Christmas Tree Vandals Busy

Christmas tree bulb snatchers gave Farms residents as much trouble last week as they did in the City. On December 23, the police station recorded six reports from home owners whose outdoor Christmas decorations had been damaged or stolen.

Well over 100 lights were missing from displays in Kenwood, Lothrop and Merriweather roads. Another hundred were taken from Mapleton and Hall place.

Police picked up two young boys on Merriweather on Sunday night, December 23. The youngsters had filled their pockets with bulbs, but could not account for the hundreds that were missing. After a verbal reprimand from the officers the lads were taken home to their parents.

Student Drivers Set to Graduate

Each day in the school year eight sleek '57 automobiles manned by high school student drivers take to the Farms Municipal Pier and neighboring streets.

It's the driver education program of the Grosse Pointe Public Schools and is kept on wheels by local automobile dealers. Each car is provided on loan as a public service by these Grosse Pointe businessmen.

The list which follows is of the automobile dealers and their loans to the Grosse Pointe Public Schools: Adam-Simms Inc., 15401 E. Jefferson, three Fords; Frank Adam Inc., 130 Kercheval, two Mercurys; Fisher and Record Motor Sales, 15000 Kercheval, one Plymouth; Don McCullagh Inc., 18700 Harper, one Chevrolet; Ray Whyte Chevrolet Co., 15175 E. Jefferson, one Chevrolet.

As a result of this assistance, some 200 young men and women will receive the coveted driver education certificate at the end of this month. The certificate is now required by state law for any driver's license issued after February 1.

Although organized, staffed, and directed by public school personnel, the driver education program is really a community program under Michigan statute.

It is mandatory for a public high school to offer driver education for any local boy or girl of 15, 16, or 17 years of age who requests it, whether the applicant is a student of parochial, private or public school, or is not enrolled in any school.

The classroom work and behind-the-wheel instruction is coordinated by Mr. Ray Wating, head of the industrial arts department of Grosse Pointe High School. He is assisted by Mrs. Muriel Kreski and Mr. William Taylor of the High School staff.

To Give Talk On Middle East

Under the auspices of the English Speaking Union of Detroit and the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Association, Harold Cooper will speak on the tense subject of "The Crisis in The Middle East", Monday evening, January 7 at 8:30 p.m.

Mr. Cooper is a graduate of Yale and Cambridge. For many years he has served the British Colonial Service in the Middle East as well as Nigeria and the Fiji Islands. He has recently been lecturing to advance students at Johns Hopkins.

The public is invited to this informative talk free of charge. A coffee hour will follow afterward where the lecturer will be glad to answer questions informally.

Hits Parked Car In Making Turn

A Highland Park resident who was involved in an auto accident in the Pointe, told Farms police that he misjudged the distance between his truck and a parked car when he was making a left turn onto Mack avenue from Moross, on December 20.

George L. Knoppe, Jr., was driving a 1953 Chevrolet truck north on Moross. The 1953 Plymouth of Mrs. Elizabeth Rose of Harper Woods, was stopped at the intersection waiting to make a turn onto Moross. Knoppe swung too wide and struck the left front fender of the Plymouth.

The Rose car was damaged to the extent of $30. There was no damage to the truck.

Sales of English walnuts at retail will crack the $50,000,000 mark this year.

This is the forecast of Diamond Walnut Growers, Inc., a grower-owned cooperative marketing association at Stockton, Calif. This group handles about 72 per cent of the domestic English walnut crop with the remaining 28 per cent accounted for by about thirty independent processors.

Reckless Drivers Fined in Court

Judge Grant E. Armstrong heard six cases in the Farms Justice Court on Wednesday evening, December 19. Only one of the traffic violators who came to court lives in Grosse Pointe.

A student driver, Anthony Gazarato, was picked up for speeding 45 mph on Fisher road between Ridge and Chalfonte. He was placed on four months probation with no driving.

Loretta Rose Templeton, Glenfield, Detroit, pled guilty to failing to have her car under control and causing an accident. She was fined $20 and costs of $4.

A fine of $50 was levied on Jerome J. Supanich of St. Clair Shores, for speeding 50 mph on Grosse Pointe boulevard.

Another St. Clair Shores resident, Mary Ann Thibault, pled guilty to failing to stop for an amber light. She was fined $8.

Arthur S. Cambridge of Nefz road, in Detroit, was fined $20 for starting from a parked position without properly observing moving traffic and causing an accident.

Hubert Price, Jr. of Alter road, pled guilty to reckless driving on Lakeshore road and driving with an expired license. He was sentenced to 10 days in Wayne County Jail or fined $75. He paid the fine.

Driver Ticketed Following Crash

A reckless driving ticket was issued to Susan G. McKee on December 5, after she entered an intersection without allowing the traffic to clear.

The accident occurred on Maumee at Lincoln road, when Miss McKee drove her Buick into the path of a Cadillac driven by Marjorie J. Shea of 1254 Harvard.

The Shea car skidded into a Ford driven by Gordon R. Sachs of 862 Loraine. No one was injured, and Miss McKee accepted responsibility for the mishap.

Post Holiday Whimsy

Just to give the holiday spirit a chance to keep rolling a little longer, we use the story of a practical joker and one of his Christmas gifts to fill the space this week.

The local lead in the story has been carrying on a sort of practical jokers' feud with his brother-in-law for some years. Every occasion for the exchange of gifts provides an opportunity for each to test his maniacal ingenuity. As the brother-in-law lives in a distant city, the perpetration of the jokes generally involves all manner of packaging and transportation problems.

Following this season's coup, the Pointe gentleman figures he is a little better than even in the battle up to date.

He purchased a dozen very handsome silver beer mugs, suitably engraved, for his erstwhile opponent's Christmas present, then called in his crew of demon helpers and resorted to some of the facilities of his industrial plant to carry on from there.

The mugs were neatly wrapped and attached, evenly spaced, to a rod that was nearly 20 feet long. This was mounted in a huge crate, large enough to hold a car. All sides and the top and bottom of the crate were tied together with strip steel, tightly welded into place. The outside of the crate was magnificently bolted and screwed together, with all the heads of the screws and bolts carefully countersunk. Molten lead was poured into all the holes on top of heads.

The gigantic crate was delivered to the recipient's house in the distant city by trailer truck. The driver, carefully following instructions, simply unhitched the trailer in the brother-in-law's driveway and drove away.

It isn't too difficult to imagine the surprise when he discovered what had been left on his property, but proper identification on the crate made him believe he was getting a new car, or maybe a boat, and he naturally wanted to find out as soon as possible.

The neighbors tell that there was a frenzy of activity as he made a shambles of his Do-It-Yourself kit, with power saw blades snapping like macaroni as they hit the steel inner reinforcements. Power chisels and drills achieved little against the lead-covered counter-sunk screws and bolts. Axes only littered the lawn with chips.

Nerves were frayed and frustration was at its zenith when he finally called in a professional crew to solve the dilemma.

The answer came when these worthies employed a huge lumbering saw to slice the entire top off the crate. Then bales and bales of involved packing were carefully removed to disclose, at long last, the 12 beer mugs.

