THREE SCHOOL DISTRICTS CHANGED

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, February 3

HOPE FOR A Formosa truce has brought about a flurry of diplomatic activity among the ranking statesmen of the world. Red China had hinted, in a note to Prime Minister Winston Churchill in London, that it might consider an "unwritten cease-fire in the Formosa Straits. Well-informed diplomats said there were strong indications Peiping would go along with the cease-fire if Nationalist China surrenders the offshore islands—Matsu, Quemoy and the Tachens.

Friday, February 4

RED CHINA'S REJECTION of a cease-fire talk bid was deplored by the United States. Red China's Premier Chou En Lai not only ripped into America as an aggressor in the Chinese conflict, but he also stated that he would not send a representative to discuss a ceasefire unless Nationalist China is ousted from the United Nations.

Saturday, February 5

AMERICAN SABREJETS shot down two of eight attacking MIG fighters over the Yellow Sea between Korea and Red China, in the biggest air battle since the Korean War.

The United States Air Force reported that the Communist planes attacked a U. S. RB-45 reconnaissance bomber and its covering flight of Sabres over international waters. A terse Air Force communique stated that the six remaining Red planes returned to Communist territory, presumably Red China.

Sunday, February 6

THE UNITED STATES stated that the Communist-American clash demonstrated that the American Forces will carry out "shoot-if-attacked" orders. Informed sources revealed that the White House directed the State Department to issue the statement.

The State Department also disclosed this Government is investigating the clash over the Yellow Sea to determine where the attacking planes came from and their nationality. The air fight served as a warning that this nation does not intend to be bluff.

Monday, February 7

EVACUATION of the Tachen Islands, with the backing of the United States warships and planes, has already been started by Nationalist China. A Nationalist Defense Ministry spokesman at Taipei, said that the withdrawal of the garrison from the Formosa outpost began Sunday night.

The undertaking is due to bring a showdown on whether Red China will risk combat with the American Armed Forces in the Formosa area. There was no report, as yet, on Red Chinese resistance, however, the mighty American Seventh Fleet has orders to return any fire if it is fired upon.

Tuesday, February 8

RATIFICATION of the defense treaty with Nationalist China might cool off tough-talking Red China, Secretary of State John Foster Dulles told members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

He said that he doubted if the Chinese Reds intended to wage war against the United States unless the United States abandons the treaty with all that the abandonment will imply. He said that he is of the opinion that the United States wants peace so badly that this country will retreat in the face of Communist threats. Meanwhile, Red aircraft stayed clear of American planes during the evacuation of the Tachen Islands.

Wednesday, February 9

RUSSIA'S PREMIER GEORGI MALENKOV suddenly resigned as head of the Soviet Union and was immediately succeeded by defense minister Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin. In his note of resignation, Malenkov accused himself of shortcomings in business knowledge.

Nikita A. Khrushchev, deputy premier and Communist Party first secretary, was appointed to succeed Bulganin as defense minister in a sensational shift of power which may have far reaching consequences in Soviet internal and foreign policies.

Richard Safety Patrol First to Hold Trophy

Five $10,000 Gifts Given Bon Secours

Receipt of $50,000 Given As Executive Committee Meets to Discuss Drive

The Executive Committee of the Bon Secours Hospital Completion Fund Campaign held a dinner at Lou Maxon's Club House last Monday evening to kick-off the Advance Gifts phase of the Campaign. During this initial phase of the campaign a select group of Memorials in the present hospital and the proposed new addition will be offered. The Executive Committee will handle the solicitation of gifts during this phase of the campaign as well as assume their other duties as Committee Chairmen and Associates.

$50,000 Already Given
Anthony R. Mottschall, Memorial Gifts Chairman, announced at the dinner that five $10,000 gifts had already been received by the Committee even before actual solicitation began.

This $50,000 represents better than 10 percent of the $450,000 which is the amount needed to build and equip the completion of the hospital. The addition will provide the Hospital with a much needed Medical Lecture Hall and adequate living facilities for the Nursing Sisters who staff it.

Committee Enthusiastic
The Executive Committee was enthusiastic about presenting the program to the Advance Gifts Prospects. Each of the men received their Workers' Key at the close of the dinner and actual solicitation of Advance Gifts will now begin.

Immediately following the close of the Advance Gifts phase, solicitation of Memorial Gifts will begin and the campaign will close with a general community solicitation.

Pointe Symphony Orchestra Presenting Third Concert In Parcels School Sunday

Jacqueline Murphy Will Be Soloist; Reception Following Concert to Be Sponsored by Pointe Woman's Club

The third concert of the season to be given by the Grosse Pointe Symphony will take place on Sunday, February 13, at Parcels Junior High School, auditorium, Mack and Vernier Roads at 4 p.m.

The orchestra, now in its second season, occupies a unique position in the cultural life of the community. Through its organization many amateur musicians are able to enjoy the experience of playing the music they enjoy so much, and sharing their talents with fellow musicians and an ever-growing and appreciative audience.

Music Is Common Bond
Through this media, people of many professions and businesses have gathered together with music as their common bond. The orchestra personnel includes, housewives, teachers, doctors, lawyers, bankers, and those in industry and various sales fields. Two cellists who formerly resided in England and played in orchestras there, met for the first time in 18 years, when they became active members in the Symphony.

Has Varied Background
Miss Murphy has appeared with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, Buffalo Symphony and Buffalo Civic Orchestras, in Town Hall, N. Y., among many other appearances including radio and television.

She combines to a unique degree the attributes of excellent vocal ability, a vivacious and charming stage presence, an extensive repertoire and command of languages, and a very fine musical background.

Reception to Follow
A reception to immediately follow the performance in the gymnasium of the school, will be sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club.

Present during the discussion were: Park City Manager Everett B. Lane, who is first vice president of the Michigan Chapter, International City Managers' Association; Shores Village Superintendent Thomas Jeffers; and Woods City Administrator William H. Lange.

Woods Issues 253 Building Permits for Homes in 1954

The third annual report submitted by the Detroit Regional Planning Commission on the number of home building permits, showed that the number given out last year almost equaled that of 1950. This year established in 1950, was almost reached by the 40,956 handed out in 1954.

The 1954 gain registered 21.9 per cent over the 1953 total of 33,582 permits for new residential units.

The report also disclosed that the Woods far outnumbered the other Pointe communities as far as the home permits for last year are concerned, bearing out that the Woods is more than holding its own as the fastest growing Pointe.

The official total for the Woods for 1954 was set at 253 permits. The Shores trailed second with 80; the Park had 74, the Farms, 72; and the City, only 14.

Since 1950, permits for a total of 176,007 new residences have been granted throughout the Detroit Region, which means that 176,007 families, or about 616,000 persons, on the basis of 3.5 persons per dwelling unit, have been provided with a home.

School Board Accepts Gift Of Property

Mr. and Mrs. Prewitt Semmes Donate Land Adjoining Torrey School Site

Bert H. Wicking, president of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, has announced the board's acceptance of a property gift by Mr. and Mrs. Prewitt Semmes of 619 Lake Shore road.

Mr. Wicking said the Semmes' gift involved the donation of approximately two and one-fourth acres of land bordering the property now owned by the school district at the Torrey elementary school site on Morningside between Fairford and Shoreham.

A new elementary school is now being built on this site and President Wicking said the board very much appreciated the gift of land as an addition to the present site.

In accepting the gift, the board unanimously adopted a resolution requesting the president to write the Semmes an expression of its gratitude and thanks. Mr. Wicking told the Semmes he was pleased and proud to have the opportunity of complying with such a request.

He said their generous gift would help to make the Torrey area one of the most functional and attractive elementary school sites in the entire district. He also assured the Semmes the board would preserve the natural beauty of the property to the fullest possible extent.

Substantial agreement on the offer and acceptance of the gift was reached on January 5, 1955. However, President Wicking said the official announcement had been delayed briefly pending clearance of several details in communications with Mr. and Mrs. Semmes who are now in Florida.

News Honored By Publishers

For the fourth time in the last five years, the Grosse Pointe News has been honored in the annual Michigan Press Association General Excellence Contest. The contest is a feature of the national convention held at the Kellogg Center in East Lansing and the awards were made at the convention dinner on January 29.

The News was awarded third place in the Urban Division. First place went to the Wyandotte Tribune and second to the Highland Park.

Flood Committee Meets to Compare High Water Notes

Situation Comparable to December 1951, Which Was Followed by Damaging Floods During Spring 1952

A meeting of the Grosse Pointe Flood Committee was held recently at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, under the chairmanship of R. Noble Wetherbee, to discuss the current water level of Lake St. Clair, which threatens to reach flood stage.

At the meeting, Mr. Wetherbee pointed out that the situation tended to be similar to that of December, 1951, which resulted in damaging spring floods.

On March 20, 1951, the water level of Lake St. Clair stood at 577 feet; April saw the level increase by .35 feet; and in May, the water dropped to 577.29 feet.

Hits All-Time High
In July of 1952, the water level had reached an all-time high, but dropped off 17 inches by December of that year.

The January 1955 report issued by the United States Army Corps of Engineers, disclosed that the level of Lake St. Clair for the month reached 576.36 feet. In January of 1954 the level was at 574.75 feet. The rise was due to excessive precipitation last fall.

Pointe representatives at the meeting were called upon to give a report on the progress made in their respective communities in the fight against floods.

Lane Reports for Park
Park City Manager Everett B. Lane revealed that his community had spent $12,000 in banking the Fox Creek area in 1952, and since then has encouraged the lakefront property owners in the community to increase their own banking. He said that residents are kept informed of the water level through the Park Bulletin.

Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith revealed that his community's high water problem is at present very slight. He stated that this is due to the construction work now being carried out at the municipal park, and to the fact that almost all of the land of the city is protected by Lake Shore drive, which is considerably higher than lake level.

Lange to Study Situation
Woods City Administrator William H. Lange, who is new to the area, was not acquainted with the flood problem in the Pointe. He will make a study and report on the situation at another meeting. Grosse Pointe City Clerk Norbert Neff, Secretary of the Flood Committee, was unable to attend the meeting.

The Shores was without representation, also.

A. Griswold Herreshoff of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, informed those present at the meeting that the club had spent $250,000 for protection against flood waters and damages by heavy waves, and is replacing much of the wooden docks and piling with steel.

He pointed out that the Club itself is built on fill land reinforced by 9,000 piles, with most of the basement under the high water level.

Similar Situations
Colonel Gallagher, District Engineer of the U. S. Lake Survey, said that almost all the water of Lake St. Clair comes from lakes above and below it, with 60 percent coming from the Michigan-Huron drainage basin via the St. Clair River.

He remarked that the same situation exists now as it did in December, 1951.

Cottage Hospital Campaign Reported at Half-Way Mark

Cottage Hospital, which in January launched a Capital Fund Drive for $150,000 in gifts in order to complete payment on its new addition, has now reached the half-way mark toward its goal.

Community response to the hospital's appeal has been warm and generous, according to Mrs. Carl B. Grawn, president of the Board of Directors.

Cost of the new building, which was opened last year, and of remodeling the old structure has run beyond the original estimate. It is for the purpose of closing this gap that the present campaign is in progress.

Reflecting the needs of a fast-growing community, Cottage Hospital in its 36 years of existence has developed from a cottage in fact, with 10 beds, to the present enlarged institution of 103 beds.

The recent building program not only has doubled the number of hospital rooms but also has added new surgical facilities, an expanded X-ray department, and new kitchen, cafeteria, and laundry.

Shift Borders For Monteith, Mason, Ferry

School Board Also Staffs Organization of New District for Torrey Woods

At the regular Board of Education meeting held on Wednesday night, February 2, the Superintendent of Schools, Dr. James W. Bushong, gave a report concerning proposals for redistricting the Monteith, Mason, and Ferry School districts, and for the organization of the new elementary school district which will be served by the school being built in the Torrey Woods section.

This report indicated that according to estimated enrollment the only way the Monteith School can be organized next year on a complete Kindergarten through Grade Six basis is by following alternatives.

First, to place certain sections on half day sessions, or second, to reduce the size of the district now served by that school so that the remaining enrollment can be handled with full day sessions.

Problem at Mason
The report went on to indicate that the Mason School district was faced with a similar problem in that district to have a complete Kindergarten through Grade Six organization it would be necessary to resort to either half day sessions or to reduce the size of the district.

It was pointed out that the same problem exists for the current year and that this situation was taken care of by housing all of the pupils in Grade Six at the Monteith School, the Mason School, and the Poupard School in the Ferry School.

Dr. Bushong pointed out that no problem will exist for the Poupard district next year as the 14 room addition which is now being constructed at the school will undoubtedly be ready and open for use next September.

To Organize Two Schools
Other problems which were dealt with in this report were the organization of the Ferry School for next year and for the new Torrey Woods School. After considerable discussion on the problems involved the following decisions were approved by the Board of Education.

1. That the Monteith School district shall be redistricted, so that all of the section now served by that district from Morningside to Milk River shall be removed from Monteith District and included in the new Torrey Woods district. Further, that the area included on the streets of Oxford and North and South Renaud, from Milk River to Mack, shall also be removed from the Monteith district and included in the new Torrey Woods district.

2. That the boundaries of the Mason School district be changed so that the area from Marter road to Goethe on Aline, Brys and Roslyn shall be removed from the Mason District and included in the Ferry district.

3. That the new Ferry district will be bounded as follows: On the north by the Wayne-Macomb County Line; on the east by Lake St. Clair; on the south by a line which would extend from the rear lot line of Fairway lane along the rear lot line of the Vernier circle and Maple lane subdivisions to the Lake Shore, except that all of the area included on Fairway lane shall be in the Ferry district; and on the west by the middle of Marter road from Vernier road to the rear lot line of Roslyn road, thence westerly to the middle of Goethe, thence northerly to the Wayne-Macomb County Line.

