HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, December 2

THE UNITED STATES and the Republic of China on Formosa have concluded negotiations for a mutual defense treaty, it was revealed by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. At the same time Dulles declared that it might be a possibility that the United States will consider a blockade of Red China, if peaceful means of obtaining the release of the 13 imprisoned Americans is exhausted.

He said that for the present, he did not know how serious the blockade question has become.

THE SENATE, by a vote of 67 to 20, approved censure of Senator McCarthy's conduct, on the first of three charges against him, thereby clearing the way for final action on the other two counts.

Friday, December 3

POPE PIUS XII, spiritual leader of the world's 425 million Roman Catholics, is still clinging to life. The 78-year-old Pontiff fell into a coma Thursday afternoon, and graves fears for his life were felt inside and outside of the Vatican. But five hours later, his chief physician, Prof. Riccardo Galeazzi, said there was no cause for alarm, as the Pope had overcome the crisis.

The Pope's condition was believed to have been brought on, in part, by worry and fatigue resulting from his fight against Communism and for world peace. Both Catholics and Protestants throughout the world are praying for the Pope's recovery.

Saturday, December 4

GOV. WILLIAMS indicated that if the 1956 Democratic nomination for President of the United States is offered to him, he would accept it. The Governor, in New Orleans attending Democratic national committee meetings, has been prominently mentioned as a possible presidential candidate by Democrats at the two-day session.

He stated that now he has a tremendous job in Michigan, but if the opportunity presents itself in 1956 the bid would be acceptable.

Sunday, December 5

A NEW AND CRUCIAL TEST faces West German rearmament in West Berlin elections which were held today. Prior to the voting East German puppet Premier Otto Grotewohl issued veiled threats of Communist military action if the West ratifies the Paris pacts for rearming.

He warned that Red China has pledged to fight side by side with Russia if war comes to Europe. He added another warning in which he said that if the new West German Army takes one step into East Germany, it would mean the opening of a third world war.

Monday, December 6

ANDREW R. MACKENZIE, Canadian flier captured by the Chinese Communists during the Korean War and released Sunday, revealed that the Reds are holding more American captives than the 11 American airmen recently sentenced to prison on charges of "spying."

The Canadian reached freedom two years to the day after he was shot down over North Korea. He revealed to his brother-in-law, Wing Commander Donald Skene, that an unknown number of American airmen had been in the same prison camp with him. The Canadian and United States Governments withheld the names of the airmen and the camp in which they are being held.

Tuesday, December 7

THE FAYE of Michigan's one-man grand jury will rest with the United States Supreme Court. The decision to rule on the case after Circuit Judge John P. O'Hara, police-graft grand juror, battled with Recorder's Court judges, who attacked O'Hara's recommendation on gambling and graft which he issued as a one-man grand juror.

Farms Ready For Bids on Sewer Work

First Phase of Program to Be Financed by Bond Issue Ready for Contracts

The Farms Bid Opening Committee will open bids for the community's first phase of its sewer improvement program Friday noon, December 11, Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith disclosed.

Mr. Smith stated that the bids will be for the sewer improvement of the area from Fisher to Stephens roads and for the Lake Shore overflows.

To start in January

He said that work on this part of the program should commence about January 1.

This, he stated, is because the council must approve the bids accepted by the committee, at the regular council meeting which will be held on December 20.

An additional two weeks will lapse before the approved low bidder can get the bonds, he revealed.

The sewer improvement program will be financed by the $380,000 bond issue recently approved by the voters of the Farms.

Burglars Steal Cash and Pistol

A Woods Police report disclosed that burglars broke into the home of Charles E. Schultz, 1238 Aline on Tuesday, November 30, by breaking the window of a side door and tripping the lock.

They took $30 in cash and a .22 cal. automatic pistol. The Schultz were out of town at the time. A neighbor noticed the broken window and called police.

Goodfellows Set For Paper Sale

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club will again sponsor the sale, aided by all the police and firemen of the five Pointes. They will be on the street corners from before daybreak until noon.

The quota set for this year's drive is $10,000. The Goodfellows have made substantial donations to local hospitals and annually spend much providing aid to needy families. Last Christmas, more than 50 baskets containing complete Christmas dinners were distributed to poor families in the area.

In addition to the yuletide cheer which is spread, the Goodfellows give help to the needy throughout the entire year. Medical and fuel bills are among the many things paid for through the generosity of Pointers at the paper sale.

Youths Jailed To Wait Trial

William Heath, 22, of 1449 Wayburn, and Joseph Larami, 20, of 2992 Newport, Detroit, were remanded to the Wayne County Jail on Tuesday, November 30, when they failed to post bond after pleading guilty to a charge of breaking and entering.

Arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Tuesday, the two youths pleaded guilty to the charge that they broke into the Whittier Cleaners, 15010 Charlevoix, the day previous.

Heath was placed under $3,000 bond, two sureties, and Larami, $1,500 bond, two sureties. The pair was charged with breaking and entering at night.

When they both could not raise the bonds, Judge Belanger ordered that they be placed in the custody of the Wayne County Sheriff until a trial date has been set in Circuit Court.

Park police apprehended the youths at the scene of their crime on Monday, November 29. They were found hiding behind steam presses in the cleaning establishment, when police officers made a search of the store in answer to a "silent" alarm.

Park Pushes Lake Front Parking Site

Plans Being Prepared for Development of Recently Acquired Area Opposite Beach

The Park has received the necessary permits from Detroit to develop the recently acquired lots adjacent to the Park's waterfront park, into a parking area, according to Herbert Heger, head of the Park Public Service Department.

Mr. Heger revealed that the plans for the development of the lots are being drawn up, and will adhere to the specifications set by the Detroit Planning Commission, on such matters as leveling, drainage and erection of fences.

Detroit Directs Exits

He said that Detroit will not permit any egress or ingress to the parking lot from Alter road. They must be either on Windmill Pointe drive or on Barrington road.

The Park has been interested in the lots for quite some time, and had taken an option on them, to block erection of multiple dwellings on the land.

Purchased Three Lots

At a recent council meeting, when it was revealed that the construction company had received an official okay from Detroit to erect the buildings if the Park allowed the options to lapse, members of the Park council approved purchase of three of the four lots sought by the city. The cost of the three lots, totaled $22,500.

The owner of the fourth lot still refuses to sell, but the Park is hopeful that purchase of the land can still be made.

Cost of the developing of the lots has not yet been determined.

Accuse Park Bar Of LCC Violation

A Grosse Pointe Park bar will be cited before the Liquor Control Commission on charges that the establishment served alcoholic beverages to minors on November 24, according to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

Chief Louwers disclosed that a complaint that four minors were served in the Pointe Bar, 15316 E. Jefferson, was substantiated after an investigation was conducted by Park Detectives Don Dean and Gus Boone.

It was brought out the minors, whose ages range from 17 to 19 years old, were served without any proof being demanded of their ages.

"Village" Stores Again Given Over To Pointe's Males

Proprietors Report Bigger Crowds Than Ever as Ninth Annual Observance of Traditional Event Lures Stags to Christmas Street

"Men's Night," the one night a year when women are barred from the shopping district in the City, proved a bigger success than ever, as the men folk, attracted by the freedom of prowling unhindered, descended on the "Village" shopping district in droves.

Merchants along Kercheval from Cadieux to Neff roads, did a landslide business on Monday December 6, from 7 to 10 p.m., with men only doing the shopping.

Jacobson's Jammed

John Hannan, manager of Jacobson's, stated that the number of men shoppers in his stores exceeded last year's jam. Both stores were packed.

Pete Proper of Proper's Men's Wear, remarked that out of one night a year, the men are given a party, in which men become acquainted and reacquainted. He said that it is a good thing that "Men's Night" was established.

He disclosed that more than 2,000 men visited his store during the three-hour period, and that this was a greater number than last year.

Mrs. Helen Kopp of Kopp's, gave a similar statement, as far as having a packed store. She said that many of the men bought gifts, some just looked and got an idea of what to buy their wives and sweethearts and promised to come back before Christmas to make their purchases.

Lingerie counters were crowded. So were the counters where jewelry, perfumes, books and gloves were sold. Men thoroughly enjoyed their shopping without a single show of embarrassment, asking for intimate articles without even a blush.

A German brass band, as in previous years, played in and out of the stores playing Christmas and beer hall music.

Street Blocked Off

Kercheval from Cadieux to Neff roads was blocked off, with policemen at each end re-routing traffic.

Scout units from Maire School were on hand to direct prospective shoppers, who came in cars, to the nearest parking lots.

It was estimated that more than 5,000 men roamed the three blocks of the district.

As the Jacobson's manager stated, "Men's Night," instituted just nine years ago, has become a big thing from the sales and fun, standpoints.

Young Speeder Put Under Bond

Gerald J. Ahee, 18, of 3702 Charlevoix, Detroit, was ticketed on Tuesday, November 30, for speeding on Mack and losing control of his car and causing an accident.

A Woods police report disclosed that Ahee was chased by a Woods scout car, while he was traveling north on Mack avenue, at a speed up to 65 miles an hour.

As Ahee approached a slight curve in the road, near Dorthen, he lost control of the vehicle which went into a spin and ended up facing south, but not before striking a tree in front of 19806 Mack. The left rear fender of the car was damaged.

The youth was placed under a $75 bond, to guarantee his appearance before Woods Judge Don Goodrow on January 22.

Court Hearing Arguments On Parking Lot Assessment

The special assessment district fight between the Kercheval-on-the-Hill businessmen and the Farms will be carried out to its conclusion this morning, December 9, at 10 a.m., according to Farms City Clerk Harry Furton.

The case, which pertains to the objection of the businessmen against paying an assessment in the developing of the municipal parking lot north of Kercheval, will be heard before Circuit Judge Lila M. Neuenfelt after four postponements had been granted, the latest on December 3.

A temporary injunction restraining the Farms Treasurer Dawson F. Nacy, from collecting the assessment has been in force since September 17.

The Kercheval businessmen have opposed paying the cost of developing the lot since the Farms council voted passage creating Special Assessment District 7 on July 19.

The improvement of the parking lot was completed in October at a cost of approximately $19,438.

Farms officials stated that the cost of the development will be covered regardless of the outcome of the court action.

Will Spend $269,000 on Improvement

All Unsurfaced Streets in City To Be Fixed; Residents to Pay Most of Costs

A total of $269,000 will be needed to pave the remaining unpaved streets of the Woods, it was brought out at a public hearing held during a regular session of the Woods council on Monday, December 6.

Members of the council unanimously approved the establishment of 11 special assessment districts and the selling of bonds to raise the money to finance the projects.

Two Resolutions Offered

Woods City Attorney Julius Berns presented two resolutions affecting the sale of the bonds, one for special assessment bonds of $204,000, which is the share that must be paid by the property owners; and another for general obligation bonds totaling $65,000, to be paid by the city as its share of the project.

Payments of the assessments were placed on a 40-40-20 basis; that is, corner property owners will be assessed 40 percent; abutting property owners to the middle of the block will pay 40 percent; and the remaining 20 percent will be charged to the city.

Payments of the special assessment will be taken care of over a seven-year period.

Several persons effected by the special assessment, appeared at the public hearing, to express objections or approval of the project.

Some Opposition Heard

Some expressed themselves as being in favor of the work being done and paying their share, and others protested, asserting they did not want the paving, and as long as the city insists that the work be done, the cost should be assessed to the city-at-large.

Payments toward the paving will cost anywhere from $40 and up charged to abutting property owners; to more than $300 as the share corner property owners must pay.

Assessment Districts

The special assessment districts created are: No. 91—Goethe, from Vernier road to easement north of Brys drive; No. 92—Charlevoix, from Vernier to easement of Brys drive; No. 93—"W" street, from Vernier to north of Roslyn road; No. 94—Morningside drive, from Vernier to Roslyn road; No. 95—Helen, from Vernier to Brys drive; and No. 96—Helen, from Vernier to Norwood.

Also, No. 97—Jackson avenue, from easement line south of Kenmore to Van Antwerp; No. 98—Bramcaster, from easement line north of Huntington boulevard to Prestwick; No. 99—Eastbourne, from Prestwick to Stanhope; No. 100—Fairway, from Lochmoor boulevard at the city line to assessor's plat No. II; and No. 101—"W" street, from southerly line of assessor's plat No. II; and No. 102—"W" street, from southerly line of assessor's plat No. II to the northerly line of the Lochmoor Subdivision.

Slippery Pants Cause of Crash

Henry W. Youngling of 1414 Somerset, seriously injured his nose when he lost control of his car on Thursday, December 2, and rammed into one of the trees on the award-winning, landscaped property of the Verheyden Funeral Home, at Kensington and Mack.

A Park police accident report revealed that Youngling was traveling west on Mack. As he made a left hand turn onto Kensington, he slid across the leather seat of his car and lost control of the vehicle, which jumped the curb and sidewalk and struck a tree.

