HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, December 16

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, in a surprise move, ordered the Pentagon to drop over 100,000 soldiers from the Army. The slash will take effect in the fiscal year beginning July 1. The army strength was cut by 234,000, bringing its strength down to 1,720,700. Small cuts were also ordered for the Navy and Marines. The Air Force will continue to expand to about 980,000 as it builds up its 137-win program with over 40,000 planes. The President's decision for the cut was based on his estimate that there will be no shooting war with Russia for at least the next few years.

Friday, December 17

DAG HAMMARSKJOLD, Secretary General of the United Nations, has a weekend appointment with Keng Pao, Communist China's ambassador to Sweden. The secretary general is expected to receive his answer then to a proposed meeting with Communist China's Premier Chou En Lai on the question of imprisoned United Nations personnel who fought in Korea. He also will try to seek the release of the American airmen who were jailed on charges of being spies.

Saturday, December 18

A NEW MODIFIED program for universal military training was disclosed by the Defense Department. The plan will strengthen present combat-ready reserves. The Defense Department also said that active armed services may be cut by 458,000 men in the next four years.

The modified UMT is the key provision in a billion-dollar a year program under which almost every physically-fit youth would see some form of military service. It would also call for a four-year extension of the present draft law, aimed at building up a reserve force of five million men.

Sunday, December 19

DAG HAMMARSKJOLD, Secretary General of the United Nations, said that he was going to Peiping after Christmas to discuss the release of all UN personnel still in the hands of Red China. He stated that a UN directive emphasized that he carry out this task, as well as ask for the release of the 11 jailed American airmen.

Monday, December 20

THE WEST will be given more than 100,000 Germans still living in Communist Poland. The Red regime had decided that they did not want the Germans anymore. The first group of 35, mostly women, arrived in West Germany last week.

The goal for 1955 is a total of 62,000 and the remainder will be repatriated in 1956. The plan was drawn by the Warsaw Government and the German Red Cross; all repatriates will be settled in West Germany. Details of the campaign was disclosed by Polish informants.

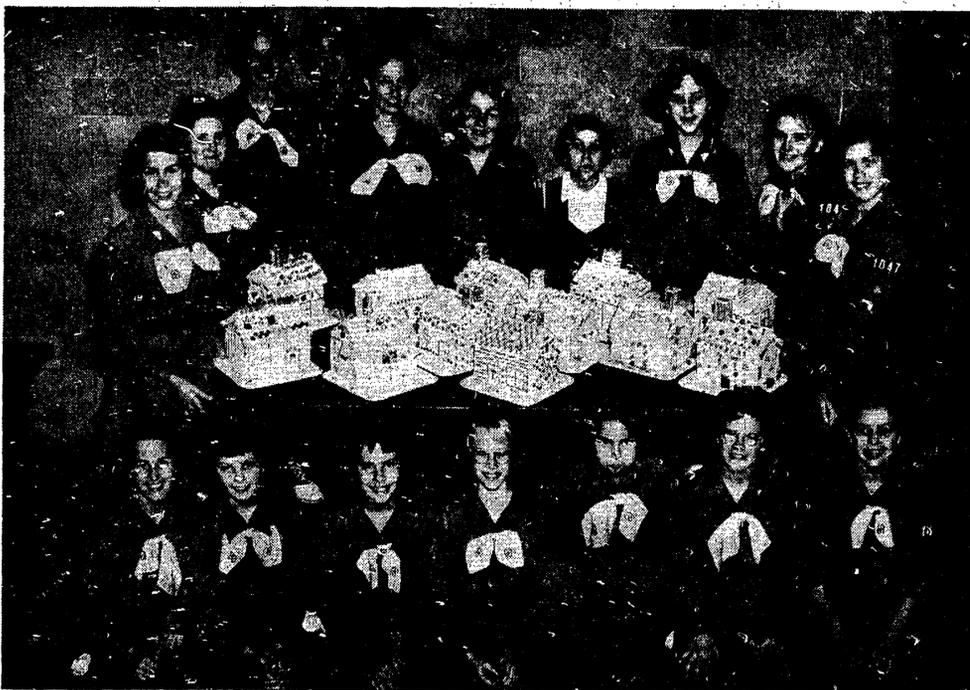

Tuesday, December 21

CHARLES E. WILSON, Secretary of Defense, stated that draft calls for 1955 will be cut in half and that the armed forces will be reduced by 403,000 men by June 30. Wilson said that the decision was made by the President after he had reviewed all of the factors. He also revealed that the First Marine Division will be returned to the West Coast as soon as shipping is assembled. The Army, Navy and Marine Corps, will be trimmed within the next 18 months. The Air Force will be increased.

Wednesday, December 22

RUSSIA protested the violation of the four-power Allied control agreement of Austria, charging that the United States is the violator. The Soviet accused the United States of maintaining troops and bases in the French-occupied Tyrolean section in Austria. The four-power Allied control for Austria rejected the surprise resolution. The charge against America was made by Russian High Commissioner Ivan Ilyitchev at a special meeting of the council. The meeting was called by Ilyitchev on his own initiative as chairman this month. The U.S. denied the charge.

Girl Scout Troop Builds Christmas Candy Houses.

—Picture by Fred Runnells

The housing shortage, candy houses that is, was lessened to a great degree when the Girl Scouts of Maire School's Troop 1047 got together and built pretty candy houses to add to Christmas decorations. The entire project was under the direction of Leader Mrs. William Adams and co-leader Mrs. Michael David at the school. Also the troop baked 60 dozen cookies and delivered them to the patients at the Marine Hospital. Surrounding the houses are, left to right, first row—ANNE BIPPUS, JUDY CROCKETT, ELIZABETH ADAMS, KATHLEEN MYLROI, PIXIE DAVID, JULIE DuCHARME and VIRGINIA BARNES. Back row—BEVERLY SMITH, GRACE JEFFRIES, BARBARA VAN DE WATER, HOLLY PASCO, SUZANNE LEWIS, BEVERLY BUTLER, JUDY CARRIER, CHERYL LYMAN and SHARON SWEENEY.

Park Limits Parking Time For Trucks

New Ordinance, Aimed at Getting Rid of Hindrances To Traffic, Effective Today

Beginning today, December 23, Grosse Pointe Park's new ordinance, forbidding trucks to park for more than 30 minutes on public rights of way in the city, will take effect and violators will be ticketed.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers disclosed that the ordinance is aimed at the large-type commercial vehicles, such as the automobile driveway trailers.

Hinder Traffic Flow

The law, recently passed by the Park council at the request of the police department, is needed to prevent the large vehicles from parking on the streets throughout the entire daytime, and nighttime and thereby hindering the flow of normal traffic over arteries in the city, said the chief.

He stated that the ordinance will assist and increase the safety of motorists and pedestrians, who are exposed to the dangers of this type of parking.

Must Face Court

Chief Louwers said that after today, his men have been instructed to ticket drivers of such type vehicles and all cases must be taken to court.

Drivers of the trucks have only been warned of the consequences of violation of the new law for the past 10 days. No tickets were issued.

Womans Death Mars Park Hopes for Safety Record

Grosse Pointe Park's hopes of a deathless traffic year were shattered on Friday, December 17, when a 50-year-old woman, was killed while crossing the street at Mack and Bishop, a few feet from Detroit's city limits.

The woman, Miss Genevieve Keils of 4262 Bishop road, Detroit, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital, where she was pronounced dead on arrival.

Was Struck in Park

An accident report disclosed that when the call came through regarding the accident, Park police officers Sgt. Anthony Walsh and Patrolmen Gus Boone, Arthur Conlan and William Crandall arrived at the scene and found Miss Keils lying prone, face down, in the center of Mack,

Plan Reception at Center To Welcome New Residents First Sunday of New Year

Traditional Event to Be Held From 3 to 5; Senior Club Has Sent Out 1,000 Invitations; All Newcomers Urged to Attend

The Senior Club of the War Memorial Center has sent close to 1,000 invitations to families who moved into the Grosse Pointes in 1954. The list was provided by the Grosse Pointe Welcome Wagon Club. Any resident or family new to the Pointes, who through oversight has not received an invitation, is most welcome and urged to attend a reception at the Center on Sunday, January 2, from 3 to 5 o'clock.

Headed by Mr. and Mrs. Marion K. Kellogg the entire board of the War Memorial Association will be in the receiving line.

Baby Sitters Provided. Guests will be registered by Mrs. F. F. Stetekuh and her house committee. Baby sitters will be provided in the building.

In the great hall, chamber music will be played and in the candle lit dining room hot was-sail punch and cookies will be served from a tea table decorated by Mrs. Frederick Campbell.

In the library the newcomers will meet representatives of all the groups sponsored by or housed in the Center as well as representatives from the Community Services of the Board of Education, the Grosse Pointe Public Libraries, the Neighborhood Club, and the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club.

These representatives will be happy to tell the new residents about their programs and each guest, regardless of age, will be sure to find some organization in which he is interested and where he will be warmly welcomed.

The beautiful Alger house has been decorated by the Garden Center's president, Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, and guests to the reception will be shown through the building by hostesses from the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club.

With the exception of the City, there will be day-long supervised skating at all the municipal piers if the weather allows. According to City Clerk Harry Furton of the Farms, about five inches of ice is needed to allow skating on the lake, and this is a minimum. It takes three or four days of cold weather to get a crust this thick on even some of the smallest inlets. "Many times the weather does not hold long enough to allow us to open the park over night," he said.

The Farms has two such rinks, one for hockey and one for free skating. They are both located at Kerby Field, Kerby road and Chalfonte, and have an attendant in charge from noon until 10 in the evening.

Skating will be offered at two locations in the Park, one at the waterfront pier, at the foot of Alter road, and the other at an inland rink located at Three Mile drive and Essex road.

The Woods has three inland rinks located about the city, one at Mack Park on Mack avenue near Lochmoor, one behind the Community Club and one at the end of North Brys drive.

Following a similar practice to the Farms, the Woods has designated the Mack Park site as the municipal hockey rink, and has provided boards and nets

City Adds New Lot to Parking Area

More Progress Reported in Expanding Facilities for Shopper in Village

The City has added another piece of land in expanding its off-street parking program, according to Grosse Pointe City Clerk Norbert Neff.

It was revealed that the development of the land, located south of Kercheval and east of Notre Dame, was completed on Thursday, December 16, and will provide room for 45 cars.

Room for 700 Cars
The new space increases the City's room for off-street parking, making the total number of space for cars approximately 700. The new section is located at the rear of the Notre Dame Drug Store and the Stein-store.

Mr. Neff said that this was in addition to metered spaces where employees of the business district may park for an unlimited period for 25 cents.

Advice to Businessmen
He urged all employes and businessmen, who may want to park all day to use the section at the extreme end of the lot, towards the rear of the property owned by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, 17145 St. Paul. Access to the lot is at the rear of the A&P store.

Businessmen and employes on the north side of Kercheval, may park at the extreme easterly end of the stone-surfaced lot of the Neighborhood Club. Access to the lot is on Waterloo, across from the Club.

Farms Fireless During November

The Farms Fire Department went through the month of November without being called to any fires, a report presented to the Farms council on Monday, December 20, by Farms Fire Chief William Newport, disclosed.

The department answered a total of 12 calls during the month, eight of them with the emergency ambulance and four with the utility vehicle.

There were no calls for aid from outside communities and no false alarms.

Two sick leave days and a total of 56 vacation days were taken.

Progress Reported On Farms' Sewer Expansion Program

Bids Approved For Relief Project in Two Areas; Hope to Have Work Done Before Next Expected Rains

The first phase of the Farms' sewer improvement program was given another "push" when the Farms council approved bids for the project on Monday, December 20.

The council, following the recommendations of the Bid Opening Committee, okayed a low bid of $102,093.40 for improvement of the Fisher road relief area, Fisher to Stephens and from Charlevoix to Chalfonte; and a low bid of $19,891 for improvement of the three overflows along Lake Shore road. Repaving after improvements, will cost about $15,000.

The total sum of the two projects is just 10 percent above the engineer's estimated cost of the job. Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith informed members of the council. The estimated cost of the job had been set at about $124,000.

To Be Started Soon
Work on the two projects is expected to start about January 1.

Mr. Smith also informed the council that progress has been made with the estate of Mrs. Henry P. Joy toward the obtaining of an easement to an outlet for the Vendome road relief area. He said that an engineer has been retained by the estate to establish the probable location of a future street between Grosse Pointe boulevard and Lake Shore road, in which they may wish to have this sewer located.

This sewer will be redesigned for depth and location to serve the property.

Will Make Agreement
The City Engineer also stated that a proper agreement must be drawn up between the city and the estate to cover construction of this sewer in an easement over private property.

Bids on other work to be done to complete the Farms' project for sewer relief, which is covered by the $380,000 bond issue recently voted for by Farms voters, will be taken in the near future.

Progress so far is such, that it is hoped the entire program can be completed before summer, or before the next probable heavy rainfalls.

Society Honors GPHS Students
Fourteen Grosse Pointe High School students were recently admitted to the National Honor Society.

The students were selected from a list of pupils whose scholastic average was 2.0 or better, by a faculty advisory committee. Another deciding factor in the selection was a composite rating computed on the basis of scholarship, service points, leadership and character.

Admitted to the society were: Susan Baker, Kathryn Elfes, Walter Eversman, Charles Finger, Beverly Harling, Jay Hooker, Armin Jocz, James Lineberger, David Lippincott, Sheila McDonnell, Paul Norris, Frank Olney, Elsa Purdy and Judith Westphal. The students have already received their membership pins.

DRUNK DRIVER NABBED
Graham Coffey, 63, of 17185 Jefferson was placed under $100 bond by Park police on Thursday, December 16, after he was arrested at Kercheval and Bishop for driving while drunk. Court date is pending.

To Give Guards White Raincoats
Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers disclosed that the city's civil school crossing guards will be supplied with white rain coats soon, to assure better visibility and safety for the guards while on duty during dark hours.

Traffic School Attendance Outgrows Quarters in Park
The Pointe Traffic School, which has been held in the Park Municipal Building for the past several years, has outgrown its quarters and will have to move to a new location, information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers revealed.

The chief stated that traffic education sessions have been held in the Park courtroom twice a month since 1947, with an original class attendance of 10 to 12 people.

