THE REPUBLICANS were jubilant and the Democrats were not, when President Eisenhower announced that he is ready to accept renomination from the Republican Party. In a nationwide broadcast, Mr. Eisenhower said that he is confident that he can carry on the tasks of the presidency.

Friday, March 2

MOSHE SHARETT, Israeli Foreign Minister, told parliament that a statement made by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles was "disappointing and alarming." Sharett said that Dulles' policy would withhold from Israel the means of security the United States has adopted for itself—the building up of massive armed strength. He said that the statement made by the Secretary was "tantamount to abandoning Israel to its fate" in its fight for survival. Dulles had said that the population ratio between Israel and the Arab nations was 1-20, and tried to prove by this disparity that arms offer no solution to Israel's security.

Saturday, March 2

KING HUSSEIN of Jordan fired British Lt. Gen. John Bagot Glubb as commander of Jordan's crack Arab Legion. The general left the country under a tank escort, and with him went a large measure of British influence in the Middle East. He had helped King Hussein's grandfather, the pro-British King Abdullah, establish the Jordan Kingdom in 1946.

Sunday, March 4

RICHARD NIXON, Vice-President of the United States, is now a 13 to 1 choice among the Republican party leaders taking a definite stand for a second term. The ratio could be higher, 16 to 1, if those who want him provided President Eisenhower does, are counted. The President has not said anything about it yet. Like Mr. Eisenhower, many Republicans who are uncommitted on the subject, have kind words for Mr. Nixon. Only a few GOP leaders have come out with a preference to someone else. The Vice-President, in a survey taken, seemed to have his strongest backing in the South and West, except in his home state, California.

Monday, March 5

THE WORLD'S DIAMOND markets may be upset, if there is truth in Russia's claim that a diamond mine has been discovered in Soviet Northern Asia. It is said that the discovery of the valuable deposit will make Russia independent of foreign gem supplies.

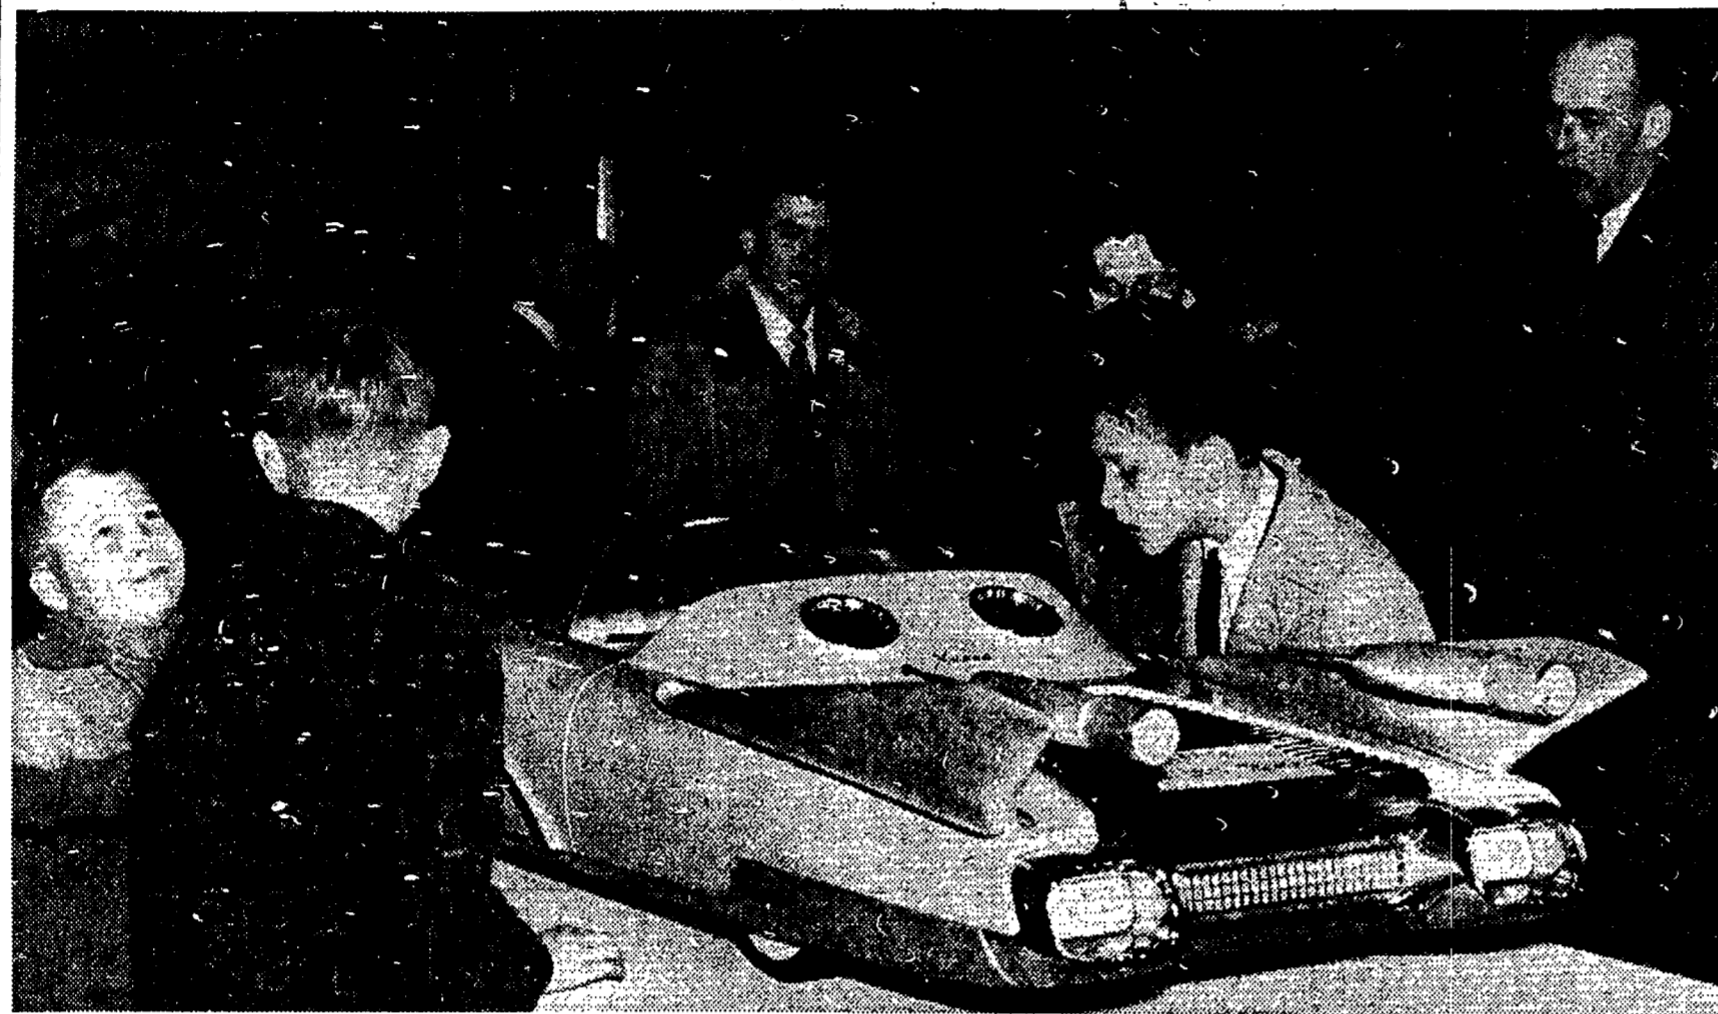

Tuesday, March 6

BRITAIN pulled out more of its waning power from Jordan which had served as Britain's last mainland Middle East military preserve. The English grimly decided to stack all of their remaining Middle East might on Cyprus, and made it clear they will no longer tolerate Greek Cypriot violence behind the Army's back. The immediate retort from the leaders of the Greek Cypriots was defiance. Similar defiance since 1948, has driven the British out of Palestine, Egypt, Iraq—where the Baghdad Pact preserves a British tie—the Sudan and now Jordan. Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden has threatened to use armed might to preserve law and order in Cyprus.

Wednesday, March 7

DIPLOMATS of the United States, Britain and France conferred on the Middle East crisis. The conference was called by the United States after it expressed concern to both the Syrian and Israeli governments over a new shooting incident on the Sea of Galilee. The Big Three Western powers may ask the United Nations to make a new approach to the Arab nations and Israel.

Model Show Attracts Crowds to Memorial Center

Young and old swarmed through the spacious Center Sunday to see a large display of models and hobbies. One that attracted a great deal of attention was this scale model of a dream car of the future, loaned by the Ford Motor Co. More than 1,000 residents were reported to have attended the one-day exhibit.

Confusion Rampant in Crash Case

Pair Who Abandoned Car After Accident Can't Decide Who Was Driving at Time

City Justice Court Judge Joseph P. Uvick meted out sentences to Joseph Peter Krauser of 38011 Jefferson, and Leo Gendren of 3217 Lakewood, Detroit, at traffic court February 28.

On Saturday night, February 25, the two men were driving in Krauser's car when they ran into the rear of a 1955 Buick at Mack and St. Clair. The car is owned by Donald T. Graham of 128 Hall place.

The two drove on several yards then abandoned their car at the curb. Several hours later City police had apprehended them and taken them to the station for questioning. Interrogation could not determine who was doing the driving when the accident occurred.

Both men pointed to the other as the driver. Because the court could not place either man at the wheel, it was not legally possible to enter a charge of drunken driving or reckless driving.

One Given Choice
Judge Uvick sentenced Krauser to 30 days in jail or a $75 fine. He paid the fine.

Gendren was sentenced to 30 days in jail and fined $50. His driver's license was suspended for the term of probation, which is six months.

Both men were found guilty of violation of the preservation of public peace.

ROTARY RESTORES SIGN

The air mileage directional signs, corner of St. Clair and Kercheval, a project of the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club, has been recently restored to its original condition by the Rotarians.

Family Has Close Call In Gas-Filled Residence

Farms police received an urgent call from James Sagel of 416 Touraine on Thursday evening, February 29.

Mr. Sagel was feeling dizzy so he went upstairs to rest. There he found Mrs. Sagel and his two daughters, Carol and Diane, in a dazed condition. He immediately called the police and requested a rescuserator.

Sagel was unable to help his family out of the house. He got the assistance of neighbors and then the police and fire department arrived.

In a few minutes the family had all been administered oxy-

Beautification Program Of Garden Club Council Calls for Shrub Planting

Deadline for Ordering Flowering Crabs for Planting This Season Set at March 20; Many Local Clubs Participating

Realizing that spring is just around "a couple windy" corners, the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council met at Memorial Center on February 28 to discuss plans for immediate activity on their Beautification Program, which is sponsoring the mass planting of flowering crabs in the Grosse Pointes.

The immediate activity is caused by a deadline. The last day orders may be taken is March 20, so that the plants can be freshly dug and ready for distribution on the grounds of DePetris, Inc., early in April.

Name Co-Chairmen
Mrs. David C. Lowe and Mrs. Ben W. Beyers will act as co-chairmen with Mrs. J. W. Eskridge as finance chairman for the 1956 beautification project. The flowering crab is fast becoming one of America's favorite plants. There are the tree types for specimen and screening purposes and the bush form for shrub border use. Available for spring planting are these varieties, listing both botanical and common names to help you identify a specific plant in a catalog:

The Varieties
MALUS ATROSANGUINEA—CARMINE CRAB: Red buds, showy carmine blooms before leaves. Shiny red fruit in fall. Use as hedge 8 to 10 feet high, as specimen or as screen for objectional views. Grows to 20 feet.

MALUS ELEYI—ELEY CRAB: Purplish red foliage and blossoms. Can be grown as tree but best used as shrub. Free blooming habit. Good landscape variety. Small apricot color fruit.

MALUS FLORIBUNDA—JAPANESE FLOWERING: Single bright pink, blending into white, flowers. Spreading habit. Best used as shrub but can grow to 15 feet. Prolific flowering. Red pea-sized fruits in fall. Stands severe winter and drought.

MALUS PARKMANNI—PARKMAN'S CRAB: Showy semi-double pink flowers. Slow growing dwarf tree. Suitable for small gardens. Among the first to bloom and the last to fade. Very hardy.

MALUS HOPA—HOPA CRAB: Hardy, easy to grow tree. Formal and shapely growth up to 20 feet. Fragrant large pink flowers. A prolific bloomer. Maroon leaves with showy fruit.

MALUS NIEDZWETZKYANA—RED VEIN CRAB: A dwarfish, spreading type. Deep red flowers, leaves and bark. Fruit is red throughout.

Elm Spray Fight Gets Into Court
Circuit Court has ordered Grosse Pointe Park to appear in court on March 16, to show why the City should not be restrained from spraying elm trees on private property.

The order was handed down by Circuit Judge John V. Brennan after action was filed by the Grosse Pointe Landscaping Association.

The company claims the spraying of private trees is an infringement on commercial activities.

City officials state that all trees in the area must be sprayed to be effective in combating Dutch Elm disease.

School Board Election Set For June 11

Four Candidates Will Be Elected Following Voters' Approval of District Classification

It has been announced that the annual election of Board of Education members will be Monday, June 11.

Petitions may be obtained from the office of the Director of Business and Finance. The last day for filing is the 30th day prior to the election. That will be before 4 p. m. May 12. There is no maximum number of signatures required per petition, but there must be at least 50.

Four Vacancies To Fill
There are four board vacancies, two for a four-year term and two for a three-year term.

After June, 1956, all Board of Education members will be elected for four-year terms. The exception to the ruling is when a member is elected to fill the unexpired term created by a vacancy on the Board.

In the special election held last January 24, the voters approved changing the classification of the district to third class. The district was formerly a Rural Agricultural School District until the state legislature did away with this classification and made it a fourth class district.

To Have Seven Members
Instead of five members the board is now to be made up of seven. The board elects its own president from among its members following each election.

The incumbent president is James Jee, II, and Franklin Dougherty, both of whose terms expire, have stated they will run for reelection. Board members Chet Sampson and Robert Weber will be in office until June, 1957, and the fifth, Bert Wicking, will not have to run again until 1958.

The first two candidates who have announced their intentions to run this June are Oscar Marx, head of the P.T.A. Council, and Edward Pongraz.

With four berths open, it is expected there will be a large field running for office. Several women are expected to seek election to the vacancies.

Plan Open House At High School

Grosse Pointe High School will hold an open house for all parents on Tuesday, March 13.

All parents are urged to attend and visit with the teachers.

The school will be open at 7:30. At 9:30 coffee and cookies will be served in the cafeteria by Mrs. Paul Hykes and her committee.

Woods Being Asked $2,000 Damages By Property Owner

St. Clair Shores Resident Claims Development of Municipal Park Is Detrimental and Has Cost Him Large Amounts

A St. Clair Shores property owner, whose home is adjacent to the Woods' lakefront park, is seeking $2,000 in damages from the Woods, it was disclosed by City Administrator William Lange.

On Monday, March 5, Mr. Lange informed members of the Woods council, that Harold C. Southard of 23333 Doremus, through his attorney, Bert Robb of 1318 Balfour, formerly with the State Conservation Department, insisted he had incurred miscellaneous expenses by reason of the existence of the park.

Because of this, he is asking for the $2,000 in damages; reimbursement of the expenses is included in the demand.

Reason Not Clear
Mr. Lange did not elaborate on the reasons involved. However, it was found that the Southards objected to the noise from the park, the glare from the pool lights and a few other things, which they asked to be remedied.

Details from Mr. Robb could not be obtained, as he was out of town at the time of the deadline for the News. Information as to how long the Southards have been living in their home next to the park, could not be obtained, for the present, but Woods officials believed that it was long after the park was purchased from Mrs. Edsel Ford in 1947.

Interference Claimed
The Southards' contention that the present extension of the waterfront is interfering with their riparian, or harbor rights in the Milk River, is one of the reasons the St. Clair council is not granting the Woods a clearance to the portion of park which extends beyond the shoreline.

A clearance is necessary before the State Conservation Department would give the Woods title to the filled-in portion which is now part of the park. To be on the safe side, the Woods council authorized Mr. Lange to obtain an estimate of what it would cost to remove a portion of the pool, which is on a part of the disputed land, and have it constructed behind the bathhouse.

