THE SECURITY COUNCIL of the United Nations overrode objections of Britain and France and called for an emergency session of the UN General Assembly to discuss the halting of fighting in Egypt. Britain and France fought the move to the end, declaring the adoption of such action will have the "gravest consequence."

In Egypt British and French jet bombers bombed key spots near the Suez Canal in an opening naval-air assault, and a British cruiser sank an Egyptian frigate in the Gulf of Suez. The bombing and sinking took place in the midst of the Israeli-Egyptian conflict now in progress.

In Washington, President Eisenhower deplored the armed action taken by the two Western allies, and said the United States will not take part in any armed force, and will attempt to settle the Middle East dispute by peaceful means. Egypt reported it has the Israeli invasion "well in hand."

IN MARIETTA, GA., Mrs. Rosie Dellabare got into her car, full of confidence she would pass her driving test. She flunked. A police accident report in that city disclosed that at the beginning of the test run she lost control and drove her car into a police cruiser, knocked down a post from the porch of the police station and smashed into the doorway, causing $1,000 damage.

THIS U.S. AIR FORCE and units of the United States Sixth Fleet are evacuating Americans from the Middle East hot spots, it was said by the State Department. To date approximately 1,880 United States citizens have been removed from Egypt, Israel, Jordan and Syria. The Department said 4,874 Americans remained in those countries at the time of its count. The Maritime Administration warned all American merchant ships to avoid the Suez Canal area until the Middle East is clarified. Evacuation of all American citizens, except those who have essential jobs, is being carried out as fast as possible.

ISRAEL CLAIMS is has routed Egyptian forces in the Sinai Peninsula, and that its troops are nearing the Suez Canal. It also claimed it has cut off an Egyptian Army corps, destroyed or captured a brigade of armor and sealed off the Gaza Strip. At the same time, a communique said that British and French planes continued to smash steadily at nine Egyptian airfields and have destroyed or damaged 90 aircraft on the ground. As the battle for the Sinai Peninsula entered its fourth day, Israel said its troops have captured the entire peninsula, all Egypt's territory east of the canal, and said 20,000 Egyptian soldiers were fleeing westward. The Israeli Embassy in Washington said Egyptian casualties numbered about 5,000 killed, wounded or captured, while Israeli casualties are less than 100.

HUNGARY proclaimed itself a neutral nation yesterday, and called on the Big Four to guarantee its neutrality. It pulled itself out of the Warsaw Pact Military Alliance with Russia despite the arrival of Soviet troops which were reported to be surrounding all airfields in Hungary. The Soviet Embassy in Hungary informed the Government the troops are there only to safeguard the evacuation of Russian soldiers and wounded. However, travelers returning to Vienna from Budapest, reported having seen and heard heavy bombing of Tata Airfield in the area around Győr, a rebel-held city 60 miles from Budapest. Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy demanded the immediate withdrawal of Soviet troops from his country.

Nuba Has Nose for Late Raspberries

When Mrs. John E. Peel, 446 Roland road appeared in the NEWS office Monday to exhibit some magnificent raspberries she had picked that morning in her garden, great interest was evinced by NUBA, miniature French poodle who belongs to A. Pryor and spends a lot of time in the office. She condescended to pose, balancing one of the berries on her nose, while PEGGY MESRITZ, of the NEWS staff, holds a bowl of the unusually late local fruit. Each berry measured at least a three quarters of an inch in diameter. —Picture by Fred Ruppel

Fisherman's Body Taken From Lake

Duck Hunters Report Discovery to Authorities; Services Held for Martee Baro

The body of Martee Baro, 55, of 1427 Harvard, an attorney, was recovered from Lake St. Clair by Macomb County deputies on Friday, November 2.

"Duck hunters discovered the body and reported it to authorities."

Baro was drowned while on a fishing trip on October 18. Also drowned was Charles Albert, 68, of Reedley, Calif., whose body was recovered on Wednesday, October 31.

Only One Saved

Albert's son-in-law, Gilbert Metry, 26, of 15771 Waveney, Detroit, was the only one of the trio saved. He clung to an overturned boat for nine hours before he was rescued.

Metry was helpless to aid his father-in-law and Baro, and saw them sink beneath the wind-lashed water of the lake. The three men had set out from Anchorville, at 8 a.m. on October 18. The day was calm and clear.

They anchored their boat about two miles from shore near the North Channel. Fifteen minutes later a strong wind

Voters Throng to Polls In All Five Grosse Pointes To Break Existing Records

Women's Response to Plea to Vote Early Swells Lines of Electors Waiting to Cast Ballots During Day

"Because of the late tally of ballot returns on Tuesday, November 6, the NEWS was unable to give a complete coverage of the national and state election for the Pointe in this issue."

It was reported, however, voting was very heavy throughout the Pointe, in some cases exceeding that of the 1952 election.

Women Heed Plea

In all the Pointe communities, women, in response to an editorial plea in last week's issue of the NEWS, voted early in the day, so that the businessmen, who have offices outside the Pointe could vote without waiting in line after a tiring day. In all the cities, women voting early, swelled the waiting lines and completed their balloting quickly.

Checks made before the tabulations were complete showed that approximately 4,800 persons had cast their ballots in the Farms. This figure about equalled that of the 1952 election for the same time of day.

Governor Votes Early

Gov. and Mrs. G. Mennen Williams, whose legal residences is in Hillcrest road in the Farms, voted at 8 a.m. Tuesday, it was said.

In the City, 3,300 had gone to the polls, 500 more than in 1952. During the first three hours after the polls opened, it was said, about 1,600 persons had voted.

The Shores disclosed that 779 persons voted. This is more than in 1952 because the Village has more than doubled its population since the last presidential election. The 1952 election count was about 600.

The Woods revealed 6,779 electors had cast their ballots and the Park, 6,572, but their figures, as compared to 1952 were not known.

Park Girl Hits Car; Hurts Arm

Varelie Thomas, 7, of 1079 Maryland, suffered only a bruised right arm on Wednesday, October 31, when she ran into the rear of a car while crossing the street.

Park police took the girl to Bon Secours Hospital, where it was found she suffered no other injuries.

Stephen A. Walker, 52, of 1352 Bishop, made a personal report at the Park Police station, where he told officers that he had stopped his car at St. Paul and Maryland. He said he then started up and was passing a stopped bus, when he heard a bump at the left rear side of his vehicle.

He got out of his car, and saw Valerie run into her home. Walker spoke to the police, and Valerie was taken to the hospital for a check up.

Walker was held blameless and was not issued a ticket.

The dedication of its new $60,000 Educational Unit will be held by Grace Evangelical and Reformed Church, Lake-pointe at Kercheval, at two special services on Sunday, November 11.

At the 10:45 Morning Worship Service, the unit formally will be surrendered to the architect by the general contractor to be presented to the congregation. For this service the Chancel Choir, under the direction of W. Carey Foster, resident director, Metropolitan Y.M.C.A., organist and choir director of Grace, has prepared a special offering of music. The Pastor, Rev. Robert P. Beck, will preach, using the title, "Temples Still Undone."

There will be a reception of new members at this service.

4,000 Kids Enjoy Halloween Party

The 17th annual Halloween party sponsored by the Grosse Pointe Halloween Committee and Pointe businessmen was a tremendous success by all reports.

Park police chief, Arthur Louwers, speaking for all the Pointe departments, reported that there was no serious trouble reported on the night of October 31-November 1.

If there were any damages they might have been to the stomachs of the 4,000 students who attended the parties. The kids consumed 170 cases of soda pop, 41 gallons of cider, 82 dozen donuts, 65 pounds of hot dogs, 74 pounds of "sloppy joes," 25 dozen tuna fish sandwiches, chips, gallons of ice cream and milk and cases of candy.

It took Mrs. John S. Malcolm and 80 of her assistants to wait on the students.

Rubbish Disposal Licenses Granted By Three Pointes

Permission to Continue Dumping in Clinton Township Granted, With Burning Prohibited; Still Seek Incinerator Site

Three Pointe communities obtained licenses from Clinton Township on Wednesday, October 31, to dump rubbish and garbage in pits in that locality.

Park City Manager Everitt B. Lane, chairman, disclosed that the Park, Farms and City have concluded a contract and obtained licenses from Clinton Township which will permit them to dump. He said the licenses cost $100 apiece, and are renewable each year.

He said that the Township Board has stipulated a new change in the dumping, and that is, burning of rubbish and refuse will no longer be permitted. Each of the Pointes concerned must cover their rubbish and refuse after dumping. This will require one crane and two bulldozers, he added.

Mr. Lane said that the three cities will alternate in using the other's dumping pits, that is, one year they would dump in one Pointe's then the next year in the other. Each city will use their own trucks.

The Park and the Farms have adjacent dumps in Quinn road at Fourteen Mile in the Township, and the City's is located at Fourteen Mile road and Gratiot.

Authority Still Hopeful

Mr. Lane said that the Grosse Pointe Rubbish and Refuse Incinerator Authority is still in existence, and that although nothing definite has come up so far, negotiations for the construction of an incinerator are still going on. It is hoped the incinerator can be located in Clinton Township.

On Monday, November 5, at a regular meeting, the Farms council authorized the expenditure of $300 to prepare the City's dump, the first to be used, for the joint operation. It also approved the spending of $250 a week for continuing operation of the dump.

Four Juveniles Facing Charges

Park police arrested four juveniles on Tuesday, October 30, on charges of possible attempted arson.

Police Chief Arthur Louwers said the four boys were arrested when they placed gasoline-soaked newspapers on the porch of the home of James Abaldo, and ignited them.

He said the boys were possibly carrying out a Halloween prank, but because of the nature of the so-called prank, his department is investigating possible arson.

The chief said no final disposition has been reached and that the lads have been turned over to their parents pending an official outcome.

TO BUY SCOUT CARS

The Woods will advertise for bids on four new police cars, it was brought out at a regular council meeting on Monday, November 5. One specification is that the vehicles must be of the same color as the present cars, fiesta red.

Ecorse Conspiracy Case Examinations Terminated

City Judge Douglas Paterson ended the examination of Ecorse Mayor William W. Voisine and 20 other persons accused of conspiracy to permit gambling, on Friday, November 2.

Judge Paterson, who began the examination of the accused men on September 29, took under advisement a motion made by Asst. Atty. Gen. Joseph A. Sullivan, in which it was moved that the judge bind the group over for trial.

The judge set tomorrow, November 9, at 10 a.m., to hear motions for dismissal of their clients by the battery of 10 defense lawyers.

William H. Montry, former Ecorse police commissioner, and star witness in the graft grand jury, failed to implicate Francis A. Labadie, Ecorse council president and head of the mathematics department of Ecorse High School.

Balloting Purely Advisory, With Council Retaining Right to Make Final Decision

The voters of Grosse Pointe Farms, by a scant 50 vote margin, voted in favor of fluoridation, in Tuesday's election. The 3036 to 2086 final tabulation revealed the citizens' wish to have the chemical added to its water.

The Farms Council is not obligated to comply with the results of this vote. It had the issue placed on the ballot purely as an advisory vote. If the Council decides to add fluorine to its water, all citizens of the City of Grosse Pointe will be affected, as the City buys its water from the Farms.

History of Battle

The Farms council on Monday, August 20, accepted and placed on file a petition bearing the signatures of 355 residents of the city who are proponents of fluoridation. This petition asked only that the issue be placed on Tuesday's ballot purely as an advisory vote.

The issue was placed before Farms voters in the spring election on April 4, 1955, and at the behest of an anti-fluoridation group, and the council felt that it would be only fair to bring the matter before the public again.

At that time Farms Attorney Edward P. Wright informed the council that in order to make the issue mandatory, the petition needed the signatures of 25 per cent of the city's qualified electors.

Lacked Necessary Number

The opponents of fluoridation lacked the 25 per cent last year, too, when they requested the matter be presented to the public. Their petition bore 803 signatures.

Thomas Rochford of 325 Belanger, and Harry Carson of 88 Cambridge, headed the drive for the petition. They told the council that their group felt that (Continued on Page 2)

Work Started On Rifle Range

Construction has already begun on the Grosse Pointe Rifle and Pistol Club range in the Neighborhood Club. Excavation was started in the basement under the west end of the gymnasium last week. Many local police have volunteered their services to help with the digging.

Almost $2000 has been donated toward the range, but estimates call for another $2000 before work can be completed. Contributions are being accepted at all of the Pointe Police stations, or they may be mailed to Chief Thomas Trombly, Grosse Pointe City Police, 17155 Maumee.

It is proposed that the range be open to the public and local Boy Scout troops. The Pointe police would also be able to use the range for pistol practice.

Plans call for the range to be used only for small bore, 22 caliber weapons.

TO SPEAK AT FORUM

Laurence J. Wilson, of Yorkshire road will be one of the speakers at the Michigan State Tax Forum to be held at the Kellogg Center, Michigan State November 14.

Reveal Balance In Bond Fund

The Farms Council received the good news from Acting City Clerk, Dawson F. Nacy, that the unexpected balance from the proceeds of the sale of Water Revenue Bonds in the amount of $13,621.76 has been paid into the Bond and Interest Redemption Fund.

Under Section 15 of the Water Revenue Bond Ordinance, any unexpended balance shall be used for the redemption of callable bonds, or, if prior to the first call date, may be used to purchase bonds on the open market at a price not exceeding the first call price.

The first call date for the Water Revenue Bonds is July 1, 1960. Inquiries have been made to ascertain if any of the bonds are available in the open market. But at the present time the Farms has not received any offers to sell. It is hoped some bonds will be available in the near future.

The council authorized the city to buy approximately $13,000 of these bonds, when and if an offering be made.

Church Dedication Planned

 Chancel Choir of Grace, music will be offered by the Grosse Pointe Men's Chorus under the direction of John E. Finch, choral director, Johns River High School.
 The friends and neighbors of Grace are cordially invited to share in these services and to stay for the Open House which will be held following the Vesper Services until 6 p.m. Refreshments will be served by the Women's Guild of Grace, Mrs. Glen Bray, president, assisted by the Youth Fellowships.

Culmination of Events

The completion of this Educational Unit is the culmination of events started in October, 1953, when Dr. John Scottford from the Department of Church Architecture, National Council of Churches, surveyed the building needs of Grace and the particular needs of her community. This was followed by a financial canvass by the Wells Fund Raising Engineers. Ground was broken for the unit in April, 1956.

Grace has built to meet the special needs of families with small children and the requirements of older citizens. It is a one-story structure with easy access from the outside and with a parlor opening on the Sanctuary. Stage facilities have also been provided.

Generous use of cheerful colors and extensive window space characterize the new unit. The corridor is decorated in warm pumpkin. The long functional Church School space is painted jonquil yellow and turquoise blue and the parlor is a deep rose.

The building committee has been headed by Kenneth Peterson. The other members of the committee are: Ian Smith, Raymond Schleicher, Mrs. V. J. Bartell, Donald MacLeod, Hans Wilhelmson, treasurer; Albert Balkema, president of the congregation, and Robert P. Beck, pastor.

Robert O. May, A.I.A., is the architect. He is a charter member of the congregation and served as architect for the church when it was built in 1936. He has produced a building which is modern in every way, is functionally flexible and yet a compliment to the intimate coziness of the present beautiful Sanctuary.

The Rev. Robert P. Beck, pastor, is completing eight years of ministry at Grace Church. During this pastorate, a substantial debt on the Sanctuary has been paid, the church has become completely self supporting, having cancelled National Missions subsidy in 1952. The parsonage debt has been cleared, the annual budget has been tripled. The Church School has shown a 50 percent increase and the summer vacation Church School has grown from 54 to 148 children in attendance.

24 Men Did Painting

Under the supervision of Edward Welch, 24 men of the congregation have completed painting the interior of the unit. Ten men under the supervision of Melvin Martin have laid the tile in the corridor, Church School space and the parlor.

A special committee, Mrs. Melvin Martin, chairman, and composed of Mrs. V. J. Bartell, Mrs. Glen Bray, Mrs. Robert Beck, Mrs. John Jonassen, Mrs. R. O. May, Mrs. Harry Steinhauer, Mrs. John Swetta, and Mrs. Edward Welch, has chosen the colors and selected the parlor furnishings. The Board of Christian Education under the chairing of Mrs. Robert Dupuis, is in charge of selecting the furnishings and equipment for the Church School section.

Grace Church is one of 30 Evangelical and Reformed Churches in the Metropolitan Detroit area. Jointly, these churches own and operate two major benevolent institutions: Evangelical Deaconess Hospital, E. Jefferson, and the Evangelical Home for Children and Aged People on West Outer Drive. The Evangelical and Reformed Church is entering into a merger with the Congregational Christian Churches in June of 1957. The merged denominations will then be known as the United Church of Christ.

came up, causing the boat to toss around in the frothy water. They pulled in their anchor and Baro started up the motor, just as a large wave engulfed the boat; Baro and Albert stood up and the craft capsized.

