FARMS PARKING PROBLEM AIRED

Pointe's Most Popular Sport as Mercury Soars

This scene could be duplicated at any one of the five municipal beaches in the community during the last few weeks, although it was taken at the City of Grosse Pointe's fine new pier. With facilities greatly expanded at all of the lakefront parks, the lingering heat wave made thousands of residents grateful for the cool retreats.

THE SOVIET UNION will be amply represented at the Big Four Geneva conference. Communist Party Boss Nikita S. Khrushchev, although technically not a member of the Government, will accompany Soviet Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin, Defense Minister Marshall Georgi K. Zhukov and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to the session. Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko will also go along to make a five-man representation of what Premier Bulganin calls "the very summit."

Friday, July 15

A FULL INQUIRY is being conducted into the affairs of Secretary of the Air Force Harold E. Talbott by the Senate Permanent Investigations Subcommittee. Both Republicans and Democrats authorized the investigation after 90 days of spadework of a staff headed by Robert F. Kennedy, counsel for the subcommittee.

LANSING will get the body of Steven T. Mason, the "Boy Governor" who helped to usher Michigan into statehood. The body had been in Detroit's Capitol Park for half a century and was exhumed when that city decided to make improvements to the park. Re-burial of Gov. Mason on the State Capitol grounds was approved by a legislative committee and the descendants of the youthful leader of Michigan. Full military honors will be accorded.

Saturday, July 16

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER left for Geneva and the Big Four Conference. He said there will be no trouble with Russia if that country is sincere in its words of "conciliation and toleration and understanding." He voiced hope for the success of the conference, a few hours before leaving the country, over a TV-radio broadcast to the nation.

Sunday, July 17

HUNGARY'S Red regime announced the release of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic primate, who has been in prison for six and a half years. The Cardinal was sentenced to life imprisonment in December 1948, after a Communist court found him "guilty of treason, espionage and black market dealings."

Monday, July 18

A TWO-ENGINEED airliner crashed at a Chicago airport. The latest report disclosed that 22 persons lost their lives, and 21 were injured, 12 of them seriously. The airplane, carrying 43 passengers, nosed down in a morning fog for an instrument landing at Midway Airport, hit a billboard and crashed through a fence in a flash of flames.

POLICE-MANNED tanks fired into a mob of Moroccans who had attacked with hand grenades during a riot Sunday night, when fighting again broke out in the troubled French North African protectorate. The tanks fired 37-millimeter guns and machine guns. The first report after the shooting revealed that six persons were killed and 15 wounded.

Tuesday, July 19

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER led off the summit conference with a proposal that the German problem be tackled first. All four leaders of the Big Four were agreed on the reunification of West and East Germany, but differed over the methods. The way was opened for further discussion during the week. In a concrete gesture, Russian Premier Bulganin announced that his Government will turn some of its atomic material over to the international atom-for-peace pool created under the leadership of the United States. Both the President and the Premier agreed that the Iron Curtain should go.

Wednesday, July 20

THE BIG FOUR conference in Geneva is progressing smoothly. Besides reaching accord on proposed talks on the unification of Germany, the four ministers also agreed to discuss European Security, disarmament and the development of East-West contacts.

Park Police Officer 2nd Polio Victim

Thomas Frazer Stricken; 10 Cases had been Reported at This Time Last Year

A Park police officer became the second polio victim in the Grosse Pointe Health District within the last eight weeks, according to official sources.

Stricken was Thomas Frazer, 27, of 1249 Beaconsfield, who was rushed to Herman Kiefer Hospital on Wednesday, July 13, and at the last report was still running a fever.

Father of Three

He is married and the father of three children. He also has been caring for a seven-year-old sister since the recent death of his mother. He has been with the Park department five years.

A June health report submitted by Dr. Thomas Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner, disclosed no polio cases for the month.

Dr. Davies disclosed, however, that last year at this time, 10 cases were reported, seven from Harper Woods and three from the Pointe.

He said that the polio season ranges from about May to the fall of the year.

38 Animal Bites

The month's health report disclosed that the 38 animal bites took first place away from measles, which numbered 21.

The dog bites were reported as follows: Harper Woods, 15; City eight; Park, seven; Farms, six; and one each in the Woods and Shores.

Firefighters Make Short Work of Blaze in Park

A good job of fire fighting diverted what could have been a major blaze on Saturday, July 16. A fire broke out in the attic of a two story flat at 796 Trombley.

The full complement of Park equipment rolled out of the station at 2:27 p.m. By 2:40 the fire was out.

"According to reports I received, the fire was in full flame when the first truck arrived on the scene," Chief George deCaussin said. By the time he arrived, cleanup proceedings were underway.

A high pressure fog line was run up through the flat into the attic. "We didn't have to use the ladders because the fire had already opened a hole in the roof," deCaussin said.

It took approximately eight minutes to localize the blaze.

Woods Saddled with Illegal Contract in Attempt to Get Its Refuse Problem Solved

Council Kills Ordinance Passed Just Two Weeks Ago, but Gets Into Hassle With Residents Over "Reneging" on Promise

It was only two weeks old, but Ordinance 132, a proposed ordinance to amend an ordinance, was killed by the Woods council on Monday, July 18, before it could become law.

With the rescinding of the ordinance, the Woods still has Ordinance 110 on the books and a garbage pickup contract which was signed in violation of this legislation.

Would Legalize Contract

The dead ordinance would have amended certain provisions in "110" which would have legalized the present garbage and food waste pickup contract, which was signed "virtually on the eve" of the existing ordinance which took effect on July 1.

Ordinance 110, adopted on May 3, 1954, provides that as of July 1, the Woods would cease to provide public funds to pay for pickups, and residents of homes, where there are no disposal grinders or incinerators, will have to contract privately for these pickups. "The cost to home owners is $13, and business places, $51, for a six-month period.

To date, there are 1,998 known homes in the city without grinders or incinerators; 200 more have not been contacted because the people were out of town, or had not been home at the time the count was taken.

Of the number mentioned, only 132 residents and five business places have privately contracted to have their refuse picked up, so far.

The garbage and food waste pickup contract, was awarded to the lowest bidder, who bid $28,197 for the job, and who incidentally was awarded the rubbish pickup contract for his low bid of $39,980. The latest contract, however, is not included in the controversy.

It appears that what aroused the citizens of the community who have no disposal units, is that Ordinance 110 provides that no public funds will be used to pickup garbage after July 1, yet the contract was awarded and signed in violation of that particular ordinance.

Sought Legal Escape

Then members of the council attempted to pass amendments to legalize the contract.

Section 12, of the killed Ordinance 132, reads as follows: "Effective July 1, 1955, the collection of 'Garbage and Food Wastes' shall be financed jointly by revenue received from the collection of service charges and from appropriations made from the General Funds of the city, upon appropriate action of the City Council."

Several citizens who were present at the council meeting, speaking for themselves and through legal representation, "panned" the city for reneging on its promise that no public funds would be used for the refuse collection. They said the city stated "they

Big Projects Progressing In Farms

Total of $1,032,000 Being Spent on Pier Park, Sewers and Water System Expansion

All major projects undertaken in the Farms will be completed by fall, it was disclosed by City Manager Harry Furton. The total cost of these projects is approximately $1,032,000.

The biggest project by far is the $500,000 improvement being done at the Pier-Park.

Park Paving Done

Sidney DeBoer, Farms assistant engineer, revealed that the paving for the parking lots in the park was completed last week. The pumping station is almost finished. He said that the finishing touches in the park, such as landscaping, grading and seeding will be done in the fall.

The Fisher Sewer Relief Area, begun in February, was completed on June 15. Approximately 3,000 feet of sewer pipes were laid from Beaure and Stephens, southerly on Beaure to McMILLAN, easterly on McMILLAN to Charlevoix and from Charlevoix to Fisher, Mr. DeBoer said. The finishing touches on this project, such as curbing and paving will have to wait until the ground is settled. This job, when finished will have cost $110,000.

Biggest Job Half Done

The Vendome Sewer Relief Area is more than half completed, according to the engineer, and will cost the city $210,000.

This is the largest sewer job of the Farms, requiring about 9,000 feet of pipe. The project, started several weeks ago, begins at Lake Shore road, through the Henry Joy property, then up Ven-

No Sure Cures For Elm Disease

A late release from the Michigan State Department of Agriculture in Lansing warns residents against being taken in by "Tree Cure Fakes."

The department has had an alarming number of reports from citizens that there are so-called tree experts today who claim they have a sure cure for the dreaded Dutch Elm Disease, among others. Some are masquerading as official employees of the state.

The department cautions that there are no sure cures on the market today for any of the tree wilt diseases. It also urges that any resident confronted by a person claiming to be a state employee, demand that he show official identification.

Dutch Elm Threat Produces Varying Official Reactions

Farms Querying State on Chances of Speeding Up Delay in Laboratory Reports and Getting Local Testing Apparatus

Action has been taken in various quarters and to various degrees concerning measures to battle the Dutch Elm Disease. At Lansing, the state legislature almost tripled the Department of Agriculture's budget allotment for 1955-56 for the fight against Dutch Elm Disease and other tree wilt afflictions.

From the East come reports that a cure has been patented by a group of Rhode Island University professors.

On the local level, at least two of the Pointe's city councils have taken definite steps to help keep the tree killer under raps.

State Boosts Aid

In a letter received by Paul R. O. Marden of the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association, it was learned that the state hiked its Dutch Elm fund allotments from $28,788 for 1954-55 to $72,000 for '55-56.

The letter, from C. A. Boyer, Chief of the Bureau of Plant Industry, said in part, "... through your efforts and cooperation we have been granted a sum of $72,000 by the legislature for the fiscal year of 1955-56."

The letter also queried Marden on a charge that the ineffectuality in combatting the disease is due to a complexity of channels through which the affected communities must work. A quote to that effect was carried in the News in a previous article.

Reaffirms Charge

To reaffirm his charge, Marden, present at the Farms council meeting Monday evening, July 18 asked City Manager Harry Furton before the council members "How long it took the city to get returns on samples sent to Lansing?" The reply Furton gave was "Three to four weeks."

Woods Bus Hit By Faulty Car

A car which was mechanically defective, struck the Woods' municipal bus several times, and emerged only with a bent fender.

A Shores police report disclosed that on Saturday, July 16, as the Woods bus, driven by Peter J. Schummer, 21, of 837 Roslyn road, was rounding the curve near the Edsel Ford estate, when it was bumped four or five times along the side.

The bumps were caused by a car driven by Lee C. Nelson, 20, of 3700 Helen, Detroit, who, while trying to pass the bus around the curve, somehow lost control of his car, a late model, which was traveling at a 30-35-mile speed, striking the side of the bus and reaching the front of the larger vehicle with a wrecked right fender.

Officers at the scene, in road testing Nelson's car, found it had faulty brakes, steering and clutch and the exhaust emitted dense smoke.

Nelson was issued a ticket for not having his car under control and causing an accident, and was placed under $100 bond pending a court appearance on August 2. The car was impounded until the defects were corrected.

Thirsty Thieves

The three juveniles involved told police they spent about $30 on soft drinks and candy and $6 on an air pistol.

The boys were turned over to their parents until the case is completely investigated.

Three Split Loot

The three split the money taken from the billfold belonging to Mrs. Lawrence, each getting about $31.

Most of this money, about $60, was hidden under a log in a field at the end of Cornwall street, Detroit.

A nine-year-old boy, who lives on the street, witnessed the hiding, went to the log after the other boys had gone, and found the money. He turned it over to his mother, with the information that the 10-year-old boy, whom he knew, was among the three who had hidden it.

The nine-year-old boy's mother called the parents of the 10-year-old, stating what had taken place. Then the boy involved in the theft confessed to his mother and at the police station named his accomplices.

Heat and Drink Take Blame For Four Accidents in Park

Saturday's late afternoon heat got everybody down, even the drivers out for a cooling ride. Four accidents occurred within the space of two hours in the Park.

"It must have been the heat," said Chief of Police Arthur Louwers.

At 4:50 p.m. a drunk driver hit a D.S.R. bus as it was turning into the driveway east of Wayburn. (Concerning this case, Chief Louwers qualified his hot weather statement slightly.)

Joseph Pakton of 1154 Meldrum, Detroit, ran the stop signal at Wayburn and Jefferson and hit the bus. He was ticketed for drunk and reckless driving.

Less than an hour later a woman driver just didn't stop turning and plowed into a fence at St. Paul and Somerset.

Businessmen Make Move To Conciliate

Willing to Pay Special Assessment Provided More Free Space is Obtained

A step toward conciliation on the off-street parking differences for the Kercheval-on-the-Hill business district was made at the Farms Council meeting held Monday evening, July 18.

The council, at the request of the "Hill" Business Men's Association, appointed a committee of four to meet with the Association and a yet to be appointed committee of the Board of Education to try and iron out existing differences.

Spokesmen Present

Spokesmen for the "Hill" Association Roland Gray and T. Raymond Jeffs were present at the meeting to reaffirm the contents of a letter submitted to the council for consideration and to urge all haste in "getting this matter straightened out."

The letter from the Association to the Council said in essence that the "Hill" business men are more than willing to cooperate with both the Council and the Board so long as they feel an equitable arrangement is reached.

To date the business men have waged a successful court battle against the paying of a special assessment for the existing off-street parking lot lying behind the north side business establishments.

Special District Created

The lot was built at city expense, that to be levied back against the businessmen who eventually would benefit from the facilities. To do this a special assessment district (District 7) was created and the total city expenses were apportioned among some 40 property owners and businessmen.

The lot in the ointment so far as the "Hill" merchants were concerned was that the lot was eventually to be metered. The Farms then would have a lot at no expense to them plus a source of revenue. On this point the merchants obtained a court injunction freeing them from paying the assessment for at least the present.

With the injunction still in effect, the Association then made its move Monday night for conciliation. The merchants' bartering point stems from an obvious need for still more parking facilities; their legal success to date and the wants of a third party, the Board of Education.

Bomb Blasts Super Market

City police, with the aid of the Detroit Police Scientific Laboratory, are checking into the reason for an unwarranted bombing of a Mack avenue super market, which occurred Tuesday, July 19, at about 1 a.m.

According to information released by City Police Chief Thomas Trombly, a terrific explosion shook the air, which was heard at the City police station from the bombed business place, Big Bear Supermarket, 17140 Mack.

Used was a home-made bomb, made from a water faucet and a length of pipe, filled with an explosive powder with an attached fuse.

The explosion and pieces of fragments of the bomb shattered two 8 by 12 windows and cracked a third in the store; a large piece of the makeshift bomb, was embedded in a can of beans, which had been in a window display of the building.

It was revealed that the bomb caused an estimated $1,000 in damages. Fortunately, no one was in the store at the time of the explosion.

The bomb was either placed or tossed under a newspaper stand near the store, just before it went off.

Both the Farms and City fire departments were kept busy cleaning up the broken glass.

Chief Trombly said an investigation is underway to determine if hoodlum elements are connected with the incident.

Act on Dutch Elm Disease

Marden then asked the council if it had any actual jurisdiction over privately owned trees. Furtun answered that it didn't, "It is a state matter."

The letter to Marden also questioned the validity of a quoted price for the establishment of a local testing station.

Differ On Estimates
The letter said in effect that the state believes it would cost at least $3,000 to set up such a station and not $250, Marden said that the $250 was the cost estimated by what he considered a reliable source.

At present, the state's testing laboratories are located on the campus of Michigan State University.

In an article that appeared recently in the New York Times, it was revealed that a patent had been granted on a cure for the Dutch Elm Disease.

Results Called Encouraging
According to the report, the results of the experiments using the cure have been encouraging. The report stated: "The inventors, two members of the faculty of the University of Rhode Island and an industrial chemist, were surprised at the remarkable effectiveness of their discovery, but they did not pretend to understand it completely."

The cure is an acid compound that can be sprayed on the tree or poured around the roots, though the best results have come from a hypodermic type of application; i.e. feeding the acid intravenously through holes bored in the bark.

To date there is no available information as to state action concerning this cure.

Two Pointes Take Action
From local quarters, action of one sort or another was taken in the last two weeks by the Shores and the Farms.

At the Monday meeting, July 11, the Shores Board of trustees moved that letters be sent out to all the residents alerting them to the seriousness of the epidemic and urging them to spray all of their trees as soon as possible.

At the Farms meeting Monday, July 18, the Council was prodded into a state of concern by Paul Marden when he asked about the length of time it took for sample returns.

