MUTUAL FIRE AID PLAN PUSHED

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, June 16

WEST GERMANY, adding up the cost of the last war, found that it cost the nation about 100 billion dollars. A spokesman said that the "visible" financial losses due to World War II, amounted to 400 to 500 billion dollars (between 95 and 119 billion dollars). The West German Cabinet approved draft of a massive law tidying up the financial effects of defeat. The bill will be sent to Parliament later. It will provide for settlement of Nazi war loans, compensation for property damage, pensions for war widows, orphans, cripples and veterans.

JUAN PERON, president of Argentina, announced that the revolt, believed instigated by the Navy, has been put down. Argentine navy ships and planes fled to neighboring Uruguay. The nation's strong man said that the Navy Ministry had surrendered and been occupied.

The Army remained loyal to Peron and was reported to have crushed the revolt. A group of Army officers visited the President to inform him of their loyalty. Just before the first bomb fell, the Vatican excommunicated the Argentine president and other officials responsible for the exiling of two bishops, resulting from the bitter feud with the Roman Catholic Church.

Saturday, June 18

RED CHINA announced its intention to free five UN soldiers of the Korean War—three Americans and two Belgians. Peiping Radio said Red China's Red Cross was in "compliance" with the prisoners' request "to leave China."

Sunday, June 19

ALL PRIESTS, including those who have been detained since May, have been released by the Argentine Government, Roman Catholic authorities said. In another announcement, it was revealed that Santiago Luis Cardinal Copello, Roman Catholic Primate of Argentina, has named successors to the two high church officials expelled by the Peron regime.

Monday, June 20

THE LATEST report from Argentina states that President Juan Peron is on the way out. It is said that his fall may be a matter of hours. His resignation, according to a news correspondent, was expected Saturday, but it did not materialize. In any new Government, he would probably retain his title as president, but would be a mere figurehead.

Meanwhile, in Buenos Aires, Army Chief of Staff Gen. Franklin Lucero took over and warned the nation any attempt to destroy the peace and tranquility of the country will be suppressed. There is a growing belief that Lucero and not Peron is giving the orders now.

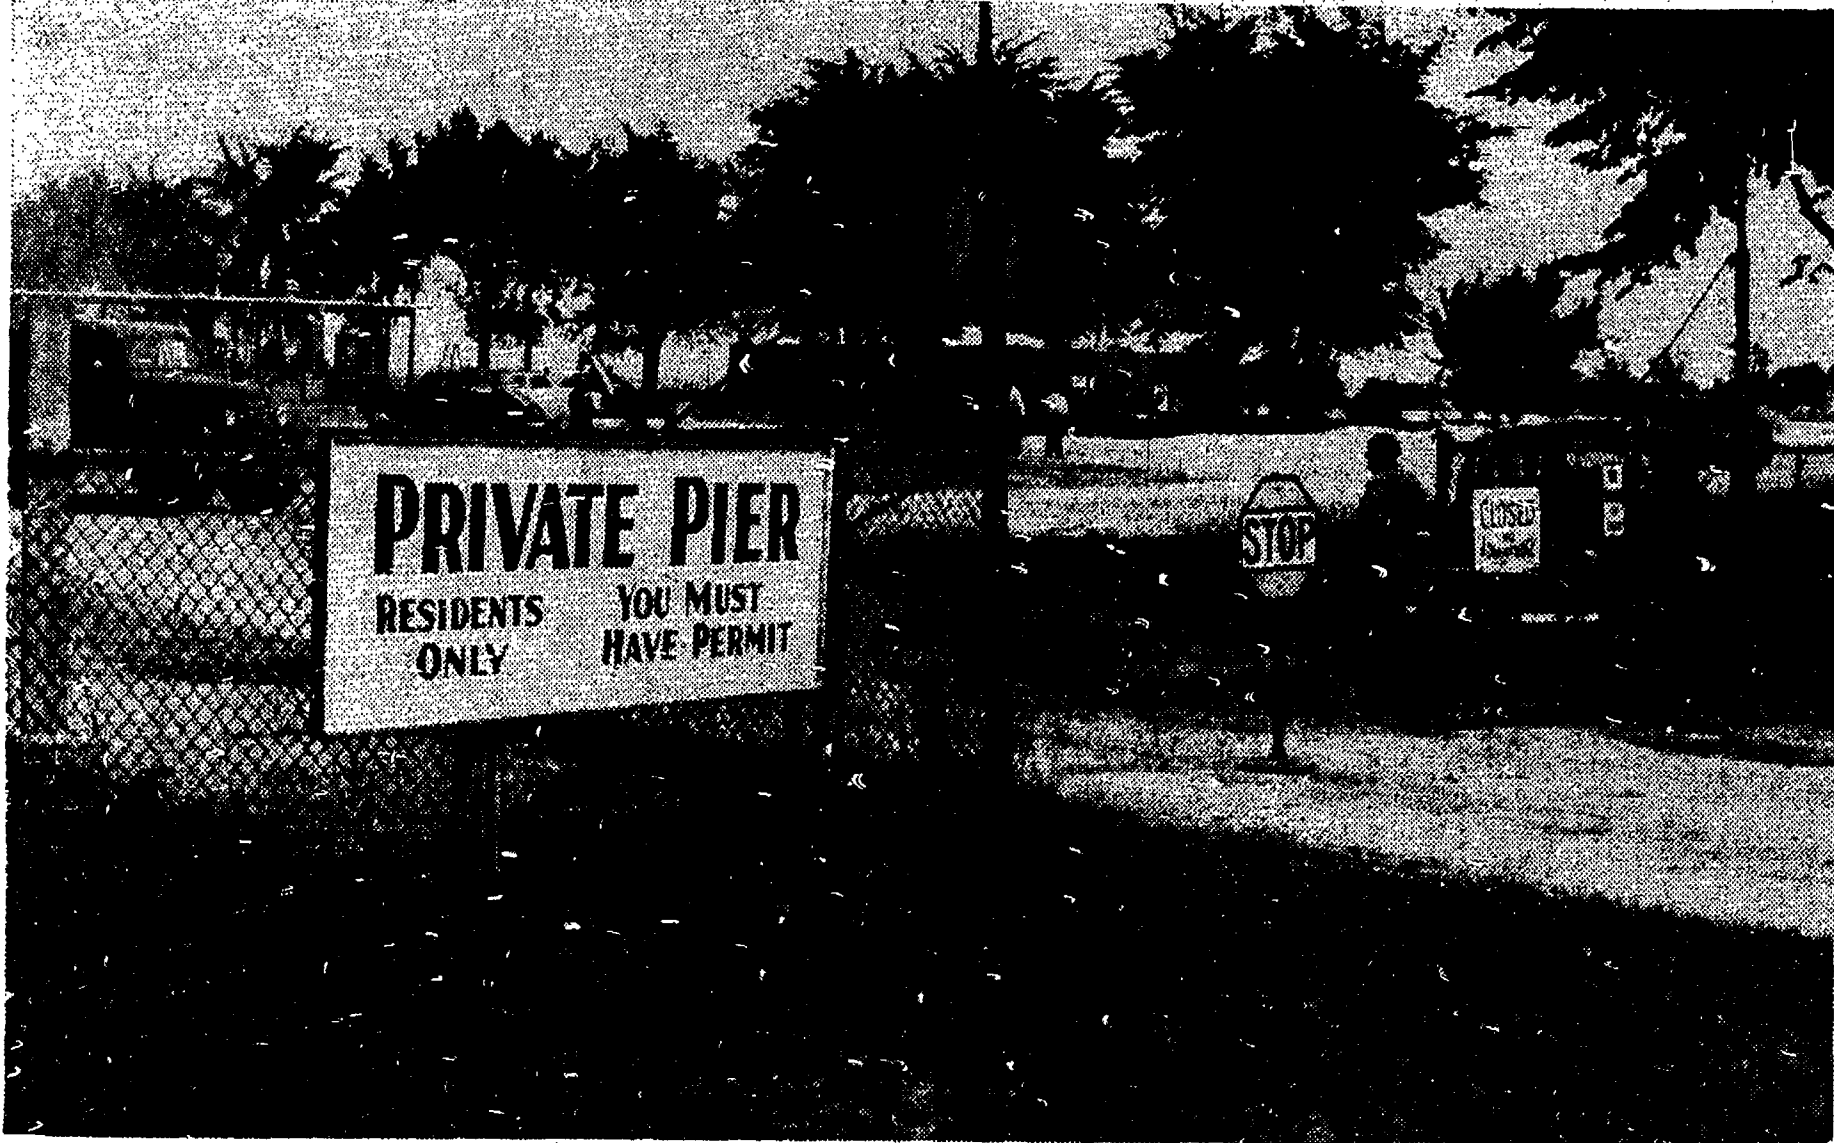

Tuesday, June 21

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER offered the world a "blueprint for peace" in an address opening the 10th anniversary meeting of the United Nations at the War Memorial Opera House in San Francisco. He called on the East and West to still their guns and dismantle the terrible apparatus of fear and distrust and weapons erected since World War II. The obvious target of his speech was a small, graying Russian, Foreign Minister M. Molotov, who watched the President from a front row seat. The Chief Executive pledged that the United States will lead the way and will leave no stone unturned to achieve the ends of peace.

NEWSMEN were not allowed to question two North Korean air force officers who fled from the Communists and sought political asylum with the United Nations command. The two airmen landed in Seoul City Airport in a Russian-built light plane and were whisked off to U.S. Intelligence headquarters for questioning. The Republic of Korea air force identified the escapees as Senior Capt. Lee Oon Lyong and Second Lt. Lee Eun Seung, both 24. A ROK spokesman said the Reds flew the plane from Munsu Airfield just outside of the North Korean capital of Pyongyang.