Now, he said, the municipal courtroom cannot hold the more than 100 persons who attend each session.

Chief Louwers disclosed that he had made arrangements with Forrest Geary of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, to use the auditorium facilities of the Community Service Department, located in the former Country Day School Building.

The new quarters will provide room for 250 driver students, including those from Harper Woods, who will learn the fundamentals of traffic laws.

It is hoped that the new site of the traffic school can be in operation by the latter part of January, the chief said.

The opening date and further information regarding this program will be announced in the News at a later date.

Donate $500 For Soldiers' Yule Parties

Enable Men of AAA to Give Wonderful Christmas Day To Underprivileged Kids

Grosse Pointe Goodfellows have proved what good fellows they really are, by rushing in to insure the success of the Christmas parties which the soldiers stationed in the area are giving for underprivileged children. They have donated a total of $500 to make certain that neither the hosts nor the guests will be disappointed on Christmas Day.

The idea of the parties for orphans was conceived last year by the soldiers stationed at the Army Anti-Aircraft Artillery camps located here. They were digging into their own pockets to pay for extra trimmings and gifts for a large group of underprivileged children they had invited to share Christmas Day with them at their campsites.

Residents Wanted To Help
When word of their plans became known, a group of local residents decided it would be nice to help them out, and perhaps even get together enough money to provide some presents for the soldiers themselves. It was to be sort of a thank-you gesture from the community for having these protectors here, and a way of showing them that Christmas away from home can be made brighter when friendship is extended.

Col. Walter Allard, chairman of the Veterans' Committee at the War Memorial Center, spearheaded the drive. He was given a great assist by the auxiliary members of the VFW Post 995. In response to the appeal some 127 residents sent in gifts of money and there were several hundred actual presents donated. With the $800 obtained, each of the invited guests, the kids who usually get so little on Christmas, found himself on the receiving end of five presents. And there was enough to buy gifts for the soldiers themselves.

Parties Great Success
With the Christmas dinners, gaily decorated mess halls, and Santa Claus on hand, the parties were a great success.

The same local group thought it would be a fine idea to do the same thing again this year. But there were hitches in the plan. The soldiers had been sent to the firing range up on Lake Michigan and the proper authorities could not be contacted. It

Sale Nets $7,400 For Goodfellows
Despite freezing weather of eight degrees above, Grosse Pointe Lions, police and firemen had the most successful Good-fellow paper sale drive in years, according to Carl Schweikart of 1033 Nottingham, chairman of the drive in the Pointe.

The paper sale, held on Monday, December 20, from 5:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m., grossed approximately $7,400. Mr. Schweikart said. Co-chairman of the drive was James McNally of 1314 Nottingham, former Wayne County Prosecutor.

Now that the Pointe has shown its generosity, the Lions Club will buckle down to the task of making sure that no Pointe child will be without a Christmas.

Mr. Schweikart disclosed that there will be at least 50 needy families throughout the Pointe, who will be assured of a good Christmas, when baskets filled with food and other good things, plus toys for the children, are delivered to their homes.

Expenditures of the Club are made only upon the recommendation of George Elworthy, Grosse Pointe Welfare Director.

Funds raised in the paper sale are used for the charitable needs of the Pointe throughout the year, especially for the Leader Dog League for the Blind and public and private charities, and other worthy causes.

Another interest of the club is the promotion of youth activities and recreational programs throughout the Pointe, to encourage healthier attitudes among the future citizens and residents.

The paper sale is the only fund raising campaign the Lions Club conducts during the year.

wasn't until last week, when the boys returned with the best shooting record compiled by any units of the Anti-Aircraft Artillery Command, that it was possible to get things under way.

The left only one week for the project. Last year publicity had been given the event for at least a month.

60 Sent in Money

When the NEWS checked with Colonel Allard on Tuesday, it was reported that about 60 residents had sent in a little more than $400 for the parties. It wasn't all that could be hoped for, but Colonel Allard thought it a very gratifying response to the very late appeal. Plans were going ahead to do the best they could with the funds available.

Then came the word from the Goodfellows. They had held a most successful newspaper sale on Monday, and they were aware that their campaign had conflicted with the drive being staged for the soldiers' project. So they said they wanted to help out.

Add $450 to Gift

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club, which annually stages the Goodfellows newspaper sale, had already contributed $50 for the soldiers' project. They wanted to do more, and announced that another check for $450 was being sent over to Colonel Allard.

This was enough to insure the parties will be a whopping success. The women of the YVW auxiliary will again do the shopping for presents, on Wednesday and Thursday. They bought them all at wholesale last year, and will see that they are appropriately wrapped and will help with the decorations at the campsites.

Lieut. Robert Hill, of the Three Mile drive camp, who was appointed to represent the soldiers, will see that the gifts are properly distributed. He was another very happy man when he was informed of the fine gesture made by the Goodfellows.

The additional gift was announced by Carl Schweikart, chairman of the Goodfellows' drive. He had conferred with his co-chairman, James N. McNally, and officials of the Lions Club. They unanimously approved the donation and stated they knew the local residents who had contributed to the paper sale would heartily agree with the expenditure.

Drivers Offered Int'l License

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers disclosed that motorists may obtain an International driver's license, by making application to the Transportation Clerk of the New York office of the American Automobile Association.

He said that the license, which costs about $7.50, is honored in practically every country in the world. However, this type of license is not honored in the United States or in any of the Iron Curtain countries.

The chief stated that the application, which must have a photo of the applicant attached, would take about three weeks to process.

He revealed that the license could not be honored in this country because each of the 48 States has its own respective laws pertaining to obtaining driver's licenses.

Anyone interested in getting a license of this kind should contact their local AAA office for details and further information.

for the players. Only free skating will be allowed at the other two sites. If the weather permits, the lakefront pier will also be open for skating on the swimming area and Milk River.

The Shores will also open its municipal park, weather permitting, and vandals permitting, it will also open its one inland rink at Hawthorne and Lake Shore drive. On two previous floodings, vandals have thrown rocks and chunks of dirt into the half-frozen ice, ruining the surface.

The City is unable to open its municipal pier for skating until it gets an attendant.

L. Lawrence Buell III Heads Debate Tourney

PRINCETON, N. J.—The annual Princeton "Debate-Day" Saturday, December 11. This tournament, which is held in an effort to provide experience for novice debaters, was attended by some 30 colleges and provided three rounds of debate for some 100 yearling debaters.

"The emphasis was not on winning," Tournament Chairman L. Lawrence Buell, III, '57 (Grosse Pointe, Mich.) stated, "but on gaining a maximum amount of experience through careful critiques."

Visiting debaters were treated to a quick tour of the campus, an afternoon forensic competition, a meal in the "undercl" dining halls, (where the "small" debaters received cheers of welcome from the freshman and sophomore classes), and an informal dance to conclude the day's activities.

Sought Help Immediately

He said that he stopped immediately and went to a used car lot at the corner and asked someone to call police and then returned to see if he could render aid to the traffic victim.

John Phillips of 22553 Manor, St. Clair Shores, who narrowly missed hitting Miss Keils and who is a witness to the accident, informed authorities at the prosecutor's office, that he was on Bishop road and was about to make a turn onto Mack, when he saw the woman in the other lane

Bayard Johnson Named For Phi Beta Kappa

Bayard Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson of Merriweather road, has been initiated into the Dartmouth College chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, national honorary scholastic fraternity.

Bayard, outstanding athlete at Grosse Pointe High, was football captain-elect at Dartmouth for the 1953 season, but had to give up the game when he was seriously injured in an automobile accident returning from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., during the spring vacation that year.

The accident forced him to miss a semester at Dartmouth, from where he will be graduated this coming February. He hopes to take post graduate studies at Harvard Business School.

of the easterly traffic lane, just three to four feet from the center line.

Pulled Over to Curb

Fearing that he might hit her if she stepped into the path of his car, he swerved to the right, and sensing that something was about to happen, pulled to the curb about 30 feet away, and saw the woman's body falling to the pavement directly opposite his car.

He ventured that lights from oncoming traffic and the lights from the used car lot on the wet pavement, made it difficult for anyone to see and that he almost didn't see Miss Keils himself.

Too Late to Stop

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers disclosed that DeValerio was directly behind Phillips' and when Phillips swerved, DeValerio could not apply his brakes in time to keep from hitting the woman. An inquest was held in the Wayne County Coroner's Office, where Lt. Enders submitted the findings of his investigation, and where a post mortem was demanded and approved.

DeValerio was placed in the custody of his attorney pending further investigation.

CHICKEN BARGAIN

Because eggs are so cheap, farmers are sending some of their hens to market. So the U.S. Department of Agriculture says stewing hens are very plentiful, which is unusual for this time of year. Because many of these hens are young birds, they are more tender than most stewing hens, and prices are generally lower than usual.

They further stated that the burden of proof that the home was a two-family residence, in existence prior to the passing of

If proof is furnished, then the homes will be allowed to remain as a two-family residence, otherwise owners may have to convert the houses to single-family homes.

Power Installed For City's Pier

Detroit Edison has installed surface power lines to the City's steel pier and docks to supply electrical energy for park lights, pumps for the swimming pool and other equipment, Grosse Pointe City Clerk Norbert Neff announced.

He also made known that the firm is installing new ornamental street lights along East Jefferson, along the same design being used by the Park and the Farms. The power lines to the municipal park and the ornamental lighting in the three Pointes is being put in at the expense of the Edison company, Mr. Neff said.

He added that the new lights may be in commission by either January or February of next year.

Police Chiefs Issue Joint Warning to All Motorists

The Chiefs of Police of Grosse Pointe have announced that the Grosse Pointe Police Department are cooperating with the Michigan Liquor Control Commission and the State Safety Commission on the state-wide emphasis program aimed at reducing accidents due to drunk driving.

"This is the beginning of the holiday season when everybody is not aware that holiday drinking and driving last year showed up in the accident records as follows:

- (1) 23 percent of drivers involved in fatal accidents in Michigan were reported as "had been drinking."
- (2) A special study in Evanston, Illinois, showed that nearly half of the drivers involved in personal injury accidents were reported as "had been drinking" and that those with .15 percent blood-alcohol concentration were 55 times more likely to become involved in an accident than were non-drinking drivers.

(3) In 1953, 31 percent of the adult pedestrians (age 20 and over) involved in accidents in Michigan were reported as "had been drinking," they continued.

In conclusion the police chiefs issued a special warning to persons celebrating in private homes. They pointed out that 80 percent of the alcohol is now consumed in homes and only 20 percent is consumed in bars and taverns. They urged all motorists to keep in mind the official safety slogans "Drunk Drivers Lose Their Licenses—Go To Jail."

City Smiles on Salvation Army

Grosse Pointe City Clerk Norbert P. Neff disclosed on Friday, December 17, that his community is the first Pointe to permit a Salvation Army Lassie to stand at a public corner to solicit funds to make a happy and Merry Christmas for others. The lassie is in front of Jacobson's store on Kercheval.

Church to Hold Special Service

The Rev. Dr. Frank Fitt will preside at the annual Christmas Eve Candlelight Service of The Grosse Pointe Memorial Church which will be held at 11 o'clock Friday night, December 24.

The Christmas message will be given by the Rev. Paul F. Ketchum, Associate Minister. The Rev. James W. Gillespie, Minister of Christian Education, will also participate in the service.

Choral music will be provided by the Chancel Choir under the direction of Malcolm MacLean Johns, organist and choirmaster and by the Youth Choir, under the direction of Marie Joy Curtiss.

Beginning at 10:30 p.m., preceding the service, the Chancel Choir will sing for 20 minutes the old, familiar Christmas carols.

The four-generation-old MacDonald Family Bible, a gift to the church by Mrs. Fred J. MacDonald, will be used on the Communion Table in a setting of poinsettias presented by Mrs. Joseph B. Schlotman in memory of Mr. Schlotman. Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson is in charge of the special decorations for this and other Christmas services.

An Open House for college students and members of the Armed Forces home on leave will be held from 9 to 10:15 p.m. on the second floor of the Church House. Young people home from preparatory schools and boarding schools are also invited to attend this occasion.

Team Split Up By Retirement

For the first time in 34 years, the two men who have been responsible for thousands of Parke, Davis & Company advertisements in national magazines and professional journals will be separated December 31 by the retirement of Walter M. Chase.

Chase, as associate and Ralph G. Sickles, director of advertising, have been together since 1920 and now are the oldest such "team" in the pharmaceutical industry. They both joined the company on the same day, September 28, but six years apart—Chase in 1914 and Sickles in 1920. Chase was the first man Sickles saw at Parke-Davis, and they've been working side by side ever since.

Now 66, Chase is still active and intends to remain that way at something, perhaps travel. Next fall, for example, he intends to drive to South Bend, Ind., and see the Notre Dame home football games with Mrs. Chase and their daughter, Doris Ann, who is employed in an insurance firm and also is studying law. Meanwhile, Chase expects to spend considerable time watching television at their home, 1245 Bishop road, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich.

Chase is completing a three-year term as an elected member of the national council of the American Pharmaceutical Association, one of the highest honors in pharmacy. He is a life member of the A.P.A., with which he has been affiliated since 1915. The Maine Pharmaceutical Association made him an honorary life member for his part in the "Know Your Pharmacist" series of Parke-Davis advertisements.

He is past president of the Michigan Branch, A.P.A., and a director and past president of the Michigan Academy of Pharmacy.

Born July 2, 1888, at Bangor, Maine, Chase received a B.S. degree from the University of Maine College of Pharmacy in 1910. He spent several years getting retail pharmacy experience before joining Parke-Davis.

During World War I, he served as a medical supply officer in the U. S. Army. He is a past commander of Turnverein Post 291, American Legion, and a member and past chaplain of Parke-Davis Post 469.

Sickles, discussing Chase's retirement, said, "We're going to miss him around here."

He paused and added, "That's the understatement of the year."

Richard R. Kuhn Now Navy Ensign

NEWPORT, R. I. (FHTNC)—Graduation exercises were held here on December 19 at the U. S. Naval Station, for the 18th class of the U. S. Naval Officer Candidate School.

