Mennen Williams has a chart she made for him.

She prizes among the charts, one she made for a very beautiful Detroit girl just before the latter was taking off for New York several years ago. The girl thought she'd try to find a secretarial job in New York and Mrs. Wilcox said, "Now, just let's see if that's really what you should do."

She went about it the prescribed way and came up with the suggestion that her lovely friend should try to find a job with a modeling agency.

It was great fun for the girl to have her horoscope done, but she wasn't terribly serious about it at the time. A few days later, in New York, however, she turned into the offices of a national modeling agency. Three months later she was on the cover of the Ladies Home Journal and before her marriage to a prominent Easterner she had been one of Jacques Fath's most important Parisian models!

All About You

We asked Mrs. Wilcox if she'd jot down a few generalities about YOU and came away with this: Self reliant? You were probably born from March 21-April 21. You heralded in the Zodiacal New Year and were born under the sign of Aries.

April 22-May 21—Taurus is your sign and you are loyal, dependable—and stubborn. . . . May 22 to June 21 marks birthdate of the Gemini . . . the changeable, versatile twins of Zodiac.

Are you sensitive but still tenacious? You must have been born June 22 to July 22 under the sign of Cancer.

July 23 to Aug. 21 marks birthdays for the self-confident, magnetic Leo folks.

Virgo covers Aug. 22 to Sept. 23 and those whose birthdays occur in this time are analytical, talented but practical.

Libra balances the diplomatic scales between Sept. 24 and Oct. 23 and makes you a most affable and idealistic person.

The heavens give way to Scorpio around Oct. 24 to Nov. 23 and you are both independent and subtle.

The jovial Sagittarians appear Nov. 24 to Dec. 23 and are both impulsive and open hearted.

Capricorn rules Dec. 23 to Jan. 21 and those born then are not only ambitious but prudent.

The humanitarians reign Jan. 22 to Feb. 19 and Aquarius is the sign.

Pisces concludes the Zodiacal year (Feb. 20-Mar. 20) with its people intuitive and generous.

A Venus Day

Does Mrs. Wilcox refer to the position of the planets and her own chart? Oh, sometimes. For instance this Fall when she and Mr. Wilcox were in New York, she did look up conditions on their last vacation day.

It was a "Venus" day . . . a good day with many unexpected events predicted. The Wilcoxes decided to take a bus downtown to find some camera supplies and somehow got on the wrong bus. That was alright with Mrs. Wilcox because she "knew." Instead they found themselves at the United Nations.

After some shopping at the interesting shops there, our Pointer of Interest said, "Wouldn't it be fun to take a sight-seeing boat around Manhattan. We've never done that!" So, the couple telephoned to find when the next boat would leave. They were told that if they hurried, the boat would wait for them.

But fate ordained they should arrive in-u-s-t as the boat slipped out of the harbor. Mrs. Wilcox spied another, however, and hastened over to the genial gentleman who seemed to be ushering the passengers aboard. "Would it be possible for us to take this boat, we've just missed the one we'd planned to go on," explained Mrs. Wilcox. The man smiled and said he'd be delighted to have the Wilcoxes as his guest. He was U.S. Port Authority and this was his private cruise. During the trip, the boat passed close to the Mauritania. Someone called out, "You lucky, lucky people. It's not often we get such a fine close-up of an ocean ship. You must be born under the sign of Sagittarius."

Mrs. Wilcox adored that. Then, the Wilcoxes dashed over for a final New York supper at Sardi's that last evening in New York. They were seated next to a beautiful and friendly girl with red hair. Soon Mrs. Wilcox and the girl were chatting back and forth.

"You must have been under a fire sign with that beautiful red hair," observed Mrs. Wilcox. The red head was Maureen O'Hara and the two talked astrology all during their supper.

The White Christmas Ball, being given at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club December 4, by the members of the Fontbonne Auxiliary of St. John Hospital, will feature an auction sale as part of the extravagant entertainment.

Gifts have been donated by the leading stores in this area and will be auctioned off during the evening.

Music is being donated by the Grosse Pointe Auto dealers, and the decorations are all in silver and white, with an enormous white Christmas tree as the center of attraction.

A cocktail party for the members of all the committees will be given, preceding the dance, by Mrs. David Marantette, of LaSalle place.

