PRESIDENT EISENHOWER said that the United States might consider request of arms for self defense but that this country will not contribute to an arms race in the Middle East. This decision brought a quick response from the Israeli embassy in which it was stated Israel needed the arms for self defense.

Earlier, word came from the Egyptian embassy that the United States would forfeit the friendship of the Arab nations if it sold weapons to Israel.

Friday, November 11

RUSSIA'S Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov declared that President Eisenhower's plan to exchange U. S. - Russian military blueprints would only fan mutual distrust. He told the Big Four conferees in Geneva that the President had good intentions, but his idea for wiping away fear of surprise atomic attacks would increase and not decrease international tension. This negative reaction deepened the gloomy atmosphere of the conference. The foreign ministers will meet again today to chart their final course of the discussions.

Saturday, November 12

BRAZIL'S PRESIDENT Carlos Coimbra da Luz was ousted from office by a bloodless coup. Within hours after he was overthrown by Army rebels, the Legislature elected Nereu Ramos to succeed him. Luz went aboard a warship in Rio Harbor and arrived in Santos, where rebel forces refused to let him disembark. Santos is the port for Sao Paulo, Brazil's major industrial center.

The objective of the coup was to insure the inauguration of Juscelino Kubitschek and Joao (Jango) Goulart as president and vice-president on January 31. They were recently elected.

Sunday, November 13

THE CONFERENCE of the Big Four foreign ministers on disarmament ended Saturday with Russia and the West agreeing on goals but not on the methods. In this discussion there was no hickering and each speaker appeared eager to stress the few positive elements on the subject.

Reunification of Germany and European security was placed on the list of the conference failures. Western sources said the issue of disarmament will be handed back to the UN Special Subcommittee on Disarmament.

Monday, November 14

ARGENTINA'S Provisional President Eduardo Lonardi was forced to resign his office. Tension which had mounted in the fledgling government which succeeded ousted Dictator Juan Peron, brought about the move. The acting leader of the Sept-ember revolt, after seven weeks of battling political, labor and economic crosscurrents, resigned the presidency in favor of Maj. Gen. Pedro Aramburu, a fellow rebel.

Tuesday, November 15

ARGENTINA'S new one-day-old Government is bracing itself against a strike called by the giant General Confederation of Labor (CGT). The Confederation defied the regime of Maj. Gen. Pedro Aramburu, by throwing down the gauntlet and calling for a nationwide walkout which became effective at midnight Monday. The Government threatened to jail the inciters. The outcome could break the labor organization or shake the foundation of the new revolutionary regime. The Government shunted troops and tanks to Buenos Aires, seat of the strike.

Wednesday, November 16

THE LAST ITEM on the agenda of the Big Four conference in Geneva ended in a stalemate, the third one. The other stalemates were on the issue of German reunification and European security and disarmament. The Big Four foreign ministers have been deadlocked throughout their three weeks talks. A final attempt at reaching a compromise on ways to increase East-West contacts, collapsed at the morning session in the Palace of Nations barely a day before the talks were scheduled to end.

Five Generations Make a Mighty Fine Picture

When little JOHNNY FIFE was christened in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church recently, five generations were represented at the ceremony. Johnny is being held by his great-great-grandmother, MRS. Shores Told Farms Plans Water Cut

Must Look Elsewhere For Additional Supply; Contract to Be Terminated May 1

The Farms has asked the Shores to make other arrangements, presumably with Detroit, for its additional water supply.

In compliance with an order from the Farms council, City Manager Harry Furton sent a letter to the Shores stating that the existing contract between the two communities, whereby the Farms supplies a portion of the Center to Show Classic Movies

Under the leadership of the Center's Cinema League, patrons of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association are invited to enjoy free of charge some of the sound movies considered the best put out in Hollywood's history.

Monday, November 21, at 8 p.m. the "Lives of the Bengal Lancers" will be shown and on Monday, December 5, "Night Must Fall."

Nonchalant Loser of $1,600 Fails to Report the Theft

The biggest mystery in the Pointe at present is in which home owner is missing $1,600 in cold cash, taken from his home in a recent burglary.

Somewhere in the Pointe, Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers declared, a resident's home was burglarized for that amount of cash and a considerable amount of jewelry, and did not make a report to the authorities.

The mystery theft was disclosed after extensive questioning of Roy Goley, 50, no known address, who was captured by two Detroit high school athletes on October 27, after he was seen emerging from the home of one of the youths following a breaking and entering.

After he was taken into custody by Detroit police and housed in the Wayne County Jail, Goley was visited by Park Det. Lt. Stanley Enders, and Det. Gus Boona, and questioned about several

Farms Boat Owners' Club Hears Two Requests Turned Down at Council Meeting

Mariners Wanted Rules Revised to Allow Mooring of Cruisers Up to 26 Feet and Special Parking Privileges

The Grosse Pointe Farms Boat Owners' Club ran into a stonewall when it presented two petitions to the Farms Council at its regular council meeting Monday, November 7.

The Boat Owners' Club was represented by President Stanley Jursek and Secretary Bill Cavanaugh, who presented the club's petition to revise section 6 of the dock regulations so as to allow the mooring of cruiser type boats up to 26 feet in length and to allow sanitary, cooking and sleeping facilities on boats moored in the harbor.

The second request was to allow boat owners to park in the paved area immediately behind the boat house to facilitate the transfer of equipment from their cars to their boats. Both petitions were denied.

On the first request the boat owners' representatives explained that if their request was granted, the facilities would be locked off from use while the boats were moored in the harbor and that the members of the club would take the responsibility of policing and enforcing the rule.

The Council explained that it could not revise the regulations to that extent but that it felt the rule could be modified to the extent to allow the requested facilities in boats with open cockpits which could be policed from the dock. In other words where nothing can be hidden from view.

The second petition which requested parking facilities for boat owners of the paved area was refused with the explanation that the Council felt it should go along with the recommendations of City Manager Harry Furton for at least another year to see what develops.

It was Mr. Furton's recommendation that the paved area remain free of all parking in order that plans for the area in question be completed to make it a recreation area which will include badminton courts, shuffleboard, basketball backboards, handball courts and ping pong tables for the picnickers to enjoy.

Two Areas Divided
He further explained that all picnicking next summer will be to the north of the service drive leading to the boat house and that the swimming will be contained in the area to the south of the drive. He felt that under these conditions there would be considerable foot traffic between the two areas and that all vehicle traffic should be halted between the hours of 10 a.m. and 8 p.m.

On Thursday, November 10, Goley informed Lt. Enders that he had broken into one home in the Pointe, but did not know which one, and had taken a considerable amount of jewelry and the money.

The admission came after he

School Bond Issue Gets Full Approval Of P.T.A. Council

President Oscar B. Marx, Jr., Reveals Unanimous Endorsement of Proposal Was Given at Meeting on November 9

The Parent-Teacher Association Council of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools has unanimously endorsed the proposed bond issue which the Board of Education announced earlier this month. P.T.A. Council President Oscar B. Marx, Jr. stated that the action took place at the November 9 council meeting.

"Enthusiastic support has been pledged by the Council," Marx said. "We will do everything we can both as a group and as individuals to promote the Board proposals. The Council feels that these proposals are in keeping with our interest in providing the best possible educational opportunities for this community's children."

Funds Set Aside
According to the Council President, as far back as last spring all of the active Parent-Teacher organizations in the system set aside funds for the purpose of publicizing the future school needs of Grosse Pointe. "We want everybody to be well informed on the issues and plan to assist the Board in providing citizens of this community with the facts."

Speaking of the proposed new junior high school, Marx pointed to the record of public pronouncements made in the past by the Board and others. He indicated that a "facts" booklet on the April 21, 1953, election mentioned the eventual need. In the same election a question and answer pamphlet edited by the present Board President, James W. Lee II, stated that Grosse Pointe would have to provide a third structure for junior high school students at some future time.

Wicking Cited Need
The March 18, 1954, issue of the Grosse Pointe News quotes the Board—whose President then was Bert H. Wicking—as declaring that "By 1957 it would be most difficult to care adequately for junior and senior high school needs without a third junior high school building."

Marx also cited the February, 1955, issue of the Board publication, Education In Our Town, as making reference to the impending need for a new junior high school. "We have known for a good while and have been reminded for a long time," Marx concluded, "that a third junior high was inevitable. The Council most heartily endorses this and the other two proposals."

Want Two Pools
The Board proposals include the construction of a third junior high school on the Chalfonte site, swimming pools at both Pierce and Parcels, and the renovation of the high school heating system including the replacement of its boilers.

Part of the Chalfonte site is being used temporarily by a U. S. Military unit, but it has made arrangements to vacate the premises when the property is needed. The special election has been called for Tuesday, January 24.

County Gets Most
Wayne County had the largest share, 14,976, or 46.4 per cent of permits in the Region; Oakland County issued 8,973, or 27.6 per cent; Macomb County, 7,812, or 24.3 per cent; and the four townships, 528, or 1.7 per cent.

The out-county communities accounted for 91.2 per cent of the new homes in Wayne County this year.

Only Scratched When Hit by Car
A seven-year-old Park girl suffered only scratches on her chest when she was knocked from her bicycle on Tuesday, November 1, after she pedaled into the path of a car.

A Park police accident report disclosed that Lois Raphael of 1145 Kensington, a student at Mair School, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park police, after she was struck by an automobile at Yorkshire and Kercheval. At the hospital it was found the child's only injuries were the scratches on her chest.

The driver of the car, Emily M. Boylston, 32, of 708 Lakepointe, told police that she had stopped behind the crosswalk, facing north, to permit other children to pass. As she started up, she stated, Lois appeared on her bike and rode into the path of her car. The vehicle traveled about a foot before it hit the girl's bike, knocking the child down.

The woman was not held.

Library's Tool Collection Called Unique in World

The Grosse Pointe Library System's tool collection and tool loaning is perhaps unique in the world, it was stated by Robert Orr, head of the Pointe system, during a Grosse Pointe Rotary Club meeting on Monday, November 14.

Mr. Orr, who was the principle speaker at the meeting, disclosed that the library's tool collection was mentioned in an international magazine for librarians, and that a recent Swedish librarian visitor to this country made it a must to visit the Pointe system and find out about this unique form of service.

The tool collection was started by the Pointe Rotary Club during the recent world conflict, mainly for the use of the boys and girls, but now they are primarily used by adults.

Mr. Orr said that the collection has been added to through

Older Kids May Now Be Inoculated

Sufficient Supply Coming Through to Provide Shots For All Up Through 14

Salk anti-polio vaccine is now being produced in sufficient quantities to make it available to all children through the age of 14 in this area, according to an announcement by Dr. Thomas Davies, health commissioner for the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods district.

Virtually all of the children in last year's first and second grade group have already received two shots of the vaccine, one last spring and the second this fall. With these children moving up to the second and third grades this fall, inoculations were started on the first and fourth grade students.

Up to High School
Now with the vaccine made available to all through the age of 14, it will mean that all children right up to high school age will be able to be immunized.

Dr. Davies also thought that any pregnant women who wanted the vaccine would have no trouble getting it. There have been seven cases in this group in the local district during the last two years. One of them died in 1954.

The complicated system of cards sent to the schools has been discontinued. Now only one white card is issued, for the records at the Board of Health.

Go To Own Physician
Parents wishing their children inoculated should notify their private physician. He can obtain the vaccine at the local Board of Health and administer the shot. He will be given a white card with each dose of the vaccine, which he will be required to return to the Board of Health.

Polio Incidence Pared in Half
With the season considered ended, statistics on this year's infantile paralysis incidence in the local area have been released by Dr. Thomas S. Davies, health commissioner for the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods district.

There were 20 cases of polio in the district this year as compared to a total of 43 in 1954. Only one case was accompanied by any form of paralysis this year, as compared with three paralytics last year. This year's victim of paralysis was a 30-year-old woman.

Four pregnant women were victims of the disease this year as against three last year. One pregnant mother died of polio last year. There were no deaths this year.

Of the 20 cases reported this year, six were in the Park, one in the City of Grosse Pointe, five in the Woods and eight in Harper Woods.

Two of this year's victims were children who had received Salk vaccine shots.

Sentences Heard By Bandit Trio
The trio of "salt shaker" bandits who held up an attendant at O'Leary Cadillac Sales on Jefferson avenue, on August 1, were sentenced by Circuit Court Judge Frank Fitzgerald on Friday, November 4, to be sentenced by City Det. Lt. Andrew Teastert. They were charged with robbery armed.

Sentenced were Arnell Wilson, 38, of 1311 First street, Detroit, one to 15 years in Jackson Prison; Charles McClure, 39, of Crawfordville, Ind., three years probation and $50 costs and ordered not to use intoxicants at any time during probation; and Guy May, 30, of 1321 Virginia Park, Detroit, who was given a suspended sentence and referred to the parole board for violation of parole for a felony committed in Youngstown, O.

On August 1, the three men robbed the night attendant of O'Leary Cadillac, Edward Tabacuk, of $55. One of the men had his hands in his pocket as though he had a gun. The "gun" turned out to be a salt shaker.

The bandits were arrested within one hour after they committed the robbery, by Detroit police who apprehended them at Lafayette and Second in Detroit.

An Open Letter

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Grosse Pointe:

The Grosse Pointe Girl Scouts need office space to service the district they cover the five Pointes. For the first time we have a full time director. This plus the fact that we need a telephone, a place for storing necessary supplies and room to hold small consultations, makes our need even more pressing.

We want to be able to give the best possible service to the 75 troops and the many adult volunteers we serve.

If you wish to donate office space to the Grosse Pointe Girl Scout District, Mondays through Fridays, call Mrs. John Bayne, Chairman, TU 5-3873.

Very truly yours,
The Grosse Pointe Girl Scout District Committee.

Pierce Junior High School Library Tea Now Tradition

It's a tradition at Pierce Junior High now, and rightly so, for it has survived two world wars and 17 years in its brief history. It began in 1939 as a modest little venture in advertising.

Mrs. Dorothy Christian, Pierce School Librarian, had an idea. Why not let the Library Club, a group of students interested in reading and working with books, hold a tea for the faculty at which time the newly purchased books might be discussed? This was done and it proved to be very popular with everybody concerned.

In the early 40's the parents of the members of the Pierce Library Club were invited to join their children and the teachers in the annual tea. By 1950 all who were interested, parents of club members, Pierce teachers, school officials, parents and patrons of Pierce—everyone was invited. This practice of open invitation is still being followed.

Some 200 interested guests drop in at the Pierce Library during this annual affair for a friendly visit, a browse around and a cup of tea and homemade cookies. Library Club members act as hosts and hostesses. They guide guests about, indicate displays of interest, discuss books, and serve refreshments.

Each year the displays are somewhat different from those shown the preceding year. One standby, however, is the case containing famous autographs obtained by former club members. The present group will eventually write letters requesting autographs of famous people, and if successful, will turn these autographs over to the club. The collection at present contains the autographs of such personalities as Orville Wright, Thomas Mann, Albert Einstein, Glenn Cunningham, Albert Payson Terhune, and Fritz Crisler.

This annual Pierce Library Club Tea is really an all-school function. Teaching members and classes from various departments perform a special duty or offer a unique service in the displays shown and refreshments offered.

All display material is an outgrowth of regular classwork, however, a part of an on-going program of education rather than a special, unrelated project. Displays are borrowed from actual classes. Materials are varied, interesting, and original.

The tea this year, which was held last Friday, offers a good example of how the various departments participate in this traditional Pierce activity. Three 8E art classes created end papers to describe pictorially the contents of some of the 200 new supplementary books on display. Others prepared decorative alphabets for bulletin boards. Art instructor Charles Jorgensen directed these efforts.

A special group of 8B's under social studies teacher Ruth Schmult prepared an American history showcase, "Life in Early America." Another history class directed by Lawrence Kennedy wrote five selected book reports. Three 7B English classes prepared book jackets for display purposes. Miss Virginia Hoelze helped these youngsters develop and present their original ideas for books they had read. Mrs. Florence Miller's journalism students advertised the affair and covered it for the school publications. Roving reporter Nancy Ruby, 9B Editor of the school paper, The Trojan, contacted visitors at the Tea for timely comments.

Refreshments were prepared and served by two 8B and one 9B class under the direction of teachers Claudia Greenhoe and Evelyn Toll.

The displays will be kept up indefinitely so that friends of Pierce School who have not done so may stop by, and see them. Principal Charles Leavitt assures everyone that the Library Club's Annual Tea is a permanent fixture in the Pierce Junior High scheme of things. It is a tradition now.

Water Cut

Shores water, will terminate on May 1, 1956.

Mr. Furton said that the letter was mailed on Monday, November 14.

He said that the latest report from the Shores was that that community is planning the installation of a new feeder main in Vernier road to increase its water supply from Detroit, but there is no indication of when this project will be completed.

He said that the Farms council has taken this action because of the number of large homes being constructed in the Shores area being supplied with water from the Farms, which will have sprinkling systems and which will be using considerable water during the heavy water demand beginning in June.

Shores Village Superintendent Thomas Jefferies, stated that as yet, he had not received any official notification of the Farms' request. He said when it does come, the matter will have to be taken up with the Village council, at its regular meeting next month.

public libraries did the biggest business in their history.

Mr. Orr pointed out that during the past year the Pointe Library System has loaned out 300,000 books, as compared to 190,000 five years ago; today, the library has 19,600 registered users, whereas five years ago there were only 11,000, an increase of 75 percent.

There is a tremendous increase in the reading of non-fiction books, such as travel, biographies, religious, self-improvement, current history and do-it-yourself.

In six years, over 60,000 books have been added to the shelves of the system, and of these, only 10 have aroused objections because of their offense to morals.

Each member of the Rotary Club was given a list of current best sellers, which Mr. Orr went over briefly. He informed the Rotarians that if they want real relaxation—grab a book; but whether they wanted fun, profit or information—read.

Sorority Plans Dinner Party

The Alumnae Group of Gamma Phi Beta gathered to celebrate Founder's Day at a dinner party in the home of Mrs. Raymond Sibbert on Yorkshire road, Tuesday, November 15.

Mrs. Robert E. Anslow headed the hostess committee and serving with her was Mrs. W. R. McAdow.

Among the Pointe members attending the dinner were Mrs. Jack Mills, Mrs. G. P. Gessell, Mrs. Arthur Bartholomew and Mrs. A. R. Wilson.

Boat Owners

eliminate all chances of an accident.

Mr. Furton has stated that plans call for the installation of lockers within the confines of the boat house for the express use of the boat owners to store their equipment.

May Build Dock Boxes

He felt that once the lockers were installed, the boat owners would have no need to drive their cars down the service drive to the boat house. He also indicated that there is a possibility of the construction of dock boxes on the boat dock if enough lockers could not be built in the boat house. These would be a decorative addition in the form of benches.

Boat Owners' Club members who were at the meeting and heard their petitions denied were: Jim Blouin, Albert LaFave, Frank Taugner, Emory Gesell and Joseph Miers. They were in attendance expressly to answer any questions the Council might have had in regards to their petitions.

"One-half of the world doesn't know how the other half lives because one-half mind their own business."

Hare to Address Local Rotarians

Michigan Secretary of State James Hare will be the guest speaker at the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club luncheon-meeting to be held on Monday, November 21, at the War Memorial Center.

His topic will be "The Duties of a Secretary of State."

stubbornly refused to state where he had disposed of the loot he had taken from the Park homes. He finally broke down and revealed the location of the stolen goods, and then disclosed the other theft.

He revealed that he had entered this home, somewhere in the Pointe described as a two-story single home with bedrooms upstairs and one located on the first floor, and after ransacking the upstairs and stuffing his pockets with jewelry, went to the first floor bedroom. There he opened a dresser drawer and discovered the money.

He said he grabbed the money and left the house without a further search. The money, he told Lt. Enders, was squandered at the race track.

Goley's memory was so good, he itemized the bills he took as being 31 $50 bills, two $20 bills and one $10 bill, but as to the house location, he could not remember.

Chief Louwers stated that no complaint of missing jewelry and money has been made to any of the Pointe police departments.

He also revealed that a set of silverware stolen from the Thompson home has been recovered in Highland Park, where Goley had sold them to a used silver and gold buyer. He said all the loot taken from the Park homes, sans money, are gradually being found.

The new filtering system will accommodate an enlargement of the existing pool or a second pool should future usage by its residents require.

"The use of the park is restricted to Woods residents under the terms of the deed by which the property was acquired from Mrs. Edsel B. Ford.

"Voting in favor of the bond issue does not create an immediate tax liability but indicates the consent of the people for the City to bond itself. The obligation is not created until the bonds are sold to secure funds for the specific project.

"The Citizens Committee feels the Woods Council is well aware of its obligations to the people and would not act in the sale of such bonds unless it was in the best interest of the community.

Schools Offering Writing Course

A ten-week course in Creative Writing is being offered by the Department of Community Services of the Grosse Pointe Public School System, to begin on Thursday, December 1.

Jean Wylie Torosian of Grosse Pointe, who is a professional writer, will be the instructor. Mrs. Torosian attended Northwestern University where she received her B. S., and Wayne University, from which she received her M. A.

She is at present a member of the Detroit Women Writer's Club, and leader of Prose Workshop. Elements of the short story will be analyzed, and special emphasis will be placed on outlining, writing, and revising of stories and articles. Students will be encouraged to present written examples of each element, and a course project will be the completion of a short story or article with a view to publication. Preparation of the manuscript and proofreading will be included with information on how to choose likely prospects for the manuscript.

Whether the student's interest is stimulated by the desire to produce a "best seller," or simply to improve his technique for everyday encounter with pen and paper, this course will meet the requirements of each interested individual.

Class enrollment is limited. Anyone wishing to join may make class reservation by calling the Department of Community Services at TUxedo 5-3808.

Ferry School Students Help in Torch Drive

CATHY GULEVICH and DAVID COLBY, Ferry School sixth graders, indicate that the 1955 Torch Drive is up and over.

The boys and girls at Ferry School have helped to put the 1955 Torch Fund Drive over the top. They have given generously of their nickels, dimes, and quarters because they know that whatever they give will be used to help those in need, or to support worthy community causes.

They have learned, for instance, that part of their Torch Fund helps the Boy Scouts and the Girl Scouts, and that another portion comes back to Grosse Pointe to help support the Neighborhood Club and the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club. They know, too, that part of their money helps to fight cancer, polio, and other dread diseases.

This year the Drive was handled by Miss Dorothy Crandall's 6th grade class. These boys and girls took care of all advance publicity including the distribution of pictures, lapel buttons, and printed materials. Talks were given over the school public address system by Corkey Smith, Susan Wilkie, Ricky Stocking, Rae Jackson, and Lillian Schrotzberger.

Class members made many large and attractive posters for display in halls and showcases throughout the building. The large Progress Torch shown in the accompanying picture was made by David Anderson, Cathy Gulevich, George Cramer, and David Colby. It was kept up to date by David Crawford.

The drive in the school was conducted during the week of November 7. Each day James Meech, Judy Streit, Russell Schulz, Judy Peters and Joan Osborn were busy on the first floor of the building making room collections, counting money, putting coins in money wrappers in true banking fashion, figuring percentages, and in making reports. The same jobs were handled on the second floor by Ellen Meier, Kenneth Meek, George Krogh, Jacqueline Karr, Patricia Fleming, and Jon Gandelot.

In addition to the valuable experiences that these youngsters had in handling the campaign, boys and girls throughout the school have found in this experience a true learning situation. Mr. Edwin Wendt, Ferry School principal, says, "Our aim is not to seek large contributions from children, but rather, to develop at an early age an appreciation for the importance of each individual's contribution to society. In the case of the Torch Fund Drive, we feel that the child who gives up a little of his candy or movie money for a charitable contribution will grow into an adult who will willingly support such community needs. We view the Torch Fund Drive as an opportunity to teach."

Reckless Driving Penalties Handed Out in Park Court

John G. Crown of 29625 of moving traffic and causing an accident at Wayburn and Charlevoix. It cost him $10.

Norman W. Bake of 2715 Rochester, Detroit, paid a fine of $15 after pleading guilty to reckless driving and causing an accident at Mack and Whittier.

The following did not appear in court to answer traffic violation charges: Clarence A. Ruff of 9023 N. Martindale, Detroit, running a red signal light at Mack and Chatsworth, forfeited a bond of $10; William Denardi of 17931 Eastlawn, Roseville, running a stop street, report sent to Lansing.

Also William H. Green of 11428 Goethe, Detroit, red signal light at Jefferson and Wayburn, forfeited, $10; and Catherine Ann Wilson of 18412 Pennington, driving south on one-way Whittier, forfeited, $7.50.

