SIR WINSTON CHURCHILL, Lion of England, wept upon leaving No. 10 Downing street. Sir Anthony Eden, Churchill's heir apparent, confidently shouldered the mantle, becoming the 42nd Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Eden, a friend of America and foe of dictators, devoted most of his speech in the House of Commons to praise of the statesman who guided his career to the heights. The new Prime Minister, at 57, is the youngest in three decades.

FOUR BANDITS pulled history's biggest cash bank holdup, taking $305,243. The crime, which was committed in New York's Chase Manhattan Branch in Queens, was believed to have been rehearsed for six months before it was pulled.

The job went off like clock work; not a shot was fired, and no outcry was raised. Police officials were of the opinion the perfect execution of the holdup may have been due in part to "information from the inside."

TORNADOS and severe winter storms smashed across the north-west section of Texas, killing one, injuring seven and causing millions of dollars in damages. Hardest hit were the heavily populated suburbs of Sherman.

Tornadoes whipped into the little communities of Buffalo Springs, Post Oak and Newport, all near Wichita. Nearby Perrin Air Force Base recorded the worst damage in history, suffering from building damages and planes torn from their moorings.

Friday, April 18

ANTHONY EDEN, new Prime Minister of Great Britain, turned over his former duties of Foreign Secretary to Harold Macmillan. The new Foreign Secretary was Defense Minister in Winston Churchill's Cabinet.

Eden announced his Cabinet and mulled over the possibility of an early national election. Meanwhile, Churchill made a clean break with the cares of high office. He changed the telephone number of his Chartwell house in the country, and gave orders it was to be kept secret.

THE UNITED STATES fell into line with the other Western nations in granting approval of the Paris treaties on rearming West Germany as a member of the North Atlantic Defense Pact.

President Eisenhower, who had a big hand in crushing Nazi Germany 10 years ago, said this was what this country has been working for for a long time. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles also signed the documents. Only Denmark and the Netherlands have yet to act on the agreements.

THE ROUTE of the turnpike from Flat Rock to Saginaw has been confirmed by the Michigan Turnpike Authority. Announcement of its approval brought fresh blasts from residents of Dearborn and Oakland suburbs who promise they would fight to protect their interests.

Other protests came from Bloomfield Township, Foxcroft and Franklin Village. All threaten to take their cases to court. The turnpike will cost about 164 million dollars.

HEALTH OFFICIALS in Lansing are making ready to use the Salk Polio Vaccine, even though they have no advance knowledge of its success. Dr. Albert E. Heustis, State Health Commissioner, said if the vaccine is approved and licensed, it would be flown to State laboratories in Houghton, Powers, Grand Rapids and Lansing.

Local health department physicians will pick up amounts already determined. About 430,085 first and second graders throughout the State will be recipients of the vaccine.

THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT will sift secret data of Gen. Douglas MacArthur to determine if he urged Russian entry into the war against Japan at the time of the Yalta conference. The material is expected to be made public.

MacArthur had requested that messages between him and Allied chiefs of staff be released to the public.

Sergeants' Posts Go to City Veterans

Girl Killed By Speeder On Jefferson

Margaret Wade, 18, Dies Shortly After Being Struck By Drunken Driver

Donald E. Marble, 27, of 36114 Main street, New Baltimore, stood mute at his arraignment before City Judge Joseph Uvick on Monday, April 11, and a plea of not guilty was entered for him. He was placed under a $1,000 bond.

Marble, a construction worker, was charged with manslaughter with a motor vehicle, in the death of Miss Margaret Wade, 18, of 351 Roosevelt, who was struck and killed on Thursday, April 7, at East Jefferson and Roosevelt, just a short distance from her home.

Wade was crossing the street and because of the heavy traffic, stopped in the middle of the street and was struck by the car driven by Marble. The impact hurled the girl for a distance of 202 feet, according to information supplied by City Police Chief Thomas Trombly and Det. Lt. Andrew Teetaert, both of whom handled the case.

The girl was rushed to Bon Secours Hospital by City ambulance, and was pronounced dead several minutes after arrival. Witnesses stated Marble was traveling east on Jefferson at a (Continued on Page 2)

Pointe Community Chorus To Give Concert April 27 in Parcels School Auditorium

Third Spring Event and Second of This Season to Be Followed by Reception; Organization Now Boasts 150 Voices

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will give its third spring concert on Wednesday evening, April 27, at 8:30 o'clock in the auditorium of the Charles Parcels Junior High School, Mack avenue at Vernier road.

This is the second concert of the season for the chorus which is under the direction of Malcolm McLean Johns with Milton Setzer as accompanist.

Mr. Johns is the organist and choirmaster of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and a member of the music faculty of Wayne University.

Mr. Setzer is on the staff of the Art Center Music School and is also a resident of Grosse Pointe. Marian Johnson Johns and Dewey Kalember are assistant conductors and give valuable aid at the section rehearsals.

The American Legion Memorial Home of Grosse Pointe will have a house warming for all veterans, their wives and friends Friday, April 15.

The open house at the new Post Home 20916 Mack avenue will give all veterans a chance to get better acquainted with the legionnaires and see the new edifice.

To begin at 7 p.m., lunch and refreshments will be served and there will be a juke box for dancing.

Schools Wasting No Time Getting Salk Polio Vaccine

The Salk Polio Vaccine will be available to the Grosse Pointe School District within a few days, it was disclosed by Dr. Thomas Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner.

The first step in the fight against the deadly polio virus will take place tomorrow, April 15, when the children of the first and second grades in all public, parochial and private schools will be given letters to take home to their parents, informing them of the program, according to Dr. Lynn Bartlett, Assistant Superintendent of Grosse Pointe Schools.

He said that attached to the letters will be a request and authorization form, which interested parents must sign, if they wish their children to receive the vaccine. He said these forms must be signed and returned to the respective schools of the children by Tuesday, April 19.

Dr. Davies said each child will have to take three vaccine shots, the first on April 25, and/or, April 26; the second on May 2, and/or, May 3; and the final one on May 31, and/or, June 1.

He said the vaccine is available only for the first and second graders in the public, parochial and private schools in the Pointe and Harper Woods. He estimated that approximately 3,000 children will be treated.

Dr. Bartlett disclosed that the Mothers' Health Education Council will arrange for the necessary volunteer help; and he calls upon any registered nurses in the School District who wish to volunteer their services in carrying out this program, to contact the Grosse Pointe Health Department, V.A. 2-6970.

Committee Listed

The concert committee is as follows: George Burton Smith, chairman; Jean Schroeder, program design; Harold Kellogg, program; Lester Elliott, tickets, and Francis Coughlin, staging.

Following the program, which will run for about an hour and 20 minutes, there will be a reception with refreshments in the school gymnasium, to which the audience is invited.

The tickets for the concert are priced at $1 for adults and 50c for students and children, and they may be obtained at Doubleday's on Kercheval avenue, Grinnell's, 16414 East Warren avenue, and the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, Grosse Pointe boulevard. All members of the chorus have tickets available, too.

Ask Recount Of Votes in G. P. Woods

McKnight's Action Keeps Koppin From Being Sworn In as New Mayor of City

Two defeated candidates for Woods municipal offices, challenged the right of their successful opponents to take office by filing petitions with the Secretary of State for a recount of the April 4 ballots.

Woods Mayor Waid McKnight, defeated for re-election, and James T. Bowling, unsuccessful council aspirant, each posted a $45 bond, along with their petitions for a recount.

Swearing In Delayed
Kenneth H. Koppin, who defeated McKnight, according to the last official count was present at a Board of Canvassers meeting on Monday, April 11, apparently for the purpose of being sworn into office. This was forestalled by the McKnight petition.

Koppin won over McKnight by a vote of 1,877 to 1,818; and Bowling trailed Councilman George Heckendorn by a mere four votes. Heckendorn was given 1,928; Bowling, 1,925.

The other two council incumbents, Rex H. Johnston and Elsie Friedrich, were re-elected by a wide margin.

Berns Gives Ruling
According to a legal ruling by Woods City Attorney Julius Berns, McKnight will retain the office of mayor until the petition has been acted upon and the recount certified.

The City Attorney drew up a resolution petitioning the State to return the ballots in sealed ballot boxes and to have the city ballots of Precincts 4 and 7 removed from their containers and (Continued on Page 2)

Await Action On Fluoridation

The Farms City Council may make a decision at its meeting next Monday night, on whether or not it will continue to add fluorine to the water supply. The matter is on the agenda for the session.

The voters balloted against continuing fluoridation at the polls on April 4. The tally was 1832 against fluoridation and 1366 for it. The vote was only advisory, the council retaining the right to act as they saw fit after the voters had registered their choice.

Monday's meeting will be the first for the new council. Three new councilmen were elected, William C. Butler, Edward C. Roney, Jr. and George S. Lang. William Kirby was reelected.

High School's New Auditorium to be Dedicated Friday

Dr. Samuel Brownell to Give Address Before Many Special Guests as Million Dollar Structure Is Put Into Use

The attention of all Grosse Pointe will turn Friday evening, April 15, toward Grosse Pointe High School, when the dedication of the new Auditorium-Gymnasium will take place. The event, which will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock, is expected to attract 5,000 residents. An invitation to attend the program is extended to everyone in Grosse Pointe, and no tickets are required.

The program will feature a short address by Dr. Samuel Brownell, U. S. Commissioner of Education, and music by the Grosse Pointe High School Band and A Capella Choir. Following the program, the entire building will be open for inspection.

Special Guests Coming

Among the special guests for the dedication will be: Dr. Eugene B. Elliott, President of Michigan State Normal College; Dean Clifford Erickson of Michigan State College; Dean Waldo Lessinger and President Clarence Hilberry of Wayne University; President Irwin J. Lubbers of Hope College; Dean Willard C. Olson of the University of Michigan; Dr. Harry K. Newburn, President of the Ford Education Television and Radio Center in Ann Arbor; Dr. Clair L. Taylor, Superintendent of Public Instruction; Dr. Stuart L. Openlander, President of the Wayne County Superintendents' Association; Dr. Max Smith, President of the Metropolitan Superintendents' Association; and Mr. John R. Barnes, former Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Schools.

All Urged to Attend

The Board of Education is anxious to have the thousands of Grosse Pointers who have had a part in the realization of their dream of such a community building, present for the Dedication.

Burglar Visits Hoffman Home

Mrs. Wesley H. Hoffman of 347 Moros, left home for a few hours and returned to find her home ransacked by a burglar, who fairly littered the house with clothing and other items.

On Thursday, April 7, Farms Det. Sgt. Harold Seelow, given a report of the burglary, which occurred in broad daylight, went to the Hoffman home.

He revealed that entrance was gained by breaking a small pane of glass in the rear door.

Missing was a Winchester rifle, a .32 caliber nickel-plated revolver, a .25 caliber Colt revolver, $45 in cash and numerous items of clothing and other valuables. Total loss was set at about $1,247, according to Sgt. Seelow.

SCHOOL BROKEN INTO

Woods police took a report from the principal of Monteith School on Monday, April 11, in which it was stated that someone had broken into the school and inflicted $25 in damages to a microphone. Entrance was gained by inserting a wire between the rear pane doors and tripping the handle.

Notification Sent Army

The Board of Education notified the Army during the winter that it wished to terminate the lease upon its expiration. Local Army officials were of the (Continued on Page 2)

To Dedicate Parish House At Christ Church on Sunday

The dedication of the new, $200,000 Parish House will take place at Christ Church at 4 p.m., on Sunday, April 17. The Rt. Rev. Richard Emrich, Bishop of the Michigan Episcopal Diocese, will preach at the services and dedicate the building.

The ultra-modern edifice will house the lower grades of the Sunday School and serve as a meeting place for various adult church groups. Designed by the renowned Japanese architect, Yamasaki, the building's 18 rooms will accommodate approximately 30 people.

A short service of reverence and thanksgiving will keynote the dedication proceedings. A procession of the church choir and church dignitaries, led by rooms.

Third Junior High School Plans Aired

Study Also Asked on Need For Swimming Pools At Pierce and Parcels

Permission to start preliminary studies for a new Junior High School for the Pointe School District, was scheduled to be requested at the regular meeting of the Board of Education on Wednesday night, April 13.

Dr. James W. Bushong, superintendent of schools, said on Tuesday that he planned to bring the question up, hoping to get action started which would result in the building of the new school.

May Be Last One
Dr. Bushong also said that it is quite possible this will be the last new school needed in the district for many years at least.

The superintendent disclosed at the same time, that he would also ask that a study be made of the possibility of adding swimming pools at the Pierce and Parcels Junior High Schools.

The only pool in the district now is the under-sized one in the High School. It is not regulation size, and is sadly lacking in space for spectators at swimming meets. The building of several new pools has long been in the minds of the educators, but action on them had to be postponed until all the needed classrooms were provided.

First Things First

The auditorium-gymnasium which is being dedicated at the High School Friday night, was also considered far more important than new swimming pools. With this now completed, the board would like to provide more pools, which would permit many more classes to teach both young and adults to swim. They would also provide facilities for more competitive swimming.

The new junior high school would be erected on the Chalfonte avenue site which the school board has owned for many years.

The Army has had this site, east of Cloverly road, under lease since 1951, and a portion of it has been occupied by an Anti-Aircraft Artillery Battery. The five year lease expires in August 1956.

No other community has a Center quite comparable to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial. Beside being a Center of Grosse Pointe activity, it is one of the show places of Metropolitan Detroit. Irreplaceable except at a cost approaching $2,000,000, the Center avoids the institutional look and feel and stands in its lakeshore setting as an example of the finest in architecture and landscaping.

