

WOODS FACES NEW BOND ISSUES

HEADLINES of the WEEK As Compiled by the Grosse Pointe News

(Thursday, January 10)
SIR ANTHONY EDEN, choked back tears as he regretfully presented his resignation as Prime Minister of England. The explanation he gave for quitting the post is that his health prevented his continuing. Eden, who is 59 years old, stepped down while there are still repercussions resounding from the ill-starred invasion of Egypt last October.

Friday, January 11
PRESIDENT EISENHOWER, reporting to the country in State of the Union message, called on the American people to stand guard against ever-threatening inflation at home and "armed imperialistic dictatorship" abroad. He urged business and labor "to think well on their responsibility to the American people" and to ease up on wage and price boosts which would increase inflation.

Saturday, January 12
REPORTS FROM MOSCOW have reached Poland which states Nikita S. Khrushchev was almost beaten by Georgi M. Malenkov for the post of First Secretary of the Soviet Communist Party. The reports said Khrushchev barely survived a challenge to his leadership during a Central Committee meeting held in Moscow last month. The same reports, however, said Malenkov will soon take over the first secretary job, while Khrushchev will take over the premiership from Marshal Nikolai A. Bulganin, who in turn will replace Klementi Y. Voroshilov as head of state.

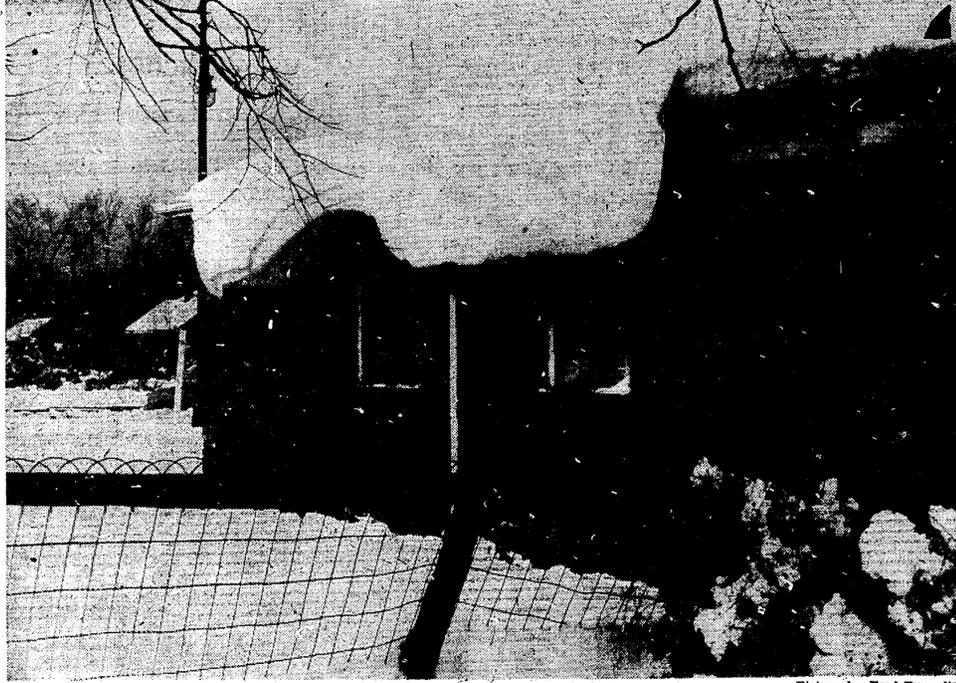

Sunday, January 13
TINY YEMEN called on the United States to halt British "aggression" against it. Ahmad Zabarah, charged affairs of the small Arab nation, said in Washington that Assistant Secretary of State William Rountree promised to take up the matter with British authorities. Zabarah conferred with Rountree in a special meeting at the State Department. The dispute between Yemen and Britain threatens to explode into a full-scale international crisis.

Monday, January 14
SELWYN LLOYD, foreign secretary in resigned Prime Minister Anthony Eden's Cabinet, was retained in his post by the new prime minister, Harold Macmillan. The keeping of Lloyd was a firm rebuff to opponents of British Middle East policy. The foreign secretary was Eden's chief lieutenant in carrying out Middle East policies. It is believed by diplomats that Macmillan decided to keep Lloyd as a face-saving gesture, but that he will replace him at a later date. Most of the ministers of the new cabinet are holdovers from the Eden Cabinet. Only six of Eden's 19 ministers were dropped.

Tuesday, January 15
HUMPHREY BOGART, Oscar-winning movie tough guy, died early yesterday of cancer, at the age of 57. His death ended an 11-month battle against the disease which was revealed when he was operated on last March. His physician, Dr. Michael Flynn, said the actor apparently sensed that his end was near, when instead of kissing his wife, Actress Lauren Bacall, and saying "Good night," he said, "Goodbye, kid." Mrs. Bogart remained at her husband's bedside until the end at 5:10 a.m. (Detroit time). The couple's two children, Stephen, 8, and Leslie, 4, were asleep in an adjoining room at the time. Bogart had played movie roles for 25 years.

Wednesday, January 16
Detroit police are confident that they have the murderer of pretty 18-year-old JoAnn Gillespie, who was attacked and killed in January, 1953. Arrested as a prime suspect was Philip Singer, 38, 2534 Fischer, Detroit, who lives directly across from the Gillespie residence, 2931 Fischer. Police are sure they have the right man, when Singer made a slip of the tongue, when questioned about JoAnn, and then failed to pass a lie detector test.

Blizzard Puts Frosting On Roof Tops

The big blizzard of January, 9 the worst in 25 years, which dumped nine inches of the fluffy stuff on the countryside, afforded Mother Nature the opportunity to play some strange tricks such as draping banks of snow on roof tops that looked like frosting on a cake.

Woman Dies When Struck By Motorist

Mrs. Susie Blokskon, 45, Becomes First Traffic Fatality of Year in Pointe

Mrs. Susie Blokskon, 45, of 4525 Harding, Detroit, was struck and killed on Monday, January 14, while crossing Mack avenue, between Somerset and Balfour.

Mrs. Blokskon, who was pronounced dead on arrival at St. John Hospital, became the first traffic fatality of the year in the Park, and in the Pointe.

Chief Hoyt Has Operation

Farms Police Chief Walter R. (Tex) Hoyt is convalescing in St. Joseph's Hospital following an operation on Monday, January 14.

Chief Hoyt entered the hospital on Tuesday, January 8, for observation. Surgery was performed for the removal of stomach ulcers and a considerable portion of the stomach was removed, according to Lieut. James Furton of the department.

Two Men Injured As Car Runs Red Light at Kerby

The Farms' ambulance had hardly enough time to get out of first gear, when it sped the half-block distance from the station house to answer an accident call at the corner of Kerby and Kercheval, at 3 p.m. Sunday, January 13.

Community Chorus Starts Registrations, Rehearsals For Big Concert in Spring

Membership Open to Anyone Over High School Age; Fifth Annual Event to be Under Direction of Malcolm Johns

Musical residents of Grosse Pointe and nearby communities will be interested to know that registration and rehearsals for the fifth annual spring concert of the Grosse Pointe Community Chorus will begin on Wednesday night, January 23, at 8 o'clock in the choral room of Parcels Junior High School, Vernier and Mack avenue.

Membership in the chorus is open to anyone over high school age, and newcomers are urged to attend the first meeting.

Candidates File For Offices

In last week's issue of the NEWS, a printer's error caused an omission in a story of Park candidates who filed for public office in that city, which gave the impression that Mayor Homer Fritsch is seeking election to the Park municipal judge bench.

A complete and corrected story is printed in this issue.

Park City Clerk Charles Heise disclosed that eight persons have announced their candidacy for public office in the Park.

The group met with Board members and school officials in a planning session on Saturday, January 5. After explanation and discussion, the P.T.A. officers endorsed the Board proposal.

In attendance were P.T.A. residents Edward Glanz, Barnes, James Dodge, Defer, Harvey Dixon, Perry, Donald Walker, Maire, Ellsworth Allison, Mason, Edwin Rose, Monteith, Willis Bullard, Parcels; Richard Young, Poupard; Edward Bunn, Richard; and Robert Laitner, Trombly. Volunteers Needed for Blood Drive

Red Cross Unit Coming to War Memorial Center on Friday, January 25

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will be housed at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial Center, 32 Lake Shore road, to collect much needed blood donations from residents in the Grosse Pointe area, on Friday, January 25, from 2 to 8 p.m.

Mrs. William M. Gibson is the Center's Chairman for this year's Blood Drive at the Memorial, which is being given in cooperation with the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Council of which Hugh Burns is President and Mrs. J. Kolpacky, secretary.

Chairman Named

As members of the Blood Council the following churches and organizations have appointed these chairmen to work for the drive: the Grosse Pointe Methodist Church, Mrs. C. W. Zentgraf; Grosse Pointe Memorial Church, Mrs. John Reindel; Grosse Pointe Woods Presbyterian, Mrs. J. Kolpacky; Grosse Pointe Unitarian, Dr. L. H. Basinski; Grosse Pointe Congregational, Mrs. Schwartz; St. Michael's, Mrs. E. Haskill; St. Paul's Lutheran, Mrs. E. Mrs. Eugene Hoelze will be in charge of a corps of volunteer (Continued on Page 2)

Farms Approves Telephone Booth

At its last regularly scheduled meeting, the Farms City Council granted its approval to the Michigan Bell Telephone Company's request to install an outdoor telephone booth in the areaway between the Grosse Pointe News and Wrigley's Market.

Called Last Chance

Anderson, who was present at the meeting with Mrs. Eugene Most, also on the board, informed members of the council that the purchase of the land represented the last chance that the Woods will have to obtain land for recreational purposes, because of the rapidity of the city's growth and housing developments.

Bill Peterson and James Sherry, both of the Citizens' Research Council of Michigan, which is sponsored by industry to provide information to communities on how to get the most out of their tax dollars, pointed out that the Woods is in need of the park.

Peterson said that by a recent survey made, the Woods, according to Detroit Regional Development Commission figures, has a population of approximately 17,500, and that in using this figure, the Research Council finds the city is lacking 108 acres of park sites for a community of its size.

Still Plenty Short
He said he based his findings on figures released by the National Recreation Development Council, which figures 100 persons to an acre of park land. Even if the Woods doubles the number of people to an acre, there would still be a shortage (Continued on Page 2) hostesses to receive donors and Mrs. C. W. Zentgraf will head a transportation corps to enable donors to reach the Center. The Junior Red Cross of Grosse Pointe High School, under the sponsorship of Miss Rachel Fundingsland, is distributing posters and placing notices of the Bloodmobile's visit on windshields of parked cars, getting appointment cards filled out at churches and in their neighborhood and assisting on the day of the Blood Bank by working in the canteen, serving volunteers' luncheons, baby sitting and making reminder phone calls to pledged donors.

Who Is Eligible
 Anyone in good health from ages 18 through 59 and weighing at least 110 pounds is eligible to donate a maximum of five times a year. It is not necessary to be connected with any of the organizations sponsoring the Blood Bank to donate. Also, donations may be earmarked for any person or group you wish or they may be given to the Grosse Pointe Community Blood Bank or to the Red Cross to be used in emergencies and disasters throughout the world.

Please phone TU. 1-7511 and make your appointment to donate now. Appointments help to schedule the crowd but are not absolutely necessary.

Woman Dies

 the center lane when she was struck by a car driven by James M. Bourbonnais, 24, of 2507 Drexel, Detroit.

Chief Louwers said Bourbonnais was taken to the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office to make a statement, but because there was not enough evidence at the time to warrant charges, the driver of the fatal car was released, pending further investigation.

Driver Found Blameless
 On Tuesday, January 15, the chief said the Prosecutor's Office refused a warrant against Bourbonnais on the grounds there was no negligence on his part.

