INCUMBENTS WINNERS IN WOODS

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Thursday, March 29

PHILADELPHIA was rocked by a bomb-like explosion which destroyed a big grain warehouse in a busy commercial area of the city. At least four persons were reported dead and about 115 injured, including 14 night class students at the Drexel Institute of Technology.

The school, along with other major educational, governmental and business institutions, is located within the five-block area which bore the brunt of the explosion.

The explosion was attributed to heavy accumulation of dust in a grain elevator. More than 500 policemen were sent to the scene to keep order, direct traffic and prevent looting.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER and Secretary of State John Foster Dulles held a meeting which was veiled in secrecy. The Secretary later said the meeting was not urgent. The conference, which was billed as "important" by White House aides, was held shortly after the President returned from the North American "summit meeting" with the chief executives of Canada and Mexico.

Dulles said that he and the President had "discussed an accumulation of State Department business." Other sources said it was about the Middle East crisis and possible ways of averting war between the Arab nations and Israel.

RUSSIA HAS AGREED to President Eisenhower's "open-sky" disarmament inspection plan, which it once turned down. American sources were of the opinion that it was a "solid proposal" and not propaganda.

Informed sources at the five-power disarmament conference, now in its fourth day in London, said the Soviet offer goes further than ever before, but the part pertaining to the President's plan is hedged with a thicket of restrictions. The United States, Britain, France and Canada are studying the plan closely. Conference delegates would not comment or disclose details of the plan.

Friday, March 30
THE DETROIT AREA is beginning to feel the pinch of a milk strike by area producers. The Fair Share Bargaining Association began its drive in Detroit and then spread most of its activities outside. It appeared the milk shortage would worsen today, as the dairy farmers, most of them members of the Michigan Producers Association, persisted in their determination to force a price increase.

The farmers, 12,600 of them, are poised, ready to dump their milk if the price hike is not granted. State Police and sheriffs and deputies from 14 counties met in Imlay City to discuss problems of meeting the strike. They said violence will not be tolerated.

ICELAND has asked the United States to remove American troops from Keflavik Air Base, a strategic NATO outpost for the controlling of the North Atlantic in the event of war. A battalion or so of American troops are stationed at the base.

The hostility of the Icelanders is not considered as a crisis, but officials are disturbed by the implications of a resolution by the Iceland Parliament. It was said that the U. S. has plenty of time and room to soothe Iceland, but there is fear that this type of "neutrality" might become infectious among other points of the NATO line of defense against the Soviet Union from Turkey to Norway.

THE LATEST report from Algeria disclosed that at least 160 persons were killed in fighting between French troops and Nationalist rebels. The French were also reported to be re-inforcing the 200,000 troops already scattered over the vast North African territory.

Finishing Touches Being Put on Parks By City and Farms

Big Expansion Projects on Lakefront Recreation Sites Expected to Be Completed Before Opening of New Season

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms will open bids on Friday, April 6, for the construction of 57 lockers for boat owners at the Municipal Pier. The installation of the lockers is one of the last jobs left to be finished before the park improvement program is completed.

On the same day bids will be opened for the dredging of the swimming area in accordance with plans prepared by the city's engineering office.

Building New Bridge

A concrete bridge between the boathouse area and the south boat mooring dock is about to be constructed. The old bridge was removed and the new one prepared for concrete by the pier personnel. The new bridge will be built with a 3,000 pound mix with steel wire mesh for about $37.

A concrete ramp will be erected to replace existing wooden steps at the point where the main sidewalk on the south side meets the boathouse.

When the ground settles, it is hoped that a black top covering can be laid on the parking lot. There is also the possibility that additional sidewalks will be built.

Will Complete Program

These final construction jobs will complete the expansive park improvement program, which cost over $500,000.

Boat owners may use the pier's docking facilities beginning May 15, but swimmers are not expected to take to the water until a later date.

The City is also making preparations to open its municipal park, at the foot of University place at Jefferson.

Ice floes have continued to make the harbor inaccessible to lake craft, but when it has melted, boats owners will be able to moor their vessels.

To Plant New Property

Final grading and lawn and shrubbery is planned for the 110 by 400 foot strip which was once a part of the Doughty property.

Bids are under consideration for the duplication of the entrance gateway to the park. Another gate will be added with a gatekeeper's house between the entrance and exit portals.

Another bicycle rack will be added along with additional picnic stoves and tables.

Street Signs Being Replaced

The City of Grosse Pointe has almost completed replacing the old wooden street markers with new metal signs.

Norbert, Neff, City clerk, said the wooden signs had seen service since 1920. Thirty-six years of repainting and weathering have reduced most of these markers to fire wood.

The new signs have black lettering on a white background and will last indefinitely.

Started Last Week

Mr. Heger said the city started its spraying the last week in March, during which time there were two favorable days. The city will use its two hydraulic spraying machines until the entire program is completed, he added.

He said that during the winter, the city cut down about 35 elms, which were suspected of having the dreaded Dutch Elm disease.

Ordinarily, the elms are not removed until they have defoliated and it can better be determined whether they have the disease or not.

Elm trees on city property number about 4,200, Mr. Heger said.

Sunday School Windows Broken

Reverend Whitney of Christ Church showed Farms police where some vandals had fired BB pellets through three windows in the new Sunday school building Tuesday, March 27.

One 3 by 8 feet thermopane had been perforated, and two 4 by 5 plate glass windows showed BB holes.

Koppin Beats McKnight for Mayor Again

Apathy Evident as Only 2,760 Out of 9,530 Qualified Voters Go to Polls

A light turnout of voters in the Woods on Monday, April 2, saw the return of all incumbents to office and the passage of three charter amendments by a substantial majority.

Only 2,760 voters, out of approximately 9,530 qualified, saw fit to express their choice on election day.

Mayor Koppin Re-elected

Mayor Kenneth Koppin topped his opponent, Waid McKnight, former mayor and a sticker candidate in this election, by 718 votes, receiving 1,661, as compared to McKnight's 943. Last year, Koppin edged McKnight out of office by about 64 votes.

Of the incumbent councilmen, Kenneth McLeod received the highest number of votes, getting 1,844.

Harry Pratt received 1,551; James Hunt, 1,532; and James Bowling was given 1,510, making him a councilman in his own right. He was appointed to fill the unexpired term of the late George Heckendorn, who died August 1955, but according to law; had to run for the balance of the term at the next election.

Losses to Incumbents

Rodger Graef, who opposed the councilmen incumbents for the full two-year term of office, lost out with only 1,069 votes.

The three amendments passed by a big majority.

Amendment 1, which would increase the authorities of the city administrator, in making purchases and sales of personal property and awarding public improvement contracts from $500 to $1,000, received a yes vote of 1,640; and no, 835.

Amendment 2, which would increase the mayor's term of office from the present one-year term to two years, was approved by 2,070 votes, with only 518 voters opposing the measure.

Amendment 3, pertaining to the compensation of the mayor and councilmen on a term year basis, rather than on a fiscal year basis, passed by 1,945 votes, as against 563 by those who did not want the amendment passed.

Wait Legal Opinion

With the end of the election and the passage of Amendment 2, all that remains now is the legal opinion of the city attorney as to whether the two-year term of mayor will apply immediately, or following the election in April 1957.

The opinion should be forthcoming at the postponed council meeting which is scheduled for tonight, April 5.

The election winners will be sworn in by City Clerk Herbert Brauns on Monday, April 9, in compliance with a city charter clause which stipulates that a council meeting and swearing-in ceremonies must be held on the Monday following a city election.

Horticultural Pageant Planned

Sam Caldwell, known to millions for his Saturday morning broadcasts on "The Garden Gate" radio program, will speak here on Thursday evening, April 19, at the Horticultural Pageant to be held in the auditorium of the Charles A. Parcels School starting at 8 o'clock.

The "Old Dirt Dobber" will address local gardeners on the subject "Gardeners Never Grow Old" in which he offers practical methods for beautifying the American home.

Amateur gardeners will find his remarks on the latest techniques and equipment for managing and cultivating gardens most helpful.

The pageant has been arranged by the Men's Garden Club of Grosse Pointe in honor of the 100th anniversary celebration of the Ferry-Morse Seed Co., and all local gardeners are invited to attend. There will be no admission charge and the comprehensive program will be of interest to all.

Scared Thief Flees from Park Home

13-Year-Old Girl, Mother Roused by Thief; Unlocked Door Makes Entrance Easy

A burglar who brazenly invaded a Park home at 2:50 a.m. on Sunday, April 1, while the occupants were sleeping, was frightened away before he could be recognized or apprehended.

The home entered by the unknown prowler was that of the Edward Bensons, 798 Berkshire.

Park Police Chief Arthur Louwers said that the invader had found an open door of the house and had no trouble getting in. He then went to the second floor and into the bedroom of the Bensons' daughter, Marilyn, 13.

The girl told police that she was awakened by someone and thought it was her father. She said she saw a form pick up her coat from a chair and then put it back, but could not recognize the person because of the darkness.

Scared Intruder Flees

Mrs. Benson, hearing a noise in her daughter's room, turned on her own light and called to Marilyn, asking what was the matter. This apparently frightened the intruder, who fled.

The occupants of the house said they did not hear the door open or close when the burglar made good his escape.

A check of the house disclosed nothing missing.

Hit-Run Driver Cornered In Farms Dead End Street

Mack avenue at Cloverly was the scene of a hit and run auto accident early Wednesday afternoon, March 28.

Mary P. Eichberger of Lenox in Detroit, was driving her 1955 Ford east on Mack when she noticed through her rear view mirror, a car pull from the curb and cut across two lanes of traffic. The car increased its speed and as it attempted to pass, crashed into the rear of the Eichberger Ford, causing damage to the fender and quarter panel.

The driver stopped and told Mrs. Eichberger he would pull his car around the corner where they could discuss the accident. Then he turned from Mack onto Cloverly and sped away toward Beaupre.

Mrs. Eichberger immediately reported the accident to Farms

University of Michigan Student Groups to Offer Entertainment at Center

Famed "Psurfs" and "Miss Chords" to Provide Variety of Musical Numbers in Free Program Set for April 16

Pointers are due for another evening of fun and light vocal entertainment at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, Monday, evening, April 16, at 8:30 p.m. The program is open to the public without charge.

The "Psurfs" are all University of Michigan Law Students. This singing group was organized in 1941 with just one view in mind—to entertain.

Popular on Campus

The current members, Whit

Gray, Dick Ruby, Bill Whitfield, Roger Boerna, Bob Brown, Ted Dunn, John Herbert, Ron Pentacost, Jack Ross, Mike Kelly and Dave Osgood find their schedule jammed with singing at campus dances and parties and Law School functions. They won the all campus "gulanties" talent composition in 1955 and have recorded two albums of songs.

The distaff side of the program will be handled by the Miss Chords, a campus quartet composed of two singing sisters, Nancy and Mary Witham, singing old favorites and popular numbers with Fern Frisby and Sue Snell.

Will Blend Talents

Members of the Psurfs will join some of the Miss Chords in mixed quartets and specialty numbers.

The University of Michigan Club of Grosse Pointe is helping to sponsor this program.

Woods Official Wins Compliment

Donald Hallman, Woods director of parks and recreation, reaped the results of an extension course in his field when he was presented a certificate by City Administrator William H. Lange on behalf of the International City Managers' Association.

The certificate, presented on Friday, March 30, was for the successful completion of a course, done at home, on Municipal Recreation Administration which is sponsored by the association.

The document was awarded by the Institute for Training in Municipal Administration.

