HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

Look Alive So They May Stay Alive

School's out and so are the kids. A frightening, yet too familiar, sight to motorists is the child darting into the street to chase down a stray ball. Young LINDA ORDON knows better than to run out into the path of the car. She is just helping the NEWS photographer remind you to be particularly careful now that summer is here and our children are out of doors. Give the kids a "brake". You'll both be glad you did.

Thursday, June 21
RESCUERS are still searching for the bodies of 74 persons killed in a fiery Venezuelan airliner crash yesterday. The crash, the worst in commercial aviation history, occurred as the plane was returning to New York with one engine dead. The big plane exploded while dumping its gasoline after the engine trouble.

From the instant the plane hit the water within sight of the lights of New York, it was known that everyone aboard had perished upon flaming impact with the sea. A Coast Guard spokesman said the plane hit so hard it disintegrated. Nineteen of the victims were Americans.

FRANCE'S FOREIGN Minister Christian Pineau said that Russia has started to raise its Iron Curtain and that the West should encourage this by cultural-economic contacts with the Red countries. He said the United States should lead the West in this move. He said Russian leaders are ready to make a certain number of "unavoidable sacrifices."

Pineau made this statement bluntly at a National Press Club luncheon in Washington, after ending a three-day intensive diplomatic talk with Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. The talks between the two statesmen apparently failed to settle sharp differences on how to handle Russia's new softer policies.

SOURCES CLOSE to officials in Washington said that the United States may abandon the financing of the Aswan Dam in Egypt. A spokesman for Egyptian Premier Gamal Abdel Nasser said that Russia has offered to loan Egypt $1,120,000,000 toward construction of the dam, and without any interest.

The loan would be paid back over a period of 60 years. The sum would almost meet the total cost of the construction. American officials indicate that the position now is that the U. S. is ready to bow out rather than meet the Russian offer.

Friday, June 22
THE PRESENT LEADERS of Russia were assailed by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles as close collaborators of the late Josef Stalin. In a slashing attack made in San Francisco before members of the Kiwanis International holding a convention in that city, the Secretary of State said that these leaders are the beneficiaries of Stalin's sadistic purges.

He said the recently disclosed secret speech made by Communist Party Boss Nikita Khrushchev, "is the most damning indictment of despotism made by a despot." He challenged the Soviet leaders to put to a test in Germany their contention that Communism will be freely accepted by non-Communist peoples on its merits.

THE WEST has become interested in an election in Iceland for the first time in 1,000 years. The reason for this is because the Althing (parliament) has ordered United States troops withdrawn from the Kleflavik Air Base, which is located, roughly, half way between New York and Moscow. Iceland, a NATO member, has no armed forces of her own to cope with any enemy, to replace the void in Allied defenses if American troops are gone.

Kiwanis Club Plans Annual July 4 Show

Huge Fireworks Display To Be Held Again on Parcels School Grounds at Night

The Grosse Pointe Kiwanis Club will sponsor its 14th annual huge fireworks display on Wednesday, July 4, at Parcels School, Mack at Vernier, which will start as soon as darkness falls.

The club plans to make this display bigger and better than those of previous years.

Helps Many Movements
All funds raised through the sale of tickets for this event are used to stage an annual show; provide scholarships for graduates from schools in the Pointe; furnish Halloween and Christmas parties for the children; help boys and girls in work of all types, including scouting; and to care for handicapped and underprivileged children wherever possible.

Everyone is urged to purchase tickets to the display, so that the club will be able to carry on its numerous civic projects.

Mail Your Remittance
Members of the club will make every effort to pick up ticket stubs on or before Saturday, June 30, but if no one calls for them, individuals are asked to mail their remittance to the club in care of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial, 32 Lake Shore road.

PARK PASS STOLEN

Mrs. Stocker Jefferies of 1010 Harvard, reported to Park police on Friday, June 22, that someone had stolen her son's waterfront park pass.

$33,772 Now Contributed To Annual Center Drive

Donations continue to trickle in for the annual Family Participation Campaign for the operation and maintenance of the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. The goal for the drive was $33,000, and this amount was just topped by the official close on Memorial Day.

Pointe Community Theater Winds Up Busiest Season With Shows This Weekend

"Dial 'M' for Murder" Will be Presented Friday and Saturday Nights at Cannon Community Center on Guilford

The Grosse Pointe Community Theater winds up its season this Friday and Saturday nights with performances of "Dial 'M' for Murder". The hit thriller will be staged at the Cannon Community Center Auditorium on Guilford Street near the Cadieux-Warren corner.

A quick look at the cast of this production proves the adage that once bitten by the theater bug, a person stays bitten.

Has Professional Background
Bill Shearer, who plays Inspector Hubbard, was bitten early. He was a professional actor in Hollywood and in Detroit-produced industrial motion pictures while still in his one-digit years.

"Dial 'M'" will be the fourth major production in which Mr. Shearer has appeared since joining the Theater last season. Before that, he was a frequent leading man with the Wyandotte community theater and has also been seen in IbeX Club productions.

Casting in the Grosse Pointe Theater is done on the basis of competitive readings at casting calls to which all members are invited.

Gushee to Make Local Debut
Ted Gushee, who will be making his debut on the GPCT stage in the romantic lead of "Dial . . .", has an impressive professional background in theater and allied arts. Graduating from a specialized dramatics course at Williams College, he is currently associate producer with Haford Kerbawy, a Detroit firm specializing in industrial motion pictures, conventions and closed-circuit TV presentations.

Other theatrical experience for Mr. Gushee includes a season of summer stock on Cape Cod, organization and direction of a U.S. Air Force Little Theater on Okinawa, and a rather recent appearance in one of the male leads of the IbeX Club's mounting of "The Tender Trap."

Big Paving Job Started In Woods

Cook Road and Portions of Chester and Arthur Being Surfaced at Cost of $44,900

The Woods began its paving of Cook road, part of its street and alley repairing and improvement program, on Monday, June 25, according to City Administrator William Lange.

The paving, which will cover a little less than a mile, will cost $44,900, of which $37,600 will be paid through special assessment, and $7,300 paid by the city at large.

To Take 60 Days
Mr. Lange said that this paving project will include the unpaved portions of Chester and Arthur roads, and that this particular project will take about 60 days to complete.

The first payment of the special assessment becomes due at once and is payable within 90 days. The next payment becomes due on July 1, 1957, and the last on July 1, 1962, stretching the balance due over a six-year period.

Pay 6 Percent Interest
Interest on all deferred payments is set at six percent, from and after the date the assessment went into effect, provided the full amount due is not paid within 60 days.

The concrete pavement will be 28 feet wide, with integral curb and necessary drainage facilities. It will start from Chalfonte avenue to the easterly line of the Hunt Club Subdivision on the south, and a line distant 3,225.54 feet from the center line of Mack on the north, which is the easterly line of the Protestant Children's Home property.

Early Deadline Set For Holiday Week
Due to the July 4 holiday, the NEWS will go to press on Monday, June 26, at the War Memorial Center, the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club installed its new officers.

Council in Woods Studies Financing Of Drain Project

Plan For Apportioning of Grosse-Gratiot Development Is Approved; To Accept Bids About August 1

The Woods council held an adjourned meeting on Thursday, June 21, to debate the proposed proportionment of cost of the Grosse-Gratiot Drain. The meeting was carried over from the regular session held on Monday, June 18.

City Administrator William Lange said that the council approved the plan for the apportioning of the cost of the drain, between the Woods, Harper Woods and St. Clair Shores. However, the actual proportionment of the entire project cannot be determined as yet, he said, until bids are in and construction starts.

He said that the Wayne County Drain Commission had proposed each of the involved communities be assessed accordingly, that is, each be charged its fair share for the whole amount, and then the cities in turn assess their citizens.

Mr. Lange said that each city's cost will be determined by the size of sewer pipes and pumps needed in that particular community.

The Drain Commission will accept bids on the project on August 1.

Recently, East Detroit expressed a desire to come in on the drain program, and Mr. Lange said the council did not object to this, provided that as a result there will be no delay in starting the job. He said the Woods will not tolerate any delay, because the vitally needed drainage system must go ahead.

Offer One Solution
He said that if East Detroit is not ready to participate in the program, one way of getting around it is for St. Clair Shores to develop its portion of the Milk River and an added part of the river which would be needed by East Detroit, which could later purchase this section from its neighbor city.

Claude Stevens, attorney for the County Drain Commission, said that if everything goes according to schedule, the bonds for the project can be sold during the latter part of September, or early October, depending on the bond market.

Survey Launched On Elm Disease
The Michigan Agriculture Department and the City of Grosse Pointe began an elm tree survey within the City limits, to determine if any of the trees have the Dutch Elm blight, it was announced by City Clerk Norbert Neff.

Mr. Neff said that all the trees will be checked and any that are suspected of having the disease will be tagged and marked and a sample sent to Lansing.

Rotarians Install Officers At Ceremony in Center

At its last official luncheon-meeting of the fiscal year, held on Monday, June 26, at the War Memorial Center, the Grosse Pointe Rotary Club installed its new officers.

The meeting was taken over by Past President William Hurley. He introduced Dave Burnett, who praised the administration of retiring President Glenn Pratt, and credited him with reviving the spirit of the club and instigating the highly successful Antique Show which was held recently.

Farms Halts Assessment On Business

Special District Created To Collect Funds For Site Rescinded by Councilmen

The Special Assessment District 7 case of the City of Grosse Pointe Farms has been rescinded.

At a regularly scheduled meeting of the Farms' Council on June 18, Councilman William Butler moved that assessment on the Kercheval Hill parking lot be cancelled immediately. The motion was unanimously adopted.

The special assessment district was created by the Farms to have the businessmen pay a proportionate share of the parking lot cost and improvement, which was completed early in 1954.

Total Cost $33,994
The overall cost to the city, including improvements, purchase of property from the School Board to expand the lot, etc., was approximately $33,994. The assessment against local business was $27,441.

The majority of the businessmen said they would be willing to pay their share of the assessment, provided the Farms promised not to meter the parking lot. This promise was not obtained.

When the city sought to collect the assessment, the Hill businessmen obtained an injunction restraining the Farms from collecting. However, before the injunction was served, several businessmen paid all or part of their assessment.

In Court Since 1954
The case had been in court since September 16, 1954, and since then hearings had been postponed several times.

On February 19, of this year, the Farms installed meters in the first three rows of the lot, 132 spaces, and to date has realized about $150 a week, which in one full year would net the city approximately $8,000.

The first row is metered for one-hour parking, the second, for two, and the third, up to 10 hours.

The 83 spaces in the last two rows have been left un-metered for free parking.

To Meter Last Rows
At Monday's meeting, Councilman Edward C. Roney, Jr., moved that parking meters be installed in these two rows, in the same manner as the third existing row. The motion was seconded by William Butler and unanimously adopted by the council.

Tragedy Strikes Sunday Barbecue

A Sunday barbecue at the A. G. Kirchner, Jr. residence at 264 McMillan, June 24, was marred by a gasoline explosion which seriously burned two youngsters.

Mrs. Kirchner was preparing the fire when she threw some gas on the blaze hoping to make it burn faster. The fuel exploded and badly burned nine-year-old Arthur J. Kirchner.

He was rushed to St. John Hospital by a neighbor, William W. Boeschstein of 262 McMillan. The boy received second degree burns over 75 percent of his body.

Susan Van Horn, age seven, was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by firemen Samuel Candella and George Green. She suffered second degree burns on her legs.

Grads Honored

Three high school students from the Grosse Pointe area were among the honor June graduates who received a certificate of merit at the 9th annual honor awards banquet of the Engineering Society of Detroit recently.

The students have been selected because of their outstanding records, and interest in science and engineering.

They are Stan Armstrong of 821 Moran road; Hal Farquhar of 1464 Vernier road, both of the Grosse Pointe High School; and John Carrigo of 1019 Nottingham road, of St. Ambrose High School.

Farms Fire Report Submitted

During the month of May the Farms Fire Department made a total of 24 calls. There were only four residence fires of these. Total damage was estimated at $1,600.

There was one automobile fire which resulted in a total loss to the car involved.

The Farms ambulance made 10 emergency runs and assisted an outside community on one case.

The easiest way to settle an argument is to shut up.

Fisherman's Dream Comes True

The C. E. LUBER FAMILY of 628 Hawthorne road, struck it rich while angling on a recent trip to Florida. Fishing off Pompano Beach, they snagged 13 bonita, two tuna, three dolphin and a sail fish. Nine-year-old Kerry landed the sailfish.

Mrs. Luber also boated a sail, but released it so another fisherman might have a chance to experience the same thrill. Left to right are: — MATE JOE DENNEY, Mrs. LUBER, JEAN, KERRY and MR. LUBER.

Pointers Win MSU Awards

Two Grosse Pointe high school graduates are among the winners of 47 Honor Awards granted by Michigan State University in recognition of scholastic achievement, leadership and productive citizenship during high school attendance.

These non-monetary awards, which require a B+ (3.5) academic average for consideration, offer the student public recognition in addition to a leather-bound certificate and permanent record of this achievement on the university transcript.

The winners are: Judith A. Miller, 543 Hollywood, and Marilyn J. Ayres, 981 Hawthorne. Both are recent graduates of the high school.

Virginia Mow Honored by CAP

Grosse Pointe Squadron 633-1, Civil Air Patrol, announces that one of its members, C/2nd Lt. Virginia Mow of 17197 Wayney was selected by the Michigan Wing Screening Board as one of two girl cadets from this state to attend the all girl encampment held yearly at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

In a congratulatory letter to Virginia, announcing her appointment, the Commander of the Michigan Wing, Colonel Walter C. Gernt, CAP, wrote in part: "Your past performance, your knowledge of, and interest in CAP served you well in the final selection to participate in this outstanding activity. The opportunity to be part of this national encampment comes to few and is a signal honor both to you and the Michigan Wing."

Civil Air Patrol offers many and varied opportunities to teenagers interested in all phases of aviation and Grosse Pointe Squadron 633-1 welcomes all inquiries or personal visits to their meetings, held each Wednesday at 7:15 p.m. at Cannon Memorial Recreation, East Warren at Cadieux road.

Philip K. Russell Receives Degree Before OCS

Among those receiving Bachelor of Arts degrees today at Bowdoin College's 151st Commencement exercises, held in the First Parish Church in Brunswick, was Philip K. Russell.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald M. Russell, 1304 Bishop road, he prepared for Bowdoin at Grosse Pointe High School.

At Bowdoin, he was active in interfraternity sports, majored in Economics, and is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity. He plans to enter the Naval Officers Candidate School in Newport, Rhode Island, June 18th.