It was pointed out that the accident occurred at about 7:15 a.m., while it was still dark, and that the victim had been wearing dark clothing, and that she had stepped back for oncoming traffic and into the path of Bourbonnais' car. He was unable to see her in time to stop.

Bond Issue

 of 54 acres. The shortage still holds, he said, even after he took into consideration all of the Woods park sites, including the city's lakefront park located in St. Clair Shores.

The biggest bond issue, for $475,000, is said to be desperately needed by the fastest growing Pointe city, for the construction of a new municipal building.

The present building was adequate in 1948-50, when the city's population stood at 10,381, but now the population has nearly doubled, requiring increased services to the citizens.

Won't House Employees
 Municipal personnel have been added to the different departments, and because of fast expansion, some departments have been shifted to public buildings in various parts of the city, for the simple reason the present municipal building is too small for the departments to properly carry out their tasks.

Administration functions have expanded to such an extent, that the front office has become jammed with desks; vital city records are kept out in the open, without a de quate fire-proof protection; and storage space for office supplies is so lacking that when purchases are made most of the supplies are kept by sales companies until needed. In some cases, these companies charge the city for the storage of these supplies.

Council Chamber In Office
 Space became so cramped in the front office, that a great portion of the council chamber has been utilized. Desks were placed there for the added personnel; filing cabinets, mailing and addressing machines and other equipment necessary to carry on the functions of city government, were also put in the chamber.

Mr. Lange told the council at the special meeting that the three bond issues, which will be repaid at the end of 30 years, will not add to the city taxes, if the first payment is deferred to 1960.

He said that by that time, the Woods share of the Michigan Sales Tax, which is allocated to the state communities in proportion to population, will be sufficient to cover yearly payment of the bonds. He pointed out that the sales tax share would keep the Woods within its tax limitations.

However, he said, tax increases must be expected if the cost of government goes up, but the possible future increase would not be the result of the bond issues, which is a different matter.

Graduation

 bers of the January class will be announced in June.

Orchestra to Play
 The Grosse Pointe High School orchestra under the baton of Mr. Dewey D. Kalember, instrumental music teacher, will play "Pomp and Circumstances", as the processional and the recessional. The orchestra will also play the national anthem.

The A Cappella choir, excluding graduating choir members, under the direction of Mr. John Finch, voice instructor, will sing "Halls of Ivy" and "Calm as Night".

The Reverend Erville B. Maynard of the Grosse Pointe Christ Episcopal Church will offer the invocation and benediction.

Reception to Follow
 After the last strains of "Pomp and Circumstance" have died away, and the recessional has ended, a reception will be held in the girls' gym for the graduates, their families, and friends. The reception will be sponsored by the Mother's Club.

A smorgasbord supper and dance, arranged by a committee of senior mothers and sponsored by the Mothers' Club, will be held at the Grosse Pointe War Memorial for the graduates.

This party is planned so that it will include the whole class, replacing private parties which cannot accommodate every class member. The party will end at 2 o'clock.

Altar Society Gathers At Mrs. Kriston's Home

St. Jude Circle, of Our Lady Star of the Sea church, held its first meeting of the new year Wednesday at the Hampton road home of Mrs. Frank Kriston.

Mrs. Herman Lanier, chairman, presided, and was assisted by Mrs. James Babcock, co-chairman.

School Levy

 enable school officials to do three things:

1. Raise the yearly salary for beginning teachers to $4500 this fall from the present $4200. Raise beginning salaries to $4700 in 1958-59.

This would put Grosse Pointe once more in a competitive position with other comparable school systems throughout the country for the top teacher candidates.

Last year more than one-third of the best teacher candidates rejected Grosse Pointe offers. Reasons: most of these were offered higher beginning salaries elsewhere. Some fifty-two additional teachers will be needed in the next two years to keep up with rising enrollments.

2. Increase the salaries of the teaching staff by $300 in 1957-58, and by $200 in 1958-59.

Staff One of Best
 Presently the staff is recognized as one of the best in the country. Unlike most school staffs, Grosse Pointe teachers earn salary increments. They do not advance automatically. To advance on the salary schedule a teacher must present objective evidence of professional growth.

3. Equip the Samuel Miller Brownell Junior High School and the Pierce and Parcels swimming pools; finish the renovation of the High School heating plant; increase the High School parking area; alter the High School administrative offices; modernize additional classrooms at the High School Annex for increased enrollments and renovate the older buildings.

Pet Dog Sends Boy to Hospital

Cottage Hospital notified the Farms police on Tuesday, January 8, that it had treated a serious dog bite case involving a three-year-old Farms resident.

Peter Donald Haller of 273 Hamilton court, was bitten on the right eye lid and his face and nose were scratched when his ten-month-old cocker spaniel puppy attacked him. Doctors used ten stitches to close a deep three-inch gash on Peter's forehead.

Mr. Haller took the dog to a veterinarian, where it will be kept under observations for ten days. Mr. Haller asked that the dog be destroyed when the quarantine period is over.

Everything comes to those who wait—except the time they wait.

Miss Whittaker Serving in Korea

Jeanne Whittaker, who "grew up" in Junior Red Cross work at Grosse Pointe Country Day School, has just reported for duty as a Red Cross recreation worker with American troops stationed in Korea. Her assignment followed a period of orientation and training at Red Cross national headquarters, Washington, D. C.

"Her presence with the American Red Cross in Korea is entirely an outgrowth or development of her Junior Red Cross work here in Detroit," according to her father, Dr. Alfred H. Whittaker, long-time member of the chapter board and co-chairman of safety services.

Mrs. Charles J. Burgess of Grosse Pointe, chairman of the meeting, announced that the evening's program will also include viewing of a TV program dress rehearsal and a tour of the new TV station at U. of D.

Next Monday's meeting is open to the public, according to Mrs. James G. Morrison, president of the Advisory Council. The Council is made up of representatives of more than 100 cultural and educational organizations in the greater Detroit area.

Among the groups recently joining the Council are the Defer PTA, which has named Mrs. William Coddington and Mrs. William Potter as Council delegates, and Detroit Sorosis, for whom Mrs. Charles Burgess is a council delegate.

To Show 'Golden Twenties' At Film Forum in Library

Tomorrow night, Friday, January 18, at 8 o'clock, the Grosse Pointe Public Library, in cooperation with the Friends of the Grosse Pointe Public Library, will present the first in a series of programs entitled Friends' Film Forum.

These programs designed for adults and college students, will consist of a full-length feature film, and a discussion of the film. Clark Wells, program committee chairman for the Friends of the Library, will be the discussion leader for the series.

The first film in the Friends' Film Forum will be the interesting and informative documentary "The Golden Twenties," produced by "The March of Time" by Richard de Rochemont. Made up entirely of actual newsreel shots taken during the period, "The Golden Twenties" covers the United States from Armistice Day, 1918, to the Stock Market Crash of 1929. The film is narrated by Elmer Davis, Robert Q. Lewis, Red Barber, and Robert Lewis Taylor, who speak on politics and government, entertainment, sports, and just plain daily living, respectively.

The "stars" of the film include Presidents Wilson, Harding, Coolidge, and Hoover, General Pershing, Charlie Chaplin, Greta Garbo, Rudolph Valentino, Al Capone, Sacco and Vanzetti, Michael Arlen, Sergei Rachmaninoff, George Gershwin, William Jennings Bryan, Clarence Darrow, Al Jolson, and dozens of other personalities of the times.

Donald Campbell will be the guest speaker on the program. Mr. Campbell, a former history professor, is now Dean of Boys and Field Counselor at Grosse Pointe High School.

The Friends' Film Forum will be held in the Meeting Room of the Central Library at Kercheval and Fisher. The room will seat 135 persons.

Whistle Bait with a Wondrous Gait

(Just try today's Instant Dynaflow!)

NO MATTER what make of car you're "going with" right now—here's one that will spark a new love light in your eyes.

This Buick's a fresh new beauty in looks, in lines, in sweeping contours. And a beauty in other ways as well.

Even for a Buick, this one's a joy and a treasure in the road-wise way it handles. In the way it levels with you on the turns. In the way it holds up its head whenever you give it the brakes.

But your longest whistle of sheer delight comes when you head this honey out of town and put it through its paces on the expressways and byways.

That's when you discover the exhilaration of power-pitch performance. When you fully appreciate the smooth and immediate response of the latest, greatest version of Variable Pitch Dynaflow—instant Dynaflow.

Yet this performance is more than a matter of transmission advances.

There's a whopping new 364-cubic-inch V8 engine to give it life. With 300 horsepower, 400 foot-pounds of torque, and 10 to 1 compression.

There's even more to keep you smiling—150 other brand-new features.

Including fresh decorative touches, new colors and interior trim combinations—and, of course, the extra safety and security of Buick brawn and ruggedness and solidity of construction.

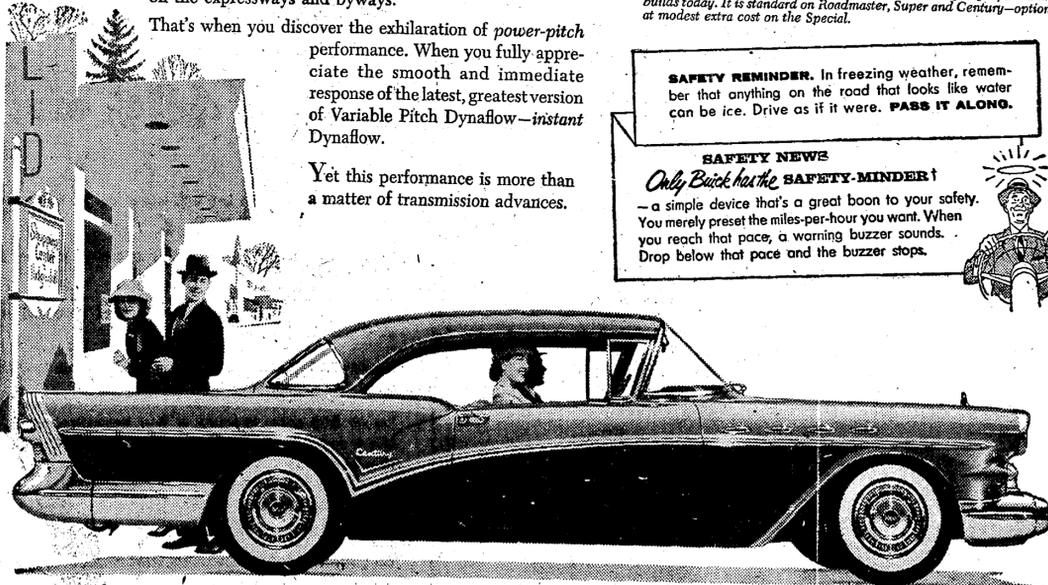

So come in and go stepping with a new 1957 Buick. Today.

New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Woods Council to Accept Increase in Water Rates

The Woods council has agreed to accept an increase in water rates as set forth by the Detroit Water Board, along with concessions offered by the board.

The council gave its approval and authorized City Manager William Lange to negotiate a new contract with Detroit, which would increase the water rate from 65 cents to $1 per 1,000 cubic feet. By accepting the new rate, the Woods saves itself the problem of installing new mains and providing water storage facilities.

If the Woods had turned down the 35-cent increase, it would have had to install mains which would supply water from Detroit's Water Works Park Station at Jefferson and Cadillac. At present the city is receiving water pumped from the Northeast station, located in Eight Mile road, between Van Dyke and Hoover.

It would have cost the Woods approximately $1,000,000 plus more for water storage facilities, if it elected to keep the 65-cent rate. In addition, it would have had to abandon a Vernier main, from Mack to Harper, which was completed in 1950 at a cost of $60,000.

