MUTUAL FIRE AID PLANS PUSHED

Nature Also Takes Toll on the Highway

Reckless driving cannot be blamed for this accident. This is the brand new station wagon in which Howard M. Grant of Cadieux road was killed at the height of the furious storm on Wednesday, July 27. Grant was driving at E. Jefferson and Whittier when the squall toppled a large tree which crashed down on his car. For details, see story below.

IN WASHINGTON, the House killed national highway building legislation for this session of Congress. A charge that lobbyists were to blame was made by Speaker Rayburn (D., Tex.). The accusation came after the House overwhelmingly defeated the bill, 292 to 123. It was a pay-as-you-ride Democratic-sponsored substitute for President Eisenhower's bond-financed program.

Rayburn disclosed that the vote kills the legislation for this year and possibly next year, too. Michigan Congressmen did not join the House stampede against the road bills.

ISRAEL DEMANDED COMPENSATION of Communist Bulgaria for the shooting down of an Israeli plane, causing the death of 58 persons Wednesday. Israeli officials described the shooting of the Constellation of El Al Israel Airlines limited as a grave international offense. Bulgaria admitted its gunners shot the big plane's tail off and expressed regret.

CHOU EN-LAI, premier of Red China, offered to discuss the "peaceful" liberation of Nationalist-held Formosa with Chinese Nationalist authorities. He announced his offer during an address to the Chinese People's National Congress in Peiping. A report of the speech was made by the Communist China News Agency.

A U. S. ENVOY is on his way to Geneva to meet with a representative of Red China to discuss the release of Americans detained in Red China. Representing the United States is Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson, who will also sound out the Chinese about a cease-fire around Formosa, which is a possible tinderbox for war in Asia.

After a five-day conference with Secretary of State Dulles, Johnson was strictly forbidden to make any commitments along the lines demanded earlier by Red Chinese Premier Chou En-lai.

TERRIFIED citizens of Valdivia, Chile, were fleeing hot rocks and lava erupting from volcanoes. It was revealed that more than 400 persons were fleeing on foot through the mountains from the disaster area. Two persons were reported killed. Thirty-four others, previously believed asphyxiated by poisonous fumes, were sighted by planes in dense forests.

The Governor of Valdivia called the catastrophe the greatest of its type witnessed in Chile. Dense clouds of sulphurous smoke swirled over three provinces—Cautin, Valdivia and Osorno.

HAROLD E. TALBOTT bowed out as Secretary of the Air Force. He tendered his resignation on Monday. In a letter to President Eisenhower he stated that he was taking this move to prevent any embarrassment to the President or his administration. The resigned secretary blamed bad publicity in connection with a firm in which he still holds a partnership. The President praised Talbott for his fine work while in office but thought his decision to resign "was the right thing." Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson declined comment on a possible successor to Talbott.

INFORMATION from Communist diplomatic sources disclosed that Red China will free the remaining 40 Americans "very soon." The Reds announced yesterday that they had already freed 11 American airmen who were shot down over Korea in January, 1953 and sentenced to prison as spies last November. The United States demanded the immediate release of the 40 Americans during the second session of the "Little Geneva" ambassadorial talks. The release demand was made by the U. S. Representative U. Alexis Johnson. Although there is no positive proof, the State Department is sure that Red China is holding 467 other Americans.

Second Polio Vaccine Shots Available

Innoculation Schedule Being Postponed Until All Youngsters Are Back in School

The second phase of the Salk Polio Vaccine program will be delayed in the Grosse Pointe and Harper Woods district until school opens next month, it was revealed by Dr. Thomas Davies, Grosse Pointe Health Commissioner.

No date has been set for the first and second graders who received their first Salk shot in April, to get the second, but it was stated it will be soon after school starts.

Many Kids Away

Dr. Davies said the reason for the delay was because a good many families, with children eligible for the shots, are still away on vacation. The vaccine is now available, according to Dr. Howard Cadwell, of the Wayne County Health Department.

He said enough vaccine is available to carry the second part of the mass inoculation to a successful conclusion.

2,592 Get First Shots

In April, approximately 2,592 first and second graders in public, parochial and private schools in the Health District received their initial shots of the vaccine.

The entire inoculation program was completed in one day.

Civil Defense Head Sees Storm as Valuable Test

More than broken limbs and aching backs came out of last week's flash storm.

The Grosse Pointe branch of the Office of Civil Defense is alarmed at the way the temporary disaster was handled.

Local director George Elworthy called a high echelon meeting for Wednesday, August 3, at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Spokesmen for the Bell and Edison concerns were present at the meeting to answer questions concerning the time consumed in repairing lines damaged by the storm.

"We are not charging the Edison or Bell people with negligence, unless it exists," Elworthy said. "The purpose of the get-together is to find out."

"If these concerns did do all in their power, then something else must be done. If an attack came and we found ourselves in the shape we were in a week ago,

Falling Tree Crushes Driver As Wicked Wind Whips Area Leaving Heavy Damage

Falling Timber and Power and Phone Lines Raise Havoc; Boatmen Caught on Lake Saved in Dramatic Rescues By Power-Boats

An early afternoon flash storm, described by local officials as the worst in 20 years, wrought havoc throughout the Pointe Wednesday, July 27.

Telephone and Edison wires snapped like threads. Power and phones were out for as long as three hours in some sections. Hundreds of trees were either totally or partially destroyed. They toppled like match sticks in a wind tunnel, blocking streets and main arteries for upward to 18 hours. Ridge road and Charlevoix were not cleared until mid-morning on Thursday.

Lake-Turned Wild
Treachorous Lake St. Clair was whipped into a frothy, tossing mass. Eight Pointers and two Detroit residents were pulled from the churning waters by power boat teams working out of local harbors.

Death struck once in the park. Sixty-nine year old Howard M. Grant of 1035 Cadieux was crushed when a tree fell on his car as he was hurrying for the protection of his home. It happened at Whittier and Jefferson at 2:31 p.m.

It took emergency rescue crews 30 minutes to pry his twisted body from the wrecked 1955 Ford Ranchwagon. Totally destroyed, the station wagon was crushed to within three feet of the ground.

Grant was overseeing work on his new home being built in Windmill Pointe when the storm hit. He immediately dropped everything and started for his Cadieux residence.

Apparently Frightened
He drove east on Jefferson, but the wind-tossed debris and crashing branches apparently frightened him.

The count now stands, since the season began in May, at two in the Park, and one each in the Farms and Harper Woods.

This time last year, it was stated, there were twelve cases reported, five in the Pointe and seven in Harper Woods.

Youth Trapped in Stolen Jacket

One of a group of teenagers who were stopped by Farms police on Sunday, July 31, was found to be wearing someone else's jacket containing a wallet with $57.

The car with the teenagers, all boys, two from Detroit and two from the Pointe, was stopped on the grounds of the Country Club of Grosse Pointe.

While the officers were questioning the boys George Michalek of 17130 E. Jefferson, with a woman companion, drove up to the police and disclosed his jacket with the wallet and money was stolen from beside the club's swimming pool.

As Michalek described the garment to the officers, he noticed that the driver of the other car was wearing it and so informed the law.

Woods Calls Meeting on Rubbish Deal

Special Session on August 8 Arranged in Hopes of Negotiating New Contracts

The Woods council approved a special meeting for Monday, August 8, during which time substitute bids for rubbish and garbage pickup will be opened.

The council was informed on Monday, August 1, its regular meeting date, that during a Friday, July 29, meeting with the firm holding the present contract, it was agreed by officials of both the community and the firm, the contract could be terminated.

Must Pay One-Sixth
However, the city must pay in full up to September 1, or one-sixth of the present contract which has been in effect since July 1.

The dual contract for rubbish and garbage pickup amounts to about $64,000. The garbage pickup alone cost $24,000.

The one-sixth payment must be construed as a penalty for the breaking of the contract on the part of the city.

The present contract holder will submit his bids for a new contract at Monday's special meeting, one for rubbish and one for garbage.

If the total amount of the new bids equals or exceeds the amount of the present dual contract, the Woods will retain the contract it now holds.

Signed in May
The Woods had signed a contract for rubbish and garbage pickup last May and it went into effect on July 1, the date the city ceased using public funds for garbage pickups.

The contract was signed, as far as the garbage pickup was concerned, because on March 1 a survey showed that 1,998 homes (Continued on Page 2)

Window Washer Has Taking Ways

The City police picked up the thief who took a set of golf clubs from a Neff garage in June and a watch from a home in July.

On a tip from the employer, they picked up Wilfred Lozon Friday, July 29. Lozon is a window washer employed by a local concern.

"His employer thought he was lifting things from the homes at which they worked," Lt. Andy Teetsart said.

The subsequent investigation uncovered the stolen merchandise. Lozon admitted to the thefts, but because no charges were pressed for the thefts, he will be tried only as a disorderly person.

Spot Check Shows Many "Mooching" In Use of Water

One Property Owner Ticketed and Must Go to Court for Using Sprinkling System on Wrong Day; All Residents Warned

Apparently the water restrictions imposed by the Farms apply only to the other fellow in the minds of many citizens, because evidence points to the fact that a good number of residents are cheating, it was pointed out by City Manager Harry Furton.

The "moochers" (some not all), are the residents who have lawn water soakers and use them indiscriminately, paying little heed to whether or not it is their day to sprinkle their lawn.

Spot Check Tells Tale

Mr. Furton disclosed that on a recent spot check of the city, to determine how the residents are complying with the restrictions, it was found that some of the homes checked showed evidences of using their soakers in deliberate violation of the ordinance.

He said that the checkers, in most cases police officers and on occasions, city officials, feel like snoopers when they inspect hoses and lawns, but it was a case of a job that had to be done.

He stated that in many cases there was positive proof that some residents were violating the law, because the ground has been found to be very damp and the grass glistening, especially in sunlight.

Property Owner Ticketed

Recently, he said, a large estate had its underground sprinkling system in operation on a day it wasn't supposed to, and the house owner was issued a ticket.

An attempt to settle the violation at the police station was turned down, because the ordinance states that the case must be heard in court.

Mr. Furton pointed out that violations can bring fines up to $500 or 90 days in jail, or both, depending on the seriousness of the violation and the judge.

He said that orders have been issued to the police department to crack down on these and other "water thieves" who think more of their lawns than they do of their fellow residents.

Henceforth, violators of the water restriction ordinance will be ticketed and brought to court. "Don't be one of them," the officials warn.

Storm Damage Threatens Elms

"Well, at least there'll be plenty of firewood this winter!" This quote has been mouthed by more than one Pointe resident motoring about the streets surveying the tree damage wrought by the flash storm, Wednesday, July 27.

But it's a dangerous assumption. Piles of dead wood are seventh heavens for the Dutch Elm beetle.

According to tree experts, cord wood and dried up fire logs are perfect breeding places for the bark insect.

Trio of Bandits Arrested Within Hour of Robbery

A trio of "salt shaker" bandits robbed the all-night gas station operating in conjunction with O'Leary Cadillac Sales early Monday morning, August 1.

They got away with $55 in small bills, but their freedom was short lived. Less than an hour later they were picked up by the Detroit police.

According to night attendant Edward Tabaczuk, a pair of men walked up and demanded all the cash on hand.

"One of them had his hand in his pocket and said he'd blow my head off if I didn't cooperate."

Later investigation proved that the supposed gun was no more than a salt shaker.

Upon report of the robbery, the City Police sent out an all-points bulletin on the police radio, with a complete description of the bandits and the get away car.

Joining Six Departments Complicated

Many Details to be Worked Out to Get Better Protection For Whole District

The task of consolidating the five Pointes and Harper Woods fire departments is no small job. At present, proceedings toward the unification are moving along, but the day of full accomplishment is still far removed.

Coordinated by a committee made up of city officials from the six concerned communities, the work has now passed from the committee to the department level.

A few weeks back equipment lists of all the departments were submitted. They have now been checked and catalogued.

Fears Dissipated

The one feared setback, that of diverse hose couplings, was found not to exist. Comparisons of the inventories showed that all the hose and hydrant hook-ups were standard.

Submitted to Park Fire Chief George deCaussin, who is handling the technical end of the operation, the lists are now being used to set up proposed alarm schedules.

"This is a long and tedious job," deCaussin said.

The immediate goal of the committee and the communities is to set up a cooperative plan, whereby an alarm is answered by more than one company. "To make this work, the departments must know what to do and where to go," deCaussin explained.

Maps Being Prepared

This necessitates drawing up maps of the communities in order to figure out who should answer which fires. "If there's a fire at Bon Secours Hospital, it would be ridiculous for Harper Woods and Grosse Pointe Shores to join the City on the first call and leave us sitting here," he said.

"These are the things we must figure out."

The equipment lists then, are being used to determine best efficiency for first and second alarms. "You can't send everybody scurrying on each call; you'd leave too much area unprotected," deCaussin said.

"From the lists, you must analyze what the departments have and which pieces to send on the first call and which to follow up with."

"You can't have 25 pumpers on a fire when you need ladders."

Surveys Buildings

To determine all this, deCaussin is doing more than boxing maps. "I've had to go and survey all of the communities to see just which buildings would most likely need the help of other communities."

"Most residential fires can be taken care of by one or two companies. But if the Esquire theatre building or one of the schools or such caught fire, then you'd need every bit of help you could get."

Series of Alerts

The type of alarm system under consideration is one of a series of alerts. The initial alarm would be answered by certain pieces from two communities. Then, if more were needed, a second alarm would be put in.

This would bring the remaining equipment from the two companies already on the scene, plus a ladder and pumper from a third department.

A third alarm would be radioed and the equipment would respond as asked for.

"What I'm figuring out now, is the equipment to answer automatically," deCaussin explained.

Would Reduce Manpower

Under this system, sufficient manpower would be on the scene immediately and it would also put additional manpower on alert.

Continuing, deCaussin pointed out the long-run problems of organizing a cooperative plan.

"As it stands now, my men are completely familiar with the community, but when called to a foreign community, the picture changes."

Much to Be Learned

"They then must learn fire hydrant placements. They must become at least partially familiar with a building where a serious (Continued on Page 2)

ened him. At Whittier he decided to detour to St. Paul. He hesitated a moment before turning. At that moment a huge, 60-foot elm, standing on public right of way on the north side of Jefferson, snapped off at the base. It caught Grant's wagon half way through his turn. Eye witnesses to the fatality said they knew immediately. "As soon as I hit, I knew the driver was gone," said Pat Beran of 896 Rivard, a Grosse Pointe High School student. "That tree crumpled the wagon like someone might step on a tin can."

Buick Also Struck
Almost simultaneously to the Grant tragedy, a large limb fell on an eastbound Buick a block away at Park lane, denting the top and shattering the windshield. Mrs. Charlotte Gentz of 20695 Huntington, Grosse Pointe Woods, was rushed to Bon Secours Hospital with facial lacerations. Elsewhere, mishaps of lesser import occurred. A tree at Beverly and Jefferson fell, blocking both east and west bound Jefferson traffic for nearly three hours. Heavy five o'clock traffic piled up for almost two blocks attempting to funnel through the Fisher to Grosse Pointe boulevard detour.

Ridge Road Blocked
Ridge road between Lewiston and Moran and Charlevoix between Lewiston and Kenwood were blocked all night. It was not until around 9 o'clock Thursday morning that they were cleared for traffic.

Ten other Pointe side streets in the Park, City and Farms were blocked by downed trees and limbs. In the Shores, a portion of Lake Shore had to be detoured because of a high voltage power line. A two-island section of the west bound lane east of Lochmoor was shut off to traffic until a little before midnight.

In the neighboring Woods, there were no reports of trees blocking streets, though police and fire departments were plagued with a different kind of destruction.

Power Lines Loose
"Within a half hour period we received three fire alarms due to loose power lines," said Vern Bailey, Director of Public Safety. "We no more than got in from the first call than the second arrived. The third alarm was waiting for us, but not for more than a minute." All were false alarms tended eventually by city and Edison crews.

The only report of considerable property damage came into the City. A screened-in front porch was completely leveled when a dying maple toppled through the awning.

Residents Out of Town
The "de-porching" happened at Cadiue and Cranford lane, the residence of the W. E. Simms. No one was on the porch at the time of the mishap. The Simms are vacationing out of town.

Remarkably, very little damage was done at any one of the five waterfront parks, Crescent Sail or the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. Outside of a capsized boat moored at the City pier and three ripped beach umbrellas at the Yacht Club, the only damage was wrought by falling trees and limbs, and that was negligible.

Out on the lake, things were different.

Caught in River
A pair of 13-year-old Pointe Tom Sawyers were stranded between Peche Island and the mainland when the full impact of the storm hit.

According to Rich Correa of 15412 Mack and Jim Lucas of 1338 Nottingham, "We were having such a time keeping the boat upright, that we thought we'd better head for Belle Isle." They'd embarked from the Park pier early Tuesday morning to go swimming on Peche.

They landed on the Isle without any trouble, but a little after, the three foot waves scuttled their boat and dashed it against shore line rocks, opening a slight hole in the bow.

Harbormaster Helps
After the storm, they fixed a line to the wallowing 14-foot row-boat and the harbormaster towed them across to their Fox Creek mooring.

"Except for the hole, she looks all right," said owner Lucas.

Further east, out in the Lake, four local teenagers were tossed in the drink when their sailboat scuttled while they tried to lower sail.

Sailboat Capsizes
The capsizing happened approximately a mile off the Crescent Sail Yacht Club. The four were picked up by a passing pleasure yacht owned by Lawrence B. Greenbury of Farmington.

The four drenched sailors were: Jerry Lorente of 2025 Hampton, James Blashill of 1040 Kensington, Peter Wardle of 836 Washington and Tom Ireland of 16913 Maumee.

According to Greenbury, whose alert piece of rescue work diverted a second near Pointe tragedy, "I was extremely lucky to see them at all, the waves were so high. I was having one dickens own-time keeping my boat upright."

Tough-Rescue Work
Wardle and Blashill were picked up on the first pass. It took two more crossings to get Ireland aboard.

"By this time the waves were really high," Greenbury said. "It was all I could do to get the boat around."

After five or six more tries, Lorente was rescued. The entire proceedings took an estimated 45 minutes.

In recounting the experience, Blashill said that the boat went over when they had to stop sail reefing procedures to try and rescue Wardle, knocked overboard when the boom lashed around. "Before we knew it, we were all swimming," he said.

Power Boat Assists
At the City park, a boat trying to make the harbor was blown seaward by the offshore gales. Herb Weot and an unnamed companion were hauled to safety by a powerboat, also scurrying for the safety of the moorings.

Two Detroit youths were rescued when their boat went under between the City pier and the Little Club. A natural harbor, the two could stand up in the four-foot water.

Save Elms

owner may, through a written request, have the city spray or remove a tree, the cost to be levied back to the owner.

In going a step beyond the Woods, whose ordinance demands only the removal of the diseased elms, the Shores has activated both a preventative and a cure.

Shores Will Contract
Unlike the public tree program, carried on by the Grosse Pointe Township authorities, the Shores Village will now have to contract for the necessary spraying and removal.