Dr. Bartlett pointed out that students of government feel that such a plan is not only impractical but also unworkable. The solution to this problem lies, Dr. Bartlett stated, not in the MEA proposal, but rather a consideration of reform in the administrative setup of the state to be considered at a Constitutional convention.

Report to Fort Bragg For Summer Training

Patrick Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Burke of 1255 Lakepointe, and Ernest Nigg, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Nigg of 850 Balfour, have been ordered to Fort Bragg, North Carolina, for a six weeks training at summer camp, beginning June 23. Pat is in company "H" and Ernie in company "E".

Pat is a cadet in the Reserve Officers Training Corp at Michigan State University and a senior in Engineering.

Ernie is a senior in Engineering at the University of Michigan.

The summer camp program is a prerequisite for an R.O.T.C. commission.

Pat and Ernie were January 1953 graduates of Grosse Pointe High School.

It is true that truth will out—and it seems to be everlastingly out of some people.

Teeners Confess To Petty Thefts

Six teen-age boys were arrested by Woods police on Sunday, June 24, and Monday, June 25, on charges of petty theft.

One youth, said Det. Everett Plumb, is also charged with altering his car license plate.

Four of the youths, including the driver of the car with the altered plate, were apprehended at 3 a.m., Sunday, when a citizen called police and reported they were syphoning gasoline from tanks of cars parked at Aline and Goethe.

On Monday, the boys were questioned and taken on a tour of homes which recently experienced breakings and enterings, to determine if the boys were involved.

Plumb said that the boys admitted several petty thefts, which ranged from taking liquor from a boat, to stealing a battery from a truck. They implicated two other boys, who were picked up by police.

The detective said charges will be filed against the six youths.

MINOR ACCIDENT

Mack avenue and Lothrop was the scene of a minor accident Sunday night, June 17, when a car driven by Charles Harris of 1215 Nottingham skidded on the wet pavement and crashed into an Edison pole. Mr. Harris swerved to allow a car to pass when his car went into the skid which ended at the power pole.

Some people find it easier to believe a lie than to take the time to prove it isn't true.

Justice Edwards, Bartlett Address Democratic Club

The Grosse Pointe Democratic Club at a meeting June 20 held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center adopted resolutions condemning two proposed amendments to the Michigan Constitution, now receiving wide circulation, namely the use of the "Missouri Plan" as a basis for selection of Michigan judges and the Michigan Education Association proposal to enlarge the State Board of Education and appoint the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Justice George Edwards, featured speaker at the meeting, in discussing the "Missouri Plan" pointed out that it had been adopted by only two Missouri counties, the plan having originated due to corruption and machine control in the judiciary there, a situation which Justice Edwards stated does not exist in the Michigan judiciary.

The selection of judges, Justice Edwards pointed out, would be taken out of the electoral process and a judge would instead be selected by a committee of seven, comprised of three laymen, appointed by the Governor, three members of the bar and a justice of the Supreme Court. The Governor then would select from a panel of three names submitted by the Committee of seven.

This appointed judge then must face the electorate in the following election year. Justice Edwards stated that nothing the proponents have advanced indicated that a change in the method of electing judges would be more successful than the present democratic method employed in this state. "It is too important and hard won right to vote away unthinkingly," warned Justice Edwards.

The "Missouri Plan" asserted Justice Edwards, instead of "taking the selection of judges out of politics" would only emphasize the politics involved in their appointment and make them subject to a small and highly organized committee of seven answerable to no one.

Dr. Lynn Bartlett in discussing the proposal to enlarge the State Board of Education and appoint the Superintendent of Public Instruction, pointed out to the Democrat Club that under the MEA plan, State Board of Education members while nominated as nonpartisan would in actuality be subject to "organized pressure group politics" inasmuch as an individual to be nominated must obtain at least 3,000 signatures on a petition in any one county and at least 100 signatures in at least 20 counties of the state. No one person, Dr. Bartlett emphasized, could even think of running without organized group political pressure under such requirements.

In addition the current proposal limits the number of members of the State Board to two (2) members from any one county, hence such heavily populated counties like Wayne would not be properly represented.

Dr. Bartlett pointed out that students of government feel that such a plan is not only impractical but also unworkable. The solution to this problem lies, Dr. Bartlett stated, not in the MEA proposal, but rather a consideration of reform in the administrative setup of the state to be considered at a Constitutional convention.

Youngster Rides Into Side of Car

A nine-year-old Detroit boy suffered only a skinned right knee when he ran into a car pulling out of a Mack avenue restaurant driveway on Friday, June 22.

A Park police accident report revealed that Dorothy T. Marr, 34, of 1337 Berkshire, was on the driveway of the Francois Fireplace Restaurant, 15506 3675 Berkshire, ran into the side of her car while riding his bike.

The boy fell to the sidewalk, and suffered only the skinned knee. No ticket was issued to the woman.

Suspect Youths In Theft of Car

City police received a stolen car report from W. G. Alcott of 335 Rivard boulevard, Friday morning, June 22.

Alcott stated that he parked his 1955 Chevrolet in front of his home Thursday evening. When he awoke Friday, the car was missing.

Saturday, Farms police picked up the car in front of the Morrison residence at 68 Hall place. Evidently some youngsters had taken the Chevy for a joy ride and then ditched it.

There appeared to be no damage done to the car.

Cancer Society Entertains Japanese Doctor

While a group of 50 visitors from 25 different countries were in Detroit recently for the American Cancer Society's regional and national board meeting and the Third National Cancer Conference, they spent a day at the Cancer Society's Detroit headquarters in the Detroit Cancer Center. A full day's program was put on by ACS volunteers, to show the foreigners how the American Cancer Society's program functions with its largely volunteer personnel. The group was brought to the United States by a committee of American Cancer Society Directors, to study various aspects of the agency and learn how to further similar programs in their own countries. Among the visitors was Dr. Komei Nakayama, (third from left) prominent physician in Japan. Chatting with him are three American Cancer Society volunteers (left to right) MRS. WALDORF T. KIRK, chairman of volunteer activities of the Southeastern Michigan Division of the ACS; MRS. ROBERT D. MACKENZIE, 1246 Devonshire road, and ARTHUR NEEF, Dean of Wayne University Law School and chairman of the board of the ACS here. Dean Neef lives at 750 Lincoln.

Ira Prent Fulmore of the Trans-Pacific Yacht Club, purchased Henry Bodman's yacht "Criterion" recently.

Dan Huntington, better known to his close friends as "Dash Forth Hunting Dog," left Sunday, June 17, from the Bay View Yacht Club with the yacht, for a 7,000-mile trip which will include going through the Weiland Barge Canal to the Hudson River and New York, where they will go down the coast around the tip of Florida and through the Panama Canal, and then up to Los Angeles.

The crew on the trip to New York included, Mr. and Mrs. William J. A. Nagel, Mr. and Mrs. John Nicol and Ed Desmond.

Fulmore, owner of the yacht "Staghound," a previous Honolulu race winner, purchased the "Criterion" for the 1957 Honolulu classic.

Simians Ready To Cast Show

A meeting will be held at the Central Library, Kercheval and Fisher road on Friday, June 29, at 8 p.m. to discuss the cast and the production details.

"The Simians urge all students interested in dramatics to come to this meeting and join them during this anniversary celebration," said President Richard Saunders at a meeting earlier this year.

"Our second offering for the summer will be "Come Back Little Sheba" and we are looking for talented people to cast in the difficult leading roles," he added.

Simian productions are staged outdoors on the lawn of the War Memorial Center.

Dowell Attends School Parley

Grosse Pointe High School was represented by Arthur E. Dowell, acting head of the social studies department, at an all-day working conference of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools Foreign Relations Study Project in Chicago, June 18.

The conference was concerned with discussing the program recently initiated in 31 different high schools across the country. Principally, the students participating have been confronted with a study of the goals of United States foreign policy and the basic principles supporting these objectives in foreign relations. After having been schooled in the principles and problems of American foreign policy, the materials furnished by the North Central Association make it possible for a thorough study of a contemporary foreign relations problem. Last semester, the first class at the High School to take the course, discussed the reunification of Germany.

When money does talk it frequently says good night than good morning.

Tickets may be obtained from any Exchange Club member and from merchants displaying the Exchange Club Moonlight poster.

9 Pointers Get Degrees

Nine Grosse Pointers were among the 750 seniors who received degrees and certificates at the Western Michigan College's 53rd annual commencement exercises held in Waldo Stadium recently.

They are Carol Sattelmeyer of Ridgemoor road who received a secretarial certificate; Edward Anderson of Anita avenue, BBA; Phyllis Boccia of Lincoln road, retailing certificate; Jean Schweitzer of Wayburn avenue; secretarial certificate; Martin Roberts of Fisher road, BS; Daneen Brill of Neff road, secretarial certificate; Donald Button of Hollywood road, BBA; Nancy Button of N. Renaud, BS and elementary certificate, and Ronal Kelly of Whittier road, homemaking certificate.

On Tuesday, June 26, the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club was host to the Exchange Club Council of Metropolitan Detroit at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center. Vice-President Morris R. DeFour presided in the absence of vacationing President Dr. Alfred M. Large.

Over 150 Exchanges from the Detroit area enjoyed an inspiring talk on Americanism by S. D. Den Uyl, president of Bohn Aluminum and Brass Corporation.

One of the highlights of the evening was the passing of the Sea Scouts sailing ship the Resolute, which passed in review in the waters in front of the War Memorial Center.

Sponsoring of the Sea Scout Ship number 690 and financial assistance in preparing this ship for sailing is one of the major projects of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club and all Exchanges are proud of the fine job that has been done by the Sea Scouts and their skipper, Mr. Donald Martin.

Because of the holiday, no meeting will be held on July 3, but all members are urged to attend the induction of new officers on Tuesday, July 10.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Retiring City Firemen Receive Checks

The Grosse Pointe City Police and Fire Association said "farewell" to two of its stalwarts at a retirement party held recently by the Association. Patrolman Robert Van Tiem, President of the Association, stated that a regular practice of the organization was to present a $100 check to all retiring members in addition to giving them a dinner at the expense of the Association.

The formal ceremonies were held at the home of Sgt. Onstwedder at 329 St. Clair. Supt. Tom Trombly was the Master of Ceremonies and presented the guest speaker, Commissioner of Public Safety, John Mazer, who commended both men for their loyalty and devotion to the fire department throughout the years of their service.

He described Lt. Fowler as "a quiet, unassuming, conscientious public servant who never complained about his work; and a person who was willing to gladly assist and aid his fellow-employees in any way that he could"; and Fireman Thornton Reaume as "a man who sacrificed an opportunity to become an officer because he wanted to remain one of the boys; and a staunch fire fighter who enjoyed himself most while fighting a fire and saving property and lives."

Both men told of some humorous and some tragic experiences that they had while in the service.

Supt. Trombly introduced several guests who had already joined the retired list. These included Former Fire Chief Ledger Chauvin and Former Lt. Art Van Beelaere. Commissioner Mazer announced that two new replacements had been hired to fill the vacancies in the Fire Dept.

They are John Onstwedder, Jr., and Robert Marshall. Both men live in Grosse Pointe City and have honorable discharges from the Navy. Supt. Trombly stated that these were two of the best prospects that he had ever had in his department.

Gust Candidate For Congress

Rockwell T. Gust, Jr., Detroit attorney and long-time resident of Michigan's Fourteenth Congressional District, filed for the Republican nomination for Congress in that District on June 19.

Mr. Gust—known as "Rocky"—is a World War II veteran and is commander of the Frederick M. Alger Post of the American Legion. He has been active in the affairs of this large Legion post since shortly after his graduation from the University of Michigan Law School in 1949. Among the many patriotic and civic activities of the Post is sponsorship of 10 boys each year at the Wolverine Boys' State.

During World War II, Mr. Gust served aboard a PT boat with the U. S. Navy.

Prior to entering the Navy, Mr. Gust attended Williams College where he played left end on the football team, and was an outfielder on the baseball team.

He returned to Williams after his discharge, and entered the University of Michigan Law School immediately after his graduation from Williams.

Mr. Gust, who lives at 65 Radnor circle, Grosse Pointe Farms, has been active in the Republican party in the Fourteenth District for the last several years. He was campaign manager for State Legislator Robert E. Waldron during the latter's primary campaign in 1954, and campaign manager for Joseph A. Moynihan, Jr., in the Congressional race that year.

He is a director of the Fourteenth District Republican Club, and a member of the Fourteenth District Young Republican Club.

Mr. Gust is a member of the Grosse Pointe Memorial Presbyterian Church, and formerly taught a Sunday school class there.

 planes. Moscow has been reverberating for weeks with its jets screaming through the sound barrier.
 However, it was noted that the planes crashed the sound barrier only in a dives and not in straight flight, a possible indication that the jets lack necessary power for level flight faster than the speed of sound. The U.S. Embassy released a 10-day itinerary for Twining which includes visits to top-secret spots in the Soviet.

THE FRENCH HAVE rounded up 28 rebel leaders, wrecking an important rebel network, sources said. The roundup was made by troops and police at Bougie in Eastern Algeria. About 8,000 persons were seized temporarily and 800 held for further questioning. The 28 leaders were among the 800 held, authorities said.

At least 33 others were charged with hiding arms and otherwise taking part in the 19-month rebellion. Meanwhile, in Algiers, police said they have learned the identities of the rebels who took part in Wednesday's Commando raid attack on European civilians, in which four were killed and 13 others hurt.

CHARLES E. WILSON, Secretary of Defense, was criticized by both Senate Democrats and Republicans, when he charged that the efforts to increase Air Force funds were phony. "They also charged that some of his statements about American air strength were contrary to sworn testimony of Air Force leaders.

Senator Symington (D., Mo.) former Secretary of the Air Force and present head of a subcommittee investigating air power, said that Wilson's "Usefulness as a Cabinet officer has come to an end." The Democrats are seeking an increase of 1.6 billion for the Air Force; the Republicans favor a 500 million rise.

Holiday Drivers Cautioned

—Picture by O'Connor Studio

HON. C. JOSEPH BELANGER, Judge of Grosse Pointe Park Municipal Court and a strong advocate for the principles of safety as associated to the operation of motor vehicles, cautions all vacationers, with direct emphasis to the week-end or holiday drivers, who attempt to crowd in far too many road miles without proper rest or stop periods on long trips.

Judge Belanger is in complete accord with the poster, "For Safety's Sake, Stop for a Coffee Break." In addition he says, "Extend the type of road courtesy that you expect and maybe a life that will be saved will be your very own."

A state of alarm is a modified form of martial law.

A NEW PARLIAMENT was elected by a record number of Icelanders who braved rain and 50 degree chill. The new Parliament might possibly decide the fate of a critical section of the North Atlantic Defenses. The Icelanders turned out to elect 52 members of both houses of Parliament.

