

Mayors Endorse Clean-Up

 the City's Street and Park Maintenance Departments to cooperate fully in a year around maintenance of City property."
Shores Face Big Job
 President Jack Williams of the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores, declared: "We in the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores approach the cleanup campaign this year with a lot more work to do than we usually face in our community."
 "Due to the sewer construction program that has been taking place for the past year and a half and all of the home construction that has been taking place since the sewer has been an actuality, our usually tidy village has some locations where land has settled and where construction has resulted in mud holes and the removal of grass. Some of our home builders seem to be careless and there is debris from their operation that causes unsightliness. Heavy trucks delivering materials cut ruts in our mowed parways and make them difficult to maintain.

 "I have instructed the Village Manager to employ the necessary help to do whatever cleaning of the village is rightfully ours. We also are working with the contractors to have them as quickly as possible restore lawns and fill the settled places along excavations. These will be seeded so that grass will again grow. We expect the builders to cooperate with us and to keep the construction rubbish to a minimum."
 Mayor Wald H. McKnight of Grosse Pointe Woods said: "Our city has spent considerable money cleaning up lots where residents and builders have thrown debris. We will continue to do so annually and periodically for health. We contemplate rigid enforcement against builders who are prone to use other people's property to get rid of junk and tree stumps as we want our Woods to be as clean as it is physically possible to have it.
 "We expect all our residents to cooperate with the city in our effort to keep it healthy, clean and attractive.
 "In the interest of Clean Up and public health, the citizens of Grosse Pointe Woods are installing equipment to dispose of their garbage on their own premises by the use of garbage grinders."

Million Dollar Auditorium Readied for Dedication

 458 students. The girls' locker room is of equal size and like the boys' locker room houses a huge gang shower room, plus three individual showers.
 Besides the regular locker rooms there are accommodations for both varsity and visiting teams in separate locker rooms, which are accessible to the athletic field, as is a smaller ticket booth and a concession room from which goodies can be dispensed during football, baseball, tennis games and track meets.
Drying, Trailing Rooms
 Included in the structure is a drying room with special hangers for football uniforms and a training room in which injured athletes can be treated.
 Storage space was found almost everywhere we looked. For instance there is a tremendous room in which football bleachers can be stored and a concrete ramp allows these to be transported from the gridiron, by truck, right into the storage room.

 A 30 feet by 60 feet long room under the west balcony provides an activity room in which wrestling, boxing and gymnastics will be taught.

Waste Space Utilized
 What, in the original plans, was to be wasted space has been made into one of the most valuable rooms in the building. This is the area between the school proper and the new gymnasium. By covering this area it has become a field room with a dirt and cinder floor of 2800 square feet. In this room there will be ten golf driving nets and archery. The football team will be able to practice blocking and tackling and passing drills during inclement weather. There is sufficient space for the track team to practice starts, run, short sprints and hurdles and high jumping. The baseball team will be able to get in some early spring practice such as pitching, bunting, pepper practice and sliding. Plans are afoot to install a batting net also.

Coaches Get Offices
 The two corridors connecting the new gymnasium to the school provide separate offices for both the girls' and boys' coaching staffs.

Going back to the gymnasium, we ran into Charles Saltzer, assistant principal who was busy figuring out the seating arrangements for the dedication ceremonies. However, he stopped his work to point with pride to the beautiful deep green curtain on the stage, which closes off the band room from the gym. At his direction the workmen drew the curtain to expose the big stage and the various practice rooms, music library, instrument storage rooms and broadcast booth, which are on either side of the stage.

Big Band Room
 Mr. Husband informed us three portable platforms, which will enable the band to be seated in multiple tiers for concerts, are on order. The band room proper is 40 feet by 38 feet which does not include the practice rooms. A large folding soundproof door separates the stage from the gymnasium to enable band practice and recreational activity to be held at the same time.
 As we were leaving Mr. Husband halted in the doorway and pointed to the two electric basketball scoreboards which can be seen from any point in the gym. Then as an afterthought the projection room was remembered and so we trudged up the stairway for a look see. Three 35 millimeter projectors can be set up and Mr. Husband pointed out an important safety factor in the three fireproof metal sliding panels that close automatically in case fire breaks out in the projection booth.

Pointers Can Be Proud
 Truly, Grosse Pointers can be proud of their new auditorium-gymnasium. It's the best in the state and we wouldn't be far wrong in saying the best high school plant in the country.
 It has taken a long time and many many hours of hard work and planning by a small group of tireless, insistent pointers to sell the idea to the community. Of course there are probably some people, who don't have youngsters in school, who figure our new auditorium-gymnasium was an unnecessary expenditure.
 However, the building is available for all affairs and everyone in the community has the right to use it.
 Already plans are being made for the Parochial schools within the Pointe to use the building. St. Paul will play its basketball games there next year if schedules can be juggled to accommodate the Flyers and the Blue Devils without conflict.

 Dedication Week is a must on your calendar. Two programs will highlight the week with Friday, April 15, being reserved for the adult program which will feature Dr. Samuel Brownell as guest speaker. Saturday, April 23, will be the informal program for Pointe youngsters and will be the product of the student planning committee.
 The building will be open for inspection all during the week and it will be well worth the time spent to see for yourself.

Fault-finding would very soon come to an end if every fault-finder could be introduced to his own faults.

Common sense can't be placed in the same class with genius, but it often gets more comfort out of life.

Planning Second Celebrity Series

The second annual Grosse Pointe Celebrity Series will open in the fall with an impressive list of speakers on its program.
 Beginning in October and extending through March, there will be six Thursday morning lectures at 11 o'clock, at the Esquire Theater on Jefferson avenue. Advance ticket sales give every indication that the 1955-56 series will be as successful as last season.
 Celebrities scheduled to appear are: October 6, Fannie Hurst, well known author and one of the great personalities of our time; November 3, Dwight Cook, Ace commentator and discussion chairman for C.E.S.; December 1, the Honorable Ernest Gruening, popular Governor of Alaska from 1938 to 1953, and author of the book, "Alaska and Its Strategic Position."
 January 5, Ivy Baker Priest, Treasurer of the United States; February 2, Norman Nadel, up and coming clever, young dramatic critic, and founder of the Columbus Philharmonic.
 The March 1 program is to be announced.
 A few of the many who plan to attend this popular lecture series are Mrs. Mark C. Stevens, Mrs. George E. Wilcox, Mrs. Glenden H. Roberts, Mrs. Howard Knaggs, Mrs. William Jansen, Mrs. David A. Wallace, Mrs. Charles E. Fisher, Jr., Mrs. W. Harold Lightbody, Mrs. Leet M. Denton and Mrs. George Zimmerman.
 Ticket Chairman, Mrs. Peter Koennig, may be reached at TU. 4-5050.

MAKE 10,406 ARRESTS
 Michigan State Police made 10,406 arrests in February, of which 9,607 were for traffic and motor vehicle violations. The figure does not include 328 juvenile traffic offenders and delinquent and wayward minors.
 Complainants numbered 5,658, and troopers also made 28,089 property and 3,718 liquor inspections. Department vehicles traveled 969,694 miles.

Plan Service For Children

The Ministerial Association of several Grosse Pointe Churches is sponsoring a Good Friday Children's Service in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church on Friday, April 8, from 1 p.m. to 2:30 p.m.

