HUNGARY DEMANDED Austrian help in the return of the Hungarian refugees who fled across the border to escape Red persecution. Hungarian Premier Janos Kadar, following a new tough line toward the workers and the West, demanded the return of the refugees after he had promised them a blanket pardon if they would return to Hungary.

It was estimated that 92,000 persons, mostly youths, have fled across the border to Austria. Radio Budapest said that a decree promising the amnesty will be published shortly, and will be given to any of the thousands of men, women and children who braved Russian guns and sub-zero weather to flee to the West. To obtain the pardon, the refugees must return this year.

DMITRI T. SHEPILOV, foreign minister of Russia, charged that the British, French and Israelis are preparing plans to attack Syria, Egypt and Lebanon and other neighboring countries. Russia, on the other hand, he said, is determined to preserve world peace. He made his statement during a stopover in Copenhagen on his flight home from the United Nations General Assembly in New York. In Washington, a spokesman charged that Russia has sent millions of dollars worth of arms to Syria in recent months, some after the fighting in Egypt had ended. British sources set the cost of the arms at 60 million dollars.

PRESIDENT EISENHOWER urged the use of surplus Salk Polio vaccine, after being notified that 17 million doses were lying unused. The report on the huge vaccine stockpile was sent to the President at his vacation headquarters in Augusta, Ga. Marion Folsom, secretary of health, education and welfare, who sent the report, said vaccine supplies are plentiful, and that danger lies in public apathy which prevents the use of the vaccine and which may cause it to lie unused next year. The Chief Executive said the report deserves the attention of every young adult and every parent in the nation.

THE UNITED STATES warned agitators in the Middle East that it would view "with the utmost gravity" hostile moves against Pakistan, Turkey, Iran and Iraq. The warning came at the end of a day in which America sought to put an end to differences with Britain and France over the Middle East crisis.

It was not indicated whether the statement was part of an effort to patch up Western relations. But it was in line with British hopes that the U. S. would side with the Baghdad Pact Nations. The United States belongs to the economic and antisubversive committees of the Pact, but is not a full member of the group. Official American sources called the statement an answer to Russia's arming of Syria.

THERE WILL BE no freedom for bourgeois (middle class) parties in Poland, it was announced by Wladyslaw Gomulka, first secretary of the Polish United Worker's Party, and head of the Red regime in Poland. He made the announcement as he opened the nation's "election campaign" in a speech to 3,000 "political activists" meeting to work out the campaign for an election on January 20.

He warned the country's churchmen not to "abuse" their new freedom. He cited as an example a demonstration against police in Bydgoszcz on November 18, in which the demonstrators got out of hand and fired a radio station.

JAMES M. HARE, Michigan Secretary of State, may have to pay $18,000 out of his own pocket to replace money embezzled by Anne V. Thorpe. The secretary is convinced he must make up the loss, but state lawyers have some doubts. Mrs. Thorpe absconded with $75,000.

Christ Church Choirs To Present Christmas Concert

A Christmas concert will be presented by the men's and boys' choirs in Christ Church on Sunday afternoon, December 9 at 4 o'clock. They will sing the cantata, "For Us a Child is Born," by J. S. Bach. Soloists will be Donald Walker, soprano; Jack Moldovan, tenor and Richard Webber, basso. They will be accompanied by a chamber ensemble consisting of strings, woodwinds and a harpsichord. Shown directing the boys' choir in rehearsal is RICHARD ROCKELEY, organist and choirmaster.

Community Chorus Giving Christmas Concert on Sunday

Traditional Event Will be Held in Auditorium of Parcels School at 3:30; Reception to Follow Program

This coming Sunday, December 9, at 3:30, in the auditorium of Parcels Junior High School, Vernier and Mack avenues, the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will present its annual Christmas concert. The program will range from classical oratorio selections to the most modern of Christmas and holiday songs.

Opening the program will be "There Shall a Star from Jacob Shining," by Mendelssohn, "Lo, How a Rose e'er Blooming," of Praetorius, "Comest Thou, Light of Gladness" by Heinrich von Herzogenberg, 1843-1900, a composer of the Brahmsian school, and "Lost in the Night," by F. Melliis Christiansen.

This selection will feature Miss Betty Winkill as soprano soloist. Miss Winkill is a vocal music teacher in Detroit and is a graduate of Wayne State University.

The Birth of Christ. This section of the program will include the "Cradle Song of the Virgin," by Johannes Brahms, a part of which is the familiar "Joseph, Lieber Joseph" melody.

"The Friendly Beasts," an old English carol, tells the animals' story of their contributions to the comfort of the Baby Jesus. This will be followed by "The Snow Lay on the Ground," partially accompanied by chimes, played by Dewey Kalember, instrumental music teacher at Grosse Pointe High School.

"Caroling, Caroling," "Jesu Parvule," "All on a Christmas Morning" and "Nigh Bethlehem" are the titles of the Alfred Burt carols the chorus will introduce this year. These carols are modern in chronology and harmony, but have the charm of something familiar, for the melodies and words are immediately appealing and leave the listener wishing he could remember the entire song to carry in his heart and on his lips.

The Star of Epiphany. Opening this section of the program will be the Christmas song composed for and dedicated to the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus by Miss Mihla Hurston, organist and choir director for the Church of the Redeemer in Detroit and writer of the lyrics for the Alfred Burt carols.

Cars Crumpled In Sparing Dog

A humane act by an out-of-town driver ended in an accident on E. Jefferson, between Westchester and Balfour, on Tuesday, November 27, according to a Park police report.

Wilson S. Dobbin, 52, of 9420 Islands drive, Algonac, Mich., driving his car east on Jefferson, stopped suddenly to avoid hitting a dog crossing the street, and was struck in the rear by Anthony W. Andrews, 41, of 22482 Tuscan, who could not stop in time.

The collision damaged the right front fender and radiator of Andrews' vehicle; and the trunk and left rear fender and tail light of Dobbin's car. Andrews was ticketed for not having his car under control and causing an accident.

Muscular Dystrophy Drive Nets Over $5,400 in Pointe

Thousands of Pointers turned on their porch lights Thursday, November 29, to let volunteers know they wished to contribute to combat Muscular Dystrophy. The volunteers, which included uniformed firemen and policemen from the Pointes, visited thousands of homes between 7 and 9 p.m.

They collected three times the amount contributed in the 1955 Drive. The City of Grosse Pointe led with $1,800; next was the Park with $1,600; the Woods, $1,400; and the Farms, $860. There was no organized collection team in the Shores. The funds will be used to support more than 100 research projects trying to find the cause and cure of Muscular Dystrophy. When it strikes children between the ages of 3 and 7 it is always fatal.

Twenty-five percent of the collections will be kept for use in the Detroit area. The remaining 75% will be distributed through the National Muscular Dystrophy Headquarters in New York. Most of these monies will be used for research.

Anyone who was not contacted on Thursday evening, and would like to help, can do so by contacting Mrs. Arthur Brisson, 741 University place, TU 2-1453.

Take Fight To Court To Balk Project

Richard School District Improvement Group Claims Petitions with 600 Signatures

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms' parking lot expansion program received another setback Monday night, December 3, when it was announced a suit to prevent the city from developing a rear section of the Richard School playground for additional parking, was filed in Wayne County Circuit Court.

The Farms council and mayor were presented with a summons to appear in court to show cause why an injunction should not be placed against the city. The suit was filed on behalf of the Gabriel Richard School District Improvement Association, after the Farms council voted to go ahead with its plans for developing the 400x65-foot section into additional parking space.

Court date was set for January 18. The Farms will be represented by City attorney Edward P. Wright and assistant attorney Thomas C. Tilly.

Claims 600 Signatures
Attorney for the Association, Charles E. Raymond, said he had the signatures of 600 protesting members of the School District. They contend the land is state-owned and the Farms has no right to lease it.

Farms officials quote that the city negotiated a legal reciprocal agreement with the Board of Education, where in exchange for the narrow strip of parking lot area, the schools may use the Farms' pier parking lot area to train student drivers. Authorities for the Farms claim the petition of 600 names in highly improper because many of the signatures are "Mr. and Mrs." and many signers are not residents of the Farms.

Asked For Delay
Last October 15, members of the Gabriel Richard School District Improvement Association, through its spokesman and chairman, James Jameson of 215 McMillan, asked the Farms Council for time to study its report which included the recommendation that the parking strip be developed as soon as possible. The council granted his appeal and set a hearing date for Monday, December 3.

Also included in the council's report of October 15, were the recommendations that attention be paid to the desires of individual residents with respect to the location of "planting . . ." to afford a maximum of protection against noise, odor, and light consistent with beauty and utility, that access be limited to Ridge road and the road be made one-way "to diminish the traffic problem and lessen traffic on Muir road."

Would Bar Trucks
The strip would be prohibited to commercial vehicles thereby lessening noise and vibrations; and that gates of the strip be closed at both ends at night and unlocked in the morning.

In reaching its recommendations, which were presented on October 15, the council committee paid particular attention to the grounds of opposition as presented in a petition of the Gabriel Richard School District Improvement Association on September 4.

The following is the list of objections and the committee's answer to each:

1. We feel that Grosse Pointe Farms has too little recreational space, especially in this area.

There has been but slight use, if any, of some of the property of the School Board lying between Ridge Road and the City's present parking lot. Were it not for the fact that the City's arrangement with the School Board made possible the School Board's use of the Pier Park for Student Driver Training Program, the land in question would probably have been hard-surfaced and devoted to the Student Driver Training Program, thus eliminating completely its possibility of serving recreational purposes. The present arrangement preserves all of this property except the small

Girls' Ride Ends as Car Rams House

$1,000 Damage Done to Home in Woods as Vehicle Goes Out of Control; Two Injured

A 16-year-old Farms girl driver lost control of her car and smashed into the home of Henry L. Ulbrich, 1540 Torrey road, on Thursday, November 29, causing about $1,000 damage to the house.

The girl, whose name was withheld, escaped injury, but suffered from shock, following the accident, according to Woods police. She refused medical attention.

Couldn't Explain Crash
Authorities said the girl was unable to explain what happened. She was issued a ticket for not having the car under control and causing an accident.

Two passengers, Karen Bahm of 19964 Clairview court, and Judy Latimer of 1346 Kensington road, both 15 years old, and passengers in the car, suffered minor injuries. Both refused medical attention also.

Witness Tells Story
David L. Armspough, 16, of 1181 Fairholme, a witness, said the car was traveling south on Clairview and as it neared Torrey, went out of control. It leaped the curb on the right side of the street, turned and went to the opposite side and leaped the curb and struck the house.

Young Drag Racers Nabbed After Leaving Crash Scene

Two Pointe juveniles got themselves into trouble when police picked them up after they had left the scene of an auto accident involving property damage on December 1.

The pair, both boys, were racing their parents' cars on Washington road between Maumee and Jefferson avenue about 11 a. m. Saturday. They were drag racing from Maumee when the lead car, an Oldsmobile hardtop, went out of control and smashed into the Edison pole in the middle of the block. The pole shattered in three pieces and the trailing car slid into the rear of the Olds.

A resident on Washington heard the impact and looked out

Woods and Detroit Plan Meetings to Find Answer To Water Supply Problem

Engineers of City and Water Board Will Convene First; Then Council Members Will Take Over the Arguments

The firm of Pate and Hinn, engineers for the Woods, and engineers of the Detroit Water Board will meet to lay the groundwork for a meeting between members of the Board, to debate the water supply issue.

Authorization of the meeting by the engineers was made by the Woods council on Monday, December 3.

The Water Board's intention to switch the Woods' source of water supply from the North-east Pumping Station, Eight Mile road, between Hoover and Van Dyke, to the Waterworks Park Station, E. Jefferson and Cadillac, aroused the ire of members of the council.

Balk at Rate Increase
Also under fire by members of the council, is the Board's proposed increase in the Woods' water rates, from 65 cents per 1,000 cubic feet, to $1 per 1,000 cubic feet.

The switch in the stations would require the abandonment of a $60,000 Vernier water main and the construction of a new main, at an estimated cost of $1,000,000, but which community will undertake the project is still debatable. The Woods installed the Vernier main in 1950.

Another matter in the controversial issue is the building of tank storage facilities asked for by the Water Board for the storage of water to alleviate peak summer water periods. If the Woods handles the job, the tank will be constructed in Ghesquire Park, according to the latest proposal.

Better to Accept Hike
The City Engineer informed the council that economically, if the Woods accepts the water rate increase, the city would be better off. He said if the city continues to pay the 65 cents rate, it will have to build its own storage facilities, but if the increase is accepted Detroit will provide the storage.

The council, with its customary thoroughness, threshed out all phases of the matter before okaying the meetings with the Water Board so that a reasonable solution could be found.

DRIVER PUT UNDER BOND
Wiley P. Wood of 445 Concord, Detroit, accused of reckless driving on Lake Shore road, was placed under a $100 bond, pending his appearance in court. He was arrested by Shores police on Monday, December 3.

Police Nab Purveyor of Bad Checks

Alert Cashier Recognizes Long-Sought Artist who Had Victimized Her Company

A phony check passer who has been a headache to Pointe and Detroit police since 1955, has finally been apprehended and put out of circulation.

William H. Barr, 29, no address, was arrested by Detroit police at Gratiot and Six Mile road, on Wednesday, November 28, when he was recognized by Mrs. Augusta Uhl, 41, of 6242 McClellan, Detroit, cashier for the Trombly Coal Company, 10530 Gratiot avenue.

Barr, whom Mrs. Uhl said she recognized from a police circular, attempted to cash a $20 check at the coal firm's office.

Becomes Suspicious
The phony check artist became suspicious when Mrs. Uhl tried to stall him while she got help, and left the office and boarded a Gratiot bus. The woman followed him and took the

Confused Driver Loses His Car

A confused Detroit motorist went into the Farms police station on Sunday, December 2, to report that his car was missing, or stolen.

Charles Taylor of Euclid avenue in Detroit, told the desk sergeant that on the previous Tuesday, he was driving on a street in the Woods, between Mack and Lake Shore road. His motor stalled and he lifted the hood in an attempt to determine the trouble.

When he could not start his car, Taylor left the 1952 Lincoln at the curb and walked to Mack avenue. There he inquired where he might get a bus, and was told it was about a six-block walk to Moross road.

Later he returned with a friend but couldn't remember the street where he had left his car. They drove around the neighborhood for an hour then went home. Taylor returned twice, but still was unable to locate his car.

When a car has been left parked for several days, a resident usually notifies the police, and a check is made to determine the owner. Thus far no one has reported the missing Lincoln.

And a truth that has lasted a million years is good for a million more. —Ted Olson.

CATERING TO YOU and YOUR Family
MACK AT SOMERSET
GROSSE POINTE

Concert

This selection will feature also a celeste accompaniment played by Milton Setzer, accompanist for the chorus.
This will be followed by "The Three Kings," by Healey Willan and "The Shepherds Had An Angel," by Maurice Besly, with an English horn (alto oboe) obligato, played by Miss Nellie Thornton, student at Wayne State University, and a soaring soprano solo by Mrs. Ellen Jones.

Mrs. Jones is a graduate of Wayne State University and the wife of Robert Jones, head of the music department at Cody High School in Detroit. Well known in Grosse Pointe, she was for 16 years soprano soloist at the Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and was a member of the Ford Sunday Evening Hour chorus.

Sights and Sounds
A touch of yesteryear's Christmas will be "The Sleigh," a familiar winter song by Richard Kountz. "The Drum," a Czech carol with music by Katherine K. Davis, tells the story of a little boy with no gift to bring the Babe. To especially delight the children in the audience will be "Frosty, the Snowman," a string piece by piano and accompanying bass played by Dewey Kalember. This is Walter Schumann's arrangement and is performed by his kind permission.

Following the concert, a reception for chorus members and their friends in the audience will be held in the school gymnasium. In charge of this event will be Mrs. Harold Kellogg and her committee.

Johns Is Conductor
Malcolm MacLean Johns, organist and choir master at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church and assistant professor of music at Wayne State University, conducts the chorus and has since he and his wife helped to found it in 1953.

Milton Setzer, the group's accompanist, teaches privately and has played in concert with the Detroit and Grosse Pointe Symphonies and Wayne State University orchestra, both as soloist and accompanist. Mrs. Naomi Donaldson of Grosse Pointe, will play the organ as accompanist to some of the selections.

Designer of the program cover and theme for the stage decoration was Mrs. Harold Schroeder. In charge of decorating the stage is Miss Shirley Olsen, art teacher at Mason school. Donald Simmons, vocal music teacher at Parcels, is concert stage manager. Clifford Kuhl is in charge of ticket sales.

Others Who Helped
Other members who have helped and are working on the various details connected with presenting a concert are Harold Kellogg, president; Gilbert Stammer, vice-president and chairman; Mrs. Gerry Hughes, secretary; Henry Meyering, treasurer; Mrs. Gilbert Stammer, librarian; Mrs. Naomi Donaldson, membership chairman, and Mrs. Donald Simmons, publicity and ticket promotion chairman.

Members of the board which governs the chorus are Marjorie Adams, Martha Boyer, Marian Johns, Malcolm Johns, Covert Hunter, Dewey Kalember, Frances Kellogg, Harold Schroeder, Donald Simmons, George Smith and Pauline Smith.

Tickets are available from members, or at the door. More information may be had by calling TU. 4-5964.

Parking Plan Delayed

strip covered by the lease to the City for recreational purposes, and if the recommendations of this Committee are pursued the entire program may develop a positive character in providing actual additional recreational area in the locality rather than decreasing it.

"2. If the Richard School is expanded, it will cut down the space available for playground."
This cannot be controverted. However, so far as it has been possible to ascertain the program of School expansion is directed toward the establishment of additional elementary schools rather than the enlargement of those existing, and it appears, therefore, that the expansion of the Richard School is improbable. However, the School Board has seen fit to protect against this situation at the end of the five-year term of its lease to the City, the Board will be able to recover possession of the area if it desires to have it for additional recreational space because of the enlargement or the proposed future enlargement of the Richard School.

"3. Children will be exposed to more traffic hazards around the proposed parking lot because of the concentration of traffic and increased numbers of commercial vehicles."

The Committee's recommendation with respect to commercial vehicles should be a complete answer to one portion of this objection. It is the Committee's belief that children will be exposed to less traffic hazards because of the installation of the proposed parking lot. The traffic on McMillan will be decreased; the school being on McMillan, this should tend to greater child traffic safety. The Committee's recommendation that access only to the lot from Ridge Road be permitted assures better police control of all traffic in the Business Area, with consequent improvement in its safety factors, particularly as affecting the children in that area.

"4. Property values will depreciate because of the encroachment of business on residential areas."

This statement is obviously a matter of opinion and an expression of an apprehension rather than a statement of fact. Originally part of the property leased by the School Board to the City was designed for parking as Outlot A of the Radnor Park Subdivision. The alternative to the Committee's recommendation would be to acquire by condemnation a part of the Muir Road properties nearest Kercheval, which would have the effect of increasing traffic on Muir Road and present an actual encroachment of business on property which is now residential. The objection expresses a fear that there may be an encroachment by business on residential areas by the Plan recommended by the Committee does not represent any such encroachment. It may well be argued by some experts that the substitution of a parking area with a protective green strip for the so-called playground space (actually an uncultivated mass of weeds) will cause appreciation of Muir Road property values rather than depreciation, and this is true of properties in the neighborhood other than those on Muir Road.

"5. A strip of the playground has already been added to the parking lot; more is now demanded. If this is granted, we can expect further requests in the future."

The Committee's recommendation that its Plan be adopted as a final solution of the parking problems in this Business Area, should be an effective answer to this objection.

"6. We do not feel that parking space is insufficient. Furthermore, there is vacant property on Kercheval, ideally situated in the business district, which could be used for parking."

The traffic surveys procured by your Council and the independent studies of some members of the Committee satisfy the Committee of the insufficiency of parking space, although it is recognized that there will be occasions when there may be vacant parking spaces. It is the purpose of the Committee's recommendation that additional space be made available with a view to the future development of the remaining business lots on Kercheval, and with a view to the comfortable accommodation of normal parking demands at the busy shopping hours. The shoppers are largely the residents of this community, whose reasonable demands for parking must be given weight just as this Committee has tried to give weight to the Objectors' reasons for objections, by prescribing conditions relative to the use of the additional facilities that will remove the objections. The cost of acquiring Kercheval business frontage for parking purposes is prohibitive and that which might be acquired is so limited in area as to make no substantial contribution to the solution of the over-all problem.

"7. As residents of Grosse Pointe Farms we favor granting to the Board of Education the use of the Pier Parking Lot for drive training for the children in our school system. The granting of its use should not be conditional on the Board of Education giving up any part of any school property."

The cross-leasing of the Pier Park property and the small strip off the back of the Richard School "Playground" represents in the opinion of the Committee the ideal working out of mutual problems between two governmental agencies. It is improper for a governmental agency to give away any of public property, even to another governmental agency. The City's recognition of the School's needs by making available to the School property which is already hard-surfaced so as to meet these needs was farsighted and apparently has the approval of the Objectors. The School Board's recognition of parking needs in the area and its lease for that purpose was also farsighted and justified by what the Board acquired. Such cooperation between separate governmental units is, in the opinion of the Committee, unusual and much to be commended.

Police Nab Check Artist

number of the bus and notified police, and Barr was picked up by a scout car crew.
Barr admitted trying to pass the check, and also stated he had passed many more, about 40, in Detroit and the Pointe, ranging from $10 to $500.

He resumed his check passing career when he was released from Jackson Prison in June 1955, after completing 18 months for uttering and publishing.

Passed Seven in Pointe
He passed four checks in the Woods and three in the Farms, the latest occurring in the Farms on September 20 of this year.

Barr began operations in the Woods when he cashed two checks there on November 3, 1955, one at the Philip and Philip Cleaners, 1845 Fleetwood, for $10; and the other at Wits End Thrift Shop, 21011 Mack avenue, for $17.35. In each case he gave different addresses, neither of which was his.