In a letter to Mr. Hallman, the city administrator said, "Your initiative in completing this extension course on Municipal Recreation Administration conducted by the International City Managers' Association is to be commended. Your instructor, Beverly S. Sheffield, director of recreation for the City of Austin, Texas, reports that your work was well above average."

DESTRUCTIVE MARKSMEN

William Christian of 554 Barrington notified Park police on Tuesday, March 27, that someone had shot a BB through the glass of his front window.

Park Pushes Program to Protect Elms

Trees on Private Property Also Being Sprayed Despite Protests of Professionals

The Park will go ahead with its program of spraying privately owned elm trees, along with city-owned trees, in spite of a pending court hearing scheduled for around April 10, it was said by Herbert Heger, head of the Public Service Department.

The city is being challenged on its right to spray elms on private property by a tree spraying firm, which claims the Park is engaging in a private enterprise, and thereby depriving legitimate firms of doing the job.

Only a Hearing

The court action is only a hearing and not to answer any form of injunction restraining the city from carrying out its proposed program.

Mr. Heger said the over-all cost of spraying, public and private, will be more than $8,000.

He said letters had been sent to the private owners, asking them if they wished the city to treat their trees and that about 30 percent have authorized the Park to undertake the spraying.

Started Last Week

Mr. Heger said the city started its spraying the last week in March, during which time there were two favorable days. The city will use its two hydraulic spraying machines until the entire program is completed, he added.

He said that during the winter, the city cut down about 35 elms, which were suspected of having the dreaded Dutch Elm disease.

Ordinarily, the elms are not removed until they have defoliated and it can better be determined whether they have the disease or not.

Elm trees on city property number about 4,200, Mr. Heger said.

TASS, the official Soviet news agency, disclosed Russia's own plans for disarmament, which would discuss, on a separate basis, the questions of reducing nuclear weapons and conventional arms. The Soviet proposal took into consideration President Eisenhower's "open skies" plan for aerial reconnaissance as a method of controlling arms buildup.

Tass said the Russian plan was offered as a way out of the present "blind alley" on disarmament. The plan, which was introduced to the five-nation disarmament subcommittee, is now under study in the Western capitals.

Flint joined more than 800 farmers to thwart efforts of the Michigan Milk Producers Association to move out tank trucks loaded with milk. It was the first time the union had given active support to the striking Fair Share Bargaining Association composed of farmers seeking higher prices for their raw milk.

A spokesman for the UAW told the pickets "The CIO is behind you 100 percent and if you need more help you will get it." Twenty-six dairies signed with the MMPA, agreeing to pay $5 a hundredweight for raw milk. The FSBA sneered at the MMPA settlement and are holding out for $6.50.

THE UNITED STATES turned down the sale of arms for Israel—at least for the present. Israel's Ambassador Abba Eban met with State Department officials for the second time this week in an effort to get $4 million dollars worth of planes and arms.

He said his request was turned down because the U. S. feared that the sale of weapons and further shipments to Israel might inflame the already tense Middle East. It was indicated that Canada and Britain are leaning toward the idea that Israel should get the arms.

Sunday, April 1

DIPLOMATIC CIRCLES said that the Communists in Russia are circulating a report that Stalin personally killed his second wife, Nadia Alliluyeva, with the report gaining wide currency in the Soviet Union. The circulation of the story adds another mystery surrounding the death of the late dictator's wife in November, 1932. At the time of her death, an official Kremlin report said that she had died after a "long illness." Western sources disclosed that another story going the rounds in Moscow is that Stalin's relatives are asking that the dictator be buried alongside Nadia. This may give the present Russian rulers an excuse to remove Stalin's body from its place of honor alongside Lenin.

THE UNITED STATES said it was up to France and Britain to decide whether to sell arms to Israel. American officials were of the opinion, which was repeated, that they believe a settlement of the Arab-Israeli dispute can be reached by other than the race for arms. France, with the sanction of the United States, took 12 jet fighter planes out of production for the North Atlantic Treaty Organization forces for the purpose of shipping them to Israel, but French officials said these one of the frankest attacks made by a head of a friendly power, Mollet said America is taking the wrong approach to German unification by not putting disarmament first.

The Premier also said that he has "never believed" there is a "menace" of Soviet aggression. His attack followed that of Christian Pineau, French Foreign Minister, who took a slap at Anglo-American policies last month.

THE MILK TIEUP had ended. The ill-fated nine-day attempt to cut off the Detroit area milk supply collapsed when Fair Share Bargaining Association farmers were ordered to resume shipment of milk to Detroit immediately. Homer Martin, former UAW president and now advisor to the FSBA, refused to concede defeat and announced that picketing will be intensified at two major Detroit dairies, the Borden Company and the Ira Wilson and Sons Dairy company, original targets of the FSBA. He said the AFL-CIO will reinforce the picketing. The strike disintegrated when the striking farmers were bargained with court orders and threats of mobs of angry non-striking farmers.

SEVEN PERSONS were killed when tornadoes whipped across Oklahoma, Kansas and Missouri. At least 62 others were reported injured and two missing. Blowing dust brought death to three others in Texas where visibility in the Panhandle was cut to about five or six yards. Similar conditions were also reported in Colorado and New Mexico. Southwestern Wisconsin and Northwest and West-central Illinois were alerted for wind storms and tornadoes.

THE 6,800 acre Naval Air Test Center at Patuxent River, Md., is located on Cedar Point, a peninsula bounded by nine miles of coastline.

BRITAIN WILL EXPLODE its first hydrogen bomb over Christmas Island in the Central Pacific Ocean sometime in 1957, the Daily Express in London reported. The Express said it may be the first H-bomb ever carried aloft by a plane. The date of the explosion has not yet been announced, but the paper said a team of engineers and scientists will leave soon for the isolated atoll.

The island selected for the test is part of Britain's Gilbert and Ellice Islands colony, located half-way between Australia and the coast of Mexico. If the test is successful, it might put Britain ahead of the United States and Russia in superbomb development.

THE DEATH TOLL in Algeria soared to 250, and possibly 300 when full reports are made, when Nationalist rebels pushed a bloody Easter weekend campaign of terrorism. The rebels staged their push before French re-inforcement troops arrived in Algiers under an emergency program.

French authorities reported 231 guerrillas were killed in 48 hours. Also killed were 12 pro-French Moslems and one French child. There were no French troop casualties reported. Nine rebels were reported killed in neighboring Tunisia by the French.

Tuesday, April 3
FRANCE landed 1,000 more troops in Algeria in its effort to combat stepped up rebel battles which killed almost 350 persons over the Easter weekend. While the reinforcements were coming ashore at Port Bone, French commandos destroyed a Nationalist rebel supply dump during skirmishes near the Tunisian border.

Police said they have thwarted a rebel plot to blow up a big dam and flood the populous Orleansville area. New violence was reported in neighboring Tunisia where three Tunisian vigilantes were killed in a gun battle with Nationalist Extremists. In France itself, thousands of Algerian workers clashed with police in protest of French policy in North Africa.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER has decided to sidetrack the sale of American arms to Israel. The Israelis have asked the United States to sell them $4 million dollars worth of arms to offset Red shipments to the Arabs. Administration officials said the President reached his decision following a two-hour conference with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and other top advisors on the Middle East situation. They said Mr. Eisenhower did not rule out the possibility that Israel might have its request granted later. However, they said, Israel will have to look to France, Britain and other allied nations for jet fighters and other defensive arms in the foreseeable future.

GUY MOLLET, Premier of France, sharply criticized the United States' policies in Europe and Asia, and called for new tactics in combating the cold war with the Russians. In

Austin Friary Fund Drive Conducted By Volunteers

Swinging into the general phase of the Augustinian Fathers building fund drive for a need of $300,000, more than 150 trained volunteer workers began solicitation starting the week of April 1.

Joseph E. Bejin, general chairman, announced that the intensive drive for funds will be to raise sufficient monies toward the erection of a Friary for the priest-teachers of Austin High.

Commenting on the progress of the advance Memorial Gifts phase, Rev. John F. Galloway, O.S.A., rector, and campaign moderator, said, "The need for the Friary is certainly evident in the Friary's response of our friends and benefactors. Over $102,340 has already been received in memorial subscriptions prior to the official opening of our appeal."

The new structure designed by the architecture firm of Yamasaki & Leinweber & Associates of Royal Oak, will meet and adequately fulfill the pressing need for living quarters for the priest-teachers. Since the establishment of the high school in 1952 temporary arrangements for housing includes: a makeshift cottage, unoccupied classrooms and neighboring parish rectories. In addition, this need for adequate housing will increase when additional priests are added to the staff to serve the increasing student enrollment.

The proposed structure will be erected on the present school property near the intersection of East Warren and Mack avenues. The Friary will be a one-story, court-plan type dwelling, consisting of a private chapel, community room, living quarters, dining room and visitors parlors. The architecture of this ground level plan will be in harmony with the present school building. The new residence will have accommodations for 25 priests with residential suites for the administrative and spiritual head of the Augustinian Community.

The entire construction will be enclosed by an attractive garden type brick wall, offering a proper amount of privacy and seclusion with an interesting series of courts and gardens linking the important units. The cost of the proposed structure has been estimated at $325,000, exclusive of furnishings.

Assisting Mr. Bejin as associate general chairman are Messrs. Frank E. Jenney and Charles E. Stumb.

Cadillac

A Little Vacation In Every Day!

What's it like to take the wheel of a 1956 Cadillac?

If you don't already know, then we hope you'll come with us now on a little imaginary journey in the "car of cars". Suppose, if you will, that you're in the driver's seat.

How wonderful you feel. Those deep, luxurious cushions hold you in perfect comfort—your hands rest, naturally on the slender wheel—and all about you are vision . . . and beauty . . . and luxury.

It's an inspiration just to watch the miles go by.

And how quiet and restful it is! The car is so smooth and silent that your only sense of motion comes from the sound of the wind and from the passing landscape.

Driving? Well, what could be more relaxing! Starting . . . stopping . . . turning—all are regulated with the lightest touch of toe and hand. You simply lean back and enjoy the ride . . . and the car does all the rest.

We've heard it said that a drive in a new Cadillac isn't really a drive at all, in the normal sense of the word. It's a time for rest and pleasure and relaxation.

As one of our friends put it—"It's like having a little vacation every day!"

Better come in for a visit some day soon. If you should decide to move up to a Cadillac, it will be our purpose to make you as pleased with your relationship with us, as your dealer, as you are certain to be with the car itself.

The Cadillac name has long been a symbol of automotive integrity and honesty of purpose—and we make every effort to have our own business reflect the same ideals in our dealings with owners.

Wins High Scouting Award

ROBERT G. REIN, JR., of LaSalle place, was presented with the God and Country Award at a ceremony held on March 27 in the Sixth Church of Christ Scientist. Pictured with the Explorer Scout is his religious advisor, ROBERT LAITNER of Barrington road. A. Dean Joki conducted the meeting and made the presentation. Dan Hembie, scoutmaster of Troop 74, and Mrs. John Finlayson also spoke.

Mason P-TA Sees Exhibit Of Audio-Visual Materials

The Mason Elementary School staff made a strong case for the use of audio-visual materials in education at the P-T.A. meeting held the evening of March 27 at the Vernier road school. If there were any doubters among the parents when they came, there were fewer when they left; for what they saw and heard was most convincing.

The visitors were greeted in the entrance hallway by a great, wise owl and a huge Easter bunny and a slogan which set the evening theme: "Be Wise. Audio-Visualize!"

