

URGES 'YES' VOTE ON SCHOOLS

HEADLINES of the WEEK

As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, January 12
MICHIGAN lawmakers met briefly during their first session of the Legislature. First on the agenda was a death-penalty bill introduced by Rep. Harry T. Emmons, Byron Center Republican. The bill called for execution of killers over 21 years of age, and for those convicted of raping or injuring kidnap victims under 17.

ROBERT VEZZOSI, former Dearborn councilman, pleaded guilty in Federal Court to falsifying a financial statement when he was manager and treasurer of the Ford Rouge Employees Credit Union. It is believed that his admission of guilt on the first of six counts against him would be cause enough to have him removed from the Dearborn job given him while he was under indictment. He was named Dearborn housing director, which pays $8,000 a year, by Mayor Orville L. Hubbard. Mayor Hubbard could not be reached for comment. Vezzosi, of 6050 Appoline, made his plea before Judge Thomas P. Thornton. Vezzosi could be sentenced to five years in prison or pay a fine of $10,000.

BRITAIN will start flying 1,500 paratroopers to the Middle East, to meet any emergency which might arise. The troops will be used to reinforce the Cyprus garrison.

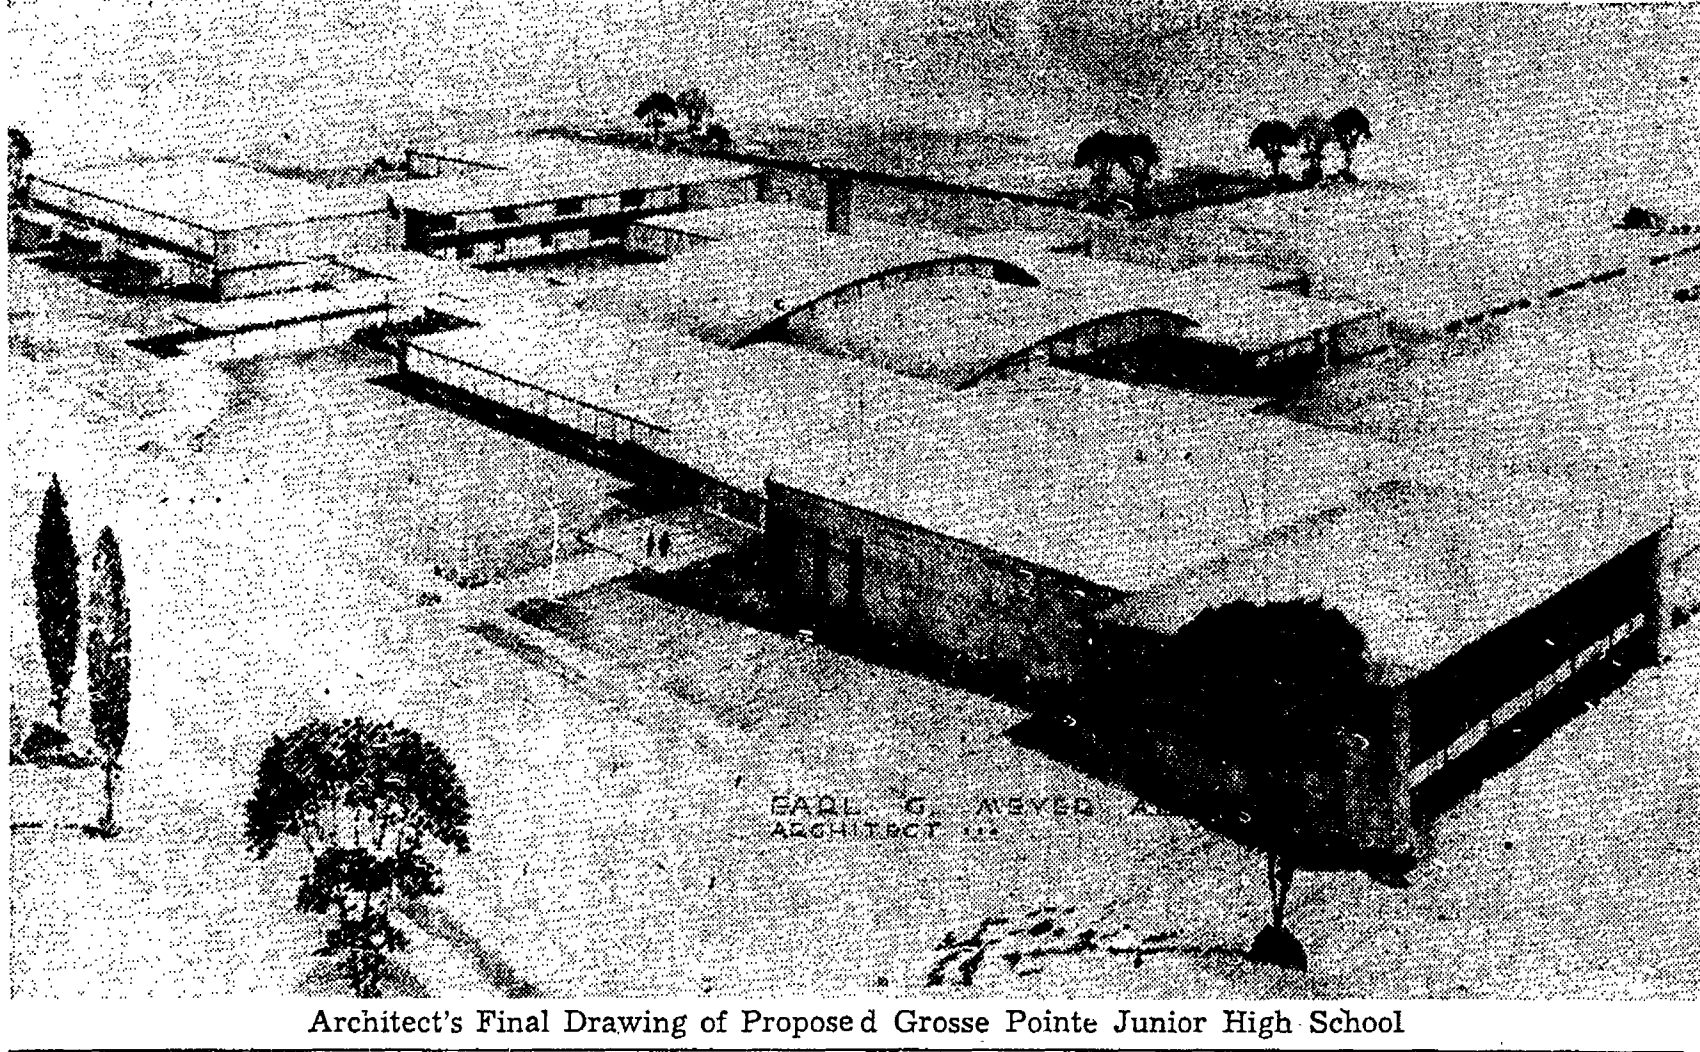

Friday, January 13
GOV. WILLIAMS, in a formal address to the Legislature, asked for laws and $100,000 in State funds so that atomic power and automation can be developed into a blessing instead of a calamity for labor and industry. He also asked for a stepped up educational program from grade school through college, speeded up highway construction, more mental hospitals and new labor, farm and industrial legislation. His main emphasis, however, was on automation and the need of a State commission to keep abreast of technological advances in industry.

THE BRINKS ROBBERY in Boston has been solved after six years, it was reported by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The FBI arrested six members of the gang in the Boston area and are still searching for two others. Crime history was made on January 17, 1950, when a gang of robbers entered Brinks headquarters, garbed in Halloween masks, and walked off with $1,218,211.25 in cash and $1,557,183.83 in checks, money orders and other securities. Besides the two still being sought, two gang members are said to be in prison on other charges and one member is listed as dead. Police say none of the loot has been recovered.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER has asked Congress for billions for school aid. He asked Congress for $1,250,000,000 in Federal grants available over the next five years for the school aid with $250,000,000 a year grants being matched by the states. An incentive formula should be instituted, the Chief Executive said, to insure the neediest states an adequate supply, with "laggard" states getting less. Also asked for in the Federal program are advances to assist state-school financing agencies, government purchase of local school bonds and aids to develop better local financing programs.