Wealth is the bull's eye on the target at which some humans aim.

Young Bandits Given Probation

The two teen-aged youths who held up a Mack avenue supermarket on July 11, were sentenced for their crimes on October 31, by Circuit Court Judge Frank Fitzgerald. It was disclosed by City Det. Lt. Andrew Teetaert.

The two were, James P. Anderson, 17, of 715 Victoria, Akron, O.; and Dante F. Ferrazza, 18, 6146 Radnor, Detroit, both charged with assault with intent to rob, being armed.

Lt. Teetaert stated that the youths received identical sentences; both were placed on five years probation and ordered to make restitution of $688.64 apiece, totaling $1,377.28, the amount they spent out of their loot of $3,500.

The two were the telephone bandits who on the July date, had called the manager of the Big Bear Market on the phone. While one of the youths talked on the phone the other stood alongside the manager, Jerome Grogis, of 25356 Collingwood, Roseville, and trained a snubbed nose revolver at his middle.

Grogis was ordered, over the phone, to turn over the store's receipts. This was done, and the bandits made their escape.

On July 19, Anderson and Ferrazza were apprehended for speeding through St. Joseph, Mich., doing 45 miles per hour in a 25-mile zone.

At the time of their arrest, they were returning to Detroit after a seven-day spending spree that carried them to Georgia and Chicago. They admitted to St. Joseph police and F.B.I. agents that they had robbed the supermarket.

Lt. Teetaert brought the boys back to the Pointe. He said that at the time of their arrest, the youthful bandits had some of their loot still in their possession as well as several suits they had purchased.

The lieutenant said that both of the boys had juvenile records and that the robbery was the first to go on their record as adults.

Attends Police Course at M.S.U.

Henry Marchand, of the Grosse Pointe Woods Police Department, received advanced training and new ideas in the administration of a local police department during a week-long course at Michigan State University.

He was one of 41 police officers attending the Command Officers Training Course, sponsored by the M. S. U. Department of Police Administration and Continuing Education Service and the Michigan Police Academy.

College professors, state officials and outstanding chiefs of police from Michigan communities served on the special faculty. The lectures covered such topics as "Policing—A Human Relations Activity," "Giving Orders Effectively," "Maintaining Discipline," "Merit Rating Systems," and "Foundations of Leadership."

"The students were sincerely interested in the lectures and they contributed many ideas about tested programs used in their communities. Many of them observed some of the M. S. U. Department of Police Administration courses and State Police operations," reports Harold Haun, coordinator of the police training program carried on by the University.

This was one of eight different short-courses offered for police officers by Michigan State College, in co-operation with various police and educational institutions.

Rotary Honors First Members

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club honored 10 of its charter members at a regular luncheon-meeting held in the War Memorial Center on Monday, November 14.

Rotarian President Glenn Pratt, who led the tribute to these members, pointed out that the 10, who joined the club in June 1937, are still active Rotarians. He said they are important members who quietly give their generous support "lending their wisdom and experience for the benefit of the club."

The "elder statesmen" as President Pratt called them, were seated at a table of honor. They included Norm Bonney, Gaston De Ridder, Al Herrman, Past President Bob O'Neil, and Vince De Petris, who joined the organization a few weeks after it was chartered but has been a member for the full 18 years. He is also a past-president of the club.

The organization's first president, Fin Henk and Ed Pongraz, also charter members, were away on business and consequently were unable to attend the meeting to receive their tribute.

President Pratt complimented the following charter members for completing a perfect attendance record: Bob O'Neil, 16 years; Dick Maxon and Bill Mohr, 13 years each; Al Herrman, 11 years; Ed Pongraz, five years; and Norm Bonney, four years.

The charter members were given an ovation by the other members of the club.

Colleges are maintained to teach students facts, but some youngsters are more interested in dates than data.

Glick to Talk To Unitarians

On Sunday, November 20, Dr. Frank Z. Glick, executive director of the Unitarian Service Committee will speak at the Grosse Pointe Unitarian Church, 17440 E. Jefferson, discussing the work of the Unitarian Service Committee.

The Unitarian Service Committee, a voluntary, non-sectarian social welfare agency, is currently conducting projects of education, social work and medicine in the United States, Germany, France and Mexico and will soon begin projects in Cambodia and Liberia.

One of the most interesting and important domestic projects has been a racially-integrated recreation program for boys in Washington, D.C.

There is in Washington, a network of racially segregated Metropolitan Police Boys' Clubs. One of the clubs for more than 15 years had met at All Souls' Unitarian Church where there are showers and a gym.

Dedicated to an integrated society, the board of the church decided it could no longer allow any group to use its facilities on a segregated basis and so informed the board of the Boys' Clubs. The clubs decided in favor of segregation. On the day the Boys' Club had moved out all its equipment, the Service Committee moved in.

On opening day, two little Negro boys entered rather tentatively, not sure that the club was really meant for them. They started out again, and as they reached the door a white boy their own age ran after them shouting, "Come on in, it's okay!" As a result of the action by All Souls', two other Police Boys' Clubs have since been ordered to stop using government-owned facilities on a segregated basis.

These projects, domestic and foreign, will be discussed by Dr. Glick at a dinner meeting at Devon Gables on Saturday, November 19. The Devon Gables dinner is under the auspices of all Unitarian and Universalist churches in Metropolitan Detroit, and is the kickoff in Detroit for the annual Unitarian Service Committee drive at Thanksgiving, which, like their work, is conducted on a non-sectarian basis. Reservations can be made with Mrs. Lawrence Leadbitter at TU 1-7313.

Dr. Glick was for 15 years director of the Graduate School of Social Work at the University of Nebraska. He has served as first vice-president of the American Association of Social Workers and has been executive secretary to the Illinois Board of Public Welfare Commissioners.

ROTC Promotion Given Bruce B. Crowley

Promoted to master sergeant in the Reserve Officers' Training Corps at Western Michigan College, Kalamazoo, was Bruce B. Crowley, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Crowley, 1317 Roslyn road. The appointment took effect November 4.

At Western, Crowley is enrolled as a junior in the pre-engineering curriculum. He is a cheerleader and a member of Delta Chi fraternity.

Attend University of Michigan Conference

Pictured here are three University of Michigan freshmen from Grosse Pointe High School conferring with their high school principal at the 27th Annual Principal-Freshman and Junior College Conference held in Ann Arbor November 9 and 10. Purpose of the conference was to promote a better understanding of the needs of entering freshmen and transfer students. Discussing their first months at the University are, left to right, around the table, WILLIAM KANZLER, counselor; JUDITH STEFANI, 1035 Berkshire; MRS. RUTH FLOM, dean of girls; RICHARD J. OSIUS, 2174 Seminole; MISS LAURA MACKEBEN, social studies teacher; MISS JEAN CAMPBELL, Latin teacher; NELSON J. SHERBURNE, 644 Pemberton; and W. R. CLEMINSON, principal.

Pierce Holding Night of Plays

By Joyce Robbins, 9B Student

Friday, November 18, is a big date for students at Pierce Junior High School. This is the night of plays. The curtain rises at 8 p.m.

The first play is presented by the 7th grade under the direction of Miss Virginia Hoelzle. It is entitled "Elmer and the Love Bug." It concerns a boy who dislikes girls but finally smitten by one. This comes as a great surprise to his sisters at their party.

The members of the cast are Bob Hunter, Linda Moeller, Vicki Zaun, Mary Short, Beverly Scales, Dick Maun, Kathleen Myroie, Pieter Van Leuven, Gary Rieveshel, Barbara Marx, Nancy Gowen, and Judy Maynard. The prompters are Ann Hubert and Pat Byrne. This promises to be full of laughs.

The next play is "What's the Matter with T.V.?" This is sponsored by Mr. John Mason and is about the problems a family faces when a new TV set enters the home.

The prompters are Tom Legato, Ann Mair, Susan Hykes and Julie Ortwein. The properties are by John Sutton and John Butler. The costumes are by Connie Campbell, Arde Smart, and Sharon Georgi. Staging is by Mike Millis, Alex Darragh, and Bill Sommerschild. This play promises to be as good as it sounds.

Between the plays there will be two skits. The first is about a girls' basketball team. The team consists of Pat McCormick, Prudy Baum, Karen Kleefus, Winnie Schreiber, Sandra Ramkey, Pam Hatie, Susan Groehn, Joy Chandler, Ann Mangus, Pam Louwers, Jana Sue Kaler, and Johnny Nichols. This pantomime to "Heart" is sponsored by Mr. Harry McCaffery.

The next thing is a pantomime to "The Yellow Rose of Texas." Bill Penz, Don Graul, Susie Dull, David Creeger, Dick Quello, Jim Hagglund, Don Mason, Carolyn Eaton, Peggy Bohn, Lucy Bryan, Sharon Wengel, Jean Huestis, and Pam Smith are the people who take part in the performance. Mrs. Welch is directing it.

To introduce the plays, there will be a push-button comedy and a chorus line presented by eighth graders. They are instructed by Miss Gerry Adams.

As an added feature, the school orchestra will play several numbers.

The only motorist who never seems to run out of gas is the back seat driver.

Health Council Hears Kaufman

Detroit Juvenile Court Judge Nathan J. Kaufman was the guest speaker at the meeting of the Mothers' Health and Education Council held in the Central Library, Tuesday, November 8.

Introduced by Program Chairman Mrs. O. M. Robbins, Judge Kaufman spoke about "Our Juvenile Courts." He stressed that problems with children can be eliminated in the home.

In the Grosse Pointe area the main problems with juveniles were the lack of responsibility while driving a car, and drinking. He said, "We have gone too far, too fast, morally. We could all help by making our homes the place children love to be in."

"The radio, television and newspapers have taken a great part in contributing to delinquency by highlighting the wrongdoings of children."

Judge Kaufman cited the growing juvenile population—44 per cent—and the fact that our institutions and courts are greatly understaffed and not able to handle such an increase. He said it was therefore up to the parents in the home to guide children properly before they have a chance to become delinquent and a problem.

The next meeting of the council will be held on January 10.

Cadillac

Beyond the Realm of Argument!

This is the season when conversations turn easily and often to motor cars.

And, in almost any gathering, you're likely to find a wide difference of opinion about the relative merits of the year's automotive offerings.

Until the talk turns to Cadillac!

Here is one car concerning which most motorists have a meeting of minds. And never before has Cadillac left so little room for argument as in 1956!

Certainly no one could behold the new Cadillac without recognizing it as the "car of cars." Its beautiful, graceful lines and its regal bearing on the highway are simply too significant to misunderstand.

Surely no one could ride in a new Cadillac and not agree that it is the Standard of the World. Its new fabrics and leathers are luxurious almost beyond belief... and its new interior appointments have been crafted with a jeweler's skill.

And we doubt if anyone could drive a new Cadillac and not understand that it is the finest-performing motor car of all time. Its great new engine is a revelation in power and performance... its new Hydra-Matic Drive is incredibly smooth and responsive... and the car rides and handles and moves with unbelievable ease.

Truly, the evidence on the side of Cadillac has never been more abundant—or more apparent—than it is today.

Why not pay us a visit soon—and see for yourself?

We'll be delighted to introduce you to Cadillac's great new styling... and to arrange a demonstration at the wheel... and to acquaint you with Cadillac's two new models, the Sedan de Ville and the Eldorado Seville.

You'll agree, we're certain, that Cadillac for 1956 is beyond the realm of argument!

Center and AAUW to Offer Stimulating Lecture Series

"Women in a Changing World" will be the theme of a series of seven lectures and workshops designed to stimulate Grosse Pointe women into giving themselves a thorough mental face-lifting.

Fifteen experts at interpreting the worth and position of women in today's family and community life will be speakers at the meetings on successive Fridays from January 20 to February 24 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

The meetings are jointly sponsored by the Grosse Pointe branch, American Association of University Women, and the War Memorial Association. As proof of the lively interest already shown in this project, 18 leading Grosse Pointe community organizations have chosen to be co-sponsors.

They are the League of Women Voters, the Woman's Club, the Mothers Health and Education Council, the Motion Picture and TV Council, Neighborhood Club, Garden Center, Garden Club Council, Parent Associations of Public Schools, Parent Associations of Parochial Schools, High School Mothers' Club, Adult Education Department of the public schools, Public Library, Friends of the Library, Business and Professional Woman's Club, Community Theater, Artists Association, University School Parents Association and the Junior League of Detroit.

All of these groups will take an active part in the program, by introducing speakers and taking charge of the meeting which deals with the specific study-field in which each organization is most concerned.

Series tickets at $5 for the seven meetings are on sale now through the co-sponsoring organizations, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, or from Mrs. Wallace Temple, TU 5-5897. The tickets are transferable, so two or more people may buy one series ticket together.

Mrs. Helen Morgan Sherman, of AAUW, and Mrs. Watson Ford, program chairman of the War Memorial Association, head the committees of both organizations which are in charge of the project. Mrs. Sherman is chairman of the Status of Women committee, AAUW, under whose study the ideas for the "Women in a Changing World" program developed. She says:

"To raise the status of women in the home is highly important. This will be an active program, and all who take part are promised that they will end up being happier and more effective women."

The meetings all start at 10 a.m. on Friday mornings, except for one afternoon "workshop" session on February 10. Parents of elementary school children are assured the lecture will be completed in time for them to return home to prepare their children's lunches.

Harold Taylor, president for the past 10 years of Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., whose forward thinking ideas on education and women's careers are nationally known, will speak on "The Future of American Women" at the first meeting January 20.

The second subject, "Revitalizing the Family and Neighborhood Life," will be discussed January 27 by Ernest Osborne, professor of education at Teachers College, Columbia University and author of a nationally syndicated newspaper column, "Family Scrapbook."

Topic of the third meeting February 3 is "Emotional Growth of the Individual in the Family." The speaker will be Dr. Harrison Sadler, psychiatrist, College of Medicine, Wayne University.

Three speakers are on the February 10 program, "Enlarging Horizons." They are Lydia Siedschlag, artist and interior decorator, Western Michigan College; Helen Hickam Martin, Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers; and Ruth McEvoy, of the Detroit House of Correction Commission. Miss Siedschlag will preside at an art workshop in the afternoon.

"The Education of Women" will be discussed February 17 by four women: Sister Honora, president, Marygrove College; Irma Gross, Michigan State University; Helen Dodson, professor of astronomy, University of Michigan, and Katharine Greene, Wayne County Marriage Counselor.

Four workshops will feature

February 24 program. That on preschool children will be directed by Keith Osborne, of Merrill Palmer School; on school children by Mildred Peters, Wayne University; the one on 'teen-agers' by Marie Rasey, psychologist, Wayne University; a study of the mature woman by Mary Guiney, director of the committee on aging, United Community Services; and a study on outside jobs by Stephen Manchur and Marland Kopka, both of Wayne University.

The program has been planned carefully so that mothers of young children, from 3 to 5 years old, will not have to hire babysitters. Nursery care, with trained personnel, will be provided at the War Memorial Center, for an additional fee of only $3 for the whole series, for one or more children per family. Mrs. John S. Foley, 343 Merriweather, TU 5-3127, is in charge of nursery care.

Those attending the morning meetings will have the opportunity to share their reactions at an informal luncheon at the Center for $1.30. Reservations for the first luncheon are to be made three days in advance through Mrs. C. Bayard Johnson, 97 Merriweather, TU 5-5474.

Ebenezer Baptist Church To Dedicate Building

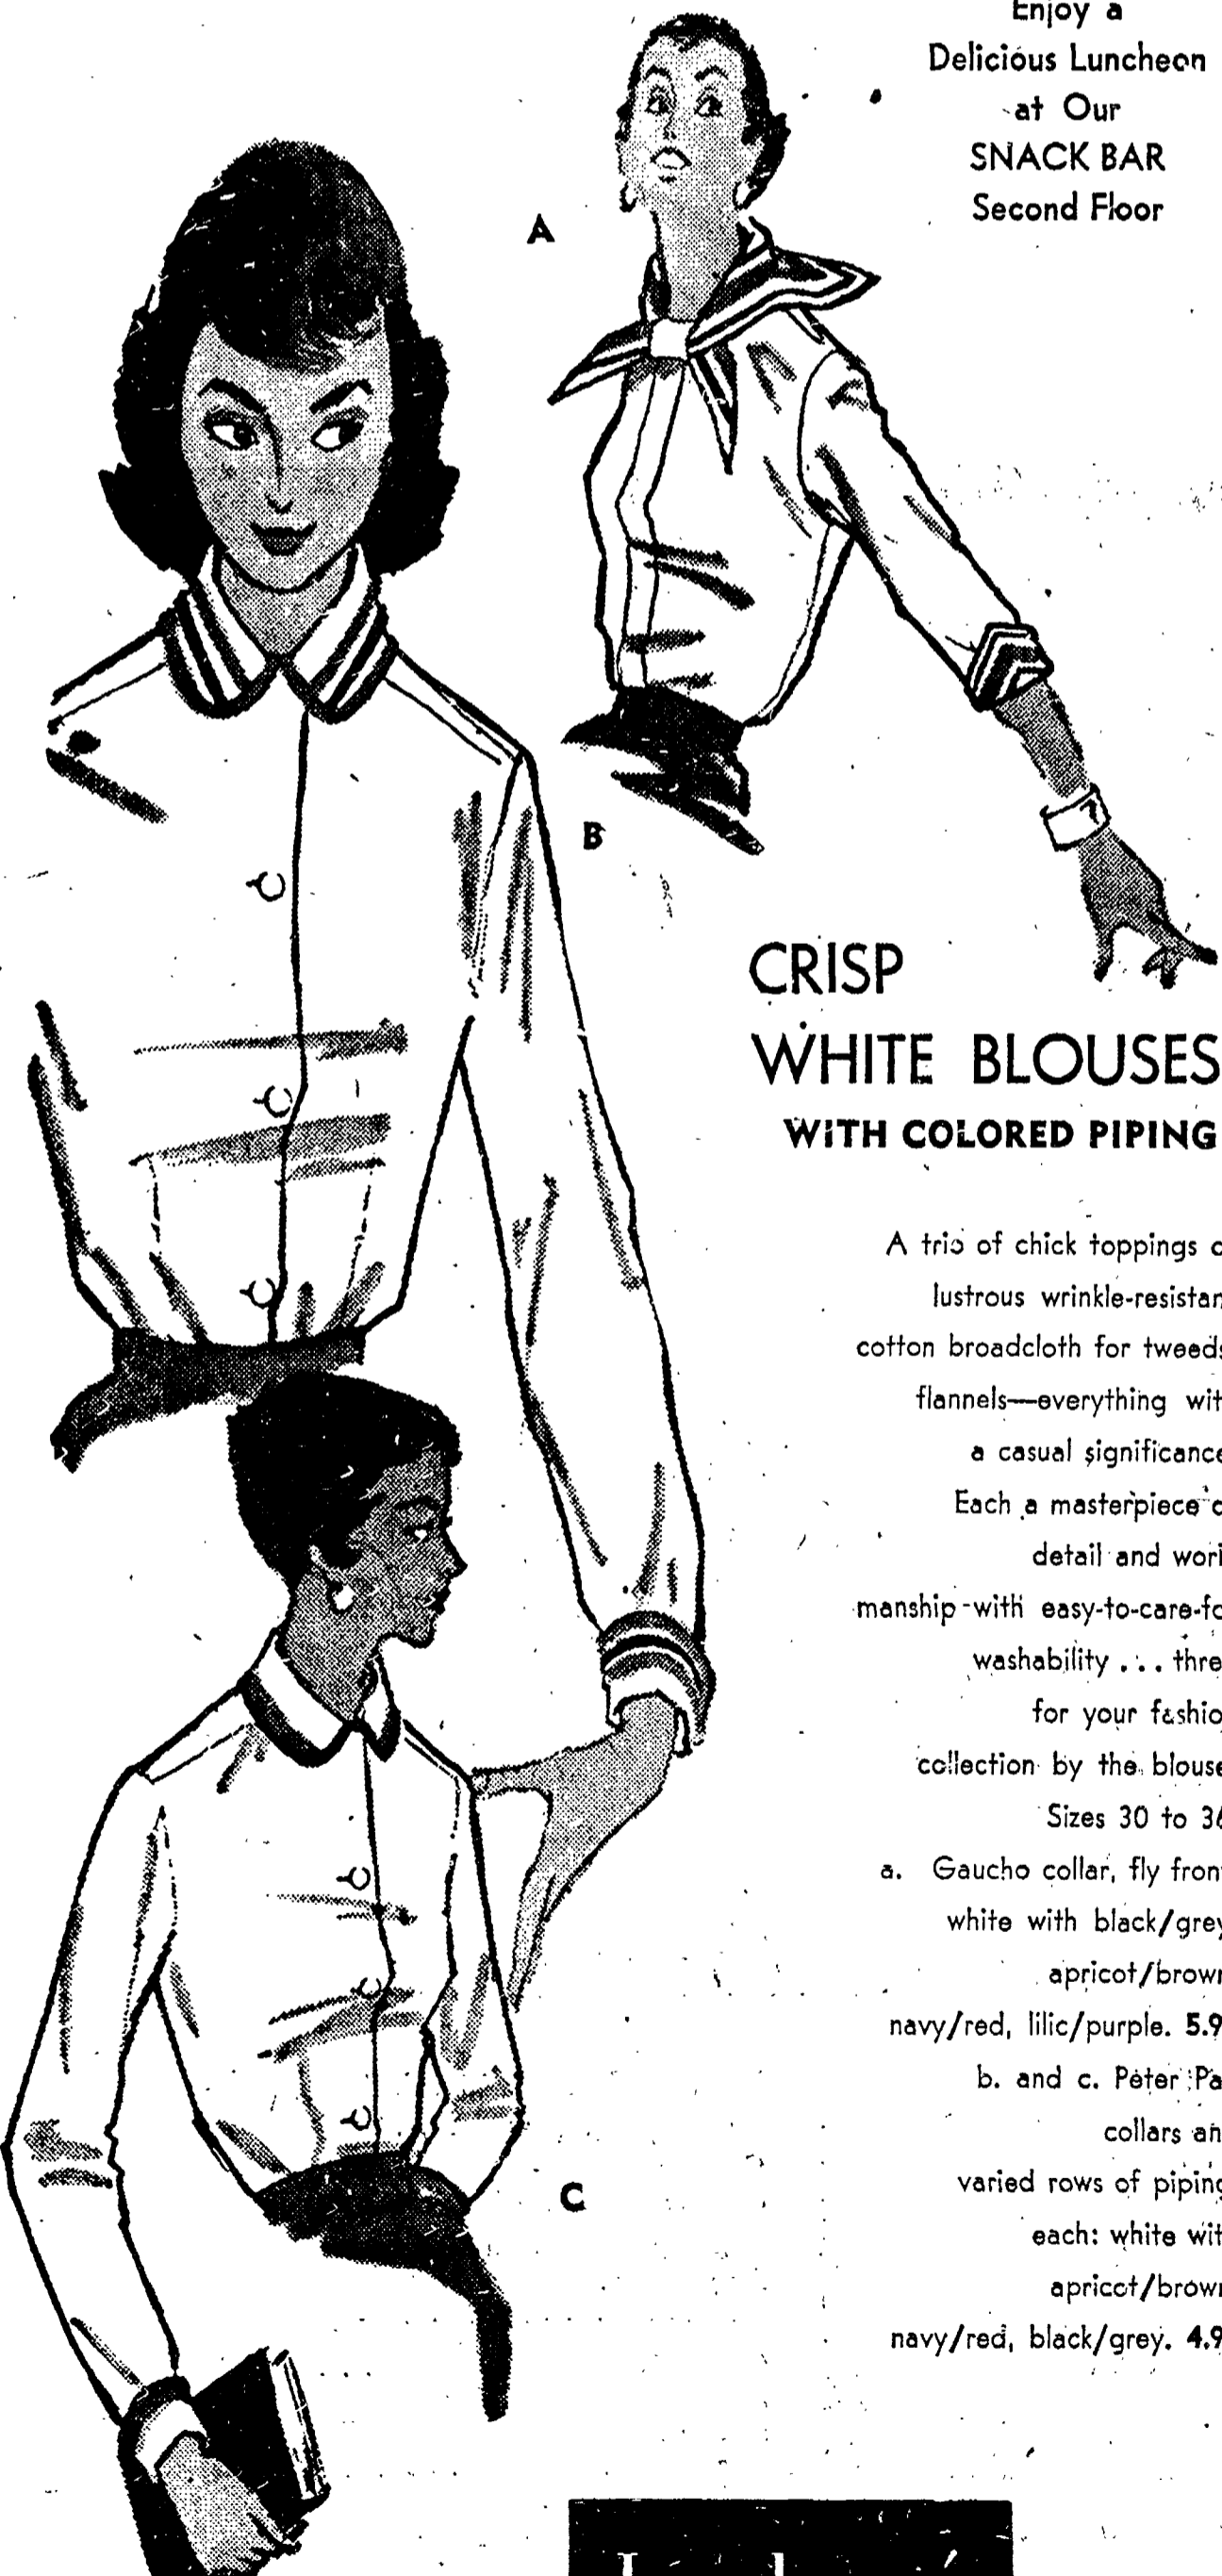

Ebenezer Baptist Church will dedicate its new Sunday School and Youth Activities Building and an educational wing to its main building on Sundays, November 20 and 27, and Wednesday, November 23.