Brother-in-law hopes to be out of the hospital by Easter, or, at the latest, when bock beer season comes around.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

The recent visit of Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru of India to the United States focused attention on India and its people. Scores of writers each year attempt to interpret for us this land of many facets; 1956 and late 1955 brought us a number of books about this part of the world.

A current biography of India's Prime Minister by Francis R. Moraes is rewarding reading. It is a detailed, careful study based on documentary sources and conversations with Nehru's contemporaries. Interesting reading throughout, this worthwhile contribution to American understanding of India deserves a wide audience. Young people will enjoy "Nehru's Story" by Shakuntala Masani and Cornelia Spencer's "Nehru of India."

In "What the United States Can Do About India," released a month or two ago, Eustace Seligman outlines concrete measures that might be taken to alleviate distrust and bring about an effective positive relationship between the two countries.

No one can know India without Ghandi, and "The Ghandi Reader" gives selections from Ghandi's autobiographical, political and miscellaneous writings, together with material which his friends have written about him. These serve to acquaint readers with his many interests. The editor has not intended a complete biography, but rather a brief introduction and invitation to delve further into Ghandi's life and teachings. "One Man's India," by Arthur Stratton, as the title implies, is one man's impressions of India as he encountered it during a five-month stay in 1952. He does not presume to be an authority on any aspect of India, but writes informally as one would do in a letter home, on the architecture, archaeology and art as they interest him.

Robert Trumbull, a New York Times correspondent, whose temporary assignment to India in 1947 lasted seven and a half years, shares his impressions of this country in an informative book, "As I See India." The author writes sympathetically but dispassionately of the people and places he comes to know. Two books which depict the India of an earlier era are "Jungle Child" by Norah Burke and "Golden Interlude" by Janet Dunbar. The latter is based on the letters of two lively Victorian sisters, Emily and Fanny Eden, who went to India with their brother in 1836, when he was appointed governor-general.

Grosse Exaggerations

A. PRYOR

"Here a star, and there a star, Some lose their way. Here a mist and there a mist; Afterwards . . . day! If I can stop one heart from breaking, I shall not live in vain; If I can ease one life the aching, Or cool one pain, Or help one fainting robin Unto his nest again, I shall not live in vain." (Emily Dickinson)

A group of "quickies" seems to have hit the holiday Pointe . . . so we pass them on in case you aint heard: The Texan who asked Santa Claus if he could do anything for HIM.

The same Texan who bought a boy for his dog. The woman who had so many beaux, she became bow-legged.

The guy who was so stingy he wouldn't give you air if you were closed in a jug.

The young doctor who set up practice in a small town . . . and on his first call . . . which happened to be a man lying helpless in the street . . . scratched his head in puzzlement, not being able to diagnose the case while spectators looked on . . . said: "Gosh, I wish he'd have a fit. I'm hell on fits!"

This true tale has to do with a local "character" to put it mildly. This here gent who owns a lot of the expensive things in life, including an estate that would knock your eye out . . . found out that one of his employes at the plant was getting married. Nothing would do but that the little bridegroom bring his intended to the big shot's house and be married THERE. All the arrangements were made, the business man paying for the works including the flowers, champagne, minister and what all. Naturally the bridal couple asked the man if he would PLEASE be present at the ceremony since it was being held in HIS house. He said "of course" he intended to . . . and since his wife was away . . . it would even be a greater pleasure! (You can take THAT anyway you choose!)

The big day came . . . all were assembled in the beautifully decorated front hall, the minister arrived, the bride and bridegroom made their appearance before the altar when suddenly down come the "host" bearing an open bottle of champagne, of which he had already imbibed a goodly share . . . and he was "suitably" attired in pajamas and open flung bathrobe! Also, he was wearing bare feet.

We are told never to look a gift horse in the mouth . . . but maybe future engaged couples who are employed by this character will look a gift wedding over with a jaundiced eye!

Before we leave the wedding department . . . this tale is really a dilly. A local man whose only daughter was about to get married, naturally wanted everything to be JUST right. One of the first things he did was to take his old school-tie tails out of moth balls to be sure he could still fit into same whilst giving his daughter's hand in marriage and attending the elegant evening reception planned for later. The tails turned out to be a little tight, as was suspected, and also they were slightly on the green side . . . so our rhero decided to let fly the works and get a new suit.

He went to a veddy chic tailor and was measured for the suit but tails are not to be sneered at in the fitting . . . so he had to go back to the tailor at least six times during the month to be sure everything was perfect. Fortunately, the good father decided everyone should dress up at the rehearsal dinner the night before the wedding . . . probably because he wanted to try out his beautiful new tails and tie. Most of the guests were assembled when pop arrived in the drawingroom. Since there was dead silence on the part of everyone including his immediate family . . . he finally asked: "Well, how do you like it . . . my new tails I mean?"

All looked but none spoke. At last his daughter exclaimed: "Daddy, YOU look wonderful but that isn't a full dress suit!" It turned out that our hero had been out of circulation for so long, he had had made one of those things men used to wear called "cut-aways". Cut-aways are only meant for daytime wear along with spats.

The red-faced father showed up next evening at the festivities squeezed into his 1926 white tie and tails. He has now stored the new frock coat in moth balls for we don't know WHAT future occasion. Tee-hee.

New Year's resolutions anyone??? Evers are very simple because we make the same kind every year. First . . . we are going to do our Christmas shopping for 1957, this coming week. Then, instead of celebrating on Christmas, we are going to have OUR Christmas in July . . . so when Christmas comes again, we can sit back and sneer at everyone else and maybe heckle them a little while they are in the frenzy of holiday activity.

Next . . . we are going to shoot on sight . . . the first person who asks us where our column was last week . . . that they missed it! WE ARE TRYING TO RETIRE . . . without waiting for the gold watch that symbolizes a lifetime of struggle. That proverbial gold watch ought to be given sometime during the first five years of employment when one can still see the numbers on the dial!

Basic Steps in Diagnosis

By FRED M. KOPP, R.Ph.

When you consult a doctor about a serious condition he usually advises a blood test, urine analysis, X-rays or fluoroscopes of the area in which pain is felt. It may even be necessary to take one or more tests that will show if certain areas or organs are affected.

While this involves more expense and time in the beginning it means surer and swifter control of the illness. In the long run it is less costly in time and health than the methods doctors had to follow before the development of these valuable aids.

This is the 629th of a series of Editorial advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

HOW TO PROFIT THROUGH TAX EXEMPTION

With today's high tax levels, investors in medium and high tax brackets are turning to tax-free Municipal Bonds for income that they can keep.

If you have a taxable income of $10,000 or more, you may be well repaid by investigating the advantages of tax-exempt State and Municipal Bonds. For instance, if you file a single return on a taxable income of $14,000, you would have to receive a dividend return of 7.45% on a taxable security in order to equal the yield from a 3.50% tax-free Bond. It's something to think about!

Our New Booklet, "How to Profit Through Tax-Exemption" explains in plain language your need for tax exemption, tells how much these high-grade investments can be worth to you. There's no obligation. Send for copy today, or phone

Car Hits Pole Following Skid

The snow which finally came the day after Christmas, caused only one car crash in Grosse Pointe City Wednesday morning.