Is Living Memorial

The Memorial is dedicated to Pointers who have served in the armed forces and especially to those who gave their lives for their Country. Two handsome bronze plaques cover the walls of the foyer attesting to their service and sacrifice. As soon as the honor rolls of Korean service are complete, plaques will be erected to commemorate them.

A living War Memorial, the Center is the home of Volunteer Services for the Cancer Society and the Children's Hospital. American Red Cross Braille Transcription is taught each Friday. Free hospital equipment including crutches, wheel chairs and hospital beds, is available for loan to Pointers free of charge.

All Residents Urged to Give In Campaign

Goal of $30,000 Sought to Balance Operations, Maintenance Budget

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association's Annual Family Participation Campaign begins tomorrow, April 15. Solicitation brochures are being mailed to all Grosse Pointe homes.

Although the Center's operational budget has increased from $83,500 to $99,750 this year, the amount asked from the community remains at the same $30,000 figure as last year. The Center hopes for a quick response to the drive so it can be announced at the Memorial Day Services that the goal has been achieved.

Served 65,000 Last Year
Sixty-five thousand people used the Center in 1954, an increase of 4,000 over 1953. At the conclusion of eight months of the present fiscal year, attendance figures are 14,142 greater than over the same period a year ago. The Center's own program-sponsored activities have jumped from 16,854 to 22,530 this year and the attendance at various Grosse Pointe groups using the Center has increased from 23,450 to 32,218.

The vast increase in use has necessitated an extensive program of repairs and redecoration as well as necessary equipment purchased and additional staff hired. Much needed roof and chimney repair, carpentry work on doors and windows, weather stripping, painting of certain parts of the interior and exterior trim are currently scheduled.

New kitchen equipment, shades and furniture repair are necessary to keep up service. New employees have had to be added to both the office and house staffs.

Budget Broken Down
The estimated 1955-1956 budget appears below:

House maintenance and operation, salaries, $37,000.

Building repairs and improvements, $6,000.

Gardens and grounds, $6,600.

Program expenses—food, program, activities, advertising and promotion, $35,230.

Administrative expenses and office salaries, $14,920, making a total of $99,750.

Where the money will come from to meet operating costs is estimated as follows:

Receipts from program activities, $22,750.

Receipts from services supplied, $31,000.

Dividend and interest from investments, $10,000.

Special maintenance contributions, $6,000.

Must come from family participation campaign, $30,000, making a total of $99,750.

Gave $30,387 Last Year
Last year 2,180 families contributed a total of $30,387.50 to help maintain this unique War Memorial which is also a community and cultural Center. The Pointes are growing, and it is the aim of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association to grow with the community, offering increased service based upon increased support.

high rate of speed and had pulled away from his lane of travel to pass another car and hit the girl. The two ranking police officers said Marble had been drinking and was definitely intoxicated at the time of the accident. They took him to the Park police station, where he was given an in-tometer test. The test showed Marble was unfit to drive, registering .25. A registration of .15 indicates drunkenness. Marble said he and his companion, Robert Quandt, 28, of Algonac, a passenger in the car, only had "five or six beers." He said after completing their day's work at 5 p.m., in the construction of the new addition to the Chrysler Jefferson-Kercheval plant, they went to a bar where they had the beer.

Hope to Cite Bar

Chief Trombly stated that from the time of the accident at 8:25 p.m. to midnight, Marble's speech was still incoherent and his actions were that of an intoxicated person. He also said every effort will be made to find out where the men had been served and have the bar cited for serving an intoxicated person.

Sources revealed Quandt was too drunk to know what had gone on. City Public Safety Commissioner John Mazer had high praise for Chief Trombly and Lt. Teetaert for the thorough, effective and skillful manner in which they handled the investigation of the accident.

He said that besides the important small details involved in a case of this type, there is the vital problem of obtaining eye-witnesses and getting their cooperation, and relating all material facts surrounding the case.

Maximum Charge Preferred

The warrant against Marble, he stressed, charging him with involuntary manslaughter, was based on the manner in which evidence has been compiled. A manslaughter warrant is the maximum charge for a vicious crime of this type.

Miss Wade, the first traffic death victim in the City since 1951, is survived by her mother, two brothers, John, 17, and Thomas, 21, an army private; and three sisters, Mary, 23; Eleanor, 22; and Sister Maria Pauline of the Bon Secours Sisters, Baltimore.

Funeral services were held in St. Paul Church on Monday, April 11, after which burial took place in St. Paul cemetery.

MORE HUBCAPS VANISH

David Gosselin of 863 Beaconsfield, reported the theft of two hubcaps from his car to Park police on Sunday, April 10. He said the car was parked in front of his house at the time.

placed in sealed boxes. It was revealed these ballots were mixed with the ballots cast for State and County offices.

This resolution will be forwarded to the Wayne County Election Board for action. City Attorney Berns stated this is necessary so that the State will send proper representatives to remove the ballots and thereby expedite the recount.

Will Count All Ballots

He pointed out that on the basis of the two petitions filed for the recount, all city ballots will automatically be counted over. Appointed to see that the recount is carried out according to law, were Woods City Clerk Herbert L. Brauns, Director of Public Safety Vern C. Bailey, and/or one or more members of the Board of Canvassers.

No date for the recount has been set, but the meeting of the Board was adjourned subject to a call from the city clerk, who must notify members and parties concerned in writing, 24 hours before the recount takes place.

Can Serve 300 Dinners

The Center is equipped with excellent catering facilities to serve and accommodate groups up to 300, even for full-course dinners. The local Exchange Kiwanis, Optimist and Rotary Clubs have their weekly luncheon or dinner meetings at the Memorial. The American Association of University Women, the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club, the Grosse Pointe Faculty Wives, all the Pointe's garden clubs, the Grosse Pointe Traffic and Safety Committee, the Grosse Pointe Property Owners' Association, Grosse Pointe Artists, Grosse Pointe Brokers, Grosse Pointe Community Theater, Grosse Pointe Simians, the New Iadom Club, the Junior League, the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe Park, Republican and Democratic organizations and the Welcome Wagon Club are but a sample of the over 1,400 groups who use the Center.

Open to Most Any Group

The Center is open for the use of any group organized for educational, cultural, recreational or social purpose providing a substantial number of Grosse Pointers are members or the organization. Veterans, who are Pointers or are marrying Pointers, may use the Center for their weddings or receptions. No alcohol is permitted.

Students Make Clean-Up Posters

Beginning tomorrow, April 15, until the end of the month, stores and public buildings in all five Grosse Pointes will display posters made by the students in all the schools.

This is one more indication of the general interest in the 1955 "Scrubaroo" Campaign. Much skill and thought has gone into the making of these timely and colorful reminders on Clean-Up and many of the suggestions pictured could be practised by every resident.

Distributed by members of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, the posters will be placed in the vicinity of the school attended by the children submitting them, so their families, friends and neighbors may have the opportunity of admiring their handiwork.

Every child submitting a poster will receive a certificate of merit signed by Paul Marden, chairman of the Clean-Up Campaign. Only posters which have been carefully screened for merit, will be displayed.

The schools participating include: St. Ambrose, St. Clair, St. Paul's, Grosse Pointe University School, Trombly, Defer, Kerby, Pierce, Maire, Richard, Monteith, Parcells, Mason, Poupard, Vernier and Ferry.

opinion that the military would insist upon a renewal of the lease for another five years.

However, Dr. Bushong and Robert Weber, board member, went to Washington in February and met with Assistant Secretary of the Army Higgins. As a result of this meeting, Secretary Higgins later confirmed by letter to Dr. Bushong, the Army's decision to relinquish the site next August when the lease expires.

Gives Complete Cooperation

It was further stated that the Army is now using only six of the 15 acres in the site, and was willing to relinquish the remaining nine acres to the Board of Education immediately.

Dr. Bushong said that the co-operation of the Army means that it would be possible to make test borings on the site at any time, and if and when plans for the new building are approved, construction could start even before the AAA battery moves out.

Needed by Fall of 1957

It is estimated that the new building will be needed by the opening of the school term in September 1957. In order to have it ready by that time, it would be necessary to start construction next summer.

It is considered quite possible that after the preliminary studies are made, the voters will be asked to approve a bond issue at the school election, next spring, to pay for the new junior high building, and perhaps for the new swimming pools

Subdivision Development Plea Refused By GP Woods

The Grosse Pointe Woods Council, at its postponed meeting held on Thursday, April 7, again turned down the requests of William Klenk for a go-ahead on the proposed Klenk-Gaukler Subdivision.

The council said that because the city could not provide adequate services to the subdivision, it could not recind a previous legislation denying building permits. A motion to recind was made by Councilman Rex Johnston, but died for lack of a second. The council had previously voted unanimously to deny the permits.

Klenk, with his lawyer, Robert Dunwoodie, was present at the meeting to appeal for the right to go ahead and develop his land parcel, granted subdivision status in 1916.

The subdivision, which lies in the northeast corner of the Woods and overlaps into St. Clair Shores, is not accessible from the Woods city proper. Fire, police and garbage, in order to service the plat, would have to cut through Grosse Pointe Shores. The city has two such developed areas now, one at the foot of Provincial road and one off Colonial.

The council placed the responsibility of figuring out a feasible solution to the service dilemma on Klenk's shoulders. Previous moves by Klenk to obtain the services from either the Shores or St. Clair Shores, (for which the Woods would remit the usual assessed tax costs), have all failed.

At Thursday's meeting, Klenk appealed to the council for aid in obtaining the services from the neighboring communities.

Councilman McLeod summed up the council's opinion when he stated that because the interests of the subdivision's development lay with Klenk, it was his duty to arrive at and show to the council a workable solution.

Klenk was quick to quote a prepared, itemized list of the proposed solutions he has offered for the council's consideration in the past. He also quoted to the council the number of times he had appeared before them and the number of times his requests and proposals had been turned down. He listed seven specific dates.

Among Klenk's proposals, he cited the fact that he was willing to install at his own expense roadways, sewers, gas mains and a gas meter. He asked the council what more he could do.

The matter was turned over to City Manager William Lange for further study.

Supreme Court Drawn Into Old Liquor License Fight

The liquor license issue in the Woods, thought dormant, appears to have come to a head on Monday, April 11, when the Woods council was notified that a writ of mandamus has been issued by the State Supreme Court.

The writ, 25 pages long, orders the Woods and the Michigan Liquor Control Commission to show cause why the legal number of liquor licenses to business establishments in the city should not be issued.

The council was informed of the writ by City Attorney Julius Berns.

The writ also orders the city to show cause why Ordinance 89, enacted after a referendum vote by the people in November, 1952, should not be set aside as unconstitutional.

The action was obtained by Attorney George A. Francis on behalf of Mr. and Mrs. A. George Aghassian, owners of a restaurant on Mack avenue, who prior to the referendum, sought a Class C liquor license for their establishment.

The issuance of Class C licenses, to establishments other than the two which now have them, was overwhelmingly turned down by the voters in the Woods.

In the writ, the Aghassians state they do not seek the license for themselves, but to have the ordinance set aside, so that the full quota of four licenses, will be issued in the city on the basis of first come, first served.

The council authorized City Attorney Berns to answer the writ, which is returnable on Tuesday, April 26.

The state of Michigan was the first to introduce roadside picnic tables to America. More than 3,000 charmingly rustic and restful roadside picnic grounds have been established in Michigan by the State Highway Department.

Farms Accepts Water Job Bids

The Farms accepted bids on the cross-city water feeder main and the two open filter beds on Tuesday, April 12. They were well below the estimated costs set by the City Engineer's Office.

The low bid of $132,459 for the cross-city feeder main, which will run along Kercheval to Ridge road and which will not only supply water to the city, but will boost the water pressure in the Farms, was accepted, according to Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith.

The estimated cost of this project had been set at about $148,000.

Addition of the two filter beds near the water intake station will cost $56,959, whereas the estimated cost was given as $100,000.

Legal and engineering costs will boost the amount of the entire project by about $27,000, Mr. Smith said.

He said the bidding was very favorable to the city in the light of the estimates set by his office.

Materials for the work have been contracted for and should be delivered by May 1.

He added that barring complications, the two projects should be completed by mid-summer.

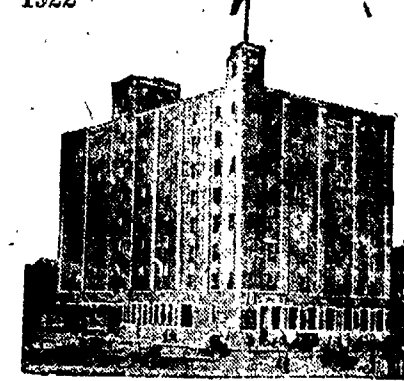

The bonds for the work will be sold on Monday, April 18, during a regular council meeting.

Warning Issued To Pedestrians

Pedestrians were warned this week of the dangers of traffic for the person afoot.

Posters carrying the message "11 Pedestrians Will Be Struck Down In Traffic Today — Look Before You Cross The Street" were erected on nearly 500 street-corner standards in downtown Detroit, shopping centers and other heavy pedestrian crossings in the city. The posters were prepared by the Traffic Safety Association of Detroit and erected by the Department of Streets and Traffic Sign Shop.

Last year 4,076 pedestrians were injured in Detroit traffic accidents and 128 were killed, according to records of the Detroit Police Department Accident Prevention Bureau.

"It's a shocking and tragic fact to realize that an average of 11 pedestrians were struck down in Detroit traffic every day last year," said the Traffic Safety Association. "More than 1,100 of them were hit while they were crossing at a place other than the intersection."

"But the most amazing thing about the record is that 922 persons were hit when they walked or ran into the side of a vehicle," the Association continued. "That obviously means that these persons, and 11 of them were fatally injured, were not even looking when they started across the street."