Ebenezer, located on Moross near Harper, has been in a steady building and expansion program since November, 1948. The total cost of these latest two projects was approximately $180,000.00.

Rev. E. Arthur McAsh, Ebenezer pastor, announced that special speakers at the dedication services will be: Dr. J. N. Barnett, secretary of the Baptist Sunday School Board; Rev. Edward T. Darling, director of Detroit's Voice of Christian Youth Organization; Rev. Gideon Zimmerman, Sunday School secretary of the North American Baptists; and Rev. George W. Lang, missionary appointed to the British Cameroons of Africa.

The public is invited to attend the 10 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Sunday services of dedication, as well as the Wednesday 7:30 p.m. meeting.

Firemen to Help In Charity Drive

Farms Fire Chief M. William Mason disclosed that members of his department will again participate in the drive to collect funds for the fight against Muscular Dystrophy.

He asks all Farms residents to leave their porch lights on, on Monday and Tuesday, November 21 and 22, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., and to be generous in their contributions.

If the fireman assigned to a district does not find anyone at home, he will leave materials so the resident can mail in contribution.

Symphony Represents Cross Section of Community

A look behind the scenes at a recent rehearsal of the Grosse Pointe Symphony Orchestra, and a short interview with some of the hard working musicians practicing for the next concert on December 4, would prove the truth of the saying that "music is the common language of all."

There are bankers, doctors, dentists, engineers, housewives, salesmen, teachers, attorneys and students all gathered together with but one thought in mind, to produce beautiful music and give the people of Grosse Pointe the opportunity of hearing it right in their own community.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Kimmel, violinists, met at Purdue University when they both played in the orchestra there. He received an engineering degree and she is a graduate pharmacist.

Don J. Nigro, also a violinist is an attorney, certified public accountant and tax specialist and a member of the Player's Orchestra also.

Thomas J. Moore, first bassoonist, has a doctor's degree in music from the Chicago Musical College and is in charge of music at Pierce Junior High School.

Dr. John A. Pericin, dentist, who plays string bass, formerly played with the Wayne University Orchestra.

Bernard Whitley and Thomas Nester, violinists, both have very fine musical backgrounds and experience and are associated with Maxon Brothers, real estate. Mr. Nester is honorary president and founder of the Symphony and has played with several orchestras, including the Plymouth and University of Michigan Extension Orchestras.

Robert Pelletier, violinist and Maxfield Stroup who plays clarinet are both in the engineering department at Chrysler. Mr. Stroup is also a member of the Plymouth Symphony and commutes regularly from Detroit's northwest section for rehearsals on Wednesday nights. Mr. Pelletier is a resident of Grosse Pointe Woods.

Leonard Findlay and Ernest Robinson, cellists, the former a landscape and nursery expert, and the latter, associated with one of Detroit's industrial plants, met years ago in England when both played in the same orchestra there and were delighted to renew acquaintance again as residents of Grosse Pointe and members of the local symphony.

Mrs. Stella Racevich, violinist, is concertmistress of the orchestra and besides her many duties as homemaker, finds time to play also with the University of Michigan Extension orchestra and with the chamber music ensembles.

Miss Betty Frounfelter, oboe player, is a sixth grade teacher at the Kerby School and a member of Nu Phi Epsilon Music Society, and Mrs. John C. Furell, a newcomer to Grosse Pointe, having recently moved here with her family from Cleveland, plays violin and is a graduate of the U. of M. School of Music.

Mrs. Richard W. Palmer, violinist, formerly played in the orchestra at Western Michigan College, and was concertmistress of the Kalamazoo Junior Symphony. She has played also with the Scandinavian Symphony and accompanied them on their European tour several years ago.

Al Chronowski, treasurer and charter member of the Symphony Society is a violinist with a very fine musical background and is a banker.

Dr. Edward F. Elslager plays both flute and piccolo and has a Ph.D. degree in organic chemistry from the University of Illinois. He is associated with Parke-Davis and Co. and has played in several college orchestras and with the U.S. Air Force Band while stationed at Denison University.

Cass Piotrowski, an attorney, president of a large insurance agency and a bank director, is one of the charter members of the orchestra, plays cello and is a prominent Rotarian, having recently completed a term as District Governor.

Jane Armstrong and Betsy Hammond are representative of the younger members of the orchestra, the former plays tympani and is now a student at Wayne University, majoring in music and the latter plays oboe and is a member of the Grosse Pointe High School Band.

This is just a cross-section of the varied interests represented by the orchestra personnel and the public is cordially invited to attend the last two rehearsals preceding any of the concerts, which will give them an opportunity to know their symphony better and be a very interesting and enlightening experience. Rehearsals take place each Wednesday evening at Pierce Junior High School from 7 to 10 o'clock. New players are always welcome and anyone interested in more information regarding the requirements, are urged to get in touch with David M. Sutter, president of the symphony society—TU, 5-4159. It is the objective of the symphony board to make the organization a clearing-house, also for small ensembles who wish to perform together and in this way, further increase the appreciation of good music in the community.

The fact that the season ticket sales have more than doubled since last year proves conclusively that there is an ever growing interest in the orchestra in this area. Tickets are still available, however and may be obtained at the door on the day of the next concert, Sunday, December 4 at 3:30 p.m. at Parcels School or by contacting Mrs. Robert P. Armstrong, TU, 5-2432, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell Jr., TU, 5-8861 or Mrs. Edward A. Bauman, TU, 1-6795.

When a man happens to do the right thing at the right time he calls it good judgment.

New TV Station To Be Dedicated

Presidents and delegates of the 62-member organizations in the Detroit Advisory Council on Educational Television and Radio will take part in dedication ceremonies of Detroit's new educational TV station, WTWS, Channel 56, on Monday, November 21, in the banquet room of the Veterans' Memorial Building.

The first 30 minutes of the dedication ceremonies will be televised over WWJ-TV, Channel 4, from 6:30 to 7 p.m.; those owning UHF sets will be able to see the entire program from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m.

Pointers who are active on the Board of Directors of the Detroit Advisory Council are: Mrs. James G. Morrison, president; Mrs. Wanda Daniel, secretary and delegate from the Grosse Pointe Teachers Association; Miss Leontine Keane, treasurer and delegate from the National Council of Catholic Women; Mrs. Sam G. Zilly, program chairman and delegate from AAUW; and Mrs. Mitchell Justice, Jr., publicity chairman and delegate from the Junior League.

Thrill to the smartness of pattern-for-tomorrow style!
It's coming some day on other cars—this exciting blend of rakish lines and gracious luxury. But Pontiac has it now in 15 smartly fashioned models—including 6 Catalina hardtops styled with a clean distinction never seen before.

Yours to command in the fabulous '56 Pontiac

It's the talk of the test drivers—this long, low, crisply sculptured beauty! Performance is their first love—and the '56 Pontiac has it—the greatest "go" on wheels. Split-second get-away, blazing drive, razor-sharp steering and big-brake stopping—this one has them all. It surprises you at first. It's so well behaved, so gentle and responsive. You pull away from the curb, drive, stop, turn and park with a sure and easy touch.

But it's loaded! Loaded with vibrant action you've never sampled before! There's 227 blazing horsepower packed into this great Sixato-Streak V-8. And it pours through to the rear wheels silky smooth. When it's time to make your move you just point your toe and go! Passing is a breeze, as that great rush of power whisks you ahead to safety in the flick of an eyelash. And the highest hills simply seem to melt away in front of you.

Ten minutes behind the wheel of this great car and you'll know the secret behind all the excited whispering among test drivers in the last month or so. You'll know something else, too . . . this is it, the one and only car for you.

Stop by our showroom to see and drive this fabulous '56 Pontiac today or tomorrow. And be prepared for a thrill. This car will deliver it . . . fast!

Attend National Parley Of Camp Fire Girls, Inc.

Two local women traveled to Chicago last week to attend the National Conference of Camp Fire Girls, Inc.

Acting as Regional Representative was Detroit Council Board Member Mrs. John A. Holstein of Balfour road, while Mrs. Lawrence McCann of Three Mile drive represented the Southeast District Leaders' Association. They were among the 23 volunteers from the Detroit area attending the Triennial Conference.

The women, who left Sunday, participated in workshops on leadership, committee work and programming for Blue Birds, Camp Fire girls and Horizon Clubs. They heard Dr. Henry Steele Commager, Columbia University historian, deliver the main address on "Characteristics of a Democracy."

Camp Fire Girls is the oldest youth organization in the United States offering leisure-time activities to girls between the ages of seven and 18.

Accepts Coveted Award for Second Time

CHARLES VERHEYDEN, right, accepts an award plaque from FRED MARTIN, president of the Eastern Michigan Horticultural Society and the Grosse Pointe Horticultural Society. The plaque was presented to Mr. Verheyden, president and founder of Charles Verheyden, Inc., as winner in a contest in which his business property was judged to have the best landscaping in the Pointe area. Peter Allard is the firm's gardener. Verheyden also won the award for 1954.

Girl Scout News

Mrs. John Bayne, District Chairman of the Grosse Pointe Girl Scout District, and Mrs. Kenneth Locke, chairman of the Membership Nominating Committee were official delegates at the thirty-third national convention of the Girl Scouts of the U.S.A. held November 1 to 4 in San Francisco.

Approximately 8,000 women and several hundred men who are active in Girl Scout Councils in all parts of the country attended the San Francisco meeting.

Delegates from the Grosse Pointe Girl Scout district were voting members of the National Girl Scout Council, which is charged with directing and coordinating the Girl Scout movement.

At the convention they heard reports on the growth of Girl Scouting since the last convention two years ago. From January, 1953 to January, 1955 membership jumped from 1,981,253 to 2,350,789.

Girl Scout National Conventions are held every other year and are attended by delegates from local units throughout the United States, Hawaii, Alaska, and Puerto Rico.

The Leaders Association of the Grosse Pointe Girl Scouts will present Mrs. Sieloff, of TV Lady-Do-It fame, and Mrs. Watkins of the Ona-Craft Art Center in a demonstration of Christmas projects.

The meeting will be held on December 6 at the Neighborhood Club from 12:30 to 3:30. There will be displays, demonstrations, and opportunities for leaders to buy their materials for their troop's Christmas projects.

The Ona-Craft Center will also give free instructions to any troop who would like to visit its workrooms at 22834 Woodward. Leaders can call LI. 7-3411 for reservations. All handicrafts are available.

Mrs. George Brown and Mrs. James Lee II sponsored a nature

hike at Belle Isle for Troop 1442. They are the leaders. Mrs. Remington Purdy, a naturalist from the Audubon Society, attended. The girls had lots of fun drawing trees and bird watching. They are working on their second class rank. Later they built a fire, played games, sang, and gobbled up smores and cider. Fun.

Don't wait to get your Girl Scout Calendar! Reserve them now by calling Mrs. Emmett Eagen, TU. 4-0214.

Look forward to seeing the 1956 Browne Play. "The Emperor's New Clothes" will be presented by the Wayne University Children's Theatre on Saturday, January 28, at Parcels Junior High School. Mrs. John Stewart, 1347 Hampton, TU. 1-5487, will be in charge of ticket sales.

Mrs. Helen Findlay is training a patrol for the National Senior Round-Up which will be held this summer at Highland State Park Recreation Area.

Have you heard... that Mrs. Clinton Aluxam is the new Cookie Sale Co-Chairman... that Mrs. Gordon Roeglin is the new Swimming Chairman and Mrs. Mitchell Andrea is in charge of News Letter Circulation?

Don't forget these dates... November 15, District Committee meeting... November 25, roller skating for Brownies at Fairview Gardens from 3:30 to 5:30... December 6, Leader's Association at the Neighborhood Club, 12:30 to 3:30.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Grosse Pointe: The Girl Scouts of the Grosse Pointe District are in need of donated office space. The Board wants to give the best possible service to the 94 troops and adult volunteers it serves.

We need space for consultations, a place for our necessary supplies, and the very fact that we now have a full time director makes an office even more desirable.

Do you have office space that you would be willing to let the Girl Scouts of Grosse Pointe use Monday through Fridays?

Call Mrs. John Bayne at TU. 5-3873, chairman of the Grosse Pointe District, for further information.

GPYC Dinner Party Marks Double Anniversary

When Ervin H. Mueller of Grayton road entertained 75 guests at a dinner party at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club last Sunday, November 13, the fête was inspired by two important milestones.

It marked the host's seventy-fifth birthday anniversary (the actual anniversary day was Monday, the 14th), and it also celebrated the approaching fortieth anniversary of Mr. Mueller's company, the Lincoln Brass Works, which he founded on December 18, 1916. Currently president and general manager, Mr. Mueller has headed the company as president ever since its founding.

Guests were the host's company associates and their wives. The party took place in the club's main lounge which was beautifully decorated with flowers. A big birthday cake with 75 candles was a highlight of the occasion.

Founders Day Observed By Delta Delta Deltas

The Detroit and Birmingham Alliances of Delta Delta Delta celebrated their 67th Founders Day with a dinner party on Wednesday, November 16.

The President's Proclamation was given by Detroit Alliance President Mrs. William P. Curtis of Torrey road, Mrs. Walter Tait of Bishop road presented the candlelighting service.

The Northwest group acted as hostesses for the evening. Mrs. James Hoffmness of Mack avenue, chairman of the East Side group, attended with members from this area.

Back in grandfather's day the board of education was a shingle.

Historical Society To Hold Celebration

Detroit Historical Society members will hold their annual Indian-Pilgrim Thanksgiving dinner and celebration Monday evening, November 21, in the Round Hall of the Detroit Historical Museum.

Mrs. William C. Klenk of Devonshire road heads the committee on arrangements. Mrs. Richard Webber Allen of Cranford lane and Mrs. Robert C. Artner of Yorkshire road will be among the buffet hostesses.

Harold M. Hastings, Detroit Historical Society president, will preside at the dinner. The American Indian Armet Post No. 50 will present a program of Indian songs, dances and demonstrations.

Mrs. George L. Cassidy of Buongiam road is taking her troop of Cub Scouts to the dinner and program. Her nine-year-old son, Kevin Clarke Cassidy, is named for the late Carl F. Clarke, founder of the Indian Pilgrim dinner.

Their party will include Mr. Cassidy, Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Browning, Dr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kelly, Barbara Kelly, Lawrence Kelly, Denise Anne Cassidy, Shelia Cassidy, Julie Fisher, Michael Browning, James Fraser, Leonard George, Gary Barrett, Charles Bruce, John Louiselle and Steven Koerner.

Pointers who have made reservations for the dinner include Mrs. Frances Bagley Wallace, Mrs. George M. Slocum, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Bacon, and Mrs. J. Bernard Dawsey.

Mothers' Club Numbers 1063

Mrs. Melville Collinson reported at a committee meeting at her home last Thursday, November 10, that the membership of the Mothers' Club of Grosse Pointe High now stands at 1,063.

"We are hoping that many more mothers will join our organization," said Mrs. Collinson. They may join by sending a check for one dollar made out to the Mothers' Club to Mrs. Melville Collinson at 704 Westchester. The cancelled check will act as a receipt.

The dues for the Mothers' Club are used for the scholarship fund and for expenses for teas and open house refreshments as well as special equipment such as the new scoreboard.

Memorial Mass Planned By Dominican Sisters

The Annual Memorial Mass for the deceased members and friends of the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor will be celebrated at St. Dominic's Church on Friday, November 18, at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Harold L. Groff and the Misses Josephine Fortener and Irene Ryan will be the hostesses for the breakfast which follows at St. Ann's Convent at 4848 Commonwealth avenue.

President Mrs. Jerry T. Flanagan will preside at the business meeting, after which members and friends are invited to enjoy an afternoon of cards of their choice.

Members are urged to attend this memorial tribute to the deceased benefactors of the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor.

The man who reflects before making a promise seldom has reason to reflect after breaking it.

A thing that is fashionable because it is expensive generally is expensive because it is fashionable.

Doing nothing is the hardest job on earth because it is impossible to stop and rest.

The impulse to reform comes strongest to the people who have been detected.

It's time to check that toy box and playroom for usable playthings in good condition . . . because the Thrift Shop annual toy drive is now in progress. Toys which come in during the current drive (and none are mended, so puh-lease, no broken contributions!) will go on sale after Thanksgiving. Mrs. Edward Wishropp and Mrs. Sidney T. Hill are co-chairmen of the drive. Their helpers include Mrs. Walter Scotten III, Mrs. John Conway, Mrs. Lansing Pittman, Mrs. Edwin R. Stroh, Mrs. F. Rankin Weisgerber and Mrs. John Holley. Mrs. Bruce Chalmers is president of the board of the Thrift Shop, whose profits go to Neighborhood Club.

Tea for Two Brides

Mrs. Victor Koch feted her newly-married daughter and newly-acquired daughter-in-law Tuesday afternoon at a tea at the Country Club. Mrs. Gerald Burleigh Marvin (Karen Koch) and Mrs. Robert Koch (Luann Ayers) were the guests of honor.

Alternating at the tea table were Mrs. Elmer E. Tuttle, Mrs. Leon Alvarez, Mrs. Robert S. Shields, Mrs. Ebbin Bigham, Mrs. Charles Daniels, Mrs. William Davis, Clarence Bachelor, Mrs. Charles Freiburger, Mrs. Warren S. Booth, Mrs. Thomas Archer, Mrs. George Trumbull and Mrs. Chauncey Pelton.

Post-Birthday Dinner Party

Wednesday was Alfred R. Glancy's birthday, but the dinner dance the Glancys are giving tomorrow evening in the Lake Shore road home is "just for fun and foolishness" rather than to celebrate the natal day. After a late dinner they'll take up rugs in the large hall for dancing.

Among the 120 guests who will join in the fun are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wilson, the Ben Jaynes, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Mack, Dr. and Mrs. Charles Dodehoff, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Avis of Bloomfield, the John Booths, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Buhl, the Merlin Cudlips, the William Cudlips, Mr. and Mrs. William Denler, the Leet Dentons, the Henry Earles, Mr. and Mrs. E. Llywd Ecclestone, the Ralph Fordsons, Mr. and Mrs. Henry de S. Lauve, the Charles Jacobsons, Mr. and Mrs. John Mulford, the Karl VanLeuven, the Robert Scherers, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Petzold, the Herman Petzolds, Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Parker Jr., and the junior George E. Parkers.

Series of Dinners

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hosmer of Bedford road entertained at a dinner party Saturday evening in their home . . . Another dinner party, the second of three, is being given by the Karl G. Behrs next Sunday in their Bishop road home. They'll entertain again on December 3, after they return from New York. Mr. and Mrs. Behr leave for Manhattan Thanksgiving night, because they think that the season between Thanksgiving and Christmas is the very nicest time of year there. After several days of shopping and shows.

Star of Sea Church Plans Christmas Fair

All 12 Circles of Altar Society Preparing Individual Booths For Event Scheduled for Saturday, December 10

Our Lady Star of the Sea Church, Fairford road between Morningside and Ballantyne, will hold its first Christmas Fair on Saturday, December 10, from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. in the church clubroom.

Gaily decorated booths and a sidewalk cafe will carry out the French theme. Each of the 12 circles of the Ladies Altar Society has been working these past months on the individual booths, preparing a variety of gifts to delight all those on Christmas lists.

Attractive jewelry, perfume, cologne and leather goods will be displayed in the Jewelry Shop.

In the next booth there will be a wide variety of aprons, dainty and durable for all occasions, including chef's barbecue aprons, children's aprons, and mother and daughter sets.

For the girls and boys there will be toys of all kinds and some of the very latest ones; there will be games, books, puppets, and dolls of all kinds from the littlest to those large and luxurious ones. Wait to see our Toy shop before you get those gifts for Joe and Mary Ann.

Decorated candles, Christmas corsages, handmade and boxed tree ornaments, Christmas card baskets and wrappings can be purchased to give your home that festive atmosphere.

In the China Shop there will be sparkling crystal, bone china, pottery, plant holders and cups and saucers for the collectors.

Tempting things to eat will be found in the Candy and Nut Shop.

The Sewing Shop and Linen Shop will have some very unusual things such as Humpty Dumpty pillows for the children and that rumpus room, tablecloths for that umbrella table in your garden, handmade mittens, jackets, and caps and little felt glitter ornaments for your dresses and sweaters. A special feature will be an exquisite white felt skirt with an angel and Christmas tree all made of sequins.

One booth will have all kinds of religious articles for those special gifts.

A Country Store will feature beautiful gift baskets, fruit, canned goods and cheese. Orders will be taken for immediate or future delivery of your holiday ham and poultry.

Italian bread, sesame seed cookies, spaghetti sauce and delicious fruit cakes from Georgia are just a few of the many good things to be stocked for the Bakery Shop.

One of the highlights of the fair will be an auction in the evening. Each of the twelve circles has donated a gift for this special attraction. There will be a Schwinn bicycle, Home Utility Kit containing a variety of electric tools to delight the man of the house, an Evans fitted bag, electric broiler sterling silver tea set, beautiful needlepoint picture, and many other valuable things.

The young people of the "Starlighters" have not only taken over all the decorating for the fair, but will have a Photo Booth where you may have your picture in a moment.

Mrs. Gross to Open Home For Alpha Delta Pi Grads

Mrs. Robert R. Gross will open her home at 228 Ridgmont road on Thursday, November 17, for the regular monthly meeting of the Alpha Delta Pi Sorority Alumnae east side after noon group.

Any Alumnae interested in attending may call Mrs. Louis Marick, TU 5-6346.

Mrs. Kinnucan At RC Meeting

Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan of 319 Hillcrest road, chairman of volunteers and Mrs. E. K. Wilson, 9373 East Jefferson, chairman of volunteer services of the Detroit Chapter Red Cross, are attending a two-day conference of Red Cross volunteer leaders in St. Louis, Mo., November 16-17.

This is the first time volunteer leaders from 16 Midwestern states have been brought together to discuss mutual problems and experiences in recruitment, training and recognition of volunteer workers in the Red Cross.

Plans will be developed to strengthen the functions of the chairmen of volunteers, focal point for the success of chapter operations. Nearly two million volunteer workers, performing a wide variety of services, are associated with the more than 3,700 chapters.

The conference delegates have been selected from 75 Red Cross chapters representing a cross section of the Midwest. They attended first day sessions at the Sheraton Hotel and will hold second day sessions at Midwestern Area Red Cross headquarters.

Miss Margaret Hickey, public affairs editor of the Ladies Home Journal in Philadelphia and a member of the Board of Governors of the American National Red Cross will be a featured speaker.

Mrs. Kester L. Hastings, national deputy director of the Office of Volunteers, will talk about the role of volunteer workers from a national viewpoint. Mrs. Hastings recently was among observers at the Yucca Flats atomic explosion near Las Vegas, Nevada.

Art Discussion Patrons Listed

The question of how Rembrandt and other old-time masters in the art world has been criticized by their contemporaries will be discussed by Aine B. Saarinen, Associate Art critic of The New York Times, in the Lecture Hall of the Detroit Institute of Arts on Tuesday evening, November 22, at 8 o'clock.