Robert G. Caraway of Flat Rock, Michigan, was driving west on Jefferson when his car got away from him. The 1955 Chevrolet struck an Edison pole on the south side of the street near Rathbone place.

Caraway was not hurt as the car and pole absorbed all the damage. Detroit Edison was called to repair a long crack in the steel shaft, and the Chevrolet had to be hauled away for a major face lifting.

One Good Bump Causes Others

One good bump deserves another, and so it was when a 1956 Plymouth driven by John Bruske of 1809 Roslyn road, ran into the rear of a 1953 Mercury operated by Donald G. Sigouin, 1784 Hampton road.

The Mercury was stopped in traffic on Mack waiting for the signal light to change at Moross. When it was hit by Bruske's Plymouth. It in turn struck a 1955 Dodge truck driven by Frank Sylvester of 3800 Burns.

Mr. Bruske assumed all responsibility for the chain reaction accident, which took place on December 21. There were no personal injuries.

Gas Taxes Give Motorist Plenty

The first itemized summary of what Michigan motorists are getting for their gasoline tax dollar was made public by the Michigan Petroleum Industries Committee.

William Palmer, MPIC executive secretary, said a recent public opinion survey disclosed that more than half of Michigan motorists do not know they are paying any tax on gasoline and that the great bulk of drivers do not know the tax averages 9.8 cent per gallon on regular gasoline.

"It's a lot of money," Palmer said, "but the motorist is getting a lot for his money. Here's the breakdown, compiled from highway department records, of what the motorist is paying for every time he says 'Fill 'er up!'"

- 1—45,000 miles of new super-highways nationally in the next 13 years.
- 2—1,960 miles of new four-lane divided expressways in Michigan each year for 13 years.
- 3—At least 1,300 miles of county primary road improvements and 600 miles of county local road improvements in Michigan each year.
- 4—At least 250 miles of major street improvements and 365 miles of secondary street improvements in Michigan each year.
- 5—404 miles of expressways

in major Michigan cities.

- 6—$500,000 worth of snow removal on highways annually.
- 7—76 million dollars worth of maintenance each year on existing streets, highways and roads in Michigan.
- 8—6.2 million dollars worth of highway administration and 9.3 million dollars worth of local debt repayment in Michigan annually.
- 9—More than 200 miles on the average of dependable mileage on a passenger car.
- 10—3,000 service stations at convenient locations providing free air, free rest rooms, free service and free road information.
- 11—"In additions," Palmer said, "the federal tax on gasoline is contributing 850 million dollars a year to operate the federal government, and the state sales tax is contributing 12 million dollars a year to Michigan public schools, 3 million dollars a year to help operate state government and 3 million dollars a year to help operate municipal and township governments."
- 12—"Even though this requires a tax of nearly 45 percent on our product," Palmer said "we think this is quite a package of bargains and demonstrates what a swell job the lowly gas pump is doing for the people in its unassuming way."

Rotarians Play Hosts to Kids

The Grosse Pointe Rotary Club entertained 54 children of the War Memorial Center on Monday, December 24.

There was community singing, led by Dode Tappert, with

Ken Smith at the piano, and a marvelous puppet show performance by Harold Ramm.

Chairman of the affair was Bill McCourt, who was assisted by Bill Schroeder and Cliff Ashton.

Among the young guests was Eddie Metral of Sweden, Grosse Pointe High School foreign exchange student, who is sponsored by Pointe Rotary. The club presented him with a Christmas gift.

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

With the gifts tucked away and the new year thoroughly toasted, social life in the Pointe settles into the humdrum except for those fortunate travelers, either southward or skiward bound.

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Sesk are off for the tropics this Sunday leaving behind in their Whittier road home Jan, Valeria, Mira and Hedwig.

The quartet, who must buckle down to their school books, are not too downhearted because their parents' trip includes plans for their summer vacation.

The Seskis will stop first in Puerto Rico for a medical convention and then they will go on to Barbados to vacation and also shop for a house to rent this summer for the four little Seskis to frolic in that sun swept clime.

Also off to the South, to Palm Beach and their lovely winter home there will be the A. D. Wilkinsons. They will be spending most of the winter and expect a steady stream of Pointe visitors.

California Fans

California bound are the Addison Holtons, who will trek to Palm Springs for a several months' stay around January 10.

That's about the time the Allen Merrells and the Robert Uphams will be unpacking their summer togs and wishing they were back in Ft. Lauderdale. That foursome left the day after Christmas for the South but had to be home so that their off spring could return to GPUS.

That's the reason the N. S. Walbridges had to return to their Sunningdale drive home, too, Pattie and Julie were due at school yesterday so the holiday week at Hobe Sound is just a memory now.

The Harry Stahls will be taking off around the middle of the month with small Gregory for a several week stay at Bal Harbor near Naples, Fla. The Harlow Stahls will be going down in March but their Buckingham road neighbors, the Forrest Starlings will be headquartered at the Seaview Hotel in Bal Harbor from the middle of this month.

With the February war comes baseball training and those faithful fans, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Reynolds, are usually in the stands of the Lakeland, Fla., ball park to watch the Tigers begin spring training.

Skiers Suntan Too

Suntans don't always mean a tropic stay in the immediate background, for skiers have that healthy glow, too.

Lister-Hoyne Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Jacobs Hoyne of Lake Shore drive, Chicago, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Jennie MacLay, to Thomas Shallow Lister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Pierce Lister of Loraine road, Grosse Pointe.

Miss Hoyne was graduated from Cassar College last June and at the same time Mr. Lister was graduated from Princeton University where he was a member of Campus Club. The wedding will take place February 2 in the Westminster Chapel of the Fourth Presbyterian Church with the reception following at the Woman's Athletic Club.

YMCA Offering Adult Courses

Fifty Informal Adult Education evening classes will be held at the Downtown Y.M.C.A., 2020 Witherell, starting January 14. Registration for this Winter Series opens January 2. These are short-term classes, meeting weekly for five, eight or ten sessions.

Included are such courses as Creative Thinking, Theatre Appreciation, Vocabulary Building, Investing Your Money Wisely, Good Grooming, Contract Bridge, Photography, Voice and Diction, Everyday Law, Auto Driving, Memory Improvement, Art of Conversation, Rapid Reading and Languages.

New courses being offered for the first time include Handwriting Analysis, and a special course on Divorce and Re-marriage. Golf Instruction, Income Tax Clinic and How to Buy or Build Your Home are other additions to the Winter schedule.

Enrollment is open to men and women over 18 years of age, regardless of educational background.

Pair Speak Vows at a Saturday Afternoon Ceremony in Christ Church; Leave for Nassau After Reception at the Little Club; Will Live in Cleveland

Wearing heirloom Belgian rose pointe lace, Elizabeth Laird Stroh, daughter of the John William Strohs, of Lewiston road, was married Saturday afternoon in Christ Church to Daniel Dold Jackson.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Erville Maynard and the Rt. Rev. Archie H. Crowley. A reception followed at the Little Club.

The bride's gown was fashioned light Elizabeth satin with a portrait neckline, accented with short flat pleats over which was re-embroidered Belgian rose pointe heirloom lace. The lace was also worn by the bride's aunt, Mrs. C. Frederick Blue, of Pittsburgh, Pa., for her wedding.