On November 8, of the same year, he cashed a $10 check at the Pointe Paint Shop, 20643 Mack, and on November 30, cashed a check for $70 at the Ship's Wheel, 19605 Mack. The latter check was stolen from a Detroit flower firm and signed by a Mollie E. Daley, which signature did not correspond to Barr's handwriting.

Farms Victims Listed
The Farms wants Barr for cashing checks at the Grosse Pointe Radio Shop, 18520 Mack, for which he obtained $20 on September 22, 1955; the Wright Jewelry Shop, 18650 Mack, where he got $20 on November 5, 1955; and the Briggs Pharmacy, 18544 Mack, where he cashed a $10 check on September 20.

In the jewelry and radio shops, Barr pulled his favorite trick of ordering items worth several hundreds of dollars, and then pretending he was short of cash, ask the proprietors if they minded if he added a little more to the check. After receiving the money, he ordered the items delivered to a fictitious address, and then left.

Woods Det. Sgt. Walter O'Dell and Det. LeRoy Tobian, and Farms Det. Harold Beaupre said they have placed a hold order on Barr, in the event he should get a light sentence for his Detroit escapades.
All three officers said if this is the case, they would prosecute Barr on the check passing in their communities, but they will attempt to tie-in their charges with that of Detroit, so that the check artist would get a heavier sentence.

Three Color Films Ready For Family Movie Night

The December Family Film Night of the Grosse Pointe Public Library will offer three attractive color films for the entertainment and instruction of those attending. The showing is planned for tomorrow, Friday, December 7, at 7:30 p.m. It will be held in the upstairs meeting room of the Central Library at Kercheval and Fisher. The room provides seating for upwards of 100 people and no tickets or advance reservations are required.

The program will feature two films which were announced for November, but which did not arrive for the showing. Many people expressed disappointment at not being able to see GRANDMA MOSES and SOUTH AFRICA, so they have been booked and confirmed for the December showing.

GRANDMA MOSES, a twenty-two minute color film, shows Grandma Moses' life as an old lady and as an artist. Her earlier life, which she often portrays in her paintings, is described by the commentator, Archibald Macleish, as her paintings are shown. The film pictures her at her work, and points up her technique of applying paint. Many examples of her paintings are shown on the screen.

SOUTH AFRICA, also twenty-two minutes, and in color, presents an overview of the Union of South Africa, picturing the cities, diamond mines, gold mines, and other aspects of South Africa's economy. Native life and wild life in Kruger National Park are also shown. Authentic African music is used throughout the film.

The third film on the program, entitled THE LIFE OF CHRIST IN ART, is particularly appropriate for the approaching Christmas season. Through paintings drawn from seven centuries of religious art and through carefully developed visual imagery, this film recounts the major events in the life of Christ. The accompanying narrative is composed largely of passages from the New Testament accounts. The Revised Standard Version of the Bible was used. This film, also in color, runs twenty minutes.

An animated color cartoon will also be shown.

The Public Library cordially invites residents of the five points to be present to see this program. Family groups are especially invited, with school age children welcome if accompanied by parent or other responsible adult.

Community Chorus Concert Set for Dec. 9

The Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will present its annual Christmas Concert on Sunday afternoon, December 9, at 3:30. It will be held in the Parcels Junior High School auditorium, Mack avenue at Vernier road. DIRECTOR MALCOLM

Youth Charged As Drunk Driver

A 16-year-old Belleville, Mich., boy was arrested by Shores police on Saturday, December 1, and charged with driving while drunk.

Shore Police Chief Fred Duemling said the youth was apprehended while driving north on Lake Shore road. Following a hearing before Shores Judge John Gillis, the boy was released to his parents pending a juvenile court date.

The chief said the car was the property of Vernon H. Clark, 40, of 23790 Haggerty, Belleville, who was in the car with the boy, and who was also in an intoxicated condition. A bottle, from which both had been drinking, was found in the car.

Judge Gillis ordered Clark to post a bond of $125 to guarantee his appearance in court on December 17.

Clark was charged with being drunk and disorderly, Chief Duemling said.

Give a little love to a child, and you get a great deal back.

Yuletide Music At Defer School

Defer's annual program of Christmas music will be presented by the Defer School Music Department Friday evening, December 7, at 8 o'clock in the Defer Auditorium. According to Martha E. Ream, director, the program this year will be unusual in a number of respects.

"For the first time," she said, "we are able to present a string ensemble selected from our fourth, fifth, and sixth grade students. We are very proud of their musical ability. The brass sextet is exceptional, too, in that it plays in full four-part harmony. And our original arrangement of "Rudolph, the Red Nosed Reindeer" provides a solo part for each member of the clarinet quartet.

"We are fortunate in our singers this year, also. Seldom can youngsters of this age group perform difficult descant numbers as well as our present group. And, finally, we are most happy about our accompanist, Kathryn Tibbels. Now a resident of Dearborn, she was formerly official school accompanist for the Glencoe and Winnetka, Illinois, school systems, and her talents will add greatly to the enjoyment parents can expect from our program."

Entitled "A Christmas Message," the Defer program will be divided into four major parts: Religion, Expectation, Participation and Communication.

MORE WINDOWS BROKEN
Adolph Rosell, contractor-builder, reported to Shores police on Monday, December 3, that someone fired BB shots, or used a slingshot, in breaking a number of windows in a new home under construction at Shorecrest and Lake Shore roads. He estimated the damage at $125.

Home Entered; Nothing Taken

Farms detectives investigated a breaking and entering at the Peter Bogas residence at 4242 Maison road.

They received a report from Xenofan Bogas on November 29, that he was checking the home of his son, while he is in Florida. When Mr. Bogas looked at the house on Thursday he discovered that the back door was open and a screen had been cut.

He told police that he found nothing inside had been disturbed.

Auxiliary of Children's Hospital to Meet Dec. 13

The annual meeting and tea of the Woman's Auxiliary of Children's Hospital will be held on Thursday, December 13, from 1 to 4 p.m. in the Nurse's Lounge of the hospital.

The Grosse Pointe Service Guild of Children's Hospital will be among the guests at the meeting. The guild, with Mrs. J. E. (Ernie) Hinzman of Elford court as chairman, has changed its meeting day from Wednesdays to Tuesdays from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road.

Recruiting of new teachers is a responsibility of every nursery school director. Her task is often difficult, because more teachers are needed in the nursery school field as well as in other branches of teaching.

In helping to solve the problem, the nursery school can contact local high schools and develop a program whereby the students can observe and assist in the nursery school once a week and obtain orientation from the director.

Jane Bacon, Director of Grosse Pointe University Nursery School, has carried on such a program with Grosse Pointe High School, Denby High School and Grosse Pointe University High School - An excellent illustration of harmonious co-operation between public and private schools.

Grosse Pointe High girls come for whole mornings, 8:30-12 Noon, for five weeks. Mrs. Bacon is asked by Mrs. Postiff, the Grosse Pointe High School Child Care Instructor, to grade the girls on general assistance, reading, a story, initiative, co-operation, control of the children.

The girls have taken such interest in the program throughout the years that many ask to do special projects such as making pudding or cookies, putting together puppets or flannel stories, with the children.

Girls from Denby come for only one morning, from 8:30-11:30 a.m., but even this amount of time helps them become acquainted with the nursery school day, for they observe and take notes rather than assist. Thirty are scheduled to come - two at a time to visit.

One of the Grosse Pointe University School eleventh graders comes over to the nursery school for forty minutes five times a week, using Wednesday's forty minutes for conference and class time with Mrs. Bacon.

Such materials as government pamphlets; "The Child, One to Six," "Personality of Your Child," "Learning to Get Along With Your Children," "Child Growth and Development" by Hurlock, "Smart-Smart," are read by the student and discussed in conference time. This student has an opportunity to choose a three and four year child to observe and make an observational study for contrasts.

The teachers hope to influence some of the girls to elect a teaching career, but even if they choose other fields, the experience will be extremely valuable for them as mothers.

Girls who show special interest and initiative have been invited to assist with the Grosse Pointe University School Summer camp for three and four-year-olds, a seven week camp from 8:30 a.m.-11 a.m.

During the last four summers, choice of such students has proven valuable to the camp, for they have shown great enthusiasm and patience with the children.

So much is a man worth as he esteems himself.

AAUW Board Meets Dec. 13

The last board meeting of the year 1956 for the Pointe branch of A.A.U.W. will be held in the home of Mrs. Taylor H. Seeber, 213 Merriweather road, on Thursday, December 13, at 9:30 a.m.

Mrs. Kenneth Cook and Mrs. William R. McAdow will be co-hostesses.

ROBERT B. SEMPLE

Nine for the 1957 Michigan Week observance. This region comprises Macomb, Monroe, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne counties.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Mr. Semple has devoted most of his life to the field of chemistry. He entered Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1928 and received a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering in 1932. A year later he received his master's degree at the same institution.

Mr. Semple joined the Monsanto Chemical Company a short time later as a research chemist and advanced through the ranks until he was promoted to assistant director of general development for the Monsanto Company in the late 30's. He later became director of general development for the company.

In 1949, at the invitation of the directors of Wyandotte Chemicals Corporation, Mr. Semple became a member of the board and president of that company at the age of 39. Mr. Semple is nationally known for his work in industrial research and development, production, chemical marketing and personnel development.

He is a trustee of Harper Hospital in Detroit, member of Board of directors of the Detroit Area Council, Boy Scouts of America. In industry affairs he is a director of Manufacturing Chemists' Association and has also served as a committee chairman for the American Chemical Society.

Preparations for the 1957 Michigan Week observance, May 19-26, in which residents of this area and other communities throughout the state will participate, got underway this week.

Twenty commercial stations and 23 educational stations regularly broadcast University of Michigan programs. These stations include every city in Michigan having television broadcasting facilities.

Church to Give Xmas Concert

The Choirs of St. James Lutheran Church of McMillan road, will give their annual Candlelight Christmas Concert on Sunday, December 9, at 5 p.m.

Under the direction of Carl Munzel, the choir each year usher in the Christmas season at St. James with this pre-holiday presentation of traditional carols and contemporary music befitting the season.

Among the songs to be sung by the Senior Choir are "On This Good Christmas Morn" by Noble Cain and "Noel" by York, as well as "Lullaby on Christmas Eve" by Christiansen, "Carol of the Bells" by Leontovich, and "Sing Gloria" by Katherine Davis.

The Junior Choir, numbering 50 boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 15, will sing several carols.

Three soloists will add variety to the program. Mrs. Maria Schmidt of Detroit, will sing Adam's "O Holy Night," Mrs. Lois Evans will do the solo in "Lullaby on Christmas Eve," and Mr. Fred Weiss will sing "Jesus of Nazareth" by Gounod. Mrs. Schmitz will also serve as guest organist and render several numbers on the organ.

Rev. George E. Kurz is pastor of St. James Lutheran Church and Miss Beth Andert serves as deaconess.

The public is invited. A still greater bore—One who keeps on talking after he has made his point.

Church Window To be Dedicated

On Sunday, December 9, at St. Michael's Episcopal Church, Grosse Pointe Woods, the Rector, the Reverend Edgar H. Yeoman, will dedicate the last of the large stained glass windows in the Nave of the Church.

Known as the Woman's Window, it is the gift of Humphreys Springstun, in memory of his mother, Ellen Humphreys Springstun. It was designed and made by the Willet Stained Glass Company of Philadelphia.

The central panels contain figures of the Blessed Virgin and modern women from various phases of life. The three upper panels depict famous Old Testament women of the New Testament. The dedication will take place at the 11 o'clock service.

No doubt you will find a myriad of uses for plastic bags at Christmas time. To clean them, just rinse them out and dry them between dish towels as you do a nylon fabric. Turn them inside out and repeat the rolling between the towels.

Motorists Pay For Bad Driving

Charles A. Pinard of 25725 Normandy, Roseville, arraigned before Park Judge C. Joseph Belanger on Wednesday, November 28, on a charge of reckless driving, entered a plea of not guilty and was found guilty.

He was ordered to pay a $40 fine or serve five days in the Wayne County Jail. He paid the fine. In addition, his driver's license was suspended for a period of six months.

Robert W. Petz of 29000 Moross road, Detroit, was found guilty of causing an accident in front of 1153 Nottingham, and was assessed a fine of $40.

Peter J. Austgen of 18653 Hubbell, Detroit, paid a fine of $18 for speeding 48 miles an hour on Mack avenue, a 30 mile zone. He pleaded not guilty and was found guilty.

A fine of $11 was imposed against Vincent L. Thomas of 24474 Twenty-three Mile road, New Baltimore, after he was found guilty of speeding on Kercheval.

Vincent Garrisi of 28949 Boston, Detroit, paid a fine of $15 for causing an accident at Jefferson and Bedford.

Coral G. Hall of 843 Grosse Pointe court, pleaded not guilty and was found guilty of running a red light and was fined $8. Another fine of $1 was levied against her for not having a driver's license on her person.

Leonard Hollan of 2136 E. Congress, Detroit, paid $10 after pleading guilty to interfering with moving vehicular traffic while walking at Mack and Beaconsfield.

George A. Shulte of 3463 Harvard, Detroit, pleaded not guilty to pulling into moving traffic. He was found guilty and ordered to attend one session of traffic school. Sentence was suspended.

Floyd Cantrell of Milwaukee, Wis., charged with being drunk and disorderly, did not appear in court and forfeited a bond of $10.

William Bayma of 5074 Belvidere, Detroit, entered a plea of not guilty, and was found not guilty of making an improper left turn.

Charged with causing an accident at Mack and Balfour, Robert Haerberlein of Philadelphia, Pa., pleaded not guilty and was found not guilty.

MSU RADIO WINS REWARD

WKAR, the radio service of Michigan State University, has been awarded its third public service award by the National Safety Council for exceptional service to farm safety. The radio station's special activities for National Farm Safety Week included tape recording of safety messages by 60 Michigan farm leaders, broadcast by 33 other stations, and recording of interviews with people involved in farm accidents, carried by a 25-station network.

The White House was first lighted by electricity in 1890 during the term of President Benjamin Harrison.

Community Theatre Actors

Tensions finally explode in a German prisoner-of-war camp and former buddies come to blows. ROBERT KOEBEL (center), 28 Hawthorne, is held back by NICK ANTONI, 623 Notre Dame, while DR. HOMER TWIGG of the Veterans' Hospital, Windmill Pointe, wards off BOB VERNIER, 158 Moran. JANICE WHITE, assistant-stage manager, watches the script to make sure everything is correct.

Christ Church Plans Concert

The choir of men and boys of Christ Episcopal Church, 61 Grosse Pointe boulevard, will sing the Christmas Cantata: "For Us a Child is Born," by J. S. Bach on Sunday, December 9 at 4 p.m. under the direction of Richard Roecklein, organist and choirmaster.

This spirited composition, written some time between 1712 and 1714, is one of the most popular cantatas of J. S. Bach. It begins with a Simfonia for orchestra, followed by the first chorus, which is fugal in nature. The remaining solos and choruses display the joyful theme of the text and the work closes with a stirring setting of the Christmas chorale, "Alleluia, All Praise be God."

Soloists will include Master Donald Walker, soprano; John Moldovan, tenor; and Richard Webb, bass.

Accompanying the choir will be a Chamber Ensemble consisting of the following players: John Cataldo, Stella Racevich, Mary Alice Case, Violins; Stephen Ernst and William Garner, Violas; Ernest Robinson, Cello; Mary Dakers, Bass; Karl von Klock, Flute; Betty Frounfelter, Oboe; and Audrey Jennings, Harpsichord.

There will be nursery supervision for small children. Following the program coffee and tea will be served in the Undercroft. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Two Given Fines In Traffic Court

The City of Grosse Pointe Farms Justice Court session on Wednesday, November 28, was presided over by Justice of the Peace Grant E. Armstrong. Three cases were brought before the judge that evening.

Charged with reckless driving on Moross from Mack to Chalfonte, and found guilty of speeding was Daniel J. Morris of 735 Lake Shore road. He was fined $40.

Also found guilty of speeding on the same street, and convicted of his third serious traffic offense in three months, was Donald L. Domine. He was fined $60 and the Secretary of State has been notified with recommendation to suspend his license.

Joseph E. Dennis of Addison, Michigan, was given a suspended sentence upon full restitution of damages to W. T. Riley, whose car was damaged in excess of $100.

Young Thespians to Enact Famous Legend

The Grosse Pointe Children's Theatre will present three famous plays for the holiday season on Saturday, December 15 at 1:30 o'clock at the Cannon Memorial Center. Left to right: TOM FARR helps PAT GROEHN try on the wooden shoes she will wear in "Hans Brinker," while MRS. GILBERT GROEHN acts as wardrobe mistress. The other plays will be "A Robe for the Duchess," and "Bird's Christmas Carol." Teen age actors in the Children's Theatre will present "A Date for Judy" on Friday, December 14, at the Cannon Memorial Center.

Emerges Unhurt When Car Upsets

A Farms woman emerged from her car unscratched when it tipped over on its left side, following an accident at Charlevoix and Kensington on Tuesday, November 27.

A Park accident report disclosed that Enid M. Osgood, 40, of 735 Fisher road, was driving west on Charlevoix, when a car driven by Homer D. Hughes, 58, of 15301 E. Jefferson, going south on Kensington, entered the intersection and struck her vehicle.

The woman lost control and the car spun completely around, struck the curb and then went over on its left side.

Hughes' car was damaged in the right front; and Mrs. Osgood's, right rear and side.

Hughes was issued a ticket for driving into moving traffic and into the intersection and causing an accident.

Halfback Don McIlhenny of the Detroit Lions had never played on a team that won more games than it lost, both in college and high school, before he joined the Lions.

Mercy Sisters 125 Years Old

The Provincial House for the Religious Sisters of Mercy of Michigan, Indiana and Iowa, located on the Mercy College campus, Detroit, will observe the 125th anniversary of the order's founding on December 12 with a solemn High Mass in McAuley Auditorium.

It was on December 12, 1831 that Mother Mary Catherine McAuley pronounced her religious vows in the chapel of the Presentation Nuns, Dublin, Ireland.

In the remaining ten years of her life, she established a community which has grown from an original three members to more than 24,000, making it the second largest order in the world. It is surpassed only by St. Vincent de Paul's Daughters of Charity, founded nearly 400 years ago.

In this country over 12,000 Sisters of Mercy operate institutions in thirty-nine of the forty-eight states. Approximately 6000 have amalgamated and are known as the Sisters of Mercy of the Union in the United States of America. The Detroit Province is one of the nine divisions of this Union.

On the world scene, the Sisters of Mercy have convents in Ireland, England, Scotland, Newfoundland, West Indies, Central America, South America, Australia, New Zealand and South Africa.

The Mass at the Provincial House in Detroit, honoring Mother Mary Catherine McAuley, the educator, will be offered by the Reverend Thomas Bresnahan, Mercy College chaplain. His Eminence Edward Cardinal Mooney will be present.

Representatives from all schools taught by the Sisters of Mercy in the Archdiocese of Detroit will attend the Mass. They were: Mercy College; Our Lady of Mercy High School; Mercy School of Nursing; McAuley School of Practical Nurses, Pontiac; Immaculate Heart of Mary School; St. Monica School; Our Lady of LaSalette School; Berkley St. Mary Magdalene School, Hazel Park; and St. Anselm School, Dearborn.

Members of the Libri Club will meet on December 10 at 12:30 p.m. for a luncheon and meeting in the D.A.C.

Drivers Ticketed Following Crash

Two drivers were issued tickets for not having their cars under control and causing an accident at the Cadieux-Kercheval intersection, November 30.

Ina Wood of 14210 Burt road in Detroit, was driving her Packard south of Cadieux. Coming the other way on Cadieux was a Nash driven by Clarence R. Shirk, Jr. of Mt. Clemens. The cars met at Kercheval.

DARS To Hold Holiday Party

The members of the service committee of the Fort Ponchartrain Chapter of the DAR will hold their Christmas party at the Hilldale avenue home of Mrs. F. J. Dykstra on December 7 at 12 o'clock.

Co-hostesses will be Miss Agnes Krick, Mrs. K. N. Walker, Mrs. L. P. Richardson, Mrs. P. J. Meiser, Mrs. R. E. Hoflich and Mrs. G. H. Cummins.

Chairman Mrs. Colin Bain will conduct a short business meeting and then toys and gifts for children will be collected for distribution at Christmas parties at various schools. Bridge will be on the afternoon program.

On December 14 at the Women's City Club the Ceremony of Carols, written by Benjamin Britten, will be sung by nine better voices for the chapter members of the DAR.

The singers are also solo voices in different church choirs around the city. Mrs. Vernelle Peppers, of Ferndale, will direct and Nancy Kochenderfer will play the piano.

Luncheon at noon will precede the program and Mrs. William M. Perrett, Grosse Pointe chapter regent, will preside at a business meeting.

Josiah Harmer Chapter To Hold Christmas Party

Dorothy Lewis will be hostess for the General Josiah Harmer Grosse Pointe Park Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, in her home at 9815 Dundee avenue on Saturday, December 8.

As this is the chapter's Christmas Party, Miss Lewis and her co-hostesses, Mrs. Alex Meisinger and Miss Florence DeLand, plan to have Christmas Carols played during the luncheon at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. John Ottinger, regent, will preside over a short business meeting when plans for the chapter for a Christmas basket to be given a disabled serviceman's family, will be asked by Mrs. Robert Stewart, Red Cross chairman.

Miss Eunice Lamb of 410 Lothrop road, chairman of American Indians, will receive the donations that will help buy shoes and clothing for Indian children in one of the Mountain Schools sponsored by the D.A.R.

Mrs. Paul Cowan has planned a surprise Christmas program for the afternoon.

East Side Tri-Deltas To Aid Nursing Home

The East Side Group of Delta Delta Sigma will hold its Christmas meeting Wednesday, December 12 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Sheldon L. Drennan of Lakecrest lane. Mrs. Jack Heinrich will be the co-hostess.