The two point program was introduced to the board by Trustee Alfred Wilson. The proposal met with overwhelming approval and was passed unanimously after a short discussion.

The ordinance will go into effect Saturday, August 20. Though not as comprehensive, the Woods was more decisive.

Its action was passed in the form of an emergency resolution to go into effect immediately.

Cuts Removal Time
It differs from the Shores statute only in that it gives its owners 10 days instead of 15 for removal. This follows the state law to the letter.

The ordinance was introduced to the council by City Administrator William Lange. Like the Shores, it met with no dissent.

The only point in question was the form of the resolution. It was felt by the body, that the present epidemic demanded quick action.

Paul R. O. Marden, executive secretary of the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association, the group that has been spear-heading the fight against the dreaded tree killer, was present at the Woods meeting.

Applauds Action
After the ordinance was passed, he addressed the council, applauding Administrator Lang for his proposal and the council for quick acceptance.

Marden, in a quote to the press, said, "The action is a positive step in the right direction. I hope the other cities will follow the precedent set tonight." (At the time, Marden was unaware of the Shores action.) "If we are going to lick this thing, we must attack it at least in part on the local level."

Fire Plan

fire might break out, plus the surrounding area.

They must be familiar with the other communities' fire fighting techniques and one of the most important things, they must familiarize themselves with the fastest routes to any given point.

"To say the least, this is a good deal to ask, a thing that at best will take time."

To Submit Final Plans
When the maps, routes, mileage charts, equipment and surveys are complete and analyzed and grouped, then a final inter-departmental plan will be drawn up. This done, the plan will be submitted to the various fire chiefs for approval. Then the committee takes over.

TAKES FIELD TRAINING
Pfc. Daniel S. Kelly of 638 Harcourt is a member of the 309th Military Government Group, a Detroit Army Reserve unit, which is undergoing two weeks of training at Camp McCoy, Wis. During the rest of the year these men attend weekly evening meetings at Fort Wayne.

did not have garbage grinders or incinerators, according to a program started by the city. Each of these homes was sent a postcard bearing the question of whether there was one or the other unit on the premises, and only 700 answers were received, leaving 1298 who had not been heard from.

Got Wrong Impression
The assumption that at least 1,200 homes would need the garbage pickup service, was the basis for signing the garbage pickup phase of the contract. It turned out that only 132 homes and five business establishments signed up for the garbage pickups, which was privately contracted for at a cost of $13 for homes and $51 for business places for the first six months.

Canceling of the present contract and submitting substitute bids was the best solution to the problem, even with the pro rata payment.

Party Provides Cover for Thief

Woods police are investigating a larceny which occurred at the home of John Bray, 1651 Oxford road, on Tuesday, July 26. It was disclosed by Woods Det. Everett Plumb that while a party was in progress at the Bray residence, someone walked off with about 20 quarts of whiskey, $140 in cash, a plain wedding band and a wrist watch, value not known.

Mercury beauty, power and resale value boost sales to record high...

And record sales mean record deals. Cut your cash outlay by acting now—get a far bigger allowance for your present car.

It's worth a trip to our showroom just to hear the figures! For it's never been easier than right now to own a Mercury.

HIGH-VOLUME DEAL—Mercury's record-breaking popularity now permits us to operate on a much higher-volume basis. We can offer the best deals in our history. And, remember, a Mercury deal means far more than just a low price. Look at what you get:

EXCLUSIVE STYLING—No "look-alike" styling for Mercury. You get fresh, distinctive beauty—styling shared by no other car.

SUPER-TORQUE POWER—You get more than just high horsepower (188 and 198 hp)—you get far more usable power. More power is put to work in pickup and passing speed ranges—where you can use it for everyday driving, not just for high speeds.

EXTRA-VALUE FEATURES—Only Mercury in its field offers you so many important extras at no extra cost. For example, a 4-barrel carburetor on all models. Special 18mm anti-fouling spark plugs. Ball-joint front suspension. And dual exhausts on all Montclair and Monterey, and Custom Station Wagons.

CONSISTENTLY HIGHEST RESALE VALUE—Mercury protects your investment better than any other car in its field. Independent reports show that Mercury consistently returns more of the original purchase price at trade-in time. In short, no other car offers you bigger reasons for buying it. And you couldn't pick a better time to get a deal on a new Mercury. So why wait? See us today.

THE BIG MOVE IS TO MERCURY

Mercury is setting new sales records every month. More than 2,000,000 Mercurys have been bought since 1946.

Driver Unable to Pay Fine Goes to Jail for 30 Days

Leonard A. Hollon, 26, of 2134 Congress, Detroit, was sentenced to pay a fine of $150 and $8 costs on Saturday, July 30, by Farms Judge Grant E. Armstrong, after being found guilty of reckless driving and causing an accident in which two persons were hurt.

A Farms police report disclosed that a car driven by Harry E. Hauck, 27, of 2243 Maxwell, Detroit, while traveling west on Lake Shore road, stopped to make a right hand turn onto Fisher road, when the car driven by Hollon struck the other in the rear.

Hauck's car was turned over on its side.

Hauck and his passenger, James W. Taylor of 10807 E. Jefferson, were rushed to Bon Secours Hospital by police, where three stitches were applied to a wound in Taylor's forehead and three to a wound on his right arm. He was released.

Hauck, however, was detained at the hospital pending an x-ray examination of his head, arms and ankles.

In court it was found that Hollon was driving while his license was revoked. His driving privileges had been suspended by a Kentucky judge in 1950.

The errand driver was unable to pay the fine and cost and he was remanded to the Wayne County jail for 30 days.

Hauck's car was a total loss; Hollon's car suffered $50 in damages.

Damage Slight; Penalty Costly

It was only a minor accident, but Harry Smith, Jr., of 4103 Manistique, Detroit, ended up with two violation tickets.

A Farms police report said officers were called to Mack avenue and Maison road, on Wednesday, July 27, to investigate a two-car accident.

It was found that Grace E. Jordan of 2174 Hollywood, going east on Mack, had stopped for backing up traffic, when Smith, traveling in the same direction, struck the woman's car in the rear. Both cars received an estimated $10-damage.

The woman was issued a witness ticket, but Smith was taken to the station where he was issued a ticket for driving while intoxicated and another for not having a driver's license on his person.

He was later released on a $100 cash bond, pending his appearance in court.

High Winds Fill Streets With Toppled Trees

This picture, taken between Lewiston and Moran in Ridge road last Wednesday afternoon, was typical of many scenes all over the Pointe area following the sudden squall that ripped through. Ridge was also spanned by another fallen tree in the next block, between Muir and Lewiston.

Note the flaming high tension wire burning by the pole on the right. So many wires were down it was impossible for the police and firemen to place guards at many of the danger points.

Programs Ending Season at Club

A very active summer ends this week at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club, in which children of all ages enjoyed constructive and wholesome recreational activities.

The morning program for four, five and six-year-olds will conclude on Thursday, August 4, with the children participating in a brief presentation of the popular Davy Crockett ballad. Parents are invited to attend this session. Refreshments will conclude the morning festivities.

The afternoon program will hold its final day on Friday, August 5, for children between the ages of 7-12 years. A gala Field Day is being planned with games and races for all age groups.

The final events are to be a peanut hunt and a slow bicycle race in which all may participate. Parents are invited to attend. Refreshments provided by both the children and the Community Club will be the final event of the day.

The evening playground activities will continue through August. This program is sponsored by the City of Grosse Pointe Woods Department of Parks and Recreation.

The Community Club offers activities for pre-school, grade school, junior and senior high school students. Activities will be resumed in September and membership is open to all living within the Grosse Pointe School District. The Community Club is a Torch Fund Agency.

Msgr. Vismara Council Sets Annual Picnic Date

Msgr. Vismara Knights of Columbus Council of Harper Woods, plans to hold its annual picnic on Sunday, August 14, at Carpathia Park, located on Sixteen Mile road, between Mound and Ryan roads.

Entertainment plans have been completed. There will be ponies for the children; games of all types for children of all ages and a five-piece orchestra for the dancing set.

Refreshments and food will be served from morning 'til night. Council Grand Knight is Frank Karwacki and William Kircher is Deputy Grand Knight.

Investigations that eat up the taxpayers' money never seem to go on a hunger strike.

Many Activities Scheduled At City's Enlarged Beach

With the advent of many new features in the aquatic program at the Grosse Pointe City pier, swimming is taking on added significance. Instruction in life saving, swimming lessons for children and adults, aquatic meets and contests, and bait casting are some of the many things that interest both young and old.

New classes in swimming instruction start this week. Those interested are asked to enroll not later than this weekend to get in on the final classes of the season. Full particulars may be had at the park checkroom, where those interested may enroll.

There are classes for beginners, swimmers, the advanced swimmers and those interested in diving, for junior and senior life saving with American Red Cross certification, instruction in fancy diving and swimming for adults, both those wishing to learn and those interested in help in more advanced skills. In addition, there are classes in bait casting and boating.

Instruction for adults is scheduled for Tuesdays and Thursdays at both 4 p.m. and 7 p.m., starting this week. Those interested may come as often as they wish during the month of August.

Final Courses in Life Saving
Final courses for instruction in life saving will begin this week. These groups will meet as follows: Junior life saving for those 15 years and under at 4 p.m. on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, with instruction in senior life saving at 7 p.m. on the same days for those 16 years of age and older. These courses require a certain number of hours of training to certify for Red Cross and those interested are urged to enroll immediately.

Instruction in Bait Casting
Instruction in bait casting will be given by members of the Grosse Pointe Casting Club, as announced by A. J. Keller, who has been active in getting a casting layout in the park for both adults' and children's use. Mr. Keller urges all who like this sport to visit the park often and make use of these facilities.

Members of the G. P. Casting Club, under the presidency of Walter Feys, will give a demonstration of casting this Friday evening, August 5. Starting at 7 o'clock members of the club will exhibit their skill at the park.

Clam Diving Contests
For those who like diving sport there will be clam diving contests on the next two Saturday afternoons, starting at 2 o'clock, as arranged by guards George Swindler, Dick Heglin, Bill Marsden and Judd Emerson. Those interested are urged to enter into this fun on Saturday, August 6 and 13, and those who wish to watch the fun will be welcome as spectators.

Robert J. Nixon Elected NACA Publication Head
Robert J. Nixon of 80 Merriweather road has been elected director of publications of the National Association of Cost Accountants, Detroit Chapter.

Mr. Nixon is a graduate of the University of Illinois and a member of the Michigan Association of CPA's and American Institute of Accountants. He previously was with Ernst & Ernst in Chicago and is now president of Motor Products Corporation.

New Policeman Hired By Shores

William Marshall, 26, of 22527 Schroeder, E. Detroit, joined the Shores Police Department on July 20, and is currently on his probationary period.

A 1948 graduate of Denby High School in Detroit, the new police officer, was employed by the Michigan Bell Telephone company prior to his present job.

He is a Korean War veteran. He joined the Army in October of 1950 and was honorably discharged as a sergeant in November of 1952.

He is married and the father of an eight-month-old girl.

Many people who are inclined to do good get in the habit of putting it off until tomorrow.

Poupard School Doubles in Size

Final touches are being given the addition to Poupard School which will double its capacity. A record 780 youngsters are expected this fall in grades kindergarten through sixth grade.

Just five years ago Poupard opened with an enrollment of 238. Included in the addition are 13 classrooms, a library and a second teachers' room. The gym has also been enlarged and a folding door installed so that two play spaces will be available.

Among the new pupils who enter Poupard this September there will be 180 kindergarten children. Of these, 100 were enrolled last spring during the kindergarten orientation program. The parents of these children will receive a letter from Poupard sometime in August telling of their room, teacher, and half-day assignment.

Those who did not register in the spring but who were living in the district at the time of the May census will receive a letter from the Board of Education telling about registration procedure during the week of August 29 and September 2 (1 to 4 p.m. each day).

New registrations for grades one through six will also be taken at that time. Children who were at Poupard last year are already registered and will receive a postcard late in August telling them of their room and teacher assignment.

Shrubs Offered At Low Prices

Flowering shrubs at greatly reduced prices to Pointe residents!

What could be a more attractive offer?

It's being made by the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council, one of the sponsors of the "Clean-Up" campaign now under way.

The offer, in effect for a limited time only, is one of the Council's contributions to the community effort to win the nationwide "Cleanest City" contest.

The G.P.G.C. Council is now in the midst of making arrangements for an all-out Beautification Program, one of the last steps in an all-year campaign to make the Pointe "the nation's most beautiful and cleanest community."

"I've talked to a great many people who have wanted to cover up ungainly pieces of their property with shrubs and such, but because of high prices, have put off doing it," said Mrs. Otis Walker, area chairman of the Clean-Up Campaign.

Mrs. Walker will be greatly pleased to supply further information on the prices and sizes of the shrubs. She can be reached at VA. 2-0506.

Mrs. Walker also stressed the proximity of the judging for the contest. "It won't be too much longer before representatives from the National Clean-Up, Fix-Up, Paint-Up Bureau in Washington will be around," she pointed out.

123 Children and Adults In Farms Swimming Meet

Under the supervision of Eddie Lauer, Grosse Pointe Farms staged its annual swimming meet last Saturday, July 30, which was a beautifully run affair. Keeping strictly to a prearranged time schedule prepared by Lauer and his helpers, starter Hank Collins, judges Bill Mason, Bill Huettnerman and Walt Collins, starting committee John Chase, Dan Reaume and George Demison, the meet went off without a hitch and finally wound up only five minutes behind schedule.

One hundred and twenty-three boys, girls, mothers and dads participated, and in almost every event a new champion was crowned. Red, white and blue ribbons were awarded to the place winners and the small fry displayed them as though they were the largest and most important trophies in the world.

Bill Carruthers kept the 4,138 spectators well informed as to what was taking place as each race was run, and in between times came up with witty quips that kept the sweltering crowd amused.

Probably the hardest working committee of the whole affair was comprised of three lovely little ladies who didn't get a chance to see a single race as they were kept busy tabulating the results. They were Tomi Conventini, Pat and Jane Hurt. Without their valuable help the whole meet would have been a mess.

Jay Bocci, Bill Arpine and Gara Gasper were invaluable in the manner in which they got the swimmers lined up in their proper lanes prior to each race. And timer Jerry Murdock clocked more new records than you could shake a stick at.

Seventeen new records were written into the books. Director Ed Lauer attributes the new records to the new facilities provided at the Farms Beach.

The winners and runners-up in the various events are as follows:

5 Hospitalized In Park Crash

An accident at Devonshire and Charlevoix in the Park on Sunday, July 31 hospitalized five people.

George Kowalski of 3810 Harvard in Detroit, ran the stop sign on Devonshire and piled into the side of a car driven by Herman Bernhard of 3935 Bewick, Detroit.

Bernhard was traveling east on Charlevoix when Kowalski entered the intersection from the south.

Taken to Bon Secours Hospital with head injuries and cuts were Anna Bernhard, 67, Ida Schlicking, 67, James and John Kowalski and Josephine Kowalski.

Mrs. Bernhard and Mrs. Schlicking were passengers in Bernhard's auto.

James and John Kowalski are sons of the driver. Josephine is his wife.

Bernhard's car was not drivable.

Kowalski was ticketed for not heeding a stop sign and causing an accident.

Windmill Pointe YC Races Attract Total of 82 Boats

Commodore Ben Coche's Windmill Pointe Yacht Club had its first taste of staging a sailboat regatta last Saturday, July 30, and despite the expected light turnout, it was a good one. A comparatively small fleet, 82 boats, crossed the starting line above Pecvhe Island on the regular DRYA triangular course, had a close haul tack to the first mark off the American shore and a close reach to the second mark across the lake and a smart-fanny patting spinnaker run back to the finish line.

Following the regatta the fleet was entertained that evening by the gracious WPYC flag officers and members at a buffet dinner. True, WPYC officials expected a larger turnout of small boats. They were certain few large boats would be back from their cruises following the Bayview Mackinac race a week earlier.

The week after the Mackinac has always been a poor one to draw a large fleet but we hope WPYC isn't discouraged and will continue to hold sail regattas which are certain to become larger with each succeeding one, because their hospitality is wonderful.

In the Universal A class Phil Foskett's six meter "Sprig" saved her handicap time to beat Alan Jones R boat "Mouette" who in turn beat Fritz DeFries and Bruce Conlan's six meter "Cutty Sark."

Don Dipboye's "Krudd" paced the Universal B class with Jim Mog's "Cayuse" and Bob Livingston's "Quesy" following in that order.

Ray St. John's "Lil Singva," Hal Mistelet's "Pocahontas" and Jay Gonyeau's "Mitimar" finished in that order in the 30 Square meter class.

In the Raven class the usual winners were forced to take a back seat this time as Roy Barbier's "Frolic," Gordon McCabe's "Juhuna" and Al Bortolotti's "Nauti-gal" took the first three places in that order. Jerry Jenkins found the combi-panion on his recently purchased L boat "Debbie D" to lead this hot class. It was in this race that an oddity of sail yacht racing occurred when George McCormick's "Gael" and Freddie Jensen's "Escape" crossed the finish line in a dead heat for a second place tie.

Cliff Phalen's "Blue Horizon" led the Luder class, which saw the Booth-Detwiler "Goose" and Bill Fisher's "Twenty One" follow in that order.

The Junior Knarrrs put in their first appearance of the season and Tom Rochford got the gun with Chuck Taylor taking second. The fast fading Star class, (around these parts), was won by Tompkinson's "Tomi" with fleet captain Jim Wright's "Fleet Star" taking second.

The club Sloop class was won by Jack Break followed by Reggie Holt and George Stasvich. Ralph O'Hara paced the Lightning class, the largest turnout of the day, with Jack Leverenz second and Chuck Grant third. Herb Mainfaring won the Thistle class, with Morrison and Bob Blanchard following in that order.

Bill Gleason got his first winning gun in the Lawley 110 class beating Al Pryzbylowicz.

The Detroit Yacht Club won the CK team event with 33 points and was followed by St. Clair Y.C. 20 and Edison Boat Club 19. For some reason the Detroit Boat Club didn't show. The race was completely dominated by DYC sailors Frank Houghton, C. Estler and H. Blackman who took the first three places in that order. Mary Hesse topped the CK Free-For-All class with Lee Smith and R. Turner chasing her across the line in that order.

Next on the schedule is the annual Grosse Ile Y.C. regatta on Saturday, August 6, at which time the big boats are invited to sail the annual All Night race. The little boats go in the afternoon regatta. Following this regatta many of the boats will stay over to race to Put In Bay on Monday, August 8, and some will participate in the ILYA regatta which will take place August 9 to 12. Windsor Y.C. regatta will be the next on Lake St. Clair and is scheduled for Saturday, August 13.

Blaze in Garage Started by Kids

A fire broke out in the upstairs part of the garage at the Sam Sfire residence, 1028 Kensington Saturday, July 30.

Children were playing with matches and set a bale of straw ablaze.

The Park fire department arrived on the scene before any serious damage was done and extinguished the fire.

There was no structural damage because the fire had not yet reached the rafters.