The program has the theme, "The Boyhood of Jesus." The Rev. Robert H. Stanbery, assistant minister, will be in charge of the program this year.

The following churches will have youths participating in this candlelight service: Woods Presbyterian, Grosse Pointe Methodist, First Church of the Brethren, Grace Evangelical and Reformed, Faith Community Church, Bethel Church of the Nazarene, and Emmanuel Evangelical United Brethren.

Arthur A. Sinclair, better known as the chalk man, will tell the story of the Boyhood of Jesus as he sketches his drawings. A movie on the boyhood of Jesus will also be shown.

The Carol and Junior choirs of the "Woods" Presbyterian church will sing the following selections: "The Twenty-third Psalm," "O Savior Sweet," "Tender Shepherd Lead Me," and "Easter Is a Happy Day."

All children from 5-11 years of age are cordially invited to attend the adult service in the Woods theater.

Sewer Project Necessitates Sacrificing Beauty

Trees along Kercheval from Moross Road to Vendome felt the woodsman's ax to make way for the new Vendome area sewer which will run from Lake Shore Road through the Joy estate and connect to sewers at Grosse Pointe boulevard, Kercheval, and Ridge Road. The sewer is being installed to eliminate flooding conditions during rain storms. The overflow during storms will empty into Lake St. Clair at the foot of Kerby Road.

Special Services At St. Michael's

At 10:30 a.m. the boys and girls of the Parish will participate in a devotional service planned especially to teach children the meaning of the Crucifixion and the important part it plays in the story of Christianity.

At 2 p.m. the ancient service of Ante Communion, together with the Veneration of the Cross and The Reproaches, will be sung. This also includes the singing of the Passion of our Lord Jesus Christ according to St. John.

The music is almost entirely Gregorian Plainchant, with the exception of portions by John of Portugal, Tomas Luis Vittoria, and Lvov. The solo parts will be taken by William Y. Gard, director of the choir of St. Michael's; Alan Bodycombe and Homer Fisk.

A & P Works Continually To Keep Customers Happy

"The Village" A & P store will give away 36 giant Easter bunnies Friday evening, April 8. The multi-colored, three foot bunnies commemorate the first anniversary of the super market's extensive remodeling program.

Each visitor to the A & P on Good Friday evening will be given a ticket for a free chance in the bunny raffle. No purchases will be necessary.

The bunny raffle, geared to delight the younger set, will also give the parents a better chance to see the vast improvements made through the remodeling program.

Inaugurated a year ago, the program was designed to coordinate the A & P with the redevelopment of the Kercheval avenue business district.

Incorporating such "firsts" as a rear check out exit, a more extensive off-street parking area complete with a handy change maker for the parking meters, a packaging department whereby the consumer can see first hand the packaging process, the elimination of low temperature meat preparation rooms replaced by the more economical refrigerated trough production line, that allows the consumer to witness the cutting and packaging processes, and an entire self-service meat department, the A & P succeeded in making their store one of the most efficient and convenient in the metropolitan area.

Besides these major improvements, the entire store was revamped to keep up with the increasing popularity of super markets that makes store efficiency and consumer easibility necessary.

"Each improvement we made in our five month program was aimed at giving the shopper the most pleasant, the most efficient and money wise, the most economical super market in the area," said Store Manager D. M. Todd.

"The most marked of the improvements is the rear addition. Allowing more floor space for product merchandising, the addition's most salient feature is the quick and efficient check out area.

"Where before the customer had to walk all the way around the building to get to the rear parking area, he now has a convenient outlet directly onto the parking area," Todd said. "We have found this feature the most popular of the additions."

"We have also had a good many compliments on the change maker installed in the parking area. It allows shoppers caught without change to make change easily, and without a lot of extra steps," Todd said.

The packaging department has been brought before the shopper's eye to dispell any doubt as to the freshness of the produce," Todd explained. "It also keeps the produce, heretofore handled and milled over, fresh and undamaged for the late shopper."

The vast improvements in the merchandising of the meat products are both time-saving for the consumer and more economical for the store. "This economy is, of course, passed on to the consumer," Morris Esse, head of the meat department, said.

The refrigerated, trough production line that was installed as one of the major improvements, brings for the first time the "behind the scenes" meat preparation steps into plain view for the shopper.

"The production line not only speeds up the chore of meat selection and purchase, but it also insures the freshness of product and the care that goes into its preparation, not to speak of the economy the process allows," Esse said.

The elimination of costly low temperature preparation rooms and double handling of the meats allows a lower process cost.

Some of the less obvious improvements the A & P made were: a widening of all the aisles for better accessibility of the merchandise, a building and re-locating of the departments and a speeding up of the check out system, a re-evaluation of merchandising methods and equip-

Measles Season In Full Swing

Many parents are seeing "rose colored spots" before their eyes these days, the Michigan Department of Health said today. The spots are one of the first signs of common measles, being reported at a rate of about 1,000 cases each week.

Based on past experience, the health department says the disease will probably reach a peak toward the end of May, and fall off sharply by the end of June.

Incidents of the disease follow the course of the school year, and can be expected to pick up again by mid-September, according to Dr. F. S. Leeder, director of the health department's division of disease control.

Through the week of March 25, Dr. Leeder said Michigan had recorded nearly 11,000 measles cases, against 11,789 for the same period last year.

"Measles is a serious disease in children under six and most dangerous to children under three and to the child who is suffering from some other disease or recuperating from a recent illness," Dr. Leeder said.

ment replacement such as refrigerated display cases.

"All these improvements, both major and minor, are only temporary, though," said manager Todd. "As we discover new and better methods of merchandising and find improvements that will aid the consumer, so will they be made and our present methods laid aside. Five years ago our store was modern and complete. Today we find new demands. Five years from now our present improvements will themselves be improved upon. A super market is only super when it is up to date and that is A & P's chief aim."

HELP YOUR NEIGHBOR KEEP HIS PROPERTY AS CLEAN AS YOU LIKE TO HAVE HIM KEEP YOURS

Adapted from the "Golden Rule"

Especially avoid throwing litter from cars. Keep a litter bag for such. Deposit at any gas station or in public receptacles. Don't throw litter on the street or walks when you leave stores, theaters or schools. There is a $100 fine for "LITTER BUGS."

To assist you in knowing the rights and obligations of yourself and neighbors, brief comments are being published each week on such ordinances as garbage, rubbish, litter, weeds, signs, dogs, sanitary codes and parking. Watch for—"DO YOU KNOW?"

RUBBISH is defined as miscellaneous waste matter, excluding garbage, incidental to housekeeping.

CONTAINERS should be metal and have cover and handles; not over 20 gallons or 75 pounds when full; G.P. stores 100 pounds. G.P. Park permits burlap bags. Ashes must be kept separate in metal receptacles. Some places allow fixed containers, but only with special permit. Paper bags or any method of containment that permits spreading by wind or dogs is strictly prohibited.

LITTER from gardens must be in containers or tied in bundles, not over 4 feet long. This includes tree limbs. G.P. Farms permits tree limbs up to 8 feet long.

VIOLATIONS should be reported to your local authorities. Do your share to see that laws are enforced.

Shores Building Amendment Brings Sorrow to Builders

The Shores Board of Trustees recently passed an amendment to the Village's building ordinance which requires residential buildings to contain not less than 2,100 square feet. The amendment, passed on March 21, becomes effective on April 12.