The group will help plan Christmas decorations for the Fisher Road Nursing Home. Mrs. C. K. Manglos is in charge of arrangements.

All East Side Tri Deltas are welcome.

Daughter of British Empire Hold Yule Party

The Princess Beatrice Chapter, Daughters of the British Empire, held its Christmas party and luncheon on Monday, December 3, in the home of Mrs. George De Vos of Pemberton road.

Mrs. Arthur Schroeder was in charge of the program which included Christmas reading. Some 30 members attended the party.

Holiday Glamour Dish

An elegant buffet dish which makes excellent use of planned holiday leftovers is Turkey Tetrazzini, a lyrical combination of turkey, mushrooms and a pale cream sauce smoothed with evaporated milk and livened with sherry.

Glamorous as the famous soprano from which it takes its name, Turkey Tetrazzini teams beautifully with a tart salad, hot coffee and a pretty dessert for an easy and effective buffet. The evaporated milk adds creaminess and serves as the perfect blending ground for the delicate turkey and mushroom flavors.

Turkey Tetrazzini

- 1 can (3 or 4 ounces) mushrooms
 - 1 cup evaporated milk
 - 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
 - 2 tablespoons flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 1 chicken bouillon cube
 - 1/2 teaspoon onionium glutamate
 - 1/4 teaspoon Tabasco
 - 2 cups coarsely diced cooked turkey
 - 1 to 2 tablespoons sherry optional
 - 2 cups (4 ounces) cooked macaroni or spaghetti
- Drain mushrooms; reserve liquid. Add enough water to liquid to make 1 cup. Combine with evaporated milk. Melt butter in saucepan. Remove from heat and blend in flour, salt, bouillon cube and stir over low heat until mixture thickens and comes to a boil. Add Tabasco, turkey, mushrooms, sherry and macaroni, and bring to serving temperature. If desired, sprinkle with chopped ripe olives.

Yield: 4 to 6 servings.

It's a Whiz at Everything a car should do

It turns out that the 1957 Buick is far more than just a brand-new automobile. It turns out that this stunningly low-styled beauty is a wonderful new whiz at everything a car should do.

It turns out that this new '57 Buick is going and a new kind of stopping—a new kind of handling and a new kind of road sureness—a new kind of safety and a new kind of comfort.

We'll be specific. When you press the pedal of a new '57 Buick, the response is literally instant . . .

Because the high-torque power of a new 364-cubic-inch V8 engine is delivered in the split of a second through a new full-range Variable Pitch Dynaflo* that's immediate in its oil-smooth action.

When you brake to a stop, you and the car stay on a level plane . . .

Because an ingenious new ball-joint suspension in every '57 Buick virtually ends the down-in-front dip that cars have on sudden stops.

When you take a turn or swing into an "S" curve, you still hug the road like a streamliner on rails—

Because, and you are a massive wide-frame new chassis that "nests" the whole car inches closer to the road with the lowest center of gravity in Buick history—yet with no change in road clearance.

And when you sit in the deep comfort of those soft wide seats, you can drive with the pleasant ease of a clear conscience, without watching the speedometer . . .

Because only in Buick today can you

Have an ingenious new Safety-Minder* that acts as a warning sentinel for the miles-per-hour you preset for yourself.

There are many other new things that make this gorgeous Buick a car of limitless wonders—from the bigger and more rakish windshield that makes seeing more relieving, to the extra roominess that's so surprising in this beauty with the sports-car lowness.

But there's nothing like a firsthand sampling to know how modern the newest thing on wheels really is. Come in today for your meeting with the newest Buick yet.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional on modest extra cost on the Special Safety-Minder standard on Roadmaster, optional other Series.

Women Drivers Tangle on Mack

A minor traffic mishap on Mack avenue near Manor road, on November 27, involved the car of a St. Clair Shores woman and the 1954 Nash of Mrs. Mary McConachie of 1415 Harvard road. Mrs. Barbara Gwillim was pulling away from the curb when she was struck by the McConachie car. She admitted she pulled in front of the Nash. There were no violation tickets issued. The women decided to let their insurance companies settle the claims.

Teachers Hold Salary Parley

The first national all-teacher conference on the controversial subject of linking teacher salaries to merit concluded in Washington, D.C., on November 24. Larry Kennedy, social studies teacher at Pierce Junior High School, was in attendance.

Thirty classroom teachers came from all parts of the country to outline an approach to the establishment of more equitable salary schedules in the nation's schools. Twenty-four observers representing school administrators, professional leaders, and business men also attended. The conference was sponsored by the Department of Classroom Teachers of the National Education Association.

Traffic Cases Heard in City

Three cases were brought before City Justice Court Judge, Joseph P. Uvick, on Tuesday evening, November 27.

A $15 fine was paid by Stedman C. Humbert of 357 Rivard boulevard. He was found guilty of entering an intersection without proper caution and causing an accident.

John E. Kenealy of 927 Nottingham had a charge of car not under control causing an accident, dismissed, when the complainant refused to sign.

The charge against Mary P. Grasse of 692 Washington road, was also dropped when the complainant decided not to sign.

Judge Uvick fined Robert C. Morrison $25 for violation of the stop law. Morrison's case was postponed until November 29.

JOSEPH B. BRILOWSKI

Joseph B. Brilowski, 37, of 1248 Aline drive died on December 2 after a long illness.

He is survived by his wife, Greta; four children, Leslieann, JoAnn, John and Andrea.

Also his mother, Mrs. Mary Marie Roberts, Mrs. Evelyn Brilowski; brothers and sisters, Funke, Harold and Joanne Patricia Brilowski.

Funeral services were held today, December 6, from the Weitenberner Funeral Home, 13841 Gratiot avenue, at 9:15 a.m., and St. Joan of Arc Church at 10 a.m. Burial was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery.

CHARLES H. MARDEN

Charles H. Marden, former engineer of the Park, before it became a city, died last week at his home in California.

He was interred in a mausoleum in Oakwood cemetery, Saginaw, Mich., his home town.

Mr. Marden will be remembered for the many village improvements he undertook such as the development of the Windmill Pointe Subdivision, the closing in of the old Fox Creek with a storm sewer, the planning and landscaping of the present lakefront park.

He is survived by his wife, Nancy; and two sons, Donald and Charles.

EARL ALGA RUTLEDGE

Earl A. Rutledge of Clearwater, Fla., formerly of Merriweather road, died on November 27 at the age of 78. Before moving to Florida six years ago Mr. Rutledge made his home in Grosse Pointe for 30 years.

He was retired from the U. S. Rubber Company, where he was a member of the 25-Year Club. He is survived by his wife the former Marie Brunner; two daughters, Mrs. Lawrence (Nola) Campbell of Port Huron and Mrs. Joseph (Phyllis) Proctor of Aline drive; a son, Paul B. Rutledge of Lochmoor boulevard, and five grandchildren. Services were held on December 1. Burial was in White Chapel Cemetery.

Dinner to Fete Club Workers

The board of directors of the Grosse Pointe Woods Community Club will hold a buffet dinner for the staff and volunteer workers of the club this Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock, it was announced by Mrs. T. K. Jettis, president of the Board of Directors.

Over 20 workers of the community spend at least two hours each week in serving members of the club. The Community Club offers recreational and group activities for children in the community in the age range of four year olds through teenage. These activities are led by the volunteers and part time workers of the club.

The important qualifications of these leaders are their willingness to work with children and an interest and liking for them. The staff provides training and supervision for the volunteer and part time workers. In offering its services to the community, the club depends heavily upon community volunteers for its leaders.

Secretaries Will Model Office and Date Fashions

Rosemary Coon, Geneva Daniel, Hilda Howard, Helen Mattis, and Jennie Pesick—all members of the Detroit Transcript Chapter of The National Secretaries Association—will model office and date fashions at the Christmas Luncheon to be held by the Association on Saturday, December 8, at the Whittier Hotel, 415 Burns drive.

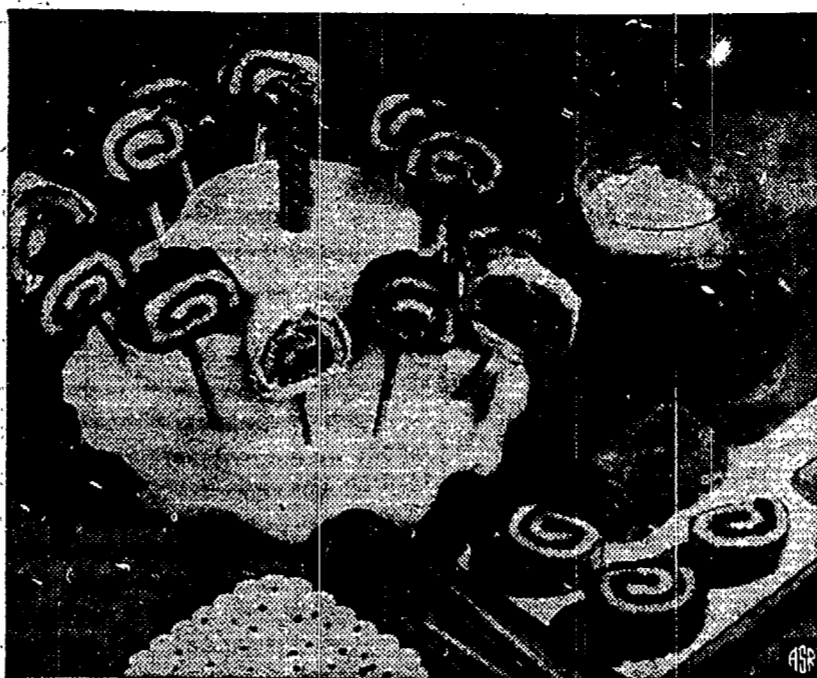

Cocktails will be served in the English Lounge from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Luncheon will follow in the Pompeian Room at 12:30.

Honored guests will be Mrs. Santa Claus and Merrie Christmas, whose identities are a well-kept secret not to be revealed until the great day.

Mary Kopacka will sing. Her accompanist will be Holley Prim. Both are NSA members. Edna Kemp is supplying the musical background for the fashion show.

Committee for the event comprises Anne Reynolds, Lillian Sumeracki, Mary Louis and Margaret Hlibay.

Treat for Youngsters

Here's a new dessert and party surprise that's certain to make you the most popular mother in the neighborhood—Jelly Roll Pops. The tots will love these bright jelly roll slices edged in creamy chocolate or white frosting. Miniature jelly rolls (2½ ounces) from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department are the perfect size for Jelly Roll Pops, and the frosting may be melted dot chocolate, made from prepared mixes, or from your own favorite frosting recipe.

Jelly Roll Pops

Miniature jelly rolls (plan three pops per jelly roll). Large meat skewers or narrow wooden tongue depressors.

Frosting

Thoroughly chill or lightly freeze jelly rolls. Slice each into three even slices. Insert a skewer carefully but firmly into the center of the bottom of each slice. Spread outside edges and back of each slice with frosting. Place, frosted side up, on baking sheet. Chill before serving.

Christmas Cards Make Fine Home Decorations

Peggie Case Paulus of Belaire, Texas makes the following suggestions for using Christmas cards as a decoration in the home:

The multipurpose pegboard, which you can buy at most hardware stores and lumber companies, served as a display center for our Christmas cards last year. We bought a board which measured 38" by 66".

After painting it to match our walls, we attached it to the wall over our dining-room table. Colorful golf tees were used to put the greeting cards on the board. The display caused much comment among our holiday guests.

Then on Christmas Eve we moved the table to one side and used some of the bottom rows of the board to peg up the family's Christmas stockings.

Wayne Presenting 'Messiah' Dec. 11

Four distinguished musicians of the concert world will join with Wayne State University's Choral Union and Symphony Orchestra for the 27th annual performance of the Christmas adaptation of Handel's "Messiah" on Tuesday, December 11 at 8:15 p.m. in the Masonic Temple Auditorium.

Harold Tallman, associate professor of music, will conduct the 250-voice Wayne State Choral Union composed of the University Concert Choir, the University Chorus and the Alumni Chorus. The symphony is being coordinated for this performance by Valter Poole, conductor and associate professor of music at Wayne and Robert Lawson, manager, assistant professor of music, Gordon Young of Detroit will be at the organ.

Janice Epke, soprano from Buffalo, N.Y., is well known to Detroit "Messiah" audiences. Detroit critics have rated her performance "most polished and assured." She last appeared in 1954.

Miss Epke has appeared as featured soloist with the Buffalo Philharmonic Orchestra and the Amherst Symphony. She has sung with such world-famed conductors as William Steinberg, Franco Aurioli, Howard Barlow and Joseph Rosenstock.

Martha Lipton of the Metropolitan Opera will sing the alto part. Miss Lipton, one of the most versatile and popular singers today, has appeared not only in opera, but in recital, with orchestra, in oratorio and on radio and television.

She has appeared with the New York Philharmonic Symphony, the Symphony of the Air and the orchestras of Philadelphia, Boston, Chicago, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati.

The versatile Fritz Krueger, who, in addition to his career in music, studied pre-medics for a year in Pekin, China and took pre-theological work in Nebraska, will sing tenor.

Krueger was leading tenor with the Philadelphia Opera Company for three years. His career has also included engagements in concert, oratorio and radio throughout the United States as well as a turn at Victor Herbert operettas, and an excursion into Italian opera buffo and the heavier work of symphonic solo and grand-tenor.

Louis Sudler, famed Chicago baritone will sing bass for the Wayne State performance. An honor graduate of Yale University, Sudler was a member of the famed Yale "Whiffenpoofs."

He has been a frequent guest with major symphony orchestras and has appeared with many prominent conductors, among them, Pierre Monteux, Fritz Reiner, Antal Dorati, Valter Poole, Thor Johnson, Theodore Russell and Hans Schweiger. Tickets at $5.00, $1.00 and $2.00 may be purchased at Wayne's ticket offices in Old Main and Student Center.

UAW to Conduct Bowling Tourney

The Sixth Annual UAW International Bowling Tournament, sponsored by the Recreation Department of the International Union, will be played on weekends in February and March at the Key Lanes in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Olga Macfar, UAW recreation director, announced. Last year's prize fund was $11,500, she said.

The Tournament will open February 2. Members of the UAW and all other AFL-CIO unions are eligible to participate. The tourney will include men's and women's teams, doubles and singles, and the entry fee is $4.25 per person per event. Closing date for entries is January 11.

Bowlers seeking further information may contact the UAW Recreation Department at 8000 East Jefferson, Detroit 14, Mich.

Four Cars Tangle At Intersection

Four cars were involved in a chain reaction accident on Kercheval near Fisher road, Wednesday afternoon, November 28.

Patricia Lee Scarborough of 15023 Kercheval avenue, was stopped in the traffic lane waiting for the red light to change at Fisher. The rear of her 1954 Oldsmobile was struck by a Ford convertible driven by Calvin E. Knorpp of 514 Barrington.

His car was struck in the trunk by a Pontiac driven by Robert J. Ban of 763 St. Clair.

The Oldsmobile of Mrs. Scarborough was pushed into another car, also waiting for the light to change. This car was not damaged and left before the police arrived.

All parties agreed to let their respective insurance companies settle the claims.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Small Measure of Comfort

We shall always be grateful to Dr. Thomas S. Davies, health commissioner of the Grosse Pointe-Harper Woods district. It was he who first told us we weren't dead. We had been so certain we were that we had been searching through the obituary columns for days, fully expecting to see our name. We didn't want to startle our friends with an apparition after we had been officially reported as among the departed.

We talked with the good doctor over the telephone, discussing the current diphtheria flare-up. Early in the conversation we ventured the guess that that was exactly what we had, a diabolical illness with which we had been wrestling for more than a week.

As soon as we mentioned the tenacity of the disease, he came up with the information that if we really had had diphtheria we would be dead some days past. So then we knew, but we confess the consolation was nigardly. We still didn't feel any better. In fact we suspected that we might be much better off to have the whole thing over with, rather than suffering through the tortures of sleepless nights of wracking coughing, a throat full of red hot needles, a chest as tight as a well prepared bride's hope thing of the same appellation, legs of putty and arms of lead and a head the size of the stratosphere balloons, but twice as crowded.

When the good news that we weren't dead pierced our delirium we began to take notes on the diphtheria situation locally. It was all almost encouraging, everything considered.

The Pointe district, nor the surrounding areas have known any diphtheria cases to date. As of Monday there had been 132 cases in Detroit, Dr. Davies points out that there is a much higher immunization ratio in the Pointe than in the so-called hotspots in Detroit. He judges that out here about 80 percent of the children have been immunized against the disease, whereas in Detroit this percentage would probably not run more than 20.

Dr. Davies sees no cause for alarm in this area. He advises all parents whose children have not been immunized to consult their private physicians and see that shots are given. The supply of toxoid has about been used up.

When asked about the protection which childhood inoculation would afford the present adult generation, Dr. Davies said they would have some defense. The antibodies are still present to some extent in the blood and would go to work immediately if the disease should strike anyone who had been immunized. Booster shots are strongly recommended however.

The health commissioner reminisced a bit about the old days when diphtheria was one of our most feared enemies. He said after he got through medical school he worked for a few years at Herman Kiefer Hospital. There was one pavilion there that always had some 450 diphtheria patients isolated. Now the presence of 132 cases in the whole Detroit area is great cause for alarm. Thus is the miracle of modern medicine manifest.

And just to show the kind of person this Dr. Davies is... he happened to let slip the news that he had been down in Detroit that morning, volunteering to help with the mass inoculations being given children in the hot areas.

He and one other doctor had given about 800 shots that morning to kids at the Campbell School in Alexandrine street. And all he could talk about was the wonderful teamwork of the nurses and other volunteers who prepared the needles and kept everything moving and sterile.

So all of you thousands of Pointers who are suffering the tortures of the damned with the colds and coughs that are prevalent... stop worrying. It isn't diphtheria or you would have been dead days past. The agony will only last a few more weeks. Some of our dearest friends have confided that they have had the same horrible affliction for months... a comforting thought.

Just grin and bear it, keep on hacking and whooping and sweating and praying and it will all be over with some day in the not too far distant future.

Sees Big Year For Car Sales

A prediction that many new car buyers who helped make 1955 the all-time record automobile sales year will come back into the market for 1957 models was made by J. C. (Larry) Doyle, general sales and marketing manager of the newly-named Edsel Division of Ford Motor Company.

In a luncheon address in Los Angeles before a group of bankers and finance men, Doyle revealed some hitherto unknown facts about the 1955 record year, when 7,170,000 new cars were registered.

"The 1955 market was not 'borrowing from tomorrow,' as so many people have tried to prove," Doyle said. "Instead, it revealed a new depth to the market and saw new car ownership begin to approximate a level more consistent with the size of our population and its vast buying power."

Studies have shown, he said, that new car buyers of the current year come principally from people who did not buy a car the previous year.

"The 1955 installment buyers are liquidating their obligations in an orderly manner and many will be able to enter the new car market again in 1957," Doyle

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

This is Monday morning and we have come to the conclusion that Arthur Godfrey probably has more fun on his own program than does his vast t-v audience. This a.m. as we watched him wallowing in the Florida sunshine, he spent most of the program talking to the operator of his helicopter.

That little man was hovering over the Miami landscape while Arthur told the camera man to "stay on" the copter. Godfrey would say to his audience: "LOOK at that scenery! Ma, turn your t-v on and sit down and enjoy this beautiful sight." Every now and again he would comment on a building or tree or group of houses... all of which WHEN they could be seen looked like a toy village that comes with a train set.

HOWEVER... nothing happened here at all... just squawking and black and white wavy line. We thought it might be US, so we donned our Parka and went next door to check on the neighbor's set. Same deal... howling, scratching, jumping black and white NOTHING. It must have been fascinating to people listening on radio!

If you are a user of glass cooking dishes you'd better watch your step! We attended a luncheon at a Pointe home recently... and as we sat sipping Papaya juice out of a coconut... we could smell the aroma of a magnificent beef and kidney stew wafting its tantalizing way into the drawing room. Time marched on and finally the hostess sallied forth into the dining room to check on things, when suddenly the casserole disintegrated and "blew up" all over her million dollar lace table cloth!

The food had been cooked in the casseroles and they must have been hot as a fired pistol... but as soon as the small can of sterno was lit underneath to keep the dishes hot... BANG went the works. Since the food was well mixed with broken glass and most of the gravy was soaked into the tablecloth, the guests trekked back to the Papaya bar and waited until the hostess came up with some hurriedly scrambled eggs. Vive la hen! May the fowl set always wane.

The following composition was written by a 10-year-old school child at Poupard School... It speaks for itself and we think it ought to go down in history...

"Once upon a time there was a pea named Peter and he lived in a pod with his mother, father, brothers and sisters. Every day he went to school like a good boy. He helped his father make furniture. He was a very good boy. One day his mother told him to go to the store and buy some butter and milk and to watch the road every time he crossed. On the way there he played marbles and he lost the money so he went home without the butter and milk or the money so his mother sent him to bed without any supper. Peter was so mad that he ran away.

Then he got married in a couple of years and lived happily ever after."
(We don't think there is one danged thing we can add to that!)

Having trained the wild Indian poodle Nuba to do tricks at the drop of one word... we were highly amused one day recently when a local gent asked us to look in on his dog... a golden retriever... to see what we thought of his prowess as a trainer.

Our hero started out by asking us to tell his dog to go fetch a bone. We did exactly what we do with Nuba... say "sit"... then toss the object, then say "fetch"... which she does. Nothing happened.

The little man then proceeded to show us the right way to do it. He told the dog to sit... then he gave with a speech almost as long as the Gettysburg Address. He and the dog looked at each other while he said: "Now Spot, I want you to go across the room when I tell you to, and bring that rubber bone back to me and put it in my hand. Do you understand?" The dog said he did... so then the master launched into another great tale of what he was to do. The up-shot was that when he was all through talking, the dog turned on his hind legs, left the room and never came back!