Proceeds from the dance will help to swell the fund being raised to build a nurses' home at St. John Hospital.

Husbands Asked To AAUW Plays

Husbands are receiving their annual holiday season invitations to a gala AAUW meeting when two Fine Arts plays will be presented to the membership of Grosse Pointe Branch and their guests on Sunday afternoon, December 12, at 3 o'clock, at the War Memorial Center.

Taking part in the first are: Mrs. Alfred Taylor, Mrs. Abram Brown, Mrs. Stanley Thompson, Mrs. John Marshall, Mrs. Albert Conkey, Mrs. James Morrison, Mrs. Charles Killins, Mrs. Edward Suits, and Mrs. Anthony Glazko. Properties are by Mrs. Killins, and Mrs. H. F. Viewig acts as prompter.

and her charts, for other interests.

She is a member of the board of directors of the Detroit Review Club (one of the first six women's clubs to be founded in Detroit); chairman of the board of the Michigan Writers Club.

She takes part in the Mothers Forlight drive for Polio each year at the Pointe.

She collects Old Adams china and tries her hand at a bit of flower arranging now and then. Ten years ago she became a member of that exclusive club . . . those who have made a hole in one on the golf links. Indian Trails, at Grand Rapids, was scene of this triumph.

Her interest in people makes her an unusually fun person to be with and we'd like to follow her around some evening and see just how many times she pauses in her conversation with various persons to ask, "Would you mind telling me your birthday?"

The happiest faces on "HOLIDAY HILL" belong to the tiny tots that have just visited MARIE BIRD'S SALON for an Intra-Curl Cut. They have heard the exciting news that "Santa Claus" will meet his little friends in his workshop on the hill, from December 11 to Dec. 24, and they want to look their very best when their pretty mamas and doting grandmas take them to see the jovial fellow. They know that even Santa would take special notice of the little girl that uses her "HEAD" to win his heart. Need we remind you that for "Tops" in hair styling it's Marie Bird's Salon . . . 117 Kercheval, atop the hill? Call TU. 1-6833 for appointment.

Dec. 9 is a date to remember. It's the date of the informal trunk showing of Fred Block's colorful resort and Spring line of clothes. From all reports, it promises to be like a breath of spring. This collection will include one piece linens, silk saraballs, silk printed sbantungs, embroidered sheer beaded crepes, light weight tweed suits. These clothes cover sizes 12 to 20 AND half-sizes . . . 12 1/2 to 20 1/2. Fred Block's elegant fashions start at around seven dollars and go on up to around one hundred and seventy-five. Jacobson's Better Dress Department.

We noted via the London News Bureau that Dior's winter collection was shown this month at Blenheim Palace. Princess Margaret was present. Blenheim Palace, one of the most famous "homes" of England, close to Stratford on Avon, Oxfordshire, and birthplace of Sir Winston Churchill, was lent for the occasion by the Duke and Duchess of Marlborough. M. Dior planned to be present at the showing, flying his mannequins over for it. All this news reminded us to remind you that Christian Dior's perfumes and toilet waters are available at Trail's Pharmacy, on the hill. Diorama and Miss Diorama are scents you'll be enthused about.

Walk right down the main aisle of Peter Pan . . . stop at the accessory bar . . . ask to see one of the most practical gifts you'll find . . . ask to see the mittens. Especially the warm woolly (inside) plaid ones with a ball point pen in the package. In the same package is a little magic gold (23 kt.). Use it to personalize the gift. On a tab write your name as fast as you can write it. "Snowbird" mittens are wonderful, too. They're mittens within a mitten. The outside is a completely washable sanforized poplin shell . . . which is water repellent. Inside is a removable 100% wool liner that fits perfectly into the outer shell. And for those man tailored shirts, the girls are wearing, you'll find the jewelry that goes with them. Peter Pan, Inc., in the village.

Over at The Ship's Wheel . . . gift shop extraordinary . . . in the Woods, we came across myriads of gifts . . . but especially, we liked the imported Japanese Place Mats . . . fashioned in what looks like shiny straw . . . beige, wine, green, rust. Washable. The price is the big news here . . . sixty-nine cents each . . . or four for two dollars and forty-nine cents. 19605 Mack.