4. That the boundaries for the new Torrey Woods district shall be bounded on the north by a line extending from the rear lot line of Fairway lane along the line extending along the rear lot line of the area included in the Vernier circle and Maple lane subdivisions from Fairway lane to the Lake Shore; on the east by Lake St. Clair; on the south by the line which separates Grosse Pointe Farms from Grosse Pointe Woods and Grosse Pointe Shores from Milk River to the Lake Shore; on the west by the middle of Milk River from Cook road to the southerly rear lot line of Oxford, thence west along the rear lot line of Oxford to Mack avenue, thence north to the northerly rear lot line of North Renaud Road, thence easterly to the middle of Fairway drive back to the point of beginning.

5. A decision was made by the Board that in the event the new Torrey Woods school is not ready for use in September the pupils from that school will be temporarily housed as follows:

- a. Kindergarten, first, second, and third grades at Vernier school.
  - b. Two sections of fourth grade at the Ferry School.
  - c. Two sections of fifth grade and two sections of sixth grade to be housed at Trombly School.
- Reach Agreement
Included in the decision of the Board was an agreement that in the event the new Torrey Woods school is not ready to occupy in September and the described plan has to be put into operation, that the children from the Torrey Woods school district will have to be temporarily placed in other schools will be provided free transportation to the schools in which they will be temporarily located.

Dr. Bushong pointed out that it is now the hope of the contractor that the new Torrey Woods School will be ready to occupy by next September, but that in the event it is not the Torrey Woods school will be organized as a school and that as soon as the school is ready to occupy the children who are temporarily housed at other schools will move as a unit to the new Torrey Woods school.

Principal Named

In order to effect the organization of the new Torrey Woods school with the greatest efficiency the Board felt it desirable to appoint a principal for this new school who could begin work immediately in laying plans for the organization of this school.

In view of this Miss Florence Cummings who is currently the principal of the Vernier School was appointed principal of the new Torrey Woods school.

Part of the decision made by the Board was to close Vernier School next year as it will be needed for school purposes at that time except temporarily if the new Torrey Woods school is not ready to occupy in September.

Here Since 1931 Miss Cummings has been employe of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools since September 1931. She has taught in both the Richard and Vernier schools, having been at the Vernier School for the last 15 years, the last two of which she has been principal. Miss Cummings holds both her bachelors degree and master's degree in education from the University of Michigan. Before coming to Grosse Pointe she taught at Grand Rapids, Ann Arbor, and Hillsdale.

High Water

ember of 1952. He added that the peak "high" years were 1876, 1929 and 1952.

No records were kept of Lake St. Clair until 1898, therefore the high water level in 1976 is not known.

W. W. Oaks of the Detroit Weather Bureau, said that there was an excessive amount of rainfall last fall, especially over the southern lakes, but the precipitation this year thus far has been light.

He presented the total rainfall over a five year period, as compiled from the figures of 11 Great Lakes cities, as follows: in 1950, 36 inches; 1951, 38 inches; 1952, 28 inches; 1953, 32 inches; and 32 inches during the first 11 months of 1954.

He was optimistic about this year's food problem, remarking that the danger lies mainly in heavy storms.

Communities all along the lake shores are deeply concerned with the high water level of the lakes. More than $100,000,000 in damages have been recorded over the past years.

The Pointe felt the fury of rampaging waters in March of 1952, when a raging storm whipped record high waters over the seawall of Lake Shore road, tore out dock installations, both public and private; flooded basements and eroded the lake shore, causing heavy damage to the shoreline and to the trees.

Thousands of dollars in damages were caused to the various municipal-owned parks situated on Lake St. Clair, and to the east wall of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Pvt. David M. Shane Serving in Germany

WURZBURG, Germany — Pvt. David M. Shane, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Shane, 365 McMillan road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., recently joined the Society of the 1st Infantry Division while serving with Headquarters Battery of the division's 5th Field Artillery Battalion in Wurzburg, Germany.

The Society of "Fighting Firsts," founded in 1919, is dedicated to the preservation of the traditions and comradeships formed by the men who served the division.

Farms-City Water Contract

will supply additional water to the pumping station on Moross road.

To Run New Line

Mr. Furton said that a new line will be attached to the Moross main, and that it will run down Ridge road, and will be connected to the City's water main. The whole undertaking will be paid for by the Farms, he said.

He revealed that the issuance of the bonds does not need the approval of the voters, inasmuch as they will be retired from revenue derived from the sale of the water. However, he added, the issue must receive the approval of the Municipal Finance Commission in Lansing.

City's Agreement

According to the contract, the City will have to agree to pay for 40 million cubic feet of water a year, whether that amount is used or not. It was pointed out that the normal consumption is in excess of that amount.

The proposed rate that will be charged to the City has been set at 75.6 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of water, according to an audit report, which showed that the cost to the Farms for supplying the water will be 68.7 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, which added to a 10 per cent profit of 6.87 cents per 1,000 cubic feet sold, makes the total 75.6 cents.

Will Save City Money

Mr. Furton brought out that if the City purchased its water from Detroit, the City would have to pay 88 cents plus five per cent for each 1,000 cubic feet of water, besides being required to build its own reservoirs and water pumping station, making the cost to City consumers approximately 83.5 cents per 1,000 cubic feet.

He said that he does not anticipate that the Shores will ask for a contract, because it has already contacted Detroit to supply all of its water, as soon as Detroit has completed its new pumping stations, which should be done in about a year or so.

Has Standby Service
He added that the Shores has a standby service with Detroit for water, in the event of an emergency, as does the Farms. He said this service costs the Farms $138 a month, whether the water is used or not.

Hubbell, Roth and Clark, Inc., engineers employed by the Farms, estimated the cost of the improved water system to the Farms will be a total of $275,000, of which $148,000 will be for the new water main; $100,000 for the two proposed filter beds in the Municipal Park; and $27,000 will be for engineering, legal fees and other contingencies.

To Employ Consultant
At the Monday night meeting, the council approved the appointment of Matthew Carey as financial consultant, to make application for revenue financing and to instruct the engineers to proceed with the preparation of the final plans and specifications.

Henry Hubbard, chairman of the Farms committee, which had been negotiating the water deal with the City, was commended for his and his committee's work in the matter.

STAMP EXHIBIT PLANNED

Where Pride Leads to Economy!
This gasoline station isn't accustomed to being ignored by the cars that pass its way. For it resides at the edge of a great desert—and it is many, many miles to the next fueling point.
But the big, handsome automobile you see here swept by without so much as a sign of recognition! For it is a new 1955 Cadillac—and its owner knows that he can travel from his morning's start until his evening's stop without a single refueling.
Of course, when a motorist decides to order his first Cadillac, he isn't usually aware that the car is so economical to operate—or that it is so practical to own.
He wants a Cadillac for what it is and represents—and for the great pride and pleasure it will bring him.
But it isn't long before he discovers where his pride has led him!
He discovers it first when he prices the Cadillac of his choice. Invariably, he is surprised at its relatively modest cost. Not infrequently, he finds that it actually costs less than the car he is currently driving.
And then, once his Cadillac is delivered, he discovers how frugal it is with a gallon of gasoline. He finds, as we said, that a full tank is sufficient for a full day's drive.
Next, he learns of Cadillac's extraordinary dependability. In fact, he often has to be reminded when the time has come for routine service.
But not until he surrenders his Cadillac to its second owner does he discover the full wonder of Cadillac's economy. For then he learns how amazingly it holds its value—and how little a year's service affects the public's regard for the car.
All this is to say, of course, that you don't have to follow your pride to the "car of cars." You can, if you prefer, make your decision solely on the basis of economy—and still buy a Cadillac!
Come in soon—and see for yourself! We've got the facts—and we'll be delighted to see you at any time!

Unlicensed Boarding House Home for 16 Small Children

If Mrs. Elly Rogers, 39, of 74 Moran road, had not objected to the use of a hot plate burner by a boarder and shut off the electricity in her home to stress her objection, she might still be running her unlicensed boarding house for small children.

Mrs. Rogers, who operated the establishment on what she called a child caring basis, first came to the attention of Farms police when Bernard Farrell, who with his wife and two children, were boarding with the woman, informed authorities that she was operating the home without a license from the State.

Farms Police Chief Walter Hoyt stated that Farrell, after the argument with Mrs. Rogers on the use of the hot plate, had gone to the house of Farms Mayor William Connolly on Sunday, February 6, and reported the woman was operating a children's boarding house without a license.

Mayor Connolly told Farrell to report the matter to the police, which was done.

The next morning, Patrolmen William Elworthy and Joseph Belanger went to the home of Mrs. Rogers to check the report, and found that Farrell's statement was true.

The officers disclosed the information to Chief Hoyt, who relayed it to the State Social Welfare Department, and in company with Det. Sgt. Harold Seelow, went to the house.

There the officers found that 16 children, ranging in age from six weeks to four years, were being housed by Mrs. Rogers.

Chief Hoyt stated that the six-week-old child was a pre-mature baby and should have been in the hospital, according to a State law. He said that none of the children have been abused and they appeared to have been well cared for.

Five of the tots were in the one-year bracket, and another, whose parents came from Chicago, was two months old.

Two State Welfare Social workers, Mrs. Zoia Gross and Mrs. Valerie St. John, arrived to check the situation and to see about having the children returned to their parents.

They also brought an injunction, signed by Probate Judge Nathan J. Kaufman, which ordered Mrs. Rogers to close her home as a boarding house.

Dr. Thomas Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner and a nurse on his staff, Alberta Davis, were present during the investigation, to check the sanitary condition of the house, which was described by Sgt. Seelow, as not up to standard.

Sgt. Seelow disclosed on Monday, that the boarding house has been in operation for about two months, and when the violation was brought out into the open, every effort was made to contact the parents of the children to have them returned.

He said that as of Tuesday, all but two of the children have been picked up by their parents, and if these two are not called for soon, they will be placed in the Wayne County General Hospital, until their parents come for them.

Chief Hoyt said that Mrs. Rogers had advertised her boarding home in one of the metropolitan papers and had received as many as 200 answers from parents who wanted to board their children.

He said that Mrs. Rogers will be charged with running an unlicensed boarding house, which is a State violation, although she is in violation of the Farms' multiple dwelling ordinance also.

He said the penalty imposed can be a $100 fine, or 90 days, or both.

It was pointed out that the home was owned by Abram L. Brown of 212 Kerby, to whom Mrs. Rogers paid a rent of $250 a month.

Sgt. Seelow said that he is investigating the possibility that Brown had knowledge that Mrs. Rogers was using the house as a boarding home.

Mrs. Rogers had sought a license for the home in 1953, but had been turned down because she had no husband. She is a divorcee.

She has two sons, David, 12, and Gerald 13, who are living with her. Her daughter, Barbara, 13, and the daughter's husband, Nicholas Kalubisky, also stay with her.

Handful of Fun.

A new idea in personal radios, no bigger than a teacup, yet with the power and performance of a large five (5) tube table model; is making its appearance in limited quantities.

Its producer claims it will operate for several months on one tiny dry cell, all due to utilizing the much publicized transistor in place of radio tubes.

It's available in four colors and a leather camera type carrying case is available in genuine leather. Earphones are provided for those who wish extreme privacy.

Police to Start Training Class

The second 30-hour session of the current 90-hour basic police training program will begin on March 4, at the Park Police Headquarters, according to Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers, who will be the instructor during this class.

The course, sponsored by the Southeastern Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police, is continuous, and is for all police officers throughout the Detroit Metropolitan area.

There are three such schools in this area, in the Park, Royal Oak and Lincoln Park.

P.T.A. at Defer To Meet Feb. 14

The Defer P.T.A. will hold its first general meeting of the year, Monday, February 14, at 8 p.m., in the school gymnasium.

A special invitation is extended to the parents and teachers to hear and enjoy the General Motors Chorus, consisting of 100 voices, under the direction of Robert Hines.

P.T.A. members will hold a short business meeting immediately following the entertainment.

A friendly social hour with refreshments will be held in the school cafeteria upon completion of the general meeting.

GPUS Preparing 26th Hobby Show

Grosse Pointe University School will hold its annual Hobby Show on Wednesday, February 16. This will be the first hobby show to be given in the new school on the Cook Road campus since the consolidation of Detroit University School and Grosse Pointe Country Day School.

For the first time in the 26 years of this show, preparations are all being completed on the one campus, greatly simplifying things. In the past, the DUS students had to make many trips back and forth to the Country Day School in Grosse Pointe boulevard, getting ready for the event.

Both students and faculty run this show. Mr. Cole and Mrs. Granger are the faculty members in control, with Jock Hoey and Sue Pressel heading up the student's portion.

The hobbies will be divided into two classes, collective and original. The collective hobbies range from glass menageries to stamps, while the original ones display paintings and handicraft.

As this will be the first show of its kind in the new school, both students and faculty are working hard to make it the best ever, and hope for a large turnout.

Businessman Suggests Own Block for Clean-Up Start

Last week Paul R. O. Marden, chairman of the Grosse Pointe Clean-Up Committee, received a letter from a business man "on the hill."

"I am delighted," the letter read, "to learn of your campaign for a cleaner Grosse Pointe. I can think of no better place to start than the sidewalk on the west side of Kercheval avenue extending roughly from McMillan to Muir. This has consistently for some years, been the dirtiest sidewalk that I have noticed anywhere. Sometimes more like a downtown alley than a sidewalk in a high grade suburb."