Saturday, January 14
BRITAIN is putting the final touches to a draft paper for a joint United States-Britain policy in the Middle East, which will be presented to President Eisenhower and Secretary of State Dulles at the end of the month. The draft paper will be presented in the person by British Prime Minister Anthony Eden and Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd, when they visit Washington. The aim is to establish common priorities to guide the two Western powers in their struggle to block Red penetration into the oil-rich region. Cooperation with the U. S. is a (Continued on Page 17)

Council Rips School Plan On Parking

Renew Offer on Pier For Student Drivers; Seek Meeting

Farms Councilmen have asked a meeting with the Board of Education to discuss the latter's offer to make the Richard school auxiliary playground available for part time public parking. The board had asked that during school hours it be reserved for high school student driving training. Before asking the conference with the board several councilmen indicated they would request their offer to make the Farms pier-park available to the student drivers.

Seek Full Time Space

In return, they indicated they wanted part of the Richard auxiliary playground behind the Hill shopping area set aside for full time public parking.

Cites Greater Size

Councilman Edward C. Roncy, Jr., said: "We have offered the use of the park before. Our park is more than twice the size of the section the Board proposes to develop in the playground. The park is better conveniently located, better developed and before long will be hard surfaced. I would like to see the Board use the park for its program, for which in return, they could set aside a small portion of the playground as a permanent parking lot." (Continued on Page 2)

'Future of U. S. Women' Is Theme of Lecture As Center Series Opens

Harold Taylor, Sarah Lawrence College President, to Address Pointe Groups Friday, Jan. 20; Mrs. Sherman Hails 'Response'

Harold Taylor, president of Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, N.Y., Friday will open an exciting lecture series for women which is unique in Grosse Pointe. Aimed at meeting the challenge which today's complex living poses for women, the sessions have been organized by the Grosse Pointe Branch of the American Association of University Women.

Taylor also is a firm advocate of the theory that one should dents put most of their energies into what interests them most, and that optimum growth is most likely when a student wants to learn, and the teacher supplies her with the means of learning.

