INSULTS HURLED OVER BUS ROUTE

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, April 21
MORE THAN 1,000 persons were present in the State Senate Chamber to protest against the proposed Rockwood-to-Saginaw turnpike. This is believed to be the largest crowd ever to attend a legislative hearing in Lansing.

Friday, April 22
RUSSIA and Red Poland were asked by the United States to divulge the fate of 16 Polish underground leaders arrested by Russia on March 28, 1945. Similar notes delivered to the Foreign Ministries at Warsaw and Moscow, stated the men had been sentenced up to 10 years in prison after being taken from Poland and tried in Russia.

Saturday, April 23
EFFECTIVE TODAY, the Government curb on stock exchange dealing was raised 60 to 70 per cent of marginal requirements. The move was made to curb the use of credit on the upward surging of the stock market. The Federal Reserve Board, which has the power to limit "excessive credit" announced the increase in the percentage of cash a person must put up to buy stocks or to sell them short.

Sunday, April 24
THE CITIZENS OF BLOOMFIELD Township are preparing their battle lines along Telegraph road, route of the proposed turnpike. Citizens of the township, west of Telegraph, have been battling the proposed turnpike for months.

Monday, April 25
RED CHINA will not give up the sovereign right to liberate Formosa, even if it wants to meet with the United States to ease the tension in that area, according to Red China's Premier Chou En-Lai. He spoke at the closing of the plenary session of the 29-nation Asian-African conference in Bandung, Indonesia.

Tuesday, April 26
CONGRESS was informed by the country's military leaders that the Russian army has reached mammoth proportions and is virtually on a war footing. In addition, it was reported that Red China's Air Force could be doubled and even tripled "overnight" by the Soviets. The reports were made known at secret sessions held with the House Appropriations Committee. Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway said the Russian Army has received new atomic warfare training and is equipped to undertake a major war with little warning.

Wednesday, April 27
THE UNITED STATES intends to test the sincerity of Red China to determine if the Communists want a peaceful solution to the Formosa question, it was announced by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. He said this country will hold direct talks with the Reds, provided they are not at stake. He also said such talks will be held on a cease-fire, although he would prefer UN sponsorship.

Neighborhood Club Staff Extends Welcoming Hands

The Neighborhood Club staff extended welcoming hands to approximately 1,200 Pointers who took the time to attend the club's first Open House and discover the attractions of the Pointe's Community Center on Waterloo last Sunday, April 24. Shown left to right: DOUG DRAKE, general chairman; JIM IRETON, LOU GARDELLA, Club Director; GEORGE ELWORTHY, PAULINE MASAK, MRS. MARGARET CARRIER and MRS. ROSE PLACE.

More Than 1,200 Turn Out To See How Much is Offered Residents of Community

The Neighborhood Club's "Get Acquainted Open House," held last Sunday, April 24, was a huge success, according to Club Director George Elworthy.

Because of the number of people who arrived early, the open house started at 2:30 p.m. instead of the scheduled 3 o'clock. Over 1,200 people toured the club's facilities.

"We actually got a count at the front door of a little over 1,100, but we learned later that many were coming in by way of the gym doors," said Mr. Elworthy.

The visitors also found the refreshments a popular item. Over 1,000 dixie cups were given out and the cookies donated by the George Verdont Bakery were all eaten.

Debbie Reynolds Helps Girl Scouts at Daisy Festival Held in New Auditorium

Pointe Members of National Organization Make Contribution to Fund to Restore Savannah, Georgia, Home of Founder

The new auditorium-gymnasium on the High School campus swarmed with a colorful sea of Girl Scouts last Saturday afternoon, attending the Daisy Festival. They were on hand to witness the Pointe Scouts' presentation to the national fund being raised to restore the Savannah, Ga., home of the organization's national founder, the late Juliette Low.

Mrs. Low's nickname was Daisy, which furnishes the name for the fund-raising campaign to honor her.

The personal appearance of Debbie Reynolds, movie personality in town for the auditorium dedication that night, was an added attraction of the festival.

It was a rather splitting "HI!" that the Girl Scouts gave Debbie as she came out on the platform. She spoke briefly about her scouting experiences and asked the girls to sing a couple of songs that she remembered.

Mrs. Kay Chairman The chairman for the whole affair was Mrs. Edward Kay, who is chairman of the Program Committee for the Grosse Pointe District.

Farms Pier Completion

Boating and Swimming Facilities Finished; Grading and Seeding Delayed

Grosse Pointe Farms expects to have all facilities at its greatly expanded pier park ready for the opening of the Summer season, with the exception of the picnic area.

City Manager Harry Furton stated that contracts were let last Friday night for the installation of $30,000 worth of roadways, parking space and sidewalks.

Big Job Ahead It was pointed out that the final grading of the picnic and recreation areas cannot be done until the roadways and walks and parking lots are finished.

Swimming Starts June 10 All swimming facilities will be ready on time. Swimming will not be permitted until lifeguards go on duty about June 10, when the schools close. The bathhouse is completed.

Backs His Car Into Pedestrian

John D. Jakle of 286 McKinley, was ticketed by Farms police on Tuesday, April 19, after he backed his car into a pedestrian.

Interior Decorators Ready Novel Displays at Center

Beginning this Saturday, April 30, and lasting till May 15, nine well known interior decorators who have their shops in Grosse Pointe will demonstrate their talents by exhibiting model rooms in the Center's second floor.

Open free of charge to the public, the room will be displayed from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and 12 noon to 5 p.m. on Sundays. The hours are arranged so that almost anyone can find a time convenient to drop by.

Seek to Clean All Vacant Lots

All vacant lots must be cleaned up if the Pointe is to have a chance to win the Cleanest City contest. The cooperation of all residents is urged to achieve this ambitious goal for this year's annual Clean-Up campaign.

The first week in May has been designated for this particular project. Special help is asked from all builders, real estate listers, vacant lot owners and residents living next to or near a vacant lot.

2,952 Children Get Salk Polio Vaccine Within Single Day

Doctors, Nurses, Hospital, Policemen and Mothers Health Council Given Special Praise for Parts in Successful Project

A final count of the number of first and second graders in the public, parochial and private schools in the Pointe, who received their initial shots of the Salk Polio Vaccine on Monday, April 25, totaled exactly 2,952, information received from Dr. Thomas Davies, disclosed.

The count included pupils of public schools in Harper Woods which come under the jurisdiction of the Grosse Pointe School District.

Project Great Success Both Dr. Davies and Dr. Lynn Bartlett were extremely pleased by the way the inoculation project was carried out. They expressed their gratitude to the doctors and nurses and the police departments of the Pointes and Harper Woods for the cooperation and services they rendered.

Dr. Davies gave special thanks to Bon Secours Hospital, where inoculation needles and syringes were sterilized free of charge. He disclosed that only one hitch occurred during the program, that of a little boy, who becoming frightened while the vaccination was taking place, ran home before he had his shot. He was returned to his school by his mother, just in time to receive the last shot available.

Some Missed Out The number of children vaccinated will probably be boosted, the doctor said, because there were a number of them who for some reason or other, were unable to be vaccinated Monday. These make-up shots, he said, will be given in his office, located in the Defer School.

There were 25 doctors who volunteered their services for the program, and twice that many nurses.

The police departments of the six communities conducted a shuttle service, from hospital to the various schools.

Policemen Kept Busy Policing the needles and syringes back and forth, thereby permitting the program to be carried on without any letup.

The hospital carried out its part by having the sterilized equipment ready as soon as needed.

The entire inoculation program was completed within one day.

Dr. Bartlett was lavish in his praise of the women of the Mothers Health Education Council, who under the chairmanship of Mrs. J. Cullen Kennedy, spent days in getting everything ready for the program in the School District.

100 Mothers Volunteered He stressed that Mrs. Kennedy lined up 100 volunteer mothers, who were assigned to the various schools of the district.

"Everything went off like clockwork," said Dr. Bartlett, "and all those who participated deserve great credit. They all did a magnificent job."

Park Mayor, Council Hear Accusations

Homer Fritsch Gives Verbal Lashing to Irate Resident of Maryland Avenue

Unjust accusations by an irate Maryland avenue resident aroused the anger of the Park council and resulted in a verbal slap-down from Mayor Homer Fritsch during a meeting on Monday, April 25.

Following the reading of a survey conducted by the General Motors Corporation's truck and coach division, regarding the controversial bus route on Maryland, Park City Manager Everett B. Lane, read a letter from the Park Planning Commission in which it was recommended that the present route be retained until something better is worked out.

John Dillon Protests Present at the meeting was John Dillon of 1115 Maryland, who, it appeared, was the only Maryland resident present. There were others at the meeting, but whether these were residents of the street was not determined.

Dillon arose, when asked if anyone present wanted to speak about the subject. After identifying himself, he demanded to know why he was notified by phone, at almost the last minute, when he and other Maryland residents were supposed to have been notified by letter of the meeting, so that the matter could be discussed.

Charges "Politics" He charged that Monday's meeting was called to suit the "politicians" and appeared for a few moments not able to comprehend that the session was a regular meeting of the council.

A letter, written and signed by him last January, stated he was available at any time and that he could be reached by letter or phone, whenever a meeting on the bus matter was brought up.

This letter was read by Mr. Lane. This he tried to brush off as something in the past, and stated it did not account for the reason he was phoned at the last minute, and again repeated the meeting was called to suit the "politicians" who, he said, have no regard for the taxpayers on Maryland avenue.

Council Angered Members of the council began to show their anger at the charge, and Mayor Fritsch informed Dillon, and the members of the council resented the "politician" label. He ordered Dillon to sit down if he couldn't speak or conduct himself properly.

Dillon then vehemently demanded to know how much free stock the council owned in the bus company.

The shock of the unjust charge was apparent on the faces of the (Continued on Page 4)

Traffic Killer To Stand Trial

Donald E. Marble, 27, charged with manslaughter by a motor vehicle, waived examination before City Judge Joseph Uvick on Wednesday, April 20, and was bound over to Wayne Circuit Court pending a trial date. His bond of $1,000 was continued.

Marble, who lives at 36114 Main street, New Baltimore, is accused of causing the death of Miss Margaret Wade, 18, of 351 Roosevelt, on Thursday, April 7, at Jefferson and Roosevelt.

Miss Wade, on her way home from a music lesson, had just gotten off the bus and had stopped in the middle of the street to let heavy traffic pass, when she was struck by the car driven by Marble. She was carried 202 feet on the hood of the car before she fell off.

The young girl died a few minutes after being taken to Bon Secours Hospital.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Pauline Wade of the Roosevelt address. City police have an iron-clad case against the accused driver, including evidence of an intoxication test, which showed Marble was under the influence of alcohol at the time. He tried to escape after the accident.

Woods Vote Recount Stalls When Challenge Is Hurdled

The vote recount in the Woods was temporarily stalled on Monday, April 25, when the ballots of one of the four precincts counted were challenged, according to information given by Woods City Clerk Herbert Brauns.

It was revealed that the ballots from Precincts 1, 2, 3 and 4 had been counted as of Monday night, but several ballots from Precinct 3 were mutilated, and as a result had been challenged.

The Woods Board of Censors, headed by Harry Pratt, ruled that the mutilated ballots cannot be counted until an affidavit has been obtained from the workers of the precinct stating whether the ballots were torn while being removed, or were that way while in the sealed ballot boxes.

Mr. Brauns stated that Precinct 3 ballots will have to be counted over again.

Resumption of the counting took place yesterday, April 27, day after the News went to (Continued on Page 4)

Library Offers Color Films For Family Movie Program

A varied program of color films is in store for those who attend the Grosse Pointe Public Library's Family Film showing Friday evening, May 6, at 8 o'clock.

To be held in the upstairs meeting room of the Central Library at Kercheval and Fisher, the program is planned for all adults in the community and any school-age children they may care to bring along.

The great interest in Africa as a destination for foreign travel will be whetted by two items on the program—SIX FACES OF THE PHARAOH, and VICTORIA FALLS—THE SMOKE THAT THUNDERS.

Some indication of the immense size of these monuments is demonstrated by having the camera follow a climber to the summit of an Egyptian pyramid.

While there is question as to what is the world's largest waterfall—in that measuring rate of flow, amount of flow, sheerness of drop or footage of drop can all provide different answers—it is generally agreed that Victoria Falls are one of the world's greatest for pure spectacle.

The color film to be shown Friday includes not only aerial views of the falls on the Zambezi River but also a panorama of life along the banks of the river, showing the exotic animals with which Africa abounds.

The beauties of nature over the year's span are presented in photography of uncommon quality and taste in THE SEASONS.

Against a background entirely musical and so devoid of distracting commentary, the changes, both large and small, which mark the annual turning of the earth are subtly depicted.

THE SEASONS is of interest both to the lover of nature and to the photography fan who can gain much from its examples of fine composition and coloring.

The final item making up the program will be a children's short.

Picked to Make Washington Trip

George Baer, 11, of Trombly school will be among 120 Michigan safety patrolers attending the 19th AAA Safety Patrol Rally in Washington, D.C., May 5-8.

Young Baer will leave for the Rally from Detroit Thursday, May 5 as Automobile Club of Michigan's guest. He was selected to take the four-day trip as an outstanding representative of the 44,000 Michigan safety patrolers who this year have guarded 70,000 school children without a single reported death.

During his honor trip to Washington, Baer will join 30,000 patrolers from the United States and Canada in the traditional parade down Constitution avenue. He will meet Michigan's congressmen at a get-together arranged by Auto Club. Other events planned include the meeting of entertainment world notables and the visiting of important buildings, monuments and landmarks in the Washington area.

The patrolers will gather in Detroit Thursday for registration and a physical checkup. While waiting to depart, they will be entertained by Patrolman Anthony Hosang of the Detroit Police Department and his dog, "Tina."

Also accompanying the youngsters to Washington will be representatives of the Royal Oak high school band who will lead Michigan's delegation in the five-mile-long parade. The state's four patrol boys who were awarded Auto Club's live saving medals will view the procession from a place of honor on the reviewing stand.

The patrolers will leave Washington Saturday evening and arrive in Detroit Sunday, May 8. They will be escorted to their homes by Auto Club staff members.

Thief Snatches Movie Cameras

Two small movie cameras, valued at a total of $314.45, were taken from a photographer's studio according to a Farms police report.

The cameras, believed taken from a showcase at Paul Gach Studio, 345 Fisher road, were of the 8mm magazine load type.

One was valued at $169.95; and the other at $149.50.

Report of the missing cameras was made by Joe Wiedelman, who is employed by the studio. He said he believed the cameras had been missing about a week or more. All the thief left were the boxes which had contained the stolen objects.

White Cane Week Being Observed

Local churches, schools, newspapers, television and radio stations, police department and business firms are again working together to further the educational program of White Cane Week, April 24-30.

Under the dual sponsorship of the Lions Clubs of Metropolitan Detroit and the Lions Clubs of Michigan, printed leaflets were prepared for distribution throughout all schools.

Thousands of White Canes are furnished each year, free of charge, to the blind and partially blind persons through the efforts of the various Lions Clubs.

Once each year a special week is designated by the Governor of the State of Michigan and Mayor of the City of Detroit as White Cane Week during which an extensive program is launched to remind citizens that the bearer of the White Cane is blind, and that under the state law such person is granted the right of way in traffic.

Going beyond the letter of the law, one of the prime purposes of White Cane Week is to solicit friendly assistance whenever it is needed. Be Considerate . . . safe-guard the welfare of all who carry this symbol of blindness.

Asks Mayor's Name

After he was ordered to sit down again, Dillon topped everything by demanding the name of the Mayor, and asking what position he held in the city.

Mayor Fritsch informed the man he had been on the Park council for the past 14 years, and had been elected to his third term as mayor.

Dillon demanded his name, whereupon the mayor told him to get it from someone else, because he was not going to tell him. Records show Dillon has been a Park voter at least since 1952.

The gist of the survey by the General Motors Corporation discredited the Maryland residents' charge that the value of their property was depreciated with the re-routing of the bus line to their street from Wayburn.

Conducted by Experts

The letter pointed out that the survey was conducted by the Transportation Survey Department of the firm, staffed by men who are experts in the mass transportation field, and who have many years of experience with transit problems in the United States, Canada and Latin America.