Present at the Monday meeting were Shores Village-Superintendent Thomas K. Jefferies and Shores Trustee Gilbert T. Jerome, who told the Woods council that their community recently passed a resolution accepting the rate increase.

Harper Woods City Manager Robert McNutt said no official action has yet been taken by his city council, but that he and the two Pointe community heads will meet to formulate similar contracts with Detroit, since the three cities will be served by the same mains and water storage facilities.

The Woods Administrator said that accepting the increase does not mean his city will abandon the Vernier main. If Detroit continues to supply water from the Northeast station, he said, the main will remain in use; if the supply service is switched to Water Works, the main will be used as a standby.

With the 35-cent extra charge, Detroit will assume the responsibility of installing whatever mains are needed and will provide facilities for the storage of water, which will be used during peak summer periods.

P.T.A. to Hear Dr. Marie Rasey

Dr. Marie I. Rasey, professor of education and social psychology in the College of Education, Wayne State University, will be the speaker at the next meeting of the Monteth P-TA which will be held in Monteth Hall next Wednesday, January 23, at 8 p.m.

A graduate of the University of Michigan, from which she received her B.A. in 1910, M.A. in 1917, and Ph.D. in 1936, she first came to Detroit as a teacher at Southwestern High School in 1917. By 1920 she had joined the Research Department of the Detroit Public Schools and in 1921 became head of the Research Department of the Detroit Public Schools and in 1921 became head of the Research Department of the Detroit Teachers College, later to become the College of Education at Wayne State University.

The leadership she provided to the community of Wayne State University has been broad and varied. From 1930 to 1934, she organized and conducted a widespread program of parent education under arrangements with the Rockefeller Foundation. With Dr. Edith Hale Swift, she founded Rayswift which began by bringing together teachers and social workers, which in 1941 evolved into a research center for work with superior children who were, otherwise handicapped.

Dr. Rasey has written several books and articles in the field of psychology, her latest being "What We Learn from Children," with J. W. Menge.

Harvey Dahl, a teacher at Monteth, will present a dramatic reading.

There will be no room visitation at this meeting. Following the program refreshments will be served by Mrs. Kenneth Holsopple and her committee.

Brent C. Jacob of 1565 Durthen, Monteth P.T.A. president, is moving out of the city. At a special Board meeting on January 14, Gerald Stoetzer of 1949 Littlestone was elected president to serve the balance of the term.

Raubaut Proposes Bigger Benefits

Congressman Louis C. Rabaut (D. Mich.) today introduced legislation to amend Title II of the Social Security Act to eliminate the present ceiling on the total amount of benefits a family may receive at one time.

This bill is designed to remove inequities that exist in the present Social Security Law, which places a maximum of $200 benefits per month on any family, regardless of size. A dependent family consisting of a mother and two children now is eligible for the entire amount; a larger family receive the same amount.

"It should be obvious," said Rabaut, "that the average family which consists of more than two children, is being discriminated against. Why should a struggling mother of perhaps six young children be required to clothe, feed, and house her family on the same amount of money that a mother of two receives. A mother of three or more children is faced with this dilemma: She may struggle along on $200 a month as best as she can or seek employment, which entails hiring an expensive baby-sitter. If we follow this problem to its inevitable conclusion, we see a family forced into poverty, improperly fed, poorly clothed, and giving rise to delinquency."

"It is my hope," Rabaut continued, "that someday the majority of legislators on both the Federal and Local level will realize that maintenance costs of prisons, hospitals and alcoholic wards could be immeasurably reduced by small sums spent in creating a desirable environment in which our young people might mature into respectable citizens. As the twig is bent, so grows the tree."

Lake Township Candidates File

Candidates for public office in tiny Lake Township have fulfilled requirements in filing their petitions, it was disclosed by Thomas E. Loughlin, township clerk.

Lake Township, although a part of the Village of Grosse Pointe Shores which is also Grosse Pointe Township, is recognized as a separate township because it is located in Macomb County. It comprises the entire Edsel Ford Estate.

Loughlin, who has filed for re-election as clerk, lives at 1100 Lake Shore road.

Others seeking office in Lake Township, are: Harry Garland of 1040 Lake Shore, supervisor; Jay L. Hammen of 1017 Lake Shore, treasurer; Eleanor Sperrick of 1100 Lake Shore, constable; Charles Sperrick, same address, constable; John E. Caniff of 1030 Lake Shore, member of the Board of Review.

Ethel Loughlin, of 1100 Lake Shore, justice of the peace; Norman Smith of 1021 Lake Shore, justice of the peace (to fill vacancy to July 4, 1959); and Jay Smith of 1010 Lake Shore; and H. Grant Iser of 3 Fairlake lane, trustees.

Teachers Attend State Conference

Three Grosse Pointe school teachers representing the Grosse Pointe Education Association of the Michigan Education Association, attended the mid-year leadership conference at the Michigan Education Association Camp on St. Mary's lake near Battle Creek.

Humphrey Jackson of Parcels, William Hoover of Richard, and Lawrence Kennedy of Pierce, arrived at the camp on Friday, January 11, and attended the birthday banquet celebrating the 100th anniversary of the National Education Association. Dr. Glenn E. Snow, assistant executive secretary, N.E.A., was the featured speaker. The conference adjourned Sunday, January 13.

City of Grosse Pointe Park Ordinance No. 18

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND THE BUILDING ZONE ORDINANCE

THE CITY OF GROSSE POINTE ORDAINS:
Ordinance No. 65, adopted by the Village of Grosse Pointe Park on February 27, 1928, as amended, having continued in full force and effect by Section 7.1 of the Charter of the City of Grosse Pointe Park, is amended as follows.

SECTION III (1) OFF-STREET PARKING FACILITIES

(A) GENERAL PRINCIPAL. In order that the streets may serve their primary purpose of affording a means of travel, the owners or occupants of property shall provide off-street parking facilities adequate to meet the parking demand generated by the use to which the property is put. Such parking facilities shall conform to the standards prescribed in the following paragraphs.

(B) PARKING FACILITIES IN CONNECTION WITH DWELLING USES. Property used for dwelling purposes shall have provision for off-street automobile parking facilities as follows:

- (1) In the Residence A District, there shall be provided on the premises; a minimum of two parking spaces per family.
- (2) In districts other than the Residence A District, there shall be provided on the premises; a minimum of one parking space per family.

Such parking facilities shall be in the form of driveways, garages, or a combination thereof, and shall be located on the premises. The parking facilities shall be located in back of the required front yard, or, if in a district where no front yard is required, then ten feet back of the front lot line.

(C) PARKING FACILITIES IN CONNECTION WITH NON-DWELLING USES. Property used wholly or partly for non-dwelling purposes shall, unless determined otherwise by the Board of Appeals, have one or more free off-street parking lots for employees and patrons and shall have off-street loading facilities for service vehicles as follows:

- (1) Where the non-dwelling use involves a building the parking lot area shall equal two-thirds the ground coverage of the building, except that in the case of churches the area shall be such to accommodate one automobile for each ten seats, and in the case of theaters, auditoriums and the like, the area shall be such as to accommodate one automobile for every five seats, where the use does not involve a building, the parking lot area shall be not less than one-third of the area devoted to such use. Such prescribed minimum parking lot area is exclusive of any required set-backs or buffer strips.
- (2) Where a combination of uses is involved, the required parking lot area shall be determined by pro-rating on the foregoing basis. Required parking lots may be provided jointly by separate users but unless paragraph (D) below applies, the parking area shall be the aggregate of that required by such users separately.
- (3) Parking lots required under this paragraph shall be provided where possible, on or adjacent to the premises, and in any case shall be within four hundred feet thereof.
- (4) Parking lots accessory to a use permitted in a residence district may be located in any district. Parking lots accessory to a use permitted in a business district shall be located in the business district, provided, however, that such lots may, upon compliance with sub-paragraph (5) below, be located in a residence district.

(5) A parking lot accessory to a business use may be located in a residence district only when licensed under the circumstances of this subparagraph (5), namely:

- (i) The parking lot shall abut a business district or an alley in the rear of a business district or another established parking lot which meets the above conditions.
- (ii) Written permission to establish the parking lot shall have been obtained from the owner of any lot whose side line abuts the parking lot or whose front line is across the street from and opposite to any part of the parking lot, provided that no such permission shall be required from the owner of any lot which is in a business district, or which is not devoted to private or two family dwelling uses, or the side line of which is separated from the parking lot by a street.
- (iii) After a plan of the parking lot, together with the aforesaid written permissions, is filed with and approved by the Department of Buildings and Safety Engineering as conforming to the requirements of this Ordinance, the applicant shall give written notice of the pendency of his application to all persons owning or record any property in a residential district within two hundred feet, measured in a straight line in any direction, of any part of the parking lot, and shall file proof thereof in the office of any such owner in writing with City Clerk within thirty days after mailing of such notice, the permit may issue. If any such owner shall file such objections, the permit shall not issue until the Board of Appeals shall find after public hearing, notice of which shall be given to every such objector that the parking lot will not be detrimental to the character of the neighborhood.
- (iv) The owner shall agree in writing for himself and his successors in interest (a) to operate such lot in accordance with such reasonable regulations as may from time to time be specified by the City Manager; (b) to assume responsibility for the use which others may make said parking lot; and (c) to surrender the permit and license for said parking lot and discontinue the use thereof under this paragraph (5) whenever the same shall be revoked by the Board of Appeals after hearing and finding that said parking lot is detrimental to the character of the neighborhood or does not conform to the requirements of this ordinance, or fails to comply with the terms, conditions and regulations referred to in (a), above.
- (v) Upon compliance with all applicable provisions the Department of Buildings and Safety Engineering shall issue a permit to establish the parking lot and a license to operate the same for the balance of the calendar year. Annually thereafter a renewal of such license shall be applied for. No license shall be issued in any case of failure to conform to the requirements of this ordinance or to the terms, conditions and regulations referred to in (iv) (a), above nor if any objection shall be filed to the operation of said parking lot by any person owning property within two hundred feet thereof unless the Board of Appeals shall find after hearing, notice of which shall be given to every such objector that said parking lot is not detrimental to the character of the neighborhood. Every such permit and license shall be subject to revocation by the Board of Appeals under (iv) (c), above. No parking lot accessory to business use shall be operated in a residence district unless such a license therefor be outstanding, unexpired and revoked. The general layout of any such parking lot shall not be changed substantially from that shown on the approved plans therefor, except after complying with the procedure herein prescribed for the establishment of such parking lot.

(6) In a business district the parking area shall be set back at least five feet from the front lot line.

(7) In a residence district:

- (i) The parking area shall be set back conforming to the front yard required in said district. The parking area shall be separated from the rear lot line and side lot line by buffer strips not less than ten feet in width except that where the property to the rear or the side is in a business district, or where the parking area abuts an alley, no buffer strips shall be required. For purpose of subparagraph (5), such setbacks and buffer strips shall be considered as part of the parking lot.
- (ii) Such set-back and buffer strips shall be landscaped with lawn and perennial trees and shrubs to provide a suitable screen and the landscaping maintained in a neat and attractive manner and the set-back and buffer strips shall not be used for any purpose other than ornamentation and screening.
- (iii) The parking area shall not be used for any purpose other than off-street parking of transient vehicles.
- (8) The parking area shall be surfaced with dustless material, shall be properly drained, shall be separated from setbacks and buffer strips by approved bumper guards and shall have suitably located entrance and exit, all as shown in plans filed with and approved by the Department of Buildings and Safety Engineering.
- (9) In addition to providing a parking lot conformable to subparagraphs 1 to 8, above, commercial building or users shall provide off-street facilities for the loading and unloading of commercial and service vehicles; such facilities to be adjacent to service entrances and located so as to permit passage of vehicles in alleys. No such loading and unloading areas shall extend into a residence district.