Metry said they all went over the side together and that he came up first. He saw his father-in-law, Albert, going down and grabbed him and pulled him toward the boat. Baro took hold of the boat without aid.

Metry climbed partially aboard the overturned boat and extended his hands to Albert and Baro, both of whom grabbed hold.

After about 30 minutes, Albert's grip began to weaken. Another 15 minutes and he slipped from Metry's grasp and sank.

Baro hung on for about five hours and then relinquished his grasp and sank straight down. Metry himself straddled the boat and hung on.

He was rescued by Dorn J. Martell, 49, of Port Huron; Thomas W. Cross, 48, and Levi Yerkis, 52, both of Mt. Clemens, who heard Metry's cries for help as they passed in their cruiser.

Baro is survived by his wife, Augusta; three sons, Martee, Jr., Robert and Thomas; and a daughter, Barbara.

Funeral services were held at St. Clare of Montefalco Church on Monday, November 5. Burial was in Mt. Olivet cemetery.

because of the light vote in last year's spring election, it was their opinion that not all the citizenry expressed an opinion of the issue.

They said that because this is a presidential election year, more voters will go to the polls and therefore a better opinion could be had.

3,100 Went To Polls

In the spring election of 1955, approximately 3,100 of the Farms more than 8,000 qualified electors went to the polls and said whether or not they wished to have the city continue the use of fluorine in their water. This, too, was an advisory vote, and did not bind the city to discontinue its use.

The final tabulation of the votes found that 1,832 did not want the fluorine; and 1,366 while after the election, but public pressure forced the city were for it. The Farms continued to discontinue its use in May, 1955.

P.T.A. at Kerby To Meet Nov. 12

The Kerby Parent-Teacher Association will hold its second meeting of the school year on Monday evening, November 12. This meeting promises to be one of the most interesting held in recent years.

It is planned at this meeting to give parents an opportunity to learn of the work being done at each grade level. Parents will meet in the child's room at 7:30 p.m. where the teacher will explain the work that is to be covered during the school year. Mothers and fathers also will have an opportunity to become acquainted with the pupils' textbooks and other teaching materials in the room and to ask questions.

Principal Dr. Custer Homeier will explain the present system of reporting to parents at the general meeting which will be held at 8:15 p.m. He will also discuss certain aspects of the parent-teacher conferences which are to be held during the month of January.

Following the general meeting a social hour for parents and teachers will be held in the gymnasium. Mrs. George Goodheart and Mrs. Minard Mumaw, social committee co-chairmen have appointed Mrs. George Cartmill and Mrs. Ray Smith to arrange for the table decorations. Mrs. Richard Anderson, Mrs. William Bremer, Mrs. Dan Butler, Mrs. Harry Carson, Mrs. Zoltan Ducsay, Mrs. Austin Humver, Mrs. Lee Joslyn, Mrs. Clinton Scharff, Mrs. Allan Serrny, and Mrs. George Watkins will serve refreshments during the social hour.

Tape Recording Teaches Two Subjects

Three Mason sixth grade teachers and the music teacher of the school recently prepared an original tape recording to supplement their teaching of Egyptian history. By combining excerpts of music from "Aida," a narration geared for children, and themes repeated on the piano, the group has provided an unusually interesting supplement to the textbooks and other materials. Seated at the tape recorder is ROGER O'CONNOR, who originated the idea. Standing at the record player is TED JACOBS. Seated at the piano is GILBERT STAMMER. About to use the microphone is CAROL FISCHER.

Farms Residents Get Information

The city of Grosse Pointe Farms mailed its second informative bulletin, to all its residences on November 1. The first edition of the bulletin appeared in May of this year, when the late Harry Furton, Farms City Manager, and members of the Farms council prepared a four-page pamphlet outlining what the city council had been doing, and general news of what the city had to offer its citizens.

The bulletin is an official publication of Farms and endorsed by its council. There is no set schedule for how and when the issues will be prepared, the city fathers plan to issue these bulletins every few months, or whenever a controversial issue which may affect the entire community is brought to their attention.

The November issue contains a section devoted to water fluoridation, and the report to the council on parking in the Kercheval business district.

Sanitation Man Nipped by Dog

The sanitation department sometimes has as much trouble with neighborhood dogs as the postal service.

On Tuesday, October 28, Gerald Fluary of 153 Muir road was making a routine collection from 253 McKinley avenue. A dog owned by C. G. Brown of 256 McKinley charged across the street and bit Fluary in the right leg.

The bite was reported to the Board of Health and Mr. Brown was instructed to keep his dog locked up for the ten day quarantine period.

A gang of vandals looking for a novel way to display their talents, attacked the observation tower at the football field of Grosse Pointe High School over the weekend of November 3.

Farms Submits Building Report

Building permits issued during the month of October by the Farms Engineering Department were valued at a total of $2,557,000, bringing the grand total since the beginning of the year to $4,589,000, a report from Farms City Engineer Murray M. Smith said.

Included in the total for the month was a permit for non-assessable property, valued at $1,940,000.

Also issued were six residential permits valued at $549,000; 10 miscellaneous permits, worth $30,000; and one business permit for $38,000.

Since January 1, Mr. Smith's report revealed 50 residential building permits were given out, which have a total value of $2,172,000; 93 miscellaneous permits, valued at $256,350; and five for business places, worth $181,000.

Pointe Players In Rehearsals

It's November 8, and time to be thinking about the Pointe Players' fall production at the Grosse Pointe High School.

This season's play, "The Shop at Sly Corner," is a melodramatic tale about Descius Heiss, a jeweler in an out-of-the-way section of South London. Saying that he is a jeweler is an understatement, for his other occupations include being a silver-smith, an antique dealer, and a "fence" for stolen merchandise. Gold is his main interest, since he can melt it and sell it more easily.

When an employee of his finds out about Descius' true occupation, he takes advantage of his discovery. To keep the blackmailer from revealing this information to his beloved daughter, Descius pays many times. But a man cannot go on paying out his life's blood indefinitely. What does he do?

As of this date, both of the double casts have had fourteen on-stage rehearsals, not to mention the many long hours spent in learning their lines. According to Mr. Frederick B. Nelson, the director, there has been much enthusiasm shown over the play since, because of the double cast, it is a challenge to actors and actresses alike. The competition between the casts has led them to think more seriously of their roles and consequently a high quality performance is assured. Mr. Nelson said, "This experiment of using two casts is working out well. The players are doing a fine job of interpreting their characters."

However, not all of the action is going on on the stage. The scene shop is working hard to produce realistic sets. One of their biggest obstacles is the construction of a moveable fireplace which opens into a furnace where Descius melts the stolen gold. Other committees are doing their utmost to see that an outstanding performance is given.

Tickets may be purchased at the high school during school hours or may be bought at the door. The play will run November 15, 16, and 17.

Harold Packer Takes CD Evacuation Course

Harold L. Packer, 748 Washington road, was graduated from the Evacuation Course given by the Civil Defense Administration at its headquarters in Battle Creek, Mich., October 22-26.

Students in the course served on committees to study fundamental principles of evacuation and participated in a mock evacuation planning board meeting. They also engaged in a pre-attack evacuation problem exercise as a rehearsal for possible action in the event of enemy attack on this nation.

The Evacuation Course is one of a series of three administrative courses designed for state, county and city civil defense officials who have responsibilities in developing evacuation plans.

Never put off until tomorrow the friend who is willing to lend you money today.

Players Veterans Hold Traditional Event

Each year all members of the Players who have been affiliated with the thespian organization for 20 years or more, gather for dinner before the opening play of the season. Last Saturday night the production in the East Jefferson avenue playhouse was "Mr. Roberts." Among the 20-year and more members attending the

Horticulturists Having Birthday

The Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticulture Society will observe its 40th anniversary with a banquet on Saturday, November 10. It will be held in the VFW Alger Post, St. Paul avenue, with dinner being served at 6:30 p.m.

Fred Martin, president of the society, is also chairman for the banquet. William Luty is the co-chairman. Some 40 couples have made reservations to attend the evening event.

Following dinner an award for the best kept business landscaping in the Pointe will be made. The competition which has been in progress since early spring has been a close one with judges having difficulty in reaching a final decision as to the best maintained and most attractive gardens of the six competing.

In the contest were the gardens of Ray Whyte Chevrolet, The O.A.A. Cadillac Service, the Grosse Pointe Bank, Walton-Pierce and Verheyden Funeral Home, which was the winner.

A certificate will be presented to Charles Verheyden. Also to receive a certificate will be William Luty for his outstanding service to the society for the past year.

Arthur Martin, publicity chairman for the Grosse Pointe and Eastern Michigan Horticulture Society, wishes to call the attention of all garden and property owners in the Pointe area to the fact that all foundation plantings, shrubs and evergreens should be watered profusely, since the past weeks have been dry.

Watering of these plantings should continue until frost sets in the ground. The trees and shrubs will hold water during the winter season and be ready for vigorous growth in the spring.

A "permanent tourist" who's an expert on making car travel easier and more enjoyable for the American woman and her family will share her knowledge with other travelers when she speaks before the Richard School P.T.A. on Monday evening, November 19 at 8 o'clock. Called a "permanent tourist" because of her year-round travel, Miss Carol Lane is women's travel director of an oil company. She has entitled her talk "Motorrambling" and will pass along to her audience many of her travel-tested tips gathered during her annual 60,000 miles of touring.

Among the subjects Miss Lane will discuss are how to pack a car, how best to travel with children, how to pre-plan and budget the motoring vacation, how to make the Carol Lane "tote bag" a carryall for week end trips, and how to plan a travel wardrobe. In covering many of these topics, Miss Lane will employ visual aids.

Miss Lane writes a syndicated weekly newspaper column, "Tips on Touring" and is the author of numerous magazine articles as well as "Touring Can Be Child's Play"—a travel guide book for better vacations.

Parents of the school and our friends in the Grosse Pointe community are most cordially invited to be present.

Sampson Booked On Big TV Show

Chet Sampson has just returned from a trip to New York City, where he was called for an interview with Miss Arleen Francis regarding possible participation in one of her TV programs.

Arrangements have now been completed for him to appear for one half hour on the "Home" Show in January. The entire time will be devoted to a discussion of the development of his now-famous Western station wagon tours for teen-agers, excerpts from the recently-completed Hollywood film on the tours will be used on the program.

These tours have been the subject of many television and radio programs over the years. Chet or members of his group have appeared on the Art Linkletter show about eight times, on the Bob-Crosby show, on the Tennessee Ernie Ford show, and on the old Walter O'Keefe show.

They have sung on Gary Crosby's show and been mentioned frequently on Bing Crosby's shows. Bing once sang a song the girls taught him while on one of their annual visits with him at the ranch, dedicated it to them, and subsequently recorded it.

The exact date for the television show will be announced later.

At this conference school administrators and audio-visual specialists saw and heard the best of audio-visual techniques and shared their "know-how" to put these techniques to work in schools throughout the state.

Discussion sessions were led by teams of audio-visual people and administrators. There were groups for large, medium, and small school systems, and for county and rural school systems.

Topics for the discussion groups included: Planning school buildings for the audio-visual program; Budgeting for audio-visual programs; Audio-visual materials and the 3 R's; Audio-visual materials in-service programs; and Audio-visual materials to interpret the school's program.

History and Opera Taught In One Very Easy Lesson

Three Mason sixth grade teachers and the music teacher of the school recently pooled their talent and imagination to provide an outstanding learning experience for the students in their classes. The first idea came to Roger O'Connor, who is also Mason's audio-visual coordinator.

He was preparing to teach a history unit on Egypt. He remembered that the opera "Aida," whose setting is in the Nile country, had been recommended as an appropriate theme by elementary music consultant Winnifred Fenton.

Now, not a single member of Roger's class had ever listened to or seen an opera. But here, he thought, was another way in which to bring alive the customs of the people and the ways of this ancient land.

O'Connor, with the help of music instructor Gilbert Stammer and sixth grade teachers Carol Fischer and Ted Jacobs of Mason school, set about preparing a tape recording of musical excerpts from "Aida" and a narration based on a special children's edition of the story.

As Rogers explains it: "The story was narrated on the tape with musical background fed in from the recording of the opera. At intervals in the narration, important themes would be played on the piano; then the full version of the themes would be brought in."

While the tape was being played with the narration and the music, illustrations in color from the opera were thrown on a screen.

It was quite apparent, according to the four Mason teachers, that a tremendous learning experience was taking place. Excited class discussions resulted. The actions of the characters.

their costumes (reflecting the actual dress of the period), and the stage settings (authentic reproductions of the time) all contributed to the students' grasp of Egyptian culture.

Besides, the music suggested the feelings and moods of the character, again fixing in time the reality of an historical moment.

During and following the actual presentation to the class, many correlations were shown between the history unit and the audio-visual project on the opera. All three sections of Mason sixth grade—O'Connor's, Fischer's and Ted Jacobs'—gave the effort an enthusiastic reception.

Like An Old Keepsake . . .

Grosse Pointe's fine school system continues to keep up with the growing community. The latest addition was the opening of the new John R. Barnes Elementary School, which was dedicated Sunday, October 28. This fine building with its capable staff, is serving the Torrey and Grosse Pointe Woods area.

PTA at Defer To Hear Bushong

Dr. James W. Bushong, Superintendent of the Grosse Pointe School System, will address the Defer P.T.A. on Monday evening, November 12, on the subject of "Education in Our Grosse Pointe Schools."
In discussing Dr. Bushong's forthcoming appearance, Jim
Dodge, president of the Defer
P.T.A., said: "This is a real opportunity for our Defer parents to learn about our school system from a man who knows it inside and out. It is also an opportunity to ask questions about any phase of our school operations."

"We suggest," Mr. Dodge said, "that parents report to their child's homeroom at 7:45 p.m. prior to Dr. Bush-ong's talk. At 8:30 p.m. the parents will move to the auditorium for the main part of the program."

Dr. Bushong, a native of Oregon, is a graduate of Pacific University, with Master's and Doctor's degrees from the University of Oregon. He spent most of his professional career in Oregon except for a three-year stint as a Naval officer during World War II. He began as a teacher and athletic coach before becoming a principal and superintendent. He is still an ardent sports fan, particularly interested in golf, hunting and fishing.

Despite his extremely busy local schedule, Dr. Bushong has addressed regional, state and national education conferences.
Besides this activity, he manages to write articles for national publications. One of these,
"Targets for the Young Administrator," appears in the February, 1956, issue of the American School Board Journal and has been widely discussed by the profession.

Dr. Bushong has also been visiting lecturer in Education at the University of Wisconsin,
Michigan State University and Central Michigan College of Education.

Following Dr. Bushong's talk, refreshments will be served in the teacher's lunchroom. Mrs.
Sidney Short will be in charge.

High School Teacher Tells Of Experiences in Japan

Editor's Note: Miss Jane E. Gullett, third grade teacher at Mason Elementary, was on leave last year from the Grosse Pointe Public Schools. During this time she taught children of Air Force personnel stationed in Japan. This is the second of three articles relating some of her experiences in that country.

By Jane E. Gullett

The Thanksgiving holiday was a never-to-be-forgotten one spent in Tokyo, the world's third largest city. A group of us attended Thanksgiving services at the American chapel across the street from the Diet or Japanese government building.

After chapel we strolled through Tokyo's beautiful (even in November) Hibiya Park to the Imperial Hotel, which is beyond doubt one of the finest in the world. The service is impeccable. The food is superlative, and all of us were delighted with the little balcony which leads out from a window in each room and overlooks the street. The Imperial Hotel was designed by the American architect, Frank Lloyd Wright, and is said to be as nearly earthquake proof as a building can be.

At Christmas a group of us found ourselves taking off for Okinawa, Hong Kong, and Bangkok. It reminded us of the song "Faraway Places," "Goin' to China, and Maybe Siam." We landed on Okinawa for breakfast and then continued the rest of our 1,160 mile trip from Japan to Hong Kong.

In the afternoon we arrived at Kai Tak, Hong Kong's airport. It is reported to be one of the most dangerous in the world because of the high mountains. No landings or take-offs are permitted after dark.

Our tour took us within a few yards of a little wire fence running along a quiet river where sampans moved up and down. On both sides were rice paddies. That little wire fence separates more than it appeared to however, for on the other side is Communist Red China.

We breathed a prayer of thanksgiving that we were on this side of the fence. Later as we talked with Chinese refugees in Hong Kong, we realized that we will never appreciate fully how fortunate we are.