It also pointed out that complaints have not been received from residents from other areas being served by the bus company (Lake Shore Coach Lines). Homes in these areas have a much higher property value than those on Maryland.

Other Streets Cited

The experts stated that Fisher road is approximately 20 feet wide, as compared to the 28-foot width of Maryland, and if the bus service deflates the value of property and cracks walls, the damage on Fisher would be greater than that on Maryland. This would also apply to homes on Brys drive, Marter road and Vernier road, in the Woods.

It was revealed that it is a nationally known fact that public transportation facilities enhance the value of residential property, and promote the sale of houses.

On the basis of a passenger count, taken on March 10, it was estimated that an average of 622 patrons use the bus daily on Wayburn alone, sufficient proof that the service is both a convenience and a necessity.

Most Practical Route

The present Kercheval route, established a few months ago, is the most practicable from any known standard of safety and convenience, the report said, and represents the most satisfactory solution to the majority of people.

On Thursday, April 7, the Park Planning Commission, following the recommendations set forth by the GM letter, passed a resolution as being in favor of retaining the present route on Maryland, and so advised the council.

Wait Lawyer's Return

Further action on the matter was tabled until Wallace Temple, attorney for the Maryland residents, returned from a world tour on May 15.

A meeting on the issue has been scheduled for Monday, May 23, and it was agreed that all residents along the Maryland route will be notified of the session by letter.

Club Holds Open House

Many Thought It School

The most frequent comment on the part of the visitors was that they never realized the club is a community facility. A number thought it a private school. The guests were predominantly adult, consisting of family groups.

"We were surprised and happy about the number who wanted to register right then and there," Mr. Elworthy said. "In summing up the whole affair, I can only say that I hope it served to acquaint the community with an organization at their continual disposal, and that the club feels that the $600 required to stage the open house was money more than well spent."

200 BLAZING HORSEPOWER at the lowest cost in history!

...plus size, luxury and styling unsurpassed at the price!

THE SENSATIONAL STRATO-STREAK V-8

Here's why Pontiac delivers so much power at such low cost—the most modern and efficient V-8 in the industry, delivering 200 horsepower with the four-barrel carburetor, optional on all models at very low extra cost.

It's a fact—never before in the history of the automobile industry has a car offered so much power for so little money as the 1955 Pontiac. It is the first and only automobile ever built that delivers 200 horsepower at a price every new-car buyer can afford—hundreds of dollars less than any car equalling its blazing performance. And that's not all! Pontiac is also the sole automobile at its price to unite 200 horsepower with a road-leveling 122" or 124" wheelbase and such big-car stability. It's the biggest as well as the highest-powered car ever priced with the lowest. Yes, you read that right! You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars or stripped economy models of higher-priced makes.

Come in and drive this flashing, silken-smooth performer. A few miles behind the mighty Strato-Streak V-8 will tell you better than any words that Pontiac is the greatest buy that ever took the highway!

Health Society Ten Years Old

The Tuberculosis and Health Society will celebrate its 10th anniversary at its annual meeting at noon Thursday, April 28 at the Central YWCA in Detroit.

Since its founding, the Society has grown from a staff of three people to a staff of 22. Its services go into Herman Kiefer Hospital and William Maybury Sanatorium in Northville to aid tuberculosis patients. Its services also reach into every community and neighborhood in the county and city to help citizens improve the health of our people.

With the support of those who each buy double bar cross Christmas Seals, the Society has bought $22,000 worth of X-ray equipment to set up free X-ray clinics in Ecorse and Dearborn. Through small grants it has stimulated Oakwood, Florence Crittenton and Trinity Hospitals to purchase X-ray equipment to examine every patient entering its hospital to detect tuberculosis cases.

Twice in the past ten years the Society has staffed and maintained a mobile X-ray bus until public health departments could take them over. The Women's Committee of the Society purchased a trailer and later a bus to house X-ray equipment of the Detroit Department of Health.

Hundreds of patients have been returned to useful jobs after they have left the hospital as a result of training arranged by the TB and Health Society.

In 1951-52 the Society mobilized efforts to provide 335 new hospital beds at Herman Kiefer Hospital. These are now filled continually and still some Wayne County patients must be treated in sanatorium in Howell and Battle Creek.

Special health education programs have been introduced into local industrial firms to aid workers and their families to learn how to stay healthy. Scholarships have been given to nurses, teachers and for graduate public health study.

These are but a few of the accomplishments of the Society in the past ten years. While a great many gains have been made in the fight against TB there is still a long way to go to eradicate the dangers of the disease which still attacked 3,745 people in Wayne County last year.

The Society must continue to grow and work to cut down one of the oldest scourges of man which has so stubbornly resisted efforts to fight it.

Market Tips For Pointers

A brisk trend toward use of more beef is evidenced at the meat counters. "Chuck-full of flavor" is economical eating as an aromatic pot roast. According to Marketing & Consumer Information Agents of Michigan State College either the blade or round chuck cut serves about two persons per pound, and the blade cuts sell for about 10 cents less per pound. Other reasonably priced beef cuts to check include round steak, English cuts, and standing rib roasts.

Many pork cuts continue in good supply and at low cost. Boston butts, loin roasts and picnics are favorites for roasts. Special prices on bacon and sausage fit every shoppers pocket book.

Fresh Lake Erie fish is in bigger supply and better in quality. Shoppers will find smelt, white bass, herring, perch, and pickerel among their choices.

A more adequate supply has caused stewers to be more favorably priced than dryers. The best birds are rock hens, weighing 4-5 pounds.

Eggs offer high quality protein at very reasonable prices for this time of year. The supply of grade A large eggs is moderate and barely ample with small amounts of jumbo, extra large, and medium sizes in the market.

Spring greens and yellows highlight vegetable counters. Michigan globe onions are more reasonably priced than the new flat white Texas onions. Increased shipments of green beans from Florida and asparagus from California has helped to slightly reduce prices for food shoppers. Recent cold weather in the South has damaged potato crops causing fluctuations and immediate increased prices. Lettuce is improving in size and quality and prices are reasonable.

Florida white and pink grapefruit, and Valencia oranges are at seasonal peaks of quality and flavor.

Ripen avocados at room temperature for several days to develop their creamy buttery texture. This pear-shaped fruit will add an ultra touch to any salad.

Both bananas and apples are reasonably priced fruits. With varieties on the counters—the SPY offers a better choice for all-purpose use.

BEEF AND WINE SAUCE
 2 Tablespoons butter or fat
 3 Onions, sliced
 2 Pounds beef chuck
 1½ Tablespoons flour
 1 Cup boiling water
 1 Beef bouillon cube
 1½ Cups dry red wine
 1 Teaspoon salt
 ½ Teaspoon pepper
 ¼ Teaspoon oregano
 ¼ Teaspoon thyme
 ¼ Teaspoon marjoram
 ½ Pound mushrooms
 ¼ Cup butter or margarine
 Melt fat in skillet. Add onions and cook until yellow. Remove onions from pan. Trim excess fat from meat and cut into strips about an inch wide, 2 inches long and about ½ inch thick. Add meat to drippings in skillet. Sprinkle with flour and cook over medium heat until meat is well browned. Combine water and bouillon cube and stir until cube is dissolved. Stir in wine, and add 2/3 of wine mixture to meat in skillet with seasoning. Cover skillet and simmer over very low heat for about 2 hours, adding small amounts of remaining wine mixture from time to time, until all is used. Meanwhile, slice the mushrooms lengthwise and saute' in butter. Add mushrooms and onions to meat mixture. Continue cooking for 20 to 30 minutes, until meat is very tender. Makes about six servings.

Jacobson's Has Answers to Your Baby Questions

A trim young woman who knows all the answers about babies will be in the spotlight when National Baby Week is observed at Jacobson's next Monday, May 2, through Friday, May 6.

(The observance of Baby Week will start at Jacobson's this Saturday, April 30, and continue through May 7.)

Each afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock Public Health Nurse Mrs. Alberta Davis will be in the children's department with those answers gained in her seven years of public health service.

It was four years ago that the store first asked her to be with them during National Baby Week. That first session was such a success it has been a must each year since.

Young mothers, grandmothers, fathers, and even those who are expecting that first baby, call at the attractive second floor quarters of the children's department at Jacobson's. Mrs. Davis always keeps a log of her visitors and in many cases has followed with interest the growth of babies about whom she has answered questions.

This year, with the important Salk vaccine promising a healthier childhood to all young Americans, there will be many wanting more information about it. A sound background on the subject will greet them in Mrs. Davis who not only has been extensively briefed but who also took part in the polio immunization shots administered this week to first and second graders of the Pointe's public and parochial schools.

Mrs. Davis will distribute new pamphlets issued by the U.S. government on the Salk vaccine. Also there will be literature on a multitude of children's health problems, all available free of charge at Jacobson's during Baby Week.

And to make Pointers' visits more enjoyable, punch and cookies will be served each afternoon. Other features include specially merchandized stock offered at attractive Baby Week prices.

When you meet Mrs. Davis, perhaps you'll notice an orchid enamel pin she wears on her white blouse (the public health nurse uniform is dark blue gabardine suit with crisp blouse). She received it at Conemaugh Valley Memorial Hospital, Johnstown, Pa., where she trained. She took her Bachelor of Science degree at Wayne University.

The nurse's regular schedule includes an 8:30 to 4:30 day. She is one of two public health nurses in the Pointe and visits schools on a consultant basis.

Public Health service personnel deal chiefly with disease prevention and control whereas the medical profession deals in cure.

On her own time, Mrs. Davis has served this community teaching three classes in American Red Cross Home Nursing at the Adult Education Building on Grosse Pointe boulevard. She also conducts a class for expectant parents at War Memorial Center.

At Jacobson's next week, she'll gladly demonstrate how to bathe the new baby, the proper position of the baby at feeding time, give information on infant immunization programs, tell how to assemble layettes. She'll even advise expectant mothers what to pack in their bags for that trip to the hospital.

Mrs. Davis, who lives at 1622 Bournemouth, hopes the friends she's made in the past years during Baby Week at Jacobson's will come back to visit her and naturally she looks forward to greeting a lot of new friends beginning next Monday.

The area favorable to the discovery of oil and gas in this country is estimated at over one billion acres. About 15 per cent of this land is held under lease.

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

Special events at Hotchkiss School took most of the Ford family East last week-end. . . Mrs. Edsel Ford, the Henry Fords II, the Benson Fords and the William C. Fords went down for the occasion. . . On the family's June calendar is the wedding of Mrs. Ford's niece, Katrina Kanzler and John Maxtone Graham. The daughter of Ernest Kanzler will be married at a June 4 ceremony in Christ Church. The evening before the wedding, Mrs. Ford will give the rehearsal dinner in her home on Lake Shore road.

So many of this Spring's parties at the Pointe are being inspired by the multitude of travelers heading for Europe. Latest to join the cross-the-Atlantic set are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Putnam and Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Fruehauf. It was to fete the ladies that Mrs. C. Karl Lysinger entertained at a bon voyage luncheon Tuesday in her home on Whittier boulevard. Guests walked through the front door to find the Lysinger hall piled high with fascinating luggage. . . It was so realistic everyone was sure the Lysingers were leaving right after the lunch for travel of their own. . . But it was just part of the fun decor. The luncheon table was centered with a beautiful globe of the world at the base of which bloomed saucy Spring posies. Bon voyage cards marked places for Mrs. Miles Culehan, Mrs. John Cross, Mrs. G. R. McKiel, Mrs. Carl Reichelt, Mrs. Harold S. Rounds, Mrs. Walter Stewart, Mrs. Walter Schmitt, Mrs. Reynaud Font and Miss Sylvia Cartwright. The Putnams and the Fruehaufs sail in May for the continent and will travel in England, France and Italy.

Colony Club Recipes

Here on our desk, golden and new is the book called "Favorite Recipes" containing culinary favorites of members of the Colony Town Club. To us, it is the solid evidence of Mrs. James Merriam Barnes' idea which came to that curly head of hers over two years ago. Then it was asked her fellow members to send their favorite recipes to her. These were faithfully typed and put into a recipe file and given as a prize at the big Colony Town Club Fair. (Mrs. Henry Crossen won the recipe file.) "Some day, those will be in a recipe book to raise money for the club Loan Closet," Mrs. Barnes remarked at the time. So here is her brain child, brought to reality by club president Mrs. Walter G. Bernard and the board, full of secret cooking lore. It sells for two dollars and raises funds for that Cancer Loan Closet which is such a marvelous work.

Grosse Pointe Clubs Give Juniors the Nod

Yacht Club, Hunt Club, Country Club and Lochmoor Alternate as Hosts to Their Juniors at Semi-Monthly Parties; GYPC Bowlers' Jamboree Ends Season

It took the boards of directors of our Grosse Pointe private clubs to come up with the answer to that question which has been on parents' lips for a long, long time: Isn't there something that can be done about fun for the juniors, those tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders?

The debutantes in our community, the very sub debbs, have had veritable whirls each holiday season and through the Summer, (especially at Grosse Pointe Hunt Club) but there's been a decided vacuum when it came to organized fun for the tenth through twelfth graders.

Now they will have semi-monthly parties with the Country Club of Detroit, Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and Lochmoor Club alternating as hosts.

The first of the big "do's" is set for this Friday evening at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. It's to be a Cabaret dance.

When this important decision for the twice monthly galas was made, attending the meeting were Robert Weiser, Dick Martin, Jr., Betty Zimmerman, Judy Nixon and Dick Degener of Grosse Pointe Yacht Club; Walter M. Meek of the Country Club of Detroit; Peter J. Gallette, William G. Siebert, Paul J. Keller, Jr., Ann Giroux, Carolyn Sattelmeyer, Bill Wachter and Dan Goodnow.

Joseph A. Vance, Jr., president of the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club, joined the group for his club and a junior committee soon will be formed.

There will be swimming parties, gymkhanas, barbecues and hay rides included in the future fun for Juniors.

And now for a bit of adult club news.

It's about Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and the Bowlers' Jamboree of last Saturday evening, when the keggers wound up their season with a cocktail party, presentation of trophies and awards, and a dinner-dance for some 250

Dobbs Ferry Fashion Show

Mrs. Lawrence Gottfredson is ticket chairman and Mrs. Carleton M. Higbie, Jr., has been handling publicity for the luncheon and fashion show.

Summer chic by the Clothes Line will be featured at the Dobbs Ferry afternoon and among members who have made early reservations for the party are Mrs. Arthur H. Buhl, Jr., Mrs. Perdval Dodge, Mrs. Edgar L. Fink, Countess Cyril Tolstoi and Mrs. William McMillan.

Other Pointe members of the Dobbs Ferry Alumnae Association include Joan Henry, Mrs. William P. Bonbright II, Mary Boyer, Susan Sattley, Hilary Whittaker, Mrs. Henry T. Bodman, Mrs. Edward Burns Caulkins, Jr.

Mrs. William B. Morse is president of the Detroit association with Mrs. William L. Newman, vice-president; Mrs. Edward I. Book, secretary, and Mrs. Charles A. McFeely, Jr., treasurer.

Lady Golfers Hold Brunch

Feminine golfers of Lochmoor Club met for brunch and a special program at the club on Wednesday.

Lochmoor pro, "Chick" Rutan, gave a short talk following which he showed the movie, "Etiquette of Golf" filmed by the United States Golfing Association.

Mrs. Horace I. McConnell is chairman of the women golfers at Lochmoor this season with her committee including Mrs. Harold J. Trombly, vice-chairman; Mrs. Robert S. Sinclair, recording secretary; Mrs. W. M. Teeter, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. D. M. Davidson, treasurer.

Among those who attended the golf brunch were Mrs. Karl E. Schaltenbrand Jr., Mrs. H. B. Orr, Mrs. John R. Emery, Mrs. Robert Gaskill, Mrs. Robert M. Kindall, Mrs. John D. Adair, Mrs. Alex Moore.

Mrs. Edward G. Gance, Mrs. Robert S. Sinclair, Mrs. Horace I. McConnell, Mrs. J. C. Tappert, Mrs. J. C. Brisson, Mrs. Karl E. Schmidt, Mrs. R. H. Koebel, Mrs. E. J. Gay.