Two Detroit police officers, John Matthews and Robert Edge, cruising east on Mack, noticed Youngling on the sidewalk, after the accident, bleeding from the nose. They took him to Bon Secours Hospital and then notified the Park police department of the incident.

The tree suffered only chipped bark, but eight stitches were required to close the gash across Youngling's nose.

Youngling was issued a ticket for not having his car under control and causing an accident. Court date was set for December 29.

Farms Submits Building Report

Four residential and eight miscellaneous building permits with an assessable value totaling $144,850, were issued by the Farms during November, according to a report submitted by Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

Total number of permits issued to date this year reached 206, with an assessable valuation of $4,305,295.

Since January 1, 69 residential permits, valued at $2,144,000, have been given out.

There were eight business classification permits. These have been figured at $339,000; and six nonassessable permits, valued at $1,466,000, were also granted.

Miscellaneous permits totaled 123, with their valuation set at $356,295.

One permit for demolition was issued for 237 Lake Shore road, where the Old David Whitney mansion is being torn down.

Await State Approval

Sales of the bonds will be made as soon as the State gives its official sanction, which is according to State law.

Work on the paving should commence about April 15, official sources disclosed.

Engineering Genius Retires

 aircraft engine to fly a plane; first quantity-produced, balanced straight-eight engine. He was responsible for the introduction of four-wheel brakes, auto air conditioning, power booster brakes and hypoid gears.
 Vincent's early engines and engineering developments led directly to the Packard diesel aircraft engine which won the Collier trophy; the Packard PT-boat marine engine of World War II; the light-weight aluminum diesel engine for present Navy minesweepers; and Packard's new high torque V-type automotive engines for 1955.
 His engines have established over 150 racing records in automobiles, speedboats and airplanes. Last month, Packard's new V-8 installed in a test car, exceeded every national closed car record for endurance and speed from 3,000 to 25,000 miles at an average speed of 104.7 miles per hour.
 Vincent came to Packard in 1912 as chief engineer and became vice-president of engineering in 1915 at the age of 35. In 1920 he was elected president of the Society of Automotive Engineers and was named a director of Packard in 1945. He has been active for many years in the Automotive Club of Michigan and on the Contest Board of the American Automobile Association.

 His work with V-type engines dates back to his first year with Packard when he began work on the "905" V-type aircraft engine, forerunner of the Liberty aircraft motor of World War I, and the famous Packard "Twin-Six" engine of 1915-23, most powerful of its day.
 Foreseeing the eventual domination of V-type power, Vincent was quick to bring the design to the aircraft, marine and diesel engine fields while awaiting the time when designs and fuels would make his engines adaptable to automobiles.
 Following World War II, technological improvements in fuels and the coming of automatic transmissions brought Vincent's V-8 automobile power plant off the drawing board. The final test was the 25,000 mile endurance run.

Water Plans

 tion, now under construction in the park, has been undertaken to help alleviate summertime water shortage, because of a directive issued by Highland Park, which has rights to 88 per cent of the water pumped from Lake St. Clair by the Farms. The Farms itself is entitled only to the remaining 12 per cent.
 During the hot spells of summer, the Farms has been helping itself to a portion of Highland Park's share of water.
 The booster station was ordered constructed by Farms officials, because Highland Park had demanded its full share, which, when complied with, would leave the Farms in a critical condition as far as summertime water is concerned.
Still Need Filters
 When the construction of the booster station is completed, the remaining problem will be that of the filter beds, and construction of newer, bigger mains between the Farms and the City.
 The filter beds contemplated will be of the open type and will be below the land level of the pumping site in Lake Shore road. Water would simply be poured over the beds and fed into the present pumping facilities, which are adequate for present and future needs.
 During the winter, with the water shortage removed, the filter beds would be shut off and drained.
 Mr. Smith said that he is in hopes that everything will go along smoothly. He expressed further hope that the filter beds may be in use by summer.

Men Gardeners To Meet Dec. 16

"A greenhouse in your basement" is the modern horticultural feature to be described at the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club at 8 p.m. on Thursday, December 16, in the War Memorial Center.
 The speaker will be Dr. Eugene H. Payne of the Department of Clinical Investigation at Park Davis & Co., whose scientific training and experiences make it most appropriate for him to discuss the art of growing plants indoors under fluorescent lighting.
 Dr. Payne's background includes extensive travel in the South American countries searching for rare native plants. Faced with the necessity of propagating these plants under adverse conditions, he experimented with artificial lighting and developed his keen interest in this horticultural method.
 The United States Government made good use of Dr. Payne's knowledge in 1942 by sending him to the forbidding Amazon to combat tropical diseases that interfered with the mining of essential war materials, quartz and mica.
 The speaker will discuss some of these scientific achievements during his talk and will have exhibits on display to illustrate current practices in growing plants indoors.
 The meeting is open to all men of Grosse Pointe.

Scouts Do Big Good Turn

Grosse Pointe Scouts and Leaders played a major role in producing 600 tons (1,200,000 pounds) of clothing in the collection for Goodwill Industries on Saturday, November 27. Goodwill's Executive Secretary, Harold H. McKinnon, told Scout Executive Amos R. Shields that the collection exceeded all expectations and tops by many tons any similar campaign ever conducted. Pictured left to right: SCOUTS BILL WENNES, 202 Fisher; JEFFREY FAIR, 768 Washington, and SCOUTMASTER ROBERT WALDRON, 14477 Mapleridge. All are members of Troop 156 sponsored by Christ Episcopal Church, Grosse Pointe.

In an open letter to the public, Harold McKinnon, executive secretary of Goodwill Industries, termed the recent Boy Scout Good Turn Day drive the most amazing effort ever performed on behalf of a social agency in Detroit's history.

Thanking the 15,000 participating Boy Scouts through the Detroit Area Boy Scout Council, McKinnon also praised householders who filled bags and thanked the nearly 1,000 volunteer workers who either drove trucks, loaded or unloaded materials.

"The Boy Scout Good Turn Day was a tremendously successful," McKinnon said. "Approximately 150,000 filled bags were gathered in on Saturday, November 27. Reduced to days of operation of the textile division of Goodwill Industries, this means three months' work was gathered for Goodwill in a single day."

"Additional persons will be employed in this division and with this reserve of materials and the materials which will be gathered through our regular collection process, and the department will be at capacity until the spring housecleaning season, which occurs in May and June," McKinnon explained.

"As we sort these materials, we are making suitable white cloth available to the American Cancer Society," he said.

"Even wartime drives for overseas relief did not operate with the efficiency or achieve the results of this Good Turn Day. Goodwill Industries did not rent one truck or pay one person on Good Turn Saturday. The entire project was volunteer," he said.

"We have a long waiting list of handicapped persons seeking our service. This is perhaps the most effective means of extending employment and training opportunities to these worthy people," McKinnon said.

Sewer Project Started in Park

Excavation, preparatory to installing 800 feet of a forced main sewer in the Park is already underway, Herbert Heger, head of the Park Public Service Department, announced.

The project, which will cost approximately $18,500, will be completed in about three weeks, Mr. Heger revealed.

The main will be connected to the Park pumping station on East Jefferson at Maryland, next to the Municipal Building, and will run to the south side of Barrington and Jefferson, to empty into Detroit's seven-foot sanitary barrel.

The new sewer will be tapped in at the head, or back, of the west back water gate.

While the sewer is being put in, Mr. Heger said, bus loading of passengers using the Lake Shore and DSR coach lines, will be shifted to the opposite side of Jefferson at Maryland.

Church Women To Hold Party

An "Around the World" Christmas Party is being planned by the Women of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, 240 Chalfonte. The evening begins at 6:30 p.m. in the social hall on December 14. Telephone TUxedo 4-5088 for reservations and suggestions as to what food to bring.

Following the dinner a group of nationality dancers in costume will exhibit folk dances of various countries.

Winter Begins On December 22

The beginning of winter and the mystery of the Christmas Star are the main astronomical points of interest during December, according to Hazel M. Losh, University of Michigan associate professor of astronomy.

Winter begins officially in the northern hemisphere on December 22 at 4:23 a.m. At this time the sun arrives at the winter solstice, the most southerly point that it reaches during its apparent yearly journey around the earth. There will be 15 hours of darkness and only nine hours of daylight on the 22nd.

At this time of year the Earth is closer to the sun than during our summer months, Professor Losh points out, so northern hemisphere winters are a little milder and southern hemisphere summers a little hotter than they would be if the sun were always equidistant.

Popular interest in astronomy reaches its peak this month with curiosity about the Star of Bethlehem. There has never been a satisfactory natural explanation of this phenomenon because the narrative about it is too incomplete and the date of the appearance of the star and the early calendar too uncertain to give a basis for definite conclusions, says Professor Losh. Many astronomers suggest that an unusual configuration of the bright planets gave the appearance of an extraordinarily bright star.

Some of these bright planets are easily visible this month: Venus, now the "morning star," will get brighter until December 21 when it reaches its greatest brilliance and rises three hours before the sun. Mars, orange in color, has moved eastward among the stars and is now in the constellation Aquarius in the southwestern sky. Jupiter, rising at about 8 p.m. in the northeast, is in an almost vertical line below Castor and Pollux in the constellation Gemini.

The eastern horizon is host to some of the most beautiful and colorful stars in the December sky: the yellow star Capella in Auriga, the orange Aldebaran in Taurus, the giant red star, Betelgeuse, in the shoulder of Orion, the bright Rigel in his knee, and the twins, Castor and Pollux, all are above the horizon before Sirius appears outshining them all. Sirius can be located on a line down through Orion's three "Belt Stars" pointing to: Canis Major, the Greater Dog, in which Sirius shines.

Many a man bumps into trouble while trying to dodge his duty.

It's All Perfectly Legal

Two bucks, one hunter and a dog would cause most any game warden to holler, but GEORGE CHAMPINE says everything was in order. George, retired Farms police sergeant, and his son, Dick, shot the deer on the morning of the first day of the season, November 15. They hunted near Mio, Mich. The dog, Tawn, is strictly a pet and is confined to the cabin when the game sought isn't feathered. The bucks were felled within half an hour of each other, at 9 and 9:30 a.m. Each boasted five points.

Christmas Toys Should be Safe

Joy and happiness for children should be your first consideration when you buy toys for Christmas, but safety and suitability for age are important too, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, Detroit commissioner of health advises.

Wise selection of toys as gifts by aunts and other relatives will help to give the child's parents an enjoyable Christmas in addition to delighting the child. Select toys which are durable to give to young children. They should be easily cleaned and not have removable parts small enough to be swallowed.

Every toy should stimulate its owner to some activity, either physical or mental. Some which meet this requirement include dolls, blocks with rounded corners, wagons which may be pulled by a string or rounded handle. These toys are universal favorites with children because they can be used by youngsters of different ages and under most circumstances.

Play is necessary for growth, normal personality development and physical development and toys are the tools of play. Consider the age and living conditions of the child before you buy the toy. A sled or skates given to a boy who has no safe place to use them tempts him to take unnecessary risks or to use them in unsafe places or causes him to feel frustrated because he can't use them.

The tiny baby's first toy should be a bright object to hang where he can follow it with his eyes but not grab it. By three or four months, the baby can grasp and hold the rattle. From one to two years, the baby is learning fast and he needs toys to push and pull, to pile up and knock down, to load and unload.

A young child will be happier if his holiday celebration is spread over several days. He is merely confused and bewildered when too many toys are given to him at once and his pleasure is diminished by his confusion.

Avoid giving him toys which have sharp points or which splinter or break. Avoid stuffed animals which have glass or button eyes which may be swallowed. When he is under two and in the "hand to mouth" age, don't give him toys with paint which may be chewed.

Babies and young children are sensitive to the feelings of those closest to them. If there is a baby or little child in your family, provide for him the feeling of security and warmth of a happy family holiday and see that it is not too different from his experiences on other days. Don't overwhelm him with too many visitors, too many toys, too much excitement if you expect him to have a happy Christmas. Make sure that he gets enough rest by preventing over excitement.

Legion Women Playing Santa

More than 30,000 members of the Michigan American Legion Auxiliary are bringing a Christmas shopping service to 3,500 hospitalized veterans who are unable to go to stores to do their gift hunting for relatives and friends back home.

Repeating a service started seven years ago, the auxiliary members have set up a shopping center in each of five Veterans Administration hospitals located at Dearborn, Saginaw, Battle Creek, Iron Mountain and the new Ann Arbor unit.

The unique difference between these shopping centers and other stores where Christmas gifts are selected is that veterans don't pay for the gifts they select for members of their families. What they choose is the gift of the auxiliaries.

Each veteran is entitled to select three gifts, with a value of $1.50 to $3 each. After the selections are made, volunteer auxiliary members assigned to each hospital wrap them as gifts and then prepare each package for parcel post. Hospital orderlies and nurses bring veterans bound to wheel chairs and stretchers to the shopping centers.