Alpha Phis to Gather At Mrs. Poxson's Nov. 13

Mrs. E. G. Poxson will open her Lakeland avenue home to the group and dessert will be served following the 7:30 meeting. There will also be bridge and canasta.

FOOTBALL PLAYER HURT
The Farms ambulance was rushed to the assistance of John McCoy, 16, a student at Grosse Pointe High School, when he was injured on the high school athletic field while playing football October 30. He was taken to Bon Secours Hospital.

Pointe Players Rehearse for Fall Production

Grosse Pointe High School thespians, the Pointe Players, are putting the final touches on their production of "The Shop At Sly Corner," which will be presented at the High School on November 15, 16, 17. Left to right are: GARY THEUER, KORN, JANIS BUSHONG, KEN KURTZ, JERE DASEF, PAT AMNEUS, BILL MANN, SARA MIKESSELL, PAT LINDOW, SUE LORIMER, GERRYVE ANSEL, and prompter ROBERTA JAY.

Pedestrian Hit Crossing Street

Darrel Hubbard, 24, of 3458 Springle, Detroit, crossed the street against the red light on Saturday, November 3, and was struck by a car and suffered injuries.

A police accident report said that Hubbard was crossing the intersection at Jefferson and Beaconsfield, and was in the center of the street, behind a truck.

He moved away from the vehicle to complete the crossing and stepped into the path of a car driven by Mona Arra, 21, of 787 Continental, Detroit, and was carried across the intersection on the fender of the car, and then fell to the pavement.

Hubbard was taken to Bon Secours Hospital by police ambulance for treatment of a broken right arm, head injuries and possible internal injuries.

A companion of Hubbard's, Bill Armstrong of 28261 Linwood, Detroit, who was crossing the road with him, escaped being hit.

A police investigation, supported by witnesses, absolved the driver from blame in the mishap.

Engineers' Wives to Hear Talk by Patricia Ward

Patricia Ward, resident director of the John Robert Powers School, will address the Society of Engineers' Wives at its Wednesday, November 14 meeting.

Miss Ward's talk, to follow a 12:30 p.m. luncheon and business meeting, will be a general charm lecture combined with practical tips in posture, make-up and grooming.

The meeting will be held in the Rackham Memorial Building.

It is good to be without vices, but it is not good to be without temptations. —W. Bagshot

Center Dinner Fetes Governor

The Grosse Pointe Democratic Club held a $5-a-plate dinner, honoring Gov. G. Mennen Williams, at the War Memorial Center on Friday, November 2. Approximately 160 attended.

Presiding at the dinner was J. Dunston Barlow, president of the Pointe Democratic Club; Dr. Lynn M. Bartlett was the toastmaster.

The invocation was given by the Rev. Fr. Leo Burke, O.S.A., assistant pastor of Our Lady Star of the Sea Church.

Among the honored guests, besides Gov. Williams, were George Edwards, Justice of the State Supreme Court; Harold M. Ryan, state senator; John C. Roche, candidate for the state Legislature; Congressman Louis C. Rabaut; and Victor Targonski, Circuit Court Judge.

Before the brief talks by Gov. Williams, Justice Edwards and others, the assembled Democrats were led in group singing by Wayne Smith, accompanied by Donna Zizek, both teachers in the Pointe School System.

Dr. Bartlett was the general chairman of the committees which were responsible for the success of the dinner.

On the reception and hospitality committee were: Bernadene Barlow, Anne Costrine, Maya Elmer, William Elmer, Constance Frederic, Hudson Mead, Frank McKington, Sam Torina, and Helen Worth.

Josephine Bartlett was chairwoman of the general arrangements committee; and Helen Graves, chairman of publicity. Officers of the club are: J. Dunston Barlow, president; Hudson Mead, vice-president; Sam Torina, treasurer; and Dr. Lynn Bartlett, secretary.

In his address, Gov. Williams said that he was glad to be in the Pointe and that it was like a home coming. He said that the Democrats have always felt that their party is the party of all of the people.

The people present at the dinner were mainly from the Pointe, with a number coming from other communities. Those from other cities heard the Pointers express their determination to strongly endorse their party in the Pointe, considered a virtual Republican stronghold, and increase membership in the club.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

For a small room, if you want to create the greatest illusion of space, you should select cool, light, dull colors and avoid strong color contrasts. Furniture should be small in scale. Be careful not to over-furnish the room. As far as pattern is concerned, use it sparingly. The arrangement of furniture pieces can add to an illusion of space or destroy it. So, in arranging furniture in a small room, keep it close to the walls in a parallel arrangement with the wall. In that way, you add to the apparent space in the room. The room will SEEM larger.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable yield in order to equal the security from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Church Forms Recovery Group

A new group of Recovery, Inc. has recently been formed in the St. Michael's Church, 20475 Sunningdale drive.

Recovery, Inc. was organized in 1937 by Dr. Abraham A. Low, a prominent psychiatrist, who wrote a book, "Mental Health Through Will Training," which Recovery groups use in group therapy.

Nervous and former mental patients, when they join Recovery, are in the grip of a wide variety of nervous symptoms and fears resulting from tenses.

Recovery officials point out that there is no panacea or magic pill which will quickly and easily cure nervous ailments, but in the group meetings and by practicing Recovery's self-help techniques, members gradually learn to lower their temperamental tensions.

Recovery officials emphasize that Recovery does not seek to supplant the physician or psychiatrist. Members are told they must rely upon the diagnosis of their own physicians, but once they have been diagnosed or suffering from "nerves," Recovery can and does provide a means of rehabilitation.

Another Recovery group meeting in Grosse Pointe is the one at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church. Mrs. Rebecca Parducci of Colonial road, organizer of the first group several years ago, is its leader.

The third group meeting in the Pointe, with Lila Schenck its leader, is temporarily a closed one.

Eclipse of Moon Due on Nov. 18

A total eclipse of the Moon promises to be the outstanding event in the heavens for the month of November, according to University of Michigan astronomer Hazel M. Losh.

"Although not nearly as dramatic as a total eclipse of the Sun," Professor Losh reports, "The passage of the Moon through the Earth's long shadow is fascinating to watch."

Of the four eclipses scheduled for 1956, two of the Sun and two of the Moon, only this one will be visible in North America, the astronomer explains.

At exactly 12:02 a.m. on the night of Nov. 17-18, the Moon's eastern edge will make the first contact with the earth's shadow," Professor Losh says.

During the partial phase, the Earth's shadow will appear dark in contrast with the remaining section of the full moon, but when the Moon is completely immersed, it will not be entirely hidden.

During November, the length of the day will grow noticeably shorter. By the end of the month, the astronomer points out, "the day will have shortened about nine hours and 20 minutes, with the shortest day in December only 15 minutes shorter."

Among planets of interest this month, Jupiter will rise about four hours before the Sun by the middle of the month, and will also be a bright planet in the eastern morning sky.

Motorist Nearly Clips Policemen

Two Farms police officers came close to being run down early Halloween evening, by a motorist who failed to see their signal and drove through the barricade they had erected.

It was 6:30 p.m., and officers Marvin Weaver and Joseph Miller were completing a barricade across Fisher road just south of St. Paul.

Mrs. Kathryn Teetzel of 30 Sunset lane, approached the barricade going south on Fisher. The officers signaled to her to turn right onto St. Paul.

Everyone is invited to attend these performances.

DAR Chapter To Hold Fair

The annual Christmas bazaar, one of the most enjoyable and long anticipated events on the calendar of Fort Pontchartrain Chapter, D.A.R., will be held on Friday, November 18, at the Women's City Club.

Mrs. Paul J. Meiser, of Renfrew road, is general chairman. On her committee are Mrs. Albert E. Cooney, of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. Russell V. Allman, of Parkside avenue, Mrs. Roman B. Beck, of Royal Oak and Mrs. Milbert A. Ellman, of Berkeley.

The bazaar will open at 10:30 o'clock in the morning and continue until 4 in the afternoon. At 12 noon luncheon will be served in the club's dining room, with Mrs. William M. Perrett, regent of the chapter, presiding.

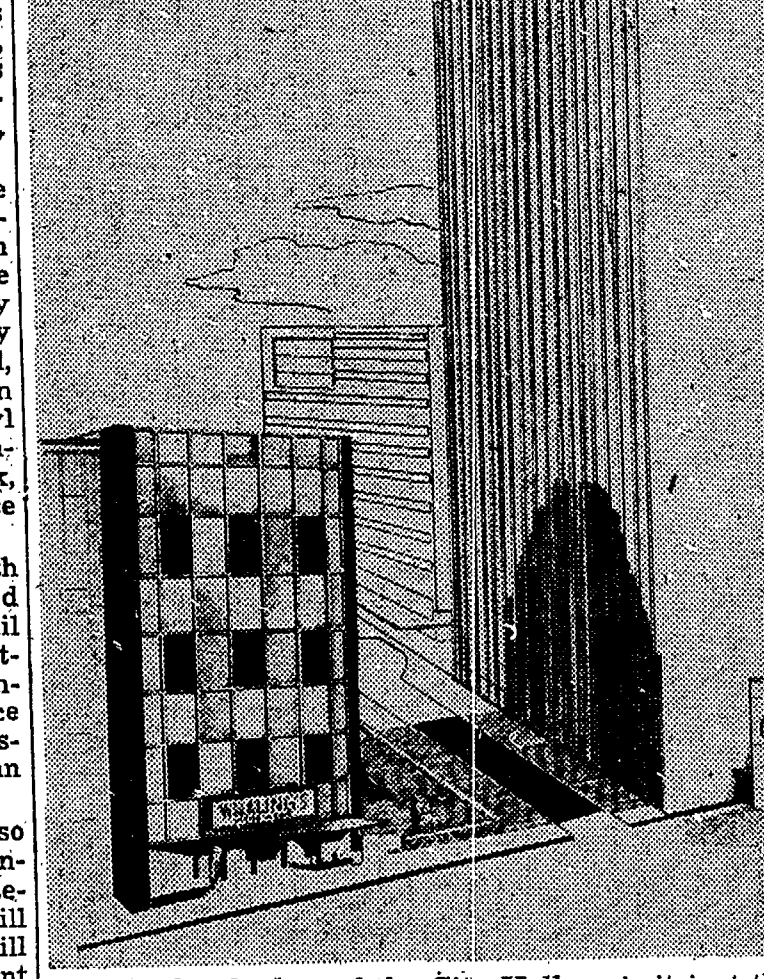

Articles that will make very desirable Christmas gifts will be attractively displayed. There will be an apron booth, a linen booth, a treasure-chest, a jewelry booth, all handcrafted, an "Orchids from Hawaii" booth, a booth displaying hand knit items.

CAR TOOLS STOLEN Frank Mannone of 1177 Cadieux registered a complaint with the City Police Department on Sunday, November 4, that a bag of tools and a jack had been stolen from the rear of his Ford panel truck.

Whaling's New Store

In the shadow of the City Hall, or is it just the other way around, is this modern building at 520 Woodward avenue which soon becomes the new home of Whaling's, Detroit's famed store for men.

Motorist Nearly Clips Policemen

Two Farms police officers came close to being run down early Halloween evening, by a motorist who failed to see their signal and drove through the barricade they had erected.

It was 6:30 p.m., and officers Marvin Weaver and Joseph Miller were completing a barricade across Fisher road just south of St. Paul.

Mrs. Kathryn Teetzel of 30 Sunset lane, approached the barricade going south on Fisher. The officers signaled to her to turn right onto St. Paul.

Everyone is invited to attend these performances.

Movie Council Releases List

The Grosse-Pointe Motion Picture and TV Council's list of approved movies for the month of November has been announced.

Especially recommended for all ages is "The King and I," a musical in color. The story tells of a young English widow, who in 1862, goes to Siam to educate the many children of the king in the ways of the western world.

On the teen-age list are "Edie Duchin Story," "Stranger at My Door" and "Somebody Up There Likes Me."

Recommended for children are "Dakota Incident," "Fastest Gun Alive" and "Ambassador's Daughter."

The Recreation Department of Grosse Pointe Woods offers Ballet for girls 5 to 16 years of age; fencing, archery, gym for boys; gym for girls and gym for women.

Grosse Pointe Park has an ordinance regulating the admission of minors. The Woods Theater has an ordinance stating that children ten years and under cannot remain in the theater after 7 p.m. unless accompanied by an adult.

STORE ROBBED OF CAKES John Saar, 31, proprietor of a grocery store at 15025 E. Jefferson complained to Park police on Wednesday, October 31, that five boys entered his store and stole several cakes from a display shelf.

GIVING AND RECEIVING If you confer a benefit never remember it; If you receive one, never forget it.

Most Dangerous Months Starting

Detroit today (November 8) starts the worst two months of the year for traffic deaths.

Historically November and December have been the two most hazardous months. Last year 60 persons met death with 36 fatalities being recorded in December, traditionally the more dangerous of the two.

The Traffic Safety Association pointed out that pedestrians are most vulnerable during the last two months of the year. Pedestrians generally account for two out of three fatalities, but the proportion runs much higher during November and December, the Association said.

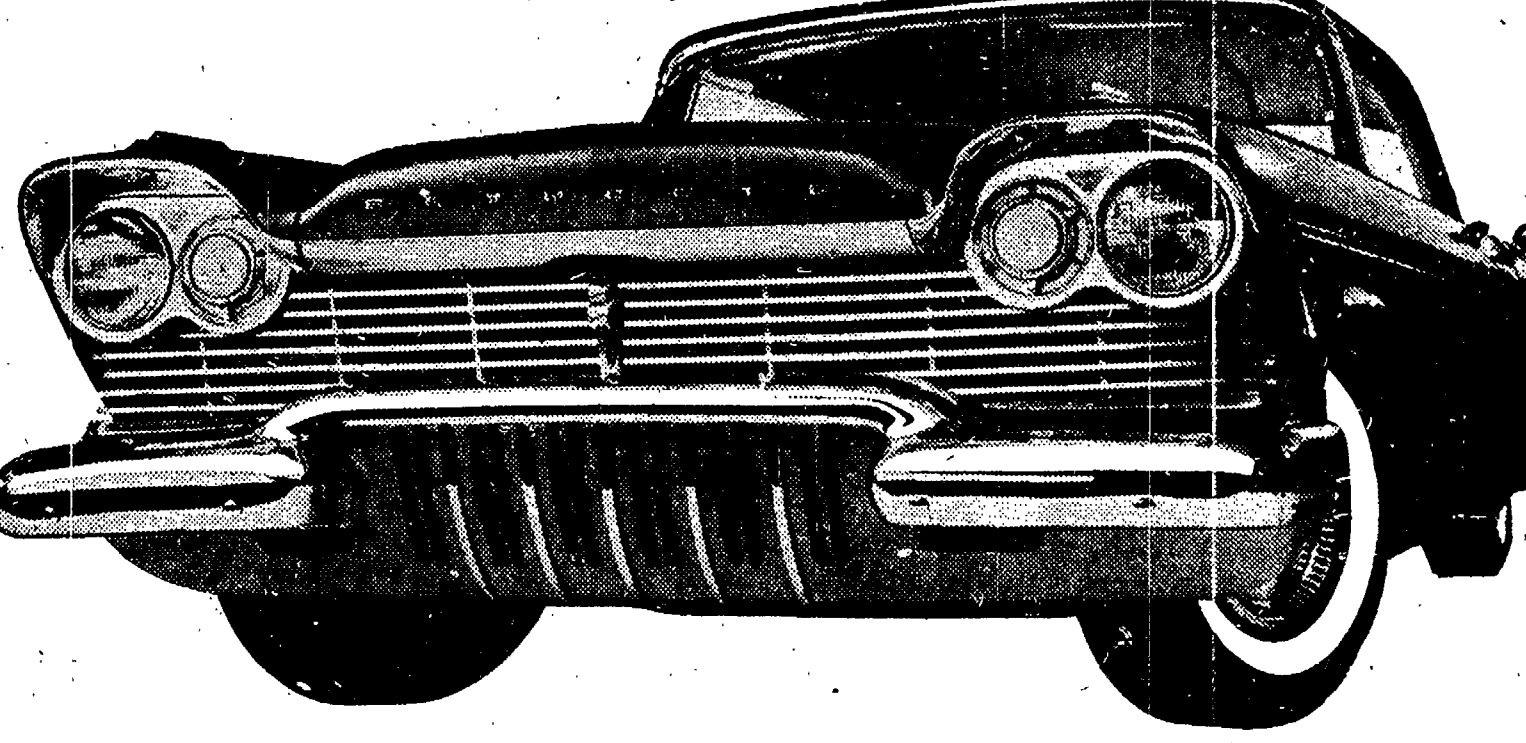

Tying in with this observance will be a new Traffic Safety Association poster to be erected next Monday (November 5) with the theme, "In Traffic, Too—Every Life Is Sacred."