Among the graduates commissioned Ensign, USNR, was Richard R. Kuhn, son of Mrs. Ella M. Kuhn of 1565 Fair court, Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich., and husband of the former Miss Dorothy A. Wood of Detroit.

Rear Admiral Sherman R. Clark, USN, of the Office of the Chief of Naval Operations, was the principal speaker at the exercises.

The students have completed a four months indoctrination course in seamanship, operations, Naval weapons, Marine engineering, navigation, and Naval orientation.

Graduates are qualified to serve as junior officers aboard any of the Navy's warships or supporting commands.

Experience proves that when the mercury skids so does your car.

Veterans Get Help with Yule Shopping

"I want something for my brother . . . he's so big," says EDWARD HILDINGER. LILLIE KNOPF, a chairwoman of the American Legion Auxiliary, Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303 is his helper.

The kind of Christmas shopping everybody would like to do "choose any gift and pay nothing" has been going on at the Veterans Administration Hospital in Dearborn this past week.

More than 30,000 members of the Michigan American Legion Auxiliary took the Christmas shopping service to veterans in Dearborn and to four other veterans' hospitals in the state. Each veteran was told to select three gifts for members of his family. To choose from he had an assortment of hats, gloves, shoes, toys, jewelry, perfume, hose, games, etc.

After his selections were made volunteer auxiliary members wrapped and mailed the parcels, as another free service.

According to Lucille Gairns,

Department Rehabilitation Chairman and Gladys Taylor, State Auxiliary President, the shopping centers were stocked with gifts from 450 units at a cost of $24,000.

Grosse Pointe Unit No. 303 was represented by five members who spent a full day working in the "Gift Shop" at Dearborn hospital.

Exchange Club Honors DeFour

Scouts Honor Allen Morrison

At a Christmas party and Court of Honor on Thursday, December 16, Defer School's Troop 147 and Explorer Post 147 paid special recognition to Senior Patrol Leader Allen Morrison of 1007 Somerset, who received his Eagle Scout award. More than 100 parents and scouts were at this annual event.

Grosse Pointe Commissioner Paul Kolvoord presented the Eagle Badge and commended Allen's advancement in Scouting. To qualify for Eagle, a scout must earn 21 merit badges which are awarded for excellence in the more difficult Scouting skills. Allen demonstrated proficiency in scholarship, life-saving first aid, citizenship, and camping. In addition, he served as an outstanding Troop leader, scribe, and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster. Neighborhood Commissioner Ben Kuser, 1422 Maryland, also cited Morrison's three active years in Scouting. Kuser then presented Life and Star Scout Awards to Thomas Harrett, 1128 Wayburn, and William Pressell, 1398 Nottingham, respectively.

Scoutmaster Ted Granger of 91 Mapleton presented first-class awards to eight scouts. Assistant Scoutmasters Carl Macpherson, Jr., and Henry Parsons, gave second-class awards to seven scouts. Eight new scouts were inducted into the Troop.

CUTS WRIST ON SHELF
Mae Anderson, 53, of 15744 Idaho, Detroit, employed at 280 Moran, a residential home, was rushed to Cottage Hospital by Farms police on Friday, December 17, when she accidentally cut her left wrist on a piece of glass shelving. Seven stitches were required to close the wound.

Reckless Drivers Pay Up in Court

Roland R. Likert of 989 Nottingham, was found guilty of reckless driving and causing an accident at East Jefferson and Harcourt, when he appeared before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, December 15.

Stanley C. Hughes, Jr., of 21723 California, St. Clair Shores, pleaded guilty to a charge of reckless driving and causing an accident at East Jefferson and Bishop and was assessed a fine and costs totaling $30.

It cost Frederick G. Bloy of 1101 Grayton a fine of $16, after he pleaded guilty to speeding on St. Paul.

Robert E. Barton of 304 Lothrop pleaded guilty to causing an accident at Balfour and Vernor and he was fined $15.

Shirley M. Lanstra of 22430 Madison, was found guilty of speeding on East Jefferson and fined $12.

Beatrice H. Wilson of 266 Lakeland, pleaded guilty of failing to stop for a stop street and causing an accident at Devonshire and Charlevoix. Her fine was suspended on payment of court costs of $10.

Lewis J. Novak of 370 McKinley avenue, pleaded guilty to running through a red signal light and was fined $8.

Esther D. Fleck of 973 Balfour, pleaded not guilty to turning into traffic and causing an accident at Jefferson and Park lane. Her case was dismissed.

A plea of not guilty was entered by Ray S. Wallace of 721 Continental, Detroit, who was charged with reckless driving and causing an accident. His case was dismissed.

Thieves Ransack Home in Farms

A Farms family returned home, after a few hours absence, to find that someone had broken into the house and left it a mess after ransacking it.

A Farms police report revealed that one or more burglars broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Putnam, 420 Roland, ransacking the place thoroughly, and leaving the contents of bureau drawers littered all over the floor.

Taken were: a pale blue sapphire yellow gold ring, valued at $10; blue rhinestone bracelet, worth $10; a $7.50 necklace; a gold identification bracelet, no value given; and $10 in cash.

Cinema League Offers Film Of Record Fishing Catches

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present an outstanding fishing movie taken in the Canadian wilds by Dennis Haver, Grosse Pointe Sport Shop operator and formerly official photographer for the Conservation Department, at its next meeting, January 6, at the War Memorial Center.

The movie, which should attract sport fans as well as amateur movie photographers, includes shots of landing speckled trout weighing between six and seven pounds and great northern pike that tip the scales at better than 25 pounds.

This will be the first showing of Haver's film, entitled Nipigon, which will be presented on television early in 1955. The movie is built around record smashing catches at the fishing lodge of Doug Townsend on Lake Nipigon in the Canadian wilderness above Lake Superior.

Not only is the scenery shown in its untouched beauty, but the fish surpass, both in gaminess and size, anything in this area. Also on the program will be a discussion by members of the league's planning committee concerning future program and the possibility of club movie projects.

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League which started two months ago under the auspices of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, is open to all amateur movie fans in this area. The programing committee, named at the December meeting include William J. Kirby, Margaret Mallarky, Wallace Temple, Robert Palmer, Palmentier and Stephen Stackpole.

Nancy Watkins Bride Of Theodore Osius, Jr.

Large Number of Pointers Present at Sunday Afternoon Ceremony in Ann Arbor's First Presbyterian Church; Couple Leave on Mt. Tremblant Honeymoon

Over a hundred Pointers traveled out to Ann Arbor last Sunday afternoon for the ceremony which united in marriage Nancy Katherine Watkins, of the college town, and Theodore G. Osius, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore G. Osius of Rivard boulevard.

The Rev. Henry Kuizenga officiated at the double ring ceremony at 4 o'clock in the afternoon in The First Presbyterian Church of Ann Arbor.

The bride is the daughter of Professor and Mrs. Leonard Lyons Watkins of Ann Arbor. Her gown of ivory Italian silk was worn over satin tulle. Fashioned with princess bodice, the gown had bouffant skirt, of unpressed pleats, ending in scalloped hemline underlined with tulle. Long, fitted sleeves distinguished the bodice which had Vionnet neckline deeply banded in re-embroidered Alencon lace. The fingertip bridal veil fell from a coronet of Alencon lace and Nancy carried a cascade bouquet of white camellias and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Peter T. Hall of Ann Arbor with Susan Dwan, of Washington, the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were the bride-

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodman Chapman of Provincial road announce the engagement of their daughter, JULIENNE BOWEN CHAPMAN, to Milton Henkel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henkel of Berkshire road.

Miss Chapman attended Grosse Pointe Country Day School and was graduated from Miss Hall's School in Pittsfield, Mass. She will be graduated from Briarcliff Junior College in June. She made her debut at a tea dance at the Country Club in December 1953.

Mr. Henkel was graduated from Detroit University School and Michigan State College where he was a member of Psi Upsilon.

Christmas Fun For Fine Arts

Members of the Fine Arts Society attended their annual dinner dance at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club last Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson were general chairmen for the evening.

Their assistants were Hilary Whitaker, Mr. and Mrs. Thornton E. Waterfall, Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Tutag, Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Vanderyl, Mr. and Mrs. Harold O. Love, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Gauss II, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Bliss and Mr. and Mrs. John Benfield.

Dallas Chapin is president of Fine Arts Society.

Krystn Glancy Birthday Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy Jr. entertained the school set at a dinner dance Monday evening marking the fourteenth birthday of their daughter, Krystn.

The party took place at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club and until 11:30 p.m., the peppy crowd gave the orchestra what for keeping up with its Bunny Hops, Charleston and Mambo.

Guests sat at four tables, each of which had centerpiece of spring flowers including blue iris, pink carnations and snapdragons and white stock.

The young guests found birthday party hats, serpentine streamers, confetti and horns at their places and enjoyed the birthday girl's favorite menu featuring barbecue-ed beef and unabashed hot fudge sundaes.

When the birthday cake arrived, its fourteen candles glowed around a horse and rider taking a jump. The horse immediately was dubbed Prince Andrew, the name of Krystn's favorite steed.

Mr. and Mrs. Leet M. Denton assisted the Glancys at the party and the guest list included:

Stanley M. Huestis Family in Mexico City

Christmas in Mexico are the holiday plans of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Huestis of Grand Marais boulevard, and their children, Jean, Mac, Pete and Robbie. On Christmas day they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilhelm of Mexico City. The family plans to travel in Mexico, right down to Acapulco, before returning to the Pointe.

St. Clare Club To Hold Dance

The newly-organized young adult's club of St. Clare of Montefalco parish, the MYOANS, will sponsor its Christmas social extravaganza on December 26.

Dancing, refreshments, and prizes are on the agenda for the evening.

Highlighting the occasion will be the music of Phil Skillman's orchestra, presented in the beautiful surroundings of the new St. Clare parish auditorium at Mack and Whittier.

Tickets, at one dollar per person, are now available by calling Bob Wittstock, president (TU 2-0667), Bonnie Van Antwerp, treasurer (TU 5-4784) or Joan Kennedy, social secretary (TU 5-6287) and will also be sold at the door.

This event, terminating the '54 social season, promises to be the finest ever presented for the young adults in this East Side area.

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

Grandmothers, always pretty special people, are putting a sparkle into the debutante news these Christmas holidays... In fact one of the very first parties of the current deb season was given on Monday afternoon by Mrs. Cameron Beach Waterman for her granddaughters... Pamela Waterman, daughter of the Cameron Watermans III, and Katherine Isham Farwell, daughter of the Ralph Farwells of Lake Forest... It was an afternoon tea with Mrs. Waterman and the debs receiving guests in the library of the Watermans' Lincoln road home. Mrs. Waterman was dressed in gown of raspberry faille; Katherine wore an afternoon frock of royal blue satin, and Pam was in red velvet frock. Both girls carried bouquets of white carnations.

Assist at Tea Table

Friends of their grandmother... and debs of June and this December... filed down the receiving line during the afternoon... strolling later into the Waterman dining room, where the tea table had lace cloth and centerpiece of white stock and carnations with a bit of Christmacy silver in the arrangement. Assisting at the tea table during the afternoon were Mrs. William P. Stevens (Pam's maternal grandmother), Mrs. Joseph G. Standart, Mrs. Frederic W. Schreiber, Mrs. James Turner, Mrs. Charles Beecher Crouse, and Mrs. Waterman's daughters-in-law, Mrs. Reuben Waterman and Pam's mother, Mrs. Cameron Waterman III and Mrs. J. Stewart Hudson.

"Come Without Hat"

The friends who assisted at the tea table had been asked to come "without their hats" to the Waterman tea... a social expression of old Detroit... which always meant that the one, so invited, was being asked to assist at the party. The senior Mrs. Waterman, whose home was in Pittsburgh, made her own debut at an afternoon party at the turn of the century. Later her parents gave a fashionable cotillion in her honor. "In those days," Mrs. Waterman recalled this week, "the debutante season stretched out for two glorious months in the winter and what busy months they were! Debutants were much more elaborate and taken much more seriously than they are in modern life."

Beautiful Favors

With each cotillion of the season, the favors seemed to grow more beautiful Mrs. Waterman remembered. "There were many, many favors just for fun... fashioned of gaily colored tissue paper, but then at a special time during the evening, each guest received a truly handsome and valuable gift. The girls might be presented with real lace boudoir pillows, then in vogue, or exquisite feather fans. There were cuff links or perhaps silver cigarette cases for the young gentlemen. Cotillions were great fun. The Beau Brummel of the town, usually a well-established bachelor, would call the figures for the evening. Pittsburgh was famous for the parties. When I came to Detroit as a bride I was delighted to be invited to a cotillion given by Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Joy for their niece, Miss Gladys Newberry, who now lives in

Mrs. Elton Leroy Newton, Jr.

The former ANN AGNES GIBSON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Gibson of Cadieux road, became the bride of Elton Leroy Newton, Jr., son of Mr. Elton Leroy Newton of Devensboro, Kentucky, on Wednesday, December 22, in the Calvin United Presbyterian Church. Reverend Ernest Dunn officiated at the ceremony.

For her marriage Ann chose an ivory satin gown with hand-drawn fagoting. The princess line gown was styled with an Empress waistline, a floor length chapel train, and her two-tier fingertip veil cap was accented with ivory rosepoint lace and pearl applique. She carried a cascade of white roses and orchids.

Mrs. Elizabeth Gibson Potthoff was Ann's matron of honor. The bridesmaids, who were gowned in ruby velvet strapless waist length gowns with bodice fitted jackets and matching hats, were: Frances Ellen Reneau, Janet Lou Kopp, Jane Carolyn Fosson and Marlene Climie. The flower girl was Jean Agnes Kiddle. Elton chose Howard Fisher as his best man. He was assisted by ushers Ted Leslie Potthoff, Al Singler, Alexander Gibson, and ringbearer Robert Thomas. For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gibson chose a brocaded silk beige dress trimmed in mink. After their reception at the St. Clair Civic Center, the couple left for a wedding trip to New Orleans, at which time Ann changed to a black and gray suit with a black velvet hat.

The couple will reside at Danville, Kentucky where both will be attending Center College.

up their yacht, The Maid Marian, and cruise to their customary winter at Palm Beach. MR. and MRS. HARLEY EARL, of Touraine road, will join the Blisses on the cruise to Palm Beach.