The writer then inventoried the typical litter he encountered during a stroll down part of the block. Included were purchase slips, candy bar and gum wrappers, cigaret packages, empty paper bags, market bags, a police ticket, a paper doily, empty envelopes, wrapping paper in various colors, a street car coupon, a cigar carton, a potato chip bag.

"There is also a long litter of dead leaves there," he went on to say, "although the leaves have been off the trees for two months now."

The letter continued, "What would seem to be a separate problem is the alley in the rear. Contrary to city ordinance, two stores, which handle merchandise received in crates, occasionally seem to find it necessary to place discarded crates and boxes, sometimes filled with excelsior, in the alley behind their stores. The wind sometimes blows the packing material all over the place. Complaints to the police have resulted in temporary clean-ups, and I suppose warnings, but have never corrected the habit."

The problem has already been taken up with the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association and the municipal authorities. Children who walk this way to and from school will be warned not to throw trash in the streets. The hundreds of adults who use the nearby parking lot are asked to remember at all times that a community is only as neat as the sum-total of its blocks (both residential and business).

Other Grosse Pointe citizens may have other eyesores in mind. Woodpiles that encourage rats, backyards full of jalopy parts, vacant lots that are neighborhood catch-alls, new building projects that are unsightly and untidy beyond all need. If you know of any such trouble spots, write Paul R. O. Marden, 16840 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe.

Everybody's in this clean-up campaign together—the Business Men, the Garden Council, the Brokers' Association, the Property Owners, the municipal authorities. You're in the campaign, too, when you help slant this united effort in the right direction.

Sewer Repairs Made in Farms

Sewer repairs in the Muir and Provençal roads has been completed and the sewers are now in service, according to a report made to the Farms council on Monday, February 7, by Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

Mr. Smith revealed that the Muir road sewer has been completely replaced, and cost of the project, part of which was done by Farms workers, amounted to $1,264.18, as against an estimated cost of $2,190.96.

The condition of the Provençal road sewer was not as bad as anticipated, and the cost of this was only $803.13, as compared to the $2,500 which was set aside in the event the repairs were too costly.

The division of costs on the project are as follows: the Country Club, $56.43; Provençal road property owners, $371.85; and the Farms Public Improvement Reserve Fund, $371.85.

The council also approved the elevation of the park bathing pier eight inches above the planned elevation of 578 feet, as added protection against winter lake ice. This will cost about $672.40.

projects are being faced in the Woods.

The compiled statistics reveal that the population of the Woods in 1926, at which time it was a part of Grosse Pointe Township, was 800 persons.

The first police building was located at Moross and Mack about that time. The first meeting of the new Village of Lochmoor was held in the Township police headquarters which had been moved to 20746 Mack avenue.

At that time the 250 residences housed about 700 people.

The present municipal building was built in early 1937, and it was adequate for the population of 1,500. In October of 1948, voters approved expenditures to add to and improve the present building. The population was 2,000.

The proposed new city hall would have approximately 23,000 square feet of floor space, including a basement, designed to serve an ultimate population of 22,000.

Rehearsing for Play

There are some mighty queer goings-on in the house in Gramercy Park, and "Officer Morrison", played by BILL WITHERELL, JR. (center), intends to get to the bottom of them. Strange lights, flying objects hitting an unsuspecting policeman on the head, and worst of all, illegal diggings in the Park itself, seem to warrant a ticket to someone. COLLEEN KENNEDY, as "Margaret Collins", the housekeeper, has nothing to tell him, but "Parker Burnett", (JACK ROBINSON) could implicate his fiance, Nancy, if he wanted to tell all HE knew. The Grosse Pointe Community Theatre's next production, "Gramercy Ghost", by John Cecil Holm, is scheduled for Thursday and Friday, February 25 and 26, and a Sunday Matinee, February 27, at Cannon Memorial Center Auditorium, Guilford, just north of E. Warren. Tickets on sale at Doubleday's, The Dant's, Harness Drug Store, and Grosse Pointe Book Shop.

Farms Fire Dept. Report Submitted

The report for the month of January, presented by Farms Fire Chief William H. Newport, revealed that fire caused a total of $1,625 in damages to three buildings whose total value was approximately $96,000.

The report also brought out that the fire department answered 27 calls during the month; 14 emergency calls were made with the utility vehicle; eight with the ambulance, two for automobile fires, and the three for the dwellings.

There were no calls to outside communities and no false fire alarms, and no sick leave or vacations taken.

Since 1910, the American Red Cross has issued over 16 million first aid certificates to persons instructed in Red Cross First Aid methods.

That dear old lady should see her heirloom now! ...in its beautiful new palladium setting

One of our customers was left a lovely ring. For years the ring stayed in a jewel box... too out-dated to be worn... until it was brought to us.

We re-set it in a beautiful white palladium mounting, at a very moderate cost. And you should see the ring now!

Let us modernize your old-fashioned, broken or worn rings, earrings or pins. We will design strong new mountings in the newest of precious jewelry metals, shimmering palladium. And we'll show you sketches of the new pieces before the work is done.

Look through your jewel box—and come in today.

Reserve Tables For DAC Show

There's a new dinner-floor show upcoming at the Detroit Athletic Club with nine gala evenings slated from Feb. 17 through Feb. 28, and already many Pointe members of the club have reserved tables for the popular "do."

With dinner and dancing initiating each party-like evening, the highspot show will be featured at 9:30 o'clock.

Frank Fontaine, terrific mimic and comedy star of television, screen and radio, will be the lead attraction. Completing the double bill will be June Roselle, charming young singer.

The DAC will take a recess from this form of entertainment in March, resuming with a very special week of fun in April.

Among Grosse Pointers with reservations for one or another of the February show evenings are the David T. Sickelsteins, Dr. and Mrs. R. K. Whiteley, the Harry M. Prevos, Dr. and Mrs. J. Wilfred Harrison, the Adolph Jacobsons, the B. J. Wemhoffs, the C. Olaf Tallas, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jones, the Clarence W. Treadwells, the J. N. Fallings, the Philip A. O'Connells and the Leslie C. Putnams.

Engaged

At a recent open-house, Mr. and Mrs. Melbourne Lee of Hampton road, announced the engagement of their daughter, Patti, to Ron Gauch son of Mrs. Leo Von Hoff and the late Fred Gauch, of Brookfield, Ill.

Patti is a Junior at Miami University in Oxford, Ohio, where she is a member of Delta Delta Delta Sorority.

Her fiance received his Bachelor of Science degree from Miami University and is now doing graduate work there. Ron is a member of Sigma Nu Fraternity.

Methodists Plan Group Meetings

Hot, home made coffee cake was served at the 9 o'clock breakfast of the Board of the Women's Society of Christian Service, meeting, for the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, in the home of Mrs. E. F. Mitchell, 887 Brys drive, on Tuesday morning, February 1.

Reports of all committees were made upon the many projects completed during the first half of the church year, and it was voted that the society was able to pay one third of the amount soon to be spent by the church for pews for its sanctuary, because of the combined efforts of all the ladies during this period.

A dinner for all women of the church and honoring all new members of the women's society was served on Wednesday night, February 2, and announcement of the following group meetings was made:

12:45, Tuesday, February 15, Martha Mary circle in home of Mrs. W. Brownson, 248 Kerby road. Mrs. Louise Gepford and Mrs. George Triplett, hostesses.

8 p.m., Tuesday, February 15, Rebecca group, in home of Mrs. D. Sawyer, 18550 Morang road, to hear Mrs. Richard Fiala talk on "Religions of India and Pakistan," with Mrs. W. Hoover assisting the hostess.

12:45, Wednesday, February 16, Alpha group, meeting with Mrs. R. W. VanHouse, 2071 Oxford road. Mrs. Gilbert Burns will co-hostess with Mrs. C. H. Cutler.

7 p.m., Wednesday, February 16, Doris White groups, dinner to entertain members and their husbands in the home of the Willis Bugbees, 36 Beacon Hill. Miss Grace Simmons, who was an exchange teacher in Hawaii last year, has loaned many interesting tropical recipes, and Mrs. Jack Gates and her committee are building the entire evening's food, fun and festivity around a theme of the islands.

8 p.m., Wednesday, February 16, Susannah Wesley group, in the home of Mrs. R. R. Fleming, 5527 Courville, with Mrs. Owen Middleton and Mrs. James Everett, III, as hostesses.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

We've been hearing all kinds of merry stories concerning the recent Motorama crowd which flocked to New York City . . . For instance there's the one about the three local gentlemen who were having dinner at one of the newest Chinese restaurants. One was so smitten with the beautiful Chinese girl who was their waitress that he announced to his companions, "I'm going to date that girl!" and proceeded to do so. The date arranged, his friends asked him where he was going to take her. "Well, that does pose a slight problem," he said. "It's a little embarrassing." One of his pals came-up with a neat solution, "Why don't you take her to the Colony? They'll think she's one of the Soong sisters."

Now You See Them

No sooner was Mary Louise Fitzsimons home from a three week junket to California, Mexico City and Acapulco, than she set right out again. Last week she, with Joan Shea and Jean Stallone, took off for a week at Boyne Mountain and plenty of skiing. In the meantime, May Lou's parents, the Frank E. Fitzsimons are in the final stages of their own travel plans. They sail on April 23 for Naples (they'll just miss daughter, Kathleen, who will be spending April in Italy). Kathleen skied the Austrian Alps during her Christmas vacation. The young lady, you know, is attending University of Vienna this year and her life is right out of fairy wing stuff. At the end of the school year, she goes to Spain for a month and the middle of July will arrive in France, remaining until mid-August when she sails for home from Cobh, Ireland. The Fitzsimons will really have a Reunion in Vienna when they visit Kathleen in May.

Now You Don't

While the Wallace Temples and daughter Karen (taking time out from her studies at Wellesley) are girdling the globe, their home is being occupied by their friends, the Kendrick Reeds. Theirs is another of those trips we hate to think about, it's so exotic and of such nice, long duration. Want to envy? Well, just sit back close your eyes and listen: First, they left yesterday for Bermuda and after pausing there will go on to Portugal, where in Esotril (the fashionable suburb of Lisbon, giving Monte Carlo a lot of competition with European society including the Count of Barcelona and the Archduke and Duchess of Austria) they will visit their friends, the Robert Dunns.

Oh for . . .

In Madrid, they have a date with the J. Rodrigo Asturias, whom they met four years ago at the Lido in Venice and with whom they have corresponded ever since. They will spend a fortnight touring Southern Spain and then plan to fly from Gibraltar to Tangiers. They return to Madrid and fly to Rome, Athens, Istanbul, Bayreuth where they'll see their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Binkle who used to live in Birmingham, Mich. There'll be travel to Danascus, Jerusalem, Cairo, Luxor and the Valley of the Kings. Another plane will pick them up

Hollerbach-Fritz Rites Are Held at St. Clare

Muriel Hollerbach, Daughter of the Aloys Hollerbachs Weds Raymond Fritz at Morning Ceremony; Her parents Hosts at Reception in the Detroit Yacht Club

At a 10 o'clock mass in St. Clare de Montefalco Church, the former Muriel Hollerbach became the bride of Raymond Fritz last Saturday.

The Rev. Father J. R. Collins officiated at the ceremony following which guests attended a breakfast reception at the Detroit Yacht Club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aloys C. Hollerbach, of Whittier road, and Mr. Fritz is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford E. Fritz of East Lewiston road, Ferndale.

Muriel was gownned in pure white Chantilly lace and tulle, the sculptured bodice having deep yoke of illusion ending in tiny turn down collar at the neckline.

The skirt of the bridal dress was very bouffant and swept into a graceful chapel train. Her veil of imported silk illusion, fell fingertip length.

In the bridal bouquet were white carnations, surrounding a white orchid.

The attendants were gownned alike in coralberry crystalette opera length frocks trimmed in matching velvet. The velvet touched the necklines of the dresses and then, in back, formed a deep inverted pleat from neckline to hem.

On their heads were bands of coralberry velvet leaves and they carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and ivy, tied in silver bows.

Lorraine Dettloff was her cousin's maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Marilyn Juif and Dawn Baker.

The bride's brother, James Hollerbach, assisted the bridegroom as best man and seating the guests were ushers Edmund Fritz and Gerald Hollerbach, also brothers of Raymond and Lorraine.

French blue lace and tulle fashioned the gown worn by the mother of the bride, who affected a small matching hat. She pinned a white orchid to her gown.

Mrs. Fritz was in rose beige taffeta, matching lace medallions were used on the opera length skirt, and her flowers, also, were white orchids.

The new Mrs. Fritz' going away costume was a gray wool flannel suit worn with white crepe de chine blouse and small white chapeau, saucily trimmed with a single white rosebud in the very front.

They will make their home in Hazelridge avenue, Detroit, when they return from their wedding trip.

Donations are $1.50 for adults and 50 cents for children. Patrons are urged to use the Coplin avenue entrance. There is ample parking space at the rear of the school for those who drive.

Any of the following members of the Auxiliary may be contacted for reservations: Chairman, Mrs. E. C. MacKenzie, VA. 2-2770; and co-chairmen: Mrs. V. P. Johnson, VA. 2-3636; Mrs. Edward Maloney, VA. 4-0214; Mrs. S. E. Downing, VA. 4-3612; Mrs. E. Couturier, VA. 1-2250; Mrs. P. Crossen, ED. 1-1257; and Mrs. C. McCann, ED. 1-2057.

The Auxiliary extends an invitation to everyone to come and enjoy this golden pancake supper as a pre-Lenten festivity.

Son's Nuptials Take Scherers to Dayton

Robert P. Scherer Family, of Lake Shore Road, Leaving to Attend Feb. 19 Marriage of Son, Robert Jr. to Mary Lee Marshall in Dayton

The Robert P. Scherer family, of Lake Shore road, really will be arriving from a number of directions when they get into Dayton, O. on Feb. 18, to attend the following day the wedding of son Robert Scherer Jr. and Mary Lee Marshall.