(D) MODIFICATIONS. The amount of parking area required by subparagraphs (1) and (2) of paragraph (C), above, shall be a prima facie requirement. The Board of Appeals may, in connection with any new building or enlargement or change of use, reduce the amount of required parking area or eliminate the requirement or may do so subject to appropriate conditions, in any case where it determines after a hearing that such requirement is clearly excessive or unduly burdensome for any of the following reasons: the use of the property will generate relatively little parking demand; public owned parking facilities have been provided nearby; suitable arrangements have been made for sharing parking space by two or more uses, the parking demands of which occur at different hours; no economic use of the property can otherwise be made and no other property is available nearby for the provisions of parking space. Any condition of subparagraphs (3), (6), (7), (8) and (9) of paragraph (c), above, may be waived or modified by the Board of Appeals in any case where it determines after a hearing that on account of the particular circumstances of the case, compliance with such condition would serve no useful purpose. Decisions of the Board of Appeals hereunder shall be final. A decision reducing such required parking area shall automatically lapse if the building or enlargement is not under way within six months of the decision or, if under way, is not diligently prosecuted to completion or, in the case of an altered use, if the new use is not in operation within such six months period. A decision waiving or modifying any of said conditions shall automatically lapse if the parking area is not established within six months of such decision or, if established whenever the same is discontinued.

(E) DESIGNATION AND MAINTENANCE OF PARKING FACILITIES. Parking facilities shall be clearly shown on the plans filed with the City. Such parking facilities shall be constructed and maintained as shown in the plans and shall not be discontinued unless the parking requirements are reduced by the Board of Appeals in the manner provided in paragraph (D). Where the parking facilities are not on the same premises as the use to which they pertain, or are under different ownership, or where one parking facility serves two or more uses, the City may require appropriate recordable instruments whereby third parties will have notice that the property is committed to parking facilities under this ordinance.

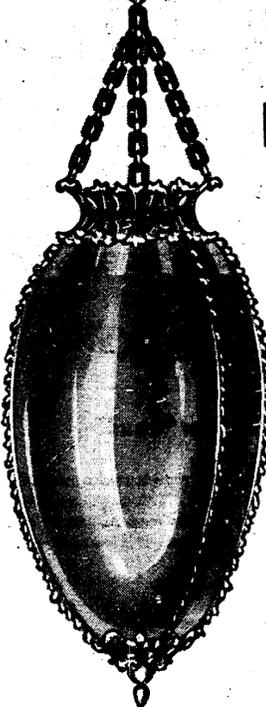

(F) RULE FOR USE AND PARKING FACILITIES EXISTING ON APRIL 12, 1948. Uses existing on April 12, 1948, and not then having parking facilities equal to that required above shall not be required to provide new parking facilities or enlarge existing parking facilities in order to continue such existing use. Such areas as are then in use for parking facilities, whether in full or partial compliance with the standards required by this section, shall be maintained as parking facilities unless the parking requirements are reduced by the Board of Appeals in the manner provided in paragraph (D). If the building is enlarged or the use extended, parking facilities shall be provided doubly commensurate with the amount of enlargement or extension provided in paragraph (D). The parking facilities required for the entire use have been provided.

(2) Section IV (A) of said Building Zone Ordinance is hereby amended to read in its entirety as follows:

- (A) USES. In a Residence A district no building or premises, except as otherwise provided in this ordinance, shall be erected or used except for one or more of the following specified purposes:
 - (1) Private dwellings.
 - (2) Churches, public schools, and public libraries and museums.
 - (3) Private schools, museums and educational institutions when permitted by the Board of Appeals as specified in Section VII (F)
 - (4) Accessory uses customarily incident to any of the above permitted uses, including not more than one private garage, or stable, for each lot, and including signs pertaining to the sale, lease or use of a lot or building placed thereon, and not exceeding six (6) square feet in area on any one lot, except as provided in Section VII (E). Dwellings for the use of domestic employees of the owners, lessees or occupants of the principal dwelling on a lot shall be considered accessory buildings; but, if containing a complete housekeeping unit or units, shall conform to all the height and yard requirements for dwellings in the district in which they are located.
 - (5) Off-street parking facilities established and maintained in compliance with Section III (1) above.
 - (3) This ordinance shall take effect January 1, 1957

A Few Rotten Apples

A Letter to the Editor published in last week's issue lends renewed strength to a belief we have held for a long time, and which we have previously aired in these columns. The writer, Mrs. Louis Hutchenreuther, was considerably upset over the perils of driving past the High School campus in Fisher road during lunch hour. Her car, and others occupied chiefly by women, were the "Targets for Today" as a score or more of misguided adolescents bombarded them with snowballs.

Once, many long years ago, we were adolescent and used to indulge in this yen to pelt passing motor cars. We lived in a city that was very hilly and our house was built far above the street level. We used to make dozens of snowballs, pack them in a cardboard box and cart them to the attic, where a window had magnificently commanded the whole passing parade. We lobbed the ammunition gently out, and if we were quite talented, it landed with a most satisfying thud on the top of our moving target.

As we recall, we were just past 10 when this practice was preciously halted by command of parents who were full of explicit and frightening explanations about the damage which could be caused and the punishment which would most certainly be meted out if we persisted in the sport.

Youths of high school age are old enough to realize the dangers which accompany such pranks. Distracted drivers are likely to crash into parked cars or moving vehicles, or hit a pedestrian. Occupants, especially if elderly or of the nervous type, might suffer serious harm through fright. Pellets of the frozen variety, which are not infrequently employed, can do real damage to the car, or to the riders if a window happens to be open.

Snowball throwing at cars should be discouraged and eliminated, by any methods which prove the most effective. Which brings us to the original premise referred to earlier. The High School campus has been the focal point of all kinds of mischief for years. To mention a few of the infractions, there has been uncounted breakings into the building itself, with accompanying smashing of windows or forcing of locks, thievery, destruction of furniture and defacing of property. There have been beer parties in the parking areas, with bottles tossed through windows and the pavement strewn with broken glass. There are the infantile speeders who roar out of the school driveways and swing into the streets with tires screeching, endangering the lives of motorists and pedestrians. There are the after-game and after-party rioters bent on mayhem. The police have been called out dozens of times to quell such disturbances and put a halt to the bodily harm being done.

Because the High School is located on property in the City of Grosse Pointe Farms, it has fallen largely upon the police of that municipality to bear the brunt of the guard duty. The Farms police department has felt for years that this was unfair and we couldn't be more in agreement. It is true that the City of Grosse Pointe police turn out when called upon, as in the case of a major uprising, but for all routine purposes, the Farms police are asked to carry the ball.

To do the job properly, the Farms would have to hire extra patrolmen to police the area at all times. As it is, the officers have to spend a great deal of their time touring these premises when they might better be watching over traffic or safeguarding the business establishments or private properties of the tax-paying citizens of their own municipality.

The High School belongs to the Grosse Pointe School District and is attended by students from all of the five Pointes and even from a portion of Harper Woods. Adequate policing of the property is a responsibility that should be shared by everyone concerned. This includes, not only the municipalities and the Board of Education, but the students and their parents, and faculty. The stupid few who break the laws should be reported immediately by whoever sees them, so that measures can be taken promptly to see that there are no recurrences perpetrated by the same culprits.

Many of our institutions of higher learning operate on the honor system and it does not seem unreasonable for us to ask these youngsters for whom we are providing the utmost in preparatory education to cooperate to this extent in safeguarding the facilities we have furnished them.

We understand that the Farms and the City and the Board of Education have arranged a meeting to discuss the situation. We believe the Park and the Woods and the Shores also ought to be invited in and asked to take part in finding a solution to the problem. We are paying huge sums to build buildings and hire top teachers and administrators, and we are doing it gladly. We want our kids to have the best, and a great many of them have shown their appreciation by making fine records in their later schooling and in their lives as graduates and citizens.

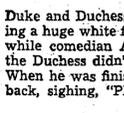

It would cost so little, if properly shared, to see that a minute element of the students was not allowed to put this bad taste in our mouths by abusing the privileges we have provided. Continuous vandalism and foolish and dangerous pranks should be stopped. Let's take the necessary steps and have done with them.

Special Course Taken By Police Three Pointe police officers were recently awarded certificates after completion of a special course in school safety work at Michigan State University.

A Night In New York...

Sid Luft paced the lobby of the Palace Theater... Tex and Jinx were tape recording an interview with Hal March... Billy Rose stood nearby waiting for his crack at the airwaves... We asked Sid Luft how HE feels on his wife's opening night. "I'm a little punchy," he said, as he suddenly waved to Joe DiMaggio who was just walking in. "I haven't slept," continued Luft, "in three days"...

Duke and Duchess of Windsor... The former King of England, wearing a huge white flower in his lapel, stood in the back of the theater while comedian Alan King threw jokes at the audience. He and the Duchess didn't want to break up his act by taking their seats. When he was finished Luft escorted them down the aisle. He came back, sighing, "Phew. One less problem."

Intermission came and went and everyone hastened to their seats. A single spotlight shown on the stage... The orchestra played a medley of Garland songs, "The Man Who Got Away," "The Trolley Song," and "The Boy Next Door." The vaudeville cards at the side of the stage flipped to "Judy Garland," the curtains parted, the spot landed right on her face and she was on. You have never heard such applause in your life. Ten minutes of it. Judy walked from one side of the stage to the other throwing kisses. Finally, the audience decided to let her sing. She sighed, "Phew," and went to work. She opened with "New York, N. Y." Then her clear as a bell voice sang "Give My Regards to Broadway." It was thrilling.

Judy was told something by the orchestra leader. It was something about her dress. A long thread was hanging down. She backed almost offstage where a frantic stagehand was waiting with a scissors to snip off the little tail she said. She said, "I thought things were going a little too well." She said, "Here's a song from a picture I made in—1929." The audience chuckled. "And," she continued, "if you saw it, then you're in as much trouble as I am." She sang "Purty Girl."

She then said, "I've got a new song I've just recorded for—." She couldn't think of the record company's name. Someone prompted her, "Capital." She looked at the audience, shrugged and apologized, "I've been fired from so many companies I don't know who I'm working for."

Voodoo drums began to beat and she sang Harold Arlen's "Come Rain or Come Shine," and the way she sang it, it could have poured inside the theater and no one would've moved. Screams of "Bravo" went up like poor Mr. Caruso never could have heard. She sang and she sang. Then she dashed offstage to change her costume. A team of 11 young men danced and sang while she changed into a silky beaded dress which was slit up the side. Glamorous as she looked, she got so carried away with her song, at a certain point, that she forgot about looking pretty and rolled up the sleeves of this dress which probably set her back a fortune. She threw her little heart into "You Made Me Love You." "Rock-a-bye Your Baby," "The Trolley Song," and "The Bell Are Ringing." Then she flew offstage and came back again wearing the familiar Tuxedo top, long black stockings, legs and black slouch hat. "This Is My Lucky Day," she sang. Then, she went off again while the stage was converted into a circus tent. Her 11 boys came out dressed as clowns. They formed a line and danced, wound themselves into a tight knot near the side curtains, unwound and presto, there at the end of the line was the littiest and the cutest clown of them all. In her great big flapping suit, chalky white face, ridiculous hat and tremendous shoes Judy Garland sang "Be a Clown." She was just adorable.

Then, this little clown, left alone on that great big stage, walked to the rear, took a cushion by a string and dragged it up front to the footlights. She sat down, cupped her chin in her hands, blinked her big eyes and began her closing number. It was "Somewhere Over the Rainbow." For this song she used no microphone. Her plaintive little voice cried the words. As she sang "why, oh why can't I?" the lights faded and the show had closed. This absurd little girl in the great big suit, sitting there like she was so scared, had gone to everyone's heart.