Mrs. Willard B. Handloser, Mrs. Terry A. Rife, Mrs. Kenneth Moore, Mrs. R. L. Weir, Mrs. Richard G. Dirksen, Mrs. C. Robert Howard, Mrs. Melvin S. Hufaker and Mrs. George F. Burley.

Nursing Society Meeting May 4

The regular monthly meeting of the District Nursing Society is being held next Wednesday, May 4, at 11 a.m., in Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Mrs. Rufus Clark, Mrs. Stewart Baxter and Mrs. Frederick P. Hart will be hostesses for the day.

Mrs. Thomas J. Verbiest

The former SUZANNE ROSE MIESCH, daughter of Mrs. Frederick W. Miesch of Beaconsfield road, and the late Mr. Miesch, was married on April 23, in St. Ambrose Church. A reception and breakfast was held at the University Club. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Marcellus Verbiest of Balfour road.

Pointers Praise Florida Resort

As Pointers drift back from vacations in the South, the tales of Wright by The Sea, outside of Delray Beach and situated on the blue Atlantic, grow more and more wondrous.

Latest to add praise for the beautiful new apartment hotel in Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest W. Rapalee, of Balfour road, who vacationed there with Mrs. Rapalee's mother, Mrs. Irma Peers, and their children, Pamela, Raymond and Ernest, Jr.

Of the thousands of resorts in Florida they thought it a great coincidence that two families from the Pointe, and friends of theirs, chose Wright by The Sea for their winter vacations.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Tutag, of Cloverly road, their daughter, Linda, and son, Robert, and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton M. Lauks, of Lincoln road, who are still at the resort. The Lauks' son, Richmond, came down from his studies at Harvard to spend Spring vacation with his parents.

A bit earlier in the season, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Fritsch, of Harvard road, who were guests at Wright by The Sea, fell in love with the spot and extolled the wonderful Friday evening fish fries the management holds. None of the guests would dream of going "out" on Friday evening, much preferring the informal sociability of the fish fries when resorters arrive with their own specialties to add to the feast. (Mrs. Fritsch made the tartar sauce when she was there, other ladies bring great big green salads or some food for which they are famous).

The Rapalees found dolphin, a delicacy, recommend a fish dinner of wahoo, and of course liked the more familiar fare such as shrimp and red snapper.

Organized deep sea fishing for juniors and again for adults make the vacations at Wright by The Sea memorable, too. During the Spring vacation, the place was a popular mecca for the Eastern college set which added to the gaiety.

Suzanne Miesch Bride of Thomas J. Verbiest

Daughter of Mrs. Frederick W. Miesch, of Beaconsfield, is Married to Son of The C. Marcellus Verbiests; Home on Haverhill Awaits After Their Wedding Trip

Suzanne Rose Miesch and Thomas Joseph Verbiest were united in marriage Saturday morning at an 11 o'clock nuptial mass in St. Ambrose Church.

The Rev. Father John H. Murphy, C.S.C., came from Notre Dame to perform the ceremony.

Suzanne is the daughter of Mrs. Frederick W. Miesch, of Beaconsfield avenue, and her bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. Marcellus Verbiest of Balfour road.

Her beautiful gown was fashioned of white mousseline de soie appliqued with sprays of re-embroidered lace, twinkling with opalescent paillettes.

The full skirt billowed over layers of net and satin.

A bridal coronet of matching lace held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a wedding prayerbook to which was affixed a white orchid and Stephanotis.

Mrs. Raymond E. Hollerbach was her sister's matron of honor and the bridesmaids were Mary Verbiest, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Paul R. Jones, III, and Mrs. Daniel F. Rachek, of Cleveland.

All wore gowns of embroidered pink crystaletta designed with waltz length skirts. Headbands of matching velvet completed their costumes and they carried bouquets of deep red roses.

Arthur V. Diedrich, Jr., performed the duties of the best man and guests were seated by Paul R. Jones, III, George A. Gardella, Jr., the bridegroom's brother-in-law, Thomas P. Jackman, J. Parker Munger, Jr., and Richard J. Kelly.

A gown of mauve taffeta with matching accessories was the choice of the bride's mother who pinned orchids to her handbag.

The reception-breakfast was given by Mrs. Miesch at the University Club.

Mrs. Verbiest was in ashes of roses applied in taffeta sprays

To Be Models On TV Today

Four Grosse Pointe women will be among the 12 models showing ball gowns from Detroit's glittering era of 1840 to 1880, when Detroit Historical Society Guild members appear in a fashion show on the CKLW Mary Morgan TV show, Thursday afternoon, April 28, at 2 o'clock.

Mrs. Richard Webber Allen, 1630 Cranford lane, will model an aqua ball gown of the 1880's which was worn by a member of the Truman Newberry family.

A green brocade gown of the 1840's which was worn by Katherine Whipple Sibley, later C. C. Trowbridge, will be worn by Mrs. T. L. Potter of 458 Cloverly road.

A yellow silk gown of the 1860 period which belonged to Frances Newberry Bagley, wife of Governor John S. Bagley, will be modelled by Mrs. Ray E. Harms of 1575 Ford court.

And Mrs. John W. Walcott, 819 Barrington road, will wear a white moire ball gown of the 1865 period.

All gowns, many of which belonged to members of prominent Detroit families, were selected for the show from the extensive collection of the Detroit Historical Museum by Curator, Mrs. Richard S. Mitchell.

DAC'ers Blow Candles On 40th Birthday Cake

Grosse Pointe Members of Detroit Athletic Club Keep Sentimental Date at Madison Avenue Clubhouse When 40th Anniversary Is Celebrated

There was a real exodus from Grosse Pointe to the Detroit Athletic Club on Sunday, April 17, when long-time members, and those who became DAC'ers in more recent years, joined to toast the club's fortieth birthday anniversary, to visit and reminisce, to dance, and just to have a wonderful time together.

The celebration was a huge Open House with a tea dance as a brilliant addition, and the whole exuded a feeling of warm friendship. The festivity culminated a special anniversary floor show week and the Fathers and Daughters party which, on April 9, was the inaugural of the "40th" activities.

The setting for this Sunday party was beautiful. There were roses everywhere—long-stemmed American Beauty red roses in tall urns nodded a greeting at the main entrance door and glowed on stair landings and in the corridors. Woodwardia ferns and flowering dogwood branches, spilling over the railing of the grand staircase, brought spring right into the clubhouse.

Pointer Joseph E. Bayne, first vice president, and Mrs. Bayne had arrived early—as chairman of the house committee, Mr. Bayne had had much to do in arranging the party.

In the lobby stood the majestic birthday cake, its base surrounded with fragrant fresh violets. The seven-tiered cake, square in shape and iced in gleaming white, was sparkled with spungar decorations in ruby hue and ruby-colored candles.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben R. Marsh congratulated DAC's president, J. King Harness, immediately after he cut the cake in a brief ceremony—Mr. Marsh himself had had this pleasant duty at the "35th" when he was president in 1950.

Dr. and Mrs. Alexander W. Blain and Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Batchelor visited back and forth—both these men had become DAC members many months before the gracious clubhouse had its opening on April 17, 1915.

While old friends, reminisced and newer ones became better acquainted, a merry throng was dancing in the Pontchartrain room to the music of Leo Reisman's orchestra. Here Woodwardia ferns banked the bandstand and tall vases held red roses and white snapdragons.

Groups came early and came late they joined for champagne and tea, they circulated from first to second floor and back again. More than 2,000 attended.

Charles F. Bush and David A. Wallace, past presidents of the DAC, were there—Mr. and Mrs. Wallace had arrived home from Delray, Fla., just three days before the party. Henry E. Bodman, a charter member, and Mrs. Bodman were others present.

H. Thompson Stock, whose DAC membership was a commencement gift from his father when he graduated from Harvard in 1923, came with Mrs. Stock, their daughter, Ann, and his mother, Mrs. Arthur J. Stock.

Noted in the continuous stream at the Open House were the Thornton E. Waterfalls, their son, Arthur T. Waterfall II.

After the open house, there was a special anniversary dinner. Red and pink roses centered the tables arranged in the main, ladies and big private dining rooms.

St. Clare Group Planning "Hop"

Here is something of interest for the high school students who do not have a date for Saturday, April 29.

The St. Clare Junior Sodality is planning a "Record Hop." Jim Dunbar of CKLW will spin out all the latest discs.

The fun will begin at 8 p.m. and the admission is 50 cents per person and 75 cents per couple. Refreshments will be served free of charge.

The "Hop" will be held in the church basement, located at the corner of Mack and Whittier.

Mrs. John R. Cadarette

The former CONSTANCE RAE MOLITOR is the daughter of Mrs. Arthur Molitor of McKinley avenue, and the late Mr. Molitor. The bridegroom is the son of Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Cadarette of Terry avenue. The couple were married in St. Paul on the Lake on April 23. They will make their home in San Diego, Calif.

To Open Home For Sick Poor

It's "Tea Time" again for the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor. On Monday morning 20 Auxiliary members gathered at the home of Elmer H. Muer to prepare for mailing 3,000 invitations for their Spring Tea.

The day was spent in the spacious drawing room of the Windmill Pointe Drive home on Lake St. Clair, which will be the scene of the tea on Tuesday, May 10, from 2 to 6 o'clock.

The chairmen, Mrs. L. Verne Ansel, Mrs. Bert E. Lindquist and Mrs. Walter A. Bauman, had to use all their persuasive powers in returning the workers to the business of the day, as many wanted to stop for a dip in the sixty-foot indoor swimming pool and the bowlers were thrilled with the two regulation alleys, equipped with electric pin setters.

Auxiliary president, Mrs. Jerry T. Flanagan, and reception chairmen, Mrs. William S. Faber and Mrs. Michael J. Kearins, will be assisted by the vice and past presidents in greeting the guests.

Mrs. Walter A. Bayer and Miss Margaret Bradford, chairmen of pourers, have invited Mesdames B. A. Seymour, Philip Huber, Harry Chisholm, Harry Dawson, Charles McCabe, Edmond Dilworth, Arthur Schrage, Edwin Sanders, Chas. T. Fisher Jr., Harry Dart, J. J. Gorman, Sherman Kelly, Cyril J. Burke, Daniel C. Fisher and Misses Dorothy A. Meyers, Jane E. Doughty and Marjorie Franklin.

The dining room will be in charge of chairmen Misses Josephine Fortener and Irene Ryan, while the pleasant task of asking friends to sign the guest book will be in charge of Mrs. J. William LaVigne and Mrs. Albert F. Boening.

Mrs. Ray Peters and Miss Mary Otis are donation chairmen and Mrs. Harold A. Groff and Mrs. Aline Huck Bayer, membership chairmen.

Proceeds will provide funds to enable the sister-nurses to go out daily from their Commonwealth avenue convent to minister to impoverished persons of all races and creeds, and give not only professional bedside care in their own homes, but moral and spiritual aid.

The Dominican Sister-Nurses only support comes from voluntary donations, such as those collected at the Auxiliary Spring Tea.

Voters' League Picks Delegates

A group of delegates from the Grosse Pointe branch, headed by Mrs. Edgar Hahn, President, will attend the state convention of the League of Women Voters at Saginaw on May 5 and 6.

The purpose of the convention is to transact the business of the League of Women Voters of Michigan, elect state officers and select an item or items on the state level for local Leagues to study during 1955-1957.

The item recommended by the state board is "Know Your State . . . a study of Michigan state government with emphasis on continuing responsibilities in relation to possible constitutional revision." Local leagues will have the opportunity to make other suggestions at the convention.

Mothers' Club Party Takes Garden Theme

Big Annual Scholarship Fund Raising Event to Be Held on May 13 In Beautiful New Auditorium-Gymnasium

A Maytime Garden Party theme will spark this year's benefit card party and tea given by the Mothers' Club of Grosse Pointe High School on Friday, May 13, at 1 p.m.

The doors of the new auditorium-gymnasium will swing wide to welcome guests to this yearly event which has become one of the largest of its kind in the community.

Mrs. Adam C. Cook, general chairman, urges women of the community to attend Party Day in the beautiful new building and, at the same time, give support to the Scholarship fund maintained by the Mothers' Club.

While the dues from members of the Mothers' Club provide funds for various school and community activities, the scholarship plan could not be carried on without the income derived from this event.

The various committees have been hard at work for weeks to make this occasion enjoyable for all who attend. Mrs. Paul G. Hykes and Mrs. Carroll Sutton, ticket chairmen, announce that Pointe telephones will ring busily this week as all mothers of students at the high school are contacted.

Members of the ticket committee are Mrs. Marvin Ortwein, Mrs. Louis Marick, Mrs. Grant Evans, Mrs. Andrew Mihalik, Mrs. Paul Thompson, Mrs. Oscar Marx, and Mrs. James Bleau. Should anyone inadvertently not be contacted, tickets may be obtained by calling Mrs. Hykes at TU 1-9956 or Mrs. Sutton at TU 1-2181.

Tea will be served in the cafeteria after 2 p.m. Ticket holders who do not wish to play cards are welcomed to the tea.

Chantilly lace and nylon tulle formed the lovely wedding gown which had stender waistline girdled in cumberbund effect in silk taffeta. Appliques of lace trimmed the bouffant skirt.

The same Chantilly lace was used for the tiny cap which had in place the veil of French silk illusion.

Baby orchids and stephanotis were caught to Constance's prayerbook.

Barbara Danneels was the maid of honor with Marilyn Ernest and Ruth Jones as bridesmaids and cousin of the bride, Ann Marie Paul, the flower girl.

The Vernacular of Cooks

Few things are more fun to read than cook books. The vernacular of cooks is picturesque. For instance we found one recipe in the Colony Club book calling for a "small puddle of beer." Mrs. Henry B. Joy's Tomato Cocktail calls for a bushel of tomatoes, a staggering thought to any novice cook who might come upon same. Mrs. Joseph M. Schenck, who has always awed us with her great dignity, has contributed a recipe she calls "Blushing Bunnies." The impact of Dione Lucas on the cooking community is certainly illustrated in this book. Several of the ladies have sent as their favorites recipes those she gave at her cooking classes, of course giving Lucas credit. Another member admonishes that the success of the recipe she has contributed is entirely dependent upon the use of Strictly Fresh Eggs. . . . There's a cookie recipe whose contributor tells you there's no need to cook 'em, "just dry them." Anyhow, when ladies are talking cooking it's one of the times we love them best. . . . and we think they're at their best. . . . Their chatter is spiced with to-be-listened-for descriptive phrases. . . . The literature of recipes is pure Americana, one of the reasons we collect cook books. . . . the reason you'll want to own the Colony Club's "Favorite Recipes" . . .

To Open Gardens

Mrs. William G. Boales, Mrs. Alexander W. Blain and Mrs. F. F. Stekluh are co-chairmen of this year's Grosse Pointe Garden Pilgrimage to benefit the Garden Center . . . and we've just been given the names of the 10 Pointers who are opening their gardens May 14 and 15. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Herman Otto, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Gallette, Dr. and Mrs. John Mateer, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Newman, Mrs. Horace E. Dodge, Ernest Kanzler, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Glancy Jr., Dr. and Mrs. William J. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. John Gordon Hill.

Kitchen Tour Friday

Another reminder that Women's Auxiliary of Cottage Hospital stages its Kitchen Tour in the Pointe tomorrow (Friday, April 29 . . . Mrs. Louis P. Gepford is general chairman) . . . and a note about Auxiliary president Mrs. Henry Klein, who returned from Florida the first of last week . . . She came home with her energy renewed and ready to help with last minute details of the tour. . . . Then a persistent scratchy throat took her to the doctor. . . . and where did she land? Right in Cottage Hospital to have a polish up job done on an old tonsillectomy. . . . At first she said she'd WORK for Cottage Hospital but she wasn't going to be a patient until a-f-t-e-r the fund-raising kitchen tour. . . . When she was reassured she'd be able to work like a dog on Friday, she consented. . . . And our last check-up proved the doctor right. . . . She'll be there!

Parties Honor Engaged Couple

A six week whirl of parties will draw to a close May 14 with the marriage of Pauline Marie Kilbride and Arthur Victor Dierdich Jr. at St. Paul on the Lake.