Thanks for Our Birthday

With this issue the Grosse Pointe News completes another year. With the knowledge that by the time we come off the press, the election fury will have spent itself and the frantic cries of the politicians will have been carried away by the winds of their own creation, a little reminiscence and a quiet expression of thanks may be permissible.

Thoughts go back to 16 years ago tonight, when the first issue of the News was being given birth in a makeshift, one room office on the second floor of the Punch and Judy Building.

The staff numbered four, representing very little total previous newspaper experience, but possessing a wealth of enthusiasm which seemed to compensate for the lack of equipment at hand, and certainly diminished the obstacle of nervousness which would have been far more dominant among those who had been through such a frightening ordeal before. It was one of those times when innocence is bliss and the desire to create overcomes the tension that might spell failure.

The first issue came out, and was delivered with the help of a number of staunch friends not on the payroll, but the birth pangs had not ended. They went on for weeks and months, while order was being brought out of chaos, and deadlines were being learned, and we were all trying to convince potential readers and advertisers that we had a mission to fulfill in the community.

We shall be eternally indebted to those stout souls who were with us at the beginning, and to all of those who have been with us since. Mentally reviewing the 16 years that have passed we recall so many debts that have been incurred; some of which we hope we have repaid, for it has been a rewarding experience of the give and take variety.

Our most cherished file is the one which contains hundreds of letters and notes from organizations and individuals saying that we have been of help to them in one way or another. The opportunity to be of help was one of our chief considerations when the paper was launched. For any measure of success we have attained along these lines, we are deeply grateful.

We are appreciative of all the cooperation we have received from so many sources during the years. A small paper is largely dependent upon outside help. It is impossible to cover every event and we are fully aware that if it were not for the publicity chairmen of the many organizations, for the public officials and employees who furnish much of our news, and for the legion friends who continually feed us information and ideas, we would be in a sorry state.

There have been many changes in the Pointe during these last 16 years. We have seen the population practically double. A tremendous program of building has seen the creation of thousands of new homes, many new schools and churches, hospital expansion, a fine new Central Library and the development of the War Memorial Center.

There have also been hundreds of new business establishments coming into being. Many of them have prospered beyond their fondest expectations. We like to feel that we have had a part in all this great expansion and we constantly tell ourselves if we don't continue to keep pace with the procession we ought to have our heads examined.

In 1945, when the News was five years old, it built its own offices under the elm tree in the Kercheval-on-the-Hill district. Continued growth, again thanks to our many friends, found us bulging a bit at the seams and this summer we broke ground for an addition. At the same time, the original building was given a general refurbishing, and a new heating system and air conditioning units to service the entire plant were installed.

This project has just been completed and we'd like to share our pride in the new set-up with all those who have helped make it possible. Any visitors will be most cordially welcomed at 99 Kercheval avenue.

The birth pangs ended some time ago, but the growing pains linger on and we hope they will always be with us. They mean more and more friends are giving us ever-increasing cooperation, and pain assumes all the aspects of pleasure when such is the case.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Mr. Edgar: On behalf of the Grosse Pointe Halloween committee, I wish to thank you for the excellent publicity we received from your newspaper this year. This splendid cooperation is a great assistance in acquainting the residents of Grosse Pointe with the committee's plans. Chief Louwers, speaking for all the police departments, said, "As a whole the police departments on the night of October 31-November 1, experienced no problems. It was a very successful Halloween." Approximately 4000 students attended the three parties that evening. Mrs. John S. Malcolm, assisted by 90 adults, dispensed 170 cases of pop, 41 gallons of cider, 82 dozen donuts, 65 pounds of hot dogs. 74 pounds of sloppy joe, 25 dozen tuna fish sandwiches, 76 dozen packages of potato chips, ice cream, candy and milk. All were sold at a very nominal cost. Eight top stage acts, continuous showing of movies, and three orchestras for dancing were at all schools. The appreciation of the entire community goes to Mr. Forrest Geary, his committee, and the school staff members who volunteered their time for the splendid evening of entertainment provided for our children. We also thank the many citizens and organizations who contributed generously their time and money to insure another safe Halloween. Sincerely Mrs. Fred M. Lewis Publicity Chairman G. P. Halloween Committee

Grosse-Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"If neither cold poverty, famished and gaunt, Nor sickness nor pain Of body or brain Can turn you away from the thing that you want, If dogged and grim you besiege and beset it, You'll get it!" (Berton Braley)

What with the excitement of the elections, the ghastly trouble in Hungary and in the Near East, we are in no mood for a column of nonsensical nothings... but Ye Olde Editor (and we MEAN OLD) has threatened to cut off our old age pension if we miss another column this year... soooooo, if he doesn't cut the following paragraph, at least we will have started!

A local woman was sent a small piece of yarn by her teen-aged daughter who is away at an Eastern School... requesting that Mom order some of the same shade of wool for her sweater to be mended... and send it to her too sweet. In the hurly-burly of everyday life, mother dear lost the sample of wool and promptly sent her daughter a wire reading: "Send another sample of yarn. Love, mother."

When the sub-deb received the wire at school, it read as follows: "Please send another sample of urine. Love, mother." The raised eyebrows at school didn't help our young heroine's embarrassment any... but telegraph operators will be telegraph operators... no matter which way you slice it!

A story is going the rounds about the famous actress who is in England making a picture. It seems she came into her hotel suite one afternoon and found a window cleaning gent hanging onto the outside of the hotel making with the soap and sponges. Curious, she walked over to the window and watched him for a few seconds... while still wearing her fur coat. That in itself is not very startling... except that the window cleaner never even glanced at her. Since the gal has been besieged with fans trying to get at her... she was mildly startled at the young man keeping about his business.

She took the coat off... and moved closer to the window... (wearing one of those famous DEC-A-LA TAY frocks)... but still no tumble from the window washer. Finally our heroine, really piqued, took her dress off and paraded back and forth before the window in a luscious Parisienne slip. No soap... except what our hero was using on the window. This time, our heroine walked smack up to the window and stared at the busy character. AT LAST... he looked up... and said: "What's the matter lady... never seen a window washer before?"

Sonny Elliot (of whom there is no sunnier) has really started something on his weather show. He is offering an RCA Victor portable t-v set to anyone who can predict what the weather will be like on Thanksgiving day... which is November 22nd in these here now parts. The contest is on now and the deadline is NOV. the 17th. Ya gotta give Detroit's official temperature and wind velocity for six fifteen on the nose on turkey day. Send your guess to "Weather, WWJ-t-v, Detroit 31." There will be other prizes for those who come close or if there aren't, there should be. We are too tired at the moment to think about it so will put our guess down here... i.e. We will have four inches of snow.

We used to think that baseball and the Tigers were the only big fat thing in Detroit for sports fans until the Lions football team started making hay. Since we know as much about football as we know about training a race horse... it amazes us to see so many men and women fascinated by the game on t.v. Last Sunday, ferinstance we were late arriving at a cocktail party to which we had been invited (naturally)... and as we walked into the library full of the late news about Mr. Dulles and the situation in Egypt... everyone was GLUED to the t-v set watching the game. Always the one to hope for a dramatic entrance, we announced in loud tones, "Have you all heard the latest about Egypt?" TO A MAN... everyone in the room went "shhhhh." One man near the door was kind enough to whisper to us: "The Lions are about to make a touchdown." Viva La Americana!

Far be it from us to belittle the new safety belts in automobiles... but we read of an experience one local gent had that makes us wonder. He is the type that is so sold on safety belts in cars, that he won't drive three blocks without fastening himself to the seat with a vengeance. One night last week, he had the misfortune to side swipe a car whose driver was large, burly and in a bad mood.

The latter yelled at our hero... the usual patter in such cases... and our friend of the car-seat belt yelled back. This was not enough, however. The driver who was hit, got out of his car, walked over to the strapped in gent and promptly reached in the window and "belted" our friend one on the nose. Naturally he couldn't retaliate in time because he was so strapped up he couldn't move! See what we mean???

Everything happens to us. One day last week... just about dusk... we stopped in to see a woman friend of ours for the sole purpose of looking at some new gadget she had purchased for the outdoor terrace. Before going outdoors, we sat and chatted for awhile... and finally some other friends dropped in... so we meandered onto the terrace to take a gander.

About two minutes before we were ready to come indoors again... we heard a slight click... and found our hostess had missed us so much that she closed and locked the door to the terrace, leaving us standing out there in the dafk. By this time, the women who had gathered in the livingroom were yakking so much and so loud no one could hear us. BUT our trusty class ring came to the fore... we just banged on the glass door until we got the attention of the hostess. Then the key stuck in the door... but that's another story which we shall continue next week... if we are still on the payroll!

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

"Inherit the Wind" with Melvin Douglas in the leading role, has been enthusiastically received by Detroit audiences during the past week or two. Based on the famous 1925 Scopes "Monkey Trial" in Dayton, Tennessee, the play only thinly disguises the real characters, Clarence Darrow as the defense counsel, William Jennings Bryan, H. L. Mencken and John T. Scopes, who violated the law by teaching Darwin's theory of evolution.

We went promptly from the theater to the library shelves to refresh our memory of the case. There, side by side brushing shoulders - by reason of the Dewey arrangement - stood Clarence Darrow and Charles Darwin.

You may be interested in reviewing the story of the great criminal lawyer, who upheld many unpopular causes. He enlists your sympathy and admiration in his autobiography, THE STORY OF MY LIFE, even though you may not always agree with him.

A year before this book was published, Clarence Yale Harrison wrote a tribute to this rugged personality, CLARENCE DARROW, MAN OF THE PEOPLE, in which he comments graphically and clearly on the great Darrow cases.

Shortly after Darrow's death, Irving Stone wrote of his turbulent career in CLARENCE DARROW FOR THE DEFENSE.

The blamey young reporter in the play is instantly recognizable as H. L. Mencken, who soared to popularity in the twenties. Read less of late, he again made headlines when a few months ago came the book MINORITY REPORT in which the jottings of his note books have been brought together and published posthumously.

Your library has two new and delightful films of special interest to children from preschool age to nine years, MAKE WAY FOR DUCKLINGS and THE STORY OF PING.

If you have young children in your home, you are no doubt familiar with these two favorite picture books. They are two of a dozen or more popular titles which constitute the basis of a series of films, THE PICTURE BOOK PARADE. Each of these "iconographic" films adapts a picture book to the screen, using a unique technique that transfers the original illustrations to this medium.

Clever manipulation of the camera achieves a remarkable sense of movement and the story and pictures come alive although there is no actual animation.

All films in the library collection are 16 millimeter sound and available without charge on 24-hour loans. They are circulated on an adult library card from the Central Library, at Kercheval and Fisher road, and may be reserved in advance by telephone at TU.4-2200.

James Stephens once said that "A Lephechaun is of more value to the earth than is a Prime Minister." The magical words "Once upon a time" still have the power to transport children to the land of make-believe where fairies, leprechauns, goblins and giants abound.

Story Hours for boys and girls of school age are again under way at all three libraries. Mrs. Mary Gaboda will tell the stories at the Woods Branch every Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Miss Jacqueline Hosking will be the tale teller at Central, on Fridays, and at the Park Branch on Tuesdays, both story hours to begin promptly at 4 p.m.

The children of our community have a treat in store next Saturday, November 10, when The American Association of University Women present The Michigan State University Players in PETER, PETER, PUMPKIN EATER at the Parcels Junior Auditorium. There will be two performances: 10:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. The tickets are 50 cents.

Traffic Crashes Kill 164 in Sept.

There were 164 persons killed in Michigan traffic accidents in September, or five more than in the same month a year ago, according to the State Police monthly summary report.

The increase reversed a downward trend that had prevailed from April through August, but the first nine months of the year nevertheless showed a net decrease of 119 deaths under the same period in 1955. The total was 1,291 compared with 1,410, a reduction of eight percent.

Although September gained, there were actually fewer fatal accidents, the increase being accounted for by multiple death accidents. All of the increase was in rural areas and more than offset a decrease in urban areas.

Injuries were reduced one percent, or 5,069 compared with 5,104. Accidents went up one percent from 15,631 to 15,831.

For the nine-month period injuries increased one percent from 43,403 to 43,988 and accidents gained five percent from 136,759 to 143,690.

Have A T.B. X-Ray

By Fred Kopp, R. Ph.

Doctors find upon examining people that many of them, have had T.B. and didn't know it. They are the lucky ones for without care their condition corrected itself.

But think of all the others, in whom the disease continues to develop unchecked. In most states T.B. X-rays are a part of public health service sponsored by the State Medical Association.

Ask your doctor about a T.B. X-ray.

A good prescription consists of pure, high potency drugs combined skillfully by an experienced pharmacist.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Queues of anxious Christmas shoppers, determined not to miss a single prize item, will be lining up before the doors of Christ Church two weeks from today long before the doors open at 10 o'clock on the most magnificent fair of them all.

This year's Christmas Fair on November 15 will offer the most luxurious wares yet, in celebration of the silver anniversary of the bazaar.

Just to whet your appetite we have checked on some of the more outstanding offerings which will go on sale like the three yard Appense lace tablecloths, for which Mrs. Milton Volkens, chairman of the House Beautiful booth, has already had several orders at a very fancy price.

Ladies working for this booth very cleverly have invented "hush cloths," flannel backed twill bridge cloths to you uninitiated. Just the thing for that aunt on your Christmas list who has everything.

Another fabulous gift would be one of the reversible wool embroidered chaise lounge covers, which Mrs. Rivard Klippel has hand stitched for the Fair.

Take Home Dinner

To consider the more practical aspects, such as food, was delighted to learn that Mrs. William Hoey's Kitchen Korner will feature meat casseroles. A very fetching idea as madam can continue her shopping till the last minute and take home one of the gourmet dishes to feed her family.

The Fair this year will benefit the new Episcopal Church being built in Centerline and the Centerline Auxiliary has fallen to with a will and contributed 100 pints of chili sauce for the Fair.

Massachusetts, Virginia, Ohio and Canada were some of the spots visited by Mrs. Edwin E. Evans this summer while she was scouting around for her Antique booth. She found an old-fashioned brass fireplace fender with seats on each side which will be the conversion piece of some Pointer's hearth. Lowestoft by the dozen, too, will be on sale for the china collector.

The children's smocked dresses, complete with monogrammed names, may be ordered from Mrs. Paul Gard or Mrs. Frederick Whitney in time for Christmas delivery.

Quaint Lunch Baskets

Another precious gift for a little girl would be one of those white wicker lunch baskets appliqued with a red felt riding hood. Mrs. Mark Stevens heads the bags and baskets booth.

But for our money the most exciting display will be the Christmas wonderland . . . decorations to delight every householder for the merry season coming fast upon us.

These fabulous designs have been in the making for many weeks at Mrs. Richard Webber's Lakeshore road home.

Thimble roses and pearls deck the delicate white feather holiday trees, by Mrs. Lansing Pittman and Mrs. B. E. Taylor, Jr.

For your dining room table, Mrs. Raymond C. Leonard and Mrs. Edwin Mercer have just put the finishing touches on a golden carousel, with white felt horses prancing.

More Holiday Trims

"Topiary Tree" is the masterpiece of dazzling white parchment festooned with pink carnations in the French manner. This is the handiwork of Mrs. Leslie P. McDougal, Jr., and Mrs. Edward R. Grace, Jr.

Then there are the stylized white wooden Swedish birds for a very modern note and unusual Venetian Christmas trees in bright red or green velvet for your front door. These are trimmed with jewels and gold beads. Other

Her white silk taffeta wedding gown was designed with a sabrina neckline and a slim Empire bodice deepening into a bouffant skirt which flared into a chapel train. A small pillbox held her fingertip illusion veil and she carried a white orchid with her prayer book.

Mrs. Anne Mueller, of Birmingham, was matron of honor and Gail Long, Eileen Rush and Jean Gorges were bridesmaids. They wore bronze taffeta with small matching hats. The honor attendant carried Fuji mums and the maids' flowers were yellow mums.

Mrs. Ayotte was in a gown of dusty rose lace and silk jersey and Mrs. Mueller chose Dior blue lace and silk jersey.

Following a reception in the church parlors the pair left for Fairbanks, Alaska, where they will make their home for the next two years.

For Sea Food Fans

Another of those famous sea food orgies is on the Hunt Club docket for this Friday night. The Navarre Bennetts are in charge of this one with the Donald A. Martins lending a hand.

Mrs. Sterling Graham's noted murals, featuring those wacky marine animals will again be the main decor. The emphasis is on food with oysters, raw, Casino and Rockefeller; clams, steamed and on the half shell; lobsters, broiled and boiled, shrimp, smelt and scallops. For those who can't bear such gustatory delights there will be a land-lubbers' wit hsteak the main item of fare.