DR. and MRS. CHARLES C. MERKEL, of East Jefferson, are welcoming members of their family at Christmastime, too. Their son and daughter-in-law, MR. and MRS. WALDO H. BROWN arrive today from their home in Wellesley Hills, Mass.

Forty two of their friends gathered for the Christmas party which MR. and MRS. GEORGE A. GARDELLA, of Oxford road, gave at the Detroit Athletic Club last Thursday. The fete started with a cocktail hour in the ladies dining room and proceeded to the main dining room for dinner, dancing and the floor show starring Carl Brisson.

MRS. HENRY FORD II will be a patroness Dec. 29 at the Foreign Press Association of New York's first annual International Press Ball. The party will take place at the Waldorf Astoria.

MR. and MRS. RICHARD KELLER (Beverly McClellan) have announced the birth of a daughter, LAURA GWYNNE, KELLER, born Dec. 14.

JOSEPH H. BUCKINGHAM will be host at a Sunday buffet supper party at his Buckingham road home this Sunday. Their first party for 1955 will take place at Grosse Pointe Hunt Club for MR. and MRS. OTIS

U. WALKER who will be hosts at a brunch on Jan. 9.

MR. and MRS. O. W. PICKARD JR., of Saginaw, are the jollyday guests of her parents, MR. and MRS. WINFIELD S. JEWELL JR. of Washington road.

In Evanston, Ill., MR. and MRS. WILLIAM ROSS DEGER (Patricia Cotter of Grosse Pointe) announce the birth of a daughter, CYNTHIA KEEN DEGER, on Dec. 10.

MRS. DAVID MANSON WEIR, of Steubenville, O. has arrived for her winter visit to the Pointe and will occupy her home in McMillan road during her visit. This is particularly good news to Mrs. Weir's sons-in-law and daughters, the William P. Bonbrights II and Mr. and Mrs. Allan Sheldon III.

MRS. REX M. LAMB JR. and MRS. STEPHEN UPHAM, of Mount Vernon, O. are spending the Christmas holidays with the former's parents, MR. and MRS. GEORGE P. CAULKINS of Rivard boulevard.

Eighty of their friends have been invited to a luncheon at the Detroit Boat Club next Wednesday, by a quintet of Pointe sub debs. The guest list is made up of their friends from Grosse Pointe and Grosse Pointe University School. The hostesses include JULIE BUSH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Stansell Bush; CHRISTINE COVEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo F. Covey; KITTY HUTTON, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hutton; ANN MURPHY, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John M. Murphy; and JILL TAYLOR, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Taylor.

MR. and MRS. CYRIL J. EDWARDS, of Provincial road, were hosts at cocktails Tuesday evening following which they took their guests to the Country Club for dinner and stayed on for the Robinson-Fisher debut dance.

Christmas on the high seas is the good fortune of MR. and MRS. A. D. WILKINSON, of University place, who are en route for travel in the Orient.

JEAN CLEMENS, daughter of MR. and MRS. W. E. CLEMENS of Merriweather road, was recently elected to the Mardi Gras Court at Sullins Junior College in Virginia. The social event will take place some time in February.

ANN GIROUX entertained at tea on December 19 at her Lothrop home. The tea table looked gay with red tulle and Holly with carnations. Phil Skillman delighted the girls by playing their favorite popular tunes.

English Roses Bloom For Debutante Dance

Country Club Becomes Formal English Garden for the Tuesday Evening Debut of Grace Robinson and Margo Fisher; Hundreds of Yellow Roses Feature Decor

A formal yellow rose garden, which might have been transplanted from the English countryside, transformed the Country Club Tuesday evening for the debut dance of Margo Fisher and Grace Robinson.

The debutantes are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fisher, of Lakeland avenue, and Mr. and Mrs. W. Dean Robinson of Provincial road.

There were yellow rosebuds everywhere... growing in neatly tailored trees that stood in satin black painted tubs lining the long main floor hall of the club; small and large arrangements of long-stemmed roses in the French Room where guests were received (a brass punch bowl was filled with over a hundred of the roses here).

Pillars in the great hall were obscured by roses in lead urns and a boxed hedge at either end of the great hall added to the atmosphere.

Margo Fisher was gowned in floor touching white net gown for her coming out party. Silver embroidery glistened on the net worn over yellow organza and green taffeta. Green satin defined the long torso effect of the gown and ended, at back, in three satin bows caught to the bouffant skirt. She carried a bouquet of yellow lady's slipper orchids.

Grace's gown of yellow Chantilly scroll lace was worn over white organza and yellow taffeta. The slim bodice had neckline outlined in triple edging of lace over yellow taffeta and the yellow note was repeated in a great taffeta bow at the back of the full skirted gown. Her flowers were pale green lady's slipper orchids.

Mrs. Robinson chose an evening gown of gold taffeta fashioned with draped bodice and full, floor touching skirt while Mrs. Fisher was in forest green peau de soie, with imported bronze and yellow silk roses on the draped bodice.

Santa Claus Pays Early Visit to GPYC Children

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Commodore W. O'Neill Kronner and Mrs. Kronner on Hand to See Delighted Tots Greet St. Nick at Club's Annual Party

Santa Claus, five merry-making clowns, "Jingle Bells" and other Yuletide songs, a huge lighted tree, entertainment, ice cream, cookies and gifts, fluffly-frocked little girls, tailored and shining little boys, dads, mothers, grandparents, and GPYC's newly-elected Commodore William O'Neill Kronner beaming a welcome—visualize all that, plus an atmosphere of complete happiness, and you have Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's joyous Children's Christmas Party which took place last Saturday.

There were lots of sidelihts—Mrs. Kronner, in navy dress and perky little red hat, chatting with one or another of her seven grandchildren (they were Tommy, Michael and Larry Wheeler, Christina Creteau and Rosaline, Billy and Bobby Kronner); 400 fresh young voices singing "Silent Night" to the music of Art Quatro's trio (and all of the youngsters knew ALL of the words).

whose bulbous red nose lighted up electrically to amaze the youngest fry; there were two-year-olds trotting around, completely at home; there was wee and wide-eyed mischievous Lenore Barlow, eight-months old, who reviewed everything over dad Charles Barlow's shoulder until the end of the party when she fell softly to sleep.

"He's good, isn't he?" That was young Billy Spitzley's smiling appraisal of Santa Claus

League Gives Annual Party

Detroit League for the Handicapped had its annual Christmas party Tuesday at the League on Ash avenue.

This year the Junior League took active part in the festivities in addition to their usual financial contribution to the party.

Junior League Gardeners decorated a wonderful Christmas tree and all the party tables for the afternoon which started at one and ended at five.

Chrysler Corporation took over transportation for the severely handicapped, delivering them to the party and back to their homes.

Junior Leaguers were at the door to greet their guests, and escort them to places for the turkey luncheon. Don and Bert Dierkiss and their Trio contributed the afternoon's music and Robert W. Will, director of the League for the Handicapped, played the role of Santa Claus handing each guest a beautifully wrapped gift. In addition each guest received a box of candy and a poinsettia plant.

Members of the Junior League who worked with Mrs. Rockwell T. Gust, chairman of the afternoon, included Mrs. George T. Hall, president of the Junior League of Detroit; Veramase Adams, Mrs. Jack Fraser, Mrs. James J. Phelan Jr., Mrs. Thomas Petzold, Mrs. James I. McClintock, Mrs. Russel Nutter, Mrs. David Keena, Mrs. E. J. Possellius Jr., Mrs. Robert Palms and Mrs. James S. Harris.

New Year's Eve At the D.A.C.

Detroit Athletic Club will have a gala gathering of members, including many Grosse Pointers, for New Year's Eve when dining will go on through the evening and dancing will continue until the wee hours.

The big Pontchartrain room will be given over to dancing and here the Leo Reisman band will hold sway. Dinner will be served in the main and ladies dining rooms.

Early reservations indicate that groups are planning to arrive between 9 and 10 o'clock, for the most part, to dine before dancing out the old year and greeting 1955.

At midnight there'll be all the New Year's Eve hilarity of noisemakers, fancy paper hats, balloons and serpentine streamers.

Among Pointers who already have tagged tables are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph R. Irwin, the Marvin J. Alets, Dr. and Mrs. James R. Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Jones, the H. Earl Qubells, whose guests will be the Harry J. Olivers, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin H. Bower who will entertain Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Nette.

Guests Attend Sunday Party at G. M. Brooks

A horse-drawn sleigh packed to spilling-over point with Christmas gifts was on the lawn of the George M. Brooks' Touraine road home last Sunday to quickly identify the party place for their afternoon open house guests.

Dancing Classes Hold Party at Center

All the boys and girls, some 200 in number, who studied ballroom dancing with "Aunt Marge" and "Uncle Bill" Wilson at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center this fall gathered Saturday night for a free Christmas party. The young people proved their dancing ability to the tunes of Carrol Lee's orchestra. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson led them through specialty dances and games which culminated in a grand march.

U. of M. Production To Be Given Dec. 29

"Hail to Victor" to Be Presented in Masonic Auditorium, Followed By Party at Players Clubhouse in E. Jefferson

"Hail to Victor!," the 35th Michigan Union Opera, an all-male musical extravaganza, will play Masonic Auditorium Wednesday evening, December 29; under the auspices of the University of Michigan Club of Detroit as a part of a Christmas holiday tour of six mid-western cities.

For the first time in many years the story returns to the University of Michigan campus and deals fantastically with the coming of the first co-eds to the U. of M. campus in 1870. A delegation of females win an agreement from President Harlan Diagonal that if they can change Victor's shy retiring personality by J-Hop time they will be allowed to enter the University.

This year's book was written by Murry Frymer. The original music was composed by Paul McDonough, who has made important contributions to previous operas, and Richard Seid.

Starting in the leading role of Victor is Gordon Epping of Detroit, who has played in a number of the recent operas. Another Detroit student in the cast is Earl Sayer, whose singing stopped the show in the Ann Arbor production. Earl was a finalist in the Detroit Symphony try-outs of last spring.

Irv Tobocman, remembered for his role in "No Cover Charge," is in the cast as are David Cobb and Christopher Parker of Grosse Pointe. The veteran New York showman, Fred Evans, is again directing the opera, assisted by student director Don Weinberger. Tickets may be obtained at the University of Michigan Club of Detroit and at Grinnell's Box Office.

The cast party following the production, under the auspices of the University of Michigan Club of Detroit, which, for a number of years has been held on the stage of the theater where the production was held, will this year be given at the Players Playhouse on East Jefferson.

Many of the Players received their first dramatic experience in the Union Opera at Ann Arbor and this merger of interests of the two clubs is therefore a very logical one. Prominent Detroit Players who have been members of the Mimes organization are Waldo Fellows, Gordon Eldredge, James Dressbach, R. J. Grylls, and Richard Forsyth, who is this year again general chairman on behalf of the U. of M. Club.

It is expected that the members of the opera cast will, as in the past, restage the highlights of the Opera at the Players' party and the Players themselves will be represented by acts from "A Model Daughter," the 1914 Michigan Opera. Waldo Fellows and Gordon Eldredge will sing their famous "I'm a Nut" number from that show.

Patrons for this year's show include Regent Charles Kennedy, U. of M. Club president, Leroy Neisch; vice-presidents, Robert M. Muzzy and John J. Greene, secretary Earl A. Kelley, treasurer Richard G. Roeder and their wives.

Among the Players attending the performance at Masonic and their wives are Players' president J. Leslie Berry, Dr. Frank A. Lamberson, Hubert B. Haessler, the Richard Brands, the Horace S. Maynards, the Paul Airds, Mr. and Mrs. Covert R. Hunter, the L. Leroy McKinleys, Mr. and Mrs. John K. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. John L. Shannon, the Leslie Putnams and Harry Guests.

Many people waste a lot of time trying to devise cures for other people's bad habits.

Karla Scherer Bows At Christmas Dance

Christmas Goes Modern in Tones of Schiaparelli Pink, Blue And Silver for Country Club Party Given by Robert P. Scherers for Their Debutante Karla

The deb crowd is shaking stardust out of its eyes this morning after having attended the coming out dance given Wednesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Scherer for their daughter, Karla.

The red and green of Christmas disappeared for the evening, and with a flip of a wand Yuletide colors became Schiaparelli pink, heavenly blue and silver all through the Country Club.

Overhead in the main foyer, Christmas tree balls of Schiaparelli pink (three feet in diameter) were pierced with electric rods that twinkled with stars.

While on Tuesday evening, society had walked through a garden lane to the French Room for the Fisher-Robinson debut, now golden swags glistened with flickering gold stars. Golden reindeer heads marked the corridors (and the reindeer had great big long eyelashes).

The Scherers and Karla stood before a silken backdrop of vibrant pink was painted in white stars and wintry branches.

The debutante's gown of white net was designed with strapless bodice and a bouffant skirt which fell to the floor in rippling ruffles. A long torso effect was emphasized by accents of shocking pink taffeta at back forming wide cascade drifting to the hemline.

Karla carried a small net muff covered with shocking pink carnations.

Mrs. Scherer was in vibrant pink taffeta with pleated inset of dusty pink giving interest to the floor touching skirt. The shirred bodice was finished with single strap over her left shoulder. Guests strolled from the French

McKnight Tea Opens The Christmas Season

Mrs. Horace E. McKnight Presents Daughter Ann to Society At Afternoon Tea and Reception in Home on Touraine Road; to Be Honored at Christmas Eve Tea Dansant

First debutante of the Christmas season was brunet and petite Anne McKnight, whose mother, Mrs. Horace Ely McKnight, introduced her to society at an afternoon tea in their home on Touraine road.

Receiving with Mrs. McKnight and the deb was the former's mother, Mrs. Hedley V. Richardson.

Although Christmas is just a few minutes away, the McKnight home breathed Spring-time with arrangements of yellow flowers throughout the rooms.

The debutante was dressed in opera length gown of white brocaded taffeta, the low round neckline, which fell at the shoulders into tiny cap sleeves, was dusted with twinkling border of rhinestones and crystal paillettes.

Anne carried her father's gift bouquet of small yellow roses and violets.

Mrs. McKnight's waltz length gown was embroidered deep green satin, with Vionnet neckline and bracelet length sleeves. She pinned yellow spray orchids to one shoulder.