And before we leave the dog kingdom... we DID see a marvelous trick a local man taught his poodle. Stashed away some place in his library, the gent has a pseudo fifty cent piece. He keeps a duplicate in his coat pocket. When he makes with the trick, he has the dog's attention while he puts the pocket piece up his sleeves. Then he sez to the animal, "Go get the fifty cent piece." Quick as lightning, the dog leaves the room, goes to the library and brings back the hidden coin in his mouth. THIS dog will like Nuba to marry!

We are told that a newly rich couple who live in the Pointe have just about out-done everyone in sight as to clothes, jewelry, house decor, etc. They have a garage full of expensive cars, domestic and foreign, but the piece-de-resistance is or are their two planes. One is marked "His" and the other "Her's." La-de-da.

Early Mailing Urgently Requested By Postmaster

Postmaster Edward L. Baker announced that there has been a steady increase in the flow of Christmas cards and packages through the Post Office.

He said he was glad to see that many people were getting their Christmas gifts for distant points into the mail on time, and pointed out that packages addressed to folks living in other states should all have been mailed before December 3, and those for nearby points before December 19.

Stressing the need for everyone to cooperate in his 1956 "Mail Early for Christmas" campaign, Postmaster Baker says that by following these three simple rules you're certain to have your gifts delivered before Christmas Day: WRAP THEM SECURELY, ADDRESS THEM CORRECTLY AND MAIL THEM EARLY.

He went on to say, "Of course early mailing of all Christmas cards and gifts is a big factor in getting everything delivered before Christmas. Keep in mind that careful packing and correct addressing is equally important. Every year many poorly wrapped packages break open despite careful handling and we often have to puzzle over addresses which are incomplete or simply cannot be read at all."

Advance care in preparing gift packages for the mails and making sure that all addresses are legible and complete will prevent disappointment to sender and receiver alike.

"If you have any articles of unusual size or bulk, better check with the Post Office before attempting to mail them," the Postmaster warns. "The limits on size and weight of packages varies, depending on the city of address."

Parcels to some Post Offices are limited to 72 inches in combined length and girth and 20 pounds in weight; others may be up to 100 inches in combined length and girth and 70 pounds in weight.

It is always better to use corrugated cartons for shipping your gifts, especially where there are a number of various sized objects. Use plenty of wadded tissue or newspaper in the cartons for extra protection against shock. Complete each package by wrapping in heavy paper and tying it with strong cord.

As extra precaution against loss, Postmaster Baker advises placing both your return address and the recipient's address on the package before it is wrapped.

Calorie Counting

Everyone who attempts to reduce has at least a slight knowledge of the calorie content of common foods. The more serious dieter has a more complete knowledge, naturally, gained by a longer and broader experience.

While counting calories will aid you in limiting the intake of food, it is not the complete answer to the dieting problem, as every doctor admits. Attention needs for protein, fats, sugars, as well as the individual needs for certain chemicals that must be constantly replaced.

Always consult a doctor before dieting! Let a competent pharmacist supply whatever additional nutritional the doctor should advise. This is the 625th of a series of editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

It is little wonder that books stand high among favorite items for Christmas giving. They are fun to select, easy to wrap, simple to mail and however many books the recipient has, others are always welcome.

The members of the library staff have pooled their ideas regarding books they would like to give or receive. Space permits mention here of only a few of these titles but a complete list of these suggestions is available at the desk of all three libraries.

A SINGLE PEBBLE by John Hersey is a short book, but a memorable reading experience. A young American engineer, whose goal is the harnessing of the Yangtze River, struggles with the Chinese understanding of time as opposed to Western hurry and speed. There is beauty in this recounting of the littleness of one man against an age old civilization.

A. M. Maughan's HARRY OF MONMOUTH, based on the life of Henry V of England should delight anyone who enjoys a well written historical novel.

Men who have read the Captain Hornblower novels will welcome C. S. Forester's AGE OF FIGHTING SAIL. This is a history of naval combat in the War of 1812.

The Civil War, a popular subject with many readers, is dealt with in a fresh dramatic way from the Union side, in THIS HALLOWED GROUND by Bruce Catton.

The first two volumes of Winston Churchill's A HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING PEOPLE would be a worthwhile addition to any home library. Volume I, BIRTH OF A NATION, covers the period from Roman occupation to the end of the 15th century. Volume II, the NEW WORLD, is an account of the period from the accession of Henry VII to the exile of James II.

For the home maker there is the Better Homes and Gardens DECORATING BOOK. This has over 300 full color illustrations with helpful suggestions for many decorating problems.

For someone who likes biography you might consider PROFILES IN COURAGE by John F. Kennedy. Senator Kennedy's book is a stirring and effective tribute to the courageous decisions made by those who have stood their ground on the Senate floor, from John Quincy Adams to Robert Taft.

Another excellent biography is HARLAN FISKE STONE, the learned, courageous and independent jurist, by Alpheus T. Mason.

Poetry lovers will enjoy Anne Morrow Lindbergh's THE UNICORN AND OTHER POEMS.

THE NUN'S STORY, by Kathryn Hulme, tells of the spiritual struggles of a nun from her postulant's vows to her final decision to leave the cloistered life. This has wide appeal, but the fact that it is both a Book of the Month and the Catholic Book Club selection, as well as the Readers Digest Condensed Book Club selection, may cause one to pause before choosing it as a gift.

The Children's Rooms of the libraries have been busting with activity in celebration of Book Week.

A tea and display of recent books for children was held Wednesday, November 28, especially for the elementary school teachers. This was well attended by some seventy adults, representing the Public, Parochial and Private Schools. Friday and Saturday, November 30 and December 1, were given over to three programs for boys and girls at the Central, Woods and Park Libraries. Mark T. Taylor, the American Troubadour, whose songs and stories captivate all ages, was enjoyed by more than four hundred children. A versatile musician, as well as an accomplished teller of tales, he delighted his audience with his Irish harp, his guitar and his shepherd's pipe.

LARGE SCALE RESEARCH
Research valued at more than $10 million—an all-time high—was conducted during 1955-56 by The University of Michigan's Engineering Research Institute, according to the Institute's annual report now being distributed. The figure exceeds by over $1.0 million the previous high of 1954-55, and is marked by a 69 per cent increase in the volume of work carried out for industrial groups, the report notes.

Saturday, December 1
PRESIDENT EISENHOWER announced that 21,500 Hungarian refugees, more than four times the number originally planned, will be admitted to the United States. He ordered the open door to give "practical effect to the American people's intense desire to help the victims of Soviet aggression." He said the refugees will be brought to this country with the "utmost practical speed."

Sources said that some 15,000 will be admitted to the U. S. under the McCarran-Walter Immigration law, rather than under the Refugee Relief Act. Admission under the former would permit the refugees to enter this country, but only under "parole" status, without the immediate right to permanent residence. The President said he will ask Congress to legislate to allow the Soviet victims to settle here for good.

RUSSIA MIGHT RECEIVE a warning from the Big Three, through the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, to keep hands off the Middle East, diplomatic sources said. Talks between Foreign Secretary Lloyd, French Foreign Minister Pineau and Turkish Minister of Foreign Affairs Menderes, is believed to have inspired the NATO warning against the Soviet arm buildup in Syria. Menderes said he will bring up the question of the buildup at the NATO meeting. He suggested that the other Baghdad nations, affiliated with the Organization, Pakistan, Iraq and Iran, co-ordinate military precautions with Turkey. However, Syrian Premier Sabri Al Assali denied his country is receiving arms from Russia.

RED CHINA'S PREMIER Chou En-lai hinted the regime in China might free American prisoners. In answer to a reporter's question before leaving New Delhi, India, Chou said that with good behavior the Americans "always have a chance of being released before their time is up."

At least two Americans, John T. Downey of New Britain, Conn., and Richard G. Fecteau of Lynn, Mass., are serving long sentences on alleged spy charges. Both are civilian employees of the Army, and were captured when the plane in which they were flying was shot down over Red Chinese territory. Downey was sentenced to life, and Fecteau to 20 years.

Sunday, December 2
FOR THE FIFTH TIME, the United Nations will seek to send observers to Hungary. The General Assembly will debate the question of a resolution urging the Red regime in Hungary to permit the UN political observers into the country. The United States and perhaps 10 other countries are expected to back the resolution which will come up in the Assembly tomorrow.

Cuban Delegate Emilio Nunez-Portuondo said he will inroduce a resolution, perhaps by Tuesday, to expel the Hungarian delegate from the UN Assembly, if Hungary refuses. UN Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold has been trying since early last month to send observers to Hungary, or to go himself.

ISRAEL ANNOUNCED it is withdrawing another brigade of troops from Egypt. It also said it will pull back to about 31 miles from the Suez Canal Zone. Notice of the withdrawal was handed to United Nations Secretary-General Dag Hammarskjold by Israel Delegate Abba Eban. Normal brigade strength is about 3,000 men. So far, it is reported, Israel has withdrawn a total of 9,000 troops.

Israel occupied the Sinai Peninsula on October 29. British Foreign Secretary Lloyd is expected to inform the House of Commons that British withdrawal is expected to begin at once and that it is hoped to be completed at the latest by Christmas.

MARTIAL LAW WAS PROCLAIMED by Iraq, and Syria called for United Nations' considerations of "conspiracies" aimed against her by Britain, France, Israel and Turkey. In his speech opening parliament, King Feisal announced the imposition of martial law to safeguard the rear of Iraq troops presently stationed in Jordan.

The Foreign Minister of the Damascus Government, Salah Bitar, called the attention of the UN to "threats directed against Syria and conspiracies hatched against her." He demanded the issue be brought before the Assembly, claiming it was endangering the peace. Sources claim that Syria is controlled from behind the scenes by a pro-Soviet triumvirate lead by Col. Abdul Sarraj, military intelligence chief.

Monday, December 3
PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, it was reported by an American correspondent of the American Broadcasting company in London, threatened to use force against Britain and France to bring cease-fire in Egypt. The correspondent said the threat was issued by the Chief Executive just two days before his re-election. In Washington, a State Department spokesman said "We have no information" on the report, and in London, British officials refused to comment.

In a broadcast from London, ABC correspondent Yale Newman said, "I can tell you on very high authority from both British and American sources in London that the President threatened the use of the Sixth Fleet, stationed in the Mediterranean, unless the cease-fire came about."

HUNGARIANS CONTINUED their open defiance of the Russians in Budapest, even in the face of Soviet guns. News reports from a number of provinces indicated that guerillas have not let up on fighting the Russians in the mountains and forests. Informed sources said a Soviet commandant of the southern city of Pecs, was killed by freedom fighters.

In Budapest, hundreds of demonstrators marched in protest after Russian soldiers kidnaped an unknown man in the city street. Soviet soldiers threatened the rioters with guns, but when this had no effect, the soldiers withdrew without firing a shot.

THE TAX FOUNDATION disclosed that Federal, State and local governments were taking an average tax bite of $608 from every person in the country during the past fiscal year. It also said that the governments spent $894.84 a person. The Foundation revealed all levels of government are going into debt at a record rate.

All forms of spending in fiscal 1956 reached a record 114 billion dollars, seven billion more than last year. The government debt has been set at 319 billion dollars as of 1955, of

Nab 'Explorers' In Closed Store

Two young boys who decided to explore the inside of one of the Village stores, on Sunday, December 2, were picked up by City police a few minutes after they forced a rear door.

The A.D.T. Alarm company notified police that it was receiving a signal from the store Sunday afternoon. A squad car was immediately dispatched to the scene. The boys said they cut the wires to the alarm on top of the door and then forced their way inside.

They were reprimanded at police headquarters and then released to their parents.

which the Federal debt accounts for 274 billion, state 11 billion and local government the balance.

Tuesday, December 4
BOWING to United Nations demands, Britain and France announced they will withdraw their troops from Egypt. They said the withdrawal will be completed by Christmas. At the same time, British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd said Israel should leave the Gaza Strip and let the UN police force take over there. He said that some British salvage ships will remain in Egypt to help clear the Suez Canal of sunken vessels. Conservative rebels in the House of Commons called the Anglo-French backdown "humiliating." The Laborites called it "the biggest free gift to Communist propaganda since the war."

Wednesday, December 5
PETER KOS, Hungarian minister to Washington and chief Hungarian delegate to the United Nations, is really Lew Konduktorow, Russian-born citizen, it was charged. The charge was made by Laszlo Helmecczy, a political expert in the English-American section of the Hungarian foreign ministry until he fled to freedom in Austria last week.

He said that the first thing Imre Nagy did when he became premier of the country when it appeared the rebellion in Hungary would be successful, was to fire Kos. However, Kos was reinstated when Puppet Janos Kadar came into power, backed by Soviet might. Helmecczy said Kos is the top agent and contact man of the Soviet Politburo in the Hungarian foreign ministry.

Pillar Masons Install Dec. 11

Pillar Chapter No. 181, Royal Arch Masons, will hold its annual installation of officers Tuesday, December 11, at 8 p.m. in Pillar Temple, 14329 Kercheval avenue.

Past Grand High Priest James Fairbairn Swith will be the installing officer. Dr. William A. Hudson, Grand Scribe, will assist.

Highlighting the affair will be a military escort for the new officers by Damascus Commandery No. 42, Knights Templar. Also, for perhaps the first time in Michigan, the new officers will be installed in their ceremonial robes, which are seldom, if ever, used in public ceremonies.

George Suter of 10824 Goethe will become Excellent High Priest and promises all who attend a sumptuous buffet luncheon after the investiture.

Rams into Rear Of Parked Car

Arthur P. Abbey, 53, of 900 Rivard boulevard, was issued a ticket by Park police on Tuesday, November 27, after he became involved in an accident on Mack, between Lakepointe and Beaconsfield.

Abbey was charged with not having his car under control and striking a car driven by Albert D. Randall, 30, of 22336 Downing, St. Clair Shores, in the rear.

A Park police report revealed Randall had stopped behind another car which was attempting a left turn.

No one was hurt, the report said.

DRIVER POSTS BOND
 Angus L. Matthews of 22301 Englehardt, St. Clair Shores, posted a $100 bond with Shores police on Friday, November 30, to guarantee his appearance in court on Monday, December 17. He is accused of driving while under the influence of alcohol. He was arrested while traveling north on Lake Shore road.

Exchange Club To Hear Debate
 A lively debate on the timely subject of the Guaranteed Annual Wage is scheduled for the next regular meeting of the Grosse Pointe Exchange Club on Tuesday, December 11 at the War Memorial Center.

Four members of the University of Michigan debating team under the direction of Mr. Moyné Cabbage will hold the debate and all club members are urged to attend this meeting. George Zimmerman is program chairman.

The semi-annual Grosse Pointe Exchange Club dinner party will be held at the Detroit Yacht Club on Friday, December 7. Co-chairmen for this party are Robert H. Taylor and Arthur C. Dannecker.

The present club officers are Morris R. DeFour, president; Howard C. Neale, vice-president; Dr. William L. Labadie, secretary, and Roy W. Barrett, treasurer.

Christmas Tree Advice Offered
 Does your Christmas tree shed its needles long before you want to take it down?
 Lester Bell, Michigan State University extension forester, offers advice on the selection and care of your Christmas tree to help you get the most enjoyment from it.

Some trees hold their needles much longer than others. Red, white and Scotch pines have excellent holding ability. In the low humidity and high temperature of your home, you may expect these trees to hold their needles from the second week of December into January. Fir will hold their needles through the holiday; spruce are the first to shed their needles.

Its fragrance is one of the most noticeable features of an evergreen. All of the pines, the white pine in particular, have a very pleasant fragrance. Firs have quite a pleasing fragrance but that of the spruces is sometimes objectionable.

After you have decided whether a pine, spruce or fir best suit your needs, you must choose your individual tree. Bell lists a few important things to consider in your selection. The most attractive tree is quite dense and has good balance. The setting for the tree will dictate what type of balance you need.

A tree with three full sides and one rather flat side is perfect to use against a wall. A tree in a corner needs only two full sides while a tree in a picture window must have four attractive sides. A good taper is also important. The sides of a perfect tree taper at a 30 degree angle from the bottom straight to the top. The more closely a tree resembles a symmetrical cone the more attractive is its shape.

A dark green to blue-green tree is the most beautiful, while a greenish-yellow tree may look pale. Watch for trees that look pressed together; they probably have been cut very early and stored. These trees are not fresh and will not be attractive very long.

Bell reminds you that the average ceiling is eight feet high; when you have to cut the top off to make it fit, the tree looks chopped off. Unless you plan to cut the bottom off to use as foliage, buy a tree that fits the room.

After you choose just the right tree, take care of it. Bell directs you to cut one and one-half inches from the trunk and place the tree in a pail of water until you are ready to set it up. Use a stand which holds water to keep the tree fresh and safe, and replenish the water frequently. Water is as effective a fire retardant as the latex base sprays.

For the safest, most attractive tree, make a wise selection and give it lots of water, Bell concludes.

His only fault is that he has no fault. —Pliny the Younger.

Churchmen Set For Tree Sale
 The Grosse Pointe Congregational Church Men's Club has completed arrangements for conducting its Sixth Annual Christmas Tree Sale for the benefit of the church.

Beautiful Christmas trees are so much a part of the Yuletide festivities, in most homes, that the club has made possible a choice selection of Scotch Pine, Balsam and Spruce trees on its lot this year, located at 17500 Mack avenue at Neff road.

To avoid the last minute rush and to guarantee best selection, everyone is urged to visit the lot early. It will be open for business from Friday, December 7, on.

The club has adopted for use again this year, the motto — "Top Quality Trees for a Top Spiritual Purpose," and are hoping to repeat the outstanding results of preceding years.

Total U.S. petroleum production in the past 10 years is valued at 62 billion dollars—about equal to the total value of all other minerals, metals, and fuels produced in the nation.

Woods Employes To Get Turkeys
 The Woods council has seen to it that the city's employes will enjoy a good Christmas.

The council approved appropriations of $522.60 on Monday, December 3, for the purchase of 67 turkeys, one for each municipal worker. Excluded are members of the council.

DeGrees to Entertain At DAC Before Ballet

Mr. and Mrs. Edward G. DeGree, of Lewiston road, will entertain at an early dinner party at Detroit Athletic Club this Thursday, Dec. 6, before the group attends the Ballet-Russe performance at Masonic Temple.

Their guests will be their son-in-law and daughter, the George Jurys; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hesse, the John Paynters and the Jack B. Baldwins.

Fumbled Purse Cause of Crash
 A Detroit woman took her eyes from the road to pick up a purse she dropped on the floor of her car. Her moment of forgetfulness resulted in an injury accident Monday morning, December 3, on Kercheval near Lewiston.

Loretta Rose Templeton of Greenfield avenue, in Detroit, was driving east on Kercheval when she bent over to pick her pocketbook from the floor of the car. In the next block George Lee Thomas of 5685 Missouri, Detroit, had stopped to make a left hand turn onto Lewiston road. When Mrs. Templeton looked up it was too late to avoid hitting the other car.

Damage to both cars was estimated by police to be about $500. Mrs. Templeton and her young son, Vance, were slightly injured.

According to the Bureau of Labor Statistics, the average hourly earnings for workers in petroleum refining last year was $2.46, compared with $1.88 for workers in all other manufacturing industries!

Detroit Council Seeking Advice on Dating of Milk

The Common Council of the City of Detroit wants to hear from housewives, parent-teacher groups, consumer organizations and others on how they feel about discontinuing the dating of milk.

The Council has set Wednesday, January 18, at 10:30 a.m. for a public hearing in its chambers at the new City-County Building. The public hearing was set after an ordinance was introduced last week which would permit creameries to discontinue putting dates on milk. If there are no objections at the public hearing, undoubtedly the ordinance will be adopted.

Originally, creameries were required to carry the date of pasteurization on each bottle but a number of years ago the Council, to help the milk industry, changed this requirement to permit milk to be stamped four days after bottling. Now, however, the Detroit milk dealers declare this to be a useless and expensive procedure and have requested the Council for permission to do away with all dating.

Councilman Mary Beck, who is on record as wanting milk dating continued, contends that while milk may not be dangerous after standing for four days, there is no guarantee that milk more than four days after bottling won't be sold.

"We can trust the creameries to furnish only fresh milk but how would we ever know that dealers all over the metropolitan area are selling fresh milk, if there is no date on it?" asks Miss Beck.

Miss Beck also points out that the taste of milk changes every day after it is pasteurized.

"Maybe old milk won't make you sick, but if you pay for fresh milk you ought to get fresh milk," she says. "Stale bread won't hurt you either, but you know when you get stale bread and anyway they sell it at a reduced price."

Miss Beck also is investigating the effect of long-time pasteurized milk on the health of infants.

"For years all we've heard is that babies must have real fresh milk but now some people contend it isn't so necessary after all," she explains. "I intend to find the facts behind all this."

In answer to the argument that milk dating is an added expense to the milk industry, Miss Beck says no one has offered to reduce the price of milk when and if milk dating is eliminated.

"But I don't think people want milk dating to stop under any circumstances," she says.

Other Councilmen don't know either, so they have arranged the public hearing. Meanwhile, all members would welcome comments from citizens. The Councilmen, in addition to Miss Beck, are: James H. Lincoln, Louis C. Miriani, Edward Connor, Charles Youngblood, William Rogell, Eugene Van Antwerp, Blanche Wise, and Del Smith. They can be reached care City-County Building, Detroit 26, Mich.

Pierce P.T.A. To Meet Dec. 11

The Pierce Parent-Teacher meeting will be held on Tuesday evening, December 11, at 8 o'clock in the auditorium.

E. O. Warren, president, will preside over the business meeting. Dr. James A. Bushong, superintendent of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools, will be the guest speaker for the evening.

The latter part of the evening will be spent in the cafeteria in a social hour. Mr. G. Gordon Cook and her social committee will act as hostesses and will serve refreshments.

The traditional Christmas Vespers Program will be presented on Sunday afternoon, December 16, at 4 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Farms' Truck Struck By Car

Two large trucks owned by the City of Grosse Pointe Farms were stopped on Chalfonte avenue facing in opposite directions early Saturday afternoon, December 1.