Enviably Record
An educator with an enviable record, Taylor is also a hard-driving executive and author of scores of magazine articles, pamphlets and books published here and abroad. He is recognized as a national authority on the instruction of young American women.

PRES. HAROLD TAYLOR

His educational philosophy puts emphasis on working and doing, as well as on studying and understanding. He believes that more is gained when students know and understand all sides of a question, including such theories as Communism, and why many leaders of Asia, for instance, prefer Communism to Democracy.

Personal Philosophy

Speaking on "Moral Values and Education" before the annual meeting of the New York City AAUW branch at a 1954 symposium on women's education, Taylor had this to say: "I am tired of hearing that the modern world has deprived life of its meaning, that the ideals of classical civilization have been shattered. "I am weary of people who claim we are lost, bewildered, frustrated, neurotic, decadent, uncertain, threatened, immoral, corrupt and generally doomed. Some people say. Some aren't." A fair summary of Taylor's views might lies in this statement: "The search for a personal philosophy begins when we realize the need, for one, when we see clearly that unless we believe deeply in ourselves and our values, we will lose our own individuality."

Bond Issue Wins Added Support From Community

16 Organizations and Hundreds of Individual Voters Pledge to Back School Program at Polls

Hundreds of additional Grosse Pointe citizens have advised the Board of Education that they favor the school bond issue and redistricting proposal which voters will decide on Tuesday, January 24. Mrs. Mary Clough, 413 Neff road, City secretary-treasurer of Aristo Corp., and Mrs. Margaret Evans, 19670 E. Kings Ct., Woods, co-owner of Evans Flying Service, are members of the program committee planning the January 25 dinner meeting of Soroptimist International of Detroit at the Women's City Club.

"Color Comes Calling" will be the theme of the meeting, when Mary Ellen Gladden of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, will give a one hour demonstration on color and its use in the home.

Such programs are a regular bi-monthly activity of Soroptimist International of Detroit, a service organization devoted to community service.

At the January 25 meeting Mrs. Gladden will present popular color schemes for the home, give basic color rules, and show how color ideas can be blended with drapery, upholstery, wall and accessory combinations to help homemakers solve decorating problems. She will use new fabrics to illustrate her points.

Set Dedication At Poupard

Dedication of the Poupard Elementary School Addition will be held on Sunday, January 22 at 2 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Featured in the brief dedication ceremony will be superintendent James W. Bushong, Board of Education President James W. Lee II, and Principal John Hammel.

Chairman of ceremonies will be P.T.A. President Richard Young.

Following the dedication an Open House will be held and the addition will be open for inspection until 5 p.m.

Just four years ago the original structure was dedicated—January 20, 1952. Some 271 children were enrolled in those first classes. Today, 678 children attend Poupard School, a gain of 407 in four years.

The addition to Poupard virtually doubles the capacity of the school, since it is as large as the original building. It includes two kindergartens, 11 classrooms, a library, and new storage spaces. Besides, the gym has been doubled in size and equipped with folding doors. A new teachers' room has been provided.

Parents, patrons and all citizens of the Grosse Pointe community are invited to the Dedication-Open House. The Dedication Committee includes Young, Mrs. Robert Ungewitter, P.T.A. secretary, Mrs. Raymond Gielegem, director, and Mrs. Norman Geltz, and Mrs. Harold Mumma, parents, and Mrs. Hammel.

SHEATHING LUMBER

By putting sheathing lumber on a house frame diagonally, much greater strength is added to the home, according to the West Coast Lumbermen's Association. Popular Douglas fir and west coast hemlock sheathing lumber not only affords great strength in the frame of a home but provides a naturally-grown insulation because of the open cellular structure of wood.

Pointe Teens Fight Polio

DIANNE LONGYEAR, chairman of GP Junior High's "Teens-against-Polio" Drive, signed up VAUGHN MONROE, popular recording star who recently visited the March of Dimes Detroit Headquarters.

As their part in the "Teens-against-Polio" campaign of the March of Dimes, teen-agers of GP Junior High School will join other teen-age groups in sponsoring the "peanuts-for-polio" drive on Saturday, January 21. Junior High teen-agers participating in the drive include:

Seeks Release Of Tax Records

Business firms with large payrolls are asked by District Director A. M. Menninger of the Internal Revenue Service to release 1955 W-2 tax withholding statements to their employees as soon as possible, to help expedite the filing, payment and adjustment of many individual taxpayer returns.

Upon receipt of their W-2s, the director pointed out, thousands of taxpayers will be able to prepare their income tax forms at once and send them in to his office. The address to which the income tax returns should be sent is District Director, Internal Revenue Service, Detroit 31, Michigan. Make checks or money orders payable to Internal Revenue Service. Please don't send cash, the revenue office asks.

"To hundreds of our citizens," Mr. Menninger said, "the withholding tax represents their entire tax indebtedness. In some cases there may be a small overpayment or underpayment. We would appreciate taxpayers' cooperation in completing their returns and getting them in to us at once. That will help take care of the heavy work load during the deadline period.

"Our office will be glad to help taxpayers with problems. To insure assistance in preparing your tax forms, come in or call us early."

The director stated that all offices in Detroit and other major cities in Michigan will be open every week day from January 16 through February 17, with a full staff to help taxpayers with their problems. Taxpayers are urged to take advantage of this period and thereby avoid the rush.