Josephine Scherer returned from travel in the Caribbean this week (she's been with Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Pay for a winter whirl). She'll be a bridesmaid in the wedding.

The senior Scherers—what with a December debut and a February wedding in the family—have stayed fairly close to home for them and will be going to Dayton from the Pointe. The bridegroom will travel from Fort Sill, Okla. to his wedding.

Son John will come down from his studies at the Choate School and will serve as an usher in the wedding party. Debutante Karla, arrives from Wellesley College, to be a bridesmaid.

The ceremony takes place on Saturday evening, Feb. 19 in Dayton's Westminster Presbyterian Church, to be followed by a reception given at the Van Cleve Hotel by the parents of the bride-elect, Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Marshall III.

As soon as the Scherers arrive they will be guests at the brunch for the bridal pair and out of town guests given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert J. Elder at the Morain Country Club. The rehearsal dinner, which the Scherers are giving, is the same evening at

Boat Club Holds Ball on Feb. 12

The beautifully redecorated Detroit Boat Club will hold its annual Snow Ball on Saturday, Feb. 12. Chairman for the event will be Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth W. Allison, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. Leisinger, the Roy C. Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Cook, and Mr. and Mrs. Selmer D. Sands.

In the ballroom of the club, sparkling with the "Winter Wonderland" theme of the Snow Ball, the guests will dance to the melodious Jack Quale orchestra. In the new cocktail lounge (new in the fact that it has doubled in size with the addition of a handsome room, complete with three huge picture windows affording the guests a magnificent view of the Detroit river, the stars and the city's skyline) the Ken Shook Trio will provide the music.

Among the many who have made reservations for this extremely popular party are: the Daniel Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. Earl G. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Schmidt, Mr. and Mrs. William B. Bowman, the Edwin Taylors, Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon L. Drennan, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred F. Howard, the Don Millers and Dr. and Mrs. J. Donald Mabley.

The pre-ball cocktail parties will be numerous. Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Wilton will host the Bruce N. Tappan, Mr. and Mrs. Harry M. Sisson, the Winfield Jewells, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore L. Sedwick, Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. DeHart, the Frank Munte, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Guler, and the Herbert Pochles of Ann Arbor.

The Frank Reids will entertain the board of directors of the Boat Club, including Dr. and Mrs. Lloyd B. Young (Dr. Young is president of the DBC), Mr. and Mrs. Herbert N. Bumpus, the A. John Cuttings, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Gildner, the Donald K. Tylers, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Mullen, the Harold Waldos and Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Hamman of Lochmoor Boulevard will attend the ball with their weekend houseguests, Mr. and Mrs. V. Thiers Hamman of Springfield, Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Olsen of Cerro Gordo, Illinois, and the T. Ralph Hammans of Royal Oak.

This annual "get-together" at "Snow Ball Time" is fast becoming a tradition with the Hammans.

The end of January marked the end of the winter holiday for MR. and MRS. HUGH A. WICHERT, of Harcourt road, who were at the Carlton House in Nassau.

Mrs. Clarence W. Guy

NORMA DE CLERCQ became the bride of Clarence W. Guy at a ceremony on Saturday, January 29, in St. Clare of Montefalco Church.

Norma is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Emiel De Clercq of Notre Dame avenue.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. Clarence R. Guy of South Dakota.

Father Collins officiated at the double ring ceremony which was followed by a reception at the Roosevelt Memorial Hall on Cadieux road.

Norma wore a white satin floor length gown trimmed with white chantilly lace. The train and veil were also of chantilly lace.

She carried white carnations and white mums.

Mrs. Emiel De Clercq wore an orchid corsage on her gray silk suit.

Sylvia Laps was maid of honor, and Marjorie Ruel and Sharon De Vos were bridesmaids dressed in floor length pastel taffeta gowns.

The flower girl was Norene Ruel, wearing a white taffeta floor length gown.

Valery Jaspers was best man. The ushers were Joe Herhager and Edwin Van Huysse.

The ring bearers were Jimmy Minne and Danny Lutey.

Club to Host Center Seniors

Senior Day at the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club will be Wednesday, February 16, when members of the Senior Group of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center will be guests of the Woman's Club for tea at 1 o'clock, followed by a program, "The Presidents' Wives in the Whitehouse."

The speaker for the day will be Mrs. D. Dwight Struthers, a resident of Grosse Pointe. For many years Mrs. Struthers has been gathering material and information on the early days of the White House and its occupants.

In her lecture next Wednesday she will present the first 50 years (1800-1850) of this most fascinating and picturesque home in America.

She will tell of the architectural development of the house itself, the type of furnishings, the personalities of the Presidents and their First Ladies, and will recount many amusing incidents of each administration.

Mrs. Russell E. Smith and her hospitality committee will be in the foyer of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center to greet members and guests.

Mrs. Horace Carpenter, Jr., will preside at the tea hour, and Mrs. Ernest Scherer will introduce the speaker.

Red Cross Recruiting Women for Far East

The Detroit Chapter of the American Red Cross today announced an urgent need for women clubmobile workers in the Far East.

Applicants must be between the ages of 23 and 30, single and physically fit. College graduates with experience or training in recreational work, group leadership or related fields are preferred. Special training is given selectees before they are sent overseas.

Clubmobile workers are brought to military personnel stationed in remote areas of the world as well as to men in permanent military installations. At times they are the servicemen's only link with activities they enjoyed at home.

Prospective applicants are asked to contact Mrs. Eelen Benford, Director Home Service department, at Woodward 1-3900, extension 146-7, for additional information.

The Social Spotlight Turns to Betrothals

Sara Elizabeth Martz to Wed Paul E. Ruedemann This Summer; Suzanne Kottenstette To Be June Bride of Dr. Joos; Luncheon Honors Jean Corbett

The past week-end brought a flurry of engagement news to the Pointe, proving again that diamonds bloom well near Valentine's Day.

At a family dinner party in their home on Chalfonte avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Martz announced the engagement of their daughter, Sara Elizabeth, to Paul E. Ruedemann.

The bridegroom-elect is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Albert D. Ruedemann of Three Mile drive.

Here for the announcement dinner were Paul's brother-in-law and sister, Lieut. and Mrs. Michael R. Forbush who are en route to the lieutenant's new post at Colorado Springs. They have been living in Fort Belvoir, Va.

An early summer wedding is being planned by the young couple. The bride-elect is a graduate of Grosse Pointe Country Day School and Marjorie Webster Junior College.

Paul's schools were Lawrenceville and Phillips College. He is a member of Phi Sigma Kappa.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Kottenstette, of Harvard road, chose a Sunday cocktail party for the announcement of their daughter, Suzanne, to Dr. Joos.

Dr. Joos is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Joos of Bishop road. Suzanne studied at Convent of the Sacred Heart, Grosse Pointe and Marymount College, Tarrytown, N.Y.

Her fiancé is a graduate of the University of Michigan Medical School.

They will be married on June 11 at St. Clare, de Montefalco Church.

When, a Spring bride-elect jotted down her very first pre-nuptial party in her engagement book this week.

She is Jean Corbett, daughter of Mrs. John J. Corbett, of Merriweather road, who'll be married to Thomas, Auch, son of the Frederick Auch of Buckingham road.

The party, a luncheon and miscellaneous shower, will take place at the Detroit Boat Club next Wednesday.

Joining as hostesses for the occasion will be Mrs. Watson Beach, Mrs. Clifford B. P. Lorange, Mrs. Ray Friel and Mrs. Edward Harrigan.

Mercy College to Hold Annual Splash Party

League Studying County System

"A study of the county system of government, using Wayne County as basis" is the discussion topic at the various Unit meetings of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters in February.

County organization has been called the "dark continent" of American government, for on the one hand very little is generally known about county administration, and on the other hand, there have been very few changes in form or operation in the decades since it was instituted.

As the population has grown and as the problems of administration and legislation have increased and shifted so has the need for consideration and study of the efficiency of the system, the league believes.

At the February Units the committee studying Wayne County government will present a panel program outlining the important departments and the basic functions of Wayne County administration.

Interested women in the community are invited to attend any of the following meetings:

February 16, 1-3 p.m. Hostess and Unit Leader — Mrs. Whitney Collins, 254 Hillcrest.

8-10 p.m. Hostess and Unit Leader — Mrs. William A. Durbin, 1226 Whittier.

February 21, 10-12 a.m. Hostess — Mrs. Frederick Schumann, 1100 Devonshire.

8-10 p.m. Hostess and Unit Leader — Mrs. H. G. Nelson, 706 University.

February 22, 1-3 p.m. Hostess and Unit Leader — Mrs. Clarence Davies, 19291 Linville.

February 23, 1-3 p.m. Hostess — Miss Melville Collinson, 704 Westchester.

Prospective members are invited to call Mrs. Porter Strother, VA. 2-8887.

From Another Pointe of View

at Bayreuth for their trip to Bombay, Delhi, Benares, Calcutta and a look-see at the Taj Mahal.

A Ticket

One of the high spots will be the Temples' arrival in Thailand where they have been invited to visit Crown Prince Wan Waithayakon of Siam. The Prince's daughter, Wiwan Worawan (who was on the cover of Life not long ago) and Karen are classmates at Wellesley. The Prince is the foreign minister of Thailand and was his country's delegate to the United Nations. The magic carpet gets going again to carry the travelers to Japan for three weeks, Hongkong for another week and then on to Hawaii. At this point Mr. Temple will return to the Pointe but his gals mean to make it a more leisurely home-coming. They will visit friends in San Diego, San Francisco and Los Angeles before heading for the Pointe.

To Anywhere

Every other year or so, the traveling Temples break forth with an itinerary of this proportion! It was Europe in '50 and '51, South America in '52 and Hawaii in '49, to go back just a few years. Before their departure for the trip, many parties feted the Temples. On Sunday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Neff were their hosts at a bon voyage dinner in their Lincoln road home. The Ben W. Beyers feted them at a dinner on Saturday evening and others who were their hosts were: Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Wertz who entertained at a brunch in their Balfour road home; the Harold W. Merrills of Stanton lane, who gave a dinner party; the W. Merrills of Stanton, who gave a dinner; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Curtis, of Rivard boulevard, who entertained at the University Club, and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Patton, of Bedford court, also dinner party hosts. Before their New York departure, the trio had a reunion with former Pointers, Mr. and Mrs. Sabin Crocker at their home in Jackson Heights, Long Island. All right. Open your eyes now—to reality. And chin up! We're here, too.

Only Car at its Price*... So Smart! So Big! So Powerful!

*You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars!

Whatever you want most in a car—beauty, size or performance—you get it in extra measure in a Pontiac.

For example, take Pontiac's distinctive smartness. Pontiac is the one car that stands apart from all the others.

If it's size and big-car sure-footedness you want—Pontiac's your car! Pontiac's long wheelbase is the plus wheelbase that provides the roominess, the comfort, the satisfying road-hugging security that only a big car can supply.

As for performance—once you get behind the wheel you have all the proof you need that Pontiac is way ahead in this department, too. Pontiac's spectacular performance starts with the most modern engine of all—the powerful new Strato-Streak V-8—specifically designed for Pontiac's all-new chassis to give you balanced performance. That means smooth, eager getaway in traffic; power to spare on the open road; and even more of Pontiac's traditional economy, dependability and long life.

All this adds up to a wonderful car and—with Pontiac's remarkably low price tag—a very wonderful buy. Come in soon and talk dollars and cents. If you're in the market for any new car, you'll discover you can easily afford all the pride and pleasure of a big, powerful, luxury-loaded Pontiac.

TWIN-STREAK STYLING

Pontiac's twin-streak front-end beauty is only a hint of its year-wise Vogue Two-Tone colors with luxurious interior fabrics and appointments.

STRATO-STREAK V-8 POWER

Here is the most modern engine on the road, a compact, beautifully designed power plant that gives you spectacular performance at all speeds—for years to come!

Exchange Club Cooperating In Crime Prevention Week

The Grosse Pointe Exchange Club is cooperating in the eighth annual observance of National Crime Prevention Week, February 13-19, it has been announced by Robert W. Betzing, president of the Pointe Exchange Club.

Howard C. Neale of 762 Hollywood, has been appointed chairman of the club's committee for the observance. More than 100 posters will be displayed in the business places of the community after distribution by the club members.

A meeting of the club on Tuesday, February 15 is expected to be attended by all five police chiefs of the Pointe, and a discussion is planned on ways to combat juvenile delinquency in the area.

The theme for this year's observance has been provided by J. Edgar Hoover, director of the FBI. It is "Crime Prevention Starts in the High Chair, Not in the Electric Chair."

Approximately one out of every 157 men, women, and children in this country served as a volunteer with the American Red Cross during 1953-54, contributing a total of 19,000,000 man-hours to helping others.

January Health Report Submitted

Communicable diseases reported during the month of January showed that chicken pox is still the number one disease in the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods area, a monthly report presented by Dr. Thomas Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner, revealed.

All told, 32 cases of chicken pox were made known during the past month; 16 in the Woods; seven in the Farms; five in Harper Woods and two in the Park.

Mumps ranked second, with 13 of the 22 cases reported in the Woods. Six were in Harper Woods and three in the Park.

Only three cases of measles were reported, one each in the Park, City and Harper Woods. These three also reported one case each of pneumonia.

Harper Woods reported the only two cases of rheumatic fever, and the Farms the only case of meningitis.

There were only two cases of scarlet fever, one in the Woods and the other in Harper Woods.

Ten animal bites were disclosed for the month of January; five in the Farms, two in the Woods, and one each in the Park, City and Harper Woods.