The voluminous skirt fell into a short train, and a cap of the same rose pointe lace held her full length veil of silk illusion. She carried Vanda spray orchids.

Fords Honor Girls at Dance

The sub-deb daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford, II, of Lakeshore road, were honored by their parents with a glittering dinner dance at the Little Club over the holidays.

On the Saturday before Christmas 135 of the young set were guests of Charlotte and Ann Ford at a party in the club lounge.

Gold Christmas trees, Della Robbia wreaths and pink and blue angels decked the club. Mrs. Ford received the guests wearing a short length pink velvet strapless gown, embroidered in jewels. She carried an ermine muff.

Charlotte, escorted by Charles Cudlip, wore pink taffeta applied with white lace. Anne chose an all pink taffeta gown with an off-the-shoulder neckline. Her escort was Bruce Gillis.

Lester Lanin brought his band from New York for the dance and the dinner which preceded. The guests were seated at small tables for eight and 10 in both the club's dining rooms which sparkled with green Yule trees trimmed with colored lights.

Barbara Barnes Marks Birthday With Dinner

Barbara Barnes celebrated her thirteenth birthday anniversary by entertaining 14 of her Sacred Heart Convent classmates on December 27 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James T. Barnes, of Lakeshore road.

The fiesta was a pizza and slumber party, with movies and games following the pizza dinner.

Barbara's guests were Gracie Church, Kathy Disser, Sally Fitzgerald, Mary Doessl, Stephanie Farley, Susan Gehrke, Judy Graffius, Carol Gargaro, Linda L'Heureux, Mary Moorman, Carol Pucci, Sheila Shea, and Cathy Thompson.

Welcome Wagon Plans First Coffee of 1957

Welcome Wagon Club plans to hold its first coffee social of the new year this Thursday at the War Memorial with a regular luncheon meeting to follow there on January 17.

All those who have been called on by the Welcome Wagon are invited. Reservations may be made by calling TU. 4-4757.

Stevens-Hurt Wedding In September Revealed

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Hurt, of Harvard road, announce the marriage of their daughter, Suzanne, to Mark Chancellor Stevens, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark C. Stevens of Moross road.

The pair were married in Detroit on September 12 and have now returned to make their home at Hillsdale College where they are both students.

Mrs. Daniel Dold Jackson

The former ELIZABETH LAIRD STROH, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John William Stroh of Lewiston road, was married on December 29 to the son of Mrs. H. C. L. Jackson of Grosse Ile, and the late Mr. Jackson.

Miss Sattley To Be Married

At a recent dinner in the Touraine road home of her grandparents, the Harrington E. Walkers, Pamela Hale Sattley's engagement to Charles Wilson Morris, Jr., was told.

The announcement was made by her parents, the Hale V. Sattleys, of Vendome road. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Morris, of Yorkshire road.

Miss Sattley attended the Grosse Pointe Country Day School, Miss Madeira's School and the University of Michigan where she was a Kappa Alpha Theta.

She made her debut at a tea dance at the Little Club in 1952 and is a member of Tau Beta Association.

Mr. Morris attended DUS and Woodbury Forest and he was graduated from the University of Virginia where he was a Zeta Psi. He has just completed four years of service with the Naval Air Corps.

The pair plan to be married late in January and will make their home in Midland, Mich.

Ecclestons Present Daughter at Ball

Lollie Shares Debut Date with Georgia Schenck Who Bowed at Dinner in the Lakeland Avenue Home of Her Parents, the George Edwards Schencks

On the day after Christmas two debutantes shared the social spotlight when the George Edwards Schencks and the E. Llywd Ecclestons presented their daughters.

The Schencks received their guests in the library of their Lakeland avenue home before a background of Christmas greens.

For the dinner party Georgia Schenck wore a bouffant gown of white peau de soie with orchids. Her escort was Peter Young, of Darien, Conn.

Mrs. Schenck chose emerald satin for her gown. Tables for eight and ten were set in the living and dining rooms and an accordion player provided the music.

The guests went on to the Country Club ball at which the Ecclestons presented their daughter Lollie. The club was transformed into a Swiss chalet for the party, with simulated snowbanks and ski regalia.

The debutante wore white satin accented with a sash of green velvet and carried pink camellias and violets. Mrs. Ecclestons was in strapless black satin.

The ushers for the party were E. Llywd Ecclestons Jr., Ray Biggs, Jim Whittaker, Ned and Bob Lambrecht, Sam Daume, John Hemmeter, Miles O'Brien, Jr., and Nicky Boos.

Gibson-Slimon Vows Exchanged Saturday

Attendants Wear Red Taffeta for Holiday Nuptials of Suzanne Slimon and Thomas Gibson. Pair Travel to Ayre, Mass., to Make Their Home

At a 4 o'clock ceremony in Grosse Pointe Memorial Church Saturday Suzanne Margaret Slimon, daughter of the Albert Jerome Slimons, of Maison road, became the bride of Thomas Francis Gibson.

For her wedding the bride wore a silk net and satin gown, the bodice fashioned with short sleeves and a portrait neckline appliqued with Chantilly lace. The bouffant skirt of net was accented with panels of satin appliqued with the same lace.

A tiny satin and lace shell held her veil of silk illusion and she carried a white orchid, stephanotis and ivy with her prayer book.

Sheila Marie Slimon was maid of honor in a ballerina gown of red taffeta trimmed in a delicate shade of rose. With her rose muff she carried rubriums and ivy.

The attendants, dressed like the honor maid, were Jacqueline Gibson and Mrs. George Bognall of Chadds Ford, Pa.

Mr. Gibson, son of Mrs. Jack Gibson, of Royal Oak, and the late Mr. Gibson, asked Richard Bloomfield of Royal Oak, to be his best man.

Seating the guests were Arthur Neiffenegger, Jerome James, both of Kalamazoo, and Ronald Fitch and Robert Barrett, of Royal Oak.

For her daughter's wedding and the reception which followed at the Whittier, Mrs. Slimon chose a silk mist sea foam aqua taffeta frock reembroidered with Alemeau lace on the bodice. She wore a white orchid corsage. Mrs. Gibson was in teal blue silk with white Amazon lilies.

The pair left after the reception for the East. They will make their home in Ayre, Mass.

Here for the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Liebhich, of Cleveland, and Mrs. Molly Ryan, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

People who live it up soon discover they have much to live down.

Bevy of Debutantes Bow in Holidays

Christmas Weekend Highlighted for Buds by Ball Mr. and Mrs. Merlin A. Cudlip Gave for Their Daughter Julie at Country Club; Four Debs Feted at Saturday Night Dance

One of the gayest debutante seasons in years is drawing to a close this week. Festivities began on Friday, December 21 when Mrs. Charles F. Doderhoff presented her daughter, Jean, at a tea in her Vendome home.

For her debut Jean chose a white re-embroidered lace over mist blue taffeta with matching slippers. She carried Carol Amling roses tied with pale pink streamers.