Pauline is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard L. Kilbride, of Handy road, and Art, the son of Dr. and Mrs. Arthur V. Dierdich of Yorkshire.

A tea honoring Pauline and her friends was given by Mrs. Arthur Dierdich. A succession of pre-nuptial parties followed, beginning with a family dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. C. Marcellus Verbiest, Dr. and Mrs. Charles J. Jamieson and Dr. and Mrs. Neil D. Gotschall at the Verbiest residence.

Mrs. Daniel Rachek of Cleveland, Ohio entertained next at a luncheon shower at the home of her mother, Mrs. John C. Staudt.

That evening, Miss Suzanne Miesch, Mr. Thomas J. Verbiest and Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Jones III, feted the couple at a supper party at the latter's home.

Mrs. Fred B. Herz of Yorkshire road will entertain the bride-elect at a dinner party on April 28. A table-top shower will highlight the evening.

Pauline's sisters and sisters-in-law are planning a family luncheon for Saturday, April 30, at the home of her sister Kathleen, Mrs. Ralph Disser of Merriweather road.

Mrs. Mathew S. Kubitsky of McKinley avenue will honor Polly at a luncheon and linen shower on Wednesday, May 11.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Dierdich will entertain the wedding party at the Detroit Boat Club on the eve of the wedding.

Juniors Feted

ner, the Howard A. Shaws, the T. O. Nielsons, the A. D. Stuarts, the Howard Snures, the Frank J. Kennedys, naming just a few.

Then more about the adults—and this party was just for the distaff side. Some 400 gathered for the ladies bridge-luncheon and fashion show on April 19, the first of a spring series. Huge vases of forsythia brought their yellow glow to the lounge and adjoining Green Room, and a flower-decked trellis formed the background for the style parade presented by Furs by Robert.

Mrs. Francis D. Tait entertained Mrs. W. Tom ZurSchmiede, Mrs. Walter W. Tait, Mrs. William J. Rewoldt and Mrs. Ivor Menzie. Mrs. Clement A. Fenner's guests were Mrs. David Lowe, Mrs. L. Gaylord Hulbert, Mrs. Charles H. Wainman, Mrs. H. G. Hincley, Mrs. Lewis A. Smith, Mrs. A. F. Lecklider and Mrs. I. Ewart Skeith.

"I get to play twice as much golf, now that Helen has a car of her own!"

"You see, when we had only one car, I used it week days on the job. Helen had to have it week ends for shopping and a dozen other things. Now that she has her own Rambler, we're both free all the time."

Every woman should have a car of her very own!

For shopping

The Rambler costs so little, gets up to 30 miles on a gallon—it's easy on the budget. The Cross Country Rambler, above, was designed for shopping. It's a full-size station wagon for 6, and easy to park in small spaces. Loading the rear deck cuts chores in half.

For the children

The new Rambler is a great all-family car. And it's twice as safe because American Motors' Double Strength Single Unit car construction is actually twice as strong as bodies and frames bolted together. That's important with children in the car.

For social activities

With its smart Pinin Farina lines and decorator interior, your Rambler is as much at home at the swankiest parties as it is in front of a super market. And its exclusive Deep Coil Ride floats you along three times more softly and steadily. This is the "go-anywhere" car that's perfect for Mrs. America.

Since Florence Riley has expanded you can be sure of every luscious confection in sleepwear to panties. This is surely a wonderful place to find something precious for Mother's day. Waltz or full length gowns and preignoirs . . . slips . . . petticoats . . . shortie gowns . . . p. j.'s (some with cover up skirts to wear to market) lace flounced nylons, tricot, also flower hued ones . . . and most certainly girdles, bras, and either Gotham Gold Stripe or Hanes seamless hose . . . the tariff you will find from tiny sums to more. Most of her dusters and brunch coats are the practical no-iron kind. And for fun, look at glamour-all's, they are one piece p. j.'s with coolie coats . . . new this season. 371 Fisher Rd. TU. 5-9456.

These were meant and set for summer dancing and dreaming. We're referring to the wonderfully adaptable little hair-dos as fashioned by the staff at the Ann-Louise Beauty Salon. Many Pointers have found what they've always wanted . . . a natural loose wave. If you have fine hair that needs to be firmer . . . hair that needs shape . . . why not try a Helene Curtis permanent? And for the color you want try the same brand. The color you want will be achieved through "custom blending." And if your hair is gray they can bring out its naturally lovely coloring and remove any hint of yellow. 405 Fisher Rd., TU. 2-7511.

The reasons why you should record your wishes in the Bride's Preference Book at Gillis Modern Home Furnishings are numerous. Now . . . when the forsythia are in bloom . . . and the cherry blossoms are out . . . and the birds are busily building their nests . . . it is the time to think of Mondry Cleaners and fur storage. Of course they do a super-duper job of cleaning and glazing. Your furs are insured against fire, theft and moths. The availability of the values themselves is another reason. Storage is on their own premises. Rates are standard, too. 375 Fisher Rd. TU. 5-4800.

Pointe Educators to Help Inaugurate New TV Station

A dry run demonstration of the facilities and plans of Detroit's new FM television station, WTVS, will take place at the University of Detroit April 30. A host of Grosse Pointe educational dignitaries will participate.

The demonstration of the purely educational enterprise, now in the last stages of development, will be jointly sponsored by the Detroit Advisory Council on Educational TV and Radio and the University of Detroit.

Heading the Grosse Pointe delegation will be Superintendent of Schools Dr. James Bushong, Leroy Selmeier, Director of Instruction, and Miss Wanda Danfelds, Director of Audio-Visual Education for the system; will also participate.

Owen Middleton of Pierce Junior-High, Miss Dixie Johnson of Parcels and Miss Virginia Johnston of Poupard school will round out the Board of Education's representation.

Mrs. J. M. Vanderbilt, who was instrumental in initiating and producing the program to be presented, will represent the local chapter of the American Association of University Women. Oscar Marx of the Pointe, will also be on hand. He is president of the P.T.A. Council.

The program, that will start at 10 in the morning and run until 3 p.m., will feature "The Use of the Tax Dollar in Education." Members of the U. of D. TV Workshop will stage the demonstrations that will give the 33 organizational members of the Detroit Advisory Council an idea of the functional set-up of the station.

"WTVS will serve as the outlet for all Detroit Civic and Educational groups. It is the aim of this demonstration to familiarize these groups with production procedures of the station," said George Juszkowski, publicity chairman for the University of Detroit.

The program, to be staged at the University of Detroit television studios located in the university's library building, will not be broadcast, but will be open to the public.

Rabaut Backs Salk Pay Plea

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut (D-Mich.) today joined Senator Pat McNamara (D-Mich.) in asking Congress to grant a life-time gratuity to Dr. Jonas E. Salk, 40 year-old scientist-discoverer of the vaccine against poliomyelitis. The companion bills call for a payment annually to Dr. Salk of $10,000.

The bill reads in part: ". . . in recognition of his outstanding contribution to humanity through the discovery of the vaccine against poliomyelitis, the Government of the United States hereby awards to Doctor Jonas E. Salk the sum of $10,000 a year during the remainder of his life.

In announcing the introduction of the bill Rep. Rabaut expressed the opinion that too often our tributes to the great contributors of the medical sciences are limited to citations and commendations of our civic and scholastic institutions. "This is not a significant grant when measured alongside the mental and physical suffering that this man has erased from the world," was Congressman Rabaut's observation.

At the same time Congressman Rabaut paid tribute to the associates of Dr. Salk and the staff of the University of Michigan where the experiments were conducted. Congressman Rabaut remarked, "I am very proud of the role played by the U. of Michigan in this memorable victory over human suffering."

Let's Congratulate Ourselves

Dedication of the new million dollar auditorium-gymnasium on the High School campus, plus the approach of another graduation season causes us to reflect upon the great accomplishments which have been chalked up during the very recent years by our Board of Education, with the enthusiastic cooperation of the residents who had to back up the projects with financial support in the form of approved bond issues. Congratulations are due, and are herewith tendered.

A community which experiences the rapid growth in population which the Pointe area has enjoyed, must also be subjected to severe growing pains. One of the more important problems that had to be solved was one of education. A great upsurge in the number of children of school age is accompanied by the necessity to provide for their education without lowering existing standards. This calls for a great amount of planning, involving quick action, and the outcome is directly dependent upon the help which the taxpayers must be willing to give.

Many factors have been instrumental in the handling of these important problems. One of the most essential was the personnel which has comprised our school boards during this crucial period. The community can be thankful that the seats on the Board of Education have been sought after and won by public-spirited citizens with the ability to comprehend the problems and the intelligence and tenacity to initiate solutions and carry them through to a successful conclusion.

It is fortunate that the members of the board have had the backing of enthusiastic and capable Parent-Teacher Associations who have seen fit to lend their wholehearted support. It was, of course, to be expected that the parents of children affected by constricting physical facilities, would take an active part in seeing that these conditions were remedied. But the unselfish and unhesitating help proffered by those who had nothing to gain was the sort of thing that makes one proud of his fellow citizens.

An analysis of the voting in the various recent elections which approved proposed bond issues for new buildings, shows that the residents of the south end of the school district, where no new buildings were needed, gave even stronger support than did those sections which badly needed the additional classrooms. This is teamwork that gladdens the heart and soul.

Without getting into boring and confusing statistics, it can be noted that within the last five years the Board of Education, with the ever-needed help of the taxpayers, has produced these major accomplishments: — Parcels Junior High School, Monteith, Ferry and Poupard elementary schools have all been built. Poupard has been doubled in size; New Kerby School has been enlarged twice; the Torrey Woods elementary school is well under way; the old Country Day School property has been acquired and put to fine use; and a magnificent new auditorium-gymnasium has just been completed.

It is interesting to also note that many of these new facilities are now, or will in the future be contributing to the enjoyment and education of the older members of the community as well as to the younger students. The Country Day School has become the center of activities for the great adult education program which the public school system sponsors. It offers a widely diversified list of courses which attract thousands of our residents.

The new auditorium has been created as much for large gatherings of all ages as for the athletic programs which appeal primarily to the youngsters. The new school buildings offer a far more attractive incentive for participation in the Parent-Teacher programs and other adult activities within the schools.

It is probably fair to assume that if we were not blessed with such a capable Board of Education, we might very well not have the beautiful new Central Library which has filled such a great need. It is doubtful if the fine gift of Dexter Ferry which created this library, would have been made if he had not been inspired by the calibre of the group under whose direction the library system is operated.

These are fine accomplishments. They reveal attributes without which a community must remain stagnant and friendless and hollow. The Pointe is indeed fortunate to have talented leaders who are willing to serve, possessors of wealth who find joy in sharing; and residents who are ready to sacrifice, if necessary, to see that big ideas are carried out and that high ideals are cherished.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Edgar:
Now that the effort and excitement of the April election is over, and the Wayne County capital improvement proposals have won by a gratifying majority, it is appropriate to send you this message of sincere thanks for all you did to help this campaign to victory.

You may have regarded the Water for Wayne County campaign as another public service to which you felt you were obligated. Hundreds of thousands of people in Wayne County don't look at it that way at all. To them, it is the difference between normal existence and a future of waterless summers. You have contributed to the health and welfare of a vast number of people and by your effort have made Detroit and Wayne County a better place in which to live.

One job has been accomplished. Adequate water for Wayne County is assured. A broadly representative committee composed of leaders in government, labor and business has proven its worth in sponsoring needed facilities.

The next job facing us is a metropolitan one. The Boards of Supervisors of the five counties in Southeastern Michigan have organized to study the water and sewer needs of the metropolitan area. We are hopeful that industry and labor will join hands with leaders in government to get on with this important job. We will keep you informed of future developments in this respect.

Sincerely,
Raymond Hodgson,
Water for Wayne County Committee.

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"When a bit of sunshine hits ye,
After passing of a cloud,
When a fit of laughter hits ye
An yer spine is feelin' proud,
Don't fergit to up and fling it
At a soul that's feelin' blue,
For the minute that ye sling it,
It's a boomerang to you."

(John W. Crawford)

Catch lines have always been a weakness with us, and every time we hear one it is a wonderment to us that we didn't think of it first. There are two current ones about safe driving. . . in case you haven't heard them. One is: "Children should be seen and not hurt" . . . and the other: "Bring your children up, don't knock them down."

The best of the month (and we don't know who said it first), concerns the Salk treatment. To wit: "The shot that was heard around the world."

The most fun column heading we've read in many moons, stems from California. A columnist who welcomes gripes about movies from his readers, calls his column "Fan Mail."

Some time ago we wrote concerning names and the WHY of same. Like for example there are so many Marys, Joans and Barbaras and so few Mauds, Myrtles, Christinas and Genevas. Also, all dance teams contain a Roul, Yvette, diMarco, Yvonne or Dareol. There is never a "Smith and Jones" or the "Johnsons". Unusual names also intrigue us . . . like the show girl called "Psyche Flannigan." On the coast, there is a famous hairdresser named "Yosha Bausloipezkuffberg." (His clients call him Mr. B.) And right in our office is one L'Amour Schneider.

We have a bright suggestion to make to WWJ-TV concerning the Steve Allen show, "Tonight." Far be it from us to complain about commercials . . . and the shorter the better . . . but if they keep butting in on this show as they have been, about every five minutes . . . pretty soon people will go to bed and go to sleep (as they should), instead of sitting up to look at "Tonight."

There must be a hundred of them (or so it seems), and while they aren't long, they're long enough and frequent enough to have the effect of a pesky mosquito you can't shake off. Allen will just start to say, "Here's a funny one" . . . when back we go to Detroit to see and hear that tired old ad AGAIN . . . and when we get Allen back, everyone is laughing . . . except us, that is.

Or the big scene of the night comes on, the one advertised all week . . . but do we see it through? Uh-uh. Another "spot" announcement. When Allen's show is about to close and he is down in the audience talking to people . . . with about five minutes to go . . . back we come for the dear old local blurb and when once again we see "Tonight" . . . it is to hear Steve say, "That's all for tonight folks!"

How irritating can a commercial GET? Our advise is to have a full ten minutes of commercials during the Allen program . . . particularly when the singers are on! Then we can use the time to have a light snack, a glass of Four-in-one and maybe straighten our girdle. If they don't do this, we for one will be goll durned if we'll buy any of the blasted products they advertise. So there.

A local gent who is on the board of directors of a New York company, received a letter last week from the company's lawyers, advising him of an important meeting he must attend without fail on May 2. The letter went on to say that every member was expected to attend; a vital change was to take place, etc., etc., etc. It ended with, "Don't forget the date, May 2."

Very fine and very efficient except the letter indicated neither the time nor place of the important meeting! Fortunately, our conscientious board member knew the chairman of the board, so he telephoned him for the details. Ho-hum.

The above reminds us of a typed postcard a woman friend of ours received last year. This gal sits on committees all over the place so it was quite mystifying. The plain two cent card read: "Important meeting next Wednesday, October 7, at 2:30 p.m. SHARP. Please do not fail to attend." But it didn't say for WHAT. It could have been any number of projects the woman was interested in. P.S.—She didn't go . . . because she had no PLACE to go. Tee-hee.

Nothing gives us more pleasure than sending a telegram over the phone. We don't know where Western Union gets its very special breed of operators, but we love 'em all. If you have a dull day ahead of you, just sit down and send a few wires . . . in no time at all you'll be smiling.

Our latest brush with an operator came a few weeks ago when we had occasion to send a day letter to a male friend in the East who was opening a new show that night. When we got to the end of the wire, the operator said: "You're allowed fifty words, you know, and you only have 35." Never the one to get LESS of a bargain for our money, we said, "Well, change the ending to read: Will be thinking of you, Jane, Juliette, Martha, Clara" . . . etc., etc., etc., until we had given the required number of names to get to fifty.

When we were all through and she read the wire back, she asked: "SAY, are those all his children or something?" We replied, "No, they are his girl friends." There was a small horrified silence before she replied: "BOY, can you BEAT THAT!"

Don't look for Pryor's predictions on the Darby this year. We aren't interested in wagering a ruble or even a yen on Nashua or Summer Tan. The only thing that will keep them from coming in one-two, is if one of them has a headache. By post time, the racing guests will be lucky if they get back two dollars for plunking out ten. Maybe our Kentucky mata hari will give us a good show horse . . . in which case we shall pass it on.