Thirteen ushers came onstage carrying the botanical gardens which had arrived in Judy's dressing room. The audience shouted and applauded, yelling for "More, More" and "Bravo." Don't let anyone tell you that money can't buy happiness. It's for sale for the price of a ticket to the Palace Theater.

Next stop was Nino's of Palm Beach new Continental Restaurant. A party for everyone's Fair Lady. She arrived about an hour after the show closed. Before her came the Duke and Duchess, Walter Winchell with Joe DiMaggio, The William Paley, Jack Benny, Phil Silvers, Polly Bergen, Moss Hart, Budd Schulberg, Claudette Colbert, Esther Williams, Peter Lawford, and positively anyone you can name. Gloria Vanderbilt and her Sidney was a cameo but left right away. They couldn't get a table. It was a preview of Nino's new restaurant and he got off to start with the most chic crowd we've ever seen assembled anywhere. It was best summed up when someone said, "Let's go to The Stork." Another said, "Oh, please. The Stork is garbage after this."

Trombly PTA Meets Jan. 21

The Trombly Parent Teacher Association meets in the school auditorium on Monday, January 21. Program Chairman William Court has invited Chet Sampson, trustee of the Grosse Pointe Board of Education, to discuss the needs of the school system and the thinking of the Board in its action to seek a four mill operating millage March 5.

Following this presentation, the outstanding film classic, "The Face of Lincoln" will be presented. President Robert Laitner urges all parents to attend this "town-hall" discussion so that they may know first hand the needs of the school system and school children.

A social hour in the gymnasium is planned following the general meeting. Mrs. William Angst and Mrs. Alfred Miller, social chairmen, with the room mothers are arranging table settings and refreshments.

What Goes On at Your Library

By Jean Taylor

Recognition of talent by an award of one sort or another is accepted procedure in almost all current competitive fields. The movies have their Oscar, the TV its Emmy, Broadway its Toni and the literary world has numerous awards for aspiring authors.

It has become a favorite indoor sport of critics and lay readers alike to list what in their opinion is the year's best in the field of books. Considering the fact that some 13,000 books were published in 1956, the task is not an easy one, and of course no two lists will agree. It is interesting to check through some of these. You may smugly discover that the critics' views correspond with your own, or, if your thinking differs radically, you may take up an irate pen and compose a list to your liking.

The Saturday Review recently asked a number of men and women who follow the developments in literature to name their choices for the year's best in fiction, poetry and general fields. Thirty-two newspaper reviewers participated in the poll. Among the critics and editors who nominated the books in the general field are such well known figures as William O. Douglas, Associate Justice of the United States Supreme Court; Rachel Carlson, author of "The Sea Around Us"; three history professors, Jacques Barzun of Columbia, C. Vann Woodward of Johns Hopkins and John D. Hicks of the University of California, et al.

The specialists who nominated books of verse numbered six, while the fiction nominations were made by only three, Carlos Baker, Maxwell Geismar and Gilbert Highet. The fiction list is composed of 11 titles: AND WALK IN LOVE by Henrietta Buckmaster, DON'T GO NEAR THE WATER by William Brinkley, THE LAST HURRAH by Edwin O'Connor, THE LAST OF THE WINE by Mary Renault, NUNNI by John Howard Griffin, A SINGLE PEBBLE by John Hersey, THESE THOUSAND HILLS by A. B. Guthrie and three titles by British authors, ANGLO-SAXON ATTITUDES by Angus Wilson, THE MOUNTAIN OVERFLOWING by Rebecca West and THE TRIBE THAT LOST ITS HEAD by Nicholas Monsarrat. One book on the fiction list is a translation from the Spanish, THE LAST STEPS by Alejo Carpentier.

In the general field there are 27 titles. Space does not permit us to mention all of these. Winston Churchill's HISTORY OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING PEOPLES, Volumes one and two received seven votes; Bruce Catton's THIS HALLOWED GROUND, THIS and P. M. Kendall's biography, RICHARD III, three. Other biographies listed were JOHN QUINCY ADAMS AND THE UNION, by Samuel Bemis; BOSWELL IN SEARCH OF A WIFE, the fifth volume in this series, by Frank Brady and Frederick Pottle; Robert J. Donovan's EISENHOWER, THE INSIDE STORY; THE LETTERS OF THOMAS WOLFE, edited by Elizabeth Nowell, THE LION AND THE FOX by James M. Burns, a biography which concentrates on the political career rather than the private life of Franklin D. Roosevelt, and THREE SAINTS AND A SINNER by Louise Hall Tharp, author of THE PEABODY SISTERS. THE NUN'S STORY, which is included in the General List, has been classed as fiction by most libraries.

Essays include A PIECE OF MY MIND: REFLECTIONS AT SIXTY by Edmund Wilson, and Santayana's ESSAYS IN LITERARY CRITICISM. Outdoor lovers who enjoyed Edwin Teale's NORTH WITH THE SPRING will rejoice to see listed A UTUMN ACROSS AMERICA, the last book by this gifted naturalist and photographer. C. L. Sulzberger, recognized as one of the best informed and most dependable of foreign correspondents, finds a place among the general listings with his book, BIG THAW. Arthur Holly Compton's ATOMIC QUEST also finds a place here.

The Poetry Section includes The Collected Poems of Edna St. Vincent Millay, CRITERION BOOK OF MODERN AMERICAN POETRY, edited by W. H. Auden; THINGS OF THIS WORLD, by Richard Wilbur; LIKE A BULWARK, by Marianne Moore, and THE UNICORN AND OTHER POEMS by Anne Morrow Lindbergh. All of these books are available at the three Grosse Pointe Libraries. Telephone if you wish to have any placed on reserve.

Music Playing Big Part In Public School Program

Mrs. Winifred Fenton, explained to the Grosse Pointe Board of Education at its January 8 meeting that in an age of tension such as this, music is a symbol of hope and faith.

Mrs. Fenton, who is Elementary Music Consultant for the local public schools, addressed the Board at its invitation. An overflow audience at the Board Room heard her describe the program and illustrate some of its features with student performances.

"We try to get boys and girls to be responsive to music," she said, "to listen, to experience, to be aware, to discriminate in music, to develop insight. We strive to develop an understanding of the need for skills."

Mrs. Fenton continued, "Music should be filled with joy and satisfaction. We want Grosse Pointe boys and girls to experience these. Hence, each of our elementary schools makes special provisions for listening to and participating in both vocal and instrumental music. It is my responsibility to promote the continuous development of all phases of this music program by helping both the special music teachers and the regular classroom teachers."

The speaker said that more than 55 percent of the fifth grade boys and girls are taking instrumental music lessons at the present time. Some 425 school-owned instruments are used in a rental program which is self-supporting. Almost one out of every three junior high school entrants plays a musical instrument.

The music consultant illustrated the work of the music teachers by playing a tape recording of a combined fifth and sixth grade mixed and cappella group from Poupard and directed by William Ferry. She also played a tape recording of a flutophone group from Ferry School.

Mrs. Fenton's concluding presentation was a six member flutophone group also from Ferry School, whose teacher is Mrs. Beatrice Sciabica. The children were warmly received and Clifford John Chasteen, David Clifford, Andy Flintermann, Graham Nold, Stephanie Smith and Kay Teague.

Robert McKean Resigns Post

The Park council on Monday, January 14, accepted the resignation of Councilman Robert McKean, who has taken up legal residence in the Farms.

McKean, who was also mayor pro tem, formerly lived at 1014 Bishop road, and presently is living in 186 Ridge road, until construction of his new home is completed. He has purchased a lot in the Farms for that purpose.

He was elected to the Park Charter Commission of which he was chairman in 1948, and when the Park incorporated as a city on December 14, 1950, he was elected to a four-year term as a councilman.

He was elected to another term of office in April, 1955, and then elected by the council as mayor pro tem.

The council approved the appointment of Thomas G. McCormick of 1126 Audubon, to serve McKean's unexpired term, which will run to April, 1959.

In charge of the 12 meetings will be the following: Commander George C. Cossaboom; Class Chairman Lt. John J. Wetzel; assisted by: Arthur Sherman, Porter Steipher, Paul Goetschels, Andrew Harper, Lee Taylor, Albert Pauley, William Woolsey, Gene West, John Chandler, Robert Harris and William Dimmer.

Council Appoints Election Workers

The Farms City Council has approved the appointment of Alvin M. Gouin, Earl I. Heenan, Jr., and James J. Meehan to serve as members of the Election Commission. The term is for two years. All three men have served the Farms in the past as members of the Commission.

During the same session, the Council appointed T. Raymond Jeffs to survive himself as a member of the Board of Review. Mr. Jeffs has been serving on the Board for the past three years, and his term expired this month.

Acting City Clerk, Dawson F. Nacy, told the Council that 1,439 notices of cancellation of voting registrations have been mailed to those who have not voted in the Farms during the past two years. It is expected that many of those cancelled have since moved from the City and forgot to notify the city offices.

News For Mr. Webster

Mr. Webster defines a truck as "an automotive vehicle for . . . long distance hauling" and this is technically true. But to the millions of Americans whose everyday life is geared to the flow of motor transport, a truck is much more than this.

It's a shipment of supplies for the corner drugstore where you buy; a crate of spare parts for the auto repair garage you patronize; a load of food-stuffs for your favorite grocery; shoes for little Junior, eye glasses for Mary, paint for that bedroom you're doing over, the TV set you've been waiting for.

Life in Michigan just couldn't go on as it does today without trucks. Agriculture and industry depend on them. So do the butcher, the baker, the candlestick maker. So do you!

Junior Achievers to Hold Open Houses During Week

It was announced by John P. Mansfield, president of the board of Junior Achievement of Southeastern Michigan, and president of the Plymouth Division of Chrysler, that Junior Achievement Week will be held from January 27 through February 2.

The purpose of JA Week is to familiarize the work of JA and its teenage 'miniature corporations' by holding Open Houses at all of S.E. Michigan's 14 Business Centers. In the past, the general public has demonstrated its interest in Junior Achievement and its activities at its Open House.

Junior Achievement is a non-profit organization designed to give America's teenagers a better understanding of the free-enterprise system. It is educational program, which is.

Teenagers in JA form their own companies and elect their own officers. Products are decided on and actually manufactured in a JA Business Center 'work shop.' Professional in quality and appearance, JA products find their way into large department stores, retail shops, etc., to take their place amongst 'big business' products.

A complete life cycle of a corporation from its formation to liquidation is experienced by these miniature JA corporations, from October through May of the following year.

It was announced by Mansfield that the Eastside Business Center at 13201 Harper avenue, extends an invitation on behalf of all its teenage members to drop in and see neighborhood teenage corporations in actual operation. The Business Center hours are from 7-9 p.m. Monday through Thursday.

Mansfield—a firm believer in JA program and its goals—said he felt the people of Grosse Pointe have shown an increasing awareness of JA progress here and shared his optimism in this worthwhile endeavor.

Henry A. Wallace, former U.S. Vice-President, is one of the featured speakers for Farmers' Week at Michigan State University, Jan. 28 — Feb. 1. He will speak at the farm management banquet to be held at 6 p.m. Thursday, January 31. Wallace served as U. S. Secretary of Agriculture and is now doing research in plant science.

Grosse Pointe News

From Another Pointe of View

By Patricia Talbot

Since our recent snowfall the slopes of northern Michigan are crisscrossed with local skiers such as Andy Bachle who can compare salom conditions here with those of the fabled Alps.

Andy sped off to Boyne Mountain with her sister Diane, Sally Valade and Marcia Byrnes over the past weekend and you know that the much touted snow making machine wasn't needed to produce perfect skiing weather in the past few days.