Jody Hill, Buffy Davis, Virginia Schenck, Julie Cudlip and Sally McHenry assisted. They all went on to the cocktail party and dinner that the Clayton W. Moses, Jr., gave at the Country Club for their daughter, Suzanne.

Two hearts surrounded by holiday decorations told the story of BETTY JEAN HOYT'S engagement to Ronald T. Nelson at a recent open house given by the bride-elect's parents, at James O. Hoyt's, of Roosevelt place.

Her fiance is the son of the Marvin L. Nelsons, of Vernier road. He attends Wayne University where he is affiliated with Delta Chi. The pair plan a July wedding.

To Speak Vows

On the night after Christmas Mr. and Mrs. Oliver L. Wigton, of Lochmoor boulevard, announced the engagement of their daughter, SERIE ELIZABETH, to John F. Frazer, Jr., at a dinner party at the Grosse Pointe Yacht Club.

Miss Wigton attended Sunset Hills School for Girls, Kansas City, and DePauw University before graduating from the University of Vermont.

Her fiance, son of the John P. Frazers of Washington road, attended DUS, Cranbrook and Cheshire Academy before graduating from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. He served five years in the Airborne Infantry. The two have set a May wedding date.

To Be Wed

At a cocktail party in their Moselle place home on New Year's Day Mr. and Mrs. Tobey O. Hansen announced the engagement of their daughter, BETTY, to William E. Kohr, Jr., son of the William E. Kohrs, of Maple Heights, O.

She is a graduate of Westover School and a member of Junior League. Her fiance was graduated from Yale University.

Betrothal Told

Mr. and Mrs. Claud Carver, of McKinley avenue, announced the engagement of their daughter, JOAN, to Lee Howard at a buffet supper Saturday evening.

The bride-elect is a senior at Denison University where she is an Alpha Phi. Mr. Howard, whose parents are the Marshall Howards, of Park Ridge, Ill., was graduated from Denison and is now studying at Northwestern University Law School. He is affiliated with Kappa Sigma. The couple have planned a summer wedding.

Miss Kimerly Bows at Tea

American Beauty roses were the decorative theme of the tea last Thursday afternoon at which Avery Lynn Kimerly made her debut.

Wearing a Dior white satin gown, full skirted and accented with a brilliant heart above the cummerbund, the bud was presented by her mother, Mrs. Harvey L. Kimerly, in her Renaud road home.

Mrs. Kimerly chose black Chantilly lace over champagne illusion for her frock. Her corsage was of white orchids.

Coming for the party were Mrs. Joseph H. Sutton and her daughter, Linda, of Muncie, Ind. Miss Sutton assisted at the party as did Claire Fisher and Stephanie Pink.

The debutante returned yesterday to her studies at Hood College in Fredrick, Md.

Devils Lose to Fordson In Thrilling Overtime Tilt

The once beaten Grosse Pointe Blue Devils dropped an overtime thriller to Fordson, 56-49, on the local court amid the frantic screams of a huge, pre-holiday, partisan crowd, Friday, December 21.

The defeat, not one for the Devils to be ashamed of, left the Pointers in a two-way tie for second place as the Border Cities league halted its cage wars for the holidays.

The final score does not present a true picture of the titanic struggle the Tractors and Devils staged before the Pointers succumbed in the three minute overtime period.

Devils Were Underdogs
Underdogs at the outset, the Devils jumped to an early first period lead hitting their first five shots from the floor. But the Tractors, hitting with amazing accuracy from the foul line, tied the score no less than four times before the Pointers moved to a 16-14 lead at the end of the period.

All of the Devils first period points came on field goals with forward Tommy Woodruff leading the way with 3. Fordson on the other hand was unable to penetrate the Devils' defense and collected only 3 field goals on long shots. But from the foul line the Tractors amazed the crowd by hitting on 8 of 10 free throws to remain in contention.

Woodruff continued to lead the Devils' spirited attack as the Devils moved to a seven-point (27-20) lead at halftime as the Fordson attack was held to a meager six points in the second period.

Tractors Start To Roll
Faced with possible defeat the Tractors began to roll as the third period opened and knotted the count at 34-all on Jim McIntyre's circus-like jump shot with two minutes remaining in the period. In the remaining two minutes, Aquino, Schudlich and Perpitch hit for field goals to give the Tractors a 40-34 margin going into the final quarter.

Playing with reckless abandon, the Devils fought back and gradually whittled the Tractors' lead and finally tied the count at 45-all on Pete Wade's free throw with two minutes and forty seconds remaining in the game.

This lead was short lived as McIntyre and Montre pumped in field goals in rapid order to apparently kill whatever chances the Devils had of winning. But instead of rolling over and giving up the Devils battled the clock as every fan stood on their seats and cheered. Mark Murvay whipped in a jump shot with 30 seconds left to pull within two points of a tie. But into his own hands and stole the ball with 3 seconds left and raced half the length of the all seemed lost as the Tractors began stalling.

Kenny Gutow took matters into his own hands and stole the ball with 3 seconds left and raced half the length of the court only to miss his shot as the final horn sounded. Players and fans alike raced on the court and all was confusion for fully five minutes while the

Race is Tight In Pin League

The Grosse Pointe-Business Men's Bowling League was to present a very interesting match on Friday, December 28, after this issue had to be closed. This was the last night of the first half and two teams had a chance for the title. Bruce Wigle and Lochmor were to roll for the honors.

Both of these teams continued their hot pace by whipping C. Miller and City Glass Co. respectively. Bob Kehrer led Wigle with 524 and Ray Dunbar had 534 for Lochmor.

Larry Miner shot 548 for Cox and Baker to knock Revere out of contention. The builders won by a four and nothing score.

By beating Mary Boutin three and one score, Belding traded position with them to gain first division. For Belding, Petracci shot 508 and Boutin had 529.

G. P. Recreation and Adam Simms put on a match with the Recreation taking three points. They won the first game by 6 pins, second by 5 pins and total by 9 pins. Adam Simms won the third game by 2 pins. Fred Tervo rolled the night high for Adam Simms with a 574 and Jack Baker had 556 for the recreation.

Lakepointe Gets New Golf Pro

John Dalrymple, of Royal Oak will be golf pro at Lakepointe Country Club for the coming year, it has been announced by Louis G. Palmer, president of the St. Clair Shores club. Dalrymple will replace Bobby Ross, who has left to accept a position in California.

Dalrymple has been with the Pontiac Country Club, Orchard Lake and Tam O'Shanter and saw service in the Navy for two years during the war.

The new pro is not entirely new to the Lakepointe course. Paired with Al Watrous, the team finished 8th in the Michigan Open Tournament held at the club in 1954. He finished second in the State Pro-Am tournament in 1956 and in 1954 was tied for first place in the Grand Hotel Assistant Pro meet on Mackinac Island at 27 holes when the tournament was called off on account of darkness. Dalrymple was assistant pro champ of Michigan in 1953.

Lakepointe's new instructor took over his duties during the past week and is already planning the golfing program with President Palmer and studying improvements in the pro shop.

U.S. SHOWS SURPLUS

For the record, the United States ended the fiscal year last June 30 with a surplus of $1,625,558,403.69.