We would like to predict a song winner, however. Have you heard Fred Lowrie's whistling recording of "Unchained Melody"? YOU HAVEN'T? Well then you aint heard nuttin until you do. THAT, we think will be nominated for the Academy Awards next year. The Al Hibler record is good . . . but Lowrie's version has a haunting quality about it, reminiscent of "High and Mighty." We'll see . . . but don't sue.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Suzanne Souder for Jean Taylor

Among the interests promoted by the coming of spring is sports. At this time of year we reminisce over winter sports, anticipate the summer ones, and perhaps enjoy a little of both. Whatever sport you may fancy, (and we assume our readers either participated or vegetate in at least one form of athletic diversion), your interest may be aroused by a brief resume of sources of information concerning various sporting amusements.

Prior to 1900, newspapers and periodicals were loath to devote a sizable amount of space to the sports news. Today, without the sports section, many a newspaper would not be sold. Professionally, we are duly proud of the athletic achievements of the Detroit Red Wings, the Lions, and the Tigers. All our High Schools, the GPHS, St. Ambrose, St. Paul's, and the GPUS, are sports conscious. As spring approaches, new teams are being formed in baseball, tennis, track, swimming, and so on.

The "Pictorial Baseball Instructor," by Lamont Buchanan, is helpful in playing any position in any game, and the "Official Encyclopedia of Little League Baseball," edited by Hy Turkin, gives the rules, history, training, and organizing of a little league.

The Neighborhood Club is beginning a new series of activities, the most prominent of which is tennis. The season for outdoor tennis being relatively brief in Grosse Pointe, (not everyone is honored with membership at the Tennis House), the game's admirers eagerly welcome the nets. Let's hope the spring weather will prove cooperative. Otherwise, you can always resort to "Winning Tennis," by Frank Sedgman, which illustrates the technical fundamentals of courtcraft.

A pleasurable activity for most torists is the sports car rally, for which the requirements are few. All you need is a sports car with a horn, a navigator, a love of being confused by some non-urban character's directions along country roads, and an infinite tolerance of truck drivers who have a tendency to take life more seriously. Tom McCahill's "The Modern Sports Car" is a humorous must for sport car fans.

Those nautically inclined need not feel slighted. If you like to cruise, "Cruising Under Sail," by Eric Hiscock, is most instructive. It won't be long before the local races are under way, and whether you enjoy a boat of your own or you get seakick in the shower, the mere sight of boats on the lake is a delightful one. The "Complete Boating Handbook," by Robert Scharff, gives the facts on making, sailing, and caring for most craft, and "Yacht Racing Rules and Tactics," by Gordon Aymar, helps to understand racing maneuvers.

Water skiing has not come fully into its own as yet, but given a speedboat and a pair of skis, who among the daring would turn the other way? "Skiing on Water," by Jack Andresen, offers the fundamentals of the sport.

If your piscatorial characteristics assert themselves when the weather turns warm, you might like "Tricks That Take Fish," by Harold Blaisdell, or the "Wise Fisherman's Encyclopedia," edited by A. J. McClane.

Other books of diversified interest are "Winning Your Spurs," by Elaine Moore, covering grooming, riding, and equitation; "Approaching and Putting," by Charles Cleveland, offering varied opinions on how to reduce your golf score.

Gallbladder Diseases

By FRED M. KOPP, R.P.H.

Diseases of the gallbladder are quite common, and while there are no certain means of prevention, some interesting and enlightening facts have been compiled.

For instance gallbladder diseases rarely occur in young people, and about four times as many women as men suffer from them. Where gallstones have formed an operation is necessary in many cases, while some cases will respond satisfactorily to treatment.

Obesity, too rapid reduction in weight, excessive fats in the diet, and digestive disturbances may cause gallbladder trouble. The best way to guard against gallbladder diseases or any serious illness is to consult your doctor at regular intervals.

Buy only prescribed medicines. Get them from a skilled pharmacist.

Legion Auxiliary News

From Unit 303
By ROWENA WEAVER

Dolls representing the Republic of Panama will be dressed by Junior members of the American Legion Auxiliary in a nation-wide contest conducted as part of the Auxiliary's Pan American Study program, it has been announced by Mrs. Eleanor Ehrke, local chairman of the program. Many of the dolls are expected to be dressed in the elaborate fiesta dresses of Panama. State and national prizes will be awarded for the best dressed dolls.

Another contest, open to both Junior and Senior Auxiliary members, calls for the writing of a 1,000 word travelogue of an imaginary trip to Panama. Auxiliary members who have lived in or visited Panama are barred from the contest.

The aim of the Auxiliary's study program is to increase knowledge and understanding of the Latin American republics in the United States. Mrs. Ehrke explained. Each year a different country of Central or South America is studied.

A trained home nurse in every American Legion family is one of the goals of the American Legion Auxiliary in its Civil Defense activities this year. Mrs. Isobel Thoman, Civil Defense Chairman of the Grosse Pointe 303 Auxiliary Unit, has announced.

Auxiliary members are being urged to enroll in Red Cross home nursing classes in order to be prepared to take care of their families or those of neighbors, in event of disaster.

"A woman trained in home nursing is a valuable family and community asset, not only in event of a bombing attack, but also in event of storms, floods, fires, or other forms of disaster," said Mrs. Thoman.

FIRE PREVENTION IS PART OF "SCRUBAROO"

Our Country has over One Billion Dollars in Property Loss, and nearly 10,000 persons burned to death each year.

60% of this is Preventable.

You are Legally Liable if Your Negligence Causes Loss to Another.

No. 5 - Do You Know?

COMMON FIRE HAZARDS—

1. Defective chimneys and smoke pipes. Have both inspected and cleaned each year. Keep metal flues at least 18" clear of wood.
2. Keep combustibles clean of furnaces. Have oil and gas leaks repaired at once. Keep pit free of oil. Use metal ash baskets.
3. Use only proper fuses, usually 15 amps. Avoid multiple extensions for outlet. Beware of frayed or bare wires on lamps, clocks and electrical devices. If wires or connections heat up, line is overloaded.
4. Keep oily rags and mops, and open paint cans in metal containers—never in a closet.
5. Carefully dispose of cigar and cigarette butts and used matches. Use only "safe" ash trays.
6. And remember—"Ef yo' smoke in bed, yo'll wake up dead."

Goodwill Week To be Observed

Commending Goodwill Industries for "exemplifying a spirit of helpfulness and a belief in the rights and the dignity of the individual." President Dwight D. Eisenhower had today urged citizens to observe "Goodwill Week" during the first week in May.

The President said, "In more than one hundred cities in this country—and Canada, the Goodwill Industries provides places of gainful employment for those who cannot work in competitive industry. For many of these people, this employment serves as a stepping-stone to better jobs and a more satisfying life. Some 250,000 handicapped persons currently benefit from this program."

Reminding Americans that approximately two million of our people suffer severely disabling physical conditions, the President said that "Goodwill Week" should emphasize our responsibility to help such citizens.

Here, where Detroit Goodwill Industries employs nearly 400 handicapped people, plans have been laid to select the handicapped person of the year. The employees themselves will make the selection by ballot.

An award plus an extra week's vacation will be the prize, and Detroit Industry will celebrate the occasion with a dinner and entertainment for all employees on Wednesday, May 4.

A dinner for out-of-town friends and contributors will be given on Tuesday evening, May 3, a general open house with refreshments will be given on Thursday, May 5 and "Youth Day" will be Saturday, May 7. On this day, Boy Scout and Girl Scout troops, church youth groups and other boys' and girls' clubs are invited to tour Goodwill Industries.

Absent: Councilman Neil S. McEachin.

Councilmen Connolly and Maxon were re-elected to the office of Mayor and Mayor Pro Tem respectively for the 2 years ending April 1957.

Bids on the sale of $275,000.00 Water Revenue Bonds were opened, tabulated and awarded to the low bidder; First of Michigan Corporation and H. V. Sattely and Company, for an average interest rate of 2.18683%.

The Council approved an offer of the low bidder to sell back to the City $55,000.00 of the issue to offset overestimate of cost of constructing water projects.

Contracts for constructing a 20 inch water feeder main running from Moross Road to the City of Grosse Pointe boundary line, and for the construction of an addition to the Water Filtration Plant, were awarded to the low bidders.

Minutes of the meeting held on April 4, 1955, were approved.

The Council having been informed of the result of balloting on the question of continuing fluoridation of the City's water supply, heard a number of citizens present representing both sides of the question. A motion to discontinue fluoridation of the water was lost in a tie vote. The matter was ordered placed on the agenda for the next meeting for further consideration.

The improvements proposed to be installed in a plat of the "Dean" property, between McMillan and Lewiston on Charlevoix, were approved and the Clerk authorized to sign the plat upon filing of a bond by the proprietor.

The Council approved a resolution extending a two year leave of absence to the City Engineer.

A protest against water billing procedure was referred to the City Manager for answer.

Approval to construct a 6 foot high brick fence along Grosse Pointe Blvd., extending 33 feet north from the south line of Lot 8 Westwind Subdivision, was given.

A plan for the eventual improvement of the Kerby ball field was approved.

Authorization was given to widening Kerby Road between Chalfonte and Mack and to construct a fence around the ball park.

The issuance of a building permit for the construction of two residences on Cambridge Road, on the rear of the former School Board property, was approved upon the owners dedicating the balance of the right-of-way and the installation of the improvements.

The Treasurer's and Police reports were received.

Approval to replace one office personnel and the employment of two temporary laborers was given.

The meeting adjourned at 11:00 P.M.

Proper Soil is Necessary To Obtain Healthy Plants

By VINCENT R. DE PETRIS

Together with water, light and favorable temperatures, proper soil is indispensable to plant growth.

A good soil should contain at least the minimum nutrients to produce a normal plant. All plants, of course, will not flourish unless soils are favorable and adaptable to their growth.

Nature achieves this by a method which might be described as the "survival of the fittest." When seeds fall on uncultivated soil, only those adapted for that particular soil will take root and flourish.

Plants which do not relish either the soil or environment, are ruthlessly destroyed, by both the unfavorable conditions and by the more vigorous plants.

Three Types of Soil
We must be able to distinguish between three types of soil, one of which is the sandy type, the other, heavy clay, and the third, frequently encountered in this area, muck.

Sandy soils are of the type which dry readily. Although they possess the advantage of being cultivated earlier during the Spring months; they neither retain moisture nor nutrients. They are better for the fibrous-rooted plants.

Clay soil, on the other hand, retains moisture for long periods and is richer in plant nutrients. Unfortunately, however, clay soil has a tendency to "cake" or tend to be aggravated if the soil is tilled before it becomes fairly dry.

Mucky soil is much like that of clay, but lacks most of the mineral elements.

Consider the Sub Soil
Before considering methods of correcting the structure of the soil, it is important the subsoil be taken into account.

If the subsoil is composed of sand or sandy gravel, drainage is not a problem. On the other hand, a hard, clay-like or mucky subsoil poses a serious drainage problem which must be overcome for optimum results.

Poor drainage will neutralize the otherwise good structure of the top layer and make much of its fertility ineffective to plant growth.

Decayed vegetation, known as "humus" is one of the best conditions for all types of soil. It is beneficial because of its sponge-like absorbency in retaining moisture and in preventing soil particles from becoming compact, thereby preventing aeration.

Promotes Bacteria Growth
In addition, humus promotes the growth of beneficial soil bacteria, which is essential in making fertilizers available for plant life.

Humus is found in decayed leaves and other rotted vegetations; in barn yard manure and in the brown, spongy peat-moss. This substance should be worked well into the soil, after being applied liberally, when the ground has dried sufficiently for tillage.

About three or four years ago, a number of chemical soil conditioners came on the market. While these were helpful, they by no means displaced the old standby, the multi-boom humus.

It is easy to understand the public's reaction to any new remedy, for it is natural for most people to be wishful dreamers and expect a "cure-all" for all of their problems through new chemicals. Unfortunately, progress is slow, and until something better comes along, we had best stick to the old tried and true remedies.

Soil Testing
Testing soils, if properly done, is very helpful. When testing is mentioned, the average person seems concerned only with the quantities of chemical elements which may be present.

I will not argue with this objection. However, it must be obvious that unless tests are accurate, they will be of little benefit to the gardener.

To understand this more clearly, we should realize that the chemical content of soils vary, both as to the area from which they might have been taken, as well as the depth from which they came.

Similarly, temperatures will cause a wide variation in the presence of some chemical elements, particularly nitrogen. Samples of soils taken from different areas during cool weather, indicated a low reading of nitrogen, whereas, the very same soils analyzed during warm periods will show a high nitrate content.

Observations Important
Since soil tests might frequently be inconclusive, unless done carefully, experienced horticulturists rely more on their keen observation of the growing plant. The foliage, more than any other part of the plant, is a very reliable barometer which reveals mineral deficiencies and other tell-tale signs affecting the growth of the plant.

Do not let the foregoing remarks be construed as a condemnation of soil testing. On the contrary, they tend to stress the importance of the care needed in making soil tests, if they are to be helpful.

Summary
In summary, the improvement of soils depends on the following: (1) Proper drainage to permit a free and fairly rapid runoff of excessive water. (2) Incorporation of humus in various forms in light, sandy soils to help retain moisture and improve soil structure. (3) The addition of sand or various forms of humus on heavy clay soils to make them open and friable, permitting aeration and preventing caking or baking of dry weather, and (4) Avoidance of

Speeding Drivers Target of Police

Speeding, Detroit's greatest traffic killer, became the target on another front this week, as police and safety officials intensified their efforts to cut the accident toll due to this cause.

Distribution of 50,000 leaflets warning Detroit drivers to "Watch That Speeding! Don't Risk a Heavy Fine, A Stiff Jail Sentence, A Suspended Driver License" was begun in Detroit public and parochial high schools and in Detroit Police Department traffic schools.

Nearly 30,000 copies will be distributed to junior and senior high school students by their teachers, who are planning to use the leaflets as the basis for a short period of instruction. The remainder will be passed out at the 11 traffic schools conducted by police each week and will also be the topic of a 10-minute instruction period.

The leaflet was prepared by the Traffic Safety Association in co-operation with the police. Distribution is being handled by officers of the Traffic Safety Bureau and the teachers.

The leaflet points out that speed makes any accident worse and that there are two kinds of speeding. The first, obeying the posted speed limit, every driver understands, the leaflet says. The second kind of speeding is not as well understood.

"The Detroit police call it 'exceeding safe speed' — but not posted limit." Sometimes it is also called driving too fast for conditions. Here's an example: If the posted speed limit is 35 miles an hour, but the streets are slippery and the driver's vision is obscured by rain, then you must cut your speed to be safe and observe the law. Perhaps, you can drive only 25 miles an hour with safety, even though the posted speed limit is 35. You may have to go even more slowly."

The leaflet points out that Detroit's 172 motorcycle officers and scout cars are on the alert for speeders and that recently the Detroit Police Department has begun the use of electrical speed-timing devices in a determined effort to cut speeding accidents.

Pointe Writers Share Guild Awards

Four Grosse Pointe newspaper people shared in Newspaper Guild of Detroit (CIO) Page One Awards honors for 1954 this week. The awards, presented for outstanding work in various classifications, were announced Sunday, April 24, and will be presented during a luncheon in the St. Charles Hotel Monday noon, May 2. Frank Morris, of 418 St. Clair, was a member of a Detroit Times team which shared in one of the dual awards in the Breaking News classification. The 11-member team was cited for its coverage of the Donald Ritchie case—the Windsor man who hoaxed police into thinking he had a solution to the Walter Reuther shooting.

Ray Courage, of 263 Kenwood court, was a member of the seven-man Free Press team which won the other Breaking News award. It was presented for coverage of the brutal slaying of little Marion Jo (Cookie) Zobrovitz and arrest of the killer. Honorable mentions went to Jean Pearson, of 1319 Three Mile drive, in the Feature Writing category, and Dale Nouse, of 324 Belanger, in the Individual Reporting class.

The judging committee was made up of Cleveland Newspaper Guild members with an average of more than 23 years experience. The Page One Awards Luncheon is a preliminary to the annual Page One Ball, to be held in the Statler the night of May 7.