Crossing Detroit streets is a task that demands every pedestrian's full attention until he gets safely to the other side, the Association said, adding: "If persons on foot will just take the time to look before they cross the street, pedestrian accidents will be cut substantially."

AAUW to Hear Sayo Yotsukuru

Final plans are being made for the appearance in Grosse Pointe on Thursday, April 21, of the Japanese translator and teacher, Sayo Yotsukuru. Presented by the Fellowship Committee of the Grosse Pointe Branch of AAUW, Mrs. Yotsukuru is the present international grandholder whose year of study at the University of Michigan is sponsored by the program of graduate study of AAUW.

Mrs. Robert Clarke, chairman of the Pointe Fellowship group of AAUW, has announced plans for the meeting at the War Memorial Center, when members are invited to appear at 1:30. The speaker will meet individual members of the Pointe Branch at a tea after the talk.

Known widely throughout Japan for her teaching of the English language and literature, as well as for the published translations of the English language books she has put into Japanese, the diminutive scholar has her heart set on establishing better understanding between the people of her native land and the one she has "adopted."

Mrs. John R. Pear, president of the Pointe AAUW, has as her tea hostesses for this meeting Mrs. W. J. Reaume, Mrs. L. M. Green, Mrs. Walter Kingsley, Miss Elizabeth Long, Mrs. S. T. Moreland and Mrs. I. G. Wolf.

Oldsters Prefer Work, Aging Study Reveals

A Wayne University study of people over age 65 recently disproved the widely held idea that people look forward to retirement so they can start taking things easy.

Crown Champs In Girls' Loop

The St. Paul Junior Varsity eked out a slim 25-22 victory over the St. Paul seniors Tuesday night, April 5, to win the Girls League Neighborhood Club championship. Forward Cris Geist was high point getter for the winners while Joan Hind led the losers.

The fourth round of playoffs was held last Thursday evening with the Hoppers defeating the WAFs 30 to 19 to capture the Senior Division championship, and the St. Paul Jr. Varsity defeating the St. Paul Varsity 30 to 25 in the Junior Division.

At half time in the Junior game, the St. Paul Jr. Varsity had a promising 17 to 8 lead but had to work hard in the second half to hold on to it, as Mary Sutherland, Mary Moxley and Maggie Sutherland all started to click for the Varsity.

In the fourth quarter it was discovered that the Jr. Varsity had a player who was not officially on the team roster, which automatically constitutes a forfeit. This forfeit would have given the St. Paul Varsity the league championship as they had been undefeated all during the playoffs. At the time the error was discovered, the Varsity was losing to the Jr. Varsity, 24 to 18, and had to make the decision of accepting the league title on forfeit or continuing on with the game.

In most instances and according to the rule book there would be no decision to make, however through an act of good sportsmanship and real team spirit, they decided to continue on with the game.

Pat Cavanaugh, Claudette Roland and Jeanne Cavanaugh kept pumping in more and more points to outscore the Varsity and capture the 30 to 25 decision. The Jr. Varsity committed 13 fouls while the Varsity had 15.

Kendrick Brown Family Returns

For the first time in some time, the entire Kendrick Brown family is here in the Pointe. Having just returned from a month in Acapulco, Mrs. Brown reports that the bathing (both sun and water variety) was heavenly, but even this gives way to slight touch of envy.

Barely unpacked in her beautiful Westchester road home, Mrs. Brown's daughter, Mrs. Joseph W. Caskey, of Stanton lane, and her husband returned with tales upon tales of their Caribbean cruise.

Curacao in the British West Indies was wonderful, Trinidad fascinating, the Barbadoes enchanting, and St. Thomas was out of this world, reports Mrs. Caskey. She couldn't find words to describe La Guera, Caracas, Nassau and Havana.

Mrs. Brown's other daughter, Mrs. Willard P. Kerr of Mt. Vernon road is home too, but not for long. The first week in May, Mrs. Kerr and her husband plan to motor down to Virginia Beach, stopping en route for a short visit to Williamsburg, Va.

So it looks as if the Brown home will be filled with wonderful things to say about far away places for some time to come.

Saturday, May 21, is New Frontiers Day. A vigorous look forward into the promise and opportunities of the years ahead.

Pupils Receive TV Bulletins

Nine thousand five hundred copies of the TV Bulletin compiled by the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council were distributed to Pointe school children via report cards April 1. Distributed in grades one through six, the bulletins were given to public and parochial students alike.

The members of the council viewed all the programs carried by the Detroit television stations and listed only those they deemed excellent or good.

GM Car Sales Set New Marks

Retail sales of new General Motors passenger cars during the first quarter of 1955 were the highest for any quarter in GM history, and March sales set a new record for a single month. President Harlow H. Curtice announced today.

Mr. Curtice also announced these other new GM sales records:

New cars—sales during the last 10 days of March were the highest for any 10-day period in history.

Used cars—March sales set a new one-month high; sales during the last 10 days of the month were the highest for any 10-day period; sales for the first quarter set a new first-quarter record.

Each of GM's five passenger car divisions—Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick and Cadillac—set new first-quarter sales records for new cars.

Mr. Curtice disclosed that retail sales of new GM passenger cars totaled 893,978 for the first quarter, or 146.6 per cent of the figure for the corresponding period of 1954.

During March, retail sales of new passenger cars by GM dealers totaled 351,963. This was 138.9 per cent of the March, 1954, total. Sales for the final 10 days of March totaled 134,843, or 144.1 per cent of the corresponding period last year.

The previous quarterly record was set in the second quarter of 1954, when new passenger car sales by GM dealers totaled 785,847.

GM used car sales totaled 1,104,005 during the first quarter, or 135.7 per cent of the 1954 first quarter mark; 428,842 during March, or 132.2 per cent of the figure for March last year; and 168,367 during the final 10 days of March, or 136.6 per cent of the total for the same period last year.

"The public demand for all General Motors' passenger car lines is the strongest ever experienced and points toward a record year for the corporation and its dealers," Mr. Curtice said.

"Production in the first quarter established an all-time record for all divisions of the corporation. Nevertheless, our dealers' stocks of cars are at an abnormally low level for this time of the year and in the face of the strong demand which exists today."

Convent Grads Stage Reunion

The 1954 graduating class of the Sacred Heart Convent held its first reunion Monday evening, April 11, in the Audubon road home of Marilyn Walker.

The girls, home for Easter vacation from various schools throughout the country, chatted about their experiences as freshmen, compared notes on their classes and discussed summer plans. The evening was topped off by a midnight supper.

Marilyn, who attends Manhattanville College in Purchase, N. Y., served as host for her classmates Margie Murphy and Pat Flaherty. Elizabeth Remick, Stephanie Millenbach and Vicky Moroun were home from Newton College while Emmy Bishop was busy telling tales of those wonderful Notre Dame men. She attends St. Mary's in South Bend.

Mary Ellen Murphy, Bernadette Thibodeau, Marjorie Godin and their house guests all compared notes on the activities at Maryville College. Gail Gibb and Mimi Cameron, who are enrolled at Notre Dame of Maryland, were both convinced that their lots were indeed the most difficult.

Hometowners Pat Nichols, Pat Alter and Bonnie Lorranger all called it a last fling before resuming studies at cross-town U. of D. Tuesday.

The Changing Scene: The Wilfred V. Casgrains have sold their home on Willow lane . . . and will move into the James B. Angell residence on Stephens road . . . New owners of the Casgrain home are Mr. and Mrs. John C. Caulkins, who shift from Fisher road.

Hong Kong Arrival

But really on the move are the Wallace Temples, of Fisher road . . . circling the globe with daughter, Karen, on one of the fabulous trips they take every other year or so . . . As we reach you this Thursday morning . . . the Temples should be getting into Hong Kong (kind of appropriate, isn't it!) . . . with a couple of months of adventure already behind them . . .

Travel Diaries

We are managing to keep up with them through that wonderful and popular system favored by the modern traveler . . . the letter sent home to an efficient secretary . . . who mails out mimeographed copies locally . . . Mr. Temple is author in this case . . . with a flair for description and an elegant curiosity which enables him to pick up all kinds of odd information . . . that we'd probably miss while trying to figure out the country's currency system . . .

How's That Again?

He knows, for instance, that lace makers in Spain receive about fifteen cents a day in our money . . . and watched girls making black lace in almost semi-darkness in Spain . . . The Pointers drove across Spain with their friends, the Robert Dunns, in their Opel . . . after having been the Dunns' houseguests at Estoril, that so swank suburb of Lisbon in Portugal . . . It was there that Mr. Temple was quick to note how completely man is the master in his own home . . . At least as far as the domestic help is concerned. An American woman who lives in Lisbon told him "The maid has to wait until the man of the house comes home, even if it is 4:30 a.m. When she hears his car in the drive, she rushes out and opens the garage doors for him. She helps him out of his overcoat. No one can retire until the old gent gives the Okay. This he does when he is ready to retire."

Richest Man in the World

They heard tales of Gulbenkian, the richest man in the world (he lives at the Avis Hotel in Lisbon and his wealth is reputed to be $168 million dollars—American.) With Gulbenkian lives his son, a very large man who wears a goatee, rides a big white horse and wears a monocle as he canters along. Friends of the Temples were waiting for the elevator one day at the hotel where the Gulbenkians live. The wealthiest man in the world arrived at the elevator at the same time. He refused to ride with strangers, created a scene, and the elevator operator was obliged to put his other passengers out and permit Mr. Moneybags to ride up to his floor alone.

There were 79 children at the Homestead when the Spitzleys were there. That should mean at least as many return reservations if all the toddlers reacted like Ann and Bill who, "Want to go back right now."

Out of Town Charm Wins Two Bachelors

Easter Saturday Parties Tell of Engagements of James M. Kalbfleisch to Mary Bell of Hinsdale, Ill.; David L. Seeber and Joan Louise Kemp of Fairfield, Conn.

Two prominent names on the Pointe's bachelor list were written off with romantic strokes over the Easter week-end when their engagements were announced to out of town girls.

James Marcus Kalbfleisch claimed as his bride-elect Mary Bell of Hinsdale, Ill., and David Livingstone Seeber became engaged to Joan Louise Kemp of Fairfield, Conn.

For Jim and Mary (her lovely red hair has given her the nickname of Pinky) it was a campus romance since both are students at Denison College in Granville, O.

Their engagement was announced at an Easter Saturday cocktail party given by Mary's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard John Bell in their Hinsdale home. Jim's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marcus M. Kalbfleisch, of Lincoln road, and his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kitchen, flew over for the party and returned to the Pointe late Easter evening.

Mary is a graduate of Ferry Hall, Lake Forest, Ill., and of Colby Junior College of New London, New Hampshire.

She was a recent houseguest of the Kalbfleishes in the Pointe. Jim, before going to Denison, was graduated from Tabor Academy in Marion, Mass.

Plans are already in the making for a September wedding for David Seeber and Joan Kemp. The bride-elect's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Edward Philip Kemp, of Fairfield, Conn., announced the engagement at a family dinner party in their home on Easter Saturday.

Lowell Dean Stewarts To Leave for Japan

Former Nancy Sue Menke and Bridegroom Sail for Orient This Summer; Marriage Took Place Saturday; Bride Daughter of The Carl L. Menkes of Lochmoor

In early Summer, the newly-married Lowell Dean Stewarts will leave to make their home in Japan for the next three years.

The bridegroom, a lieutenant in the USAF, will be stationed at Miho Air Base in Japan and his bride will accompany him to the Orient.

Their wedding took place Thursday, April 7, at a candle-light service in Marantha Baptist Church.

The Rev. Donald L. Veitch officiated at the 7 o'clock ceremony which was followed by a reception in the church parlors, given by the bride's parents.

The new Mrs. Stewart was Nancy Sue Menke, before her marriage. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Menke of Lochmoor boulevard. Lieut. Stewart is the son of Gerald Stewart and the late Mrs. Stewart.

For her wedding, Nancy donned a gown of white Chantilly lace and nylon tulle, panels of the lace used in back and front of the bouffant, ruffled skirt.

Her fingertip length veil of imported silk illusion fell from a double crown of iridescent sequins and the same jewels drifted through the lace of the bridal gown.

Nancy carried a cascade bouquet of American Beauty roses.

Attending the bride were Barbara MacDougall, as maid of honor, and Joan Rivette and her sister, Kathy Menke. Eight-year-old Janice Wicker, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

All wore gowns of raspberry-toned crystal with floor sweeping skirts and strapless bodices, covered in church with matching shirrs. On their heads were garlands of blossoms fashioned of the gown material and they carried bouquets of white carnations.

The flower girl was a miniature of the attendants.

Lieut. Stewart asked his brother-in-law Jack Wicker, Joseph Havens, and Dale Leegstra, of St. Clair Shores, to serve as best men. The ushers were the bride's brother, James Menke and her brother-in-law, Henry Richter.

Mrs. Menke attended the wedding in gold peau de soie fashioned on princess lines, with material lacing used on the back bodice, ending low in large bow to achieve bustle effect. Her small hat was in the same material and she carried golden spray orchids.

Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Menke and the bridegroom's father, was his grandmother.

shoes were given (they were even followed on the streets by shoe shine boys) . . . by the delicious fruit . . . they picked the famous Seville oranges from the trees . . . by the church bells in Granada . . . by the Queen of the Gypsies, Faraona, whose cave outside Granada they visited and watched a three hour entertainment . . . ("Cave's not such a bad idea," commented the journal keeper, "No rent or taxes to pay!") . . . They learned that in Madrid a college professor receives fifty dollars a month . . . and that at student parties at the University the young people rent record players and cut runs just as American students do . . . The people are honest and friendly and at the Alphonso XIII Hotel, in Seville, the years of service of a waiter are indicated by the length of his cut-throat. They wear full dress.