Mrs. Richardson also wore yellow low orchids on her gray peau de soie afternoon dress.

The tea table was covered with yellow satin damask cloth and the centerpiece accented the yellow roses and violets of the debutante's bouquet. Silver candelabra held yellow tapers, flanking the silver bowl of flowers.

Assisting Mrs. McKnight at the table were:

Mrs. Gilbert Pingree, Mrs. Alan Beebe, Mrs. Richard Forsyth, Mrs. C. Leslie Mitchell and Mrs. William P. Black.

All wore corsages of yellow shattered carnations.

The debutante's assistants for the afternoon were:

Mary Fage Fuger, Elizabeth Remick, Elizabeth Swanscoat, Buell, Christine Watling and Linda Carden.

Anne studies at Endicott Junior College and will return to classes on January 4.

She is to be honored at a tea and dance on Christmas Eve at the Country Club by her grandmother, when guests will be members of the debutante set.

Sort Cancer Pad Material

MRS. A. J. NENNI of Kelly road and MRS. ROBERT D. MacKENZIE of Devonshire road, members of the American Cancer Society, sort white material from the discarded material given to Goodwill Industries during the recent Boy Scout Drive. Goodwill is turning over white material to the American Cancer Society for cancer pads.

Goodwill Industries has turned over more than a half-ton of white goods to the American Cancer Society for cancer pads. The material represents the first sorting of discards collected by Goodwill Industries during the recent Boy Scout drive and will be supplemented every two weeks until all the material is sorted.

Most of the material was in the form of sheets, shirts and pillow cases, said Mrs. Robert D. MacKenzie, 1246 Devonshire, Grosse Pointe, salvage chairman for the Detroit unit of the ACS. She estimated that the material would make about 40,000 assorted cancer dressings.

The Cancer Society distributed more than 1,200,000 dressings free of charge to cancer patients in this area last year. It is estimated that the free dressings represent a savings of from $40 to $50 a month for the cancer patient. The white material collected in the Boy Scouts drive for the Goodwill Industries will be supplemented by goods gathered by Cub Scouts throughout the city in their seventh annual Christmas White Cloth Drive for the American Cancer Society.

Santa Comes Early to GPYC

after his gift list report to the jolly old gentleman. Billy and his younger sister, Ann, were with their parents, the Joseph H. Spitzley's. Mrs. George Fritz and Mrs. Richard Martin chatted on the sidelines as their respective daughters, Pamela and Sandra Fritz, and Sandra Martin talked to Santa.

Ricky and Kippy Cody squirmed three-year-old sister Angela up to Santa's platform as their parents, the Fred Codys, looked on, and another three-year-old, Lynn Horsley, went up the steps under the proud eyes of her grandparents, the William J. Athansons.

Joanne Fraser also told what she wanted for Christmas—she was in a four-generation group with her mother, Mrs. Earl Fraser, grandmother, Mrs. Clarence E. Bleicher, and great-grandmother, Mrs. Sophie Riedel. Older brother Jimmy Fraser was there, too.

There was gay organ music for Gloria Peebles' trained dog act; there was mighty applause from the children seated in rings on the floor of the big lounge; then there was good news over the microphone from Mrs. Paul Moreland, party chairman, that gifts would be given right after the ice cream-and-cookies repast. And nothing could have been swifter than the stripping of pretty wrappings from the toys and games distributed!

As the children settled down with their toys, the seniors had refreshing tea and coffee. Mrs. Kronner and Mrs. Mervyn G. Gaskin were first to preside at the silver services, later being spelled off by Mrs. William A. Ternes and Mrs. Anthony R. Motschall.

Noted having coffee together were the William O'Neill Kronners, Jr., the John T. Wheelers, Jr. and the Owen C. Creteaus, and nearby were the Charles E. Monahans who had brought young Michael.

Among others at the fete were the John Gehlerts with Dick, Ken and Guy; Mrs. Leo Jacques and grandson, Jacques Ford; Frank Marco with grandson, Philip Marco, Jr., and Mrs. Philip Marco; the Roger Hubbards with Terry and Steven; Mrs. Edward J. Schoenher with Ricky, John and Blay; the Lou Alin Maxons with Lou, Steve and Peter; the Emmett Paddons with Michael, Patrick and Kathleen; Mrs. Howard Shaw and Susan, Bonnie, Patty and Nancy.

Still more were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest R. Old, Clarinda and Forrest, Jr., and Diane and Jimmy Allen; Christine, Susy and Anne Hammond with their mother, Mrs. Thomas J. Hammond, and grandmother, Mrs. Marion K. Zwolinski; Mrs. Troy Maschmeyer and Kathy; Mrs. Joseph L. Whelan with Joe, Jr. and Jennifer, and Mrs. Whelan's mother, Mrs. William J. Rewoldt.

Allesandra Cope Sutter was with her mother, Mrs. David L. Sutter, and her two grandmothers, Mrs. James Cope and Mrs. David M. Sutter, and Terry Johnson was with his parents, the Edward W. Johnsons.

Mrs. H. G. Higbie Gives Tea For New Daughter-in-Law

Mrs. Harley G. Higbie, of Lake Shore road, entertained at a tea in her home last Friday afternoon honoring her new daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harley G. Higbie Jr., (Lorraine Nichols). The junior Mrs. Higbie's mother, Mrs. Craven Nichols of Woodstock, Vt. and New York returned to her Eastern home following the party.

Boy Scouts Hear Detective Dean

Boy Scout Troop 147 of the Defer School, their parents and friends heard a lecture, at a pre-Christmas meeting, presented by Park Detective Don Dean, who emphasized a talk on Michigan's liquor laws.

His lecture was aimed at persons under 21 years of age, and to the parents responsible for minors who visit their homes, who have or may be offered alcoholic beverages at a party.

Det. Dean cited the accident total for the Park to date, and issued a plea to the parents to co-operate and help reduce the accidents in the area.

The officer, a collector of antique and modern firearms, closed the meeting by displaying the arms and explaining their relative uses, past and present.

The group, especially the children, were enthused by the exhibit and the lecture.

Friends Rally to Help Injured Postman

When John Reilly, 25, mailman working out of the Grosse Pointe branch post office, was seriously injured in an automobile accident on December 3, he soon found out how many friends he has. Collections have been taken up by merchants and residents John has served faithfully. MRS. AGNES STEINGRABER of 2243 Hampton road, left, and FERDINAND DEANE of the Deane Dairy on Mack avenue, make a presentation of the collections to CLAYTON LAMONT, of 1587 Anita avenue, representing carriers at the Pointe post office, and LELAND LINDOW, superintendent of the branch. John suffered broken legs and a broken spine. He is recuperating in Deaconess Hospital.

Pedestrian Hit In "The Village"

City police were called to St. John Hospital on Friday, December 17, to take a report of a woman who had been struck and injured by a car at Kercheval and St. Clair.

The report disclosed that Mrs. Christina A. Erikson, 57, of 20097 Fairway lane, had gotten out of her car on the south side and had just started to cross the street, when she walked into the side of a car driven by Harry A. Luawig of 666 Rivard.

The woman was knocked over backwards and suffered a punctured left elbow and other injuries.

Luawig stopped at the police station and reported that he did not know that he had struck the woman until he was notified by Mrs. Erikson's husband, who had notified him of the incident while he (Luawig) stopped for a stop light just a few feet away.

Police established that there was no fault on the part of the driver and did not issue him a ticket.

Juvenile Court Hears 27 Cases

Since the inauguration of the Juvenile Traffic court in the Park Municipal Building, Traffic Referee Thomas Watkins has disposed of 27 juvenile traffic cases, according to information released by Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers.

Most of the juveniles were required to attend from one to four sessions of Traffic School.

Ten of the juveniles had their licenses suspended, two for 90 days; two for 60 days; three for 30 days; two for six months; one for one year and one for 45 days.

Minors who hold a 14-15 year-old restricted license to operate a motor vehicle, will have their license revoked for any infraction of the restrictions as set forth on their licenses, the chief said.

In these type violations, he added, the procedure is automatic in that the Pointe Chiefs of Police forward the restricted operator's license directly to the Secretary of State for revocation.

Scientists Honor Dr. Leon A. Sweet

NEW YORK—The New York Academy of Sciences has elected as a "Fellow of the Academy" Dr. Leon A. Sweet, 45, of Cadieux road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., vice-president and director of research and products development for Parke, Davis & Company.

Eunice Thomas Miner, academy executive director, said the election was in recognition of Dr. Sweet's "achievements in science."

"Election to fellowship is a distinguished honor, conferred on a limited number of members who, in the estimation of the council, have done outstanding work toward the advancement of science."

Dr. Sweet, a native of Polo, Ill., was graduated from Carthage College in 1930 and received two degrees at the University of Nebraska, a M.Sc. in 1931 and a Ph.D. in 1933. Carthage gave him an honorary D.Sc. in 1953. He has been with Parke-Davis since November, 1933, and director of research and products development since 1949.

Vandals Break Car Window

Another smashed car window was added to a list at the Farms police department on December 16, when Paul Lyford of 68 Mapleton reported that his car windshield was smashed with a large stone. The car was parked in front of his house.

VISITOR IN TROUBLE

Shores Judge John Gillis placed Donald Clark of Windsor, Ont., on six months probation, during which time Clark may not re-enter the United States. Clark was handed the sentence on Saturday, December 4, after he was found guilty of reckless driving and drinking on Lake Shore road. He was arrested the day previous.

City Augments Rodent Control

The City has taken another step in its rodent control program, by having on hand, available for anyone who wants one, a poison and feeding station, designed to help rid the community of the pests, according to Grosse Pointe City Clerk Norbert P. Neff.

Mr. Neff disclosed that Harold Fisher, of the Industrial Arts Division of Grosse Pointe High School, personally made 30 stations and presented them to the City.

The city clerk stated that the community's rodent control is being patterned after the established procedure of the Detroit Sanitary and Health Bureau, and the National Fish and Wild Life Service, and that he is following the outlines suggested by these agencies and using materials loaned by them.

Anyone interested in obtaining one of the feeding stations, while they last, is requested to contact Mr. Neff at the City Hall, TU. 5-5800.

Praises Leader Of Torch Drive

Walter C. Laidlaw, executive vice president of the United Foundation, has expressed appreciation for the achievements of Mrs. Raymond Brett in the recent Torch Drive.

Mrs. Brett, of 419 Lincoln road, Torch Drive chairman for the Grosse Pointe region, headed a group of volunteers who raised $306,239 or 113.3 per cent of a quota of $270,775.

"It is extremely gratifying, especially during this Holiday Season, to realize the importance of the work done by Mrs. Brett and her many willing helpers toward raising fourteen million dollars to make Metropolitan Detroit a better place in which to live," Laidlaw said.

"We of the United Foundation are proud of the work done by the women in the recent Torch Drive. It was they who plodded on day after day, in the face of discouragement and many inconveniences, to see that every one of their neighbors was given an opportunity to contribute.

"Never before have so many women worked so hard for a charitable cause in any community. We of the United Foundation salute them for their efforts and their success—and wish Mrs. Brett and all the members of her team and all the people who helped make the Torch Drive in Grosse Pointe a success, a Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

The Tragedy of Christmas

The fuss, frenzy and fury of the Christmas season have been fairly well subdued. Even the last-minute presents have been purchased, wrapped and laid out. The final decorative touches have been administered. The turkey is stuffed. The last guest has been met at airport or station and is safely ensconced in the security of the household. The candles are ready to be lighted and the stage is set for the year's greatest production.

The fun period is about to supplant the frustration of the myriad preparations these holidays require. The children will cease their constant rushings to and from parties, long enough to have a few quiet hours with the old folks. There will be time to sit and contemplate the joys of Christmas.

Family reunions, the gladness of giving and receiving, the great display of cards, bearing greetings and warm wishes from a multitude of friends and loved ones, the smell of the greens and the inestimable beauty of the shimmering lights and ornaments on the tree, all contribute to this feeling that cannot be equalled on any other day of the whole year.

Fuss... frenzy... frustration and fun. The fun will go on for a whole week, in diminishing degree, depending on the exacting requirements of family and friends, the amount of entertainment required, either to be partaken in or to be imparted. Then will come the terrifying experience of seeing another Christmas season end, and the period of exhaustion both physical and spiritual. A mess to be cleaned up; the house put back in order; the return to normal until next year's Christmas comes around.

Therein lies the tragedy of this annual celebration of the birth of the Saviour. Would that we had the power to preserve this spirit of Christmas throughout the entire year. Could we but hold this priceless stimulation of body and soul that visits us so briefly on the occasion of our observance of The Nativity.

This Christmastime finds us with more blessings than have ever been known by any nation in the whole history of man. The most-recent war has come to an, at least temporary, end. There are no casualty lists, just now. Many of the veterans of battle and overseas service have been returned to their homes to spend the holidays.

Prosperity has remained at an all-time high, enabling most of us to catalog and enjoy as necessities many things that a few short years ago would be definitely considered luxuries. More than this, it has allowed us to share with countless millions the world over, the bounty that has come to our land.

This should be one of the most soul-satisfying experiences of the Christmas season... the realization of how many accomplishments our way of life has been able to contribute to the well-being of mankind, in every place in which they have been granted recognition.

In the midst of such worldly-wealth and power to disseminate good or evil, we should be more than ever cognizant of the colossal debt we owe The Nazarene who gave us the greatest moral code the world has ever known. Stimulated by the knowledge of the achievements we have been able to make through following His teachings, we should be most humbly aware of our obligation to adhere to these precepts.

"Peace on Earth to All Men of Good Will" is the keynote of this happy time for us. We are predominantly a Christian nation, though be it to our everlasting credit that many peoples of many faiths other than our own, have come to our shores and have found peace, and freedom, and prosperity. Let us dedicate ourselves this Christmastime to a year-round program of the practice of the precepts of Him whose birthday we celebrate. This does not connote weakness, nor appeasement. No man ever imparted more strength to His followers than did Christ.

Let us renew our pledge of faith to His preachings and carry on to the end that peace shall come to remain forever with all men everywhere, and all the resources, energy and genius which we are now contributing to the cause of self-preservation, shall one day be expanded towards the raising of standards of living and the pursuit of happiness for all.