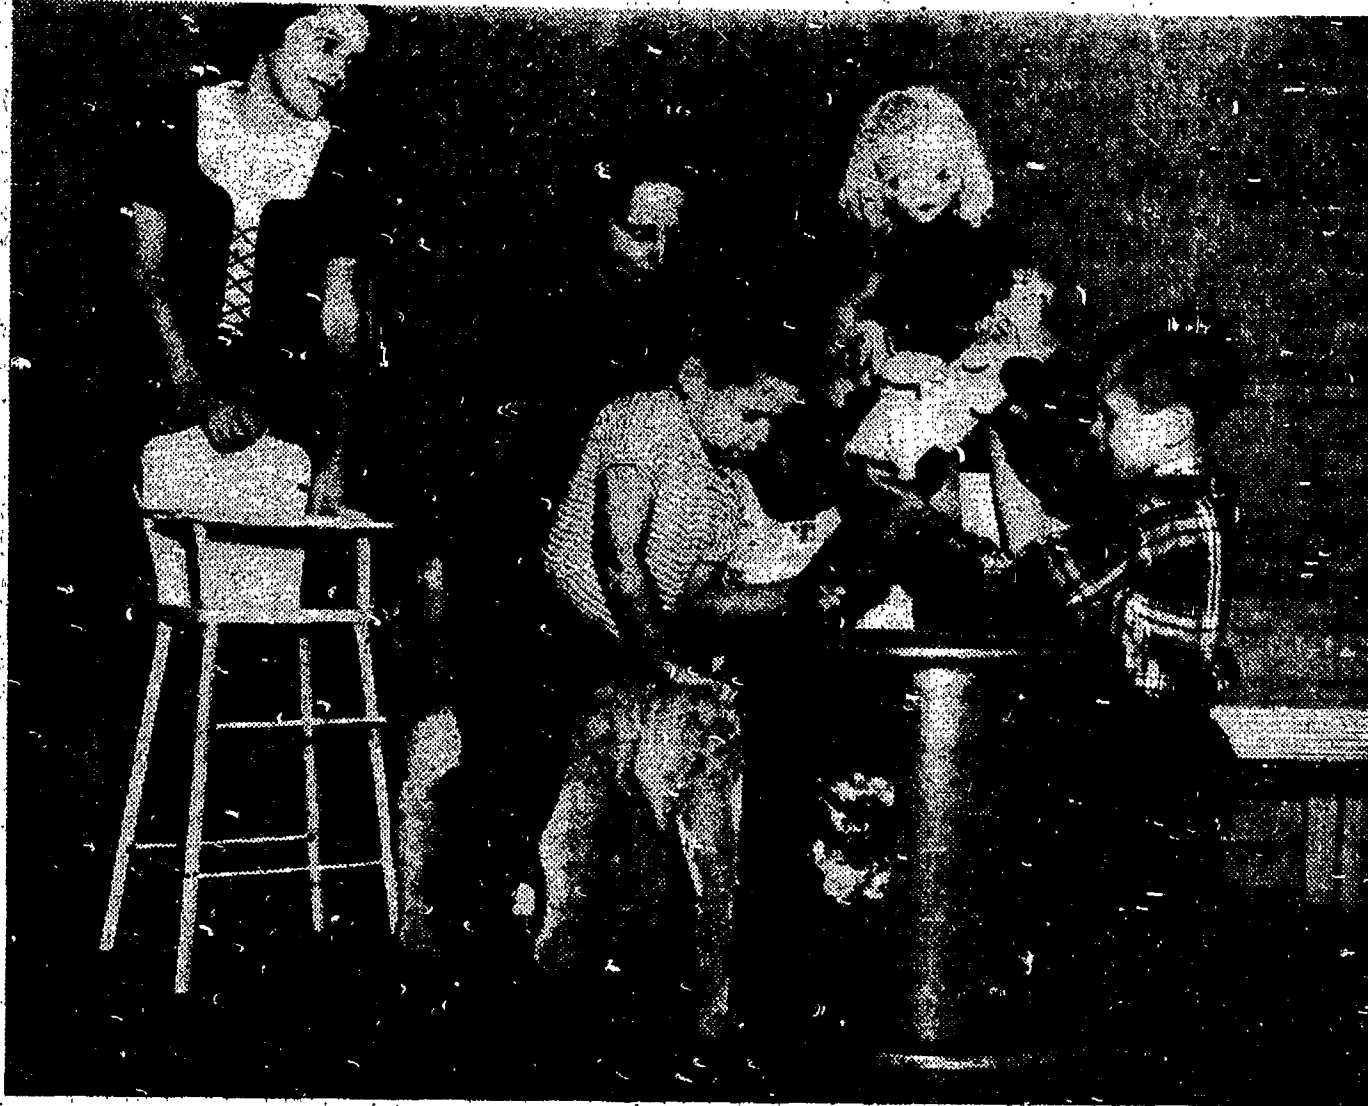

This talk by Mrs. Saarinen, who in private life is the wife of Eric Saarinen, famed architect, of Bloomfield Hills, is the second in the current Art Institute Lecture Series. The title of Mrs. Saarinen's talk is "If Old Masters Had Had One Man Shows."

A reception in the Romanesque Hall will follow the lecture. Hosts and hostesses at this time will be: Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Luce, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Winston, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Bostick, Mr. and Mrs. Albert De Salle, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Van Leuven, Jr., W. Hawkins Ferry, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Colby, Mr. and Mrs. J. Russell Bright, Mr. and Mrs. Alger Sheldon, Mrs. William H. Rea, Mr. and Mrs. Wilhelm Fabricius, and Thomas Gillis.

The series of five lectures by internationally known experts in various art fields is sponsored by a committee of approximately 100 patrons, who assisted in the season ticket sale. Tickets for individual lectures are available at the Art Institute.

Patrons from the Pointe are: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence K. Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Casgrain, Mr. and Mrs. Ray D. Chapin, Miss Florence Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Dexter M. Ferry, W. Travel Items

Mrs. John Gordon Hill and her daughter, Joan-Ellis, leave for the East next Wednesday to look over the college scene. Joan-Ellis will finish in June at GPUS, so they plan stops at Smith, Mt. Holyoke, Wellesley and Bradford Junior College. They will pay an overnight visit to Mr. Hill's brother-in-law and sister, the Harry Careys at Wellesley, and then fly home in time to go to the Michigan game at Ann Arbor.

Mrs. C. James McKinney is settling back on Grand Marais boulevard once more after several months away from home. She spent seven weeks in San Clemente, Calif., with her son-in-law and daughter, Marine Corp. and Mrs. Bill Brown Gartman. Then, she no sooner returned to town than found herself accompanying son Carlos James in his new car out to his assignment at Gary Air Base, San Marcos, Tex. There, Mrs. McKinney had an enjoyable visit as the house guest of Gen. and Mrs. Harry Johnson, who were formerly stationed at Selfridge Field.

The Dantsant

The Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital, their husbands, and their friends will mark the end of a second successful year with a The Dantsant from 4:30 to 7:30 Saturday afternoon, December 3, at the Grosse Pointe Hunt Club. Mrs. Ralph Lee Fisher is general chairman and Mrs. Charles R. Risdon Jr., co-chairman.

Hosts and hostesses who will greet guests at the door include Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Waterman, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Grawn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Winter, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Maguire, the Harold O. Loves, the Arthur H. Buhls Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. James R. Trudell Jr. Mr. and Mrs. Hansel Dwight Wilson head the committee of hosts.

Green and gold decor will be used. A large tea table at one end of the ballroom will be surrounded by smaller tables whose centerpieces are being individually designed by Mrs. James Cope and Mrs. Edgar Flittermann.

P-T.A. at Monteith Planning Bake Sale

Event Will Be Held from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. on November 22; "Classroom Night" to Be Special Feature for Parents

The Monteith P.T.A. will hold a bake sale on Tuesday, November 22, the same day as the general P.T.A. meeting. Over 200 mothers have promised a wide variety of baked goods, in response to the request made by Mrs. Elmer Knoch, bake sale chairman.

The sale will be held from 11 a.m. until 9 p.m. Mrs. Knoch stated that many of the choice items will be on sale during the evening hours as well as during the daytime.

Mrs. Hal Cornelius is serving as co-chairman of the committee and Mrs. Sloane Barbour, Mrs. Philip Day, Mrs. Edwin Neill and Mrs. George Burgess are assisting.

For the Monteith P-TA parents, all of the classroom teachers at Monteith School will present a "Classroom Night" that evening. Each teacher will discuss various phases of the educational program.

The room mothers will act as official hostesses for the teachers and will serve refreshments in the rooms with the assistance of P-TA refreshment chairmen, Mrs. Thomas Swearingen and Mrs. Kenneth Holsopple. Richard Fernstrum will conduct a short business meeting in Monteith Hall at 8 p.m. preceding the classroom program.

The 900 members of the Monteith P-TA are getting underway with a full year of planned activities. The Educational Activities committee, under the direction of chairman Gerald Stotzer, is meeting regularly to promote plans for parent education. As a part of the work in getting acquainted with types of possible activities Mrs. Everett Moeller, Mrs. Afton Sauer, Mrs. Sloane Barbour and Miss Marjorie Harger, acting principal of Monteith School, attended the 26th annual Parent Education Institute sponsored by the University of Michigan Extension Service and the Michigan Congress of Parents and Teachers on November 3 at the Rackham Building in Ann Arbor.

She'll Become Bride of Alan McNabb of Grosse Ile at Ceremony in St. Paul's Church on January 4

A reception at the Little Club will follow the wedding of Margot Fisher and Alan McNabb in St. Paul's Church on the lakeshore on Wednesday, January 4.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William P. Fisher of Lakeland avenue. Her husband-to-be is the son of Mrs. Duncan J. McNabb, of Grosse, Ile, and the late Mr. McNabb.

Mrs. Girard Shulte and Mrs. Norbert Wiesler entertained at a shower for the bride-to-be yesterday. Mrs. Louis A. Fisher is giving another party for Margot on Friday, November 25, in her Renaud road home.

The rehearsal dinner will be given at the Country Club. Margot has asked her sister, Joan, to be her maid of honor. Grace Robinson and Rime Dussard, of St. Louis, will attend as bridesmaids.

Lt. Col. John M. McNabb will come from Langley Air Force Base in Virginia to be his brother's best man. Two other brothers,

Pointer Takes Bride on Coast

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Winters, Jr. will make their home in Grosse Pointe. They were married recently in San Francisco's Glide Memorial Church and afterwards honeymooned in Pebble Beach and southern California.

The bride is the former Joy Kent, daughter of Mrs. Glenn Kent, of San Francisco. For her wedding she chose a white tulle ballerina length dress, lace fingertip veil and bouquet of white orchids and bouvardia. She was given in marriage by her brother, Earl Kent.

Mrs. Carroll Keys, Gloria Winters and Mrs. Robert Kent attended the bride.

Garrett Peavy, of Pasadena, Calif.; Stanley Lichtenstein, of San Francisco, and Robert Kent were the groomsmen.

Mr. Winters is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Winters of Moran road.

Yacht Club to Hold Thanksgiving Ball

Glamorous Prelude to Holiday Season Being Planned For Saturday Night, November 19; Commodore Sends Out Invitations

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's formal Thanksgiving Ball is slated for Saturday evening, November 19, and plans are under way to make the party a glamorous prelude to the whole year-end holiday season.

Announcement to the membership of the festivity is in the form of an invitation from Commodore and Mrs. William O'Neill Kronner and the Board of Directors, and this 1955 version of GPYC's annual Thanksgiving Ball will present "A Date to Dance."

Entertainment chairman George C. Mitchell and vice-chairman J. Earl Fraser have charge of arrangements.

Party scene will be the club's main lounge and here autumn flowers will fashion the decor. Dinner will be served at 8 o'clock and dancing to the Arthur Quatro Orchestra will begin at 8:30.

Musicaale Event Set for Monday

Grosse Pointe members of Tuesday Musicaale and their guests will be well represented at the Musicaale tea to be held at the Woodland Place home of Mrs. Wilson W. Mills on Monday, November 21. The musical program is scheduled to begin promptly at two o'clock.

The affair is sponsored by the ways and means committee of Tuesday Musicaale with proceeds going into the scholarship fund. Presiding at the tea table will be two charter members of the organization, Miss Frances W. Sibley and Mrs. Mark B. Stevens.

Among those who have made reservations are Mrs. Edward A. Baumann, chairman of the ways and means committee; Mrs. Harry L. Lipski, co-chairman (who is still taking reservations), and Mrs. Philip D. Duxler, president of Tuesday Musicaale.

Others who will attend are Mrs. J. Leslie Berry, Mrs. Winfield S. Jewell Jr., Mrs. George H. Goodson, Mrs. Milton Setzer, Mrs. James R. Geldart, Mrs. Charles A. J. Kotcher, Mrs. Adolph Jacobson, Mrs. L. G. Terbruggen, Mrs. Frank Sladen and Mrs. Abraham Bodycombe, who will accompany the soloist, Mrs. Harry W. Taylor.

The actual Thanksgiving Day, November 24, will be an informal family day at GPYC for members who wish to have family Thanksgiving dinner at the club. Dinner will be served from noon to 8:30 p.m.

An activity in a completely different vein is the open bowling available on Sundays from 1 o'clock in the afternoon to 10 o'clock in the evening on the GPYC alleys.

With a thought to the fun of family bowling, the bowling committee headed by Paul I. Moreland, chairman, and Richard J. Martin, vice-chairman, has extended a special invitation to members with sons and daughters to participate in this open keging on Sundays.

Trombly P-TA Meets Nov. 21

The Trombly School Parent Teachers Association meets in the school auditorium at 8:15 p.m. on Monday, November 21.

Robert Latner, program chairman, has invited Russell Stanford, nuclear power engineer on the staff of the Detroit Edison Co. as guest speaker. Mr. Stanford will discuss and illustrate with audio-visual aids, "Atomic Energy in Industry".

Prior to his present developmental research work, Mr. Stanford was associated with the Atomic Energy Commission and participated in development work at the Manhattan Project and at Hanford, Idaho.

Prior to the general meeting, parents will be welcomed in the classrooms to see the children's work and to talk with the teachers.

Mrs. Edward Wilson and Mrs. Roy G. Ouelette, social chairmen, together with room mothers Mrs. Irving Drinkaus, and Mrs. Thoburn Wiant, are arranging a social hour to follow the auditorium meeting.

Church Bids All To 'Noelville'

Tomorrow, November 18, is the day to visit "Noelville", the Christmas Village, at Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. A splendid time and many delightful surprises will be found here.

The Country Store and the Gift Arcade, which will have jewelry, handcrafts, handknits, clothing, linens and toys, will be on the first floor of the church building. The Holiday House, Apron Shop, Plant Booth, Snack Bar and Dining Room will be found in the basement.

The second floor will have the children's movies, other amusements and the nursery.

Business Women's Club Holds Meeting Tonight

The monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Business and Professional Women's Club will be held Thursday evening, 7:30 p.m., November 17, at the Grosse Pointe Public Library meeting room, 10 Kercheval.

Anyone interested in becoming familiar with the club's activities and eventual membership is cordially invited to attend.

Voters' League Plans Meetings

"The support of United States trade policies that will help solve national and international economic problems" will be the subject for discussion of the November unit meetings of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters.

President Eisenhower, in his message to Congress January 10, recommended United States participation in the Organization for Trade Cooperation (OTC). The functions of the proposed organization as well as its relation to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trades (GATT) will be studied in each of the units.

Members and interested women in the community are invited to attend any of the following meetings:

Nov. 21, 10-12 a.m. Hostess and Unit Leader: Mrs. Harcourt Caverly, 1173 Audubon. Discussion Leaders: Mrs. Edgar Copper, Mrs. Edward Gehrig.

Nov. 28, 1-3 p.m. Hostess: Mrs. Melville Collinson, 704 Westchester. Unit Leader: Mrs. Miles McKee. Discussion Leaders: Mrs. Porter Strother, Mrs. C. G. Turrell.

Plan Fair for Benefit Of St. Joseph Hospital

The Ladies' Auxiliary of St. Joseph Mercy Hospital on East Grand boulevard will hold a Thanksgiving Fair on November 21 and November 22, starting at 9 a.m.

Included in the sale will be home made cakes, cookies, candies and breads, also numerous articles of needlework, aprons, handkerchiefs, games, and dolls.

The proceeds of this fair will be used in the purchasing of essential instruments for the completion of the Ear, Eye, Nose and Throat Clinic.

The women have been working diligently for this cause and when completed, the clinic will be thoroughly modern in all respects. It will also enable the residents and internes to obtain more teaching material.

Committee members are: Mrs. Albert E. Vossler, Mrs. Frank Meisel, Mrs. Fred L. Strickrook, Mrs. Bert Greiner, Mrs. Maurice Ford, Mrs. Edward T. Gushee, Mrs. J. Stewart Hudson and Mrs. George Kamperman.

The man with the narrow mind usually makes up for it by the length of his arguments.

Bride-Elect

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Petersen of Westwind lane announce the engagement of their daughter, INGRID, to William Mortimer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil M. Mortimer of St. Clair, Michigan.

Ingrid attended Rogers Hall, Lowell, Mass.; Colby Junior College, and will receive a degree in education from the University of Detroit in June '56. William attended the U. S. Military Academy at West Point.

The couple plan a Christmas-time wedding and have set the date for December 20.

Grace Hospital Women To Sponsor Bake Sale

The Women's Auxiliary to Grace Hospital will sponsor a bake sale at the Northwestern Branch on Friday, November 18.

Funds raised will further their three-fold goal for the year, which is to furnish instruments for the eye department, to contribute to the Nurses' Scholarship Fund, and to help with audiology improvements in the Helen Handy Newberry Nurses' Residence.

Hostesses Greet Guests At Artists' Exhibition

Mrs. Carl B. Grawn was chairman of the opening reception Tuesday evening of the 46th annual Michigan Artists Exhibition at Detroit Institute of Arts.

Hostesses from the Women's Committee of the Founders' Society who assisted her at the reception in the Great Hall included Mrs. Wilfred V. Casgrain, Mrs. Dexter Ferry, Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Mrs. Edward T. Gushee, Mrs. J. Stewart Hudson and Mrs. George Kamperman.

Some people's reason may be no reason at all, but it is a waste of time to argue against it.

Harmonie Club's Men's and Women's choruses will give their annual fall concert Saturday evening, November 19, in the auditorium of the clubhouse at 9 o'clock.

Grosse Pointe members of the men's chorus include Dr. Richard Balsler, J. Willard Carpenter, Herman A. Hielscher, Robert G. Keydel, Robert F. Murphy, J. A. Piccirilli, Albert Schlorff, Carl J. Schuler and Otto Streck.

Florence French belongs to the women's chorus. The concert will be preceded by a buffet dinner served from 6:30 to 9 o'clock. Dancing will follow the concert.

Seymour Benstock, cellist of the Toledo Symphony Orchestra, will be guest artist on the program.

Those Were the Days--Those Earliest Thanksgivings

By A. D. Scendent

'Y'know I just been thinkin' about the poor old Pilgrim Fathers; and their awful struggle for existence, and—say, it made me hungry! All they had to eat was lobsters and clams, fat, juicy mackerel and fresh codfish, wild turkeys and venison, with—maybe some nice fat corn cakes and honey to finish off with. No little dabs of vegetables settin' round their plates; no teaspoonful of somethin' mysterious on a lettuce leaf—say, it's no wonder those boys started Thanksgiving!

Luscious fragments of reminiscences lead me on in this orgy of thought; on and back to such as these—suckling pig roasted—platters heaped with fried chickens—whole hams baked—candied sweets made in a milk pan—deep-dish apple pie—six-layer cakes—Indian Pudding—frosting cookies, with a raisin in the middle—a row of big cakes down the center of the table; and for plain-supper—cold chicken 'till you couldn't eat any more—Aunt somebody's pickled eggs—dozens of 'em—potato salad in huge yellow mixing-bowls—thick slabs of creamy cheese!

Today's fancy tableware and linens—and these airy little breakfast nooks—I can't help wonderin' what my old Grand

Women Injured As Cars Tangle

Two Detroit women suffered chest injuries when their car collided with another at Beaconsfield and Vernor, on Wednesday, November 2.

Injured were Matilda J. Mellon, 55, of 5065 Haverhill, the driver, and her passenger, Edna Maher, 62, of 3921 Haverhill, both of Detroit. Both were taken to Bon Secours Hospital by Park police, where x-rays were taken of their chests.

An accident report showed that the women's car was struck by one driven by Cyril Verbrugge, 51, of 883 St. Clair.

The women were traveling north on Beaconsfield, when the front and left side of their car was hit by the front of Verbrugge's auto, as he entered the intersection, going east on Vernor.

Verbrugge was issued a ticket for entering an intersection without due care and caution and causing an accident. He will appear in court on December 7.

Kerby P.T.A. Meets Monday

The second Kerby Parent-Teachers Association meeting will be held on Monday evening, November 21. Classrooms will be open for parent-teacher conferences between 7:30 and 8 o'clock.

Under the direction of Mendel Lucatsky, Kerby elementary music teacher, the fifth and sixth grade classes will offer a number of choral selections.

Cyclists Hurt; Given Tickets

Two young teenagers were issued violation tickets for separate bicycle violations which resulted in an injury to one of the cyclists. Both incidents occurred on Sunday, November 13.

William Wade, 14, of 15410 Mack avenue, was given his ticket after he pedaled into the side of a car driven by Joseph G. Mattiacci of 20465 Damman, Harper Woods.

An accident report revealed that young Wade was pedaling west in the South Mack avenue alley. He rode onto Beaconsfield, without stopping, striking Mattiacci's car.

Wade was taken to Bon Secours Hospital for treatment of bruises and contusions of the left leg and knee and right elbow.

He was issued a ticket for not having a bicycle license plate and riding into a roadway without stopping, causing an accident.

The second accident involved Ronnie C. Bunker, 15, of 1301 Philip avenue, Detroit, who while pedaling through the alley south of Kercheval, rode out onto Lakepointe, hitting a car driven by Carl A. Schumaker of 1142 Maryland, which was going north.

Bunker was ticketed for riding into traffic and causing an accident.

Both boys will have to appear in Juvenile Court, which will be held on December 15, in the Park Municipal Building.

Juvenile court is held in the Pointe the second and fourth Tuesday of every month.

Distributing Shrubs to Beautify Pointe

Under the auspices of the Garden Club Council, 727 flowering crabapple trees were distributed last weekend. The trees will be planted on private property and public all through the Pointe area and should increase in beauty with each passing year. Left to right are: Mrs. Renville Wheat, Mrs. John McEachren and Mrs. Bert L. Lindzay, president of the council.

Library Offers Choral Records

One of the newest services of the Public Library is an extensive collection of choral music, according to Robert M. Orr, Director. This octavo music has been made available through the courtesy of members of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus. This music is contributed by members of the chorus following each concert.

Composed of both sacred and secular music, this collection is available to all local choral groups without charge. One of the outstanding features, according to Malcolm Johns, Director of the Community Chorus, is the music of the Christmas portion of the Messiah with 65 copies available.

Mr. Orr reports that he is interested in the reaction of local choral groups to this collection. While it is unusual for a Public Library to have such material, he welcomes the opportunity to offer it to the community, providing that it is used. He feels that there are enough choral groups in the Pointe so that this new service should be a most popular one.

Information on this collection can be secured by calling the Central Library TUxedo 4-2200.

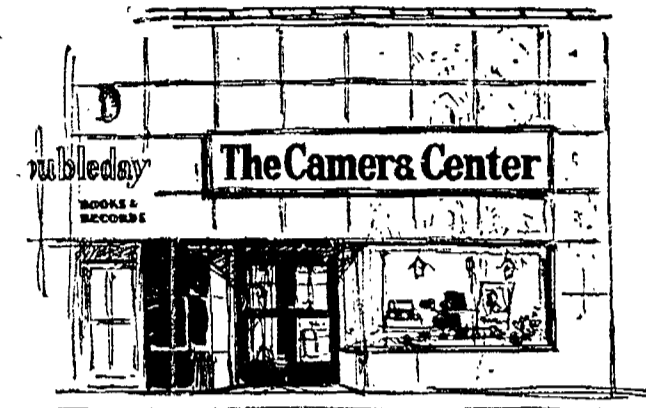

More than 22,000 vessel passages are recorded at the Soo locks each year, averaging one every 19 minutes.

Hold Conference On Elm Disease

The Dutch Elm Disease conference which was held in Chicago, Ill., on Thursday, November 10, was a complete success, according to information received.

Attending from the Pointe were Farms City Manager Harry Furton and Vern Weot, the City's landscaping expert.

More than 500 park and local government officials, representing 135 cities in 18 states, attended the conference, which was sponsored by the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

According to the two Pointers who attended the meeting, several prominent authorities on Dutch Elm Disease, disclosed vital information on combating it.

Among the things brought out are: 1. There is no cure for elm trees once they become infected with the disease; 2. Sanitation, that is, pruning dead and dying wood from healthy trees, destroying dead and weakened trees and elm debris, including firewood, will reduce the population of the tiny bark beetle which transmits the disease; 3. Spraying healthy elms with DDT is an effective and necessary supplement to sanitation in controlling the blight; and 4. Sustained co-operation of public officials and private property owners is necessary to an effective control program.