The flame was put out with a high pressure line run up through the garage. The children were not burned.

Youthful Beer Drinkers Nabbed

The Park police nabbed a group of teen-age beer-drinkers Friday night, July 29. They were picked up at Kereheval and Three Mile drive for reckless driving.

The subsequent search of the car revealed empty beer bottles. Taken to the station for further questioning, the youths admitted to drinking the beer.

They told police that they had met early in the evening and picked up a trio of girls at the Parkside Recreation, Conner and Warren.

From here, they drove out of the city and on to Mt. Clemens. It was there they bought the beer.

They drank it driving back to Detroit. They were picked up passing through the Pointe at a little before Midnight. The girls were with them at the time of their apprehension.

The girls, two of them sisters, are 13, 14 and 15. They admitted to taking "a few sips of beer." They were turned over to their parents pending further investigation.

The boys, one 18 and two 19, admitted to buying the beer at the City Beer Store in Mt. Clemens. They said the man who waited on them did not require any identification.

Two of the boys, also admitted to buying four beers before they hooked up with the third.

The boys were released to the 15th precinct Clean-Up Squad

Pianos Needed For Camp Sites

The USO is urgently in need of pianos to be placed in Army camp sites within the Detroit area, it was disclosed by USO officials.

The pianos are needed to carry out entertainment programs for the service men by USO show troupes who tour the various camps.

The need is demonstrated by the fact that a show is scheduled for one of the AAA camp sites in the Metropolitan area on Thursday, August 11, and that particular site has no piano.

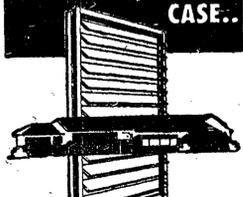

Anyone interested in donating a piano is asked to call WO. 2-5044, and an Army truck will come to your door to pick up the instrument.

Woods Babe Ruth Leaguers Second in State Tourney

The Grosse Pointe Woods Babe Ruth League wound up its initial season last weekend by capturing the runnerup position in the league's state tournament.

After winning three games in tournament play, the Woods all-star team was downed 12 to 5 by Northwest Detroit, the defending champions, in 90-plus temperatures last Sunday afternoon at Southfield High School.

A day earlier, the Woods team qualified for the final game by beating the Upper Peninsula team of Bessemer 11 to 9. On the previous weekend, the Woods squad beat Berkley and Kalamazoo.

The Woods team drew praise from Alfred W. Bates, state Babe Ruth director, for the fine record they made in their first season of play.

Northwest Detroit yielded five runs to the Woods. They had given up a combined total of only three runs to three other teams in tournament play. The Detroit team will play Illinois in regional competition at Terre Haute, Friday, August 5.

The Woods team jumped to a two-run lead in the first inning. Medley walked, Totte singled, then after two strikeouts, Gramer singled to score Medley and Totte.

Northwest Detroit tied it up in the second on an error, a triple by Bob Wood and a sacrifice fly.

The Woods struck back with two more runs in the second, which knocked Northwest's pitcher John Gutowsky from the box. With one out Jim Kelly walked. Medley was safe on an error at second. Totte's solid single drove in the two runs. Bill Rohloff singled, sending Totte to third. This brought Eddie Mier to the mound for Northwest Detroit.

Mier struck out Art Proefke to end the inning and the Woods threat.

In the third, Northwest grabbed four more runs. Bibeau singled, Holmes singled, Heenan singled. Larry Cutright then banged out a home run to right field, scoring two ahead of him.

This rain of hits blasted Lars Anderson from the box. He was replaced by George Steil. Detroit loaded the bases, but the inning ended without further scoring.

In the fourth, Kelly and Steil singled to start a rally, but Mier clamped down by striking out Medley and retiring Totte on a long fly to left and tossing out Rohloff at first.

The Woods, however, scored another run in the seventh. Totte walked, stole second and scored on two infield outs.

Northwest piled up six more runs with heavy hitting which included a homer by Bob Wood in the sixth.

Heenan, Cutright and Woods, with three hits each, were chiefly responsible for the Woods' downfall.

In the Bessemer game, the Woods scored 11 runs on 11 hits, including a home run by Proefke and triples by Rohloff and Bueck Boardman.

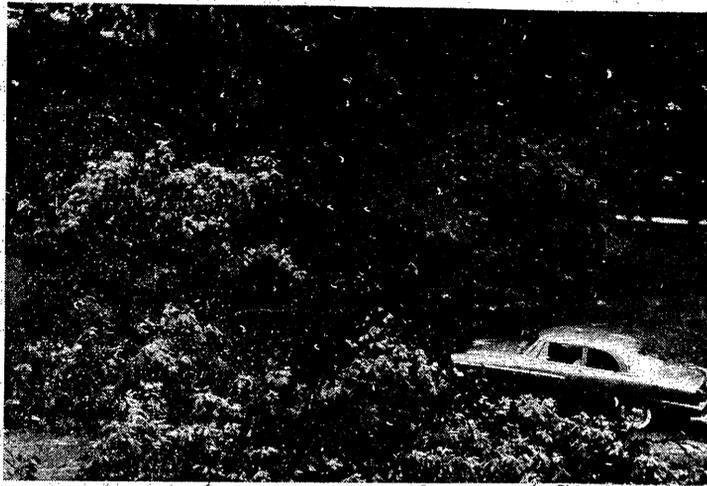

Timely hitting, combined with flashy fielding plays by Rohloff and tight pitching by Bob Wheeler and Jim Cross meant the difference for the Woods. Wheeler, relieved in the fifth, was credited with the win.

The Woods farm system played its championship game Friday, July 29, at the Grosse Pointe University School.

Bob Ryan's Houston Greens defeated the San Antonio Oranges, managed by Fred Radtke, by a score of 8 to 7. The line score:

Greens	8	7	7
Oranges	7	8	0

Experiences Both Kinds of Luck in Storm

Appeals Board To Review Plea

The Farms will hold a Board of Appeals hearing on Monday, August 8, at 8 p.m., to consider an appeal by a company which desires to construct a car wash at Mack and Kerby.

Seeking a reversal on the denial for a permit to construct the building is the G. R. Holding corporation. The permit was refused by the Building Department, on the grounds the building did not conform to a clause in the city's zoning ordinance.

The applicant is basing his appeal on the fact that this type of building does conform to the ordinance and that he can comply.

The hearing is open to the public and interested property

Father Arrested In Child Beating

A Detroit father knows now that he cannot unmercifully beat his daughter, regardless where he might be.

According to Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling, Grippe Atkins, 34, of 498 Clairpointe, was arrested on a warrant, signed by Shores Judge John Gillis, charging him with beating, wounding and bruising his 11-year-old daughter.

Atkin had taken the child to Jefferson Beach and on the way home, stopped his car at 915 Lake Shore road, and began to beat the girl, who ran screaming from the car and down the road.

People in the vicinity who heard the child scream, called police and Atkins was taken into custody while chasing the girl.

Chief Duemling stated that this was the man's third arrest for abusing his daughter, the previous two times occurring in Detroit.

The girl's mother signed the complaint.

Dodge Appoints Albert Rhodes

Appointment of Albert A. Rhodes as new car sales manager for Dodge in the Detroit region was announced by A. G. Kirchner, regional sales manager of Dodge Bros. Corp.

Rhodes has been employed since 1952 as merchandising manager with another automotive concern. For two years previously, he was city manager for a lubrication system manufacturer. From 1946 to 1950, Rhodes held a number of positions with another automobile manufacturer, including distribution and office manager.

Born in Detroit, he now resides at 20719 Wicks lane, Grosse Pointe.

Allard Buys Stein Hardware

One of Grosse Pointe's best-known citizens and most illustrious soldiers, COLONEL D. WALTER ALLARD, right, is shown here with ANTHONY STEIN, from whom he purchased the Stein Hardware company, one of the oldest and best-known hardware firms in the area. The store was established in Detroit more than two-score years ago and was moved to Grosse Pointe at 18626 Mack avenue (next to the Grosse Pointe Post-office) some 15 years ago. Mr. Stein, the son of the original founder, Eugene Stein, is retiring.

Shores Changing Meeting Dates

The Shores Village council on Monday, August 1, approved changing its meeting date from the first Monday of the month to the first Tuesday of the month.

Village Manager Thomas Jeffers stated that the date change came about because it was more convenient for several members of the council to attend meetings on Tuesday, and also it would benefit the citizens of the community who wish to attend the meetings.

It was also decided at Monday's meeting that the next regular meeting of the council be postponed from September 6 to September 13.

Award Contract For Sidewalks

The Woods council on Monday, August 1, approved awarding of two separate contracts, totalling $26,987, for needed projects in the community.

The largest contract awarded was for sidewalk paving. It will cost the city $24,380.35 to install 67,000 square feet of sidewalk in various sections of the city where no sidewalks exist.

The second contract, for $2,587, is for the erection of 1,317 feet of fence around the Woods-owned Community Club, 20883 Mack avenue.

Pointers to Run Unique Conference

Five members of the Systems and Procedures Association of America look over a program layout for the forthcoming management conference which is expected to draw 1,500 international automation experts to the Sheraton-Cadillac in October. From left to right, standing, committee vice-chairmen ROBERT VALADE, JAMES MYERS and WENDELL FATHERS. Seated are assistant general chairman LAWRENCE PECK and general chairman DAR E. TISDALE.

The Systems and Procedures Association of America has announced its Eighth International Systems meeting to convene at the Sheraton-Cadillac Hotel October 10-11-12. Host to the 1,500 management experts attending this unique automation conference is Dar E. Tisdale who lives at 2313 Stanhope, Grosse Pointe Woods. Mr. Tisdale, Controller of the Pioneer Specialty Co. in Detroit is past president of the association's Detroit Chapter and a national director of the organization.

"Delegates, speakers and seminar leaders for the conference will come from all over the world," according to Tisdale, but the planning committee reads like an all Grosse Pointe show.

In addition to General Chairman Tisdale, Robert Valade of 2126 Lochmoor, Grosse Pointe Woods is vice chairman in charge of all general sessions and speakers for the giant business conference. Valade is office manager with Beauty Counselors, Inc.

Lawrence M. Peck of Beaufait avenue, and administrative assistant with the Detroit Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange, is assistant general chairman of the conference and James E. Myers, manager of the Burroughs Corporation Methods and Procedures Division, is publicity chairman. Myers' home is at 816 Bedford road.

The fifth Grosse Pointer involved in arrangements for the forthcoming conference is Wendell Fathers, senior forms analyst of the Detroit Edison Company. Fathers, a past president of the Detroit S.P.A. Chapter, is secretary of the planning committee and vice chairman for registration and finance. He lives at 597 Neff road.

The conference, entitled "Workshop for Management" will feature well-known authorities in many fields of systems engineering, who will address business executives in a series of general sessions and seminars during the three-day meeting.

For the first time, according to Tisdale, seminars on latest management developments will be held inside Detroit businesses and industrial plants. The industrial site meetings will take small groups of management experts to the plants and office conference tables of leading Detroit concerns like General Motors, Ford, Chrysler, Detroit Edison, Burroughs and the Standard Accident Insurance Company and many others.

Panel leaders will include John P. H. Dethman of Ford Motor Company, Professor Clifford I. Haga of the University of Minnesota, David Woellner of Consolidated Vultee, Raymond Eppert of Burroughs, Richard Neuschel of McKinsey & Company, Dr. John Mauchly of Remington Rand, and Dr. Wesley Wiskell of Louisiana State University.

George W. Troost, Chrysler vice president will deliver the keynote address at the conference.

Rabaut Issues Warning to Vets

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut (D., Mich.) announced through his Washington office that many veterans of World War II and Korea have claims pending before the U. S. Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, but have failed to make application for their accrued benefits under Public Law 615 or 744, 83rd Congress. Cong. Rabaut disclosed that the Commission has set a closing date for such applications by veterans or eligible survivors for August 21, 1955.

Those listed as eligible, but who have failed to apply, are:

- (1) A member of the U. S. Armed Forces who was captured during the Korean Conflict.
- (2) An American citizen who was captured during World War II as a result of service with an allied nation.
- (3) An American civilian who was interned in the Pacific area during World War II and previously excluded from compensation by reason of provisions of law now removed.

(4) An American merchant seaman captured during World War II or

(5) An American citizen or member of its armed forces who lost money in the Philippines through sequestration by Japan during World War II.

Rep. Rabaut advises that if anyone believes that he qualifies as one of the above described persons, he should write to the Foreign Claims Settlement Commission, Washington 25, D. C., immediately. The Commission warns that the right to compensation may be forfeited by failure to file application before the August 21 deadline.

Cadillac

The Great Practical Luxury!

This message is addressed particularly to those who have been thinking about purchasing a Cadillac—but who, for one reason or another, have not considered acting on the impulse this year.

For you, there is interesting and valuable information in the paragraphs which follow.

In the first place, there is no reason why anyone should ever put off ordering a Cadillac—once the decision for ownership has been made. For a Cadillac represents one of the soundest and most practical investments in the automotive world.

You can become the owner of a new 1955 Cadillac for little more than you would pay for many so-called medium-price cars—often within a very few dollars.

And this is only half the picture, insofar as cost is concerned. For when the time comes to sell your Cadillac, you will find that the car has held its value far beyond anything you could logically expect.

Authoritative price figures, based on year-after-year studies, reveal that a Cadillac will return its owner a larger share of his original investment than any other motor car built in the land.

And then consider Cadillac's economy of operation and upkeep.

The car will run as far on a gallon of gasoline as most standard automobiles—and it is so soundly built and so soundly engineered that it is all but free from any save the most routine service requirements.

And here is the most interesting news of all: If you act quickly, the chances are that you can get early delivery of a 1955 Cadillac!

True, we have a backlog of Cadillac orders—but many of these are for future delivery or for special combinations not now available.

So—if you have thought of owning a Cadillac—come in now. Because of our low used car inventory, we are in an excellent position to make you a liberal allowance on your present car—and, as we said, you can probably get your new car much sooner than you have believed possible.

We have a Cadillac waiting to give you the most thrilling demonstration of your life. Why not come in today?

Patricia Ann Dickson Weds Richard Joy III

Hawaiian Honeymoon Follows Ceremony in Trinity Church at Buck Hill Falls, Pa.; Couple to Make Home in Pointe

Given in marriage by her father, Patricia Ann Dickson repeated her vows Saturday in Trinity Church, Buck Hill Falls, Pa., to become the bride of Richard P. Joy III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr., of Prevencal road.

The new Mrs. Joy is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll J. Dickson, of Brooklyn Heights, N. Y., and Buck Hill Falls. The Dicksons' Charmarie Farm in Buck Hill Falls was the scene of the wedding reception.

Alencon lace trimmed the bride's gown of sheer illusion over white taffeta. She carried an arrangement of white orchids, stephanotis and bouvardia.

Barbara Y. Baker of New York City was honor maid, and the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. Woodson K. Woods III, of St. Louis, Mo., was matron of honor. The two honor attendants and the six bridesmaids wore blue silk organza cocktail length frocks and carried pink sweetheart roses.

Bridesmaids were Carolyn Drake, of Minneapolis, Minn.; Jean E. Gallo, of Herkimer, N. Y.; Sandra F. Gladstein, of West Hartford, Conn.; Susan Kurl-baum, of Broadalbin, N. Y.; Diane A. Nixon, of New York, and Mary R. Teer, of Durham, N. C. James F. Joy performed the duties of best man for his brother. Ushering guests to their seats were Peter S. Burr, of New York; David S. Dimling, of Cincinnati; Woodson K. Woods III, David R. Cudlip, William K. Howenstein, Stanley N. Muirhead, Michael C. Murray, Nicholas L. Ruwe and Murray W. Sales III.

After a honeymoon in Hawaii, the couple will return to make their home in Grosse Pointe.

Attending the ceremony from the Pointe were the bridegroom's parents, Mrs. Richard P. Joy, William M. Joy with daughters Patricia and Josephine, and Mr. and Mrs. John N. Lord.

Picnic Planned By Newcomers

The Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club will hold its annual picnic on Saturday, August 13 (rain or shine by boat and car) past members and active members will meet at the New Baltimore home of the Kenneth Woodruff's. Festivities begin at 2:30 p.m. with a steak fry and corn roast at 6 p.m.

Chairmen are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kummer. Active members assisting are Mr. and Mrs. James Blackburn, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hausman, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Swearingen.

Members of the alumni assisting are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Denton Kelble and Mr. and Mrs. Karl Van Galow.

Grand Opening festivities next Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday will mark the opening of The Smart Set store, 20427 Mack in Grosse Pointe Woods.

A galaxy of daily prizes and gifts await all children whom Mom or Dad might bring along to the opening.

The store, which is owned by the sister and brother partnership of Dolores Kennedy and Jerry Zielinski, both of Grosse Pointe Woods, features youth fashions and gifts. Its showing of Back-to-School clothes for children is complete.

Anne Parker to Wed Richard H. Bassler

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Parker of Lake Shore road announce the engagement of their daughter Anne to Richard H. Bassler of Detroit.

Anne attended Vassar College and the University of Michigan. Richard is attending the Chrysler Institute.

Saratoga Sales Beckon Wilsons

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Wilson Jr. of Oxford road and Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin W. Jayne of Suppingdale road will be in Saratoga, N.Y., on August 7 for the sale of yearlings.

The sale is rather a festive event with cocktail parties and buffet and formal dinners. The Wilsons keep their horses at Lisemore Farms, the Lexington, Ky., stables of the Albert F. Walls.

The quartet will stay at the Gideon Putnam in Saratoga, then stop in New York before coming home.

Mrs. Newberry Heading East

Mrs. Phelps Newberry leaves next week for a 10-day stay with the Robert O. Lords at their Narragansett summer home at Gardner's Hook.

Mrs. Newberry will also stop at Wakefield, R.I., to see Mrs. Howard Richmond, who is summing there. Next, she'll visit her son-in-law and daughter, the James D. Darlings II, in Wayne, Pa.

Before returning home to Cloverly road, she will see the Phelps Newberrys Jr., and T. Handy Newberry II in St. David's, Pa.

Baker-Eyler Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. John Henry Eyler of Clarion, Iowa announced the engagement of their daughter Shirley Ann to Edwin Walter Baker Jr. son of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Walter Baker of Maumee avenue, Grosse Pointe.

Shirley is a graduate of Drake University of Des Moines, and a member of Delta Gamma.

Eddie was graduated from Grosse Pointe High. He went to the University of Kentucky where he was a member of A.T.O. fraternity after two years in the Air Corps. He is now attending the University of Denver and will graduate in December.

The wedding will be September 10 in Clarion, and then they will drive east before returning to Denver.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Butter should be creamed until it is the proper consistency for spreading on sandwiches; melted butter only soaks into the bread and makes the sandwiches soggy.

Detroit Symphony Group To Hold Starlight Ball

The Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra is hard at work on plans for its Starlight Ball.

The annual affair will be held August 13 in the Lake Shore road home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Cylich. Cocktails will be served in the tea-house, and guests will dance in the newly-decorated lavender and pink ballroom.