The News has received several complaints from builders who appeared to be very unhappy regarding the change.

They said they purchased land and created subdivisions according to an ordinance passed in the summer of 1953, which required residential buildings to contain not less than 1,800 square feet. Now, with the passage of the amendment, the price of new homes will have to be raised approximately $5,000, making sales that much harder.

Watch for Kids During Vacation

With Easter Vacation starting parents were urged by the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit to impress again on their children the dangers of running into the street and to teach them the safe way to cross streets.

"There have been an unusual number of tragic fatalities involving young children recently," the Association said. "In most of them, one fact stands out. The child forgot for a moment and ran into the street in front of an approaching car. It was too late for the driver to stop."

Children will be out of school for the next week or 10 days, the Association said. They will be outside playing most of the time during the day and the possibilities of accidents will be increased.

"Parents must keep repeating and repeating to their young children the safe way to cross the street," the Association said. "Any parent knows that children forget easily, making constant repetition a necessity if the instruction is going to sink in."

Records of the Detroit Police Department show that the Easter Vacation period always shows a sharp upsurge in child accidents. The records also show that running into the street between parked cars accounts for nearly 50 percent of all child pedestrian accidents.

"Last year 861 children under 15 years of age were struck down in Detroit traffic while doing this," the Association said. "That was 49 percent of all the pedestrian accidents involving children."

"If every mother would teach her children to stop at the curb, look both ways, wait until it's safe and then walk across the street, child traffic accidents in Detroit would be cut substantially. Every person would like to see this accomplished. It can be done with greater effort on the part of every mother or father."

St. Paul Church Lists Services

Holy week services at St. Paul Ev. Lutheran Church, Chalfont and Lothrop will begin with a service of Holy Communion to-night, Thursday at 8 o'clock. The theme of the sermon will be "Whence Art Thou?"

The sacrament will be offered again tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. "What I Have Written I Have Written" will be the theme of the sermon.

The annual "Tre-Ore" service will be held Friday, from 12:30-3 p.m. Speaking upon "The Seven Last Words of the Savior from the Cross" will be: Dr. Norman A. Menter, president Michigan District, A.L.C.; Dr. Harold L. Yochum, president, Capital University, Columbus, Ohio; Rev. Reginald Holle, Pastor, Salem Memorial Lutheran Church; Rev. William H. Range, Pastor, Bethel Lutheran Church, St. Clair Shores; Rev. Harry Wolf, Director, Lutheran Charities, Detroit; and the two local pastors, Mr. Eugene W. Bensch and Rev. Charles W. Sandbrook.

There will be special music in each of the seven periods. Worshipers may come and go at their convenience. The community is invited.

A "Tre-Ore" service for children will be conducted in the Fellowship Hall from 12:30-3. Children between the ages of four and twelve will witness the picture "We Beheld His Glory." Children under four will be cared for in the nursery. Refreshments will be served.

There will be an early Easter service at the church at 7 a.m. Breakfast will be served at 8:15 a.m. by the Sunday School staff for all who wish to remain.

Lt. Orville D. Ingalsbe Now Flying in Alaska

EIELSON AIR FORCE BASE, Alaska, 24 March, 1955—Orville D. Ingalsbe, of St. Ignace, Michigan, was recently promoted to the rank of First Lieutenant in the United States Air Force. Lieutenant Ingalsbe, a navigator, is presently stationed with the 58th Weather Reconnaissance Squadron, based at Eielson Air Force Base, Fairbanks, Alaska.

Lieut. Ingalsbe, 24, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ingalsbe, Route Number Two, St. Ignace, Michigan. Prior to entering the Air Force in 1953, he attended Grosse Pointe High School and was later awarded a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from Wayne University. While attending Wayne he was a member of the Arnold Air Society and participated extensively in both swimming and tennis.

Lieut. Ingalsbe was commissioned a Second Lieutenant in 1953 after completing the Air Force's Reserve Officer Training program. He entered the Air Training Command's Observer School, the same year, and was awarded the silver wings of navigator in 1954.

Lieut. Ingalsbe is married to the former Betty Alvona Smith of Houston, Texas. They are presently living in Eielson Base Quarters.

Since his assignment to Alaska in November of last year, Lieut. Ingalsbe has flown over twenty weather reconnaissance missions, as a navigator for the 58th Weather Reconnaissance Squadron.

The 58th is one of six similar squadrons in Air Weather Service, one of the global operations of the famed Military Air Transport Service.

The 58th Squadron has the important mission of collecting valuable in-flight weather information from the North Polar region and the Bering Sea area. In over eight years of Arctic operations the famed "Pole Vaulters" of the Squadron have flown more than 4,000 weather reconnaissance flights, including 1,400 over the ice-packed Arctic Ocean. Two flights are daily and regularly dispatched, using specially modified and equipped Superfortresses for the long, over-water weather reconnaissance routes.

Baptist Church Opens Easter

Opening services for the new Grosse Pointe Baptist Church will be on Easter Sunday. Formerly known as the Burns Avenue Baptist Church, the fifty-seven year old congregation will move from the building at Burns and Chapin, Detroit, to the large, modern structure recently completed at the corner of Eight Mile road and Mack in Grosse Pointe Woods.

Sunday services will include the Church School at 10 a.m.; Morning Worship, 11 a.m.; Evening Service, 6 p.m., and Youth Activities, 7:30 p.m.

The church also produces a weekly radio program known as Echoes of Heaven which is broadcast each Sunday night at 9 over CKLW.

The church program is designed to meet the spiritual needs of family and community life for all age groups, according to Dr. A. Dale Ihrie, pastor.

A reputation that is hanging in the balance should look for a cushion to soften the fall.

Legion Auxiliary News
From Unit 303
By ROWENA WEAVER

Work for retarded children is drawing increased interest and attention from the American Legion Auxiliary's one million members, according to Mrs. Nelle Baldwin, Child Welfare Chairman of Grosse Pointe 303 Unit of the Auxiliary. This work is a new phase of the Auxiliary's national child welfare program and the Auxiliary is seeking to give expanded cooperation this year to organizations devoted to the welfare of mentally retarded children, she explained.

"Since we became interested in the problem of retarded children," said Mrs. Baldwin, "American Legion Auxiliary child welfare workers have been amazed to learn that this condition afflicts ten times as many children as crippling polio. Among children of veterans, who are the Auxiliary's special interest, there are estimated to be 800,000 mentally retarded. Authorities tell us that 300 retarded children are born in the United States every day.

Quello Dinner Fetes Sieberts

Travel posters adorning the rumpus room lent an appropriate international flavor to the Bon Voyage dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. James H. Quello of Berkshire road on Tuesday, April 5.

Honoring the William S. Sieberts of Touraine road, who leave New York April 9 for a two-month tour on the continent, the party motif was carried down to the finest details.

Dainty nut baskets fashioned to represent luggage, complete with tiny travel stickers, and life preserver napkin rings inscribed with "Bon Voyage" adorned the dining table. Miniature TWA Stratacruisers (the Sieberts are flying), decorated the salads while a huge, three-tiered cake carrying the international theme highlighted the dinner. Forsythia made up the table center piece.

The travel posters included all of the stops on the Sieberts' itinerary. Highspots of the trip will include Lisbon, Rome, Naples, Florence, Lucerne and Paris.