The Alfred R. Glancys will be back from the Horse Show in New York in time to attend and so will the Bennetts, who have been up north shooting partridge.

Others with reservations are the Jack B. Huntresses, the Thomas Morris, the John K. Roneys, the Peter Dicksons and Ferdinand Reich.

More news for you equestrians, the Hunt Club's annual fall invitational meet, postponed this fall, will be coming up on November 25, in time for young riders away at school to return to their mounts at the Thanksgiving recess.

Pointers Attend DAC Election Night Party

Buffet Dinner Follows Returns for Club Revelers; Reservations Pouring in for Dinner Dance Show on Thanksgiving Week-end

Grosse Pointe members of the Detroit Athletic Club are getting reservations in rapidly for the club's special Thanksgiving week dinner-dance and floor show. Even this early, a holiday mood is casting its sparkle around the six-evening festivity to open Monday, November 19, and continue through the following Saturday—on Thanksgiving night, too.

So much excitement — announcement of the November holiday gala comes swiftly on the heels of this Tuesday's Election Night open house at the club when many Pointers-joined fellow DAC'ers of Birmingham, Bloomfield and Detroit for a magnificent buffet dinner and to follow the national election returns via television and radio receivers around the clubhouse.

Back to the dinner-dance show ahead—the fun will start at 7 o'clock each evening, with many groups gathering first for cocktails in the lounge or private dining rooms. Entertainment time at 9:30 will present the stars—Florin Zabach to thrill with his violin in popular music, and a songstress from Spain, Margarita Sierra, who injects rhythmic eastern beats throughout her singing for change of pace and color.

Grosse Pointers who already have tagged tables for one or another evening of the week include the Ned Kriehoffs, the Kenneth W. Cunninghams, the Charles A. Gallanos, the Edwin H. Bowers, the Henry A. Bokrams, Dr. and Mrs. A. D. Ruedemann, Jr., the William Tous-cans, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Jones, the Charles Koehns, the H. F. Siewerts.

The DAC's Election Night open house was informal—the distaff side found it especially delightful to be welcomed in the first floor rooms which are the sanctum sanctorum of the masculine element except at times of the very occasional open house.

Buffet tables in the Pontchartrain room were stocked all evening with delectable viands. Tables for the groups and foursomes were in the main dining and Georgian rooms.

In a group together were the Fred A. Rohns, the Jay Rohns, the Leo J. Kays, Mr. and Mrs. Allan A. Wales, the George Mofettes, the Charles Mercills and the Dean Alexanders.

The H. John Hagens entertained the E. Jean Littles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Letts and the Frank G. Murphys. The Ernest C. Graham's guests were the Hal Kleimanns, and with the Joseph J. Conlisk were their daughter, Mary, and Evelyn Schrage.

Dr. and Mrs. James R. Marshall were hosts to their son and daughter-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. James R. Marshall, Jr.; the Frank Kuhns were there, and the Clarence W. Treadwells and the Taylor H. Seebers were together.

Thrift Shop Toy Drive Begins Today

Baby DWIGHT CAMPBELL, looks longingly at the train his mother is donating to the annual Thrift Shop Drive for toys to give to needy children at Christmas. The drive begins today and will continue for two weeks.

POOR JUDGMENT

Don't put your confidence in a man who continually puts his in the wrong places.

Two to Attend Scout Parley

The Grosse Pointe District of Metropolitan Detroit Girl Scouts is sending two representatives to the Great Lakes Regional Conference, which will be held in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, November 12, 13, and 14.

Representing Grosse Pointe will be Mrs. Harold Fleming, the District Public Relations chairman and Mrs. Larry Gentile, St. Paul Neighborhood chairman.

Also attending the Conference from Grosse-Pointe will be Mrs. Harry Finlay, representing Metropolitan Detroit Girl Scouts in her capacity as a member of the Coordinating Camp Committee; Senor Girl Scout Carol Easton of Mariner Troop No. 385 (chosen by vote); and Miss Muriel Reamore of the Grosse Pointe Camp Committee.

The Great Lakes Region Conference will be attended by representatives from Illinois, Michigan, Indiana, and Wisconsin.

LACKS INTEGRITY

The narrow-minded individual doesn't have enough backbone to back down from a wrong position.

Opera Tea Lures Pointers

New members of the Women's Association for the Michigan Opera Company were welcomed at a tea last Monday in the home of Mrs. Judge Wesley Bearden in Birmingham.

Mrs. Thomas V. LeCicero, president of the Association, gave a welcoming address and outlined the aims and plans for the coming season.

The main activity will be the promotion of the three operas, "Il Pagliacci," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "La Tosca" to be presented by the Michigan Opera Company in the new Edsel and Henry Ford Auditorium.

Artists from the Michigan Opera Company were on hand to meet the ladies and to entertain them with operatic selections.

Mrs. Lawrence S. Heintz was general chairman for the event. The following ladies were on her committee: Mesdames Kai Rasmussen, Matthew Cammareri, Irving Brown and A. G. Fuhrman.

Exchanging musical small talk and balancing tea cups the following Grosse Pointers were seen: Mrs. James P. Neville, Mrs. Cass Piotrowski, Mrs. Eugene C. Mathivet, Mrs. Alois S. Chronowski, Mrs. Hugh A. Wichert, Mrs. John P. Mansfield, Mrs. Alex Rosati, Mrs. John Gardella and Mrs. George Roumell.

Pointers Turn Out For Opera Opening

President of the Opera Association, Leslie C. Allman and Mrs. Allman Entertain 25 at Dinner at DAC Before Curtain; Jussi Bjoerling Stars in "Rigoletto" at Masonic Temple

Detroit's Grand Opera Association brought the New York City Opera Company to this city last night to open a week of performances at the Masonic Temple.

Pointe music lovers were in their seats early for the opening night to hear famous tenor, Jussi Bjoerling, in the role of the Duke of Mantua in "Rigoletto."

President of the Opera Association Leslie C. Allman with Mrs. Allman hosted a party of 25 at the DAC for an early dinner before the curtain.

The honored guests were Col. and Mrs. John A. Warner of New York. Mrs. Warner is the daughter of the late Al Smith. The Herbert B. Trixex made up a table with the Raymond T. Perrings, of Bloomfield Hills, at the DAC.

Attending were the Italian Consul and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Antonio Carloni. The Carlonis will entertain their countryman and Metropolitan tenor, Valletti, Saturday night before the opera.

Others from the Pointe at "Rigoletto" were Mrs. Miles O'Brien, Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Mrs. Standish Backus, the Roger W. Hulls, and the John Churchills.

Also at the first night were the Frank W. Donovan's, the Karl O. Van Leuven's, the Daniel Goodenough's, the E. Llywd Ecclestones and the John McLucas.

He Shakes Hands With the Stars

Earl Wilson's column reads like a "who's who" in show business. He gives you fresh, revealing glimpses of stage, screen, radio, TV stars the world over. He's frank and he's witty. When asked why he travels around so much, Wilson says, "Some of the best folks are outside New York. I want to find out what they're laughing about... and report it to my readers." Meet the stars in Wilson's column, It Happened Last Night. It begins in the Detroit Free Press on Sunday, Nov. 11.

UD Set for Big Sadie Shuffle

A first night performance that is bent on failure and which students are happy to see fold up will be held this Saturday at the University of Detroit.

The eleventh annual Sadie Schuffie with a theme of Mr. First Nighter and overtures of "Lil Abner" has students turning the age old precedent of dating around.

A date bureau has been open for three weeks to allow coeds to run down and trap unwitting males who fill this campus. No one seems to be worried over losing face however because the Sadie Shuffle is only bent on a one night stand lest man's dominance on dating be lost.

Barbara Untie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Untie of 1346 Hampton road, Grosse Pointe, is trying to adjust students to the new change. Miss Untie, a junior in the Arts College, says that already 500 couples have been processed through the date bureau. The former St. Paul student is general chairman of the fiasco.

Another area coed, Joan Heidt, daughter of Mrs. M. Heidt of 1620 Fair court is decoration chairman for the dance. The Memorial Building has taken on a new face since the ingenious Miss Heidt started operations.

Inks used in ball point pens are different. So, removal of such ink stains on fabrics require different treatment. Most of such stains can be removed completely by repeated sponging with acetone. However . . . a word of warning . . . acetone can not be used on acetate, Arnel, or Dynel fabrics because it will dissolve them. Some ballpoint inks are washable. But, others are set by washing. So, always test ink on a scrap of similar material before trying to wash the stain out of a fabric.

Archconfraternity Plans Holiday Fair

St. Clare de Montefalco Women Busy Completing Preparations for Big Event to be Held on November 14 and 15

A Fair with a Holiday Air is being staged by the Archconfraternity of St. Clare of Montefalco on Wednesday, November 14 and Thursday, November 15.

Decorators are taking over the church auditorium to turn it into a gay and festive background for the many booths to be featured.

Mrs. L. J. Steiner has aprons ranging from sequin "cuties" to denim for barbecues; dolls, lovely and cuddly and stuffed animals have been gathered by Mrs. Joseph Feist. The committee of Mrs. Joseph Murphy has been working long hours on gay Christmas decorations and ornaments. Smart tailored and glamorous jewelry and fine china will grace the display of Mrs. John McGrath.

Goodies in the bakery department, jellies and canned fruit in the country store are all the work of Mrs. T. Edward O'Connor and her group. No committee has been more active in their preparation than Mrs. Joseph Schulte's. All summer these ladies have met to sew and knit their fine baby garments and clothes for toddlers.

There will be a religious booth, so fitting to this season, with Mrs. Thomas DeCorte selecting lovely Christmas gifts and a really exciting "miscellaneous" booth under Mrs. Edward Schott.

The gaiety of the occasion will be further augmented with lovely flower carts to be paraded in the aisles by Mrs. F. Christensen, and the white elephants are being handled by Mrs. T. S. Huminski.

The affair promises to be a social, as well as business success with Mrs. H. P. Munger's refreshment stand available for lunch and snacks and the hours (they will be open from 10 to 12) geared to include the teenagers and especially the men who are most often overlooked at these affairs. Men are usually surprised to find what fun a Fair can be and how efficiently and well the women on his Christmas list can be taken care of.

The high school crowd will find games to their taste and gifts to fit their purses in the Children's corner which will also cater to the wee ones. Mrs. Toby David has arranged for a merry-go-round and popcorn machine to appeal to this age group.

Mrs. Michael J. Chargot and Mrs. Thomas LoCicero are co-chairmen of this Holiday Fair. It's human nature that causes people to be in favor of any tax that the other fellow has to pay.

St. Clare Parish To Hold Holiday Fair

A fractured knee-cap didn't stop general chairman, Mrs. M. J. Chargot from working on the Holiday Fair which is being sponsored by the Archconfraternity of St. Clare of Montefalco Parish. It will be held in the church auditorium on Wednesday and Thursday, November 14 and 15, from 10 a.m. to 10 p.m. on both days.

Newcomers To Hold Party

A court whist party will be given for the Grosse Pointe Newcomer's Club at 8 o'clock on Friday, November 9, at St. Michael's Episcopal Church.

This third party of the season will be chaired by the Richard Kellers, the Robert Hesses, the Paul Hoffmans and the Weymouth MacDaniels.

The committee for the annual Christmas Dance has formulated plans and announced that the gala will be held on Saturday, December 1 at the Lochmoor Club. More information will be mailed to all Newcomers and alumnae soon.

St. Matthew's To Hold Fair

Throughout the fall the ladies of St. Matthew's Church have been organizing their annual Christmas Fair to be held this year for three days on November 30, December 1 and 2 in the school gymnasium at Whitford road and Harper avenue.

Holiday decorations, aprons, dolls, baby clothes, antiques, china and baked goods are some of the wares which will be offered says Mrs. William Sherman, chairman of the Fair.

A roast beef dinner will be served on Sunday, December 1 from 1 to 6 o'clock in the church auditorium.

Others working on the bazaar are Mrs. John Quirk, co-chairman, Mrs. J. Bruce Costa, Mrs. Don Hatzenbuehler, Mrs. Charles Landine, Mrs. E. C. Otto and Mrs. Cyril Wanket.

Mrs. Robert Huth, Mrs. Maurice Chevalier, Mrs. Fred Troe, Mrs. Louis Jensen, Mrs. E. F. Simmons, Mrs. Harry Gorrien, Mrs. Alvin Bohlander, Mrs. Anthony Caffrey, Mrs. Michael Sloan and Mrs. Larry Zorn also are in charge of booths.

HOERNER HONORED

Douglass A. Hoerner of Beaconsfield, certified public accountant, has been elected a member of the American Institute of Accountants, national professional society of CPAs.

Robert B. Woods Hosts At Anniversary Dinner

Two wedding anniversaries were celebrated when Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Wood of Grayton road, hosted a small dinner, followed by dancing, at the Detroit Athletic Club last Saturday, November 3.

The fete marked Mr. and Mrs. Wood's eleventh anniversary, and the fifth anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ben Orr, Jr., also of Grayton road. Completing the party were the Wallace G. Wheelers of Southfield Township.

In the afternoon, the Woods and the Wheelers attended the Michigan State-Wisconsin football game at Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Orr joining them at the DAC for the 8 o'clock dinner.

Matinee Musicals Honors Pointer Moving East

Matinee Musical is planning a November meeting in honor of Mrs. A. E. Benson, of Kerby road. Mr. and Mrs. Benson are leaving Grosse Pointe and Detroit to become permanent residents of New York.

Mrs. W. H. Burreigh has invited the club to her home on Grayton road, this Thursday for the occasion.

Mrs. C. R. Eilber, president, will preside over a short business meeting which is to precede luncheon at 12:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Donald Douglass will assist as luncheon hostess, and Mrs. J. T. Sanford, chairman of the day, is presenting members in a musical program.

Japanese Send Fair Donation

The Woman's Society of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church acquired an interesting last minute addition, a Japanese booth, to their Fantasy Fair, held on Friday, November 2, from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m., at the church in Moross road.

A donation to their Fair arrived from the Youth Group of the Miki Christian Church in Japan, which was started by Rev. and Mrs. Hugh C. White of the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church this past summer.

Mrs. Wallace G. Brownson, president of the Woman's Society, managed the booth.

Items for sale included chopsticks, fans, children's kimonos, tea towels and bath towels, fruit forks, and scarfs.

Most of the articles are imported by the Japanese characters. The display was small, limited by the Youth Group's postage fund, but their generosity is deeply appreciated by the church women.

We got it! We got it! Newest Buick Yet YOU know all that talk you've been hearing about the 1957 new car models being really new? Well, in the case of the 1957 Buicks it's true—gospel true. We mean these 1957 Buicks are new in the precise and literal sense. We mean new from the ground up, and from gleaming grille to sassy taillights. We mean new lowness, new styling, new bodies, new windshields, new controls, new safety-padded instrument panels, new safety steering wheels, new seating, new fabrics, new colors. We mean new front end, new rear end, new frame, new braking, new steering, new handling, new riding, new road-ability—a whole new chassis of greater solidity and safety. We mean V8 engines new from the crankshaft up—engines that deliver an all-time high in horsepower and compression from their 364-cubic-inch displacement. And we mean, most of all, an advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo®—so instant in the starting range—so utterly smooth and so totally full-range in "Drive"—that your need for "Low" is practically eliminated. So come take in these low-silhouette, these boldly beautiful, these instantly obedient Buicks for 1957. Then you'll see why you can't blame us for being so fired up about it all—and how catching this excitement can be. *New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick built today. BIRD WATCHERS—"Pointed" advice is freely offered to 5th grade math students at Highland School in Boston by one of the school's two pet crows. The unexpected guest and his mate appeared at the window and were persuaded to come in and stay a while with the aid of a shiny half-dollar. One of the crows made off with the money, sending the owner running to the roof, where it was recovered. Here, fascinated by their new "substitute teacher" are (left to right): Paul Charow, Andrew Zuorsky, and Ann Lawrin.

HE TURNED TO STONE—Lying exactly as he fell when engulfed by flaming death 1,877 years ago, this petrified man presents a grim reminder of the devastating eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 A.D., which buried the city of Pompeii under destructive lava. He was found remarkably well preserved in a layer of lava rock during recent excavations near Pompeii's Porta Nocera. Other petrified humans have been unearthed on the site of the catastrophe before, and are now on display in the museums of Pompeii.