Everything Will be Changed, Come Saturday

The unpopular "Stop" and "Closed" signs which have been prominently displayed at the Farms Municipal Pier Park, are expected to be removed this weekend, when the recreation site will be open for use by city residents. Delays in tunneling out the water, gas and electric lines have slowed down the completion of the surface work at the park, but it was stated Tuesday that barring too much rain before the end of the week, the south parking lot would be surfaced and the site could be opened on Saturday, June 25.

Center Drive Passes Goal With $31,746

Donation of $1,000 From Walter Ford II's Announced as Quota is Reached

The Grosse Pointe War Memorial's 1955 Annual Family Participation Campaign has exceeded its announced goal of $30,000. As of June 21, $31,746.10 has been received from 2,340 givers. One of the factors in putting the drive over the top was the generous $1,000 gift of the Walter Buhl Ford II's, of Provincial road. The Center is happy that 12 per cent of the donors are new givers. There are, however, many givers of record who still have not sent in their 1955 contribution and it is hoped that these gifts will come in and swell the amount already received. All gifts received above the $30,000 needed for current operation will be placed in the endowment fund to enable the Center to become increasingly sound financially. The final result of last year's campaign showed a total of $30,387.50, donated by 2,180 contributors.

Many Summer Activities To Make Park's Lakefront Beach Among Most Popular

Schedule Just Released Promises Multitude of Interesting Events to Interest All Age Groups of Both Sexes

If the recently released schedule of activities lives up to its expectation, the Park municipal pier will definitely be The Place this summer.

A full schedule of events and activities to carry through Labor Day in far off September has been planned and was released this week by energetic Park Superintendent Dave Beauvais.

Plan Big Celebration

Highlighting the season will be the Fourth of July festivities and the season closing Labor Day celebrations. A host of meets, regattas, tournaments and events are sandwiched in between.

The big Fourth weekend will be climaxed by the annual fireworks display at dusk on Monday. Starting on Friday, the Park is making special plans to accommodate the thousands of picnickers and swimmers who yearly pass through the turnstiles for the three day holiday. Special guards, park supervisors and a team of Park police will handle the expected overload.

Tennis Tourney Set

On the next Saturday, July 9, the Park will begin its annual tennis tournament. Depending on the number of entries, it should be run off in three days. In past years rain has caused delays. Entry blanks will be available at the Park in the near future.

Later in the month, July 31, the Park swimming championships are scheduled. Full details on this meet will be released at a later date.

August 8 is the date for the small fry tennis tourney. Open to all youngsters under 13, last year it drew a huge entry.

To Hold Fishing Rodeo

The fishing rodeo, an affair taking in all five Pointes, is on the docket for August 25. Though still in the talking stages, the Park staff is thinking of holding preliminary city fishing contests. The classes would be pier, small craft and cruiser. This plan will be put into effect if enough interest is shown.

Labor Day activities will be highlighted by the finals of the bait casting competition. To meet every Tuesday and Thursday evenings throughout the summer, the Park Bait Casting Club will sponsor the contest.

Dance Set for July 30

The annual Park Dance has been scheduled this year to precede the swimming meet. To be held Saturday evening, July 30, from 9 to 11 o'clock on the tennis courts, the dance committee is

GPHS Grads Making Good At Colleges

32 Percent of Those Recommended Last Year Achieve Averages of B or Better

Forty-six students or 32 percent of the 145 recommended graduates of Grosse Pointe High School who entered college in 1954 achieved a B average or better in their first semester of work. "Our grads did pretty well again," said Principal Walter Cleminson, who released the information.

The 46 honor students made the grades at 19 different colleges. The grade average of the entire 145 for the first semester was midway between a C and B. This is the fifth year running that this record has been achieved.

Standings Explained

In honor point terms, the select 46 would have a three point or better average on a four point system. The group average would be somewhere in the vicinity of 2.5. Deans' lists at colleges all over the country are usually made up of three point or better students.

Other released data show that the average for the 47 spring graduates of the University of Michigan show strong C plus work. Three of these graduates, John Fildew, Patricia Marx and Conrad Proctor were elected to Phi Beta Kappa, the highest of the academic honoraries.

Seventeen GPHS grads at 14 eastern colleges also made strong C averages while 17 at Michigan State and 14 at Wayne achieved a good B standing.

Many Win Honors When High School Holds Graduation

James Owens Is Top Student Among Class of 290; Long List of Scholarship and Special Prize Winners Announced

Grosse Pointe High School's class of June, 1955, consisting of 290 members, had its final high school experience last Thursday night, June 16. Graduation exercises were held on the high school lawn and the weather was ideal.

"How High School Has Prepared Us," was the theme developed by three student speakers, outstanding members of the graduating class. "In Exact Sciences," was discussed by James Owens, "In the Humanities," by James Blashill, and "In Practical Everyday Living," by Mary Tower.

Following the processional and the singing of the national anthem, the invocation was given by the Rev. James W. Gillespie of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Girls' Glee Club Sings

The Girls' Glee Club under the direction of John E. Finch sang "Alice Blue Gown," by Tierney, and "Pale Moon," by Logan.

A vocal solo, "I'll Walk With God," by Broderski was sung by graduating senior Mary Lou Bruneau.

The climax of the evening came when W. R. Cleminson, principal, presented the class to Dr. J. W. Bushong, superintendent of Grosse Pointe schools. Dr. Bushong presented the graduates with their diplomas.

Pointer's Song Picked as Hit

A nation-wide non-profit song-writing organization has chosen a song written by a Pointe resident, as one of its plug songs to be submitted to publishers, recording companies, singers and bands.

Selected was "Have You Been Foolin' Me?" written by Dr. Carroll W. Kennedy of 464 McKinley road, who wrote the song under the pen name of "Bill Carroll."

The Mutually Owned Society for Songwriters, Inc., of which Dr. Kennedy is a member, picked the song from hundreds written by the organization's members, all over the United States.

It was stated that it will not be long before the public will be hearing the song on radio and in juke boxes, because when a song is selected by the M-O-S-S Board of Review as a "commercial," it has its start on the road to the Hit Parade.

Beauty Salon Operator Robbed

Lilyan Anthony of the Lilyan Beauty Salon, 15311 East Jefferson, reported to the Park police on Thursday, June 16, that someone stole her wallet from behind the salon desk.

The wallet contained $64. Also taken was an envelope containing $1,248 in postal savings. The savings are not negotiable.

Youngster Parks Family Car In Neighbor's Living Room

A 13-year-old Farms boy, who received his mother's permission to drive the family car into the garage on Saturday, June 18, didn't quite make it. The car went crashing into the living room of a next door neighbor.

According to a Farms police report, Edward B. Metzzen of 266 Lewiston road, while riding north on Lewiston with his mother, asked her permission to drive the car into the garage.

When the car approached the driveway of the Metzzen home, Edward took over the wheel from his mother, Mrs. Maxine Metzzen, 35.

Park, Farms Expected to Give Approval

Program Initiated by City Being Supported by Sister Municipalities

A Mutual Aid Program for increased fire protection is expected to be adopted officially by the City of Grosse Pointe, Farms and Park within the near future, as the result of negotiations which have been going on between officials of the three municipalities during recent weeks.

Under a tentative agreement, each of the three has agreed to keep four men and a piece of equipment available at all times to respond to a fire call in any one of the cities. When the extra men and equipment are not needed, they return immediately to their own departments, but the plan puts the badly needed extra manpower on the scene of a fire immediately.

Waited for Request

In the past, the cities helped out their neighbors at a blaze only after receiving an official request for help after the seriousness of the fire had been ascertained by the lone department making the run.

Several meetings have been held between the officials of the municipalities, one in the Shores on June 8 also being attended by representatives from that village, the Woods and Harper Woods.

Because the Shores and Woods have combined fire and police departments, it was expected that they will be included in this first approach to a combining of facilities to fight fires.

Originated in City

The City of Grosse Pointe, which has given complete support to the plan which was developed by its Commissioner of Public Safety John Mazer, has appointed a special Public Safety Committee of council members to expedite the proceedings. Mayor Frederick Parker Jr. has sent invitations to the Farms and Park to meet as soon as possible to get official approval for the plan.

The Farms council, meeting Monday night, agreed to send representatives to such a meeting. The Park council has not yet met, but is expected to take the same action. The administrative officials of all three municipalities have already given their approval to the plan, and it is understood it has been tried out very successfully within the last two weeks.

Yen for Music Causes Crash

Two Pointers, who are almost neighbors, tangled on the city streets Thursday, June 17, in a two-car collision which occurred at the intersection of Kercheval and Rivard.

William Green of 843 University was driving north on Rivard approaching Kercheval when he reached for the radio. Turning it on, he failed to see the approaching intersection. He did not stop.

Hit was Daniel Simmons of 478 Lincoln who was traveling east on Kercheval. Both cars ended up across Kercheval on the parking facing Rivard. No one was injured.

Green was ticketed for improperly entering an intersection. He said he would take care of the damage to Simmons' car.

Beauty Salon Operator Robbed

Lilyan Anthony of the Lilyan Beauty Salon, 15311 East Jefferson, reported to the Park police on Thursday, June 16, that someone stole her wallet from behind the salon desk.

The wallet contained $64. Also taken was an envelope containing $1,248 in postal savings. The savings are not negotiable.