Officials Take Oath of Office

Only two of four elected officials in the Park were sworn in on Monday, April 25, during the regular meeting of the council.

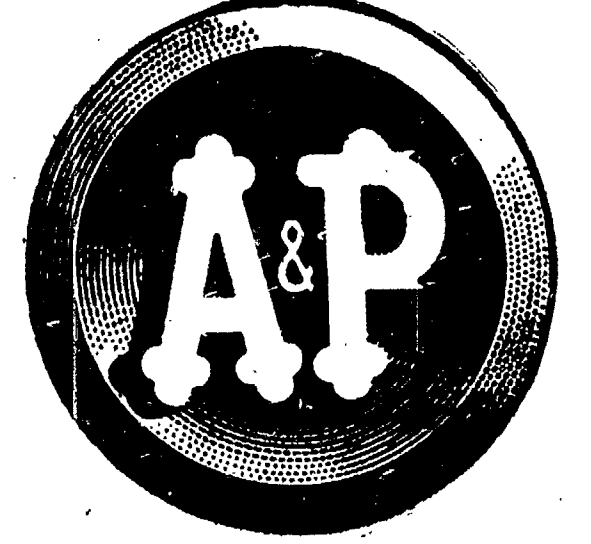

The oath of office, administered by City Clerk Charles Heise, was sworn to by Mayor Homer Fritsch, and Councilman William C. Oddy, both re-elected to office on April 4.

The other two re-elected officials, Councilmen Robert McKean and Kenneth Cunningham, were out of town on personal business.

CAMERAS CATCH PICTORIAL NEWS OF INTEREST FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

SCOOTER EXTRA—Topping off a scooter craze in Europe is the next logical step — a trailer for the two-wheeled machines. Shown at the Touring and Holiday Show in Paris, this trailer has room for two and is equipped with pneumatic mattresses. For the little spectator standing nearby, the trailer would make a nice dollhouse.

SCENE OF AFRO-ASIAN TALKS—Who's going to get whose goat first is one of the questions in the air as delegates are assembled for the Asian-African Conference now under way at Bandung, Indonesia. The problem doesn't seem to concern this billy goat nonchalantly nibbling the posies in front of the flag-arrayed committee conference building.

STRANGE CROSSING—This freight train had to stop, look and listen while a steamboat crossed its path on another track near Rutland, Vermont. Operations on the Rutland Railroad were halted as a special track was laid across the right of way to transport the old sidewheeler Ticonderoga overland. The operation, which looked as if someone had got his signals crossed, took a little more than an hour. The "T" is being moved nearly two miles from Lake Champlain to a museum at Shelburne, Vermont.

BARKING BRONCO—A sturdier mount was never owned by knight or cowboy than the one ridden by six-year-old Doyle Dean Zimmerman of Hiattville, Kan. The youngster gets in plenty of "hard" riding on the wooden horse made by his grandfather from tree limbs. Hair from the tail of a real horse adorns the critter's head and tail.

WINNING THE BATTLE OF THE BULGE—There are 22 pounds less of Dagmar since she's been absorbing more sun and less calories at Palm Springs, Calif. Here she picks grapefruit to show the kind of thing that's good for her figure. Well, diet or no, it looks as if Dagmar is leaving it on in the right places.

RINGED IN PLATINUM—The lacy wreath framing pretty Clara Vallaire is formed by tiny pellets of precious platinum, which has a new use in something other than jewelry. The metal is now being used to make electrodes for aircraft spark plugs. Highly resistant to heat and erosion, the platinum electrodes are said to double the life of the plugs. Miss Vallaire, who's inspecting some of the electrodes spread on a glass plate, is an assembly operator at the AC Spark Plug plant in Flint, Mich.

KISSING COTTONTAIL—Punkin, a pet rabbit owned by Mrs. Albert E. Schulz and her husband of Memphis, Tenn., returns some of the affection he's thrived on since his mother abandoned him. The newborn cottontail was found sick and hungry in the Schulz yard last August. Now a tame member of the Schulz family, Punkin has the run of the house and is anything but a dumb bunny. Besides carrots and milk, the rabbit eats flowers, so the living-room bouquet has to be kept well out of hopping distance.

VALUABLE DIGGINGS—An estimated $300,000 worth of pearls is exposed for the first time in 400 years, amid the simple tools used in unearthing them. The once-in-a-lifetime discovery of more than 3,000 pearls — believed to be the cache of a resident of the village of Nueva Cadiz, Venezuela, which was leveled by a hurricane in 1534 — was made by Dr. Joseph M. Cruxent, director of the Museum of Natural Sciences in Caracas. The entire treasure was hidden in a jug buried under only two inches of earth on the island of Cubango, about 250 miles off the shore of Venezuela.

RICH—Famed Parisian designer Christian Dior turned his back on his own news-making "A" silhouette to design a handsomely sleek evening sheath. The $5,000 gown is fashioned of champagne satin and features a wide swath of the same fabric underlined in pale taffy to drape elegantly over one arm like a wide kimono sleeve. The gown is one of several imported to this country by Max Hess Jr. of Allentown, Pa.

SHORT CUT — Dimpling prettily between the blades of symbolic scissors, Blondie Marlin displays the attractive coiffure that won the prize in a contest for the best styling of short hair. The blonde Parisienne proved that hair cut short for practical reasons can be mighty pretty, as well.

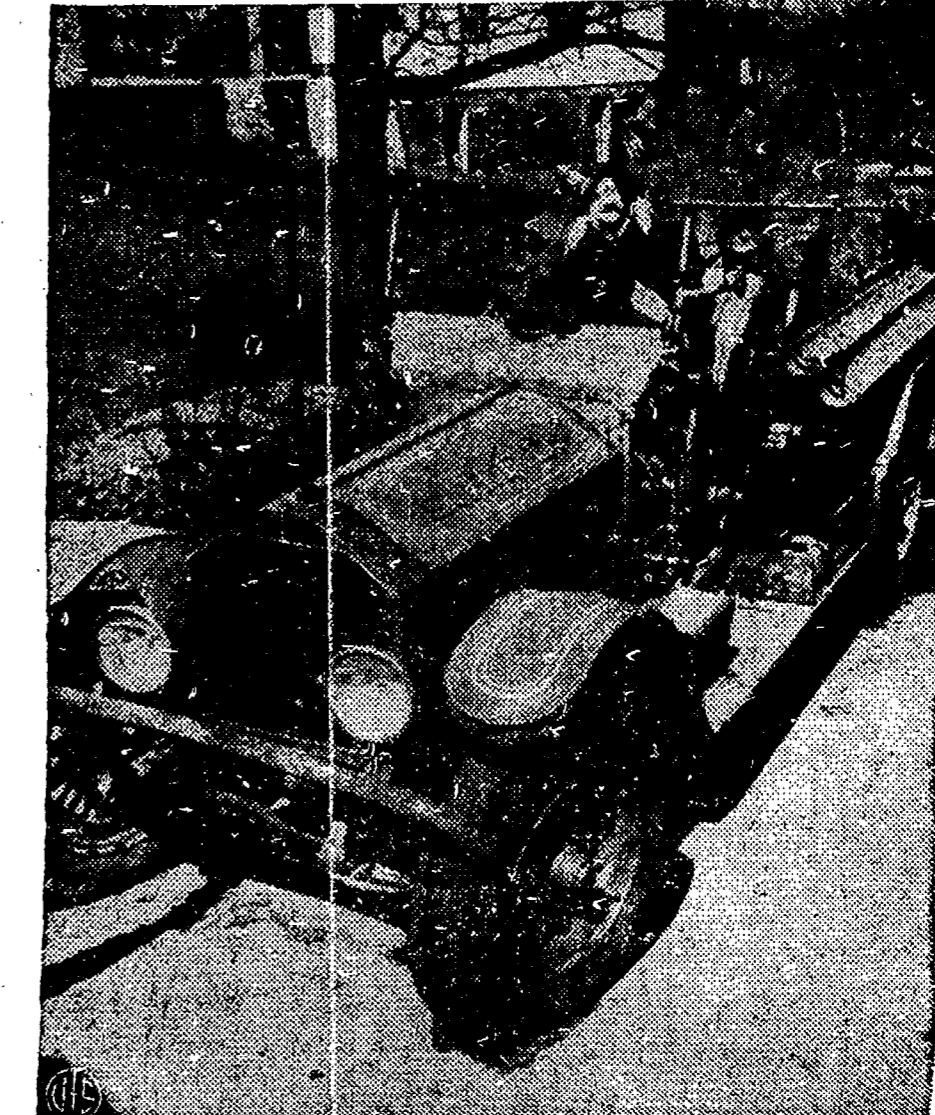

DOGGONE ATTRACTIVE—An eye-catching trio at Wilbur Clark's Desert Inn in Las Vegas, Nev., are blonde Carol Hoffman and her two French poodles. The prize pouches are named Jet Black and Midnight, for pretty ob-

SOLO RECORD — Lovely Terry Moore autographs souvenir record for Bobby Sherwood, who made a one-man recording on which he plays all 10 instruments, does all four parts of a quartet and sings the solo.

LLOVABLE LLAMA—Janet Levitt, five, of Mount Vernon, N.Y., shows genuine affection for Patricia, the three-week-old llama at the Children's Zoo in the Bronx, N. Y. The wide-eyed animal seems to be a leading candidate for cuddling by youngsters who will visit the kids' zoo in its 15th season.

HIS OWN FIRE ENGINE—A burning desire to drive a fire truck was quenched by Lodi Mandel of Nottingham, Ohio, when he bought one. Attired in helmet and hip boots, Mandel is the picture of happiness as he sits in the new acquisition behind his home. He purchased the old pumper, which belonged to the Cleveland Heights, Ohio, Fire Department, from a farmer who had bought it earlier. Mandel plans to give it a new coat of red paint and a big front bell and use it to haul neighborhood kids on Sunday afternoon rides.

SOFT AND SWEET—Soft music is bound to come from the guitar, which has an inflatable plastic bag where the wooden sounding box ought to be. It's one of the new gadgets on display at an annual odd products show in Paris. Besides being compact for carrying, the guitar looks as if it might be good for swimmers, and it could double as a pillow in a pinch.

BLUE DAYS—Two shades of blue, light and dark, in wide satin-striped cotton give a cool feeling to this full-skirted summer dress by Marjoe of Miami. Buckles at the shoulder straps add a custom touch.

Two More Victories Won By Blue Devil Tennis Team

Grosse Pointe's Blue Devil tennis team continued along the unbeaten trail by beating Fordson and Royal Oak handily last week to stretch their winning streak to 14 which includes 10 victories last season.

The Blue Devils had no trouble whatsoever in tumbling Fordson on the Tractor courts last Tuesday, April 19, 7-0. On Friday, however, the Devils dropped a couple of matches, one in the singles and one in the doubles.

Coach Bud Kurvink explained the Acorn coach didn't place his boys according to their talent as is the usual practice agreed to by the coaches throughout the Border Cities League. Despite this unorthodox shift in the Acorn lineup the Devils won on the local courts last Friday, April 22, 5-2.

In the Fordson match Bill Connolly playing against Don Schultz in the number one singles won 6-2, 6-1. Bill Hotchkiss took the Tractors' number two singles boy, George Lampros 6-0, 6-2 and Tom Watson won the number three singles from Bill Mitty 6-1, 6-0. Rick Champion played a Hawaiian lad, Maurio Cololua, and taught him a lesson, winning 6-1, 6-2.

In the doubles the Pointers' number one combination, Bill Bryant and Bill Leonard tripped John Mathews and Dick Lubieniski 6-2, 6-1. Pete McGrath and Ed Pongracz won the number two doubles 6-0, 6-1 from Sam Chiada and Hector Perhkopia and Don Bergbauer and Ken MacDonald climaxed the match with a 6-4, 6-3 win over Tony Colarossi and Ben Calovas, 6-4, 6-3.

Bill Connolly continued his torrid pace as the Devils number one singles boy by beating Foster Gibbs, 6-0, 6-0, to open the Royal Oak match.

Bill Hotchkiss was pushed slightly to beat Bob Davies 6-4, 6-3 in the number two singles and Tom Watson experienced a little more trouble in downing Vern Oosterlund 7-5, 6-3 in the number three singles.

Rick Champion was the first Blue Devil to feel the sting of defeat when he fell before Larry Tarrant in the number four singles 5-7, 1-6.

Tom White and Ethan Pawgat took the number one doubles match from Bill Pence and Klaus Haas 6-1, 6-2. But Pete McGrath and Ed Pongracz dropped the number two doubles to Jay Lyons and Jim Stevens 1-6, 6-3, 6-8.

Bill Leonard teamed up with Ken MacDonald to beat Dave McKercher and Stuart Susche 8-6, 6-1 to climax the match.

Self-Starting Mower Ready

Home owners in the Pointe area will be glad to hear that the Jacobsen Manufacturing Company, producers of the wide line of Jacobsen power lawn mowers, has developed a self-starting mower.

On public display at the National Garden Supply Trade Show in New York recently, the mower has a self-contained electric starter. Operated by the foot, the engine starts immediately upon touch.

A first in power lawn mowers, the development promises to take all the back breaking labor out of machine mowers.

The Jacobsen Company has long been a pioneer in the power mower field. It was the first concern to develop a practical power mower; the first to market a golf green machine and the first to introduce the automatic recoil starter.

Now on the market, the revolutionary new, self-starting machine is available at Fround's, 20377 Harper avenue, corner of Lochmoor.

Sons Honored By Exchangites

The Exchange Club of Grosse Pointe held its first Father and Sons night, a great success, on Tuesday, April 19.

Following dinner and many servings of ice cream everyone enjoyed the film "Pueblo Boy."

Chairmen of this event were Charles R. Chandler and Dr. Dick Pear.

The reason some men can't find something to occupy their minds usually have little mind to occupy.

Ford Brothers Get Promotions

Ernest R. Breech, chairman of the board, has announced the election of two new vice-presidents of Ford Motor Company. Concurrently, a major organizational and management expansion was announced by L. D. Crusoe, executive vice president — car and truck divisions.

The organizational expansion includes the establishment of separate Lincoln and Mercury Divisions and the formation of a new Special Products Division.

Benson Ford, of Kenwood road, who has been vice-president and general manager of the Lincoln-Mercury Division, assumes increased responsibilities in the new position of vice-president and Special Products Division. William Clay Ford, of Provenal road, who continues as vice-president and general manager of the Continental Division, will assume the added responsibilities of vice-president and group director—Lincoln and Continental Divisions.

F. C. Reith has been elected vice-president and general manager of the Mercury Division. He has been with the company since 1946, starting on the finance staff and then holding operational management positions in Ford Division. From 1952 to 1954 he was managing director of Ford of France.

Ben D. Mills has been elected vice-president and general manager of the Lincoln Division. He also will continue as assistant general manager of the Continental Division.

R. E. Krafve, who has been assistant general manager of the Lincoln-Mercury Division, has been appointed general manager of the Special Products Division. The Ford Division will continued under the direction of Robert S. McNamara, vice-president and general manager.

"Steadily increasing public preference for all Ford Motor Company products, as demonstrated by record sales to customers, makes it essential for us to broaden our organization at this time," Mr. Crusoe said. "This expansion and the related management appointments reflect the company's growth and constitute a further step in providing the specialized management attention that is required for each of the company's car lines."

"We are fortunate in having personnel of the calibre of the newly-appointed executives, all of whom have proved themselves in positions of heavy responsibility."

Like the Ford Division, each of the other car divisions of the company will have full responsibility for the development, production and sale of its own product line.

Ultimately, a Lincoln Division field sales force will be established. Until then, the Mercury Division will represent both divisions in maintaining contact with dealers selling Lincoln and Mercury cars. The management and organization changes are effective immediately. Personnel appointments within the new division will be announced shortly by the general managers.

Split in Two Ball Games Gives Blue Devils Tie for Lead

Grosse Pointe's defending Border Cities League baseball champions, broke even in the first two league games of the season and currently are tied for first place in a well knotted race for the bunting.

On Tuesday, April 19, Coach Ed Wernet's team took a tough one on the chin when a surprisingly strong Fordson nine squeezed out a 1 to 0 victory on its own diamond despite the one hit pitching performance turned in by sophomore Bob Marcereau.