To Advertise for Bids
Also in view of this fact, the city administrator was asked to advertise for bids, which will be opened next Thursday.

Rotarians Hold Annual Election

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club held its annual election on Monday, March 5, at a luncheon-meeting at the War Memorial Center.

Elected to office were, Dave McCarron, president; Robert Orr, first vice-president; Rem Purdy, second vice-president; Cliff Ashton, secretary; and Jim Alexis, treasurer.

The new directors are, William Quinlan, Bruce Bockstanz, and Gill Hauke.

The officers will be installed at the beginning of the Rotary year, which is from July 1, 1956 to July 1, 1957.

Car Thieves Return One, But Only to Take Another

Park police are trying to unravel a mystery of a stolen car, its return and the theft of another car, all of which occurred within a period of four days.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that on Wednesday, February 29, someone broke into the Packard Motor Sales, 15205 E. Jefferson, and stole a car belonging to Farris Sfris of 18841 Chandler Park drive, Detroit, which was left there for servicing.

The chief said that the car was returned either Friday night or early Saturday morning, March 3, and left near the east doorway of the sales building.

On Monday, March 5, W. W. Murray of Packard Sales, called police and informed them that the place had been broken into again, between Sunday evening and early Monday morning. He said that a check of the building and grounds was being made, and nothing had been discovered missing—yet.

Investigating officers and officials of the firm made a thorough check and found another car, this one belonging to Forest Page of 770 Cadieux, also left for servicing, missing.

A teletype on the stolen car was sent out by the police.

School Board Given Notice By Council

Demands Discontinuance of Utilizing Old Kerby Building as Warehouse and Factory

A letter citing a violation of the Farms Zoning Ordinance in converting the use of Old Kerby School from school purposes to factory and warehouse use has been sent to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education.

The letter was prepared by Grosse Pointe Farms' City Attorney E. P. Wright, and approved by the council at the regular meeting on Monday night, March 5.

Used for Storage, Repairs
With the completion of the new Kerby School, the old building adjacent to the municipal buildings, was used by the Board of Education as a place to store school supplies, and a small shop was set up to repair desks, chairs, and other school equipment as was needed.

This has been the function of the building since education operations moved to the new school.

The Farms council has classified this function as that of a factory and warehouse, which is prohibited in the City's Zoning Ordinance.

Given 12 Months
Its letter to the Board of Education refers to the violation of the ordinance and informs the Board that it will have 12 months to eliminate all operations which are contrary to the existing regulations.

Property Owners Group to Meet

The postponed annual general meeting of the Grosse Pointe Property Owners Association will be held on Tuesday, March 13, at 8 p.m. in the Auditorium of the Grosse Pointe University School in Cook road.

The agenda calls for the election of five directors and a summary of the association's work during the past year. It is expected that this meeting will be attended by most of the nearly 1,000 members of the association.

All property owners are invited to join the organization to better protect their interests. For additional information call Paul Marden, executive secretary, at TUxedo 1-1990.

Police Probing Possible Theft

Shores police are investigating the possible theft of $150 worth of building materials taken from a new home under construction on Friday, March 2.

Ted Reinstein of 971 Lake Shore road told police that a the missing materials, he discovered two men in his house, who said they were there to clean up some bricks.

Shores Police Chief Fred Duemling said that the men had entered the building by removing a plywood barricade from the front door.

It was discovered, he said that the two men were supposed to have been working on a new house near the one they were found in, and Reinstein surmised that they had made a natural mistake, although they were acting suspiciously.

After the men had left, Reinstein discovered that 15 cases of floor tile were missing.

Jumping Saucers Irk Housewife

Farms police received a complaint from an irate housewife on Ridgemont road. She said that a steam shovel operating in the adjacent lot was causing her chinaware to shake and move about on the shelves.

The contractor was notified and he said he would cease work until the lady had secured her cups and saucers.

STATION WAGON PLANT

A 760 percent increase in sales of Mercury station wagons since 1947 has resulted in the start of construction of a separate station wagon plant by Mercury Division—the only of its kind by an auto manufacturer.

The new station wagon plant is immediately west of the present Mercury plant in Wayne, Michigan, and will contain 352,000 square feet of floor area. It will go into production late this year.

Ask Damages

March 15, for the installation of a new pool filter plant. It was disclosed that approximately half of the pool extends over the shoreline.

A call to the Southard home brought out that the Southards had expended funds on some of the projects undertaken by the Woods, among them the removal of overhead electric wires, which the Woods ordered installed without getting clearances over the Southard property.

New Trees Block View
Mr. Southard said that he had also objected to the Woods' planting of about 44 prime trees within the last year and a half, which when they are full grown, will block off his view of Lake St. Clair. He said that they were planted on land filled in in 1949.

And too, he said, last year the Woods had filled in more of the shoreline, which further obstructed his view of the lake.

He said that the park pool is in a spot which blocks off the normal outlet of Milk River, which goes out into the lake.

He said that he had purchased his property and built on it, because he wanted a nice view of the lake, but he had to expand funds for things the Woods should have done itself.

Doesn't Object to Park
He said that he had no objections to the park or the pool themselves, and that he was more than anxious to see the Woods gain title to the filled-in land, but only if things are set right.

He stressed that he would like it was wonderful to watch children and people having fun in the park.

Be Sure to Get SS Number

Do you have your social security number? If you are in a position to qualify and look toward old-age and survivors insurance you'll need it when you report your net earnings for the year 1955.

Most self-employed persons in a trade or business were brought under social security beginning with 1951 and have already earned protection under the old-age and survivors' insurance provisions of the social security law.

Those brought under social security as of 1955 (self-employed architects, professional engineers, accountants, funeral directors and self-employed farmers) will report their 1955 net earnings from self-employment along with their income tax return filed early in 1956.

Your social security account is maintained by using both your name and social security account number. It's important that your account number appear on the social security portion of your tax return. If you do not have an account number, apply for one now and have it ready when you file your return.

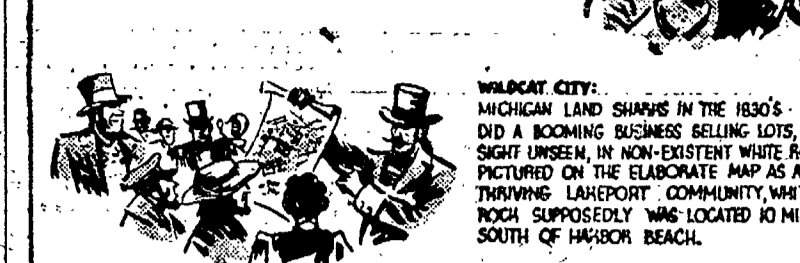

If you had a number but lost it, apply now for a duplicate number. Application blanks for original and duplicate account numbers can be obtained from your nearest social security office or from your local post office. The social security office for this area is 13238 Harper Avenue.

If you already have an account number, you should not obtain another. Any credits you have earned through previous employment will be added to your present coverage as a self-employed person.

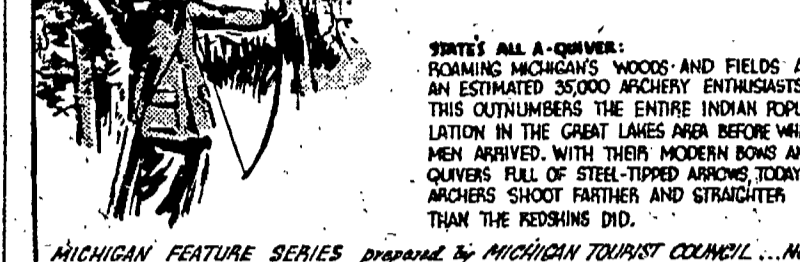

Too many people look for an investment with a telescope.

Cadillac

At Home... Among Strangers!

You're going to get a wonderful thrill when you take the wheel of your first Cadillac and head out into the country—a long, long way from home.

We're not just talking about the car's wonderful performance and its extraordinary riding and handling ease—satisfying and inspiring though these are bound to be.

No, we're talking about something more. We're talking about the friendliness you're going to encounter—how you'll be driving among people who seem to know something about you, and who are ready to trust and respect you as if they had known you for a long, long time.

This is true, of course, because Cadillac quality and goodness have made it the overwhelming preference of people of judgment and discrimination—and the whole world has come to know this and to appreciate what it means.

Yes, your best foot is forward when it rests on the throttle of a 1956 Cadillac.

This great personal benefit is strictly a "car of values" when you take the title of the "car of cars." It comes in addition to the long-known Cadillac virtues: matchless beauty and luxury and comfort, and safety and long life.

Why not consider a Cadillac for your own next car?

It is a logical choice—not only for quality and goodness and prestige—but for economy of ownership and operation.

We suggest that you come in soon and see for yourself. We'll be happy to give you a personal demonstration at the wheel... and to explain why this is such a wonderful time to make the move.

Pointers Given Big Roles For Travelers Aid Parley

Mrs. E. O. Bodkin, 64 Muskoka road, and Mrs. Frank W. Wylie, 329 Rivard, have been appointed co-chairmen of the Local Arrangements Committee for the Biennial Convention of the National Travelers Aid Association which will be held at the Hotel Statler in Detroit March 22 through 24.

Both are members of the Board of Directors of the Travelers Aid Society of Detroit, a Torch Drive service, which is to be host to the first national gathering of the Association ever held in Detroit.

Mrs. Bodkin and Mrs. Wylie were appointed by Mrs. Paul E. Krause, president of the Society. Mrs. Alvan Macaulay, 79 Kenwood road, has been named a member of the committee. She also is a member of the Society's Board of Directors.

Delegates from more than 100 Travelers Aid Societies and units from coast to coast will attend the three-day sessions to discuss ways of further extending their help to travelers and others in trouble away from home.

The local board will hold a reception for the delegates Friday evening, March 23, in the Michigan Room of the Statler.

The National Travelers Aid Association is a federation of 107 Travelers Aid operations and 960 cooperating representatives in a nationwide chain of service for people in trouble away from home. It was established in 1917 and maintains headquarters in New York.

All sessions will be keyed to the question of how best to serve the needs of a nation on the move.

In Detroit the Travelers Aid Society has spent 49 years at the city's gateway, helping travelers, transients and newcomers cope with their problems. Last year over 50,000 people benefited from the work of this Torch Drive agency. Nationally, Travelers Aid assists about 2,000,000 people annually.

Rabaut Authors Bill to Aid Vets

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut (D. Mich.) announced that he had dropped into the House Hopper, H. R. 9345, a bill for the relief of World War I Veterans.

This bill provides that in determining income of World War I Veterans and their widows for the purpose of ascertaining eligibility for pensions, payments under Title II of the Social Security Act shall not be taken into account.

H. R. 9345 is being considered at the present time by the House Veterans Affairs Committee. In a statement to the Committee, Mr. Rabaut declared that the present system of discontinuing the pension of a World War I Veteran if his combined return from Social Security and Pension exceeds $1,400, "is most unfair treatment of our senior citizens who fought for their country and are now in a point in life when many of them have been 'aged out' of the employment field."

Women Injured As Cars Tangle

Three women were hospitalized in a two-car collision which occurred at the corner of St. Clair and Charlevoix Thursday morning, March 1.

Mrs. Katherine B. Kerr of 1027 Harvard, was driving her 1954 Buick west on Charlevoix when her car was smashed by the 1955 Chevrolet driven by Virginia Kotwicki of 14433 Wilshire, Detroit.

The Kotwicki car was traveling north on St. Clair when it failed to make a stop at the Charlevoix corner. It proceeded on into Mrs. Kerr's car, knocking it over the curb where it came to rest on the front lawn of 811 St. Clair.

Mrs. Kerr was taken to Bon Secours Hospital with a fractured pelvis, broken ribs, sprained right elbow, and lacerated ankle.

Mrs. Kotwicki is under surveillance to determine whether she has broken any vertebrae. A passenger, Ann Kotwicki, was treated for a severely lacerated forehead.

Safety Experts Meet in Center

The monthly meeting of the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee was held in the War Memorial Center on Wednesday, February 29.

J. Lee Barrett, long time treasurer of the Automobile Club of Michigan and chairman of the Board of Directors of the Safety and Traffic Committee, began the discussion after lunch, by citing some of the dangers of modern automobile travel.

George Measel, manager of the Grosse Pointe Automobile Club and secretary of the committee, told of some of the problems the committee has considered in the past, and the achievements it has gained through its work with the administration and police offices of the Pointe communities. The committee has met with local judges trying to establish a pattern for fines and penalties that would be uniform in all the Pointes.

Everitt B. Lane, manager of the City of Grosse Pointe Park, stated he was of the opinion the committee could be very helpful as a consultative organization. J. L. Wehmeyer of the Wayne County Road Commission indicated that when it was possible they would consult the committee.

Success of the organization is due to the committee members which include chiefs of police, representatives of management of the various cities, engineers from the Wayne County Road Commission, the representatives of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, and others.

AAA Medal Won By Young Hero

Young Marshall Moser, Jr., fourth grade student at Poupard Elementary School, stood guard at his safety post March 2, 1955, on Harper at Fleetwood, assisting Harper Woods Patrolman William Maier.

The police officer turned to motion traffic on at Harper after stopping the flow on Fleetwood.

The second that his back was turned, a kindergarten lad, confused and possibly impatient, rushed out in front of the oncoming cars. Young Marshall ran after the boy, rescued him, and brought him back to safety.

To commemorate this schoolboy act of heroism, a special assembly was held at Poupard this past Tuesday. Marshall received a gold medal award by the American Automobile Association. This entitles him to join other brave youngsters in the annual bus trip to Washington sponsored by the A.A.A. It is said that he and the others may shake hands with the President.

The gold medal award winner lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Moser, Sr., and his younger brother, Gregory, at 20202 Lancaster in Harper Woods. The boy's father is a teacher and counselor at Parcels Jr. High School and his mother is a nurse at the same school.

Club Soliciting Play Equipment

The Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club is a voluntary non-profit organization which has been providing informal education and recreation for children and adults of the community since 1938.

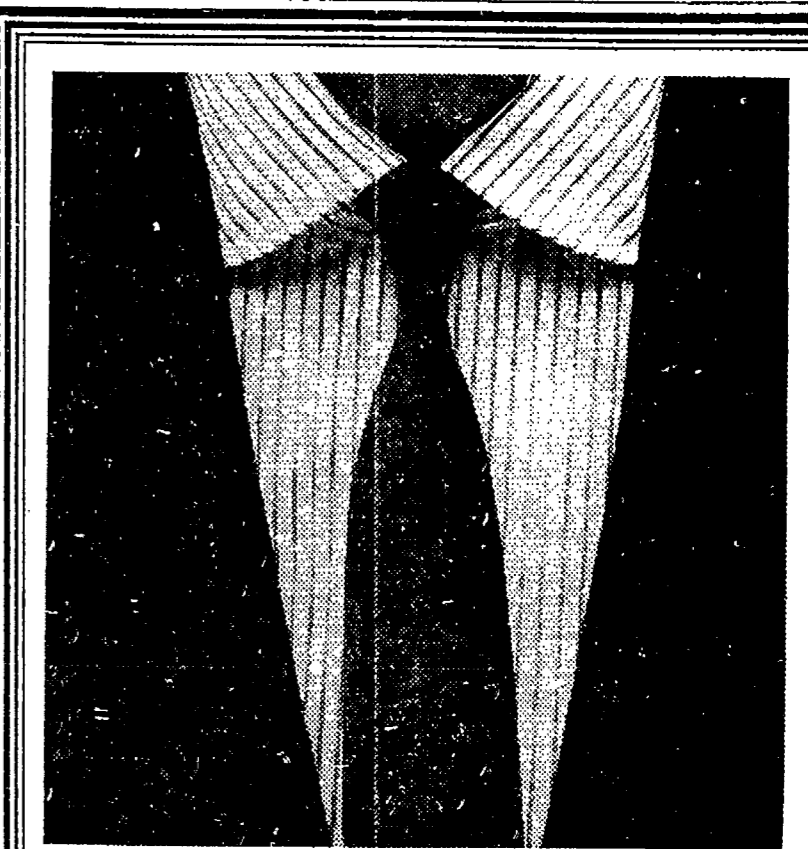

Within the last few years this club has expanded its pre-school program, under the guidance of Ed. Krattli, to meet increasing requests for pre-school services and at the present time is operating four groups for 4 and 4 1/2 year old children with an enrollment of 68 and a waiting list for future enrollment.