Unfriendly Dog Grabs Visitor

Farms police, called to 262 Moran road, on Sunday, June 19, took a report from Peter MacDonald, 20, of 672 Lincoln road, in which he stated he was attacked by a large dog.

MacDonald, who was visiting at the Moran address, said that as he approached the house he was to visit, a large shepherd dog bit him in the seat of his pants, but did not get through to the skin.

The animal was found to belong to Henry Reynolds of 248 Kenwood court.

Farms police gave a ticket, for permitting a dog to run at large, to Mrs. Reynolds.

Two Who Robbed, Disrobed Taxi Driver, Apprehended

Sometimes due process of law is a slow one, but always it is a thorough one.

On Saturday, March 19 a Checker Cab driver was robbed, disrobed and left at the corner of Kercheval and Audubon. His assailants escaped with the cash and his clothes.

On June 2, one of the thieves was captured and turned over to the Park police. He would not admit who his accomplice was. He was 22-year-old Cecil Tunny, an escapee of the Alberta, Canada, Bodin Institute, a work camp. He was returned to serve out his term.

Carpenter Loses $350 to Burglar

Carpenter George Armstrong of 3699 Chatsworth, Detroit, presently employed in a house construction job at the corner of Balfour and Essex, reported to the Park police that he was robbed of $350 on Wednesday, June 15.

Armstrong said that he noticed the money missing after work on Wednesday. It was contained in his wallet, which was rolled up with his pants in a kitchen cupboard.

Armstrong said that he could not imagine who committed the crime and also that he saw no one enter or leave the new house while he was working. The case is being investigated.

Farms Facing Decision

ings of the report as a basis for their final action.
If they accept the report and do not close the street, chances are they will not get the needed land.

Alternatives Suggested
It is this vital decision that will be made by the council as a committee of the whole. There have been alternatives, but to date, the board has not accepted them with enthusiasm.

The city had previously proposed that an underpass under McMillan be built. The city would foot the bill if such action were taken.
This proposal did not meet with the board's approval. It is their wish to close off the street, rip up the pavement and make the now split grounds an entire unit. The underpass would not make this possible.

Sold One Strip
If the board sold the ground,
it would be losing a strip of land 70 feet wide from the rear of the parking lot north to Ridge road. They have already given up a strip along the rear of the present parking lot.

There is one more proposal offered by the city to remedy the parking problem, but it does not concern the board. It is to build a second story over the existing parking lot. This would double the parking area, but would do nothing to eliminate the Kercheval traffic congestion. This has been the least considered of the alternatives.

Civil Defense Test Shows Pointe Needs Volunteers

On June 15 and 16 the Second National-wide Civil Defense Exercise, "Operation Alert," based on a hypothetical attack on fifty critical target cities was held. The purposes of the "Alert" were to increase public awareness of the supporting roles of communities outside the areas attacked and to improve techniques to aid these areas.

At 11:09 a.m. on June 15 the Grosse Pointe Office of Civil Defense received the first warning, "Lemon Juice," from the Communication Control Center. This was followed at 11:15 a.m. by the "Apple Jack" warning. These nicknames are used to avoid any misunderstanding in use of the terms associated with the true warnings.

At 3:10 p.m. the last warning "Snow Man" was received, and this final warning meant that the "attack" had been made. The Wayne County Office of Civil Defense Headquarters informed Grosse Pointe headquarters that at 3:04 p.m. a bomb hit Detroit at Livermore and West Fort street.

The injured were totaled at 94,800, the dead were 53,900, and the homeless at 15,090. All of Wayne County was requested to send all Class A and Class B pumpers to the Mobile Support Area.

Grosse Pointe was requested to receive 1,428 injured to be placed in hospitals in the Grosse Pointe area, and 1,500 homeless for an indefinite period of time. The homeless were to be concentrated in the Grosse Pointe High School and from there distributed to several parish houses.

On the part of the Grosse Pointe Office of Civil Defense the "Alert" was a success and the communications were immediately and properly received.
One result of the test showed that the Pointe needs more volunteers in Civil Defense for all areas of service, but especially for Social Service and Auxiliary Firemen.

Charles Place Blocked As Mighty Oak Gives Up Life

By James Reindel

It was no more than a simple case of bad up-bringing! It caught up with her at approximately 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday, June 15. Almost without ado, like the routine clap of a shutter, she fell.

Not until a little before 10 o'clock of the same evening were the Edwin Fishers of 409 Washington road notified. It was not specifically the job of the police department, but they did it. With a phone call.

At 10:09 p.m. it was entered on the police blotter: "Tree Down" followed by the dispatch notice. The entry was inadequate.
The tree, a 50-foot-plus box elm, stood in the back yard of the Fisher residence. To the Fishers, who have lived there only four years, it was a thing of beauty. It belonged with the house they had selected.

To the four young Fisher children, it was something unexplainable. It was their tree, just as their house was their house and their toys their toys. It was a wonderful tree; tall, big limbed, heavy leaved, very easily climbable. Without exaggeration, it was a world of their own, apart and fanciable.

To the G. Charles Hodges, who built and occupied the house for some 23 years, it could be called a necessity. It was their child for they planted and raised it. Like all things, they could not take it with them.
To the Detroit Edison, it was one of thousands of trees that yearly had to be pruned to free lines. It was the north side branches to keep the house lines clear. Years of this pruning took their toll. The tree grew lopsided. Top heavy. Wednesday it gave up.

Ethical blame need not be levied, nor for that matter, could it be. The Detroit Edison tree crews will prune any tree they work on to the owner's specifications. The house has changed hands. Trees as sturdy appearing as the one that fell are left to themselves. When moving, first things come first.

The last thing was hardly spectacular. In fact, no one saw it happen. The many branches and heavy foliage cushioned the fall. It was barely heard.
"I had just picked up my 14-year-old from a Babe Ruth league game and was sitting in the den sewing, when I heard something. I thought it was one of the shutters banging," said Mrs. Fisher. Mr. Fisher was not at home when the tree fell.

"I didn't pay any more attention," Mrs. Fisher went on. "A little before 10 a police officer rang the front door bell and told me there was a tree down."

Mrs. Fisher said that she could not believe it when she looked. Her son was watching television when it happened and was as equally flabbergasted.

To Mrs. Fisher, there was a bit of the uncanny involved. "Just that evening, a little before dinner, I had raked up a few leaves and taken them out back to the rubbish pile. Walking back I looked at the tree and thought how substantial it was and what a wonderful thing it was for the children. You could have knocked me down when that officer told us it was over."

The tree, although made for children, actually was not of the most substantial stock. It had very little main trunk. Most of the foliage came off heavy lateral branches. The sturdiest of trees are not built this way.

"What I can't understand, is, why, if it was that weak, it didn't topple in the recent wind storms we had?" Mrs. Fisher said.

For matters of record, that

To Spend $86,500 On Alley Paving

The Woods will spend an estimated $86,500 in the paving of alleys in seven special assessment districts.

The Woods council approved the expenditure for S. A. D. 103 to 109 inclusive, at a public hearing held on Monday, June 20, with a slight alteration in S. A. D. 108, because a property owner had stated that an alley at the rear of her home was blocked off and had not been used as an alley for years.

Another objection was raised in regard to S. A. D. 109, but was disregarded by the council.

The property owners in the special assessment district will pay a total of $69,300 as their share of the paving and the city at large will pay $17,200.

A breakdown of the districts and what it will cost the city and property owners for the paving are as follows: S. A. D. 103, city—$3,860, property owners—$15,440; S. A. D. 104, city—$6,460, owners—$25,840; S. A. D. 105, city—$1,020, owners—$4,080; S. A. D. 106, city—$1,980, owners—$7,920.

S. A. D. 107, city—$1,320, owners—$5,280; S. A. D. 108, excluding the slight change, city—$1,980, owners—$7,920; and S. A. D. 109, city—$680, owners—$2,720.

Paving will be started as soon as possible after bids have been awarded.

Ignores Light; Causes Accident

Failing to stop at Lakepointe and Vernor highway on Thursday, June 17, didn't pay off for Irene Bratt of 23230 Talbot, St. Clair Shores. She hit broadside, a car driven by Sarah Cusumano of 1262 Berkshire road. Both cars had to be towed away.

Bratt was traveling south when the accident occurred. Cusumano was going west on Vernor. No one was hurt. Bratt was ticketed for illegally entering an intersection causing an accident.

Soldiers Honor Mrs. C. E. Kelly

"In recognition of outstanding service to the officers and men of the 99th AAA Gun Battalion are some of the words of tribute on the fly-leaf of a beautiful Bible presented to Mrs. Charles E. Kelly of 592 Cadieux road last week. The tribute was signed by Battalion Commander Wesley C. Sager, Major, Artillery Commanding."

Major Sager, together with Chaplain Ian MacDonald of the 99th, made the official presentation to Mrs. Kelly who represents the USO of Metropolitan Detroit in bringing many volunteer services to the military personnel of this area.

The ceremony, before a full color guard and witnessed by a component of men from the 99th, was one of great solemnity, for the particular Bible which Mrs. Kelly received was the forty-millionth Commemorative Volume of the American Bible Society and sent to the 99th for them to give to someone who had rendered outstanding service to their group. The boys said they "just couldn't think of anyone more deserving than Vera Kelly."

The AAA site where the 99th is stationed is at Morang and Seven Mile and is one of many served by the USO of Metropolitan Detroit both in "home and mother" services and also by the entertainment units which hold regular programs and dances at the site.