The young sportswoman returned from a three-month tour of Europe toward the end of November with Lois Murphy, Mary Fitzsimmons and Janet Jewell, of Flint. The quartet viewed 12 countries in their snappy French auto, even stopping off at Tangier in troubled North Africa.

Andy, daughter of the Carl Francis Bachles, of La Salle place, chose Germany as her favorite vacation land for the people there can work 14 hours a day, are very ambitious and still know how to have a good time... so says a note from her travelogue. She wanted to remain in Rome where an attractive job was offered but the Bachles insisted their daughter be on U.S. shores with the Suez crisis so worrying. She's now studying at a downtown business college.

Cruise Conscious

More travel news concerns Mrs. Robert Barie and Mrs. Rufus Clark, who will be driving down to Williamsburg, Va., this Sunday, to take in the historic sights until their Holland-American ship sails on the Virginia Commemorative Cruise. The ladies will sightsee in Barbados, the Virgin Islands and Bermuda among other Caribbean spots before returning for another spin around Virginia. All in all they will be gone a month with another Pointer, Mrs. Robert Olp joining them for the cruise.

Palm Beach

An the exodus South continues with the Patrick Adams sons off last Friday to spend the rest of what promises to be a real old fashioned winter hereabouts in their new home in Palm Beach. Daughter Wendy will pack her GPUS books along and continue her studies in Florida.

Also off last Sunday was Mrs. C. Henry Buhl and to Palm Beach, too. Mrs. Harold R. Boyer will grace that city after this week-end.

The David Wallaces and the C. Hascall Blissess drifted slowly down the waterways on the Maid Marion, the Blissess to moor in Palm Beach, the Wallaces to headquarter at their Delray Beach home. Still another Pointer Palm Beach bound is Mrs. Wesson Seyburn. And the Ernest Kanzlers should be settled in Hobe Sound by now, for they left Sunday.

A Nod to the Clubs

Club activity around the city is perking up to console the residents still on the local scene with the Hunt Club (Continued on Page 18)

The bridegroom-elect's parents will give the rehearsal dinner at the Hawthorne House February 1.

Vienna Choir To Sing Jan. 21

The Vienna Boy Choir will present a variety of music when it appears at Detroit Town Hall on Monday, January 21.

Their concert, to be held at 11 a.m. in Ford Auditorium, will open with a group of sacred songs from the 16th and 17th century and close with a costume opera.

The troupe of more than 20 boys, aged eight to 14, are members of an organization dating back to 1458. Josef Haydn and Franz Schubert were members until their voices changed. Until World War I the choir sang exclusively for the royal family. Then, with the crumbling of the Hapsburg regime, the choir went out on its own, making concert tours all over the world.

Home in Vienna for the boys is the Augarten Palace near the center of the city. In summer they stay at Hinterbichl in the Austrian mountains.

Joseph Poleo will be the March 27 guest. He will talk on "Care of Flowering Trees and Shrubs." Frank Vaydik is the final lecturer of the season on April 3 with "Planting, Pruning, and Care of Evergreens" his topic.

There will be luncheon served at the War Memorial prior to each lecture and Mrs. H. Paul Sloan, Jr., of Pleasant Ridge, the Committee's College Information Day Chairman, announced recently that the eleventh annual College Information Day, to which all interested girls from high schools are invited, is scheduled for 12:30 to 4:30 p.m. in the Executive Suite of the Club.

There to greet the girls, their parents and counselors will be several of the presidents of the alumnae groups in Detroit including Mrs. William T. Gossett of Bloomfield Hills, for Barnard, Mrs. E. Osborne Coates of Grosse Pointe Farms for Bryn Mawr, Mrs. Kenneth L. McCoy of Grosse Pointe for Mount Holyoke and Mrs. W. Bruce Krag of Grosse Pointe Farms for Smith.

The committee recently sponsored the visit of Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr. to Detroit, where he addressed an audience on behalf of the Scholarship Fund.

On Saturday the Committee fulfills one of its major purposes in providing information to Michigan girls on various aspects of Eastern college life. Among these are scholastic requirements, expenses, curriculum, campus activities and scholarship opportunities. Recent graduates will be able to tell the high school students what clothes they will need, how near the men's colleges are located, etc.

The Scholarship Chairman of the seven clubs will be present on Saturday with information about available financial aid and opportunities for self-help for students in each of these colleges.

They are for Barnard, Mrs. Charles J. Holt of Grosse Pointe; for Bryn Mawr, Mrs. David Mills of Farmington; for Mount Holyoke, Mrs. H. Paul Sloan, Jr.; for Radcliffe, Mrs. William R. Eyer of Birmingham; for Smith, Mrs. John S. Judd of Birmingham; for Vassar, Mrs. Reade H. Ryan of Grosse Pointe; and for Wellesley, Mrs. John R. Decker of Seminole in Detroit.

These Seven Eastern Colleges

offer a special opportunity for Michigan girls to live and study in a new environment in New England or near New York or Philadelphia. Each college has its own special emphasis but it may be said without qualification that each offers the finest type of liberal arts education available to women today. Their graduates are outstanding in many fields but as with the graduates of all schools, the majority find their training in liberal arts enriches their lives as wives, mothers and citizens.

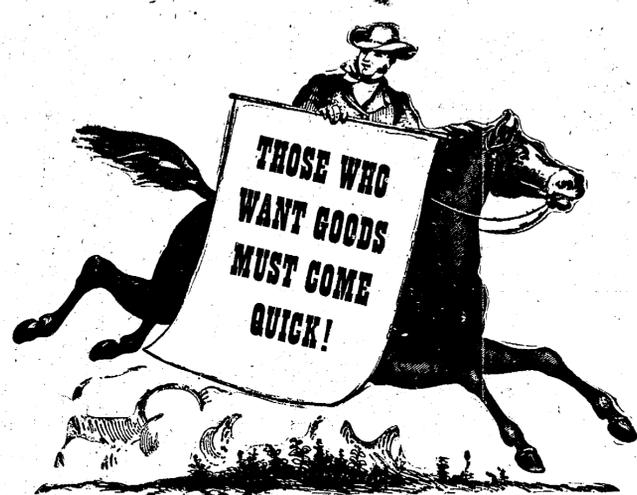

An AAUW survey of 30,000 women college graduates shows that 99 percent consider their training of great value in later life. Half declared college had developed them "socially," that is, friendships, tolerance, community-consciousness. The third who felt they had grown intellectually mentioned information and perspective. 27 percent specifically pointed out the importance of their training for their present work, plus a fifth who felt college had helped them as wives and mothers. Graduates of the women's colleges referred most frequently to habits of analytical and objective thought as well as preparation for civic and community affairs.

Volunteers Needed For Red Cross Work

Opportunity for Service Exists in Many Branches of Varied Program; Women Urged to Call Headquarters For Information

The Detroit chapter of the American Red Cross announces the opening of its annual drive to recruit volunteers for its various services. Mrs. J. Dwyer Kinnucan, chairman of volunteers, said: "We need a minimum of 400 new volunteers to replace those whose other responsibilities have forced them to become less active, and to meet needs created by the expansion of some of our service programs."

"Many women all over the world have learned by experience that Red Cross service gives them the opportunity and the satisfaction of helping others as well as working with others. Last year 1,100 Detroit chapter Gray Ladies served 100,200 hours in 21 Wayne county hospitals. These women do personal non-medical services for the patients which relieve some of the boredom and loneliness of hospitalization. Mrs. Cameron Ryckman, chairman of Gray Lady Service, has been asked to increase her force in several Detroit hospitals and needs at least a hundred new volunteers to fill her quota."

Mrs. Kinnucan said prospective Gray Ladies must be 21 years of age, have certificates indicating good health, be American citizens, and pledge to serve at least 150 hours the first year. Applications will be received at the chapter Gray Lady office, 153 E. Elizabeth, from January 21 to February 8, including Saturdays, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Volunteers for other Red Cross activities, particularly the blood program, motor and canteen services, are needed also. Last year 224,246 miles were driven by Motor Service volunteers on assignments which included transportation of hospitalized veterans and servicemen to sports events or on emergency mercy runs; children from orphanages or settlement houses to places of recreational or educational activity; cooperation with other chapter services in picking up and later delivering more than 20,000 Christmas toys and trays made in schools by Junior Red Cross members for needy children and hospital patients; donors to the blood center and personnel to bloodmobile locations.

Volunteers with Red Cross Canteen Service help in the chapter canteen, in the blood center or bloodmobile canteen, and are part of the Red Cross Disaster Preparedness "team." Volunteers are urgently needed for assignment with bloodmobile units throughout the county.

Further information about these and other Red Cross volunteer openings can be obtained by calling Woodward 1-3900, between 10 a.m. and 4 p.m. Monday through Saturday. Training classes for all new volunteers to begin in February, are being arranged by each Service chairman.

Churches Join To Aid Goodwill

Nearly 400 Detroit area churches are banding together to help the physically handicapped employees of Goodwill Industries by distributing clothing bags to members of their congregations on "Goodwill Industries Sunday," January 20.

Goodwill Industries is a non-profit organization providing employment and training for the handicapped through the collection, repair and sale of usable household discards. During the winter months, collections of material fall below the minimum amount needed to provide employment opportunities for Goodwill's handicapped employees. The purpose of the bag distribution is to stimulate a flow of materials, particularly clothing, to the Goodwill plant.

The clothing drive, first of its kind in the Detroit area, is jointly sponsored by the Social Service Department of the Detroit Council of Churches and the United Church Women. In many churches the bags will be distributed from the church foyer by members of the local women's organizations. In others members of church sponsored youth groups will distribute the bags.

"Helping others to help themselves is elementary Christian philosophy," says Mrs. Frank Ferguson, president of the United Church Women. "We are hopeful our effort will result in many hours of productive labor for Goodwill's employees."

In addition to clothing, Goodwill Industries collects shoes, hats, toys, small appliances and other repairable household articles. Goodwill Industries trucks will collect filled clothing bags or other household articles on quest. A telephone call to TR-3-3600 brings a Goodwill truck to the door.

Security Program Studied by League

Women Voters Invite All Interested Persons To Attend Unit Meetings Which Will Examine Government Policies

The twin values of liberty and security, which were written into the Constitution of the United States in the phrases "provided for the common defense" and "secure the blessings of liberty" were recognized by the founding fathers as basic to a government designed to serve a diverse people.

The question the forefathers were faced with was how to provide maximum elbow room for the individual, and at the same time provide the means necessary to achieve national safety, or even national survival in times of extreme crisis.

The country embodies the ideal of individual liberty as a noble aspiration. Freedom always has been a vital and dynamic force, but, like all ideals, it is never fully achieved in practice.

The initiative and backbone which liberty can bring to a nation are closely connected with security. History provides illustrations of the fact that the interpretations of security have varied at different times, with broader protection for the individual in times of relative calm, narrower in times of crisis.

And so, ever since the government was founded, we've been faced with the continuing task of finding just the right combination of security and liberty, reflecting an equal regard for both of these goals.

In less than ten years, the federal employe loyalty program, created to meet an emergency situation, has expanded into five loyalty-security programs. Combined, the five programs directly involve about 10 million people. Of this number, 2.3 million are civilian employes of Uncle Sam. The others include men and women in uniform, merchant seamen, longshoremen, and employes of defense industries.

Circumstances have changed considerably since the programs were established, yet there have been few, if any, major changes in the programs themselves. This raises the question of whether the standards, the criteria, and the definitions of derogatory information, which were first developed during an emergency period, should be altered in light of changing circumstances.

At the five unit meetings of the League of Women Voters during the month of January, members and guests will be taking a fresh look at the government's loyalty-security programs.