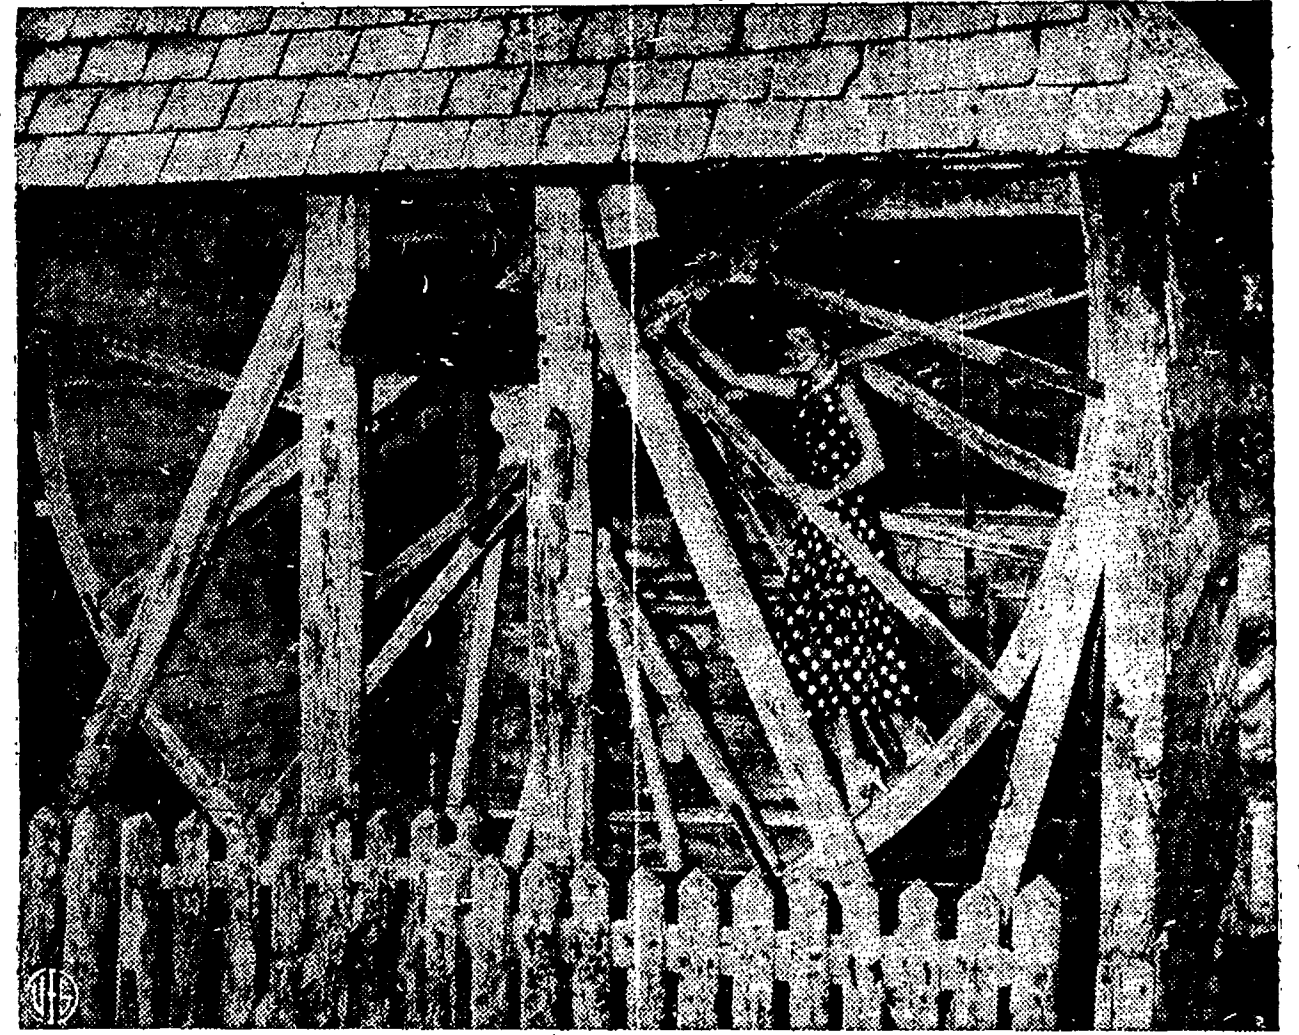

SOVIET TANKS RANGE THROUGH BUDAPEST STREETS—Soviet tanks, shown above on parade in Budapest in 1952, ranged through the city's streets echoing with machine-gun and rifle fire, as heavy street fighting was reported on Oct. 24 by first eyewitnesses to reach the West. The businessmen, who reached the Austrian border, said that "Russian tanks and heavy armored cars had blocked every street intersection in downtown Budapest." One of the eyewitnesses said that Communist party shops and official buildings had been set afire in the revolt-torn city.

ATOMIC ARTILLERY?—Just unveiled by the Army is this new 175mm cannon believed capable of firing atomic shells. Smaller and lighter than the Army's big 280mm atomic cannon, the 175mm gun fires a seven-inch shell, while the 280mm weapon uses an 11-inch round. The 280mm cannon, with its two trucks or transporters, weighs 88 tons. The new gun weighs only 37 tons, complete with tractor truck. It was demonstrated, using dummy shells, at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., but officials refused comment on the "atomic potential" of the 175mm cannon.

BOOK REVIEW—It only took a line to lick a weighty problem at Ottawa University in Ottawa, Kan., where a library had to be moved. What ordinarily amounts to a tremendous job was speedily accomplished by faculty and students, who transferred some 19,000 volumes—about 20 tons of books—in four hours by playing follow-the-leader. Led by biology professor John Baean, the students are seen here juggling the volumes some 200 yards to the new library.

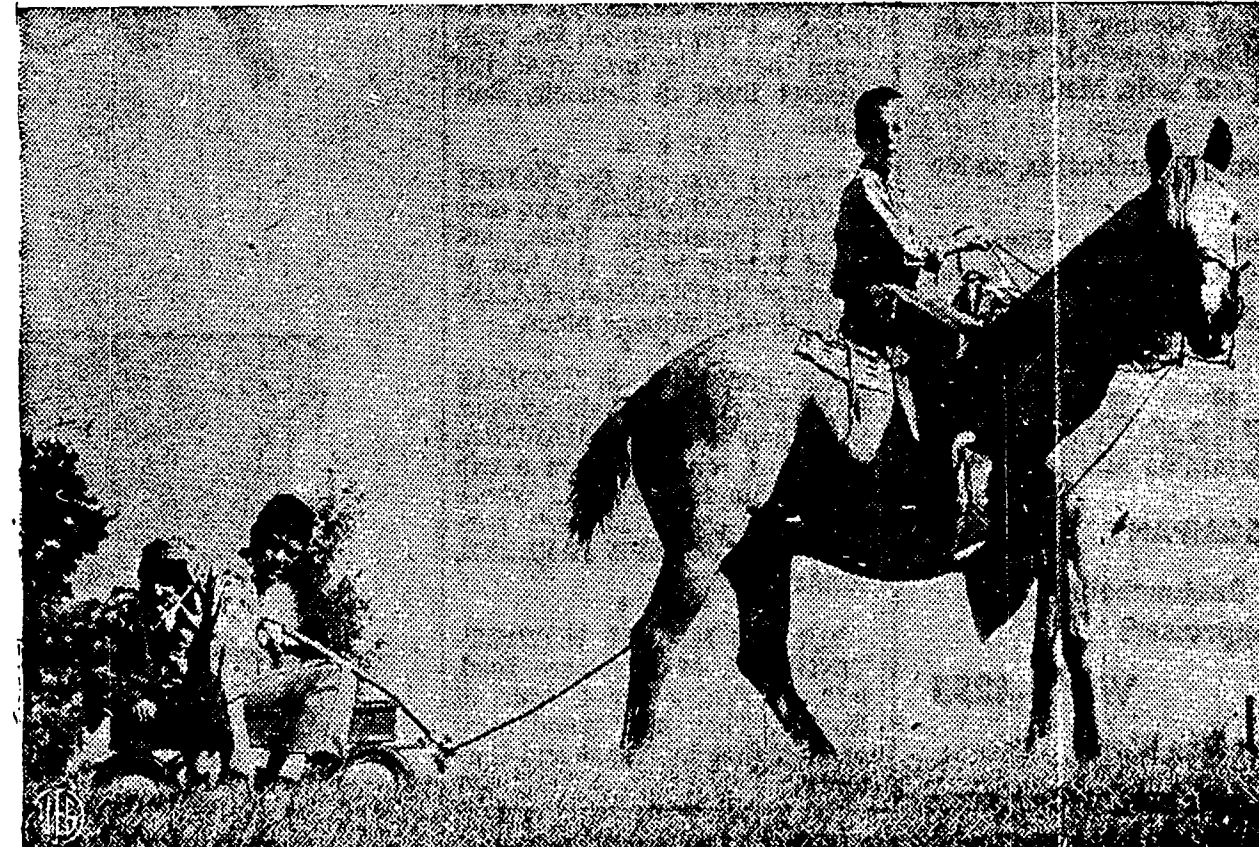

WHERE THE DONKEY TROD—An ancient treadmill is tried out by pretty Shirley Willson at Saddlescombe, England. One of the few remaining in England, the treadmill is believed to be nearly 300 years old. A donkey once walked inside the wheel, making it turn and pump water from a 175-foot well nearby.

SATELLITE GAZERS—What looks like an outdoor class is a practice session of artificial satellite observers at Silver Springs, Md. Getting ready for "Project Moonwatch," the observers were going through a dry run in preparation for the launching of the man-made moon next year. Sponsored by the Smithsonian Institution, the observation station is a prototype of 50 "moonwatch" stations to be set up across the country.

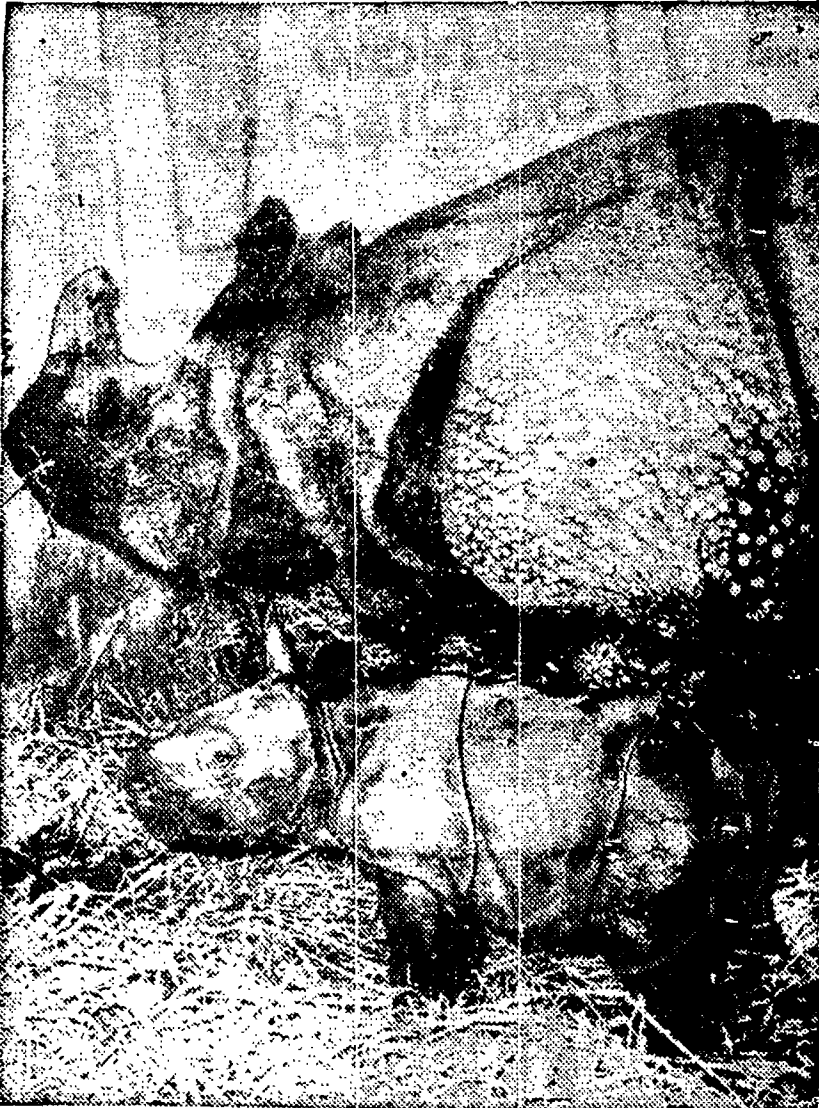

SEEING RED?—Getting a periscopic peek across the demilitarized zone into territory held by North Korean Communists is Admiral Felix B. Stump, Commander in Chief of the Pacific. The admiral's inspection of the Korean truce line was part of his current tour of U. S. military forces in the Far East.

TALK ABOUT HORSEPOWER!—All the new car models are being unveiled throughout the land. There is ecstatic talk about lower, longer lines of the 1957 autos and the usual excitement over comparative horsepower. These fellows at Portland, Wis., reveal their 1957 transportation development. Theodore Martin (left), Vaughn Hanke, and Jay Hanke (on horse) prove they belong to the horsey set.

"MISS SUGAR DONUT"—Lu Ann Warren, 19, of River Edge, N. J., smiles sweetly upon being crowned "Miss Sugar Donut of 1956," making her eligible to compete in the 18th annual National Donut Week Queen contest grand finals to be held in New York City, Oct. 20-27.

HISTORIC BIRTH—Mother and son are doing fine after he became the first Indian rhino in history to be born in captivity. The unique blessed event took place at a zoo in Basle, Switzerland. The mama's name is Joymothi and the baby rhino will be named the Indian word for "first-born."

OLYMPIC COUPLE—Masami Kubota, 25, and his wife, Kyoko, 23, relax in the grass and flash broad smiles after they were officially selected to represent Japan in gymnastic events at the forthcoming Olympic Games at Melbourne, Australia. It is the first time in Japan's "athletic history" that husband and wife have served on the Olympic team. Married last December, both athletes are school teachers.

SUN SPOT—Looking mighty smart with a ribbon in his long hair, two-year-old Yorkshire Terrier Gordon Hue perches on his carrying basket while waiting for the start of a dog show in London. The pooch was soaking up a little fall sunshine before the judging.

THEIR SHIP COMES IN—Pretty señoritas in Andalusian costumes invade the docks at Malaga, Spain, to greet passengers debarking from the 22,000-ton S.S. Queen Frederica, the first large transatlantic liner to make regular calls at the Andalusia port. New direct service established by Home Lines to Malaga on the sunny southern route now brings the Costa del Sol, Spain's warm winter vacationland, within a week's cruise crossing from New York.

G.P.U.S. News Notes

The Grosse Pointe University Nursery School invites the fathers of the Nursery School children to spend a typical school day with their children on Saturday morning from 9 to 12 noon, on November 3. This session is planned especially for the fathers who may not have had a chance to visit the Nursery Schools on week days.

For this session, it is requested that the father bring his child to school at 9 o'clock. The mothers have planned to serve a hot-casserole luncheon at noon.

This will be the second Fathers Day at the Nursery School and the teachers hope the fathers will enjoy it as much as they did last year.

The nursery schools in the Grosse Pointe area are working on a new edition of SWAP-IT, a collection of ideas on encouraging activities in young children. Orders have been received from Canada and several Eastern states. The book should be ready soon and will sell for $1.25. If you are interested, please call Mrs. Eleanor Cronander, 4160 Haverhill, TU 5-6328, or Mrs. Jane Bacon, 1045 Cook road, TU 4-4450.

An interesting experiment is being conducted in the Lower School at Grosse Pointe University School. The parents of children in Grades 4 through 6 have received a form called "Parent Report" accompanied by these comments: "Your child is subjected each day to two environments — that at school and that at home. Just as you receive several reports annually from the school, the school feels it would be helpful to receive reports from you concerning your child's habits, activities, and progress. In this way, the two environments can be brought in to closer harmony to the benefit of your child. . . . This report has been compiled by parents and teachers as an experiment and it is hoped that all parents will complete and return the report to the school promptly."

On this "Parent Supplementary Report" are questions on such topics as "Daily Preparation of Homework, Amount of Time Required for Homework, Bedtime, Optional Extra Interests, Progress in Citizenship at Home, i. e., Courtesy, Sportsmanship, Helpfulness, Orderliness, Response to Discipline, etc."

As of this past Monday night, there began the first of three evenings on which the teachers of the upper school will present a "sample day at G.P.U.S." for the parents of pupils at the school. This week's meeting was devoted to parents of children in the 7th and 8th grade. The next two will be for 9th and 10th graders first, then for 11th and 12 graders.