Program Chairman Roger O'Connor greeted the guests and made the introductions. As Mason's Audio-Visual coordinator, Mr. O'Connor had organized the entire presentation. Mrs. Wanda Daniel, curriculum assistant in charge of audio-visual aids, Grosse Pointe Public Schools, spoke briefly on educational television.

The Mason teaching staff presented the program. Ted Jacobs, sixth grade teacher, illustrated the use of the time-honored chalkboard — no longer black but still very useful. A silent filmstrip followed. First grade teacher Sally Halford developed the correlation between filmstrip and textbook.

Next, music instructor Gilbert Stammer demonstrated the use of a filmstrip with a recording to develop listening and music appreciation. A felt board was shown by Miss Cleve Koch to indicate how young children are taught such concepts as top, bottom, left, right, and so on.

The sound film, "Spring on the Farm," was viewed by the parents. This second-grade offering is used to introduce a unit on farms. Miss Lorna Koval discussed it.

To illustrate one way to introduce a new unit, three fourth grade teachers, Clare Gustafson, Christa Mueller and Mary Louise Stoll, prepared a bulletin board on grasslands. Miss Gustafson indicated the approach of the teacher in presenting the content to a class.

While Miss Beulah Jean Markhas ran the opaque projector—a device which enables the teacher to show small pictures and papers as huge reproductions on screen or chalkboard—Miss Mercedes Merrill described its use. An actual class paper was flashed onto the chalkboard and corrected.

The tachistoscope was demonstrated by Miss Gustafson in the absence of Mrs. Barbara Hughes because of illness. Operating the machine was Miss Elizabeth Minturn. Single words were flashed onto a screen, then small groups, then sentences, — tenth to a hundredth of a second.

Alan Schaefer played part of a tape recording made by the fifth grade students. The classes selected the voices for parts written into a script on Michigan. A state sing provided the theme and was sung by the entire fifth grade. Not recorded was the whoop of satisfaction expressed by the youngsters after the tape had been finished.

Four other teachers participated in the planning but not in the demonstrations: Miss Kathryn Rohrschreib, Mrs. Joyce Alexander, Miss Helen Seymour, and Miss Anna Hinckley.

At the conclusion of the teacher demonstrations, the audience was invited to explore the library and the hallways of the school where special displays had been set up. There were a welcome board prepared by Miss Gustafson, Miss Minturn, and Mr. Jacobs; maps and globes by Miss Fischer; a science kit by Mr. Schaefer; and flat pictures and museum pieces by Mrs. Clark. Miss Sagala was responsible for the book displays in the library.

After the program, which ended with refreshments served by the P-T.A., a parent told Miss Ethel Tucker, the Mason School Principal: "This is one of the finest school programs I have ever seen. By all means, repeat it next year!" Miss Tucker thinks she just may do that very thing.

Memorial Church Planning Welcome for Missionaries

Members of Grosse Pointe Memorial Church are planning to welcome Rev. and Mrs. Paul R. Dotson, home on furlough from a 10-year appointment at the Philippine Mission.

On Tuesday, April 10, at 1:30 p.m., they will be guest speakers at a regular meeting of the Women's Association in the Men's Lounge.

That same Tuesday, at 8 p.m., Mr. and Mrs. Dotson will address the Evening Group, this time, illustrating their talk with slides. Thus, opportunity will be given for the women of the church to receive first hand information of what has been accomplished at the Church Among the Palms, and also at the Christian Center, College, Laguna.

When Rev. Dotson first arrived at Manila, he assisted with the distribution of relief materials necessary to the process of rehabilitation of a land ravaged by war.

He became director of student work in the Federation of Evangelical Churches, and later was assigned the responsibility of rebuilding a Student Center at College, Laguna, the site of the Government Colleges of Agriculture and Forestry, branches of the University of the Philippines, which is the finest educational institution in the Islands.

This Center is also a natural place for conferences and institutes for the entire Manila area, as well as Christian work camps which are making immense contributions to international understanding. Added to his responsibilities is that of conducting institutes in the Philippines to explain the theory and practice of Communism and how it affects the mission of the church.

During their week's stay in Grosse Pointe, Mr. and Mrs. Dotson will be house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Pitt, of McKinley avenue. Plans for their entertainment include dinner invitations from Mr. and Mrs. William Delbridge, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. James Lafer, and Rev. Paul Ketchum and his mother, Mrs. Irving Ketchum. Mrs. Arthur Hillegas will honor Mrs. Dotson at a tea in her home in Washington road on Wednesday afternoon, April 11.

Safety Patrols To be Rewarded

A vigorous 1955-56 campaign on "School Crossing Safety" by Kerby, Lewis, Maire and St. Clare, of Montefalco schools will send three Grosse Pointe safety patrol members to Washington, D.C., May 3-6. The patrol members will receive a four-day, all expense trip to the Capital city as the guests of the Automobile Club of Michigan.

The schools were chosen to send representatives to the 20th AAA National Safety Patrol rally because of the effectiveness of their overall safety program. The Grosse Pointe delegates, to be selected from safety patrol ranks in the next two weeks, will join 140 Michigan patrol members in Detroit, May 3, to enroute for Washington.

Their arrival in the Capital will set off two full days of meeting government officials and seeing famous and historic sights, climaxed by a march down Constitution Avenue with over 30,000 other patrol members from all over the United States and Canada. After the parade, the largest held annually in Washington, they will return by train May 6.

Exchangites Aid Groups

The Exchange Club of Grosse Pointe is adding to its many activities, which for some time have included sponsorship of a team in the Grosse Pointe Woods Little League Baseball League.

A check for 1956 expense was presented to Manager Ed Fay at this week's meeting. Entertainment included movies taken by Dr. Richard Fear on his extensive trip last summer through parts of the western country.

On April 10 a Youth Activities Benefit dinner will be given at Turner's Club House, to help the Sea Scout troop repair and maintain its beautiful 52 foot yawl, Little League baseball and basketball and model aviation.

One of the many model airplane contests sponsored by the Exchange Club will be held April 15. All wishing to enter should report to Buff Linclau at 17712 Mack avenue.

Driving School's Request Refused

Clifford E. Larson, manager of a driving school for a local automobile sales and service agency, sent a telegram to the Grosse Pointe Safety and Traffic Committee asking for the local police chiefs that they accept the instruction in his school in lieu of attendance at the Grosse Pointe Drivers School. The telegram was read at the monthly meeting of the committee at the War Memorial Center Wednesday, March 28.

The chiefs of all six communities were in attendance and led the discussion regarding this matter. They were unanimous in denying the request.

It is the feeling of the committee that if such recommendation should be granted, then other driver training services would want similar treatment. It was also pointed out that all training agencies do not use completely dual control cars for instruction. A training car operated by a student driver smashed into a patrolling Farms squad car last week. The car did not have dual controls.

It was also revealed that some of the driver training companies have told prospective students that they would not have to attend the Grosse Pointe Drivers School after they completed their private instruction. This is false, it was stated. All applicants for their first drivers' license must attend at least one session of the school.

Classes are held in Grosse Pointe High School the second and fourth Tuesday of every month.

The Prices' narratives and slides will cover diverse subjects, such as temples and shrines in Nikko, Kyoto and Hiroshima; the active Mt. Aso volcano; rice culture; Japanese weddings and festivals; rapids shooting and wrestling; and a visit with the royal family in the summer palace.

Church Offers Special Service

The regular monthly Evening Service will be sung at Christ Episcopal Church by the choir of girls and men, at 4 p.m. on Sunday, April 8.

During the offertory the choir will sing the soprano solo and chorale from the Easter cantata "Bide With Us" by J. S. Bach. This work, which was intended for Easter Monday, expresses the uncertainty and bewilderment of Christ's disciples as they are faced with the realization that their leader is no longer physically with them.

Following the service, Frank Sheriell, organist and choir-master, of St. James Church, Skaneateles, N. Y., will present an organ recital which will include compositions by Buxtehude, Bach, Brahms, Schumann, and Franck.

The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Give Estimates Of Lake Levels

Colonel Edward J. Gallagher, District Engineer, U.S. Lake Survey, Corps of Engineers, for Detroit, has announced the ranges in which the maximum monthly average levels of Lake St. Clair are expected to reach during the summer of 1956. The figures are in feet above sea level at New York City.

The upper limit will probably be 576.3, with a lower limit of 574.8 feet. In February, 1956 the average level was 572.84 but the probable high monthly average for all of 1956 should be 575.6 feet.

St. Clair River the flows to the lower lakes were greatly reduced during January and February, 1956. This reduction of flows in the river resulted in considerable lowering of the Lake St. Clair level.

Lake Erie levels declined from the average rate for this time. Lake Ontario was effected because of the deficiency in supplies from Lake Erie.

Lakes Michigan, Huron, and Superior 1956 levels were at about the same average for the period from 1900 through 1955.

Think twice before you speak—and keep yourself out of hot water.

The average family spends from $150-$200 per year on a vacation, according to AAA.

Norma Miller Wed in France

Norma Jane Miller, formerly a teacher at the Mason School in Grosse Pointe Woods, became the bride of Bernard M. Krieg of Oakland, Calif., at Easter Sunday rites in the Chambley Air Base Chapel at Chambley, France.

The new Mrs. Krieg had taught at the Mason School for three years following her graduation in 1952 from Michigan State University. She lived on Kenwood court before leaving for France last August to teach at the Air Force Dependents School at Chambley. Her bridegroom is the principal of the school.

Norma is the daughter of Mrs. Edith Farley of Whitehill avenue and the late Norman Miller. Mr. Krieg is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick L. Krieg of Oakland, Calif.

The couple's civil ceremony was performed on Saturday, March 31, by the Mayor of Chambley at the Town Hall, in accordance with French law. At the Sunday afternoon chapel rites, the Rev. Father Davey, chaplain, received the couple's vows at 3 o'clock. A reception followed at the Officers' Club.

Due to Easter, the nuptial Mass was celebrated by Father Davey, Monday morning, April 2, at the chapel, after which the newlyweds motored to the French Riviera for a week's honeymoon stay.

The bride was given in marriage by Col. Robert R. Rowland, commander of the Chambley Air Force Base. Her wedding dress of white tulle net and lace was ballerina-length, and a lace bandeau held her fingertip veil. She carried a small round bouquet of carnations and valley lilies.

The newly-married Mr. and Mrs. Krieg will return to Chambley to complete the semester at the school. In June they'll tour England and Spain, arriving here in the early summer for a visit with the bride's family, and friends in Detroit and Grosse Pointe.

They will make their home in Pittsburg, Calif.

Society News Gathered from All of the Pointes

From Another Pointe of View

By Kitty Marriott

Easter Week finds some Pointers in town and others at points, near and far, around the globe. Mrs. Robert G. Hartwick, of Touraine road, for instance, spent Easter in Manhattan. Son Bill, just back from a service stint in Japan, and daughter Ellen accompanied her.

Ellen and Bill return home this week, but Mama won't be back until April 16. For the fourth successive year, she's taking in Schoolmen's Week at the University of Pennsylvania and assisting her friend, Dr. Jane Betsy Welling, formerly of the Wayne University art education department, with an art education workshop.

The Joseph H. Hadleys of Yorkshire road reached another of those milestones last week, as they watched daughter Ann leave on her first solo train trip. Ann is in Dayton, O., sharing her Easter holidays with her friend, Ann Bippes.

The Bippes lass is the daughter of the Hadleys' former neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Krumholtz, who made the move to Dayton several months ago.