Big things are in the office at the Camera Center, in the village. A minute man . . . all day Monday, Dec. 6, will demonstrate the magic picture-in-a-minute Polaroid Camera. And if you're a male and in the village on Men's Night see him for a free picture to take home to the family. You know Polaroid Land Camera finish black and white pictures in sixty seconds . . . that's for us.

New. Very special. Starting this coming Saturday . . . Young Clothes, Inc., on the hill, will begin their Saturday Specials. Saturday Specials are designed to give you a very good chance to find a good item . . . at a remarkable price . . . see you there . . . 110 Kercheval . . . on the hill.

Christmas wishes are usually warm . . . but they aren't any warmer than the array of gift robes at Town 'n Casual Shop, in the woods. They are fashioned of cotton, nylon or acetate . . . so pretty . . . so comfortable . . . each model is washable. And the fact that they are open every night from now until Christmas is good news, too. If you should be looking for a party dress see their wondrous collection. 20445 Mack.

For men who go places you'll find useful fitted gifts in the Men's Department on Jacobson's main floor . . . every gift hand-somely boxed.

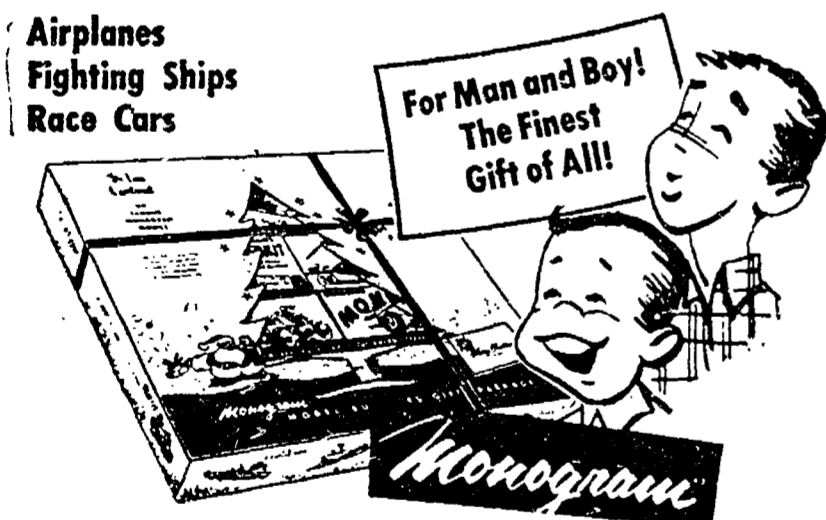

Some guys and some gals just can't be sold glamorous merchandise at Christmas. If you are one of those humans then this is for you. There's a practical array of electrical appliances at Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop. There is that much talked about Sunbeam fryer that is square. It's an automatic frying pan with controlled heat and costs around twenty-five dollars. The Toastmaster and Sunbeam Percolator are good gift items, too. Then there is a good way to add variety to your diet with the Universal Mix-a-blend. It is ideal for blending soups, cocktails, meat sauces . . . milk drinks and even vegetable juices. Close by on a neighboring table, find a creamer and sugar fashioned of pottery. Their names? "Cream Puff" and "Sugar Puss" . . . cute.

A pastel resort season is in the making as new collections of dresses make their appearance. Pastels are good for the holiday season. Pastel jersey dresses are featured at Margaret Rice's this week. They're classics with white linen collars and cuffs on their short sleeves. The detailing is good . . . pearl button trim . . . soft lined pockets. Think of having one monogrammed. 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

There are three reasons why a Dalton Cashmere makes a good holiday gift. One is the fact that the sweater has become a resort indispensable. Secondly, it is good for school wear or at home, an ordinary with pants, too. Gosh darn it, you just can't have too many sweaters, can you? Dalton cashmires are a feature at Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

News in fabric. Shine on, shine on, shine on polished cotton blouses. And they do shine. The jewel touches are light. Interest in some is purely soft draping or tucking. They can be as plain as an old-fashioned cook stove or as fiery as (SHE) is. Many colors . . . from five ninety-five to eight ninety-five. There were tailored blouses of Pima cloth in pale pastels . . . blue, pink, yellow and white for just four dollars . . . no doubt, you'll co-ordinate one of these with a flannel skirt.