Under the direction of Mrs. Lucille Cairns, department rehabilitation chairman, Greenville, Michigan, and state auxiliary president, Mrs. Gladys Taylor, Brooklyn, the shopping centers this year have received gifts from 450 auxiliary units throughout the state which has exceeded a total cost of $24,000. Many units began their shopping as early as September to insure delivery of gifts for the November 29 opening of the centers. The stores will wind up operations December 15.

Library Friends Offering Movies

A program of two interesting and unusual films will feature the third meeting in the series sponsored by the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, to be held Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the Central Library.

George Jones, film counselor of the Library, will introduce the films and outline the catalogue of moving pictures which are available for borrowing at the Library. First film which will be shown Sunday is titled "Land of the Long Day," a technicolor travelogue of the Arctic telling the story of the Eskimos, the wonderful country of Baffin Land and the territories above the Arctic circle. "Land of the Long Day" won an award as the best travel film at the 1954 Golden Reel Film Festival.

The second film selected by Mr. Jones for showing Sunday is "A Is For Atom." This color film explains nuclear fission in words and pictures which are easily understood by everyone. Emphasis is on the power of the atom for public welfare, rather than for wholesale destruction.

The Friends invite all interested people to attend the meeting and enjoy the films this coming Sunday afternoon at three o'clock. As is the custom at these informal meetings, tea will be served after the program.

Edmund West Feted at Party

Approximately 300 friends of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund G. West of 536 St. Clair avenue attended a tea and open house at the Central Library last Sunday afternoon.

This tea was in honor of Mr. West, who on January 1 is completing 30 years' service for the Grosse Pointe Public Schools. Mr. West has been in charge of the Business Department for the Public Schools during this period and served under the title of Director of Business and Finance.

Following his retirement on January 1, Mr. West and his wife plan to spend their time between their home here in Grosse Pointe, and their cottage on the St. Clair River, their farm near Romeo and some spot in Florida. Both Mr. and Mrs. West were born and raised in Grosse Pointe and have always lived here.

The tea honoring the Wests was under the sponsorship of the Administrative Staff of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools. Mr. West was presented with a purse and his many friends joined in wishing him many more years of happiness and success.

Safe Driving Day Endorsed

The heads of all the Pointe city governments aligned themselves behind the Safe Driving Day, December 15, recently proclaimed by President Eisenhower.

S-D Day is a day to demonstrate that traffic accidents can be reduced materially when all motorists and pedestrians do their part.

The heads of the local city governments pledged the full support of their communities in making the program a success, and each stated that they will do their utmost to keep their cities free of accidents on December 15.

Affixing their signatures to proclamations are the following Pointe officials: Park Mayor Homer Fritsch, City Mayor Frederick W. Parker, Jr., Farms Mayor William Connolly, Shores Village President Jack Williams and Woods Mayor Waid McKnight.

All Pointe motorists and pedestrians are urged not only to get behind the program, but to make every day S-D Day.

How to Welcome A Puppy

The family that's getting a puppy for Christmas may wisely look to a few pointers on how to introduce the new member properly into the home. Among the sources of authentic information available is a free brochure entitled "Welcoming Your New Puppy" which is intended to help simplify the adjustment. Covering practical hints dealing with first feedings, the first night in the new home, house training and the like, it is distributed free by the Gaines Dog Research Center, 250 Park Avenue, New York. Here are a few of the do's and don'ts that are offered:

If undecided as to breed, a visit to a dog show, where a variety of breeds are on exhibit, should prove helpful. If no dog show is being held in the vicinity, visits to local kennels of different breeds will help make up your mind.

Don't get a puppy too young—not under ten or twelve weeks. The younger the puppy, the more care it requires.

If you are not sure the puppy is healthy, insist on a veterinary statement before purchase.

If you want to be sure the pup is purebred, request a registration certificate, which should also show a transfer to you as the new owner.

Before taking the pup home, be sure to select a spot in the house he will be able to call his own. Place his bed there—an ordinary box filled with shredded paper will do—and put near it a toy or rubber ball or bone to help him cut his teeth on and divert his attention from mischievous deeds.

Don't stuff him and don't handle him unnecessarily when you get him home, else you may end up with a sick or dead pup. If you are really wise, you will arrange to have him delivered a few days before or after the Christmas day excitement.

Sue Baker, Martha Slowin Hostesses to Classmates

Sue Baker, of Kenwood court, and Martha Slowin, of Nottingham avenue, entertained all of the girls in the January graduating class of the Grosse Pointe High School at a tea in Sue's home Sunday afternoon. The tea tables were charmingly decorated with flowers in blue and gold, the school colors. Nancy Hitt and Francis Butterfield assisted Sue and Martha with the pouring.

Firemen and Postmen Help Fight Muscular Dystrophy

More than $3,245 was collected during the Muscular Dystrophy drive conducted by Pointe firemen and letter carriers over Thanksgiving, latest reports showed. Money, in the form of checks and cash, are still being received, sources stated.

Park Fireman Edward Welch of Wayburn Avenue, a member of the Grosse Pointe Park Local 533, International Association of Fire Fighters, AFL, was chairman of the drive conducted by the firemen in the Pointe area.

The firefighters' "march" was to raise funds to support increased medical research into this mysterious killer, to establish more clinics throughout the nation and to assist the stricken in the purchase of orthopedic equipment.

Muscular Dystrophy is a fatal disease and afflicts more than 200,000 victims, including more than 130,000 children in the United States, annually.

Firemen in the Farms collected $1,378.85 during the drive; the Park came up with $913.23; the City, with approximately $800; and the Shores with $183.

The Woods, which has a combination fire and police department, did not participate in the drive. This was undertaken by the letter carriers of the Grosse Pointe Branch Post Office at Mack and Warren.

The amount collected by the carriers of this branch was not given, as each contributor placed his money in a sealed envelope and everything collected was credited to the Detroit area post office and sent to the Muscular Dystrophy headquarters without being counted.

Council Lists Approved Films

Recommended for Teenagers are: "The Raid," "High and Dry," "King Richard and the Crusaders," "Broken Lance," "Ring of Fear."

Also recommended is the children's symphony at Masonic Temple. Four concerts are scheduled, December 18, January 12, January 29, and February 15. Call Mrs. Hammond, TUxedo 2-2063 for tickets and information.

"Hidden Pages" new TV show for children put on by the library, reviews children's books with illustrations and plays. Channel 9 at 5 o'clock every Monday.

Gambler Falls For Police Trap

Anthony Giacalone, 35, of 701 Balfour, faces a maximum sentence of one year in prison, after being found guilty of attempting to bribe a Detroit police officer to obtain inside information on gambling investigations.

The case was heard on Thursday, December 2, before Recorder's Judge O. Z. Ide, who placed Giacalone under $2,500 bond, pending sentencing on December 15.

According to reports, Giacalone attempted to bribe Vice Bureau Patrolman Alphons Coughlin, 30, of 9751 Grand, Detroit, and fell into a trap set by the patrolman and Inspector Clayton Nowlin, head of the Vice Bureau.

At the trial, Coughlin testified that Giacalone, alleged number kingpin, telephoned him at his home on August 6, and offered him $200 a month to supply him (Giacalone) with information concerning gambling investigations.

The patrolman also testified that the alleged gambler had stated that he was with a big gambling organization in Detroit and that he wanted to know "when they are investigating us."

The two principals arranged a meeting on August 9, and when they met, they drove a few blocks in Giacalone's car and Giacalone gave him $200, Coughlin stated.

Coughlin then placed the gambler under arrest. Inspector Nowlin and several other officers were following.

Young Imbibers Nabbed by Police

City police arrested four teenagers on Friday, December 3, who were sitting in a car in front of 17220 St. Paul, after finding three full and two nearly empty beer bottles in the car.

One of the boys stated that he purchased the beer some time ago, but did not remember where. An investigation is being conducted by City Det. Lt. Andrew Teeter.

The youths were charged with being in possession of beer and having same on a public highway. They were released to their parents.

Exchange Club to Make Gift

The Freedom Shrine of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club will present several fine copies of historic American documents to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education on Tuesday, December 14, at 8:30 p.m. The presentation will be made by the present and past presidents of the club.

New Scout Cars Purchased By Woods Police Department

Woods police will henceforth be after all speeders and other law violators like a "blue streak."
Woods Director of Public Safety Vern Bailey announced that his department has accepted delivery of three 1955 scout cars, each in two-tone blue. He said the deliveries were made early last week.

The vehicle bodies are of an aquamarine blue and the tops are of a dark blue color. The cars have been fully equipped with flashers, sirens and intercommunication outfits, installed by the city.

An administrative car, with colors matching the police automobiles, was also delivered at the same time.

Total cost of the four vehicles, purchased from Adam-Simms, Inc., of East Jefferson, with trade-in allowances, amounted to $3,929.20.

The hue of the new scout cars, practically matches the new light blue shirts and shoulder patches which the members of the Woods police department began to sport recently, along with the dark blue regulation uniforms.

The insignias on the police cars have also been changed from the Gothic style letters inscribed in a circle, to the familiar streak insignia adopted by Detroit.

Even the insignia of the "black sheep," the lone remaining black scout car, which Director Bailey said will be kept for a time because it was a late 1954 model, has the new symbol.

College Women's Club Holding Party Friday

By Barbara Ball
G.P.H.S. Journalism Student
Wednesday, December 15, is the date of the annual winter concert to be presented by the vocal groups of Grosse Pointe High School at Parcels Junior High School at 8 o'clock.

First on the program under the direction of Mr. John Finch will be the boys' glee club. It will sing three numbers, "Jingle Bells" by Rhodes, and "Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones," an old German melody. Accompanying the boys, with a solo by Mike Mannone, 11B, will be Irene Giannaris.

Lynn Beckman, 12B, will then sing a solo, "Jesu Bambino," by Yon.

Next, the girls' glee club will perform. The girls will sing "Welcome That Star" by Cain with a solo by Gail Friesma, and "Rise Up Shepherd and Follower," a Negro Christmas Spiritual, with a solo by Beverly Hackey. The group also will offer "Cherubim Song" by Tchaikovsky and Christensen, "Lullaby on Christmas Eve," soloist Carol S. Surbrook, and "Christmas Rose," a Catalonian folk song.

Anne Welles and Gail Friesma will accompany the girls.

After an intermission, the A Cappella Choir will sing. The choristers will offer, "Halleluia Amen" by Handel, "God Rest You Merry Gentlemen," an English carol, "I Wonder, as I Wander," an Appalachian carol with the solo taken by Norman Mail-lous, 12A, "Hospodi Pomului," by Lvovsky, and several selections from "The Heavenly Child" by Hambleu. Soloists for these numbers will be Bill Bryant, 11A, and Mary Lou Bruneau, 12B.

The combined groups will then sing four pieces. "The Song of the Angels," by Geveart, "Round de Glory Manger," arranged by James, with the solo taken by Jean Howell, 10A, "Carol of the Bells" by Leonutovich, and finally "The Christmas Story" by Cain, with a solo by Dave Lamb, 11A. Accompanying these groups will be Carol Thome, 12A.

Issue Traffic-Safety Plea To All Pointe Motorists

Following is a message from the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee.

We want to tell you why officers of the Grosse Pointe police departments issue traffic tickets.

You may have heard that policemen enjoy handing out tickets to traffic law violators. This is not the case. Nor is it true that a police officer is required to issue a certain number of tickets every day he is on duty.

The simple truth is that every officer of our departments has taken an oath to enforce all laws and to protect life and property to the best of his ability.

Here's why: Records show that more than 90 per cent of traffic accidents are caused by violations of traffic laws.

is not only carrying out his oath of office to enforce all laws but he also is curbing a practice that all too often leads to death or injury.

We are calling this matter to your attention now because since the first of the year Michigan traffic accidents have taken the lives of 1,435 persons and caused painful—in some cases permanent—injury to nearly 44,500 men, women and children.

These may seem like cold statistics if you have never been involved, directly or indirectly, in a serious traffic accident.

Well, ask a police officer how it feels to pick up the crumpled body of a little boy or girl who has been knocked down by a motor vehicle; how it feels to cut open the jagged steel body of a once-sleek automobile to lift clear its teen-age driver.

Unless you and other citizens co-operate, the situation threatens to grow even worse during the immediate weeks ahead because we are now on the threshold of the most dangerous period of the year.

We are sure most of you will cheerfully cooperate with us in preventing death and injury. Our police officers and the Traffic Court will deal with those who don't.

Instructions issued to members of Grosse Pointe departments:

Each officer has been requested, starting on December 15, "Safe Driving Day," to make warning stops for all violations, no matter how minor in nature.

Stopping more motorists for less serious violations will help to prevent motorists who now commit minor violations from GEORGE MEASEL, Secretary, Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee.

Awards Given By Scout Troop

An award ceremony was held by Boy Scout Troop 19 at the Maire School, on November 9.