Honoring the Sieberts were: Mr. and Mrs. David Lowe, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Gallette, Mr. and Mrs. Murray MacDonald and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Asmus.

The subject of horticultural therapy will be explained and suggestions will be given for its use in your community.

Mrs. Burlingame attended the University of Michigan and the School of Floriculture at Michigan State College, specializing in greenhouse production. She is a talented and enthusiastic dirt gardener as the result of combining academic training and practical experience. She is a recognized pioneer in the field of horticultural therapy. In addition to her lecture work, she teaches classes in gardening and writes a column, "Down to Earth," for the Birmingham Eccentric newspaper.

All women of Grosse Pointe are welcome.

Symphony Is Big Hit Again

By Marjorie Addams

Music lovers will be pleased to hear that the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra will give a concert in June.

Last Sunday's offering in the Auditorium of Parcels school was decidedly the best program ever presented by this group of talented musicians.

The director, Emil Raab, was in his usual fine form, and the opening number, the Overture to "The Secrets of Suzanne" brought a rousing applause from a thrilled audience.

That young pianist, William Doppmann of Cincinnati, Ohio, who is studying music at the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, featured a concerto of Beethoven in an unprecedented rendition and again reminded us of the marvelous future of this twenty-year-old prodigy.

The well balanced program included Haydn and closed with "Soirees Musicales" arranged by Brittain.

Grosse Pointe is fortunate to be able to boast of this musical aggregation that is fast cementing mutual interests of talented amateurs.

May it continue to be well supported and made a permanent community service of unending culture and enjoyment.

Cancer-Phobia Health Menace

"Cancer-phobia, a condition often marked by sleepless nights, jitters, a heavy scowl and a cheerless disposition," can often be cured by a visit to your doctor, the Michigan Department of Health said today.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, says the first thing to do if you are worried about cancer is to "Make an appointment with your family physician."

While cancer ranks as one of the top killers, Dr. Heustis urged "forthright action, not pessimistic procrastination."

"Cancer-phobia," he said, "which we can define as incessant fear of the disease, will only run down your health. By seeing your doctor for a periodic health appraisal, you can get the peace of mind that comes from his examination, and if cancer should be found, the rewards of early detection may be yours."

Dr. Heustis said preliminary figures show Michigan had 10,017 cancer deaths in 1954, against 9,904 in 1953.

He pointed out that making full use of "common sense and science" can help reduce the death toll.

"And at the same time, by casting aside any false fears, you'll lead a happier, healthier life."

Starlighters Meet April 13

Single young men and women, 18-28, are cordially invited to attend next week's regular meeting of the Starlighters, a social club of Our Lady, Star of the Sea Parish.

Many historians claim that the 1844 discovery of iron ore at Negaunee in northern Michigan was of far greater importance to the economic and industrial development of America than the California gold rush several years later.

Rabaut Praises Small Business

In testimony recently submitted to the House Select Committee on Small Business, Congressman Louis C. Rabaut (D-Mich) called for the extension of the life of the Small Business Administration as imperative to insuring a favorable climate for the continued growth and existence of the nation's small business concerns.

The SBA is due to expire under its present authorization on June 30 of this year.

Mr. Rabaut based his argument on the fundamental concept: "... that small business occupies an integral position in the national economic welfare and, therefore, it is incumbent upon us (Congress) to insure a climate favorable to its continued growth and existence."

He further declared: "The maintenance of a Federal Agency dedicated to this belief, I feel, is strongly advisable."

The first railroad to be built in the United States west of the Alleghenies was located in Michigan. In 1836 the Erie and Kalamazoo Railroad completed a 35-mile line between Toledo—then a Michigan city—and Adrina.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

Someone took a great big spoon and stirred up the Pointe ... especially Provençal road ... and it seems that half the population is moving from long-time residences to brand new locations. So, get out your address books and let's have at it for a moment or two when we shall either straighten out things in your mind, or perhaps confuse you more. The W. Dean Robinsons are making the first move. They have sold their home in the "second block" and will move to the first block of Provençal. They'll be in their new home by May 1 and right now are at Miami Beach where they have been joined for Easter by members of their family including: daughter Grace, who went down from her studies at Manhattanville College; daughter, Carol, vacationing from the convent, who leaves today with the Robinsons' son and daughter-in-law, the W. Dean Robinsons Jr. of Paget court. The senior Robinsons will be home on April 17. Their new home, incidentally, had been purchased by Mrs. Robinson's mother, the late Mrs. Walter O. Briggs who bought it from the Walter Stewarts.

On The Move

The Benjamin S. Warrens Jr. will be the owners of the Robinsons' former home on Provençal. When they move from their Edgemere court residence it, in turn, will be taken over by Mr. and Mrs. John Buel Warren of Elm court.

Miss Sweeney to Provençal

Now. Sometime in early June, Miss Mary Margaret Sweeney will have completed the move from her Kercheval avenue address (which goes to Mrs. Thomas Archer of St. Paul avenue) and her new home will be the R. Lockhart Wilbur house on Provençal. Mr. Wilbur has taken a house on Rivard. These certainly seem to be "transaction days" for Miss Sweeney who also has sold her lodge at Metamora to a most attractive young couple from Hartford County, Md., the Dean Bedfords Jr. The Bedfords' great friends, Mr. and Mrs. Reese Evans Howard, also living in Metamora, were delighted when the couple moved here.

The Provençal Way

It all sounds as if the authorities will have to block-off Provençal to the public while all this moving is going on. The lovely street should be practically impassable what with moving vans and families running to and fro. But the residents will make it all a lot of fun, you may be sure. It's an old Provençal road quality. No wonder a young (the adjective is slightly flattering) man remarked to us, "Do most of the people in Grosse Pointe live on Provençal? He thought so because it's a street which keeps popping into news and conversations with regularity."

What Makes Provençal News

To the contrary, Provençal is rather a short street, just two blocks, but its residents are active. There are the Fred Ollisons who but recently moved from Cloverly road to the former Abram vanDerZee home on Provençal; the governor's mother, Mrs. Henry P. Williams and the Harold B. Tyrees, the LeRoy E. Swifts (who had one of the first picture windows on Lake Shore — for their home is at the corner of Provençal and Lake Shore); the John W. Mulfords, the William C. Roneys and now the Frank H. Murphys. The John Buells, the Earl Holleys, the John C. Chapins, the James B. Webbers, the George M. Holleys, Mrs. Russell A. Alger, Frank Thibault, the Richard J. Joys Jr., William Moore Joy, the Minot

Booklet Tells Highway Needs

Solutions to the state's problems of highway deficiency are outlined in a new University of Michigan publication, "Michigan State Highway Expenditure Policy," written by Hubert H. Frisinger, University of Toledo associate professor of finance.

The 115-page booklet is No. 29 in the Michigan Governmental Studies series being put out by the Bureau of Government of the U-M Institute of Public Administration.

Much of the material for the publication was taken from information in the thesis Professor Frisinger prepared while still a student at the University of Michigan and studying for his Doctor of Philosophy degree. Other data was added by him, however, to insure that the publication would be up to date.

The study discusses first the history and background of the present highway problem and presents some comparative data from other states. Michigan's failure to provide an adequate system of highways in the interval between 1919 and 1948, when the state first began in earnest to build a highway system, is explained.