Coins in the Fountain

In Greece the people were friendly to Americans . . . for example when the Temples dined at a tavern in Athens the waiter kept bringing them glasses of special brandy with the compliments of the manager who finally sent them a fruit sandwich. Four or five inches high, it consisted of a slice of orange and a slice of apple repeated over and over and finally a special wine was poured over all. In Rome they loved the Hostario del Orso (once a hotel where Dante is supposed to have stayed, it is now a restaurant and night club on many different floors). They watched a floor show there when the Italian entertainer recited, in English, "The Shooting of Dan McGrew." The entertainer had a cap pistol that didn't go off when it was supposed to. During their stay in Rome, the Temples got together with their friend Phil Arreda, who graduated from Harvard Law School a year ago . . . and Phil insisted that Karen throw a coin in the Trevi Fountain.

The Camels Are Coming

After Jerusalem the Temples went to Egypt . . . traveled over the desert by camel to spend the night at a dragoon camp within sight of the pyramids . . . Mr. Temple's camel, a blonde and five years old, was called Princess. Charrane, the camel driver who led his camel on the ride, kept singing with an Arabic accent, "The camels are coming, hurrah, hurrah!" . . . They watched a camel race . . . and an animal named Canada Dry won (its driver was named Brooklyn Bridge) . . .

No Pictures in Damascus!

In Damascus the travelers reported their only bad time . . . Mr. Temple is a camera enthusiast . . . and the natives object to picture taking. "Like Queen Victoria, I'd like to cut Damascus off the map. Most every time I began to take a picture from one to 20 hoodlums, whose ages ranged from 18 to 25 or 30, would appear from nowhere and say, "No pictures in Damascus." One struck at my camera, two or three grabbed and got their hands on it. On three occasions they called the police and tried to have me arrested" . . . From India Mr. Temple wrote that he met a man from Ireland who told him that country is having a great drought. Funny how small the world becomes for travelers! . . . The Pointers cruised up the Nile and after the natives had entertained them with songs . . . Mr. Temple took over the drums and the trio sang American songs for the Egyptians . . . who applauded and cried, "Hip, Hip, Hooray. Thank you; very good; very nice." And thus it is that when you get to Egypt you'll find the natives singing American popular songs just as those coming to our shores from other lands find us singing the tunes they've just left behind . . .

GPYC Comes Ashore For Gay Film Party

An alert to Grosse Pointers: When residents see a fleet of several big chartered buses sweeping Detroit through Lake Shore road and Jefferson avenue, this Thursday evening (April 14), they'll know that Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's big "Cinemas Holiday" party is under way.

The spectacular show at Music Hall is the focal point of the festivity, of course—but the evening really will be a three-dimensional affair.

Fun will begin early with an extra-special buffet dinner at the club. And after the cinema tour of Switzerland, Paris, Maine and New Orleans at Music Hall, the crowd will go back to GPYC for the buffet supper-dance, arranged as a merry climax to the evening.

Approximately half of the 450 attending chose to simplify travel by going on the chartered buses. The other half will drive in their own cars for one or another reason of personal convenience.

Among the latter is William O'Neill Krommer, Jr., chairman of the fete. He and Mrs. Krommer will have to whip back to the Pointe after the show for a final check of supper-dance arrangements.

The chairman's parents, Commodore and Mrs. William O'Neill Krommer, will be present—and they're sure to be the center of a group of friends. The George C. Mitchells will have a party of six and their evening will begin with dinner at GPYC and continue through supper and the dancing to Art Quatro's music.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryan A. Chaplow will entertain 24. Before taking their group to the club, Mr. and Mrs. John F. DeHayes will be hosts at cocktails in their Sunningdale drive home. Their guests will be the Thomas P. Hammonds, the William Morris and the Richard W. Rays.

The LeRoy Paynes will entertain the Herbert O. McNierneys and the Lester Colbys—they'll join at GPYC for early cocktails.

With the Robert J. Nixons will be the Dennis J. Brackens, and another foursome will be Mr. and Mrs. Earl P. Dubois and the Gordon Clarks.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel L. Beck's sixsome will honor their son, Daniel Ryan Beck, on his birthday anniversary, the other guests being the junior Mrs. Beck and the Edward K. Isbys.

The Clement A. Pennells will be hosts to the Clarence Bauers and to their son and daughter-in-law, the John C. Pennells, who are getting nicely settled at the Pointe again after their residence in Milwaukee.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard R. West will entertain their group at cocktails at GPYC before the dinner-show-supper dance "do." Their guests will include the James T. Bowlings, Mr. and Mrs. James Hoffines and the Harry Parkers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank C. Barrows and their son-in-law and daughter, the Robert L. Rouseaus, will be a foursome. The Jack P. Pedersen will entertain the Carl Kalittas, the Jack Gilmoors, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Force, and the John Hales, of Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Zimmer and the Cletus J. Wellings are attending together, and among others will be the Edward D. Barretts, the Harry A. Turners, the Jack Frasers, the Arthur W. Moestas and the Earl P. Thompsons.

Investigations To be Discussed

In their April unit meetings the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters will discuss "Congressional Investigating Committees," how they started, under what authority they operate, what they accomplish.

Congressional hearings and investigations have been steadily growing in number and force since the first one in 1792 when the House of Representatives directed an inquiry into the failure of an expedition against the Indians.

This growth has made the American people concerned about the future development of investigations and their effect on civil liberty.

The Freedom Agenda Committee, headed by Mrs. M. L. Collinson, will bring to the April unit meetings information on the following topics: (1) What is a Congressional investigation? (2) The moral and legal obligations of witnesses. (3) Three grounds on which witnesses may refuse to testify. (4) Subversive activities. (5) Proposed reforms.

All interested women in the community as well as members

Girl Scouts Asked to Help Buy Juliette Low Home in Savannah

This is special to the Grosse Pointe Girl Scouts. Did you know that the four-story house in Savannah, Georgia, where Juliette Low was born and where she grew up has been purchased by the Girl Scouts?

A special committee has been formed to restore the house so that it is exactly the same inside and out as it was when our founder lived there. Not only will records of the past be kept there, but the girls from all over the world may visit it "to find friendship and inspiration."

The house, with garden, carriages house and servants' quarters, covers half a block in downtown Savannah. Plans call for using part of it as a hostel where troops who visit there may stay overnight or longer. The house is one of the best examples of pure Georgian architecture in the country, which would be of great interest to girls working on Architecture badge.

To make the dream come true, funds are needed to restore and furnish the house. Since this will belong to all the Girl Scouts, wouldn't you like to have a part in it? You know, if each one of us gave just a little bit, we could have the buildings ready for use in no time at all.

We know that "Daisy" Gordon was married to William Low in this very house, where she swept down the beautiful curving staircase in her wedding gown and long train; and we also know that she gave her wedding attendants pins to remember the occasion; white porcelain daisies with diamond centers.

Don't Ignore This Request

The War Memorial Association launches its annual Family Participation Campaign for funds tomorrow. We are asked to donate $30,000 to balance the budget for the maintenance and operation of The Center, which has become such an important factor in the cultural, educational, social and patriotic life of the community.

The budget for the Center is close to $100,000. Income from program activities, the endowment fund and special gifts from a small group produce all but the $30,000 we are asked to contribute. This amounts to just about 50 cents each from every one of the residents of the area which The Center serves.

Last year more than 65,000 persons attended events held at this magnificent lakefront property. No one knows how many additional thousands visited The Center and derived pleasure from the beauty of this living memorial with its superb Italian Renaissance building and the lovely gardens and lawns which surround it.

Every Pointer should be inordinately proud of The Center. Presented to the community by the Russell Alger family, it has been developed as a fitting memorial to those who served and those who died in World War II. A third bronze plaque is now being prepared to honor the veterans and heroes of the Korean War. In addition to the memorial purpose which it serves, The Center provides a long and varied list of activities and programs to serve all tastes and every age group.

Whether or not we personally use The Center, we should all appreciate the great part it plays in the lives of so many of us. We should be anxious to pay a small part of the insurance policy which will guarantee its continued development, usefulness and dedication to its principal purpose.

This can be quickly and easily accomplished if each and every one of us will send in a donation, no matter how small. The Center is for all of us; let all of us be for The Center.

Send in your contribution now. It is hoped that a successful conclusion to the drive can be announced when the annual Memorial Day ceremony is held there. An immediate response will eliminate the necessity for expensive and embarrassing repetitions of the plea.

All donations are tax deductible. Make your check payable to the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, 32 Lake Shore road, Grosse Pointe 36.

A Tragic Lesson

A tragic accident which took place on our streets last Thursday night should indelibly imprint on our minds the terrible consequences which are courted by reckless drivers, and particularly by those who drive after drinking.

Margaret Wade, 18, beautiful, talented, popular, with all of life ahead of her, stepped off a bus at her corner, East Jefferson and Roosevelt place. She was returning home from a music lesson, taken after working at her job all day. She was graduated from St. Paul's last June and was employed in the legal department of the Michigan State Liquor Commission in Lincoln Park. She started across the street and was across the center line, waiting for a westbound car to pass, when the accident happened.

A speeding driver, who admitted he had been drinking for some hours, and who was determined thoroughly intoxicated by drunkometer tests, snuffed out Margaret's life.

Witnesses testified that Donald Marble, 27, of New Baltimore, was driving between 50 and 55 miles per hour. He swerved out behind another eastbound car, crossed the center line and crashed into the young girl. Margaret was carried 202 feet on the auto's left fender before she fell to the pavement. The car continued on for 383 feet after the impact, before turning into a side drive. The police said Marble thought it was a street leading towards the lake and he was trying to flee the scene of the accident.

Marble was caught, and witnesses and police investigation have built up a powerful case against him. This is small comfort to Margaret's family and her myriad friends.

According to the police, Marble, who was locked up in the City of Grosse Pointe cellblock over the weekend, felt little remorse over his crime. Those who attended Margaret's funeral, and doubtless many thousands of others who read the sad story in the newspapers, were more cognizant of the criminal character of the horrible thing this drunken driver had perpetrated.

The drunk who drives a car is the moronic equal of the imbecile who pulls the trigger of a gun, thinking it unloaded. Both should be deprived of their weapons for the rest of their lives, by an infallible method.

Letters to the Editor

6 April, 1955
Hanau, Germany

Dear Editor:

I have just read about the preparations being made for the dedication of the new gymnasium-auditorium. I would like to extend my best wishes and congratulations to the community for completing this urgently needed project. The community can well afford to feel proud of the building and of itself.

With the laurels, however, I think that the NEWS should receive some "Thanks" for its part in helping to bring the construction of this building into reality. Your editorials, I believe, have helped immensely in forming public opinion. In particular, I think that the NEWS' sports editor, Fred Runnells, should also receive recognition for his relentless crusade against Grosse Pointe's "cracker box" gym. He has been plugging for newer and better facilities for about 10 years and should receive an extra "Thanks" from the community, especially the youth.

JOSEPH L. FROMM

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"Where the rocks are gray and the shore is steep,
And the waters below look dark and deep,
Where the rugged pine, in its lonely pride
Leans gloomily over the murky tide;
Where the shadow is heavy the whole day through,
There lies at its moorings, the old canoe."
(Emily Page)

In Palm Beach this past winter, a sizable group from Grosse Pointe was having late supper at a night spot and listening to the tunes of one Dorothy Sarnoff, whose act consists partly of going from table to table, singling out a man here and there to speak to, accompanied by a musical background.

The place was crowded and much merriment exuded but our Southern spy tells us this incident happened word for word. Miss Sarnoff did her floor show stint, then with a bright spot on her and the rest of the place in darkness, the songstress started her table hopping with questions. One of her gags is "You look like a happily married man... WHY?" Usually the poor goop who's questioned looks as silly as he feels but it is all in the nature of good, clean fun.

After the actress had stopped at a few tables, she came to one and said to one of the men: "You look as if you would be good to your wife." Everyone snickered and the gentleman allowed as how he thought he was good to her. Dorothy then asked: "Would you buy her a Cadillac?" The audience laughed a little louder at this... so the performer went on: "Oh, I SEE... you've already bought her a Cadillac?" More laughter, this time quite hilarious. Finally the little woman thought she caught on... so she said: "I'll bet you WORK for General Motors!" The man in question shook his head negatively as the audience by this time was hysterical.

We don't know how far the act would have gone on... because just at that point someone at a nearby table yelled: "That's HENRY FORD!" And it was. Later in the evening, Miss Sarnoff was seen at the Ford table trying to apologize, but Henry II was all smiles. We've always heard he was a good sport and now we have even more reason to believe it.

Having eaten high off the hog on Easter, we were resting our appetite for a couple of days and as usual, when we lay off food... we literally PLOW through all the magazines in sight. By mistake, we got hold of one that featured unusual sandwiches and once we got started we couldn't stop. Fortunately we had the fortitude to just read about 'em, not try them. We picked out a honey for our readers.

For ONE sandwich, cut FIVE slices of bread, each slice a little smaller than the other. On the first large slice put sliced turkey and spread with a mixture of mayonnaise and chili sauce; cover the next slice with chopped egg and green pepper salad and put on top of first piece. Cover third with sliced tomatoes and spread with mayonnaise; put on top of second slice. Cover next slice with roquefort cheese and un-peeled cucumber and put on top of third. Spread last and smallest slice with cream cheese and top with rolled anchovy fillet. WOW!!! Be sure you have the doctor's phone number handy before you start!

If you've ever known one of those characters who claims to know EVERYONE whose name is mentioned... you should like this story. There was such a man, whom we shall call Charley. Speak any famous name at all and good old Charley knew them WELL. A couple of his close friends, who were going to make a trip to the coast with him, thought they'd catch him good, so just before they were scheduled to visit a studio one day, they asked him if he knew Marilyn Monroe. SURE he knew her...