The event was well attended by Scouts and parents, and John Glaser, Scoutmaster, was in charge of the evening.

After a brief talk by Mr. Glaser, explaining to the parents what the troop had accomplished so far this year, awards were given to the following boys:

Bill Lewis, Ed Langs, Don Leeson, Joe Sinclair, John Cook, Ed Hammer, Guy Miller, John Blair, Jim Glaser, Jim Mathewson, Dan Yaklin, Tom Bodkin, Charles Begg, Tom Weyhing, Sam Schultz, John Thompson, Tom Teetart, Rick Grow, Ben Weyhing, Ed Chenoweth, Jerry Mehl, Denny Moore, Tom Hammer, Louis Ewald and Bill Penz.

Troop 19 also recently participated in the Goodwill drive on November 20 and November 27. Goodwill bags were delivered to residents of Grosse Pointe on November 20 and were picked up by the boys on November 27.

This was part of "Do a Good Turn" for the Goodwill.

Krystn's brother, Alfred R. Glancy III, who is a junior at Hill School in Pottstown, Pa., will do some holiday entertaining too. He and George Jerome have sent out 200 invitations for a formal dance and midnight supper at the Hunt Club on December 29.

News from GPUS

Seventh grade girls in the English classes of Mrs. Kay Welcembach at the Grosse Pointe University School are having much fun these days writing to the three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Barclay Lloyd of North Rhodessa, Africa. Mrs. Welcembach met the Loyds while she was traveling on the French Riviera this past summer.

The girls here are including in their letters pictures and clippings and descriptions of their life at school and home in an attempt to show their friends abroad how they live, in return for information of the same kind.

Mrs. Welcembach has emphasized "pen pal" correspondence in her English classes, and students are corresponding with young people of their own age all over the world.

Somewhat in the same international spirit will be the Christmas program being planned by the teachers of the speech and music departments. Christmas carols will be sung in the various foreign languages studied at G.P.U.S. Assisting in the project are Mrs. Hortense Robinson, Miss Marie Sansone, and Miss Patricia Texter.

Peter Stalker, D.U.S. '52, is spending this year, his third year as a Williams College student, in France. Many colleges now permit qualified students to take "the junior year abroad," and Mr. Stalker is taking his at the University of Paris (the Sorbonne) as a student of history.

The editorial staff of the Parents Bulletin of the Grosse Pointe University School did a very nice job on the first issue of their publication, which appeared for the first time in the form of a neat little brochure.

The Bulletin staff is made up of Mrs. Reade Ryan, editor; Mrs. Andrew Barr, Mrs. Osborne Coates, Jr., Mrs. John Detwiler, Mrs. Reuben Waterman, Mrs. Alexander Wiener and Mrs. Donald A. Williams.

Along with messages from various school officials, a school calendar for the weeks immediately ahead, and miscellaneous news items, the Bulletin also contained this definition which will ring true to anxious fathers and mothers everywhere:

THANKSGIVING — A holiday instituted by the Pilgrim Fathers for the benefit of parents whose sons have survived the football season.

Visitors to the new G.P.U.S. will be interested in seeing the new school library and the new art room. Lightsome, airy rooms facing on the campus on the Provençal Road side, these two rooms would seem well designed to do whatever the physical side of environment can possibly do to develop readers and people interested in art. Both rooms have proved extremely popular with the students so far this year.

Xmas Pageant Set for Sunday

A Christmas Pageant, portraying the Birth of Jesus, is being presented in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church this Sunday night, December 12, from 7 to 8 p.m. This pageant, which will be set to music, will be presented in the Church Sanctuary.

The following youths will participate in this pageant: Jeanne Howell, Dave Bryant, Joan Hamann, Sue Moodie, Cynthia Moodie, Carol Easton, Verne Isstock, Jack Dasef, Jim MacLean, Bruce Van Oostenburg, Melvin Gay, Jack Goodhand, Ken Peters, Dennis Duerksen, members of the Junior Choir, and members of the Westminster Choir. About 100 will be participating in this service.

The pageant is under the direction of the Reverend Robert H. Stanbery, assistant minister of the church; Miss Ruth Burkholder, director of music and organist of the church; and Mrs. Robert Goodhand, youth sponsor of the church.

Everyone in the community is cordially invited to this service.

Seals Now Used For Decorations

It is old fashioned to think that Christmas Seals can be used only on envelopes for well-dressed Christmas trees this year are sporting the gay red and green seals.

In addition to serving their serious purpose of fighting tuberculosis in Wayne County and throughout the nation, the double-bar cross Christmas Seals are adding glamour to home decorations and trees.

Christmas party favors, tree decorations and corsages can be made with the seals. Directions for making placecards, nut caps, sandal holders, and a Christmas Angel centerpiece may be obtained by calling the TB and Health Society at Woodward 1-1697 and printed instructions will be sent you.

The children would like to make little star Santa Clauses to hang on their tree. Let them try, so that the young ones will have made their contribution to the family Christmas.

Materials: Black crepe paper, white crepe paper, red construction paper, toothpicks and Christmas Seals.

Cut two five-pointed stars of red construction paper. Paste back to back with a ribbon loop between two points. Cut beard and fur for hat from white crepe paper. Make belt and shoes from black crepe paper. Draw faces on one of the points. Paste shoes on two lower points. Make slits in other two points and insert a toothpick. Paste Christmas Seals back to back over the end of the toothpick to form a little flag. Hang on the tree by the loop.

Attractive packages may be made with the use of Christmas Seals and their pleasing design of five little children holding hands.

Knights Get Set For Christmas

Santa will serve double duty for Gabriel Richard Council, Knights of Columbus, over the week-end prior to Christmas, states grand knight Harold J. Kruttsch Sr.

On Sunday afternoon, December 19, from 2 until 4:30 p.m. the council will entertain the children, grandchildren, nephews and nieces of its members at its 32nd annual Children's Christmas party.

From past experiences, in excess of 1,000 are expected. Ray Adam is honorary chairman with W. T. Buckneridge in charge of arrangements.

A typical children's Christmas-time program has been arranged and will include gifts from Santa. The program will be highlighted by juvenile dancers from Elaine Arndt's school of dancing, and by youthful accordion students of Connie's School of Music.

Christmas carols will be led by Louis M. Wood accompanied by the council's musical director, H. O'Reilly Clint.

Gabriel Richard's members will take part in their annual Christmas Tree Party on Monday evening, December 20, following the council's regular meeting, states lecturer Jerry Moore, who has charge of the event.

Members' wives and sweethearts will be honored guests for the party to either concur with or demonstrate disapproval of Santa's treatment of their men folk on the occasion.

Each member to attend the festivities must present Santa with a "present" appropriately gift-wrapped. Santa will later redistribute these gifts to the assembled brothers, with suitable embellishments.

The value of foresight is demonstrated by the after effects.

Featuring a new roster of experimental "dream cars" and other attractions, the General Motors Motorama of 1955 will open at the show's traditional Waldorf-Astoria Hotel site in New York City January 20-25, inclusive.

It will appear in Dinner Key Auditorium, Miami, Fla., February 5-13; Pan Pacific Auditorium, Los Angeles, Calif., March 5-13; Civic Auditorium, San Francisco, Calif., March 26-April 3; and Commonwealth Armory, Boston, Mass., April 23-May 1. The Motorama is admission-free.

Next year will be the third consecutive year in which General Motors has taken the Motorama "on the road." It has been

Deer Hunting Traffic Rises

Deer hunter traffic northbound across the Straits of Mackinac this year showed a slight increase over last year for the five days prior to the opening of the hunting season, Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler announced.

During the five day period ending at midnight on November 14, a total of 22,087 vehicles crossed the Straits of Mackinac from Mackinaw City to St. Ignace, compared to 22,059 vehicles in the same period a year ago, an increase of .1%. 49,540 passengers, almost entirely hunters, crossed the Straits as compared to 49,633 in the same period last year, a decrease of .1%.

The biggest day's business during the hunter rush this year was recorded on Friday, November 12, when 8,579 vehicles were carried across.

The State Ferry office at St. Ignace reported that J. Angus Thompson, of 21225 Beaconsfield street, East Detroit, was the first hunter to take a deer from the Upper Peninsula south across the Straits. He bagged an 8-point, 175 pound buck.

George Rieveschl Wins Promotion

Harry J. Loynd, president of Parke, Davis & Company, has announced the promotion of Dr. George Rieveschl, Jr., 38, to a new post as scientific assistant to the president.

Dr. Rieveschl, who has been director of chemical research for the pharmaceutical firm since 1949, was primarily responsible for the chemical work on Bena-dryl, first U. S. antihistamine used in the treatment of hay fever and other allergies.

In 1950, he was named "most outstanding young man of the year" by the Detroit Junior Board of Commerce. Last June, Alpha Chi Sigma, chemical fraternity, gave its "outstanding chemist" award to him at its national convulse in East Lansing, Mich.

Born near Cincinnati, Dr. Rieveschl was graduated from the University of Cincinnati in 1937 and received an M. S. degree there in 1939 and a Ph. D. in organic chemistry in 1940. He was an assistant professor in the university's Department of Chemical Engineering before joining Parke-Davis as an organic chemist in 1943. Six years later, he became director of chemical research.

Dr. Rieveschl is a member of the American Chemical Society, American Association for the Advancement of Science, Ohio Academy of Science, American Pharmaceutical Association, Detroit Physiological Society, Sigma Xi, Phi Lambda Upsilon, Phi Beta Kappa, Chemists' Club and the New York Academy of Science. He also is a member of Detroit Athletic Club, Detroit Golf Club, the Grosse Pointe Club and the University Club.

He and Mrs. Rieveschl have two boys, Gary, 11, and Jan, 7, and live at 232 Lothrop, Grosse Pointe Farms, Mich.

Ike Issues Plea to All Drivers

"Make Every Day in Detroit Safe Driving Day" is the objective of a campaign getting underway this week.

President Eisenhower, shocked by the alarming rise in traffic accidents, has appealed to every citizen to cooperate to make "S-D Day" on December 15 an overwhelming success. He has asked every driver and every pedestrian to do three essential things: 1, Obey traffic laws; 2, Be courteous and show good sportsmanship, and 3, Be alert and careful, whether we are drivers or pedestrians.

In Detroit, campaign emphasis will be on making every day a safe driving day. In view of the critical traffic fatality problem here, the program is particularly timely.

Donald Slutz, managing director of the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit, has been appointed S-D Day co-ordinator for Detroit. Representatives of the Detroit Police Department, the Department of Streets and Traffic and the Detroit Public and Parochial Schools are cooperating in the program, as well as private business, industrial and community organizations.

One of the main projects will be the distribution of 80,000 leaflets to first and second grade pupils, stressing the Detroit accident problem, particularly involving children and older pedestrians. These will be distributed on December 14 to the children, who will be instructed to take them home to their parents. Teachers will use the leaflet as a safety lesson in instructing 265,000 elementary school children.

Another leaflet, scheduled for distribution on the same day is planned for bulletin board use in office buildings. Many of the buildings are planning to distribute one of the leaflets to each desk in their building.

"We are also asking the cooperation of newspaper, radio and television advertisers to include facts about Safe Driving Day in their regular advertisements," Slutz said. "We plan to make every Detroit aware of Safe Driving Day and the need to exercise the same alertness, courtesy and caution very day in Detroit."

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerborn

The story of the Pointe's fifteen Christmastime deb's unfolds in nine magic days this month . . . nine days packed with parties as silvery and gossamer as fairy wings. Let's begin at the very beginning. DECEMBER 18, a Saturday, will find Mrs. Horace McKnight presenting her daughter, Anne at a tea in their Touraine road home. The party guest list will be comprised, for the most part, of friends of the deb's parents. The Dec. 18 bud is a student at Endicott College and, at the moment, is the only deb home since she is now having her "internship," two weeks of actual participation in her major—commercial art and design. She's spending the time at a local art school.

Busy Monday

DECEMBER 20 . . . two of last June's deb's share in the fun when Mrs. Eugene Hawkins, of Renaud road, entertains at a luncheon in her Renaud road home for Kim Henry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Henry, of Ridge road, and Sara Goddard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Converse Goddard of Provencal road. Mrs. Cameron Beach Waterman, of Lincoln road, has issued invitations for a tea at her home in the afternoon, honoring her debutante granddaughters, Pamela Waterman, daughter of the Cameron Watermans III, and Katherine Isham Farwell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Farwell of Lake Forest. Kay will remain in the Pointe for the debut dance of her cousin, Pam. In the evening, Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., will be hosts at a small buffet dinner party feting their debutante nieces, Grace Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Dean Robinson of Provencal road, and Margo Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fisher of Lakeland avenue.