Records Are Alarming
Marden informed the council of the communication he had received from the state and of cases he was aware of in surrounding communities.

"I have records of a case in a bordering community where one tree was felled last year and not removed and now 15 surrounding trees have been effected," Marden told the council.

"Though I know residents in this community have been most cooperative in getting their trees down if infected, all you need is one dissenter to seriously propagate the disease." This spurred the council into further discussion.

Want Time Lag Cut
It was felt by all the members that it was necessary to cut down the time lag between first diagnosis and final verification. The council unanimously voted to send a letter to Lansing asking the possibility of establishing a local station, or at least the means to be used to get the samples answered more quickly.

Marden also broached them on the possibility of establishing a local statute putting the authority to assure the immediate felling of infected trees under city jurisdiction, instead of state as it is now.

On this point the council said it would seek legal advice from the city council.

Spraying Contract Let
The council did let the contract for the final phase of their tree spraying program. It went to the lowest bidder, The Davy Tree Service.

It was the Farms general opinion that something must be done now to fight the spread of the disease.

From available reports, the other three Pointe communities, the Park, the City and the Woods are carrying on their present survey and spraying programs.

Figures show that the disease is gaining slowly in all of the communities, though no conclusive reports are available. Through figures that have been pieced together, the City seems to be faring best. The Park has shown noticeable, but not alarming gains. The figures are still below last year's in this community. The Woods report was inconclusive.

Farms Parking Problem

join the presently split Richard School playground. This would mean the closing of McMillan road from a point north of Kercheval to Ridge road.

It is common knowledge that the board is willing to give a 75 foot wide strip of land at the rear of the cross street playground in return for the closing of McMillan.

This 75 foot strip would allow the Farms to run a street through from Kercheval to Ridge road along the easterly limits of the shopping district. The strip would also furnish sufficient land for at least one and a half more rows of off-street parking.

Need Another Outlet
The Farms realizes the need for another outlet for the Kercheval-on-the-Hill shopping center. Though the traffic congestion brought about by only two exits, east and west bound Kercheval is still not acute, any business expansion could well bring about a bottle neck of undetermined seriousness.

It is felt by the association that the Ridge road exit would help alleviate this pending condition. The added parking space made possible, besides helping the businessman, would help clear Kercheval avenue.

Anticipating the desires of the businessmen and the Board, the city recently employed the private engineering firm of Gunderson and Dobelek to run a traffic survey to determine the possibility of shutting off McMillan road.

The report deemed it unfeasible to shut the road off.

Call Report Inconclusive
In the Monday evening letter to the council, the Hill association stated that it felt the traffic report was inconclusive. "We have given some study to the traffic survey recently made and we do not believe that it proves that McMillan road cannot be closed from beyond the church to Ridge road," the letter stated.

Spokesman Gray reasserted this to the council. It was brought out in the ensuing general discussion that the report asked if the road could be closed? It was felt by some of the council that that was not the point to be determined.

"The report is definitely incomplete. It didn't ask the vital question, 'Where is the traffic headed?'" said councilman Edward Roney.

One Question Asked
On this point both the council and the Association seemed to agree. They both felt the question to be determined is, 'How could the traffic be directed?'"

Watch Out for Crazy Drivers

Most Detroit drivers are good drivers, who make a sincere effort to obey traffic laws and respect the rights of their fellow drivers, according to the Traffic Safety Association, but there are nevertheless some who commit stupid, thoughtless, selfish reckless and dangerous driving acts.

These are Detroit's crazy drivers and the Traffic Safety Association is asking you to look out for them.

Starting July 25, the Association will launch a new educational campaign on defensive driving and the watchword of the campaign will be "Look Out For That Crazy Driver". More than 1,200 posters in Detroit and a total of 2,000 in the metropolitan area and other localities in Michigan will display posters urging the good drivers to be alert for their addleheaded brethren.

"These drivers are not really crazy, of course," the Association says. "The just thrive that way. But crazy or not, their kind of driving, if you are not alert, can be deadly or, at the least, most annoying, which is a danger in itself."

"The Association's advice is to steer clear of these crazy drivers. Many of their actions produce irritations and the temptation to assert your right-of-way. Don't do it. Let the crazy driver have his troubles all by himself."

The Association says good drivers should keep their sense of humor and accept the crazy drivers for the "dopes they are", while at the same time giving them plenty of room.

The campaign against crazy drivers has the support of many professional driver who have driven hundreds of thousands of miles without an accident. When asked what their accident-free formula is, they invariably reply: "I just drive as if all the other drivers on the road are crazy."

A long face often shortens your list of friends.

Favorite traffic slogan: "Drive carefully. The life you save may be mine!"

McMillan be closed?"

Assuming that the city could close McMillan and meet the board's wants, thus meeting also the association's wants for more parking, Spokesman Gray and Jeffs made it very clear that the Association would pay the special assessment with the agreement that the lot not be metered.

The only definite action besides the barring of the associations stand on the matter, was that the council agreed to meet with the two groups to discuss the possibility of settlement.

A committee of four consisting of Mayor Connolly and Councilmen Kirby, Maxon and Butler will meet with Jeffs and Gray and spokesmen for the Board next Monday evening, July 25.

The city also agreed, on the recommendation of the Association to include a representative of Gunderson and Dobelek and their own legal council at the meeting.

Need Room for Play
As a closing plea, Gray stated that the Association and the Council must not lose sight of the validity of the Board of Education wants. "I was talking to a representative of a sporting goods firm at lunch today, and he emphasized the crying need for more recreational facilities. The building boom has not been correspondingly met with the proper increase of recreational facilities," Gray said.

"We must realize that at the present, the Richard playground is almost useless. It seems to the Association that the meeting of everybody's desires would benefit everyone in the long run."

come to Ridge, with a northerly arm extending to Moross, and a southerly arm extending to Stephens; down Kercheval, with a northerly arm going to Moross and a southerly arm to Lothrop.

This particular project has caused the contractor considerable trouble, especially when diggers encountered wet quicksand. The two Lake Shore road diversions, needed as an outlet for drain water, were recently completed at a cost of $20,000.

Await Filter Equipment
The two filter beds, desperately needed to boost the Farms water supply, are only awaiting pipes, valves and other equipment. The total cost of this, when finished, has been set at $60,000.

Mr. DeBoer said that the enlarged water main, which will be connected to the City's drain, is about 40 per cent done. It will require about 7,200 feet of pipe.

However, because the Vendome sewer project is under construction on Kercheval, this particular job had to be started at Ridge and Vendome, and continued southerly on Ridge. It will eventually be tapped in at Moross and Kercheval. It will end at Ridge and Fisher. The cost will be $132,000.

Measles—10 in the Farms; five each in the Park and Harper Woods and one in the Woods.

The number of chicken pox cases came to 10: five in Harper Woods; four in the Park and one in the Woods.

There were eight cases of mumps: three each in the Farms and Harper Woods; and one each in the Park and Woods.

Scarlet fever struck five persons: two in the Farms and one each in the Park, City and Harper Woods.

The Park reported the only case of infectious hepatitis; the Woods the only one of pertussis; and Harper Woods the lone case of rheumatic fever.

Zaimoglu stop. Kapadia was ticketed for not having his car under control causing an accident. The damage was minor.

Fifteen minutes later the fourth and last accident of the day occurred; a two car crackup at Trombley and Jefferson.

The police report of the accident was not complete. A car driven by Joan Baldwin of 19421 Gilchrist, Detroit, east on Jefferson, clipped the front end of a car waiting to enter Jefferson from Trombley.

The truck car was driven by William Kreutzans of 2516 Ashland in Detroit. A blind corner, it seemed that Kreutzans had crept out into the driving lane to obtain better vision of oncoming traffic.

Baldwin was ticketed for not having her car under control.

paying taxes for pickups and the $13 for six months service. Not one cent is being refunded to those who already have installed their units, he added.

Not Included in Budget
As a matter of fact, it was pointed out, the recently passed budget for the fiscal year, carried no appropriation of funds for the collection of refuse.

Frank Dougherty of 1861 Country Club, attorney for the Citizens Association of Grosse Pointe Woods, pointed out that when the city signed the contract with the pickup firm, it broke faith with the people.

Arthur Kitson of 762 Sunningdale drive, stressed the fact that no city in the United States forced its citizens to use grinders, etc., as a means of disposing of garbage and refuse. He said that the people without grinders, as things stand now, are being double-taxed, that is, they are

Take Summer Training In Air Force Reserve

Frederick W. Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Jensen of 282 Hillcrest, and Raymond O. Eddy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Eddy of 712 Pemberton road, are attending a four week summer training course at the Minneapolis-St. Paul International Airport as part of their advanced Air Force Reserve Officer Training. Here they observe and actually participate in Air Force operations.

Following graduation at the University of Wisconsin and Wayne University, respectively, they will be eligible for appointments as second lieutenants in the Air Force Reserve and for entry into flight training to win the coveted silver wings of an Air Force pilot (or aerial observer).

FOUR HUBCAPS STOLEN

Russell J. Krause of 19407 Huntington, revealed the theft of four hubcaps from his car while it was parked in the Woods Theater parking lot on Friday, July 15. Wood police have the report on file.

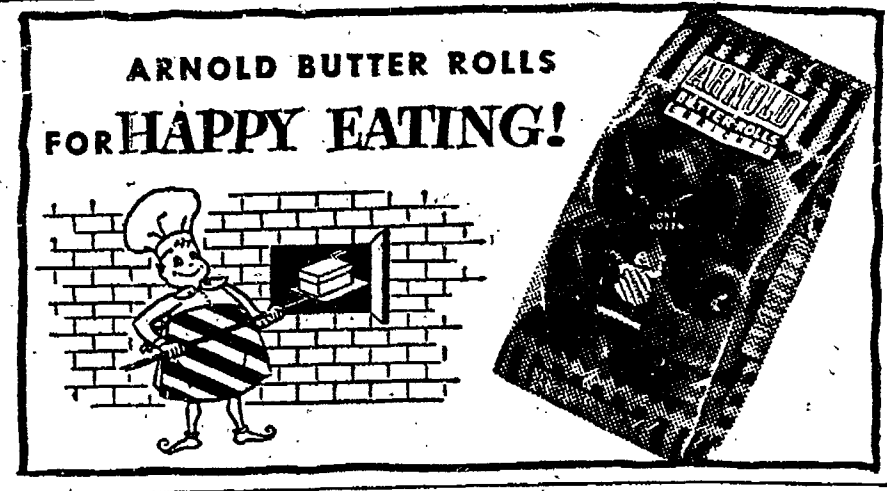

City Holding Swimming Races

Starting Saturday, July 16, the Park, in conjunction with swimming lessons at its waterfront park, initiated a program of swimming races for children from 6 to 15.

There will be three divisions of races: beginners, intermediates and advanced. Children may enter the division they are best qualified for.

The program will be held every Saturday, from 11 a.m. to 12 p.m. Awards will be given.

In the next ten years, metropolitan Detroit's population is expected to increase by almost a million people. One reason: the St. Lawrence Seaway, a long-cherished dream, is about to come true.

The Atlantic Ocean is coming to Detroit

Probably by 1960. That's the year the Seaway will bring the Atlantic Ocean to our door. Here are ideas to help you take advantage of new business opportunities.

The dream is limited only by the minds of men! Will your business be in the best possible financial position to take advantage of the growth of this area?

- Bulk materials will be brought in direct from worldwide sources via ocean-going freighters.
- Raw materials from abroad can be economically processed in the areas where they are used.
- Finished products from distant shores will become available in quantity at new low prices!
- Exports can be shipped direct to growing world markets.
- Buyers and tourists from abroad will arrive in increasing numbers.
- Millions of tons of cargo will be routed to the Seaport of Detroit.
- Thousands of new jobs will be created. New people will move here. The city and its suburbs will expand.

Do you envision new directions that your business might take when cargoes from all over the world flow into the great inland Seaport of Detroit?

To help you meet this challenge, the National Bank of Detroit offers you great resources and broad services. Our connections with leading banks throughout Michigan, the nation and the world assure swift and competent handling of all banking business.

Why not come by and discuss opportunities that may benefit your business when the Atlantic Ocean comes to Detroit? Or drop us a line and we'll arrange for you to see one of our officers.

Rides Her Bike Into Car's Path

A nine-year-old child who failed to look both ways was struck down Monday, July 11, in the 700 block on University place.

The child, Elizabeth Crowthers of 790 University place, was not seriously injured. She was treated for minor cuts and abrasions at Bon Secours Hospital.

The accident occurred in front of 781 University. Elizabeth rode in a wide arc out of the driveway. She was hit by a car driven by James Ward of 6710 Ward in Detroit.

Ward works for the Miller

Service Station at 17101 Kercheval. He was on a service call at the time of the mishap. The car, which he was returning to the station for service belonged to Dr. John Lesesne of 526 1/2 St. Clair avenue.

According to the police report, Ward stated that the girl came out so quickly that he did not have time to stop. He was not held responsible.

The dreamer starves today while feeding on tomorrow's hopes.

Convention Held By Fire Chiefs

The Pointe was represented 100 percent during the Fire Chiefs convention held in Port Huron on July 12, 13 and 14, under the sponsorship of the Michigan State Fire Chiefs Association.

During the convention, fire chiefs from Sarnia, Canada, and Upper and Lower Michigan, witnessed a fire demonstration in which an old condemned building, built in the early 1800's, was set a fire five times, and each time the blaze was extinguished by low pressure fog, combined with a minimum of water.

The most water used at any one time amounted to about 18 gallons.

Following the fifth fire, the building was allowed to burn to the ground, under the supervision of the local fire department, which kept the fire from spreading to other buildings and utility poles.

On the last day of the convention, all the chiefs were the guests of the Sarnia Fire Department and were conducted on a tour of oil refineries and rubber plants in that city.

Representing the Pointes were Park Fire Chief George De Causin, City Commissioner of Public Safety John Mazer and City Chief Thomas Trombly and City Fire Capt. Harold Rivard, Woods Lt. Donald Coats, Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason, Shores Chief Fred Düemling and Shores Asst. Chief Elmer Gabriel.

Chiefs Announce New Safety Plan

The Chiefs of Police today announced that the Grosse Pointe Police Departments are adopting the official "Increased Officer-Violator Contact Plan" developed by the Safety and Traffic Committee of the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police.

This plan is being launched as a part of the nation-wide Slow Down and Live program. All motorists are aware of this plan to save lives and must expect to be stopped even more frequently for the violations which cause accidents.

According to the Chiefs, the plan calls for officers to stop any motorist they see committing a hazardous type of moving violation even to a very minor degree. "Stopping motorists for less serious violations will help these same motorists who now commit minor violations from committing more serious ones later," they added.

In conclusion, it was pointed out, "A motorist who is stopped for a minor violation of a hazardous type of moving violation, and is given a courteous warning instead of going to court and paying a fine, should realize that the police are really doing him an important favor. This warning stop may, because it is a reminder to drive safely, save that motorist's life, a life he might well lose if he were to think he could get by with minor degrees of violations and begin to commit more serious ones."

"Naturally," the Chiefs added, "this warning plan will not apply to motorists committing violations to a degree that is immediately dangerous, they will be ticketed and sent to court in the regular way."

City Tightens Water Use Ban

In a further attempt to alleviate the serious water shortage problem in the City of Grosse Pointe, Mayor Parker and the city council last night ordered further restrictions under the provisions of Ordinance No. 73, Regulations for Water Use.

The new edict forbids the use of water for lawn sprinkling from 7 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock in the evening, and no sprinkling will be permitted on any day between these hours.

Water use in air conditioning units will be determined by the control of inside temperature established at not to exceed ten degrees lower than outside temperature.

These amended regulations are to become effective Thursday, July 21, 1955.

Completing Plans for Fair

FRANK KINSORA, left, 1175 Anita avenue, Grosse Pointe Woods, veteran member of the Michigan State Fair Board of Managers, is busy assisting in the management of this year's State Fair to be held in Detroit September 2 through 11. Mr. Kinsora is chairman of the Community Relations Committee which has jurisdiction over labor problems, advertising and publicity and community relations. He is also a member of the Entertainment Committee which controls the coliseum and grandstand entertainment, the band shell and carnival. DONALD L. SWANSON, State Fair general manager, believes this year's event will be the most successful ever held from both the viewpoint of type of exhibits and attendance.

School Bond Support Asked By Harper Woods Residents

An open letter to parents of the Harper Woods School District has been received by the NEWS, with a request that it be printed to enlist support for the proposed school bond issue which will be voted upon on August 11.