Next some basic principles of highway expenditure, planning and financing are examined in order to provide a basis upon which criticism of the present expenditure policy can be made. Then with past mistakes in mind, the study concludes with suggestions for improving Michigan's performance of the highway function in the future.

The author mentions toll roads as one of the ways to improve highway financing policies, on the Detroit-Toledo route for example, although he says "There is no valid reason why Michigan's system of trunk-line financing should not be continued."

An expressway case study in Monroe County showed savings or benefits to traffic of approximately three and one-half times the annual cost, including interest on the investment at five per cent per year.

This is equivalent to a rate of return on the investment of approximately 21 per cent. Using a conservative estimate of tolls that could be collected—$.01 per mile for passenger cars and $.035 (average) for commercial vehicles—bonds could be retired in slightly less than 15 years if the expressway were to be financed and operated as a toll road. It would serve as a connecting link between Detroit and the Ohio Turnpike.

A similar high benefit-cost ratio was also found on a proposed widening of the three-lane U.S. 12 between Ann Arbor and Jackson. It is the author's contention that a serious waste of both lives and property has existed for some time and will continue until such projects are completed.

Among the professor's other suggestions are: more attention to investments for future use, or purchase of rights of way in advance of construction; and an accounting system which would give information for expenditure-planning purposes.

He emphasizes that at this time "adequate financing of highway investments requires the use of borrowing" and he explains that "approximately half of the backlog could be financed by borrowing without exceeding conservative limits, from either the point of view of debt-asset ratio or ability to pay."

The study also recommends greater flexibility of revenues through control of tax rates and borrowing. This may require the creation of a special administrative commission, he adds, such as was requested by the Governor last May.

This commission, according to the professor, also could change the structure of the highway-use tax rate, acting within limits established by the Legislature.

A million tourists yearly visit the Cascades in Sparks Foundation County Park, Jackson. The waterfalls extend 500 feet and drop 64 feet in 11 falls. At night, over 1000 magical colored lights floodlight the falls and spouting foundations.

Model Planers To Seek Champ

Many weeks have elapsed since the newly formed model plane club, the Stardusters, held its first model plane meet, and with the indoor season rapidly nearing its climax another contest will be held at Percella Junior High on Saturday, April 8, at 3 p.m.

The big prize for Saturday's contest will be the model plane champion of Grosse Pointe. Also Saturday's meet will be the first of three to find a team to represent the Pointe in the forthcoming Michigan State Championship meet to be held at the Ford test track in Dearborn, Michigan. Winners of the State meet will be eligible to compete in the Nationals to be held at Los Alamitos Air Strip in California.

The April 2 contest will feature two divisions, rubber powered and hand launched gliders. The meet will be run by John Tapert and the timing handled by Exchange Club members. This is an open meet for all flying model plane enthusiasts in Grosse Pointe.

The Grosse Pointe Exchange Club has been sponsoring the Stardusters since its beginning and possibly will send fortunate winners to both the State and National meets.

Pick Safe Place to Fly Those Kites

Spring's winds remind us that today's jet-age youngsters still have at least one thing in common with the children of yesterday—the love of watching the graceful antics of an airborne kite.

But kite-flying now isn't as trouble-free as it was when Granddad was a boy. Along with the comforts and pleasures of modern living have come a few drawbacks and hazards which didn't exist when "back forties" were plentiful.

However, R. P. Douglas, head of the Detroit Edison Company's safety department, has a few simple rules for keeping the fun in and the danger out of kite-flying. Here they are:

1. Always fly kites in open fields and away from streets and roads where traffic is an additional hazard.
2. Use a wooden kite frame; wood is a non-conductor of electricity.
3. Use "plain" kite-string; avoid all tinsel wire or cord that has any appearance of being metallic. Metallic cord can carry electricity to your hand and cause painful injury or fatal shock.

4. If the kite does catch on a pole or tree, leave it there. It's too bad to lose it, but making a new kite is fun—and climbing for the old one might result in a fall or electric shock.
5. Never fly your kite during an electrical storm. Ben Franklin used a kite in his experiment with electricity. But he was lucky not to have been killed.

When you're running to raise your kite or keep it in the air, watch your step rather than the kite—it may save you a bad bump or tumble.

"Kite-flying is a great sport for boys and girls everywhere," Douglas said, "and it can be safe if these rules are observed."

AAA to Honor Safety Patrols

Running on a "No School Child Fatality" ticket, a Grosse Pointe safety patroler has been nominated to go to Washington, D. C., May 5-8. The patroler from Trombly school will receive a four-day, all-expense trip to the Capital as Automobile Club of Michigan's guest.

Trombly school was selected to send a representative to the 19th AAA National Safety Patrol rally because of the overall effectiveness of its safety program. The Grosse Pointe youth will join 120 Michigan patrolers in Detroit, May 5. From there he will board the train to the Capital.

Once in Washington, he will meet government officials, go sightseeing and march down Constitution avenue with 30,000 patrolers from all over the United States and Canada. After the parade, the largest held annually in Washington, he will return by train, May 8.

More cargo tonnage passes through Michigan's Soo Locks in an eight-month Great Lakes navigation season than the Panama and Suez canals handle together in a full year.

String Quartet to Present Concert at Center April 17

The Grosse Pointe public is invited to gather on Sunday afternoon, April 17, at 3, in the great hall of the War Memorial Center to hear a quartet of fine musicians presented under the auspices of the Memorial Association. If it happens to be an especially fine day, the concert will be moved to the Center's lake-side terrace.

Organized by Thomas Nester, founder of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra, the quartet includes besides Mr. Nester, who plays 2nd violin, Douglas Marsh, cellist, of the Detroit Symphony; Ernest Kramer, first violinist, also of the Detroit Symphony; and Dr. Robert Miller, violist, who is on the staffs of both Wayne University and the University of Michigan.

The program will include the First Haydn Quartet No. 23, known as "The Lark," Mozart's "Cello" Quartet K. 575, and the Beethoven Quartet opus 59 No. 3. This last number from Beethoven's middle period is especially famous for its fugue. It is popularly known as the "Rassoumovski" Quartet because it was written for Count Rassoumovski, a great patron of music who was the Czar's ambassador to the court of Vienna.

Mr. Nester has done much to bring fine music to Grosse Pointe and is himself a musician of stature, having studied under Albert Spaulding and Francis-MacMillen at the Conservatory of Dijon.

Mr. Nester also plays an unusually fine Nicholas Lupot violin, which was chosen to be used by Otis Igleman, former concert master of the Detroit Symphony. The concert will be free.

PTA at Maire Planning Sale

The Maire P.T.A. will sponsor a rummage sale in the school gym on Saturday, April 16, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Offered for sale will be clothing for children and adults, toys, books and white elephants.

Knights Plan Dinner To Benefit Boysville

Boysville, Michigan's fast growing residence school for boys with a problem gets another helping hand on Saturday, April 16, from a corned beef and cabbage dinner followed by dancing, being sponsored by Gabriel Richard Council, Knights of Columbus, in their club building, 9375 Amity at Parkview and Kercheval. The entire proceeds of the dinner-dance will go to Boysville's maintenance through the long established plan which all of the councils of the K. of C. in Michigan have pledged to the Archdiocesan authorities.