Only Hit Produces Win Hurling perfectly, Marcereau held the Tractors hitless for five innings but in the sixth he gave up his first hit, which coupled with a base on balls produced the winning run. All the damage was done after two were out in the sixth inning. Third baseman Chapski worked Marcereau for a walk after Schudlich had popped out to first baseman Dan Follis and Pleznac struck out.

Chapski stole second to get in scoring position, then second baseman Gary Wolters singled to score Chapski. Terry Calaway, the tractor pitcher who limited the Devils to two hits and struck out nine, grounded out to end the inning.

Plenty of Poise Marcereau showed plenty of poise for a sophomore who was picking his first game in high school competition as he allowed one hit and walked one while striking out six.

On Friday, April 22, the Devils bounced into the win column with a six-hit, eight-run barrage to beat Royal Oak nine to four.

Bill Ross, a senior, who was lifted for a pinch hitter in the Devils' big sixth inning, was given credit for the victory. He allowed four runs, six hits, struck out five and walked one in six innings. Marcereau hurled the final inning and held the Acorns to one hit to lock up the victory.

Acorns Take Lead Royal Oak jumped off to a two-run lead in the first inning on two hits and a walk. In the fifth inning the Acorns added two more when a Devil error coupled with a hit to give them a four to one lead.

Grosse Pointe scored its first run in the third inning on a hit and an error. The big sixth inning tied the game however, as the Pointers batted through the entire lineup, getting six hits and three walks off three Acorn pitchers.

Second baseman Jim McMillan got the attack underway when he singled. First baseman Dan Follis also singled and shortstop Bill Dow singled, scoring McMillan. Follis got picked off third for the first out of the inning.

Eugenio Gets Double Catcher Don Eugenio doubled a double down the left field line which scored Dow. Third baseman Sam Mocerri was safe on a fielder's choice as the Acorns attempted to get Eugenio going into third. Both runners were safe. Centerfielder Ron Workman, the sixth man to bat, worked a base on balls, filling the bases, and then left fielder Tom Ireland got in the way of a fast pitch and jogged down to first as Eugenio was forced over the plate with the third and tying run.

Right fielder Paul Christo struck out, but the Acorn pitcher dropped the third strike and as he threw down to first base Mocerri zipped across the plate to put the Devils in the lead five to four.

Pinch Hitter Walked Coach Ed Wernet sent Nick Genova in to pinch hit for starting pitcher Ross and he promptly drew a base on balls, filling the bases again.

MacMillan, up for the second time in the inning doubled to right, scoring Genova and Ireland. Follis walked and Dow singled, scoring MacMillan, and went to second on the throw to the plate in an attempt to get MacMillan. Eugenio walked but Mocerri ended the inning by flying out to left field for the third out.

Used Four Pitchers Patenaue was the Acorns' starting pitcher who allowed the Devils one run and two hits while striking out one and walking one in five innings. Sekeres relieved him in the sixth inning and was tagged for four runs and four hits before he gave way to, believe it or not, a hurler named Pitcher, who allowed one run, walked one and hit one batsman before being lifted for Kerr, who finished the game. Kerr gave up two runs on two hits and three walks while striking out one batter.

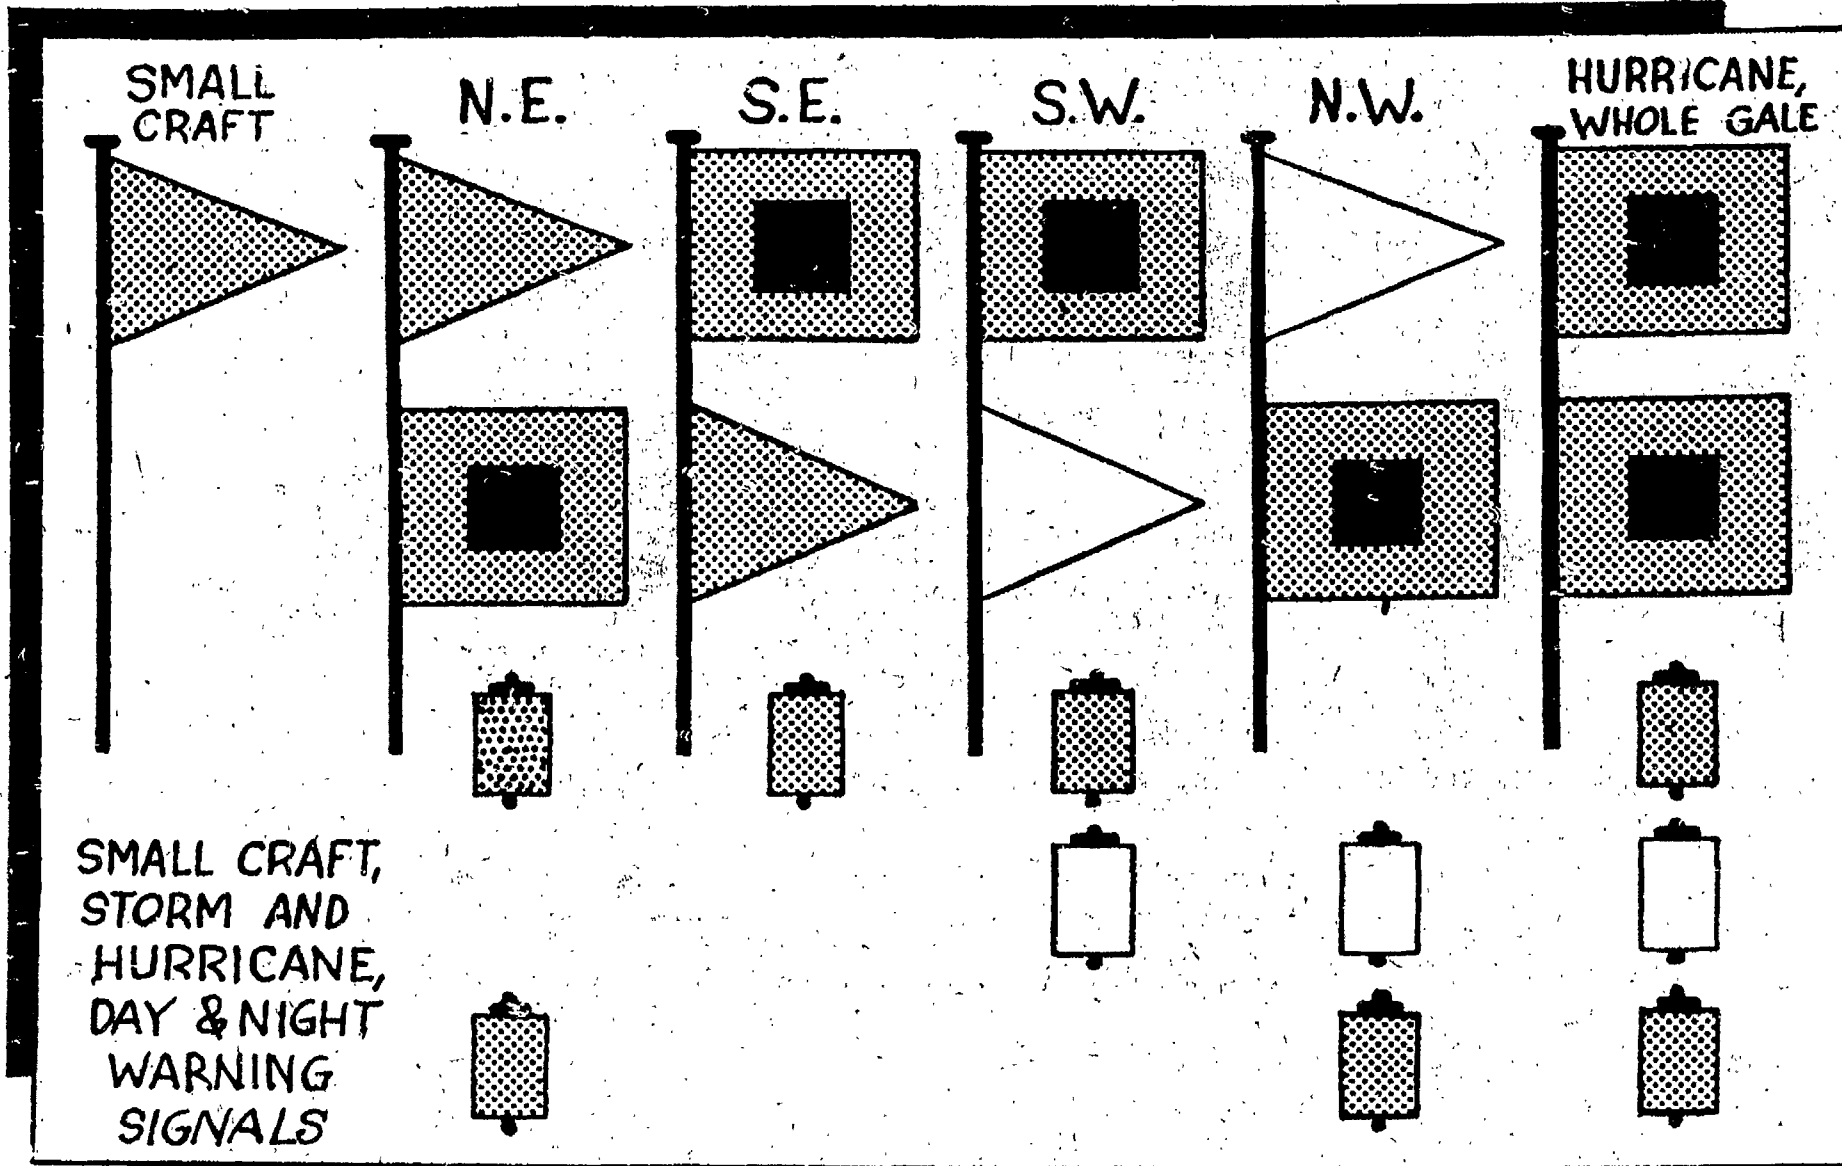

Picnic Planned By Girl Cagers

A final get-together of all the girls who participated in the Girls' Basketball League at the Neighborhood Club during the 1954-55 season will be held this Thursday evening, April 28.

Both the Junior Division and the Senior Division will gather around 5:30 for some tennis and baseball, followed by a potluck picnic. The trophies will be awarded to the Hoppers and the St. Paul Jr. Varsity.

NEW CAR STRIPPED A new car, from a Mack avenue car dealer, was minus four wheels and tires on Wednesday, April 20. The car was parked in the dealer's lot, 20139 Mack, Woods police said.

Storm Warnings Explained to Help Boatsmen

How many times have you seen red or white pennants or red flags with square black centers flying on flag staffs of Coast Guard stations or yacht clubs and wondered what they mean?

We would venture to guess that at least 80 percent of the people look at them, wonder and then shrug their shoulders and go on about their business.

Actually these flags tell a very important story especially to people who find their recreation on the water in small boats. Because we have always been a "Cautious Conrad" as far as boating and storms are concerned we figured it was time to offer the following information to the boating fraternity.

Whenever the aforementioned flags or pennants are hoisted it indicates the approach of a storm in sufficient proportions to be dangerous to small craft.

The most frequent storm signal seen is the red pennant flying alone which is known as SMALL CRAFT WARNING and indicates that moderately strong winds, that will interfere with the safe operation of small craft, are expected. Unlike the five other signals we will explain the small craft warning signal has no night signal display.

The next four signals seen indicate the approach of a storm of MARKED VIOLENCE and the combination of flag and pennant indicate the direction the wind will come from. For example a RED PENNANT above a SQUARE RED FLAG with a square BLACK CENTER tells of a storm approaching from the NORTHEAST. The combination reversed indicates a storm from the SOUTHEAST. A SOUTHWEST storm is foretold by the combination of a SQUARE RED FLAG with a BLACK CENTER flying above a WHITE PENNANT and a NORTHWEST storm is indicated by reversing the combination.

Seldom seen in this area but one not to be overlooked is the HURRICANE or WHOLE GALE warning which is TWO SQUARE RED FLAGS with SQUARE BLACK CENTERS flying one above the other.

Night signals are as follows: Northeast storm, TWO RED LANTERNS hung one above the other; Southeast storm, ONE RED LANTERN; South west storm, ONE RED LANTERN hung above a WHITE LANTERN; Northwest storm, ONE WHITE LANTERN hung above ONE RED LANTERN and last but by no means least the HURRICANE or WHOLE GALE night signal is three lanterns hung one above the other, a RED, WHITE and RED in that order.

To aid yachtsmen we have prepared a chart of Day and Night storm warning signals, along with the Beaufort Scale of Wind Force put out by the U. S. Department of Commerce Weather Bureau, which we hope will be of sufficient importance to find a place on a yacht's chart table or a place of prominence in the cabin.

Grosse Pointe High's Track Team Defeats Monroe, 56-53

Grosse Pointe High's track team squeezed out a 56 to 53 victory over the Monroe Trojans last Friday, April 22, to chalk up its first win in Border Cities League competition this season.

Coach Howard MacAdam's charges scored firsts in six of the 13 combined track and field events, but it wasn't the first places that tipped the scales in favor of the Blue Devils, running on the Trojans' track. The second and third places turned the trick for the slight margin of victory.

Denny McGinty's long legs served him in good stead as he captured the mile run, beating Miller of Monroe and Bill Walker, who took third place for the Devils.

Bell Wins Hurdles Bob Bell won the 200-yard low hurdles and Dave Whittingham and Tom Barry finished in that order in the 880. Senior Cliff Jenkins took the high jump with a leap of five feet six inches and his teammate, Lou Testa, tied for second with Beaugard.

Bob Gilbert posted a leap of 19 feet one and one-quarter inches to win the broad jump event. Smith of Monroe took second and Todd Price gave the Pointers third place.

In the three-quarter mile medley relay Neil Vanover, Bruce Chambers, Bob Beltz and Joe Braden broke the tape first.

Flyers Take Third in Row In Conquering St. Bernard

Speed and power — the prime requisites of a strong high school contender were displayed in abundance last week, as the St. Paul Flyer baseball team opened the regular season by socking their way to a 16-7 victory over St. Bernard at St. Clair Recreation, on Friday, April 22.

The triumph, St. Paul's third in as many starts, far surpassed the two which had been scored over non-league opponents, De LaSalle (9-2), and St. Ambrose (7-6), in both of which the Flyers mustered no more than eight hits.

Go Wild at Bat But in this one the Flyers went wild at bat as they blasted out a 15-hit barrage off three St. Bernard pitchers, six for extra bases, while also showing lightning-like speed on the base paths with 11 stolen bases.

St. Paul scored in all but two innings and was behind only once, in the first inning, 2-1. The Flyers' biggest spree came in the third and fourth, when they crossed the plate 10 times and collected seven hits.

Big Third Inning Chuck Gallucci, Jim Lombardo and Dan Wemhoff put their big bats together to drive in the five runs in the third after St. Bernard had taken a 2-1 lead at the end of the second inning.

Bud Roland started the inning off by blasting a sizzling single into left field, his first of four hits. Pitcher Bob Wright also singled to left, driving Buddy to second, and Gallucci came to bat. He promptly slammed a triple off the distant left field fence, and the Flyers were ahead to stay, 3-2. After Gene Graham had walked and Bob Keller had struck out, Lombardo drove in Gallucci for the third run of the inning. Wemhoff then sliced a double to left to drive in Lombardo and Graham.

Get Five in Fourth Leading 6-2 at this stage, the Flyers pushed it to 11 in the fourth as they put together two hits, two walks, a hit batsman and an error for five runs. St. Bernard retaliated meekly in its half of the fourth when Joe Badlement led off with a booming triple, but pitcher Bob Wright settled down and allowed only one run to cross the plate.

The triple was the second of only four hits allowed by Wright, one of those being a tainted grand-slam homer in the last of the sixth by St. Bernard's Bob Mellinger. The hit got by the rightfielder, Ron Moir.

The four-run blast put St. Bernard six runs behind the Flyers, 13-7, until St. Paul came back with three more in the top half of the seventh, and last, inning to top off the outburst.

Dan Monahan Homers Second baseman Dan Monahan supplied the big blow of the inning when he laid into a curve and drove it between the outfielders for a homerun, scoring behind Lombardo who had doubled.