Collegians Off To Tour West

A quartet of collegians left town Sunday to spend five weeks touring the west. Kitty Smith, Betsy Chesbrough, Sally Schemm and her Smith College classmate, Kit Salvin, of Philadelphia, were the travelers.

They plan to stop at Great Falls, Mont., for a visit with Sally's aunt, Mrs. F. R. Schemm. Next on their agenda are Glacier National Park, Lake Louise and Banff.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

To prevent sliced or mashed bananas from discoloring when exposed to the air, try cutting or mashing them just before using and dipping them in any of the following juices — canned grape-fruit, fresh or canned grape-fruit, orange, lemon or lime.

Sherer-Hahn Wedding Scheduled for Friday

Many Parties Given for Couple and Also for Sarah Weed and Richard Reilly, Who Will Be Married August 20

Elise Bachellor Hahn, daughter of the Gerald Hahns of Rivard boulevard, becomes the bride of Samuel Baldwin Sherer tomorrow, and there are parties almost up to the hour of the wedding. They will be married at 4:30 o'clock at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church with a reception following at the Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Carsten Tiedeman are hosts at brunch today. This evening, the Joseph S. Sherers, Jr., of Ridge road, parents of the bridegroom-to-be, will give the rehearsal dinner at the Little Club.

The Arnold F. Malows are giving a wedding day breakfast at the Country Club. Mr. and Mrs. Stephen DuBrul of Sunningdale drive will entertain out-of-town guests at a supper after the wedding and reception.

Sarah Weed is also in a pre-wedding whirl of parties preceding her August 20 marriage to Richard Clark Reilly, son of the William J. Reillys, of Birmingham.

On Saturday night Mr. and Mrs. W. Gordon Johnstone honored the couple with a cocktail party. On Wednesday, Mrs. William M. Leach gave a tea and kitchen shower in her Lincoln road home.

Mrs. William Austin has reserved the Detroit Boat Club for her luncheon and around-the-clock shower on Saturday, and an August 7 supper party will be jointly hosted by Mrs. Theodore Papes and Jill Predmore.

Ted Osius and John Ingold will fete the pair August 14 at a cocktail party in the Osius home on Rivard boulevard. Mary Bahr and her mother, Mrs. Frederick Bahr, will entertain at the spinster dinner in their home on August 18.

The Hamilton home on Lake Shore road will be the scene of a cocktail party with the William R. Hamilton II and the T. Norville Hubbards as hosts. From there, guests will go on to the rehearsal dinner which the prospective bridegroom's parents have slated at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Sarah's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Weed of Neff road, will hold the wedding reception at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Moira Mahoney Visiting Liz Remick, Judy Goodnow

Moira Mahoney, daughter of Senator and Mrs. Walter J. Mahoney of Buffalo, New York, has come to Grosse Pointe to visit her two Newton College roommates, Liz Remick and Judy Goodnow.

Judy has been busy entertaining Moira during the week and Liz will take over for the weekend, until Monday when she will return to Buffalo to entertain a friend herself.

Moira's father is the Republican Majority Leader of New York State.

Mrs. Daniel O'Neill Being Feted on Visit

Mrs. Frank J. Wilton of Wittdmill Pointe drive entertained Monday to honor her daughter, Mrs. Daniel O'Neill, visiting here with young Patty from Marietta, O. They will be with Polly's parents for a month, with Mr. O'Neill coming up later on.

Mrs. Bruce Tappan of Westchester road and Mrs. Harry Sorg of Lakepointe avenue have both feted young Mrs. O'Neill. Mrs. Michael Merwin and Mrs. Gerald Queen have their heads together on another party for the visitor.

Theater to Cast For New Play

Casting calls for the Grosse Pointe Community Theatre's September production, "Male Animal," will be held August 10, 11, and 12 at Cannon Memorial Center.

Anyone who might be interested in joining the group is invited to attend. The calls are scheduled for 7:30 p.m.

"Male Animal" written by James Thurber and Elliott Nugent, was a successful Broadway comedy, and later made into a motion picture. Clyde Adler will direct the production to be given on September 30, October 1 and 2. Following "Male Animal" the Grosse Pointe players will present "The Glass Menagerie," by Tennessee Williams; "Rebecca," by Daphne DuMaurier; "Thieves Carnival," by Jean Anouilh; "Come Back, Little Sheba," by William Inge, and "Dial 'M' for Murder," by F. Knott.

CAR FIRE EXTINGUISHED

Simians Expect 'Gaslight' To Be One of Best Efforts

Simians hope to make this year's presentation of "Gaslight" one of the best plays ever produced by the group. It will be presented in theater-in-the-round on the lawn of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on the nights of August 11, 12 and 13.

"Gaslight," by Patrick Hamilton, is suspense-filled melodrama which tells the story of a homicidal maniac who attempts to drive his wife insane. Many moviegoers will remember the motion picture version which starred Ingrid Bergman and Charles Boyer. The play is currently breaking records as a revival in London.

In order to add realism to their portrayals of the maniac and his wife, Winston Likert and Jane Slade have received permission from certain institutions to study the behavior of their patients. It is no novelty for Jane Slade to take such pains with a part. Jane was once offered an acting scholarship by Katherine Cornell but was unable to take it because of ill health.

The props department has also been working overtime on this play. They have found a music box which is something over 150 years old. The box is a masterpiece of careful workmanship and can play a wide variety of tunes. The sound of the music box, which will be amplified and reproduced by high-fidelity sound equipment will announce the entrance of the madman.

The props department also plans to have the entire set made up of authentic antique furniture in order to reproduce the Victorian atmosphere of the melodrama.

In a reproduction of the sort lighting is one of the most important parts of the performance. Dick Tobin, the director, plans to have the lighting made up mostly of sombre hues to contribute to the atmosphere of fear and suspense. New shades, such as chocolate-colored lighting, will be tried in an effort to produce this effect.

City Borrows Paddy Wagon

The City of Grosse Pointe was put in an embarrassing position Wednesday, August 3.

They were caught with their "Paddys" down. The "Paddy" wagon that is.

For the first time in as many years as Chief Trombly can remember, the police had to pick up five crooks for questioning from downtown.

And the City doesn't own a "Paddy" wagon.

"We usually only have one or two to bring out, so we just handcuff them and throw them into a squad car," said Chief Trombly. "When asked why they didn't use two patrol cars, Trombly simply said, 'We can't release that many.'"

To solve their problem, they borrowed the Shores wagon.

FRANK ROYSTER ENLISTS

The U. S. Army recruiting service announced the enlistment of Pointer Frank Royster, son of the Peter Parkers of Bishop road. A student at the Henry Ford Community College in Dearborn before his induction, Frank will join the legal department of the Adjutant General's Corps.

Group Studying Parking Problem

A group of interested parties met Monday night, July 25, to discuss the proposals on the off-street parking area for the Kercheval-on-the-Hill Shopping district.

Present at the meeting were representatives of the Farms, the Hill Business Association, the Board of Education, the St. James Church and the Richard PTA.

Though no positive action was taken, Farms City Manager Harry Furton submitted a report on his views of the situation, that he will submit to the city council on August 8.

A special committee set up by the Farms is now studying the traffic report concerning the shutting off of McMillan road submitted by Gunderson and Dobelek, traffic engineers.

The official Farms committee is made up of Councilmen William Kirby, Richard Maxon and William Butler, and headed by Mayor William Connolly.

G. P. City Claims to Have First Girl Life Guard

Club Grateful for Volunteers

The very successful summer fun program now in its final week at the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club, was made possible by the excellent group of volunteer workers who ably carried on a variety of responsibilities.

Helping in the morning program in which 54 children were enrolled, were Mrs. Alice Kreidler of 2029 Hollywood; Mrs. Barbara Duchon, 20300 Fleetwood; Mrs. Elizabeth Rinehart, 1984 Anita, and Mrs. Joyce Menzo, 2027 Hollywood.

All of these women are mothers of children enrolled in the morning program. In addition, three high school students helped as assistant leaders in the morning program. They were Joan Crane and Dan Ward, both of Denby High, and Mary Ellen Schenk of Lakeview High.

Carrying full leadership responsibilities for the five-year-old group was Mrs. Jean Whalig now in her fourth year of volunteer service with the Community Club. Helping Mrs. Whalig this summer was her niece, Mary Hangstenbeck.

The afternoon program in which 145 children between the ages of 7-12 were enrolled, had a staff of eight volunteer workers. Miss Thelma Infant of Wayne University carried full responsibilities for the fine craft program offered this summer at the club.

Others assisting in the crafts were Mrs. Wanda Meyers and Miss Nancy Lill. Assisting in games, crafts and other activities were Cathy LaGrasso, Carol Love, Sharon Defeaver and Joyce Vanneste, all of whom are high school students.

Mrs. Phylis Reeves, a former volunteer, returned for the summer to take charge of the game room and to enrich the summer program by offering some excellent children's stories.

This year, evening activities were offered on the playground for the teen agers. This program was sponsored by the Department of Parks and Recreation in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods. Helping to provide activities for the younger age child on the playground on a volunteer basis were Mrs. Jean Pratt Justice of 1816 Littlestone, Peter Gall of Princeton University and Robert Roddewig of 20259 Country Club drive.

The staff of the Community Club feels that this fine corps of volunteer workers deserves thanks for helping to provide summer activities for the children. The Community Club is hoping that more and more parents and other interested persons will continue to actively participate as volunteers in the numerous youth-serving organizations.

THE TEST

It isn't what happens, but the way you take it that brings out the true character of a man.

Veteran Firemen Get Promotions

City Public Safety Commissioner John Mazer announced the promotion of two veteran members of the City Fire Department, effective August 1.

Capt. Harold Rivard, who has been with the department since January 1, 1923, has been elevated to the rank of assistant chief. He has been captain since April 1, 1937.

Commissioner Mazer stated that this promotion was made in connection with the many new duties which have been assigned to the new assistant chief since the retirement of Chief Ledger Chauvin on July 1.

Asst. Chief Rivard is a strong advocate of the Mutual Aid Program and is working closely with the surrounding communities in developing the plan.

Filling the newly created post of Fire Inspector, is George N. Coriden, who has been with the fire department for 25 years.

Prior to his promotion, Fire Inspector Coriden has undertaken extensive training from the Detroit Fire Prevention Bureau.

Besides the duty of continual fire inspections, the job will include stress on fire prevention.

POSTMEN GOOD DRIVERS

Postmaster Edward L. Baker announced that 378 Detroit Post Office drivers have been approved by the National Safety Council for "Safe Driving Awards." The awards earned by these Detroit Post Office employees were from one to 21 years of driving without being involved in a chargeable accident.

FALLS TAKE MANY LIVES

Accidents in the home accounted for 276 deaths in Detroit last year, Dr. Joseph G. Molner, commissioner of health, reports. Falls outnumbered all other causes of fatal accidents. Of the 152 persons who died as the result of falls in homes, 105 of them were persons 65 years old or older.

Harper Woods Asks Delay In Starting Drain Project

A letter from Harper Woods to the Woods, pertaining to the Grosse-Pointe Drain, was read at a Woods council meeting on Monday, August 1, and placed on file.

The letter, over the signature of Harper Woods City Manager Robert McNutt, stated that Harper Woods is very desirous of having the drainage project done, but it wanted a little more time to study whether it would be more advantageous to proceed with the project under the Wayne County Road Commission Metropolitan System, or under the Drain Commission.

At a recent meeting, the Harper Woods council voted 5 to 2, to place the project in the hands of the Wayne County Drain Commission.

It was the opinion of the members of the Woods council that this is only another delay in carrying out the multi-million-dollar job, and that if Harper Woods continues to stall or pull out of the joint construction work, the Woods will go it alone.

Harper Woods said it will be ready to take bids on its share of the job about the end of September or the early part of October.

CAR SALES SET RECORDS

Retail sales of General Motors passenger cars in the United States during the first 20 days of July were the highest in history for that period, President Harlow H. Curtice announced. New marks also were set for the second ten days of July and for the period January 1 through July 20, Mr. Curtice said. The new records were established in both new and used car sales by GM dealers.

Society News Gathered From All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Jane Schermerborn

Cannes, Aug. 4—The situation is becoming just a little involved as this reaches you . . . we made careful and detailed arrangements with the concierge at the Majestic to deliver a typewriter to our room early this morning. Typewriters, especially those with an English keyboard, are rare in Europe. Thus we were delighted when, before the sun had started its course over the blue, blue Mediterranean this a.m. there came a knock at the door. We opened it and there stood a sweet little old lady . . . gloves and handbag . . . but no typewriter. "I am the typewriter," she said, in faultless English. Now we can understand where a typewriter could be a person as well as a machine BUT inasmuch as we kept insisting upon an English keyboard we are wondering just what the concierge thought we meant!

On the Riviera

We've been several days at Cannes . . . the mink cote of the Riviera. It's just Palm Beach with French cooking. Haven't been to Florida in many years but cannot believe that bikinis are as commonplace there as here. An American bathing suit is as conspicuous as two heads on the local beaches. Along the miles of sandy shore are bathing clubs, our favorite being the one at the Carlton. Bright umbrellas, chaise lounges and sun mattresses dot the sands. There is a pavillion where Europeans sip their strong cafe noir, hurried to them by bare footed waiters. Some of the resorters take quick dips in the Mediterranean before stretching out in the sun but most simply go directly to lounging chairs to watch the constant parade of sun tanned beauties. If you ever wondered what became of the tiny handkerchief when Kleenex took its place, be here advised it became the French bathing suit.

Sea Going Yachts

Out in the harbor riding at anchor are half a dozen gleaming white yachts. They dwarf the Delphine of Mrs. Horace E. Dodge. (Incidentally that 114 room villa which Horace Jr. was reported to have given his Greg as a birthday gift is the haunted house of the Riviera . . . No one knows anything about it.) Aboard one of the yachts in the harbor is an Italian marquis whose lavish parties are the talk of the resorters. Champagne, gowns by Dior, and doves spun of white sugar. Last week, the guests of English friends, the Duke and Duchess of Windsor took off on a yacht for a Mediterranean cruise from which they'll return any day now. The chic Lady Docker of London, whose jewels, furs and Paris gowns add glitter to August evening at the Casino, has her tremendous yacht at Cannes. Her limousine is said to drive from its decks each evening into the town. There is a sizeable colony of European film stars summering here and we've listened to the songs of Maurice Chevalier at the Casino . . . an older Chevalier but gay as ever.

Distractions at Cannes

Here the autobiography of the Aga Khan is a best seller (printed in every language) . . . Elsa Maxwell's new book is advertised at all the "libraries." Elizabeth Arden is here to pin up wrinkles and the largest Paris shops have branches at Cannes . . . American sailors offer their midday clad arms to royal daughters of France and Italy for moonlit strolls along the palm tree lined boulevards. A few miles away are Nice and Monte Carlo. Want to try your luck? Or would it be better to sit here and regard Croisette Promenade where occasionally we spot old French society strolling under frilly silk pastel parasols looking for all the world like paintings by Renoir.

"No Politics"

At Au Trou du Lapin, the other night (specialite de la maison is rabbit, but no, thanks), our supper companions included a Londoner dining with a dazzling blond from Strassburg, Germany. She was dressed in white lace and smoked American cigarets in a white Denicotea holder even as Pointers do. The Londoner who said he was related to the Statlers of the

In Pemequid, Me., to visit her brother and sister-in-law, MR. and MRS. PETER C. DUCKETT, is SUSAN DUCKETT of Moran road. She'll stop in Scotia, N.Y., with her brother-in-law and sister, MR. and MRS. LESTER G. BRATTON JR., before coming home.

The PAUL RUEDEMANNs, of New York, have been visiting Mr. Ruedemann's brother and sister-in-law, DR. and MRS. A. D. RUEDEMANN, of Three Mile drive.

JULIE THURBER and VIRGINIA ROBB gave a cocktail party last Thursday night in the Robb home on Lakeland avenue. Honor guests were the newlywed VICTOR P. TAYLORS (MARY BOYER).

MARIO MITCHELL is accompanying her grandmother, MRS. JOSEPH B. SCHLOTMAN of Lake Shore road, to Harbor Point for a 10-day stay. Mrs. Schlotman's sister, MRS. HARRY N. TORREY, is heading north with them.

After 12 years in Grosse Pointe, DR. and MRS. MILTON B. STUCHELL have moved from their Bishop road residence to a new home in Birmingham. Their oldest son, BERNARD, is attending Culver Summer Naval School.

The DR. THOMAS S. DAVIES family of Washington road left Sunday to spend a week at Elk Lake inn near Traverse City.

MR. and MRS. HERBERT H. HEWITT, JR. announce the birth of a daughter, JANET HARTWELL HEWITT, on July 27. Mrs. Hewitt is the former PHYLLIS JANE HARTWELL. The Hewitts other daughter, JUDY CAROL, celebrated her third birthday on July 21.

Twins MARK and ANN IVES celebrated their first birthday Saturday with twin cakes. Their parents, MR. and MRS. RAYMOND IVES, invited the grandparents to their Shoreham road home to mark the occasion.

From New York comes word that the MANNING GURRANS (JULIE HARRIS) became the parents of a son, PETER, on July 19. The baby's grandparents, MR. and MRS. WILLIAM R. HARRIS JR. of Ellair place, are at their Huron Mountain Club summer place. With them there are two other grandchildren, MARGARET and DAVID HARRIS, whose parents, the WILLIAM P. HARRISES III, are in Europe until the middle of the month.

Joan Ellen Massey Weds Alden Powers

Newlyweds Motor to Miami and Fly to Nassau Following Saturday Ceremony in Christ Episcopal Church

A regal gown of Chantilly lace over taffeta was the choice of Joan Ellen Massey when she became the bride of Alden Day Powers at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The Rev. H. Arthur Doersam heard the couple pledge their vows in Christ Episcopal Church.

Iridescent paillettes trimmed lace applique roses on the bridal gown, which had a circular train. A fingertip veil extended from the bride's Juliet cap of Chantilly lace touched with sequins and she carried stephanotis and ivy centered by a white orchid.

Parents of the couple are the Leonard Cyril Masseys of Fisher road and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Powers of Bedford lane.

Wearing an aqua gown of embroidered silk organza, Mrs. Donn Coddington, of Chicago, attended as honor matron. Her bouquet was of yellow roses and ivy.

Gowned identically to the honor attendant were bridesmaids Carol Massey, sister of the bride; Dolores Meyer, Suzanne Jarvis, of Birmingham; Mrs. Robert Schuman Jr., of Midland, and Polly Klingensmith, of Houston, Tex. They carried yellow tea roses and ivy.

David Powers served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Clifford Loranger, Bryden Dow, Charles Moore, of Saginaw, and Dr. Fred Endres, of Chicago. Carolyn and Billy Healy, niece and nephew of the bride, acted as flower girl and ring bearer.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception at the Detroit Boat Club, Mrs. Massey wore a deep-toned champagne lace ensemble and pinned a green orchid to her purse.

A dress of toast silk organza was Mrs. Powers' choice. She also had an orchid corsage.