Last year 69,600 Gray Ladies gave 4,121,600 volunteer hours of service in military, veteran, and civilian hospitals.

Rabaut Supports Food Stamp Plan

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut (D. Mich.) appeared before the full House Agriculture Committee in behalf of his bill, H. R. 5189, which would provide for a system of distributing our food surpluses to needy and indigent people.

The plan has the sponsorship of Daniel J. Ryan, General Superintendent of Detroit's Department of Welfare and W. E. Fitzgerald, Executive Secretary of the Detroit Food Industry Committee. Both Mr. Ryan and Mrs. Fitzgerald were in Washington testifying before the committee.

In his statement Rep. Rabaut referred to Undersecretary of Agriculture, True D. Morse's letter to the Committee denouncing the plan as "duplicating" and "expensive." Rabaut charged the Undersecretary with "being unfamiliar with the problems that are being faced at the distribution level where any plan for the distribution of surplus foodstuffs to the needy either succeeds or fails."

Rabaut's closing statement reminded the Committee that the matter before them dealt particularly with the "human" and it also encompasses the economic. He questioned: "Which shall take precedence: liberality to the human or conservative concern for the economic?"

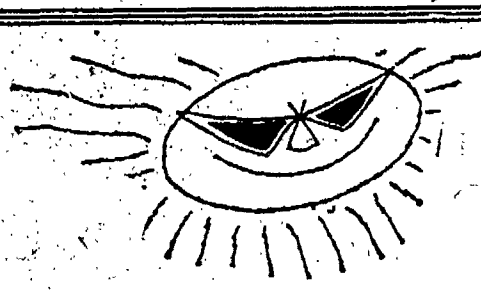

His obvious reference was to a statement made by the President at a press conference where he said: "When it comes to dealing with the relationship between the human in this country and his government, the people in this administration believe in being call liberal, and when we deal with the economic affairs of this country we believe in being conservative."

Ducks Unlimited Honors Tiedeman

Carsten Tiedeman, of Kenwood road, a member of Ducks Unlimited since its founding in Michigan, was elected the new state chairman of the internationally famous migratory waterfowl conservation organization, it was announced by Charles G. Chapman, whom he will succeed in that office.

Mr. Chapman, who became Michigan's chairman in 1943, when G. Stanley (Mike) Cochran was called into active Navy service during World War II, will continue to serve on the governing body of Ducks Unlimited as National Trustee, together with DU Treasurer, Les F. Ruwe, of Willow Lane, Grosse Pointe.

Well known in sports, and especially in the duck hunting fraternity, Mr. Tiedeman brings with him into Ducks Unlimited, a wide business and social acquaintanceship which could form the nucleus of an active statewide organization capable of becoming one of the strongest DU state committees of the nation.

Born in Savannah, Georgia, he was educated at the Hill School, Pottstown, Pennsylvania, and Princeton, class of 1925. He moved to Detroit in 1929, and became associated with the Universal Credit Company, eventually becoming vice-president and general credit manager. During World War II he was regional director of the War Production Board for the Michigan area, and at the close of hostilities, he organized the Automobile Transport Service, Inc., of Wayne, Michigan, of which company he is now vice-president.

He is president of the national sportsmen's hunting and fishing organization—Clubs, Ltd., and is also president of the Dover Marshes, Ltd., one of Michigan's best known duck clubs, most of whose members belong to Ducks Unlimited.

Subdivision Building Ban May Be Lifted in Woods

The lifting of the Woods' subdivision building ban, at least as far as one subdivision is concerned, hinges on the signature of an official of the Michigan Department of Health, it was brought out at a council meeting on Monday, June 20.

Officials of the Woods are waiting for a signed letter from Don Pierce of the Health Department, which would vary the validity of Construction Permit No. 13049, and which would in effect lift the building ban from the fastest growing Pointe community.

Woods City Administrator William H. Lange informed members of the council that he had been expecting a signed letter from Mr. Pierce, in which he hopes to find out whether the permit issued for the construction of sewers in the city is in force or should be recalled.

He said that the reason for the verification was because the permit was issued without the city asking for it.

Mr. Lange said he had been expecting a letter from the Health Department official and that it had not been received, but that Mr. Pierce's secretary read the permit over the phone.

If the permit is allright, then the Coe-Asselin Anita Subdivision builders will be given permission to construct new homes.

Representatives of the construction firm said they will wait for the signed letter before applying for building permits. They also pledged to build 12 homes in the subdivision this year, and then appear again before the council to work out further plans. There are 52 lots in the subdivision, they said.

It was pointed out that the reason the ban may be lifted as far as the Coe-Asselin Subdivision is concerned, was because the firm had, years ago, invested $8,000 to enlarge a sewer in a subdivision adjacent to it on Anita, from Marter road to "W" street.

The Coe-Asselin subdivision runs from "W" street to the east city limits. The owners had looked to the future and invested their money for the sewer enlargement, so that when they began to build, they could tie into the system.

The reason for the Woods' ban on home building was because the State Health Department ruled the present city sewer system was not adequate to handle sewage and storm water, due to the tremendous strides in home building. The ban has been in effect since 1953.

A copy of the letter, written to Mr. Lange, to which the Woods wants the signature of Mr. Pierce, disclosed that the health official had issued the permit on an "observation of what had been represented to us as a condition of fact."

Mr. Pierce stated that it was not the intention of the Health Department to restrict the issuance of construction permits in the Woods until the storm water problem is corrected, unless the progress of the city's program for correction of storm water is unduly delayed or retracted.

He said it has been understood that the Woods is exerting every reasonable effort to bring about this correction and that progress has been made in the past several weeks.

"It seems to us," the letter read, "that the city must decide on a program with respect to construction of sewers and correction of deficiencies in the existing facilities. This matter was discussed with you, the mayor and the engineers, last week. It was agreed that the conclusion reached during these discussions would be presented to the City Council and that a definite program would be established which would form the basis upon which Four 1955 Ford engines and a Ford chassis were given to the school for use as instructional aids in shop and mechanical arts classes. The equipment was turned over to John Chandler, Jr., headmaster of the school.

Benson Ford, as well as his brothers, Henry Ford, II, company president, and William Clay Ford, a vice president and group director, Lincoln and Continental divisions, attended the school, which previously was the Detroit University School.

Their father, Edsel Ford, was a member of the board of trustees from 1927-1941 and he was president from 1938-1941. When the Detroit University School merged with the Grosse Pointe Country Day School in 1942, he became the first chairman of the board and served until his death in 1943.

Annapolis Men Trained In Amphibious Warfare

Richard Gales, son of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Scales of Washington road, was one of approximately 880 Midshipmen from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis and 50 Royal Canadian Naval Cadets presently undergoing training in naval amphibious warfare at the U. S. Naval Amphibious Base at Little Creek, Norfolk, Va.

Bertram D. Smith, Jr., of Somerset road, is also among the group. The Midshipmen and Cadets are taking classroom instruction and practical work, both ashore and afloat, which is designed to acquaint them with the fundamentals and techniques of the amphibious navy.

Known as TRAMID '55—a contraction of TRaining Midshipmen—the exercise provides the only opportunity in the four-year academy courses for the Midshipmen and Canadians to train and work together as a team in studying as well as participating in amphibious operations.

TRAMID '55 was climaxed on June 18 by an amphibious assault on the beaches of Camp Pendleton, Virginia. A task force of 30 U. S. Navy warships and approximately 8,500 men were involved in the landing exercise.

In 1954 the American people contributed approximately $85,000,000 to make Red Cross services available to their neighbors at home, in the service, and overseas.

Simians Plan to Present Three Summer Plays

Simians, Grosse Pointe's amateur summer theater group for high school and college-age young people is busily engaged in fulfilling an industrious schedule for the coming summer season.

At a general group meeting held June 13 at the War Memorial Center it was decided that three plays of varying types would be produced this summer. (This plan proved highly successful last season). A basic plan of action was okayed, and work began in high gear toward the first production dates of July 14, 15, and 16.

Simians had its beginning in 1947 when a group of dramatic minded young people produced a play written by one of their number. The second year a corporation was formed and much of the equipment built.

In the following years came such productions as James Barrie's whimsical, "Dear Brutus"; "Mary of Scotland," a historical play by Maxwell Anderson; "The Male Animal," by Nugent and Thaler; "You Can't Take it With You" and "The Man Who Came To Dinner," by Kaufman and Hart.

In 1947 Simians produced its first play in the Sunkin Gardens of the Dodge estate. During the next few years the group used the auditorium of Grosse Pointe High School or the bleachers on the athletic field. In the past few years, the War Memorial Center has become its permanent home.

The lake-front terrace provides theater under the stars, while the Center garage serves as scene shop and storage space during the winter.

The group is a legal non-profit corporation, with the purpose, as defined in its constitution, "To engage in the art of amateur theatrical productions looking toward the exploration and development of dramatic expression for the benefit of the members, participants and community of Grosse Pointe."

This year the officers of the corporation include Winnie Likert, president; Dan Webb, vice-president; Jo Garber, secretary; Don Freeman, treasurer; Jan Galhaar, historian; Tim Rocha, Pat Flowers, and Malcom Foster, members-at-large.

The executive committee is composed of Tim Rocha, technical director; Nancy Hoyt, executive director; John Eberly, business manager.

Prospective members will be welcomed and last-minute plans made for the first production.

Garson Kanin's "Born Yesterday" at a general meeting, July 1, at the War Memorial Center.

High school and college-age young people interested in joining Simians are urged to attend this meeting, or contact Jo Garber at TU, 2-3543.