The drivers of the trucks were talking to each other when Rita Marie Taylor, driving a 1955 Oldsmobile, bumped into the rear of the truck facing east.

The woman failed to see the emergency light on the roof of the truck, until it was too late to stop. Her car could not be driven after the accident. Police estimated the damage to be about $200.

Nicholas-Soule Troth Told at Family Dinner

The engagement of Sandra Anthony Soule to John Paul Nicholas, son of the Rev. Paul Nicholas, of St. Clair Shores, and the late Mrs. Nicholas, has been announced.

The news was told recently at a family dinner and the wedding will take place June 15 in the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church.

Miss Soule attended Indiana-Wayne State University and her fiance studied at Wayne State University where he was a member of the Arnold Air Society.

HOUSEHOLD HINT

Save your thumbs when it comes to cracking those large, plentiful Brazil nuts for holiday cake and cookie baking. The best way to remove the shells, say M.S.U. food specialists, is to cover the uncracked nuts with cold water, bring it to a boil and boil three minutes. Then, dry the nuts and crack the shells easily.

Filletts are the sides of a fish, cut lengthwise away from the backbone. They are practically boneless and require no preparation for cooking. Sometimes the skin, with the scales removed, is left on the filletts; others are skinned.

Laundry Problem Solved by Police

An excited housewife called the City Police station on Friday, November 29, and frantically pled for an officer to shut off her automatic clothes washer.

The woman said she could not turn off the machine when it started issuing large quantities of soapy water. In desperation she had pulled out the plug but the machine kept running.

When an officer arrived he shut off the water valve and explained to the lady that turning off the electricity was not the same as turning off the water supply.

Tackle and defensive end Gil Mains of the Detroit Lions got married while on the 30-day injured reserve list with a fractured bone in his ankle.

Exchange Club Holds Election

The Grosse Pointe Exchange Club recently elected new officers to serve in 1957.

Elected were: Joseph Januzzi, president; Robert Shannon, vice president; William Labadie, secretary; Roy Barrett, treasurer; and Board of Directors, to fill vacancies, Diamond Phillips, George Zimmerman, and Adolph Linclau.

All will take office next month.

Park Police Officer Takes Training Course
 Anthony Walsh, Grosse Pointe Park Police Department, attended the 11th Command Officers Training Course for police at Michigan State University, November 26-30.

The program was presented as a result of numerous requests from heads of law enforcement agencies. It was designed to provide additional training for supervisory officers from all law-enforcement agencies, including municipalities, sheriff's departments and villages.

Subjects for the five-day session included police history, behavior characteristics and wayward youth, maintaining discipline and the foundation of leadership.

Twenty local police department officials registered for the course, sponsored by six law-enforcement agencies and associations, the M.S.U. School of Police Administration and Public Safety and the Michigan Police Academy.

REPUBLICANS TO CONVENE
 Michigan Republicans will hold their Spring State Convention at Detroit, February 9; to nominate candidates for the April 1 election and select a State Chairman and Vice-Chairman, State Chairman John Felkens announced.

County Conventions throughout the State and the six District Conventions in Wayne County will be held on January 30.

Unique unframed water colors will be hung at the Artists Market just in time to attract Christmas buyers on December 13.

That's the day the annual holiday show opens at the Market with an afternoon tea to refresh the opening day patrons before they inspect the rare ceramics, textiles, jewelry and paintings by the local artists which are always the attraction.

Mrs. Ayers Morrison is chairman of the festive exhibit and Mrs. Benjamin Micou and Mrs. Walter Hickey are coming in from Birmingham to superintend the setting up of the work. They will be helped by William McGonagle of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

During the last week in January the Artists Market will celebrate its 25th anniversary and big doings are planned for then with Mrs. Harry L. Winston and Mrs. George Kamperman in charge of events.

Ibex Casting

In spite of the holiday parties which are studding their calendars, Ibex members met last night at the Stanton lane home of Mrs. George Caskey at a talent party to cast their February play. Bill Merrill, who will direct, came in from Will-O-Way to hear the readings.

Saturday night a gay group gathered at the Henry Murrays on Dean lane for cocktails. And next Friday night friends of the C. R. Rissons, Jr., have been invited to a similar soiree at their Ridge road home.

The Rissons' party is in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Stewart and Mr. and Mrs. Prentiss Douglass who will be coming in from Lexington, Ky., for the week-end.

Lewis Remicks Due in Pointe

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Palms Remick, who have been honeymooning in Europe these past two months since their lovely wedding in September in Brazil will arrive in Detroit about December 8 to spend Christmas with his parents, the Jerome H. Remicks, Jr.

Before sailing for their new home in Salvador, Bahia, Brazil, on the first of January, Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Remick, Jr. will honor the young couple at a small reception for the family and close friends on December 18.

Brothers of the bridegroom, Second Lt. Fenton McCreery Remick, currently at Fort Sill, Okla., and Jerome H. Remick, III, from the University of Michigan expect to be home for the holidays.

Center Holding 'Wassail Ball'

Holiday activities will get off to a rousing start for young single Grosse Pointers and their guests Friday evening December 14 at 9 o'clock at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road.

Christmas cheer and good fellowship will center around the wassail bowl which will keynote the refreshments for the evening. The center hopes to have its indoor tree up and a holiday spirit will prevail throughout the old mansion.

Don Barber's orchestra will play in the Great Hall and Caroling will take place at intermission time.

A group of five attractive batchelor girl Grosse Pointe school teachers who reside together have agreed to decorate, make arrangements for the dance and hostess it.

Yule Program Planned By Matinee Musicale

A Christmas musical program will be presented by members of Matinee Musicale gathered in the home of Mrs. L. B. Samson in Newport ave., Thursday, December 6.

Mrs. Richard Schmidt is program chairman for the day, and Mrs. R. C. Hill will assist with luncheon at 12:30.

The club is also sending personal Christmas notes to Mrs. Richard Palmer, now residing in Hartford, Conn.; Mrs. Earl Peters, living in Adrian, Mich.; and Mrs. A. E. Enson, in New York City. All are former Grosse Pointers who have moved since last spring.

Sisters to Welcome Friends to New Home

Many Pointers will attend the tea, Sunday, December 16, that the Auxiliary for the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor will give to show off their new home. The convent is the former residence of the Walter O. Briggs in West Boston boulevard. MRS. EMMETT TRACY, left, and MRS. CURTIS W. KEEGIN are among the hostesses for the party.

Triangle Show Due Here Jan. 2

Stretching the holiday season by an extra evening the Princeton Triangle Club will present its 65th annual production, "Take a Gander" on January 2 at the Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium.

Sponsored by the Princeton Club of Michigan, the performance will benefit the club's scholarship fund.

The cast and crew, all Princeton undergraduates, will be guests that afternoon at the debutante tea dance introducing Sandra Wiggins and Donna Wartena.

Buses will take the boys to luncheon, then to the Hunt Club for the party, then back downtown again. Alumnus Peter Paddock is organizing a debutante committee to help sell tickets and entertain the troupe.

On the committee are Herbert I. Lord, general chairman; Homes Bannard, assistant chairman; Gaylord Gillis, Jr.; Wilber Brucker, Jr.; G. William Duffield; Robert Rigger; U. B. Grannis, Jr.; Peter Paddock and Peter Van Osdol.

"Take a Gander" is being directed by Milton Lyon, director for Max Liebman's television spectaculars. The choreography for which the Triangle is noted is being executed by the well-known modern dancer, Peter Hamilton.

Detroit will be one of eighteen cities the troupe of 45 Triangle Club performers and musicians will play on a three week tour of the East and Mid-West.

Former Triangle Show members who made their mark in show business and the arts include Booth Tarkington, F. Scott Fitzgerald, Joshua Logan, James Stewart, Dick Foran, Jose Ferrar, Myron McCormick, Buddy Lewis and Brooks Bowman.

GP Farm and Garden Club To Meet at Backus Home

The Grosse Pointe Farms and Garden Club's December meeting will be a candlelight tea in the Lakeshore road home of Mrs. Standish Backus on Monday, December 10 at 5 o'clock.

Christmas carols will be sung by the Junior League Glee Club and donations taken for magazine subscriptions for Marine Hospital.

Women's City Club Holding Xmas Tea

Traditional Event for Members Only Will Be Staged in Clubhouse on Friday Afternoon, December 14

The Women's City Club's own traditional welcome to the holiday festivities, the Christmas Tea, will be held this year on the afternoon of Friday, December 14, from 3 to 6 o'clock in the fourth floor Lounge and Card Room.

Candle-lit tables, key-noted to the club's musical decor, cookies, cheery conversation with friends old and new, will be the highlights of this festive occasion that have made it one of the loveliest of the club's traditions, one to be cherished as a rich store of happy memories to brighten the year ahead.

Mrs. Benjamin C. Addison, of the Social Affairs Committee, who is planning the arrangements for this year's tea, has stressed the importance of this holiday event—as truly the City Club's own Christmas greeting to its members. Traditionally the Christmas Tea is reserved for members of the club only and there is no charge.

Past presidents of the club have been invited by Mrs. Addison to officiate at the Christmas Tea tables.

Hostesses who will serve during the afternoon will include, from the Grosse Pointe area, Mrs. William G. Siebert, Mrs. William H. Gmeiner, Mrs. Paul E. Hamman, Mrs. Gordon N. Cameron, Mrs. Ralph E. Cross, Mrs. Alfred W. Massnick, Mrs. John K. Busch.

Others are Mrs. Lloyd Grinnell, Mrs. Cyril W. Hirt, Mrs. John M. Hogle, Mrs. Richard

Miss Graham Weds Hal Horace Smith III

Pair Speak Vows Saturday Afternoon in St. Michael's Church; Bride Wears Mother's Pearls with Ivory Peau de Soie Gown

A wedding trip to Jamaica followed the Saturday afternoon rites of Kathleen June Graham and Hal Horace Smith III in St. Michael's Church.

The bride, daughter of the Thomas L. Grahams of Lochmoor boulevard, wore the pearls her mother had worn at her wedding with her ivory peau de soie gown.

The gown was fashioned with a picture neckline and bouffant skirt with appliques of Alencon lace, seed pearls and sequins.

A Juliet cap of Duchess heirloom lace edged with orange blossoms, which had been worn by the bridegroom's mother, held her illusion veil which fell beyond the full chapel train. She carried staphanotis and phalaenopsis orchids with her prayer book.

Miss S. Graham was her sister's maid of honor and the other attendant was Mrs. Raymond Boyd, cousin of the bride, of Toronto, Ont.

They were gowned alike in scoop necked bustle backed princess gowns of nymph green velvet with matching headbands outlined with face veils. Their bouquets were of Eucharist lilies and ivy.

Leonard W. Smith was his brother's best man. They are the sons of the Hal Horace Smiths, Jr., of Provencal road. Ushering were Henry E. Bodman II, Murray W. Sales, James D. Standish III and Gary T. Symington.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed in the church parlors Mrs. Graham chose gray Chantilly lace over peau de soie. Mrs. Smith wore ruby brocade silk. Both mothers pinned Vanda orchids to their purses.

When they return from their wedding trip the couple will make their home in Vernier road.

Taft Alumni Greet Head

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Sherer Jr., of Ridge road opened their home for a tea Monday afternoon in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Cruickshank.

Mr. Cruickshank, headmaster of Taft School in Watertown, Conn., was here to meet parents and prospective students.

John E. Caulkins, an alumnus of Taft, was host at a luncheon at the University Club Monday noon for Mr. Cruickshank.

While they were here the Cruickshanks stayed at the Country Club. They returned to Watertown on Tuesday.

Bridesmaids' Muffs Decked with Holly

Wilma Sue Martin, Daughter of the Bernard F. Martins, of Hawthorne Road, Weds George William Auch Saturday Evening in Gross Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church

Christmas holly decked the white fur muffs and headbands of the attendants at the Saturday evening wedding of Wilma Sue Martin and George William Auch in the Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church.

The bride, daughter of the Bernard F. Martins, of Hawthorne road, wore a white silk taffeta gown fashioned with a v neckline applique with lace and a stand up Queen Anne Collar.

Pearls formed the coronet which held her fingertip veil and she carried white carnations and holly.

Mrs. Edward J. Parr, sister of the bridegroom was the matron of honor and the attendants were Mrs. Frederick J. Auch, Jr., another sister, and Frances Martin, the bride's sister.

They were gowned alike in red peau de soie with draped red chiffon necklines.

Walter E. Auch was his brother's best man. They were the sons of the Frederick J. Auch, of Buckingham road.

Seating the guests were Frederick J. Auch, Jr., Edward J. Parr, Lloyd H. Jewell and Mitchell T. Louis.

Both mothers wore jeweled toned gowns and camellias.

Following a reception at the Village Manor the bridal pair left for Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., and Nassau. For traveling the bride wore a grey wool suit trimmed in gray satin with white accessories.

On their return they will live in a new home in St. Clair Shores.

Newcomers Dance at Club

Lochmoor Club was the scene of the Grosse Pointe Newcomers Club's recent eleventh dinner dance. Members of the club, prospective members and alumnae turned out making the holiday party one of the most successful parties of the season.

The club was decorated with Christmas mobiles, and with small trees flanked by red tapers on the individual tables. Poinsettia corsages also decorated the tables.

Following the buffet dinner, served from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock, guests danced to the music of Al Ross. Betty Adams was the soloist.

Kenneth Kurtz, who with Mrs. Kurtz chaired the party, was master of ceremonies for the floor show. First on the program was a quartet of singers, Robert Browncombe, Fred Schnarr, Richard Keller and Edwin Rose. The William Hoffmans entertained with a novelty dance. The whole party sang Christmas carols as a finale.

On the party committee with the Kurtzes were the Roses, the Bernard Chicks, the Fred Kummers, Dr. and Mrs. Lee Holly and the Hoffmans.

New couples, introduced at the party, include Mr. and Mrs. Frank Brandon, of Vernier road, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hausler, of Vernier road, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Martin, of Moran road, and Mr. and Mrs. Ken Davis, of Littlestone place.

Others are Mr. and Mrs. Graham Clark, of Middlesex road, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Boyer, of Hillcrest road, Clem Brossier, of Neff road, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hoffer of Colonial lane, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dooley, of McKinley avenue, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Wallace, of Harbor Hill, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fulton, of Vernier road.

The next Newcomers party will be a progressive bridge on December 14 for which several Woods area members will open their homes. A late supper will be served at Cupid's.

Lou Creekmur, Detroit Lions tackle with William and Mary, is a sales representative for a trucking firm during the off-season.

Mrs. George William Auch

WILMA SUE MARTIN, daughter of the Bernard F. Martins, of Hawthorne road, was married Saturday evening to Mr. Auch in Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian Church. He is the son of the Frederick J. Auch, of Buckingham road.

Cudia-Baxter Vows Spoken

Patricia Joan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Baxter of Union avenue, Ecorse, and Homer J. Cudia, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cudia of Beaconsfield avenue, were united in marriage on December 1 at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a ballerina length gown of imported Italian velveteen trimmed with seed pearl. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a pill-box head piece of velveteen and seed pearls also.

She carried a bouquet of white carnations with a white orchid center and ivy streamers. Matron-of-honor was Patricia Forch in blue velveteen ballerina length gown with a royal blue head piece and shoes. She carried a bouquet of blue and white carnations with royal blue streamers. Mildred Cudia, bridesmaid, was dressed the same as the matron of honor.

Judith Lynn, sister of the bride, was the flower girl, dressed in white velveteen with a blue velveteen cummerbund and large bow. She carried blue carnations in a small bouquet.

Best man was William Pappas of Chicago, Illinois, and the ushers were John Cudia and Mark Cudia, brothers of the bridegroom, and Ron Baxter, brother of the bride.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Whitaker Hotel for approximately 125 guests. The newlyweds motored to Miami, Florida, for two weeks and will reside in Grosse Pointe upon their return.

Mrs. Cudia is a 1952 graduate of Ecorse High School. Her husband attended Grosse Pointe High School.

The bride's mother was dressed in a toast color crepe dress with brown accessories. Mrs. Cudia wore a navy lace dress.

Both mothers had corsages of carnations.

For her trip the bride wore a gray tweed suit with black velvet trim and black accessories.

Garden Club Council Has Annual Meeting

Reports on Activities Heard and Plans Made for Coming Year; New Slate of Officers elected at Session in Center

The annual meeting of the Grosse Pointe Garden Club Council was held at the War Memorial Center on Thursday, November 29, with Mrs. Bert Luther Lindzey, president.

Other officers present were—Mrs. Donald C. Stevenson, recording secretary; Mrs. James B. Ogden, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Clarence Maguire, treasurer.

Following the regular business meeting reports of special committee were heard.

Since 1950 the Council has served as a clearing house between Dr. H. Leroy Selmeier of the High School and Pointe Garden Clubs sponsoring a Conserving Training School conducted each year at Higgins Lake. Mrs. Emil Leidich, chairman of this committee reported that five teachers had taken advantage of this opportunity in 1956.

The final report of the Grosse Pointe Clean-up Campaign was given by Mrs. Lindzey. The first Campaign was sponsored by the Council in 1950 and in 1955 the Grosse Pointe community was entered in a National Cleanest City contest which is conducted annually by the National Cleanup Bureau in Washington, D.C. Representatives from the five municipalities, Board of Education, public, parochial and private schools, PTA's, church, youth and civic groups, Health Department, local newspapers, business organizations and women's clubs, 86 groups in all, responded to the Council's call for help and participated in the Clean-up Campaign.

Grosse Pointe competed with more than 100 towns in the U.S. in the same population category, and won Second Place Award. An engraved trophy was presented to representatives from Pointe municipalities on May 10 at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. At this meeting the newly organized Junior Board of Commerce accepted responsibility for the 1957 Clean-up Campaign. The trophy and Clean-up scrapbook are permanently housed in the Grosse Pointe Central Library, 10 Kercheval avenue.

In 1955 the Council also in-

Movie Council Releases List

The Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and TV Council announces its list of approved movies for the month of December.

Especially recommended is the film, "Pillars Of The Sky," a story of Oregon Indians in 1868, who are a peaceful group until the government, by the way of fine print in a treaty, sends troops to build a road and fort in their territory.

The list for children includes "Walk the Proud Land," "Magnificent Roughnecks," and "Seven Men from Now." Recommended for teen-agers are "Attack," "Back From Eternity," "Hold Back the Night" and "Burning Hills."

Starting this month the council has added a new feature. Once in a while a movie of special merit does not appear on the council's list because it is not being shown locally. Therefore, each month, a list of movies rated for the "Family" will appear on bulletins and releases.

This month's list includes the following films: "Giant," "Solid Gold Cadillac," "Ten Commandments," "Sharkfighters" and "Silent World."

The Community Christmas tree lighting ceremony will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center on Sunday afternoon, December 23, at 5:30 o'clock. There will also be a visit by Santa Claus; a play by the Children's Theatre and refreshments.

Members of the Grosse Pointe Motion Picture and TV Council wishes, to all members of the community, a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Memorial Church Holding Yule Tea

Traditional Service Scheduled for 2:30 O'clock on Tuesday, December 11, in Sanctuary; to Hear Glee Club

The traditional Christmas services and tea at Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, always a happy interlude in the busy pre-holiday season, will be held on Tuesday, December 11, at 2:30 p.m. in the sanctuary.

The Women's Glee Club of Wayne State University, conducted by Malcolm Johns, and accompanied by Edward Druzinsky, solo harpist of the Detroit Symphony Orchestra, will present a program of Christmas music, beginning with Benjamin Britten's "Ceremony of Carols".

Following a scripture reading by the Rev. Paul Ketchum, the second half of the musical program will include a first performance of the "Carol of the Mountain People" which was composed especially for the Glee Club by Miss Wilma Hutson, organist and choir director at the Church of the Redeemer, in Detroit.

An unusual addition to the singing of the old French carol, "Bring Your Torches, Jeannette, Isabella", will be the playing of two flutes which were brought to this country from the Holy Land, and which date back to the time of Christ.

For 15 minutes preceding the service, Mrs. Ben L. Tallman will play Christmas carols on the carillon.

At the close of the program, tea will be served in the gymnasium, where the silver and gilded decorations will reflect the skilled artistry of Mrs. Joseph H. Lackey and Mrs. Hansel D. Wilson, who were appointed by Mrs. Paul Thompson to head the decorating committee. Assisting them are Mrs. Herbert V. Book, Jr., Mrs. Clarence W. Boydell, Mrs. William Carleton and Mrs. Douglas Macapine.

Mrs. James Lafer, president of the Women's Association, has asked the following past presidents to pour: Mrs. Charles H. Metcalf, Mrs. Henry B. Joy, Mrs. Gaylord W. Gillis, Mrs. Carl E.

Christmas Ball to Benefit Hospital

From left to right, MRS. CLAUDE A. GREINER, MRS. DAVID T. MARANTETTE, MRS. JAMES A. HERRINGTON and MRS. LEWIS FISHER BROWN are previewing the gowns they will wear this Saturday night to the White Christmas Ball at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club. They are all committee members working on the benefit for St. John Hospital. Proceeds will go to furnish the new outpatient building on the grounds at Moross road and Chandler Park drive.

Young People's Concert Dec. 8

The Detroit Symphony Orchestra will present its second Young People's Concert of the season Saturday, December 2, at 11 a.m. in the Ford Auditorium. Valter Poole conducts the program designed for parents and children alike.

The soloist will be Danny Daniels, interpretive tap-dancer of Broadway and television fame. Mr. Daniels will present Morton Gould's "Hooper Suite," a work written especially for him in which the composer wrote the dancer's "taps" directly into the score.

Also programmed are Beethoven's Overture to "Prometheus," excerpts from Rimsky-Korsakov's "Scheherazade," Villa-Lobos' "The Little Train of Capira," Carpenter's "The Hurdy Gurdy" from "Adventures in a Perambulator," and Saint-Saens' "Danse Macabre."

The series is sponsored jointly by the Junior Leagues of Birmingham and Detroit, the Women's Association and the Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony.