Monte von Rosenberg Tells Wedding Plans

Seven attendants will precede Monte Joan von Rosenberg up the aisle of Christ Church, Grosse Pointe, for her September 10 marriage to Arville B. Maynard, Jr. She is the daughter of Mrs. Hilton von Rosenberg of Bedford road and the late Dr. von Rosenberg.

Carolyn Dill, Ann Maynard and Sandra Loynd will attend Monte, and she has also asked four of her classmates from Newcomb College in New Orleans, Ruth Erle Stobaugh, of Little Rock, Ark.; Mrs. William Harvey, of Pittsburgh; Ursula Goedecke, of Hallettsville, Tex., and Ann Cushing, of Memphis, Tenn.

Erville, the son of the Rev. and Mrs. Erville B. Maynard of Grosse Pointe boulevard, has asked the Rev. Vernon Robertson, of Roxbury Crossing, Mass., to be best man. The prospective bridegroom, who was graduated in June from Harvard, will enroll this fall in Virginia Theological Seminary.

Ushers will be Carl Gerda, of New York; George Nobbe, of Morningside Heights, N. Y.; William G. Couglin, of West Roxbury, Mass.; William H. Miller, of Norwalk, Conn.; David Whitney, of Newcastle, Me.; Walter L. Milde, of Cleveland Heights, O.; Thomas W. McNealy, Martin von Rosenberg, of San Antonio, Tex., and Michael A. Gaskin.

American hotel chain family, hadn't been to bed for four nights. "I am on holiday. When I work I work hard and when I play, I play hard. Guess what nationality I am," he challenged the Dutch party sitting nearby. "Egyptian," offered the stunning Dutch gentleman. "Wrong," roared the Britisher. "I'm Chinese and my name is Toy Toy." Someone else mentioned Geneva. The Europeans seemed to admire our president but then another said, finger to lips, "Come, come. No politics."

Indian Jewels

We have seen few Americans at Cannes . . . many English; Indians in rich saris, the men preferring Western dress. Most of the Indian women wear the jewels of caste in their foreheads; some have precious stones pressed into the sides of their noses. Cannes is popular, too, with Germans, Italians and Belgians. This is a good place to visit if you want to understand Vogue . . . its pages are clearer after watching this passing show.

Perfumed Donkey

As you doubtless know, Cannes is just a few miles from Grasse, the largest . . . or at any rate the most important . . . perfume manufacturing center in the world. We drove here from Paris and as we neared Grasse, the fragrance of tuberose and lavender filled the air. Junior Miss stuck her hand out the car window and swore it was scented with Chanel No. 5 when she pulled it back in. For miles around, the mountainsides are purple with lavender fields. In the park in front of our hotel, a briefly dressed French cutie strolls, leading a tiny jet black donkey that carries saddlebags of lavender. Even the donkey is perfumed!

At Your Own Risk!

A word about driving in Europe. We'd never attempt it again. In Paris, the AAA assured us the route from Paris to Cannes was easy motoring, pleasant scenery and that the Dauphine and Maritime Alps were mere swells on the landscape. We do not intend to be harsh in our opinion of the AAA in Paris, but if the French, who man its offices, honestly consider the French Alps gently rolling terrain they'd better see Dr. Ruedemann. The drive from Grenoble to Cannes inspired the man who invented the roller coaster . . . and it would be safer to drive a roller coaster because there's no chance of meeting a car coming towards you. France ignores speed limits . . . in fact there are none here . . . and traveling the narrow roads built for foreign cars in an American automobile is rough fare. Oh, for the long, smooth stretches of Jefferson avenue. Needless to say, we're going back to Paris via the coastal route. Hope we meet you on the way.

Massachusetts Lures Pointers

Massachusetts, and Manchester-by-the-sea in particular, is the summer choice of a good many Pointers.

Mr. and Mrs. George O. Johnston of Lothrop road left last week with George, Jr., and Lynn for the popular resort. Mary Johnston, who landed in New York after five months in Europe, met her parents at Manchester.

Mrs. Benjamin S. Warren and Mrs. Standish Backus, both of Lake Shore road, are staying at Mrs. Backus' summer home, "Windcliff," after which they will visit Mrs. Russell A. Alger at her "Starboard Cottage" in York, Me.

Mrs. William J. Croul of McKinley place and her four offspring will be at "All Oaks", summer home of her parents, the Harold Palmers, until Labor Day. Winifred, Maria, Amy and Elwood Croul are enjoying the seaside vacation with their mother.

The W. Warren Sheldens of Provencal road are visiting Mrs. Sheldens' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Durand, in Chatham, Mass., but they expect to stop at Manchester for a few days with Ranlet and Billy before coming back to the Pointe.

Detroit Garden Club To Meet on August 10

The Detroit Garden Club will hold its regular August luncheon meeting at Plum Hollow Golf and Country Club on Wednesday, August 10, at 12:30 p.m.

Miss Ruth Smiley will speak on "Artistic Table Settings for Modern Living" and will illustrate her talk with a number of settings.

The hostesses will be Mrs. E. W. Hotchkiss and Mrs. Bess Williams.

To Speak Vows In Quaker City

A Philadelphia wedding of local interest is that of Margaret Mary Dougherty and Dr. Robert E. Riethmiller. Parents of the couple are the Hugh Michael Doughertys of Philadelphia, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Riethmiller of Pemberton road.

The pair will be married Monday, August 8, at 10 a.m. in the Church of the Good Shepherd, Philadelphia.

Kathryn Dougherty will attend her sister, Maj. Samuel Martone, of New York, will be best man.

A reception will be held at the Barclay Hotel, after which the newlyweds will leave for Banff and Lake Louise. They will make their home here.

Cookes and Sinclairs Select Point Nipigon

The James H. Cooke of East Jefferson avenue and the Robert W. Sinclairs of Vendome road elect Point Nipigon on the Straits of Mackinac for their summer places.

Mrs. Cooke commutes from cool Nipigon to the hot city each Monday and returns on Friday to the Straits.

The Sinclairs are expecting their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. A. Jackson Day of Cloverly road, to pay them a visit soon. Barbara Day, 12 and Marcia, 8, will come over from Camp Crystalina to join their parents.

Assisting College Girls at Jacobson's

Jacobson's month-long showing of what will be correct in college fashions during the coming seasons, leads off this week with these three lovely hostesses ready to discuss fashion trends with students. Left to right are: Margie Reeves, graduate of Country Day and a debutante of the Christmas '54 season who has completed a year at Lake Erie College; Mary Margaret Ulrich of Balfour road, Class of 1957 at Marygrove College; and Betty Joyce Filipach, also Marygrove '57.

Many Pointers At Harbor Point

Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ford III of Vendome road and son Johnny, are at their Harbor Point summer home. Their recent house guests have been the Robert O. Derricks Jr. of Grayton road, who visited them for two weeks.

The Alfred R. Glancys Jr. of Lake Shore road with their four children and the Frederick S. Fords Jr. of Renaud road with their four offspring are also situated at their Harbor Point summer homes.

Other Pointers who move to the resort on Little Traverse Bay for the summer include the Frederick Kamers of East Jefferson avenue, the Richard P. Joys Jr. of Provencal road, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin S. Barbour of Lake shore road, the Addison E. Holtons of Bishop road, the Edward A. Skaes of Lake Shore road and the Emmett E. Tracy clan of Kerby road.

Stella Marie Baumann To Play Part in Opera

The University of Michigan School of Music will give the opera, "Fidelio" in the Lydia Mendelssohn Theater in Ann Arbor on August 4, 5, 6 and 8 at 8 p.m.

Stella Marie Baumann of Lochmoor boulevard will play the role of Marcellina on Friday, Aug. 5, and Monday, Aug. 8.

She and concert pianist Edward Baumann were married last September. Two weeks later he was sent to Korea, where he is stationed at Air Force Military Headquarters. He expects to return home this fall.

Barbara Ann Brown Weds Henry Eckfeld

Motor Trip to New Hampshire Follows Ceremony and Reception in Congregation Church in Charlotte, Mich.

A motor trip to New Hampshire followed the Saturday marriage in the First Congregational Church of Charlotte, Mich., of Barbara Ann Brown, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. B. Phillip Brown, of Charlotte, to Henry J. Eckfeld, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Eckfeld of Pemberton road.

The bride wore embroidered tulle over Skinner satin. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion fell from a lace cap, and she carried an orchid atop her white prayer book.

Identical waltz-length crystal-ette gowns in mint green were worn by the attendants, who carried rubrum lilies and red rosebuds. The bridegroom's sister, Mrs. C. F. Lanigan, of Midland, was honor matron. Mrs. Glenn Kardel, of East Lansing, Mrs. Donald F. Papenhagen, of Blissfield, and Jane Higby, of Charlotte, served as bridesmaids.

Best man was C. F. Lanigan; Bruce Brown, of Charlotte; Leo Lenhard, Roger Mourad, Joseph Frank and Robert Morrill, all of Detroit, escorted guests to their places.

The bride's mother wore a navy nylon organza dress for the wedding and reception which followed in the church parlors. Mrs. Eckfeld's dress was Wedgwood blue. Both mothers had pink carnation corsages.

When the couple left on their honeymoon, the new Mrs. Eckfeld was wearing a brown polished cotton sheath dress trimmed in white with white accessories.

They will make their home in Cadieux road.

Mook-Deltour Nuptials Held

Mlle. Suzette Deltour and Harry Mook will speak their wedding vows before the Reverend Paul Ketchum at the bridegroom's Balfour road home this afternoon.

The new Mrs. Mook is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Deltour of Oran, Algeria.

The bridegroom is the son of the Harry Mooks of Balfour road.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of delicate pink silk shantung with a long torso motif with a full skirt.

She carried a bouquet of white colonial orchids. An intimate ceremony, Mlle. Suzette chose as her only attendant the bridegroom's sister, Mrs. James Doherty.

William Cairns of Ann Arbor was best man.

A wedding supper was held at the Detroit Boat Club following the wedding.

The couple will motor through northern Michigan for their wedding trip. They will reside at 21217 Kingsville road, Harper Woods.

Ray E. Harms Family Directing VFW Camp

Ray E. Harms and his family are having a very busy summer directing the V.F.W. Camp Norcom. Almost all of his staff this summer are from Grosse Pointe High.

George Bell, Jerry Franck, Micky Schade, Dale Preston, Dick Stafford and Neil Vanover complete his counselors for the boys. The counselors for the girls, also from the High, are Carolyn Elliott, June Stock and Elsa Purdy.

Mr. and Mrs. Harms have planned a picnic for their friends at the close of the camp period at camp. They will be home in Ford court by September 1.

Donovans Hosts At Sunday Party

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Donovan of East Jefferson avenue gave a party Sunday night for the Count and Countess Bandino Piccolomini, who will soon conclude their visit here and return home to Florence, Italy.

Cocktails were served to the guests and tables for the buffet supper were set up on the lawns of the Donovan home.

Rusty Donovan, 14, was the hit of the evening. Posting himself at the gateway with his Italian Isetta, an odd little car which the Donovan family and friends affectionately call "The Bug," Rusty drove guests from the parking area up to the house.

Reply to A Gracious Critic

We are in receipt of a letter having to do with last week's editorial concerning the Farms business area parking problem. We took the stand that the closing of a portion of McMillan road from beyond St. James Church to Ridge road, seemed to be the solution to the dilemma.

For taking this view, we are taken to task, not too severely, and certainly very graciously, in the following communication which we are pleased to print in full.

193 McKinley Avenue Grosse Pointe Farms 36, Mich. July 30, 1955

Dear Mr. Edgar:

As a long-time resident of McKinley Avenue I must take issue with you on your editorial of this week in which you endeavor to uphold the virtues of the proposed solution to the Farms parking problem by your fellow members of the Kercheval-on-the-Hill business district.

Your editorials are always honest and forthright when dealing with community problems, but in this I detect a bit of hypocrisy. When you acknowledge that a traffic survey has been made by accredited traffic engineers and that they are against the closing of McMillan, you are being very fair. Also, when you say that all attention is being focused on parking needs for shoppers and an easy flow of traffic for motorists, and too little thought is being given the necessity to provide recreational space for the growing community, you are being very civic-minded.

But when you use increased recreational facilities as an argument for the proposed solution to the Farms parking problem, you are really off the deep end. Take a good look at your diagram of the proposed plan and explain to the public, how deeding the closed part of McMillan for playground will offset in area the amount of land required for an alley and additional parking facilities and not lessen the playground area.

I believe the Farms Council was very cooperative in providing for some of the parking space which had been overlooked by the business establishments of Kercheval-on-the-Hill.

Too, the School Board was helpful in allowing a portion of their playground to be deeded to the City for this purpose. By your own argument you justify the position of the School Board that no more playground be relinquished for parking and, there is a limit to what the City can be pressured into doing.

When our subdivision (of which McMillan is the east boundary) was formed, certain restrictions were set up. I do not believe that the City could deed a portion of McMillan to the School Board without due process of law. In a court hearing I cannot conceive of the residents of this subdivision being so disinterested as to make no protest over the traffic and parking problems of the business district being extended to include the residential section.

You and your paper have been very charitable and public-minded on the many projects you have worked for and publicized for the good of the community. However, in this case you are being just as selfish for the interests of your fellow business men of Kercheval-on-the-Hill as I am for the residents of McKinley Avenue who will feel the impact of traffic from your proposed plan if it becomes effective.

Sincerely yours, HUBERT G. GOEBEL

For the benefit of those who may share the opinions expressed by Mr. Goebel, we should naturally like to add our comments, particularly some pertaining to the writer's belief that the school officials take the position that no more playground area can be relinquished for parking space.

From various conversations with a number of the school officials, we obtained the distinct impression that they are not only willing but quite anxious to trade off more playground area for the closing of McMillan road. We gather that they feel the area will serve a far better purpose if it can be consolidated into one piece, not separated by a street and two sidewalks. We are agreeing with the school authorities, not taking an opposite view.

We have heard a number of dimensions discussed in connection with such a swap of land for the closing of the street, and it is our belief that if the entire thoroughway of McMillan, from playground border to playground border, were thrown into a consolidated area, the amount of land on the eastern boundary which would be given up for parking would not lessen the size of the recreation space available, to any appreciable degree, if at all.

Mr. Goebel may be right about the residents fighting the legality of such a transaction, but it would seem logical to suppose that both the Farms and school officials have investigated on this score. This is a subject that has been under discussion for some years, and it seems doubtful that so much time and so many words could be spent on something that couldn't be legally accomplished if both parties agree.

As for Mr. Goebel's accusation that we are being selfish for the interests of our fellow business men in the district, if it is selfish to take a stand we think is right, then we plead guilty. We believe the business group has made every effort to be cooperative and fair in seeking a solution to this problem. The merchants naturally are anxious to protect and further their interests, but it seems to us they have made no unreasonable demands, nor lost sight of the rights and privileges of all concerned.

As substantial taxpayers to both the municipality and the school district, they certainly have a right to voice their opinions.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"The real ones, the right ones, the straight ones and true, The pukka, peerless sportsman... their numbers are but few; The men who keep on playing though the sun be in eclipse, The men who go on losing with a smile upon their lips."

(William H. Ogilvie)

You-all are going to be SO envious of us when you hear of our good fortune. It came in the guise of a letter from England offering us a piece of good luck Cork Tree. The letter stated in part: "Lots of people have heard of the 'Wishing Cork Tree' in Devon and its peculiar powers. Traced back over three hundred years there is a legend attached to this unique tree as a bearer of good luck to anyone possessing a piece of cork from it."

Now wasn't that nice of whoever sent us the letter? For five dollars we can have quite a slab of this here now good luck... or if we "prefer" we can have a two dollar hunk or maybe a three dollar one! All kinds of testimonials are enclosed from people who have won lotteries or brides or discovered gold or got a new house or escaped a bombing raid... all due to this nice kindly piece of cork! Of course we DO feel sorry for the poor tree. If it is three hundred years old and these folks are slicing it up to sell for five bucks a crack... the poor tree will not last long. But aren't we lu-c-k-y????

We asked a friend of ours to drop some good hot weather reading off at our homestead last week... and she left about ten Mystere Stories she had read. We picked up the first one while sitting in a tub of water with an icebag on our head. It was called "Dead Game" and the synopsis read, in part: "The feeble whippers of what had been a big strong guy seemed to echo in the room. I was tied up like a dead duck with a woman who had gone kill-crazy. Before I could do more than nod, her mouth crashed down on mine. Her arms vised my neck and her lips sealed off my breathing." Now then. If that isn't a little love scene to lower the blood pressure and up the temperature, we've never heard of one. All we needed at that moment was a story about ANYBODY'S breathing being sealed off... even in a story book! This is COOL reading?

The nicest thing that happened to us last week was being invited to a home that has air conditioning. Our hostess warned us that we had better bring a sweater because if one wasn't used to it it just MIGHT be TOO cold. It sounded silly to us on the phone when it was 100 outside our window and about 99 in our bedroom. Anyway, never the one to disobey anyone, we took the sweater along. We were scheduled to play bridge on Madame's glassed in sun room... which is much like a fish bowl, since anyone walking by can gawk in at the people inside.

We started the game in the heavenly cool... just like another world. Sure enough, around four p.m. we started to feel chilly and gave with a couple of sneezes... so we decided to don the sweater. It felt good too... so we buttoned it up around our neck. Shortly after, two women straggled by in the awful heat... took one look at us sitting indoors bundled in a sweater... and they were so fascinated they just stood there and stared! Probably thought: "There's a gal who's REALLY been affected by the heat!" Tee-hee.

GIRLS! Are you wondering about or getting nervous over the scarcity of "heat" material in the Pointes? Well, then, you are REALLY going to flip when we tell you we know of a woman who had twenty-four (count 'em) men for dinner last week and she was the ONLY belle! If that isn't "man bites dog" news... we will eat it. Wouldn't you like to know how she managed it???? Okay then, the hostess was entertaining the men in business with her son, Ted Ewald of Mack-Gratiot Chevrolet! The lovely Mrs. Ewald, complete with white orchid sent to her by the "boys"... said she never had a better time. EGAD! who wouldn't with 24 gents all to herself on a pleasant summer evening?

This might come under the heading of "the meanest man of the week." An out of town salesman was picked up at the R.R. station during the heat of last week... by a cab driver who allowed as how he couldn't (in one cab) take care of the guy's SIXTEEN pieces of LARGE luggage. The "fare" said okay... he would put half of them in another cab that could follow. Both cabs got under way... after the drivers piled the luggage away.

When they drew up at the hotel... the drivers offered to give the passenger a hand with the luggage. Both cabbies hauled the sixteen suitcases into the lobby of the hotel... and when they were finished... the salesman asked what the fare was. He was told "85 cents each." He handed the one driver $1.85 and said: "Here... you can split the change with the other driver!"

If you're figuring is as quick as ours you will by now find that the "change" was FIVE CENTS. The Cabby handed the nickel back to the skinfint saying, "You had better take your change... there is no way for me to split a nickel." The salesman asked if he was being impudent and added that he had a mind to report the driver... which incidentally, he DID. Fortunately, the manager of the cab station was in sympathy with the driver and nothing happen... but something SHOULD to the visiting fireman!... who probably turned in a whopping expense account!