Eggs Big Item in This Recipe Invented by Chemists

A Detroit firm uses more than 18,000 eggs a week, but not even one is for breakfast. The large white fertile eggs are trucked in several times a week from wholesalers in Grand Rapids and Bantock, Mich., to Parke-Davis & Company for the production of influenza vaccine. Once received by the flu vaccine group, the eggs—all 18,000—go through ten different operations, which is equivalent to 180,000 eggs. They are first lifted from the cases into trays and put in the initial incubator for 11 days. From there, they are taken to a darkened area for candling, and the unfertile ones are eliminated. Next, the eggs are taken to an air-conditioned room where they are painted with an antiseptic solution that turns yellow and gives them an Easter appearance. They are injected with influenza virus and put into a second incubator for two days. Then the eggs are recandled, unsatisfactory ones eliminated and the remainder refrigerated over night, after which the vaccine fluid is harvested. Then the eggs are destroyed. Many further steps are required before the vaccine is ready for shipment, but the role of the egg ends with the fluid harvesting. Because the production of flu vaccine is exacting, high standards have been set for what one might consider the lowly egg. Dr. Kenneth C. VanNocker said. "The hens must undergo frequent inspection to be free of disease," he added. "The eggs must be nest cleaned with no contamination on the shell and show a high percentage of fertility." The Parke-Davis research department requires a small quantity of eggs for testing and animal dietary requirements. Elsewhere in the company, approximately 2,000 more eggs are used in various departments. The firm's purchasing department pointed out that the 20,000 eggs used weekly now are just a drop in the bucket compared with the total used during World War II. Because of the armed forces' demand for vaccine, the company then required approximately 125,000 eggs a week! The people who handle the eggs at Parke-Davis still enjoy them for breakfast. "It takes time, but you can get accustomed to it," one said.

Headlines of the Week

Red authorities was made known by the Austrian Catholic News Service in Vienna.

He is said to be suffering from tuberculosis. Also reported released, but under house arrest, is Bishop Czeslaw Kacmarek of Kielce.

A TAXPAYER'S LETTER to the Internal Revenue Department in Detroit, brought about a refund of $150 directly from Washington. The Detroit taxpayer taped a gallstone to a letter with his income tax return. He wrote the stone was one of 200 taken out during an operation recently. "They don't take them there things out except in a hospital." He proved his claim of a big hospital bill.

Sunday, April 3

RUSSIAN TROOPS brazenly invaded an Austrian hospital in Vienna, and dragged away four freedom-bound Hungarians, two of them seriously hurt and unconscious. The four, all of one family, had crawled through a mine field on the Red Hungarian border in a desperate bid for freedom.

The Hungarians were identified as a grandfather, his son and daughter-in-law and a girl of eight. The grandfather and the mother had suffered injuries.

from exploding mines and had just undergone surgery.

THE UNITED STATES freed 78 Chinese students in this country in a bid to free more than 55 Americans reported prisoners of the Reds behind the Bamboo Curtain. The State Department made it clear there was no deal with the Communists, but hopes the action will clear the way towards release of the Americans. The Red Chinese hinted in Geneva last year that they may release the Americans if the Chinese students being kept here were allowed to return home.

RED CHINA complained United States military planes invaded Chinese territorial air and engaged in armed provocations. A Peiping Radio broadcast said the alleged incident occurred in Santung provinces across the Yellow Sea from South Korea. Chinese planes, the broadcast said, took off after the Americans and "made them flee toward the east." The Reds claim the United States is trying to increase the tension in the Far East.

DIPLOMATIC SOURCES were of the opinion that the retirement of Winston Churchill as prime minister may dissolve American-British differences on the Big Four talks. Churchill is expected to step down, possibly as early as Tuesday. Plans are in the making to have talks with the Russians, but not the kind the Prime Minister had in mind.

His friends still think he may make a contribution toward easing the tension between the East and the West when he retires. It is said he may make a private visit to Moscow to renew wartime contacts and test possibilities.

RATIFICATION of the rearmament of West Germany by key Western countries has changed the international situation, according to the official newspaper of Moscow, Izvestia. In an article broadcast, the newspaper charged the rearmament of West Germans tends to increase the dangers of war.

The Russians warned that their friendship treaties with Britain and France may be unavoidably abrogated. Western officials are waiting to see if Russia will carry out its threat to tear up the treaties if the ratification goes through.

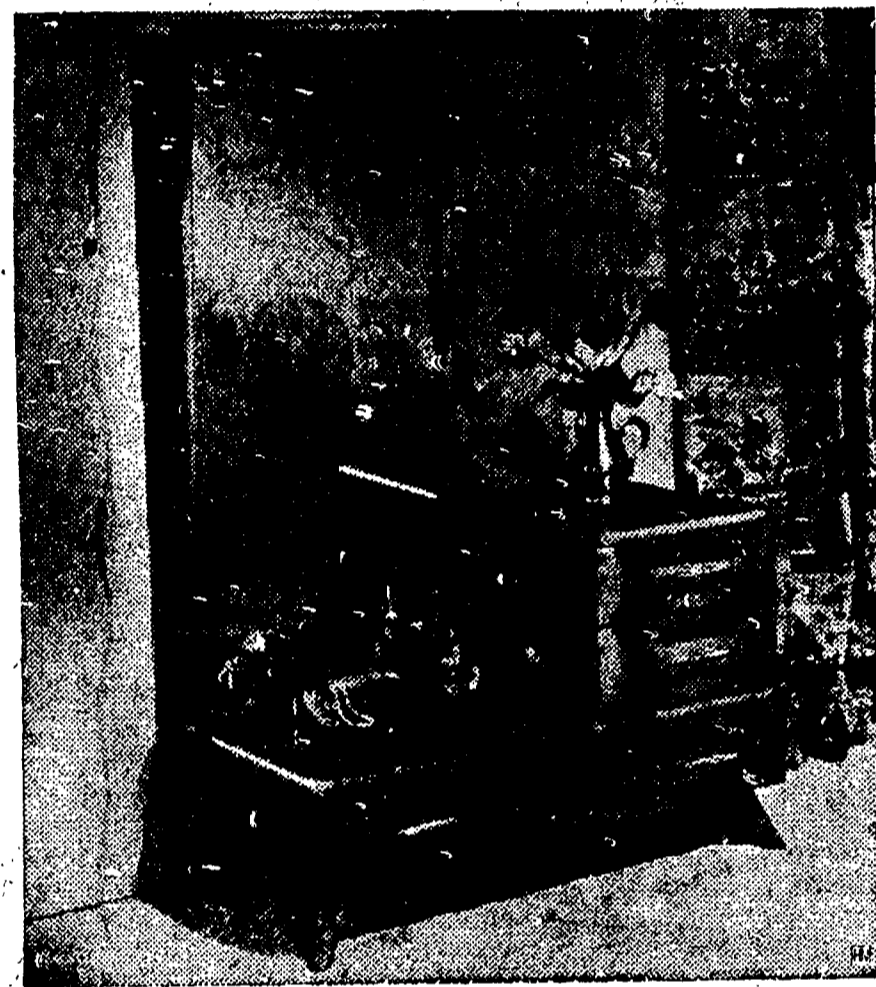

THE DEATH TOLL from the worst earthquake to hit the Philippines mounted to 430 persons the latest report disclosed. The Philippine Red Cross said 12,000 persons were made homeless. Hardest hit in the quake was the Lake Lanao district in Mindanao, the second largest island in the Philippines.