The American Red Cross estimates it will spend $1,000,000 on emergency aid and long-term rehabilitation assistance to the hundreds of families affected by the tornadoes which struck Kansas, Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas in late May.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

If the crowds at the 44th annual Grosse Pointe Horse Show were significant, the horse may replace the automobile in Grosse Pointe. . . . Anyhow, it was a magnificent exhibition . . . full of glamor . . . big names with important stables from around the country . . . and your reporter learned that the horse is a vain animal . . . the five-gaited variety, that is. . . . Some of them wear false tails for their appearances in the show ring! . . . and on Saturday afternoon, one horse lost its tail. The various grooms are more adroit at concealing additions to the animal's actual tail than are wigmakers for humans!

Moonlit Dinner at Hunt Club

One of the high spots of the four-day show was the poolside dinner at the Hunt Club on Saturday evening . . . a night of June perfection . . . with brilliant red roses climbing over the club's picket fence . . . moonlight, combined with twinkling of hurricane lamps at the tables arranged around the swimming pool. . . . Never saw a more beautiful buffet and it was appreciated by the hungry equestrian set when they finally applauded the last event in the Saturday night show (after 11 p.m.), took plate in hand and traveled the length of picture book food set off by deep red roses . . . and watermelon baskets of all the fresh fruits in existence. . . . Orchestra music drifted from the club dining room . . . and the combination of women in lovely evening gowns (some in their riding clothes), and the gentlemen in their colorful garb was a memorable picture.

A Memorable Picture

Steaks were broiled to individual taste . . . and offered piping hot to the hungry diners . . . Horse Show chairman R. E. Dowling joined a table of show officials . . . Mrs. Dowling in a white evening gown handpainted in American Beauty roses . . . Hunt Club president and Mrs. Joseph A. Vance were in this party, she in a most becoming lime green chiffon evening gown . . . The Charles Doderhoffs, William J. Youngs and Alan T. McHenry were in a group. . . . Saw the Karl Lysingers . . . the Ethan Prewitts . . . Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence A. Pratt . . . Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stewart . . . the John W. Mulford's . . . the Alfred R. Glancys . . . the Don A. Martins (tsk! tsk! Just look what their initials spell!) . . . the Charles L. Jacobsons . . . and the Alfred Glancys Jr. were host to a group of friends including their talented house guest, the Spanish designer, Miguel Ferraras.

Krystn a Star

The Glancys spent practically every minute at ringside during the four-day show . . . to watch daughter, Krystn, as she appeared in the various events . . . With the country's headiest competition, this 14-year-old claimed more than her share of honors for outstanding horsemanship. . . . She had her heart set on winning the trophy her father presented in the Working Hunter class. In that field of seasoned, older riders came through to merit special mention ever, if she didn't make the trophy. . . . Rosemary Walker Is Season's Rose Deb

Introduced to Society on Her Birthday at a Rose Ball Given By Parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Upton Walker In The Country Club of Detroit

The rose debutante of the June season, Rosemary Walker, was presented to society on her birthday, Tuesday, at a ball in the Country Club of Detroit.

The debutante's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis Upton Walker, of Balfour road, transformed the Country Club into a beautiful formal rose garden for their daughter's coming-out party.

Rapture roses, hundreds of them, were used throughout the entire main floor. At either side of the entrance, pink tubs held evergreens entwined in the lovely blooms.

Guests proceeded to the French room where the Walkers and Rosemary stood before a table which held antique silver wine roses.

And the debutante was pretty as her roses in a pink silk organza gown as fluffy as a French powder puff. The strapless gown had tight bodice and tremendous waltz length skirt made even more bouffant by yards of fine white net rouching. Deeper pink sequins and rhinestones twinkled on the skirt of the imported frock.

Mrs. Walker greeted the guests in an imported gown of cocoa Chantilly lace shadowing champagne tinted pure silk. The slightly shorter than waltz length skirt had layers of the exquisite lace and a fan shape neckline finished the slender bodice which had shadow straps over the shoulders.

Two orchestras played for members of the young set during the evening. In the great hall, banked evergreens bloomed with rapture roses; the fireplace was hidden away by a pink louvered screen, and statuary added to the garden effect.

French porcelain impish cherubs held baskets filled with roses over the mantelpiece. . . . and garlands of greens and rose roping were used around arches and pillars.

Through a corridor of potted hydrangeas and white daisies, the ball guests travelled to the dining room for breakfast in the wee small hours. The debutant's table was U-shaped and covered with pink and white striped cloth. Matching tapers, based in smilax and painted fruit, glowed from silver candelabra.

Fat pink candles with smilax bases centered the smaller tables around the room. During the breakfast a pink birthday cake surprised the evening's debutante and "Happy Birthday to Rosemary" became the theme song.

Gay Young Set Dances At Sally Boales Debut

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Boales, of Edgemere road, were hosts at a dinner party for 85 members of the young set Tuesday evening when they introduced their debutante daughter, Sally, to society.

The dinner was given at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and the Boales received their guests on the club's long outdoor balcony.

Sally, a petite strawberry blonde, was gowned in waltz length embroidered white organdy worn over layers and layers of blue nylon net, a conflection of ruffles and taffeta.

The tight, strapless bodice was laced, horizontally, in narrow blue velvet ribbon which tied in front, ending in slender streamlined bows.

She carried a bouquet of blue and yellow flowers mixed with ivory.

For her daughter's coming out party, Mrs. Boales wore ice blue silk taffeta, fashioned with off-shoulder bodice and an opera length circular skirt. Her flowers were white spray orchids.

Guests descended the staircase of the clubhouse to the lakeside level where the lawn were gay with dinner table arranged near the outdoor dance floor.

Summer sunshine yellow cloths covered the tables, centered with hurricane lamps and little bird cages filled with blue and yellow blossoms.

Among the guests was the debutante's sister, Sidney Ann Boales, in waltz length blue crystalite, whose escort was Jack Whelan of Portland, Ore. Jack graduated from Princeton this June and has been a house-guest at the Boales' home.

When the receiving line broke up, the debutante joined her guests, her escorts being Skip Clark and Irwin Hicks. Glimpsed, as they twirled about

Young Imbiber To Face Judge

There was a difference of opinion between two policemen and two young men who claimed police couldn't do anything to them for being intoxicated and disorderly on Saturday, June 18.

A Farms police report disclosed that Patrolmen Alfred Martin and Earl Fields were cruising on Mack avenue when they spotted a youth asleep in a parked car near a Mack avenue bar.

The two officers stopped to investigate and found the young man was sleeping off one too many. They checked his personal papers and found him to be a 19-year-old resident of Bishop road.

The car belongs to his companion, 21, of S. Oxford road.

The policemen asked the youth where he had been drinking and he pointed to the bar. The two officers took him to the owner of the bar for verification. The owner admitted the youth had been drinking in his place.

The barmaid who had served the youths, was not sure she had served him and then recalled he had produced identification papers which stated he was 22 years old. They belonged to another friend of his.

Then, stated the police report, both young men became surly and sneered that the police couldn't do anything about it, with the younger lad adding the policemen couldn't make him get in the scout car. In no time at all he was sitting quietly in the car under the watchful eyes of the police and whisked to the station.

He was charged with being drunk and disorderly and using false identification and will have to appear before Farms Judge Grant Armstrong on June 29. His friend was released without any charge placed against him.

Mary Josephine Murphy Weds Dr. Mark Farrell, Jr.

Mary Josephine Murphy, known to her many Country Day students as Miss Murphy, was married Saturday, June 18, at St. Mary's of Redford church. She became the bride of Dr. Mark Farrell, Jr., of Syracuse, N. Y.

A reception at the Betsford Inn followed the noon ceremonies. The newlyweds are honeymooning in Bermuda. Upon return, they will live in Ann Arbor, where Dr. Farrell will continue his specialization training at the University Hospital.

Big Farms Projects Cross Kercheval Avenue

Laying of a new water main and the big new sewer main which outlets in Lake St. Clair at the foot of the estate of Mrs. Henry B. Joy, has temporarily blocked traffic on one of the city's main thoroughfares. The installation is proceeding westerly on Vendome road, from where the 21 inch main goes down Ridge road to connect with the City of Grosse Pointe's system at Fisher road. The enlarged sewer is expected to eliminate flooded basements in the Vendome area. The water main will greatly increase the supply after the filter beds are finished at the Farms pumping station.

License Revoked For Sunday Sale

Marie Correa, owner of a bar at 15412 Mack avenue, had her liquor license revoked for 30 days and was fined $250 by the Liquor Control Commission for serving hard liquor on Sunday.

This is not Correa's first offense. The suspension will begin July 18. In event that the $250 is not paid, the license will be held for an additional 50 days.

CAR WINDOW FORCED

William Kline of 343 Hillcrest, complained to Farm police on Saturday, June 18, that while his car was parked at the Pier-Park, someone forced and broke the window of the vehicle.

Drunken Driver Flees Accident

A 21-year-old Detroit youth was arrested by the Park police Thursday evening, June 16, for the Drunk Motor Law and leaving the scene of an accident. The accident occurred at the intersection of Beaconsfield and Jefferson.

Steven Kacsibar of 3106 Eastlawn plowed into the rear end of a car driven by Donald Smith of Marinc City. Smith was waiting for the green light.

When Smith went to pull from the driving lane to clear traffic, Kacsibar took off. Smith gave pursuit and pulled him over after a three-block chase.

Kacsibar refused to take the balloon test. He admitted to being under the influence of alcoholic beverages and was thus booked on the D.M.L. He was unable to write coherently to make out the accident report. He signed his name Steven Kacsibar.