The problem now is providing adequate toys and indoor and outdoor play equipment for this age group. Things children have outgrown such as child sized tables and chairs, dressing tables and mirrors, doll sized bed and bedding, cupboards and dishes, cooking utensils, (small adult size), rocking chairs and horses, ironing boards, irons, telephones, dolls and clothes; dress-up clothes, doll's high chairs, buggy, broom, mop, dust pan, child sized work bench, educational toys, books—almost anything will be greatly appreciated.

Just call Mrs. Proctor, TU 4-1456 or Mrs. Mentlik, TU 5-8763, and your donation will be picked up.

Tax Deductions Advice Offered

The annual question of what automobile expenses are legitimate income tax deductions is answered for Michigan motorists this year in a six-page pamphlet available to the public at Automobile Club of Michigan's Grosse Pointe Office.

The pamphlet, prepared by The Automobile Association, lists deductible expenses for drivers using their cars for business, pleasure or a combination of the two according to George Measel, Grosse Pointe division manager.

Taxpayers, who do not use their cars for business purposes, can deduct costs of license plates, operators' license fees, state and municipal taxes on automobiles, state gasoline taxes, interest on money borrowed on the security of an automobile, losses from fire, accident, storm or theft not compensated by insurance or otherwise, and costs of repairing damages which do not result from a willful act of negligence.

Cars used in trade, business or profession may command deductions for costs of gasoline, oil, repair, garage rent, insurance and other necessary operation and upkeep expenses as well as for depreciation.

Other aspects covered in the pamphlet include gains or losses on trade-ins; employees using their own cars for employers, car pools and using one's car to look after income-producing property.

IT'S GOOD TO KNOW FOR SURE!

Dear Sir:

We have completed our analysis of your insurance coverage and we are pleased to tell you of the results of our study.

As years go by and we add to our worldly possessions, most folks buy insurance from time to time to protect those possessions. Thus, the average person's insurance program is built up piecemeal! Consequently, many of us are not SURE! About this coverage at any given time.

Occasionally, we ask ourselves, "Am I protected in this or that set of circumstances?" "Should I have a lower deductible figure on my automobile insurance?" Truly, there are a multitude of such questions. And the answers—CORRECT AND CONCISE—are as near as your telephone.

As qualified independent insurance agents, we are ready at all times to make such an analysis of your insurance without obligation. If your insurance coverage is adequate and fairly priced, we'll tell you so. If it is incomplete, we'll make recommendations. The choice, then, is yours BUT YOU WILL KNOW FOR SURE!

Two Editorials on Michigan Blue Cross

Featured below are the full texts of two editorials which appeared in The DETROIT TIMES on February 26, 1956 and in The DETROIT FREE PRESS on February 27, 1956. Because they present the considered editorial judgment of two of Michigan's great newspapers, we are reprinting them in full as a public service for the information of our 3,600,000 Blue Cross members and all the people of Michigan.

From The Detroit Times, February 26

BLUE CROSS FUSS

We didn't suspect a week ago today, when we started a series of articles on Blue Cross, that the fuss over hospital prepayment would attain the intensity it has now reached.

The amount of hullabaloo, frankly, is getting out of hand.

Rep. Allison Green has a bill for the Legislature, which he fondly hopes will solve everything. It won't. Insurance Commissioner Joseph A. Navarre has been quoted with some remarks which we suspect he will regret when he begins to realize what he has said.

A group of unions in Detroit and Flint is proposing to set up a rival "Blue Cross plan," which is entirely within their rights, even though we doubt it will look as simple to them once they have gotten into what is a very complicated problem.

Of the three—Rep. Allison, Commissioner Navarre, and the unions—we think the unions are behaving most reasonably. We differ with them only in our opinion as to whether they CAN produce what they think they can.

But of the whole lot, we think Blue Cross and its present managers are the most capable of providing what we want. We think Blue Cross is getting a vicious and needless pushing around.

In our news stories we have tried to tell what was happening without letting our opinions sway us.

But this is the editorial page, and this is our opinion, and we are saying what we think.

First of all, a series of articles which began concurrently in another Detroit paper is, for all we know at this moment, still running. We don't have any quarrel with the facts in it.

We do believe it has placed too much emphasis on "over-utilization"—that is, the complaint that some people either stay too long in the hospital, or get in under Blue Cross when they shouldn't—when they aren't really sick.

The Times reported that we can take you back in the files a couple of years and show we were the first newspaper to report there was some of this chiseling going on. It should be halted. We think it is being halted.

But it makes a rather sensational subject to write about—and some people talk too much about it. This "over-utilization" while it does happen, is not occurring to the extent that it makes any vast difference in premium payments.

And that is the most important issue in this whole problem.

Why do we think "over-utilization" is not as great as some people try to suggest?

First, because a Blue Cross study group itself was the first to dig into the matter. No attempt to hide anything. Just an effort to correct the situation, since chiseling by one subscriber is paid for by all the honest ones.

Second, Blue Cross, by subsequent and continuous inquiry, thinks that this evil is under good control, even though there is still an occasional violation.

Third, because Michigan isn't the only Blue Cross plan. The same general plan exists in all the states, each under its own laws and its own management.

If the plan here happened to be at fault, in some way, it is hardly possible that all the states would be at fault in the same way.

Somewhere in the country we would find that Blue Cross rates were markedly lower—we would find it, that is, if Michigan's Blue Cross were letting the customers get away with murder.

Somebody would have found a solution, and would be bragging about it. But no, rates are pretty comparable anywhere you go.

Therefore, we suspect this "over-utilization" has been publicized into a bigger fault than it really is. We don't think very many people get much fun out of going to, or staying in, a hospital.

Now Rep. Green thinks he could bring about lower rates, and thwart all the chisellers (such as there are—most people are honest) by a law making Blue Cross change its policy.

He would make everyone who uses Blue Cross pay the whole cost of the first day in the hospital (the most expensive day, because then you have all the tests, and usually the operation if you need one) and also pay 15 per cent of the cost after the seventh day.

Of course that would reduce the premium you pay for Blue Cross—but you'd soon find it didn't save any money. Furthermore, it would put the biggest burden on the people who are most seriously ill. Who wants that?

Rep. Green, with the best of intentions, has oversimplified the situation. Besides, he wants to make this compulsory for everybody—doesn't even want to give subscribers a choice of which way they'd rather do it.

Commissioner Navarre, for reasons which escape us, has endorsed Rep. Green's notion. We suspect some politics somewhere, because we think Navarre ought to know better.

We wonder, too, why Navarre has questioned the sincerity of the Blue Cross in offering a so-called "deductible" policy.

People have been able, if they chose, to buy such a policy from Blue Cross for upwards of the last year. Blue Cross made no secret of the fact that such a policy was being offered. People could have it, at a lower price, if they wanted it. They didn't want it.

To get back to the unions, now. They'd like a policy which gives more benefits at lower cost. Who doesn't like the idea? Who doesn't want the good five-cent cigar back, or the $700 automobile, or the three-cent newspaper, for that matter? We'd like them all back.

You can't slap economics in the face. You can't legislate Utopia.

And so far as we are concerned, you can't say that Blue Cross hasn't been doing a good job.

Its prices haven't gone up any faster than factory wages. It has been so good that it now has 3,600,000 people, or half of the whole state, using Blue Cross and liking it.

Try to make out, all of a sudden, that something is "wrong," or that some simple little bill in the Legislature can turn time backward and make things cost less—that's nonsense.

We don't think this union group can do it, either, but we'll concede their right to try. At least they aren't trying to tell everybody else how to do it. We're undertaking to show how to do it.

They're wrong, flatly, that Blue Cross is a fine thing, and we hope all the noise won't fool the people and unduly alarm them.

Blue Cross is merely a victim of our rising economy just as everybody else is.

Hospital Insurance Costs

TRYING TO SPOT THE REAL VILLAIN

Old melodramas had their advantages. It was easy to identify the villain. This is not so in the current uproar about hospitalization insurance. Rates have skyrocketed. Many think Blue Cross has thrust its hand too deeply into the pockets of its 3,600,000 Michigan subscribers. Investigations are being made, bills are being submitted to the legislature, and the air is blue with charges.

Much is still being learned, but we think some observations can be made now.

The public's demand in the last decade for better medical and hospital care has been great. Therefore, on top of inflation must be added the cost of this improved care. An increase in Blue Cross rates might, then, be considered automatic.

The question is: Do the allegedly excessive rates reflect only inflation and improved care?

Ample proof to the contrary appears in surveys of hospital cases covered by hospitalization insurance. The studies indicate clearly that alarming abuses have cropped up. These take the form of unnecessary hospitalization, prolonged stays for convenience or comfort and excessive use of drugs and laboratory facilities.

The problem remains the same. Whom do we hiss and boo?

Is it hospitals for operating inefficiently? Is it physicians who find it convenient to group patients in hospitals for quick and lucrative rounds of call that require only an hour or so each morning? Is it patients who unnecessarily demand and get from their doctors a hospital bed and costly care? Is it Blue Cross for permitting such known abuses to continue?

Frankly, we suspect the answer to all such questions may be "Yes!"

At least one offered solution appears to be precipitous and short-sighted. A bill introduced in the Michigan Legislature suggests a deductible plan similar to auto insurance. The proposal to make subscribers pay for the first day of hospitalization and 15 per cent after seven days no doubt would cut rates. It also would greatly reduce the value of the service. It would not, we believe, strike hard enough at the abuses.

It would, however, seem logical to offer optional plans. Blue Cross has such a plan, in which the patient pays the cost of the first two days and $2 a day for the remainder of the hospital stay. The saving of but 16 per cent in premiums does not seem adequate, considering that the average stay is seven days. Blue Cross also is readying a "catastrophe" policy, but if the saving is no greater than offered under the year-old deductible plan it too probably will not be widely popular.

One additional thought stands out prominently. Physicians, through their dealings with patients and because they control both the hospitals and the Blue Cross organization, have failed, in our estimation, to take an active public stand on the abuses under the voluntary hospitalization insurance plans.

Because they are so closely involved in the abuses and because voluntary plans were their answer in a period when socialized medicine appeared around the corner, they should be available to counsel the public. The public wholeheartedly accepted the voluntary plans and should have the wise advice of doctors.

Since Blue Cross is a $100,000,000-a-year business, the entire problem should be thoroughly examined, calmly, circumspectly and publicly.

An appeal last week by City Police Sgt. Julius Deraedt for assistance from Pointers in a paper drive for his Detroit Boy Scout Troop 445, has brought excellent results.

However, the sergeant said, to reach its full quota. Anyone desiring to donate old newspapers and magazines should call VA 4-4443, and a truck will be dispatched at any time to anywhere.

The self-made man who to take the drive over the top, might be better by serving paper and a ton of magazines another.

To Give Lecture on Schweitzer

Marion Mill Preminger, glamorous socialite who abandoned the world of glitter to work with Dr. Albert Schweitzer in his famous jungle hospital, will speak at Detroit Town Hall at 11 a.m. Wednesday, March 14, in the Fisher Theatre.

Her talk will close the 1955-56 Town Hall season.

For years Mrs. Preminger was one of the socially prominent women of New York. Her name appeared regularly on all the "best-dressed women" lists. The daughter of a Hungarian diplomat and French mother, she became American by choice. She has been toasted by heads of state, royalty, diplomats all over Europe. She is the former wife of Otto Preminger, movie producer.

Her interest in Dr. Schweitzer began when she was a young girl. She wrote her doctor's thesis on him when she was studying philosophy at the University of Vienna. After meeting him in 1950 she went to his hospital in French Equatorial Africa; ever since she spends at least six months a year helping him there and at the leper colony nearby.

Mrs. Preminger was with Dr. Schweitzer when he received the 1952 Nobel Peace Prize, also when he celebrated his 80th birthday. She calls him "a living saint."

Tickets are available at Grinnell's, WO 2-1124, or at the theatre the day of the lecture.

Pointe Senior Scouts Set For National Roundup

Nancie Craig, 741 Lake Shore drive, and Virginia Dassori, 824 Notre Dame, have been named delegates to the 1956 Senior Girl Scout Roundup to be held June 28 to July 11 at Highland Recreation Area, 15 miles west of Pontiac.

The two girls, representing the Grosse Pointe District, will be in a patrol led by Mrs. Harry Findlay, 1867 Lancaster, Grosse Pointe Woods. Diana May, 69 Vernier Road, has been named an alternate to the Roundup.

The Grosse Pointe District has 58 Senior Scouts out of a total membership of 1,420 girls and 476 adults.

This is one of 14 districts which make up the Girl Scout Council of Metropolitan Detroit, one of the youth-training services made possible by the Torch Drive. Altogether, there are 28,475 girls and 9,356 adults in the council. Of these, 1,214 are Senior Girls, 14 to 18 years of age, divided into 101 troops.

The Girl Scouts of Metropolitan Detroit have been assigned 56 delegates to the Roundup. The number of delegates from each district is based on the number of Senior Scouts. For this reason, a different number of girls is being selected from each district in the Metropolitan Detroit Council.

Only New York City has more Senior Scouts, hence more delegates, than Detroit.

The Roundup delegates were selected from Senior Scouts in each district because of their ability to work with others, an appreciation of differences, a growing acceptance of responsibility for herself, and a love of company, Scout officials said.

Delegates will be in training from now until the Roundup starts. They are assigned to patrols, each having eight members. Girls from districts having fewer than eight delegates are put into patrols with girls from other districts.

Considerable advance training is necessary, Scout officials pointed out, because the Roundup will be strictly a primitive troop camp. Each patrol will bring its own camping equipment. Patrols will pitch and strike their own tents, establish their campsites, and cook their own meals. Well-balanced, nutritious menus will be planned in advance, and campers will be issued the raw materials to prepare. Charcoal will be used as fuel.

The eight-girl patrols will be organized into troops of four patrols each, once the Roundup gets under way. Ten troops will make up a camp of 300 girls. Three camps will form a Section of 900. There will be four sections in the Roundup.

Three big programs will be produced in a large outdoor amphitheater to which the public will be invited. One will be on July 4th.

The Michigan site was chosen by the National Girl Scout Board after considering several possible sites in various sections of the country. The Michigan Department of Parks is cooperating in making improvements needed by the Scouts. These improvements will remain on the site, making it available as an improved camping area for future use of the people of Michigan.

The camp site includes woody areas and open fields. There is an established wildlife sanctuary, nature and hiking trails. A small waterfront can be used for swimming.

Scout officials said the theme of the Roundup will be "Americana." Three goals have been announced for the program.

The first is "to develop an awareness of the cultural heritage we all share."

The second, "to develop an understanding as citizens of the U.S.A. of the effects of that culture on current issues in the community and in the nation."

The third, "to develop a greater consideration and respect for other people and a realization of the part we must play in achieving truly democratic human relations."

The girls selected as delegates to the Roundup will be expected to exchange songs, dances, crafts, and customs of their respective communities. The program is designed to allow time for girls to meet and make friends with other Girl Scouts from all parts of the country.

Camp living, small group activities, informal gab fests, will be the most important means for exchange of the "Americana" theme. Tours of the site and nearby points of historical interest will be offered. Campfire meetings and other inspirational gatherings for the entire encampment are planned.

League to Hold Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Grosse Pointe League of Women Voters will be held March 9 at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Reservations for the 12:30 luncheon may be made through Mrs. John E. Fralick or Mrs. Walter Clemenson.

The election of officers and directors for the coming year will take place. The 1956-57 budget will be voted upon; the local league program will be determined by membership vote.

The local items to be considered for study in the coming year include:

1. A study of the place of the Grosse Pointe Public School System in the overall life of the community.
2. A study of the county system of government using Wayne County as a basis.
3. A study of the water supply and waste disposal facilities of Grosse Pointe Park in comparison with surrounding communities.
4. A study of police and fire protection in Grosse Pointe Park in comparison with surrounding communities.

Outgoing president, Mrs. Edgar Hahn, will present the progress report to the members, indicating the outstanding achievements of the league during her term of office.