Under the direction of Mrs. Alden Thomas and her committee, the League will consider (Continued on Page 24)

ARMORY, JAN. 19-27

PRODIGY VISITS POPE PIUS—Literary prodigy Minou Drouet, the nine-year-old French poet whose works have received wide acclaim, smiles shyly during a special audience with Pope Pius XII in Vatican City. The youngster climaxes a visit to Italy with a visit to the Pontiff.

KINDERGARTEN CARMEN—That operatics aren't necessarily fun for grown-ups is shown by these two participants in a production by the kindergarten class of Public School 206 in Rego Park, N. Y. Getting that come-hither look from Don Jose is Shelley Fine, a pert little Carmen with rose, earring and all, shining up to the torero who is so dashing portrayed by Donald Klein.

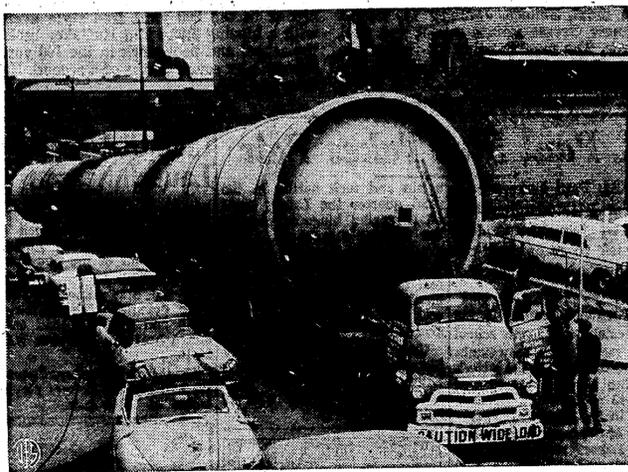

RETIRED CHAMPION—The trophy-studded recreation room of his Stamford, Conn., home is crowded with memories of his playing days for Jackie Robinson, relaxing after announcing his retirement from baseball. The 38-year-old diamond star brought the curtain down on his brilliant career to take a job in private industry.

QUIET BUDAPEST—With the end of fighting, life is slowly returning to normal in Budapest and the streets which were only recently scenes of bitter conflict present a more peaceful aspect now. Among the many Hungarians at work cleaning up their ravaged capital are this young boy and girl shoveling snow from a frozen roadway.

HOT HOT ROD—This jet car was developed by All American Engineering Company of Wilmington, Del., for the U. S. Navy Bureau of Aeronautics to test aircraft arresting gear. The bright red hot rod, powered by four jet engines, roars across a test track at 200 m.p.h. or more pushing in front of it dead loads which are slammed into arresting gear testing the strength of the gear and its capability to absorb the energy of a landing jet fighter or bomber.

TANKS A LOT—Four huge steel grain storage tanks are lined up in this Kansas City, Mo., yard awaiting delivery to a brewery. The tanks are 13 1/2 feet in diameter, 51 feet long and weigh about 10 tons each. They were hauled across Kansas on semi-trailer trucks after permission was granted by the Highway Patrol.

ROCK 'N' ROLL ADDICT—The music world has long been accustomed to lyrical counts and dukes, but it now has a bona fide earl among its ranks. He is the 21-year-old Earl of Wharnclyffe, seen here pounding out a tune on the drums during a jam session at Chesterfield's Swannick Memorial Hall, in London. Since he obtained his union card, the Earl plays the drums with the Ted Pell Rock 'n' Roll aggregation.

FACHYDERM POWER—Speed's lacking, but there's plenty of power propelling young Walter Theisinger's sled in Hamburg, Germany. His unusual "reindeer" is Mennie, a 65-year-old elephant at the Hamburg Zoo. Since seven-year-old Walter's father is a keeper at the zoo, he gets to hitch his sled to Mennie when she takes her daily strolls.

CLIMBING CUTIE—Perching prettily on a gnarled tree branch, lovely Donna Thompson displays the charms which helped her become the first entrant in the Florida Citrus Queen Contest. The contest will take place during the week-long Citrus Exposition in Winter Haven, Fla., starting Feb. 11.

THE LONG AND SHORT OF IT—World-famed Maurice Chevalier bestows warm congratulations upon his "double" at the Alhambra Theater in Paris, after the "Maurice Chevalier" marionette did an impressive imitation of him in Vittorio Podrecca's "Piccoli" show. The traditional Chevalier smile, straw hat, and tape-recorded voice helped the little fellow to do the take-off.

FOR MONACO'S HEIR—An exquisite piece of expert handcraft is this crib which will hold the child of Princess Grace and Prince Rainier III of Monaco. It took craftsmen 300 hours to weave the rattan wickerwork into the boat-shaped cradle. As the fine work must be done by the same hand, the experts worked night and day to complete the job. The inside is covered with quilted satin. Golden-yellow tulle lines the dais, pleated and trimmed with scattered stars, ermine hearts and the Lilies of France embroidered in gold.

A RARE BIRD—Edward A. Edwards, of Greenvale, N. Y., studies the stuffed drake albino mallard which has brought so much attention to him. Edwards shot the pink-eyed all-white bird while hunting on the Port Washington shore of Hempstead Harbor. The drake was stuffed and mounted at once after being identified as an extremely rare specimen.

GALLIC VENUS—Posing prettily if not comfortably, shapely Lilliane Sottane shows off her charms after returning to Paris from London where she reaped laurels as winner in a Miss Venus contest. Born in Venice, but French, 22-year-old Lilliane now works as a magazine cover girl and will eventually try for a movie career.

CUTTHROAT CAPTOR—Pretty Maxine Barnes who tips the scales at a mere 90 pounds seems to have a bit of trouble hefting a big 16-pound trout brought to her caught in Nevada's Walker Lake. The fish put up a 45-minute fight after she'd hooked it, but since it's the largest catch thus far of the season, Maxine's efforts were amply compensated for.

SAARLAND RETURN MARKED—Postal authorities in Saarbruecken have issued this colorful postcard on the occasion of the political return of the Saarland to West Germany. The card bears a special stamp issued by the Federal German Post, featuring the Saarland coat of arms.

SPRING FROSTING—Cotton knit takes a smart step forward for spring as Smartee tailors a snappy two-piece for campus and office wear. The pencil-slim skirt and blouse on top are "frosted" with a big, convertible collar that can be worn high or low to suit the wearer.

Five Records Shattered As Devil Swimmers Win

Grosse Pointe's six graduating seniors bowed out in a blaze of glory last Friday, January 11, as they paced the undefeated Blue Devil swim team to a 70-26 rout of Wyandotte in their last home meet which saw no less than five records tumble.

An overflow partisan crowd was on hand to cheer the efforts of Eddie Pongracz, Bob "Torpedo" Gale, Mike "Moose" Collins, John "Submarine" Bennett and Dan Bauer. Each of these boys either won individual victories or swam on winning relay teams.

Pongracz Big Star

Pacing the seniors' titanic effort was Eddie Pongracz who established a new school record in the 200 yard free style event and shared in the record breaking performance of the 160 yard medley relay which included senior John Bennett, Les Cutler and Harry Huffaker.

Pongracz lowered the 200 yard mark by one and two tenths seconds to erase Robin Hesse's school mark of 2:03.6 set in 1952. Ed missed the pool record of 2:02.1 set by Bill Black of Fordson in 1953.

The medley relay team lowered its own school and pool record which it established against Birmingham in the first meet of the season with a blazing 1:24.8, to clip nearly two seconds off the old mark of 1:25.7.

Huffaker Sets Record

Harry Huffaker, a senior who will not graduate until June, thrilled the crowd with the best individual performance of the day when he posted a new school and pool record in the 100 yard free style. His new mark of 53.3 broke Robin Hesse's five year old 54.0 records. Huffaker also was a member of the record breaking medley relay team.

Prior to the start of the meet Coach Alex Canja paid high tribute to his graduating seniors after they were introduced at the pool's edge. He also paid tribute to Athletic Director Frank Banach, the Devils' former coach, for developing the boys into championship caliber.

Each graduating senior had his chance to post a win in his last home meet and that is just what they did. Tom Ketzler, who has been swimming in the shadow of Les Cutler for the past two seasons, won the 100 yard backstroke. His teammate Steve Vandervort placed second to give the Pointers a slam in this event.

Gale Wins His Event
Bob "Torpedo" Gale had his turn in the spotlight for the first time when he led the field in the 100 yard breast stroke and his teammate John Regan took second to slam the event.

Dan Bauer was a member of the winning 160 yard free style relay team with Mike Kroeyer, Bob Wachter and John Nicholson.

Mike Collins made a valiant effort in the 120 yard individual medley but couldn't quite match the pace set by Wyandotte's Dave Duncan, the only double winner of the meet. Mike took

Devil Reserves Still Unbeaten

The Grosse Pointe reserve basketball team kept its record unblemished as it easily outclassed Wyandotte, 55-39, last Friday, January 11, on the Bears' home court. The victory was the twenty-second in a row for the Devils, which includes the undefeated season it posted last year.

Jumping to a 13-8 lead in the first period the Devils rolled merrily on their way to a 33-24 margin at halftime and a 41-32 lead going into the final stanza.

In the first period the Devils' play was a trifle ragged due to the fact their warm-up time was cut short because the bus arrived late. Once the chill left their bones the Pointers displayed a winning brand of basketball.

Jim Kelly paced the Pointers with 21 points for scoring honors and runner-up honors went to Wyandotte's Sheapherd with 14.

The Devils were best from the floor with 25 field goals as compared to Wyandotte's 14 but the Bears had the best average from the foul line making 11 of 23 attempts as compared to the Pointers, who connected only five times in 12 chances.

Grosse Pointe will face its toughest test next Friday when it entertains Highland Park. If the Devils can turn back the Polar Bears at that time they will be stamped as the team to beat and will have the inside track to repeat as unofficial reserve champions of the league. The BCL doesn't name a reserve champion, officially.

Gifts and grants of $314,090.08 were accepted for Michigan State University by the State Board of Agriculture at its December meeting. The funds are designated for research, scholarship and instructional programs at the university.

Devil Swimmers Post Five New Marks

The efforts of this quartet in the Wyandotte meet, Friday, January 11, netted five new Grosse Pointe school and pool records. The medley relay team of, from left, EDDIE PONGRACZ, HARRY HUFFAKER, LES CUTLER and JOHN BENNETT established a new school and pool record of 1:24.8. Pongracz broke the school record in the 200 yard free style event with a blazing 2:02.4 and Huffaker broke the school and pool mark in the 100 yard freestyle by seven tenths of a second. His time was 53.3.

St. Paul Five Takes Pair

The St. Paul Lakers continued undefeated when they clobbered two league foes last week to remain at the top of the East Side Parochial League standings.

On Tuesday, January 8, the Lakers established a new school scoring record when they tumbled St. Rose, 76-43, in the latter's gym. The previous record was the 73-48 route of St. Bernard earlier in the season.

A bit of the luster was rubbed off the Lakers' record breaking performance by Joe Noll, who paced the losers with a dazzling 29 point scoring spree.

The Lakers' scoring was evenly distributed with Bill Vermuelen collecting 16 points and Terry Hutton caging 15.

The Lakers collected their fifth consecutive win on Friday, January 11, when they tripped St. Phillip, 53-37, on the latter's court. Currently, the Lakers share top honors with St. Thomas.

In the St. Phillip game both teams were keyed to fever pitch and the first three quarters saw a nip and tuck battle. In the final quarter the Lakers went on a scoring binge to provide the winning margin.

In part the victory was a revenge for the costly football defeat the Lakers suffered at the hands of St. Phillip. That defeat cost St. Paul a chance for the grid title.

Gary Anderson and Danny Sheridan shared scoring honors with 14 points each. Bob Limback paced the losers with 10 points.

Club Girl Teams Launch Season

The Neighborhood Club Girls Basketball League opened its season last Thursday, January 10, with four of the five teams seeing action.