After questioning he was released to the custody of his mother, who posted the $100 bond.

Glancy Sunday Brunch

Another high spot of the 44th annual show was the traditional Sunday brunch given by Mr. and Mrs. Glancy at their Lake Shore home. . . . Though everyone had left the Hunt Club in the wee hours of Sunday morning, over a hundred were present at the 11:30 o'clock party. . . . Mrs. Glancy (who on Saturday had worn an original gown designed by Miguel Ferraras, of scarlet slipper satin dramatically combined with white satin) greeted her guests in simplest of white linen frocks, her tan shown off beautifully with slender shoulder arrangements. . . . All through the house there were exquisite arrangements of stock, delphinium and carnations. . . . Some of the guests breakfasted at tables on the lawns in front of the home. . . . Others carried their plates to the living room, where every window affords a masterpiece of landscaping. . . . Still others found the wood-paneled great hall so comfortable they just couldn't get past it.

Mrs. Dowling, changed to a pink cotton frock in which she looked beautiful. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Frank Donovan, who carried off a 19th century Spanish print, a gift Mr. Ferraras had brought to their son. . . . Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ollison with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Knaggs, a good-looking foursome as they breakfasted on the front lawns together. . . . the Don Martins wondering where they were going to catch up on lost "horse-show week" sleep. . . . and the Lette Dentons knowing full well their lives were going to be busy for many days to come. . . . with daughter, Denny, slated for her debut this Friday evening (Denny, Lauren Edgar and Susan Denler are being presented at a ball in the Country Club). . . . The Frederick Van Lennep's joined friends at breakfast, she wearing a summery white frock imprinted in yellow flowers and sandals with high, high heels. . . . Incidentally, Mrs. Van Lennep's daughter, Judy Johnson, now 13, was one of the big moments of the show for us. Last time we saw her she was a shy little girl. . . . Now, riding thoroughbreds of the Dodge stables, she is poised and a real beauty. . . . She claimed a red ribbon in a Saturday evening class with all the charm of a time-tested veteran of the ring.

Brunch Guests

Back to brunch guests: Mr. Ferraras circulated through the rooms, leaving for the Sunday horse show only after he had slung his complicated-looking camera over one shoulder. . . . Saw: the William H. Denlers, she in a tailored white linen and managing to look ever so cool with that beautiful dark hair pulled tightly to the nape of her neck. . . . John Mulford found much to delight him in the typically English buffet (elegant old silver dishes filled with kidneys, scrambled eggs, corned beef hash, hot cinnamon rolls, etc.) though there wasn't a broiled squid in sight. . . . Mrs. Mulford was chic in cobalt blue linen with white accents. . . . And we did manage to identify among the out-of-towners and officials: Theodore E. Buell, of New York (American Horse Show Association Steward), resplendent in bright yellow jacket with his charcoal slacks. . . . Charles Craven, of Brookline, Mass., ringmaster with a sense of theater and a way of wearing a pink coat. . . . and the crack horsewoman Ellywood Keith, of Virginia, who rode the hunter, Spanish Mint (owned by Pointer Mrs. J. Deane Rucker) to stunning victory on Saturday night.

Legion Auxiliary News From Unit 303

By ROWENA WEAVER

A gift of $50,000.00 from the American Legion Auxiliary to the National Child Welfare Foundation of the American Legion will enable the foundation to begin sponsorship of research into Child Welfare problems, it has been announced by Mrs. Nelle Baldwin, the Auxiliary's local Child Welfare chairman.

Funds for the foundation were contributed by Auxiliary Units throughout the country as a special project for 1955. A contribution was made by the local unit as part of its work for the welfare of veterans' children.

"For the past 30 years," said Mrs. Baldwin, the American Legion and Auxiliary have devoted wide-scale efforts to relief activities for needy children of veterans, and to correction of conditions endangering the welfare of all children. We now realize that we must seek the causes, as well as relieve the effects of childhood troubles.

"The methods of scientific research, which have brought such wonderful results in other fields, can be applied to the field of Child Welfare with equal promise, we believe. The American Legion's Child Welfare Foundation, to which the Auxiliary has just made such a substantial contribution, will sponsor research projects designed to find the answers to baffling Child Welfare questions. Armed with increased knowledge, we hope to be able to strike at causes rather than treat the effects.

"We of Grosse Pointe 303 Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary are proud to have a part in this new endeavor for the children of America. Meanwhile, our service to the children of veterans in our own community goes forward continuously, meeting the needs as they arise and cooperating with other organizations in efforts to assure 'A Square Deal' for all children."

Ted Forrest, dance instructor at the Little Club, will be in charge of all activities for the summer season.

The summer schedule includes programs for persons of all ages and, according to announcement made Tuesday, skaters from some of the country's famous ice shows will be guests during the period.

A staff of able instructors, both men and women, is on hand every day for enrollments.

The studio, which represents an investment of nearly a hundred thousand dollars, limits its patronage exclusively to Grosse Pointers and members of the Mercury Club.

Dog Owners Advised to Get Licenses

The Farms Police Department, sanctioned by the city officials, mailed final warnings to dog owners who have not yet purchased their 1955 dog licenses.

According to a Farms ordinance, dog owners should have purchased licenses by May 1. Violators were warned they have only 10 days after they receive the final notice, to comply with the law.

Must Go To Court

Farms Police Chief Walter Hoyt said that owners who do not pay heed to the warning will be ticketed and taken to court. There will be no chance for cancellation of the ticket or getting out of going to court.

Disposition of the cases will be up to the judge, according to the chief, and violators can be given up to 90 days in jail, or fined up to $100, or both.

A survey of the records on the dog population in the city has been conducted and the warning was issued.

Many Obey Warning

"Many of the people who received their warning, have purchased licenses for their pets," said Chief Hoyt. "But, some people are still lax.

"These people are causing a cut in the efficiency of the police department, because in being laggards, they force the department to keep a policeman on hand to take care of the issuing of the licenses. As a result, a man is kept behind the desk, when he could be patrolling the city streets for the better protection of the people."

Only 50 Percent Comply

It was pointed out that about 50 percent of the citizens of the city who own dogs, comply with the city ordinance, before or on May 1.

The other 50 percent range from those who come in anytime after May 1 to those who are chronic laggards who will not get the licenses unless threatened by the law.

He said that henceforth, all dog licenses will have to be purchased when due, or violators will be ticketed and taken to court.

If you are a resident of the Farms and own a dog and have not yet gotten a license for your pet, get one now.

Woods Shifting Office Hours

Throughout the months of July and August, the Woods' municipal offices will be closed on Saturdays.

The Woods council was informed by City Administrator William H. Lange on Monday, June 20, that a poll was taken among the employees of the various city departments, and it was unanimously agreed that the staffs should start work a half hour earlier every day, Monday through Friday, and that the offices should be closed on Saturdays.

The council approved this measure, on a trial basis, for the months of July and August.

If the arrangement works out, it might be retained permanently.

This would leave the Farms and the Shores as the only two Pointe communities who open on Saturdays: they are open from 8:30 a.m. to 12 p.m. on those days.

The schedule for the various municipal buildings during week days, including the Woods' present set up, are: Woods, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Shores, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m.; Farms, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.; Park, 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m., open Wednesdays to 8 p.m.; and the City, 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

CAMERAS CATCH PICTORIAL NEWS OF INTEREST FROM ALL OVER THE WORLD

MISS P-O-W!—Toni King (Miss POW!) has been voted by American ex-Prisoners of War as the girl they would like most to be behind bars with. Miss King was selected to reign over the eighth annual Ex-Prisoners of War Convention at the Governor Clinton Hotel in New York, and the honor brings her more than $1,000 in prizes.

SMART "SWEEPER" — If all street cleaners were as chic looking as this young lady, they'd get a good deal more attention from the public. Actually, the young lady is just using the sweeper's props to model a sports ensemble by Capri's Tess-trice Della Isola. The tapered black cotton pants are topped by a hand-woven cotton blouse in varying shades of reds, light blue and dark blue.

"BOY, I MADE IT!"—Wearing a pixie-like smile of pride, young Richard Geisinger of Whitestone, N. Y., marches back to his seat after receiving his "diploma" at the end of "kindergarten college." His classmates appear to be bursting with laughter at the sight. Left to right, they are: Tim Gasparini of Iron Mountain, Mich.; Kathy Wilson of Phoenix, Ariz.; and Kathy Nash of Fargo, N. D. Some 40 small fry of the U. S. Dependents' Nursery School at Wuerzburg, Germany, donned "grad rags" for their commencement exercises.

"NOW, ONCE AGAIN"—Learning to fall and stand upright again without help is part of the training Gimmie Mae McMahan and Russell Spencer Jr. receive at the Adelaide Tichenor Orthopedic Clinic in Long Beach, Calif. Physical therapist Lydia R. Jacob is one of the rehabilitation team which includes the doctor, occupational therapist, medical social worker, the nurse and sometimes other staff members. The profession of physical therapy is gaining in appeal to young people who wish to make their career one of service to others but thousands more are needed to carry out our country-wide rehabilitation program.