Royal Honors Delight Carolyn

By Beth Hagland
 GPHS Journalism Student

The only thing that Carolyn Wellman, January '56, could say when she heard she was selected from 1,600 teenagers to reign as queen of the Lutheran Church Silver Valley Caravan for 1956 and next year's annual Luther banquet was, "I am simply flabbergasted and never thought I had a chance with so many darling girls. I am very happy to have the opportunity of being the queen."

There were 38 buses going to Silver Valley on January 29, and each bus had a queen. Carolyn Wellman, Judy Ann Sattelmair, 9A, Linda Nolting, 9A, and Mary Measel, 10A, were chosen to be the queens of their respective buses.

Carolyn was chosen to be the chief queen.

The East Tawas Chamber of Commerce presented Carolyn with a gold watch.

Come tulip time, Carolyn will be given two tickets to visit Holland, Michigan, and received a ticket for a week-end trip in July to Niagara Falls on the S. S. South America. Next year her transportation to Silver Valley will be paid for. She also was given two tickets for the L.L.L. Moonlight Cruise to Bob-Lo sometime in August.

Carolyn's name will be inscribed on a large trophy in the St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Grosse Pointe Farms. In addition, she received a trophy which she can keep.

The final judging was held at the St. Peter's Lutheran Church in East Detroit, where Carolyn was presented with two dozen red roses. Governor Williams sent a telegram to the banquet indicating he was sorry he was unable to attend.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Kitty Marriott

"South American Odyssey" is the appropriate title with which Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beyer of Lochmoor boulevard have christened their recent two-months' adventures in South America. Lucky localites will have an opportunity to see the "Odyssey" in movie form, when the Beyers show films that they took during their travels, on Friday evening, March 16, at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center.

Mr. and Mrs. Beyer first flew to Panama, then went to Quito, Ecuador. They took a memorable 13-hour train trip on the narrow gauge railroad which Pointer Alfred Taylor's uncle, John Harmon built many years ago. The train took them at a snail's pace to the seaport of Guayaquil; none of their fellow passengers spoke English and no food was available.

Their tour next took them to Lima and Cuzco in Peru, and Santiago, Chile, after which they had a trip on the highest navigable lake in the world, Lake Titicaca. The Beyers spent Christmas in Buenos Aires, then visited the Allyn C. Litchfields of Harvard road, who are in Montevideo for a few months.

After stopping in Sao Paulo and Rio, Mr. and Mrs. Beyer climaxed their expedition with a 1,000-mile trip up the Amazon. If you would like a painless, brief and inexpensive South American jaunt, just circle the sixteenth on your calendar!

Europe Is Calling

Mrs. Alfred L. Marks of Radnor circle will fly to Switzerland on March 15, in hopes of getting in several weeks of skiing at Vermont. She made the jaunt last year for the same purpose, and has been to Otsego Ski Club a few times this season. The spring-like weather we've been having here prompts her to say wistfully, "I hope there's still some snow left when I get over there."

"Just plain visiting" is what Mrs. William G. Curran of Charles avenue will have in mind when she boards her plane March 19 for a month with friends in France and Switzerland.

Westward Ho!

Mrs. Thomas N. Bourke departed from Lakeland avenue Friday. She took the train to Chicago, before leaving by air for indefinite stay at Laguna Beach, Calif.

Monday was take-off day for Mrs. Charles B. Warren Jr. of Lake Shore road, and Palm Springs was her destination. She's hoping just to take it easy and rest up during four weeks at the Ingleside Inn there.

Spring holidays will find her daughter, Chrissie Watling, bound for Nassau on a college tour. (Last year, it was Bermuda). Son John Watling III will stay on at New Haven, where he is working with the Yale crew.

Foreign Students In Need of Hosts

Counselor from the University of Michigan to Address Women of Memorial Church on Subject At Meeting on March 13

How would you like to share your home with a foreign student—for a holiday, a week-end, or perhaps an entire vacation? Your reward would be a new and probably lasting friendship, plus the satisfying knowledge that you had given a young person from a foreign land that wonderful feeling of once again being a part of a family group.

Upon request, Mrs. Doris Reed Rumman, full time counselor for the Protestant Foundation for International Students on the University of Michigan campus, will be happy to make the necessary arrangements for such a visit. There are 1,400 foreign students at the University, and part of Mrs. Rumman's job is to act as liaison between them and the families of church women. She firmly believes that everybody's doorstep can be a mission, and by opening their homes to these students, people not only give them a change from the monotony of classroom and dormitory routine, but also make an important contribution to world peace by introducing them to the American way of family living. Mrs. Rumman will be the guest speaker at a meeting of the Women's Association of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church on Tuesday, March 13, at 1:30 p.m. in the Women's Lounge. Since her salary is paid by the United Church Women of Michigan, it is only fitting that she be introduced by Mrs. Frederick W. Evans, the church's representative to the Detroit council of that organization. Her subject will be "Missions on Your Doorstep." Devotions will be given by Mrs. Stuart G. Baits, Regent, University of Michigan. The luncheon at 12:30 a.m. will be under the direction of Mrs. Edwin Ross, kitchen chairman for March, and Mrs. Ralph Pulliam, who heads the dining room committee. Reservations may be made now by calling the church office, TU. 5-3773. At 10:30 a.m. on March 13, there will be a meeting of the executive board of the Women's Association.

May 4 Is Fair Day At St. Michael's

Many Committees Hard at Work Preparing For First Bazaar; All Organizations Combining Efforts For Big Event

May 4 is the red letter date for the women at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, as it marks not only their very first bazaar, but also one of the first functions of this type to be scheduled for Spring.

"A Summer Arcade," is the name, and "Everything for the Outdoor Living," the theme, for the event that has turned the Parish House into such a beehive of activity.

Although organized by the Woman's Auxiliary, plans are being made by the Seabury Club and the Chi Rho groups to participate in "The Arcade," and the Men's Club is also already busy behind scenes. Mrs. Alfred Houston, chairman for the event, reports the tremendous enthusiasm being shown by everyone concerned in making the Arcade a big success.

For the outdoor cooking enthusiast, the Barbecue Booth will offer ideas galore. Headed by Mrs. Lee Zoeckler and Mrs. Peter Gilezan, this committee has gathered together a variety of smart, useful articles that will add greatly to meals served outdoors this summer.

Helping with this booth are Mrs. Wayne Luke, Mrs. Leslie Borthwick, Mrs. Hazen Keith, Mrs. Robert Gaskill, Mrs. James Taylor, Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. Louis Troglia, Mrs. Lynn Whitaker, Mrs. Lawrence Jameson and Mrs. Frank Butcher.

The "Knit 2, Purl 2" girls have rallied round, under the combined leadership of Mrs. Frederick Bessimer and Mrs. C. Keith Manglos, and are turning out some handsome place mats, handbags, sweaters, etc. This list of workers grows daily, but at the moment reads as follows: Mrs. Alex McCoy, Mrs. Herbert Shanks, Miss Pat Hinrich, Mrs. John Bakke, Mrs. Jack Humrick, Mrs. Earl Seelstad, Mrs. Arthur Misner, Mrs. Palmer Kennedy, Mrs. Marilyn Ed, Mrs. Charles Seeley, Mrs. Edward Mitchell, Mrs. Gladys Harman, Mrs. Darwin Martin, Mrs. Don Nigro, Mrs. Edward Neuman and Mrs. Vernon Brown.

The Arcade will offer attractions for the entire family: the Fish Pond, in charge of Mrs. Kenneth Scott and Mrs. Mason Leddick; the Snack Bar, managed by Mrs. Don Nigro and Mrs. Donald Ball; the White Elephant Booth, for which collections are being made by Mrs. Harold Harden and Mrs. George Thom; and the Kitchen Corner, to be presided over by Mrs. Frederick Button and Mrs. James Caudle.

Those who seem to be thororoughly enjoying themselves with paint brushes, sprays and "turp" are Mrs. Vernon Brown, Mrs. Lynn Whitaker, Mrs. William Erringer, Mrs. Milton Cross, Mrs. W. N. McDaniel, Mrs. Robert Gaskill, Mrs. Arthur Misner, Mrs. Floyd Kerby, Mrs. Paul Rowe, Mrs. Alfred Houston, Mrs. Arthur Windsor, Mrs. Alfred Sangster, Miss Jane Simpson, Mrs. Darwin Martin, Mrs. William Howe, Mrs. Thomas Richards and Mrs. Norman Perrin.

Dennis Berndt Host On Tenth Birthday

It was strictly a stag party when Dennis Berndt celebrated his 10th birthday anniversary last Saturday, March 3, with a luncheon at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club followed by the matinee show at Punch and Judy Theater.

Strictly stag, that is, with the exception of Dennis' mother, Mrs. Carl A. Berndt of Westchester road who, with Mr. Berndt, were present to attend to all the details.

The birthday boy's guests were his fourth grade classmates at Trombly School, who shared the cake inscribed "Happy Birthday, Dennis," high point of the luncheon feast. Place cards were attached to small candy airplanes.

holiday at Bal Harbour, Fla. Two-year-old Mary Ann Klein hasn't quite reached the age when traveling with her is a joy, so she'll remain at home in capable hands.

Mr. and Mrs. Klein will be greeting the Brad Footes and two Chicago couples in the southland. It's getting to be a regular twice-a-year reunion for the four couples: they all meet in Florida in early spring, and then the out-of-towners come here each summer at the Kleins' behest for the Lochmoor Invitational. April 21 will bring the Klein family back to Touraine road once more.

April 1 will find Mrs. William Hoey, with son Jack, home from U. of M., and daughter Kit, 10, accompanying her father, Harry J. Warner to The Tides, at Reddington Beach, Fla., just outside St. Petersburg, for a couple of weeks' vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Volkens feel that they'll have earned a Florida vacation too, by the time they have completed their April 1st move from 81 Meadow lane to 100 Meadow lane, so they'll betake themselves to Delray for a belated rest. The Volkenses will move into the home vacated by Mr. and Mrs. A. D. MacPherson, who have purchased a house in Fort Lauderdale.

Dinner Gatherings

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powers have invited a dozen friends to a small dinner party this evening in their Rivard boulevard home. March 22 will bring their daughter Cherry home from Rogers Hall for a nice long three weeks of spring vacation. Roger and Robert Powers will have two weeks off at the same time from GPUS classes.

A 50th birthday doesn't happen every day, and since March 11 means the half-century mark for J. Lawrence Buell, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Buell have invited 200 guests to a swank dinner dance at the Country Club, this coming Saturday, March 10, to help them celebrate the festive occasion.

Rosalie Kolp Wins Contest

By Beth Haglund
GPHS Journalism Student
Rosalie Kolp, January '56, received a Tripfari pin for making the highest score on the local "Homemaker of Tomorrow Test," taken by interested senior girls.

As a candidate for the "All-American Homemaker of Tomorrow," her test will go into the Michigan State Contest competing with tests from public, private and parochial high schools.

Each state will choose a Homemaker of Tomorrow. This girl will receive a $1,500 scholarship and an educational trip with her school adviser to Washington, D. C., colonial Williamsburg, and Philadelphia. The school of the state winner will receive a set of the Encyclopedia Britannica. The runner-up girl in each state will be awarded a $500 scholarship.

"Miss Dorothy Hostetter, clothing teacher, encouraged me to take the test since I had always wanted a good cook book," said Rosalie.

Clothing I-IV, homemaking III, and being an officer in the Future Homemakers Club gave her a good background for the test.

About 30 senior girls took the test. The contest originated last year. The program is designed "to assist schools in building in young women a deeper appreciation and understanding of the American home and to emphasize necessary values in successful homemaking."

"I thoroughly enjoyed having Rosalie in class, and her clothing work was very professional looking," said Miss Hostetter. "She was personally interested in people and living and so could not help but go far in homemaking," said Mrs. Irma Mann, homemaking teacher.

Parties to Honor Cherie McArthur

Pre-Nuptial Events Scheduled Before March 31 Wedding; To Be Bride of Mark Raymond Kraus, Jr.

Cherie Beryl McArthur has a full schedule of parties preceding her March 31 marriage to Mark Raymond Kraus, Jr. The couple, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. George McArthur of Audubon road, and the Mary Raymond Krauses of Bloomfield Village, will repeat their vows before the Rev. Marcus Johnson at an 8 o'clock candlelight service in Grosse Pointe Congregational Church.

Mrs. James McArthur and Mrs. Jack McArthur, sisters-in-law of the prospective bride, gave her first party, a pantry shower, in the Jack McArthur home in Roseville. Simultaneously, they gave a surprise workshop shower for the bridegroom-elect.

Cherie's four attendants feted her Saturday with a miscellaneous shower in the Glastonbury road home of Nancy Wolfe, who will be maid of honor. Co-hostesses were bridesmaids-to-be, Barbara Veermersch, Nancy St. Peter, and Marion Tricomio.

Mrs. Kraus has planned a tea this afternoon in her home to introduce her prospective daughter-in-law to her friends and relatives.

Other parties to be given in Bloomfield Village include a table-top shower, at which Mrs. Mac Campbell will be hostess, on March 16, and Mrs. A. A. Appleford's bathroom shower. Mrs. John Osler and her daughter, Mrs. James Hubbard, will cooperate on a miscellaneous shower.

The rehearsal dinner will be held in the Audubon road home of the bride's parents on March 30.

Mark has asked Richard Doman to be his best man. His twin brothers, James and Gerald Kraus, and Ray Link will usher.

A reception in the church social hall will follow the wedding.

Wilson's Picked as Hosts For G.E. Cruise Parties

Grosse Pointe's popular dance team, "Aunt Marge" and "Uncle Bill" (Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wilson of 241 Kenwood court), who conduct the dance classes at the War Memorial, are leaving this week for New York to lay early plans aboard the luxury liner Mauretania for American Electric's big South American cruise.

This is not a new task for the couple, for they served as official party makers aboard many of the big luxury liners before coming to the Pointe.

The cruise leaves from New York on April 10 and the Wilsons will be in charge of its social activities. Scheduled stops are at Nassau, Trinidad, Venezuela and Havana.

STILL POPULAR Don't worry about a little bad publicity—for centuries money had withstood sneers, knocks and abuse, and is more in demand than ever.

Failure to Register Gun Lands Its Owner in Jail

John H. Swain, 67, was sentenced to 20 days in the Wayne County Jail on Thursday, March 1, by Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger, after being found guilty of possessing an unregistered revolver.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that Swain, a handy man in a Park home, address withheld, was discovered to have the gun in his room on February 29.

The gun, a .38 caliber revolver, was confiscated and will be turned over to the Office of Michigan State Police Commissioner Joseph Childs, for distribution to State law. All firearms seized by police, during commission of crimes or other infractions of the law, are sent to a large smelting plant, where the metal is converted to other uses.

Michigan law requires that all small arms, such as revolvers, automatics, and so on, be registered in the name of the owner. Otherwise, the owner faces confiscation of the gun and imprisonment up to six months.

Guns may be registered at any police department.

Chief Louwers said if the owner of a gun has registered it anywhere in Michigan, regardless of where he is living now, and the gun is still in his possession, it is still lawfully registered. There is no need to have the gun re-registered every time an owner moves, he added.

The appointment of Quinn, Ford said, assures the 1956 Torch Drive leadership of the highest caliber.

"Mr. Quinn is one of the best known and most respected leaders in the automobile industry,"

Ford said. "He is tremendously popular with his dealers in all parts of the country, and with his many associates here in Detroit."