From the finding at the conference, it was pointed out that the Pointe program of spraying twice a year meets with the recommendation of the experts. However, it may be that not enough effort is being placed on sanitation, particularly pruning.

Mr. Furton and Mr. Weot were agreed that the conference demonstrated that control is possible through consistent effort.

Ernest Scanes Wins Art Prize

Ernest Scanes of McKinley avenue has won the Scarab Club prize of $100 for his watercolor "Boats—Lake Erie," in the annual Michigan Artists' Exhibition which opened Tuesday evening, November 15, at the Detroit Institute of Arts.

The exhibition of 301 paintings, sculpture, prints and photographs by 261 artists will continue through December 18.

The Readers Take Over

Due to the length of some of the letters received by the editor this week, we decided to get lazy and devote this space to the views they express.

Dear Sir: A couple of years ago, I sent you an anonymous letter, complaining about what I thought was an unjust attitude on the part of the residents of these parts toward the soldiers stationed in our midst in these anti-aircraft battalions and I even had the temerity to send copies of my letter to various parties who might have some influence, I thought, in correcting what seemed to me to be an erroneous attitude toward these boys.

This situation has been, I am happy to say, with your most intelligent cooperation, corrected. I hope you will respect my wish to remain anonymous as I really am an inconsequential little squirt who just by happenstance, got to live in these here now parts. However, I do have a few matters that I feel impelled to write to you about, so let's have it at.

Now, there is one reason and one reason only why I subscribe to your paper and that is that I love the column written as "Grosse-Exaggerations" by "A. Pryor". As far as I'm concerned you can take the rest of your publication and wrap fish in it—it's probably better than most of such publications which is all right with me but I'm just not interested in the fact that the Council of the Woods or the Park have decided to approve or disapprove the installation of 90' linear feet of curbing.

Please sit down with "A. Pryor" and with this letter in your chubby little fist implore her to send in SOMETHING each week. At her worst, which I haven't encountered yet, she is so good that she makes the rest of your little sheet glimmer like the stars. I'd certainly like to meet the lady and perhaps contribute a few "bon-mots" to her collection—as if she needed anything from me.

Now, secondly, I think you should take a stand against the ever-increasing phobia of cutting down trees, unnecessarily, in the Pointes. This was very noticeable on Kercheval, near Moross recently when some stupid nit-wit decreed that a pipe line HAD to go between the curb and the sidewalk and beautiful trees were mowed down without any consideration of Civic Beauty. They could just as well have torn a channel in the asphalt street but that wouldn't satisfy the destructive cravings of the simpleton who had charge of the job. Couldn't we have an ordinance that would require that anyone who removed a tree had to replace it with a tree of equal size? What about initiating a tree planting program in the Pointes, for as far as I can see, there is only one program now—that is to cut down as many trees as you can.

Now, as we near the bottom of the list, leave us face it—Grosse Pointe is a word that rings around the world—as a Wunderbar—the Acme of wealth, culture, beauty, etc. so what happens? Somebody, maybe the State the County, who knows, puts out to pave Mack Avenue in a double hi-way—with a median strip in the middle—and what do we get—a symposium of all the weeds that have ever grown in the Sovereign State of Michigan and some that are no doubt foreign to this native habitat.

Why couldn't some initiating body, such as your paper, promote a movement which would result in a program of hiring a firm of landscape Engineers. Let's enlist the assistance of the Garden Club, the owners of property on each side of the Mack Avenue abortion; let's maintain our beauty of many trees and of foliage and flowers and let's fix it so when visitors from foreign parts come up to Grosse Pointe, they can go home and say "Well, they certainly have a beautiful place to live."

I beg to remain, Sir, your most obedient and bewildered servant. BUTCH

The world hands all some hard knocks—the hardest being delivered by our so-called friends.

To the Editor: Responsibility for the actions of some of our teenagers has been tossed back and forth by the experts between the parents and the children themselves. I am not an expert, only a parent and I firmly believe that the greater majority of the blame rests with the parents. Not only as a whole but to a great degree individually—we just don't take the time to discover what our young people are doing, and even if we do know they go to a good school or belong to some fine organization—we still neglect them by not taking enough interest in their activities to give up a comfortable evening in the easy chair to attend one of their functions.

How do you Mothers feel when you cook an extra special meal and then the family reports they won't be home to eat? And you Fathers, if you planned a Sunday outing, spent time and money to make it a big day for everyone, then the family decided they didn't want to participate, you'd be irate. Then how do you think your children feel when they work hard to present a program for the public so they can show you what they are accomplishing and for a few hours hold the spot-light and then comes the big night—Father has had a hard day at the office, he has to rest, Mother was going but she didn't have time to get her hair done so she is indisposed. And once again the parents have let their child down.

For a specific example I refer to the ceremonies held last Tuesday evening at Cannon Memorial Recreation by Grosse Pointe Squadron 633-1, Civil Air Patrol. Here was a fine program produced primarily by young people who are proud of their organization and who are seeking recognition for the work they are doing and what happens, all their efforts and accomplishments are displayed to a half filled auditorium. A few of the parents were there, the ones that always attend—but many were absent.

And how can we expect others in the community to take an interest in our children if we ourselves don't. This is a simple case of "parent delinquency." Let's do something about it! Speaking from experience as a Mother of a teenager, I can't speak high enough praise for Civil Air Patrol. It has meant a new worthwhile and profitable experience for my son, and has afforded him many hours of academic activity as well as providing suitable social functions. Many times he has had to work hard and put in long hours but he has always had the backing of his parents, both of them, and we have tried to encourage and support him and his beloved "Civil Air Patrol" at all times. The rest of your children owe this much to your parents, but of course you realize it will mean sacrificing an occasional evening in front of the television. Is this too much to expect?

—A MOTHER OF FOUR! November 10, 1955 Dear Mr. Edgar: On behalf of the 1955 Grosse Pointe Community Halloween Committee, I wish to thank you for the excellent publicity and cooperation which your newspaper gave this year. Your assistance in acquainting the Grosse Pointe residents with the committee's plans contributed greatly to the success of this community project.

Also, the committee wishes to thank all of the members of our committee who helped to make this another safe Halloween for our young people. Sincerely, MARY G. BLACKWOOD, Publicity Chairman, Halloween Committee.

To the Editor: Your recent article regarding the 20-year water supply contract between the Farms and the City becoming effective November 1, brings up the question as to why the water bills rendered to each premises within Grosse Pointe City were increased retroactive to January, when as a matter of fact, the wholesale water contract between the two communities clearly states that the increase in price was not to become effective until all improvements, enlargements and extensions to the project were completed, which was on November 1. On that date the Farms increased the water rate to the City from .60 cents to .756 cents or approximately 16 cents per 1,000 cubic feet of water. This increase included a 10% profit for the Farms. However, from January 1 and all through the hot summer months, despite the fact that water was rationed, the customers in Grosse Pointe City were paying the increased rates, ranging from 44 per cent increase minimum (for each unit) and up, depending on the cubic feet used for rationed water. It is as certain as anything can be that we have been paying more and getting less for our water dollar, and don't forget we get our water right out of Lake St. Clair, while in many semi-arid climate areas out West their system taps gravity water from as high as 2200 feet above sea level in their watersheds and they are then forced to lay supply pipes for many hundreds of miles to get the water to their

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"When a bit of sunshine hits ye, After passing of a cloud, When a fit of laughter hits ye An' yer spine is feelin' proud, Don't forgit to up and fling it At a soul that's feelin' blue, For the minute that ye sling it, It's a boomerang to you."

(John Wallace Crawford)

You almost HAVE to understand show business to appreciate the following, but we are willing to take that chance. A child "actor" of which there is no whicher, was brought out from New York to Hollywood to make a picture after a sudden success in a New York play. Everyone in sight from the prop men on up were turning themselves inside out to please the little monster so he wouldn't go temperamental on them.

One day, after he had been in Hollywood for about a week... he finally met the man who was scheduled to direct the picture. As they sat in the big man's office, the latter asked if there was anything the child would like to do that would please or amuse him. He added by saying: "ANYTHING at all that you want, just name it and it's yours." The young ham said, without hesitation... "PUBLICITY!"

We happened to be present in a gathering of t-v viewers last week when the spectacular was called "The Great Waltz" and dealt with the life of Johann Strauss. We thought it one of the finest things we've seen on television and not the least of the show was a ballet dancer, whose name we never DID find out. The minute she appeared on the stage you could tell she was great. No more than a few seconds of her wonderful dancing had been seen... when the host said: "I think I'll get a glass of beer while this is on so I won't miss the plot!"

The twenty year old son of a friend of our's who had had a siege of illness decided after recuperating, that the only thing he wanted to do was to take a long canoe trip. Having read reams of literature on the subject, he decided he would like to start at the farthest navigable point of the Mississippi river and work his way up through the rapids, various rivers and dams... and so, humming merrily the current hit of the era, "Beautiful Ohio"... one line of the lyric which was directly responsible for his watery desire was... "drifting down the current in the moonlit stream"...

Our boy wrote to the Dept. of Rivers and Streams, one of several bureaus in Washington, D. C. asking for information, etc. concerning a solo canoe flight down the broad waters of the Ohio and scudding into the Mississippi with flashing paddles. The boy was of simple and uncomplicated mind (not being married at the time) and merely visualized himself as another Davey Crockett with a bit of moisture added. Anyway, he hoped with electric strides to the mailbox... and dropped therein his little request... Thereupon, he returned to his homestead and awaited the information he desired from the mighty fathers in Washington... and in the interim, dreamed of canoes... and what he would name his. He thought the name "Peregrinate" would be nice... but then he would have to have a very large canoe to have a name like that on it... so he thought he might name the canoe with a simple "GO"... Anyway, the days sped by... and no word from Washington... By this time our uncomplicated friend had definitely decided on "WENT" as a good name for his non-existent bark... when the mailman arrived with unexpected fervor and extracted from his brown sack a huge envelope... with the frightening emblem "WAR DEPARTMENT" emblazoned across the top.

His mother nearly had a fainting fit when she saw it! The ominous envelope was stuffed with literature and directions and contained so many papers he would have to take on the trip (for identification purposes) that if he took the trip at all, there would have been no room in the canoe for any supplies whatsoever. He would have to "report" and show his papers at some forty dam stops... DAM, that is. He was even given the names of the officials at each of these stops... and since he expected to be "shooting" the rapids through these places, he could see no other course than to yell out the guy's name... then wave he permit at him while rushing by. All very terrifying in retrospect!

The possibility of calling out to "Jack" when it should be "Mort" (these are the dam men) left our hero rather limp with anticipation! After weighing the papers in question... which turned out to be a little under five pounds, our boy decided that he'd have it a lot easier if he joined the Foreign Legion instead. GOOD OLD WASHINGTON, D. C.

Sam Goldwyn isn't the only murderer of the King's English in Hollywood. We hear there is a director of West-erns out there who does a pretty good job of giving Goldwyn a run for his money. One of his more recent jobs had to do with a scene in which the hero was seen shot off the horse... and the horse is seen coming on through camera range. This sort of thing is done in two separate shots... so when it was time for the riderless horse to come within range... the horse did not appear nor could he be found. At this point, the director called to the wrangler in charge of the live stock: "Send me in an empty horse!"

customers. We are faced with none of these costly problems. Furthermore, it might be well to explain that the negotiation of the wholesale water sales agreements between the two communities was conducted like a secret lodge, it being impossible to even find out when the six members of the study committee would hold a meeting. Under the circumstances, it would seem that in a democracy we should oppose such practices, and that the transaction of any type of government business, especially a project involving approximately $275,000,000, should not be negotiated behind closed doors. It is my understanding that the Legislature at Lansing has before it a proposed law to make it mandatory that all Michigan municipalities and school boards, etc., hold open public meetings, so that all matters relating to public business of any nature be discussed openly, in full view and hearing of the people, so they will know what is going on. In my opinion, such a law should have been enacted long ago.

It is obvious after even casually reading the Grosse Pointe City Water Ordinance published in full and occupying all of page 19 of your March 10, 1955 issue, which incidentally to the best of my knowledge was drawn up by Claude Stevens and Matthew Carey, that the whole intent of the ordinance is to protect the sale of the Water Revenue Bonds and to provide for their retirement and security, by payment of the interest and principal, at the expense of the residents who pay the water bills. One fact is abundantly clear, that they were not concerned with the rights of the citizens who pay for the water. A few of the provisions that cost Grosse Pointe City money are listed below. So far as it is possible to determine, no satisfactory explanations have been given as to their necessity or desirability. 1. The City pays for all water used by it at regular retail rates. In effect this means that in addition to the wholesale rate paid the Farms, the City pays again into a "Receiving Fund" for all water used at the pumping station, sprinkling and pools at the Lake Park, water used by the City Offices, highway building, fire engine house, etc. 2. City pays into the "Fund" $10.00 a year for each fire hydrant. This is referred to in the budget as "Hydrant Rentals 225 at $10.00, $2,250.00" 3. Quarterly billing is established. Previously your water meter was read twice a year. The estimate for labor for the two additional readings is in excess of $2,000.00. If you have been wondering about the increased cost of your water bills perhaps the foregoing may prove of interest to you. Stanley Fisher

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Book Week is now in full swing and among the interesting books on display at all the libraries are some notable additions to the children's collection.

There are picture books for the youngest to delight both parents and child. DANCING IN THE MOON by Fritz Eichenberg is a counting book with colorful pictures and gay rhyme, which introduces the small child to the numbers one to twenty. This author-illustrator's earlier APE IN A CAPE, an A.B.C. book in the modern style with large bold pictures has been well liked by pre-school children.

Marie Ets' PLAY WITH ME has a deceptive simplicity in both text and pictures that captivates all ages. A little girl who is unsuccessful in her attempt to make friends with the wild creatures as she walks through the woods, discovers that by sitting very still and being very quiet they will come to her. It's a charming picture book with soft illustrations in yellow, orange and grey.

Small boys and girls who took THE HAPPY LION to their hearts last year, will welcome another book about their good friend, THE HAPPY LION IN AFRICA. Again Roger Duvoisin provides the entertaining pictures.

A unique picture book which will make the small child aware that there are languages other than his own is SEE AND SAY by Antonio Frasconi. Familiar objects are pictured in interesting woodcuts with the corresponding words given in English, French, Italian and Spanish. Each language is given in a different color, blue for Italian, red for French, green for Spanish and black for English all of which makes for a practical as well as a colorful book. In the back is a list of phrases in the four languages.

A young boy, a gigantic dog, three robbers and some townfolk combine to make a humorous fantasy in THE RABBIT'S UMBRELLA by George Plimpton. Children eight to eleven years will enjoy this.

Nine to twelve year olds who have enjoyed THE BORROWERS AFIELD, which tells the further adventures of these tiny people. C.S. Lewis enthusiasts are eager to read his latest book THE MAGICIAN'S NEPHEW. Although this is Mr. Lewis's most recent "Narnia" story, it precedes the others in time and so may be read independently.

Mabel Leigh Hunt gives us this year an amusing story of nine-year-old Katie, who pretends to be a guest in her own home for six days with some amazing results.

For the early teens there are some unusually interesting biographies. THE SILVER ANSWER by Constance Burnett is a well written fictionalized biography of Elizabeth Barrett Browning that will appeal to older girls. They will also enjoy THE RADIUM WOMAN by Eleanor Dooley, a graphic picture of Marie Curie from her early struggles through her later dedicated years.

In Ann Petry's HARRIET TUBMAN, this valiant conductor on the underground railroad comes alive as a courageous and remarkable woman.

STEIN METZ, MAKER OF LIGHTNING by Sigmund Lavine will be read with interest by the lad with a scientific bend and boys who enjoy first-rate adventure will follow with absorption the hazardous life of the Norwegian explorer in ROALD AMUNDSEN by J. Alvin Kugelmann.

Scouts to Hear Father Steiner

More than 500 Boy Scouts and their parents will hear an address by the Very Rev. Celestin J. Steiner, S. J., President of the University of Detroit, at the District 3 Annual Recognition meeting, Tuesday evening, November 22, at the Chrysler A.B.D. (Briggs) Plant, 3675 E. Outer Drive.

Father Steiner's address will highlight the meeting at which many volunteer adult scout leaders and their wives will be recognized for their service to scouting on Detroit's east side.

Two recognition of the evening will be the annual presentation of the Silver Beaver, one of scouting's highest awards to the two adult scouters who have done the most for scouting and their community over the past several years.

Five Scouter's Key awards will be presented to William J. Harding, Charles Maisano, Robert E. Reitz, Thomas N. Wilson, and Wilbur B. Wollard. Adults receiving the Scouter's Awards are: Arthur J. Allar of Troop 706, Bernard Burbeula of Troop 295, Rudy S. Charbonneau, John L. B. Cowden, Robert B. Curtis, Mary E. Gartner, Catherine Grimm, Servantius Hess of Pack Boys and girls in grade one through six, don't forget the puppet show The Remarkable Danny D. at the Central Library, Saturday, November 19 at 10:30 a.m., 2 p.m., and 3:30 p.m.

Have A T.B. X-Ray

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Doctors find upon examining people that many of them have had T.B. and didn't know it. They are the lucky ones for without care their condition corrected itself.

But think of all the others in whom the disease continues to develop unchecked. In most states T.B. X-rays are a part of public health service sponsored by the State Medical Association.

Ask your doctor about a T.B. X-ray. A good prescription consists of pure, high potency drugs combined skillfully by an experienced pharmacist.

KERBY SCHOOL

by Dr. Custer Homeier
Over five hundred classroom visits were made by Kerby parents during American Education Week, November 7-11. This is one of the finest educational celebrations held at Kerby School in recent years.

With some variations teachers followed their regular weekly schedules of studies and mothers and fathers were invited to visit school at any time during the week. Not only did fathers and mothers accept the invitation but a number of grandmothers and grandfathers also seized the opportunity to observe modern educational practices.

A number of teachers supplemented their regular programs by including special pupil presentations for their parents. Fathers and mothers of pupils in the first grade rooms of Mrs. Maurine Allan, Mrs. Gertrude Bedow, and Mrs. Florence Gobrecht were asked to observe reading lessons during the first part of Tuesday morning. Over eighty parents observed Kerby primary teachers utilizing every reading technique which educational research has proved useful. After the reading lesson these guests were invited to view a film dealing with normal behavioral patterns of children on this grade level.

Mrs. Inez Mullaney and Mrs. Ruth Huston, second grade teachers, also invited parents to visit their reading and social living classes on Tuesday afternoon. Parents gained valuable first-hand information on reading methods used on the second grade level. After classroom observation, over sixty parents went to the library where they were shown the film "Sociable Sixes To Noisy Nines."

On Wednesday afternoon students taught by Miss Ethel Eckstrand, Mrs. Brenda Harris, and Mrs. Esther Nelson presented a very enjoyable musical program for over one hundred parents and grandparents. Room Mothers at the close of the program served refreshments to the students, teachers, and parents.

Also on Wednesday afternoon the children in Mrs. Martha Quigley's fourth grade class were happy to regale their fathers and mothers with an original skit "A Day in The Fourth Grade." This skit in capsule form portrayed the usual work in reading, arithmetic, spelling, and English. In addition, the pupils presented a series of brief reports in social studies and science areas of work.

Mr. Robert Parmenter's fifth grade class entertained their parents with an original play contrasting their present day school with the elementary school at the turn of the century. A large number of students acted as teachers in carrying out this informative play.

For the parents of pupils in Miss Betty Frountel's sixth grade room a demonstration was given of the preparation and make up of their class newspaper, "The Kerby Express." After the class program the parents were served tea by their children.

This Education Week celebration with its high attendance is indicative of deep interest Kerby parents have in the educational program being carried out in their school.

POUPARD SCHOOL

School trips provide a direct contact with the wonderful resources that exist in the Detroit metropolitan area. In deciding which trip to make, teachers have a booklet from the Board of Education which lists trips that may be made, persons to contact, and the hours the places are open. In addition, there are a number of trips which are available through the Institute for Economic Education which represents business and industry in the Detroit area.

Careful plans are made for each trip. Letters are sent to parents explaining why the trip is being made and how it is related to the classroom work. In addition to the teachers, several parents usually accompany all groups to assist in the supervision of the children. Arrangements for buses are made through the Board of Education.

Most of the cost of the trip is paid for by the Board and the remainder, at Poupard School, has been paid for by the P-T-A. Trips arranged through the Institute for Economic Education are paid for by the institute.

Pointe to Share Highway Funds

The net receipts of the State Motor Vehicle Highway Fund for the third quarter of 1955 amounted to $29,531,817.11, of which $45,825.56 has been allocated to the Pointe.

The report, released by State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler, disclosed that the over-all figure for the third quarter represented a gain of $2,624,937.27 over that of the third quarter of 1954.

The Park received the largest share of the five Pointe communities, getting $13,656.65.

The Woods followed by receiving $12,991.30; the Farms, $11,076.89; the City, $6,798.42; and the Shores, $1,402.50.

The Motor Vehicle Fund, money collected from tax on State gasoline, weight and diesel fuel taxes, are distributed to counties, cities and incorporated villages, according to a 1951 State law.

Osteopathic Women's Club Holding Anniversary Tea

The Women's City Club will be the setting for the Silver Anniversary President's Day Tea of the Detroit Osteopathic Women's Club today, November 17, at 1:30.

Dr. Edwin F. Peters, president, Des Moines Still College of Osteopathy and Surgery, will be the guest speaker. His topic will be, "Women are Here to Stay."

Honored guests will include Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, president of the Federated Clubs of Detroit; past presidents of the Detroit Osteopathic Women's Club, Mrs. R. Sidney Sinclair, 872 N. Renaud, is program chairman for the affair.

Assisting at the tea table will be Mrs. George Cozma, national president of the auxiliary to the American Osteopathic Association.

News Notes from Schools

"Let's Agree" is the name of a very interesting booklet sent out last week to all parents of upper-school children at Grosse Pointe-University School. Originally issued two years ago, the booklet is the result of more than a year's discussion and survey by both parents and students.

The pamphlet suggests certain attitudes which might be adopted by parents in regard to home entertaining (parties) for school age children, hours for social activities, dating, driving, and drinking.

The accompanying letter from the Parents' Association was signed by Mrs. Robert Pierce (for grades 7, 8, 9 girls), Mr. Joseph Jennings (for grades 7, 8, 9 boys), Mrs. Charles Dödenhoff (for grades 10, 11, 12 girls), and Mr. Thomas Little (for grades 10, 11, 12 boys).

Their letter stresses the thought that the booklet is "not intended to be a book of rules and its effectiveness will depend entirely upon the extent to which it may serve as a guide for discussion within the family."

Saturday, November 5, was "Play Day" at G.P.U.S. That's the day when five girls' schools get together for a series of brief field hockey games and when the "selectors," who are trained hockey experts, are present to make their decisions as to who are the all-star players from this area. Schools represented, besides G.P.U.S., were Liggett, Sacred Heart Convent, Lawrence Avenue Convent, and Kingswood.

After their games the girls had lunch at G.P.U.S.

Among students representing G.P.U.S. at planning sessions of the Detroit Junior Round Table of Catholics, Protestants, and Jews are Lylas Good, Nick Stroh, and Tom Miller. Mr. Miller has been elected chairman of the committee of students (consisting of delegates from public, private, and parochial schools) which is called the "Detroit Tomorrow" committee. This group, it is hoped, will be granted representation on the senior "Detroit Tomorrow" committee of Mayor Cobo.

Eleanor Jacobson and Judy Standart attended their second meeting of the Junior Red Cross Council of Detroit on Thursday, November 3. They are arranging a group of six G.P.U.S. students who will soon be offering their services to one of the many Saturday morning Red Cross projects.

Chapel assemblies this week were conducted by Miss Richardson and Murray Green.

Chapel services this week were conducted by Mr. Chandler and by George Jerome of the Senior Class.

On Friday night (feeling cheered by the news of a GPUS victory in the final football game of the season at Huron Valley) the faculty attended a meeting of the Independent School Association of Metropolitan Detroit at the Kingswood school in Bloomfield Hills. Speaker of the evening was Mr. Francis Parkman, Executive Secretary of the National Council of Independent Schools.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Emory Ford of Woodland place were hosts at a cocktail party at their home for the trustees and faculty of GPUS.

Speaker at last Friday's Upper School assembly at the Grosse Pointe University School was a weekly columnist for the Grosse Pointe News, Miss Jean Taylor, Children's Librarian at the Central Library at Fisher and Kercheval.