Intense interest was created by demands of four smaller parties that the United States withdraw its 5,000-man force from Iceland's soil. The members of the American forces are located at the Keflavik Air Base and radar listening posts which link the NATO defense network of Europe and North America.

A top official in the Icelandic Government hit against the withdrawal, calling it a demagogic appeal to Icelanders' national pride.

Tuesday, June 26
 FEDERAL AID for schools

broke party lines during the annual Governors' Convention held in Atlantic City. While one faction turned thumbs down on handouts from Washington because it invites Government control, another begged help from any source, "to utilize America's human resources to the utmost." Gov. Williams lined up with the latter group. He was of the opinion that Federal aid can help alleviate shortage in such vital professions as engineering. He said that this country is short of engineers "we have to import them from Europe." He suggested that income tax credit be given parents of college students.

REP. THOMPSON (R., Mich.) hinted that a bribe she was offered in connection with the locating of an Air Force base in Northern Michigan came from another Congressman. But she declined to say so directly, or to name the man. She said she was advised to do this by Rep. Martin (R., Mass.) then speaker of the House. She said the "bribe" came on the "floor of the House." In answer to a question, she said that the rules of the House stating who has the privileges of the floor "is a clue" to who made the offer. She said she took to be a bribe offer, a suggestion that $1,000 will be contributed to her election campaign.

Wednesday, June 27

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER has stated that he will definitely run for re-election and if elected he might ask for the resignation of Secretary of Defense Charles E. Wilson. This information came from a highly placed Administration source. The source reported that the President is highly incensed at Wilson for his two latest public blunders, and would have asked for an immediate resignation except for the approaching political campaign. The informant said that it would also be difficult to "break in" a new cabinet official while the Chief Executive is convening.

THE STATE'S largest steel producer, Great Lakes Steel corporation, is girding itself for a possible nationwide steel strike. Officials of the corporation announced that it would start banking one if its four huge furnaces. The strike is expected to come off Saturday. A walk-out will idle about 20,000 workers in the State, including 11,500 at the downriver mill; and 650,000 workers in basic steel mills throughout the nation. The announcement by the Great Lakes was made as representatives from the United Steel Workers Union and the steel industry's Big Three, U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, and Republic, resumed negotiations. Indications are that both sides might make certain concessions to break a stalemate.

WOMEN VOTED for the first time in Egypt's long history. Men and women turned out in large numbers, despite the heat of the day, to cast their ballots to decide whether Egypt will become a republic. Observers said the results were a foregone conclusion. Voting was simple. Each voter entered the booth alone, and was handed two ballots, a yellow one with the republic status proposal, with a "yes" or "no", and a white one, which bore a picture of Premier Nasser, asking, "Do you favor the election of Nasser as president of the Republic of Egypt?" The plebiscite to decide the republic status was decided by Nasser and his revolutionary junta. At the last count, "yes" votes on both ballots outnumbered the "no's."

BRITAIN IS PREPARING "generous" new proposals to Greek Cypriots which would give them a greater measure of self-government. The British are expected to ask the United States to help sell the plan to the Turks. The indication of the move is that Britain is arriving at a showdown with the Greek Cypriots who want union with Greece and have been at odds with the British to bring about such a union.

The Cypriots have been in rebellion for the past 14 months. The proposal for more self-government was brought back by Sir John Harding, British governor of Cyprus, who attended a three-week consultation in London. There are 400,000 Turks on the island.

WILHELM HAAS, West German Ambassador to Moscow, charged that Soviet police invaded his embassy and arrested two persons. He personally delivered a note of protest to Deputy Foreign Minister Vladimir S. Serov, claiming a violation of diplomatic immunity.

The two persons arrested came to the Embassy, claiming to be German citizens and asked to be sent back to West Germany. The Embassy gets 20 to 40 such requests each day. Soviet authorities claimed the two were Soviet citizens and had no right to enter embassy soil. Their names were not learned.

AT LEAST 26 PERSONS were killed when their plane crashed in Lagos, Nigeria. The plane, a British Overseas Airways Argonaut, went down in flames soon after taking off from Kano. Three of the 18 survivors were injured critically and one was reported missing. Sources disclosed that 22 of the dead were so badly burned they have not yet been identified.

The airliner was carrying a full load, 38 passengers, including a number of children, and seven members of the crew. Two crew members were among the dead, but the captain survived. The plane was bound for London by way of Tripoli, Libya, when it crashed three miles from the Kano airport and caught fire.

GUATEMALA DECLARED a state of alarm after a Communist subversive plot was discovered. The Government charged that the Communists planned to spread panic and disorder throughout the country. Earlier, police fired on a crowd assembled in a railroad station to celebrate the 12th anniversary of the downfall of the late dictator, Gen. Jorge Ubico, who died in New Orleans 10 years ago.

Authorities said no one was hit by the firing, but police arrested several members of the

Children Enjoy Library Movies

Approximately 900 boys and girls crowded the Grosse Pointe libraries last week to view "My Friend Flicka," the first of the weekly film programs which will be shown at the Central Library, the Woods and the Park Branch this summer.

In as far as possible, the program has been planned to tie in with books and includes such well known titles as "Swiss Family Robinson," "Treasure Island" and "Robin Hood." These full length movies, running an hour and a half or thereabouts, will be shown every other week.

Alternate weeks, a program of not longer than 30 minutes has been arranged for the younger children who may find the full length movie too long. The length of the movie rather than the film itself is geared to the younger children in most cases. For example, "Ti Jean Goes Lumbering," an excellent film with a Paul Bunyan flavor and the 30 minute film, "Beaver Valley" will be enjoyed by both young and old.

Another Degree Given Rieveschl

Recipient of an honorary degree by Wayne University during commencement exercises, Thursday, June 14, was chemist George Rieveschl, Jr., of Lothrop road.

Dr. Rieveschl is scientific assistant to the president of Parke, Davis and Company. He is the developer of the chemical phases of Benadryl, and was honored for his leadership in chemical research and improvement of human health.

Rieveschl was named Detroit's "Man of the Year" by the Junior Board of Commerce in 1951, and received the "Outstanding Chemist" Award of Alpha Chi Sigma in 1954. He received an honorary doctor of science degree.

Police in City Have Busy May

Chief Thomas V. Trombly of the City police department has submitted his monthly report for May, 1956.

During the 31 day period there were 27 accidents, two involving pedestrians. The City ambulance took 11 injured persons to Bon Secours Hospital.

The department answered six burglar alarms and assisted local merchants on 12 other cases. Residents were assisted on 16 occasions.

Three bicycles were reported missing and police recovered nine bikes for the City and outside communities.

In 33 cases the department was called in to open doors or windows for private homeowners.

There were three missing persons calls and policemen recovered six people.

Violations were issued to four for reckless driving. There were 19 speeding violations issued in May. Of these only three were to juveniles. There were 773 expired meter violations, of which 554 were paid by violators who came in and paid 25c. Another 203 persons neglected to report to the police station within one hour of receiving a violation notice. They paid fines of one and two dollars.

Eight dog owners were fined $3 apiece for allowing their dogs to run at large. There was a two dollar fine to one person for excessive noise in the City.

During May, a total of 956 various violations added $1,188 to the City's coffers.

Driver's licenses were issued to 152 persons in May, and nine chauffeurs' licenses were also issued.

Leo Carrier and Walter Stoelck checked and repaired 292 parking meters. Three traffic signal lights also were repaired by the signal department.

Sergeant Jules Deraedt assisted at two Traffic School sessions. He also made arrangements for all Safety Patrol boys to attend a Tiger baseball game on May 24.

Deraedt and officer Robert VanTiem held bicycle inspection May 22 at Maire School, and previous to the inspection VanTiem gave a bicycle safety talk at the school on May 18.

The City's three scout cars traveled almost 8,000 miles in May, using 800 gallons of gasoline and 40 quarts of oil.

Food Poisoning Increases Now

"Beware of Church Bake Sales and Bazaars during the hot summer months," urges Dr. Howard Cadwell, Director of the Wayne County Health Department, particularly if you're planning to sell products with cream fillings or "trimmings."

Outbreaks of food poisoning are traced to a choux suzette to cream and custard filled pastries that spoil easily.

"The staphylococci germs which cause food poisoning love these tasty foods just as much as people do," continued Dr. Cadwell. "These germs may reach the food via the air; from open sores or lesions, or the soiled hands of persons preparing or handling them; and from unclean towels, dishes, or utensils.

Flies, mice, and roaches relish these delicacies and help spread germs to them. In warm weather the germs multiply very rapidly and produce deadly poisons. Food poisoning, is-called sometimes "ptomaine" poisoning, usually causes nausea and diarrhea within one to six hours after contaminated food is eaten. A doctor should be contacted immediately upon occurrence of these symptoms, for although all people are not affected after eating food containing the germs, food poisoning can be fatal.

Creamed foods must be kept at a temperature below 50° F. from the time they are prepared until they are eaten. At all seasons it is very important to keep fingers and flies away from these foods; and to be certain that persons who are sick at all, or have boils, infected fingers, rashes or sore never handle them."

If your group is planning a bake sale or any affair in which food is to be served to the public, you are required to contact the Wayne County Health Department, LOgan 1-3320, Division of Sanitation. They will be happy to offer any advise and pointers necessary to help you protect your food and keep your function safe.

Home Improvement Show Coming in Fall

This coming November will bring to Detroit its third Home Improvement Show sponsored by the local trades, manufacturers and retailers. The huge display of exhibits in the Home Improvement Show will climax for 1956, in southeastern Michigan the national operation of Home Improvement.

The theme for the exposition will be built around the homeowner's needs for improvement, repairing or modernizing his home. It will show consumers through materials and service how their present address can become house-beautiful.

Daniel E. Ford, executive director of the Detroit Lumbermen's Association, estimated that, across the nation, 15 billion dollars will be spent for home improvement this year.

He pointed out that last year 40 per cent of our home owners spent nothing on home improvement and that 30 million American homes have not been painted in 10 years.

"Ninety per cent of the post war crop of new homes built to minimum standards are too small for the normal increase in family size," said Ford.

These factors, he stressed, are important and the industry as a whole feels that they should provide the consumer the opportunity to study and compare cost of home improvement as well as to see the new products available. Thus the industry leaders have joined to present a show of this nature, so that home owners may see the materials under one roof and talk to experts.

Plans for the exhibit call for representation by product developers for the home as well as many other allied businesses.

For the benefit of the avid "do-it-yourself" fans—an added feature of the show will be a continuous informational and instructional "Do-It-Yourself" clinic to be conducted on the premises.

The show committee is comprised of L. A. Braun, president of General Wood Products; Philip Dawson, assistant to the president of Sibley Co.; Paul Hodges, president of Royal Oak Wholesale; Roy J. Leitch, Jr., of the Grace Harbor Lumber Co.; Frederic B. Lowrie, president of Lowrie Lumber Co.; Harry Smith and Daniel E. Ford.

General show offices are at 830 W. Vernor, Detroit.

MORE HUBCAPS STOLEN

Two hub caps were stolen from a '56 Chrysler owned by William Keith of 1171 Bedford. Keith had parked his car on Cloverly road near Ridge on Thursday evening, June 21.

Bay Scene of Annual Festival

There is no better place for water skiing in Michigan than on the beautiful cool waters of Anchor Bay, just beyond Mount Clemens, curving around to the spot where the St. Clair River flows into Lake St. Clair.

And to make the most of this wonderful opportunity, people from all over the metropolitan area will be flocking to join throughs there this summer—and in particular from June 30 through July 4. This is when the annual Bayrama takes place.

Starting Saturday afternoon in New Baltimore, as an added attraction to the water facilities, will be rides and concessions located right on the cooling bay waters beside the City Park.

Fourth of July holiday fun seekers will find many activities to keep them occupied.

There will be dancing, baseball, fireworks, and all the trimmings that go to create a carnival atmosphere.

On Tuesday, July 3, the "Queen's Ball" at the Civic Club will prove a big attraction. Two parades are offered on the Fourth: one on the water at 10 a.m. and the big street parade at 1 in the afternoon. Fireworks and the street dance will be on tap in the evening.

Thousands enjoyed the activity last year and Ted Brouseu, general chairman, is looking for many more this year.

"Bring your skis, your boat, your swimming trunks, your family, and friends," said the chairman, "and visit the Bayrama and the bay which we hope will some day become the water-skiing center of Michigan."

League Offers Travel Movies

The Grosse Pointe Cinema League will present a "Film Vacation" program—a series of sound color films dealing with travel throughout the United States—at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center tonight, Thursday, June 28, at 8 o'clock.

This program, which is open to the public without charge, covers vacation highlights in both Eastern and Western United States by various modes of travel including railroading, water, and motor.

Planned as a summer vacation send-off, these films should prove interesting to anyone planning a vacation in this country and especially so if a camera is to be taken along. For further information call the War Memorial Center.

Young Cyclist Escapes Injury in Hitting Car

R. P. Buelow of 315 Moran called Farms police and reported that a small boy had ridden his bicycle into the side of his car on Wednesday, June 20.

Mr. Buelow was driving south on Moran, when six-year-old John Howard came out of a driveway and struck the side of Buelow's '55 Plymouth. Neither John or the car were damaged.

Little Leaguers Meet Idol

BARRY BRINK on the left and "BUZZ" BARTHOLOMEW on the right are two Grosse Pointe Little Leaguers. They got the thrill of their life when they met their idol HARVEY KUENN. Harvey was side-lined at the time because of an injured leg but reassured the boys he would be back in action in a couple of days.

Blames Accident On Other Driver

William Baker, 22, of 628 Dickerson, Detroit, blamed the driver of another car for the accident he was in Sunday, June 24.

Baker told Park police that he was traveling west on Jefferson, when another car came too close to him between Devonshire and Buckingham and he swerved to avoid a collision. As a result, he said, he lost control of his vehicle.

The car leaped the curb 200 feet east of Buckingham, went 100 feet and crashed into a tree, then went another 150 feet before coming to a stop. All this occurred between the curb and the sidewalk. He said in trying to avoid the other car, he did not apply his brakes.

He was issued a ticket for not having his car under control and causing an accident.

In March 1954, two enlisted Waves were selected for officer training, beginning a program to integrate outstanding enlisted Waves into the officer grades.

Kids Enjoying Club Day Camp

It's summertime! Summer time means Neighborhood day-camp time. Two hundred children began to enjoy the facilities offered by the Grosse Pointe Neighborhood Club on Monday, June 25.

Their fun and excitement will continue through July 27. During the first week, orientation, safety, and good citizenship is being stressed.

The theme for this summer's session is Sportarama. It is obvious, therefore, that safety must be an important part of any transportation topic. Sport cars are fast and numerous, and children are sometimes heedless and impatient.