This kind of evening proved a great success last year when it was tried for the first time. The parents go to each of the child's classes for about 10 or 12 minutes where the instructor answers questions about the work and objectives of the course and sometimes conducts a demonstration of the methods he uses in the class. A somewhat longer amount of time is given to the meeting with the homeroom teacher, who describes at greater length the needs of the age group involved and other general considerations of interest to the parents.

On Friday, October 26, the teachers from Maumee Valley to a delegation of visiting teacher from Maumee Valley Country Day School near Toledo, O. These teachers used a teacher's holiday to observe Grosse Pointe University School in action.

The students of G.P.U.S. profit from a rich and varied audio-visual program guided by Mr. Beeler, Mr. Schreeman, and Mr. Cole. All sorts of films, film strips, and records are available for use by large groups as well as small classes. One such film for general use this week is a shortened version of the film classic "Les Miserables" that starred Frederic March and Charles Laughton. Also there are many projectors, record players, strip-film projectors, an opaque projector, and tape recording machines available for use.

Friday, October 26, was "Photographs for the Pericon" day, and Paul Gach was on hand from 9:30 a.m. until 4 p.m. to take pictures of various classes, societies, teams, and faculty groups.

Always a big event in school life is the publication of the various honor rolls.

Here are the announcements that found students at the Grosse Pointe University School crowding around them to learn who were the leading pupils and the outstanding citizens at the end of the first six weeks of school.

The lists that follow include the Headmaster's List and the Student Council Honor Roll. The Headmaster's List is in two groups, the first of which could be called of "summa cum laude" and "magna cum laude" quality, the second of "cum laude" quality.

The Student Council Honor Roll, unlike the other list, is not based on academic achievement but on contributions to the life of the school and on good citizenship generally. The criteria by which the student is or is not on the list are established by the Student Council members.

It is interesting to note how many pupils' names appear on both honor rolls.

Sam Armstrong Stars On Union Grid Team

SCHENECTADY, Nov. 5 — Guard Sam Armstrong of Grosse Pointe, Mich., played the finest game of his varsity career Saturday as Union College defeated heavily favored Williams 20-14.

Sam repeatedly drove into the Williams backfield to spill Williams plays before they got started. Against Hobart the week before his vicious tackle of the Hobart fullback caused a fumble deep in Hobart territory which led to a Union score.

Union upset undefeated and favored Hobart 20-7.

Sam played for Union in 1952 and 1953 before entering the service. He returned to school in February 1955. This year Coach Sam Hammerstrom converted him to guard and he has played nearly 60 minutes of every game at that position.

Union, playing some of the best small college teams in the east with hardly any reserves, has so far fashioned a 4-2 record, the best Hammerstrom has had in his seven years as head coach.

Sam is also a leading lacrosse player at Union. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Armstrong, Sr., 642 Lincoln road.

CORNELIAN CORNER

The Cornelian Corner of Detroit, Inc., will present Dr. Margaret Mead in a public meeting Friday evening, November 16, at 8:30 in the auditorium of the Henry Ford Hospital. Dr. Mead will speak on the subject: "Changing Mother-Child Relationship in a Changing World".

MASON SCHOOL

In use at Mason School are some teaching materials from half way around the world. A third grade student, Steuart White, presented to the library three beautifully illustrated books containing the Japanese fairy tales, "Taro and the Turtle," "The Tongue-Cut Sparrow" and "Little Tom Thumb."

These books were brought to the United States from Japan by Steuart's parents, Rev. and Mrs. Hugh C. White. Mrs. White had an English translation inserted into each book before she left Japan.

Miss Jane Gullett, who also returned from Japan recently, brought back Japanese books on Henry Ford, Abraham Lincoln and Benjamin Franklin. Her third grade at Mason, though unable to read the Japanese, is finding much that is familiar in the colored pictures which appear on each page. They are also enjoying the Japanese dolls and the colored film strips of Japanese fairy tales which Miss Gullett collected in Japan.

ary and each Friday afternoon, only, for grades one through six. During this time half-hour conferences will be scheduled.

While many conferences are held now concerning the work or behavior of children, this plan will insure that nearly all parents and teachers will be able to sit down and talk over the progress of our students.

Poupard parents indicated, in a survey made a year ago, that they were interested and in favor of having both report cards and parent-teacher conferences as a method of reporting their children's progress in school.

A good many people have no use for an opportunity that demands too much elbow grease.

Blocked Kick Saves Blue Devils in Final Contest

Had it not been for end Bob Hoder Grosse Pointe could have suffered its second loss of the 1956 season last Saturday, November 3, on the local gridiron. But because Hoder was in the right spot at the right time the Blue Devils walked off the field, for the last time this season, with a hard earned, 7-6, victory over a fired-up, determined Port Huron team.

Port Huron, at the outset, showed it was hungry for revenge for the beatings it has suffered at the hands of the Blue Devils over the past two seasons.

Remember Bitter Loss
Particularly were the Big Reds incensed over the smear the Pointers put on their 26 game winning streak back in 1953. That was the year the Big Reds were slated for the Class A State championship but the Pointers chopped them down in the last game of the season.

Then, of course, they hadn't forgotten the 26-0 beating of last year. Yes sir, Port Huron was as lean as a snow bound wolf and thirsting for Blue Devil meat.

Because Port Huron was so hungry for victory Coach Ed Wernet was deprived of the opportunity to substitute freely all the way to turn back the Devils' foe.

Defense Rises Up
Dick Dumas opened the game with a booming kickoff which sailed to the Huron 10 but was run out to the 25. The Devils' defensive unit played brilliantly and stalled the Big Red team in its tracks, forcing it to punt on fourth down.

A hobbled pass from center was the first break of the game as the kicker couldn't get his boot away and was forced to run. He was downed on his own 35 where the Pointers took over.

Hoping to run up a comfortable score early, the Devils began to move on the very first play from scrimmage which placed the ball on the Huron 23. It was here that Dumas rived a pass to end Russ Everett, who took the ball on the 11 and lateraled to Dan Bauer.

Bauer Makes Score
Bauer raced into the end zone for the touchdown. Port Huron was offside on the try for the extra point and a good thing for the Devils as the kick missed the uprights. On the second try the kick split the goal posts and the Pointers were out in front, 7-0, almost before the clock had a chance to warm up.

Kicking off again, Dumas sent the ball deep into Huron territory. The ball was put in play on the Huron 25 from where the determined Red team smashed its way for 76 yards and its lone touchdown and come within one point of a tie. It was here Hoder became the hero of the day and blocked the tying kick.

Hoder Saves Day
Hoder bounced into the lime-light once again and saved the day for the Devils when he intercepted quarterback Robbins pass on the Blue Devil 3 to halt the Huron's second threat near the end of the second period.

For the remainder of the game both teams battled doggedly but neither could dent the other's defense.

The victory gave the Blue Devils a very successful season with a record of 7 wins in 8 starts. The only loss was to

Wigle Keglers Take Loop Lead

Last Friday in the Grosse Pointe Business Men's Bowling League was position night. Bruce Wigle and Lochmoor waded for first place, both having the amazing record of winning 25 out of a possible 28 points.

After the match Wigle was alone in first place, having taken the measure of Lochmoor by a three and one margin, and dropping them to second place. Charlie Nash had a 523 for Wigle and Al Bell 515 for Lochmoor.

Led by Bill Baker's 533 series, Cox and Baker moved out of the cellar, as they made a sweep of their match with Adam Simms. This dropped Adam Simms to the basement of the league. Dick Warner had 500 for the losers.

Another four point winner was Revere over Marv Boutin. This was the second consecutive week that Boutin has lost all the points. They will certainly be very hungry when they meet the leaders next week. Herb Miller rolled 554 for Revere and Boutin had 506.

G. P. Recreation took three out of four from Belding. Bob Valade had 565 for the Recreation as they bowled a middle game of 976 for a new second place team record. Frank Walsh had a 521 series for Belding.

The final match of the evening saw City Glass and C. Miller split their points. A 504 for Jack Groesbeck of City Glass and 515 by Ken McVicar of Miller were the high scores for these teams.

200 scores: Bob Valade, 217; Dick Griebie, 208; Jack Baker, 207; Sweate Janson, 205; Frank Walsh, 204; Wally Buehler, 203.

Credit to Coaches
Credit must be given where credit is due and that is to Wernet's fine coaches Ernie Bauer, Bud Kurvink and George Vander Weyden. And last but not over the boys themselves who over the past decade have proven that they can dish it out as well as take it. Since the coming of Wernet the lads who have worn the blue and gold of Grosse Pointe High have brought prestige not only to themselves but to our community. Each and every one of them deserve our thanks.

Rams, Lions Play To Scoreless Tie

What figured to be a scoring battle ended in a scoreless tie between the Grosse Pointe Rams and Lions on Oct. 28 at Neighborhood Club Field. Rugged defensive play featured the afternoon and play was generally confined between the thirty yard lines.

The Lions made the best offensive gesture of the game when they penetrated to the Rams' two yard line in the closing minutes. A third down off-side penalty set the Lions back to the five yard line from where the Rams permitted very short gains for two plays to take over the ball. The determined running of Craig Thomas and Billy Lynn featured this Lion drive.

The Rams' best offensive move saw them put together three first downs on the thrusts of Jeff Garberson and Tommy Thompson to reach the nineteen yard line.

Rival coaches Woody Wilson of the Rams and Murray Robertson of the Lions both praised their defensive teams and declined to single out stars, but little Jay Busye of the Rams was certainly the best man on the field on a pound for pound basis.

Mayor Homer Fritch of the Park and Mayor Frederick Parker of the City were introduced to the crowd and remained to cheer the lads.

What the Varsity game lacked in scoring was made up for when the Lions and Rams Freshmen squads tagged a track meet, with the Lions on top 33-12. Tony Cimini, Pete Short, Chuck Riley and Sullivan scored a touchdown each for the victors. Dave McCullum, Chuck Tompkins and Frank Hodier sponsored on defense for the Lions.

Bob Gierman was the big gun for the Rams Frosh, throwing a fifty-yard touchdown pass to Al Mayer and scooting fifty yards on a reverse for the other Ram tally.

Friar Gridders Looking Ahead
By TOM LOICHEROS
JH GRADER
Despite the fact that Austin Catholic posted a disappointing 2-4 record on the gridiron this year, Austinites are looking forward to next season because of the success of the Friar Junior Varsity, who rang up four impressive wins against one loss this year.

In their first four games, the J.V.'s rolled over the junior varsities of St. Joseph and De La Salle by scores of 27 to 0 and 28 to 6, squeaked past Benedictine High 20 to 19, and powered by Servite High 28 to 6. They closed out the season with their one defeat, losing only 13 to 0 to a St. Mary of Wayne Varsity which brought a respectable 4 and 2 mark into the game.

The "Junior Friars" had many backs and linemen who displayed good potential in all their games this year and who are looking hopefully to a big varsity season next year.

Lions Defeated In Last Game

The Grosse Pointe Lions lost a 13-0 game at the home field of the Lincoln Park Bears Sunday, November 3. Undefeated over the season's play, the Bears scored the first two times they touched the ball and then settled back to hold off several Grosse Pointe threats.

The Lions saw the Bears return their opening kick-off into the end zone for the first score. Unsettled, they lost the ball on a fumble on their first play from scrimmage after the ensuing kick-off and allowed the Bears to score on a 7 yard sweep on their first play.

Except for a pair of Lion thrusts to the ten yard line, the remainder of the game was a standstill defensive battle. Ends Stewart and Brown, Dave Verkey, and Bob Craig, and Guard Tom Phillips.

The Lions were somewhat sojiced when the coaches and several players of the all-conquering Bears declared them to be by far the best team they had met this season.

Having finished their season in the All-American Little Football League, the Rams and Lions will now combine forces for a December 2 appearance at Briggs Stadium. The combined team, to be known as the Grosse Pointe Lions, will also travel to Vineland, N.J. over Thanksgiving weekend to play in the second annual Pop Warner Chick Bowl. The name Chick Bowl was adopted to honor the Vineland area as the nation's chicken growing capital.

Grosse Pointe's competition will be furnished by teams from Canton, O., Vineland, and another to be chosen.

Basketball Loops To Hold Tryouts

Boat Banter

By Fred Rumrells

It was a hilarious get together last Friday, November 2, at Bayview Yacht Club when the Mackinac racers congregated for the awarding of prizes, medals and plaques.

Joe Schoendorf, owner-skipper of "Gypsy", representing the Milwaukee Y. C., had more fun than anyone. All his crew was on hand to help carry away the big load of beautiful trophies they won in the 1956 classic.

Commodore Bob Benkert made the awards and graciously handed over the huge J. L. Hudson trophy, the Mackinac pennant, the Java Head and Mackinac Island trophies and the De Roy Plaque. The J. L. Hudson trophy is almost as big as a small barrel but smiling Schoendorf filled it to the brim with champagne for the group to swim in — and they did — every man-jack of them.

Scrubby Wellman, skipper of the yawl "Indigo" out of Mentor Harbor Y.C., was the second biggest winner. He took home the Barnacle, J. H. Grasser and William P. Fisher trophies as winner in the Cruising C class.

After that a couple of local yachtsmen came in for a share of the glory. Jimmy Carlin, last year's overall winner with "Glory Be II", won the Thunder Bay Island and the W. J. Taylor trophies for his victory in the Cruising D class.

Nubby Sarns with "Revelry" won the Cruising B De Roy trophy and the "B" Plaque. Bob Luxford, skipper of Lucan, took home to LaCrosse, Wisconsin the Lloyd W. Barry trophy for being the first boat to finish in Cruising C.

Ray Engholm, of the Royal Canadian Y. C. and owner of the "Vanhoe", last year's Cruising A winner, wasn't on hand to receive the Grosse Pointe Club trophy which goes to the first yacht over 25 years old to finish.

All the rest of the trophies went to local sailors with Pat Collins "Vitesse" taking the Pilot Trophy for being the first New York 32 to finish; Art Sempliner Jr.'s "Great Bear" earned the Mainsheet Trophy as the ketch with the best corrected time; Cliff Gray and Bill Kaiser's eight meter "Pintail" was awarded the Nagel Trophy and Bob Neesely's schooner "Malabar" once again won the Yerkes Trophy in that class.

In appreciation for the work the Coast Guard renders in patrolling the race, in which no life has ever been lost in 32 years, the BYC flag officers, Comm. Benkert, Vice Comm. Lynn Stedman Jr. and Rear Commodore John Pottle, (all Grosse Pointers incidentally), gave Captain Evor Kerr a beautiful tape recorder for the Cutter Mackinac.

Yes sir, it was a real good party — ask Joe Schoendorf and his crew.

One of our best known and best liked old timers, Ted Farnsworth, suffered a serious heart attack on Wednesday, October 31, and is in Bon Secours hospital. Ted can't have any visitors, so until he can, why not drop him a card or note. It helps a lot to cheer a guy up when he's confined.

To miss a Mackinac party is something Ted never did. He is a great one to shoot the breeze with the fellows who engage in the sport Ted loves best. And he can tell of winning Mackinac races way back in the old days when he owned "Chanty", who in her day didn't take a back seat to anyone when Ted was at the helm. In recent years and Canadian Mounted Police set the figure at 155 trapped. The explosion was caused by a gas pocket which formed in the shaft. All the trapped men were at the 3,200-foot level. Communications with them have been cut off, officials of the mine said.

At least 11 men had been brought to the surface. One of the trained rescue workers, overcome by the deadly gas, died while being administered to. A company official said every attempt is being made to break through the gas pocket to reach the workers at the mine.

HUNGARY IS SEEKING HELP from the United Nations as the Soviet Union continued pouring troops within its borders. Soviet armored forces were reported thrusting westward and closing off Hungary's frontier with Austria. Mortar and machine gun fire rattled through Western Budapest during the night and Russian troops closed in on the Hungarian capital. It is said that Russian and Hungarian troops and tanks fought in the capital and other places.

The insurgent radio station in Eger, reported Soviet troops in full war gear continued to pour across the border during the night and blocked all important roads and railways. Hungarian Premier Imre Nagy sent a second appeal in two days to the UN for a guarantee of Hungary's independence.

HOPE FOR THE 111 MEN trapped in a mine in Springhill, N. S., appears to be very slim, as rescue workers make frantic efforts to reach them. Mine officials said it was probable that none of the men would be found alive because deadly coal gas seeped into the tunnel after the surface level explosion last Thursday. The miners have been trapped for more than 26 hours, and one mine official said that their only chance of being saved would be that they had reached an air compressor hose pumping oxygen into the tunnel.

Sunday, November 4

ANTHONY NUTTING, British Minister of state, resigned in a dramatic break with Prime Minister Anthony Eden, his sponsor and friend, because he did not approve Britain's Middle East policy. Nutting objected to the British-French action against Egypt and rejection of the United Nations cease-fire order. Earlier, Britain and France turned down a UN demand that they cease their attack on Egypt, and both are already poised to land their troops to seize the Suez Canal.