Building Fund Leaders Picked

Heading the Major Corporations Division of the 16,500,000 Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund Campaign next spring will be Ray R. Eppert, Director and Executive Vice-President of Burrough Corporation.

His appointment as chairman was announced Saturday by E. A. Schirmer, Vice-President of Campbell-Ewald Company and Campaign Chairman, together with six co-chairmen who will assist Mr. Eppert.

The six named are Charles T. Fisher, Jr., Harlow H. Curtice, Henry Ford II, L. L. Colbert, Oscar Webber, and L. C. Goad.

In addition, Mr. Eppert named four men to have charge of as many groups of solicitation teams during the drive. They are John J. Cronin, Allen W. Merrell, Abram Vander Zee, and Donald F. Valley.

Three hundred leading Detroit firms will be included in the Major Corporations Division. The Campaign is being held to obtain funds for the replacement, remodeling, or renovating of the present structures of 45 Detroit human service agencies.

"This one, united drive will eliminate many separate agency campaigns," Mr. Eppert said. "It will save the community tens of millions in dollars by eliminating duplication of agency effort and building."

Mr. Eppert is active in Detroit and Michigan health and welfare affairs. He is a director of United Foundation, United Community Services, Michigan United Health and Welfare Fund, Metropolitan Detroit YWCA, Michigan Society for Mental Health, Detroit Police Foundation, and Harper Hospital. He also is riverfront and parks chairman of the Detroit-Tomorrow Committee.

Men Gardeners Meet Feb. 17

The proper choice and effective use of fertilizers is the topic for the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Men's Garden Club at 8 p.m. in the War Memorial Center on Thursday, February 17.

A profusion of large healthy blossoms in next summer's gardens depends so greatly on this subject which is to be discussed by Phil Savage in an unprejudiced fashion.

How to pick the right fertilizers, what quantities are needed and when applications should be made will be brought out at this meeting. All men of Grosse Pointe interested in improving their gardens are invited to attend.

There will be opportunities for answering specific questions both during the meeting and at the hospitality period that follows.

Marine Pvt. Cottrill At Camp Pendleton

CAMP PENDLETON, Calif. (PHTNC)—Marine Private Gerald M. Cottrill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cottrill of 1030 Wayburn, Grosse Pointe, is scheduled to finish four weeks of individual combat training Feb. 19 at the Marine Corps Base here.

The course of instruction at this huge training base includes the latest infantry tactics, first aid, demolitions, field fortifications, and advanced schooling on weapons.

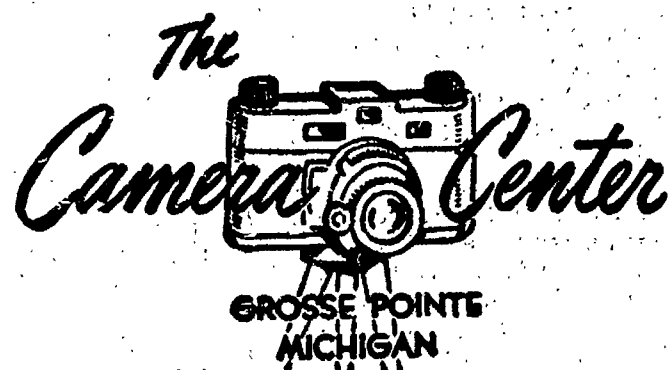

The trainees learn that all Marines are basically infantrymen, whether they serve as cooks, typists, truck drivers, or with aviation units.

The training is given to Marines scheduled for duty overseas and to all graduates of recruit training before they are assigned to new duty stations.

Fluoridation Opponent Replies

To The Editor
The Grosse Pointe News
Dear Sir:

This is a reply to the letter from Dr. Wertheimer, Dental Health officer in the Michigan State Health Dept dated Jan. 25, who, in an article in the Michigan State Dental Journal indulged himself in calling all opponents of fluoridation either crackpots, religious fanatics or those having something else to sell.

I. "Thirty years of careful study" proved that there is no harm from fluoridation. I challenge Dr. Wertheimer to name a single scientific article which appeared before fluoridation started to be promoted in the early forties which showed that fluorine is harmless in any concentration.

II. "Dentists, physicians, biochemists, etc., carried on these studies." To my knowledge there are only two or three physicians and the dental and health officials who frantically attempt to prove that there is no harm. They are not practicing physicians; they are either employed by the U. S. Public Health Service or are receiving research grants from commercial sources for the purpose of proving a particular point.

III. "At the safe concentration, fluorine produces no objectionable mottling." As a matter of fact, the terms "objectionable" and "unobjectionable" have been introduced into this argument for political purposes, only, in order to promote fluoridation. A high percentage of mottling is being classified as unobjectionable without the slightest scientific basis. Dental authorities not influenced by politics consider mottling, no matter how slight, a disease process, permanent and irreparable.

After seven years of fluoridation in Cheboygan, Wisconsin, C. F. Brehmer (D.D.S.) stated in the November, 1953, issue of the Journal of the American Dental Association: "It (mottling) is not pretty. From where I stand (at the dental chair) it is all I can see. If fluoride has an accumulative quality within the body (this is definitely established) then I don't see the half of it."

IV. I challenge Dr. Wertheimer to produce a single article attempting to prove the safety of fluoridation, which can withstand sound scientific criticism and which is not based on subjective opinions and misinterpretation of data.

V. Dr. Wertheimer states that "no reputable person with the slightest knowledge of chemistry or physiology" opposes fluoridation. Being one of the opponents, I challenge Dr. Wertheimer to name anyone in his department who has contributed as much to the advancement of scientific knowledge as I have in my own specialty as well as in the investigation of fluorine poisoning. Dr. Wertheimer boasts about the twenty-two million who are using fluoridated water but conceals the fact that more than thirty million in about 450 communities have either refused it or have thrown it out after having had it in the water. Many foreign countries are now vehemently resisting the pressures of our Public Health Service officials who attempt to sell them fluoridation; incidentally at the U. S. taxpayers expense.

VII. Among endorsing societies, Dr. Wertheimer no longer includes the American Medical Association. Its "in principle" endorsement has just been clarified as a political compromise in the January issue of the National Fluoridation News. It has been responsible for the purely political endorsements of fluoridation by many state and county medical societies. Most scientifically minded members of the medical profession, when privately interviewed, do not share the views of their political leaders. However, they are not sufficiently interested in the project to express themselves nor do they care to go against group thinking.

Even they are not yet aware of the far reaching danger of this project because all factual information against it has been suppressed in medical societies and in medical journals. To exemplify, I just met a leading physician from an artificially fluoridated Florida town who has been suffering from spinal damage, arthritis, beginning brain changes and stomach pain. His symptoms were relieved during a few days' sojourn in New York in spite of cold and rainy weather which in Florida had usually aggravated his trouble. This physician knew nothing whatsoever of fluorine poisoning. It is quite likely that he is only one of the many victims of this new disease whose cases are not being diagnosed correctly.

Because of the multiple endorsements by such an impressive array of scientific groups, each echoing the other's opinion and no one examining the facts on their own, a peculiar situation will soon arise in this country. Through information being circulated in the newly founded "National Fluoridation News" patients will soon become aware of this disease long before their own physicians have a chance to study it through conventional channels.

May I suggest to Dr. Wertheimer that he and his colleagues in the Michigan State Health Department make a trip to Saginaw where they will find many cases of poisoning additional to those which I have described.
George L. Waldbott, M.D.

Explains Why Science Group Lends Support to Fluoridation

By Wayne Donaldson

(Mr. Donaldson is a biochemist employed by a local pharmaceutical manufacturer, but he wishes it understood that the opinions expressed here are his own.)

The partial prevention of dental decay by means of water-borne fluoride is now a demonstrated fact. The mass of scientific evidence demonstrating this fact, and the clear safety of water fluoridation, is summarized in a monograph recently published by the American Association for the Advancement of Science, a hundred-year-old organization with some 33,000 members.

This book, "Fluoridation As a Public Health Measure," reports the third of a series of symposia on the subject, and it cites 459 scientific publications. Examination of this sort of book should make it clear why scientific support for water fluoridation is not to be found usually in newspaper columns.

To satisfy scientific standards requires such a mass of accumulated case histories, tabular and graphical summaries, statistical analyses, and cited authorities, that newspapers ordinarily cannot spare the space for proper presentation. Furthermore, the best scientific workers are loathe to make public statements without this kind of support; and, though it may be an unfortunate thing, they may prefer to be judged by their scientific publications and make no public statement.

It can frequently be seen that persons who are less concerned with scientific caution are less reluctant to make undocumented

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

Believe us; it is not easy to put this true story on paper, but since we can hardly recite it in the public square, you will just have to plow through it here and use your imagination. The nice woman who called to tell us about it sez she was there when it happen.

The scene is a party night at a local club. Everyone and his grandfather are there having a wingding. The bar is crowded and noisy and as usual no one is noticing anything except his or her own voice. Finally dinner is served, so they all troop into the dining room. One woman guest, the wife of the local bank president, is powdering her nose as the others leave, so when she emerges from the vanity room, she goes back to the bar for one quick one before having dinner. The bar is empty except for a lone man behind the bar who is in the process of putting some ice in a drink.

She hails him with: "Bartender, will you please fix me a very short scotch and soda, I'm a little behind the others." She smiles at him brightly... such a nice looking young man. He fixes her drink... which she downs hastily before leaving to join the others... calling to him over her shoulder, "You sign a check for me, I'm Mrs. Whatzis."

Chapter Two. MUCH, much later in the evening, while the musicians are taking five for a cigaret... someone starts to play the piano. No one pays much attention, until suddenly a gradual hush comes over the room as the pianist shows an unusual talent for classical music. Our little heroine, Mrs. Whatzis, looks up from her drink and exclaims to the people around her, "Why, THAT'S the bartender!" And indeed it was the young man who had fixed her last drink before dinner.

No one at the table knew him nor indeed had any of them noticed him before. When he seemed about to leave the piano, a great group of guests called out "more, more." The man sat down again and obliged with further music. By this time Mrs. Whatzis was so alcoholically impressed with our hero that she decided to do something about it.

She whispered to her husband that the poor boy should study... he was much too great an artist to be tending bar and by George she was going to take up a collection for him... and furthermore, what was he President of the bank for if he couldn't arrange a loan for so deserving a talent.

He was her discovery... and she was going to revolutionize his life. As he left the piano for the second and last time, Mrs. Whatzis sallied over to him and handing him a piece of paper, she said: "This is my name and address. My husband and I want you to call on us tomorrow between 5 and 6 in the afternoon."

Then she wagged her finger at him and added, "Don't you fail us now and don't be nervous. We are very democratic people and we want to do something nice for you." Then she ambled off, feeling real good down inside, just like a Girl Scout.

Sure enough and true to her word, she haggled her husband the next day to call the chairman of the board of the bank to see what could be done. Husband dear explained to his friend that the boy was a bartender but he did have extraordinary talent, and couldn't something be arranged to send him to music school? The mildly interested chairman said perhaps something could be done... so they invited him to come at 5 and meet the boy.

Right on the nose of 5 the three most interested people are sitting over their highballs discussing how they would broach this great big surprise to the bartender... when he walked up the lane to the front door and rang the bell. As the proud Mrs. Whatzis ushered him into the room, the chairman of the board looked up and said, "Son, what are YOU doing here? I didn't know you knew the Whatzises!"

There were TWO open mouths that haven't closed yet, as far as we know. Our helpful heroine sat there feeling like a danged fool as the case of mistaken identity poured forth. It seems that sonny boy had been in Europe for years... since right after he left college, in fact... and had not only studied there but had played many concerts.

He had JUST returned to town the night before and had stopped in the club with a couple of friends. When Mrs. W. saw him behind the bar he was merely getting a little ice for his drink and since she chose to mistake him for a bartender, he thought he'd let it go at that and see what happened.

He saw!

Joseph DeGrimme, to whom more things happen than DON'T... has got himself a new car with cooling system yet. One day last week, after he had just received delivery on the car, he had the pleasant opportunity to drive a friend home and show off. It was about 10 above at the time and the friend lives a good piece out in the country. After they got under way, with heater going full blast, Joe asked the man if he wouldn't like to see what the cooling system was like. He could turn it off right away as soon as they tried it out.

His companion was agreeable, so Joseph turned the cooler on and is happy to report that it REALLY cools. The only catch was that Mr. DeG. found he couldn't turn it off... so they sat in frozen silence for the half hour drive... and Joe in lonely and cold silence on the drive back home. He had to open the window to warm the car up a bit, and wasn't cheered by his friends parting words: "I wasn't this cold when I was a prisoner in Siberia."

Edison Evening Hours Popular

Four months' operation under a new system of "open hours" for Detroit Edison offices is proving the popularity of this convenience, according to Maynard H. Fleming, local manager.

Twenty-six offices, in major shopping centers in and surrounding Detroit, including the office at 17037 Kercheval, Grosse Pointe, are open Friday evenings until 8 o'clock. One office, on Michigan boulevard in downtown Detroit, is open until 2 p. on Mondays.

That office has the largest number of transactions during the evening hours, but percentage-wise there are smaller offices that prove more popular.

When Children Wont Eat

By FRED M. KOPP, R.P.H.

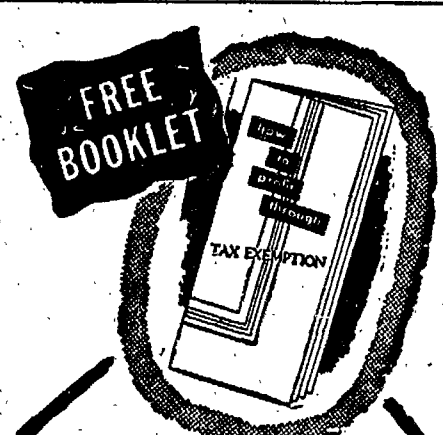

Few doctors advocate forcing a child to eat. Still there are minimum requirements of certain foods that must be consumed daily if the child is to grow and be healthy.