Easter at Home

It was strictly a family Easter celebration for Mr. and Mrs. John S. Hammond of Cambridge road. Their son, John III, came home from Harvard; Mrs. Hammond's father, Dr. Louis J. Hirschman, came from Traverse City, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Harry F. Chapin, from Bay City, for the holidays. Easter dinner was still more "family," since it was held in the Bishop road home of the third Hirschman sister, Mrs. Ferdinand Nordstrom, and Mr. Nordstrom.

German Vice Consul and Mrs. Wilhelm Fabricius made Easter a kind of farewell Sunday by inviting some 60 close friends to an "at home" from 2 to 6 p.m. in their Notre Dame avenue residence.

Mr. Fabricius, who has been at his new Washington post in the German embassy for a month or so, has obtained a house for his family which will be available on the 12th. So April 12 or thereabouts will be departure date from the Pointe on the Fabricius calendar.

That Famous Kitchen Tour

Mrs. Ralph Lee Fisher will preside at the general spring meeting of the Women's Auxiliary to Cottage Hospital. It will be held on Friday, April 13, at 10 a.m. at the Nurses' Residence, 158 Ridge road. While members chat afterward over coffee and coffee cake, a white elephant sale will be in progress. Mrs. William Heyd is to be auctioneer and Mrs. William J. Krieger, cashier for the sale.

Undoubtedly, the most important topic of conversation during both business meeting and social hour will be the auxiliary's second annual Kitchen Tour... which is being done this year, by request. Officials had tentatively decided to schedule the tour every two years, when pres-

Proud Dads Squire Daughters at Party

DAC Is Scene of Annual Event Attended by Some 200 Pointers; Entertainment Galore Features Luncheon Affair

One of the prettiest sights any time, anywhere, was that of proud dads squiring pretty daughters to the Detroit Athletic Club's annual Fathers and Daughters Party last Saturday afternoon. From Grosse Pointe went feminine dazzers (some only five years old, some entirely grown-up) with their dad escorts, and altogether there were some 200 Pointers among the 700 from the entire metropolitan area.

They had their own Easter Parade as they swirled in—smartest spring bonnets, fluffy skirts, crisp tulle—while immaculately-groomed dads doing the honors.

The afternoon affair set the pace for DAC's Easter week festivities—for in the evening there was another party. This was the initial gala of the seven-night dinner-dancing-floor show which annually sparks DAC's Easter season.

First scene for fathers and daughters was the natatorium. The 12:30 o'clock aquatic show presented races, a water ballet and an hilarious clowning act by diving experts.

Luncheon was food, music, scurrying waiters, feminine chatter, man talk and Boogie Bag souvenirs—and should you not know the "boogie bag," it's a charming little leather affair with places for coins, folding money and cosmetics. Both the gymnasium and Pontchartrain room were the luncheon scenes. The "Pontch" contingent had gym balcony seats for the stage show, finale of the party.

The youngest set was charmed with the trained chimpanzees, Zippy and Miss Snow. Rolly Rolly, piano comedian, was the show star and singer Gillian Grey completed the entertainment—they're all appearing on DAC's dinner-floor show fiesta this week.

Pointe party-goers were legion—Charles T. Fisher, Jr., brought daughter Sarah, and Frank Couzens, Jr., brought Joan and Margaret Mary—they sat with Mrs. Couzens, Jr., and her father, William J. Ulrich.

At the DAC Beavers' long table were A. H. Moorman, Jr., with Priscilla and Mary; Thomas J. Moran, Catherine and Patricia; Frederick Cody, Mary Lou, Ricky and Angela; Homer Pharis and Donna Lee.

Dianne Brink was marking her ninth birthday that day—she was with dad Bill O. Brink. Five-year-old Janet Hooper, her sister Judy and their father, L. C. Hooper, sat with Dr. James E. Coyle and his five-year-old Julie. R. E. Connolly brought four daughters, Patricia, Catherine, Mary and Carolyn.

William F. B. Henderson, his daughter, Mrs. J. M. Northrup, and granddaughter, Pamela Northrup, were a three-generation group. With Edwin Krieghoff, Sr., were daughters Mrs. Lionel Bird, Mrs. Charles E. Hikes and Mrs. Gilmore S. Van Hamm II and granddaughters Judy, Mary and twins Krista and Kendra Van Hamm. Edwin Krieghoff, Jr., and his Katherine Ann were together.

Ches B. Larsen, Carol and Linda were there; Dr. W. B. McIntyre with Margaret Mary, Catherine and Mary Elizabeth; R. W. Semmler with granddaughters Susan and Sally Semmler; Blount Slade and Jane; W. J. Rewoldt, his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Whelan, and five-year-old Jennifer Whelan; Paul C. Munkholm with Christine and Catherine; M. Robert Oip and Mary Jo, and W. J. Touscany and Christine.

Julie Ann Hibberd Weds Alan Stuart

St. Ambrose Church Is Scene of Small Ceremony for Immediate Families on Monday, April 2

St. Ambrose Church was the scene of the small family wedding at which Julie Ann Hibberd and Alan Stuart were married on Monday, April 2. Rev. Fr. William Pettit officiated at the 10 o'clock ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Perry Hibberd of Buckingham road, wore a simply designed waltz length gown of ice blue satin with square neckline and full skirt. A tiny face veil trimmed her matching headband and she carried a prayerbook covered with a spray of white orchids.

Ruth Stuart, sister of the bridegroom, was the only bridal attendant. She also had a waltz length frock of shell pink taffeta with round neckline and full skirt. She wore a matching headband and carried sweetheart roses.

For her daughter's wedding and the breakfast which followed at the Whittier, Mrs. Hibberd chose a street length gown of honey beige peau de soie and a brown hat.

The bridegroom's mother wore blue peau de soie with a white chapeau. Both mothers pinned corsages of pink camellias to their purses.

Casmier Moutemurri was best man for the son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Henry Stuart of Buckingham road.

When the couple left on a fortnight's motor trip through the Smokies, the new Mrs. Stuart was wearing a brown knitted suit with pink accessories.

They will reside in Lake Shore Village.

Heart Victims' Class Offered

There is still time for homemakers in Grosse Pointe to register for the free classes in work-simplification to be offered at the Department of Community Service, 43 Grosse Pointe Boulevard by the Michigan Heart Association, according to Mrs. Hannah R. Pretzer of the Wayne University Department of Home Economics who conducts the classes.

The first class of the series will meet from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. starting Tuesday, April 10.

Any homemaker may enroll in the program although women with an ailment of the heart or blood vessels; hypertension, hardening of the arteries, coronary heart, rheumatic heart, varicose veins, etc., will be admitted to the classes first. The project is being brought to this area in cooperation with the Department of Community Service.

The classes are made possible by the Michigan Heart Association through funds received from the United Foundation Torch Drive. Homemakers are given free instructions in practical ways of making their housekeeping simpler and easier by eliminating unnecessary steps and wasted energy in the preparation and cooking of meals, washing and ironing, bed making, and other household duties.

Mrs. Hannah R. Pretzer has been a teacher of the classes in Work Simplification for cardiac and other homemakers since the first class was held at Wayne University in the fall of 1950.

Mrs. Pretzer received her Bachelor of Science degree from Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio and her Masters degree from Wayne University, Detroit. During her college and graduate work she specialized in management in the home and in equipment. She was a County Home Demonstration Agent with the Extension Department of Ohio State University.

Each homemaker attends four (two-hour) lecture-demonstration classes which will be held on April 10, 17, 24 and May 2 from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m.

Any woman in Grosse Pointe who would like to attend the free "heart-saving" classes being offered by the Michigan Heart Association can do so by writing or calling the Department of Community Service, 43 Grosse Pointe boulevard, TUXedo 5-3808 for complete details. The program is endorsed by the Wayne County Medical Society and Doctors of Medicine and are urged to refer their cardiac patients to the classes.

The Liberty Bell was cracked in 1835 while being tolled for the death of Justice John Marshall.

To Present Program By Karamu Dancers

Federation of Settlements Committee to Sponsor Event in Pierce Junior High School on Saturday, April 21

The board members committee of the Detroit Federation of Settlements is bringing a troop of the Karamu dancers from the Karamu House in Cleveland, Ohio, to the Pierce Junior High School on Saturday, April 21, at 8:30 p.m. in the evening. The admission is $2.00.

Mrs. Wallace Jensen of Hillcrest road, chairman of the board members committee, is chairman of the event.

Mrs. Harry Kerr of Touraine road will be the patrons chairman, and Mrs. Gilbert Whelden of Park lane will be ticket chairman.

Proceeds from the program will be used for the Detroit Federation of Settlements' projects in the Detroit and suburban area.

Karamu in the Swahili language of East Africa means "center of the Community" or "place of enjoyment." In 1915 Russell and Rowena Jelliffe settled in a small cottage in a Negro neighborhood in Cleveland, dedicated to work for and with the Negro race. These two people met at Oberlin College, where each took a Bachelor's degree. They went on to the University of Chicago for Master's degrees. While in Chicago they did their field work at Hull House with Jane Adams.

Fired with an idea, the Jelliffes have devoted their lives to prove that human understanding and appreciation among all peoples could be effectively fostered through the cultural arts. During the more than forty years that Karamu has been an influence in Cleveland, many famous artists in all fields have frequented their start there.

One underlying concept in the formation of all of the various groups at Karamu is that the participants are American citizens first, bringing to this citizenship their various racial heritages. The theatre, dancing, music, and all the arts and crafts are started in the Nursery and carried through all age groups to the "Senior Citizens."

Grosse Pointers will have an opportunity to see part of this oldest amateur dance group in the country, which has had excellent professional training both in dancing and in the American way of life, and has gained national acclaim for excellent artistry.

Nuptial Vows Said By Nancy Groesbeck

Becomes Bride of Dr. William Robert Dunlop Making Home in Palo Alto, Cal., After Wedding in Palo Alto, Calif.

Dr. and Mrs. William Robert Dunlop are making their home in Palo Alto, Calif. They were married on March 5 in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Dr. Frank Pitt officiated at the double ring evening service. A reception followed in the church parlors.

The bride, the former Nancy Kergan Groesbeck, chose a gleaming silk satin gown, the heart-shaped neckline trimmed with clusters of seed pearls. From a smooth princess paneled front, the lavishly wide skirt expanded into a chapel train.

The new Mrs. Dunlop is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John B. Groesbeck of Colonial court.

Mrs. Shurlee Lee, the honor matron, wore a gown of mauve brocade. Flower girl Janis Krieger wore a white organdie frock and carried a nosegay of pink and red roses.

Dr. Dunlop, son of Mrs. Louise Dunlop of Webb avenue, asked John Dent to be his best man.

Mrs. Groesbeck chose a navy lace gown with corsage of white camellias for her daughter's wedding. The bridegroom's mother wore navy crepe and white camellia corsage.

When the pair left on their motor trip to Palo Alto, the new Mrs. Dunlop donned a white silk cocoa print frock with matching accessories.

League Puppet Show April 14

If you can't imagine Mrs. James M. French with a voice of a bear and Mrs. Robert B. Hunter mimicking "Mrs. Skunk" behind the intricate maneuvers of hand puppets, don't miss the Junior League's performance April 14 of "The Bear Who Played the Bijou" which will take place at the Grosse Pointe University School Auditorium at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m.

The story of Buckskin, a lad from the Michigan Woods in times of a century ago, and his Uncle Olaf, who visit the city of Bad Axe to see its wonderful theater, the "Bijou"—will actually come to life that day.

Mrs. Robert Looker, chairman of the Junior League Puppeteers, has the lead role of Buckskin, with Mrs. William F. Bavinger, Jr., as Uncle Olaf.