The letter is signed by the Parents Club of Harper Woods High School, the Beacon Parent-Teachers Association and the Tyrone Parent-Teachers Association.

The letter follows in full. We are writing this letter not only as parents interested in our own children, but as citizens interested in the good of our neighbors' children and betterment of our community.

We are all striving to see that our children and our neighbors' children have the best facilities available to give them the tools for a good education so that they in turn can take their proper places in society. With these tools they will be able to do the good job that their fathers and mothers are doing today.

The purpose of this letter is to review briefly each of the proposals the residents of Harper Woods School District will have an opportunity to vote upon on August 11th. They are:

1. A complete — modern Junior High Addition.
2. Funds to meet next year's operational needs.

It appears that every person we have talked to or visited with, recognizes the need for the additional classrooms proposed in this addition. With the increasing birth rate and the number of children born immediately after World War II our entire facilities will soon be overtaxed to the point that teachers will no longer be teaching, but only serving as "Educated Disciplinary."

Today over 50 per cent of the classrooms in the present Harper Woods High School are taken up by seventh and eighth grade students. Despite the fact that surrounding suburban areas, like us, are growing tremendously even the City of Detroit has seen the need for spending 70 million dollars for new Junior Highs. This need is not only pressing in Harper Woods, but in every part of the United States.

The problem is so great that President Eisenhower has ordered a complete study of the needs of the school systems in all parts of the country. But, at the last election this proposal was defeated. WHY? Many voters felt that there was no need for the fringes or the window dressing. We are speaking about the swimming pool and the auditorium and the cafeteria.

Are these extras important? Yes! A growing child needs recreation and a type that will not only give him fun out of the sport, but will build his body and above all instill in him the spirit and will to do better than the next man, the competitive reserve that every sport gives to make him better prepared for citizenship.

Most important, in this case of the swimming pool, it provides him with the tools for water safety. As terrible and destructive as the automobile deaths are in Michigan (you can check the past 4th of July records, or as late as July 10th) you'll find that death by drowning was equally as great and as tragic as death by automobile. Yet, there is the possibility that by voting "NO" we plan to someday lift our son or daughter, or neighbor's child, from the deep because we failed to give them the benefit of water safety instructions and facilities at home.

This pool is so designed that it could readily be used during the summer months and it will be available to all ages and all groups. This is a public facility supported by the public. Today, the City Recreation Department and little leagues utilizes the entire playground and school facilities. The proposed pool will make the recreation program almost complete in our community.

Is the auditorium necessary? Where is confidence in a child built? When he partakes in a play or program of some sort and appears before YOU the public! Confidence builds leaders. Here is the testing ground and the area in which we can do so much to help our children.

Here a child gains the confidence to appear before a group of people and express himself without fear or hesitation. Here, he has a chance to act the part he knows best. The largest corporations in America spend thousands and thousands of dollars annually to teach their young executives and old ones, too, how to express themselves effectively before a group of people.

Your child will have a head start or will be on equal ground with the next when it comes time for a promotion or advancement if he has the foundation and facilities to learn during his Junior High and High School days.

Franklin D. Roosevelt was no slouch when it came to his "Fire-side Chats." Four consecutive times he sold the American people — will your child be able to sell himself before an employer just once? And this facility will be made available to all groups of all ages in the community.

Look around you. Where in Harper Woods can you bring a distinguished speaker, musician, actor or any worthwhile entertainment? This is the place! The time to build it is NOW!

Next week we want to review with you the need for the cafeteria, library and Proposal No. 2.

Car Jumps Curb; Rams Into Tree

Robert Hepple of 735 Washington road was ticketed for not having his car under control when he jumped the curb and struck a tree in front of 794 Washington Saturday, July 16.

According to the police report there was no cause for the collision. No one was hurt.

Swim Classes Offered by City

The life guards at the city park in Grosse Pointe are now enrolling for new free classes in swimming instruction to be started Monday, August 1 and continue throughout several weeks. Persons interested, any age from six years and up, may enroll for these classes at the park check-room.

In line with the free lessons being given during the month of July these new classes will include:

Beginners Class (for those who can swim less than 20 feet).

Swimmers Class (for those who can swim more than 20 feet).

Advanced Class (for those who can swim 50 or more feet, and who are interested in more advanced work in strokes, kicks, breathing, and diving).

Junior Life Saving Class (for those interested in qualifying for Junior Red Cross Life Saving — must be at least 12 years of age or in seventh grade to enroll, plus being a good swimmer).

Senior Life Saving Class (for those interested in qualifying for Senior Red Cross Life Saving — must be at least 16 years of age or in eleventh grade to enroll, plus being a good swimmer).

Adult Swimming Class (for adults who wish to learn to swim and/or who wish to improve their swimming).

All lessons are free and groups will meet two or more times a week depending upon the class. For full particulars as to times, days of the week, etc., inquire at the park checkroom, where enrollments are being taken now.

Adult instruction will be arranged either on a class basis or individually to suit the convenience of those interested. Adults interested in free instruction should inquire at the checkroom, or from guards Jesse Lowther or Wayne VanZandt.

Park guards now instructing present classes are: Bill Marsden, Dick Heglin, George Swindlehurst, Judd Emerson, Jesse Lowther and Miss Rose Ann Blondell.

The department of geography will be placed in the division of social science in the School of Science and Arts, and the department of geology will remain in the division of mathematical and physical science.

WONDER WHY

At an after dinner speech most people can figure out what the subject is, but not the object.

Peppet's Store To Close Doors

Grosse Pointe is losing one of its highly prized businesses late this month when Peppet's, Inc., will close its doors in retirement.

The Peppets are not unlike another famous establishment, the late firm of Tuttle and Clark, which was located where the Jacobson store now stands and who discontinued business rather than to sell to new owners who might not maintain the same cherished business ideals.

The Peppets, Mrs. Helen and her daughter, Louise, have likewise elected to close out and terminate the business which they have operated here continuously since 1940.

Probably the first truly beautiful display window in the up-and-coming Grosse Pointe shopping center, known as the village, was that of the Peppet store. It seemed, too, that the displays grew in beauty with the passing years, for the Peppets knew how to blend delicate shades, and their fine linens lent much to the task.

After 10 years in "The Village," the present store, at 102 Kercheval on the hill in the Farms, was opened. The charm and beauty of this shop, where the carpeting is in one great seamless piece, and dyed to Mrs. Peppet's own specification, will be remembered by the host of old and new Grosse Pointers whose patronage made the years sufficiently profitable to make retirement possible for its owners.

When that moment comes for giving the lock its final turn, closing the Peppet's store forever, then Grosse Pointe will sustain a great loss. This comes at a time when "The Village" and "The Hill" are surging ahead as one of the finest shopping areas in Greater Detroit.

Mrs. Peppet asked that her thanks and gratitude be expressed "to all the lovely families who make Grosse Pointe the splendid community it is."

DeBates Meat Market In New Mack Location

R. DeBates, whose meat market was long situated in the Davidson Grocery Store in "The Village," is announcing his new location at 19521 Mack, next to Cox and Baker's offices, in the Woods.

Joining Mr. DeBates in the new location is Johnny Mac, who was formerly located on East Warren at Yorkshire.

DeBates is well known for his choice meats and Mac for his fine poultry. A complete order department has been installed and, for the benefit of old customers, the firm's new phone number is TUxedo 1-6000. They will deliver.

AT SEA (FHTNC)—With the first Midshipman Practice Squadron of 1955, Naval Academy Midn. 3/c ERIC G. MANSFIELD, JR., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eric G. Mansfield of 1369 Three Mile drive, Grosse Pointe, Mich. loads an anti-aircraft gun aboard the escort destroyer USS Basilone.

More than 3,000 NROTC and Naval Academy Midshipmen left Norfolk, Va., June 6 aboard 18 ships of the Atlantic Fleet for a two-month cruise. They are undergoing practical training in shipboard life and duties.

The Midshipmen are afforded the opportunity of visiting interesting and historical sights during scheduled stops at ports in Spain and England.

Gunnery practice at Guantanamo Bay, Cuba, will climax the cruise before returning to Norfolk August 2.

Letter to Ike Brings Reply

Martha Horsch, 7, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Horsch of 19250 Linville, likes the looks of President Eisenhower and wrote him several weeks ago that she would like to visit him when she goes to Washington, with her parents and sister.

Her letter informed the President that she was coming and that she was looking forward to seeing him.

Her father, she said, was a lieutenant commander in the Navy during World War II, and stationed in Washington, D. C. He was in charge of steel purchasing. At present he is a commander in the active Naval Reserve and is on the staff of the Naval Armory on E. Jefferson.

She received a return letter from the White House, on White House stationery, from the President's secretary, Bernard Shanley, informing her of the visiting hours for the White House. However, it was said, due to the tremendous pressure of state business and because the President must meet important dignitaries, it will be impossible for Martha to meet the Chief Executive personally.

The young girl is extremely proud that she received an answer to her letter.

The Horsch's have another daughter, Merrie, 10, who was born in the nation's capitol, while her father and mother were there. The family expects to make a visit to Washington soon.

Family Service Society Helps Pointe Families

The Family Service Society of Metropolitan Detroit, a Torch Drive agency, has helped 40 Grosse Pointe families toward continued happiness during the past year.

Figures compiled by the United Community Services, of which Family Service is a member, disclosed the number of Grosse Pointe families who sought help from the society during 1954.

The purpose of the Family Service Society is the development of wholesome family life. It provides a service of social casework treatment for those needing this help with problems of personal or social adjustment. Such problems may be reflected in marriage or family relationships. This social casework program includes service to children, adolescents with their parents, and other adults, single or married.

The Society also studies personal family and relationship problems as revealed in agency practice, with the purpose of improving procedures in treatment of such cases. It offers community leadership in group discussion in the understanding of the essentials of wholesome family living.

Conder to Help In Torch Drive

The appointment of Robert W. Conder as co-chairman of the 1955 Torch Drive major industrial unit was announced by chairman Walker A. Williams.

Conder, of 315 Touraine, Grosse Pointe Farms, is vice president of the Chrysler Corporation.

He was co-chairman of the major industrial unit during last year's drive.

The major industrial unit supervises donations from 250 Detroit firms with more than 200 employees.

Corporate and employe gifts from major industries accounted for more than half of the $14,508,000 raised last year for the support of 150 Metropolitan Detroit health and community services.

This year's "Give Once for All" drive will be held October 18 through November 10.

Offer Reward for Arrest Of Sinkers of Speed Boats

Interested parties have offered a reward for information leading to the arrest of the person or persons responsible for the theft, damaging, and sinking of two speed boats at the City's Municipal Park.

City Police Chief Thomas Trombly disclosed that one of the boats belonging to Robert K. Lewis of 3485 Corville, Detroit, was stolen from a boat harbor in St. Clair Shores sometime after 7 a.m. Saturday, July 9.

At about 4 a.m. Sunday, the following day, Joseph Johanson of 20321 Salisbury, St. Clair Shores, watchman at the City Park, heard a noise at the dock and ran toward the sound. He arrived at the scene in time to notice what appeared to be three boys beating a hasty retreat from a boat moored at the dock.

The noise he had heard was the stolen boat ramming into one belonging to Philip Alef of 5770 Old Town, Detroit, which was moored.

The impact tore jagged holes in both boats. The one belonging to Alef sank in the harbor, and the other drifted about 150 feet from the harbor before it sank. Both boats are valued at about $2,500 apiece, Chief Trombly said.

Anyone having information about the persons involved, should contact either the Chief, or City Det. Lt. Teetaert in person, or call TU 5-2950, and relay the information to any City police officer.

Election Laws Undergo Changes

Many important changes in the State election laws will be in effect when Michigan voters go to the polls next year.

There no longer will be a separate ballot for President of the United States. The presidential ballot will be combined with the State ballot for the first time since 1937.

Among other major new provisions of the new election code are the following:

All communities now must use written applications from a voter for a ballot. Previously, communities of less than 5,000 population were not required to use written applications.

A majority of the members of the election board must be present at all times, compared with the previous requirement that three be present.

Election inspectors must submit a written application before appointment, stating political affiliation, education, experience, and other information.

Challengers must now be registered electors of the city or township in which they act, and candidates cannot act as challengers.

Ballots no longer will be initiated by election inspectors.

County clerks must have their offices open for election purposes all day on election day and to remain open until all returns are in. Copies of all returns must be made available to the press and other interested persons.

Paper ballot precincts are limited in size to 800 registered voters and machine precincts to 1,400, with one machine provided for each 600 registered voters. Township caucuses must be held on the same day as primary elections.

State party conventions can be held as late as September 1 in 1956.

Anyone circulating election petitions must state his full address, including street and number or rural route.

Absent voters ballots must be voted on voting machines immediately after the polls close and the last voter has cast his ballot.

Votes cast for a deceased candidate shall not be counted.

Farms Fire Loss $500 During June

Fire loss in the Farms for the month of June amounted to $500 in three residential fires, according to a report submitted to the Farms council on Monday, July 18, by Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason.

The loss represented less than 10 percent of the value of the buildings which had caught fire and which are valued at $5,500. There were no building contents involved in any of the fires.

It was disclosed that the fire department had answered 26 calls during the month, 10 of which were for other types of fires, with $300 damage caused; 11 involved the emergency use of the utility truck and five emergencies with the ambulance.

There was one call made to an outside community for aid in extinguishing a fire; and only one false alarm turned in.

There were no sick leaves taken, but members of the department took a total of 61 vacation days.

What a man sows he shall reap—unless perhaps he happens to be an amateur gardener.

Farms Submits Police Report

A June report submitted by Farms Police Chief Walter R. Hoyt, to the Farms Council on Monday, July 18, disclosed that a total of 31 accidents occurred during the month, resulting in $3,545 in property damages and four personal injuries.

The report also showed that various violations brought in fines and costs amounting to $1,353.50.

Total arrests for the month numbered 36, of which 32 were adults and four were juveniles.

The Police Department answered 299 calls for the month of June; recorded 161 complaints; issued 174 drivers licenses; 15 chauffeur licenses; 13 restricted driving licenses and 26 duplicate driving licenses.

Thirteen simple larceny cases resulted in a loss of $175, of which $65 was recovered. There were no grand larceny cases.

There were no breakings and enterings, but $299 was recovered in connection with an April breaking and entering.

Four persons were reported missing and five were recovered, one for Detroit; and four reports of destruction of property, with a loss of $99 recorded.

There were no local auto thefts, but one car was recovered for Marian, O., police; no holdups and no suicides.

Only 15 doors were found open during nightly rounds by police.

DROPS TIMBER ON FINGER

Shores police took William Klingbeil, Jr., of 56 Hawthorne, to Saratoga Hospital on Monday, July 18, when he dropped a four by eight-inch piece of lumber on his index finger, gashing it. Several stitches were applied to the wound.

Students Work At Boys' Camp

About 50 senior and graduate students are learning human relations first-hand this summer at the University of Michigan's Fresh Air Camp on Patterson Lake.

Working as counselors at the camp for underprivileged boys are Alice M. Robertson, 468 Fisher, a senior in the College of Literature, Science, and the Arts; Jessie H. Smedes, 465 Bourne-mouth road, a graduate student; and Mary L. Stefani, 1035 Berkshire, a senior in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts, all from Grosse Pointe.

Now in its thirty-fifth season, the Fresh Air Camp is a part of the University's Institute for Human Adjustment. Each summer, over 200 boys, aged 7-14, are referred to the Camp by social, school and case work agencies. Here they have a chance for normal group living under healthy conditions.

Find Bar Guilty Of Violation

The Pointe Bar, 15316 East Jefferson has been cited by the Michigan State Liquor Control Commission for the second time in a little over a year. This time a conviction was forthcoming.

In 1954 the Commission brought charges against the Pointe for allegedly serving minors. The case was heard, but no conviction was levied.

On November 29, 1954, the Detroit police picked up four teenagers on a drunk charge. They admitted to being served at the Pointe.

On July 12, 1955 the sentence was levied and sent to the Park police.

For serving minors on November 29, 1954, the Pointe Bar, 15316 East Jefferson avenue will be fined $150 and its license will be suspended for a period of 15 days to become effective August 15.

If owner Francis McManus does not pay the fine, an additional 30 day license suspension will be invoked.

According to Police Chief Arthur Louwers, the delay in sentencing was due to legal complications. "Counsel for the defendant was brought in," Louwers said. "Although I don't know if this was the case in the Pointe hearing, many times the council will obtain postponements of the case to avoid his client being closed down during a holiday period."