They get to the studio and as they are passing Monroe's dressing room, out she comes, spies the three men and calls out: "Hello there CHARLEY!" The latter waved, "Hi Marilyn" and his friends were dumbfounded.

On their way back home, they stopped in Washington and once again the boys thought they'd show Charley up. Did he know the President? "Natch," said Charley, "I know Ike like a brother." They took off to some function or other that President Eisenhower was attending and got a place in a front line at the door. When Ike got out of his car and spied the three men, he called, "HELLO CHARLEY, how's the boy?"

This was too much but they didn't give up. After leaving Washington they stopped overnight in a town where Senator McCarthy was going to give a speech. Did he know McCarthy? "... he certainly did! They went to the rally and inched their way up to the speakers platform. When McCarthy spotted them, he yelled, "Hi Charley... come on up here and sit on the platform with me." Charley complied with the request and his friends decided they would mill around in the audience to find someone who DIDN'T know Charley.

As they pushed their way through the crowd they passed a Chinese gentleman. This was their big chance. The spoke to the man and asked: "Do you know that man up there on the platform?" The Chinese looked, then said: "You mean the one standing next to Charley? No, I don't know who HE is!"

On that lively Spring day last week, we were sitting on our front stoop, minding our own business, when two women, deep in loud conversation, strolled by... one talking as if she were under a hair dryer.

As they got abreast of our yard, the loud one was saying: "So I sez to her, I sez, you needn't darken my door again as long as you live."

The other woman asked: "What happened next?"

"Well," replied the first character, "I didn't see her again until at the meeting last Wednesday. And do you know what I did? I just stuck my nose way up in the air and walked right by her, looking insipid."

In case the woman reads this column, she might be glad to know that we looked the word "insipid" UP in Webster's and this is what he has to say. "Insipid"... Without taste... vapid... uninteresting, flat, dull." On second thought it wouldn't be too hard for this gal to look that way, even without her nose up in the air!

Ford Shatters Sales Records

The nation's 6,600 Ford dealers sold 1,017,773 cars and trucks during the first three months of 1955 to break all their previous records for first quarter sales. L. W. Smead, Ford Division general sales manager, said today.

Mr. Smead said that almost half of the total was made up of new Ford cars and trucks. Sales in the used car and truck field accounted for the remainder.

Total sales for the first three months of this year exceeded first quarter sales in 1954 by 176,427 units.

"The figures show," Mr. Smead said, "that not only has consumer demand for new Fords reached an all-time high, but that the Ford dealers' used car business also is at record levels."

He added that the Ford dealers are "selling everything the Division's 18 assembly plants can produce and are asking for still more units to build up their inventories for the heavy spring-summer selling season."

In the new car and truck field, the dealers also broke records by a substantial margin for car and truck deliveries in the first three months of any year. The previous first quarter record was set in 1924, when 421,866 new cars and trucks were sold.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

OF DOGS AND MEN AND THEATRE

Guest Columnist, George Jones

Two dogs were chatting around one of their favorite telephone poles, idly passing the time of day.

One of them—sporting an imported type haircut and a coat of cashmere so fine as to almost raise questions of bribery in high places—inquired in near patronizing accents, "Did you see Lassie in 'South of the Sunset'? She roadshowed through here last week."

The other, whose plain democratic fur coat bespoke a background which made mere acceptance at this particular pole proof of social arrival, could only reply, with a hang-man expression, "No, but I read the book."

If the gap between your hopes and your accomplishments in the matter of theater-going force you, when in the social clutches, to make a choice between the adoption of a hang-dog abjectivity or the quick interpolation of a Potter play ("Do you think Nazimova really unearthed the true Nora?"), your own neighborhood offers two avenues of return to grace.

You can patronize the local amateur groups: while you will see few performers known beyond the circle of their own cousins and their uncles and their aunts, you will generally get a sound production of a relatively worth-while play.

Even more easily realizable is the second alternative—the reading of plays from the library's collection.

While plays are written to be played, the reading of them at your own convenience does offer some advantages to compensate for the undeniable losses. You are your own baby-sitter, your car is parked in your own garage, and you can get, and reflect upon, every word of the dialogue.

This latter is no mean advantage in days of generally poor articulation in the theater, (traceable possibly to a generation of actors accustomed to earning much of their living before microphones), and a disposition on the part of box-office attendants to describe a location as being 12 seats off center when a more accurate description would be smack bang against the left wall.

The library's theater collection, like the human voice, embraces the venerable "standards" and the items of indeterminate age, and those of recent debut. The old faithful turn up in the comprehensive historical collections; successes of the recent past in collections such as those originated by the late Burns Mantle, the more recent writings in separate volumes. Of the latter the library has, through the good offices of a local theater lover, recently acquired a fine collection.

Some of the new items have already played Detroit: LOVE OF FOUR COLONELS, PICNIC, TEA AND SYMPATHY, WONDERFUL TOWN, MY THREE ANGELS, THE SEVEN YEAR ITCH, MRS. MOTHING, TIME OUT FOR GINGER.

Others are plays which, probably for reasons of casting difficulties, went direct from Broadway success to the theatrical warehouses: TIME OF THE CUCKOO, KIND SIR, ME AND JULIET, SABRINA FAIR, THE PRESCOTT PROPOSALS.

Those who would like to scoop probable future arrivals can read TEAHOUSE OF THE AUGUST MOON, while admirers of the local girl who made good will be interested in the Julie Harris vehicle MADEMOISELLE COLOMBE.

Dorothy Parker fans will enjoy reading her only foray into the theater in recent years, the short-lived LADIES OF THE CORRIDOR.

You are invited to plan your own theater reading season: you need not "Specify several alternative dates" in your requests for accommodation.

Port Huron, boyhood home of Thomas A. Edison, boasts the first electrified underwater railway tunnel ever built (Port Huron-Sarnia). Opened in 1891, it was acclaimed an engineering marvel.

Property Owners Advised To Have Elm Trees Sprayed

"Woodman, spare that tree!" But no matter how beautiful the tree may be, the woodman cannot spare it if it is infected by the dread Dutch Elm disease.

Paul Marden, chairman of the 1955 Grosse Pointe Clean-Up Campaign, at a recent "Scrub-a-roo" luncheon, made a special appeal to all those present to bear in mind the campaign against the Dutch Elm disease.

In view of the fact that Grosse Pointe lost over 125 trees last year, the disease is not yet wiped out. The city spraying program is well advanced but owners of trees on private property would be well advised to consider spraying now.

As, executive secretary of the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association, Mr. Marden would be pleased to advise anyone interested in spraying if he will call him at TU. 1-1990.

From Herbert Heger of the Public Service Department of Grosse Pointe Park, comes this warning:

"Now is the time to use the dormant spray. We may protect our city elm trees but if the diseased trees are allowed to stand on private property, they will soon affect others. Another source of danger is the storage of diseased elm logs in yards, particularly if the mark remains on the log. Infected logs if not over four feet in length and if only a few in number, may be placed at the curb with the other rubbish for regular pickup in the Park."

HOUSEHOLD HINT
This is the age of "easy-does-it." To prove it, Michigan State College home economists counted over 30 different baked goods mixes to tempt Mrs. Consumer. They include mixes for cakes of all kinds, cookies, brownies, pie crust, pie filling, muffins, biscuits, pancakes, waffles, rolls, donuts, candies, icings and even pizza pie. She will have to decide whether or not to buy these not only by cost, but by time-cost convenience, the quality of food her family likes and how important the satisfaction of creating her own food products is to her.

America's Greatest Buy and you can prove it!

1. Greatest Distinction at any price!

Watch the cars pass and note that only Pontiac stands out as far as eyes can see. Naturally—it's the style of the future, designed to stay young, smart and high in resale value for years.

2. Greatest Power at its price!

Check horsepower figures and you'll find that Pontiac, with the optional power-package, is the lowest-priced car delivering 200 horsepower. That's because only Pontiac has the Strato-Streak V-8, with performance as advanced as Pontiac style—and the thriftiest in Pontiac history!

3. Greatest Size at its price!

Compare Pontiac inch for inch and pound for pound and you'll see that Pontiac has more road-leveling wheelbase and big-car stability than any car priced with the lowest.

4. You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for $ 2090⁰⁰

This is less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped economy models of the higher-priced makes!

Burt Boyar IN NEW YORK

No wonder Mario Lanza had laryngitis. Look how long he's been cutting his own throat! (His failure to show up for his own opening in Las Vegas lost him $100,000 and a lot of fans). When he finally decides to show up for an engagement the audience might not... Hedy Lamarr, who was minus her Texas oilman husband Howard Lee, during her week at the St. Regis here, has now gone on to Boston for an indefinite stay. (Next stop Reno?)... Grace Kelly gets away from it all this way. Dons bobby-sox, saddle shoes, a skirt and sweater, feels like a high school kid and strolls her poodle unrecognized down Fifth Avenue, around three in the afternoon... Margaret Truman and New Jersey's Governor Meyner want to be confetti'd and riced, if his official car, making regular stops at her Carlyle Hotel apartment, means anything... Incidentally, Margaret just signed with "Leave It To The Girls" as a panelist for the summer... Tony Martin and Cyd Charisse, just arrived here, visited his tailor for a matching pair of tweed suits. (Which twin is the Tony?)... Oh, by the way, the bloke who calls himself the "Prune King" was at El Morocco last night—stewed!

YOU NAME 'EM: The famed baldy who has toupees in six stages of needing a haircut. Changes them every two days. (Jack Benny, Xavier Cugat, Charles Boyer, or Michael Wilding?)... The film actor whose studio pays a "watchdog" $500 a week to keep him out of mischief... The H'wood he-man who had throat surgery in Manhattan to drop his voice an octave...

Eddie Fisher and Coke aren't oke... Father Divine must really have some heavenly connections. He doesn't pay taxes... Society's newest sport is cattle breeding. Latest cowboys are Winthrop Rockefeller on his Arkansas farm. Alfred G. Vanderbilt in Florida and ditto Mike Phipps and Stu Iglehart... The young school-tie set informs us that Grace Kelly has a younger sister at the University of Pennsylvania, who's prettier than the picture star... The 20th Century-Fox press department has this to say about Marilyn Monroe. "So let's talk about Sherie North." Harry Truman has okayed an Ed Murrow Person-to-Person visit in May... We hear the Charles Adams cartoon which will never be published shows the ghoul father in a maternity ward. The nurse hands him a pair of twins and the caption reads, "Don't bother wrapping them, I'll eat them here."

Judy Holliday finally consented to play a Las Vegas night club, but only on the condition she be given no credit in the gambling houses and that her salary be sent to her bank in New York.

There's at least one good reason why Linda Christian is hanging onto the $80,000 worth of jewels bought for her by Robert Schlesinger who committed bank robbery with his check. Linda remembers only five years ago or so when she was under personal contract to Errol Flynn for $50 a week. She was going hungry and begged for a raise. Flynn told her he couldn't afford any more. She implored that he at least give her an advance for some food. He did. One Dollar.

James Dean (East of Eden) and Marlon Brando have more than just acting mannerisms in common. They share the same psychiatrist... Flash from a Coast column: "Piper Laurie's grandmother is secretly taking accordion lessons." (Now her press agent should be able to do better than that)... Harry Belafonte's manager talked him into seeing a psychiatrist. Next scene: He fired his manager and hired the doc's husband... Rubirosa, the big dame hunter, gets $25,000 a year (and up) from the Dominican Republic as a combination Good Will Ambassador-Public Relations fee... An after hours club was hit by gunsters last week. Six big-deal type cafe socialites (you know, name in the papers, etc.) are ashamed to show their faces because they had only 22 bux among them... Marilyn Monroe should at least have gotten an Anatomy Award.

What's this about Mickey Spillane taking a crack at re-writing children's books? Like "Little Dead Riding Hood," "Autopsy and Eva" and "Uncle Tom's Stabbin'?"... Mercury autos noped a John Wayne endorsement... Airlines want to charge more for the very avoidupoisoned. (and weigh we go)... Maestro Nat Brooks' Tico disc click "Jinx Mambo" features lyricature by Jinx Falkenberg... Don't be surprised when Nat "King" Cole is a top screen star within a year. He just finished the "Nat King Cole Story" for Universal-International and signed for a major role in MGM's "Las Vegas Story"... Buckingham Palace just got equipped with Cinemascope for Her Majesty's pleasure... We'd tell you what Marilyn said about Gina but this is a family newspaper.

Big Flower Show At Ford Rotunda

A terraced dream garden, thousands of flowers—including one grouping of more than 1,800 tulips—and the latest in spring fashions and colors will go on display in the Ford Rotunda at Dearborn, Mich., Sunday, April 17.

The show, first major display of the tourist season in the Rotunda exhibition building, will open at 1 p.m. April 17, and continue through Sunday, May 1. The display will be open, free to the public, from 8:30 a.m. to 9 p.m. Mondays through Fridays and from 1 to 9 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays.

Sponsored by Ford Motor Company in cooperation with the Detroit Garden Center, the spring show will feature the blending of flowers with new resort and travel fashions and spring automobile colors.

Several of the displays will be animated, including a 14-foot windmill surrounded by tulips; a typical old well scene, featuring a boy and raccoon flying kites side by side, and an illuminated fountain.

The show's dream garden will occupy nearly 7,000 square feet in the Rotunda's center court. Approximately 12,000 bricks will be used in terracing the garden at nine levels. On the top level will be a contemporary pink, wrought iron tea house of life size proportions.