Iraq and Syrian troops are reported rolling into Jordan, raising the possibility of a two front war against Israel. An Israeli military spokesman said Israeli troops have advanced across the Sinai Desert and had "almost certainly" reached the banks of the canal.

FIFTY-NINE MINERS were saved from the mine in which an explosion occurred last Thursday. Rescue workers and doctors worked heroically battling the poisonous gas in the lower depth of the Sprinkhill (Nova Scotia) Mine in their effort to reach the bulk of 113 men trapped a mile below the surface. Draegmen, trained rescue experts, said that "many men" were reported to be in good shape, but it will be difficult in getting them out. Company officials cautioned that they expect to find a good number of the miners dead. Survivors said those below were waiting to be brought up, and that oxygen is dangerously low in the area in which they are trapped. Oxygen tanks were reported to the mine by Navy helicopter, truck and automobile.

Monday, November 5

VALLANT HUNGARY is again in the grip of Communist Soviet Union, as Russian tanks, planes and troops crushed a 12-day freedom revolt. The Russians set up a puppet government in "full control." Imre Nagy, who was the leader in the brief anti-Soviet government, is reported a Russian prisoner. The Hungarian patriots claim this is not so and that he is hiding. Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, Roman Catholic Primate of Hungary, who returned in triumph to Budapest last week, is reported to have taken refuge in the American Legation.

In Washington, President Eisenhower sent a message to Soviet Premier Nikolai Bulganin, asking him to get Soviet troops out of Hungary and permit the Hungarians to choose their own form of government. In New York, the United Nations General Assembly voted Tuesday to condemn Russia for her military intervention in Hungary and ordered her to withdraw her troops.

Tuesday, November 6

RUSSIA, possibly to avert attention to his dastardly deeds in Hungary, warned Britain and France that it is prepared to use force to end their aggression of Egypt. Premier Nikolai Bulganin told the two powers that they faced the risk of attack by a stronger force than theirs if FIVE PERSONS were killed and more than 100 were injured when a rush-hour elevated train in Chicago rammed into another train, splitting the lead car in two. The Chicago Transit Authority train crashed into the rear of a standing Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee train, on the north side of the city. There were no fires reported. The Chicago Transit Authority train was jammed to the doors with home-bound commuters. So far, there is no explanation why the CTA train failed to stop.

SOVIET RUSSIA was warned by the United States to keep hands off the Middle East. The White House said that Russian military intervention in Egypt, which was opposed by this country. The warning arose out of Russian threats against Britain and France because of their invasion of Egypt. The hope in high U.S. circles is that the Russian policy would prove less than Soviet talk. But American officials were aware of the fact that Premier Nikolai Bulganin in his threat notes to the British and French, said events in the Middle East might set off World War III. They consider this as extremely grave.

who, where and whatnot

by whoozi

An imaginative advertising man we know insists he heard the holiday beggars on Halloween going from door to door in one of our plushier neighborhoods chanting "Help the greedy rich".

MRS. HENRY KLEIN while awaiting the arrival of the fifth Klein heir or heiress completely redecorated the bedrooms of her quartet of daughters in a rainbow of candy stripes. MARY ANNE and HEIDI share the yellow decor while GRETCHEN has an aqua boudoir and BONNIE'S menage is pink. Wallpaper, chintz drapes, slipcovers and bedspreads are all in the mouthwatering pastel and white stripes.

Black is still the favorite for cocktailing at the local clubs of a Saturday night. At a Hunt Club soiree the other evening MRS. DAVID G. WORMER was breathtaking in a form fitting black faille, draped in the back into a bustle, fetchingly accented with a huge red rose. Petite MRS. EDWIN FISHER, looking like she stepped out of a band-box, was also in a draped black number, her bustle was a gigantic bow with streamers falling to the hemline.

MRS. SIMMONDS McEVOY was in an American Beauty shimmering taffeta shirtwaist and that same color was blond MRS. HARDEE BETHEA'S choice in a straight peau de soie frock, with the new handed empire line. Full skirted cocktail gowns are still very popular and MRS. WILLIAM CHAMPION combined a scoop necked chocolate jersey blouse with a matching taffeta skirt set off with a turquoise cummerbund. Full skirted too was MRS. J. BELL MORAN'S eye catching kelly green taffeta frock with a draped bodice and a bouffant skirt for whirling around the dance floor.

Lad in the fourth grade who can't seem to get the hang of long division left all the answer spaces blank on a recent test paper, but printed in neat square letters across the bottom of the sheet, "I can spell chrysanthemum."

Overheard in front of the drugstore, one teen age girl to another: "Mimi could have her pick of men, but she wants them all."

At a Philadelphia Main Line wedding recently a guest heard this exchange: "You say the boy's family is from New Jersey?" one lady inquired. "So I hear," said the other, "but I understand they're from the better part."

A lady from Massachusetts reports that the sweater she has been knitting as a means of easing her conscience while she watches television has turned out to have three sleeves.

Two middle-aged actors, handsome, aging juvenile lead type—met on West Forty-fifth Street after a considerable interval. Exultant cries of recognition arose; then one, holding the other out at arm's length, remarked admiringly, "You certainly keep looking well. On the outside."

Especially dreadful situations sometimes get especially prompt relief. The owner of an R.C.A. television set that went on the blink called the nearest R.C.A. service agency and outlined his plight to the switchboard operator. "How many sets do you have in your home?" she asked. He said this was the only one. "Oh," she said. "In that event, I'll connect you with 'Emergency'."

A friend of ours who has a boy in his second year at a New England prep school noticed that during the first two months of the fall term the bill for supplies included half a dozen pocket combs and a similar number of mechanical pencils. Prompted by curiosity, rather than niggardliness, he asked the lad, when he came home for the holidays, how anyone in his right mind could manage to lose so many of those particular items. "Well, I really don't know," his son said. "I guess it's just because I lean over a lot."

The best place to find a helping hand is at the end of your arm.

The fickleness of the women I love is only equaled by the infernal constancy of the women who love me . . . George Bernard Shaw.

Pointer of Interest

MRS. KENNETH KOPPIN, OF RENAUD ROAD

At this season of the year every Pointer has an opportunity to solve his Christmas shopping problems painlessly by traveling around to the score of local church fairs.

Cannily choosing the latest date possible are the women of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church who are boiling and toiling the clock around to ready their wares for their November 29 Mistletoe Mart.

Chairman Mrs. Kenneth Koppin hopes that with Thanksgiving chores behind them most Pointer housewives will be able to give Fair browsing their serious attention. Money raised at this year's event will go toward the new youth building on the church property at Chalfonte and Lothrop roads.

Wife of Woods Mayor Of course the mart has been on Mrs. K's mind since before

Mrs. Douglas To Talk Here

Mrs. Lewis W. Douglas, wife of the former American Ambassador to Great Britain, will speak here November 13, on "Four Years in Britain." Her talk will be sponsored by the Detroit Branch of the English-Speaking Union of the United States. It will be delivered at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial at 8:30 p.m. and will be open to interested members of the public.

During her four years in Great Britain, Mrs. Douglas organized the wives of American officials into a speakers group that talked on life in America and other subjects before hundreds of women's groups throughout the British Isles. In addition, she was a leader in arranging for some 1,200 American women to work as volunteers in British schools, hospitals, orphanages, and churches.

In the course of these activities Mrs. Douglas obtained a first-hand insight into the problems and trends of life in contemporary Britain. At the same time, she acquired a vivid realization of the importance of personal contacts between Americans and Britons in building understanding among the English-speaking peoples.

Mrs. Douglas' talk is one of a series sponsored by the Detroit E-US as part of its expanding program of activities connected with Anglo-American relations. Mr. Mark C. Stevens, of Moross road is president of the group. The organization is a branch of the English-Speaking Union of the United States, a non-profit, non-political association devoted to the maintenance of friendship between this country and the nations of the British Commonwealth.

last April. That was the month she spent most of her time campaigning for her husband, who was elected to his second term as mayor of the Woods.

With the election over our Pointer found she had plenty of time to get the mart organized as her husband's mayoral duties keep him so busy she has to find a giant task to engage her energies. The Koppins moved into their modern ranch home about six years ago and immediately delved into community affairs.

Mrs. K, who has had ten years of business experience, has discovered the most important job she has as chief executive of the church's annual fair is handling workers. Hers is the chief responsibility for the sale's success, but she feels her 15 booth chairmen have an equally heavy load to bear.

Keeps 400 Women Busy

Over 400 women have been working constantly all summer for the big day and pretty, red haired Mrs. Koppin was on hand most every first and third Tuesday throughout the summer months at the church to answer questions and provide the guiding hand.

There were very few long week-ends at the Koppins' summer place near Alpena, where Mrs. Koppin's parents, the George Parsleys, live all year round with the mayor's father, Andy Gump (yes, that's really his name, our chairman assures us).

Around the first of December, when the fair funds have been counted and the workers thanked, the pair will take off for this haven to do a bit of deer hunting. Mrs. Koppin shared her venison secrets. Those steaks and chops must be seared in a very hot old-fashioned iron frying pan, sprinkled with salt.

Commute During Holidays

The Koppins alternate holidays between the lodge and Grosse Pointe, usually taking a party of friends for either Christmas or New Year's. But this season Mrs. K. years to spend the whole holiday week in their rustic retreat far from the ringing of telephones and the countless questions she has been answering.

Proving that old saw that the busiest people are the ones to ask for any new organizing task, Mrs. Koppin gave us a staggering run down of her usual activities. These are all in abeyance this month as the "Mistletoe Mart" moves toward the deadline date.

She works for the Rotary Annex, handling transportation for the wards of the Detroit Juvenile Court. This involves lining up volunteers to drive the children to hospital and clinic appointments. She also is a volunteer at Children's Hospital. This year she is an area chairman for the Torch Drive, which takes as much time as the mart during these campaign weeks.

Shares Husband's Interests

She is a great believer in wives sharing their husband's interests and she and Mr. Koppin have become famous rose fanciers. They care for their 300 rose bushes themselves and without any professional help have become blue ribbon winners for their exhibits.

Square dancing is another hobby they share. Every other Saturday night from September to June nine couples meet in the Koppins' basement in full dancing regalia for a round of do-si-does. Each couple takes a turn supplying the refreshments.

Rapid Michigan State football fans, they have attended the Rosebowl classic twice. This year, along with many other interests football had to take a back seat to aprons and such mart regalia.

Hopes to Better Mart Mrs. Koppin, who worked last year as secretary to the Mistletoe Mart chairman, Mrs. James Huntington Shoreham, is very anxious to better the '55 profit of $5,000.

She has been turning a tidy needle herself, whipping up dozens of doll clothes. Her thanks go out to the husbands who have been so forbearing about their wives' sewing orgies, which she fears spoiled many a pot roast and produced many a canned dinner.

Because the Congregational Church has one of the smaller parishes everyone has had to turn to and work more than their share. To them all the chairman says thanks, and urges another last spur of activity before the Mistletoe Mart opens to the public on November 29.

Pointe Counter Points

Once a leader always a leader, and Walton Pierce is out in front again. For forty years, the firm has been the only salon in the middle west creating and designing custom costumes in the true Parisienne couturiere tradition. Now this same custom department has established a beachhead in the air waves. Last Sunday marked the premiere of a new program on FM station WLDM. It is another exclusive, for Walton Pierce is the first fashion firm in Detroit to sponsor a program in this new medium. Fittingly, the hour long presentation featured classical music. Planned for next Sunday at four o'clock are selections from the repertoire of the New York City Opera Company currently appearing at the Masonic Temple. In addition, Mrs. James Gibson, of Walton Pierce, will interview some of the stars as well as representatives from Detroit's grand Opera Association . . . Remember the time, Sunday afternoon at four.

It's sip 'n see week at the Yarncraft Shop. If you stop by for a glass of punch you will be treated to an eyeeful of hand knits and some of them will be in motion. A trio of teen-agers, Nada McLenahan, Sue MacDonald and Sharron Janals are lending their young charms as models for some of the outfits . . . a swirling royal blue felt skirt with a cable knit off-the-shoulder matching sweater . . . a lace dress worn with an angora cape stole . . . tailored black velvet fireside pants paired with a black cashmere sweater both embellished with silver leaf trim. Then there are caps and mitts and socks and baby things all with that built in elegance that goes with hand made woolems . . . at Yarncraft on Fisher Road.

It makes you feel palatial when you have a Swedish facial. Especially if it's done by the expertly trained hands of a graduate from Stockholm's Scientific Academy of Beauty. Lochmoor Salon of Beauty in the Woods can boast of such a one. Their Helga Trendel's diploma represents a 1500 hour requirement. The demanding curriculum of the Academy emphasizes medical and anatomical studies. Miss Trendel heard some first hand reports on her alma mater this week when the Academy's head, Mrs. Elin Dahlstrand Bjorkman, arrived in town. Mrs. B. is touring the states attending and contributing to various cosmetic conventions. The creams used at the salon are imported from Sweden and contain a new cosmetic skin treatment, placentubex. They are, of course, available at the salon. Miss Trendel also knows the fine art of eyebrow tinting and trimming and her pedicures make feet look as pretty as hands. The telephone number is TU. 1-1252.

Once upon a princess and now at D. J. Healy's!!! The very bag that carried the compact that powdered the nose, that held the comb that combed the tresses that belonged to H.R.H. the Princess of Monaco. Healy's treasures the duplicate of the bag Grace Kelly wore on her journey to join her prince. It's alligator, black, large and lovely and, naturally, it's lined with royal red leather. It will live in Healy's village window for a week—so we all can have at least a peek.

Ding dong the bells are in and Irving's has them. At the London East fashion show last Thursday we saw one captivating concoction of ale colored satin. The soft bell skirt topped with a moulded bodice embroidered in pearls. With it you wear a matching cashmere sweater, tuxedo style with deep lapels of mink dyed in the same shade. Thursday, November 29 will be the last Irving showing at London East until after Christmas. To wind up the season in a true holiday spirit, Leif Bergan promises to stage a dramatized show with a special spotlight on cocktail and evening costumes. Speaking of Christmas, sharpen your pencil and make a note of the gift department at Irving's . . . exquisite little watches, their faces framed in cultured pearls, heavy, non tarnishing gold fill bracelets with recessed time keepers in their middles. There are pretty pastel evening bags of beads or iridescents and leather items in various shades of calf skin all to be found at Irving's on the hill.

Jack rabbits have no choice, every winter it's the same old white coat. But you are lucky. You can walk into the Village Store and decide. If a loden coat is your preference, they have them in grey lined with canary yellow, in red lined with white . . . Or a car coat? . . . there's a rackful of variety, stripes of black, white and green, white with contrasting scroll trims, red with flower embroidery motifs. There are others, zippered and handsomely trimmed on cuff and front with swiss braid . . .

Alligators make nice pets. Especially if they are tenderly trimmed to purse size. All of the alligators at Margaret Rice's are pedigreed. You can tell by the classic lines; the burnished look and the frame and clasp details. They are to be had in a variety of shapes, in brown, black or honey. Deserving of special mention is a champagne colored bag of Getchi leather. It has a grained texture and a go everywhere look . . . at Margaret Rice on the hill.

Using stardust for inspiration, France's Trina Jorell produced an evening bag for D. J. Healy's. It's a glister of rhinestones shaped and held with a gold oblong frame intricately woven with tiny pearls. Using Jorell's bag for inspiration, Healy's has introduced a line of evening accessories in the rhinestone theme . . . lighters, compacts, cigarette cases, pillboxes, glass cases and even a stone studded suede backed wallet. Assembled together they give off a 1000 watt sparkle. These same gift ideas are created in some sweet little closeness items including a dainty and diminutive ash tray with a gold handle and snap that top made to be carried in a lovely lady's purse. For closer inspection see D. J. Healy's in the village.

When you put on your Christmas thinking hat, the planning will be easier after a peek into the Bric a Brae Shop in the Woods. For under the tree you'll find a selection of delectable costume jewelry. Schiaparelli's iris, that wonderful stone that holds a prism of varying lights. There are German imports to deck your tree, baby trees of green and white chenille decked with the tiniest gold pine cones and bright colored beads. While you are checking off that list you can choose your holiday wrappings and for goodness sake don't delay any longer if you want your Christmas cards imprinted in time from the Bric a Brae shop 20439 Mack Ave.

A heaven sent scent from Guerlain . . . that fine French firm of perfumers has brewed a new one. It's called "Ode" (one whiff and you want to write poetry.) You'll find it at Trail Pharmacy on the hill . . . that mecca of the best in quality cosmetics and perfumes.