Susan Jane Martz Weds Dr. Schmidt

Ceremony Held In St. Paul's On the Lake, Followed by Wedding Breakfast for Families at The Whittier

Susan Jane Martz and Dr. Charles Rudolph Schmidt recited their nuptial vows Saturday-morning at a quiet ceremony in St. Paul's Church on the lake.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur F. Martz of Allard road, wore a ballerina length gown with bodice of chantilly lace and chiffon skirt. Her illusion veil was shoulder-length and extended from a chantilly lace crown. She carried an orchid atop her prayer book.

Mrs. Paul Ameal, the bride's only attendant, was in a blue dotted Swiss frock. Shaded pink shattered carnations formed her colonial bouquet.

Arthur F. Martz Jr., of Benton Harbor, attended as best man. Jack Eaman and Bernard Bleisch seated the wedding guests.

The bridegroom is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Schmidt, who had lived on Ridgmont road.

Breakfast for the wedding party and immediate families followed at the Whittier.

After a honeymoon trip through Connecticut and the East, the couple will make their home on Rosedale avenue.

Spinning Agency Has 30th Birthday

Roife C. Spinning, Inc., Detroit Advertising Agency will celebrate its 30th birthday this week. Established in 1925 by Roife C. Spinning, it is one of the oldest and one of the first fully recognized advertising agencies in Detroit and the Middle West.

The agency has handled a wide range of products in practically every type of market from mail order to industrial. With current billing at a very satisfactory high point—Spinning, Inc., still carries a well balanced diversified group of accounts. The agency was one of the first occupants of the Maccaebes Building where their offices still are maintained. Many of the agency's present accounts have been with Spinning for the full 30 years.

Russ Gregg Signs Up With Chicago

Russ Gregg, former Grosse Pointe, penned his name to a Chicago Cubs baseball contract last week after hitting a robust .350 over the regular season.

Gregg, a righthanded first baseman, was captain of the University of Arizona team. He was voted the most valuable state high school player award in his last two years as a star infielder for Tuscon High School.

Russ signed his contract with Chicago Scout Ray Johnson for $4,000 which is under the bonus rule limit therefore he will report to the Cubs farm team Des Moines, Iowa, club in the Class A Western League before he moves up to the majors.

Mike Wallace Given Contract

Mike Wallace, former Grosse Pointe High graduate and currently attending Michigan State University, was signed by the Philadelphia Phillies of the National league to a big league contract.

Wallace, a right hander, who posted a perfect pitching record for the Spartans in Big Ten competition this spring, was signed by scout C. A. Whelpley and will report to spring training next year and then hurl for the Phillies farm club, Three Rivers, Quebec, in the Provincial League. Whelpley was the same scout who signed the Phillies star pitcher Robin Roberts out of Michigan State.

There was no bonus connected with the signing for the express purpose of allowing Mike to finish his college education. His mother and dad, who live on Bedford, wouldn't have it any other way.

Leo James Fitzpatrick, II To Marry Cleveland Girl

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Clark Leonard, of Cleveland Heights, O., and formerly of Grosse Pointe, have announced the betrothal of their daughter, Elizabeth Clark Leonard, to Leo James Fitzpatrick II, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Fitzpatrick of Cloverly road.

The bride-elect was graduated from Hathaway Brown School in Shaker Heights, O., and attended Simmons College in Boston. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rust Pierce of Beverly road and Harry N. Leonard, of Detroit. She made her debut here in 1953.

Betrothal Told On West Coast

From Hollister, Calif., comes the announcement that Leona Libby and James Sterling Sanford are engaged. The troth was revealed by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Archer Libby.

Leona, a biologist, was graduated from Santa Fe State College and is a member of Beta Sigma Phi.

Jim, who attended Alma College, has just been released after serving four years in the Navy. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford of Hillcrest road, expect him home around Aug. 1.

The bride-elect plans a trip here later this summer to visit her fiance's parents.

Driver Injured In 3-Car Crash

A three car, end-to-end pileup occurred in the City at Washington and Jefferson on Saturday, July 16.

Involved were: Arthur Holke of 19035 Ash, East Detroit; Andy Benoot, 1349 Maryland; and David Evans, 3979 Chalmers, Detroit. All were traveling east on Jefferson.

Holke stopped to turn left onto Washington. Benoot made it, but Evans did not. He plowed into the rear of Benoot, shoving him into Holke.

Considerable damage was done to all three cars. They had to be towed away. Benoot was injured and treated at Bon Secours for a lacerated right arm.

Evans was ticketed for not having his car under control causing an accident.

Pavement Level Raised by Heat

The pavement at the south section of Fisher and Kercheval has expanded and raised several inches above the normal level, according to Grosse Pointe City Clerk Norbert Neff.

He stated that repairs will be effected as soon as possible. The pavement buckling was brought about as the result of the recent heat.

STACKED DECK sharp is very apt to dull one's confidence in humanity.

Offical Headaches

The headaches that accompany the control of those using the Pointe's lakefront parks, were given a pretty thorough airing at the Monday night council meeting of the City of Grosse Pointe.

Requests for park passes from non-residents and general mooching on the part of many of the residents are but a portion of the grief that comes to city officials and the police.

The difficulty being encountered in controlling the crowds that are flocking to the City's park is testimony to the success of the great improvement and expansion program that is nearing completion there.

The municipally-owned parks are intended for the use of the residents. Their ever-increasing popularity has put a tremendous amount of pressure on the officials and action is required to cut down the number of those using the sites.

Councilman Kenneth Bergmann, chairman of the City's park and recreation committee, brought up the subject and before the discussion was ended practically every councilman and official at the meeting had thrown light on new facets of the situation.

On the Fourth of July, so many persons swarmed to the City's park that the greatly enlarged off-street parking areas were gorged and adjacent private property had to be used. A check was taken of license numbers and it was found that a very large percentage of the cars weren't owned by Pointe residents.

The officials are constant recipients of requests from special groups, such as church organizations and scout troops, for use of the parks for special occasions.

Every effort is made to be cooperative with such organizations, but it becomes difficult when the residents complain that their children can't get on the swings and that the wading pool is over-crowded.

It was revealed that one woman who runs a nursery school has been using the City's park five days a week, bringing as many as 50 to 60 children. The officials have requested a list of the names of the children, so they can check the number of City residents among them.

The head of the school will be informed that she can use the City park but one day a week and advised to contact the heads of the other four Pointe municipalities to see if she can't make the same arrangements with them.

Requests for season passes to the parks come from many sources. Businesses located in the municipality would like to have them issued to all their employees.

Heads of firms which have done work for the City, former residents who have moved to neighboring communities, married children of residents who are themselves no longer living in the Pointe, all would like the privilege of using the recreation site.

Among the hardest requests to turn down are those from property owners who pay taxes here but are not actually residents. These, too, have to be refused, to the accompaniment of many loud squawks.

Former officials often request passes for friends who are not residents. Tact is required here, but also firmness.

There is also the matter of officials of other municipalities, and of the state and county, department heads of the utilities companies, etc., all of whom work with the local officials year in and year out and are most helpful in many ways.

It is a big problem and one which causes much concern to the officials. They are anxious to make certain that the lakefront parks provide a maximum of enjoyment to those entitled to use them. Strict control measures are necessary and they ask the cooperation of the residents in living up to the spirit of the rules which govern the use of pier passes.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"Two chambers has the heart, Wherein dwell Joy and Sorrow; When Joy awakes in one, Then slumbers sorrow in the other. O Joy, take care! Speak softly, Lest you awaken sorrow." (Herman Neuman)

Have you ever thought what little attention is paid to the prattling of a small child? Unless the youngster comes crying with a problem... his or her conversation goes in one ear of the parents and out the other.

We heard something the other day that makes us wonder if the kids don't notice this and perhaps resent it. A little seven-year-old girl came downstairs in the morning and walked into the kitchen all smiles and as bright looking as a shiny penny.

We can't give a credit line for the following because we heard it on the radio the other night... after the program had been under way. A new (to us) type of panhandler story instead of the usual one of the bum asking for a dime for a cup of coffee.

This was passed on to us by a reader. One fine day, a lady living in a swank apartment, happens to be in the hall when her next door neighbor is in the process of moving out.

"Folksy" people have always been a weakness with us... therefore we are entranced with the following true episode. A middle-aged couple, who are childless... had as a house guest a few weeks ago... Mister's mother... a very proper and dignified old lady from the East.

They have on the property, an ancient night watchman who hails from the South and is as voluble a soul as one could meet. He loves to chat with everyone and more often than not, butts in on any conversation going on if the spirit so moves him.

Well, one night when all was quiet on the Lake Shore front, our hero was in the process of walking his mother to the little house, when suddenly the watchman appeared. They all said their "good evenings"... then the watchman added: "You closing up for the night now, Mr. So-and-so?"

A new maid in an old house was told on her first evening on duty that the master and mistress would each have a drink before dinner... and the lady of the house added: "A scotch and a gin on the rocks."

Now we have seen and heard of EVERYTHING! There is a pretty little Miss in the Pointe who chews gum to match her frocks! Don't ask us where or how she gets it but we heard about it... so when we ran into her on the street one day... chewing... we asked to see it.

Change in SS. Helps Widow

An automobile worker, Kenneth Matteson, died in October, 1944, leaving a widow, Jeanette, and two minor children, one 14 and the other 16. He had been working for the 17 months before his death and had six quarters of coverage.

Safety hints from the Red Cross WATER is a good FRIEND but a deadly ENEMY

"DUCKING" a friend under water may seem like a wonderful idea at the time, but it is nevertheless a dangerous practice. When on or in the water, resist the impulse to play unexpected practical jokes, says Red Cross Water Safety Service.

New Peaks Hit By G. M. Sales

Retail sales of both new and used General Motors passenger cars in the United States during the first six months of 1955 were by far the highest for any half-year in GM history.

The record six-month sales totals by GM dealers were 1,946,906 new cars and 2,510,980 used cars.

GM's sales pace was continuing to quicken as the six months ended, and retail deliveries during the final 10 days of June reached an all-time high for a 10-day period, Mr. Curtice reported.

Figures for the month of June also showed that GM passenger car sales during the entire month were the highest for any June in history. Sales during the second quarter of 1955 set a new record for any quarter.

Every GM passenger car division—Chevrolet, Pontiac, Oldsmobile, Buick, and Cadillac—posted new retail sales records for both new and used cars during the first six months of 1955, and for used cars during the last 10 days of June, the entire month

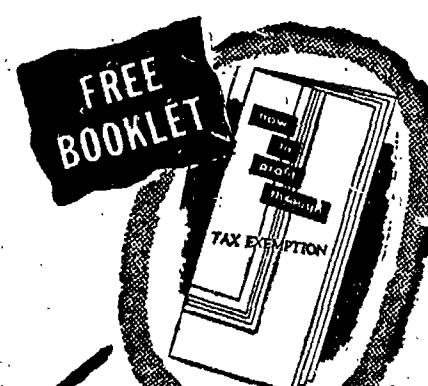

Why Your Back Aches

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may well benefit by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond.

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone.

First practice for all-stars and alternates will be held July 22, 5:30 p.m., Lakefront Park. One team from Algonac, St. Clair, Grosse Pointe Woods and two from Hamtramck will compete for the district championship, to be played July 28, 29, 30. Pairings were drawn at a meeting in Hamtramck July 15 and the games are scheduled as follows:

July 28, St. Clair vs. Algonac at Algonac.
July 29, winner of St. Clair vs. Algonac game will then play Grosse Pointe Woods Champs at Ghesquiere Park at 6 p.m.
Hamtramck 1 vs. Hamtramck 2 at Hamtramck.
Should the Grosse Pointe Woods All-Stars win their game on the 29th, the District championship game will be played at the Woods Ghesquiere Park July 30 at 2 p.m. The winner of the Hamtramck series will provide the opposition.

The District winner will compete in the State Tournament to be held August 4, 5 and 6 at the Dow Chemical Stadium in Midland, Mich. All levels of tournament play are on the basis of elimination with one loss.

Fathers, Sons, To Crew Boat

Three fathers and sons will crew Joseph T. Sinclair's ketch, "Great Bear" to Mackinac this weekend. Joe Sinclair, who enters Grosse Pointe High school this fall, will accompany his father. Kenneth Oxley and his son, Kenny, a St. Paul High School senior, and Franklin Miller and son, Mickey, complete the father-son trio. Mickey is a senior at Michigan State University.

Other crew members are George Fligo, William Spinning, Dan Sullivan, Rusty Brown and Paul Stein. Mrs. Spinning, of Birmingham, and Mrs. Oxley are flying up to stay at the Chippewa Hotel and will cruise back on the boat with their husbands. Mrs. Miller and her daughter, Pat, are driving up and the family will return home together.

Mr. Sinclair will bring the "Great Bear" back in time for the August 6 celebration of Mrs. Sinclair's birthday at the Detroit Yacht Club.

The Sinclairs will be party hosts to the Joseph C. Smiths, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Herron, Mr. and Mrs. William P. Connolly and the George Connellys, of Birmingham. Mrs. Sinclair and Mrs. Connolly will make it a joint birthday celebration, as they have for the past 25 years.

Simians' Play Great Success

Simians presented their first play of the summer season last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday nights at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

The play, Garson Kanin's "Born Yesterday," was presented on an apron stage which projects out into the audience. Located on the back lawn of the War Memorial the set was remarkably well-built.

The play was very well-cast and the actors did an exceptionally good job. The most striking thing about the performance was the way in which the illusion of reality, so necessary to all plays, was maintained in spite of such outdoor distractions as boats, airplanes and bugs.

Simians will meet next Monday evening at the central branch of the Grosse Pointe Public Library at 8 o'clock. New members will be welcome.

Simian's next play will be "Angel Street," which is to be presented on August 11, 12, and 13 at the War Memorial Center.

Phalen Compiles Envious Record

The Fourth of July gave Cliff "Cap" Phalen more than one reason to celebrate. That was the day he took over the lead in The Lake St. Clair Luder Fleet Sunday series.

On the following Sunday, Cliff, sailing with his dad and sister, boosted his lead to a comfortable 925 points in a comfortable margin over second place Lodge Mitchell with 893 and third place Pete Stroh who has 862. Cliff has come up the hard way in the red hot Luder fleet and has done a remarkable job, as every one of the Luder skippers will attest.

The flying Phalen will be forced to rest on his laurels for the next six weeks while he takes a tour of duty aboard a Navy destroyer which will make port at Cuba and Bermuda during the cruise. Phalen could very well still be leading the fleet on his return, but if he isn't, his record of 3 firsts, 2 seconds, one third and one fourth in seven races sailed to, date

Four Auto Accidents Injure One; Do but Slight Damage

Four accidents in the Park last week caused little damage and only one person was sent to the hospital for minor cuts and bruises, according to police reports.

Injured was John Nabra of 1377 Audubon in a two car collision at Whittier and Jefferson Monday, July 11.

Nabra was waiting to turn right onto Whittier when a car driven by Douglas Dykeman of 22535 Colony in St. Clair Shore plowed into the rear of him.

He was taken to Bon Secours for treatment of cuts and abrasions and held temporarily for x-rays.

A stop sign at the corner of Wayburn and St. Paul was leveled when Jerome Haines, attempting a left turn from St. Paul onto Wayburn, lost control of his car. Though nothing out of the ordinary was brought out at the investigation at the scene of the accident, later the same afternoon, Wednesday, July 13, a report phoned in by a concerned party threw new light on the incident.

Miss Marie Meyers of 1140 Hubbard in Detroit, a passenger in Haines' car later that afternoon, said he was taken sick while driving in Detroit. She said that the Detroit police refused help and asked the Park to assist.

The subsequent investigation proved Haines, who lives at 1069 Wayburn, was suffering from a heart condition. Though Haines only alluded to feeling a little ill at the time of the Park accident, it is believed he might have blacked out causing the loss of control of the car.

Haines, who admitted to living alone during the summer months while his wife vacationed in the north, said he had been aware of his condition for almost a year. He told police that he occasionally suffered from periods of dizziness and fainting. It was learned from neighbors that he had been hospitalized for his condition on occasion.

Haines refused medical attention. A further investigation will be carried on by the Park police to determine whether Haines is in good enough health to be allowed a driver's license.

That same day, Wednesday, July 13, a peculiar type of accident occurred in the 850 block on Westchester.

Mrs. Jane A. Warrick of 853 Westchester was literally given the brush off. She was struck by one of the Park's huge street sweeping machines.