"When you are old and gray and full of sleep, And nodding by the fire, take down this book, And slowly read, and dream of the soft look Your eyes had once, and of their shadows deep; And bending down beside the glowing bars, Murmur, a little sadly, how love fled And paced upon the mountains overhead And hid his face amid a crowd of stars." (William B. Yeats)

Afraid we are going to have to emulate the teller of jokes who always starts: "I don't tell this very well, but..." and then he starts and usually doesn't tell it very well. HOWEVER we shall attempt to put in print a "cutie" told us last weekend by a Scotman who had his native dialect down to a tee. We can't begin to imitate the speech (much less write it), so you will have to do your own interpretation... but it's worth it.

A Scotch foursome was playing golf and at the ninth hole, one of the group entered the caddy house and, holding out a slightly shattered golf tee... asked the Pro how much he would charge to fix it. The Pro looked it over carefully and said he could repair it for a "tuppence." (We think that is about a penny in U.S. coin.)

The golfer mulled this over for a few minutes then argued that he could buy a NEW one for a tuppence-a-penny... so a tuppence seemed like a lot for repairs to an old one. The Pro took another gander at the tee but stuck to his guns about the cost. The golf player then allowed as how he would take it up with his partners and abide by their decision.

Within a half hour or so he was back with the announcement that they had thought it over and had decided to have the tee repaired and split the cost among them!

It's a little late to be giving any tips about Christmas gifts... but if you can still get it... there is a new "Rudolph" book out called "Rudolph (the Red Nosed Reindeer) Shines Again." We've read it and it almost equals the historic charm of the first Rudolph book. In our opinion, the author, Bob May, has once again hit the jack pot with this one... and you don't have to be five years old to appreciate it either. This should be a Christmas "must" for every household to enjoy.

Last Sunday we heard a discussion between Ilka Chase and her mother (on a radio interview) as to whether or not men dressed for other men rather than to please women. We are supposed to KNOW that women choose their clothes with an eye to what their sisters might think... but no one seems to be sure about the male sex... that is until NOW, when we shall tell them!

Men very definitely dress NOT for another man's appreciation, but because they're scared of being criticized by their own sex if they dare to be "different."

We have taken a Dr. Kinsey poll among local women about their husbands' modes of dress and the reasons thereof and the results are all the same. For example, if a woman gives her husband a fancy vest in a wild color... his first reaction is one of pleasure; but when it comes to wearing it out in public, he will invariably exclaim, "What in aich will people think?"... or "I can just hear Joe when he sees me in this!"

He isn't even sure of himself when it comes to the ties he has chosen himself. The old wheez about the Christmas tie his wife has picked out is as passe as a moustache cup. Nine times out of ten he is more sure of HER choice than his own... but he STILL wears it the first time with fear and trepidation.

And another thing... have you ever listened to a group of men discussing clothes? This used to be the "sissy" type of thing that only women talked about but not so today. We have attended innumerable mixed gatherings where one or two groups of men were off in a corner talking about where they bought their suits, how much they cost, what the material was, etc. These are HE men too! They even go into underwear, socks, pajamas and jewelry... they even go into gloves, scarfs, top coats and shoes. And they beam all over... just as you and me... when someone pays them a compliment on their sartorial elegance... including the haircut!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

I am writing you in regards to the article in your paper about re-routing of the Grosse Pointe buses. One resident on Maryland avenue between St. Paul and Kercheval stated that he had checked the signatures on the petition the people of Wayburn, St. Paul and Maryland had taken out prior to his, and found several false signatures.

I am asking him to come to my home and I will personally escort him to each signer on that petition to prove his accusation false.

Thanking you, I am Mrs. F. H. Swanquist, 1085 Maryland Avenue

FREE BOOKLET How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Greetings our friends, via Dasher and Comet We'd plead your cause with the Christmas Mohammed. Remember, Saint Nick, the deserving, writer With a good contract and a new typewriter. And don't forget to eulogize Ernest H. for his Nobel prize. Steinbeck, Dos Passos and Pearl Buck, too, Should have a special Christmas brew. To Harriet Arnow, a crown of gold For her book, "The Dollmaker," So well told.

To authors and artists the whole world over, Our Christmas wishes for a life in clover. Without your blood and sweat and tears, We'd be out of a job. Thank you, my dears! And "Skol" to all who read your books And haunt the Grosse Pointe Library nooks.

To Messrs. Duckett, Wright and Weed, More Civil War tales for you to read! To Mesdames Allington and Rundie More new mysteries for you to trundle! For Doctor Whittaker, something rare, Let the cherubim chorus fill the air. Dickens and Christmas go together. So drop in at Central whatever the weather; Don't fail to include on your list of missions 'See the Whittaker first editions.'

And now our wishes are also due To those who guide us the whole year through. Ring out the bells with a ding and a dong For our friend and counselor, Dr. Bushong. For the "Friends of the Library" and Charles Parcells We'd also peel some Christmas bells.

To our Director, Robert M. Orr A Happy New Year and many more. A Christmas that is gay and merry To our benefactor, D. M. Ferry. Of course, there could be no Noel, Without the library wishing well, Robert Edgar and his staff at the "News" A rousing cheer for printing our views!

Home Care For Mental Patients

By FRED M. KOPE, R. Ph.

Fortunately society is beginning to recognize mental patients for what they are, persons suffering from a serious illness. Doctors realize that these patients need the interest and attention of others as well as medical treatment.

Because mental hospitals are so crowded many mental patients must be cared for at home. If the family learns something of the patient's illness from the doctor and tries to be helpful and considerate life is easier for all concerned.

For all medicine prescribed by your doctor rely on a skilled, experienced pharmacist.

Guard Against Yule Tree Fires

The Michigan Department of Health warned Michigan residents to guard against the dangers of Christmas tree fires.

John Soet, Director of the Department's Division of Occupational Health, pointed out that each year Christmas tree fires are more common than most people realize. He listed the following precautions for protecting families from this holiday hazard.

1. Don't set the tree up too far ahead of time, (this will reduce the chances of it drying out before the holidays are over.)

2. Set the tree in a pan or special holder so it can be watered regularly.

3. Before trimming the tree, check over all electrical equipment. Make sure there are no loose connections or bare wires.

4. Place the tree as far away from hot air registers as possible.

5. Always disconnect the tree lights when there is no one around to watch it.

Mr. Soet also cautioned against the use of glass-ball fire extinguishers which are sold for use on Christmas trees. When tested by the department's occupational health engineers, they failed to put out Christmas tree fires.

"But to make matters worse," Mr. Soet added, "they contain carbon tetrachloride as their active ingredient. When the carbon tetrachloride is released it produces poisonous vapors and phosgene gas in concentrations hazardous to life and health."

Fortunately, these glass-ball extinguishers have not been in stores this year. However, manufacturers have offered them for sale through catalogues.

Soet asks that everyone be wary of Christmas tree extinguishers offered for sale through catalogues and direct mail.

Kiwanis Prexy

RAY V. LICHTWARDT of 1409 Somerset road, has been elected president of Riverside Kiwanis for the 1955 term and will take office January 9. He has been active in Kiwanis activities for the past eight years, holding offices as director, treasurer and vice-president of the Riverside club.

Mr. Lichtwardt has been connected with the National Bank of Detroit since 1932 and is now manager of the Jefferson-Beaufait branch.

Others filling offices for the coming year are Dr. Charles Moore, of Cadieux road, first vice-president; Weldon L. Derfield, of Broadstone road, second vice-president; James A. Park, secretary, and Bruce B. Clarke, treasurer, both of Detroit.

Stanford Crapo Claims Bride

At a ceremony last Saturday in Lapeer, Mich., Mrs. Margaret Armstrong Markwood became the bride of Stanford T. Crapo of Cambridge, Mass., son of Mr. and Mrs. William Crapo of Touraine road.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay M. Armstrong of Lapeer.

For the wedding, the former Mrs. Markwood was dressed in afternoon length ice blue satin gown and she carried roses and ivy in her bridal bouquet. Mrs. Richard W. Hamme, of Ann Arbor, was her only attendant.

Richard Hamme served as best man and ushers were Earl Lapp of St. Clair Shores and the bridegroom's brother, Henry M. Crapo.

Oarsmen's Ball December 29

A gala event to be held at the Boat Club this coming Wednesday, December 29, will be the 11th annual Oarsmen's Ball. This Christmas time, a Mexican atmosphere will be in view as the oarsmen prepare for the Pan American Games to be held in Mexico City in March.

Grosse Pointe Walter Hoover, Jr., a member of the 1952 Olympic squad, will team with James Gardiner in the double. James McIntosh will accompany them as an alternate.

The Detroit Boat Club, which has the distinction of being the world's second oldest rowing club, was founded back in 1839 and is probably Detroit's oldest social organization.

Sponsored by the "D" Club, which is the oarsmen's organization within the D.B.C., the dance will last until 3 a.m. with the couples dancing to the music of Freddie Paxton.

James Connor heads the committee of John Hutton, Bob Walker, Doug Queen, Bill Straub, Bill Kemp and Jim McIntosh.

Youth Council Prepares for Dance

The decorations committee for the "Santy Swap" dance, sponsored by the Youth Council of the Memorial Center, busies itself decorating the Christmas tree which will be the center of interest at the dance to be held Wednesday, December 29. A huge grab bag will contain the presents brought by each couple and the highlight of the evening will be the "grab for the swag." MARY WARDLE, on ladder, gets a helping hand from JOHN LEETE as RICK CHAMPION holds a package while ANNA SVENSON ties the pretty ribbon around it.

Thomas Lamb Honored For His Work at Yale

By Judy Sliter G.P.H.S. Journalism Student A former Grosse Pointe High School graduate, Thomas W. Lamb has recently been honored for outstanding achievement during the 1953-54 academic year at Yale University. Lamb, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest F. Lamb of 1137 Audubon Road, is a member of the Class of 1955 and is a candidate for the Bachelor of Arts degree.

WILLIAM F. CALLAHAN, chairman of the Massachusetts Turnpike Authority, announced that construction of the $239,000,000 state turnpike—to stretch 123 miles from the Boston area to New York state line—will begin next month. The estimated date of completion of the road has been set for November 1956. The first construction contract has already been advertised.

In Grandmother's Day

Another of December's very important grandmothers is Mrs. Hedley V. Richardson who will fete her granddaughter, Anne McKnight (first deb of this Christmas season) at a tea dansant on Christmas Eve at the Country Club. Anne, a third generation deb, made her debut last Saturday at an afternoon tea just as her mother and grandmother did. "In my debutante days," Mrs. Richardson told us, "girls met their mother's friends at an afternoon tea party and that same evening there'd be a reception for ladies and gentlemen." Mrs. Richardson (Florence Whitaker) stood beside her mother at her deb tea in the drawing room of the family home at Charlotte and Park.

Innocent Punch

Then, as now, white was a popular color for the debutante gown and Mrs. Richardson's was white organdie trimmed with Valenciennes lace insertions. Sleeves were "just above the elbows" and long, white kid gloves were drawn right up to the edge of the sleeves. Her deb bouquet was of white carnations, a flower that society continues to favor. There was smilax wound in the chandeliers of the Whitaker home (it's making a come-back this Christmas at the deb parties, Mrs. Richardson) and the punch was so innocent a year old child could have consumed a quart without danger. Mrs. Richardson made her debut on her parent's twenty-fifth wedding anniversary and her daughter, Jean Richardson McKnight, bowed at an afternoon reception on the very same anniversary of her parents.

State Expert Has Good Advice On Preparing Christmas Dinner

What are you going to have for Christmas dinner? According to Mrs. Alice Smith, chief of the Nutrition Section, Michigan Department of Health, most people will have some kind of fowl—turkey, duck, goose, or chicken—for their main course at Christmas dinner. A Christmas dinner menu may look something like this: fruit juice cocktail, salad, turkey with dressing, cranberry sauce, mashed potatoes with giblet gravy, one or two other vegetables, plum pudding, pie or ice cream, and coffee, tea, or milk. "The average homemaker today has a much easier time of it than her mother in preparing the Christmas dinner turkey," Mrs. Smith said. "She buys her bird already dressed and ready for the oven." Poultry, like all meat, should be cooked slowly, at moderate to low oven temperatures. In this way, your bird will come out juicier, with less shrinkage and provide more servings. "If you are preparing your turkey and dressing the night before, keep them both in the refrigerator overnight. Then stuff the turkey just before you put it into the oven. With a large bird, the dressing may be prepared in a separate bake pan and if properly seasoned, will be very tasty," Mrs. Smith said. A few other pointers from Mrs. Smith: "Don't peel your vegetables and let them sit in water overnight. This is how you lose valuable vitamins and minerals that vegetables have. You can use your boiled potato water to prepare your gravy. This water has good flavor and food value. Mrs. Smith recommends the use of colorful foods for Christmas dinner. "They are high in food

Lunch Planned By Brown Club

The Brown Club of Detroit, many of whose members live in the Grosse Pointe area, is having its regular December holiday luncheon on Wednesday noon, December 29, at the University Club in Detroit. A number of prospective Brown subfreshmen from the Grosse Pointe area and all the undergraduates who will be here during the Christmas recess, together with their fathers, are invited as guests of the club. The principal speaker will be the football coach, Al Kelley, who has given Brown its most successful football season in many years and who will bring some excellent football films with him.

Poinsettias Deck Breakfast Tables

In a beautiful Christmas setting at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, Mrs. George M. Slocum, of Roslyn road, entertained more than 200 friends at a noon breakfast last Sunday. The Christmas party started at 12 o'clock, Mrs. Slocum receiving at the head of the stairway leading to the big lounge and adjoining Green Room. For the occasion, the hostess wore a street-length Dior dress of black satin with velvet-trimmed bodice, and tiny tricorn hat banded at the edge with rhinestones. Twenty-one tables, covered with gleaming white cloths and centered with red poinsettias, were arranged in the lounge for breakfast. In the high bay window glowed the lighted Christmas tree and on the mantels of the great fireplaces in the rooms were long birch logs filled with fragrant pine branches and holly. As at her Christmas breakfast parties at GPYC last year and the year before, Mrs. Slocum had an organ recital presenting carols and special Yuletide music throughout the fete. The man who recognizes opportunity when he sees it is well along the road to success.