Two Unopposed At Woods Polls

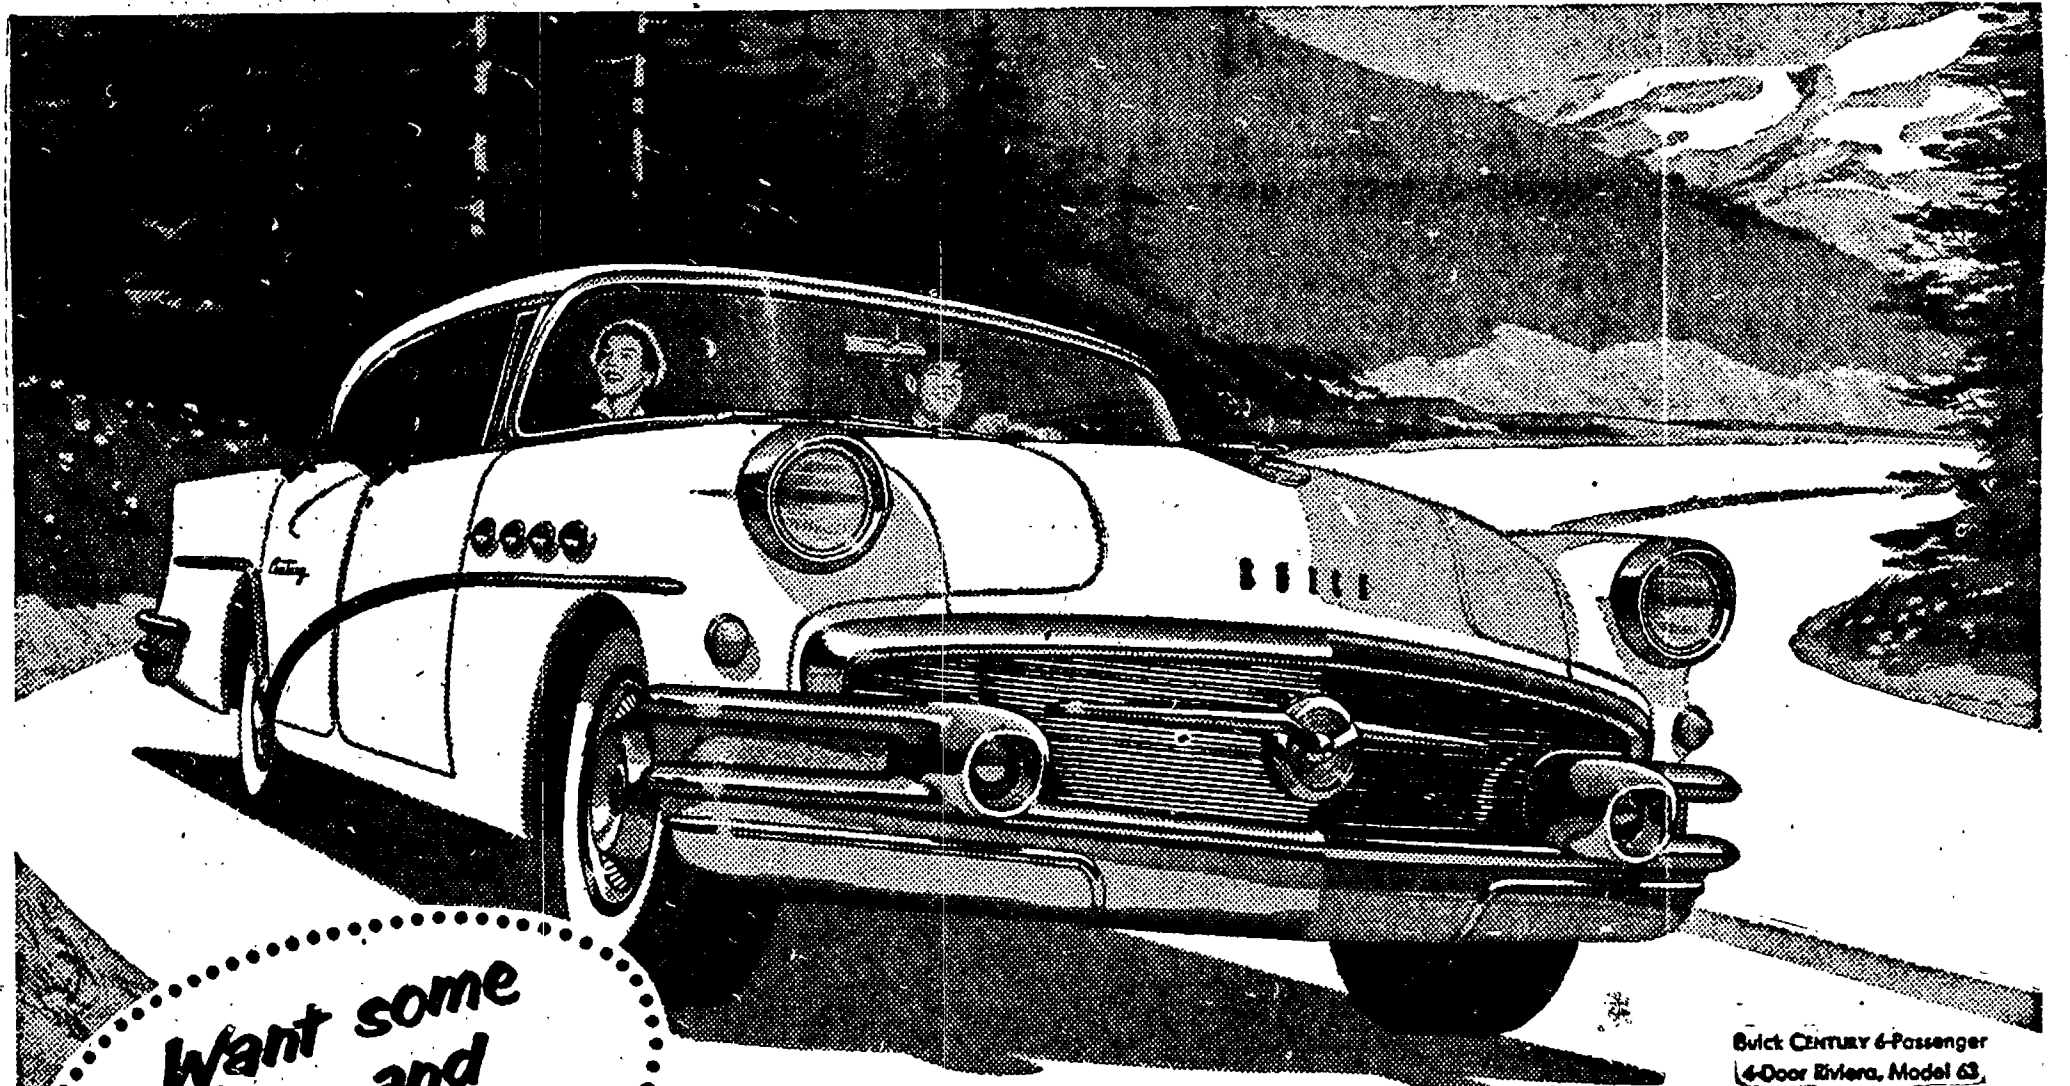

Two Woods officials are assured of reelection next month, according to filing petitions, which were presented before deadline time on Thursday, March 1.

All alone for the office of mayor is present Mayor Kenneth H. Koppin, who filed for a second term; and Thomas Bowling, who filed to fill the unexpired term of the late Councilman George Heckendorn.

Bowling, who ran against Heckendorn in the 1955 election and lost and who was appointed to the council following the death of his successful rival, must run in the general election.

Also filing for another two-year bid on the council are incumbents Harry Pratt, mayor pro tem; Kenneth McLeod and James Hunt, who are opposed by a newcomer, Rodger Graef, who has sought reelection before.

The Woods, which purchased 25 voting machines recently, hopes to have them delivered and installed before the election.

To a Young Critic

This week we would like to devote this column to correspondence from our readers, with special emphasis on a letter which came to our attention during the past week.

Some of you may remember that several weeks ago we ran an editorial, "Answer to a Request," which attempted to provide some advice to a girl college student who had solicited it.

We were deeply impressed, and deemed it worthwhile to pass on to others.

"Dear Mother: The article was interesting, but a little too abstract, I'm afraid, for a sophomore's questions. The health part was concrete and helpful, but his statements on tolerance, understanding and high goals, ruts and stagnation, are words so often used by good intentioned counsellors that they have lost their meaning.

"We, the young people, have heard this sermon time and again, and it sounds like a very clear and noble creed, but to put it into practice is not so simple. What is tolerance, what goals are high, what ruts can we fall into?"

"In other words, the girl wants concrete answers to concrete questions; what shall I do when I get up tomorrow, with whom must I be tolerant, what kind of a job do I want, who do I want to marry, what kind of life do I want to lead?"

"These questions must be answered by the girl herself, and she can only learn by her own attempts or failures, or through others' failures. If he could have told us about some of his own mistakes, and about the exact moments when he saw God standing beside him, the article might have been more effective. For, without knowing his experience, and having had none ourselves, how can we possibly understand what he means by God and tolerance?"

"Some philosopher, I don't know which, said we cannot find ourselves except by seeing ourselves in others, and then only in fleeting glimpses. The writer has given me a fleeting glimpse of myself, or what I could be. In other words, all any of us can do is to mold our lives after those we admire, so that in turn people may some day mold their lives after ours."

This is a beautiful letter. It reveals a great deal of thought and expresses fine ideals; but it shall bring forth no confessional from us. How do we tell our experiences and their effect on our lives, when half the time we do not understand them ourselves?

When did we first see God standing beside us? Perhaps it was in that earliest frightful moment in very young childhood, when we were scared into hysteria in a dark room. But God then took the form of Mother or Father, bringing hasty reassurance and a release from panic. God comes closest when we need Him most, and have been able to find no help from any other source, and when a great crying necessity for release has forced us into an unequivocal acceptance of faith.

Tolerance is merely the attainment of a state of mind which concedes that the thoughts and practices of others are quite possibly of equal value to our own. It is a sympathetic analysis of all the factors which might enter into such thoughts and practices which are divergent to our ideas. It is spiritual and intellectual understanding.

We could not agree more with the contention of this young girl that repetitious high counselling top often makes the words meaningless. But when asked for advice, we should not turn our backs, nor should we shrug off the request with shoddy humor.

We are more or less forced into an issuance of generalities, for life must be lived to be understood. We do not remove the warning signs from our highways because too many fools ignore them and die in the attempt to prove them foolish. We cannot explain real grief to one who has never experienced it.

How do we teach the young, or the old, to discern the difference between infatuation and love? How do we prepare them for the heartbreaks, real or imaginary, which so often lie ahead? What can we say that will guide them to the intuitive power which detects the false from the real?

One cannot borrow from the experiences of another. There are generalities and sermons galore, and concrete examples of right and wrong are all about us every day of our lives. The wise learn young to respect these guideposts.

We are flattered by knowing our small offering was given careful study by this young lady, and we cherish the criticism she has made. The fact that she demands something more concrete is evidence of her tenacity to high ideals.

As the years advance, she will become more and more aware of the frustration which besieges oldsters when they attempt to counsel youth. She will doubtless resort, many times, to generalities of her own, but somehow we feel her thoughts and her deeds will have a fine influence on all those with whom she comes in contact.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"To you whose temperate pulses flow With measured beat, serene and slow, The even tenor of whose way Is undisturbed by passion's sway, This tale of wayward love may seem The record of a fevered dream."

(Walter Learned)

We have been so t-veely frustrated lately... it is likely that we'll take off for Haiti. One cannot exactly blame the TV Guide for printing announcements of pictures that never appear...

What indeed! There were at least six pictures advertised last week that never appeared at all, but on calling the station "nobody knew nuttin!" One fine evening, the Detroit Times had one movie listed at 11:15 and the Detroit News had a different one listed from the same station at the same time.

Now that we are the proud possessor of a color t-v set... life has REALLY become drastic. Other than the daily Howdy-Doodie business... which is a little young for our blood... we scan the print for shows that are supposed to be adult and in color.

On Red Skelton night, when IT was touted all over the place as being in color... we foolishly invited the neighborhood over to share this dream with us and "phooey"... nothing. We twisted and twirled the million dials, slapped the set and finally kicked it...

It isn't any news that Hollywood free lance actors are often hired for things other than acting in pictures...

Our hero... making a last stab at reconciliation with his social climbing wife... decided to set the stage for his comeback... and sought the aid of a studio director. The latter suggested that they hire a few actors for a bang-up dinner party, have the actors rehearse their parts with MONSOOR...

Rehearsals were held in secret at the business man's office, for a week before the big party. Came the night in question... all the actors perfect in their roles... including the dear nervous husband...

During the dinner, and according to the script, the hired gentlemen would get into a heated discussion about some current topic, then one would turn to the host and say: "Mr. Jones, what do YOU think about this?"

As the evening wore on, Mr. Jones wore out the guests with his profound knowledge of every subject in sight. At first his wife sat open-mouthed at his voluble speech-making... then she settled back along with the other bored dinner guests.

When the party was over, the confident husband faced his wife with the query: "Dear, you can hardly say (after tonight) that you want a divorce because I am so dull and stupid in a social gathering. I hope you were impressed tonight... the way those big business men asked my opinion on everything and the way they listened to my every word. You must see how wrong you've been and this divorce thing is just silly."

His wife (UN-impressed) just looked at him and replied: "You're right... you weren't stupid tonight... but you bored the life out of everyone by talking so much... and that's WORSE." The divorce went through.

We like this true story about a great inventor of the olden days. Whatever brew he was concocting, had to be stirred constantly for at least 8 hours...

He managed to make this arrangement with a small boy who attended a nearby school. The child would bring his lunch to the shop and stir away while he ate. One day, the inventor came back earlier than usual and was horrified to find the boy outdoors tossing a ball around.

Instead of speaking to the lad... he frantically went to his pot of steaming brew to investigate... and found that the hired stirrer had rigged up some sort of apparatus that kept the brew going by itself!

On questioning the lad, he finally discovered that he had been doing this for weeks... taking his pay... and getting back to hand-stirring just before the boss arrived back at the shop!

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Browsing through the Current Bookshelf at the Central Library, we find a wide variety of titles. Whether your interest lies in old cars, mountain climbing, the Civil War, far places or if you have a mild case of sea fever, there is something here which may well be your cup of tea.

The avid motor car enthusiast will enjoy David Scott-Moncrieff's "The Veteran Motor Car." From steam coaches and cars to the grand era of 1901-1904, this reviews the story of European and American automobiles. There is even a chapter on the clothing proper to the growing sport. "The girls of the Women's Automobile Club" were fearfully and wonderfully clad when they took to the road in 1904. There are many illustrations of the vintage type.

The Canadian author Merrill Dennison in "The Power to Go," also writes of the automobile's progress from dream to reality, from contraption to social and economic force.

Interest in mountains and mountain climbing is not confined to the 1950s. A. C. Spector—author of the popular "Exurbanites"—shows us in his delightful "Book of the Mountains," that mountains have challenged men down through the ages. Philosophers, adventurers, explorers, scientists, warriors, all have fallen under their spell.

Mr. Spector has collected an extraordinary amount of fascinating material on this subject. There are occasional short stories, numerous extracts from letters and diaries, official reports, essays, and straight narrative. This is a companion volume to his "Book of the Sea," beautifully illustrated and a fine piece of bookmaking.

"Not the money, not the pride in command, just the ship in the night with the wind on her and the sea running and the gear a-taunt and the world the space of deck on which you stand. There's an everlasting mystery about the wind, leading you on and calling you and testing you, soothing you too and charming you, as if unseen doors opened before you into space, and if you stretched out your hand just a little more, you'd touch infinity."

So reasons Jared Naish, as has many a seaman in fiction and fact, when questioning why he cannot give up a rugged life at sea with all its hardships and dangers for a life of ease and comfort in his own home town.

Kenneth Robert's "Boon Island" is another sea adventure which makes absorbing reading. Fourteen men are marooned in midwinter on a bit of jagged, storm-battered rock off the coast of New Hampshire. Their tale is a stark one of incredible hardship.

John Brick is something of a newcomer to the historical fiction field. His recent novel, "Jubilee" recreates the Civil War from the northern point of view with emphasis on Sherman's march to the sea.

The "West Indian Island of Santa Marta is the locale of Alec Waugh's long but highly readable novel, "Island in the Sun."

Any cat fancier will enjoy "My Five Tigers" by Lloyd Alexander with the descriptions of the various cats who owned him. Admirers of George Gershwin will read with pleasure David Ewen's vibrant biography, "A Journey to Greatness." While never strictly personal, this gives a well organized view of Gershwin's development as an artist.

J. F. Smith's biography of a leading American composer, Aaron Copeland, is a condensation of a PH.D. thesis and gives an informative though uninspired presentation of his work and contribution to American music.

Appointment of L. Emery Dearborn as manager, Northeastern Regional Sales Office, Tractor and Implement Division, Ford Motor Company, has been announced by M. D. Hill, assistant general manager.

Mr. Dearborn joined the Tractor and Implement Division on July 1, 1955, and has been on special sales assignments. During World War II, Mr. Dearborn served in the United States Army in Newfoundland and in the European Theatre, attaining the rank of major.