Mrs. Warrick had just backed out of her drive and pulled to the curb to let the sweeper pass when it nicked her rear fender. The sweeper was backing up at the time of the collision.

The sweeper was driven by Herman Keith, a city employe.

The damage to Mrs. Warrick's car was minor. There was no damage to the sweeper. No tickets were issued when the attending police officer assured Mrs. Warrick the Park would take care of the damage.

A misassumption on the part of one driver caused the fourth accident of the week at Barrington and Jefferson on Thursday, July 14.

Wilfred Robb of 10982 Roxbury in St. Clair Shores was traveling east down Jefferson trailing Norman Coesens of 403 Marlborough, Detroit.

Robb assumed that Coesens was going to turn right onto Barrington. Instead he stopped for the turning light. Robb applied his brakes, but could not stop in time. He was issued a ticket for not having his car under control causing an accident. Neither car had to be towed away and no one was injured.

Another accident was reported but so negligible was the damage that no official report was taken. Both parties had insurance and agreed to take care of the damage.

Mrs. Julius F. E. Huebner Visiting In Washington

Mrs. Julius F. E. Huebner of East Jefferson avenue is visiting her daughter, Adele, in Washington, D.C.

On Friday, they will fly to New York-City for the Saturday wedding of Sally Huebner and William Seager.

Sally is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Huebner of Bloomfield Hills.

Move to Combat Child Fatalities

The Detroit Police Department Traffic Safety Bureau moved this week to combat the sharp rise in child traffic fatalities in the first six months of this year.

Three patrolmen were added to the school section of the Traffic Safety Bureau and a fourth will be assigned to the Bureau before school opens in September. With the added manpower the Bureau will have 15 patrolmen, two sergeants and a lieutenant.

In co-operation with Detroit public and parochial schools, the Bureau conducts traffic safety programs in the schools, supervises the work of the safety patrol boys and trains them in their duties, and does the same with the civilian crossing guards, a group of women who are assigned to intersections to help children cross the street safely.

To correspond with this increase in personnel in the Bureau, there will be a program to increase the number of safety patrol boys and girls in the city's public and parochial schools. Last year nearly 11,000 boys and girls carried out their duties in the safety patrol, the principal one being patrolling street corners and directing children across the streets.

Lieutenant Reynier Staats, in charge of the police department's Traffic Safety Bureau, said that the increase in personnel will enable the Bureau to give more individual attention to the schools and their safety problems.

"This is a critical need now," Staats said, "because child traffic fatalities so far this year have more than doubled. Last year at this time, seven children had been killed. This year 20 children under 15 years old have met death."

"One of the four new men will be assigned to work with the driver education program in the public high schools, while a second will develop bicycle safety programs in the intermediate schools," Staats said. "The other two men will work in public and parochial elementary schools."

"With the addition of the latter two men, we have divided the city into 12 districts instead of 10," he explained. "This will enable us to assign approximately 30 schools to each man instead of 40 or more schools each has been handling. We will thus be able to give much more individual attention and supervision than in the past."

"In the last analysis, however, police officers and school teachers can only accomplish so much to keep children from being struck down in traffic," Staats pointed out. "It is the responsibility of every driver to be especially alert for children and it is the obligation of all parents to instruct their children in how to cross streets safely. Until this is done, Detroit will continue to have more child traffic accidents than it should."

Boat Club Wins Sailing Regatta

A perfect day of sailing was climaxed as the Detroit Boat Club catboat skippers walked off with top honors in the second annual Grosse Pointe Sail Club Regatta staged off the main dock at the Park waterfront pier Saturday, July 16.

The Boat Club amassed 27 points in the team standings on the strength of a 1-2-3 finish by Ted Sedwick, J. B. Smyly and Henry Sullivan. Second team place went to the Detroit Yacht Club with 19 points.

In the K class open to private boats only, Fred Meno III again walked off with the bunting. Finishing second and third were Riney Zeidler and Bud Wellman.

A total of 36 boats beat their way around the windswept six mile course out into Lake St. Clair. The predicted late afternoon squalls failed to materialize, but stiffening winds kept most of the small craft at a sharp heel.

After the race, the visiting skippers were hosted at a buffet luncheon held on the Parks' main pier. The club cruisers of Charles Todd, Elmer Schmidt, Earl Blohm, Fran Miller and Dr. Richard Connelly served for cocktails.

In the absence of Club Commodore George N. Genematis, Vice Commodore Charlie Huber made the awards.

Exchangites Exchange

Best Little League Teams To Meet in World Series

Plans are nearing completion for the first annual Grosse Pointe Little League "World Series", to be held August 1 and 3.

Presidents and officers of the Woods, Farms, City and Park leagues met last week and elected the following to direct this year's tourney, which is expected to become an annual affair:

Tourney director—E. C. Van Tiem, president of the Park's Little League; secretary—Lars Anderson, president of the Woods league; co-treasurers—Ted Grace, president of the City's league, and Al Ghesquiere, vice-president of the City's league.

In the opening games of the one-game knockout series on Monday, August 1 at 6:15 p.m., the Farms' winner at the end of season's play will meet the City's champions on the Neighborhood diamond, while the Woods' champs will play the Park's winners on the Park's Defer School diamond the same evening. The Woods' and Farms' two league champs will play off to determine the lone representative for each city.

Winners of these two games will meet for the Grosse Pointe championship at 6:15 p.m. Wednesday, August 3, at either the Park's Defer field or the Woods' Ghesquiere field. The site will depend on the winner of the Woods-Park contest. If the Woods team captures the first game, the final game will be played on Ghesquiere field. The game will be played at 6:15 p.m.

Club Working For Blood Bank

One of the services sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Woman's Club that is continuing work during the summer months is the Blood Bank.

On June 13 volunteers met at the Chrysler Jefferson plant, where there were 121 successful donors.

The unit met again at the Chrysler Vernor plant on July 13. Those giving their time on that date were Mrs. D. M. Corson, Mrs. C. R. Koester, Mrs. William Rochelle, Mrs. Eric Stetson, Mrs. Alex Kennedy, Mrs. Stetson, Mrs. Alex Kennedy, Mrs. P. B. Hopkins, Mrs. Robt. Verweulen, and Mrs. Mary Chapman.

Warm Weather Boosts Accidents

Summer months invariably witness a peak in traffic fatalities. Most of this rise is in rural, nonpedestrian deaths—the deaths of motor-vehicle drivers and passengers on the open highway. This ghastly seasonal trend can be reversed only by the personal efforts of every vacationist who takes to the open road.

By way of assistance, Gladys M. Wright, president of the Michigan Trucking Association, offers these rules for a safe highway vacation:

1. Have your car checked to be sure it is in condition for the trip. Be sure you have the necessary equipment for changing tires. It's a good idea to have flares or fuses in the car in the event of a breakdown. If you have to stop, get off the traveled portion of the road if at all possible.

2. To avoid dangerous fatigue, don't spend long hours behind the wheel. Allow time for occasional rest stops. Get a good night's sleep each night. Don't mix driving and sightseeing. If you want to see the scenery, stop in a safe place and really enjoy it. Don't become part of it. If you must cover long distances, get an early start and stop early.

3. Get acquainted with the traffic laws of the states through which you expect to travel. The most important regulations to abide by are speed limits, no-passing zone regulations, and school-bus stop laws, which are generally posted on roadside signs. Be a welcome traveler. Respect the right to peace of mind of local residents. Slow down in built-up areas. Stay in line in heavy traffic.

4. Drive with caution on unfamiliar roads. Don't let the open road lull you into a false sense of security. Keep alert. Stay in your lane. In forested areas or in open range, watch for animals on the road. Reduce your speed at the top of a long grade and use your brakes only to keep your speed down. Don't hold them on for long distances.

5. Pack your car safely. Put everything in the trunk if possible. Make sure luggage and vacation gear do not obscure your vision. Pack things where they can't blow around and where they won't be thrown onto the driver or passengers in the event of a sudden stop.

To Study Need for More Jefferson Traffic Lights

Erection of at least one, and possibly two more traffic lights on E. Jefferson avenue in the City of Grosse Pointe, was the subject of considerable discussion at the City council meeting Monday night.

The points being studied for the location of the lights are at Cadieux road and Rivard boulevard.

Clerk Norbert Neff read a letter from Frederick G. Brownell of 16843 E. Jefferson, urging the placing of a light at Cadieux. He cited the difficulty motorists have in trying to get out of that street and onto Jefferson and said many near accidents have been caused by drivers, impatient with the long delay, trying to nose out into moving traffic.

Mr. Brownell also said it was most difficult for pedestrians to cross the street there. He made special reference to passengers getting off buses on the south side of Jefferson, and stressed the inconvenience to nurses and visitors to Bon Secours Hospital, located two blocks north of the busy intersection.

Mr. Neff said the Wayne County Road Commission is making a study of the situation there and that two years ago the commission traffic officials had stated the next light on Jefferson would probably have to be at Cadieux.

Councilman Kenneth Bergmann said that he has been trying for two years to get a traffic report on the situation at E. Jefferson and Rivard, and that he would like to see this cleared up at the same time.

While the bank's new off-street parking lot and the creation of new parking space at the city's lakefront park, have greatly relieved the danger at this corner, he feels there is still need for a light there.

The traffic committee was asked to make a study of both locations immediately and come in with a recommendation as soon as possible.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerhorn

PARIS, July 21: Before we left home this Summer, it seemed we did nothing but write of Pointers bound for vacations in Europe . . . but after a fortnight in Paris we have still to spot any "home folks" . . . We have lunched with Madame Pierre Couil who, though she now lives in the Pointe and teaches French at the Convent on the Lake Shore, is really a native Frenchwoman . . . We have spent the week-end with former Pointers Major and Mrs. Don Schilling at their villa beside the Marne at La Varenne, outside of Paris . . . The hundreds of others we sent winging over the Atlantic have disappeared . . . Or else we miss them because they haven't the fortune to be in possession of that treasured list supplied us by Phil and Patsy Van Dusen which was compiled during their Paris years . . . And it is augmented by Mrs. Harold B. Tyree's French gems (emphasis on Les Ecoles de Trois Gourmandes, a cooking school superior to this city's Cordon Bleu) . . .

A La Grenouille

In addition to the very chic restaurants, those great ones accorded four knives and forks AND three stars by Guide Michelin—French counterpart of AAA advice for travelers or the Duncan Hines' seal of approval on hotels and restaurants—the Van Dusen list includes quaint and native haunts they discovered . . . Thus with it as our guide, we found ourselves at a la Grenouille one balmy evening last week . . . Our group the only Americans in the jam-packed little restaurant on Rue des Grands Augustins over on the left bank . . . We sat at a long table shared by French and were given a pair of opera glasses to read the menu written on a small blackboard across the room . . . Walls were decorated with old prints . . . One of a philosopher who looked for all the world like Emmett Kelly . . . Another of "The Lost Travellers" who looked like all Americans when they are a block away from the American Express over here . . . There were bright posters announcing the bull fights in Madrid . . . and overhead hung wrought iron chandeliers and garlands of tiny red peppers . . .

Beaux Arts Ball

We were peacefully eating our frog legs provencale when it happened, (after all, the Van Dusens' list warned us to be ready for anything at a la Grenouille, made to the point of anarchy) . . . It just happened that our visit fell on the night of the famous Beaux Arts Ball . . . and the students took over the Left Bank . . . They paraded through the restaurant in various states of undress as called for by their costumes . . . Their bodies were stained red, or green, or purple . . . They quaffed wine at all tables and helped themselves to food from any plate . . . The patron, the chef and all the guests welcomed them with open arms and set us to comparing what would have happened had all this taken place at a restaurant at home . . . Food at a la Grenouille is excellent . . . and when we left we were given miniature green iron frogs, a souvenir of the evening.

Visits Daughter in Paris

We've been back to La Cremellaire, of course . . . a pet of Jack Navin's and Bob Burckhalter's . . . and when YOU dine there, we hope you look overhead to the arrangement of mirrors which capture color of wine and food, the deft-

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Henkel Honeymooning in Bermuda Following Ceremony On Saturday In Christ Church

Honeymooning in Bermuda are Mr. and Mrs. Milton Henkel who recited their marriage vows Saturday afternoon in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe.

Before her marriage Mrs. Henkel was Julienne Bowen Chapman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Goodman Chapman of Provencal road. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henkel of Berkshire road.

Alencon Lace outlined the portrait neckline of the bride's gown which had tiny cap sleeves, fitted basque waistline and full skirt falling to a chapel length train. The veil of heirloom lace extended from a small cap and she carried amazon lilies, stephanotis and ivy.

Nancy Chapman served as maid of honor and Mrs. Edward Henkel Jr. was honor matron. Bridesmaids were Ann Higbie and Carolyn Clark, of Metamora; Charlotte Moller, of Wellesley Hills, Mass., and Bobette Johnstone, of Stonington, Conn.

The six attendants were identically attired in ballerina length frocks of blue embroidered organdy, short white gloves and halo headpieces. Their flowers were bachelor buttons and ivy.

Edward Henkel Jr. was best man for his brother. Ushers included John F. DeHayes, William G. Shearman, of Jamestown, N. Y., Gari M. Stroh Jr., Charles B. Murphy and Richard D. Robbins.

For the wedding and reception in the Chapmans' garden, the bride's mother chose a blue chiffon dress appliqued in white organdy and Mrs. Henkel wore a blue organza gown.

Northern Spots Lure Pointers

Mr. and Mrs. Emmet E. Tracy of Kerby road are at their Harbor Point cottage for the season. They recently hosted a cocktail party for the Stephen M. DuBruls of Sunningdale drive and the Robert Gerwins, of Cincinnati.

The shores of Little Traverse Bay are popular with many other Pointers. Mr. and Mrs. Sherman J. FitzSimons of Stephens road had as their guests the W. Dean Robinsons of Provencal road and the C. Thorne Murphys, of Farmington.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hahn of Rivard boulevard have been vacationing at the Harbor Point Clubhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Scherer of Lake Shore road tied up in the harbor aboard their cruiser, Capsule III.

The Charles A. Gallarnos of Whittier road, now settled in their Walloon Lake summer home, had as recent dinner party guests Mrs. Donald W. Droll of Provencal road, Mrs. Frank M. Hydon of Lincoln road, and the Clyde D. LaMeets of Lakeland avenue.

The junior Alfred R. Glancys of Lake Shore road and Frederick S. Fords of Renaud road are also summering in Harbor Point cottages.

Peggy Hughes to Wed Charles L. Taylor

Ceremony to Be Held in Memorial Church on September 17, With Reception to Follow at Detroit Boat Club

Mary Margaret Hughes and Charles L. Taylor will exchange nuptial vows September 17 at a 4 o'clock service at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. A reception at the Detroit Boat Club will follow the wedding.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Hughes of Trombley road. Her prospective husband is the son of Harmon Taylor of Gobles, Mich., and the late Mrs. Taylor.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick A. Hughes of Trombley road. Her prospective husband is the son of Harmon Taylor of Gobles, Mich., and the late Mrs. Taylor.

Peggy's three sisters, Mrs. John H. Longley, of Birmingham, Mrs. John B. Bowers of Neff road, and Mrs. David D. Henritze, of Atlanta, Ga., are to be her wedding attendants. They will draw straws at the September 16 rehearsal dinner to determine which sister is to be matron of honor.

Hosts for the rehearsal dinner will be the bride-elect's three brothers-in-law and sisters, and her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Hughes.

Charles has asked Judge Robert Burns, of Grand Rapids, to serve as his best man. Frederick W. Hughes, Keith Evans and George Peltier will usher.

Three-year-old Lisa Bowers will be her aunt's flower girl. Peggy's nephew, David Henritze, 4, is to be ring-bearer.

One of Peggy's first parties was the Tuesday luncheon and kitchen shower hosted by Mrs. Robert M. Halsted, of Birmingham, at Orchard Lake Country Club.

Mrs. Harry W. Taylor and Mrs. Victor W. Hughes, aunts of the bride-to-be, are planning a late July tea in the Hughes home on Rivard boulevard. Their party will honor Peggy and Elise Hahn, who marries Samuel Sherer on August 5.

Davies Observe Golden Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. Windsor R. Davies of Kensington road marked 50 years of married life Saturday. In honor of the jubilee, their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. Windsor S. Davies, invited over 100 guests to a garden party Saturday evening at their home on Audubon road.

From the four-tiered golden wedding cake to yellow-hued flowers, the decor was themed in gold. Gold cloths covered the tables, and strolling players furnished music in the garden which was strung with colorful Japanese lanterns.