Haass Gifts Go on Display

A Peruvian Indian mask of thin hammered gold and two Toltec Indian stone masks from Mexico are part of a large gift of Mexican, Central and South American antiquities now on display in the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Sixty-five examples of sculpture, ceramics, textiles and metal from Indian cultures destroyed after America's discovery are the gift of Mrs. Lilian Henkel Haass of 189 Cloverly, Farms, who has collected pre-Columbian antiquities for many years.

A unique example of ancient Peruvian craftsmanship is a pottery model of a prison with guards at the door and a prisoner inside receiving the gift of a chicken from a friend at the window. Equally illustrative of ancient Peruvian personal appearance and customs are effigy vases: a man carrying pots, a man carrying a garland, and a portrait head of a man.

Gold, silver and bronze bowls, pendants, and figurines are among other Peruvian items. From Mexico are a stone figure, masks, an effigy urn and a pottery stamp.

Only about half the gift items are currently on display. Francis W. Robinson, curator of ancient and medieval art, said the others would be shown later in the pre-Columbian gallery.

Women Voters Favor School

At a meeting of the League of Women Voters of Grosse Pointe on January 13, the members voted by a large majority to support the proposition of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education to build a new junior high school and add swimming pools at Pierce and Parcels.

The league also favors reclassification of this area from a fourth to a third class school district.

Members of the League urge all registered voters to vote on January 24.

Nike Defenses Shown on Film

The "Nike" and our anti-aircraft defenses will be the topic at the second Sunday afternoon meeting of the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, to be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon, January 22, at the Central Library.

Maj. George MacDonald, public information officer of Selfridge Air Force Base, will be the speaker. He will show a 28-minute moving picture showing the Nike anti-aircraft weapon in operation. This amazing ground-to-air missile has only recently been cleared for showing to the general public, and Grosse Pointe will be one of the first communities to see this remarkable film.

After the movie, Maj. MacDonald will discuss the anti-aircraft defenses of the area and then will answer questions from the meeting.

The meeting next Sunday, as are all of the Friends meetings, is open to all Grosse Pointers. Charles Parcels, president of the Friends, urges all interested people to take this opportunity to learn about this vital facet of the national defense.

The Friends Social Committee, chaired by Mrs. Russell H. Lucas, will serve refreshments after the meeting.

On institution that guarantees its graduates a position in the electoral college.

EASY TO MODERNIZE

Nine out of ten of U. S. homes are framed with lumber, the West Coast Lumbermen's Association reports. Since many American homes are 50, 60 and 70 years old, modernization is needed. Remodelers find it easy to rewire and re-plumb these older frame houses because there is space in the frame walls to conceal these installations.

To the men who protect your tomorrows

This week the Life Agency Managers Association of Detroit is honoring the men listed on the left as the Outstanding Life Insurance Men for 1955. Each has been chosen by his agency as "Man of the Year." These men were selected for this honor because of their contribution to agency morale, their loyalty to company and agency, and for their able and conscientious services rendered to the community and their policyholders.

The recommendations these men make affect the future of many people. Our own officers observe every day the important part played by Life Insurance in the life of our community.

Thanks to life insurance underwriters, substantial estates have been accumulated even in this day of high taxes and high living costs. We have seen these funds protect many a family's future by safeguarding the home, business interests . . . and the welfare of widows and children.

The Detroit Wabeek Bank and Trust Company pays tribute to these "Men of the Year" Life Underwriters for their distinguished contributions to their clients and community.

We are honored that many of them have used our Trust Department services to help them in their estate planning programs.

News from GPUS

On Wednesday morning, January 11, some 28 Detroit policemen descended upon the Grosse Pointe University School, but their appearance did not indicate a crime wave at the Cook Road school. They were members of the Detroit Police Department Band, and they came to G.P.U.S. to put on a musical program for the morning assembly.

Their presence was not the only event involved, however, for Commissioner Edward S. Piggins was the guest speaker. The commissioner, who has been speaking to Detroit high school assemblies recently, had been invited to address the G.P.U.S. student body.

His message proved to be of great interest to his listeners. Mr. Piggins centered his remarks on the thought that the overwhelming number of young people in the Detroit and suburban areas are splendid citizens who are eager to improve themselves and their community.

While not minimizing the gravity of juvenile delinquency when and where it exists, the commissioner asserted that only three per cent of our young people should be classified as delinquent and that we should pay more attention to the achievement of the 97 per cent. Dramatizing the mischief-making of the three per cent often leads adults to conclude that young people as a whole have gone wrong. Actually the facts point to just the opposite conclusion.

For the lighter side of the assembly program the Police Band made a great hit with the students. Under their leader, Lieutenant Fred Mitman, they played everything from Hungarian melodies to Dixieland plus presenting the novelty number "Joshua" and a vocalist, too.

Robert "Skip" Johnson of the Junior Class introduced the commissioner and the band.

Chapel speakers from the student body at recent assemblies have been Tom Purdy and Michael Ryan. Headmaster Chandler also conducted a chapel assembly last week.

Mid-term exams are only a week away now, and G.P.U.S. students have a very busy, earnest look about them.