Born in Athol, Massachusetts, he attended Phillips Exeter Academy, Exeter, New Hampshire, and was graduated from Yale University.

The Dearborns live at 1019 Bedford road, Grosse Pointe Park. They have four daughters, Deborah, 11, Janice and Judith, 8, and Nancy, 6.

Famous Photo Exhibit Offered

Edward Steichen's "The Family Man" photographic exhibit, which has attracted world wide attention for its outstanding portrayal of life as lived, went on display at the Henry Ford Museum for one month beginning February 25.

"The Family of Man" has as its theme the universal oneness of human beings all over the world and comprises 503 photographs from 68 countries. It will be mounted on 117 large panels, and will be set up in a special exhibition area covering over 15,000 square feet.

Conceived and directed by Steichen for the Museum of Modern Art in New York, the exhibit effectively demonstrates that the art of photography is a dynamic process of giving form to ideas and of explaining man to man. It was organized by Steichen as a mirror of the universal elements and emotions in the everydayness of life—as a mirror of the essential oneness of mankind throughout the world.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

NOTICE OF MEETING OF BOARD OF REVIEW OF TAXATION

You are hereby notified that the Assessment Roll for the Township of Lake for the 1956 tax year is being compiled.

You are further notified that the Board of Review of Assessments will be in session at Grosse Pointe Shores Municipal Building, 795 Lake Shore Road, on March 12, 1956 and March 13, 1956, from 9:00 A.M. until 12:00 noon and from 1:00 P.M. until 4:00 P.M. on each of the foregoing days, at which time persons having inquiry or complaints concerning the assessments will be heard.

which is a lot more interested in the figure the little woman cuts in the kitchen than the one she displays on the beach, is looking for Michigan's outstanding homemaker.

Her ability to cook, sew, iron and make a home will be worth at least $600 in prizes, a trip to Florida with her husband and a chance at the $20,000 in prizes and cash which goes to the lucky lady named Mrs. America.

Entry applications, which may be obtained from all Michigan Consolidated Gas Company offices and De Soto automobile dealers, had to be in by February 23. Applicants will receive an official entry questionnaire which must be filled out and mailed together with a picture by March 15. Applications and entry blanks are both mailed to the American Gas Association in New York, main sponsor of the contest.

The first task is to select Mrs. Michigan. The American Gas Association will choose finalists from all over the state to compete for the title April 10 in Detroit. A panel of distinguished judges has been selected to name the winner.

Fully equipped individual kitchens and dining areas will be set up by Michigan Consolidated in the banquet room of the Veterans Memorial Building. Each contestant will be required to prepare a meal, sew, bake a cake and present a sample of her home laundry.

The finalists will have their travel and hotel expenses paid and receive the automatic gas range on which they cooked.

In addition, the state winner will also receive a wrist watch, luggage, travel wardrobe, perfume and kitchen utensils. De Soto will furnish her with a car and she and her husband will be flown to Ellinor Village at Daytona Beach, Florida, for the national finals in May.

There are 49 finalists and their husbands will be housed in identical homes each equipped with the same gas appliances and the same kinds of food and equipment for the planning and preparations of meals.

Daily assignments are given the contestants over a four day period under the eyes of a panel of judges. Each contestant is rated on food preparation, neatness and general housekeeping abilities. Between housekeeping tasks, the couples enjoy parties, swimming, golf and plenty of time for resting and visiting. Contestants are not asked to appear in bathing suits.

The woman crowned Mrs. America will become good will ambassador for the gas industry and be paid for personal appearances at the rate of $100 a day.

She will also receive a De Soto sedan and some $15,000 in other prizes, including an all gas New Freedom Kitchen and Laundry, a two weeks' vacation at Ellinor Village with her family, a four week vacation in Europe with her husband and many more prizes of food and equipment.

Typical of the American homemaker who gives living proof that a woman can take care of her home, keep her family well and happy and still be attractive is Mrs. Ramona Deitemyer of Lincoln, Nebraska, winner of last year's Mrs. America contest.

Blonde and blue-eyed, Mrs. Deitemyer is 35, and the mother of five children. She is expected to open the Detroit Home Show April 7.

Mrs. Michigan of 1955 is Mrs. Norma Ruth Ivey of Harper Woods. Mrs. Ivey is scheduled to appear at the Detroit Automobile Show February 18-26.

Damage suits of $200,000 each were filed by two Woods men injured at a busy Detroit intersection which was left unmarked by a stop sign for four days.

Elwood O'Hara of 1832 Oxford, and Cyril Van Kerschaever of 1545 Aline, were passengers in a car which collided February 24, with a DSR bus at Moran and E. Milwaukee.

The stop sign at the intersection was knocked down the day prior to the accident by a truck driven by Willard D. Mullins of Detroit.

There were two major accidents at the intersection, which injured 13 persons before the sign was replaced on Sunday.

O'Hara and Van Kerschaever each asked $200,000 from the DSR, the City of Detroit, the company owning the truck, and Mullins.

The men are patients in St. Joseph's Mercy Hospital with back and internal injuries.

For the purpose of awarding the bonds the interest cost of each bid will be computed by determining at the rate or rates specified therein, the total dollar value of all interest on the bonds from April 1, 1956, to their maturity and deducting therefrom any premium. The bonds will be awarded to the bidder whose bid on the above computation produces the lowest interest cost to the School District. Each bidder shall state in his bid the interest cost to the School District computed in the manner above specified. No proposal for the purchase of less than all of the bonds or at a price less than 100% of their par value will be considered.

The said bonds are payable from ad valorem taxes to be levied without limitation as to rate or amount, as provided by Section 27, Article X of the Michigan Constitution.

A certified or cashier's check in the amount of $69,500 drawn upon an incorporated bank or trust company and payable to the order of the Treasurer of the School District, must accompany each bid as a guaranty of good faith on the part of the bidder to be forfeited as liquidated damages if such bid is accepted and the bidder fails to take up and pay for the bonds. No interest shall be allowed on the good faith checks and checks of unsuccessful bidders will be promptly returned to each bidder's representative or by registered mail.

Bids shall be conditioned upon the unqualified opinion of Miller, Canfield, Paddock and Stone, attorneys of Detroit, Michigan, which opinion will be furnished without expense to the purchaser of the bonds prior to the delivery thereof, approving the legality of the bonds. The School District shall furnish bonds ready for execution at its expense. Bonds will be delivered without expense to the purchaser at Chicago, Illinois, or New York, New York.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

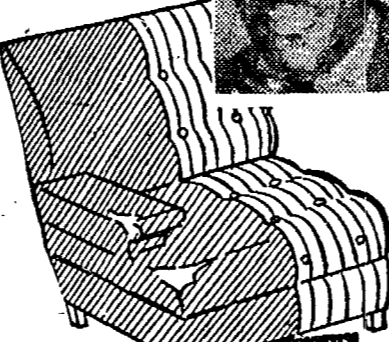

Envelopes containing the bids should be plainly marked "Proposal for Bonds."

Devils and Friars Poised For Regional Tournaments

With the majority of League competition completed, Class A basketball teams are relaxing for a week before diving into numerous regional tournaments throughout the state which will eventually produce champions in Classes A, B, C and D divisions.

Pointe fans are particularly interested in the Ferndale Regional in which the Austin Friars and the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils will play. This tournament will commence on Tuesday, March 13, and run through Saturday, March 17 when the finals will be played.

Austin, champions of the Central Parochial league drew a tough customer in Highland Park, Border Cities League co-champion, in the first round. Grosse Pointe, in the same bracket drew a first round bye and will play the winner of the Austin-Highland Park game on Thursday, March 15.

In the opposite bracket Hamtramck drew a sofiie in Hazel Park and host Ferndale got DeLaSalle, who finished second behind Austin in league play.

The winners of each bracket will battle for Regional honors and will meet the finalist of the Allen Park Regional in the semifinals on March 21. The possible finalist in the Allen Park Regional could be either independent Catholic Central or BCL co-champion Fordson.

Austin, because of its overall height, is rated an even chance to beat Highland Park. The Friars already have seen action in the Parochial City championship in which they finished runner-up to St. Andrew after a see-saw battle in the title tilt on Sunday, February 26.

St. Andrew went on to defeat Southeastern a week later for the All-City title. Southeastern, until the last week of the 1955-56 campaign, held the number one spot in the Class A ratings.

Coach Howard MacAdam's Blue Devils are hoping Austin can trip Highland Park and eliminate the team that holds an iron-clad jinx over them.

Grosse Pointe and Austin have scrimmaged a couple of times this season and the Pointers have made a good showing, which gives them reason to want to tangle with their neighbors.

Regardless of the final outcome, this area will be well represented and could, with luck, come up with a Regional champion.

P-T-A at Defer Meets March 12

The Defer Parent-Teacher Association will hold a general meeting on Monday evening, March 12, 8 o'clock in the school gymnasium.

Parents and teachers will welcome Dr. Milton Covensky, assistant professor of history from Wayne University. Dr. Covensky's topic will be "The Three Greatest Events in the History of Mankind."

The particular purpose of his talk is to provide parents and others with a picture of man's past, and how it can help them to understand themselves and their children in today's world.

Dr. Covensky received his B.A. and Ph.D. Degrees from the University of Michigan. His special fields of interest include Ancient History, History of Ideas, and also History of Religion.

Following the business meeting and Dr. Covensky's speech there will be classroom visitations by the parents. Refreshments will be served in the lunchroom after the room visits.

Boat Banter

Since the date of Canada's challenge for the Harmsworth Trophy, late in December, the race committee of the Yachtsmen's Association of America has been a busy body.

At a recent meeting this committee selected August 25 and 27, for the running of this historic event on the Detroit River. These dates were selected after the Detroit Yacht Club, previously selected as the host to the Harmsworth, changed the date for its annual Fleet Review and Venetian Night from the 25th to 24th.

The committee made provisions for additional races if a third or more races are required. They would be held on succeeding days.

The committee has a knotty problem to wrestle with if no other countries, other than Canada, challenge before the May deadline. Currently, the U.S. will only be allowed one boat to defend the Trophy against Jim Thompson's "Miss Super-tex". Eight other countries have the necessary requirements to challenge and have been notified they have until May 1 to do so if they desire. There are rumors Italy is considering a challenge and if it does so it will minimize the committee's problem as it will then be able to select two U.S. boats.

The Race Committee of the Y.A.A. also announced the race will be run over a five mile counter-clockwise course with the start in front of the Detroit Yacht Club. It will extend from the Belle Isle bridge to above Bayview Yacht Club up river.

The first contest for this trophy was held at Queenstown, Ireland, in 1903. Twenty contests have been held to date. The first time the trophy was brought to this country was back in 1907 after B. J. Schroeder's "Dixie" defeated the British defender in the 1906 race.

It was successfully defended by the U.S. in 1907, '08, '10 and '11. In 1912 Makay Edgar's "Maple Leaf IV" returned the trophy to England where it was to remain until Gar Wood made his successful invasion at Southampton in 1920 and returned it to the U.S. where it has been successfully defended in 10 subsequent contests. Seven of these were won by Gar Wood, one by his brother George Wood and the last two by Stanley Dollar's "Skip-a-Long" in 1949 and Stan Sayre's "Sio-Mo-Shun IV" in 1950.

The only defense of the trophy lost by Gar Wood and which his brother won merely by finishing the race earned the "Grey Fox" nickname for Gar. This was the year he roared his "Miss America X" over the starting line early and pulled his British rival Kaye Don over the line ahead of time also. Both were disqualified. There were many who believed Wood did this purposely. There was never any proof he did so intentionally.

This couldn't happen again under the new rules which limit the defending country to the same number of boats representing other foreign countries. At the present time with only Canada's challenge official, the 1956 contest appears to be a two boat affair. How the U.S. representative will be picked is a BIG question mark. However, it has been unofficially mentioned the YAA Race Committee believes the boat owners should pick America's representative.

Coach Likes Sportsmanship Far Better Than Victory

By Fred Runnells

It's going to be hard to convince the members of St. Paul's reserve basketball team that the old phrase "Cheaters never win" is true after the shenanigans pulled on them in the City championship game which they lost to St. Andrew in overtime, 53-50, last Sunday, March 4 on the Cathedral Central court.

What was supposed to be the Reserve city championship game turned out to be a battle between St. Paul's reserves and a goodly sprinkling of St. Andrew varsity players. One of the St. Andrew players participated in the Varsity City title game the week previous.

Despite the fact that Coach Nap Ross used some of his varsity players the St. Paul reserves took charge of the ball game at the outset and held a narrow lead right up until one minute remained in regulation time.

St. Andrew tied the score at that time and then froze the ball to force the game into overtime.

After Tom Parker, the Flyers' tallest player, fouled out, St. Andrew went on to win the title game.

All through the contest, fans from other schools kept pleading with Flyer Coach Eddie Lauer to substitute some of his varsity players. But always the good guy who believes in following the rules to the letter Lauer refrained.

After the game Lauer confided "winning the game isn't what is important. It's teaching the kids to play by the rules and be good sportsmen."

As long as your reporter has known Coach Lauer, and that's a long time, we have seen him operate under this creed. Never have we seen him take advantage of a loophole in the rules or have we ever seen him allow his team to humiliate another team that is already beaten.

Adhering to his creed, cost him the Reserve City championship but Coach Lauer can live with himself knowing he did the right thing by the rival team and its coach. On the other hand Nap Ross will live to see the day when the tables are reversed on him.

Following the game Coach Lauer changed hats. No he was known as Bus Driver Lauer. You see he drives his kids to the games in the bus that was donated to the Flyers. Well, wha-da-yah-know, the battery was dead. The versatile Lauer got the kids to push the bus until it got started instead of calling a service man like you and I would have done.

Later that day Lauer turned coach again and saw his girl's senior and reserve basketball teams advance another step in the CYO tourney which has another couple of weeks to run before a champion is decided. The Senior team toyed with St. Florian and the reserves walloped St. Francis. Both won their league crowns earlier. Yup, cheaters never win—well, almost never but we still like the way Coach Lauer operates and even if he never wins a title we know his kids are learning clean play and good sportsmanship

Slate Kept Immaculate By Reserves

Grosse Pointe's reserve basketball team faced its severest test of the 1955-56 campaign and came through with an admirable 48-44 victory over Highland Park, to end its season undefeated and win the unofficial Border Cities League crown last Friday, March 2.

In a game that saw the score tied 12 times and the lead change hands 15 times Coach John Thursby's remarkable undefeated Blue Devil reserve team came from behind to tie the score at 42-42 with two minutes and 50 seconds left and forge ahead, 43-42, seconds later to win its tenth league game and the fifteenth of the season.

It marked the first time in memory that a Grosse Pointe reserve team had swept through its schedule unbeaten.

Marty Andrews Stars
The well-coached Devils bounced into a 12-6 first quarter lead mainly on the skill of Marty Andrews, who collected six of his 18 point game total for individual honors in that period.

Surging back early in the second period the good Highland Park team knotted the score at 11-all and from there on the outcome hung in the balance until Larry Bruzezese dumped in two foul shots to give the Devils a 43-42 lead.

Seconds later he flipped in a field goal for a 45-42 margin. Jack Medley climaxed the Devils scoring with three free throws while the Devils' defense slammed the door on the determined Friars' bid for victory in the final two and a half minutes.

Todd Price Strong
Todd Price, considered to be the most improved player on the squad by his coach John Thursby, was a tower of strength as he controlled both boards along with Pete Wade, who was held to a mere two points by a concentrated Polar Bear defense.

Coach Mullin had his player devote their undivided attention on Wade, who in three previous games had paced the Devils both on defense and offense. By concentrating on Wade it gave Price and Andrews, running room and they took every advantage of it.

While Wade decoyed the Polar Bears, Andrews and Price ran wild and their combined efforts netted 30 of the Pointers final point total. Andrews took scoring honors and Price was runner-up with 14 points. Turner and Bradley paced the Polar Bears with 11 points for third place.

Although Wade was held to 2 points his deft ball handling and sharp pass-offs to his teammates contributed greatly to this all important victory.