A movie, "The Talking Car" has been loaned to the camp through the courtesy of the AAA. It shows in a graphic manner, how quickly and needlessly accidents can and do happen. The club also hopes to have Officer Story and his dog, Safety Girl.

Sergeant Yaklin Wins Promotion

In the June 14 issue of the NEWS, a portion of a story concerning the promotion of a City police officer and three firemen was omitted at the print shop.

The part deleted pertained to Albert Yaklin of 669 Rivard boulevard, who was promoted from pipeman to fire sergeant. Sgt. Yaklin has been with the City Fire Department since November 1931. He is married to the former Alice Steadley. The couple have two children, Robert, 17, a student at Austin High School; and Michael, 12, who is attending St. Paul School.

Rabaut's Bill Passes Senate

By unanimous consent, the U. S. Senate passed the Rabaut Pray For Peace Bill, to authorize the use in first- and second-class Post Offices of a special canceling stamp or post-marking die bearing the words "Pray For Peace."

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut (D. Mich.), author of the bill, said he agreed wholeheartedly with the House Post Office and Civil Service Committee when it stated " . . . that the thing of most importance to the unsettled world of today is peace, and any action taken toward achieving it is worthwhile.

It was felt that the use of cancellation stamps bearing the words 'pray for peace' would encourage the great body of our people to do so, and to work actively toward its accomplishment."

"It gives me great pleasure to see my efforts rewarded by the passage of this bill," said Rabaut. "My bill will now go to the President for signature, and upon Presidential approval, will become a Public Law."

OLD AND NEW—Beauty queens past and present get together in New York to help celebrate June as Dairy Month. Lovely model Lillian Shelby, who was crowned Miss Dairy Queen 16 years ago, has just bestowed this year's title on 16-month old Susan Leslie Frank of Valley Stream, N. Y. Little Susan, selected from 3,000 entries across the U. S., seems more interested in that giant ice-cream cone than in her reign.

THE EYES HAVE IT—Eyes staring at her don't bother this Italian lady. Her job is to inspect glass eyes for perfection at an establishment in Rome, one of the few places where false peepers are made in the country. The firm carefully makes the glass eyes to match the color of the wearers' good eyes.

PEANUT PYRAMID—Taking a leaf out of the book of the ancient Egyptians, native workers clamber skyward atop a modern pyramid of peanut sacks to cover it with a nylon tarpaulin at Kano, Nigeria. African farmers are using 1,200-square-yard nylon sheets made in England to protect their peanuts, grain and other crops during storage. Immune from bacteria, the sheets are rot proof and capable of giving complete protection in the worst weather.

I'VE GOT A SECRET—Making sure that his monkey talk is clearly understood, Christopher Robin, a diminutive 12-week old Rhesus monkey, clammers up on the shoulder of 10-year-old Margaret Hayward to whisper some of his animal aphorisms into her delighted ear. Margaret, a visitor to the Whipsnade Zoo, seems unable to see her simian visitor, but hearing him is obviously no problem.

FUTURE HOME FOR DODGERS?—The future home games of the Brooklyn Dodgers may be played under a huge plastic dome, if current plans to replace the beloved but decaying Ebbets Field are followed through. Artist Frank Tinsley envisions the completed stadium in the July issue of Mechanix Illustrated magazine. The air-conditioned, all-weather sports center would have a seating capacity of more than 55,000 as compared to 32,000 for Ebbets Field. This cutaway view shows air-conditioning and shadowless lighting equipment at the top, the field, stands, passageways and shops in center, and the edge of an underground parking lot at bottom.

SHARP KIDS—Father's Day has come early to Brooklyn's Gil Hodges whose children, Gillie and Irene, have given him a combination razor and record kit which includes Knute Rockne's famous "Go, Go, Go" pep talk in the hope that Pop, the Dodgers' slugging first baseman, will go on powdering the ball in his accustomed fashion.

TO DO ONE-MAN TV SPECTACULAR—Victor Borge, the celebrated comedian-pianist, takes time out from rehearsals to give a piano lesson to his pretty daughter, Sanna, at his Southbury, Conn., home. The Danish-born entertainer will star in television's first one-man spectacular, June 14, when he brings his Broadway hit, "Comedy in Music," to CBS-TV.

WHATZIT? WHATZIT?—When representatives from 50 foreign countries descended on tiny Fort Madison Iowa, (pop. 15,000) to attend Shaeffer Pen-Company's week-long export convention, the Evening Democrat greeted them with this headline welcome in nine languages. Unlike most visiting conventioners, the foreigners got a close-up view of small-town Americana—instead of Big City cynicism—in the Mississippi River town. Newsboy is Mike Reed.

FRIENDLY KISS—A bird in the hand is worth a buss or two from San Francisco mechanic Ken Doyle. He's giving an affectionate peck to a baby sparrow found in the newspaper garage where he works. The fledgling, dubbed Pété, apparently isn't afraid of the garagemen, but he won't eat. Having refused bread, milk and a cherry, he's probably waiting to be offered a worm.

SMOKING SIMIAN—Cleo, family pet of John P. Buroils of Boston finds that a girl's best friend is a soothing pipeful of tobacco. The smoking simian apes the human members of the family in all of their pastimes, but smoking continues to be her favorite sport since she high-tailed into civilization.

MISS AMERICA COURT GOWN—The regal ball gown to be worn by Miss America's Court of Honor next September is modeled by Dorothy Mae Johnson, Miss Oregon of 1955 and runner-up in last year's Atlantic City pageant. The exquisite gown is a fitted sheath of Everglaze cotton satin with a full overskirt of brocade cotton in a "painted" flower pattern. The petal sleeves and three-dimension flower appliques on the overskirt are trimmed in glittering sequins.

FRENCH ATTRACTION—Martine Carol, international film star and France's No. 1 box-office attraction, stops over in New York en route home from Japan. France's answer to America's Marilyn Monroe, Martine will help launch "Nana," her latest film, based on Zola's novel.

COLLARED CANINE—In an attempt at canine elegance, ten-month-old boxer pup Thor tries on a stiff collar and tie in London. Judging from Thor's unhappy look, however the collar must be a size or two too small.

KEY ANSWER—Tired of the inevitable question, "Where do you wind it?" Californian Cecil York installed a big key on the back of his toy-sized German Volkswagen. Above, as his wife Helen looks on, York "winds up" the car during a trip pause at Fort Scott, Kansas. The Yorks, from San Fernando, Calif., were en route to Bolivar, Mo.

HALITOSIS-FREE HIPPO—Opening a mouth that would probably terrorize any dentist, Peggy, a 23-year-old pygmy hippo at the London Zoo, gets her teeth cleaned via a king-sized brush in the hands of Bill Gribble, an assistant head keeper at the zoo. The dental cosmetics are applied to Peggy's two three-inch tusks and 32 other teeth once a month.

SEA MYSTERY—A queer fish caught by dredgerman Goncalo Pereira is displayed by him at Murtoza, Portugal. Fish and game experts were at a loss to classify the creature, but local fishermen identified it as a rare "pig fish." Ten feet long the fish was black with white flesh and had two dorsal fins making it resemble some sharks. The mouth, 20 inches wide, had a network of membranes instead of teeth. The freak fish was photographed and buried until such time as it can be scientifically identified.

LITTLE LEAGUE FARMS

At the halfway point of the season the Giants of the National League and the Indians of the American league are in full command of their leagues with identical, 8-1 records. The Giants picked up two wins last week. They beat the Phillies, 10-2, on Tuesday, June 19, and squeezed past the Cincinnati Reds, 2-1, two days later. The Reds were the hitting heroes despite being the losers. The Pirates and Reds tangled in a close game on Monday, June 18, with the Pirates winning, 6-5, mainly on the sparkling defensive play of second baseman McConachie and first baseman Briscoe who teamed up for the double play that ended the game.

Although the league-leading Indians clinched the top spot in the American League they suffered a humiliating blow dealt by the usually mild mannered Red Sox. The Sox jumped on the Tribe with both feet to win a 3-1 decision on Monday, June 18. It was the first time this season the Indians had been beaten and broke their winning streak at eight games.

Besides winding up on the long end of the score, the Red Sox also garnered hitting and fielding honors by out-playing the Indians in those departments also. The real hero of the game was winning pitcher Ronny Joas who struck out 13 batters while allowing only four hits.

Later that week, Friday, June 22, the Red Sox one game winning streak came to an abrupt halt when they met the second place Yankees. A home run by Steve Handlog climaxed the contest and gave the Yanks a 5-3 win.

Earlier the Yankees had defeated the Tigers, 14-6. The Yanks belted out 14 hits, five of which were for extra bases. The Tigers suffered their second loss of the week when they bumped into the Indians who fashioned a 9-4 victory. Indians George Earl hit his first Little League home run and was he the proud one. The Indians also chopped off Tiger threats with two double plays.

WOODS-SHORES
The Pacific Coast League, which was started this season and organized especially for the 8 and 9-year-olds, has made remarkable progress. Managers Lloyd Nyman of Seattle; Bernard Beaufait of Portland; Bill

Holmes of Los Angeles and Jack Tamblin of Hollywood all have done a fine job with these youngsters who have developed to a point that they will undoubtedly be seen in Little League major uniforms next season.

Charleston whacked out 12 hits for 16 runs to defeat Louisville, 16-4, on Friday, June 15. Danny Rowe was the winning pitcher who gave up only six hits.

The Dodgers edged past the Cardinals, 8-7, on Saturday, June 16, to move into a two-way tie for first place in the first half season standings. Both teams collected 10 hits. The winning pitcher was Thorp.

In the second game Indianapolis dumped Toledo, 14-3, with the Bidigarie brothers starting for the winners. Eric Bidigarie allowed seven hits as his catcher brother Edward handled himself flawlessly behind the plate.

Havana belted Rochester, 9-2, on Saturday, June 16, as Bradley and Johns combined their efforts on the mound to strike out 18 would-be hitters.

The Tigers' mound ace Earl Meyers chalked up his fourth win of the season as he set the Red Sox down on Monday, June 18, with one hit to give the Tigers a 3-0 win. Meyers has allowed only two hits in four games to date.

The same day Richmond tumbled Buffalo, 9-6, behind the four-hit pitching of Sahnnon and Binge.

The game scheduled between Miami and Columbus was called off because of wet grounds.

The Dodgers and Giants tangled in a "walk-a-thon" on Tuesday, June 18, which the Dodgers won, 13-7. A total of 27 bases on balls were issued.

The second game saw Jimmy Meininger limit Minneapolis to one hit to give Charleston a 6-5 victory.

The Braves roared from behind in the sixth inning to beat the Cardinals, 6-5 in the third game of the day. The Braves could only manage two hits while the Cards collected 10 off winning pitcher Blake.

Rochester bounced back from their loss to Havana earlier in the week to give Montreal an 8-5 defeat in the fourth game.

The Braves scored eight runs in the second inning to defeat the Giants, 10-2, behind the fine hitting of winning pitcher Reynolds and Terry Iaven. Both collected three for four in the first game on Wednesday, June 20.

Indianapolis tripped Louisville 7-6 with G. Landless the winning pitcher.

St. Paul and Toledo both collected eight hits in their Wednesday, June 20 game but St. Paul took the long end of the final score, 14-10.

The Dodgers continued to win when they beat the Cards, 8-4, behind the three-hit pitching of winning pitcher J. Whitney in the first game on Thursday, June 21.

Montreal thumped Toronto, 10-6, with winning pitcher Ellman not only starting on the mound but at the plate as well in the second game.

In the third game the Tigers limited the Indians a stingy one hit and two runs to win, 7-2. The only hit for the Indians was a lone home run by Roger Judkins with a man on base.

CITY MAJORS
Al Ghesquiere, president of the city's Little League, praised very highly the pitching skill of "Skip" Stephenson of the Braves when he set a new strikeout record for the Little League.

"Skip" struck out 16 Cubs and led his team to their seventh straight victory when they defeated the Cubs 12 to 4.

The Braves had an easy game and scored in every inning and wound up with 13 hits. This gives "Skip" credit for four games this season.

The next game for the Braves looked like an easy one against the Dodgers who were in last place. But Morrison—the star pitcher of the Dodgers—had other plans. Manager Stephenson of the Braves started Miller for his first game this year. This game turned out to be a real pitchers' duel and a heart-breaker for Miller.

After Morrison gave up one run to the Braves in the first inning, he settled down and pitched a real tight game by striking out 10 men and allowing only three hits. The Dodgers evened the score in the fourth inning when Zinn smashed a three-bagger and brought Smart in for the tying run.

The game was not decided until the sixth inning when Fischer started off with a double and Morchouse knocked him in with another double. That ended the game and the Dodgers finally broke the great winning streak of the Braves.

The Cards and the Cubs figure that if the Dodgers can do it, so can they. Morrison was the winning pitcher and the Dodgers won by a score of 2 to 1.

The Cards knocked off two more games to stay right up in second place this week. LaRue was the winning pitcher for the Cards. It was the hitting power of the Cards that gave them this game. Starting with a four run lead in the first and a home run by Schmetz, the Cards hit Smart and Burns of the Dodgers for 10 runs and 10 hits.

Boat Banter

By Fred Runnells
Owners of the Gold Cup boats that competed in the Windsor Yacht Clubs annual Maple Leaf regatta last Saturday, June 23, have suggested to the Yachtsmen's Association of America to throw out the regatta when they consider picking the American Harmsworth defender.
They say it wasn't a fair test because the regatta was shortened by rain storms after two preliminary heats had been run. The judges arbitrarily decided Horace Dodge's "Dora My Sweetie" was the winner.
Joe Schoenith ordered his drivers, his son Bill Cantrell and Roy Doby to hold their speeds down because of the roughness of the course. Bud Saile wouldn't even take the wraps off his new "Miss Wayne" for the same reason. Those boats that did run received considerable damage of some sort or another. The most serious was inflicted on Chuck Thompson's "Short Circuit" which smashed a sponson and probably will not be ready for the regatta at Picton, Ontario, next Saturday, June 30.

In all, the YAA selected eight unlimited races from which to choose the American Harmsworth defender. The Maple Leaf was the first.
Windsor Y. C. officials indicated after the event was called off that "there may never be another Maple Leaf regatta."
Marks Race officials made a mill improvement in their race this year when they sent the fleet around the Colchester Buoy instead of the dangerous Colchester Light. Every skipper in the fleet breathed easier knowing his yacht had plenty of water in which to sail around the buoy. And, shoal draft boats didn't gain an advantage as they have in the past when the fleet was required to round the Colchester Light.