The ice-skating rink is very popular with all grades at G.P.U.S., and everyone is hoping that there will be a lot of good cold weather in the weeks ahead.

Which member of the Poupard staff attended sixth grade in the public schools of Kodiak, Alaska?

This question and others appeared recently on the bulletin board in the Poupard office. Teachers try to guess which fellow staff member fits the fact. In this way a large staff can become better acquainted.

That the Poupard staff is interesting is evidenced by the following questions and answers which appeared on the bulletin board within the last two weeks:

Which member of the Poupard staff attended sixth grade in the public schools of Kodiak, Alaska? Answer: Robert Key, sixth grade teacher.

Which member of the staff understands and speaks French fluently? Answer: Mrs. Lucille Allwin, part-time secretary.

Which two members of the Poupard staff worked together in the same school in 1940? Answer: John Hammel, and Mrs. Cleverdon in Mason School. Marshall Jameson, principal of Monteth, Marjorie Harger, assistant principal of Monteth, and Joseph Hourihan, visiting teacher, were also on the staff.

Mrs. Lillian Ingram, one of the parents at Poupard, was secretary at the same time.

Which person on the staff had these four jobs before beginning teaching? Worked for a dentist, worked in a college library, did filing and typing in the office of a construction company, and interviewed for charge accounts in a clothing store? Answer: Mrs. Anne Stricker.

Which member of the staff was related to Mr. Poupard, after whom our school was named? Answer: Fred Renaud, our school engineer who was a nephew of Charles Poupard.

Which member of the staff had lunch in New York City, dinner in Newfoundland, breakfast in the Azores, and the next meal in Casablanca? Answer: John Hammel, principal, in August, 1944.

Which member of the staff helped people buy in 1955. The main speaker is Joe B. Long, director of agencies of the State Mutual Life Assurance Company. Mayor Albert E. Cobo will be represented by John Witherspoon, City Comptroller, who will give the welcoming address:

It's easy for a man to forget his past, but the neighbors are not made that way.

Life Insurance Leaders Feted

Forty-seven "Men of the Year" will be honored at the Detroit Athletic Club, at 7 p.m., Thursday, January 19.

These men are the leaders in 47 life insurance agencies within the metropolitan area of the City of Detroit. Their managers are playing host to show their appreciation to these top men for the millions of dollars of life insurance security they helped people buy in 1955. The main speaker is Joe B. Long, director of agencies of the State Mutual Life Assurance Company. Mayor Albert E. Cobo will be represented by John Witherspoon, City Comptroller, who will give the welcoming address:

It's easy for a man to forget his past, but the neighbors are not made that way.

Heifetz Heads Concert Card

Jascha Heifetz, violinist, will be the featured soloist with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra Thursday, January 19, at 8:30 p.m., in the Masonic Auditorium. Paul Paray will conduct, returning from four guest dates with the Philadelphia Orchestra, three in Philadelphia and one at Carnegie Hall, New York.

This may be the last opportunity for several years to hear Heifetz. The great violinist has announced that he will take "Sabbatical Leave" of the concert stage during 1956-57. Thursday he plays the Sibelius Concerto in D minor, Op. 47, for Violin and Orchestra.

Paray has also programmed the Roy Harris Symphony No. 3 and "Fete at the Capulets" from the Dramatic Symphony "Romeo and Juliet" by Berlioz.

Born in Russia, Heifetz made his debut at seven and at eight was studying with the great Leopold Auer. In 1917, after fleeing Russia, he made his American debut at Carnegie Hall. He has since travelled over two million miles concertizing.

Danny Daniels, Broadway musical star, will be soloist at the Symphony Orchestra's Young People's Concert Saturday morning, January 21, at 11 a.m., in the Masonic Auditorium. Valter Poole will conduct.

Daniels will be featured in the first Detroit performance of the "Tap Dance Concerto" by Morton Gould. The program, devoted to dance music, will include Rimsky-Korsakov's "Dance of the Tumblers" from "The Snow Maiden," Bizet's "Farandole," Borodin's "Polovtsian Dances," and Lecuona's "La Comparsa" and "Andalusia."

This is the third in a series of four Young People's Concerts designed as a refresher course in music for parents and a liberal education in music for children. The series is sponsored by the Junior Leagues of Birmingham and Detroit, the Women's Association and the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony Orchestra.

Reservations at $2, $1.75 and 75c are available at the Symphony Office, Masonic Temple, TE 1-3900 or Grinnell's.

Newcomers Feted at War Memorial Center

Seniors Dance Plans Are Set

By Barbara Marciniak
G.P.N.S. Journalism student
"Winter Wonderland," will be the theme for the Third annual smorgasbord dinner-dance to be held after commencement exercises for graduating seniors of Grosse Pointe High School.

After receiving their diplomas January 26, the seniors will congregate at the War Memorial.

Arthur Quatro's orchestra will provide the music for dancing until midnight, when the smorgasbord supper will be served. The parents of the graduating seniors are providing the food. Among the dishes served will be chicken, ham, and Swedish meat balls.

Mrs. P. I. Moreland is in charge of senior activities for the Mothers' Club. Mrs. S. Martin is chairman of the smorgasbord dinner, and Mrs. J. C. Tapert is chairman of decorations.