Miss Taylor described the work of a library in general but stressed some of the functions of the Grosse Pointe library which might not be known to the public at large. Thus she spoke of the excellent record collection, from which records and albums may be borrowed for home playing. Likewise she mentioned the library's unique collection of hand tools (the gift of the local Rotary Club) which may be borrowed for "Do it Yourself" projects at home.

Get 4-Season Comfort in your new Buick with FRIGIDAIRE CONDITIONING — now at a new low price

The 1956 Buick CENTURY 4-Door Riviera

NOW - Just touch the pedal and away you go!
(That's the New Variable Pitch Dynaflow!)

Of course, you can floor the pedal of this stunning new '56 Buick and get the full-power sweep of its advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflow. That's how you switch the pitch of this airplane-principled transmission for instant safety-surge acceleration to get out of a tight spot on the highway.

But now you get a brilliant new response at the start of pedal travel, too.

Now you get a solid take-hold for instant take-off in the first inch of pedal action — where most of your normal driving is handled. And you get this great new getaway with a big boost in gas mileage, too!

So there you are, just nudging the pedal, and getting action that makes you feel like you've floored it.

There you are, handling all your normal driving situations with a confident toe-touch — with new surety and snap — and with the happy satisfaction that comes with a sizable step-up in the miles you get from a tankful of gas.

And there you are, rolling along with beaming pride as boss man of the best Buick yet.

For here you have, beating any past Buick, the greatest power yet — the boldest styling yet — the sweetest ride yet — the smartest interior yet — and, by far, the best buy yet.

Drop in on us this week — tomorrow, if you can — and see for yourself that there's never before been anything like this Buick beauty for 1956.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century — optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

It's the '56 Buick - Best Buick yet

Food to be Featured At Mistletoe Mart

Many Committees Working Busily in Preparation for Big Event at Congregational Church December 1

Food, delectable food, better even than mother makes will be starred at the Mistletoe Mart on December 1, the Christmas Fair of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, and besides the wonderful food there will be three full floors of Christmas merchandise with seventeen booths simply crammed with intriguing gift ideas.

The Pantry Shop will be stocked with dozens and dozens of delicious tidbits from pecan pies to watermelon rind pickles, from macaroni salad to orange marmalade, plus scores of those fabulous Congregational fruit cakes.

Half the women of the church have been busy for weeks making their famous delicacies for this booth. Mrs. Howard Quinney, chairman, has the following culinary experts on her committee:

For on the spot consumption, Mrs. Clare Bryant and her co-chairman Mrs. Carl Swanson will serve a delicious luncheon of

Cadillac's New Sedan de Ville

Cadillac's Sedan de Ville, a four-door hardtop presented for the first time for 1956, preserves the graceful Florentine window styling of two-door hardtops yet provides the roominess and four-door convenience of sedan models. Rear seat head and leg room in the Sedan de Ville is greater than in two-door hardtop models. The car features a new power train consisting of a new 285 horsepower engine and a "controlled coupling" Hydra-Matic transmission which is completely new in principle and mechanical parts.

Lakepointe Club Lists Program

Lakepointe Country Club in St. Clair Shores launched the most ambitious winter social program in its history with an informal dinner-dance Saturday night, November 12, and a full series of events to entertain members and their guests during the cold, blustery months ahead now is being planned.

Manager Sam Holmes, who took over the reins at Lakepointe this year after serving as club manager at Lochmoor for several years, has announced that Lake-pointe will remain open four days a week during the winter—Thurs-day through Sunday each week.

A number of Saturday night dancing parties will highlight the schedule.

In addition, the club is making plans to serve a special Thanksgiv-ing Day dinner and also will host a giant children's party be-fore Christmas. A formal New Year's Eve party also is on the social committee's agenda.

Pi Beta Phi's Hold Meeting

The Grosse Pointe Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Club conducted its November meeting in the home of Mrs. F. L. Fisher, 858 Bedford road, on Monday, November 14, at 8 p.m. The group held its first annual Book Auction.

Second Chapter Planned By Alpha Delta Kappa

A second Detroit chapter of the Alpha Delta Kappa sorority for outstanding women teachers, is being sponsored by the Michigan Eta chapter.

Pledges were invited to at-tend an initiation ceremony at the Fort Shelby Hotel, the evening of November 16. Miss Agnes Ship-man of Kansas City, Mo., a direc-tor and immediate past national president, conducted the cere-mony.

Officers of the Eta chapter in-clude: Mrs. Ruth Golden, presi-dent; Miss Shirley Clark, vice-president; Mrs. Kay Goldberg, recording secretary; Miss Mar-guerite Lawrenz, corresponding secretary; Miss Catherine Pot-teiger, treasurer; Miss Rose Kelle-her, historian; Mrs. Bessy Ross, sergeant-at-arms; Mrs. Dorothy Blanchard, and Mrs. Mary Saun-ders, chaplains.

The Eta chapter, and the Theta chapter, consisting of outstanding teachers in the Dearborn and Melvindale area, were organized last August at a meeting at the Dearborn Inn.

At the next regular meeting of Eta, which will be at the home of Mrs. Kay Goldberg, 13600 LaSalle boulevard, on December 7, the members will each bring a gift for a child, which will be turned over to a children's home or hos-pital.

Detroit to See Famous Ballet

Detroit will be the only city of the Middle West to be visited this year by the famous Sadler's Wells Ballet of London now on its fourth American tour under the management of S. Hurok.

Playing just eight cities in all—New York, Boston, Philadelphia and Washington on the East Coast, San Francisco and Los Angeles on the West Coast, Toronto in Can-ada and Detroit, the Sadler's Wells Ballet Company will arrive at the Masonic Auditorium on Thursday, December 1.

The engagement is for Thurs-day, Friday and Saturday eve-nings, and Saturday and Sunday matinees.

Considered by many the most distinguished ballet company of today, the Sadler's Wells troupe has, if possible, enhanced its repu-tation on the current visit, and has been playing to standing room only. A longer stay on this side of the Atlantic would have been highly profitable for all con-cerned, but the company has com-mitments in England that neces-sitate a return before Christmas.

As on previous visits to this country, Margot Fonteyn heads the list of ballerinas, and Michael Somes is the leading male dan-cer. The other ballerinas in the company are Beryl Grey, Violetta Elvin, Nadia Nerina, Rowena Jackson and Svetlana Beriosova. The male contingent includes, in addition to Mr. Somes, John Field, Alexander Grant, John Hart, Alexis Rassing, Brian Shaw, David Blair and Philip Chatfield. Robert Irving is again the mus-ical director and conductor.

The Sadler's Wells Ballet Com-pany travels by special train con-sisting of Pullmans, coaches, din-ing car and nine baggage cars for the scenery, costumes, electrical equipment, etc. In addition to the eighty-odd dancers, there is a large technical staff and an orche-stra of fifty.

The Detroit engagement will open with the full length "Swan Lake." The Friday night program will include the third act of the new Sadler's Wells production of "Coppelia," the popular "Facade," and a new ballet, "The Lady and the Fool," by John Cranko with music adapted by Charles Mac-Kerras from some of the lesser-known works of Verdi.

The company's new production of "The Firebird," the dance sen-sation of the 1954 Edinburgh Fes-tival, will be included in the two Saturday programs, and the en-gagement will end with a Sunday matinee of "Swan Lake."

Suomi College at Hancock, Michigan, is the only Finnish-American institution of higher learning in the United States. More than 20 sparkling blue lakes can be seen at a glance from the twin observation towers of the Irish Hills near Detroit.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

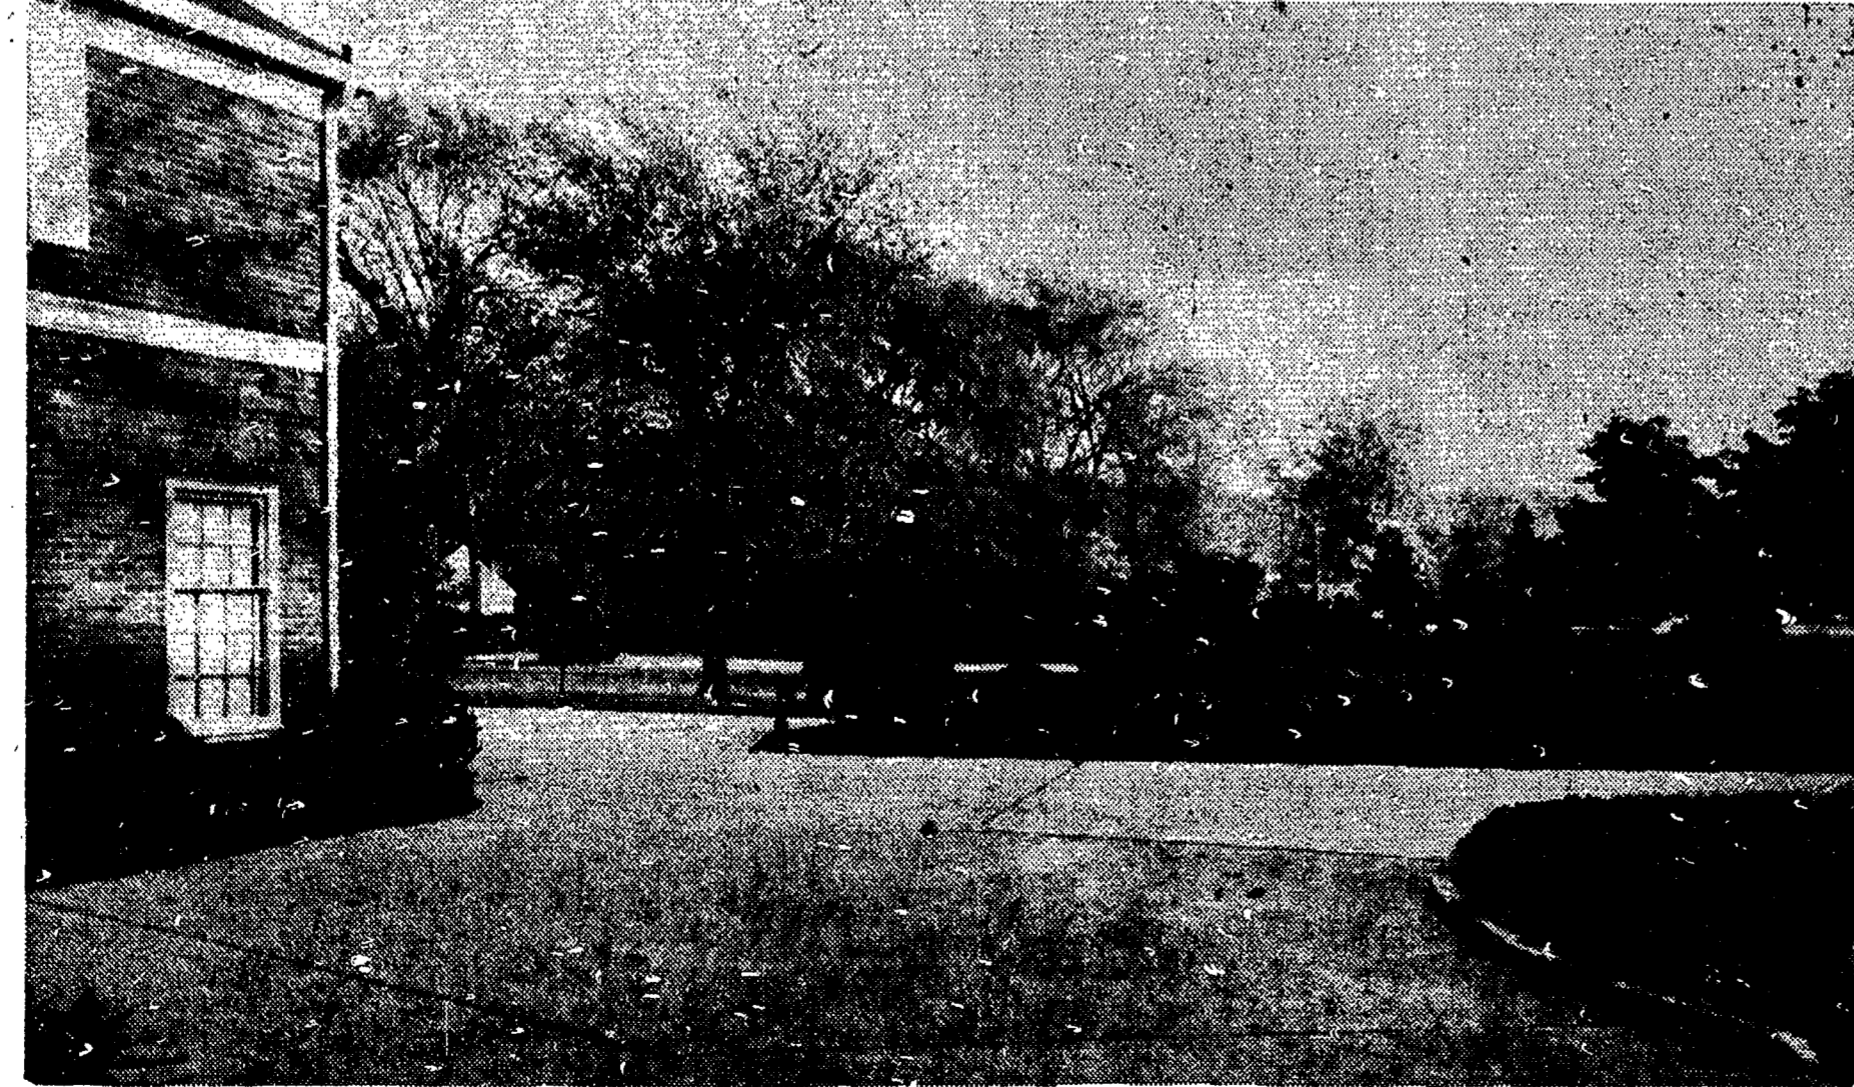

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone.

'Girl Crazy' Opens Tonight

by Phyllis Green

"Girl Crazy," a comedy based on a Broadway musical, will be presented by the Grosse Pointe High School dramatics club, tonight, Friday night and Saturday night. Curtain time is 8:15 o'clock.

Tickets are 25 cents for adults, and 50 cents for children under 12 years of age.

Danny Churchill, to be played by Jack Dasef, 10B, is a New York playboy who hires a taxi driver named Louis, played by Pirie Gall, 9A, to drive him from New York to Texas, so that he can live on a ranch that he has inherited from a rich uncle.

Once there, he turns the place into a dude ranch, and welcomes all his friends from the East, including Tess, an old girlfriend, to be played by Cynthia Darragh, 12B. Then Danny falls in love with Molly, a typical western ranch girl. Julie Sparks, 12B, will take this part.

Same Mason, one of Danny's enemies played by Dave Beste, 12A, tries to ruin him and takes Molly away.

More troubles confront Danny when Lank, played by Dick Bassett, 12A, a killer, arrives at the ranch.

Louis, the taxicab driver, dresses as a girl and Lank falls in love with him, and there's another romance to deal with.

An Indian with a Harvard accent is played by Chuck Wurst, 12B, and a Mexican is played by Vince Scrafano, 10B.

Others in the play are, Ken Kurty, 10B; Bruce MacQueen, 12B; Tom Wells, 10B; Janis Bushong, 10B; Marlene Morgan, 11B; Maggie Jones, 12A; Cynthia Zdrodowski, 10B; Beth Perry, 10B; Marlyn Winter, 12A; and Oscar Marx, 12A.

Jake, the caretaker, had to master, "Home on the Range," on a violin. He found this to be quite a chore because he is not very well acquainted with this instrument.

Exactly 120 letters have been mailed to Pointe Player alumni inviting them to attend.

A total of 75 posters have been painted, and 50 have been made by hand. They have been distributed in the five Pointes.

The Costumes Committee is securing ten-gallon hats, lassoes, guns, saddles, western ties, pants and shirts.

U-M Sociologists Say Farm, City Families Alike

ANN ARBOR—There's not so much difference between farm and city families after all, according to a recent University of Michigan survey on rural family relations.

Although farm families are on the whole much older—a quarter of the wives had been married more than 40 years—some of the family problems, their patterns of decision-making, and their ideas about children are very much alike.

For answers to their questions the U-M sociology researchers interviewed 178 southeastern Michigan farm families, and compared their findings with those of a similar study made in the Detroit area.

Because the farm families turned out to be much older 31 per cent of the farm women already had four or more children, and only 18 per cent of the urban women reported as many. But in their ideas about the number of children desired, both replied "three or four."

And despite popular notions about huge farm families vs. small city families, only six per cent of the farm husbands, and wives have as many as six children, and the highest number of children reported—by only one family—was 12. Figures for city parents are almost exactly the same.

When asked the "good" things about having children the farm wives tended to stress "strengthening the home," or "giving purpose and meaning to life" rather than "emotional satisfaction."

On the "bad" side both rural and urban parents mentioned children's health problems but a vast majority in both groups emphasized that there was "nothing bad!" Less than 10 per cent in either group were disturbed by problems of discipline or limitations on their own freedom.

As regards internal structure of the family, farm wives are apt to have a little more power and take active part in making more decisions than city wives, the studies indicate.

In both groups the husbands most typically decide what cars to buy, and what job to take, and both groups of wives usually decide how much should be spent on food. Decisions on vacations, doctors, homes to rent or buy, health and life insurance, are generally shared equally by husbands and wives in both cases.

As might be expected the farm families raise more of their own food, do more of their own baking, canning and dressmaking. But despite their many occupations at home, the farmers tend to have just as many or more formal outside group memberships.

This social participation was also the biggest bone of contention among farm husbands and wives, with more than twice as many farm as city families reporting this their major disagreement.

When urbanites were questioned on how well they got along in the family 60 per cent of them said "better than most." Farmers, say the researchers, tended to be more realistic and said "about the same as others." However, most families of both groups reported

"I just don't know where my money goes."

Gene, she thought she had at least five dollars in there, but it's gone. Where in the world did it go?

There are lots of people like that. They live from-payday to payday, no budget, no savings, buying whatever strikes their fancy—"just little things mostly"—and when the money's gone, they can't imagine where it went.

It's too bad that these people can never accumulate enough money to be able to buy the "big" things they want. But more important, without a cash reserve in the bank, they may one day find themselves in financial trouble.

Unless they start saving now.

A National Bank of Detroit savings account will help them to have the things they look forward to—a house of their own, a good education for their children, a comfortable retirement. It will also free them from financial worry and insecurity... nothing builds financial confidence like "money in the bank."

What's more, saving at National Bank of Detroit is easy and convenient. It takes no more than five minutes to open an account, and deposits can be made by mail. And when you visit your National Bank office in person, you don't have to go far—there are now 50 offices in Detroit and suburbs.

Regardless of your banking or trust needs, you'll find National Bank of Detroit a friendly place to conduct your business. Won't you drop in soon and let us prove it?

Hannan YMCA to Conduct Thanksgiving Eve Dance
 A Thanksgiving dance will be held Wednesday, November 23, at the Hannan Y.M.C.A., 10401 E. Jefferson. The affair will be under the sponsorship of the young adult club and will provide the music of the Blue Notes.
 Edward Berling, chairman of the event, has stated the theme as the "Pilgrims France" in keeping with the night before Thanksgiving date. Dancing will be from 8:30 till 12 o'clock and is open to all young men and women of the surrounding communities.
 The Hyac (Hannan Young Adult Club) also sponsors weekly socials at the "Y" on Wednesday nights. Their weekly affairs include singing, dancing, table tennis, billiards, refreshments and other activities.
 The increased attendance of young men and women from not only the east side but all around the city has shown the popularity with which these events have met. In addition, special events are scheduled by the club. Such outings as wiener roasts, ski trips, beach parties, in season and other activities of interest to the members. For more information call VA. 2-7200. Program Director, Noel Southworth.

League Plans Sports Night

The Lutheran Laymen's League of St. James Lutheran Church is planning an evening for its Fourth Annual Sportsmen's Night, Monday November 21, that all the "boys," both young and old, of St. James will enjoy.
 Fred Wolf will be toastmaster; and included on the program are Danny Foster, outstanding power boat driver; Jug Girard and Boh Hoernschmeyer of the Detroit Lions; Frank House, catcher for the Detroit Tigers; Grosse Pointe High's famous football coach, Ed Werner; and 1954 Mexican road race films.
 The Sports Committee, has planned this program to provide fun and fellowship for fathers, sons, and friends of the congregation.
 A turkey dinner will be served by members of the Women's Guild at 6:30 in the church auditorium, McMillan at Kercheval. Reservations may be made with Harold Barthel Jr. and Russ Vendelio.

The St. Mary's ship canal with the Soo locks at Sault Ste. Marie carries more traffic than the Panama, Suez and Kiel canals combined.

Christmas Seals Buy Happiness

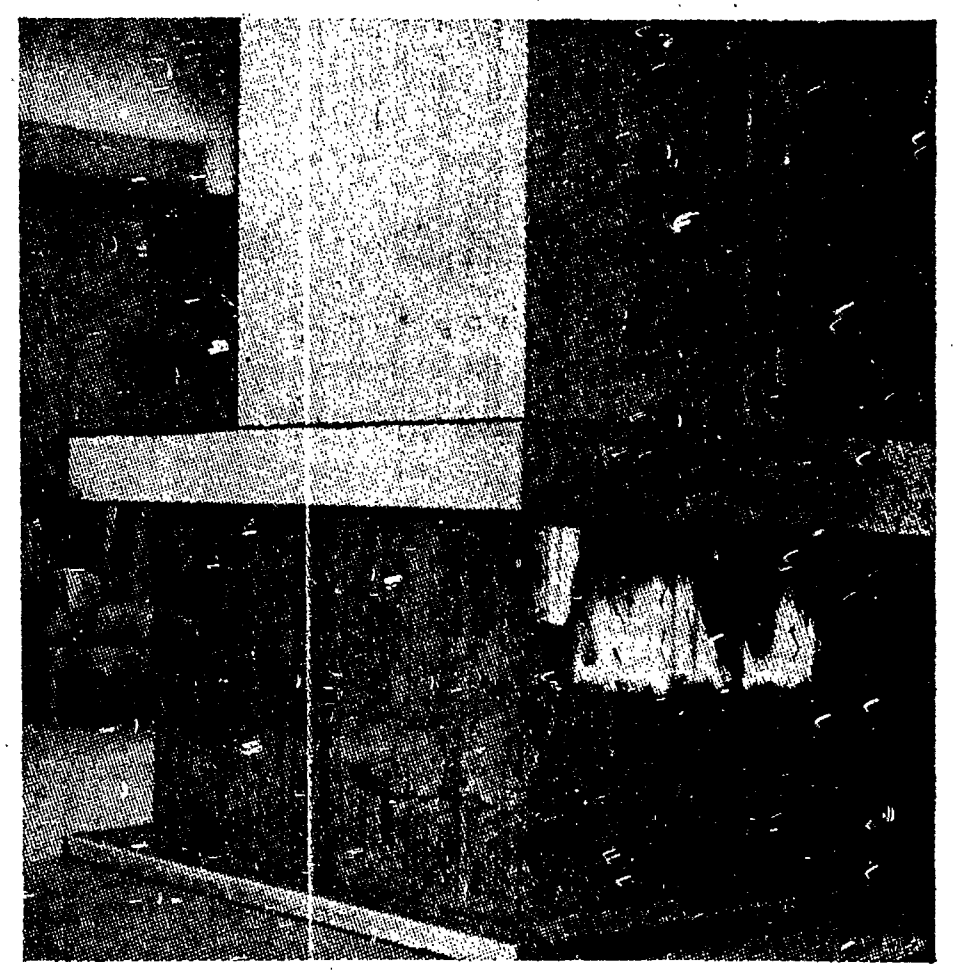

The best bargain in town today is a sheet of Christmas Seals. When you buy them you are buying health and happiness for yourself and for others too.
 In 1907, when Christmas Seals were first sold they were priced at one penny apiece. In that year Emily Bissell, who originated the Seal Sale in the United States, raised $3,000 for eight charity patients who had tuberculosis.
 Forty-nine years later the same little Christmas Seals are still costing only one penny each but they raised $24,000,000 in 1954 to support a nation-wide TB control program.
 What do you buy when you buy Christmas Seals? You buy help for the patient in the hospital who wants to return to normal living as a self-supporting individual able to fend and cloth his family. You are buying him assistance and training to return to his old job with more knowledge or fit him for a new job within his physical capacities.
 You are buying the assurance that everyone (children and adults) will receive the latest information on tuberculosis. Only through education to the dangers of TB and periodic chest X-rays can we hope to reduce the number of new TB cases which are found each year. And last year while 1,500 people died of polio in the United States, 16,000 men, women and children were killed by tuberculosis.
 Thirty cases of the disease have been traced to one person, who unknowingly has spread the germs to his family and friends.
 The Detroit Tuberculosis Sanatorium and the TB and Health Society have joined forces in one Seal Sale campaign so that when either the single bar cross Seals of the Sanatorium or the double bar cross Seals of the Society are purchased, all money raised will go into one fund for a strengthened TB control program.
 And what else are you paying for with your contributions to the Christmas Seals campaign? You are buying a summer vacation for hundreds of children at the Christmas Seal Camp at North Lake. You are giving money to research so that improved drugs will make it possible to save more lives among TB patients. You are giving money to scientists who hope that sometime in the near future there may be a vaccine which will wipe TB from the face of the earth.
 The Seal Sale is the sole support of the services of the Sanatorium and the TB Society. The Torch Drive does not contribute to the two organizations through mutual agreement.
 Last year the combined total of funds raised by the two organizations was $302,000.