Two Bow at Country Club

DECEMBER 21 is the Big Evening for the deb's just mentioned when Mr. and Mrs. W. Dean Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fisher present their daughters to society at a dance in the Country Club. Margo, who arrives in the Pointe Dec. 18 from studies at Georgetown Visitation Con-

Reopening Party Held At Pointe Hunt Club

Record Turnout of Members and Guests Enthusiastic Over Changes Made Since September Fire

A record crowd turned out Friday night for the grand reopening party at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, and club members were in agreement that the September fire which made it necessary to remodel the club might have been a blessing in disguise. The informality and charm for which the Hunt Club is known are enhanced by the new redecoration scheme.

The office was moved upstairs and the former office is now a handsome cocktail room furnished in maple. New archways lead into the cocktail bar and a special soft "Hunt Club green" enhances the parlor walls with carpeting which blends in gracefully.

Parlor furniture is new, centering around a Chesterfield, each cushion of which boasts a brightly colored pheasant against a hunting scene print. Striking features of the room are the lamps, one in the shape of a riding boot, another a shoeshine boy.

On the upper landing a striking photoprint of horses and riders in precarious positions covers one whole wall. The ladies lounge now has a much-needed cloakroom, as well as new furnishings including walnut vanities and benches.

Included on the "Hunters' Feast" menu for dinner Friday were such delicacies as roast pheasant, venison, barbecued racoon, roast wild duck, wild rabbit pie, muskrat pie, fried frog legs, shrimp creole, wild rice, salads and a variety of desserts. ## Famous Cathedral Choir to Sing Here

Pointers Playing Leading Roles in Presenting Concert At St. Paul's Cathedral On Saturday, December 11

Detroit will be host for an unusual musical event this Saturday, December 11, when the Washington Cathedral Choir will present a concert of Christmas music at St. Paul's Cathedral, Woodward at Hancock, at 2:30 o'clock.

This will be a premier performance for the choir outside of the Cathedral in Washington, D. C., and has been made possible through the efforts of the National Cathedral Association of Eastern Michigan of which Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, of Bishop road, is regional chairman.

For many years, this association, through its memberships, has greatly implemented the maintenance and building of the Cathedral, and thousands have made memorial gifts.

Paul Callaway, eminent composer and director, is director of the choir which is made up of 30 boys and 20 men. Comparable to the choir of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, and the Vienna Boy's Choir, the Washington Cathedral Choir has made a lasting impression on all who have heard it, including the Queen Mother

Elizabeth on her recent visit to the United States.

The program it will present on Saturday, December 11, will be both stimulating and reverend, as there will be old Basque Noels and modern Nativity songs, while such world renowned composers as Bach, Ludovico and Tchaikowsky will be represented. Some selections will be sung in four or six parts, others as solos with choral background, as the entire concert will be unaccompanied.

The boys, ranging from 9 to 15 years of age, all attend St. Alban's School for Boys, located on the Cathedral Close. They practice twice daily, and sing in the Cathedral during the week and on Sunday. High academic standing is a "must" in order to retain their membership in the choir. Many interesting family relationships exist within the group, including brothers, fathers and sons, and Choir Mothers who are also real mothers of the boys and will accompany them on this trip. During the intermission, the Very Rev. Francis B. Sayre, Jr., Dean of Washington Cathedral and Dean Weaver, of St. Paul's Cathedral, will speak on the place of the cathedral in the nation.

This beautiful Gothic structure, still only half completed, is known to millions throughout the world who have visited it; to those who have participated in its great inter-denominational services and funerals for public figures; and to those who have witnessed the Christmas and Easter services on television.

Dean Sayre has made many friends in Grosse Pointe on his previous trips. This time Mrs. Sayre will accompany him and they will be guests of the John Chapins of Provenal road. The executive secretary of the National Cathedral, Mrs. Kevin Keegan, who will be here for the day, will be the honored guest at a luncheon.

Mrs. Alexander Wiener, of University place, is chairman of the concert committee and has marshalled many able assistants to work out the myriad details of patrons, finances, hospitality, transportation and programs. Women from all parts of Detroit are writing, telephoning and planning, so that the afternoon will be a memorable one for all who attend and that the choir boys will have an interesting day in the automobile city, before they entrain in the late afternoon for Cleveland where they will sing on Sunday.

Among the Grosse Pointe women who are playing major parts in these preparations are: Mrs. Frederick C. Ford, honorary chairman; Mrs. George Syler, Mrs. Ralph McElvenny, Mrs. Frank Sladen, Jr., Mrs. H. Ray Will, Mrs. Paul Fischer, Mrs. Robert Semple, Mrs. Frederick Campbell, Mrs. Charles B. Crouse, Mrs. Wood Williams, Mrs. Rupert Benson, Mrs. Charles Ellis, Mrs. Alexander Moore and Mrs. William Sawdon.

J. B. Ford, Jr., and Robert Tannahill are advisors. As no admission can be charged at St. Paul's Cathedral, expenses are being defrayed by the generosity of sponsoring groups and individuals for whom a section will be reserved in the Cathedral. However, the public is most cordially invited and seats are available.

Gifts Being Sent to Korean Orphanage

MRS. WILBER M. BRÜCKER, right, of Vendôme road, co-chairman of the Ragan-Lide Unit of the American Legion, presents clothing and other gifts to MRS. CHARLES E. WILSON, wife of the Secretary of Defense, for the Korean Orphanage which Mrs. Wilson is sponsoring at Seoul, Korea. Mrs. Frank Kuhn of Grosse Pointe, Michigan, is chairman of the Ragan-Lide Unit Korean Project. The presentation of the Michigan clothing and gifts for the Korean Orphanage took place at the Pentagon in Washington where former Governor Brucker of Michigan is General Counsel of the Department of Defense.

Luther League Party Dec. 12

The Luther League of St. Paul Lutheran Church will hold its annual Christmas party on Sunday evening, December 12.

A candlelight service in the church will be led by the Vicar Eugene Bensch. The guest speaker will be Vicar Richard Sutter of the Salem Lutheran Church. Following the service, the league will retire to the Fellowship Hall for a business meeting and election of officers for the coming year.

The social hour and gift exchange will end the evening. Too much celebrating keeps a man from becoming celebrated.

Christmas Luncheon Held By Symphony Association

Members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Women's Association held their Christmas luncheon Wednesday noon at the Country Club.

Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell Jr. was party chairman and Mrs. C. William Palmer handled decorations.

Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, president, presided at the business meeting which followed the luncheon.

Christmas Eve Dances

DECEMBER 24 . . . will mark the Christmas Eve tea dances at the Country Club being given by Mrs. Heddy V. Richardson for her debutante granddaughter, Anne McKnight. This party is just for the young folks. Then there's a three o'clock respite with starchy-eyed debutantes preoccupied with Christmas trees until DECEMBER 28, when Mrs. Charles B. Warren, Jr., will present her daughter, Christine Watling, at a tea dansant in her Lake Shore road home. Christine arrives on the sixteenth from Pine Manor Junior College and her brother, John W. Watling, Jr., gets home two days later from Yale. There'll be a break in deb fun after Christine's party when the young set makes a dash for Masonic Temple and the Princeton Triangle Show. Then it's back to the Little Club (the Princeton lads, too) for the debutante dance of Leslie DeVoy, daughter of Virginia DeVoy of Washington road, and Jean Cudlip. The party is being given by Leslie's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Lester F. Ruwe, of Willow lane, and Jean's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Cudlip of Lake Shore road. One of those very 1954 virus bugs kept Leslie from going back to school this autumn (instead she's been tutoring with the wonderful Mr. Popplestone with credits applying on her entrance to Garland in Boston next fall). Fox Hollow classmates will come on to be houseguests of Leslie and her mother for the dance. They are Nancy Stehlin of Douglaston, Long Island, and Alice Bray of Utica, N. Y. Jean will come from her Stratford College classes on Dec. 16 and soon after will follow a trio of houseguests, Nancy Clapp of Manhattan, New York, and her cousins, Anne and Tom Aley of Elgin, Ill.

Ending on the Gay Note

DECEMBER 29 . . . Inseparables since they were classmates at Grosse Pointe Country Day, Margaret Reeves and Caroline Graves are debutantes of this date. Reeves of McKinley road (she'll get into the Pointe Friday evening from studies at Lake Erie College, Painesville, O.) and Caroline is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Graves of Cambridge road. Caroline, who studies at Bradford Junior College, will come home for the holidays on Dec. 16.

DECEMBER 30, the final day of partying for the Christmas season debts. Two debutantes are scheduled to make their bows then. Mrs. James A. Remick will present her daughter, Elizabeth, at a tea in their Ridge road home from 4 to 6 o'clock. Later, on the afternoon of Dec. 30, Mrs. Pierre Fuger of Merriweather road, will introduce her daughter, Mary Page, at a tea in the Fugers' Merriweather road home. Frisky Fuger will arrive on the eighteenth from Manhattanville College. The Fugers are hoping that several of Frisky's friends from St. Louis, where they made their home for seven years, will be able to come over for the party. In the evening this debutante and Pam Waterman will be honored at the final fete of the season . . . the dance being given for them by Mrs. John H. French and Mr. and Mrs. John H. French, Jr., at the former's home, Twin Gates, on Lake Shore road.

Candy Apples for Christmas

You can make professional-looking apples on a stick. Just follow this recipe:

Select crisp, firm, red apples. Wash and polish. For the sticks, use wooden meat skewers, or flat wooden blades (tongue depressors) you can buy in a drug store.

Candy Apples-on-a-Stick
2 medium-size red apples
2 cups sugar
1/4 cup light corn syrup
1 cup water
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
1/4 cup red food coloring

Wash apples; dry; remove stems; insert wooden sticks firmly in stem ends. Stir sugar, corn syrup and water together in medium-size saucepan until sugar almost dissolves. Cover; bring slowly to boil.

Remove cover; boil rapidly, without stirring to 300° F., or until 1 teaspoonful syrup separates into hard brittle threads when dropped into cold water. During cooking wipe sides of pan often with wet cheesecloth wrapped around a fork. Add flavoring and enough coloring to tint syrup bright red; remove from heat; stir until blended.

Dip saucepan dry apples, twisting in syrup until covered. Let syrup extra syrup on apple drain back into saucepan. Work quickly, placing saucepan over low heat or boiling water if necessary to keep syrup thin enough to coat apples easily. Save any excess syrup to help stick on decorations. Place coated apples, stick up, on lightly greased cookie sheet to harden.

Voters' League To Meet Dec. 13

A combined general and unit meeting of Grosse Pointe's League of Women Voters will be held 8-8 p.m., December 13, at the home of its president, Mrs. Edgar Hahn, 1221 Three Mile Drive.

Members and guests will be brought up to date on questions about "Continuing Responsibilities," items which have been studied in the past and which are still "live issues" subject to League action.

While as a group the League takes positions on issues in the public interest after study and decision by a majority of League members, its members are always free as individuals to arrive at conclusions different from those of the League and may act on their convictions in a personal manner.

Chairman of the program, Mrs. William Krebs, will introduce the speakers: Mrs. Donald McConachi, who will discuss fair employment practices; Mrs. Willis Bugbee, who will talk in revision of the State Constitution; and Mrs. F. M. Toussley, who will give high spots of other continuing responsibilities.

Assisting Mrs. Hahn as hostesses will be Mrs. Walker Ciesler, Mrs. Whitney Collins, Mrs. Clarence Davis, Mrs. William Durbin, Mrs. Miles McKee and Mrs. H. G. Nelson.

Interested women in the community who would like to know more about the League's past study items are cordially invited to attend the meeting.

Five of the original singers, Bill Gard, Thomas C. Tilley, Charles A. Parcels Jr., Alan E. Bodycombe and George R. Wilson, still belong to the chorus.

With their wives or dates, the Grunyons will meet for dinner preceding the dance at the Lincoln road home of Dr. and Mrs. Frank J. Sladen.

Simply Fascinating

On their way to have tea with the President, CRYSTAL (PHYLLIS REEVE) is worried that her hat may be too fussy, but LETITIA (MARION LOTHROP) and KAREN (LOUISE LEHOTSKEY) assure her it should fascinate him.

Karen as the niece, and Letitia and Crystal as the "two blind mice," have a full evening trying to keep up with Karen's ex-husband, Tommy Thurston, played by Dick Robbins, as he tries to foil Senator Kruger's (Clyde Adler) attempt to finish the move he made four years before to abolish the department of Medicinal Herbs. With the Army, Air Force, Navy and State Department present in the form of a liquidating agency for the O.S.S., Thurston has a busy time weaving his web of deceit to convince them everything strange going on around them is "security cover." It's all a wonderful evening of entertainment to be presented by the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre December 10 and 11, at 8:30, and Sunday afternoon, December 12, at 2:30. The place is Cannon Memorial Center, on Guilford, one block north of the blinker light at Guilford and E. Warren, and just one block east of Cadieux. Ticket information may be obtained by calling TU. 1-9314.