The Treasury Department announced the final figure after taking into account belated reports of receipts and expenditures. The total was nearly $130,000,000 below that estimated last July, when the figure was put at $1,754,000,000.

Both receipts and expenditures exceeded the earlier estimates, but the spending figure showed the greater increase.

Blue Devil Reserve Five Wins 15th Straight Game

Grosse Pointes' reserve basketball team staggered to its fifth straight win of the season, Friday, December 21, with a 42-37, win over a determined Fordson reserve quintet on the local court.

Through the first two quarters Coach John Thurstby's quintet completely dominated its cross town rivals to hold a 19-12 margin at halftime. This margin was gained with such little apparent effort the Devils tried coasting going into the third stanza and before they knew it the Tractors had tied the score at 29-all.

Threatened with their first defeat of the season the Pointers pulled themselves together just enough to edge the fast closing Fordson quintet in the final minute of play.

Was Anybody's Game
Throughout the final quarter the outcome was very much in doubt as the Tractors tied the score at 33-all and then moved into the lead, 35-33, for the first time of the evening.

At this point big Jim Kelly went to work and saved the game with two quick field goals to put the Pointers out in front, 38-35, with 37 seconds remaining. Istock dumped in a couple of free throws just for good measure in the fading seconds to clinch the game.

The Devils outshot the Tractors from the floor 16 to 11 but took a back seat at the foul line when they made only 10 of 23 attempts as compared to Fordson's 15 for 21.

Vern Istock notched individual scoring honors with 16 points on four field goals and eight of 15 free throws. Istock, had he found the free throw range early in the game, could have held a more commanding margin over his teammate, Bill Hooth, who took runnerup honors with 12 points. Istock had six charity tosses in the first half and connected on only one.

His complete reversal of form in the remaining two periods meant the difference between victory and defeat for the Pointers. In the second half he cashed in on 7 of 9 free throws.

Leo Tosto Stars
The flashiest player on the court was Leo Tosto. This little lad did everything a coach could ask for. His defensive play sparkled and his 10 points paced the Tractor attack.

The Pointers will take to the road when they resume their bid for the unofficial Border Cities League title on January 4 when they travel to Monroe to take on the Trojans.

The five victories to date have stretched the Devils' winning streak to 20. Fifteen wins last year marked the first time in memory that a Blue Devil Reserve cage team amassed a perfect season.

K Boat Owners Now Organized

Catboat owners took a final step last week in forming a K class association. Initial move in this direction occurred a month ago at the DYC.

Instigated by Duke Huber and Rhiney Zeidler it saw 14 K boaters enthusiastically endorse the proposal to organize. They agreed with both men that such an association would be effective, not only in perpetuating the catboat, but in expanding the K class. It was felt, that as a group they had a better opportunity of being heard with regard to racing and in other matters on which decisions of the DRYA and ILYA had an effect.

Tuber emerged from the initial meeting as fleet captain, Peter Kremlick, as secretary and Bill McGraw, as official scorer.

This meeting, while dedicated to finalizing the business of organizing, had social overtones. It took place at the Lakepointe residence of Captain Huber and saw his charming wife Helen presiding over the buffet table.

Peter Kremlick, responsible for drafting the K class constitution, found little opposition to its content but struck a snag when reviewing the by-laws covering measurement and restriction. It was indicated a change was necessary before this phase of the document would be acceptable.

Four Toledo K boaters here for the meeting were adamant the section relating to crew be modified. As it reads: the racing crew of a K boat shall consist of skipper and one crewman. They want the ceiling on the number to be removed.

Center George Brown of Wayne State set a Tartar record on Dec. 8 when he grabbed 31 rebounds in Wayne's 48 to 43 victory over Western Reserve in Cleveland, Ohio.

Canja's Cohorts Capture Swim Meet from Fordson

Scoring five first in eight individual events the Grosse Pointe swimming team managed to give Coach Alex Canja an early Christmas present on Friday, December 21, by edging defending Border Cities League champion Fordson in the latter's pool.

Harry Huffaker gave the Blue Devils a 5-4 lead when he won the opening 50 yard free style, but lost the lead in the next event when the Tractors' Jim Kwasny and Al Buck took a one-three in the 100 yard butterfly breaststroke.

Get Lead Back
Trailing by two points, Eddie Pongracz and Neil Georgi placed one-three in the 200 yard free style to give the Pointers a 14-13 lead which they never relinquished.

Les Cutler got back in his winning ways when he won the 100 yard backstroke with his teammate Tom Ketzler taking third, to stretch the Devils' lead to 20-16.

Jerry Neiport captured the 100 yard freestyle but Harry Huffaker and Chuck Babcock took second and third to maintain a three point lead.

John "Submarine" Bennett and Bob Gale slammed the 100 yard breast stroke to give the Devils the widest margin they enjoyed all afternoon, 10 points.

Tractors Come Back
The Tractors came right back to close the gap to 3 points when its divers A. Kabaka and S. Lenceno slammed the diving. Eddie Pongracz and Les Cutler clinched the meet with an easy slam in the 150 yard individual medley in which Pongracz took first by nine tenths of a second over his teammate.

Fordson captured both the 200 yard medley relay and the 200 yard freestyle relay but to no avail. In the latter event both anchor men appeared to touch out at the same time and it was the judges' decision that awarded the Tractors first place in this event.

You might say it was a consolation victory for Fordson but the Pointers had the meet all nicely tucked away in Canja's Christmas stocking.

Juniors Celebrate Holiday at GPYC

Sub Debs and Escorts Dance at Club's Junior Prom; Commodore Stark Hickey Entertains for Granddaughter, Judy; Joan Littley, Kathleen Mebus Have Dinner for 80

Grosse Pointe Yacht Club's Junior Prom last Friday evening, December 28, was the inspiration for numerous dinner parties in the club's main dining room before these members of the sub-deb set streamed up the staircase to the ballroom-lounge for the prom from 8 o'clock to midnight.

For that event, tables covered with checkered cloths in red and white, or blue and white, and decked with hurricane lamps, were set around the dance floor. Between the rhythmic numbers by Phil Girard and his TV Orchestra, groups repaired to booths handily placed for soft-drink refreshment.

Judy Schoenherr was hostess at one of the pre-prom dinners, the fete being given in her honor by her grandparents, Commodore and Mrs. Stark Hickey, with 20 young guests present. Judy, charming in a full-skirted frock of royal blue taffeta, was squired by Guy Miller.

Joan Littley, in gold-hued brocade, and Kathleen Mebus in royal blue peau de soie, collaborated on a dinner for 80, seating their large group at tables for 12. Howard Crane and Tom Kennary were Joan's and Kathy's respective dates.

Another pair of gracious young hostesses were Judith Van Hamm and Mary Lou Cody. Their 20 guests met first at Judith's home on Nottingham road for cokes and snacks before going on to the GPYC. In the group were Bayard Kurth with Judy and Don Bosco with Mary Lou; Marilyn Verbiest, Frank Cody, and Anne Clark.

Fred Green, Lucia Pucci, Lou Bridenstein, Suzanne Weiss, Gerry Lilly, Gretchen Wollenzin, Jerry Sturzik, Ellen Kurth, Don Bridenstein, Patti Rossi, Ed Arioli, Margie Devine, Henry Burakowski, Brenda Boyd, and John Cahalan completed the list.