Graham, the Flyers' third baseman, stole three bases, one each time he got on base.

To prove the equality of the RBI production, only three players failed to push at least one run across the plate. The top RBI leader was Gallucci with four.

The third game of the regular season takes place this Friday, April 29, at Kerby Field when the Flyers play Nativity. The contest with St. Martin was not played at this writing.

GOLF GEAR STOLEN Farms police took a report from Fred Cody of 264 Lewiston, on Thursday, April 21, in which he complained that someone broke into his garage and stole a set of golf clubs and bag, valued at $250. He said his golf shoes were also taken.

The value of self-praise can be put in the same class as anything else you get for nothing.

WOODS
It's practice time these days in the Grosse Pointe Woods Little League and more than 350 boys can be seen going through their paces every evening, weather permitting, under the watchful eye of their coaches and managers at Vernier and Mason Fields.

The coaches are doing a great job in getting the boys ready for the gala opener at Ghesquiere Park on Sunday, May 29. Preparations already are being made for a big parade for opening day. April 30 is the deadline for Little Leaguers to register at either of the two practice fields. Registration fee is one buck and a boy must have his birth certificate with him at that time. The Woods Little League will use three fields this year, Ghesquiere Park, Vernier and Lake Front Park Fields.

CITY
Officials of the City of Grosse Pointe Little League have scheduled a meeting of the managers, coaches and officers for Tuesday, May 3, at 8 p.m. at the Neighborhood Club.

Tryouts are scheduled to start at the Neighborhood Club athletic field on Saturday, May 7 at the following times: 10 a.m. to 12 noon for 11 and 12 year olds; 1 to 3 p.m. for the 9 to 10 year olds.

120 Trying Out For Ruth League

Approximately 120 boys showed up for the initial tryouts for the Grosse Pointe Woods Babe Ruth League, held last Saturday at Parcels Field.

The second tryout session will be held at 12:30 p.m. Saturday, April 30, at the Grosse Pointe University School, which has granted the league use of its diamonds for the season.

"We are very happy over the turnout," said League President Vincent E. Butterly. "We think we have the material to round out six teams that should provide some top competition."

Since about half of the candidates are in the 13-year-old class, an extra tryout session has been scheduled for them. It will be at G.P.U.S. at 6 p.m. Wednesday, May 4.

The final tryout session for all age groups will be held at the G.P.U.S. diamonds on Saturday, May 7.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

Isn't this wonderful weather we're having? Last weekend marked the fourth consecutive one during which local yacht owners have been blessed with balmy "fitting" out weather and the result finds the local fleet almost ready for launching, which indicates a longer season for the blow boats and cruisers.

As a matter of fact the season officially got underway on March 12, the earliest in memory, when the Midwestern Collegiate Sailing Association held its six school regatta off Bayview Yacht Club.

Last weekend saw the Detroit Yacht Club catboat fleet out in force for the start of the club racing season. Five races were sailed on Saturday and eight on Sunday. At the same time the veteran catboaters were giving the less experienced sailors a lesson in sneaking up the shoreline of the Detroit River. The Edison Boat Club got its Club Sloop series started.

The Raven class has officially announced Saturday and Sunday, May 21 and 22, as the dates for its annual Spring Series to be sailed off Crescent Sail Yacht Club. There will be two races Saturday and one Sunday, according to Fleet Captain Gordon McCabe.

The newest Raven here was expected to be delivered on Wednesday, April 20. That's the one Carter. Sales ordered built last winter. Incidentally, Carter sold his speed boat "Carter's Pill" and plans to buy a new Chris Craft skiff which seems to have caught the eye of quite a few local "stink boaters" since "Red" Stacey arrived on the local scene with his early in March.

According to Ledge Mitchell the Lake St. Clair Luder fleet will have a new addition this Spring with the arrival of Louis Fisher's new boat, which is expected to arrive any day now. Lou lives at 70 Renaud and will keep the yacht at the Grosse Pointe Club where the majority of the Luder's fleet sails from.

Ledge tells us the fleet has ordered eight mainmasts and eight genoa jibs from sailmaker Kenny Watts in California. The boys are going to great lengths and trouble to make sure all eight suits of sails will be exactly alike. The Dacron material was woven at the same time and Watts has been instructed to build all sails exactly alike.

Originally the fleet wasn't going to use the new sails until the Mallory Cup elimination series, in which the competing skippers will use the Luder yachts. The Luder's will be used for the finals also when they are held here in September. Just as a precaution the fleet has ordered a spare spar, just in case of dismasting.

Frank Becker had a time for himself Saturday, April 16, when he presented a 45-year-old cast iron anchor from the British prison ship "Success" to Bayview Yacht Club. The occasion was Cap's sixtieth birthday and what a time he had.

The history of the ship and anchor reads something like this. The wooden hulled, three masted Barkentine "Success" was built at Maulain, Burma, India in 1840 for passenger trade between the United Kingdom and the East Indies. In 1849 she carried immigrants to Australia and while in Australia her crew deserted to the gold diggings. In 1853 she was cut down to a hulk and converted into a prison ship for the Australian government. During the sixties the "Success" was used as a women's prison, then a dormitory for boys of a reform ship and finally a store ship for explosives.

During the seventies she was bought by speculators to be exploited as a convict ship and in 1890 was exhibited in Melbourne and Sydney, Australia. In 1892, while preparing for a voyage to England, she was scuttled at her moorings and when raised six months later the Sydney customs people refused to clear her on the grounds of unseaworthiness.

The American Red Cross is the only voluntary relief agency officially designated by Congress to work with the armed forces.

PILFERINGS OUT OF TOWN

We came upon a story of the New York Times that shot a whole day out of our week, so filled was it with adventure and wishful thinking. There's a family down on Northport, L.I., the Vranas, who are chucking their successful plant nursery business and with their four and seven-year-old daughters are setting forth on the family's 30 foot ketch to find a new home somewhere in the West Indies. The decision to snip off fried roots was made when, "During the past year, I found myself tied to a desk and telephone with hired labor doing all the things I loved best." That was Mr. Vrana speaking. Said his wife, "I feel there is much more to security, so called, than a hearth and a home." Mrs. Vrana's galley includes a coal-burning stove which can be used to heat the interior of the ship, and a two-burner gasoline stove for quick meals. A twenty-five horsepower auxiliary engine pushes the boat at six knots when the winds are unfavorable, or for navigation in narrow channels. Tired of your desk and telephone?

Meyer Berger's Marginalia includes an item about a scholarly and observant gentleman who does most of his strolling on New York's West side. He stopped the other afternoon to listen to the animated chatter of a group of little Spanish girls at Eighty-Fourth street and Riverside drive. He marveled that the children of school age hadn't picked up more English. Right at that moment the girls resumed their rope skipping, and broke into skipping chant: "I love coffee, I love tea, I love the boys, and the boys love me." Their English, he reported, was letter perfect.

Some of the men abused the privileges, however, forcing the commandant to clarify his order with this comment: "If shorts are worn any shorter, they will not be worn any longer!"

Pointer of Interest

MRS. CHARLES L. JACOBSON OF BERKSHIRE ROAD

By Jane Schermerhorn

From now on, if we're ever asked what "in the pink" means, the answer unhesitating will be, "Why, that means you're in Mrs. Charles L. Jacobson's kitchen."

For it's all pink . . . all new . . . and all beautiful. And it's one of the six Pointe kitchens which will be opened to the public this Friday afternoon (1 to 4 p.m.) in the Kitchen Tour sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of Cottage Hospital.

The Jacobsons were toying with a trip to South America when the charming lady of the house decided she'd rather have the kitchen of her dreams. It simply had to be pink. So she stayed home and with her husband, started drawing plans that would throw three rooms into one (the breakfast room, butler's pantry and old kitchen).

That was last August. Contractors were summoned, the Jacobson plans explained, and then breakfast room furniture, the old stove and refrigerator were moved down to the recreation room and the family "played house" for thirteen weeks.

Dream Kitchen
What emerged is Mrs. Jacobson's dream kitchen. She's never regretted South America an instant.

The three rooms are one great big beautiful kitchen, all pink with a touch of what the manufacturer calls "blossom red," but what is actually a blue-rouge, just right. Walls are completely formula which means they'll never need re-painting, just washing. The ceiling is finished in acoustical squares and the floor covered with mammoth blocks of pink and gray vinyl.

To harmonize with the stainless steel of the built-to-specification Ryan modern stove and the thermidor ovens, woodwork around the built-in pink storage cabinets is pink birch.

The new refrigerator was sent immediately to experts to be baked a matching tone of pink . . . and it's so elegant you could eat it with a spoon.

"There's no reason why the kitchen shouldn't be as lovely as any other room in the house," Mrs. Jacobson said to us the other afternoon.

"And then a kitchen must be designed to be efficient, to save steps. It should be easy to work in."

Dream a Reality
Considering the disposal, the electric dish washer (plus an electric brush operated by hand for dishwashing), the dining bar, the TV set in the pink wall over the refrigerator, the kitchen sectional vents and fans, the special fluorescent lighting over working spaces and six large square lights set in the ceiling, the buffet space with planters at each end (pink and turquoise are coming from Hawaii for these) . . . Mrs. Jacobson got what she wanted.

The breakfast room became a section of the kitchen; its black and white air foam chairs and blossom red table set beside one of the kitchen's two thermopane picture windows that look out onto the gardens.

The windows have folding louvered shutters and instead of drapes, Mrs. Jacobson's had black aluminum trallage arranged to border the tops of the picture windows.

There are swivel chairs at the dining bar, and they are done in the same pretty black and white material.

Even the measuring spoons have been brought up to 1955 in the Jacobson kitchen. They are pastel and made of airtight aluminum. The butler's pantry is now represented by a small, stainless steel bar sink; so you see all the features that were good in the old pep and very willing to admit mama's kitchen is tops. Eleanor is the family equestrienne, with her own horse. Politician, and Carolyn goes in for synchronized swimming with the dolphins at the Women's City Club.

Mother An Ally

Each Winter, Mrs. Jacobson's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Trumbower, comes for a nice long visit. She is with her son-in-law and daughter now, making plans for return to her Glendale, Calif., home in another fortnight or so.

From her we coaxed the information that she kind of helped her daughter along with that pink kitchen. For instance, Mr. Jacobson was sure one wall couldn't be torn down because "there are pipes there."

But it was Mother Trumbower who went on a little inspection tour in the pipe region of the house and announced she was sure there weren't pipes THERE.

Mrs. Trumbower has a granddaughter in California who has an all pink kitchen, too.

A Pink Note

The family showers much love on its pets: Tres Jolie, a caramel colored miniature French poodle, and Shep, the twelve year old German Shepherd. One of Tres Jolie's daughters, Pucky (really Andre Phillippe) we missed because she is attending Preston Mann's College for Dogs out in Metamora.

And before just to end on a pink note we must remember to tell you that two pink lions, with pink hoops through their mouths hold tea towels in the Jacobson kitchen; that the dining bar has a great big pink strawberry cookie jar on it, and on the buffet section we noticed a pink thermos jug for coffee.

You'll love being "in the pink" on the Cottage Hospital kitchen tour this Friday when you get to Mrs. Charles L. Jacobson's!

Occupational Therapy Volunteers Rewarded

Mrs. Harold G. Bay, 1618 N. Renaud, was graduated Tuesday, April 19, from the fourth occupational therapy course for volunteer assistants, conducted by Wayne University and the Central Volunteer Bureau of United Community Services.

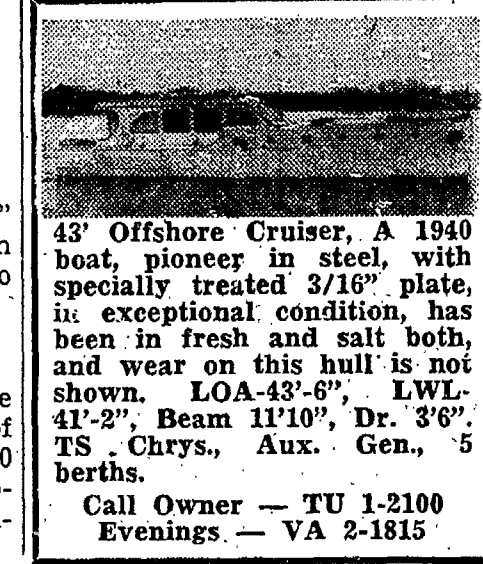

Another Grosse Pointer, Mrs. Carl Grell, 868 Notre Dame, was awarded service stripes for having given more than 150 hours as an occupational therapy assistant.

The 44-hour training course is given at the Detroit Memorial Hospital by Miss Barbara Jewett, registered occupational therapist. This course is approved by the American Occupational Therapy Association.

Each volunteer assistant works under a registered occupational therapist and is required to give 150 hours of service a year. The shortage of professionally trained occupational therapists is lessened by the important supplementary service which these volunteers give to the handicapped and the aged.

In helping these handicapped children and adults to learn a skill, a hobby, or an avocation, the Occupational Therapy Volunteer Assistants are leading the way to a better adjustment for those they assist.

People who think of their past usually have grave doubt concerning the future.

Pointe Counter Points

This little red feathered bird is ornamental and very, very chi chi. Our little bird is perched in a gold plated cage and has been imported from France. It actually works for a living. It has taken five generations to complete the whistle of said bird. Concealed in the cage, are two watch movements. The tunes it sings are varied and his head turns and his tail feathers flutter. It can be set to sing incessantly or timed to sing at intervals. We call it uncanny ability. Our feathered friend cannot be had for a song, for you will part with one hundred and seventy dollars. Listen to it sing in Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village.

Zany and bold. Zany because these sleeveless cotton knit tee shirts remind us of what we know of the gay nineties. Bold because one shirt incorporates ALL these colors . . . purple, yellow, black, white, green and red. They're two ninety-five and are designed to wear in the garden or at the beach. It might be a good idea to take advantage of the gift certificates at the Camera Center, in the village, if you are looking for a gift that lasts, for your favorite bride and groom. And if you are a bride your friends would love to have a list of your gift preferences. You can leave that list at the Camera Center. If you are interested in a movie camera or screen they have variety. And, we'll put another bug in your ear . . . you might like a radio or hi-fi for the boat or cottage.

This year annual Baby Week which begins April 30 and continues until May 7 will be celebrated on Jacobson's, Second Floor. We understand it is going to be quite an affair. The theme will be Baby Showers. And Wilbur Weiss, that versatile decorator at Jacobson's will let his ideas run rampant. Punch and cookies will be served each day from two to four. Miss Davis, Grosse Pointe's Public Health Nurse will be on hand. Look for extremely good buys on washable cotton quilts . . . they're gay . . . Jacobson's own diapers and sheets . . . and hand made Belgian shawls. See you on the second floor next week.

Arrived for the Summer at Clyde Hornung's, on the hill, are the leather barefoot sandals. Red and brown, these good looking sandals come in all sizes . . . for babies . . . boys and girls and misses. And we were accurately informed that the same care is given by the manufacturer as in a regular shoe. Nice to know. They begin at four ninety-five to six ninety-five. Kercheval, on the hill.

Berta Wright, a small, blue-eyed artist makes a career of creativity. Her paintings, lithographs, woodcuts and engravings have been exhibited throughout the country. And Margaret Rice makes a career of buying them. On her recent junket to Tuscon she brought back hand-screened items . . . featuring modern designs . . . denim cocktail aprons, glass cases, carry-alls, ties for sport shirts . . . some with bells . . . and all have a space feeling. See these interesting pieces at 76 Kercheval on the hill.

The Spring Carnival Season will open at the University of Detroit Saturday, April 30 at 1 p.m. with the fourth running of the International Intercollegiate Plughorse Derby.

This is U of D's burlesque version of the Kentucky Derby. The classic will be run this year at the Detroit Race Course at Schoolcraft and Middlebelt Roads.

Students will wind up the day with the Darby Ball in the Detroit Race Course clubhouse.

Horses have been entered in the feature race by Michigan, Canadian and Outstate colleges and universities.

Darby Day is the opening of the Spring Carnival season leading to the downtown Carnival Parade and the Carnival Midway May 13 and 14 at the State Fair Coliseum.