Seniors may purchase tickets for the price of $2.00 at the Student Council booth. All seniors are invited.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Kitty Marriot

Pointers are perking up and planning parties once more, after that desperate post-holiday lull which society editors dread. "Surprises" seem to be the order of the day.

Last Thursday night (we didn't dare breathe a word in last Thursday's paper because this was another super-secret) Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Behr, with the co-operation of son-in-law James D. Standish III, feted their daughter, Karla Behr Standish, at a surprise birthday party in their Bishop road home.

Avoiding written invitations, Mrs. Behr called folks on her guest list and gave explicit directions for them to park far up the street. On Karla's calendar, plans called for the Behrs and Standishes to celebrate together with dinner at the DAC. When Jim escorted Karla into the Behr home to pick up her parents, 33 guests appeared from nowhere singing a "Happy Birthday" refrain. After cocktails in the recreation room, the party moved upstairs for a buffet dinner.

When Russia promised Chancellor Konrad Adenauer last year that 9,626 German war prisoners would be released, 749 convicted criminals were included, to be released without amnesty, on condition that they would be prosecuted according to German law. THE CUREFW. on Amman, Jerusalem, and other towns, imposed by the Jordanian Government when rioting broke out over the Baghdad Pact, was lifted when everything returned to normal. The riots took a toll of 50 dead and injured. Censorship on cablegrams was lifted and it was revealed that rioters created more than $420,000 in damages to United Nations property when they demonstrated against attempts to enlist Jordan into the pact. Arab Legion patrols were taken from the streets, but a few were left to guard foreign embassies and offices.

Monday, January 16 BACK on a fulltime work schedule, since his heart attack a few months ago, President Eisenhower handed Congress a balanced budget of $65,865,000,000. He said the budget will provide a full measure of defense, sustain unprecedented prosperity and promote the well being of the people. The budget for the fiscal year 1957, which will start on July 1, and a revised one for the present year, provides for a slim balance which the President said would require the "utmost co-operation" of Congress to preserve. He refrained from recommending any tax cuts. Instead, he proposed to apply the small surpluses to the national debt of 274 billion dollars.

HARLOW H. CURTICE, president of General Motors, urged Congress to adopt President Eisenhower's proposed 10-year, twice-as-big highway building program. Addressing 500 businessmen at an annual luncheon, which is a preliminary to the New York opening of the GM Motorama, Curtice said that nothing has more dollar and cents importance for every American, and that nothing is more essential to the welfare of every segment of our economy. GP Reserves Win No. 7 By Toppling Wyandotte

The Grosse Pointe Reserve basketball team, the winningest team in the community, continued to rule the roost in the Border Cities League with a sparkling 54 to 36 victory over Wyandotte last Friday, January 13, on the local court.

The victory stretched the Pointers' winning streak to seven straight games in as many starts.

Held to a narrow 5 to 3 margin at the end of the first quarter, the Blue Devils flipped their attack into high gear to move to a 24 to 14 margin at half-time. Not satisfied with a five-basket lead, the Devils began to roll in earnest in the third stanza and took a commanding 44 to 24 lead and coasted the rest of the way.

Coach John Thursby substituted freely throughout the contest and used 16 players. Ten of them managed to hit the scoring column. Captain Bruce Boardman paced the Devils' attack with 11 points which enabled him to take individual scoring honors. His teammate, Pete Wade, earned runner-up honors with 8 points.

Wyandotte was paced by the trio of Harding, Brown and Jeffery, who notched six points each.

The Devils have, convincingly, rolled over all opponents to date but their biggest test will come Friday, January 20, when they travel to Highland Park to take on the Polar Bears in the preliminary game of the evening.

Because of the way the Devils have been man-handling their opponents they have created great interest among the Pointe's basketball fans. Where fans used to shun the preliminary games they now turn out in huge numbers to cheer the too oft forgotten reserves who soon will wear the varsity colors of Grosse Pointe High.

Some of the reserves have caught the eye of Varsity Coach Howard MacAdam who will be badly in need of replacements

Woods Quintet, St. James Tied

St. James and Woods Presbyterian remained deadlocked for first place in the senior division of the Grosse Pointe Church Basketball League after winning January 14, at Grosse Pointe High.

St. James hammered the Methodist Mustangs, 36-13, behind the sharpshooting of Rieth and Mann who notched 10 points each to tie for scoring honors. Hughes led the Mustangs with six points.

Lars Anderson's 22 points was almost enough to beat the St. Paul Longhorns single handedly as Presbyterian walloped the Longhorns, 43 to 26. Kelly paced the losers with 12 points.

The Memorial Diezels remained one game off the pace by beating the Christ Church Tigers, 37 to 16. Nolte paced the winners with 20 points for honors. Trowbridge led the losers with seven points. The loss dropped the Tigers into a two-way tie with the Mustangs for last place.

In the junior division the Memorial Juniors climbed to the top of the standings by defeating the Woods Presbyterian Juniors, 24 to 5. John Moran captured scoring honors for Memorial with 10 points while Tom Elliot notches three points for the losers.

The Christ Church Lions edged the St. Paul Panthers in a low scoring overtime contest, 10 to 8.