Sue Ellen Cooper's sixteenth birthday anniversary was on Christmas Day and she celebrated the occasion with a dinner party before the prom. Wearing a gray silk brocade frock scattered with tiny rhinestones, she cut the birthday cake at dinner's end for her date, John Hoyer; Barbara Browne, Charles Haneman, Peggy Armstrong, Sue Cavanaugh, Tom Smothers, Sue Malecek, Jon Hartz, Jerrette Kalaja, Christopher Wilkins, Joanne Dana, Gary Sauer, Judy Poppen, and John Nickelson.

Jim Barnes also marked a sixteenth birthday anniversary with a pre-prom dinner. Besides Susie Quinlan, his guests were Kit Gentile, Skip Saile, John Smith, Dick Kay, Loyal Eldridge, and their respective dates. Mary Ellen Kotcher and her sister, Dorothy, were co-hostesses to 24 friends including their respective dates, Joe Thibodeau and Terry Gibney, Mary Ellen wearing gold silk organza over taffeta and Dorothy in red chiffon.

In Deanna Schrage's party were Jack Addy, Sue Hornauer, Peter Jason, Susie Rendick, and Terry Wright. Theodore Edward Whitteley was host to Joy Tesch, Oscar Marx, Jr., Julie Sparks, Marty Hutchinson, and Judy Allison, while Stanley Dolega, Jr., entertained Louise Warnke, Dick Mayo, and Clara Warnke.

Some fellows are so busy trying to reform their neighbors they have no time to check on themselves.

GPYC Welcomes '57 With Formal Ball

Merrymaking Climaxed by Breakfast in the Early Hours Of the New Year. Past Commodores and Wives Entertain Before Festive Dance

Myriad colored balloons wafting overhead, fancy hats, favors and noisemaker trappings set the scene at Grosse Pointe Yacht Club Monday night for the big, gay New Year's Eve Party which ushered in 1957.

The formal fete—really a New Year's Eve ball—got under way with a late dinner in ballroom-lounge and main dining room, and continuous dancing to the alternating Russ Weaver and Art Quatro orchestras' music. Many came shortly before midnight and stayed for breakfast in the wee hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Burleigh headed the group of close friends who have gotten together for many years to welcome the incoming twelve-months. The Burleighs entertained the north-enders of the party at cocktails in their Winifred Point Drive home before all joined at the club.

In the party were Commodore and Mrs. Stark Hickey, Past Commodore Mrs. William O'Neill Kronner, the Dwight Nelsons, the T. Melville Rineharts, the William Packers, the Carl A. Zimmers, the Maurice Clausens, the S. J. Menzels, the John Wilts, the Walter Fullers and the Cletus J. Wellings.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Brooks (she was stunning in a floor-length gown of white peau de soie trimmed at the skirt side with silver flowers and leaves) entertained the Joseph Schirages, Jr., the Harold Meloches, Hubert Verbiest, C. M. Verbiest, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver D. Marcks.

Mervyn G. Gaskin, GPYC's immediate past commodore, and Mrs. Gaskin were hosts to Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Watts, the Edgar Galloways and the Frederick Besimers. The Hamilton F. Kotchers headed a group of 12, and Mrs. Kotcher was noted in a handsome waltz-length black taffeta dress with rhinestone straps and velvet skirt panels.

Mrs. Troy Maschmeyer's floor-length Cell Chapman ball gown was beautiful—skirt bell-shaped at back, straight at front, with a strapless, draped bodice. The Maschmeyer's guests were the William C. Hunters, the Clarence Johnstons, the Carl A. Bernats, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Gouss, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Harvey and Edna Bruce, and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bauer.

In a subscription group were the Harry J. Chapmans (she was in a floor-length black lace gown), Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Waggoner, Dr. and Mrs. Lyle Waggoner, Dr. and Mrs. J. Hilliard Hicks (she chose a floor-touching yellow chiffon dress), the Harry Langes, the George Domines, and Dr. and Mrs. Frank P. Walsh.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Dalton (she was in powder blue) were also present.

Travel posters, small tables covered with checkered cloths, gay booths and awnings set the street scene. Small carts of bachelor buttons decked the entrance and the 20 ushers wore red and white carnations with red touches to mark their honor.

Annette, daughter of the Marshall Templetons, wore floor-length white lace and carried pink carnations and sweetheart roses as did her sister debs. Sally, daughter of the Alan T. McHenry, was in white peau de soie, the full bell skirt glittering with rhinestones. Cheryl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Powers, was also in white, the bodice of lace, the full skirt ruffles of tulle.

The last member of the quartet Carol Henry, daughter of the Thomas Jack Henrys, wore white peau de soie, the full skirt embroidered in pale pink seed pearls.

At the end of the term the Center, as usual, will hold a big orchestra dance for all the students with fun and favors for all.

Let Carol Henry, daughter of the Thomas Jack Henrys, wear white peau de soie, the full skirt embroidered in pale pink seed pearls.

And there is no spot in Michigan more popular with the winter sports addicts than Otsego, one of the finest ski resorts in the country.

On the slopes of Hidden Valley this week are Mr. and Mrs. Frederick S. Ford, Jr. the William Clay Fords and the Walter Buhl Fords.

Others, who have had their reservations for ages, awaiting the first heavy snowfall, are Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Joy, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Ledyard Mitchell Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Marks and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert I. Lord.

Another popular ski resort is Boyne Mountain where there is an artificial snow maker this season reports Mrs. H. L. Cottrell. She and Mr. Cottrell hope to make it up there soon but in the meantime are spending a few days at West Branch where she expects to try out the new ski boots she received for Christmas.

Three generations gathered around Mrs. E. J. Hickey in her McKinley place home last Friday afternoon to do her honor in her ninety-first year.

Most of her children, grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren were present at the ice cream and cake party from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hickey brought their grandchild, Bess, but Ellen and Brian Hickey accompanied their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hickey III on a quick flight East to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Farley, of New York.

The Michael O'Donnells were there with their six, Michael, Cory, Andy, Christine, Dan and David. The John Kings brought Sara, John and Molly.

Susan and Joseph IV were on the guest list with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Hickey, Jr. The William C. Roneys were there as were the John B. Peacocks with small John, Margaret and twins David and Peter.

The Walter Auchts brought Skipper, Tim and Terry and Mr. and Mrs. William C. Roney, Jr., came with William III and Michael.

We received a thoughtful Christmas note from Mrs. Frank Goldie in Minneapolis where she is holidaying with her sister, Mrs. Frank O'Brien, to remind us of the last Grosse Pointe Morning Musicals of the season January 10. Baritone Louis Sudler will sing at the 11 o'clock concert at the Country Club, with luncheon following for the patrons.

Melody Men and there won't be even a hint of Christmas decorations left.

Following the exhausting holiday season, the Center Club for young single Grosse Pointe adults and their guests is following their custom of bouncing back with a "Rapid Recovery" party on Friday evening, January 11 at 9 p.m. By then most folks are getting their second wind, but the idea of a strictly non-alcoholic party still has great appeal.