When your children by-pass all your schemes to get those necessary vitamins into their systems daily, the best thing to do is consult your doctor. There are many drug forms of food chemicals which will adequately make up the deficiency.

If your doctor prescribes one or more it will be to your advantage to secure them from a quality pharmacist.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

How many of the notable books of 1954, have you read? Below is a partial record of the list prepared by a Public Libraries Committee of the American Library Association.

The basis for final selection depend on the majority votes of 79 participating libraries plus the opinions of the committee. These books were selected "in terms of quality, authenticity, honesty of purpose and potential contribution to the resources of the reader as a citizen and as an individual."

Grace W. Gilman, chairman of the Committee says "There was no attempt to select a balanced list, clearly evidenced in the lack of any poetry, drama, or 'pure fun'."

THE DOLLMAKER by Harriette Arnow. "In this powerful novel, a simple Kentucky woman with a talent for carving, brings faith and courage as a shield of protection for her family in the tragic living conditions of wartime Detroit."

GOD'S COUNTRY AND MINE by Jacques M. Barzun. "A Frenchman writes of his adopted country. In his discussion of why this is God's country, he tells with humor and perception what is right and not right with American life. A frank, friendly and always challenging criticism."

VIEW FROM POMPEY'S HEAD by Hamilton Basso. "Pompey's Head is more than a tradition steeped Southern town. It is a way of life and thinking. A New York lawyer returned to this home of his youth on a difficult mission. He leaves it with added maturity. A deft, satiric novel of the complexities of character of a man and a community."

AMBASSADOR'S REPORT by Chester Bowles. "The author's experiences as Ambassador to India from 1951 to 1953. Notable for his discerning and sympathetic portrayal of India's complex problems. A statesmanlike book and highly readable."

MY SEVERAL WORDS by Pearl Buck. "The personal record of a life divided between Asia and America provides a revealing study of the friendships and misunderstandings between the East and the West."

OLD COUNTRY STORE by Gerald Carson. "Americana of the first order. Sociological and historical research go hand in hand with folklore and humor in this chronicle of a uniquely American institution."

U. S. GRANT AND THE AMERICAN MILITARY TRADITION by Bruce Catton. "An authority on the Civil War period writes eloquently of Grant as man, soldier, and President."

BUT WE WERE BORN FREE by Elmer Davis. "With sanity and courage, these essays, by a distinguished radio commentator, analyze the dangers to our freedom inherent in the methods of some who claim to defend it. Written with righteous indignation and a sharp pen."

FALL OF A TITAN by Igor Gouzenko. "A novel about the eternal struggle between man's potentialities for good and evil, placed with compelling plausibility in our time and in a country where terror and injustice are official. Told by one acquainted with the setting."

SONG OF THE SKY by Guy Murchie. "Our world of air and sound and flight told in terms of man's progress in transportation and communication. It is science and history and adventure combined with poetic writing to make one of the most absorbing books of the year."

THE JOURNEY by Lillian Smith. "Author's spiritual journey into the past and the significance of what she learned described with feeling and insight."

SECOND THREE FROM THE CORNER by Elwyn B. White. "A whimsical miscellany of essays and sketches by one of the outstanding humorists of our day. Space permits us to mention only one-third of the 1954 Notable Book List but the complete list is available at your library. It pleased us to find that every 'notable book' was already on the library shelves."

public pronouncements on scientific matters.

Fluoridation Is Effective

From such studies as those described above, medical, dental and public health officials have concluded that fluoride does have an effect in preventing dental decay. Controlled fluoridation of water has the official approval of national and local organizations of physicians, dentists and public health departments.

As of August 12, 1954, 17,943,069 people in 1000 communities were receiving water with fluoride content adjusted as recommended by health authorities. Suitable samples of these were selected for carefully controlled studies by reputable scientific researchers. Surveys were made of dental health before and after fluoridation, compared with conditions in communities already high in fluoride, and controlled with those low in fluoride.

Grand Rapids and Muskegon constitute one test area; others are Brantford-Sarnia, Ontario; Newburgh-Kingston, N. Y.; Madison, Wisconsin; Ottawa, Kansas; Marshall, Texas; and Lewiston, Idaho. The finding is that occurrence of cavities in baby teeth is reduced; that number of cavities in permanent teeth is reduced; and that the number of children with no cavities is increased.

A typical conclusion quoted from the AAAS monograph is that "the recommended increase in fluoride intake during tooth development is more effective in increasing the resistance to tooth decay on a large scale than any other known procedure."

Is Fluoridation a Public Health Matter?

Much can be said, and much has been said, about the steps to be taken in reasoning from acknowledgement of the effectiveness of fluoride up to the point of approving its controlled addition to the public water supply. The desirability of improving dental health should be apparent: Good teeth permit proper chewing and improve the digestion of food. Reduction in the number of cavities to be filled and teeth to be extracted will not only relieve parents of a considerable financial burden, but will alleviate a serious shortage of dentists.

The problem may then be reduced to selection of the best means of providing optimum fluoride intake for growing children. The legal question of the responsibility of the public health department to undertake this task will not be considered here. However, it may be pointed out that fluoridation of water supply (if that be the chosen vehicle) must be a public health matter; and that the clear proof of the effectiveness and safety fluoridation would have been fantastically delayed had not courageous public health departments in early test areas decided to try fluoridation of the water supply.

The collection of the tremendous amount of information which exists today would have been impossible if studies had depended on treatment of volunteers.

Optional Means of Fluoride Treatment

Many have argued that topical application of a fluoride solution to tooth surfaces is a preferred mode of treatment. The advantage is that this is optional: fluoride is supplied only to those individuals who want it. However, the objections are overwhelming.

If fluoride treatment is good, it is good for all children; and we do not have and cannot expect to have sufficient dental manpower to provide this service for all children who should have it. Topical application requires careful preparation of the teeth and protection of the mouth from strong solutions.

Furthermore, there is evidence that systematic administration as in a fluoridated water supply is more effective than topical application. Dr. Zachary M. Stadt in the AAAS monograph says that "the dental benefit to be derived from controlled fluoridation of public water supplies far exceed the best possible results to be expected from topical fluoride applications."

Fluoridized Salt

What about other vehicles for systematic administration of fluoride? Tablets have the danger of overdosage. Addition to dietary components such as milk, flour, and sugar has been considered. But the consumption of these foods varies greatly with individuals. To get a uniform dose of fluoride requires a self-limiting vehicle; and common table salt is such a dietary item.

It is widely used and inexpensive, yet its consumption by an individual varies within narrow limits. This insures an adequate safety factor, because at the proper concentration some 55 pounds of fluoridized table salt would have to be eaten at one time to obtain a fatal dose of fluoride. Clearly impossible.

Thus, fluoridized salt, like iodized salt, would be purchased and consumed only by those who need it. This would avoid the economic waste of fluoridating the whole water supply, when only a very small portion is used for drinking and cooking, and only a fraction of that is consumed by children.

It would avoid the objection of brewers and bakers, who claim that fluoridated water spoils their yeasts. It would make convenient the administration of fluoride in small villages and rural areas which cannot have fluoridated water.

Cites Disadvantage

The disadvantage is precisely that this vehicle is optional. It is not easily subject to regulation. Different areas with less than optimum natural fluoridation of water need different supplements. This situation is best met by scientifically controlled fluoridation of the water supply.

Furthermore, during the continuation of large scale studies of fluoride effects, it is very helpful to be certain that every member of the population being studied is receiving a fairly uniform amount of fluoride. This is more easily assured when water is fluoridated than with any optional vehicle. These considerations argue for continued support of water fluoridation at present in areas where it is possible; with us elsewhere of topical application or an optional vehicle such as table salt.

But Is It Safe?

The main concern of consumers, public health authorities, and research workers for a number of years has been the proof that the recommended fluoride supplementation of the public water supply can be accomplished without endangering the health of any segment of the population. That proof is established by extensive studies covering many years and many thousands of persons. Here are some pertinent facts.

In common with other substances which people eat every day, fluorides can have an undesirable effect if the amount is large enough. Yet no diet consumed by humans is fluoride free. Tea and seafood are relatively good sources. In fact, 10 cups of tea per day or a 10-fold increase in fish consumption would provide the same supplementation provided by one part per million in drinking water.

But this not apt to be helpful to growing children. Nor is it apt to be harmful to adults drinking 10 cups of tea made with water containing one part per million fluoride. The only effect of this slight excess is mottling of tooth enamel in children. Mottled enamel can not be produced in adults.

Bushong to Help MSC Celebrate

EAST LANSING—Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of Schools, Grosse Pointe, will be among the invited guests at Founder's Day ceremonies at Michigan State College, February 12, marking the opening day of M.S.C.'s Centennial year observance.

Michigan State has invited representatives of colleges and universities, learned and professional societies, alumni and business from all over the nation to help start the celebration of its 100th year.

It was on February 12, 1855, that the governor of Michigan signed the legislative act establishing Michigan Agricultural College. The first such college in the nation, M.A.C.—now M.S.C.—became the model for the land-grant college system set up under the Morrill Act in 1862.

Founder's Day initiates a year-long commemoration of this significant event which changed the course of higher education in America.

Events scheduled during the year include the Fall Convocation the week of October 10-14, at which President Dwight D. Eisenhower has been invited to speak; ten educational symposia, and the Centennial of Farm Mechanization, August 15-20.

The principal event of Founder's Day will be the Convocation at 3 p.m. in the College Auditorium with the main address to be delivered by Dr. James B. Conant, U.S. High Commissioner for Germany. During the same program 13 honorary degrees will be conferred.

and when these compounds are used in water fluoridation they yield fluoride ions identical in every respect with those found in natural waters.

Mottled Enamel

While no other systematic effects are noticed with as much as eight times the recommended fluoride intake, it is found that with as little as two times the optimum dose the teeth may show a condition called "mottled enamel." This condition is known to be due to excess fluoride; and it is therefore the most delicate known index of fluorosis.

The severity of mottling is directly related to amount of fluoride excess, and the more severe types involving stained and pitted teeth will not be seen under controlled fluoridation. While mild mottling may be objectionable from the standpoint of appearance, it is pointed out by Dr. Gerald J. Cox that mottled enamel is subject to decay "to a lesser degree than enamel formed in the absence of optimal amount of fluoride."

Center Offering Sculpture Show

On Monday evening, February 21, at 8 o'clock the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association and the Grosse Pointe Artists are co-sponsoring at the Center, 32 Lake Shore, an exhibit and demonstration of sculpturing with commentary by Ferenc Varga, renowned sculptor who fled Budapest in 1948. There is no charge for admission.

Following the demonstration, everyone is invited to participate in a social hour where light refreshments will be served. Mrs. Charles E. Morley, Mrs. Burns Henry Jr., and Mrs. Robert Sucek will serve as hostesses.

Pouring at the tea table will be Mrs. Edwin S. Barbour, Mrs. Francis E. Brossey, Mrs. Theodore R. Butterick Jr., Mrs. John S. Hammond and Mrs. Stephen T. Stackpole.

Mr. Varga is a member of the Hungarian Academy of Arts and Science at the Vatican and is currently engaged on a commission from the Pope.

Included in the exhibit will be portraits, religious subjects and garden figures.

Alexander Sucek will assist Mr. Varga with his commentary. All Grosse Pointers interested in this field of art are urged to attend.

A grain of gaiety seasons everything—Gracian.

St. Paul Flyers Get Back On Winning Trail; Take Two

By Dan Wemhoff

The once-beaten St. Paul Flyers racked up two more victories last week, both by almost identical scores as they trounced St. Martin 61-28, and St. Rose, 62-30.

Jim Ayrault led all point getters in the St. Rose contest with 20 markers.

The Flyers swept into an early lead over St. Rose and never relinquished it. The first period score stood at 15-6 and by half-time it had swelled to 40-9, as great defensive plays, led by Bud Roland and John Wade, stilled the St. Rose attack to three points.

Big Final Quarter
Although the Flyers got off to a slow start in the third quarter by only shoving in four points, they still held a substantial margin going into the final stanza. In that period they dumped in 18 points to complete the onslaught.

Bob Wright wound up with 16 points for the night, all by the field goal variety.

TO Expand Park Little League

Plans for the addition of two new baseball diamonds at Defer Field are announced by the Park Little League.

The new diamonds, placed along the Vernon frontage of the field, will be used for all the league games, while the 1954 diamond will be turned into a practice site.

Under the direction of president E. C. Van Tiem, the league will continue to use a four-team major league. A request for a six-team league was turned down by national officials in Williamsport, Pa.

More players will force two 4-team minor leagues, instead of one six-team league as in 1954. Russ Peebles has been named Minor League Commissioner.

With almost 225 boys expected to participate, this year as compared to 185 in 1954, more money and manpower will be required, Van Tiem said.

Yacht Fleming, treasurer, announced the sponsors committee will be composed of Walter Keenan and Pete Wemhoff. The finance committee chairman is Clayton Aland.

Peebles, as chairman of the constitution committee, stated that the constitution has been revised to conform to Williamsport requests. He also said that school contact and advisory committee would be formed to obtain registration of boys. Peebles cited also the need of 24 men to manage and coach the eight minor league teams.

Keenan as chairman of the managers' committee, announced that George Ewald, Harry Eber, Murray Robertson, and George Schultz have agreed to manage the four minor league teams, although there is still a need for coaches and men to help with player selections.