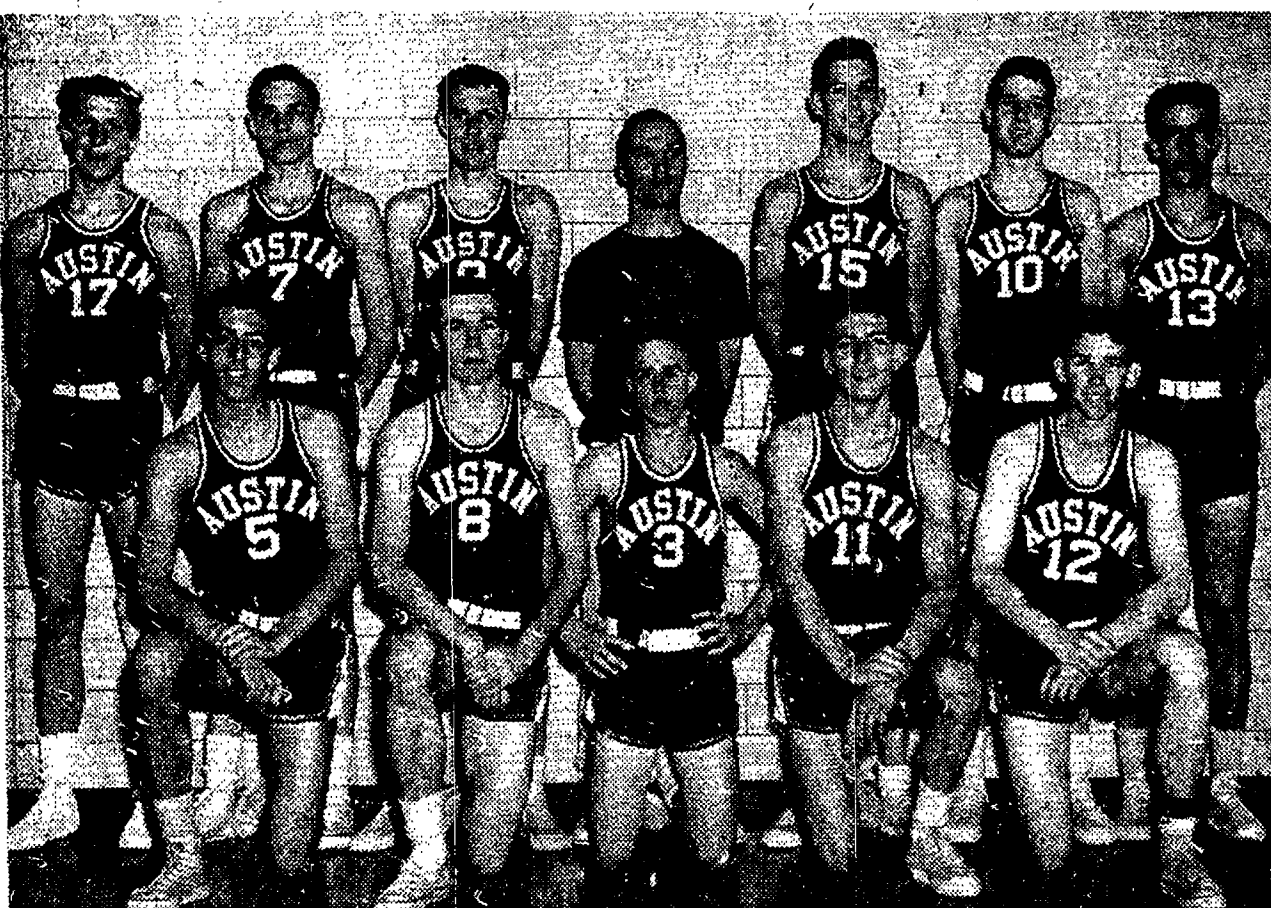

Andrews personally tied the score four times and put the Devils in the lead once. Price's baskets knotted the count three times and gave the Pointers the lead two other times.

Austin High Wins League Crown

Playing its first year in league competition, Austin High swept through its Central Division Parochial League and non-league schedule undefeated to win the flag and qualify for the Parochial City finals. St. Andrews turned back the Friars for the first time to win the City title on Sunday, February 26. The Friars will compete in the Ferndale Regional tournament which gets underway March 14 and have drawn a tough customer in Border Cities League co-champion Highland Park in the first round.

Luck Could Give Devil Swimmers State Laurels

Blue Devil swim coach Frank Banach will make his annual trek to the State Swim next Saturday, March 10, and with a king-size portion of luck and an equal share of the breaks, his team could finish high in the final standings.

This year the school boy meet will be held in the University of Michigan pool at Ann Arbor with qualifying trials getting underway at 10 a. m. for the divers.

The swimming events eliminations will start at 2 p. m. The finals are slated for 8 p. m. The "Blue Devil contingent will include Carl Anderson, Dan Goodnow, Bill Wachter and Harry Huffaker. This quartet will make up the Blue Devils' 200 yard speed relay team which during the dual meet season turned in some of the fastest times recorded in the State. All but Huffaker will also compete in the 50-yard free style trials. Huffaker is entered in the 100 yard free style.

The Pointers' medley relay team will be made up of Dan Bauer, John Bennett, Hal Joerin and Les Cutler. Cutler will also go in the 100 yard back stroke and if he swims up to par should place in the finals. Hal Joerin has entered the 200 yard free style.

Eddie Pongraz is going for the distance events and will compete in the 200 and 400 yard events. The latter was a new event in last year's meet at East Lansing, but is not included in regular dual meets.

Divers Pete Huestis and Joe Moore round out the Devils' team. Both have a chance to qualify. Of the two, Huestis has shown better form since becoming eligible since midyear graduation. Being a senior, Pete will be going all out as this is his last chance, and he hopes to make the most of it.

Banach-coached teams have always finished in the first ten in the final standings. The best they have done is second twice and have never finished worse than sixth, which was last year.

Over 30 schools are entered in the meet next Saturday, and include such powers as Ann Arbor, Saginaw, Battle Creek, Jackson Eastern plus the Pointers regular league rivals Fordson, (who tied the Devils for the BCL crown this year), Monroe and Royal Oak. The latter three are just as tough as they come in the state and could prove troublesome. On the other hand they might just be the teams to give the Devils the boost they need.

Coach Banach figures the top teams are fairly evenly matched and this meet could turn out to be a dog eat dog affair with the final standings being closely bunched. Thirty six points won the title last year. With a little luck the Devils could amass that total come next Saturday.

Memorial Five League Winner

The Junior Division teams wound up their schedule last Saturday, March 3, with the Memorial Juniors finishing with an expected unbeaten record of nine wins.

Because of its size the Memorial team, at the outset, was more or less conceded the title and the other three teams battled for second place. Memorial beat the Christ Church Tigers by a ridiculous, 41-8 margin.

In the other Junior contest the St. Paul Panthers bested the Methodist Mustangs, 23-14, for second place.

The Senior division race continued in a deadlock for first place between Woods Presbyterian and Memorial Diablos. Woods beat the Christ Church Lions, 39-28, and the Diablos topped the Woods Celtics, 44-22.

This Saturday, March 10, will wind up the Senior schedule and then the playoffs will start shortly thereafter.

GPHS Swimmers Complete Successful League Season

A tie for first place with Fordson; a smashing 65-22 victory over Highland Park; an overall season record of 10 wins 2 losses... this sums up the successful swimming season that the Blue Devils of Grosse Pointe have just completed.

Last Friday the tankers slaughtered the Polar Bears of Highland Park, 65-22, to clinch a tie for the B. C. L. crown. No team helped the Devils tie for the title, for Grosse Pointe was the only team to beat Fordson. They beat them twice.

End for Many
The Highland Park meet meant the end of high school swimming for seniors Dan Goodnow, Bill Wachter, Carl Anderson, Harold Joerin, and Pete Huestis. Each got a first in this meet.

Bill Wachter and Carl Anderson started the rout by taking 1-2 in the 40-yard freestyle to give the Pointers an 8-1 advantage. In the breast stroke Dave Gauss took first to hand the Parkers a 13-5 deficit.

In the race of the day, Harry Huffaker just touched out Ed Pongraz to win the 200-yard freestyle and further humiliate the Polar Bears. Les Cutler and Tom Ketzler took a 1-3 in the 100-yard backstroke to notch the score at 27-9.

Goodnow Wins 100
Dan Goodnow, swimming the 100-yard freestyle for the first time in a meet, won it handily and Bill Ewald took third to make the score 33-12 before the diving.

Pete Huestis closed his diving career with a victory and teammate Joe Moore was a close second. John Bennett and Les Cutler slammed the 120-yard individual medley to assure victory.

The medley relay team of Ketzler, Moore, Joerin and Bauer barely touched out the Parkers' squad, to make the score 57-18. The Devils' first relay team of Wachter, Anderson, Huffaker, and Goodnow, swam an exhibition and just missed the pool record.

Another relay team composed of Huestis, Adams, Thomas, and Ewald completed the rout by winning the event and making the final score 65-22.

After State Title
Tomorrow night and Saturday the tankers will be in Ann Arbor trying to bring home the school's first state title. Mr. Banach feels it will be a close meet and figures his finners have an outside chance of winning it.

The boys who will be counted on to carry the school colors are Bill Wachter, Dan Goodnow, Carl Anderson, Harry Huffaker, Ed Pongraz, Harold Joerin, Joe Moore, Les Cutler, and Pete Huestis.

Capture Reserves Capture Title
On Wednesday, February 29, the Austin Catholic Reserve team defeated Mt. Carmel 42 to 38 to capture the Catholic Title. It is the first athletic title in the history of Austin.

The quality of play was not up to its usual standards due to a two week layoff preceding the game. The half-time score was Mt. Carmel 23, Austin Catholic 21.

George Nickson of Austin was the high point man of the game with 16.

In the semi-final played February 16, Coach Ed Carew's Friars defeated the East Side leader, Servite, 59 to 40.

The Mt. Carmel victory marked the 24th straight victory for the Friars. In the past two seasons they won 29 and lost 1.

Polar Bears Pull Upset With Victory Over Pointe

In the final week of the Border Cities League basketball race the Grosse Pointe Blue Devils skidded from a sure-fire third place finish to a two-way tie with Monroe for fourth place and dropped from its twentieth position in the State Class A rankings.

Monroe handed the Devils their fifth league defeat on Tuesday, February 28, with an upset, 50-44 decision and Highland Park nailed the Pointers with a 49-40 loss on Friday, March 2. This defeat marked the fifteenth straight game in which the Devils had wound up on the short end of the score with the Parkers over a six year stretch and marks the longest winning streak ever held by any school over any Grosse Pointe team.

Monroe Pulls Surprise
The Monroe upset was the second biggest surprise in the BCL race. The biggest surprise was Fordson's win over Highland Park in their second meeting this year which, eventually, enabled the Tractors to tie the Parkers for the BCL 1955-56 crown.

Early in the Trojan-Devil game Grosse Pointe jumped to a 10-0 lead in the first four minutes but at halftime the Trojans tied the count at 22-all. Coach Howard MacAdam's co-captains pulled away once again in the third stanza but fell before Monroe's pressure in a last period rally to lose their fifth contest in league play.

Sandy Smith paced the Pointers with 11 points but was only third best in the individual scoring race which was taken by Monroe's Bob Patterson with 14 points and Lou Russell's 12 points.

Feel Loss of Graduates
In the first meeting the Devils easily outpointed the Trojans but felt the loss this time of big Bob Moreland and Jerry Olson, who graduated last January. Moreland and Olson gave the Pointers control of the boards in the first meeting.

Three days later, Friday, March 2, the Blue Devils squared off with Highland Park before a record crowd, unofficially estimated at 3,300, in the new gymnasium in the final game of the season. With all this spectator support the Blue Devils truly believed they could crack the Highland Park jinx.

On the other hand the Parkers needed one more victory to annex the BCL crown for the sixth consecutive year and they weren't content to roll over and play dead.

Fight on Even Terms
Paced by Bill Leonard's 6 points the Devils battled the Parkers on even terms with the lead changing hands five times and being tied four times before the Polar Bears squeezed into a 15-14 lead at the end of the first quarter.

Ron Zill, the leading scorer of the night with 14 points, pushed the Parkers out in front with two quick baskets as the second period got underway and it appeared the Polar Bears were on their way.

But Bruce Boardman tied the count at 20-all at the five minute mark. A basket by Hill and a pair of free throws by Wussles enabled the Parkers to leave the floor at halftime holding a 24-20 margin, which they never relinquished in the sloppily played game.

Highland Park scored only two field goals in the third period but gave an amazing foul shooting exhibition by making 10 of 12 tries from the free throw line to lead 38-30 going into the final quarter.

Pointers Befuddled
Razor sharp passing and superb ball handling by the Parkers completely befuddled the Pointers in the final period. Behind by 8 points but still determined, the Devils tried valiantly to get their hands on the ball but only succeeded in committing repeated fouls which gave the Parkers eight more free throws. They cashed in on 5 to remain just out of the reach of the thwarted Devils.

Actually, Grosse Pointe out shot Highland Park from the floor, 14 to 12, and held a better foul shooting average making 12 of 18 free throws as compared to the Parkers' 23 for 31 attempts. The picture of the Polar Bears' victory is reflected in the other statistics. Grosse Pointe committed 20 personal fouls and Highland Park only 11.

Leonard, Boardman Star
Although Bill Leonard paced the Pointers attack with 12 points for runner-up honors, it was Bruce Boardman, the red hot reserve who joined the varsity at the start of the second half of the season, who kept the Devils from being routed. Prior to Boardman's appearance in the second quarter Highland Park controlled both backboards. Boardman, although one of the smallest players on the floor, repeatedly gained possession of the ball from such Parker giants as 6 feet 4 inch Ron Zill.

Because of Boardman's sore back, Coach MacAdam refrained from starting him and probably would have kept him on the bench had it not been for the little scrapper's insistent plea to play. The kid's got "Moxie" and the unquenchable desire to win.

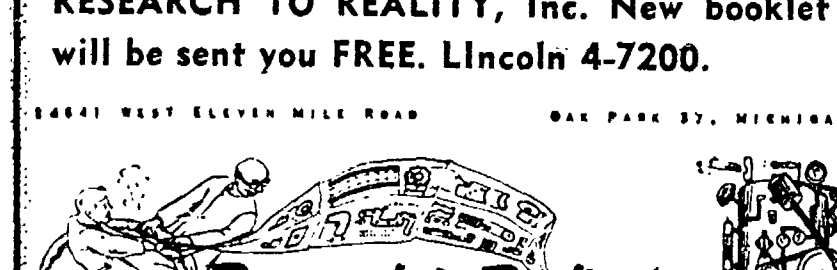

Win Nine, Lose Six
Grosse Pointe finished the season with an overall mark of 9 wins and 6 losses. On the same night Fordson vaulted into a two-way tie for the title by beating Royal Oak, 53-46, and Monroe lost its chance for sole possession of third place when upset by Wyandotte, 54-49, for its second win of the season, to create a two-way tie for last place with Royal Oak.

Pace Stays Hot In Bowling Loop

With only five weeks remaining in the Grosse Pointe Businessmen's Bowling League no less than seven teams are still in the running for the second half title. Eight points separate the league leading Barrett Keglars from the deadlocked Turner Buick and Belding teams currently residing in seventh place.

Barrett managed three points over City Glass in last Friday's competition to stretch its lead to two points over Lochmoor who nicked Boutin for three points. The defeat dropped Boutin from second to third place.

Club Cage Loop Titles Decided

One full week before the end of the regular schedule in the Midget Basketball League at the Neighborhood Club, the Optimists clinched the 1955-56 crown. The clincher game came against the Kiwanis five in the second game of the triple header bill on Tuesday, February 28.

The Optimists took no chances as they soared to their twelfth consecutive victory, 32-22, to finish the season with an unblemished record. Tom Gutwold paced the Optimist attack with 12 points and Pete Swanson led the losers with 9.

In the first game that night Exchange downed the Lions, 35-20, behind the sharpshooting of Ron Kasperick, who notched 19 points for honors. Terry McDonald topped the losers with 10.

The Giant League Falcons clinched their crown by tripping the third place Eagles, 32-20, with Lars Anderson getting honors with 16 points while Bill Nolte paced the Eagles with 10.

The Lions won their second game within a week when they topped the luckless Metro team, 26-10, in the second game on Monday, March 5. The victory clinched third place for the Lions while the Metro defeat firmly entrenched them in last place. Ron Kasperick again led the winners with 12 points and John Hubner paced the losers with 5.