Nancy Blossom Makes Debut

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mills Blossom, of Edgemere road, introduced their debutante daughter, Nancy, to the debutante set at a dinner Wednesday evening in the Country Club.

Christmas greens were used on the balcony of the club where the Blossoms and their daughter received the guests.

For her debut, Nancy wore a floor sweeping bouffant gown of white tulle. The molded bodice of shirred tulle was drifted in embroidery of iridescent sequins and pink beads.

The debutante carried her father's gift bouquet of tiny pink sweetheart roses on a small tulle muff.

Mrs. Blossom greeted her guests in evening gown of gray taffeta with draped bodice of shaded peche embroidered in rhinestones. A sash of the lighter taffeta ended in streamers at the back of the gown.

Debutantes of last summer and of the Christmas season, and their escorts, were seated at one large E shaped table in the club dining room at dinner which followed the reception.

Covered with cloth of silver, the table was decorated with red tapers and arrangements of bright Christmas tree balls.

Following dinner, Nancy and the guests at her coming out party attended the debut dance, at the club, of Grace Robinson and Margo Fisher.

The debutante whirl ends for pretty Nancy early in January when she returns to her studies at Carleton College in Northfield, Minn.

A little learning isn't nearly as dangerous as the big conceit that accompanies it.

Another Christmas party for all the classes and clubs was held last Saturday with the Playmates group singing "Jingle Bells", the senior tap class performing a tree-top number, each holding a large size cardboard Christmas tree and the junior tap class danced to the Ice Skaters Waltz.

The gym class and handicraft group combined to sing a novelty song, "When Santa Claus Gets Your Letter", with gesture. Miss Donna Jose's ballet class danced to the music of the "Nutcracker Suite". The program was received with loud applause by the parents and friends. At the conclusion of the performance the children went upstairs in the Assembly Room where Santa Claus awaited them with candy canes for each. Ice cream was served and the party concluded with Christmas movies.

The A.O.C.'s Christmas party was held last Tuesday evening with an English girl and a displaced German girl as their special guests. (The A.O.C.s are a group of women who formed a club as teen agers and now have revived their friendship by meeting once a month). They showed slides that were taken in Austria and Germany to the great delight of all, and especially the German girl. A luncheon was served of chicken pie and cranberry relish and other appropriate Christmas goodies.

Tonight the Christmas Carolers will invade the Village from 6:30 to 7:30. They will be dressed in red capes and white trim and will sing carols, after which they will return to the club for the usual hot chocolate and cookies.

Tom Barry Stars as Fordson Falls Prey to Blue Devils

Underdog Grosse Pointe derailed the Fordson Tractors from the unbeaten track last Friday, December 17, and vaulted into contention for Border Cities League basketball honors on Tom Barry's game-winning shot in the final three seconds of the contest played on the local court.

The victory was the second in as many starts and enabled the Devils to grab a share of the BCL leadership with unbeaten Highland Park. Grosse Pointe is assured of remaining on top of the heap until after the holiday as the Fordson game was the last league contest until after the New Year.

It looked like a football game, and right in the middle was Barry battling for possession of the ball with Jerry Galloway. Callaway, taller but lighter than Barry, lost the battle and Barry charged down the floor to his favorite spot on the court and let fly with a one handed push shot that swished the net without touching the rim or backboard.

Meet Monroe Next

The Devils will travel to Monroe on January 7 to resume their bid in the title race.

Fortified with only height, fighting hearts and a grim determination to win, the Blue Devils raced to a 13 to 11 lead in the first eight minutes of play behind the sharpshooting of Tom Barry, Johnny Russell and Dan Follis. The Tractors were held without a field goal for the first 5 minutes and 10 seconds of play, due to the stalwart defense thrown up by the Pointers.

Battle on Even Terms

Jim McIntyre tied the score at 13-all 25 seconds after the start of the second period and Jerry Callaway, Fordson's great junior star, pushed the Tractors into a 15 to 13 lead second later. However, Tom Barry and Johnny Russell collaborated on a pair of field goals which stemmed from a fast break offense to give the Devils the lead almost before the Tractors fans had stopped cheering.

With Barry pushing shots in from all angles, the Devils matched the Tractors basket for basket and held a four point, 33 to 29, lead at half-time, thanks to four straight free throws fashioned by Dan Follis.

Have Bad Third Period

The third period proved to be disastrous for the Devils as the Tractors beat the Pointers at their own game, the fast break. With the Callaway twins, Terry and Jerry, leading the way, the Tractors soared to a 56 to 39 lead at the close of the third period.

At this point the Blue Devils fans figured the roof had fallen in and the 17 point lead seemed almost insurmountable. But, the Devil team failed to read the script for the fourth act and proceeded to upset the Fordson juggernaut in the final eight minutes of play. The thunderous uproar fairly rattled the windows in the tiny gym on Fisher road.

Barry Goes to Work

Paced by Tom Barry, who notched 10 points to bring his game total to 26 which was good for individual scoring honors, the Devils fought back. At 7:45 of the last quarter Barry pumped through his third field goal of the stanza to knot the count at 62-all. This gave the ball to the Tractors with only 15 seconds remaining. Determined to get their hands on the ball for one more shot the Devils fought like demons and in the process Barry fouled the Tractors most dangerous 10 foot shooter, Gary Walters, with 10 seconds left.

Looked Like Curtains

Up to this point Walters had missed only three of 11 free throws and it appeared certain he would put the game on ice and keep the Tractors in the unbeaten class. Sure enough he made the first charity toss but missed his second try and the scoreboard read 63 to 62 in the Tractors' favor with 8 seconds remaining. The mad scramble that followed the missed free throw started wild display. The clock showed 3 seconds and before the Tractors could put the ball in play the horn sounded ending the game. The game ending horn touched off one of the wildest displays in memory as the Devil fans flooded the floor and practically carried their team from the court.

Tractor Coach Jim Vander Hull was seen to elbow his way through the crowd and shake a finger under Coach Mac Adams' nose in almost uncontrollable anger. What Coach Vander Hull was mad about was the lack of sportsmanship displayed by the Devil fans. We must agree the Pointers spectators were very unsportsmanlike.

One Very Bad Sport

Particularly the one fan who reached up and intentionally batted the light fixture hanging under the balcony directly behind the Devils' backboard. This happened at a crucial point when Gary Walters was about to attempt his final two free throws. The referees held up the contest until the light could be stilled but apparently it caused a damaging psychological effect on Walters.

Despite the unsportsmanlike conduct of the Devil fans the players themselves played a clean, hard fought contest which sparkled with offensive and defensive play. Particularly outstanding was Tom Barry, the lad we have been watching ever since the day he began playing for the Woods Presbyterian church in the Grosse Pointe Inter-Church Basketball League.

Comes Into His Own

This game marked the first time Barry actually came into his own and continued play such as he displayed in the Fordson game could enhance his bid for All Border Cities League and possibly All State honors next spring. Jerry Callaway, who scored 24 points for runner-up honors, was a pillar of strength in the Tractors' losing cause. It has been a long, long time since we have seen a boy cover the backboards and floor like Terry did. He definitely will be around when they start picking the All-League and All-State teams.

Colovas Also Stars

Denny Colovas stole third place scoring honors from his teammate Terry Callaway who tied with the Devils' veteran Johnny Russell, with 13 points. Colovas had 14 points on three field goals and 8 free throws. Final statistics showed the Devils beat Fordson from the floor by scoring 26 field goals to the Tractors' 22. Fordson had the best of it at the foul line, making good on 19 of 35 attempts while the Devils connected from the charity line on 12 of 23 attempts. Barry collected his individual honors on 11 field goals and 4 free throws in five tries.

Keep an eye on your friends always—you know what to expect from your enemies.

Devil Cagers Surprising Everyone, Even Themselves

Flush from two straight Border Cities League victories in which they dumped two of the toughest pre-season favorites, Fordson and Royal Oak, Coach Howard MacAdams' cagers are pinching themselves to see if it is really true. Given little chance at the start of the current season, the Devils have stamped themselves as the "dark horse" of the BCL title chase. Left to right, first row—SAM MO CERL, HAL SOMMERSCHIELD, BRUCE CHAMBERS and TOM WHITE. Second row—STUDENT MANAGER STEVE MULLIKEN, DAN FOLLIS, TOM IRELAND, COACH MACADAM, JOHN RUSSELL, TOM BARRY and STUDENT MANAGER JIM PASSANANTE. Back row—BILL LEONARD, SANDY SMITH, GERRY OLSON, JIM WOOD, BOB MORELAND, DENNIS MCGINTY and ROGER DUERKSEN.

Turners Turning Out Champions

After one rough year, the Detroit Turners are back in business again; the business of turning out champions.

Lester Cutler of Fairway lane, Frank Cody of Westchester road, Glenn Frank of Laing avenue, and Bill Drea of Fischer avenue, cracked the National Junior Olympic and Age Group record for boys, 14 and under by winning the 200 yard medley relay, at the White Rose Relay Carnival at York, Penn., on December 11.

This record was formerly held by the Sacramento Elks Swim Club of California. The boys also won the backstroke relay and were second in the Butterfly relay, both unrecognized events. Their time in the medley was 2:11.0 which they bettered by over two seconds in practice.

A week previous, Pat Houghton, of Nottingham road, won the Women's A.A.U. 50 yard backstroke championship for the State of Michigan at the Varsity pool in Ann Arbor and Linda Schulte, age 13, of Laing avenue, broke the Women's state record for 50 yards butterfly in the trials, only to be touched out by Julie Post of the Women's City Club in the finals. Julie posted the same time.

Walt Eversman of Westchester road won the men's 100 yard backstroke championship of Western Ontario, at London, Ont., on November 27, and Glenn Frank took the 50 yard freestyle for boys under 14. At the same meet

Fordson's Swim Champs Beat Devils in Close Meet

For the second time in the short space of seven days the Grosse Pointe swimming team dropped a league victory, this time to the Tractor pool, 46 to 38, last Friday, December 17.

Just the week before Coach Banach's promising squad lost a heart breaker to Royal Oak on a disqualification in the final event. These two losses dropped the Devils to the bottom of the strong and unpredictable Border Cities League.

Won First Two Two earlier nonleague wins over Hazel Park and Ferndale give the Pointers a 500 record as they take time out for the Christmas holidays.

Coach Banach summed up the loss to Fordson by saying, "We just didn't have enough power in the free style events." He continued, "This is the craziest league this year. I don't believe there will be a single team that will go through unbeaten. Every team in the league is tough—there isn't a "breather" on our schedule."

Close All the Way The Fordson meet was close all the way and once the score was tied after the fourth event, Fordson opened up with a victory in the 50-yard free style on Boguski's effort. Dick Degner and Carl Anderson kept the Pointers one point behind, 5-4, when they finished 2-3.

Sotrioff and Patrick finished 1-3 in the 100-yard breast stroke with Jim Ketzler managing a second place, which was good for 3 points and found the Pointers trailing 11 to 7. Brad Boydell gave the Devils their first victory when he splashed in ahead of the Tractors

Szewski and Smith in the 200-yard free style to close the point spread to 15-12 in favor of the Tractors.

Walt Eversman and Bob Guenther finished 1-3 in the 100-yard backstroke, respectively, with Gnievek taking second to tie the score at 18-all.

Slam 100-Yard Event With the Pointers breathing down the back of their neck the Tractors poured the coal to the meet and slammed the 100-yard free style as Fillmore and Nieport splashed in ahead of Dick Schleicher to take a 26-19 lead which they never relinquished.

Which diver went to Fordson's Suriano with the Devils' Dick Stafford taking second ahead of Fordson's Yonish. In this event the Tractors took their greatest lead of the meet, 32 to 22. Fighting back valiantly Brad Boydell and Harry Huffaker gave the Devils a first and third in the 150-yard individual play with Plonka taking second.

Pointers Win Medley Nicholson, Eversman and Ketzler combined to take the 150 medley relay in 1:24.3. This put the Devils behind by a scant four points going into the last event, the 200-yard speed relay which was won by Fordson's Smith, Fillmore, Szewski and Boguski to clinch the meet.

The Devils will entertain the Monroe Trojans on January 7 to continue their search for their first league victory.

Two Girls' Teams Unbeaten In Neighborhood Club Loop

A lot of action was seen in the Girls' Basketball League at the Neighborhood Club last Thursday, December 16.

Muriel Kreski's Streamliners showed a good deal of improvement even though they lost to the St. Paul Jrs. 32 to 10. Forwards Mary Koinis and Kathy Vestal racked up the most points for the Streamliners, while Mary Moxley and Joan Hinz shared St. Paul's honors.

At half time, the Streamliners had a lonely 3 points, while St. Paul had 19. Ten fouls were called on St. Paul and 2 on the losers.

Pat Cavanaugh Stars
Pat Cavanaugh played a beautiful game for the St. Paul Jr. Varsity, and led her team in high scoring honors as they defeated the hard-working Dribblers, 22 to 4. Looking good for Coach Carol Gate's Dribblers was Janet Wesner.

At half time the Dribblers had their total score for the evening and St. Paul had 12. A total of 17 fouls were called, 10 for St. Paul and the rest for the Dribblers.

Results were very exciting in the Senior Division as the top four teams met. The WAFs, and Metro both lost tough decisions as they were defeated by scant 1-point decisions.

Hoppers Beat WAFs
The Hoppers, led by mighty Suzanne Peplinski, played brilliant ball against the WAFs to win a 33 to 32 decision. Fouls were extremely high with the Hoppers getting 18 and the WAFs 13. Ruth Braag scored most of the WAF's points. At half time the WAF's were losing 13 to 18, but kept right up with the leading Hoppers to the dying seconds of the contest.

In the 9 o'clock game, Muriel Kreski's long shot in the last 3 seconds didn't pay off as Metro was defeated by the CYO-A team, 27 to 26. Looking very sharp for CYO was Kathy Karras, however Gloria Strehlau walked away with scoring honors. JoAnne Harris was Metro's high scorer. At half time, the CYO gals saw Metro catch up and tie the score 12 to 12. Metro committed 13 fouls, while the CYO gals had 11.

There will be no games until Thursday, January 6. At that time the Junior Division will see the two St. Paul teams battle at 6:30 and the Streamliners and the Dribblers at 7:15.