The senior Mr. and Mrs. Davies were married in Cleveland, O. Before his retirement, Mr. Davies was Budd Wheel Purchasing Director. They have two grandchildren, Windsor and Therese.

Among out-of-town guests at the golden wedding celebration were Mr. Davies' brother and sister-in-law, the William Davies, from Lake Worth, Fla.; Mrs. Davies' brother and sister Charles Schell and Mrs. Frances Chiedel, from Cleveland, and the Arthur F. Torglers, from Kenmore, N.Y.

Busy Schedule At Boat Club

The Detroit Boat Club's Saturday evening, July 23 annual out-of-door Cape Cod Capers party will have a novel twist. This party is entitled "The Shipwreck Shuffle" and a delightful treat is in store for members and their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Drennan and their committee, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Osgood, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Roland Fisher have promised "spectacular" decorations, wonderful food and an evening of great fun.

Informal dress is in order, and prizes will be awarded for the most unusual shipwreck attire. The Earle Perkins orchestra will provide the music.

Friday night, July 22, the teenagers, in grades 7 through 9, will take over with the juke box dance on the lawn, weather permitting.

The bridge luncheon held at the club on Wednesday, July 20, and enjoyed by the distaff members and their guests, was entitled the "Patio Picnic Party" and the "Chicken-In-Basket" menu was an appropriate one for this lazy July day. Bright-colored vegetables comprised the unusual decorative motif.

Among the many hostesses entertaining at the luncheon were Mrs. C. E. Mercier, Mrs. William G. Buchinger and Mrs. M. J. Vierling.

The chairman for this most delightful party was Mrs. Roy C. Jenkins, and helping her were Mrs. Charles Eades, Mrs. Wilber Landis and Mrs. Elmer A. Rolley.

Sarah Griffiths Speaks Vows

Sarah Ann Griffith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Ralph Griffith of Birmingham, formerly of the Pointe, became the bride of Oscar V. Larson, Jr., son of Mrs. O. V. Larsons of Kansas City, Mo., and the late Mr. Larson, at a 2:30 p. m. ceremony held in the Martha-Mary Chapel, Greenfield Village, Dearborn, on Saturday, July 2.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Dr. S. Lawrence Johnson officiated.

The matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. James F. Fleenor; and the best man was William Logan of Kansas City.

Junior bridesmaid was Patti Louise Fleenor, niece of the bride. The ushers were James F. Fleenor and Carl Esau.

For her wedding, the new Mrs. Larson wore a ballerina gown of candlelight tulle with portrait neckline accented by Alencon lace touched with seed pearls, a bouffant skirt appliqued with motifs of lace and pearls. A silk illusion veil was caught by a half hat of matching lace. She wore tulle mitts.

She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of Amazon lilies, with a cluster of stephanotis, hyacinths and ivy foliage.

The matron of honor wore a powder blue linen with lace jacket, with matching shoes and hat, ballerina length gown. She carried a crescent shaped bouquet of pink flowers touched with blue and pink carnations, rubium lilies and blue delphiniums.

The junior bridesmaid wore a dusty rose taffeta gown with a jacket. Her flowers were the same as that of the matron of honor, only blue accents with pink.

For her going away outfit, the bride wore a white and black polka dot pique dress, black duster and patent accessories.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Griffith wore a Dior blue cocktail suit, with matching shoes, white hat, and she had a light pink begonia pinned to her purse. The newlyweds picked New Hampshire for their honeymoon. They will make their home in Lake Iopawingo, Blue Springs, Mo.

Mrs. John Wesley Marcus

—Picture by Paul Gach

John Wesley Marcus and his bride, the former JEAN MARIE WEBB, were honeymoon bound for northern Michigan following their marriage on July 16 at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church and their wedding reception at the Whittier. The nuptial service was read by the Rev. Robert Stanbery.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. Alex D. Webb of Lincoln road, and the late Mr. Webb, was given in marriage by Robert Barr. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Wesley Marcus of Fisher road.

The bride was charmingly gowned in an exquisite cathedral creation of antique Italian raw silk. Dainty Chantilly lace outlined the brief sleeves and formed a wide front panel for the fitted bodice. Row on row of Chantilly inlaid bands encircled the skirt and swept back into a deep Cathedral train. Long pointed gloves to match completed the ensemble. The bride carried an all white bouquet of stephanotis, gladioli and orchids.

Mrs. Webb chose dusty rose lace. The mother of the bridegroom wore light blue batiste with V neckline and lace inserts.

The maid of honor, Connie Ganopulis of Boston and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Doris Turnbull, Owosso, Linda Marcus, sister of the bridegroom, and Nancy Georgi, carried pink carnations. They were costumed in ballerina dresses of white Venice lace with scoop necklines. Pink silk

Mackinac Race Draws Pointers

Mr. and Mrs. John Detweiler leave today to sail their new Beauty sloop, "Vashti," to Port Huron for the Saturday start of the annual Port Huron to Mackinac sailing races.

Mrs. Wilfred Gmeiner will join Mrs. Detweiler in Port Huron and the two will drive to the island to await the finish of the races. Mrs. John Boyle will meet them at Mackinac. She went up last week.

The Reade H. Ryans plan to join the Detweilers at Mackinac and the foursome will cruise to Georgian Bay. The Boyles and Gmeiners will also head for the Bay in the latter's "Apache."

Among the many heading for Mackinac this weekend are Mrs. Robert T. B. Pierce, her daughter Jane, Sally Beardslee and Suzie Buttrick. They'll drive up Friday to meet Gilbert Pingree's "Red Head" on which Mr. Pierce is a crew member.

Carter Sales and Skip Grow are taking their "Querida" to Port Huron. After the race, their wives will join them for a sail to Harbor Springs where they will spend a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Welling and the John R. Wilts are also in this week's Mackinac-bound contingent.

Mary Jean Stover to Wed Charles S. Waggoner, II

Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Stover of West Orange, N. J., have announced the engagement of their daughter, Mary Jean, to Charles S. Waggoner II, son of Dr. and Mrs. Charles Stanley Waggoner of 15463 Windmill Pointe drive. The wedding will take place August 27 at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

The prospective bride is a graduate of Michigan State College.

Mr. Waggoner received his B.B.A. and M.B.A. degrees from the University of Michigan where he is now attending law school. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

DAC Bowling Group Enjoys Day at Races

Keglers and Wives on Hand for Special Event at Detroit Race Course; Club Gives Blanket To Winning Horse

Grosse Pointe members of Detroit Athletic Club's bowling group and their wives joined with couples from Birmingham, Bloomfield and Detroit for the DAC Bowlers Day at the Detroit Race Course at Schoolcraft and Middlebelt Road, held yesterday, Wednesday, July 20.

It was the third annual midsummer gala of this kind, and a departure from the keggers' regular winter and spring stag bowling on the DAC alleys. Heading the festivity were Samuel C. Armitage, bowling chairman, and Mrs. Armitage.

Luncheon was served at 1:45 o'clock in the clubhouse, and this part of the party was at the invitation of Grosse Pointer George Haggarty and the Michigan Racing Association. The 400 attending then took their seats in the section reserved for them, and there was much visiting before the 3:45 post time.

The DAC Bowlers Purse was the highlight race, the winning horse receiving the group's gift of a blue and gold blanket lettered with "DAC Bowlers" and bearing the club's insignia. J. King Harness, president of the Detroit Athletic Club, presented the gift in a brief ceremony.

Among the many Grosse Pointers present were Mr. and Mrs. W. Harold Lightbody who were in a sixsome with the Arthur D. Sutherlands and the Syd R. Scotts.

Others were Mr. and Mrs. Januarius A. Mullen, the Walter A. Crows, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Milligan, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Eugene C. Hoelzle, Dr. and Mrs. George W. Christiansen, whose guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Gentleman, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Duffy and their four guests.

Judy Rice to Be Bride Of Orville Tysseling

Following Judy Rice's August 19 wedding to Orville Tysseling of Pella, Iowa, the couple will move to Dayton, Ohio, where the new bride will teach in the Dayton public schools.

Judy, the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rice of Rivard boulevard, and a 1951 graduate of Grosse Pointe High School, recently received her Bachelor of Science degree in Child Development and Family Relations from the School of Home Economics of Iowa State College.

Mary Susan Livingstone Becomes Bride of Joseph David Cushman, Jr., in Ceremony in Christ Church On Saturday

Mary Susan Livingstone and Joseph David Cushman Jr. pledged their nuptial vows Saturday evening in Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, before the Reverends William Butler Sperry and George R. Whitney. A reception was held in the Moran road home of Susan D. Copland.

An oyster white peau de soie gown was worn by the bride, daughter of Mrs. Wilkins Livingstone of Lincoln road and the late T. W. Palmer Livingstone. A coronet held the illusion veil applied in rose point lace that had been worn by her mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. Amazon lilies and trailing ivy formed the bridal bouquet.

Five attendants preceded her up the aisle in white chiffon gowns embroidered with royal blue dots. Crescents of daisies and bachelor buttons completed their costumes.

Honor maid was Elizabeth Helen Livingstone, the bride's sister Mrs. John I. Dixon, of Pittsburgh; Joan Hadley, Jean Cushman, of Titusville, Fla., sister of the bridegroom, and Mary Salisbury, of Syracuse, N. Y., served as bridesmaids.

The bridegroom, son of the Joseph David Cushman, of Titusville, asked Clay Bailey to be his best man. Ushering were Herbert Hearne, of Titusville; Joseph Messer, of Boston; Ross Wilkins Jr., uncle of the bride, and Peder Field.

Legion Auxiliary News

From Unit 303

By ROWENA WEAVER

Experiences at the Michigan Girls State were described by Julie Post at a meeting of Grosse Pointe 303 Unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, held at 20916 Mack avenue on July 18. Miss Post was a citizen of Girls State under the sponsorship of the Auxiliary Unit, and was one of more than 12,000 specially selected high school juniors who practiced the operation of democratic government at Auxiliary Girls States throughout the nation this summer.

Girls States were again held in every state and the Panama Canal Zone, according to Mrs. Marie Dasso, Girls State Chairman of the local Auxiliary Unit. The girls attending were selected for potential leadership abilities and the training program was designed to give them practical experience in political and governmental affairs. Two girls from each Girls State will attend the Auxiliary sponsored Girls Nation in Washington, D. C., in August.

Educational aid for children of men who lost their lives in war service, or as a direct result of their service to their country in time of war, is being asked by The American Legion and Auxiliary, Mrs. Elizabeth Lavender, Legislative Chairman of the local Auxiliary Unit, has announced. A bill to provide a modest program of scholarship assistance for such children has been introduced in Congress by Representative Olin E. Teague of Texas.

"We believe that our country should give recognition to a child's loss of his parent's financial help, if the father sacrificed his life in the nation's defense," explained Mrs. Lavender. "Extensive educational aid has been extended to the veterans of World War II and the Korean conflict, and it seems just that the children of those who didn't come back should have a modest share of help."

Lore Dengler Speaks Vows

Lore Ann Dengler, a teacher in the Grosse Pointe school system, was married Saturday, July 16, to John David Reeber of Dearborn. The ceremony took place at the Cross of Glory Lutheran Church, Detroit.

The new Mrs. Reeber, originally of Detroit, is the daughter of the George Denglers of Maple Ridge road. The bridegroom is the son of the Raymond Reebers.

A reception followed at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Center.

After the honeymoon, the couple will make their home in Dearborn where Mrs. Reeber will teach school in the fall.

Fruehaufs Play Hosts at Lodge

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Fruehauf of Kenwood road are entertaining currently at a week-long house party at their lodge in Killarney, Ont. Swimming, fishing, water skiing and boating are some of the activities on the week's agenda.

Among those who were flown up Saturday by seaplane were Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Dockson, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Avis, Mr. and Mrs. William Packer Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mumford, the Ralph C. Wilsons Jr., the junior William Packers, Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Forster and the Edgar B. Flints.

Plans Revealed By Elise Hahn

Elise Hahn, who will marry Samuel Baldwin Sherer on August 5, has named her wedding attendants.

Ann Sherer, sister of the bridegroom-elect, is to be honor maid. The bridesmaids list includes Mrs. Joseph S. Sherer III, Kathryn Kempf, of Northville and New York, Elsa Barr, Bettina Stroh, Mrs. Murray Sales III, and Margaret Donner, of Colorado and New York.

Sam has asked his brother, Joseph S. Sherer III, to be his best man. William Hahn and Stephen Sherer, brothers of the prospective bride and bridegroom, will usher.

Richard Sutherland, Nicholas Ruwe, Myron May, Charles G. Stiles and John Hofer Jr., of Short Hills, N. J.; William E. Hogland, of Orchard Lake, and Richard Quinlan, of Great Neck, L. I., will also seat the wedding guests.

Picnic Planned By Alger Post

Alger Post 995, Veterans of Foreign Wars of Grosse Pointe and its Auxiliary will hold its 25th annual picnic at Schwaben Park, Eight Mile and Harper avenue, on Sunday, July 24.

The affair will be an old-fashioned basket picnic, at which a bicycle will be given away to some lucky child. The public is cordially invited.

Dry hair (human) will stretch 25 to 50% without breaking and wet hair even more. Try it!

Schoolgirl Tourists Visit Movie Capital

Station Wagon Cavalcade Has Whirl Mixing With Film Stars and Seeing Glamour of Hollywood and Los Angeles

By MARILYN ZDRODOWSKI

For years the 77 girls on Chet Sampson's Western tour have heard stories of the fabulous times in Hollywood from some of the veterans; old cronies of about 19 or so. Now it has happened to them, too; mingling with the stars, and visiting all the places associated with the glamorous of the film capital.

That so many people in the news should do so much to make their four-day stay in Hollywood so successful, continues to amaze the group. The 89, which includes the drivers, have now joined the ranks of those who have the fabulous stories to tell.

Things began popping as soon as the group entered the film capital. Upon entering the Hollywood Drake Hotel, the girls were informed they had 25 minutes to transform from the weary traveler in bermudas to the bright and sparkling city girls in fancy clothes with piles of crinolines for their first guest, John Erickson.

Chet had met Mr. Erickson at a party at the home of Debbie Reynolds the night before. The girls talked with the male starlet for about 45 minutes, particularly discussing his film work.

Two hours later the girls were guests of Bing Crosby at Paramount studio. The highlight of the tour was a visit to the set of "The Ten Commandments," the most expensive movie ever to be made. Cecil B. DeMille took a personal interest in the group, and introduced them to movie techniques. There were also pleasant visits with John Derek and Charlton Heston.

Thinking this the end of their first day in the city of stars, the group went to one of Hollywood's unique restaurants, Hamburger Hamlet.

Chet met another old friend, Dick Clayton, a former actor turned agent, who handles Ann Blyth, James Dean and many more stars.

He invited the group to attend the premier of a new play, and arranged a visit with 12 players, many of whom are not yet known to the public. Most of their films are "in the can," that is, not yet released.

Included in the group were Debbie Reynolds, who reminisced about her recent Grosse Pointe visit with enthusiasm, Tab Hunter, Lori Nelson, Kathleen Crowley, Ben Cooper, Brett Haley, Bud Pennell, Bob Horton, Jody Lawrence, and several others.

What a fabulous day! It seemed almost like a dream. The second day was devoted to radio and television. The group toured CBS Television City and were guests on the Art Linkletter and Bob Crosby show. Lunch at Farmers Market was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The highlight of the third day was an appearance on the Gary Crosby show. Gary told his nation-wide audience about the groups annual visit to Hollywood and to his father's ranch in Elko, Nevada. He asked the girls to sing a song they brought with them a few years ago, which the elder Crosby has since recorded; "Tell Me Why."

In addition to Paramount, the group toured Universal International where Julie Adams and George Nader, who were their guides, pointed out sets on the lot used in past and present films.

At Twentieth Century Fox, their host was the famous producer, Otto Lange.

Other memorable visits were made to the Padiadium, Moulin Rouge, dinner at Knott's Berry Farm, lunch at Bit o' Sweden, and shopping at the exclusive shops on Wilshire boulevard.

After four days in Hollywood, they could understand why it is considered one of the glamor capitals of the world.

In spite of the wonders of the film center, it was pleasant to get back into casual togs for a three-day stay at Yosemite. The contrast was astounding.

Climbing up Half-Dome, a 17-mile hike was a great challenge met by Janet Clark, Meredith Miller, Mary Jo Giroux, Margo Miller, Joan Loveless, Ann Reeves, Cindy Buell, Joyce Bushong, Janice Heinrichs, Judy Morgan, Joanne Ortwein, Sue Benson, Sue Evelyn, Gayle McPhails, Kay Pehring, Peggy Goebel, George Rich, Bill Winkler, Tom Ireland, Dan Pollis, Pete Wardle, Bill Miller, Dick Anslow, Ben Daume, and Jerry Lorenz.