You know what's FIERCE fun? A player piano! We acquired one last week from a man who is leaving town and couldn't take it with him... so we got all the music rolls too. Oh, boy! Getting knobs on our leg calves from pumping. We have such up-to-date rolls as "Mexicala Rose"... "My Gal Sal"... "Sunshine of Virginia" (popular in about 1914)... "The Long, Long Trail" and others of that ilk. But NEVER have we had more fun. Nostalgia reared its lovely head the minute we pumped the first chord. It brought back the old upright in the front "parlor" where we had lace curtains (the stiff kind) at the windows... and the wall paper was an elegant DARK GREEN satinated business! The lamps dripped in rosettes and fringe and so did WE. But the cycle has almost made the rounds... because the player piano is certainly coming back to its own. There is even a place in town that services them when they break down... and you can buy up to the minute music rolls! Our winter lays before us like a charm! Pumpety, pumpety, pump!

Heat Wave Stirs Imagination Of Not-So-Hot News Reporter

The Equatorial heat spell that has hovered relentlessly about the Pointe for almost a month now has brought some strange results! Last week a woman froze to death and enjoyed every minute of it.

In fact, so envious were her neighbors, that a local appliance merchant reports deepfreeze sales up almost two-fold over a similar period last year.

Another woman, a resident of the Shores, took full advantage of the sporting worlds newest plaything, the Aqua Lung. She bought a 24-tank unit and spent a full calendar day on the bottom of Lake St. Clair approximately a mile and a half off the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Food was relayed by a team of divers from an attending barge. Her only comment was, "The silt carried down from the flats sometimes made visibility difficult."

A Grand Marais housewife staged an eight-day film marathon in her air conditioned bedroom. Neighbors and friends were tendered a standing invitation.

Showing a variety of films, the makeshift theatre was jammed to the rafters for the premiere presentation of Hollywood's newest wide-screen extravaganza, "Snow Bound."

Though the title lured a good many, the re-run of "The Snows of Kilimanjaro" proved a dismal mistake.

Letters to the Editor

July 20th, '55. Grosse Pointe News, 99 Kercheval Ave., Grosse Pointe 30, Mich.

Re—Elm Tree Disease. We are writing this letter to commend you on your aggressive attack on this problem. We hope your paper will keep after it, and that you will get the support of the City and property owners. Already you have stimulated a lot of activity. We hope that a testing station can be obtained in this area to speed up action on trees which should be destroyed. One tree we know of has been tagged for three weeks and still is standing. Our club is distributing literature on this subject, and has aroused much interest. Appreciating your civic consciousness, we are, Respectfully yours, DR. DONALD ULLMER, Chairman, Denby-Detroit Kiwanis Club, Public Affairs Com., 12657 Gratiot Ave., Detroit 5.

Boat Banter

By Fred Rummels

Now that the Mackinac-classics are history for another year we move into another important phase of sail yacht racing on the calendar. We speak of the famous and the oldest regatta held on the Great Lakes, namely the Inter Lake Yachting Association regatta which starts August 7 and runs to the 12th.

It was 62 years ago that sailors began bringing their yachts to the famous naval battle ground where Commodore Perry captured a complete British squadron on September 10, 1813 in a battle that is emblazoned on the pages of American naval history.

Commodore Perry was only 26 years old when he personally directed the construction and launching of the five vessels used in that battle. The victory is unparalleled and brought undying fame to his name and the site of the battle in the vicinity of Put-In-Bay.

In those days the purpose was to defeat the enemy by sinking his ships with cannon fire. Today modern day sailors meet there on those same waters for the express purpose of defeating their competitors—not with cannon fire but with skill in seamanship, sailing tactics and under the North American Yacht Racing Union Rules.

Commodores of 70 member clubs of the ILYA will send their sailors forth to bring glory to their clubs—they hope.

Starting it all off will be the Grosse Ile to Put In Bay race on Monday, August 8. Tuesday, August 9 will see the 62nd annual ILYA regatta get underway with the first class getting its starting gun at 7:15 a.m. What an unearthly hour to start a sail boat race!

The race committee has made provisions for 22 classes ranging from the big Cruising A boats right down to the tiniest Nippers. Those lucky little fellas don't get away until 9:40 a.m. In past years the regatta has started on Monday morning but because of some unsavory incidents concocted by non-sailing weekend left overs, ILYA committee Lee Wilson and his committee decided to set the re-

DOES THIS FACT SURPRISE YOU?

The Fresher and Finer the Foods We Bring You, The Lower Our Prices Can Be!

HERE'S WHY...

It is a very simple, economic fact that when a grocer runs his store in such a way as to permit waste and spoilage, the cost of his mistakes is included in the price you pay for food.

By the same token, if your grocer, especially in the handling of perishable foods, sells everything he buys, every day, his cost of doing business is reduced, and he can afford to pass these savings on to you and still make a profit.

If he buys the best, sees that it is fresh when it arrives at his store, handles it properly and sells it quickly, it's fresh when you take it home. He knows then, that you'll come back for more and tell your friends, and that builds his business volume. The more he sells the less profit he has to make on each individual item and therefore, his prices can be lower.

It sounds very simple, but it's no job for amateurs.

That's why every man and woman who works for A&P is trained in the science of quality and freshness control.

Quality and freshness control in the A&P organization begins at the source and carries through to the final sale to you.

Control of quality and freshness not only means better food for you, but because it eliminates waste, it keeps our costs down and you show the savings.

A&P SUPER MARKET, 17120 KERCHEVAL—Open Thursday & Friday 'til 9 P. M.

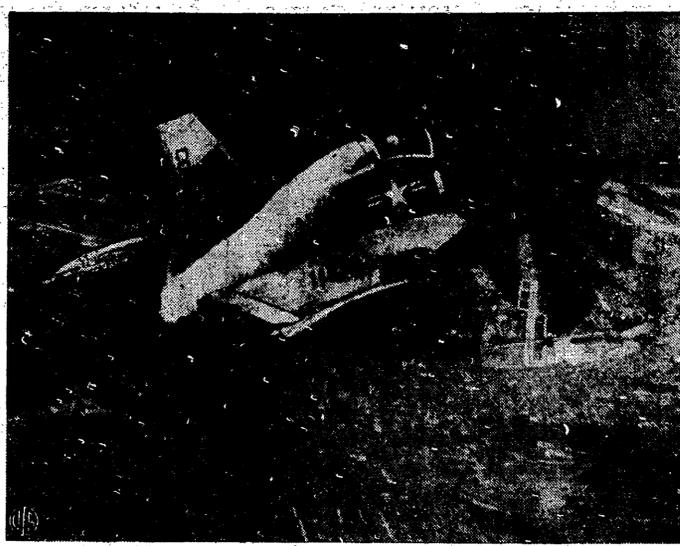

UPS-Y-DAISY—Lovely Hillevi Rombin, the statuesque Miss Sweden who won the "Miss Universe" title for 1955, displays the skill that has won her a reputation as a fine gymnast. As they say—it sure is a topsy-turvy world, er, universe.

BARELY WARM—The heat doesn't bother chubby, 14-month-old Sammy Elgin of Dallas, Mo. He "basily" notices the torrid temperatures sweltering the Midwest as he soaks in (almost) the bathroom basin at his home.

"X" MARKS MORE THAN THE SPOT—A space even smaller than the black cross (arrow, beneath propellers) on the 8,100-foot runway at Lindbergh Field, San Diego, Calif., is all the Convair XFY-1 "Pogo" needs for take-off or landing. Turbo-prop-powered and capable of more than 500 m.p.h. in level flight, the delta-wing Navy fighter uses only a 50-foot square of the runway as an operating base. It takes off straight up and lands straight down, settling gently onto the four caster-like wheels set into the tips of its wings and vertical fins.

OUT TO "COLLAR" NEW MEMBERS—As part of a membership drive the Oconomowoc, Wis., Junior Chamber of Commerce has revived the use of the horse collar but for men—not horses. In an effort to get new members, the Jaycees have adopted this idea: one member is given a horse collar. He must have it with him at all times until he signs up a new member, at which time the collar goes to another member. If caught without the collar in his possession he must pay a 50-cent fine. If he fails to sign a new member within a week he is given a second horse collar. Shown here scouting for new members are Richard Navine Jr. (right), president of the Jaycees. Behind him holding the second collar is Albert Eversdyk, membership chairman. It shouldn't happen to a horse in this weather!

MISS ANTI-ROLL—Pert Janet McKeon shows fine form as Miss Anti-Roll. She was awarded the title after demonstrating her nautical ability on rough waters with a new travel gum called Bonamine, which prevents seasickness.

FUTURE LACEMAKER—Working intently on the first stage of her career as a lacemaker, this seven-year-old girl at the St. Anne Convent at Bruges, Belgium, spends at least two hours a day at her spinning wheel. The ladies of Bruges create lace that is as lovely as it is famous.

"SOMETHING OLD"—Hollywood and grand opera couldn't come up with anything to match this costumed wedding feast, which happens to be for real. A young Dutch couple decided to be married in ancient dress as part of the 600th anniversary celebration of the town of Monnikendam, one of the oldest towns on the Zuider Zee. At the wedding feast, the bride is flanked by her husband, a Mr. Stallenburg-Mooyer, and the Burgomaster, Mr. Kelder (second from left).

FLATTOP—Gold and black striped faille is worked into eye-catching chevrons to outline the brim of G. Howard Hodge's flattopped tambourine beret. The striking hat, from the New York designer's fall and winter collection, is matched by a striped faille stole that can be worn in a number of ways to complement a daytime costume.

TALL STORY—Tall oats grown by Ned Durkee of Claremont, N. H., stand as high as pretty Priscilla Buinicky, a 16-year-old neighbor. The oats attained the unusual height of five feet only seven weeks after planting. According to farmers in the area the rapid growth of oats is quite a phenomenon.

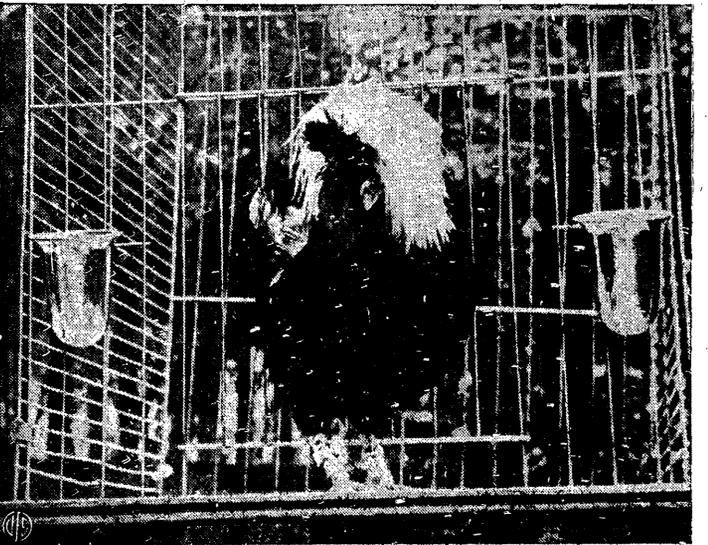

"YOU SEE, IT'S LIKE THIS"—The male animal assumes his masterful (?) role early in life, skillfully going about his appointed task of ordering the complex, mechanical world for the awe-stricken (?) female who can only wonder at his prowess. "Tut, tut," says Junior, setting to work with the calm self-assurance of a professional. "It's really only a complex application of a fairly simple principle involving the circuitous flow of electrical impulses." "Ummm," says Janie, as Baby Brother gets into the act. (Question: What is Janie thinking?)

MUSIC LOVERS—Kenneth D. van Wageningen, 87, of Casper, Wyo., and his wife, 66, are the two oldest students at the Berkshire Music Center, Tanglewood, Mass., summer home of the Boston Symphony Orchestra. (The average age of the students there is about 20.) The van Wageningen couple decided to attend the famed music school under the direction of conductor Charles Munch. Mr. van Wageningen plays the viola, Mrs. van Wageningen is a soprano in the festival chorus at Tanglewood.

THERE'S MORE WHERE THIS CAME FROM!—Even the horse sits up and takes notice when shapely Kitty Smith, 16-year-old "Queen of the Wild West Show," is around. Kitty is the third sister to be named a beauty queen in the past few weeks. Fran Smith, 17, was voted "Miss Oakland" (California); and Nancy Smith, 18, was chosen "Maid of Alameda County." The three beauties make their home in San Leandro, Calif.

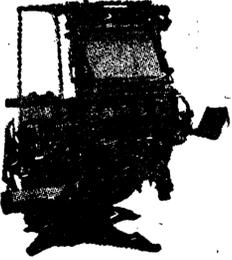

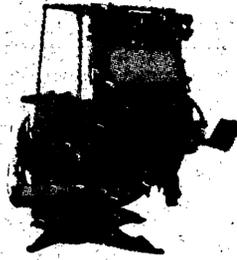

DRESSY NUMBER—Perhaps the classiest chick in the business is this champion white-crested Black Polish cock wearing diamond-studded leg bands of platinum and feeding from sterling silver dishes at right and left of its cage. The bright-plumed fowl is owned and exhibited by Ernest Tomlinson of Atlanta, Ga., president of the Crested Fowl Club of America.

GORBLING UP A TRUCK—Like Jonah being swallowed by the whale, this Air Force tank truck laden with jet fuel is loaded inside the big belly of a Lockheed C-130 at Marietta, Ga. Carried this way, the fuel is quickly loaded and unloaded and is ready to be moved overland when the plane lands.

THINK HE COULDN'T DO IT?—There's nothing as satisfied-looking as a giraffe with lowered eyelashes, but this youngster at the Chester Zoo, Chester, England, has reason for an air of contentment. With his front legs spread wide, he's nibbling on grass and surprising plenty of spectators who thought he could only reach high branches.

Little Boats' Unprecedented Wins Mark Mackinac Race

They talked for 10 years about the big Mackinac blow of 1945 and there is a very good chance they will talk about this year's Bayview-Port Huron-Mackinac race for just as long.

No, it won't be about the near-gale force northerly storm that buffeted the record 68-boat fleet and forced 25 of the yachts to seek shelter or drop out of the race because of damaged gear or broken spars. Conversation won't center around the fact Ray Engholm's 58-foot yawl "Ivanhoe" from the Royal Canadian Yacht Club with her ex-Escapade crew of Al Thomas, Clark Swart, Eddie Wunsch, John Longley and Jack Anderson, all Grosse Pointers, was the first Canadian-owned yacht to be first across the finish line at the island in the Straits of Mackinac, either.

Carlin Made History
What they will talk about is how Jimmy Carlin's little 33-foot Pilot sloop "Glory Bea II" weathered the storm to save her time on the other 42 yachts to finish the 235-mile grind up Lake Huron and become the first little boat to ever win overall honors in the 31-year history of the race.

And it was exciting the way Carlin and his "Glory Bea" crew of brother Alec, son Jimmy Jr., Bob Wait, Bob Smiley, Wayne Sheppard and Jim Smith, captured the hearts of all as they made their stretch drive down the Straits in full view of the island spectators.

As we said before, Ray Engholm's "Ivanhoe" was the first across the finish line, getting her gun at 6:08 a.m. on Monday, July 25. Davie Sloss' "Kathmar" of Bayview Yacht Club followed her across a little more than an hour later. Ken Kroehler's big yawl "Manitou," out of Chicago, and Yacht Club, charged in 18 minutes later.

Big Boys Celebrate
It truly looked like another big boat year. A suitable celebration was taking place aboard these three yachts as the handicapped times were fast running out. It didn't seem there was another boat in the fleet that had a ghost of a chance of saving its time on the first three big boats. That is until "Glory Bea" poked her bow out from behind Bob Lo Island and was seen gallantly making her way to finish line a mile way.

At that time "Glory Bea" had only 19 minutes left of her corrected time. The revelers immediately turned their attention to the plucky little yacht as she fought her way against the current and time in the dying northerly breeze.

Gets Record Ovation
Bets flew thick and fast—some for and some against—but deep down in the hearts of all was the hope "Glory Bea" would make it in time. She did—within a mere four minutes to spare. When the little sloop warped into the dock she received an ovation such as never has been heard before in a Mackinac race.

"Ivanhoe's" skipper, a grand sportsman who had just seen the coveted Mackinac prize snatched from him, was first to board the "Glory Bea" to pump Carlin's hand in a heart-warming action of congratulations.

In the meantime two more Pilot sloops, Karl Ness' "Happi-ness" and Hank Dunlap's "Albacore," had come into view. They were less than five minutes apart with "Happi-ness" leading. They didn't have a chance to save their time on "Ivanhoe," but what a boat race they had in that last mile!

Unprecedented Victory
Island spectators glued their attention on these two yachts until race chairman Don Johnston gave them their finish guns, which marked an unprecedented little-boat victory what with "Glory Bea" taking first in fleet honors and "Happi-ness" and "Albacore" notching third and fourth place fleet honors.

This showing by little boats stamped the 31st annual Mackinac as one of the greatest upsets in modern yacht racing and gave future hope to the little boat sailors who, for years, have been chasing the big boats to the turtle-shaped island.

Plenty of Hardware
Included in the hardware that "Glory Bea" won was the huge J. L. Hudson trophy, symbolic of winning the race; the Thunder Bay Island trophy for the best corrected time in Class D and the W. J. Taylor trophy for first to finish in Class D. "Happi-ness" and "Albacore" took second and third places in Class D.
"Ivanhoe" not only gained the honor of being the first yacht to finish but also won the Mackinac Island trophy; the Java Head trophy for the best corrected time in Class A and the DeRoy

Sue Dhooge Wins Novice Tourney

Fifteen-year-old Sue Dhooge, a little lass who recently was graduated from Pierce Junior High, brought tennis honors to Grosse Pointe over the weekend when she won the girls tennis title in the Greater Detroit Novice Tennis tournament.

Sue won the title by defeating 10-year-old Lucy McEvans of Hamtramck in straight sets, 6-3, 6-0.

Sue received her tennis training from her gymnasium teacher, Carol Gates, and from Lou Gardella at the Neighborhood Club. It was Gardella who steered Sue through the tourney and considers her victory a direct result of the Junior tennis program which has been flourishing at the club during the summer months.

Lt. Col. Vern C. Bailey Takes Annual Training
FORT RILEY, Kas.—Army Reservist Lt. Col. Vern C. Bailey, whose wife, Rita, lives at 1879 Prestwick road, Grosse Pointe, Mich., recently completed two weeks of active training at Fort Riley, Kas.

Pointe Yacht Wins Mackinac Classic

Jimmy Carlin made history in the 31st annual Bayview-Port Huron-Mackinac race held recently when he captured overall honors with his 33-foot Pilot sloop "Glory Bea II." It marked the first time in the history of the event that a yacht so small had won the overall prize. Carlin lives on Ridge road and sails out of Bayview Yacht Club. His crew was 90 percent Grosse Pointers and included, left to right, first row: ALEC CARLIN, BOB SMILEY and JIM SR. Middle row: WAYNE SHEPPARD and BOB WATTS. Back row: BOB SMITH and JIMMY JR.