Korb and Monroe clicked for six points in the final period and overtime to snatch victory out of the fire, enabling Christ Church to tie for second place in the standings with Presbyterian and the loss dropped St. Paul into the cellar all alone.

Korb tied for scoring honors with St. Paul's Ayrault. Each got four points.

Action will resume Saturday, January 21, at 9:30 a.m.

League officials are still looking for an adult to take over the duties of director which was held recently by Ty Tyson who was forced to resign because of business pressure. Any man interested in helping youngsters to develop good sportsmanship and organized competition can qualify. Interested parties should call George Noriencik at Gray's Sports Shop on the Hill.

Auto Club Booklets Are Now Available

Automobile Club of Michigan has begun distribution of its 1956 "Winter Sports in Michigan" booklet this week, George Measel, Auto Club's Grosse Pointe division manager, said.

The 40-page booklet describes each of the State's 56 winter sports areas and lists the various activities available as well as nearby accommodations. A map in the booklet shows the location of each area. As a public service, the booklet is available to all Grosse Pointe area residents through the Auto Club office.

The Club also prepares for the press and its members a weekly ski report giving snow conditions in principal skiing areas and issues daily reports on road conditions throughout the state, Measel said.

Stober's Upset By Lowly Rival

Stober's, Pointers League leaders, took it on the chin from eleventh place Rightenburg and dropped two points but remained a half point ahead of second place Redwood. The latter took two and a half points from fifth place Kennametal behind R. Tas' 552 series.

Fourth place Youngblood nipped Harper for two but the Piche team got hot to roll the third high team series (2579) of the season to take three points from Kopp's and moved into third place, a half point ahead of Youngblood. Werner paced the Piche team with a 600 series. Rosati's and Lusch split and Custom, behind Strye's, 574 series, blanked last place Stewart to jump into a three-way tie for fifth place with Kennametal and Harper.

Two hundred plus scores were posted by Tas, 214; Seyler, 208; 202; Fisk, 201; Werner, 232; Therssen, 216; Strye, 211; Kraeber, 217, and Schoof, 202.

Arrangements have just been completed for Twentieth Century Fox Studios of Beverly Hills, California, to make a documentary film of Chet Sampson's Western tours during the coming summer.

A crew of photographers will arrive in Grosse Pointe in early June to begin work on the film, which will be shot in Cinemascope, color, and sound. The resulting film will be released by the studio to the theaters of the United States in 1957. It will run for 45 minutes and will be called a featurette.

During the past summer, Jeff Hunter, a star of Twentieth Century Fox Studios, and a friend of the groups for the past four years, asked Chet Sampson if he would like to join forces with him and several other people from the film industry, in a new corporation whose purpose would be to produce documentary films.

The corporation was named "Sampson Productions" and immediately set about producing a film in Panama. Just completed, it shows the exciting adventures of an ethnologist from the Museum of Man in San Diego, making an exploratory tour into the back country of Panama to examine the Indians of that very primitive area. The film has been shot and is now being edited in Hollywood. It will be released through 20th Century Fox in the spring.

The film this coming summer will show the entire five-week, 8,000-mile tour of the 12 station wagons through 14 states and nine national parks. The visit with Bing Crosby at his ranch will be shot as a separate short subject, as will be most of the Hollywood visit. The major emphasis of the main film will be to show the experiences of the group in the national parks. Additional footage in each of the national parks will be used in making short subjects.

To provide interesting highlights in the film, many movie stars will join the group in the national parks and participate in the full program. Two years ago, Jeff Hunter himself did this very thing for four days in Yosemite.

In Yosemite, a helicopter will be used to secure thrilling pictures of the hike up mile-high Half Dome.

by these young people. National radio and TV shows, many magazines, and even Bing Crosby's autobiography have called the attention of the country to the tours. It was only natural that this would lead to enough interest to realize the possibilities of bringing the story of the tours to film.

Since their inception in 1938, 3,000 Grosse Pointe teen-agers have been on these station-wagon tours, and one of the highlights of each Western tour has always been the four-day visit to Hollywood. Over the years, almost every major movie star has met and entertained or has been entertained

GPUS Cagers Split 2 Games

Grosse Pointe University School split a pair of basketball games last week to run its season mark to three wins and two losses in five starts.

On Tuesday, January 10, GPUS throttled Bloomfield, 60 to 50, after experiencing some difficult times during the early stages of the game as Bloomfield employed a full court press. GPUS had worked out a 12 to 4 lead before Bloomfield started the press and narrowed the margin to 10 to 12 at the end of the first quarter.

GPUS managed to work out a 29 to 25 lead at halftime and from there on in had things pretty much its own way to the final whistle.

Dave Drury and Randy Barrett of Bloomfield led the scorers with 17 and 14 points, respectively. Mike Krieg paced the winners with 13 points.

On Friday the 13th, Huron Valley tagged GPUS with its second loss of the season, 56 to 43, on the latter's home court. Huron Valley worked out a 12-6 lead at the end of the first quarter and a 23-16 lead at halftime. GPUS narrowed the margin to 44-42 with three minutes remaining in the game but three bad passes tripped the Cook road boys and Huron Valley went on to victory.

Lloyd Hall, of Huron Valley, notched individual honors with 22 points and Tom Purdy paced GPUS with 14 points for runner-up honors.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 5.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone.