"Let the fire fall!" shouted a man in Camp Curry, and the group saw an awe-inspiring spectacle, as burning coals were pushed from Glacier Point. It was the famous Fire Fall.

When the three-day stay at Yosemite was completed, the group went to San Francisco for another taste of cosmopolitan living. They visited China Town, Top of the Mark and other large hotels, Alcatraz, rode the cable cars and had dinner at Fisherman's Wharf.

During their stay on the West Coast, the girls had exceptionally good weather. But, alas and alack, they were disappointed, for they didn't see too much of that famous California smog.

Parties Honor Coast Visitor

Guests of Miss Marie Louise Anderson last week in her Bedford road home were her niece, Mrs. Norman Snavely, of Montrose, Calif., and her 14-month-old great-niece, Cheryl Ann.

In their honor Miss Anderson gave a neighborhood tea which was attended by Mrs. Edgar Plintemann and her daughter, Susie. Mrs. Frederick Curtis and her daughter, Ann. Mrs. Augustus MacLean, Mrs. Ralph Raymond and Mrs. William E. Angerman Jr.

The following day she was hostess at a luncheon at Lochmoor Club, to which she invited Mrs. Wood Williams, Mrs. Henry R. Klein, Mrs. George Van Lokran, Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson and Miss Christine Edwards.

Joys to Attend Wedding in East

Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Joy Jr. of Provençal road will fly east July 27 to be on hand for the July 30 marriage of their son, Richard Pickering Joy III, and Patricia Ann Dickson in Trinity Church, Mt. Pocono, Pa.

Jim Joy, who is to be his brother's best man, will accompany them, as will Mr. and Mrs. John N. Lord, William M. Joy, and Josephine and Patricia Joy.

The prospective bridegroom's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Woodson K. Woods III of Wakefield, Farm, St. Louis, Mo., will join the family in Mt. Pocono. Dick's ushers include Stan Muirhead, William Howenstein, David Cudlip, Michael Murphy, Nicholas Ruwe, David Dimling of Cincinnati, and Woodson K. Woods III.

Lisa marked her eighth birthday last week with a swimming party followed by an outdoor supper at her home.

Her brother and sister, Allan Shelden IV and Susan, are spending their first summer at camp. Allan is a Lanakila and Susan at its sister camp, Aloha, near Fairlee, Vt.

Miami Show Honors Artist

Mrs. Eva Doty Worcester of Sunningdale drive, well known Pointe artist who had a number of her paintings in exhibits all over the country, has just had a one-man show at the Washington Art Galleries in Miami Beach, Fla. It closed on July 15.

Mrs. Worcester's sea scapes, landscapes and still life pictures have been seen by many Pointers in local exhibits and at the War Memorial Center. She recently also had a one-man showing at the Copley in Boston.

Porter Musical Now at Cass

Cole Porter's hit musical show, "Can Can," began an 18 day engagement at the Cass Theater on July 13. Direct from its long and highly successful run of more than two years on Broadway, "Can Can," comes to the Cass Theater with a brilliant cast of principals in the leading roles and that galaxy of dancing beauties, the "Can Can" girls.

Continental chanteuse Rita Dimitri, and John Tylers of the Metropolitan Opera head the company which also features comic George S. Irving, Ronnie Cunningham in the star dancing role, Ferdinand Hill, Richard Purdy, Jon Silo, Clarence Hoffman, Ray Kirchner and Robert Eckies.

"Can Can" was written by Abe Burrows, co-author of "Guys and Dolls," and in addition to his writing chores, Mr. Burrows also directs the show. Michael Kidd devised the dances and staged them and the scenery was designed by Jo Mielzinger. Motley designed the colorful costumes which are in the mode of Paris in the Nineties.

"Can Can" will remain at the Cass Theater until July 30, and performances will be given every night including Sundays. Bargain price matinees will be given every Saturday at 2 p.m.

FOR SUMMER BARBECUES For summer barbecuing, the smaller broilers, weighing two or three pounds dressed weight, are ideal. The amount to buy will depend to a great extent upon the appetites of those to be fed, and the amounts of other foods served. There are some guideposts though. Marketing and consumer information agents recommend to allow one-half bird per person, or about one pound, for adults. Broilers are a "good buy" as a result of lower costs from more efficient management and better birds.

Engaged

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Kengel of Colonial road, announce the engagement of their daughter, MARY ELIZABETH, to Donald E. Champagne, son of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin E. Champagne of Glenwood road, St. Clair Shores. An October wedding is planned.

Record Entry List Expected For Mackinac Sail Classic

According to the entries already received by race chairman Donald Johnston, Jr., Bayview Yacht Club's 31st annual Port Huron to Mackinac Island race, on July 23, appears to be headed toward a new all time entry record for both this race and Chicago Yacht Club's Mackinac race.

Last year's Bayview 235 mile classic set a new entry record of 69 yachts, sixty-seven actually crossed the starting line off Gratiot Beach in Lake Huron. It marked the first time since the inception of the race that the Port Huron classic had outdrawn the older Chicago race.

And what made it even more remarkable was the fact it was what the sailors refer to as an off-year, because the Bayview race followed the Chicago race. This meant more Chicago skipper brought their yachts around from Lake Michigan, a distance of some 565 miles to get to the starting line.

All of these yachts then participated in the Chicago race a week later, which meant they had to sail down Lake Michigan 330 miles to the starting line in Chicago before starting the trek back to the turtle shaped island in the Chicago classic. This added another 660 miles to bring the total to 1225 miles. If these yachts sailed right back to their home port you could add another 300 miles for a total of 1525 miles sailed in the matter of approximately three weeks.

Local Boats Entered
Inasmuch as the Chicago race was first this year, Gil Pingree's "Red Head," Nubby Sarns' "Revelry," Pat Collins' "Vitesse," Mac McGuire's "Kandu," Dick Jeffery's and Jack Wagner's "Last Straw" and Hans Hatched's "Tamara" will have covered over 1325 miles as the crew flies before they see Lake St. Clair again.

The international flavor will be added to Bayview's race this year with the entry of Ted Rippling's 65 foot schooner "Kadiac," second largest yacht entered, out of the Royal Hamilton Y.C. and Ray Engholm's 54 foot "Ivanhoe," ex-Southern Cross and "Hilaria," of the Royal Canadian Y. C. Sailing in "Ivanhoe" will be a group of ex-"Escapade" sailors and what red hots they have proven themselves to be over the years, especially while putting Wendell Anderson's "Escapade" through her paces while she was gaining glory on the Great Lakes. "Eskie" isn't here any longer. She was sold last winter to a West coast skipper who sailed her in the Transpacific Yacht Clubs' biennial Honolulu race recently completed.

Foresees Friendly Feud
There will be a friendly international feud brewing aboard "Ivanhoe" during the race but it will be settled without bloodshed at the finish line. Clark Swart, Eddie Wunsch, Tommy Lot, John Longley and Al Thomas, all Americans, will stand the starboard watch and will try to outdo skipper Engholm's all Canadian port watch.

There will be quite a few beverage bets paid off at Mackinac Island between these two watches. Even though each watch will try to outdo each other they will have one thing in common—Get the boat to the finish line ahead of the fleet.

This year will mark the first time Bayview has ever had four classes, excluding the racing class. The night before the race and when all entries are in, race chairman Johnston and his committee will sit down and split the cruising class into four sections according to their handicap ratings.

Want Even Race
Johnston was quick to point out that he will not split the fleet up evenly in each class but will place the yachts in their respective classes to make an evenly matched race in each of the four classes. In other words there may be six or seven boats in Cruising A and as many as 20 or more in the newly formed Cruising D class.

Regardless of which class the yachts sail in they all have a chance to win overall honors because that is the way the handicap system works. If each yacht is sailed to her peak efficiency they all should reach the island at the same time. Of course there are wind and weather conditions that can change all this.

Take for example Nick Geib's fabulous 39-foot yawl "Fleetwood." She sailed in Cruising C all four times she came over for the race and three times she won her class. The only time she lost was in 1953 when Hank Burkard's "Meteor II" clipped her on corrected time. In the Chicago race "Fleetwood" competed in Cruising D and five times she won her class and took overall honors on two occasions. So you see even a little boat has a chance.

Good Race Shaping Up
As things are shaping up there should be one heck of a boat race in Cruising A what with such yachts as Pingree's 60 foot yawl "Red Head," Hugh Schaddelee's 54-foot yawl "Hilaria" from Macatawa Bay, Roman Brotz's 84 foot M boat yawl "Sabre," Joe Schoendorf's 55 foot sloop "Gypsy," Ken Kroehler's 64-foot yawl "Manitou" and the previously mentioned "Ivanhoe" and "Kadiac."

Of course you can't discount Cruising B with the New York 32's of Foot Gmeiner's "Apache," Pat Collins' "Vitesse," Clare Jacobs' "Falcon" and Frank White's "Digress" from Cleveland. They will battle it out with such red hots as Sarns' "Revelry," Jeffery-Wagner's "Last Straw," Chuck Kotovic's beautiful "Copperhead" and Bob Rusk's 40 foot yawl "Endeavor" out of Saginaw Bay Y.C. to name just a few.

Sloss Has Good Crew
Dave Sloss, six time Cruising B winner, has lined up a dandy crew in Bobby Bryant, Doc Wilson, Johnny Kuntz, Don Braden and Earl Meininger for his Swedish importation "Kathmar II" and will be shooting for his seventh victory in this classic. "Kathmar" has begun to move in recent races and will be regarded as a top notch favorite regardless of which class she winds up in. She has been vieing against the local Cruising A boats in local regattas but where she will finally be placed by the race committee is anybody's guess.

Other entries already received and which will help to make the Black River in Port Huron the most impressive site in the history of the race will be E. J. Lang's 32 foot cutter "Vanitie" from Chicago, Ken Cool's "Syren" and Scrubby Wellman's 32 foot Week Ender "Indigo" both from Mentor Harbor, Ohio, and Larry Curran's Grosse Ile Y.C. entry "Viking".

Hanson to Sail Ketch
Tommy Hanson, a top notch L boat sailor, has rounded up a crew of North Star Y.C. sailors who will take an unknown ketch in the race. It will be the first time for most of them but being the intrepid guys that they are they may find the short way to the island.

Commodore Bill Wiard, Bob Benkert and Lynn Stedmann Jr., are extremely pleased over the advance entries received and are happy over the prospect that a new all time record may be set under their regime.

Record or not it promises to be one of the most closely contested events since before "Escapade" came here and took charge of the overall and Cruising A pennants. A new champion is bound to be crowned this year.

All-Star Team of Woods Babe Ruth League

Tigers Win Woods Title

The Tigers, managed by Charles H. Johnson, by virtue of an outstanding record, having won 15 and losing only one, have established themselves as this year's champions in the Little League. A playoff is not necessary since they were the leaders by a wide margin in both halves of the season's schedule.

The National League playoff between the Dodgers, winners of the first half and the Giants, winner of the second half, will be played on Thursday, July 21, at Vernier Field in Grosse Pointe Shores. The Dodgers are managed by John Easton and the Giants are managed by Vern Dumas.

The Little League World Series to establish the champions of Grosse Pointe Woods will be played Monday, July 25, at Chequamegon Park. The Tigers of the American League will play the winner of the Giants vs. Dodgers game.

The Grosse Pointe Woods champions will then enter The Grosse Pointe Little League Tournament competing against the champions of the Park, Farms, and City to determine the champions of all the Pointes. This tournament is scheduled to begin August 1.

WOODS
Grosse Pointe Woods will play Berkley Saturday in the opening round of the Babe Ruth League State Tournament, at Southfield High School, Lahser near Ten Mile, at 1:30 p.m.

Eliminations will be held this weekend at Birmingham and Southfield. Finals will be played Saturday and Sunday, July 30 and 31.

Pairings were made last Saturday on Al Nagler's "Tomorrow's Tigers" program on WJBK-TV. The Woods' all-star tourna-

At this point six games remain in the season schedule. All six games will be played at Kerby Field. Following publication the games remaining will be:
Chicago vs. Cleveland—Wed., July 20
Detroit vs. Boston, Thurs., July 21
N. Y. Yanks vs. Cleveland, Sat., July 23
Chicago vs. Detroit, Sun., July 24.

In the event of a tie for first place in the league standings, a playoff game will take place at Kerby Field on Monday, July 25, or Tuesday, July 26, at the latest. Should no tie playoff be necessary there will then be a game essayed Tuesday, July 26, between the Detroit Tigers, winner of the first half-season schedule, and the winner of the second half.

This will determine the representative of the American League in the World Series to be played July 30 and 31 and, if a third game is needed, August 1. American League Standings as of June 14

SALES RECORD SET

Retail sales of new General Motors passenger cars in the United States during the first 10 days of July reached an all-time high for that period, 80,012, higher than in any previous July 1-10 period and 123 percent of the figure for the corresponding period last year. Used car sales by GM dealers during the same period totaled 99,934, or 108.3 per cent of the figure for the corresponding 10 days last year. Sales during the first 10 days of July brought the 1955 GM totals through July 10 to 2,926,806 for new cars and 2,610,921 for used cars. Every GM passenger car division—Pontiac, Buick, Oldsmobile, Chevrolet, and Cadillac—had record sales.

Anderson and Gramer each has a 5-2 record and Steil 3-2. Altogether the squad has nine out of 15 men who have done some pitching this season.

In games last week, Wheeler and Anderson went on a strike-out spree to put their team back in first place. Anderson fanned 13 as the Tigers beat the Red Sox 11 to 7. Wheeler whiffed 12 to enable the Tigers to beat the Senators 7 to 4.

Gary Aldinger pitched and also hit his fourth home run of the season to help the Indians beat the Yanks 17 to 7. Jim Kelly, of the Indians, was the hitter of the week, with six Manager John Mazer put his star pitcher Hugh Harper on the mound. Andy Kimmel was batting. Phillies manager "Bart" Bartholomew put in a very reliable and steady pitcher—Neil Hakken with Mike Lynch catching.

The Grosse Pointers took the lead on two occasions but the Phillies would come right back and retake the lead. Grosse Pointe John Mazer had a perfect day at bat which included a home run with the bases loaded. Mazer, also, learned another lesson. You can't drink water on a hot day. Mazer drank too much and had to be replaced by Roger Teetzel at third base.

Harper did an excellent job of holding the Phillies back in his two innings on the mound. But pitchers Carrier and Parent could not control the hitting power of the Phillies led by Mike Lynch, Tom Davis and Charles Martin. Final score was Phillies 12, Grosse Pointe 8.

July 9
This was the big game for the Giants and the Senators, to decide the league lead. Manager Scotten put Bob Woleben on the mound with Bill O'Neill catching. Manager Al Bolden of the Giants started Mike Yaklin with Barry Trombly catching. The Senators were on edge for this game.

Led by acting Captain Boyce Byrd who cleaned up the bases with three men on and Tom Christman who also hit a homer, the Senators went on a scoring spree that sent Yaklin out to be replaced by pitcher Jack LaBarge. But the Senators could not be stopped. Finally Barry Trombly went in to pitch for the Giants. The Giants started a rally in the fifth inning but it was too late. The game was called at the end of the 12th with the final score Senators 12, Giants 5.

Probably the biggest upset of the entire season took place in the game between the league leading Senators and the Grosse Pointers. The Senators were expected to breeze by this one. Manager Scotten had Bob Fox on the mound with Bill O'Neill catching. Manager John Mazer started John Mazer as pitcher with Andy Kimmel catching. Acting Captain Mazer had his choice and took the first turn at bat for the Pointers.

The Pointers started a heavy hitting barrage that scored 14 runs in the first two innings. After that Bob Fox settled down to some good pitching and in addition he hit a home run with one man on which started a rally for his team.

Mike Carrier sparked the Pointers attack by hitting the longest homer of the season over the fence with the bases loaded. Ronald Burns replaced Mazer as the Pointer pitcher and did an excellent job in holding the Senators from winning the game. Senator Bob Woleben had a perfect day at bat by batting a thousand for the day. Final score—Grosse Pointe 14, Senators 13.

Acting Captain Mazer threw a "victory" party at his home by inviting all the Pointers for swimming and "hot dogs" on Tuesday, July 19.