In the first game the Ramblers defeated the Dribblers 39-13 and in the second game Metro beat the Selfridge Wats, 34-18.

Games on Thursday, January 17, will see the Lakers playing Metro at 7:45 p.m.

Wyandotte Pulls Surprise By Conquering Devil Five

Grosse Pointe's twice beaten Blue Devil cage team ran into a buzz saw last Friday, January 11, and came out second best in its Border Cities League game with Wyandotte on the Bears' home court.

The Devils went into the game a top-heavy favorite and tied for second place with Fordson in the BCL cage race. Wyandotte, losers of their first three league games, held down the cellar spot and appeared to be destined to finish the season there.

At the outset the Blue Devils took charge and moved to a 15-13 lead at the end of the first quarter. They held a 31-22 margin at halftime. In the third period the Devils padded their already comfortable margin to take a 45-36 lead going into the final period.

Roof Falls In

At this point the roof fell in as Wyandotte successfully employed a pressing defense which thoroughly befuddled the somewhat complacent Pointers. Before the Devils had figured out how to cope with the Bears' new style of play they found themselves in a 53-53 tie with 16 seconds remaining.

Points followers thought their team got a bad call when the referee called "palming the ball" on Tommy Woodruff as he brought the ball down the floor. This gave the ball to Wyandotte and Gary Felty dumped in what proved to be the winning basket with a jump shot, near the foul line, to give Wyandotte a 55-53 lead with 8 seconds remaining.

Two Heart Breaking Shots
Seconds later guard Ronnie Fine was fouled as he brought the ball down the court. At this point Coach Howard MacAdam inserted 6 feet 3 inch Todd Price to give the Devils a chance at the rebound if the foul was missed. Fine's shot rimmed the basket and Price tapped the ball but it rolled around the rim and dropped to the floor as the final buzzer sounded, ending the game and the Pointers' chance to remain tied for second place.

Selty captured scoring honors with 15 points and Mark Murphy paced the Devils with 14 points to tie for runner-up honors with Wyandotte's Gulyas.

From the floor the Devils out-shot their rival, 23-19, but Wyandotte had the better of it from the foul line, making 17 of 22 as compared to the Pointers' 7 for 13 tries.

Highland Park Wins
On that same night Highland Park easily defeated Royal Oak, 68-43, and Fordson took over sole possession of second place by downing Monroe, 63-44.

Grosse Pointe will have a chance to redeem itself when it meets undefeated Highland Park on the local court next Friday, January 18. The Devils haven't tasted victory over a Highland Park team in something like 18 games and they are hungry to halt the longest winning streak any team has ever held over a Point team in history.

Win Eight Events
 Grosse Pointe won 6 of 8 individual events and both relays and five of the individual events were slams for the Devils. Both relays were runaways.

The seniors will wear the blue and gold of Grosse Pointe in one more meet, Highland Park, January 18, before graduating. The loss of these six boys will jeopardize the Blue Devils' winning streak which has stretched to seven.

The meet was also the last home meet for senior student manager Roland Austin who has served so well for the past three years. Roland had the honor of scoring the meet and assisting Athletic Director Frank Banach who introduced the events and the swimmers.

Our own folk are the most versatile people with all sorts of interesting hobbies to their credit, sidelines that bring in the shekels, too. Piquant six-year-old K. C. WITHERELL, daughter of the WILLIAM R. WITHER-ELLS, of Roosevelt place, is one such clever tot. Blond K. C., with the swinging pig tails can be viewed most any station break on TV caroling a message for a local insurance company.

And there is equestrienne JUDY OLLISON, daughter of the junior FREDERICK OLLISONS, of Provencal road, who can be spied jumping her favorite hunter on a nightly sportscast.

PILFERINGS

It's a funny world. If a man gets money, he's a grafter. If he keeps it, he's a capitalist. If he spends it he's a play-boy. If he doesn't get it, he's a ne'er-do-well. If he doesn't try to get it, he lacks ambition. If he gets it without working for it he's a parasite. And if he wishes to abolish it he's a communist.

An alienist, while going through the insane asylum came upon a man sitting in a brown study on a bench. "How do you do, sir," said the alienist kindly. "What is your name may I ask?"

"My name?" said the other, frowning fiercely. "Why King George, of course."

"Indeed!" replied the alienist. "But the last time I was here you were Theodore Roosevelt."

"Yes, of course," answered the other quickly. "But that was by my first wife."

I'd rather be a Could Be
If I could not be an Are;
For a Could Be is a May Be,
With a chance of touching par.
I'd rather be a Has Been
Then a Might Have Been, by far;
For a Might Have Been has never been.
But a Has was once an Are.

FRANK R. CADIEUX, OF MUIR ROAD

—Picture by Fred Runnells

It is difficult to imagine Grosse Pointe as a series of farmland, owned by three or four families and a good two hours from Woodward avenue by horse and buggy.

But that is the Pointe of fifty years ago that Frank Cadieux remembers. He was born in the family homestead on the lake at the foot of Cadieux. The house, a frame colonial, still stands on St. Clair and St. Paul avenues. The property owned by his grandfather extended from the lake to Harper avenue with wheat, oats, hay and corn the money crops.

He can recall when his grandfather ran a trading post on his farm for the Indians, who paddled down the river and lake from Algonac with their furs to exchange for groceries. The district school house was a one room brick building at Jefferson and Beaconsfield, which he attended with his neighbors, the children of Ferdinand and Lois Rivard, who owned the 400 acre farm next door.

First Residents

Mr. Cadieux, whose ancestors were one of the first French families in the area, celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday last month, in his trim, modern brick ranch house in Muir road, where he lives with Mrs. Cadieux.

The couple, very spry and hearty, lead an active life. Mr. Cadieux still drives a car, (he has never had a ticket in 50 years of motoring), and Mrs. Cadieux is a clever seamstress. They live alone, their four children scattered to the four corners of the country. They have three great grandchildren and one daughter who lives nearby in Birmingham.

When Mr. Cadieux graduated from school he took the horse cars to Detroit to business college and then by horse and buggy commuted to his first job, as a bookkeeper for a farm implement dealer in Gratiot avenue.

He recalls the first great mansions along the lakeshore, built originally as summer homes. Alfred E. Brush pioneered the move to make Grosse Pointe a summer resort, and he was swiftly followed by W. K. Muir, George Lothrop, Alexander Lewis, the Newberrys and the McMillans.

Missionary Church. Where the High School now stands, the old Fisher farm was a landmark, the St. Paul's church was of white frame with an old fashioned belfry. Father DeBrugh, first pastor was a missionary with three or four other churches in the district.

and the flavor of living was more stately and quiet. Mrs. Cadieux longs for one of those old farmhouses, even with that pioneer equipment, in which she had room to "rattle around."

A vibrant and zesty pair, they make the Pointe's color yesterday which is often forgotten in the hurry of today's progress, live excitingly again.

His own part in the developing of the Pointe is an impressive one. He operated the first bus franchise (in those days horse powered), was postmaster of Grosse Pointe Township at 21, served as treasurer, assessor, council member and president of the Village, which is now the City.

He and his wife, the former Elizabeth Spies, of Cheboygan, lived for many years in that lovely white frame house on the corner of Jefferson and Notre Dame, which they say is over a hundred years old, one of the oldest residences in the Pointe.

General Store

Our teeming shopping centers were far in the future and the couple bought their groceries at the first general store at Kercheval and Notre Dame. The broad thoroughfare wasn't paved then; the road we know as Kercheval was laid in 1916. Two years later the horse drawn streetcars deposited their passengers along Jefferson.

Mr. Cadieux spent his spare time, when he wasn't officiating as a Pointe officer, ice boat building and racing. There are some impressive silver cups in his home testifying to his skill. The couple are proud of their part in furthering the Pointe's growth, but admit they sometimes sigh for the old days when everyone knew his neighbor, whether all government employees should be covered by a security program, and whether the same standard of "security suitability" be required for all employees, regardless of position. They will consider whether or not the Attorney General's list of "subversive" organizations is an essential part of the security program, and if so, how it should be used. They will try to decide what factors they would consider most important in deciding a person is a "security risk"; and to what extent they would take into consideration a person's beliefs and associations.

Voters League Planning Study

Putting themselves in the place of an agency head, faced with making a final decision in a difficult security case, they will ask themselves, "Should he weigh his decision in favor of the individual or the government?"

Mrs. Thomas extends an open invitation to any member of the community who would be interested in the discussion of the government's loyalty-security programs to attend any of the following Unit meetings of the League:

Monday morning, January 21, from 10-12 a.m. at the home of Mrs. Harcourt Caverly, 1173 Audubon. The discussion leaders will be Mrs. Joseph Thompson and Mrs. James Graves.

On Tuesday, January 22, there will be two meetings: from 1-3 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Donald Jennings, 1131 N. Oxford, with Mrs. Earl Fatzner and Mrs. William Elmer leading the discussion; and from 8-10 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Joseph Thompson, 54 Radnor circle. Mrs. James Graves and Mrs. Thompson will lead the discussion.

Mrs. Alden Thomas and Mrs. Willard Sollenberger will lead the discussion from 8-10 p.m. the meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. George Wilson, 278 Lothrop, with Mrs. Earl Fatzner and Mrs. William Elmer as discussion leaders.

New ideas sparked the growth of the D. J. Healy Company. Its seventy fifth anniversary year is, naturally, a new idea, for you idea—custom tailored necklaces of cultured pearls. The jewels, imported from Japan, are selected by Healy's for quality and color. Each store will carry both raw hanks, one hundred strands of raffia strung pearls, and finished pieces. In the village, Miss Gladys Gore, will guide you in choosing the color tone, pink, beige or white, most flattering to your complexion. She will help you determine your measurement preference in a one, two or three strand necklace. Each finished product will be fastened with a traditional fourteen karat white gold clasp. The service will be swift, three days, but the pleasure in your treasure will last forever.

What keeps a Tibetan goat warm in the winter? His coat, of course, and that's cashmere. S. Stein & Company in the village has captured a few jackets of one hundred percent cashmere in the natural shade. Tailored with button closings and a slim look.

How about a mid-winter lift? Margaret Rice on the bill has suggestions in pastels, woven in wool in a novel design. They have jewelry necklines, brief cap sleeves, a saucy bodice bow and are glossed here and there with satin binding.

A skier knows what a skier wants. That's one of the reasons that excellent ski gear is headquarterd at the Village Store on the hill. Stags owner, Julie Higbie lent her experienced eye to choosing: sweaters, imported and domestic; pants, gabardine and nylon elastic; parkas, mitts and caps, all in tested color and style varieties.

The business of being beautiful calls for experts. The Virginia Farrell Academy, one of the tops in the field, produces experts. As easy as blinking—The Camera Center in the village solves picture lighting with the Heiland Strobosar Flash. It gives one hundred flashes from eighty cents worth of batteries or is can be operated on ordinary household current. Furthermore, you need carry no bulbs because the flash bulb lasts a lifetime.

Handsome furs with humble prices can be found at Walton Pierce in the village. Joyful finds are available in pocket stoles, jackets, evening capelets and full length coats. These temptations are fashioned of mink, pastel, silver blue and white; persian lamb, sheared fitch and Alaskan seal.

Two Winter antidotes: Estee Lauder's Hand and Arm Balm, extra rich and non greasy, dives into the pores driving away the dry skin blues. Mary Chess' Cream, Body Massage gives an all over treatment at a special price—three dollars down to one... both available at Trail Pharmacy on the hill.

Date to Circle: Saturday, January 26, 2:30 p.m., Grosse Pointe High School Auditorium when the curtain will rise on "The Secret of the Jade Goddess," a children's play jointly presented by the Junior League of Detroit, the Theater Arts Department of the Detroit Institute of Arts and the Detroit News.