Most of the casualties were from this region, where the earth

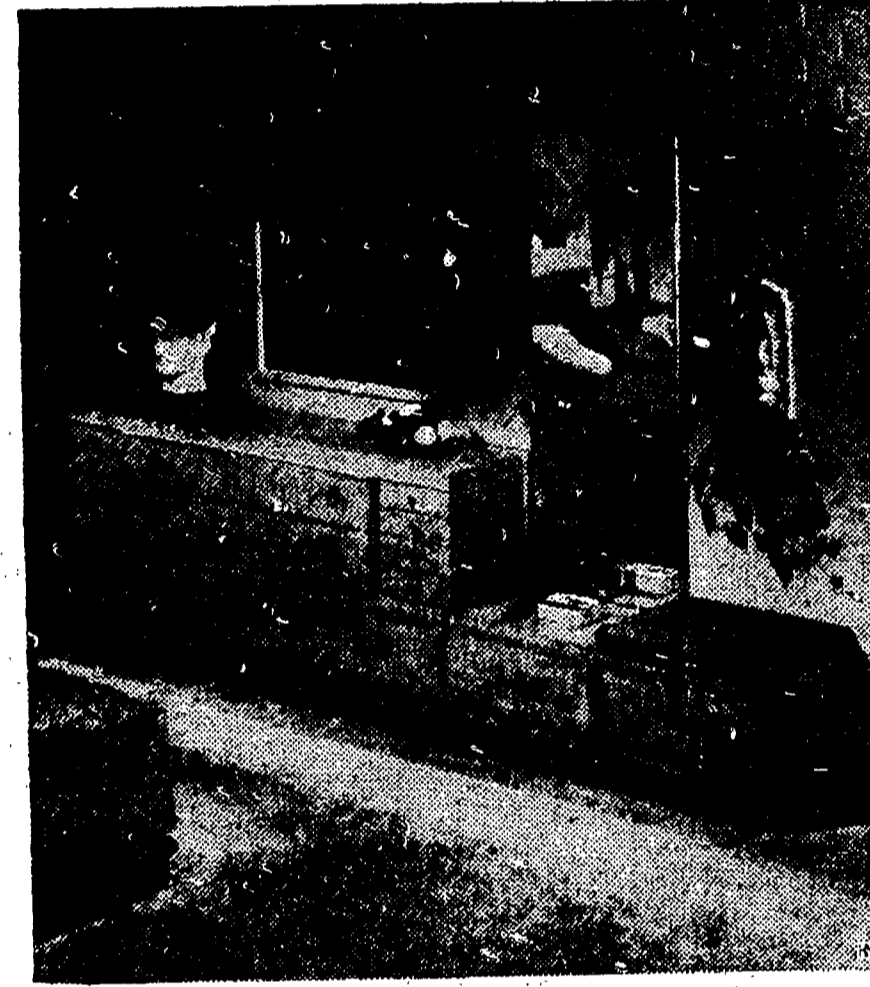

Furniture Is Colorful in New Fashions for 1955

For cozy living needs, and for good decor in your home, here are the ingredients to help you plan it. These twin chairs are from living room furniture designs called Pinehurst Provincial. Use two of either style to provide a charming comfortable setting anywhere in your home, or use one of either as shown above. Let the upholstery fabric help set the mood for you. To impart a formal atmosphere, choose a lustrous upholstery fabric. If you prefer a more casual and friendly mood, then a smaller provincial print will do the trick.

Sculptured pine, hand-burnished to give it a soft, deep lustre, makes a very lovely and unique vanity. Comfortable reflection is given by a large, long mirror. The drawers are spacious and well-placed to provide storage for the necessary toiletries, with room to spare for lingerie, and any additional items. This vanity is from a bedroom grouping, appropriately titled, "Natural Modern."

Vanities with a long, full-length look are still popular. Here is one with fresh appeal, improvised from a flexible new bedroom grouping. Its base is a newly styled seat stand which also serves storage purpose as a night stand, window seat, or vanity base as shown here. A black and gold marble pattern is used for the stand's scuff-proof base, leading it both beauty and practicality.

The Admiral, along with Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson and some 20 other military officials, backed President Eisenhower's proposed cut of 300,000 men in the Armed Forces. He devoted most of his time to defending the manpower cuts.

FRED GLUSMAN, 18, of Los Angeles, is not one to complain about ill winds. Such a wind blew $9 out of his hand as he left a restaurant with three of his friends. After a prolonged chase, they recovered $6 and were about to call it quits when another gust of wind blew a $5 bill into Glusman's hand. He was $3 ahead.

KAO KANG, "Manchurian Stalin" who bossed Red China's five-year plan, killed himself after being ousted as a member of the Communist Party. Purged at the same time was Jao Shu Shin, who is reported to be still alive.

Shin, a big wheel from Shanghai, and Kang were accused of conspiring to seize "leadership" of the party and the state. Peiping radio said Kang tried to get members of the Red Army "to support his conspiracy." American officials in Washington read no hopeful signs of a rupture in the Communist Party in China.

Wednesday, April 6
IN AN AUDIENCE with his Queen, Prime Minister Sir Winston Churchill resigned from office. He arrived at Buckingham Palace at 11:32 p.m. (Detroit time) for his audience with Queen Elizabeth and to turn in his seals of office.

He will be succeeded to the prime ministership by Anthony Eden, long believed to be Churchill's heir. Eden was expected to take over momentarily. Churchill will stay in the Commons in the role of an elder statesman.

NATIONALIST CHINESE claimed to have inflicted heavy damages to the enemy in three sea and air encounters. However, the Nationalists failed to locate a large Red fleet, through a sea and air search, which was reported headed for the Matsu Islands.

The Nationalist defense ministry announced that Communist artillery at Amoy Island fired nine shells on the Nationalist-held Kinmen group near Quemoy. They repeated their fears the Reds may be planning an all-out invasion attempt against the Matus, 125 miles northwest of Formosa.

AN ARMY REVOLT against his rule was quelled by the king of Yemen, Imam Ahmad. Reliable sources said that loyal tribesmen had rounded up the rebel leaders. Imam eluded rebels encircling his palace and joined with his tribesmen from the northern part of the 75,000-square-mile Arab kingdom who rallied to his defense.

St. Paul Girl Swimmers Score Win Over Visitation

St. Paul's High School girls apparently take to water like a bunch of mermaids, according to the results of their first meet with Visitation last Saturday, April 2, in the Visitation pool.

The Flyers, with no previous practice and competing as a team for the first time in the school's history, walloped Visitation 35 to 21 on three individual event victories and one of the two relay events.

Visitation got the meet underway by winning the 75 yard free style relay, and came right back to take a first and third in the 50 yard free style event. Mary Ann Zematis of Visitation paddled in ahead of Felice Reaume, triple winner for St. Paul, and Pat Kuclo of Visitation.

These two initial victories gave Visitation a handy lead but the Flyers came back strong to take the next three events and go into a narrow lead which they never relinquished. Mary Lou Miller paced the 25 yard free style event, beating Noel LaFond of Visitation and Diane Shada of St. Paul.

Joyce Barton and Teresa McNenny slammed the 25 yard back stroke event with Margaret Fraser of Visitation placing third. Felice Reaume captured her second winning gun of the meet when she splashed in ahead of teammate Mary Sepic and Pat Kuclo.