Club Will Hear Xmas Lecture

The beauty and drama of the Christmas Story as related in Matthew and Luke will be depicted for members of the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club by Arthur A. Sinclair, talented artist-lecturer.

Using chalks of many hues, Mr. Sinclair sketches large colorful pictures to illustrate his theme as he talks.

Mr. Sinclair's training at the Chicago Art Institute, his many years of platform appearances and his wide experience in other fields of art provide him with a rich background for his life work.

Mrs. Thomas Blackwood, program chairman for the day, will introduce the speaker after a short business meeting.

The club's Christmas program will be held Wednesday, December 15, at 1 o'clock, in the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

The tea hour will be arranged by Mrs. Arthur Wible, chairman; assisted by Mesdames Frederick Holder, Carl Carlson, Gerald Stoetzer, John Howard, J. T. Condon, Harold Gorry, Clair Taylor, George Cutler, Warren Dilloway, C. R. Curtain, Harold Seibert and George McCarthy.

Co-Op Nursery Solicits Help

The Lake Shore Co-operative Nursery is moving along at a rapid pace. On Monday, November 29, a business meeting was held at South Lake High School, St. Clair Shores.

After a financial report and reading of the new constitution, the problem again arose as to the various types of toys needed and the apparatus that should be purchased.

A primary need at this time the acquisition of a cupboard or cabinet or toy-chests to be used for storage of equipment. A record player is also needed, as well as little wooden hammers and pegs; little fingers might point.

All of the above is needed in addition to the usual doll house-keeping equipment children love to play with, sturdy books, children's records, tables and chairs, musical instruments, games and a painting easel. The group decided it was best to buy the jungle gym.

On Wednesday evening, December 1, the fathers met at the Peter Joseph's home at 22636 Rosedale, St. Clair Shores. William Kirby of the Grosse Pointe Co-operative Nursery showed a film of the children in that nursery. The film described their activities as well as the role of mothers in the group and showed types of equipment needed in a nursery school.

Mrs. Norman Cummings, 1491 Anita, took charge of the program and election of officers was held. Nicholas Lemich, 22531 O'Conner, St. Clair Shores was elected men's chairman; Peter Joseph 22636 Rosedale, St. Clair Shores, telephone committee; and Dale Van Lente, 2057 Lancaster, was to contact fathers to work on making equipment.

The enthusiastic men made plans to meet at the Cannon Memorial Center in the near future to make large blocks their first project for the nursery school youngsters.

On Thursday, December 2, a board meeting was held at the home of Mrs. Elsie Ciesliga, 22635 Edgewood, St. Clair Shores, to interview two possible teachers. Miss Jane Bacon, director of the Grosse Pointe University Nursery School, was present to aid with this task.

Hardly a day passes without some phase of the nursery school program going forward. It still needs help to get started. Please take toys to the following locations or call to have them picked up.

In St. Clair Shores: — Mrs. Harold L. Reising 22717 Carolina for the Chapoton Woods area; Mrs. Jack R. Martin, 23102 Edsel Ford for the Lakeshore Village area; Mrs. Peter Joseph, 22636 Rosedale; Mrs. Anthony Glaeser, 22619 Rosedale is accepting toys from the St. Clair Shores Study Club; Mrs. Norman Cummings, 1491 Anita, Grosse Pointe Woods area; or call Mrs. Norton Savage at PR. 5-1151 for pick-up service.

Mitchell—Hall of Industry; Mrs. Thomas W. Gowenlock—Round Hall; Miss Josephine Benson—Second Floor; Mrs. Robert Scrase—Entrance and Stairways; and Mrs. Robert W. Brandon, Hall of Patriotism.

Soroptimists Aiding Center

A bazaar will be held at the Women's City Club, Executive Suite, 2nd floor, Elizabeth at Park, on December 10 and 11 from 12 o'clock noon until 8 p.m., to raise funds for the service project of Soroptimist International of Detroit.

The service project is to purchase an audiometer for the self-supporting testing and treatment center of the Wayne University Speech and Hearing Clinic, 656 W. Warren. In addition, a fund is to be established to assist in the purchase of hearing aids for underprivileged school children.

This center gives assistance to children who have serious speech defects or are deaf and dumb. Equipment for testing and training, such as the audiometer, is needed. Each week aid is given to 50 to 60 children from the Metropolitan center and outlying areas.

The bazaar will feature hand-made goods, pillows, aprons, linens, home baked goods, fruit cakes, home canned goods, Christmas cards, wrappings and decorations.

A children's booth with clothing and toys will be featured. There will also be jewelry, china, glass, ceramics, cosmetics and flowers.

Parties Planned For Bride-Elect

Jane Carol Noack and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Noack, will come down from East Lapsing to headquarters at the Detroit Leland a day or so before Christmas. On December 30, Jane will become the bride of Lt. Donald Theodore MacKinnon.

The evening ceremony is scheduled for St. John's Episcopal Church in Royal Oak, where the Noacks formerly lived. A reception will follow at Northwood Inn.

Jane has asked Nancy Huston to be her honor maid. Patricia Shea and Barbara Lonerigan will be bridesmaids. Charles W. MacKinnon will be best man for his brother, and James Stuart and Donald Schmitz will usher.

Patricia Shea will give a tea and miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect on December 19. Jane's cousin, Jean Noack, has planned the spinster dinner for December 28, and the following day Mrs. Donald T. MacKinnon, mother of the prospective bridegroom, will entertain at the rehearsal dinner in her Washington road home.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Apples offer a wise choice for fruit at this time of the year. Spys, Jonathans, Cortlands and McIntosh apples are available for general use, while the Delicious variety is best used in salads or eaten out-of-hand. The farmers' market or the orchard are the most economical places to buy apples now.

Both grapefruit and oranges which began arriving from California and Florida several weeks ago are gradually improving in flavor and quality.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Turkey time can be anytime! Fryer and roaster type turkeys are plentiful this fall. This offers a real opportunity for festive meals at lost cost.

YULETIDE HINT

Want a novel Christmas decoration for your front door? Here's an idea from Michigan State home economists. Tie a little toy drum and drumsticks together with a big saucy bow and sprigs of greenery. Hang it on the door and loosely tuck the stick into the greens so your friends can "beat" their arrival.

The Hour Every Motorist Owes to Himself!

The happy man you see in this picture is bringing himself up to date.

Cadillac has written a whole new chapter for the book defining motor car performance, and he's taking an hour to find out what it says.

And it says plenty—of very great importance.

First of all, it tells you what it's like to have command of a 250-horsepower engine that's as smooth as velvet, and so quick and eager that you have to educate your driving toe all over again.

It tells you what it's like to have virtually every trace of unevenness in the highway completely eliminated before it is even noticeable to driver or to passengers.

And it tells you what it's like to relax amidst upholstery fabrics that are found nowhere else, save in the 1955 Cadillac—not even in the finest clubs or hotels.

All this is to say, of course, that Cadillac has made another tremendous advance in design and engineering—so great, in fact, that only a drive and a personal inspection can let you realize its significance.

And, naturally, in addition to all that is new—there is yet greater emphasis on all the long-existing Cadillac virtues:

—the endurance that enables a Cadillac owner to keep his car just as long as he elects to do so . . . and with complete confidence in its dependability—

—the amazing economy of operation and upkeep which causes many owners to maintain that it is the most economical car on the American highway—

—the great personal satisfaction that comes from owning a car which is recognized, wherever highways lead, as the Standard of the World.

We cordially invite you to come in—today—to see and drive this wonderful, wonderful car.

There are eight models—in four different series—including the sensational Eldorado.

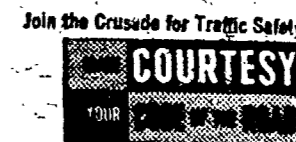

There is one to please you—exactly. And we think you'll be surprised and delighted at how little it costs, in comparison with lesser cars.

We're waiting for you—now!

The Secondary Miracle

The Christmas Season is a wonderfully peculiar time of the year. It possesses the power to put us through the whole gamut of emotions, from almost desperate frustration and exhaustion to the pinnacles of generosity and sacrifice and spiritual exaltation.

Last week we were chiefly concerned with all the work that lay ahead, in producing abnormally heavy pre-Christmas issues, entailing endless, overtime hours of labor. The prospects induced extreme self-pity, and compassion for all the others to whom this period of the year brings extra work, both mental and physical.

Now we are seven days nearer the All-Important Day. We don't seem to have accomplished a single thing towards the actual preparation for the celebration, and a quick calculation tells us the pressure is increasing by geometric progression. There are just as many things left to do, but less time in which to get them done.

But something has happened. The anguish isn't nearly as acute, and we can feel the first stirrings of a buoyant spirit upon which we know we can rely to carry us through. And as we think back, we realize that this happens every Christmas, and we accept it as one of the miracles accompanying the Great Miracle to which we annually pay homage.

In the days beloved in memory, before the atom, and television, and radio, the pre-Christmas rush and fury lasted only a week or two before the Big Event. The tastes of giver and recipient were much simpler, and we didn't have to worry about overseas mailing deadlines or strikes tying up the delivery of ordered merchandise.

Then the stores started beating the gun to get the shopping season off to a premature start. We can't blame them for this. The frenzy of the last-minute madness of Christmas shopping is enough to make anyone want to spread the turmoil as thin as possible. We grew accustomed to having the big launching of the Spending Spree come on Thanksgiving Day with a gigantic injection of colossal balloons towering over gargantuan Mother Goose characters in a super-stupendous parade.

And now they've pushed the calendar up a few more weeks and one is likely to see sleigh bells and holly wreaths mixed with the Halloween pumpkins. The first carollers came to the door on December 1, and we have been looking at heartside fashions in the magazines since August.

The first Christmas cards have already arrived (on December 6), and they have given birth to a pixie idea. Ours aren't even addressed (naturally), and we are toying with the idea of saving this chore until some dreary day about the end of March. Then they would be ready in plenty of time to let us mail them leisurely for receipt on about July 4 next. That ought to show the folks that we have caught onto this idea of not letting things go until the last minute.

Which cheerful thoughts bring us back to the contemplation in which we were immersed shortly after we started this dissertation. There is truly a Spirit which manifests itself at this time of the year, empowering us to minimize the multitude of "musts" to be done. As Christmas draws ever nearer we find ourselves accepting, cheerfully, more and more assignments, and deriving greater pleasure in carrying them out.

Two weeks ago we didn't see how we could make the exchequer meet the demands of the season, and we were figuring how we could short-change Uncle Joe and Aunt Mamie. Now we are frantically adding to the list of "Presents For," and getting ambitious ideas about our capacity to give, and worrying less about the January bills which are inevitable. The offerings in the stores never looked so beautiful, and we want all of them, not for ourselves, but to give to others.

We want the biggest Christmas tree with the most ornaments and lights, the largest turkey and the richest plum pudding we have ever known. We want all our friends to come and see us, and we want to visit all of them. We want tons of holly and a plethora of mistletoe and bright fires and many candles and lovely music, and a torrent of laughter tumbling all through the house.

We have become unusually sensitive to suffering and want, but appease our unrest by giving Christmas parties for the underprivileged and the sick and the maimed and the halt and the blind. For the first time all year we give a thought to the postman, the milkman, the newsboy, the policemen and firemen whose job it is to think of us all year. We give ourselves pleasure by tucking a bill in an envelope to help make them happy.

The children will be coming home from school. The young married couples will return with their babies for family reunions. The boys in service will be back for either Christmas or New Year's if they are stationed in this country; if they are overseas we at least know they will be getting a real American Christmas dinner and many gifts from the folks at home. And they won't be fighting for their lives this Yuletide. Flowers and gifts will bring some brightness to the rooms of the sick in hospitals and at home.

The Spirit of Christmas reaches everywhere, and one of the great miracles of this time of year is that it is no respecter of boundaries. It touches the lives of all, regardless of creed or religious belief. It is a contagious thing that influences all, no matter how slight the contact. Which, perhaps is the greatest tribute that can be paid to The Christ whose birth we are about to celebrate.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

Now that the fruit cake season is here... we trust this will not happen to you. It is entitled "Miss Foggery's Cake" and the author is unknown to us.

"As I sat by my window last evening, The letterman brought unto me A little gilt-edged invitation Saying, 'Gillbooley come over to tea. Sure I know 'twas the Foggery's sent it. So I went for old friends' sake, And the first thing they gave me to tackle Was a slice of Miss Foggery's cake."

Miss Martin wanted to taste it, But really there weren't no use, For they worked as it over an hour And couldn't get none of it loose. Till Foggery went for a basket And Killey came in with a saw; The cake was enough by its powers To paralyze any man's jaw.

In it were cloves, nutmegs and berries, Raisins, citron and cinnamon too; There were sugar, peppers and cherries, And the crust of it sailed on with glue."