In closing the meeting, the master calendar was read by Van Tiem and is as follows:
Tuesday, March 8 - General meeting of mothers and fathers.
Monday, April 11 - Registration of boys begins.
Saturday, April 30 - Tryouts begin.
Friday, May 6 - Social Event.
Monday, May 30 - Opening day.

C. G. Auxiliary To Give Course

A 15 week public instruction course will be conducted by Flotilla 1305 of the United States Coast Guard Auxiliary. This was announced this week by Captain James F. Wilkinson of the Windmill Pointe Yacht Club.

The course will be held on Thursday evening, starting February 10, at the Windmill Pointe Yacht Club House, 14490 Riverside drive at the foot of Alver road.

Subjects to be covered by the class are Nautical Language, Elementary Seamanship, Aids to Navigation, Safety in Boating and Rules of the Road.

Capt. Wilkinson urges all outboard motor boat owners, as well as all other power boat operators, to enroll in the course. Outboard motor boats will be included in this year's U.S.C.G.A. courtesy examination of pleasure craft by order of the 9th Coast Guard District.

The course is open to both men and women at no charge. Further information can be obtained by calling VA. 4-9812.

Strong Royal Oak Swimming Team Whips Pointers, 49-35

By John Hammond

Royal Oak's strong swimming squad dunked Grosse Pointe, 49 to 35, in the local pool last Friday. The Acorns are undefeated this season and are the team that handed Fordson its first loss in 33 meets.

A closer meet had been anticipated, but Grosse Pointe was not at full strength. Ace 200-yard freestyler and individual medley man, Brad Boydell, has been on the sick list for several weeks and saw action only in the 100-yard freestyle and speed relay.

Illness Hurts Devils
Several other boys had been ill during the week, accounting for some sub-par performances. The virus bugs seemed to be pulling for the Acorns.

Coach Frank Banach figured that the first two events would be the deciding factor, not only point-wise, but psychologically.

Grosse Pointe's sprinter, Dick Degener, captured first place in the 40-yard freestyle event of Royal Oak's Platt. Ed Nicholson placed third for Grosse Pointe, making the score 6 to 3 in favor of the Blue Devils.

Acorns Slam Next Event
The 100-yard breaststroke was the straw that broke the camel's back. Royal Oak's Liech and Spohn finished one-two ahead of Grosse Pointe's Jim Ketzler. The slam netted the Acorns an 11 to 9 lead which they never relinquished.

Royal Oak's Andy Morrow won the 200-yard freestyle by nearly a pool length in the excellent time of 2:04. The race for second and third in this event went right to the wire. In the last five yards Last of Royal Oak passed Dan Bauer for the second place, giving the Acorns the second slam of the afternoon.

Hammond in Backstroke
Royal Oak's Johnson took the 100-yard backstroke ahead of John Hammond and Bob Guenther, who took second and third for Grosse Pointe. This was the first appearance of Hammond, a former freestyler, as a backstroke.

Brad Boydell didn't look like a sick man in winning the 100-yard freestyle for Grosse Pointe with a fine 58.4 time. Platt and Width took second and third for the Acorns.

Pointer Pete Heustis won the diving with his teammate Dick Staffed taking third. Kelly of Royal Oak, a little fellow, took second. Heustis became eligible for varsity competition this semester after waiting a year for eligibility under Michigan high school athletic rules for transfer students.

Russ Seamen and Andy Morrow slammed the individual medley for Royal Oak far ahead of Joe Braden of Grosse Pointe.

Royal Oak's medley relay team of Johnson, Spohn and Width clinched victory in the meet by defeating the Blue Devil trio of Hammond, Ketzler and Nicholson.

Fordson Here Tomorrow
The Grosse Pointe team will play host to a strong Fordson delegation in the home pool tomorrow at 4 o'clock. The Tractors beat Grosse Pointe, 46 to 38, earlier this season in the Fordson pool. Both teams have been weakened by graduation.

The way things have been going in the Border Cities League, the Devils still stand a chance for a second place tie with Fordson providing they don't taste defeat again in the remaining four meets.

Beat Ferndale, 55-25
On Tuesday of last week they smothered non-league Ferndale, 55 to 25, winning all but one event.

Their league record now stands at 3-3 and their overall record is 6 wins and 3 losses.

SUMMARY
40-yard freestyle: 1st, Degener, Grosse Pointe; 2nd, Platt, Royal Oak; 3rd, Nicholson, Grosse Pointe. Time: 1:18.

Three-Way Tie In Girls' Loop

The St. Paul Jr. Varsity won an important victory over the Dribblers in the Girls' Basketball League at the Neighborhood Club last Thursday, February 3, in a 22 to 15 victory which will give them a stronger hold on second place.

"Hotshot" Hinz continued to lead the Jr. Varsity in high scoring honors, with Martha Hyer and Janet Wesner sharing the Dribblers' honors. At half-time the Varsity held a scant 11 to 9 point lead over the Dribblers. Both teams committed 6 fouls.

In the 7:15 contest, the Streamliners lost a 30 to 8 decision to the mighty St. Paul Sr. Varsity. Little Mary Koinis scored most of the Streamliners' points, with Pat Cavanaugh setting the pace for the Varsity. Half-time score was a one-sided 16 to 2.

This evening, the Jr. Varsity will play the Streamliners, followed by the Dribblers and the Sr. Varsity.

"Peppy" Peplinski, led the Hoppers to a 33 to 21 decision over the WAF's from Seaford Field to put them in a tie for first place. Lt. Bragg led the losers in high scoring. At half time the Hoppers held a 11 to 5 point lead over the WAF's.

The Metropolitan Club and the CYO-A teams played one of their usual close contests and were forced to go into a 3-minute overtime to determine the winner. Mary Preat and Gloria Strelau led the CYO girls to a 30 to 28 victory, with JoAnne Hargis setting Metro's scoring pace. The half-time score was a 13 to 13 tie.

A beautiful layup shot by the most improved player in the league, Mary Preat, gave the CYO-A girls the victory, and put them in a 3-way tie for first place with Metro and the Hoppers.

Devils Come From Behind To Beat Royal Oak, 62-59

"You can get us down but don't count us out." That's what they're saying about Coach Howard Mac-Adam's Blue Devil five these days. Once again Grosse Pointe won a close ball game, coming from behind to do it.

Royal Oak, whom the Devils defeated earlier in the season 62-59, was last Friday's dinner. Grosse Pointe started out in the hole and didn't come up for air until there were only 90 seconds left in the game. The final score was 57-54 with 45 of the Devil's points coming in the last 18 minutes of play.

Blue Devils Trail
At one time the score was 27-11; another time it was 32-21; then the score read Royal Oak 45, Grosse Pointe 36, at the end of the third quarter. With a minute and 50 seconds left it was Royal Oak by a point, 53-52. For the first time in the game Grosse Pointe went into the lead 54-53 with 90 seconds to go.

Dennis (Feed Me Again I'm Hot) McGinty, 6 feet 4, was the big man Friday night. All year "Feed Me Again" has threatened entry into the charmed 20 point circle and against Royal Oak he hit the strings for a solid 23. Seven field goals and nine free throws comprised McGinty's total. Good boy, "Feed Me Again."

Follis Also Stars
Dan (I'm Coming Through) Follis was no slouch himself with 15 points. Follis drove the boards like a professional, picking up five field goals on drive-ins and five free throws besides. Friday, Dan made his first free-throw in 11 attempts.

The game with Royal Oak was a rough one and at times even dirty. The Acorns were still smarting from previous likings in football and basketball and were fanatical in their desire to beat Grosse Pointe.

New Introduction
The first hint of this came during half-time of the Reserve game when Royal Oak's varsity came onto the floor in uniform and practiced their shots for 10 minutes, something rarely done. Also before the game the Royal Oak announcer introduced each player in turn and he came dribbling onto the floor amidst applause and to the tune of "Sweet Georgia Brown."

When the Acorns climbed to their 16-point lead the entire Royal Oak bench, fans and even Coach Don Bray jumped to their feet and shouted "pour it on." Chances are Grosse Pointe will meet Royal Oak again in the regional, giving the Pointers a real opportunity for getting revenge for last year's shocking regional win over Coach Mac-Adams' quintet.

Call Doris Rock Ninth Fastest

Doris Rock, now Mrs. Ramon Klitzke, is listed in the "Amateur Athlete" magazine as the 9th fastest Butterfly breast-stroker in the world.

Last August 1954 she placed four times in the National A.A.U. swimming meet in Indianapolis. She also was on the winning team in the National A.A.U. women's three mile event in the Shakamak swimming, held August 1954.

Doris is a former Grosse Pointe High student and is now attending Indiana University. In 1955, the American Junior Red Cross will send 100,000 gift boxes and 200 cases of school supplies to South Vietnam in Indo-China as part of the relief operations for refugees in that area.

City Glass Team Holds Slim Lead

The City Glass team held on to its one point lead after suffering a three point defeat by the hands of the Hermann five last Thursday night in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League.

Both the Motor City team and Boutin's team gained on the leader by winning three points from their last week's opponents.

The Turner pinmen continued their roll as the league's upsets by dumping the high scoring Miller team for four points.

Individual high scoring honors went to DeWolf with 168, 232, 227 - 627, Boutin 180, 211, 219 - 610, and DeRonne 158, 243, 203 - 604. Other high scores were posted by Curtin 234, Higgins 227, McIlhargie 223, Bell 216, Gross 211, 201, Baetens 211, Warren 209, Palumbo, Valenti 206 Palmer 204, D. Borkowski 202, Borst, VanDe Velde, R. Kehrer 201, and Commun 200.

PTA at Pierce To Meet Feb. 15

The first meeting of the Pierce Parent Teachers' Association in the new semester will be held in the school auditorium on February 15 at 8 p.m.

A short business meeting will be conducted by the president, G. Gordon Cook. The program will feature Edgar E. Willis, Associate Professor of Speech at the University of Michigan. His subject will be "Radio and Television and the Family Life." A question and answer period will follow Mr. Willis's speech.

All rooms in the school will be opened following the auditorium program and the teachers will receive parents. Refreshments will be served in the cafeteria at the close of the evening. All mothers and fathers of Pierce students are encouraged to attend.

Newest Pocket Radio Rivals Dick Tracy's

Don't be startled if you hear a soap opera or symphony program in a pocket or purse. An amazing "West-pocket" radio is now on the market measuring only 3 inches by 4 1/4 inches by 1 1/4 inches, and despite its size, the tone is surprisingly big.

It's made by Regency with those new, tiny transistors you may have heard about—no tubes. Encased in colorful plastic, it fits nicely in a man's pocket or a woman's purse.

And believe it or not, with the aid of a very tiny earphone accessory you can listen to your favorite program privately without bothering anyone a few feet away.

A local merchant, The Camera Center, at 17114 Kercheval, in the Village, has the Regency pocket radio on display.

Cub Scout Pack To Give Show

Dress rehearsal for the Pack 38 Cub Scout Variety show, called "Snips 'n Snails" was held Wednesday night at Parcels Auditorium, in preparation for the big event tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock.

Highlighting the Pack's observance of Boy Scout Week, Feb. 6-12, "Snips 'n Snails" is being presented to raise funds for the purchase of supplies to be used among the 11 Dens.

Bill Raven, producer, and Marilyn Kenney, director, with the cooperation of Art Dlouhy, Chairman, Mike Hanlon, Pack Chairman, and all the Den Mothers and Fathers, have spent many weeks training the Cubs in original sketches and parodies. Well-known TV personalities who will have their counterparts in several skits, include Arthur Clodfrey, played by Ronald Brodowicz of Hunt Club Dr. and Scouts, John Schneider of Balfait, Jim Meininger of Elford court and Bobby Shannon of Van Antwerp.

Announcer is Frank Barresi of Kenmore with Ed Reinhardt of Hunt Club in charge of the Applause Meter. Another famous TV performer will be John Weekly played by John Kennedy of Lochmoor, in the skit called "What's My Alibi?"

The other performers are Dorothy Killquart, Arlene Frank-further, Bennett Surfboard and Steve Almosi, played by Tom Cammarata, Emmett Harrington, Harry Columbo and David Mil-plon. Pat Parker is announcer with Danny Rove as one of the participants.

Mary Raven's Den have had lots of fun planning the Tag Team Wrestling Match. Jim Meech of Hawthorne road is the announcer, with Tom Pettit as Gorgeous Gordan, Terry Raven as Bang, Bang de Wommer, Ronnie Schrage as Bruno, the Bruteous Brute, and Don Cairns as Firecracker. Tommy Raven is referee and Paf, Kingsbury and Andy Connolly are the Billette Glue Blades advertisers.

"Lament of the Den Mothers' Husband" is being sung by Martha Poach's Den and will include such young singers as Joseph Posch, Tom Bridgare, Bryan Unti, Dan Dlouhy, Tim Donahue, John Endres, Fred Martz and Walter Kramer.

Mary Runstadler's Den is singing a number called the "Synco-pated Clock" and in her Den are Ricky Runstadler, John Cairns, Neil Endres, Mark Kieren, Billy Baiocchi, Gary Dlouchy, and Paul and Douglas Winkworth. Connie Hanlon of Kenmore road was able to get expert in-

The sassy set traveling from here to Motorama had such a whirly time, the girls had to send out their evening slippers to be lined with moleskin for a bit of ease on their dancing feet! . . .

Dining Room at the Country Club of Detroit is going to get a face-lift . . .

The dining room recently had a temporary transformation at the wonderful dinner dance which the Arthur Naumans' gave for Sukie Anderson and Harold J. Stenglein. Gilded epergnes were filled with white carnations and set in the center of tables covered by bottle green cloths. (Tables were for six.) Around the room were deep gilt urns filled with the same white and green floral arrangement. Very spiffy.