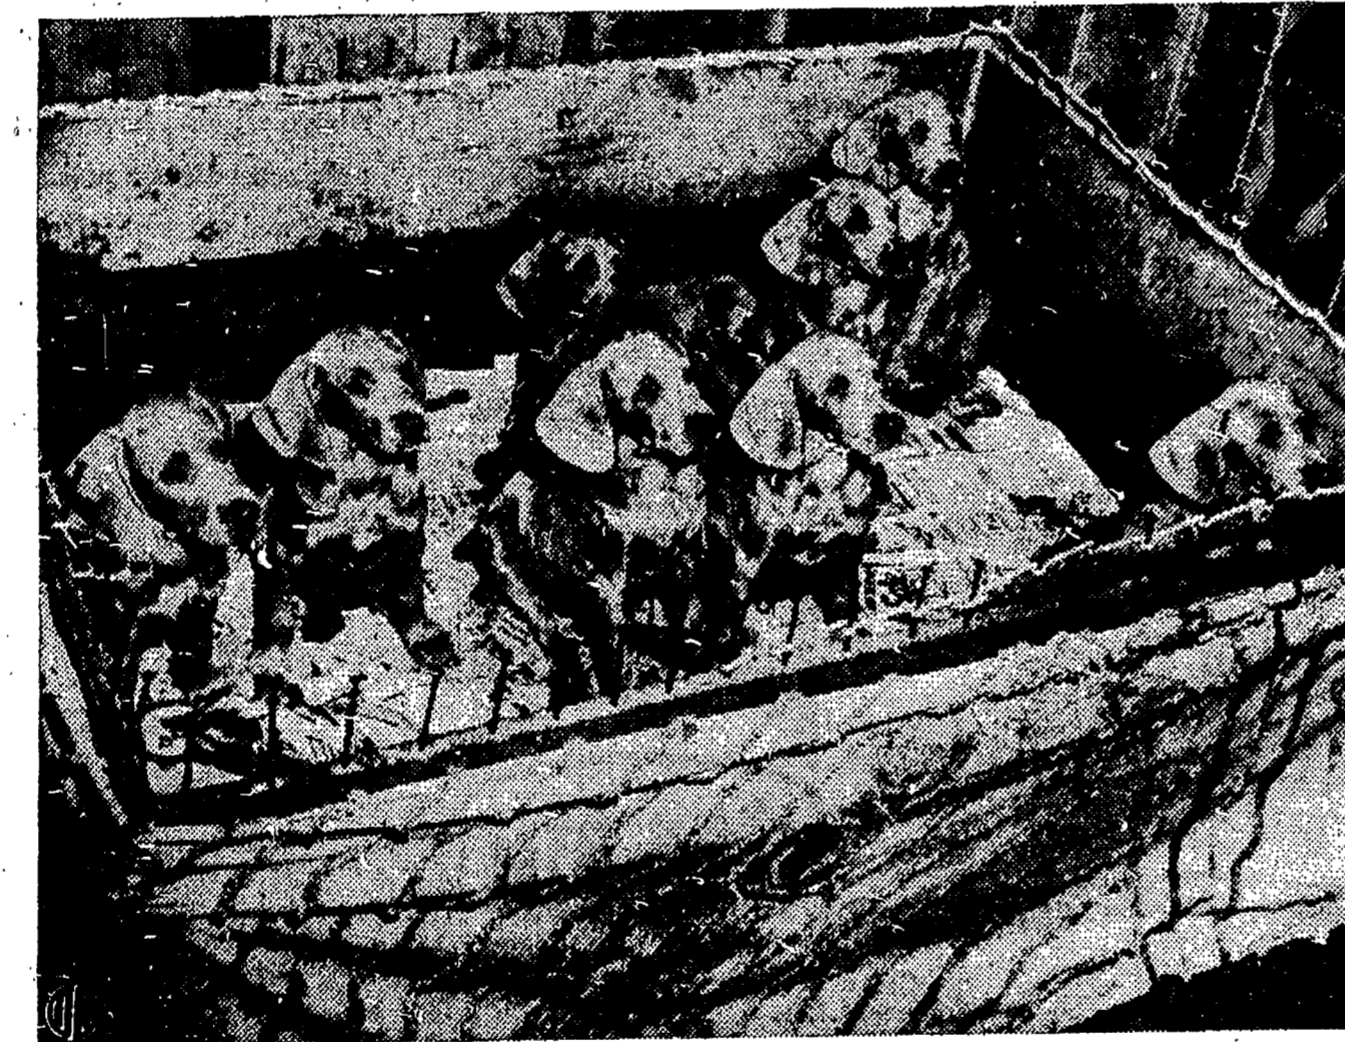

BEAUTY IN COMMON—The old story about the city mouse and his cousin, the country mouse, is brought to mind by this combination of photos. At left is the curvaceous Gisele Hauchecorne, a French starlet chosen as "Miss Paris of 1955." At right is her provincial counterpart, wearing a modest country costume. She is Huguette Maure, of the province of Savoy, who was selected to be "Country Girl of 1955."

"GAW 'HEAD' . . . PITCH IT HARD" — Detroit Tigers' Jack Phillips appears to be staggering up to the plate in a comic routine. Actually he's jumping back from a close pitch in a recent game between the Tigers and New York Yankees.

JUST LIKE MOTHER—Two early birds get the worm from Michael Wieder, 12, of Cleveland. Abandoned "early" in life by their mama, the baby robins were found under a tree by Michael, who now spends all his spare time spading up worms for them. The young robins seem to be thriving on Michael's care and may grow up thinking he's their mother.

PRECOCIOUS PUPS—Dumb animals aren't so dumb any more. Though only seven weeks old, these eight Weimarerer pups owned by a Chicago family are able to sit and lie down on command. Sire of the litter, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hechtold, is Roberts Valentine V. Mohawk, who has made several television appearances.

GRAND PRIZE WINNER TENTH NATIONAL SAFETY POSTER CONTEST

Nancy Gilbert Says She Prefers "Rough Stuff"

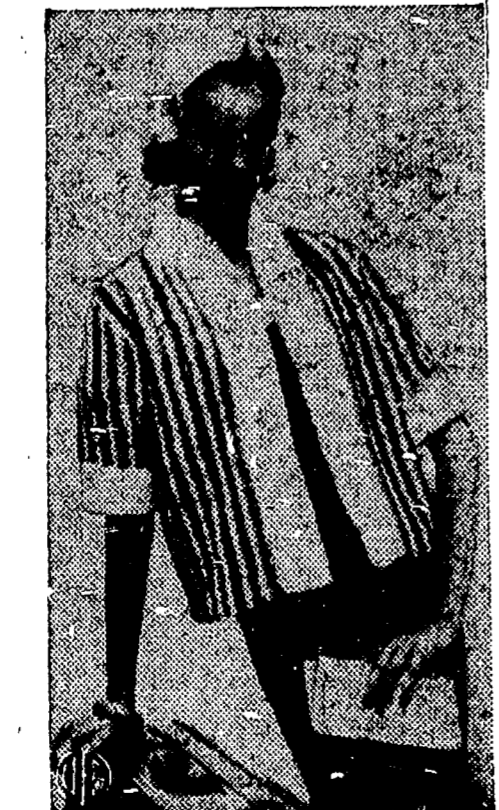

The life of a junior-size cow-girl seems to come very easily for little Nancy Gilbert. Up until two months ago, when she was signed by Flying A Productions to play Dick Jones' kid sister in Mars Candy Company's "Buffalo Bill, Jr." TV series, Nancy's greatest ambition in life was to be a concert pianist. She was a model child, lady-like and studious, spending every spare moment practicing at the keyboard. But one taste of the rumbly-tumble life of the old West was all she needed to completely change all that. The other day when one of the script writers visited her on the set, she inquired: "Why don't you ever give me any fight scenes? I always have to sit back while Dick does all of the rough stuff." Check your favorite TV listing for time and station of "Buffalo Bill, Jr."

THIS TOPS IT ALL — The Davy Crockett cap craze has reached new heights atop the head of actress Ann Miller. Seven-year-old Ronny Anton accuses her of being a copy cat. "Not cat-sable," says Ann. Ronny's coonskin head-gear cost $1.98, Ann's sable one was a mere $1,200.

SERVICE ON THE DOUBLE—Siamese twin sisters Violet (left) and Daisy Hilton offer service on the double at the snack bar they recently purchased in downtown Miami. The petite sisters, inseparably joined by the spine, decided to buy the snack bar and retire from show business, in which they spent most of their 45 years. Born in Texas, the sisters were deserted by their mother and reared by a mid-wife. They became internationally famous as the singing Hilton Sisters.

TRAVELING COMPANION—A jaunty traveling companion, designed to pack easily, wash and dry quickly, and slip comfortably over summer cottons and fall separates, this colorful orion "transit top" by Gienbex has this bulky and "hand-knit" look. Slim-lined and short-sleeved, the brief box jacket is done in bright stripes, alternated and bound in white.

OUT OF THE PAST—Silent screen queen Mary Pickford, "America's sweetheart" of yesteryear, flashes her familiar smile upon arrival at London Airport with her husband, Buddy Rogers. The former movie star, now 62, plans to make a motor tour of Europe.

QUEENS OF EUROPE—Miss Europe of 1955 holds court with her maids of honor after they were selected at Helsinki, Finland. She is Inga-Britt Soderberg, Miss Finland, who measured 35-23-34. Suna Soley (left), Miss Turkey, was second, and Monique Lambert, Miss France, was third. Miss Soderberg will compete in the Miss Universe contest at Long Beach, Calif., later this year.

To Dedicate Scout's New Pool

A brand-new outdoor swimming pool, one of the finest of its kind in the country, will be dedicated at the Charles Howell Scout Reservation, near Brighton, Michigan, next Saturday, June 25, according to John N. Lord, the Scout Council's Camping Committee Chairman.