On their way to Bad Axe, Uncle Olaf and Buckskin meet a bear (Mrs. James M. French)—a very friendly bear, indeed, who is also on his way to start a career as an actor in the "Bijou" Theater. They team up in a song-and-dance act, and play for a time at the theater.

When their payment is not forthcoming from the manager, (voiced by Mrs. John Hughes), and when the jealous pianist, Professor Blkwater, tries to interfere with their act, trouble really starts on the puppet stage. The outcome of the story is a happy one, but not before several mishaps.

Junior League members have been rehearsing their parts since March 19 under the professional guidance of George Latshaw, and have made the puppets, painted the scenery, and learned the skills of hand puppets and the production techniques which sponsored their premier performance downtown April 3.

Mrs. Anthony R. Moody plays the part of Professor Blkwater, Mrs. J. McCormick Goodheart is Mrs. Deer, and Dorothy Bennett is handling props and scenery with the advice of assistant director, Mrs. Robert L. Hannon, Jr.

Tickets for the show may be purchased at the box office or by calling LU 5-0061 or TUxead 5-6240.

Junior Leaguers will also put on performances for children at Richard School and Franklin Settlement.

Cherie McArthur Wed on Saturday

Wearing a gown of satin and Chantilly lace, Cherie Beryl McArthur walked up the aisle of Grosse Pointe Congregational Church on Saturday evening, March 31, to become the bride of Mark Raymond Kraus Jr.

The Rev. Marcus Johnson officiated at the 8 o'clock candlelight service. The receiving line formed afterward in the church lounge and a reception was held in the social hall.

Mr. and Mrs. George McArthur of Audubon road and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Raymond Kraus of Bloomfield Village, are the parents of the couple.

Glittering sequins flattered the illusion neckline of the bridal gown, which was distinguished by an appliqued panel on net over the satin skirt front. Scalloped lace over satin formed her chapel train.

A pearl-trimmed pillbox held the bride's three-tiered veil of fingertip length net. She carried a bouquet of pom poms centered by a white orchid.

Honor maid Nancy Wolfe wore a street length frock of pale mint green silk chiffon. A nose veil trimmed her matching hat and she carried white carnations with green foliage.

Bridesmaids Barbara Vermeersch, Nancy St. Peter and Marion Tricomo wore dresses identical to the honor attendants but in pale yellow. Their flowers were yellow carnations with greenery and they also had matching veiled hats.

Mrs. McArthur chose a periwinkle blue lace dress and orchid corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Kraus was in a beige lace gown with corsage of cymbidium orchids.

Vyde Mae Harris, former classmate of the bride at Grosse Pointe High School, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" at the wedding.

Richard Doman performed the duties of best man for the bridegroom. Other esquire attendants were James and Gerald Kraus, the bridegroom's twin brothers, and Ray Link.

Party to Pay Honor To Drive Workers

Lilly Dache and Dorothy Sarnoff to Be Stars of Big Sugar Bowl Jubilee Scheduled for April 11 in Masonic Temple

Mrs. Raymond Brett, 419 Lincoln road, Grosse Pointe regional chairman for the Torch Drive, urges all volunteers to apply for reservations for the Sugar Bowl Jubilee to be held in Masonic Temple April 11.

"The Jubilee is being given to honor the many volunteer solicitors," she said. "A highly attractive program has been arranged for their entertainment."

Lilly Dache, famous New York hat designer and glamor expert, will disclose some of the secrets of how the passage of years can add to the attractiveness and personality of a woman.

The celebrated hat-maker, who has enlarged the scope of her field to include remaking a woman's entire personality from top to toe and from the inside out, is expected to be the main attraction at the Jubilee session from 2 to 3:30 p.m.

Dorothy Sarnoff, star of "The King and I" and numerous other Broadway hits, opera, television and supper clubs, will sing for the Torch Drive volunteers. Both the soprano and the fashion expert are being brought to Detroit by the Cancer Society, a UF agency.

The 100-voice General Motors choir, directed by Robert S.

Hines, has also been engaged to provide musical diversion for the fund-raisers.

The principal address of the Jubilee will be delivered by Dr. Lester Coleman, New York eye, nose, and throat specialist, author of "Freedom from Fear," and a member of the board of the American Hearing Society, a service made possible in Detroit by the Torch Drive.

Miss Dache, who arrived in this country from France as a girl with $13 in her pockets, owns a nine-story building in New York, of which six floors are devoted to glamorizing her clients.

The Jubilee, honoring the more than 20,000 women in the Detroit metropolitan area who called on their neighbors to solicit funds for the Torch Drive, is being staged by the United Foundation Women's Organization, headed by Mrs. Gaylord Gillis as chairman.

Mental Health Expert to Talk

Those who attend a meeting to be held in the Parcels Junior High School by the Grosse Pointe Education association on Tuesday, April 10 at 4 p.m. will hear Abraham Brickner, psychiatric social work supervisor and co-ordinator of public relations at Northville State Hospital, discuss mental health problems.

His address will be titled "Community Responsibilities in a Mental Health Program" and will outline the part the family, the school and the community plays in preventive as well as the care and treatment aspects of mental illness.

Mr. Brickner has his master's degree from Wayne University

School of Social Work and has been on the staff at Northville since July, 1952. He is active in community affairs as secretary of the Oak Park Board of Education and board member of the Michigan Welfare League and South Oakland County County United Community Services.

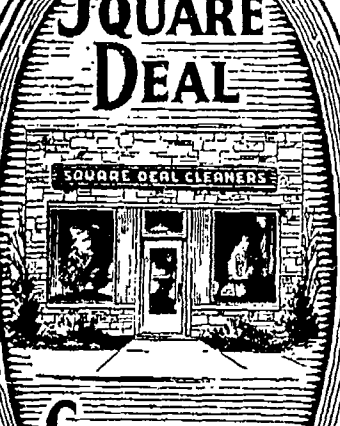

Lawrence F. Kennedy, vice-president of the Grosse Pointe Education Association, is the program chairman.

Dr. Philip N. Brown, Medical superintendent at Northville, states: "Increased community interest and awareness of the facts about mental illness aid in the care and treatment programs of state hospitals' adult out-patient and child guidance clinics. Increased education is necessary in the total approach to the nation's Number 1 health problem—mental illness."

As part of its community education program Northville State Hospital will hold its fourth annual Open House, Sunday, April 29 at the hospital, 41001 West Seven Mile road from 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. The public is invited to participate and tours of the hospital and facilities will be arranged.

Many Helping at School For Handicapped Children

Handicapped children are learning skills for use in later life at the quonset hut school adjacent to the Grosse Pointe High School annex.

The 14 children range in age from 22 months to 10 years. A nursery school program is conducted with each child receiving special therapy applicable to his or her individual problems. Included in the class are 11 children having cerebral palsy, and one blind child.

The children are taught how to live with one another. Standing, walking, and learning to feed themselves are important skills which must be mastered by some of the students.

Creative work is done in several media, including soft dough, which is used instead of clay.

The nursery is financed by the Board of Education, under the direction of Dr. Lynn Bartlett, director of public personnel. Mrs. Hazel W. Messner is the trained instructor in charge of the nursery, Miss Ruth Hall supervises the occupational therapy and is assisted by volunteer workers sent by the Junior League and other interested organizations.

The Blu Hi-Y under the direction of Mr. Ernest Bauer has adopted the quonset as its semester project. The boys repair toys, paint and wash windows and have donated a fire truck for the children.

Some of the special equipment has been given by interested citizens and groups in the community. Any wishing to make a contribution are asked for a cash donation because much of the equipment must be specially designed for these handicapped children.

Enjoy Your Own Show

The last snowstorm of the season, on March 23, adorned the community with a tegumental whiteness whose beauty commanded the attention of old and young alike.

Very few of those who kicked through the drifts gave any thought to the money and energy which must be expended to clear walks and roadways following such a storm. That one snowfall cost the Farms alone a tidy $839.58. Trucks and tractors consumed 117 gallons of gasoline. The spreads laid down $517 worth of salt. All labor was done on an overtime basis, which accounted for another $302.34.

So we should enjoy these fairylands which Nature creates for us. Next time we must look long and deep. They are shows for which we have paid. No Annie Oakleys are available to the taxpayers.

Voters Display Apathy

The majority of the qualified voters in the City of Grosse Pointe Woods gave a convincing demonstration of their lack of interest in civic affairs by failing to go to the polls in Monday's municipal election. Of the more than 9500 registered electors, only 2760 exercised their right of franchise.

The dismal showing at the polls is the more surprising because it was the first election in which the new voting machines were used. It might have been expected that an unusually large number of voters would turn out to try the new gadgets, if for no other reason.

This lack of interest constitutes an unhealthy condition. The Woods, now the largest of the five Pointe municipalities, has gone through a period of rapid growth which has produced many important problems. Their solution lies largely with the officials who run the city government.

The past administration, which will also be the future one, as all incumbents were re-elected Monday, has not completely escaped criticism for the way it has approached or failed to approach some of these major problems. But apparently the great majority of the voters simply don't care whether things are being handled properly or not.

Those who approve the way the administration has functioned might at least have gone to the polls and expressed their satisfaction by way of a vote of confidence for their candidates. It is evident that at least 6700 electors didn't give their municipal affairs any appreciable thought.

Windows Broken By Salt Shaker

Walter Scotten of 558 Lincoln through a downstairs window coin road reported to police of his house. The missile smashed a storm Tuesday night, March 27, that window and a smaller pane. Someone had thrown a sugar police investigated but could dispenser and salt shaker find no one in the area.

Burt Boyar IN NEW YORK

STAREWAY TO THE STARS: Debbie Fisher, who's having her hair done, playing with a snowball at El Morocco where they fling 'em at you made of ice cream and coconut. Rex Harrison doing some wishful winking at Lilli Palmer, his estranged wife, whom pals say is still His Fair Lady. . . . Phil Silvers having a blondeous at the Harwyn with Grace Downs model Stacey Flynn. . . . Milton Berle doing some "interior" decorating at the Stork. . . . Sid Caesar scraping along on $25,000 a week. . . . Merle Oberon spilling her face powder in the Ambassador's lobby and calling for broom service.

a mistake. . . . Jackie Gleason kicked holes in the "big hearted fellow" legend. Now that they've finished filming he laid off the entire staff for five and a half months without pay. . . . Bet you didn't know that Debbie Reynolds Fisher has two moles on her back. (ask us ANYTHING!)

BACKSTAGE: Went behind the scenery at the N.Y. end of the Academy Awards telecast. . . . Chatted with Eddie Fisher who was waiting to sing "Love is A Many Splendored Thing." "Tell me," I asked, "how did you happen to get that particular song to sing?" Eddie made a wry face. "I asked for it." He said, then added, "I love it. Hm-mmph! NOW I love it, but when I first heard it I didn't like it. Thought it would be a bomb and I turned it down when they asked me to record it." I tried to keep him from kicking himself, "Oh, well," I cooed, "after all, you're only human." "Yeh," he smirked, "I'm human. I also didn't like 'Three Coins In The Fountain' and 'Secret Love.' Thought they'd be bombs, too, so I also turned them down. How human can you be?" . . . Claudette Colbert was as nervous as a nominee. At one point, when the action was about to switch from California to New York she began smiling. This was so she'd be ready for the moment when they suddenly and almost without warning would put her on the air. Five minutes later she was still waiting and still smiling. Twelve minutes later she was still waiting and still smiling. Twelve minutes later she said, "Aw, the heck with it," and relaxed. Twelve and a half minutes later she was on the air, biting her lips.