Post holiday thoughts . . . A hint to Brownie leaders from troop heads, Mrs. Jack Stephenson and Mrs. Robert Swanson. Save those Christmas cards! Next Yule season they will provide materials for a very fascinating game for that last Brownie meeting before vacation. It's a take off on pin-the-tail-on-the-donkey, but the cards are used to decorate a tree, with a prize for the girl pinning her card nearest the top.

A thrifty matron decided to save many pennies by duplicating an expensive door wreath she glimpsed at the recent Christ Church Fair. She made a styrofoam wreath, decked with ribbon and holly and carefully sewed on a dozen candy canes. She pinned it high on her door ledge. Christmas Eve morning she looked out and saw two bushy squirrels happily licking up her front porch. The unseasonal rains had washed away the candy canes, which she had taken out of their cellophane wrappers and all that was left was a peppermint puddle.

Guests at the Ned Waymans' open house New Year's Day were fascinated by the antique English music box on the dining room sideboard. Under a huge glass bell gey Algerian figures cavort behind gold columns while three tunes, which defy identification, chime on. Another impressive note is the Waymans' organ, last season's Christmas gift.

In the Thomas P. Rhoades' Yorkshire road home, the important holiday decorative note is a red felt tapestry piece hanging over the mantle. Embroidered on it, in magnificent grandeur, is a huge silver eagle. Mr. R. brought the unusual piece home from a recent trip to Mexico City.

If angels can be medieval and modern at the same time that's how Mrs. Alfred J. Mayer, Jr., describes the two lovely silver figures on her hall console table. A gift from her mother-in-law, Mrs. Alfred J. Mayer, they hold green garlands and flanking them are four silver pine trees trimmed with green.

The Joel Bremers' Touraine road home, with its Normandy design, is particularly fitted for Christmas decorations. In their dining room casement window hangs an old-fashioned holly wreath pinpointed with the tiniest of silver lights. The centerpiece for the dining room table is a rare white Capo di Monte bowl, adorned with cupids, brimming with holly and flanked by stunning silver candelabra holding those twisted silver tapers.

PILFERINGS

*There was a young lady from Boston,
A two-horned dilemma was tossed on,
As to which was the best,
To be rich in the west
Or poor and peculiar in Boston.*

Kindness goes a long way sometimes when it ought to stay at home.

Regardless of what you've made up your mind you can't do, you're right about it.

"My father and mother were first cousins," the new pupil explained to his teacher. "I guess that's why I look so much alike."

A father said to his son, "When I was your age my father would not allow me to go out at night."

"You must have had a hard-boiled father!" replied the boy.

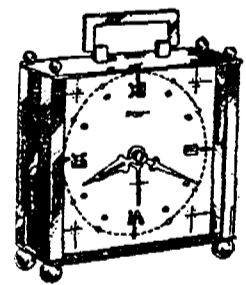

"Young man," snapped his irate parent, "I'll have you know that I had a lot better father than you have!"

A small boy was celebrating his birthday with a party in the garden. He had a quarrel with one of his friends, Billy, however, and did not invite him. His mother insisted that Billy should be invited.

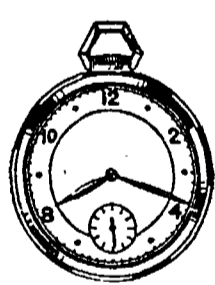

The little host called upon his former friend.

"Will you come to my garden party tomorrow?" he asked.

"It's too late now," answered Billy. "Last night I prayed for a blizzard."

MRS. DOUGLAS FISK, of Brys drive

By Patricia Talbot

—Picture by Fred Runnells

Heaving a 42 pound granite slab down the ice and speeding its passage to a colored target with the aid of a broom may not seem like a relaxing hobby to the average housewife, but it's the only sport in the world to Mrs. Douglas Fisk.

Curling is an ancient Scottish sport, also played in Switzerland and Holland and where there is enough ice to make it an attractive outdoor game.

Men have been playing here in Detroit since 1885, when Mrs. Fisk's husband's father was an active organizer of the Curling Club. Women were not invited to play at the current clubhouse on West Forest avenue until 1952.

The solid granite slabs used in the game are all made in Scotland by one firm, every one a hand hewn article. Scotland is where all good curlers look for advice and hope to compete there when their skill improves.

Off to Scotland
The ladies may have made a late start but they are catching up fast. Last winter 16 of the best in the country went to Scotland for an international bonspiel.

Bonspiel means tournament, and the Scotch lady curlers will return the compliment and compete here in 1958.

Right now Mrs. Fisk, as president of the Detroit Rockettes (women curlers of the Detroit Curling Club), is deep in preparation for a giant bonspiel here in February.

All the best women curlers will converge on Detroit then. The champions from such active curling cities as Chicago, Sarnia, Madison, Wis., Windsor and London will compete for a trophy and generally whoop it up at a banquet at the Fort Shelby on February 22.

30 Local Curlers

There are over 30 women members of the Detroit Club, out-numbered by the esquire side which counts up to 250. The ladies, togged in ski pants, jackets and Glendary hats, take to the ice every Tuesday and Thursday afternoon. They curl with their husbands, two pairs to a team, once a week.

When Mrs. Fisk isn't trekking around the country to bonspiels with her husband she is an avid gardener and member of the Adventurers Club. She took a course in Braille transcription at the War Memorial Center and soon will become a certified transcriber. The curling season is over in April and that's when the Fisks go vacationing.

They usually journey South for they love Grosse Pointe summers and like to be home for them. The Fisks have two married daughters and are grandparents twice over.

Carnival Life

One daughter, Marilyn, shares an unusual occupation with her husband, Bill Boutell. They are carnival folk and own a ghost ride, one of four in the country. Right now they are wintering in Texas but a few springs ago the Fisks traveled to Dubuque, Ia., to catch the show and were delighted.

After the bonspiel here in February the next big date on Mrs. Fisk's calendar is in March. She will accompany her husband to Chicago then and cheer him as he competes for the national men's title. She ruefully admits that her skill at curling can't come within miles of his, but then says proudly, women have only been curling here for four years.

Good judgment and a fine sense of balance are the prime requisites of a curler, and housework is fine training for this. Mrs. Fisk seems to have mastered the art not only of curling, but of managing her home so efficiently that she has eons of time for her favorite sport.

Name Gerald Helman To Diplomatic Service

Gerald B. Helman, son-in-law of the Robert G. Hammels of Sunningdale drive, was recently named a foreign service officer by President Eisenhower.

A State Department source said Mr. Helman will have the status of a vice consul and secretary in the diplomatic service. His specific assignment has not yet been announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Helman and their daughter live in Arlington, Va.

Mrs. Helman is the former Dolores Hammel.

gleaming testimony to Scotch cleanliness and neatness and every bonspiel trophy in the den shines proudly. Soon Mrs. Fisk hopes to have her own trophies and ribbons to add to this array and she invites Pointers to bring their best brooms and join her curling on the ice.

About two-thirds of the students at the University of Michigan are residents of the state of Michigan, and it is anticipated that this will continue to be the pattern.

Nearly 25,000 graduates have received diplomas from President Harlan Hatcher in the five years since he became President of the University of Michigan.