Another improvement which would attract more yachts would be an earlier start. This reporter heard many a sailor grouse a bit over the fact they were forced to stay tied to the dock until 3 p.m. before starting the long haul out to the starting line near the Toledo Harbor Light at 5 p.m.
An earlier start would give the yachts more time to get back to their home ports on Sunday. This year most of them had ample time to get home. BUT, what if the race had been a drifter like last year and the fleet didn't finish until Sunday noon or later. It's quite a scramble to get home, especially up river to Detroit, in time to get enough rest to go to work on Monday.

Detroit yachts make up the greatest portion of the fleet and without them the race would be a bust.

Notice of Ordinance Adoption

At a regular meeting of the City Council held Monday, June 18, 1956, the matter of the City Ordinance regulating signs and banners being under consideration, the following amendment to such ordinance (NO. 89) was moved, seconded and unanimously adopted:

City of Grosse Pointe Ordinance No. 89 AMENDMENT TO SIGN ORDINANCE

An Ordinance amending Ordinance No. 6, entitled Regulation of Signs and Banners and the Posting of Cards and Advertising, adopted May 17, 1943, by adding thereto four new Sections 8a, 8b, 8c and 8d to permit, upon prior specific authority of the City Council in each instance, the erection of building and/or business identification signs of a larger size than heretofore permitted.

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE ORDAINS:

Section 1. Ordinance No. 6, entitled Regulation of Signs and Banners and the Posting of Cards and Advertising, as adopted May 17, 1943, is hereby amended to add thereto four new Sections 8a, 8b, 8c and 8d as follows:
Section 8a. Anything in this Ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding, whenever application is made for a permit for a sign for the purpose of identifying a building and/or business and the application conforms to all the provisions of this Ordinance except that the proposed sign is larger than permitted under Section 8 hereof, the Building Commissioner shall refer such application to the City Council and notify the applicant that he has done so.

Section 8b. Upon receipt by the City Council of an application for a permit referred to it pursuant to Section 8a hereof, the City Council may, at any regular meeting or any special meeting duly called for that purpose, consider whether the proposed sign, if erected, will serve as identification of the building and/or business and not as an advertisement to attract public attention, and in reaching its determination shall consider, without limitation, at least all of the following:

- Whether the proposed sign is to be erected upon the building to be identified or upon the building in which the business to be identified is operated;
- Whether the proposed sign is to be erected on top of and extend upwards from such building in such a way as to attract attention of persons using nearby public thoroughfares or sidewalks;
- Whether the proposed sign is to protrude laterally from such building in such a way as to attract attention of persons using any public thoroughfare or sidewalk or public parking area adjacent to such building;
- Whether the proposed sign is to be electrified or lighted in such manner as to be likely to cause any interference with pedestrian or motor vehicle traffic or distraction of public attention from devices for regulating such traffic.
- Whether the proposed sign generally conforms to the character of signs in the neighborhood.

Section 8c. If the City Council determines that the proposed sign will serve principally as an identification of the building and/or the business located within the building, the Council may, notwithstanding the fact that the proposed sign is larger than otherwise permitted by this Ordinance, direct the Building Commissioner to grant the application for a permit, providing the same otherwise complies with the provisions of this Ordinance and providing that the City Council determines that the proposed sign will not otherwise be likely to constitute a hazard to public health, safety or welfare.
Section 8d. In each case where a permit for a sign is granted pursuant to Sections 8a, 8b and 8c of this Ordinance, the applicant shall be conclusively deemed, by acceptance of such permit and erection of the proposed sign, to have agreed with the City that at any time the City Council of the City of Grosse Pointe determines that the sign in fact does interfere with automobile or pedestrian traffic or the effective regulation of the same or otherwise constitutes a hazard to the public health, safety or welfare, the same shall upon five (5) days written notice, be modified at the applicant's expense to the extent required by the City Council to eliminate such hazard, and upon failure to modify within such period, that the City may proceed as contemplated under Section 11 of this Ordinance to cause the sign to be removed and recover the expense thereof.

Section 2. In all other respects, the provisions of said Ordinance No. 6 are approved and affirmed and remain in full force and effect.

Section 3. This Ordinance shall be effective ten (10) days after publication and posting.

WOODS SHORES
In the hot-paced American League each of the three top teams split a pair of games last week in the Grosse Pointe Woods-Shores Babe Ruth League. The Indians won a pair.

At week's end, only one game separated each of the American teams from top to bottom.

In the National, the Giants won three. In the Texas, Beaumont captured a pair.

The Tigers, leading the American, were whipped by the White Sox, 7 to 3, backed by good pitching of Jim Barnes. The Tigers beat the Red Sox, 9 to 2.

The second-place White Sox, however, lost to the Senators, 6 to 2. Bruce Boardman homered for the Sox.

The Yankees beat the Senators, 4 to 3, with Dennis Riener allowing only three hits and striking out 10.

The Indians beat the Yankees 13 to 4. Paul Sanders got four doubles for the Indians in four times at bat. The Indians also down the Red Sox, 9 to 2.

In the National, the Giants beat the Dodgers twice, 17 to 7 and 14 to 5. They blanked the Cardinals, 6 to 0. Bob Libby allowed the Cards only three hits and struck out 15.

Larry Engelhart got a triple, a double and a single in three times at bat to pace the Cards in a 11-to-3 win over the Braves. The Dodgers beat the Braves, 5 to 4, getting the winning tally after two were out in the sixth.

In Texas League play, Beaumont beat San Antonio, 9 to 8, when McElroy tripled with the bases loaded. Beaumont also beat Houston, 14 to 3.

1.15 PARKING SPACE. A hard surfaced area, enclosed or unenclosed, not less than eight (8) feet wide by twenty (20) feet long, together with a hard surfaced driveway connecting such area with a street or alley and permitting ingress and egress of a motor vehicle.

A hard surfaced area is a water-impervious and dust-free area such as one surfaced with concrete, asphalt or sealed crushed stone.

2.02 BOUNDARIES OF DISTRICTS. The boundaries of said districts shown upon the map attached hereto and made a part of this Ordinance are hereby established, said map being designated as the "1948 Zoning Map-1956 Revision", and said map and all notations, references, and other information shown thereon shall be as much a part of this Ordinance as if the matter and information set forth by said map were all fully described herein.

3.05 Outside stairways, fire-escapes, fire-towers, porches, platforms, balconies, boiler flues and other projections shall be considered as part of the building and not as a part of the yards or courts or unoccupied spaces. This provision shall not apply (a) to attached garages otherwise conforming to the requirements of Section 4.07 hereof or (b) to unenclosed outside porches not exceeding one (1) story in height which do not extend into the required front or rear yard farther than ten (10) feet, nor to one such unenclosed porch which does not extend into the side yard nearer than four (4) feet to the side lot line, or to cornices or belt courses not exceeding eighteen (18) inches in width.

All other uses described in Sub sections (d) (2) through (d) (9), both inclusive of Section 3.08, shall provide off-street parking facilities which may be on the same lot or parcel of land as the building they are intended to serve or which may be within three hundred (300) feet of the building or buildings which they are intended to serve, said three hundred (300) feet to be measured between the nearest point of such off-street parking facilities and the nearest point of the building, provided, however, that the off-street parking facilities provided by the existing Parking District for use in connection with the business lots fronting on Mack Avenue and lying between Kerby Road and Rosor Road shall be regarded as complying with the requirement of this Ordinance, although some of such Mack Avenue frontage may contain buildings located at a greater distance so measured than three hundred (300) feet from said Parking District.

4.03 SIDE YARDS. In a Residence District there shall be on each side of every lot a side yard, the minimum width of which shall be four (4) feet. This width shall be increased four (4) feet to reach story by which a building erected on the lot exceeds two (2) stories in height. Where the side wall of a building exceeds fifty (50) feet in depth, the width of side yard opposite the portion in excess shall not be less than ten (10) feet.

If on or before September 1, 1956, a majority in number of lots in any subdivision in a Residence District shall have been improved with homes in such fashion as to leave only a three foot side yard, the remaining unimproved lots in said subdivision may be improved with homes in a similar fashion. This width shall be increased four (4) feet for each story by which a building erected on the lot exceeds two (2) stories in height. Where the side wall of a building exceeds fifty (50) feet in depth the width of side yard opposite the portion in excess shall not be less than ten (10) feet.

On a lot occupied by a building other than a dwelling, in which persons congregate, or which is designed, arranged, remodeled or normally used for the congregation of persons in numbers in excess of twenty-five (25) the width of a side yard shall be increased, in addition to the increases required for extra stories in height, four (4) feet for each twenty-five (25) persons or major fraction thereof in excess of twenty-five (25), for the accommodation of whom the building is designed, arranged, remodeled or normally used, provided however, that if the exterior wall along such side yard is of fireproof construction and entirely without movable windows or other opening such increase in width of a side yard shall not be required and provided further, that a side yard of greater width than forty (40) feet shall not be required in any event.

The width of a side yard abutting upon a side street shall not be less than the minimum front yard depth required on an adjoining lot fronting upon such side street, but this shall not require a width of side yard at any point exceeding twenty-five (25%) percent of the width of the lot.

Section 2 This ordinance shall take effect twenty days after its enactment or upon its publication, whichever is later. This notice is given pursuant to direction of the City Council and in accordance with said ordinance and the statutes in such case made and provided.

Audrey Hepburn gets the maddest when she hears someone say that Mel Ferrer is guiding her career ... Anthony Quinn, filming "Hunchback of Notre Dame" in Paris with, Gina kills time with the glamor girl by teaching her how to walk like a cowboy, chew gum and ex-pectorate accurately ... Jackie Gleason's talking to Paul Whiteman about playing the maestro's life on the screen ... Laurence Olivier "has to lose over 20 pounds to be in shape for "The Sleeping Prince." Even in cinema scope.

MARTIN & SCRELEWS: The Martin and Lewis Micker and threatened split reminds us of another team who figured they'd be better off apart. They shook fists and parted. One of them secretly signed to make a movie for $50,000 salary. As a pair their price per film was $150,000, but he shrugged and reported for work. On the set he bumped into his ex-partner. They glared. "What are you doing here?" at each other and very quickly found out. The company had quietly signed each of them for $50,000 apiece and had assigned them to the same picture in which they were forced to work as a team. They did a little quick arithmetic and kissed and made up.

OPENING NIGHT: At the recent "Shangri-La" opening producer Carr met a pal in the lobby during intermission. "Well?" he asked. The friend gushed, "It's beautiful!" "Yeah," agreed Carr, "but it's a little dull isn't it?" ... When Herman Levin, producer of "My Fair Lady" attended the opening of Frank Loesser's "Most Happy Fella" Loesser collared him in the lobby and asked, "Well, Herman, what'd you think?" Levin stroked his chin, shook his head and sighed, "I tried. I tried hard, Frank—but I liked it."

BEAU BROADWAY: Paul Muni won't say so but intimates are sure he'll not return to "Inherit The Wind" after his summer vacation ... Up to a few days ago Edward G. Robinson was not talking to Gina Rowlands of "Middle of the Night" except onstage when he's in love with her ... J. Gleason's summer hideaway is near Boston, where, with the help of Rocky Marciano he'll try to slim down ... Now, for heavens sake don't let us tell you, but at a recent performance of "Hatful of Rain," during the scene when Ben Gazzara slaps himself in the face, he slapped too hard and his removable bridge flew out ... Tennessee Williams new three-act play (for the fall) was born as an act play written in Florida for an off-Broadway group. He liked it so much he stretched it into his new mint ... Miss Bankhead's talking about "An Evening With Talulah" for Broadway in the fall ... All members of the "Shangri-La" cast had to dye their hair jet black so they'd look Japanese. Including Shirley Yamaguchi of Tokyo ... Never give up, chillun. Kim Novak was kicked out of a model agency when she was 18 and "not sexy enough."

THE GIANT: Warner Bros. N. Y. headquarters is shocked at the late James Dean's fans who beseege them every day for pix of Dean. Warner's, which will soon release "Giant" (Dean's last picture), reports the demand for his pictures is better than two-to-one over other people like Elizabeth Taylor and Rock Hudson. The mob hysteria which has set Dean into a sort of idol or martyrdom doesn't stop at requests for pictures. A James Dean Memorial Foundation is being organized. Their goal is One Million Dollars, to be raised and invested carefully. The dividends will create a scholarship fund for all new talents in all arts. Small fan clubs are coming up with thousands of dollars. Entire magazines are being published about the actor who made just a few pictures. A spokesman for Warner's says, "This guy is making Valentino look like a bum." With all due respect for the dead, it's sad that the poor guy never had it so good when he was alive.

PENNY ARCADE: Marlon Brando's favorite fan club is the one which requires new members to bite a cop's horse in order to gain entry ... We love the error on the society page of a local paper: "The bride's gown was punk." ... Y'know, there's one thing about Bridie Murphy that no one's mentioned. What other girl ever had such a build at the age of 149? ... They are now selling jewelled auto seat covers in case you find your old mink seat covers too warm to sit on ... George Jessel wandered into El Morocco and reminisced, "I remember coming here with my wife, whose name escapes me." ... Tommy Dorsey's favorite snack is pizza pie ... Just got a news release from M-G-M saying that Dana Wynter is signed to star opposite Rock Hudson in "Something of Value." Question, pliz? Isn't this the girl who just wed Greg Bautzer and who was going to give up her career for him? ... We were lounging around Sardi's when someone started talking about Europe. "Why, do you know," he lectured, "that in New York you pay $1.75 for a haircut but that in London it's 70 cents?" Comedian Jack E. Leonard said, "Sure, everyone knows that, but look at the fare!"

High Button Shoes At Melody Circus
 "High Button Shoes," the bright, breezy, melodious hit starring Tim Herbert as the lovably unscrupulous confidence man, Harrison Floy, opened on June 25 for only one week as the second production of the season at the Detroit Melody Circus Theatre in Farmington.
 The outstanding song-writing team of Julie Styne and Sammy Cahn, a pair that was at one time, a few years back, simultaneous under contract to four of Hollywood's largest studios, have contributed songs like "Papa Won't You Dance With Me?" and "I Still Get Jealous" to a script by Stephen Longstreet who, incidentally, has set the show in his home-town of New Brunswick, New Jersey.
 Tim Herbert, in the hilariously exhausting leading role of "High Button Shoes," brings a wealth of experience to Detroit that stretches from London to Los Angeles.
 In addition to his memorable two-year stint on Broadway in "Follow the Girls," Mr. Herbert's credits list innumerable performances in summer musical across the country and endless engagements in night clubs and hotel entertainment.
 The tele-viewing eye will recognize Mr. Herbert for his appearances on "The Arthur Murray Show," "The Steve Allen Show," "Broadway Open House," "The Colgate Comedy Hour" and "The Ed Sullivan Show."
 Choice seats are still available at two conveniently located box offices: Grinnell's (Woodward 2-1124), and at the Melody Circus box office (Greenleaf 4-8160). Performances of "High Button Shoes" are set at 8:30 p.m. through Friday with two showings on Saturday at 6 p.m. and 9:30 p.m. There will be no Sunday performances.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Kitty Marriott

Summertime means Camp Savery for the sixteenth straight year to some 60 youngsters in the four to twelve age group in the Pointe.