Babe Ruth Leagues

CITY, FARMS & PARK
The Babe Ruth Detroit and Brooklyn teams tied up the League World Series in two closely fought contests over the weekend, Saturday and Sunday, July 30 and 31, Detroit winning the first game 5 to 4 and Brooklyn winning the second game 8 to 6.

The final game, taking place after the news went to press will be reported next week.

In the first game the Tigers came into the 7th inning trailing by one run. Chip Bush drew a base on balls followed by two strike-outs for the Brooklyn pitcher, Chip Byrne. Then Bob Bigham, diminutive right fielder, worked the count to 3 balls and 2 strikes and then singled into right field scoring Bush and tying up the game.

When Detroit came to bat in the 8th inning after shutting out Brooklyn, Bob Rein scored the winning run on a single by Chuck Mihalik.

The Tigers looked to be well on their way in the second game.

When they scored two runs in the third inning after shutting out their opponents. The score then seasawed. In the fourth inning Brooklyn picked up four runs by Carrier, Barnes, Byrne and Kelly with Cook hitting a two bagger.

Detroit scored three runs in the fifth inning making the count 5 to 4. Brooklyn made three runs in the last half of the fifth with runs by Carrier, Byrne and Kelly. Both teams scored a run apiece in the sixth. Detroit was shut out in the top of the seventh and Brooklyn won 8 to 6.

Wozniak Wins Mallory Test
Dick Wozniak claimed the right to represent the Detroit River Yachting Association in the coming Mallory Cup semi-finals on August 14 and 15, when he won the six-race round robin quarter final series held at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club over last weekend, July 29-30.

Four races were held on Saturday with the final two being sailed on Sunday. Wozniak scored 27 1/2 points in the six races with consistent sailing. He scored three seconds, two fourths and one first.

Wozniak's plan of attack was plain and simple; he just stayed away from the rest of the fleet and sailed his own race. The rest of the fleet went at one another hammer and tongs and repeatedly got into jams and disqualifications which affected the final results.

Ledyard Mitchell, representing the Grosse Pointe (Little) Club, finished second with 22 1/2 points and was followed by Carter Sales of Grosse Pointe Y.C. with 21 1/2, Henry Cawthra of Crescent and Pete Pederson of Grosse Ile tied for fourth with 20 1/2. Pat Clancy of Edison Yacht Club was last with 14 points.

Swim Awards Given in City

With the close of the first half of the season's swimming program at the City of Grosse Pointe, awards were presented Saturday by the park guards for achievements to date.

While many children benefited by the instruction in beginning swimming given at the park, the following passed the American Red Cross qualifications and were given official cards: Bobby Hatch, Candy Anderson, Bruce Bayinger, Joan Ludeke, Carroll Ann Baker, Chris Hogsted and Doreen Crothers.

Miss Rose Ann Blondell, guard instructor, says many other boys and girls passed nearly all the required tests and will probably qualify for such recognition during the month of August. Judd Emerson and Bill Marsden assisted in the beginners instruction.

Swimmers Class certificates went to Pat Warner, Berry Trombly, Marthie Fischer, Sherry Arentz, Vicky Schmitt, Linda Donaldson, Jean Cook and Eddie Kennedy. Guards Bill Marsden and Judd Emerson worked with this class.

Awards for Saturday mornings swimming meets during July went to:

6 to 9 Year Group: Joe Reed, first with a total of 97 points; second, Cathy Chouinard, with 55; third, Pat Warner, with 50; and fourth, Jackie Koerber, with 22 points.

10 to 12 Year Group: Carol Chapp, first with 83 points; second, Mike Kelly, with 55; third, Bob Emerson, with 42; and fourth, Jim Chouinard, with 32 points.

13 to 15 Year Group: Pat Chapp, first with 76 points; Dennis Moore, second with 57; third, Alice Chapp, with 48; and fourth, Jerry Mehl, with 41 points total.

New weekly contests for August start this Saturday at 10:45 a.m., with points starting anew. All boys and girls 18 years of age and under may participate.

was forced to default the match. At the time Kristufek and Cavanaugh were leading 4-3 in the set.

Kristufek and Cavanaugh reached the finals by defeating O. K. Dickman and Robert Behan in straight sets 6-2, 6-2. The Reindels qualified for the final match when they downed Alex and Sandy Wiener.

The tournament was under the direction of Alex Wiener and played on the Grosse Pointe Club's courts.

triumph. Although Paraby did walk a large number, he almost won the game himself when he poked out a homerun, triple and a single.

Last place Carolina broke an 8-game losing streak in the other game by defeating Alabama, 11-3. George Williamson hurled a brilliant three-hitter for the win, with Bob Egemann providing the power, connecting for a homerun and a single.

The White Sox beat out their arch rivals, the Orioles, in the big game of the year last Thursday night for the Park Major League championship, and with it came the honor to represent the Park when it faced the Woods winner in the Little League World Series last Monday in the one-defeat-and-out tourney.

Two productive innings in which the winners gathered six runs, and a dazzling two-hit performance by one of the leading pitchers of the league, Louis Ewald, gave the Sox a 6-3 victory over the Orioles, which were seriously incapacitated by vacationing players.

Missing three of the top hitters in the league, who were away, the Orioles never really got started against the White Sox.

Jack Giacalone provided the most powerful blow of the big inning when he doubled home three runs with the bases jammed.

From there the Sox went down in order for the next two innings until the sixth when they counted two more runs that were not needed as Ewald continued along in two-hit style. Dave Keenan and Bob Beausille got the two hits, both singles, for the Orioles.

Another highlight of the week was the Senator's double victory, over the Orioles, 9-2 and a 2-1 triumph over the Athletics wound up in last place after winning the Park pennant last year. The win which gave the Nats a second place tie with the Orioles after floundering in third place for a week and a half.

Dick Vore, the Senators' center-fielder who led the league with an outstanding 540 average continued to hit as he came up with three straight singles against the Orioles. Vore also got three more in the 2-1 win over the Athletics. Mike Van Lokeren collected the 9-2 win, a two hit performance.

Collegiate League Northern Conference
After being deadlocked for first place most of the season with Great Lakes, Evansville showed who was the champion last week when it pounded out a four-inning 18 to 4 victory for the Northern Collegiate League pennant.

After getting off to a slow start and leading only 5-4 in the fourth inning, Evansville unloaded with 13 runs as 17 men went to bat. The game was halted there because of darkness. Cherry, Armbruster, Ghesquiere, and Wilson each collected two hits in the slugfest for Louisville. The winners faced the winner of the Southern Conference last Tuesday in the one-game championship.

In the other game, Fordham finally notched its first win of the year, a 8-2 win over Harvard. Jim Bruno hurled the win.

Southern Conference
Duke, which finished the season unbeaten, almost dropped the last game of the year last week but 14 walks on the part of Baylor's Reid Paraby were just enough to walk to an 8-7 flung struck out. Then Parke singled and Hillenbrand got to second on an error, putting 3 runs across the plate. Now leading 7 to 6, the Cubs found the suspense pretty terrific in the last half inning.

However, three Cards came up and went down in order, and the Cubs became the happy champions of Grosse Pointe City.

FARMS

The quiet atmosphere of Grosse Pointe Farms was rocked with cheers last Wednesday, July 27, as Bob Maniere of the American League Indians pitched a no-hitter against the National League Pirates to spark his team to a 5-0 victory and the 1955 League Championship. Those Little Leaguers looked like champions all the way with only one error to mar the record books.

The Indians gained their five runs in the first inning. Then the Pirates tightened up and it was a nothing to nothing ball game from then on. Lee Schlorff turned in a beautiful relief pitching job for his Pirate team but could not overcome that five-run lead.

Bobby Maniere, in carving his name in the Hall of Fame, struck out 15 men in the 6-inning contest. He struck the side out in 3 of the 6 innings and issued only 2 walks. His teammates were right behind him all the way with air-tight infield play.

One of the sweetest double plays witnessed by many a spectator was executed by Marty La Fave of the Pirates, to Mickey Kelley. It looked more professional than Little League.

Congratulations to the managers and coaches of both these fine teams. Their quality of training and ability to guide and counsel their young charges was certainly in evidence. It was a terrific ball game and three big cheers for the Indians, the 1955 Champions.

WOODS

To determine the Champions of the National League, a play-off was necessary between the Dodgers and Giants. The winner turned out to be the Giants.

The National League race was much closer than the American League contest. So the Giants, the National League leaders, were pitted against the Tigers, the American League champs.

The Tigers met the Giants Monday, July 25. Larry Engelhart gave his usual sterling performance, by yielding only two hits. He struck out seven, walked three. Engelhart also got himself a pair of hits. Gerry Phillips did the catching, and he is one of the best in the catching department, according to the experts.

"Butch" Grammer was the hitting star of the game, getting 3 hits in four times at the plate. He drove in 8 of the Tiger 12 runs. The pitcher for the Giants was Bloesing, and Graff did the catching. Bloesing allowed 12 hits. A former Tiger player, Paul Rey, now with the Giants, blasted a home-run off of Engelhart for the Giants.

The Farms Indians and Woods' Tigers were the victors in the Little League World Series opener last Monday night and went on to meet each other for the championship Wednesday night at Ghesquiere field.

A brilliant no-hit performance by the Farms' rangy left-hander, Ken Stanley sparked the 3-2 victory over the City Cubs at Neighborhood Club. Stanley struck out 13 and walked seven during the game, two of which cost him a shutout.

In the other opener the Tigers of the Woods trounced the Park White Sox, 6-2, after scoring five runs in the first inning. Earl Meyers pitched a six-hitter for the winners. He was nicked hard only once when Tom McCarthy smashed a two-run homer for the Park in the fourth.

CITY MINORS

The Senators have done it again. Senator Manager Walt Scotten, and his boys have practically clinched the league title by defeating the Grosse Grosse Pointers by the score of 10 to 0.

Behind hitless pitching and errorless fielding the Senators reached their peak and scored their second shutout in a row. Pitcher John Fannon held the Grosse Grosse Pointers for four innings without a hit and then turned over the pitching chores to Bob Woleben, who continued the same pitching which was practically perfect.

Besides the pitching being so good, the fielding was just as good, without any errors being charged to any Senator. In the hitting department, the Senators kept pace by scoring 10 runs.

Led by Bob Woleben who scored three times and Boyce Byrd who scored twice, the following Senators also chalked up runs for their team: Bob Fox, John Fannon, Art Kirchner, Roger Johnson and Bill O'Neill.

Acting Captain Andy Kimmel of the Pointers did a good job of directing the team and keeping the Pointers on their toes from his catching position. Both John Mazer and Jack Parent did good pitching jobs for the Pointers but the Senators just had one of those "perfect days" and could not make any mistake. After the game, the Pointers gave a rousing cheer to the victors and were led by Scott Paris, Bill Tyler, Charlie Casgrain and the rest of the Pointers who showed that they can take it and still keep smiling.

The Giants struck back and defeated the Phillies and are fighting to stay in the league race. If the Phillies can defeat the Senators, and the Giants win their next game, then the league race will be tied.

Manager Al Bolden of the Giants sent Barry Trombly to start pitching with Lance Gotsfredson catching. Trombly went out in the second inning and was relieved by Mike Yarkin. Yarkin struck out 12 men, gave one walk and permitted five hits in five innings. Yarkin also sparked his team in the batting department by hitting a couple of doubles, a single and a walk and had a perfect day at bat.

Andy Mellen and Guy Piche also got a couple of singles each. Skip Bolden came through with a triple and drove in two runs, which finally brought the Giant score up to 14 points with the Phillies winding up with 8 points.

Manager Bartholomew of the Giants started Tom Mullen pitching with Mike Lynch catching. The Phillies took an early lead and stayed there for three innings; but the hitting power of the Giants finally came through and gave them a win.

Special Announcement

After the game on Saturday, August 6, Al Bolden, chairman of the special events for the Little League, has planned a special program for all of the mothers and dads and their Little Leaguers after the last game is over at 1 p.m. on the Little League field. Games, refreshments, prizes and a good old fashioned get-together are planned for every mother and dad who has a son playing in the Minors of the City Little League.

Commissioner Colegrove and all the managers would like to personally meet the moms and dads of all the small and wonderful boys who were real sports—who put their heart and soul into this game—and who are on their way to being real sports in the "big game" of life itself. Everyone come out. If it rains, we will meet in the Neighborhood Club. See you there.

Crescent Wins Sailing Event

Crescent Sail Yacht Club won the Sears Cup DRYA quarter finals last weekend, July 30-31, in a three race round robin sailed off the Grosse Pointe Little Club. The Little Club crew finished second well ahead of Grosse Pointe Y.C. the only other club represented by a junior crew.

Crescent scored two firsts and a second for a total of 8½ points while the Little Club scored 7½ points on one first and two seconds. Grosse Pointe Y.C. took third in all three races for a total of three points.

Jim Millie's skipped the Crescent boat and John Ledyard was at the helm of the Little Club boat. Both Crescent and the Little Club crews qualified to participate in the Wakefield series to be held at the Mentor Harbor Y.C. in Ohio on August 13-16-17.

Ted Farnsworth, George Cossaboom and Otto Sherer Sr., ran the series to perfection.

Ernest G. Moellers Vacationing in North

MR. and MRS. ERNEST G. MOELLER of Kenwood court left August 3 for a two-week vacation in Montreal and the New England states.

While in Montreal they will be the guests of Mrs. Arthur H. Martin at her lodge on the estate of the Seigneurie Club in Quebec. From there they will visit the Howard Emersons at their summer home in New Hampshire.

at eight (8:00) o'clock in the evening to consider the appeal of Alvin M Gounin, 366 Kercheval Avenue, from the denial of the Building Department to issue a permit for the construction of a garage on part of Lots 6 and 7, Charles Moran Subdivision. Property adjacent to the above address to be used in conjunction with the hardware store business.

The Building Department denied the application on the grounds that its issuance would be in violation of Section 3.01 of the City's Zoning Ordinance dealing with non-conforming uses.

The applicant contends that permission, if granted, would improve the general conditions of the area in the operation of his business.

Hearing will be public and interested property owners or residents are invited.

Village of Grosse Pointe Shores Ordinance No. 89

An ordinance to provide for the control and eradication of Dutch Elm Disease; to provide for the spraying of elm trees and the destruction of elm trees infected with Dutch Elm Disease and to declare such infected elms a public nuisance, and to provide penalties for the violation of this ordinance.

The Village of Grosse Pointe Shores ordains:

Section 1. Every person, firm or corporation which owns or has under its control any elm tree located within the Village limits shall thoroughly spray the same each year two different times, the first spray shall be put on just before the buds break; between March 15 and April 5, and the second spray shall be put on between July 5 and July 25. The spray material shall be an insecticide spray approved by the Department of Buildings and Safety and Sanitary Engineering. The Department shall keep and have available at all times a list of such approved insecticide sprays. Failure or refusal of any owner or person in control of any elm tree within the Village limits to spray the same within twenty (20) days after having been notified so to do by the Village shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in this Ordinance, provided, however, that in lieu of any owner or person in control of an elm tree spraying the same as herein required, such owner or person in control thereof may, prior to the expiration of said twenty (20) day period, authorize in writing the Village to do such spraying at the sole cost and expense of such owner or person in control.

Section 2. Every person, firm or corporation which owns or has under its control an elm tree within the Village limits which the Department of Buildings and Safety and Sanitary Engineering has determined is infected with Dutch Elm Disease shall cut down and remove the same. Any owner or person in control of any elm located within the Village limits so determined to be infected with Dutch Elm Disease who shall fail or refuse to cut down and remove the same within fifteen (15) days after having been notified so to do by the Village shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished as provided in this Ordinance, provided, however, that in lieu of any owner or person in control so cutting down and removing such infected elm, such owner or person in control thereof may, prior to the expiration of said fifteen (15) day period, authorize in writing the Village to cut down and remove such infected elm tree at the sole cost and expense of said owner or person in control.

Section 3. Any elm tree within the Village which is found to be infected with Dutch Elm Disease is hereby declared a public nuisance.

Section 4. The Village shall have power to go upon any private lands for the purpose of inspection and determining whether any elm tree located thereon is or may be infected with Dutch Elm Disease, and if any elm tree is found to be so infected, to place a distinguishing mark thereon, by blaze or otherwise.

Section 5. Any notice required to be given by the Village under this Ordinance shall be sufficient if delivered to the owner or person in control of the property on which any elm tree within the Village limits is located, or by mailing the same to his last known address and posting a copy of such notice upon the premises where such tree is located.

Section 6. The provisions of this Ordinance shall be enforced by the Department of Buildings and Safety and Sanitary Engineering. Any person, firm or corporation who violates any of the provisions of this Ordinance shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be fined not less than twenty-five ($25.00) dollars nor more than one hundred ($100.00) dollars for each offense, or shall be punished by imprisonment in the Village or County jail for a period of not to exceed ninety (90) days for each offense, or may be both fined and imprisoned as provided herein. Each day that a violation is permitted to exist shall constitute a separate offense. The rights and remedies herein provided are cumulative and in addition to all other penalties provided by law.

Section 7. This Ordinance shall take effect twenty (20) days from the date of its passage.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Yellow undercoating is one of the things to look for in buying cantaloupe, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture. This means the melon has ripened on the vine. But, they caution, beware of soft spots which may indicate rough handling, over-ripeness and spoiling.

Mr. Tapert, 53, of 504 St. Clair, a lifelong resident of the Detroit area, died on Wednesday, July 27, in Deaconess Hospital. Services were held on Saturday, July 30. Burial was in Forestlawn cemetery. Until his retirement five years ago, Mr. Tapert operated the Hudson-Tapert company, Coplin and E. Jefferson, for 15 years. He is survived by his wife, Virginia; two daughters, Linn and Jane Tapert; three brothers and two sisters.

HERBERT BROWN

Herbert Brown, conductor of duplicate bridge at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center and known throughout the metropolitan area and the state for his activity in bridge circles, died last week. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Mabel Brown, who will carry on his activities with the assistance of Mrs. Dorothy Crawford.

WILLIAM L. MCGIVERN

Mr. McGivern, a leading real estate man, died on Wednesday, July 27, in his home, 329 Rivard avenue. He has been the head of William L. McGivern Real Estate company, 1077 Penobscot Building, since 1917. He attended Detroit College of Law, and was a member of the Detroit Real Estate Board since 1916. Surviving him are his wife, Dorothy; and a sister, Miss May McGivern. Funeral services were held on Friday, July 29. Interment was private in White Chapel Memorial cemetery.

Experts' Advice Aids Community

One of the biggest assets of Michigan's small units of government is the "expert" who lives in the community and gives his time and energy to the community's development and planning.

Good words for local community leaders were voiced by two representatives of local government at Michigan State University's summer forum in state and local government.