The following true tale shows that it behooves one to ascertain the contents of a movie before taking a family of small children to same. A mother we know was so pestered by her brood to take them to the Santa Claus parade that she tried to settle for a movie. She even reminded them that they had said repeatedly they didn't BELIEVE in Santa Claus... but the youngest child replied: "Well we WILL believe in him if you take us downtown to see him." However, mom won and they decided to do the movie instead.

The children chose to see "Drums Along the Mohawk" (proving that kids DO know what they're talking about sometimes), but that sounded pretty dull to mother, so after they got downtown, she herded them into "The Barefoot Contessa"... thinking it was some kind of gay comedy. Well it aint exactly fare for the pigtail and air rifle set... but there they were caught with it.

When the group arrived home and father found what they had been to see, he practically blew his top. The kids were asking all sorts of unnecessary questions that pop couldn't and wouldn't answer... but ma explained he didn't have to take it too seriously. "After all," said she, "the children spent most of their time running in and out to get popcorn."

Shopping news is not exactly our premise in this column, but every now and again we come across something we just have to rave about. This week it is a magnificent chess set at Gray's Raquet and Sport Shop across the street from the Grosse Pointe News. This is a collector's item if ever we've seen one and even the non-chess player would enjoy having it on display. It is hand carved wood in beautiful colors and was made in Italy. We understand it is the only set of its kind this side of New York... and the price is $200.00.

We have no doubt that if you are interested in the set but don't know how to play chess... Mr. Gray will be glad to teach you!

When Bill Kennedy did his final broadcast here, he closed his stint with the words, "I guess old Charley is waiting for me." We didn't know what it meant at the time except he sounded kinda sad about it. Last week we heard from a friend in Hollywood who cleared up the mystery of old Charley. Our informant tells us that after Kennedy got out there and started to work at one of the movie studios again, a fellow actor came to him one day and said, "There's an old friend of your's on stage two that would like to see you." Kennedy went along to the other set and sure enough... there was his friend, old Charley... who happens to be a horse that Bill used to ride in the days of his Westerns.

But this isn't just ANY horse. This here now particular horse has the distinction of having thrown Bill Kennedy every time he rode it. And what's more, Kennedy is the ONLY actor he ever threw! No one was ever able to solve the mystery of this... but our western spy tells us that when Kennedy got near the horse this time (after five or six years) old Charley took one look at him and started to snort and flap his ears. Could be he's pait elephant and never forgets.

Girls! Is the man in YOUR life interested in "Hi-Fi"? For your sake, we hope not. Our best beau has just discovered it and one would think he had re-discovered America. He thinks, eats, sleeps, drinks and talks Hi-Fi until we wish record machines had never been invented.

Anyone who knows a High Fidelity enthusiast will sympathize with us. There was a time when we could sit peacefully in the living room and listen to our radio or F.M. background music and enjoy it no end. But not so these days. It seems that the object of Hi-Fi is not just to listen to IT... but to the owner who keeps up a running conversation about it all through the records, ejaculating, "Isn't that great?" or "Just listen to that high note!" or "Get a load of that bass." Oh for the good old uncomplicated phonograph with a horn!

Calcium Needs

By FRED M. KOPP, R.P.H.

Calcium is the greatest chemical element present in the normal, healthy body. Ninety-nine per cent of it is found in your bones and the other one per cent is in your blood stream.

A great deficiency of calcium results in poor bone structure which is very evident; not so evident are the minor deficiencies that nevertheless impair health. These are discernible only to the experienced physician.

To maintain normal calcium content in the body your physician may find it necessary to prescribe additional amounts in medicinal form.

This can be obtained from an able pharmacist who carries quality drugs. This is the sort of a series of editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

Blaze Damages Home in Woods

Woods firemen were called to the home of Chester Kozowicz, 2110 Vernier road, on Saturday, December 4, to extinguish a blaze which originated in the basement and destroyed a portion of the house.

Harper Woods firefighting equipment was called to aid the Woods firemen in putting out the fire.

A Farms police car was at the scene to help direct traffic. Official sources disclosed that the fire may have been started by spontaneous combustion, which ignited the gas meter, located at the right side of the house.

The blaze ate through the floor, on the side of the meter, destroyed the right side of the house, clear through to the attic and the roof. Smoke damage was extensive.

The amount of damage involved is not known as yet.

CARE Launches Christmas Drive

CARE has launched a campaign in Detroit and throughout Michigan to send Christmas food packages to needy persons in 32 countries.

The Foreign Operations Administration has turned enough surplus food over to CARE to make up 1,227,500 packages.

A contribution of only $1.00 will send two packages abroad. Each package will contain an average of 14 pounds of food.

Norman H. Birnkranz, CARE representative for the Michigan campaign, said the F.O.A. has agreed to pay for part of the distribution.

The contents of the holiday packages vary according to the dietary needs in the five areas of the world.

They include rice, butter, beans, flour, cheese, milk powder, shortening, cotton, seed oil, beef and gravy.

The packages will be distributed to these countries:

Austria, Finland, France, Greece, West Germany, Italy, Norway, England, Ireland, Scotland, Korea, Japan, the Philippines, Yugoslavia, Brazil, Bolivia, Panama, Haiti, Chile, Peru, Ecuador, Indochina, Laos, Egypt, Israel, Hong Kong, Honduras, Guatemala, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, El Salvador, Columbia and Paraguay.

Contributions should be addressed to CARE Postmaster, Detroit 33 Michigan. The contributors may designate any one of the 32 countries to which they wish the packages sent, but they cannot designate an particular person to whom the packages should go.

Great need still exists around the world despite improved conditions in many areas. There are still 247,000 DP's and refugees within the small boundaries of Austria; 8,000,000 refugees in Germany; and many thousands in Hong Kong. Ten to eleven million people still need help in Korea; in Vietnam there are nearly 500,000 refugees; 4,000 a day are coming into Saigon from the North.

A Farms police report showed that police arrested the youths on Sunday, December 5, when they were seen emerging from a garage at 234 Grosse Pointe boulevard, the residence of Farms Police Chief Walter Hoyt.

The boys had in their possession three spark coils, a brown jug, two glass chimneys, one cow bell, one gavel, a car tail light, a room indicator, a pair of mittens and a pair of dice.

The lads were taken to the police station and questioned and then released to their parents. Their case is still pending.

Blue Devil Cage Team Looks Weak in Preliminary Drills

Coach Howard MacAdams Blue Devil cage team appears to lack the necessary spark to make it a contender in the Border Cities League cage race due to open tomorrow night, Friday, December 10, on the local court against a veteran Royal Oak quintet.

Pre-season practice and a knock-down scrimmage against Dearborn at Dearborn last week pointed up this fact as Dearborn thoroughly trounced the Devils. Inasmuch as it was just a scrimmage, it isn't necessary to mention the score but it was sizeable in favor of the host team.

Four Gridder Starters
Four of Coach Ed Wernet's football players make up the starting five, and it is possible the gridder haven't had sufficient time to adjust themselves to the hardwood. You don't throw a block in basketball the same way you do in football.

Because Hazel Park got tired of playing guinea pig as it has over the past years for the Pointers, and because Dearborn requested to be dropped from the Devils' early schedule due to the formation of a new league in their area, the Devils are faced with playing their first game against a league foe.

Nothing To Be Done
This, Coach MacAdams doesn't like, but there is nothing that can be done on that score at this late date. MacAdams said, "Next year it will be different. We hope to schedule at least three of four possible teams for early dates next season." The coach was referring to Dearborn, Ann Arbor, Birmingham and Pontiac. Annually, all four are top contenders in their league.

Royal Oak opened its season with a non-league game with Pontiac and got dumped, 49 to 40. The Acorns, by the time they meet the Pointers, will have met Birmingham and had the benefit of two full games before plunging into the BCL title chase.

Other Opponents Tough
Other Border Cities League teams issued visual warnings during the coming season by scoring victories last Friday, De-

St. Paul Five Wins Opener

By Dan Wernhoff

The St. Paul Flyers, picking up where they left off last year when they won the League, District and City Championships, swamped Sacred Heart Seminary, 61 to 39, in a non-league basketball opener at Sacred Heart last Friday, December 3.

Co-Captains Bob Wright and Jim Ayrault accounted for the majority of the total clicking for 36 points. Ayrault dropped ten field goals for 22 points, and Wright scored 16 points for runner-up honors.

Like Old Times
The Flyers resembled the teams of old. Built around mainstays Wright and Ayrault, who have been on the first line since their sophomore year, the Flyers appear to have filled the gap left open by the loss of last year's seniors. Tim Trombly appears to have his position clinched while John Wade, Bob Keller and Bud Roland are fighting for the remaining two positions.

Coach Ed Lauer utilized five seniors in the initial period when the Flyers shot into an 18 to 4 lead. From there the champs held a commanding lead for the remainder of play.

Playing his first year as a first stringer, Trombly, towering 6-4 1/2, turned in a commendable performance patrolling the backboards and tipping in rebounds for 14 points.

Good On Defense Too
While showing off their powerful offense, the Flyers also displaying a sturdy defense in the opening period when Sacred Heart was unable to move the ball in closer than 30 feet from the basket. Relying on the long ones they hit for only two baskets.

Only in the second period did Sacred Heart give the slightest inclination of endangering the Flyers' comfortable lead. The Seminarsmen connected for six field goals while St. Paul collected offily nine points. The halftime score read, 27-16.

In the third period, Ayrault struck for 13 points, including six field goals, and was responsible for over half of the 23-point third period outburst.

Given One Basket
Although it was far from needed, the Flyers received a gift basket from a Sacred Heart player in the 4th period when he became confused and dropped in a two-pointer through the St. Paul hoop.

Early in the fourth period, before Lauer emptied the bench of substitutions, Ayrault and Wright worked in a matter of minutes worked a 70-foot passing play. Each heaved to the other for breakaway baskets.

The Flyers, looking forward to a prosperous season, open the defense of their championship crown in the official League opener, January 7, against St. Thomas at Neighborhood.

Race Tightens In Pin Loop

The DeRoone team rolled over the Barrett team, current leaders, for three points last Thursday night to throw the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League into a mad scramble.

By upsetting the leaders, the DeRoone team gained a tie for second place, only two points off the pace.

Motor City won a four-point victory over Welcome, placing them in a tie for second. The Bruce Wigle team continued in the race, by capturing four points from the City Glass team. Only three points separate the first four teams.

High series marked the evening's scoring. D. Borkowski banged home games of 210, 211 and 234 for a 655 series (a new second high individual three game record). Ed DeRoone rolled a neat 674. Simon 665, and Wroblewski and Barnard fired 600 series.

Farms Little League Elects

The annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Farms Little League was called by President Howarth Gnaou on November 29 at the Grosse Pointe Library.

Annual reports reflected a good 1954 season and the interest for a better season next year ran high among the 48 mothers, fathers, uncles, and aunts who will be waiting for "Play Ball" again at Kerby Field.

Wernet Named Coach of the Year

BLUE DEVIL COACH ED WERNET received the highest honor a Michigan high school coach can receive when he was named "Coach of the Year" at the annual Athletic Banquet of the Wayne County Association of Physicians and Surgeons of Osteopathic Medicine, Inc., last Tuesday, December 7, at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel. Coming as a complete surprise, Wernet, coach of the Grosse-Pointe Blue Devils, who earned the 1955 Michigan State Class A Football championship, was practically speechless. The naming of Wernet marked the second year in succession that a Border Cities League coach had so been honored. Jim Wink, basketball coach of Highland Park, 1953 State Class A champions, received the award last year.

Jack Smith Seeks Berth On College Cage Team

Jack Smith, a graduate of Grosse Pointe high school, and new a sophomore at Western Michigan, is competing for a forward position on the Bronco varsity basketball team. He is showing consistent improvement and will see considerable action during the season.

Jack is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Smith of 707 N. Renaud. He is 19 years old, 6'4" tall, and weighs 185 lbs. In high school he was an end on the football team for one year, played forward on the basketball team for three years, and was an infielder and outfielder on the baseball team for three years.

Devils Submerge Hazel Park In Opening Swimming Meet

It was the same old story on Tuesday, November 30, when Coach Frank Banach's Blue Devil swim team traveled to Hazel Park and smashed the non-league opponent 54 to 30 in the first meet of the 1954-55 season.

Despite the fact the veteran Devil-coach pulled his punches by using 15 first year boys, the Parkers didn't stand a ghost of a chance after the first three events, at which time the Devils moved into a three point lead which was never relinquished.

Was Afraid He'd Erred
Said Banach, "I knew we could beat Hazel Park by a considerable margin if I stacked the team, but I wanted to make it look good and at the beginning of the meet I thought I had made a mistake when Hazel Park grabbed two places in the opening event."

Banach continued by explaining, "We have beaten Hazel Park by big scores for years and on numerous occasions they have threatened to drop us from their schedule because their coach feels a licking in the first meet of the season breaks down the morale of his team. Other non-league schools have dropped us from their schedule for the same reason and it is getting more difficult to schedule teams outside our league but still within short traveling distances."