Classes closed for the summer at Grosse Pointe University School on June 8, and 10 days later Camp Savery opened on the GPUS premises. The camp, under the able direction of Miss Jane Savery, will continue through August 10.

Among the camp activities in which lucky lads and lassies participate are daily swimming, horseback riding, arts and crafts, tennis, fencing, archery, calisthenics, bowling, baseball and track. In addition, girls may take sewing; boys, shop work and boxing. New this season is a golf program for little ones with matched clubs to suit their size.

Camp Savery station wagons pick up the campers Monday through Friday at 9:30 a. m. and return them to their doorsteps at 3 p. m. There are special excursions each Saturday to current places of interest. This year's Saturday jaunts include treks to Jefferson Beach, Detroit Zoological Park and Belle Isle.

Assisting Miss Savery with the camp are GPUS teachers Carole Fenley and Clare Lockhart, Purdue students Ann Mengé and Sue Baker, Mitzi Thurber, home from Manhattanville College of the Sacred Heart; Marcia Burns and Jo Janis. When camp is over, the Misses Savery and Fenley will repair to the Greene Fenley acres near Rochester, Mich., for a pastoral vacation before classes start again in September.

Just a few of the campers are Polly Wotherspoon, Linda Wilson, John Anderson, John and Peter Caulkins, Marcia and Chuckie Whitney, Bethine Whitney, Mimi and Cleve Thurber, Sarah Ann and Mary Virginia Drummy, Wendy and Terry Vaughan, Quinton Hallett, Gretchen Greiner, Wendy Payson, Sandy Marks, Bill Stroth, Mary Margaret Stephens, Debbie Renaud, Stephanie and Angela Peoples.

July Fourth Celebration

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Fourth of July celebration will be the leader of three big outdoor events. The club's 27th annual Sailing Regatta is slated for Saturday, the 7th, and the gigantic glamorous Commodore's Review and Show Boat Party is scheduled for July 21.

Independence Day at GPYC will be a typical family day with carnival trimmings in the afternoon and the giant fireworks display in the evening.

Eugene A. Casaroli, entertainment chairman, and his committee are in charge. His aides are Russell D. VanHouten, Howard Shaw, Harley F. Riley, Charles J. Glasgow, John F. DeHayes, Herbert W. Hart and Bryan A. Chaplow.

The program, with emphasis on fun for the children, will include pony rides from 1 to 4 o'clock, two clowns (they are Arnold Barney and Ray LaBarre) complete with gay harlequin suits and grease-paint, and an organ grinder and monkey.

A circus show at 2 p. m. will present Carrol Fox, known as the King of Corn, with all sorts of mystifying magic, and a trained dog and pony act.

Luncheon in the grill and main dining room will be served from noon to mid-afternoon, and a buffet dinner from 4 to 8:30 o'clock.

Around 9 p. m. or as soon as dark falls, the wonderful fireworks exhibition will get underway. There'll be some 200 bursts of shells with their showers of multi-colored lights. Windup will be the beautiful set pieces depicting the club's burgee and the American flag.

Schafer-Gallagher Nuptial Vows Said

A breakfast and reception at the Whittier followed the Saturday marriage of Maura Elizabeth Gallagher and Robert Joseph Schafer. The couple were married at a June 23 nuptial high mass in St. Joan of Arc Church, where they received the papal blessing.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Gallagher of Hawthorne road, and the Joseph A. Schafers, of Farmington, Mich.

A gown of Chantilly lace and tulle over satin was the bride's choice. Lace formed the bodice and cap sleeves extending in a panel down the skirt front and sweeping to a point in the chapel train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was fastened to a cap of matching Chantilly lace. White roses, lily of the valley, stephanotis and ivy, surrounding a white orchid, formed her bouquet.

Sheila Ann Gallagher, her sister's maid of honor, wore embroidered white silk organza over ice blue taffeta in full-skirted empire style. A headband of cornflowers and cascade bouquet of white carnations and cornflowers completed her ensemble.

Bridesmaids Mrs. Alfred W. Dittrich and Rita Shafer, both sisters of the bridegroom, and Sallyann Hull, were attired identically to the honor attendant.

Picnic Packing Hints Offered

Fourth of July often means family picnics. The success of a picnic meal depends as much on the packing as on the food, itself.

Nina Lou Baird, Wayne County Home Demonstration Agent, suggests trying these methods of packing picnic foods:

Baked potatoes are wonderful for a close-at-home picnic. Plan so they come out of the oven just as you are ready to leave the house.

Wrap the potatoes in a big towel and tuck in a shopping bag. Don't forget to pack plenty of butter in with the cold things in the picnic basket.

Deviled eggs are always welcome picnic fare. For easiest packing, put the deviled halves back together. Wrap them in waxed paper, and pack in a cardboard egg carton.

A simple way to manage is to make plain bread-and-butter sandwiches at home. Put them back into the waxed bread wrapper the loaf came in.

Take along sliced meats and cheese and jars of sandwich filling. Let each person make his own to his heart's content. Done this way, the sandwiches are really fresh at the eating time—and mean less work for Mother.

Be sure to take the sandwich trimmings. Trimmings like pickles, relish, mustard, chili sauce and lettuce wrapped separately are the usual favorites.

When making prepared sandwiches for a hike, butter both pieces of bread. This will keep the filling from soaking into the bread. Make the hiker's lunch adequate. Sweet filling and protein fillings should be used for sandwiches.

Remember there are hot sandwiches beside the hot dog and hamburger, says Mrs. Baird. Any thick cooked main dish can be heated in a bun. She also mentions that toasted cheese, peanut butter or salad filled sandwiches are good.

For a heavier type sandwich, many people find that broiled steak, ham and lamb are also good on bread.

Frosted cakes are a bit hard to handle in transit. One good way is to bake a loaf cake in a large shallow pan, frost it, and carry it in the pan. Another idea is to do an "inside-out" frosting job.

Cut cupcakes or squares of loaf cake into layers. Spread the frosting in between, and wrap these individual servings in a waxed paper. Pack in a box or pan for safe carrying.

At picnics we often hear comments about how good the food is and how much we are eating because everything tastes "so good" when eaten outdoors. Well, here's a tip to people who are in the habit of over-eating is often carried into old age. And that's when it does the real damage. Older persons don't adjust as well to excesses of food as they did when younger.

Mrs. Robert J. Schafer

A nuptial high mass on June 23, in St. Joan of Arc Church united in marriage, MAURA ELIZABETH GALLAGHER, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Gallagher of Hawthorne road, and Robert Schafer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Schafer of Farmington.

Poor health is often the result of those eating habits picked up as a child.

Proper eating habits may pay you double, both for yourself and your children. With these suggestions, have a happy time at your Fourth of July picnic, or any picnic this summer.

Modern and Traditional Decor Seen in New Carpet Fashions

Carpet fashions shown at the home furnishings markets will have a heavy accent in wool, but there will also be a strong representation in wool and nylon blends, and viscose and rayon.

There will be news in velvet weaves and velvet colors, for traditional or modern decor.

New patterns and styling, new textures and weaves in carpeting will be seen for all types of interiors—the contemporary, provincial or colonial, and the formal.

For the contemporary home, new carpet collections include practically all qualities in every kind of weave, and an abundance of patterns. There will be handcrafted and home-spun weaves, abstract and geometric designs. Any of these textures will fit well with Colonial, French, Provincial, Ranch or Modern furnishings.

In the home with Early American as its theme, the new colonial floral and hook patterns will undoubtedly be most appealing.

The Far Eastern influence is seen in a new carpeting which has a modern latticed bamboo effect.

The color palette has expanded and shifted to comply with present-day decor needs. Colors are no longer limited to strong tones. They have a new softness and livability, and they are dramatic if you like. Some of the new carpet colors will be in versatile multi-color shades.

Carpet lends itself to the decor of your home, but in addition it offers new quiet, new restfulness and warmth, and a step in the direction of easier maintenance. They will also be in prices to satisfy the modest budget as well as the luxurious one.

Bring Yourself Back Alive

By the time the next issue comes off the press, the Fourth of July holiday will be upon us. Which means that another orgy of death on the highway will be in full swing. Summer weekends, and particularly holiday periods, reap their toll of lives, tragically taken by reckless driving, speeding and over-estimating one's physical capabilities.

In the interest of attempting to eliminate a minor portion of these inevitable accidents, Police Chief Arthur Louwers of Grosse Pointe Park has asked us to reprint an article which appeared recently in a police journal. We are glad to comply.

LOST WEEKENDS, LOST FOREVER

"In 1955, more than fifteen thousand individuals didn't return home after the pleasures of the weekend. According to figures recently published by the Safety Service of the Travelers Insurance Companies of Hartford, Conn., 15,730 Americans were killed in weekend traffic accidents.

"Of last year's traffic fatalities, more than one-fifth occurred on Saturday.

"The reasons for this record number of weekend highway fatalities lie in the motoring habits of the American public. Every highway in the nation has its Saturday share of that portion of America bound and determined to arrive at its weekend destination in time for dinner, even if the trip's last sixty miles must be covered in an hour flat.

"Too frequently, the strain and fatigue of distance driving are ignored in anticipation of ample relaxation at the journey's end.

"Then, too, the highways continue to be filled with those drivers whose idea of relaxation is an extra drink or two 'for the road.'

"Millions of dollars have been spent by federal, state and municipal authorities in an effort to provide better and safer roads. Additional millions are spent by insurance companies and other private organizations for programs of safety education.

"Nevertheless, the weekends of 1955 saw more persons killed and injured on our highways than ever before.

"It wasn't the fault of the road systems; it wasn't the fault of safety education campaigns. It was the fault of pleasure-bent individuals striving to go too far, too fast, for a weekend's enjoyment."

A Great Leader Passes

The nation paid tribute on Tuesday to one of the truly great heroes on the long list in the country's military history. Admiral Ernest King, Naval Chief of Staff during World War II, was laid to his final rest.

No man was ever more devoted to duty. He was the strictest of disciplinarians, but he drove himself even harder than his subordinates. The magnificent record of the Navy was largely due to his leadership.

Admiral King's name has appeared but infrequently in the news of late years. He suffered a stroke not long after the war, undoubtedly caused by the terrific toll he had exacted on himself in carrying out responsibilities which he accepted far and beyond the call of duty. He appeared in public but a few times after his illness.

But every student of military history must rank him high on the all-time list of great leaders. The country will be eternally indebted for the service he rendered.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

Not that it has kept us awake nights, but we just found out the most effective way to put a small boy of seven in his place! The child's mother told us she was distraught to say the least, when a neighbor sent her a bill for twenty dollars for damage done to her screen door by sonny boy and a pal.

It seems the children found some sort of metal stake in the back yard and proceeded to use it for punching large holes in the neighbor's screen door... seventeen holes to be exact.

Junior denied the entire thing until he was given the third degree by his father. After finally admitting his guilt, papa, (fascinated at this point), asked WHY they stopped at seventeen holes! The child replied that they just got "TIRED!"

The punishment (and it WORKS, in case you care) was that they made the child empty his piggy bank and pay his half of the damage... to the tune of ten dollars. Since the bank contained only eleven dollars and twelve cents... the future riveter is feeling the pinch real bad. He isn't even speaking to his partner in the crime... whom he insists talked him into it!

Got a college junior in the family who never writes home unless he or she wants something? We have the answer to that one too. Parents who sent their only son off to his first year at college, were naturally disturbed when they didn't hear from him for weeks and weeks. Not even a post card.

Tearfully, mother complained to her husband that they had to DO something to make him write. This being the neatest trick of the week... father got his brains together and finally came up with an idea that he promised his wife would work. He said she would not only see their beloved son's handwriting on an envelope, but he dared say the letter would arrive airmail special.

What pop did was this. He wrote the boy a long, newsy letter... asked about his marks at school, etc., etc., then ended with: "Am enclosing a check for fifty dollars as a little extra bonus. You can use it for anything you like." BUT... he didn't put the check in the letter! Sure enough... three days later, back came a letter from Junior... short... but at least a letter in which he reminded his dad that he had forgotten to enclose the check!

If we ever have to move, to say New York, ferinstance, and deal with one of those imposing looking banks like you see in movies, we'd be awed silly after living in Grosse Pointe where the money palaces are so "folksy." The other day we stood in line with our wee check to deposit and after we became number two in line, (there were about eight people behind us), we could hear the Teller relating a long story about his weekend fishing trip to the gent ahead of us. He went on and on and on about the fish they caught and how they caught 'em... while we shifted from one foot to the other, swearing the while that we'd never again listen to a fish story no matter WHO told it.

Finally he got to the part they call the "crux" in show business... and he said (dramatically)... "Do you know what HAPPENED to those fish?" We glanced around and noted that the whole line-up had its combined ears ready for the answer... which was... "When we got up in the morning, we saw a raccoon sneaking away with the last fish. That dang, animal ate every one of them and left us a pile of bones."

We all heaved a sigh of relief... gave the raccoon a mental pat on the back... and soon your's truly was at the window. We exchanged a few pleasantries about the weather with the Teller... then as he started to say, "Know what I did last weekend?"... we announced that yes, we had heard the fish story and all we wanted to do was deposit a small check. He looked a little hurt... but not nearly as hurt as were our feet from standing in line so long. HOWEVER... we wouldn't exchange this little cracker-box scene for all the big banks of America. Vive-la Grosse Pointe!

Love this true story about the GI from Brooklyn, N. Y., who was sent to a camp in Arizona. He had never been outside of Brooklyn before... so on his first leave away from the post... he decided to take a look at the desert. So he hitched a ride with an Arizonian, who kindly drove him out to the edge of town and waited in the car while our hero had a look-see.

After about twenty minutes or so... the soldier came back to the car... jiggling a few small objects in his hand like one tosses coins. The local guy took one look at the objects and nearly passed out. They happened to be rattlers from a rattle snake. He asked the lad: "Do you know what those things are that you're flipping around? Where did you GET them?" Soldier boy looked from the rattlers back to the driver and announced blandly: "I got them offen a worm!"

Lions Club Creates Plan To Assist Needy Students

The Grosse Pointe Lions Club has created a "Memorial Scholarship and Financial Aid Plan" for graduating students of the Pointe's public, private and parochial schools, with scholarships available for this year's graduates.

The scholarship consists of financial grants to further the education of those graduates of high schools in the Pointe, who have ability and promise, and who are in need of financial aid.