And Suddenly It's Spring, Frolund Warns Gardeners
Remember, last spring you swore you'd have your lawnmower sharpened and serviced during the winter months and be ready when the first grass needs cutting. Well, now it's winter. Nelson Frolund who runs the big garden and lawn store at 20377 Harper avenue said Monday that next spring's tie-up of hand and power mowers waiting for service will be terrific unless homeowners heed those words they uttered last spring. "Too few people realize that only 60 some working days remain before the grass will be calling for service," Frolund added. A few simple preparations now for the winter care of your power lawn mower will pay off in handsome dividends next spring, according to Frolund, who represents the Jacobsen Manufacturing Co., Racine, Wis., makers of home power lawn tools. Owners wishing to service their own power mowers need only follow these few elementary steps to insure an easy-to-start, properly operating mower next spring. 1—Mower and engine should get a complete cleaning, removing all dirt and dust. Grass should be pulled from the ends of the reel and dirt removed from the chains and mower deck. 2—Drain gasoline from the tank by removing the fuel line. Start the engine to remove any remaining fuel. Gasoline left in the tank over winter may become stale, resulting in gumming of the carburetor. Oil should not be removed from the crankcase of the 4-cycle engine. 3—Remove the spark plug, squirt a few drops of oil into the spark plug hole and pull the starter through once or twice. The spark plug should then be cleaned and replaced in the engine. 4—To protect the machine from rusting over the winter storage period, a light film of oil should be applied to all moving parts and exposed spots. 5—The final stage in the winterizing of your power mower is to cover the machine to protect it from dust and from "adjustments" by children playing near it. An additional helpful hint from Frolund is to have any necessary repair work handled now, before the mower is stored for the winter.

the new school. The pools will give our children additional advantages—I feel very strongly about this.”

Richard K. Degener of 1486 Lochmoor, a former Michigan University and United States Olympic Diving Champion:

“When I first thought about it, I wondered why the swimming pools weren't listed separately. Then I realized that you couldn't have a modern new junior high school in Grosse Pointe without a pool and yet you also couldn't put a pool in the new building without putting one in each of the other two junior high schools.”

“Peace of Mind”

Mr. and Mrs. Paul L. Kolvoord of 1249 Lakepointe, with one child in the schools:

“All parents who value their own peace of mind will welcome the opportunity their children will have to learn to swim well.”

Gerald C. Schroeder, 50 Shoreman, of the Certified Public Accounting firm bearing his name:

“The proposals make good sense to me and I think they are a good investment for the taxpayer. I have always been in favor of adequate school facilities, but I have also maintained that the cost to the taxpayer must be reasonable and that the financing should be properly planned and integrated with the over-all tax structure.

“A study of the new proposals will disclose that although the tax rate will increase less than 1/2 mill in 1956, it is important to remember that the rate of school taxes for debt after 1956 will steadily decline.”

Hails “Leadership”

William M. Adams, 305 University, president of Braun-Bosworth & Co., Investment Brokers, and High School Dads' Club President:

“The Grosse Pointe School District has been most fortunate over the years in the vision, leadership and planning of its School Board. Plans have been made on a conservative basis for anticipated needs as those needs have arisen.”

Charles Zentgraf, 77 Sunningdale, treasurer of the P-TA Council and father of two children in the system:

“As a resident, parent and property owner, I have decided, solely on their merits, that the passage of these propositions is in the best interests of the children and the community.”

Backs School Pools

Edward J. Pongracz, 782 Notre Dame, Grosse Pointe businessman:

“The Board of Education's fine attitude in allowing others to use our football fields and auditorium-gymnasium will again be followed in allowing use of the swimming pools. This is one of the reasons I feel so strongly that additional swimming pools should be provided in Grosse Pointe.”

Another endorsement came from the Executive Committee of the Grosse Pointe University School Parents' Association.

Backed By Parents

In a statement on behalf of the Association, Mrs. Earl I. Heenan, Jr., wrote:

“The welfare of the entire educational system of the Grosse Pointes is a matter of concern to every member of the community. The growth of the school population has established the immediate need for additional facilities, beyond any question.

“The planning of the School Board appears to meet this need with full consideration of the character and means of our community. The alternative to the acceptance of these plans appears to be the denial of essential school space and facilities to many of our children until the inevitable construction is authorized.

“At a later date, even with the elimination of many desirable features, the cost may prove to be more rather than less.

“We urge that all parents and friends of the Grosse Pointe University School vote in the election, and that they vote ‘Yes’ on both proposals.

To the Voters of Grosse Pointe:

Again we are being asked to improve Grosse Pointe's educational facilities to meet the needs of this growing community.

We are also being asked to supplement the American way of building healthier and vigorous bodies by supplying long needed swimming pools.

As a father with children in the schools, I'm for it!!

As a taxpayer with both business and home in this community, I'm willing to share the costs for the next 25 years.

Please vote  YES

- Voters Should be Allowed to Discern Between Necessities and Luxuries
- Swimming Pools Built at a Cost of Approximately $800,000 on the Time Payment Plan are not economically sound
- A New Election Can be Held Quickly when this Proposal gets Defeated