BEAU BROADWAY: Shelley Winters still washes her own hair. Says, "I got in the habit. From the time I was glad to have the price of the soap, let alone a beauty parlor." . . . Judy Garland may come to Broadway for a musical comedy role. . . . The best Christmas gift Broadway could get. . . . The rich get richer: Alan Jay Lerner who wrote the score for "My Fair Lady" (one of the best musicals in twenty years) wrote it in an air conditioned garret. He's heir to the Lerner Shops' chain store millions. . . . Told Alfred Hitchcock that he thought his commercials are the best thing on his TV show. "Yes," mused he, "sometimes I wonder if I should overpower it so." . . . Grace Kelly and Margaret Truman were invited to appear at the opening of the circus on April 4. They saddened the committee with almost identical replies, "Sorry! Previous engagement."

THE BROADWAY BORED: Someone mentioned, during a Lindy's lunch, a show that was rehearsing on the old Ziegfeld Roof. "I remember," recalled a ham, when I used to work on the Ziegfeld Roof. "Yeh," came the clobber, "when it leaked." . . . At Sardi's a comic was telling the Broadway crowd, "I held the audience in the palm of my hand." Came the retort, "You could!"

THE QUOTEBOOK: Vogue magazine remembered an oldie about the vacationer who postcards her psychiatrist: "Having a wonderful time. Why???" . . . Look magazine offers Bob Cummings' reason why he has neglected the screen for TV. "You meet such interesting money." . . . Brando's definition of a thespian: "An actor is a guy who if you ain't talkin' about him he ain't listening." . . . Samuel Goldwyn's inimitable logic, "A verbal contract isn't worth the paper it's written on." . . . and from the new April 17 Look mag, U.S. Treasurer Ivy Baker Priest, addressing a National Safety Council luncheon: "Driving across the country, I was halted into court for a traffic violation. The small-town judge, on learning who I was, said to the court attendants, 'Boys, we've sure hit the jackpot today!'"

TAXIGABBING: Tony Martin shines his own shoes. Cyd's pumps, too. . . . Dewey Martin is still Peggy Lee's Mr. Wonderful. . . . Have an illusion buster: Virginia Mayo has sinus. . . . When Joe E. Lewis was playing the Edgen Roc in Miami he gently reproached a friend who snarled at the tourists: "Pal" said, "You, on this earth we're all just tourists." . . . TV commercial: The Pause That Depresses. . . . Linda Darnell, very quietly, supports 25 orphans in Italy. The Pier Angeli-Vic Damone tune is changing. Their in-laws are outlaws, among other problems. . . . Julius La Rosa says, "After we're married Rory will always come with me on the road. That's the only way a marriage can last in show business." (you are so right.) . . . Eddie Cantor's definition of a protege: "Someone getting ready to be ungrateful."

Library Offers Family Films
April's Family Film Night will be presented tomorrow, Friday, April 6, at the Grosse Pointe Public Library at 7:30 o'clock, in the meeting room on the second floor of the Central Library at Kercheval and Fisher. The program will offer an hour of color films which the entire family can enjoy together. The two main features will especially appeal to travel and garden enthusiasts. "Discover Hawaii" is a series of snapshots of Hawaii for the prospective visitor, street scenes of Honolulu, volcanic eruptions, surfing, something about her industries, customs and folkways. "Holland, Garden of Europe" stresses the theme of Holland as the "Garden of Europe," and also shows modern cities and typical Dutch countryside. Completing the program will be a children's short and a Michigan Conservation film on commercial fishing.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Who sits next to whom at a given function?
What are the responsibilities of godparents?
If the bride has no mother, who receives in her place?
What are the military and naval forms for wedding invitations?
These are typical of the many questions regarding accepted procedure which are asked each day at your library.

Since the dawn of life, man has had habit forced upon him by various external influences, the conditions under which he lives, the forces with which he has to contend, the instincts he blindly obeys. These habits become custom. Some become law, and some are accepted as etiquette.

No doubt Julius Caesar was plagued with some of the practical problems for which Washington today has its iron-clad rules. Many of our everyday usages have grown out of age old customs. An early savage, wishing to be friendly with another, held out his bare right hand—his weapon hand—empty, to signify his desire for peace. The custom still exists as a sign of welcome and greeting.

There are many conflicting opinions as to the correct origin of the word "etiquette." Some authorities believe that it is derived from the Greek "stichos" which means order or rank. Others claim for it a French origin. The primary French meaning was a ticket. This originated, it is thought, from the corruption of a Latin phrase "est his questio inter N. et N." This was placed by procurers on their law papers, similar in meaning to our legal formula N. versus N.

Etiquettes or tickets became popular in France and were fastened upon the outside of parcels and documents to indicate their contents. Later these were given to people who were presented at court or on other ceremonial occasions to tell them where to stand and what to do. The slang phrase "that's the ticket" appears to have been derived from this.

In the sixteenth, seventeenth and eighteenth centuries in France there were books of etiquette called the "Civilities." One is dated 1695 and the other 1782. Both are concerned to a degree with the civilities of the table. At the close of the 17th Century, the guest is warned that if he swallows his wine too rapidly, he may choke himself, "which is impolite and inconvenient." According to these Civilities you sit down to table with your hat on, removing it only if your health is toasted by a person of quality. The diner must not blow in his soup nor pocket the fruit at dessert.

In Hill's Manual of Social and Business Usage published in this country in 1882, we find "Formerly it was the fashion to pour tea into the saucer, not so now. It should be gently sipped from the cup, taking cup and spoon in hand. The spoon should never be removed from the cup while drinking. Should the cup be empty and more be desired, then and only then may the spoon be removed from the cup."

Etiquette varies from one part of the world to another, and from one generation to the next. The last edition of that popular stand-by, EMILY POST differs in many instances from the original issue of 1922. It is now in the ninth edition and eighty-second printing. Many of the formalities are less rigid than formerly, and situations unknown in the twenties are of concern in the last edition. There is less about butlers now, and more about the baby sitters. Emily Post however, no longer has a corner on the etiquette field. Amy Vanderbilt's COMPLETE BOOK OF ETIQUETTE has the answer to many of today's questions regarding manners and modes. VOGUE'S BOOK OF ETIQUETTE is also in demand. There are numerous books to give the bride and her mother a helping hand.

But it is not to the femmes only that procedure poses a problem. For the men in a quandary there is THE GUIDE BOOK FOR THE YOUNG MAN ABOUT TOWN, and ESQUIRE'S ETIQUETTE published by an all-male editorial staff, albeit guided by feminine advice.

For the pony tale and brush cut set YOUR MANNERS ARE SHOWING, THIS WAY PLEASE, HOW TO BE A GOOD HOSTESS, et al, give sound comments on teen-age know-how.

There is at your library, a book for every age, and for almost every problem.

Exchange Club To Hold Dinner

The Grosse Pointe Exchange Club will sponsor a smorgasbord dinner at Turners in Detroit on Tuesday, April 10.

Profits will go to the club's Youth Activities Fund for the sponsorship of the Sea Scouts, Little League baseball and basketball and model aviation. Tickets will cost $5 per person.

Why Endanger Your Health?

By FRED M. KOPP, R. Ph.
There are many miracle drugs on the market today, drugs that, carefully administered by a doctor, can often restore health in a matter of hours.

In view of this it is amazing that any one would endanger his health by purchasing a medical preparation he knows nothing about. Yet people continue to do so.

To prescribe medicine requires not only a complete knowledge of what effect drugs will produce in the body but an understanding of your physical condition at the time medicine is prescribed.

That calls for the services of a physician, just as prescription compounding calls for the skill of an experienced pharmacist.

This is the 590th of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

FIRE AWAY, JIMI!—Strictly a colossus is the way pint-sized David Hawkey, 3½, views his hero, New York Giants pitcher Jim Hearn during a spring training session at Phoenix. Little David's got his mitt all ready for business, hoping Jim'll wheel around and whirl one his way.

NUMBER, PLEASE?—The answer to "Number, please?" on this "switchboard" might result in an array of digits that would baffle an Einstein. It's actually the console control for an electronic brain that will provide complex answers ten times more accurately in one-third the time formerly required that Romaine Mares of the Berkeley division of Beckman Instruments, Inc. is operating. In addition to new speed and accuracy, the new "thinker" is so automatic that it can be operated by less technically skilled personnel than the professional computer engineers who usually must supervise electronic brains.

IN THE WORKS—Electrical equipment appropriately frames former Soviet Premier Georgi Malenkov (left) as he tours the General Electric Co. plant at Birmingham, England. Now Russian Minister for Power Stations, Malenkov is heading a study delegation to Great Britain.

ROLLING HIGH—Five-foot-tall Donna Kienast, 19, of Oconomowoc, Wis., has a man she can really look up to in Kenneth Gray, also 19, who is seven feet tall with his still skates on. The special skates, with stainless tubing, cost him $52. Gray says he can do anything on the still skates that others can do on standards, and more besides.

TWO SPORTS BECKON—Sprinter Dave Sime, holder of the world record for the 100-yard indoor distance, gets instruction in the art of starting from Duke University coach Bob Chambers at Durham, N. C. Though he had been sought by baseball scouts since his high-school days at Fair Lawn, N. J., 19-year-old Dave was an unknown in the track world until his record-breaking run of 9.5 seconds at Washington, D. C., earlier this year. Dave's still uncertain which sports career he'll pursue. One thing's certain, he wants to become a doctor.

LONG AND SHORT—Tiny performers in a German Lilliputian circus pitch in to help pitch a tent for their show in Berlin. The three midgets look mighty small beside that hammer-swinging "giant."

DUTCH TREAT—A real Dutch treat is this April "Seventeen" outfit inspired by the intricate prints of ancient Netherlands costumes. The long-sleeved shirt is pale-toned, with cravat and cuffs contrastingly shadowed. The dark-colored shorts have light-toned cuffs. Both come in antique mauve, tile blue, or green, washable cotton.

ENGLISH BIBLE FOR EUROPE'S BLIND—Sightless Europeans will have an opportunity to enjoy the world's greatest book with the arrival of the first Braille Bible at the newly established English Braille Lending Library in Paris. F. Abbot Ingalls (left), European director of the American Foundation for Overseas Blind, unpacks some of the 18 volumes of the Bible for Miss Janine Lecat, a blind librarian specially trained by the Overseas Foundation.

A SIGHT FOR SURE EYES—Leap Year gets more and more dangerous every day. Especially when gals like Marine Corp. Joan Kammer, hails setting her long-range sights, can outshoot many a male Leatherneck. Joan, who shows from Cincinnati, is the only Lady Marine who shoots in the regular Marine matches. In the monthly 12th Naval District outdoor matches she's chalked up three perfect scores with the service 30-calibre M-1 rifle at 500 yards. And she's the top B-League shooter in the San Francisco Rifle Association's winter gallery circuit.

REMINDER—Youngsters who never saw the late Carole Lombard (right) in the movies won't be as interested as their elders in the resemblance of newcomer Lumn Russell (left) to the comedienne who died in a plane crash in January, 1942. Miss Lombard was married to Clark Gable at the time of her death. Look-alike Miss Russell has just completed her first film in Hollywood.

PUTTING ON THE DOG—As if he needed it, this Afghan hound is wearing a mink over his own fur coat during the famed Crufts Show in London. Since the judging took place indoors, the mink was probably more for looks than warmth. But, after all, appearance is what counts in a beauty contest.

WHICH ONE'S THE PHONY?—Looking like an animated powder puff, White Frost (left), a miniature white pekinese, looks slightly disconcerted as he discovers that his look-alike playmate is only a mere toy. The seven-week-old pup, weighing in at one pound, has been entered in an English dog show by his owner, Mrs. J. Waring of Cobham, Surrey, England.