Miss Holtz Feted Before Dec. 22 Rites

Will Wed Lt. Frederick Charles Hertel in Christ Lutheran Church; Date Determined by Fiance's Leave From Air Force Base in Florida

When Janet Marlene Holtz and Lt. Frederick Charles Hertel, USAF, set their wedding date, the choice really was determined by Lt. Hertel's leave from the Graham Air Base at Marianna, Fla., rather than the Christmas season sentiment.

The leave came nicely for a Yuletide wedding, however—it's to be a December 22 evening ceremony in Christ Lutheran Church. After the 8 o'clock rites, a reception will take place at the Detroit Athletic Club.

Janet's parents are Mr. and Mrs. E. Richard Holtz, of Lakeland avenue. Her fiance is the son of the Frederick John Hertels of Elgin, Ill.

Mrs. Calvert Hugh Fletcher of Ann Arbor will be his sister's matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Elaine Kihen, Noreen Rupp, Mary Jane Grabill of Flint, all Tri-Delt sorority sisters of Janet, Suzanne Armstrong and Emily Harding. Joanne Holtz, the bride-to-be's five-year-old cousin, will be flower girl.

Stephan Hauser of Findlay, O., will serve Lt. Hertel as best man. Ushers include David Carson of Scarsdale, N.Y.; Calvert Hugh Fletcher and Robert Jewett of Ann Arbor; Edward Randa of Chicago, and Ralph Emerson Cross, Jr.

Bride-elect Janet has been widely feted, with more parties still to come. During her mid-November visit at the Elgin home of her prospective parents-in-law, she was honored by Mrs. T. O. Wright at a luncheon at Dunham Woods Club in Wayne, Ill., and by Mrs. Charles Haven and Mrs. Arthur Hamerstrom of St. Charles, Ill. Other early hostesses were Mrs. Russell M. Holiday Group Meetings Set

This Thursday the first of several holiday group meetings of the Women's Association of the Grosse Pointe Congregational Church will be held.

At 9:30 o'clock this morning Group 6 will meet for breakfast at the Roland road home of Mrs. William Hulswich.

On Friday at 12:30 o'clock Group 8 will meet at the Lothrop road home of Mrs. Austin Humber.

It will be a Christmas breakfast for Group 1 at 9:30 o'clock next Tuesday at the Lakeland avenue home of Mrs. Mary Schneider.

At the same time Mrs. Louis Charvat will open her North Edgewood road home for a breakfast for Group 2.

On Thursday, December 13, at 9:30 o'clock Group 3 will meet at the home of Mrs. A. R. Tapert of N. Oxford road.

All groups and their families are invited to the Church Social House on Tuesday, December 11, at 6:30 o'clock for a candlelight buffet supper. Carols will be sung by the Southeastern High School Chorus.

An ingathering of Yule presents for the tuberculosis patients at Herman Keifer Hospital will be accepted at this time. Reservations will be taken at the church office until Friday.

Prior to the dinner a closeout sale of the Mistletoe Mart merchandise will be held.

WAYNE CONCERT FRIDAY Wayne State University's Men's and Women's Glee Clubs will present their Christmas Concert on Friday, Dec. 7 at 8:20 p.m. in the large auditorium of the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Each club will sing two groups of numbers centered on the Christmas theme and will combine voices for the finale. Harry Langford, assistant professor of music conducts the Men's Glee Club. Malcolm Johns, assistant professor of music is conductor for the Women's Glee Club.

Nothing can be done at once hastily and prudently.

Small children may be taken to the third floor nursery at 2 p.m., where they will be cared for during the entire service and tea.

Members of the Women's Association and guests may obtain tickets for the tea from Mrs. Harold W. Merrill, ticket chairman, or at the church office. Reservations may be made in advance by calling TU. 5-3773.

Cannisters Help Dystrophy Drive

Detroit's Muscular Dystrophy drive for funds will be aided by the placing of 8,000 cannisters in food stores, drug stores, and in taverns throughout the city.

Pickup of the cannisters will commence about December 15, each one remaining in a location approximately three weeks.

Local Muscular Dystrophy officials point out that most of the 200,000 persons afflicted with the disease are children and the disease itself is invariably fatal. Funds derived from the cannisters goes into continuing research and for appliances and treatments for victims of the disease.

with Patsy Groehn as Uncle Jack and Paulette Farr as the mother.

Also in this play are Marilyn Wright, Pat Fleming, Sandy Clough, Lee Chamberlin, Larry Kelly, Lois Waterman, Sally Butler, Sandy Brown, Ann Schmidt, Terry Miller, Jeanne Carpenter, Susie Farr and Marilyn Meech.

Children from Christ Child House will be the honored guests at this matinee and also receive Christmas presents.

All the plays have been directed by Mrs. Sydney Reynolds with Mrs. Frank Tunks as assistant. The theatre is using a new stage set which they have constructed under the guidance of Floyd La Buhn, head of stage design at Denby High School.

The Grosse Pointe Community Theatre meets every Saturday at the War Memorial to train children interested in stage craft. The next term begins in the middle of January.

Edison Creates Dow Fellowship

First grant of a newly-created Alex Dow Fellowship in engineering will be offered to a graduate student at the University of Michigan, Walker L. Cislser, president of Detroit Edison, has announced.

The fellowship has been established by Edison in memory of Alex Dow, the electric power industry pioneer who headed the company from 1912 through 1940. The recipient, who will be selected by the University, will be awarded a $1,500 grant, plus tuition, for one year of post-graduate study leading to a master's degree in one of three engineering fields closely related to the electric power industry. The company will also make a grant of $800 to the department in which the student is to be enrolled. The new grant is subject to acceptance by the Regents of the University of Michigan at their December meeting.

According to present plans, the award will be rotated annually among several colleges and universities, each of which will be asked to select a recipient.

To be eligible for the Alex

Dow Fellowship, a student must be male, an American citizen and not over 25 years of age at the time of registration for advanced study. He must have an undergraduate degree with plans for continued study in electrical engineering, majoring in power system studies; mechanical engineering, majoring in thermodynamics and power studies; or nuclear engineering, majoring in reactor technology for power generation.

In addition, the recipient must have shown by undergraduate work and summer employment both aptitude and interest in some engineering aspect of the electric power industry.

initiated its Beautification Program which is the mass planting of Japanese Flowering Crabs by beauty-conscious, civic minded Grosse Pointers on both public and private property. With the help of Vincent R. DePetris, Mrs. David C. Lowe, Mrs. Ben W. Beyer and Mrs. J. W. Eskridge acted as co-chairmen. Mrs. Lowe reported that 520 Crab trees were planted this spring.

Discussion of activities for 1957 followed with emphasis on help with the LITTERBUG campaign and a Christmas lighting and decorating contest for next year, using the contest as a means of education in expressing the Christmas spirit with restraint and beauty.

The election of officers followed with Mrs. Ray Will as president; Mrs. James McMillan, vice-president; Mrs. Bea W. Beyer, recording secretary; Mrs. Ralph T. McElvenny, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Irwin S. Amberg as treasurer.

Representatives from garden clubs which compose the Council were; Garden Club of Michigan, Miss Christian Edwards; Grosse Pointe Garden Club, Mrs. Angus Goetz; Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club, Mrs. Ethel Leidich; Grosse Pointe Farm and Garden Club, Mrs. Harold R. Smith and Mrs. Vincent R. DePetris; Grosse Pointe Shores Farm & Garden Club, Mrs. Murray MacDonald; Grosse Pointe Woods Garden Club, Mrs. Peter Zambus; Junior League Gardeners, Mrs. John S. Hammond and Mrs. Grant E. Armstrong; Pointe Garden Club, Mrs. W. Hurst Montee and Mrs. Herbert Schmitz; Village Garden Club, Mrs. Taylor H. Seeber, and Windmill Pointe Garden Club, Mrs. Irwin S. Dominican Sisters To Hold Yule Party

Holiday Event on December 16 to Show Off the Convent On West Grand Boulevard to Friends of Sisters Of the Sick Poor; Pointe Women to Pour at Tea

To show off their new home at 700 West Boston boulevard the Dominican Sisters of the Sick Poor will open the doors of their St. Ann's Convent and welcome all their friends at a Christmas party on Sunday, December 16.

Auxiliary chairman, Mrs. Jerry T. Flanigan, has asked three women to chair the festive party. Mrs. Charles T. Fisher, Jr., Mrs. Edward V. Ott and Mrs. Eugene I. Van Antwerp.

Mrs. Gustave McClellan and Mrs. Fred B. Strale are heading the finance committee. The donations will be used to help the Sisters carry on their charitable work. Without assistance they could not provide hospital beds, medical supplies, linens and many other needs.

Mrs. Edward J. Charron is organizing the decorations and Mrs. L. Verne Ansel is the entertainment chairman.

Realizing a long-time dream of the Auxiliary to initiate a junior group, young members met last week at the Convent to organize a Junior Auxiliary.

Mrs. John P. O'Hara, Jr., and Mrs. Francis J. Perron, heading the reception committee for the party, hope to welcome many of the juniors at that time.

Miss Irene Ryan has mailed the invitations to the tea and Mrs. Walter A. Bayer, membership chairman, is looking forward to welcoming many new as well as former members.

Miss Dorothy A. Meyers and Mrs. Frank J. Weston are organizing the patron list.

Two chorals groups will perform, announce program chairmen, Mrs. J. William Lavigne and Mrs. Bert Lindquist. The Boys Choir from St. Francis Home and the Visitation HI

How to Pick Books for Kids

Don't be in a hurry when you are buying books for children's Christmas presents.

But stay in the book store long enough to look at the book and judge it on its relationship to the child. Know his interests, explains Mrs. Lennah Backus, family life specialist at Michigan State University, so you can suit the book to him personally. For example, if the child has a yellow cat for a pet, he will be very interested in a book about cats.

Mrs. Backus claims that this principle of choosing books with subjects which are familiar is important in selecting books for pre-schoolers. The picture books should also be vivid in color and have pictures which are simple and arranged one on a page.

terial books should be made of. Mrs. Backus says the hard cardboard ones will probably last longer and are easier for children to handle and turn pages. However, cloth books, which are now washable, are easy to carry around.

The subject you choose is important in books for pre-schoolers too. Poetry, like Mother Goose, is a perennial favorite; some books have even devoted the last pages to putting the rhymes to music. Mrs. Backus says that children especially like to hear repetition. A good book for this is Winnie the Pooh by A. A. Milnes. It's a book that grown-ups can enjoy, too.

Above all, reading should be fun. And, it will be if, before you buy the book, you think of it in relation to the child who will receive it.

Bonus Offered By Symphony

To all patrons of the Detroit Women's Symphony Orchestra who bought season tickets the orchestra is offering a bonus.

They are calling it "Afterglow" and it will follow the scheduled performance of the orchestra Saturday, December 8. Fred Kendall, tenor, will be the guest artist at that concert beginning at 8:30 o'clock in the Detroit Institute of Arts.

Two localities are included in the 65 member orchestra which is observing its tenth season. They are Arline Clossen, of Rivard boulevard, and Donna Marie Garber, of Bishop road. The final concert of the season will be April 12 with James J. Pellerite, flutist, and Edward Druzynsky, harpist, the guest soloists.

Theatrical Role Given To Darlene Del Zingro

Darlene Del Zingro, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Nicholas Del Zingro, has been chosen for a dancing part in the University of Michigan theatrical production of "Brigadoon."

Darlene, who was graduated from Grosse Pointe High School last June, is a freshman at the University where she is taking a course in liberal arts. She will be a member of Musketeer, a new group dubbed from the name, Michigan Union Show; Ko-Eds, Too, which will replace the all-male antics of the Union Opera forever.

The play is being staged at the Michigan Theatre in Ann Arbor December 5 through 7. The show will not go on the road this year, but a tour is planned for the future.

Darlene, who has studied ballet for the past nine years, had planned a career in the musical world, but just recently changed her mind and will follow in the footsteps of her father in choosing a medical career.

To Give Talk On Dining Art

Mrs. Helen Sprackling, nationally known author and lecturer in the field of dining art and custom, will be the guest speaker on the Michigan Antiques Lectures Series Thursday, December 6, at 8:30 p.m. in the Henry Ford Museum theater.

She will talk on "200 Years of Table Customs."

A former member of the editorial staffs of Woman's Home Companion and House Beautiful magazines, Mrs. Sprackling developed an early interest in table appointments both old and new.

Until recently, she was director of the Franciscan Library of Ceramics in New York which she founded with the aid of a leading pottery manufacturer. This included a rare library not only on the history and development of ceramics but also on the evolution and the changing design of the table top, its meals, modes and manners.

Mrs. Sprackling is the author of "Setting Your Table, Its Art, Etiquette and Service," which deals exclusively with the present day scene, and "Courtship, a Book of Modern Manners," written after the style of the early civility books. She is now working on a history of early meals and manners to be published next year.

She also has lectured at Colonial Williamsburg and the New York Historical Society.

Those attending this lecture will be given a preview of "American Historic Table Settings," a special Christmas holiday exhibit of table arrangements from the seventeenth century to the present. It opens to the public the following day.

The fine arts galleries of the museum will be open at 7:30 the night of the lecture. Refreshments will be served following Mrs. Sprackling's lecture.

The subscription price for the remaining four lectures in the Michigan Antiques series is $4. Single lectures are $1.50.

The first 10,000 to 15,000 conscripts for the new West German forces will report for duty April 1, according to a Defense Ministry spokesman. The men, 18-year-olds, probably will serve 12 months.

To Be Wed

—Photo by Storer of Spellman Mr. and Mrs. Alfred P. Roland, of Hollywood avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, CAROL MARIE, to Robert Arthur Godfrey, son of the Harold T. Godfreys, of Stoepl avenue. They both attended the University of Detroit. The couple will exchange vows on May 25.

The Green Bay Packers selected Notre Dame quarterback Paul Hornung as their National Football League bonus choice at the pro football draft meeting.

Harmonie Club Calendar Full

Harmonie's calendar for this month holds several events. It includes a dinner followed by a Christmas concert by the club's two choruses, Saturday evening, December 15; a party for children of members and their guests on the afternoon of December 22; and a teen-age Holiday Hop, December 28 from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m.

Reservations are also being received for the club's New Year's Eve party—which according to the committee will include an abundance of food, favors and frivolities. Fud dancing, of course.

At the regular Saturday dinner and dance last week several special parties added their share of gaiety. Two pointers were included in two of them.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Schafer of Dorthen road were hosts at a dinner for their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Evan Swann of Stanhope road, in observance of their tenth wedding anniversary. Other guests were Mrs. Swann's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Lewis of Kensington road and Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Firth of Nottingham road. A lovely arrangement of shaded red gladioli with green foliage formed the centerpiece.

Two men whose birthdays are the same, December 17, were given a surprise party in advance by their wives, Alexander MacDonald of Mt. Clemens and Clete Boyle of the Whittier—both well-known golfers. The complete surprise was maneuvered by Mrs. MacDonald and Mrs. Boyle. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Mitich of Dorthen road, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Buerge of St. Clair Shores and Mr. and Mrs. William Dennis of Tecumseh, Ont.

U of D High Students To Pay Honor to UMs

Members of the U of D High School Mothers Club will be entertained by their sons at a Christmas program in the school library on Thursday, December 13 at 2 o'clock.

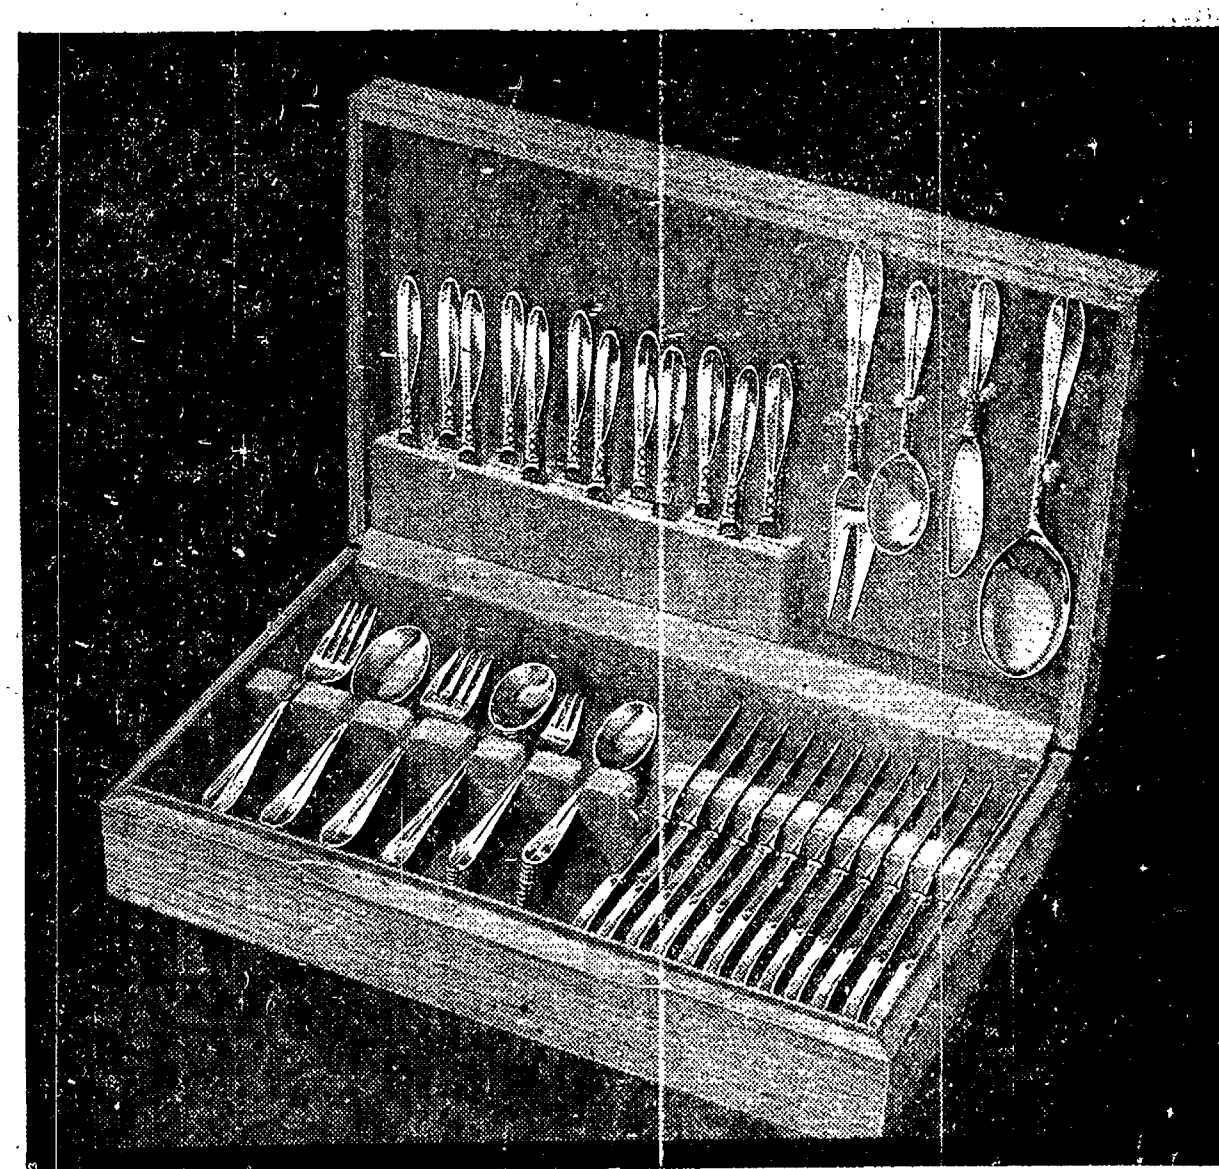

The program, under the direction of the Rev. Father Samuel Liserman SJ, will include a Chambers Theatre presentation of O'Henry's "The Gift of the Magi," and instrumental, choral and dramatic selections.

Attending the program from the Grosse Pointe area will be Mrs. Guy Loranger, Mrs. Nelson Taylor, Mrs. H. J. Oliver, Mrs. Joseph Daoust and Mrs. Joseph Reck.

Special lectures are scheduled during the week. On Thursday, December 6, at 2 p.m., Professor H. O. Whittemore from the Department of Landscape Architecture at the University of Michigan will speak on suggested plantings for birds, for winter coloring, etc.

Annual Parley Planned By High School Seniors

The sixth annual "Settle Your Future Day" for high school seniors will be held this Sunday (December 9) on the Marygrove College campus.

A panel of six Marygrove seniors, headed by Student Council president Ann Lumpkin, will discuss "Jobs in Perspective". As seniors talking to seniors, they will tell how they came to Marygrove, why they stayed and how they steered.

The other panelists include Catherine Corgan, Joanne Seitz, Mary Elizabeth Fallon, Illa Mae Sarchet and Mary Jo Grubach.

Several selections by the Glee Club, in addition to a few variety numbers, will be offered both before and after lunch.

The afternoon session will be comprised of a discussion of "Jobs in Reality" by graduates who are working in various jobs and in every major field and of conferences with the alumnae and faculty advisors. Tours of the building will conclude the program.

High school students throughout Michigan and several other states are expected to attend. Arrangements may be made by phoning the Registrar.

Mr. and Mrs. William Marks, of Stanhope avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, JOAN MARCIA, to Ralph F. Cadieux, son of Mrs. Ralph F. Cadieux, of Bluehill road, and the late Mr. Cadieux. A June wedding is planned.

Mr. Norman A. Starr, chairman of the membership committee, will conduct the open meeting.

Students from Marygrove College will present a special holiday program called "Christmas Across the World."

A parliamentary law class is scheduled for 12:30 p.m. and is open to all members.

Mrs. James J. Hayes, president, will preside at the business meeting at 1:30 p.m.

A musical Christmas program will be held in the afternoon at 2:30 and will be presented by an ensemble from the Detroit Public Schools. It will be conducted by Homer LaGassey.