Few Bad Moments
Hazel Park gave the Devils a few anxious moments when Wheeler and Bacskin took first and third in the 40 yard free style with Dick Degner taking second for the Pointers. At this point the Parkers led 6 to 3. However, Russ Whittenberg and Joe Moore, both non-letter winners, turned the tables on the Parkers when they finished first and third in the 100 yard breast stroke event with Carene taking second to knot the score at 9-all.

Two more non-letter winners, Dan Goodnow and Johnny Hammond, paddled in with a first and third in the 200 yard free style event, with Hammond getting the nod with a time of 2:19.3 over Hazel Park's Waltz. This put the Pointers out in front, 15 to 12.

Meet Royal Oak Friday
The Pointers will tangle with their first league foe, Royal Oak, in the Acorns' pool, on Friday, December 10. The results of this meet could go far in determining just how good the Blue Devils will be this coming season. Royal Oak is regarded as one of the more powerful teams in the Border Cities League, which at this writing appears to be dominated by Fordson who will be defending its league crown which it won for the second year in succession last season along with the State Class A title.

Here's how: Into a small goblet put one scant teaspoon of sugar (or one small lump), next a large hooker of Irish whiskey and then strong black coffee (expresso preferred). Leave enough room in the goblet to float a quarter of an inch of heavy cream at the top.

PILFERINGS

The Philadelphia symphony was playing in a midwestern city to a packed auditorium. As the second movement of a concerto reached its climax, there was a sudden and startling silence.

Then out of the hall came a plaintive feminine voice. "But," the voice said, "I always cook mine in butter."

Tourists, according to the American Girl, are people who travel thousands of miles to get a picture of themselves standing beside their car.

A Detroit window actually carried this sign: Eyes Examined While You Wait.

Now that the "sneeze 'n' snuffle" season is upon us, an unknown author comes up with this pert bit of information:

- You have two chances— One of getting the germ And one of not. And if you get the germ You have two chances— One of getting the disease And one of not. And if you get the disease You have two chances— One of dying And one of not. And if you die— Well, you still have two chances!

Pointer of Interest

COMMODORE WARREN H. FARR OF CLOVERLY ROAD

By Jane Schermerhorn

When Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's popular Commodore, Warren H. Farr, became interested in antiques it took him two years and $4,200 to get his second purchase into working order.

Now any husband whose wife happens to be an antiquer and who has become exultant with this news, should pause before he gives forth with a mandate, "Uh huh! See this? There'll be no more antique-ing in this house."

Because Mr. Farr's hobby was antique automobiles. It would still be antique automobiles if housing for the precious possessions hadn't become such a problem.

Mr. Farr's antiques included a 1905 Buick, a 1907 Brush and a 1925 Rolls Royce. With the exception of the Rolls, which was specially built for the King of Spain, the cars were hopelessly junk when Mr. Farr acquired them.

Raced Oldfield Most antiquers have to do a lot

Mr. Farr up to date on the history of his 1905 Buick. Eddie Wilkie opened the first Buick salesroom in Philadelphia and this very car happened to be the first sent to him.

He kept it for sentimental reasons, and for seventeen years it was parked on top of his showroom building, becoming a familiar landmark... or roof mark. Finally city authorities decided it was a safety hazard and ordered it removed.

The picture sent to Mr. Farr, and which he treasures today, shows Mr. Wilkie in the Buick with the great race driver, Willie Haupt at the wheel.

The King's Rolls

And then there was the Rolls Royce... The collector found this gem in Milwaukee, at the end of a long journey which started in Belgium.

It was there that the body was specially built for the King of Spain, back in 1925. When His Highness disposed of it, it became the property of a man in Portugal. Sold again, the royal Rolls wound up in Milwaukee and finally in the Farr garage.

It had a short-coupled body, Phaeton type, with a top that folded down in back, (we suppose so the King could better be seen by his subjects as he rode along).

It was upholstered in tan leather and the color of the car itself was also tan.

But when Mr. Farr returned to Grosse Pointe, this fleet of early automobiles was sold in Philadelphia. He really had a chance to be active in his hobby in the Quaker City and he likes to recall those shows when a Stanley Steamer bus drove up with ten occupants, each wearing a raccoon coat; when he spotted a 12 cylinder Buick; when he and late Mrs. Farr donned dusters, goggles...

Second Antique

As vice-president of Budd Wheel, Mr. Farr's work took him to Philadelphia for four years.

There he discovered a very active branch of the Antique Automobile Club and he acquired his second antique. (We'd like to pause here just long enough to worry about why Detroit wouldn't be the most active city of antique automobile fans... and then move on for a minute to worry again why the big automobile shows are always held in some other city rather than here in the home of 'em all!)

He wasn't at his Philadelphia desk long, before a Budd driver caught on to the vesp's fancy for old cars. This driver said to him one day,

"I'd like to show you a REAL old car, Mr. Farr."

Together they drove to a junk yard and the 1905 Buick was Mr. Farr's for $75.

Next move was to haul its remains, by truck, to a garage machine shop. With the mechanics, Mr. Farr tore down the car, even taking the rivets out of the frame. The engine was in pretty good shape and new gears were made for the transmission and rear axle.

"The Buick had one of the old four-man tops. We really worked on that car and to do the job properly I managed to borrow blue prints from the Buick Company. We had to work from microfilm of the blue prints."

That was the antique that took two years and $4,200 to whip into shape.

Pedigree

When the car was exhibited in an Antique Automobile Club competition at the Devon Horse Show, Mr. Farr was approached by a gentleman who said,

"Why, I know that car! I'll send you a picture of it!"

The gentleman also brought gles and old fashioned head gear to show their cars.

The Commodore

In the Pointe, Mr. Farr's great interest runs to boats and Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, where he is completing his term as Commodore the end of this month.

He pilots his own cruiser, Trans Aqua. Says he's always been a power boat man and supposes that's simply because he's never had enough time to be a sailing man.

He's modest about his own year at the helm of the Yacht Club and gives credit to the Commodores before him for beginning a program that just naturally makes each new year better than the one before.

Once the Yacht Club was strictly a yacht club, so little used by its members that it had to be reorganized. Today a brisk schedule keeps 600 some members interested all year round, not just in boating weather.

There is a changing program of boating, bowling, swimming, big club parties.

"And Grosse Pointe Yacht Club boasts a good percentage of wonderful young people... the kind that assure its brilliant future!" says the Commodore.

How to Make Yule Tree Last

Making a Christmas tree last longer and reducing fire hazard are two problems facing millions of families at this time of year.

Three general rules are offered by Dr. Marion T. Hall, botanist at Cranbrook Institute of Science, Bloomfield Hills:

- (1) Keep the tree in a cool place whenever possible. (2) Keep it moist. (3) Fireproof it at least partially.

The newly acquired tree should be strapped or sprinkled with water. Then about an inch of wood should be removed from the butt in a slanting cut (45 degrees). This cut end is placed in a pail of water, and the tree stored in a cool place until time for decorating. Before it is decorated, the tree should be set in a waterbath type stand to which water is added daily.

Partial fireproofing may be accomplished by spraying the tree with a mixture of waterglass (soluble sodium silicate). Use nine parts of waterglass to one part water. Add one teaspoon of detergent.

While waterglass gives an attractive sheen and helps prevent fire, the tree's rich supply of resin is still inflammable if carelessly brought into contact with fire or excess heat.

Pointe Counter Points

by Roberta Isley

Every daughter of Eve at one time or another twirls through fun events at Christmas time. And, to be sure, EVERY daughter of Eve will not glide through the evening in a pair of lustrous oyster or pearl evening-pumps... or sling backs with open toes. The reason is that every female isn't that lucky. The elegance of the last mentioned is a glittering gold and amber buckle. Now, shall we be technical? Note the narrow heel seats... the custom lasting... the superb finish of these Palizzio Shoes featured in Jacobson's Shoe Salon... main floor.

Adored by women the world over... the scented Odalisque soap by Nettie Rosenstein... pink or blue... unusually shaped... around three and five dollars per box... featured at Trail's Pharmacy, on the hill.

Fashion news from Marie Bird's... broken fingernails rebuilt to withstand housework. Surely you saw Grace Barber's exciting story in Sunday's Detroit Free Press, telling about the latest scientific discovery that transforms Mrs. America's busy hands into manicured ones that would even do justice to our top flight models. Life magazine carried quite a spread on it in their October 25 issue. It sounds fantastic. And it is. It's expensive, too. Sixteen dollars and fifty cents if all ten nails are treated... to say nothing of two hours of your precious time... but believe us... it's well worth it. One nail patching job costs one one dollar and fifty cents in addition to the regular manicure charge. Ruby Houston, the popular manicurist, does an excellent job in this new field. Call TU. 1-6833, or drop in today at Marie Bird's Salon, atop Holiday Hill.

Picture French scenes of gay Paris, in black, on a polished white broadcloth blouse, with cuff links attached, and for the puny sum of five ninety-five. Monogrammed slightly higher. See it at Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

The gift you want for your favorite couple is sometimes hard to find, isn't it? But that's not true if you shop at Gillis Modern Home Furnishings. Here at 403 Fisher Road, are gifts that suit a couple: The "Twins" are a good example. They're silk and pepper shakers fashioned of stainless steel and glass. Rosewood pepper mills with a jar of whole peppers make an unusual gift... as do the handsome porcelain cigarette cups and tray combinations in gay colors or in black. These are from three dollars.

In all this gala gala we ferreted out plenty of magic stuff for your leisure loving fun at Town 'n Casual Shop, over in the Woods. Why not tinsel-tie a pair of Bermuda shorts... a pair of slacks... in either plaid or gray flannel from five ninety-five? Then choose a crisp, shiny, 'n' Shore blouse... fancy or plain? For our convenience, the Town 'n Casual is open every night from now 'til you know when. Great! 20445 Mack.

Fancy snack tables are these TWO TRAY serving tables, on wheels. They're collapsible and have floral printed tops... the legs are black and tubular. Light as a snowflake. The price is something to talk about... four ninety-five. The Ship's Wheel, 19605 Mack... in the Woods... TU. 2-1340.

There are two types of radios at Pongracz... your jeweler. Any one of which would be wonderful under the Christmas tree. There is the radio combination with clock and alarm feature... this enables the receiver to go to bed or wake up with music. The portable one is to carry gaily to the beach, cottage, or while traveling. If it does not get used while traveling—it can be plugged in at home—thus saving the battery. Thirty-nine ninety-five. Pongracz, Jeweler, on-the-hill.

As bright as candy canes is the display of Christmas candles we found this week at Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village. And this should be your candle headquarters because of the variety. There are square ones, rectangular ones. Christmas trees... Santa Claus... Angels... are moulded into bright candies. Some are frostry... some are plain... some are decorated with bells and nosegays. The famous Hawser candles are available. Candle saucers are sold separately... so are wrought iron candelabras... two dollars and seventy-nine cents for this. Well, gal, enough is enough, isn't it?

Glamour belts of black velvet with rhinestone and pearl trim sparkle on shirts after five... velvet cummerbund belts look well on your "at home" slacks. These are just two items taken from the "boutique of little gifts" at Margaret Rice's. There are scarves... jewelry... bags... n blouses, here, too. 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

A "Gourmet" electric plate cozy is THE neat and convenient modern appliance for safely and quickly warming your dinner plates. The attractive Chambray cover has a zipper at each end for ease in its removal... can be washed in ordinary fashion. This is one of the many features at Trail Pharmacy, on-the-hill.

Do you know a man? These are for him. A rhinestone studded bottle opener with a black handsome wooden handle for around four dollars... OR a reversible wool and silk scarf for around six... OR a new plaid watch band. This gives you a meager idea of just what you can find among the many gifts for men in Jacobson's Men's Bar... main floor.

Darn it... you probably won't star in M-G-M's new picture. But you can star in your own wonderful home movies. Movies are as easy to take as snapshots, you know. The new Bell and Howell 8mm movie camera is so reasonable. It sells for forty-nine ninety-five... and features the new Sun Dial that automatically sets the camera... the new big picture window viewfinder and a wide-angle lens covers 25% greater picture area than a standard lens on any other movie camera. We recommend you consider this model shown at the Camera Center, in the village. The WHOLE family loves a camera as a gift.

When you're in Jacobson's shopping, amble past the accessory bar... see the luxurious mink collars in Lucetta, royal pastel or ranch mink... admire the velvet embroidered stoles... or woolly knitted ones... cozzy... we think.

Hugs are intimate... so are satin robes and fiesty coats. They have them in pale colors that flash like glass and in deeper tones. One we liked was beige accented with a deep shade of green velvet belt. Another was blue with a full skirt and perfect for entertaining. The Christmas Belles on your list would enjoy one. They're reasonable, too, twenty-five dollars. They are found where you find the brightest nightgowns... nightshirts... lingerie with much lace and many pieated petticoats... Jacobson's, of course.