The garden also will feature thousands of flowers, a jet fountain and pink and white lawn furniture. It will have special illumination and sound effects, which will include bird calls throughout the day and the sounds of night animals, birds and insects during the evening hours.

The exterior of the Rotunda's center court will be devoted to flower display panels arranged by the Detroit Garden Center, and to manikins, dressed in new resort and travel fashions.

Colors in the new fashions will blend with the nearby flowers and with new Ford, Lincoln and Mercury spring automotive colors. Parts of automobiles, with new spring color hues, will be displayed with the manikins.

Approximately 200 exhibitors from Detroit, Pontiac, Birmingham, Royal Oak, Highland Park, Franklin Village, Rochester, Wyandotte, Dearborn, Taylor, Center, Pleasant Ridge, Milford, Southfield township, Grosse Pointe, Jackson, Farmington, Marysville, Inkster, Grosse Ile, Lansing, Kalamazoo and Bloomfield Hills in Michigan and Celina, O., will participate in the Garden Center flower displays, portions of which will be judged. In addition to the panel displays, the Garden Center also

Nautical Play to Be Staged By Park Fire Department

Members of the Park Fire Department will present a nautical play, "Holiday Ahoy" on Thursday, April 21, and Saturday, April 23, at the Pierce Junior High School.

The show will feature more than 100 Pointers, including an all-male Kewpie Doll chorus, businessmen, teenage choruses and children pantomimes.

All proceeds will be used to swell the department's Sick and Death Benefit Fund.

The scene of the play will be set at the dockside of a ship which is ready to undertake its maiden voyage and the captain of the ship and others who have gathered for the occasion are interviewed by an actor impersonating Dave Garroway of TV fame.

The names of those participating have not yet been released, but there will be a woman posing as Panama Hattie, and businessmen taking the part of First Mate, "Shipwreck Kelly," and "Singapore Sam."

Tickets, which are $1 for the adults and 50 cents for the children, may be purchased from any of the personnel of the Park Fire Department.

Tied in with the show will be a tiny tot popularity contest, which will be judged by the number of votes given to each child. Votes cost a penny each. Eligible are youngsters from one day to seven years of age.

To enter a child in the contest, parents must submit two photos of the child, which need not be recent, nor do they have to be alike.

Pictures of the contestants will be posted in the window of the Crown Cleaners on Jefferson avenue, where pictures may be left. Pictures may also be dropped off at the Fire Department or the Baby Grand Store on Charlevoix.

The contest starts this Saturday, April 16, and ends next Saturday, April 23. Vote results will be counted daily and posted in the window of Crown's.

On Saturday, April 23, climaxing the play, the king and queen, prince and princess and duke and duchess will be crowned, and loving cups and prizes will be awarded.

Chairman of the Tiny Tot contest is Mrs. Bob Willard. For information call her at VA 1-8543, or call the Department, VA 2-6400.

Anyone with talent, adults or children, wishing to participate in the show, should contact the fire department.

Children are urged to participate in a misspelled word contest. See how many misspelled words you are able to find in the "Holiday Ahoy" ads which will appear in the News next week. Winners will be given free tickets to the show.

Burglar Visits Country Club

A burglar who broke into the caddy shed at the Country Club of Detroit, 220 Country Club drive, on Wednesday, April 3, did not find the venture very profitable, according to a Farms police report.

Police called to the Club found a screen had been removed from the southeast window of the caddy shed, through which the burglar gained entrance.

It was disclosed the person had two sets of keys to the various parts of the building. The thief in going through the desk of the caddy master's office, accidentally knocked over the telephone, causing the light on the switchboard to go on.

The switchboard operator made the connection and rang the phone in the office, and the burglar answered, "Mr. Brown," and hung up.

A search of the premises disclosed nothing missing except $2 in cash.

Building Fund Set for Drive

Solicitation in the Metropolitan Detroit Building Fund's $16,500,000 Campaign will start April 28 with the Kickoff Meeting of the Major Corporations and Executives Division, it was announced Saturday by E. A. Schirmer, General Campaign Chairman.

Ray R. Eppert, Division Chairman, will preside at the noon luncheon meeting that day in the Ballroom of Hotel Statler. Invitations are being mailed to 600 persons including campaigners, corporation executives, members of the MDBF Board of Directors, and the Campaign Advisory Committee.

Among those who will aid Mr. Eppert at the meeting are his co-chairmen: L. L. Colbert, Harlow H. Curtice, Charles T. Fisher, Jr., Max M. Fisher, Henry Ford II, L. C. Goad, and Oscar Webber.

Group Chairmen of the Division are A. W. Merrell, A. VanderZee, J. J. Cronin, and Donald F. Valley.

This meeting will be the first of several kickoffs planned for the following weeks. Special Gifts and Foundations Division campaigners will hold their Kick-off Meeting in the Bagley Room at Hotel Statler at 12:15 p.m., May 2. Raymond T. Perring, chairman of the Division, will preside.

Solicitors in the Business and Commerce Division, of which Larry Doyle is chairman, will start solicitation soon include National Corporations, Professional, Labor Organizations, and Clubs and Organizations.

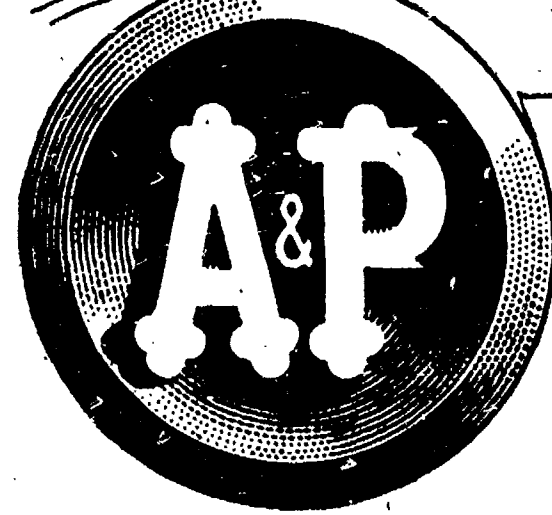

Report meetings on the progress of the Campaign are tentatively scheduled to start June 2. They will be held each week thereafter, with reports being turned in on June 2, 9, 16 and 23. The last will be the final meeting of the drive, when every effort will be made to surpass the $16,500,000 goal, Mr. Schirmer said.

The funds will be used to repair, remodel, or construct buildings for Detroit area humane service agencies. Mr. Schirmer pointed out that this work is necessary because of the great increase in Detroit area population and because many agency buildings have fallen into disrepair.

HOME BURGLARIZED

Woods police are investigating the breaking and entering of the home of Mrs. Charles L. Phillips, 1621 Oxford, which occurred on Saturday, April 9. Missing were a silver plate tray, coffee pot, tea pot, sugar bowl, creamer and a candle snuffer.

Trailing, Climbing, Pillar Roses Can Add Much Beauty

Trailing, climbing and pillar roses, trained to grow on buildings, arbors, pergolas, fences, walls and rocky slopes, can lay claim to versatility as well as to beauty, according to Harlow O. Whittemore, professor of landscape architecture at the University of Michigan.

Just remember two things in selecting the support material, he says:

1—"Roses do not take kindly to drastic changes in temperature. They dislike a metal surface, and to a lesser extent a stone or brick surface, because these do not retain an even temperature. Wood is the best and unpainted wood preferable.

2—"Because of the danger of mildew roses require free circulation of air through their foliage. Therefore, if the rose is to be trained on a wall, it should be fastened to supports set away from the wall so that there is a space between the wall and the foliage. The south side of the building is preferable to the north, since a southern exposure will aid in the rapid drying of the rose after rain.

"The climbing rose, covering a high, screening fence or trellis, is especially suitable for downtown properties where you wish to hide a taller building. A fence, well-covered with roses, can sometimes be made as high as 12 feet," according to the landscape architect.

Most vigorous of the commonly known climbers is the Dr. Van Fleet rose. Also well known are Silver Moon and Marechal Niel.

He suggests that pillar roses be supported in one of two ways: 1—"Tie the rose to the wooden pegs, or arms of a post, which has been set three feet in the ground, preferably on a cement foundation, and treated to prevent decay. The post should be between six and ten feet high—the normal length of the canes of the plant attain. 2—"Or set the rose plant in the midst of four slender poles placed an inch and one-half apart, and tie the tops of the poles together. The old canes need to be removed every year.

"Pillar roses make an arresting accent when used to punctuate a border of other flowers. They can also be ingeniously used to form a sort of avenue of roses, or be placed on either side of a pathway. You can vary the effect of the pathway by interposing, at intervals, wooden arches over which the more vigorous climbers, or even ramblers, may be trained. Good pillar roses are the Paul Scarlet climber and the new Giant Scarlet."

Professor Whittemore points out that roses can be used to cover an arbor or a pergola, although they are not particularly effective for shade. "You could, however, train the vines on the supporting framework, and employ some other vine as shade for the top of the arbor," he says.

This brings up the question of a fence. "A low fence (four feet high) of wood or wire is particularly suitable for growing the more delicate types of climbers so trained as to produce a rose hedge. The roses should be planted close together so that they form a completely solid hedge.

"A tall fence (seven to ten feet high) of either wood or wire, screening the edge of the property, is well adapted to the climbing type of rose." Since only the upper part of the fence would be well covered with roses, he suggests that some evergreen vine, such as wintercreeper, be used to cover the lower part of it.

Professor Whittemore suggests that trailing roses make an excellent groundcover. Used on a slope, they also prevent soil erosion. For best results, choose a sunny bank with a south, southeast or southwest exposure, and preferably one with a good, loamy soil—part clay and humus, and enriched.

"Especially adapted to this treatment are all the Dorothy Perkins type roses, and some of the small-flowered cluster roses with rapidly growing stems. They will also trail over stone piles, stumps, or natural rock formations.

"Once started, these should be left alone and no attempt should be made to remove the old canes," the landscape architect advises.

Plymouth Favors Newspaper Ads

The lion's share of the automobile manufacturer's advertising dollar will continue to be spent in newspapers for years to come, Bruce E. Miller director of advertising and merchandising for Plymouth division of Chrysler Corporation, said here last week.

Miller pointed out that the current automobile marketing situation indicated spending "at least 50 percent" of the total budget with newspapers.

Addressing undergraduate and graduate students in sales management at Wayne University, Miller examined advantages of advertising in the media of newspapers, magazines, radio, television and billboards. His text was titled "Merchandising Your Advertising."

Discussing the role of newspaper advertising in marketing automobiles, Miller said that new car advertising represented 13 percent of all national advertising placed in newspapers during 1954. One reason to expect continued high percentage of newspaper advertising is the cooperative arrangement auto manufacturers have with their dealers, he said. Under this plan, manufacturers and dealers share the cost of advertising, but the dealer has a strong voice in the selection of media.

"Most dealer groups favor a strong newspaper program because of the mass coverage it provides in the dealer's own neighborhood," he said.

Other advantages of newspaper advertising he listed were: their availability for up-to-the-minute messages; for fast coverage of "news-break" type advertising; and their value for intensifying advertising during a "saturation" type campaign.

Apple Pie Is An Old Lure

Don't sell short the power of a piece of apple pie.

More and more restaurants are serving foreign foods but there's nothing like a piece of good apple pie to lure the customers, a guest speaker told the National Restaurant Operators Conference at Michigan State College.

Apple pie—juicy and well-seasoned—is the old standby in the restaurant business, declared Prof. Lenore Sullivan, institution administration, Iowa State College. Apple pie scores a hit with the men especially, she reported.

The conference was directed by the M. S. C. Department of Restaurant Management.

Henry J. Eckfeld to Wed Charlotte, Michigan Girl

At an informal at home on Sunday afternoon, April 10, Dr. and Mrs. B. P. Brown of Charlotte, Mich., announced the engagement of their daughter, Barbara Ann, to Henry J. Eckfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry F. Eckfeld of Pemberton road.

Wedding plans have been set for July 30, at the First Congregational Church, Charlotte, Mich. Miss Brown attended Albion College for two years and will be graduated from the University of Michigan in June. She is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega.

Mr. Eckfeld completed his work at the University in '54, where he was affiliated with Phi Sigma Kappa.

RUSSIA INFORMED both Britain and France it will scrap the mutual aid pacts with the two countries in retaliation for their approval of rearming West Germany. In another diplomatic move, the Soviet announced hopes of a speedy conclusion of a peace treaty with Austria, "in the nearest future."

British and French officials expressed little surprise over the termination of the mutual pacts. The State Department in Washington was also calm.

A COMMUNIST GUNBOAT OF

about 100 tons, was set afire by Nationalist Chinese warplanes, Nationalist sources said. The action took place in the Formosa Straits. The crew of the gunboat was seen jumping into the sea, the sources stated.

The number of planes which took part in the attack was not specified, but the scene of action was set near the Communist-held Pingtan Island, 35 miles north of the Matsu group.

VALERY LYSIKOV, 17, young Russian who defected to the West, voluntarily returned to his parents, spouting Soviet slogans. He was feted for three weeks by American officials as an anti-Communist defector. He originally sought asylum from the West and resisted any efforts of Soviet agents to return.

He was turned over to his father, a Russian lieutenant colonel, and his mother at U.S. High Commission Headquarters in Berlin. Washington said the boy was as free to return as he was to ask for political asylum.

Monday, April 11
AMERICAN FORCES are to stand clear of fighting in the Formosa area until President Eisenhower can determine the extent and intent of any Chinese Communist attack, a reliable report said.

Persons, representing the President, versed in the Administration's Far Eastern policies, informed Nationalist China it holds the primary responsibility of defending Quemoy and Matsu Islands and of Formosa itself.

Washington circles strongly feel Chang Kai Shek's forces can handle anything short of an all-out invasion.