Two Pointers Participate in Amphibious Exercise

NORFOLK, Va. (FHTNC)—Taking part in a major amphibious exercise on the southeast coast of the U. S. with the 2nd Marine Division, Camp Lejeune, N.C., was Marine Pfc. Frederick F. Horvath, son of Fred Horvath of 529 Notre Dame avenue, Grosse Pointe, Mich., and aboard the submarine USS Cubera was Kenneth R. Carlson, engineman first class, USN, of 1416 Wayburn, Grosse Pointe Park.
 The exercise, involving 80 ships, 347 aircraft and 42,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel, began October 19 and was climaxed by an amphibious assault on Onslow Beach, N. C., November 3.
 Supported by ships of the Atlantic Fleet, the Marines will land by helicopters, surface craft, sea planes, land planes and submarines. They were opposed by a simulated enemy force of Marine "aggressor" troops.
 The maneuver provided realistic training in all phases of amphibious warfare, including the simulated use of offensive and defensive atomic weapons.
 Twenty-five of the Detroit Lions' players are married.

Morning Musicales Holds First Concert of Season

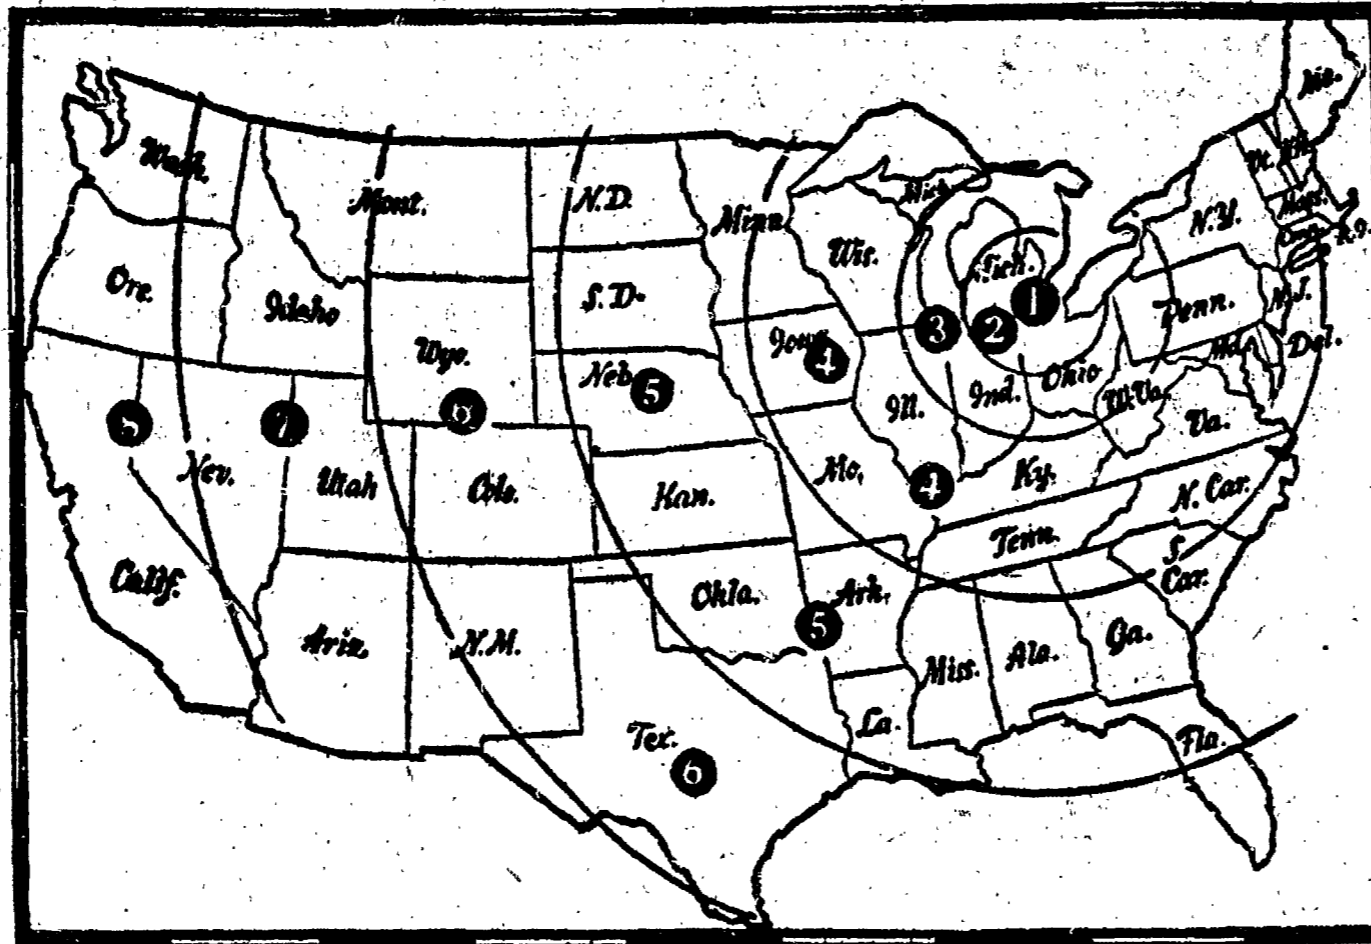

The Great Hall of the Country Club of Detroit resounded with strains of music by the masters when the Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales held its first concert of the season last Thursday, November 10.

Fresh from the tour of the East, three members of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra presented a fine concert of chamber music. They included Mischa Kottler, official pianist of the Detroit Symphony; Mischa Mischa-koff, concert master and violinist; and the young virtuoso and newcomer to the Detroit orchestra, Paul Olesky, cellist.

Assisting with the performance was young Grosse Pointer Milton Setzer of University road, pianist.

The next concert for the Grosse Pointe Morning Musicales will be held on December 1, at which time the group presents the well-known contralto, Carol Smith.

Make Yours Good Hunting

See to it that the days you spend in hunting contribute to your good health. Dr. Joseph G. Molner, Detroit commissioner of health advises. Both the exercise of tramping through the woods and the tranquility you find there should help relieve the tension caused by work and strain of city life.

Small game hunters should take precautions on two other counts — safe practices with fire arms and precautions against tularemia. Safeguards against accidents with guns should be thought through before the prospective hunter takes down his gun. These safety precautions should be adhered to rigorously until he puts it away for the season.

Dr. Molner reminds hunters that many wild rabbits have tularemia and the disease is sometimes found in squirrels, beavers, muskrats and other rodents.

Don't shoot a rabbit that is obviously sick or one that is slow or indicates in any way it is not a normal, wild rabbit.

Do not handle any rabbit that is found dead.

Wear rubber gloves when you dress or handle wild rabbits and be sure they are not pierced by a bone or knife.

Make certain that wild rabbit is cooked thoroughly so that no red meat or red blood remains.

Avoid testing the game while it is in the process of cooking.

Thorough cooking will destroy the germ that causes tularemia.

Any rabbit which has white spots on the liver should not be eaten.

Rabbits which are offered for sale in regular markets are safe to eat. All of them are sold under supervision by the Pure Food and Drug Administration and the Detroit Department of Health.

EVERYTHING YOU DO!

FROM THE MOMENT you awaken until you go to bed, almost everything you do is closely dependent upon the operation of trucks. In fact, even while you're asleep, trucks are working for you. (Beds arrive by truck, too, of course.)

Without trucks, your favorite food market would have empty shelves. Without trucks, you wouldn't find gas stations located conveniently almost everywhere you turn. Without trucks, the building of new homes, factories, and stores would slow to a walk and businesses of all kinds everywhere would suffer.

Sooner or later, everything you eat, wear, or use depends on trucks for transportation. Eventually, everything has to get to you—the consumer. So, when you consider that trucks haul three times the tonnage handled by all the other forms of transportation combined, you realize how very important they are to you!

Letter Carriers To Make Canvass

When Uncle Sam's letter carriers, aided in the various communities by the fire fighters, make their door-to-door rounds in the March for Muscular Dystrophy next Monday and Tuesday, November 21 and 22, they will be joined by teams of volunteer neighborhood helpers.
 Successful in their limited efforts in last year's campaign the mailmen, fire fighters and their fellow marchers hope to cover every home in every neighborhood in every section of the county during the two days.
 These workers are seeking to raise $200,000 which will enable the Muscular Dystrophy Association to carry on its clinical work, supply medicines, braces and otherwise ease the sufferings of the unfortunate victims of this dread malady.
 James H. Rademacher, campaign chairman, reports there are more than 200,000 persons afflicted with muscular dystrophy and two-thirds of them are children. There is no known cure and a majority of the present sufferers will die. They and future victims will continue to die until research finds an answer to the cause, a clue to prevention.
 "No one is immune," says Paul J. Militello, organizer of the drive. "There is no inoculation, no known defense. We are helpless until science can solve its mystery."
 "Seventy-five percent of the funds collected this year," continued Militello, "will be set aside for research, other portions will enable the Muscular Dystrophy Clinic in Detroit Memorial Hospital, to intensify its care of in-and-out-patients under the direction of Dr. Max K. Newnan.
 "Besides diagnosis, one clinic provides nursing care, muscular exercises, physical and occupational treatment. There are beds for patients needing hospital care. Therapists are engaged to activate the muscles and keep them in tone until such a time as research can provide the weapon to combat the disease.
 "All this takes money. The diners, quarters and dollars given the volunteer workers in their rounds enable us to carry on this humanitarian work. It is our great hope that every resident will greet his letter carrier, the fire fighter and the other volunteer workers with a suitable donation during the drive on November 21 and 22."
 Among the volunteers are teachers, members of the P-T-A, B'nai B'rith, the Navy League, fraternal groups and service clubs.
 Mrs. G. Mennen Williams is state chairman of the campaign which is being conducted in conjunction with the national March for Muscular Dystrophy. James A. Farley is National Chairman; Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, the noted TV and screen entertainers, are national co-chairmen.

Burt Boyar IN NEW YORK

STAREWAY TO THE STARS: Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., Aristotle Onassis and Joe DiMaggio adding to the Colony's glitter. . . Perry Como, of the Fore Hundred, swinging a putter around the dressing room between rehearsals. . . Audrey Hepburn fighting her way through Skirtland Yard to get a $600 dress wholesale. . . Tallulah Bankhead playing talk-thee-toe at Sardi's. At other tables a pair of heavyweights—Rocky Marciano and Jackie Gleason. . . Harry Hirschfield, the laughter dinner speaker, clomping on the hors d'oeuvres at Lindy's. . . Gloria Vanderbilt letting her hair grow but still appearing everywhere without make-up. . . Faye Emerson and Jean Pierre Aumont of B'way's "The Heavenly Twins" still ducking from the worst critic's blasts we've ever read. (Of course, on the other hand, it was the worst play we've ever seen!)

THE GOLDWYN GALA: Following the "Guys and Dolls" premiere Sam Goldwyn swung a little party at the Ambassador. He poured the shots heard round the world. Never have we seen so much glitter in one room, here in New York. Governor and Mrs. Harriman dropped in to say hello. . . Audrey Hepburn wore a pink satin dress, flats, white stockings and no nail polish or jewelry except a gold wedding band. . . Bogie arrived at the very gala black tie affair sporting a dark blue suit, light blue sleeveless sweater and bow tie. "Baby" Bogart wore a dressy, full length, sequined gown. . . Dagmar, wearing an emerald green off-the-body dress had a shape launching. Someone topped a glass of champagne all over her. . . The Jack Palances danced gingerly and everyone gave 'em room due to the apparent heir. . . Brando proved what a cornball he is. He dips when he dances, (hmmph). . . Janet Blair wore a tight red satin dress. . . Truman Capote walked into the glitter wearing a dear little green corduroy suit—his usual elf. . . He grabbed Lauren Bacall, swung her around the hardwood, and stooped to ask the band to play something from "House of Flowers," which he wrote. . . Jean Simmons didn't look like it was much fun at all. Maybe she missed her husband. Danced with everyone who asked, which was everyone. . . Esther Williams and Ben Gage did such a rugged Charleston that she popped one of her shoulder straps. . . Poor Tony DeMarco. The dancer to a maiden's prayer got stuck with one lead footed partner who waltzed like she was wearing open-toed satin football cleats. . . My little tyke, Jane (that's my wife) says Bella Darvi's gown was by far the most beautiful. Says it must have cost no less than $1500. . . We left at four a.m. and the champagne was still bubbling.

Jean Simmons dropped in for lunch with Jane and me the day after Sam Goldwyn's party. She ate only two boiled eggs and a salad with no dressing.

BEAU BROADWAY: Ironic that the Theater Guild's "Heavenly Twins" couldn't get a New York theater for months. So, they were forced to stay out on the road, touring here and there and playing to SRO business thanks to the star appeal of Emerson and Aumont. They finally got a legit house, came in and got clobbered to death by the critics. . . Did you know that Olivia de Havilland will turn singer in her next movie? (See?? You NEED me). . . Did I tell you about the Duke of Windsor? Well, seems as how he let the Duchess come here all by her lonesome in order to show the British people that her literary ambitions are her own and that he doesn't see lorgnette to lorgnette with her about the whole thing.

PARAGRAPHIC: Rocco Vocco, the music publisher, was recently in Chicago where he ran into Marty Snider whom Jimmy Cagney portrays in "Love Me Or Leave Me," the story of Ruth Etting's life. "What did you think of the way they handled you in the picture?" asked Vocco. "Those bums!" snarled the Gimp. "Those plumbers! Why, I never slapped Ruthie in my life. And that Cagney!! Ha! He expects an Academy Award for it? Why, he even gimped with the wrong leg!"

Heads Drive

FORREST A. HEATH
 Forrest A. Heath, a native of Grosse Pointe, was appointed chairman of the current YMCA campaign, according to Robert S. Curtiss, president of the YMCA of the City of New York.

The appeal is being conducted from November 1 through January 31 and will cost $600,000 to help continue the YMCA's service program to boys and young men and women through the organization's 18 branches in three of New York City's boroughs.
 In assuming his campaign duties Mr. Heath remarked:
 "The YMCA's principal goal during the coming year is to reduce the incidence of juvenile delinquency among teenagers in New York City. Plans are now ready to meet this need through prevention methods and expanded youth activities. To carry out this extra service to the community the YMCA has increased its annual campaign goal by $125,000 bringing the total amount sought this year to $600,000."
 Mr. Heath brings to his new post years of devoted service to the YMCA, both in Detroit and in New York City, where he is currently serving as member of the Board of Directors of New York City's YMCA.
 He is active in the affairs of the Brick Presbyterian Church and other civic organizations. He has served as president of the Beta Theta Pi Club of New York and also as president of the University of Michigan Club of New York.

Dinner Dance Planned For Memorial Hospital

Mrs. Elwood Jenkins is chairman of the December 3 dinner dance which Detroit Memorial Hospital Auxiliary members are giving at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club to mark the hospital's sixth anniversary.
 The party is not a benefit, but a social occasion for hospital staff, board of directors and auxiliary members.

Devils Start Cage Practice With But Single Letterman

With opening game just a matter of eight days away, basketball practice at Grosse Pointe High went into high gear as Coach Howard MacAdam tried to find a combination from his fifteen man squad.

As practice swung into its final week only letterman Hal Sommerschild was certain of a starting assignment. Actually Sommerschild is in a class by himself being the only letter winner from the 1954-55 squad to return.

The rest of the squad is made up of last year's second stringers and reserve team. It marks the first time in memory that the Pointers haven't had at least three letter winners around which to build a team.

Plenty of Height
However, Coach MacAdam can flower a team of six footers in Bob Moreland, Jerry Olson, Sandy Smith and Bill Leonard. Oddly enough only Sommerschild fails to touch the six foot mark, but his experience makes up for his lack in height. Of these five boys, only three will be around at the end of the season. Moreland and Olson will graduate in January.

By that time Coach MacAdam will have to find able replacements from last year's reserve players Ronnie Fine, Gordon Sachs, Bob Gilbert, Ken Gutow, Dick Dumas, Ken MacDonald, Dick Zuehlke, Tom Kaiser, Tom Demorest and Bob Ritter.

It was this group that posted an all time reserve scoring record while playing under reserve coach Bud Kurvink. It is very possible that one of these boys will emerge as a star before the 1955-56 campaign reaches its climax.

No Standouts Yet
So far pre-season practice has failed to uncover a single individual standout, as in past years.

Always in the past the Pointers have had one or two boys upon whom they could count to lead the way for the new boys coming up.

Coach MacAdam would not comment on the coming season this early but he figures his team will make a good showing if it can get off to a winning start against Dearborn on Friday, December 12.

This is a non-league game and the only one before the Pointers bump into Royal Oak in the first league game on Friday, December 12.

Both Away Games
Both games will be played away from home before the Devils will have a chance to show their wares before a home crowd in the spacious Grosse Pointe auditorium-gymnasium. Non-league Port Huron will have the honor of being the first team to use the new gym.

Looking at the league picture Fordson appears to rule as the pre-season favorite with the return of the Callaway twins. However, League champion Highland Park with its cagey coach Jim Wink hasn't begun to entertain the thought of giving up its spot in the throne room without a battle.

After these two teams it's anybody's guess with Royal Oak, Monroe, Wyandotte and Grosse Pointe being big question marks at this date. This year's race could wind up in a big scramble for top honors with one of the "dark horses" coming from nowhere to cop the bunting.

St. Paul Dads Organize Club

A meeting of the newly formed St. Paul's Dads Booster Club, was held on Wednesday, November 9, in the school's gymnasium, with a large number of fathers in attendance.

Rev. Fr. McGoldrick, spiritual director, outlined the functions of the new organization.

President Jack Neinstedt presided over the general meeting, and Coach Edward Lauer, athletic director, gave an evaluation of the school's athletic program. Principal speaker of the evening was "Diz" Trout, former Tiger pitcher, who also showed movies of the 1954 games played by the Detroit Lions, and talked on trout camps for young prospects.

Following the movies, the dads enjoyed coffee and doughnuts.

A bigger and better meeting has been planned for January. No specific date has been set yet.

Lead Trimmed In Bowling Loop

League leading Wigle and second place Barrett's tangled in one of the hottest matches in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League on Friday, November 4. It was a knock-down, drag-out affair with Barrett's clipping Wigle's for three points to move to within one point of first place.

However, Barrett's was forced to post a new three-game team high season record of 2760 pins which erased the previous high of 2756 held by the Wigle team. Wigle in turn posted a new team single game season high of 960 which eclipsed Barrett's single game record of 950 pins.

Norm Boarman was the hero for Barrett's when he paced the team with a high individual single game of 256 and a three-game mark of 631 pins. Both are new individual records for the season.

Reverse swept four points from G. P. Curtin and Boutin, did likewise over Turner Buick. Lochmoor and Belding won three points from Groesbeck and Adam Simms, respectively.

Two hundred plus scores were rolled by All Bell 204; Gil Petz 202; Jack Baker 201 and Bob Valade 200.

Wigle Keglers Stage Comeback

The Bruce Wigle team again took four points to increase their lead in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's League this week. The victim this time was the City Glass team (formerly Jack Groesbeck). Petz was high for Wigle with 522 and Williams for City Glass with 491.

Belding broke out with a run of strikes and spares as they whipped Barrett's 3 and 1. Mortonson was high for Belding with 524 and Sarkison for Barrett with 512.

Lochmoor led by Valade and Janson, each with a 535 series, got 3 out of 4 from the Revere team. Bayhan was high for Revere with 542.

Adam-Simms, by a spurt in the closing game, earned another point from the Boutin team. Gilstorf with a 528 was high for Adam-Simms and Kelley for Boutin with 508.

Turner, after dropping the first two games, came back strong in the last game to earn a split for the night with the Curtains. Bob Nash was high for Turner with 495 and Lewandowski for the Curtains with 540.

High scores were bowled by: Herb Miller, 232; Len Johnston, 216; Don Bayhan, 213; Herb Taube Jr., 212; Dee Williams, 211; Russ Alles, 208; Gil Petz, 205; Bob Valade, 204, 201; Tib Thibodeau, 203; Hal Mortonson, 201.

Sail Club Members Receive Awards

Grosse Pointe Sail Club trophy winners pose with their prizes which were awarded them at the club's annual award and election dinner held at the Detroit Yacht Club on Wednesday, November 9. The awards were for first, second and third place winners in both the power boat and sail boat season competition. Kneeling, left to right: JIM MCCARTHY (sail) and CHARLES TODD JR. (power.) Standing, left to right: EARL BLOHM (power), BUD WELLMAN (sail) season champion; DUKE HUBER (sail), ELMER SCHMIDT (power) and HORACE CRAIG (sail).

Stober's Retain Pin Loop Lead

A 602 series bowled by Heike helped Stober's team maintain its lead in the Grosse Pointers Bowling League when it took three points from eighth place Kennametal to boost its leadership over second place Piche's Barbers.

The barbers in turn clipped

Lusch for two points to stay two points ahead of third place Harper Sport Shop.

High single game for the night was posted by Heike with a 535. Stapleton, rolling for Rightenburgh TV which swamped Custom Pattern for three points, posted a 214 in his 554 three game series.

Hot Race Going In Bowling Loop

League leading Stober's saw their lead cut to one slim point, 20 to 19, over second place Piche in last week's pin action in the Grosse Pointers Bowling League.

Stober's bumped into a tough customer in third place Kopp's which was paced by Schoof's 537 series to take three of four points. Meanwhile Piche's were having trouble capturing two points from the tenth place Custom team.

Rosa's and Harper Sports Shop virtually marked time as they split four points to remain in a two-way tie for fourth place. Therssen paced Rosa's with a 582 series which was high for the night.

G. Mertz tumbled 532 pins for Redwood which took two points from last place Stewart to remain in seventh place. Eighth place Kennametal clipped the eleventh place Lusch squad for three points to complete the action. Lekich posted a 557 series to pace the winners.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells

Hank Burkard's famous "Meteor" II quietly slipped out of Bayview Yacht Club's harbor last Thursday, November 3, in the grey light of dawn and headed down river for points east with a final destination of Fort Lauderdale, Florida.

This was the first we knew that "Meteor" had been sold. A quick call to the likeable Burkard revealed that Harold Todd had purchased the beamy double ender and was taking her to Florida with a lone crew member, his wife Ruth.

This immediately brought the question to mind "How's your new boat coming along?" To this Hank replied he was going to East Booth Bay, Maine, at Thanksgiving to see builder Paul Luke and the 38 foot 6 inch cutter that he is building there for Hank.

The new yacht has a 10 foot 8 inch beam, 4 foot 4 inch draft which increases to 7 feet 2 inches with the centerboard down. It is a smaller version of Bradley Noyes' "Tioga" which performed so beautifully in the New York Yacht Club Cruise this year when she won six firsts and one second in seven starts. "Tioga" is 50 feet overall and has a rating lower than the fast New York 32's like Toot Gmeiner's "Apache," Clare Jacobs' "Falcon" and Pat Collin's "Vitesse." Hank's new cutter was designed by Aage Neilson of Marblehead.

The Burkard's, Hank and Millie, will go East around the first of May and bring the new yacht back here in time for the Detroit Yacht Club's Memorial Day regatta.

The Northeastern Division Church League opens basketball competition this Saturday, November 19. The three divisions of the Northeastern Church League will play each Saturday night between now and March 1. The public is invited to attend any of these games.

The Women's Division will play all of its games at the Christ Lutheran Church, 2411 Iroquois, corner Vernor. At 7 p.m., Boulevard Temple Methodist meets Gratiot Baptist; Christ Methodist plays last year's defending champion Mt. Zion Lutheran at 8 p.m.; and Bethany Presbyterian plays Christ Lutheran in the final game at 9 p.m.