Colby Junior College Girls Home on Vacation

New London, New Hampshire: Girls who are students at Colby Junior College in New London began their Christmas vacation from Colby Junior College on Wednesday, December 15.

Those returning home for the holidays are: Miss Sally Beardlee, a senior, who is president of Colgate Hall, a Colby Key girl, and a member of the Choir and Buzzin' Dozen. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Beardlee of 841 Whittier, boulevard.

Miss Susan Litchfield, senior, and a member of the Choir, the Glee Club (accompanist) and the YWCA. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Allyn C. Litchfield of 1336 Harvard road.

Miss Barbara Lowe, a senior, who is enrolled in the liberal arts course. She is a senior Counselor and a member of the Music Club, Outing Club and the YWCA. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Donald C. Lowe of 71 Merriweather road.

Sandra Swaney Feted at Party

Mrs. Allan Neef of Lincoln road was hostess Saturday, December 18, at the first of the pre-nuptial parties for bride-elect Sandra Swaney of Birmingham.

Sandra, who will become the bride of Courtney Lecklider of Berkshire road, on March 23, is home from Michigan State College which she and her fiance both attend.

Mrs. Arlington F. Lecklider, mother of bridegroom to be, plans a tea honoring Sandra on Tuesday, December 28, in their Berkshire road home.

League for Nursing Accepting Applicants

The Detroit and Tri-County League for Nursing, a Torch Drive agency, announced this week that applicants for training courses in practical nursing were being interviewed at their offices at 51 West Warren.

Two day classes and one night class will start January 3. Other groups will start training two months later.

Girls and women between the ages of 18 and 50 are eligible for the courses, which extend over a full year. Girls between the ages of 18 and 20 must be high school graduates. Between 20 and 25, applicants must have two years of high school. Over 25, an eighth grade education is required.

Henry Wilson, Jr. Back From Long Navy Cruise

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (FHTNC) Henry F. Wilson, Jr., photographer's mate second class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Wilson of 942 Beaconsfield avenue, Grosse Pointe Park, Mich., is serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Hornet which returned here December 15 after an eight month 'around the world' cruise.

Deploying from Norfolk, Va., on May 11, 1954, the Hornet visited Lisbon, Portugal; Naples, Italy; passing through the Suez Canal stopping at Colombo, Ceylon, and Singapore, Malayan States before joining the U.S. First Fleet late in June.

During the operation off Hainan Island in July, the Hornet was the flagship of Vice Admiral W. K. Phillips, USN, Commander First Fleet; and from Sept. 16th to Nov. 12th, the Hornet flew the flag of Rear Admiral S. C. Ring, USN, Commander Carrier Division 1 which was the U. S. Seventh Fleet's 'Fast Carrier Task Group in the Formosa area.

Operating from Manila Bay, Philippine Islands, the Hornet also visited Yokosuka, Japan and Hong Kong, British Crown Colony, China Enroute to the United States from Japan, the Hornet stopped briefly at Pearl Harbor, Hawaii, to take part in the Dec. 7th memorial ceremonies there.

500 Kids Feted By Sanatorium

Five hundred boys and girls, underprivileged and exposed to tubercular conditions were given a gay, joyous Christmas party Saturday afternoon at Jefferson Intermediate School.

Host for the occasion was the Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium which is currently conducting its annual Christmas Seal Drive and hopes to raise $125,000 to combat the dread disease in the Detroit area.

Part of the proceeds are used to send these same 500 boys and girls for an all expense, four week vacation at the Single Bar Christmas Seal Camp near Chelsea.

Party plans were made by Delmar Pardonnnet, Christmas Seal Camp Director, and Mrs. Charles A. Dean, Jr., of Lewiston road, who arranged for enormous quantities of food and refreshment for the youngsters to munch on.

The children, ranging in age from 6 to 14, enjoyed a performance, "The Indian Captive", given by the Junior League Players of Detroit. Santa Claus distributed gifts and everyone joined in Christmas carols.

While the youngsters were enjoying the fruits of last year's successful drive, serious minded campaigners were appealing to Wayne County citizens for cash gifts. The Sanatorium this year according to Ralph S. Lane, president, printed and distributed 35,000,000 seals, most of which were mailed, the balance being placed in the hands of campaign workers, selling them in post-offices, department stores, theatres and other public places.

The concerted drive will be conducted through New Years and to date the committee has received 72,000, about $5,000 less than last year at this same date according to Mrs. Dean.

Currently on display at the Detroit Historical Museum is a pictorial exhibit of Single-Bar Christmas Seals covering the past ten year winning designs drawn by Detroit High school students.

Sanatorium medical men point out that while tuberculosis has been successfully curbed it is a

Ordinance No. 16

ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE TRAFFIC ORDINANCE

The City of Grosse Pointe Park Ordains:

Section 1: Section 10.9 of Ordinance No. 8, entitled Traffic Ordinance, is amended to read as follows:

10.9 Parking Commercial Vehicles and the Like. It shall be unlawful to park any commercial vehicle on any street in this City for a period longer than thirty minutes between the hours of 2 A.M. and 4 A.M. of the same day. It shall be unlawful at any time to park (i) any commercial vehicle in excess of half ton rated capacity (ii) any house trailer or (iii) any tractor on any street in this City for a period longer than thirty minutes. The provisions of this section shall not be deemed to prohibit the parking of commercial vehicles, house trailers or tractors during such period of time in excess of thirty minutes as may be reasonably required for actual loading or unloading, nor the parking of commercial vehicles used by workmen working in the vicinity during such period of time in excess of thirty minutes as work is actually in progress. Nothing in this section shall imply any permission to park where parking is otherwise prohibited or restricted. The Chief of Police for good cause, may grant special permits permitting the parking of vehicles described in this section during a period in which parking would otherwise be prohibited, but each permit shall be granted for a definite period of time.

Section 2: This ordinance shall take effect ten days after its enactment.

Pointer of Interest

MR. S. CLAUS

By Jane Schermerhorn

What more appropriate for a Christmas Pointer of Interest . . . than all of the nice persons who so graciously have permitted this department to dig into their hobbies for the past fifty some weeks!

They've made our work fun . . . stuffed us with coffee and cookies till the editor had made a sign, "Don't Feed The Reporter" . . . They've crowded busy days to give us interview time.

Most of them haven't enjoyed being spotlighted for Pointers of Interest, are, in truth, modest persons. To a man and a woman they've waved goodbye to us with the worried expression, "Well, I don't see how you can make a story out of THAT" . . . meaning their answers to our questions.

So today this department, with the help of Mr. S. Claus, wishes an especially Merry Christmas to: WILLIAM R. JEEVES . . . who said he's thinking of writing a book and he'll call it "My Man, Wodehouse" . . . MRS. J. CHARLES MARKLEY . . . enjoying a comparatively leisurely Christmas this year . . . now that she's settled in the 70-year-old home on Lake Shore road that she and her husband "did over" last Winter . . .

The best of the season: MRS. JOHN W. McEACHREN, of Renaud road . . . and we hope she's had a wonderful year as a third term president of Franklin Settlement.

MRS. ROBERT LOOKER, of Fisher road . . . just now finishing her term as president of Sigma Gamma celebrating its Golden Fiftieth Anniversary . . . MRS. CHARLES F. HAMMOND . . . the glamorous legend . . . who has returned to the Pointe and proved to be glamorous as ever . . .

MRS. FRANK KUHN . . . who found her African Movies real HTS after Ernest Hemingway's plane crash in the jungles this year . . .

MRS. BERNADINE SIMONDS McEVOY . . . whose fascinating tryptic murals lend beauty to the walls of Christ Episcopal Church at Flint . . .

MRS. J. ARTHUR MULLEN . . . Madame Treasurer for many organizations, including the Girl Scouts, and who owns a beautiful set of oval paintings of the flower stalls of Paris . . .

MRS. CLARENCE BLESSED

Who loves to fish (persuaded her husband to take up the sport) and who's enthusiastic vice-president of the Girl Scouts of Detroit . . .

MRS. FRANK BANKS WARE . . . a beauty who can wear big hats till you whistle . . . and who has done a topnotch publicity job for the Golden Girls of Sigma Gamma . . .

MRS. JAMES M. FISHER . . . the lovely Melba . . . who can't resist a contest . . . and those talents are many . . . when we saw her last, leather work topped the list of hobbies . . .

MRS. DANIEL W. HEMBEL . . . Chairman of Den, Mothers' Workshop for Detroit Boy Scouts . . . and a gal who dreams up wonderful craft work for the lads . . . whose champion she is! NAN MAXWELL . . . The brown-eyed deb who loves to sail . . . calls her Lightning Poulette . . . and gets a social consciousness from mama, Mrs. Edwin O. Bodkin . . .

MRS. D. HANSEL WILSON . . . one of the most artistic Pointers we've ever interviewed . . . her way with flowers makes many a Pointe event most eye appealing . . . and we hope Santa brings her some new containers (she tries to resist buying them for herself) . . .

TRIFLE

Contributed by Mrs. John M. Fisher

In Merry England, Trifle is always a favorite dessert. It knows no season, yet Christmas simply isn't Christmas without Trifle some place in the holidays. In your favorite bowl soak a Madeira cake (pound or sponge cake that you buy at the baker's) in good sherry overnight. The good sherry is important because it gives the delightful flavor to the Trifle and nothing can hide a poor sherry. Before the guests arrive, slice bananas over the sherry laced cake and then spoon onto this a layer of raspberry jam. Next plenty of soft custard. Mask generously with whipped cream and decorate with almond halves arranged cherry shape with a Maraschino daisy in each flower center.

Pointe Counter Points

by Roberta Isley

Did you know that in the early years of the republic, it was the height of fashion for leading members of society in Newport, Rhode Island, to parade leisurely to their chemist shop intent on testing the latest perfume creations? The chemists, Caswell-Massey, dating from the year 1752 displayed their newest perfume wares. The Marquis de Lafayette pronounced them the equal of any in his native country. The legendary Dolly Madison was a constant patron. So was Adeline Patti, the golden voiced opera diva. In the Eighties Sara Bernhardt sent a letter from Paris to Newport for a half dozen bottles. The present generation of well groomed men and women, proud in its awareness of things American, has eagerly adopted the unique toiletries of Caswell-Massey as its very own. Here in the Pointe, these famous cylindrical bottles are a feature of Trail's Pharmacy, on the hill. And we feel, a perfect answer to your last minute gift selection.

They are entitled to boast. Because you see they have a masterpiece collection of hand-loomed and embroidered linen or cotton handkerchiefs . . . color as well as white. If you have elegant tastes . . . and a wallet to match . . . you'll like to give the ones for six dollars and fifty cents. Others are five and one dollar and fifty cents. Jacobson's in the Village.

There are always wonderful new-looking, exciting ways of styling your hair. And a completely new coil would match your mood this holiday season . . . whether you stay at home or whirl the evening hours away. Regardless of the type or condition of your hair, you can have it soft and manageable with a permanent and a personalized style . . . set from the Air-Louise Beauty Salon, 405 Fisher Rd. And to keep your hair lustrous ask for a sparkling rinse. TU. 2-7511 for appointment.

Important fashion ingredients for now right on through New Year's are the gay and festive evening gowns shown at Margaret Rice's. Each one is different . . . it might be a creamy white net over yards of crinoline . . . or pale blue lace over same. Some are pale blue silk . . . some are vibrant and red . . . sweeping out to a waltz length skirt. 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Now that the Christmas rush is nearly over . . . Mr. Pongracz . . . your jeweler on the hill . . . wants to wish everyone of us a Merry Christmas and a prosperous New Year. Thank you, Mr. Pongracz.

Lemon peel is a color. It reminds us of Florida. And it also reminds us of the color of the raincoats we saw this week for five ninety-five. B. F. Goodrich's Koroseal is flexible material that's stronger and wears far longer than ordinary plastics. They're impeccably tailored in every detail . . . contour-fit collars that hug the neck, shoulders that set right for wet-weather comfort. The seams are electronically sealed, and all stress points are reinforced to ninety-five. B. F. Goodrich's Koroseal is flexible material that's pocket-size travel proof. Cleans with the swish of a damp cloth. Good, good value. Jacobson's Accessory Department, main floor.

Have you seen the beautiful line of Kent imported brushes for both men and women at Trail's Pharmacy, on the hill? You should.

To make the children's eyes sparkle. For "kids" it's wonderful. It's a cute Holiday Flash Browline Camera. This brand new tiny camera takes good sharp pictures. The camera is four dollars and ninety-five cents . . . the flash attachment is three dollars and twenty cents. 17114 Kercheval, in the village . . . at the Camera Center.

It's never too late to give her a gift of HER CHOICE . . . a gift certificate from Margaret Rice's. She is sure to love, what she finds at 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Santa Claus can still get around . . . even if there is only ONE more shopping day 'til Christmas. He can still be interested in outstanding gifts . . . the kind we found at Jacobson's Home Decoration Shop in the village. A wooden candy bowl on wrought iron legs for one dollar and twenty-nine cents . . . wooden salt and peppers decorated with gaily painted faces for one dollar and nineteen cents . . . a wooden knife holder for ten cents more . . . a wooden snack server for four dollars and fifty cents. These pieces all fit into a barbecue layout. Snooty dinner bells with a brass bell and a crystal poodle for the top . . . an old-fashioned brass candle holder or a nine piece salad bowl set could be just what Santa would order.

Signa-matches are new. You personalize them yourself with "Goldmark" a pressure sensitive gold. We tried it and it's as easy as writing your name. They can be used as personal matches, place cards, for special occasions, party favors, calling cards. The whole box plus the "Goldmark" costs just one dollar and fifty cents at Trail's Pharmacy, on the hill.

Whether it's a seven day jaunt you're planning or a one hundred and seven day vacation in some sun drenched spot, you'll be needing a Zagri original . . . they are so practical. For they are fashionable for lucky people like you. Two models we saw featured jersey coats . . . perfect for those hours after the sun goes down. A white jersey pancho coat with jet button trim was over a black silk shantung dress . . . The dress of the other was a sheath . . . conservatively trimmed with rhinestones . . . Irish Linen . . . floral print. Over all a chattronse jersey coat featuring bat wing sleeves. Each tag read one hundred dollars. Jacobson's, Better Dresses.