The Giants came back into the winners circle this week by defeating the Phillies 17 to 10. Barry Trombly pitched with Lance Gottfredson catching. Trombly gave five hits and struck out ten Phillies which has earned him the number one pitching berth for the Giants.

The real star of this game was "Skippy" Bolden who probably is the most dangerous slugger in the entire league. "Skippy" drove in five runs in this game by hitting a solid triple and a single. "Skippy" in his 20 times at bat has 13 hits and has only struck out four times for a batting average of .600.

Phillies Manager Bartholomew is proud of the excellent pitching of Neil Hakken but is going to have his team do a lot of fielding practice this week. If the Phillies had tightened up on their fielding they would have really frightened the Giants a lot more than they did. Final score Giants 17, Phillies 10.

The Senators and the Giants are tied for first place.

At week's end only the Dodgers were sure of their place in the standings. They were fourth, with six wins, nine losses. The Cubs, Cards, and Braves had each won 8, lost 7, to leave first, second, and third places subject to further developments.

In Monday's game, July 11, the Braves, leading 5 to 2, had an exciting last half inning when 2 Dodger runs crossed the plate and the tying run got on base. Skip Stephenson, who seems to specialize in getting out of this kind of trouble, did it again to end the game 5 to 4. Rick Grow, losing pitcher for the Dodgers, still turned in his usual high-class job.

On Tuesday, July 12, the Cubs beat the Cards 4 to 3 in one of those last-chance rallies. The score was 1 to 1 after 3 innings. John Gathman had 2 Cards out in the 4th when Nichols blasted one over the fence. After Colgrove singled, Gathman walked the next 3 batters and the Cards led 3 to 1.

That's the way it went into the last half inning when Chick LaFond, with only 2 hits off him, had only to retire three more men.

However, Howard walked, Haglund singled, and Dhooge got all the way to 2nd on an error. It just took a little bingle by Hillenbrand to score Dhooge, and the Cubs had a celebration going.

Wednesday, July 13, the Cubs bowed to the Braves in a 7 to 4 game. Barry Brink, backed up by able defensive play, never let the Cubs really get started. Knocking Haglund out in the 3rd, the Braves kept right on hitting after Howard took over.

The score stood at Cards 12, Dodgers 3, when Thursday's (July 14) game was called because of darkness. This game really wasn't up to standard quality because the Cards aren't that good, the Dodgers not that bad. It's still anybody's race in this league.

 lected only three hits but mixed them with numerous walks and errors to produce eight runs, all of which came in the last two frames.
 The Orioles, fighting to stay in the scuffle with the others, split their two games of the week, losing to the Athletics, 6-4, and defeating the Senators in extra innings, 6-4.
 It took one big inning to sew up the Athletic victory over the Orioles with four big runs in the fifth as Pitcher Murray Robertson got the win. He did serve up one home run pitch, though, to Tom Gutow.
 The Orioles' upset of the Senators was a thriller right down to the last out in the seventh inning when the Orioles snapped a 3-3 tie with a double and two singles. Tom Boutteiger, recently brought up from the minors, was the hero in the overtime contest when he drove in the winner with a single after Gutow had walked and Don Vroom doubled. There are less than two weeks left in the season which terminates July 28 before the Grosse Pointe tourney. An important game will be played tonight (Thursday) on the Defer diamond when the White Sox and Senators tangle with each other.

 Kasperek of the Reds must of doubled up on his portion of "Wheaties" last week. In their game with the Phillies on Friday, he not only pitched a "No Hitter" but was also swinging that bat for two home runs. He almost had a shut out winning 13 to 1. Steve Van Horn of the second place Giants also connected for a home run.

who, where and whatnot

by wboozit

If you sigh with envy over the band-box smartness of some Pointe matrons, you'll be interested to know that an outstandingly chic Pointer told us it takes her one hour to dress . . . She spends at least fifteen minutes on her facial make-up . . . the remainder is devoted to fashion perfection before leaving her boudoir . . .

This same Pointer captures wardrobe poise . . . by planning her Summer wardrobe in the early Spring . . . her autumn costumes are ready to step into when Summer is beginning, etc . . . "I am never plagued by not knowing what to wear." . . .

Vogue's modish Mrs. Exeter could learn lessons from Mrs. J. Jewett Dwyer . . . or Mrs. Harry W. Frost . . .

And speaking of magazines . . . from the pages of Made-moiselle could step the Tiedemans . . . Mrs. Carsten Tiedeman . . . and her daughters, Mrs. Donald Hoagland, Mrs. Richard S. Spencer Jr. and Mrs. John D. Davies . . . It is difficult to tell mother and daughters apart . . . and they dress with light-hearted deft . . .

Mrs. C. Henry Buhl . . . Mrs. Harold R. Boyer Jr. . . bring Harper's Bazaar to life . . .

When Realities covers the swank Austrian resorts . . . we are reminded of Mrs. Alvan Macauley Jr. . . whose love for the country . . . colors her European wardrobe . . .

The Countess Cyril Tolstoi can be found in the garden party pictures of London Illustrated . . .

And the advanced, custom quality designs of Le Figaro are noted in the costume choices of Mrs. Henry Ford II . . .

PILFERINGS

Nice piece in Saturday Evening Post by Hal Burton, who not too many years ago worked on a Detroit newspaper when whoozit dittoed.

Anyhow, Hal—and we never considered him a rugged conformist, has been traveling in Europe and he decided he wanted to find out how Europeans treat fellow Europeans. He went to some little shops in Rome and bought himself really native clothes; then boarded a train to Lugano.

In the dining room of the Hotel Splendide, he was led to his table by the maitre. The story, "He knows People's Whims"—(and it's all about the maitre d' of a swank hotel) continues:

"With ill-concealed pleasure he noted that the table was set in impeccably European style, only a wine glass adorning the damask. A moment later, to his chagrin, a waiter in tie and tails appeared with what was unmistakably a water glass, dropped in two chunks of ice and filled it with colorless and tasteless liquid that only Americans enjoy at mealtime.

"Unmasked so suddenly, the visitor abandoned all pretense and ordered his meal in English. After dessert, he beckoned the maitre to his table.

"How in the world did you know that I was an American? From head to foot, everything I wear was made in Italy."

"The maitre allowed a smile to pass briefly across his face.

"Sir," he said in flawless and unaccented English, "it is my business to know who comes from where. If the guest has taken a room, the concierge generally tells me his nationality. If he drops in simply for a meal, as you did, then I must draw on eighteen years of experience to arrive at a judgment. In your case, the first thing I noticed was your cravat. It is striped. But an Italian of the type who patronizes this hotel would never wear a striped cravat with the suit you have on. Then I observed the way you took your napkin from the table and spread it on your lap—too gently. An Italian would have snatched it up with more bravura, and he would have demanded the wine card and menu at once. You waited for them to be brought to you. Finally, you curled your feet around the front legs of the chair. That is an American habit."

Pointer of Interest

MRS. MICHAEL J. CHARGOT OF BALFOUR ROAD

By Jane Schermerhorn

Everyone has glowing words for Mrs. Michael J. Chargot . . . three daughters-in-law, a son-in-law . . . the hundreds of women she works with in various clubs . . . not to mention nine grandchildren, her own sons and daughter AND Mr. Chargot, whose 39th wedding anniversary American Beauties filled the house the day we called.

And this department goes right along with that impressive list of admirers. She's the youngest looking grandma we've seen in many moons and we know she's capable as an organizer.

With her know-how, the Bon Secours Hospital Assistance League raised $10,000 last year in its Celebrity Series at the Esquire Theatre (she wheeled the theater, rent free, from her own husband).

She's the new president of the Assistance League and previously has been membership chairman and treasurer.

Aids Hospital
She's just presided at her first board meeting since taking office and although the first, full general meeting won't be held at Bon Secours until September, members have tickets for the 1955-56 Celebrity series.

All summer long they'll be telling friends and neighbors about the second year's speakers who include Fannie Hurst, Dwight Cook, Norman Nadel, Ivy Baker Priest, and the Hon. Ernest Gruening.

Proceeds from the ticket sale will be used to build new quarters for the sisters of Bon Secours and will aid the proposed addition to the Hospital on Cadieux.

At the recent board meeting, the program for the year was planned and the Celebrity Series was urged as the League's chief part in fund raising.

Busy Time
Mrs. Chargot is a past president of St. Clare of Montefalco Arch-confraternity. She took office just before the opening of the new church and that was a busy and banner year.

Members of the Archconfraternity published a cook book of their favorite recipes and sold it to aid the building fund.

Our Pointer helped sew on the vestments and altar linens used in the church.

And then her way with flowers was discovered by the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Association which has called on her twice to take over all the decorations at the group's annual employes and employes' dinner dance.

As an associate member of the group, she organized a committee and before you could say chrysanthemum, she had floral centerpieces for 50 tables, all arranged in their vases.

Grand Scale
Maybe she's become accustomed to managing affairs on the grand scale because her own family now numbers nineteen.

Just think of what that means . . . whenever the family gathers for dinner . . . there are nineteen . . . and varying appetites, at that.

Mrs. Chargot adores every minute of such gatherings.

All big holidays find the Chargots at "Mother and Dads." The family includes Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Chargot, their sons Clayton (one and a half) and Michael (two and a half); Mr. and Mrs. Clement and their Patricia (six), Karen (four), and Clement Jr., six months; Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bien and their daughter, Suzanne, who is 12; and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Chargot and their daughters, Nanette (one), Deborah (three), Pamela, eight months.

Thinking Time
The lovely large screened terrace at the Chargot home, looking out on the lawns and gardens, was just built for such gatherings in the summertime.

The roses in that garden are our Pointer of Interest's special pride. She tends them herself and finds she not only gets wonderful exercise while she's digging and spraying foliage, but it's good "thinking time," too.

It's much easier to talk to Mrs. Chargot about her church, her family, Bon Secours, (all of which cause her lovely blue eyes to sparkle) than to get an "inside Mrs. Chargot" story.

Despite all her interests she manages to get off for a while in the winter when she and Mr. Chargot follow the sun in Fort Lauderdale, Delray or Miami Beach. Each season a different son or daughter makes the trip with the Chargots.

Building
Summertime, the family moves to Harsen's Island where they've had a home for years. This year the big interest will be trips in the family speed boat to the other side of the island where their new home will be built.

The boat house and garage should go up early in the season and the whole family will pool its engineering.

Hobbies? Well, in the living room there are needlepoint chairs, a fire bench and footstool to attest to Mrs. Chargot's talent in handwork.

She loves to collect Royal Doulton figurines and has started her daughter and daughters-in-law on collections of them, too.

Mainly, however her interests run not so much to collecting as to "doing" . . . doing for others . . . doing big jobs, and doing them well.

TOMATOES SOON DUE

Hot-house tomatoes are still available—they will be until the delicious Michigan "home-grown ones" appear. The identifying mark of the hot-house tomato is the green calyx or stem which has been left on. Green tomatoes will ripen satisfactorily, if kept in a dry place at room temperature. They will not ripen in the refrigerator, but ripe tomatoes should be kept in the refrigerator and used as soon as possible. One pound of fresh tomatoes will make four servings.

- 1 tsp. baking powder
- 1 square chocolate
- 1/2 c. milk
- pinch salt
- 1 tsp. vanilla

Mix ingredients; put in can which has been greased (coffee can may be used). Steam for 1 hour (no longer). Serve with the following sauce:

- 1 c. sugar
- 1 egg, slightly beaten

Put a cup of milk on back of stove; when ready to serve, beat hot milk into egg and sugar; add a little vanilla and serve over pudding.

Food Poisoning Season Is Here

Warm weather makes it necessary to take special care so that foods you prepare or serve are safe to eat, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, commissioner of health, advises. Since January 1, there were 21 cases of suspicious food poisoning reported to and investigated by the Detroit Department of Health. Most of these were traced to food served to groups at picnics, weddings, or meetings where food was prepared in large quantities by persons who do not act as foodhandlers ordinarily.

Dr. Molner suggests that a good rule to follow is to keep food hot, keep it cold, or don't keep it. Keeping it cold means refrigeration at a temperature between 40 and 50 degrees.

Food poisonings are caused by the growth of germs in food and these multiply rapidly when certain foods are kept at room temperature. In even an hour or two food may become unfit to eat without changing its taste, appearance or odor. Special care should be given to meats, whether raw, precooked, or cooked; fish, milk, salad dressing cream filling, custards, puddings and gelatine preparations.

Keep cooked leftovers under refrigeration at all times. Food for the picnic basket should be kept clean and cold while it is being prepared and refrigerated until transferred to an insulated container or packed in ice for transportation. Keep the refrigerated picnic foods covered and put them in the shade until they are eaten.

Use care and cleanliness whenever you prepare food. Wash your hands just before you touch food and make sure that all dishes, mixing forks, spoons, and pans are thoroughly clean. Dr. Molner says it is often impossible to detect spoilage when it first begins so you should use care and cleanliness and keep foods refrigerated or hot until you use them.

POWER MOWER STOLEN

A power lawn mower was stolen from the rear of the Oliver Wright residence at 1205 Balfour. The theft was discovered by Mr. Wright on Wednesday, June 22, when he arrived home from work. The mower was standing in the rear of the yard. He notified the police immediately.

Ham an eggs are just natural companions. They're like a needle and thread . . . a scotch and soda. In fashion, they're like Bermuda Shorts and knee high socks. Bermuda shorts are definitely the uniform again in the East . . . and definitive all over. At Vassar . . . as well as Smith, Stephens, etc. . . Bermuda shorts are worn with everything . . . long and short sleeved shirts . . . blazers . . . raincoats and sweaters. Beginning to arrive at 76 Kercheval are all the 1955 Campus Basics. Shorts . . . knee high socks . . . literally EVERYTHING. Three Cheers! On the hill.

It's a question. What makes stereo pictures look like living, breathing realities instead of flat lifeless photographs? Just as you have two eyes spaced a certain distance apart, the stereo camera has two corresponding lenses. Just as your left eye sees a slightly different view of an object from that registered by your right, so do the two "eyes" of the stereo camera. The stereo camera simultaneously takes two separate pictures of the same scene. When viewed in a stereoscope this stereo pair is superimposed. The eyes then register the same sensation of color, depth, roundness and reality as experienced when viewing the actual scene. Capture the beauty of your vacation and your family with a stereo from the Camera Center, in the village.

The tunic will be living it up this fall of 1955. Both slim and flared versions will be shown. The slim, long, coordinated look is established. In coats they represent as much as sixty per cent of the total fashions shown. They appear as narrow tubes, slim wraps, given hemline interest with low seams godets at sides or deep dispatch pockets placed low, or the man inspired overcoats . . . chestfields, little boy or officers coats. This gives you some idea of what you will find soon in Jacobson's . . . where new fashions reign supreme!

Raw wool is graded according to the thickness of its fibers or filaments and is identified by number. Grading runs from very coarse "28's" to extremely fine "80's". The finest grades of wool ("80's" tops) are used in the making of the very finest blankets. Such blankets are naturally the highest in price, because the wools used often cost the manufacturer three to four times more per pound than coarser grades. Medium quality, less expensive blankets are usually made from a combination of 40's-44's and 50's-56's. Color, too, is a measure of wool quality. Cleaner and whiter wools bring premium prices. Inferior wools have neither the strength, length, or whiteness for fine quality blankets. To help promote a clearer understanding of just what is involved in the manufacture of fine quality blankets, Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village, have a little booklet for your information and guidance, "What you Should Know About Fine Quality Blankets."

Many of the new cut necklines will cry for jewelry this fall. So vastly different from last year's fashions, they are closed. Although for evening wear there are still the straight across . . . the squared off types to show the shoulders. But, over all, daytime necklines are cut mostly round the base of the throat and are collarless. Color-blended jewelry encompasses designs motivated by the blackened look in fabrics, the dyed-to-match fall clothes and the close-to-the-neck necklaces that follow the slender silhouettes in the clothes are going to be the rule. So-o-o my pets if you don't come through with some fabulous jewelry with your new clothes . . . it won't be Jacobson's fault. Look for a new jewelry collection soon.

The big point to buying a swim suit is the fact that you want it to come out of the water looking as good as it did when you went in. That is true of these matching imported Madras shirt and swim trunks fashioned for men, and found at Kilgore and Hurd's, on the hill. It is also true that if once he tries a Renee La Coste tee shirt he just won't want any other. He loves the handsome collar and the fit of the short sleeves. Oh yes, and there are still a few of a distinguished group of cool, cool, dacron and wool suits . . . good for mid-summer and on into fall at 92 Kercheval.