Each scholarship is in the amount of $1,000, and is payable at the rate of $250 a year. All graduates of the current school year, both January and June, are eligible for the scholarships.

Selection of a student will be based on (1) Need for financial assistance; (2a) Scholastic record of 2.0; (2b) Honor point average of 2.0 or better. (In special cases an honor point average of between 1.5 and 2.0 may be considered); (3) Good extra-curricular record; (4) Sound character and leadership; (5) Promise of college success and future civic usefulness.

One of the rules set forth by the club is that if a recipient of a scholarship is unable to continue his or her education by reason of sickness or induction into the Armed Forces, or for any other justifiable reason, the scholarship award may be suspended for a reasonable period, but with the consent of the club.

GM Employees Taking Advantage of Offer

Nearly 90 per cent of the eligible General Motors salaried employees in the United States are participating in the savings-stock purchase program introduced last October, Harlow H. Curtice, president of GM, said today.

Approximately 90,000 of the more than 100,000 eligible have elected to invest part of their salary toward the program which was designed to encourage employees to save regularly and to provide an opportunity for more to become shareholders in their company. The program provides that eligible employees may save a maximum of 10 per cent of their salaries.

During the first nine months of the program approximately $32,000,000 has been saved by the employees and $18,000,000 contributed by the company. Employees are saving an average of about eight percent of their salaries.

ESTIMATED FIRE LOSSES

Estimated fire losses in the United States during May amounted to $87,681,000, the National Board of Fire Underwriters has reported. According to Lewis A. Vincent, NBFU's general manager, this $87,681,000 loss represents an increase of 22.1 per cent over losses of $71,789,000 reported for May, 1955, and continues the trend that has been noticeable since the first of the year. Losses for the first five months now total $442,633,000, an increase of 11 per cent over the first five months of 1955, when they amounted to $398,929,000.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

If you are taking books out of town this summer, your library will extend the due date to October 1, eliminating all worry about fines. The only restriction is on current books which must obviously circulate for a comparatively short time in order to satisfy the demand.

However, the best seller of today will be vacation material next year and not a bit less interesting than now. By the same token, your vacation reading this year will probably include some of yesterday's best sellers.

What makes a best seller and how long does a book remain one? Once an author enters this charmed circle, he is apt to remain there at least for a time, whether or not his subsequent books are notable. What will always remain a mystery is what makes for that first success.

Sheila Kay-Smith in "All the Books of My Life" says "The best seller that is an author's first success can be written only by accident. It is like the weather and no more susceptible to planning than a thunder storm... I have known an author to deliberately attempt to write a best seller, carefully weighing and choosing ingredients and cooking them according to his considered opinion of public taste, but I have never known such an attempt to succeed."

We have scanned the June best seller lists of the past eight years and find some titles that are still being widely read and a few that have dropped into limbo.

Two years ago at this time, "Not a Stranger" by Norton Thompson headed the list which included "Bless This House" by North Lofts, "The Song of Ruth" by Frank Slaughter, Ernest Gann's "The High and the Mighty," "The Bad Seed" by William March and Harriet Arnow's "Dollmaker," one of the few novels to find a place among the "Fifty best books of 1954."

At the top of the non-fiction best seller list of that date was Norman Vincent Peale's "Power of Positive Thinking." It is interesting that this book headed the list, June 14, 1953, and June 13, 1954, is found in second place on June 13, 1955 and is still on the best seller list of June 17, 1956, although it has dropped to fifteenth place.

"A Man Called Peter" by Catherine Marshall also appears among the best sellers of June, 1952, 1953, skips 1954 and appears again in fifth place, 1955. Herman Wouk's famous tale "The Caine Mutiny" appears in second place in June 1951, first place a year later and twelfth

Violently Stormy Spring Runs Up Big Insurance Bill

Southern Michigan's violently stormy spring caused insured damage approximating $14,000,000 to more than 23,000 residences, businesses, industries, farms, mobile homes, and automobiles. Total damage was estimated at between 21 and 23 millions.

There is no single point of compilation for insured storm losses, but this estimate of losses paid or in the process of payment by fire and casualty companies represents the composite judgment of the insurance adjusters, as obtained by a Michigan Insurance Information Service survey.

The record-breaking onslaught of tornadoes produced the spectacular losses, but non-tornadoic winds and hail caused a far greater number of losses and a large proportion of the dollar-volume of damage.

Vandals Throws Beer Can Through Car Windshield

Vandals threw a full beer can through the windshield of a 1950 Plymouth owned by Brian Bessert of 420 Chalfonte. The action occurred Thursday night, June 14, while the car was parked in front of Bessert's home.

The can was thrown with such force that it penetrated the glass and made a deep dent in the car's dashboard.

Harvey E. Radke Gets Commission in Navy

NEWPORT, R.I. (FHTNC) — Harvey E. Radke, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Radke of 978 Westchester, Grosse Pointe, Mich., was commissioned Ensign, U.S.N., June 1 during graduation ceremonies at the Officer's Candidate School Newport, R.I.

Rear Admiral John C. Daniel, USN, Commander of the Atlantic Fleet Destroyer Force, presented the honor graduates with their commissions and was the principal speaker.

A class of 330 successfully completed an 18-week course in Naval science subjects to qualify them as junior officers of the Navy.

Of the 330 graduates, 135 are ordered to duty aboard ships of the fleet, 33 will undergo flight training, 44 will go to aviation ground billets, and 44 have received staff corps and engineering positions. Special programs such as guided missiles, salvage, and underwater demolition team training claim the remaining 74 new officers.

smashed, and body finish was badly scraped.

Losses were estimated to average more than $300 per car. A single company paid hail losses to cars totaling more than $150,000 in Muskegon alone.

In Flint, where a tornado caused approximately 100 total losses and some 200 major partial losses, general wind damage affected a 12-square-mile area. Television antennas alone represented a more than $150,000 insured loss in this area, with approximately 3,000 of them destroyed or damaged.

Many hundreds of losses resulted from wind and hail storms in both southwestern and southeastern Lower Michigan during March, which did not attract general attention.

The disaster program of insurance companies and adjusting services moved nearly 200 storm-trained adjusters and secretaries into the storm areas. In co-ordination with hundreds of insurance agents, the adjusting staffs worked 14-hour days and 7-day weeks throughout March, April and May, and into June.

Total losses generally were paid within a matter of two to three days, as companies expedited proof-of-loss procedures, and agents and adjusters co-operated to place business at the top of the list. Public co-operation in recognizing the prior need of those who suffered the most was praised by both agents and adjusters.

Ingenuity by adjusters helped speed many loss payments.

In several instances automobiles and mobile homes were torn apart and scattered beyond identification, and titles were blown away. With communications circuits damaged and overloaded by the emergency, one company set up special teletype circuits to check insurance records with its home office, and to obtain title verifications. Another company's adjusting crew toured four badly-damaged trailer parks in a car equipped with radio-telephone, seeking out the company's insureds, clearing records with its home office, and paying losses on the spot. These adjusters also ordered new mobile homes for several insureds, and in one storm area had new units delivered to seven families the day after the storm.

Owners of damaged properties learned from the adjusters that they had more insurance protection than they knew. Additional coverages for garages, playhouses, doghouses, and similar outbuildings, and for extra living expense during replacement of damage, had been added without charge to all policies, and made retroactive, last fall. These, of course, did not appear on older policies, but the additional benefits were paid when the losses were adjusted.

The storms revealed, also, the extent to which many property owners had chosen to carry their own risk of loss. Standale, Grand Rapids suburb whose business district suffered 33 losses, 22 of them total,

Center Offers Bridge Lessons

On Tuesday evenings, the War Memorial Center will hold bridge lessons both for beginners and those anxious to improve their game. The sessions will be held in the Center's cool main floor library from 8 to 10 p.m. The course will consist of eight (8) two-hour lessons ending August 22.

The instructor will be Mrs. Carrie Kiley who has for many years taught bridge at the International Institute, the Downtown Y.M.C.A., Henry Ford Hospital and Denby High School.

Lessons are open to individuals, couples or groups. The class limit will be thirty-two (32). The fee is $10.00 per individual, however, husbands and wives may take instruction together for $15.00.

Those interested are requested to call the War Memorial TU. 1-6030 or Mrs. Kiley, TU. 5-8067 before 1 p.m.

Cmdr. Wm. Braybrook Receives Master Degree

Cmdr. William McKenzie Braybrook, son of Mr. William Braybrook of 500 Lake Shore road, was one of 935 students who were awarded degrees during the 135th annual Commencement of The George Washington University, Washington, D.C., held June 6 in the University Yard.

Cmdr. Braybrook received the degree of Master of Business Administration. His major field was Comptrollership. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in 1940 from the U.S. Naval Academy, and is now assigned to duty in the Pacific.

is more than half rebuilt. Reconstruction began the day after the April 3 tornado, and many establishments were back in business on a temporary basis within three weeks. Several members of the Standale Business Men's Association said they had not carried full-value insurance. But were it not for the insurance they did carry, they added, this vigorous young shopping center for a broad suburban residential area would not be rebuilding. Insurance provided both the immediate finance and, in part, the credit basis for resumption of business.

There were some instances of owners who carried only fire insurance, without extended coverage, and therefore had no windstorm protection. And some carried insurance only to the limit of a mortgage or land contract, without protection for their equity in the property.

In many instances, insurance coverage had not been kept or additions to building were not abreast of increasing values or additions to buildings or contents.

And, although some tornado leveled businesses may require five to six months for rebuilding, very few carried business interruption insurance.

'Querida' Defeats Record Mills Trophy Sail Fleet

Denied overall honors by a matter of minutes last year, "Skip" Grow's and Carter Sales' Voyager yawl "Querida" came back last Saturday, June 23, to win the Toledo Yacht Club's annual Mills Trophy race overall honors by a matter of minutes.

"Querida," one of Grosse Pointe's windwagons which is fast gaining a reputation on the Great Lakes, charged across the finish line at the Toledo Harbor Light the fifth boat to finish, to win the coveted trophy on corrected time by 3 minutes and 5 seconds over Pat Collins' New York 32 sloop "Vitesse," the Cruising A winner.

Head" sails under the Grosse Pointe Y. C. burgee and "Vitesse" under the Detroit Y. C. colors. So all in all, Detroit yachts made it a clean sweep again.

Race Perfect One

Sailed in moderate to light airs the race was a perfect one. No BUGS on the first leg to the first mark—Green Island; no BUGS on the second leg to the second mark—Colchester Buoy; and no BUGS on the beat to weather to the finish line at the Toledo Harbor Light.

It was the first time in memory that the fleet wasn't plagued by winged pests which have caused innumerable skippers to avoid the event.

It was all moonbeams and good wind and not weather conducive to forcing yachts to drop out of the race, although eight boats failed to report back to the finish line.

The local fleet will tangle for honors in the Detroit Boat Club's annual inter-club regatta next Saturday, June 30, at which time Cruising B, Cruising C classes will be shooting for double honors. They are the classes which failed to finish the Bayview Yacht Club regatta within the all-time time limit on Saturday, June 16.

Did not finish: Lancia.

Outstrips Competition

The Grow-Sales yacht far outstripped her Cruising B competition. The closest yacht to her was "Skip" Hinkel's "Tiburon" from Sandusky. She was 22 minutes behind but corrections left her only 7 minutes off the winners' time.

John Detwiler's "Vashti" took third place, almost an hour behind "Querida" in corrected time.

Another Grosse Pointe boat, Gil Pingree's big yawl "Red Head" had the distinction of being the first boat to finish, but her handicap allowance dropped her to sixth place in Cruising A class.

Grosse Pointe's Toby Gmeiner and his "Apache" out-scraped defending champion Nubby Sarns' "Revelry" for second place behind "Vitesse."

Hank Burkard, Wins

In Cruising C Hank Burkard's new cutter "Meteor III" far outdistanced her class to get the winning gun in that class. Henry Dunlap's Pilot sloop "Albacore" was just a little better than 18 minutes off the winner's time and Chet Reynaud's Pilot sloop "Maybe II" was 13 minutes behind in third place.

Carlyle "Doc" Wilson did a fabulous job with his beautiful 30 Square meter "Mitimar," which has been renamed recently, but for the life of us we can't remember it. The good doctor slithered his yacht around the course at such a clip that she finished eighth in the record 46 boat fleet to win racing class honors with a time of 10 hours 29 minutes and 52 seconds. Her corrected time was almost an hour and 9 minutes better than overall winner "Querida," but being a racing boat she was not eligible for the Merrill B. Mills Trophy.

Bayview Does Well

With "Querida" winning the Mills Trophy, Toledo Blade Cup and the Edward Ford cup; "Meteor III" taking the Commodore Russell Cup; "Mitimar" the Toledo Times Cup and Dave "Deacon" Sloss's "Kathmar III" winning the Commodore Arfleek Bowl, Bayview Yacht Club yachts won 6 of 8 possible trophies.

The other two, the Dwight Kelsey Memorial Bowl (best elapsed time) went to Gil Pingree's "Red Head," and the Governor Harmon Cup went to Pat Collins' "Vitesse" for winning Cruising A class. "Red

USLTA Tournament Winners Get Trophies

LITTLE LEAGUE

The Cards continued their winning streak by smashing over 17 runs in their game with the Cubs. Four Cub pitchers tried to stop the power of the Cards—they were Dhooze, Kyle, Parke and Mullin — but the Cards had their eye on the ball all the time and got 13 hits while the Cubs knocked Cards' pitchers Moore, Nelson and Schmatz for four runs and eight hits. The Cubs are now tied with the Dodgers for third place.

Senators' manager Bahn almost had his hair turn gray when he saw his star pitcher Hopp pitch a no-hitter against the Grosse Pointers but yet he behind by one run. Although the Pointers hadn't gotten a hit, they were able to score a run on an error, and led up to the sixth inning.

Pitcher Fox of the Pointers was able to stop the Senators until the sixth inning when they were able to score a run and tie up the game. The game went into extra innings and the Pointers almost scored Drew Kennedy from third, but a sensational catch by Carveth put Kennedy out.

The Senators put one run over in their half of the seventh and won by a score of 2 to 1.

Phillies' star pitcher Neil Hakken showed that he had real control when he pitched himself out of two tight spots in a game with the Giants. Two times the Giants had the bases loaded and Hakken tightened up and did not let a run score. Thomas of the Giants lost control, and as a result the Phillies were able to pick up seven runs and win a shut-out against the Giants. The Pointers, Giants and Phillies are all tied for second place.

Special Sport Item: Tommy Bridges, ex-Tiger pitcher and a feating the Athletics, 5-4. Cal Gauss was the winning pitcher in the triumph which saw the Senators score early and hold off a last-minute Athletic attack.

The White Sox were sent reeling by a 14-3 onslaught set up by the Athletics on June 18. Bob Shewood, Athletic left fielder, homered and doubled in the contest.