The Men's Division will play its games at the Northeastern YMCA. The opening schedule is as follows: Bethany Presbyterian vs. E. Grand Blvd. Methodist at 7 p.m.; Grosse Pointe Baptist plays Cumberland Presbyterian at 8 p.m.; and Antioch Baptist meets Harbut Baptist, last year's defending champions, at 9 p.m.

The Boys Division plays a 6 o'clock game each Saturday at both Christ Lutheran and Northeastern YMCA. The schedule for the 19th is Grosse Pointe Baptist vs. Matthew & St. Peter's Evan. & Reformed at Christ Lutheran; and Immanuel Lutheran vs. Bethany Presbyterian at Northeastern Y.

Leonard Named Air Base Coach

Second Lt. Raymond C. Leonard, 70 Merrivewood road has been named coach of the 1955 Ellsworth Air Force Base basketball team.

Lt. Leonard is the base athletic officer at Ellsworth AFB, South Dakota, where he led the base football team to two championships as well as capturing the base tennis and badminton tournaments.

Lt. Leonard is a June, 1950, graduate of Grosse Pointe High School and a graduate of Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut.

Paul Christman, one of the Detroit Lions assistant coaches, formerly was one of the National Football League's finest quarterbacks and passers, while playing with the Chicago Cardinals.

son vice commodore, Clayton Kurth rear commodore, Harold Wainwright secretary and Clark Barton treasurer. The new officers will be formally introduced to the membership at the "Incoming Officers Dance," Saturday, November 19.

Edison's publicity man, Maurice Heinbecker, informs us that Pat Clancy once again captured the Club championship with Bob Greening and Bob Williams following in that order. Pat also won the DRYA catboat championship last September which marked the fourth time he has won that title. Clancy has won the Edison championship seven out of eight times.

The Detroit River Yachting Association will hold its annual fall meeting at the Detroit Yacht Club on Friday, November 25 at 8 p.m. At this time the 1956 officers will be elected. Commodore Murray Knapp will preside and be ready to turn over his gavel to vice commodore Bruce Tappan who will automatically move up as will rear commodore Hal Smith. To speculate on who will be elected to the rear commodore post is a dangerous business, but from past performance at local regattas we believe Paul Adam, past commodore of Grosse Ile Yacht Club, will be accorded the honor.

Bayview Yacht Club honored its champion sailors at its annual Award Dinner at the club last Tuesday, November 15. So honored were: Nubby Sarns (Revelry) Overall Chicago-Mackinac winner and DRYA Cruising A champion; Skip Grow and Carter Sales (Querida) DRYA Cruising B champion; Jimmy Carlin (Glory Sea II) Port Huron-Mackinac Overall Winner and DRYA Cruising C champion; Fred Runnells (Wind Toy) DRYA and Overall Privateer Season champion and North Channel overall winner; Gerd Schneider (Margaret M) Mills Trophy Cruising C winner; Dave Sloss (Kathmar III) Port Huron-Mackinac Cruising B winner; Phil Foskett (Sprig) DRYA Universal A champion and Wes Weidrick (Wee Dee) DRYA Lightning class champion.

The get together was highlighted by Bobby Bryant's beautiful color movies of the Bermuda and Rochester races.

Scout Carnival Set for Friday

Cubmaster A. R. Hancock has announced that Cub Scout Pack 290 will hold its annual Fall Carnival at Mason School on Friday, November 18, from 7-9 p.m. This is the big fun event of the year for the cubs of the ten dens and also serves as the only money-raising project of the pack.

Funds are used to purchase athletic equipment, Scout supplies, den materials and tools, and to finance the big annual picnic.

The Pack Committee, the den mothers and the 82 cubs have worked hard to make this a full evening of entertainment for all. Many interesting and exciting games will be available. Flying Saucers, Wishing Wells, Lion's Mouth, Ring Toss and all the other games will offer prizes for all who participate. Cartoon movies will offer opportunity to "rest" between games.

An outstanding feature of the carnival will be the Bake Sale. Cakes, pies, fresh bread, and other luscious pastries made by Pack 290 mothers will be for sale to parents, visitors, and cubs.

Friends of Cub Scouting, parents, and prospective cubs are especially invited to join the fun. Membership Chairman, Dr. Don Koch, TU, 4-4860, invites inquiries as to membership in this pack.

Very Green St. Paul Squad Vies for Berths on Varsity

The St. Paul basketball picture is painted in various shades of green and coach Eddie Lauer is holding his head these days bemoaning the fact he hasn't a single veteran back from last year.

Not only is the fifteen boy squad inexperienced but they are short in stature. Only two boys are over the six-foot mark and both have had only reserve varsity experience. Sophomore Gary Anderson and Junior Bill Vermeulen touch the tape at 6 feet 5 inches. The rest of the first ten boys are under six feet. For the most part the squad will average about 5 feet 9 inches, which is considered short for a championship contender.

Veterans Missed
Sorely missed will be the play of Bob Wright, who is playing on the freshman team at the University of Michigan; Big Jim Ayrault, who is a member of the freshman squad at St. Benedict's in Kansas and Tim Trombly, who is playing at Ferris Institute here in Michigan.

chial championship last year. This team will be Tom Kolojeski, Dave Ayrault, Tim Hutton, Pat Wright and John Jantz along with Tom Wright who played with St. Clare's eighth grade team last year. So where the varsity appears green and undoubtedly a BIG question mark this year Coach Lauer can look through rose colored glasses to next year.

Regardless of how the Flyers varsity fares this year the St. Paul student body will be out in force cheering their team on in the beautiful new gymnasium on the Grosse Pointe High campus. They are all happy to have found a home at last. The Flyers in the past were like traveling orphans playing in band boxes all over the East side of town. You can be sure the Flyers students will not do anything to jeopardize the use of the new court.

'Compact Day' To Be Observed

The Society of Mayflower Descendants in the state of Michigan will commemorate "Compact Day" at a dinner to be held in the Veterans' Memorial Building on Saturday, November 19. The guest of honor will be National Governor General Waldo Morgan Allen of Chicago, Ill.

This organization is pledged to perpetuate the memory of the Pilgrim Fathers and to cherish and maintain the ideals and institutions of American freedom. The Compact which was signed in the cabin of the Mayflower on November 21, 1620, has been called the "cornerstone of civil and religious liberties of the United States."

Walter Glenn Scott is Governor of the State Society.

Grosse Pointe is well represented in the society: Mrs. Henry E. Joy is Deputy Governor General of the National Society.

The following are members of the State of Michigan Society:

Miss Margaret Grant is Deputy Governor; Mrs. Lloyd DeWitt Smith is chairman of the ways and means committee; Glen Warner is chairman of the public relations committee.

Other Pointe members are Mrs. William B. Howard, Kenneth M. Lander, Mrs. William B. Lowe, Russell H. Lucas, Mrs. Herbert W. Mandel, Colburn W. Standish, Mrs. Charles W. Turner and Dr. Silas W. Wallace.

Also Gilbert A. Grant, Martin B. Hutchinson, Mrs. Arthur M. Parker, Mrs. William F. Rossiter, Harold F. Wardwell, Miss Anne B. Parker and Christopher J. A. Parker.

The other two members of the 1954-55 Flyer squad, John Wade and Dick Allor, are doing their part in the armed forces. Bob Keller and Job Bejin, Wade's alternates last year, are attending Michigan and GM Tech, respectively, but not playing ball.

Coach Lauer got a break when Dan Sheridan, a junior, transferred from Visitation this fall. Danny already has clinched a starting assignment in the Flyers' non-league opener against De La Salle, Tuesday, December 6, away from home. Danny stands 5 feet 11 inches which matches another starter, Chuck Gallucci, a senior.

Two Wage Battle
Seniors Ken Oxley, Bud Rowland, sophomore Terry Wright and Junior Terry Hutton touch the tape at 5 feet 10 inches and are currently battling for the remaining starting assignments.

The Flyers have been practicing every night in Grosse Pointe's spacious new gymnasium and according to Coach Lauer the large court will force the Flyers to change their style of play which in the past has been so successful.

However, Coach Lauer feels his team will play a much better brand of ball if the boys can grasp the new fast break game he is teaching them for the coming campaign. Actually the Flyers can floor two complete teams if necessary but neither can boast of varsity experience. However, they have at least a full season of reserve varsity competition under their belts and know that a basketball is round and it must go through the hoop to score points.

Others in Contention
Other players hoping to crack the wide open starting team are Sophomores Russ Beaupre (5-7), Tom Parker (6-1), and Seniors Bob Kennedy (5-5), Dick Lettscher (6-0).

In the Flyers league Coach Lauer looks for trouble from St. Bernard's all-veteran team which went all the way to the state semi-finals and from St. Thomas whose coach seems to pick good players from out of the blue. Lauer ranks his own team about third in his pre-season analysis. Nativity, St. Rose, St. Phillip, Annunciation and St. Martin should follow in that order in the final standings.

Reserves Look Good
Coach Lauer is particularly pleased over his reserve team which is the Flyers' eighth grade team, which won the city Paro-

Former Pointe Student Writes Winning Essay

Donna Stewart, former Grosse Pointe High School student, wrote the winning essay in a contest held by the senior class journalism students of Burbank High School in Burbank, Calif.

Donna's essay, "What a Free Press Means to Me", was published in the Burbank Daily Review during the paper's observance of National Newspaper Week.

While in the Pointe Donna made her home with her grandmother, Mrs. James Partridge of Lakepointe avenue. Donna and her mother, Mrs. Nola Stewart, have lived in Burbank for the past two years.

How to be sure you are making the best buy in a new truck

A new truck is an important investment. If you want to be sure you're getting the best buy, you've got to consider a lot of things: price, power, operating economy, good appearance—to mention only a few.

Take price, for instance. Wouldn't it help you to know that you can buy a Dodge for surprisingly little money? Could be you didn't know Dodge trucks cost less than most other makes.

Wouldn't it help you, too, to get the whole picture on truck power? The fact that Dodge Power-Dome V-8's outpower every other leading truck in the low- and medium-tonnage fields surely is important to your decision.

And there are other Dodge advantages you'll want to think about—like the business-building beauty of Forward Look styling, and the long life that spreads low initial cost over years of dependable service.

It all adds up to this: To be sure of your best truck buy, take a few minutes to talk to your Dodge dealer. Just a phone call will put the wheels in motion.

who, where and whatnot

by ubooziz

That peaked Robin Hood hat of brown velvet with the fine feathered antenna belongs to Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford . . . who donned the pert chapeau while she tended to a few errands along Kercheval on the Hill.

Vivacious Mrs. Henry Klein wears one of the prettiest homemaker's costumes as she whips around her Touraine road home. It's a charming full-skirted peasant ensemble, pink jumper printed in blue (over a white ruffled petticoat), lace-trimmed white blouse with puffed sleeves, and blue leather ballet shoes . . . and it adds a nice dash of color to a dull November day.

Time marches on: Said one kindergarten tot to another as they sat before the TV set watching the popular noonday comics, "Oh, I saw that cartoon years and years ago." Wonder what his comment will be when he starts watching those ancient midnight movies on television?

White Christmas Ball committee members got writers' cramp the other day addressing and mailing out invitations for their December 3 gala which benefits St. John's Hospital. What with almost forgetting to include return envelopes addressed to Ticket Chairman Mrs. Ray Whyte (via which all ticket returns are to be made in advance). They were in such a dither by lunchtime that no one wanted to take minutes out to eat. One of the lasses saved the day when she pulled out her Slenderella pills and passed them around to sustain her chums through the whole clerical ordeal.

You must have seen the gobs of weekend publicity showing circus Emmet Kelly receiving news of the birth of his daughter, Stasia, from his wife Evie via long distance telephone.

Possibly you don't know that the baby was named after the Kelly's friend of longstanding, Mrs. Theodore Buhl, the former Anastasia Reilly, who answers to the briefer "Stasia".

PILFERINGS

Volunteering as a blood donor at a Texas hospital, a young woman was asked by the nurse, "Do you know your type?"

"Oh, yes," came the reply. "I'm the sultry type."

The meek little man approached a policeman on the street corner.

"Excuse me, officer," he said, "but I've been waiting here for my wife for over an hour. Would you be kind enough to order me to move on?"

Visitors on Cape Cod marveled that the owner of a general store could supply his customers' needs, considering the chaotic appearance of his merchandise.

Last summer a sign appeared above the store entrance which said "Store of Three Wonders

- 1—You Wonder — If I Have It
- 2—I Wonder—Where It Is
- 3—Everybody Wonders—How I Find It"

A young couple from the States were temporarily living in Sao Paulo. One morning the wife telephoned the manager of their apartment house to ask that somebody come up with a passkey her husband had left for work, taking both keys by mistake, and she was locked in. A half hour passed and she called again, pleading to be let out.

Almost in tears after two hours of repeated futile calls, she phoned her husband's place of business. Hurrying home, he confronted the manager and demanded an explanation.

"But that is the Senor's affair," was the manager's bland reply. "If the Senor wants his wife locked in, she will stay locked in."

Bennett Cerf reports about an actress describing her new play to playwright George S. Kaufman. "There's no scenery at all," she explained. "In the first scene, I'm on the left side of the stage and the audience has to imagine I'm eating dinner in a restaurant. Then in scene two, I run over to the right side of the stage, and the audience imagines I'm in my drawing room."

"And the second night," nodded Kaufman, "you have to imagine there's an audience out front."

St. Joan Plans 'Turkey Trot'

A post-Thanksgiving square dance will be given Saturday, November 26, from 8:30 till 11:30, in St. Joan of Arc Auditorium, Overlake and Mack, St. Clair Shores. Julie and Wes Rea of Hampton road are doing the calling for this "Turkey Trot," as well as for the future squares on January 21, and April 23. The planning committee includes Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Luber of Hawthorne road, chairman; Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Susalla, of Roslyn road; Mrs. Norman Lodewyck of Beaufort avenue; and Mrs. J. Harold Meech of Hawthorne road.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. CHARLES BELTZ OF LAKELAND AVENUE

By Kitty Marriott

Pointers are doing many jobs, both good and important, but one which should make other communities sit up and take notice is the comprehensive task of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and Television Council. Mrs. Charles Beltz is currently at the helm of that group.

The council, composed of representatives from all the schools and churches in Grosse Pointe, checks current movies and television shows. It then issues regular bulletins grading the entertainment on its degree of desirability for youthful audiences.

Requests Started Move

The idea for the council, according to Mrs. Beltz, originated with Miss Florence Severs, who received many calls asking about movies for children when she was librarian at the old library in Pierce Junior High school. In 1936, Miss Severs (who retired not long ago) began compiling a list regularly from magazines coming into the library.

Starting with one representative from each public school, the Council was formed in 1941 through the Grosse Pointe Board of Education. The following year, delegates joined from all the Pointe's parochial schools, and the year after that, representatives of the various churches were added.

Mrs. Daniel Hembel, who was the group's first president in 1943, is serving as parliamentarian now. Mrs. Miles McKee, who immediately preceded Mrs. Beltz as president, is Mothers Club president at Grosse Pointe High School.

First step in checking movies is obtaining listings of coming attractions from the eight local theaters and Mrs. Beltz can't praise the theatre managers highly enough for their splendid cooperation. Often, they have pulled objectionable films for Saturday matinees and substituted other pictures at considerable additional expense.

Check Various Listings

Next, council members check Parents Magazine, Consumers Research and the National Legion of Decency listings on films. They never recommend a movie that any of the three turns down . . . which makes their ultimate product a very select list.

Every month during the school year, 5600 Grosse Pointe school children in grades three through six carry home the Motion Picture Council's bulletin. These copies are mimeographed by Miss Frances French's office procedure class at the high school. The list is also printed in high school and junior high school newspapers.

In addition to movies, Mrs. Beltz explained, the bulletin mentions the children's symphony, plays being given for youngsters by the Junior League or college theater groups, and similar entertainment which the council sees fit to recommend.

Start Film Library

In 1948, the Motion Picture Council gave a big fashion show and used the $2000 profit to start a 16 millimeter film library for Grosse Pointe. The films are free of charge for Pointe people to use for children's birthday parties or any other occasion. Council members are making arrangements now for a real Hollywood preview in the spring, with funds again going to the film library.

At the suggestion of Dr. James Bushong, Grosse Pointe superintendent of schools, the Motion Picture Council stepped into the television field in 1951—thus becoming the Motion Picture and TV Council. Their TV bulletin accompanies report cards home twice a year. Here's an idea of the work that goes into that:

Each Has Assignment

Twice a year for three weeks, the council's 102 members are asked to watch as many television programs as they possibly can. In addition, each woman is assigned three programs on which she is to turn in a detailed report. The members use the NARTB (National Association of Radio and Television Broadcasters) code, rating the programs on moral, ethical, educational and cultural content for children, youth or family audiences.

Mrs. Richard Warner, representing Mason School, heads the TV committee. They have the unenviable assignment of compiling all ratings from council members.

All members are asked to keep two-cent postcards on hand and whenever they like or dislike a particular program, to drop the sponsor a line telling him why.

Hold Regular Meetings

Thirty-four representatives from Grosse Pointe schools and churches and from the American Association of University Women hold monthly council meetings at the library.

Besides her presidential duties, Mrs. Beltz serves on the board of the Grosse Pointe High School Mothers' Club, is treasurer of Ixex Club and maintains a household for her husband and their five children.

Son Bob, 17, is a freshman at Alma College, and the only freshman on the college debating team which tours the state. Bonnie, 15, is a sophomore at Grosse Pointe High. Homer, 14; Tommy, 7, and Carol, 5, all attend Marie School.

Officers Listed

Officers assisting Mrs. Beltz to carry on the Motion Picture and TV Council's work are: Mrs. O. R. Wilcoxon, representing Richard School, vice-president; Mrs. Minard Mumaw, Grosse Pointe Congregational Church, recording secretary; Mrs. Charles Johnson, Our Lady Star of the Sea Catholic Church, corresponding secretary; Mrs. M. T. Bem, Grosse Pointe High School, treasurer. Mrs. W. R. Hill, Grosse Pointe Presbyterian Church, heads the Motion Picture committee. Mrs. Thomas Cashin, Jr., Grosse Pointe High School, is membership chairman.

Good Taste

Favorite Recipes of People in The Know

GERMAN APPLE PIE

Contributed by Mrs. H. J. Eckfeld

Line a 9-inch pie tin with your favorite crust, rolled very thin. Sprinkle minute tapioca over pastry bottom. Arrange quartered apples with rounded side up and fill pan as full as possible.

For topping, mix 1 c. sugar and 1 t. flour with just enough water to make it drizzly (as distinguished from sirupy). Drizzle 3/4 cup of this mixture over apples; add cinnamon, nutmeg and a little salt.

Bake in 400° oven for 20 minutes. Add remaining sugar mixture and bake about 20 minutes longer.

Top with a dab of ice cream or whipped cream to serve.

(Cooking hint: Macintosh, Northern Spy or a quick-cooking apple gives best results.)

Center to Hold College Dance

As in the past, students home from various colleges and universities are invited to attend the annual Thanksgiving Dance at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial on November 25.

This gala affair from 9 p.m. to midnight will provide everyone an opportunity to see old friends for the first time since the fall semester began. Of course there will be dancing to a terrific trio, refreshments, and intermission entertainment.

Admission is $1.50 per couple.

Pointe Garden Club to Meet

Pointe Garden Club members will hold their luncheon and meeting at 1 o'clock Monday afternoon, November 21, in the N. Oxford road home of Mrs. Kenneth M. McCall.

Mrs. Sterling S. Sanford, Mrs. Herbert D. Schmitz and Mrs. Raymond C. Walk will assist the hostess.

Miss Sarah Van Hoesen Jones will show pictures and talk about her European trip.

Guild to Hold Christmas Sale

The Women's Guild of Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church, Lakepointe and Kercheval, is going to hold the Annual Christmas Sale on Friday, November 18, in the church basement, starting at 1 o'clock.

They will have a large assortment of various hand made articles, as well as home made baked goods on sale—nothing over $2.00. Tea will be served from 2 o'clock until 4 p.m. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7 p.m., and later in the evening there will be a coffee hour.

There are the turkeys, crisp and crackling, there are the sparkling cranberry molds and traditional sweet potatoes puffed on pineapple rings. And those centerpieces? The ones that look like Thangsgiving . . . the candles fashioned like ears of corn . . . the pumpkin candles? They came from the florist, on the hill, Arthur Paselk. The candles could have been chunky or sophisticated and slender. The flowers could have been arranged in your own bowls and vases. Huge turkey figurings are in his collection of attractive centerpieces, too. Why not have one made up to suit your taste? 73 Kercheval, TU. 5-8224.

We are aware of the fact that you have had your own sneak preview of your color prints . . . but have you decided to share them with your friends this Christmas? It's possible because the Camera Center, in the village, is featuring beautiful new color cards as low as twenty-seven cents complete. This includes the color print and greeting card. Watch, they have a big selection of black and white cards . . . made from your own favorite snaps.

When she puts that stack of shiny records on her record player she wears dress up separates . . . and practical ones at that . . . a washable white cotton blouse with beige and black, or gray and black embroidery . . . sprinkled with rhinestone glitter. For this she paid seven ninety-five. She chose a satin cummerbund from a collection of gray, toast, red, gold, black, and turquoise. The little tag read five dollars. She completely lost herself on this buying spree because she ended up with tapered velveteen slacks . . . red, gold, rust, and black for fourteen ninety-five from Irving's new shop, on the hill.

She is furred siren in a white cashmere dripping with Canadian white fox from Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

It is Schiaparelli p. j.'s for men of imported silk broadcloth . . . dee-vine . . . the prate pink top with royal blue trousers for the gay blades . . . and for the conservative set, take a gander at the maize and grey combinations. Kilgore and Hurd, 92 Kercheval, on the hill.

It's plausible isn't it that Gorham, Towle and International Silver are recognized as America's greatest names in silver. These are traditions and maybe you have, or know someone, who would be thrilled with new pieces . . . even though they are discontinued lines. Pongrazz Jewelers, on the hill, are now taking orders on just such fill-ins for discontinued lines from now until Christmas. Good idea, 91 Kercheval, TU. 1-6400.

The favorite hat with many men are genuine Tyrolean velour hats made in the little town of Dinkelsbabe, in Western Germany by Anton Peschel. Before The World War Mr. Peschel exported them from Austria. They are artful and handsome . . . complete with braided band . . . and are just begging to be worn. They come in hunter green, teak brown and navy. Fifteen dollars. Higgins and Frank, on the hill.

Three classic dresses fashioned by McMullen are sure to steal your applause. Each one is wise to the ways of Grosse Pointe women . . . and each it quietly, oh very quietly, luxurious. One has a simple jewelry neckline . . . one is a button down the front style with a tiny flat collar . . . another has an open pointed collar. All are made of Forstman's Chareen Gabardine and are sixty-nine ninety-five. Margaret Rice's, 76 Kercheval, on the hill.

Shoe tinting is an art. Now, as always, it's an important feature of the Shoe Salon at Walton-Pierce. Here, shoes can be tinted to match your gown . . . of course, white satin slippers suitable for tinting are available, too. Quick, efficient service. And the tinting? Makes you think of Rembrandt, Walton-Pierce, Kercheval at St. Clair, in the village.

What man doesn't love a robe . . . for it's looks, it's warmth, it's character? His fondness for a vieilla robe begins with an appreciation of it's bulkless "body" . . . it's weightless warmth. He treasures it's texture . . . and the way it mellow with age. These take to the suds . . . are expert in quality, and workmanship and will give long faithful service. In checks and tartan plaids for tuxty-nine ninety-five at the S. Stein and Co., in the village.

It's yours if you've never met the boy you could wrap around your finger . . . it's a blend of rose and sandalwood named for it's creator, M. Dior. Of course, we're alluding to Miss Dior perfume and it's featured in cologne, too, at Irving's new shop, on the hill.

Discovered Tuesday that the boys can be outfitted in dress shirts and ties at Kilgore and Hurd, 92 Kercheval, on the hill. Sizes 8 to 16 and neck sizes 11 to 13 1/2.

The perfect compliments to a sweater's soft luxury are ribbons, jewels, and embroideries. This is your cue. When you think of decorated or decorative sweaters for gifts, think of Walton-Pierce. Found pale pink with red strawberries . . . low neckline. A brief one in grey . . . lined with white . . . trimmed with white beading. Velveteen appliques of posies an dembriddered stems were on another. Walton-Pierce, Kercheval at St. Clair, in the village.

Talk about Turkey! If you fill-in the convenient order blank at the meat counter of the A&P, in the village, you will get your favorite Turkey OR Poultry without confusion or disappointment.