In the first game Exchange and Post 303 battled in a game that meant absolutely nothing regardless of the outcome. Exchange won a close battle, 18-14, for a fifth place finish.

Larry Englehard gained a measure of consolation for Post 303 by earning scoring honors with 10 points. Terry McDonald led the losers with 7.

Oldtimers

The Old Timers were most happy to welcome two new members, Mr. William Stephens and Mr. Charles West, to their Club last Friday afternoon. The Old Timers Club is a social club for gentlemen who have retired. Their activities at the present time consist of pinch sessions. However, for those who do not care for cards, billiards and just good old fashioned visiting are popular pastimes, and refreshments are served.

A most cordial invitation is extended by the Old Timers to any gentlemen who have some free time to visit them at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo, on Friday afternoons from 1:30 to 5 p.m. For further information or arrangements for transportation, please call Miss Masak, TU 5-4600. If you know of any gentlemen who might enjoy this club, group please tell them about it. The more—the merrier!

Adult Group

A week from Saturday, March 17, is the big fun night at the Neighborhood Club for all folks — married or un! Everyone is advised to come dressed in Bermudas or slacks and gym shoes are a must because activities center around Volleyball, table tennis, billiards and a bit of square dancing. A nubile table is set up so that at any time you feel the urge, snacks are on hand. Why not get a group of your neighbors together and come to the Club on Saturday, March 17 from 8 to 11 p.m. for an evening and be a participant instead of a spectator. All are welcome!

Knitting Ladies

It will soon be time to put your knitting needles away and get rid of scraps of yarn you won't be using. The Knitting Ladies hope you will keep them in mind when you do, as their supply of scrap yarn is depleted and since their work goes on all year long it is quite a problem to keep enough yarn on hand so that the needles can continue clicking. The Knitting Ladies have been knitting at the Neighborhood Club since 1942 and have made hundreds of afghans which have been sent to Korea, Red Cross, Local Cancer and Convallescent Hospitals and to disaster areas all over the country. They have only been able to do this through the kindness of people who have sent in their scrap yarn throughout these many years. Yarn can be left at the Neighborhood Club, 17145 Waterloo, or called for at your home. Call Miss Masak, TUxedo 5-4600.

Little League Picks Managers

The Little League Managers for the 1956 baseball season were approved at the February 28th meeting of the Board of Governors. Those appointed and the teams they will manage are as follows:

American League: Yankees, Howard L. Davenport; Indians, Marvin Hansen; Tigers, Chas. H. Johnson; Red Sox, H. S. Shannon.

National League: Braves, Arthur Dlouhy; Giants, Vern H. Dumas; Dodgers, John M. Easton, Jr.; Cardinals Keith Karr.

American Association League: Minneapolis, William Boyd; Denver, Robert A. Cunningham; Toledo, Donald S. Jacobs; Louisville, Louis F. Kraetke; St. Paul, Eugene Most; Omaha, Douglas Shrieves; Charleston, Robert H. Stoetzer; Indianapolis, John R. Zimmerman.

International League: Columbus, Burke Fossee; Buffalo, Jack F. Murrich; Havana, Kenneth G. Jones; Montreal, E. H. Meyers, Jr.; Toronto, David W. Smith; Richmond J. F. Walters, Jr.; Miami, Robert N. Warner; Rochester, Claude T. Williams.

It was also the unanimous opinion of the board that the Detroit Empire's Association be engaged again to furnish umpires for the new season. The prestige given to the games by using qualified umpires helps give these future baseball stars the right attitude toward teamwork and good sportsmanship.

Top Pin Teams Battle to Tie

League leading Redwood and second place Stober locked horns last Friday, March 2, and after the pins stopped flying neither had gained on the other. Both annexed two points to enable Redwood to keep its one and a half point lead.

Piche, behind Wernet's 222 and O'Brien's 563 series, took three from Youngblood and moved into a two-way second place tie with Stober. The defeat dropped Youngblood down to third.

Kopp's took two from Custom and then Kennametal dropped three points to Rightenburg and slipped into a two-way fourth place tie with Kopp's.

Rosati and Stewart split four points and slipped into a two-way deadlock for eighth place.

Cody, swimming for Detroit Turners, dolphined the first 75 yards and frog kicked the last length to win the Junior Boys' 100-yd. Butterfly Championship, in the time of 1:08.1.

Later he contributed 50 yards of Orthodox to Turners' winning 200-yard Medley Relay team, with Mike Gorman on backstroke, Carl Gallo, on butterfly, and Glenn Frank on freestyle, the time of 2:01.8 breaking the Canadian National Junior Boys' record by four tenths. Eleanor Lagerkvist, of Turners, outclassed all of the Canadian Senior Women, in winning the 220-yard breaststroke, with a time of 3:18.4.

MRS. JAMES LEE II—back from Otsego and nursing an injured knee . . . disgusting part was that she hurt the leg early in her stay and had to watch other skiers enjoying themselves all week. Thinks it wouldn't have been nearly so bad if she could have skied all week and been laid up just when it was time to come home.

MRS. JOHN F. MOTTSCHALL—new recipient of a citation for release of a sailfish from Florida's Upper Keys Chamber of Commerce. Mrs. Mottsall won the coveted parchment aboard "Bimini Babe" skippered by Captain Bill Mann. The Mottsalls were vacationing at Toll Gate Inn, lower Matecumbe.

MRS. JAMES H. QUELLO—home Saturday after a week-long vacation in Miami Beach, with an experience which undoubtedly ranks as the worst of the week. Her plane damaged its landing gear in take-off, so that the crew and passengers spent 2½ excruciating hours maneuvering over the airfield in a futile attempt to dislodge the gear, before making a dramatic crash-landing with TV cameras grinding away, ambulances and swarms of reporters standing by.

"I never prayed so hard in my life," she reports. "There wasn't any doubt that they were expecting the worst . . . they told us to 'Cover your faces' as we went in for the landing, and that didn't do a thing for our morale."

Pretty in plaid: MISS ELIZABETH PRESCOTT and MRS. J. HILLIARD HICKS.

Soft mauve dress and round green hat were choice of MRS. LONGYEAR PALMER for recent tea meeting. MRS. WILLIAM J. YOUNG was smart in all-brown ensemble.

PILFERINGS

In Washington, an attractive young Government worker made a practice of coming in about one minute late every day. Repeated warnings by her supervisor had no effect. Finally, in exasperation he announced, "Miss Brown, I am tired of talking to you about your tardiness. I am, therefore, suspending you for one day without pay. When would you like to take the day?"

"Well, if it's all right with you," she replied instantly, "I'd like to use it up being late."

The old Negro laundress came in one day with a tale of woe. "Cheer up, Mandy," said her mistress consolingly. "There's no use worrying."

"How come here's no use in worrying?" Mandy demanded. "When de good Lawd send me tribulation He spect me to tribulate, don't He?"

An elderly gentleman, wealthy and very deaf, went into a shop to purchase a much improved hearing aid. Two weeks later he returned to report that he could hear conversations quite easily, even in the next room.

"Your friends and relatives must be very happy that you can hear so much better," the clerk said.

"Oh, I haven't told them," he chuckled. "I've been sitting around listening—and do you know what? I've changed my will twice."

Dorothy Kilgallen reported that Clifton Webb started taking liver shots some time ago and then began selling the idea to his friends. Helen Hayes was one who succumbed in the face of his enthusiasm. "Do they really make you feel better?" Miss Kilgallen asked her.

"Oh, they're wonderful!" she said. "I feel full of vigor and vim." Her voice dropped a little. "Except once in a while when I forget I've taken them—then I feel terrible."

Two ants were running along at a great rate across a cracker box when one asked, "Why are we going so fast?" "Don't you see?" said the other. "It says 'tear along dotted line!'"

The young actress, who had redecorated her New York apartment in ultra-modern style, was showing it to Ethel Barrymore. "Do tell me how you like it," she said proudly. "How wonderful!" the great actress exclaimed, "to be young enough to have the stamina to live with it!"

Pointer of Interest

MISS BETSY ANN STEVENS OF MOROSS ROAD
By Kitty Marriott

After her cross-country and around-the-world tours of the past eight years, traveling has become more "habit than hobby," asserts pert Betsy Ann Stevens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mark C. Stevens.

Betsy began her travel career by taking Chet Sampson's western jaunt in 1948 and she has gone abroad every summer since. She attended Grosse Pointe Country Day School, graduating from Sweetbriar College just last June. Along the way she supplemented her schooling with summer courses at the University of Geneva, where at 15 she was the youngest student that school had ever enrolled, and the University of Mexico.

There were rumors of a possible trip to Russia next summer, but Betsy quickly squelched these. After packing and unpacking her luggage no less than 38 times in 10 weeks on last summer's European tour, she prefers to "stay put" for a while.

From Betsy's conversation, however, one would gather that she can't stay in one spot for long. At the time of this interview (which was the first week in February), she was going to Washington the following weekend, simply had to be in New York for an April 7 wedding, and might sandwich a Florida vacation in-between. But those "little trips" don't count in the travel department.

Naturally, Betsy has covered the 48 states; to keep that record intact, she once got off a train in a small western town when the temperature shuddered at 24 degrees below zero, just so she could truthfully say she'd been in Montana.

With the royal pair, Betsy enjoyed a restful 21-day cruise before they reached Bangkok, where the Pointe traveler remained as a guest at the palace for six weeks. Then, Betsy went on to Hong Kong and a tour of the Orient before returning home for Christmas. Western influence is great in the Orient, Betsy found, in everything from dress to household furnishings. The great numbers of servants in the East contrast sharply with custom here, however.

Betsy had her first experiences eating with chopsticks in Malaya and again in Hong Kong; in Tokyo she got used to hearing Japanese talk about "fled lice".

She found the Buddhist ritual fascinating when she visited Ceylon, and it charmed her to be met at the Temple of the Sacred Tooth by a man bedecked in such finery that she thought he must be one of the high priests. He was only the church warden, she learned; the high priests were inconspicuous in plain yellow robes.

She has shown her colorful films at Williams House and for groups of friends. In addition to the film record of her most recent trips, Betsy has photo albums and scrapbooks on her many travels.

A newspaper scrapbook contains one of Betsy's earliest pictures. It shows her mother holding six-year-old Betsy in connection with some philanthropic work which Mrs. Stevens was doing for an orphanage. This bit of publicity once led Tommy Stevens, now 14, to ask Betsy the classic question: "Were you an orphan?"

Reading and Music
Reading anything, but mostly history, is one of Betsy's favorite hobbies. She has built up her own library of some 200 books, including the old masters, fiction and historical novels.

She also has a 150-album library of classical music. She studied piano through most of her school years, and naturally attributes her love of music to the influence of her grandmother, Mrs. Mark B. Stevens, who's a classical pianist.

Golf and swimming rate high on the hobby chart of attractive brown-haired Betsy, who made her debut in May, 1951, at a Country Club dinner dance. With a political science major, and a minor in French and Spanish, plus her vast travel experience, Betsy is currently taking a four-months stenographic course to prepare for a new role: a job in government.

"I'm not ready to travel now," says Betsy, "although I may change my mind later on. Right now, it's good just to be home."

Alumnae of Alpha Phi To Meet on March 13

The Detroit-Grosse Pointe alumnae chapter of Alpha Phi will meet the evening of March 13 at the Kerby road home of Mrs. John Ball.

Hostesses for the meeting will be Mrs. Stuart A. Fraser III and Mrs. Allan Neef.

DANISH COFFEE CAKE

Contributed by Mrs. Harold Lyndrup

- ½ c. milk, scalded
- 2 T. shortening
- ¼ c. sugar
- 1 t. salt
- 1 cake yeast, fresh or dried
- ½ c. lukewarm water
- 2 beaten eggs
- ¾ to 4 c. enriched flour

Combine milk, shortening sugar and salt; cool to lukewarm. Soften yeast in lukewarm water (soak dry yeast 5 or 10 minutes), add to lukewarm milk mixture. Add beaten eggs, stir in flour, mix to soft dough. (At this point, you may add raisins, chopped dates, candied mixed fruit and/or chopped nuts, for a holiday cake.)

Knead lightly. Place in greased bowl; cover with damp cloth. Let rise until doubled in bulk, about 2 hours. Punch down, let rise 30 minutes. Flatten dough out into a rectangle 1 inch thick. Let stand 10 minutes.

Melt ¼ lb. butter. Mix together ½ c. granulated sugar, ½ c. brown sugar and 2 t. cinnamon.

Cut dough into 1-inch squares; form into balls which should be no larger than a walnut. Dip balls into melted butter, then roll in sugar mixture. Place in layers in greased ring molds or round layer cake pans. Cover; let raise until doubled. Bake in 400° oven 20-25 minutes.

(This is the recipe that Mrs. Lyndrup's friends have been waiting for — they've tasted this mouth-watering delicacy!)

Three Charity Groups Merge

Tau Beta, Neighborhood House, and the Highland Park Community Center have, with the approval of the United Community Service Board, joined forces and incorporated into the Neighborhood Service Organization. Board leadership, resources, and professional skill of the three will be combined to better serve the communities of Metropolitan Detroit.

The complete board of directors for the N.S.O. met for the first time in November, 1955, at which time Mrs. Robert T. P. Peirce reported on the program for the decentralized social services. The board plans to develop as well as direct a flexible group work, leisure time and neighborhood service programs.

Emeric Kurtagh, executive director, announced that new projects were underway to serve Burton School and Cleveland School, and the new Jeffrey Housing, one of the big centers which needs help, having 6000 children and very few recreational facilities.

The N.S.O. will be governed by a board of directors composed of six representatives from each of the three agencies, plus nine members at large.

Members of Tau Beta on the board will be Mrs. Theodore R. Buttrick Jr., Mrs. Ferdinando Cinelli, Mrs. John F. Finlayson, Mrs. Charles B. Hull, Mrs. Richard M. Kimbrough and Mrs. Peirce.

Neighborhood House is represented by Mrs. Edward G. Acomb, Mrs. J. Crawford Frost, Mrs. W. Carlton Healy, Mrs. Frank N. Isbey, Mrs. Ezra Lockwood, and Mrs. Donald C. Stevenson.

The Highland Park Community Center will be represented by Alva Davis, Mrs. Clare G. Judd, Glenn Nixon, Mrs. Davidson Obenaus, Mrs. Jack Pickering and Judge Gavin D. Smith.

Members at large includes Mrs. Alan Canty, Inspector Francis Davey, Mrs. Edward Davis, Mrs. Lee D. Durham, Mrs. L. C. Freimuth, Mrs. C. P. Lungy, George Lyons, Harold Myron and Mrs. Teresa Wagner.

PRICE OUTLOOK

Prices of clothing, home equipment and consumer services are expected to go up this year, but food prices are likely to be about the same as last year, reports the U.S. Department of Agriculture. Overall increases in the cost of living are expected to be small for 1956.

Rubinstein's Concert Mar. 14

Artur Rubinstein, who will appear at Masonic Auditorium Wednesday evening, March 14, made his first American appearance 50 years ago.

Born in Warsaw, Poland, son of a hand-loom manufacturer, Rubinstein first displayed signs of musical talent at the age of Saint-Saens, Paderewski and three. At six he already had performed at a charity concert in Warsaw. At eleven, young Artur made his formal debut in Berlin under the baton of the venerable Joachim, who had assumed responsibility for Artur's musical future.

By the time Rubinstein was fifteen, his reputation had spread throughout Europe and he had earned the praise of musical talent at the age of Saint-Saens, Paderewski and three. At six he already had performed at a charity concert in Warsaw. At eleven, young Artur made his formal debut in Berlin under the baton of the venerable Joachim, who had assumed responsibility for Artur's musical future.

What's Behind This Door?

Fisher Road, number 397 is The Clothes Line. Behind this door Spring begins. A feminine all purpose costume is typical . . . a cotton print dress . . . long torso . . . full skirt. Over it all, a navy wool sheer coat with a flare to its cut . . . fully lined.

To crown this fashion choose a little amount of finery . . . it clips to the head . . . it's all the hat one EVER needs. Add a fine navy calfskin bag . . . tortoise shell handle . . . my yes, milady IS ready for spring.