CHICKEN IN THE BASKET—Even dogs have their day in this modern age of baby-sitting problems. In the case of these pups belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilton Jr. of Oteen, N. C., a Rhode Island Red Rooster voluntarily takes over the job of "baby-sitting" with the two pups whenever mama dog leaves the basket. In fact, mama dog has to fight with the rooster to get back her domain.

MUSIC ON HER MIND—Twenty-two-year-old actress Hazel Gardner hasn't flipped her lid. She's wearing it! Hair-stylist Philip, in London, designed this hair style for Hazel in honor of her comedian-dart jockey husband, Len Marten. His program, "Spinning Tops," is responsible for the whole thing. The name of the hairdo? "Spinning Tops," naturally.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Unless he breaks a leg, or his mighty arms, big Ted Kluszewski should this year break nearly all of the all-time Cincinnati Redleg records. Ted already has 90 more home runs than his nearest competitor, Ernie Lombardi, and has a slugging average of .511 as compared to Lombardi's all time mark of .469. Big Kluz needs only to appear in 97 games this season to top the mark of Frank McCormick for total number of games played. Ted has appeared in 1,132 for the Redlegs. In the other department, he is fourth in runs scored, sixth in at-bats, fourth in hits. Quite a guy. . . A peek at THE STARS

By LYN CONNELLY
THIS month marks the tenth anniversary of this column. . . It started out as a radio-movie commentary and gradually was swept along with the trend of the times into a television-radio column. . . Ten years can never go by in any business without leaving its memories and this is no different. . . We saw the rise and decline of Henry Morgan in radio and were amused at his way of signing autographs—"Henry Morgan loves you"—anything to be different. . . These days a far more subdued but still witty Morgan is a panel member of that humorous TV show "I've Got a Secret," emceed by Garry Moore. Moore, too, provided some memories when he came into Chicago on a visit and entertained the press extemporaneously by beating out a mean drum solo. . . Garry can never sit still when a jazz orchestra is playing. . . Then there was Hoagy Carmichael who picked up a rather dull press party for a famous actress when it turned out she had more talent than personality and couldn't hold her own. He played boogie-woogie on the piano and made the party worthwhile. . . There was the all-night trip to the Don McNeill home on his 12th anniversary. . . A banquet at night, train accommodations for sleeping and attendance of the Breakfast Club at Don's sumptuous home in the morning. Favorite personalities? There are three: Danny Thomas, comedian; Perry Como, singer and Fredric March, dramatic actor. . . If you didn't know beforehand the kind of work these gentlemen did you would never guess it from their conversation. . . They are natural, intelligent and just plain nice to know.

Pastel Plastics Lighten Housework

This spring's plastic housewares are bigger and prettier to be used like accessories for fresh decorating schemes. This spring's homemaker will find her pet pastels in waste baskets of Lustrex styrene plastic, handsome enough to serve as planters. Even the step-on garbage can, right, takes on glamour when made of turquoise polyethylene plastic, including the removable garbage pail.

Star billing this season goes to new king-sized housewares made of sturdy styrene and polyethylene plastics in pastels which invite decorating magic. The new color trend includes light shades of yellow, blue, green, turquoise, and pink which still has strong fashion importance. Useful and pretty articles the homemaker can look for include a 44-quart yellow trash container, complete with tight-fitting black cover; a lightweight laundry basket in turquoise; a beige, rectangular, pail designed for easier carrying; a pink pouring pail with graduations molded inside for accurate measurements. For those who prefer matching to mixing there are complete lines of pastel-colored styrene housewares that feature a canister set, cake saver, breadbox, waste basket and a step-on garbage container. Thanks to manufacturers housework will be as pleasant as possible.

Food Sense—Not Nonsense

Going My Way To A Good Breakfast?
Numerous routes lead to good breakfasts and no one way is the only way. It is the destination that counts—a breakfast that insures each individual a fair share of the needed nutrients for the day. It is high time for the defense of those who do not follow beaten paths in their choices of good breakfasts, choices which often prove to be excellent, nutritious. Traveling their independent ways are the children who like peanut butter or toasted cheese sandwiches for breakfast. On a different route are the people who prefer a bowl of soup or chowder to start the day. There is nothing so revolutionary about these breakfasts. Europeans long have had cheese and soup for the first meal of the day. Any of these breakfasts can meet acceptable nutrition standards if they include a vitamin C-rich fruit, extra enriched toast or bread for energy and B vitamins, plus milk for children. In the sandwich meal, cheese and peanut butter are excellent protein foods. Cream soups are avenues for introducing milk for those who do not like to drink it. Bread will be the basis of many of these meals. Scientists have shown that the cereal breakfast and the popular bacon 'n egg meal are, calorie for calorie, equally efficient. The protein of bread, or cereal, staves off hunger and prolongs efficiency. The day's protein needs are best utilized if some protein food is eaten at each meal. Whichever route is chosen, a good breakfast will be the destination if it follows the way of: A vitamin C-rich food such as a citrus fruit; a protein-rich food such as eggs, meat, bread and milk, or cereal and milk. Sandwiches of cheese or peanut butter are protein-rich foods, too. Additional servings of enriched toast belong in the pattern for sufficient energy and B vitamins.

TEMPER TOSS BRIDE By Grace V. Schillinger

"BEN is such a wonderful husband and I'm so happy that I want to share my happiness with you. Come visit us any time, Mom. Lovingly, your daughter, Jean."
Before Mrs. Markham received the invitation she'd been a bit worried about Jean's marriage to a farmer. Would Jean be home-sick so many miles from home? Would she miss the city? Would she make new friends easily?—these were the questions that chased each other through her mind.
Of course, she'd visit Jean and Ben on their farm. She'd leave immediately!
All the way out to the farm she tried to picture what their home was like. When she finally got there, no one was in sight. She parked the car near the front gate. All the doors were open, windows too, but Jean just wasn't there.
What is that noise?—she asked herself. Someone is talking. No! They're yelling and screaming! Sounds like it comes from behind one of those big red barns out there. . . Maybe it was Ben. One thing sure, it wasn't Jean. Cautiously she slipped out the back door and hurried toward the loud voice.
"You're the biggest old pig-head I ever knew! You're stubborn and goofy!" From Mrs. Markham's hiding place behind the granary door she saw it was Jean.
Who was she talking to?
"You're always saying one thing and then doing just the opposite! Why don't you stick to your promise? You're conceited and high-hat and. . . oh, I wish I'd never laid eyes on you!" Jean's long black hair blew around her shoulders like a dark cape. Her eyes snapped fire! "I'll not be the one who gives in this time. It's got to be you!"
Mrs. Markham's hand flew to her mouth. What's the matter with her? Jean pounded her hands on the barn door. "You could make my

SUNDAY'S SERMON

Rev. Robert H. Harper
The Meaning of Christ's Sufferings. Lesson for March 25: Luke 23: 4-18, 39-43. Golden Text: Isaiah 53: 5.
The day of the crucifixion brings out several vivid contrasts. Think of Pilate and Herod Antipas. Pilate was the better man of the two. Declaring he found no fault in Jesus, he tried to save him—sending Jesus to Herod. But Herod and his men of war mocked Jesus and put on him a gorgeous robe. Then Pilate thought of another expedient—he offered to release unto them a prisoner, whomsoever they might choose. And the people loudly clamored for Barabbas, a noted robber and seditionist. He even washed his hands before the multitude in token of his innocence. But in the end he delivered Christ to be crucified.
On Calvary two great persons met, the Saviour and the repentant thief. It was indeed a very great faith the thief exercised when he prayed to be remembered when Jesus came into his kingdom.
It is the blessed thing to get the meaning of Christ's sufferings. Jesus made it possible for men to be forgiven and be restored to God's goodness. His whole life on earth was a sacrifice to that end. Let us know that in some wondrous way Jesus stood in our soul's place. We can prove this to our own hearts by receiving Jesus as a Saviour through faith and by trusting him for daily grace.

WASHINGTON

Q—I applied to Veterans Administration for disability compensation by mail. VA sent me back a form to fill out. Is there a time limit on mailing this form back to VA?
A—The form should be mailed to VA within a year from the date it was sent to you, in order for VA to consider your original letter as the effective date of your application.
Q—Can you give the origin of the phrase "Rum, Romanism and Rebellion"?
A—A delegation of New York clergymen visited James B. Blaine at his headquarters in the Blaine-Cleveland campaign of 1884. Their spokesman told Blaine the party were Republicans and did not propose to identify themselves with the party of rum, Romanism and rebellion. The remark created considerable agitation among Catholics and was exploited by the Cleveland forces. As a result Blaine lost New York state by 524 votes. Had he carried the state it would have elected him President.
Q—Does the Regulation of Lobbying Act prohibit lobbying?
A—No. In no case does the Act curtail the right to act as a lobbyist. It merely requires disclosure of sponsorship, the pay received and the source of funds, and registration of the lobbyist.
Q—How do lobbyists conform to the Lobbying Act?
A—Such individuals must, if they solicit or accept funds for lobbying purposes, keep accounts, present receipts and statements to the clerk of the House and register with the clerk and secretary of the Senate.
Q—Does the Act prohibit a lobbyist from conferring with a member of Congress in support of or in opposition to pending registration without registration?
A—No. The law does not require registration except in instances in which money is collected or received for efforts and influence used in behalf of or for bills.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Olive Tuna Bake (Serves 3-4)
1/2 cup ripe olives
2 eggs
1/2 cup evaporated milk
1 cup soft bread crumbs
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pepper to taste
1 teaspoon grated onion
1 7-ounce can tuna
Cut olives into large pieces. Beat eggs well, combine with milk, crumbs, salt, pepper and onion. Drain off oil and flake tuna. Stir tuna and olives into egg-milk mixture. Turn into greased 1-quart pan, set in another pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate (350°F.) oven for 45 minutes or until set in center. Serve at once.

buttered bread and broil for 2 minutes. For very special scrambled eggs, heat some canned sliced mushrooms in butter, then add the egg-milk mixture to scramble. Use a melon ball cutter and cut balls from tart apples to use in a ham or pork salad. Sprinkle the balls with lemon juice right after cutting so the flesh remains white and tasty until the salad is served. Top your plain muffins with a spoon of orange or pineapple marmalade before they're baked for that special flavor treat.

★ AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING" ★
STACY HARRISON of Rochester, New York, says he has seen a number of terrible automobile accidents that were avoidable if only the drivers had known and regarded rules for careful driving. He declared he has found many people who do not know how to drive on icy roads and he offers the following rules with the hope that as winter comes on and roads become dangerous they may be the means of saving lives:
1. Unless absolutely necessary, leave your car in the garage until the weather abates.
2. If you must go out, drive slowly.
3. In skidding, turn the wheels in the direction of the skid and accelerate the motor by stepping on the gas.
4. When applying your brakes do it with an up and down action, slowly, being careful not to lock your wheels.
Following these instructions will nearly always prevent dangerous skidding.

Boat Banter

Sunday was All Fools' Day and Webster says -- under fools; "A person deficient in judgment; one who acts absurdly or stupidly; a simpleton, dolt."

Now we wouldn't exactly put a certain six sailors who were seen sailing two new Rebel sloops on the Detroit River on All Fools Day, in this classification--BUT wouldn't they have felt foolish if they had tipped over while taking the first sail of the season?

Actually, it was good advertising, and believe me it was out and out advertising, for the newest class to be formed here. Bill Calder and Bill Calder, and I'm not kidding--one's a cop, and the other a citizen, were the two hardy new boat owners who just couldn't bear to pass up the opportunity to show off their new boats they had just brought back from Ray Greene's in Toledo, Ohio.