"Small communities depend very much on the free advice of experts living in the community," said Mayor David Calhoun of Huntington Woods. In his town, the mayor said, a group of men are serving on one commission "whose combined salaries are probably $600,000 a year, but they serve the community for nothing, except their desire to help and improve it."

Agreeing that such service is "a wonderful thing" was James L. Gardner, president of the Michigan State Association of Supervisors. "It means a lot," he said, "to get for free a lot of high-class talent who can do future planning, prepare information and make suggestions."

In discussing Michigan's home rule act, Mayor Calhoun declared that "We have always felt very strongly that home rule is the way we would like to be governed. It is not up to the Legislature in Lansing to tell us what to do internally."

Mayor Calhoun also objected to what he called "the legislature's attempt to set the hours for fire and police officials." Contending that this is a matter for the local community to decide, he said the setting of these working hours by the state would amount to "interference."

During 1954 the American Red Cross Disaster Services financially assisted an average of one family every 75 minutes and gave emergency mass care to one person every nine minutes.

It is hard to find a person bad enough not to contemplate reforming at some future date.

Post Office Faces Gigantic Task in Handling Daily Mail

Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield informed Postmaster Edward L. Baker that every single weekday of the year first-class mail is fed into the post offices of the 44 major cities of the United States which normally account for about two-thirds of the nation's mail volume.

The gigantic task confronting the Post Office Department in handling this huge volume of letter mail is made even more difficult and complex because approximately 80 percent of this total, roughly 48,000,000 pieces of letter mail, is now received daily by these 244 post offices during a six-hour peak period from 4 p.m. to 10 p.m.

"The rapid flow of this daily volume of mail is essential to business and industry and they can help themselves get better mail service by cooperating with the 'three-point program' of the department," Postmaster General Arthur E. Summerfield said.

"Briefly, the Post Office Department's 'three-point' program involves: 1. The sorting of the mail into local and out-of-town bundles; 2. The tying and bundling of the mail; and 3. The earlier mailing of letters and parcels."

Those who mail in quantity are requested to tie their mail in bundles prior to mailing or delivery to the post office, with local mail separated from that for out-of-town recipients and regular three-cent mail separated from air mail.

This sorting procedure, postal officials emphasize, is normally relatively convenient for business firms when out-going mail is stamped or run through meter machines, but this operation becomes extremely time-consuming when it must be done in the post office.

The department is facilitating the bundling and sorting of first-class mail replacing the small corner boxes usually mounted on poles with larger standing boxes. In many instances these larger receptacles will be in pairs—one for local mail, and one for out-of-town. This mail is sorted upon mailing. These large boxes have the added advantage of being able to receive larger pieces and more items at any one time as well as bundles of letters.

Cooperative mailing racks are also being developed by the department for use in sorting the mail in the lobbies of business structures.

These racks usually hold three large mail sacks, appropriately identified, into which local and out-of-town mail is placed by the mailer.

Further, the department has labels available without charge for distribution to patrons to be used in identifying outgoing bundles of letters. These free labels are of two kinds, one reading "All for Out-of-Town" and the other "All for Local Delivery."

The department is also instituting certain procedural improvements in co-ordinating carrier and truck pick-up of the mails and in sorting and canceling procedures in the various post offices.

"The third step in our current effort to speed mail deliveries is based on the advantages of getting mail into the post offices earlier in the day than at present," Mr. Summerfield explained.

"If increased quantities of mail were received earlier in the day, our peak load would be reduced and evened out and a larger proportion of the mail could be placed on earlier trains, planes and motorized vehicles, thus assuring earlier delivery."

Typical of the advantages of early mailing is the fact that mail cleared in New York City in time to be placed on a 6:01 p.m. train for Cleveland will be delivered in Cleveland on the first trip the following day; but mail cleared only in time to make the 11:16 p.m. train for Cleveland will not be delivered in that city until the second day.

"We know," Mr. Summerfield concluded, "that this 'three-point' program to speed up the mails can only succeed if the Post Office Department receives the active cooperation of the large business and industrial mailers. It is a mutual effort that can increase 'first-day delivery' in larger areas than presently possible. I am certain more and more business firms will sort and tie their own mail and get it to the post office earlier. It is in their own self-interest to do so."

There are two sides to every story—victory for you means defeat for the other fellow.

Food Scoops For This Week

Mid-summer food shoppers will find many attractive price-tags to make meat selection easy.

With the 1 to 1-1/2 cent decrease seen this week on the price of frying chickens, penny-wise shoppers can stretch the food dollar for picnics, parties or ordinary family dinners.

Heavy marketings of all cattle have kept both fore and hind quarter cuts easy-on-the-pocket-book. Hot-weather demand has encouraged many markets to feature steaks, but for the best economy such heavy roasts as the chuck and rump still offer the best values.

Because demand for pork loin roasts has decreased with the rise in temperature, prices have taken a considerable drop. Slab bacon, well known brands of heavier style bacon, and the top quality cuts from lighter hogs are also in the good-buy spotlight.

This is still the best time of the year to add many cuts of veal to your market list. Lamb prices remain fairly steady due to a short supply.

Fresh white fish and trout, and cod and haddock filets, from cooler waters are in adequate supply and reasonably priced. However, the catch of local lake fish has indicated a seasonal decrease. A few white bass, yellow pickerel, and lake perch are available at low cost per serving.

The melon family, watermelon and cantaloupe, has the good-buy spot of distinction on fruit counters this week due to drastic decreases in price.

Fortunately when lemons are most appreciated for refreshing summer drinks, supplies are most plentiful. Stocks of fresh lemons are very large this year because fewer will go into processing.

Lemon Refrigerator Cake
1 Tablespoon plain gelatin
1/4 cup cold water
6 egg yolks, slightly beaten
3/4 cup sugar
1-1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
6 egg whites
1/4 cup white syrup
1 large angle food cake
1 cup whipping cream
3/4 cup lemon juice
Soften gelatin in water; combine yolks with sugar, juice, and rind. Cook yolk mixture over hot water, but do not boil, until mixture coats spoon. Remove from heat, add gelatin, stirring until dissolved. Beat egg whites until stiff, gradually add syrup while beating. Gradually fold in custard, mix well. Tear cake into small pieces. Grease tube pan and add layer of cake, then custard. Put into refrigerator over night. Frost or decorate with whipped cream when ready to serve. Serves 16.

GROWS $30,000 CROP
In Just Two Short Seasons
How It Works:
You just plant the plugs of Zoysia grass in your backyard or spare field. Then watch it spread, multiplying 50 to 1 in only one growing season giving you a perpetual supply of this amazing grass.

Even with all-out effort, William H. Wilmet, manager of Summit Hill Turf Farm at Gaithersburg, Md., can't tear apart a mat of intertwined zoysia.

Yard-conscious Americans this summer are trying a new type of grass so tough it kills weeds, laughs at crab grass and turns its greenest in blistering sun. Developed at the U. S. Agricultural Research Center, Beltsville, Md., Meyer Z-52 Zoysia spreads rapidly with runners along the ground but requires a one-inch trimming only once a month. The otherwise carefree grass dislikes cold, turns brown after a frost or two. Scarce and seedless, zoysia must be planted in plugs or sprigs but in two seasons forms thick, springy, durable carpet.

Replacing run-down lawn, girl digs small hole, drops in plug every square foot, tamps it down and adds fertilizer. Lawn will be all Z-52 in two years.

"Heliotrope" is the only perfume which Mrs. Henry B. Joy consents to use . . . It's her fragrant favorite and the same scent that her mother, Mrs. Truman Newberry, consistently chose.

Mrs. Benjamin C. Addison's "beat the heat" formula on a recent shopping trip to the Village combined a beige-toned sun frock and smart straw trio: box, handbag, market bag, and wedge sandals.

Mrs. Richard Webber Allen caused a minor sensation at the Boat Club the other day with her slick sun-glasses. . . Her work with the United Foundation brought her in contact with a Look Magazine exec, who presented her with the sun-glasses which are a walking ad for the magazine.

They are cunningly contrived so that the white circles around dark glasses forming two "Os"; a matching "L" stands on the left side and "K" on the right, spelling out LOOK to everyone who meets her.

Striking picture: Mrs. Harry C. Demorest, she of the beautiful dark brown hair and picture face, wearing a big chignon banded in pink tulle with two pink roses tucked on either side . . . AND driving her new pink convertible.

Mrs. D. entertained her sister, Miss Georgia Wilson, visiting here from Portland, Ore., at a Lochmoor Club luncheon the other day . . . and a more beautiful sister set of sun-tanned shoulders can't be found in the Pointe, we bet.

PILFERINGS

Among the more infamous newspaper puns are the following: Woman says that after her husband drinks homemade hooch he becomes as wild as a bear. Another case of home bruin.—New York Morning Telegraph.

Samson had the right idea about advertising. He took two columns and brought down the house.—Charleston Gazette.

The world has too many cranks and not enough self-starters.—Columbia Record.

A great many prominent family trees were started by grafting.—Fort Wayne News and Sentinel.

And magazines have matched them with: A 70-year-old sportsman says that there is nothing to equal an early morning gallop and a glass of port after dinner. Canter and decanter, as it were.—Passing Show (London).

A lot of Sunday school teachers haven't any class.—Whiz Bang.

Not a good deal depends on luck in poker. Rather, luck depends on a good deal.—Jester.

Presidential timber is mostly bark.—Judge.

Chances are that you will outlive your pet unless you like unusual pets. A pet elephant, statistics show, will live twice as long as you will. Or if your taste runs to the macabre, a crocodile will outlive you 1 1/2 times, as will a tortoise, eagle, crow, raven or swan.

A classic story from The Saturday Evening Post is George P. Stimson's tale of the civic organization which struck a snag when members discussed using funds for a project which might be operated at a loss.

"Gentlemen," said one member, "no matter how much good it may do, the plan is unbusinesslike. Let me warn you that I never remain identified with any organization that operates with a deficit."

There was a long silence—until another member asked, "You're still an American citizen, aren't you?"

The Columbus Star rates a star for the following service story:

The captain was showing a visiting congressman how efficiently his destroyer operated during maneuvers, when a sailor came to the bridge and saluted, saying, "I have a message for you from the admiral, sir."

Beaming, the captain said, "Ah, then read it to me." The sailor read: "Of all the stupid bungling morons, you take the cake! You nearly rammed the flagship."

Glancing sideways at the congressman, the captain pursed his lips. "Very well, sailor," he snapped. "Have that message decoded at once."

MRS. FRANK WYLIE OF HARCOURT ROAD

By Kitty Marriott
"It's fun and I love it!" simply sums up each and every thing that blond young Mrs. Wylie puts her hand to. She apparently believes in community service UNLIMITED, and serves actively on any number of boards and committees; she has nimble fingers with a needle and likes nothing better than down-to-earth cooking; she and husband Frank have a wonderful time adventuring in their home. And for every project she ventures into, the lady says with equal enthusiasm "I LOVE IT!"

A Torch Drive worker for years - the Wylies came to Detroit in 1948 - Mrs. Wylie is one of the nine regional heads for the United Foundation's residential solicitations and is on the Women's Committee governing board of the United Community Services. (The UF, she explained, is the fund-raising organization, while UCS is the grouping together of 150 local agencies for planning purposes so that their services do not overlap.)

Now Board Member

She started out doing volunteer work for the UCS and is now a member of its Volunteer Bureau board. She is on the board of Sophie Wright Settlement and does public relations for the settlement. Currently she's secretary of the board of Travelers' Aid. When the USO was first reactivated, she also did volunteer duty for that organization.

A member of the Seven Women's Colleges Committee, Mrs. Wylie served as chairman of the Radcliffe Club. She majored in economics when she attended Radcliffe.

Active in Junior League

She has been a Junior League member for about 5 years, and was chairman of the league's provisional training course to show provisional members what makes the Junior League tick. During this period she was able to combine operations in a versatile manner by writing a kit for one of the meetings to show members the United Foundation and United Community Services set-up. She has recently become a J. L. vice-president.

Theatre Arts - she loves that too, and has acted in some of their plays. Mrs. Wylie also belongs to the Women's City Club.

Likes to Sew Too

As one of the tall Pointe lasses, Mrs. Wylie likes to make her own clothes whenever she can. She chooses from several pattern houses she prefers to get the garment detail she desires, then blithely stitches up, not just dresses, but suits, coats and even draperies.

Fancy cooking is Mrs. Wylie's joy. She enjoys trying cuisines of the different nationalities, and frequently picks up specialties in restaurants.

For entertaining, Mrs. Wylie keeps a repertoire of foods that can be prepared ahead of time, because she likes to spend a maximum of time with her guests.

She and her husband (who is Dodge public relations manager) enjoy doing things together. Bridge and tennis are their favorite diversions; but probably best of all, they like entertaining together.

Cooperative Ventures

"We make it a cooperative venture," says Mrs. W., "and getting ready is almost as much fun as giving the party."

The Wylies enjoy their hi-fi set. In fact, they are constantly building up their collection of European cafe records to use as background music when they do their entertaining.

Whatever projects may come her way in the future, from volunteer chores to social duties, there's little doubt that Mrs. Wylie will greet them with open arms and a welcoming smile.

Chief Trombly Has 'Vacation'

City Police Chief Thomas Trombly was granted a dubious three day vacation from his enforcement chores last week.

He took Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday off, but he didn't loaf around the house or putter in the garden.

He spent three eight hour sessions screening men applying for positions on the Wayne County Sheriff's staff.

"The oral examinations were the first given," Trombly said. "We screened them for aptitude and background."

It was just recently that sheriffs were put under civil service jurisdiction.

Trombly served on a board of three. "We screened approximately 50 applicants in the three days," he said.

It was interesting, the chief said, but he was glad to get back to his regular job.

Living Rosary Set for Aug. 6

The fifth annual presentation of a Living Rosary in honor of Our Lady of Fatima will be held Saturday, August 6, at the Remick Band Shell on Belle Isle.

The 8 p.m. faith gathering of Catholics from all over the metropolitan and suburban area will carry the hopes of a "firm and sincere desire for a Just and Lasting Peace to our war torn world."

The services will be opened and closed with fitting selections played by the Belle Isle Concert Band under the direction of Leonard B. Smith.

The Aves, Glorias, Salve Regina and the Litany will be sung by the Duns Scotus College choir.

The program will be under the spiritual direction of the Rev. Father Francis F. Van Antwerp, pastor of St. Ambrose Church.

The honor guard will be formed by the Galicia Caravan No. 77 Order of the Alhambra; the Honor Guard of the Detroit General Assembly Fourth Degree Knights of Columbus.

"Our Lady of Fatima" will be sung by James V. Brennan, Sr., and accompanied by his daughter, Ann Brennan.

There will be an organ recital, courtesy of the Detroit Federation of Musicians from the carillon from 7 to 8 p.m.

E. M. Grenard to Lecture Before Club Managers

Edward M. Grenard, of 1355 Somerset, will lecture at the University of Houston to 200 club managers taking a refresher course in their profession.

Grenard is manager of the University Club, and is national president of the Club Managers Association of America.

During the past few months he has addressed clubs in Arkansas, Illinois, Minnesota, Pennsylvania and Tennessee.

The short course runs from August 8 to 12, after which Grenard and his wife will attend a pre-convention meeting in San Francisco. The trip will include stops at Denver, Seattle, and Salt Lake City clubs.

Look forward to meeting the most precious twins in the world at Margaret Rice's. They will be introducing the latest in skirt fashions, tailored in the Dalton tradition. They will be magnificent doeskin flannel, cashmere blend, or 100% pure cashmere to strike a heavenly match with their sweaters of 100% pure imported cashmere. They will be autumn's lean and lovely creations. And, of course, all Dalton skirts and cashmere sweaters are durably Mitin' waterproofed. 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

You gotta be beach-bound . . . and why's, why we're rambling on about these cool savings for the men. In a group of selected sportswear you find sport shirts, sweaters, swim shorts, beach jackets, walking shorts and cotton slacks at twenty per cent off. Another group includes suits, topcoats, sport coats, casual jackets, and slacks from twenty-five to forty per cent off. Tuxedos and full dress suits in regular weights for year 'round wear, there's a big fifty per cent off. This goes for straw hats . . . summer sports caps . . . shirts (mostly colored ones) . . . handkerchiefs . . . neckwear . . . pajamas . . . robes . . . and sport belts. From the gift shop, there's a collection of bar accessories . . . miscellaneous leather goods . . . gourmet and smokers' supplies. Frank Bros. summer shoes regularly sixteen ninety-five and twenty-eight ninety-five are now ten ninety-five and twenty-two ninety-five. The entire stock of travel and house slippers has also been reduced. What cool values! 96 Kercheval, on the hill.

Such new goodies for pre-teens are found this week at Young Clothing, Inc. All are crisp in this fall gown, has several points in common . . . all are crisply-finished cottons, in strong deep colors . . . dark blue, dark glowing green, deep brown and red. They are all the height of new fashion. You'll find they are just a little bit superior than other collections . . . and what could be nicer for a school girl? Of course, it is more than dresses, actually. For there are blouses . . . and have them monogrammed . . . skirts and party gowns. All just meant to appeal to the young gals. 110 Kercheval, on the hill.

It's the speed of the Polaroid camera that is fun. You'll find you can hardly wait to peel each picture from the back of the camera. Here's all you do . . . click the shutter . . . pull a tab . . . and lo! . . . lift out the developed picture. Copies and enlargements are made directly from the originals. Yep, you know it . . . you know that it is a perfect vacation camera. It's on display at the Camera Center, in the village.

As the temperature soars to 95 degrees we can think of lots of things we'd like to be . . . for example . . . as cool as cracked ice . . . a mint julep . . . or lemonade. And we've been dreaming up ways to keep cool during the heat wave. We've found something that adds to our hours at the beach. We visited Queen's new suburban store and we found that it's so much cooler for us to have HIS shirts laundered the QUEEN'S way. Each shirt comes out with a handsome bandbox look. And he's as pleased as punch . . . cool punch, that is. Visit 16912 Kercheval . . . parking in rear of store. For pick-up and delivery it's WO. 5-6100.

There's a splash of color added to the August White Sale in Jacobson's Home Decorative Shop, in the village. Along with glowing colored bed linens you'll find thick thirsty towels in Martex Dobby-bordered solid color "sovereign" towels. See what we mean by color . . . white, carnation red, charcoal, platinum, olive green, Nile green, peach, spruce, black, brown, nutmeg, aqua mist, pink, grotto blue, pompeian red, or sunflower yellow. Look to color in the summer faille bedroom ensemble. The heavy faille has extra thick quilting in the spreads and coverlets, French crepe lines the drapes and quilting. These in bamboo gold, mocha, moss green, turquoise, pink and rose. There are 63-inch round fringed linen table cloths marked down . . . Indian Head cotton table cloths and napkins. Irish linen ones and double damask Irish linen dinner cloths.

Whee!! This is your last chance to take advantage of the FINAL summer clearance at Margaret Rice's. It includes dresses, blouses, sweaters, belts, bags, jewelry, skirts, and some handsome two-piece golfers. Enjoy the blessings of air-conditioning at 76 Kercheval, on the hill.