GOV WILLIAMS will be the guest of the American-Israel Society in Jerusalem, when he will speak at Independence Day ceremonies on April 27. On that day, he will speak over the transoceanic telephone to guests at the society's second national dinner in Washington.

Four distinguished Americans will accompany the Governor as good-will emissaries of the society. Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt will attend the Washington dinner; and Rep. Martin, Jr., (R. Mass.) House minority leader, will speak.

BRITAIN IS WEIGHING the possibility of approving a plebiscite which it is hoped may settle the question of the fate of Formosa, official sources announced. Diplomats are of the opinion a plebiscite would give the Formosans a choice between remaining under Nationalist China, under a United Nations trusteeship, or joining up as part of the mainland of Communist China.

The same sources stated that the British might couple the plebiscite with a guarantee of the safety of the island, provided the United States abandons help to Quemoy and Matsu Islands.

HUNDREDS OF NEWSMEN of the press, radio and television are awaiting word in Ann Arbor of results on the effectiveness of the Salk Polio Vaccine. Gathered with them are the nation's ranking scientists.

Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., University of Michigan virus expert, who wrote the report, declared he alone knew what the report contained and will divulge it in due time. Discoverer of the vaccine is Dr. Jonas E. Salk, who if the reports bear out, will have his name preserved in medical history.

BLARING HEADLINES throughout the nation disclosed that infantile paralysis has been whipped. Dr. Thomas Francis, Jr., of the University of Michigan, announced this to a vast gathering of leading scientists gathered at Ann Arbor. The vaccine, discovered by Dr. Jonas E. The announcement was made on the anniversary of the death of President Franklin D. Roosevelt, himself a victim of polio.

Do not let a child play in the kitchen unless you are watching. Keep the high chair away from the stove, away from an open window, and away from a pan on the stove inward.

Now for the toddler — he wouldn't be normal unless he wanted to investigate everything. Sharp knives and scissors attract him. You may find him climbing into the sink or onto the piano. Someone must patrol his path. He must not be expected to recognize danger at all times. Do not leave him to his own devices.

Give the small child plenty of things to keep him occupied. This will help keep him from being tempted to touch things he shouldn't. This does not necessarily mean expensive toys says the Home Agent. Children love to imagine and pretend. They will find many uses for empty cardboard boxes, both large and small, the odd-shaped pieces of wood left from the work bench, and empty spoons. When they run out of ideas, Mother should start them on a new venture with a few suggestions.

A fenced backyard or playspace is almost essential in the city. "It is better to be safe than sorry" and Mother will have greater peace of mind knowing the children are away from the street.

HOW'S YOUR BUDGET?

THESE ARE TRYING TIMES for the family pay-check, and the lady of the house has a man's job when it comes to balancing her budget.

She has a friend and helper in the truck, however, for, although she may not realize it, motor transport helps keep the cost of living down by cutting transportation costs.

The average family spends more for transportation than for any other item save food. So it is clear that the ability of trucks to increase the efficiency of moving goods of all kinds results in substantial savings to the consumer.

The thing we have to guard against is allowing politicians to increase taxes on trucks beyond the more than fair share they're already paying, for, you see, every tax increase on trucks actually comes right out of the people's pocketbooks in increased prices for everything they buy.

Neighborhood Club Prepares For Open House on April 24

If hard work, and stick-to-itiveness is criterion to success, then the Neighborhood Club's first Open House should be a howling success.

Under the direction of general chairman Doug Drake the committees have been working like beavers for the past several weeks to insure a smooth running program which is planned for Sunday, April 24, from 3 to 5 p.m.

The reason for the Open House is to acquaint Grosse Pointers with their club. Too many times new families have mistaken the Neighborhood Club for a private organization just because of the name. Actually the Neighborhood Club serves the same points in Grosse Pointe as do the numerous Community Centers throughout Detroit.

Where Funds Come From

The Neighborhood Club is run solely on funds given it by the Thrift Shop, supplemented by the Detroit Community Fund or if you prefer the Red Feather Organization and the 50 cent per year membership fee. Anyone in the Pointe and the close surrounding area may avail themselves of the facilities provided by the Neighborhood Club.

For 44 years the Neighborhood Club has been serving the Pointe and thousands of Pointers have enjoyed the recreation, educationally, and the culturally.

For example there is the Handicrafters composed of children from 12 to 18 years old who meet every Tuesday for an hour and a half, during which time they learn to make figurines, artificial flowers, learn to cook and many other forms of handicraft under the guidance of Miss Pauline Maaak.

Get Real Bargain

The group also enjoyed Christmas caroling and Valentine's Day dinner at no extra charge. It was all included in their original membership fee of a mere 50 cents. Mrs. J. J. Newcomb is the chairman of this group which will have on display during Open House, articles it has made.

The well known Grosse Pointe Camera Club started holding its meetings at the club way back in 1941. At that time they held two meetings a month. In 1953 the membership had so grown and interest was so intense that the Camera Club decided to hold three meetings every month.

The purpose of the Camera Club is to give those interested in photography a place to go and meet others interested in the hobby, and learn more about the fascinating hobby and swap ideas.

Experts to be There

Just so a newcomer will not feel out of place among the old timers the Camera Club is conducting a beginners and advanced photography class. The Camera Club has made elaborate plans for a display booth during the Open House. Experts will be on hand to answer any and all of your photographic questions.

Probably one of the most interesting groups which uses the Neighborhood Club is the Foundation for Exceptional Children, which represents the parents who were drawn together by a common problem, that being to educate the public to the great need for education and socialization programs for these exceptional children.

Professional in Charge

Currently, the group has a recreational program on Saturday afternoons from 1 to 3 p.m., under the supervision of Miss Hall, an occupational therapist from the Ford Hospital who is ably assisted by two volunteers from the Beta Y Teens.

The group is open to all parents with exceptional children or anyone interested in the program. A phone call to Mrs. George C. Wedge at VA 4-3013 will enlighten you now or you can obtain same at the Foundation for Exceptional Children's booth which will have a prominent place in the gymnasium of the Neighborhood Club on the day of Open House. The Enameling Club will have

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

"The Queen is gone — long live the Queen."

"Escapade" Wendell Anderson's famous 72-foot yawl changed skippers in Miami just recently. She has been berthed there since last fall. The new owner, James Y. Camp of Bakersfield, California, has big plans for the Great Lakes "sweeper." She is scheduled to compete in this year's Honolulu race which starts July 4. Captain Alden Sewell will be in command of the yacht on her trip to the West coast. Clark Swart, recently referred to as "Den Mother," since 1947 when Anderson brought her to the Great Lakes, announced Howard Bond was the broker who made the deal which saw Camp choose "Eskie" over John Nicholas Brown's famous "Bolero" which is reported to have cost three-quarters of a million dollars to build.

"Eskie" is best remembered for her clean sweep of the Mills Trophy race, both Mackinac and the Rochester race back in 1951. Undoubtedly this record will stand unchallenged for a long time.

Of course there are some local and Chicago skippers who will be dancing in the streets over this news because it leaves the long distance races wide open for a new winner this year.

Sure there has been lotsa grouching by some skippers because "Eskie" was winning more than her share of races, but the fact remains her crew of Tommy Lott, Clark Swart, Al Thomas, Eddie Wunsch, Harry Watson, Ted Coggin, Jack Longley and Ted Buttrick sailed the yacht for all that was in her. Breaking up a crew such as we just named is like breaking up Leo Durocher's World Champion Giants. Everyone loves a winner until it wins too much and then love flies out the window.

"Escapade" never competed in a race without an all Bayview Yacht Club crew. That rule was steadfast and in every race the "Big Blue Pig" sailed the few the Bayview colors.

Anderson and his famous crew never asked any quarter and in turn never gave none. The Great Lakes' loss is the Pacific's gain and it wouldn't surprise us a little bit if even the loudest griper around here would be the noisiest cheer leader for "Escapade" as she pokes her bow towards Honolulu next July.

We got our first look at one of the eight 23-foot Swedish built Junior Knarr's last Sunday as Nils Lucander, boy boat broker, sailed her up the Detroit River. Reactions were varied as the huge Easter Day crowd at Bayview Yacht Club gave it the eye.

One sailor said "She looks like a stretched out Vineyard Haven" and another remarked "She doesn't carry enough canvas to make her go in the light weather we have around here."

According to Lucander the sleek little yachts will have an increased sail area before they get into local competition. Plans are to lengthen the main boom and increase the fore triangle to allow bigger head canvas.

Larry Benkert, winner of the Midwest Collegiate Sailing regatta a couple of weeks ago took the yacht out for a short sail and tangled with Boyd Benkert's Raven sloop, which was using only a mainsail in the light southerly breeze. Boyd sailed right through Larry's lee and past him in no uncertain manner. Later Larry said "I don't know but it seems to me the Knarr is a trifle tender. Even in this light air she seemed to get over on her ear in a hurry."

Larry continued by saying "if she gets her lee rail awash in this much wind what will she do when they increase the sail area?"

To this we couldn't venture a guess, so we'll just sit back and wait and see. At least it gives the DYRA judges another class to look after during the weekly regattas this summer.

It has been rumored the DYRA is planning to start the Knarr class with the well known Privateer class which has proven to one and all that it is one of the most active classes racing in these parts. The Privateer guys are up in arms and will suggest to the DYRA and host yacht clubs that the Knarr's be given their own starting time.

Seven of the eight boat Knarr fleet will be berthed at Crescent Sail Yacht Club and the other will fly the colors of Bayview.

Businessmen's Pin Loop Tight

League leading Motor City of the Businessmen's Bowling League hung onto a point and a half margin over second place Boutin's by virtue of one win and a tie in three games with the Welcome team last Thursday, April 8.

Motor City dropped the first game by four pins, tied the second game and won the final game by six pins to nudge Welcome by two pins for the three-game total, which was good for their second full point of the night. Each team gained a half-point on the tie 4-7-2.

Boutin's Keglers remained in contention for the title by beating Muller for three points, which left them one and a half points off the leader's pace. Two weeks remain on the schedule and from here it appears the 1954-55 pin crown is still up in the air.

Thirty-five 200-plus scores were registered with Palumbo's 248 leading the pack. Al Comyn posted the high three-game series of the night on games of 225, 197 and 196 for a 618 series. Joe Higgins had the other 600-plus series with a 606 on games of 236, 213 and 158.

St. Paul Flyers Get Ready For Opening Baseball Tilt

Spring training at Kerby field continued this week under ideal weather conditions, as the St. Paul baseball team prepares for the opener on Monday, April 18, a non-league encounter at De LaSalle.

The squad will be headed by a new coach this year, Tom Cocitt, a former graduate of Notre Dame, as former coach Ed Lauer takes over the coaching chores of the track team.

With five of nine veterans returning, the Flyers shape up as one of the better teams in the circuit this season.

The returnees include co-captains third baseman Gene Graham and left fielder Dan Wemhoff. Also included are first baseman Bob Keller, playing his fourth year at the initial sack, pitcher Bob Wright and center fielder Jim Lombardo.

But Roland appears to have the backstopping chores clinched, replacing the graduated Ted Monahan. Dan Monahan, Chuck Gallucci and Ken Oxley are battling for the two remaining field positions, left open through the loss of last year's seniors, Tom Reid and Karl Keifer. As of now it looks like all three will be in their until Graham has fully recovered from a broken wrist suffered this winter. Three players, Ed Piche, Carter Piche and Ronnie Moir, are in the running for the right field position.

St. Bernard, Nativity and St. Florian look to be the roughest on the Flyers' tough schedule this season, but St. Paul is at an advantage with five of its eight league games to be played at Kerby Field, their home grounds.

If no other team is, Nativity will surely be on the Flyers' black list this year because of the two victories over the Flyers in 1954 which cost them the title. St. Paul lost to Nativity twice, once during the regular season and once in the playoffs. The defeats dropped the Flyers to third place and gave St. Phillip the championship, a team which lost only to St. Paul.

The following schedule includes only the league games because of the many non-league games which haven't been drawn up as of yet.

Flyer Trackers Wind Up Third

By Dan Wemhoff

The St. Paul Flyer track team placed third in a quadrangular meet held April 5, which is the first of five this season.

St. Paul scored 21 points as compared to St. Bernard's 52 which gave them top honors over second place Austin who gained 49.

St. Bernard took first in the high jump, shotput, broadjump, 100 yard dash and the 220.

St. Paul took first place in only the medley relay as Dave Dungan, Terry Wright, Terry Hutton, and Jim Ayrault combined for the honors.

Three of the Flyer speedsters hit second place. Russ Beaupre, 880; Joe Klem, 440; and Ayrault the high jump.

St. Paul finished second in the 880 with Klem, Ayrault, Hutton, an Dungan rounding out the Flyer combination.

Act Like Fish, Anglers Advised

Don't be a one-spot or a one-bait fisherman, advises Karl F. Lagler, chairman of the University of Michigan's Department of Fisheries.

"And try to look at fishing through the eyes of a fish," he adds.

"You'd never find a hunter sitting in one spot all day," says Professor Lagler, "and yet look at how many fishermen just sit and wait for the fish to come to them!"

He suggests that anyone who really wants to catch something go after it. First, start casting the shoreline with a floating-diving lure.

If the water is clear start the bait moving the second it hits the water, he urges, but if the water is cloudy let it stay still for five or ten seconds, then start retrieving, he adds.

"This gives the fish time to find what caused the splash if visibility isn't good," he explained.

If you don't hook any near the shore cast into deeper water using a sinking bait which will plumb the depths, advises Professor Lagler.

And if they're still eluding you, try the heavier cover like lily pad fields, weed patches or the moss beds and cast a slow sinking lure next to this cover, making a steady retrieve, he suggests.

"Excellent places to work are around sunken logs, fallen trees, brush piles and rocky shorelines," he maintains.