Mrs. William S. Riley of Bal-four road is musical chairman.

GP Park Garden Club To Help Home for the Aged

Mrs. Allyne Litchfield will open her Harvard road home for the annual Christmas party luncheon of the Grosse Pointe Park Garden Club on Monday, December 10.

The group will spend the afternoon making holiday favors for the St. Joseph's Home for the Aged.

Wassail Bowls

Wassail bowls will be brimming all around the Pointe for that time of year is suddenly upon us. It will be egg nogs at the Frank Morans on University place from 5 to 7 o'clock next Saturday eve and Fish House punch at the George E. Bushnells, Jr., on Sunday afternoon.

The recipe they will brew up in their McMillan road home is an old favorite from Amherst College and both the Bushnells remember it with delight from college days.

On the following week-end Yule parties will be in full swing. The Olaf Tollas are giving their annual brunch on the 15th at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club and the James Harlands will be holding open house on Radnor Circle that same afternoon.

Studious Exec

Mighty impressive is the tale of Brent M. Smith, of Mt. Vernon road. He is one of 160 executives from all over the world who has been attending Advanced Management classes at Harvard for the past three and a half months.

Mrs. Smith went down last week to be on hand for graduation and all the exciting events surrounding the big day.

A dozen couples from the course spent the week-end skiing in North Conway, N.H. and returned to Cambridge Monday for another round of parties. The wives will go to special classes to discover what their husbands have been learning.

The whole business winds up on Friday and then the Smiths will be off for New York to have a gay reunion at the St. Regis.

The Robert A. Sullivans, of Lakeshore road and Dr. and Mrs. Werner Schmidt, of Roland road, will leave today to join the Smiths at the hotel with group from other parts of the country. The whole contingent will fly home Sunday.

Garden Center Ushers

Junior Leaguers will usher at the Grosse Pointe Garden Center sponsored lecture today at Pierce Junior High School. The public is cordially invited to hear Mrs. Rynhold G. Schulke famed lecturer from Cleveland, who will speak at 2:30 o'clock on "The New and Different in Holiday Decorations".

Mrs. Edward R. Grace, Jr., proxy of the League Garden Club, has lined up the following ladies to usher, Mrs. H. Gordon Wood, Mrs. Leslie McDougal, Mrs. Edward B. Caulkins, Jr., Mrs. Charles B. Johnson, Jr., and Mrs. Lawrence Gotfredson.

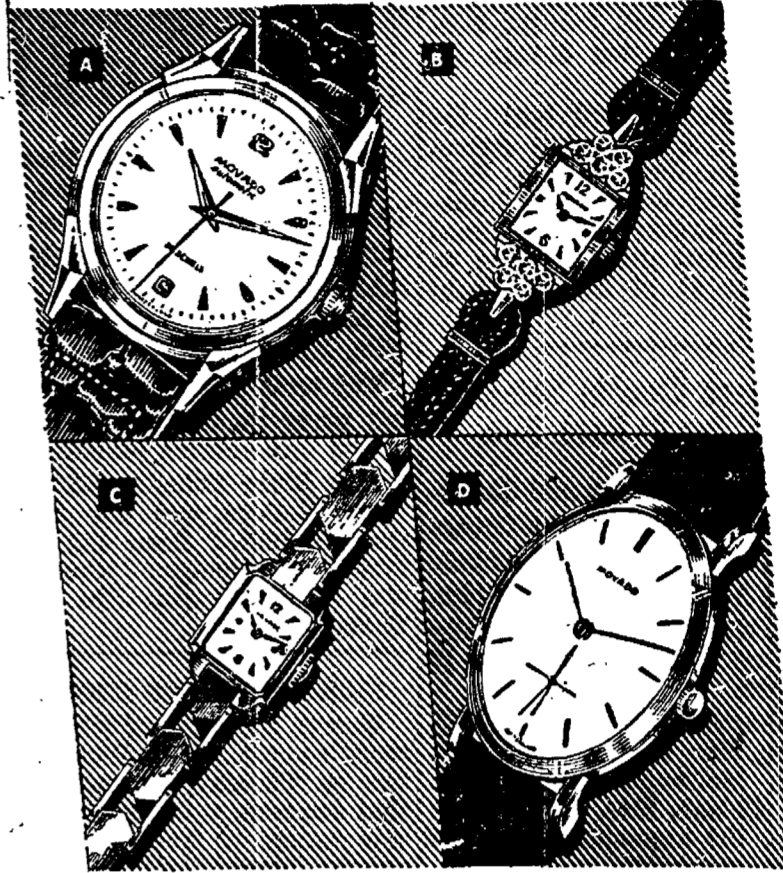

BAND TO GIVE CONCERT
Two Wayne State University students will be featured soloists when the University's Concert Band presents its traditional annual Christmas Concert on Thursday, December 13 at 8:15 p.m. in the large auditorium of the Detroit Institute of Arts. The soloists are Donald Sinta, 18475 Meier Rd., Roseville, saxophonist and Edward Golden, 44 Kensington, Pleasant Ridge, tympanist.

Auxiliary Plan
The Christianiliary will hold monthly meeting Collegiate, 11055 rue, on Wednesday, 12. A potluck luncheon will be served.

Sisters Plan Xmas Party

Choral Group will sing Christmas music.

Holiday tea fare will be arranged by Mrs. William A. Heisel, Mrs. Raymond Peters, Mrs. Louis A. Schneider, Mrs. Albert F. Boening and Miss Margaret Bradford.

Mrs. Harry Rendell and Mrs. Sylvester Theisen will register the guests. Mrs. James E. Meagher is in charge of Santa Claus gifts.

Invitations to preside at the tea table have been sent by Mrs. Emmett E. Tracy and Mrs. Henry Warren Jones to a large group of Pointe women.

They include Mrs. W. Dean Robinson, Mrs. Nelson W. Diebel, Mrs. Francis T. Dwyer, Mrs. Arthur Godin, Mrs. Thomas Nester, Mrs. Charles Palmis, Jr., and Mrs. Edward C. Roney.

Others are Mrs. E. P. Hammond, Mrs. Sherman Fitzsimmons, Miss Ethel C. Welch, Mrs. George Gardella, Mrs. J. Burns Cody, Mrs. Frank Cook, Mrs. George Hayes and Mrs. Thomas O'Keefe.

The Auxiliary especially hopes to welcome many husbands to visit the Sisters in their new home and help them carry out their Christmas giving and their work throughout the year.

St. Matthew Women's Club Plans Square Dance, Dec. 7

The St. Matthew Women's Club will hold its next square dance in the church gym, Whittier at Harper avenue, on Friday, December 7 at 9 p.m.

Callers will be Lee and Mildred. They will instruct beginners from 8:30 until 9 o'clock preceding the dance.

Further information can be obtained by calling Mrs. Edward Kelly, TU. 1-0480. Refreshments will be served.

'Y' to Observe Old Tradition

The YWCA's traditional hanging of the greens will be observed Sunday afternoon, December 9, at its Central and Lucy Thurman Branches and Downriver Center.

A family party is planned at Central Branch, 2230 Withersell street, from 2 until 5 p.m. The children will make Christmas tree decorations. Roving carolers, dressed in German festival costumes, will sing German Christmas carols, while adult members of YWCA families, their friends, and girls who live in the Central Branch residence will all have a part in decorating the trees, hanging wreaths, and arranging the festive baubles and bells.

A program will follow in the social hall. The movies, "The Spirit of Christmas" and "The Night Before Christmas" will be shown, and the YWCA Chorus, under the direction of Celeste Cole, will sing Christmas music.

At Lucy Thurman Branch, 569 East Elizabeth, the hanging of the greens will begin at 3:30 p.m. A verse-speaking choir composed of members of the Duffield School Y-Teens and Glee Club will present "Christmas in Other Lands," written for the occasion by Mrs. Betty Cole, River road, Amherstburg, Ont.

During the afternoon, members of the YWCA modern dance group will present "Impressions at Christmas." A Dutch shoe, Yule log, and Mexican pinatas will point up Christmas customs in other lands, and three "Spirits of Christmas" will be introduced.

Hanging of the greens at Downriver Center, 1485 Fort street, West, Wyandotte, will begin at 2 p.m. Each of the Center's participating groups will have specific responsibilities toward giving the building a festive holiday air.

The Y-Teens will decorate the Christmas tree. Members of classes will hang wreaths at the doors. Y-Wives and members of the Homemaker's Holiday group will decorate the windows and walls. The steering committee will arrange tea table decorations. And the youngest member of Downriver Center—Pamela Speir, age 5, 767 Moran, Lincoln Park—will light the tall Christmas candle.

The afternoon's program will include the reading of "Prayer for this House," by Mrs. John DeWindt, 581 Walnut, Wyandotte, and "The Black Madonna," read by Mrs. Carl Graham, 2306 Middlefield, Trenton.

Proceeding the YWCA's observance of hanging of the greens, Northern Branch YW, 13130 Woodward Avenue, will hold a Christmas round-the-world festival Friday and Saturday, December 7 and 8, from 5:30 to 10 p.m.

Gifts and foods of many lands will be on sale. A swim show at the pool will be part of the evening's entertainment.

Proceeds from the festival will go toward the YWCA's World Fellowship Fund, to provide support for the YWCA work in many parts of the world.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Zahrt, of Hollywood avenue, announce the engagement of their daughter, MARY ANN, to Wayne L. Van Etten, son of Mrs. Anthony Roman, of Harper Woods, and E. D. Van Etten. The couple will exchange vows in the fall.

FLOWER FORCING TRICK

Flower growers can force a chrysanthemum to bloom any day of the year by regulating the length of time that the plant is in contact with light. So, chrysanthemums are available to the homemaker at almost any time during the year. Chrysanthemums are very popular plants to have around the house over the holidays.

The Clean-Up Squad is Mrs. Don W. Miller, Mary Bunselmeier, Dick Law, Guy Miller, and Jim Howard with Bob Winter, publicity chairman.

All ninth grade students are urged to attend and to contact their homeroom representatives for tickets. The cost of a ticket is 25 cents.

Ninth Graders To Hold Dance

On Saturday night, December 9, the Grosse Pointe High School auditorium-gym will be the scene of the "Snowball Shuffle" a 9-B party, from 8 to 11 p.m.

This party is planned by ninth graders, executed by ninth graders and only ninth graders are invited. An interesting evening is being planned with prizes, entertainment and refreshments.

Mothers of ninth graders as representatives of the Mothers' Club by whom the dance is sponsored and the committees are: Mrs. Arthur O. A. Schmidt, general chairman; Mrs. Edwin T. Taylor, Karen Jensen, Lexie Adams, Connie Wendin, Paul Gilliland, Marilyn Taylor, Gloria Schmidt and Bob Winter.

In charge of decorations is Mrs. Daniel R. Webb, Don Nielson, Tom Legato, Marilyn Burns, Sue Hallenbeck, and Rob Champion.

Entertainment is headed by Mrs. Sheldon L. Drennan, Bill Blossing, Jim Howard, Dick Law, Nancy Drennan and Bob Champion.

Annual Pierce Library Club Tea Draws Attendance of 200

For two hours on Tuesday afternoon, November 27, Library Club members and their faculty sponsor, Mrs. Dorothy Christian, received parents and friends at their Annual Pierce Library Club Tea.

Began in 1939 by Mrs. Christian, the yearly affair has highlighted the activity of this volunteer, after-school service organization. By the end of the second hour some 200 guests had visited the Pierce School Library, viewed the displays, heard books discussed, and were served refreshments.

Guests were received by young club members who made them welcome, pointed out what else might be experienced. There were original designs based on book themes or titles, written and oral book reviews, original book jackets, a case filled with autographs of famous people, and bright new and old books by the hundred. Of course, there was tea served by girl members. A variety of Christmas cookies were also served by the future homemakers.

The tea is a regular feature of National Book Week. Earlier this year the club also introduced two nationally known authors of children's books. Armstrong Sperry, who wrote such popular stories as "All Sails Set," "Call It Courage," and "Pacific Island Speakin'g," made a guest appearance at an assembly.

So did Elizabeth Howard, Grosse Pointe author, who wrote

"Peddler's Girl," "A Star to Follow," "Summer Under Sail," and "North Winds Blow Free." The purpose of having the assemblies is to stimulate student interest in books.

"The annual tea has almost become a faculty family affair," declared Mrs. Christian. "So many of the Pierce faculty help out. Art work on the end papers displayed at this time was provided by Mr. Jorgenson's eighth grade group. Reading records of book pockets as they're called, and the hallway display case material were all done by Mr. Mason's seventh. Miss Hoelzle's seventh did book jackets, and an American colonial exhibit was prepared by Mrs. Schmult's eighth grade social studies group.

"Our Pierce journalists under Mrs. Miller's direction have helped too. The affair was covered by reporters for "The Trojan," our school paper. And a great team supervised the planning and serving of the refreshments. They are Mrs. Toll, and Miss Greenhoe of our homemaking department. Everybody was quite willing to help and we appreciate this," concluded Mrs. Christian.

Interested teachers from other schools may view the displays and newly purchased books, the display items and exhibits will be left up indefinitely. The public is invited to drop in at the Pierce School Library.

How to Profit Through Tax Exemption

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How To Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language you need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

G.P.U.S. News Notes

On Wednesday, November 28, a group of students from Grosse Pointe University School attended a conference sponsored by the Engineering Society of Detroit at the Rackham Building.

Representatives from various companies were present to describe their own particular field of engineering and the kind of preparation necessary to enter it.

The first and major speaker of the morning was Arlen R. Hellwarth, assistant to the director of employment of the Detroit Edison Company. His remarks, which he entitled "Why Be a Square?" dealt with reasons for entering engineering and the types of work in the field and methods necessary to get into them.

After hearing Mr. Hellwarth, the students went off to different rooms to meet and ask questions of the representatives of the type of engineering which interested them most. Many companies and societies were represented. A few of them were the American Ceramics Society, Sparkplug Company, American Chemical Society, American Foundrymen's Society, American Institute of Architects, and the Society of Women Engineers. (Incidentally, five per cent or so of the audience were girls, and in his address Mr. Hellwarth dealt with opportunities for women in engineering.)

Schools were also represented from this area.

At an earlier weekend conference this fall Headmaster John Chandler, Jr., Miss Margaret Atkinson, and Miss Elizabeth Ferguson, attended the meetings held every three years at Atlantic City under the sponsorship of the Council for Religion in the Independent Schools. Present, too, from Grosse Pointe was the Reverend Thomas Mason of Christ Church. Speakers at the conference included some of the foremost theologians in America.

On Tuesday, November 27, a large group of representatives of the Moral Rearmament movement held an assembly for the boys and girls of the Upper School. Most of those who took part in the program were members of a "team," as it is called, which has appeared in many parts of the world, carrying the M.R.A. message to many people.

On the stage were people from all corners of the world—Australia, South Africa, Burma, Scotland, Italy, and others. They represented individuals who had been drawn to this movement from various walks of life, and had come to believe in the M.R.A. emphasis on absolute honesty, absolute purity, absolute unselfishness, and absolute love. A lady, at one time the headmistress of a school in Burma, described the importance of these principles. Many members of the team gave testimonials of the changes wrought in their lives by M.R.A. and several indicated that their earlier life had been something less than blameless.

The group's choral presentations were impressively well done, and the serious sides of the group's message were balanced by entertaining musical members.

Very successful was the Father-Son Banquet on Thursday evening, November 29 at which Michigan Backfield Coach Don Dufek was the principal speaker. Preparations for the affair had been made with the assistance not only of the well-trained kitchen staff but of the mothers of the players and of faculty wives.

Nick Stroh of the Senior class was an engaging and able master of ceremonies. Speakers were Headmaster John Chandler, Jr., Coaches Philip Perkins, Graham Cragg, and Richard Trim, and Athletic Director William Yeager, who is also coach both of the midget and varsity squads.

A feature of the evening, in addition to the movie highlights of the Michigan-Ohio State football game, was the presence of some of the young Michigan grid stars who had taken part in that game. They had been invited by David Rentschler, D.U.S., 1952, who played end this year. Mr. Rentschler spoke briefly and introduced his three teammates. Afterwards this group was enthusiastically sought out for autographs by a goodly number of G.P.U.S. students.

Winners of varsity football letters were Co-Captains Howard Bonbright and Robert Johnson, James Barnes, Robert Bowker, Glynn Conley, Mc-

Gregor Doods, Lucian Jacobell, Michael Krieg, Thomas Miller, Wilson Murphy, Gary Rembacki, Hermann Schunck, James Stewart, Richard Strother, David Templeton and John Watts.

Blue Devils Show Promise In Downing Dearborn Five

Grosse Pointe basketball fans got their first glimpse of Coach Howard MacAdam's Blue Devils last Friday, November 30, as they thoroughly shellacked the Dearborn Pioneers, 72-50, on the local court.

Actually the score doesn't present the true picture of the contest which was completely dominated by the Blue Devils from the second quarter on.

Only in the first period did the Pioneers have a chance for victory as they battled the 1956-57 Blue Devil squad nearly on even terms to trail by a mere three points, 17-14, at the end of the first eight minutes of play.

File Up Big Lead
Employing a smooth-working, fast-break attack, the Pointers raced to a 27-14 lead in the first two minutes of the second period before the Pioneers cashed in their first field goal of the quarter. During the next six minutes Dearborn battled back valiantly to trail by eight points, 36-28, at halftime.

The roof really fell in on the Pioneers in the third quarter when the Devils threw up an almost airtight defense which shut off Dearborn's attack with a scant four points, while the Devil attackers rang up 23 points for a 60-32 lead at the close of the productive third quarter. It wasn't until there were only 55 seconds remaining in the third quarter that the Pioneers slipped in their first point of the quarter and that came on a free throw by guard Gungle. Forward Bob Winkworth, high point man for the night with 21 points, climaxed Dearborn's third quarter, scoring with a field goal and free throw.

Throws In Substitutes
Holding a commanding lead, Coach MacAdam opened the gates of mercy and substituted freely, giving every member of

To Fete Coaches At BCL Dinner

High school administrators and Board of Education members of Grosse Pointe, Wyandotte, Royal Oak, Monroe, Highland Park and Dearborn will honor the athletic coaches of their communities at the annual Border Cities League "Get Together" stag dinner next Thursday, December 13, at the Colonial House on South Telegraph Road.

This is an informal gathering of the men who during the school year direct the fortunes of the teams representing the high schools in these communities. It also affords the opportunity for members of the press to get better acquainted with all the coaches and to swap ideas with other toilers of the fourth estate for the betterment of the league publicity-wise.

the 18 man squad a chance to play in the final eight minutes. It was during this time that Dearborn, still using its front line attackers, closed the gap to make its defeat respectable.

This opening game pointed out some interesting features of this year's Blue Devil team.

First there was the discovery of Tom Woodruff, a forward playing his first season in Blue Devil colors. Tom claimed the spotlight with his sharp eyed shooting which netted him 18 points and runner-up individual scoring honors. Not a big lad as basketball players go, Tom also gave a good account of himself under the boards on rebounds. On his first game showing the Blue Devil stock took a sharp turn upwards.

Mark Murvay Stars
Center Mark Murvay, a reserve varsity veteran from last season, proved to be everything Coach MacAdam expected of him. Mark notched 16 points although he played only the first three quarters. While he was in the lineup the Devils controlled the backboards.

Guard Kenny Gutow, although he only notched 5 points, sparkled as a play maker along with guard Ronnie Fine, who collected 9 points and repeatedly hampered the Pioneers down court with his lightning-like advances toward the ball handler.

Forward Jim Millies showed signs of the jitters in his first varsity starting assignment, but in the third period settled down to the job at hand and paced the Pointers' crushing attack with seven points and shed his shyness under the backboards to claim his share of the rebounds.

Need More Practice
Bruce Boardman and Dick Zuenke, with only three weeks' practice since ending their football chores, showed signs of their grid teachings but with more practice under their belts will reach the championship form they displayed while playing under reserve coach John Thursby when the reserves went undefeated last season.

While the Blue Devils looked good against Dearborn, a team of equal size, they had lapses which enabled their opponents to remain a threat throughout the first half.

Coach MacAdam's biggest problem will be met when the Devils tackle a team that tops them in the height department. The Pointers will not take a back seat to any team when it comes to play-making and scoring, but if they can't gain the rebounds their scoring ability will be stifled.

Grosse Pointe Sail Club Elects New Officers

Race Narrows In Pin League

The race in the Grosse Pointe Business Men's League is narrowing down to a three team affair with but four sessions remaining in the first half.

The Reverse team moved into a tie for second place as they rolled over the C. Miller team. Don Lazarus led the way for the winners as he bowled the night high of 587.

Hank Kowalski, a bowler with an average on the low side, broke out with a rash of strikes and spares to shoot a 552 series. This gave the rejuvenated Adam Simms team a three and one victory over City Glass.

Bruce Wigle maintained its lead in the league while splitting its match with G. P. Recreation. Both teams had an off night as none of these ordinarily good bowlers rolled a 500 series.

Lochmoor, led by Harvey Reid's 525, split with Belding as they won total pins by one pin. Fran Ferrand was high for Belding with 537.

Cox and Baker scored three points and allowed the Marv, Boutin quintet to score its usual one point. Pete Gracey shot 511 for the builders and Tom Kelley had 515 for Boutin's.

200 scores: Don Bayhan, 219; Don Lazarus, 209; Fran Ferrand, 208, 204; Jack Groesbeck, 204; Hank Kowalski, 203, 201.

Boat Banter

By Fred Rummells

That fun loving group, the Grosse Pointe Sail Club, held its annual award dinner and election meeting at the Detroit Yacht Club on Wednesday, November 28.

Paced by that portly gentleman, Commodore Duke Huber, the smallest yachting organization in the Detroit River Yachting Association had a gala time at cocktails and dinner before they settled down to the serious business of electing 1957 officers.