The Giants took two more victories last week, but had to share the spotlight in one of them with Dodger outfielder Chuck Douville. Douville, one of the bigger players in the league, clouted two home runs in the losing game, one of which went about 200 feet to add to his spectacular performance, Chuck on his other trip to the plate, came within five feet of clearing the fence again.

The Giants didn't have the home run ball to contend with in their other victory of the week June 19, as they easily bested the Pirates, 15-4. Ray Rapalee, the free swinging first baseman for the Giants, rapped out four singles and a double in the victory. Craig Thomas was the winning pitcher in allowing only two hits.

Other action saw the Braves split a pair to remain abreast of the Giants. In the first one, June 18, the Dodgers nipped the Braves 13-11 as they put together two big innings of five and eight runs. But on June 20 it was a much different story, as the Braves upended the Pirates by the score of 22-8. Denis Daniels and Kevin Sullivan collected four hits apiece in the slugfest.

If ever a team showed it didn't deserve last place rating, it was Baylor on June 18. When the Baylor players dragged themselves off the field after playing Duke, 46 runs had been scored. The final read 46-3 as Baylor was issued 38 walks all told. Its biggest inning was the third when 19 runs crossed the plate.

Evansville and Alabama held down their first place position in the standings with a win apiece.

Alabama triumphed on June 20 by whipping Carolina 5 to 2. Paul Keiswetter notched the win for Alabama.

Evansville had the easier time of the two on June 21 as the score clearly indicated. It was 21-3 over Great Lakes. Eddy Harrison lacked a double in his try for the cycle as he blasted out a home run, triple and a single.

Harvard stayed only one game back of the leaders as it took Fordham 20-12 on June 17. Grant Piggot and Tom Keiswetter sparked the team with their batting. Both hit home runs, while Piggot also added two singles and two doubles.

Vandals Toss Glass in Pool

Mrs. James Standart of 252 Kerby road reported to Farms police that some boys had thrown broken glass into a large portable swimming pool in her back yard, Thursday, June 21. Police investigated but could not find the culprits.

Little League World Series To Get Started on July 31

Grosse Pointe's four Little Leagues will stage their second annual "World Series," starting July 31, it was announced this week by Elmer C. Van Tiem, director of the tournament.

Champions of the four leagues—Grosse Pointe Park, City, Farms and Woods—will compete in a one-game knockout tourney, with the Inter-City winner being awarded the Roland Gray trophy. Pairings and locations of games will be decided in July.

The Woods' Tiger nine captured the first annual tourney last year at Grosse Pointe Field, defeating the Farms' Indians. The Farms nine had eliminated the City's Cubs in the first round, while the Woods defeated the Park's White Sox.

Besides Van Tiem, president of the Park league, who was re-elected director of the tourney, the following are other officials for this year's event:

Assistant director—James H. Dingeman, president of the Farms league; Secretary—William G. Raven, program director of the Woods' organization; Treasurer—Albert W. Ghesquiere, president of the City's setup. Other committee members are Lars V. Anderson, of the Woods; Earl Becker, of the Farms; A. P. Bartholomew, of the City, and Pete Wemhoff, of the Park.

All rules governing last year's tournament, with minor changes, will govern this year's event. All expenses and income from the tournament will be divided equally among the four leagues.

Before start of the inter-city series, it will be necessary for the Woods, Farms and Park to hold a playoff between the winners of each of the two major leagues in those cities. These playoffs will be held during the week of July 23-28.

Last year's "World Series" was so successful that all of the Pointe leagues have decided to forego entering the national tournament, which ends with a championship series in Williamsport, Pa.

New Tennis Club Formed at GPUS

The Grosse Pointe University School announces the formation of the University School Tennis Club, which will have exclusive use of the school's new six teniflex all-weather tennis courts located on the school grounds of the Grosse Pointe University School in Cook road near Chalfonte, Grosse Pointe Woods.

All residents of the Grosse Pointe communities are cordially invited to join the tennis club. Membership for the season is $10.00 for the first member of the family and $5.00 for each additional member of the same family.

The courts will be open through Labor Day, September 3, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. every day except Monday. The courts and play will be fully supervised by two court managers who are members of the school's varsity tennis team who won this year's regional and state championships in class C-D.

Tennis lessons will be available at $2.00 an hour and the court managers will arrange games for members and occasional tournaments. Tennis balls and soft drinks will be available.

Anyone interested in joining the University School Tennis Club should go to the courts during the hours stated or call TU 4-4444 for further information.

Family Enjoys Outdoor Supper In Backyard on Summer Evenings

How cool and refreshing the backyard or park is after a stifling hot day. Why not enjoy supper outdoors more often!

Kabobs are the perfect food for the outdoor meal. Here's how to make the kabobs in the photo. Form balls of seasoned ground beef centering them with small chunks of sharp Cheddar cheese. Wrap each ball with a half-slice of bacon. Alternate these on skewers with mushroom caps, small onions or onion wedges, and tomato wedges.

Grill the kabobs from 10 to 15 minutes. Baste the vegetables with butter while cooking. This gives extra good flavor to each bite.

If you want the meat to be rare, slip the morsels rather close together on the skewer. For well-done meat, separate the pieces slightly.

Make the meat balls about one and a half inches in diameter. If they are too large, they won't be cooked through by the time the other food on the skewer is done. Start thinly sliced potatoes fry-

HEB BUTTERED FRENCH BREAD

Combine seasoning with softened butter and mix well. Make diagonal cuts 1/2 to 3/4 inch apart almost through the French bread. Spread herb butter on top and between the slices of bread. Place loaf on aluminum foil and wrap loosely. Place on grill for 10 minutes, turning often. Or, wrap in foil and heat in a 400 degree oven for 10 minutes.

THE STARS

By LYN CONNELLY
DU PONT Cavalcade Theater, with its new, contemporary format recently established, has been firmly for the 1955-57 season on the ABC television network in its present period . . .

During the 1955-56 season, the Du Pont theater has been featuring modern dramas and presentations of inspirational stories from current American life . . . Included among these programs, which met with enthusiastic public acceptance, were the story of Ralph Bunche, "The Jackie Jensen Story," and "One Day at a Time," which told of the founding of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Ray Hunt, properly man for Adventures of Rin-Tin-Tin, has learned it is possible to be too realistic with phony film props . . . Hunt once constructed a fancy keed cake for an outdoors scene . . . It looked so good the actors were asking for slices, but he knew he really had something when a swarm of bees started buzzing around his ersatz pastry and stopped production.

PLATTER CHATTER

CAPTIVOL—Dean Martin does a breezy job on a breezy air, "Standing on the Corner" from Frank Loesser's latest Broadway score . . . Flip side has "Watching the World Go By" . . . Les Baxter follows his highly successful "Poor People of Paris" with "Tango of the Drums" which has an exotic beat that is exciting and beautiful . . . "Simmer Man" backs it . . . Try Don Robertson's "Happy Whistler" if you want to get in a good mood . . . This lifting ditty should go big . . . Reverse has "You're Free to Go" . . . Still on Capitol, Tex Ritter combines two haunting western songs in "The Searchers" and "The Wayward Wind" . . . Tex always does a nice job . . . If it's laughs you're seeking, be sure to look up Stan Freberg's hilarious "The Quest for Bridey Hammerschlaugen" based on you-know-what . . . "The Great Pretender" backs it . . .

"I REMEMBER" BY THE OLD TIMERS

From William Somerville, Parsons, W. Va.: I remember when I was a boy I used to go to the country store with my mother and buy Arbuckle's Coffee for 10c per pound and granulated sugar for 3c and the best of slab bacon for 5c per pound. These kitchen necessities were usually exchanged for chickens, eggs and butter and very little money was used.

The wages at the time were 80c per day of ten hours or more. The winters were longer and very severe with deep snows and large drifts which took up into the spring months to melt away. Sometimes in early May.

I also remember the old up-and-down saw mill located on a small creek near my father's farm which was run by water power, the even at that time it was obsolete and not in use.

The most used firearms at that time was the muzzle loading rifle, a few muzzle loading shotguns were in use. The principal way of preserving many kinds of fruits was by drying on a roof in the sun or stringing on twine strings and hanging them behind the stoves to dry. When dry, they were usually placed in empty flour bags and hung up on nails for winter use.

My contributions to this column is The Old Timer, Community Press Service, Box 39, Frankfort, Ky.

THE HOT GET-AWAY

By William L. Roper

JIMMY HANSEN was sitting in the front seat of his Uncle Oscar's taxicab, listening to the radio calls from the cab company's control center, when the shooting started.

Jimmy's first impulse was to report the shooting to the man at headquarters, the way Uncle Oscar did. But he quickly rejected the idea, as he remembered that Uncle Oscar should be in the cab instead of at the all night hamburger stand on the corner getting a cup of coffee. Besides Jimmy was not supposed to be in the cab.

The fact that Uncle Oscar was teaching him to drive a taxi was their own secret arrangement strictly without company approval.

Suddenly Jimmy saw a thin, emaciated man dash out of a dimly lighted liquor store across the street, a smoking gun in his right hand. A short, pudgy man pursued, firing wildly.

The fleeing man twisted around. His gun spurted fire. The short man screamed, pitched headlong on the pavement under a street lamp. Increasing his speed, the gunman raced toward the taxicab, where Jimmy sat as if frozen, unable to move.

"Get going," shouted the gunman. The man's black, desperate eyes gleamed crazily from his thin, white face.

As the cab raced along the street, Jimmy listened tensely for the wail of a police siren. Surely someone besides himself had heard the shots. It would take a few minutes, though, for the chase to get under way. Jimmy shivered at the thoughts of what such a chase might mean—police bullets whistling around his head, possibly a bullet-bladed tire and the car swerving off the road out of control. But if the police did not stop them, what then?

He recalled a recent newspaper photograph, showing a taxi driver's body slumped over the steering wheel of his cab on a lonely country road. A cold chill raced up and down his spine. About two miles out of Centerville, on the Freeway, the gunman spoke again.

"Slow down and turn right at the next cross-roads." Jimmy followed orders. Even in the darkness, he recognized the road. It was the one, on which the dead cab driver had been found two months previously.

His fingers reached out for the two-way radio switch. But before he could touch it, he felt the gun barrel pressing against his chest.

"Don't try any tricks, punk," the gunman growled. "I'd hate to have to blast you while the car's speeding."

"Don't you want to know if the State cops are on your tail?" Jimmy asked.

"Okay," the gunman said. "Turn it on."

Jimmy manipulated the switch, but the radio speaker gave forth only a hum.

"Guess it's burned out," Jimmy said. "But we ought to be in South Hillsboro in another thirty minutes, and you can grab another car there. The coppers will be looking for this cab, since my Uncle is sure to report it stolen."

They were approaching Hillsboro from the south when the red lights of the road block flashed on ahead of them, and two motorcycles roared into the road behind the cab.

Jimmy shoved down the brake pedal and clawed desperately for the gun with his right hand. The cab skidded, slammed into a police car. It was all over in a moment.

As the officers snapped handcuffs on the skinny gunman, one of them slapped Jimmy on the shoulder.

"Good work, lad, he said. "It hadn't been for that conversation over the cab's two-way radio, we wouldn't have known where to set up the road block."

AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

MISS ELLA ORTON, Amarillo, Texas, had for a boss a man who would sit with his feet propped up on his desk the better part of the day. Any time he wanted anything, even if it were only a foot or so from him, he would yell at the top of his voice to Miss Orton to bring it to him, which she hastened to do, for she was terrified of him. Every Sunday evening she began to feel ill and would begin making up reasons why she could not go to work the next day. For ten long months this went on. This was her first job and she was afraid she couldn't get another one. Finally she did apply and got another. Then she was afraid to go back and tell her grouchy employer that she was leaving. Of course she finally got around to telling him, and he was very nasty about it.

She says if she should ever again be placed in such an unhappy position, she would apply one of the following methods:

1. Dissatisfied, she would at once have looked for another position. Knowing that if she could get one job, she could get another.
2. She would have a quiet calm talk with the boss and point out to him that he made her so nervous she couldn't stand it.

She has known both these methods to work for others. And she has conquered Fear of bosses, who are, after all, just people.

IT'S easy to have a picnic if you keep things in an almost ready state while the season is on. You can have a hamper all packed, for example, with paper or plastic plates, napkins, cups, plastic cutlery, salt and pepper shakers and a plastic tablecloth.

If your picnics come on weekends, then make up spreads for sandwiches a day or two before

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE

Tutti-Frutti Punch
(Serves 16 punch cups)
2 pints lemon sherbet
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup pineapple juice
1 6-ounce can frozen orange juice
2 tablespoons maraschino cherry juice
3 cups chilled ginger ale
Pack sherbet into one quart ring mold and freeze. Combine lemon, pineapple, and orange juice which has been diluted with water according to can directions. Add maraschino cherry juice and mix well; chill. To serve, pour juices into punch bowl, add ginger ale and unmold sherbet ring into bowl by pressing hot cloths on it. Garnish, if desired, with fresh berries and mint sprigs.

and keep them refrigerated in covered jars.

Bowls of vegetable relishes can be made in advance of the picnic day. What about chilling some carrot strips and celery? Keep tomatoes and cucumbers cleaned and chilling in the hydrator. Then you need only pack these in plastic bags before going.

If you have freezing facilities, make hamburger patties or keep weiners and buns frozen so they're ready to go-on the picnic, thus saving you last minute shopping.

Ford's Mark II Stresses Quality First-year production of the Continental Mark II will be very near the 2,500-unit volume estimated at the start of the program last year, according to William C. Ford, vice president and group director of Ford Motor Company and general manager of the Continental Division.

The division produced 2201 cars from June 24, 1955, the first day of production, through May 31, 1956, Mr. Ford said. He pointed out that an additional 284 cars were removed from the division's schedule several months ago as a result of the inability of certain suppliers to maintain the division's rigid quality standards and still meet production schedules.

"The Continental Mark II was designed as a low-volume, high-quality automobile," he said, "and nothing has happened during the past 11 months to make us any way that concept in any way. Because of this, production is of secondary importance to us; first concern is quality. And we believe that, with the Continental, we have established the highest quality standards in the automotive industry."

Mr. Ford said reaction to the car on the part of both the public and dealers has been excellent.

"While we were naturally gratified at the reception given it," he added, "we fully realized that our comparatively high rate of production during the first few months eventually would be balanced by a lower rate during the remainder of our first 12-month period. That has been the case."

Volume during the early months of production gave rise to rumors that the total number of Continentals available would be considerably higher than that originally estimated.

"We are more thoroughly convinced than ever that there is a considerable market for the combination of styling, quality, dependability and prestige found in the Continental Mark II," Mr. Ford said.