Lincoln-Mercury Sales Set Mark

Lincoln-Mercury dealers throughout the nation sold more used cars during March than in any other month in history, according to Traver C. Smith, manager of the used car department of Lincoln-Mercury Division.

Dealers report the sale of 55,592 used cars during March, more than 10,000 in excess of the same month last year, Mr. Smith said, and 7,000 more than the previous high of 48,337 in October, 1953.

Lincoln-Mercury dealers sold 140,619 used cars in the first quarter of this year, compared with 125,662 in the same period of 1954.

Smith said Lincoln-Mercury dealers reputation for safe buy used cars coupled with the increasing demand for the 1955 Mercurys helped the dealers set the new record for used car sales.

Legion Auxiliary News

From Unit 303
By ROWENA WEAVER

Women of the American Legion Auxiliary are continuing to urge adoption of a program of military training for the young men of America to give the country greater security in this time of great danger. Mrs. Isabel Thoman, National Security Chairman of the Auxiliary, has announced.

Auxiliary women throughout the country are asking Congress to take action during the present session to activate a comprehensive training program as recommended by the American Legion.
The program is designed to equalize the defense responsibilities of the young men of the nation, as well as to provide a large reserve of trained men.

"Should the present situation in the Far East bring war, the only trained men immediately available would be our war veterans," Mrs. Thoman stated. "Conditions at the start of the Korean conflict would have to be repeated.
Thousands of men who already have served their country in war would be called back to fight again, while others who have never served remain at home.

"The defense of America is the responsibility of all, not just a few. All young men should have the training which would enable them to do their part should America be attacked. We are told that never again will America have time to train its forces after war begins so swiftly would modern war strike. It appears that to neglect national security training in the present state of the world is to invite national disaster.

"The American Legion and Auxiliary for many years have been urging that America train its young men for the protection of the nation's peace and freedom.
We are convinced that this program would reduce the danger of war and the danger to the men who must do the fighting if war should come again. The lessons from the two World Wars and Korean conflict teach us the folly of being unprepared."

who, where and whatnot

by whooosie

A Pointe merchant who grows a bit squeaky upon sight of a dog wearing a frown, opened the door of his business establishment the other afternoon to a teen-ager and a ferocious Chow. One look at the Chow's bitter kisser and the merchant said, "I think it would be better if you left your dog outside." "Oh, you don't have to worry about him," said the youth, "He only likes Hershey bars and legs."

Travel notes: Last year when Mrs. Alfred J. Fisher Jr. was strolling in Venice she saw, ahead of her, a figure that looked familiar. She quickened her steps, took another look and said to the stranger, "Are you Farouk?" "Yes," was the startled answer.

Then there's the story of the chic Pointe matron who long has believed the dreamiest Spring clothes are purchased when the shops are showing their Winter resort wear. She bought her Easter suit in early January and had it altered then and there. Well, she went on one of those new diets and when she tried it on the day before Easter, found she couldn't get into the skirt even with the aid of her grandfather's ivory shoehorn. She wore another costume in the Easter parade!

The nostalgic one may be glimpsed any day, pausing in their strolls on the Lake Shore, to watch the mansion of the late John W. Andersons being torn down to make way for subdivisions.

Add to that growing list of Pointers who a-d-o-r-e pink: Mrs. Joseph A. Maiullo II... Posies in that shade are most apt to be found at her home on Moran road...

You'd be surprised at the messages that are spelled out in lights at many Pointe homes come twilight... For instance, when the Harry R. Eslings are "at home"... the wonderful iron eagle over their blue, blue front door is illuminated.

PILFERINGS

We've just read that towels in the home of New Yorker Cartoonist Charles Addams are embroidered, "His and Hearse."

Here are a few statistics for you to mull over: American Airlines reports that on one of their planes, flying 300 miles per hour at mealtime, it takes about 25 minutes to finish an appetizer; 110 miles for the entree; 40 miles for the salad; and 35 miles each for dessert, coffee and after dinner cigarette.

Our reading also brought us to a note in Meyer Berger's New York Times Column and this bit of enlightenment:

"Abercrombie and Fitch have on their main floor, in Madison avenue, a two-place plastic submarine with clear plastic cowlings that will take spear-fisherman, photographers, salvage hunter and the like to a depth of fifty feet. A foot-pedal model sells for $4,850 and a motor-powered number for $6,000. So far, no takers."

An Associated Press dispatch under the headline "BRITISH KIDDIES WON'T LIKE THIS" deals with England's TV time rationing and here's the word: 1. TV may run a total of seven hours daily on week days. 2. No breakfast time programs. 3. A shutdown Sunday night during church service time. 4. A blank screen between 6 and 7 p.m. while children may be put to bed.

LOU GARDELLA OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD CLUB
By Jane Schermerhorn

Somehow athletic director Lou Gardella's own boyhood slipped by without his ever having had time to take up tennis. It's a very lucky fact for over 300 young Pointers because that's how he wound up in charge of athletics at the Neighborhood Club.

He's a young, good looking chap with the sparkle of the life athletic in his dark eyes. He dresses in khakis and there's a white sweater over his dark blue shirt this Spring.

His office is filled with sample trophies, schedules, books on sports. The telephone on his desk jingles with calls about courts (tennis) and there's a lively stream of girls and boys wandering through the office. He loves it!

Lou and his work are particularly in the limelight right now because on April 24 Neighborhood Club is going to hold Open House, to which all the Pointers are invited, and you should know something about him as a member of the club staff.

Tennis Beginner

After his stint in the army, Lou decided it was high time he did something about his own tennis game. It was kind of a pleasant thought he had tucked back in his mind for "some day."

"There aren't many twenty year olds just taking up tennis," he reminisced to us, "and I had a difficult time trying to find anyone who wanted to play with a rank beginner." He had to learn his game from books.

He joined the Grosse Pointe Tennis Club and played on the courts at Neighborhood Club. He spent a lot of time improving his game, drank in a lot of Neighborhood Club lore while he was doing it.

That was six years ago. Two years ago, his own tennis game had brought him six trophies and he was serving on a volunteer basis as a part time instructor at the Club. He has his own business but today that's in the hands of a brother and now he's full time director of athletics at Neighborhood Club.

Tennis Slump

While Lou was learning a lot about the Neighborhood Club, he also discovered that Grosse Pointe High School's tennis was in a bit of a slump. The school team had won 67 straight tournaments—lost an important match—went on to capture 57 more victories

(all this over a period of seven years)—and then something happened.

So, at Neighborhood Club Lou started tournaments, worked to get more boys interested in tennis, eager to improve their games.

Leonard Lencz, a member of Grosse Pointe Tennis Club and evidently an enthusiast the same as Lou, helped matters along by donating trophies.

Lou called this all-out effort (which has gone on ever since) the Tennis Development Program.

He donated a perpetual trophy. Soon vying for it were boys from 9 years of age to high school seniors.

Friends

Roland Gray, of Gray's sport shop has been a wonderful friend to Neighborhood Club athletes, the Grosse Pointe Tennis Club has donated used tennis balls and racquets. Now a new organization, the Grosse Pointe Tennis Club Patrons (the Junior Development Program their special interest) has been organized to help.

The other sports are well supported by various service clubs in the Pointe, but Lou has worked hard since usually only tennis players are interested in helping along the game of tennis.

Boys who play at Neighborhood Club regularly make the team at Grosse Pointe High and the number going in for the sport has grown so much, that the Club needs three new courts in addition to the present six.

The tennis boys and girls (emphasis is being placed on girl players this year) started indoor practice right after the New Year.

Now that the weather's fine, players may be noted on the outdoor courts every day, perfecting their games—hoping to qualify for places on the Club Tennis team, representing it in tournaments.

Devoted to Sports

Our Pointer of Interest likes all things in the sport world. Hunting big game is his vacation time pursuit.

His ambition is to bring back a Kodiak bear from Alaska.

He likes to shoot skeet at the Maple Grove Gun Club (owner of the club is Lou's hunting companion, Doug Prevost).

In the winter time he likes to ski at Snow Valley or Boyne Mountain.

Something for Everyone

Now, for all the girls and boys interested in taking up tennis there are two quick steps which make it very easy. Join Neighborhood Club (membership for 15 year olds and under is 50 cents a year; 16 to 20 year olds, one dollar and a half a year; and seniors—21 years and over—pay four dollars). And see Lou Gardella.

There's tennis activity for everyone from nine year olds to grandpas.

The basketball program at Neighborhood Club is in three divisions. The Midgets, nine to 12 years; the Giants, 13-15 years; and the Farm League, midget age.

Badminton, for teen-agers is played every Wednesday night. Both boys and girls are active in this sport. Play begins at 6:30. Weight lifting is the newest feature Lou has initiated.

To familiarize Pointers with these activities and the myriad others awaiting them at Neighborhood Club is the chief purpose of the April 24 open house.

In addition, visitors will meet a lot of nice persons like Lou Gardella, who are devoting noble effort and long hours to making the life of today's young people healthy and purposeful.

What some men call their principles are usually only examples of selfishness.

P-D to Publish 'Polio Patterns'

Parke, Davis & Company announced today plans for a new medical publication—the first of its kind—giving up-to-the-minute information on incidence and distribution of poliomyelitis in major population centers throughout the United States.

Called "Polio Patterns," the report will be mailed regularly to physicians.

Harry J. Loynd, president, said information in "Polio Patterns" will cover such facts as epidemic, regional, seasonal and population patterns of the incidence of poliomyelitis.

In addition, he added, "Polio Patterns" also will report any important new information that may be available about clinical and research developments, prophylaxis (prevention) or treatment of poliomyelitis.

Parke-Davis holds U. S. License Number 1 for the manufacture of biologicals and is a leading producer of poliomyelitis vaccine now awaiting the evaluation report April 12.

The data in the new publication will be based on information gathered quickly from official sources in cooperation with the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

"Polio Patterns" will perform an important service to physicians by providing current information on incidence and distribution of poliomyelitis," Loynd said. "It will serve as a convenient guide to the present status of the disease; it will provide up-to-the-minute information during the epidemic months and from then on as frequently as required."

Pointe Counter Points

by Roberta Isley

A lot different... slightly off-beat... Italian accents in the form of huge straw hats with matching bags. Some of the hats are carried like purses and some of the baskets are big enough to carry all of your picnic appointments. See, too, the Italian versions of pixie lids. And even more off-beat and newer than absolutely anything you've seen this season is a cotton coat, cut full, and sporting huge cobbler pockets... tapered black and white pants match this. It's impossible to be conservative in a pair of polka dot pantaloons (such full legs m' dears) with a black top and pants trim. Such show-offs. These dashing clothes, by a California designer, are currently in Jacobson's Sportswear Department.

The gal who play golf this year will tee-up in a dress designed by Haymaker, aptly named "The Golfer." It's designed by Vin Draddy. Object? To make you look like a pro. Sells for a pittance... twelve dollars and ninety-five cents. Strictly on the ball are their free action D'armigene escalator sleeves. You can count on the sleeves lifting to insure against pull. There are solid cottons... blue and pink... glen stripe... brown, blue and gray combinations... or a petite checks, like yellow, pink and blue. They will be in any day now at Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Newly marrieds... those about to be married... and even old married folks like us... will appreciate the opportunity to spin unusual and vivid scenes of the fun we are beginning to have. And now, just at the right time... the time for the wedding... the Camera Center, in the village, is springing this wonderful spring sale of the famous Brownie Movie Camera Kit. It includes and in-door lighting outfit. And here is a bit of news that will surprise you... color movies with this outfit are less expensive than the black and white shots you make with your own camera.

Seen in Harper's Bazaar... page 60. Sportscar separates with (MG) hub-cap buckled belt (AND) signal flag appliques. They are now being shown here in the Pointe at Town 'n Casual Shop, 20445 Mack, in the woods. They come in cotton twill in matching beige stripes and solids, or contrasting blacks in broadcloth or Everglaze cotton knit. In this collection you will find full skirts... broadcloth halter tops... bermuda shorts... cotton knit shirts and cardigans... slim skirts 'n fly-front shirts. So-o-o wonderful to wear in the months to come.

While you are so cool in your delicate primis... your polished cottons... and fine embroidery... what's for the stag line? We've found the answer, girls. Let's suggest those cool baby cord suits in blue or tan. Let's suggest another one, equally good, in safari cloth. And, of course, we suggest that you find it at Kilgore and Hard's... that men's store on the hill, where men's clothes are always resplendent. 92 Kercheval, on the hill.

When you spot a geranium... a fruit bowl... or an apple that's cut in half... you'd like to frame it, wouldn't you? And that is just what you can do, or are tempted to do, with this new "Collectors' Group" of kitchen towels by Martex. If you are not tempted to frame them you will want to fashion cafe curtains... aprons, or place mats. These new Provincial patterns give the most prosaic kitchen fresh gaiety and charm. These you will find in many color schemes teamed with matching solid colors. Find them at Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village.

The mother of the bride has her magical moments... moments that are completely set apart from her ordinary life. And half of that magic is found in a gown. Right now it is possible to have a wonderful choice. She might choose a silk faille navy net... white and navy lace accented with a lace and silk organza scooped neckline... or a printed taffeta shantung... all these and many more are in a special collection of party clothes for mother. Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Designer for Arnold Fox, Mr. Kasper, will be in Jacobson's Grosse Pointe Store April 22 from 10 a.m. on. It will be a complete trunk showing of gay cotton and silk dresses... for cocktail and street wear. Because an American woman is a combination of types... She almost always changes her appearance with each costume change... she will be interested in Mr. Kasper's flair for sensitivity to new feeling and fabric combinations. Come along with us on April 22 to the better dress department at Jacobson's.