Occasionally they would come upon a stray ice floe lazily drifting down the river but a deft flick of the tiller avoided the smaller counterpart of the Titanic sinker.

Bill Calder, the cop, has been spearheading a drive to get the Rebel class accepted by the Detroit River Yachting Association and member clubs. He was successful at the Spring DRYA meeting a couple of weeks ago and the class will have a start on all the regatta programs.

The Rebel is of fiber glass construction, 16 feet overall, 6 feet 3 inch beam, has a center-board and weighs 450 pounds and boom. Bill tells us it is a good family day sailer. This we'll dispute. Anything that presents the remotest possibility of capsizing, if not properly handled, can't be called a "family" day sailer. That is unless you have a family that can swim like fish.

All kidding aside, the Rebel is a wonderful little boat for the sailor who doesn't have the time or energy to spend fitting out. The Rebel hull has the color impregnated right in it and never needs paint. It is small enough to put on a trailer and take on a vacation. It will give a good many sailors all they can handle when it blows.

With their spot assured on the race schedule the Rebels should build into a hot racing class.

The Boat, including spars, costs $1,188. A suit of dacron sails will knock the heck out of a two hundred dollar bill. Class rules prohibit spinnakers.

Guy Ireland announced recently he had purchased Jerry Jenkins L boat "Debbie D" and will campaign the yacht but under a different name this season. Guy likes "Shamrock" and rightly he should because most of his friends call him that.

London East Newest of Pointe's Fine Restaurants

Fine food and a charming atmosphere are attracting residents of the whole Metropolitan Detroit area to the new establishment recently opened in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill district of the Farms. It is the third restaurant owned by the Gruber brothers, Lester and Victor. Their London Chop House in West Congress street was opened a quarter of a century ago. The Caucus Club, across the street in the Penobscot Building, opened several years ago, is also a favorite dining place for those who insist on the best.

The top picture shows the exterior of the building in the Farms. The center photo is of the most attractive bar section, where many residents also prefer to do their dining. The lower picture shows a portion of the lovely main dining salon.

In this room, starting today, Thursday, April 5, Irving's will stage a showing of the latest fashion creations, from 1 to 2:15 p.m. each Thursday.

When the new restaurant was about to open, the owners received more than 800 requests to attend a planned official opening. Faced with such a demonstration of popularity, the Grubers diplomatically decided there would be no official opening, thus eliminating the necessity of having to turn down hundreds of requests.

The restaurant is open for luncheon and dinner every day and for brunches and dinners on Sunday. In addition to the fine cuisine, London East's cellar of fine wines and liquors is unexcelled.

League Sets Date For Registration

The board of governors of the Woods Little League announces that registration for the league ball teams will be held at the Mason School April 7 between 9 a.m. and 12 noon.

All boys from the Woods and Shores who are at least eight years of age and who will not be 13 before August 1 are eligible.

Birth certificates are required and must be brought to the school by all applicants who have not previously registered in the Woods League.

If a boy played in the league last year a birth certificate is not needed; however, he must register again to be eligible for this year's competition.

Thrilling Games Climax Neighborhood Club Season

It was a thrill a minute as the four finalists battled for titles in the Midget and Giant League Neighborhood Club basketball post season tournaments, which were won by the Optimists and the Lakers.

In the first game of the Tuesday, March 27, games regular season champion Optimist was forced to go all out to down the determined Lions, 33-27, in overtime.

The Optimists jumped off to a 10-9 lead in the first quarter but the Lions stormed back to hold an 18-15 lead at halftime.

The Lions appeared to be on their way to victory and upset the pre-tourney dope sheet as they held on to a narrow 24-22 lead going into the final stanza. With a minute and a half remaining the Optimists took the lead on Mike Stark's basket and successfully held off the Lions' attack until Ron Kasperik flipped in the tying basket with 5 seconds to go.

Both teams were held scoreless for one and a half minutes of the two minute overtime. At this point Gary Schick drove to the board hard and dumped in the breaking basket. He was fouled making the shot, and he calmly swished the net with his charity toss.

Pull First Mistake
In their anxiety to get the ball back in play the Lions made their first mistake of the game. A bad pass-in landed in the hands of Schick who promptly turned the boo-boo into the clincher to give the Optimists their second championship of the season.

Frank Kelly paced the Optimists' attack with 11 points for individual scoring honors and was followed by Ron Kasperik, who led the Lions with 8 points for runner-up honors.

The Lakers made good their promise "to beat the Falcons for the title" when they put together rallies in the second and third quarters to take a commanding lead, 33-20, going into the final period.

Falcons Keep Fighting
Although they were down by 13 points the Falcons, champions of the regular season play, refused to quit. Storming back in a last ditch rally in the final period they came within two points, 33-31, of tying up the game at the 5 minute mark.

At this point the breathless Falcons called time out and this spelled their downfall. When the teams went back in to action the Lakers took complete charge and raced to a 40-32 victory.

Ted Stanley captured the individual scoring honors with 14 points and was followed by Butch Jacoby of the Falcons with 12.

Honored at Banquet
All eight Midget League, four Giant League and four Farm League team members were honored at the annual banquet held at the Neighborhood Club on Monday, April 2.

The Optimists were awarded the Midget season and playoff trophies. The Falcons carried off the Giant League season championship trophy and the Lakers the playoff trophy. Members of the winning teams were awarded individual "Oscar's" as has been the custom since the league was formed by Bill Desrocher four years ago.

The Naval Air Test Center, Patuxent River, Md., tests all new Navy aircraft before they are delivered to operating squadrons.

Devils Face Big Job in League Race

Golf has been added to the spring sports calendar of the Border Cities League, but it will have no bearing on the final standings for the Sweepstakes All Sports Trophy which is awarded to the school earning the most points during the school year in six major sports.

In the past Grosse Pointe has had a golf team but it has been more or less an orphan in its own league. The only competition the golfers saw was in matches it could pick up outside the league. But for the most part the team competed only in the annual State Regional or Finals.

This year all but one of the six BCL schools will be represented on the links. Only Highland Park does not have a team, which makes it impossible to include the sport in the Sweepstakes tabulations.

Open on April 19
Grosse Pointe will play home and home series with Fordson, Wyandotte and Monroe and engage in a single match against Royal Oak. The season will get underway on April 19 with Fordson as the Blue Devils' opponent.

Getting back to the Sweepstakes trophy race, Grosse Pointe is faced with the herculean task of taking firsts in tennis, baseball and track if it hopes to retain the trophy which it has won more times than all other schools combined in the league.

Currently, the Devils are trailing in the race, having finished third in football, fourth in basketball and tied for first in swimming.

Chances Not Too Dim
Prospects for championships in the four remaining sports aren't as dim as one may think. Tennis Coach Bud Kurvink thinks it possible for his veteran netters to go undefeated this year providing his bevy of seniors can equal their efforts of last year. They lost only one match in 19 starts and won the BCL title.

Returning to the net wars will be letterman Ethan Pawst, Pete McGee, Ed Pongracz, Bill Bryant, Bill Hotchkiss and Rick Chamion. Champion is the only one who is not a senior. It will be around these boys that Coach Kurvink will attempt to build a championship squad.

Must Replace Grads
Before the first match against Cranbrook on Wednesday, April 11, Kurvink will be forced to find replacements for the graduated Tom White and Tom Watson. Peter Smith, Joe Donovan, Pierre St. Aubur, Nick Kerns, Tom Davey and Russ Everett, currently head the group from which the replacements might be drawn.

However, once the squad gets on the courts in force there might be a "dark horse" who has been overlooked to date who will earn one of the open spots. That's the way Kurvink operates. Every boy gets a chance to show his talent.

The Cranbrook test should go far to prove just how good the Devil netters will be this year. This is a non-league match and could not hurt the Devils' chances for the BCL title but it might hurt their pride a bit if they dropped the opener.

Coach Howard MacAdam's track team hopes to get off to a winning start against non-league Mount Clemens on Friday, April 13.

Second Last Year
Last year the Devil Thimclads finished second to Fordson in the BCL race but upset the

Lakers Win Giant League Playoff Title

appreciate when they won the Regionals.

The Babe Ruth League of Grosse Pointe will hold its annual registration meeting on Wednesday, April 11, at 7:15 p.m. in the Grosse Pointe High School annex auditorium (Old Country Day School).

All 13, 14 and 15 year-old boys living in Grosse Pointe Farms, Park and City are welcome and urged to attend this meeting with their fathers.

Babe Ruth directors have lined up sports celebrities who will speak briefly to the assembly.

Opening practice dates will be announced at a later time when the weather makes outdoor play permissible.

The Babe Ruth League diamond at the Neighborhood is in the process of being relocated in order to improve playing conditions and remove the hazard of the team field facing the sun. Contractors have promised to have the field ready for the opening game.

Recent Badminton Tourney Kindles Interest in Game

The recently concluded Junior National Badminton tournament, sponsored and flawlessly conducted by the Michigan Badminton Association at Grosse Pointe High, stirred up much interest in the game here.

Particularly impressed were the Pointe youngsters who saw one of their set, Bill Bryant, capture the Boys Doubles and Mixed Doubles National championships.

Now it seems all the kids are asking, "Where can we learn to play the game?"

Alert Grosse Pointe Badminton Club officials, noting this surge of interest, have come up with the answer.

Every Tuesday and Friday evening, until mid April, they will conduct instruction classes at Grosse Pointe High for all Pointe youngsters between the ages of 9 and 18. Tuesday classes will start at 7 p.m. and Friday evenings between 8 and 10 p.m. There will be no charge for the instructions and the facilities.

Conducting the classes will be Bill and Bob Bryant, Harold O. Love, Hans Rogind, Ernie Wagner, Jack Lavis and Wes Thompson.

A particularly interested spectator at the Nationals was Bert Wicking, of the Board of Education, who asked "Why hasn't more been done to acquaint our kids with this game?" Possibly Mr. Wicking's question has sowed the seed that will make the game more popular than it now is in the Pointe and produce some future champions.

Since the erection of the new auditorium-gymnasium badminton competition at Grosse Pointe High has greatly expanded. It is not uncommon to see 10 games of doubles being played at one time during gym classes in the new gym. Girls, especially, take to the game as it can be just as strenuous as they wish to make it.

By opening its facilities and instructive talents the Grosse Pointe Badminton Club hopes to increase its junior membership next fall and develop entries for the 1957 Nationals. Plans for 1957 include an all Grosse Pointe Junior tournament for which a perpetual trophy will be put into compe-dition by the club.

Five GPBC members have already gone to Philadelphia for the American Open National Tournament to be held April 4 to 7.

Heading the group are Bill Bryant and Russ Pacquette, and Vic Pritula and Bill Anderson, Midwest doubles champions.

Anderson will team up with Mary Connors in their bid for honors in the mixed doubles. Currently they are ranked sixth in the country and number one in the Midwest in this event.

Redwood Moves Close to Title

League-leading Redwood stretched its lead in the Grosse Pointe Bowling League last Friday, March 30, to what looks like a sure-fire thing, barring an unforeseen upset, as competition draws near an end.

Redwood clipped Kennametal for three points behind Mertz's 583 series as second place Stober stumbled badly, losing three to tenth place Rightenburg. This left Redwood out in front by five and one-half points with the end of the season only a short throw from left field.

Piche keglers clung to third place by splitting four points with Kopp's while Harper split four with fourth place Youngblood.

Custom nicked last place Stewart for three points and jumped three places in the standings to fifth place.