From the standpoint of health and safety, the new pool is the most important physical improvement of the Reservation since the completion of a magnificent training center in the late 40's.

Since 1937, when the 700 acre reservation site was first acquired, swimming and life saving activities had been conducted in Brighton Lake on which the reservation is located. However, a recently serious algae and pollution condition rendered the lake potentially unsafe for some aquatic activities. Public Health officials, and the Council's Camping and Health and Safety Committees recommended a modern swimming pool as the only safe way of continuing the all-important instruction in swimming and life-saving, as well as recreational water sports.

The pool is 100 feet long by 35 feet wide, with an additional area 25 feet by 34 feet for diving. Two hundred boys can be safely accommodated at any one period, and the pool capacity is 150,000 gallons. Adjoining buildings house a most modern purification plant, also toilets and hot water showers as required by law.

Valued at over $100,000, the new pool was financed by contributions made through the Detroit Metropolitan Building Fund. Construction and engineering was done by Giffels and Vallet, architects, and L. Rossetti, engineer.

Work was started in early Spring in order to complete the pool for the opening of the Summer camping season, starting Sunday, June 26. The reservation serves 600 boys every week; and the D-Bar-A Scout Ranch, near Metamora, can accommodate 700.

Some 300 guests have been invited to the dedication. The program includes a specially-written dedication ceremony, a synchronized swim team from the Department of Parks and Recreation, and demonstrations by college and state diving champions.

Four Injured In Boat Crash

A boat collision on the Detroit River resulted in injuries to four Pointe teen-agers on Thursday, June 16.

A Detroit police report disclosed a 14-foot outboard, operated by Kenneth Gutow, 15, of 529 Barrington, rammed a hole in a 40-foot cruiser piloted by Richard Ford of 12037 Flaut, Detroit, near the Detroit Yacht Club. Neither boat sank.

The force of the impact knocked Gutow and his three passengers from their seats. They were picked up by the Harbor-master Bureau cruiser and taken to Detroit's Receiving Hospital.

Gutow suffered bruised arms and legs. His passengers, Diana Tesch, 15, of 358 Hillcrest, fractured her right leg; Gail Schleicher, 16, of 647 Washington, suffered a broken foot; and Richard Zuhke, 16, of 1838 Hunt Club, fractured his wrist.

No one in the other boat was injured. Police stated that Gutow's vision was apparently blocked by the boat club dock as he started out into the river.

Plans for the North American Senior Sailing Championship, better known as the Mallory Cup Series, which will be sailed off Grosse Pointe Yacht Club come September, are fast taking shape.

At a luncheon meeting, called by Jesse Fleck at the DAC last Monday, June 20, radio, TV and sportswriters got together with Grosse Pointe Yacht Club officials. Commodore William O'Neil Kronner and race chairman George Cossaboom to hear of the plans for the World Series of sail yacht racing.

There were such prominent newsmen as Lyall Smith of the Free Press, Pete Waldmeir of the Detroit News, George Van of the Detroit Times, Jim Riddle of WXYZ, Ken Boehmer of WJBK and Earl Fraser. Others sitting in were Dan Beck and Ted Farnsworth, an old sailor from way back.

All were appointed to the publicity committee and just to keep each from scooping the other on the wire service stories Mr. Fleck appointed, your reporter chairman of the committee, inasmuch as the Grosse Pointe News has no wire service and is the representative paper of the community off whose shores the event will be sailed.

George Cossaboom, whose energetic efforts at the North American Yachting Racing Union meeting last January, obtained the right to hold the event for the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club, outlined the plan for staging the quarter finals here to find the representative skipper and crew for the DRYA in the semi-finals on Aug. 15 and 16.

George also stated the Lake St. Clair Luder Fleet had agreed to loan the required number of their one design Luder 16 yachts for the finals. There is a possible chance these yachts will be used in the semi-finals also.

Incidentally, the Luder fleet is taking great pride and sparing no expense to make their yachts as equal as possible. They have gone so far as to buy eight identical suits of synthetic sails and have their yachts in sparkling order, according to Ledge Mitchell, who heads the fleet.

It is assumed the yachts to be used will be those owned by Mitchell, Dexter Ferry, Chuck Phalen, Fred and Bill Fisher, Walt Pawluc, Pete Stroh and Dick Wozniak. However, there are other Luder owners who will be standing by to offer their yachts just in case of an accident. Commodore Kronner indicated his club is really excited over holding an event of this importance to the sailing world and promised he, his fellow officers and club members will go all out to make this the best Mallory Cup series of all. The series has been held three times, once on Long Island Sound, Larchmont, and last year at New Orleans.

The prize the crews from eight regions from all over the United States will be shooting for is the "Clifford Day Mallory Trophy." It is a beautiful soup tureen which was presented by Sultan Selim III in 1812 to the family of Lord Nelson of Trafalgar in appreciation of Nelson's having removed the threat to Egypt by the victory of the Nile. It is engraved with the Nelson crest and his motto "Palman qui meruit ferat," which literally translated means "Let him wear the palm who has deserved it" or in other words "Let the best man win."

Exchange Club To Hold Banquet

The Grosse Pointe Exchange Club will hold a banquet on Friday, July 1, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

The price of $10 per couple includes everything.

Marks 20th Anniversary

Dick Warner, one of Grosse Pointe's best known automobile salesmen, is this week celebrating the 20th anniversary of his association with the local Ford agency, now under its third name. In 1935 he joined the Peter J. Platte agency and stayed on with its successor, Tom Boyd, Inc., and remained when Adam-Simms, Inc., purchased the business. Dick, who has sold upwards of 2,500 cars and trucks and who steadfastly maintains a high volume in sales, attributes his record to "service after the sale."

Police Chiefs Warn Drivers

Grosse Pointe Chiefs of Police urge all motorists to sharpen up on their driving skills in terms of safe passing—an important part of the nation-wide Slow Down and Live program now underway.

According to the chiefs getting ahead of the other fellow in traffic is modern traffic's most difficult maneuver. They suggested that all motorists give careful study to the following 20 safety tips on passing:

1. Never pass at hills, curves or intersections.
2. Don't cut-in right after you pass a car.
3. Have a gap ahead, to get into when passing.
4. Use left turn signal when pulling out to pass.
5. Warn driver ahead—honk or flash headlights.
6. Go 10 to 15 m.p.h. faster than the car you're passing.
7. Use care when passing several cars at a time.
8. When passing opposite a roadside business—watch!
9. Be doubly careful of oncoming traffic at night.
10. Check for righthand passing on four lane highways.
11. Triple alertness when passing at speeds over 50.
12. Don't blindly follow car ahead when it's passing.
13. Suspect driver behind impatiently trying to pass.
14. Wave back driver behind you when unsafe to pass.
15. Pull to right of your lane when being passed.
16. Watch driver passing on right at intersections.
17. Be wary of a car passing an oncoming car.
18. Hesitate passing with cars on both sides of you.
19. Question passing a car opposite a parked car.
20. Think twice before passing opposite a pedestrian.

Ford Motor Company Fund Plans Awards Convocation

The Ford Motor Company Fund invited 125 youths—members of the first and most recent Ford Fund scholarship classes—to attend a joint awards convocation in Dearborn on Sunday, June 26.

The Ford Scholars' Convocation honors the first class of Ford Fund scholarship winners, most of whom graduated this June, and the 72 youths who were selected to receive scholarships this spring. The youths, from 18 states, are all sons and daughters of Ford employees.

Outdoor ceremonies on the grounds of Fair Lane, former home of the late Henry Ford, will feature speeches by Dr. Harlan Hatcher, president of the University of Michigan, and Benson Ford, Ford Motor Company vice president and group director.

Relatives and friends of the students and general school and college administrators, clergy and civic leaders will be invited to attend the convocation.

The program, to begin at 2:30 p.m., will include presentation of gifts to the 1951 scholarship class and award certificates to the recent winners. An informal reception and open house at Fair Lane will follow the ceremonies.

The scholars' convocation is described by Henry Ford II as "a tribute to a major milestone in an era of expanding industry-education cooperation."

"The Ford Motor Company Fund scholarship program is a pioneering example of industrial aid to education. The program was established in 1951 as a means of extending our educational assistance in a fair way and in a manner which might have measurable benefits.

"Our scholarship winners are selected by a board of distinguished educators who consider competitive examination scores and other factors. Educational grants are made to privately-endowed institutions chosen individually by the winners. Using this procedure, grants parallel the ability of schools to attract students and the Ford Fund is not required to establish arbitrary scales of value," Mr. Ford said.

Of the 70 youths in the first class of Ford Fund scholarship winners, 56 remained in the program throughout the four years. Three are now in military service. The college graduates will wear caps and gowns during the convocation ceremonies.

Seventy-two children of Ford employees were notified of their selection as scholarship winners last April. In addition to receiving their awards at the convocation, they will remain in Dearborn from June 26-28 as guests of the Ford Fund.

During their stay, the 1955 class of winners will be entertained in the Detroit area and will tour the Ford Rouge plant, Rotunda, Henry Ford Museum and Greenfield Village. The winners also will meet with Ford Fund officials to discuss details of their scholarships.

Ford Fund scholarships cover tuition, academic fees and a major portion of living expenses at any approved institution. The Fund also makes an annual $500 grant toward the general educational budget of privately-endowed schools for each winner in attendance.

Michigan will be represented at the scholars' convocation by 33 members of the 1951 class of winners and 49 youths who received Ford Fund scholarships this year. Among them will be James F. Oester of 1327 Hollywood, who was graduated at Michigan State University this month.