Rear commodore Bob Connelly moved up to commodore when vice commodore Bill Touscany asked that he be bypassed this coming year because of family obligations. Bill has three little ones at home in diapers and his wife needs the help, so he said. However, the members appreciated the work he has done in the club over the past years and re-elected him vice commodore. Charles Todd Jr., was the successful candidate for rear commodore and Earl Blohm, Dave Beauvais, Horace Craig and Bill Connelly were elected to the Board of Directors.

In his last act as commodore, Huber presented Pete Van Ryan with the beautiful Sunday Series trophy and then Bud Wellman awarded Duke the trophy for winning the Frostbite race. Then past commodore Richard Connolly presented Huber with a beautiful silver tray in behalf of the membership.

In his acceptance speech (one minute and 41 seconds elapsed time), Huber expressed the desire that the club would be able to provide more activities for members with power boats and the recruiting of younger members into the club.

Bud Miller, the club's first commodore, painted a vivid picture of the fortunate position the Grosse Pointe Sail Club enjoys by being a full member of the Detroit River Yachting Association and spearheaded a move to make the club more active in DRYA activities. Currently the GPSC stages an annual Catboat regatta and has done so for the past three years. Last summer the regatta drew the largest turnout of the "cats" in modern history on Lake St. Clair, 37 in all participated.

The annual election meeting of the DRYA will be held at the Detroit Boat Club starting at 8 p.m. There promises to be some unexpected activity.

Four local yachtsmen will be in line for posts in the Inter Lakes Yachting Association at the annual election meeting to be held in the Hotel Sheraton-Mayflower on Saturday, December 8, in Akron, Ohio.

Frank Martin, past commodore of Edison Boat Club and the Detroit River Yachting Association, will automatically move up to commodore of ILYA for 1957. The only apparent contest in the election will be between Grosse Pointe Buell Doelle, past commodore of the Detroit Boat Club and DRYA, and Lee T. Braken of Port Clinton, Ohio.

The ILYA nominating committee already has given the nod to Detroit's Dick Brand for the Fleet Measurer position; to Stan Pufford as delegate to the North American Yacht Racing Union and Bayview vice commodore Lynn Stedman Jr., as delegate to the Yacht Racing Union of the Great Lakes.

Stars Outshone In Church Loop

Nearly a total black-out prevailed as only four men made the Honor-Roll in the Grosse Pointe Presbyterian Bowling League. The only possible reason could be that the members went all out the previous week rolling for turkeys.

Bruce Bockstanz' Blockbusters and Roy Detmer's Destroyers scored a four-point sweep over their opponents.

St. Paul Lakers Win First Basketball Game Handily

Sporting a couple of "high pocket" cagers in the starting lineup, the St. Paul Lakers easily outclassed a small St. Catherine five, 45-28, in the non-league game of the season last Tuesday, November 27, on the Grosse Pointe High court.

Held to a 6-0 tie at the end of the first period St. Paul began to roll in the second quarter to take a 21-17 lead at halftime. Obviously miffed over their inability to run up a bigger score in the first half, the Lakers really went to work in the third stanza and all but shut out St. Catherine to take a 37-19 lead going into the final period. With the game practically on ice Coach Lauer eased the pressure by substituting which allowed the St. Catherine quintet to make the score respectable.

Vermoulen, Anderson Star
Pacing the Lakers in their third period surge were Bill "Stills" Vermoulen and Gary "Stretch" Anderson, who used their six feet 5 inches to good advantage in controlling the backboards and giving the Lakers numerous scoring opportunities which they cashed in on.

Vermoulen notched individual scoring honors with 16 points while Anderson took runner-up honors with 14 points.

Particularly impressive was little Tommy Kolojeski who played by two quarters but managed to hit for 6 points. Danny Sheridan was his old steady self at guard and collected 5 points for his night's work.

Although Terry Hutton wasn't among the scoring leaders he was a standout on defense and sparkled as a play maker, setting up many scoring opportunities.

Wasn't Real Test
Actually, St. Catherine, although it's a class A team, wasn't much of a test for the Class B St. Paul quintet. Catherine is regarded as one of the weakest teams in its league.

The Lakers will get their first taste of league play when they meet defending Parochial League second division champion, St. Bernard on Friday, December 7, at Southeastern High.

Because of graduation losses St. Bernard is not figured to be in the running for the bunting come February. On the other hand St. Paul, despite its lack of a strong bench, could be figured to be around when the honors are handed out at the end of the season.

60 Ski Centers Get Set For Another Big Season

Michigan's winter sports season again is officially under way, off to a flying start in November with a generous first-of-the-season snowfall and prolonged cold snap.

Michigan's weather-conscious winter resort operators have accepted this a good omen and have geared up their facilities for another expanded cold weather sports season. By March an estimated 100,000 enthusiasts from all over the mid-west will have skied the hundreds of slopes in Michigan and spent some $10 million in the state.

"With the continued cooperation of the weatherman, this could be our best season yet," said Robert J. Furlong, executive secretary of the Michigan Tourist Council.

"Skiing in Michigan has shown a phenomenal growth," he said, "and there is every indication this growth will continue. This year 14 new ski areas will make their debut in the state. Literally hundreds of thousands of dollars have been spent improving and expanding existing facilities. Certainly that is proof positive of the continuing interest and growth in our winter sports business."

And new areas aren't confined to the north country alone, the tourist chief pointed out. "They are scattered over the entire state, from the Porcupine Mountains and Copper Country of the Upper Peninsula to Pontiac and Kalamazoo in the southern Lower Peninsula."

The 14 newcomers to Michigan's skiing scene represent all four of the state's tourist regions. East Michigan will offer 23 winter sports centers, seven of them new this year: Lovell's Winter Playland, 15 miles northeast of Grayling; Houghton Lake Snow Bowl, 5 1/2 miles southwest of Houghton Lake; Pioneer Hills, 3 1/2 miles northwest of Roscommon; Woodbridge Ski Area, 5 miles north of Lewiston; Silver Beach Ski Resort, 6 miles northwest of Lewiston; Gay El Rancho & Ski Club, 4 miles southeast of Gaylord; and Black Mt. Ski Area, midway between Rogers City and Cheboygan.

Of 22 West Michigan ski areas, four are new: Ward Hills, 23 miles east of Ludington on US-10; Harbor Highlands, 3 miles north of Harbor Springs; Brady's Hill, 53 miles northeast of Grand Rapids on M-46 between Lakeview and Amble; and Mt. McSaubia, 1 mile north of Charlevoix.

Southeastern Michigan's total is now five with the addition of the Mt. Holly Ski Club, 48 miles north of Detroit on US-10, which will feature artificial snow.

Ten upper peninsula ski areas include the new Mt. Kimberly, 11 miles north of Marquette and Ski Brule Mt., 7 miles southwest of Iron River.

Mr. Furlong said that a ski-map folder containing detailed information on all of Michigan's winter sports centers is now being readied by the Michigan Tourist Council for distribution the middle of December.

Since the close of last season, already established centers have expanded and improved their offerings to handle the increased demand that developed last year, the tourist chief said.

Most of Michigan's ski centers feature special beginners' slopes, cross-country trails and ski jumps. Many also offer toboggan slides and skating rinks as well as spectator sports events throughout the ski season.

Holiday Eggnog Tarts

By using commercially prepared eggnog as the base of chiffon tarts or pie, the preparation of a beautiful holiday dessert is practically done when started. The milk and egg mixture is dairy-assembled. To create the pie filling, unflavored gelatine, sugar and salt are added to the bottled eggnog. Then whipped cream... for smooth richness... and flavorings are folded in. Finally diced, peach slices go in to golden-fleck the chiffon filling, and peach slices are arranged in a poinsettia design to rim each tart.

Unflavored gelatine captures the air beaten into the whipped cream. That's why this eggnog filling is velvety smooth and light to the tip of the tongue. Flavor with vanilla and almond extracts or an equal amount of rum or sherry flavoring. Tart shells or a 9-inch baked pie crust hold the filling. And if a packaged pastry crust is used, all ingredients for this modern holiday dessert will be pantry shelf and refrigerator handy.

Eggnog Tartlets
1 envelope unflavored gelatine
2 tablespoons sugar
2 1/2 cups bottled non-alcoholic eggnog
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg, optional
2 teaspoons rum flavoring, optional
1/2 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 can (1 pound) cling peach slices, drained
6 to 8 baked tart shells
Combine gelatine and sugar in top of double boiler. Stir in 1 cup of the cold eggnog. Place over boiling water and stir until gelatine and sugar are dissolved. Remove from heat; add remaining 1 1/2 cups eggnog.

If additional flavoring is desired, add nutmeg and flavoring. Chill until slightly thicker than the consistency of unbeaten egg white. Fold in whipped cream and 1/2 cup of well-drained, diced peaches. Spoon into pastry tart shells, baked 9-inch pie shell, or into dessert dishes. Chill until firm. Decorate with remaining peach slices in poinsettia motif with finely cut maraschino cherries for flower centers.
Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Hope to Guard Safety Record

Michigan enters December assured of comfortably achieving its goal of reducing traffic deaths by at least 200 this year, unless there is a sharp reversal during the month.

This encouraging news is reported by State Police Commissioner Joseph A. Childs on the basis of the department's monthly report for October and provisional figures for November.

But the commissioner warned that December is one of the most deadly months of the year and unless drivers and pedestrians guard against winter hazards the present good record can be cut into deeply.

The October report lists 141 deaths, a reduction of 63, or 31 percent under 204 in the same month last year. For the first 10 months of the year the death total was 1,426 as compared to 1,614 for the same period of 1955, a saving of 188 lives.

Provisional figures for November show 125 deaths for the month as compared to 203 in November last year, a reduction of 78. This figure, however is subject to revision downward with adjusted reports. The final saving is estimated at 50 lives which, with the 188 for the first 10 months, gives a total reduction of 238 so far this year. The total death toll in 1956 was 2,004.

Delay is ever fatal to those who are prepared. —Lucan.

The oil is burned in old Yankee sperm oil lamps during lectures on the lighting devices of 150 years ago. Whale oil started heading for the museum in 1869, when the discovery of petroleum brought the kerosene lamp. Although today, kerosene has switched from lamp fuel to jet plane fuel, petroleum is still in the lighting picture through the enormous amount of electricity it help generate. Since its very first commercial beginnings, petroleum has helped to light, as well as lighten, our work.

Holiday jottings; none of this shopping, wrapping and mailing at the last minute for MRS. JAMES HARLAND. She took all her Santa gifts home to Cincinnati when her family went down there for Thanksgiving, baked most of her holiday goodies in October, too.

MRS. DAN JOHNSON and MRS. ELLIOT H. PHILLIPS, she of the Madonna like features and hair swept stunningly into a chignon, were chatting about the trials of Christmas wrappings over the grapefruit in the super market the other morning. Mrs. Johnson allowed as how she would pay the stores almost anything extra so her gifts would arrive all be-ribboned and tinsel but Mrs. P. admitted she really loved that part of the Santa Claus role.

MRS. HARRY ENGMAN'S parakeet, Nicky, is a very talented bird and greets all callers during the Yule season with a chirping "Merry Christmas."

Devotees of annual Yale dance are slightly put out that the gala ball will follow the Glee Club concert at the Henry and Edsel Ford Auditorium this December 22 instead of at the Country Club as usual. Yale alumni and friends admire the glittering memorial on the waterfront but would rather do their cavorting nearer home.

MRS. HENRY B. JOY, perky as ever at the opening of "Hatful of Rain" the other evening, has had her same second row center seat at the Shubert since the Theatre Guild subscription plays began over twenty years ago.

BOB LUBECK and MARK BELTAIRE, both with two young sons to aid and abet them, had fire hydrants installed in their back yards last week. They are members of Box 12, fire fighting fans auxiliary, and are nearly always to be found in attendance at the better blazes.

PILFERINGS

When Thomas Edison's private desk was opened fifteen years after his death, a card bearing the following admonition was found among his papers: "When down in the mouth, remember Jonah. He came out all right."

A party guest confided to his companion, "My wife had a funny dream last night. She dreamed she had married a multimillionaire." "You're lucky," sighed his companion, "my wife dreams that in the daytime."

Mrs. Russel Crouse was interviewing a new nurse, and asked why she had left her last post. "I didn't like the set-up," she said frankly. "The child was backward, and the father was forward."

Yule Party Held By Secretaries

The annual Christmas party of the Grosse Pointe Association of Educational Secretaries was held Tuesday, December 4, at 6 o'clock, in the home of the president, Mrs. Mark Loush, of Emory Court East.

Forty-five members of the association attended the dinner, which was traditionally a holiday menu of turkey with all the trimmings. Gifts were exchanged as a customary part of the evening's festivities.

Since the members of this group serve in various schools and departments throughout the Grosse Pointe Public School System, this is the one major occasion during the year when all members have the opportunity of getting together socially to renew old acquaintances and meet new members who have joined the staff during the year.

Serving on the committee to assist the hostess for this year's dinner were: Mrs. John Heilrich, special occasion chairman; and her assistants, Mrs. Mari Hardies, Mrs. Roy Lang and Mrs. Robert Smith.

The next scheduled meeting of the association will be on March 3, when members will attend a continuation of their workshop on "Personality Development" to be conducted by Henry Schneidewind, staff professor of the Speech Department at the University of Detroit.

by Patricia Talbot

If you were forced to go to the corner supermarket with a gun in your purse and send your children off to school with an armed guard, perhaps you wouldn't be so objective about the current "unrest" in North Africa.

Madame Desparmet had just such experiences after some gruelling wartime adventures with the Nazi, but she accepts them all quite dispassionately as the lot of a consul's wife.

The Desparmets, with Josephine Charlotte, 15, Raymond, 13, the twins, Jeannette and Joelle, 11, and Patricia, 9, have been settled in their spacious Balfour road home for two months now. Mr. Desparmet has been fulfilling his consul's post since summer and spending the time awaiting his family's arrival from Brittany househunting.

Grew Up in Africa

Mr. Desparmet grew up in North Africa where his father was a professor in the University of Algiers. He speaks Arabic well and has been friends with Arabs all his life.

It is with some bitterness that the Desparmets speak of the Communist influence in the Arabic world. They have seen their friends shot, been eyewitnesses to many sabotage incidents and seen generations of French rapport with the Arabs go up in Russian smoke. Madame Desparmet, who is a native of Brittany in the far west of France, that picturesque country of wooden shoes and the snowy coils of the peasant women, feels that her country as a whole has recovered from the war, but would never be able to stop Russia should she move against her in her colonial lands or at home.

She left Brittany and her fifteenth century home near Brest, to marry her husband in North Africa in 1940. She escaped living under German occupation, but not the rigors of Nazi desert warfare.

Her husband was governor of the territory around Kasserine Pass and their home was in the path of Rommel's advancing armies. She escaped in their car a few days before the Germans entered, leaving her husband to break his way through to the American lines on a motorcycle. He waited until German soldiers were in the garden before he took his leave.

When they returned five days later with the Allied troops their house was burned to the ground and the only possession left to them was one ash tray in the rubble.

After a post-war assignment in North Africa where her children were born, the Desparmets moved on to the Peruvian consulate.

Archaeology Her Hobby

Mrs. Desparmet's hobby is archaeology and she worked at the University of Tunisia and in the museum at Lima, Peru, on local antiquities. She has traveled widely, not only in the consulate service, but as a child.

Her father owned a cotton factory in Indo-China and she grew up there, often visiting in China and India, but returning to France and England for her schooling. Her love of archaeology was born then and she has continued her studies. Currently she is writing a book on Peruvian archaeology.

Entertaining is the chief job of the foreign consul's wife in a city like Detroit, and Madame Desparmet makes a charming hostess in her gracious home, furnished with lovely antique pieces from her family home in Brittany and unusual objets d'art from South America. The combination is an arresting example of the Frenchwoman's famous exquisite taste.

She is very interested in furthering the Alliance Francaise, while she is spending her three years in Detroit. This is a Gallic cultural association with branches all over the world. While she was in Peru she taught French in order to further her husband's consular work.

Tutors Her Children

But most of her free time is taken up with tutoring her five children. None of them knew a word of English when they arrived for the fall semester in the Grosse Pointe school system. They are divided among the High School, Pierce and Tromby, which is quite a P.T.A. chore in itself. Their mother proudly told of their excellent report cards.

Every day after school they must come home and settle down to their French textbooks and all the lessons and tests are mailed home so that the young Desparmets may keep up with their country's "lycee" requirements.

With the Desparmets in their new home is their housekeeper,

Club to Hold Kaffee Klatch

On Monday, December 10, the Pointe Garden Club will hold its traditional "Kaffee Klatch" at 12:30 o'clock in the Touraine road home of Mrs. Robert W. Conder.

The assistant hostesses will be Mrs. Harold A. Baxter, Mrs. Remington J. Purdy and Mrs. W. Hurst-Montee.

Mrs. Joan Zott, of the Detroit Edison Company, will talk on "Christmas Decorating with Lights."

No Stranger to USA

This is not Madame Desparmet's first experience with the USA, as she was here with her husband for three weeks some years back when he was assigned to the United Nations as a technical expert in New York, but this is her first visit to the Midwest. It is the charm of this diplomat's family that they can settle down quickly in their temporary home and adapt with enjoyment the customs of another culture while sharing with us some of the delightful experiences of their own varied way of life.

Pointe Counter Points

On men's day, Saturday, December 8, at Irving's on the hill, models from Leif Bergan's modelling school will animate the wares. Costumes from casual to cocktail will be shown with elegant accessories from the gift boutique. There will be items to satisfy the most discriminating Christmas lists... bejeweled evening bags of faille, satin and suede... afternoon bags of baby alligator, large and small, in black, brown, navy and honey... novel costume jewelry... scarves and glitter-trimmed glamour sweaters. In the lingerie line there are dressing gowns of tissue taffeta or woolsens woven in the basket weave pattern and frosted with alencon lace... slips embellished with lace or embroidery and dainty bedjackets to match delicate night dresses... the time, 9 a.m. to 7:30 p.m.

Creations by Mary Chess have arrived to brighten the beautiful gift supplies at Trail Pharmacy on the hill. All of her fragrances (there are ten of them) come beautifully bottled and packaged... colognes, perfumes, bath oils and soaps in combination or separately. Her sabbet sets of silk with forget-me-not design are fashioned into handkerchiefs and lingerie cases, hanger covers and pretty squares made to nestle in your dresser drawers.

What about your poor little weather beaten face? Christmas shopping up and down drafty streets takes its toll. To soothe the nerves and smooth the pores is the specialty of Helga Trendle at the Lochmoor Salon of Beauty. Her skill and her creams come from Stockholm's Academy of Beauty. The telephone number is: TU, 1-7252.

What will look best with your New Year's orchid? The Village Store on the hill has a variety of answers in a my fair lady assortment of dresses. A unique mating of wool and chiffon makes a festive frock in either red or blue. If you can do justice to them, there are some hug-me-tight knitted sheaths in beige or black, woven with a contrasting ecru ribbon. Lace over pink or blue taffeta is effectively fashioned into gowns with tiny shoulder straps and a pert back fullness. For the younger set there are breezy bouffants in nylon and net pastels.

There's still time: Margaret Rice's monogramming work shop is buzzing and whirring at top production but if you order immediately, you can still have Christmas delivery on initials of your choice woven into blouses, sweaters and shorts.

Walton Pierce has inspiration to offer in out-of-the-ordinary gifts. Old fashioned carpet bags perky with novel embroidery or beaded designs make amusing carryalls. Luxurious silk umbrellas come with carved or leather handles. There are travelling clocks, good looking modern costume jewelry and an assortment of gold mesh or leather wallets and cigarette cases. The Sidney Krandal jewelry section has some antiqued silver charms set with coral, turquoise or pearls, all are authentic copies of collectors items.

A good provider should be well provided for on Christmas. There are important looking cowhide attache cases at S. Stein & Co. which can be engraved with a VIP's initials.

There's a blinding counterful of holiday sparkle at D. J. Healy's in the village... Sweaters that twinkle and glow with rhinestones, pearls, beads and iridescents. Among the beauties... a sissy sweater of orlon decorated with tiny frills and jewels... a cardigan blossoming with appliqued satin roses. Crochet details and jeweled snowflakes trim another. Fat round buttons march up a bulky knit wool cardigan that sports a jewelled collar. All of them would complement the Healy assortment of party skirts.

Connoisseurs of yesterday's treasures can probably find their hearts' desire at the League Shop. The antique section has choice pieces from many countries in silver, porcelain, crystal and china. For the charm collector, the shop has a glass case bulging with baubles and bangles. When checking decks for your Christmas tree look into the ropings of rose lights, dainty petals of red, white or yellow centered with tiny bulbs. There are imported ornaments, too, spun of glass and imagination.

How about a gay pair of slippers for a Christmas stocking stuffer? Hornung's on the hill has them... corduroy slip-ons in circus colors, beaded and jeweled black velvets, bright red and blue quilted numbers or feathered scuffs to tickle a little miss. A brand new shipment of holiday foot gear includes leathers, patents and suedes, for the dancing school set.

From the timber lands of Oregon comes a Christmas green new to the middlewest called Nobel fir. Charvat's flower shop has a shipment of these lush branches. Like balsam, with short round needles, these western beauties have a deeper color, thicker growth and are far longer lasting. Their holly is spectacular this year, both the variegated and the green are full leaved with plump berries. There's also cedar and long needled roping, boxwood, juniper berries and mistletoe. Because the shop does its own flocking (spreading branches with pink and white artificial snow) arrangements can be decked to order... at Charvat's 18590 Mack Ave. (near the Warren Ave intersection.)

'Til Christmas: Young Clothes on the hill will keep its doors open on Friday evenings until nine o'clock for the convenience of those in search of toy chest treasures and party togs for Santa Claus fans.

Siamese teakwood shaped by the hands of Denmark's most skilled barrel stave manufacturer have arrived at the Dants this week... contemporary Dansk designs strong, water resistant and beautifully grained. There are carving boards, ice buckets, salad bowls, salt and pepper mills, cocktail trays and many other unique pieces... at the Dants on the Hill.