The Detroit Boat Club is being all prettied up for its re-opening this week-end . . .

And the Detroit Yacht Club is strengthening the quaint and oriental-type, but most distingue, bridge from the main road over the inlet to the club itself . . .

The John W. Hoags, Jr., sent a piece to New Yorker and it's going to be published any day now in the lead column. "Talk of the Town." Concerns a love letter their 10-year-old John received.

We like an earlier yarn Missie H. sent eastward about a relative of hers who attended a performance of Arsenic and Old Lace. Down the aisle a bit was a lady with a bad cough. In the middle of one of the "spells," Mrs. Hoag's aunt dug into her handbag and came up with a lozenge in which she has great faith. Aisle neighbors passed it down to the cougher, who slipped it into her mouth and then gave a grateful bow in aunt's direction.

When the aunt reached home that night, she was "unloading" her purse and discovered she had sent, instead of a lozenge, one of those plant food pills. She immediately called her doctor, explained the situation and asked if there was anything fatal in the pills. Doctor said: "No, although the lady probably won't be greatly benefited from having swallowed the pill. There's quite a bit of arsenic in them."

PILFERINGS

Ring Lardner liked to tell his friends of an eccentric in the Adirondacks who constructed a building entirely of knot holes.

"What kind of holes do you call these?" asked a visiting New Yorker.

"They are knot holes," said the builder.

"Hmmpf," said the New Yorker, "they look like holes to me."

A man received a big check for services rendered, but discovered it was one cent short. A sticker for detail, he insisted that the error be repaired and, in due course, received another check for a single penny.

He presented it for payment at his bank. The teller examined it closely and asked him, "How would you like this, sir? Heads or tails?"

Little Mary woke a candy store proprietor from his afternoon nap and demanded, "A penny's worth of mixed candy."

The proprietor threw her a vanilla and a chocolate caramel and grumbled, "Here, mix them yourself."

A race track habitue told his wife, "The darndest thing happened to me at Jamaica this afternoon. I was bending down to tie my shoe lace and some near-sighted goon strapped a saddle on me."

"What did you do?" asked his wife.

"What could I do?" complained the husband. "I came in third."

A hillbilly and his bride came to Pittsburgh for their honeymoon and bought tickets for the performance of a touring musical show. At the end of the first act, the hillbilly presented himself at the box office and paid $1.40 extra to have his seats changed from the balcony to the orchestra floor. Ten minutes after the second act started, he was back at the box office. "Give me our money back," he demanded. "That's the same bum show that's playing upstairs."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. JOSEPH P. THOMPSON OF HARVARD ROAD

By Jane Schermerhorn

A cemetery is an unlikely place to go when pursuing a hobby but young and lively Mrs. Joseph P. Thompson headed straight for one.

Genealogy took her there and she spent most of last Summer copying from tombstones for her material.

The family was settled at their Devil's Lake cottage. It got to the point where the Thompson children would greet their mother, when she returned of an afternoon with, "Well, what cemeteries did you visit today?"

When all the facts were collected, she wrote them down in narrative form, in a rich red leather manuscript book and then presented them to her great uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Harper of Somerset, Mich. who must have been delighted.

We are delighted to mention that in quest of material, Mrs. Thompson visited the Hudson (Mich.) library and there found stories to interest her in ancient files of the Hudson Gazette, founded in 1858 by this writer's grandfather.

Paul Told Him

Mrs. Thompson, whose home was Somerset until her marriage, was a Rickerd. She learned that her forebears were among Southern Michigan's earliest settlers, arriving around 1841.

Soon she was in possession of material that told of a fifth great grandmother whose husband left for the French and Indian Wars, leaving her alone with a two day old child and a nurse.

An alarm spread through Southern Michigan of home burning by the Indians, the young woman became so frightened, she, the child and nurse, quit the log cabin in which they lived and spent a night in a hay stack.

"You don't set out looking for illustrious relatives," Mrs. Thompson thought aloud to us, "That wasn't my purpose. My family, for the most part, have lived on Michigan farms and their own experiences can be pretty exciting."

"I suppose the only ancestor approaching eminence was one we children always thought was a bit of romanticism on the part of our grandmother. Incidentally, she was a wonderful grandmother and I do believe it was the time I spent with her, as she told me stories and rocked me in her rocking chair, that gave me my earliest interest in family trees."

"Well, grandmother always said it was one of our ancestors who first had received the message from Paul Revere when he set out on his famous ride. Just this week, in a book on the Revolution, I came across a passage which tells of a Col. William Conant being the first to be warned by Paul Revere. And in our family there are Conants. So maybe, my grandmother's story wasn't a bit of embroidery after all."

Rescued Grandma

As she delved into family history, our young researcher learned that in eight generations everyone has 510 ancestors. She can start with two parents and work the whole thing out for you.

Besides old newspaper files and libraries in and about Somerset, Mich., getting the facts required visits to elderly relatives and old family friends, all thoroughly enjoyable. "Biographical" sketches, very much the vogue in the nineteenth century were sometimes helpful but often very sugar-coated.

She found one old darling who was brimming with spicy bits about the family. There was a grandfather, long ago, who enjoyed keeping his wife under thumb. Often he achieved this by a good beating.

"They were a lovely family, now mind you," the old darling would say, "but one of their sons married and moved away to his own farm. In those days, farmers went a long distance to mill and this son Cyrus came by in his wagon, and stopped at his old home one day after he had been to the grainery."

"He found that things at home weren't any better, so he just moved over a sack of grain and put his mother in its place. That was the last time she ever had a beating."

Brave People

Mrs. Thompson suggests "doing" a family tree to the many persons who always have longed to write but who have never seemed to get around to it.

"Your subject has immediate interest for all your family and many of your friends," she said. "History can become a living subject to you and your children, she told us. She's rich with Indian lore and could write a novel on US 112, that highway which was the contributing factor to the settlement of Southern Michigan."

"You will probably find stories of covered wagon immigration . . . hair raisers from the French and Indian War era. Always you will find stories of brave people who sought out the unknown and who have made America great by their struggles for a better life for their children."

Now, as an anniversary present to her own parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rickerd, Mrs. Thompson is working on a Family Tree story that will include histories of both families (the great uncle and aunt are on her father's side of the family).

The Next Genealogy The Rickerds' already have seen the manuscript book which will contain the finished story and you can imagine with what eagerness they are looking forward to the day they can sit down and read it.

Fat black leather loose-leaf notebooks hold pages already filled with material.

And when that genealogy is completed will our engaging Pointer of Interest turn to another hobby?

Indeed not. There is Mr.

Favorite Recipes of People in The Know

LEMON SHERBET

Contributed by Mrs. V. Everett Kinsey

This recipe has double lines drawn under it in Mrs. Kinsey's own Cook Book. That, she says, always means it's something very super.

- 1 c. sugar
- 1 c. milk
- juice, rind 1 lemon
- 1 c. coffee cream

Put sugar into your freezer tray and then add the room-temperature milk. Next stir in the juice and rind of the lemon (if lemon is small, use two). Wait until the mixture looks a little curdly and put in freezing compartment of refrigerator. Turn up to fast freeze.

When the mixture is mushy, take out and beat well in electric mixer. Stir in 1 cup of coffee cream and put back in freezing tray.

Whip several times, in this manner, during the freezing and the big secret is to serve it when the cream is just a little soft.

Thompson's side of the family which came here from County Kerry, Ireland, two generations ago.

By rights, that should take the Thompsons back to Ireland to get first hand data on the Thompsons, the Barlums, the Sullivans and the Falveys, etc. And then here in Detroit, the Thompsons have written deeply and with distinction across our own history page for later chapters.

Many Interests Mrs. Thompson, who is a graduate of Michigan State College, taught history briefly in Clare High School, was an airline hostess (which you might have known—she's so pretty).

She's a member of the League of Women Voters, president of the Detroit Alumnae of Delta Zeta, and a member of the Maire School PTA.

She loves to read and to cook. The family includes the six year old Skippy (Joseph, Jr.) who is six; Rickie (really Rickerd) who is four; and a dazler named Kathleen, just a year old and possessor of a smile that would woo the angels out of heaven!

Pointe Counter Points

by Roberta Isley

A heart is apt to beat faster as one ambles past 73 Kercheval. Maybe that's because one does not have to wait for April showers to get the bi-g variety of violets. These particular violets were grown along the Hudson River. Paselk's match the tempo of Spring in other ways, too. Blossoms s-o-o-o big are on the colorful azalea plants. The seasonable bulb plants could be given some hopeful heart you know come February 14. A pair of kissing angels fashioned of china are custom designed in a myriad of Valentine novelties and can be used as decorative pieces all year. You shouldn't have a heart problem after all this at Arthur Paselk's, Florist.

Hattie Carnegie is really a name in the world of fashion. And in the Pointe Hattie Carnegie originals are exclusive with Walton-Pierce. Here you will find a collection of southbound thoroughbred dresses . . . each one a masterpiece of simplicity and workmanship. Turquoise medallion print is on white silk . . . valentine print cotton in red and white waffle pique . . . full, full skirted bobo print in exquisite handkerchief linen . . . the slimmest navy and white cottons . . . they speak for themselves. This gorgeous collection is currently being shown at Walton-Pierce, Kercheval at St. Clair, in the village.

And what, my pets, are foot headlines made of? Not snakes and snails or puppy dog tails . . . but, color and shape. The shape here is a halter back silhouette. Usually when a lady meets her man she has a terrific crush on him. Guess that will be your fate when you see these beguiling bow strings. They are I. Miller's and quote, "I. Miller's IS a ladies man." The colors are in step with spring . . . red calf . . . carnival calf (soft water colored plaid) . . . brown and beige luster calf . . . black suede . . . or a medium heel in black patent. That's what we said . . . the best approach to Spring is a bow! Jacobson's Shoe Department.

Elizabeth Arden interprets the new look in cosmetics. Christian Dior interprets the new look in clothes. So does Ann Fogarty and Ceil Chapman. But it's Trifari who interprets the new look in jewelry. Trifari jewelry is on display at Pongraz, your jeweler, on the hill. Love the depth of color as shown in the coral and turquoise necklaces with earrings to match. 91 Kercheval.

If they were our slacks or our bermudas we'd do like this. We'd have a long sleeved blouse fashioned of lustrous cotton that looks like it took to soap and water . . . and liked what happened after being fussed over with the iron. We'd tie it at the waist if we're so inclined or let it hang loose . . . popping over. We'd choose one of our favorite designs . . . whether it be walnuts or crazy pianos, because we like the styling and wonderful workmanship. We would buy it at Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Jacqueline Cochran's Flowing Velvet is a flowing fluid cream that you use at night. It disappears into the skin, leaving not a trace of grease on your pillow or on your husband. It is used by day. It sinks in at once below the surface. Even though it moistens your skin you never know it is there . . . so cool . . . but, oh, the beauty of that dewy, cared-for-look! Flowing Velvet is featured at Trail's Pharmacy, on the hill.

The fixtures in the bath probably have color . . . you have more shelf space, good lighting, and to match the tempo of Spring you will be contemplating new color schemes for your bathroom. If so . . . this is definitely for you. Have the courage to mix and match new colors. Milady's shower and window curtains come in gay sunflower, charcoal, pink and top brass hues. They are water and mildew resistant . . . quick drying . . . long wearing. The thread embroidered eyelets are durable and really easier to iron. For just six dollars and ninety-five cents you can have a new shower curtain. Of course, they have to wets to match, at Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village.

The first to be able to show the world's smallest portable radio, is the Camera Center, in the village. It was made by Regency . . . a leader in the field of Hi Fi. It is the first transistor ever built. This is the most recent electronic development for the replacement of old fashioned glass tubes. Consequently all that is necessary is one low cost, long life, hearing aid battery. Carry it in your pocket, your purse, or on your belt. Choose a good color . . . cloud gray, mandarin red, bone white, or black. This IS it! Stop by 1714 Kercheval, for a demonstration.

The first requisite for a heart is that it should beat . . . then after that you must decide . . . is it tender, faint, true, good, passionate, aching, breaking, hopeful? When you know trot to the Dants for a special card . . . they have the kind that is suitable for ANY heart. 88 Kercheval, on the hill.

We're half crazy . . . NOT over the love of you, silly, but the fetching notes. Your own fashion ingenuity will tell you they have excitement . . . that strangeness that something new always has. A huge yellow bag is covered with daisies, strawberries and other posies . . . it is lined in plastic and has a zippered compartment for monies. Another black creation by Jolle . . . the famous bag designer . . . carries a band and at the tip of the fingers are violets that look like they might have been picked by your own hands. These bags, by a famous designer, are featured in Jacobson's Accessory Department, main floor.

That man, Roland Gray, has been spending the last few days in Chicago attending the Sporting Goods Show, Gift Show and Boat Show. And the boys will love the Equipment he has brought back for the Little and Babe Ruth baseball leagues. The Spring and Summer season at Gray's Sport Shop, 106 Kercheval, on the hill, will be brimming over with NEW things.

Didja know that Mr. Charles is new at the Ann-Louise Beauty Salon on Fisher Rd. . . . but that he is an old hand at hair styling? His specialty. And he's good, we're told. TU. 2-7511. 405 Fisher Rd.

V Day can be celebrated in many ways. Here is one way. Florence Gray, 211 Fisher Rd., is featuring GotLam Gold Striped and Hanes Seamless Hosiery. Both are BIG names . . . and she carries all the shades. Then there's dreamy lingerie and terrific (that's the word) bathing suits.

Everything . . . but everything . . . from rings to airplanes can be stored at Wolverine Storage Co. That's the company that can move you ANYWHERE, in real style. Service, in the manner grand, is their business. VA. 2-4540.