Joyce Barton, Felice Reaume and Mary Lou Miller made up the Flyers' 75 yard medley relay team which climaxed the meet with a win in this event.

The team will practice in the Grosse Pointe High School pool every Monday from 4 to 6 p.m. So far no arrangements have been made to obtain a coach. However, Captain Mary Lou Miller stated, "We will meet any girls' team, any time, any place and anyone interested in arranging a meet should call TU 1-5700."

LITTLE LEAGUE

PARK
Parents and their baseball playing sons are cordially invited to attend the meeting of the Grosse Pointe Park Little League at the Neighborhood Club on Tuesday, April 12, at 7:30 p.m. Featuring the meeting will be the showing of the 1954 World Series movies, loaned by the Detroit Baseball Company. Also details of the coming season will be announced by League president Elmer Van Tiem.

Already the newest Little League in the Pointe has made considerable progress for the 1955 season. Two new backstops have been erected on the new diamonds the expanded league will use this year at Defer playground. Opening day ceremonies will be held on Monday, May 30, when a double header will be played with the first game getting underway at 1 p.m.

The plea for a new flag-pole, issued by the League through the Grosse Pointe News, was answered by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schueler of Roslyn road and the standard bearer will be erected on the new site in the very near future.

Russell Peebles, secretary of the League, has been busy in his home workshop and will have a new scoreboard ready for opening day.

The Park will continue to operate a four team major league under managers George Schultz, Harry Ibler, George Ewald and Murray Robertson. The Minor league will be expanded from six to eight teams this year to take care of more than 200 youngsters from the ages 8 to 12, who are expected to participate this season.

The Minor League will be known as the Collegiate League and will be split into two divisions called the Southern and Northern Conferences. The Southern Conference teams will be called Alabama, Baylor, Duke and Carolina. The Northern teams will be Evansville, Fordham, Great Lakes and Harvard. Russ Peebles, along with his league secretarial work, will take over the duties of Collegiate League Commissioner. The Collegiate managers and coaches; O. J. Beausoliel, John Bielewiski, Marshall Bruce, Vince Cerutti, Mike Clancy, Gene Douville, Cal Gauss, Jr., George Ghesquiere, J. E. Guillaumin, Godfrey Hammel, Jr., Doug Jones, Joe Kingsley, Joseph Kolley, Tom McCarthy, Matt Millenbach, Ed Moeller, Ed

Bowling League Race Very Hot

After the last pin had fallen last Thursday night, only four points separated the first five teams in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League. With but only three nights left of the schedule, it looks like a tight race right down to the wire. The Bruce Wigle team tightened the race with a three-point victory over the leaders, the Motor City team. Boutin's lost a good chance to take over the lead when they dropped three points to the Belding outfit.

League's Rally Attended by 250

The 1955 Season Registration Rally of the Babe Ruth league held at the high school annex auditorium was a huge success and attracted approximately 250 potential ball players. Included were many newcomers, Little League grads and several Babe Ruth League grads who are expected to assist in coaching during the coming season.

The directors of the league were introduced and Gordon Wood, last year's president, gave a brief talk. The new president, Frederic Kross, outlined the plans and policies for the coming year, stressing the point that everything possible will be done to provide more baseball for more boys during the 1955 season.

Bill Brown, last year's pennant winning coach, introduced Red Jones, who conducted a very successful baseball quiz. Movies of the 1954 World Series closed the rally.

Any boys within the 13 to 15 year age limit who did not attend the rally and want to play baseball this spring and summer are urged to call William D. Alcott at TUxedo 2-0314 after 6 p.m. and give their names and addresses.

Tryouts are scheduled for April 23. All boys living on Rivard boulevard and east will report at the high school. Boys living west of Rivard boulevard will report at the Neighborhood club.

Woods Babe Ruth League to Meet

Grosse Pointe Woods' newly organized Babe Ruth Baseball League is almost set to roll. Opening day ceremonies will be held at a meeting of fathers and players to be held at Parcels Junior High on Thursday, April 14, at 7:30 p.m.

"We want to give the league a good sendoff," said Vince Buttery, league president, "and we therefore hope that all fathers will plan to attend and offer constructive suggestions."

Player tryouts are scheduled to start at Parcels field on Saturday, April 23, with opening day approximately one month later, May 21.

The league is for boys from 13 to 15 years old. So far approximately 100 boys have signed up to play.

Highlighting the April 14 meeting will be the reports of the committees, announcement of team sponsors, and the introduction of the managers and coaches. There are still a few of these jobs open and president Buttery and his committee are seeking more applicants for managers and coaches.

"Plans are well advanced in most committees," Buttery said, "and we hope to have the plans in their final form in order to bring the fathers up to date at this session."

Davis Cup Films Coming April 14

Believe it or not, the Davis Cup matches will be replayed, in the movies, right in Grosse Pointe. Lou Gardella, boys' athletic director at the Neighborhood Club, the site of the replay via film, has made all arrangements for the fifty-minute movie to be shown at the Neighborhood Club on Thursday, April 14, at 8 p.m. Admission is free, but donations will be cheerfully accepted and will in turn be used to promote the Junior Tennis program at the Club.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

Oh, Oh, we goofed when we said Tommy Loit was stepping down from his job as commissioner of the Michigan Waterways Commission. What we misunderstood was the statement that Fred Lifton would take over Tommy's job. Actually, Loit will remain as commissioner and Fred Lifton will take over the duties as director of the Commission and replace the retiring Bert Robb who is angling to buy a freighter with which he intends to ply the Great Lakes.
When we certainly are glad Tommy is going to remain in his old job because he has done a wonderful job in watching where our boat tax money goes. Incidentally, have you purchased your 1955 boat license yet? Now's the time.
With the advent of spring we get news of boats being bought and sold and we in turn relay the information to our readers with little or no sentiment. However, last week we got real sentimental when we learned that the "Terrific Trio" of Bill Nagel, John Nicol and Ed Desmond had sold their Pilot sloop "Balquhider" to Joel Bremer of the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.
Actually the boat will remain in competition; at least that's what the new skipper has indicated, but it won't be the same without the Nagel-Nicol-Desmond combination giving the other Pilot class skippers a hard time.
The best ride "Balquhider" ever had was last year's Mackinac race in which she was the first Pilot to finish and win the William Fisher trophy. If it hadn't have been for that hot shot, "Hoot Mon," up from Miami, and Hank Burkard's double ender "Meteor II," "Balquhider" would have won Class C.
Lou Gardella, boys' athletic director said, "I'll have a boat before the season is very old; I've never been without one so far." The trio has been talking of buying a Raven sloop and when Johnny Detwiler, Grosse Pointe Club commodore heard this, he said to Nagel: "You three are going to look a little silly in a Raven up in Georgian Bay this summer after the Mackinac race."
Writing a boating column, one leaves himself wide open for plenty of chin music. That's what we got when we recently referred to a Penguin as a sloop. The Penguin is called a sloop by the designer but actually it is cat rigged. Truthfully, we are a trifle puzzled as to what to call them in the future, but until someone comes up and proves the 11-foot Penguin shouldn't be referred to as a sloop we will go right on in our own fumbling way.
HOUSEHOLD HINT
In freezing egg whites, Michigan State College home economists say it is important to avoid getting even a drop of yolk in the white. If a bit should get in, remove it with the tip of a spoon. Otherwise they won't whip as well.
